Rights Bill Is Facing Final House Hurdle

WASHINGTON — House passage of a broad new civil rights bill is expected today but a final challenge still remains to its key open housing provision.

★ ★ ★

Voting should begin late in the day after the House completes its section-by-section consideration of the measure.

It wrapped up the next-to-last one last night, writing a federal antiriot law into it, and leaving only two relatively noncontroversial provisions to be disposed of today.

All actions taken by the House during the 12 days it has been working on the bill are subject to separate roll call votes just before final passage.

Opponents are believed ready to press a final attempt to defeat the housing provision by asking for a roll call on an amendment exempting individual home owners from the proposed ban against racial discrimination in housing.

★ ★ ★

The amendment, which House leaders consider vital to final approval of the measure, was adopted by a one-vote margin, 180 to 179.

If it should be defeated on a roll call, a final motion to knock out the whole section of the bill would have a good chance of carrying.

The House wrote a major change into the bill yesterday when it adopted an amendment by Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., aimed at preventing outside agitators from inciting racial riots.

The amendment, shouted through with little dissent, would make it a federal crime, punishable by up to five years in jail or a $10,000 fine, for anyone to cross a state line with the intent of encouraging, inciting or taking part in a riot.

Cramer and many other speakers said the rash of racial violence in some northern cities in recent weeks calls for a federal law to protect citizens against such violence.

Rep. James C. Corman, D-Calif., one of the few who spoke against it, said it would mark a severe encroachment by the federal police power on state and local jurisdictions.

DAMAGED IN DISTURBANCE — Tom Zasucha, 18, of Marshall points to the broken windshield of the car he was driving when he was pelted in the Negro section of Lansing last night during a racial disturbance. Zasucha said that, after his car was hit, he tried to escape and hit a utility pole.

LBJ Views Inflation

'Viet War Not Worsening'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said today that in Viet Nam "I don't see any change for the worse at all" and at home things are going "reasonably well" on holding the line against inflation.

Johnson told a news conference that weekend plane losses and casualties in Viet Nam were not unexpected.

He also said he had found no place in the government that was responsible for reports out of Saigon that the war there might drag on for eight years on the present basis.

The assessments from Saigon had been attributed to Pentagon studies.

On the question of domestic price increases and higher wage demands, Johnson said the present guidelines are the best thing the administration has been able to produce, but they are under study.

★ ★ ★

And he said figures on what has been happening "do not indicate the country is going to pot."

TO URGE RESTRAINT

The President told reporters at a hurriedly arranged session in his White House office that management and labor are going to get continual urging "to be as restrained as much as they possibly can."

And he indicated that if they aren't, recommendations may result for some other sort of action later.

But on this he was vague, aside from saying that the situation is under constant study and evaluation to see whether the government can come up with something better than the guidelines.

★ ★ ★

House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan accused Johnson of having "tried to talk prices into remaining stable."

Sewer Pact for Orchard Lake Nixed

A contract to participate in the proposed Oakland - Clinton Sewage Disposal System was rejected last night by the Orchard Lake City Council.

The council vote was 3-3. The proposed contract needed majority approval for passage.

The proposed $16.5-million system needs approval of all seven communities it is to serve. Four have okayed it and two others have yet to vote on participation.

The Orchard Lake action was the second setback for the proposed system. It was originally planned to serve eight communities until Pontiac withdrew about a month ago.

Councilman Frederick S. Strong, Jr., who voted for the proposal, explained that the system offered the only means for sewage disposal.

★ ★ ★

He said that before Orchard Lake had become a city, it was not able to be included in the Farmington interceptor and had asked to be included in the Clinton-Oakland system.

'COMMITMENT'

Strong said he considered the previous decision a commitment which should have been upheld last night.

He also said that the need for sewers is very great in the city, which is now served by septic tanks.

He said that in his opinion, the council members who voted against the proposal, did so because they didn't want another millage proposal.

★ ★ ★

Everett R. Casey, who along with Mayor S. F. Leahy and councilman Kenneth T. Treacy, voted against the proposal, said he was not convinced that the

Race Track Principals Are Called

DETROIT (UPI) — Four jockeys and a trainer were subpoenaed yesterday to testify before a federal grand jury investigating gambling charges against 14 persons, two of them reputed Mafia leaders in the Detroit area.

★ ★ ★

John Olszewski, chief of the Internal Revenue Service in Detroit which served the subpoenas, said the raids last July 1 involved "one of the largest syndicated gambling operations ever raided by this office."

Related Story, Page C-1

The trainer, Sherman Armstrong, 37, once a top jockey, trains horses for the wife of Richard A. Connell, president of the Hazel Park Racing Association.

Word of the subpoenas came as Gov. George Romney appointed Joseph A. Childs, former State Police commissioner, to head the troubled State Racing Commission.

★ ★ ★

Child's first headache in office was expected to be a decision on the fate of one of the Hazel Park directors, Dominic P. (Fats) Corrado, who was named as a Detroit-area Mafia chieftain in testimony before a U.S. Senate committee in 1963.

PAIR SOUGHT

IRS agents served subpoenas to Tommy Barrow, who finished third in standings in the just completed Hazel Park season, veteran rider Williams W. Cox and Armstrong.

They were searching for two other jockeys Alphonso Coy, leading jockey at Toledo, Ohio's, Raceway Park this past season, and R. J. Bobby Bright.

Coy reportedly was in Montreal but the whereabouts of Bright were unknown.

★ ★ ★

Barrow, 34, was the jockey who in 1959 barely lost out in gaining Horse of the Year Honors for Hillsdale.

The 14 arrested in the raid last July were charged with not having the $50 gambling license therefore conspiring to evade and defeat federal gambling excise laws.

The U.S. Weather Bureau reports variable cloudiness today will end tonight with skies fair again. Mostly sunny is the outlook for tomorrow.

Temperatures dropping to lows of 50 to 58 tonight will climb to 72 to 80 tomorrow. Partly cloudy and warmer with a chance of afternoon showers is Thursday's prediction.

★ ★ ★

A low of 66 was the reading prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac. At 1 p.m., the mercury recorded 74.

Lansing Riots Bring Blast From Romney

LANSING (AP) — "Irresponsible conduct" that has marked two nights of racial violence in Lansing, "threatens the progress we have made" in civil rights, Gov. George Romney said today.

★ ★ ★

"No citizens have the right to power of force," he said in a statement issued from his office. "There can be no private power based on force—not black power, nor white power, nor shared power."

He called on "all citizens of our state to work toward the end that discrimination and other injustices are completely eliminated on a peaceful basis, and so that the power of governmental force need not be applied."

Last night, Lansing police set off tear gas grenades to break up gangs of youths who threw fire bombs, bricks, bottles and sticks at passing cars.

Several persons were injured before the violence — the second straight night of racial unrest in Lansing — was brought under control. Four persons were reported shot, none seriously.

Negro and white clergymen, credited with police with keeping many youths off the streets last night, joined today with police patrols trying to prevent recurrence of the violence.

At least a score of youths have been arrested — both white and Negro — since the racial flareups took a serious turn Sunday night.

"It looks like everything is under control now," said Mayor Max Murninghan, who interrupted a vacation to supervise the police plans for controlling the situation

"I don't anticipate a renewal of the violence, because I feel they've blown off enough steam," Murninghan said.

Clergymen in clerical garb were credited by officials with helping keep many youths off the streets by talking with knots of teen-agers wherever they could be found throughout the city.

Some 250 city, state and county police were called into action for the second night in a row Monday as caravans of teenagers roamed the city, smashing windows and beating up at least two youths.

Protest at Capitol

LANSING (AP)—An estimated 1,600 state employes demonstrated at the Capitol today, protesting what they termed inadequate pay and unsatisfactory working conditions.

Dunes Bill Approved by House Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Interior Committee reversed itself today and approved 17-12, a Senate-passed bill to establish the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore in western Michigan.

The committee, in a surprise action last Thursday, voted down the bill 12-8 to create the national lakeshore on the edge of Lake Michigan, at an estimated cost of $25.3 million.

Saylor's motion to reconsider was then approved 17-12 and approval of the bill followed.

Saylor last Thursday first voted for the bill but later changed his vote to no to permit him to ask for reconsideration.

Before chairman Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo., could put the motion to a vote, Rep. Charlotte T. Reid, R-Ill., moved that Saylor's motion be tabled.

Mrs. Reid was defeated on a 17-12 vote and Rep. Craig Hosmer, R-Calif., then challenged the proxies cast. Aspinall ruled them acceptable.

If the bill wins eventual House passage, it will have to go back to the Senate because of various amendments adopted by the House committee.

Annual 4-H Parade Is Viewed by 1,000

Despite threatening skies and forecasts of rain, more than 1,000 people lined Saginaw Street yesterday evening to watch the annual 4-H parade.

The half-hour parade, which contained a wide variety of floats, walking units, horses, dogs and the state champion Rae-Vens Drill Team, marked today's official opening of the Oakland County 4-H Fair.

First prize for the best float in the parade went to the Bloomfield 4-H Club. The Oakhill Club of Holly took second place honors and the Ro-Hi Club of Holly was awarded third place.

The Paint Creek Club won fourth place while honorable mention went to the Pine Knob Club of East Orion and the Oxford Club.

★ ★ ★

The K-9 Club, made up of 4-H dog owners from all over the county, took first-place honors among the walking units.

SET UP EXHIBITS

The Wolverine Riders were second-place winners in that category and the Straw Hats from Galloway Lake took third place.

The 4-H fairgrounds at Perry and Walton was a beehive of activity this morning as some 1,200 youngsters began setting up nearly 4,000 exhibits for judging.

Awarding of ribbons in home economics, photography, flowers, vegetables, poultry, rabbits and general exhibits was scheduled to get under way at 1 p.m. today.

★ ★ ★

Highlighting tonight's program, which gets under way at 7:30, will be the crowning of the 4-H king and queen and The Pontiac Press Freckle Contest.

BEEF JUDGING

Tomorrow's schedule calls for beef judging and junior beef showmanship at 9 a.m., followed by clothing judging at 10.

The Ralph Braid trophy for beef showmanship will be presented at 1 p.m. English Halter class judging will also get under way at 1, along with swine judging.

A vegetable judging contest and flower identification contest will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

Tomorrow is also kiddies day, when children will be admitted to the Wade Amusement Co.'s eight rides at reduced rates.

The evening program calls for a tractor operators' contest and senior beef showmanship, to begin at 7 p.m.

Lunar Orbiter Poised for Today's Launch

Turnout Is Moderate for Arkansas Runoff

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas selected a Democratic nominee for governor on this warm, sunny day and early reports from the polls indicated a moderate turnout of voters.

* * *

The choice in a runoff primary was between Jim Johnson, 41, a dedicated foe of the federal government; and Frank Holt, 55, who is pledged to continue the state's friendly relations with Washington.

* * *

The vote was expected to be somewhat lighter than that in a July 26 preferential primary when 420,000 voted and Johnson led the ticket with 195,000 votes.

About 400,000 of 684,000 registered voters were expected to cast ballots. Most local races were settled in the first primary and this usually results in a light runoff turnout.

POLL TIMES

Polls opened at 8 p.m. and close at 6:30 p.m.

* * *

Johnson pegged his campaign on criticism of President Johnson, federal school desegregation orders and just about everything else that emanates from Washington.

* * *

Holt contended that the election of Johnson could endanger the state's rewarding participating in dozens of federal aid programs.

To which Johnson replied: "I couldn't end most of these programs if I wanted to. Jim Johnson's not going to chose the post office."

Johnson, an avowed segregationist, has charged that Holt is a tool of the political organization which has supported retiring Gov. Orval Faubus for years.

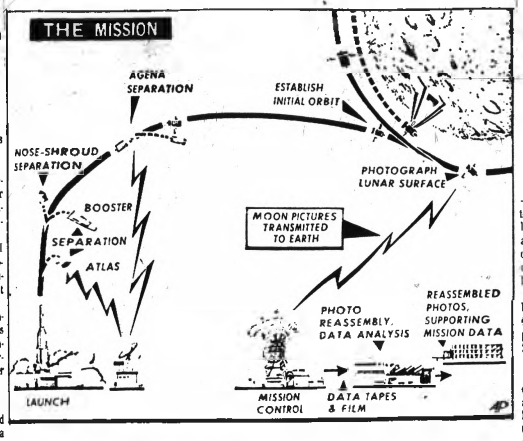

NO ENDORSEMENT

Faubus, quitting undefeated after 12 years, with his eye on a possible race against Democratic Sen. J. William Fulbright in 1968, has not endorsed either candidate in the runoff.

A few years ago the winner of the Democratic primary could sit back and wait for automatic election in November. This is no longer true. Winthrop Rockefeller and a revitalized Republican Party are waiting for the winner of what has developed into a real fight among Democrats.

* * *

Johnson is the champion of the conservative element of the state party, a vigorous proponent of state's rights and an unrelenting critic of federal efforts in the field of civil rights.

MISSION IN SPACE — The Lunar Orbiter, set to be launched by an Atlas-Agena rocket (left) from Cape Kennedy this afternoon, is intended to achieve a lunar orbit less than 30 miles above the moon's surface. High resolution pictures are to be made of a narrow belt across the lunar equator (upper right) and transmitted to a ground station (lower right).

To Photograph Sites on Moon

Nine Landing Areas Will Be Key Objective

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —Lunar Orbiter, a flying photography lab, was poised for launching today toward an orbit about the moon to snap pictures of the hidden backside, Surveyor 1 and nine potential astronaut landing sites.

An Atlas-Agena rocket was to blast off between 2:03 p.m. and 4:42 p.m. EDT to start the 850-pound spacecraft on its intended 238,944-mile journey.

* * *

With its four solar panels folded down to give it the appearance of a giant four-leaf clover, Lunar Orbiter was to dart through the weightless world of space for 90 hours, reaching the vicinity of the moon Saturday morning.

* * *

If successful, it would be the first payload sent into orbit around the moon by the United States. Seven previous attempts failed, six in the early days of rocketry between 1958 and 1960. The Soviet Union succeeded with Luna 10 last April but it carried no cameras.

MORE SOPHISTICATED

Lunar Orbiter is a much more sophisticated vehicle than any of the others and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said it had a much greater chance of success than the earlier U.S. tries.

About 550 miles from the moon, after two tricky midcourse maneuvers, a ground signal was to trigger a spacecraft motor, slowing the speed so the probe would be caught in the moon's gravitational field.

* * *

For several days, the ground planned to track the craft as it whirled in an orbit ranging from 110 to 1,100 miles above the moon. Then the motor was to be fired again to drop the low point to 26 miles above the surface.

While in the high orbit, Lunar Orbiter's two cameras were to take a few general interest pictures, including glimpses of the side of the moon that never faces the earth. The only previous shots of the backside were made by the Soviet Union's Luna 3 and Zond 3 — from 37,000 miles and 6,000 miles as they raced past the moon.

LANDING AREAS

Photos of the nine potential astronaut landing areas were to wait until the spacecraft dipped to the lower course, starting about Aug. 22.

The nine areas are located in a narrow band stretching across the moon's equator and include major types of terrain —flat plains, craters and highlands.

* * *

One of the areas is in the Ocean of Storms near the crater Falmsteed where Surveyor 1 landed in June and transmitted 11,237 closeup pictures. Officials hoped Lunar Orbiter would obtain pictures of Surveyor 1 and its surroundings.

Birmingham Area News

Commission Adopts Motorcycle Controls

BIRMINGHAM — New measures aimed at regulating motorcycle rental agencies were adopted by the City Commission last night.

The controls ban agencies from operating within 500 feet of a residential district and establish the hours that the businesses can be open.

The new ordinance sets the hours of operation between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m., and at the same time prohibits the return of the vehicles between 6 p.m. and 10 a.m.

The restrictions were approved after weeks of discussion by the commission over the rising number of motorcycle injuries in the city.

* * *

According to Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley, injuries this year will probably double the 23 recorded in 1965.

18 INJURIES

During the first six months of this year, 18 motorcycle injuries were reported, half of them in June alone.

Only three injuries occurred in all of 1964.

Under the new ordinance, a rental agency can't operate unless the applicant for a license provides a $5,000 surety bond which protects the city against any damage caused by a motorcycle.

* * *

No action was taken on an amendment that would have required the agency to provide operators with a protective helmet since a bill to that effect is pending in the legislature.

ONE AGENCY

There is only one motorcycle rental agency presently operating in the city.

Another proposal that would prohibit passengers from riding on vehicles with five horsepower or less was referred to the city attorney for study.

* * *

State law allows passengers on motorcycles of greater horsepower.

Mrs. Charles A. Leach, of 900 Wimbleton, has been appointed chairman of the Women's Volunteer Services Committee, Oakland County Chapter of the National Foundation — March of Dimes.

Her activities will include birth defect education through the medium of slides and films, speakers, literature, tours of the March of Dimes Birth Defect Center, and working with volunteers in Oakland County's children's health program.

A tour of the March of Dimes Birth Defect Treatment Center, Ann Arbor, will be held in October for local and state club presidents and key volunteers.

Mrs. Leach has planned three discussion series on birth defects to be held at the school administration office in Bloomfield Hills. The first will be on Sept. 19. The second and third discussion series will be Oct. 17 and Nov. 21.

Other past March of Dimes activities for Mrs. Leach include Mothers' March co-chairman of Birmingham, Mothers' March Colonel, Captain and a Marching Mother for the Birmingham area.

County Dems' Convention Is Tomorrow

The Oakland County Democratic Convention will be held tomorrow evening in the supervisors' auditorium at the County Courthouse.

* * *

Congressman Billie S. Farnum of the 19th District will be the keynote speaker at the 8 p.m. session.

Immediately after convening, delegates from the 18th and 19th Congressional districts will hold separate meetings and then return to complete the agenda of the full convention.

Among the resolutions to be considered will be the support of the Osteopathic College in Pontiac, a stand on Viet Nam, civil rights, housing, water pollution and mental health.

* * *

A total of 182 delegates will be named to attend the state convention later this month. This includes 116 from the 18th District and 76 from the 19th District.

Orchard Lake Nixes Sewers

city needed sewers now or in the near future.

He also said that he believed another interceptor was going to be built which the city could use.

R. J. Alexander, Director of Public Works for Oakland County, said that there is a definite need for sewers in any community that is served by septic tanks.

He said that there is always a danger of sewage flowing into streams and lakes near-by.

* * *

Alexander said that any future interceptor would not be constructed for a least 10 years. He also expressed displeasure that the isolated community of Orchard Lake had turned down its second chance to connect with a major sewage system.

'Going to Cicero'

Marchers Eye Chicago Suburb

CHICAGO (AP) — Cicero, scene of one of the Chicago area's worst race riots 15 years ago, has been named the next major target of the open housing drive being conducted by civil rights leaders.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, an aide of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., told a rally of 1,000 civil rights workers Monday night: "I'm going to Cicero!"

Cicero, an industrial suburb of 70,000 white persons which hugs Chicago's western border, once harbored Al Capone's bootleggers.

The civil rights rally was held at the Warren Avenue Congregational Church where participants of the drive for open housing met to hear Jackson and other leaders discuss strategy and disclose new target areas.

* * *

Although the Rev. Mr. Jackson indicated Cicero was among immediate target areas, others in the King organization said there are no firm plans for a march there this week or even this summer.

The Rev. James Bevel said there will be a demonstration Wednesday, probably in Bogan, a southwest side neighborhood adjacent to Chicago Lawn, where whites attacked a civil rights column last Friday.

"We marched in Jackson and Selma," Bevel said, "and we will march in Cicero."

Bevel said Cook County and Cicero authorities will be asked to protect the demonstrators.

"If they want to protect us, all right; if they don't, we will march anyway," Bevel declared.

FBI COUNT

Chief Arthur Bilek of the sheriff's police said his 176-man force would provide as much help as possible. The Cicero force totals 99 men according to FBI statistics.

Jackson and Bevel said the march would take place this week, but would not say when.

* * *

Cicero received its first taste of violence in 1925 when Al Capone shifted his operations from Chicago. A series of underworld-style shootings earned the town national attention.

