Strike Deadline Near for Ford; Talks Continue

Rumor Company Offers Better Settlement Than 'Prosperity Partnership'

DETROIT (AP) — Labor peace in the booming auto industry hinged today on showdown talks with the Ford Motor Co. for a "worker security" contract pact before a midnight strike deadline.

Negotiators for Ford and the CIO United Auto Workers scheduled a crucial mid-morning bargaining session, with the union still pressing for its guaranteed annual wage plan.

Ford has countered with a "prosperity partnership" proposal to permit workers to buy company stock at half price, extend them loans during layoffs and grant separation pay on discharge.

The company has reportedly bettered that offer, but the details were made known.

At least a partial work stoppage loomed this afternoon at Ford's huge Rouge plant. A mass meeting called by Local 600, the union's largest single unit, to discuss progress in the negotiations was expected to delay second shift workers in reaching their jobs.

The heat was on Ford. Separate talks between the union and General Motors Corp. have been idling along with expectations that any agreement worked out with Ford would become a pattern for GM and the rest of the auto industry. GM's contract expires June 7.

In a statement issued in Washington last night, the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers said its 30,000 members at General Motors are prepared to strike with the auto workers.

Ford and the UAW yesterday clamped a 24-hour lid on any disclosure of developments in their negotiations, and this was apparently extended by the union.

Supervisor Bill Nears Passage

Awaits Only Approval of Senate Amendment to Take Effect

A bill which will reduce the number of city members on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors awaits only approval of a Senate amendment before taking immediate effect.

"Both the Senate and House have approved the measure as it applies to Oakland County and the final amendment concerning Wayne County will be agreed to soon," said Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) who sponsored the bill.

A joint committee of Oakland city and township supervisors devised the plan to prevent a more drastic cut in city membership.

George Reads It 'Go Slow but Go'

Opinion Varies Widely on What Action to Take Ending Segregation in Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sharply conflicting views arose today over what local public school officials are likely to do about working out plans for ending racial segregation.

Some deep South political leaders declared flatly they will do nothing. They predicted yesterday's Supreme Court decision giving local officials primary responsibility means an indefinite extension of segregation, at least for many years.

But officials of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People foresaw action "without delay" to wipe out almost all racially separated schools by the start of the school year in September 1956.

Both sides pledged to fight on in the courts.

Sen. George (D-Ga.) summed up much middle-ground comment. He said the decision, stressing local action to meet widely varying

None Needs Pay New Apple Tax Passed by House

LANSING (AP) — The House last night passed a tax that nobody has to pay.

In a unique move, the lower chamber passed a bill increasing the state apple tax from one to two cents a bushel. But under a House amendment, apple growers who don't like the tax won't have to pay it.

"This feature has worked with the cherry tax," said Rep. Edson V. Root (R-Bay City). "Only about 10 per cent of the cherry growers refuse to pay the tax."

The apple levy is used to advertise Michigan apples throughout the nation. Root said the revised tax would increase the amount available for this purpose from $50,000 to $125,000 annually.

The bill now goes back to the Senate for action on House amendments.

Freed Fliers Near Hawaii; to Meet Families Thursday

HONOLULU (AP) — Four U. S. fighter pilots newly freed from Chinese Red captivity were winging today toward a rendezvous in Hawaii with exuberant relatives. They were due to land this afternoon. The airmen, released yesterday near Hong Kong after more than two years in Communist China, were shot down in the Korean War. They are Capt. Harold Fischer Jr., 28, Swea City, Iowa; Lt. Lyle Cameron, Lincoln, Neb.; Lt. Col. Edwin Heller, 36, Wynnewood, Pa.; and Lt. Roland W. Parks, 24, Omaha.

Use Plane to Find Drowning Victim

An airplane has been brought into use today in an effort to recover the body of Verle Young, 42, who reportedly drowned in Lake Orion Saturday.

Dragging operations, conducted by Oakland County sheriff's deputies, have proved unsuccessful after four days. The body was believed down in more than 60 feet of water.

Young's companion, Lloyd Melton, 45, of Lake Orion, said the victim, also of Lake Orion, jumped from their boat near Bellevue Island.

shouted "It's wonderful," and Arthur's former personal plane, Bataan.

They switched to Western-style meals — after more than two years of Chinese food — with zest. The Bataan is equipped with cooking facilities. Thick steaks were aboard.

The Bataan set down on Guam before dawn. The airmen rested two hours at Andersen Air Force Base, then pitched into a meal of fresh fruits, scrambled eggs, toast with marmalade, milk and coffee. More fresh food was put aboard at Guam and the plane left for Wake.

The spokesman said there would be no formal interviews on arrival at Hickam but a news conference would be held tonight with "no strings attached."

The Air Force plane which is bringing the relatives to Hawaii will take the airmen and relatives to the mainland.

The four were captured between September 1952 and January 1953.

British Strikes Threaten Many With Job Loss

Government Hopes to Marshal Motor Fleet for Vital Services

LONDON (AP) — Widespread unemployment with in 48 hours threatened Britain today as the nationwide railroad strike went into its fourth day.

Armed with "state of emergency" powers proclaimed last night, Prime Minister Eden's newly re-elected Conservative government hoped to marshal a great fleet of trucks, buses and private cars to move goods and workers for essential services.

But this promised little or no help to the nation's huge industrial plant, confronted by dwindling supplies of raw materials for lack of trains to replenish them and mounting piles of finished products that could not be hauled away. Some plants already were sending workers home.

The nation's vital export drive, already hit by a stubborn 10-day-old dock strike, faced a crippling slowdown whose effects might last for months.

The 70,000 members of the striking Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen stood pat on their demand for a $112 raise in their present base weekly pay of $27.30.

MANAGERS FIRM

Fearful of setting off a new spiral of wage and cost rises, the managers of the state-owned railroads refused to go above 70 cents a week for crews on main line trains and 35 cents for the others.

An almost solid front of public and trade union hostility lined up against the striking railmen.

The emergency regulations permit use of troops as train crews to break the strike, but this appeared unlikely because few soldiers are qualified as locomotive crewmen.

A government spokesman stressed the Cabinet has no plans at present for using the army except to help move the mails. Some 750 soldiers in 250 army trucks already are helping with postal deliveries.

Because Parliament must approve the emergency regulations "as soon as possible," Eden moved up the convening of the new House of Commons for business to June 9, five days earlier than scheduled.

Starting Jan. 1, 1956

Oakland County to Get Another Circuit Judge

Oakland County will have a fourth circuit judge appointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams to begin serving Jan. 1, 1956.

The bill, introduced by Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), passed the State Senate yesterday by a 26 to 1 vote, with only Sen. Lewis Christman (R-Ann Arbor) opposed.

The move broke a week-long deadlock during which several senators insisted the new judge should wait to be elected in November 1956. The House previously had passed the bill calling for an appointment.

Pontiac attorneys Clark J. Adams and William John Beer are considered leading candidates for the appointment. Adams is a former State Supreme Court justice. Beer led the non-incumbents in total votes at the last circuit-judge election here when incumbents were re-elected.

Senate Republicans had fought against permitting Williams, a Democrat, to appoint a judge until one could be elected to the post in November 1956. Objectors said they expected Williams would name a Democrat and pointed out that an incumbent usually has an edge in the balloting.

DROPPED OBJECTIONS

Sen. Carlton R. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), one of the Senate conferees who negotiated differences with House members, said the Senate dropped its objections "because of the pressing problem in Oakland County."

"But we want it understood that we still prefer elections to appointments whenever possible," he stated.

Broomfield maintained throughout that the "terrific" case load required an appointment "to get the new judge on the bench as soon as possible."

The Oakland County Bar Assn. revealed a study last January which showed during 1953 each present judge tried or disposed of an average 623 cases and petitions plus miscellaneous matters averaging 1,960.

Despite the "best efforts" of the judges, the group declared, there were then about 1,000 cases on the docket awaiting trial. The county's third judge was authorized in 1927. Since then county population has increased 180 per cent, the bar association pointed out.

She Said Swing, He Threw Left, She Failed Judo

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Ruby Solomon, feeling pretty confident after a session of judo instruction with the sheriff's women's reserve, went home yesterday and told her husband Ben: "Swing at me."

