Congress Passes Civil Rights Bill

Choose Liberal Chester Bowles Dem Plank Chief

LOS ANGELES (AP)—New England's Chester Bowles' selection as platform committee chairman at the Democratic National Convention was viewed today as a move to nail a strong civil right plank into the party's 1960 platform.

Bowles, a longtime leader of the party's liberal wing, was named Wednesday to head the important job of overseeing what issues the Democrats will stress in the fall campaign.

CHESTER BOWLES

Civil rights also cast its shadow on the credentials committee, which decides which delegates shall be seated at the convention in Los Angeles next July.

Named chairman for the third straight convention was Utah's Calvin W. Rawlings, a tireless party worker with a reputation for talking opposing factions into agreement.

Selected for the newly created post of cochairman was Camille F. Gravel, a moderate Southerner whose liberal views on civil rights have made him a favorite target of the segregationist element in his native Louisiana.

Gravel has said he feels segregation is morally wrong, but that it would be socially and economically disastrous to impose integration on the South by force at this time.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler announced the appointments at a press conference.

"I would be less than fair if I said civil rights wouldn't be the major problem (at the convention)," he said. "I am hopeful that the delegates will find a substantial area of agreement on this and other problems without resorting to indignity and indecency."

Democratic presidential hopefuls hailed the appointment of Bowles, congressman and ex-governor of Connecticut and former ambassador to India.

Massachusetts' John F. Kennedy, campaigning in West Virginia, said he feels Bowles—who is Kennedy's foreign policy advisor—will clarify the party's position on civil rights.

Kennedy said Bowles' selection means the party's civil rights platform "will be more effective."

Minnesota's Hubert H. Humphrey and Missouri's Stuart Symington, in Washington, also approved appointment of Bowles.

Resignation of Cabinet Fails to Appease Chang; 147 Now Dead

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—President Syngman Rhee's political foes, unappeased by the resignation of his cabinet in the face of near-revolution, today renewed their demands for new presidential elections.

The 85-year-old president's opposition also declared his promise of redress for those with "major grievances" was insufficient.

The promise came in the wake of bloody anti-government riots Tuesday that brought martial law to the capital and other major Korean cities.

There were no reports of renewed violence as troops and police patrolled the cities. But tension mounted as the bodies of demonstrators shot by police were turned over to weeping, wailing relatives.

With at least 1,000 persons shot during the riots, the known death toll stood at 147. Hundreds more were still in critical condition in hospitals or in their homes.

"NO COMPROMISE"

Vice President John M. Chang, leader of the opposition Democratic party, declared there would be no compromise in his party's demand for new elections.

"Anything short of that would never solve the fundamental question," he told a news conference after the announcement of the cabinet's resignation.

Chang lost his bid for re-election last month to Lee Ki-poong, Rhee's liberal party running mate. Rhee, running unopposed for his fourth term after the death of the Democratic party candidate, piled up the biggest vote of his career in the election.

The election was the principal issue behind the uprisings. The Democrats have charged Rhee's Liberals with rigging the voting and widespread ballot box stuffing to insure a Liberal in power should the aged president not live out his term. Chang defeated Lee in the 1956 election.

The outgoing cabinet ministers were generally considered Lee's protegees. Their resignation appeared to be mainly an apology for the bloodshed and not a move toward correcting underlying causes of discontent. Cabinet resignations, offered several times in the past, are generally regarded as moves of expediency not necessarily involving any policy changes.

Party Stalwarts, Both Young and Old

Oakland Republicans Boost Ford for VP

'Nixon!' Cry GOP Delegates

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

So said delegates to last night's Oakland County Republican convention. "It," of course, means to succeed to the office of president.

As was expected, local Republicans heaped accolade after accolade upon the man they feel can "handle with courage and skill the foreign and domestic problems that will face us in the years to come."

Picked on his ticket as vice president was Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr., Grand Rapids congressman and Michigan's obvious favorite son going into the July national convention in Chicago.

Yet Nixon was almost overlooked last night — pictures of him, that is.

Minutes after the convention was under way, two members of the decoration-planning Young Republicans were taping up colored portraits of their favorite.

Nixon was the talk of the gallery. Absent were any backers of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who just hasn't been able to convince everyone that he won't be a candidate.

So one of the women from the Royal Oak Women's Club, selling sparkling GOP jewelry in the lobby, said the club was playing it safe. She said there were no "We Want Nixon" inscriptions on the pins.

Richard C. Van Dusen, former state representative and candidate for state attorney general four years ago, did the selling job on Nixon, if any was necessary.

A resident of Bingham Farms and a Detroit attorney, Van Dusen is vice chairman of the Midwest Volunteers for Michigan.

He said the "essential issue before the assembly" is to sell people, not only Republicans, on Nixon's qualifications for the White House and then elect him in November.

The speaker took an indirect slap at Nixon's Democratic opponents.

"The years ahead do not call for a glamorous personality, or a glib wit, or an indecisive philosopher, however intelligent or articulate or appealing any of these may be."

"The years ahead call for a man of experience, of proven judgment. They call for a man who is courageous and decisive. Above all, they call for a man who has the basic integrity, wisdom and strength of character which will make him cool in a crisis—a strong leader in time of trouble," Van Dusen said.

Besides Nixon, delegates gathered to pick 140 delegates and 140 alternates to the state convention in Grand Rapids next month, were assured things on the county level were in tip-top shape. This assurance came from Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

Things, they learned, weren't

Sales Tax Boost, Con-Con Get County GOP Support

Most delegates were home in bed when the penny sales tax increase and the compromise constitutional convention plan were endorsed by Oakland County Republicans in convention last night in Pontiac.

When the stroke of midnight sounded, and a long-awaited seven-page batch of resolutions was read by C. Ray Ballard of Huntington Woods, most of the tired 250 delegates had given up and gone home.

All resolutions were approved without discussion.

In the only dissension heard at last night's GOP convention, some delegates opposed a move to amend one portion of the resolutions to make Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker a third Michigan delegate-at-large at the national convention in Chicago in July.

It passed anyway. No reasons were given for the opposition.

Also approved as delegates-at-large were two other of Michigan's favorite sons in the President's Cabinet, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield from Flint and Frederick Meuller, commerce secretary.

Opposition to Brucker—although of little importance—was the only sign of dissension during the presidential year county convention.

In another endorsement, Henry J. Woolfenden of Bloomfield Hills, former president of the Michigan Bar Assn., was "heartily endorsed" to fill a vacancy on the U.S. District Court in Detroit.

Local Republicans gave preference to the sales tax hike, to be voted on this November, over any Democratic-hoped-for personal income tax, saying the sales tax "reaches a broader base, even including the many

Mayor's Committee, Bus Union to Confer

The employment future of Pontiac's jobless bus drivers is expected to be the main concern next week when international representatives of the busmen's union confer with the mayor's transportation committee.

Floyd P. Miles, committee chairman, said the meeting has been scheduled for 10 a.m. Tuesday at the request of international representatives from Detroit.

Among those invited is Fred V. Haggard, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council.

The committee is looking for a bus company willing to move into Pontiac. It is the concern of the union that any such outfit employ the drivers here who worked for Pontiac City Lines, Inc., before that company decided to pull out because of the long strike and altering financial conditions.

ROTC at MSU to Stay 'As Is'

Will Be Compulsory; 4-2 Vote Comes After Strong Speeches

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University trustees voted 4-2 today for continuance of compulsory military training (ROTC).

The vote came after impassioned speeches for both sides of the controversial question.

Voting for compulsory ROTC were Conner D. Smith, Pinconning, C. Allen Harlan, Detroit; Warren M. Huff, Plymouth; and Frank Merriman, Deckerville, the sole Republican on the six-member board.

Voting against the compulsory program were Don Stevens, Okemos, and Jan B. Vanderploeg, North Muskegon.

Court Referees to Help Negroes Vote in South

Measure to Penalize Obstruction of Federal Rulings; Ike OK Sure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed and sent to President Eisenhower today a bill providing for court-appointed referees to help Negroes exercise voting rights.

The civil rights bill, approved after a long fight in both houses against stubborn southern opposition, also provides criminal penalties for obstruction of federal court orders. This issue had come up especially in connection with school desegregation orders, as in Little Rock, Ark., but the bill was expanded to apply to resistance of any federal court order.

Other sections would facilitate federal investigation and prosecution of bombings, including not only bombings of religious and educational edifices, but of homes and other structures.

Other sections require voting records to be preserved and provide for education of servicemen's children when public schools are closed to avoid desegregation orders.

President Eisenhower's approval of the bill was assured. The voting referee provision, the heart of the bill, is based on recommendations of his Department of Justice, although somewhat modified.

The Senate wrote in a provision that the referees, appointed by federal courts to handle voting complaints, must stick closely to state qualifications in certifying voters as eligible.

The Senate also specified that the courts, not the referees, were to set the time and places of the hearings on voting rights complaints. Practically unchanged was a section requiring that registration and voting records be preserved.

Another Senate change to be argued over was the broadening of a section of the bill making it a federal crime forcibly or by threats to resist federal court orders.

The House worded this "Little Rock section" so as to apply only to school desegregation orders. But the Senate made it apply to court orders in all circumstances—such as, for example, labor-management disputes.

Penalties range up to $1,000 fine and one year's imprisonment.

Less controversial sections of the bill deal with bombings and the education of servicemen's children in areas where public schools may be closed to avoid integrated operation.

Ford Has 2nd Best Quarter

DETROIT (AP) — Ford says it earned $143,100,000 in the first three months of 1960.

It was the second most profitable quarter for the firm. The company record is $151,100,000 for the second quarter of last year.

Earnings so far this year were up more than eight million dollars from last year's $134,800,000 for the first three months.

This year's income totals $2.61 per share, compared to $2.46 for the same period in 1959.

Total sales were $1,527,100,000 for the quarter, compared to $1,475,300,000 for the same period last year.

Sales of all vehicles came to 647,605 units, counting trucks, cars and tractors. Auto sales were 535,863, compared to 466,077 for the same period last year. Falcons accounted for 125,325 and Comets for 17,002 units.

A proxy statement mailed to stockholders said Ford officers and directors were paid $4,700,000 in addition to their normal salaries and fees last year.

The extra cash, based on company earnings, is in the form of supplemental compensation awards.

Henry Ford II, president, and Ernest R. Breech, board chairman, each received $300,000. Both received salaries of $185,000.

All-Out Search for Motel Thug

Area Law Officers Hunt Elusive Fugitive on Crime Spree

Police from four area departments today were looking for a Pontiac man believed to have robbed a motel in Birmingham Wednesday morning.

State police, the sheriff's department, Birmingham and Waterford police were correlating information on Donald Hibbs, 27.

Hibbs has been sought by police for several months for kidnaping, unarmed robbery and child abandonment.

Hibbs was tentatively identified as the bandit that robbed the Birmingham Motel, 145 S. Hunter, at 2 a.m. Wednesday of $150.

Night manager of the motel, Harvey Olson, who was hit on the head by the bandit, told Birmingham police Hibbs "looked like the man" who robbed him after identifying him through a photograph.

Birmingham Det. Richard Chambers said, however, they are almost certain that Hibbs is the man who robbed the motel.

Last July, Hibbs and his wife, Gale, 19, abandoned their two-month-old baby in the McNeive Motel in Clarkston.

Chambers said the baby has been taken care of by Hibbs' parents, who have offered police all the assistance they can in capturing their son.

Hibbs is also believed to be the man that robbed the Savoy Motel, 120 S. Telegraph, on two occasions this month.

The first time, the bandit forced the motel operator to accompany him in his car for several hours, finally releasing him in Pontiac.

When the man, believed to be Hibbs, returned a second time he kidnaped his victim again along with his pregnant wife. The couple was released a few hours later in Detroit.

County GOP May Boost 2 Candidates

* * *

This came to light last night at the close of the GOP county convention, at which the election of 140 delegates to the state convention next month was somewhat forgotten.

Many played the guessing game: "Are you a candidate, a delegate or just an interested observer?"

Kuhn, asking time to talk to remaining delegates who were about to close their agenda, said he questioned "the wisdom of selecting only one candidate to represent this strong county of ours."

* * *

Although he didn't mention him by name, it was learned that Kuhn had in mind reports that retiring Rep. Farrell E. Roberts, West Bloomfield attorney, might seek the nomination as attorney general.

Roberts said this was "only a possibility."

The 38-year-old representative, after four years in the House, has said he won't seek re-election.

The last times the county had a candidate on the statewide ticket was in 1958 when Donald A. Brown ran for lieutenant governor, and in 1956 when Richard C. Van Dusen sought the attorney general post.

Brown said last night he was only "an observer."

* * *

"I would like to suggest that the delegates to our county convention give serious consideration to the possibility of sending at least two qualified candidates to the state convention in order to insure that Oakland County is definitely on the statewide ticket," the 35-year-old Kuhn said.

"Nothing can be lost and much might be gained in the long run."

Van Dusen, a Detroit attorney living at Bingham Farms, said he'll stick to the legal profession. He is a former state representative from Robert's 3rd District.

so rosy in Lansing. Speaking on goings-on under the capitol dome, fiery Sen. L. Harvey Lodge declared the House and Senate Republicans—"the last bastion of the Republican Party"—kept Michigan from being trampled under by Democrats and socialism.

But he warned the fight is far from over. "I want to get you on your feet and get you going," Lodge said to a dwindling delegation when his turn to speak came.

* * *

To keep the convention from being cut-and-dried — as some Republicans sensed it might have been since there appears to be no contest for the presidential nomination—Oakland party leaders asked a five-piece combo to pep things up a bit.

Kept from the convention by the press of congressional business, Congressman William S. Broomfield urged in a telegram:

"We are not defeatists, and we will not be defeated."

Van Dusen looked into the job which will be required of the country's next president. Out of the crystal ball came none other than Nixon to do the job.

But he warned that the "Republican nomination is not the key to the White House."

"Not only must we nominate the best possible candidate, but we must then convince our fellow countrymen — be they Republicans, independents, Democrats or vegetarians — that our nominee should be elected."

County GOP Backs Sales Tax, Con-Con

millions of visitors who make use of our public facilities."

On four big national issues Oakland Republicans feel this way:

* * *

Civil rights—State and national platforms must contain major planks opposing all forms of discrimination, "so unequivocally stated that there can be no question of a clear-cut stand in the matter."

* * *

Medical aid to elderly — Favor voluntary participation to any mandatory increase in social security taxes to pay for the program, such as proposed under the floundering Forand Bill.

* * *

National defense—Back Eisenhower's program with "complete confidence."

Farm subsidies—Farm relief program has exceeded the capacity of the taxpayer to support it in the style advocated by the leaders of the Democratic Party. Favored is a gradual elimination of crop subsidies and the substitution of a control plan that will provide adequate protection without eliminating the traditional competition.

Adopted was a reminder for all Republicans: "If we want to win, we must work and we must contribute."

* * *

Earlier, in a report from John E. Holmes, executive finance secretary for the county committee, party workers were told that a record $150,000 must be raised this year. State Central Committee has set a quota of $105,000 for Oakland Republicans.

MEN NEEDED

Along with the need for donations, the resolutions said there is a "growing need for men of high principle and competence to undertake the often thankless duties of public service."

"We urge all Republicans to encourage such men to seek public office and to reward them with consistent support at the polls and the payment of salaries that will enable them to devote their full talents to the offices which they hold."

* * *

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., county chairman from Pleasant Ridge, was praised for promoting "the most vigorous campaign in our history." He, too, was recommended as a delegate-at-large at the national convention.

Answers Its Own Questions

Machine Aids Teaching

TORONTO (AP)—A University of Michigan professor demonstrated at the Ontario Education Assn. convention a teaching machine he described as one of the greatest aids to teaching since the printing press.

The machine contains a roll of paper, turned by a handle, on which is printed a series of questions, with space beside each for the answer.

As the roll is turned to the next question the correct answer to the preceding one is revealed. The student cannot turn the roll back to correct a wrong answer.

Dr. Waldo Sweet, who demonstrated the machine to the OEA's classic section, said its chief advantage is that it speeds up learning by allowing a student to answer more questions than if they were asked verbally in a large class. It also saves the time taken by the teacher correcting hand-written papers.

* * *

The machine, developed two years ago by a Harvard University psychology professor, is being used experimentally in only a few United States Colleges. Dr. Sweet said. Cost is about $60 each.

Curtain-type wall panels for use in prefabricating farm buildings have undergone promising tests by Michigan State University agricultural engineers.

Executives Invite Stockholders

Spring Brings Annual Meetings

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's more than 12 million stockholders have a sure way of telling it's really spring — annual meetings.

These hardy perennials are now in full bloom across the land, and this year they may set new records in attendance.

For one thing, more stockholders are wondering this spring just what gives—with business in general and their company or companies in particular.

For another, there are more stockholders than ever. Last year's bull market brought many more into the ranks. The break in stock prices earlier this year seems to have caused more switching in stocks held than a net decline in persons holding one or more corporate securities.

And for still another, company managements each year are more given to putting on a good show for the owners, small as their individual holdings may be.

It wasn't always so. In the past, many managements brushed off the curiosity of small stockholders as a waste of time. But many of the crustier old executives have retired. And increasingly all comers are being encouraged, or at least permitted, to ask their questions, make their suggestions, seek the facts.

Company officials get a good workout these days. Some train for the annual meeting days in advance. Many are coached on deportment, delivery, and on what to watch for.

This is the season of accounting. Top executives report on how things have been going—sales, profits, operating costs.

FACE QUESTIONS

In most cases they face questioning from the floor—with stockholder interest usually strongest on the subject of chances for dividend changes or stock splits.

This is also the season for predictions — of or revision of the earlier ones. Often the annual meeting is the occasion for announcing new products, or expansion plans.

Now and then the meeting becomes a sounding board for blasts at bureaucracy or at government policies that seem to threaten profit prospects.

Many companies now use their annual meetings as a chance to show stockholders around the plant or to demonstrate the new equipment bought with earnings that weren't divvied up as dividends.

For many stockholders the annual meeting is looked upon as an outing. The presence or absence of a free lunch, and its quality if provided, come in for earnest discussion.

The practice of splitting up stockholder meetings and holding them in many sections of the nation, either simultaneously or in rotation, is growing. That is in recognition of the spread of stock ownership into all parts of the land as against the old notion that only Wall Street counted.

CONSUMERS' LOSS? — Federal Power Commissioner William R. Connole, a Republican, reportedly will be replaced when his term expires June 22. A fighter for low power rates, the 37-year-old Connecticut lawyer is expected to be replaced by Harold I. Baynton, a Democrat and chief counsel of the Senate Commerce Committee.

Bemoans Lack of Cargo Planes

Puerto Rico Operation Showed Our Limited 'Little War' Potential

WASHINGTON (AP) — A shortage of the right kinds of transport planes seriously limits the nation's ability to wage limited war in distant areas, U. S. military leaders agreed today.

In two weeks starting March 14 the Military Air Transport Service flew 21,000 men and 11,000 tons of material to Puerto Rico.

A report on the exercise by MATS and the Strategic Army Command was presented Wednesday to a House armed services subcommittee which has been studying U. S. airlift capacity.

* * *

Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, Strategic Army Commander, and Lt. Gen. William H. Tunner, head of MATS, told the committee the test was successful in demonstrating the speed and efficiency with which MATS can meet a need for emergency troop movement.

"However, the limitations of the majority of the present MATS aircraft seriously limit the size of U. S. forces which can be deployed to distant overseas destinations in acceptable periods of time," they concluded.

Gen. Tunner said there is an immediate need for new jet transport planes and specially designed cargo planes. If ordered now, he said, they would be ready for use within 18 to 24 months.

* * *

The Army has been pressing during current appropriations hearings for a buildup in airlift capacity. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff and one of the strongest advocates of more airlift, attended the committee briefing.

The subcommittee chairman, Rep. L. Mendel Rivers (D-SC), has already called on the House Appropriations Committee to provide funds for the immediate purchase of 100 new planes for MATS.

Fluid Milk Prices Drop During April

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fluid milk prices throughout the United States declined rather sharply this month from early March.

The Agricultural Marketing Service reports that prices paid by dealers for milk for fluid use in about 160 markets averaged $5.38 a hundredweight in early April, off 9 cents from the preceding month. But this average was 17 cents above a year earlier.

Retail prices for home delivered milk went down an average of about a third cent a quart. But prices were down as much as one cent in New York City, 1½ cents in Hartford and from one to two cents in Philadelphia.

Michigan farmers have lost over $500,000 in heat-lamp fires in the past four years, reports a Michigan State University farm safety specialist. Main cause has been faulty construction of brooders used for small animals, such as pigs, lambs and chicks.

Civil Rights Legislation Is Only the Beginning

Legislation guaranteeing Negroes the right to vote is unlikely to make any difference in the 29 so-called black belt counties of the South. This area stretches from the Virginia Tidewater to the pine barrens of East Texas.

After visiting black belt counties Claude Sitton of the New York Times reports that Negroes want to vote but have no intention of doing so. Fear of economic and physical reprisals make the Negro reluctant to draw attention to himself by attempting to register.

In Baker county, Georgia, a typical area with a population of 5,500 where Negroes outnumber whites by 1,000, not a single Negro is registered to vote. When questioned about it one Negro replied "I don't want my throat cut." A white farm supervisor said "it doesn't make any difference what Congress and the Supreme Court say the law is, it won't make a damn in Baker County not during this generation."

After passage of the 1957 Civil Rights Act four Negroes in Baker county attempted to register. Dynamite explosions wrecked the front porch of one and the automobiles of two others. The fourth was arrested on an illicit whisky charge but was released later.

Difficulties of registering in Louisiana are stressed by the Milwaukee Journal. Seeking to prove to the Supreme Court that 1377 Negro voters were properly removed from registration lists in Washington Parish, officials themselves brought out the obstacles to such registration. For example, one woman, a Negro teacher, wrote her age as 69 years, 8 months and 10 days. Her name was stricken from the list because she had misstated her age. She really was one day younger.

Disqualificates for Negroes can come from failure to dot an "i" in filling out an application and even for proper spelling should three challengers, more or less illiterate themselves, agree that the spelling was incorrect.

Nevertheless, civil rights legislation must be passed even though its benefits may be a long time coming to the old plantation belt.

Touring Press Institute Snubbed by Dr. Rhee

Pres. SYNGMAN RHEE has done harm to himself and his country by his snubbing of representatives of the International Press Institute.

Thirty-one members touring Korea went to the capital city of Seoul especially to interview Dr. RHEE. He not only refused to talk with them but they were left waiting at a hotel and without means of transportation which is a major problem in that part of the world.

Pres. Rhee apparently did not like American press coverage of the Korean elections in which all opposition was brutally suppressed. Naturally he was returned to office. Dr. Rhee may have been afraid of the questions which a free press from free countries would ask. This is not the first time he has shown how little he really understands democratic processes.

New Law Will Require Immunizations for Child

Kids may squawk, but it will be a healthy noise.

One of the best laws to be signed by Governor G. Mennen Williams is a compulsory requirement for all kindergartners to have shots for polio, diphtheria, smallpox, whooping cough and tetanus.

Many of our laws just affect certain segments of our population. This new bill covers all kids five years old and is a preventive measure which will safeguard their health.

Oddly, the bill comes on the fifth anniversary of the Salk vaccine. These polio shots are only good when they get into the children. Under this bill it will be mandatory for all youngsters starting school to be immunized.

This bill is a definite step to protect the health of our young people. And in the long run their health is vital to carry on as active citizens in our state.

The Man About Town

Parking Problems

Local Land of Lakes vs. the Local Land of Cars

College: What, in over-all life, costs more not to attend than to attend.

The increase in the number of water craft owners in Pontiac and vicinity is quite amazing. We are following the national trend. Our lakes are accumulating traffic problems that are somewhat like our highways.

While we may never attain the status of Seattle, Wash., where more boats than autos are licensed, we already have reached an interesting point — we now each year have more new first drivers of water craft than we have first drivers of autos.

In the heart of the area where more than 90 per cent of the autos are manufactured, it causes one to reflect on Seattle's situation, where the parking problem is doubled.

There they have parking slips for boats, some of which have places for over a thousand. And on the same shore there must be parking places for almost as many cars, the owners of which drive there to board their boats.

Every survey shows that our nation is going to the water wherever it is available. We have plenty of water around Pontiac, and it also may develop some parking problems, both afloat and ashore.

Now, that the frogs have been frozen up three times, spring should be at hand.

Mr. and Mrs. August Jacober

of Waterford. August is one of the few remaining pioneers in the ice business in the Pontiac area, when cutting ice on our lakes was one of the main winter industries. This was before the advent of artificial refrigeration. He also owned the old-time general store on Waterford's main corner, which he sold to the late

Henry Ford

for removal to Greenfield Village, and built the brick block that was to succeed it, now removed for the branch building and parking lot.

"I'd Sure Like to Bang It Awhile"

David Lawrence Says:

Korea Lecture May Be Disastrous

WASHINGTON — A real crisis is developing in Korea. It is more serious than anything that has happened since the Korean War ended seven years ago.

LAWRENCE

It could give the Communists the opportunity they have long sought—to involve the United States in a serious quarrel with its own allies in the Far East.

What the Department of State has done in openly reprimanding the government of President Rhee is a bold step. If could prove disastrous for it establishes a precedent that will plague the diplomacy of the United States for years to come.

For the Department of State has undertaken to pass judgment on the activities of the incumbent party in a national presidential election in a country with which this government is at peace.

Was the election of Rhee "rigged"? His only opposition candidate died while in Washington. The vice presidential contest was bitterly fought but the Rhee party elected its candidate.

Charges have been made that many illegalities occurred and that the government supporters actually produced ballots that were not marked by the voters themselves.

Even if the accuracy of these charges were conceded, does this mean that the United States government has set itself up as the judge of elections inside other countries?

If so, there are plenty of elections in Latin America that will be brought to the attention of officials of the Department of State by defeated parties in years to come.

Couldn't the American government have expressed its displeasure privately and called for a "redress of grievances" by plain-spoken words in the course of diplomatic conversations through the respective ambassadors here or in Seoul, Korea?

The answer given is that the United States has tried this very tactic for several months but that its efforts were fruitless. The wide attention attracted throughout the world by the reported irregularities in the Korean elections finally convinced the Department of State that it had to do something publicly.

RUG PULLERS

In the Far East, however, this will be construed as pulling the rug from beneath the Rhee government. The Washington Evening Star in an editorial on Wednesday afternoon made this comment:

"If the State Department is trying to bring down the government of Syngman Rhee in its hour of crisis, the lecture which Mr. Herter has addressed to the South Korean ambassador makes a certain amount of sense. If this is not the case there is a notable out-of-this-world quality about the secretary's dissertation on what is and what is not suited to a 'free democracy.' . . ."

The right of revolution is traditional. If there is to be armed revolt, it would appear that the many Communist agents operating in South Korea will assist substantially in that direction.

Then what will happen on the armistice line between North and South Korea. Today there are 600,000 South Korean troops and 30,000 American troops guarding the line.

Does anybody believe a revolution could occur without involving the troops on the armistice line? And if that happens, does it not seem logical that Communist China, which controls the North Korean Army, will find some excuse to resume hostilities?

Will this mean a reopening of the Korean War in the year 1960 when the Republican administration had expected to be telling the American voters that it had achieved peace in Korea and the Far East?

Everything depends on how potent the State Department's public reprimand is going to be. Will it cause a chain reaction inside Korea and force the Rhee government to abdicate? Will this not be pointed to throughout the Communist world as an alleged example of how a powerful Western nation handles a "puppet" government?

Dr. William Brady Says:

Though Aspirin Kills Pain, It Doesn't Cure Anything

"The mother said she gave the two-year-old boy aspirin to take care of his cold. A fire department rescue squad failed to revive him. The remains were taken to the ... mortuary." (Newspaper item)

Last December I told here about the seven-weeks-old baby who died of aspirin poisoning. The medical examiner found at autopsy that the baby had been given five aspirin tablets. The baby's father said a doctor had advised giving the baby so-called "baby aspirin." He found when he got home from the drug-store that he had purchased regular aspirin tablets. The baby was given five tablets in two days.

Even if the doctor pleaded that he had specified "baby aspirin" his advise was reprehensible in my judgment.

Aspirin is the least dangerous (I do not say the safest) analgesic or pain-killer we have. But there is no scientific evidence that aspirin in any circumstance has any remedial value against illness or disease.

Aspirin is the common name of acetyl-salicylic acid.

There is no rational explanation for the use of salicylic acid, sodium salicylate, oil of wintergreen (natural source of salicylic acid), oil of betula or other oil containing salicylic acid as an internal remedy for rheumatism or rheumatic fever or inflammatory rheumatism or "arthritis" (whatever that may be).

External application of wintergreen oil, betula oil, oil of sweet birch, oil of teaberry, methyl salicylate in ointment or liniment has been much used for rheumatism and other aches or pains, and the oil finners actually believed that it was absorbed through the skin when soapplied.

Thus they explained poisoning of infants from oil of wintergreen, but no one has proved that this or any other medicine, chemical or poison is absorbed through unbroken skin.

Anything that may be absorbed from chemical or medicine applied to the skin—such as methyl salicylate, tetraethyl lead, nitroglycerin (dynamite), iodine, anything that doesn't itself blister, cauterize or destroy the skin—is of course volatilized by the warmth of the body and inhaled.

This accounts for poisoning of young infants by camphor when camphorated oil is applied say to the neck and chest and the infant is left covered up to inhale the camphor as it is volatilized from the saturated shirt or oil-soaked flannel.

It was only after years of experience and observation, all of it negative, that I finally reached the conclusion that aside from the relief of ache or pain of whatever nature, salicylic acid compounds served only one purpose—to ease ache or pain.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady. If a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"Most folks wouldn't object to some people being rich and some being poor — if they could make the choices."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Be Sure 'Love' Isn't Infatuation

Rita is heart broken, and Ted is unhappily entering marriage to a scheming girl who doesn't illustrate "true love." Scrapbook this tragic example of what happens to young people when they mix liquor and sexual infatuation, instead of idealism and true love. Infatuation and true love both give you "butterflies" and goose pimples, so beware!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E - 440: Rita L., aged 18, is a college freshman.

"Dr. Crane,' she sobbed, "I am heart broken. Fon Ted and I were sweethearts.

"We planned to get married when we graduated from college. But he dated another girl while I was away on vacation last summer for a student tour of Europe.

DR. CRANE

"The girl was supposed to be a friend of mine. But Ted says she was very jealous of me and vowed she'd win him. Well, Ted had an affair with her and now she is pregnant, so Ted is marrying her.

"What can I do? I don't feel like living any longer! I just go through the motions, for I can't eat or sleep. Nothing in life appeals to me in the slightest. Oh, Dr. Crane, I wish I could die!"

STARK TRAGEDY

Let's consider the other girl who vowed she'd win Ted away from Rita.

Do you readers think her feelings for Ted were "true love," of the sort shown by Sidney Carton in Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities"?

Was her affection of that divine sort shown by Nora, the wife who was dying of cancer, but who insisted her husband register with our Scientific Marriage Foundation to be sure he would continue a happy marital life after she was gone?

Or was this girl primarily interested in her own selfish wishes to get Ted at all costs?

When a freshman college student is planning a career, if a girl TRULY loves him, wouldn't she be concerned about his finishing college so he could attain success in his chosen profession?

Ted had to drop out of college after the first semester in order to get a job in a textile factory so he could support his "shotgun" wife and forthcoming baby.

