

Woman Dies, Putting Tornado Toll at 10

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — The death toll from the tornado that struck the Anchor Bay area Friday rose to 10 today. Mrs. Gladys Sparrwasser, 68, of 49120 Bay Shore Drive, Chesterfield Township, died of injuries at the Selridge Air Force Base Hospital.

Families that paid the tornado's tragic price sought to replace $8 million in destroyed homes and belongings.

The thousand homeless persons were robbed of these by Friday's devastating tornado.

The twister left an enormous reconstruction job after scattering across a miles-long scene of homes, cottages and boat docks off Anchor Bay of Lake St. Clair in southeastern Michigan.

Gov. George W. Romney called for $1 million in public donations to help the stricken families.

Watched by 300 National Guardsmen and law authorities, home owners grieved among rubble for lost possessions today and during the weekend.

Some were kept away from their wrecked homes because of dangerous conditions.

POLICE CAPTAIN

"It looks like Hiroshima," State Police Capt. Fred Davids said of battered Chesterfield Township, target of the tornado's worst fury.

Threat of fire covered a two square-mile area yesterday when fuel leaked from hundreds of bottled gas systems, Davids said. Police and National Guard units removed the containers.

A search continued for more possible victims. There were no reports of missing persons, Davids said, but "it is conceivable that a couple or a family could have been wiped out and there is no one left to make a report of it."

Romney, after touring the area with federal and state officials, said the township could not qualify for federal disaster aid.

Most of the damage was to private property. The law restricts federal disaster aid to public service facilities.

Insurance covered a $6.5 million loss on homes, their contents and emergency living expenses, Deputy State Insurance Commissioner William Olsen and a group of insurance adjusters said.

Another $1 million in wrecked automobiles and $500,000 in ruined boats was covered by insurance, the men said.

The Small Business Administration planned to set up an office in a schoolhouse to accept applications by businessmen for low-interest federal loans to rebuild commercial establishments.

POSSIBLE LOOTING

Patrols of National Guardsmen watched against possible looting. Police said they have had numerous lost property reports, knew of no instance of looting.

An "Operation Bulldoze" program to aid Chesterfield Township grew out of a meeting between Romney and labor and contractor groups at Grand Rapids Saturday.

Wirtz Begins Quiz on Hoffa Defense Fees

Union Local Charges Violation in Use of Teamster Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz began today an investigation of the use of union funds to pay legal fees for Teamster President James R. Hoffa.

The Labor Department said the investigation began after a complaint by 16 members of Teamster Local No. 107 in Philadelphia that Hoffa had been using union funds in violation of the Landrum-Griffin Act.

The law provides that if a union member is charged with violating his trust, and the organization and its officials refuse, or fail, to take action, any union member may sue in federal or state court to recover misused union funds or property.

The Philadelphia Teamsters asked Wirtz to investigate their charges promptly and provide them with the results of the investigation, so they may take appropriate action.

RESULTS PUBLIC

The Labor Department said the results of the investigation will be made public.

The investigation is provided for under the Landrum-Griffin Act, which authorizes the secretary of labor to make an investigation if "he believes it is necessary in order to determine whether any person has violated, or is about to violate" the law.

The law also provides that the secretary may release the results of such an investigation to "interested persons or officials."

KERPLUNK — For several years, large wooden beams have kept this wall along the Clinton River just south of East Pike from "collapsing." Engineers predicted the wall, which leans toward the river, would come tumbling down when the beams were removed.

Police Halt Rail Cars in Wild Chase

It was like a scene from an old western movie where the good guys stop a runaway train. Only the locale was Pontiac and the two heroes were Pontiac policemen.

The saga began at 8:10 a.m. today as Lt. William Nesbitt and patrolman John Bridgewater were driving on Howard.

At the Grand Trunk Railroad crossing they saw Robert Turrow, a Pontiac Motor Division plant protection guard, frantically waving them down and yelling that he had just seen freight cars go by without an engine.

Like in all good westerns, Nesbitt and Bridgewater gave chase — but in their trusty patrol car, not on horse.

SPOTTED RUNAWAY

Nearly a mile and three major intersections later, the two saw the six cars rumbling down the tracks.

Pulling their car to the curb, they jumped out and gave chase, finally grabbing hand bars on the last car.

After that it was "easy" said Nesbitt. "We turned the brake-wheel and it came to a grinding halt."

The trip ended at Sanderson and the Perimeter Road. Police said the cars broke away from the Fisher Body railroad yards.

Officials there told police that the air brakes had been set on the cars but they have had trouble with children in the past bleeding the lines.

The freight cars ran a course through seven intersections including Howard, Montcalm and Oakland before being stopped.

Landry to Ask Court Rule on Question of Write-Ins

Former mayor Robert A. Landry today said he would ask for a circuit court ruling on what constitutes a legal write-in vote as final results of the recount of votes cast April 20 for District 7 candidates increased the winning margin of Emmett S. Wellbaum.

Landry, who had requested the recount, ended up losing more votes in the recount than either of the other two candidates.

The former mayor lost 44 votes. Wellbaum, a write-in candidate who was declared winner, lost 24 votes.

Curtis L. Webb, who opposed Landry on the April 20 ballot, gained 44 votes. However, the positions of the three men remained the same with Wellbaum on top, Landry second and Webb third.

The Oakland County Board of Canvassers completed recounting Pontiac's 43 precincts late today.

Fear Casualties at Crash Site Near Manila

83 on Craft Going to Southeast Asia; LBJ Asks Full Report

MANILA (AP) — A U.S. military jet transport carrying personnel to Southeast Asia crashed and burned today at Clark Air Force Base north of Manila. A U.S. Air Force spokesman said 73 of the 83 persons aboard were killed.

In Washington, the White House said it had been advised by the Pentagon that it appeared there were additional casualties on the ground.

Presidential Press Secretary George E. Reedy said information as to casualties on the ground was incomplete but that it appeared some were killed and others injured.

Reedy said President Johnson has requested a full report, and expressed his sympathy for the families of the victims.

Wreckage was strewn over a wide area of the base, a shuttleport for supplying U.S. forces in South Viet Nam.

The spokesman said there was a localized rain squall in the Clark area 60 miles north of Manila at the time but "there was plenty of visibility."

He said investigators at the scene gave no indication of the cause of the crash. He added that weather conditions at the base were not unusual for landings.

The big transport, C135 four-engine jet carrying 73 passengers and a crew of 10, broke up and burned less than a half-mile from the runway, the spokesman said.

Suspect Hospitalized in McNamara Plot

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A Communist agent suspected of plotting to kill U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on his arrival Tuesday leaped from a window at police headquarters today, police said.

The agent, identified as Nguyen Van Troi, leaped from a second-floor window, landed on a jeep, suffered a broken leg and was hospitalized. Police said he was in a coma.

Troi was one of three suspected Communist Viet Cong agents picked up Saturday night as they tried to mine a bridge on the route McNamara will take from Saigon airport into the capital.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was expected to be riding with McNamara.

Several other Viet Cong suspects have been picked up. A quantity of high explosives has been unearthed since the arrest of the three, police sources said. The Viet Cong agents confessed they planned to "blow up

Believed Drowned in Ditch During Chase

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Three children and two women were slain Sunday and police said a 54-year-old husband and father, sought for questioning, presumably drowned after crashing his car into an irrigation canal.

The canal was dragged today for Raymond A. Reasons, whose three children, a stepdaughter and a former wife were found dead at their home and in the water-logged car.

Two of the victims were shot, two were garroted and the fifth was beaten to death.

The search centered on the canal after a patrolman saw a motorist, believed to be Reasons, acting suspiciously and chased his car until it plunged into the water.

The man escaped the car, but disappeared in the water.

Censorship Brings Strong Reaction

PORT HURON (AP) — What happens in a newspaper plant when a newspaper's publisher is ordered by a court to suppress a news story?

In Port Huron, Mich., last week a circuit judge ordered a newspaper to suppress a news story dealing with a lawsuit filed by the city.

The judge also ordered the newspaper not to publish a story saying the news of the suit had been suppressed.

After three hours of discussion between the judge, the publisher and attorneys the order was lifted.

The publisher, F. Granger Weil, told in his Sunday column of the reaction in the newspaper offices. Here it is:

When a suppression order was issued April 30 affecting one story in the columns of the Times Herald, its significance was recognized immediately by the staff.

Nearly every editorial department worker remained on the job until the paper rolled.

The men who drive the Times Herald delivery route refused to consider they had reported for work until the presses started to roll nearly three hours later. Otherwise they would have had to charge the company overtime rates.

Members of Local 263, International Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union who man the newspapers two presses took a similar stand.

The president of another Times Herald union said the feeling was so high within his unit that the membership was, in his words, "ready to march on city hall."

Freedom of the press — and freedom of speech as well — are more than just words or phrases to those who man your daily newspapers.

CLEAR UNDERSTANDING

The reaction to the suppression order clearly showed an understanding by newspaper people of the significance of their daily task.

As long as this spirit prevails, so will all the freedoms we enjoy today in these United States.

Estelle, 47, was later found in the car. She had been shot.

The search for the bodies began when Edna Reasons, the current but estranged wife of Reasons, told police her husband had called and told her he had killed the children — Eddie Ray Reasons, 13; Pamela, 11; and Patty, 10, and Reason's stepdaughter, Sally Gohman, 19. They were found in Reasons' house.

Police explained the complicated family relationships this way:

Reasons married Edna Reasons, who was the mother of his children. They were divorced, and he married Estelle Reasons.

HOW TO KEEP COOL — A newly installed $66,000 temperature control panel in the County Courthouse basement is shown to Mary Lou Prevost of the county personnel department by George Atchison, superintendent of County buildings and grounds. Temperatures throughout the building can be observed and controlled from the panel, Atchison said. The board also will pinpoint any sudden trouble in the heating-cooling system so that corrective measures can be taken immediately, he added.

More File for College Board

Fourteen more candidates have filed nominating petitions for the June 8 election of a six-member board of trustees for the proposed Oakland County community college.

This means 26 persons will be vying for the posts.

The deadline for filing was 4 p.m. Saturday.

The last group of candidates to file included Donald H. Arsen, 6675 Wellesley, Waterford Township; Daniel T. Berry, 5457 Sunnyside, Independence Township; Frederick A. Chapman, 4726 Pickering, Birmingham; Dr. Roy V. Cooley, 224 Asterwood, Pontiac; Jay Eldred, 132 Woodward, Rochester, and David W. Hackett, 1380 Ruby, Avon Township.

Others were Harold Julian, 1325 Cambridge, Berkeley; Marshall Ketz, 23600 Jerome, Oak Park; Ralph A. Main, 1819

Fairview, Birmingham; J. T. Martin, 250 Cranbrook, Bloomfield Township.

And Mrs. Grace F. Mesey, 681 E. Valley Chase, Bloomfield Township; Mark Reysine, 25175 Farmbrook, Southfield; Charles F. J. Spain, 555 S. Chocoy, Clawson, and Robert E. Wurtz, 479 W. Woodland, Ferndale.

Those who filed earlier included Mrs. Lila Johnson, 12726 La Salle, Huntington Woods; Mrs. Leona Simmons, 258 Fern; Rallie L. Jones, 212 Bonalde; Vernon M. Fitch, 2550 Middlebury, Bloomfield Township; and Howard Stiles, 1388 Stanley.

Also, Wheeler Lovell, 1316 Wrenwood, Troy; Dr. Paul L. Connolly, 347 Karen, Bloomfield Hills; C. H. Smart, superintendent of Walled Lake Consolidated Schools; William J. Ruppel, 25 Maplefield, Pleasant Ridge; George Mosher, 551 Morgan, Birmingham; Earl Anderson, 30159 Palmer, Madison Heights; and Beecher Eaves, 1406 Edgewood, Royal Oak.

The county school board has modified the three-part ballot question on the community college to conform with provisions of the new state constitution.

The 1-mill tax levy to finance the institution will be a charter limitation. Previously a 20-year limitation had been attached to the proposal.

In addition, the board of trustees will be able to levy only up to the amount voted.

4 Persons Vie in Waterford

Four persons, including the two incumbents, seek the two 4-year terms on the Waterford Township Board of Education at issue in the June 8 election.

The candidates are incumbents Robert Fields, president; and John Boardman, trustee; and Dean Salley, 6229 Jameson and Mrs. Dora D. White, 4882 Elizabeth Lake.

Mrs. White is a retired elementary school teacher in the Waterford system and Salley, a partner in a credit and collection agency, is a past president of the Waterford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The deadline for filing petitions was 4 p.m. Saturday.

Board Post Is Contested

An election contest to fill a vacancy on the Pontiac School Board June 8 was assured when Dr. Robert R. Turpin, a dentist, of 108 Franklin Blvd. filed a nominating petition by Saturday's deadline.

Turpin will vie with Pontiac attorney James L. Howlett for the post of Glenn Griffin who isn't seeking re-election.

Griffin of 106 Ogden was served on the school board since 1950. His is the only term expiring at this time.

Turpin, 42, is a former director of the Pontiac Urban League.

Howlett of 104 E. Iroquois is chairman of the school board's citizens committee that has been reviewing school needs in the city.

Six File for Positions on Board of Education

BIRMINGHAM — Six candidates are vying for the chance to sit on the Birmingham Board of Education.

By the deadline Saturday, two had filed nominating petitions for the two-year term and four for the four-year term.

Seeking to fill the second half of Richard P. Barnard's term are incumbent Mrs. Louise C. Adams and Edward J. Ramble, 901 Abbey.

Mrs. Adams was appointed to the board upon Barnard's resignation in October.

Incumbent President E. Ross Hanson is seeking reelection to one of two four-year terms available. The other trustee whose term is expiring, Mrs. Mary Beier, did not file a petition.

OTHER ASPIRATIONS

Other candidates are Joseph E. Anderson, 5612 Putnam;

Richard L. Halsted, 4053 Spur Hill, Bloomfield Township; and George W. Whitehead, 858 Norwich.

Besides electing three trustees June 8, Birmingham School District voters will decide the fate of a $6-million increase in the operational levy and bonding for a $5.3-million building program.

The two incumbents have been joined by two other candidates running for seats on the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education.

The June 8 ballot will carry the names of incumbent Vice President Merrill O. Bates; incumbent Trustee W. Earl Givens; Donald C. Hyde of 953 S. Redding, Bloomfield Township; and Mrs. Amy Lee Chamberlain of 4451 Chamberlain, Bloomfield Township.

Voters will pick two of the four candidates to serve four-year terms.

They also will consider a $7-million building program and a second proposition concerning physical education facilities.

Landry to Ask Write-In Rule

FINAL TOTALS

When it was completed, the board certified the following final vote totals for the three candidates: Wellbaum, 4,256; Landry, 3,885; and Webb, 3,853.

For comparison, the vote totals certified by the city board of canvassers following the election were: Wellbaum, 4,280; Landry, 3,929; and Webb, 3,899.

Wellbaum had originally been declared winner by a margin of 351 votes over Landry. The recount gave him a 371-vote margin.

Landry, who had edged Webb by 120 votes originally, now ends up only 32 votes ahead of Webb.

The 44-vote error was all in one precinct where Webb and Landry vote totals recorded by the voting machine had been written under the wrong names on statement sheets.

'FINE JOB'

"Generally, the election workers did a fine job," said the election clerk.

Landry, contacted this morning, said he expects "to petition the court in a day or two."

"I'm not convinced that three letters out of a man's name (Wellbaum) properly identifies him," Landry noted, referring to misspelling of a candidate's name.

"I also expect to ask for a ruling on whether or not 'Wellbaum,' written on the paper roll without any initial or first name, is legal."

The canvassers had ruled at the outset they would count write-in votes without Wellbaum's first name or initial as valid, after the validity had been challenged by Landry's attorney, Milton R. Henry.

State GOP Put Faith in Romney

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Republicans appeared ready today to play follow-the-leader with Gov. Romney and go wherever he takes them in the 1964 gubernatorial and presidential sweepstakes.

Romney's leadership was acknowledged with thunderous cheers and applause by more than 3,000 Republicans attending the GOP state convention in Grand Rapids during the week-end.

Even some staunch supporters of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater said they might vote for Romney as Michigan's favorite son candidate if his name is placed in nomination on the first ballot at the Republican national convention in San Francisco next July.

And in a tradition-shattering move, the state convention delegates roared virtually unanimous approval of a resolution urging Romney to run for reelection as governor.

Only a few faint "nos" were heard in the back of the auditorium.

With the national convention only two months away, many political observers now feel that Romney—despite his insistence that he is not seeking the nomination—will be included among the initial-ballot nominees.

Michigan's 48-vote delegation at San Francisco may play a key role in the final choice of a candidate, especially if it votes in a bloc.

Among the 48 delegates will be several long-standing supporters of Goldwater, who might choose to ignore the resolution.

But party strategists feel Romney would get at least 42 and perhaps all of the Michigan votes on the first balloting.

There was no sign of distress before the crash, and the plane "just didn't make the runway," he added.

Pontiac police said a warrant charged a 21-year-old man with armed robbery of a gas station yesterday morning would be sought today.

The suspect was arrested by police shortly after the Clark Oil Station, 382 Orchard Lake, was held up by two men at 2:10 a.m. He was found hiding behind a bush near the scene.

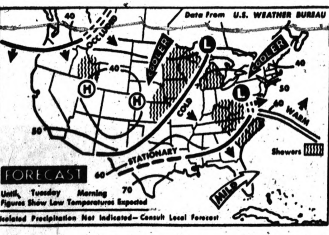

The attendant, Frederick Turner, 22, of 299 E. Beverly, told police the pair escaped with $45. One of the men had a revolver.

Theater Star Dies at Age 39

NEW YORK (AP) — Carol Haney, 39, the husky-bodied singer and dancer who hit Broadway stardom in "The Pajama Game," died in a hospital here Sunday night.

