Hart Sees Strength of Dems in Strong Liberal Program

A strong liberal program is the real strength of the Democratic party, U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Oakland County, told over 700 supporters who honored him with a banquet in Waterford Township Saturday evening.

"It is this program that binds us together and it is the reason we can afford to allow open voice to personality differences without serious harm to the party," he said.

Foremost among the party's liberal goals, Sen. Hart said, is that with a valuable yardstick of President Kennedy's proposed tax cut to increase revenues.

"And how is this to be done? With a planned deficit," the senator continued.

STRONG OPPOSITION

"This is where the plan begins to meet very strong opposition, because at first glance it appears in direct conflict with the American Puritan Tradition — that lingering code of moral values

"But one of its tenets is that you must not spend more than you take in.

"This is excellent advice for the budgeter in a family. But it isn't necessarily good advice for a government, because government policies cannot influence the economy, they can control it.

"I am convinced that a tax cut, properly administered, will stimulate the economy to the point where any resulting deficit would be quickly repaid."

As to the party's strength in Michigan, Sen. Hart admitted there are differences of opinion concerning what part labor unions play in politics here.

The unions are attracted to the Democratic party — the same as other minorities — by a liberal program, he said.

These basic goals are common to the minorities, who actually make up the majority, the senator added.

"If anything, President Kennedy's program isn't liberal enough, Hart declared.

"I don't feel that the program calls for enough spending," he said. "I don't think we should slow up those domestic programs that are of urgent importance to the nation."

"There should be no leveling off in education and housing, in conservation and in mental health. All these programs should continue to expand at a more rapid rate.

"If we can spend $55 million for defense, surely we can spend an extra $4 or $5 billion for the welfare of our people."

Sen. Hart expressed less concern regarding President Kennedy's proposed medical care for the aged legislation.

"Medicare, I think, will be enacted in this Congress," he said. Likewise, he felt that his own campaign for "truth in packaging" would result in legislation that will require manufacturers to prominently display

Dem Falters in Minnesota

Lead Shrinks to 14 in Recount

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Concessions which reduced the recount lead of Karl Rolvaag, the Democratic candidate, from 133 to 14 were made today at the opening of the recount trial involving disputed ballots in the Minnesota governorship election.

C. L. Nelson, New Prague, Rolvaag's attorney, told the three-judge federal court that 241 of 249 ballots in Category 1 claimed by Rolvaag should be deleted from the total, and that 122 of 137 in this class counted for Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen should be deducted.

Category 1 involves ballots marked for either Rolvaag and William Bratz, the industrial Government candidate, or for Andersen and Bratz.

This shift cut 119 votes from Rolvaag's recount lead of 133.

Still in dispute were eight ballots in this class claimed by Rolvaag and 15 claimed by Andersen.

As the trial got under way this morning, there were no spectators, as such, in the courtroom — only party officials or members of the press.

The first slight argument occurred over a name for the recount total.

Nelson wanted to call it the recount or referees total, but Richard Kyle, Andersen's attorney said, "We do not agree that it is accurate and reserve our rights to question it."

It was finally agreed to call the recount total the "statute base recount total."

Would Await Reform if Tax Cut's Passed

From Our News Wires
WASHINGTON — President Kennedy said today he is willing to forego tax reform this year if it is necessary to get a tax-cut bill through Congress.

He emphasized to the American Bankers Association that his primary interest is getting corporate and personal income tax rates reduced to avoid a possible recession.

Kennedy has been seeking a net tax cut of $10.3 billion spread over the next three years. The proposals he has sent to Congress called for both the reduction and an accompanying — and controversial — reform of the tax laws.

Kennedy's statement today was made in a question-and-answer session after he delivered a speech to a symposium of economic growth sponsored by the bankers.

It was one of the strongest declarations he has made that he would jettison the reform proposals if necessary to get congressional enactment of a cut effective this year.

Only a week ago, Democratic congressional leaders said the administration planned to continue its efforts for the overall tax reduction-and-reform package.

This involved a gross tax reduction of $13.5 billion with about $3.5 billion being returned to the government through reform measures to tighten loopholes and correct inequities.

Cold Air Blast Due Here With Brighter Skies

Frigid temperatures are scheduled for the area tomorrow. But to brighten the weather picture, the weatherman has added a "mostly fair sky."

Following a dip to a predicted low of zero tonight, the mercury is expected to edge up to a high of 12 tomorrow.

Partly cloudy skies are predicted for Wednesday with not quite so cold temperatures.

The five-day temperature forecast calls for an average of 10 to 15 degrees below the normal high of 37 and the normal low of 22.

It'll be mostly cold throughout the week, with slight moderation about Friday.

Lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. at 14 A. 2 p.m., the thermometer read 9.

Kennedy told the bankers today that "quite obviously" he did not want his reform recommendations to delay the tax reduction so much that it might not be sufficiently effective this year.

"If we cannot get reform, obviously we are going to have to rewrite the package," the President said.

"If Congress were to come up with a $10-billion cut, we would then have to adjust all the rates."

The President said that from his viewpoint a cut of less than $10 billion this year might be preferable. But at the same time he said he would prefer too "err on the side of a large enough tax reduction" and thus would accept a $10-billion reduction without the reform provisions if it became necessary.

In the formal speech, the President said there was "nothing" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

U.S. to Permit Its Soldiers to Fire First at Viet Cong

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

SAIGON, Viet Nam — The United States has decided to permit its soldiers to shoot first in the Vietnamese guerrilla war without waiting to be fired on by the Communists, it was reported today.

The move is aimed at checking the mounting U.S. casualty rate in the undeclared war, according to informed sources. Another American died yesterday. A young machine gunner was killed when two U.S. Army H21 helicopters were downed by Communist Viet Cong ground fire.

However, American combat pilots are in South Viet Nam to train Vietnamese army, not to take part in the war against the Communists, Gen. Emmett O'Donnell said today.

O'Donnell, commander of the U.S. Air Force in the Pacific, told newsmen that while U.S. pilots often accompany Viet namese on combat missions, they are here to give tactical training.

O'Donnell acknowledged, however, that on many training flights, "the aircraft expend ordinance on actual Viet Cong targets."

'GOVERNMENT UNSTABLE'

In Washington, a senatorial study group has reported to President Kennedy that after seven years of U.S. aid to South Viet Nam the country still lacks a stable government.

In fact, the study said, the government of the Southeast Asian country "appears more removed, rather than closer to the achievement of popularly responsible and responsive government."

The actions boosted Kennedy's arms authorization bill — already the largest ever introduced in Congress — to $15,856,391,000. This was $197,700,000 more than Kennedy requested last month and would also increase the over-all $33.7 billion defense budget by that amount.

STOWE, Vt. (UPI) — A spokesman for the Vermont Publishing Co. said today a formal complaint will be filed against Sen. Edward M. Kennedy for allegedly seizing the camera of a news photographer at a ski lodge.

Chairman Carl Vinson, D-Ga., said in a statement afterward that it was "a deep and abiding belief of the Armed Services Committee that manned systems should continue to be a major part of our military force."

"There is no doubt," he said, "that our missiles, and particularly our intercontinental ballistic missiles, are a major part of our arsenal. Neither I nor the Committee members would for a moment think of minimizing their importance or cutting back on the missile program."

"But the committee sees a growing tendency on the part of the Department of Defense to place more and more emphasis on missiles and less on manned systems."

"This is a dangerous course and one which the committee intends to do everything in its power to stop."

Vinson said the addition of two more B57s would constitute a major step toward an airplane "with most of the characteristics and capabilities of a true combat aircraft."

The B57 is a long-range, supersonic bomber which also could have the capabilities of being a reconnaissance plane as well.

Dirksen Says 4 Shot Down in '61 Conflict

Solon Ready to Turn Information Over to Senate Investigators

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., said today he has uncovered evidence that four American fliers were killed in the abortive 1961 invasion of Cuba.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, said in an interview he has completed a one-man inquiry into the Bay of Pigs disaster and is ready to turn his findings over to Senate investigators.

Other than to report the belief that four American lives were lost, he declined to discuss the evidence as assembled. Some of it came from participants in the invasion and some from U.S. military personnel in the area at the time.

Dirksen later told reporters his staff has taken action to verify the reports that four fliers were downed.

But he said the information has not been checked with either the Defense Department or the Central Intelligence Agency.

He said the names of the four fliers will be available when a summary of his report is made public, possibly later this week.

The Republican leader said the four fliers were shot down in invasion planes which did not carry U.S. markings. Presumably they were in B26 bombers downed by jet trainers inherited by Fidel Castro from the overthrown Batista regime.

News stories at the time mentioned that one U.S. civilian flier might have been shot down. This report later was labeled erroneous.

Dirksen said he plans to discuss his findings with Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate's Preparedness subcommittee.

INQUIRY SET

A subcommittee inquiry into the military strength of Soviet-dominated Cuba is expected to get under way this week. Stennis has indicated he regards the 1961 invasion as "spilled milk" to which the group would not be justified in devoting much time at this point, Dirksen disagreed.

"It seems to me it becomes a matter of some importance when even four American lives are lost," he said.

Dirksen and other Republicans have contended that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy opened the whole matter up to investigation with a statement that no U.S. air force had been promised the invaders.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., accused Kennedy of trying to make a "readjustment of facts" to lay a major share of the blame for the invasion's failure on

Hike Ends in Sorrow; Dog Killed

Two 14-year-old boys and a dog set out on a physical fitness hike from Independence Township Saturday.

The dog, Reddy, didn't make it.

The terrier pet of James Merenck of 5574 May Sue Drive was hit by a car on U.S. 10.

James and his friend George Crossley of 5469 Maybee Road had intended to hike to the city limits of Flint and back. At Grand Blanc they turned back.

Just south of the Mt. Holly Ski Lodge, the dog was hit by a car. The driver took them to a veterinarian in Clarkston where Reddy died.

The boys had covered 30 miles in 11 hours before the accident. George was absent at Clarkston Junior High School today — victim of muscle cramps, his mother said.

Nix Conviction of 187 Negroes

Supreme Court Rules on S.C. Demonstration

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court, by an 8-1 vote, declared unconstitutional today the breach of peace conviction of 187 Negro students who held an antigovernment demonstration on the grounds of South Carolina's capitol.

The court held that the convictions violated constitutional guarantees of free speech and assembly.

In other actions today the Supreme Court:

— Ordered further lower court proceedings in the case of Leon Bearden who was convicted with his son of hijacking a Continental Airlines plane over New Mexico in 1961.

— Granted a hearing to Harold Fahy, who was sentenced to 60 days in jail by a Norwalk, Conn., court for painting swastikas on a synagogue on Feb. 1, 1960.

Justice Stewart delivered the court's 8-1 decision. Justice Clark wrote a dissenting opinion.

The Negroes, high school and college students, carried placards and paraded about the capitol at Columbia, S. C., on March 2, 1961. The state senate was in session at the time.

Stewart's opinion said that "in (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Two Tankers Collide

From Our News Wires
FLUSHING, Holland — Two tankers collided today in the Scheldt River, turning one vessel into a vast "ball of fire" and blocking all shipping on one stretch of the Belgian port of Antwerp.

The vessels involved were the 26,776-ton Panamanian tanker Miraflores, loaded with a cargo of crude oil, and the 13,350-ton British Tanker Abadesa.

Within 20 minutes, the Miraflores was engulfed in flames, some shooting 100 feet into the air. The Abadesa was damaged but did not catch fire.

Tugs plucked 28 of the Miraflores' crewmen from the river after they jumped overboard, but the captain was reported missing.

U.S. Questions Red Ban Plan

GENEVA (AP) — The chief American disarmament negotiator charged the Soviet Union today to explain what it means by on-site inspection of a nuclear test ban treaty.

U.S. Delegate William C. Foster told the 17-nation disarmament conference the Soviet offer of two or three annual inspections per year, "meaningless unless the inspection procedure is spelled out."

"The Soviet position is completely unknown to us except for two numbers which stand stark and alone in the middle of a featureless desert," Foster declared.

"And even those numbers may be a mirage unless we can see them organically related to some kind of verification system which will give them life and meaning."

Foster, who returned Sunday from consultations in Washington, recalled that the United States had reduced its minimum demand for inspections from eight to seven. He hinted that even that figure was negotiable.

Foster expressed the hope that Soviet First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, who unexpectedly left for Moscow Saturday, would soon return to the negotiations. He has repeatedly described Kuznetsov's presence at the head of the Soviet delegation as proof of the Soviet Union's sincere desire to negotiate a treaty.

