

Will Peddle Polio Dimes on Street Saturday Jan. 16

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—The local battle against crippling infantile paralysis which struck down eight residents during 1953 is well under way.

Monday night members of the Birmingham Youth Council sold a "Fighting Dime" to Mayor Ralph Main, and secured approval to conduct an all-day street sale Saturday, Jan. 16.

The ten-cent piece enclosed in copper will be hawked by Youth Council members that day as their contribution toward the $75,000,000 sought nationally to fight the disease.

A Mother's March on Polio will be conducted Jan. 28, with city mothers seeking contributions to the drive.

Mrs. Ralph Moxley is in charge of this project, and John B. Taylor is the Birmingham chairman for the March of Dimes.

"Because of the current popular interest in the charity racket's quiz," states Taylor, "we should like to make clear to the citizens of Birmingham that this campaign is conducted solely by volunteers and not by professional collectors."

In the search for preventive measures, $26,000,000 is being sought for research on gamma globulin vaccine, which will be tested on some 1,200,000 second grade children beginning Feb. 8.

Father-Eugene Paddock, of Holy Name Church, has announced to his parishioners that the debt of over $400,000 for the building of Holy Name School some four years ago, has been liquidated.

Plans are now being formed for the new church, with George F. and Gerald G. Diehl, Detroit architects, hired to submit plans.

This week's winner of the Birmingham Toastmasters Club award, "The Orator," was Stuart Skelly, of Royal Oak, for his participation in Richard Bienenman's evening table topic, "A Trip to Florida."

Club members here will begin the 1954 speech contest on Jan. 19. Club finals will be run off on March 2 so a contestant can be selected for the area contest to be held in March.

Civil commissioners this week approved the employment of Royal Oak engineer W. Bradford Edwards to design the proposed fire station for the east side of the city. He had previously designed the proposed fire station for the west of the city, at Chesterfield and Maple.

Mrs. Charles J. Shain led the discussion during her Ruth Shain Class in International Affairs this week, presenting background information on the foreign ministers' conference to be held Jan. 25 at Berlin.

Study was begun on a Headline Series of East-West problems, reviewing the history of German, Polish and Russian territorial claims since World War II, the Potsdam and Yalta agreements.

1953 Birmingham Fire Loss $251,200

BIRMINGHAM—Fire losses for 1953 were estimated at $251,200 by fire Chief W. W. Griffith yesterday, with insurance paid estimated at $226,665.

Most of the year's loss took place two major fires, the spectacular 50,000 lawns Lumber Yard fire on Feb. 14, and the $80,000 blaze at St. James Church July 29.

Insurance lagged almost $2,000 behind the value of property damaged by fire, according to Griffith's report. He estimated total insurance carried on property endangered at $6,719,000, or $8,419,575 worth of property endangered.

In 1952, the fire loss was estimated at $7,708 or $0.37 per capita, based on a 21,000 population figure. On a 22,000 population, it is $0.37.

Many K-F Employees Still Out of Work

DETROIT (AP)—Communities housing laid-off employees of the Kaiser Motors Corp. are in a state of "localized economic slump" the CIO United Auto Workers reported yesterday.

Some 60 per cent of 3,704 laid-off Kaiser employees who replied to a union survey said they were still out of work. Another 10 per cent said they were employed but the jobs were "unsatisfactory."

And when the results of the survey were announced, only 699 workers reported they were still employed by Kaiser.

Kaiser sold his Willow Run plant to General Motors recently following a sharp reduction in the company's automotive output and the cancellation of an air force contract last June.

Nearly 12,000 K-F employees were laid off following the Air Force cancellation.

'Our Town '54' Topic for Panel

Fair Employment and Housing in Pontiac Are Subjects at Temple

Program for the fireside gathering at Temple Beth Jacob Friday at 8:15 p. m. will consist of a panel discussion. This informal gathering will follow the Sabbath Eve service at 8:15 p. m.