On July 11, 1951 a Negro bus driver, Harvey E. Clark, rented an apartment in Cicero. On July 12, he moved in some furniture. That night, vandals broke into the building and destroyed the furniture. A mob of 5,000 hurled bottles and bricks and home-made fire bombs at the building.

The National Guard was ordered to Cicero by Adlai E. Stevenson, then governor of Illinois. Martial law was declared in the area.

3 Are Sought in $1,800 Theft at City Store

Two women and a man who "hung around" a Pontiac jewelry store for several hours yesterday are sought by Pontiac police after discovery of $1,800 worth of missing watches and pendants.

* * *

William McClean, 68, co-owner of Pauli's Jewelry at 28 W. Huron, told police he first noticed the jewelry was gone about 6 p.m. yesterday, an hour after the three suspects left the store.

McClean said the women appeared to be shopping, while the man came and left the store only to return again.

The missing items had been in showcases at the rear of the store, he said.

Police theorized one of the trio slipped the jewels out of the display case some time when McClean's attention was diverted by the other two.

Tentative OK on Housing Site Is Due

Tentative federal approval of the site for proposed public housing for the elderly is to be received tonight by the City Commission.

Approval of the site authorizes the Public Housing Commission to proceed with the preparation of a development program for the site.

Final approval would follow after the development program is okayed by Housing and Urban Development officials.

Previously Pontiac had been approved for 250 units of public housing designed for the elderly.

The proposed site of the high-rise apartment units is along East Wide Track at Cottage.

In other business scheduled for tonight's regular commission meeting, the commission is to consider a plan for revamping the parking lot back of City Hall.

Searchers Find Slain Teen Girl

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A search party has found the body of a teen-age girl who police say was raped and choked to death after her two male companions had been shot and killed.

The discovery Monday night ended a search touched off early Sunday when a curious fisherman opened the trunk of an abandoned auto and found the bullet-riddled bodies of two teen-age boys.

* * *

Investigators charged Roy Green, 18, and Kenneth McDuff, 20, both from the Marlin area 100 miles south of here, with murder, then lodged rape complaints on the basis of a statement by Green.

The two youths were accused of slaying Robert Brand, 17, of Alvardo, his cousin, Mark Dunnam, 16, of Tarzana, Calif., and Edna Louise Sullivan, 16, of Everman.

Central Texas authorities arrested Green and McDuff separately late Sunday and brought them to the Tarrant County jail here.

McDuff denied any knowledge of the slayings, but Green, shortly after his arrest, blurted: "My God, I've got to tell somebody about it. I can't sleep. I can't think. I can't do nothing."

Negotiators in Airline Strike to Make Another Settlement Try

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators for striking mechanics and five trunk airlines agreed today to make another effort at solving the dispute that has grounded about 60 per cent of the nation's airline capacity.

The parties, who met into Monday night without narrowing the gap between their positions, yielded to urgent personal requests from the House Commerce Committee, which is considering a back-to-work bill already passed by the Senate.

* * *

Rep. Samuel N. Friedel, D-Md., presiding over today's hearing, asked first the president of the International Association of Machinists, P. L. Siemiller and then the chief negotiator for the airlines, William J. Curtin, whether they were willing to meet this afternoon. Both said they were. Friedel then had them set the time and place before he continued with the committee session.

The meeting was set for 2:30 p.m. at the Labor Department.

PROSPECTS NOT BRIGHT

However, nothing happened at today's committee hearing that gave any indication the negotiators would do any better at reaching common ground than they did Monday.

The assessment when they broke up Monday night was "ceiling zero, visibility, zero," on prospects for a negotiated settlement in the month-old walkout.

On the legislative question before the committee, Siemiller and Curtin made completely opposed recommendations.

Siemiller stuck to his contention that ordering the striking mechanics back to work for a cooling-off period would hand the airlines a huge bargaining advantage and that no effective bargaining can be expected while Congress is even considering legislation.

3 More U.S. Planes Downed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — North Viet Nam's antiaircraft defenses knocked down three more U.S. planes Monday as American jets pounded the Communist north with a record 130 combat missions. Ten American planes have been lost over North Viet Nam since Sunday.

More than 300 planes probably took part in the assault, since a mission may involve three or four planes. But a U.S. spokesman said there had been other days on which more planes had been sent against the north although on fewer missions.

* * *

The three planes lost Monday were all Air Force Thunderchief fighter-bombers, the U.S. command said. Two were shot down 60 miles northwest of Hanoi. The third was hit 55 miles northwest of Dong Hoi. Only one pilot was rescued, and two are missing.

Five of the seven planes lost Sunday were Thunderchiefs. Six pilots are missing from those raids.

GROUND WAR PICKS UP

As the North Vietnamese brought the number of U.S. planes lost above the 17th Parallel to 329, the ground war picked up in South Viet Nam. U.S. Marines battled a North Vietnamese company through the night near the demilitarized zone and other American troops tracked a battered Communist battalion in the central highlands after it mauled a U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Company.

Reports from the highland battleground said the cavalrymen counted at least 85 enemy dead and estimated at least 100 more were killed by U.S. air and artillery fire.

* * *

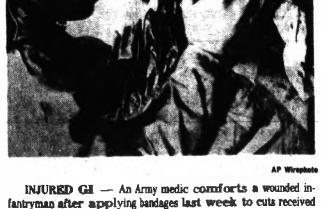

The fighting was accompanied by sudden spurt in helicopter losses. Nine U.S. Army and Marine choppers were casualties Monday. Two crashed and burned west of the highland town of Pleiku, while seven more were damaged in other action.

170 DEAD

Vietnamese marines reported finding 170 enemy dead after allied air strikes during Operation Colorado. It began Saturday as a joint enterprise of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops in Quang Tin Province 350 miles northeast of Saigon. A U.S. spokesman said 225 Communists had been killed in the sweep.

* * *

With the help of air and artillery support, two small Marine units stood off an estimated 150 North Vietnamese through the night just south of the demilitarized zone where the Leatherlined necks met and scattered a division of Hanoi regulars last month.

Peace Talks Chance Seen

MANILA (UPI) — Philippine President Ferdinand E. Marcos said today there was a "fair chance" of a peace conference by Asian nations to seek an end to the war in Viet Nam.

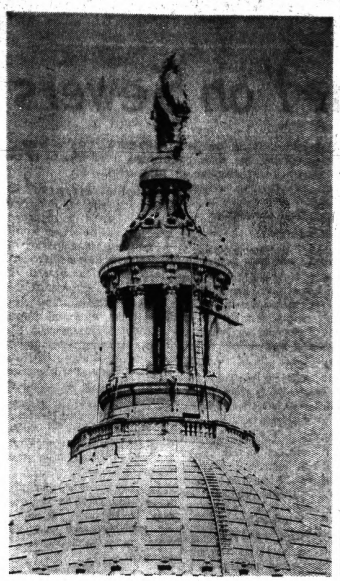

North Viet Nam and Communist China already have rejected the suggestion first raised by Thailand at a recent meeting of the Association of Asian States (ASA) of which the Philippines and Malaysia also are members.

Marcos told a news conference that nations which might take part in an all-Asia meeting were the Philippines, Pakistan, India, Ceylon, Burma Japan, Cambodia, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand and Laos.

But in Taipei, Formosa, the foreign ministry today indicated that the Nationalist Chinese government may scuttle the move by the three member-nations of the ASA to bring peace to Viet Nam.

* * *

A spokesman of the ministry told UPI the ministry has so far not made any official announcement of its attitude on the issue because it has not received the letter sent by the Philippines, Thailand and Malaysia.

King and Kennedy Plead for Racial Unity

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Southern Christian Leadership Conference continues its three-day convention here with a new plea for unity.

King and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., key speaker at a "freedom banquet" Monday, called for a massive commitment of the nation's resources to upgrade the Negro's life in America.

★ ★ ★

King met Kennedy at the airport when Kennedy flew in for the talk.

Two police cars escorting them to town were disabled by flat tires. Police reported later that about 300 pounds of carpet tacks were found scattered on the highway from the airport.

URGES SUPPORT

Kennedy urged Negroes to stand by their white supporters. He proposed a massive program to help Negroes, and said it would "cost a lot of money, but we can afford it.

"We have the resources many times over. The only thing we lack is the will. We are spending $2 billion a month to defend the freedom of 14 million people in South Viet Nam. Why shouldn't we make the same kind of effort for the 20 million people of the Negro race right here in America whose freedom and future is also at stake?"

★ ★ ★

Kennedy said the program should start with short-range projects, including summer work and recreation for Negro youths. This would be followed by long-range projects, he said, including improvements in schools, cities, housing and job opportunities for Negroes.

★ ★ ★

"We may not have much time to spare if we are to avoid a racial crisis in this country," Kennedy said. "but the hour is not yet too late. We can do it."

PULLING APART

He said the divisions between whites and Negroes, and rich and poor, have been aggravated in recent months by the desire of some Negro leaders to pull apart from the white men who have been helping them.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy continued: "The greatest gains in civil rights have come when black and white have worked together. The very basis of integration is working together with white people.

★ ★ ★

"If you cast them off — if you isolate yourselves—you will be strengthening the bonds of the whole system of segregation. You will be crippling your own effectiveness in what is basically not a white cause or a Negro cause, but an American cause."

Belief in God has declined slightly in the United States during the last 14 years.

Tear Gas Routs Rally in Mississippi Town

GRENADA, Miss. (AP) — Civil rights leaders said state highway patrolmen used tear gas to break up a Negro voter registration rally Monday night.

NO COMMENT

City police and highway patrol officials were unavailable for comment.

Robert Johnson, who identified himself as a Grenada worker for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said one patrolman told Hosea Williams, a leader of the SCLC who was conducting the rally, to disperse the crowd.

★ ★ ★

"When they didn't move," Johnson said, "the officer opened fire with tear gas." Johnson also claimed one state trooper fired two gunshots, "one at me."

Harkley Klinefelter of the SCLC said there were about 600 Negroes in the rally outside a cafe being used during the night hours by federal registrars to sign up voters in the Negro neighborhood.

TEAR GAS

He said about 30 troopers moved in on the rally, firing about 20 cannisters of tear gas, hitting several people.

However, an officer at state police headquarters in Jackson, about 100 miles away, said only 10 highway patrolmen were assigned in Grenada.

Willie Savage, owner of the cafe, said the federal registrars left about 8 p.m. and the Negroes moved onto the street for the rally, where Williams climbed atop a car to talk.

Savage said highway patrolmen ordered the rally off the street and Williams directed the crowd to move to a nearby parking lot.

"Then they started blowing gas," Savage said.

He said Grenada Police Chief Pat Ray came into the cafe after the rally was scattered and told him to close up.

Campaign Chiefs Agree Viet Support Beneficial

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's Democratic and Republican campaign chiefs agreed today the best course their party candidates can follow in this fall's congressional election is to support President Johnson's Viet Nam policies.

Sens. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, head of the Democratic Campaign Committee, and his GOP counterpart, Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, also agreed in separate interviews that full employment is likely to offset in part dissatisfaction with rising consumers prices.

★ ★ ★

Magnuson looked for an even exchange of Senate seats, with the Democrats retaining their 67-33 Senate margin. Morton felt the Republicans would pick up from three to six Senate seats in 35 contests in 33 states.

Magnuson said that while he isn't pressing senatorial candidates to follow the advice of Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien to campaign in full support of the administration's Viet Nam policies, he has found that those who do have won most of the primaries.

NOT AN ISSUE

"The Republicans aren't making Viet Nam an issue in most races and I think that is because there is wide support for the President's policies," Magnuson said.

★ ★ ★

Morton said that most Republicans take the position that Johnson is pursuing the right course but hasn't done enough yet to bring the war to an honorable conclusion.

★ ★ ★

"I think that from the Republicans' standpoint, the issue is simple," he said. "We don't debate how many angels can stand on a pin. We have nearly 300,000 men in Viet Nam and we and the President want to get them out under honorable conditions.

"We are not weakening our President. It is the statements of prominent Democrats that we don't have a sense of purpose in the war that have encouraged the North Vietnamese to keep on fighting.

MORE GOP

"The greatest service the country could do for the President in this respect would be to give him more Republicans in Congress."

★ ★ ★

Magnuson said that while inflation will be a problem in the election, he believes the administration is "doing a great deal to slow it up."

EMOTIONAL ISSUE

Morton said the inflation issue is becoming an emotional one.

"For the first time," he said, "the housewife is dealing directly with it. It's not something confined to economic charts but something tangible she finds at the grocery store. It is going to be more of an issue than it has in the past because it's close to her and the housewife is mad."

Joint Program Bogged Down

Walled Lake, Novi 'Far Apart' on Sewers

Walled Lake and Novi may have a joint sewer program in the future, but at the moment any cooperative planning seems to be bogged down by a lack of communications.

Although Walled Lake, through the firm of Johnson and Anderson Inc., has completed 77 per cent of the total project plans, the Village of Novi has not been informed of these plans, according to Harold N. Ackley, village assessor.

Nor has Walled Lake contacted the Department of Public Works (DPW), through which the project is being developed, said R. J. Alexander, director of public works for Oakland County.

Royce Downey, city manager of Walled Lake, said it was up to Novi's representative, Donald C. Young, to contact Walled Lake. He further stated that Walled Lake has no direct contact with the DPW until the plans are complete, but that the firm of Johnson and Anderson has been in contact with the department.

* * *

The concept for a joint sewer system began in 1961 when both Novi and Walled Lake were invited to make use of an interceptor extending from Wayne County. The plans called for both communities to extend the sewer line, called the Huron-Rouge interceptor.

SERVE 2,900

The sewage was to be treated in Detroit and would serve a total of 2,900 units.

Walled Lake determined that the cost of extending the interceptor would be too great for the community. Novi was able to meet the finances, however, and the southern portion of the village is now served by the interceptor.

Walled Lake proceeded to investigate other types of sewage systems, including a lagoon-type system. In 1962, the city asked Novi to share the expenses of a preliminary study of this type of system, designed to serve Walled Lake and the northern portion of Novi.

The study indicated that the lagoon-type system would not be feasible because the soil on the property was not suitable. A temporary treatment plant was proposed as an alternative project.

* * *

The treatment plant was planned to function only until the Huron-Rouge interceptor could be extended up to Walled Lake.

CIRCLE LAKE

Plans called for an interceptor to circle the lake plus a small treatment plant with a total of approximately 2,200 tap-ins.

Walled Lake was to pay 65 per cent of the cost with 1,400 tap-ins while Novi was to pay 35 per cent of the cost with 800 tap-ins.

Since the entire city of Walled Lake would be involved in the project, its portion of the total cost would be financed by an ad valorem tax.

Only a northern portion of the village of Novi would be affected, so financing would have to be by special assessment districts.

HEARING HELD

In June of 1963, the village held a hearing to determine the necessity for sewers in the area. A definite need was established and special assessment districts were set up.

In July of the same year, the village council voted to delay any action until the exact cost of the project was determined and until it knew Walled Lake's intentions and how soon it would proceed with the project.

News of the Area

A joint meeting of the two communities was held in February of this year. It was known that an industrial park was planned to be built in the Novi area.

* * *

The major obstacle in the construction of the plant was the determination of the number of sewer taps required.

BOTH LIMITED

Both Walled Lake and Novi were limited in the number of taps by the Health Department and the amount was not sufficient for the development of the plant.

Ackley explained that, in order to increase the number of taps, the treatment plant would have to be enlarged and that this could not be done because of the limited amount of land available.

At this meeting, a special committee was established, made up of representatives from both communities to study the proposed construction of a treatment plant, the number of homes it would serve and the total cost of the plant.

Donald C. Young, the Novi representative, was voted off the council after about two of these meetings, but the council asked him to continue as their committee representative.

NO CONTACT

Since that time, according to Ackley, Young has not been contacted by Walled Lake. Downey said that since Young was voted out of office, the city has not been contacted by him and has not received any word on Young's position.

In the meantime, Downey said, the city has asked to join in the Wixom sewer system but was turned down because of overloaded facilities.

Walled Lake has continued with construction plans for the project, including the treatment plant to be built in the village of Novi. Downey said that construction would not begin for two to three years.

Although Walled Lake is anxious for Novi to join in the effort to clean up the lake region, Downey said, the village doesn't seem too enthusiastic. He said that it is for this reason that the city has proceeded on its own.

BY WALLED LAKE

Downey further stated that if the village decides not to join in the project, it will be financed entirely by Walled Lake.

DPW Director Alexander said that if the project is continued, it will have to be a joint effort.

Walled Lake has recently invited the village of Wolverine Lake to join in the program. Downey said the village would be able to join the project by increasing the size of the treatment plant.

* * *

Ackley, however, stated that the Health Department would not allow any expansion in the plant. A hearing is tentatively set up for October with the Health Department to determine if the plant could be expanded, Downey said.

Ackley said that on the basis of this experience, he would definitely advise the council not to take part in any more joint community projects.

Downey emphasized that the area was really all one community working on one problem. He said that Walled Lake and Novi are not only neighbors, but cousins.

Two-Year Contract Is Reached by School Officials and HVEA

MILFORD — Negotiating teams representing the board of education and the Huron Valley Education Association have reached a two-year contract agreement.

Among the features of the agreement are a 60-day accumulated sick leave for the 1966-67 school year and a 70-day accumulated sick leave for the 1967-68 year. The present leave is 50 days.

Also included in the contract is a payment of $9.25 per employe to be made by the board for each school month of hospitalization insurance.

The new salary schedule, based on nine steps, gives beginning teachers with bachelor degrees $5,675 with a maximum of $8,735. The present schedule ranges from $5,200 to $7,800.

Under the new agreement teachers with a master's degree will receive salaries ranging from $5,958 to $9,647. The present schedule calls for salaries beginning at $5,408 with a maximum of $8,580.

TOTAL COST

The total cost to the board for the contract is $215,000.

Neil Davis, president of the Huron Valley Education Association, said a ratification vote on the contract will possibly take place on the first day of school this fall.

Lake Orion Hearings Set

Work on New Charter Said on Schedule

LAKE ORION — Work on the village's proposed new charter is proceeding according to expectations and should be complete by early next month.

Wesley B. Allen spokesman for the five-member Charter Commission, said Sept. 14 has been set as the target date for completion of the new charter.

Sept. 14 is also the first of two dates set aside for public hearings on the charter. The second hearing has tentatively been slated for Sept. 28.

The commission has been at work on the project since March when it was established by the village voters.

* * *

Allen said the key points in the document were the provisions for an expanded village council and for a village manager system of government.

PRESENT COUNCIL

The present six-man village council with a president chosen by the village electorate would be replaced by a seven-man council, including a president selected by the council members.

The commission felt, explained Allen, that the expanded council was needed to adequately serve the interests of each geographical section of the community.

The president would serve as a voting member of the council and be recognized as the official representative of the community but would have no veto power. He would also be chairman of all council meetings.

An election would be held annually to select four councilmen. The three candidates receiving the most votes would get two-year terms while the fourth-leading vote recipient would be awarded a one-year term.

The second key provision noted by Allen was the one establishing a village manager administrative system.

The manager would be chosen by the council to hold office for an indefinite term. He would serve on a full-time basis and would have complete charge of the day-to-day operations of village government.

The new charter provides for the appointment of all village officers, except for manager, clerk and village attorney, by the village manager.

Allen said plans now call for the charter proposal to be presented to the voters for their approval next March.

Their approval of the plan would change the village governmental structure for the first time since March of 1891 when the present charter was installed.

Even if the charter proposal is approved, however, it would not take full effect until at least a year later, Allen said.

On the ballot for March of 1967, besides the charter proposal, will be the regular races for village president, clerk and councilmen.

Those elected will serve out their normal terms. Officers would be elected under the new charter in March of 1968.

Pension Plan Okayed for Employes

The Waterford Township Board adopted a retirement system for township employes last night with a Sept. 1 effective date.

The move climaxed a three-year struggle to establish a pension plan.

For one reason or another, a plan had never been approved until last night.

All township elected and appointed officials except policemen and firemen, who are covered by a similar retirement plan, are eligible to participate in the system.