The Soviet position has been completely frozen since the conference resumed Feb. 12 after a two-month recess. Foster said

Kuznetsov's last speech on Friday even contained a threat to withdraw the Soviet offer of two or three annual inspections unless the Western powers accept it without delay.

Western conference sources suspected that Kuznetsov's departure could indicate a Soviet determination to negotiate on a test ban only in the framework of top level East-West bargaining on such cold war issues as Berlin and Cuba.

Say St. Paul Wrote but 4 of 14 Epistles

LONDON (AP) — Two researchers using an electronic computer have decided that St. Paul was the author of only four of the 14 Pauline epistles in the New Testament.

Scientific evidence for their thesis is to be published next month by Dr. G. H. C. MacGregor, professor of Bible criticism at Glasgow University, and Rev. A. Morton, a minister at Culross Abbey, Fife.

Together they programmed the computer with a quarter of a million words of Greek prose and analyzed the results of a stylistic study of the epistles and work by other Greek authors.

Morton told a newsman: "The results are convincing. The work is based on the principle that authors have certain habits of style deeply ingrained. For the present study we have considered such things as the space between the uses of the word 'and', repetitive uses of the word, sentences beginning with the word and so on."

Morton said his paper will present for the first time scientific evidence in support of the theory that only four of the epistles — Romans, First and Second Corinthians, and Galatians — were written by St. Paul.

The method of analyzing style by computer can now be used to determine the authorship of any part of the Bible, Morton added.

He challenged critics of his program to come forward with a solution of their own and not concentrate entirely on "partisan exasperated... rash talk" about swollen federal payrolls, a higher deficit and "a crushing debt burden."

The President did not picture his tax plan as a take-it-or-leave-it proposition.

"I do not say that it is a perfect program, which cannot be changed by the Congress, which will satisfy the desires of all groups, or which will achieve all the growth we need as fast as we wish to achieve it," Kennedy said.

But he pictured the administration plan as the basic framework for progress and said it tackles pressing issues which "must not be decided by the rule of party politics, public opinion polls and predetermined prejudice."

In discussing economic growth, Kennedy was scornful of those who, he said, find the subject too abstract or academic to form a solid foundation for legislative proposals.

"There is nothing academic," he said, "about pushing our economy to grow at the rate of 4 per cent instead of 3 per cent."

If this can be done, he said, the potential results over the next 10 years might be $400 billion more in our output of goods and services, $110 billion more in profits, $210 billion more in wages, $5,000 more in income for every family and $90 billion more in federal revenues to meet our defense and domestic needs and to balance the budget and reduce the debt."

In addition to replying to economic conservatives who fear a tax cut at a time of mounting budget deficits, Kennedy was critical of others who, at a time of record profits, would give the lion's share of any tax cut to corporations and investors.

AGAINST PROPOSED CONSTITUTION — Governor George Romney, U.S. Senator Joseph R. Biden, D-Ind., and State Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-St. Clair, were featured speakers at a "Fact Conference" on the proposed Michigan constitution at Pontiac Motor Local 653 during the weekend.

Modarator for the discussion was Fred Haggard, president of the local AFL-CIO council.

'Sinister, Diabolical Plot'

Scholle Blasts Proposed Constitution

Gus Scholle called the proposed state constitution Saturday a "sinister, diabolical plot" that would "make political serfs out of us the rest of our lives."

He spoke before some 150 union members at an AFL-CIO sponsored "Fact Conference" at Pontiac Motor Local 653 Union Hall.

The president of the state AFL-CIO Council devoted three-fourths of his 40-minute speech to a denunciation of the document's apportionment provisions.

"If the state doubles in population, he said, the citizen's vote would only be worth half as much."

He said that representation in the Upper Peninsula would be based on 38 per cent on population and 62 per cent on area.

In Wayne County, he continued, the basis would be 99.8 per cent on population and 0.2 per cent on area.

"One citizen's vote should count just as much as another citizen's no matter where he lives," Scholle said.

State Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-St. Clair, Shores, said the proposed document puts "our freedom in jeopardy."

He called it a "blueprint for the Republican party to control government."

"We should not permit a small group of people to take control of our government," he said.

In 133 places, Snyder pointed out, the constitution contains the phrase "as provided by law."

"This, he said, will give 'a carte blanche to the legislature to take away our rights.'"

POINT BY POINT

In a point-by-point review of the proposed document, Snyder hit at:

1. Apportionment provisions which would "make legal, things that aren't legal."

2. Advice and consent provisions which give added power to the "malapportioned legislature."

3. Removal from elective status of the auditor, treasurer, highway commissioner and judges.

4. In discussing economic growth, Kennedy was scornful of those who, he said, find the subject too abstract or academic to form a solid foundation for legislative proposals.

"There is nothing academic," he said, "about pushing our economy to grow at the rate of 4 per cent instead of 3 per cent."

If this can be done, he said, the potential results over the next 10 years might be $400 billion more in our output of goods and services, $110 billion more in profits, $210 billion more in wages, $5,000 more in income for every family and $90 billion more in federal revenues to meet our defense and domestic needs and to balance the budget and reduce the debt."

In addition to replying to economic conservatives who fear a tax cut at a time of mounting budget deficits, Kennedy was critical of others who, at a time of record profits, would give the lion's share of any tax cut to corporations and investors.

Signs of a thaw in the icy relations began to appear 10 days ago.

Candidates for municipal judgeship are incumbent John C. Emery Jr. and Walter R. Denison.

INVESTIGATING

City Clerk Irene Hanley is investigating whether, under state election laws, Denison is permitted to run for two city posts.

Incumbent Edward Emery is unopposed for associate judgeship.

Mrs. Doris D. Mosher and James E. Tobin filed for the two vacancies on the library board.

Mrs. Hanley said candidates have until Saturday to approve the petitions.

Filing for positions on the city commission of Bloomfield Hills were incumbents John S. Bugas, Lyman J. Craig and Robert Frye plus David W. Lee and Louis J. Colombo Jr.

Filing for constable was Homer J. Murphy.

Residents in the Cummings street area, whose basements are frequently flooded, will get their long-awaited chance to air their grievances tonight.

A hearing on the necessity of constructing a Cummings Relief Sewer is scheduled before the city commission meeting.

Speaking on world affairs, Sen. Hart attached no significance whatsoever to Soviet Defense Minister Raul Malinovsky's "warning" that any U.S. attack on Cuba would start World War III.

"The important thing is that Khrushchev didn't say it," noted Hart. Therefore it isn't a matter of irreversible policy that would ban the Soviet Union to participate in a course of action, he reasoned.

He evaluated the "warning" as "just another bluff on the part of the Communists."

"We're not a nation that's going to be deterred from acting, hope, if Castro shoots up a fishing boat," the senator concluded.

The banquet was held in the Waterford C.A.I. Building.

But they said that "labor's takeover of the party machinery" at the convention "dramatized the problem that the party is understood by the public to be pretty well in the pocket of labor."

MAY's founders praised labor, however, for its work in the MAID's, for its work in the MAID's, for its work in the MAID's.

"We are very proud of what the unions have done," Bellinson said.

Khrushchev singled out Mao Tse-tung for criticism at a Moscow reception. He publicly pledged the eternal brotherhood of the Soviet Union and Communist China.

Then Pravda printed a long editorial which, as the Chinese had done previously, deplored the publicity surrounding the dispute. It said the Soviet Communist Party would meet privately with any fraternal party no matter what quarrels lay between them. Such a meeting, Pravda said, could then be followed by an international session of the world Communist movements.

CHOU EN-LAI PRESENT

Also present was Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and Chinese President Liu Shao-chi.

On a slightly lower level in Moscow, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had the Chinese ambassador, Pan Tzu-li, to lunch, obviously with Khrushchev's approval. This also was big news in the Soviet Union.

It was evident both ambassadors had something of importance to report to their chiefs and also that they had had something of importance to say to their hosts.

Khrushchev's singular outburst at Moscow reception, he said, was an ostentatious attention at a Moscow reception. He publicly pledged the eternal brotherhood of the Soviet Union and Communist China.

Mrs. Vorys died yesterday after a lengthy illness. The Wednesday will be held at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham.

Mrs. Vorys was a residential building contractor for 35 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Nicolas M. Quint Jr. of Franklin; two brothers; and three grandchildren.

Clark's dissenting opinion said that the demonstrators "of course, had a right to peaceable assembly, to espouse their cause and to petition," but, he added, "in any new manner in which they carried out those rights was by no means the passive demonstration which this court (the majority) relates."

During argument of the case last December, Atty. Gen. Daniel McLeod of South Carolina, told the high court that about an hour after the demonstration began a crowd of spectators assembled on streets in the area, among them individuals known to police as "troublemakers." The police then ordered the Negro demonstrators to disperse. They refused to obey and were arrested.

Seeking Salazar Overthrow

SAO PAULO, Brazil (UPI) — Fifteen Portuguese Communist chief Alvaro Barreirinhas Cunha

is believed heading a well-financed attempt to infiltrate exile groups which seek to overthrow Portuguese Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar.

Both exile leaders and the Brazilian Department of Political and Social Order (DOPS), the government's anti-subversive branch, believe Cunha is hiding somewhere in Brazil.

Since the dramatic hijacking of the Portuguese cruiser Santa Maria focused world attention on them, the Portuguese exiles have split into two groups, each headed by a major figure in the Santa Maria incident.

One is the pro-Western Antillean Front of Free Portuguese in Exile, headed by Capt. Henrique Galvao, the shipboard leader of the Santa Maria rebels.

The other is the Democratic Portuguese movement, headed by Gen. Humberto Delgado, who helped plan the hijack.

Delgado's movement is left-wing, but he denies any connection with the Communists.

Galvao believes that the aim of the Communists is to "make sure that the government which will eventually have to succeed Salazar should be pro-Communist in its essence."

The first step in this plan, he said, is to gain control of the anti-Salazar groups outside Portugal. The largest groups are in Brazil, where 550,000 Portuguese live.

PAIR ACQUIRED

Galvao knew Cunha in a Portuguese political prison. He said the thin, white-haired Communist divided his time between reading Communist theory and indoctrinating other inmates.

"He gave me the impression of being a mystic, profoundly convinced of his Communist creed," Galvao said.

"He struck me as having the personality of a leader, and a very dangerous man."

Both Galvao and Cunha managed to escape from different prisons later in their terms. Galvao went to Brazil and Cunha to the Soviet Union.

Now, the DOPS believes he, too, has reached Brazil. Where he is not known, but there is no doubt that the Communists recently have made increased progress in infiltrating their men and ideas into the anti-Salazar ranks.

The prowestern opposition leaders believe Delgado is sincere in denying Communist links, but some of them feel he is being used by the Communists.

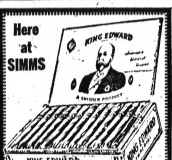

His Democratic Portuguese movement is allied with several other left-wing groups, some of which print and distribute anti-American, pro-Soviet literature.

There are a number of members of these groups branded "dangerous - Communists" by the DOPS.

Exact figures on the strength of the rival exile movements are not available, but each claims it is larger. Galvao believes he would have no difficulty rallying most of the Portuguese opposition to the Western cause if he received support for his stand from the United States.

Crown Richmond Grower Hothouse Rhubarb King

By LEE WINBORN OLSON
Area News Editor

UTICA — Five years of hard work finally paid off Saturday for Clem Brinker of Richmond.

He won the title of Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb King for 1963.

To earn the crown his extra fancy rhubarb was judged best in the eighth annual rhubarb festival here.

Besides having the top entry in this class, Brinker's rhubarb won first prize in the fancy division and second in choice.

In all Brinker, who has picked three tons of hothouse rhubarb this year, won a trophy and $50 cash as king plus another $20 in prizes for his other winning entries.

The diminutive grower said he had been working for years to upgrade his crop so that he would be in the top competition for the championship. He has two hothouses on his 40-acre farm.

After the judging, the five-pound box of prize rhubarb was auctioned off for $500 to Dick Bracco, Royal Oak produce broker and distributor.

The money goes to the Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Growers Association to pay the total of $95 in prizes and to help stage the festival next year.

Judging the rhubarb were Dr. Deran Markarian, horticulture department, Michigan State University; Karl D. Bailey, retired Michigan District horticulture agent; and Gene Pini, Shelby Township buyer.