The group will discuss the progress being made in fair employment practices, and housing in Pontiac. It has chosen "Our Town 1954" for the topic.

On the panel will be Everett C. Spurlock of the Urban League of Pontiac, Ralph T. Norvell, who for the past year has been chairman of the Pontiac FEPC Committee, and Mrs. John D. Monroe, a member of the housing committee and a director of the Urban League auxiliary.

Moderating the discussion will be Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein, spiritual leader of the congregation.

This is another in a series of such meetings held periodically after Friday services. They deal with cultural topics and social issues. The rabbi pointed out that the discussion of social issues by a religious institution is appropriate because each person must try to live up to the ethical and moral challenge of his faith.

He must do this by paying attention religiously to every problem facing our nation and the world, so long as that problem contains such issues.

He said, "Judaism has insisted that we apply constantly the ethical insights of the prophets to the special problems of our generation just as we do to our personal lives."

Head-on Crash in Alley Hurts 6

Street Near Rochester Icy and Narrow, Cars Can't Pass

A head-on collision in a narrow alley near downtown Rochester yesterday injured six residents of Rochester according to Rochester Police.

Arthur Barbier, 64, of 320 E. Third St., was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with neck and knee injuries. His condition today is reported good.

He was a passenger with John Phelps, 49, of 312 Wilcox, Phelps and another passenger, Albert Jeffries, 50, of 6801 John R Rd., suffered chest injuries. Jeffries' son Robert, 13, was treated for leg injuries.

In the other car, driver Melvin Sherman, 18, of 2783 Frankson and passenger David Devine, 17, of 2976 Gerald, were treated for cuts and bruises.

Patrolman Vivian Moore said the two cars collided in narrow Edison alley between Mill and East Third streets on slippery pavement. Police Chief Sam Howlett said there was not room for two cars to pass.

was fired at Reuther through his kitchen window.

The next year a similar attempt was made on the life of Victor Reuther, a co-official in the CIO president's Auto Workers Union.

Rewards totaling more than $200,000 are outstanding in both incidents.

Renda and Jacobs were arraigned on the charges yesterday—the former in Detroit and the latter in Windsor, Ont. Renda supplied $25,000 bond for his release pending examination Jan. 14. Jacobs was remanded to jail without bond.

Meantime, Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien said flatly, "we definitely have a motive." But he refused to disclose it.

O'Brien also said he did not know whether the Walter and Victor shootings had any connection.

In the Essex County Court at Windsor a letter from O'Brien was read which said "Jacobs participated in the actual shooting (of Walter)."

Later O'Brien said, however, that he did not mean that Jacobs was the triggerman. He refused to say exactly what he did mean. Jacobs pleaded ignorance of anything concerning the case. He was arraigned on Canadian extradition warrant. He will be given an international extradition hearing Jan. 14.

DuFrain Recovering

Frank J. DuFrain, superintendent of Pontiac's public schools, is recovering in a Melbourne, Fla., hospital from a mild heart attack. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent, has received a letter, written by Supt. DuFrain, stating that the latter is making satisfactory progress and that his physicians say he will be able to return to Pontiac before the end of the current school year.

President's Message Assuring on Defense

spend nearly a billion dollars more for continental defense than during the current year.

Called again for expansion of the social security program to cover 10 million more Americans, and for a substantial increase in benefits.

Urged extension of unemployment compensation to 6½ million workers not now covered.

Described the controversial Taft-Hartley Labor Law as "basically sound" but in need of improvements he will recommend in a special message Monday.

Advocated a system of "limited government reinsurance service" to permit private and non-profit hospital and medical insurance companies now operating to offer "broader protection to more of the many families which want and should have it." He promised to elaborate in a special message Jan. 18.

Appealed again for Congressional approval of the St. Lawrence Seaway as vital to national security.

Urged Senate passage of the House-approved bill to grant statehood to Hawaii.

Eisenhower went before the legislators just 24 hours after opening of the second session of the 83rd Congress.

