MAKES POINT — Gov. George Romney emphasizes a point in a discussion of the Viet Nam war yesterday in Detroit. Romney said getting into a land war was a mistake for the U.S. But, now that we're there, he said, "we really need to make up our mind what our objectives are." If the objective is to win, nonland elements of the Viet Nam war must be stepped up, he said.

Romney Steps Up Attack on U.S. Viet Nam Policy

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney gradually is stepping up his attack on administration policy in Viet Nam.

The Republican governor refuses to discuss his 1968 presidential prospects but is increasingly diverging from President Johnson on the foreign policy issue uppermost in most Americans' minds.

Pickets Jeer Veep at MSU

EAST LANSING (AP) — Vice President Hubert Humphrey, addressing a graduation audience including 75 anti-Viet Nam pickets, encouraged young people yesterday to "collect a few bruises" by opposing the "compact majority."

Humphrey spoke before nearly 30,000 persons, including 3,487 degree recipients, at commencement exercises of Michigan State University. He also received an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Those who dissent, he said, "are more a part of this land and more a source of its strength than are all of the multitude who join in silence, no matter how vast they may seem."

Fear 100 Dead in Rail Crash

Two Trains Collide in Suburb of Bombay

BOMBAY (AP) — At least 100 Indians were feared killed today and 120 injured when two suburban trains jammed with commuters crashed together in a Bombay suburb.

Five hours after the early morning collision, railway officials announced 32 bodies had been counted and there were 106 injured so far.

Traffic on the city's railways, which carry two million persons daily, was disrupted while doctors, firemen and police struggled through the wreckage to rescue trapped commuters.

Each train reportedly carried more than 1,500 passengers. Firemen used blow torches to cut their way into twisted aluminum coaches in which men, women and schoolchildren were trapped.

The accident was the worst in western India's rail history. It occurred near a grade crossing north of Matunga Station, nine miles from Victoria Station in downtown Bombay.

The collision occurred at the 7 a.m. rush hour. One train bound from Victoria to Thana Junction, 20 miles to the north, was being switched to another track.

The other train was en route to the central terminal.

The impact sent the first three cars of one train off the tracks.

Service on the central railway was stopped at once, halting movement to Madras, Calcutta and New Delhi.

you are going to discover that you are lending courage to a surprising number of people whose feelings will come to the surface in response to yours," Humphrey said.

The words "responsibly and thoughtfully" were not in the vice president's prepared text. He also added a reference to the American serviceman as "a pacemaker... a lifesaver."

"I have seen these brave men (servicemen) perform acts of compassion that would be the marvel of any peaceful society," he said.

QUOTES POET

Humphrey quoted Norwegian poet Henrik Ibsen as saying "the most dangerous enemy to truth and freedom amongst us is the compact majority."

"If you oppose that compact majority," Humphrey said, "you are sure to collect a few bruises."

"But I have found that the best remedy for a bruise — And I have collected a few along life's way myself — is to collect a few more. You forget the pain of the first blow."

The pickets chanted "End the war in Viet Nam" as Humphrey's motorcade entered Spartan Stadium.

Also on the ballots in all of Oakland County's school districts are the names of the 14 candidates seeking six seats on the Oakland Community College Board of Trustees. Polling places are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

In the Waterford Township district, voters will decide the fate of four bonding proposals totaling $11.8 million and of a one-million increase in the operating tax.

On the Pontiac school ballot is a proposition concerning the transfer of some $37,200 out of debt retirement funds into the district's building and site fund.

The Pontiac and Waterford Township boards of education each have vacancies for four-year terms.

EXPIRING TERMS

Expiring in Pontiac are the terms of Dr. Walter L. Godsell, who is not seeking reelection, and Mrs. Elsie Mihalek.

Candidates are William H. Anderson, 53, of 2281 Ostrum, Waterford Township; Mrs. M. Mihalek, 44, of 1582 Vinewood; Mrs. Susan L. Miller, 26, of 900 S. East Blvd.; Victor L. Smothers, 47, of 208 West and James R. Steel, 40, of 261 Ottawa.

One of the four bond issues on the Waterford Township school ballot would raise $4.8 million to erect, furnish and equip a new high school and elementary school and to acquire and improve school sites and site additions.

A $5,975,000 bond issue would pay for additions and improvements to existing buildings.