GETS BLUE RIBBON — Clem Brinker of Richmond won the title of king of the eighth annual Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Festival Saturday in Utica with his box of extra fancy rhubarb judged best in the 1963 growers' competition. Here he receives his blue ribbon from Queen Cynthia Wales, 18-year-old Utica High School graduate, who also reigned over the day-long event in the American Legion Hall.

Hygrade Co. Offices Hit

Fire Destroys Building

DETROIT (AP) — A spectacular general alarm fire destroyed the executive offices building of Hygrade Food Products Corp. last night, causing an estimated $100,000 loss.

Three firemen were hurt by flying glass and debris, and a janitor was injured in a fall down a flight of stairs while aiding firemen.

Firemen became ice-coated in battling the blaze in 18-degree weather.

The wind-fanned blaze, visible for miles, raced through the two-story brick building. Firemen fought it with the aid of five water towers.

Hygrade's two meat packing plants, separate from the office building, escaped damage.

Water flooded over Michigan Avenue and tributary streets. It froze to ice. Firemen chopped ice from sewer openings to free the water.

The Hygrade plant is on Michigan Avenue not far from downtown Detroit. The company has 60 plants throughout the country.

William Dunbar, 42, the janitor, plunged down a flight of stairs while leading firemen to the second floor. He hurt his back in the fall.

500 Bandsmen to Stage Troy's Citywide Concert

TROY — Should 76 trombones play in the concert here Thursday, they won't be out of place.

Some 500 bandsmen are slated to take part in the fourth annual citywide music festival that evening. It will be staged at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Six bands will play individually and in unison at the concert.

formance, the band department has grown from 223 students in three bands to about 500 in the six organizations.

The public is invited to attend the concert. There is no admission.

The fire broke out about 9 p.m. and thousands of spectators, including downtown show goers, went to the scene.

It was brought under control shortly before midnight but the blaze continued for another two hours before it was extinguished.

More than 27 pieces of fire equipment responded to the alarm and nearly 100 firefighters were at the scene.

Firemen said the executive offices had been converted from an old ice house, heavily timbered inside and insulated with sawdust, which had been covered with brick.

New Speed Limit Set at 45 M.P.H. on Rochester Rd.

ROCHESTER — Motorists heading toward this village on Rochester Road will soon be limited to a speed of 45 miles per hour, as the result of a State Highway Department ruling.

Signs displaying the maximum speed, reduced from a 65-55 day-night speed limit, will soon be placed between Avon Road and the southern village limits and between the northern boundary and a point 1,000 feet north of Orion Road.

The new speed limit results from cooperative speed and safety studies by local authorities, the State Highway Department and State Police. It will become effective as soon as the old signs are replaced.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Oak Park Restaurant, Subdivision Planned

OAK PARK — Construction of a new $1-million subdivision and a $1-million restaurant is slated to start here this spring.

The new subdivision to be built by the Aladdin Development Co., will be located on a 200-acre site west of Coolidge Highway, between Lincoln Avenue and Eleven Mile Road.

This will be the first major residential building for this city since 1957, when the state banned all building lacking adequate sewer facilities.

Completion of the 12 Town Drain is opening up these sections for future development.

The area will be called the Ben Elkin Subdivision.

A new Greenfield Restaurant, will be located on a two-acre site on Greenfield Road opposite Northland Center.

Winifred W. Eliason, president of Greenfield - Mills Restaurant Co., announced that the 20,000-square-foot dining facility will feature an early American design.

Seating capacity for the restaurant's three dining rooms will be 400.

It Seems to Me

Canadian, U. S. Relationship Should Always Be Friendly

Most U. S. citizens are puzzled and hurt over Canada's sudden furor in regard to the United States and her "bad ways."

Are we really unfair?
My answer is "no."

John George Diefenbaker has spawned an amazing amount of consternation by his hostile and unfriendly attitude toward this nation. At a time when Great Britain is wallowing in the throes of an unfortunate European repudiation by de Gaulle, it's no time for petty bickering over here. Diefenbaker's outburst suggests that he is struggling desperately to intimate that his own personal antagonism is a true reflection of all Canadians.

Let's investigate.
Apparently, the bulk of the shooting centers around the defense of this continent. He refuses to "accept U. S. controlled nuclear warheads which this country believed she (Canada) had approved." The installations were for the protection of the hemisphere. Our military chiefs feel Mr. D. misrepresented the situation to his own parliament and that he openly discussed secret defense talks between the two nations.

Many Canadians and most U. S. citizens think this unethical procedure was intentional. In any event, the U. S. reaction was rather devoid of diplomacy and adroit international finesse. Our country committed the sin of making a blunt and unequivocal declaration public almost before Diefenbaker had the message himself. Apparently, the Canadian boss was waiting for some such opening to "let us have it." He added this to other grievances — real or fancied — and blew his top.

The man exploded.
From this side of the border, it has appeared for some time as though the Canadian Prime Minister has been treading increasingly on thin ice in general. Some blame him for the big swing in monetary evaluation between the two countries. His general attitude began to say: "Take your Yankee dollars and go home," which delicate hint we accepted rather literally, and proceeded to do a little of just that very thing. Scoffers jeered him as "Diefenbuck." And when his personal fallout shelter was dubbed "Diefenbunker" the gentleman's rage was visible from all directions.

Nor did the U. S. lack friends. Many staunch Canadians leaped to our defense, and Diefenbaker received a blast which he was illly prepared to stand. Two cabinet ministers resigned. Now Diefenbaker has announced that he will hit the far-flung Canadian trails and stand for re-election on the general theme of "no nuclear weapons on Canadian soil."

That's his privilege.
Many people on both sides of the border think he's riding to a fall with this current declaration added to his past transgressions and political bungling.

I want to think the Canadians are the best international friends we possess. We speak the same language, generally have the same customs and our national economic problems are more similar than comparable countries. We both pride ourselves on the longest unfortified border in the world. Only one arsenal really exists in thousands and thousands of miles — at the two Soos — where we unite to keep the ore coming through as a safety measure against the Russians — not against each other.

Pontiac feels especially friendly toward the Canadians. In three minutes by an ordinary commercial jet today, you can fly from the heart of Pontiac to the center of Windsor. We would like to believe that the great majority of the Canadians are friendly toward us. We'll discount their few inevitable jingos and settle for the great headed majority. We labor under the same minor handicaps ourselves.

Over the years, this newspaper has spent millions and millions of dollars for Canadian newsprint, and our relationships have always been the most friendly and the most cordial in every way. Never has so much as a single cloud scudded across the sky. Our scrivener has hunted and fished in four or five Canadian provinces many times and has always been treated royally. I'm sure we were as welcome as we were happy to be there.

If the U. S. is wrong in this instance, we'd like to be shown just how. A "fight the U. S." campaign on the northern side of this great border would do damage and harm to both. But frankly, stark realism suggests we can stand it militarily and economically better than the Canadians.

This is no occasion for small-time bickering. There are too many monumental issues before the world. We should stand shoulder to shoulder with those great Canadian friends and allies of ours — now and forever. A temporary irritant labeled "DIEFENBAKER" shouldn't upset a two-century friendship.

And in Conclusion . . .

Will JFK Break Labor Monopoly?

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy may think he evened things up when he denounced the "irresponsibility" of Bertram Powers, head of the Printers' Union, in New York City's newspaper strike.

It will be recalled that, when Mr. Kennedy assailed Roger Blough and the steel executives LAWRENCE in April 1962 as defying the "public interest," many critics said he would never undertake to give equal treatment to a labor executive. But how far does the parallel go?

The President convened a federal grand jury and used the contracting power of the Defense Department as a means of coercing steel executives not to go along with the proposed price increase.

Will Mr. Kennedy attempt to do anything at all in the legislative or judicial field against a labor union monopoly that endeavors to fix wage costs in a metropolitan area and set the pattern for other cities in the country?

The labor monopoly scandal has not been acted on for several reasons. One is that politicians are afraid of the labor vote. They ignore, however, the nonlabor vote—the large number of victims who would rise to support a president or a congress that sincerely believed in "equal rights."

Another reason is that the American people have not been given the facts. A comprehensive investigation by a congressional committee is needed to tell the people they are living under a labor union dictatorship which depends on tactics of violence and intimidation to keep workers from crossing a picket line.

President Kennedy has pointed up the dangers. He said in a prepared statement read at his news conference last week:

"The New York newspaper strike is now in its 75th day. The situation has once again passed the point of public toleration. The essence of free collective bargaining in this country is a sense of responsibility and restraint by both sides, not merely an effort by one side or the other to break those who sit across the bargaining table from them."

Today, existing law doesn't really permit irresponsible bargaining or failure "to bargain in good faith." Yet the Department of Justice apparently is afraid to proceed against a labor monopoly.

Bob Considine Says:

Don't Quake at Growling From Rodion Malinovsky

NEW YORK — If you felt like quaking after reading Marshal Rodion Malinovsky's dire pledge that the Soviet Union would be in the vanguard of those nations which would come to Cuba's aid in the event of a U. S. attack, save your quaking for something important.

Malinovsky is a combination bat boy and bucket carrier. If President Kennedy treated Gen. Max Taylor, chairman of the joint chiefs, with the contempt Khrushchev shows for Malinovsky, Taylor would resign immediately.

Whenever Khrushchev lets Malinovsky appear with him in public, we wonder who is the superior and who is the menial.

He is an impressive-looking hulk of a man who looks a bit like John L. Lewis looking like he was battling Harry Truman. But almost immediately it is evident he was no John L.

About the only portion of an interview with him that sticks in mind was his statement that Communist soldiers made better troops than the West's troops because our side had no ideal for which to die.

Yes, and guess who started the war in Korea? The North Koreans, by piling over the 38th parallel?

No, the marshal said, eyeing a beer an aide had brought him, the Americans. We invaded North Korea — see?

It was, to the best of my knowledge, Malinovsky's first and last interview. Khrushchev never turned him loose again to face a Western reporter.

He uses him once a year, on the anniversary of the formation of the Red army, to sound off — and thus keep his franchise as "Minister of Defense." The rest of the time he carries roses.

We saw us in the same office graced by a first class military man, Marshal Zhukov, his predecessor. Zhukov had just been named by Khrushchev.

We had asked Khrushchev if we might see him and Khrushchev, with a smile, had replied, "Oh, no. He is taking a much needed holiday. When it is over he will be returned to a post commensurate with his ability."

We asked Malinovsky if he could arrange for us to see Zhukov.

"Oh, no," he said. "He is taking a much needed holiday. When it is over he will be returned to a post commensurate with his ability."

Malinovsky is about as much of a menace to the U. S. as the top general of the Salvation Army is to the Soviet Union.

The Strike

(From a letter written by Joe Saunders, telegraph editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, to an official of the Newspaper Guild in Cleveland, where the newspapers have been closed by a strike since Nov. 30.)

You guys who are pros at embracing the union hall microphones have us typewriter stutterers at a disadvantage. Nevertheless, I think we have some points that ought to be considered in this dreary performance that has cast a pall over the town, is driving us into the hands of the users and is causing thousands of innocent victims to suffer distressing hardships.

For the 20 years that I have been a member of the Plain Dealer unit of the Guild we have, in orders from the New York pohobas, been forced to demand the Guild shop (requiring workers to join the union to keep their jobs).

We never hoped to get it, any more than we would hope that the management might require all of its employees to join the Masons, the K. of C. or Kiwanis. This is still a free country wherein a man joins what he sees fit and can say to hell with it if he sees fit to remain aloof. But this enforced membership has become a great crusade which threatens to sink both the Guild and the newspapers. Irreparable damage has been done to both sides. We are gnawing each other to death in a battle over an issue that for 20 years has been a joke.

I have known years when the

Says Russia's Cuba Setup Indicates 'Permanence'

The Russians are setting up medical hospitals for their troops in Cuba, equipping them with medical supplies paid in tribute by the U. S. for the release of the invasion prisoners. The establishments indicate a substantial degree of permanence.

Arms and trained saboteurs and guerrillas are being shipped to Latin American countries. They are loaded in Cayo Largo, Cayo Breton and Cayo Alcazaz. Cuban refugees (746) who arrived in Florida aboard the ransom supply ship Santo Cero told of increasing numbers of Russians seen in Havana streets. All of them spoke bitterly of the preferential treatment accorded Soviet conquerors by their Red puppets in the island.

'Cuban Situation Is Real Trouble'

The Cuban situation is getting more sickening and dangerous by the day. People should know that once the Communist gangsters take over they have never been known to give up. If they overthrow Castro a Russian puppet will take his place.

