Nixon Woos Texas; Humphrey Plans Michigan Visit

By The Associated Press

With President Johnson reaffirming he'll steer clear of "partisan politics," Republican Richard M. Nixon is trying to woo back the Texas votes that shifted to the Democrats when Johnson ran for public office.

★ ★ ★

And Vice President Hubert Humphrey will visit Michigan next Wednesday with stops at Saginaw and Flint, State Democratic party headquarters announced yesterday.

Details of the trip—Humphrey's first since winning the Democratic presidential nomination — will be announced later, the party said.

State Chairman Sander Levin, in making the announcement, said Michigan "is a key state in the vice president's plans to win the election. We in the Democratic party of Michigan are determined to do everything we can to insure a victory for the Humphrey-Muskie ticket here.

Nixon fell only about 45,000 votes short of winning Texas' 25 electoral votes when he lost to the John F. Kennedy-Johnson ticket in 1960.

Texas had come through with majorities over 100,000 for the Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower-Nixon pairing in the two previous elections.

Nixon appeared in Houston yesterday on the third day of a cross-country campaign and contrasted his own policies with what he termed "the policies of the last four years."

When Nixon arrived at the Houston airport, he was met by Ben Carpenter, a wealthy Dallas resident and former Johnson backer.

Carpenter helped organize "Texans for Eisenhower" in 1952 and 1956 and said he is planning to lead "Texans for Nixon" this year.

While Nixon was in Texas, the President was telling a news conference he would speak on "matters affecting this administration," but would refrain from "partisan politics."

Nixon said in his Houston speech, "The Nixon road and the Humphrey road are miles apart . . . There is not a dime's worth of difference between the policies Hubert Humphrey offers America and the policies America has had the last four years."

Nixon was urged to make the speech by Texas Republicans concerned by the threat of third-party presidential candidate George C. Wallace, who had said there's "not a dime's worth of difference" between the Republicans and Democrats.

Teachers Strike Across Nation

By the Associated Press

Teacher strikes and threats of strikes have spread across the nation, leaving students in many cities wondering whether there will be classes Monday.

Teachers in New York City moved to the brink of a strike that could keep more than a million students at home.

Some 2,500 delegates at a meeting of New York City's United Federation of Teachers voted overwhelmingly to begin a strike Monday unless a local school board in Brooklyn agrees to reinstate 10 teachers who were dismissed last spring.

MICHIGAN STRIKES

In East Chicago, Ind., a teachers' strike that began Wednesday had closed down all but one of the city's 13 elementary and high schools.

Meanwhile, teacher strikes kept 60,000 students out of classes in 10 school districts in Michigan. Teachers were working without contracts as negotiations continued in 31 other Michigan districts.

Teachers ratified a two-year contract with the Charlevoix Board of Education yesterday. The 1,444 students in the district were scheduled to return to classes Monday after losing three days of school.

Fact-finding procedures were expected to continue over the weekend in most of the troubled districts. A spokesman for Lt. Gov. William Milliken, troubleshooter in the school situation, said meetings with fact-finders and preparation of reports have slowed the settlement rate.

A strike by 500 teachers prevented registration of 14,000 pupils this week in the Clarksville-Montgomery County school system in Tennessee.

'Road Curve Is Dangerous'

Moms Unite for Kids' Safety

White Lake Township mothers, concerned about the high speed of cars rounding a curve near Oxbow Lake Elementary School, have formed an emergency safety patrol to protect their children.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

"We don't mind them walking," says Mrs. Robert Wallace of 10053 Cedar Shores, a mother of two. "It's the dangerous conditions that concern us."

NO LIMIT POSTED

Mrs. Wallace said that since no speed limit is posted, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department told her the speed limit was 65 mph.

"Near the school, the road curves where there is a dam control, and the children have to walk on a narrow path between the bumper guards and the road," she added.

Sixteen other mothers have joined Mrs. Wallace in forming the safety patrol.

A group of 12 mothers called Clifford A. Scherer, administrative assistant of the Huron Valley schools, to tell him of the dangerous conditions that exist because of the curve and because there are no crosswalks.

Scherer said the school board has requested the Oakland County Road Commission to paint crosswalks and install appropriate signs marking the school area.

The board will receive a request to hire three adult crossing guards at Monday night's meeting, he said.

He added that White Lake Township Supervisor James L. Reed has been cooperating with him in an effort to have the speed limit on the curve reduced.

Oakland County Highway Department officials said they will make a radar check of the area to determine whether the present speed limit is appropriate.

NO PROMISES

So far, the mothers said, they have received no promise of immediate temporary action and will continue to act as a safety patrol until they feel their children will be safe.

Greeks Say 20 Admit Roles in Bombing Plot

ATHENS (AP) — The Greek government today said that 20 persons had been arrested in connection with the assassination attempt against Premier George Papadopoulos, and "all of them have confessed their guilt."

It accused the Paris-based "Greek Resistance Organization" of planning the attempt last Aug. 13.

★ ★ ★

Regime press spokesman Byron Stamatopoulos told newsmen that Alexander Panagoulis, an ex-army private arrested within minutes after the attempt, showed police where bombs had been planted around the city by the resistance group.

He said that bombs were found on the Acropolis and city gardens and parks and where large crowds gathered.

Schuler's Suspect Held

MARSHALL (AP) — Marshall police said they made the first arrest today in connection with the $20,000 Labor Day robbery of Schuler's hotel and restaurant.

The name of the man taken into custody was not revealed immediately by police.

3 City Men Are Charged in Attempt to Bribe Officer

Bribery charges were leveled yesterday against three Pontiac men who allegedly were involved in a payoff to a Pontiac policeman.

The attempted bribe, reported to be $800, was intended to influence a gambling case pending against one of the men, Carmon Green, 43, of 5 Pingree, according to Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Thomas G. Plunkett.

Green was charged with bribery and two counts of conspiracy to bribe, while conspiracy to bribe charges were ordered against William Moncier, 34, of 428 N. Perry and Roy Murphy, 79, of 60 S. Marshall.

PERSONAL BOND

Following their arrests, the three were arraigned before Pontiac Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum. He released them on personal bond pending their preliminary examination Oct. 9 at 9 a.m.

Rood and another vice squad officer, Guy White, had met Moncier and Murphy prior to Rood receiving the money from Green at a prearranged meeting in Waterford Township, Plunkett said.

★ ★ ★

He said that Green gave Rood the money in an attempt to reduce the gambling charge from a felony to a misdemeanor.

GAMBLING CHARGE

Green, according to Plunkett, was trying to get a charge of conspiracy to violate state gambling laws reduced to operating a gambling house.

The gambling case has been taken under advisement by Judge McCallum.

192 Are Arrested in Welfare Sit-In

From Our News Wires

ANN ARBOR — Police arrested 192 University of Michigan students in the Washtenaw County Building yesterday as they protested in favor of higher payments to welfare mothers.

★ ★ ★

The students were charged with violating the state trespass law, the same charge leveled against 52 demonstrators arrested Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

The students said they were demonstrating on behalf of welfare mothers who want bigger payments so they can clothe their small children for school this fall.

They said they objected to a county board of supervisors rejection of a proposal to base the children's clothing grants on a family need basis instead of a flat yearly rate. The board agreed to boost the payment from $40 to $60 per year per child but would go no further.

Sheriff's deputies from the counties of Wayne, Monroe, Oakland, Jackson and Livingston were on hand, in addition to about 100 State Police kept outside the city.

A detachment of the Oakland County Tactical Mobile Unit, accompanied by 10 police dogs, was used to hold back a crowd that varied from 500 to several thousand persons at different times.

STRONG ARM OF THE LAW — A helmeted sheriff's deputy ejects a University of Michigan student from the Washtenaw County Building in Ann Arbor. The students protested yesterday in sympathy with women who claimed their welfare payments were too low to allow them to adequately clothe their children for school.

New Terror Wave Is Feared in Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — Seven terrorist attacks in Saigon within 24 hours raised fears today that the enemy command is beginning a new wave of terrorism.

American servicemen were advised to stay off the streets during the night and to carry their weapons with them at all times. But U.S. officers said they did not foresee an imminent attack on Saigon.

Police said the terrorists were trying to frighten their victims into turning against the South Vietnamese government.

Intelligence reports have said that a terror campaign would be a prelude to and a key part of any major attack on Saigon, which presumably remains the ultimate goal of any third offensive by the enemy.

2 CHILDREN INJURED

In the most serious of the new incidents, a bomb exploded in an unoccupied office in Cholon, the Chinese section of Saigon, injuring a woman and two schoolchildren in a schoolyard next door.

The office belonged to the Association of Chinese Regional Administrative Groups, a group of Vietnamese civic leaders of Chinese origin which backs and is supported by the government.

The bombing took place only three blocks from a government information office and two other buildings that were wrecked by an explosion last night that killed nine Vietnamese and wounded 55. The dead included four children.

Also last night, a Vietnamese ward chief was shot and critically wounded in the dock area of Saigon by a woman about 20, police said. She escaped.

POWER STATION HIT

Police said a power transformer station was slightly damaged yesterday afternoon when a bomb exploded next to it.

The other incidents involved grenades tossed at ward chiefs and government facilities with only a few casualties and minor damage reported. One terrorist tried to blow up a U.S. Navy truck with a booby trap, but it was discovered in time and defused.

In addition, an enemy 100-pound rocket slammed into the southern edge of Saigon around midnight, killing one Vietnamese woman and wounding 11 other persons, including eight children.

37 ENEMY KILLED

Four South Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed and 28 wounded. Five civilians also were wounded. Enemy casualties were put at 37 killed.

My Tho itself, an important civilian and military center 40 miles southwest of Saigon, also came under a mortar attack.

Senate Passes Spending Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $19-billion money bill containing a slap at President Johnson and big increases over sums voted by the House for antipoverty, education and health programs.

The measure was sent to conference with the House which passed a $17.2-billion version June 26.

The Senate considered about $1.1 billion of budget requests from President Johnson in connection with the bill which were not before the House. This accounted for a large part of the Senate boosts over the House totals.

The final Senate figure still was $300 million below Johnson's requests for the agencies covered by the bill—chiefly the Health, Education and Welfare and the Labor departments and the Office of Economic Opportunity, which administers the antipoverty program.

SLAP AT PRESIDENT

The Senate took a slap at the President by voting to require the spending of $91 million in impacted-areas school funds despite his decision not to do so.

This is the program started during the Korean war to reimburse school districts for expenses involved when their populations become swollen by federal installations in their areas.

The $91 million restores the program to full entitlement instead of the 80 per cent Johnson sought.

During three days of floor debate, the Senate added to the over-all bill almost $500 million more than its appropriations committee approved.

Biggest increase was $215 million for the OEO, which passed, 37-26, over the objections of Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.

LBJ Hopes for OK of N-Spread Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although concerned about the situation in East Europe, President Johnson says he hopes for approval of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty and is keeping the door open to possible arms talks with Russia.

But, the President acknowledged Friday, the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia has clouded prospects for beginning talks on curbing the missile race. The Russians agreed to the talks before the invasion.

* * *

"I see none in the offing," he said of the chances for a meeting before he leaves office in January.

The prospects for peace abroad and success at home in such things as cutting federal spending and getting his nomination of Abe Fortas as Supreme Court chief justice through the Senate dominated an impromptu news conference in the White Cabinet Room.

NO PARTISAN PLANS

The President also touched on politics. He said he hoped to see the Democratic ticket win in November. But he added that he still had "no desires or plans or hope to enter into any personal partisan political activities."

On the nonproliferation treaty, Johnson said, "We continue to believe that the treaty is very much in the interest of the United States despite the recent developments" in East Europe.

* * *

His comment came after Senate leaders reported chances for ratification this year were not helped by the Czech invasion or reported Russian threats to Romania.

Despite the pessimism on the part of Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, who met with the President before the news conference, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee said he will press for action next week.

NEARLY 80 SIGNERS

Democrat Albert Gore of Tennessee said he would move for a meeting Tuesday. He told the Senate that failure to ratify the treaty could slow the momentum of worldwide approval. Nearly 80 nations, including Russia, have signed the treaty.

Troubleshooter Soviet Diplomat at Prague Talks

PRAGUE (AP) — A top Soviet diplomatic troubleshooter was in Prague for political talks today as the Soviet press complained that Czechoslovak liberals are still not steering close enough to the Moscow line.

First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasile Kuznetsov, who arrived yesterday, began meeting immediately with Czechoslovak President Ludvik Svoboda. Their discussions were described as "a frank and comradely exchange" on relations between the two countries. In Communist terminology, "frank" means they disagreed.

* * *

Kuznetsov has figured prominently in some of the Soviet Union's most difficult problems of the past including the 1962 Cuban missile crisis.

It was expected he would also meet with Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek and other Czechoslovak leaders during his visit.

* * *

The government-controlled Soviet press has made plain the Kremlin's displeasure at what it considers the Czechoslovaks' lack of speed in carrying out their part of the Moscow accord — a clampdown on liberalization. In return, Soviet occupation forces are to leave when the situation "normalizes."

The Soviet news agency Tass said Friday the "appearance of normalization" would not be enough.

Tass said Soviet troops cannot be withdrawn from Czechoslovakia until conditions are "created which would exclude the possibility of actions by counterrevolutionary forces."

RFK Successor Hinted

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Tuesday will name Rep. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., to succeed the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, according to sources close to the governor.

Fortas Foes Just Little Group--LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says a little band of senators is holding up confirmation of his Supreme Court nominations. But the opposition claims its forces are building toward a majority.

Neither side gave an inch yesterday. Delay is the opposition's chief weapon.

Johnson contended yesterday that a little group of senators — "a sectional group primarily" — is resorting to parliamentary tricks and a filibuster to thwart the majority will.

* * *

But foes of his nominations of Abe Fortas and Homer Thornberry, claiming growing strength, retorted there is nothing sectional about the opposition. They said it represents the will of the people across the country.

Fortas, an associate justice of the Supreme Court since 1965, has been nominated to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren, who has resigned. Thornberry's nomination is to take Fortas' place as an associate justice.

* * *

Supporters of the nominations said it looks as though Johnson is going to lose.

Mexican Police Stop 'Kidnap' of Cuban Refugee

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexican authorities intervened last night to aid a Cuban political refugee who said the Cuban ambassador and six embassy personnel were trying to force him on a Cuban airlines flight back to his native country.

The refugee, Juan Ojeda Femarrola, 30, arrived at the international airport with his arms held by members of the party of Ambassador Joaquin Hernandez Armas, witnesses said.

* * *

As the party entered the airport Ojeda began shouting for protection, declaring he was a political exile, they said.

Before he could be pushed through immigration with a diplomatic passport, police intervened and took the party to a nearby office.

POLICE PROTECTION

Hernandez, who stormed out of the airport, later issued a statement saying the Cuban Embassy would make a formal protest to the Mexican government for what it called the "illicit kidnaping of a Cuban citizen enjoying diplomatic immunity while in transit through Mexico to Cuba."

* * *

Ojeda told reporters that he had been employed at the Cuban Embassy but that following difficulties there, he had asked for and received asylum from Mexico.

He said he was constantly followed until he was finally captured by the Cubans about a week ago.

* * *

Airport authorities said that the Ministry of Interior has sent out an official notice indicating Ojeda had asked for asylum in Mexico.

Spanky, Gang Get Rocking Reception

Spanky and Our Gang entertained an estimated 8,000 on a cool evening at the Meadow Brook pavilion, in a concert sponsored by the Student Activities Board and the Off Campus, a student-run coffee shop.

* * *

What the blanketed crowd heard was a wide assortment of tunes ranging from oldies like "Coney Island Washboard" and "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime" to the latest rock hits, including the group's biggest, "Sunday Will Never Be the Same."

