Barry Claims LBJ Trying to Divide U.S.

Republican Hopeful Blasts Democrats at North Carolina Rally

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater today labeled President Johnson's plan for an attack on poverty "an attempt to divide Americans."

He said it echoes the program of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, which "divided the people up, pigeonholed them.

"If anybody has done anything to put people against people in this country, it's been the Democratic party over the last 30 years," said the Arizona senator, campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination.

Johnson has outlined a program that would cost about a billion dollars over the next three years to fight poverty by aiding stricken areas and individuals.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater told a news conference "I think it's a political gimmick. This is again an attempt to divide Americans.

PUT TO WORK

"How do you attack?" asked Goldwater, "Put people to work. The Democratic party has not put people to work.

"I don't believe we have a Democrat in the adminnistration who really understands the operation of the free enterprise system," he said.

Goldwater flew in from Kinston to address Republican leaders at a $100-a-plate breakfast.

LBJ Seeks Feminine Touch

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has told his all-male Cabinet the government is not using the brainpower of American women to the extent it should.

"The day is over when top jobs are reserved for men," the President said yesterday during a 25-minute discussion on the status of women.

He sent the Cabinet members back to their departments to look into the situation.

★ ★ ★

Johnson had called in Undersecretary of Labor Esther Peterson, a member of his status of women commission, and Elizabeth Carpenter, press secretary to Mrs. Johnson, to report on women in government.

SKILL BANK

Mrs. Peterson said she told the Cabinet: "There is a skill bank in the country from which there have not been sufficient withdrawals — skills of many educated and trained American women."

Later she told newsmen her briefing and appeal for more women in top posts "fell on very, very receptive ears."

Johnson was "forthright and forceful in his request that more women be brought into high level posts," Mrs. Peterson said.

★ ★ ★

"The President said it was important especially when the government is trying to improve the caliber of its policy-making people and is looking for persons with ideas, imagination and durability."

ADVANCE ON MERIT

Mrs. Peterson said habit and tradition in federal service had resulted in men only in upper bracket jobs until Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy recently issued a directive for advancement on merit, without regard to sex.

She said the Cabinet heard a report of a study made by Civil Service Commissioner John W. Macy Jr., which indicated a resistance among men to the idea of putting women in supervisory posts.

The study showed, however, that men who had been in jobs with women supervisors no longer judged advancement on the question of whether the person was a man or woman, but rather on merit.

★ ★ ★

Some of the Cabinet members told Johnson that they were already putting women in many posts.

U.N. DELEGATION

Secretary of State Dean Rusk pointed to three women members of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations — Jane W. Dick of St. Louis, a memebr of the social commission; Gladys A. Tillett of Charlotte, N.C., a member of the commission on the status of women, and Marietta P. Tree of New York City, member of the commission on human rights.

Recently, Johnson named Mrs. Peterson as special adviser to him on consumer matters.

Nikita Sides With Panama in Canal Rift

Embassy Staff Out Before Students Hold Anti-U. S. Protest

PANAMA (AP) — Most U. S. Embassy personnel were housed safely in the Canal Zone today after Panama took the final step in severing diplomatic relations with the United States.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev threw Soviet support behind the Panamanians and denounced U.S. action in the Canal Zone.

Most U.S. Embassy staff members and their dependents were evacuated to the Canal Zone last night, shortly before an anti-American students' demonstration and several hours after Panama said it was recalling the remainder of its diplomatic staff from Washington.

Panama asked the United States to recall its embassy staff from Panama City, but a U.S. State Department official said the request did not apply to consular officials, Peace Corps volunteers or members of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

★ ★ ★

Because of the exceptions, the United States does not regard the break as final. U.S. officials also indicated that President Johnson's troubleshooter, Edwin M. Martin, planned to remain in Panama.

WILL CONTINUE

Peace efforts are expected to continue in an effort to loosen a deadlock between the two countries over a 1903 treaty that gave the United States perpetual control over the Panama Canal.

The Panamanian government asked Costa Rica to handle Panamanian interests in the United States. Costa Rica also will handle diplomatic matters for the United States in Panama.

A skeleton staff of seven men headed by the senior consular official, Henry Taylor, remained in Panama City to man the embassy and handle consular affairs. Taylor will assume the office of U.S. consul general.

★ ★ ★

ABSOLVES CASTRO

"It was not Comrade Castro who organized the events in Panama," Khrushchev said. "These events are a result of the predatory policy of United States imperialists in Panama."

"We do not know what part the Communists took in these events, but we firmly know that the people of Panama, the working people of Panama, are fighting for the freedom of their country.

"They want to get rid of the oppression of the United States imperialists. This is a legitimate desire and we side with the people of Panama.

★ ★ ★

"We are convinced that sooner or later the people of all countries will gain genuine freedom and independence and expel the imperialists from their territories. This is why we say: "Display some reason, gentlemen. Get out before it is too late, before you are chucked out."

Romney Faces Busy Week

Includes 6 Speeches, Trip to Washington

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney returns from Utah today facing one of his busiest weekly schedules since his grass - roots campaign to sell fiscal reform to the public across Michigan.

The schedule will carry him to Traverse City, Ionia and Washington, D. C.

Related story, Page 6

It includes six addresses to public gatherings, four visits to state institutions or offices, three major conferences on state matters, a reception and a dance.

★ ★ ★

After a morning of Capitol routine Monday, Romney goes to Traverse City for an afternoon of official visits to institutions — Northwestern Michigan University and State Hospital—and an evening of politics.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Tuesday will be filled with an official visit to state offices in Lansing, a meeting of the State Administrative Board, and a welcoming address to the convention of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors.

Romney attends a meeting on cigarette smoking Wednesday in Lansing before leaving for Ionia, where he will visit the reformatory and address the Ionia Chamber of Commerce.

Thursday he will attend to state business in the morning in Washington, where he will address the Michigan Regional Foundry conference.

Mackie Announces: I'll Be a Candidate

LANSING (AP) — Highway Commissioner John Mackie said yesterday he will be a candidate in the Democratic primary this year and that he will decide "in two or three weeks" whether it will be for Congress or governor.

If he chooses Congress, he said, he would seek to represent the new 7th District, which includes Genesee County — where he lived before his 1957 election as highway commissioner — and Shiawassee and Lapeer Counties.

Mackie now lives on a farm south of Lansing near Holt in Ingham County.

Previously the question of a federal appointment had clouded the issue of whether Mackie would be a state candidate, but he said yesterday that the rumored proposed appointment now is 'out of the picture."

Meanwhile, a former state representative, now working for a unit of local government, declared that Mackie has a guarantee from a group of highway contractors that they would underwrite his campaign if he decides to run for governor.

★ ★ ★

"They want him to run for governor," said the informant, who asked that his name not be used because "it might cost me my job."

MORE FUNDS

"They want Mackie to run against Romney and fight for them for more highway funds. They have advised him to hold off his announcement for at at least a month, hoping someone else will jump in meanwhile."

Mild Temperatures Due in City Area

Wintry winds may blow in other sections of the country, but the weatherman said Pontiac area residents will continue to have mild temperatures through tomorrow.

Fair with a low of 24 is tonight's forecast.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy with the high aiming for a mild 38. The outlook for Monday is increasing cloudiness and not much change in temperature with a chance of rain or snow by afternoon or evening.

★ ★ ★

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 25. By 2 p.m. the reading was 40.

'Sleep, Sleep . . . You're Going to Quit Smoking'

COPENHAGEN (AP) — The state - owned Danish radio put a hypnotist on the air last night to try to stop people smoking.

This is what listeners heard:

"You won't smoke . . . You are not a slave of tobacco . . . You feel completely indifferent to tobacco . . . You have no yearning for tobacco . . . Your will is stronger . . ."

"Now go to bed . . . when you wake up in the morning, you will feel comfortable, your energy will be increased, your nervous system will be relaxed, purified of the poisons, there will be no more restlessness.

"You will feel tobacco has been removed from your life; You will not think of it; You won't want it.

"If you smoke tomorrow, you will feel the poisons entering your body, your whole organism will react, you will feel dizzy, feel like vomiting, your stomach will contract painfully, your heart will pound.

"But you won't smoke, you are not a slave."

Next Step: U.S. Approval

County OKs 1st Children's Village Plan

Final plans for initial units of a proposed Children's Village for Juvenile Court wards were approved yesterday by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The plans must now be forwarded to the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the federal government for further approval.

The federal government has pledged a grant under the Accelerated Public Works Act for half of the estimated $646,000 construction costs.

★ ★ ★

OVERCROWDED

The first three units are intended to solve overcrowded conditions at the county's existing youth facilities, and to enable more individual care and treatment, especially of emotionally disturbed youngsters.

Two youth cottages and a special service unit are proposed for immediate construction. They would be completed sometime in December.

Construction of the entire village is expected to take several years.

Ultimately it will provide campus - like quarters and educational facilities for all facilities for all youngsters placed in the county's care.

The plans are being prepared by the Pontiac architectural firm of Harry M. Denyes Jr Associates, Inc.

President Plans 'Live' News Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, promising to open some of his news conferences to live radio and television coverage, has invited newsmen in the industry to suggest ways for more effective use of the medium.

★ ★ ★

An exchange of correspondence on the subject was made public with White House approval today by Edward F. Ryan, president of the Radio Television News Directors Association.

★ ★ ★

Johnson has held no formal news conference in Washington since taking office last Nov. 22, but has met informally with newsmen a number of times both here and at this Texas ranch, where he spent the Christmas holidays. These sessions have not been broadcast.

★ ★ ★

Ryan wrote the President that "We feel the ideal arrangement would be for all of the presidential news conferences to be made available for live broadcast coverage," and urged Johnson to "make the fullest possible use" of the medium.

JOHNSON'S REPLY

Johnson replied in a Jan. 6 letter saying:

"You may be sure that we will make full use of television in the months ahead, and television will be permitted to cover some of our press conferences.

★ ★ ★

"We would be most interested," he continued, "in any suggestions you have in making more effective use of television and radio."

Kennedy Sees SE Asia Talks

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy predicted today that the disputants in the Malaysian crisis will gather around the conference table to settle their differences.

Kennedy, President Johnson's peacemaker in the dispute, wound up an initial round of talks with Indonesia's President Sukarno, Malaysia's principal opponent.

At a news conference, Kennedy said he will confer again with Sukarno in Jakarta next Wednesday after an exchange of views with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines in Manila and Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur.

Kennedy, appearing with Indonesia's Foreign Minister Subandrio, said an Asian summit meeting of Malaysia, Indonesia and the Philippines is very possible.

OPPOSES FEDERATION

The Philippines, which claims the Malaysian state of Sabah—formerly British North Borneo—also opposes the new federation, but less vehemently than Indonesia.

Sukarno regards Malaysia as a form of British neocolonialism.

Kennedy said he was encouraged by his conversations with Sukarno during the past two days.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy, accompanied by his wife, Ethel, is on his first major diplomatic assignment for Johnson.

TO SOUTH KOREA

The Kennedys left this afternoon for South Korea to visit some of the 50,000 U. S. troops stationed there.

The attorney general also will call on President Chung Hee Park before leaving for Manila tomorrow.

On Tuesday he will fly to the Malaysian capital of Kuala Lumpur.

It is assumed Kennedy will go on to London after his second meeting with Sukarno for talks on the crisis with Britain's Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home.

CHIEF FORCE

Britain was the chief force behind the creation of Malaysia last September.

It is composed of the former British territories of Singapore, Malaya, Sarawak and North Borneo.

Fear Cong Kills 2 GIs

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communists shot down a U. S. Army escort helicopter in the Mekong Delta battle today and two American servicemen and a British colonel aboard it were reported missing and feared dead.

★ ★ ★

The helicopter, a rocket-firing UH1A, was downed near the mouth of the Mekong River.

It was believed to have been hit in the tail rotor.

★ ★ ★

Two crewmen were fished out of the water near the crash site.

NOT HURT

They apparently were not hurt.

Five U. S. helicopter crewmen were killed and three wounded yesterday in operations supporting a Vietnamese government campaign to crush Red bases in the delta.

The Briton was identified as a wing commander named Lee, a member of the Royal Air Force, who is attached to a combat development test center in Thailand.

Though witnesses saw five persons floundering in the water after the stricken ship fell into the sea about a mile offshore, only two were afloat when other helicopters darted to the rescue. They were the copilot and a gunner.

ASK FOR BLOOD

Calls for blood donors were broadcast by the U. S. armed forces radio station as casualties were flown northward to Saigon from the delta.

The U. S. fatalities yesterday raised to 173 the number of Americans dead from all causes in Viet Nam in the last two years.

Combat deaths totaled 99.

★ ★ ★

The cruiser Providence, flagship of the U. S. 7th Fleet, eased up the Saigon River on a good will visit.

AIR COVER

B26 fighter-bombers provided air cover.

Aboard ship two giant Terrier missiles were at the ready and marines at battle stations, alert for trouble from Communist guerrillas.

With the 7th Fleet commander, Vice Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, was U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who boarded the 10,670-ton warship by helicopter.

★ ★ ★

The ship was a pointed reminder of the power the United States could throw into Viet Nam's civil war if Red Chinese or North Vietnamese forces decided to move in strength.

CONFERENCE

During the cruise up the river from the South China Sea, Moorer conferred for two hours with Lodge.

Shore batteries fired a 21-gun salute as the Providence docked on Saigon's busy waterfront for a three-day stay.

The ship's band planned to play for groups in the city.

★ ★ ★

A fleet spokesman told newsmen that 24,000 battle ready Marines are based with the fleet for fast delivery to trouble spots in Southeast Asia if needed.

RECOVER BODIES

Bodies of four Americans and one Vietnamese killed yesterday in the explosion of a helicopter that was attacking Communist foxholes were recovered today.

The other American killed was a U.S. Army Private First Class, door gunner on an H21 troop-carrier which was structurally undamaged.

Airborne Vietnamese troops moved into Saigon today to "secure weak parts of the city" and an order was issued banning further student demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

ANTI-FRENCH

Most of the demonstrations have been anti-French and anti-neutralist in tone.

Maj. Gen. Ton That Dinh, the interior minister, personally broke up such a demonstration last evening as students gathered around the French cultural mission.

Dinh told the students the government sympathized with their antineutralist views but asked them to disperse.

★ ★ ★

Today's communique declared that student demonstrations "are no longer necessary" and that the government "anticipated all appropriate measures to cope immediately with any maneuvers towards neutralization of South Viet Nam."

Kennedy Sees Asia Talks

withdrawal of British troops from the tense Sabah and Sarawak frontiers before it agrees to a cease-fire in the guerrilla skirmishes there or peace talks with Malaysia.

Sabah and Sarawak share the island of Borneo with Indonesian Kalimantan.

GOOD HUMOR

Appearing refreshed and in good humor, Kennedy said the purpose of his trip is to "try to take this controversy out of the jungle, out of the warfare presently taking place and put it around the conference table."

In Manila, Kennedy will visit the famed World War II fortress of Corregidor in Manila Bay.

Before leaving for South Korea, Kennedy revisited Tokyo's Waseda University, where he was heckled two years ago, and was greeted by thunderous applause from thousands of students.

★ ★ ★

Leftists posted two anti-American placards in front of the hall where the attorney general spoke, but they were unable to muster a real demonstration, such as marked his previous tour of Japan.

'TEAR IT UP'

When Kennedy took the rostrum, four students in the front row of the balcony unrolled a paper sign reading in English, "Return Okinawa to Us."

Angry shouts of "tear it up" erupted from the audience and student guards wrested the sign from the demonstrators.

After the brief flurry, Kennedy smiled and said, "Now I remember how it was when I was here two years ago."

★ ★ ★

The audience burst into laughter.

Polio Vaccine Goes to Kalamazoo Area

The Kalamazoo County Academy of Medicine, sponsor of the clinic program, said it has enough vaccine for 200,000 people.

Baker Probe Will Tell of LBJ Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators looking into the business dealings of former Senate aide Robert G. Baker plan to release early next week secret testimony on a $200,000 insurance policy issued on President Johnson's life.

The information includes testimony by Don B. Reynolds, Washington and Silver Spring, Md., insurance agent who issued the policy, and a sworn statement by someone else—"not the President" — who knows the facts, Chairman B. Everett Jordan of the Rules Committee said Friday.

NOTHING WRONG

The North Carolina Democrat reiterated that "there is nothing wrong" involved in the issuance of the policy by Reynolds' insurance firm, which once listed Baker as a vice president.

The committee is trying to learn if Baker, who quit under fire as Secretary to Senate Democrats on Oct. 7, or any other Senate employe was involved in conflicts of interest.

Jordan also said that Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., had voluntarily submitted a statement about his sale to Baker of a share in a Florida land venture.

Jordan said the statement showed nothing wrong with the sale. He said that no senators would be called to testify, because "there has been no senator implicated in anything."

New Republic of Zanzibar Sends Greetings to Nikita

ZANZIBAR (AP) — The revolutionary regime today renamed this East African spice island "The People's Republic of Zanzibar," and its strong man sent personal greetings to Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Field Marshal John Okello relayed the greetings at a news conference at which a correspondent of Pravda, the official Communist party paper in the Soviet Union, was present.

Okello, who announced his title and strong man role after last Sunday's revolution, said he agreed with Khrushchev that capitalism, colonialism and imperialism should be buried.

★ ★ ★

"The grave is ready for them," he added.

The president of Zanzibar is Abeid Karume, who has received a message from Khrushchev expressing hope for good relations between Zanzibar and the Soviet Union, and wishing the people of Zanzibar "success in strengthening national independence and also progress and well being."

Okello also sent greetings to the Russian people.

The Soviet Union has joined other Communist and African nations in recognizing the new government. The United States and Britain and other Western nations have not done so thus far.

NO EXPLANATION

There was no explanation of whether the Communist-styled name for the Zanzibar regime meant that the revolutionary leaders intended to set up a government on the Communist pattern. Dispatches from Zanzibar are subject to censorship.

Prior to Okello's news conference a government spokesman announced that the "people's revolution" is victorious, and that "freedom fighters" who overturned the old regime had been ordered to surrender their arms. The spokesman wore a bright blue cap which he said was one of six brought back to Zanzibar by its new foreign minister from a visit in Peking.

The spokesman said that no trouble is being encountered in collecting the arms. When all are handed in, he added, a new army will be formed under the command of Okello.

The spokesman said 130 Tanganyika police will be on duty shortly to help maintain order.

He added that the rebel headquarters set up in the Zanzibar radio station is being disbanded and that the island is returning to normal government administration.

Board Okays Aviation Study

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors approved a $10,000 aviation study yesterday.

The study will examine the aviation needs in the county, and whether Pontiac Municipal Airport in Waterford Township, or the county's sod airfield in Orion Township should be developed further.

The board also accepted a $500,000 federal grant offer toward construction of a $7-million water supply system in Waterford Township, and scheduled a vote on annexation in Wolverine Lake Village for April 26.

The villagers will vote on whether to annex 20 vacant acres from Commerce Township at the same time they vote for village officials.

Work on Rules for Hoffa Trial

Teamster Will Face Jury-Tamper Charge

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) —Government and Teamsters Union lawyers confer with U.S. District Court Judge Frank Wilson today to iron out ground rules for Teamsters President James R. Hoffa's trial on jury-tampering charges, which begins Monday.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa said he thinks he can get a fair trial in Chattanooga. He flew here Friday, met briefly with lawyers, then went to Detroit to spend the weekend with his family.

★ ★ ★

He will be back Monday for the trial, which was transferred from Nashville after Hoffa contended he couldn't get a fair trial there because of unfavorable news stories.

★ ★ ★

At the airport Hoffa said, "A man can get a fair trial anytime 12 people sit down who are not saturated with false propaganda." He said the Chattanooga newspapers had been fair in reporting developments here.

HEADQUARTERS

The Teamsters leader plans to set up international union headquarters in Chattanooga during the trial, estimated to last six weeks or more.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa will go on trial with five other men on charges of attempting to influence jurors in Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy case in Nashville.

★ ★ ★

A sixth codefendant, Lawrence Medlin, a Nashville sandwich-shop operator, Friday was granted a separate trial, in Nashville, by the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

Medlin maintained that a trial judge can't order a change of venue without the defendant's request. Medlin's attorney said he had not joined in the request by Hoffa and others for a change of venue.

APPEAL DENIED

The appelate court denied an appeal by Thomas Ewing Parks, who sought a 60-day delay on grounds his lawyer had to be in Chicago for a federal court hearing.

★ ★ ★

The other defendants are still striving for last-minute postponements. They contend that Chattanooga newspapers printed stories prejudicial to their case. Hoffa earlier in the week had used the same argument in his unsuccessful effort to gain a 60-day delay.

★ ★ ★

Also pending in U.S. Dist. Court is a request by Larry Campbell, business agent of the Detroit Teamsters local, to make public immediately a sealed list of 200 prospective jurors chosen for the trial, and to adjourn the trial for .5 days so he can examine the names.

Birmingham Area News

Petitions Are Available for City, Library Posts

BIRMINGHAM — Nominating petitions are now available at the city clerk's office for two seats on the City Commission and two on the library board to be filled in the April 6 election.

The three-year terms of City Commissioners Robert W. Page and Ralph A. Main will expire this year. Neither has indicated plans for the election.

The two terms expiring on the six-member library board are those of Edwin S. Snyder and Arthur J. Underwood Jr. Both are for three years.

★ ★ ★

Deadline for filing the nominating petitions with City Clerk Irene E. Hanley is Feb. 29.

The appointment of Edwin O. George to the first governing board of Northern Michigan University has been announced by Gov. George Romney.

George of 352 Barden, Bloomfield Hills, is vice president of Detroit Edison Co.

He is among seven persons whose appointments to the eight-member board have been announced.

★ ★ ★

SENATE CONFIRMATION

The appointments require Senate confirmation. Romney said the eighth member of the new board of control created by the new constitution will be announced later.

Plans for the new Congregational Church of Birmingham will be presented to the congregation for final approval Monday night.

A model and pictures of the proposed building will be shown. It is to be constructed at Woodward and Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills.

The meeting of church members has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday at the church, 388 N. Woodward.

Hubert V. Davis, Cranbrook School dean of students, is among some 125 secondary school counselors, principals and headmasters attending a Rollins College conference for secondary counselors this weekend.

The college is located in Winter Park, Fla.

HUBERT E. MILLS

Service for Hubert E. Mills, 68, of 1765 Croft will be at 3 p.m. Monday in First Presbyterian Church, Royal Oak. His body is at the William Sullivan & Son Funeral Home.

Mr. Mills, a retired employe of GMC Truck & Coach Division, died yesterday. He was a member of First Presbyterian.

Surviving are two sons, John W. of Royal Oak and James B. of Berkley; five grandchildren; and a brother.

Barry Blasts LBJ's Program

South in his quest for the nomination.

Goldwater also talked about farm programs, civil rights, Johnson's political standing in the South, and cigarette smoking.

He said farm price supports have not worked. About 30 per cent of the nation's farmers "are going out of business" because of them, he said.

Instead, Goldwater called for a program "more along the lines of the Federal Housing Administration type of loan" to help farmers in need.

The senator said he thinks Johnson will "go through" the motions of seeking passage of a civil rights bill, including the public accommodations section, but will compromise in the end.

Goldwater said that provision is unconstitutional and Congress would not pass it.

He forecast Republican gains in the South in next November's election, but said any Republican "who says flatly that he can carry the South is not talking as he should."

Johnson is "not a conservative by any stretch of the imagination," Goldwater said.

He said economic conservatism, not civil rights, is the big issue in the minds of Southern voters.

Goldwater said Congress can't do anything about the government report linking cigarette smoking with cancer and other ailments.

Dem Dinner Set Tonight

The seventh annual Waterford Township Democrat Club dinner will be held beginning at 7:30 tonight at the Waterford Eagles Hall on M59.

The dinner was postponed from early December, following the assassination of President John Kennedy.

Waterford Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin may announce his candidacy for the 19th District Congressional race, it is reported.

Square Dances Bring Joy to Blind

By L. GARY THORNE

While snow and ice coated the outside, inside the gym at Central Elementary School music, laughter and excited talk warmed like a July sun.

Every third Wednesday of the month a square dance, sponsored by a trio of local agencies, is held at the school.

★ ★ ★

However, the dance is unique — there are only two like it in the nation.

60 IN ATTENDANCE

The monthly square dances attract about 60 blind and visually handicapped persons from throughout the Pontiac area.

Despite what might appear to be an obvious drawback, the dances are a success and have been for nearly 14 years.

The sponsoring agencies are the Pontiac Lions Club, the Pontiac League of the Blind and the City Department of Parks and Recreation.

★ ★ ★

LEFT AT CHAIRS

White canes — visible identification of the blind — are left beside chairs once the band (the League combo) and the caller indicate another "set."

A "nearing 75" Ray McDonald of the League of the Blind, hints that the dances are just an excuse to socialize.

He said that last month some people thought the event was not a success because no one danced, but the blind had a grand time "just yakking."

★ ★ ★

"One of these dances is sure a lesson in mental health," commented Jim Petroski, 4151 Motor Way, chairman of this year's dances.

"The attitude of these people is something wonderful," he added.

McDonald pointed out that age does not hold back anyone either. He said at least three regular participants were over 80 years old.

Mrs. Rose Sugg of 180 Edison has been going to the dances for seven years. She serves as a helper for her husband, Walter F., who is blind.

★ ★ ★

"They all look forward to it so much . . . ."

GETTING TOGETHER

Mrs. Sugg added: "People getting together helps, otherwise they would concentrate on their ailment."

Intermission entertainment is furnished by volunteers. Callers and 'Helpers' from area square dance clubs also volunteer their services.

Transportation for the blind people is offered by the Lions Club.

★ ★ ★

McDonald, who is also blind, said attendance has fallen off recently. He remembered dancers used to come from as far away as Detroit to attend the dances.

SIT ALONE

He offered the best justification for the dances, "Blind people sit alone too much."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Verneta Blakemore, of 69 East Boulevard, echoed his sentiments. "It takes up a lot of the time . . . I wouldn't miss one for the world."