Politicians in Washington are like a group of marionettes with Wall Street pulling the strings. It's time they wake up and tell the American people who these international gangsters are. It's time for another "Paul Revere" to ride.

Unemployment, Living Costs

Economics Upsetting Britain, France

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Notes from the foreign news cables:

Economic troubles: The economic facts of life are causing some intense soul-searching on the part of government leaders in Britain and France.

In Britain, the trouble is unemployment—growing continually and threatening to become a political time bomb.

In France, it is the soaring costs of living—which has gone up more than 5 per cent in the past year and is threatening the stability of the new "hard" franc.

Total unemployment in Great Britain—including Northern Ireland—is more than 832,000 this month. It is the basis of growing unrest and could be a major factor in the return of the Labor party to power in the general election which must be held before the fall of 1964.

For France, the increasing costs of living is bringing demands from the powerful labor unions for new wage boosts.

These demands have caused president Charles de Gaulle personal concern, and he has ordered the government to hold the line at all costs.

Family background: In most places in the world, a man can rise above his background. But in class-conscious Communist China, things are different. According to the Peking newspaper Chung-Kuo Ching-Nine Pao, every citizen must fill in on all registration forms and identify cards his "family background," such as "landlord" or "poor peasant."

This classification then is unchangeable throughout the person's lifetime. The purpose of this, the newspaper explains, "is to understand the influence of family on a person, ideologically and politically, before he achieves the status of economic independence, so that he may be understood completely."

Diplomatic revival: The word from Bonn is that there may be a revival of diplomatic activity soon between West Germany on one hand and Hungary and Czechoslovakia on the other.

Poland finally has agreed to let Germany establish a trade mission in Warsaw, and Bonn is angling for permission to do the same in Budapest and Prague. Up to now, the satellite nations have demanded all-out diplomatic recognition or nothing.

Bonn's policy has been to refuse such recognition since the satellites recognize the puppet Communist East German regime. Bonn's policy is to have no diplomatic relations with any nation except the Soviet Union—that gives such recognition. But the value of mutual trade between Bonn and the satellites is another matter.

Emilio Aguinaldo: The Philippine government is expected to heed the request of the nation's grand old man for payment of back pension due him for the years 1939 to 1957.

Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo has made the request from his bed in the Veterans Memorial Hospital in Manila, not as a matter of need but as a matter of right. Aguinaldo, now 93 and ailing, is the man who proclaimed Philippine independence from Spain in 1898, and went on to battle the United States until he was captured.

A national hero, the Philippine Legislature voted him a lifetime pension of 1,000 pesos (then worth $500) a month in 1919. He received it regularly until 1939.

Halt Hunt for Quake Dead as Libya Turns to the Living

EL MARJ, Libya (AP)—The search for bodies was abandoned here. "This is my home," he declared.

Authorities ordered a dusk-to-dawn curfew following outbreaks of looting. Libyan soldiers were ordered to shoot pillagers on sight.

To ease the difficulties of a long spell of tent life for the homeless the Libyan authorities asked British troops to set up electric generators and arrange water supplies.

Man, 58, Waives Exam in State Shotgun Death

PAW PAW (AP)—Howard Atkins, 58, of rural Bloomington, waived examination on a charge of voluntary manslaughter at his arraignment in justice court in nearby Galesburg yesterday.

Atkins was remanded to Van Buren County Jail here in lieu of $12,000 bail to await Circuit Court arraignment in the shotgun death of Albert F. Griffey, 58.

Police said Atkins admitted the shooting Saturday night as the climax of a drinking bout in their migrant quarters near Bloomington.

SCOUTER DIES — Arthur A. Schuck, 67, former chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America, died yesterday in a Santa Barbara, Calif., hospital, suffering from cancer of the liver.

when he ran for president and lost.

The pension stopped and no explanation ever was given, but the reason apparently was politics. At the personal intervention of the late President Ramon Magsaysay, the pension was restored in 1957.

Now Aguinaldo—who comes from a solid middle class family and whose wife's family is wealthy—doesn't need the money previously withheld, but he wants it on principle.

Shotgun Blast Kills Policeman

DETROIT (AP) — Police Sgt. Stanley Sech was correct in his belief that the most dangerous part of his life as a policeman was the possibility of being injured while answering a family trouble call.

Sech was killed early yesterday when a shotgun blast fired through a storm door struck him in the face and wounded four other policemen slightly as they answered just such a call.

Sech, 38, a much-decorated veteran of 13 years of police service, headed the five-man police detail which had hurried to the home of Charles L. Washington on Detroit's Northeast side.

Washington's wife, Louise 34, had told police her husband threatened her with a gun and fired a couple of shots after a family quarrel. She was standing outside the house when police arrived.

Sech and the other officer were talking to Washington through the door, trying to persuade him to come out, when the shotgun blast came. Officers returned the fire and wounded Washington in the arm. He was booked for investigation of murder.

Africa Buys Defense

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—White-ruled South Africa is reportedly putting all its budget surplus into record defense spending to maintain security against African nationalists and Communists within and without the country. The Johannesburg Star quotes Defense Minister J. J. Fouché to that effect.

Frigidity in Men Started With Market Crash

By PHYLIS BATTELLE
NEW YORK — American men are getting it from all sides these days.

It's sort of a refreshing change.

For at least 25 years, women have been accused of being domineering, nagging, nasty, frigid, immoral and generally drags on society.

But these are the new frontier days, and suddenly the onus is on men. Men are regarded if they're young and fit and don't care to walk 50 miles.

Men are poisoning and shooting people on television (for awhile there, scriptwriters had women doing all the vile work). I even saw an article recently accusing men of being "frigid."

I thought this was a whole new worrisome sociological thing, the idea of frigidity in men. I knew there were rude men, greedy men, unfaithful, selfish and henpecked men; but somehow I'd never run across one who'd habitually turn his back on a woman who was standing there waiting to be embraced.

What bath biology wrought, I thought, in the mid-20th century?

After turning to my favorite textbook on men-women relations ("Is Sex Necessary?" by E. B. White and James Thurber, published in 1929 in conjunction with the stock market crash), however, I learned that frigidity in men is not a new phenomenon. It has been going on for some time. At least since 1929.

"Many men have told me that they would not object to sex were it not for its contractual aspect," inform White and Thurber.

"That is, they said they would be perfectly willing to express their eroticism if it could be done at a reasonable distance — say 50 paces. These men found kissing intolerable. When they had an opportunity to kiss a young lady, they declined."

"They made it plain that they would be willing to blow a kiss across the room from their hand, but not execute it with their lips."

Referring to this type man as an "anticontractual person," the authors continue:

"The kiss declined . . . is suffering from a pathology of the eyes — either astigmatism or far-sightedness."

"Of course, the amusing thing about his conduct is that often times a woman assumes that she is being worshiped from afar, when as a matter of fact she is merely being ignored from afar."

"That is part of the trick of an anticontractual person. He takes a perverse delight in allowing the woman whose kiss he had declined, to think of him as more lyrical than other men."

"When he leaves her presence, she is apt to think of him as off somewhere by the bank of a stream, lying flat on his back, his shaggy head buried in the tall grasses, dreaming of something or other (probably of her), whereas, if she would take the trouble to go to the nearest Liggett's Drug Store she would probably find him there, getting a sundae . . ."

"By the mere gesture of declining a kiss, a man can make quite a lot of ground. The woman thinks: 'he would not dream of embracing my body; now that's pretty white of him!'"

"Of course it would be wrong to scribe motives of sheer deliberateness to the frigid male. "Often he is not a bad sort — merely is a fellow who prefers an imagined kiss to the real kind. An imagined kiss is more easily controlled, more thoroughly enjoyed, and less cluttered than an actual kiss."

"Except for the fact that the whole episode is a little bit stuffy, it is a superior experience all round."

"So you see," the authors conclude, "frigidity in men has many aspects, many angles. It is vastly more engrossing than frigidity in women, which is such a simple phenomenon you wonder why anybody bothers about it at all."

It's interesting. When you know the real inspirational story on frigidity, you stop worrying.

First Woman Joins Monaco Parliament

MONTE CARLO (AP)—For the first time a woman was elected Sunday to Monaco's National Council, this principality's 18-member Parliament. She is Roxane Notari, wife of a high school teacher.

Prince Rainier, whose wife is former American actress Grace Kelly, gave women the right to vote and to hold office in proclaiming a new constitution last December.

Women outnumber men 1,922 to 1,174 on Monaco's voting rolls.

About 2.3 million children started attending kindergarten in the fall of 1962.

Junior Editors Quiz on ALASKA

QUESTION: What are the interesting things about Alaska?

ANSWER: Our artist has symbolized some of the interesting things about our new state in his picture of the Alaska Brown Bear, largest of carnivorous land animals, rearing his eight foot height against a background of snowy mountains. Like the bear, Alaska is huge - note its area is one fifth of the main part of the United States - more than twice the size of the great state of Texas.

Like the bear again, Alaska is primeval, with immense mountains, virgin forests, animal life, minerals, timber, water power as yet unused - it's a frontier, as our old West used to be - "the last frontier."

Not all of it is wilderness, for the southern part receives warm winds which blow over the Japanese Current and, as we show, this is excellent farming country. We bought Alaska from the Russians in 1867 and it proved to be a splendid investment.

In 1896, gold was discovered in the Klondike valley of the nearby Canadian Yukon Territory. Going through Alaska to get to the Klondike, prospectors found gold in Alaska, and a large amount is still mined by modern methods. Admitted to statehood in 1959, Alaska looks ahead confident that her almost untapped natural resources will bring her prosperity.

FOR YOU TO DO: Draw a picture of Alaska's state flag. It's background is deep, rich blue; in the lower left are seven stars representing the Big Dipper. A line through the last two stars of the bowl of the Dipper will point up toward Polaris, the North Star, which is by itself in the upper right corner.

'Millionaires Are Hardest Workers'

LONDON (UPI) —Jean Paul Getty, one of the richest men in the world, believes millionaires are the hardest-working people in the world.

"They work longer hours than any other working man," the 70-year-old oil king said last night on a television interview on the British Broadcasting Corporation.

But that doesn't mean Getty is ready to retire.

"I've never had the feeling I'm flushed," he said. "I'm struggling on."

The Minnesota - born tycoon spoke from his 16th Century home in Surrey amid the masterpieces of his private art gallery.

"Of all the classes I know, millionaires are the hardest workers."

Getty said it "was a good thing" he could not take his money with him when he dies because "it might be a burden."

Getty's 70-company empire nets him $11,200 an hour, or $1.9 million a week. He inherited his business from his father.

"I followed in the business," he said. "If my father came back today and asked how the business is going, I'd say 'It's going fairly well.'"

Getty's father started at the bottom when he bought a few acres of seemingly worthless Oklahoma Indian territory for $50.6 The land contained oil.

'Y' Changes With the Times

Mrs. Edward S. Ladd, Neome Drive (left) and Mrs. Fred Stimpert, Finley Street, check a program before the 18th annual meeting of the Pontiac YWCA

Saturday at Oakland University. Mrs. Stimpert is completing her sixth year as president of the board.

In the early days of the YWCA, the program was geared to children and women ages 12 to 35. Nowadays, YWCAs run nursery schools and have programs for women over 60.

Instead of helping frightened, small-town girls adjust to working in the big city, the "Y" now finds itself advising young wives of newly appointed African diplomats on how to behave in London and New York.

Mildred D. Wilcox, executive secretary of the Detroit Metropolitan YWCA, presented a history of the world organization at the 18th annual meeting of the Pontiac YWCA Saturday afternoon at Oakland University.

From its beginning in London when Florence Nightingale was instrumental in organizing a home for working girls, the "Y" has spread around the world and changed its services to keep up with needs of the times.

"The 'Y' is sturdy because it's been there," said Miss Wilcox. "It is here today to help women and girls and the community."

FIRST IN BOSTON
In this country, the first YWCA was organized in Boston in the mid-19th century. Out of it have grown not only thousands of "Ys" all over America, but other organizations.

The International Institutes like the active one in Detroit are an outgrowth of the YWCA. So are the Travelers' Aid Societies, the national Business and Professional Women's Clubs and Business Institutes.

Today's mobile population presents new problems for the "Y." The organization is concerned about international and interracial affairs.

But the underlying purpose is still the same: the YWCA is a Christian lay religious organization that tries to help women live out the lessons they learn in their individual churches.

During the business meeting, new members of the board of directors were announced.

Mrs. Arthur Sweet, Mrs. John Streit, Mrs. Donald Porritt and Mrs. W. O. Roesser were named. Others are Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Bruce F. Hubbard, Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs. Russell Austin.