His message, carried to the nation by television and radio, came at the start of a political year which will be climaxed by the November Congressional elections.

Republicans now hold only a slim margin of control at the Capitol and the Democrats are hopeful they can slip into the saddle. Meanwhile, the administration must win some degree of support from the Democrats for any success in putting through the program Eisenhower said has one objective—"The building of a stronger America."

He told the legislators he believes "both of our great parties" can back it.

As for tax cuts in addition to the income tax reductions and expiration of the excess profits levy which were effective Jan. 1, the President said:

"As additional reductions in expenditures are brought gradually but surely into sight, further reductions in taxes can and will be made."

At another point, he declared: "Despite the substantial loss of revenue in the coming fiscal year, resulting from (Jan. 1) tax reductions which I shall propose, our reduced spending will move the new budget closer to a balance."

The President said the tax revision program will be set forth in detail in his Jan. 21 budget message. Informed sources have predicted cuts totaling about 1½ billion dollars annually.

Calling today for a thorough revision of the entire tax structure, Eisenhower declared:

"We should now remove the more glaring tax inequities, particularly on small taxpayers; reduce restraints on the growth of small business; and make other changes that will encourage initiative, enterprise and production."

On the other side of the picture, however, the President said again that corporation income taxes should be kept at the current rate of 52 per cent for another year instead of being allowed to drop to 47, and that excise taxes on such items as liquor, tobacco, gasoline and automobiles—also scheduled for an April 1 cut—should be maintained at prevailing rates.

On the foreign policy and national defense fronts, where Eisenhower already has made an open bid for cooperation from the Democrats, he said America has gained the initiative during the last year in the struggle against communism—and means to keep it.

"American freedom," he declared, "is threatened so long as the world Communist conspiracy exists in its present scope, power and hostility."

Cutback Would Hit GMT, Other Plants

panies, many supplier plants would be affected by the cutbacks.

Stevens said the contemplated cutbacks were necessary because of a reduction in the size of the armed forces.

A pending reduction in the size of the Armed forces by 500,000 was announced yesterday.

Other Army spokesmen said the contemplated reduction in vehicle production follows the end of the shooting war in Korea and a lesser need for tactical vehicles.

Ferguson said he was not taking the position that military economies which are justified should be ignored solely to maintain contracts in Michigan.

"I am most anxious to make sure that the effects of any cutbacks are distributed equally throughout the nation and not concentrated in my home state," he said.

BIRMINGHAM—Clifford John Culver, 43, of 8247 Vassar, Mt. Morris, was found guilty of reckless driving by Justice of the Peace John J. Gaffill yesterday, and paid a fine of $50 plus $10 costs.

Eisenhower renewed his call for postal rate increases, and he said the federal government is continuing its "central role" in the highway construction program.

In the section of his speech on the problems of the individual citizen, Eisenhower mentioned plans for Taft-Hartley law changes, expanded unemployment compensation, and social security coverage, broadening of hospital and medical insurance programs, federal aid to states which can't provide enough school buildings, and a housing program designed to provide, among other things, insurance on long-term mortgage loans with a small down payment for low income families.

Is English-Born; Gls Love Him

First Appeared on TV in 1950 and Soon Signed Long-Term Contract

NEW YORK — Three-year-old Lester Townes Hope stood on his aunt's door-step with his tummy sticking out hoping to make her laugh, which meant a piece of his favorite lemon cream pie.

Little did Aunt "Louis" know that her little nephew would some day shorten the Lester Townes to Bob and make millions of people all over the world laugh.

Bob was born in Eltham, England, May 29, 1903, the fifth of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Hope's seven sons. When he was four, the family moved to Cleveland, Ohio, and he has since adapted the city as his hometown.

Mrs. Hope had dreams of young Lester becoming a great singer. But one evening while singing a solo, his boyish-soprano started to crack. This brought gales of laughter much to Bob's delight, and it was then he knew comedy was his forte.

