SEMINAR: Fr. Jules Toner, S.J., returns to discuss the ethical nature of Roman Catholicism at the fourth meeting of the Seminar in Basic Contemporary Theologies.

LECTURE: Mr. Irving Bluestone of the UAW staff will speak on "Current Trends in the Labor Movement" at 2 p.m., Wednesday, March 15 in Room 170 South Foundation Hall. He will address Mrs. Collins' Industrial Sociology class. Interested faculty and students are invited.

A N N O U N C E M E N T S

ADMINISTRATIVE GROUP: The regular meeting has been canceled this week because Mr. Varner will be out of town.

SPEAKERS: Mr. Shapiro will address the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church, Pontiac, on Wednesday. Mr. Eklund spoke to the Pontiac Lake Schools PTA last Thursday and will speak to the West Bloomfield High School PTA March 16.

FACULTY WOMEN'S CLUB: The notice concerning the March 21 Faculty Women's Club meeting and luncheon to be held at 1:30 at the Sylvan Glen Restaurant should have read, "The cost of the buffet luncheon is $1.97 for your meal, coffee, tip and tax, or you may order from the menu". Bridge after lunch, if you desire. Please call Mrs. Hetenyi, OL. 1-8496, or Mrs. O'Dowd, OL. 1-6543, before March 17 to secure a reservation, or for information.

SPECIAL COURSE: The Association of Women Students will sponsor a Red Cross Course in Child Care and Home Nursing. The instructor will be Miss Marjory Gaunt, Director of Nursing Services of the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross. She is a graduate of Providence Hospital and Mercy College. The course will include lectures, demonstrations and movies.

TEACHER EDUCATION: A convocation of all students planning teaching careers will be held April 11 and will deal with the opportunities and difficulties in various areas of public education. It will include talks by four authorities in the field, Mr. Hetenyi announces. The speakers and their topics are:

George Peterson, assistant director of placement in charge of placement of teacher education graduates, Michigan State University, East Lansing, "Opportunities for Teachers."

Evart Ardis, director, bureau of appointments and occupational information, University of Michigan, "What an Administrator Looks for in Selecting a Teacher."

Philip J. Proud, assistant superintendent of schools for personnel, Pontiac, "What a Teacher Candidate Should Look for in Selecting a School System."

James Covert, superintendent of schools, Royal Oak, "Pitfalls in Preparing for a Teaching Career."

The talks will begin at 4 p.m. in room 159 North Foundation Hall and will be followed by a coffee hour at which students will be able to ask the speakers questions and have informal discussions. Members of the Teacher Education Association will serve as hosts.

REMINDER TO FACULTY AND STAFF: Material for Staff Bulletin should be typed--double-spaced, or handwritten legibly, and in by Wednesday noon. Thank you for your cooperation.