The other two bond issues on the ballot are $625,000 for an auditorium at the new high school and $400,000 for a swimming pool there.

Sylvan Lake Councilman Seeks Post

Sylvan Lake Councilman John D. McKinlay announced today that he will seek the Republican nomination for state representative from the 61st District.

On the city council since 1964, McKinlay, 34, of 2709 Littlefield, is a member and former chairman of the human relations committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The district seat being sought by McKinlay is presently held by Rep. Francis A. Crowley and includes the townships of Springfield, Waterford, Independence and White Lake and the city of Sylvan Lake.

McKinlay, like Crowley, has been a member of U.S. Olympic teams.

Twice a member of the rowing team, in 1952 and 1956, McKinlay won a silver medal for his efforts in 1956. Crowley participated in track events in the 1952 Olympics.

EUROPEAN GAMES

In 1967 McKinlay competed in the European Games as a good will ambassador of the U.S. government.

Six times a U.S. national rowing champion, McKinlay also competed in the 1962 English Henley race in England.

Presently employed by the Birmingham real estate firm of Weir, M. A. U. Snyder and R. A. Ranke, McKinlay was the assistant superintendent at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy, from 1959 to 1965.

He graduated from Boston University with a bachelor of science degree in business administration and has attended the graduate school of the University of Michigan and the Detroit College of Law.

McKinlay has served as a precinct captain in Berkeley and as an alternate delegate to the Republican convention.

He is a member of the chamber of commerce, YMCA, Detroit Boat Club, St. Andrews Society and the Boston University Varsity Club.

During the Korean War McKinlay served in the Marine Corps and was discharged with the rank of staff sergeant.

Boaters Get 161 Warnings

Water Patrols Ticket 17 During Weekend

The Water Safety Division of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department issued 161 warnings and 17 violation tickets over the weekend.

These totals represent patrol activity in about two-thirds of the county, according to Lt. Donald K. Kratt, director of the division.

Complete figures will be compiled when reports from the remaining patrol units are received, Kratt said.

Most of the tickets issued were for inadequate fire extinguisher equipment on watercraft. Other boaters were ticketed for inadequate life preserver equipment or for reckless operation.

Deputies also made 25 assists to boaters who were either out of gas or having motor trouble.

4 COMPLAINTS

The division took four citizen complaints in the Friday night through Sunday night period.

Two were for boat launchers and the final complaint concerned reckless driving.

Kratt has requested that lakefront residents install a sign with their house number and street name near the beach so patrol boats can see it from the lake.

This will eliminate the necessity for deputies to pull to shore and walk around to check this information, Kratt said.

"It will save our men a great deal of time in handling complaints," Kratt added.

Supreme Court OKs Literacy Provision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court held constitutional today a provision of the 1965 federal voting rights law designed to permit Puerto Ricans to vote on the basis of literacy in Spanish.

At the same time, the court ruled the New York State cannot enforce its own literacy standards against persons who have completed at least a sixth-grade education in which the instruction was not in English.

Teachers at Eastern Back Today

Eastern Junior High School teachers were back in their classrooms this morning, giving final examinations and organizing activities for the last three days of the school year.

The 28 teachers who stayed out of school Thursday and Friday decided over the weekend to comply with the Friday afternoon order of Schools Supt. Dr. Dana Whitmer and return to their posts today.

With two-thirds of its faculty missing, the school had been closed to seventh and eighth graders both days.

Although still at odds with the board of education, the teachers' group said it "will fulfill its obligations to the students at Eastern, so they can enjoy the conclusion of their school year with full activities and their promotion exercises."

The teachers, who said they will attend a board of education meeting tomorrow night, are seeking public support by the board for Eastern Principal Theodore E. Wiersma and his staff.

DISCIPLINE INCIDENT

Wiersma was involved in a pupil discipline incident which prompted a May 27 demonstration by some 175 pupils and parents.

In a prepared statement today, the dissident teachers noted staff studies and Pontiac Police Department investigations have indicated accusation against Wiersma were unwarranted.

The teachers also said the board had failed to keep its promise to issue a public statement which would clear the air.

This failure, combined with influences from outside the school and community, has "precipitated tensions at Eastern as well as other schools, disrupt the climate of learning," they said.

"The fervent support of many students, parents and educators from the city, county and state could warrant a mass demonstration for goals at Eastern, but the staff feels at this time the good of the students to complete the year should be the first consideration," they said.