DO-SI-DO—Blindness is no hinderance in square dancing. Dances sponsored by the Pontiac Lions Club are presented once a month for the blind and visually handicapped. Blind people are paired off with a partner who can see. Here, Mrs. Irene Palen, 582 Michigan; Paul Kearns of the Lions Club; Mrs. Russell DeLongchamp, a volunteer; and Walter F. Sugg, 180 Edison, swing through a "set." Watching in the background is Al Horen, 733 Cortwright.

Top Traffic Hazard Found: Blind Driver

MADRID (AP) — The Spanish news agency Cifra reported today the ultimate in traffic hazards — a totally blind truck driver.

The report said Eduardo Barcelona of Alicante, sightless for the past year, continued to drive his truck with the assistance of a boy who sat beside him and gave him directions.

Barcelona's driving ended recently when he crashed his truck into the side of a bullring.

Pedestrian Is Killed

DETROIT (AP)— Mrs. Kathariana Wink, 57, of Detroit was hit by a truck and fatally injured Friday as she walked across Eight Mile Road in Detroit. The driver told police he did not see the woman.

WITNESSES NEEDED!

If you witnessed an accident December 19th about noon at Webster School crossing light, involving a child and car, please call Mrs. Burgess at 338-7161 days, or evenings 674-0693.

'Boy Wonder' of High Finance Is Out on Bail

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Earl Belle, former "boy wonder" of high finance, is free in $10,000 bail today after a hearing before U.S. Dist. Court Judge Anthony T. Augelli on charges of conspiracy and misapplication of funds of the defunct Manufacturers Bank of Edgewater, N.J.

★ ★ ★

Belle, formerly of Pittsburgh, also is free in $50,000 bail set by a federal court in Pittsburgh on fraud charges. No date has been set for either trial.

★ ★ ★

Belle returned to this country Dec. 14 after spending five years as a fugitive in Brazil.

Citizenry of Nation Drifts Back to Normal

All of us have passed through an extreme crisis. It appears we have met it head on. Our new President seems to have the good will of the people—and the confidence of the business community.

So far so good.

But it would be foolhardy to expect this popular bipartisanship to continue indefinitely. Also, it is foolish to think that our allies are going to rubber-stamp everything we do.

★ ★ ★

We will be back to normal much sooner than many of our citizens think. The acute sense of idealism that swept the Nation during the tragic death of its President may well become clouded as each of us goes about the task of making a living, bringing up children, meeting competition — and generally trying to be a better citizen.

★ ★ ★

If we think other nations are becoming quite nationalistic, let us look to ourselves. So are we becoming more and more that way. If we are to be leaders—and others still look to Uncle Sam as the leader—we must do a little more self-evaluation.

Nothing in the past two months has eliminated our problems. We still have the deficit in trade. We still have our gold problem. We still have our unbalanced Federal budget. And we still have a certain amount of caution and suspicion among our closest friends and allies.

If we make certain criticisms about the way this or any other Administration does or does not do things, it doesn't indicate lack of love for one's country.

There are many problems to be faced. President JOHNSON is not to have the picnic with Congress many think he will. Dead cats will be in full swing again soon.

South America is unlikely to act like we think she should. Europe will not agree per se to everything we say. Japan will not stop shipping to us—nor, for that matter, stop buying more from us than we buy from her.

★ ★ ★

But we must get on with the world's work. It won't be easy. But we have made a good start.

Another Asian Upset Plagues United States

The simmering political cauldron that is Southeast Asia shows no signs of cooling.

★ ★ ★

In its determination to hold the line against spread of communism in that area, the United States has had to deal with crises in Laos, Thailand and South Viet Nam. Now it is Cambodia that has the State Department lying awake nights. This country is considered by many authorities to be the key to the overlapping mosaic of states posing a threat to democratic aspirations there.

★ ★ ★

It would appear that Prince NORODOM SIHANOUK, Cambodia's chief of state, while not a Communist himself, is being artfully used by Communists. Since he launched toward the close of the year a series of high-voltage speeches against the United States, most of his utterances and actions smack of Peking. Later he canceled all American aid, military and economic.

★ ★ ★

Yet there is some evidence that the Cambodian chief is having some serious second thoughts about his precipitate moves. Sihanouk may belatedly be coming around to the realization that his newly proclaimed international and domestic policies are unpopular among many of his subjects. It is significant that nearly a month after both Washington and Phnom Penh recalled their respective ambassadors for consultation, both remain in place.

LBJ Is Youngest of World Leaders

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, like President Kennedy before him, is the youngest of 11 of the world's most powerful leaders whose average age is 68.

MARLOW

Kennedy, when he was killed in November, was 46. Johnson is 55. But the average age of the 11 leaders would be even higher except for a couple of replacements last October due to advanced age and ill health.

If there's a lesson to be drawn, it is that men in power don't yield it easily except in a country like this where a president is constitutionally limited to two terms.

Last October, West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer retired at 87, after holding office since 1949. In the same month, Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan stepped down after six years of running the British government.

Adenauer, pushed out because of his years, was succeeded by Chancellor Ludwig Erhard who is now almost 67. Sir Alec Douglas-Home, 61, took over as prime minister from Macmillan who quit because of ill health.

Now the world is to witness a tremendous transfer of power, unpredictable in its consequences, when India's Prime Minister Nehru, 74, steps down, as he is expected to because of poor health.

But—aside from Nehru, Adenauer and Macmillan —the other old-timers show no inclination to step aside, although one of them, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has been in one saddle or another since the 1920s.

Antonio Salazar, dictator of Portugal, has held power since 1932. He's 74 and isn't giving up anything, including Portugal's colonial possessions.

Right next door to him is another dictator, Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain. He's 71 and has been running the show since the late 1930s.

On a bigger scale, there are three entrenched bosses of the Communist world: Premier Khrushchev of Russia, 69; Red China's top man, Mao Tze-tung, 70, and Yugoslavia's President Tito, 71.

All three seem to have a death-grip on their jobs. Tito has been in charge since World War II; Khrushchev officially since 1958, although he was the man behind the scenes before that; and Mao in one way or another since the 1920s.

And then there is French President Charles de Gaulle, 73. It doesn't seem he will ever give up. He became president four years ago.

HAS IT MADE

The one who really has it made, unless something goes awfully wrong for him, is Sukarno, 62, and president of Indonesia. Its population of about 100 million is almost as much as that of France and West Germany combined.

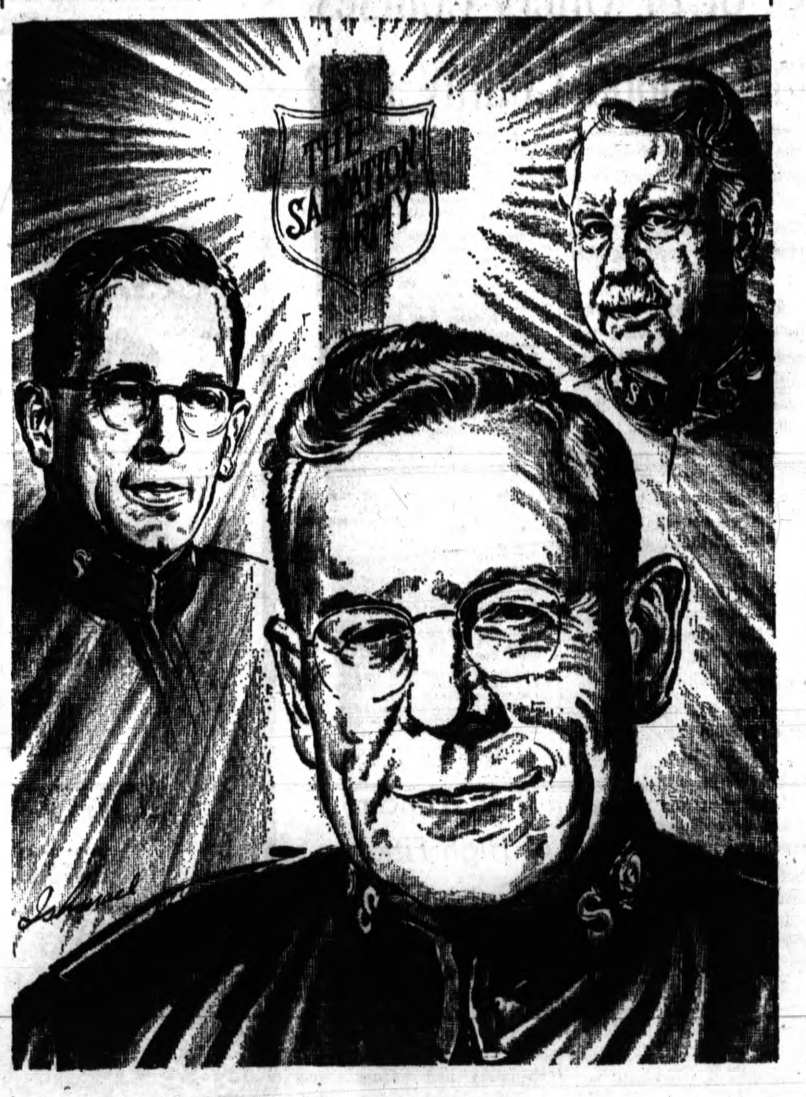
The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL



There has been a dynasty of faith in the Marshall family.

Commissioner Norman S. Marshall, shown in the center above, retired recently from the Salvation Army, after 49 years as an officer and six years as national commander. His father and maternal grandfather before him served as officers in the Army. The power of faith has been a sustaining force in the family from one generation to another.

Forty-three years ago, Norman's father, Colonel Stephen Marshall, pictured at the right, was made New York Metropolitan Division commander. In 1935, Norman Marshall got the same assignment. Now his son, Major Norman S. Marshall Jr., shown at the left, has taken over the same post. Another son also is an officer, and grandchildren are training for the service.

"I believe God is real and personal," says Norman Marshall. "He gives direction and force to my everyday living. Life without faith drifts and has no significance or meaning. Life reaches its fulfillment through an abiding faith in God."

Days of All Faiths:

Flight Into Egypt Still Puzzling

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

St. Matthew, II:13-15, tells that Joseph, having been warned in a dream, took Mary and the infant Jesus to Egypt in order to escape Herod's slaughter of the babies of Bethlehem. Nobody can quite figure out when this flight took place, but the Church has always talked about it now in the Epiphany season.

This is one of the New Testament's most puzzling problems in timing. Matthew makes it seem simple. First he tells about the birth, then the visit of the Wise Men, then the flight in Egypt, then the slaughter of the children. But that sequence won't stand examination. The events could not have happened in that order.

St. Luke, 2:22, says Mary and Joseph took the Babe to Jerusalem to present Him in the Temple forty days after He was born. This is the event the Church celebrates on Feb. 2.

★ ★ ★

But if the Wise Men came, as the Christian calendar says, on Jan. 6 (Epiphany), and the Holy Family fled to Egypt immediately after that, how could they have been in Jerusalem on Feb. 2? It is plain that we have got things out of their proper order.

What probably happened is that the Family went to Jerusalem from Bethlehem for the presentation, and returned to Bethlehem. And the Wise Men came after that.

Nobody is going to do anything about it at this late date, but it seems clear that the Wise Men are not proper Christmas figures at all. They should not be in creches or on Christmas cards. They probably did not arrive much before March, and perhaps even later than that.

THE FLIGHT

As to the flight itself, it is generally accepted as fact by scholars, though Matthew is the only writer who mentions it. If Joseph were worried about the safety of his family, Egypt would be the first place he would think of going.

It was only a ten-day journey, and Jews in trouble took refuge there all the time. There was a Jewish colony of at least a million in Egypt.

Any refugee would find friends, if not relatives, in such a large community. There is a tradition that the Holy Family stayed with relatives of Joseph's.

A spurious gospel of St. Matthew, which appeared in the fourth or fifth century, has wonderful tales to tell about the journey to Egypt. Dragons and lions came out of the wilderness to adore the Baby Lord. Trees bowed down before the Holy Family to make their fruit easy to pick. All the idols in Egypt shattered at the moment the Babe crossed the border into their country.

THE TIMING

The best theory is that Jesus was a year or two old when the flight took place. This is supported by the fact that when Herod set out to kill Him he killed all male children two years old and under.

How long the Holy Family stayed in Egypt is hard to calculate, but it must have been a matter of years rather than months. It is known that there was a long gap between Herod's death and the accession of his son Archelaus to the throne.

And Matthew definitely states that Joseph took his family to Nazareth in order to avoid living in the part of Judea where Archelaus reigned. So, Jesus could have been as much as six years old when He finally settled down with Joseph and Mary in a permanent home.

Voice of the People:

Letter From Teen-Ager Ignites Public Interest

Dear "Bobby-Soxer": I do not know your age but you are wise beyond our own adult years. You touch upon the tenderest spot of today's parenthood. The younger people are encouraged to do many of the things about which we read in the news and then berated by the same ones.

★ ★ ★

It is time that all "adults" backed up and took a true look at the picture you have so vividly portrayed. You neglected to mention the growing disinterest in school activities by parents. So many are "too busy" to attend such things as school plays, band concerts, etc., in which their own children participate. "Just be home early" is the word. "If we aren't home yet, be sure to . . . etc., etc.!" If the parent doesn't care, who is there? Oh, they care, they want you to grow up to be fine, upright citizens; but where is the shining example? Out!! You are not supposed to show that you are h u r t. This isn't done. The "zombie" expression must be maintained. No outward show of emotion.

★ ★ ★

Many parents will protest violently at my stand but all they have to do is look around and see the "adult delinquents" and then place the blame where it belongs. I am one of these "delinquent adults." I loused up the job of properly bringing up four stepchildren. Being away from home a great deal was a factor, but my own selfishness was a far greater one. I am remorseful beyond words now and can look back and see where and how I failed. Too late!! I pray that I do not make this same mistake with my own 11-year-old still at home.

★ ★ ★

Your article is well written and so very, very true. Congratulations on a job well done, Bobby-Soxer. With this wisdom, you will have very little difficulty in life yourself.

J. A. T. D.

"Bobby-Soxer" has my admiration and thanks for expressing her thoughts so well. She has not only given an excellent answer to our adult expression — "What is this younger generation coming to?" but she has given all the whys, also.

★ ★ ★

Too many preach "Don't do as we do, but do as we say!" and since we all learn best by example, there lies the answer to this age-old expression.

If we took the money spent on immoral movies, newspaper ads and sex magazines, and paid our teachers more and built more churches and schools (in which parents would keep active) our youth would follow.

Because of "Bobby-Soxer's" letter, I'm sure that as my sons grow up I will give much more thought to my actions and not just to theirs.

Union Lake — Mrs. Niles Shelton

If "Bobby-Soxer" seeks lust, prejudice, greed, immorality and crime, she shall find it. It is always available. But WHERE are you seeking? How high will you ascent or how low will you crawl to obtain what you consider enjoyment and enlightment?

★ ★ ★

You say: "You give us no God." Try church, God is still there.

"You make movies . . . You write books . . . You sell us magazines." Try the public library. There is a mountain of beauty and adventure waiting.

"You serve us drinks." What were you seeking when you went there? A shining example of leadership and inspiration?

We lament over all "bobby-soxers" who feel they must be handed only the clean, sterile, untainted joys of the world. We will lament over all who never have to make a decision of good for evil, who never have to roll up their sleeves and pitch in to keep this old world rolling.

Try seeking beauty and goodness. You shall find it.

I Did

I, too, am an adolescent, age 17.

There is obscenity and filth in the world and there always will be. But, we are not drenched in it as "Bobby-Soxer" seems to feel. Our elders are suppose to set the standards, but if they don't we must set our own. Do you think simply because certain adults blatantly flaunt their immorality, we must follow in their footsteps? If you are intelligent enough to feel they are not setting a proper example, can you not also think independently?

★ ★ ★

If the older generation does not set the example, then it is our duty to improve the world for the next. I don't think the world is quite as pornographic as you paint it. If it is, I shall strike out on my own and do what I think is best. Everyone is entitled to live his life as he wishes. "Bobby-Soxer" doesn't have to buy liquor, condone the adultress, listen to the jokes, or buy the books. Some of the so-called "immoral" literature is not.

Look around you, "Bobby-Soxer." There is much good in this world to be thankful for and follow. There are many adults I know and admire, who are definitely not as you describe the adult world today. One can find filth in anything if one looks hard enough. Dare to be different and have confidence in your own intelligence. Your morals will be what you make them.

3550 Watkins Lake Road — S. Zannoth

God bless you, "Bobby-Soxer" for the truth and may people wake up before it's too late.

★ ★ ★

However, I want you to know that there are some parents who do have an old-fashioned standard, who teach their children that movies, dancing and drinking and filthy reading material are wrong. And they take their children to an "old-fashioned church" that believes in an "old-fashioned salvation" through Blood of Jesus and in living a clean, holy life by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Oh, yes, there are those who call us fanatics, but I would rather be called a fanatic than send my child on his way to hell.

4636 Jamm Road — Mrs. D. Pierce

I write in defense of adults, but not the ones "Bobby-Soxer" refers to, rather to the many who work and pray daily that we might be the influence we should be on our children.

These are the parents who love their children so much and still have the gall to apply force to the seat of the pants when actions so warrant. We love and care enough to say "no," and make it stick, to their reading smut, smoking, drinking and many other childish things that make them think they look like big shots.

These are the ones who can see the potential and beauty of a teen-ager and who want to take advantage of that energy and vitality; who take their children to church, not send them; who pray for all; who are as disgusted with smut and obscenity as you. I mean those who love, guide and just plain have fun with kids and who hold the promise, "bring a child up in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

We aren't all bad, just as all teen-agers aren't all delinquents. You see the need — now do something about it. It's better to light one candle than stumble in the dark. Light that candle for yourself and in so doing teach another to light his own. Then we have a chance of a lovely glowing world.

Will you please print my one word reply to the letter signed "Bobby-Soxer" and use the largest type you can find?

The reply: AMEN!

67½ W. Huron — Mrs. Winnie Jones

This world is a grim, old place with overpowering anxieties and frustrations and most parents work hard at making a home for their offspring.

★ ★ ★

Regarding discipline they are "middle of the roaders" and are "pushovers" for the youngsters. Children should be raised — not coaxed — into maturity. Strictness is the neon light for success because, surprising as it is, most children actually prefer strict parents, just as they secretly like strict teachers — "you learn something from them."

Being a "pal" to the child is not the answer. What youngster needs a "middle-aged pal"? I oppose the idea that children shouldn't be spanked as it might warp their little minds. Too many teen-agers are delinquent because their parents "spared the rod." This does not exemplify the attitude that "since we have nothing planned for this evening, let's spank Jr."

★ ★ ★

Juvenile delinquency is a never-ending struggle and parents make an heroic effort to come through with thoroughbred behavior of self-discipline and high ideals. Just as in anything else we must "sort the wheat from the chaff." We are bound together by a timeless interest in our controversial youth, but if they have an open mind something worthwhile will drop into it.

"Bobby-Soxer" painted a vivid picture of parent delinquency, but she pinpointed only negative situations. Still, it made us sit up and take notice! May I add that "the men who found their way through trackless wilderness now have grandsons who get lost in a supermarket."

Stocks Drop for Cigarettes

NEW YORK (AP) —Prices of cigarette stocks dropped this week in the wake of a U.S. Public Health Service report that cigarette smoking is harmful to health.

Cigar stocks, which received a nearly clean bill of health in the report, advanced sharply.

Most of the loss by cigarette stocks came on Monday, the first day of trading after issuance of the long-waited report.

For the balance of the week prices more or less held their ground.

Brokers said the setback was not more pronounced because investors long had anticipated that the report would be harsh. Cigarette-stock prices were near the 1963-64 lows when the report came out.

Losses by the big five cigarette-maker stocks:

American Tobacco, 87 cents to $27.62; Liggett & Myers, 12 cents to $74.12; Lorillard, $2.25 to $43; Philip Morris, $2 to $73; and Reynolds, $1.87 to $40.62.

Liggett & Myers advanced $1.87 on Friday, apparently, according to Wall Street brokers, because of favorable articles on its charcoal - filter cigarette Lark.

Consolidated Cigar spurted $6.50 to $44, and D.W.G. Cigar advanced $2.12 to $25.87.

Cigar-making companies said sales of cigars were rising because the report held that cigar smoking is not as harmful as cigarette smoking.

Cigarette health scares, which began in 1954, always have brought setbacks to cigarette stocks, but on each occasion the lost ground has been regained.

In the 10-year period the advance of the stocks of Reynolds and Lorillard has exceeded that of the Dow Jones industrial average.

Military MDs to Review Smoking by Servicemen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department's top medical officers may decide next week on a line of action concerning cigarette smoking by the 2.7 million men and women in the armed forces.

★ ★ ★

The Pentagon told The Associated Press that Dr. Shirley C. Fisk, its health director, will meet Wednesday with the surgeons general of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

★ ★ ★

They will talk over the U.S. Public Health Service report that linked cigarette smoking to some forms of cancer and other diseases.

★ ★ ★

Each of the chief military doctors is expected to outline recommendations he is making to his own service secretary and then to discuss with Fisk "what the Defense Department common policy and line of action should be," the Pentagon said.

STILL UNKNOWN

"Whether any new policy directives will be issued remains to be determined," it added.

It was stressed that the meeting was regularly scheduled.

★ ★ ★

"During the two years the Public Health Service report was in preparation, the Defense Department policy was to wait and read it before acting," the department said. "We now have read it."

There has been no one policy on cigarette smoking for all the services. Each has set its own.

SMOKES REFUSED

In September 1962, the Air Force surgeon general banned cigarettes from flight lunch boxes and refused to accept them for free distribution to patients in Air Force hospitals.

★ ★ ★

That policy still is in effect.

The Army and Navy have imposed no restrictions, and there is no certainty that they will do so.

Romney Tells GOP 'Back Rights Fight'

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Michigan Gov. George Romney warned Republicans at a fund-raising dinner last night that the GOP would become "the greatest white elephant in political history" if it steers away from strong civil rights legislation.

Romney, a possible dark-horse for the Republican presidential nomination, told nearly 1,200 party faithful that the GOP must not exploit "racial or religious prejudices" in order to gain victory at the polls.

As Romney spoke, members of Utah chapters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People picketed the dinner in protest of "apathy on the part of the Utah Republican party toward civil rights needs."

★ ★ ★

Romney repeated his strong support of civil rights legislation now before Congress, including the controversial public accommodations provisions.

FULL RIGHTS

He said the American Revolution "so bravely begun in 1776 cannot be completed until every American — whatever his race, his color, his creed, or national origin — can enjoy unimpeded his full rights as an American and as a child of God.

The Michigan chief executive and his wife, Lenore, were in Utah on a homecoming visit. Romney, a Mormon born in Mexico, attended Brigham Young University here.

In a three-minute taped television talk yesterday, Romney told the people of Michigan their state has changed from a problem state to a "problem-solving state" and plans to keep the "new reputation" are based on a "lean but muscular" program.

★ ★ ★

The speech, carried on all 17 Michigan TV stations, was essentially a review of what the governor told state legislators in his State of the State message last week.

BAD REPUTATION

"A few years ago, our state had acquired a bad reputation throughout the country. Because people thought we were in trouble, we soon were in trouble," Romney said.

The governor said the three main reasons Michigan now has a new reputation are the new constitution, fiscal integrity and a boom in the economy pointed out by personal income rising to an all-time high, unemployment dropping to an eight-year low and cutting $11 million below the recommended "hold - the - line" budget last year.

The record shows conclusively that more progress was made in 1963 than in any year in memory," Romney said.

★ ★ ★

The governor tempered his optimism, however, by pointing out three disappointing failures to him:

- The failure of the tax reform program in the legislature.
- No minimum wage law.
- And the failure to pass an open-occupancy bill.

BOOKS BALANCED

After pointing out that Michigan books are balanced and there is a budget surplus, Romney outlined his program that emphasizes education, social welfare and traffic safety.

He called the proposed increase of 20 per cent in higher education spending from $110 million last year to $131 million, "unprecedented."

He also told of six multimillion dollar university buildings in the works as part of an increase of $41 million in the school building program.

Romney also went over his social welfare proposals, including aid to dependent children of the unemployed, care for the mentally ill and retarded children, assistance to the disabled, elderly and aid to the blind.

EXPANDED PROGRAM

In traffic safety, Romney said he is proposing $2 million for an expanded program that "includes 200 more troopers to be added to the state police and 130 for highway patrol duty.

Other programs mentioned by Romney were the proposed park development projects in Southeastern Michigan's metropolitan areas, for which he recommended $1 million as an "initial outlay;" legislation for county home rule to improve "archaic annexation laws;" uniform tax base rates on the local level; and the capitol development

Romney said the 1964 program been talked about for more than 20 years."

Romney said the 1964 program "will help people in scope as well as in size, but it will not completely close the gap between needs and services.

Workmen Save Dog in Building

DETROIT (AP) — A shell-shocked black and white puppy, who spent a week dodging a 2,500-pound wrecking ball in a condemned building, was lowered gently to the ground by demolition workers Friday.

★ ★ ★

The pup, part cocker spaniel, was tied up in a net and lowered with unusual delicacy by the crane operator who had been swinging the ball that threatened the puppy's life.

"He's been up there since before last Saturday," said C.C. Irwin, a foreman of the AAA Demolition Co. "We cut the stairways down then. There hasn't been any way to get up there since."

NOT AWARE

Workmen were not aware they were terrorizing the stray pup until the ball started crumbling third-floor walls and he scrambled over the rubble to what was left of the fourthfloor.

"We fed him a plate of dog food and warm milk," said Frank Kennedy of the Michigan Humane Society. "We'll give him a bath and maybe someone will want him."

Seek Increase for Committee

Chairman Wants 2 Members Added

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday heard a recommendation to increase the size of its ways and means and legislative committees by two more members each.

The ways and means committee presently has seven members and the legislative committee five members.