Mrs. Solomon raised her left hand to ward off the blow, just as the judo teacher had indicated. Ben caught her with a haymaker and she realized she had forgotten one thing—Ben is a southpaw.

U. S. Civilians in Bonn Are Now on Their Own

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The U. S. Army today took away the cheap housing, cigarettes, gasoline and other logistic support it had been furnishing hundreds of American civilians in West Germany.

The action was the result of the return of sovereignty last month to West Germany. Americans employed by the Army and those living in Berlin—still under three-power Allied occupation—were not affected.

Prices in German establishments are generally higher. Americans living in Germany also are subject now to German laws and income taxes.

Williams Signs Bill to Finance Road Expansion

Increase Will Provide $35 Million Yearly for Highways

LANSING (AP) — A 1-and-1/2-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax increase went into effect in Michigan today to finance a $35 million dollar annual highway expansion program.

Gov. Williams signed the bill at 11:59 p.m. yesterday after the House had backed down from its previous refusal to give immediate effect to the program.

Williams rushed signing the bill, after printers worked late to give him the official document, in order that the Department of State could include the entire month of June in the new tax.

This was considered administratively important because gasoline wholesalers audit their inventories on the first of each month.

A petroleum industry spokesman said he assumed that retail dealers would begin charging the new price at once. The tax rise follows on the heels of a recent statewide increase in gas prices imposed by oil companies.

Williams Pleased — Gov. Williams said, "At last Michigan is on its way to a modern highway program. At last the people who pay the highway taxes are going to get the roads they pay for."

"The money will not be scattered around in bits and snatches, but will be put into the major traffic arteries which carry Michigan's economic bloodstream."

Rep. Emil Peltz (R-Rogers City), who fought the bill bitterly during its long journey through the Legislature, asked the House to give the bill immediate effect. The Senate had already done this.

"As bad as the bill is, I don't want to block it," Peltz said. Peltz made the statement in a talk with Gov. Williams. He said he wanted to make sure Williams supported the bill.

Assuring Peltz that he did indeed support the measure, Williams said the road bill could possibly be (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Life Sentences Given 4 Men

Kidnaping and Rape Convictions Result in Prison Terms

Four men found guilty May 20 of kidnaping and raping a 21-year-old Pontiac mother of three received sentences on both counts yesterday from Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

The rape conviction brought a life sentence in Jackson state prison and the abduction count 20 to 40 years. The quartet will serve time on both sentences at once.

The four are Oscar Chavers, 26, of Gary, Ind., his brother Richard, 23, of 38 Lake St., Joe Williams Jr., 23, of 38 Lake and Winston Johnson, 25, of 313 Hughes Ave.

Their attorney, William Bruster, of Detroit, told Judge Holland a motion for a new trial would be filed, but did not explain on what grounds.

The men were found guilty by an all-women jury following a nine-day trial. They were accused of dragging the women from an auto stuck in mud off South Blvd. last March 6 while her escort was absent summoning aid and criminally assaulting her during an hour-long ride in the area just south of Pontiac.

They were arrested at S. Saginaw and Wilson Sts. with the woman still in their car. The convicted quartet claimed the housewife submitted willingly. Johnson left today for Jackson. The other two are scheduled to leave tomorrow.

Bob Bislinghoff Upsets Britisher

Young Floridan Moves to 4th Round Spot in Amateur Test

ST. ANNES, England (AP) — Bob Bislinghoff, a big youngster from Orlando, Fla., upset Ian Caldwell, English Walker Cup star, 5 and 3, in a 3rd round match in the British-Amateur golf championship today.

The 20-year-old Bislinghoff, playing in his 1st British Amateur, was the 3rd American to enter the fourth round of the tournament.

Earlier Dale Morey of Indianapolis, member of the American Walker Cup team, and 39-year-old Jimmy McHale, former Walker Cupper from Wynnewood, Pa., had won their 3rd round matches.

Eleven of 14 Americans in the lower half of the draw won their 2nd round matches today. Eight others reached the 3rd round yesterday.

Morey, and Joe Carr, Irish star of Britain's team, showed the way into the 4th round as afternoon play began.

Morey swept past F. W. G. Church of England, 5 and 4. Carr, 1953 British champion, trounced Joe Bullins Jr., an American serviceman from Winston Salem, N.C., 5 and 4.

McHale of Wynnewood, Pa., former American Walker Cup player, whipped W. G. Hendry of England 4 and 3.

Find Humility in Child Control

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
"An unconquerable ego is the alcoholic's problem."

"To reduce it, he may need to 'hit bottom'—undergo an experience of defeat so truly felt that he can think, 'I am licked.'"

"In this acknowledgment lies the humbleness he must have to recover from his grandiose ideas of himself."

Psychiatrist Dr. Harry M. Tiebout spoke these words at the Annual Meeting of the American Psychiatric Association.

An "unconquerable" ego is also the problem of the parent who can't control his child.

As alcoholic egotism makes it impossible to respect humble self-disciplines, so our egotistical ambitions to control Tommy by love alone can make it impossible to exert humbler forms of control.

Let's see how such ambitions work.

It's evening. My in-laws are visiting us. Tommy's bedtime comes. I mention it—and am ignored.

I mention it again, more seductively coaxing.

5-YEAR-OLD DEFIANT

Tommy, his five-year-old eyes bright with familiar defiance, runs from me into the parlor and scrambles behind the sofa.

I follow him, pretending that I've not been challenged. For 30 minutes in humiliation before my critical guests, I bribe, cajole and plead with Tommy to help me maintain the farce that he respects what I say.

Why don't I pull him from behind the sofa—and carry him up to bed?

I can't. My unconquerable ego won't permit it. It has told me that I am superior to the use of physical force. It has told me that I am a woman of such enchanting charm that my coos should be enough to lure Tommy from behind the sofa.

It's told me that I'm rare—and must not belittle myself by stooping to the low, mental control of his body by mine.

I am not rare. I'm quite ordinary. I'm a woman raging with resentment.

But since my egotism keeps me from knowing myself as ordinary, I have to pretend that I enjoy what's happening. I have to pretend I like being humiliated.

And poor Tommy has to pretend along with me. He has to pretend he enjoys standing behind the sofa—and arousing the raging resentment of the most important person in the world.

LEARN HUMILITY

Like the alcoholic, I too may have to experience such discouragement that I find humbleness. And out of it build an ego that is less soulful, but more comfortable.

Then I can belittle myself—and by physical force, release Tommy and me from the destructive tension between us.

Newlyweds Fly to Home in Mississippi After Rite

Airman Third Class Ronald D. Connole and his bride, the former Barbara Jeanne Lee, flew to the home awaiting them in Biloxi, Miss., following their marriage at 7:30 Saturday evening.

The bridegroom is stationed at Kessler Air Force Base there. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Lee of Woodrow road and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Connole of Merry road.

Palms, baskets of white flowers and candelabra decorated the altar of Central Methodist Church, with the Rev. Milton H. Bank officiating at the ceremony.

Soloist George Putnam was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. W. Henry Sink as he sang the bridal recital.

WALTZ-LENGTH GOWN

For her marriage, the bride selected a waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. A sweetheart neckline accentuated the bodice, as did the stand-up collar. The sleeves ended in points at her wrists.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. William Jones of Boone, N. C., was dressed in a pale blue full-skirted dress of crystalline and carried deep red roses and pink stephanotis.

An identical gown was worn by the bride's cousin, Mary Louise Lee, who served as bridesmaid. Her bouquet was of pink roses and stephanotis.

Best man for the bridegroom was William Quine. Serving as ushers were Ronald Krantz.

MRS. RONALD D. CONNOLE

Charles Richardson and Dr. William Jones.

DRESSED IN BLUE

The bride's mother greeted guests at a reception which followed in the church parlors. She wore a French blue taffeta dress with white accessories.

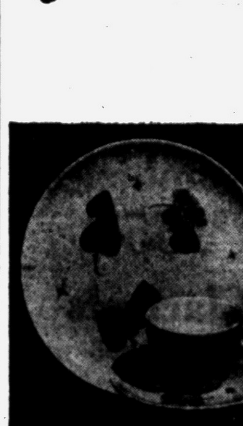

A blue lace dress with navy accessories was the choice of the bridegroom's mother. Both wore pink orchids.