PEA, School Board Agree on Proposed '66-67 Pact

Negotiators for the Pontiac Board of Education and the Pontiac Education Association (PEA) have reached agreement on a proposed 1966-67 contract for the school district's 947 teachers.

The contract calls for a $5,000 base salary and would jump the maximum salary for teachers with masters' degrees over the $10,000 mark for the first time.

Teachers today received copies of the proposed contract to read before attending a ratification meeting at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Pontiac Northern High School auditorium.

The board of education will consider the proposal at a special meeting at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Under provisions of the contract, the school system's base salary would be boosted $500 from the current $5,500.

BASE FOR SCHEDULE

The figure which provides the base for the district's indexed salary schedule is the pay of the teacher who holds a bachelor's degree and has no experience. There are some 159 Pontiac teachers in this category.

Other major provisions of the proposed contract include paid life insurance and a $1-million liability insurance policy for every teacher, reportedly the first in the state.

Also included is an expanded Easter vacation beginning Good Friday and continuing through the week after Easter.

The proposed contract also calls for establishment of a professional relations committee composed of PEA members who would meet monthly with Schools Supt. Dr. Dana Whitmer to assist in teacher-administration communication and in a structural program development.

At the other end of the scale is the $18,034 salary proposed for teachers with master's degrees and 10 years of experience. There are some 159 Pontiac teachers in this category.

He also expanded his attack on administration information policies, blaming withholding of facts and overly optimistic predictions for "a gradual deterioration in the feeling of confidence about what the government says."

The governor offers something for both the hawks and doves. For those who would end the war, his call for more bombing, providing the U.S. objective is to win.

2 U.S. Planes Lost in Attacks

Buddhist Protesters March in Viet Capital

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Navy pilot destroyed the 13th Communist MIG of the war in an air battle Sunday between the key North Vietnamese cities of Hanoi and Haiphong, and narrowly missed getting a second. But two U.S. planes were lost in new air attacks on the Communist North today.

The political kettle boiled again in South Viet Nam when Buddhist demonstrators swept through the streets of Saigon and riot police responded with clouds of tear gas. The disorder ended two weeks of comparative calm in the capital and followed a day of giant pro-government, anti-Communist demonstrations by Roman Catholics.

Cmdr. Hal L. Marr, 40, of Roseburg, Ore., scored the hit on the MIG with his second heat-seeking Sidewinder in a numerically equal dogfight between four F-8 Crusaders, jets from the carrier Hancock and four Soviet-designed MIGs.

A U.S. spokesman said the encounter occurred 31 miles northwest of Haiphong, North Viet Nam's main port, and 55 miles northeast of Hanoi, the capital.

HIT RIGHT WING

The missile homed in on the MIG's hot tailpipe and destroyed it. Marr, commanding officer of Fighter Squadron 211 aboard the Hancock, attacked another MIG with his 20mm cannon and hit its right wing but ran out of ammunition before he could finish off the enemy plane. The damaged plane apparently limped home.

A twin-jet U.S. Air Force B-57 Canberra fighter-bomber vanished with its two crewmen east of the Mu Gia Pass today, while an Air Force F-4C Phantom jet was shot down by ground fire northwest of coastal Dong Hoi City. Parachutes were seen but the two fliers were listed as missing.

They were the 261st and 262nd American planes reported lost over the Communist north.

In the jungled central highlands of South Viet Nam, U.S. paratroopers killed 25 Communist soldiers in a series of skirmishes at the "Screaming Eagles" of the 101st Airborne Division comb the jungled mountain lair of a North Vietnamese regiment. They have been battling since Tuesday.

BOMB SATURATED

Before the paratroopers moved into the area where the North Vietnamese were believed encircled, high-flying B-52s from Guam saturated it with bombs.

After seven bombing runs, helicopters lifted a company of paratroopers into the charred jungle, and a battalion of the 101st began an end-to-end sweep of the ridge where an estimated 1,000 North Vietnamese were believed burrowed in.

A spokesman said the paratroopers met light, sporadic fire.

LBJ OKs Lower Figure on National Debt Limit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The administration, in a surprise move today, resigned itself to a $2-billion cut in President Johnson's request for an increase in the national debt limit.