The recommendation was presented by Ways and Means Chairman David Levinson on behalf of his committee.

★ ★ ★

He said ways and means should be enlarged to provide wider representation from among the full board of 85 members.

CRITICIZED

Levinson's committee has been criticized lately by other supervisors.

They claimed the seven committee members were trying to decide policy for the board in their recommendations.

More members are needed on the legislative committee, according to Levinson, because of the occasional difficulty it has had in achieving a quorum.

★ ★ ★

The recommendation was referred to the five-member by-laws committee for study and further recommendation.

Fewer Teens Smoke Now

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The percentage of teen-age smokers had dropped in recent years, says the head of a research firm.

It dropped from 36 per cent in 1958 to 29 per cent in 1963, said Gilbert of New York.

Gilbert attributed the reduction to efforts by schools and the education programs of the American Cancer Society.

Swiss Grant U.N. Loan

Good Neighbor Approach

FDR Policy Was Popular With Latins

News Analysis

By BEN F. MEYER

WASHINGTON (AP)— In the view of Latin Americans in Washington, the U.S.-sponsored Alliance for Progress is going to have a hard time achieving the popularity won by Franklin D. Roosevelt's good neighbor policy.

They believe, though, that once the alliance gets widespread support in Latin American nations as a genuine hemisphere wide operation, it will mean much more in basic economic and social advancement than did the good neighbor policy, which was pretty much a Washington operation.

President Johnson pledged to carry on the U.S. share of effort and outlay of cash to make the alliance a memorial to its sponsor, the late John F. Kennedy, who, like Roosevelt, was a hero to Latin Americans.

★ ★ ★

Neither program has gone very far toward solving the chronic problems of poverty, illiteracy, undernourishment, ill health and political and economic instability that have plagued Latin America.

But advocates say that each plan accomplished much good, and that the alliance program is just beginning.

ELIMINATED CONFLICT

The good neighbor policy placed strong emphasis on eliminating sources of conflict between various Latin American nations and the United States. The alliance plan backs up declarations of good intentions with a strong injection of U.S. government dollars, and insistence that Latin-American nations must in the end do the big share of the job of building up their own political, economic and social advancement.

★ ★ ★

Thus the good neighbor policy was pretty much bilateral, with Washington dealing separately with each of the various Latin-American republics.

★ ★ ★

The alliance plan was formally adopted by the republics as a program of hemisphere scope in which each nation has a role.

FINANCIAL AID

Roosevelt's good neighbor policy did not overlook altogether the aspect of U.S. financial aid. But in the 1930s the U.S. government's Export-Import Bank, then its principal agency for such credits, reported credits to Latin America ranging from a total of less than $1 million a year to about $5 million.

★ ★ ★

The United States is aiming now at a contribution of $1 billion a year.

Latin Americans say Roosevelt's policy gave great emphasis to righting what Uncle Sam's neighbors considered wrongs in U.S. policies.

Roosevelt withdrew the U.S. Marines — long a source and symbol of anti-Yankee sentiment in Latin America — from Haiti. He worked out an arrangement with Cuba to abrogate the Platt Amendment, which had given Washington the right to intervene in Cuba's internal affairs.

★ ★ ★

Roosevelt also worked out new agreements with Panama, currently the source of a diplomatic headache for Uncle Sam, aimed at lessening the long-standing controversy over U.S. conduct in the Panama Canal Zone.

★ ★ ★

Experts believe that Johnson and his Latin American policy chief, Thomas C. Mann, face an enormous job in getting the alliance on a sound basis but they believe that with patience and hard work it can be accomplished.

TV's Troubled Hour

Can Judy's Show Be Saved?

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — What's the outlook for the Judy Garland Show, television's most troubled hour?

THOMAS

Last week a CBS executive said the Sunday night songfest stood a good chance of returning next season. Garland fans, who rank second only to Elvis Presley's in vehemence, have been bombarding the network with save-Judy pleas.

Says the show's producer, Gary Smith: "The situation appears to get brighter all the time. The rating is inching up on 'Bonanza.' The shows that are coming up are among the best we have done.

'If the show is renewed, nobody will be happier than Judy. She is really enjoying herself. It is hard work, but she likes the challenge and she enjoys singing with people like Tony Bennett and Vic Damone after years of mostly doing a single.

BOUNCES BACK

"Judy sometimes gets discouraged and wonders how four cowboys can beat her in the ratings. But she bounces back and works that much harder."

"Mistakes were made in the beginning," Smith said. "There never was any relationship between Judy and Jerry Van Dyke and our biggest problem every week was: What will we do with Jerry? The gimmick of having a backstage conversation with the star was a mistake, too. It was phony, and the audience realized it immediately."

★ ★ ★

Van Dyke and the backstage bit were dropped. Judy's finale with the theater trunk has been retained. The show will be featuring another gimmick which might become a fixture: Ken Murray and his home movies with Hollywood stars.

Some writers have been intimating that Judy has been up to her old habits in being late.

"Sure, Judy is late—but no later than is normal for her sex," Smith said. "I solved that for a while by calling her an hour earlier than she was needed. It worked out fine until one day she appeared precisely at 12 o'clock when we weren't going to start until 1.

"I had to confess what I had done. Now I call her only a half-hour early. So she's only 15 minutes late."

Woman Lost Her Husband in the Dark

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Emily Stewart of Silva, Mo., lost a husband, a truck and a house trailer.

She and her husband, Roy E. Stewart, were separated Thursday during a rain in Opelousas, La., when she stopped to put gas in her car. He drove on in the truck cab, which pulled their 21-foot house trailer.

★ ★ ★

A day later, with the help of state police and after comparing notes with relatives, the couple located each other. She was in Houston, he in Beaumont.

News of Area Churches

ASCENSION LUTHERAN

The annual congregational meeting of the Lutheran Church of the Ascension will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday.

The program will consist of discussing and adopting a budget, election of new council members, reports and future building plans.

Pastor Mires Stiner will preach at both the 8:45 and 11 a. m. services tomorrow. Mrs. Harold Wood will direct the Senior Choir.

PRESBYTERIAN

"Not to Be Served" is the theme of Rev. Galen E. Hershey's sermon for morning worship tomorrow in First Presbyterian Church.

The Junior Choir will sing "In the Carpenter Shop" by Shaffer, and the Chancel Choir will present "Come, Come Ye Saints" by Cornwall. Margaret Harths will sing "If God So Clothe the Brass" by Bischoff.

Circuit Court Judge Philip Pratt will speak at the couple's dinner Wednesday evening. His talks will concern his experiences behind enemy lines as a member of the Office of Strategic Services during World War II.

Hosts for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Babb, the Robert Everetts and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neipling.

Following a swim at Pontiac Northern High School Saturday the Pioneer young people, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts of the church will return to the church for a social hour with refreshments.

CONGREGATIONAL

"Inquire Who Is Worthy" will be the topic of Rev. Malcolm K. Burton's sermon at First Congregational Church tomorrow morning.

★ ★ ★

The Chancel Choir will sing "TheGlory of God in Nature" by Beethoven, and Max Sutton will be heard in the solo number "I Hear a Forest Praying" by de Rose.

A new series of discussions based on "Intriguing Questions" will begin at the noon luncheon of the Women's Association Friday. "Does God Want Sacrifices?" will be the first topic.

Mrs. Norman Cheal will be moderator. Panel members consist of Mrs. George Gaches, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Karl Kutz and Mrs. Elwood Bigler.

MACEDONIA

The religious workshop of Macedonia Baptist Church will present Lillie Johnson as principal speaker at 5:30 p. m. Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The theme for the first quarter is "Prayer." "Types of Prayers" will be discussed by Miss Johnson. Chairman for the occasion is Mrs. Gloria Passmore. Rev. L. R. Miner is pastor.

BAHA'I FAITH

World Religion Day, an annual Baha'i event, will be observed by local members at 3 p. m. tomorrow in the Pontiac Mall Community Center.

★ ★ ★

Thom Thompson, executive secretary of Oakland County Big Brothers, will be the speaker. Consultation and refreshments will follow. There will be no collection.

★ ★ ★

John Eddy, chairman of the local spiritual assembly, said "Unity in Religion" is the theme of this year's commemoration. The public is invited.

TRINITY, WATERFORD

The Rev. W. Leslie Williams, superintendent of the Flint District of the Methodist Church, will speak at the 10:30 a. m. worship service of Trinity Church, Waterford, tomorrow. The congregation currently meets at Schoolcraft School.

★ ★ ★

A 12:15 church dinner at Community Activities Building will precede the annual Fourth Quarterly Conference presided over by Rev. Mr. Williams. Church officers will present their annual reports to the congregation at this time.

The official board of Trinity will meet at the parsonage at 8 p. m. Thursday.

AUBURN HEIGHTS U. P.

With other United Presbyterian Churches the congregation in Auburn Heights will observe Evangelism Sunday in morning worship tomorrow. The emphasis of the sermon will be on "Our Need to Look Beyond Ourselves When Working for the Lord."

The Crusader Choir will sing "The Lord's Prayer."

★ ★ ★

The session will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday, and the Friendship Callers at 7.30 the same evening.

★ ★ ★

Women of the church will start their mission sewing project at 10 a. m. Thursday. A cooperative luncheon is set for noon.

★ ★ ★

At 8 p. m. the committee responsible for planning the remodeling of the chancel will get together.

★ ★ ★

The youth communicant class will meet with Pastor F. William Palmer from 10:30 a. m. until noon Saturday. Young people taking part in morning worship Jan. 26 will go over their parts with the pastor at 1 p. m.

At Area Churches

Ring Bells by Pulling Rope

Throughout the Pontiac area church bells may be heard ringing out their message of hope and joy every Sunday morning. Carillons chime well known hymns.

★ ★ ★

Many churches today ring bells by pushing an electric button but there are still some that ring the bell by pulling a rope attached to the bell wheel.

★ ★ ★

For more than 100 years the quaint sounding bell in the tower of All Saints Episcopal Church has been ringing out in all kinds of weather calling parishioners to prayer. It was cast in 1860.

The All Saints bell might well be a great-grandfather to all of us; and what tales he might tell. No one of the present congregation was here when he was installed in the belfrey.

This country - old bell might remember a baby girl being brought up the steps for the holy rite of Baptism. Then some 20 years later he would ring loud and clear as she came running up the steps in a mist of white veiling on her wedding day.

★ ★ ★

Years pass and he finds himself ringing slowly and sadly as the same girl now grown old returns for a funeral rite.

★ ★ ★

The bell in the steeple of the old Five Points Community Church, rings every Sunday. Originally hung in the Hubbel School, Pontiac Road at Adams, it dates back to 1857.

★ ★ ★

The 93-year-old bell at Grace Lutheran Church first called students to Pontiac Central High School. It was given by the city in 1870 and placed in the belfrey of the old building situated on the present site.

Later for safety reasons it was taken down and for many years laid in a junk yard. The owners gave the bell to Grace Lutheran.

Someone has been pulling the bell of First Presbyterian Church since 1871. The bell might even be older but records show it was installed when the second church was built.

BELL SAVED

During the fire in 1914 the the church was destroyed and little saved except the old bell which was later installed in the southeast tower of the present building, Fred Pratt of 3201 Joslyn, Pontiac Township has been ringing the bell for 11 years.

★ ★ ★

The bell at Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian, 5171 Commerce was once a school bell, It hung in the belfrey of a one-room country school near Seven Mile and Greenfield.

★ ★ ★

After the first in a series of school districts consolidations, R.D. Baker, founder and president of R.D. Baker Construction Co., purchased the building, added the old school bell to her collection.

During the 1920's the Bakers Mrs. Baker, a collector of bells, moved to the Green Lake Community. They later assisted in establishing the Orchard Lake Community Church which began as a year-round Church School in 1939. Previously worship services were held only during summer months.

GIVES BELL TO CHAPEL

In 1940 Mrs. Baker presented the bell to the Orchard Lake Chapel. In 1858 the church bell was moved from the old belfrey to the present tower when the church added a Christian educational unit.

Ever since St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church was completed in 1886, the bell was rung at 6 a.m., noon and again at 6 p.m.

At the call of the Angelus Bell Catholic worshipers stop their work long enough to say a prayer which includes the angelic salutation, or Ave Maria.

St. Trinity Lutheran Church bell has pealed forth since the church was built in 1885.

★ ★ ★

For nearly 100 years the bell in the tower of First Methodist Church has rung twice on Sundays. It also rings for weddings.

The bell weighing 2,035 pounds was installed at the cost of $1,100 when the church was completed around 1864. The spire on the tower toppled during a storm about 1900.

For 17 years Clarence Hamel of 247 Marion, Waterford Township has served as bell ringer.

YOUTH AWARDS—Looking over awards for the winners of the "Oakland County King and Queen of Temperance" contest next Saturday are Carol Minnich of 24 Lorraine Court and Al Dohner of 725 Gertrude, Waterford Township. The contest is sponsored by the Youth Temperance Council of Oakland County.

Sponsored by Temperance Council

Youth Enter Contest

Young people in Oakland County between the ages of 15 and 25 who do not drink alcoholic beverages, smoke, or use narcotics may enter the "Oakland King and Queen of Temperance" contest set for Friday.

★ ★ ★

The contest, sponsored by the Youth Temperance Council of Oakland County, will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Kimball High School, Royal Oak.

Local churches cooperating with the council are First Baptist, Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian, Christian Temple, Church of the Brethren and Evangelical Missionary.

To compete in the contest jointly sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, applicants must answer a questionnaire and undergo an interview with a WCTU representative.

★ ★ ★

During the interview the representative will judge the applicant's character and personality.

★ ★ ★

According to Mrs. William Perkins, president of the Alice Campbell WCTU, Royal Oak, the interview will last about 15 minutes.

Other requisites include joining the YTC; gaining five new members for the organization; and agreeing to represent the county on the state and possibly the national level next year.

Until this year the King and Queen contest was held in each city. Representatives were then sent to the state convention.

★ ★ ★

Judges will include prominent county citizens.

★ ★ ★

Awards also include a trophy from the WCTU as well as gifts from local merchants.

Honor Past Presidents

Members of Temple Beth Jacob will hold their annual congregational dinner at 7 p. m. today at the temple, 79 Elizabeth Lake.

★ ★ ★

The 50th anniversary of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods and the 90th anniversary of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations will be celebrated with all past presidents of the Sisterhood and Temple honored.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lindquist will sing several selections, Rabbi Ernst Conrad will speak a few words of greeting and introduce guest speaker, Mrs. Perry Segal of Chicago, Ill.

★ ★ ★

A leader of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, one of the world's largest Jewish women's religious organizations, Mrs. Segal is fourth vice president of the national organization.

She is a member of the executive board of the Chicago Federation and former chairman of Negro Junior Hostesses for Chicago Area U.S.O.

MRS. PERRY SEGAL

Mrs. Martin Kabsenell, president of the Sisterhood at Temple Beth Jacob, will be mistress of ceremonies. Other speakers during the evening include Dr. Ben Bisgeier, president of the temple; and Dr. Kenneth Dickstein, president of the Men's Club.

To Visit Lewis Chapel

"Standing by Your Convictions" will be the theme of Rev. A. R. Reid's sermon at Newman A.M.E. Church at 11 a. m. tomorrow. The congregation will leave the church about 1 p. m. to attend the 4 p. m. service in Lewis Chapel, Albion.

Music at Providence by 2 Choirs, Chorus

The Deaconess Board of Providence Missionary Baptist Church is sponsoring a musicale at 3 p. m. Sunday under the direction of Mrs. Jessie White, president.

★ ★ ★

At 7 p. m. the Providence Male Chorus, the Young Adult and Celestial Choirs will present musical numbers at the program planned by the Pastor's Chorus. Virgil Chance will be soloist, and readings will be given. Johnnie Hill will be in charge of the evening.

Jewish Music Month Observed With Recital

Congregation B'nai Israel and Temple Beth Jacob will sponsor a recital of Jewish music by Cantor Reuben Frankel of Congregation Shaarey Zedek of Southfield in observing Jewish Music Month on Jan. 26.

★ ★ ★

The event will be at 8:30 p.m. in Temple Beth Jacob, 79 Elizabeth Lake.

Mr. Frankel, a native of Israel, has lived in this country for 24 years and has been cantor of the Southfield congregation the past eight years. He will offer a program of Cantorial, Hebrew and Yiddish selections.

Mrs. Bella Goldberg will be piano accompanist.

Chairman of the Tri-State Region of the United Cantors Assembly of America, Mr. Frankel is pursuing graduate studies in music at Wayne State University.

★ ★ ★

The public is invited to attend. Tickets will be available at the door, Rabbi Ernst Conrad said.

Council Leaders Honor Three Groups of Guests

The Pontiac Area Council of Churches will honor those who have made a contribution to the religious life of the area at the annual meeting in Central Methodist Church on Jan. 27.

In recognition of the work of the council to the community the Mayor of Pontiac has proclaimed January as Council month.

★ ★ ★

Three groups of guests will be recognized.

Representing the community will be Rabbi Israel Goodman of Congregation B'nai Israel, Rabbi Ernst J. Conrad of Temple Beth Jacob, Rev. Edwin Schroeder, chaplain at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Rev. James L. Hayes of St. Michael's Catholic Church and Rev. Thompson of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church.

★ ★ ★

Other honored guests include Rev. G. J. Bersche, pastor of Christian & Missionary Alliance Church and president of the Greater Pontiac Evangelical Ministers' Fellowship; Dr. Merrill Lenox, president of the Detroit Council of Churches; William Taylor of the Pontiac City Commission, Rev. Gus Tsompanas of the St. George Greek Orthodox Church and Rt. Rev. Wallace Filipowicz, president of St. Mary's College.

Rev. Jack H. C. Clark, executive secretary of the council and pastor of First Christian Church, said the executive secretaries and staff members of all Councils of Churches in Michigan are expected to be present at the annual meeting.

One of the most significant contributions that the council has made this year is "Operation Contact," Pastor Clark said.

This is a service through the council office that receives and distributes information from the three major hospitals to the churches of the community. It concerns those who have entered the hospitals as patients.

★ ★ ★

Among those to be honored will be William and Jack O'Brien of radio station WPON, Sister Mary Xavier and Mrs. Vera Jones of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, and Jack Whitlow, Elaine Adams and Sue Reece of Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Others of the group will be Mrs. Irene McNamara and Mrs. Marvel Minnich of Pontiac General Hospital, and representatives from The Pontiac Press.

There is only one way to get ready for immortality, and that is to love this life, and live it bravely and cheerfully and faithfully as we can.—Henry Van Dyke.

Chairmen Named

Congregation Elects Leaders

At the annual meeting of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church this week officers were elected, a budget of $68,325 was adopted and trustees were given authority to purchase additional property for the expansion of Christian education facilities.

★ ★ ★

Reelected to serve as chairman and vice chairman of the congregation were Circuit Judge Frederick Ziem and Mrs. William Coffing. Relected secretary and treasurer were Mrs. John Gemmell and William Webb.

Elders chosen for a three-year term were Mrs. Don Alexander, Omar MacNutt, Glendon Moon, Orval Robb, Thomas Simpson and Ernest Watson.

Named to the deaconate were Mrs. William Bray, Mrs. Guy Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Levely, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox. Trustees chosen include Lester Bell and Mrs. Gerhart Barnhart.

The Men's Fellowship will have a roast beef dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday. Evening speaker will be Rev. Chester W. Cones of Livonia. Dinner reservations may be made with Herman Reeder, Roy Koch, Ernest Johnston or Robert Hebert.

The Pontiac Board of Education has given the congregation of Oakland Avenue Church permission to use the teachers' parking lot and driver training area at Wisner School when extra parking space is needed.

Youth to Be Confirmed

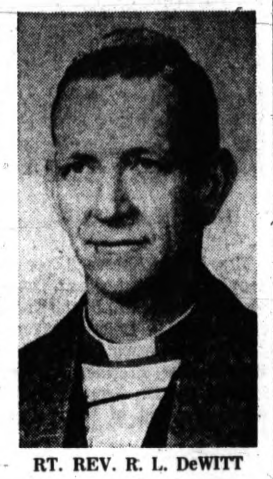
Rt. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, a suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will conduct the rite of confirmation at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

Rev. Edward A. Lowry, rector, will present a class of 27 young people to the suffragan bishop. A reception sponsored by the 1963 confirmation class will follow with Mrs. James Fry and Mrs. Harmon Gillen co-chairmen.

The confirmands will make their first Communion at the celebration of Holy Eucharist at 8 a.m. on Jan. 26.

Rev. Mr. Lowry will be in Washington, D.C. the first week of February to attend meetings of the College of Preachers, an institution of Washington Cathedral Foundation.



RT. REV. R. L. DeWITT

The college is devoted to the post-ordination training of the clergy of the Episcopal Church. Attendance is by invitation only.

★ ★ ★

Clergymen meet at the college for short-term intensive conferences which include Bible study, theological lectures and criticized preaching, the rector said.

First Methodist Offers Color Film

Another full color motion picture in the Living Christ series entitled "Boyhood and Baptism" will be shown at 7 p.m. Sunday in First Methodist Church. The series is sponsored by Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The Songster Choir, composed of children in grades four, five and six, will sing "Make a Joyful Noise" at the 8:30 a.m. service tomorrow.

Rev. Carl G. Adams, minister, will preach on "The Great Confession."

Bible study and prayer fellowship are scheduled for 7:30 Wednesday evening.

Missionary to Speak at Wesleyan

Rev. George A. Huff, president of the Michigan Wesleyan Conference, will be guest speaker at both morning and evening services in Wesleyan Methodist Church, 67 N. Lynn tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Huff have returned to this country after spending four terms as missionaries to Sierra Leone, Africa. The first term (three years) was spent in evangelism, clinical work and surveying an area where there were no roads and no civilization as we know it.

The second, third and fourth terms were among an unreached tribe of people known as the Wara Wara Limbas. During these years they established a leper clinic where they treated hundreds of people, built schools where children were taught to read and write, and built churches.

Probably the greatest contribution the Huffs made to the people of Upper Sierra Leone was to translate the New Testament into their language which took five years.

To Tell Work of Gideons in Placing Bibles

Andrew Stimer will present the work of the Gideons with a brief announcement concerning the placing of Bibles throughout the world at the 9 and 11 a. m. worship services tomorrow in Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

Pastor Edward D. Auchard will preach on "The State of the Church." High school young people will sing.

Central Methodist Planning Program

Members of Central Methodist Church will get together for a congregational dinner at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday. At this time all new materials for children to be used with the fall term of Church School will be presented.

The plan for a new ministry for children was forget by the curriculum committee of the Methodist Church. It will be carried out in every Methodist Church in order that every Methodist child may receive his rightful Christian heritage, Dr. Milton H. Bank, minister, said.

Correct Your Child First, Then Talk About Schools

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: As the mother of a high school freshman, I feel our schools are to blame for this demanding attitude displayed by our youth.

ABBY

The accent is on materialism. In the few months my son has attended high school there has been a steady stream of requests for money.

He needs track shoes, a student body card, $4 for a year book, drafting instruments, a white sweater for his athletic block letter.

My budget exhausted, I told him he would have to wait a while on the sweater.

He was so angry he threw his hair brush at me, smeared my bedroom rug with toothpaste and threw a heavy magnet at the kitchen door with all his might.

★ ★ ★

We pay high taxes, Abby, and our schools should be supported by those taxes. If students don't come up with all the extras offered, they feel out of it.

I also wish to add that I just received notification from the Parents Association that a European tour is being offered next summer for those students who can afford it.

★ ★ ★

I am 37 years old and have never been to Europe, but here's a great opportunity for me to pay $35 a month from here to eternity so that my son may go—at age 15.

I'd like your opinion on this materialism instilled in our children.

REDWOOD CITY, CALIF. MOTHER.

★ ★ ★

DEAR MOTHER: You are twisting the issue. True, it costs much more to go to school today than it did 25 years ago. But everything costs more. And people are earning more, too.

★ ★ ★

Not every boy who wants a school sweater asks his mother for it. I once knew a young man who worked all summer at a super market and saved his money.

★ ★ ★

You didn't say what happened after your son threw the hair brush, the magnet and decorated your rug with toothpaste.

★ ★ ★

If all you did was to sit down and write me a letter blaming the schools, you can expect more such violent demonstrations of temper. Only worse.

★ ★ ★

Face it, Mother. Your son is a childish, impatient sorehead. Work on straightening him out first. And then we'll talk about what's wrong with the school system.

DEAR ABBY: Recently on your radio program, you called someone down for referring to a crippled person as a "cripple."

★ ★ ★

You suggested the word "handicapped" instead. I must disagree with you. Calling something by another name doesn't change it.

Lately, morons are referred to as "retarded," insane asylums are called "mental institutions," the poor house is now "The Old People's Residence," drunken bums are "alcoholics." And all the nuts are "mentally ill."

★ ★ ★

Name-changing doesn't fool anybody. It's verbal dishonesty! I believe in calling a spade a spade. What do you think is gained by all this double talk?

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. West of Lone Pine Road have returned after spending a few weeks at their Ossabaw Island home in Georgia. With them were daughter Jill Shallcross, her brother John Shallcross, who attends the University of California in Berkeley, and son Justin West.

Mr. West's sister and brother - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, with sons David and John, motored from Alamosa, Colo. to spend the holidays with the Wests.

At the end of the month Jill leaves for New York to study art history at Columbia University.

The Ronald M. Kasperzaks of North Glengarry Road, who are moving to Toledo, entertained at a large cocktail party in their home. Mrs. David R. Burton honored the couple at brunch last Sunday.

This evening the Milton A. Manleys of Brookwood Drive are entertaining a group for dinner.

Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp has scheduled two bridge parties in her home this coming week.

Mrs. Archie Crowley, regional chairman of the National Cathedral Association, has called a luncheon meeting of the board and committee chairmen at the Cathedral House in Detroit.

The Association's benefit "A Man For All Seasons" to be presented at the Fisher Theatre on April 21, will be discussed.