Miss Haney won a place in theatrical memory with her "Steam Heat" dance number in the show which was cited as the best musical comedy of the 1955 season. Miss Haney won an award as best supporting actress in a musical.

Afterward, she concentrated primarily on choreography, although in 1959 she appeared in her first straight acting role in William Inge's "A Loss of Roses" and won good reviews. She did the choreography for the Broadway hit "Funny Girl" which stars Barbra Streisand in a musical version of the life of Fanny Brice. Miss Haney also was choreographer for other shows, including "She Loves Me" and "The Flower Drum Song."

The injured were taken to a hospital.

One report from a Philippine news service said its correspondent in the Clark area was told by village residents near the scene that mangled bodies of the victims were scattered in a rice field.

In Japan, a spokesman for the U.S. 5th Air Force said he had been informed by Clark Field that the plane carried "military passengers," and he interpreted this to mean no dependents of military personnel were aboard.

The four-jet transport capable of carrying 126 persons crashed at about 7:15 p.m. (Manila time) in a level, unobstructed area of dirt and grass, the spokesman said.

There was no sign of distress before the crash, and the plane "just didn't make the runway," he added.

HEARD RECORDING

- The CAB played for newsmen a tape recording of a garbled radio transmission from the pilot's compartment of the Pacific Air Lines Fairchild F27 moments before it plunged nose first into the green hills near here on a flight from Reno to San Francisco.

Some heard the lines as: "I've been shot! I've been shot! Oh my God, help!" Others didn't hear it that way. But all agreed they heard the word "shot."

Washington sources said the FBI established that a revolver found in the wreckage had been fired six times.

The sources said also the FBI had traced ownership of the .357 Smith & Wesson magazine of San Francisco, an expert at crewing a yacht as a pastime, a sometime waiter, and recently a househusband.

Gonzalez, a member of the Philippine yachting team in the 1960 Olympics, had been living in San Francisco.

PREDICT DEATH

The San Francisco Examiner said in a copyright story it learned from friends of Gonzalez, who called him "Kiko," that he told them a palm reader had predicted he would die "on Wednesday night or Thursday morning."

"We thought Kiko was joking, of course," the newspaper quoted one of the friends. "After the crash we began to wonder."

The Examiner said it learned also that Gonzalez had recently bought a .357 magnum revolver with a check for $100 that bounced; that a $45,000 flight insurance policy he took out in San Francisco before going to Reno named his father as beneficiary, instead of his estranged wife as reported earlier, and that Gonzalez had told friends his tourist visa had expired.

Military police stood guard at the crash scene while probers sifted pieces of wreckage from the pasture land, pathologists picked up bits of human flesh and power shovels stood by to dig up the two buried engines of the turboprop plane.

Jack Carroll, chairman of the CAB's Human Factors Group, said the tape recording of the plane's last message picked up by the Oakland Airport tower, with the word "shot" inscribed, was being analyzed "syllable by syllable" at a Bell Laboratories acoustical center in New Jersey.

Carroll supervised a CAB test with a DC4 Sunday to determine the exact course of the F27's fatal plunge.

Unveiled Bomber Can't Do Job

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force unveils today its biggest, fastest and costliest bomber, the XB70A, a controversial monster which after more than a year's delay still can't do the job it was originally designed to do: deliver bombs across the globe.

The 185-foot, wedge-tailed aircraft, which some say looks like a hooded cobra, will roll out of its hangar this morning unable to carry enough fuel for intercontinental flight — and without even a seat for a bombardier.

These shortcomings were disclosed Sunday night at a news briefing by Brig. Gen. Fred J. Ascani, the Air Force's B70 project director.

Ascani said the technical problems of welding the 105-foot triangular wing to the aft section of the pencil-like fuselage — with out leaving pinhole leaks — have finally been solved for 10 of the plane's 11 fuel tanks.

But the task of applying a special sealant inside tank No. 5, in an especially critical area directly over the six huge, hot jet engines, has proved too difficult to master immediately, Ascani said.

He declined to give the capacity of any of the tanks, but diagrams displayed at the briefing made it clear that without this fuel capacity the XB70A could not span its full design range of 6,000 miles.

Ascani also disclosed that the first XB70A and a sister ship nearing completion here have seats only for the pilot and co-pilot.

$1.3 BILLION

The two bombers so far have cost $1.3 billion.

Plane No. 1 will undergo two months of ground testing, the general said, then be flown to nearby Edwards Air Force Base for flight tests.

Bruno W. Bruckman of General Electric, maker of the six B70 engines which power the bomber, admitted the noise level would be high.

He said the noise of just one engine had been rated at 130 to 140 decibels at a distance of 100 to 200 feet. That's about the maximum of human tolerance — with ear plugs. Bruckman did not have a figure for all six engines going at once.

Health Fair Set for Weekend

Many aspects of physical well-being will be stressed in demonstrations, displays and special events featuring world-famous athletes at the Oakland County Health Fair this weekend.

To be staged at Pontiac Northern High School, the fair will be open from 1 to 9 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday. Admission will be free.

The sponsoring organization is the Professional Committee for Cooperative Community Service. It is composed of 21 youth-serving agencies in the county.

Included in the group are the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, Boys Club, YWCA, YMCA, Camp Fire Girls, 4-H Extension Service, Girl and Boy Scouts, and the department of physical education, Pontiac Public Schools.

Its representatives, headed by Dr. Lee Haslinger, director of physical education, athletics and recreation for the Pontiac Public Schools, have planned a program of events of interest to every member of the family.

PROMINENT PART
Children will have a prominent part in trampoline, water safety, swimming and general health exhibitions.

Pontiac's own Hayes Jones, world-famous hurdler, will be in charge of a track meet by Pontiac 7th graders from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

Also included among the gymnastic demonstrations and special events will be an archery clinic and demonstration at 1:30 p.m. Saturday featuring Dave Keaggy, champion archer from Drayton Plains.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Another world famous sports figure, Jean Hoxie, tennis coach from Hamtramck, will conduct a tennis clinic at 4 p.m. Saturday.

THREE DAYS
Water shows also are planned for all three days of the fair.

These will include swimming and diving events at 8 p.m. Friday, synchronized swimming at 4 p.m. Saturday and a diving and swimming show at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The Oakland County Sheriff's department will present a scuba diving team demonstration at 1 p.m. Saturday along with a program on boat safety.

Another special feature will be Rancher Glen who will put on a 5-10-minute show every half hour under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Association.

The Michigan Association for Better Hearing, a Michigan United Fund agency, will be locating their sound mobile unit at the fair.

This unit has electronic equipment capable of detecting loss and providing valuable information about the nature of hearing defects.

HEARING TESTS

A professional hearing therapist will give free two-minute hearing tests and advise those who have hearing problems.

This program is being offered through the Oakland County Health Department and the Oakland County Medical Society.

Twenty-two other area agencies will set up displays including the Alcoholism Information Center which will provide demonstrations of a push-button electric brain.

Purpose of the fair is to provide citizens with information and knowledge of services available to help them lead safer and healthier lives.

Following is the list of gymnastic demonstrations, water shows and special events with the time, organization or school represented and the person in charge or performer:

Classes Set in Rochester

Parents Will Learn About Kindergarten

ROCHESTER—Parents whose children start school this fall will be able to complete registration as well as learn about kindergarten objectives on May 21 or 22.

One day is being set aside for those children who will be 5 years old on or before Dec. 1. All future students living in the Rochester Community School District should be brought to one of the 90-minute introduction sessions.

Registration will be held May 21 for all children in the school district with the exception of those living in the Baldwin School area. There the youngsters should be enrolled May 22.

The sessions on both days will be at 9 and 10:30 a.m. and 1 and 2:30 p.m.

In addition to the informative talks for all parents, a special time has been set up for those who have questions about speech correction or health problems.

SPEECH CORRECTION
A nurse and speech correction specialist will be on hand May 21 at the following elementary schools: Brooklands, 9 a.m.; Hamlin, 10:30 a.m.; McGregor, 9 a.m.; Meadow Brook, 1 p.m.; North Hill, 10:30 a.m. and Woodward, 1 p.m.

In Baldwin school the special consultants will be available at 9 a.m. May 22.

Reunion Set for Alumni
ROCHESTER—All those 10 years gone from Rochester High School are invited to the 1954 Class Reunion June 6.

Advance reservations for the affair, to be held at the Colonial Post House, 4924 Rochester, Troy, must be made by Friday.

Further information and reservations can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Diana (Mussion) Sell, 1366 Maple.

Jury Selected for Hoffa Trial

Two of 4 Alternates
Still Must Be Chosen

CHICAGO (AP) — After two weeks of lawyers' bickering, a jury of eight men and four women has been empaneled to hear the $20-million fraud and conspiracy trial of James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, and seven codefendants.

Before opening statements can be given in U.S. District Court before Judge Richard B. Austin, however, two alternate jurors must be chosen.

With two alternates chosen Friday, the four will stand by as juror replacements in a trial that some observers say may last for months.

23 COUNTS

Hoffa and his codefendants are charged in a 23-count indictment with conspiring to obtain $20 million in fraudulent loans from the Teamsters Union pension fund and diverting $1 million to their personal use. Hoffa is a trustee of the fund.

The jury consists of eight members. One man is a Negro. Jurors range in age from 24 to 64.

The jurors were selected from 561 veniremen, many of whom were excused for cause after Judge Austin warned that jurors would be isolated in guarded hotel rooms between court sessions. He further ruled that each juror could receive one family visit weekly and one telephone call per day. The telephone call and visit would be monitored by U.S. marshals.

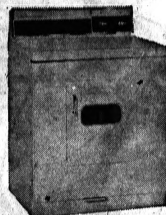

The battery of defense attorneys issued a series of motions for a mistrial during the questioning of veniremen. They contended that the isolation would not permit a proper cross-section of jurors. Judge Austin denied the request.

FBI QUESTION

The defense also asked for a mistrial on the grounds that FBI agents were questioning neighbors of prospective jurors.

Pontiac Automotive Industry Having Greatest Year of All

Look at Pontiac go!

With the entire automotive industry advancing a lusty 7.7% for April over the same month a year ago, it remains for Pontiac to lead the league and knock the whole competition for a grand and glorious loop.

You residents of this fortunate area can ruminate on these challenging and impressive figures:

All Ford units combined increased slightly less than one per cent;

All GM increased 9%;
All Chrysler increased 18%.

And Pontiac — hold your breath — just by her wonderful and magnificent self led the whole thoroughbred pack with the astounding, overwhelming, amazing, stupendous, incredulous, prodigious and unprecedented increase of 51%.

Yessah, that's correct: 51%.

In April of 1963, Pontiac had a wonderful year and turned out 58,931 units. That's at the annual rate of nearly 700,000 cars and was the third best total in the entire industry for the month.

But consider 1964. The fabulous figure of 1963 is completely faded by a leap to 88,187 — the month that was, was the month that was. This means an addition of more than 29,000 cars, and that's a pretty creditable period just in itself. But all this was summarily piled right on top of a great month to start with.

And now, to add some luscious frosting to the cake, GMC Truck and Coach breaks its all-time monthly record with a 21% gain. The big institution on South Boulevard has been traveling mightily for a considerable period of time and deserves a tremendous round of applause on its own. Long regarded as the balance wheel of Pontiac, GMC is staging a big spurt concurrently with Pontiac Motor which really whips local things into a sort of frenzy.

I'm afraid someone will come along and pinch me so I'll awaken and settle back into the stern reality and actual business of the day instead of this fanciful stuff of which glorious dreams are conjured.

Down here on West Huron street The Press doffs its journalistic chapeau, sinks slowly to both knees, faces toward Allah and salams three times before the two Champions.

Take Heed . . .

Here's a warning from the Health Commissioner of Chicago. It's worth heeding.

Don't let your children see you take medicine — even aspirin. All children are mimics, and especially do they copy father and mother with complete assurance and confidence. Recent surveys show that several of these little people have been seriously afflicted by overdoses of a wide variety of pills and syrups.

Daddy and mother take them "so they'll feel better" and so why shouldn't they? Take your private ministrations "in private."

Senseless Deaths . . .

In Life Magazine, a letter from an American soldier since killed at Viet Nam has this sentence:

"We fight and die, but no one cares."

True?

The article shows a photograph of the wife at his grave with a handful of neighbors—and two children—with another unborn.

Life has ended. But the stupid, senseless Viet Nam battle continues and 200 million people are trying to police the world and pay the bills of three billion. Everyone knows it can't be done—except the United States.

Dying in a "cause" like this is a mockery of Christianity and decency. The Americans who are so anxious to have this continue should voluntarily stalk to the front and let the boys come home — where they belong. It's very, very easy to send someone to his death — as long as it's someone else. Yes, as long as it isn't YOU.

They fight and die. "But no one cares."

Yet the United States continues to blow the bugle and send more Americans to a horrible, wholly unnecessary and tragic end.

Who volunteers to answer to God for this?
LYNDON B. JOHNSON?

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Overheard: She: "Yes, I know that machine does the work of three men, but I'd rather have the men." . . . A grave has just been unearthed in Poland with the remains of 10,000 Jews that the Germans murdered at one fell swoop. . . . In case Pontiac Press New York trip visitors haven't been told, "Hello, Dolly" is the hardest theater ticket to get. They're selling well into August, but you're going. . . . The green thumb contingent says leaves developed faster this spring than any time in memory.

Trusted scouts advise me that Diane Lee Cronover deserves mention as one of the area's very attractive girls. . . . Overheard: "If they nominate Margaret Chase Smith for President they should name Joyce Brothers as VP—then we'd have the Smith-Brothers ticket." . . . Herbert Hoover, desperately ill, has rallied strongly and is working on a new book. He'll be 90 in August. . . . When "Hamlet" lets out in New York, 20 extra police appear regularly to handle the crowd. Liz appears to take her pal home.

Many regret that MITCH MILLER fades. His original program of simple, homespun melodies captured the Nation, but he hammed it up until he had a second rate variety show. If the fuzzy face had clung to his original format, he'd be on today. . . . Insider's Newsletter says LINCOLN will be back in the limousine business with a luxury car three feet longer than the Continental—at $15,000.

Dept. of Cheers and Jeers; the C's—naming that new recreation facility in honor of HAYES JONES; the J's—Mother Nature's tornado.

Fight? What Fight?

South Is Not Solid for President

WASHINGTON — President Johnson may wishfully agree with the widely held theory that, since he comes from the South, he will carry the entire region in the election this year, but he isn't taking any chances.

He actually began his presidential campaign last week with a speech-making tour of some of the Southern states. A size-up, therefore, just made by Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, Democrat, is pertinent.

In an interview the other day Thurmond was questioned as to how President Johnson would fare politically in the South next November.

The reply was: "Of course, this civil rights bill could have its effect. And I would say, if a very strong civil rights bill is not passed, that President Johnson would run well."

"But if a strong civil rights bill is passed, it could affect him down there considerably."

THIRD PARTY

When the South Carolina senator was then asked whether there might even be a third party in the South, he said:

"Well, of course, if a strong civil rights bill is passed and it is enforced, and if it brings tyranny to the people—which, in my judgment, it will—and if all of that should occur before the election, it's possible that a third party would get considerable votes."

Only a few days ago there was a significant happening in Alabama.

A regular Democratic party slate had been put on the ballot, pledged to vote for the party nominee — presumably President Johnson.

BACKED BY SENATORS

The slate was backed by Alabama's own senators, John Sparkman and Lister Hill, both of whom had made it clear that they will vote against the civil rights bill now pending in the Senate.

Yet, when it came to choosing presidential electors, the voters by a margin of about 4 to 1 selected the unpledged slate sponsored by Alabama's Gov. Wallace.

The voting in Alabama last week indicates clearly that there is an opposition to Mr. Johnson inside the Democratic party in the Southern states.

—HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

It has become increasingly evident, moreover, in recent weeks that there is also a protest inside the Democratic party in the Northern states.

OPPOSITION VOTES

This was manifested by the opposition votes recorded for Gov. Wallace in the Wisconsin and Indiana primaries, and by the results of other local elections in Northern cities, like Philadelphia, where the Negroes have been voting in a bloc and the whites have been taking the opposite side.

Gov. Welsh, who ran as a "stand-in" for President Johnson in last week's primary in Indiana, failed to carry a single all-white precinct in Gary.

The Gary Post Tribune commented that political strategists must take notice when an area like highly industrialized and heavily unionized Lake County turns against President Johnson.

These elections are important because they show that the protest vote against the civil rights bill has been growing in recent months.

Bob Considine Says:

Alaska Governor Puts Damage at $37 Million

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — People places . . . things.

Alaska's Gov. William A. Egan sadly told us at the opening of his battered state's exhibit at the fair: "Every time more snow melts a new earthquake fissure is exposed."

"I will take three years, maybe three years to get back to where we were before it hit us."

"We hope to get the schools built first, before next winter sets in."

"It's still hard to pin down the loss in dollars."

"A week or 10 days after it happened we figured $375,000. But you've got to add at least $100,000,000 to that."

"I doubt if $30,000 of that was covered with earthquake insurance."

Joe Willis, resident wizard at Fox Movietone, recently put together a nice color film he called "Ranger of Yellowstone."

He needed a folksy narrator like his friend Henry Fonda, so he called Fonda's agent and asked if he could have the high priced Hank for the $500 the picture's budget allowed.

The agent said no.

So Joe put in a call to the Lambs Club and asked it to send over half a dozen actors who sounded like Fonda, and were "at leisure."

AWAIT TEST

They arrived and were taken to a studio to await their test.

While they waited, Fonda showed up in Joe's office and said he'd like to do it for his Texas friend, despite the agent.

"Won't do me any good," won't do me any harm," he said with a grin. "Besides, there's two of us and one of him."

Joe took Fonda into another studio and he began the narration.

By accident his voice was piped into the studio where the six hopefuls had gathered.