SCHEMING WOMEN

From my vantage point, having interviewed various people who knew Ted and Rita and the other girl, I believe the other girl wanted to flaunt her victory over Rita.

She had cherished a lifelong jealousy of Rita, for they had attended grammar and high school together. So she took special delight in poaching on Rita's domain while Rita was in Europe on that student tour.

The other girl also was fond of taverns and coaxed Ted to take liquor on their dates.

Ted admitted he was partly drunk when he had his affair with her. And, she apparently planned it that way, figuring if she could compromise him sufficiently, she'd win him away from Rita at all costs.

Such a girl does not demonstrate "true love," for the essence of true love is unselfishness.

Whenever a young person is thinking primarily about his own pleasures and selfish indulgences, he may be sexually infatuated but is not truly in love.

So you teen-agers can analyze your romances accordingly. Beware, for sexual infatuation will give you "butterflies" and goose pimples and tingling sensations when you kiss, just as true love does.

But the infatuation puts the emphasis on selfish desires, while true love stresses the ultimate welfare and greater happiness of the other partner!

Blames Working Mothers and Disinterested Fathers

When mama waxes greedy for extra luxuries a second income will afford, she junks her family and barrels off to work. And after a hard day's work, daddy sits before the TV. If the kids don't like murders, extra-marital affairs and general hair raising suspense, they're free to roam the streets.

This view many Europeans and educators have of Americans is becoming authentic. Taxpayers shell out for schools that teach kids to drive. What happened to the days when father and son shared this experience? My hat's off to Mr. Varner for his words of wisdom on this subject. The shocking numbers who can't read, spell or do simple arithmetic are products of working mothers and disinterested dads.

★ ★ ★

God help them and us. Our country's future depends on these kids. Parents content to raise such children and toss them at overburdened teachers needn't cry tomorrow. They'll have themselves to blame.

'Litter on Streets Is Disgraceful'

Sometimes when I see the litter on our streets I'm completely ashamed, but the other day I drove to Detroit and Birmingham and they're worse, yes, worse. That's doubtful comfort, but at least it's some, and all three are smeared by the papers and wrappers that citizens throw on the ground without any respect for decency or appearance. In Germany, these people would be arrested.

'Salesmen Are Posing as Vets'

In several Oakland County cities door-to-door salesmen have been soliciting business and representing themselves as veterans. Immediately the home owner thinks they're helping the local Veteran organization.

We have a standing rule never to try to sell merchandise normally stocked by a local merchant, so when you listen to the veteran's story from a door-to-door salesman, he's not representing your local VFW.

If contacted in this fashion, first ask to see their City permit, then their local Veterans organization identification card. If they cannot show these, call the local police.

You can write this summit conference off before it starts. Unless Russia can dictate, nothing will happen and Russia will not dictate to the current administration like she did before.

I see Russia officially honored the 15th anniversary of Roosevelt's death. Well, they should when you think of the way they shoved him around and got everything they wanted.

They'll never hold ceremonies on the 15th anniversary of Eisenhower's death, for he will never be a spineless pawn in their hands.

'How Can I Work If I Can't Pay?'

I'm able bodied, strongly built, married, 49 years old. I've always lived in Oakland County, worked 18 years at Fisher Body and was a union member at that time. I quit factory work five years ago and have been doing mostly outside, unskilled construction work.

I've been seeking employment five months unsuccessfully. I've applied three times to work on a school building under construction at Waterford. I was offered work if I'd immediately pay $110 in cash to join the AFL union.

BLIND GIRL GETS MEDAL — Theresa Hayes, 17-year-old Overbrook School for the Blind student who remained at a telephone switchboard March 10 when the school was swept by fire, is presented Philadelphia's first Medal of Honor Wednesday by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Although the medal was authorized in 1954, the city had felt no suitable act was performed before Theresa's. She alerted all the blind students and their teachers during the fire.

Union Votes Support for Fisher Strike

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The United Auto Workers subcouncil for 18 Fisher Body plants throughout the nation has voted unanimously to give maximum support to the strike by Local 93 at the Fisher Body plant here.

Seventy Union representatives met all day Tuesday before pledging to help the local strike by "every legitimate means at their command."

Leonard Woodcock, Detroit, an International UAW vice president, said "it is up to them (the 70 representatives) to take whatever action they deem necessary. General Motors is making a national matter out of what started out to be a local dispute."

The three-week strike began when the Union charged the company with violating the contract by increasing workloads on the assembly line.

The 70 officials will report back to their locals about the subcouncil decision. Negotiations have continued during the strike but both sides reported no settlement was near.

Radioactive Dust Cloud Little Danger to France

PARIS (UPI)—A radio active dust cloud caused by explosion of France's atomic bomb in the Sahara Feb. 13 was observed over France during the last days of that month, the Atomic Energy Commission said today.

The cloud created an "extremely small" increase of radioactivity in the atmosphere and caused no danger for the population, a commission communique said.

After Jan. 20, They'll 'Sure' Have to Retrench

Ike, Mamie to Tighten Up Pursestrings

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON — The post-White House readjustment of President and Mrs. Eisenhower was a subject of conversation this week down in Georgia where the first family was enjoying a long spring vacation at the Augusta National Golf Club.

The world, after next Jan. 20, may be a fairly confusing, and most certainly an expensive place for the President and Mamie.

They will be, in effect, on their own for the first time in a great many years.

Since the days when Eisenhower was a high-ranking Army officer, he and his wife have had a great many services performed for them almost automatically; services that will be totally absent when they leave the White House.

For one thing, there will not be a doctor and a well-staffed, well-supplied clinic at their beck and call 24 hours a day when they leave the White House.

There will be no guards at the gates of their Gettysburg farm unless they hire them.

There will be no secretary, no social staff for Mrs. Eisenhower unless she lays out the money for this type of help on which she has come to rely heavily for many of the daily details of life.

NO BARBER ON CALL

It probably has been 30 years since either Eisenhower or his wife saw the inside of a shoe repair shop. Going to the barbershop will be a new experience for the President. For years, the barber has come to him. There'll be no helicopters or transport planes on tap, no fleet of limousines, no eady room for chauffeurs.

Also, no switchboard operator to screen out the calls of late-night cranks.

Eisenhower has picked out an office in Gettysburg. He will have a small suite on the campus of Gettysburg College in a house once set aside as living quarters for the college president.

The head of the school has another home and the Chief Executive will use the comfortable house on the campus at least for the months shortly after his retirement from office when he will be coping with daily mountains of mail with the help of only a tiny staff.

Congress either late this session or sometime early next year probably will be asked to restore Eisenhower's rank as a five-star Army general the resigned from the Army when he entered politics to run for President in 1952).

* * *

Either as a retired President or a restored five-star general, the Chief Executive will be permitted a small payroll by the government. But this would consist at most of only a secretary, an aide and probably a driver.

This means his valet, his cook, Mrs. Eisenhower's maid and any other help will have to be paid out of pocket.

The valet, the cook and the maid are now personal employes of the Eisenhowers, but their domestic staff is vast by comparison. They're accustomed to a great many servants, and a large supporting staff of aides, secretaries, doctors, file clerks, advisers, lawyers, drivers, baggage handlers, pilots and protectors.

The problem of adjusting to life after the White House is not new by any means. Every outgoing president faces the same situation, but with the Eisenhowers, the process may be unusually painful because it has been so long, actually since the late 1930s, since they have functioned without a large supporting staff provided by Uncle Sam.

British Developing H-Bomb Boomerang

LONDON (AP)—The London Evening Standard says British scientists are working on a radar device to blow up hydrogen missiles over a country firing them.

* * *

Official quarters were skeptical about the report. The Defense Ministry indicated the Standard was talking about a development still a long way off.

The ministry added: "How far developments in this field have gone cannot be discussed on the grounds of security."

About 12,000 U. S. children are killed in accidents each year.

But Why So Seldom?

Life Can Be Fun, Sometimes

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Life's little pleasures can be pretty big ones, too—sometimes.

Like going to the dentist and finding out you don't need any fillings.

Or making out the income tax form and learning there'll be a refund.

* * *

Yes, and the time when the checkbook - stubs come out just like it says in the bank statement.

One real dandy is to roll over and go back to sleep on the morning of your day off.

AND MONEY, YES

And there's always the possibility of finding a $10 bill in the street. That one might as well be disregarded, however. Still, I once knew a fellow who found $20. Made the mistake of telling his wife, though.

* * *

Wonderful, also, when repairs to the old family gas buggy turn out to be only about half what you figured.

MONEY AGAIN

Letters from old, long lost friends can be a real delight—when they don't mention the money you owe them.

Consider, for a moment, having a wife who says: "I'm proud of you, and I don't really care whether you make any more money or not."

Or one who says: "The balder you get the more handsome you are."

Or a loving youngun who says: "Daddy, how can you be so smart?"

Ah, yes, there are many little pleasures in life.

Williams Proclaims April 29 Arbor Day

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has proclaimed April 29 as Arbor Day in Michigan and called on citizens, young and old, "to mark it by the planting of trees."

J. Sterling Morton, the man who founded Arbor Day in 1872, grew up in Monroe.

Bandit Returns for 2nd Time

But Putnam Avenue Store Owner 'Objects' and Holdup Man Runs

For the second time in three days, a 43-year-old Pontiac grocer reported a holdup at his Putnam avenue market to Pontiac police.

Walter Stafford, 14 Putnam Ave., told police the bandit came into the store. Stafford's Market, 48 Putnam Ave., at 8:25 p.m.

"Remember me?" Stafford quoted the bandit as saying.

Stafford did. He said the man was the same one who entered his store Monday evening, knocked him unconscious and fled with $70 from his billfold.

The grocer said that the bandit ordered him to turn off the lights and lock the door, warning him he had a gun in his pocket.

After he obeyed, Stafford said, the robber went with him to the back of the store and ordered him to bend over a stove.

When the bandit reached for his wallet, the grocer said, he suddenly turned on the robber who fled from the store empty-handed.

Stafford said the bandit stood six-feet, weighed approximately 190, and was between 28 and 32 years old. He was wearing a white T-shirt and dark pants, Stafford told police.

'Ike for Veep' Candidate Falls in New Jersey

PHILLIPSBURG, N.J. (AP)—A former New Jersey assemblyman running on a platform supporting President Eisenhower as a vice presidential candidate was defeated Tuesday as a delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention.

Dr. C. Leslie Hudson of Phillipsburg, had said that running Eisenhower for vice president was the only way to keep him in Washington "and out of a Gettysburg rocking chair."

Office Men Strike, Tie Up N.Y. Piers

NEW YORK (AP)—All major piers in New York Harbor were tied up today by a strike of a white collar union representing 90 office workers of shipping firms.

The walkout disrupted the normally teeming port's multibillion-dollar shipping industry.

The strike was called by Local 153, Office Employes International Union, seeking recognition from the New York Shipping Assn. as bargaining agent for the clerical workers.

Steelworkers to Fight Firings at Great Lakes

ECORSE (AP) — A United Steel Workers spokesman says the Union will fight "all the way to the Supreme Court if need be" the suspension and firing of 19 Great Lakes Steel Corp. employes.

The company said yesterday 19 employes were ringleaders from Local 1299 in a recent wildcat strike. The firm said the 19 were suspended and would be fired unless there is evidence to support a lesser penalty.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) wants the State Department to relax its restrictions against admission of American newspapermen into Communist China.

Band Widow Payment Proposed in Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill providing $30,000 payments to the families of each of the 19 Navy bandsmen killed Feb. 25 during a South American tour was introduced Tuesday by Sen. J. Glenn Beall (R-Md).

Beall said the bandsmen had no opportunity to buy insurance for a side trip to Rio de Janeiro. Their airplane collided with a Brazilian airliner.

Rules Airline Plane Switch Against Law

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board ruled Wednesday that Delta Airlines violated the Federal Aviation Act last June by letting coach-fare passengers ride in first-class seats.

In an order agreed to by the airline, the CAB said Delta substituted first class planes for combined coach-first class aircraft on 20 days during June on flights between Houston and New York.

Delta also made such substitutions on eight days during July and infrequently at other times, the CAB said.

Eastern Airlines made a complaint against Delta's action.

Delta said the substitutions were necessary because its two-class airplanes had to be withdrawn from service for regular overhaul. But the CAB said this was not a legitimate excuse.

Delta told the board it has stopped making such substitutions. It consented to the order, which directed it against continuing the practice.

Thirty-four million persons received federal income tax refunds averaging $111 each last year on returns covering 1958 income, according to Commerce Clearing House. The refunds totaled $3,956,326,000.

MEETS VOTERS-TO-BE — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York leans from his car to shake hands with three children after arriving in Williamsport, Pa., to stump for the election of Herman T. Schneebeli, left, Republican candidate in a special election for a Pennsylvania House seat. Rockefeller and Schneebeli were roommates at Dartmouth College.

Margaret Truman 'Definitely Not' Finished Singing

LONDON (UPI)—Margaret Truman may resume her singing career although it leaves her children cold.

Ex-President Truman's 36-year-old daughter, beginning a European trip with her husband Clifton Daniel, was asked by newsmen if marriage meant the end of her professional singing.

"No, definitely not," she said. "If I could find a theater in America which would enable me to get home and look after our children,—I'd take it on.

"I must confess my singing doesn't even impress my children. All they want to hear is 'Pop Goes the Weasel' and 'Yankee Doodle Dandy.'"

Miss Truman, wearing tiny bracelet portraits of her children Clifton, 3, and William, 1, said her first visit to Britain in four years was not to attend Princess Margaret's wedding.

"The princess and I are what you might call official friends," she said, "I have never claimed to be a close friend, even though we get on quite well."

Brasilia, Back in Jungle, Celebrates Opening Day

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — This unfinished city in the wild Brazilian heartland, crammed to overflowing with 100,000 residents and just as many visitors in a carnival mood, today celebrated its first day as the nation's capital.

★ ★ ★

The festivities began at the stroke of midnight, when the modernistic city President Juscelino Kubitschek carved out of the wilderness officially replaced Rio de Janeiro as the seat of government.

Pope John XXIII sent his blessings by radio from Rome. The jubilant throngs hailed the change of capitals with flashing lights and fireworks. A papel legate, Manuel Cardinal Goncalves of Portugal, celebrated mass.

It was a moment of deep emotion for Kubitschek, who doggedly started the half-billion-dollar project from scratch three years ago despite severe criticism.

The city is the culmination of a century-old dream of Brazilians of an inland capital to open up the undeveloped interior of this vast country.

Still a long way from completion, Brasilia will not become the center of government operations for some time. The bulk of the government will remain in Rio until stores, transportation facilities, schools and hospitals can be set up here. Only a few officials will remain here with President Kubitschek.

With only one permanent hotel built, the visitors scrambled for sleeping space Wednesday night.

Pigeon Causes Blaze at Greenfield Village

DEARBORN, Mich. (AP) — A pigeon flew with a smoldering cigarette butt Wednesday to its nest in the upper reaches of an 18th Century building at Ford's Greenfield Village.

Firemen doused the blaze but not before several timbers were charred and two pigeons asphyxiated. The building was brought here piece by piece from England by the late Henry Ford.

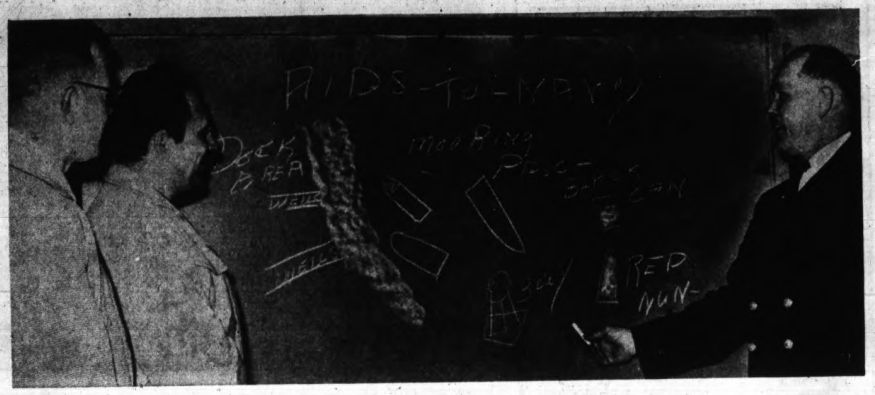
CHECKING IN — The first step at each class meeting of the Pontiac Press Boat Operation Course is checking in. The prospective skippers want to get credit for each Tuesday night class meeting when final exams roll around and it comes time to get their Coast Guard certificates. Here, Nelson F. Feirer, vice commander of Detroit Flotilla 12-14, checks off Guy E. Palmer of 3763 Mariner St., Waterford Township. Palmer and his wife, Patricia, have been in attendance since the course started four weeks ago.



Pontiac Press Photos

They'll Put 'Salt' Into Landlubbers

"Well, tonight we learn all about ropes," said a prospective skipper . . . and thus labeled himself a land lubber.

Before the night was over he knew a startling fact. It isn't a rope—it's a LINE!

He also learned there are some 3,000 to 4,000 knots known to man —but he'd survive learning eight or nine.

Our "land lubber" is quickly becoming a real seaman, along with more than 500 area residents who flock back each week to the U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Boat Operation Course at Pontiac Central High, sponsored by The Pontiac Press.

PLENTY OF HUMOR

Coast Guardsmen inject plenty of humor and variety into the serious job of producing a bumper crop of skippers well versed in seamanship in eight weeks time.

They've reached the halfway mark with nary a failure.

"The turnout has been far better than we ever expected," said Milton R. Hayes, rear commodore, Ninth District. "We usually have no more than 100 in a class."

The audience is made up of many women and children—in many cases entire families.

Some have owned boats for years, other are freshman skippers and some are just "getting ready" for that big day when the purchase is made.

They've already learned plenty of nautical terminology, types of boats, parts of boats, and pick up more terms and safety tips at each class meeting.

LEARN NAVIGATIONAL AIDS

Also covered are methods of mooring, anchoring, heavy-weather handling, and types of lightships, lighthouses, the lateral system of buoyage and many other navigational aids.

Yet to come are charts and compasses, rules of the road (safe piloting), boating regulations, and a complete lesson on safety including fueling precautions, distress signals and engine trouble pointers.

All this works up to a big review and the final examination around May 31—and, of course, about 500 certified "seamen" on county lakes this summer.

BETTER BACK SEAT DRIVERS — Judging from the many women who attend the boating classes, there should be a sharp rise in nautical back seat driving this year. Here Marian N. Emery (left) of 5540 Dixie Highway, Waterford Township, and Mrs. Donald Aldrich of 3025 Massena St., Commerce Township, have a cage buoy (lighted channel marker) explained to them by Smith E. Cook of Detroit, 12th Division training officer.

Senate OKs Durfee Despite Proxmire

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate today approved the nomination of Civil Aeronautics Board Chairman James R. Durfee to be a judge of the Federal Court of Claims.

It was a stinging defeat for Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis). Proxmire had charged that Durfee violated the CAB code of ethics and lacked proper experience for the judgeship.

Proxmire contended that Durfee's acceptance of free trips aboard and for a North Carolina golfing weekend were "part of a pattern of developing moral weakness." The senator urged the Senate not to reward what he called Durfee's "misbehavior" by approving him for a "top post in the federal judiciary, a lifetime responsibility at $25,500 a year."

Nominated by DAR

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mrs. Chester F. Miller of Saginaw, Mich., is among the three women nominated for the two posts open as honorary vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The DAR is holding its national convention here.

The pyramids of Egypt were built from 3000 B.C. to 1800 B.C. The oldest is at Sakkara.

"LET'S TRY THIS ONE" — Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Ladd of 30 Neome Dr. try a few knots on their own while waiting for class to start. Ladd doesn't own a boat, but says wistfully, "I'm hoping to own one . . . someday." What he and his wife are learning now will come in mighty handy when the "someday" arrives.

HAPPY SEN. CASE — With the New Jersey GOP senatorial nomination under his belt, Sen. Clifford Case joins his family in a little jubilation. The victory was viewed as a setback to GOP conservatives in their efforts to force Vice President Nixon to tone down his liberal views before the presidential election. Case's wife is at his right. In the rear are his daughters Mrs. William Weaver, left, and Mrs. John C. Holt, right.

Many Bad Baby Hearts

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Heart Assn. issued a new booklet today which said an estimated 30,000 to 40,000 children are born with heart defects in this nation each year. "About 75-80 per cent of them can be helped by surgery," the booklet said.

Conservative Forces Lose Ground

Nixon Relieved at Case's Victory

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The renomination of Sen. Clifford P. Case in New Jersey's Republican primary apparently is going to give Vice President Richard M. Nixon more room to maneuver on policy.

Although the vice president kept strictly to a neutral line in Case's battle with Robert Morris, there was an almost audible sigh of relief from Nixon's friends when Case won handsomely in Tuesday's balloting.

This victory by a liberal-minded GOP senator in a populous Eastern state may go a long way toward offsetting demands from right wing Republicans that Nixon swing in their direction.

Morris, about as conservative as they go, had represented the best hopes of the right wingers to convince Nixon that, as the prospective party presidential nominee, he would have the best chance of November victory by following an out-and-out conservative line.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, has been the chief advocate of this type of thinking. He has contended that if the Republicans can get out all their conservative members on election day they can win.

Nixon obviously doesn't agree. Just as obviously he intends to go beyond President Eisenhower's more or less conservative policies when he has the nomination in hand.

He now has a concrete demonstration that a liberal Republican can poll more votes within his party in a key state like New Jersey than a conservative.

There was plenty of evidence that Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky was well satisfied with Case's renomination. Morton contented himself with saying that the Republicans of New Jersey had made their choice between two hard fighting candidates and it was time to close ranks and get on with the general election campaign.

But there was little doubt in the minds of most of the GOP strategists here that if Morris had been nominated the difference between his views and those of Nixon would have made it more difficult for the Republicans to carry New Jersey in the general election.

Says Morse in Hoffa's Pay

Thomas Ashley, Ohio Dem, Claims Senator Took $500 From Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Thomas L. Ashley (D-Ohio) calls Sen. Wayne L. Morse (D-Ore) a "high paid handyman" for teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

Ashley said Morse really took $500 from Teamsters at Toledo to support Ashley's Democratic primary opponent, Teamster Frank Rossler.

"For all intents and purposes," Ashley said in a statement, "Sen. Morse is on Hoffa's personal payroll.

"The so-called lecture fees he received from Hoffa-controled locals must amount to $10,000 a year."

Morse said he went to Toledo mainly to deliver a lecture for $500 and expenses from the Teamsters.

COMPLETELY FALSE

In reply to Ashley, Morse told a reporter Ashley's "attack on me in regard to my lecture fees is completely false and he knows it."

"But some politicians are that way," Morse said. "The fees I charged at Toledo is the standard fee I charge business groups, farmers' groups or any groups that invite me to give a lecture."

Morse described Ashley as being as "wrong in his attack on me as he was when he voted for the Kennedy-Landrum-Griffin (labor) bill."

"In that vote he cut the jugular vein of the strong labor support he had when he was first elected to Congress," Morse said.

Fire Victims' Father Goes Back to Prison

LANSING (AP)—Keith Black, father of two small children killed in a fire which swept their home here April 7, will be returned to Southern Michigan Prison as a parole violator, police said today.

Ingham County Prosecutor Jack W. Warren said charges of criminal neglect would not be filed against the 23-year-old father or his wife Nancy, 22.

A police investigation failed to produce sufficient evidence to support the charge, he said.

Black, unemployed, has been jailed since the fire killed his son Keith, 2, and daughter, Katherine, 10 months.

Police said the father left his five children alone in the modest frame home while he drove to pick up his car hop wife, stopping at several taverns en route.

Five-year-old Sandra led her sisters Linda, 4, and Beverly, 3, to safety when the fire broke out.

Terms of Black's parole barred him from driving a car or drinking. He was on parole after serving a term for breaking and entering.

New Yacht Club Rising in Sight of Manhattan

NORWALK, Conn. (UPI)—On a group of three uninhabited islands in Long Island Sound, a group of young business executives and socialites are building one of the East Coast's most luxurious clubs within view of the skyscrapers of New York.

The Sheffield Island Yacht and Country Club is the first large private club to be established on an East Coast island in many years. Since World War II, money for yacht club development has been invested mainly in cold weather resort areas in Florida and the Caribbean as they have become increasingly accessible by plane.

"The idea was born last September when some friends and I anchored our yacht off Sheffield and noticed its natural yacht basin and beautiful beach," said C. Peter Davis, who is now secretary of the club.

"We made inquiries and found Sheffield and its two adjoining islands, the largest offshore parcel of land in Connecticut, could be purchased. We began negotiations right away."

The only trace of human history on the island was an abandoned government lighthouse and a ramshackle mansion which once belonged to business machine tycoon James Rand. The mansion is being enlarged to make a clubhouse headquarters for the 95 acres of island playground, and its rolling lawns and formal gardens are being restored.

Cheboygan Mayor

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Funeral Director Earl R. Nordman has been elected mayor of Cheboygan for a two-year term by the City Council last night. He is beginning his first term as councilman.

Asks More Money to Study Sprays

WASHINGTON (AP)—Money for research to develop safer farm chemicals—and avoid scares such as that over cranberries last fall—has been given high priority by the Agriculture Department.

Asst. Secretary of Agriculture Ervin Peterson asked a Senate appropriations subcommittee for $1,502,800 for this purpose.

"We must find less hazardous ways (of spraying crops) than we have now," Peterson told chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga).

Miss Liberty to Put On Best Face for Fair

NEW YORK (AP)—They're going to dress up Miss Liberty for that big global social, the 1964-65 New York World's Fair.

A schedule was outlined Tuesday night for rehabilitation of the statue of liberty, Grant's Tomb, Federal Hall, where George Washington was inaugurated and Castle Clinton in Battery Park, which helped defend the city from the British fleet in 1812.

Interior Secretary Fred A Seaton announced the program will cost $6,583,000, with the federal government matching private contributions toward the cost.

On land one mile is 5,280 feet. At sea, one nautical mile is 6,080.20 feet.

Ballplayer Gets to First Base

SPORTY HERO — Mention the screen to television actor Chuck Connors and it's quite probable he'll think you mean the screen in left field. He's played major league baseball for the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs. Now he considers himself a movie and television major leaguer.

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — When Chuck Connors played big league baseball, other players labeled him as "that actor."

Now that he's successful in movies and TV, other actors label him "that ballplayer."

"I can't seem to belong to the right group at the right time," moans the 6-foot-5 ex-first baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers, Chicago Cubs, Montreal Royals and Los Angeles Angels.

Connors, whose confidence is reminiscent of Dizzy Dean's, took me with him to the Los Angeles Dodgers' opener with the Cubs. I asked him if he ever regretted giving up baseball for acting.

"You want the truth?" he answered. "I don't regret it one bit. "As a ballplayer, I was a good minor leaguer. As an actor, I'm major league—if I can get the other actors to accept me as such."

MISSED NOMINATION

A few years ago, Connors deserved an Oscar nomination as best supporting actor for "The Big Country." His portrayal of the mean son of Burl Ives is a classic of screen villainy, but he didn't get the nomination.

"Too many actors refused to vote for a ballplayer," he says.

When he was offered the starring role in TV's "The Rifleman," Connors confidently predicted that the show would make television's top ten its first season. It did—and it's still there.

"I wouldn't have accepted the role if I hadn't thought so," he says with a liable cockiness.

For a change of pace, he has a role coming up soon in a big budget epic to be filmed in Europe.

SOME CHANGE!

In 1952, he was earning $6,200 a year with the Angels here when he put his histrionics to spare time use in the movies.

★ ★ ★

"I got $500 for the first three days I worked in the movies," recalls Connors. Other parts followed and he doubled his Angel salary in his off time. Now he earns $150,000 or better a year—double what Babe Ruth used to make.

"No," reflects Connors, "I have no regrets about leaving baseball."

Cancer Drive Set by Sloan-Kettering

NEW YORK (AP) — The Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center of New York has announced an intensive five-year medical, research and teaching war against cancer.

The program, expected to cost more than 126 million dollars, was outlined Wednesday night at a dinner commemorating the 75th year of New York's Memorial Hospital. The hospital is dedicated to cancer treatment and research.

About 86 millions will come from institutional income and anticipated grants from federal and public agencies. The remaining amount will be raised by public subscription.

Ogden White, chairman of the fund-raising campaign, said 13 million dollars already has been pledged. Of this amount, he said, four millions have been pledged by Alfred P. Sloan Jr. and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

Volkswagen Boss Appraises Field

'U.S. Not Set to Build a $1,600 Car'

By BEN PHLEGAR
Automotive Writer

NEW YORK—A man experienced in the field says the market isn't big enough yet for a volume American car manufacturer to bring out a $1,600 model.

This is the opinion of Carl H. Hahn, who as president of Volkswagen of America bosses the largest imported car operation in the United States.

"I would think the market would have to be much, much bigger before an American manufacturer would be interested," Hahn said during an interview at the International Auto Show.

350,000 SOLD LAST YEAR

Cars in this general price class accounted for about 350,000 of the 600,000 imports sold here last year.

Ford and Chrysler have admitted development work on cars of the Volkswagen size and price class, and Ford engineers are known to be happy with their experiments with a four-cylinder front wheel drive model.

But neither company has said anything yet about plans to put such cars on the market.

Hahn talks very matter-of-factly about Volkswagen's success in the United States.

It took four months to sell the first four import models 13 years ago. Last year VW registrations were almost 120,00. The company's goal for 1960 is 160,000.

"We will have more cars available this year and more dealers," Hahn said.

CHOOSY ABOUT DEALERS

"We are very choosy about our dealers but they are happy with us. After all, Volkswagen dealers last year made more money than dealers for any other car, imported or domestic."

In 1959, VW dealers averaged 292 new car sales each. By comparison, Ford led U. S. makes with 215 sales per dealer. Chevrolet was second with 196.

"And our cars," said Hahn, "bring the full price. Volkswagen will never be sold at a discount."

Hahn's views on the American compact cars sound very much like those of George Romney of American Motors. Both forsee a quick rise to a 50-50 division between compacts and the so-called standard size cars.

Romney says this point will be reached by 1965 or sooner. Hahn inclines to sooner.

"But what really are compacts?" Hahn asked. "You won't be able to call the new Buicks and Oldsmobile small cars. I think compact is a way to say the styling and engineering trends have changed completely."

EXPECTS BIGGER EDGE

The Volkswagen boss said he expects VW to pull further ahead of the import field this year than last, when its margin over runner-up Renault was about 20,000 units.

"But we are not in a sales race," he hastened to emphasize. "We are proceeding according to schedule. We have been selling ahead of schedule in the first few months, but we won't keep that up. We want a solid, steady pace.

"One of the reasons some of our (import) competitors are in trouble is because they misjudged the market. They looked at the peak months last year and projected upwards from there.

"As a result, their orders for January delivery far exceeded their sales. This has been a far more serious problem for some of the imports than was the appearance of the American compacts.

"The compacts have had no real effect on the market for cars in our price class. Only those who compete directly in price are really affected."

Dividends in March Nearly $2 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — American corporations paid cash dividends of $1,893,000,000 in March — 5 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Reporting this, the commerce department said virtually all industry groups scored gains from year to year.

For the first three months of 1960, dividends totaled $3,278,200,000 compared with $3,059,400,000 in the first quarter of 1959.

J. Fred Muggs to Be Absent in Wedding Film

LONDON (UPI) — British newspapers report that American television networks have promised to handle coverage of Princess Margaret's wedding next month with dignity—and no monkey business.