The bride was wearing an aqua suit with beige and brown accessories when she left for Mississippi with her husband. She pinned the orchids from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Why Waste So Much Energy Over an Enemy

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD
"Dear Miss Woodward: Susie and I have known each other all our lives and we've never been able to get along."

"Since we were little kids she's done mean, nasty things to me, and I've done my best to get back at her. Now that we're both interested in boys it's even worse."

"She's doing her best to blacken my reputation, but I've just succeeded in taking her boy friend away from her, so that's that. "I don't like him too much—it was the principle of the thing. But I've got to hang on to him, despite all the tricks she's likely to play."

"Have you any ideas?"
Answer: On an enemy you waste so much steam! So much time and energy thinking unpleasant thoughts and doing unpleasant things. So much imagination devoted to spiteful tricks and ways to get even. It's acid in the blood stream, a very bad taste in the mouth.

It takes so much time being nice to people you like, people who like you. Their friendship doesn't thrive on neglect and indifference. But you can be indifferent to people who annoy you, people who don't like you.

Dignified indifference is what you should spread on thick. And not just pretend either. Real, sincere lack of interest in what she says, does or thinks. Avoid her, leave her strictly alone, forget she exists."

Why should you fret, for instance, if this boy friend doesn't stay yours for long? You're not crazy about him. You just snatched him from under her nose to be mean to her. He might turn out to be excess baggage. And besides, there are other exciting boys around the corner.

If she gets him back, let her have him. Keep on being friendly with him in any case. And watch what you say. Say nothing to him about her. Say nothing to anybody about any of it. Most of all say nothing to her. Why go out of your way to be poisonous to her? Avoiding her is less toxic.

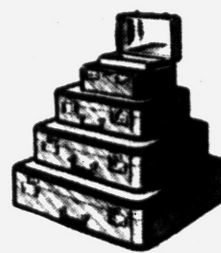

"Dear Miss Woodward: Please tell me how a girl can forget someone she loves. You see, we were to be married in June, but all we do is argue, so we decided marriage would be a flop and called it quits!"

Answer: Your head tells you it's useless to continue a relationship with a boy with whom you can't get along. So it's silly to let your heart hanker for something your head tells you isn't good for you.

Getting mighty busy is the best way to forget. Go away for a visit, maybe. Take a job, enlist for some courses of study, volunteer your services at the local hospital or child care clinic. Look up some old friends whom you haven't seen lately. Start running around with a different crowd.

There are a thousand things to get started at—new activities that will keep you from thinking of a dream that didn't come true because it was a false dream.

French Find Chair-Cane Motif Chic

PARIS (INS) — Fabrics with chair-cane prints, hats made of real chair-cane and bags covered with the same are setting the style pace in Paris.

Summer cotton fabrics for blouses, skirts and shorts now come printed with a yellow chair-cane pattern on white or white on red to bedeck women like furniture. Blouses of such fabrics look best in shirt styles and skirts should be full and swinging.

Cotton and silk scarves with chair-cane patterns are displayed with sports sweaters and even with town clothes. A navy-blue jersey dress with a pleated skirt looks smart worn with a white scarf in a golden yellow chair-cane pattern.

Beach bags too are made of a coarse fabric with a chair-cane print. One in a smart Paris shop has a black chair-cane pattern on white. It is edged on top by black boxcalf leather and has black leather handles. It is smart enough for town wear in summer. Some plastic hand-bags are embossed and colored to imitate chair-cane. Other elegant summer hand-bags are made of brown leather covered with real straw-colored chair-cane.

Dressing Is Easily Made in Quart Jar

Mrs. V. C. Warfield Uses Tomato Soup as Salad Mix Base

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor

Year-round living at the lake makes for relaxed living. Things to do out-of-doors always seem more important than inside chores.

Mrs. V. C. Warfield of Middle Straits Lake feels that way and likes recipes that do not demand too many hours spent in the kitchen. Such a recipe is one she acquired from her grandmother. This salad dressing is a fond food memory of Mrs. Warfield's girlhood.

The entire Warfield family enjoys swimming and skating and outdoor eating. Mrs. Warfield shares with the elder of her two daughters a love of sewing. Bridge is also a favorite recreation.

All-City School Music Festival Set Thursday

Event Scheduled at Stadium Here

Elementary Pupils Plan Calendar Capers of '55 Presentation

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE
An all-city elementary school music festival—"Calendar Capers of 1955"—will be staged Thursday night at 7:30 in Wisner Memorial Stadium.

Fifth and 6th-graders of all public schools will participate in this around-the-seasons review directed by Dr. Edith Roach Snyder and Ruth DeCou. Tom Montgomery will serve as organist and the script was prepared by Vera Mae Adams.

Narrators for the event are Robert Crandall, Carolyn Hawn and Burton Belant.

Cosponsored by the vocal and music departments of the elementary schools, the physical education departments also participate in the staging of this event.

MUSIC TEACHERS ASSIST

Music teachers assisting were: Beatrice Boersma, Wilma Exline, Hazel Gessinger, Rosamond Haeberle, Jean Henning, Jean James, Ruth Laudenslager, Rosemary Northon, Hildegarde Odhner, Margaret Snyder, Evelyn Weiss, George Woodworth and Stella Lou Zell.

Physical education instructors were: Michael Fiorillo, John Huffman, Mildred Hutchinson, Elden Johnson, Jack Kearns, Arlene Oates and Ralph Waterman.

Bagley school will present January in song and dance and other schools selected for monthly portrayal are: Wisner school, February; Whitfield school, March; Longfellow school, April with Willis and Emerson doing the pageantry.

LeBaron, Malkin and Owen schools will stage the Maypole dance with the crowning of the king and queen from Hawthorne school; Central school will do June; Whittier, July; Crofoot school, August; Wilson school, September; McCarroll and McConnell schools will depict October and Baldwin school is scheduled to perform November.

Webster school will present December.

FESTIVAL PLAYERS—All dressed up to portray February in costume and song are girls from the Wisner school. Standing, left to right, Janet Leonard and Jeanette North. The two girls on the lower step are Mary Jess and Caroline Dudley. Every festival must have a king and a queen and Hawthorne school will present two of its 6th-graders in this role. In the photo at the left, young Patsy Vandecar has just been crowned. Reigning with her for the event is Robert Perrazo, the king. Each elementary school in the Pontiac school district has been selected to present a different monthly scene and song for the festival. This year's program has been designed for the 5th and 6th-grade levels of each school.

Menon Getting Buildup by Reds

Chinese Communists Deliberately Boosting Indian Diplomat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Red China apparently is giving a deliberate buildup to India's V. K. Krishna Menon, a frequent bitter critic of the United States, as the man to negotiate settlements between Washington and Peking.

Menon often follows the Communist line in international affairs. He is regarded by officials here as quite friendly to Red China.

He will be coming to the United States in a few days for United Nations meetings in New York and San Francisco. His public reputation has been so much increased by Red China's handling of the release of four U.S. airmen that officials are reluctant to give him the cold shoulder.

They dare not give the impression that the United States would pass up any reasonable opportunity to ease tensions. Furthermore, there is always a chance that because of his cordial contacts with people like Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai the Indian diplomat may really be able to contribute to some settlement.

The tipoff on Red China's attitude toward Menon came with its manipulation of the news of its decision to release four American pilots.

Menon made the announcement at a news conference in New Delhi Monday. Not until he had spoken out did the Peking radio broadcast the official version. The radio itself could have broken the news. Peking could have given the release to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold or to some other diplomat.

Hammarskjold journeyed to Peking early this year and negotiated for the release of the airmen for the past six months.

Secretary of State Dulles sent messages of thanks to both Hammarskjold and to Menon's chief, Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru. He thus sought to put Hammarskjold's efforts on a par with those of Menon's.

Menon, 58, is relatively new in diplomacy. Three years ago, he was assigned to the United Nations.

Today the thin-faced, thick-skinned diplomat who once patched together a meager existence as a teacher and writer of cheap novels in London is India's ambassador to the United Nations and Nehru's chief foreign policy adviser.

At the U.N., Menon has raked the United States over the coals many times. Most officials seem to regard him as being primarily concerned with India's own interest in neutralism and peaceful settlements—willing, perhaps, to make peace at almost any price.