His first professional stage appearance was in a Fatty Arbuckle show in Cleveland with his partner, George Bryne. The pair danced, and Hope sang in a quartet and played the sax.

When the show closed they had enough experience to go on to vaudeville, which eventually led to New York.

After that he played many dates in Chicago and out West, eventually working up to top billing in the "big time."

In 1933 he returned to New York to star in "Roberta," "Ballyhoo," "Ziegfeld Follies" and "Red, Hot and Blue."

Hope started in radio as a guest of Rudy Vallee. His brand of comedy caught on, and in 1933 he was the star of his own radio show.

That same year he played in his first motion picture, "The Big Broadcast," and he has been starring in radio and movies ever since.

On June 8, 1950, he was signed to an exclusive long-term NBC contract for radio and television, and made his TV debut on Easter Sunday 1950.

Bob has devoted much of his time entertaining servicemen. The very day Secretary of War Stimson drew the first draft number from a hat, Hope played a benefit for the first soldiers without uniform in San Francisco.

Since then he has traveled more than a million miles and has entertained over 10 million troops in every part of the globe.

It is likely that Bob has received more awards for his activities than any other performer. Year after year he has consistently had a top spot in newspapers and magazine polls and has been honored by national, civic and professional groups.

He prizes a citation from the United States Treasury Department for his bond-selling efforts and the Medal of Merit presented him by the then Gen. Eisenhower.

Bob is married to the former Dolores Reid and they have four adopted children. In spite of his busy TV, radio and motion picture schedule, Bob manages to spend many happy hours with his family at his home in the San Fernando Valley.

Hope is an excellent golfer, rating a four handicap, and he never forgets his golf bag in his many travels.

He is also an avid baseball and football fan, having stock interest in both the Los Angeles Rams professional football team and in the Cleveland Indians baseball team.

Vets Could Care for Humans in Time of Disaster

COLUMBUS, Ohio 6 — A Detroit physician says veterinarians should be allowed to treat humans in time of large-scale disaster.

Dr. M. L. Litcher told the Ohio annual convention yesterday the skill of veterinarians fits them "admirably" for assistance in civil emergencies.

Dr. Litcher, chairman of the Wayne County Civil Defense Committee, said:

"When we realize that the methods of diagnosis and treatment employed by veterinarians differ very little from those used by physicians it is not difficult to project (their) ability into the practicality of caring for human casualties when the necessity arises."

He said there was "not a great deal difference" between the anatomy and physiology of men and animals and added the reaction in healing is the same in both.

Dr. Litcher said veterinarians are particularly well-fitted for treating patients suffering from burns or shock and might also assist in certain types of surgery, suturing of lacerations, splinting of fractures, treating abrasions and contusions removal of foreign bodies and treatment of minor physiological disturbances.

Lettuce Baked in Curry Sauce

Unusually favorable weather has brought Arizona and California lettuce to market ahead of time and in great quantity. That means lower than normal prices. Iceberg, or crisphead, lettuce is generally eaten raw in salads and sandwiches. It is also delicious cooked, the way many Europeans prepare it.

Curried Lettuce Casserole
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup flour
1 cup chicken broth or consommé
1/2 cup milk
1 cup diced celery
1/2 cup onion (1 small onion)
1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon each sugar and curry powder
2 medium-sized heads iceberg lettuce
2 medium-sized apples
2 cups buttered soft bread crumbs
Whole person halves

Melt butter or margarine; stir in flour. Gradually add chicken broth or consommé and milk; add celery and onions and cook until thick. Add seasonings.

Cut lettuce into serving size wedges. Slice apples 1/4 inch thick. Arrange lettuce, apples and curry sauce in alternating layers in 2-quart casserole. Pour on the sauce. Cover casserole.

Bake 30 minutes. Remove cover. Sprinkle with bread crumbs. Garnish with pecans. Bake another 10 minutes. Serves 6-8.