Margaret Wilson from Waterford High School gave a report of the Y-Teen mid-winter conference held recently at Clear Lake.

The music was presented by the Rochester Senior High School Choir under the direction of Frank Irish.

JUDY ANNE NEWBERG

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Newberg of Kirkway Drive announce the engagement of their daughter Judy Anne of Boston, Mass., to John Robert Bookwalter, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Lee Bookwalter of Columbiana, Ohio.

Bethrothal Announced; Set Date

July vows are planned by Judy Anne Newberg of Boston, Mass., daughter of the William C. Newbergs of Kirkway Drive, and John Robert Bookwalter.

She is a graduate of Kingswood School, Cranbrook and Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., and a member of Sigma Gamma.

Her fiance, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Lee Bookwalter, of Columbiana, Ohio, is an alumnus of Amherst College and will receive his degree from Harvard Medical School in June 1964. His fraternity is Chi Psi.

Set 2nd World Report

Oakland University's second program in the World Report series will be held March 4 at 10 a.m. in the Gold Room of Oakland Center.

The topic, "Automation and Its Effect on American Society," will be discussed by a panel of three university professors.

Donald D. O'Dowd, dean of the university and a psychologist; Dr. Gerald Straka, assistant professor of history; and Dr. John E. Maher, associate professor of economics, will probe the recent economic and technological developments connected with automation, and their impact on American life.

A question-and-answer period will follow the discussion. The member of the audience who submits the most comprehensive question will receive a scholarship award for a liberal arts continuing education course of his choice.

Following the morning program, a buffet luncheon will be served in the north section of the Gold Room.

The World Report series is sponsored by the Oakland University scholarship committee.

LDS Plans Smorgasbord

The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will serve a smorgasbord dinner Friday in the Community Activities Building on Williams Lake Road.

Dinner hours are from 5 to 7 p.m. with special rates for families and children.

Past Presidents to Be Honored

Birmingham Junior Women's Club will entertain all junior and senior past presidents of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Club March 5 in the Birmingham Community House at 8 p.m.

Also to be honored are the past presidents of the Junior Women's Club from the year 1946 to the present.

On the evening's program will be Alice Engram, just returned from a concert tour in New Jersey. This mezzo soprano and lecturer has sung with the New York City Center Opera and toured throughout the United States. Her talk is "Why an Opera?"

Local Club to Represent Canadians

Canada will be represented by the Maple Leaf Luncheon Club of Pontiac at the International Tea and Bazaar to be held at the Elks Temple April 24.

Chairman for the affair is Mrs. Harold Babby with Mrs. Stuart Townsend and Mrs. Harold McDonnell as co-chairmen.

Working with them will be Mrs. Dale Moats, Mrs. Donald Humphries and Mrs. Erwin Rogge.

Club Fetes Husbands

Pontiac Opti-Mex Club members entertained their husbands at an annual cooperative dinner party Saturday night in the Beverly Island home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rose were in charge of the program with Mrs. Robert Bradley, Mrs. Raymond Brash, Mrs. T. V. Hruska and Mrs. DeLise Wilson assisting with arrangements.

Guests included Mrs. Sydney Swindells, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Steel of Detroit, Arthur Donaldson of Denver, Colorado and Louis Michot. Elks Temple will be the setting, March 5 for the next club meeting when members will make cancer pads.

Alexander Zaphiros, executive director of the Oakland County branch of the Michigan Children's Aid Society will address the group.

Garden Club Celebrates Anniversary

Better Home and Garden Club celebrated its 29th anniversary during a tea Thursday. Mrs. John Lyons and Mrs. J. L. Slaybaugh presided at the tea service.

The origin of the crocus, the club exhibit for the month, was presented by Mrs. Arthur Caswell. Mrs. Wallace Morgan reported on the District I meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs in Detroit.

Committee for the day was Mrs. John Cowe, chairman, Mrs. Slaybaugh, Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Mrs. William Maxfield and Mrs. Ralph Parker.

The engagement of Judith D. LaClair to Ralph E. Daulton, son of the Ralph F. Daultons of Seamon, Ohio, was announced by her parents the Raymond LaClairs of Edgewater Drive at a dinner party Friday evening. Her fiance is a graduate of Ohio State University where he majored in mathematics.

Tells Other Side of Story

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: You hear a lot about teen-aged girls going wrong. Here's the other side of the story: I am a male, age 20, and I have a 4-year-old son to support. I've never been married. Her last wish was for me to take care of the baby. Annie was a wonderful girl. I have been running from the idea that I killed her ever since. I joined the Army to forget, but I can't. I haven't dated a girl since.

We thought we were in love. We got serious and before we knew it we had gone further than we had intended to.

I would have married her but I was scared. And I didn't want to be tied down at the age of 16. Annie (not her real name) died nine months later in the delivery room. She left me and her parents with a ten-pound bundle.

Her last wish was for me to take care of the baby. Annie was a wonderful girl. I have been running from the idea that I killed her ever since. I joined the Army to forget, but I can't. I haven't dated a girl since.

I don't think I ever will. Annie's parents are raising the boy and I still haven't the courage to face them and ask them to forgive me. Abby, please keep preaching to teenagers that playing with grown-up ideas is asking for trouble.

SINGLE FATHER

DEAR FATHER: For every girl who gets "in trouble," there is a boy. But seldom does one have the courage to step forward and take the blame. If your letter makes one boy or girl think twice—it's worth the space in this newspaper.

DEAR ABBY: Tell the woman who can't watch television during the day because her husband takes a tube out of the set before he goes to work in the mornings to take another tube out after he leaves.

So when he comes home at night and replaces the tube he took out so he can watch television, it still won't work. SANDY

DEAR SANDY: And what has she gained? Then neither of them will be able to watch it. You remind me of the man who drilled a hole in the bottom of the boat so the other guy would sink.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's new booklet, "How To Write Letters For All Occasions."

New pep for tired husbands!

No wonder so many women complain that their husbands come home "too tired out to step out!" The churning tensions millions of men face on their jobs constantly drain them of the energy and vitality they might otherwise have.

● That's why many doctors recommend supplementing the daily diet with Kretschmer Wheat Germ, nature's great "bounce-back" food. Made from the germinating heart of the wheat kernel, wheat germ is the most healthful food known, according to official U.S. Department of Agriculture studies of the nutritive values of foods.

● Kretschmer Wheat Germ actually provides a total of 30 natural vitamins.

WHEAT GERM

Essentially balanced nutrients essential to good health, vigor and stamina! In addition, it acts like a spark plug to help the body use other high-energy foods more fully.

● Serve your husband this remarkable natural food every day for breakfast and see for yourself how much more zippy and healthy he has!

● Use these delicious, tiny toasted flakes as a cereal, on cereals, or add to pancakes and scrambled eggs.

● Kretschmer Wheat Germ is great for the entire family, so be sure to get some. Look for it in vacuum-sealed glass jars in the cereal section of your food store. Choose either regular or Sugar 'N Honey.

Open Gift in Presence of the Giver

By The Emily Post Institute
Q. The other evening, we entertained for the first time in our new house. It was not a housewarming; we just asked a few of our friends to come in and spend the evening.

One of the guests brought use a gift for our house. I thanked her and put the gift aside.

My husband thinks I was wrong not to have opened the gift in the giver's presence. I thought if I did this it would embarrass the others and make them feel that they were remiss in not bringing presents too.

I would like to know if I was right.

A: In sparing the feelings of those who brought no gifts you were, I'm sorry to say, discourteous to the one who was kind enough to bring you one and I do agree with your husband that you should have opened the present and thanked the giver.

There is no reason why the others should have felt embarrassed.

Q: The invitations to my stepdaughter's wedding have just come back from the engravers and are in my wife's name alone. I have been this girl's stepfather for many years and have supported her up until a year ago when she started to earn her own living.

I feel hurt at being omitted but my wife claims that as long as her real father is living, it would have been improper to include my name on the invitations. Is this true?

A: Your wife is wrong. The invitations should very definitely have included your name and been worded "her daughter" instead of "their daughter."

Q: When the fork is laid down temporarily during a meal, should it be placed on the plate or left resting against the side of the plate with the handle on the table?

A: Always on the plate—never with the handle resting on the table.

The correct wording and addressing of wedding invitations are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Wedding Invitations and Announcements." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Say Vows in Church Ceremony

Wild blue iris and white pompons were arranged in bouquet for Roberta Lou Brooks as she exchanged vows with George Joseph Szydlowski of Wyandotte, in St. Michael's Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Brooks of Durant Avenue, wore white sculptured cotton brocade, silk illusion veiling and pill-box topped with a seed pearl tiara.

Sharon Dion was maid of honor. Carol Butterwick of Trenton attended her former college roommate at bridesmaid, with the bridegroom's sister Mary Ann Szydlowski. Bouquets of blue-tipped white carnations complemented their dresses of royal blue taffeta.

The bridegroom, son of the Joseph Szydlowski of Wyandotte, had his cousin Robert Szydlowski for best man, Daniel Albright of Flint and James Ramsey, Orchard Lake, ushered.

A reception in the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, Waterford, followed the Feb. 16 ceremony performed by Rev. Charles E. Oetting.

The couple hold degrees from Central Michigan University. They are residing in Roseville.

Church Donations Should Fit Your Income

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money
Management

A lot of careless words are thrown around these days about this "materialistic world we live in." Well, I, for one, am inclined to soft-peddle any such easy phrases. When I read the letters that come to me from all parts of the country, I see how deeply concerned many people are with the spiritual aspects of life.

Unfortunately, these, too, must relate to money. Time and again someone writes to ask how an allowance for church donations can be found, where no funds exist. A young couple with small children become conscience-stricken realizing they've taken no part in supporting their community church.

A woman asks for help in making ends meet on a depressingly small income — "But," she admonishes, "don't try to make any change in that $10 a week I give to my church. I just won't cut down on that."

MONEY NOT THE ONLY GIFT

What all of us have to face is that active financial support of a church is necessarily related to the individual's income. Even conscience must somehow be fitted into the budget. But why must money be the only gift acceptable? Time and talents are precious gifts, too. If you can't possibly give all the money you'd like to perhaps you can help raise funds somewhere else.

Most churches need volunteer services — help with bazaars, running many necessary errands, sewing, collecting donations of clothes or supporting food sales with your own homemade pies and cakes.

As to money, give something, of course. I do not believe, however, the individual is expected to neglect his civic obligations, impoverish his family, fail to consider the future, in order to feel he is satisfying his deeper obligations.

Your church needs responsible supporters who can stand on their own feet.

I recall a member of my own church, who gave far more than she could afford, year after year. Eventually, she became old and poverty stricken, and had to turn to the church for her entire support. I can not help wondering if she would have been wiser to have planned more realistically for the future.

People often tell me they are merely confused when they're told "Give what you feel is right." Just what is right?

STATISTICS ON CHURCH DONATIONS
Well, there are some guides available that might be of help. The National Council of Churches of Christ, consisting of the 12 largest Protestant Churches, compiled statistics in 1961 showing the average individual gave $69.89 yearly. In the Reform and Conservative groups of the Jewish congregations, support comes largely from dues averaging $175 for each member.

Beta Mu Unit Hears Report

The Beta Mu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met Wednesday evening at West-side Recreation.

A report on the recent meeting of the sorority's city council was given by Norma Thyle. Donna Burling reported on articles sent to the Oakland County Children's Home, which is the chapter project for this year.

Closing the meeting were four members of the Waterford Kettering High School debating team, under the direction of Patty Looman.

Miriam Unit Meets

The Miriam Unit of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church met at the Winona Drive home of Mrs. Kenneth Anderson Tuesday evening.

Garden Branch Meets

Allied N-Woes Date Back to World War II

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Trouble with the Allies over nuclear weapons has its roots in a secret agreement made 20 years ago at Quebec between President Roosevelt and British Prime Minister Churchill.

Their two nations, along with Canada, were working together to develop the atomic bomb. Their secret, wartime agreement — to exchange information on atomic development — was disclosed after the war.

DISAPPOINTMENT

But the United States ended the agreement after the war and put a lid on information. Years later, in his "Memoirs of the Second World War," Churchill still sounded terribly disappointed.

"I thought the best possible arrangements had been made in the agreement with President Roosevelt."

The British were certainly disappointed. So, later, were the French. Now President Kennedy, for the sake of the cold war alliance, is trying to work some new kind of agreement. He calls it a multinational nuclear force.