One U. S. network interspersed pictures of Queen Elizabeth's coronation in 1953 with shots of a Madison Ave.-type champanzee by the name of J. Fred Muggs. Britons were indignant.

The British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC), in announcing it had agreed to distribute wedding films of Margaret and ex-photographer Antony Armstrong-Jones on a worldwide basis, pointedly mentioned commercials.

BBC official Ronald Waldman said he believed U. S. networks would show commercials only at the beginning and end of the film —not in the middle. British TV stations will refrain from commercials altogether.

Dem Hearing in Detroit to Help Draft Platform

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democrats will stage an open hearing in Detroit May 20 to help draft the party's 1960 election platform, National Chairman Paul M. Butler announced Wednesday.

Principal topic of the session will be, "the individual's stake in economic growth." The meeting will be at the Veteran's Memorial.

Butler said the hearing was scheduled at the invitation of Gov. G. Mennen Williams and State Democratic Chairman Neil Staebler.

Similar hearings, previously announced, will be held at Philadelphia April 28, and at Minneapolis and St. Louis in May.

Valuable State Walker Papers Given to CMU

MOUNT PLEASANT (UPI)—A collection of letters, papers and documents dealing with affairs of Michigan and dating back to the Revolutionary War, have been added to the Clarke historical collection at Central Michigan University.

The Walker papers, named after prominent 19th century lawyer C. I. Walker who collected letters from distinguished men as autographs, are historically important.

They include letters from Henry Schoolcraft, Lewis Cass, Anthony Wayne, James Fenimore Cooper, Fr. Gabriel Richard, James Madison, John Quincy Adams and Henry Clay.

Included is a document, dated 1817, which may be the first printed reference to the University of Michigan. Signed by a number of prominent Detroit citizens, it releases their claims for damages from the fire of 1805 to the "University of Michigamia."

Among letters written to and by Michigan Chief Judge Augusta B. Woodard, is one challenging Woodard to a duel.

Herter Has Fine Year After Shaky Beginning

By STEWART HENSLEY
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Christian A. Herter completed his first year as secretary of state today. The verdict in official Washington was that he had turned in a competent, professional job after a somewhat shaky start.

The 65-year-old Massachusetts politician-statesman has had his nervous moments, publicly and privately, since he inherited the post in the massive shadow of the late John Foster Dulles.

But the record of the 12 months since he was sworn in last April 22 reveals a competent job of handling international relations during a tricky period of shifting emphasis in the "cold war" with Russia.

And his influence in administration councils has been greater than is apparent on the surface.

The secretary, according to aides, appears to have no ambition to remain in the post beyond the end of the Eisenhower administration, even if another Republican should be elected in November and asks him to stay on.

His only ambition is to make the best of the next eight months in an effort to win agreement with the Soviet Union which may contribute to greater world stability.

Herter's low-keyed approach to foreign affairs came as a sharp contrast to the more spectacular methods of Dulles.

Herter's self-effacing role has fitted in well with the determination of President Eisenhower to play a more active diplomat role. While Herter has shunned the spotlight, he has put in one of the most grueling 12 months in the history of the job.

Even though hampered by arthritis, Herter has traveled 85,000 miles during his first year.

This included conferences with the Russians, talks with Allied leaders in a score of countries and meetings when he accompanied Eisenhower on the President's Latin American swing.

FINISHES 1ST YEAR — Secretary of State Christian Herter has done a competent job filling the shoes of John Foster Dulles — that is the verdict in official Washington circles as he completes his first year. After getting off to an admittedly shaky start, Herter proved his worth during a tricky period of shifting emphasis in the cold war with Russia.

The secretary's two major victories in administration councils came in the field of disarmament.

Herter persuaded the President against the orguments of the Pentagon and the Atomic Energy Commission, to accept in limited form Russia's proposal for a stop-gap ban of small nuclear tests if the Kremlin signed a broad treaty for controlled suspension of all large explosions.

* * *

And it was Herter, again opposed by many atomic and military officials, who persuaded Eisenhower to propose a ban on all production of nuclear weapons at the Geneva disarmament talks which are now going on.

Herter himself admitted to some nervousness when he took over the job. He asked, and was granted permission by Eisenhower to hold only one news conference a month at first because he was reluctant to comment extemporaneously on sharp questioning in public.

This was in great contrast with Dulles, who had welcomed weekly news sessions as an opportunity to use public opinion as a cold war weapon.

HAD HIS TROUBLES

Herter, now respected by the Russians as a shrewd and tenacious negotiator, had his troubles with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at last summer's Geneva conference.

He complained that Gromyko, at a session during which he was chairman let the puppet East German representative speak instead of the American secretary, whom he had promised the first opportunity.

Herter complained that Gromyko did this while Herter was looking for his eye glasses, which he had dropped on the floor. He never gave Gromyko another opeging of that sort.

State Department officials report that Herter's tenure has brought a boost in morale in the foreign service generally. He is a staff worker, who carefully considers the suggestions of his subordinates. Dulles, by contrast, had his own ideas and looked upon his aides principally as executive officers to carry out his decisions.

* * *

Herter will never enjoy the close relationship with Eisenhower that Dulles had. The President himself speaks of a difference in this respect. Eisenhower and Dulles operated on a more informal basis with little paperwork.

New State Law Covers Water

Public Service Group Takes On Regulation; Other Bills Signed

LANSING (AP)—A bill giving the state Public Service Commission jurisdiction over water companies was signed into law Wednesday by Gov. Williams.

The commission, whose authority now covers railroads, power companies and other utilities, will take over its new responsibility immediately.

The governor also put his signature on a measure clearing the way for local school districts to collect up to $681,000 under the National Defense Education Act for student guidance, testing and counseling at the high school level.

The money will be available in the 1960-61 school year. The act requires local districts to match federal allocations.

Another new law will permit persons with at least 10 years of accredited service in the Public School Employes Retirement System to obtain employment at Wayne State University without losing their credits in the system. The same rights now apply to faculty and staffs at Michigan State University and the University of Michigan, both constitutional bodies like Wayne.

Among other bills signed by the governor were those:

Extending the authority to contract for mutual fire protection to townships and adjoining incorporated villages.

Permitting homerule cities to codify their ordinances without publication of the resulting entire code, but merely by reference to titles.

* * *

It also increases from five to 10 the permissable number of annual installments of special assessments for pavement of highways and sidewalks and authorizes up to 6 per cent interest on unpaid assessments.

Actor's Wife Granted Divorce From Braggart

NEW YORK (AP)—The wife of actor Scott McKay was given a separation and $100 a week alimony Tuesday by a judge who accepted her statement that McKay had bragged of an affair with actress Ann Sheridan.

"The court accepts the testimony of the wife of the husband's boast of his extra-marital prowess with a well-known actress," wrote Justice Henry Clay Greenberg. "The husband displayed considerable histrionic ability on the witness stand but, nevertheless, he was not able to deceive the court."

* * *

Russians Going Overboard for Installment Plan

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russians have gone overboard for the installment plan, the official news agency Tass reported today.

Tass said Muscovites have brought more than 60,000 radios, 38,000 watches and clocks and about 7,000 electric sewing machines on time since the buy-now-pay-later plan was introduced six months ago.

It said a total of 35 million rubles ($3.5 million at the tourist rate) worth of various goods has been bought with the credit plans, the first in the Soviet Union.

Isaac Stern Launches Extensive Russian Tour

MOSCOW (AP) — Violinist Isaac Stern arrived in Moscow Wednesday to open the most extensive Russian tour ever scheduled by an American artist.

A favorite among Soviet audiences, Stern will play from the shores of the Black Sea to Siberia. His wife and daughter will join him tomorrow.

Symington Confident

Stu's Quietly Gathering Flood of Dem Good Will

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) is quietly building up a reservoir of good will he is confident will give him widespread support for the Democratic presidential nomination.

* * *

With a little less than three months to go before the Democratic convention in Los Angeles, Symington's friends think they have the roots of his candidacy planted deeply in at least 23 states.

On the surface, Symington can claim the solid backing of Missouri's 39-vote delegation and only scattered support elsewhere.

On the first presidential ballot he is likely to lag far behind Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. He could have even fewer votes than Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn).

* * *

This situation seems to disturb Symington not at all. Nor does he seem worried that Kennedy might breeze away with the nomination if the Massachusetts senator wins the May 10 West Virginia primary.

Symington obviously will be content to let Kennedy and Johnson butt heads while he himself tries on succeeding ballots to cash in on some of the secondary support he has built up in months of campaigning.

* * *

The Missouri senator's strategists are confident that, given time to maneuver, they can harvest varying numbers of votes from the big New York, California, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio delegations.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Aeronautics and Space administration has announced a project for the development of a sun-powered electrical generator to be used on space craft.

The agency said it would negotiate with the Tapco group of Thompson - Ramo - Woodridge, Ohio, for development of the system, to be called Sunflower I.

NASA said the system would be designed to generate 3,000 watts of electrical power continually for at least a year by drawing energy from the sun.

The expectation is that this can be done with a 700-pound device, capable of being housed in the nose of Centaur or Saturn rocket-launching vehicles, and having "potential uses in satellites and in lunar or planetary space craft," NASA said.

The estimated cost of development is about $4,900,000. The Thompson-Ramo-Wooldridge proposal on that cost basis was selected for negotiation from among 23 submitted.

The general scheme contemplates a petal-type solar collector which would be folded when a satellite was launched and would unfold to a diameter of about 32 feet. This would collect the sun's heat and concentrate it on a boiler to vaporize liquid mercury. The vapor would be condensed and used over and over.

The plan contemplates a heat energy storage unit which would permit output of power when the space craft was in the shadow of the earth.

The new contract is the second announced this week in relation to advanced space research.

NASA announced selection of Avco Corp. and General Electric Co. to conduct a $500,000, one-year engineering and preliminary development study of an electric rocket engine to power space craft.

Rare Whooping Cranes Start Trek to Canada

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Interior Department says that 15 whooping cranes — almost half the world's last flock of the birds — apparently have begun the long trip from their winter home in Texas to their nesting grounds in Canada.

An aerial survey of the "whooper, route" over the Aransas National Wildlife Refugee in Texas showed only 18 whooping cranes remaining of the 33 which had wintered there, the department said.

Bill Would Relieve Hero's Destitute Widow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The widow of World War I Gen. Peyton C. March would receive a $25,000 government payment under a bill passed by the House and sent to the Senate.

Mrs. March, 62, has been living here on a $65 a month widow's pension and savings she describes as very meager. Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker has said she is destitute.

Although Washington is the smallest of the western states, it is larger than all of New England and is six times the size of Maryland.

Dr. Fine Resigns After Criticism

NEW YORK (AP)—The resignation of Dr. Benjamin Fine, dean of the Yeshiva University Graduate School of Education, was announced Wednesday night in the wake of State Education Department criticism of the three-year-old graduate school.

★ ★ ★

The resignation of Fine—dean since March 1, 1958—was announced by Dr. Samuel Belkin, president of the university.

★ ★ ★

Fine said his resignation had been submitted six months ago and would be effective at the end of the current semester this June.

Fine said public announcement of his resignation was prompted by published reports of criticism of the graduate school's program by Dr. Frank R. Kille, associate commissioner for higher and professional education.

Fine said he expected the state to change its evaluation of the Yeshiva education program "very soon" in the light of recent progress.

Fine, former education editor of the New York Times, emphasized that he was not resigning under fire but that "as dean of the school I am nominally responsible for the school."

Fine said he was resigning to devote his full time to writing.

Fallout Shelter Complete and Ready for Inspection

Pontiac's prototype fallout shelter is finished and ready for final inspection, it was reported today.

Fred J. Poole, president of the F. J. Poole Co. which built the shelter, says he expects the inspection within a few days by officials of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization.

The Poole company built the concrete shelter against radioactive fallout in the basement of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dolsen, 88 W. Walton Blvd.

The Dolsens volunteered to let the general public inspect the shelter weekends as part of the campaign.

The city has undertaken to furnish the shelter at no cost to the Dolsens.

It has been decided to furnish the shelter simply and inexpensively, yet attractively, said Janet Odell, Home Editor of The Pontiac Press. Mrs. Odell is chairman of a committee on furnishings appointed by local civil defense officials.

"We want the furnishings to be within the budget of the average family," she explained.

Private Rail Car Deposits Elvis in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Elvis Presley made a triumphant return to Hollywood Wednesday night in a private railroad car.

Only evident reminders of the singer's two-year Army stint were his missing sideburns and his inclination to address newsmen as "sir" when answering their questions.

All except a few of the 500 or so yelping teen-agers who formed a welcoming committee were frustrated.

Teacher's Body Found in Canal

McALLEN, Tex. (AP)—The body of a missing school teacher, object of a six-day search, was recovered from a canal near the downtown business district today.

Hidalgo County Chief Deputy Sheriff Tom Wingert said the body was identified as pretty Miss Irene Garza, 25.

The cause of death was not immediately determined.

The finding of the body came shortly after the family of the missing woman had offered a thousand dollar reward for information leading to her whereabouts.

Clear Driver of Death Car

Drop Homicide Charge Because of Insufficient Evidence for Trial

A negligent homicide charge against the driver of a car in which two passengers were killed April 2 was dismissed yesterday by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Cleared of the charge was Albert Amerson Jr., 26, of 60 Cloverse St.

Judge Finnegan ruled that evidence presented at an examination yesterday was not sufficient to bind Amerson to Oakland County Circuit Court for trial.

Sadie Mae Higgins, 18, of 442 S. Jessie St., and Cecil Reeves, 22, of 12 Utah St., were killed when Amerson's car went out of control on Wilson avenue east of S. Saginaw street and struck a pole.

Witnesses told Pontiac police after the accident that Amerson's car was moving at 65 m.p.h.

In a statement to the prosecutor's office, Amerson said his car gained speed when he tried to apply his brakes.

He admitted he had been drinking before the accident.

Road Bonds Stir Heated Feud

Belding's Sen. Stahlin Brands Issue Illegal and a Fraud

LANSING (AP)—The Legality of a 50-million-dollar bond issue floated by the State Highway Department last July was in furious dispute today.

Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding), chairman of a Senate committee probing Highway Department administrative practices, termed the issue illegal and a fraud yesterday as hearings resumed.

He said it was approved by a "rump" session of the State Administrative Board — deputies sitting in and voting for elected board members.

'DANGEROUS STATEMENT'

"That kind of a wild statement by someone who doesn't know anything about bonding is very dangerous," Mackie said. "It could affect the entire credit of the state."

Mackie and bonding attorney John H. Nunneley of Detroit both said the deputies had legal voting power when representing members of the board.

"It was a legal meeting, a legal resolution and a legal bond issue," Nunneley said.

Stahlin also said state law is that bond issues must be for specific future highway projects.

Many projects financed by the issue were well under way or nearly completed when it was sold, he said.

Macike said the list of projects has to be drawn up well in advance of the sale. The practice is to go ahead with construction using state trunkline funds and to repay this from bond money, he said.

UNIQUE CRITICISM

"This probably is the first time in history a commissioner has been criticized for building roads too fast," he added.

Stahlin criticized the 4.3861 interest rate on the issue.

Alfred H. Lawrence, highway finance director, said this was three-tenths of one per cent higher than the department expected. He blamed Michigan's financial reputation.

"It seems to me you go head with the roads and that when you need the money to pay for them you have to accept the interest rate of a monopoly," Stahlin said.

"They have you over a barrel when construction is pretty well along and you have to pay through the nose."

Johansson to Fight Patterson on June 20

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson signed a contract today to defend his world heavyweight boxing title against Floyd Patterson, the man he dethroned, in the Polo Grounds on Monday, June 20. The pact was the result of almost 10 months of negotiations.

The contract, signed in the offices of the New York State Athletic Commission, gives each boxer 25 per cent of the gate receipts. The boxers get 70 per cent of the money taken in for TV, radio and film rights.

The pact also calls for a return bout in 90 days if Patterson wins. TelePrompter was the successful bidder for the closed TV rights, paying $450,000 for them.

Unionists Pledge Boycott

NEW YORK (UPI) — AFL-CIO President George Meany, Vice President Walter P. Reuther and other top Union officials signed pledge cards saying they would boycott stores of the F. W. Woolworth Co. and other chains which refuse lunch counter service to Negroes in the South.

Rash of Plane Crashes Hard on Insurance Pay

NEW YORK (UPI)—The freak rash of airline accident in recent months is a dangerous threat to the air trip insurance business, an insurance executive said today.

William Churchill, manager of the travel accident department of Associated Aviation Underwriters, said the sale of 25-cent policies still is a small business with a low profit margin. The 25 cents buys $6,250 worth of insurance for one air trip.

"Moreover, we can grow only as fast as the air travel business grows—at present about 11 per cent a year," Churchill said.

He said the three insurance groups in the field, Associated, Continental Casualty of Chicago and Mutual of Omaha, probably collect no more than 10 million dollars a year from premiums on the 25-cent policies and on the annual air insurance policies which cost 60 cents for each $1,000.

"One big loss caused by a bombing or a freak accident can be a serious blow," he said.

The sale of air trip policies was pioneered in 1938 by Churchill's group, but was interrupted by World War II and did not start booming until automatic machine sales started in 1946. Counter sales at big airports gave the business an added impetus, and Churchill said "every airport terminal in the country big enough to support an insurance counter now has one."

Air travel trip insurance was a development of train trip insurance. The Travelers Insurance Co. and the Hartford Insurance Co. have done a small but profitable business in this field for years.

Late Czar's Sister Dies of Pneumonia

LONDON (AP) — The Grand Duchess Xenia, sister of the late Russian Czar Nicholas II, died Wednesday at the age of 85.

She was the widow of Grand Duke Alexander Mikhailovich and one of the few Romanoffs to have survived the Red Revolution.

A spokesman for the family said the grand duchess succumbed to pneumonia after a series of recent attacks which accompanied her advanced age.

Related to the British royal family, Xenia escaped the 1917 revolution on a warship provided by King George V. In her years of exile, she maintained her association with the royal family here.

Afro-Asian Conference Excludes Soviet Russia

CAIRO (AP)—The Soviet Union will be excluded from the Asian-African economic conference opening here April 30—but eight Soviet Moslem republics are being invited as observers.

Dr. Mohamed Ali Rifaat, secretary general of the permanent Asian-African economic organization, said today this formula had been adopted as a compromise.

The Soviet Union attended the first economic conference in Cairo in December 1958 but its participation caused a bitter squabble among Asian nations.

Recent Bomb Threat in Nashville Latest Act as Integration Persists

By The Associated Press

More than 4,000 Negroes and white persons sang "Onward Christian Soldiers" as they marched out of the auditorium at Fisk University in Nashville, Tenn., because of an anonymous bomb threat.

★ ★ ★

Police, firemen and ambulances stood by at the Negro college. The orderly evacuation occurred shortly before an address by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. of Atlanta, a Negro integration leader active in the 11-week-old campaign against segregated lunch counters in the South.

★ ★ ★

Police Inspector W. P. Donoho said the bomb threat was telephoned to police headquarters Wednesday night. The auditorium was searched. No bomb was found, however, and the audience returned.

, King told the group, "Segregation is on its death bed now and the only uncertain thing about it is the day it will be buried."

He said the sit-in movement has "made it absolutely clear that the Negro is not satisfied with segregation" despite claims to the contrary by Southern white leaders for many years.

The bomb-threat incident happened the day after a dynamite blast shattered the home of Z. Alexander Looby, a Nashville city councilman and lawyer who has defended several students arrested in sit-down demonstrations. Looby and his wife escaped injury.

★ ★ ★

The dynamiting led the Nashville chapter of the National Assn for the Advancement of Colored People to telegraph President Eisenhower at Augusta, Ga., asking him to visit the Tennessee city and personally work for improved race relations.

★ ★ ★

The telegram cited the blasting of the city councilman's house as "testimony to the unwholesome state of affairs relative to the safety of Negroes" in Nashville and the South. There was no immediate reply from Eisenhower.

Meanwhile, sit-down demonstrations spread to Beaumont, Tex., for the first time and there was court action and scattered demonstrations in other parts of the racially tense South.

Trigger-Happy Gunman Nabbed After Holdup

DETROIT (AP) — A gunman caught after an Oak Park service station holdup was questioned today in last Thursday night's torch slaying of Willow Run gasoline station attendant Carl P. Nickell.

An old west-style robbery occurred last night when a bandit armed with a deer rifle entered a gas station at 1540 W. Nine-Mile Rd., Oak Park, fired a shot into the air and demanded the money from the cash register.

Oak Park police are holding Donald J. Paye, 30, of 22624 Colony St., St. Clair Shores, on a charge of attempted murder and armed robbery.

Station attendent Donald Stewart, 23, and the owner, John Haky both of Detroit, were present during the holdup.

Between $200 and $300 was handed over to the bandit who then ran out the front door.

Stewart drove off in pursuit in a customer's car. The gunman fired into the car, shattering the windshield. Stewart was sprayed with the broken glass.

The bandit then jumped into a car and drove with Stewart still chasing him. The owner phoned police in the meantime.

Ike's Vacation Ends

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower closes out a comparatively carefree golfing vacation today and heads back to the pressures and problems of Washington and the White House.

Dr. Moore's Pace Slows; Gets Helper

Dr. Moore, 56, traveled only 32 miles Wednesday after covering a startling 109 miles the day before.

When J. D. Hodges of Vallejo, Calif., heard of her plight, he offered his services and was accepted.

About 40 miles ahead of Dr. Moore are two British sergeants who are also assaulting the hiking record of 79 days.

Sgts. Patrick Moloney, 34, and Mervyn Evans, 33, left San Francisco a day ahead of Dr. Moore. They say she must have ridden part of her 109 miles Tuesday. The doctor waved aside the assertion.

In eight days of hiking, Dr. Moore has covered about 360 miles while the sergeants tramped over 400 miles in nine days.

Venezuela Takes Rebel Center

Insurgent Leader Flees San Cristobal as Tanks, Troops Approach

Jesus Maria Castro Leon, the ambitious ex-general in the Venezuelan air force who led the rebel troops across the border from Colombia yesterday, apparently was heading back where he came from.

Troops attempted to seal off the border by blocking the international road, Castro Leon and his aides probably were trying to return to Colombia along the Arauca River plains south of the mountains around San Cristobal.

Betancourt, supported by political, military and labor leaders who thwarted Castro Leon's plan for a nationwide uprising, sent loyal forces to San Cristobal, capital of Tachira state.

So far the invasion has been virtually bloodless. Government officials telephoned San Cristobal and were told that two students were killed and four wounded in street fights with the rebels yesterday.

Col. Francisco Lizarazo, who turned over San Cristobal's 400-man garrison to the rebels yesterday, was arrested this morning by the national guard, which remained loyal throughout the brief uprising. He was replaced by Col. Miguel Arcadio, who refused to submit to the rebels.

Bell, Workers to Talk

DETROIT (AP)—Bargaining teams of Michigan Bell Telephone and the Communication Workers of America (AFL-CIO) open negotiations on a new contract here Tuesday. Present contracts covering about 16,800 employes in plant, traffic and accounting departments expire June 2.

1,266 Cases in County So Far

Measles Here Double '59

The number of measles cases to date this year in Oakland County has more than doubled 1959's total for the same period, it was reported today on the heels of a measles epidemic announcement in Detroit.

The Oakland County Department of Health this morning declined to define whether a recent outbreak bringing a total of 1,266 cases in the county so far in 1960 represents epidemic proportions.

Health Director Dr. John D. Monroe was not available for comment. The number of measles cases by the middle of April last year totaled 581.

By the end of last year the total reached 6,074. It was not known whether any deaths resulted from the disease in 1959 or thus far in 1960.

There were 173 cases reported in the county for the week ending April 9 and 189 cases last week. Only 76 cases were reported for the previous comparable week in 1959.

Pontiac had a total of 1,421 measles cases in 1959. A total of 117 cases has occurred in the city so far this year, compared with 103 for the like period the year past.

While seven cases were reported in Pontiac for the April 18 week in 1959, 18 cases were discovered in the similar week in 1960.

Dr. C. Dale Barrett, director of maternal and child health for the Detroit Board of Health, says there have been 1,618 cases and one death so far this year in that city. This compares to 1,363 cases and no deaths in Detroit in all of last year.

A 30-day measles quarantine has been placed on the Wayne County Youth Home.

Dr. Barrett said the situation in Detroit is actually worse than figures show because thousands of cases never are reported to health authorities.

25 Saved From Fire in Detroit Building

DETROIT (AP) — Firemen and police helped rescue 25 persons, including some children, from a flaming three-story brick apartment building at 276 Alfred in Detroit today. No one was injured.

Two patrolmen saw the fire, turned in an alarm and went inside to rouse the occupants.

Firemen used ladders to rescue residents on upper floors.

Cause of the fire, which started in the basement, was not determined. No estimate was given on the damage, which was confined mostly to the basement and first floor.

Guard Leaders Huddle

LANSING (AP) — National Guard leaders from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio will meet Saturday at Camp Grayling to coordinate plans for summer training sessions. Michigan troops will be at the camp July 9-23, Indiana guardsmen July 24-Aug. 7 and Ohio guardsmen Aug. 13-27.

Plane Prop May Have Killed 4

Grand Rapids Furniture Executives, Pilot Cut in Mid-Air Collision

HICKORY, N.C. (AP)—The four occupants of a private plane—victims of a collision with an airliner—may have been chopped to death by a propeller of the airliner.

"It looks as if the prop just chewed up the plane. All of the occupants suffered deep head cuts," said W. Stanley Moore, deputy coroner of Burke County.

The airliner and the private plane, both landing under visual flight rules because the Hickory airport has no air control tower, collided in a bright, sunny sky Wednesday.

The airliner, with 40 persons aboard, landed safely, the private plane crashed, killing all aboard —three Michigan furniture company officials and the company pilot.

ROUTINE STOP

The Piedmont Airlines plane was making a routine stop on a Cincinnati-to-Fayetteville route. The Cessna 310 was bringing the businessmen to a furniture show here.

★ ★ ★

Visual flight rules require a pilot to stay clear of other aircraft. But the airliner pilot said he did not see the smaller plane and the private pilot apparently did not see the airliner.

Road Engineer to Retire

LANSING (AP) — Ralph B. Dibble, 69, assistant to the chief engineer of the State Highway Department, will retire May 3 after 39 years with the department. Dibble served under all seven of the elected highway commissioners.

Lift Load Restrictions in Southern Michigan

LANSING (UPI)—The Highway Department has lifted weight restrictions on southern Michigan highways.

The removal of restrictions came on all concrete based trunklines south of and including M55 from East Tawas to Manistee.

The rest of the state's highways, with exception of those designed as all season routes, still have the restrictions.

Ford Officials Report Bonuses

Top $300,000 Goes to Both Henry, Breech; Annual Meeting May 19

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. officers and directors were paid $4,760,000 in addition to their normal salaries and fees last year, according to a proxy statement mailed to stockholders.

The extra cash, based on company earnings which were the second highest in history, is in the form of supplemental compensation awards. No such awards were made in 1958. The awards are paid in four equal installments.

Top awards were $300,000 each to Henry Ford II, president of the company, and Ernest R. Breech, board chairman. Both received salaries of $185,000, the same as in 1958.

Total salaries and fees for the officers and directors were down slightly from the previous year, dropping from $2,620,257 to $2,543,293.

Ford will hold its annual stockholders meeting May 19 in Detroit.

Abby Says: You'll Be Proud of Her

Fellows, Ask a Gal to the Prom

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Prom time is just around the corner and you could do so many girls a favor if you would print my suggestion:

Won't the mothers of sons urge them to ask a girl to the prom. So many broken-hearted girls sit at home on prom night because the boys have stalled around and put off asking them until it is too late, so they just skip it.

ABBY

All girls can't be best lookers and best-dancers and most-popular. But they all have hearts.

Believe me, no matter how plain a girl is, she would be glamorous that night and the boy would be glad he asked her. And the girl would live that night over and over again in her memories.

MOTHER OF TWO EACH

DEAR MOTHER: Thank you for your beautiful letter. I am starting on my own son tonight.

DEAR ABBY: We got into an argument in our English Class. Our teacher said that if plane crashed in the desert and no living being heard it, it didn't make a sound.

Two or three of us argued about it. I believe that if a stick of dynamite goes off, or if there is an explosion of any kind, whether anybody hears it or not, it still makes a sound. Am I right or is my teacher right?

DICK

DEAR DICK: A "sound" is a physical change in the atmosphere, induced in many ways, and conforms to certain known laws of physics. It CAN be recorded and proved, whether or not anyone is around to hear it.

DEAR ABBY: I think my sister-in-law is trying to set a world's record. She is 27 years old and has ten children! Believe it or not, she hasn't been out of a maternity dress since she married my brother ten years ago. He is a nice guy, but he doesn't have a mind of his own.

The big problem is this: Whenever anyone in the family tries to tell her in a nice way that she has enough children, she gets mad and tells them to mind their own business.

They farm and don't need financial help, but the size of their family is the talk of the county. They act like it's something to be proud of. I think they are a disgrace. I'd like your opinion.

SISTER-IN-LAW

DEAR SISTER-IN-LAW: The size of the family is the business of the Mamma and Papa. If they are able to feed, clothe and educate all the children they have invited into the world, it's nobody's business but theirs. Now, don't you have problem of your own?

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "DISGUSTED WITH DAD": Your father means well—but he is making a serious mistake by asking his friends in high places to recommend you for a college that is probably too difficult for you. If you can't get in on your own merits, how long does he think you will stay there?

★ ★ ★

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Blackheads

(NEA) — Blackheads are bothersome, no doubt about it.

They are fatty plugs which, mixed with grime, stop up pores. And they appear invariably in oily areas of the skin. The solution lies in never creaming these areas, in keeping your skin scrupulously clean and in washing these oily areas with lots of lathery soap and hot water.

Comfy Charm

(NEA)— When you purchase a robe, buy it with as much care as you would a dress. Remember that other people will see you in it. Don't pick the first wadded robe you can find, just for warmth and comfort. Have your comfort and, with it, a little charm.

Exercise Feet After Wearing High Heels

NEW YORK (UPI)—If you wear high heels most of the day, your feet need exercise to stretch tendons and calf muscles. A beauty expert recommends these exercises:

In your bare feet, support yourself properly, stand on a phone book and curl your toes over the edge. This will stretch tendons on top of the foot. Another way is to try picking up a pencil with the toes.

For trimmer ankles, use the ankle as an axis, rotating the foot in a large circle—five times clockwise, five times counter-clockwise.

To stretch the calf, stand a foot way from a wall, facing it with feet parallel, knees straight and hands flat against the wall. Try to touch chest to wall without lifting your heels off the floor.

Men Dislike Long Nails

(NEA) — If you do not believe that men dislike long, clawlike red nails, just ask the men of your acquaintance. They'll tell you.

And what they'll tell you is that they like nails just beyond the fingertip length painted with polish in a pale color. Some of them prefer natural polish. But they are most adamant about the length. They do not like long nails.

Either women are not aware of this or they are indifferent. This is a personal thing, true, but one which offers a compromise: nails of moderate length with bright polish.

Add salt and pepper to white or yellow corn meal and dip fish fillets in the mixture before cooking and browning in butter or other hot fat.

Japanese Women Dye Hair

So many that the nationwide newspaper Mainichi took up the matter in an editorial column.