Plan Pipeline to Carry Coal 108 Miles From Mine to Power Plant in Cleveland

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Now they're going to ship coal by pipeline. Impossible? It's all been worked out, and plans are virtually complete to build a 108-mile pipeline from a mine in Ohio to a utility in Cleveland.

The coal will be cleaned and pressed into small pieces. Then, mixed with water, it will be poured into the pipeline. Pumping stations along the way will keep it moving. At the receiving end the mixture will be "dewatered" and the coal stored for use.

Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co. and the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. announced yesterday they have entered into a contract for the delivery of about 18 million tons of coal over a 15-year period. The pipeline will extend from the coal company's Georgetown properties to the Eastlake plant of the utility.

George H. Love, president of Pittsburgh Consolidation, said construction will begin shortly. He estimated the cost between 8 and 10 million dollars.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, the New York Central and the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad are cooperating in the project. They serve the mine and the utility.

Most of the coal produced at Georgetown, one of the largest commercial coal operations in the world, will continue to be shipped by rail, Love said.

6 Teenagers Admit Beverage Possession

Charged with illegal possession of alcoholic beverages, six teenagers Tuesday paid $10 fines and $10 costs each after pleading guilty before Holly Township Justice Aubrey Butler.

They are Daniel and Margie Thompson, both 18, of Wheeler; John Thompson, 19, also of Wheeler; Edna McCarthy, 18, of Fenton; Vernon and Dennis Dean, both 18, of Fenton.

All four were arrested at 2:40 a.m. May 31 by Holly Police.

Chain Store Tax Repeal May Be Vetoed

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today received a bill to repeal Michigan's 22-year-old chain store tax, but there were some who wondered whether he would veto it.

The House passed the Senate-approved bill by a 60-44 vote last night over objections that the legislature should not be cutting taxes when it is faced with a $27 million deficit.

The tax reportedly yielded some $475,000 in 1954.

Supporters argued that the levy is a "punitive tax" that discriminates against a certain group of retail merchants.

"There is no reason why a storekeeper should pay additional taxes because he owns more than one store," said Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee.

Fearful that they couldn't swing passage, supporters first tried to tack on amendments to extend the life of the tax for one or two years. Both amendments were defeated.

Of the 29 states which originally passed chain store taxes, only 13, including Michigan, still have them.

Proud Lake Recreation Area Outdoor Camp Dedicated

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Press Millford Correspondent

One of the most fabulous outdoor camps in the country is being formally dedicated today at Proud Lake Recreation area, near Millford.

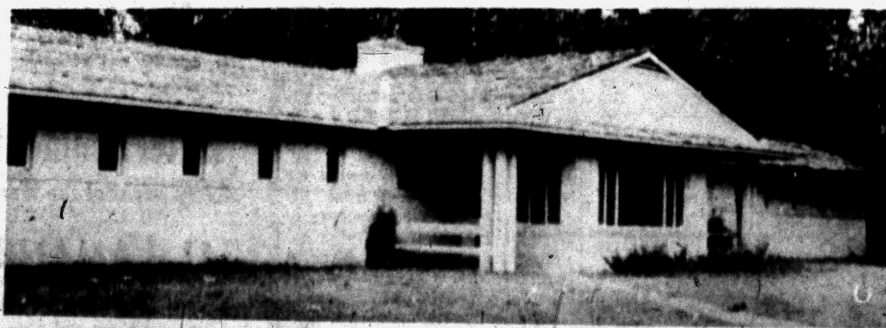

Fifty 11th-grade students from Royal Oak are in charge of the all-day affair. This evening, the group will gather around an outside campfire, with conservation officials from Lansing taking charge of the meeting.

This is the first organized group to occupy the new buildings.

Top-ranking educators from all over the country have inspected this non-profit camp, and labeled it "an architect's dream." It is the very first group camp of its type in the United States, according to Alfred Masini, park manager.

LOCATED NEAR RIVER

Built entirely by local State Conservation personnel, the two large buildings are situated a mile and a half from the main highway in a landscaped area close to the Huron River.

WINGED DORMITORY—Contractors figured $120,000 for the two new buildings erected at the Proud Lake Recreation area, but Michigan State Conservation Department experts did the job for $48,000, including equipment, according to park manager Alfred

Here, in an isolated area of approximately 400 acres, are all the natural resources necessary to study Michigan outdoor wildlife.

Lowest original building costs submitted by professional contractors, were $60,000 for each building, according to Masini.

The budget did not permit that much money for the camp. So State Conservation experts completed the entire project, under the supervision of Masini, for a total cost of $48,000 for both buildings and all equipment.

There are accommodations for 66 people, with the latest air-conditioning in the main hall which is 20 by 60 feet.

Under the terrace tile floor there is perimeter-type indirect heating for cold weather. Large formica top dining tables fold up, so that the hall may be cleared for recreational use.

NEW EQUIPMENT

In the kitchen, new equipment includes an automatic dishwasher, a one-ten cubic refrigerator, silver, dishes, and stainless steel pans. There is also a 10-foot square walk-in refrigerator. Living quarters for two cooks adjoin the kitchen.

A short distance from the main hall is a fully equipped dormitory with 30 double bunk beds and plastic-covered mattresses.

There is an intersecting lounge with a large open fireplace in the center of the structure. A spacious snack kitchen is back of the lounge.

The dormitories extend in opposite directions. Private accommodations for two group counselors are in each wing. The entire lighting system is controlled from the counselor's quarters.

Special rustic furniture, being made in the Porcupine Mountains in northern Michigan, will match the natural setting surrounding the buildings.

BRIDGE BUILT

A new bridge has been built across the Huron River in front of the dormitory building, providing access to a large wooded area.

Any non-profit group interested in outdoor life may use this camp.

Groups must furnish their own food and cooks and must tidy up the buildings before they leave.

A new type walk is being installed. Called Earth Crete, it is cement mixed with earth and will blend with the wooded landscape.

Four more buildings planned for the future will include an Administration building, an arts and crafts building, and two more dormitories.

In cooperation with the Michigan State Library, a complete new library is to be installed in the dormitory lounge within the next few weeks, Masini said.

EXPERTS AVAILABLE

Nature experts from conservation personnel at Lansing will work with any group, if requested.

"This is strictly an educational project," Masini said, "not a joyride for school children. If people conduct themselves as they should, this will be an example of one of the finest projects in the United States."

EQUIPMENT CHECK—Proud Lake Area park manager Alfred Masini is shown checking over the kitchen equipment before the formal dedication today of the new camp buildings at the area. The new additions are near the main highway, located in the 400 acre recreation area. All the latest equipment is included in the kitchen, along with living quarters for two cooks.

BED TESTERS—Stuck with the softest job of the dedication of the Proud Lake camp is this trio of campers from Royal Oak—Gordon Motion, standing; George Babbitt in the upper bunk, and John Engel in the lower. Accommodations for 66 are included in the new buildings at the camp, and the main hall is air conditioned to insure a cool hideaway for hot summer afternoons.

Many Take Part in Ceremonies

Board Head Harding Turns First Spade for Structure

ROCHESTER — Students, teachers, administration and the board of education for the Rochester Community school district joined hands Tuesday night to break ground for the proposed million dollar high school at Livernois and Pontiac Rds.

This ceremony heralds the beginning of land preparation today for the school which is scheduled for completion by September of 1936.

The Rev. Edgar Lucas of Rochester opened the ceremony with a prayer and Leonard Harding, president of the board of education, turned the first shovel of sod.

Other members of the board followed by the school administration participated in a similar act.

The student council of the high school, Henry Purdy, representing the Citizens Committee that helped promote the bond issue and plan the building, and Henry Haberkorn of H. E. Beyster and Associates, Inc., the architectural and engineering firm in charge of the new building, also participated in the ceremony.

Williamena Ribbink represented the faculty of the Rochester schools. She has been with the staff for 19 years and served with the citizens committee in the school planning.

Donald C. Baldwin, superintendent of schools, said that bids for the new school will go out on July 25.

To be placed on a 50 acre site, the new school has been designed to fit into the natural contour of the slightly-sloping site. It is the result of joint planning with school staff, administration, community leaders and members of the architectural firm cooperating.