At this meeting, the National Association president, the Hon. Hugh S. Cumming Jr., of Washington will speak to the group.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Edward Proctor. Among those from this area who will be attending are: Mesdames Luther R. Leader, Ari BeGole, Howard Barker, George Cary and Halsey Davidson.

Two Local WCTU Units Meet to Hear Reports

Anna Gordon

Mrs. Gary Crowell gave the history of the Salvation Army in Pontiac before the Anna Gordon Union, Women's Christian Temperance Union, Thursday, in the First Baptist Church.

Sewing for the U.S. Veterans' Hospital in Dearborn was resumed after devotions by Mrs. William Bradley.

Mrs. Lorne Warner announced a workshop at Bethany Baptist Church in February.

All unions will participate in legislative day, March 18, in Lansing.

Frances Willard

Mrs. L. W. Shafer opened her home on North Shirley Street on Wednesday to the Frances Willard Union, WCTU. Rev. Lola Marion led devotions.

Statistics on the effects of alcohol and tobacco on health were reported by Mrs. Nellie Monroe who attended the recent commissioner's meeting.

★ ★ ★

Prayer and Bible reading in the public schools were discussed following Susan Shafer's paper on the life of Lillian Stevens.

The WCTU Federation meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian Church with cooperative dinner at 6 p.m.

Local Sorority Reviews Plans

Alpha Alpha chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority reviewed the spring agenda Thursday in the '300' Lounge. Mrs. Calvin Warner and Mrs. Richard Falls were cohostesses.

Delegates to the City Council luncheon, Jan. 25, in Pine Knob Ski Lodge, will be Mrs. Grace E. Sutton and Mrs. Warner.

Mrs. Edward Hummel will represent the chapter in the 'Michigan Girl of the Year' contest at the state convention at Jackson in May.

Reports on recent philanthropic projects were given by Mrs. Hummel and Mrs. Falls.

June vows are being planned by Christine Ruth LaLonde and Seaman Appren. John James Morrissey Jr., son of the senior John Morrisseys of Fibre, Mich. Her parents are Mrs. Ruth LaLonde of Sylvan Lake and Warren LaLonde of Pontiac. She attended Mercy School of Nursing in Detroit and her fiance is stationed at the U.S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Ivory Missal, Roses

Bride Holds Heirloom

Eucharist lilies against a background of palms and ferns formed a setting for the vows of Maureen Adrienne Drake to Marvin James Boyle today in St. Benedict Church.

★ ★ ★

White roses with white miniature roses and ivy rested on an ivory heirloom missal held by the daughter of the George A. Drakes of Klingensmith Road as Rev. Richard Thomas officiated.

A pearl and sequin headpiece and bouffant illusion veil complemented the bride's Empire gown of hand-embroidered while silk organza over Swiss silk taffeta.

HONOR MAID

Royal blue accessories accented a sheath gown of Madonna blue peau de soie for Mary Drake of Ypsilanti, her sister's maid of honor. Blue cornflowers, heather and Stephanotis comprised her bouquet.

The bridegroom, who is of South Roslyn Street is the son of the Frank B. Boyles of Phoenix, Ariz. and St. Helen, Mich. William Kelly of Livonia was his best man. Ushers were Edward A. Heft Jr. of Clawson and Charles Evans, Farmington.

★ ★ ★ ★

After the breakfast - reception in Bedell's the couple left for a Florida honeymoon.

Both are graduates of Eastern Michigan University where they majored in education and administration. Her sorority is Sigma Nu Phi and his fraternity is Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Wed today in St. Benedict Church were Maureen Adrienne Drake to Marvin James Boyle. Their parents are the George A. Drakes of Klingensmith Road and the Frank B. Boyles of Phoenix, Ariz. and St. Helen, Mich.

Collins-Stoehr Rites at Central Methodist

The chapel of Central Methodist Church was the setting today for the marriage of Mary Julia Stoehr to Earl Ray Collins.

★ ★ ★

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Hill Stoehr of Roseberry Court and Harold M. Stoehr of Denver, Colo.

For the afternoon ceremony, she chose a ballerina-length gown of white peau de soie and fingertip veil of illusion, with seed pearl coronet. Pink rosebuds accented her bouquet of white carnations.

WEARS SHELL PINK

Trudy Moore, wearing shell pink silk brocade, was maid of honor. She carried matching carnations with white rosebuds.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom, son of the William Hansels of West Cornell Avenue, had James Atkinson for best man. Seating guests were the bride's cousin Robert Sadler of Flint and her brother John Stoehr.

After an evening reception in the Stoehr home, the couple will leave for a brief honeymoon. They will live in Pontiac.

Keep Foreign Aid in One Package, Says Congressman

WASHINGTON (AP)—"If you drop a needle in the bathtub, you can find it," says Rep. Otto Passman, D-La. "But if you dropped it in the Potomac you'd never find it."

This is Passman's reaction to various administration proposals to give the foreign aid program a new look. One idea is to absorb the present aid organization into other agencies of the State Department. Another is to separate the military assistance and the economic aid components of the controversial program.

★ ★ ★

Passman heads the House Appropriations subcommittee that handles the foreign aid money bill. He thinks the program is far too big and he more than anyone else was responsible for slashing it down to $3 billion this year—1.5 billion less than President John F. Kennedy had asked for.

Nevertheless, Passman is dead set against any change in the program's setup, as are many other key congressmen and senators who have the most to say about foreign aid.

COULDN'T FIND IT

"If it is fragmented you would never be able to find the total cost," said Passman in an interview. "I'm for keeping foreign aid in one package where the American people can see it. I will oppose any plan to break it up."

Under President Johnson's orders, a blue ribbon panel of administration officials has been conducting a reappraisal of the foreign aid program. Their aim is to change it into something more acceptable to Congress.

David E. Bell, administrator of the semiautonomous Agency for International Development, reportedly has opposed breaking it up.

Undersecretary of State George W. Ball, who heads the committee reviewing the program, is said to favor absorbing the aid function into other parts of the State Department.

SOFTING FIGHT

Johnson, with a view toward softening the bitter fight over program in Congress each year, started things by putting out tentative feelers on separating the two main parts of the program—military and economic.

★ ★ ★

He ran into powerful opposition from Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., conservative chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

★ ★ ★

The idea is also strongly opposed, perhaps for other reasons, by such liberals as Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn.

Rep. Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, has always opposed efforts to separate the two programs, on the grounds that to do so would make the economic program even more vulnerable to budget cutters in Congress. He is a firm supporter of foreign aid and carries the ball for the administration in the House.

OTHER HAND

On the other hand, Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, ranking Republican member of the Senate Appropriations and Armed Services Committees, is in favor of putting part of the aid program in the defense budget. He gave his suggestions Thursday to Ball and Bell.

★ ★ ★

The review committee had been expected to be ready with its recommendation by the middle of this week. But reportedly no consensus has been reached and the members decided to have another go-around with House and Senate leaders.

Injured Detrotied Dies

DETROIT (AP) — Carlo Catanese, 67, of Detroit died Friday of injuries suffered in a two-car smashup in the city Thursday, police said.

B52 Flier's Body Found

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP) — The body of T. Sgt. Melvin Wooten, 27, tail gunner on the B52 Strategic Air Command jet bomber that crashed near Cumberland Monday, was found Friday night.

Wooten, from Tohatchi, N.M., was the last member of the five-man crew to be accounted for. Maj. Robert L. Townley, 42, Gadsden, Ala., radar bombardier on the plane, died in the crash. The navigator, Maj. Robert L. Payne, 41, Tulsa, Okla., was found dead of exposure Wednesday after he had parachuted from the plane.

The pilot, Maj. Thomas W. McCormick, 42, Yawkey, W. Va. and the copilot, Capt. Parker C. Peedin, 29 Smithfield N.C., were rescued after they parachuted to safety.

★ ★ ★

Wooten's body was found near West Salisbury, Pa., by a farm boy, Ronald Holler, 15, and his father, Kenneth.

★ ★ ★

Lt. Col. Neill T. Williams, SAC spokesman at the crash site said Wooten apparently had head injuries and a broken leg and died within an hour after he parachuted to earth.

Pakistan Eyes India Plea for End to Strife

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Pakistan was considering today an Indian proposal for a joint appeal to Hindus and Moslems to end their violent clashes.

Indian President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan proposed the appeal in a letter to President Mohammad Ayub Khan of Pakistan. Ayub Khan earlier sent a letter to the Indian president claiming that Hindus were terrorizing Moslems in the Calcutta area and trying to drive them into neighboring East Pakistan.

★ ★ ★

The violence between the two religious groups was touched off by the theft of a hair reported to have come from the beard of the Moslem Prophet Mohammed from a shrine in the Indian-controlled section of Kashmir.

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — A concert and assembly hall will be built in Dublin as Ireland's memorial to President John F. Kennedy, the government announced.

The hall will be paid for by state funds.

BONN, Germany (AP)—Catholic and Protestant representatives have issued a joint appeal for a broader distribution of business property in West Germany.

Describing ownership of property as a basis for a free economy and social order, the statement says the economic system should be organized so that poor people, especially workers, are able to acquire property. Among the proposals it makes is the distribution of stock as part of workers' wages.

Sixteen Protestants and 15 Catholics participated in discussions held over the past 18 months leading to the issuance of the statement this week. The statement is not an official document of either faith, although participants in the discussions were appointed by church groups.

Among the Catholics was Msgr. Paul Adenauer, a son of former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

ROME (AP) — A train carrying rail workers collided with a suburban shuttle outside Rome today, killing two persons and injuring 35.

Rail officials said the work train was taking the laborers to a switching station five miles from the city when an apparent brake failure caused it to pick up speed.

The train shot almost a half mile past the stop signal and plowed into the shuttle halted at a station.

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—A fourth Italian immigrant was shot today as police continued investigating reports that the Mafia may be operating in Australia.

Antonio Monaco, 39, was hospitalized in critical condition after he was felled by two shotgun blasts as he was leaving his home for work.

The shooting occurred two days after another immigrant, Vincent Muratore, 43, was killed by a shotgun blast. Police posted a reward of $11,250 for information about the previous shootings.

★ ★ ★

All four victims were from Calabria, in Southern Italy, and were fruit and vegetable vendors.

Interpol, the international police organization, recently informed Australian authorities that some Mafia members had left Italy and may have entered Australia. Italy has been conducting a crackdown on the underworld organization.

ROME (AP) — Italy's Public Works Ministry suspended four of its executive engineers today in the wake of a government inquiry into the Vaiont Dam disaster which virtually wiped out two Italian communities.

The inquiry blamed Italian government employes and officials of the Northern Italian communities of Belluno and Udine for failing to take steps to prevent the disaster, which took almost 3,000 lives last Oct. 9. A section of a mountain plunged into the Vaiont Dam—the world's third highest—and spilled a flood of water into the Vaiont Valley.

ATTRACTIVE COMFORT—This is only one of the many comfortable bedrooms in the big Beatty house on Lone Pine Road. The old-fashioned bedspread complements the solid antique cherry bed and matching desk and chair. Beautiful oil paintings such as the one over the desk are found in every room in the sprawling house.

Treasures Fill Home

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Pontiac Press Home Editor

When most couples reach retirement age they dream of traveling or moving into smaller quarters for more comfort and convenience.

Not so with the Edgar Beattys. They live in a big home that sprawls over the top of a hill on Lone Pine Road in Bloomfield Township and enjoy every inch of space in the 10-room structure.

Treasured primitive oil paintings carefully arranged throughout the home are mixed with Meissen lamp bases, and original Louis XVI hand-carved rosewood chests.

In one of the rooms off the main recreation room on the lower level is a complete soda fountain.

★ ★ ★

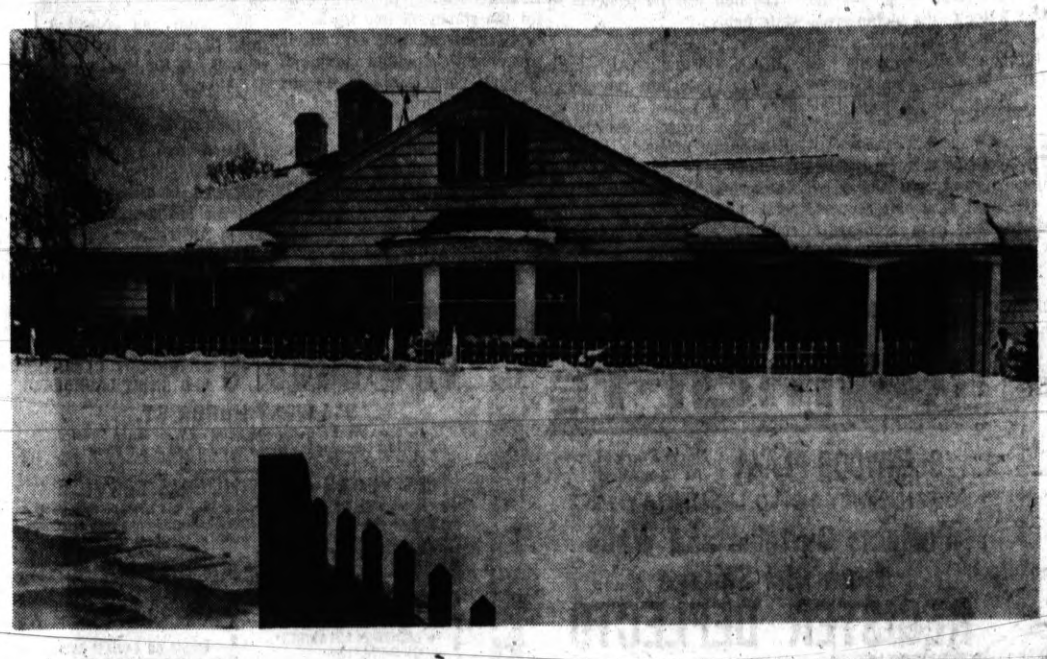
Around the corner is a colorful party room that has every source of play equipment imaginable. It gives guests a feeling of "we're glad we're here" the moment they enter.

In the big upstairs living room, the beamed ceiling is lower than most, giving a more intimate atmosphere to the surroundings. A pair of wing chairs in the sweeping bay window is separated by a treasured imported chest with a lovely, colorful lamp on top.

The cozy dining room is strictly early American, with a delightful cranberry hanging lamp over the round maple table.

In a little den to the left of the dining room is a red velvet gentleman's chair beside two eye-catching stained-glass windows.

A 150-year-old gold clock expertly ticks away the hours of the day, and its bells ring every 15 minutes.



Pontiac Press Photos by Edward R. Noble

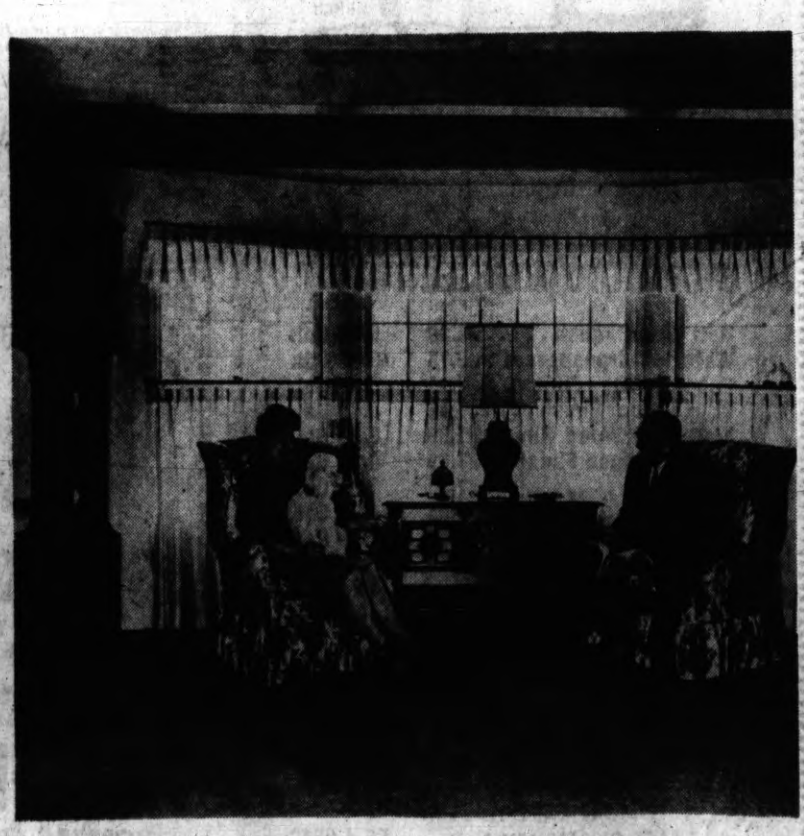
BEATTY HOME—This picturesque cut-stone and clapboard home of the Edgar Beattys on Lone Pine Road sprawls over the top of a high hill. It is much bigger inside than it appears from the outside. Although it looks like a ranch-style home, it is really a tri-level structure filled with art items and primitive oil paintings. The Beattys have a magnificent view of Walnut Lake.

OLD-FASHIONED GAME ROOM — The little table at left is a rare antique that swings open for use by game-lovers. The colorful mural above white wainscoting depicts the struggle for independence by early Americans and is enhanced by the old Victorian love seat beneath the mural. White cafe curtains on polished brass rods are used throughout the home.

SPECIAL DESIGN—Blue delft tiles from Holland are the theme of the Beatty's unique fireplace. Its hearth is higher than conventional fireplaces, bringing the crackling fire almost to eye level. The two gold velvet love seats are of Hepplewhite design with a Louis XV influence. The old church over the fireplace was painted by Carlos Lopez who won the Detroit Institute of Art's founder's prize with this picture.

ROOM FOR PLEASURE—That giant Steinway piano is a treasure for the Beattys. One of few of its kind when built, this instrument plays rolls electrically, producing loud and soft tones as directed on the roll. The big room has an imported oriental rug which ends under a magnificent curved sofa, custom built to fit the curved wall. The Beattys once visited the Southern mansion depicted on the mural in the background.

IMPORTED STAINED GLASS—This photograph should be in color. Various hues that glimmer through two leaded-glass windows imported from Paris make the room come alive. The red velvet gentleman's chair is only one part of the well-planned room arrangement. The big clock at right is more than 150 years old and still rings out the time every 15 minutes.



PLEASANT AREA — This is one of the Beatty's favorite spots. The wide cafe-curtained window in the background curves out and around like a new moon. Williamsburg blue carpeting sets the pace in this 40- by 30-foot living room which is filled with art objects that rate places of distinction in museums. The beamed ceilings are rather low, giving a feeling of friendly warmth throughout the house.

Painting? Check Water

Moisture is the cause of much unsatisfactory paint service. Under certain conditions, the effects of moisture can be controlled best by using special blister - resistant paints. They may be oil or water-base paints and must be used as directed to obtain their maximum efficiency.

CRISP AND RUSTIC — A covered portico, bow window interesting roofline give this eight-room modified split level home a warm and welcoming appeal. The house contains three (or four) bedrooms, 2½ baths. It was designed by architect Samuel Paul.

Modified Split-Level Has a Low Silhouette

A seemingly slight but extremely significant modification of split-level building technique gives this economical home a low and handsome silhouette while retaining to a large degree an advantage more commonly found in two-story designs.

The advantage is twofold: ease of movement throughout the daytime activity areas; and clear separation of the sleeping area.

Unlike the usual split-level pattern, only four steps divide the lower levels—and the most used portion of the housekeeping area is all on one floor. That means far less stair climbing.

★ ★ ★

The house, designed by architect Samuel Paul as H-12 in the House of the Week series, contains eight nice size rooms in a modest basic area of only 1,154 square feet and over-all dimensions of 56 feet by 32 feet 10 inches. It would fit comfortable on a 75 by 85 foot plot.

RIGHT AMOUNT

An important feature of the house is its balance. It seems to contain just the right amount and disposition of all the elements necessary for comfortable contemporary living.

Included are four bedrooms (or three bedrooms and a den), two full baths, an additional lavatory, a kitchen with dinette space, attached garage, screened porch, and a private balcony off the master bedroom.

The exterior is crisp and streamlined with a rustic contemporary flavor. Because of the roof design it appears larger than it really is.

★ ★ ★

The main entrance is sheltered by a wide portico roof and is located at the ground level, a full story below the bedrooms. This also gives the home a distinctive two-story appearance.

LARGE FOYER

A large foyer with double coat closets flows indoors from the portico and funnels traffic neatly to all areas of the house. The living room is four steps above the foyer, and an attractive iron railing separates the two.

A glamorous cathedral ceiling stretches across both the living room and adjoining dining room.

The two rooms also are well ventilated from three directions —the handsome bow window in front, the large window in the rear of the dining room, and the window on the side wall. An inviting stone fireplace, visible from the foyer, is the focal point of the formal area.

★ ★ ★

A second staircase links the kitchen and family room, joining the two in an integrated but clearly separated informal area.

AMPLE SPACE

The kitchen has ample space for a dinette.

Architect Paul suggests that a built-in settee under the double window might be an interesting arrangement—giving the housewife a place to relax as she makes out the grocery list.

A downstairs lavatory is well placed near the kitchen, convenient to the backyard as well as the entire lower level.

★ ★ ★

An alcove across from the lavatory is a convenient location for the laundry equipment—and note the handy laundry drop.

ARMS' REACH

Toss the soiled clothes in the bottomless "hamper" in the main bath upstairs, and they wind up within arms' reach of the washer.

The family room has outdoor entrances on two sides. Adjoining the rear entrance is a double closet, placed in just the right spot.

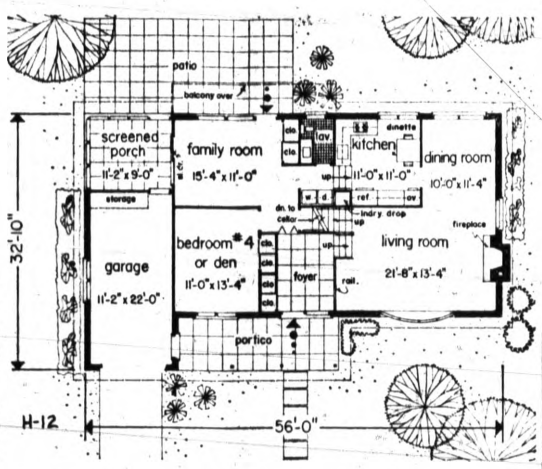
Sliding doors lead to the screened porch, extending the function of the family room as an all-weather play area.

★ ★ ★

The extra room downstairs is large, has plenty of closet space and is convenient to the lavatory — which means it could serve as a bedroom is necessary.

FITTING BONUS

All three main bedrooms are nicely arranged upstairs, along with two full baths. The luxurious balcony adjoining the master bedroom is a fitting bonus for the homemakers.



FLOOR PLANS — The basic area (lower floors) is 1,154 square feet of living area and the upper floor 616 square feet. The house contains a 587-square-foot cellar. Over-all dimensions are 56 feet by 32 feet 10 inches and the architect recommends a 70-by-85 foot plot.

How to Build, Buy or Sell Your Home

Full study plan information on this architect-designed House of the Week is included in a 50-cent baby blueprint. With it in hand you can obtain a contractor's estimate.

You can order also, for $1, a booklet called YOUR HOME—How to Build, Buy or Sell it. Included in it are small reproductions of 16 of the most popular House of the Week issues. Send orders to House Plans, The Pontiac Press, P. O. Box 9, Pontiac, Michigan 48053.

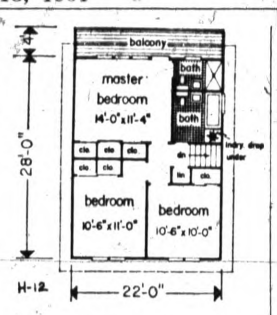
Choose Right Heating Unit

It's important to choose the right heating system for your home because it represents a lifetime investment.

★ ★ ★

It is an investment in comfort and health that will directly affect your family and the value of your home.

You will want to choose a hydronic heating plant that is economical in maintenance cost and fuel consumption. This is more important than initial cost.



upper floor plan

H-12 STATISTICS

An eight-room modified split - level home. Basic area (lower floors) is 1,154 square feet; upper floor 616 square feet; screened porch 116 square feet; garage 275 square feet; portico 114 square feet; upstairs balcony 88 square feet; cellar 587 square feet. Over-all dimensions are 56 feet by 32 feet 10 inches. Total living area; 1,770 square feet. Recommended minimum lot; 70 by 85 feet.

Put Asphalt on Walls

The only way to keep permeable basement walls dry is to apply a heavy coat of asphalt to the outside of the walls before back-filling; this should, of course, be done while the house is being built. In addition, the earth near the foundation should be graded for easy run-off of rain water.

Check City's Regulations Before Improving House

Planning to let your belt out and expand the old homestead? Better check just to be sure you don't give City Hall a bad case of indigestion.

What looks like an attractive property improvement to you may well be a violation of the local building code.

To prevent costly mistakes, check with a city building inspector before you add that garage or sunporch, do any plumbing or wiring, or even put in a split-rail fence.

USE DRAWING

Show him a drawing of your proposed project that indicates its relationship to property lines.

Of course not all improvements require building permits. Improvements within the home, such as remodeling a bathroom, are pretty much your own business.

However, it will pay you to use durable materials such as ceramic tile on walls, counters and the floor.

Ceramic tile is impervious to stains, scratches and water, and it's easily cleaned by nothing more than a quick wipe with a damp cloth.

Outside the house, one should be careful. In most areas, there is a vood deal of latitude in what you can do with your backyard, but frontyard alterations often are rigidly controlled.

Owners of corner lots usually have to be especially careful about how and where they add improvements.

Drop Seen in Funds for Mortgages

A continued moderation in the in-flow of new savings at the nation's savings and loan associations and current record advance mortgage commitments may reduce the supply of home mortgage funds in some regions early in 1964, the United States Savings and Loan League says.

According to the league's Monthly Trends Report, the 6,330 associations across the nation, which provide nearly half of all home mortgage credit, received an estimated $810 million dollars in net savings gains during November, 7 per cent below the increase in net savings experienced in November a year ago.