Ten years ago a suggestion that women here should dye their hair would have been laughed down as ridiculous and socially degrading —although middle-aged women since feudal days have used dye to restore graying hair to the jet black nature originally bestowed.

Scholarship Tea Slated

Bagley School PTA will sponsor a scholarship tea Sunday from 4 to 6 p.m. at the school.

Mrs. Orrin Caigle, chairman, has appointed Mrs. Robert Ashford to handle publicity; Mrs. Coley Gracey, refreshments; Ann Power, program; and Mrs. Jonas Chenault, decorations.

Proceeds will be given to the PTA Council scholarship fund.

Traveling Tip

(NEA)—When traveling, it's a good idea to have powder and lipstick in each handbag you take with you. It will save the trouble of changing these necessary items from one purse to another, and eliminates the risk of forgetting them.

In-Between Heels Handy

(NEA) — It's difficult to walk on high heels all the time, especially the stiletto heels that are now so popular.

Your body is thrust forward and out of balance, and your posture becomes ungainly.

Especially for daily wear, it's wise to buy in-between heels.

They come in smart-looking as well as comfortable styles, and you'll find when you wear them that you walk gracefully, instead of painfully hobbling through the day.

Calluses?

(NEA) — If you're troubled by calluses that form in the palms of your hands, try rubbing them with pumice powder mixed with cream or oil. Then wash away the hardened skin with soapsuds and lubricate the treated areas with cream or hand lotion.

Belleville Home Helping Girls

BELLEVILLE (AP)—A large, old-fashioned brown and white house in this small residential community is giving troubled teen-age girls a chance to live normal, happy lives again.

Known as Loch Rio, the home is the first of a series of Girls Towns planned throughout the state. It is sponsored by the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Loch Rio is not a home for juvenile delinquents, its director, Mrs. Allen G. Gerrard of Ann Arbor, explained. Rather its purpose is to help young girls whose problems are in the beginning stages.

Now two years old, this first Girls Town "pilot unit" has successfully solved adjustment problems for six girls and returned them to their homes as happy, useful teen-agers. A seventh girl was released, but has since fallen into her old pitfalls and is being encouraged to return to Loch Rio for further help.

"When working with people who need help with their emotional problems, we must realize that there occasionally will be regression, sometimes where least expected," she said.

START EARLY

Mrs. Gerrard, who has an advanced degree in social work from the University of Michigan, said in many cases no real attention has been given to emotionally-disturbed children until their problems reach the severe stage.

Little or no effort to prevent juvenile delinquency and other problems is made, as we are trying to do here, she added. Nine girls—ranging in ages from 10 to 14—are now attending Loch Rio.

Girls Town is a nonprofit, charitable institution, dependent upon contributions from the clubs in the Michigan Federation or from other individuals and organizations. Six other Girls Town units are planned around the state.

At Loch Rio the girls are given individual counseling and the discipline they lacked in their homes, Mrs. Gerrard said. They attend high school in Belleville, just as any other student, and many of them have become very active in school affairs.

She said the girls entertain their friends at the home, attend school dances and go on dates. But they always must tell where they plan to go and be back on time—things they didn't have to do in their homes, she added.

Loch Rio is assisted by experts from the University of Michigan, and the Hawthorne and Lafayette clinics help in medical, psychological and psychiatric work.

Girls from all over the state are eligible for admission. They are referred to the Girls Town by courts, child care agencies or hospitals. Each girl has a psychological evaluation before she is accepted, to make certain she can be helped.

Social agencies in the state work with the girls' respective families and when a girl is successfully discharged a "follow-up" procedure is continued.

"It takes time to remold individuals and change undesirable habits into desirable ones," Mrs. Gerrard said. "Even though it may take two years for one girl, seeing her leave here ready to enjoy a happy life again is worth more to us than words can say."

Rough Treatment Harmful

Brush Hair Correctly

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Some women do not know that it is possible to injure the hair roots so that the hair does not grow back. It is not good to treat the hair roughly, jerking tangles loose with a comb. Mothers should be careful about combing their children's hair. Sometimes it seems that they are trying to pull the child's head off, not comb the hair.

Brushing is fine for the tresses if it is done correctly, so that the scalp is stimulated rather than scratched. It is surprising how many good beauty salons do not know how to brush hair properly or do not take the time to do it.

When you brush your hair turn the bristles toward the scalp and then toward the ceiling as you sweep toward the ends of the hair. The brush should never touch the scalp.

MASSAGE HELPS

The scalp benefits greatly by massage. Too often women just rub their fingers over the scalp, sometimes even scratching it, and call it massage. There are two reasons for regular scalp massage.

First this stimulates the flow of blood to the scalp. Then, too, it keeps the scalp loose. One of the best-known hair experts once told me that the hair remains healthier if the scalp does not tighten up with age.

This is the way you should massage your scalp to stimulate circulation and to keep it loose. Spread the fingers over the scalp. Keep the fingers in this position as you rotate them, making the scalp move. Change the position of the fingers until you have covered the entire head.

Of course your general health affects your hair. Hair often thins after an illness or at times of strain. Poor nutrition with resulting vitamin deficiency also often plays a part in hair difficulty. If your hair is excessively oily or dry, there are splendid tonics available.

Frozen meat that has not been thawed may be browned in a little fat and then covered with water and cooked slowly until the meat is tender.

FRIJOLES WITH EGGS — Translated, it means "beans with eggs." Serve these individual casseroles of kidney beans, canned corn and baked eggs in green pepper rings as a Lenten main dish. If your family won't eat kidney beans, substitute limas. But don't tell the South Americans.

Keep Recipe for Summer Fish Dinners

Baked Fish with Mushrooms and Onions

Salt
Pepper
4 medium-sized onions (cut into thin strips)
1 can (6 ounces) sliced broiled mushrooms
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons minced parsley

Have back bone removed from fish, but leave tail and head on. Wash and dry fish; sprinkle inside with salt and pepper. Stuff with about one-half the onions and mushrooms; dot with 1½ tablespoons of the butter; skewer together with toothpicks or sew with heavy white thread.

Place on heavy foil in baking pan; spread ½ tablespoon of butter over top of fish. Place remaining onion and mushrooms on two corners of foil; sprinkle with salt and pepper; dot with remaining 1 tablespoon butter; turn up corners of foil over vegetables (but not over fish).

Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven 30 to 40 minutes or until fish flakes easily and is lightly browned. Uncover vegetables during last 10 minutes of baking. Remove fish on foil to serving platter; sprinkle with parsley. Makes 4 servings.

Luncheon Main Dish Made With Sausage

Salami Eggs

6 eggs
3 tablespoons water
6 slices
¼ pound semi-hard salami (sliced thin)

Beat eggs, with water and a pinch of salt, until yolks and whites are combined. In a 10-inch skillet, lightly brown salami on both sides. There will probably be enough fat in skillet in which to cook eggs; if not, add a little butter.

* * *

Pour eggs over salami; cook gently and as edges set, draw toward center and tip pan so thin mixture can cook. Remove portions with wide spatula. Makes 3 servings.

Recipe Mixes Beans, Corn

Down South American way, you are apt to get an egg when would least expect it, for instance, on a steak or floating on a soup. Corn, too, is combined with other foods in imaginative ways. And beans of different types are basic food.

In this recipe Frijoles with Eggs, all three are combined in a casserole dish which is attractive and good hearty-appetite midwinter fare. Be sure to add some raw vegetable relishes or a green salad and, at least, for youngsters or teen-agers a glass of milk.

Frijoles With Eggs

2 tablespoons fat
¼ cup finely diced onion
1 small clove garlic, minced
1½ teaspoons kitchen bouquet
1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) kidney beans
1½ cups cooked corn or
1 can (12 oz.) whole kernel corn
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon curry powder
1 bouillon cube
1 large green pepper
4 eggs

Melt fat in skillet over moderate heat. Add onion and garlic and saute about 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Stir in kitchen bouquet. Add contents of can of kidney beans and corn. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, and curry powder. Add bouillon cube.

Heat thoroughly, making certain bouillon cube is dissolved. Pour into individual baking dishes.

Cut green pepper into four ½-inch slices. Arrange green pepper slices to form cup in center of each baking dish. Break an egg carefully into each green pepper ring.

Richer Omelets

Vary omelets by substituting whipped cream for the liquid — about one pint for every six eggs. Prepare as for fluffy omelets and serve with Parmesan cheese topping as an entree or with a rich fruit sauce for dessert.

Wondering how to use that dried chervil you bought, or that came included in a set of spices? Try a little in green pea soup.

Sticky Buns Given Delicate Apple Flavor

Raisins and nuts are the customary filling for cinnamon buns. Add juicy, flavorful apples and every lucky eater will have reason to give thanks that apples and baking with yeast go so well together.

* * *

Apple Sticky Buns have a surprising delicate flavor; and the syrup in which they are baked gives them a crisp bottom crust that's not so thick and sweet it will drive calorie watchers away.

Apple Sticky Buns

3 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
¼ cup warm, not hot, water
1 egg, beaten
2¼ cups sifted enriched flour (about)
2 tablespoons melted margarine or butter
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Apple Filling and Syrup, below

Scald milk; add sugar, salt and shortening; cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle or crumble yeast into water in large mixing bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed); stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture, egg, and half the flour; beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour to make soft dough.

Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic. Place dough in greased bowl; brush top with melted shortening; cover and let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Punch down; turn out onto lightly floured board and roll out into a square about 12x12 inches. Brush with melted margarine; sprinkle cinnamon, then Apple Filling evenly across dough. Roll up as for jelly roll; seal edges and ends firmly. Cut into 12 equal pieces.

* * *

Divide Apple Syrup evenly between 12 well-greased muffin cups 2¾x1¼ inches. Place buns, cut side up, into prepared cups. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1½ hour. Bake at 375 degrees about 30 minutes; remove from pans immediately. Makes 1 dozen.

Apple Filling and Syrup

1 large apple
⅓ cup water
⅓ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup raisins
½ cup chopped pecans

Pare, core, and cut apple into small dice. Bring water, brown sugar and nutmeg to boil; boil 2 minutes. Add apples and boil 5 minutes, or until apples are tender. Drain apples, reserving syrup; combine apples with raisins and pecans; cool apples and syrup before adding to buns.

Fruit and Pork What a Duet!

Treat your family to a meal of excellent flavor and good nutrition by serving pork chops with pineapple. Pork shoulder steaks may be substituted for the pork chops, if you wish.

* * *

Pork, as you doubtless know, is always cooked to the well-done stage. To achieve this, we recommend that the pork chops or steaks be braised, simmered or cooked slowly with a little moisture and a covered pan.

Pineapple Pork Chops

4 1-inch thick pork chops
1 tablespoon fat
4 yams or sweet potatoes, cut in half
4 slices canned pineapple
½ cup pineapple syrup

Brown chops on both sides. Sprinkle with salt. Peel potatoes, cut in half, place around chops. Arrange pineapple on chops and pour pineapple syrup over all. Cook 15 minutes on high and then 45 minutes at low or simmer temperature. (Serves 4).

Jiffy Cheese Cake

Jiffy cheese cake is made by stirring drained crushed pineapple and chopped walnuts to taste into softened cream cheese. Spread on graham crackers, stack them three deep and chill until serving time.

Spelled Scrod or Schrod It's Still Groundfish

Have you ever wondered what manner of fish "scrod" is, or puzzled over the variation in spelling, "schrod"? The National Fisheries Institutes explanation is enlightening. To a fisherman, scrod is any groundfish (cod, haddock, cusk, hake, pollock) which weighs less than 2½ pounds.

As for "schrod," Bostons Parker House originated the term many years ago when they served small haddock, using flesh parts only, no bones — the forerunner of the fish fillets with which we are so well acquainted.

Walnuts added to chocolate bread pudding make it extra-special.

Know What You Want When You Buy Turkey

You can buy turkey in just about any food market, butchershop or grocery store. You can buy birds whole, cut-up and by the piece, either fresh or quick-frozen. You can find young hens and toms and big hens and toms, fryer-roasters and small Beltsville White turkeys.

Government grades tell you the quality. Turkeys are inspected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and grading them is mandatory under federal law. The various grades are clearly stamped on the birds. A low grade stamp does not mean, however, that the turkey is not good to eat. It merely means that a wing or bone has been broken or the skin has been torn or damaged in processing. Only edible turkeys are allowed on the market.

Orange Juice Is Base of New Ham Glaze

As an easy yet delightful tasting glaze for a smoked ham, try this combination. The glaze is called Orange Glaze. Combine 1 cup brown sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 tablespoon frozen orange juice concentrate and mix well.

About 20 to 30 minutes before the ham is done, spread with the Orange Glaze and return to oven to finish cooking and for glaze to set.

Canned Sardines Provide Quick, Easy, Tasty Salad

For an additional treat with your main course, or as a light luncheon salad, this easy to prepare and nutritious dish fits the bill and budget perfectly. Arrange lettuce leaves on four attractive small plates. Drain 2 cans of Maine Sardines and place on lettuce.

Garnish with lemon wedges, 4 strips of Melba toast, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons capers and 4 butter balls. You will have four servings of an attractive and delicious salad.

Some cooks like to start angel-food cake (made from scratch) in a cold oven and then raise the heat to slow (325 degrees).

Fruits Are Excellent Buy; Meat Bargains Scarce

With the exception of frying chickens, reduced or unsettled marketings of protein foods have resulted in somewhat higher prices. Fryers have dropped several pennies in many food stores.

Offerings of fresh fruits are virtually unchanged again this week except for more strawberries and California Valencia oranges. Shipments of many fresh Florida vegetables showed a sizable volume increase during the past week, but over-all unloads averaged a little less than the previous week.

POULTRY: Marketings of fryers continue at about the same level as they have been for the past couple weeks. However, many stores are featuring the whole birds and the fryer parts at exceptionally low prices — near cost. Remember that the more service, the more cutting, which is done to the fryer, the more you pay per pound and per serving.

BEEF: Although offerings of beef cattle have been generally unchanged, there is some indication of smaller marketings and higher prices due to the short weekend in some packing houses and producers turning to their fields.

Retailers are offering special prices on a variety of cuts which contain little waste and a low cost per serving — ground beef, stewing beef, corned beef and steer liver.

FISH: Perch and smelt become more plentiful each day as warmer spring weather permits heavier fishing in Lake Erie. Whitefish and trout are extremely scarce because breaking ice in the Canadian lakes has caused a rapid drop in the catch. Fresh cod and haddock and frozen packages are other good buys.

This is the in-between season for volume lamb supplies. Heavy shipments of the new crop spring lambs have not yet arrived. However, some stores are offering fine buys in rib and shoulder crops and in the economical lamb patties.

EGGS: Although egg prices have adjusted down seasonally from the March levels, they are somewhat higher than last week when many near-costs specials were available for the holiday. Large sizes of the mixed cartons are definitely the best buy. Shell color does not effect quality and mixed cartons are always 5-6 cents less per dozen than cartons of all-white eggs.

FRUITS: Heavy supplies of bananas are continuing to make them an excellent buy at about 4-7 cents a serving — per banana. Avocados are also still low in cost but the end is in sight for many grapefruit.

Those prices are advancing though supplies are still sufficient.

Some Navel oranges are still available but the greatest volume is in the juicy Valencia oranges. Concentrators have begun to take huge volumes of the Florida Valencias but the California crop is getting under way in full volume. The Florida strawberry shipments have decreased this week but the late Louisiana crop has begun to arrive at lower prices. They are coming much faster than expected and prices are dropping rapidly.

Although citrus fruit juices are expected to edge upwards, the new pack season is beginning with all stores featuring many varieties at low costs. Pineapple is being added in many cases. Heavy stocks of peanut butter are bringing low prices. Canned apples for pie, crackers, flour and spring cleaning supplies are other features in the grocery departments.

The 11 ounce frozen dinners of all varieties and packages of Add a couple of tablespoons of orange juice and some grated orange rind to currant jelly and use as a filling between white frozen spinach are most frequently seen with special tags in the freezer chests.

Shed No Tears Over Fresh Onions

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Not long ago we told you about a new mild onion that is on the market in good supply right now—Springsweets. We've been hearing more about them.

The name is not a trade name, but a nickname given by growers because these onions reach maturity in spring and are exceptionally sweet and mild. Some people slice them and eat them raw like tomatoes with only a sprinkling of salt.

Have you ever stopped to think how important onions are to a cook? They add delicious flavor to nearly every type of dish, save desserts.

Some individuals insist they cannot tolerate any onion in their food. We have found that by being careful in the way we use onions, we can feed them to almost anyone.

Large hunks of onion are the offenders. But the onion flakes—either white or green—can usually be included in a recipe. With fresh onions, it may be necessary either to mince them, or to grate them and use only the thick juice. The subtle flavor remains.

Cry when you peel onions? Holding them under cold running water will prevent the oil from rising and causing your tears. With a large number to peel let them stand a minute or two in hot water first, then drain.

Hands smell? Make a paste of baking soda and water or salt and water. Rub it thoroughly into your hands and rinse off with cold water. Presto! No odor. It is wise to keep a small chopping board for just onions and garlic; then the flavor will never get into a dish where it's unwelcome.

* * *

If you can find some of the new Springsweets, try them in a salad that has eye appeal as well as taste.

Stuffed Springsweet Salad

4 to 6 large Springsweet onions
1 8-ounce package cream cheese
2 tablespoons deviled ham
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 tablespoon finely chopped pimiento
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper

Peel onions. With apple corer remove centers of onions. Reserve center portions for use in other dishes.

Beat cream cheese until soft and creamy. Blend in deviled ham. Add remaining ingredients and beat well. Fill centers of onions with cream cheese mixture. Chill several hours or until cream cheese centers are firm. To serve, slice onions and place on lettuce leaves. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

This is also the season of the young green onion or scallion. They're served raw, cut into salads or boiled and served like asparagus. Have you ever served them on toast?

Spring Onions on Toast

2 bunches young green onions
2 cups boiling water
½ teaspoon salt
4 thin slices hot buttered toast
1 cup medium white sauce
2 tablespoons grated cheese

Trim roots and tops from the onions, leaving two or three inches of the green top. Wash and drain and cut into 1½-inch lengths. Cook in boiling salted water until just tender. Drain thoroughly and arrange on the toast in an oven-proof dish. Pour the white sauce over and sprinkle with the cheese.

Place under the broiler until cheese melts and browns slightly. Serve immediately. Serves 4.

* * *

This last recipe comes from Cecily Brownstone, the Associated Press food editor. A different kind of bread, it's served hot for a buffet supper.

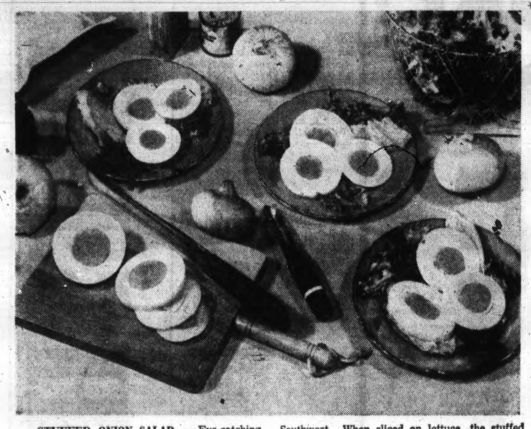
Onion Bread Pie

1 package hot roll mix
1 cup thinly sliced onions
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon celery seed

Make hot-roll mix according to directions. Meanwhile, cook onions in butter until transparent, but not brown. Add half of the celery seed to onions and knead other half into dough.

* * *

Divide dough into two parts; shape to fit two greased 8-inch pie plates. Spread onions over entire surface of dough. Bake in a 400-degree oven 20-25 minutes. Cut into wedges and serve hot. Makes 12 servings.



STUFFED ONION SALAD — Eye-catching is the word for this new Stuffed Springsweet Salad featuring the mild and sweet flat globe onions now being shipped to markets from the Southwest. When sliced on lettuce, the stuffed onions have the appearance of gay spring blossoms.

Lively Seasoned Burgers Please

When the clock strikes twelve, sock-hopping cinderellas and the dates will be ready for Midnight Hamburgers. For hours, they've been "having a ball," so now's the time to bring on these broiled, open-faced 'burgers with the relishes (some lively sauces and seasonings) "in 'em" not "on 'em."

Midnight Hamburgers

1 pound ground beef
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
2 tablespoons catsup or chili sauce
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
6 sliced sandwich buns

Combine beef, onion, mustard, catsup, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Place about 2 tablespoons meat mixture on each sandwich bun half. Place on a shallow baking pan. Broil under moderate broiler heat for about ten minutes, or until meat is cooked. Serve hot.

Yield: 8 servings of 2 bun halves per serving.

Chill It First

If you have trouble skimming the fat from a meat stew make the dish the day before you are going to use it and refrigerate. The fat will harden at the top in a solid cake and may be easily removed.

Trio of Vegetables a New Combination

Special Peas and Turnips

4 medium-sized (¾ pound without tops) white turnips
1 large new potato
1 package (10 ounces) frozen green peas
¼ cup boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
1 to 2 tablespoons butter, pepper

If peas are solid pack, allow to stand, package opened, at room temperature about 30 minutes to defrost enough to separate. Pare turnips and potato; cut in ¼-inch thick slices; cut turnips into about ½-inch long pieces and potatoes about ¼-inch long.

Cook turnips and potatoes together rapidly and covered in water and salt just until tender — 5 minutes or so; watch so turnips keep their shape. Add the peas and cook about 5 minutes longer, or until all vegetables are tender. Drain; add butter and white pepper to taste. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Ground Meat Adds Extra Protein to Deviled Eggs

Grind ¼ pound ready-to-serve meat. Remove the shells from hard-cooked eggs and cut in half lengthwise. Separate yolks from whites.

Mash yolks and add ground meat, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons vinegar and 2 tablespoons mayonnaise. Mix well and fill each egg white with mixture, using fork or pastry tube.

Sauerkraut Fixed in Sweet Sauce

Irene's Sauerkraut

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 medium-sized onions (chopped medium-fine)
1 pound bulk sauerkraut
1 tablespoon dark brown sugar
2 tablespoons currants (washed in hot water and drained)

* * *

Melt butter in 9- or 10-inch skillet; add onion and brown lightly, stirring often. Add sauerkraut, brown sugar and currants; mix well. Cook gently, stirring several times, for 10 to 20 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

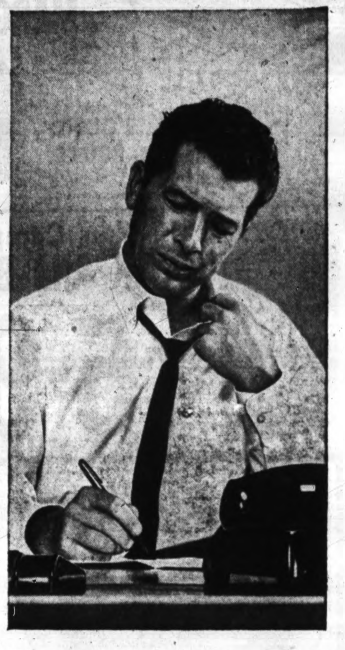
Ground-in grime... or simply soiled...



you need CLOROX to get out dirt that suds leave in!

Show you suds-proof dirt? Look inside any shirt collar. Deposits of this same stubborn soil lock themselves into almost everything you launder. And it's a build-up of suds-proof dirt that makes a wash go gray.

Clorox takes over where suds leave off. Good detergent will loosen much of the dirt. Clorox goes after what's left... cleans in a way suds can't. Regular use of Clorox, with its special dissolving action, actually melts suds-proof dirt away... leaves your washes cleaner than even the best detergents alone can make them.

Plentiful Dates Good in Waffles

The dates are fresh from California, where most of our domestic dates come from. Growers out there have come up with one of the largest crops on record, which is why the U.S. Department of Agriculture gives dates an important spot on its List of Plentiful Foods for April.

Of course, there are lots of ways you can make use of all these dates. Now that it's time for the first spring hikes and outings, you can take along a package of fresh dates to nibble on between meals. They're extra rich in energy, ready to eat right from the package, and they'll certainly delight your palate.

You'll find too that these dates make wonderful additions to many Lenten dishes, and to your Easter cakes, cookies and breads. And here's a recipe for date waffles that go over big at any time:

Sift together 2 cups of flour, ½ teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons of baking powder. Add the yolks of 2 eggs, ¼ cup butter and 2 cups of milk gradually, then beat until the batter is perfectly smooth. Add 1 cup of chopped dates and egg whites, beaten until stiff, and bake as ordinary waffles. Serve with butter and honey. You'll have enough for six persons.

It's Convenient to Store Quantity of Frozen Bread

Most homemakers have acquired the habit of buying bread in quantity and storing in the freezer. Recent tests by the U.S. Department of Agriculture showed that up to six months, bread kept its freshness as well with its ordinary commercial wrap as with overwrapping. For the usual short time bread is stored, it will keep well with its own wrapping. For homemade bread, freezer-wrap should be used.

* * *

Another study showed that bread needn't be thoroughly thawed before using for bread or toast. If sliced loaves are used, the slices separate easily while still hard-frozen and they can be spread for sandwiches or put into toaster. Sandwiches made from frozen slices help to "refrigerate" the lunch box.

Rich Egg Bread Has An Interesting Filling

Baking bread is a most rewarding experience. Your family and friends are sure to enjoy every home-baked specialty you set before them.

Filled Egg Bread

2 packages yeast, compressed or dry
¼ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1 cup milk
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
5½ cups sifted enriched flour (about)
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
4 eggs
½ cup poppy seeds
¼ cup milk
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
⅓ cup finely chopped almonds
2 tablespoons grated lemon rind

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add butter or margarine, sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour and beat well. Add softened yeast and vanilla extract. Add eggs one at a time and beat thoroughly. Add enough more flour to make a moderately stiff dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1½ hours).

Meanwhile, add poppy seeds to milk. When dough is doubled, punch down. Divide dough into 2 equal portions and let rest 10 minutes. Add butter or margarine, almonds and lemon rind to poppy seed mixture. Mix well.

Roll each half of dough out to rectangle, 6 x 18 inches. Spread with about half of filling. Roll up into loaf shape and press edges together, securely to seal. Place in greased loaf pans 4½ x 8½ inches. Let rise until doubled (about 1 hour).

Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 40 minutes. Makes 2 loaves.

Won't Boil Over

When cooking macaroni or spaghetti, add a tablespoon or two of Spanish olive oil to the water. This prevents water from boiling over and keeps the strands of macaroni separate.

Freezer Can Offer You Variety of Garnishes

Dip small bunches of Tokay grapes in diluted lemonade concentrate, sprinkle lightly with sugar and crisp briefly in freezer. Arrange around roast poultry or lamb.

Its also easy to keep grated lemon or orange peel on hand. Store it in foil packages in the freezer so it will be ready to use for flavoring cakes, cookies, pastry, muffins, biscuits, pancakes or waffles. Green peppers, onions, parsley, celery can also be chopped and frozen in individual packages to save work when they are needed for cooking.

Authentic French Pates Will Star at Receptions

At gala receptions and parties during President Charles de Gaulle's visit to the United States, American cooks and hostesses will offer fine French foods and dishes made of ingredients bought at American supermarkets and specialty shops. French pate in infinite variety, usually served with chilled wines and cocktails, will make our distinguished French visitors feel at home.

* * *

Besides the classic pate de foie gras there are many delicious and inexpensive French pates available now in the United States. They come in small oval tins and are known by various names: pates, purees, or pate canape spread. The ingredients vary; some include pork liver as well as goose liver and goose fat; some contain brandy but all boast the delicate flavor of French truffles.

French Pate and Artichoke Canapes

Open two 14-ounce cans French artichokes bottoms; drain and place on rounds of buttered toast cut to fit the artichoke bottoms. Soften a 3-ounce package cream cheese and blend with ½ cup French pate with truffles. Place a mound on each canape. Garnish with chopped parsley. Makes 14-18.

Note: One 14-ounce can contains from 7 to 9 artichoke bottoms.

Pates in Pastry Crusts (Pates En Croute)

Fill 1½-inch baked tart shells or bought tart shell crackers with French pate with truffles. Garnish with pimento as desired. Brush aspic over the surface to prevent the pate from losing its pink color if tart stands for any length of time. Chill. To make aspic, soften 1 envelope unflavored gelatin in ½ cup cold water. Add 1 beef bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water. Cool.

* * *

Pate Canapes

Trim crust from slices of bread and cut each slice into 3 strips. Spread each with French pate with truffles. Sprinkle chopped hard-cooked egg yolks or whites down the center of each.

There's a Surprise Inside Hamburgers

Cordon Bleu Hamburgers

Ground lean beef
Swiss cheese
Sliced cooked boneless pork shoulder butt
Butter or margarine
Salt
Pepper

Make 8 thin round patties from each pound of beef. Have cheese and butt sliced about ¼ inch thick and slightly smaller in diameter than the patties.

Sandwich a piece of cheese and one of butt between 2 patties; work edges well with fingers to seal. Brown rapidly on both sides in hot butter in skillet; cook to desired doneness; serve on the rare side so cheese will not be too stringy. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and serve at once.

Hearty Spring Soup

The soft spring air . . . and you want to get outdoors. No need to let meal preparation stop you. For tonight's dinner let a hearty soup fill the bill. Combine a can of frozen condensed green pea with ham and frozen condensed cream of potato soup with 1½ soup cans of milk and water. Add a small can of drained sliced mushrooms; heat. Makes 4 delicious servings with a large fruit salad.

Tuna 'n' Cabbage

For a variation of the Stuffed Cabbage theme . . . combine flaked tuna with minced onion and rice; roll in cabbage leaves and bake in a sweet sour tomato sauce. Lay slices of lemon between each roll for that extra tang . . . and for a garnish, too.

Court Test Due for Annual Township Meetings

Troy Bogged on Sewage Plan

Sets May 13 Meeting on Financing Building of New Plant

TROY — In spite of an emergency meeting last night, the City Commission is still stalemated on how to resolve Troy's sewage disposal problem.

The closest commissioners could come to solving the city's dilemma was to propose construction of a sewage treatment plant — at a cost of approximately $2,600,000.

They scheduled a meeting for May 13 to consider a financing policy.

When yesterday's meeting was called, commissioners were hopeful of connecting laterals with the Warren Sewage Treatment Plant. But they were informed by Warren officials that facilities there wouldn't permit it.

"With the 12 Town Drain proposal up in the air, we have to do something on our own," said City Clerk J. Lawson Lockhart.

The 12 Town Drain would ease inadequate sewage facilities for a number of communities in the South Oakland area.

However, its construction is being held up by a suit brought by neighboring Madison Heights against the county drain commissioner over how that city has been assessed towards financing the drain.

The lawsuit has been filed in Circuit Court, but it is unlikely that there will be any decison before October.

Such a project would require a new tax specifically for the construction of the plant alone, he added. "Laterals and trunks would have to come after that.

There are two reasons why Troy must replace septic tanks with an over-all sewage system, commissioners feel.

For one thing, they have been informed by City Manager David W. Hasse that "the lack of necessary water and sanitary sewer facilities are beginning to restrict potential growth of the city."

In his 1960 budget message, Hasse noted that Troy's annual expected rate of increase in assessed valuation has been lagging.

It dropped $585,280 from 1957 to last year, he noted, and a further drop of $535,570 is expected by the end of the year.

The second reason is that Troy is undergoing a $2,300,000 school expansion plan calling for four new schools and additions to existing ones.

Sewage facilities at some of the existing schools already are inadequate, and the only way the School Board could get state permission to build new schools was to agree to haul sewage away by trucks until permanent facilities are available in the city.