Quiet Meeting Held by Carver Board; 2 New Members Take Up Their Duties

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — A quiet and dignified board meeting was held in the George Washington Carver school last night with 150 parents and teachers attending.

The new board unanimously agreed to delete the minutes of the April 11 board meeting from the record, on the grounds that the meeting was illegal.

The April meeting, at which armed guards kept the public from attending, was held in the home of Mrs. Loretta Baker, ousted secretary of the board.

Following last night's board meeting, a special citation ceremony was held in honor of Otis Eaton.

He was presented with a check for $786 by Mrs. David Buchanan, teacher, on behalf of area residents for his untiring efforts to bring about a reform in the school board.

He is the organizer and leader of the Citizens Improvement

Committee. The $786 was collected in the community, and is not part of school funds.

This was the first meeting for two new board members who were named to replace two ousted by a recent recall election. Sitting on the board were Mrs. Anabelle Ethridge and Willie Young. They replaced Mrs. Loretta Baker and Chester Carter.

In the April 11 meeting, the board had voted to award Superintendent of Schools Walter Buffington a three-year contract, at $8,980 per year, beginning in July. By the action last night, this measure was voided.

ROMEO — The board of education of the Romeo School District voted unanimously last night to send an appeal to the state tax commission in Lansing, as a result of recent action taken by the Macomb County Tax Allocation Board.

The county board had voted to allocate 7.5 mills, based on state equalized valuation, to the Romeo district. The local school board had requested 10 mills of the 15 mill limitation.

Sup. of Schools T. C. Filippula had been notified that the district would receive 8 mills. He then appeared before the tax allocation board May 30 to appeal for the additional millage.

County tax officials reported the Romeo district would receive 7.75 mills, but later notified the superintendent that the final figure had been cut to 7.5 mills.

This millage is based on state equalized valuation, and is identical to the amount received by the district last year, based on county equalized valuation.

Pending verification of the county board's action in writing, the appeal will be sent to Lansing. It was the superintendent's opinion that the board had "good cause to appeal to the state tax commission, for a differential rate." He added that the board is "fighting for a minimum of $10,000."

The resignation of Robert Reid, principal of the Washington school, was accepted by the board, effective July 1. He has taken a position as principal in the Lake Shores School district.

Announcement was also made at last night's special meeting, that (the) agriculture and band classes will move into their new quarters in the recently completed vocational Agriculture building on Friday.

Dr. E. W. Sanford Succumbs at Age 80

MARLETTE—The oldest active professional man in Marlette, Dr. E. W. Sanford, 80, died at 2:30 a. m. Monday, in the Marlette Hospital, after a long illness.

He was a practicing dentist for 36 years, graduating from the dental college of the University of Michigan in 1899.

Code Boss Shurlock Puts Damper on Film Violence

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (U)—The man who is trying to put a restraining hand on movie violence is square-built, English-born Geoffrey Shurlock.

Last year, the 60-year-old Shurlock succeeded Joseph Breen as Hollywood's production code administrator. He and his staff survey most scripts and all finished pictures and advise studios on censorship matters.

If films conform to the production code, they get a seal certifying them to be shown in American theaters. Rarely do producers try to sell movies without a seal. "The Moon Is Blue" was one of the few exceptions.

As Hollywood top censor, Shurlock tries to avoid the limelight. But because movie violence has become such a big issue, he granted an interview on the subject.

"We saw this coming last November," he said. "There was a notable increase in the amount of violence in scripts being presented. Those are the pictures that are in release now."

"We cautioned the producers that too much violence would bring a reaction from the public. I think we are making some headway in convincing them that violence should be toned down. But the results will not be evident in the theaters for another six months."

"One of the reasons I foresaw this trend toward violence was the Academy Awards. The top winners two years in a row were two extremely violent films—'From Here to Eternity' and 'On the Waterfront.' It was inevitable that others would follow."

How does the code authority gauge the public's reaction to film content?

"The audience is our partner in this business," said Shurlock, veteran of 23 years with the code. "We watch the reaction carefully, through the Legion of Decency, the 13 women's groups that review pictures, the Protestant Film Council, plus the important trade and newspaper reviewers."

How does the code govern violence?

"We have no hard and fast rules. Rules would kill this industry. We can only do what Breen suggested. Let's make pictures that are reasonably acceptable morally to reasonable people."

One thing the code does prohibit: youngsters with guns.

Shurlock said he will not admit the claims of some critics that crime pictures contribute to delinquency.

"Perhaps two or three kids are induced to try crime out of the 800 million children in the world that see movies," he said.

Shurlock said he and his staff are looking more closely at scenes of violence in current scripts. One of the suggestions he has made to producers is to have actual beatings "off frame." In other words lead up to the violence and show the result, but leave the blows to the audience's imagination.

"Another thing we have noticed: there are not enough 'nice people' in films," he remarked. "Audiences do not complain as much about violence if decent people are also pictured in films."

Train Hits Oil Truck

LIVERMORE, Ky. (U)—A fast freight train hit an oil transport truck at a crossing yesterday and set off an explosion. The truck driver, Reginald H. Lamb, 25, of Henderson, ran from the scene saturated with flaming oil. He died shortly afterward. N. E. Wyatt, 67, Louisville and Nashville Railroad engineer, was burned critically. Fireman L. E. Sears was burned less seriously.

Hit by Car at Home

DETROIT (U)—Mrs. Bessie Johnson, 29, was seriously injured by an automobile as she swept her living room floor. An out-of-control car driven by Mrs. Minnie Thompson, 68, crashed through the side of the house, pinning her against a wall. She suffered a skull fracture and internal injuries. Mrs. Thompson escaped with minor injuries.

An unusual snowfall of 50 to 60 feet is not uncommon in Oregon's Crater Lake National Park.

Durocher Hopeful Giant Hitting Will Improve

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
One of the facts of life in the major leagues is that a team can't win many ball games on four hits. No one knows it better than Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants and he's far from happy at the prospect of facing the western clubs in 12 games starting tonight with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The Giants eked out a 2-1 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies last night, collecting four paltry hits in the process. Three of the blows figured in the Giant scoring. Dave Williams broke it up in the ninth with a single against the right field wall, scoring Don Mueller who had walked and moved to second on a sacrifice.

"The pitching hasn't been too bad, everything considered," said Durocher, trying bravely to show some optimism. "There were plenty of situations in some of our losing games when a hit in the right place would have made the difference."

"But we just aren't hitting—at least we aren't hitting in the right places."

Even the Giants' first run against the Phils was tainted. Herman Wehmeier, a journeyman righthander who couldn't do any better than a 4.40 earned run average last year, had only himself to blame. He tried to pick Sal Maglie off first base and threw wildly.

That sent Maglie to second and Whitey Lockman promptly followed with a double, equaling the run the Phillies scored in the first.

It was fortunate for the Giants that the ancient Maglie had one of his better nights. He gave up only five hits in winning his sixth straight.

The Brooklyn Dodgers dropped a 6-3 decision to the Pittsburgh Pirates. In the only other game on the schedule, the Cleveland Indians pulled to within 2½ games of the New York Yankees by edging Baltimore 2-1 in 13 innings.

Rangers Open '55 High Goal Season on June 5, Haven't Been Beaten Since 1953

The Ivory Rangers will put one of the longest winning streaks in high-goal polo on the line when they open their outdoor season against a top-flight opponent at 3 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, June 5, at the Ivory Polo Club, Lahser and Eight Mile Roads.

Rangers haven't been beaten on the turf since they bowed to the Columbus Polo Club in a notable upset, 15-5, on Aug. 9, 1953. Since that time they have won 31 and tied one in outdoor play in one of the finest victory strings owned by any U. S. aggregation.

Rangers will be well fortified in their efforts to protect this lengthening skein of triumphs. Nucleus of the club will be Capt. Jack Ivory, who is enjoying one of the finest seasons of his brilliant career, and Lew Smith East Aurora (N.Y.) pro who has signed with the Rangers for the 4th straight year.

Stagg Returns to Scene of His Biggest Triumphs

CHICAGO (AP)—Amos Alonzo Stagg, "The grand Old Man of Football," returns to the scene of his greatest triumphs today for a reunion with some of his old University of Chicago Mafoons.