Despite the present slowdown in new savings, the league projects that net savings gains for all of 1963 will reach $10.9 billion dollars, approximately 15 per cent above the previous record total of $9.5 billion dollars set in 1962.

★ ★ ★

However, the League's projected 1963 total savings and loan mortgage lending of $24.7 billion dollars, up 20 per cent from 1962's previous record lending volume, indicates that the lending activities of the associations will have more than balanced the year's high savings in - flow, leaving no significant excess in savings funds at year-end.

'High-Profile' Home May Be Smart Move

If the lot is small, it may be wise to consider a "high profile," — either a two-story home or a roof that's sufficiently high-pitched to permit subsequent installation of attic rooms.

Through either recourse, you can spare yourself the trouble and expense of a future move, which might otherwise be necessitated by the growth of your family.

New Paneling Resists Stain

Expensive redecorating can be eliminated when walls and ceilings are covered with paneling which has a permanent plastic surface that is highly-resistant to stains and hard wear.

The durable plastic-finished hardboard paneling resists fruit juices, alcohol and countless other household liquids that stain ordinary finishes. It is easily wiped clean with a damp or sudsy cloth.

Available in a wide range of colors and patterns, Marlite paneling is suitable for any room in the house.

★ ★ ★

Used for both new construction and remodeling, the versatile paneling can be applied by either a professional applicator or an experienced home handyman.

Plastic-finished Marlite, because of its easy maintenance and durability, also is widely used for interiors of offices, stores, public rooms, shops, institutions and hospitals.

New Floor Has Look of Real Wood

A new flooring material consisting of genuine hardwood veneer embedded in clear Krene vinyl film gives nondescript floors the expensive look of authentic random planking.

The new material meets FHA requirements and is long-wearing, low cost and easy to install. Its unusually thick vinyl surface resists all common household chemicals and ensures long years of functional beauty.

Trademarked True Wood, the flooring is available in walnut, cherry, oak and mahogany. It is produced in 48-inch-long random planking, 4-, 6- and 8-inches wide—with or without "pegs"—as well as in 9 by 9-inch tile and other patterns.

The material cuts easily with standard tools, and in installation and maintenance is comparable to conventional vinyl flooring.

True Wood flooring is manufactured by Wilcox - Woolford Corp., Spring City, Pa., and costs approximately 75 cents per square foot. Krene vinyl film is made by Union Carbide Corp.

Working Wife Uses Special Furnishings

All right men, let's face it. You can't have your cake and eat it too.

This old cliche may be hurled at husbands in many situations, but it is never so apt as when applied to the man with a working wife.

As interpreted by Jessica Thomas, home specialist, it means in this instance that the working wife is going to have less time to devote to home management, and that either the quality of her performance must suffer or efficiency must be stepped up.

One of the reasons why many wives get a job in the first place, according to Miss Thomas, is to help provide a home and furnishings she can be proud of—and then she is faced with the dilemma of how to do justice to both the job and her home.

This frustrating situation can be alleviated only through the selection of home materials, appliances and furnishings with an eye to cutting upkeep.

Such things, for instance, as floors that need little polish and window sash that swings for easy cleaning are among a long list of minimum - maintenance materials now available.

Wall Paint Can Beautify Any Basement Area

You can change your basement into a bright family or play room with a few gallons of colorful, quick-drying paint and a few hours of work in which every family member can join. Your local paint dealer can provide you with the quality paint.

Since almost all basement walls contain cement in one form or another, you must use a paint that will not be affected by the alkali present in cement which is not compatible with ordinary oil paint.

In addition to selecting the right paint, proper surface preparation and correct application are also necessary for a successful job, points out the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association.

★ ★ ★

There are a number of different quality paints that are suitable for basement walls. Easiest to use are the latex paints made for use on masonry; they are quick-drying and the painting tools are easy to clean afterward.

CEMENT PAINTS

Highly regarded, too, are portland cement paints, swimming pool paints and reinforced masonry paints. For a tile-like finish on concrete block, there are also some epoxy coatings.

After selecting your color and type of paint, the next step is to prepare the surface properly.

In most instances, this consists only of removing dirt, dust and loose or crumbly material with a wire brush. Grease or oil should be wiped away with paint thinner or detergent. Be sure to patch or caulk all cracks and holes. A crumbly surface may need a coat of special binding conditioner.

You don't have to wait for the walls to dry after washing if you use latex paints. But, be sure to prime any bare metal in the walls with an anti-corrosive metal primer first. After this has dried, apply the paint with brush, roller or spray.

Opening lead—♥ J

By OSWALD JACOBY

South's two no-trump response to his partner's opening is not recommended. True he held 13 points and no-trump distribution, but he was totally unprepared for a heart lead.

JACOBY

It would have been far better tactically for South simply to have responded two clubs and let the bidding develop slowly.

Three no-trump would still have been the final contract and three no-trump should make with no trouble at all, but South really compounded his first crime by misplaying the hand.

The hearts presented no problem because dummy showed up with the ace, king and queen. At trick two South played a club from dummy and finessed his jack.

West won with the queen and continued hearts, whereupon South continued with his club suit. Unfortunately, clubs failed to break and South wound up with only eight tricks.

How much easier things would have been for South had he only stopped to count winners and losers before leading to trick two.

He might have visualized the possibility of a losing club finesse and a bad club break, then noticed that dummy held a five-card diamond suit.

True, it was headed by the jack, but South had the queen and ten to fit with it and had South simply started after diamonds he would have been sure of making three diamond tricks.

He would still have his top spades, hearts and clubs. No one could take those from him and would have wound up making at least four no-trump.

A—Bid six spades. Either your partner wants you to bid six if you can take the second heart or he is afraid that West will make six hearts. In either instance it will pay to go to your own slam.

Spy Trial Gets Postponement

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The trial of two men accused of conspiring to spy for the Soviet Union has been postponed from Feb. 3 to May 1.

★ ★ ★

In granting a defense motion for the postponement Friday, U.S. Dist. Court Judge Robert Shaw also gave the lawyers permission to copy documents allegedly seized at the time of the arrests.

★ ★ ★

The defendants are John William Butenko, 38, Orange, N.J., an electronics engineer, and Igor A. Ivanov, 33, a Russian chauffeur for a Soviet trade agency who is living in New York.

★ ★ ★

Butenko and Ivanov were arrested by the FBI with two members of the Soviet mission to the United Nations at a deserted parking lot in Englewood last Oct. 29. The FBI said a briefcase found in the Russians' car contained documents giving information about a secret Air Force contract. Also found in the car was a tiny document camera, the FBI said.

★ ★ ★

The two Russians arrested with Butenko and Ivanov and a third member of the Soviet U.N. delegation named in the FBI complaint have been expelled from the United States.

Hearing to Resume in Waterford Twp.

Resumption of the public hearing on the proposed Andersonville Road street light special assessment district is slated for Monday in conjunction with the Waterford Township Board meeting.

The hearing was adjourned a week last Monday so board members could study the possibility of splitting the originally proposed district.

In other business Monday, the board will consider approving a final plat for a proposed 179-house subdivision near Pleasant Lake.

★ ★ ★

Last week, the board approved a water agreement between the township and Houseman-Spitzley Corp., the developers, calling for them to construct a water system for the subdivision.

PNH Routs Skippers, 104-49; Chiefs Top Handy Handily, 81-52

Huskies Hit Record

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

There must be some consolation in scoring 100 points. It kept the crowd at Pontiac Northern screaming to hit the century mark as the Huskies poured it on Waterford, 104-49.

PNH played double-or-nothing with the Skippers by holding leads of 60-30, 80-40, 90-45 before reserve Dave Shieb hit two free throws with 31 seconds left to make the score read 100-48.

The 104 points is a new school, gym and Inter-Lakes conference scoring record and it was obvious the Huskies had every intention to set these marks.

The 46 field goals was also a new record as the Huskies took 106 shots while Waterford managed only 16 from the floor in 53 attempts.

HAYWARD HITS 28

Starter Roger Hayward went all the way and led the scoring with 28 points as all 11 PNH players got into the scoring. Hayward, although hitting 13 field goals, was not as accurate as he usually is. He took 35 shots, but he also grabbed off 24 rebounds for the night.

Waterford had a minute's worth of glory by taking a 5-2 lead, but Hayward scored six straight points and gave PNH a 10-5 lead.

The young Skippers were no match in any department for the Huskies, and coach Bob Taylor realizing this early enough gave his bench a good workout for most of the second half.

★ ★ ★

The 104 points topped the 95 Northern hit against Franklin earlier this season and the victory broke the three-game losing streak for coach Dick Hall and the Huskies.

★ ★ ★

The victory gave Northern a 3-1 record in the Inter-Lakes and a first-place tie with Farmington which defeated Southfield.

Waterford has yet to win in the I-L and the Skippers have only one win to show for their seven starts.

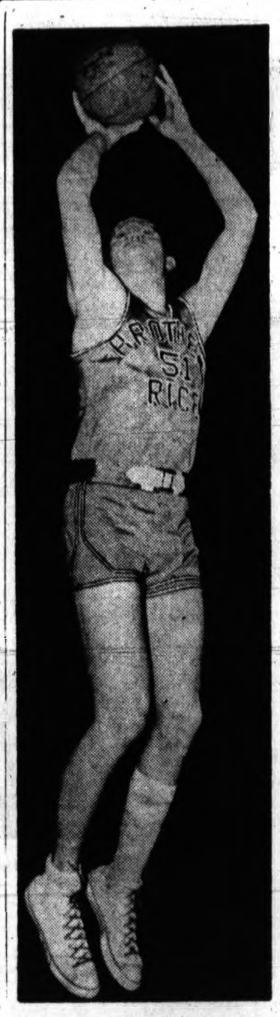
Rice Quint Wins Big Against CC



BIG WARRIOR — Brother Rice won its biggest game of the season in whipping Catholic Central 78-53 and Big Bill Moore, 6-6, hit for 21 points.

Brother Rice is on the move, and the Warriors of Birmingham made it known they will be reckoned with when tournament time rolls around.

The Warriors defeated a highly touted Catholic Central quintet 78-53 last night with good balanced scoring from four starters.

Catholic Central took a fast 14-3 lead and held a 19-14 advantage after the first period, but Brother Rice, led by Dave Walter's four buckets shot ahead 35-31 at halftime.

In the third quarter Paul Jagel found the range, hit four quick buckets and the Warriors outscored the Shamrocks, 24-8 to widen the gap.

Bill Moore with 22 rebounds and 21 points topped the scoring followed by Walter's 20, Jagels 16 and Bill Keller's 14.

Brother Rice had a red hot shooting percentage hitting 34 of 65 field goal attempts for 48 percent.

It was the 7th straight victory after an opening one point loss for Brother Rice.

Johnson Triggers Win

By DON VOGEL

Jim Johnson stole the spotlight from his more illustrious Pontiac Central teammates last night.

And it was a good thing the husky, 6-3 center entered the contest with Bay City Handy primed for action. Otherwise, the third place Chiefs may have been licking their wounds after the Saginaw Valley Conference basketball game in the PCH gym.

The Chiefs' margin of victory, 81-52, was expected, but it could have been much closer.

Johnson's stellar first-helf performance enabled PCH to hold a 35-29 lead at the intermission. Then his slumbering mates suddenly woke up and Handy was finished.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs started the game by simply going through the motions of play. They managed an 11-5 lead and seemed to have the situation well in hand.

★ ★ ★

But the Wildcats were just getting used to the unfamiliar surroundings. They started to move while the complacent Chiefs continued to fire away, many times not even coming close to putting the ball in the hoop.

Johnson, however, was a player seemingly bent on personally whipping the Wildcats.

He controlled both backboards, tipped in three baskets and canned a layup after spearing another rebound in the first period. Without his efforts the Chiefs would have trailed much more than 18-17 at the quarter.

The big center continued his strong play in the second period and slowly the Chiefs came to life.

★ ★ ★

The Wildcats stayed close until midway in the period when guard Jim Nesbitt, the team's top player, was pulled after drawing his third foul.

TOP SCORER

Mel DeWalt, PCH's leading scorer, also started finding the range and this didn't help the Handy zone defensive setup. He poured in 10 markers in the second quarter and wound up with 24 to take game honors.

★ ★ ★

Necessary back court fouls hampered Central with Bill Morgan going out in the first period with three and Al Keel benched in the second with the same number.

The Chiefs were a different team in the second half.

They started connecting with the basket, fast breaking off rebounds by Johnson and Gerald Henry and outscored Handy 46-23.

★ ★ ★

The Wildcats missed plenty of easy shots in the last half and also fluffed some key free throws. They failed to score a basket for a five-minute stretch in the third session and fell behind, 53-31.

★ ★ ★

"Johnson saved us in the first half," said Central coach Fred Zittel. "Without him, we would probably have been 10 to 15 points behind at the half.

★ ★ ★

"The way Handy was playing, we could have been in trouble."

★ ★ ★

One of the better performances was turned in by No. 7 player Walter Moore who missed a couple of days of school with the flu. Zittel also had kind words for Carl Arnold, the No. 6 player, who relieved Morgan.

★ ★ ★

"It was just one of those games that comes along every now and then," said Zittel. "The boys were up for Pontiac Northern and Flint Northern and then Handy comes here with a 1-5 record."

The victory was the seventh in eight games for the Chiefs.

★ ★ ★

Zittel isn't worried about any complacency next Friday. That's when the Chiefs invade Saginaw for a showdown with the first place Trojans.

Kettering Rolls to 7-0 Record

Kimball, Seaholm Win in EML

Royal Oak Kimball received a scare but the Knights will stay perched on top of the Eastern Michigan League for another week at least after beating Roseville, 54-49 last night.

In other league games, Birmingham Seaholm got back to winning ways in downing East Detroit, 52-49, while Hazel Park continued to falter in losing 71-36 to Mt. Clemens. Ferndale defeated Port Huron, 68-45 in the other game.

Kimball was outscored from the floor by two field goals and was down 39-36 at the three quarter mark, but a field goal by Lloyd put the Knights ahead 45-44 with 4:35 left in the game.

Hitting only 16 of 52 attempts, Kimball decided to concentrate on defense since the offense was cool and the Knights threw a tight press in the final quarter to shake the visitors.

LEAD ALL THE WAY

Seaholm led 25-22 at halftime and even though East Detroit closed the gap to three points with two minutes left, the Maples were deadly at the free throw line and kept the lead.

Both teams hit 20 field goals but Seaholm had 12 of 13 from the line. Seaholm's Mark Fritz had 19 and Gary Geister the same number for the losers.

Hazel Park, which had a 5-0 mark in the league two weeks ago is now, 5-3 and the Parkers had their coldest night of the season. Al Hairston led Mt. Clemens with 21 points.

★ ★ ★

Ferndale received 22-point efforts from Lee Palmer and Bruce Rodwan in dumping Port Huron. Palmer hit nine for 18 and Rodwan had nine of 16 attempts from the floor. Jim Cates and Doug Meyers had 14 and 13 respectively for the losers.

Late Basket Gives Groves League Win

Bill Stephenson's basket with 16 seconds remaining in the game carried Birmingham Groves to a 47-46 decision over Livonia Franklin Friday evening.

★ ★ ★

The decisive two-pointer enabled Groves to even its Northwest Suburban League record at 2-2.

In a second loop tilt, Detroit Thurston moved into a tie with idle North Farmington with an easy 83-60 triumph over Oak Park.

Ten players dented the scoring column for Groves with Rick Whiteman and Rick Rowan netting eight each to pace the attack.

HONORS

Larry Duffield took game scoring honors with 20 points for Franklin. The loss left Franklin with an 0-9 record.

★ ★ ★

A 30-point second quarter carried Thurston to a 46-20 halftime lead and the team coasted through the final frames.

Bob Benegoni led the winners with 15 points, and Fred Bradley canned 15 for Oak Park.

FLETCHER SPEARS

After seven games, it looks as though it will be sometime before any leaks develop in the basketball ship of Kettering's Captains.

The Captains ran their season record to 7-0 and cracked the team scoring record in disposing of Romeo in business-like fashion Friday evening, 84-63.

Hitting 57 per cent of their field goal attempts, the Kettering quintet rolled to a 43-33 halftime margin, and coach Joe Duby let the reserves handle most of the action in the final half.

The win boosted Kettering's mark in the Tri-County League to 3-0, leaving the squad a game ahead of Lapeer, an 84-62 winner over Oxford.

SCHOOL MARK

The Captains set the school scoring mark of 78 points in trimming Waterford last Tuesday, and only Duby's generous use of his bench help kept the score from ballooning against Romeo.

Earl Hook and Rick Pankey were too much for the Bulldogs.

The 5-8 Hook hit on seven of eight field goal attempts in the first quarter for 14 points and finished with 20.

Pankey shot sparingly in the opening quarter but he took aim on the nets in the middle periods and wound up with 27 markers, his top output of the season.

★ ★ ★

Bob Bogert, Jim Nyberg and Tim McGrath gave the Captains control of the backboards and Bogert tallied 16 markers before departing in the third quarter.

Carl Kemp led the Bulldogs with 13 points.

OXFORD SLIPS

Lapeer's decision over Oxford ended a two-game losing streak for the Panthers and upped their season record to 5-3.

The Panthers grabbed a 23-9 first-quarter lead and were never in trouble.

Dick Fellers (24) and Bob McKenna (19) paced the Lapeer attack.

Leading the Wildcat offense were Buzz Cork (17), Jim Bates (15) and Elroy Converse (11).

The loss was Oxford's fourth against two wins.

Vikings Fall From I-L Tie

Farmington kept pace with pre-season favorite Pontiac Northern in the Inter - Lakes League basketball race Friday night but Walled Lake stumbled at home.

The tall Falcons built their mark to 3-1 by trimming Southfield, 66-55, while Walled Lake missed a chance for the same mark when Berkley prevailed, 74-69.

Southfield, Berkley and the Vikings now are all 2-2, one game off the pace. Waterford still is seeking its first win in the race.

Walled Lake's George Bullock scored 22 points and pulled down 27 rebounds but could not offset a balanced attack by Berkley which had four players in double figures.

The Bears held a six point halftime lead, saw Walled Lake lead by one several times in the third period, and took command for good in the fourth period when the home team never led.

★ ★ ★

Ron Kent's 23 and Gary Ross's 20 topped the winners.

Big 6-8 Neil Warriner pumped in 24 points and garnered 15 rebounds for Farmington which led all the way against Southfield's Blue Jays.

Dave Schlack hit 17 and John Olander 12 to aid the Falcons' attack. Southfield's leading scorer was Ray Schlaff with 16 while Joe Consideine had 10.

New Haven Halts Rally to Take League Lead

New Haven cut short a budding Capac rally Friday evening in posting a 68-65 win that gave the Rockets sole possession of first place in the Southern Thumb League.

The Rockets held a seven-point lead with 1:21 remaining in the game, but the Chiefs cut the deficit to one point with 36 seconds left.

Dwight Lee led the Rocket attack with 27 points and John Scheuer tossed in 21 for the losers.

The win was New Haven's seventh without a loss, and the setback was Capac's second in succession.

In other league games, Almont turned back Brown City, 61-46, Anchor Bay trimmed Armada, 71 - 56, and Memphis pounded Dryden, 86-55.

Ken Schulte paced the Almont attack with 19 points. The win put the Almont five into a tie with Anchor Bay for third place in the league. Both have 3-3 records.

Don Burns, Memphis' 6-5 center, ripped the nets for 35 points in leading the Yellowjackets past the sophomore - studded lineup of Dryden.

Ken Kitchenmaster led the losers with 14 points.

Bloomfield 5 Surprised by Clarenceville

Holly, W. Bloomfield Post Loop Victories in Other Games

By JERE CRAIG

Those Wolves Clarkston has been turning loose on the Wayne-Oakland League basketball teams revealed themselves to be hawks—ball hawks—Friday night.

The Wolves, or rather hawks, stole a 48-45 victory from Northville and in the process sank their claws, or rather talons, into the league throne seat.

The victory — coupled with Bloomfield Hills surprise 57-55 loss at Clarenceville—gave unbeaten Clarkston a two-game lead over its closest pursuer.

West Bloomfield continued its strong New Year push by winning 62-38 at Brighton. The other league game saw Holly slip past Milford, 69-60.

★ ★ ★

Clarkston had its paws (or claws) full with the visiting Mustangs from Northville. The winners did not have the lead until the third quarter and never led by more than two until the final three seconds.

With ailing senior Ken Miskin out of the lineup more than he was in it, the home team had to scrap for many of its points using ball hawking tactics that really paid off.

Miskin got in the act by forcing a Northville dribbler to lose the ball and then converting the loose spheroid into the winning field goal with 1:05 left to play.

★ ★ ★

Northville's Jerry French missed two chances to tie the score at the foul stripe with 10 seconds to play. Clarkston recovered the rebound and star backliner Dan Craven hit two foul shots with three seconds to play to ice the verdict.

The taller visitors controlled the backboards most of the game but lost possession repeatedly trying to clear the ball or bring it up court.

★ ★ ★

With Miskin resting much of the first three periods, Craven carried the offensive burden for Clarkston. He hit 29 of the team's 48 points.

IRONMEN

Clarenceville displayed strong endurance in upsetting Bloomfield Hills, the second place team. The Trojans never substituted in the game and grabbed an early lead which they did not relinquish.

★ ★ ★

The visiting Barons trailed 32-19 at halftime but cut the deficit to 33-31 in the third session. But the winners moved to a five-point advantage which they maintained until the final two minutes.

Dave Graves hit 27 points and had 15 rebounds to pace the Clarenceville squad. His eight points in the second period outscored the entire Hills' team.

West Bloomfield won its third straight game with the aid of a 24 point spree in the third quarter. The Lakers hit 11 of 16 shots in the session.

Rochester Gives Orion Scare; Fitzgerald Holds O-A Lead

By HERB PETERS

Winless Rochester might be heard from yet in the Oakland A Conference. The Falcons (0-6) showed considerable signs of life last night in a stirring, 84-81, loss to Lake Orion.

The Dragons (4-2) had to work exceptionally hard to stay close on the heels of Fitzgerald and Troy, who posted easy victories.

Unbeaten Fitzgerald made it six in a row by stomping Avondale, 69-51, as the Yellow Jackets fell to a 1-5 record. Troy remained a game behind the Spartans but seriously damaged Clawson's title plans with a 51-40 triumph.

The Trojans now are 3-3 and tied with Warren Cousino, 61-39 victors over Madison (2-4).

CLOSE GAME

The night's top thriller unquestionably was at Rochester where the Falcons surprised Lake Orion with a 19-18 first period lead and never trailed by more than four at the end of any quarter.

Typical was the second in an electrifying race-horse game that had both shooting with remarkable accuracy. Rochester led three times, the score was tied twice, and Lake Orion emerged on top for the fourth time in a 39-37 half.

In the third period the lead changed five times and on five other occasions the score was tied before the Dragons carried a 61-57 advantage into the final period.

There was no let up in the finale. Four times the Falcons overtook Lake Orion, but each time the Dragons pulled ahead. The last deadlock was 79-79 with 1:48 to play.

★ ★ ★

Bruce Fritz broke the final tie with a free throw at 1:26 and quickly canned a field goal. Bob Mills closed the gap with a shot when 40 seconds remained, and the Falcons received a chance for an upset with six seconds to go.

But Dave Call was short with a free throw, bouncing the ball off the front rim into the hands of Bill Hamilton, who made a fast break for the closing goal at the buzzer.

★ ★ ★

Rochester's Bruce McDonald led all scorers with 31 points and sophomore teammate Dan Ludwick, making his first start, tallied 22.

HITS 27

John Cucksey, who drove in for layups in a manner reminiscent of his football broken field running, paced the Dragons with 27, while the fire-balling Fritz added 23.

Tom Dobberstein, fully recovered from an ankle injury which had kept him out of the recent key Troy game until the final minutes, hit for 27 in Fitzgerald's win over Avondale. Denny Acker collected 18 to lead the Yellow Jackets.

Troy gradually built-up its margin over Clawson each period, moving away from a 27-22 half behind the 21-point leadership of Ted Bauer. Jeff LaFata was a 17-point gunner for Cousino as the Patriots evened their record.

Cranbrook Rolls

Buzz Mieras scored 27 points yesterday as Cranbrook's basketball team crushed Detroit St. Gabriel, 67-47. The winners, who hit 50 per cent of their field goal attempts, led 36-18 at the half.

Rams Plunge to 5th With Loss to FOLS

St. Frederick's basketball tailspin reached three games Friday as the Rams dropped an 85-66 decision to Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows.

Three weeks ago, the Rams were riding high in the Northwest Parochial League with a 4-1 record and were talking in terms of a loop title.

★ ★ ★

Today, their loop record is 4-4 and they are lodged in fifth place in the league race.

In other league contests, Royal Oak St. Mary moved within one game of the parochial crown with a 52-57 triumph over Waterford Our Lady of Lakes, and Orchard Lake St. Mary handed Detroit St. Agatha a 63-60 setback.

FOLS romped to an 18-10 first-quarter lead over the Rams and padded the margin to 37-23 at intermission.

Lowry Holland, the Rams scoring ace, entered the contest with a 21.5 average but could collect only 11 points against the stiff FOLS defense.

SCORING PUNCH

Bob Peoples led the Rams with 13 markers and Mike Dean tossed in 11.

Dave Hamilton led the Sorrows attack with 20 points and Bob Hart added 19.

Conrad Krogulecki and Ken Kwilosz provided the scoring punch in the late stages of the game to run the Eaglets loop record to 4-3.

★ ★ ★

Krogulecki hit three quick baskets as the game neared the three-minute mark to put the Eaglets in front, 59-58, and Kwilosz stole the ball for a basket and added two free throws with five seconds left to put the game on ice.

★ ★ ★

Four players hit double figures for the Eaglets. Krogulecki led the way with 16, followed by Kwilosz (15), Frank Rompel (15) and John Stolnicki.

Mike Roemer led St. Agatha with 26 amrkers.