With an individualistic style which bordered on barber shop harmony at times, the six-member group received enthusiastic support through the evening.

GUITARIST'S HOMECOMING

It was a homecoming for guitarist Nigel Pickering, who grew up in Pontiac. He is a graduate of Pontiac Central and a former Pontiac Press carrier.

Spanky and Pickering both sought refuge in the same chicken coop near Miami some three years ago during a hurricane. They started to sing, and Spanky told him if he were ever in Chicago to look her up and they would sing together.

* * *

He did, they acquired other members and they were off on their way to top popularity around the nation.

French Unrest Surges

PARIS (AP) — France's university problems suddenly surged up again — after two months of holiday recess — when more than half the medical students refused to take an exam in a Paris suburban college.

The medical students, who took an active part in the riots last May and June, demand that the yearly final exams be replaced by a continuing check of each student's work all year long.

'Pueblo Accord Due by Monday'

SEOUL (AP) — A South Korean newspaper said today U.S. and North Korean negotiators are likely to settle the Pueblo case by Monday, and the North Koreans announced they will have "important reports" tomorrow.

* * *

Quoting unidentified sources, the newspaper Chosun Ilbo said the negotiators met Aug. 29 and discussed a draft letter of the apology the North Koreans have demanded from the United States.

* * *

The North Koreans claim the U.S. intelligence-gathering ship Pueblo was intruding in their territorial waters when they seized it Jan. 23. They have demanded an apology as a condition for release of the 82 crewmen.

Chosun Ilbo said the U.S. side made some concessions at the last meeting but also suggested amendments to the draft proposed by the North Koreans. It said another meeting is scheduled at the truce village of Panmunjom, at which the North Koreans are expected to react.

* * *

The North Koreans' official news agency did not say what the special reports Sunday would concern. Sunday is the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the North Korean Peoples Republic. There has been speculation this might be the date for a break in the Pueblo case.

Area Doctor Pleads Innocent in Tax Case

Dr. Gregg L. Dunlap, 51, of 2144 Avondale, Sylvan Lake, pleaded not guilty yesterday in Federal District Court in Detroit on four charges of wilfully failing to file income tax returns for 1963-66.

He reportedly earned a total gross income of $112,104.89 during the period. If convicted he could be fined up to $40,000 or imprisoned for four years or both.

2 Feared Dead in Coho Quest

FRANKFORT (AP) — Two persons were presumed drowned in 20 foot seas in Lake Michigan yesterday after gale-force winds threatened the lives of scores of coho salmon fishermen.

Vernon Watley, 36, of Chicago was washed overboard from a cruiser on which he was riding with three other persons near Ludington, officials said.

* * *

The Coast Guard said it spotted an overturned boat near Frankfort off the northwestern Lower Michigan coast. Later, a Coast Guard spokesman said, officials were notified the fisherman using the boat had not returned from his trip into the lake.

Several other boats were reported to have capsized under the force of winds gusting to 40 knots.

WARNING EFFORT

Two Coast Guard helicopters equipped with bull horns and a State Conservation Department flew over the lake to warn the fishermen.

The Coast Guard also put two rough-water boats into the warning effort, towing one disabled fishing craft to refuge and alerting others.

* * *

But the Coast Guard said a number of fishermen ignored pleas to head for shore.

Small craft warnings were posted when many of the fishermen headed into the lake yesterday, the Coast Guard said.

At the time, waves were five feet high, the spokesman said.

Carillon Recital Will Feature Two Students

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Two high school students will be the guest artists for tomorrow's carillon recital at 4 p.m. from Christ Church Cranbrook.

They are Betsy Austin of 1770 Tiverton, Bloomfield Hills, a senior at Kingswood School Cranbrook, and Carol Jickling, 600 Shepardbush, Birmingham, a 10th grader at Seaholm High School.

* * *

The girls are members of the Cranbrook Carillon Guild. Their recital will be a replay of the May 26 concert which was rained out.

All carillon recitals are open to the public without charge. Concert-goers may sit on the church lawn or in their cars.

BOTANY COURSE

Cranbrook will also be the scene of a field course for non-botanists this fall. Conducted by Dr. James R. Wells, associate botanist at the Institute of Science, it will run on Tuesdays and Thursdays from Sept. 17 through Oct. 10 from 1 to 3 p.m.

The course, "Fall Wildflowers," will consist principally of short trips to study the variety of fall flora, according to Dr. Wells.

* * *

Participants in the course are expected to provide or share transportation. Fee for the noncredit course is $25 and interested persons are asked to call the Institute of Science for registration information.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Work is scheduled to begin Monday on the paving of Walnut Lake Road between Inkster and Franklin roads.

According to County Construction Engineer Dennis A. Grylicki, the one-mile strip of road will receive grading, drainage and full depth bituminous surfacing.

* * *

The $198,000 project will be constructioned by Ben P. Fyke & Sons of Berkley and is expected to be completed by Nov. 1.

Walnut Lake Road will be closed to through traffic, although access for local traffic will be provided, Grylicki said.

Registration and the first class will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at East Hills Junior High School, 2800 Kensington.

* * *

According to a squadron spokesman, the class is one of the most complete and comprehensive boating courses available to area boaters.

The course will cover all nautical subjects applicable to outboard, inboard and sail boats, from six-foot runabouts to large cruisers.

* * *

The classes are presented through lectures and demonstrations and are open to anyone interested in safe boating.

1969 Monterey Longer, Has New Chassis

The 1969 Mercury Monterey offers a new chassis, longer body, and increased wheelbase. The new look closely resembles the Lincoln Continental with its characteristic long hood and short deck.

When Mercury was introduced in 1939 a wheelbase of 116 inches and length of 195.9 inches were recorded as compared to the 1969 dimensions of a 124-inch wheelbase and over-all length of 221.8 inches.

Nine models will be available in the Monterey and Monterey custom series in various body styles: four-door sedan, four-door hardtop, two-door hardtop, station wagon and convertible.

Local car dealers displaying the Monterey series after Sept. 27 are: Kaverley Mercury, 420 Main, Rochester; Don Spiker Ford, 130 S. Milford, Milford; Hillside Lincoln-Mercury, Inc., 1250 Oakland, Pontiac; and Bob Borst Sales, 1950 Maple, Bloomfield Township.

Two optional 429-cubic-inch displacement V8 engines, with either 320 or 360 horsepower are available. Two or four-barrel carburetion is offered with only select-shift automatic transmission. The standard engine is a 265-horsepower 390 2V teamed with a fully synchronized, three-speed manual transmission.

Recreation Job to City Man

Charles E. Spann of 261 Cedardale has been employed by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department in a new position, area recreation activities supervisor.

SPANN

He will be responsible for activities at Hayes Jones Community Center, at Lakeside Community Center, and other recreation activities and programs in the community.

He has been a part-time employe for Parks and Recreation for 15 years. He was employed as a child supervisor at the Oakland County Children's Village from 1961 to 1966 and as a housing aide for the Pontiac Housing Commission from 1966 to the present.

Spann, 30, attended Pontiac schools and Tennessee A & I State University.

Postmaster Cited for Role in Program

Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson has been commended for his leadership and service to the Treasury's School Savings program by Glen R. Johnson, national director of the U.S. Savings Bonds Division.

Johnson said in a letter to the postmaster: "We are counting on your leadership and cooperation for the successful operation of the School Savings program in local communities. A large measure of the success of this program is due to the fine service you and your personnel provide . . ."

* * *

Savings stamps in five denominations, from 10 cents to $5 are on sale at all times in the post office and on stamp day in most Pontiac area schools. As students fill their albums they exchange them for Savings Bonds.

"I know of no better way to teach both thrift and civic responsibility than by encouraging our young folks to buy Savings Stamps and bonds. In this way they really share in America," Donaldson said.

* * *

Courses designed for law enforcement personnel cover a variety of areas. PAUF Campaign Kickoff Nears

With a goal of $1.3 million, the Pontiac Area United Fund awaits the starting whistle Oct. 15 to kick off its 1968 fund-raising campaign. The drive will wind up on Nov. 8.

The upcoming campaign is the 21st since Pontiac adopted the "give once for all" plan for contribution to social agencies. Indeed, the City has been credited with originating the "package" concept.

This year's aim is 10 per cent above last year's, dictated by higher costs in meeting the needs of the 55 community organizations that fly the PAUF banner.

Although the Fund is administered by a small professional staff, the success of the yearly fund solicitations rests in no small part upon public spirited citizens who head the related phases of the campaigns. General chairman for the 1968 campaign is Alger V. Connor, a Fisher Body plant executive, backed by six community leaders responsible for its various divisions.

And of equal importance in putting the annual drives over the top is the small army of dedicated volunteer solicitors combined with the fine generosity of contributors.

A high rate of area employment and a bright economic picture augur well for the success of the Fund campaign soon to get under way.

Tests Show Jarring Effect of Rock 'n' Roll

In an experiment at the University of Tennessee, Dr. DAVID M. LIPSCOMB, director of the university's audio clinical services, recorded go-go music at a Knoxville discotheque. The music was played back to a guinea pig at 120 decibels (about the noise level of a jet engine), although sound in discotheques has been measured as high as 138 decibels, just below the pain threshold.

After 88½ hours of exposure to the music, spread over a period of three months to match the listening habits of the average go-go goer, the cochlea of the animal's exposed ear was photographed. It was found that many of the cells had "shriveled up like peas." Cells in the other ear, which had been plugged, were normal.

LIPSCOMB also reports that a routine screening of university freshmen last fall revealed a high proportion of students with measurable hearing loss.

"We were shocked to find that the hearing of many of these students had already deteriorated to the level of the average 65-year-old person," he says.

It could be a blessing in disguise, however. When these kids become parents, they won't be bothered by whatever noise their children decide to call "music." All they'll have to do is turn off the old hearing aid.

Scientists Attempt to Eliminate Bitter Tastes

The adage assassins are at it again. This time the scientists are engineering food so that we may no longer have to take the bitter with the sweet in life.

★ ★ ★

A biochemist has isolated a protein which he believes gives the tongue the ability to detect bitter tastes. If the chemical structure of the protein can be identified, it would be possible for chemists to manufacture tasteless "dummy" substances that would combine with the bitter-sensitive protein and nullify it.

Such substances could be added to foods to disguise their bitter taste and thus make gourmet dishes out of such highly nutritious but bitter foods like fish flour and the tropical fruit, cassava.

Such food engineering could also do much to help solve the world's food shortage.

What Makes a Good U.S. President?

By EVERETT DIRKSEN

These are the days when we ask ourselves the all-important question: just what does make a good President of the United States?

DIRKSEN

The question comes to the fore because, in his quest for a running mate, one of the 1968 nominees for the Presidency laid down three criteria, and the first of these was whether or not the person in question would make a good President.

Obviously, the implication was that if the President were for any reason disabled and thus unable to discharge the functions and duties of his office, would the Vice President be able to fill his shoes? It is a fair and proper question.

Inasmuch as our memories of recent times render us quite capable today of evaluating the candidates who have sought those high offices since World War II, let's go back in time for some cases in point that may be very faint indeed in the pages of the history books — except, of course, for one special case that surprised the world.

Several cases come readily to mind. Chester A. Arthur was the son of a minister, a schoolteacher and a lawyer. He first attracted attention for the work he did in the field of civil rights for Negroes. He had some military experience, and he served as customs collector for the Port of New York.

When James A. Garfield was nominated for the Presidency in 1880, Mr. Arthur was selected as his running mate in the interests of harmony within the Republican Party. President Garfield was assassinated in July, 1881, and Mr. Arthur became President. The question is whether his background, capacity and temperament actually qualified him to become President.

This same question arises in looking back to Zachary Taylor. He was a military man who rose from the ranks to become a major general. He fought in the War of 1812, the Blackhawk War and the Mexican War, and he was quite successful as a warrior. He was nominated for the Presidency in 1849 and succeeded in defeating Martin Van Buren.

Other than that President Taylor had had a military career and had become affectionately known as "Old Rough and Ready," he had neither political nor administrative experience, and the question naturally arises as to whether he was qualified for the Presidency.

Thomas Riley Marshall is another case in point. He was a lawyer and had served a term as governor of Indiana. In 1912, the Indiana delegation advanced his name as a candidate for President, but Woodrow Wilson was nominated and Mr. Marshall was selected as the vice presidential candidate.

It was Tom Marshall who coined and made popular the slogan — "What this country needs is a good five-cent cigar." There was no other great distinction in his career. Once more the question comes up. Was Mr. Marshall qualified to become President if anything happened to disable President Wilson?

The name of Henry A. Wallace is another that should be mentioned. He was Vice President in the third term of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Before his appointment as secretary of agriculture prior to his term as Vice President, Mr. Wallace was editor of a farm newspaper — Wallace's Farmer. He had spent most of his mature years on agricultural economics, experience that can scarcely be considered as political or administrative. As the nation wrestled with the baffling problems of the Great Depression, could it be said then — and could it be said now — that Mr. Wallace had the requisite experience to serve as President?

We cannot today easily answer the questions posed above except by noting that, under given circumstances, who shall say whether or not a person nominated for the Presidency or Vice Presidency will make a good President when judged purely from background and experience? Experience? Sometimes we have been pleasantly and greatly surprised.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

Dr. Eugene R. Kellersberger was called by the lepers of the Congo "N' Ganga Buku Biktu," the doctor not afraid to touch us. With his medical knowledge and religious faith, he spent his long life working unafraid among the suffering.

Dr. Kellersberger first went to the Congo in 1916 with his young wife. The first year he treated over 17,000 cases. He undertook the study of sleeping sickness, and the death of his wife in 1923 from the disease only strengthened his determination to eradicate it. He did much to bring sleeping sickness under control in the Congo.

He then turned to the leprosy problem—developing colonies and starting systematic treatment and education.

"I was determined to change the attitude toward leprosy," he said. His efforts were not in vain, for the Belgian government recognized his work and he received not only their complete cooperation, but also their highest decoration.

As president of the American Leprosy Mission he went to 40 countries to lecture and help get more humane treatment for the suffering. He trained hundreds of barely literate Africans as medical helpers. He envisioned the training center for leprosy workers for all Africa, now a reality in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Dr. Kellersberger died in 1966 at the age of 80. As one of the early leaders in a field few people would dare to tackle, he gave to many people hope of recovery and understanding of one of the world's most feared ills.

Confident Living:

Develop Thankfulness Attitude

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

"Every day of the world I give thanks for all the wonderful things that happen to me," declared a young man enthusiastically. "And do you know something? The more I give thanks, the more I have reason to be thankful. Blessings just pile up on me one after another!"

DR. PEALE

This exultant expression was surprising, considering the long way this fellow had come in his attitude. But in these remarks he had stated a basic law, that the more you practice thankfulness the more you have to be thankful for.

It is a fact that thankfulness tends to reproduce in kind. It reverses the flow of good away from you and sets flowing in your direction benefits and opportunities.

The attitude of gratitude revitalizes the mental process by activating other attitudes, thus stimulating creativity. It focuses the complete personality so that you can work better, think better, get along better with people and, in short, enable your abilities to function more effectively in every respect.

I first met this man one night in an East Coast City where in a speech I spoke of the limitations we ourselves put on our own potential, how incredibly we shackle and restrict ourselves by glum and negative thinking. Afterwards this fellow, an impressive-looking man, spoke to me.

"Theoretically I agree with what you said, but it wouldn't work out for me," he declared. "Everything goes wrong, always wrong."

When everything consistently goes wrong with any person, something must be wrong somewhere in the personality pattern. For wrongness inevitably produces wrong results.

Therefore some procedure was required to correct the wrongness and build up the rightness element. Then presumably things would no longer go wrong, at least not so many things, but on the contrary would go right with him.