Along with Stagg will be his wife and "assistant" coach Stella. On hand to greet the 92-year-old "youngster" will be eight members of the famous 1905 football team which went undefeated to capture the Western Conference title.

That was the year of one of Fielding Yosts greatest "point-a-minute" Michigan teams. In winning 12 games, Michigan rolled up 495 points and held the opposition scoreless.

'Pilot' Program in Track

Utica, Clarkston Athletes Are Leading Experimental Octathlon Competition

Standout high school athletes from Utica, Clarkston and St. Mary of Orchard Lake are proving to be among the most versatile in Oakland County, at least in track and field.

During this spring season, seven Class B schools in this area have been conducting an experimental eight-event track and field program.

Approved by the Michigan High School Athletic Association, the program was the idea of Ben Snyder, Cranbrook track coach, who was at the 1952 Olympic games in Helsinki, Finland, and made note of the lack of outstanding decathlon performers among the Americans.

'500' Winner Takes Down $76,138

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Bob Sweikert's victory share of the Memorial Day auto race prize money was $76,138.33—$13,358 less than the record total won in 1953 by Bill Vukovich of Fresno, Calif.

"I would gladly give up my first place if Billy were here," Sweikert told the annual awards banquet last night as he accepted the check.

"I feel I lucked into this one," the Indianapolis driver added.

Vukovich, killed Monday when his car crashed and burned after he had led 50 of the first 56 laps, picked up $29,250 of his 1953 total in lap awards. Sweikert's lap prize money was $12,900 this year.

The overall 1953 prize divided was $270,050, a record. This compared to the previous high of $269,375 last year.

Sweikert received $46,000 from the Speedway; $16,275 from a number of auto accessory firms, and $83,625 as an entry fee prize, as well as miscellaneous smaller cash awards. He also was given the Chevrolet convertible pace car and a number of trophies.

Picked as "Rookie of the Year" by a committee of sportswriters attending the awards dinner was Al Herman, Allentown, Pa. who drove an elderly dirt track car to 7th place in the final standings. Official timing tape results released yesterday confirmed what spectators already knew: that Vukovich and Jack McGrath of Inglewood, Calif., had been locked in a bitter duel for the first quarter of the race. The two had identical times—136.091—miles an hour—for the first 54 laps before McGrath was stopped by ignition trouble.

Vukovich kept an identical pace for two additional laps before his car was involved in the smashup which took his life. Driver Ed Ellison, who stopped to render Vukovich's aid when he saw the smash-up, was given the Mobilgas Sportsman Award last night.

The wreck and a later accident in which Cal Niday, Pacoima, Calif., was severely injured, kept the yellow caution light on 30 minutes and 25 seconds and pulled down Sweikert's winning speed to 128.209 miles an hour.

Niday, who suffered a concussion, severe burns and fractured ribs in the crash, remained on a hospital critical list this morning but was reported improved.

Check of the official tape moved Duane Carter, Speedway City, Ind., from 13th to 11th place, dropping Chuck Weyant, Springfield, Ill., to 12th and Eddie Johnson, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, to 13th.

Fourth in the race, following Davies, was Johnny Thompson, Springfield, Mass., who won $12,888.63.

Following Thompson were Walt

Faulker, Long Beach, Calif., $10,763.63; Andy Linden, Manhattan Beach, Calif., $10,763.63; Al Herman, Allentown, Pa., $7,063.62; Pat O'Connor, North Vernon, Ind., $10,833.64.

$6,413.63; Jimmy Daywalt, Indianapolis, $6,413.63 and Pat Flaherty, Chicago, $6,413.63.

Vukovich, who placed 25th, won $10,833.64.

Nelson Flirts With Return to Golfing Wars

One-Time King of Pros Enters U. S. and British Opens at Age 43

NEW YORK (AP)—Byron Nelson, the Roanoke, Tex., rancher who once was undisputed king of the touring pros, is flirting with a golf comeback at the age of 43.

The U.S. Golf Assn. announced today that Nelson, in virtual retirement since 1949, had filed entry in both the United States and British Open championships.

The U.S. Open is scheduled June 16-18 at the Olympic Club in San Francisco. The British event is set for July 4-8 at historic St. Andrews, Scotland.

It will be the first British invasion for the graying so-called "mechanical man" who won the National Open in 1939 and who in 1945 amassed the most remarkable winning record in PGA tournament history.

That year he won a total of 19 tournaments, 12 in a row, and played 120 rounds of golf with an average of 68.33.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

Look at today's player swing. Ain't it something! Without seeing the flight of the ball and observing the player when his hands are only hip-high in the follow through, as pictured, you can tell exactly what happened to his ball. Now, look at him again. His left side is virtually a straight line. His weight is forward. His forward hip and shoulder pivots are virtually completed, and note this—although his hands are hip-high in the follow-through, he is still—get that!—still looking at the spot where the ball was. "X" marks the spot. This player's shot with wood—I say wood, because of the width of his open stance—has traveled 240 yards straight down the fairway. If I had seen this shot, I would expect to see his ball hook faintly just at the far end of the flight, then roll, due to its over-spin, for nice additional yardage. Good golf form does it.

Stadium Nine Wins Close One Over Ashland Club

A lead-off single and a costly error enabled Stadium Inn to edge Ashland Flying Octane, 6-5, in an extra-inning tilt at Northside Park Tuesday night for the top attraction in men's city league softball.

First baseman Clark Balch started the bottom of the 8th with a single, then scored on a three-base error by 3rd sacker Marshall MacIntosh off to bat of Don Wilson to bring things to an end. Winning tally climaxed a see-saw contest which saw the lead change hands four times.

Ashland held a 5-3 advantage entering the last of the 7th, but Stadium Inn chased two across to knot the count. That set the stage for the fatal 8th inning. Pitcher Jon Gieger was the victim for Ashland. His mates outhit the winners, 9-7, but Stadium Inn was the opportunist.

K. C. club downed Riteaway Softwater, 3-1, in a tightly-played contest at Beaudette. Mihay hurled a six-hitter for D. C.

Cal Atwood twirled for Riteaway and allowed only three hits, but a brace of errors, a stolen base, a walk and a wild pitch contributed to the scoring.

Shaw's Jewellers mauled Elk's 810 squad, 10-0, also at Beaudette. Clall Morse pitched a three-hit shutout while his mates were banging out 15 hits off Don Hill.

In the girls game last night at Northside, GMC displayed a solid 15-hit attack in drubbing the Gingleville crew, 16-5.

Lowe Returns to NHL in Rangers' Uniform

MONTREAL (AP)—Ross Lowe, most valuable player in the American Hockey League last season, is coming back to the National League next fall in the uniform of the New York Rangers.

The rangy 26-year-old Lowe, who has been converted from defense to center, was one of two players drafted by the Rangers. He was picked up for $15,000 from Springfield in the annual minor league draft.

Lowe previously played with the Boston Bruins and Montreal Canadiens.

Willie Pep and Cam Meet in 10-Rounder

BOSTON (AP)—Willie Pep, two-time former featherweight champion, is fighting Joey Cam of East Boston tonight at the Arena strictly for the money.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be televised nationally (ABC) at 10 p.m. (EDT) with New England blacked out.

Solomons Says No to Olson-Cockell Tiff

LONDON (AP)—Jack Solomons, Britain's leading boxing promoter, today discounted reports world middleweight champion Bob Olson would fight Britain's Don Cockell in London this fall.

Solomons, who has been influential in Cockell's career, said "there's nothing in it," and added:

"If Olson is looking for a fight over the middleweight limit I'm prepared to offer him a nice purse to meet Randy Turpin here in September."

Olson won his 160-pound crown by defeating Turpin.

Patton in 3rd Round of British Amateur

Billy Joe Will Play Venturi at St. Annes

Two Sensational Putts Keep North Carolinian in Links Tourney

ST. ANNES, England (AP)—Billy Joe Patton, long-hitting American "Walker Cup" golfer from Morganton, N. C., sank a pair of sensational putts on the 17th and 18th greens today and defeated England's Edward Bromley-Davenport, 1-up, in a 2nd round match in the British amateur golf championship.

The victory sent Patton against a former Walker Cup player, young Ken Venturi of San Francisco and the U. S. Army, in the 3rd round this afternoon. Venturi beat veteran William Tweddell of Scotland, 6 and 5, in the 2nd round.