One of them sighed, got up, put on his hat and started back toward the Lambs.

"That first guy's got Fonda down good," he said. "We're dead."

Refreshing Speech

The Nashville Banner

As an avowed non-candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, Michigan's Gov. George W. Romney may have considered he was further closing that door — but there can be no doubt that his speech before the American Society of Newspaper Editors put him in orbit.

The impact was there, in a message deeply rooted in the views stated; and his audience unquestionably liked what he said. So does thinking America. It was an address to civic conscience; an unapologetic reference to national virtue and the ancient landmarks, from which a free people can drift only to their peril. It was a challenge to that drift under the winds of caprice or expediency — and back on course.

Gov. Romney put into words what millions of Americans have been thinking: the pre-emptive they have felt at subordination of moral and spiritual considerations to political opportunism in public affairs. If the plank of no return is to be avoided, the issues must be faced now.

'Disaster Stricken Alaska Needs Government Help'

There are not many votes in Alaska, but President Johnson should take time off to consider the desperate plight of our citizens in Alaska.

Aid to citizens in national disasters should be deducted and paid from United Nations and foreign aid appropriations. The $750-million needed to rebuild in Alaska is but a drop in the bucket in places like Viet Nam.

Urge your congressman and President to deduct one-billion dollars from foreign aid appropriations and send it to Alaska.

Incident Makes Resident Proud of Race

I came upon an experience that made me proud to be a Negro. I was at a supermarket shopping, when an expectant white mother was having a problem with her shopping bags. She'd called a taxi and was on the curb waiting for him to help and this white taxi driver would not budge.

About that time my cab had driven up and he was a Negro. I had only one bag and he jumped to my rescue. The lady asked my permission to change taxis, and I granted it. Whoever this taxi driver was, I must say to him, "You are truly a man!"

Lonely Mother's Day for Chicago Woman

CHICAGO (AP) — "We thought the woman who took our baby might relent and give him back to us for Mother's Day," a mourning Dora Fronczak said yesterday.

But Mother's Day came and went with Mrs. Fronczak, still hoping for the return of her infant son kidnapped April 27.

The boy, Paul Joseph, was taken by a nurse from his mother's arms as she fed him in Michael Reese Hospital.

The day-old infant was taken by a woman dressed as a nurse who said it must be returned to the nursery.

The abduction triggered a massive search in Chicago and the nation for the kidnaper.

TOOK CAB

All that FBI agents and police have learned thus far is that the woman, believed familiar with hospital procedures, grabbed the infant, took a cab to a Southwest Side district and disappeared.

Mrs. Fronczak, and her husband, Chester, 33, a machinist, went to Mass yesterday and heard a priest ask the parishioners to pray for the return of their only child.

Aiding Mrs. Fronczak and her husband is their faith, said Father Daniel Purcell, a priest at St. Joseph and St. Anne Roman Catholic church, a few blocks from the Fronczaks' three-room attic apartment.

Both parents say they are certain their son will be safely returned to them.

"We're not bitter, we're not angry," said Fronczak. "Our hearts are too full for feelings like that."

Paper to Print Despite Blast

LAUREL, Miss. (AP) — The Laurel Leader-Call planned to publish on schedule today although all 65 windows in the press room were blown out by a mysterious explosion Sunday.

The 36-page press of the afternoon daily was not damaged. No one was in the building.

"I don't know why we were hit," said J. D. West, editor and publisher, who estimated damage at $2,000.

"We haven't taken any recent editorial stands that would be called controversial. The City of Laurel has been quiet of any racial troubles. No one has been fired recently. I can't imagine why anyone would want to do this to us."

The Union was confronted with a national debt of $3 billion immediately after the Civil War.

Police Kill Suspect in Ticket Case

NEW YORK (UPI) — A suspect in a multimillion-dollar racket involving the sale of stolen airlines tickets was shot to death early today by detectives trying to arrest him.

A million dollars' worth of tickets were recovered from the suspect's car.

The dead man was identified as Vladimir Jezima, 23, of New York. He was described as an associate of John V. Hendricks, 42, of New York, who was arrested May 2 in the ticket case.

Police said Jezima was shot to death in a midtown parking lot as he tried to escape from four detectives who had been following him.

The detectives said when they closed in on Jezima, he pulled what turned out to be a toy pistol and tried to bluff his way out of the lot. However, the officers opened fire, and Jezima was killed instantly. A second toy pistol was found in the car, they said.

OTHER ESCAPED

A second man in the car escaped in the confusion, police said. He was not identified.

Officers said they found $1 million worth of stolen airlines tickets in the trunk of the car. Tickets worth $100,000 were recovered when Hendricks was arrested, according to police.

Detectives said Hendricks, who operated a travel bureau in a midtown Manhattan hotel, worked the racket by forging the tickets and selling them to persons who would seek refunds for them from the airlines.

Hendricks was charged with receiving stolen property, forgery and firearms violations.

Favors Close Ties With U.S.

PANAMA CITY, Panama (UPI) — Former President Arnulfo Arias, a nationalist who favors close relations with the United States, took the lead in election returns today in his bid to regain the presidency.

One of the primary tasks facing the winner of yesterday's voting will be to resolve the dispute with the United States over the U.S.-controlled Panama Canal.

Though returns were slow coming in, trends in both Panama City and the provinces favored Arias over his two main opponents, Marco Robles and Juan de Arco Galindo.

Latest returns gave Arias 395 votes, Robles 6,587 and Galindo 2,904.

There were four other presidential candidates besides Arias, Robles and Galindo, but none was given a chance to win. The voting also was for a full congress of 42 deputies.

NOT ELIGIBLE

The new president will succeed Robert F. Chiari who has stood up against Washington in the canal dispute. Chiari was not eligible for reelection.

An estimated 400,000 persons voted under a cloudless sky. National guardsmen in fatigues and armed with automatic weapons and tear-gas pistols were deployed about the capital in case of trouble, but there were no disturbances.

Nineteen parties offered candidates for the congressional and presidential contests. Despite the complex voting system, there were no charges of fraud, and the government said the balloting went off in good order.

Arias, leader of the Panamanian party, was twice elected president before and both times was opposed within months by the military for alleged mismanagement.

STIRRING ORATOR

A stirring orator, he took his campaign to the masses without much of a party organization after 13 years of political absence.

Robles, scion of one of Panama's wealthy old families, was the candidate of Chiari's five coalition official parties.

Galindo, the dark horse, was nominated by the six-party opposition alliance. He is a wealthy engineer whose main campaign theme was technical development.

Though the canal dispute with Washington was ever in the background, it played only a minor part in the campaign. All candidates agreed on the demand for renegotiation of the 1903 treaty with the United States.

MOST CAMPAIGNING

Most of the campaigning concentrated on the various proposals for internal improvement and better utilization of the country's industrial resources.

The Panamanian-U.S. dispute was triggered by student riots last January over flying the Panamanian flag in the U.S.-controlled Canal Zone.

The riots resulted in the deaths of 21 Panamanians and 4 American servicemen, and brought to the surface latent frictions between the two countries.

Panama broke relations after

Jumper Killed; Another Hurt

Effects of Fall May Have Entranced Pair

LANCASTER, Calif. (U)—Two sky divers may have been hypnotized by the effects of a 7,500-foot drop in which one was killed and the other injured, a fellow jumper says.

Jack Smith, of Manhattan Beach, Calif., a veteran of 296 jumps, was killed yesterday when he failed to open his parachute in time.

The accident occurred during a jumping exhibition near Fox Airport, about 35 miles north of Los Angeles.

Smith's jumping partner, Alan Anderson, 27, of La Crescenta, Calif., crashed to the ground seconds later. His chute opened at 350 feet. He suffered a fractured leg and facial cuts, but he was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

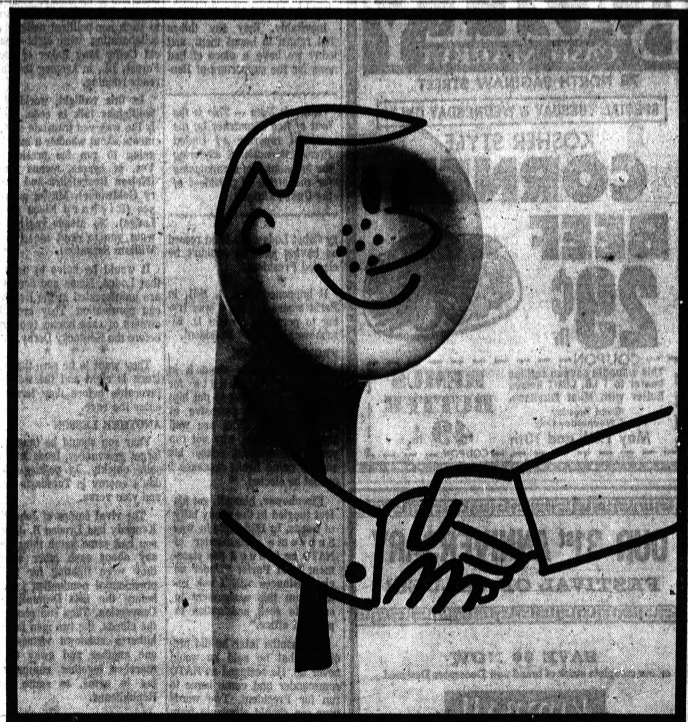

A fellow sky diver, James Sommer, 26, of nearby Palmdale said he was at the drop zone when the accident occurred.

"It was just horrible. I knew something was wrong when they didn't open their chutes at 2,300 feet," Sommer said.

"I don't know what happened. As they were free falling, they were sometimes as close as five feet from each other. Perhaps they became so deeply engrossed in the effect of the fall they hypnotized each other. It can happen."

Sheriff's deputies said it is also possible that the men misread their altimeters—required equipment for sky divers. They quoted Anderson as saying at the hospital:

the riots, but the two countries have since resumed them. They also have named special ambassadors to try to resolve the dispute. Panama seeks to establish ultimate sovereignty over the Canal Zone through renegotiation of the 1903 treaty. The Johnson administration has sidestepped any prior commitment to renegotiate the accord.

Friend

A friend you can always count on... that's one of the many roles the telephone plays in your life.

For your telephone is a tried-and-true companion, always ready to give you a hand with anything and everything—in any weather, at any time, to take you any place.

Your telephone friend actually helps save you money, too. In fact, the more you use your telephone, the more you're likely to save. You save time, and save expenses that would otherwise mount up if you had to do everything by yourself.

It's hard to imagine what life would be like without the friendly telephone to help lighten and brighten your days.

And the telephone is still one of the biggest bargains in your family budget. Use it often.

Office Seeker Must Use Words Carefully

By HARRY FERGUSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you are raising your boy to be a candidate for President of the United States, by all means start training him immediately to eat his own words. He also should practice the art of telling little white lies with a straight face and in a convincing voice.

Talking—or to be more accurate, double-talking—is an occupational disease suffered by almost all politicians. Inevitably, they say things that return to haunt them, and today we have a piece of bad news for the supporters of Henry Cabot Lodge. He is on record as having said he couldn't be elected President.

It happened Sept. 4, 1961, in Paris where Lodge was trying to persuade Dwight D. Eisenhower to run for President. FROM IKE'S BOOK Eisenhower tells about it in his book "Mandate for Change": "Thinking to put him (Lodge) on the defensive at once, I asked: 'You are well known in politics; why not run yourself?' without pause, his answer came back: 'because I cannot be elected.'"

Eisenhower, himself, got his feet tangled in the sticky taffy of words. In 1952 while he was Supreme Commander of NATO he issued this statement from Paris: "Under no circumstances will I ask reelection to this assignment in order to seek nomination to political office."

Two months later he did precisely what he said he would never do. He resigned as NATO commander and came home to run for President. Two words your son should eliminate from his vocabulary immediately are "never" and "forever."

Men running for president dwell in a surreal twilight world where it frequently becomes necessary to ignore or deny the obvious.

Long Names Prove Secret of Success

WASHINGTON (UPI)—If you like to play hunches, Jacob A. Evans advises you to bet on the presidential candidate with the most letters in his last name. It's worked every year since 1920:

Year	Winner	Loser
1920	Harding	Cox
1924	Coolidge	Davis
1928	Hoover	Smith
1932	Roosevelt	Hoover
1936	Roosevelt	London
1940	Roosevelt	Dewey
1944	Roosevelt	Dewey
1948	Truman	Dewey
1952	Eisenhower	Stevenson
1960	Kennedy	Nixon

When President Johnson is questioned about his plans for the 1964 campaign, he says that the Democratic convention is going to meet in August and nominate a candidate. Then he dismisses the subject and turns to such non-political activity as collaborating with eight-year-old Cathy May Baker of Park Forest, Ill., in keeping the railroads running.

In this twilight world the politicians talk in code. This is the way you translate statements about whether a man is going to run for president: Yes, of course, means yes (Nelson Rockefeller and Barry Goldwater). Maybe means yes (Richard Nixon and Lodge). No means yes but I want you to draft me. (Gov. William Scranton).

It would be naive to assume that Lodge, Nixon and Scranton are uninterested in the Republican nomination. They are like owners of race horses two days before the Kentucky Derby.

They want to be sure that the track is right and the weather favorable before they formally enter the race.

ANOTHER LESSON Your son should be taught to forget grievances, feuds and insults quickly. In politics Monday's enemy is Tuesday's pal and vice versa.

The rival camps of John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson had some harsh things to say about each other when they were fighting for the presidential nomination just before the 1960 Democratic Convention. Then sun placed the clouds, the two men found themselves unknown virtues in one another and away they marched together, campaigning in arms, to smile the Republicans.

If you want the law of averages to run in favor of your son, there are rigid rules to be observed.

Years ago Sidney Hyman, an eminent historian, set forth the qualifications by which presidential candidates are measured. Despite an occasional exception they still are valid:

The men must be white. He should be a Protestant (Kennedy was the only exception). He should have a record of some sort of public service, either civilian or military. The governor of a state has an excellent chance.

He should come from a heavily populated state and preferably one that is politically doubtful (This is a heavy millstone Goldwater is carrying). He should not be too closely identified with any section of American life such as labor or management.

He should have the record of having had a happy family life across the years. This one is vital as Nelson Rockefeller is finding out day by day.

FIRM STAND Is there anywhere in this broad land a man who has been mentioned either as a presidential or vice presidential possibility who has uttered an unequivocal no? Diligent research has turned up one — Sen. Joseph Clark, a Pennsylvania Democrat.

He was told recently on a television show that he had been mentioned as a vice presidential possibility and was asked to state his views.

"My views," he said, "are that if nominated I would not run and if elected I would not serve."

That is known as "Doing a Sherman" because it is what Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman told the Republicans in 1864 when they asked him to run for President.

RARE BIRD

Clark is a rare bird in the chirpy, noisy aviary of politics. He violates all the rules by talking the floor frequently and denouncing his colleagues for the aimless, garrulous way in which they transact business.

He does not share the belief of many senators that they are members of the world's greatest deliberative body which enjoys a monopoly on wisdom and truth. He seems to think that too often they act like a gang of adult delinquents.

Asks Development of ESP for Space Communication

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A space psychologist declared today that scientists must explore extra sensory perception — ESP — or other mental processes as a means of communicating with future astronauts who voyage millions of miles from earth.

Everett F. Dagle, chief of data sciences for the Air Force Cambridge Research Laboratories, told the 35th annual meeting of the Aerospace Medical Association that the research may produce nothing.

However, he said: "not only do we have a scientific responsibility for doing this research, we also have a moral responsibility for doing so, even in the face of strong ultraconservative opposition."

HUNDREDS OF EXAMPLES Dagle noted that there have been hundreds of examples of extra sensory perception reported, involving mental contact between persons far apart, clairvoyance or precognition of events to come. He conceded none have been explained satisfactorily on a scientific basis.

Dagle said that neither the United States nor the Soviet Union has yet put a man in true space.

"While it is true that impressive orbital flights have been made by American and Soviet astronauts," he said, "it must be realized that as they went spinning around they still had visual reference to mother earth below them and they still were tied to their gravitational apron strings."

Dagle said "we can only theorize as to how an astronaut might react when, finally, the gravitational strings are severed, and he finds himself in the apparent center of a dimensionless sphere of black, relieved only by sharp pinpoints of light from the stars. There will be no up, no down, no front, no back."

STRIKING CHANGES "Experimental psychology," he added, "has shown that when a subject is placed in an environment which is foreign to his normal one, he often undergoes some striking personality change, with accompanying changes in his perceptual capabilities."

Dagle said that space travelers, to minimize any sense of disorientation, should be provided with a swift, effective means of communicating with earth.

He said if an astronaut 100 million miles from earth sent a radio transmission to his ground station it would take approximately nine minutes to reach there, and an additional nine minutes for a return message. "To the lonely adventurer in space an 18-minute delay could be intolerable," Dagle said, "and a disembodied robot-like voice from a loudspeaker might not satisfy his deep personal need for human contact."

Man Sought in Shooting

DETROIT (UPI) — Police today sought the husband of a 40-year-old woman who was found lying on her front porch Sunday with two 38-caliber bullet wounds in her chest.

The woman, Mrs. Lucille Johnson, died at Receiving Hospital after telling police her husband shot her.

Police said she told them her husband had been out all night drinking and came home angry. She said he threatened her and she got an ax to protect herself. It was then he shot her.

Police found a 38-caliber pistol under a pillow on a sofa in the Johnson home.

Fully half of all women in the 45-to-54 age bracket in this country are gainfully employed.

Vote Plans Announced by NAACP

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Michigan's NAACP is going to support 1964 presidential candidates "solely on the basis of (their) commitment to the freedom movement."

The Michigan Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People took the stand at its annual convention Sunday.

The convention, attended by approximately 200 delegates, also condemned the "shame and disgrace" of Michigan congressmen who voted against the Civil Rights Bill.