* * *

At a recent meeting, 24 of 27 employes in attendance voted in favor of the plan after firing questions at Ronald Smith of Gabriel, Roeder, Smith and Co., consulting actuaries of Detroit who drew up the plan.

1965 FIGURES

Based on June 1965 figures which showed 41 employes earning an aggregate annual salary of $260,898, the township's first year cost would be $34,728.

However, since there are more employes and a higher combined wage now, the first year cost would be greater than the original estimate.

Employes will pay three per cent on the first $6,600 of their annual salary and five per cent on any amount in excess of this figure.

* * *

The township's share is 12.98 per cent of the first $6,600 an employe earns and 16.55 per cent of portions over this figure.

YEARS OF SERVICE

Pension amounts will be based on years of service at retirement and average monthly wage of an employe over a period of five consecutive years.

An employe with 20 years service, earning an average of $6,000 a year, will receive pension pay totaling $2,400.

Trustee Loren Anderson was the lone dissenter in last night's 6-1 affirmative vote.

Anderson asserted he is in favor of a retirement plan for employes, but said that many questions about the plan were unanswered, including the township's share of the expense the first year.

KNOW COST

"I will not agree to enter into any agreement or contract between the township and anyone without first knowing the cost to the township," said Anderson.

"This is, I believe, to be in the best interest of the township."

In other business, the board authorized Township Attorney Paul Mandel to acquire options on three two-acre parcels of land for test well purposes.

* * *

Water Department Superintendent Kenneth Squiers assured the board that present water capacity is sufficient.

HEARING DATE

Sept. 12 was set as the public hearing date for two special assessment district street lighting projects on Edgeorge Street in Holiday Farms No. 3 Subdivision and on Seebaldt Street from Walton south to Louella in Loon Lake Heights Subdivision.

Service charge to residents for maintenance of four lights on Seebaldt Street would be $151.32 a year or $2.91 for each of the 52 assessments.

Edgeorge residents would be assessed $8.40 each per year for operation of two new lights. The township would pay 10 per cent of the total yearly charge of $84.

RENAME STREET

In still other business, the board agreed with the Oakland County Road Commission on renaming West Embarcadero to Lake Oakland Shores Drive.

The action was called for when residents of West Embarcadero and nearby Embarcadero complained about confusion arising from similar addresses on the two streets.

The township will pay for seven new street signs at a total cost of $70.

* * *

Approved last night was a request for a new SDM license for Wonder Drugs of Waterford, Inc., 5967 M59.

REZONING REQUEST

Also last night, the board read first notice on a request to rezone from local business (C-1) to single family residential (R-1B) a parcel in Meniwaters Subdivision, and tabled a proposal for a scrap yard license at 2242 Edinburgh.

New Building Off From July '65 Mark

New construction in Waterford Township last month fell below July 1965 figures, according to a report submitted to the township board last night.

Estimated cost of new construction, additions and alterations last month totaled $546,363 as 105 building permits were issued by the township's building department.

In July 1965, 157 permits were issued for construction estimated to cost $975,681.

Despite the decline, total estimated valuation of new construction, additions and alterations the first seven months this year is still ahead of the 1965 pace for the same period.

* * *

Estimated construction valuation through July this year amounted to $6,997,916 compared with $6,466,216 for the same period last year.

RECORD SET

And last year, a record was set when permits were issued for construction estimated to cost $15,031,037.

Primary reason for last month's dip was a drop in the number of permits granted for new home construction.

Only 17 permits were issued for new home construction estimated to cost $287,723. This compares with issuance of 33 permits for new home construction worth an estimated $575,332 in July 1965.

* * *

Among the permits issued last month was one for a six-unit apartment building on Voorheis estimated to cost $46,000 and another for a $41,400 addition to Terry Machine Shop.

Other permits approved were for 17 home additions, $47,450; 32 garages, $47,178; nine swimming pools, $30,595; 19 home remodelings, $29,780; an addition to Fire Station No. 2, $8,387; two garages and breezeways, $5,750; and four commercial signs, $2,100.

Water Mark Is Set in July

A record volume of water was pumped through Waterford Township's internal water system last month.

A new mark also was established for number of new connections to the system, according to a report submitted by Water Department Superintendent Kenneth Squiers to the township board last night.

Some 93,788,000 gallons of water were pumped through township lines last month, exceeding the previous high of 81,999,400 set this June by 11,788,600 gallons.

In July 1965, water usage totaled 78,216,060 gallons.

On the average day last month, 3,025,415 gallons of water flowed through the system.

* * *

In this year's record pace, township residents have used 322,392,900 gallons of water the first seven months.

Fifty-two new connections were made last month, two more than the previous record set in May of this year.

8 Hurt in 3 Accidents

Eight persons were injured yesterday in three separate traffic accidents, including a four-car collision in Oakland Township.

The latter accident at Rochester and Whims yesterday afternoon hospitalized four persons, including two children.

In fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital are Beverly A. Melrow, 34, of 158 Whims; her son, Larry, 13; Frederick Rood, 16, of 3735 Aquarina, Waterford Township. Ruth Rood, 46, of the Waterford Township address, suffered multiple injuries. Her condition was not given.

Sheriff deputies said a car driven by Virginia A. Mosher, 35, of 122 Bradley, Romeo, apparently struck the Melrow car in the rear, sending it across the center line into the Rood auto, which, in turn, slide into a car driven by William B. Miles, 24, 11391 31 Mile Road, Romeo.

In a second accident yesterday, 22-year-old Dale W. Charlick of 2520 M59, Highland Township, riding a motorcycle, collided with a car driven by George W. Brown, 50, of 2144 Davista, also Highland Township.

FAIR CONDITION

The 9 a.m. accident occurred at M59 and North Milford Road in Highland Township. Charlick is in fair condition with a broken leg at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

In a 5:45 p.m. accident at Rochester Road, just north of Tienken, Avon Township, two more persons were injured.

In satisfactory condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital are Basil P. Popa, 46, and his wife, Betty, 42, of 348 E. Third, Rochester.

The Popa car collided with an auto driven by Bruce Shear, 16, of 4966 N. Rochester Road, Avon Township.

John A. Macdonald

Few have been privileged to serve his fellows to the extent that had JOHN A. MACDONALD during a life that exceeded the Biblical promise by eight years.

Chairman of the Oakland County Social Welfare Board for the quarter-century preceding his death, Mr. MACDONALD had previously been attached to the sheriff's department in law enforcement capacities.

In 1950 he was recognized by the Oakland Citizens League for service to the community and in 1965 was named temporary chairman of Oakland County Board of Institutions.

A native of Michigan, Mr. MACDONALD was identified with the former Wilson Foundry Corp., one of Pontiac's pioneer industries, for 25 years before entering public service.

This early business training stood him in good stead when he assumed direction of the County's welfare establishment, as it enabled him to introduce sound business methods in the administration of the sort of agency that often suffers from an unrealistic attitude toward public money in its dispensation of relief funds. Thanks to Mr. MACDONALD,S acumen, uncounted thousands of dollars were saved in meeting the community's responsibility to the needy.

★ ★ ★

The many friends and colleagues of John Macdonald, drawn to him by his engaging personality and integrity, will mourn his passing with deep sorrow.

Fair to Display Achievements of 4-H Members

Yesterday's parade ushered in Oakland County's annual 4-H Week spotlighting the fair where more than 4,000 exhibits of achievement will be on display.

Some 2,200 youngsters make up the County's 77 clubs whose 35 project areas embrace all phases of agriculture, livestock husbandry, home economics and mechanics.

At a time when unrest and lack of purpose characterize so large a segment of our youth, the initiative and self-discipline inherent in the 4-H program are forces unsurpassed in character development.

★ ★ ★

In paying respect to the 4-H concept that functions within the framework of the Oakland County Co-Op Extension Service and was instituted in 1914 by the Smith-Lever Act, a full measure of credit is due the body of volunteer adult leaders who direct the young people in their projects. There are 250 of these dedicated leaders serving in the area.

What does 4-H symbolize? Head, Heart, Health and Hand. And when a human being, young or old, has developed the potential in these areas to the utmost, physical and spiritual tone is the inevitable reward.

U.S. to Blow Cigarette Illusions Up in Smoke

Uncle Sam is finally getting around to putting an end to all this conjecture as to which cigarette is the most dangerous—or, to put it positively, the safest.

The government is going to make laboratory tests to determine the exact amount of tar and nicotine in each brand.

★ ★ ★

This will be most interesting especially to the cigarette companies.

It does seem a shame, though, to upset the impression some of us have received—that each and every brand of cigarettes has more and better filter, and therefore less tar and nicotine, than any other brand.

It will be hard for Uncle Sam or anyone else to find a more satisfactory arrangement than that.

Free Funerals Next Gimmick

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — The Great Society is taking such a paternalistic interest in our welfare from cradle-to-grave that it's only a question of time before we'll get free funerals, if there are still enough taxpayers left to pick up the tab.

Ruth Montgomery

When that day comes we may find ourselves facing the same governmental pressure as the Red Chinese, to choose cremation because it's cheaper.

Ancestor - worship is considerably stronger in China than here, but the Mao-Tse tung regime has abolished the Ching Ming festival — the day when Chinese traditionally visit the graves of their ancestors — as an official holiday.

Further, the people are being brainwashed to stop using needed land for grave plots.

★ ★ ★

Throughout most of China the usable land has become communal property. Burying of bodies is prohibited there, and many peasants have been persuaded to remove the bones of their ancestors from old graves, so that the land can be cultivated.

CONTRARY TO CONFUCIUS

This, despite the fact that followers of Confucius condemn cremation as absolutely contrary to his teachings.

Americans may not be too far removed from similar governmental control, because when Big Brother steps into the welfare field, independence inevitably lessens.

Within the past year Congress has voted Medicare not only for the needy over 65, but for every senior citizen without regard to his income, or to whether he has paid a dime into the Social Security system which doles out the cash.

★ ★ ★

Title 19 of the same act will extend hospital and medical benefits to people of any age whose income is decreed to be adequate for normal needs, but not for illness.

MINIMUM INCOME

Another new law provides federal rent subsidies for five big categories of our population, and a recent presidential commission report urges that the government guarantee a minimum income for everybody, whether they earn it or not.

Each of these bonanzas carries a long list of dos and don'ts and musts, miles of red tape, and an army of federal bureaucrats to administer the programs for which our tax money is collected.

Uncle Sam is already meddling with how packaged foods must be labeled, has decreed that health warnings must be printed on cigarettes (but not on liquor, coffee and candy), and has arbitrarily decided how much we can earn while still collecting government subsidies and hand-outs.

★ ★ ★

Since we surely have as much right to die well as to live well, and two recent best-sellers on the high cost of dying have demonstrated public interest, some election-conscious Congress is sure to latch onto free burials as another vote-getting gimmick.

In Shanghai, the cheapest funeral by burial costs $81.90, and by cremation only $8.19, so perhaps the dwindling economy block on Capitol Hill will add an amendment restricting our tax-paid funerals to cremation.

Unless the Great Society decides to outlaw death altogether, that is.

'I Have A Feeling I'm Being Shadowed'

David Lawrence Says:

Nixon Blames Leaders for Riots

WASHINGTON — Wanted: A new "Peace Corps" — one that will undertake a mission of peace inside the United States.

LAWRENCE

Riots in many cities in all sections of the country have been causing loss of life as well as of property.

Forecasts of more disorders and disturbances are being made by police officers who are in intimate touch with the rising passions of communities everywhere.

Many of the leaders of American thought not only in the colleges but in the churches, have argued that "civil disobedience" is fully justified and that each man may decide for himself what laws to obey.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in a copyrighted article in the current issue of "U. S. News & World Report," describes the significance of the problem as he says:

"The polls still place the war in Viet Nam and the rising cost of living as the major political issues of 1966. But, from my own trips across the nation, I can affirm that private conversations and public concern are increasingly focusing upon the issues of disrespect for law and race turmoil. . . .

★ ★ ★

"Who is responsible for the breakdown of law and order in this country? I think it both an injustice and an oversimplification to lay the blame at the feet of the sidewalk demagogues alone. For such a deterioration of respect for law to occur in so brief a time in so great a nation, we must look for more important collaborators and auxiliaries.

'MY BELIEF'

"It is my belief that the seeds of civil anarchy would never have taken root in this nation had they not been nurtured by scores of respected Americans: public officials, educators, clergymen and civil-rights leaders as well."

The only recourse left is to reason with rebellious elements in the clergy of the country, the educators and all others who have been encouraging protests in the streets rather than adherence to the customary ways of obtaining redress through public forums and the people's representatives in governmental bodies.

There is need for a nationwide appeal to churchmen, for instance, who, in their zeal to advance the cause of civil rights, have unwittingly helped break down the precepts of law and order that have been established as fundamental in the American system of government.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps the time has come for the various units of the American Bar Association to form a "peace corps" to sit down with and explain the true meaning of law to the educated as well as the uneducated, to the leaders in the churches as well as their rank and file.

★ ★ ★

Certainly the majority of the American people would like to see steps taken to overcome the ill effects of the doctrine of "civil disobedience."

★ ★ ★

In this way a start could be made toward a restoration of peace inside the United States.

Bob Considine Says:

Bob Kennedy's Question Unanswered in S. Africa

NEW YORK — Sen. Robert Kennedy's succinct definition of South Africa's apartheid (apartness) policy makes informative reading in Look Magazine:

CONSIDINE

"If your skin is black in South Africa:

"You cannot participate in the political process, and you cannot vote.

"You are restricted to jobs for which no whites are available.

"Your wages are from 10 to 40 per cent of those paid a white man for equivalent work.

★ ★ ★

"You are forbidden to own land except in one small area.

INFERIOR BY LAW

"You live with your family only if the government approves.

"The government will spend one-tenth as much to educate your child as it spends to educate a white child.

"You are, by law, an inferior from birth to death.

"You are totally segregated, even at most church services."

Sen. Kennedy asked a lot of questions during his South African trip and he received a lot of answers. But one of his questions, asked at the University of Natal in Durban, went unanswered.

A questioner had explained the South African position to him regarding the attitude of most churches.

After all, the man said, whites and blacks could not worship together because the Bible taught that God created the Negroes to serve.

"But suppose God is black?" Kennedy asked.

"What if we go to heaven and we, all our lives, have treated the Negro as an inferior, and God is there and we look up and he is not white? What then is our response?"

There was no reply.

'Fix Parental Liability in Juvenile Vandalism'

It has never seemed right to me that juveniles, because of their age, could deliberately and wantonly destroy another's property, yet not be responsible for damages. Apparently, some senators in Minnesota feel the same way and decided to do something about it.

A measure, sponsored by a Minneapolis Conservative, Senator Mel Hansen, was approved in the Minnesota Senate which makes parents liable for a maximum of $750 in damages intentionally caused by their children. That is exactly as it should be.

Parents are responsible for the actions of their minor children. Those who do a proper job in training do not need to worry about the outcome since God has guaranteed: "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Question and Answer

The other day you answered a question about F.A.I. air speed records. Can you tell me why I read of planes going several thousand miles an hour, when the official world record is a lot less than that?

12-YEAR-OLD FUTURE PILOT

REPLY

Certain types of planes don't qualify for F.A.I. records because they are carried into the air by another aircraft. The X-15 is such a plane and the record for that type of fixed-wing research aircraft is 4,159 m.p.h. set by J. A. Walker June 27, 1962. The F.A.I. speed record is 1,665.93 m.p.h. set by Col. Georgyi Mosolov over Russia July 7, 1962. Col. Robert L. Stephens and Lt. Col. Daniel Andre reported 2,062 m.p.h. over California May 1, 1965, but that hasn't been ratified.

In Washington:

Brazen Rejection of Rule of Law

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A good proportion of the American people is hiding from some very unpleasant truths about itself.

BIOSSAT

Far too often, public behavior of Americans is appalling. Many are openly and aggressively lawless. Others are basically lawless in spirit and, though they would not acknowledge it, have developed an incredibly high tolerance of crime and violence. Evidently they can feel neither shame nor shock.

Short of the grosser offenses against their fellow Americans, many have made trespass and other invasions of privacy virtually a way of life. They are arrogantly ill-mannered on the highway and in every public place. They are uncaring and indifferent toward the rights and needs of other human beings.

The courts of this country are currently embarked on a process of reinforcing shaky individual freedoms. But while they are about it, countless Americans are turning freedom into license.

They exhibit a contempt for authority which is destructive of freedom. They really do not think that any kind of hampering, disagreeable law ought to apply to them personally.

★ ★ ★

In an age that is probing deep into the mysteries of human conduct, they have begun to convert explanations of misbehavior into excuses for it — as Chicago's scholarly police chief, O. W. Wilson, points out.

In a nation whose political system is founded on the will of the electorate, some Americans are pretty close to saying that there is no individual will and no personal responsibility. The offender is always the creature of forces:

"He came from a broken home . . . He was a deprived person . . . He was unloved . . . He blacked out."

Some probers into conduct seem to stop just short of arguing that crime is human and, hence, democratic.

Indeed, the ennobling cloak of the word "democratic" is today being thrown over all manner of licentious behavior. The word is being defined to mean:

"I am to be left alone to do or say anything I please, regardless of the consequences to others."

Any interference with such unbridled behavior is being promptly labeled in some circles as "undemocratic" and even "fascistic." Some of those brilliant young fools at Berkeley and other campuses argue that they are bound by no law or rule they had no part in making. They accept no authority but their own constantly shifting opinion.

Some Negro leaders frankly justify lawlessness and violence done in the name of their rights. A few appear to contend they are above the law.

The most startling comment made recently in Chicago by Stokely Carmichael, hot-headed "black power" advocate and chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, was this:

★ ★ ★

"We've got to let them (the white community) know that when they arrest one of us in our community, we're going to move to disrupt this whole country."

The consequences of turning freedom into anarchy are written large across the face of this country — in shattering, death-dealing riots, in a rising crime rate that the most unemotional public authorities think spells crisis.

If it is the crisis they say it is, then the hiding from ugly truths cannot continue much longer.

The reassuring words "only a minority does these things" will no longer suffice. Misbehavior, up to and including the breaking of laws, is a commonplace in 1966 for many millions of Americans.

The numbers involved are frightening. There is almost no place to escape the depredations. He who says the peril to a sane society is exaggerated is whistling past a graveyard loaded with people who thought "it can't happen to me."

★ ★ ★

One of the truly comic notions of the age is the idea the American people are constricted by overorganization. Beneath the top-heavy weight of big government, big business, big everything, millions are managing ingeniously to live nearly unfettered in increasingly dangerous and destructive chaos.

AIRPORT GREETING — Vice President Humphrey shakes hands with an unidentified airline machinist union picket shortly after his arrival at Kansas City, Mo., Municipal Air Terminal yesterday. Truman in Independence, Mo.

Still Remain Administration Policy

Wage-Price Guides May Be Altered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration may soon revamp — but not abandon — the buffeted and battered wage-price guidelines which have been left for dead by some of their critics.

At present, however the 3.2 per cent guidelines which President Johnson's chief economic adviser has called far from ideal remain official administration policy.

But the White House said Monday the entire picture is under study and it's impossible at this point to predict what the President's labor-management advisory committee and his other advisers might recommend.

Strong hints of a possible change came Monday from Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor and Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler after each held a separate conference with the President.

MUST BE CONTINUED

They said the guidelines must be continued as parts of the administration's efforts to fight inflation but not necessarily in their present form.

* * *

The guidelines call for a voluntary ceiling of 3.2 per cent on wage increases — representing the annual increase in productivity — and relatively stable prices.

Fowler said increased productivity is still the key to the entire concept while Connors said productivity in a specific industry must be taken into account.

* * *

"I think we'll continue to need something like the guidelines," Fowler commented. "They have served a useful purpose. They will always need adjustment and revision. They cannot be frozen always in a solid pattern."

Connor said the 3.2 per cent formula can lead to misunderstandings in specific industries.

NOT DROPPING RESTRAINTS

The White House said the administration is not abandoning voluntary restraints which have been under especially severe strain the past 10 days with rejection by airline machinists of a contract agreement worked out under White House auspices. This provided a 6 to 7 per cent wage and fringe benefit increase.