CURRIED LETTUCE CASSEROLE — Exceptionally abundant western lettuce is on the market now. For a change, serve it cooked with a delicious curry sauce. Your guests will enjoy this unusual way of serving a familiar vegetable.

Eggs Are Delicious
Baked French Way

Try this delightful French way of baking eggs for a lunch dish.

Eggs a la Bonne Femme
For each serving—
1/2 teaspoon butter or margarine
1-2 cup lightly packed thin strips onion (1 medium-small onion)
1/2 teaspoon wine vinegar
2 eggs, salt and pepper
1/2 cup lightly packed dry bread crumbs (made from French bread or rolls with crusts left on).

Melt 2 teaspoons butter in skillet; add onion and cook over low heat 5 to 7 minutes, until onion is still somewhat crisp but not brown.

Add wine vinegar to skillet; turn into individual 6-inch heat-resistant glass pie plate. Break eggs over onions; sprinkle eggs with salt and pepper.

Melt 3 teaspoons butter in skillet; add bread cubes and stir well. Sprinkle bread cubes over eggs, covering yolks. Bake in slow (325 F) oven 17 minutes. Serve at once.

Dry Milk Bolsters Beef
in Nutritious Skillet Pie

Three plentiful nutritious foods—beef, potatoes and nonfat dry milk—are combined in a stick-to-the-ribs recipe. It's a skillet pie with nutritious nonfat dry milk to enrich both the meat filling and the potato garnish.

Economical nonfat dry milk adds to the flavor as well as the nutrition of the meat filling. It is available at the grocer's in foil-lined one-pound packages which will yield five quarts of fresh nonfat milk for as little as nine cents a quart.

Here's our one-dish meal feature.

Skillet Pie:

2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1 pound lean beef, cut in cubes
1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sliced, cooked carrots

Melt butter in large skillet over medium heat. Sauté onion and green pepper until tender. Add beef. Cook until tender, about 10-15 minutes. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk powder, flour, salt and pepper over surface of water. Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Pour gradually into meat mixture, stirring rapidly. Continue to cook until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Stir in sliced cooked carrots.

Potato Garnish

1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 medium potatoes, cooked and mashed
2 medium potatoes, cooked and mashed
Add nonfat dry milk powder, salt and the water to mashed potatoes; beat well. Arrange in ring over rim of meat mixture, leaving center free. Broil about 3 inches from heat until potatoes are browned, about 3 minutes. Serve at once.

Molded Salad
Sparks Buffet

Are you looking for suggestions for your next buffet supper... something that will be as striking as the gay decorations in your party room but, at the same time, easy to make and serve?

A famous consumer test kitchen has prepared a molded fruit salad that would be a delicious accompaniment with a baked ham. Add piping hot rolls and potato sticks... and for dessert, a tray of fruit cake and assorted cookies. Top it off with coffee and rest assured that your meal will be a big success.

Buffet Fruit Salad Mold

1 No. 2 can pineapple tidbits
Orange juice
4 envelopes plain gelatin
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
6 ounces cream cheese
1 cup real mayonnaise
2 oranges, peeled and diced
2 avocados, peeled and diced
Salad greens

Drain pineapple, reserving juice. Add enough orange juice to pineapple juice to make 2 cups. In a large mixing bowl soak gelatin in 1 cup cold water. Combine fruit juices with remaining 1/2 cup water, sugar and salt. Heat. Add to gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Blend cream cheese and real mayonnaise. Mix thoroughly with gelatin mixture. Chill in refrigerator until slightly thickened. Fold in pineapple, oranges and avocados. Pour into a 9 1/2 x 5 1/2 x 2 1/2 inch loaf pan. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with salad greens and additional orange and avocado, if desired. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Grow Orchids in Your Home

U. of M. Expert Says Simple Care Will Bring Exotic Blooms

ANN ARBOR—With just a little coaxing, orchids will prove themselves adaptable house plants and will bring you exotic hints of far-away lands.