Royal Oak St. Mary clinched a tie for the championship by beating Waterford Our Lady.

The Irish led 30-8 at the half as Our Lady's cagers scored only one field goal in one of their poorest efforts in three years. Don Wells led the winners with 16 points.

Road Looks Rosy for Midwestern 5

The road looks rosy for the Midwestern Baptist Falcons of Pontiac, a member of the Michigan Christian College Athletic Association (MCAA).

★ ★ ★

The squad tops the MCCAA basketball league with a 4-0 record and will try for its fifth win at 5 p. m. today on the Emmanuel Christian court, facing Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music.

The Grand Rapids school looms as the only thorny problem in the rosy picture.

The Falcons have never defeated the visitors in league competition (0-4). Breaking that streak today would give the birds a firm hold on first place.

Shrine Attack Falters as Team Drops No. 7

Royal Oak Shrine took an early lead but faded in the stretch in dropping a 68-59 decision to Holy Redeemer.

Shrine jumped in front in the first quarter but fell behind at halftime, 30-23.

Bob Mendryza paced the winners with 24 markers followed by Jou Riley (16) and Dwight Jones (12).

Jim Turner led Shrine with 19 and Jim Seymour tossed in 14. The loss was Shrine's seventh against two wins.

Tag Team Match Set for Armory Matmen

A tag team match featuring the Three Hillbillies, the Great Mephisto and Ivan Kalminkoff is one of the bouts on tonight's wrestling card.

The top match will have Leaping 'Larry' Chene opposing The Student. The action will get under way at 8:30 p.m. at the National Guard Armory.

Halts Losing Streak

Royal Oak Dondero snapped a three - game losing streak Friday evening by coasting to a 63 - 49 triump over Grosse Pointe.

Doug Goulait paced the Dondero attack with 22 markers, followed by Rick Hirsch (17) and Bill Sevald (12).

The State Conservation Commission has approved the purchase of 90 acres that will make the Holland state park one of the "foremost parks in America."

The Detroit Pistons finally broke their losing slump with a 101-99 victory over New York last night in the first game of an NBA doubleheader. Ray Scott's last second basket decided the issue.

In a slow-moving bout between heavyweight contenders in Cleveland last night, Zora Folley outpointed Canadian champion George Chuvola. There were no knockdowns.

★ ★ ★

Bob Stampe of Detroit trailed Bill Lillard of Dallas by only six pins today in the All-Star Bowling tournament. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, the defending women's champion, faced possible elimination before reaching the semifinals.

Mountainview Downs Union Lake Sextet

Chuck Williams and Chipper Caruso each scored two goals and goalie Mike Gerbeck kept the opposition at bay as Mountainview Rangers downed Union Lake, 9-0, last night in Waterford Boys senior hockey.

In the other senior clash, Northside Boys Club clipped Wixom-Walled Lake, 3-2. Richardson Dairy topped Drayton Merchants, 6-3, in the intermediate division.

Lamphere Defeated

Clintondale fell behind 2-0 and then rolled up a fast 35-16 halftime lead before defeating Madison Lamphere 61-39 last night.

Williams Murdock hit 25 points to lead the winners and set Lamphere back with its 5th defeat in eight starts. Phil Bartolone had 15 for the losers.

Waterford players Dick Miller (24) and Tom Somers (43) try to block out Roger Hayward and Dave Sudbury from rebounding position. Rick Ziem is the defender on Rabaja.

Faces New Challenge

Balding Holds Lead in Crosby Golf

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UP) — Canada's Al Balding was a threat today to run away with the top prize in the $60,000 Bing Crosby national pro-amateur golf tournament — but he must master feared Pebble Beach before he claims the title.

★ ★ ★

The handsome thin man from Toronto reached the halfway mark of the Crosby classic with an 11-under-par total of 133 and a three-stroke lead over his closest competitor, Bruce Devlin of Australia.

The rest of the field, including Tommy Aaron, Jay Hebert and "Champagne Tony" Lema, all tied for third at 138, hoped Pebble Beach might take some of the zing out of Balding's razor-sharp game.

EASIER COURSE

The 39-year-old Canadian played the first two rounds of the tournament on two easier courses—and he played superbly. He has 12 birdies and an eagle in the first 36 holes against only three bogies.

But today and again on Sunday he has to play the "big one" —a 6,747-yard monster which is one of the most feared and respected golf courses in the world.

Still in the running as the third round got under way were defending champion Billy Casper, back on his stick with 71-68—139; Bob Charles, the New Zealand lefthander, and Al Besselink, also both at the 139 mark.

And at 140 were consistent Bobby Nichols, one of the top 10 money winners last year, and Jerry Steelsmith.

At even par 144 with 16 other pros was Julius Boros, the National Open champion, while buried back in the pack were the one-two punch of golf in 1963 —Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus. Palmer and Nicklaus were tied at 145 together with 13 others.

Utica Center Ties Mark in Victory

Center Mike Kowalski tied Utica's school scoring record Friday as the Chieftains ended a six-game losing streak with a 75-72 win over South Lake.

Kowalski tossed in 37 points to tie the mark set by Dave Krast against Romeo in Dec. 1960.

Utica trailed 36-33 at intermission but the squad poured in 22 points in the third quarter to take the lead. The win gives the Chieftains a 1-6 season record.

Man Beats, Robs Woman

A Farmington Township woman was beaten and robbed early today in front of her apartment by an unknown assailant.

Mrs. Dorothy Lindbloom, 29, 21516 Oxford, Farmington Township, told police she was returning from work when a man grabbed her by the throat and knocked her to the ground, stealing her purse.

An unknown amount of money and identification papers were taken in the 4:20 a.m. robbery.

Skid Row Store Man Charged in 31 Deaths

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The operator of a Skid Row variety store has been charged with involuntary manslaughter in the wood alcohol deaths of 31 persons in Philadelphia last month.

Dist. Atty. James C. Crumlish Jr said 31 warrants were issued for the arrest of Max Feinberg. He is accused of selling a canned heat product containing wood alcohol to Skid Row derelicts.

Quake Hits Formosa; Damage Not Severe

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — An earthquake jolted Taipei today. Buildings shuddered but there were no reports of severe damage.

The weather bureau said the earthquake's intensity was three on a scale that goes up to six.

Wallendas to Use Net in Detroit?

DETROIT (AP) — The high-flying Wallendas, who have seen three members of their high-wire circus act fall to their deaths in the past two years, may be forced to use a net when they come here next Friday to perform.

At the urging of Councilman Mel J. Ravitz, the Detroit Common Council will decide the issue Monday.

★ ★ ★

"I'm sure it is good publicity for them to have an accident, but we don't want this to happen again in Detroit," Ravitz said.

It was in their first performance at the State Fair Coliseum on Jan. 30, 1962, that two of the Wallenda troupe were killed, and a third seriously injured when their seven-member human pyramid collapsed.

PARALYZED

Dieter Schepp, 23, and Richard Faughnan, 29, were killed, and Mario Wallenda, 24, now is paralyzed from the waist down as a result of the fall.

In April, 1963, Henrietta Grotofent, 42, another member of the troupe, was killed in a 50-foot fall from a pole on which she had been balancing.

★ ★ ★

Last November, a wire snapped and six members of the troupe were injured as they tried the human pyramid act the Detroit tragedy.

A bill sponsored by Sen. John Bowman, D - Roseville, that would have made it mandatory for aerial performers to use a net in Michigan, died in committee in March, 1962.

USE NET

Karl Wallenda, who will be 59 Tuesday, said his troupe would "absolutely" use a net if a city ordinance requires it.

He said a net about 10 or 12 feet square would be placed under the wire, even without an ordinance. During dangerous tricks, said Wallenda, the net could be lifted by men standing alongside if they think anything is going wrong on the wire.

"We are not against using a net," said Wallenda. "We have used the thing many times. A circus artist, when he does something daring, is not doing it because he wants to be killed."

2 Men Arrested in Avon Break-in

Two Mount Clemens men were to be charged today with burglarizing an Avon Township factory a year ago and stealing $5,000 worth of equipment.

Most of the equipment was recovered on private property near Selfridge Air Force Base after the arrest of Thomas Gobble, 23, and Michael Berger, 21, according to Oakland County detectives Ray Bills and Gerald Gaedt.

Police said the pair broke into the DRD Manufacturing Co., 808 S. Rochester, on Feb. 2, 1963 and hauled the equipment away in a truck.

Noted Writer Dies Aboard U.S. Liner

LONDON (AP) — Terence Hanbury White, 57, who wrote a series of stories about King Arthur and his round table which became the basis of the Broadway hit musical "Camelot," died Friday aboard the U.S. liner Exeter in the Piraeus, Greece, harbor.

White was author of "The Sword in the Stone" and "Mistress Masham's Repose."

Friend of 'Teddy' Dies in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Charles M. Postl, 79, a friend and wrestling partner of Theodore Roosevelt and a former light-heavyweight wrestling champion, died Friday.

Postl came to the United States from his native Vienna, Austria, in the early years of the century. He opened a health club in Chicago and was active in direction until his death.

Burroughs Corp. Gets $5-Million Contract

DETROIT (AP) — The Army has awarded Burroughs Corp. a $5 million contract extension for the production of secret electronic equipment.

This, however, will not affect the firm's decision to phase out certain operations here, switch to other plants in the metropolitan area and foreign countries, spokesmen said.

Today in Washington

Senate Unit Near Tax Cut Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

TAXES: The Senate Finance Committee hopes to wind up voting on the tax cut bill by Wednesday — setting the stage for the possible start of floor debate the week of Jan. 26.

★ ★ ★

Senate leaders hope to get the bill through by the time Congress starts its Lincoln's Birthday recess Feb. 11. Conferences to work out differences between the Senate bill and the version that has passed the House would come later.

In action Friday, the committee handed the Johnson administration a major victory by voting 10 to 6 to eliminate a House-approved provision to cut capital gains taxes on assets held two years or more.

CUT REVENUE

This would have reduced revenue an estimated $260 million a year. Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon had asked the committee to remove the provision.

ESTES TAXES: The Internal Revenue Service says Billie Sol Estes owes Uncle Sam $18.2 million in back taxes and penalties.

Estes, facing 23 years in prison after conviction on charges of mail fraud, swindling and conspiracy, is fighting the claim in the U.S. Tax Court.

★ ★ ★

Tax offcials doubt they have much chance of collecting from Estes, whose vast fertilizer and cotton empire collapsed in 1962, triggering a Senate hearing into allegations he received favored treatment from Washington officials.

Estes, whose income for the three years before the fall was estimated by the taxmen to be more than $14.1 million, is free on bonds while appealing his conviction.

EARNINGS: American factory workers earned an average of $102 a week in December—a new high.

The Labor Department reported Friday that average weekly earnings were up 91 cents from the November figure.

MAJOR FACTOR

The major factor was increased overtime. The factory workers toiled an average of 40.8 hours each week in December, compared with the 1963 average of 40.4 hours.

DOCTOR DRAFT: Because of insufficient volunteers, the Defense Department has issued a draft call for 1,050 doctors for this summer.

"This call is necessary because insufficient numbers of 1963 medical school graduates volunteered for active duty immediately following internship," the department said Friday.

★ ★ ★

Most of those called will become general duty medical officers when they go on active duty this summer in the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Last summer, 1,350 doctors were drafted.

2 Jailed on Fraud Charges in Vegetable-Oil Scandal

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Anthony DeAngelis, central figure in a $100-million vegetable-oil scandal, was in jail today charged with defrauding a tank-storage concern of nearly $46.5 million.

★ ★ ★

Also in jail, similarly charged, was Joseph Lomuscio, a former employe of the storage firm.

Superior Court Judge Robert Matthews originally set bail for each at $46,499,295.63, the amount allegedly owed the plaintiff. Later, after hearing pleas from the defendants' lawyers, he agreed to reduce the bail to $150,000 for DeAngelis and $100,000 for Lomuscio.

ON CONDITION

Matthews said he had granted the reduction on the condition that the two men appear Monday in his court and submit to an examination of their assets. Neither could post bond, and both were taken to jail.

★ ★ ★

DeAngelis, president of the Allied Crude Vegetable Oil Refining Corp. of Bayonne, which went bankrupt two months ago, and Lomuscio were arrested Friday on a complaint filed by Joseph M. Nolan, trustee in bankruptcy for Harbor Tank Storage Co. of West New York.

★ ★ ★

Harbor Tank was one of a half-dozen companies that went bankrupt in the wake of Allied's financial collapse. More than 50 companies have been affected.

The complaint alleges that DeAngelis and Lomuscio committed breach of contract and fraud.

AS CUSTODIAN

Lomuscio formerly was employed as a custodian by Harbor Tank.

The complaint said the alleged fraud had put Harbor Tank nearly $46.5 million in debt to holders of "false" warehouse receipts issued in Harbor Tank's name. Nolan said the receipts appear to have been used by Allied, or by companies which got them from Allied, as the basis for loans from banks and financial houses.

★ ★ ★

Nolan said that a survey of the 10 tanks which Harbor had used on the Allied premises showed that instead of containing soybean and cottonseed oils and lard as certified by the warehouse receipts, they contained fish oil, acidated soap stock, animal fat greases and fatty acids.

★ ★ ★

The nearly $46.5 million sought by Nolan represents face value of 80 warehouse receipts. Each of the receipts, Nolan said, was signed by Lomuscio as tank custodian for Harbor.

★ ★ ★

Lomuscio "unlawfully and maliciously" authorized the issuance of warehouse receipts for Harbor from 1960 to 1963 at DeAngelis' direction, the complaint said.

Opera Star in Separation

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Opera star Mary Costa said Friday that she and her director husband, Frank Tashlin, 52, have separated.

She said it is not a legal separation and no steps toward divorce have been taken.

"Frank and I have been separated off and on since last May," she added. The singer, 33, recently won acclaim for her performance in "La Traviata" at the Metropolitan Opera.

Detroiter Dies in Fire Caused by Smoking

DETROIT (AP)—James Easterling, 42, of Detroit, burned to death today in a fire at a Detroit apartment house. Firemen said the blaze, confined to the victim's apartment, apparently started from careless smoking.

100th Birthday Marked by Brass Band

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—"I'd like to hear a brass band," said Ella Gants when a reporter asked her what she wanted for her 100th birthday.

So Friday, on her birthday, the 4th Division band from nearby Ft. Lewis appeared on the lawn of the nursing home where Mrs. Gant lives and played several numbers, including "Happy Birthday to You."

"I'll remember you in my prayers," Mrs. Gant told Maj. Gen. Claire E. Hutchin, the fort's commander.

Retired Army Officer Dies in Maryland

SALISBURY, MD. (AP) — Amos W. W. Woodcock, 80, an Army officer in both world wars Bureau of Prohibition head in 1930-33 and president of St. John's College in Annapolis in 1934-37, died Friday.

Woodcock, a bachelor, was a brigadier general in World War II and helped prepare for the prosecution of Japanese war criminals. He was a special assistant to the U.S. attorney general in 1934-37.

Noted Ornithologist Dies of Heart Attack

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — Dr. Arthur A. Allen, 78, a Cornell University faculty member in 1907-53 and a pioneer in the academic study of birds, died Friday apparently of a heart attack.

Allen, a native of Buffalo, N.Y., founded the ornithology laboratory at Cornell in 1911, was the author of several books on birds and was a founder and second president of the Wildlife Society.

$1-Million Outlay

Romney Asks Park Program

LANSING (AP) — A recommendation for "an initial outlay of $1 million" to buy land for new parks in southeastern Michigan and near cities in other parts of the state came Friday from Gov. George Romney.

★ ★ ★

The remark was included in the delayed broadcasts of a television appearance in which Rommney reviewed his "State of the State" speech and touched on the budget he will propose to the leginslature Wednesday.

The "State of the State" message called for a "long-range program of state park development in easy reach of the metropolitan areas, whre more than half our people live." It asked for commencement of such a program in the current legislative session, but did not name an appropriation figure.

Great Lakes Need 'Boost,' Says Official

CHICAGO (AP) — The Great Lakes Commission has been urged to send a delegation to Europe to beat the drums for Great Lakes ports.

The port commissioner at at Kenosha, Wis., George M. Epstein, told the commission Friday at its annual meeting that there are "fabulous opportunities to simulate trade and to develop the economic expansion of American products as well as the importation of European goods."

★ ★ ★

Addressing port authorities, water resource experts, legislators and state officials from Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York, Epstein said:

"I can't think of any way that the Great Lakes Commission can do a better job of propaganda than to send such a group to Europe. The results would be far-reaching.

Man, 31, Gets Ape Kidney

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — The sixth baboon-to-man kidney transplant at Colorado General Hospital was performed Friday.

The recipient, a 31-year-old man, was in satisfactory condition, a spokesman said. The operation required six hours.

Of the other five persons to receive baboons' kidneys at the hospital, one died and four reportedly are making satisfactory progress.

Jury Panel Is Named in Evers Murder Trial

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Circuit Judge Leon Hendrick drew 200 names Friday as prospective jurors for the murder trial of Byron De La Beckwith, accused slayer of Medgar Evers, a Negro civil rights leader.

★ ★ ★

Court attaches said a number of Negroes were on the list but they could not determine how many because names on jury rolls are not identified by race. The trial begins Jan. 27. Evers was shot last June 12.

Actor Sees Daughter Become U.S. Citizen

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Actor Eddie Albert played a supporting role in federal court Friday.

His adopted daughter, Maria Carmen Albert, 10, was among 272 persons who became U.S. citizens in the court of Judge Thurmond Clarke.

★ ★ ★

Maria, born in Spain, was adopted by Albert and his wife Margarita three years ago. Mrs. Albert was born in Mexico City.

Former U.S. Official Dies in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elmer Andrews, 73, first administrator of the Fair Labor Standards Act in 1938, died Friday in a Fairfax, Va., hospital apparently of a heart attack.

★ ★ ★

After leaving the Labor Department in 1939, Andrews was a consulting engineer and was an inspector for the Urban Renewal Administration.

Pair Hospitalized After Car Accident

Two teen-agers were admitted to Pontiac General Hospital after their car rammed two trees last night on Squirrel Road near Butler in Pontiac Township. Three others were treated and released.

★ ★ ★

In satisfactory condition are the driver, James N. Black, 17, of 3912 John R., Troy, a concussion; and Daniel McMullen, 16, 305 E. Maple, Troy, a lacerated lip.

Sheriff's deputies said Black failed to negotiate a curve on a slippery pavement.

Airline Official Ousted in Tanganyika Dispute

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP)— The Tanganyika government today deported Alistair McKenzie, the Tanganyika and Zanzibar manager for East African Airways, to Nairobi, Kenya.

The deportation followed a disagreement yesterday between McKenzie and government officials over the dispatch of 100 police to Zanzibar to help maintain order. McKenzie agreed to provide a plane for the flight, but said international regulations prevented transport of guns and ammunition.

Man Found Frozen Near Howard City

HOWARD CITY (AP) — The frozen body of Chris Witt, 58, an Amble farm worker, was found Friday in a field near this Montcalm County community.

Medical examiner Dr. Gerald Sikorski said the man apparently had frozen to death. Police theorized that Witt may have fallen and was unable to get up.

It's the Same All Over

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Nationalist police headquarters said Friday 800 out of the 2,500 registered taxi drivers in Taipei failed to pass a recent driving test.

TENDERS WANTED
Royal Oak Drain District
Oakland County, Michigan

Sealed tenders of Royal Oak Drain District Refunding Bonds, dated May 1, 1937, with May 1, 1964 and subsequent coupons attached, will be received by the Oakland County Drain Commissioner at his office, located at 550 South Telegraph Road, Pontiac, Michigan, up to 2:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on the 18th day of February, 1964, to be publicly opened by him immediately thereafter.

Tenders must specify the serial numbers of the bonds offered and the amount for which they will be sold to the Drain District. Approximately $54,000 will be available to purchase tendered bonds. The County Drain Commissioner reserves the right to reject any or all tenders and to waive any irregularities in said tenders.

Offerings must be firm for three (3) days and shall be accepted by depositing letter of acceptance in the U. S. Post Office in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, on or before 12:00 Midnight on February 21, 1964. Collect telegraphic advice of acceptance or rejection will be made if requested in tender letter. Offering should be marked on the outside of the sealed envelope "Tender of Bonds."

Funds will be available at the Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, Paying Agent, on March 1, 1964, and interest from November 1, 1963, in the amount of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) will be paid on each Bond so retired upon Tenders.

Attention is called to the decree entered by the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, in Chancery, in the case of Earl L. Clark, Plaintiff, vs. City of Royal Oak, et al., defendants, which decree was affirmed by the Michigan Supreme Court upon appeal by Bondholders and certain cities (Clark vs. City of Royal Oak, et al., 325 Mich. 298). Under this decree, approximately two-thirds of the lands in the special assessment district are not subject to deficiency assessments which results in the cancellation of approximately 42 per cent of the total amount of the yearly deficiency assessments.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK OUR MANY friends locally and in the state for helping us celebrate the 70th birthday of Mrs. Mary H. Woods, our mother, which took place recently at the Church of God, 296 W. S. Blvd. Thanks again for the many gifts and encouraging words. The Woods Family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR dear mom, Ella M. Kerr, who died 1 year ago today, Jan. 18, 1963.

Sad is the heart of her children,
Yet brave as she'd want us to be,
Consoled by the thought of meeting,
On the shore of eternity.
Sadly missed by her children, Louise, Reynolds, and Irene and their families.

Announcements 3

AS A CITIZEN OF THIS COUNTRY and a member of the human race, we know that you are concerned about the state of the world and the ever recurring crises which beset it. The best efforts of our leaders have been fruitless and we watch humanity sinking ever deeper into the morass of war, poverty and destruction.

This Sunday, January 19th, this problem will be discussed and a solution offered by the Baha'i Community of Pontiac.

In the talk entitled, "Break Down the Walls" Mr. Thom Thompson will demonstrate how the Baha'i teachings may solve all of our problems and lead us to new heights of peace and prosperity. Mr. Thompson is a graduate of the University of Michigan and holds a Masters Degree in social work. He is presently the executive director of the Big Brothers of Oakland County. This meeting may change your life. Come and enjoy the friendly discussion and refreshment following Mr. Thompson's talk. The meeting will be held at the Pontiac Mall Community Center on Sunday at 3:00 P.M. There is no collection or door fee. Mr. Tom Hooper, FE 5-9974.

Reflections

YOUTH WEEK:

A youth does what he has seen his parents do and emulates what he has heard them say and we either apologize or glow with pride. He followed the script that we provided.

The boy who has been taught to value time, finish little jobs like hanging up his clothes, being on time for meals, doing school assignments promptly and thoroughly, thoughtful and kind to mother and father and choosing companions is a lap ahead of the boys who are dilatory, sarcastic, never finish what they start, scream at parents, alibi for temper tantrums and unfinished jobs. The first boy has a paper route, delivers his papers on time. He is dependable. We are proud of him, his subscribers are happy and the Publisher is making room for him, at the top.

Youth Week is a time when we see ourselves through our children. We see them as young executives, artesians, artists, social leaders, politicians, lawyers and doctors and literally burst with justifiable pride. And those young people are proud of their parents, too.

Indonesians Demonstrate

Protest Before U.S., British Embassies

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — More than 1,000 shouting and singing Indonesian students demonstrated today before the U.S. and British embassies.

They presented petitions protesting the proposed movement of units of the U.S. 7th Fleet into the Indian Ocean and Britain's role as military protector of the new Federation of Malaysia.

The march was without incident or violence. The students were accompanied by police armed with bayonets and rifles. The demonstration was organized by the young wing of President Sukarno's National Front party.

★ ★ ★

Sukarno, principal opponent of Malaysia, wound up initial talks in Tokyo today with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, special U.S. peacemaker in the dispute Kennedy will continue his talks with Sukarno in Jakarta next Wednesday.

STUDENT BELIEF

The students interpreted the proposed diversion of 7th Fleet units to the Indian Ocean (called the Indonesian Ocean here) as a show of U.S. support of Malaysia.

In Washington, the proposal has been described as support with Communist China.

U.S. charge d'affaires Francis Galbraith told student leaders there was no definite plan to move any 7th Fleet units to the Indian Ocean. American diplomats have tried to convince the Indonesians the fleet movement would have nothing to do with the dispute with Malaysia.

★ ★ ★

A mob burned the British Embassy and destroyed other British property in anti-British rioting last September after Malaysia was formed with British support. British personnel are now in a temporary embassy.

Set Art Workshop in Waterford Twp.

A three-day workshop in modern creative art is slated Jan. 28-30 for 48 teachers in the Waterford Township school system.

DABBS

Mrs. Betty Ohlrogge Dabbs, art consultant for Binney & Smith, Inc., of New York, manufacturers of school art supplies will conduct the workshop at Donelson Elementary School each day from 3 to 9 p. m.

Teachers will learn by trying out the various techniques presented by Mrs. Dabbs.

These will include uses of crayons, water colors, poster paints, finger paints, colored chalk and modeling clay. Simple craft techniques also will be shown.

Public Hearings to Be Held on Lakes Seaway

WASHINGTON (AP) — Public hearings have been scheduled tentatively in Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland and Baltimore in the Senate Commerce Subcommittee's study of transportation problems on the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Seaway.

★ ★ ★

The meetings are planned for late February and early March, but no specific dates have been fixed, the subcommittee said Friday.

The special panel will review progress of the seaway since it opened in 1959, and discuss its toll structures, which are now the object of a study by the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp.

11½ Inches of Snow Don't Stop Grass Fire

MENOMINEE (AP) — The Menominee Fire Department was called out to fight a grass fire Thursday night near the interstate bridge linking this Upper Michigan community with Marinette, Wis. The area has had 11½ inches of snow since Dec. 2, but mild temperatures have uncovered patches of grass underneath. The fire did no damage.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS — Headed by James Clarkson, (center foreground) president, these are the men who direct services of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland. Others pictured are (from left): Conrad N. Church, Clark J. Adams, Dr. John J. Marra, Chairman R. Clare Cummings, Mahlon A. Benson Jr., John Q. Waddell and Vice President and Secretary James M. Rahl.