★ ★ ★

I suggested that he might be helped by the practice of thankfulness. He looked bewildered, evidently considering the idea somewhat irrelevant, but when the process was outlined he carried it out faithfully, with excellent results.

I took a large sheet of paper and drew a line down the middle to form two equal columns, and over the left-hand column wrote, "Things that are wrong," and over the other, "Things that are right."

"You won't have anything to put in that right-hand column," he growled.

"O.K., let's see when we come to it. Let's start on the things that are wrong." Quickly, and with ease, we filled that column.

"Now, what have you to be thankful for — what's one good thing?" "Can't think of one," he declared. "Well, is your wife dead?" I asked. "Why no, of course not." So I wrote in the right-hand column, "Wife alive and well."

"How about your house — has it burned down?" "Of course not!" So we wrote, "House not burned." "How about yourself, had a heart attack?" "Are you kidding?" he asked. "Do I look like I'd had a heart attack?" So I wrote, "No heart attack."

"Look," I declared. "You told me everything has gone wrong with you. Now go ahead and fill up that column of good things; and every day give thanks morning and evening.

Every day see how many things you can be thankful for. Say them over to yourself. Skip the negatives. Accentuate the positives. Face the difficulties. They are real, and have to be dealt with. But a positive thankful psychology has in it the power to make things good, real good.

Voice of the People:

'County Should Use Funds to Meet Needs of People'

Your recent editorial recommending that our County roads be given priority over the new jail was excellent advice to the Board of Supervisors. The Board showed disregard for both the press and the public when it approved a new jail and a new service building at their next meeting.

★ ★ ★

You stated that the County "mysteriously" ends each year with a sizable surplus. There should be no mystery about public budgets. They should be drawn up realistically so that all revenues, including the State income tax rebate, can be used to meet the needs of the County rather than to accumulate.

★ ★ ★

The County's year-end statement showed over $1.2 million was spent in 1967 on "nonbudgeted appropriations." Almost all of this went to further expand an already massive government complex. When our County government has this much "extra" money to spend on its expansion programs, there is some mystery about the way it figures its budgets. Our organization has been trying for months to get the County to allocate public money to meet the needs of the County: its roads, schools, drains, police and fire protection.

'Appreciate All Who Assisted in Recent Fire'

The recent fire involving the Roosevelt Hotel was a fireman's nightmare—a fire often preplanned and thought about.

We are thankful for the scores of people who were rescued and that there are no known fatalities and only one person missing. Pontiac firemen did a magnificent job in rescuing occupants of the hotel, which had to be effected before starting to extinguish the fire. We are pleased that the fire was contained within the hotel structure and did not involve any other buildings. I am proud of our department and I am sure the citizens of Pontiac are, too.

★ ★ ★

I appreciate the Pontiac police, sheriff's deputies and citizens who gave assistance in rescue work, raising ladders and laying hose lines. Without this help I am sure there would be many casualities.

Has Suggestion for New Business in Pontiac

Recently I moved into and furnished a new apartment. I looked around for second-hand items and noticed that Pontiac didn't have a damaged freight store. Most cities this size have one. I imagine lots of people who can't afford new things would patronize a store such as this. Wouldn't this be a good business for someone to get into?

Why aren't fish killed when lightning strikes water?

DENNY WILLIAMS
746 HOLLISTER

REPLY

Some of them probably are. Mr. Kreag of the Detroit Zoo says lightning doesn't usually strike the water directly but something on the water or above it. However, should fish get a direct hit or be swimming near an object which is hit, the fish would almost certainly be stunned and possibly killed.

Washington Notebook:

Newsmen to Study Riot Causes

By NOEL GROVE

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — A man named Daly hopes to bring a group of newsmen into Chicago to study the causes of urban riots and the problems of inner city life.

And lest such an announcement begin a stampede by the Fourth Estate in the opposite direction, it should be mentioned that this is a Daly named Charles, not Dick.

The program is to be sponsored by the University of Chicago's Center for Policy Studies. Grants will be awarded, explained Charles U. Daly, director of the center, to bring journalists to the university as "associates," to audit courses dealing with urban problems and work directly in urban projects.

Center's new program, which begins Jan. 2, is designed to help scholars understand the problems of the working reporter and to help the reporter understand the many-sided problems of the urban areas.

Lab periods for the newsmen, it might be added, will not be nearly as hazardous as those held recently in Lincoln Park, with blue-coated fellows of another "Daley." Journalistic heads will be filled, it is hoped, not cracked.

Among the numerous other events that have given this election year uniqueness, it could also go down as the year of the matchless middle names. Consider Milhous, Horatio and Sixtus for the gentlemen Nixon, Humphrey and Muskie.

In the face of those, the middle handle of Theodore for Spiro Agnew comes off almost bland. He might have topped them all had his immigrant father not caught the American flair for brevity and changed the family name from Anagnostopoulos.

But none of them can match the middle name merry-go-round that plagued one of the most well-known men in American history. Ulysses S. Grant was actually born Hiram Ulysses Grant and carried that name until he applied for admission to West Point.

He didn't care for the way his initials lined up (H.U.G.), so on his application to his congressman, he simply reversed the "H" and "U." But when he reported in at West Point, they told him no such cadet was expected, although a Ulysses S. Grant was. The congressman had further messed things up by mistakenly changing the "H" to "S."

By then the name was in academy records, so Grant was stuck with it. His fellow cadets started calling him "Uncle Sam" Grant, a nickname that stuck with him for the rest of his life.

Perhaps Grant simply had more political savvy than historians give him credit for, when he changed the initials back in his youth. After all, when you're a candidate for the presidency of the United States with initials of U.S. and the nickname of Uncle Sam, how can you lose?

With the establishment of the New York-Moscow airline flights this summer, Washington pundits are posing the following question: If Russians really have the classless society they claim, why, on their Moscow-to-New York flights do they have first-class and tourist sections?

Berkeley, Calif., Aim: Complete Integration

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The board of education is making a $200,000 bet this year that it can bring off the complete racial integration of Berkeley schools from kindergarten through the sixth grade.

Under the plan, all pupils from kindergarten through the third grade will attend schools which were predominantly white. All pupils from the fourth through the sixth grades will go to schools which were predominantly nonwhite.

* * *

"We consider this the first and most thorough school integration of significant size in the country," said Dr. Dan Freudenthal, the board's coordinator of research and publicantions.

Retorted Stanley Colberson, a leading opponent of the plan: "It is a complete waste of taxpayers' money. It has never worked anywhere in the country. It's another indication of the socialistc trend."

50 PCT. ARE WHITE

Berkeley has 9,000 grade school children. About 50 per cent are white, 41 per cent Negro and the rest Oriental or of other races.

Until now, most of the whites went to schools in the flatlands.

* * *

To bring about complete integration, the school board will bus 1,400 Negroes to 11 schools in the hills to attend kindergarten through third grade, and about 2,100 whites to four schools in the flatlands for the fourth through the sixth grades.

The board will operate five buses of its own at a cost of $33,000 a year, and is leasing 20 others for $167,000 annually.

WALKING DISTANCE

To integrate the school faculties about half of the 178 Negro teachers have been reassigned to the white areas and about 45 per cent of the 879 white teachers will teach in the Negro flatlands.

Opponents of busing forced a special election last October, seeking to unseat two members of the board, Carol Sibley and Dr. Sherman Maisel. Mrs. Sibley won by a vote of 23,167 to 14,917 and Maisel by 23,138 to 15,042.

"What opposition remains generally is on grounds of safety to smallest children riding out of their Freudenthal. "We have spent eight months preparing for the change. We expect bugs in the plan, but we will cope."

PRIVATE SCHOOL

Colberson, former president of the opposition Berkeley Citizens United, said he had taken his daughter out of public school and enrolled her in a private school.

"There will be no protests or anything," Colberson said. "The plan is a fait accompli. It's a waste of taxpayers' money to take the board to court.

"The big problem in Berkeley, if you want to know the truth, is the professors and students at the University of California. They are not true residents but can vote in municipal elections.

"They can vote for any liberal crackpot idea, then move out and leave residents holding the bag."

There are 15,000 registered voters in the campus area. About 9,000 took part in the recall election, and the district gave Mrs. Sibley and Maisel about 65 per cent of its total vote.

Samuel Markowitz, an associate professor of chemistry at the university and a leading campus supporter of integration, said he felt some concern that the plan might impair educational standards.

* * *

"My criticism," Markowitz said, "is that now sociological and psychological arguments are being so heavily weighted that solid academic and vocational standards are becoming of secondary importance.

"That is, 'getting along together' in the minds of some educators is becoming the standard in and of itself. We want high standards for every child."

Berkeley's population is 120,000, about 25 per cent Negro. Although it has nothing to compare with big-city slums, there is a predominantly black poverty belt where many families have incomes of less than $3,000 a year.

Kids Have to Beg an Allowance From Their Money-Conscious Father

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a 45-year-old father who makes his sons (ages 10 and 13) beg for their weekly allowance of 50c? If they forget to ask for it on Sunday night, he refuses to give it to them all week.

ABBY

I, too, get an allowance for household expenses. It's been the same for 10 years, and is never enough at today's prices, but he refuses to give me one cent more. (He always carries at least $300 on him.) He keeps telling me to live "within my means" and to quit trying to take him for all he's worth.

Abby, he runs several successful businesses, and when I occasionally work at one of his offices, I never see the money. It goes toward a three-week summer vacation the children and I take. (He's too "busy" to go with us.)

Even his workmen bring home more money to their wives than he gives me. I've seen the checks being written out by his bookkeeper. I don't drink, smoke, gamble or flirt. I am getting a nice case of "nerves" from his stinginess. After 15 years of marriage, do you see any solution for me?

UNHAPPY IN CALIFORNIA

DEAR UNHAPPY: A man who reduces his wife and children to "beggars" simply because he controls the purse strings, ought to have someone tell him about: (1) The cost of psychiatric treatment, should his wife's case of "nerves" become serious. (1) The community property law in California.

DEAR ABBY: Whoever said that boys like good girls is crazy.

I went out with a boy one night and he made advances. I told him where to get off. He didn't get mad, but he never asked me out again, and he was the one boy I really wanted to date.

Please don't say that a boy who would pull something like that isn't "nice." I haven't met a boy yet who doesn't take a girl out for what he can get. Because of this, a boy hardly ever asks me out twice. I am beginning to wonder about this good girl stuff. What does it prove.

GOOD AND LONELY

DEAR GOOD: "Nice" boys still want "good" girls, and don't let anyone tell you they don't. The boys who drop you because you're "good" are only boys. Stay good, and one day a MAN will come along and make the waiting worthwhile.

DEAR ABBY: It says in the Bible "Stolen waters are sweet and bread eaten in secret is pleasant." (Proverbs, Chapter IX, Verse 17.) Could this be the reason my husband has strayed?

HEARTBROKEN

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: Since you have quoted Verse 17 of Chapter IX in the Book of Proverbs as a possible clew to your husband's behavior, give some attention, please, to the four preceding verses of the same book: "A foolish woman is noisy; she is wanton and knows no shame; she sits at the door of her house; she takes a seat on the high places of the town, calling to those who pass by, who are going straight on their way. 'Whoever is simple, let him turn in here..' Verse 17, as you quote it, then follows. Does this tell you something.

Gala for Son Can Take Any Flavor Chosen

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am the mother of a young attorney. Upon his admission to the bar I would like to have a party in his honor. I want to have a party that would be fitting to his profession. I would appreciate any suggestions. — Mrs. L.T.

* * *

Dear Mrs. T.: Although the legal profession is a dignified one, your son is still a young man, and the party is for him — not his profession. Here are a few suggestions for types of parties in addition to a formal dinner or reception.

A cocktail buffet — cold cuts, salad, cake and cocktails.

A Mexican barbecue — chile, salad, and beer.

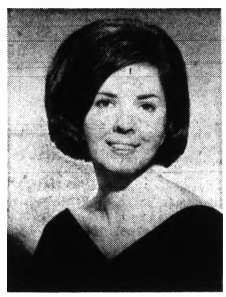
An open house — sandwiches, snacks and cookies. Punch, coffee or liquor if you wish.

A picnic-type barbecue — chicken-in-the-basket, salad and cake. Beer and-or iced tea.

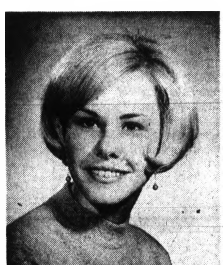
NOT INCLUDED

Dear Mrs. Post: At the time of my future brother-in-law's wedding, family pictures were taken and I was not included in them. At the time I was officially engaged to be married six months from that date. Should I have been included? I felt hurt and slighted. If this was correct etiquette, I'd feel better about the whole matter. — June

Der June: Family pictures are almost invariably restricted to immediate members of the family and their spouses. Although I hope this won't be true in your case, engagements do get broken and the pictures would not be a source of much pleasure if an ex-fiancee were forever seated among the family members.



The engagement is announced of Patricia A. Pomaski and Thomas F. Biernat, seniors at Eastern Michigan University and Michigan Technological University, Houghton, respectively. The bride elect, an affiliate of Sigma Nu Phi sorority, is the daughter of Arthur J. Pomaski of North Fox Hills Drive and the late Mrs. Pomaski. Her fiance, who is a member of Theta Tau fraternity, is the son of the Thomas A. Biernats of Detroit. Late June '69 vows are slated.



A late summer '69 wedding is planned by Linda Johnson and James S. Roach. The bride elect, a senior at Western Michigan University, her fiance's alma mater, is the daughter of the Victor R. Johnsons of Troy. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Roach of River Edge, N.J.

Crowning Hour Is Near

annual search for a new Miss America comes to an end at midnight tonight when another pretty unknown will be vaulted into national prominence as the 1969 title holder.

More than 18,000 persons were expected in convention hall to view the event once described as America's answer to a royal coronation. Another 100 million persons were expected to see it on nationwide television beginning at 10 p.m. EDT.

The new Miss America will succeed Debra Dene Barnes who made double barreled news Friday by celebrating her 21st birthday and announcing her engagement. She will be married next Jan. 25 in Moran, Kan., to Mitchel Miles, 22, a fellow music major at Kansas State College at Pittsburg.

Friday night 7,200 persons watched the third and final round of preliminary competition leading to the title. Miss Illinois became this year's only contestant to win in two preliminary categories with her victory in the swim suit division. Judith Anne Ford of Belvidere, Ill., on Thursday night had bounced her way to victory in the talent division with a dazzling exhibition on a trampoline.

FRIDAY

Friday night's talent winner was Miss Florida, Linda Fay Fitts of Panama City, Fla., who danced the charleston to the "12th Street Rag" as she chomped furiously on a piece of bubble gum.

Near the end of her act, the gum fell out of her mouth accidentally. The audience didn't realize the trouble, however, because she pretended it was all part of the routine.

PRELIMINARY

In addition to Miss Illinois and Miss Florida there are three other announced preliminary winners: Miss Virginia for talent and Miss Iowa and Miss Alabama for swimsuit.

Although preliminary victories can do nothing but help, there is no guarantee that they alone will qualify a contestant for a place among the 10 semifinalists. The new beauty queen will win a $10,000 scholarship and an estimated $80,000 in personal appearance contracts.

INTERVIEW

On the eve of giving up her crown, the current Miss America said she is not sorry its all over. "I've really loved every moment of it," Miss Barnes said, "But I'm looking forward to going home and becoming just a plain student again."

* * *

At one point in the interview conducted prior to the announcement of her engagement, Miss Barnes touched on the subject of romance. "I just hope the next Miss America doesn't have someone special," she said. "It will be awfully hard on her and him if she does."