That's a vague, mushy-sounding phrase. It's because Kennedy hasn't been clear on what he has in mind. For reasons that follow he probably doesn't know exactly what he can do or how far he can go. Congress has a say in this.

BOTH REPLACED

Roosevelt died before the war with Germany ended and was replaced by President Truman. The British replaced Churchill with Prime Minister Attlee before the war with Japan was ended.

Attlee met Truman in Washington late in 1945 to discuss a future atomic partnership. In his memoirs written years later Truman recalled asking the State Department for an interpretation of the Quebec agreement.

He got this answer and stood by it: exchange of information on how to manufacture the bomb — "know-how" — was to be shared only if necessary to get the bomb made.

The department said this was understood by Churchill's experts working on the problem. But when Churchill was writing many years later he still seemed to have a different understanding.

U. S. REASONING

U. S. reasoning went like this: Although the United States had a monopoly on the bomb in 1945, the Russians eventually would learn how to make it. Meanwhile, this country wasn't going to let the Russians break the monopoly by divulging manufacturing "know-how."

On Aug. 1, 1946 Congress made the clamp-down on information doubly sure with the Atomic Energy Act.

As time passed the United States had to balance its concern about secrecy against its concern for the NATO alliance since it was holding back information in a field upon which the strength of the partnership depended.

The United States had to rearrange its thinking. In 1955 it agreed to exchange some information with the British who, by 1957, exploded a nuclear device of their own. The Russians by then had a bomb of their own.

ACT AMENDED

In 1958 Congress amended the act of 1946, allowing the President to give Allies information on weapons and materials but not weapons or parts of weapons. This could be done only when an ally had made "substantial" progress in the development of atomic weapons. It gives a president room for choosing.

So far Britain has qualified, but not France, although France has had its own atomic explosions.

They are the only two who have made what might be considered substantial progress.

French President de Gaulle wants to make his own nuclear force.

He has this kind of concern, involving the most important restriction of all in the law Congress passed: no matter where American nuclear weapons are placed — say in Europe — the United States must not turn control of some crisis the United States, for them over to anyone else. Thus its own reasons, might not be willing to pull the trigger to back up the United States alone can say when, or if, a weapon is to be fired.

This leaves de Gaulle with the fear — and who can say this country would not feel the same if the positions were reversed? — that the United States must not turn control of some crisis the United States, for know as of now probably doesn't know the answer is this question: What good are the missiles to the Allies if they don't have warheads to put on them. He can't give them the warheads unless Congress changes the law, so what does it add up to? Nobody seems to know.

Winter Makes Walkin' Harder But There's No Harvest Work

There's Time to Take the Kids for a Sled Ride

Feed Must Be Sacked . . . Cows Must Be Fed

Still Plenty to Keep Busy

Winter Changes Farm Life

Ralph Ruggles smiled as he scrubbed the top of his stainless steel milk tank.

"There's isn't much doing on the farm in the wintertime," he said.

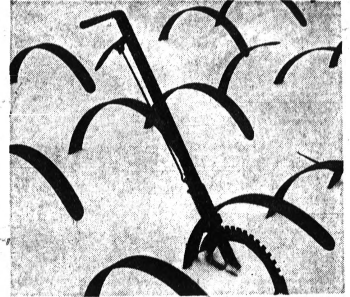

"Just poke down the silage, feed the cows, milk 'em, keep the milking machinery clean, repair the tractor, put up some grain, trim the trees, worry about the price of milk and make out those awful income tax forms."

In the winter, Ruggles has time to play with children Tim 4, and Nancy, 3, and read a little on his McKeatchie Road farm in White Lake Township.

Or he can walk around his more than 100 acres, looking for things that need repairing. His dog Pup goes with him.

In the spring, things will start perking up: planting and getting ready to harvest hay, corn, oats and wheat.

And there are always the 36 cows to take care of.

PONTIAC IN LEAD — Glen (Fireball) Roberts, No. 22, in a 1963 Pontiac, moves ahead of Fred Lorenzen to take the lead during Sunday's 500-mile Daytona stock car race.

Robertson later was forced out of action by engine trouble.

Tiny Takes Biggest Ride at Daytona

Out of Gas at Finish of '500'

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (U) — Big Tiny Lund took the biggest ride of his life Sunday—a $24,600 trip around the Daytona International Speedway.

Lund, driving a 1963 Ford to which he had been assigned only 10 days ago, won the fifth annual Daytona 500 mile stock car race in a late-charging dash that carried him to the biggest pay window in his life.

He finished the long grind completely out of gas, going the last quarter mile on pure momentum. But he finished 24 seconds ahead of Fred Lorenzen of Charlotte, N.C., and 26 seconds ahead of Ned Jarrett of Concord, N.C.

RUNS FISH CAMP

"I couldn't have gone another lap," said the 265-pound Lund, who operates a fish camp at Cross, S.C., as a side line.

Lund, Lorenzen and Jarrett duelled on the 31-degree banked turns of the 2.5-mile Speedway for the last 100 miles with Lorenzen having much the better of things. But Lorenzen and Jarrett, who also had the lead at times, ran short on fuel and each made a pit stop with seven laps to go. Obviously, they hoped Lund would be in the same trouble.

But the fishermen and his car owner and pit crew chief, Glenn Wood of Stuart, Va., elected to keep running. The strategy paid off.

"But not by much," said the sandy-haired Lund. "I actually let Jarrett push me for a while on the back stretch. That may have helped me some, or I may have been just plain lucky."

Lund gained 151.566 miles per hour for the 500-mile race.

PONTIAC'S 7TH, 8TH

Behind Lund, Lorenzen and Jarrett in the order of finish were Nelson Stacy of Daytona Beach, Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., both in 1963 Fords; Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., in a 1963 Plymouth; Bobby Johns of Miami, Fla., in a 1963 Pontiac; Joe Weatherly of Norfolk, Va., also in a 1963 Pontiac; John Rutherford, Ft. Worth, Tex., in a 1963 Chevrolet; and Tommy Irwin of Iman, S.C., in a 1963 Ford.

In addition to the $23,250 first place money, Lund received $1,200 in lap money. Lorenzen was paid $15,450 including the largest lap awards of any driver, $3,900. Jarrett picked up $8,770 and Stacy $4,275.

Lee Yarbrough of Jacksonville, Fla., zipped home in the 250-mile race by three seconds in Saturday modified-sportsman race Saturday credited a six-lap caution flag period with handing him the victory.

LOCAL ENGINE

Yarbrough drove a 1963 Studebaker utilizing a 1963 Pontiac engine. The engine, who set a record of 164.23 m.p.h. for this type car, drove a 1957 Chevrolet with a 1962 Pontiac engine as the power plant.

Average speed for the race was 147.101 m.p.h. as compared with 146.722 when Yarbrough won the same event a year ago.

Golden Gloves Tourney

CHICAGO, (AP) — The 36th annual Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions, boxing's biggest amateur show, opens in the Chicago Stadium tonight.

HE WON — Tiny Lund took a shout of joy after winning the Daytona 500-mile stock car race yesterday.

Two Pontiacs in Leading 10

Goldsmith, Roberts Have Car Trouble

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Two veteran NASCAR drivers, Bobby Johns of Miami, and defending national champion Joe Weatherly of Norfolk, Va., produced the best finishes for Pontiacs in Sunday's $100,000 Daytona 500 mile late model stock car race.

Johns finished seventh and Weatherly eighth in the 50-car field, which included 17 Pontiacs, of which six were 1963 models, nine 1962's and two 1961's.

Johns was in contention until he ran out of gas on the back stretch just after the halfway point, coasted slowly into the pits where he stayed more than a minute.

He had the race for a total of six laps on three different occasions and was in second place at the time. Weatherly lost a lap to the leaders on an early pit stop, and had to make an unscheduled pause later for fuel and was three laps behind winner Wayne (Tiny) Lund of Cross, S.C. at the finish who drove a 1963 Ford.

IN IST PLACE

Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, was the first Pontiac driver to take over the lead. He charged ahead on the 23rd lap of the 200-lap race and stayed there for seven laps before relinquishing the number one spot to A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., also in a Pontiac.

Foyt stayed ahead for five laps, then pulled into the pits for gas. He came back later to recapture first place for one lap on the 64th, but later spun out after blowing a tire.

Glen (Fireball) Roberts of Daytona, who won the race a year ago and whose record speed of 152.329 miles per hour stood for Sunday, led for one lap, the 115th. His engine went out while he was running fourth on the 182nd lap.

Goldsmith had engine trouble on the 39th lap and called it a day.

WEEKEND FIGHTS
LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Dick Tiger, 160, Nierika and Gene Palmer, 160, West Jordan, Utah, drew 15. Tiger retained world's middleweight championship.

Local Women Elks' Winners

Pontiac women bowlers are wearing two crowns today and sharing another as the local lodge 810 concluded its sixth annual Elks Ladies National Invitational Bowling tournament over the weekend.

Local women captured the team title again, took the all-events-with-handicap championship and shared the doubles crown; Michigan women, also, swept the actual all events and singles titles.

Jerry Wollewer Studio of Pontiac took to the lanes Saturday needing a 2,892 performance with handicap to move into first place ahead of the Ladies of Berca Elks 1815 team from Ohio.

The Pontiac women rolled that many and a few more for good measure, capturing first place in the team event with a 2,909 total. The Ohio team had led since the first week of the tournament.

Home Team Bowls Record to Take Title

MILWAUKEE, (U) — Pitch

Change of Milwaukee rallied for a record three-game series in the final block Sunday night in the seventh annual National Women's Team Bowling Championship with a tournament total of 11,384.

The local team, led by veterans Jeannette Bopp, Ellie Konick and Janie Leszczynski, trailed the Los Angeles No. 2 All-Star team by 116 pins entering the final round.

The Pitch team finished in blazing fashion with a 3,943 series, 40 pins more than a record for such a set established by the Tournament Bowl of Oxford, Calif., in 1960.

The Pitches 12-game score bettered the tournament record of 11,377, also established by the Tournament Bowl three years ago.

The Los Angeles No. 2 team had a final block of 2,755 for a total of 11,212. Community Discounts of Chicago was third with 11,084, followed by the Los Angeles No. 1 team with 11,065 and the Seymour Simon Girls of Chicago with 11,041.

CHAMPS SIXTH

The Falstaffs of Chicago, the champions the past two years, finished sixth with 11,035.

Lynne Highland of the Seymour Simon Girls set an individual record of 290 in the 11th game. After taking a spare in the opening frame, the 22-year-old Miss Highland rolled off 11 straight strikes in shattering the single-game record of 278 set by Joan Zega of Roselle Park, N. J., in 1960.

2 Goals for Captains Against Waterford

Sparkles as Wings Win, 3-2

Sawchuk Helps Cure Ills

NEW YORK (UPI) — There's nothing wrong with the Detroit Red Wings' defense that can't be solved with Terry Sawchuk back in the nets.

The Wings' defense, which resembled a sieve the past few games, was air tight again last night as Sawchuk turned in a sensational performance to pace the club to a 3-2 National Hockey League victory over the New York Rangers.

The other old pro of the Wings, Gordie Howe, continued his fine play by setting up all three goals as Detroit rallied in the final period on a pair of goals by Parker MacDonald in less than three minutes in the first period. It boosted Howe's league-leading point total to 64.

Norm Ullman, struggling through a sub-par year, got the first Detroit goal while Andy Bathgate picked up both New York goals.

Sawchuk, who supposedly was sidelined for two months on Jan. 12 when Toronto's Bob Purford skated over his left hand, was brilliant in his second start since the injury.

QUICK SORTIE

Bathgate beat Sawchuk just 69 seconds after the opening faceoff on a rebound of his first shot. After Ullman tied it up at 16:05 of the second period, Bathgate put New York ahead again, 2-1, just 51 seconds later.

Sawchuk protested this goal to referee Vern Bueley since Vic Hadfield banged into Sawchuk and he concede the save. But the puck was still in the crease and Hadfield was on top of him when Bathgate roared in and flicked the puck into the goal.

However, the rest of the game, Sawchuk was the master. MacDonald tied the game at 11:14 of the final period and put Detroit ahead just two minutes and 28 seconds later with the winning goal.

That was enough for Sawchuk. He made several sprawling saves the last eight minutes to protect the Detroit win.

New York's fine goalie Gump Worsley had 42 saves to 28 for Sawchuk, but many of Worsley's were of the routine variety.

Howe was first given credit for all three of the Detroit goals by the official scorer but, after a consultation on each, wound up with the assist.