Treasury Secretary Henry Fowler, testifying before the Senate Finance Committee, said "I am prepared to accept a level of $30 billion" instead of the $32 billion originally requested.

"The real benefits of this legislation will be realized in future years if these programs are continued and improved," he added.

"It has been my good fortune to have served on the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives that is responsible for the funding of the programs of health and education, and my desire is to continue in this capacity so that opportunities and benefits for our youth and our nation will be fully realized."

AUDITOR GENERAL

Before being elected to Congress in November, 1964, Farnum, 50, 995 N. Cass Lake, Waterford Township, was auditor general for the state of Michigan—first appointed by Gov. John Swainson in October, 1961, then elected to a two-year term in 1962.

A former Pontiac Motor Co. employee, Farnum held various UAW-CIO union offices, ranging from steward to international representative.

Between 1952-54, he was administrative aide to the late U.S. Sen. Blair Moody and, in 1967, was appointed deputy secretary of state.

The description given to Farnum by the press while he was auditor general, "watchdog of the tax dollar," has carried over into his first term in Congress when he was named to the appropriation committee, a post rarely given to freshman representatives.

"I have had the opportunity," said Farnum, "to scrutinize the use of the taxpayer's dollars and to make sure that the monies appropriated are spent for purposes intended by Congress."

Should Take Her Clients to Lunch

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am employed, on an executive level, by a public service organization. I often meet with clients to discuss business over lunch.

These men are doing services for our organization. I feel as though lunch should be my treat but, I don't know how to handle it without making them feel awkward.

Another problem that confronts me is this: We work very closely with public officials, many of whom I've known for a number of years when I was working as a volunteer. In my present position, I correspond frequently with them.

As a volunteer we were all on a first-name basis, but now as a member I am wondering if I should start a letter with "Dear Bob" or if I should become more formal, use their official title, etc.

I don't want to appear too chummy, yet I don't want my old friends to wonder, why, all of a sudden, I've become stiff and formal. — Arlene T.

Dear Arlene: I agree that you should take these clients to lunch. The best way to invite them is to say that your organization would like to have them as its guests for lunch, and convince them that you are not paying out of your own pocket. Open a charge account at a restaurant, or use a gift card, to avoid the awkwardness of a woman paying cash.

In writing to your friends, you will sound stilted if you suddenly start to call them "Mr." I would suggest that you use their first names, and yours, in ordinary correspondence.

If you are writing a very official letter in the name of your organization, which might well be shown to many people, you should address them as "Mr." and sign your full name.

Grandmother Is Fed Up

Summer Visitors a Trial

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Every year my daughter and her children have visited us and stayed all summer, and each year the children grow a little bolder. Last summer my home was bedlam!

The children kept the stereo going full blast night and day, refused to pick up after themselves, ate all day long, and abused our lovely furniture. They partied at night and left the mess for me to clean up in the morning.

They had their teen-age friends running in and out, and never bothered to introduce one of them to their grandfather or me. (Their mother said teenagers NEVER introduce their friends to anyone, not even to their parents.)

I was shocked to hear the rude manner in which those children talked back to their mother, and she didn't say a word.

If I had treated my elders that way, my mother would have worn out a willow switch on me. Summer is upon us, and I am dreading it. Have you any advice for me?

GRANDMOTHER: No advice, just sympathy. If you put up with those hoiligans another summer, you've asked for it. Apparently you failed to teach your daughter what your mother taught you—respect for one's elders.

For if you had, she'd have passed it on to HER children. And perhaps something else would have been passed on—the willow switch.

DEAR ABBY: I am so mad, I have to unload on someone, so here goes: My husband is self-employed. A year ago he did a job for a customer who lives in a home much more beautiful than anything we could ever afford.

After a year, we received a check for this job. The check was misplaced (I thought it was stolen) so I called the lady and asked her to please stop payment on it.

I found the check today and called the lady back to tell her I had found the check and to apologize for any inconvenience I had caused her.

She asked me to SEND HER ONE DOLLAR, as this is what it cost to stop payment on that check!

After waiting a year for our money, how could anyone be so miserably cheap?

HAMILTON, O. DEAR HAMILTON: For people who are miserably cheap, it comes naturally.

DEAR ABBY: My pet peeve is the accepted, though asinine system of seating wedding guests so that the bride's family and friends are on one side of the church and the groom's are on the other.