AP Wirephoto

Gold Smuggler Pleads for Sake of Children

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Ignoring her plea to be freed so she could return to her two children in Germany, an Indonesian court sentenced a woman to 18 months in jail Thursday for trying to smuggle $56,000 worth of gold into the country in her brassiere.

* * *

"I apologize for what I have done but please let me go home. I have two children in Germany to take care of," cried Margriet Freuden Reich, 44, before the sentencing.

* * *

The judge also ordered her to pay a $1,500 fine or spend an extra four months in jail. She has two weeks to appeal the sentence.

Polly's Pointers

Breaks Baby Habit

DEAR POLLY—My daughter sucked her thumb until she was eight, but finally I found a solution to the problem. I promised to give her five cents for each day she did not suck her thumb. If she did suck it, she was to give me five cents. At first she had me put an adhesive bandage on the thumb as a reminder, but after awhile she was ready to try it without the bandage. She has not sucked her thumb for four months and has $6.20 in her bank.

I figured it was cheaper to give her five cents a day as an incentive than to have to pay hundreds of dollars for braces for her teeth. Now she has told me that we can call off the paying deal as the habit is broken. I do hope this helps some other mother with the same problem.—MRS. L. E. P.

DEAR POLLY — My little boy's new wash-and-wear slacks have dura-knees that scratch his legs. He complains every time he wears them and even walks stiffly. Because of this irritation he would rather wear slacks with holes in the knees than wear the new ones. What can I do to fix them?

—GERALDINE

DEAR POLLY — I have a handbag holder in my closet but the spaces are not deep enough for some of those with handles that must stand up. I solved this by using inexpensive paper shopping bags.

I put a purse in each shopping bag, then slip the handle of the shopping bag over a coat hanger and hang in the closet. This keeps my bags in good shape and free from dust.—BESSIE

* * *

DEAR POLLY — I have just discovered that silver cream is excellent for cleaning stained coffee cups. The label on my brand of polish says, "for porcelains, plastic and chrome." I wonder how many others have overlooked reading that.

DEAR POLLY — An inexpensive and very useful toy box can be made by puttings casters on an unused dresser drawer so it can be rolled under a bed or out of sight when not in use.

Case No. G-549

Pick Masculine Names

By GEORGE W. CRANE

Case G-549: Lola G., aged 28, is a school teacher.

"Dr. Crane," she protested, "I wish you'd warn young mothers to use better psychology when they name their sons!

"For example, I had a boy in the 2nd grade whose doting mamma christened him 'Lena.'

DR. CRANE

* * *

For many boys, slender and not very athletic, already have a tough job trying to make their pals respect them, without being hampered by a sissy name.

Yet I have known men who were christened "Evelyn" and "Phyllis."

In past years, uneducated mothers at our Cook County Hospital here in Chicago would become enamoured of fancy medical terms and thus ignorantly name their babies accordingly.

One such mother thus wanted to name her twin daughters "Syphilis" and "Gonorrhea," because those words sounded mysterious and exotic!

* * *

Another one heard the attending doctor use the word "Meconium," which refers to the fecal matter discharged by the newborn baby, and thus wished to name her infant daughter "Meconium."

Such medical names probably wouldn't cause too much harrassment since many people wouldn't know what they meant, anyway.

But to saddle a boy with such monickers as "Lena" or "Evelyn" or "Phyllis" is sheer cruelty.

* * *

Such boys then may try to acquire rough and tough nicknames, such as "Spike" or "Butch" or even "Fatso."

Sometimes they become unduly fat, just due to their frustration!

In 1967, some of our hospitals reported that the most popular names for girl babies was "Lisa" and "Michelle," with "Michael" being the favorite for boys.

Many mothers thus go overboard for fancy sounding names, instead of picking those that may inspire youngsters to live up to the high attainments of great men of the past.

MASCULINE

The Biblical names of Philip, Andrew, Peter, Thomas, James and John, Matthew, David, Daniel, Mark and Luke are both inspiring and masculine.

So are Franklin, Anthony, Calvin, William, George, Arthur and Alfred.

Mothers, please don't saddle your children with "lightweight" names and those that you merely spell in bizarre fashion, just to be different!

Many of you young parents are more juvenile than your babies in the ignorant way you try to christen your infants!

Teachers Feted in Waterford

New teachers in the Waterford School system will be honored at a tea Monday by Waterford branch, American Association of University Women.

Mesdames John Saum, Park Watson and Crea Clark are heading the tea committee. The cafetorium of Mason Junior High School is the place; from 4 to 6 p.m.

Client Eats Up Agent's Publicity

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Executive's Digest reports a London ad agency dispatched 120 message-carrying pigeons to prospective clients, along with instructions on how to return the birds.

But there's one puzzlement. One who got a pigeon sent this telegram: "Send another pigeon. First one delicious."

'Work Up Sweat Is Prescription for Skin Care

NEW YORK (WMNS) — The kind of active sports that work up a healthy sweat are what one doctor is ordering to combat teen age skin problems.

Profuse perspiration loosens sebaceous plugs (blackheards) and encourages the flow of fatty matter secreted by the sebaceous glands, the physician is quoted as saying in the nurses magazine RN.

But the perspiration must be washed off thoroughly with soap for the "treatment" to be effective.

Reserve Call-Up Protest Also Considered

High Court Weighing Draft Challenge

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court is considering challenges to the government's authority to reclassify draft protesters and to send reservists to Vietnam.

The reclassification issue has produced the rare spectacle of one government agency challenging another.

* * *

The Justice Department filed a brief with the court Friday contending that the Selective Service system appears to be using reclassification as punishment.

"Against this background, there is a serious question whether the delinquency regulations are being applied in a manner consistent with the Selective Service Act and the Constitution," said the Justice Department brief.

The department cited a letter by Selective Service Director Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey to local draft boards on Oct. 26 proposing "that those who violate the draft act should be denied deferment in the national interest."

The specific case involved in the interdepartment hassle is the reclassification of James J. Oestereich, 22, of Cheyenne, Wyo., as 1A after he turned in his draft card last October along with hundreds of other Vietnam protesters. Oestereich was a divinity student.

Also before the court is a suit by 113 Cleveland, Ohio, reservists trying to block the government from shipping them to Vietnam.

Chief Justice Earl Warren turned down the reservists' plea Friday, but they asked that their case be considered by the full court.

The soldiers, part of the 1002nd Supply and Services Company at Ft. Meade, Md., contend the President cannot order them to Vietnam because there has been no declaration of war or national emergency by the Congress. Two lower federal courts have already rejected the suit.

The soldiers were activated during the Pueblo crisis.

UAW Cancels Convention to Pick Presidential Choice

DETROIT (UPI) — The powerful United Auto Workers Union Friday scrapped plans for a national meeting at which it was to have named its choice for the next president of the United States.

* * *

The union said it decided instead to hold a series of state and regional meetings at which secret ballots will be taken to choose the man the union will back with its considerable financial and educational resources.

* * *

Nearly 4,000 delegates had been expected in Detroit for the meeting Sept. 14. But Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer, sent a letter to all UAW locals in the U.S. Friday announcing the change in plans.

It was not clear whether the decision reflected dissension, if any, within the UAW, or whether it was related to the recent divorce of the UAW from the American Federation of Labor. AFL-CIO President George Meany was a strong supporter of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey long before Humphrey won the Democratic nomination.

SOLIDARITY SHOW

UAW leaders, including President Walter P. Reuther, may have wanted to avoid a concentrated show of solidarity behind Humphrey such as the AFL-CIO showed through Meany. Reuther did not publicly endorse any of the contenders for the presidential nomination.

* * *

Mazey said he had been "contacted by many local unions who have advised us that they will be unable to send full representation to the national conference because of the heavy expenditures for transportation, lost time, expenses, etc."

He said many locals reminded the UAW leadership that the union had held four international conventions in the past 28 months, and the cost of sending delegates to such meetings was burdensome.

* * *

He said secret ballot votes would be taken in regional meetings across the country, except for the states of Michigan and Ohio which will have statewide meetings.

Portugal's Premier Is OK After Surgery

LISBON (AP) — Premier Antonio de Oliveire Salazar, 79-year-old authoritarian leader of Portugal for the last 40 years, underwent an operation by neurosurgeons Friday night in his summer residence, the government announced today.

He was reported feeling well afterwards.

* * *

The official announcement said the premier underwent surgery under local anasthesia for a hematoma, a tumor or swelling containing blood.

The announcement did not say where on the body the hematoma was.

The 1968 Gross National Product in the United States is expected to gain about 7½ per cent.

Detroit Police to Guard Lots After 2 Bombings

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit police will be patrolling their own parking lots from now on following the dynamiting of two cars in police parking lots in the last eight days.

Both bombings of private cars in precinct parking lots came during the night hours, prompting Police Commissioner Johannes Spreen to order an all-night guard placed on the parking lots.

* * *

The possibility of using volunteer police reserves for the guard duty so police won't be taken off other duty was being explored, Spreen said.

"In the meantime, we will give police precincts all the additional security, particularly in the night time, that they need," he said.

The latest blast was early Friday morning when 10 or 12 sticks of dynamite destroyed one patroman's car and damaged several others. Last week, another officer's car was destroyed at another precinct station.

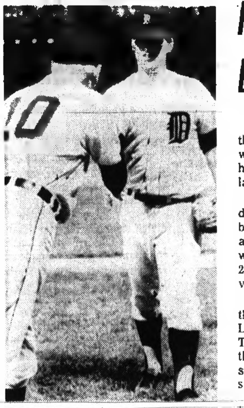
Tigers' McLain Keeps Hex on Twins in Posting 28th Win



AP Wirephoto

GOOD SHOW! — Tiger manager Mayo Smith (10) offers his congratulations as pitcher Denny McLain walks from the mound after recording his 28th victory of the season last night at Tiger Stadium in Detroit. The 8-3 nod over the Minnesota Twins hiked Denny's mark to 28-5.

Horton's Bat Work Backs Denny's Sharp Pitching

DETROIT (AP)—About the only thing that could prevent Denny McLain from winning 30 games this season is letting his foot fall asleep while watching the late, late show.

The 25-year-old right-hander, who didn't win a game last September because he said he dislocated two toes after standing up with a sleeping foot while watching television, notched his 28th victory Friday night with an 8-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

Staked to a 4-0 lead that included a three-run homer by Willie Horton, McLain survived a rocky start to beat the Twins for the sixth time in six games this year. He scattered nine hits and struck out 12, including four of the last six men he faced.

"I had as good stuff tonight as I've had all year," said McLain. "But I have a tendency to coast until they start to hit me. I've always been that way. I don't concentrate until it gets close.

"I know it's wrong," he added, "everybody does . . but that's the way I am."

Some slick defensive work and a lecture on concentration from Manager Mayo Smith got McLain back on the beam after Minnesota scored twice in the fifth inning.

Detroit was leading 6-3 and the Twins had men on second and third with one out when Smith went to the mound.

"I just told him to start thinking about what he was doing; to concentrate," Smith said.

* * *

McLain bore down and got the next two men on infield grounders to get out of the jam. He was in trouble again in the seventh when pinch-hitter Bruce Look singled with none out. But Cesar Tovar, who had three hits, slammed a liner to Don Wert who converted it into a triple play.

The Tigers, who have won four straight and 10 of their last 13, extended their American League lead over the Baltimore Orioles to nine games. Chicago beat Baltimore 3-2 in 11 innings.

* * *

"If we play .500 baseball in our final 20 games, Baltimore would have to win 19 of 20," said Jim Campbell, Detroit's general manager.

WILLIE THE WONDER

The Tigers jumped to a 4-0 lead on Twins' starter Jim Kaat, 12-11, by scoring four runs. Dick McAuliffe and Mickey Stanley singled to start things off. Al Kaline, playing first base, drove in the first run with a single and Horton, who had five runs batted in, slammed his 32nd homer.

A run-scoring single by Don Wert and Dick Tracewski's infield grounder made it 6-3 in the fourth and Horton drove in two more runs with a double in the seventh.

* * *

"That's the first time I've driven in five runs this year," said Horton, who now has 78 RBIs. "It was my first three -run homer. I noticed around the All-Star break that I hadn't hit too many homers with men on base.

"My wife told me it was because I was leading off an inning two or three times a game. She keeps track of that stuff. I just like to win games."

FIRST HOME RUN

McLain gave up a run in the second when rookie Graig Nettles hit his first major league home run. The Twins scored two more runs in the fifth when Frank Quilici led off with a triple and came home on Tovar's one-out single. Rich Reese followed with a single and Rich Rollins doubled over Jim Northrup's head for the third run.

* * *

"I started running sideways and it just carried over my head," said Northrup. "In Oakland, I would have come in to catch that ball. But the ball carries better in Detroit."

Firebirds Play Sunday

Key Games Slated in MFL

The standings of the Midwest Football League may change this weekend, at least for a couple teams.

League leading Dayton won't have any trouble when it hosts Fort Wayne which hasn't won a game, but the Lackawanna Lancers may be in trouble tonight when they face Flint on the brand new astroturf in Flint's Atwood Stadium.

* * *

Lackawanna is unbeaten with a 4-0 record like Dayton, and a Flint victory would change the face of the MFL.

Tomorrow, at Wisner Stadium the Pontiac Firebirds will be hoping to get back into the MFL race after winning 13 straight and then losing a pair.

STARTS AT 4:00 P.M.

The Sunday game against Ypsilanti will start at 4:00 p.m. and the Firebirds have been installed as eight point favorites over the Vikings.

* * *

The Firebirds are hopeful of attracting a crowd of 3,000 for the contest which will feature a passing duel between Ypsi's Craig Kirby and Pontiac's Bill Harrington.

Next week Pontiac travels to Fort Wayne and then return home to meet Hamtramck before making a visit to Flint's astroturf.

* * *

The big game will be Saturday night October 5. This is General Motors Retirees night, and over 1,000 of the 4,000 retirees fron Pontiac's three GM plants will be in attendance.

Many of the old Pontiac and GM cars will be on display that night, along with some of the brand new 1969 models.

Ticket windows for tomorrow's game will open at 3:00 p.m.

Time Running Out for Baltimore

AP Wirephoto

HOMER HERO — Outfielder Willie Horton (left) is followed by teammates after clouting a three-run home run in the first inning against the Minnesota Twins last night in Detroit. Trailing Horton are Mickey Stanley, Bill Freehan and Al Kaline. Stanley and Kaline were aboard when Willie connected. Horton later drove in two more runs to spark an 8-3 Tiger victory.

Orioles Drop 3-2 Tilt to Chisox

By The Associated Press

The magic number for the pennant-bound Detroit Tigers is 12. For manager Earl Weaver of the Baltimore Orioles, it's 19.

Any combination of 12 Detroit victories and-or Baltimore defeats will enable the Tigers to wrap up their first American League championship since 1945.

* * *

Weaver still talks in terms of the Orioles winning 100 games this season. But after losing seven of their last 10, including a 3-2 decision to the Chicago White Sox in 11 innings Friday night, Baltimore must win 19 of 20 to reach Weaver's goal.

* * *

Detroit, now nine games ahead after its 8-3 victory over Minnesota, would need only to win 12 of their final 20 to top even such a miracle Baltimore wind-up. So while the task is virtually hopeless, Weaver clings steadfastly to his dream.

"It's not impossible to win 19 more," he said after Buddy Bradford's 11th inning homer downed the Orioles Friday night. "There's no reason we can't win seven, eight, nine in a row."

NOTHING ELSE

Then, Weaver showed how he felt about finishing as the runner-up, a spot many managers would find satisfying in lieu of a pennant:

"If you don't win," he said, "there's nothing else."

* * *

Elsewhere in the AL, rookie Andy Messersmith fired a two-hitter in his first major league start as California blanked Boston 4-0 and John "Blue Moon" Odom shut out Cleveland for the third time this season in pitching Oakland to a 7-0 victory over the Indians. Washington at New York was rained out.