On the winning goal, MacDonald managed to nick the puck on Howe's 40-foot shot from the right side. That gave MacDonald the deflected Howe's shot into the corner just beyond Worsley's reach. That gave MacDonald, who had scored just 42 goals in his NHL career up to this year, 29 goals for the season.

Ullman picked up his 16th goal when he tipped in Howe's shot

LOSS TO HAWKS

Sawchuk made his first appearance since the injury Saturday night when the Wings host Wings dropped a 3-2 decision to the Hawks — leading Chicago Black Hawks.

He played the first two periods but Hank Bassen came on in the last period when Sawchuk tired. Sawchuk gave up the first two goals in the first period to Ken Wharram and Eric Nesterenko got the winning one off Bassen in the final period.

But Sawchuk was able to play the whole game last night and was strong at the finish.

He'll be back in the nets Tuesday night for his first appearance at Olympia in almost two months when the Wings host New York.

CLOSE GATE — The puck gets past Detroit defenseman Bill Gadsby, but goalie Terry Sawchuk blocks its path to the net. Sawchuk turned in a top performance as the Red Wings tripped New York, 3-2, last night.

Colavito's Bewildered

Tigers Using 'New Approach'

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Rocky Colavito was brought up in the Frank Lane school of blaring contract negotiations, so he is a bit bewildered by the Tigers' new passive approach.

The Rock arrived in town Sunday night feeling slightly ignored and wondering why the Tigers have made so little effort to sign him.

"I can't understand it," said the slugger, outfielder hardened by his boisterous contract squabbles when Lane was his general manager at Cleveland.

BIG QUESTION

"How can you be expected to sign when you haven't hardly talked at all," he asked.

Colavito is one of four Detroit regulars still unsigned with spring training opening Monday for the infielders and outfielders.

He said he hopes to meet Monday with Tiger General Manager Jim Campbell.

"We are not real close," he said when asked if he and Campbell are far apart.

If they don't come to a quick agreement, Colavito will become a holdout for the second year.

"I received a contract in the mail after the first of the year," said Colavito. "When I got it, I called Campbell and we talked a little on the phone."

WANTS TO PLAY

"I figured we'd get together down here and I'm here which proves I want to play. I don't want to be a holdout again."

Campbell has maintained it is unnecessary to rush signing re-hesitant players by talking to them every day.

"If he is not worried about it, I'm certainly not," Colavito said. Colavito signed last year for $52,000 four days after a camp opened. The signing was preceded by several days of verbal bickering with Rick Ferrell, then handling Detroit's general manager's duties.

"Then for five solid weeks, I didn't hear anything from him. When I finally got my second contract, it was almost the same thing. About a week ago, I sent it back unsigned."

Clawson took an early lead thanks to superior rebound work and staved off a third quarter rally that saw the Rams come within 10 points. The Trojans led 50-31 after three quarters.

St. Alphonsus tallied three quick baskets at the start of the fourth quarter against OLSM and the Eagles could not overcome the result of 43-30 lead.

The Eagles led 25-21 at half-time in the third quarter to bring the home team rallying back.

Another Mark Set by Pontiac's Jones

NEW YORK (UPI) — Hayes Jones, the world's fastest indoor high hurdler, isn't letting campency set him.

Jones, a native of Pontiac, set a new record of 41 consecutive indoor hurdle victories at Louisville last week.

Now he's setting a new record in every race. He made it 42 straight by winning the 60-yard hurdles in .47.3 at the National AAU indoor track and field championships at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

Jones, who already holds all four indoor world records, got his usual quick start from the blocks and easily beat Roy Hicks of the United States Army. Chicago's Willie May was third.

Brazilian Netter Wins

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Manual Santana of Brazil, one of the best on clay courts, was forced onto a hardwood floor for the final match in the Dixie International tennis tournament and he won in a grueling 39-game match.

Santana retained his title Sunday by defeating unseeded Fred Stolle, 6-3, 21-19, Stolle, from Australia, got to the finals by upsetting fellow countryman Roy Emerson, world's top-seeded amateur.

Reader Back for Skippers After Injury

OLSM, St. Frederick Suffer Setbacks in Non-League Games

Kettering will be looking to revenge an earlier loss and then its overall record with Waterford Township High School when the two teams collide tomorrow night on the Kettering court.

Waterford edged the Captains earlier this season, 48-45, as Bob Raedler scored 19 markers but it isn't expected to have any advantage Tuesday.

Since that time Raedler has suffered an injured wrist and returned to the Skippers' lineup only last Friday for the first time in two weeks.

The 64-center played with his shooting arm in a cast and tallied 12 times using his left hand in a losing cause. He had been averaging close to 20 points per game until his injury.

The WTHS quiet has lost five games in a row and is burdened with a 3-11 mark this season.

SCORING RECORD

Kettering captured a 72-60 contest from Romeo last Friday as forward Bob Bogert broke his own school scoring record with a 31-point performance.

Since losing to Waterford, the Captains have captured five of six starts and will have the added advantage of the home court.

Neither Bogert nor Earl Hook the other Kettering scoring threat, have been consistent this season with their scoring touch. The former, however, has hit double figures in five of his last six games.

The two schools split two games last season, the first year of competition between the Waterford Township rivals.

In local high school action over the weekend, St. Frederick and Orchard Lake St. Mary both dropped decisions in non-league games Saturday night.

St. Fred was victimized by Clawson, 64-47, while OLSM lost to Dearborn St. Alphonsus, 52-46. In an alumni contest Sunday, St. Fred's won, 71-49.

Clawson took an early lead thanks to superior rebound work and staved off a third quarter rally that saw the Rams come within 10 points. The Trojans led 50-31 after three quarters.

St. Alphonsus tallied three quick baskets at the start of the fourth quarter against OLSM and the Eagles could not overcome the result of 43-30 lead.

Never-Say-Die Gives Golf Pro Tourney Title

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (AP) — It was never-say-die for young Johnny Pott in the Little Tournament of Champions.

The Gulf Hills, Miss., gold pro entered the last hole of the par 72, 6,412-yard Panama Country Club course Sunday trailing Dallas' Earl Stewart by two strokes. Both were off their opening day's 66 clip, but both were hot.

A bad drive and a good putt then spelled the difference to give Pott the $1,000 first place check. Stewart received $750.

Pott's card read 66-70-136, and Stewart shot 66-71-137.

Once-Tired Willie Shouts: Let's Go!

By The Associated Press
Wondrous Willie Mays, nearing his 32nd birthday and the bone-tiring 1962 campaign still a vivid memory, is heading into his 13th major league baseball season with characteristic exuberance none the less.

"It's a new year—let's go," yelled Willie Sunday as he checked into the San Francisco Giants' spring camp at Casa Grande, Ariz., and took his first cuts at bat.

Mays then ripped one up the middle and belted a liner to the fence in right center.

$100,000 PLAYER

Willie moved into the exclusive $100,000 salary class this year after sparking the Giants to the National League pennant last season. He proved a major key to San Francisco's success, despite a mid-September collapse from exhaustion that kept him out of three vital games in the drive to catch the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Joe Pepitone, heir apparent to Bill Skowron as the New York Yankees' first baseman, may have inherited something else from the Moose—back trouble. Pepitone strained his back Sunday in a hard swing during batting practice and was ordered to quit for the day. He reported, however, that he felt much better after treatment.

Skowron, traded to the Dodgers this winter, was bothered by an aching back off-and-on while with the Yankees.

Skowron, meanwhile, signed with the Dodgers for an estimated $30,000. Outfielder Frank Howard is the only player on the club unsigned, but he has agreed to terms verbally.

Two transplanted sluggers went after the ball with a vengeance Sunday. Dick Stuart, swapped from Pittsburgh to Boston rapped eight out of the park in his first Red Sox drill and John Orsino, traded by the Giants to Baltimore, stole the show in Orioles batting practice with four over the fence.

Marlan Coughtry, who has played utility infield for several big league clubs, notified the Cleveland Indians over the week end that he was retiring from baseball because of a back ailment.

EXPENSES RETURNED

Obviously a conscientious type, Coughtry took care of one last piece of business—he returned his spring training expense check to the Indians.

Right-hander Dean Chance looked in mid-season form pitching batting practice for the Los Angeles Angels Saturday, even though he was supposed to be dishing them up so the hitters could hit. Asked why, Chance replied: "I don't want to pick up any bad habits."

Jim Piersall, reportedly at loggerheads with the Washington Senators over 1963 salary, strolled into camp Sunday and signed after only a brief talk with George Selkirk, the club's general manager.

Safe Boating Course Offered at Naval Site

The annual course in safe boating will be held at the U.S. Naval Training Center on East Blvd., starting February 28.

The 8-week course is being offered by the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary and upon completion of the course a certificate will be awarded.

All persons regardless of age are eligible to take the course in safe boating. Persons can register up to 6:30 p.m. prior to the first class on Thursday.

Enrollment fee is $3.00 per person and this includes all required text material.

A person does not have to own a boat to take the course. Commander Jess Herren of Waterford heads the local U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary unit.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night. No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection. In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration. The secret is this new healing substance (Rho-Dyne) — a discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

'Let's Do It the Way Ike Did!'

New Administration Policies Are Evolving

BY RUTH MONTGOMERY
WASHINGTON — General Dwight D. Eisenhower must be feeling pretty good about the way his presidential successor is trying to "get America moving again."

After a series of false starts, trials and errors the past two years, the Kennedy administration has at last been settling on what it regards as the proper road to follow.

Condensed in a nutshell, the guiding principle is: "Let's do things the way Ike did."

During the '60 campaign, the Kennedy entourage scoffed at the "father image," but it apparently didn't take the voters long to decide that papa knew best.

Although candidate John F. Kennedy rode to victory with MONTGOMERY who charged that Ike had permitted a dangerous "missile gap" to develop, his own Secretary of Defense immediately afterwards told a press conference there was no missile gap.

As a matter of fact, Secretary McNamara conceded that we were far out in front of the Russians on that score, just as Ike had insisted.

BURNING ISSUE

Cuba was also a burning issue in the '60 campaign. Youthful Senator Kennedy repeatedly warned that it was "an incredibly dangerous development" to have a Communist base of operations only a few minutes by jet plane off our coast.

Not until more than a year after Kennedy became president did Soviet Russia begin moving offensive missiles, tanks and troops into Cuba, however, and all Americans would have a sigh of relief if JFK could just return Cuba to the shape he found it in when he took office.

Democratic leaders say now, however, that it's unpatriotic to criticize the administration on Cuba.

Candidate Kennedy directed heavy scorn at President Eisenhower for failing to "apologize" to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for flying U2 surveillance planes over Russian territory.

The Kennedy administration now proudly takes to the airwaves to show pictures of Russian military installations, taken by our U2 planes flying over Cuban territory.

The only trouble, it suggests,

To Elect 60 Per Cent

CAIRO (AP) — Cairo radio reports Yemen's President Salih has decided on general elections to choose 60 per cent of a Yemeni House of Sheikhs Senate. The other 40 per cent will be appointed, it said, in a membership of 160 to 180. No date was mentioned.

is that the administration failed to order the U2 photography soon enough.

YESTERDAY'S EXHORTATIONS
It seems only yesterday that candidate Kennedy was flying up and down the land, exhorting the people to beware of a president who suppressed the findings of a U.S. Information agency poll JFK claimed it would show that overseas prestige was slipping.

Now the Kennedy administration is withholding USA polls, and as a consequence we can't find out whether our overseas prestige is showing or not.

Bluntly reminded of this at his last two press conferences, the president now says he may release some of them, one of these days.

Even the social scene is becoming involved with the life and times of Ike and Mamie. One of the first steps taken by President and Mrs. Kennedy on moving to the White House was to alter the press arrangements for covering official receptions.

No more herding of reporters into little groups to watch the proceedings, they decreed. Let 'em mingle with the guests.

It wasn't long before the once-free-wheeling Kennedys discovered that it could be embarrassing to have their conversations with guests quoted in the next day's public print.

New herding rules were consequently established last week, and when reporters complained, Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger blandly announced that they were "essentially the same policy followed by the Eisenhower administration."

As a matter of fact, they weren't that liberal, for whereas society reporters in Ike's day could observe the receiving line and mix afterwards with guests in the receiving line, and reporters were told to skidoo as soon as the Kennedys arrived at the parties.

SURPRISE, SURPRISE

But surprise, surprise! At the diplomatic reception a couple of days later, reporters discovered that the time-honored receiving line had been reinstated.