Annual Report Made by First Federal

Following is the annual report of James Clarkson, president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

January 10, 1964

At this time of year it is customary for the management of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland to make its annual report to members.

Due to unprecedented support from its membership and the community at large, the association has enjoyed record activity in every phase of its business activities. It is a pleasure for me to submit the 29th annual report to the shareholders.

During the year, your association increased its assets 32.46 per cent from $42,572,886.71 as of 1962 to $56,395,015.46 as of Dec. 31, 1963; this being our highest level in our 29 years of operation.

This reflects a dollar gain in assets of $13,822,128.75.

★ ★ ★

During 1963 First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland attracted $10,983,832.51 in new savings—the amount by which total receipts exceeded withdrawals.

SAVINGS CAPITAL

This net savings gain brought our total savings capital to an all time high of $48,775,275.15, or 29.16 per cent increase, giving us the opportunity to further expand our home financing activities.

We are appreciative of the expression of public confidence which the growth in savings balances reflects.

The total number of new savings accounts opened in 1963 was 8,025 accounts. The total number of savings accounts on the books at his time is 25,452 accounts.

★ ★ ★

In addition, we have 906 Christmas Club accounts giving us a grand total of 26,358 accounts.

DIVIDENDS PAID OUT

The total amount of dividends paid out during 1963 to our shareholders amounted to $1,674,314.54. The total amount of dividends paid out in 1962 was $1,283,365.79.

This indicates that we paid out $390,948.75 more to our shareholders in 1963 than we did in 1962.

This institution has always paid the highest rate of dividends consistent with safety.

Our reserve position was strengthened by the addition of $352,429.30 giving us a total in reserve and surplus in the sum of $2,444,141.31, thus giving us a total of reserve against savings in the amount of 5.01 per cent.

This is far in excess of the amount required by law and charter of this association.

During 1963, First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland increased its total mortgage portfolio to a high of $44,551,660.99 or a 28.42 per cent increase from 1962.

The total dollar volume of mortgages closed in 1963 was $19,825,848.96. This was a $8,141,875.77 increase over 1962, amounting to 1,270 new loans.

There were 427 mortgages amortized or paid off during 1963, and the majority of these people now own and enjoy their homes free and clear.

★ ★ ★

The total dollar volume deposited in 1963 was $28,957,608.30. The total dollar volume withdrawn was $17,973,775.79.

MODERNIZATION DEPARTMENT

Our relatively new FHA Home Modernization Department, which was formulated in July, 1962, for the year of 1963 closed 1,673 new loans.

This was a dollar volume of $1,259,075.45 giving us a total aggregate of $1,776,497.50 outstanding on the books at this time.

Our predictions for 1964 reflect that this association will have assets in excess of $70 million as of the close of business Dec. 31, 1964.

★ ★ ★

During the fourth quarter of 1963, our new four-story addition was completed. All departments have now moved into their new quarters, which will certainly show an increase in efficiency and better customer service.

OPEN HOUSE SET

We are very proud of our new addition and sincerely hope that all of our friends will visit this new addition during the open house celebration to be held from Jan. 20 through Jan. 31.

For the second year running, First Federal of Oakland has been the largest mortgage lending institution in Oakland County.

In conclusion, I would like to refer to our greatest asset.

★ ★ ★

Unquestionably the greatest asset of First Federal of Oakland is its personnel including the directors—responsible for making policy; its officers who carry out policy and direct day-to-day business activities, and a staff of well-trained men and women responsible for courteous service for the savers and home borrowers.

CAPABLE LEADERSHIP

The directors of our association are successful business and professional men long acquainted with the problems and opportunities offered by this community.

I am sure that under their able leadership, 1964 will certainly be a banner year for First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

SEEN AND UNSEEN — An eye-catcher to Huron traffic is First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland's new revolving time-temperature sign. Below is First Federal's expanded auto drive-in window facility, which can handle three lanes of cars. Under the driveway's surface is a unique tunnel which connects the teller islands with the building.

Expansion of Office Includes Several Distinctive Features

The expanded main office of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland, at 761 W. Huron, abounds in unusual features.

On the east side of the building is the auto drive-in facility, described by First Federal President James Clarkson as among the largest in the state.

The original teller booth on the side of the building has been modernized to fit the architecture of the two new teller islands.

Their construction, with wide windows and overhanging roof to protect motorist customers from the weather, resembles the entrance to a toll road.

GREATER SECURITY

But the booths are built for greater efficiency. Communications link them with the main building, and they contain the latest in security devices.

An unseen and underground tunnel, resembling a passageway in a fortification, connects each teller island with the building.

Dominating the driveway exit from the booths is a rotating outdoor sign, one of the largest of its type in the Pontiac area, which alternately flashes the time and temperature.

Savings Accounts Increasing

Customer transactions at the teller windows of savings associations throughout the nation continue to move upward.

Statistics tabulated at the end of 1962 by the United States Savings and Loan League show that each business day, the number of savings accounts increased by an average of 11,770.

Savers added $109 million to their accounts daily.

★ ★ ★

Savings associations serve a broad section of American society, dealing mainly with individuals and families.

ACCOUNT HOLDERS

A 1962 survey found that only 7 per cent of the savings were in accounts owned by businesses, corporations, trusts and charitable and nonprofit groups.

Associations are charged by law with promoting thrift. The increase in the number of accounts shows their success in meeting this basic obligation.

A preponderance of accounts show relatively small balances. An analysis at three associations revealed that 20 to 34 per cent of the accounts had balances of $100 or less.

★ ★ ★

Over half, between 51 to 61 per cent, were below $1,000. These accounts of $1,000 or less held 5.2 to 6.4 per cent of the association's savings.

$5,000 OR MORE

At the other end of the scale, the relatively few — 13.5 to 19.5 per cent — accounts of $5,000 or more held 61 to 65.8 per cent of the savings at the associations.

This distribution data, similiar to other savings institutions, suggests that while serving as thrift institutions, associations function in the broader capital market and are a factor in the formation of capital.

Of Saving Funds

Agencies Insure Safety

A key factor behind the rapid growth of the savings and loan industry is the presence of two government agencies which insure the safety and liquidity of the individual saver's funds.

The agencies are the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB), which provides a credit reserve for savings and loan associations through a chain of regional Federal Home Loan Banks, and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp. (FSLIC) which insures the individual savings accounts of its members associations.

They are managed by the federal government but operate entirely on money provided by the savings and loan institutions themselves. The FSLIC is actually an arm of the bank board.

★ ★ ★

Together they form a solid protective system for the 35.5 million families and individuals whose savings have built the savings and loan industry into a $100-billion business.

CREATED SYSTEM

Congress created this system in the early 1930's to make sure there would be no recurrence of the Depression experience, when millions of families lost their life savings because of the inadequate safeguard provided at that time.

More than $95 billion of the savings and loan industry's total assets today are held by associations which are members of both the Home Loan Bank System and the FSLIC.

Officials of the United States Savings and Loan League credit much of the industry's postwar growth to the public confidence these agencies have helped create in the safety and availability of savings held by associations.

★ ★ ★

The Federal Home Loan Bank system, composed of 11 regional banks and an over-all governing board in Washington, performs a function for savings and loan associations similar to that of the federal reserve system for commercial banks.

PROVIDE CREDIT

These home loan banks provide credit to member associations during seasonal periods of heavy demand for mortgage loans. They also stand ready to supply their member associations with whatever funds might be needed to meet unusual or unexpectedly heavy withdrawals by savers.

The Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp., which operates in its field as the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. does in the banking system, was created in 1934, two years after FHLBB came into being.

and loan league have asked

In the intervening 28 years, not a penny has been lost by the families who have saved in these insured associations. And the industry's safety record is so good that FSLIC's reserves have been able to grow steadily, year by year.

★ ★ ★

The funds originally provided by the federal government to launch the insurance corporation have long since been paid off and the system operates on premiums paid by its member associations.

ASKED RAISE

At present, each individual savings account in FSLIC-insured institutions is insured up to $10,000. The United States and Loan League has asked Congress to raise this insurance ceiling to $25,000.

Total assets of the nation's savings and loan business exceeded $100 billion at the end of 1963.

FINANCE SCHOOL—The seats in this employes training room at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland's main office are regularly filled for evening classes. First Federal has maintained an in-service school for nine years to better equip office workers and top executives with latest finance methods and to develop personnel for promotion.

Schedule Regular Classes for First Federal Employes

One of the most unusual activities conducted at the new First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland building is a regularly scheduled school.

Now in its ninth year, the school provides training to First Federal employes and offers evening classes twice weekly in a 65-seat training room.

"There are few financial institutions that conduct their own classes," explained President James Clarkson.

★ ★ ★

"But we find it's more economical to train our own personnel."

FULL RANGE

Various courses provide a full range of financial training, and typical students can be tellers or branch managers.

Clarkson explained that the training not only helps employes do their present jobs better, but prepares them for promotion.

The instructional staff is made up of First Federal supervisors, who acquire leadership knowledge at the same time.

A staunch backer of the educational program, Clarkson himself is an evening instructor on the finance staff at Oakland University.

More than 35 million savings accounts are currently active at the nation's savings and loan associations figures.

From Twin Federal Agencies

Funds Have Ironclad Protection

Twin federal agencies provide ironclad protection for the savings funds held by the nation's major financial institutions.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC) insures savings accounts at its member commercial banks and mutual savings banks while the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp. (FSLIC) performs the same function for its member savings and loan associations.

At present, both the FDIC and the FSLIC insure each saver at their member institutions against losses up to $10,000. A proposal to increase the amount of coverage offered by both agencies is expected to be considered by Congress this year.

According to their governing statutes, both the FDIC and the FSLIC make repayment of losses suffered by savers at the time when one of their member institutions is closed for the purpose of liquidation.

REPAYMENT MADE

Each agency at that time will make repayment either in cash or by opening a new savings account for the saver at another institution of the same type in the same community.

Since the establishment of the FDIC in 1932 and the FSLIC in 1934, their memberships have grown steadily until today the very great majority of all savings accounts are insured by these agencies.

More than 95 per cent or the total assets of the savings and loan business including First Federal Savings and Loan of Oakland are held in FSLIC-insured associations while approximately 99 per cent of total commercial bank assets and 87 per cent of total mutual savings bank assets are held by institutions insured by the FDIC.

Originally financed by the U.S. government, the FDIC and FSLIC reserves and administrative expenses are now wholly supported by their member institutions although both agencies have authority to borrow from the U.S. Treasury in a major emergency.

In the few instances in which these agencies have been called upon to repay savings losses, they have never failed to meet their full obligation.

There is no record of a single penny ever having been lost from savings funds insured by the FSLIC or the FDIC.

Aide Wins Award for Course Credits

Earl Fortin, assistant treasurer of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland, 761 W. Huron, has been awarded the achievement award by the American Savings and Loan Institute of Chicago.

The diploma represents the successful completion of at least four semester credits of study in the institute's specialized savings and loan courses. All of Fortin's study has been completed by correspondence through the Institute's home study division.

A nationwide educational organization, the American Savings and Loan Institute serves the savings and loan and cooperative bank business, and presently has over 18,000 managers and employes of these thrift and home financing institutions enrolled in its educational program.

TOPSIDE — The five-story main office of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland, at 761 W. Huron, has been termed one of the most unusual buildings in the state. The four new upper floors are literally suspended above the first, which was built in 1955. These steel girders, on the top floor, joined to massive outside beams, carry the building's weight. The snowy coating is a fire-resistant material.

Associations Nothing New

Can Trace Beginning to 1831 Formation

Are federal savings associations something new in American life? Only in name. They can trace their beginnings back to 1831.

At that time, a group of public-spirited men in Franford, Pa. (now part of Philadelphia), formed the Oxford Provident Building Association.

Individually, these men could never accumulate enough money to buy a home. Collectively, they could pool their savings and provide a home for each of the group in turn.

There were 37 men in this first association. Each subscribed $5 at the outset and agreed to pay $3 a month.

In a few months, they had $500 in the common savings fund.

The first loan application was made by Comly Rich, a lamplighter. The house he built still stands at 4276 Orchard, Philadelphia.

It shows what systematic savings, even in small amounts, can accomplish.

The home was the forerunner of approximately 25 million homes financed in the past century by thousands of savings associations patterned after Oxford Provident.

Savings Association— What Is Its Purpose?

Just exactly what is a federal savings association — like First Federal of Oakland—and what does it do?

It is a financial institution that accepts your savings and invests them primarily in loans on American homes.

At the present time, there are some 5,200 federal savings associations in the 50 states, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

Their total assets amount to more than $108 billion.

As they constitute a strong nationwide savings system, there must be plenty of people who believe in it.

Presently, over 17 million Americans deposit their savings with these associations.

The system itself had its inception in the Home Owner's Act of 1933, Section 5, which provided for chartering savings and loan associations.

All must qualify for insurance on their accounts by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp., and all must be members of the Federal Home Loan Bank System.

Further protecting the investments of savers is knowledge that their money is used to make loans on American homes.

These homes are going to stand a long time, and their owners are dependable people.

Another safety factor is that every association has to carry reserves.

They provide a margin of protection, usually between 5 and 10 per cent (in many cases more) of all loans made.

Savings get further protection from the association's management. They are the directors and executives who operate it in your name.

The directors are experienced leaders from various local businesses and professions.

Working with them is an executive officer with a specialized knowledge of the business.

Earned Dividends a Savings Benefit

One of the most attractive things about doing business with a savings and loan association is periodic payment of earned dividends.

First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland presently pays a 4 per cent dividend rate, computed four times a year.

Such earnings are the saver's personal share in the growth of the association.

U. S., State Charters

Savings and loan associations are chartered either by the federal government or by the state in which they are located.

Multimillion-Dollar Business From $20,000 Investment

Incorporated 28 years ago, First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland, then Pontiac Federal Savings, embarked upon an 18 year period that was to see slow, conservative growth.

The original capital in 1934 of $20,000 was from $5,000 in public subscription and $15,000 from the United States Treasury.

Early 1952 saw the association with one office and $3.5 million in assets.

Later in 1952 the first branch opened in Rochester, and still later that same year James Clarkson came to the association as secretary-treasurer. Clarkson's experience at the Wabeek State Bank in Detroit equipped him well for the job he was to undertake.

NEW OFFICE

Plans for the new office at 761 W. Huron were started in early 1953, and by mid 1955 the doors opened at the new office, one of the finest buildings in Oakland County.

When the new main office opened, the assets had grown to $7.5 million, more than twice the assets of the preceding 18 years. Phenomenal growth of $9.5 million was seen in 1956-57.

The Drayton Plains branch was opened in 1958 and the Walled Lake office opened in 1960, following another increase of $10 million in two years, bringing the total assets of First Federal of Oakland to $27 million.

In 1961, with figures at $33 million, another office was opened in Milford, along with the change in the name of the association to First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

MORTGAGE LEADER

Office number seven opened on Nov. 1, 1962 in Clarkston and by the end of 1962 our assets stood at $42.5 million with First Federal of Oakland becoming the mortgage leader in Oakland County.

On March 1, 1963 the Lake Orion branch was opened bringing the total number of offices to eight and the employe population to sixty.

James Clarkson became president of the association in December 1961.

★ ★ ★

Asked about any changes he made after joining the association Clarkson said two things: "mechanized" and "departmentalized."

Clarkson said further:

"I believe the tremendous growth of First Federal of Oakland is due largely to our endeavor to become a very real part of each community we have been received in. There is no substitute for courteous, efficent service."

In past years, First Federal of Oakland has provided financing for thousands of home owners, hospitals, medical and dental clinics, country clubs, golf courses, etc.

To give better service to all Oakland County communities, First Federal of Oakland established a complete new and very extensive FHA loan department in June 1962, putting on the books $750,000 in loans in the first five months.

This figure was increased to $1,776,497.50 by the end of 1963.

PROJECT COMPLETED

The project of adding four floors and two additional drive-in teller windows to the main office was completed in the fourth quarter of 1963.

Unusual in construction, the new addition does not rest a single ounce on the original first floor structure.

Each floor of 4,500 square feet is suspended from four 37½-ton, 12-foot-high trusses.

SUSPENDED

The trusses are supported on four 16-inch columns in the front and rear of the building, with the total load of 2 million pounds resting on eight concrete caissons.

The cassions are 30 inches around and 45 feet deep, flaring out to 6 feet in diameter at the bottom, and contain 18¾ tons of concrete.

The entire walls of the building are aluminum curtain walls, glazed with gray-tinted, heat-reducing glass.

★ ★ ★

The two new island drive-ins have a reinforced concrete tunnel serving them from the main office.

ELECTRIC ELEVATOR

Included in the new addition is an electric elevator which travels at the rate of 120 miles per hour and carries 18 people.

The mortgage department and vault occupy the second floor while the third floor houses the bookkeeping department and the tax and insurance department.

The fourth floor provides space for the FHA department, the new board of directors room, the president's office and an instructional classroom seating sixty people.

The fifth floor is the area used for mechanical and telephone equipment and the remaining space on the fifth floor is for future expansion.

AIR CONDITIONED

The entire building is air conditioned and has been called one of the finest and most modern facilities in Michigan.

Safe deposit boxes are now available on the main floor along with four spacious examining rooms finishing off the complement of the safe deposit department.

The year 1963 showed again tremendous strides by First Federal of Oakland. The total assets increased by 32.46 per cent from $42,572,886.71 as of Dec. 31, 1962, to $56,395,015.46 as of Dec. 31, 1963, our highest level in 29 years of operation.

This reflects a dollar gain in assets of $13,822,128.75.

The predictions for 1964 reflect that the association will have assets in excess of $70 million as of the close of business Dec. 31, 1964, Clarkson said.

First Federal Offers Home Repair Loans

First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland offers ready cash for home repairs or improvements.

The savings and loan association will "finance up to $3,500 after deducting any trade-in allowance and the value of any work" the home owner intends to do himself.

This is cash for repairs or improvements to an existing structure — even add rooms or a garage.

The entire amount of the repair job is available as soon as the loan application is approved — a pleasantly quick process, according to officials.

The loans are available as FHA Title 1 Loans.

First Federal Savings and Loan says there are no mortgage papers to be signed, no title searches, no legal fees, no endorsers, or no collateral.

* * *

A handy repayment plan is easily fitted to your budget and you can have up to five years to repay in small monthly installments.

Ask Many Questions Before Buying

First Federal of Oakland Savings and Loan Association officials advise home buyers that picking the right neighborhood is just as important as choosing the house.

First Federal cautions: "Many times a family will choose the home of their dreams, only to find the surroundings unpleasant or inconvenient."

In most cases the wise home buyer will decide upon the general area in which he wants to live before choosing the house.

★ ★ ★

Among the questions First Federal of Oakland suggests that home buyers ask about a neighborhood are these:

- Are street and lot patterns arranged for appearance, convenience and safety?
- Are the site plans and designs of houses in the neighborhood attractively varied?
- Is the neighborhood landscaping pleasing?
- Do zoning laws protect the residential character of the neighborhood?
- Are most homes in the same general price range?

★ ★ ★

In regard to what it calls "neighborhood congeniality," the league tells home buyers to find out:

Will the educational and social background and the income of your neighbors be similar to your own? Will there be neighbors in your own age group, with children close to the ages of your own children?

Noting that accessibility is obviously a primary consideration in choosing a neighborhood, First Federal of Oakland officials say that home buyers should ask:

ASK QUESTIONS

Will you be within walking or easy riding distance of schools, parks and playgrounds, a church of your denomination, local stores, athletic and entertainment facilities which your family enjoys?

Is there fast, frequent and convenient transportation to your place of employment, larger business and shopping area, entertainment and cultural attractions? Are there intercity transportation facilities?

Adequate community services are vital to a comfortable and convenient home life, according to the League. Home buyers need to obtain the following information:

- Are streets paved and well maintained?
- Is there proper sewage, drainage system, mail delivery, garbage pickup, police and fire protection?
- Are water, electricity, gas, telephone service and other utilities provided at reasonable cost?
- Is the community tax level within your budget and consistent with the services provided and will your budget be able to meet the expenses of special assessments or new bond issues if any are expected?

★ ★ ★

First Federal of Oakland stresses that: "When you have found a friendly, convenient and economically suitable neighborhood in which to live, then it's time to pick out the one house which best fits your family's needs and desires."

QUESTIONS SUGGESTED

It suggests that a checklist of questions such as these should be prepared or obtained by home buyers prior to looking at either neighborhoods or houses.

★ ★ ★

Most of the information a home buyer needs can be provided by the real estate man or home builder whom he contacts and by the personnel of the financial institution which may finance his home purchase.

Plan Loan for Home Carefully

Choosing the proper down payment and monthly payment terms are essential factors in successful purchase of a home, First Federal of Oakland savings and loan officials point out.

These home financing experts note that if a home buyer makes a very small down payment and arranges low monthly payments, he is bound to pay a high cost in total charges during the years of repayment.

On the other hand, they say, if he puts all his money into the down payment and arranges for the maximum monthly payments possible with his income, he may find himself without needed cash for home furnishings, repairs, modernization and a variety of unforeseen expenses.

★ ★ ★

First Federal of Oakland savings and loan officials have learned from experience that either of these extremes is dangerous.

Since it is their business to make the borrower's home financing plans workable, they try to determine reasonable mortgage terms based on his assets, income and living expenses.

Association Aids Many

A federal savings association savings account can reap benefits for the community, as well as the account holder.

It helps improve the neighborhood through loans to fellow citizens who borrow to build, repair or modernize their homes.

This puts money into circulation buying building materials and paying wages of tradesmen who do the work, which in turn contributes to other business and wage earners.

Way to Thrift, Homeowning Shown by Trailblazing Firm

First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland has been one of the trailblazers in motivating people of Oakland County to own their own homes and in developing a greater impetus for thrift savings.

This is the opinion of Don F. Wall, executive vice president of the Michigan Savings & Loan League, statewide trade association of the savings and loan industry in Michigan.

"First Federal of Oakland is one of the outstanding savings and loan associations not only of Michigan, but the entire United States.

★ ★ ★

"First Federal has provided true leadership in the financing of home loans and in the promotion of thrift financing, Wall said.

GROWTH RATE

"Its rapid and sound rate of growth in assets, savings, home mortgages and the number of people it serves from its main office in Pontiac and its seven branch offices are testimony of that leadership in the field of finance.

"The expansion of First Federal's main office building is a translation of the desires of the officers, directors and staff to better serve savers and a growing number of people who recognize the contribution of the savings and loan industry of Michigan to the economy of the state.

"The savings and loan industry of Michigan commends the officers and directors of First Federal Savings and Loan of Oakland for the recognition they have earned from the public.

★ ★ ★

"The expansion of the main office building is a symbol of security, strength and soundness of the association."

AGGRESSIVE LEADERSHIP

Wall said that aggressive leadership at First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Oakland was one of the reasons that the Michigan savings and loan industry ranks 10th among all of the states in the United States saving and loan industry and has "helped immeasurably" in building the savings and loan finance institution to a more than $2.75-billion industry in the state of Michigan and more than $100-billion in America.

★ ★ ★

"Despite the growth and size today of the savings and loan industry in Michigan and of First Federal Savings & Loan of Oakland, emphasis still is on the importance of the saver and the home finance customer," Wall said.

★ ★ ★

"We constantly are on guard to keep the personal touch in serving the people. As a result, we expect to make further strides in the years ahead."

Government Is Behind Savings Accounts

The great majority of savings accounts held by savings and loan associations are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, an agency of the federal government which provides coverage for all losses up to $10,000 for each separate account, according to the United States Savings and Loan League.

★ ★ ★

By Bank President

Congratulations Given

Goehler E. Ohmart, president of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis, congratulated the local First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland for its "phenomenal growth."

In his statement, Ohmart detailed the institution's progress. He said:

"Congratulations are certainly due to those managing the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland on this occasion of the formal opening of their enlarged home office.

"This institution has, in recent years, enjoyed a phenomenal growth with assets at the end of 1963 exceeding $56,000,000.

"The essential objectives of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland are twofold.

"One is to promote self-reliance among the citizens of this area through the encouragement of thrift habits.

"Equally important is the objective of providing assistance to those who wish to become home owners and furnishing funds to promote widespread home ownership.

"Factors often overlooked in evaluating the importance of the operations of a specialized institution of this kind include the record number of people it influences and serves.

"Organized in 1934, its original savers numbered 50 at the time the doors were opened for business.

GRADUAL INCREASE

"The number of people served increased gradually until 1952 which marked the date when the current chief executive officer was employed.

"At that time, the savers numbered 2,565 and homes being financed equaled 951.

"During the succeeding eleven years a record of extraordinary service to the community has been accomplished.

"Twenty-five thousand four hundred fifty-two savers now have accounts totaling $48,775,000. These funds are being used to finance residences for 6,523 home buyers.

RESPECTED CITIZENS

"From its beginning the institution has been under the direction of a group of highly respected citizens.

"The directors have been diligent in their adherence to sound operating principles. They have demonstrated a far-reaching vision in recognizing and serving community needs, thereby making a significant contribution to the city of Pontiac and its environs."

"An example of this managements' policy is the current operation of seven branch offices strategically located throughout the Pontiac area.

"The record of achievements makes a dramatic story which adds luster to the names of those who have been associated with this institution as directors and active personnel."

Three Points About Federal

To better understand what First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland is and does, remember the following:

- It derives its charter through an act of Congress and has the support of the Federal Home Loan Bank System.
- Savings accounts are insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp.
- First Federal pays dividends promptly on March 31, June 30, Sept. 30 and Dec. 31 each year.

Savings Associations Are Limited by Law

Savings and loan associations are limited, by custom and by law, to two basic areas of specialization — providing savings accounts for the public and making mortgage loans to finance home purchases.

Barry Claims LBJ Trying to Divide U.S.

Republican Hopeful Blasts Democrats at North Carolina Rally

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater today labeled President Johnson's plan for an attack on poverty "an attempt to devide Americans."