Some attention, however, must be given to such simple requirements as watering, humidity, fresh air, temperature changes and cleanliness.

Perhaps the most rewarding plants to start with would be some of the cheaper varieties of Cattleyas and Laelias, according to Walter F. Kleinschmidt, superintendent of the University of Michigan Botanical Gardens.

Once you have the plants, put them by a south window, so that they can obtain full benefit of the sunlight. Cut down direct sunlight in middle and late afternoon. Venetian blinds are ideal for this.

It's advisable to keep the plants on a small table. Then you can move them away from the cold at night. Put trays filled with moist gravel on the table, and set the potted plants on slats or screens just above the gravel, which should be kept moist.

Evaporation from the gravel usually will keep the plants healthy. But if yours is a steam-heated house, it's wise to syringe them regularly.

Be careful not to over-water. If the room lacks sufficient moisture, a small humidifier may be attached to the radiator.

Orchids need fresh air. You can open any window except the one near the plants. Let in just enough air to keep the room from being stuffy. Kleinschmidt warns, since sudden, drastic changes in temperature can be disastrous to orchids.

Cleanliness is important. Wipe the leaves once or twice a week with a soft, damp cloth. Occasionally add several drops of vegetable oil emulsion insecticide to a pint of lukewarm water, and sponge the foliage to remove dust and dirt from the stomata, or breathing pores.

Helicopter Is Threat to Whale Fishermen

LONDON (INS)—Hearty whale fishermen, who have pursued their hazardous profession for hundreds of years, were threatened with extinction today by a technological development—the helicopter.

The Society of British Aircraft Constructors in London said experts are predicting that Moby Dick and his pals soon may be attacked from the skies.

Helicopters have been used for some time to locate whales and lead the fishermen to their prey.

Now, the Society said, "there is a possibility that helicopters may go further than their present search role and actually attack the whale."

"The suggestion is to fit a helicopter with a harpoon gun and inflation equipment, so that it would therefore be possible for more than half the catcher vessels to be replaced by six or eight large helicopters operating from the factory ship."

Car Sent to Junk Pile

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (UP)—A state motor vehicle inspector who stopped a woman's car for routine inspection found it had no brakes, lights, horn or windshield wiper and only one workable window. She was ordered to have it towed away, which was done by a junk dealer who paid her $10 for the remains.

Chicken's Life Shorter

Erosion Putting Phosphorus on Bottom of Sea

WASHINGTON (UP)—The world's supply of phosphorus is slipping away, but the chances are it will return before the starvation level is reached.

The reserves of this element, essential for plant growth, are estimated at about 26,000,000 tons. World consumption is 25,000,000 tons a year. Since each adult requires about a pound of phosphorus a year, the supply is expected to last about a thousand years if the present rate of population continues.

The problem is not one of actual loss, D. P. Hopkins, a British chemist, points out. The element is merely becoming unavailable by sinking to the bottom of the sea or forming chemical bonds with other materials.

Most serious loss of phosphorus is caused by soil erosion. But this is carried to the sea, absorbed by the plankton which in turn are eaten by fish. If man eats his full share of fish, chances are he'll get his phosphorus back again.

Frick's Group Seeking to Keep Baseball 'Clean'

Committee Wants to Keep Sport Clear of Anti-Trust Suits

NEW YORK (AP)—A committee sat down with commissioner Ford Frick today to formulate legislation by which baseball hopes to keep itself clear of future charges that it operates in violation of certain federal regulations.

Last November the Supreme Court reaffirmed a 31-year old decision that baseball is a sport, not a business, and therefore outside of the scope of laws restricting monopolies.

But at the same time there were warnings that unless baseball immediately set its house in order it could look for congressional action that might bring about results less pleasant.

As the result, Frick was empowered by the major and minor leagues to appoint a committee to make an exhaustive study of all phases of the sport and recommend legislation.