"PICKPOCKETS" — Two Proper School pupils reach deep into the "apron lady's" pockets to see what prizes they will find. This is a preview of one of the many features at the school's annual Spring Fair from 4 to 8 p. m. Saturday. The "apron lady" is Mrs. Norval Wagner, and the youthful "pickpockets" are her nephew, Tommy Wagner, 7, a first grader; and Susan Tersigni, 7, a second grader. A high point of the fair will be the coronation of a king and queen to be chosen from fifth and sixth grade candidates. The school is on Baldwin road in Gingellville.

Area Vote Set on Abolishment

West Bloomfield Twp. Places Issue on Aug. 2 Primary Ballot

By JIM LONG

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—While Board members last night decided to seek voter approval of discarding the annual township meeting, they were told the legality of the meetings would be challenged in the State Supreme Court.

Before unanimously agreeing to place the abolishment of the annual meeting on the Aug. 2 primary election ballot, the Board learned from a former Pontiac Township attorney that he proposes to file suit on a number of charges to test the constitutionality of the annual meetings.

The attorney, Robert Hodge, told the Board if arrangements could be made by next week the suit would be filed then against the Pontiac Township Board.

"Possibly the outcome would set a precedent and the issue may not have to come before the people," Hodge said.

He maintains the annual meetings are in violation of constitutional civil rights.

"The Constitution makes it mandatory for a written ballot, and yet the annual meetings make no provision for an absentee ballot."

For that reason he said he would name his son in the suit since he is studying outside the country and has no representation in the annual meetings.

'STRIPS POWER'

"The annual meetings also temporarily take away the powers of constitutional officers, such as the township supervisor, clerk and treasurer," Hodge said.

"There is no safeguard for the purity of the ballot."

On April 2, when the state required that annual meetings be held throughout the county, Hodge, of the Pontiac Township meeting, moved that the meetings be abolished but was defeated.

At that time he used the vote to emphasize his point that a small group could establish policies that would influence all township residents.

'RIGHTS DENIED'

"A minority in the township now have voted to deny the rights of all citizens in Pontiac Township to vote on the abolition of annual meetings here," Hodge said then.

West Bloomfield's decision to seek abolishment of the annual meeting is not the first in the country. Both Waterford and Bloomfield Townships will place the issue before voters in the Aug. 2 primary also.

Officials in most townships agree that the annual meeting went out with the "horse and buggy" and are expected to bring it to a vote.

West Bloomfield Township Supervisor John Rehard said that at a meeting of township supervisors this week all seemed to be agreeable in abolishing the meeting.

"Those attending the annual meetings today represent a very small majority of the residents in the township.

"Because of the population growth, the meetings have become impractical in regards to the original meaning of the meetings.

"Those attending the meeting are not always concerned with the township as a whole, as they were years ago when the population was much smaller."

He said that the state gives the right to abolish these meetings through a vote, but only to townships with more than 5,000 population.

Return of Strikers Only Issue

Reopen Negotiation at Dynamic

TROY—Negotiations were reopened in Detroit yesterday between union and company officials of the strikebound Dynamic Manufacturers, Inc. and state and federal mediators. Another session is planned for later this week to seek settlement of the nine-week old strike.

Officers of Local 935, International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, AFL-CIO, say that under their contract with the company, seniority employes should be called back immediately when the strike is over.

According to local president Robert Rock, the company will bring back the seniority employes only as jobs "open up."

The union and company have agreed on the other areas of dispute, including wages and working conditions.

HIKE RATIFIED

The union membership has ratified the hourly wage hike of five cents, but the job return clause has stymied the acceptance of the whole package, Rock said.

No mention was made during yesterday's negotiations of picket line violence that occurred the day before.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said the strikers kicked the cars, used abusive language and pitched garter snakes through car windows.

Police reinforcements had to be called.

Charged with disorderly conduct for throwing nails on the road was Robert L. Bowen, 24, of 651 Cameron St., Pontiac. He was released on $50 bond and his trial was set for May 6.

Since Tuesday's outbreak of violence the night shift has refused to cross the picket line, Troy police said. Only the day workers and office help have been on the job.

A mere handful of strikers was picketing the plant entrance yesterday and today, according to police.

School Election June 13

4 Spots Open in Brandon

ORTONVILLE — Four positions will be open on the Brandon Board of Education in the annual school election June 13 because state legislation increases five-man boards to seven beginning with the 1960-61 school year.

Candidates may run for the two four-year terms available or for the two older three-year terms, according to Schools Supt. Burl A. Glendening.

Present Board members whose terms are expiring are Leslie Wright and Leary Q. Wood, both of whom are completing their second three-year terms in office.

Nominating petitions, which must be filed by 4 p.m. May 14, are available at the superintendent's office.

Glendening said residents signing petitions must be qualified, registered electors in the district and must sign only two petitions for each term of office.

Keego Assured Fire Protection 1 Month Only

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—A contract for fire protection services to Keego Harbor was renewed for only one month last night by Board members while a study is made of other communities providing a similar service.

The usual contract with the city is for one year.

The present contract calls for Keego Harbor to pay $3,200 a year for the service of the township fire department, and $75 a call after five runs and $25 for each resuscitator call.

Township officials felt that increased cost and new equipment for the fire department might make the proposed budget out of line if the cost of the service was not increased.

Rochester Development Corporation Authorized

By LEE WINBORN

ROCHESTER—Formation of the Rochester Area Development Corp. has been authorized by the local Chamber of Commerce to encourage industry and commerce to locate in Rochester and its environs.

Broad in its scope, the new non-profit corporation is empowered to "buy, sell, lease or mortgage property, borrow and lend money and perform other functions related to the economic development of the area."

It also is designed to advertise and promote the community and adjacent areas.

Already a subscription drive has been launched for a charter membership of 25 who will pay $100 for 20 shares of common stock in the corporation.

It is hoped that the charter members will include the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and other area service clubs, corporation planners said today.

As soon as the charter is drawn up, shares will be available to other groups and individuals in any amount they desire to raise the authorized capital of $50,000.

The next step will be the formation of a board of directors to be made up of nine stockholders who also are members of the local C. of C. The terms of office will be staggered to provide for a continuity of experience on the board.

FROM COMMITTEE

A president, vice president, secretary and treasurer will be elected from this group.

The new corporation is an outgrowth of the C. of C's 12-member economic development committee formed about two months ago. It was headed by Thurley E. Allen, who also is directing the affairs of the new corporation.

According to Allen, local people are donating their professional services free of charge to promote the corporation and its purposes. These include realtors, attorneys, and school and village officials.

Maintenance of a balanced tax base in the Rochester area also is one of the main concerns of the corporation.

At the group's meeting Tuesday night Schools Supt. Donald C. Baldwin explained the tax structure as it would be affected by the $3,100,000 school expansion program to be voted upon May 9.

The new corporation has the support of the Michigan Department of Economic Development which has been providing literature and helped form the new corporation.

Allen and local realtor Neil Hartwig will be attending the Small Business Administration conference in East Lansing today as representatives of the new corporation.

Rochester Lunch to Lose License; Has 11 Violations

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Lunch, located in the old hotel building on West University drive and Main street, is faced with loss of its license Dec. 31 because of 11 violations of the local health code.

The hotel restaurant was inspected April 8 by Oscar D. Boyea of the sanitation division of the Oakland County Department of Health.

Subsequently, a letter was sent to Mrs. Jane Camp, operator of the lunchroom, explaining the code violations. Most of them dealt with deterioration of the structure and failure to meet standards of cleanliness, according to Village Manager Paul York.

The condition of the whole building has been a matter of concern to the Rochester Village Council for many months.

The proposed license denial is the latest in a series of attempts on the part of the local and county governments either to upgrade the property or raze it.

Local officials have termed the building an "eyesore."

Canadian Legislator to Talk in Rochester

ROCHESTER — A member of the Canadian Parliament will speak to the local Kiwanis Club Monday in observance of the 39th annual U.S. - Canada Good Will Week, April 24-30.

He is the Honorable Arthur J. Reaume of Windsor, Ont.

According to Rochester club president Robert Smitha, one of the long-standing objectives of Kiwanis International is to foster continuing good relations between the two nations.

In keeping with this week-long event, a delegation from the local club will visit the Windsor club on Wednesday.

Today's farms are becoming more like small industrial plants, according to the National Safety Council — and they have some of the same safety needs.

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Hamlin School PTA has chosen to honor the 50th state by selecting Hawaii as the theme for its annual fair Saturday.

The school will be decorated with palm trees, tropical fish, pineapples and other flora and fauna of the islands.

The booths and concessions will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and food will be served all day.

VARIETY OF GAMES

Among traditional attractions will be all kinds of games for youngsters, parents and even grandparents.

A "spook house" will send tingles up and down the spine of everyone who "dares" to enter. And a busy time is expected at the make-up booth.

The country kitchen will feature home baked and canned goods, jams and jellies.

Climax of the annual event will be a Hawaiian dance program at 5 p.m. It will be staged by Marge Coker, Rochester dance instructor.

Fair proceeds probably will be used to buy books to start a school library, PTA officials said today.

To Urge Youth Attend Church in Rochester

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Area Youth Guidance Committee last night decided to slate a "Youth Sunday" sometime soon to encourage young people to attend the church of their choice.

The committee will ask the cooperation of the Rochester Ministerial Assn. in work on plans for special services on that day. The ministers also will be requested to mention the "Guide for Parent-Teen Cooperation" they have endorsed from the pulpit.

In the guide, family religious participation is deemed an aid to strengthening family unity. Support of the "Faith of your choice and respect of others" is encouraged as is the practice of brotherhood.

The parent youth guidance committee also is planning to reactivate its youth employment committee to help teen-agers get jobs after school and during summer vacations.

Farm Bureau Passes Membership Goal

The Oakland County Farm Bureau has racked up three firsts in successfully completing its membership drive this year, Campaign Chairman Jim Wilson of Rochester announced yesterday.

The local group ranked first in the Thumb District to surpass its goal which was 1,151 members.

Total membership is now 1,157 as compared to 1,146 last year. The local bureau also placed among the top 10 in the state in this respect, and was the first in the state to reach its goal.

The Oakland Farm Bureau consists of 20 area units that meet monthly to discuss problems of public interest and form opinions that often are voiced in state and national legislature.

The bureau's direct purpose is to promote economic equality, educational opportunity and social advancement of farm families.

Colavito, Cash, Kaline Homer to Beat Indians, 6-4

Take a Quick Look—Tigers in First Place

Bilko Gets 3 Hits to Help Detroit Cause

Rocky Slams Three-Run Blast to Knot Score in 4th Inning

CLEVELAND (AP) — Al Kaline's timely slugging has put the Detroit Tigers in first place in the infant American League race.

His homer into the left field stands in the ninth inning yesterday proved the winning run as Detroit whipped the Cleveland Indians 6-4 for a 2-0 record, half a game ahead of the defending champion Chicago White Sox. The Sox are 1-0.

In Tuesday's opener with the Indians, Kaline banged a two-run single in the 15th inning for the 4-2 victory.

Two men who were busts in the first game—new Tigers Rocky Colavito and Steve Bilko — also came through yesterday.

Former Indian Colavito, who went hitless Tuesday, banged a three-run homer in the fourth inning to tie the score. Bilko, also hitless in the opener, slugged three hits in four trips, including a triple that a fleeter man might have turned into an inside-the-park home run. The triple brought Colavito home with an insurance run after Kaline's clout in the ninth inning.

Cleveland jumped off to a three run lead in the third inning. The Indians loaded the bases on two walks and a bunt. Another walk issued by Don Mossi forced in a run. Vic Power doubled for two more scores.

Detroit tied it in the fourth. Casey Wise, playing second for Frank Bolling, got on base on a fielder's choice and Kaline singled. Then Colavito unloaded his only hit of the game, a round-tripper that hit the facing of the upper-left field stands.

Cleveland went back ahead in the fifth. Johnny Temple made it around to third after three errors by usually reliable Eddie Yost. The Tiger third baseman tied an modern Major League record for the most errors by one player in one inning.

Yost fumbled Temple's grounder and threw wild to first for two errors. Then Jim Piersall grounded to Wise and Yost fumbled the throw in an attempt to nail Temple. Walter Bond's sacrifice fly brought Temple home.

Newcomer Norm Cash blasted a pinch hit home run in the eighth to make it 4-4. He batted for Mossi.

In the ninth, Kaline homered. Then Colavito walked and Bilko tripled him home.

Tom Morgan was the winning pitcher for Detroit. He set the Indians down in order in the eighth. Paul Foytack hurled the ninth for Detroit as manager Jimmy Dykes continued to double up his starters with relief roles. Mossi gave up all four of the Cleveland hits.

Starter Jim Perry took the loss for the Indians. He was charged with all of the Tiger runs. Carl Thomas relieved him in the ninth.

Fullmer Still King After Bloody Draw

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—Champion Gene Fullmer's NBA middleweight crown still rested on his scarred and bruised brow today after tilting dangerously in a bloody slugging and butting duel with challenger Joey Giardello.

The officials ruled the wild, 15-round brawl Wednesday night a draw.

Giardello, a 3-to-1 underdog, chanted afterward "I'm the champion, I'm the champion!"

Fullmer ignored Joey's claim and said he'd never again fight the Philadelphia veteran who missed by a hair's breadth in his first title shot after 12 years in the ring.

"He doesn't deserve a rematch because of the way he butted me in the fourth round," Fullmer said. His manager, Marv Jenson, echoed the champion's stand. "When a guy butts like that, I have no feeling about giving him a rematch," said Jenson. "You might as well put a knife or gun in his hand."

"Sure, I butted him," Giardello said afterward in his dressing room. "But I only did it after he butted me."

Kessler, a St. Louis official, scored it 144-142 for Giardello. Judge Ray Evans of Butte, Mont., gave it to the champion 145-142. Judge Billy McFarland of Missoula, Mont., called it even at 145-145. The AP scored it 144-144 and even in rounds.

More than 12,000 fans who paid in excess of $110,000 crowded into the Montana State College fieldhouse for the nationally televised bout. They got their money's worth in the bruising slugfest that became the 39th draw in a title match. It was the first since bantamweight champion Robert Cohen of France and Willie Towsel of South Africa battled to a 1955 standoff at Johannesburg.

Fullmer, who just made the 160-pound weight limit, collected all the $100,000 television receipts. Giardello, 158¼, received $25,000 plus $5,000 expenses.

Confusion reigned at ringside for several minutes after the split votes of the referee and judges were announced. The status of Fullmer's crown remained uncertain until Sonny O'Day, chairman of the Montana Athletic Commission, stepped to the microphone and told the crowd: "The decision has to be a draw. Fullmer retains his crown."

Fullmer, becoming a real fighting champion, said his next bout probably will be in Salt Lake City June 15 against Carmen Basilio. The West Jordan, Utah, mauler won the title from Basilio at San Francisco last August.

The action was fast and furious in the early rounds. By the fourth, blood streamed down the faces of both fighters. Kessler's gray shirt and trousers looked as if he had just stepped out of a slaughter house.

Giardello peppered away with jabs around Fullmer's head while the champion countered with a relentless body tattoo which made Joey wince half a dozen times. Although both suffered heavy jolts throughout the battle, there were no knockdowns.

This was the 28-year-old Fullmer's second successful title defense and brought his record to 51-4-1. Giardello, 29, has an 83-17-6 mark with one no-decision.

A Battle of Bull Moose

Fullmer, Giardello Write 'Wild West' Chapter

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)— The wild and woolly west lives on. Gene Fullmer, a mink farmer from West Jordan, Utah, and Joey Giardello, a street fighter from Philadelphia, have added the newest chapter.

Enough blood flowed from Fullmer's gashed brow and Giardello's damaged eye last night to turn referee Harry Kessler's neat gray uniform into a butcher's apron.

This was a battle of two bull moose, hooked up in a tugging and shoving duel in the shadow of the snow capped Rockies. Each blamed the other.

"It was the most unsportsmanlike thing I ever saw in a ring," said Fullmer who retained his world middleweight title (NBA version) when he escaped with a draw.

"I butted him only after he butted me," said Giardello who now is claiming the title "because all those people think so." He referred to boos for the draw verdict from the big crowd at the Montana State College Fieldhouse where he was carried from the ring on the shoulders of his handlers amidst cheers.

Giardello told reporters he would fight Fullmer again only in the East.

Fullmer didn't pick up the gauntlet.

"If Giardello gets a chance to fight Paul Pender (champion in Massachusetts and New York) or Ray Robinson, he had better take it," said Marv Jenson, Fullmer's manager. "He won't get another chance to fight Gene. That was the most deliberate butt I ever saw.

"Harry (referee Kessler) must not have seen how deliberate it was or he would have stopped and disqualified Giardello."

Jenson was talking about a head-butting duel in the fourth when Kessler halted the fight for several seconds.

"I warned both men for butting," said Kessler just before he took off for New York by plane. "I stopped it because I wanted to get the fight under control. Both were claiming they should have won it."

When Kessler asked the men to shake hands and resume it, it appeared that Fullmer refused. Eventually, they did go back to work with a vengeance.

There was a rematch contract in case Giardello won, but Jenson's comments ruled that out of bounds.

Boston Slams Yanks, Nats Win

From Our Wire Services

A 7-1 trouncing of the Yankees by Boston yesterday left Detroit and the defending champion White Sox as the only unbeaten teams in the American League after only three days of action. Chicago was idle Wednesday.

Washington won its second game in three outings nipping Baltimore 8-7 in a night affair.

Jerry Casale held New York to five hits and drove in two runs in the Boston romp. Ron Jackson and Pete Runnels matched Casale with two hits apiece in a 11-hit offensive.

The Red Sox jumped on Bob Turley for five of their runs in the first two innings, scoring four in the second with the aid of Casale's two-run double.

A single by former Oriole Billy Gardner over the head of the second base rookie who took his place, drove in the winning run for the Washington Senators.

Gardner's drive over Marvin Breeding sent home Billy Consolo, who had tripled, with the deciding run in the eighth inning of the give-and-take game.

It was Gardner's second RBI of the game.

The Orioles scored four runs in the first inning on as many hits. The Senators tied it up with three runs in the second and another in the third.

Harmon Killebrew put the Senators ahead 5-4 with his first homer of the season in the fifth. The Orioles retaliated with three runs in the next inning to take a 7-5 lead, but the Senators tied the score their next time up when Allison's double knocked in two runs and his fourth of the game.

Tex Clevenger was the winner and Rip Coleman the loser. Jim Gentile of the losers had four rbi's.

McLucas Lost to MSU Grid Team Next Fall

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Ed Mc Lucas, senior tackle on Michigan State University's football squad, definitely will not see action with the Spartans this fall, team physician Dr. James Feurig said today.

Titans Make It 5 Consecutive Wins

HILLSDALE (UPI) — Dave De Busschere took credit for the University of Detroit's fifth consecutive baseball triumph yesterday, 10-4, over Hillsdale.

Glen Goode and Bruce Maher were the big men at bat for the Titans. Goode had a triple and single in three trips to the plate and drove in two runs. Maher had three RBI's and a triple and a double in his three attempts.

Shades of Bill Veeck!

DETROIT (UPI)—Opening day at Briggs Stadium tomorrow promised to be an attempt to "out-Veeck" Chicago White Sox president Bill Veeck, noted for his unusual displays and gimmicks.

Tiger president Bill De Witt said fireworks displays would also be held following certain night games during the season.

Red-white-and-blue drapings were to be hung on the lower and upper deck facings and at entrances outside the stadium for the opener also, De Witt said.

This will be the first fireworks display in the club's history and the first time the stadium has been decorated for an opener in many years.

St. Louis Hawks Sign Seymour as Top Man

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Paul Seymour is the new coach of the St. Louis Hawks, a job with the fastest turnover in pro sports.

Taking over the National Basketball Assn. post Wednesday, Seymour became owner Ben Kerner's 15th coach in 13 seasons and sixth in five years in St. Louis.

Some of Seymour's predecessors quit. Some were fired. Easy Ed Macauley took on a front office assignment, that of general manager. He remains a vice president, with voting rights.

Seymour, who resigned last month after four years as coach of the Syracuse Nationals, signed a three-year contract said to call for $20,000 a year.

Macauley still has a year to run on a three-year pact at about the same terms.

He piloted the Hawks to two regular season Western division titles in as many years. But his inability to control his players and to beat the Celtics and Warriors with any degree of consistency paved the way for the change.

Seymour, who left immediately for Florida to continue a vacation, made his presence felt even before Wednesday's announcement which had been predicted by The Associated Press March 25.

He addmitted he had suggested the recent trade that sent the Hawks' Bob Ferry to the Pistons for Ed Conlin. Actually, the AP learned, Seymour signed with the Hawks March 21 in Chicago.

"Conlin is a much better player than he proved to be with Detroit last year," Seymour said. "He'll be an excellent man behind Cliff Hagan because he can move the ball, too." Conlin broke into the NBA with Seymour at Syracuse.

Seymour said he plans to hold a training camp for rookies in June and work with John McCarthy and Si Green.

He said he thought he'd like the Hawks to play a more wide-open style of game, much like the Nationals played under him. To do so he must shore up the backcourt.

Seymour will be strictly a bench coach with the Hawks. He was a player-coach with the Nats three of his four years at Syracuse.

The hiring of Seymour was Macauley's first official duty as general manager. Macauley and Kerner said Seymour was Ed's choice to succeed him.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "My swing isn't just wild—it's weak!"

Two possibilities are then open to the golfer. He can go ahead and complete the swing with the club held in the manner shown in the illustration. That way he can logically expect to hit the ball weakly in any direction.

Or, he can regrip the club on the way down. That way he may hit the ball with some power. But he has next to no hope at all of hitting in the direction he wants it to go.

How can he know he is gripping the club right when he changes grips in mid-swing? He can't.

Grip the club gently but firmly to start the swing. Maintain some pressure in the last three fingers of the left hand. Then keep that gentle-but-firm grip throughout the swing.

McCormick Hurls 2-Hit, 1-0 Victory

WINNING FORM — San Francisco Giant pitcher Mike McCormick handed the Los Angeles Dodgers a 1-0 defeat by pitching a neat two hitter yesterday in San Francisco. It was his second win of the season and put the Giants in a tie for first place in the National League.

Giants Back in First Place With Dodgers

Redlegs Score Five in 10th to Win; Phils Bow to Pirates

By The Associated Press

It appears that Mike McCormick, after warming up on the Philadelphia Phillies for two years, is ready to start cutting loose against the rest of the National League.

The young left-hander, who had clipped the Phils for a third of his victories and four of his five major league shutouts, knocked off Los Angeles with a two-hit, 1-0 decision Wednesday that hoisted the San Francisco Giants back into a first place tie with the Dodgers.

Cincinnati, breaking up a tie with five runs after two were out in the 10th inning, rapped the Milwaukee Braves 10-5, and the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated Philadelphia 4-2 in the only other NL games scheduled.

McCormick, a one-time $65,000 bonus baby but now an old hand in his fifth season at 21, faced only 29 men. He gave up his only walk to leadoff man Jim Gilliam, then retired 15 in a row beore Maury Wills singled in the sixth. Gil Hodges got the other Dodger single in the seventh, but was cut down in a doubleplay.

Roy McMillan, who was 5-for-8 and drove in five runs, carried the fight through eight innings with a pair of homers for the Reds and then slapped a two-run single as they went ahead with three in the ninth. A pinch single by Ray Boone gave the Braves a tie in the ninth, but rookie Tony Gonzalez got the Reds rolling with a two-out single that cracked it in the 10th.

Ed Mathews' 30ist home run, second of the season, came with two on in the first for the Braves against Reds' starter Jim Brosnan. But Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, who came on in the ninth, couldn't keep the Reds quiet. Don McMahon (1-1) lost it while Raul Sanchez picked up his first decision after cutting down Milwaukee's ninth-inning rally by getting Joe Adcock on a ground out with the bases loaded.

Right-hander Vern Law won his second for the Pirates, running his shutout string through 15 innings before the Phils scored their two in the seventh. The Bucs, who scored one in the first on Don Hoak's single and a double by Bob Skinner, beat Don Cardwell (1-1) with Hoak's two-run homer in the fifth.

Title Draw 29th in Ring History

NEW YORK (AP)—The Gene Fullmer-Joey Giardello draw was the 29th such verdict in a championship fight since 1900 and the first since 1955, according to the Ring record book.

Bantamweight Champion Robert Cohen of France was held to a 15-round draw by Willie Toweel of South Africa in Johannesburg, Sept. 3, 1955.

The last previous tie in a championship fight in the United States occurred 19 years ago in NBA featherweight champion Petey Scalzo's defense against Phil Zwick at Milwaukee.

Two middleweight title fights also finished in draws. These also involved splinter titleholders.

Marcel Thil, of France, who was recognized as champion by the NBA and by the European Boxing Union, and Carmelo Candel fought to a 15-round deadlock in Paris, Oct. 15, 1934.

Ceferino Garcia, the New York recognized champion, drew with Henry Armstrong in ten rounds at Los Angeles, March 1, 1940.

Tag Finsterwald as 'Man to Beat' at New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The word was out today and most of the adjectives described steady Dow Finsterwald as the man to beat in the $27,000 greater New Orleans Open golf tournament.

Finsterwald, 33-year-old former PGA titleholder from Tequesta, Fla., is the No. 3 man in winnings on this year's tour with $21,000. And with some of the big guns like Arnold Palmer and Ken Venturi absent, he figured to be in the forefront.

But he added considerable substance to his role as favorite Wednesday by trimming four strokes off par with a 68 over the 6,589-yard City Park course in his final tuneup. And that was all needed to make him the man to fear.

Club Prexy Calls Snead 'a Mental Heavyweight'

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Edward Benjamin, president of the Star-mount Forest Country Club in Greensboro, N.C., Wednesday described San Snead "as a mental heavyweight who has developed a contempt for his fellow players."

"The PGA (Professional Golfers Assn.) should do something about it," Benjamin said in reference to Snead's attitude.

He said he would be happy if Snead played his golf somewhere other than Greensboro in the future.

Snead won the Greater Greensboro Open last week for the seventh time. The tournament, cosponsored the last 23 years by the Greensboro Junior Chamber of Commerce and the PGA, was played on the Starmount Forest Club course.

At the award presentation ceremonies, Snead criticized the condition of the course, calling it lousy and added:

"I hope it will finally get to Benjamin to do something about his golf course."

Benjamin, who maintains a house and has business interests here, replied to Snead's remarks in an interview with the Times-Picayune. Benjamin mentioned the record score of 270 Snead shot this year, saying, "It seems odd that if the course was in such bad shape that he (Snead) would break a course record that stood for 22 years."

Benjamin said the course was covered with snow until March 31 and "I feel it was remarkable we even had a tournament."

As for Snead's observation that the course hasn't been improved in 10 years, Benjamin said all the professionals who played in the 1959 tournament praised the condition of the course.

He called Snead's remarks an effrontery to the Starmount course.

Benjamin said other players paired with Snead in the tournament complained of the West Virginian's contemptuous action.

Thorne Wood, the first round leader, told him, Benjamin said, that Snead would putt out before the other players had a chance to putt and walk off the green with the gallery behind him.

Benjamin said Wood felt Snead's action hurt the concentration of the other players. Wood felt it cost him six strokes, Benjamin said.

While Gary Player was lining up his putt on the 18th green Sunday, Benjamin said, Snead started taking golf balls from his pocket and throwing them across the green to his caddie. As Player addressed his ball, Snead threw some clubs across the green to his caddie, Benjamin said. He said he wasn't at the award presentation but he saw the player incident.

Motor Inn Keglers Together 24 Years

By CHUCK ABAIR

Togetherness usually comes secondary to winning in sports but a Pontiac bowling team has refused to follow the trend.

Pontiac Printing Co. has had only one champion in 24 years in the Motor Inn "B" League yet all five members of the original quintet are still representing the firm on the alleys each Thursday night.

Owner Fred Heinecke, his brother, Hank, Bill Kelly, W. O. Armstrong and Roy Ward have performed as a unit all the way.

It has been 20 years since the Printers won the title—1939-40—and they are out of the running again this term, according to veteran Len Biallas.

Most teams, no matter what the game be, would have been changing personnel over and over during such a drought.

None of the team members have been world-beaters as individuals but each has held his own. Averages have naturally tailed off lately. Fred and Hank Heinecke now lead the pack with 155 and 150, respectively. Ward is scoring about 148, Kelly 145 and Armstrong 125.

Armstrong served as president of the loop for 12 years. Ward compiled a perfect attendance record over 16 seasons in one of the city's oldest loops. The "B" race started in 1930-31 with 10 teams. It had as many as 20 once and now totals 16.

The togetherness these fellows have displayed has not been limited to bowling. They are close in other ways. A hunting trip to the north woods is always one of their features.

Women Tee Off in Dallas Open

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A field of 40 moves out today in the first round of the richest Dallas Women's Open. The winning pro will take down $2,000 first money and any player shooting a hole-in-one on a par 3 hole will receive $10,000.

Tournament officials admit it's rather remote that anybody will bag the dodo but the fact remains that the pros, on the tour last year, registered three.

For the tournament itself favorites are almost as numerous as the golfers but the best bet seems to be that one of the four former champions — Patty Berg, Mickey Wright, Wiffi Smith and Louise Suggs — will take it.

Miss Wright, who posted a 3-over-par 74 in a pro-amateur Wednesday, said the 6,238-yard Glen Lakes Country Club course was playing well.

Broncos, Hoosiers Split

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — Western Michigan took advantage of five Hoosier errors yesterday for a 10-8 victory in the nightcap of a doubleheader after Indiana won the first game, 4-1.

It was Western's first win in its six-game baseball series here.

New High in ABC Event

Columbus Man Bowls 700

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Joe Ranalli, who barely finds time to bowl when he isn't working, provided the excitement in Wednesday's action in the American Bowling Congress tournament.

The 35-year-old Columbus, Ohio, resident fired an even 700 in the team series for the Sam Miller Dodge team of Columbus, the highest individual score to date in the team event.

Ranalli works from 7 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays as a welder and on weekends puts in shifts of 8 p.m. to 2 a.m. in his brothers' pizza restaurant.

The 700 came on games of 215-232-253. He had three splits in the big series and 25 strikes. It was his best total in seven ABC appearances and his third 700 of this season. His team, in last place in one Columbus league and fourth place in another, hit 2,977 Wednesday night.

The open division pacesetter was the Cemco Tool, Newark, N.J., with a 2,982.

There was no change in any of the standings in the tournament. Lincoln Protich, Akron, Ohio, who won the singles title in 1948, was off to a good start in his singles shift Wednesday with 237 and 223, but he concluded with 191 for a 651.

Chips Take Twinbill

MOUNT PLEASANT (UPI) — Central Michigan's baseball opened its home season yesterday with a double victory over Calvin College, 11-1 and 12-3.

Sam Licavoli gave Central the lead 6-2 in the second inning of the first game with a three-run homer and followed up with his second four-bagger of the year.

The double win gave Central a 10-5 record.

New Instrument Warns Boatman of Obstacles

CHICAGO, Ill. (NEA)—A dashboard instrument that can tell the pleasure boatmen how deep the water is beneath him plus how far ahead the shore is — this is one of the most interesting new announcements from the boat shows.

Called a Pilot Depth-Distance Indicator, the gadget has remarkable properties. Slide by side on its face are scales which read up to 140 feet. As the boatman heads home in the fog or dark, he will note the water getting more shallow as he nears shore. Then, when a navigation marker should appear ahead, he can check the other side of the dial and simultaneously read how far away it (or any other obstacle) is.