Patton sank a curling 15-foot putt at the 17th to square the match and then rolled one in from 60 feet for a birdie three on the 18th to win.

Venturi, young American army corporal from San Francisco was a member of the 1953 Walker Cup team.

Today he shot a steady 37 over the front nine of 6,657-yard, par 35-36-71 Royal Lytham and St. Annes course for an easy victory.

The 58-year-old Tweddell, who won the British Amateur in 1927, didn't win a hole. He was five down at the turn and dropped the 11th. The rest were halved.

Venturi, who said he had not been on a practice putting green during the past year, putted almost perfectly today. He had seven ranging from six to ten feet and sank every one.

Another American serviceman, Bert Weaver of Beaumont, Tex., advanced with Venturi. Weaver, stationed in England, defeated S. J. Fox of England, 3 and 2. Although he lost the 1st hole to Fox's birdie two, Weaver never was in trouble as he kept his shots straight and played a steady round.

For the 1st time since the tournament began Monday, a breeze sprang up today and there was a possibility of a blowy afternoon. Warm, bright sunshine again greeted the opening play.

Second round matches in the lower half of the draw were scheduled this morning, followed by the entire third round this afternoon. On the basis of yesterday's upper-half matches, 20-year-old Don Bishplinghoff of Orlando, Fla., took on an important role.

Brook Farmhand Piedmont Hottest Strikeout Artist

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP)—Stan Williams, a big rambled Westerner, is the hottest strikeout artist in the Class B Piedmont League has seen in years.

Williams, in fact, may be the best since a guy named Johnny Vander Meer toiled for Durham, N. C., in the Piedmont a couple of decades ago. The fireballing right-hander tied Vander Meer's league record last night by fanning 20 in pitching Newport News to a 5-2 triumph over Lynchburg.

Vander Meer, former ace of the Cincinnati Redlegs pitching staff who hurled two successive no-hitters during his career, established the Piedmont strikeout record in 1936.

Williams, a native of Denver, Colo., who hopes that someday he'll be pitching for the parent Brooklyn Dodgers, has most of the characteristics for success as a major league hurler. He's a 220-pounder, stands 6-4 and is just a youngster of 18.

Last night's 20 strikeouts brought Williams' total for 61 innings pitched this season to 85. Williams struck out three Lynchburg batters in four innings. His big weakness is lack of control. He's walked 57.

Birmingham Officials to Help Open Sandlot Loop

Charles Renfrew, Mayor of Birmingham, will throw out the 1st ball when the Babe Ruth League opens its 4th baseball season next Monday night, June 6, at Birmingham High School's field.

Season's opening game will send the Birmingham Barons against the Wilson Pontiac-Cadillac Chiefs. Pete Hurley is the probable starting pitcher for the Barons, but Tony Stiel, Chiefs' manager, won't name his starter until 30 minutes before game time.

In pre-game ceremonies at 5:30 p.m., Birmingham recreation director Frank Whitney will present the league trophy to Fred Patrice.

132 Horses Eligible for Coast Futurity

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP)—The Del Mar Turf Club today announced that a record-breaking total of 132 2-year-olds has been kept eligible for the eighth running of the $30,000 added Del Mar Futurity.

The futurity will be presented on Del Mar's closing day, Sept. 10, and is expected to gross about $55,000. The 132 juveniles on the eligible list remain from the original 410 nominated when the stake closed last Sept. 4.

Deadline Saturday for Beach Queen Contest

Saturday, June 4 is the deadline for mailing entries for the Miss Metropolitan Beach contest being staged in conjunction with the official summer opening of the beach on Lake St. Clair.

The contest is open to girls 18 and over who reside in the metropolitan Detroit area and have never been married. From photographs mailed to Metropolitan Beach, Box 294, Mt. Clemens, and postmarked not later than June 4, 20 contestants will be chosen to compete for the title on June 18, at the summer opening festival. The queen will also reign at other special events during the summer.

Standing quietly at home plate, players and fans clustered around him, the late Harry Heilmann presented a stirring sight as he modestly accepted the gifts of an appreciative citizenry for his many years as a Detroit baseball star and, later, Tigers' radio announcer.

It memory serves correctly, it was 1949 and Harry was given a shiny, new Chrysler and a $300 camel hair overcoat. The latter was a gift of the players, who chipped in when they learned that all his life Harry had wanted such a coat.

What brings this to mind is the planned Cristante Night June 3, when Tiger relief hurler Leo Cristante will be honored at pre-game ceremonies by the Oakwood Blue Jackets, Southwest Detroit athletic club with whom Cristante got his start.

Big Leo, who won 24 and lost 7 with Atlanta of the Southern Association last season, coming to the Tigers in the winter in the Ferris Fair deal, will receive a number of gifts and a lot of cheers from 500 of the Blue Jackets' 1,500 members sitting together in the stands.

Ball players are deeply appreciative of tributes by the fans. Al Kalline was overwhelmed a few weeks ago by the presentation from the Holy Name Society in his native Baltimore.

He was given a movie projector, gold watch, traveling case and a silver set for his wife, but these are comparatively insignificant to what the fans will someday shower upon him if he keeps up his phenomenal performances.

Certainly the most impressive present to a player is an automobile. I remember how I felt when I was honored with a new Pontiac in August, 1950, together with an outboard motor and $400 in silver dollars.

People from all over the state had mailed in dimes and quarters for the presents.

I was all at once proud and humble and deeply appreciative. To this day I treasure the many letters I received and the pictures taken of the occasion.

Adrian Trotter Is Hazel Park Victor

DETROIT (AP)—Chuck's Guy, owned by K. A. Wassink and Harold Raymond of Adrian, won the feature BB trot in 2:04 1/5 at Hazel Park Harness Raceway last night.

That was the fastest the 4-year-old trotter had ever trotted a mile. Driven by Leon Boring, Chuck's Guy chopped 3/5 second off his old mark. He paid $5.60.

A crowd of 4,324 bet $237,711.

Grains Inching Upward Slowly

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grains inched their way upward in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today. Gains were limited to small fractions.

Soybeans lagged. One reason was early easiness in soybeans oil and meal futures. Another was the excellent growing weather in the main producing territory.

Rye continued to show strength although it appeared to be running into some profit-taking after its advance of the past several weeks.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1/2 higher, July $1.99 1/4; corn 1/4 to 1/2 higher, July $1.43 1/4; oats unchanged to 1/4 higher, July 68 1/4; rye 3/4 to 1 1/4 higher, July $1.09 1/4; soybeans unchanged to 3/4 lower, July $24 1/4; and land 2 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.55.

Unearth Tomb of 1st Governor

Detroit Workmen Find Stevens Mason Vault in Capitol Park

DETROIT (U)—The tomb of Michigan's first governor, Stevens T. Mason, was unearthed in Capitol Park in Detroit yesterday.

After digging all day, workmen struck a vault 5 feet below the statue of the "boy" governor.

The statue, and the tomb beneath it, are being moved to the south end of the triangular park to make room for a new bus loading station at the north end.

A tarpaulin was thrown over the grave for the night. Removal of the casket was to be continued today.

Locating of the vault was guesswork as there was no map showing exactly where the body had been buried.

Mason's body was brought here in 1905 from New York where he had died Jan. 4, 1843, at the age of 32. It was moved after a group of citizens campaigned for proper honors to be paid to the state's first and youngest governor.

UNVEILED IN 1908

The statue over the grave was unveiled three years later, on May 30, 1908.

Mason was named secretary of the Michigan Territory in 1832 and was named governor by President Jackson in 1834.

He was removed 14 months later when he disagreed with Jackson over a claim by Ohio to land at the southern edge of the territory.

But Mason enjoyed great popularity and he was elected Michigan's first governor at the age of 21 when the state was admitted to the union.

The casket will be stored in the Wayne County morgue pending reburial, the Department of Parks and Recreation reported.

Clayton admitted May 16 driving an auto which hit a Detroit Edison worker last February causing the victim to lose a leg, Royce J. King, 29, of 624 Burgess, Milford, was struck while standing at the rear of an Edison equipment truck.