Subsequently the steel industry announced its decision to raise prices by $2 and $3 per ton on sheet and strip steel. Effective Wednesday.

Hunt for Mate of Slain Woman Goes On

LINCOLN PARK (AP) — Police in this Detroit suburb continued today a search for the husband of a woman found slain Saturday.

* * *

The body of Mrs. Diane Kovach, 24, was found by neighbors. Police said she had been shot three times with a small caliber pistol.

Her husband, Valentine, was seen leaving with the couple's two children shortly before the body was discovered, police said.

Detroit Schools May Get Needed Funds

LANSING (AP) — Detroit's school system apparently has a good chance of coming up with $4.5 million of the $12.5 million it says it needs, and Gov. George Romney was helping to look for more financial answers today.

Members of the Detroit Board of Education met Monday with legislative leaders and then with the State Board of Education. They were to meet with Romney today.

House Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D - Detroit, said after one meeting there would be no half-day sessions for Detroit, and that a way around Detroit's problems would be found.

The state board did not decide immediately what action it would recommend, but there was talk of recovering $4.5 million from the city's teacher retirement system and borrowing to meet other needs.

POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS

Kowalski mentioned the $4.5 million among possible solutions. Detroit has budgeted the money to pay into the retirement system in 1966-67, but Kowalski said that under recent legislation, the state should handle the payment.

Miss Louise Grace, president of the Detroit board, told the state board the legislature could do several things, including passage of a bill that would distribute the state's general fund surplus among all the state's school districts.

But a legislator attending the meeting, Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, predicted that declining revenues from automobile sales tax collections would mean the surplus would be used up by July 1, 1967.

And, he said, Detroit stood little chance of receiving special financial help from the legislature. Any proposal "must have something in it for every district to get anywhere."

He recommended that Detroit borrow to meet its needs and try again in the November election for increased millage.

Detroit voters defeated a 2.5-mill tax increase in May. It would have yielded an estimated $12.5 million.

Since then, Montgomery said, a tax exemption for older persons has gone into effect which might make a millage boost more acceptable to older voters.

The state board planned to discuss financial problems at its regular business meetings, tonight and Wednesday.

Miss Grace said the Detroit board probably would seek additional millage in November but that it would not help this year.

* * *

She added that the valuation against which Detroit levies its school taxes has decreased steadily for the last five years.

It takes more services to give a Detroit youngster an education equal to that given an outstate youth, she said, because so many Detroit pupils come from homes which provide few educational advantages.

A. L. Zwerdling, another Detroit board member, said the sensible solution would be fiscal reform.

Dr. Leon Fill of the state board suggested tax revision for education only.

Bank Customer Slain

Hunt Killer in Texas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A masked and tattooed gunman was sought today for killing a customer who tried to thwart a bank robbery.

The tanned and muscled man shot to death Herman Nachman, 43, Monday and fled on foot out the back door of the Inwood National Bank, firing three more times at pursuers.

★ ★ ★

FBI agents and police went door-to-door in the heavily populated North Dallas area but found no one who had seen a 5-foot, 9 inch man with "J.B." tattoed on one arm.

His paper shopping bag broke under the weight of bills and coins and, as he ordered frightened women customers to scoop the money into a cardboard box, two male customers charged him and tore off his shirt and mask.

Observers said it appeared at first that Nachman and J. E. Cole, 53, had succeeded in subduing the man—but then he found his gun and shot Nachman through the neck.

PURSUE GUNMAN

"There was dead silence after that — a small 'pop' and things just stood still for a second," said James B. Munsell, bank cashier. "Then the gunman ran for the back door and I ran after him."

Walter Wemming, vice president, and a Southern Methodist University student working in the bank, Charles Clymer, 21, joined in the chase but stopped when bullets almost hit them.

Munsell said the would-be robber entered the bank at a fast walk about 9:45 a.m. and began yelling and waving his gun at the more than 20 men, women and children in the lobby.

"Don't anybody leave. Don't hit any buttons. This is a hold-up," he told them, running toward the head cashier.

★ ★ ★

When other customers, such as Cole, entered he told them, "Come on in, or I'll kill you."

Nachman, who began his assault on the gunman by pitching a five-inch wide heavy ash tray at his head, was an auto salesman who moved here last year from Chicago. He leaves a wife and two daughters.

The bank is located in one of the busiest shopping centers of North Dallas. It was robbed of $40,000 last September, a year after it opened in 1964.

Sniper's Father Lauds Police

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — "I have respect for you for doing your job," the father of Charles J. Whitman told a policeman who helped kill his sniper son.

The father, C. A. Whitman of Lake Worth, Fla., met Monday with Patrolman Ramiro Martinez, one of those who shot Whitman in his sniper's perch in the University of Texas Tower.

★ ★ ★

At the meeting, the elder Whitman agreed to leave his son's arsenal, which brought death to 16 persons, in police custody forever.

Whitman came to Austin to collect the personal effects of his son. He also collected the effects of Whitman's mother, killed by the son. The mother was separated from the elder Whitman.

HIS STATEMENT

Whitman issued a statement saying:

"I came to Texas to express my sympathies and regrets to all concerned and to cooperate to the fullest with all law enforcement officers and I have met personally and embraced the man that killed my son and have no animosity, in fact, have respect for him for doing his job."

Whitman's eyes were red-rimmed and watered as he made several official visits in Austin the same day another person died from his son's accurate rifle fire.

The 16th victim, who died Monday, was to be buried in Wichita Falls today after services in Austin. Karen Griffith, 17, was struck in the chest by a bullet from the sniper's rifle.

Whitman, 25, an architectural engineering student, stabbed his wife and shot and knifed his mother to death before ascending to the observation deck above the 27th floor of the university tower last Monday.

Offer OU Scholarships

Oakland University has joined 14 other Michigan colleges and universities to offer scholarships to 16 students from British Honduras under the auspices of the Partners of the Alliance.

An arm of the U.S. Department of State's Alliance for Progress, Partners of the Alliance coordinates direct-assistance activity between people in the U.S. and Latin American countries.

★ ★ ★

The scholarships for tuition and room and board for the full four-year programs, are worth over $65,000 and are offered by the institutions themselves.

D. B. Varner, chancellor of Oakland University and vice chairman of the Michigan Partners of the Alliance, initiated the scholarship offer by direct contact with the institutions involved.

The Partners' education committee, chaired by Warren Huff, also chairman of the Michigan State University Board of Trustees, set guidelines that will assure financial participation by the people of British Honduras to cover transportation, books and incidental expenses (approximately $500 per student per year).

Upon completion of their studies, students are committed to return to British Honduras to help their people and country with their new knowledge and skills.

Man's Place Anywhere but the Kitchen

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is putting up with Papa's cooking.

BOYLE

A growing number of American men are obsessed with the delusion that man's place is in the kitchen.

Well, it isn't. the dining room, His place is in with his feet under the table.

Things weren't so bad when dad confined himself to barbecuing steaks. All that was necessary was to keep a first air kit handy, warn the children to stay out of the back yard, and develop a fondness for the taste of beef-turned-into charcoal over charcoal coals.

OUT OF HAND

But since Papa starting buying exotic cookbooks — "How to Filet Whale," "Ten Easy Ways to Prepare Sirloin of Wolf" — and took over the kitchen — well, things have rather gotten out of hand.

The trouble with the amateur male chef is that he is less an artist than he is a ham actor. He has enough props to put on a production at the Metropolitan Opera.

* * *

He dons a big white cap and a colorful apron bearing some such cute motto as "Don't Kiss the Cook," bids farewell to his loved ones — and marches into the kitchen, book in one hand and an immense fork in the other.

Soon steam and the sound of dull explosions pour out into the living room, and unnerved guests turn pale and ask for a third, fourth and fifth martini.

* * *

No one, naturally, is allowed into the kitchen while the master is performing his miracles. But if you peek thehrein you can't help wondering whether the host, wildly waving glittering instruments, is trying to win a Boy Scout merit badge in chemistry or merely rehearsing the role of a mad surgeon in a horror movie.

PLENTY OF SEASONING

He turns the turbulent mess over glad cries, seasoning it with saffron and turmeric, garlic salt and cloves. He anoints it with basil and rosemary, oregano and marjoram, sage and tarragon. He sprinkles it with the aromatic seeds of anise and sesame, fennel and caraway, cardamom and coriander.

As the host, his face parboiled red, finally struggles to the table with the bubbling gook, he calls out triumphantly:

"Surprise — guess what it is!"

* * *

You mildly wonder if he really knows. What started out to be a meal has turned into a lottery. It is then that the wise guest, pleading urgent business elsewhere, bids the amateur chef a firm and immediate goodby.

Remember, in dealing with amateur chefs, the stomach you must save is certainly your own.

Guesser Could Be Winner If She Minded Own Business

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You advised a woman not to worry because her husband was seen riding down the main street with another woman in broad daylight.

Your reasoning: "A man who is playing games with another woman is not about to parade her around in broad daylight."

ABBY

Boy, are you ever dumb! People have been getting away with murder in that theory for years.

When I see a married man with a chick who is not his wife — unless she is his sister, I guess the worst. And 99 per cent of the time I'll be right.

GOOD GUESSER

DEAR GUESSER: Why guess at all! Mind your own business and you'll be right 100 per cent of the time.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Someone wrote a letter to the mother of the boy our 17-year-old daughter had been going with, and in it she said some terrible things about our daughter. She said our daughter and this boy had not been behaving themselves. (I think you know what I mean.)

The boy's mother didn't mention it to me, but the boy told our daughter. My husband said I should forget it because if we make any accusations without proof we could stir up matters worse.

I understand the letter looked as though it could have been written by a grown woman. It made me sick to think that anyone could be so cruel and nasty. If you were the mother of that innocent girl, what would you do, Abby? HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I would listen to my husband.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I am an idiot, but at this moment I have had it! I am so frustrated I don't know what to do. I work in a one-girl office, and there is no one to turn to if I can't spell a word.

I know the word is in the dictionary, but how on earth can you find a word if you don't know how to spell it correctly.

For the past 20 minutes I have searched hopelessly for the word "exorbitant." I feel like a fool for having wasted so much time, but I couldn't help it. As I mail this, I still haven't found it. Can you help me.

FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED: You needn't "feel like a fool." Others have had the same experience. First, guess at how you think the word is spelled. If that doesn't lead you to it, look up a synonym, or a word which means almost the same thing. In the case of "exorbitant," — look up "excessive."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: After reading the article about the wife who was all broken up because her husband wanted to fly for a hobby, I had to write.

My husband has been flying since 1921, and holds one of the oldest commercial licenses in existence. A man is much safer in an airplane than he is on the freeways.

My husband flies hunters and fishermen into the High Sierras, which is rugged country.

But I never worry because he makes sure his ship is in first class condition before he takes off. And he never takes chances in bad weather.

MRS. RPZ

CONFIDENTIAL TO A VERY KIND MINISTER IN BARSTOW, CAL.: Forgive me if I gave the impression that the apocryphal tale about the biblical Sarah and Abraham, which was sent to me by a reader, was indeed FROM the Old Testament.

It was not. But I will repeat, the answer to all human problems can be found between the two covers of the Bible. "Seek and ye shall find."

Problems? Write to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self - addressed envelop.

Calls During Dinner Hour Upsetting

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Yesterday, while entertaining at a dinner party in my home, my husband's boss called on the telephone just as we had begun to eat.

He frequently telephones my husband at home with matters which could easily wait until working hours. I explained to him that we had dinner guests, that we were then eating, and asked if my husband might return his call later.

Now I am not sure that I acted within the bounds of good etiquette. — S.R.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. R.: You were quite correct in asking your husband's boss if your husband might return his call later. If the matter were of such urgency that it could not wait, I'm sure he would have told you.

★ ★ ★

Too many bosses feel they have a right to call their employes at any time of the day or night. This is an extremely inconsiderate habit — except in emergencies, a man's time at home should be his own.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Post: I am planning to be married this summer. My dad is not alive and my brother will be giving me away. Would it be permissible to have my mother as my matron of honor? — Mildred.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mildred: It would not be appropriate to have your mother as matron of honor. This office should be filled by a relative or friend of approximately your own age.

★ ★ ★

Your mother should sit in the front pew on the left side of the church, to be joined there by your brother after he gives you away.

Reach for the Stars

Try Cliche Exercising

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK — Past this desk came a quick observation that set me thinking. It mentioned that one exercise not good for you is "jumping to conclusions."

Digging into the store of cliches that do involve physical exercise, so to speak, there are many exercises that are not good for you besides jumping to conclusions. Also, I discovered, many that are beneficial.

Not recommended, for instance, are running into debt, running down your friends, racing to keep up with the Joneses, throwing barbs, and pushing your luck.

Good for you, in turn, are reaching for the stars, stretching the imagination, pulling in the purse strings, walking off with honors, riding out the storm, and swinging into action.

As the list grew, I separated the cliches into "good for," and "not good for" you categories.

Take some of the "good for" group:

Toeing the mark, pulling yourself up by the bootstraps, pointing with pride, sitting down to talk things over, standing up to a crisis, picking up the pieces;

Climbing the ladder of success, taking one step at a time, tossing out worries, bending over backward, diving in all over once a decision is reached, and putting your best foot forward.

★ ★ ★

In the "not good" for you group I came up with:

Stretching the truth, ducking responsibility, walking out in a huff, swimming in self-pity, throwing a tantrum, tossing a brickbat, tottering on the brink, carrying the weight of the world on your shoulders, throwing a curve;

Throwing a one-two punch, kicking a man when he's down, tossing your weight around, bending the elbow too frequently, running scared, and teeing off on a friend.

You'll think of still more "exercises" if you've read this far.

There is for instance one conclusion that if a person doesn't lean over backward to stress the "good for" you group, he may end up doing pushups — of the daisies.

Couple Wed on Saturday

Venise lace accented a white silk organza over taffeta gown for Linda Lee Goodrum who became Mrs. Douglas Arthur Helmick Saturday in the Grace Lutheran Church.

A butterfly veil of silk illusion and bouquet of white daisy chrysanthemums completed her ensemble for the noon rite and reception in the Kingsley Inn.

Parents of the couple who left for an eastern wedding-trip are the Grant Goodrums, Orchard Lake, and the Theodore Helmicks of Monroe.

Bridal attendants were Robin Buesching, June Wilkinson, Mary McIntyre, Judith Helmick, and Lori Helmick, flower girl.

Richard Helmick was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by Whit Brooks, Robert Shimmel and Wayne Salow.

'The Tender Land' to Premiere

The Meadow Brook School of Music will achieve another milestone on August 15 and 17 when the Opera Institute, under the direction of Dr. David DiChiera, presents the Michigan premiere of Aaron Copland's "The Tender Land."

Both performances will take place at 8:30 p.m. in the new Matilda R. Wilson Auditorium at Oakland University.

★ ★ ★

Appropriately matching the contemporary theme of the final Meadow Brook Festival week, Copland's three-act opera is set in midwest rural America.

It was commissioned by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II for the League of Composers' 30th anniversary year, the first produced at the New York City Center in 1954.

★ ★ ★

The principals and members of the chorus in the Michigan premiere production are outstanding singers, many with professional experience, who have met at Meadow Brook this summer to study and work with Dr. DiChiera in an opera program co-sponsored by the Mott Center for Community Affairs.

DETROITER HAS LEAD

Emily Derr, of Detroit, will sing the leading role of Laurie Moss, eldest daughter of a farm family, who reaches new maturity after falling in love, then being deserted on the eve of her high school graduation.

Holder of degrees from Michigan State University, Miss Derr, soprano, now teaches in Oak Park. She sings with the Kenneth Jewell Chorale and at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, has performed with the Detroit Opera Theater and the Piccolo Opera Company, and appeared in recital and on television.

★ ★ ★

Singing the role of Laurie's mother is Leslie Eitzen, well-known mezzo-soprano in the Detroit and suburban area. She now teaches at Schoolcraft College and has received acclaim for her interpretations of such leading operatic roles as Carmen, Suzuki in "Madame Butterfly," and Siebel in "Faust."

Also in the cast are Gloria Harper of Mt. Clemens, Paul Hill of Takoma Park, Md., Frank Spoto of New Milford, N.J., Roger Jamison of Detroit, Ronald Luchsinger of Dubuque, Iowa, and Oakland University, Grace Kuhns, of Troy, Herbert Simpson of Sarnia, Ont., and Violet Weber of Cleveland.

Clyde Vinson, director of the Court Theater at Wayne State University, is stage director. John Wustman is musical consultant. Musical coaches include Naomi Amos, Lawrence LaGore and Gerald Maddox. Russell Hammer and Victor Webber are preparing the chorus.

CONDUCTORS

The Meadow Brook Chamber Orchestra will be under the direction of Dr. DiChiera and William C. Byrd. Dr. DiChiera, a leading figure in the development of opera in Michigan, is presently writing a book on American opera.

William Byrd, musical director of the Musical Performing Arts Association in Flint, is assisting in the Meadow Brook School of Music orchestral program this summer.

★ ★ ★

Tickets for the performances may be purchased through the Office of Continuing Education at Oakland University.

Rehearsals take place daily at Oakland University for the Aug. 15 and 17 Michigan premiere of Aaron Copland's opera, "The Tender Land." It is being presented by the Opera Institute under joint auspices of the Meadow Brook School of Music and the Mott Center for Community Affairs. Dr. David DiChiera, director of the opera institute, here works with leading singers, Leslie Eitzen (left) and Emily Derr.

Huge Napkins Won't Fly Away

Small, fly-away napkins can be a nuisance at backyard barbecues and picnics.

Solve the problem by making your own king-size napkins, each one a yard wide, from inexpensive printed cotton fabrics.

The National Cotton Council suggests you use these generous cloths as napkins, individual tablecloths, or to protect uncovered food from insects.

Get Large Shoes

When buying baby any footwear, socks, bootees or shoes, be sure they are large enough to avoid any pressure on the developing structure of his feet.

The engagement of Oakland University student Carol Anne Dooley to Raymond F. Kasat is announced by her parents the Kenneth L. Dooleys of Pingree Drive. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Kasat of Aquarina Drive. Late November vows are being planned.

Clean With Oil

The new waterproof leg make-up to simulate a tan presents a cleaning problem. Cosmetologists suggest using a baby oil to help remove the make-up. This also leaves legs soft and smooth.

Suds Kids

Did you ever stop to think of how often you rub your eyes or touch your face and lips each day? The times are as countless as the number of germs carried by dirty hands.

That's just one reason why it is so important to keep your hands clean. Wash them often with warm water and plenty of soapsuds to protect both your health and your complexion.

Cotton is a vegetable fiber.

Furniture Styles Quite Similar

A new style trend at the furniture markets features English furniture from the 16th and 17th centuries.

* * *

There was close contact between England and Spain in those days, and it is difficult to tell the difference between the Spanish styles which have been popular for several years, and the new English versions. Modern manufacturers include latex foam seats though, a far cry from the horsehair of Queen Elizabeth's day.

Recruiting Becomes Evident

Call for Workers Heard

"Recruiting" is usually associated in the public mind with the Armed Forces and the famous "Uncle Sam Wants You" poster.

More and more recruiting is becoming a part of business world discussions, as company managements attempt to counteract the effects of the ever-tightening labor market.

Manpower, Inc. alone could employ an additional 50,000 men and women, reports Marian Woodward, office division manager of the international firm's Pontiac area office. Currently the temporary help firm employs 233,000 people throughout the world.

According to Mrs. Woodward, "main emphasis in recruiting is to lure the housewife out of the home and back into the business world. The current situation has created ideal circumstances for them to earn money more or less on their own terms."

She added that in many instances housewives can work at hours to suit their own and their families' convenience, and that free brush-up courses are available to help women regain their business skills if they have become a bit rusty.

"It's really a 'buyers' market' for women office workers," she said.

* * *

A recent nation-wide employment outlook survey conducted by Manpower Inc. through its network of offices indicated that 31 per cent of the country's businessmen expect to hire additional help during 1966.

A frequent comment among representatives who said they expected to need more workers was, "I don't know where we're going to get them from."