Considerable sensitivity is claimed for the instrument by Era Dynamics, which makes it in Cedar Grove, New Jersey. If a large school of fish swims below the boat, intermediate flickers appear on the depth dial showing how far to lower a fishing line.

The difference between a grassy bottom and one of hard rock will be indicated in the width of the reading.

But though the depth finders for the small boat have been available before, the proximinity reading of the instrument is an entirely new feature.

Projecting an inquiring "beam" just under the surface of the water, it indicates boats and buoys ahead and the shore as well, once the boat has approached within 140 feet.

Even floating logs and large pieces of debris are reported to show up on the dial as dim warning marks in time to allow the skipper to steer out of the way.

* * *

This is not radar, with its electronic picture of everything around the boat, but the gadget costs under $200, a fraction of the price of the smallest radar set.

The indicator weighs only three pounds, can use self-contained batteries to power its tiny transistors, and might even be installed on a rowboat.

A number of other makes of new depth finders have been announced, including a portable model which can be assembled at home from a kit. Even electric marine refrigerators which require less voltage to make ice cubes offshore are now available.

And for the water skier who really wants to have everything, an intercom is now produced which mounts a small waterproof microphone and speaker on the tow rope handle. Braided into the line is a wire leading to the towing boat, and the skier can call for turns and more or less speed instead of having to signal the tow boat driver.

Boating

Boats Come, Go— —Old Dory Sails

After all the fancy new boats have been announced for this year, one favorite for 1960 still looks much as she did 100 years ago.

* * *

This is the dory, as American as the codfish she used to catch off the Grand Banks of the North Atlantic. And she still has a special seaworthy appeal that doesn't get out of date.

Her historian, dory-designer John Gardener, reports that she was invented by Simeon Lowell of Amesbury, Mass., shortly after the American Revolution. Cheap to build, she was rugged, and capable of handling heavy hauls and rolling seas.

Thwart seats could be removed and a number of boats nested on the deck of fishing schooners sailing out from Gloucester and Marblehead, Maine ports, and Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, and even across from Portugal. In the morning one or two fishermen would row each dory off from the mother ship, work their handline trawls all day and at evening they might head back with 1,000 pounds of fish aboard.

Today's dories have retained most of the family traits. Wherries and peapods, Swampscotts, Amesburys, and Penobscots are names on the family tree that have produced the dory-skiffs and surf-dories of 1960.

The high pitched transom has been lowered to allow the ubiquitous outboard motor to be clamped on, and new structural methods have made the craft lighter and easier to handle.

Over the years dories have served successfully in both commercial and pleasure boat rolls. Banks dories were later modified and used by lobster fishermen along the New England coast. Weekends the same commercial craft were sometimes rigged with mainsail and jib for sailboat races in the harbors north and south of Cape Cod.

Smaller and lighter models proved fun to row until small motors began to replace oars as the means of propulsion for pleasure boating.

But for the fisherman today who ventures into rougher waters, the dory is still hard to equal. And the Coast Guard knows she has no fears for launching through curling surf when handled by experienced Guardsmen on the oars.

The dory in lineage is truly an American product, and in performance has proven herself seaworthy and sound — a likely candidate for 100 more years of service for the pleasure boatman.

New York Yacht Club Challenged

NEW YORK (AP)—George R. Hinman, commodore of the New York Yacht Club, announced Wednesday a challenge had been received from the Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron of Australia for a match race for the America's Cup in 1962.

Acceptance awaits the decision of a special meeting of the NYYC board of trustees April 28.

The last match for the trophy, which dates back to 1852, was in September, 1958, when the NYYC sloop Columbia retained the Cup by defeating the Sceptre of the Royal Yacht Squadron of England in straight heats.

Binoculars Aid in Navigation

By WM. TAYLOR McKEOWN
Editor, Popular Boating

Once a boatman sails out from shore, familiar landmarks blend into the horizon.

Navigation becomes more difficult.

On inland waters as well, numbered channel markers and flashing beacons can best be recognized with binoculars.

Modern improvements have come to optics as well as boats. Most recent are moderate cost, high-quality binoculars especially adapted for marine use which are being imported from Japan.

* * *

The new glasses are not extremely high powered. This would be a disadvantage on water. The pleasure boat skipper is looking out from an unstable platform. Strong glasses would make it difficult to aim them at a lighthouse and hold it in view while the boat is moving.

Instead of extra power, the new glasses offer an extra-wide field of view. They are water resistant, lightweight and have coated lenses.

What features should a boatman look for when buying binoculars?

For power, six to 10 is best. Opera glasses are usually only three power. Field glasses are slightly more.

For focusing, individual adjustment of each eyepiece is less expensive. Central focusing is better for marine use since it allows one hand operation. The time-honored sailors' adage says: "One hand for yourself and one for the boat." A central focusing model lets you adjust the glasses with one hand while holding onto a rolling boat.

For light gathering power, note the size of the front and rear lenses. A large diameter eyepiece indicates a bright image that will be useful at night.

SHIP AHOY! — New wide-angle binoculars make it easier for boating people to spot and hold in view distant navigation marks while keeping their balance on a rolling deck.

For lens coating check, see if there is a blue tint to the glass. Uncoated optics and prisms can cause up to 40 per cent loss in brilliance.

For best field of view, ask for wide angle or the new extra-wide angle models. With the same magnification, you will see a much broader view and find it easier to spot the target and hold it in sight.

For quality of construction, test the controls to be sure they move smoothly. Be certain that both images can be aligned into one clear picture. Reverse the glasses, look into the large lenses to check interior for any imperfections.

When you use binoculars on your boat, keep them on a strap around your neck for safety. Store them in their case in a dry safe place, or take them home if the boat cannot be locked.

Have a permanent shelf for them when you are under way so they are ready for use.

Outboard Motor Not a Luxury for Fisherman

A number of years ago, an outboard was considered a fishing luxury.

In those days, when backs muscle was a means of livelihood and a callus was even more common, a man didn't think anything about rowing a boat to his favorite fishing spots.

Today, this situation has changed. And three factors stand out—boats are different, fishing has changed, and man, himself, shuns rowing like the plague.

On a vast majority of boats built these days, oars are about as handy as five thumbs. Even if there are oarlock mountings on the gunwale, a modern outboard hull under "oar power" is about as graceful as a foundering barge. Oars simply won't do the job.

If a motor isn't necessary on big lakes and streams, then neither is a rod or reel. If you can't reach the fish, the finest tackle made won't fill a stringer.

Still in doubt? Try an hour on the oars in a headwind.

QUICK JOB—New plastics, paints and adhesive products enable boatmen to do fitting-out chores in less time. A permanent job is done under safer and more pleasant conditions.

Race Brings Talk of 4-Minute Mile

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Two of this country's most promising middle distance runners for the Olympic Games will tangle here Saturday in what may be the fastest mile race in the United States so far this season.

* * *

The runners are Dyrol Burleson of Oregon and the surprising Ernie Cunliffe of Stanford, this country's newest mile sensation.

Cunliffe burst upon the scene by running under 4:05 three times this season. His best was 4:02.3. That was 9 seconds under his best previous to this season.

Burleson's best in 1960 is 4:16.1. But that is not indicative of the Oregon sophomore's speed. He has run the mile in 4:05.4 indoors.

The Michigan Waterways Commission lists more that 520,000 boats in the state, which is 7 per cent of the nation's total.

Standards Set for Swimming

Water Safety at Camps

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—Water safety practices should be readily available to those new at camping, says Edward J. Slezak. He is aquatic supervisor in the University of Michigan's Department of Physical Education for men.

Slezak, in collaboration with the Michigan Department of Social Welfare, has developed a set of "aquatic safety standards for summer camps" which include:

—Swimmers shouldn't swim alone or at night or dive into strange water. They are also wise to learn swimming and rescue techniques.

—Divers shouldn't clown and should move forward only, into clear safe water.

—Lifeguards supervising groups should classify all swimmers as to ability.

* * *

—Water craft in camp need a spare oar or paddle, and should be used only in daylight by campers who have had instruction.

—Water skiers must wear life jackets and should pass swimming tests which include deep water falls, underwater swimming, treading water and floating.

—Boat trips on lakes or wide rivers should be navigated close to the lee shore, with the bow headed into the wind as much as possible.

New Products Make Fitting Easier

Boating is not far away, but the weather turns too rainy for painting and cold winds distribute chilblains about boatyards.

This is, in fact, a month when pleasure craft skippers across the country start painting, polishing and overhauling boats.

Modern improvements this year make fitting out even easier.

Marine paint companies are now producing liquid coatings that literally turns to plastic as they harden. Usually two ingredients must be used and once combined remain liquid only briefly before they start to harden.

Another innovation, is improved flexible sealing compound. Made from the same remarkable new Thiokol that fuels rockets, these new adhesives caulk seams tightly and expand and contract with the boat so that a waterproof seal is maintained.

* * *

Should your boat need repairs this spring, investigate the fiberglass kits. They can be used to patch a punctured hull, cover a worn rub rail to prevent chafing, or to be taken ashore to fix nonnautical furniture around the house.

The only drawback when an experienced boatman employs these items is that he may still believe the instruction sheets are unnecessary. These developments are not difficult to use when applied as the manufacturer intended, but their hard wearing qualities can also fight off paint removers, sandpapers and solvents.

The skipper who improvises his own methods may wish to sell his boat rather than try to correct mistakes he made while applying these wonder products.

Properly handled, the paints, adhesives and fiberglass may well be protecting your boat through a number of springs.

No Horseplay, Please

Teach Kids Water Safety

If yours is a growing family like ours, its likely one or more small fry will be aboard the family boat for the first time this spring.

Which makes it a good time for the Mercury outboard people to remind the parents of these midget mariners that the kids should start out with a sure understanding of a few simple safety rules.

First and foremost, make it a rule that the younger children must wear life preservers every second they're in the boat. The new life jackets designed for kids are light and colorful. The youngsters will get used to wearing them and your peace of mind will benefit.

Even when they get older, the children should continue to wear their life jackets until they know how to swim.

Horseplay has its place in the backyard, but not on the water. Explain to the kids that confined deck areas don't permit them to cut their customary capers. Ask them to walk, not run; fish, not fight.

* * *

At a surprisingly "tender" age they will be able to absorb many bits of nautical lore. Encourage this knowledge of the water as the key to safe boating.

Modern motors such as Mercury are controlled by just one lever. Since they are a lot easier to operate than the family car, kids are naturally anxious to take the controls.

By all means let them learn to handle the boat, but under your supervision. The younger kids should be made to understand that operation of the faster, more powerful outboards is something they shouldn't undertake on their own.

Your youngsters are among the luckiest kids imaginable, with a boat in the family. They'll enjoy it. Help them to a good, safe start. boating all their lives.

OUT YOU GO — Plate umpire Frank Dascoli points a finger toward the dugout as he ejects Redleg manager Fred Hutchinson from the game. Billy Martin (12) is in typical pose as he is restrained by coach Reggie Otero. Martin was ejected from the dugout and out of the game for too much heckling from the bench. The Redlegs beat the Braves, 10-5 in 10 innings.

Track Meets Highlight Prep Action

In a triangular meet at West Bloomfield, the Lakers took the honors with 59 5-6 points with Clarkston finishing second with 49 points and Holly third with 28 1-6 points.

Led by double wins by Tom Moran and Jack Newton, the Keego thinclads won seven first places. Moran won the broad jump at 21-feet 1¾ inches and the 440 in :55.1.

Newton won the 100-yard dash in :12.6, but the distance when checked turned out to be 120 yards. He also won the 220 in :23.7.

Clarkston's relay teams were the medley and 880-yard winners. The first places for Holly went to Hall in the low hurdles and Fox in the mile run.

At Fitzgerald High School, the Oakland B schools engaged in three dual meets.

Fitzgerald defeated Oak Park, 96½ to 12½ by winning all 13 firsts including a 45-feet 2½-inch shot-put by Bob Bagley for a school record.

Clawson won the last relay event to defeat Troy, 58-50, and Lake Orion defeated Madison, 65½ to 42½.

Madison's Lee Hill was an individual star as he won the high jump, both hurdles and placed in the broad jump. His low hurdles time of 21.8 was a school mark. He went 17.6 in the high hurdles.

Rocky Bronson of Troy was winner in both hurdles with 16.9 in the highs and 22.2 in the lows.

Although continuing to play good baseball, Waterford lost its 2nd decision in as many tries yesterday, a 5-2 setback at the hands of Berkley in Inter-Lakes activity.

Bases on balls are still Waterford's leading bugaboo. Three walks, coupled with only one hit, helped Berkley score three runs in the 5th inning to break a 2-2 tie and produce victory.

Each team collected seven hits with Mike Giannini making two for the Skippers. Jim Hoke was the starting and losing hurler with Len Schmidt relieving in the 6th.

Cranbrook's baseball team won its 2nd decision in three starts, a 10-0 rout of Royal Oak Kimball behind the three-hit shutout pitching of Roger Rothenburger.

★ ★ ★

Bill Mosher and Tom Demrick paced Cranbrook's eight-hit attack, Mosher socking three safeties and two RBI and Demrick accounting for two blows and two RBI. Kimball further aided the cause by committing six errors.

Wit Conrad's victory in the final singles match brought the Cranbrook tennis team a 4-3 verdict over Hamtramck. The Crane netters now have a 2-1 record.

Hot Night at West Side

The boys of the West Side Classic are still going strong and getting their share of the high games as the season rapidly comes to an end.

With four weeks left to bowl, the Bicmar Inn team has regained the lead, they relinquished a few weeks ago. This week they split with the strong West Side Lanes team to fend off one of their chief challengers. The boys from West Side won one game while the Bicmar boys were winning two game and total pins going to the West Siders. The line scores show West Side 1016 1152 1158 for 3326 while Bicmar rolled 1026-1033-1242 for 3303. The 1242 rolled is a new season high.

Other high games and series included Oakland Coin 1055 in 3025, Blue Cleaners had 1025 1070 in 3004 while Huron Bowl had a 1077 game and Cones Rental rolled 1055.

With a total of eighty-seven games over 200 pins and 26 series over 600, the high scoring was led by Joe Foster at 236-253-256 for 745 closely followed by John Nickell at 223-221-279-723. Frank Spadafore had 234-266-214 in 714 and Charlie Palaian had 244-267-198 for 709. These four 700 series boost the season output to more than forty series over the 700 mark.

NFL Players' Assn. to Discuss Pension

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Football League Players' Assn. opens a two-day meeting today with the pension plan topping the agenda.

Sig Hyman of Baltimore, chief actuary of the fund, will bring the players up to date on developments.

The fund — called the Player Benefit Plan by the league—was put into effect by the late commissioner Bert Bell several months before his death last October. It is part of a plan which also includes hospitalization, medical care and insurance.

★ ★ ★

One of the chief fund raising projects is a proposed game in the Orange Bowl at Miami between runner-up teams of the NFL's Eastern and Western conferences.

Wings' Player Hospitalized for Blood Disease

Doctors at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital estimated Mc Kenzie would be in the hospital about three weeks.

Red Wing general manager Jack Adams said the diagnosis was made last week when he sent the 22-year-old player in for a check-up because Mc Kenzie had showed signs of tiredness late in the season.

Mononucleosis previously put ace goalie Terry Sawchuk in the hospital in 1956 when he was playing for Boston.

WIBC Bowling Tourney Starts

DENVER (AP) — Brand-new pins will begin crashing tonight as the Women's International Bowling Congress opens its 42nd annual tournament.

Mae Bolt of Chicago holds the singles title, Sylvia Wene and Adele Ishpording of Philadelphia the doubles and a Detroit team the five-women championship, although under a different sponsorship this year.

Chargers Slate Four Exhibition Games

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Chargers announced Wednesday they will play four pre-season games in 1960, three at home and one on the road.

The American Football League club will make its first appearance Aug. 6 when it meets the New York Titans of the AFL at Memorial Coliseum. The Chargers will play another Coliseum game Aug. 11, against the Houston Oilers, then go north to meet the Oakland Raiders Aug. 19. They'll wind up their pre-season schedule here Sept. 2 against the Denver Broncos.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The infant son of Detroit Tiger second baseman Frank Bolling, born two months prematurely Tuesday, was placed in an incubator and listed in serious condition.

The infant was named Michael Alexander Bolling. He has a brother 14 months old and a sister, 5.

Firms Diversify for Protection

By WILLIAM FERRIS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK—You can't tell a company by its name any more.

You might think, for example, that Hotel Corp. of America just ran hotels. Not so. It will also sell prune juice.

Or maybe you believe General Dynamics just engages in fancy space age stuff. Not so. It will also sell you a load of ready-mixed concrete.

Or perhaps you feel the company which sells you coal, Philadelphia & Reading, has no other ideas for keeping you warm. Not so. It also sells underwear.

Diversification is a product of the post World War II industrial boom.

It's not exactly a new idea. One of the company's first corporations, the Society for Useful Manufacturers (SUM), founded in 1791, planned to make everything from women's shoes to pottery — and run on the side "a brewery for the supply of the manufacturers."

(The company had some good ideas, but nevertheless lost money. Its manufacturing operation ceased in 1796. It continued as a real estate firm until it dissolved in 1945).

When J. P. Morgan put together United States Steel Corp. in 1901, he pushed it into many fields — although all with the aim of selling steel.

U.S. Steel then—as now — not only operated blast furnaces, but mined iron ore ,ran its own railroads and had its own fleet of ships. So diversification isn't something invented by this generation of business leaders.

However, since World War II diversifications has become more popular than ever before.

When National Distillers went into chemicals by buying U.S. Industrial Chemical, an executive explained, "We decided we didn't want to put all our eggs in one whisky bottle."

The modern argument for diversification has been well stated by Willard Rockwell, chairman of Rockwell Manufacturing Co. He said:

"A company tied to one industry, operating in one plant, is too vulnerable. One soft market, one bad fire, one strike, and profits are suspended, people are laid off, dividends stop. At the worst the company is out of business."

MERGERS HELP

Size gives a company ability to marshall its capital, credit, executive talent, research facilities. It also helps attract junior executives with high ambitions.

Some diversifications have been forced by law. Pullman, Inc., was required to divest itself of its sleeping car business. It bought M. W. Kellogg Co., which constructs processing plants, and Trailmobile, Inc., second largest producer of truck trailers.

Companies in heavy goods industries have diversified to get away from extreme booms and busts of the business cycle. Typical is Baldwin Locomotive Works, which once made only locomotives but now makes many things including street sweeeprs. It's Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton today.

An unusual diversification motivator is the income tax. A company with a large loss acquires a profitable firm and the combined firm uses the tax loss carry forward to reduce its taxes and swell its profits.

Thus Botany Mills, Inc., after a couple of miserable years, got out of woolens and went into such lines as dolls, gas well supplies and suntan lotion. It changed its name to Botany Industries, Inc.

Some companies appear to have tried to move as far away from their original fields as possible. A.S.R. Products Corp., second largest manufacturer of safety razors and blades, now also makes controls for guided missiles.

Some diversification projects are rejected as a little too fantastic. Studebaker-Packard Corp. and the New York Auction Co., which sells raw furs on a commission basis, tried for many months to get together on merger terms. They broke off the romance last year when they admitted their businesses were too far apart.

Boom Fizzles —No Stimulus

Inventory Pile, Capital Outlays Not Holding Up Well Enough

NEW YORK (UPI) — The 1958-1960 boom appears to be dwindling for lack of a new major stimulus to economic growth, says Prentice-Hall.

Inventory accumulation, now ending, is too temporary and erratic a stimulant while expected gains in new plant and equipment outlays are not big enough, P-H states in its weekly report on business.

"Nor can consumers alone turn the trick—well-strapped as they are with debt, and buying as they are pretty close to the limit of their slowly rising spendable income," it adds.

Rohm & Haas is a well-run, medium-sized chemical company with an excellent record, reports Standard & Poor's Outlook.

". . . Despite the lofty level of the stock—730 on the New York Stock Exchange (which suggests the possibility of an eventual stock split)—the issue is an attractive commitment for capital appreciation."

Kenneth Ward of Hayden, Stone & Co. selects five stocks he feels are in a relatively strong position to reach still higher price levels: Amphenol-Borg, Daystrom, Varian Associates, Magnavox and P. R. Mallory.

McNeil Machine & Engineering Co. offers above average prospects for capital gains in the market, Winslow, Cohu & Stetson reports. "The contemplated acquisition of the F. Myers & Bros. Co., plus a large backlog of unfilled orders should result in a substantial increase in 1960 earnings," the securities firm says.

State Cattle for Market Increase 16 Per Cent

LANSING (UPI) — The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said today the number of Michigan cattle and calves on feed for market indicates a jump of more than 16 per cent from last year.

An estimated 125,000 head were on feed April 1, the service said.

This compares with 108,000 head last year at the same time. About 2,000 head were marketed as short fed animals before April 1, the service said.

Some 15,000 head were expected to be marketed in April, 20,000 head during May and 22,000 head during June. About 68,000 head were expected to be marketed after June 30.

With Alaska and Hawaii in the union, the geographic center of population had a westward shift. It was last placed in South Dakota, at a point 17 miles west of Castle Rock in Butte County. This point is 14 miles east of the junction of the borders of South Dakota, Montana and Wyoming.

Prices Mixed After Decline

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices were mixed early this afternoon as the list steadied following two days of sharp decline. Trading was moderately active.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among leading issues.

American Telephone, which fell 4% yesterday on word that no immediate boost in the dividend was contemplated, was off nearly 2 points for a while before reducing the loss slightly.

A number of assorted blue chips which have been under recent selling pressure steadied and recouped a part of their losses.

Some of the electronics made fair upside progress. Oils and aircrafts declined. Most other groups were mixed.

Some stocks responded to better earnings. An encouraging item was the report that gross natural product is running at a record annual rate, seasonally adjusted.

Ford jumped a point following news its first quarter earnings reached a new high for the period. Most other auto stocks were easy. American Motors dropped a fraction.

Pontiac Twp. Boy in Hospital After Accident

A 14-year-old Pontiac Township boy was in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital today. He was injured yesterday afternoon when his motor scooter ran into the rear of a car on Auburn road in Avon Township.

Troy S. Scott Jr., 5151 Auburn Rd., Pontiac Township, told the sheriff's deputies he failed to see a car ahead of him stop for a turn.

He was admitted to the hospital for observation of a possible concussion and leg injuries.

The accident occurred on Auburn road east of Harvey street.

In an election granted by the Board of Trustees, the nurses voted 43 to 34 to be represented by Local 100 of the union. Of 108 employes eligible to vote, 77 cast ballots.

The union already represents about 250 of the hospital's employes. Practical nurses now have an individual choice about joining the organization.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—An infant son of Frank Bolling, Detroit Tigers second baseman, died today.

The child was born Tuesday, two months prematurely. He had been kept in an incubator since birth. Mrs. Bolling's condition was described as good.

The couple has two children, a girl, 5, and a boy, 14 months.

Grain Futures Firm; Ireland Buys Corn

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures showed a slightly firmer trend but soybeans resumed their prolonged slide today in early dealings on the board of trade.

Corn moved up major fractions in spots as dealers hear reports that two vessels had cleared Chicago docks overnight with cargoes of corn and that Ireland had bought a moderate amount for shipment next month.

Soybeans, in their third week of fairly steady selling pressure, were off small fractions on old crop months. Weakness in the by-products apparently induced further liquidation.

Lathrup Physician Dies in Car Crash

Dr. Peter E. Tuynman, 41, of 18781 Delores St., Lathrup Village, was injured fatally early this morning when his car skidded off a road in Allen Park and struck a tree.

* * *

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Peoples Community Hospital, Lincoln Park.

* * *

Allen Park police said Dr. Tuynman's car was exceeding the speed limit on Outer Park drive when he failed to negotiate a curve near Veteran's Hospital.

They said the doctor's medical bag was in the car, indicating he may have been answering a late call. The accident occurred at about 2 a.m.

Mitchell for Smaller Wage Floor Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary James J. Mitchell recommended today that Cohgress grant a "moderate" increase of 10 to 15 cents in the $1-an-hour federal minimum wage.

Mitchell also called for extending the wage-hour law coverage to some three rmillion additional workers, mostly in the retail trade.

He rejected as too "extreme" a Democratic bill to boost the wage floor to $1.25 and extend coverage to an extra eight fmillion workers.

Man Stabbed in Street Fight With 2 Youths

Frank Land, 20, of 110 Raeburn St., suffered a knife wound of the back on a street fight at Auburn avenue and Paddock street early today.

Land told Pontiac police he was walking along Auburn at 2:30 a.m. when several youths in a car passed him several times, hurling insulting remarks.

* * *

One threw an empty beer bottle at him, Land said.

He told officers that two youths, about 18, jumped from the car at the intersection, and that he was knifed in the scuffle which followed.

Pontiac General Gets $82,000 'Windfall'

Pontiac General Hospital finances received a big shot in the arm today through a $82,000 reimbursement from Michigan Hospital Service (Blue Cross).

The cash represents the amount by which the hospital underestimated last year the patient expenses which the hospital insurance company would underwrite.

Harold B. Euler said the entire sum represents a windfall in the conservative "break even" budget being followed this year.

"The reimbursement was not completely unexpected," he said. "But because of the nature of the Blue Cross plan, we never be entirely sure exactly how much the company is going to underwrite our expenses on a per-patient basis.

* * *

"In order to put the hospital on a sound basis financially, we have estimated all our budget items very conservatively."

The $82,000 may prove to be the biggest single factor if the hospital shows a profit at the end of the year.

Last year, the insurance company decided it would reimburse the hospital for treatment to its policyholders at a rate of $40.23 per patient per day.

In the budget, the hospital estimated this rate would drop during 1959 to $39.75.

But after a yearend audit just completed, Blue Cross decided its reimbursement rate for last year would be $39.95, or 20 cents more than anticipated on approximately 60,000 patient days policyholders spent at the hospital last year.

In addition, Euler added, Pontiac General benefited from the company's decision to reimburse hospitals for expenses last year at a rate of 102 per cent of actual cost.

Red China Bans Export of News

Papers Serve West as Source of Intelligence —Regime Is Worried

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —A recent announcement that Communist China has banned the export of all newspapers and magazines except Peiping's official paper, the People's Daily, and certain propaganda publications written specifically for international readership, can be explained in terms any Westerner would understand—quite simply, one does not wish to wash his laundry in public.

To Peiping's chagrin, she has found that even the least important of her provincial newspapers have been extensively read on the other side of the "Bamboo Curtain."

When data from one paper are pieced together with data from others, a basic research phase of international intelligence can be accomplished by deskbound students of the China mainland, who need hardly stir from their offices.

PROPOGANDISTS

It would be a misnomer in western terms to call the mainland Chinese press a medium for news as such. It is no longer novel to point out that the entire staffs of mainland newspapers are public relations flacks for the regime—in a word, propagandists.

The criticism of high secondary officials and policies to a limited extent, as happens in the Soviet Union, is hardly allowed at all in China, except to fight "rightist" tendencies thought to be appearing in the acts and policies of minor government organizations or groups that may have strayed out of line.

In Hong Kong, Washington and numerous American universities the press of Communist China is closely scrutinized. The papers reveal much more about life on the China mainland than might be supposed.

* * *

Editorials criticize the production of wheat, corn and rice at A, B and C communes, the moral of factory workers at D and E factories, the need to increase "awareness and participation" in "study meetings" of comrades in F and G villages.

Finding This Burglar Intrigues Criminologist

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Criminologist Merris W. Duncan had a personal interest in a burglary being investigated by Phoenix police.

Duncan said an intruder ransacked his home and stole some jewelry, an electric razor and a pair of shoes.

RIVIERA ANNIVERSARY — Princess Grace of Monaco cuts the four-candled cake at Monaco Tuesday as the former screen star and her spouse, Prince Rainier, celebrate their fourth anniversary. The one-time glamor girl from Philadelphia, now the mother of two children, quit her movie career to become the first lady of the tiny municipality on the French Riviera.

To Stress Safety and Licensing

Bicycle Parade April 30

Hey kids. It's bicycle safety time again.

Each year the Pontiac Optimist Luncheon Club, working in cooperation with the Pontiac Police Department sponsors a bicycle parade to highlight the spring bike licensing and safety campaign.

* * *

This year's event will be Saturday, April 30, at 10 a.m. from The Pontiac Press to Pontiac Central High.

But you'd better jump on the bandwagon. It started rolling this week with policemen making appearances at most area schools, giving bicycle safety talks and handing out license applications.

The forms are check lists for Mom and Dad. They'll check your bikes for proper steering, brakes and other safety factors, and if the bike's in tip-top shape, they'll sign the application and send it back to school with you.

HELPS NIP THIEVES

All you need is the application signed by your parents plus 25 cents, and you'll be a licensed rider.

Police point out that licenses are extremely valuable in finding and identifying lost or stolen bicycles.

Once licensed next week, children will be eligible for the big parade. The object is to decorate each bike, making it as colorful as possible.

Prizes will be awarded in different classifications for the best dressed bikes, and Optimists will give two grand prizes, one for a boy and one for a girl.

After forming on West Huron street between Wayne and Pine streets, contestants will parade to the high school wheer a safety film and program will take place while judges are picking the winners.

* * *

Western Villain Hurt as Powder Blows for Real

Actor Edwin Nelson, 30, playing the villain, supposedly was about to blow up a miners' camp.

But something went wrong. The gunpowder flared up and burned Nelson in the face, hands and chest.

* * *

Also burned was actor Fred Essler, 65, who was supposed to try to restrain Nelson.

The sequence for the weekly "Tombstone Territory" series was being filmed Wednesday at the Bronson Quarry in the Hollywood Hills.

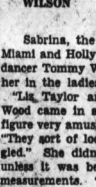
Jackie, the Commoner, Sputters at Royal Snub

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Your old TV chum, Jackie Gleason, who says he's a commoner, in fact one of our commoner commoners, is sputtering about European royalty snubbing Princess Margaret's wedding.



WILSON

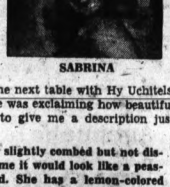
"How about those bums?" Jackie exploded.

"They went to war with Hitler because he tried to set up a super-race. They turn around and set up super-families. They won't let a commoner integrate with them. Here's a girl who tries to lead a decent life. She decides to marry a poor man—and they turn on him because he wasn't born with a silver scepter in his hand. They're going to make being poor popular!"

* * *

Sabrina, the chesty British beauty who came here from Miami and Hollywood and is developing a night club act with dancer Tommy Wonder, told me a strange thing happened to her in the ladies' room.

"Liz Taylor and Natalie Wood came in and found my figure very amusing," she said. "They sort of looked and giggled." She didn't know why, unless it was because of her measurements. "Whatever Jayne Mansfield is, I'm half an inch more," Sabrina announced.



SABRINA

Greta Garbo was brunching with great Hollywood hair stylist, Sidney Guilaroff. I was at the next table with Hy Uchitels. Actress Luba Malina at our table was exclaiming how beautiful Garbo looked—so I asked her to give me a description just for you lady readers.

"She has sable brown hair slightly combed but not disgustingly so," Luba said. "On me it would look like a peasant but on her it looks good. She has a lemon-colored neckerchief, a sable brown cashmere sweater, sable brown wool coat to match, a man's ring with a tremendous diamond, a very tailored sable brown watch, another ring that looks like a fraternity ring. But what I especially like is her magnificent nose."