Compensation Changes Passed, Sent to Senate

LANSING (U)—Passed by the House and sent back to the Senate yesterday was a bill liberalizing the workmen's compensation laws.

The measure would require the state to pay the medical care of injured workmen indefinitely, removing the present two-year limit. It also provides life-long benefits for permanently disabled workmen.

In addition, it would extend from 400 to 450 weeks payments to the dependents of workers killed in accidents on the job.

Sentenced in Theft

Archie Feldman, 27, of 71 Lafayette St., Oxford, yesterday received from 1 1/2 to 4 years in Jackson state prison when he appeared before Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland.

Feldman admitted May 23 stealing clothing from a home at 2592 Lapeer Rd. last April 26.

Keefe Owes Everything to "Eddie Cantor Story"

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — Has anybody in the joint been heard to remark lately, "Hey, I must be getting old?"

I'm always growling about my advancing years — over such little things, too. Such as me mentioning Ruth Etting.

"Who's Ruth Eddy?" says somebody who's never heard of the great songbird.

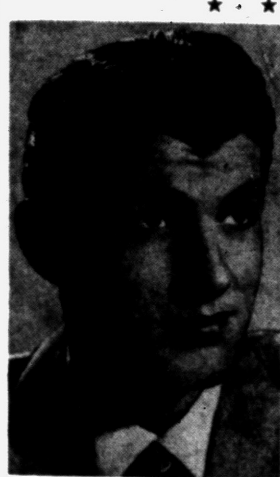

I could mention other little things . . . like Eddie Foy 3rd and Joe Di Maggio Jr. being almost as big as their dads . . . Gary Crosby being offered $50,000 to play Las Vegas . . . and Rory (Toots Jr.) Shor playing with the Giants next season. It's too much.

So then I interviewed a nice young fellow, Keefe Brasselle, who must be about half my age — and he reminded me.

"Looking back," he said — and all the years he could look back seemed only a few minutes to Methusalem here — "The Eddie Cantor Story" was the greatest thing that ever happened to me.

"Five years from now" — the handsome young black-haired fellow out of Elyria, O. was turning prophet now — "The Eddie Cantor Story" will be bigger than it is now.

"Can't miss!" He pounded the table. "I've run across old women" — probably old hags 40 years old or so — "who told me with tears in their eyes that they've seen it 5 times."

KEEFE

That's what gets you. When kids start talking old. Then there's the fact that the newspapers are making their type smaller all the time, too. Maybe the only thing to do is talk to Bernard Baruch and Herbert Bayard Swope only and, when they mention somebody from yesterday, say "Who?" Maybe that'll make us feel younger.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . Marilyn Monroe stunned luncheon customers in Child's by being just like everybody else. She'll see the "sneak" of "Itch" June 1.

Jack Paar's troubles with the CBS Morning Show now seem to justify Walter Cronkite somewhat; he did news, not comedy, now they want news again.

Diana Barrymore's autobiography, due in the fall, will be called "Much Too Soon" . . . Dagmar and Danny Dayton celebrated their fourth anniversary at the Spindletop.

Pretty Joan Collins' next movie is "Sir Walter Raleigh and the Virgin Queen" . . . Jose Ferrer wrote background music for "The Shrine."

opening busted the house record . . . Re-Vaughn Monroe's Sheraton-Astor Roof member actor Tom Neal? He's applied for an FBI job . . . Producer Gail Gaitner awaited the "Seventh Heaven" reviews at Grace Kelly's apartment.

Fiddler Florian Zebach claims he often answers the doorbell in his overcoat; if it's an unwelcome guest, he says he's on the way out . . . The West Side's latest floating crap game is in a moving hearse . . . Monte Proser's added French singer Lucie Dolene to his La Vie show.

WISH I'D SAID THAT. Isn't it wonderful how noble we feel when we slow the car down, courteously, and let a pedestrian live? — Norman Hendricksen, Sacramento. That's earl, brother.

Giving Viewers Chance to Talk

Network Paying Cost of Nationwide Survey to Satisfy Public

NEW YORK — CBS is approaching the problem from the right end with its projected $100,000 nationwide study of what the public wants and expects of television.

Frank Stanton, CBS president, emphasizes that while the network will underwrite the cost, once the study committee has been set up CBS' connection with it will cease.

The approach is a positive one. Until now, the public could register approval or disapproval of a program by tuning it in or not tuning it in, with consequent effects on the ratings. But the viewer gets no chance to tell what he'd like that isn't on TV at all.

The study projected by CBS would go further, however, than merely determining mass taste. The committee, says Stanton, also will concern itself with ways in which the public interest will best be served.

It may be months before results of the study are known. Meanwhile, an inkling of what it may include possibly is provided by a survey by the American Council for Better Broadcasts. This group, in which are represented many major civic organizations, made a survey in which 5,661 persons from 18 states participated.

Here are some excerpts from the report: "More good music is the most insistent wish unfulfilled on radio-TV. By 'good' is meant classical. Popular music is plentiful."

"If only we could get some good children's program, as educational, nature and animal movies, cartoons and hobby-type programs, the children would be challenged to learn at the same time. They would not get over-excited before supper and would do constructive things."

On what they didn't like, the survey report included this:

"They continue to resent viciously the low caliber of daytime serials and westerns and other crime shows for children. They especially resent the number of them, which leaves them and their children little choice on week-days."

Legislature OKs Standardized Traffic Lights

LANSING — Michigan's Legislature has voted to standardize traffic control lights throughout the state and ban conflicting advertising signs.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), was sent to the governor today.

The measure requires vehicular traffic control lights to be suspended over the roadway, and pedestrian control lights to be placed at the curbline.

The bill affects all new installations made after the bill becomes law and requires existing lights be changed by Jan. 1, 1938.

It also forbids banners and decorations to be hung over streets and highways within 10 feet on either side of a traffic light or signal. This is designed to provide a clear channel of observation down the center of a roadway so that the traffic lights can be seen easily.

Creosote is still the most widely used wood preservative, but treatment with pentachlorophenol is increasing.

Dancer Evicted, Kicking, From Home in Chicago

CHICAGO — A barefooted former ballet dancer, fighting and kicking, finally was evicted from her home yesterday.

The Chicago Sanitary District had been trying to get Miss Lenora Davis to move from her home for nearly a year. She had tangled with district workers and police on previous occasions and twice last summer, they said, she fired shots at some workers.

She didn't surrender without a fight yesterday. She kicked and swung at humane officers who removed her three Afghan hounds from the one-story frame house. State policemen restrained the shapely, red-haired waitress. She kicked at them too.

District officials, accompanied by about a dozen policemen, went to the home along the Des Plaines River in suburban Summit to serve the eviction notice. Miss Davis, 32, was termed a squatter by district officials and was evicted on orders of a justice of the peace.

The district wanted the house removed to make way for a railway to haul sludge from its sewage treatment works in nearby Stickney.

After Miss Davis' furnishings had been removed, workmen poured fuel oil in the house and burned it.

Miss Davis, who had lived in the cottage for six years as a tenant of the Sanitary District, said she would move to a motor coach near a restaurant where she is employed as a waitress.

Her dogs were taken to the animal welfare league but officials said she could get them.

State GOP Picking Governor Nominee

LANSING — Michigan Republicans hope to discover their most popular candidate for governor in 1936 without the ravages of a bitter primary fight.

Party sources disclosed today that the supporters of at least four potential candidates are conducting polls to determine the strength of their candidates.

The four are Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Grand Rapids, Rep. Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, former Aud. Gen. John B. Martin of Grand Rapids and Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit.

Submerged Land Bill Goes Back to Senate

LANSING — Passed by the House and sent back to the Senate yesterday for action on amendments, was a bill allowing owners of submerged lands to buy the property from the state under certain conditions.

As the bill left the Senate, the sale price would have to be 10 per cent of assessed valuation. The House upped the minimum to 30 per cent.

The measure, supporters said, was aimed at relieving property owners who bought land along the shores of the Great Lakes, then found it belongs to the state.

Under an 1887 statute, all Great Lakes shore land is held in public trust as hunting and fishing lands.

Some real estate operators and private owners have been filling in the land for homesites. The state has cracked down on these owners with a chain of lawsuits.

Under the bill, sales would have to be approved by the State Conservation Department, the State Administrative Board and the State Waterways Commission.