She Is Exception to the Rule

MANGUM, Okla. (AP) — At 79 Mrs. Nell Davis, still considers herself a typical American housewife — except for one thing. She has never walked unassisted.

* * *

Mrs. Davis, despite a double curvature of the spine resulting from infantile paralysis at four months, has succeeded in graduating from high school, marrying and rearing a daughter, holding a job and doing outstanding church and civic work in Mangum.

* * *

Married in 1918, tragedy struck two years later when her husband died and left her with a small daughter. It was then she began working as society editor of the Mangum Star and as a correspondent for area papers.

* * *

She also taught piano in her spare time. Her many civic and church activities, including a term as justice of the peace, earned for her the "Woman of the Year" title by Kiwanis International of Mangum in 1946.

* * *

She was married the second time in 1949 to Flood Davis of Mangum.

HOLY COW!
MILK'S GONE UP, TOO?

In these times of "higher prices for everything," the economic facts of life leave the dairy industry no alternative but to raise the price of dairy products.

FACT NO. 1. A dairy farmer received no more money for his milk at the start of 1966 than he did in 1952.

FACT NO. 2. The price of milk from your dairy or grocer was no higher during 1965 than 1952.

IN THE MEANTIME

FACT NO. 3. The cost of operation of a dairy farm or your local dairy has risen continually since 1952.

Automotive pay in 1952 was $4,708.00, in 1965 $9,701.00. Farmers and dairies must compete for this labor market.

Construction costs have risen 40 per cent since 1952.

Adequate farm machinery and dairy plant equipment costs have almost doubled since 1952. For example, a farmer's 3-plow tractor cost $2,000 in 1952. He paid $3,600 for a comparable tractor in 1965!

FACT NO. 4. There are less than half as many dairy farmers and dairy plants in Michigan now than there were in 1959.

FACT NO. 5. Unless the dairy industry can receive a reasonable price for its goods and services, it can't stay in business.

FACT NO. 6. Population expansion plus increased use of dairy products calls for more milk production. An adequate supply of milk and dairy foods can only be supplied by an economically sound dairy business.

People receive 28% of their food nutrients from dairy food, while dairy foods cost only about 18% of their food budgets.

DAIRY PRODUCTS ARE STILL YOUR BEST FOOD BUY!

Let Him Support Self

Will Weaken Character

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z-486: Hal H., aged 37, is a Gary steel worker.

"Dr. Crane," his wife protested, "I wish you'd talk to my husband.

"For he has subsidized his worthless younger brother ever since our marriage 16 years ago.

DR. CRANE

"He sends him $50 every month out of his pay check.

"I wouldn't object if the brother were ill or temporarily out of a job.

"But he is a chronic sponger. He doesn't work, though he is able-bodied.

"When he does get a job, he soon manages to lose it so he can go on unemployment relief.

"But my husband is so good-hearted, he is a soft touch and has remitted to this worthless brother every month.

"Meanwhile, our 5 children have suffered, for that $50 would go a long way toward buying them better clothes and school supplies."

REMITTANCE DANGERS

Sometimes parents will make "remittance men" out of their sons.

They start out by giving the teen-ager an overly generous cash allowance each week.

Then the young fellow marries, so his generous parents carry on with their largess.

But such continued outside financial support weakens the man's own financial stamina.

It's about as hazardous as to urge him to rely on crutches when he has two good legs.

Many a generous brother becomes a soft touch for his shiftless siblings or in-laws.

But there comes a time when you must consider such long continued generosity as a sin.

* * *

Every married man should realize that when he marries, he takes a vow at the wedding ceremony "to forsake ALL others and cleave only unto his wife."

The reverse is likewise true of the bride.

And that word "ALL" refers to fathers, mothers, in-laws and other kinfolk!

We need to enshrine a new concept in morality which we psychologists call "commendable selfishness."

This means that it is folly to reduce your own family to starvation in trying to feed your in-laws or even the neighbors.

Uncle Sam also needs to analyze his profligate foreign largess by that same rule.

* * *

For we have almost exhausted the rich Mesabi Iron Range in Minnesota with lend-lease iron and steel to Britain for her two World Wars.

We have also reduced our oil reserves alarmingly to play "Santa Claus" to the world, after which we have brickbats thrown through our Embassy windows and see mobs carrying signs that read:

"Yanks, Go Home."

William R. Powells Travel to Nassau

A cruise to Nassau will climax a southeastern honeymoon for the William Roland Powells (Jane Ann Walters) who were wed Saturday in the Waterford Community Church.

White peau satin trimmed with beaded Alencon lace fashioned a gown and train for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters of Southward Street.

* * *

She wore a bouffant veil and held a cross of white carnations and lillies of the valley.

Sandra Bowden was honor maid, with the bride's sister Teresa joining bridesmaid Melody Meschen. Judy Rehner was flower girl.

Frank Powell was his brother's best man. Their parents are the B. D. Powells of Sandy Beach Drive. Ushers were Harold Weston, David Converse, Francis Mervyn and Jack Powell. Jeffrey Bryan carried the rings.

* * *

Reception in the CAI Building followed the rite performed by Rev. Robert Winnie.

Edward Bauers Return Home

The Edward Bauers of North Cass Lake Road have returned from Walnut, Calif. and a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, the Richard Derragons (Shirley Bauer) parents of Pamela Colleen, born July 14. Paternal grandparents are the Ralph Derragons of Heitch Street.

Staff Sgt. Ray P. Bauer en route from the U.S.A.F. base at Valdosta, Ga. to Viet Nam also joined his parents and the family group.

Knits, No Problem

DEAR POLLY — and Edna — I have been a seamstress for many years so have shortened many knitted skirts. If it is a two-piece suit, there is a waistband and you can take up at the waist.

Cut off the elastic enclosure and make a new one. If the knitting is heavy I have substituted a cloth casing for the elastic instead of making a new knitted one. Patterns in the knitting often make it necessary to do the shortening from the top.

When shortening at the bottom I measure the correct length just as I would for a cloth skirt. Using the tight zig-zag stitch on my machine I go over the line where the cutting is to be so the knitting will not "run."

After cutting off the surplus I go around the edge with the zigzag stitch to make a "binding" and then hem by hand. Be cautious not to hand sew too tightly when putting in the hem or you will make a visible ridge. — MRS. W. W. H.

DEAR GIRLS — Thank you for your innumerable suggestions, many of which were the same or very similar to that of Mrs. W. W. H. However, I do want to caution you to always sew on the sewing machine, around any knitting before cutting.

Some readers suggested putting in the final hem with a hand cross stitch. I prefer shortening at the bottom so as to prevent extra thickness at the waist. And, girls, did you know that wearing a taffeta slip under a knitted skirt or dress helps it keep its shape? — POLLY

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY — Do any of you know how to remove burned plastic from glass? A piece of plastic wrap burned on to the glass door of my broiler and I cannot get it off. — MRS. C. Z.

DEAR POLLY — A friend of mine keeps all old roller window shades and cuts them to the proper sizes, with pinking shears, for use as shelf liners as well as liners for bureau drawers and closet shelves. They can be wiped or washed clean. — CAROLYN

DEAR POLLY — If you spray hanging ornaments or baskets of artificial flowers with insect spray they will not get festooned with spider webs. — MRS. D. C. M.

DEAR POLLY—Those gals who tease their hair as I do always need to lift it after each spraying. If you do not have a regular lift-up comb, try one of those plastic picnic forks. I have been using one for some time and find it lifts my hair just enough. — MAE

DEAR POLLY — When one of my knitted dresses or skirts gets a bit too tight, I slip the garment over the back of a chair which is a bit wider than the skirt and let it stay there for a few hours. When removed, it fits nicely and there is no need of blocking. — MRS. J. S.

Remove Odors From Your Clothes

Now and then clothes present an odor problem. Most commonplace odors are automatically removed during the wash and rinse cycles since they were originally caused by bacteria now removed by hot water and detergents.

Tumble dryers also help to hold bacteria down by eliminating the moisture needed for growth. If odor persists, the addition of a disinfectant — such as a chlorine bleach or a pine-oil — can be recommended; either will generally banish odors. And tumble drying definitely retards mildew.

Junior Editors Quiz on HOLY GRAIL

QUESTION: Is there an actual Holy Grail?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: "Grail" originally meant a dish or cup. The name Holy Grail became associated with the cup used by Jesus at the last Supper.

Many believed it was used by Joseph of Arimathea to catch the Savior's blood on the cross.

Ancient stories told how the Holy Grail disappeared and became the object of search by the valiant knights of King Arthur's Round Table.

As told in Malory's "Le Morte Darthur," three knights, Galahad, Bors and Percivale, finally saw the precious object.

Our illustration shows Sir Galahad kneeling before it.

The illustration is based on the beautiful drawings by Aubrey Beardsley, who illustrated Malory's book.

In the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City can be seen the Chalice of Antioch, which was found in the ruins of the ancient city of Antioch, in Syria.

This is believed by many people to be the actual Holy Grail.

It was found in 1910 by Arab workmen.

The cup is of plain metal inside, but the outside is of silver, carved in an intricate and beautiful design. It is similar to the cup shown in the illustration.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: In your library, look for Tennyson's "Idylls of the King." It contains a wonderful story about Galahad and the Holy Grail.

The Shape of Man's Future—1

Genetics Can Rule Evolution

(EDITOR'S NOTE—The day when man will control his own evolution may soon be here. Few outside the field of science realize what is being accomplished. The following first of four articles explores the exciting—and sometimes frightening—prospect opened up by recent gains in a comparatively new field of research: genetics.)

By RALPH DIGHTON
AP Science Writer

Would you like to be able —

To grow a new heart, brain, kidney, arm or leg whenever you need it?

To grow gills and live in the ocean or wings and fly with the birds?

★ ★ ★

To explore other planets in a strange new body adapted and made impervious to the most hostile environment?

Or would you settle for something simple, like a doubled or tripled life span in a world cleansed of disease?

HUMAN RACE

Those are some of the more exciting possibilities scientists believe have been opened for the human race through recent advances in genetics.

There is a grim side, too. The same advances conceivably could be used to turn men into a race of slaves whose thoughts and emotions are predetermined through genetic tinkering.

★ ★ ★

Eminent scientists — men such as Dr. Melvin Calvin of the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory of the University of California and Dr. Ray Owen, chairman of the Biology Division of the California Institute of Technology — already foresee a need for decisions arising from this new trend in research.

Genetic tinkering is almost certain to generate opposition — from environmentalists who believe the way to improve man is to improve his environment, not his heredity; from religious leaders who believe the human form exists today as it was created originally by God and should not be altered.

A SCIENCE

Genetics is the science of heredity.

It deals with genes — from a Greek word meaning "to give birth" — and how they control growth, using patterns handed down from generation to generation.

★ ★ ★

Although incredibly tiny — every human body cell has an estimated 150,000 of them in its nucleus — genes are the most powerful living force yet found.

Genes control the manufacture of protein molecules, the building blocks of life. And now science has learned that genes themselves can be controlled.

Thus man eventually may be faced with deciding whether he wants to go on looking and thinking like his ancestors—or whether he wants to be something completely different.

The first big breakthrough in genetics—discovery of a chemical substance called DNA — came in the 1940s, almost simultaneously with another great scientific discovery: The unleashing of the forces of the atom.

"Atomic" has become a household word. "Genetic" is destined to become one.

There are many scientists who believe that cracking the genetic code, learning the language of life, is at least as vital to mankind as cracking the atom; perhaps more so — the promised ability to control what we are made of could lead to a race of men invulnerable to radioactive fallout.

ESTIMATION

When will this brave new "genetic age" come to pass? Authoritative estimates vary from a generation to a century.

Elementary efforts at genetic tinkering, altering the genes of lower life forms, have already succeeded. Heat, X rays and drugs have changed the offspring of bacteria and even insects so that they are hardly recognizable.

In the past 10 years, biologists have begun to understand why they are able to cause these changes, or mutations. Ahead lies the task of understanding how to control the changes, to make sure that mutations which occur are desirable.

Tinkering with genes can bring great peril as well as great benefit.

CONFIDENCE

Scientists are confident that not only the shape but the very thoughts of men can be controlled genetically, by predetermining the structure and function of the organs that generate emotions.

What if, in the not too distant future, some nation set out to breed a race of war-loving supermen — while the United States was breeding peaceful intellectuals?

Such a situation probably is several generations distant; and man may have improved himself enough genetically to meet it with wisdom.

But there are other crises closer at hand.

TRANSPLANTS

The recently learned skill of transplanting kidneys and implanting artificial hearts has created a small furor over the question? Should ability to pay be the primary factor in determining who gets this chance at extended life?

Geneticists believe they someday will be able to relieve the current shortage of human "spare parts." They would take a bit of healthy tissue from a failing heart, for instance, and direct its genes to grow a whole new heart — easily transplantable back into the patient because the patient's body would not reject its own flesh and blood.

But even if enough spare parts were available for all who needed them, the transplanting would require considerable skill and effort.

Serious questions of ethics arise.

WHAT KIND?

What kinds of people will be worth this trouble? Scientists? Politicians? Clergymen? Physicians? White collar workers? Laborers?

Who shall decide which are worthy?

And who shall pick those who decide?

Loaded with questions like these, the coming genetic explosion could rip society wider apart than a hydrogen bomb.

Or it could create a paradise on earth.

★ ★ ★

Much depends on man's reaction to new knowledge about his own genes.

Next: The genetic code.

Spiraling Bus Fares Hit Rio's Commuters

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Commuters in the Rio area are turning to bicycles and shoeleather in the face of fare increases that have virtually priced bus transportation out of the low-income-family's budget.

The latest round of increases, which pushed some fares up to 480 cruzeiros each way — about 22 cents — has hit especially hard in Alliance for Progress housing developments around the fringes of Rio de Janeiro.

★ ★ ★

"I don't know what I'm going to do," said Zacarias dos Santos, a laborer who lives in Vila Kennedy, about 14 miles from downtown Rio de Janeiro. On a wage of about $37 monthly, he must support a wife and three children.

★ ★ ★

To avoid paying the daily round-trip fare into town, Zacarias will probably walk five miles each way to catch a suburban train into the city.

The overcrowded and accident-prone railroads are subsidized and charge only about 4½ cents each way.

Others in Vila Kennedy, Vila Alianca and other suburbs are talking of buying bicycles to get them to the railroad station.

Most already get up about 4 a.m. to get in line at the bus stop, wait about an hour, and then spend about two hours riding into town.

"Pretty soon it won't even be worth going to sleep," says a Vila Kennedy resident. "We'll barely get home and have to leave again."

★ ★ ★

Rio's commuters are the city's poorest workers. Ironically, many were sent into the suburbs against their will when the Alliance for Progress developments were built in 1964 and 1965 as part of Rio's slum clearance program. Many argued that the developments were too far from their jobs.

Actress Giovanna Ralli

Italian Beauty Loves to Work

By MICHAEL SHORT

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Giovanna Ralli is a small, striking, dark-haired Italian reminiscent of Sophia Loren and Natalie Wood.

She loves to work, and work, and work.

Audiences have seen her in only one American movie, "What Did You Do in the War, Daddy?" They'll see more soon. Her contracts call for at least seven more films — and she wouldn't object to doing them all without a break.

Miss Ralli spent much of a recent 12-hour working day sweltering in a car before cameras at Paramount filming a scene that will consume but a few sconds on screen.

The sequence for "The Caper of the Golden Bulls" shows a car being searched at the border between Gibraltar and Spain. The sun, at least, was authentic — hot as Spain's.

Miss Ralli brushed back her hair with her hand, licked her lips, tugged at her gloves and waited placidly for technicians to prepare for shooting. Movie lights added to the sun's glare. A few minutes later a rehearsal and a take went satisfactorily.

Her shooting over for awhile, Miss Ralli jumped out of the car and walked away as if grilling under the sun were unimaginably entertaining.

"Caper," a comedy-thriller about a jewel robbery at the Pamplona festival in Spain, is the latest of Miss Ralli's more than 30 films since she became an actress at 13. She is now in her mid-20s. When asked why, though she has worked hard at her career for half her life, she almost never takes a vacation, rarely relaxes for more than a weekend, she smiled and replied: "I prefer work."

GIOVANNA RALLI

She has been an established actress in Italy for years. In 1965 she received the Italian film critics' Silver Ribbon as the best actress for Carlo Spinola's "La Fuga."

She is unmarried and has no definite plans other than continuing to work. Her biggest complaint, she says, is that she hates flying but her schedule leaves her no other way to travel.

She studied English for her current role and talks easily, but turns often to her Italian-speaking secretary for translations.

Greek Theater Will Continue

Expect to Complete Season Despite Crisis

YPSILANTI (UPI) — The Ypsilanti Greek Theater said yesterday it is undergoing "a week-to week financial crisis" but expects to finish its advertised season.

Whether there will be another season for the much talked about experiment is another question, a spokesman said.

The theater, intended to be the first permanent vehicle solely for Greek drama in North America, is losing $18,000 a week.

The opening attracted 84 critics and a wealth of national publicity, but the $16,000 the theater has netted each week has not kept pace with its $34,000 payroll.

* * *

"We have no intention of closing the theater," a spokesman said. "We're going to continue through the advertised season schedule until Sept. 4."

It was earlier reported the theater might be forced to suspend operations this Friday if it did not meet its deficit.

VISITS 'PAPA' — Financier Louis R. Lurie receives a kiss from French actor-singer Maurice Chevalier at Presbyterian Medical Center in San Francisco yesterday. Lurie suffered a broken ankle yesterday morning when he tripped and fell, spoiling his 79th birthday party. The two always celebrate their birthdays at a time when they can be together. Lurie said he assumed fatherhood of Chevalier because he's six days older than the performer.

Final Powell Rites to Strains of Jazz

By HOLLIE I. WEST

NEW YORK (AP) — Harlem has said goodbye to one of its own, pianist Bud Powell, in a New Orleans-style funeral procession to the jazz strains that Powell made famous.

"He sure did leave a lot of beauty behind," said a spectator, part of a crowd of 5,000, as a sextet moved slowly up Seventh Avenue Monday playing "Dance of The Infidels," one of Powell's numbers.

It was near the end of a long road from a Harlem childhood through fame as a leading innovator of the 1940s bop revolution in jazz to hospitals and mental institutions, and to death July 31, at the age of 41, from a combination of alcoholism, malnutrition and pneumonia.

He is to be buried today near his mother's grave at Willow Grove, Pa.

Powell's Harlem farewell drew some of the most prominent jazz musicians in the world, including pianist Thelonious Monk, drummer Max Roach, saxophonist Yusef Lateef, and Barry Harris, Billy Taylor, Bobby Timmons and Randy Weston, all pianists directly influenced by Powell.

Harris, the most successful of all Powell disciples, led the sextet which included Lee Morgan, trumpet; Benny Green, trombone; John Gilmore, tenor saxophone; Don Moore, bass, and Billy Higgins, drums.

When the group switched from a mournful tempo to some of Powell's livelier pieces, the quickened tempo swept neighborhood children with it and they skipped gaily beside the musicians. Many of the spectators lining the curb snapped their fingers to the beat.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Owen J. Scanlon who conducted a requiem Mass for Powell at Harlem's St. Charles Roman Catholic Church said he remembered Powell singing in a choir at the church in 1939.

Worm Diggers Angling for Higher Rates

WISCASSET, Maine (AP) — Maine worm diggers have turned on the worm dealers again.

Sand worm diggers along the Sheepscot River were on strike today backing demands for a 25-cent increase in the fee they receive for digging up 100 worms.

* * *

Between 75 and 100 sand worm diggers struck yesterday. They want $1.90 for each 100 worms instead of the $1.65 they now receive.

* * *

Last week, 300 blood worm diggers won a strike against worm dealers in which they demanded $2.50 per 100 worms, an increase of 25 cents.

Sand worms and blood worms are used as bait by sport fishermen.

Luci, Pat Given Privacy-Plus

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Traditional British reserve may be helping Patrick and Luci Johnson Nugent enjoy a honeymoon free of sightseers as they relax at a luxurious waterfront home.

"Bahamians observed a friendly White House request that the couple be allowed privacy," said an information ministry official.