The committee consists of George Weiss of the New York Yankees; Bob Carpenter, Philadelphia Phillies; Branch Rickey, Pittsburgh Pirates; Frank Lane, Chicago White Sox; Johnny Murphy, farm director of the Boston Red Sox; Fresno Thompson, Brooklyn vice president; Frank Lawrence of the Portsmouth club in the Piedmont League; Ed Mulligan of Syracuse and Earl Mann of Atlanta.

Abel Calls Rollins Best of NHL Goalies

NEW YORK (AP)—Chicago Black Hawks, cellar-occupants of the National Hockey League, have two "silver linings"—goalie Al Rollins and defenseman Bill Gadsby—in the opinion of their coach Sid Abel. "Rollins has been tremendous this season. I'd call him the most valuable player in our league—even over Gordie Howe and Red Kelly of Detroit," Abel said today. Black Hawks, who have won only eight of 39 games this season, face the New York Rangers in tonight's line NHL tilt.

Dykes Blasts Giambra to Become Title Contender

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Bobby Dykes, the lanky Texas fighter who was considered "washed up" a few months ago, jumped back into the headlines today as a contender for Bobo Olson's middleweight title.

Dykes, a 2-1 underdog, returned from the ranks of almost forgotten boxers last night when he chopped out a unanimous decision over promising Joey Giambra in a nationally televised 10-round bout.

Two years ago this month, in Miami Stadium, Dykes came close to the welterweight throne when he held Kid Gavilan to a split decision. A month later, he followed up with a victory over Gil Turner. Then the stringbean Texan who now calls Miami home lost four fights in a row and his friends figured he was through. But after a long layoff, Dykes began a serious comeback as a middleweight.

Last night, before a crowd of 3,556 in the Miami Beach Auditorium, where he has never been beaten, Dykes was a superb boxer and counterpuncher as he slashed his way to a one-sided decision over Giambra, the fifth-ranking middleweight contender.

Judge Carl Gardner gave Dykes seven rounds to two for Giambra and called one even. Judge Morris Feingold scored it 4-3-3 for Dykes and Referee Eddie Coachman gave it to Dykes 6-2-2.

Pontiac High's basketball team, winner in two of its four pre-holiday starts, swings back into action Friday night against one of the leading schoolboy quintets in Michigan.

Chiefs journey to the state's capital to take on Lansing Sexton's undefeated Big Reds in their 1st contest of the new year.

Although Coach Cecil Nickel lost all five starters from his 1953 MHSAA tourney finalist team, the Big Reds again rank among the state's top Class A powers. Sexton roared undefeated through a 16-game schedule last year and added four more victories in tournament play before bowing to Dearborn Fordson, 53-47, in the finals.

Squad lost no time starting another streak this year, sweeping past five straight opponents including Saginaw Valley Conference

GIVE MERCHANT PAIN IN NECK

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis Browns (now the Baltimore Orioles) may have severed connections with St. Louis, but the city still has some ties left.

Seventy-five, to be exact.

They're "St. Louis Browns" neckties and they're giving a downtown men's clothing store a pain in the neck. The ties aren't moving.

Originally, the ties were priced at $1.50 each.

With the Browns gone, you can get them at 9 cents apiece — three for two-bits.

teams Flint Northern and Saginaw Arthur Hill.

Pontiac will match the Lansing club in height, with both teams averaging around 6-feet 1-inch. Nickel will start Clyde Acre (6-2½) and Art Gowen (6-2) at forwards, Bill Cunningham (6-3) at center, and Al Zoss (6-1½) and Neil Nickel (5-11) at guards. The latter is Nickel's son.

Pontiac Coach Art Van Ryzin will go with John James (6-3) and Dave Ballard (6-3½) at forwards, Marv Caswell (6-1) at center, and Dick Ayling (6 feet) and Walt Poe (5-10) at guards. Caswell, who will alternate with Leroy Moore and Dick Blacklaw, was moved from forward to pivot to capitalize on his shooting ability. Bob Johnston will spell Ballard at one forward slot.