New, Old Spicing Pro Grid Twinbill

CLEVELAND (AP) — Something old and something new will spice Art Modell's seventh pro football doubleheader extravaganza tonight in Municipal Stadium.

The new is the New York Jets club, first American Football League team ever to play in Cleveland. The Jets play the National Football League Detroit Lions in the opening game (6:30 p.m., EDT).

The Browns have a special incentive in this final preseason tuneup. The last time they met the Packers — Nov. 12, 1967—they went down to a humiliating defeat, 55-7, with a national television audience watching.

As part of their preparations for tonight's game they looked Friday at films of that game. In the library of game films, that one is kept in the "horror movie" section.

"If you don't feel well, it's not a good movie to look at," said Coach Blanton Collier. He added the game "certainly was no indication of the relative strength of the two teams. I believe we have a squad capable of playing football against anyone.

* * *

"We have our pride and that defeat hurt. This is an exhibition game . . . but we still want to win."

The Packers, 3-2 in exhibition play—including their opening victory over the College AllStars—are in good condition. Bart Starr will be calling the plays, with Donny Anderson and Jim Grabowski at running back positions and Carroll Dale at flanker.

BACKFIELD CHANGE

The Browns, 2-2 will start Charley Harraway at fullback in place of Ernie Green, who is on the injured reserve. Leroy Kelly is the other running back.

The Jets and Lions, both with strong defensive teams, carry identical 2-2 exhibition records into the contest.

* * *

The NFL opened its weekend exhibition schedule Friday with three games. The Minnesota Vikings held off New Orleans 20-17 at Shreveport, La., Chicago edged St. Louis 19-17 and Los Angeles edged San Francisco 21-20.

Los Angeles quarterback Roman Gabriel threw first half touchdown passes of 63, 23 and 14 yards and the Rams defense made it stand up in the face of a second half San Francisco rally.

TWO FUMBLES

The Vikings turned two fumble recoveries into touchdowns, both scored on runs of 1 and 16 yards by Billy Brown, then fought off a late New Orleans rally.

Mac Percival kicked field goals of 50, 22, 37 and 28 yards —the last with only 3:15 to go, in leading Chicago past St. Louis. Jim Hart hit Dave Williams with St. Louis touchdown passes of 10 and 29 yards.

Philadelphia played the New York Giants in a day exhibition game at Princeton, N.J., today, while the night schedule has Pittsburgh vs. Washington at Norfolk, Va., and Atlanta at Miami of the AFL in an interleague game. The AFL also has Denver vs. Oakland at Portland, Ore., an exhibition game.

Bubba's Brother Leaves Football

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Tody Smith, the 19-year-old brother of former Michigan State University great Bubba Smith, has decided to give up football because leg injuries have failed to respond to treatment.

Smith, a 6-foot-5, 245-pound defensive guard from Beaumont, Tex., injured a heel in the opening game of the 1967 season, underwent surgery last winter and was pronounced fit for play this season.

* * *

But, he has been suffering from pulled leg muscles and has been discouraged by the failure of treatment, according to an MSU spokesman.

Smith watched the Spartans practice Thursday from the stands and then announced he was withdrawing from the football squad. His brother, Bubba, is now with the Baltimore Colts.

FIRST SCRIMMAGE

Sophomore quarterback Scooter Longmire also was impressive.

Junior linebacker Rich Saul, the leading tackler on the Michigan State team last season, was everywhere on defense.

Pennant Celebration Nearing for Bengals

If you made a bet in April that the Tigers would be winners in '68, you're on the verge of collecting.

With Walloping Willie Horton and Marvelous Denny McLain (28-5) subduing the Minnesota Twins last night, 8-3, while Chicago was pinning a 3-2 loss on Baltimore, the magic number in the American League race was reduced to 12.

Impresses Jack Kramer

Ashe Picked to Win U.S. Tennis Open

"I have really been impressed by Ashe's play this week," said Big Jake, who, as man and boy, pro and amateur, promoter and commentator, has been watching the parade of greats pass through the West Side Tennis Club for a quarter of a century.

* * *

"I am astounded at the improvement Ashe has shown. He is so much more mature, more sure of himself. In the matches I have seen he seems to be playing well within himself. I wonder how good he could be if he had to."

* * *

Kramer should find out within the next three days when the skinny Negro boy from Richmond, Va., meets his greatest test in the semifinals and perhaps the finals of the first U.S. Open.

SEEKING 'DOUBLE'

Should Ashe pull it off, he then would have scored the American "double"—winning the U.S. Amateur and Open in the same year, a feat that might stand unchallenged for decades. With more top players swinging to pro ranks, the chances of an amateur winning future Opens are fairly remote.

In the semifinals Sunday, the 25-year-old Army lieutenant, top man on the U.S. Davis Cup squad, will meet either teammate Clark Graebner or Australia's John Newcombe, the rookie pro who was the outstanding amateur in the world in 1967.

The other semifinal involves 24-year-old Tom Okker, the giant-killer from The Netherlands, and the winner of the remaining quarter-final match between third-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., both pros.

Season-Ticket Holders Rank 1st in Detroit's Series Ducat Plans

Season ticket holders of box and reserved seats, plus special combination ticket plan purchasers for 1968 will begin receiving their application forms for World Series tickets next week, the Detroit Tigers announced Friday.

The Tigers' plans concerning public sale of World Series tickets will be divulged in two weeks.

* * *

Season ticket holders will be permitted to buy an equal number of box or reserved seats plus an additional equal number of reserved seats for World Series games in Detroit.

Jim Campbell, the Tigers' general manager, has indicated when World Series tickets go on sale they may be broken up — that is, instead of the normal policy of selling each purchaser a seat for each game, each buyer would get a ticket for just one game. This could enable three times as many fans to see at least one Series game.

SPACE AVAILABLE

Hotel rooms are available for world series dates, but reservations should be made as soon as possible, the St. Louis Hotel and Motel Association announced today.

Series games will be played in the National League city Oct. 2 and 3 and, if necessary, Oct. 9 and 10.

The St. Louis Cardinals appear to be the National League entry, provided their pennant drive does not collapse during September.

Scoring Bids Foiled as Cougars Fall, 2-1

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Detroit Cougars had their chances Friday night but couldn't strike pay dirt, falling to the Chicago Mustangs 2-1 in a North American Soccer League game.

The result gave new coach Andre Nagy a 1-5 mark since taking over as head coach. The Cougars now stand last in the Lakes Division of the NASL with a 6-21-4 mark.

Although the Mustangs dominated the first half when all the scores were made, the Cougars commanded the second half, peppering the Chicago goal but failing to penetrate.

Oriole Hopes Fading in AL Pennant Race

Bradford hadn't homered since July 1, when he cracked two. Ironically, those also came in Baltimore and helped the Sox to a 6-3 win.

Gerry McNertney and Pete Ward also had solo homers for Chicago before Bradford led off the 11th with an opposite-field shot over the right field fence off Pete Richert.

BLOOP SINGLE

Messersmith, a 23-year-old right-hander, pitched hitless ball for 6 1-3 innings against the Red Sox before Joe Foy blooped a single to center. The other hit was Mike Andrews' two-out single in the eighth.

Roger Repoz gave Messersmith some working room with a two-run single in the third. Messersmith, who started the season in the minors, had made 24 appearances in relief.

TOO LATE — Bobby Knoop of the California Angels has his hand on the plate but Boston catcher Russ Gibson has already applied the tag to nip the Angel second baseman who was trying to steal home in the eighth inning of their game in California last night. Knoop was on the front end of an attempted double steal. Teammate Chuck Hinton headed for second to draw Gibson's throw, and then Knoop headed for the plate. Bosox' second baseman Mike Andrews, however, returned the throw to Gibson in time to nail Knoop.

State Boxer Stirs Fans in AAU Bout

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—An excited crowd of 3,500 fight fans gave a standing ovation to Alfred Jones Friday night as the spunky southpaw from Detroit got off the canvas to win the middleweight division title in the U.S. Olympic trials here.

Jones, 21-year-old AAU champion, won a decision over Albert Bolden, Navy titlist from Pittsburgh, after a three-round slugfest in which Jones was floored by a right hook in the second round.

The 11 division winners in Friday night's finals won probable berths on the U.S. Olympic team that goes to Mexico City next month. They still must receive formal approval from Olympic Committee judges in training camp at Santa Fe, N.M.

Jones, who was released from military service on a hardship discharge recently after his father died, said he might turn professional "if I make a name for myself in the Olympics."

INSTANT RICHES

"I need a job bad," he said. "I need instant riches."

George Foreman, AAU champion from Pleasanton, Calif., who said he learned to box while serving in the Job Corps, won the heavyweight crown Friday night by decisioning Albert Wilson, Golden Gloves titlist from McKeesport, Pa.

Arthur Redden of Wilmington, Del., won a decision over Leonard Hutchins, Golden Gloves champ from Detroit, in the light heavyweight division.

Birds' Weaver Pays for 'Talk'

BALTIMORE (AP) - Manager Earl Weaver of the Baltimore Orioles has been fined by the American League office for his altercation last Monday with Umpire Larry Napp.

"It's satisfactory with me," Weaver said Friday after receiving a letter from league president Joe Cronin. "In fact, it is less than I thought it would be."

Weaver declined to disclose the amount but indicated, in answers to questions, that it was in the $150 range.

Weaver was ejected from the second game of the Labor Day doubleheader following a vehement argument. Napp said he would press for a suspension of the Baltimore manager.

Harry Dalton, director of player personnel for the Orioles, said he had sent a letter to the league office giving the club's version of the incident.

● Once created the largest flower in the world.

Who he?

He's Mason Williams, 30-year-old writer, folk singer, guitarist, composer, lyricist, pop artist . . . and leave room for more. He's bound to do something else.

His record "Classical Gas," an instrumental, has been at or near the top of music charts for weeks. He calls it "a hybrid form of music, a combination of a lot of music styles—flamenco, folk, bossa nova. I think it embodies the urgency of the American spirit."

In the American age of specialization, Mason Williams himself is a hybrid. Tall, with a long Buster Brown haircut and wearing, on a recent day, a bright purplish pink shirt with beads, he admits to a tendency to try everything."

SWITCHES TO MUSIC

"People used to give up on me because I'd suddenly decide to do something, get going on it, then leave it for something else."

Like in college. A native of Oklahoma, Williams was a mathematics major at Oklahoma City University, living in a boarding house when one day this jazz pianist moved in.

"He sat down one night and played," Williams recalls. "I thought, 'Hey, that's really fun.' So I changed my major to music . . . I didn't even know the names of the notes. But I used mathematical reasoning and made the honor roll." He dropped out of school one semester short of graduation to hit the road as a folk singer.

Doing one-night stands he met Dick and Tommy Smothers who needed a folk song writer to do their new album. Williams wrote the songs and got an offer from a music publisher to come to Hollywood. He came.

Four years later, the "Smothers Brothers Show" was on television, and Mason Williams was one of its writers.

"I don't laugh too much at things," says Williams, who has on his desk a bright red Mickey Mouse clock, unset. "And I hate jokes." He says the long, wacky routines he and cowriter Alan Blye do for the Smothers are usually satirical and have a message.

"The Pat Paulsen campaign has validity," he says. "For young people who don't know much about politics it shows the tricks and devices a presidential candidate employs in his campaign." He thinks Paulsen will get votes in the November election. "He's the candidate you can hide behind. He's just as nonserious as the others."

The comic's campaign, which has cost over $50,000, has featured slogans such as "We can't stand pat."

Besides writing for television, Williams has published seven books of pictures and ramblings—mostly culled from a mammoth journal he writes in daily.

His "bus" book, a fold-up life-size bus picture, is in the permanent collection of the New York City Museum of Modern Art. "You see a real bus and think nothing of it," he explains. "But you see a big picture of one and it's freakier."

Junior Editors Quiz on EAGLES

QUESTION: How did the eagle become our national emblem.

* * *

ANSWER: The eagle is notable for its mastery of flight, keenness of vision and great strength. Since early times, eagles has been used to symbolize courage, dignity, loftiness of purpose.

When the young nation of the U.S.A. decided it needed an impressive symbol, William Barton of Philadelphia suggested an eagle. His first design for a Great Seal incorporating the eagle was not approved by Congress.

However, on June 20, 1782, Congress adopted Barton's revised design of a bald eagle with outspread wings, a shield on its breast, an olive branch in one foot and a sheaf of 13 arrows in the other. Soon, the bald eagle had become accepted as the symbol of the U.S.A.

Benjamin Franklin objected to the eagle idea, suggesting that the wild turkey, found only in the New World, would be more typical.

But the Founding Fathers wanted a symbol which would stand for something lofty, like the purpose of the bold new nation. The turkey was too matter-of-fact, too down-to-earth. So the eagle idea won out, and soon American eagles began to be used everywhere, such as on top of the mirror in our picture.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Year Book if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Youth Corps Visits Colombia

Debe Brooker, daughter of the pastor, who spent the summer in Colombia, South America working with the Alliance Youth Corps, will share some of her experiences and show color slides at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church Sunday evening.

* * *

In speaking of her impressions of the country, Debe said "The area where I spent most of my time was mountainous but there was lush tropical foliage in the valleys. There were so many varieties of everything — flowers, trees, fruits, birds, butterflies.

* * *

"As to the food, contrary to expectations, the food was not hot. In fact it was hardly seasoned at all. I ate the food of the common people almost every day — rice and fried platinos. This is a type of green banana. To my complete surprise steak was cheaper than chicken."

NEVER IN A HURRY

"I found the people were never in a hurry. Planes never leave on schedule. Nothing ever starts on schedule. One just had to learn to be patient while people got ready, or while they changed their minds. Tomorrow was always as good a time as today to do most anything." Debe said.

The Youth Corps teams ministered in a number of churches, but spent most of their time with children and young people.

* * *

Debe told us of her most vivid experiences of service were in a small town with but very few Christians. She and her friends mustering their best Spanish words and phrases went from door to door distributing free Gospel literature and explaining Bible texts to families in the home.

After visiting more than half the homes they held a children's meeting and everyone came, even the parents and babies.

* * *

We asked Debe "Would you like to go back?"

Her answer was an emphatic "Yes."

She went on to explain "I learned to love those people, as did my colleagues, it was actually hard to leave them to return to the United States. Several, like myself, plan to go back and spend their lives there in missionary service."

THINK ABOUT IT!

A family found this verse in personal papers and graciously gave permission to publish it.

I've a wonderful boy, and I say to him, "Son -
Be fair and be square in the race you must run.
Be brave if you lose and be meek if you win.
Be better and nobler than I've ever been.
Be honest and noble in all that you do
And honor the name I have given to you.
We will grow up together, I'll too be a boy
And share in your trouble and share in your joy.
We'll work out our problems together and then
We will lay out our plans when we both will be men.
And oh, what a wonderful joy this will be,
No pleasure in life could be greater for me."

We hope this verse opens treasured avenues of family thought for you. Incidentally, we don't know who wrote the poem. If you happen to know, will you be kind enough, please, to write and let us know. Reflections

WHERE THE LIGHT ALWAYS SHINES

J. L. VOORHEES

Can you conceive what it would be like if suddenly all electric light bulbs were to disappear from the earth, never to be replaced or rediscovered? The light we flick on and off many times each day is taken for granted by so many of us but what if suddenly we no longer possessed it?

M. E. SIPLE

Light to man means so much. It means warmth and security. It is our constant desire here to give what light we can to families in their hour of darkness. The light we do our best to give can never be measured in kilowatts for ours is the light of human understanding.

It is our constant goal to make that light burn stronger and brighter each day in serving our fellow man.

* * *

This way the program is likely to get more than 12 times as much in funds from the state.