Asked to arrange for newsmen to talk to the Nugents, Bahamas officials contacted the U.S. Consulate. The word came back from Washington: "Their privacy is not to be disturbed."

The Nugents are staying at Capricorn, the $250,000 home of Rebekah Harkness-Kean, a socially prominent philanthropist who is in New York. It is secluded by thick tropical foliage on three sides. The fourth opens onto a white sand beach.

WAIT OUTSIDE

Camera crews who hurried to the British island after the Nugents flew in from New York Sunday waited outside for the newlyweds.

The Nugents were reported to have made a boat trip and it was not certain if they had returned.

Sunday night, they attended Mass at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral.

Holdup Suspect Demands Exam

DETROIT (AP) — Bobby Lee Hunt, 21, of Detroit, captured by police after barricading himself with a gun in a home, demanded examination Monday on an armed robbery charge. The hearing was set for Aug. 17. Hunt is accused of holding up a grocery store shortly before he was arrested.

Old Soviet Trait Out: Vodka, Wife-Beating

MOSCOW (UPI) — Peter Pavlov made a mistake when he hit his wife. He should have hit her a year ago.

Had Mrs. Pavlov taken her lumps last year, Peter would have gotten off with a lighter punishment — possibly as little as a reprimand, possibly as much as 15 days to a year in jail.

But Peter got drunk last week and lit into his wife and 12-year-old son. When the dust had settled, Peter was in jail for five years, a victim of a new law aimed at Soviet hoods and hooligans.

The law was announ ed at the end of July and went into effect immediately. It provided for, among other things, summary punishment of drunks and stiffer sentences both for vandalism and other "petty hooliganism" and for more serious "hooliganism," such as assault and battery or armed robbery.

* * *

The law put teeth into the fight against an apparently serious Soviet crime wave. A reading of the Soviet press indicated the police and courts are using these teeth to bite hard.

In Soviet Khirghizia, Vladimir Konovalov, and engineer and a drunk, got three years for beating up his wife and 70-year-old mother.

In Turkmenia, K. Postnikov was sentenced to three years for beating up his wife at home and then, when she went to his office to complain, for hitting her again there.

In Moscow, Vladimir Nikolayev, 26, a ne'er-do-well cobbler, took money from his wife and tired to rob two women with a knife. He muffed the robbery, but got six years anyway.

And in Leningrad, E. Yeremin, an assembly-line worker, attacked one of his coworkers and tried to rob him. The court put him away for eight years.

In each case, drinking was involved. And the new law stated that drunkenness — which used to be a mitigating circumstance in any crime — is to be considered an aggravation from now on. Any sentence must be made stiffer if the criminal was drunk, it said.

These five cases indicated the new law will be used mainly to stamp out two time-honored Russian customs — vodka-drinking and wife-beating. The two customs usually are practiced simultaneously.

What a TV set cost 25 years ago
If someone complains that a television set costs more today than it did 25 years ago, you'd lift an eyebrow. A quarter-century back, there were no television sets to be had—at any price. The same logic applies to the statement that "prescriptions cost more today than they used to cost." The drugs you now get didn't even exist until recent years. So the benefits these drugs bring . . . the rapid cures, the lives saved . . . could not be bought at any price. That's why we say . . .

Opening lead—♦ K

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

The time to lock the barn door is before the horse has been stolen. The time to plan your play is at the very start. A little forethought will save many a headache later on.

West opened the king of diamonds and shifted to the queen of clubs. South won with dummy's ace and proceeded to study the hand thoroughly. He noted that it would be a cinch if the spades were to divide.

If they didn't he would still be able to make his contract if he could hold himself to the loss of one heart trick. West was marked with the ace of hearts from his bidding. If he also held the jack of hearts it was South's problem to find some way to force West to lead that suit.

Eventually South worked it out. He led a club from dummy and trumped it. Then he played his ace of spades. East showed out as expected but South did not mind. He trumped a diamond in dummy, a club in his hand, his last diamond in dummy and dummy's last club in his hand. Then he threw West in with a trump.

North and South were each left with three hearts and a trump. West with three hearts, a diamond and trebles. He could lead any card he wanted to but South would lose only one trick.

How different if South had not remembered to trump a club at trick three. He would have been unable to strip the hand force a losing lead from West.

CARD Sense

♦ A K J 8 7 ♣ A Q J 9 8 7 5 4

What do you do?

A—Just bid three clubs. You have started with a game-forcing bid and there is no need to hurry.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner continues to three spades. What do you do now?

Avocado Use in Cuba: Food for Thought

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The tasty, but calorie-packed avocado will beautify rather than fatten milady if a Cuban scientist's idea works out.

Havana Radio said today it has been discovered that avocados are a dandy base for cosmetics.

* * *

Cuban women have had to exert their makeup artistry to the utmost in recent years because of a shortage of lanolin, the main skin-preserving ingredient of modern female warpaint.

The broadcast monitored in Miami said Castro's food ministry is backing creation of "the industry of avocado oil and by-products." It said a pilot project will utilize 2,200 pounds of avocado oil in manufacturing cosmetics.

* * *

The government will plant avocado groves to provide oil for the makeup-makers, the broadcast said.

Letters Protest 'Tight Money'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A San Francisco building-supply manufacturer has launched a campaign against "tight money."

Charles D. Walker says the plan is to have 15,000 letters on President Johnson's desk by Sept. 15 protesting the current credit curbs.

* * *

He said the letters will urge the President to "loosen the credit situation so that builders, suppliers, and would-be home buyers can get together."

Walker said the Johnson administration is responsible for the tight money situation in which "builders can't build, suppliers can't sell, and buyers can't buy."

Detroit High in Traffic Deaths

Reopening Scheduled Oct. 1

Square Lake Road Project Moving Along

State Highway Department officials are highly optimistic that Square Lake Road will be reopened to traffic by Oct. 1 as scheduled.

* * *

The $3,156,000 project, which essentially will convert Square Lake Road from a two-lane to a six-lane divided, limited access highway, covers a 2.72-mile stretch from I-75 to Telegraph.

In some places, the road will be eight lanes wide, according to officials.

Before the road was closed for the ambitious construction project the first week in May, Square Lake was a narrow three lanes wide from Telegraph to Woodward and two lanes between Woodward and Opdyke.

* * *

This was considered quite inadequate in view of the estimated 15,000 vehicles which travel the Square Lake Road section between Telegraph and Woodward daily.

NO DOUBTS

"We have no doubt that the road will be open to traffic Oct. 1," said a State Highway Department official.

The road grading and drainage phases of the operation already are near completion.

In fact, paving by the Cooke Construction Co. of Detroit, general contractors for the job, has been started near Woodward.

Constructing three new bridges, two over Opdyke, are workers employed by another contractor, Nolan and Jarvick Co., also of Detroit.

OVER MAIN LINE

The other new bridge is being built over the Grand Trunk Western Railroad main line. In addition, the existing bridge spanning the tracks will be reconstructed.

The new bridges are 80 to 85 per cent completed, according to Highway Department officials.

Renovation of the existing bridge won't get under way until traffic is moved to the new pavement. The bridge is currently open to traffic.

The work force for the road and bridge projects has ranged from 50 to 125 men during the three months since construction began.

No serious accidents have occurred on the construction project.

Getting 'Feel' of Campus

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — (AP) — "I'm a fallen woman," the smiling teen-ager quipped as she got up from the pavement, steadied herself and started across the parking lot, tapping out a rhythmic staccato with her red-tipped cane.

"In this game, you learn to fall or you don't walk," said Linda Lassoff, 19, of Buffalo. Linda, along with 20 classmates, is about to take one of the biggest steps of her life.

* * *

Linda wants to become a psychologist specializing in helping the handicapped.

James Kirst, 19, of Eden plans to become a teacher, and Peter Devasto, 17, of Brooklyn, hopes for a career as a mathematician.

ALL STUDENTS

All are blind.

Next month they will enter colleges and universities with at least one advantage over their sighted counterparts — a six-week, on-campus preview of the problems and demands of college life.

* * *

Veronica Gilligan, a staff member at the State University Hospital and coordinator of the state-aided program which began there three years ago with a federal grant, said the "philosophy behind the whole thing is to ease the path."

"The first couple of months at college are pretty hectic for anyone," she said. "We try to throw them into every situation they are going to run into in September."

SELECTED STUDENTS

The students selected for the program all are high school graduates who have been accepted for admission to college.

During the six-week period, students live in Syracuse University dormitories with a sighted roommate, take a regular college course for credit, learn to get about campus without assistance and become acquainted with library and cafeteria facilities.

* * *

Taking notes in the classroom is accomplished with a tape recorder or a stenomask machine, a recording device with a speaking tube that fits over the nose and mouth, allowing a student to dictate without disturbing others.

Braille writers and standard typewriters are used for written assignments and many of the textbooks they will be using in the next four years are recorded "talking books."

* * *

Miss Gilligan said the 32 teenagers who participated in the first two years were "doing very well in college."

Will French Troops Pull Out?

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG

PARIS (AP) — The fate of 62,000 French troops and three tactical air force wings in Germany remains in the balance.

Talks in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) council broke down in deadlock July 27. They won't be resumed until September.

But French officials are convinced the Germans want them to stay. They believe this will give them fresh leverage when the talks resume.

Regardless of present deadlocks, French officials are optimistic an agreement will be reached enabling them to stay.

On July 1 president Charles de Gaulle withdrew all his troops and air units in Germany from NATO command.

WITHOUT STATUS

That left them without real legal status — or, at least, so France's NATO partners contend.

When De Gaulle first served notice last March of his planned NATO pullout, he argued that the French forces were entitled to remain under agreements going back to 1954 towards the end of the Allied occupation.

The Germans rejected this. They said the 1954 agreements were a hangover from the occupation and that it would be intolerable for French troops in Germany in 1966 to have even a shadowy resemblance to an occupation force.

DeGaulle later appeared to abandon this barking back to the 1954 pacts. He agreed to negotiate new agreements.

BETWEEN COMMANDERS

But he insisted this was really a matter between military commanders — that is Allied Supreme Commander Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer and French Chief of Staff Gen. Charles Ailleret.

The NATO "fourier" — that is, all member countries except France — rejected this claim. They insisted on a political agreement, particularly on the role French forces in Germany would play in an emergency.

At the Brussels NATO foreign ministers' meeting June 7-8 it was agreed to turn the problem over to the NATO permanent council and that only after the council worked out a broad general agreement should it go to the military to hammer out the details.

But the council has failed to reach such a general agreement.

The crux is the role of French troops in an emergency.

"The 14 want it specified that in an emergency French forces in Germany would come under NATO command.

But De Gaulle says this would mean, in effect, committing them in advance to fighting a NATO war he might not want to fight.

* * *

So the deadlock remains. It may have to be left to a special meeting of foreign ministers to try to solve it.

REMAIN HOPEFUL

But the French remain hopeful. They believe the Germans are more anxious that French forces stay in Germany than the French are. If the deadlock continues unbroken, De Gaulle would be prepared to bring them home.

There's a similarity in baseball dialects between the New York Stengelese and the Pontiac Parksenese.

In New York, the Yankees and the Mets have had Casey Stengel guiding their baseball fortunes with his own unparalelled and unabridged vocabulary.

Pontiac's answer to Casey and his Stengelese is Paul Parks and his Parksenese.

For more than 35 years, Parks has been active in Pontiac athletics and activities and during these years there has been a growth of Parksenese-understanding among sports fans and athletes.

Last night, the Casey of Pontiac chalked up another city Class A League baseball crown as manager of the Teamsters.

As he roamed around the coach's box along the first base line, fans shouted to him continuously.

JEERS AND CHEERS

They rib him, they shout advice to him, they insult him, they criticize him and they applaud him. When the umpire makes a questionable decision they call to him to protest, when a player makes a bad play they holler the blame at Parks.

* * *

But Parks, who has a dozen nicknames including "Wizard" "P-P," "Casey" among others, just grins and bears it. He has been around too long to let the hecklers get his goat, and having won more championships than anyone could imagine in city league play, one could hardly heckle success and be serious.

Since the day he lost his leg in a train accident at the age of 19, ending his hopes for a Major League baseball career after signing a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, Parks has been one of the most devoted men to Pontiac sports.

* * *

He has managed, promoted and taken part in most every conceivable sports function held in the area.

His outspoken ways and self-assuring manners haven't always made him a candidate for a popularity contest, but there are very few around Pontiac who can honestly claim he has given less than a 100 per cent in any task asked of him.

He holds tickets to the Tigers, Lions, Red Wings, Pistons, Arrows, and any other sports group for which tickets are available.

"If I had a couple million dollars I'd build a big sports auditorium for all the kids, for all the people in Pontiac," he said, "but I guess I'm just hoping I live to see it."

This is something one better believe. He'd rather go to a sports event than eat.

When his baseball team clinched the city Class A regular season championship last night, they celebrated, giving a toast to their manager.

CONGRATULATIONS

Winning wasn't the only reason for celebration. His friends gathered to offer congratulations on his birthday, which is actually today.

* * *

Like the controversial professor Stengel of New York, one could like him or dislike him, agree or disagree with him, but most would have to admit, he's been the Casey of Pontiac, a live wire of sports in the city for 35 years, deserving of a happy birthday wish.

CIO Salt Shaker Is Plugged by Teamsters

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The CIO No. 594 class A baseball team wanted very much to put a little salt in the wounds of the league leading Teamsters last night but pitching wildness and errors helped the Teamsters to a 11-4 triumph and the regular season championship.

* * *

The Union team defeated the Teamsters twice this year, including a 6-5 victory Sunday.

To complete the playoff pairings, CIO must now face M.G. Collision tonight at Jaycee for the final berth and 5th place in the standings.

Tom Walters, Teamster pitcher started strong in striking out five batters in the first two innings, throwing only 11 pitches to three batters in the second inning.

RAGGED CONTEST

But over-all it was a ragged game as CIO starter Steve Kendrick walked the first four Teamster batters. He was relieved by Dick Goldsworthy in the 4th inning but not until after six Teamsters had walked, four others reached base on errors and hit batsman and three on hits in his stay on the mound.

CIO scored first when Mel Taylor doubled home Chet Woodmore. Teamsters made it 2-1 in the bottom half of the first on the spree of walks and fly by Al Barkley.

A run in the third made it 3-1 when Les Stone bounced a single over second to score John Fleser who doubled.

CIO threatened to make a big inning of it in the third after singles by Bruce Mann, Woodmere and intentional pass to Mel Taylor. Dave Fagierlie was called out for interfering with the catcher which started a rhubarb, but a grounder ended the inning without a run.

Walters struck out three in the fourth, but in between he gave up three hits and a walk to account for two CIO runs to knot the score 3-3.

Prosperity ended for CIO in the fourth inning when Teamsters scored four times. Walters walked, Rabaja was safe on an error, both advanced on a wild pitch and Dave Houck loaded the bases by walking.

Goldsworthy took the mound and Fleser drove in Walters with a fly ball. Dave Gottschalk popped up and Barkley laced a drive down the left field line.

The relay was wild by the shortstop and bases were cleared with Barkley on third. Stone doubled against the right center fence and four runs made it 7-3.

Caddy Crown in Tournament to Birmingham

Dean Fox Shoots 70 to Lead BBC Caddies in Annual Event

Dean Fox of Huntington Woods carded a one-under-par 70 yesterday in leading a Birmingham Country Club team to the Michigan Caddy Championship on the Birmingham layout.

Fox, 17, who's planning to enroll at Eastern Michigan University this fall, put together nines of 36-34—70 over the 6,442-yard course despite a double-bogey on the final hole.

The six Birmingham CC caddies piled up a total of 493 strokes to finish a single shot ahead of Bloomfield Hills.

Pacing the runner-up was Pontiac's Gary Balliet with a 77.

Defending champion Edgewood finished well back with a 542 total.

New Field Manager Is Billy Hitchcock

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Bobby Bragan was fired today as manager of the Atlanta Braves and replaced by coach Billy Hitchcock.

Hitchcock managed the Baltimore Orioles of the American League in 1962 and 1963. He was a scout for the Braves in 1965 and was hired as a coach last winter.

Bragan's discharge had been the subject of speculation throughout the summer after the Braves skidded into the second division of the National League.

BOBBY BRAGAN

However, after Bragan survived a slump before the All-Star break, it was the thought he probably would be kept as manager the remainder of this year.

Bragan, 48, had managed the Braves for the past three seasons and was in his fourth year when the team moved from Milwaukee to Atlanta this spring.

The Braves finished sixth under him in 1963, fifth in 1964 and fifth again last year.

PITCHING WOES

This season, the Braves have been plagued with poor pitching and Bragan's pitching changes touched off the ire of Atlanta fans, who in recent games booed him whenever he stepped out of the dugout.

Speculation that Bragan would be fired unless the Braves started fast already was under way last winter, and was renewed when Atlanta quickly dropped into the second division of the National League.

The Braves, front office, which was not happy over the Braves' finish a year ago in Milwaukee, reportedly hoped not to fire Bragan this year because he was one of the strongest supporters in backing the move to Atlanta.

Bragan as a player saw limited duty with the old Brooklyn Dodgers in 1943, 1944, 1947 and 1948. He still is highly regarded on the Dodger organization, and speculation is that he will get a job somewhere in the Los Angeles Dodger system.

Victory Again Bypasses Podres, but Tigers Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — The only thing blocking Johnny Podres American League comeback appears to be his National League's teammate's helping hand.

Podres, who joined the Detroit Tigers last spring after 13 National League seasons with Brooklyn and Los Angeles, was deprived of a victory for the second time in a week Monday night when reliever Larry Sherry, his ex-Dodger teammate, failed to protect a late-inning lead.

The Tigers finally beat Washington 5-3 on Willie Horton's two-run single in the 12th inning, but by that time Podres was just another name in the box score.

The veteran left-hander, making his fourth start after 23 consecutive relief appearances, checked the Senators on six hits for eight innings before leaving for a pinch hitter with Detroit ahead 3-0.

* * *

Sherry, however, couldn't hold the lead in the ninth. He gave up a single to Fred Valentine and a two-run homer to Frank Howard, another former Dodger, then was clipped for a two-out single by Paul Casanova being replaced by Hank Aguirre.

Aguirre walked Jim King, and Ed Brinkman tied the score with a single off Dave Wickersham, the eventual winner.

LEFT GAME

Last Wednesday night, the Tigers led Chicago 3-1 after seven innings when Podres, who had allowed five hits, was forced to leave the game with a stiff shoulder. Sherry came in at the start of the eighth and served up a two-run homer to John Romano. The White Sox scored three more runs in the inning and won 6-3.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Basketball Classic, held the past six years, will be discontinued after 1967, a spokesman said Monday.

LIMA, Peru (AP) — The Wichita State basketball team, originally scheduled to play two games in Peru, has had to cancel the dates, the Peru Basketball Federation said today. The Federation said the team was unable to make connections because of an airline strike in the United States.

Name Ex-State Police Chief

Racing Position Filled

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney called former State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs out of retirement Monday to be the state's new racing commissioner.

Asked why an ex-police officer was appointed to the horse racing post, Romney replied, "I want to be sure we have a man in the post who has unquestioned ability to protect the public interest."

Childs said, "I don't know horses, but I think I know people."

Romney came back with, "I don't think there is any problem with the horses."

Romney announced the appointment of Childs while federal agents were serving subpoenas to four Michigan jockeys and a trainer for testimony before a grand jury investigating a gambling conspiracy case.

HAZEL PARK

One of the problems which Childs will face at the outset is what to do about Dominic (Fats) Corrado, 36, a director of the Hazel Park Racing Association.

Corrado was identified at U.S. Senate committee hearings by former Detroit Police Comissioner George Edwards as a member of the Mafia.

"The Corrado case indicates the need for careful and thorough consideration by a person with the type of background Mr. Childs has," Romney told a news conference.

* * *

Canada recently ordered Corrado out of the country as an undesirable alien.

Barry Beaman, who retired as racing commissioner last week, asked Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley whether he could remove Corrado from his racing job.

Kelley' opinion said the racing commission could remove a racing organization's employe if it could prove he is engaged in "improper activity that is inimical to the welfare of the people of the state."