When the usher asks me, "Whose side are you on," I always have the urge to say, "Must I choose sides? They haven't even started fighting yet."

NEW YORK (UPI) — The amazing thing about denim is its durability.

It has been around since Levi Strauss put the first rivets in a pair of blue jeans during the California gold rush, and it gets more fashionable all the time.

It is worn by the younger set to discotheques, to the movies, to parties, to classes, at home and away from home.

Its fame has spread to Rome, London, Paris, Bangkok, Tel Aviv and even Moscow, where it is popular but short in supply.

If you're a motorscooter enthusiast denim is boss.

MOSTLY BLUE

Mostly it remained indigo blue over the years though some farmers wore brown overalls and railroad men wore striped denim which is suddenly experiencing a revival in everything from jeans to sports coats.

A mark of honor was to shrink the blue ones skintight and fade them.

The situation changed in 1958 when the Granville Company introduced something called "Bull Denim," or piece-dyed denims in a wide variety of colors.

Before that everything was pretty much a yarn-dyed cotton twill and pretty much the same color — indigo blue.

The Granville color discoveries turned denim into a fashion item and women who also wore faded skin tight blue jeans began wearing the new colors.

Instead of dark blue there was beige, pewter, black and loden, also known as "wheat jeans" and "cactus green." White is big right now.

Then somebody discovered stretch denims, a mixture of cotton and nylon and durable press which is a cotton and polyester.

The latest thing is brushed denim which is a denim made soft and comfortable. It also looks lived in.

The days are probably gone forever when people rushed to second hand stores and bought blue jeans worn by sailors until the pants acquired a soft and faded patina through exposure to salt water, sun and strong soaps.

But does everyone rush out and buy the latest in denims? Not necessarily. A spokesman for one of the old line firms reports a "vigorous upsurge" in just plain old blue jeans.

Bengals Split Doubleheader With NY Nine

Detroit Takes First Behind Right-Hander; Home Runs Rule 2nd

DETROIT (AP) — Joe Pepitone hit two home runs Sunday to bring his season total up to ten, which isn't bad. Denny McLain gave up two home runs, making his season total 16, which isn't good.

But McLain also posted his ninth victory of the season in the first game as the Tigers and the Yankees split a doubleheader 7-5 and 12-10.

McLain now tops the American League in games won and trails only Juan Marichal and Sandy Koufax, both National League pitchers, each with 11 wins.

But McLain would prefer to win his games without the ordeal of the Yankees put him through in the seventh and ninth innings.

"I died out there," McLain sighed afterward.

"This was the second straight game that I didn't have a good fast ball," McLain said. "My curve was great and I had just enough of a hop on the last ball to get them out."

"When that went, I was in trouble."

The Tigers, who rapped Yankee starter Mel Stottlemyre for five runs in the first five innings including a three-run homer by Gates Brown, got two more runs off of reliever Bob Friend in the sixth.

HITS TRIPLE

Ray Oyler's triple scored one run and McLain drove in the other with a single.

But McLain, with the Tigers ahead 7-3 gave up a double to

In the Cooling Industry

Weather's the Word

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Weather is giving the air-conditioning industry

more concern than President Johnson's plea for restraint in spending by consumers and in plant expansion by business.

On the plus side, cooling experts are basing big hopes just

now on Medical, the education explosion

and the complicated technical fields fascinating the nation's industries.

But weather is another thing.

And a late cool spring has cut the sale of room coolers while other consumer durable goods were booming. Sudden arrival of hot weather in some parts of the nation belatedly has sent sales up sharply. Borg-Warner says its May sales were the highest for any month in its history.

But the industry is looking beyond the window cooler to the central air conditioner for homes and the use in hospitals, schools, office buildings and factories.

Sales of central units for homes were around 600,000 in 1965, but Trane Co. predicts 1970 will see 1 million units sold. It also notes 75 per cent of all new apartment house units built in 1965 were air-conditioned. The Air Conditioning and Refrigeration

Institute adds that 51,626 residential unit systems were exported last year.

Expected demand for new hospital and education facilities

—plus the trend to put college programs on a year-round basis

—is expected by some industry experts to offset about 50 per cent of the growth potential for large conditioning systems in the next few years. Medicare may expand the already pressing need for more hospital rooms, and more comfortable ones.

NEW PROCESSES

A challenging market is industrial technological needs.