I asked, "Is she wearing her nose different this year?"

Dems Come Up With Aged Plan

May Break Deadlock; Lists Optional Hospital Benefits at 72

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Six house Democrats came up Wednesday with a new compromise designed to break a congressional deadlock on the politically-potent issue of providing prepaid medical care for the nation's aged.

* * *

Their proposal, worked out in rough form at a caucus, called for an optional hospitalization program incorporated in the social security system. Beneficiaries could choose either medical benefits or a small increase in cash retirement payments.

Some sources said the voluntary approach was certain to break a Democratic deadlock in the House Ways & Means Committee. Others who attended the caucus said chances were better than 50-50, although no formal commitments had been made.

The huddle was called by Chairman Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark), one of the six Democrats whose opposition earlier blocked Ways & Means approval of a broader measure sponsored by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-RI).

* * *

The Forand bill would place medical care on a compulsory basis under the social security program, and would provide far more extensive benefits than the compromise plan.

It is opposed by President Eisenhower who termed it a step toward socialized medicine.

The votes of four of the six Democrats who voted against the Forand Bill is needed to push the new plan through the committee if all 10 Republican members oppose it.

No attempt was made at the caucus to reach final agreement on details of the compromise measure.

It was decided, however, that the proposed hospitalization benefits would apply only to older persons drawing retirement benefits — possibly not taking effect until age 72.

The insurance would pay only part of a patient's hospital bills. It would not take effect until he had been in the hospital for a given period, possibly up to seven days.

16 Midshipmen to Take Commissions in Army

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP) — Sixteen U.S. Naval Academy midshipmen took a close look at the life they'll lead in coming years —in the Army—during an all-day visit here Wednesday.

The Middies, from all parts of the United States, have decided to take commissions in the Army upon graduation from Annapolis in June.

Every State Department Could Use a Maria Schell

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—If I owned a state department, I think I'd hire Maria Schell as a globe-trotting troubleshooter.

* * *

I'm sure her ability and her radiance would solve all problems.

Working out of the Kremlin's state department in last night's ABC-TV production of "Ninotchka," Miss Schell proved to be the best thing about the uneven, flavorless production.

In fact, her performance in the tricky title role was one of the best I've seen all season.

SATIRE CROWDED OUT

Roger Hirson's adaptation of the famed Gret Garbo film vehicle, circa 1939, seemed to have less bite, less free-wheeling comedy, too much mellowness.

The boy-girl emphasis crowded out the satirical touches that distinguish this sort of play.

As Ninotchka, arriving in Paris to expedite the sale of some jewelry for her impoverished Bolshevik government, Miss Schell first appeared as a no-nonsense, unsmiling, unfeminine martinette.

* * *

She wore a severe uniform, hair-do to match, and showed a keen interest in such things as the sewers of Paris.

"Healthy sewers indicate a healthy city," she snapped.

She also told a bellhop that his job amounted to social injustice and the bellhop's reply, one of the few attempts at dialectics in the show, was "That depends on the tip."

* * *

The only fault I could find with this part of Ninotchka's facade involves her shoes. High heels on a hard-headed commissar?

The job of turning Ninotchka into a female, feminine dame went to Gig Young, portraying the agent for the owner of the jewels, the Grand Duchess Swana.

WOMAN IN LOVE

Before long, Miss Ninotchka was smiling, then laughing, then buying frilly gowns and flowery hats. Voila! A woman in love.

When Miss Schell began moving her hands more gracefully, wearing her hair down, opening her collar, moving her head as she spoke, abandoning the bland, bureaucratic tone of voice, we knew the transformation was completed.

As this evolution took place, Miss Schell flawlessly mastered each of her scenes. Her moves and accents, both implicit and explicit, were superbly drawn.

* * *

I was especially captivated by a restaurant scene in which she cracked her first smile and tittered her first laugh. It was wonderfully contagious, believable and captivating.

Zsa Zsa Gabor, as the duchess, was fine when called upon to deliver serene lines, in trouble when anger or annoyance were required of her.

Young, generally excellent, sometimes went in for excesses of charm. Henry Lascoe, Leon Belasco and Mischa Auer hammed it up attractively as the bungling trade ministers from Moscow.

Gerald Hiken, as a Soviet passport official with a primary vocabulary of two words, "No visa," squeezed a great deal of humor out of his small role. The play needed more of his style.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "The Danny Thomas Show" is the latest nighttime series to join NBC-TV's daytime schedule. In a seven-million-dollar deal, the network begins rerunning some 250 episodes next fall.

"Swing Time," described as a one-hour salute to teen-agers, is set for ABC-TV Monday, June 27. With Pat Boone as emcee, the show will feature Paul Anka, Frankie Avalon, Bob Denver, Fabian and Annette Funicello.

Doctors Differ in Pecho Slaying

City Pathologist Says Convicting Testimony Was Erroneous

LANSING (AP)—How far was the tip of the gun barrel from Mrs. Eleanor Pecho when she died from a shotgun blast in the chest 5½ years ago?

* * *

Dr. Charles E. Black, Williamston pathologist whose testimony helped send her husband to prison for second degree murder, said it was at least 15 inches away.

Dr. Richard E. Olsen, Pontiac pathologist who joined in Pecho's bid for freedom last year, said the barrel was held directly against her chest.

Conflicting views of the two specialists yesterday closed out a dramatic two-day hearing on the Lansing factory worker's plea for a pardon from Gov. Williams.

* * *

The State Parole Board, which conducted the hearing, probably will submit its recommendations to the governor next week, said Roy H. Nelson, board chairman.

A jury convicted Pecho, 41, in the killing of his wife after an early morning argument at their Lansing home June 9, 1954. He has twice been denied a new trial.

The slim, dark-haired factory worker, who has steadfastly maintained his innocence, sat silently through a six-hour session as Black and Olsen presented their theories.

Absolute zero has been fixed at -459.6 degrees Fahrenheit. In theory, absolute zero is reached when all molecular motion ceases.

HE RE-GREW HAIR

Before Erickson Treatment — A Few Months Later

Hair Specialists Here Tomorrow; Will Show How to Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

New home treatment methods for saving hair and improving its growth will be demonstrated in Pontiac, Michigan on Friday, April 22nd, 1960 only.

Consultant L. E. Schroer will be in charge, representing the dynamic Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists organization. He will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 11:30 to 7:30 p.m., Friday at the Waldron Hotel. Phone: FE 5-6168.

At the home office of the Erickson organization, a new, even more successful method of treatment was announced—a treatment that you can easily administer yourself at home.

This new treatment is neither "mail order" nor "cure-all." It is adapted to the individual after a personal examination and progress is checked at regular intervals by an Erickson expert.

Who Can Be Helped?

For many years now Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists have been checking the hair of thousands of people across the country. They have encountered and dealt with hundreds of cases of every kind of hair trouble. From this experience has grown the body of scientific knowledge leading to the development of the new Erickson home treatment.

Will the new Erickson treatment cure baldness? "No!" For we cannot help men and women who are slick-bald after years of gradual hair-loss. But if you still have fuzz and your scalp is still creating hair, you can at least save and thicken what you have. Some conditions, such as "spot baldness" usually have complete coverage if caught in time!

Other conditions that usually bring on excessive hair loss—dandruff, itching, over-oiliness or dryness, follicle clogged with sebum or seborrhea—can be corrected by the Erickson home treatment if caught before the "hair factories" are destroyed.

Evidence of the success of the Erickson method is that the organization has expanded to hundreds of cities in 32 states.

The most important thing is: "Don't wait until it's too late."

Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) skepticism and (2) procrastination. The average balding person justifies his condition with one or the other of these two statements:

"I don't think anybody can stop hair loss"—or "Oh, I'm going to see an expert when I get around to it."

Baldness won't wait for doubters to be convinced or for procrastinators to take action later. You're going to keep right on losing hair till you're bald . . . unless you get your scalp in healthy, hair-growing condition again.

Satisfy 95%

"Actually, our biggest problem is not in doing what we claim," says D. W. Erickson, director of the organization, "for we satisfy at least 95% of our clients which, when you consider that almost every person is a 'doubter' or a 'putter-offer' where hair is concerned, is an excellent showing. Getting these doubters and putter-offers to come in for an examination is really the problem."

Examine You Free

We want to make it clear that you incur absolutely no charge or obligation by coming in for an examination.

Your only obligation is to yourself to ease your mind of hair worries by learning how to save and thicken your hair at home. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost.

Hopeless Cases Refused

Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists have established a very high reputation in the field for refusing any case that does not fall under the scope of its work. In the majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss (a condition sometimes described as male pattern baldness—has been identified as such), Erickson treatment is of little or no value, and again we state ERICKSON WILL CONTINUE ITS POLICY OF REFUSING ALL HOPELESS CASES.

Guarantee Satisfaction

The Erickson Hair & Scalp Specialists will give you a written guarantee that you must be satisfied within 30 days or it costs you nothing.

You won't be obligated or embarrassed in any way. Examinations are given in private. Hours are from 11:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Many Counters Quit Census Jobs

By United Press International

Many of the nation's noses remained uncounted today because some census takers got tired of counting.

* * *

Census Bureau spokesmen around the country reported that up to 10 per cent or more of the counters had quit because of low pay, bad weather and too much work caused by the population explosion.

One Frankfort, Ky., counter ran into an unexpected hazard when a man chafed at the questions and punched the pollster in the eye.

The dropouts, combined with the normal seige of mid-April foul weather, slowed nose-counting in many areas by as much as a week.

Chicago District Director James O'Neill said he had lost 300 counters, mostly through bad weather.

* * *

"If people have to fight rain and snow on a strange job, they aren't as likely to stay as they are if there is pleasant spring weather," he said.

QUIT BEFORE START

"After we trained the crew chiefs, some of them looked out at the rain . . . and called in to quit, even before starting to work," he said. "I had to order jeeps to get them through the mud."

Low pay and the population boom also were factors, O'Neill said.

He said Chicago-area counters had already canvassed 102.8 per cent of the estimated population and still had plenty to go. Forms were running low. "I've had as many as 60 sitting idle at one time waiting for material."

"We had a girl in an industrial section working on a piecework basis," O'Neill said. "She canvassed the area and made 47 cents. It took her four hours."

* * *

In Conroe, Texas, a spokesman told about a counter who "drove the wheels off her car for two weeks" and made $38. Two other counters and a supervisor also quit in Conroe.

A Louisville, Ky., director said many of the counters thought the job "was a political plum and then found they had to work."

At Hopkinsville, Ky., a counter was stymied by five families who found questions on flush toilets a "mite too embarrassing" to answer.

* * *

St. Louis officials reported that several owners of unlicensed rooming houses refused to let the counters in for fear the data would go to the city building department, despite strict census bureau rules against such action.

One-third of the St. Louis crew leaders were fired in a reorganization to speed the count.

New System Faster, Cheaper for Teletype

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new communications system that can transmit up to 1,000 words of teletype copy in one minute was announced Wednesday by Crosley Division of Avco Corp.

Westinghouse Electric Corp. said it already is using Crosley's new system, called Comex, to speed up shipments to distributors by 24 to 48 hours.

Comex is adaptable to any teletype system. What it does is record the copy punched on teletype keyboard on magnetic tape at ordinary speed.

The machine then is speeded up 10 times and transmits the copy to a tape receiver through an ordinary long distance telephone line. In many instances that eliminates the need for a leased line.

The tape at the other end then is slowed down and operates a receiving teletype at normal speed.

The purpose is to save leased wire costs, which can be very expensive, rather than to save time.

Plan Treaty Protest

TOKYO (UPI) — The leftist Federation of Student Associations announced it will mobilize more than 30,000 students April 26 to "siege" the diet building as a protest against ratification of the Japan-U.S. Security Treaty. Tokyo police immediately announced they would have 10,000 men on the scene to counter the students.

As many as 30 different grades of petroleum products can move through a single pipeline with virtually no mixing.

Party Stalwarts, Both Young and Old

Oakland Republicans Boost Ford for VP

'Nixon!' Cry GOP Delegates

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

So said delegates to last night's Oakland County Republican convention. "It," of course, means to succeed to the office of President.

As was expected, local Republicans heaped accolade after accolade upon the man they feel can "handle with courage and skill the foreign and domestic problems that will face us in the years to come."

Picked on his ticket as vice president was Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr., Grand Rapids congressman and Michigan's obvious favorite son going into the July national convention in Chicago.

Yet Nixon was almost overlooked last night — pictures of him, that is.

Minutes after the convention was under way, two members of the decoration-planning Young Republicans were taping up colored portraits of their favorite.

Nixon was the talk of the gallery. Absent were any backers of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who just hasn't been able to convince everyone that he won't be a candidate.

So one of the women from the Royal Oak Women's Club, selling sparkling GOP jewelry in the lobby, said the club was playing it safe. She said there were no "We Want Nixon" inscriptions on the pins.

Richard C. Van Dusen, former state representative and candidate for state attorney general four years ago, did the selling job on Nixon, if any was necessary.

A resident of Bingham Farms and a Detroit attorney, Van Dusen is vice chairman of the Midwest Volunteers for Michigan.

He said the "essential issue before the assembly" is to sell people, not only Republicans, on Nixon's qualifications for the White House and then elect him in November.

"The years ahead do not call for a glamorous personality, or a glib wit, or an indecisive philosopher, however intelligent or articulate or appealing any of these may be."

"The years ahead call for a man of experience, of proven judgment. They call for a man who is courageous and decisive. Above all, they call for a man who has the basic integrity, wisdom and strength of character which will make him cool in a crisis—a strong leader in time of trouble," Van Dusen said.

Besides Nixon, delegates gathered to pick 140 delegates and 140 alternates to the state convention in Grand Rapids next month, were assured things on the county level were in tip-top shape. This assurance came from Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

Things, they learned, weren't so rosy in Lansing. Speaking on goings-on under the capitol dome, fiery Sen. L. Harvey Lodge declared the House and Senate Republicans—"the last bastion of the

County GOP Backs Sales Tax, Con-Con

Most delegates were home in bed when the penny sales tax increase and the compromise constitutional convention plan were endorsed by Oakland County Republicans in convention last night in Pontiac.

When the stroke of midnight sounded, and a long-awaited seven-page batch of resolutions was read by C. Ray Ballard of Huntington Woods, most of the tired 250 delegates had given up and gone home.

All resolutions were approved without discussion.

This was a far cry from the Democratic county convention two weeks earlier when the party-splitting plan was rejected after a heated debate.

In the only dissention heard at last night's GOP convention, some delegates opposed a move to amend one portion of the resolutions to make Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker a third Michigan delegate-at-large at the national convention in Chicago in July.

It passed anyway. No reasons were given for the opposition.

Also approved as delegates-at-large were two other of Michigan's favorite sons in the President's Cabinet, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield from Flint and Frederick Mueller, commerce secretary.

Opposition to Brucker—although of little importance—was the only sign of dissention during the presidential year county convention.

In another endorsement, Henry J. Woolfenden of Bloomfield Hills, former president of the Michigan Bar Assn., was "heartily endorsed" to fill a vacancy on the U.S. District Court in Detroit.

Local Republicans gave preference to the sales tax hike, to be voted on this November, over any Democratic-hoped-for personal income tax, saying the sales tax "reaches a broader base, even including the many

Venezuela Takes Rebel Center

Insurgent Leader Flees San Cristobal as Tanks, Troops Approach

Jesus Maria Castro Leon, the ambitious ex-general in the Venezuelan air force who led the rebel troops across the border from Colombia yesterday, apparently was heading back where he came from.

Troops attempted to seal off the border by blocking the international road. Castro Leon and his aides probably were trying to return to Colombia along the Arauca River plains south of the mountains around San Cristobal.

Betancourt, supported by political, military and labor leaders who thwarted Castro Leon's plan for a nationwide uprising, sent loyal forces to San Cristobal, capital of Tachira State.

So far the invasion has been virtually bloodless. Government officials telephoned San Cristobal and were told that two students were killed and four wounded in street fights with the rebels yesterday.

Col. Francisco Lizarazo, who turned over San Cristobal's 400-man garrison to the rebels yesterday, was arrested this morning by the national guard, which remained loyal throughout the brief uprising. He was replaced by Col. Miguel Arcadio, who refused to submit to the rebels.

Rhee's Enemies Still Clamoring for Elections

Resignation of Cabinet Fails to Appease Chang; 147 Now Dead

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—President Syngman Rhee's political foes, unappeased by the resignation of his cabinet in the face of near-revolution, today renewed their demands for new presidential elections.

The 85-year-old president's opposition also declared his promise of redress for those with "major grievances" was insufficient.

The promise came in the wake of bloody anti-government riots Tuesday that brought martial law to the capital and other major Korean cities.

There were no reports of renewed violence as troops and police patrolled the cities. But tension mounted as the bodies of demonstrators shot by police were turned over to weeping, wailing relatives.

With at least 1,000 persons shot during the riots, the known death toll stood at 147. Hundreds more were still in critical condition in hospitals or in their homes.

"NO COMPROMISE"

Vice President John M. Chang, leader of the opposition Democratic party, declared there would be no compromise in his party's demand for new elections.

"Anything short of that would never solve the fundamental question," he told a news conference after the announcement of the cabinet's resignation.

Chang lost his bid for re-election last month to Lee Ki-poong, Rhee's liberal party running mate. Rhee, running unopposed for his fourth term after the death of the Democratic party candidate, piled up the biggest vote of his career in the election.

The election was the principal issue behind the uprisings. The Democrats have charged Rhee's Liberals with rigging the voting and widespread ballot box stuffing to insure a Liberal in power should the aged president not live out his term. Chang defeated Lee in the 1956 election.

The outgoing cabinet ministers were generally considered Lee's protegees. Their resignation appeared to be mainly an apology for the bloodshed and not a move toward correcting underlying causes of discontent. Cabinet resignations, offered several times in the past, are generally regarded as moves of expediency not necessarily involving any policy changes.

News Flashes

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson signed a contract today to defend his world heavyweight boxing title against Floyd Patterson, the man he dethroned, in the Polo Grounds on Monday, June 20. The pact was the result of almost 10 months of negotiations.

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University trustees voted 4-2 today for continuance of compulsory military training (ROTC).

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell recommended today that Congress grant a "moderate" increase of 10 to 15 cents in the $1-an-hour federal minimum wage.

Choose Liberal Dem Plank Chief

LOS ANGELES (AP)—New England's Chester Bowles' selection as platform committee chairman at the Democratic National Convention was viewed today as a move to nail a strong civil right plank into the party's 1960 platform.

Bowles, a longtime leader of the party's liberal wing, was named Wednesday to head the important job of overseeing what issues the Democrats will stress in the fall campaign.

Civil rights also cast its shadow on the credentials committee, which decides which delegates shall be seated at the convention in Los Angeles next July.

Named chairman for the third straight convention was Utah's Calvin W. Rawlings, a tireless party worker with a reputation for talking opposing factions into agreement.

Selected for the newly created post of cochairman was Camille F. Gravel, a moderate Southerner whose liberal views on civil rights have made him a favorite target of the segregationist element in his native Louisiana.

Gravel has said he feels segregation is morally wrong, but that it would be socially and economically disastrous to impose integration on the South by force at this time.

"I would be less than fair if I said civil rights wouldn't be the major problem (at the convention)," he said. "I am hopeful that the delegates will find a substantial area of agreement on this and other problems without resorting to indignity and indecency."

Democratic presidential hopefuls hailed the appointment of Bowles, congressman and ex-governor of Connecticut and former ambassador to India.

Massachusetts' John F. Kennedy, campaigning in West Virginia, said he feels Bowles—who is Kennedy's foreign policy adviser—will clarify the party's position on civil rights.

Kennedy said Bowles' selection means the party's civil rights platform "will be more effective."

Minnesota's Hubert H. Humphrey and Missouri's Stuart Symington, in Washington, also approved appointment of Bowles.

Humphrey said, "A splendid choice" and added, "Bowles knows the issue."

"I think he is a fine choice," said Symington.

Humphrey and Symington advocate strong civil rights laws.

The convention's arrangements committee also named House Speaker Sam Rayburn, longtime chairman of Democratic conventions, honorary chairman; Rep. Clarence Cannon of Missouri parliamentarian; and Phillip B. Pearlman of Maryland vice chairman of the platform committee.

Ford Has 2nd Best Quarter

DETROIT (AP) — Ford says it earned $143,100,000 in the first three months of 1960.

It was the second most profitable quarter for the firm. The company record is $151,100,000 for the second quarter of last year.

Earnings so far this year were up more than eight million dollars from last year's $134,800,000 for the first three months.

This year's income totals $2.61 per share, compared to $2.46 for the same period in 1959.

Sales of all vehicles came to 647,605 units, counting trucks, cars and tractors. Auto sales were 535,863, compared to 468,077 for the same period last year. Falcons accounted for 125,325 and Comets for 17,002 units.

A proxy statement mailed to stockholders said Ford officers and directors were paid $4,760,000 in addition to their normal salaries and fees last year.

Henry Ford II, president, and Ernest R. Breech, board chairman, each received $300,000. Both received salaries of $185,000.

Measure Back in House With Senate Changes

Backers Seem to Have Votes to Beat South; Expect President's OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of a national voting rights law braced today for a final push to send it to President Eisenhower by nightfall.

The House once again takes up the bill it originated. The issue is whether to agree to Senate amendments, which some supporters say weakened what was already a moderate bill.

Nevertheless, the civil rights forces were in a mood to enact the bill. There was every indication they had the votes to do it, over still stubborn Southern opposition.

Eisenhower's approval was expected. The voting referee provision at the heart of the measure, while modified, is essentially what his Justice Department proposed as the way to deal with systematic privation of voting rights—such as Negroes complain of in parts of the South.

The Senate wrote in a provision that the referees, appointed by federal courts to handle voting complaints, must stick closely to state qualifications in certifying voters as eligible.

The Senate also specified that the courts, not the referees, were to set the time and places of the hearings on voting rights complaints. Practically unchanged was a section requiring that registration and voting records be preserved.

BAN COURT RESISTANCE

Another Senate change to be argued over was the broadening of a section of the bill making it a federal crime forcibly or by threats to resist federal court orders.

The House worded this "Little Rock section" so as to apply only to school desegregation orders. But the Senate made it apply to court orders in all circumstances —such as, for example, labor-management disputes.

Penalties range up to $1,000 fine and one year's imprisonment.

Less controversial's sections of the bill deal with bombings and the education of servicemen's children in areas where public schools may be closed to avoid integrated operation.

All-Out Search for Motel Thug

Area Law Officers Hunt Elusive Fugitive on Crime Spree

Police from four area departments today were looking for a Pontiac man believed to have robbed a motel in Birmingham Wednesday morning.

State police, the sheriff's department, Birmingham and Waterford police were correlating information on Donald Hibbs, 27.

Hibbs has been sought by police for several months for kidnaping, unarmed robbery and child abandonment.

Hibbs was tentatively identified as the bandit that robbed the Birmingham Motel, 145 S. Hunter, at 2 a.m. Wednesday of $150.

Night manager of the motel, Harvey Olson, who was hit on the head by the bandit, told Birmingham police Hibbs "looked like the man" who robbed him after identifying him through a photograph.

Birmingham Det. Richard Chambers said, however, they are almost certain that Hibbs is the man who robbed the motel.

Last July, Hibbs and his wife, Gale, 19, abandoned their two-month-old baby in the McNelve Motel in Clarkston.

Chambers said the baby has been taken care of by Hibbs' parents, who have offered police all the assistance they can in capturing their son.

Hibbs is also believed to be the man that robbed the Savoy Motel, 120 S. Telegraph, on two occasions this month.

Benton Financed Trips for Humphrey's Wife

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI)—Former U.S. Sen. William Benton (D-Conn) disclosed today he gave $5,000 to the presidential primary campaign fund of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), because "He didn't have enough money to take his wife along on his campaign trips."

Benton said he and Humphrey have been friends for a long time but that he would do the same for any other Democratic candidate.

The dinner was attended by approximately 175 scouters and guests.

There were 50 active units in the district in 1959, one more than in 1958.

County GOP May Boost 2 Candidates

This came to light last night at the close of the GOP county convention, at which the election of 140 delegates to the state convention next month was somewhat forgotten.

Many played the guessing game: "Are you a candidate, a delegate or just an interested observer?"

Kuhn, asking time to talk to remaining delegates who were about to close their agenda; said he questioned "the wisdom of selecting only one candidate to represent this strong county of ours."

Although he didn't mention him by name, it was learned that Kuhn had in mind reports that retiring Rep. Farrell E. Roberts, West Bloomfield attorney, might seek the nomination as attorney general.

Roberts said this was "only a possibility."

The 38-year-old representative, after four years in the House, has said he won't seek re-election.

The last times the county had a candidate on the statewide ticket was in 1958 when Donald A. Brown ran for lieutenant governor, and in 1956 when Richard C. Van Dusen sought the attorney general post.

Brown said last night he was only "an observer."

"I would like to suggest that the delegates to our county convention give serious consideration to the possibility of sending at least two qualified candidates to the state convention in order to insure that Oakland County is definitely on the statewide ticket," the 35-year-old Kuhn said.

Van Dusen, a Detroit attorney living at Bingham Farms, said he'll stick to the legal profession. He is a former state representative from Robert's 3rd District.

Without new candidates and new ideas to lead a dynamic, liberal and progressive team towards the rebirth of the Michigan Republican Party, Kuhn warned, the party "will soon die at the crossroads."

GOP Conventionites Pick Nixon, Ford

Republican Party"—kept Michigan from being trampled under by Democrats and socialism.

But he warned the fight is far from over. "I want to get you on your feet and get you going," Lodge said to a dwindling delegation when his turn to speak came.

To keep the convention from being cut-and-dried — as some Republicans sensed it might have been since there appears to be no contest for the presidential nomination—Oakland party leaders asked a five-piece combo to pep things up a bit.

Kept from the convention by the press of congressional business, Congressman William S. Broomfield urged in a telegram:

"We are not defeatists, and we will not be defeated."

Van Dusen looked into the job which will be required of the country's next president. Out of the crystal ball came none other than Nixon to do the job.

But he warned that the "Republican nomination is not the key to the White House."

"Not only must we nominate the best possible candidate, but we must then convince our fellow countrymen — be they Republicans, independents, Democrats or vegetarians — that our nominee should be elected."

County GOP Backs Sales Tax, Con-Con

On four big national issues Oakland Republicans feel this way:

Civil rights—State and national platforms must contain major planks opposing all forms of discrimination, "so unequivocally stated that there can be no question of a clear-cut stand in the matter."

★ ★ ★

Medical aid to elderly — Favor voluntary participation to any mandatory increase in social security taxes to pay for the program, such as proposed under the floundering Forand Bill.

Farm subsidies—Farm relief program has exceeded the capacity of the taxpayer to support it in the style advocated by the leaders of the Democratic Party. Favored is a gradual elimination of crop subsidies and the substitution of a control plan that will provide adequate protection without eliminating the traditional competition.

Adopted was a reminder for all Republicans: "If we want to win, we must work and we must contribute."

Earlier, in a report from John E. Holmes, executive finance secretary for the county committee, party workers were told that a record $150,000 must be raised this year. State Central Committee has set a quota of $105,000 for Oakland Republicans.

MEN NEEDED

Along with the need for donations, the resolutions said there is a "growing need for men of high principle and competence to undertake the often thankless duties of public service."

"We urge all Republicans to encourage such men to seek public office and to reward them with consistent support at the polls and the payment of salaries that will enable them to devote their full talents to the offices which they hold."

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., county chairman from Pleasant Ridge, was praised for promoting "the most vigorous campaign in our history." He, too, was recommended as a delegate-at-large at the national convention.

British Developing H-Bomb Boomerang

LONDON (AP)—The London Evening Standard says British scientists are working on a radar device to blow up hydrogen missiles over a country firing them.

Official quarters were skeptical about the report. The Defense Ministry indicated the Standard was talking about a development still a long way off.

But Why So Seldom?

Life Can Be Fun, Sometimes

By FRANCIS STILLEY

Like going to the dentist and finding out you don't need any fillings.

Yes, and the time when the checkbook stubs come out just like it says in the bank statement.

One real dandy is to roll over and go back to sleep on the morning of your day off.

AND MONEY, YES

And there's always the possibility of finding a $10 bill in the street. That one might as well be disregarded, however. Still, I once knew a fellow who found $20. Made the mistake of telling his wife, though.

Wonderful, also, when repairs to the old family gas buggy turn out to be only about half what you figured.

MONEY AGAIN

English Channel Plans Disclosed

Rail Tunnel Could Be Built in 5 Years to Take Cars Across on Trains

LONDON (AP)—A three-nation study group Wednesday told plans for burrowing a railroad tunnel under the English Channel.

This has been under examination for 2½ years by British, French and American interests known as the Channel Study Group.

They said a rail tunnel could be built in five years for $307,440,000, boring through the chalk vein stretching from Sangatte, France, to Dover, England.

The group estimated train fare at $4.50 a person. Cars would cost about $16.25. Freight would be about 50 per cent cheaper than the present route.

More than one-half of the nation's 7,400 annual deaths by drowning occur between May 1 and August 31.

Part of Ghana Votes Okay for Republic

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Voters in three Accra constituencies gave almost 2-1 approval of a plan to make Ghana a republic within the British Commonwealth with Kwame Nkrumah replacing Queen Elizabeth II as the formal head of state.

The total was 16,739 to 9,211 in favor of a new constitution for this African Negro republic that won its independence in 1957. Other parts of the country will vote later this month.

New York State Daily Sold to Ottaway Group

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y. (UPI)—Sale of the Middletown Daily Record to Ottaway Newspapers-Radio, Inc., was announced Monday.

Purchase of the Record from J. Kaplan, president of Community Newspaper Publishers, Inc., gives the Ottaway organization three newspapers in the Orange County area. All three will continue separate publication.

In announcing the sale, David Bernstein, editor and publisher of the Record since it was founded in 1952, said he and Harry S. Milligan, general manager, were planning a newspaper venture elsewhere. He declined to say where.

The Record, a morning paper that has pioneered in the use of offset printing, has a circulation of slightly more than 20,000.

Volkswagen Boss Appraises Field

By BEN PHLEGAR
Automotive Writer

NEW YORK—A man experienced in the field says the market isn't big enough yet for a volume American car manufacturer to bring out a $1,600 model.

This is the opinion of Carl H. Hahn, who as president of Volkswagen of America bosses the largest imported car operation in the United States.

"I would think the market would have to be much, much bigger before an American manufacturer would be interested," Hahn said during an interview at the International Auto Show.

350,000 SOLD LAST YEAR

Ford and Chrysler have admitted development work on cars of the Volkswagen size and price class, and Ford engineers are known to be happy with their experiments with a four-cylinder front wheel drive model.

But neither company has said anything yet about plans to put such cars on the market.

Hahn talked very matter-of-factly about Volkswagen's success in the United States.

It took four months to sell the first four import models 13 years ago. Last year VW registrations were almost 120,00. The company's goal for 1960 is 160,000.

"We will have more cars available this year and more dealers," Hahn said.

CHOOSY ABOUT DEALERS

"We are very choosy about our dealers but they are happy with us. After all, Volkswagen dealers last year made more money than dealers for any other car, imported or domestic."

In 1959, VW dealers averaged 292 new car sales each. By comparision, Ford led U. S. makes with 215 sales per dealer. Chevrolet was second with 196.