Last year the state gave about $8,000 for the program; about $100,000 is possible under OCC, according to Maurice C. Prottengeier, Pontiac schools director of vocational and adult education.

PROTESTERS' PICNIC—Workers from San Francisco's financial district dine and talk in St. Mary's Park yesterday protesting the city's new one per cent commuter tax.

Commuters Brown-Bagging to Protest Newest SF Tax

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hundreds of members of San Francisco's newest dining club —the Brown Baggers—boycotted their favorite eating and watering spots Friday for park bench dining on such delicacies as peanut butter and tuna fish.

The club, undoubtedly the largest and least exclusive in the city, is composed of Bay area commuters protesting Mayor Joseph Alioto's 1 per cent commuter tax, which goes into effect Jan. 1.

★ ★ ★

Even the mayor's commuting cousin, Frank Alioto, showed up on a park bench munching a tuna and swiss and washing it down with a thermos bottle gimlet.

Like many others, Frank Alioto was a newcomer at brown bagging.

BOUGHT BAGS

"I had to go out and buy brown bags. We didn't have any in the house," he said.

The city's 200,000 daily commuters figure that by bringing their lunches every Friday, they can hurt San Francisco's restaurants by $10 million a year. The commuter tax was estimated to bring in $12 million annually.

Though smaller restaurants reported business off up to 50 per cent, the posh spots reported their usual long lines.

Sandwiches were the favorite of the brown baggers. But Bob Andrews, a San Bruno businessman, took the gourmet route—with chicken flambe ignited by a cigarette lighter, guacamole salad and chablis.

★ ★ ★

Numerous cheaters were observed buying sandwiches and drink at shops in the financial district, putting them in paper bags and coming to St. Mary's Square for the protest.

Viet GIs List Yule Wishes

Those are some of the things GIs in Vietnam want for Christmas, according to a survey by the USO.

The survey is conducted each year to help parents, friends, relatives and the public shop for young men and women in the armed forces.

New items on this year's list: Plastic containers for soft drinks; instant breakfast drinks and wallet-size calendars.

About 3.5 billion pounds of detergents are used in the U.S. annually.

Grid Telecast to Cut Show; Carson Irked

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Carson says he will not appear on the "Tonight" show on Monday because the National Broadcasting Co. is using some of his regular 90-minute TV time to televise a professional football game.

Carson said in a statement Friday: "My contract with NBC says that my show will begin at 11:30 p.m. and end at 1 a.m.

"Any changes are subject to mutual agreement and they are supposed to notify me of any proposed changes. But just this week I found out that somebody at NBC sold a football game for Monday night and they want me to cut down on my show. I won't do the show any night any more unless it starts at 11:30."

NBC declined comment on Carson's statement.

ASKED TO TAKE

Carson usually tapes his show from 6:30 to 8 p.m. For Monday's show, the network asked him to tape the 90 minutes and said it would use as much as it could. But Carson declined.

The American Football League telecast, between the Houston Oilers and the Kansas City Chiefs, will start at 9 p.m. EDT. The game is expected to run between 2½ and 3 hours and will be followed by a half-hour of news. This means Carson's show could be delayed by as much as an hour.

★ ★ ★

A similar problem arose with the show last night because of a football game between the San Diego Chargers and the Cincinnati Bengals, Carson said, but the network agreed to eliminate a postgame show so the "Tonight" program could start on time.

Carson also said: "It's not fair to treat my show like a late-night filler. This show is about the biggest money-maker that NBC has, grossing about $27 million or $28 million a year."

★ ★ ★

Carson left NBC for about three weeks in April 1967, charging the network with breach of contract. During a strike by the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, NBC presented reruns of "Tonight" without Carson's consent. Carson's attorney negotiated a new contract giving the entertainer a pay raise and other benefits.

State Road Dept. Workers Get Probe 'Clarification'

LANSING (UPI) — Heads of the State Highway Department and Commission have sent letters to 5,000 department employes "to clear up a possible misunderstanding" about volunteering information to the highway grand jury investigation.

Henrik E. Stafseth, department director, and Charles H. Howitt, commission chairman, said a previous memo, which outlined procedures for employes wanting to testify in the investigation, was sent to workers only to lay down "certain ground rules."

In the previous memo, employes were cautioned to arrange working time off in advance and to return witness fees to the department.

"These procedures should in no way discourage any employe from volunteering information which he believes to be pertinent to the grand jury investigation. In fact, he should regard it as his duty both as a citizen and as a state employe," the two said in their follow-up letter.

COMMISSION ASKED

"It was the State Highway Commission which asked Gov. George Romney last Sept. 27 to petition for a grand jury investigation of alleged wrongdoing in road-building activities in Michigan," they added.

Romney and Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley petitioned Ingham Circuit Court in June for the investigation into alleged highway department links with organized crime and the mishandling of funds.

The grand juror, Ingham Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salmon, began hearing testimony in mid-July. Former Ingham County Prosecutor Leo Farhat is special prosecutor.

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Today's hand falls into the class sometimes called lay-down. South tries the club finesse and the queen loses to East's king.

JACOBY

East returns the king of hearts and South lets it hold because his jack of hearts is a sure loser and he decided to lose it early.

He wins the next heart, leads a club to dummy's ace and takes a successful spade finesse. Then he has to try to get to dummy to repeat that finesse. He succeeds by leading out the queen of diamonds. West has to take his king, otherwise he will lose it.

Later South gets to dummy with the 10 of diamonds, repeats the trump finesse and takes the rest of the tricks.

All this looks mighty simple when you see all the cards and it is rather normal play for an expert, yet when this hand was played in a team match one declarer went down.

He played the hand just the way we suggested earlier but the defense did not go quite the same. It seems that West did not think that he had to take his king of diamonds when South led the queen.

★ ★ ★

He left himself with the unguarded king but South did not know that. Instead South decided that he was going to force that entry to dummy and continued with the jack of diamonds.

If diamonds had broken 3-3 South's play would have worked, but when he led his low diamond later on, West ruffed for the setting trick.

Candid Account of Homosexual Life Boosts Playwright

By WILLIAM GLOVER
AP Drama Writer

NEW YORK — Just a year ago Mart Crowley was running like crazy from the world and himself.

Then he wrote a play that just about everyone said couldn't be done. It was, of course, and now the frail little chap is basking in that long longed-for limelight.

* * *

"I'm a pretty busy person these days," he chirps in off-beat sing-song. "It's lovely."

"The Boys in the Band," the sad-funny caper responsible for Crowley contentment, rode into the off-Broadway lineup on a chorus of critical raves and has become a brisk carriage-trade must-seel.

FOREIGN PRODUCTION

Six foreign productions are set. The CBS network, branching into feature film production, has bought the property and even signed the author as producer.

The reason for all the attention the play is getting is that it is the most unbashed and forthright account of the world of homosexuality yet seen in this era of growing artistic permissiveness.

* * *

Candor is its own reward, however, for peep-show sensationalism is absent and the dramatic substance has universal appeal.

"I'm not out to become the spokesman for the homosexual," Crowley says. To prove it he is working on another play about heterosexual relationships.

SENSATIONALISM

"The only thing I felt about the way homosexuality has been dealt with previously was that it was always used as the sensational disclosure in a play — the great surprise or something. Then the person always ened up hanging himself or sticking a revolver in his trap and calling it quits.

"And I just thought, you know, that's such a cop-out. It just doesn't happen that way.

"I just thought about writing a play, about what the hell is on my mind and I had no idea of breaking any ground on anything.

"I never did set out to write a play about homosexuality. It is all about something else. The play was written about self-destruction and how you can stand in your own way of achieveing anything.

'OWN INABILITY'

"You can sit around and moan and cry about the world treating you rotten when it's usually your own inability or laziness or will to do yourself in."

AP Photo

HE'S ON TOP NOW—Touching on a controversial subject for live theater, Mart Crowley has written a play entitled "The Boys in the Band," which deals with homosexuality in a forthright manner. "I'm a pretty busy person these days," he chirps. "It's lovely."

Having been in psychoanalysis for a good part of his 32 years, Crowley regards the play as an interation of countless couch sessions.

* * *

"God knows, you just don't dream things up suddenly out of total nowheresville. I mean, I've known many people somewhat like that, and there are plenty of things about those characters I just wrote off from my own personal experiences. It's not autobiographical per se.

"But if it's a truthful play, I certainly didn't hear it all over the back fence."

FROM THE SOUTH

Geographically and socially, Crowley comes from that southland region of the country that has spawned such literary lights as William Faulkner, Truman Capote, Carson McCullers and Tennessee Williams.

In his home town of Vicksburg, Miss., his Kentuckian father, now dead, ran a poolhall and cafe. His mother, who hasn't been up to see her boy's success, he depicts as "a total nonrealist who lives totally in dreams — her influence made me reject everything ugly."

* * *

From 1957 to 1960 he worked around New York movie studios and tried to become a member of the scenic designers union.

There ensued a period of floating around Europe, a first film sale that brought him home. The project collapsed and Crowley batted about on script commissions that never bore fruit.

Last May he fled after a particularly disastrous film assignment. First stop was Acapulco "which I hated," then a small village on Mexico's west coast. "I thought, "If I'm not having a nervous breakdown — well — for my own survival I've got to get back to my analyst.' "

At which point "The Boys in the Band" began to emerge.

"I'd been trying to write things that I thought would sell and was backing myself into a corner with garbage that I hated.

"I knew I had to write something positive and that I believed in."

RELUCTANTLY AGREED

He'd been thinking about the play for six months, turned out the manuscript in four or five weeks.

'King Richard' Paternal, Protective

Daley Has Tight Rule Over City He Loves

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago mother of four watched on her living room television set as Mayor Richard J. Daley was castigated by angry delegates on the floor of the Democratic National Convention. Tears filled her eyes as she said, "Poor Richard! Why do they do that to him?"

A bachelor, 40, in the same room last week said, "Daley's still the greatest mayor Chicago ever had."

A father of six, a registered Republican from suburban Oak Lawn, told both of them, "When he's (Daley) defeated next time up, don't expect to be given free garbage cans." This was a reference to one of many political favors used by Daley through his ward committeemen to stimulate and sustain loyalty among the lower middle-income class.

Next time up for Daley, 66, is 1971, when he decides whether to seek a fifth four-year term as mayor of the city Carl Sandburg once described as "proud to be alive and coarse and strong and cunning."

WORDS RING TRUE

The words of the late poet still ring true to many Chicagoans.

To others, natives and out-of-towners, Sandburg's choice of the word "coarse" probably appears accurate, if an understatement.

At the International Amphitheatre, outraged delegates decried Daley's orders in handling peace demonstrators as a disgrace to democracy. Television cameras showed the heavy-jowled mayor smiling at galleries waving "We Love Daley" signs, then switched to the downtown Conrad Hilton Hotel, where Illinois National Guardsmen fired tear gas into a crowd of 4,000 — several of them delegates.

"I hope it explodes in his face," she added.

CENSURE FROM LONDON

And 3,000 miles across the sea, the London Times prepared an editorial calling the Daley "regime . . . a disgrace to the United States."

The mayor — "King Richard" to his friends and foes alike — seethed as the denunciations cascaded on him and the city he paternally has ruled and reformed.

An Irish Roman Catholic, 5-foot-8 and 200 pounds, Daley indeed loves Chicago as a father his son.

Since 1955, when he swept into office with a 125,000-vote plurality, he has created an atmosphere in which the rebuilding of the city has flourished.

The dowtown skyline has been redrawn, O'Hare International Airport — the world's busiest — was opened and numerous slum dwellings have given way to high-rise low-income housing.

Daley's tight rule has rolled on, normally low-keyed and tolerant, pragmatic and compromising.

But when Chicago — the city he calls his — is threatened by adverse publicity or agitators, the jowls shake, the face reddens and the right hand shoots up in angry self-defense.

His shoot-to-kill order after the April riots following the assassinatiin of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. came in the wake of disbelief that the city to which he has devoted his whole life could be torn by looters and rioters.

DALEY'S HARD LINE

He took a hard line and criticized his police superintendent for leniency during riots in which many blocks of the West Side were reduced to ashes and rubble.

His philosophy then, as during the convention, was to meet force with force.

In a statement responding to the televised head-cracking by police in breaking up a confrontation in front of the Conrad Hilton, Daley said:

"One can understand how those who deeply believe in their cause concerning Vietnam would be deeply disappointed, but to vent their disappointment on the city and law enforcement agencies . . . is inexcusable.

"I would like to say that this administration, our administration, and the people of Chicago have never condoned brutality at any time but they will never permit a lawless group of terrorists to menace the lives of millions of people, destroy the purpose of this national convention, and take over the streets of Chicago."

Dooryard Garden Accents Homeyness Of The C. L. Hudsons' Colonial

Ingenuity Holds Key to Home's Decor

By JODY HEADLEE

Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Individual accent pieces add excitement to the decorating theme and reveal the ingenuity of the C. L. Hudsons of Beverly Hills.

In the charming kitchen, a framed cork bulletin board dominates one wall above the fruitwood finished dado.

"We used it as a mirror in our former home and when the mirror broke, we almost threw the frame out. I really didn't want to part with it so I said to my husband, 'Let's do something interesting!

"We finally came up with the bulletin board idea. My husband backed it in cork, antiqued it green and hung it in the kitchen." A butter mold, a school bell and bright red geraniums in a cheese pot dress the piece's narrow shelf.

* * *

"He made the table lamps on either side of the sofa of table legs mounted on wrought iron bases," said Mrs. Hudson. The wooden portion of the lamps repeats the same persimmon coloring of the room's wall paneling.

Earth tones won Mrs. Hudson's vote as accent colors in the white-walled formal living room. The rich burnt orange of the carpeting is picked up in the floral pattern of the room's draperies. Other colors in the print are blue, shades of green and gold on a beige background.

Conversation piece of the room is the white wrought iron cocktail table before the sofa.

"It was an antique flower box from a building in Vienna," said Mrs. Hudson. "You should have seen it when we got it. All rusted and neglected. My husband sprayed it with white automotive paint and it looked like new."

* * *

The table's open center features a colorful arrangement of fruit. Dried flowers using the same tones fill the brass milk bucket centering the glass round top.

Wood Holds Appeal in Its Natural Form

Wood in its natural form continues to hold great appeal for a number of reasons, not the least of which is the feeling of warmth it conveys. But the time when wood was just wood has long since gone. Today, it serves as the base for a great variety of "engineered" products.

One of the most widely used materials of this nature is hardboard. It is made from logs that have been converted to chips, then to wood fibers, which are permanently bonded under heat and pressure into panels of various sizes, some 16' long.

* * *

Since hardboard has no grain or knots, it has a uniformity of strength and appearance.

There are four basic types of hardboard: standard, for interior uses, furniture and cabinet work; service, slightly less dense and often used for paneling; tempered, for exterior uses and those interior uses where a higher degree of strength, moisture resistance and abrasion resistance is required; and special purpose, for decorative, utility and out-of-the ordinary uses.

When a factory-finished hardboard is desired, it can be obtained in a variety of finishes, among them wood grains, marble, simulated tile, lace prints, wallpaper textures and many others. A typical surface includes a baked-on plastic.

Because it is wood, hardboard panels absorb moisture and expand slightly in dimension if exposed to extreme humidity conditions.

* * *

It is a good idea, therefore, when using such panels to condition them first. Let's say you are paneling a room in hardboard.

If humidity conditions are close to normal, unwrap the panels and stand them separately on edge around the room so air can circulate freely around them. This should be done for a period of at least 24 hours before application.

If the room is abnormally damp, it should be allowed to dry out before beginning the installation.

But if the room is very dry — or if it is subject to highly fluctuating humidity conditions — the panels can be "preexpanded" by long exposure to damp air or by wetting the back sides of the boards.