Chemical, fertilizer and steel companies are using increasing amounts of air conditioning.

Some call for temperatures below minus 100 degrees Fahrenheit.

Food processing, the biggest customer of the cooling industry, is still expanding, as are the printing and textile industries.

Sales of auto air-conditioners were around 2.5 million units in 1965 and are expected to hit 4.5 million units in 1970.

Growing concern over air pollution is counted on to boost a sizzling new market for air-conditioning equipment. Honeywell, which makes electronic air cleaning units, says its sales are up 10 per cent in 1966.

Every 10 new homes will be equipped.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam

(AP) — The U.S. Marines reported today that a guerrilla hurled a 6-foot spear at a

Marine soldier, standing guard at an outpost near the coastal city of Chu Lai.

The spear missed the sentry,

the Marines said, but hit his guard shack.

A Marine patrol, led by a sentry, went after the spear thrower. He got away when the dog lost the scent at a street.

A break-in and theft of $50 at

Turner Auto Service, 49 E. Walton, was reported yesterday morning to Pontiac Police.

New Optimism on Viet War

U. S. Officials Believe

Turning Point Nearer

WASHINGTON (AP) — High-

administration officials believe expanding U.S. combat operations in Viet Nam may hasten a turning point in the war against

Communist conquest in South

Viet Nam.

A new tone of optimism is apparent in official comment here, although it is not universally shared. Some highly placed officials fear that the military gains now being registered may be frustrated by new political violence in South Viet Nam or by some strategic shift on the part of Communist forces.

ADMINISTRATION LINE

However the dominant administration line as developed primarily by Secretary of Defense

Robert S. McNamara and apparently supported by Secretary of State Dean Rusk is that political turmoil among the South

Vietnamese this spring had caused only temporary — even though serious — setbacks to the anti-Communist fight and substantial military progress has been made in recent weeks.

In a joint news conference with Rusk at the White House

Saturday, McNamara also told reporters that offensive operations by the United States, South

Vietnamese and allied forces had frustrated plans of the Communist high command for a

"monsoon offensive."

Other officials indicate that the total amount of damage which allied forces are now able to inflict on Communist forces is almost in balance with the gains which the Communists are able to make by way of infiltration of troops from North Viet Nam and recruitment in the south.

33,000 GAIN

Administration officials have claimed that in the first four months of this year — January through April — the North Vietnamese sent 19,000 men through the jungle roads and trails into

South Viet Nam — an average of about 4,700 a month. In the same period about 14,000 fighters are estimated to have been added to Viet Cong forces through recruitment in the south. The gross gain from the two sources totaled about 33,000.

Will Reagan Victory Help
Wayne Gun for President?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The Smart People figure that Ronald Reagan is running for governor of California so that he can nominate John Wayne for President — and that President Wayne, with one gun under his back, can annihilate both Russia and Red China — but the one they're not sure about is: Bobby Kennedy.

Jack Carter's been criticized for being aggressive and wants to change his image. At the Durward Kirby's wedding anniversary celebration at the NY Hilton, a friend said to Jack: "Why don't you go and say hello to Gary Moore?" Jack replied, "They'll say I'm being pushy."

"Little Mary" Small, the singer, and Nancy Steele, singing hostess of L'Integree, are in a big dispute. Mary claiming that when she worked at L'Integree, Nancy punched her and tore her dress. (Girls will be girls!) Frank Sinatra now calls ladies to say "Somebody wants to talk to you." It's Mia Farrow.

Glenn Ross, Hollywood publicist and mgr., at great effort got tickets to take Nani Bonet, the belly artist, to "Sweet Charity." But Nani, who was in the Village consulting with the hot new Arab-Israeli-Oriental group, the Peacemaker, about the song she's written called "Jelly Belly," missed the first act—and arrived only 10 minutes before the final curtain.

George Hamilton is watching his image, even on the screen since starting to date Lynda Bird Johnson. A columnist killed an item about his assaulting a girl in his next film because it might sound nice.

Secret staff: A famous singer just got blasted by the Okinawa papers which claimed he swindled them on his personal appearance tour, doing very reduced, unheard shows, and only let them pay for his honeymoon. "Don't ever come back," they told him.

Some 1,500 were invited to the Mademoiselle party at Cheetah — but only 4,000 of 'em could make it. Photographers found only one quiet spot to snap the male and female guests—the ladies' room.