DECISION DUE

A decision in the Corrado case now must be made on the basis of Kelley's ruling, Romney said.

Childs retired last August after 13 years as state police commissioner and 32 years on the force. The new racing post pays $15,000 a year.

Childs and Romney said they had in mind no certain time span for which Childs, 56, would serve as racing commissioner.

"He starts right now," Romney said.

Two Advance as Softball Playoffs Open

L&S Standard downed Idletime Bar, 2-1, and Bud & Lou's topped Timberlanes, 5-4, at Northside last night in opening games of the Pontiac National Softball League's upper bracket playoffs.

Local 653 forfeited to Fredman in the lower bracket. MGM Cleaners blanked Sport-O-Rama, 9-0, as the slow pitch playoffs opened.

* * *

Idletime and Timberlanes play at 7 tonight at Northside in the double elimination tournament and L & S meets Bud & Lou's in the nightcap. Fredman goes against Ray White's Boys at 8:30 at Beaudette. The Pontiac Press meets National Cash Register in a slow pitch game at 7.

Burley Monday tossed a two-hitter for L & S. The winning runs scored in the sixth on two singles and an outfield error. A single, Gary Field's double and two errors let in the tying and winning runs for Bud & Lou's in the sixth.

Jim Gallaher lobbed a three-hitter at Sport-O-Rama and was backed by Tom Palmiter's two triples and a double and Bill Taun's double and homer.

Playoff Toll at 2 in Waterford Loop

Two teams were eliminated from the Waterford softball playoffs last night.

Hillcrest Nazarene ousted Midget Bar, 10-0, as Harvey Keith collected three hits and scored three runs.

Duane Francis singled, stole second, went to third on a ground out and scored on an infield bouncer as Buckner Finance rallied for an extra inning win over Dixie Tool 7-6. Both winners are 1-1 in the two games and out playoff.

Winner's bracket games tonight will have Day's Sanitary playing McAnnally at 7 and Richardson taking on Lakeland at 8:30.

Schedule Cage Games

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore civic Center will be the site of five college basketball doubleheaders sponsored by Championship Sports, Inc., next fall.

Homer Champ

Tries Bunting for Hits

By The Associated Press

Tony Conigliaro, the Boston Red Sox' 1965 American League home run king, has turned to bunting in a bid to improve his batting mark.

"I'm not kidding," the young slugger said. "I'm going to bunt against any third baseman who plays me back."

Conigliaro, who has belted 20 homers despite a dismal start this year, collected two hits, including a perfect bunt down the third base line, as the Red Sox defeated Cleveland 3-1 Monday night in fog-swept Fenway Park.

"I'm trying to get the home run off my mind," he said after raising his average to .268. "Every time I become home run conscious I get fouled up. When I hit, the homers fall.

"However, I've been getting robbed by third basemen who play me deep behind the bag. Ken McMullen robbed me four times, diving to his left and his right, in a doubleheader in Washington less than two weeks ago. So, I bunted on him for a hit the next day.

"So, from now on I'm bunting any time I see the third baseman playing back. And that goes even when we have a runner on third and one out. I can get my RBI with a bunt just as easy."

Although his bunt didn't figure in the scoring against the Indians, Conigliaro was spectacular in the field blanketed by billowing fog which interrupted play six times, including once for 20 minutes in the top of the seventh.

'Beat Best' Says GAM Champ

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It was like old homeweek for Birmingham Seaholm golf alumni in the dining room of Franklin Hills Country Club during the Golf Association of Michigan tournament over the weekend.

Pete Green, Mike Conroy and Pete Jackson, members of the powerhouse Seaholm golf teams during the 1955-58 season when the Maples were the big names in prep golf, were huddled around the round table talking about the opening rounds of the GAM tourney.

Green, medalist in the tournament four out of five years, lost in the opening of match play to Hunter McDonald, Conroy was an elated winner over Ralph Ellstrom, and Jackson scored an impressive win over Gene Eyler.

With Tom Draper and Green out of the picture it was anybody's guess who could give Michigan amateur king Bud Stevens some competition for crown.

McDonald, a native Scot, was the consensus of Jackson and Conroy, fellow members of Oakland Hills, as the probable threat.

★ ★ ★

No one offered Jackson's name as a strong contender. Apparently, the drives of the 145-pound Jackson were not as booming or impressive to his ex-Maple teammates.

CONCENTRATES ON PUTTING

But Jackson decided to concentrate on his problems on the greens and when the GAM ended Sunday in a 36-hole finale, here is where Jackson was the victor and Stevens was the vanquished, 2 and 1.

★ ★ ★

It was the first major state golf crown for Jackson. "For me it was like Jack Fleck beating Ben Hogan in the U. S. Open. Stevens is the best amateur in Michigan and beating him is the thrill in golf for me," said Jackson.

Pete learned his golf on one of the finest courses around, Oakland Hills. The Jackson family has held membership at OHCC for 23 years.

Dad Paul, brother Mike, sister Penny and Pete have often made a foursome over the challenging Oakland Hills layout, "and I think learning the game on that course, does give a golfer some advantage playing anywhere else," Pete said.

In junior golf, Pete and Mike won many honors. When Green, Conroy and Pete were with the Seaholm team in the mid-fifties, the Maples were the perennial powers of The Press Invitational Golf tournament and in state ranks, having won the state title in 1958.

In state play however, Green has been a big name for many years of recent. Conroy and Jackson have played more in club tournaments.

Pete won the Oakland Hills club title last year by 15 strokes with rounds of 71-74-69 over 54 holes.

"I never played in the state tournaments, so I thought it would be fun," he said. "And after I missed getting my entry into the state amateur I thought I'd try for the GAM."

Last week in a round at Oakland Hills, he three-putted five times in the first six holes, and wasn't too hopeful of qualifying in the GAM.

Just before teeing off in Thursday's qualifying, a friend Ron Kottler at Franklin Hills spotted a defect in his putting and suggested a change.

TAKES ADVICE

If was good enough to help Pete to a 72, three strokes behind Green the medalist, and after that "I wasn't ready to ignore the advice," he noted.

"I knew no one gave me a chance against Stevens," he commented "and I was determined to play it cool."

His "coolest" shot came at the 17th, when he rammed a 4-iron shot out of a deep rough to within 20 feet of the cup. When Stevens boomed his drive, chipped long and then putted six feet past, Pete decided to play it cool.

"I decided it wasn't time for the J. L. putt, I just wanted to get close," he said.

What did he mean by a J. L. putt?

"I meant I wasn't going to charge it . . . you know, that department store charge!"

ADVICE IN WINNING — Pete Jackson took some putting advice from Ron Kottler (background) of Franklin Hills, put it to good use in winning the GAM championship Sunday by defeating Bud Stevens. It was the first major state title for Jackson, a member of Oakland Hills.

Lowly Batter's Lone Hit Tumbles Dodgers to 3rd

By The Associated Press

Hank Aaron leads the National League in homers with 31 and in runs batted in with 85. Joe Torre is not far behind with 27 and 73. Felipe Alou has the most hits in the majors, 160, and the second best average, .330. Rico Carty is not far behind at .327.

Denis Menke is very far behind all of them. He has a .241 average, nine homers and 37 runs batted in.

★ ★ ★

But as far as the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants are concerned, Menke is far ahead of his Atlanta Brave teammates on their hate lists.

Menke didn't have a hit Monday night until the ninth inning when he singled home the fourth run of the inning and gave the Braves a 10-9 victory over the Dodgers that dropped them from first place to third in the hectic NL pennant race.

The Giants split a doubleheader with Cincinnati, winning 7-5 after losing 10-6, and moved into second place, three percentage points behind the Pittsburgh Pirates, who were idle. The Dodgers are one-half game out.

BATTLED BACK

Menke's game-winning hit was his third in the Braves' last seven victories. Two weekends ago the 26-year-old shortstop beat the Giants twice in less than 24 hours with run-scoring singles.

The Giants battled back for a 6-6 tie in the top of the ninth inning July 29, but Menke singled across the winning run in the bottom of the inning.

The next afternoon the teams fought into the 11th inning tied 5-5 before Menke ended it with a bases-loaded single.

His winning single that tumbled the Dodgers to third was the sixth single in the ninth. Ty Cline started the hit parade, and Mack Jones, Felipe Alou, Joe Torre and Rico Carty followed before Menke finished it.

★ ★ ★

That certainly didn't make Menke a hit with the Dodgers, who had erupted for three runs and a 9-6 lead in the top of the ninth. John Roseboro doubled in the first two runs and scored the third on Torre's error.

Pitchers Lead Batting Attack in Church Play

The two-game knockout playoffs in the Waterford Church softball league will continue Friday after pitchers led the way in victories posted last night.

Bob Moore, the winning pitcher with two doubles and four rbi's hurled Christ Lutheran to a 11-7 win over Union Lake Baptist and Ron Chaffee pitched a three-hitter in defeating Elizabeth Lake Church of Christ 11-0 for Judah Lake Baptist.

The B division was a family affair. Clay and Al Campbell combined for three homer and five rbi's in pacing St. Stephens to a 14-8 win over Church of God and Basil Putman Sr. and Jr. netted two singles, two walks, a triple and three runs scored in Donelson Baptist's 13-9 triumph over St. Paul Methodist.

Ace for Visitor

An Ohio golfer ran into a little luck playing at Kensington Park Saturday.

Jim Rutter of Celina used his driver and knocked the ball into the cup on the 175-yard, No. 6 hole and wound up with a 3 for the round. It was his first ace.

No Additional Heart Injury for Dressen

DETROIT (AP) — Doctors say there is no evidence Charlie Dressen has suffered additional heart damage, but the Detroit Tigers manager remains hospitalized in serious condition.

Dressen, 67, recovering from his second heart attack in 14 months, entered Henry Ford Hospital Sunday, suffering from a kidney infection.

★ ★ ★

The hospital reported late Monday he "seems to be responding to treatment and shows slight improvement. However, he continues to have some elevation of temperature and his condition remains serious."

★ ★ ★

Dressen entered the hospital May 16 after suffering the second heart attack, was released as an out-patient and was under treatment when hit by the kidney ailment.

★ ★ ★

The baseball team is being managed by Frank Skaff, a coach who was appointed acting manager when Bob Swift, Dressen's interim replacement, was hospitalized.

Swift, who was third base coach, was admitted to the same hospital, where it was found he has lung cancer. Swift is undergoing cobalt treatments.

SPARKS ON SWIMMING

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the final article in a 20-part series in which author and swimming coach Christian B. Sparks has offered tips on swimming for beginners and experts.)

By CHRISTIAN B. SPARKS

You are well on your way toward becoming a good swimmer and can look to the not-too-distant future when you can begin to enjoy other water sports feeling safe in the fact that you can take care of yourself in the water, that you have a healthy respect for the water and have a reasonable knowledge of the rules of water safety.

You may be interested now in skin or scuba diving, boating or sailing, water skiing, surfing, or any of the other water-associated sports. You might want to develop your skills for competitive swimming.

Competitive swimming may well be the largest participant sport in our country for boys and girls through 17 years of age. The AAU "Age-Group" program numbers in the hundreds of thousands.

Wherever there is a swimming program, there is a team. Find one where there is a coach who can help to advance your swimming skills:

There is one skill which we have not discussed, the competitive start. The idea is to dive out as far as you can, as fast as you can, and as shallow as you can so that you can come up and start swimming as soon as possible. Study the following illustrations to develop the start:

STAND ERECT

Stand erect, toes locked over edge, look straight down the pool.

On command, "Take your mark" bend to position, lean forward, weight on front of feet, head down with eyes on edge of water.

On the sound of the gun, fall forward, swing the arms hard and lift the head.

Drive hard with the legs and body absolutely straight from fingertips to toes and level with water.

Upper body naturally drops and will enter water first preventing "flop." Keep "straight" body position.

Keep straight body position to take advantage of good glide.

Start stroke just before surfacing. Come up swimming hard. Do not take breath until stroke is well under way.

Perhaps this start will get you on the way to a swimming career for safety, for fun, or for fame. Which ever way it takes you, good luck and good swimming!

Local Group Purchases Silver Lake

Purchase of the Silver Lake Golf Club on Walton Boulevard by 10 local businessmen was announced this week.

★ ★ ★

Making the announcement was A. G. Kampsen of Kampsen Realty, a member of the 10-man group, who handled the financial details of the purchase from Fred Green of Goodrich.

Kampsen said the group has immediate plans to install a drainage system at the 3,120-yard, par-37 course. The layout covers 60 acres. Purchase price was not announced.

An underground watering system and a new clubhouse are among the group's long range plans for the course, Kampsen said.

★ ★ ★

Along with Kampsen in the group are Don O. Tatroe, superintendent of Waterford Township schools; Walter E. Greene, engineer at Pontiac Motors; Dr. Charles I. Patrick; Dennis R. Bruling, official of Darrin & Armstrong Construction; Garth R. Sayers, engineer at GM Truck; Frank E. Rocassi, automobile sales executive with Ford; and Earl VanDyke of Pontiac Motors.

Redskins' Back Suffers Injury

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — The Washington Redskins said Monday defensive halfback Lonnie Sanders suffered a severe back sprain during drills. The former Michigan State star was working in place of injured left cornerback Jim Steffens, a former Detroit Lions player. Steffens suffered a collapsed lung and four broken ribs in an exhibition game last Wednesday, and will be lost for six weeks.

Hearing Again on Cassius' Draft Status

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A hearing Aug. 23 could provide the basis for determining if heavyweight champion Cassius Clay is exempt from the armed services draft because of his religious beliefs.

Clay, a convert to the Black Muslim religion, claims exemption as a conscientious objector. Under his present 1-A classification, he is eligible for the draft.

* * *

Clay will be represented at the hearing by New York attorney Hayden Covington, who handled hundreds of Jehovah Witnesses cases during World War II when that religion claimed deferment for its members.

The Justice Department said Monday that the session will be conducted by Lawrence Grauman, a retired Circuit Court judge in Clay's hometown.

* * *

This is the second hearing for Clay, who successfully defended his heavyweight crown last Saturday night against Brian London.

Unanimous Verdict for Detroit Fighter

DETROIT (AP) — Johnny Powell of Detroit, weighing 161, punched out a unanimous, eight-round decision over Detroiter Ted Wright in a boxing match Monday night.

* * *

It was a repeat of Powell's July 11 victory over Wright, who weighed 160.

Powell, 26, staggered Wright in the fifth round but the veteran middleweight hung on.

* * *

A crowd of 2,082 at Cobo Arena stood and cheered during the eighth round as both boxers slugged rapidly and continuously at each other.

The crowd paid $3,852 to watch the battle.

Teen Girl Holds Lead in Amateur

Miss Shelley Hamlin, a vivacious teen-ager from Fresno, Calif., took a two-stroke lead today into the final round of qualifying for the USGA Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

Miss Hamlin, who began playing the game only four years ago, fired a par 73 in Monday's first round — the only golfer in a sparkling field of 118 to match the card.

* * *

"I guess I was kind of lucky," the 17-year-old high school senior said. "I wasn't too nervous."

But if the narrow, twisting Sewickley Heights Golf Club layout didn't shake Miss Hamlin, it played havoc with the nerves and scores of a lot of better known and more experienced golfers.

* * *

"It really doesn't give you much margin for error," said Mrs. Gordon P. Street Jr., the former Judy Eller of Chattanooga, Tenn., and a two-time national junior champion.

Western Juniors Qualifying Today

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Revenge was uppermost in the minds of four players who were set to tee off today in the first of two qualifying rounds for the 49th Western Junior Golf Championship.

The four were victims last year of defending champion John Richart, 19, of Ann Arbor, Mich.

Richart downed Bruce Osborne, Lamesa, Calif.; Phil Aldridge, Bloomfington, Ill.; semifinalist Greg Pitzer, Westwood Village, Calif., and finalist Jim Herring, Amarillo, Tex.

Richart will join the low 31 qualifiers in the start of match play Thursday. The 18-hole final will be Saturday.

Aaron's Wife Is Arrested

Policemen Suspended in Dispute

ATLANTA (AP) — The Atlanta Police Department suspended three officers Monday pending investigation of a dispute over the arrest of Mrs. Henry Aaron, wife of the Atlanta Braves' home run slugger.

Barbara Aaron was charged with "disorderly conduct-cursing" and failure to obey an officer's signal after an incident July 30 at the Atlanta Stadium parking lot for players. She goes to court Aug. 16.

* * *

The Negro baseball star said Monday his wife's attorney would object at her trial to what he termed "incompetents on the police force." Mrs. Aaron claimed a policeman pulled his gun when he stopped her. Police said Patrolman L. W. Bedgood placed his hand on his revolver but did not draw it.

* * *

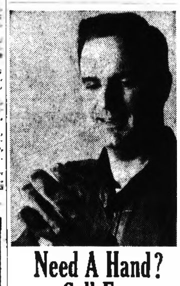

Acting Chief Greg Beerman said Bedgood was suspended pending "a thorough and complete investigation." Also suspended were Detective Lt. C. J. Strickland, in charge of the stadium police office, and Lt. B. F. Rains, general police supervisor at the stadium. He said the three were not charged.

Door Closing on '66 Cars

Changeover on '67s Has Already Begun

By CHARLES C. CAIN

DETROIT (AP) — The final cars of the 1966 model run roll off an assembly line at Ford's Dearborn assembly plant this week as the industry switched over to 1967 model production.

Some 4,500 of the 1966 model Mustangs are to be built on the Dearborn line before the industry calls it quits Friday on the model year.

Ford, last of the auto makers to end 1966 production, also was the first to begin 1967 work. Output of 1967 Thunderbird and Lincoln cars has been under way at Wixom for the past three weeks.

Chrysler got started on 1967 production this week after a closedown for vacations and model changeover. Six of Chrysler's assembly units were due to resume work this week with the seventh, the Los Angeles plant, scheduled to hum again next week.

GENERAL MOTORS

In the General Motors family the first of the 1967's are due this week from Chevrolet, Buick and Oldsmobile. Cadillac and Pontiac finished their 1966 model work last week and are on vacation.

Pressure Is Mounting

More Inflation Likely

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Businessmen as well as housewives face the likelihood of further inflation.

DAWSON

And such slowing in the upward pace of the economy as may be in prospect isn't likely to deter the continuing rise of prices in many lines. These range from the price of new cars to the raw materials that go into them, from the prices of services the family expects and needs to the cost of labor.

* * *

The economy has boomed close to the limits of its present resources and production facilities. And the inflationary pressure is mounting.

So far, the curbs on the economy's booming rise have been mainly of two sorts: monetary restraints that make credit tighter and interest rates higher, and government guidelines that tried persuasion to hold down price and wage increases that couldn't be matched by increased efficiency and productivity.

HIGHER COSTS

But the monetary restraints, while clipping some industries such as home building, and deterring some consumer buying of big ticket items such as new cars, have also resulted in higher costs of doing business — and therefore of an even greater urge to raise the prices of the goods and services involved.

And the government's voluntary guidelines have been effective largely in cases where the administration held a whiphand. The price of aluminum was held down because the government had huge defense stockpiles of surplus metal with which it could threaten to flood the market. In the great majority of cases, industrial prices — and wage scales — have gone up, almost unnoticed.

* * *

Except by the consumer. He now is very aware of the rising cost of living.

The cost of many services has been going up steadily right along. It took a big jump in food prices early in the year, and again in midsummer, to bring the housewive to the loudly protesting stage.

Her bills had suddenly started rising much faster than her husband's pay check. It, in fact, had been clipped a bit, first by higher Social Security taxes, and then by larger withholding for federal income taxes. And in many cases the income-clipping also extended to higher state and local taxes.

The businessman has been having much the same experience. Wholesale prices of industrial materials had held fairly steady in the early years of the 1960s, while his production and sales and profits were mounting. Then the demand for raw materials, and semifinished goods, began to exceed supply. And the wholesale price index started to climb rapidly. Industrial commodities hit a peak in March and then moderated.

PRESSURE UPWARD

Now the pressure is mostly upward again. It isn't just steel prices alone. Several other metals are in short supply, with prices well above the year-ago level.