He said it echoes the program of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, which "divided the people up, pigeon holed them.

"If anybody has done anything to put people against people in this country, it's been the Democratic party over the last 30 years," said the Arizona senator, campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination.

Johnson has outlined a program that would cost about a billion dollars over the next three years to fight poverty by aiding stricken areas and individuals.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater told a news conference "I think it's a political gimmick. This is again an attempt to divide Americans.

PUT TO WORK

"How do you attack?" asked Goldwater, "Put people to work. The Democratic party has not put people to work.

"I don't believe we have a Democrat in the adminnistration who really understands the operation of the free enterprise system," he said.

Goldwater flew in from Kinston to address Republican leaders at a $100-a-plate breakfast.

LBJ Seeks Feminine Touch

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has told his all-male Cabinet the government is not using the brainpower of American women to the extent it should.

"The day is over when top jobs are reserved for men," the President said yesterday during a 25-minute discussion on the status of women.

He sent the Cabinet members back to their departments to look into the situation.

★ ★ ★

Johnson had called in Undersecretary of Labor Esther Peterson, a member of his status of women commission, and Elizabeth Carpenter, press secretary to Mrs. Johnson, to report on women in government.

SKILL BANK

Mrs. Peterson said she told the Cabinet: "There is a skill bank in the country from which there have not been sufficient withdrawals — skills of many educated and trained American women."

Later she told newsmen her briefing and appeal for more women in top posts "fell on very, very receptive ears."

Johnson was "forthright and forceful in his request that more women be brought into high level posts," Mrs. Peterson said.

★ ★ ★

"The President said it was important especially when the government is trying to improve the caliber of its policy-making people and is looking for persons with ideas, imagination and durability."

ADVANCE ON MERIT

Mrs. Peterson said habit and tradition in federal service had resulted in men only in upper bracket jobs until Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy recently issued a directive for advancement on merit, without regard to sex.

She said the Cabinet heard a report of a study made by Civil Service Commissioner John W. Macy Jr., which indicated a resistance among men to the idea of putting women in supervisory posts.

The study showed, however, that men who had been in jobs with women supervisors no longer judged advancement on the question of whether the person was a man or woman, but rather on merit.

★ ★ ★

Some of the Cabinet members told Johnson that they were already putting women in many posts.

U.N. DELEGATION

Secretary of State Dean Rusk pointed to three women members of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations — Jane W. Dick of St. Louis, a memebr of the social commission; Gladys A. Tillett of Charlotte, N.C., a member of the commission on the status of women, and Marietta P. Tree of New York City, member of the commission on human rights.

Recently, Johnson named Mrs. Peterson as special adviser to him on consumer matters.

Nikita Sides With Panama in Canal Rift

Embassy Staff Out Before Students Hold Anti-U. S. Protest

PANAMA (AP) — Most U. S. Embassy personnel were housed safely in the Canal Zone today after Panama took the final step in severing diplomatic relations with the United States.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev threw Soviet support behind the Panamanians and denounced U.S. action in the Canal Zone.

Most U.S. Embassy staff members and their dependents were evacuated to the Canal Zone last night, shortly before an anti-American students' demonstration and several hours after Panama said it was recalling the remainder of its diplomatic staff from Washington.

Panama asked the United States to recall its embassy staff from Panama City, but a U.S. State Department official said the request did not apply to consular officials, Peace Corps volunteers or members of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

★ ★ ★

Because of the exceptions, the United States does not regard the break as final. U.S. officials also indicated that President Johnson's troubleshooter, Edwin M. Martin, planned to remain in Panama.

WILL CONTINUE

Peace efforts are expected to continue in an effort to loosen a deadlock between the two countries over a 1903 treaty that gave the United States perpetual control over the Panama Canal.

The Panamanian government asked Costa Rica to handle Panamanian interests in the United States. Costa Rica also will handle diplomatic matters for the United States in Panama.

A skeleton staff of seven men headed by the senior consular official, Henry Taylor, remained in Panama City to man the embassy and handle consular affairs. Taylor will assume the office of U.S. consul general.

★ ★ ★

ABSOLVES CASTRO

"It was not Comrade Castro who organized the events in Panama," Khrushchev said. "These events are a result of the predatory policy of United States imperialists in Panama."

"We do not know what part the Communists took in these events, but we firmly know that the people of Panama, the working people of Panama, are fighting for the freedom of their country.

"They want to get rid of the oppression of the United States imperialists. This is a legitimate desire and we side with the people of Panama.

★ ★ ★

"We are convinced that sooner or later the people of all countries will gain genuine freedom and independence and expel the imperialists from their territories. This is why we say: "Display some reason, gentlemen. Get out before it is too late, before you are chucked out."

Romney Faces Busy Week

Includes 6 Speeches, Trip to Washington

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney returs from Utah today facing one of his busiest weekly schedules since his his grass-roots campaign to sell fiscal reform to the public across Michigan.

The schedule will carry him to Traverse City, Ionia and Washington, D. C.

Related story, Page 6

It includes six addresses to public gatherings, four visits to state institutions or offices, three major conferences on state matters, a reception and a dance.

★ ★ ★

After a morning of Capitol routine Monday, Romney goes to Traverse City for an afternoon of official visits to institutions—North western Michigan University and State Hospital—and an evening of politics.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Tuesday will be filled with an official visit to state offices in Lansing, a meeting of the State Administrative Board, and a welcoming address to the convention of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors.

Romney attends a meeting on cigarette smoking Wednesday in Lansing before leaving for Ionia, where he will visit the reformatory and address the Ionia Chamber of Commerce.

Thursday he will attend to state business in the morning in Washington, where he will address the Michigan Regional Foundry conference.

Mackie Announces: I'll Be a Candidate

LANSING (AP) — Highway Commissioner John Mackie said yesterday he will be a candidate in the Democratic primary this year and that he will decide "in two or three weeks" whether it will be for Congress or governor.

If he chooses Congress, he said, he would seek to represent the new 7th District, which includes Genesee County — where he lived before his 1957 election as highway commissioner — and Shiawassee and Lapeer Counties.

Mackie now lives on a farm south of Lansing near Holt in Ingham County.

Previously the question of a federal appointment had clouded the issue of whether Mackie would be a state candidate, but he said yesterday that the rumored proposed appointment now is 'out of the picture."

Meanwhile, a former state representative, now working for a unit of local government, declared that Mackie has a guarantee from a group of highway contractors that they would underwrite his campaign if he decides to run for governor.

★ ★ ★

"They want him to run for governor," said the informant, who asked that his name not be used because "it might cost me my job."

MORE FUNDS

"They want Mackie to run against Romney and fight for them for more highway funds. They have advised him to hold off his announcement for at at least a month, hoping someone else will jump in meanwhile."

Mild Temperatures Due in City Area

Wintry winds may blow in other sections of the country, but the weatherman said Pontiac area residents will continue to have mild temperatures through tomorrow.

Fair with a low of 24 is tonight's forecast.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy with the high aiming for a mild 38. The outlook for Monday is increasing cloudiness and not much change in temperature with a chance of rain or snow by afternoon or evening.

★ ★ ★

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 25. By 1 p.m. the reading was 40.

'Sleep, Sleep . . . You're Going to Quit Smoking'

COPENHAGEN (AP) — The state - owned Danish radio put a hypnotist on the air last night to try to stop people smoking.

This is what listeners heard:

"You won't smoke . . . You are not a slave of tobacco . . . You feel completely indifferent to tobacco . . . You have no yearning for tobacco . . . Your will is stronger . . ."

"Now go to bed . . . when you wake up in the morning, you will feel comfortable, your energy will be increased, your nervous system will be relaxed, purified of the poisons, there will be no more restlessness.

"You will feel tobacco has been removed from your life; You will not think of it; You won't want it.

"If you smoke tomorrow, you will feel the poisons entering your body, your whole organism will react, you will feel dizzy, feel like vomiting, your stomach will contract painfully, your heart will pound.

"But you won't smoke, you are not a slave."

Next Step: U.S. Approval

County OKs 1st Children's Village Plan

Final plans for initial units of a proposed Children's Village for Juvenile Court wards were approved yesterday by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The plans must now be forwarded to the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the federal government for further approval.

The federal government has pledged a grant under the Accelerated Public Works Act for half of the estimated $646,000 construction costs.

County officials are hoping to begin construction March 3 on the 50-acre Children's Village site at the County Service Center.

OVERCROWDED

The first three units are intended to solve overcrowded conditions at the county's existing youth facilities, and to enable more individual care and treatment, especially of emotionally disturbed youngsters.

Two youth cottages and a special service unit are proposed for immediate construction. They would be completed sometime in December.

Construction of the entire village is expected to take several years.

Ultimately it will provide campus - like quarters and educational facilities for all facilities for all youngsters placed in the county's care.

The plans are being prepared by the Pontiac architectural firm of Harry M. Denyes Jr. Associates, Inc.

Agreement Reached on M59 Work

Highland Road businessmen and the State Highway Department yesterday settled their dispute over closing a stretch of road (M59) for widening.

Circuit Court Judge Arthur E. Moore promptly lifted a temporary restraining order that had delayed the closing.

Yesterday's agreement provides that through traffic will be detoured from the 3.4-mile section between Elizabeth Lake and Airport roads by detour signs and "local traffic only" signs at Telegraph and Airport roads.

Barricades will be erected only on both sides of the Clinton River bridge west of Crescent Lake Road. They are expected to go up early next week.

CAN CROSS

Motorists will be able to cross the river on Tubbs Road north of M59.

This detour, which is to be made known by prominently displayed signs, was approved by the county road commission.

Closing of the road to through traffic had been scheduled for Jan. 3.

But 11 businessmen sued for an injunction against closing the road to through traffic until arrangements could be worked out to protect them against business losses they feared would be disastrous.

They claimed that the announced detour via Telegraph Road, Dixie Highway and Williams Lake Road would discourage more traffic than necessary.

Kennedy Sees SE Asia Talks

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy predicted today that the disputants in the Malaysian crisis will gather around the conference table to settle their differences.

Kennedy, President Johnson's peacemaker in the dispute, wound up an initial round of talks with Indonesia's President Sukarno, Malaysia's principal opponent.

At a news conference, Kennedy said he will confer again with Sukarno in Jakarta next Wednesday after an exchange of views with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines in Manila and Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur.

Kennedy, appearing with Indonesia's Foreign Minister Subandrio, said an Asian summit meeting of Malaysia, Indonesia and the Philippines is very possible.

OPPOSES FEDERATION

The Philippines, which claims the Malaysian state of Sabah—formerly British North Borneo—also opposes the new federation, but less vehemently than Indonesia.

Sukarno regards Malaysia as a form of British neocolonialism.

Kennedy said he was encouraged by his conversations with Sukarno during the past two days.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy, accompanied by his wife, Ethel, is on his first major diplomatic assignment for Johnson.

TO SOUTH KOREA

The Kennedys left this afternoon for South Korea to visit some of the 50,000 U. S. troops stationed there.

The attorney general also will call on President Chung Hee Park before leaving for Manila tomorrow.

On Tuesday he will fly to the Malaysian capital of Kuala Lumpur.

It is assumed Kennedy will go on to London after his second meeting with Sukarno for talks on the crisis with Britain's Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home.

Fear Cong Kills 2 GIs

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communists shot down a U. S. Army escort helicopter in the Mekong Delta battle today and two American servicemen and a British colonel aboard it were reported missing and feared dead.

★ ★ ★

The helicopter, a rocket-firing UH1A, was downed near the mouth of the Mekong River.

It was believed to have been hit in the tail rotor.

★ ★ ★

Two crewmen were fished out of the water near the crash site.

NOT HURT

They apparently were not hurt.

Five U. S. helicopter crewmen were killed and three wounded yesterday in operations supporting a Vietnamese government campaign to crush Red bases in the delta.

The Briton was identified as a wing commander named Lee, a member of the Royal Air Force, who is attached to a combat development test center in Thailand.

Though witnesses saw five persons floundering in the water after the stricken ship fell into the sea about a mile offshore, only two were afloat when other helicopters darted to the rescue. They were the copilot and a gunner.

ASK FOR BLOOD

Calls for blood donors were broadcast by the U. S. armed forces radio station as casualties were flown northward to Saigon from the delta.

The U. S. fatalities yesterday raised to 173 the number of Americans dead from all causes in Viet Nam in the last two years.

Combat deaths totaled 99.

★ ★ ★

The cruiser Providence, flagship of the U. S. 7th Fleet, eased up the Saigon River on a good will visit.

AIR COVER

B26 fighter-bombers provided air cover.

Aboard ship two giant Terrier missiles were at the ready and marines at battle stations, alert for trouble from Communist guerrillas.

With the 7th Fleet commander, Vice Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, was U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who boarded the 10,670-ton warship by helicopter.

★ ★ ★

The ship was a pointed reminder of the power the United States could throw into Viet Nam's civil war if Red Chinese or North Vietnamese forces decided to move in strength.

CONFERENCE

During the cruise up the river from the South China Sea, Moorer conferred for two hours with Lodge.

Shore batteries fired a 21-gun salute as the Providence docked on Saigon's busy waterfront for a three-day stay.

The ship's band planned to play for groups in the city.

★ ★ ★

A fleet spokesman told newsmen that 24,000 battle ready Marines are based with the fleet for fast delivery to trouble spots in Southeast Asia if needed.

RECOVER BODIES

Bodies of four Americans and one Vietnamese killed yesterday in the explosion of a helicopter that was attacking Communist foxholes were recovered today.

The other American killed was a U.S. Army Private First Class, door gunner on an H21 troop-carrier which was structurally undamaged.

Airborne Vietnamese troops moved into Saigon today to "secure weak parts of the city" and an order was issued banning further student demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

The moves followed two weeks of noisy, banner-carrying street marches by Vietnamese high school and college students here.

ANTI-FRENCH

Most of the demonstrations have been anti-French and anti-neutralist in tone.

Maj. Gen. Ton That Dinh, the interior minister, personally broke up such a demonstration last evening as students gathered around the French cultural mission.

Dinh told the students the government sympathized with their antineutralist views but asked them to disperse.

★ ★ ★

Today's communique declared that student demonstrations "are no longer necessary" and that the government "anticipated all appropriate measures to cope immediately with any maneuvers towards neutralization of South Viet Nam."

withdrawal of British troops from the tense Sabah and Sarawak frontiers before it agrees to a cease-fire in the guerrilla skirmishes there or peace talks with Malaysia.

Sabah and Sarawak share the island of Borneo with Indonesian Kalimantan.

GOOD HUMOR

Appearing refreshed and in good humor, Kennedy said the purpose of his trip is to "try to take this controversy out of the jungle, out of the warfare presently taking place and put it around the conference table."

In Manila, Kennedy will visit the famed World War II fortress of Corregidor in Manila Bay.

Before leaving for South Korea, Kennedy revisited Tokyo's Waseda University, where he was heckled two years ago, and was greeted by thunderous applause from thousands of students.

★ ★ ★

Leftists posted two anti-American placards in front of the hall where the attorney general spoke, but they were unable to muster a real demonstration, such as marked his previous tour of Japan.

'TEAR IT UP'

When Kennedy took the rostrum, four students in the front row of the balcony unrolled a paper sign reading in English, "Return Okinawa to Us."

Angry shouts of "tear it up" erupted from the audience and student guards wrested the sign from the demonstrators.

After the brief flurry, Kennedy smiled and said, "Now I remember how it was when I was here two years ago."

★ ★ ★

The audience burst into laughter.

Baker Probe Will Tell of LBJ Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators looking into the business dealings of former Senate aide Robert G. Baker plan to release early next week secret testimony on a $200,000 insurance policy issued on President Johnson's life.

The information includes testimony by Don B. Reynolds, Washington and Silver Spring, Md., insurance agent who issued the policy, and a sworn statement by someone else—"not the President" — who knows the facts, Chairman B. Everett Jordan of the Rules Committee said Friday.

NOTHING WRONG

The North Carolina Democrat reiterated that "there is nothing wrong" involved in the issuance of the policy by Reynolds' insurance firm, which once listed Baker as a vice president.

The committee is trying to learn if Baker, who quit under fire as Secretary to Senate Democrats on Oct. 7, or any other Senate employe was involved in conflicts of interest.

Jordan also said that Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., had voluntarily submitted a statement about his sale to Baker of a share in a Florida land venture.

Jordan said the statement showed nothing wrong with the sale. He said that no senators would be called to testify, because "there has been no senator implicated in anything."

Polio Vaccine Goes to Kalamazoo Area

NATIONAL WEATHER — Showers will occur over the northwest Pacific Coast tonight while snow and snow flurries will fall over the northern and central Plateau and parts of the southern Plains. Colder weather will prevail over the region from the Rockies westward and over Florida while warmer weather covers the Southeast, except Florida. It will be mostly fair to partly cloudy, with little temperature change elsewhere.

Board Okays Aviation Study

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors approved a $10,000 aviation study yesterday.

The study will examine the aviation needs in the county, and whether Pontiac Municipal Airport in Waterford Township, or the county's sod airfield in Orion Township should be developed further.

The board also accepted a $500,000 federal grant offer toward construction of a $7-million water supply system in Waterford Township, and scheduled a vote on annexation in Wolverine Lake Village for April 26.

Rebels Rename Zanzibar New 'Peoples Republic'

ZANZIBAR (AP) — The revolutionary regime today officially renamed this east African island nation "The Peoples Republic of Zanzibar."

Censored dispatches from Zanzibar did not make clear whether adoption of the Communist-style name meant the revolutionary leaders intended to set up a Communist regime.

★ ★ ★

The proclamation came as the Soviet Union joined other Communist and African nations in recognizing the rebel government that deposed the Sultan of Zanzibar and his Arab-dominated regime last Sunday.

★ ★ ★

In a message to Zanzibar's President Abeid Karume, Soviet Premier Khrushchev expressed hope for good relations between their countries and wished the people of Zanzibar "success in strengthening national independence and also progress and well-being," the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

DENOUNCED AMERICA

On Thursday, Karume angrily denounced the United States for failing to recognize the new government and ordered the arrest of U.S. Consul Frederick P. Picard III. After being kept under guard at his home, Picard was ordered expelled Friday.

The expulsion left only one U.S. diplomat in Zanzibar, where the United States has a satellite-tracking installation. All other Americans have been evacuated. The official is Donald K. Petterson, the embassy's third secretary. He was released from house arrest Friday.

Picard is in Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika, under State Department instructions to make no comment on the expulsion.

Four American newsmen Picard had tried to defend in an argument with Karume also left Zanzibar. Their dispatches had incurred Karume's wrath.

RELAXED RESTRICTIONS

The government today relaxed restrictions on four other correspondents. They represent The Associated Press, Reuters, the British Broadcasting Corp., and the Tanganyika Standard. They were confined to their hotel rooms Friday.

A government spokesman said they were now allowed to move about freely. However, censorship remains in effect and no other newsmen are being allowed to enter Zanzibar for the present.

Work on Rules for Hoffa Trial

Teamster Will Face Jury-Tamper Charge

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) —Government and Teamsters Union lawyers confer with U.S. District Court Judge Frank Wilson today to iron out ground rules for Teamsters President James R. Hoffa's trial on jury-tampering charges, which begins Monday.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa said he thinks he can get a fair trial in Chattanooga. He flew here Friday, met briefly with lawyers, then went to Detroit to spend the weekend with his family.

★ ★ ★

He will be back Monday for the trial, which was transferred from Nashville after Hoffa contended he couldn't get a fair trial there because of unfavorable news stories.

★ ★ ★

At the airport Hoffa said, "A man can get a fair trial anytime 12 people sit down who are not saturated with false propaganda." He said the Chattanooga newspapers had been fair in reporting developments here.

HEADQUARTERS

The Teamsters leader plans to set up international union headquarters in Chattanooga during the trial, estimated to last six weeks or more.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa will go on trial with five other men on charges of attempting to influence jurors in Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy case in Nashville.

★ ★ ★

A sixth codefendant, Lawrence Medlin, a Nashville sandwich-shop operator, Friday was granted a separate trial, in Nashville, by the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

Medlin maintained that a trial judge can't order a change of venue without the defendant's request. Medlin's attorney said he had not joined in the request by Hoffa and others for a change of venue.

APPEAL DENIED

The appelate court denied an appeal by Thomas Ewing Parks, who sought a 60-day delay on grounds his lawyer had to be in Chicago for a federal court hearing.

★ ★ ★

The other defendants are still striving for last-minute postponements. They contend that Chattanooga newspapers printed stories prejudicial to their case. Hoffa earlier in the week had used the same argument in his unsuccessful effort to gain a 60-day delay.

★ ★ ★

Also pending in U.S. Dist. Court is a request by Larry Campbell, business agent of the Detroit Teamsters local, to make public immediately a sealed list of 200 prospective jurors chosen for the trial, and to adjourn the trial for 5 days so he can examine the names.

Birmingham Area News

Petitions Are Available for City, Library Posts

BIRMINGHAM — Nominating petitions are now available at the city clerk's office for two seats on the City Commission and two on the library board to be filled in the April 6 election.

The three-year terms of City Commissioners Robert W. Page and Ralph A. Main will expire this year. Neither has indicated plans for the election.

The two terms expiring on the six-member library board are those of Edwin S. Snyder and Arthur J. Underwood Jr. Both are for three years.

★ ★ ★

Deadline for filing the nominating petitions with City Clerk Irene E. Hanley is Feb. 29.

The appointment of Edwin O. George to the first governing board of Northern Michigan University has been announced by Gov. George Romney.

George of 352 Barden, Bloomfield Hills, is vice president of Detroit Edison Co.

He is among seven persons whose appointments to the eight-member board have been announced.

★ ★ ★

SENATE CONFIRMATION

The appointments require Senate confirmation. Romney said the eighth member of the new board of control created by the new constitution will be announced later.

Plans for the new Congregational Church of Birmingham will be presented to the congregation for final approval Monday night.

A model and pictures of the proposed building will be shown. It is to be constructed at Woodward and Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills.

The meeting of church members has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday at the church, 388 N. Woodward.

Hubert V. Davis, Cranbrook School dean of students, is among some 125 secondary school counselors, principals and headmasters attending a Rollins College conference for secondary counselors this weekend.

The college is located in Winter Park, Fla.

HUBERT E. MILLS

Service for Hubert E. Mills, 68, of 1765 Croft will be at 3 p.m. Monday in First Presbyterian Church, Royal Oak. His body is at the William Sullivan & Son Funeral Home.

Mr. Mills, a retired employe of GMC Truck & Coach Division, died yesterday. He was a member of First Presbyterian.

Surviving are two sons, John W. of Royal Oak and James B. of Berkley; five grandchildren; and a brother.

South in his quest for the nomination.

Goldwater also talked about farm programs, civil rights, Johnson's political standing in the South, and cigarette smoking.

He said farm price supports have not worked. About 30 per cent of the nation's farmers "are going out of business" because of them, he said.

Instead, Goldwater called for a program "more along the lines of the Federal Housing Administration type of loan" to help farmers in need.

The senator said he thinks Johnson will "go through" the motions of seeking passage of a civil rights bill, including the public accommodations section, but will compromise in the end.

Goldwater said that provision is unconstitutional and Congress would not pass it.

He forecast Republican gains in the South in next Novembers election, but said any Republican "who says flatly that he can carry the South is not talking as he should."

Johnson is "not a conservative by any stretch of the imagination," Goldwater said.

He said economic conservatism, not civil rights, is the big issue in the minds of Southern voters.

Goldwater said Congress can't do anything about the government report linking cigarette smoking with cancer and other ailments.

Dem Dinner Set Tonight

The seventh annual Waterford Township Democrat Club dinner will be held beginning at 7:30 tonight at the Waterford Eagles Hall on M59.

The dinner was postponed from early December, following the assassination of President John Kennedy.

Waterford Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin may announce his candidacy for the 19th District Congressional race, it is reported.

Square Dances Bring Joy to Blind

By L. GARY THORNE

While snow and ice coated the outside, inside the gym at Central Elementary School music, laughter and excited talk warmed like a July sun.

Every third Wednesday of the month a square dance, sponsored by a trio of local agencies, is held at the school.

★ ★ ★

However, the dance is unique — there are only two like it in the nation.

60 IN ATTENDANCE

The monthly square dances attract about 60 blind and visually handicapped persons from throughout the Pontiac area.

Despite what might appear to be an obvious drawback, the dances are a success and have been for nearly 14 years.

The sponsoring agencies are the Pontiac Lions Club, the Pontiac League of the Blind and the City Department of Parks and Recreation.

★ ★ ★

White canes — visible identification of the blind — are left beside chairs once the band (the League combo) and the caller indicate another "set."

A "nearing 75" Ray McDonald of the League of the Blind, hints that the dances are just an excuse to socialize.

He said that last month some people thought the event was not a success because no one danced, but the blind had a grand time "just yakking."

★ ★ ★

"One of these dances is sure a lesson in mental health," commented Jim Petroski, 4151 Motor Way, chairman of this year's dances.

"The attitude of these people is something wonderful," he added.

McDonald pointed out that age does not hold back anyone either. He said at least three regular participants were over 80 years old.

Mrs. Rose Sugg of 180 Edison has been going to the dances for seven years. She serves as a helper for her husband, Walter F., who is blind.

★ ★ ★

"They all look forward to it so much . . . ."

GETTING TOGETHER

Mrs. Sugg added: "People getting together helps, otherwise they would concentrate on their ailment."

Intermission entertainment is furnished by volunteers. Callers and 'Helpers' from area square dance clubs also volunteer their services.

Transportation for the blind people is offered by the Lions Club.

★ ★ ★

McDonald, who is also blind, said attendance has fallen off recently. He remembered dancers used to come from as far away as Detroit to attend the dances.

SIT ALONE

He offered the best justification for the dances, "Blind people sit alone too much."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Verneta Blakemore, of 69 East Boulevard, echoed his sentiments. "It takes up a lot of the time . . . I wouldn't miss one for the world."