Generally, however, conditions are close enough to normal so that standing the panels on edge for 24 hours is all that is required.

Standard woodworking tools and methods generally can be used for hardboard. For cutting straight edges, a cross-cut handsaw with 8-12 teeth per inch is most satisfactory.

BALANCED DESIGN—Despite the difference in volume of both end wings of this split level, the exterior is well balanced because the taller chimney and cupola over the garage offset the higher ridge over the living room. Entire lower wall is brick.

Exterior Emphasizes Simplicity of Design

The most popular elements of the split level are combined here with simplicity of exterior design in a house which should satisfy the needs of American family living.

An easy but effective way of evaluating a house from the practical standpoint is to note those ingredients which will make for convenient day-to-day use.

* * *

Architect Herman H. York has included many such factors in Design Z-57. Note, for example, that there are only three steps between the ground floor — location of the family room, study and foyer — and the second level — comprising the living room, dining room and kitchen — bringing these "living" sections into close relationship with each other by means of easy movement.

The greater change in levels occurs between the second level and the three bedrooms, a path traveled much less frequently.

FOYER

The large foyer, with a slate floor, creates a spacious appearance due to the open railing between it and the adjacent living room, which has a maximum amount of wall space for easy arrangement of furniture.

A large bathroom has a dual entry. The family room, convenient to the foyer, is within a few steps of the kitchen and, on the opposite side, opens to an out-door terrace.

A beamed ceiling and a brick fireplace highlight the family room. To the left of the foyer is a study. Since it has a closet, it can be used as an extra bedroom if desired.

Also on this level is the service-laundry complex, with space for a washer, dryer and laundry tub. There are two closets, one large enough to place a hot water heater in one end, the other suitable for a vacuum cleaner and brooms.

Shelves provide space for clean-up materials.

DINING ROOM

While the dining room is between the living room at the front of the house and the kitchen at the rear, a special passage-way prevents it from being used for casual traffic.

The kitchen, 19' 6" long, has the appliance-countertop area in the popular U shape. The dinette section is next to a window overlooking the rear yard.

* * *

There are four rooms and two baths on the upper level. Two bedrooms are at the front of the house, the main bedroom at the back. The latter has a large walkin closet, a private bath and a chute leading to the laundry room below.

The fourth room has been designed as a sitting room or an extra bedroom. If the owners choose to use it as a sitting room, an arch or doorway can be placed between it and the main bedroom.

For a very large family, all upper level rooms and the optional study downstairs can be used as bedrooms.

A two-car garage, with its doors opening to the side, can be changed, if the property isn't wide enough, to show the doors toward the front without seriously affecting the design.

Z-57 STATISTICS

Design Z-57 is a split level, with 520 square feet of habitable area on the lower levels, made up of a living room, dining room, kitchen-dinette, study, foyer, laundry, family room and a dual-entry bathroom. Upstairs are four bedrooms and two baths, adding 960 square feet to the livable portion. And outdoor terrace is behind the two-car garage. Over-all dimensions are 65' 2" by 37' 11". A basement is located under the living room, dining room and kitchen.

Square Tub Can Save Space

Hang a Bench on Garden Wall

* * *

Bolts should be above head-height of a seated person or set into the wall's upper edge.

PLAY PALACE — Occasional privacy . . . and even the smallest attic space is a welcome retreat. Emphasize bubble-dome windows, slopes and slants . . . they may be a decorator's dilemma, but they'll stimulate happy hours of make-believe games. Architect Geysa Sarkanyi Jr. suggests medium-to-light colors to enlarge tiny attics that tend to shrink further when finished. Here he creates a visual merger of walls and floor with green carpeting of a blend of 70 per cent acrylic and 30 per cent modacrylic from Dow Badische Co. This soft-yet-sturdy indoor-outdoor carpet is also recessed behind exposed beams, where climbing ropesteps invite horseplay. As an added bonus, carpeting sound-proofs the attic retreat . . . making it a playroom mother enjoys too.

Fit Kitchen to Housewife

A kitchen that doesn't "fit" properly can make a housewife just as footsore as a shoe that doesn't fit well.

However, while the fit of a shoe is simply a matter of size, the adequacy of a kitchen depends on many factors, the least of which is size.

★ ★ ★

In good kitchen design the three major appliances — the sink, range and refrigerator — form an efficient work triangle that eliminates unnecessary legwork. Provisions are made for counter and storage space within the triangle area. And durable, easy-to-clean surfacing materials are used on the floor, countertops and backsplashes.

Although the choice of surfacings is limited to those that can meet the strict functional requirements of a kitchen, your choice of decors need not be limited.

PRACTICAL

Ceramic tile, for example, has all the practical qualities important in a kitchen finishing — ease of maintenance, durability and stain-, water- and fire- resistance.

Yet it is available in such a large selection of colors, color combinations, designs, textures, shapes and sizes that literally any kitchen decor can be implemented with tile.

Use Molding to Dramatize

Don't be afraid to combine smooth-surfaced wood moldings with the now popular rough-sawn sidings for interior feature walls.

Pleasing effects are easily achieved by using base or ceiling moldings, chair rails or panel types, which are available at lumber yards.

Moldings may be stained or painted the same color as the wall, or made more dramatic in other colors.

Textured Paneling at Home Show

A number of new colors and patterns were introduced at the show, including authentically-styled woodgrain, travertine, leather and tapestry panels.

All of the textured panels are highly resistant to stains, dirt and hard wear. Their plastic finish permits them to be cleaned with a damp cloth.

Available with matching moldings, they can be installed with an adhesive directly over existing walls or on new framing.

HIDEAWAY—Convert a dark stairway into a sunny potting shed for plants in need of tender loving care. Architect Sarkaney carpeted free-standing stairs in bright red to give the small area a greater feeling of space . . . and used indoor-outdoor carpet to resist mildew and sand-tracking. The floor was sealed with waterproof material, and washed white river stones brought in to cover it. But the impact of carpeted stairs reached a new peak when the understair enclosure was removed to expose dramatic red steps in reverse.

Today's Heat Cool by Fall

Now's the time to think of swimming, lemonade, air conditioning and vacation. Right?

Wrong! You should also be thinking about your indoor heating system.

Summer is the ideal time to service your home heating plant.

You and your family will never have to do without heat on a cool fall day if you have the heating contractor adjust the controls and clean the boiler during the summer instead of later.

FAST SERVICE

You also receive quicker service from the contractor during the summer months. In the winter when you need him the most, he may be too busy answering emergency calls.

Not only is performance and reliability improved with annual heating plant service, but there are economic gains as well. Fuel bills can be much lower with properly maintained, adjusted and cleaned equipment.

Add Bidet to New Bath

If you're planning a new bathroom this year, ask your plumbing contractor about the bidet.

According to the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, this is a personal hygiene device that's usually installed next to the water closet. It's long been popular in Europe.

* * *

Exposure to the bidet by Americans traveling abroad is one reason for its growing popularity in this country. For a free feyer on the bidet, write to the Plumbing Fixture Mfrs. Assn., 1145 19th St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

Clay Pots Tops for Cook-Outs

Having cook-out guests with different preferences in "rare," "medium", or "well done", steaks and hamburgers? Build charcoal fires in several red clay flower pots and cook your barbecue meats "to order" and avoid mix-ups.

Large clay pots from 8 to 12 inches make ideal individual habachis. Set them on matching clay saucers.

Wood Grain on Hardboard

Handsome wood-grained perforated board is now available.

It's plastic-finished for durability and ease of maintenance. It is ideal for convenient storage of pots and pans in the kitchen, tools in a workshop and for toys and other paraphernalia in childrens' rooms.

This versatile plastic-finished hardboard also is available in solid colors and decorator patterns. It's sold at local building materials dealers.

Dust Interior Walls From Scale, Scum

Interior walls should be dusted and greasy or dirty areas should be washed before painting.

All areas that have been washed should be rinsed off with clear water before painting.

Areas that need dusting should be dusted with a clean cloth or dry mop and allowed to dry before painting.

Commercially treated mops or cloths may leave a film on the wall which will prevent paint from adhering.

Arty Moldings Enhance Design

Wood moldings are used to develop shadows, highlights and accents, and divide surfaces.

Recognize Quality in Bath Fixtures

Remodeling or adding a bathroom are among the top five home improvement projects planned by families this year. If your family falls into this group, do you know how to recognize quality in fixtures?

* * *

This is important because you'll expect your new bathroom to last a long time. As in everything else you can buy, there's a broad range of quality in bathroom equipment.

* * *

For example, quality fixtures are stain and acid-resistant, are easier to keep clean and retain their luster longer. The siphon jet water closet is the most quiet.

Sir John Gielgud is one of the world's most celebrated interpreters of Chekhovian drama.

Gieglud Is Veteran of Chekhov Dramas

No living actor has become more closely associated with the works of the great Russian dramatist Anton Chekhov than Sir John Gielgud, and if Chekhov has become better known to the public over the years, then Gielgud must take much of the credit.

The noted British actor has played in Chekhov dramas in the theater and on television and now brings his knowledge of the writer to his portrayal of Chekhov, himself, in "From Chekhov, With Love."

"As an actor, I have always found Anton Chekhov to be one of the most rewarding of dramatists," said Gielgud.

Nevertheless, while taping the show in London, he admitted that when he first played Chekhov, more than 40 years ago, people regarded the Russian's plays as strange and highbrow. Production of them was rare in English-speaking countries.

"He was frightfully unfashionable," Gielgud recalled. "Now, through familiarity, his plays have become standard classics, and fresh translations have made them more understandable and certainly far more widely appreciated."

Gielgud believes that knowing Chekhov, the man, will make the playwright's works even more admired. He expressed hope that "From Chekhov, With Love" will achieve this — even if only because Chekhov's own life provides such absorbing drama.

'Chekhov' Players Filmed Separately

Thousands of miles were spanned in an unique manner when Sir John Gielgud, Dame Peggy Ashcroft and other members of the cast faced the cameras for the shooting of "From Chekhov, With Love," 90-minute color special based on the life of Russian dramatist Anton Chekhov. The biographical drama will be colorcast on Channel 2 Wednesday from 9:30-11 p.m.

Though two players are sometimes seen on the screen together, at no time during the production were they actually together. They are merged with the aid of dual cameras, but in the story they are thousands of miles apart. In one sequence, for instance, Gielgud is in the South of France and Miss Ashcroft is in Moscow as they talk to each other.

The explanation is that "From Chekhov, With Love" is based entirely on letters written by, and to, Chevhov, and the drama consists of the reading of these letters, with the recipient listening to the writer's words.

This presented unusual problems for the players, especially since Jonathan Miller, who staged the show, avoided having the performers face the cameras directly.

TALKING TO 'ONESELF'

"It was like talking to oneself," remarked Miss Ashcroft, who had the additional problem of being less accustomed to film or television work than any of the other artists.

"From Chekhov, With Love" is unusual in many other respects also. It ignores many accepted techniques. The settings are all back-drops. The extras are cut-out figures. The atmosphere is deliberately artificial, giving the effect of a series of artistically staged and beautifully spoken tableaux.

Much of the story is devoted to Chekhov's relationship with the women in his life: his wife, actress Olga Knipper (Miss Ashcroft), writer Lydia Avilova (Wendy Hiller) and his sister Marie (Dorothy Tutin).

Gielgud portrays Chekhov, with Maurice Denham as his brother, Alexander, and Nigel Davenport as his friend, Maxim Gorky.

"From Chekhov, With Love," to be colorcast Wednesday from 9:30 to 11 p.m. on Channel 2, stars Sir John Gielgud (center), Dame Peggy Ashcroft (right) and Dorothy Tutin.

TV Exec Cases Campuses

If the Students for a Democratic Society wish to learn the layout of college campuses throughout the country, the man to see is Jim Feeney, associate producer of NCAA football on ABC-TV.

Feeney is in charge of making surveys on college campuses for television in all sections of the country. He helps to make the final decisions on camera positions for the NCAA games this fall.

"I have been to 25 campuses this spring and summer," said Feeney, who was graduated from Notre Dame in 1958. "I imagine I have traveled approximately 25,000 miles in the last few months. I know every airport in the country. I have been on airlines that aren't even listed on the New York Stock Exchange."

Feeney might have breakfast in Miami, lunch in Knoxville, and dinner in Evanston. "It is fun to travel to these schools," said Feeney. "I guess I have been to 60 different campuses in three years. There are many beautiful ones including Penn State, Wisconsin, and of course, my school, Notre Dame."

If the airplanes are on time, Feeney has no problems. "I could be traveling in the winter and that would make the going more difficult," continued Feeney. "Yet, despite all the criticism I think the airlines do a tremendous job. Making connections to the small towns like Bloomington, Ind., and Madison, Wis., sometimes is rough, but I am glad I am not driving to all of these schools."

Feeney feels that the cooperation from the colleges is outstanding. "Sure, I see their point when they complain about a position we would like to have for a camera," said Feeney. "ABC doesn't want to have a season ticket holder mad at the university or us because we block a fan's view. Usually, we are able to work everything out. And with the use of small cameras, the problems will lessen."

Certain colleges have ideal facilities for television. "I would say that Michigan State is as good as any college in the country," said Feeney.

Once the season begins on Sept. 14 with the nationally-televised game at Knoxville between Georgia and Tenessee, Feeney will be on the road again. "My wife keeps telling me that I am on the road more than the Fugutive. When fall arrives, I leave Wednesday or Thursday and usually don't return until Sunday morning."

ABC will televise 35 games this fall and Feeney, who will produce games on the regional dates, again is looking forward to the football season.

"Nobody can explain the atmosphere on a college campus on the weekend of a big game unless he is there," said Feeney. "It catches, grabs, and holds you. You can be an impartial observer but somehow, the color and excitement of college football does something to you."

Do-It-Yourself Tips on Patio Expansion

Of all the rooms in the house, it's the roofless one that a family outgrows the fastest.

No sooner is the barbecue purchased and a chaise lounge installed that the family begins discovering the many enjoyments of outdoor living. And all of them add up to a need for more space.

* * *

Fortunately, when the back yard is more or less level, expanding a patio can be easy — on both the budget and the back. It's done by adding a wood deck all around the existing patio.

* * *

The deck addition will be easy to handle if it's built on an eight-foot-square module, using a framing system so simple that the only materials required are 2x4s plus nails and some gravel.

PLACE FOUNDATION FIRST

The construction crew can be family-size and, for tools, just a hammer, saw and carpenter's level are needed.

* * *

After roughly leveling the ground, the first step for each square is to position 12x12x3-inch centers.

* * *

Nine pads are needed, one at each corner, one centered on each side, and one in the middle of the square.

Joists come next: three eight-foot 2x4s are laid parallel, on edge and centered over th pads. Be sure joists are level.

Now 2x4-inch blocking is nailed crosswise between joists. Six pieces are needed, one at each footing. If offset slightly, they can be nailed through the end where they meet the center joist.

GRAVEL CHECKS WEEDS

Spread a three-inch layer of gravel on the ground under the deck to inhibit plant growth and improve drainage.

* * *

Finally, nail on the deck boards, laying them at right angles to the joists. Again use eight-foot 2x4s, spacing them about one-eighth inch apart. Nail deck planks twice to each joist.

* * *

It's no trick to join the basic eight-foot squares to make a deck of whatever size or shape is needed. Going in the direction of the joists, simply repeat the basic square.

* * *

* * *

STAGGER JOINTS

Then, to avoid a hard, straight line where deck boards meet end-to-end, a staggered joint may be created by cutting every other plank three inches shorter than those in between. For the adjoining square, the same thing is done, but opposite.

Aluminum Proves Best

It is obvious that aluminum siding works best when installed with aluminum nails. The method of manufacturing aluminum siding provides a hidden nailing flange that is covered over with the next panel of siding.