In addition, delegates attacked what they called anti-Negro discrimination by General Motors Corp. and reaffirmed a policy of direct action in civil rights demonstrations, including sit-ins and picketing and selective buying.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

Edgar B. Holt of Flint was elected president of the state conference, succeeding the late Edward Turner of Detroit.

On national politics, the state NAACP adopted a resolution urging support of presidential candidates "solely on the basis of commitment to the freedom movement and no longer because they happen to be the candidate of one particular political party."

All 32 Michigan branches were directed to set up political committees to implement the resolution on the local level. Sens. Philip A. Hart and Patrick McNamara, Michigan Democrats, were praised for their support of civil rights legislation. The Michigan congressmen who voted in the House for the legislation also were praised.

DEFEAT SOUGHT

The defeat of those who voted against the legislation is to be sought, the conference said.

The convention also called for unity among all civil rights groups and for legislation to insure equal opportunity in employment, housing and education.

Herbert Hill, NAACP national labor secretary, charged in a banquet speech Saturday night that labor and management both were "guilty" of racial discrimination. Hill said the color line "remains intact" in many unions, including skilled trades.

FBI Director in 5th Decade

Hoover Warns U. S.
About Morals, Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — With much of the vigor and enthusiasm of a rookie policeman, J. Edgar Hoover set out today on his fifth decade as chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Characteristically, he warned Americans in plain language that their morals are sagging, issued once more his stern caveat against Communist infiltration, and staunchly defended his FBI's performance in the civil rights field.

Here are some of Hoover's thoughts as he begins his 41st year as FBI director:

— Rising crime rate: The causes are "parental neglect, a growing insensitivity to the difference between right and wrong, the coddling of criminals and public indifference," he said.

FALSE BELIEF

Crime will continue to flourish, he added, "as long as people believe it cannot be eliminated and that we should seek ways to live with it."

— Communism in the United States: Hoover restated the warning he gave Congress last winter that Communists are attempting to subvert the civil rights movement and "enjoying a measure of success."

Hoover said the party continues to enjoy success with American youth. He reported that next month, U.S. Communists hope to launch "a new Marxist-oriented youth organization — not publicly identified as a party group but (which) will operate as a front."

— Presidential security: He said it would be premature to offer suggestions in this field since the Secret Service is responsible for guarding the President.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Razor Is Often Cause of 'Barber's Itch'

Q—What is barber's itch and what measures can be taken to overcome it?

A—It is an infection of the roots of the hairs in the bearded area. It is caused by the common staphylococcus and is usually transmitted from person to person by a razor that has not been sterilized.

It may also result from shaving too closely, especially if acne, impetigo or any other skin infection is present.

The condition may become chronic. It is then hard to eliminate without hospitalization.

The usual treatment is ammoniated mercury ointment or sulfadiazine ointment. As in the case of other skin infections, a hexachlorophene soap should be used.

Q—Is there any new treatment for acne rosacea? I am 29 and have had this skin trouble for several years.

I have tried all kinds of treatments to no avail. Is it possible to get rid of it?

A—Unlike teen-age acne, this form of acne starts after maturity is reached.

It is usually limited to the skin of the face, especially the nose, forehead and chin. It may be due to a liver disturbance, a deficiency of vitamin B or hypersensitivity to sunlight. It will not adversely affect your general health.

There is no specific cure but you should avoid anything that would aggravate it, such as spiced foods, alcohol, coffee and tea.

SHAMPOO SCHEDULE

You should shampoo twice a week with one of the shampoos that controls dandruff.

Avoid greasy cosmetics. Make sure you are getting enough vitamin B, the vitamin that is found in meat and dairy products.

Early in the course of the disease, astringent lotions containing sulfur may help.

Having the affected area frozen by your doctor could give relief. But when, as in your case, the disease has been present for several years, these measures are of limited value.

In the hands of a skillful physician electrolysis to destroy the enlarged superficial blood vessels may be of benefit.

Cambodia Chief Plans to Attend China Fete

PHNOMPENH, Cambodia (AP)—Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodian chief of state, said today he will attend a national holiday celebration in Peking in October.

In August, Sihanouk said, he will go to Jakarta for an Indonesian holiday.

In the decade from 1951 to 1960 over five million immigrants reached the United States, representing a large part of the increase of nearly 13 million reported in the 1960 census.

Foreign News Commentary

See Opposition to Cuba Ban

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
NATO MEETING

The United States is expected to meet new opposition this week to its trade embargo against Communist Cuba when the NATO ministerial meeting opens at the Hague.

Despite repeated prods from Washington, both Britain and France are not prepared to stop dealing with Premier Fidel Castro.

Observers say Secretary of State Dean Rusk probably will be unable to resolve this problem at the NATO conference and also will be turned down in efforts to convince Britain that long term credits to Communist nations should be stopped.

France is expected to persist in its go-it-alone tactics in the NATO alliance and show no willingness for military integration of defense forces.

And Britain and Italy reportedly are not ready to commit themselves at this stage to the U. S. proposed mixed-manned nuclear force.

DE GAULLE'S RECOVERY

Gen. Charles de Gaulle's aides are worried that the 73-year-old French president may overdo things now that he is back on the job following prostate surgery.

They say that, although De Gaulle's recovery has been spectacular, he may suffer a relapse unless he slows down the pace of activities in the coming months.

He is expected to begin a 10-day vacation May 20 at his country home in Colombey-Les-Deux-Eglises.

MALAYSIA DILEMMA

The Soviet Union finds itself in a policy dilemma over the Malaysia dispute. Although the Kremlin has promised "not just words but concrete aid" in helping Indonesian President Sukarno crush Malaysia, the Soviets reportedly are trying to establish trade relations with the new Southeast Asia Federation.

Anti-Malaysia propaganda from Moscow has dropped off in recent months.

VIET NAM TACTICS

The South Vietnamese army, with advice from the U. S. military, appears to be giving the Viet Cong guerrillas a taste of their own medicine.

Vietnamese troops have organized special "vigilante" groups to slip into Communist-controlled villages, seek out Viet Cong agents and collaborators and assassinate them.

AT DAYTONA a team of specially equipped Comets each ran 100,000 miles at over 105 mph.

ACROSS THE U.S., Comet is still going strong after another 31,000 miles. How long can it keep it up?

COMET, World's 100,000-Mile Durability Champion, racks up 31,000 more miles without major repair

As if 100,000 miles at Daytona weren't enough! Now, one of the same champion Comets continues to show its durability under everyday driving conditions on all kinds of American roads. From Daytona to Niagara Falls, Grand Canyon, Mt. Rushmore, San Francisco, New Orleans, Daytona again—and still rolling along without a major repair. If this makes you want to learn more about the new kind of Comet for '64, here's some of what you'll discover. It's bigger. Heftier. Has a new, wider road-gripping stance. It's roomy. Elegant. Newly styled, newly designed, newly engineered. And surprisingly hot, with a big new optional 289 cubic inch Cyclone V-8. Get a sample of the rugged new Comet ... at your Mercury dealer's.

Khrushchev Supports Arabs on Jordan River 'Robbery'

CAIRO (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev gave his support to the Arab world in its opposition to diversion of the Jordan River waters by Israel.

Speaking to the United Arab Republic's one-party National Assembly, Khrushchev said Israel planned to "rob the Arab world of its own water."

Khrushchev called on Israel to implement U.N. resolutions on Palestine, which would reduce Israel's present frontiers.

The assembly rose en masse in boisterous cheering at Khrushchev's new declaration of support for the Arabs.

IRRIGATE DESERT

The Israelis have announced that some time this summer they will begin diverting waters of the Jordan to irrigate the Negev Desert. The Arabs have threatened counter action to cut off the headquarters of the Jordan.

Linked to Virginia Slayings

Seek to Quiz Injured Suspect

DETROIT (AP)—Ex-convict Bruce Walter Leikett's condition prevented his questioning Sunday in the slayings of two Fredrickburg, Va., policemen. Another attempt was to be made today.

The 26-year-old Detroit, injured in an auto collision Friday while fleeing police was described as still incoherent.

Deputy Police Chief Richard Humphry of suburban Inkster said he and six officers from Virginia and New Jersey spent all day at Wayne County Hospital but no attempt was made to talk to Leikett.

Leikett is charged with the Frederickburg killings last Tuesday and also is to be questioned in a North Brunswick, N. J., filling station attendant's slaying in a $50 holdup the day before.

INJURED IN CRASH

Leikett suffered a skull fracture, broken ribs and collapsed lungs in the car crash. Police were chasing him as a suspect because he was driving a New Jersey car, later determined to have been stolen.

The other driver was killed in the collision.

Humphry said Leikett still was being kept under heavy sedation. He said it was doubtful whether Leikett was capable of making a coherent statement if an attempt had been made to interrogate him.

"We'll wait until such time as we can get a coherent statement," Humphry said.

Plane Wreck Found; Hunt 2 Occupants

MUSKOGON (AP)—The wreckage of a light plane in which two Holland men disappeared while practicing instrument landings the night of April 25 was found in Lake Michigan Sunday.

The plane was empty. A search continues for its two occupants, James Taylor, 45, and Andre Docos, 40, presumed lost.

Taylor, a merchant, and Docos, a plant personnel manager, were practicing landings at the Muskegon County Airport BY ACCIDENT

A private tug hooked onto the plane by accident Sunday about a quarter mile out in the lake and a mile southwest of the airport.

A skin diver verified the plane's identity. Later it was brought to the surface and attached to a barge to be brought to the Muskegon harbor.

The plane, a Cessna, is owned by the Holland Flying Club. Taylor, a Navy lieutenant commander and fighter pilot in World War II, and Docos were club members.

its shipments of arms to foreign trouble spots.

AID STRUGGLE

"It is true that we give arms for the struggle against imperialism and for the sacred struggle of national liberation," he said. "Our armaments will always be available for peoples seeking self-determination."

The 360 members of the assembly cheered and applauded throughout the speech, which Khrushchev delivered in Russian. It was translated into Arabic by a Soviet interpreter.

Khrushchev warned the assembly against "imperialist stooges" he said the colonial powers left behind when they gave up their rule in Africa.

In the past the imperialists were all foreigners," he said, "but now they seek to fool the people with their stooges who do their bidding."

In a veiled attack on Communist Chinese efforts to assume leadership in Africa and Asia, Khrushchev said "the unity of all revolutionary forces in the world can never be supplanted by blocs based on color and races." Moscow has accused the Chinese of seeking to bar the Soviet Union from Africa and Asian councils on racial grounds.

Introducing his guest to the assembly, President Gamal Abdel Nasser pointedly cited the Russian revolution as a force in Asia.

"Khrushchev," Nasser said, "is one of the leaders of a great revolution which started vast and unlimited transformations of the world's continents, especially in Europe and Asia, and liberated millions of human beings."

Week's Top Political Bidding

Republican Attention Focuses on Oregon as Primary Nears

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Oregon's Republican presidential primary election Friday holds the week's top political bidding as a six-sided donnybrook. The big West Coast scrap comes after Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller cruise through a pair of uncontested GOP presidential primaries Tuesday—the Arizona senator in Nebraska, the New York governor in West Virginia.

With the Republican National Convention opening two months from Wednesday in San Francisco, 216 co, an Associated Press survey now shows this lineup of first ballot votes:

Goldwater 206
Gov. William W. Scranton 63
Henry Cabot Lodge 43
Sen. Margaret Chase Smith 14
Richard M. Nixon 7
Rockefeller

FAVORITE SONS

As favorite sons, Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio has 68, Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin has 30 and former Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota has 6. In the uncommitted column are

With 701 of the 1,308 delegates chosen, Goldwater now has less than half of the 655 needed for nomination.

WRITE-INS

Goldwater is the only entry in the Republican presidential preference primary in Nebraska but efforts have been made to secure write-in votes for Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam. And a last-minute campaign for write-ins for former Vice President Nixon was announced Friday.

Rockefeller is the only candidate on the GOP preference ballot in West Virginia. There is no provision for counting write-in votes in that state.

Voters in both states also will choose delegates to the party conventions—who are not bound by the outcome of the primaries—and nominees for senate and governor.

Also on tap Tuesday is the Rhode Island Republican convention. A nominally uncommitted slate which includes supporters of Goldwater, Rockefeller and Lodge is being pushed by Gov. John H. Chafee but there are indications Goldwater supporters will seek a delegation more strongly committed to the senator.

ON BALLOT

On Oregon's ballot Friday are Goldwater, Lodge, Rockefeller, Nixon, Gov. Scranton of Pennsylvania and Sen. Smith of Maine.

Lodge, Nixon and Scranton all have said they are not candidates for the nomination but would accept it.

The same team that helped Lodge spring a surprise victory in New Hampshire's primary two months ago has been working hard in Oregon for several weeks.

A victory by Lodge would be no surprise this time, polls have shown him leading the field for several weeks. Rockefeller and Goldwater waged strong early campaigns in Oregon but Goldwater cut back his campaigning recently.

NIXON'S FUTURE

The Oregon primary could play a big role in Nixon's political future. He has left the door wide open for the nomination and last week expressed his gratitude for the efforts of two former campaign aides who have been seeking votes for him in Oregon since late April.

The 18 Republican delegates chosen Friday will be bound by law to vote for the winner of the Oregon primary. President Johnson is unopposed for the 24 Democratic votes.

Nebraska's Sen. Roman L. Hruska has no Republican primary opposition in his bid for re-election. Incumbent Gov. Frank B. Morrison, seeking a third term in the normally Republican state, has two Democratic primary foes.

Cecil H. Underwood, once West Virginia's youngest governor, is trying for a political comeback at 41 and is favored to win the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Four Democrats seek the job now held by William W. Barron, who cannot succeed himself.

SURE THINGS

Sen. Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia has only taken opposition in the Democratic primary. Cooper P. Benedict, an assistant secretary of defense in the Eisenhower administration, is unopposed for the GOP Senate nomination.

Nebraska Republicans will choose six district convention delegates in the primary. Most of the candidates say they favor Goldwater for president.

In West Virginia, 14 Republican delegates will be elected.

Twelve more GOP convention delegates will be selected when Vermont Republicans convene Saturday.

Goldwater supporters claim he will have at least 450 first ballot votes plus another 88 if he wins the June 2 California primary. Rockefeller has made no delegate claims; and at present has only 4, but is expected to nail down most of the 92 New York delegates June 2. Victory in California would give him 88 more.

A credit union loan will save you money!

50,000 of your neighbors know that it pays to check the score. They borrowed $50 million from Oakland County credit unions last year... found the cost far below any other credit source!

These credit union members know the interest they pay—just a plain and simple 1% per month on the unpaid balance... lower than so-called "bank rates", or small loan company, auto dealer and merchant charge account rates—which range sharply upward, some to as high as 30% interest per year. And members pay interest only—no extra charges, fees or penalties.

Most borrowers receive interest refunds, often saving 10-20% more on their loan costs. While repaying loans, they are protected by life and disability insurance at no extra cost!

Credit unions are owned and run by the members. And they tailor the policies and services solely to provide members a better place to save money, and obtain low loan costs when needed.

It's easier, more pleasant, less costly to borrow from credit unions because they work for people... not for profit. And credit unions are people like you. Perhaps you too can qualify. Inquire NOW about eligibility, we'll also send—

In the receiving line before breakfast of the Association for Childhood Education were (from left) Mrs. John Buchanan, Sylvan Lake; Ophelia Harmon, Detroit, ACE president; and Carol Duvall of WWJ-TV Detroit, the speaker. The annual event was held Saturday at Devon Gables.

ACE Has Breakfast to Close Year

Some 155 members and guests of the Pontiac Association for the Childhood Education attended the annual May breakfast Saturday at Devon Gables.

Carol Duvall, WWJ-TV personality discussed, "Scenes Behind the Screen."

Gladys Stewart of Lansing, state ACE legislative chairman, presided over the recent international convalesce in Portland, Oregon.

Sixth graders from LeBaron School, directed by Rosalind Haerle, entertained the group with a musical travelogue.

As retiring president, Ophelia Harmon introduced the new officers: Mrs. John Buchanan, president; Mrs. Ted Cantrell, vice president; Mrs. Elmer Snyder, recording secretary; Mrs. Edwin Hodges, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Alyce Hagood, treasurer.

Also introduced were directors, Mrs. Francis Larkins, Dorothy Virtues and Sylvia Peterson.

Past presidents of the organization and a number of retiring teachers were honored.

Plan Fund Drive at Guild Meeting

Fund raising plans were made at the recent meeting of the Queen Mary section of the Needlework Guild of America held in the Peacock avenue home of Mrs. Henry Milligan.

The funds will be used to purchase material from which children's garments will be made.

Newlyweds to Choose Maryland

Spec. 4 Roger Glenn Bomsta and his bride, the former Virginia Kae Watson, left for their future home in Clarksburg, Md. after their vows and reception, Saturday, in Christ Lutheran Church.

Parents of the couple are the Robert A. Watsons of Pontiac Lake Road and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bomsta of South Roslyn Street.

Alencon lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls, enhanced the bride's chapel-length gown of off-white peau satin worn with bouffant veil of silk illusion.

CASCADE ROUQUET

Her all-white cascade bouquet included miniature roses and feathered carnations. Suzanne Watson attended her sister as honor maid and Pamela Bomsta as bridesmaid.

Ronald Morgan was best man at the ceremony performed by Rev. Wayne E. Peterson.

James Winger, James Rollison, Terry Sandage and the bride's brother, Pfc. Robert Watson of Fort Benning, Ga. seated the guests.

Specialist Bomsta is presently stationed at Fort Meade, Md.

International Tea Climax to Year's Work

The Michigan Division, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, will close its year with the annual International Tea, Thursday in the Grosse Pointe home of Mrs. Elton MacDonald.

Benefiting from the proceeds will be the International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) a foreign exchange program on a student level, administered by the National 4-H Foundation.