One of the major news organizations ordered its staff to "leave Jackie Kennedy alone" unless it's really big news. Capitol Records, for instance, who made 40 albums for 'em, as "Jimmy Gleason" in a full page ad in Cash Box magazine. Griffin Urges
End to NLRB

DETROIT (AP) — Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., called Sunday for abolishing of the National Labor Relations Board, suggesting it be replaced by a 15-member U.S. labor court.

Griffin, speaking before the independent International Society of Skilled Trades, said that under the Taft-Hartley Act, the members were entitled to representation by a union of their choice. "But the NLRB does not see fit to interpret the law in that manner," Griffin added.

SEEKS MEMBERS
The society has been attempting to win members from among skilled tradesmen represented by the United Auto Workers. It has thus far failed to win NLRB recognition.

Man Escapes Injury
as Motorboat Explodes

HOLLAND (UPI) — Albert Riekse, 55, of Grand Rapids escaped injury when an explosion occurred aboard a new 17-foot outboard motorboat he launched for the first time on Lake Macatawa late Saturday.

Ottawa County deputy sheriffs said leaking gas fumes from the fuel tank precipitated the explosion, which blew a rear seat about 30 feet back on the dock.

Mailbag Revelations

Path to Doctor Is Busy One

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Some 122 million Americans — six out of 10 — visited their doctors last year. As usual, the women outnumbered the men.

Your chances of becoming a centenarian are getting better all the time. There are now more than 12,000 who have reached the age of 100.

Science may not be able to cure wrinkles — but at long last it feels it knows what caused them. They are believed to result from the gradual loss of a chemical called hyaluronic acid, which helps hold water in skin tissues.

If you want to sell something during office hours, avoid Mondays and Fridays. A survey found that salesmen make most sales on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, and prospects were more likely to buy in the morning than in the afternoon.

MILESTONE COMING
The nation now has $5.6 million licensed motor vehicle drivers. At this rate, the country should soon reach a historic milestone: It'll have more than half a billion drivers.

Prosperity note: Most people are living higher on the hog — but more are going broke, too. Personal bankruptcies tripled from 51,000 in 1955 to 163,400 in 1965.

If you're on a long auto trip through the South, you can at ways pause for a break in Hot Coffee, Miss.

Why do you wake up feeling tired? Well, if you weigh 150 pounds and shift positions four times an hour, that means you've had to move about 4,800 pounds during eight hours of sleep.

NOTED TESTOTOTALER
History lesson: Can you name the First Lady who died up the White House? She was Sarah Polk, a noted testototaler and wife of the 11th U.S. president, James Polk. During his administration, 1845 to 1849, no liquor was served at presidential receptions.

Life must have been pretty empty for teen-agers before 1890. It wasn't until then that a U.S. doctor developed peanut butter, thus making possible the chief fodder of middle-class life: the peanut butter and jelly sandwich.

Other side of the problem: Listen magazine reports the experience of a researcher on juvenile delinquency who called 10 homes at 9 p.m. to check if the parents knew where their children were at that hour. "My first five calls," he said, "were answered by children who had no idea where their parents were."

People in the News

By The Associated Press

India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi is planning a trip soon to Moscow, her press secretary announced today in New Delhi.

Her talks with Soviet leaders reportedly will deal with Soviet misgivings about Mrs. Gandhi's economic policies, which have included attracting private American investors rather than concentrating on the "public sector" in India's mixed economy.

The Soviet Union and its economic aid — about a billion dollars committed thus far — Indira Gandhi play an important role in India's economic planning.

Veteran Actor Grows Better in Hospital
Actor Edward G. Robinson, 70, who suffered abdominal injuries in a Los Angeles traffic accident Wednesday, was improving at Mt. Sinai Hospital, officials reported last night.

A hospital spokesman said Robinson would remain in the hospital another 10 to 14 days.

The actor underwent 4½ hours surgery to repair abdominal blood vessels after the accident in which his car struck a tree.

Earlier yesterday, Graham preached in St. Matthew's Parish Church in Bristol, a poor district of London heavily populated by immigrants.

The church was filled to overflowing, and even while services were in progress, Graham came outside to preach to those who had been unable to get in.

"You don't have to come to Earth's Court to find Christ," he told them. "You don't even have to be inside a church, you can find him outside."