And the prices of semifinished industrial products are under pressure, both from the rise in basic commodities and from the demands of labor for higher wage scales.

* * *

Since the economy is using up about all of the raw materials and semi-finished products that the nation's natural resources and industrial production facilities can supply — as well as all the labor available for many high skilled jobs — the pressure will continue.

It will continue even if the economy continues to rise at a 10 per cent pace — rather than the record 17 per cent rate of the first quarter.

And monetary restraint and government voluntary guidelines for wage and price increases may have already done just about all that the businessman — or the housewife — can expect from them.

U.S. Agents to Stay Mum in Nevada Gaming Case

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Federal tax agents will decline to talk if called to a Nevada hearing into charges the underworld secretly rakes off millions a year from legal gambling casinos, a U.S. official says.

The Nevada Gaming Commission, at Gov. Grant Sawyer's request, hoped to sift fact from fiction in allegations that mobsters skim untaxed profits and hold illegal hidden interests in lucrative gaming table and slot machines. The hearing opens today.

* * *

"We would have to claim immunity under the Internal Revenue Code," said Samuel Beardsley, acting district director of the Internal Revenue Service for Nevada, when asked if his agents would testify if subpoenaed.

"We'd rather not get involved," he said.

'REQUESTED' TO TESTIFY

Only one casino employe, George Gordon of the Desert Inn on the Las Vegas strip, had been subpoenaed. But a gaming control agency spokesman said an undisclosed number of club officials had been "requested" to testify. The request, in the case of casino license-holders, is tantamount to a subpoena, he said.

* * *

Beardsley said none of his tax agents had been asked to appear, to his knowledge. But he said they could not comment, even if subpoenaed, on any tax case that was not a matter of public record, such as in court testimony. Skimming would violate federal, as well as state, tax-reporting laws.

FBI agents from Las Vegas testified in a federal court case involving Desert Inn stockholder Ruby Kolod earlier this year that they installed electronic eavesdropping devices in the Desert Inn with the intent of gaining information on criminal activity.

INFORMATION

Dean Elson, FBI chief in Nevada, told the court, "We had information coming to our attention that there was a vast sum of money being taken off the top by the ownership of the Desert Inn."

The commission said any testimony of criminal activity would be turned over to the commission's investigative and enforcement branch, the Gaming Control Board, for possible license revocation action.

* * *

The gaming commission, in an administrative procedure initiated by the board, has arbitrary authority to revoke a gambling license, or close a casino, for anything determined to be an "unsuitable operation."

Nevada casinos reported record gross winnings of $328.8 million to the state during 1965.

Market Value of Negro Put at $27 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department estimated today the value of the Negro consumer market at $27 billion annually.

The estimate was made in a newly published guide for businessmen on the buying potential of more than 20 million Americans.

* * *

Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor, in a foreword to the publication, said the size of the market reflects "a solid economic advancement" made by Negroes during the past five years.

"The market represents for America both an opportunity and an obligation," he said. "It will be an increasingly profitable market as the Negro is given greater opportunity to contribute to, and share in, the general prosperity."

* * *

The guide contains statistics on Negro buying, a bibliography of government and nongovernment articles and publications on the Negro market, and a list of Negro newspapers and magazines throughout the country.

$ Successful Investing $

By ROGER E. SPEAR

(Q) "Would Allied Supermarkets be a good investment for me? How does it compare with other food chains? I am 14-years-old and have $200 to invest." A. R.

(A) Allied Supermarkets is engaged in an ambitious program of expansion which will carry its units into S. S. Kresge K-Mart discount stores. This will require large capital expenditures. Increased earnings are not expected until next year at the earliest, and for fiscal 1966 (ended June 30) there is little expectation of an improvement over the $1.28 a share earned in fiscal 1965. Profits in the last nine years have been moving down irregularly from their peak of $1.45 in 1958.

The food chains generally are hard pressed by mounting competition and rapidly rising wholesale prices. Allied Supermarkets, according to their published assets, is from 1/5 to 1/10 the size of the three industry leaders: Great A & P, Safeway and Kroger. In my judgment, you should save your money until you have accumulated at least $500. Then I suggest as a first investment Consolidated Foods or Borden Company. Both have shown a strong growth pattern since 1956.

* * *

(Q) "A junior in college, I have $1,000 to invest. Three stocks have been highly recommended to me: General Tel & Electronics, Am. Hospital Supply, and Sears, Roebuck. Which one do you think best for me?" A. S.

(A) Assuming that an ambitious college student wants a growth stock for some future needs but meanwhile would appreciate regular dividend checks, my choice for you is General Telephone. GT&E is second only to American Telephone in this segment of its operations. You will share in the results of the company's electronics research while providing yourself with the defensive cushion of a utility stock.

Based on estimated earnings for 1966, GT&E's price-earnings multiple of 20.9x is the lowest of the three and its annual dividend of $1.28 will give you the highest yield — around three per cent.

Steren Hearing Set for Sept. 12

A hearing on a motion for a new trial for 20 men convicted of gambling at the Steren Assembly Club in Madison Heights has been scheduled for Sept 12 before Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem.

★ ★ ★

The hearing was to have been held yesterday, but Ziem granted a postponement to allow the prosecutor's office time to answer the 80 points defense attorney Carlton Roeser has given as reasons for the new trial.

His clients were found guilty following a trial in Manistee a year ago.

★ ★ ★

The trial had been moved to the Northern Michigan community after Roeser contended that his clients could not be impartially tried in Oakland County becuase of the widespread news coverage the case had received.

★ ★ ★

Sixteen of the 20 men received prison terms. They were released on bond pending the outcome of Roeser's appeal for a new trial.

★ ★ ★

Held at the Oakland County Jail for investigation of breaking and entering are Tommy Colburn, 17, of 60 Green; Raymond DeLong, 16, of 158 Green; and Winston M. Maxwell, 18, of Detroit.

The juvenile was taken to the Oakland County Children's Center.

Colburn and DeLong were apprehended by Sgt. Robert W. Verhine near the intersection of Palmer and Orchard Lake at 3:45 a.m., shortly after a reported break-in at a doctor's office at 169 Palmer.

★ ★ ★

Patrolmen Raymond Dickinson and Merton R. Kesselring apprenehended the juvenile after stationing themselves at the front and rear of the building.

OFFICE RANSACKED

★ ★ ★

Maxwell was sitting in an automobile near Cole's Cut-Rate Drugs, 501 S. Saginaw when arrested by Patrolman Norman R. Kilmer about 2:15 a.m.

Allegedly in Maxwell's car at the time of his arrest were half-gallon bottles of whisky similar to ones reported missing from the drugstore.

The front door and front window of the store had been broken out.

Wage Talks With City Police, Firemen to Resume This Week

Wage negotiations between the city and police and firemen are slated to reopen this week with meetings scheduled for 3 p.m. tomorrow and Friday.

Nicholas Santiwan, personnel director, said the wage committee of the Pontiac Police Officers Association (PPOA) has requested a meeting with City Hall representatives to discuss their 1966-67 wage package.

The PPOA seeks longevity pay and a 20 per cent hike in base pay of $1,276 per man.

Santiwan said the $1,276 wage boost, if granted, would amount to a 20 per cent increase calculated on the starting rate for patrolman of $6,084 per year.

★ ★ ★

The police proposal asks longevity pay on the basis of a rising scale of 2½ per cent of base pay after five years service to 10 per cent after 20 years.

MEETING SET

Santiwan said he had not yet received wage proposals from the Pontiac Fire Fighters Union, but that a meeting with firemen was set for 3 p.m. tomorrow.

He expected the wage requests would be similar to that of the PPOA.

Romney Acts in Royal Oak Twp. JP Case

A request for the removal of a Royal Oak Township justice of the peace from office has been referred by Gov. George Romney to a probate judge for the taking of testimony.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt, sitting as a one-man grand jury, had requested the removal of Justice of the Peace Lonnie C. Cash.

State law requires the governor to refer such requests to a judge for the taking of testimony.

He referred it to Probate Judge Francis Castellucci of Macomb County and requested Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley to represent the state in the case.

Cash, 42, was suspended from office in May after Pratt charged him with five counts of perjury before the grand jury. He was later indicted of obstructing justice.

Cash, a justice of the peace since 1959, has not yet stood trial on any of the charges.

The typewriters, including four electric models, were taken from a storeroom at the rear.

★ ★ ★

Two spotlights designed to illuminate the side of the building apparently had been broken prior to the break-in, police said.

In Memoriam 2

LORING R. DOWNS, AUGUST 9, 1964
Treasured thoughts of one so dear
Often bring a silent tear;
Thoughts return to scenes long past,
Time rolls on, but memory lasts.
Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MOTHER Gertrude M. Mortimore, who passed away August 8, 1965.
God saw you getting weaker,
So He did what He thought best;
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered come to rest.
You wished no one a last farewell,
Not even to say goodby,
You had gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
Saddly missed by son Robert and wife Dianne and family, son Bill and wife Connie and dad.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR Angel, Kennett Lee Wilson, killed in an auto accident August 9, 1965.
"The Disciples found Angels at the grave of Him they loved, and we should always find them too, but that our eyes are too full of tears for seeing." H. W. Beecher.
Sadly missed by mother, father, sister, brothers, family and all who were blessed by knowing him.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MRS. Delia Aaron who passed away 1 year ago August 9, 1965:
Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall.
You had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Sadly missed by Husband, son, daughter and grandchildren.

Earl Pours Out Thoughts on Art of Wine Savoring

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — American corporations are teaching some of their executives wine-drinking so they won't be gauche abroad . . . and I guess somebody saw me not holding a wine glass by the stem, and thought I needed some lessons, too.

WILSON

"Hold the glass always by the stem," my professoress, Mme. Fernando Garvin, who teaches the seminars upstairs at the Headquarters restaurant on W. 49th St., said, earnestly, when she saw me cupping the top of the glass in my palm, instead.

★ ★ ★

"You smell it . . . the real expert puts his nose down in to . . . if his nose isn't too large . . . you take a little sip . . . the real experts chew the wine . . . they bite it . . . roll it around your mouth. Then, after you swallow it, you pay attention to the lingering taste . . ."

The important things, my professoress said, are the glasses—they should be large with a long stem—and the temperature.

"Room temperature' is not the temperature of the room," the professoress added.

"No? That's surprising," I said.

★ ★ ★

"When the expression 'room temperature' was first used, it was 100 years ago when the rooms were not centrally heated as they are today. Red wine should be served at 60-65 degrees, which is what 'room temperature' might have been 100 years ago."

The Headquarters bosses say wine tastes take strange twists. A customer asked for a wine card.

"What, you have no Manischevitz?" the customer exclaimed to John Schwarz and Charles Fodor, the bosses.

★ ★ ★

A bottle of Manischevitz was hurriedly brought from a liquor store. As the customer tasted it and enjoyed it, one proprietor poured himself a taste.

"You know," he said, licking his lips, "that year 5727 wasn't a bad year after all."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Robert Taylor's friends want him to run for political office in California . . . Edward Durell Stone got the contract to design Pakistan's new capital city of Islamabad, $100 million worth . . . At Le Mistral: John Roosevelt and the first Mrs. John Roosevelt greeting each other across a crowded room.

★ ★ ★

Sammy Davis' mother Elvira is a hostess at the Living Rm. (where SD is a partner) . . . Countess Christina Paolozzi said at the Miami Beach Deauville she's expecting in February. (Her husband's an Air Force medico).

WISH I'D SAID THAT: No wonder Las Vegas is getting so crowded—nobody has the fare to leave.—Bob Orben.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Education is what you remember after you forget what you learned."—Louis Ginsberg, Paterson, N. J.

EARL'S PEARLS: They say that woman's work is never done—and you can blame that on daytime TV.

"I didn't realize how big the Concord Hotel is," says comic Mickey Freeman, "till I saw a guy at the other end of the long bar paying in Canadian money." . . . That's earl, brother.

Set to Pay for TV Relay Satellites

NEW YORK (AP) — The Ford Foundation is prepared to put up all the money needed to turn into reality its proposal for a nonprofit system of television relay satellites, a highly placed source says.

A letter from McGeorge Bundy, president of the philanthropic organization, to the Federal Communications Commission indicated the Ford Foundation would provide at least part of the estimated cost of $100-million.

But the source said the foundation is ready to go all the way.

"If the FCC approves the proposal the Ford Foundation is committed to this," he said.

FULL SUPPORT

Bundy declined to say if the Ford Foundation is prepared to put up all the financial backing for the system.

The foundation proposal is a concept which could change the whole character of television.

★ ★ ★

A system of four satellites—one for each time zone—would be placed in stationary orbit above the equator to relay television to stations in every area of the United States.

The profits from the relay of commercial television would be used to finance educational television and a noncommercial network offering cultural and informational programs.

LIVE TELEVISION

Every station across the country in turn could beam live television coverage back to the networks, expanding the horizons of electronic journalism.

The proposal was conceived by Fred W. Freendly, former president of news for the Columbia Broadcasting System and now television consultant to the foundation.

The foundation proposal will have to be threshed out before the FCC—which also has before it a rival proposal from the Communications Satellite Corp.

Somsat contends Congress awarded it exclusive rights in 1962 to put up and operate communications satellites. It is moving to protect its position.

The Ford Foundation argues that COMSAT's rights are not exclusive, and were meant to be in the international field only.

Storm Batters South Haven

By the Associated Press

A summer thunderstorm hit South Haven, felling power lines damaging buildings and causing accidents before it moved almost straight east across Michigan Tuesday.

Winds higher than 40 miles an hour blasted South Haven, Kalamazoo, Jackson, Lansing and Flint.

★ ★ ★

More than 10 buildings suffered wind damage in South Haven, police said.

Power flickered out to a number of areas in the Lake Michigan community, causing South Haven Community Hospital to switch to emergency power for a time. Electric linemen worked for hours to restore power.

CAUSED MISHAP

Trees and limbs cracked under strain of the wind gusts. At one point, lightning felled a tree and caused a three - car accident that injured three persons.

William Bragg, 64, of Pullman, was hospitalized with a back injury after he stopped his car to avoid hitting the tree and two other cars crashed into Bragg's auto. Two others injured in the wreck were treated and released.

★ ★ ★

Winds knocked out power for about a half hour to a portion of south Kalamazoo. Tree limbs snapped off throughout the city.

The Weather Bureau said hail struck portions of Macomb County on the east side of the state.

LITTLE DAMAGE

Most other areas withstood the strong winds with little damage.

Cloudy weather with occasional showers was predicted for the state today.

Candidates Get Hare Warning on Financial Reports

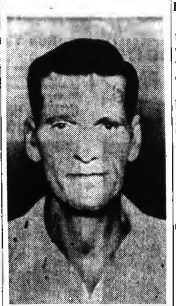

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James Hare has reminded primary election winners their names won't go on the November ballot unless they hand in their campaign finances report by Friday.

★ ★ ★

Hare said the law limits primary campaign expenditures to 25 per cent of one year's compensation or 40 dollars per 1,000 votes cast for governor in the district in 1964, whichever is greater.

★ ★ ★

Candidates must file campaign finance statements even if they had no receipts or expenditures.

ACCUSED SLAYER — Joseph D. Morse, 37, of Longmont, Colo., has been arrested in connection with the July 9 slaying of a Colorado University coed Elaura Jaquette on the Boulder campus. The father of five has been described as a roving janitor for the University. The coed was found beaten to death in a tower room of a campus auditorium.

Race Trouble Feared

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Urban league director Paul I. Phillips said Monday Grand Rapids is classified by the National Urban League as "medium to high" in potential for racial violence.

Phillips, returning from the annual convention in Philadelphia, said the economic and political power of Negroes must be intensified locally.

"We must immediately expand and intensify our efforts here toward much greater equality in housing, education, employment and health and welfare programs for Negroes," Phillips said.

"We must have some representatives on the City Commission and on the Police Department's high echelon."

Lansing, the scene of a racial disturbance Sunday night, is classified with Grand Rapids in potential for violence, Phillips said. He added that both rank behind 17, cities designated as "tinderboxes."

Equality Under Law Is Urged

Proper Safeguards for Young Stressed

MONTREAL (AP) — Juveniles accused of crimes should be assured the same constitutional safeguards police must observe in handling adults, a leading Juvenile Court judge told the American Bar Associa today.

"When the criminal law has been violated, police procedures for apprehending the violator and presenting him to the appropriate court should, in my judgment, be uniform," said Orman W. Leichem, associate judge of the District of Columbia Juvenile Court.

★ ★ ★

"They should not proceed on the theory that, because there will be no criminal conviction, there is any less need for evidence or fair process."

Giving special significance to Ketchem's prepared remarks to an ABA section on family law is the fact that the Supreme Court has agreed to consider major questions concerning juvenile court procedure during its next term.

'DESERVE NO LESS'

Though juvenile proceedings, at the start at least, are generally noncriminal in nature, Ketchem said: "So far as the investigatory aspects of a juvenile's case is concerned, a juvenile court judge should expect at least as much care as is exercised in adult criminal cases.

"And the judge should ensure that, if the facts are in dispute, there is the same punctilious adjudication as in a criminal trial.

"Our juveniles deserve no less."

★ ★ ★

Ketchem suggested that such practices will enhance the juvenile's respect for the judicial system and law enforcement.

The family law section discussion is one of several going on during the ABA's 89th annual convention here.

Monday the association's House of Delegates, its policy-making body, established a new section on "individual rights and responsibilities and thereby waded into the nationwide struggle over civil rights.

RACIAL STRIFE

The new section, established by unanimous vote of the 275-member house has as one of its objectives channeling racial strife from the streets to the courtroom and conference table.

The House of Delegates also:

Plans for Anti-Tito Magazine Go On Despite Arrest of Yugoslav Writer

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Supporters of jailed writer Mihajlo Mihajlov defied police warnings today and elected officers for a meeting to found an opposition magazine.

Police have not forbidden the meeting, but have said they cannot be responsible for the safety of those who take part.

"There likely may be outbursts or a demonstration that would make protection of the people involved with Mihajlov very difficult to maintain," said a security spokesman.

Mihajlov got into trouble a year ago for an article critical of the Soviet Union and had called a meeting Wednesday to found the magazine at Zadar, on the Adriatic Coast.

★ ★ ★

But after being called in for "investigatory conversations" over the past few days by Zadar authorities, Mihajlov was ordered arrested amonday by the Zadar District Court for three days of investigation. It cited a law against spreading false rumors.

Penalties for violating the law are a fine or up to one year in prison.

EARLY SPEECH

Apparently anticipating detention, Mihajlov released ahead of time a speech he was to deliver at Wednesday's meeting.

In it, he accused President Tito's government of wielding totalitarian power and declared that communism's idea of the class struggle could lead to the destruction of society.

★ ★ ★

"Despite all its deficiencies," his speech said, "even the worst multiparty system is better than the best one-party system."

Seven of his associates gathered after Mihajlov's arrest and said they would go on with the magazine. More were expected to join them. Mihajlov had said repeatedly that efforts to put out the magazine would go ahead, regardless of what happened to him.

EX-TEACHER

Mihajlov, 31, is a former teacher of literature at Zadar University. In 1964 he visited the Soviet Union and wrote about his experiences in a highly critical essay, "Moscow Summer 1964." The essay was published in a literary magazine.

He was arrested in March 1965 and sentenced to nine months in prison on charges of "belittling" the Soviet Union. An appellate court reversed the conviction but found him guilty of distributing a banned article and gave him a five-month sentence. The sentence was suspended for two years. Mihajlov spent 37 days in jail.

Mihajlov then began promoting the idea of an opposition magazine that he said could lead to "a spiritual and idealistic liberation" and eventually to a Yugoslav democratic socialist movement.

Among the authors whose works he said he hoped to publish were Andrei D. Sinyavsky and Yuli M. Daniel, who are serving sentences at hard labor in the Soviet Union for publishing anti-Soviet writings outside their country, and Milovan Djilas, former Yugoslav deputy premier whose book "The New Class" attacked Communist bureaucracy and advocated greater political and social freedom in Yugoslavia. Djilas is now in his ninth year in prison.