Mrs. Donald E. Irwin, Birmingham branch, state chairman of international cooperation, is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Otto Winkelmann, of Walnut Lake branch, is ticket chairman.

Other chairmen are: Mrs. Wayne McCane, Birmingham branch, publicity; Mrs. Charles Deuel, of Valley Woods branch, food; and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, invitations. Mrs. William McCallum, Birmingham, is responsible for the tea hostesses and Mrs. Carlton A. Smith of the Cranbrook group is in charge of hostesses in costumes.

FROM EUROPE

Two special guests from The Netherlands who will pour during the tea hours from 12 noon until 4:30 p.m. are Mrs. J. C. Van Willigen and daughter Eilly.

With Mr. Van Willigen, they are house guests of past president, Mrs. W. J. Ullenbruch at Dimondale. Mrs. Ullenbruch met the family while visiting The Netherlands on the Grace E. Fryssinger International Fellowship Exchange program.

As president of the Zealand Province of Holland, Mrs. Van Willigen was one of 12 hostesses who opened their homes to Mrs. Ullenbruch on her circle tour through The Netherlands.

TO PRESIDE

Others invited by Mrs. McCallum for Mrs. F. G. Garrison, Michigan division president; Mrs. Clarence McGuire, Mrs. Claude B. Resegue, Mrs. Frank B. Chapman, Mrs. Ullenbruch, Mrs. Paul Barrett, Mrs. Gaylord Bates, Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, Mrs. Marvin Katke and Mrs. Elmore F. Wollinger.

Still others are Mrs. H. Earl Hanson, Mrs. W. F. McClellan, Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mrs. J. Crawford Frost Jr., Mrs. Jack F. Ehlinger, Mrs. Charles L. Crane, Mrs. F. Gordon Davis, Mrs. Cash W. Talbot, Mrs. Arthur K. Hyde, Mrs. James B. Ogden, Mrs. Truman F. Barber and Mrs. Carson M. Wallace.

Sylvanites Play Cards

Mrs. Raymond Hardesty opened her home on Thursday for the final meeting of the New Sylvanites Club. An evening of cards followed the business meeting.

Edgewood Country Club has been reserved for the closing banquet on May 22.

Esther Court Plans Event

Esther Court No. 13, Order of the Amaranth, will honor the Grand appointed officers of Esther Court, May 22, at 8:00 p.m. in Roosevelt-Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Ormer Facer, deputy grand royal matron and Mrs. Carrie Thorson, assistant grand lecturer of the Grand Court, Order of the Amaranth, State of Michigan, made their official inspection of the local court, Friday evening.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Earl Lacy and Mrs. William Pfahler.

Talks to WCTU

Rev. Lora Marion spoke on the value of good mothers as the Mary Morton unit, Women's Christian Temperance Union, gathered for the annual breakfast, Thursday, in the Church of God on South Boulevard West.

Four Hostesses Give Lynne Benter's Party

Lynne Jane Benter of East Iroquois Road was honored at a luncheon and trousseau shower Saturday, in the Bloomfield Village home of Mrs. John F. Blamy Jr.

Sharing hostess honors with Mrs. Blamy were Mrs. Donald M. Lucas of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Harry T. Baker and Mrs. William R. Hansen.

Among some 26 guests were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Marion Hodges Benter and Mrs. S. Keller Nissley of Grace Point, mother of her fiancée Pfc. Robert Hoyt Nissley stationed in Munich, Germany.

Also present were Mrs. A. C. Benter of Southfield, paternal grandmother of the bride-elect and Linda Nissley.

OUT-OF-TOWNERS

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Paul Jolly, Ferndale; Mrs. James Galbraith, Ypsilanti; Mrs. Wayne Wilson and Rebecca Barnes, St. Clair Shores; Mrs. Ted Hoffman, East Lansing; Mrs. Donald Shaw, Flint and Mrs. James McDougall of Oscoda.

The July 11 wedding will be in the First Presbyterian Church.

At Oakland University Conference

Teen-Age Girls Hear, Give Opinions

By JEANMARIE ELKINS

"You and I are not in communication, in significant areas. I want to suggest a two-way exchange."

"We have things to learn from you and you have things to learn from us."

Some 250 teenage girls heard this and much more Saturday at Oakland University. They were participating in a conference on "Maturity and Me: How to Cope With Life."

Cosponsors of the conference were the Y-teens, YWCA, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and Oakland University.

NEW IDEA

For many of the girls, it was the first time an adult had told them they had something to offer, something to teach the adult world.

Herman Resnick of the University of Michigan school of social work was key note speaker on "What is Maturity?"

Donald Kern, director of Oakland Child Guidance Clinics, Inc. spoke on "Coping With Parents," and Harold Abrams, director of the college study skills center at

Beaumont Auxiliary to Install Officers

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

The Women's Service Committee of William Beaumont Hospital will hold its annual meeting on Friday with a luncheon at the Orchard Lake Country Club.

Owen R. Pinkerman, superintendent at the hospital will conduct installation services for the new officers.

President is Mrs. Paul E. Chennault; first vice president, Mrs. William D. Seibert; second vice president, Mrs. Max B. Morden; treasurer, Mrs. William T. Menewich; financial secretary, Mrs. LeRoy W. Gilger; recording secretary, Mrs. Leonard Stanford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert A. Maxwell and parliamentary, Mrs. Robert Thom.

Immediate past president of the organization, Mrs. Courtney Parker will be honored with an honorary life membership.

Directors to be installed are: Mesdames Robert Morrison, Charles DeVlieg, Victor John, Norman Reuter, H. L. Linder and Theodore Willis.

In charge of the day's arrangements are Mrs. DeVlieg, chairman, with Mrs. Harry Calvert, Mrs. George W. Muehl and Mrs. Walter Pollock assisting.

Mrs. George W. Romney will be the guest speaker. Following the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre performance of "Pajama Game," Saturday evening in Pontiac Northern High School to aid the March of Dimes, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Ware of Brady Drive were hosts at a mid-night buffet.

Their guests included the Richard Shuckles, Dr. and Mrs. Z. F. Enns, Dr. and Mrs. Z. F. Endress, the Lester F. Atwoods, Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow and the Francis Larkins.

Mr. Ware is a former Oakland County chairman of the March of Dimes.

On Tuesday at 11 a.m. will be the annual picnic luncheon of Piety Hill chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution in the home of Mrs. D. Emerick Szilagyi of Bloomfield Hills.

Assisting the hostess will be Mesdames: Edwin Beresford, George Barton, John Holmes, George Bird, J. R. Ackerman, John W. Knecht, George Bird, Royce L. Beers, Clyde C. Bennett Jr. and Alvin S. McEvoy.

Sons Are Born

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schluchter Jr., Percy King Road, (Ruth Annette Kent) announce the May 1st birth of a son, Thomas Jay. Grandparents are the senior Kenneth Schluchters of Angelus Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kent, Fulton, Mich.

Rev. and Mrs. Jack H. C. Clark, Dwight Street, announce the birth of a son Jeffrey Clay, on May 4.

fulfillment of maturity. Life means to choose. To choose means to have limits and in choosing we are responsible for the consequences of our choice."

"Boredom comes into our life because there is no meaning in what we do, no satisfaction in what we do."

"We do not ask that you be perfect. We only ask that you try."

During the course of the conference, the girls broke into discussion groups of approximately 12 each.

One such group was led by Rev. Stribe. In this group the girls attempted to give their definition of maturity and their feelings about mature people.

"Parents' ideas of maturity are completely warped."

"They just don't have any idea of what we are doing."

"A mature person can see what I am lacking and there is no way for me to get it quick."

This teenage girl felt a certain nervousness about being around persons whom she considered mature.

Why Grow Old? By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Those of you who started my 9-Day Reducing Diet must be experiencing the beginning of success.

Your waistline may be a bit looser and you may feel a bit slimmer. But, if this has not happened yet, do not be discouraged.

You may not lose at a regular rate, day by day. After dieting without seeming success for three or four days, all of a sudden you will find that you are three or four pounds lighter.

Psychologists say that many women become overweight because they are bored and comfort themselves with food.

FOOD IS COMFORT
Well, I must say that food is a comfort and that it is tied in with our past experiences and emotions. However, I think that there is an even more important factor.

I think that most women are so busy taking care of others that they just do not get around to taking care of themselves as soon as they should. They are so busy, and time slips by, and they, being human, procrastinate.

Now is the time to stop that! I am bringing you my 9-Day Reducing Diet this week. Here are the menus for Tuesday.

BREAKFAST
One egg
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee
LUNCHEON

Area Man Weighs British, U.S. Schools

English-born W. S. Downes returned to his native country recently and, while visiting schools there, discovered agreeable and disagreeable differences.

Downes of 1801 Opdyke, Pontiac Township, has been both a friend and critic of the Pontiac School Board. He has shown a civic interest in local schools.

In England, the long-time Township businessman noted that students were highly disciplined and well-mannered.

"It seemed to me that these students realized they were in school for the sole purpose of gaining an education," he said.

W. S. DOWNES

School organization is slightly different in England. First, there is no superintendent of schools. Each "grammar school" has a headmaster, who is the boss.

SOLE BOSS

The headmaster is responsible only to a County Council School Board. He makes up his own budget and is the sole boss on how the school is operated to a certain extent.

There were things that Downes couldn't agree with.

He pointed out that a child in the elementary school at about the age of 11 takes an examination. This determines his future educational course.

DENIED OPPORTUNITY

If the youngster fails the test, he goes to a "modern secondary school," run by county council. He is denied the opportunity to go to the so-called "grammar school," which leads to a university and a college education.

Dropouts are not a problem in England, according to Downes.

He explained that a boy of 15 can go to work at what he wishes to do and still attend a school. This youngster goes to a technical school part time and works part time.

Meanwhile, a youngster in "grammar school" does not graduate until he is 17 years old, the normal graduation age. IN THREE YEARS

If the "grammar school" graduate goes on to a university, he can obtain a college degree in three years, or even become a doctor in five years.

The student attending the technical school will go for three to four years, according to Downes. He described the "modern secondary school" as akin to our junior high schools.

A "grammar school" graduate, the English claim, is on a par with a boy here who has had two years of junior college.

English students, Downes was told, have more homework than U.S. pupils. School is in session 10½ months.

MOST IMPRESSED

Downes, who served on the board-appointed citizens school study committee, which reviewed Pontiac school needs, was most impressed by the discipline.

"They seem to demand it in the home," he said.

Downes, who left England at the age of 14, is a naturalized U.S. citizen. He is president of Pontiac Millwork Company, 2065 Pontiac, Pontiac Township.

Family Finds Some Fair Costs High, but Most Reasonable

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—As millions of parents will in the coming months, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Osborne took their children to the World's Fair a few days ago. They found some costs far too high to suit them, but regarded most as reasonable.

The Osbornes and their three children—John, 6, Steven, 5 and Amy, 4—spent a total of $13.47 during their visit which lasted from late morning to 7:30 p.m. That included parking and admission charges. The family's largest expense of the day was for souvenir hats for the boys. These were lightweight, Alpine types, sporting tall feathers and the boys' names stitched onto the brim.

DUMBFOUNDED

The price was $3.12 for the two. Osborne was dumfounded when he learned the cost. "I thought maybe they would be about 30 cents each," he said.

Little Amy settled for a balloon, price 50 cents. It was a double - type balloon, with one representing a bunny inside a larger sphere. The outside balloon got punctured in about an hour. The other lasted about 30 minutes longer. Osborne thought that price "a little steep."

The Osbornes live in Summit, N.J. The father, a tall man who is often told he bears a resemblance to Rudy Vallee, is an accountant for the First National City Bank of New York and works at its Manhattan headquarters. The parents had studied newspaper stories about various costs. In planning their first day, they deliberately avoided the amusement section, where rides and shows range from 50 cents to $3.

Their first stop at the Vatican Pavilion had not been planned but occurred because the pavilion was near where they entered the grounds. The Osbornes gazed in awe upon Michaelangelo's Pieta statue of the mother of Christ holding his dead body in her arms.

Afterward the Osbornes looked briefly through the nearby New York State Pavilion, then took an elevator to an observation platform atop a 22-story column which affords a view as well as being an ideal picture-taking spot.

After a visit to the New Jersey Pavilion—it was lunch time.

To cut down their expenses, they had brought with them five corned beef sandwiches and some apples. They bought four sodas at 15 cents each at an outdoor restaurant and ate on a bench near the Unisphere, symbol of the fair. Young John got a 10-cent package of gumdrops.

LARGE CHEESE

In the afternoon the family visited the Wisconsin exhibit to see the world's largest piece of cheese—a 17½ ton chunk measuring 6½ by 5½ by 14½ feet. They also took rides through the General Motors and Ford Pavilions, which are free.

SUMMING UP

Approaching the Sinclair Pavilion to see the life-size, animated dinosaurs and other prehistoric animals, John got lost. His parents put in an anxious 10 minutes before they found him strolling about inside the pavilion gazing at the dinosaurs.

The rest of the time the family spent viewing the Thailand and Japanese Pavilions, mostly the Japanese. They saw a Japanese fashion show and heard Japanese music in an outdoor garden of the pavilion (free). Later they met officials of the pavilion and Japanese girl hostesses.

The only other expenses were $1.50 for parking, $4.65 for admission to the grounds and five ice cream cones at 25 cents each.

The normal admission price is $2 for adults and $1 for children.

DISCOUNT TICKETS However, Osborne had tickets which had been purchased by his bank at a one-third discount before the fair's opening.

They originally had planned to take the children to Pepsi-Cola's "small world" show, but changed their minds when they learned admission was 95 cents for adults and 60 for children.

Said Mrs. Osborne in summing up the fraction of the fair they saw:

"I think it's marvelous. We've been looking forward to it quite a while and we're not disappointed."

Said her husband: "It was very exciting. I really loved it. The things we saw I thought were very impressive. As for expenses, I guess you have got to pick and choose. I do feel that people can see it on very little money. You can pay anything you want."

Hair Net, Dryer Now Tools of Trade

Men Get Treatment—at Barber Shop

DETROIT (AP)—Picture a woman walking past a barber shop, looking inside and seeing a hair net slipped onto the head of a male patron.

Talk about double takes! But this is precisely what is happening in many Michigan barber shops where the latest vogue in men's hair-shaping is being practiced.

It's usually called sculpture cutting end, with the paraphernalia being used, the men might find it prudent to forget those jokes about women in the beauty shop.

To do the job right, the barber employs a hair net, a straight razor, a jar of hair-waving gel, and a hand dryer.

CATCHING ON

One barber, college instructor declared that sculpture cutting—also called blow waving and a hot comb haircut—is "men's hair styling, and it's catching on like mad."

The special hair treatment requires about 40 minutes time.

State Rights Bill Poll:

39 Pct. For, 23 Against

DETROIT (AP)—One third of the Michigan voters it polled do not understand the civil rights legislation now before Congress, but the majority of others favor it, the Detroit News said Saturday.

The News said 39.8 per cent favor the legislation, 23.9 are opposed, 33.0 per cent do not understand it and the rest are indifferent.

The barber, who must attend school for three to five days to get the hang of it, starts shaping the hair with a straight razor.

Next comes the waving gel. After the gel is rubbed in, the barber places the hair net in place and uses a heat-carrying metal bomb and hand dryer to complete the setting.

"There is some hair that is unruly and no matter what you use on it, or how you try to cut it, it won't lay as it should," said Ross Mazzara, manager of the City Barber College.

TRAINED HAIR

"For the first time, this method lets us train men's hair. Now we can style a head of hair that will be most becoming to the man."

Another explanation was made by Harry Greene, of Green's Barber College.

"With women, you shampoo the hair, then set it with rollers and clips, dry it and comb it."

"We do basically the same thing, only we start by razor cutting the hair. And we use a hand dryer, or blower, to set it."

DO YOUR BEST

How do the patrons feel? Bert Gordon, a real estate broker, put it this way:

"What the heck, you have your nails manicured and you keep your shoes shined. Why shouldn't you do your best to keep your hair looking as good as you can?"

A Florida barber named Roffler, who trademarked the name sculpture cutting, brought the new technique to this country from France. He introduced it in New York six years ago and it went over in a big way. He got similar results in Los Angeles.

Sculpture cutting reached Detroit in 1961, but it didn't begin to click until the last year or so. Most barbers who offer the service feel it isn't a passing fancy with men. As one barber summed it up: "Anytime someone finds a better way to do something, it isn't going to disappear. That's no fad, it's an accomplishment."

Junior Editors Quiz on SOLAR BATTERIES

QUESTION: How does a solar battery use sunlight?

ANSWER: We are apt to think of solar batteries as big mirrors which reflect the heat of the sun and store it so it can be used. This can be done, as we see in (1).

The sun's rays are intensified, first from mirror A and then from mirror B, storing great heat in an "oven." But this is actually a solar furnace rather than a battery, since "battery" refers to something which furnishes electric current.

Solar batteries create electricity directly from sunlight. They do this by using a remarkable property of certain minerals, such as silicon and selenium.

When light falls on certain forms of these substances, it changes the arrangement of electrons and "holes," or openings from which electrons have escaped.

A flow or movement of electrons and holes is created and this becomes an electric current.

Portable radios have been powered by such solar batteries and panels of silicon crystals have been used to operate telephones (left).

Used in earth-girdling satellites, solar batteries can supply current to operate transmitters, so messages can be sent down to earth.

FOR YOU TO DO: It is possible flashlights will be made using electric energy stored by solar batteries. Try to imagine why these will be better than ordinary flashlights. (The silicon crystals, which will charge them in daylight, will never wear out.)

Call Truce in Wildcat Rail Strikes

CHICAGO (U) — A shaky peace was restored to the nation's railroads last night as the sixth walkout by railroad workers since Thursday came to an end. A federal court injunction obtained yesterday in Chicago halted a work stoppage on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The stoppage, called a wildcat strike by management, began Saturday night when 40 men reported sick. About 120 more called in sick yesterday.