They not only were allowed to watch it, but to mingle afterwards with guests in the dining room. Shades of the Eisenhower administration.

Another Democratic charge repeatedly hurled at the Eisenhower administration during the '60 campaign was that "news is being suppressed."

Since then, an official Pentagon spokesman has baldly admitted that the Kennedy administration has been "managing" the news.

Since even Democratic lawmakers concede that saying nothing is better than "managing" the news for one's own purposes, perhaps JFK will eventually revert to the old policy.

COLLEGE DESTROYED — Authorities today probed ruins of old Wesleyan College and three apartment buildings in Macon, Ga., to determine cause of $250,000 fire that leveled the nation's oldest chartered women's college and left 30 families homeless yesterday. Two firemen were injured in the worst blaze in Macon's history.

Forgotten Style Back

New Western's Hit Out West

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD — A hit for months in London and Paris, "How the West Was Won" has finally made its Western premiere. It's a hit there, too.

The most frequent comment at the lavish Hollywood opening was: "What a pleasure to see a real movie again."

That can be written with a capital M. For "How the West Was Won" represents a return to the style of film making that in Hollywood seemed almost to have and out of the script with such forgot. It fills the immense speed there is no time to develop them. So they are easily recognizable. James Stewart as a footloose trapper, Henry Fonda ditto, Richard Widmark as a tough-as-nails railroad boss, Gregory Peck as a gambling charmer, John Wayne as a gruff Gen. Sherman, even Raymond Massey as you-know-who.

A notable departure from type is Walter Brennan, lovable grandpa McCoy, as a murderous bushwacker. He is capital.

Debbie Reynolds and George Peppard thread through the film, giving a needed unity. Miss Reynolds gives her first performance of real dimension, and Peppard special mention should be made of the corps of stunt men who participated in the picture. Their work passes so swiftly that it is seldom recognized. They have Bob Morgan, lost his leg and almost his life in a monumental fight above a runaway train that is the climax of the action.

SOME DRAWBACKS

The diligent critic should point out the drawbacks of any production, and "How the West Was Won" has some. James Webb's fine script manages to skirt most of all the Western movie clichés. The spontaneous excitement of the early portions of the film is not quite recaptured as the trek moves West. The Civil War segment is not fully realized.

And Carroll Baker is excellent as a brash young maid, but later George Peppard's mother.

But these are niggling comments about a superlative piece of entertainment. It can do nothing but good for the entire film industry and for the American imagination. Watch out for yet another cycle of Western films.

Cinema has come a long way from its eye-filling but rapid travails. It should be noted that the premiere showing of the film is at the Regency, at the same time that plagued previous efforts in the three-projector process.

State-Based Plane Makes Forced Stop

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A light plane flying from Jackson, Mich., to Springfield, made a forced landing in a snow-covered field last night after it ran low on fuel. The pilot and three passengers escaped injury and the aircraft was not damaged.

William Barnes, the pilot of the single-engine Cessna 170, said he was waiting for clearance to land at Springfield's Capital Airport when he noticed his fuel was running low.

He said he decided to put the craft down in a field covered by one foot of snow.

The plane landed on a farm about a mile east of Central, Ill., which is eight miles north of Springfield.

Barnes declined to identify his passengers, whom he said flew down from Jackson to attend a convention. He said he hoped to fly the craft back to Jackson today.

Inside Story of Wing Star to Be Shown

Hockey fans will have an opportunity to see and hear the inside story Wednesday night when Channel 2 presents "Gordie Howe, Hockey's Living Legend," at 8 p.m.

Howe will be seen and heard in action as he wears a microphone in a game against the Montreal Canadiens. It's the first time a player has ever carried a microphone in a hockey game.

Also included in the program will be appraisals of Howe from outstanding hockey players and coaches.

The Detroit Red Wing star will be followed through practice sessions, strategy meetings and at home with his family.

Claims Federal Deficit Doesn't Promote Growth

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., said today that history disproved the theorists who argue that large federal deficits contribute to economic growth.

"From 1957 to date," Proxmire said in a statement, "federal deficits have averaged a heavy $6 billion per year. And yet, economic growth has been a slow-moving despite of current economists during this very period."

Thief Steals Coin Collection

WASHINGTON (AP) — Somewhere there's a thief with 60,000 bright, shiny pennies and an assortment of other loot.

Geneva Chancey, 45, and Betty Sanders, 40, told police that when they returned to their apartment Sunday night they found a burglar had taken luggage, a watch, 100 assorted shares of stock and their coin collection.

They reported 60,000 uncirculated 1961 pennies—a face value of $600—missing. Also gone were 200 proof sets of 1961 coins from U.S. mints with face value of $182.

U.S. Questions Red Ban Plan

GENEVA — The chief American disarmament negotiator today to explain what it means by on-site inspection for a nuclear test ban treaty.

U.S. Delegate William C. Foster told the 17-nation disarmament conference the Soviet offer of two or three inspections per year is meaningless unless the inspection procedure is spelled out.

"The Soviet position is completely unknown to us except for two numbers which stand stark and alone in the middle of a featureless desert," Foster declared.

Ted Denies Seizing of Camera

"And even those numbers may be a mirage unless we can see them organically related to some kind of verification system which will give them life and meaning."

Foster, who returned Sunday from consultations in Washington, recalled that the United States had reduced its minimum demand for inspections from eight to seven. He hinted that even that figure was negotiable.

Foster expressed the hope that Soviet First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, who unexpectedly left for Moscow Saturday, would soon return to the negotiations. He has repeatedly described Kuznetsov's presence at the head of the Soviet delegation as proof of the Soviet Union's sincere desire to negotiate a treaty.

The Soviet position has been completely frozen since the conference resumed Feb. 12 after a two-month recess. Foster said

"All of your talk about the Bay of Pigs was after the event," he told Scott.

He went on to say that by advocating drastic action against Cuba, Scott was "trying to do what the Friday afternoon quarterbacking—and you don't know the signals."

Scott went on to urge an ultimatum to the Soviets to get their troops out of Cuba. He said the United States should not let the Latin American neighbors to join in a "total Western Hemisphere blockade" of Cuba.

The chairman of the Organization of American States said Sunday might be thought the OAS would support another blockade.

OAS Chairman Gonzalo J. Fazio noted in a television interview that the organization voted unanimously last October to support the U.S. quarantine on offensive arms shipments to Cuba.

Scholle Blasts Proposed Constitution

AGAINST PROPOSED CONSTITUTION — Gus Scholle, state AFL-CIO president (center), and State Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-S.L. Shores (right), were featured speakers at a "Fact Conference" on the proposed Michigan constitution at Pontiac Motor Local 653 during the weekend. Moderator for the discussion was Fred Haggard, president of the local AFL-CIO council.

Scholle called the proposed state constitution Saturday a "sinister, diabolical plot" that would "make political serfs out of the rest of our lives."

He spoke before some 150 union members at an AFL-CIO sponsored "Fact Conference" at Pontiac Motor Local 653 Union Hall.

The president of the state AFL-CIO Council devoted three-fourths of his 40-minute speech to a denunciation of the document's apportionment provisions.

"If you vote yes on-con, he he told his audience, "you will be voting away your birthright, voting for discrimination, voting to make citizens unequal."

"There is no more outrageous kind of discrimination that can exist against a citizen in a democracy," he said.

Under this provision, he continued, "our vote is only a fraction as good as somebody else's. It could be so fractionalized that our vote would be meaningless."

He said that if the document is approved, 29 per cent of the people could elect a majority

Armed Man Robs Cabbie

A Pontiac cab driver was robbed at knife point of $18 by a passenger early yesterday morning.

Eldon Robinette, 56, of 17 Exchange St., told police he was grabbed around the neck and threatened by his passenger when they reached his destination, Wall and Perkins streets.

Robinette, who drives for Chief Cab Co., said he picked up the man on South Paddock Street about 12:30 a.m.

He called it a "blueprint for the Republican party to control government."

"We should not permit a vehicle that would allow a small group of people to take control of our government," he said.

In 133 places, Snyder pointed out, the constitution contains the phrase "as provided by law."

"This, he said, will give 'a carte blanche, to the legislature to take away our rights.'"

POINT BY POINT

In a point-by-point review of the proposed document, Snyder hit at:

1. Apportionment provisions which would "make legal, things that aren't legal."

2. Advise and consent provisions which give added power to "the malapportioned legislature."

3. Removal from elective status the auditor, treasurer, high-

Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Chinese Communist chief Mao Tse-tung seem to be dipping their toes gingerly into the waters of reconciliation.

There are indications from both Moscow and Peking that the leaders of the two ideological giants want to bridge their ideological and political fissures which has rocked the Communist world.

Signs of a thaw in the icy relations began to appear 10 days ago.

Among the latest developments:

Early Morning Mishaps Occur in Area

Traffic accidents in Oakland County early this morning took the lives of two men.

Bruce A. Gregory, 25, of 116 N. Johnson St. and William Marier, 31, of Livonia were killed when their cars went out of control and struck trees.

Gregory's body was found by sheriff's deputies near the wreckage of his car on Cooley Lake Road, just west of Hiller Road, in West Bloomfield Township.

The accident was discovered at 1:57 a.m. A coroner's report listed the time of death at about 1:30 a.m.

Marier was traveling west on 10-Mile Road when his car went off the road just east of Kipling Street in Oak Park.

A Pleasant Ridge scout car was following Marier when he lost control of his auto.

Police said Marier was not traveling west, but his driving was erratic.

The accident occurred at 2:35 a.m. Marier was dead on arrival at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

Incumbent Edward Emery is unopposed for associate judge.

James E. Doris D. Mosher and James E. Tobin filed for the two vacancies on the library board.

Mrs. Hanley said candidates have until Saturday to approve the petitions.

Filing for positions on the city commission of Bloomfield Hills were incumbents John S. Bugas, Lyman J. Craig and Robert Fyfe plus David W. Lee and Louis J. Colombo Jr.

Filing for constable was Homer J. Murphy.

Church Donations Should Fit Your Income

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

A lot of careless words are thrown around these days about this "materialistic world we live in." Well, I, for one, am inclined to soft-peddle any such phrases. When I read the letters that come to me from all parts of the country, I see how deeply concerned many people are with the spiritual aspects of life.

Unfortunately, these, too, must relate to money. Time and again someone writes to ask how an allowance for church donations can be found, where no funds exist. A young couple with small children become conscience-stricken realizing they've taken no part in supporting their community church.

A woman asks for help in making ends meet on a depressingly small income — "But," she admonishes, "don't try to make any change in that $10 a week I give to my church. I just won't cut down on that."

MONEY NOT THE ONLY GIFT

What all of us have to face is that active financial support of a church is necessarily related to the individual's income. Even conscience must somehow be fitted into the budget. But why must money be the only gift acceptable? Time and talents are precious gifts, too. If you can't possibly give all the money you'd like to perhaps you can help raise funds somewhere else.

Most churches need volunteer services — help with bazaars, running many necessary errands, sewing, collecting donations of clothes or supporting food sales with your own homemade pies and cakes.

As to money, give something, of course. I do not believe, however, the individual is expected to neglect his civic obligations, impoverish his family, fail to consider the future, in order to feel he is satisfying his deeper obligations.

Your church needs responsible supporters who can stand on their own feet.

I recall a member of my own church, who gave far more than she could afford, year after year. Eventually, she became old and poverty stricken, and had to turn to the church for her entire support. I can not help wondering if she would have been wiser to have planned more realistically for the future.

People often tell me they are merely confused when they're told "Give what you feel is right." Just what is right?

STATISTICS ON CHURCH DONATIONS

Well, there are some guides available that might be of help. The National Council of Churches of Christ, consisting of the 12 largest Protestant Churches, compiled statistics in 1961 showing the average individual gave $80 yearly. In the Reform and Conservative groups of the Jewish congregations, support comes largely from dues averaging $175 for each member.

JEANS

for six days only, beginning Feb. 25

Tote that boy of yours to H-H-S for some mighty pleasing savings on Billy the Kid jeans . . . which every bronc-buster in the schoolyard will tell you are the Number One favorite. They fit like a cowboy's jeans, and wear like rawhide — because they're made of heavyweight, tightly-woven 11¼-oz. stabilized denim . . . with a sturdy double knee and extra-strong stitching all around. They're vat dyed, Sanforized, and they dry smooth without ironing. Talon zippered, too. In navy, brown or green. Husky sizes in navy and green only. Get a full year's supply now — while they're on sale!