Hahn's views on the American compact cars sound very much like those of George Romney of American Motors. Both forsee a quick rise to a 50-50 division between compacts and the so-called standard size cars.

Romney says this point will be reached by 1965 or sooner. Hahn inclines to sooner.

"But what really are compacts?" Hahn asked. "You won't be able to call the new Buicks and Oldsmobile small cars. I think compact is a way to say the styling and engineering trends have changed completely."

EXPECTS BIGGER EDGE

The Volkswagen boss said he expects VW to pull further ahead of the import field this year than last, when its margin over runner-up Renault was about 20,000 units.

"But we are not in a 'sales race,' he hastened to emphasize. "We are proceeding according to schedule. We have been selling ahead of schedule in the first few months, but we won't keep that up. We want a solid, steady pace.

"One of the reasons some of our (import) competitors are in trouble is because they misjudged the market. They looked at the peak months last year and projected upwards from there.

"As a result, their orders for January delivery far exceeded their sales. This has been a far more serious problem for some of the imports than was the appearance of the American compacts.

Dividends in March Nearly $2 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — American corporations paid cash dividends of $1,893,000,000 in March — 5 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Reporting this, the commerce department said virtually all industry groups scored gains from year to year.

For the first three months of 1960, dividends totaled $3,278,200,000 compared with $3,059,400,000 in the first quarter of 1959.

J. Fred Muggs to Be Absent in Wedding Film

LONDON (UPI) — British newspapers report that American television networks have promised to handle coverage of Princess Margaret's wedding next month with dignity—and no monkey business.

One U. S. network interspersed pictures of Queen Elizabeth's coronation in 1953 with shots of a Madison Ave.-type champanzee by the name of J. Fred Muggs. Britons were indignant.

The British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC), in announcing it had agreed to distribute wedding films of Margaret and ex-photographer Antony Armstrong-Jones on a worldwide basis, pointedly mentioned commercials.

BBC official Ronald Waldman said he believed U. S. networks would show commercials only at the beginning and end of the film —not in the middle. British TV stations will refrain from commercials altogether.

Dem Hearing in Detroit to Help Draft Platform

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democrats will stage an open hearing in Detroit May 20 to help draft the party's 1960 election platform, National Chairman Paul M. Butler announced Wednesday.

Principal topic of the session will be, "the individual's stake in economic growth." The meeting will be at the Veteran's Memorial.

Butler said the hearing was scheduled at the invitation of Gov. G. Mennen Williams and State Democratic Chairman Neil Staebler.

Similar hearings, previously announced, will be held at Philadelphia April 28, and at Minneapolis and St. Louis in May.

Drugs for Diabetics Next for Probers

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate drug price investigators said today an alleged monopoly in the sale of medicines diabetics take by mouth is next on their list for scrutiny.

The Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee's chief economist, John M. Blair, testified Wednesday that diabetes patients who take oral medication "are virtually limited to two drugs, tolbutamide (orinase) and chlorpropamide (diabinese)."

"A complete monopoly of sales of the former is held by Upjohn and of the latter by Pfizer," he said. These are two of the nation's big pharmaceutical houses.

An official subcommittee announcement said this branch of the drug industry will be next on its list for inquiry when hearings resume Tuesday.

Skunk Deodorized? Utter Nonscents!

ENID, Okla. (AP) — Sheriff's deputies C. O. Porter and Floyd Schultz were almost boycotted by fellow workers after answering a woman's call for help to get a skunk from under her house.

5 and 10 Bride Target for 'Gimmes'

Now Rich, Jill Is Very Popular

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Now that Jill St. John is Mrs. Lance Reventlow in private life she is one of the richest young ladies in the country—and suddenly one of the most popular.

The auburn-haired actress is receiving thousands of letters, all asking for money.

Many of the missives directed to Jill are addressed to "Hilltop Mansion," "Palace in the Hills" and "Bachelor's Paradise."

"It's a panic," the pert newlywed laughed.

"Almost every letter is written by a woman who claims she has a dozen kids and they're all starving, and that her husband is in the hospital. All they want is a quarter of a million dollars to tide them over the hard times.

"A couple of the writers even thought we were the money power behind 'The Millionaire' television show.'"

"Most of the letters are funny, but some of them are pathetic. Several parents offered to send me their children as security if we would send them a few thousand dollars."

Jill refuses to answer her mail, but she does want it known that she is not a Cinderella who became wealthy, overnight.

"I've been under contract to two studios for almost four years," she said at 20th Century-Fox where she is starring in "The Lost World." "And during that time I've earned a good salary.

Immediately after her marriage ceremony, mother-in-law Barbara Hutton turned to Lance and said, "I hear you'll inherit 100 million dollars. Now you can support your dear old mother."

Jill says she expects the letter writers will soon give up, but her big worry is her husband's race-driving.

"If I thought about it too much I'd go out of my mind," she said. "It would be easy to blow it up all out of proportion. But racing cars is something he cares very much about, and if I'm to be a good wife I'll just have to accept it as a part of our life."

Now that she is married to a fortune, will Jill continue to work?

"Of course," she smiled, "but not in a television series. I really don't need the money, and if I did appear in a series I'd probably get more letters asking for financial help."

Defense Plans 'Beyond Needs'

Gen. Medaris Critical of Missile Production as Unnecessary

NEW YORK (AP)—The former commander of the U. S. Army Missile Agency Wednesday criticized American defense policy as a "philosophy of overkill, of wholly unnecessary redundancy."

"We seem to be preparing not for retaliation but for obliteration," said retired Maj. Gen. J. B. Medaris in an address for delivery at the World Affairs Conference of the AFL-CIO.

"The nation's defense today appears to be dedicated to the philosophy of overkill of wholly unnecessary redundancy and of costly duplication in the provision of means to execute massive retaliation," the general said.

He declared that "any weapon is useful as long as it is capable of doing the job for which it is designed and our weapons of retaliation are quite sufficient as long as they are capable of inflicting unacceptable damage upon an aggressor."

Anything beyond that point, Medaris said, is unneeded, and then added:

"I am forced to conclude that the approved programs for the development, production and deployment of Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles involving many billions of dollars will go far beyond the basic need.

"If these programs are carried out to the last rocket, we will have many times more than enough to guarantee unacceptable damage upon the enemy."

Executives Vacation High on Hog

A survey by the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry says 50 per cent of the executives spend $500 to $1,500 on their annual vacation. Twenty-six per cent spent between $1,000 and $1,500 and the rest blew as much as $5,000 for their good times.

House Voting Today on Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House begins voting today on foreign aid.

* * *

Some members sought guarantees the administration will keep Congress abreast of the operation of the program and avoid commitments on uncertain projects.

The bill before the House would result in a $4,038,500,000 ceiling on the program for the year beginning July 1. This would be a cut of 136½ million dollars from President Eisenhower's recommendations.

* * *

But the figure was comparatively unimportant, since deeper cuts are expected when Congress votes later on the actual appropriation of funds. Debate centered on the policy guidelines.

* * *

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Wednesday approved its version of an authorization bill for a $4,145,600,000 program.

Expansion Project OK'd at Big Rapids Airport

BIG RAPIDS (UPI) — The City Commission has approved a $75,000 expansion and lighting project for the Big Rapids Airport.

The asphalt airstrip will be lengthened 1,000 feet to 3,500 and widened 25 feet to a total of 75. A two-headed beacon will be installed along with medium intensity runway lights.

The federal government is paying for half the project, the state for a quarter and W. C. Taggert, a Big Rapids, oilman, is providing the city's quarter share.

Unionists Pledge Boycott

NEW YORK (UPI) — AFL-CIO President George Meany, Vice President Walter P. Reuther and other top Union officials signed pledge cards saying they would boycott stores of the F. W. Woolworth Co. and other chains which refuse lunch counter service to Negroes in the South.

FRENCH PATES — Choice selection of French pates is accompanied by Bordeaux wine. Wide variety of French foods is available in U. S. stores.

Authentic French Pates Will Star at Receptions

At gala receptions and parties during President Charles de Gaulle's visit to the United States, American cooks and hostesses will offer fine French foods and dishes made of ingredients bought at American supermarkets and specialty shops. French pate in infinite variety, usually served with chilled wines and cocktails, will make our distinguished French visitors feel at home.

★ ★ ★

Besides the classic pate de foie gras, there are many delicious and inexpensive French pates available now in the United States. They come in small oval tins and are known by various names: pates, purees, or pate canape spread. The ingredients vary; some include pork liver as well as goose liver and goose fat; some contain Grandy but all boast the delicate flavor of French truffles.

French Pate and Artichoke Canapes

Open two 14-ounce cans French artichokes bottoms; drain and place on rounds of buttered toast cut to fit the artichoke bottoms. Soften a 3-ounce package cream cheese and blend with ½ cup French pate with truffles. Place a mound on each canape. Garnish with chopped parsley. Makes 14-18. Note: One 14-ounce can contains from 7 to 9 artichoke bottoms.

Pates in Pastry Crusts (Pates En Croute)

Fill 1½-inch baked tart shells or bought tart shell crackers with French pate with truffles. Garnish with pimento as desired. Brush aspic over the surface to prevent the pate from losing its pink color if tart stands for any length of time. Chill. To make aspic, soften 1 envelope unflavored gelatin in ½ cup cold water. Add 1 beef bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water. Cool.

Pate Canapes

Trim crust from slices of bread and cut each slice into 3 strips. Spread each with French pate with truffles. Sprinkle chopped hard-cooked egg yolks or whites down the center of each.

There's a Surprise Inside Hamburgers

Cordon Bleu Hamburgers

Ground lean beef
Swiss cheese
Sliced cooked boneless pork shoulder butt
Butter or margarine
Salt
Pepper

Make 8 thin round patties from each pound of beef. Have cheese and butt sliced about ¼ inch thick and slightly smaller in diameter than the patties.

Sandwich a piece of cheese and one of butt between 2 patties; work edges well with fingers to seal. Brown rapidly on both sides in hot butter in skillet; cook to desired doneness; serve on the rare side so cheese will not be too stringy. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and serve at once.

Hearty Spring Soup

The soft spring air . . . and you want to get outdoors. No need to let meal preparation stop you. For tonight's dinner let a hearty soup fill the bill. Combine a can of frozen condensed green pea with ham and frozen condensed cream of potato soup with 1½ soup cans of milk and water. Add a small can of drained sliced mushrooms; heat. Makes 4 delicious servings with a large fruit salad.

Tuna 'n' Cabbage

For a variation of the Stuffed Cabbage theme . . . combine flaked tuna with minced onion and rice; roll in cabbage leaves and bake in a sweet sour tomato sauce. Lay slices of lemon between each roll for that extra tang . . . and for a garnish, too.

Plentiful Dates Good in Waffles

If you're looking for a date, your grocer will be mighty happy to accommodate you, because his shelves are full of dates right now.

The dates are fresh from California, where most of our domestic dates come from. Growers out there have come up with one of the largest crops on record, which is why the U.S. Department of Agriculture gives dates an important spot on its List of Plentiful Foods for April.

Of course, there are lots of ways you can make use of all these dates. Now that it's time for the first spring hikes and outings, you can take along a package of fresh dates to nibble on between meals. They're extra rich in energy, ready to eat right from the package, and they'll certainly delight your palate.

You'll find too that these dates make wonderful additions to many Lenten dishes, and to your Easter cakes, cookies and breads. And here's a recipe for date waffles that go over big at any time:

Sift together 2 cups of flour, ½ teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons of baking powder. Add the yolks of 2 eggs, ¼ cup butter and 2 cups of milk gradually, then beat until the batter is perfectly smooth. Add 1 cup of chopped dates and egg whites, beaten until stiff, and bake as ordinary waffles. Serve with butter and honey. You'll have enough for six persons.

It's Convenient to Store Quantity of Frozen Bread

Most homemakers have acquired the habit of buying bread in quantity and storing in the freezer. Recent tests by the U.S. Department of Agriculture showed that up to six months, bread kept its freshness as well with its ordinary commercial wrap as with overwrapping. For the usual short time bread is stored, it will keep well with its own wrapping. For homemade bread, freezer-wrap should be used.

★ ★ ★

Another study showed that bread needn't be thoroughly thawed before using for bread or toast. If sliced loaves are used, the slices separate easily while still hard-frozen and they can be spread for sandwiches or put into toaster. Sandwiches made from frozen slices help to "refrigerate" the lunch box.

Rich Egg Bread Has An Interesting Filling

Baking bread is a most rewarding experience. Your family and friends are sure to enjoy every home-baked specialty you set before them.

Filled Egg Bread

2 packages yeast, compressed or dry
¼ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1 cup milk
⅓ cup butter or margarine
⅓ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
6½ cups sifted enriched flour (about)
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
4 eggs
½ cup poppy seeds
¼ cup milk
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
½ cup finely chopped almonds
2 tablespoons grated lemon rind

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add butter or margarine, sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour and beat well. Add softened yeast and vanilla extract. Add eggs one at a time and beat thoroughly. Add enough more flour to make a moderately stiff dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1½ hours).

Meanwhile, add poppy seeds to milk. When dough is doubled, punch down. Divide dough into 2 equal portions and let rest 10 minutes. Add butter or margarine, almonds and lemon rind to poppy seed mixture. Mix well.

Roll each half of dough out to rectangle, 6 x 18 inches. Spread with about half of filling. Roll up into loaf shape and press edges together, securely to seal. Place in greased loaf pans 4½ x 8½ inches. Let rise until doubled (about 1 hour).

Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 40 minutes. Makes 2 loaves.

Won't Boil Over

When cooking macaroni or spaghetti, add a tablespoon or two of Spanish olive oil to the water. This prevents water from boiling over and keeps the strands of macaroni separate.

Freezer Can Offer You Variety of Garnishes

Dip small bunches of Tokay grapes in diluted lemonade concentrate, sprinkle lightly with sugar and crisp briefly in freezer. Arrange around roast poultry or lamb.

Its also easy to keep grated lemon or orange peel on hand. Store it in foil packages in the freezer so it will be ready to use for flavoring cakes, cookies, pastry, muffins, biscuits, pancakes or waffles. Green peppers, onions, parsley, celery can also be chopped and frozen in individual packages to save work when they are needed for cooking.

Colavito, Cash, Kaline Homer to Beat Indians, 6-4

Take a Quick Look—Tigers in First Place

Bilko Gets 3 Hits to Help Detroit Cause

Rocky Slams Three-Run Blast to Knot Score in 4th Inning

CLEVELAND (AP) — Al Kaline's timely slugging has put the Detroit Tigers in first place in the infant American League race.

His homer into the left field stands in the ninth inning yesterday proved the winning run as Detroit whipped the Cleveland Indians 6-4 for a 2-0 record, half a game ahead of the defending champion Chicago White Sox. The Sox are 1-0.

In Tuesday's opener with the Indians, Kaline banged a two-run single in the 15th inning for the 4-2 victory.

Two men who were busts in the first game—new Tigers Rocky Colavito and Steve Bilko — also came through yesterday.

Former Indian Colavito, who went hitless Tuesday, banged a three-run homer in the fourth inning to tie the score, Bilko, also hitless in the opener, slugged three hits in four trips, including a triple that a fleeter man might have turned into an inside-the-park home run. The triple brought Colavito home with an insurance run after Kaline's clout in the ninth inning.

Cleveland jumped off to a three run lead in the third inning. The Indians loaded the bases on two walks and a bunt. Another walk issued by Don Mossi forced in a run. Vic Power doubled for two more scores.

Detroit tied it in the fourth. Casey Wise playing second for Frank Bolling, got on base on a fielder's choice and Kaline singled. Then Colavito unloaded his only hit of the game, a round-tripper that hit the facing of the upper left field stands.

Cleveland went back ahead in the fifth. Johnny Temple made it around to third after three errors by usually reliable Eddie Yost. The Tiger third baseman tied a modern Major League record for the most errors by one player in one inning.

Yost fumbled Temple's grounder and threw wild to first for two errors. Then Jim Piersall grounded to Wise and Yost fumbled the throw in an attempt to nail temple. Walter Bond's sacrifice fly brought Temple home.

Newcomer Norm Cash blasted a pinch hit home run in the eighth to make it 4-4. He batted for Mossi.

In the ninth, Kaline homered. Then Colavito walked and Bilko tripled him home.

Tom Morgan was the winning pitcher for Detroit. He set the Indians down in order in the eighth. Paul Foytack hurled the ninth for Detroit as manager Jimmy Dykes continued to double up his starters with relief roles. Mossi gave up all four of the Cleveland hits.

Starter Jim Perry took the loss for the Indians. He was charged with all of the Tiger runs. Carl Thomas relieved him in the ninth.

Fullmer Still King After Bloody Draw

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—Champion Gene Fullmer's NBA middleweight crown still rested on his scarred and bruised brow today after tilting dangerously in a bloody slugging and butting duel with challenger Joey Giardello.

The officials ruled the wild, 15-round brawl Wednesday night a draw.

Giardello, a 3-to-1 underdog, chanted afterward "I'm the champion, I'm the champion!"

Fullmer ignored Joey's claim and said he'd never again fight the Philadelphia veteran who missed by a hair's breadth in his first title shot after 12 years in the ring.

"He doesn't deserve a rematch because of the way he butted me in the fourth round," Fullmer said. His manager, Marv Jenson, echoed the champion's stand. "When a guy butts like that, I have no feeling about giving him a rematch," said Jenson. "You might as well put a knife or gun in his hand."

"Sure, I butted him," Giardello said afterward in his dressing room. "But I only did it after he butted me."

Kessler, a St. Louis official, scored it 144-142 for Giardello, Judge Ray Evans of Butte, Mont., gave it to the champion 145-142. Judge Billy McFarland of Missoula, Mont., called it even at 145-145. The AP scored it 144-141 and even in rounds.

More than 12,000 fans who paid in excess of $110,000 crowded into the Montana State College fieldhouse for the nationally televised bout. They got their money's worth in the bruising slugfest that became the 39th draw in a title match. It was the first since bantamweight champion Robert Cohen of France and Willie Towvel of South Africa battled to a 955 standoff at Johannesburg.

Fullmer, who just made the 160-pound weight limit, collected all the $100,000 television receipts. Giardello, 158¼, received $25,000 plus $5,000 expenses.

Confusion reigned at ringside for several minutes after the split votes of the referee and judges were announced. The status of Fullmer's crown remained uncertain until Sonny O'Day, chairman of the Montana Athletic Commission, stepped to the microphone and told the crowd: "The decision has to be a draw. Fullmer retains his crown."

Fullmer, becoming a real fighting champion, said his next bout probably will be in Salt Lake City June 15 against Carmen Basilio. The West Jordan, Utah, mauler won the title from Basilio at San Francisco last August.

The action was fast and furious in the early rounds. By the fourth, blood streamed down the faces of both fighters. Kessler's gray shirt and trousers looked as if he had just stepped out of a slaughter house.

Giardello peppered away with jabs around Fullmer's head while the champion countered with a relentless body tattoo which made Joey wince half a dozen times. Although both suffered heavy jolts throughout the battle, there were no knockdowns.

This was the 28-year-old Fullmer's second successful title defense and brought his record to 51-4-1. Giardello, 29, has an 83-17-6 mark with one no-decision.

A Battle of Bull Moose

Fullmer, Giardello Write 'Wild West' Chapter

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)— The wild and woolly west lives on. Gene Fullmer, a mink farmer from West Jordan, Utah, and Joey Giardello, a street fighter from Philadelphia, have added the newest chapter.

Enough blood flowed from Fullmer's gashed brow and Giardello's damaged eye last night to turn referee Harry Kessler's neat gray uniform into a butcher's apron.

This was a battle of two bull moose, hooked up in a tugging and shoving duel in the shadow of the snow capped Rockies. Each blamed the other.

"It was the most unsportsman-like thing I ever saw in a ring," said Fullmer who retained his world middleweight title (NBA version) when he escaped with a draw.

"I butted him only after he butted me," said Giardello who now is claiming the title "because all those people think so." He referred to boos for the draw verdict from the big crowd at the Montana State College Fieldhouse where he was carried from the ring on the shoulders of his handlers amidst cheers.

Giardello told reporters he would fight Fullmer again only in the East.

"If Giardello gets a chance to fight Paul Pender (champion in Massachusetts and New York) or Ray Robinson, he had better take it," said Marv Jensen, Fullmers manager. "He won't get another chance to fight Gene. That was the most deliberate butt I ever say.

"Harry (referee Kessler) must not have seen how deliberate it was or he would have stopped and disqualified Giardello."

Jenson was talking about a head-butting duel in the fourth when Kessler halted the fight for several seconds.

"I warned both men for butting," said Kessler just before he took off for New York by plane. "I stopped it because I wanted to get the fight under control. Both were claiming they should have won it."

When Kessler asked the men to shake hands and resume it, it appeared that Fullmer refused. Eventually, they did go back to work with a vengeance.

There was a rematch contract, in case Giardello won, but Jenson's comments ruled that out of bounds.

St. Louis Hawks Sign Seymour as Top Man

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Paul Seymour is the new coach of the St. Louis Hawks, a job with the fastest turnover in pro sports.

Taking over the National Basketball Assn. post Wednesday, Seymour became owner Ben Kerner's 15th coach in 13 seasons and sixth in five years in St. Louis.

Some of Seymour's predecessors quit. Some were fired. Easy Ed took on a front office assignment, that of general manager. He remains a vice president, with voting rights.

Seymour, who resigned last month after four years as coach of the Syracuse Nationals, signed a three-year contract said to call for $20,000 a year.

Macauley still has a year to run on a three-year pact at about the same terms.

He piloted the Hawks to two regular season Western division titles in as many years. But his inability to control his players and to beat the Celtics and Warriors with any degree of consistency paved the way for the change.

Seymour, who left immediately for Florida to continue a vacation, made his presence felt even before Wednesday's announcement which had been predicted by The Associated Press March 25.

He addmitted he had suggested the recent trade that sent the Hawks' Bob Ferry to the Pistons for Ed Conlin. Actually, the AP learned, Seymour signed with the Hawks March 21 in Chicago.

"Conlin is a much better player than he proved to be with Detroit last year," Seymour said. "He'll be an excellent man behind Cliff Hagan because he can move the ball, too." Conlin broke into the NBA with Seymour at Syracuse.

Seymour said he plans to hold a training camp or rookies in June and work with John McCarthy and Si Green.

He said he thought he'd like the Hawks to play a more wide-open style of game much like the Nationals played under him. To do so he must shore up the backcourt.

Seymour will be strictly a bench coach with the Hawks. He was a player-coach with the Nats three of his four years at Syracuse.

The hiring of Seymour was Macauley's first official duty as general manager. Macauley and Kerner said Seymour was Ed's choice to succeed him.

Boston Slams Yanks, Nats Win

From Our Wire Services

A 7-1 trouncing of the Yankees by Boston yesterday left Detroit and the defending champion White Sox as the only unbeaten teams in the American League after only three days of action. Chicago was idle Wednesday.

Washington won its second game in three outings nipping Baltimore 8-7 in a night affair.

Jerry Casale held New York to five hits and drove in two runs in the Boston romp. Ron Jackson and Pete Runnels matched Casale with two hits apiece in a 11-hit offensive.

The Red Sox jumped on Bob Turley for five of their runs in the first two innings, scoring four in the second with the aid of Casale's two-run double.

A single by former Oriole Billy Gardner over the head of the second base rookie who took his place, drive in the winning run for the Washington Senators.

Gardner's drive over Marvin Breeding sent home Billy Consolo, who had tripled, with the deciding run in the eighth inning of the give-and-take game.

It was Gardner's second RBI of the game.

The Orioles scored four runs in the first inning on as many hits. The Senators tied it up with three runs in the second and another in the third.

Harmon Killebrew put the Senators ahead 5-4 with his first homer of the season in the fifth. The Orioles retaliated with three runs in the next inning to take a 7-5 lead, but the Senators tied the score their next time up ,when Allison's double knocked in two runs and his fourth of the game.

McLucas Lost to MSU Grid Team Next Fall

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Ed Mc Lucas, senior tackle on Michigan State University's football squad, definitely will not see action with the Spartans this fall, team physician Dr. James Feurig said today.

Feurig was expected to operate today on Mc Lucas, who suffered torn ligaments in his knee during a spring practice scrimmage Tuesday.

Feurig said Mc Lucas' overall future in athletics would not be known until after the operation.

Titans Make It 5 Consecutive Wins

HILLSDALE (UPI) — Dave De Busschere took credit for the University of Detroit's fifth consecutive baseball triumph yesterday, 10-4, over Hillsdale.

Glen Goode and Bruce Maher were the big men at bat for the Titans. Goode and a triple and single in three trips to the plate and drove in two runs. Maher had three RBI's and a triple and a double in his three attempts.

Shades of Bill Veeck!

DETROIT (UPI)—Opening day at Briggs Stadium tomorrow promised to be an attempt to "out-Veeck" Chicago White Sox president Bill Veeck, noted for his unusual displays and gimmicks.

Tiger president Bill De Witt said fireworks displays would also be held following certain night games during the season.

Red-white-and-blue drapings were to be hung on the lower and upper deck facings and at entrances outside the stadium for the opener also, De Witt said.

This will be the first fireworks display in the club's history and the first time the stadium has been decorated for an opener in many years.

Top Net Stars Have Trouble

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Young collegians forced Bernard Bartzen and Neale Fraser into extra games Wednesday before the top-seeded stars gained the quarter-finals of the 26th River Oaks Tennis Tournament.

Third-seeded Barry MacKay, a Davis Cup player from Dayton, Ohio, defeated Don Candy of Australia, 6-2, 6-3. Fourth-seeded Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, N. Y. beat Eduardo Zuelta, South American champion from Ecuador, 6-0, 6-1.

Roy Emerson of Australia's Davis Cup team won easily from a young St. Louis challenger, Rod Susman, 6-1, 6-2.

Ingo and Floyd Finally Ready to Sign Contracts

NEW YORK (AP) — Unless someone steps forth with a valid objection at the last minute, heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson finally will sign official contracts today for their return title fight at the Polo Grounds, June 20.

The ceremony was scheduled at the State Athletic Commission offices at 10 a.m., EST.

★ ★ ★

Following the signing, the customary picture-taking and the interviewing, Johansson will take off on the first available plane for Geneva, Switzerland, where he will resume training. The tanned, fit Swede plans to head for Grossinger, N.Y. May 5 for his final training.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

TREATMENT: There are many ways of wrecking a golf swing, and one of the surest is to let go of the club with the left hand at the top of the backswing.

Two possibilities are then open to the golfer. He can go ahead and complete the swing with the club held in the manner shown in the illustration. That way he can logically expect to hit the ball weakly in any direction.

Or, he can regrip the club on the way down. That way he may hit the ball with some power. But he has next to no hope at all of hitting in the direction he wants it to go.

How can he know he is gripping the club right when he changes grips in mid-swing? He can't.

Grip the club gently but firmly to start the swing. Maintain some pressure in the last three fingers of the left hand. Then keep that gentle-but-firm grip throughout the swing.

Mart Steadying After Decline

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved unevenly in moderately active early trading today.

Gains and losses of key stocks were mostly from fractions to about a point.

American Telephone continued to slide, losing more than a point in continued reaction to word from its president that no immediate boost in the dividend is being contemplated.

After two days of sharp decline the market as a whole showed steadying tendencies. Some of the recent sharp losers among blue chips recovered partially.

The news background included a report that gross national product was running at a record seasonally adjusted annual rate. Some corporate reports were good.

Ford advanced more than a point in the wake of news that its first quarter earnings rose to a new high for the period. Texas Instruments advanced more than a point following publication of glowing forecasts by the company.

Du Pont recouped about 3 points and General Electric about a point. Ahead about a point were Ampex and Thiokol.

Merck slipped about a point. Small losses were taken by American Tobacco, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, Westinghouse Electric, Schering and Johns-Manville.

Up slightly were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Goodrich, Radio Corp., Raytheon, Commonwealth Edison, American Smelting and Liggett & Myers.

Steelworkers to Fight Firings at Great Lakes

ECORSE (AP) — A United Steel Workers spokesman says the Union will fight "all the way to the Supreme Court if need be" the suspension and firing of 19 Great Lakes Steel Corp. employees.

The company said yesterday 19 employes were ringleaders from Local 1299 in a recent wildcat strike. The firm said the 19 were suspended and would be fired unless there is evidence to support a lesser penalty.

Drop Homicide Charge Because of Insufficient Evidence for Trial

A negligent homicide charge against the driver of a car in which two passengers were killed April 2 was dismissed yesterday by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

* * *

Cleared of the charge was Albert Amerson Jr., 26, of 60 Clovese St.

Judge Finnegan ruled that evidence presented at an examination yesterday was not sufficient to bind Amerson to Oakland County Circuit Court for trial.

Sadie Mae Higgins, 18, of 442 S. Jessie St., and Cecil Reeves, 22, of 12 Utah St., were killed when Amerson's car went out of control on Wilson Avenue east of S. Saginaw street and struck a pole. Witnesses told Pontiac police after the accident that Amerson's car was moving at 65 m.p.h.

In a statement to the prosecutor's office, Amerson said his car gained speed when he tried to apply his brakes.

He admitted he had been drinking before the accident.

Dr. Moore, 56, traveled only 32 miles Wednesday after covering a startling 109 miles the day before.

When J. D. Hodges of Vallejo, Calif., heard of her plight, he offered his services and was accepted.

About 40 miles ahead of Dr. Moore are two British sergeants who are also assaulting the hiking record of 79 days.

Sgts. Patrick Moloney, 34, and Mervyn Evans, 33, left San Francisco a day ahead of Dr. Moore. They say she must have ridden part of her 109 miles Tuesday. The doctor waved aside the assertion.

Rocky Agrees GOP Drive Dull

But Remains Firm in Decision to Stay Out of Presidential Race

WELLSBORO, Pa. (AP) — New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller agrees with Pennsylvania political leaders that lack of contention for the GOP presidential nomination is costing the party voter interest.

He told newsmen in this northern Pennsylvania community Wednesday that from the standpoint of interest it would have been better for the party if he had sought the nomination in opposition to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But he promptly added he is "standing four-square" on his Dec. 26 decision not to seek the nomination. He did not elaborate. Rockefeller came to Pennsylvania to support the candidacy of his brother, College Trustee Herman T. Schneebeli for congress. Schneebeli is seeking the 17th District seat left vacant by the death last December of Rep. Alvin R. Bush, a longtime GOP leader.

Rockefeller also issued a flat "no chance" when asked about the possibility he would be a vice presidential candidate.

The New York governor explained he is not interested in the vice presidency because his experience in government has always been in the executive branch. He noted that the vice president's principal duty is presiding over the U.S. Senate, a legislative arm of government.

Stock Dividends Stay Same, Says AT&T

NEW YORK (UPI) — Frederick R. Kappel, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., dampened rumors here Wednesday that a boost in the company's stock dividends was in the offing.

Repeating an earlier statement, he said: "We have never favored frequent stock dividend policy and we are no more disposed to that now than we have ever been."

Kappel told more than 10,000 stockholders at their annual meeting that the corporation does not believe dividends should be paid according to any formula tying up current pay-out with current earnings.

Asked about the company's earnings prospects this year, the corporation executive said the rate of increase would be "about like last year."

In 1959, American Telephone became the second firm ever to surpass the one-billion-dollar mark in net income. It chalked up earnings of $1,113,152,000 or $5.22 a share, compared with $952,305,000 or $4.67 a share in 1958. General Motors first pulled off this trick in 1955, but has failed to achieve it since.