The Pennsylvania walkout followed a 7-hour, 20-minute strike by firemen against the New York Central in Maitoon, Ill. The men returned to work following telegrams from union officials advising them that their walkout was unauthorized.

Four other brief strikes on Thursday — the day the railroads put into effect an arbitration ruling eliminating hundreds of firemen's jobs — followed the same pattern.

The strikes were flareups in the five-year dispute between the rail lines and the operating unions about work rules and what management calls "featherbedding."

An arbitration board set up last year by Congress ruled that the railroads could eliminate unneeded firemen on diesel locomotives in yard and freight service. The ruling has been upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Railroad representatives, fearing that a rash of strikes might sweep the nation when the first step of the arbitration ruling went into effect last Thursday, obtained a federal court order prohibiting walkouts. The order was issued by Judge Alexander Holtzoff in Washington.

Despite the 10-day restraining order, firemen struck Thursday against the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad, the Peoria and Pekin Union Railway, and the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway.

PNH, PCH Playing Role of Hosts

Third Annual Prep Baseball Tourney Opens May 29

Tickets are on sale beginning today for the third annual High School Baseball Tournament, sponsored by The Press and the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department.

The eight-team invitational competition has Pontiac Northern (5-0) and Pontiac Central (3-4) as the host schools.

The opening game will be 7:30 p.m. May 29 on the Jaycee Park lighted diamond with Pontac Central meeting a still undetermined opponent.

Play will continue with three games set for Memorial Day. The four winners will square off under the lights June 4 in the semifinal round.

The championship game is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Friday June 5, preceded by a 6 p.m. consolation contest.

PNH's first start in the single elimination action will be 8:30 p.m. Memorial Day. The Huskies' Joe also has not been selected.

CHOICE FIELD

A choice field looms, however, since there are nearly a dozen teams that have indicated willingness to accept invitations still in the running for bids.

Several games on this week's prep baseball calendar are important not only in the league races but also for their tournament significance.

Wayne-Oakland League leader Milford (9-1) has three contests this week that could move it very close to a bid, while Clarkson (5-1) visits Holly today and can not afford another loss as it tries to win a return invitation.

Waterford, which is looking for its first bid, could make a slight step closer by beating Northern Tuesday. The Skipsters (4-4) already have beaten Central twice.

Another Inter-Lakes team striving to make a Wallied Lake. The Vikings (5-1) visit PNH Friday in a big game.

Rochester lost its first five games this year but has jelled with four straight victories in the Oakland A League and holds first place there. The Falcons could earn a return bid with continued success; they play Troy Wednesday.

Kettering's record is now 7-3 and the Captains could clinch an invitation by upsetting Milford Wednesday.

1963 champion Royal Oak Kimball is off to a winning start (5-2) and very likely will be invited to defend its laurels. Romeo (5-2) had a five-game win string snapped by Kettering last week (1-0 in nine innings) and is another strong possibility.

The Northwest Catholic League's dominant squad is Orchard Lake St. Mary (5-0) but St. Michael would enhance its 4-3 log with an upset over the Eagles tomorrow.

The advance ticket sale for the tournament is under way at the Parks and Recreation Department in City Hall and managers of city Class A baseball teams will also have tickets shortly.

HITS THE DIRT—Baltimore Orioles' catcher Dick Brown drops his bat and hits the dirt to avoid an inside pitch by Detroit Tiger pitcher Dave Wickersham in the 2nd inning of the first game of a doubleheader in Tiger Stadium yesterday.

The ball bounces away from the play. Baltimore won this game, 2-1 and also the second game, 7-1.

Tigers' Effort Is Big Waste Yankees Take Two to Near Top Spot

By United Press International
American Leaguers who laughed when Yogi Berra was appointed manager of the New York Yankees are crying "help" today.

Because the Berra-led Yankees are riding a five-game winning streak that has carried them into a virtual tie for first place in the American League scarcely a week after they seemed to be wandering about in a fog.

The Yankees swept to within 17 percentage points of the first-place Chicago White Sox Sunday when they beat the Cleveland Indians, 12-2 and 3-1 in 10 innings.

The victories completed an old-fashioned Yankee four-game sweep which dropped the Indians all the way from first to fourth place.

YANK BATS BOOM

A crowd of 28,694 at Cleveland saw Roger Maris drive in five runs with a homer and two singles and Bobby Richardson hit five singles in the first game.

The Yankees pulled out the nightcap in the 10th inning when relief pitcher Ted Abernathy's wild throw enabled Bill Stafford to score on a play that could have been an inning-ending double play.

The White Sox defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 5-3, the Minnesota Twins won the Kansas City Athletics, 6-3, and the Boston Red Sox won, 9-4, after a 13-4 loss to the Washington Senators in other AL games.

Roy Hansen and J. C. Martin humored the White Sox, who have a 12-6 record compared to the Yankees' 13-7 mark.

Hoyt Wilhelm shut out the Angels for the last two innings but the victory went to Eddie Fisher, who worked the middle four frames. Dick Simpson and Jim Fregosi homered for the Angels.

The Twins beat the Athletics for the second straight game as Don Mincher hit a three-run homer and rookie Tony Oliva weighed in with three hits. Cal Mielke was tagged for 12 hits but hung on for the nine innings to register his third win. Oliva raised his average to .441.

Bill Skowron hit two homers and Don Zimmer had a homer and a triple to lead the Senators' 14-hit attack that carried Claude Osteen to his second win.

The Red Sox bounced back in the nightcap, however, with a 14-hit attack that included a two-run homer by Carl Yastrzemski, triples by Gary Geller and Tony Conigliaro, and three singles by Eddie Bres-

Miscues, Poor Clutch Hitting in Twin Loss

Orioles Sweep Series With 2-1, 7-1 Wins in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A wasted brilliant pitching effort by Dave Wickersham, a couple of costly errors and anemic hitting briefly wrung up the Detroit Tigers' performance in Sunday's doubleheader against the Baltimore Orioles.

"I'll tell you one thing," said manager Charlie Dressing. "I've never seen a pitcher do a better job and get beat. That loss was the toughest."

The Tigers skipper was referring to the three-hit performance, and third complete game, by Wickersham in the opener. The Tigers lost 2-1 with both Baltimore runs scoring as a result of a three-base throwing error by catcher Bill Freehan.

Baltimore clubbed four Detroit pitchers in a 7-1 triumph in the second game to extend the Tigers' losing streak to five games. The Tigers have allowed no within a half-game of last place.

Wickersham, by far the best performer for the Tigers in the first month of the season, worked out of a bases-loaded situation in the first inning and handcuffed the Orioles the rest of the way.

The fourth inning with Norm Siebern on first via a walk, Freehan pounced on Brooks Robinson's sacrifice bunt and heaved it into the Orioles bullpen in right field. Siebern scored and Robinson dashed to third. Robinson scored later on an infield out.

The Tigers had a chance to pull it out in the ninth when Dick McAuliffe reached base on an error and Jerry Lumpe singled to chase Baltimore starter Milt Pappas.

Al Kaline greeted Reliever Dick Hall by pounding his first pitch into the left field seats on one bounce for a ground rule double, scoring McAuliffe.

Hall then walked Norm Cash intentionally and the Tigers had the bases loaded with only one out. Hall by pounding his first pitch into the left field seats on one bounce for a ground rule double, scoring McAuliffe.

The Orioles pushed to a 7-0 lead after six innings in the nightcap as rookie Wally Bunker scattered 10 hits. Bunker lost his shutout in the sixth inning when Willie Kirkland dropped dropped Billy Bruton's fly ball to deep right, allowing Cash to score.

Baltimore got two gift runs in the fourth when Detroit catcher Mike Roarke threw the ball into left field while trying to pick John Orsino off third. The Orioles had the bases loaded at the time.

St. Louis' Golf Tourney

St. Louis (AP) — Money winners in the St. Louis Open Invitational Golf tournament were Mickey Wright, $2,000; Gary Player, $1,000; and Jack Nicklaus, $500. Wright, who was 18, won by a 10-shot margin over Player. Nicklaus was 11th. The tournament was held at the St. Louis Country Club. Wright's score was 134, Player's 140, and Nicklaus' 145. The tournament was the 10th in a series of 12 held in St. Louis.

Ring Riot Follows

Decision to Ramos

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—"If we had to do it over again we would decide the fight the same way," said two judges who caused a riot Saturday night when they awarded Featherweight champion Sugar Ramos of Cuba a close 15-round decision over challenger Floyd Robertson of Ghana.

The ring announcer cautiously gave referee Jack Hart's decision and his much quieter announcement of the judges' verdict was lost in the cheering and confusion for a few minutes.

An uproar followed when the fans and Ghanaian boxing officials comprehended the decision and began shouting denunciations of the judges, Ed and Raul G. Velazquez of Mexico City. Llassman is president of the World Boxing Association.

The judges voted 70-69 for Ramos while Hart favored Robertson by an undisclosed score.

The Associated Press gave Ramos five rounds and Robertson four, with six even, but scored the fight 70-70 under the five-point must system.

CROWD CONFIDENT
The Ghanaians were generally confident the challenger would triumph despite his role of underdog.

The bout was more than just another championship match. Newspapers advised that the fight should be regarded as an historic national occasion.

"Robertson finished big in the late rounds and fans who convinced he would win anyway had this strong last impression. My card was an honest evaluation of the fight," Llassman said Sunday.

The judges were hustled from the ringside by Ghana army troops, who had acted as ushers. These soldiers also dispersed the unruly crowd, who screamed and American threats and shoved spectators near the ringside, broke chairs and tried to smash into Ramos' dressing room.

Llassman said Ghana has the right of appeal. However, Accra authorities announced the fight would be declared no contest less than an hour after it ended and planned to issue a full statement Monday.

NEW CHAMP

A special Sunday edition of the Evening News congratulated Robertson as "the new world featherweight champion" and criticized the American and Mexican judges as "corrupt capitalists."

Kettering 9 Splits Against Farmington

Farmington snapped Kettering's five-game winning streak in the opening game of a doubleheader Saturday, but the Captains started another string with a victory in the nightcap.

Farmington breezed to an 11-0 triumph in the opener behind the four-hit pitching of Steve Page. Rick Pankey came within two outs of a no-hitter as Kettering won the second tilt, 8-2.

Page fanned 11, walked two and kept the four hits well scattered. The Falcons sewed up the game with six runs in the first inning. Mike Perry led the Falcon assault with two doubles that brought in four runs.

The Captains rapped off 11 hits in the nightcap to back Pankey's performance. Pankey hurled 6 1-3 innings of hitless ball. The Falcons touched him for four singles in the seventh to score two runs.

Dale Manning, losing pitcher in the opener, sparked the hitting attack in the second game with two doubles and a single. He scored twice and knocked home four runs.

Bill Dedrich and Bob Bogert had two hits each.

The split left the Captains with a 7-3 season record. In other games, Flint Northern and Port Huron traded 2-1 decisions.

Both league events left Cranbrook with 1-1 records. Steve O'Grady took a singles match in three sets while the doubles team of John Gardner and Dave Wiedemer won in straight sets.

Bill Estes had a single and triple for four runs and Larry Willey tripled twice to account for three markers as Steve Hanway hurled a three-hitter.

M' Gophers Share Big 10 Lead

By The Associated Press
Michigan suffered its first Big Ten baseball defeat Saturday and it was enough to force the Wolverines into a first-place tie with Minnesota.

The Wolverines, now 7-1, split a doubleheader with Iowa, losing the opener 6-2, and winning the nightcap 5-3.

Meanwhile, the Gophers swept a twinnish from Michigan State, 4-1 and 7-0. That gave the Spartans a 5-4 conference record. Last Monday, they were tied for second place with Minnesota 5-1.

Iowa's Bob Schauenberg held Michigan to three hits until the ninth inning of the first game, when the Wolverines rallied for two runs. But Steve Green came in to put out the fire.

THREE-RUN RALLY

Bill Wahl held Iowa to six hits in the nightcap. His double sparked a three-run Wolverine uprising in the third.

The Spartans managed only nine hits off Minnesota pitching at Minneapolis.

Western Michigan and the University of Detroit continued on the winning trail. The Broncos boosted their season mark to 14-3 with a 7-0 victory over Toledo in the Mid-American Conference. Dave Bitante won his fifth straight game on a five-hitter. Art Marcell backed him up with four hits. Western now stands 5-2 in the MAC.

Detroit chopped down Albion 5-1 and 7-5 in another twinbill. Harry Brinsden's two-run homer in the sixth inning won the nightcap. The Titans have won 15 and lost 3 this year.

Hope held on to first place with 15-4 and 9-3 victories over Adrian, and last place Kalamazoo swept a pair from Calvin 14-7 and 3-1.

Hope has a 7-3 league record. Adrian is now 3-5. Kalamazoo boosted its record to 3-5 at the expense of Calvin, now 4-4.

Bengals Change Hurlers to Cut Club Roster

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers trimmed their roster to the 25-player limit Sunday by optioning two pitchers to minor league affiliates and exchanging assignments of two protected first-year hurlers.

Right-hander Terry Fox was optioned to Knoxville of the Southern League, subject to 24-hour recall.

Fred Gladding, another right-hander, was optioned to Syracuse of the International League under the same arrangement. Southpaw Fritz Fisher also was sent to Knoxville as a designated player and Joe Sparrina is being brought up from that club to join the Tigers.

Fisher also counts against the club's active list.

W' Gophers Share Big 10 Lead

By The Associated Press
Michigan suffered its first Big Ten baseball defeat Saturday and it was enough to force the Wolverines into a first-place tie with Minnesota.

The Wolverines, now 7-1, split a doubleheader with Iowa, losing the opener 6-2, and winning the nightcap 5-3.

Meanwhile, the Gophers swept a twinnish from Michigan State, 4-1 and 7-0. That gave the Spartans a 5-4 conference record. Last Monday, they were tied for second place with Minnesota 5-1.

Iowa's Bob Schauenberg held Michigan to three hits until the

Billy Casper Scores Well on Tough Course

VICTORY CHEER — Billy Casper of Corona, Calif., throws up his fist in acknowledgment of applause from spectators in Fort Worth, Tex., yesterday, Casper fired a 1-under par 279 for the tournament.

He has run his total to $312,305 and that puts him ahead of Sam Snead, who has gobbled up $311,700.54 in a much longer career than the chubby man from California.

Jacobs wound up in second place and won $7,000 as he limped in with a 74 for 283.

Records Fall as Wildcats Win Relays

Oxford's Lantry Puts Shot 51-1/2; Seaholm Takes Monroe Meet

Nine records were broken and one tied Saturday night as Oxford won its own invitational track relays.

The Wildcats piled-up 58 points to 42 for second place Bad Axe. Romeo scored 35, West Bloomfield 12. Rochester won the 1963 event, the first year it was run, but did not compete this time.

Birmingham's DeCham was an easy winner Saturday in the 8th annual Dick Waters Relays at Monroe.

The Maples totaled 53 points. Roseville had 43. Thirty-nine schools competed.

The outstanding effort of the Oxford meet was a shot put of 51-1/2 by Mike Lantry of the winning Wildcats. After setting his meet record in the shot, Lantry finished fifth in the 220.

Bob Gray of Clarkston cracked his own mark in the high jump by clearing 5-11. He established the former mark last year when he leaped 5-8.

Other records were set by Oxford's Steve Bowker, high hurdles, 18.3; Tom Risinger of Oxford, 440, 55.4; Bad Axe's Gary Peckham, 100, 10.6; Lake Orion's Bill Dunn, pole vault, 11-5; Mark Seath of Clarkston, high hurdles, 21.3.

Dick DeCham of Bad Axe tied the 220 standard with a clocking of 23.5.

Cranbrook won the Tecumseh Relays Saturday with 60 points. Willow Run was runnerup with 44.

John Coburn of the Cranes churned the mile in 4:28.3 and set a meet record. The Cranbrook mile relay team established a new mark with a time of 1:39.4.

Craig Tallberg, Tom Love, Greg Dearth and Jeff Hips were on the team. The mile relay quartet of Coburn, Dave Craig, Steve Church and Dearth set a 3:46.6 mark.

More Subtle Than TV

Movie Commercials on Rise

HOLLYWOOD — Commercials in movies, more subtle than the kind on television, are "busting out all over the Hollywood scene."

That's the word from a man in charge of commercial tie-ups for a major studio. Scarcely a movie with a modern background is made nowadays without an ad of some sort slipping across the screen.

This is a fairly recent development. During the era when major studios controlled most filming, the producers maintained an unwritten code against showing commercial products in movies. Food and liquor containers were masked with phony labels.

A breach of the code brought strong protests from theater owners. When a bottle of Vat 69 appeared in "12 O'Clock High," 20th Century-Fox was flooded with so many complaining letters that anticommmercialism became strict studio policy.

Look at Fox now. In "Good-bye Charlie," Debbie Reynolds will visit a posh beauty salon in which a bottle of Clairol is plainly visible. In "John Goldfarb, Please Come Home," football players will fly to a Middle East game via Lufthansa Air Lines. In "What a Way to Go," Robert Mitchell comments to Shirley MacLaine that her jewels came from Harry Winston's.

WHY THE BURST?

Why this burst of commercialism?

Insiders trace the trend from the decline of authoritarian studio rule and the rise of independent producers. Nearly all film makers now realize the value of commercial tie-ups in promoting products.

There are other advantages. In the case of "What a Way to Go!" Winston's loaned Fox $2 million worth of jewels to use in the picture.

The tie-ups can mean savings of money in production. Car firms like Chrysler offer the free use of new autos in films and by executives. Airlines provide free overseas travel in return for plugs. Some of the airlines will provide stock footage of landings, the use of aircraft in airport scenes and even cut-away cabins for interior shots.

CASH, SUPPLIES

There are also hints of cash payments or supplies of products in return for mentions in films.

"But nowadays the plugs don't happen because a producer wants to fill up his garage with cases of beer or because a star wants a new car," says a studio

Sinatra Has Close Call With Pacific Undertow

LIHEU, Kauai (AP) — Entertainer Frank Sinatra planned to return to work today directing and starring in his new film, apparently suffering no ill-effects from his near drowning on Kauai Island.

Sinatra was rescued Sunday after an undertow swept him seaward. Although exhausted, Sinatra was not harmed, a physician reported.

Mrs. Howard Koch, the wife of Sinatra's executive producer, also had to be rescued.

Sinatra and Mrs. Koch were swimming near Sinatra's rented cottage, close to the Coco Palms Hotel on the east coast of the island, which is about 100 miles from Honolulu on Oahu Island.

A big wave dragged the two out to sea. Sinatra was pulled further out than Mrs. Koch, according to Friedman, who estimated the distance at 200 yards.

Brad Dexter, an actor, swam out to Sinatra but could not bring him in.

Harold Jim, assistant manager of the Coco Palms, and Louis Gonzales Jr., a Kauai county official, swam out and took over for Dexter, who returned to shore, police said.

Alfred O. Giles, manager of the Hawaiian Fruit Packing Co. and Sinatra's next door neighbor, hearing a call for help,

No Group Leadership

Key Stocks Up Fractions

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved irregularly higher early this afternoon in moderately active trading.

Gains of fractions to about a point among key stocks out numbered losers.

No particular group leadership was displayed. Selective gains among motors, chemicals, utilities, oils and rails helped improve the averages.

The market was recovering from the mild profit taking of Friday which ended five straight sessions of advance. Sentiment in the street was cautiously confident.

Although there were reports of brick steel production, steel shares — which had a rally last week — were unchanged to a bit lower. Rails moved up on balance, deriving some encouragement from a report that President Johnson plans legislation which would enable rail freight rates to emerge from strict government controls.

Some of the office equipment and computer stocks performed better than the over-all list.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 7 at 307.2 with industrials up 7, rails up 6 and utilities up 5.

Texas Gulf Sulphur continued very popular, rising a fraction on an opening block of 30,000 shares and later extending its rise to about 2 points. Curtis Publishing started along with Texas Gulf, adding a fraction.

Chrysler also was in demand, holding a substantial fractional gain along with General Motors ex-dividend, but Ford lost a fraction and Studebaker eased. American Motors was firm.

Bill Readied on TV Debates

LBJ Not Expected to Face Opponent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican presidential nominee may get equal time, but he is unlikely to get on the same television screen with President Johnson in the campaign.

Congress has ready for action a compromise bill to suspend for the Democratic and Republican presidential nominees the provision of the Communications Act which requires broadcasters to make equal time available for all candidates if free time is given to one.

Passage of this legislation presumably would open the way for television-rivalry debates between the major candidates such as those between Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon in 1960.

NOT EXPECTED

While there has been no final decision, top Democrats do not expect President Johnson to agree to face-to-face debate with his Republican opponent.

The American Association of Broadcasters, which has taken television time to discuss the issues and state the case for his election, his GOP rival would have the same amount of time for the same purpose, but would appear separately.

The late President Kennedy told a news conference that he would debate his Republican opponent. Republicans already are citing this pledge and suggesting that Johnson is ducking a debate.

The President was said to feel that the situation this year is different from 1960 when neither of the major party candidates was carrying the responsibilities of the presidency. What they had to say did not constitute an official policy as would any statement of a president.

MIGHT DENY

Separate appearances of the nominees might deny Johnson's opponent some political advertising he could get by being on the same screen at the same time with the President.

Some of Nixon's supporters in 1960 opposed his decision to appear in debate with Kennedy. They felt that the vice president was much more widely known by the voters than the senator and was only helping his opponent get television exposure.

Trade Was Light on Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP) — Trade was rather light in the grain futures market today during the first several minutes and prices were mostly a little easier.

May wheat started off with a gain of more than a cent but the offers to sell increased at the level and most of the advances were lost temporarily within the first half hour.

Brokers said the weekend apparently failed to turn up any significant new market factors and speculators continued trading rather cautiously.

At the close of the first hour wheat was 1 1/2 cents a bushel higher to 1 1/2 lower, May $2.01 1/2; soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 lower, May $2.51 1/2; corn 1/4 higher to 1/4 lower, May $1.25; oats 1/4 higher to 1/4 lower, May $1.27 1/2.

Exports Exceed Imports

U.S. Trade Advantage

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — As sparring over tariffs starts in Geneva, the United States still holds a net trading advantage over most other nations. Can it make this stick?

American exports still exceed imports by impressive figures. In recent months in a 12-month period, the United States has been increasing the amount of American goods they buy.

The surplus in U.S. trade with other nations looked especially good in the December-January period. Then it was running at an annual rate of more than $7 billion. This went a long way toward wiping out any deficit caused by expenditures of American dollars for other things — tourism, foreign aid, military commitments, private investments.

In March imports increased at a faster pace than did exports. This trend could quicken if the federal tax cut induces a business boom that opens more markets to foreign materials and goods.

CLOSE DOORS

The American negotiators at Geneva are afraid that protectionism is increasing among other nations, especially the six in the European Common Market. This could close doors to American products.

The Geneva meeting is the preliminary for hard-nosed bargaining by some 70 nations planned for on for a long time. Officially the talks are known as the sixth conference of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade — GATT — devoted to lower trade barriers.

Each nation naturally would like to see the others cut tariffs.

The United States would like to see many tariffs cut as much as 50 per cent by all nations.

His talking point is that this would make it easier for everyone to sell in world markets. Producers would benefit. Consumers would benefit. As standards of living rise, so would production volumes.

EXPORT VS. IMPORTS

The 70 nations pretty much agree on the virtues of increasing exports—their exports. The trouble comes over increasing imports — and everything else exported by one nation has to be imported by another.

The European Common Market — France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg — has seen its industries grow strong in years. As their production costs rise they become increasingly sensitive to the competition of imports of American goods, and their farmers dislike American produce on their markets.

In the first three months of this year U.S. exports were running at a seasonally adjusted rate of $24.6 billion and imports at $17.6 billion. Many in and out of government expect the ratio to improve.

Many hope that exports can, too, and that nothing happens at Geneva to put a chill on this.

Millwright Union Joins in Construction Strike

The growing construction industry strike today spread to millwright union members in 19 counties of southeastern Michigan.

Some 800 members of Detroit Local 1010 of the millwrights' union, a branch of the Carpenters District Council, voted to walk off their jobs today with rejection of latest contract offers.

Millwright leaders said the strike was authorized when members turned down a proposed one-year contract calling for an immediate 25-cent-an-hour pay boost with another 20 cent rate Nov. 1.

They reportedly are seeking a larger increase, from $3.55 to $4.55 in the hourly wage rate.

Report Finding Copper Lode

CALUMET (AP) — Calumet & Hecla Inc. reports that a new discovery of copper in Michigan's Upper Peninsula will make the company again "a significant producer of low-cost copper."

Explorations to date, the company said, indicate at least a 10-year reserve of high-grade ore running 30 to 35 pounds of copper.

Calumet & Hecla, which operates six mines in the Keweenaw Peninsula and processes from 4,800 to 6,000 tons of ore a day, disclosed first details of the so-called new Kingston lode in the last week.

It said the 10-year reserve estimate for the new lode was predicated on the mining of 3,000 tons of ore a day, and added that "actual reserves are undoubtedly greater."

NEAR FUTURE

The C. & H. report to stockholders said in part:

"Every indication points to the fact that Calumet & Hecla, in the near future, will become a significant producer of low-cost copper."

News in Brief

An estimated $50 in change was reported stolen Saturday from a cigarette machine in a break-in at John Gordy's Lion-burgers, 4220 Dixie, Waterford Township.

Damage estimated at $50 to a cottage at 2640 Williams Lake, Waterford Township, was reported Saturday to police by owner Arlie Matheson.

I would put one-half your savings and loan money into Protector & Gamble and American Electric Power, which like Sears — have a pattern of investment in diversified stocks and will afford you inflation protection.

In the United States a number of industries complain of growing imports of lower priced foreign items.

The United States is urging its producers to export more, to try harder to cultivate foreign markets. At Geneva the developing nations complain that if they are to take more American industrial and consumer products, they must get higher prices for their raw materials, their chief exports. And if Americans pay more for these foreign metals and foodstuffs, the U.S. cost of living rises, and also the cost of producing American goods.

Two Youths Drown as Raft Overturns

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Two small brothers drowned in Lake Huron Sunday when their car-top raft upset.

State police said the boys, James Gamble, 15, and David, 11, using sticks for paddles, were swept 200 yards out by a wind. A wave capsized them.

A third brother, Paul, 9, was watching from shore. Two civilian skin divers, Fred Lee and Kenneth Tyson of Mackinaw City, recovered the bodies from 15 to 20 feet of water.

The boys were sons of James and Alice Gamble. Besides Paul, there are five other children in the family.

Defeated Earlier by 20-Vote Margin

House Dems Hope to Save Loan Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Democrats leaders think that can save the International Development Association bill, a sort of junior foreign aid measure, the House defeated earlier in a painful setback to President Johnson's administration.

The bill is being brought back before the House Wednesday, after the House and congressional leadership leaders to switch by White House and congressional leadership lieutenants to effect the 20-vote margin opponents mustered Feb. 26.

IDA is an adjunct to the World Bank. Using a fund provided by 17 economically advanced countries, it makes loans on extremely easy terms to developing nations.

The United States, although it provides less than half IDA's capital, is by far the biggest single contributor. The pending legislation would authorize a $12-million U.S. participation in a new IDA capital pool of $750 million, which the association says it needs if it is to continue making loans. The U.S. share amounts to about 41 for each $1.40 contributed by the other 16 countries together.

EISENHOWER'S TERM

The United States helped organize IDA during the administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower and it has strong bipartisan support in Congress. Its backers expected no serious trouble when it was brought up the first time.

The measure went down before a sudden onslaught by a combination, also bipartisan, of members who oppose all forms of foreign aid. Joining in the onslaught, it was understood, were some Republicans with scores to settle with the House Banking Committee chairman, Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex.

Patman was backed up, in vain, by the senior Republican member of his committee, Rep. Clarence E. Kilburn of New York.

Kilburn told the House he had voted against foreign aid, but liked the IDA bill because of the burden-sharing and the principle of aiding developing countries with loans instead of grants.

FOREIGN AID

"If you are ever going to get rid of foreign aid, this is the way to do it," he told the House. Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, argued that the IDA measure was worse than foreign aid "because it is a deception. It is simply piling another $312 million on top of the billions that are spent annually on the foreign handout program."

IDA got a second chance because the Senate passed a bill practically identical with the one the House voted down. This is the one being called up for House debate Wednesday.

New Attack by Kremlin on Red China

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union accused Red China of treason to communism today in the latest Soviet bid for support of the world's Communist parties.

The new Kremlin attack followed yesterday's call to all Communist parties to reject Peking's "hard line" and join a voluntary union of equals in which Moscow would renounce its supremacy.

Both statements were published in the Soviet party newspaper Pravda as chapters in a five-part series. The articles apparently are a response to Peking's statements last fall on key issues dividing Russia and Red China in their ideological and political quarrel.

Yesterday Pravda warned that Peking's policies could lead to a new "comintern" with Chinese Communist Chief Mao Tse-tung replacing the late Joseph Stalin as director of the international movement.

Today the newspaper charged that the Peking regime is terrorizing the Chinese people and making poverty a permanent way of life.

CHINESE COMMUNISM

"The Chinese brand of Marxism which lies at the foundation of the ideological and theoretical platform of Chinese leadership is nothing else but treason to the principles of communism, betrayal of the great teachings of Marxism-Leninism," the statement said.

Pravda charged that Chinese Communist leaders made a "fetish out of violence" and "militarized all aspects of life." It said the Peking regime has stepped considering socialism as a society built for the working man.

The newspaper said the Chinese leaders were "fossilized" and failed to keep up with the new "Communist times." It said they treat Communist dogma "like clergymen treat the old and new scriptures."

Diplomatic observers said today the Soviet statement coupled with Peking's weekend rejection of a world conference of Communist parties indicated that Russia and Red China have dropped all pretense of trying to reconcile their ideological and political differences.

LONG STRUGGLE

These observers predicted a long struggle between the two powers for support of the world's 90-odd Communist parties for their points of view.

The Soviet statement was in the form of an editorial on "ideological unity" in the party newspaper Pravda. More such statements were promised in an apparent response to a series of pronouncements by Peking on the key issues dividing Russia and Red China.

Pravda said that those who follow the Moscow line would be part of a "democratic" world Communist movement that would guarantee independence and equality of parties.

The newspaper said it would be a "voluntary union of like minded people... with voluntary discipline."

NOT STALINIST

The statement said Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev does not want to be another Stalin who could hire, fire and liquidate Communist leaders throughout the world.

A 'How to Succeed' Coup Set by Rudy Agin' Bosses

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Laugh, Town, Laugh... it's a smile world. When a famous European statesman departed the political scene recently, one of his critics remarked, "There were two things I never liked about that man—his face."

WILSON

Red Skelton was telling us Barry Goldwater's "new campaign promise" at Danny's Hildeaway: "If I'm elected, on my platform of more Kinky Hawks for the Air Force, I'll have singing and dancing. We'll put another cylinder on the Edison."

Rudy Vallee, who loves to accuse "How to Succeed" producers Feyer & Martin of tragedy, tells me he's lined up tentative night club dates for fall "just in case those ----- try to economize by hiring somebody they can get $100-a-week cheaper." The "My Fair Lady" film has a very close-to-rugby line by Audrey Hepburn that'll rock the country—and added $$$ to the till.

Grace Kelly called the Duchess of Windsor and Mrs. Winston Guest she hopes to attend the all-white charity premiere Oct. 21. She hopes also to bring her brood to the World's Fair... When Comedian Bob Law was asked for speaking assembly of the World Fair's leadership, he replied, "Holy Moses!"... Johnny Carson said it: "Las Vegas! Where else do you see women sitting in Cadillacs counting nickels?"

Monique Van Vooren — now graduated into a really top entertainer — confessed at the "Pete Champagne" at the Waldorf that she looked so befuddled because she was wearing tonight contact lenses to match her jewelry. She also has violet and blue contact lenses, she swore to me, and also red-for parties and morning-after.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

The Alec Guinness play, "Dylan" went to Hollywood for 250c plus 10 per cent of the film profits. The Chambard, an elegant French restaurant here, welcomed the Polies Bergere girls with that well-known French dish: Bacon and eggs... The producers of "The Pink Panther" gave co-star Capucine a pink Jaguar car... Marlon Brando shaved his head for a film, so did Goodman — who worked with him in "Bedtime Story" — sent him a Beetle wig.

Barbra Streisand's ordering... London taxi to use here as a private car (for shopping on Delancy St., for example)... Max Wyllie, father of the murdered Janice Wyllie, is writing a book titled "Advice to Young Women in Large Cities"... Ann Wedgwood, who plays Rip Torn's wife in "Blues for Mr. Charlie" and has love scenes with him, is his ex-wife.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Did you ever notice how much longer it takes some people to tell what they think, than what they know?" — Anon.

EARL'S PEARLS: The really small town is one where there's no place to go that you shouldn't... L. S. McCandless.

Facts Dispute Barry Opponents

By LYLE C. WILSON
 United Press International

The "Modern Republican," or Eastern, effort to count Sen. Barry Goldwater out of the contest for the presidential nomination is running aground on the political facts.

The facts are that Goldwater now has the most Republican national convention delegates committed to him and reasonably can expect many more by convention time. If ever there was a front runner in politics, it is the junior senator from Arizona.

The Goldwater-for-President Committee now claims 286 elected delegates as pledged to the senator, 59 more as favorable to his candidacy, 69 uncommitted and 61 committed to others, for a total of 286 delegates selected so far.

There will be 1,308 delegate votes in the GOP convention. A bare majority—655—is sufficient to nominate.

The Goldwater committee has reported with much satisfaction that:

"Such practical pros as former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and President Johnson are now admitting that Sen. Barry Goldwater's lead for 1964 national convention delegates will be hard to beat."

"President Johnson said recently at a news conference that a man knowledgeable in public affairs had advised him that Goldwater could reach 632 votes—just 23 short of the 655 needed to nominate—by winning the California (June 2) primary."

"Nixon agreed. He said victory in the California primary would give Goldwater a decisive lead."

Nixon has said he believes the Republicans will be compelled to nominate for president the California winner. California has 86 convention votes and 40 electoral votes, second only to New York.

The over-all Republican situation invites an open stop-Goldwater development, and soon. The ideal time and place would be in California if luck favored the stoppers. Luck has been against them.

The California primary is being contested by Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Nixon won't be in it, nor will be Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge who appears to be the man the Goldwater stoppers finally will settle upon. The stoppers need Lodge in the California primary.

If Lodge were entered in California and won the contest, he might be off and away to certain nomination for president. Not so with respect to Rockefeller. The politicians have a uneasy feeling that Rocky's divorce and remarriage have damaged his political goods.

REPAIR DAMAGE

A California victory for Rocky could repair much damage, of course. But he appears not to be the choice of the polls.

So it is that stop-Goldwater speculation turns most often to Lodge despite his handicaps.

One of these: To nominate Lodge would stick the Republican party with the increasingly sticky Viet Nam war.

For another: How will a "modern" Ike-man such as Lodge hold to the party the Republican conservatives? The conservatives have been kicked around far and often and are convinced now that it is their turn to do some kicking.

Lodge's influence was a vital factor in producing Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 to confront and lick Sen. Robert A. Taft. The convention conservatives will be muttering in anger this year, "here we go again!"

Balloonist Claims 7 Records

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A young ex-paratrooper who soared to 37,000 feet under a small plastic balloon returned to earth with a claim of seven world altitude records and a recollection of extreme quiet.

In his little gondola seven miles high, said Tracy Barnes, 25, there was an "unusual feeling of absolute quiet, absolute stillness."

Barnes said Sunday's flight was successful in all respects, and he suffered nothing worse than a slight headache.

His journey in a three-by-four foot plastic gondola lashed to a 30-foot high balloon filled with hydrogen began at 5:15 a.m., at an airport 12 miles south of Minneapolis. It ended at 7:30 a.m. in a clover field near Mondovi, Wis., 80 miles southeast.

The polyethylene balloon was fabricated by Barnes at his barn workshop in Long Lake, Minn. His home is in nearby Orono.

Barnes' goal was to smash the 1940 record of 23,286 feet set by the Soviet Union's Boris Neverov in a small 3A balloon. Barnes' 3A balloon broke that mark, he said, and also six records for larger balloons. These were a 1936 mark of 35,907 feet set by I. J. Burzinski of Poland and five chalked up by Don Picard of Sioux Falls, S.D., in 1961, at 34,462 feet.

$8 Million Set as Tragic Price of Twister Fury

Governor Calls for $1 Million in Public Donations for Relief

MT. CLEMENS (AP) — Families that have paid a tornado's tragic price of nine lives lost and hundreds injured sought today to replace $8 million in destroyed homes and belongings.

The thousand homeless persons were robbed of these by Friday's devastating tornado.

The twister left an enormous reconstruction job after careening across a miles-long scene of homes, cottages and boat docks off Anchor Bay of Lake St. Clair in southeastern Michigan.

Gov. George W. Romney called for $1 million in public donations to help the stricken families.

Watched by 300 National Guardsmen and law authorities, home owners groped among rubble for lost possessions today and during the weekend.

DANGEROUS CONDITIONS
Some were kept away from their wrecked homes because of dangerous conditions.

POLICE CAPTAIN
"It looks like Hiroshima," State Police Capt. Fred Davis said of battered Chesterfield Township, target of the tornado's worst fury.

Threat of fire covered a two square-mile area Sunday when fuel leaked from hundreds of bottled gas systems, Davis said. Police and National Guard units removed the containers.

A search continued for more possible victims. There were no reports of missing persons, Davis said, but "it is conceivable that a couple or a family could have been wiped out and there is no one left to make a report of it."

Romney, after touring the area with federal and state officials, said the township could not qualify for federal disaster aid.

Most of the damage was to private property. The law restricts federal disaster aid to public service facilities.

Insurance covered a $6.5 million loss.

KERPLUNK — For several years, large wooden beams have kept this wall along the Clinton River just south of East Pike from "collapsing." Engineers predicted the wall, which leans toward the river, would come tumbling down when the beams were removed Friday afternoon by contractors improving the Clinton River. Here, the first of several beams is snapped by a crane. The engineers gathered to watch, and went away slightly baffled. The wall still stands.

Suspect in 5 Deaths Believed Drowned

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Five persons, including three teen-agers, were found murdered yesterday, and police said a 54-year-old Boise man wanted for questioning in the slayings was presumed drowned.

A patrolman spotted a motorist, who officers believe to be Raymond A. Reasons, acting suspiciously, and chased his car until it plunged into a canal. The man escaped the vehicle, but police said he apparently was pulled under water in the canal.

Three of the victims were his children, one was a stepdaughter, and the fifth was his former wife, whose body was found in the canal.

Officers said Edna Reasons, estranged wife of Raymond A. Reasons, told them he called her and said he had killed the children.

Their bodies were found, together with that of the stepdaughter, in Reasons' house yesterday.

Several hours later, the body of a woman police tentatively identified as Estelle Reasons, about 45, was pulled from a canal submerged in a canal. Police said she was a former wife of Reasons.

RIFLE FOUND

Her body was wrapped in a blanket — as were the bodies of the other four victims. Sheriff Myron Gilbert said he had been shot in the chest. A rifle was found in the car.

Traffic patrolman Rex Mehl said he had tried to stop the car when the driver, a man, acted suspiciously. Mehl said he chased the car until it plunged into the canal.

Mehl said the driver, carrying what appeared to be a rifle, jumped from the car into the canal and disappeared.

At Reasons' home, a note found near one of the four bodies read, "I've hurt them long enough." It was signed "Daddy."

Neighbors identified the children as Eddie Ray Reasons, about 14, Pamela, about 13, and Patty, about 12. The young woman with them was identified as Reasons' stepdaughter, Sally Gohman, about 20.

Coroner E. D. Paris said Miss Gohman apparently had been beaten to death with blows on the head. Her body was found in an upstairs bedroom.

Paris said the two girls had been strangled, apparently with wire, and the boy had been shot.

Landry to Ask Write-In Rule

Former Mayor Loses as Recount Is Ended

Former mayor Robert A. Landry today said he would ask for a circuit court ruling on what constitutes a legal write-in vote as final results of the recount of votes cast April 20 for District 7 candidates increased the winning margin of Emmett S. Wellbaum.

Landry, who had requested the recount, ended up losing more votes in the recount than either of the other two candidates.

The former mayor lost 44 votes. Wellbaum, a write-in candidate, was declared winner, lost 24 votes.

Curtis L. Webb, who opposed Landry on the April 20 ballot, gained 44 votes. However, the positions of the three men remained the same with Wellbaum on top, Landry second and Webb third.

The Oakland County Board of Canvassers completed recounting Pontiac's 43 precincts late Friday. Mabel Child, county election clerk, said today.

FINAL TOTALS

In what was completed, the board certified the following final vote totals for the three candidates: Wellbaum, 4,256; Landry, 3,959; and Webb, 3,860.

For comparison, the vote totals certified by the board of canvassers following the election were: Wellbaum, 4,289; Landry, 3,959; and Webb, 3,860.

U.S. Transport Falls, Burns in Rainstorm

AF Spokesman Says 73 Passengers, 10 Crewmen on Craft

MANILA (AP) — A U.S. military jet transport plane crashed and burned today during a rainstorm at Clark Air Force Base north of Manila. The U.S. Air Force said 71 of 83 persons aboard the plane were killed.

An Air Force spokesman said wreckage was strewn over a wide area of the strategic base, a relay point for supplies to the U.S. forces in South Viet Nam.

The spokesman said the plane, a C-130 jet carrying 73 passengers and a crew of 10, broke up and burned less than a half mile from the runway.

The plane left Travis Air Force Base, Calif., yesterday and had stopped at Hickam Field in Hawaii.

The injured were taken to a hospital.

12 SURVIVORS
"The present confirmed count is 12 survivors," the spokesman said.

In Japan, a spokesman for the U.S. 5th Air Force said he had been informed by Clark Field that the plane carried "military passengers," and he interpreted this to mean no dependents of military personnel were aboard.

The four-jet transport capable of carrying 126 persons crashed at about 7:15 p.m. Manila time, in a level, unobstructed area of dirt and grass, the spokesman said.

There was no sign of distress before the crash, and the plane "just didn't make the runway," he added.

Most of the 12 survivors were "in pretty bad shape," he said.

The spokesman could not say which service most of the passengers were from—Air Force, Army or Navy. He also could not say whether the plane was bound for another destination after landing at Clark.

Clark Field, about 60 miles north of Manila, is the main U.S. base in Southeastern Asia. It is headquarters of the 13th Air Force, and serves as a principal shuttle point for supplying American forces in South Viet Nam.

The plane was attached to the 44th Air Transport Squadron of Travis Air Force Base. A spokesman there said it left the base at 9 a.m. Pacific time for the Philippines, and stopped at Hickam, in Hawaii.

South Viet Nam authorities say they have uncovered and squelched a plot to kill McNamara on his arrival in Saigon tomorrow.

Leap Hospitalizes Suspect in McNamara Death Plot

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A Communist agent suspected of plotting to kill U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on his arrival Tuesday leaped from a window at police headquarters today, police said.

The agent, identified as Nguyen Van Troi, leaped from a second-floor window, landed on a jeep, suffered a broken leg and was hospitalized. Police said he was in a coma.

Troi was one of three suspected Communist Viet Cong agents picked up Saturday night as they tried to mine a bridge on the route McNamara will take from Saigon airport into the capital.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was expected to be riding with McNamara.

Several other Viet Cong suspects have been picked up. A quantity of high explosives has been unearthed since the arrest of the three, police sources said.

BLOW UP BRIDGE
The Viet Cong agents confessed they planned to blow up the bridge. One of the agents was caught laying a wire under the bridge.

He led police to the other agents and a mine with an explosive charge hidden in an old kerosene can buried in the mudbank of the river.

U.S. officials did not say whether alternate plans had been made for McNamara's arrival.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, arrived without incident today to join with McNamara in conferences on the war against the Communist guerrillas.

TOO EARLY
Taylor, who accompanied McNamara on previous visits, said officials in Washington were encouraged by the steps undertaken by Premier Nguyen Khanh but he added it was too early for "comparative statements."

McNamara, who was winding up a visit to West Germany Sunday, showed no concern about the alleged plot.

His leader, who fled, had intended to set off the explosive.

Reliable sources said a Vietnamese policeman happened on the plot about 10 p.m. Saturday when he spotted an underwater swimmer near the bridge. The swimmer and two other men in the area were arrested.

One was in a public lavatory near the bridge and about 150 yards of wire trailed out of the structure. Police dug up 50 pounds of explosives in a kerosene can in a mudbank.

The informants said the three men—two of the Viet Cong agents and the third a "strong suspect"—confessed to the plot during a night of interrogation. Their leader, who fled, had intended to set off the explosive from the lavatory as the McNamara motorcade passed, they said.

GOP Delegates Picked

Oakland County Republican Chairman Charles L. Lyle easily won election Saturday as one of the 18th District's two delegates to the GOP national convention in San Francisco.

Unopposed and elected by acclamation in the county caucus, Lyle's quick selection was in contrast to the naming of a woman delegate to the July convention.

Winner on the third ballot was Mrs. Howard (Irene) Liverance, 6300 Indianwood, Bloomfield Township. She picked up the needed majority of county delegation votes after Mrs. Charles Rosenberg, 409 Ellen, Royal Oak, pledged her support to Mrs. Liverance on being eliminated on the second ballot.

Mrs. Rosenberg went on to be elected woman alternate delegate, while Paul A. Matchette, 282 Wimbledon, Birmingham, was elected male alternate.

Full list of Michigan delegates and alternates to the national convention includes:

Dist. 1, Delegates, Charles A. Brady, Detroit; Walter Czarnicki, Detroit. Alternates, William Brooks Jr., Hamtramck; Frank Skierski, Detroit.

Romney, State Party Chairman Arthur Elliott, National Committee Chairman John Martin, National Committee Chairman Ella Koeze, U.S. Rep. Gerald Ford, State Finance Chairman Don Ahren, and Max Fisher, Helen Dean, Roy Morton, Richard Van Dusen, Ralph Hutala, and Dorothy Benton.

Antony Guyer, clerk of committees for the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, lost parts of three fingers on his right hand Sunday when thrown from the seat of a power mower at his Bloomfield Township home.

The fingers were clipped by the blade.

Guyer said he was trying out the new mower on the lawn of his home at 1926 Cragin when the machine struck a guide wire from a pole and threw him off in a sudden lurch.

Admitted to Pontiac General Hospital for treatment, Guyer, 51, was due to return home today for a few days convalescence.

HOW TO KEEP COOL — A newly installed $66,000 temperature control panel in the County Courthouse basement is shown to Mary Lou Prevost of the county personnel department by George Atchison, superintendent of County buildings and grounds. Temperatures throughout the building can be observed and controlled from the panel, Atchison said. The board also will pinpoint any sudden trouble in the heating-cooling system so that corrective measures can be taken immediately, he added.

Total Reaches 26

More File for College Board

Fourteen more candidates have filed nominating petitions for the June 8 election of a six-member board of trustees for the proposed Oakland County community college.

This means 26 persons will be vying for the posts.

The deadline for filing was 4 p.m. Saturday.

The last group of candidates to file included Donald H. Arsen, 6675 Wellesley, Waterford Township; Daniel T. Berry, 5437 Sunnyside, Independence Township; Frederick A. Chapman, 4726 Pickering, Birmingham; Dr. Roy V. Cooley, 224 Asterwood, Pontiac; Jay Eldred, 132 Woodward, Rochester, and David W. Hackett, 1380 Ruby, Avon Township.

Others were Harold Julian, 1325 Cambridge, Berkley; Marshall Ketz, 23600 Jerome, Marshall; Ralph A. Main, 1819 Fairview, Birmingham; J. T. Martin, 250 Cranbrook, Bloomfield Township; William J. Ruppel, 23 Maplefield, Pleasant Ridge; George Mosher, 551 Mohegan, Birmingham; Earl Anderson, 30159 Palmer, Madison Heights; and Beecher Eaves, 1406 Edgewood, Royal Oak.

The county school board has modified the three-part ballot question on the community college to conform with provisions of the new state constitution.

The 1-mill tax levy to finance the institution will be a charter millage. Previously a 20-year limitation had been attached to the proposal.

In addition, the board of trustees will be able to levy only up to the amount voted.

63 Feared Drowned as Wind Capsized Boat

DACCA, East Pakistan (UPI) — Sixty-three persons, including children, were feared drowned yesterday in the sinking of a crowded boat in the Padma River.

The boat, carrying 80 passengers, capsized during a storm. Only 17 survivors were counted. The same storm damaged houses and uprooted trees in the Chittagong area, which recorded winds of 70 miles per hour.

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Michigan's Junior Chamber of Commerce chose Richard Y. St. John, 31, of Kalamazoo, as its new president Sunday in an election that took seven ballots.

Mitch Kehelian, 33, of Allen Park, was named external vice president, and Robert Bolduc, 27, of Muskegon, internal vice president.

Six File for Positions on Board of Education

Other candidates are Joseph E. Anderson, 5612 Putnam; Richard L. Halsted, 4053 Spur Hill, Bloomfield Township; and George W. Whitehead, 858 Norwich.

Besides electing three trustees June 8, Birmingham School District voters will decide the fate of a 5.6-mill increase in the operational levy and bonding for a $5.3-million building program.

The two incumbents have been joined by two other candidates running for seats on the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education.

The June 8 ballot will carry the names of incumbent Vice President Merrill O. Bates; incumbent Trustees W. Earl Givens; Donald C. Hyde of 953 S. Redding, Bloomfield Township; and Mrs. Amy Chamberlain of 4451 Chamberlain, Bloomfield Township.

Voters will pick two of the four candidates to serve four-year terms.

They also will consider a $7-million building program and a second proposition concerning physical education facilities.

Landry, who had edged Webb by 120 votes originally, now ends up only 32 votes ahead of Webb.

The 44-vote error was all in one precinct where Webb and Landry vote totals recorded by the voting machine had been written under the wrong names on statement sheets.

"FINE JOB"

"Generally, the election workers did a fine job," said the election clerk.

Landry, contacted this morning, said he expects "to petition the court in a day or two."

"I'm not convinced that three letters out of a man's name (Wellbaum) properly identifies him," Landry noted, referring to misspelling of a candidate's name.

"I also expect to ask for a ruling on whether or not 'Wellbaum,' written on the paper roll without any initial or first name, is legal."

The canvassers had ruled at the outset they would count write-in votes without Wellbaum's first name or initial as valid, after the validity had been challenged by Landry's attorney, Milton R. Henry.

Convention delegates elected that, under Romney's leadership, the state "has progressed from bust to boom, from bankruptcy to bonanza, and from deadlock to cooperation."

Romney acknowledged the backing of the convention, but did not announce his candidacy for a second term as governor.

So far, two others are in the governor race—Rep. Neil Staebler, on the Democratic side, and George Higgins, a Fendale auto dealer and former GOP state senator.

Higgins, a spokesman for the convention, said he had abandoned their attempt to ski across the North Pole.

Staebler radioed the newspaper afternoons he was giving up 250 miles short of the pole.

He said his group would encounter too many open stretches of water and too much broken ice on the return trip in June.

Staebler said he and his five companions had traveled 375 miles in 41 days from the Canadian communications base alert to the U.S. ice island station Arlis II.

The expedition arrived at Arlis yesterday and is waiting for a plane to take them to Greenland.

Pontiac Twp. Residents Will Remember Twister

By ROGER SGRILEY

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — The big wind is gone now.

But it stays clearly in the memories of hundreds, including many Pontiac Township families.

The rear wall of the house at 3306 Joslyn has been replaced. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lunsford, with the help of neighbors and friends, put the pieces together.

The glass, from windows, mirrors, and who knows where else, is now swept out of Earl F. Higdon's house at 3284 Joslyn.

BACK TO NORMAL

However, stunning reminders of the roaring twister's appearance are still scattered in and around the area homes damaged by the grotesque whirlwind.

Planks of wood remain in the garages. Broken glass is found on lawns and buried in couches and chairs.

Mrs. Lunsford can glance out her kitchen window and see a small pile of broken boards, all that remains of the family garage.

RAIN OF GLASS

Higdon looks at the scarred buffet, nicked by the rain of glass that ripped through his home.

And friends of Mrs. Joseph Sadonaka, of 5851 Joslyn, recall the lightning which scared her into her back yard, where she died after a heart attack.

Those who experienced the destructive winds still talk and think about what happened.

They also think about what could have been — about what happened 40 miles away.

Sugarbush Road, which runs through the heart of the disaster area, became the headquarters locale for aid.

The Small Business Administration plan to set up an office in a schoolhouse to accept applications by businessmen for low-interest federal loans to rebuild commercial establishments.

POSSIBLE LOOTING

Patrols of National Guardsmen watched against possible looting. Police said they had numerous lost property reports, knew of no instance of looting.

"An 'Operation Bulldoze' program to aid Chesterfield Township grew out of a meeting between Romney and labor and contractor groups at Grand Rapids Saturday.