* * *

Nail heads, therefore, are protected from the weather and are not as likely to creat problems. Further, the fact that aluminum siding is hung on the wall and not tightly driven to the wall, minimizes the potential problems that exists for other sidings.

* * *

Industry spokesmen, however, are quick to point out that there is a still better reason for using aluminum nails with other types of siding.

* * *

The exposed heads of steel nails can rust and stain with wood and other sidings, however. The newest paints for exteriors are water based — acylics, latexes, etc. Even if the house is new, the steel nail reacts to the new paints and a rusty nail head soon (1-2 days) shows through.

* * *

Most people will be using these new paints which have long service life, and they should be advised that aluminum nails do not create this problem. The cost of repainting a building will exceed the modest extra cost of using aluminum nails many times over.

NOT TOO EXPENSIVE

More ($5-$15) for aluminum nails over other nails is not significant when compared to the extra $400 to $800 a repainting could cost.

The growing problem of even getting painters to bid the job also comes up. The painter shortage is critical in many areas, and there is strong likelihood that it will continue to exist for years to come.

Keep Floor Plain

In rooms containing many accessories, or a large display of trinkets or objets d'art, floors should be in a neutral color. Otherwise there will be a clash because of too much pattern in the room. A vinyl asbestos tile floor in mosaic, marble or chip pattern is a good choice.

If you want to add a strongly masculine note to a room, panel it with plastic-finished, leather-textured panels.

Prior to Moving Make Room Plan

One way to make moving day easier is to decide ahead of time where the furniture will be placed in your new abode. Draw up a floor plan and "fit" the furniture to the available space.

Someone should be present when the furniture is picked up and when it's delivered, but if for some reason no one will be at the new residence when the furniture arrives, see to it that the mover is given a copy of the plan.

* * *

It will help him greatly and save you headaches later.

Even if you are present, the layouts will help you to direct furniture placement so that the job is completed faster and with greater efficiency.

Accountant Can Help in Home Purchase

When American families go house-hunting, they usually seek advice from any one of a number of experts. It might be an attorney, banker, realtor or builder.

Oddly enough, the accountant, the man who is in the ideal position to help the buyer save money, is the expert most often overlooked.

* * *

If you are ready to buy a house and commit yourself to the largest single investment of your life, then you should have the services of an accountant. He's the first person to see, because his advice can save you many dollars today and in years ahead."

The foundation of any new-home purchase is money. Don't just ask yourself "how much house can I afford?"; ask your accountant to tell you what steps you should take in light of your present financial condition, future income and assets.

Ten basic questions will give the house-shopper enough information to get started properly. Here they are:

• Do I have enough money to "get into" a new home (down payment, closing costs, moving expenses)?

• Can I manage the carrying charges — amortization and interest, taxes and insurance — compared with my present housing costs?

• Can my income support the hidden costs (maintenance, commutation, utilities, etc.)?

• What type of mortgage is best for me and how long a period should it span in order to realize the best financial advantages?

• Should I make as large a down payment as possible in order to reduce interest costs or can my money earn more elsewhere if I make minimum down payment and invest the difference?

• Is there any difference in the cost if I purchase my home at different times of the year?

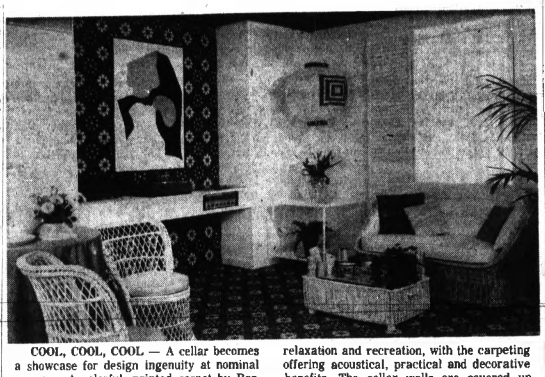
• Is the financial condition of my real estate subdivider or contractor strong enough to complete special assessment improvements or make good on building defects?

* * *

• What tax advantage will the purchase of a new home give me?

• What affect will the purchase of a new home have on my personal estate?

• If I need improvement in a resale home, what is the best way to finance it?



COOL, COOL, COOL — A cellar becomes a showcase for design ingenuity at nominal expense. A colorful, printed carpet by Barwick Mills sets the stage for the transformation and spray-painted wicker furniture provides informality and flavor. Designed by Paul Krauss, A.I.D., the room is ideal for relaxation and recreation, with the carpeting offering acoustical, practical and decorative benefits. The cellar walls are covered up with painted-white chipboard and the Barwick carpet, the door is curtained with a sheer and an old barrel is reincarnated as a gaily colored and covered table.

Repair Mortar Joints Before Trouble Hits

Faulty mortar joints in brickwork often go unrepaired until trouble develops — usually in the form of water seepage that makes its presence known on the interior.

Before such obvious signs as drips and water stains make their appearance, rainwater may have been soaking into the studding or rafters for some time.

* * *

One way to discover warning signs on the outside is to inspect the brickwork periodically for crumbling mortar and/or gaps between the mortar and the bricks.

These joints can be repaired with new mortar and a hammer, cold chisel and pointed trowel.

BY BAG

Mortar is available by the bag, ready mixed, with only water to be added. But application of the mortar must be preceded by removing as much of the old mortar as will come loose by tapping with the chisel and hammer.

It must be tapping only, since you don't want to loosen or break mortar that is solid or crack the bricks. Wipe or blow out bits of sand and mortar dust in the joint.

The next step is to wet thoroughly the area to be patched. Apply a small amount of mortar into the joint at a time.

* * *

This permits packing the mortar tightly and keeps the face of the bricks relatively clean. After the mortar has been allowed to set for a few minutes, make a drainage joint, so water will run off.

Bricklayers have a variety of such joints at their command. The beginner should use a simple V joint, made by pressing the trowel into the mortar so as to make an indentation in the middle.

Or, if you wish, try to duplicate the type of joints used in the rest of the brickwork.

ATTENTION

With a brick chimney, special attention should be given to the mortar joints where the roof flashing meets the brickwork. Any cracks or openings in this sector should be sealed — with fresh mortar if they are above the line of the flashing, with roofing cement if they are on the line. Use the roofing cement generously.

* * *

If there are any white stains on the brickwork — a condition known as efflorescence — scrubbing with a wire brush and plain water may erase them.

However, an acid probably will have to be used for at least some of the stains.

* * *

A solution of one part of muratic acid to five parts of water will deal with the hard-to-remove stains. In brushing in the acid, try to keep it away from the mortar joints.

Muriatic acid usually can be purchased in drug stores. In using it, wear rubber gloves and, of course, keep the solution away from the face.

When the stains have been removed, flush the bricks with water to which ammonia has been added; about one teaspoon of ammonia to a gallon of water.

Installation Holds Key to the Success of Tile

Ceramic tile is an excellent floor-surfacing material — durable, easy to clean, waterproof, fireproof, dentproof, stainproof and scratchproof — but the success of a ceramic tile floor depends as much on the correctness of its installation as upon the tile itself.

The "1968 Handbook for Ceramic Tile Installation," published by the Tile Council of America for architects, tile contractors and other building professionals, offers a comparison of bonding materials for floor installation and suggests their most appropriate use.

Portland cement mortar is applied in a "thick bed," which permits accurate levels or slopes as required and, with quarry and paver tile, produces a floor for heavy use; with extra-duty glazed wall tile, a floor for moderate use. Suitable subfloors for portland cement mortar, or "mud" as it is known in the trade, are concrete and wood.

* * *

Other bonding materials are applied in thin layers. Dry-Set mortar, latex-portland cement mortar, organic adhesives and epoxy mortar are all "thin-bed" materials that will follow the contours of the subfloor, which means that over-all appearance depends to a large extent upon the subfloor's levelness.

Dry-Set mortar or latex-Portland cement mortar can be used over concrete slabs for floors intended for moderate use, according to the handbook. Organic adhesives can be used with all types of tile for floors intended for light use. Suitable subfloors are concrete, which should be dry when installation takes place, other masonry, ceramic tile and double wood floors.

Epoxy mortar can be used to install ceramic mosaics, quarry tile and pavers on floors which will receive heavy use, extra-duty glazed wall tile on floors where use will be moderate.

Keep Rain Outdoors, Check All Caulking

If you had $5,000 to put into a savings account, you wouldn't keep it in a bank that carelessly left its doors unlocked every night. Yet how many people are equally careless with investments far larger than that — their homes.

Oh, they're cautious enough in the beginning — they check the zoning regulations thoroughly, make sure the title is clear, buy the best construction they can afford and all that — but what about after the papers are signed?

* * *

When it comes to keeping up that home, they sometimes neglect important maintenance routines simply because they're not readily apparent or essential to the operation of the house.

Think about your own home, for example. It's easy enough to see when the house needs painting, a few shingles are loose, or a window pane is cracked. But when was the last time you inspected the caulking, both indoors and out?

Poorly caulked seams and joints give moisture a chance to seep into places it doesn't belong, often causing damage that may go undiscovered until the problem is serious.

Areas which should be checked regularly and cracks or joints filled or repaired promptly are those around: bathroom fixtures, tub and shower enclosures, window and door frames, exhaust fans, roof vents, gutters and downspouts, masonry walls and indoor and outdoor electrical installations.

These repairs are easy to make yourself, but its a good idea to use one of the silicone rubber sealants. Their durability practically assures you that it won't be necessary to redo the job in a year or so.

* * *

One company which manufactures these sealants, Dow Corning Corporation, says its products won't shrink, crack, or crumble for as long as ten years, giving a completely dependable and durable seal.

A line of silcone sealants made by this company fits a great variety of household applications, since they stick tightly to most materials and are available in a variety of colors.

A white bathroom caulk is used for sealing seams around tubs and showers, repairing tile and the like.

A clear silicone sealer is good for repairs where transparency is important, such as wall cracks, and broken glass fixtures.

Black and aluminum colored sealers are also available for fixing windows and metallic or dark colored items around the house.

Oak Good Choice for Attic Floor

Remodeling experts offer sound advice to anyone considering an attic conversion to gain an extra bedroom or two, which usually is the objective in such projects.

The advice is simply this: Even if you are operating on a tight budget, don't skimp in the wrong places. It does not pay in the long run.

For such important features as the floors, for example, it's smart to use a quality material such as oak.

Offering structural strength, beauty and all-around serviceability for the life of the house, oak floors enhance the value of a home.

* * *

If joists are spaced no farther apart than the conventional 16 inches and the floor is not to be subjected to unusually heavy weight loads, it often is possible to cut costs by omitting subflooring.

NAIL DIRECTLY

Tongued and grooved strip oak flooring of standard 25/32-inch thickness can be nailed directly to the joists. An economy grade, such as No. 2 Common, can be used.

Later, when the family finances permit, a second layer of strip oak flooring can be applied over the first to provide a floor of double thickness and added structural strength.

Of course, when subflooring is already there, the strip oak flooring is nailed to it, so that the extra strength of the double floor thickness is present immediately.

Although oak floors enjoy an enviable reputation as the preferred flooring for homes, they are available in the low to moderate cost range, as well as the luxury bracket.

Keep Tile Patina

According to The Better Floors Council, vinyl asbestos tile floors can be maintained with a lovely patina by simply washing and buffing them, leaving off the usual wax or other finish. Wax should be applied where a high gloss is desired or where the floors may be subject to very hard wear.

Red China May Be Readying N-Test for 19th Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist China apparently is setting the stage for a major celebration on its 19th anniversary Oct. 1. U.S. experts do not rule out a nuclear test shot to capture world attention.

Red Chinese scientists at testing grounds in Sinkiang province of western China have all the materials and the sophistication needed to conduct such a test from the ground or from a jet bomber, officials say.

* * *

This could happen at any time without elaborate and detectable advance preparations, they add.

American experts say they think the Chinese Communist nuclear program has been slowed by the cultural revolution.

* * *

The trouble seems to be of political origin in Peking, rather than as the result of any specific disorders in Sinkiang, the province bordering the Soviet Union.

There have been about half a dozen confirmed Chinese nuclear blasts, with the last believed to be a hydrogen-type explosion in the early summer of 1967.

* * *

There was believed to have been another attempt last December, but the Atomic Energy Commission says it may have been a dud. The Chinese never said anything about that one, tending to indicate to American analysts that it wasn't successful.

* * *

Peking Radio announced Friday that revolutionay committees have been set up in Sinkiang and Tibet—the last two of the 29 major administrative units in China to be brought under such control.

MORE ORGANIZED

For the past six months, according to information reaching Washington, Communist China has been edging toward more organized control under the military pattern and away from the earlier chaos of the cultural revolution.

* * *

This pattern showed up again in Sinkiang and Tibet with the complete domination of the military over the local government organization.

2 Weeks Are Set

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has proclaimed Oct. 6-12 as Fire Prevention Week and Oct. 21-27 as Writers Week in Michigan.

JFK Kin Will Be at Carrier Fete Today

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The Navy places the aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy in commission today before a star-spangled audience that includes most of the near kin of the slain president for which she was named.

Six weeks from now, the Kennedy will pull out of the shipyard for her shakedown cruise in the Caribbean, manned by a crew of 2,500 and an air wing that will bring her total complement to 5,200 officers and men.

* * *

Mrs. John F. Kennedy, widow of the president; her daughter, Caroline, who christened the carrier last year; and her son John are among the 10,000 invited guests for today's commissioning.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, his wife and their children; his mother, Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy and eight of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's children also are to be present.

A close friend of the Kennedy family, former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, is the speaker for the hourlong commissioning ceremonies on the hangar deck of the carrier. McNamara now heads the World Bank.

Members of the Cabinet, congressmen, governors and high-ranking military officers, also are among the guests—as were many of the Kennedy's crew. The public gets a chance to see the ship Sunday.

Policy Booklet Aids Teachers

A new handbook of policies for Pontiac schoolteachers should please some members of a critical citizens committee who recommended such a manual.

The new 1968-69 handbook provides teachers with information on the instructional program, teacher resources, improvement opportunities, benefits, leave and payroll provisions and personnel policies and procedures.

Among many other things, the school board's equality of educational opportunity (EEO) committee has recommended that each teacher be given information on the employment contract, hiring, assignment, transfer and promotion of teachers and other rules and regulations.

"We had this project under way when the EEO report was made," comments Supt. Dana P. Whitmer, "so it is fortunate we could respond so quickly."

Waterford Utility Manager to Ask Budget Increase

Waterford Township Utilities Manager Kenneth Squiers will ask the township board at Monday night's meeting for approval of a $35,000 increase in the budget to cover 1969 costs of operation and maintenance of the water supply system.

Last year's budget of about $309,000 is no longer sufficient, according to Squiers. He will ask for $343,000.

The board, which meets at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of Waterford Township High School, also will consider two requests for liquor licenses in the township.

Owners of Lakewood Lanes at 3121 W. Huron have petitioned for a permit to serve liquor.

Sandy Dennis Has to Learn English English for Movie

By EARL WILSON

LONDON — When Sandy Dennis of Lincoln, Neb., and "Any Wednesday" swept into London to star in an English film, the first thing they did was teach her English . . . English English . . . since she was playing an English schoolgirl with an English mum.

And so there she was the other day at somebody's house in Putney, a suburb of London, in an English schoolgirl's uniform, using expressions like "the tube"—meaning not the telly but the subway—in a scene for "The Millstone," which is the story of a young unwed mother: Sandy Dennis.

WILSON

Sandy plays the daughter whose intellectual Fabian parents are too busy to know what she's doing or thinking.

We were out in the garden on a sunny noon.

In a flashback, Sandy the schoolgirl had arrived home from school; her mum had sort of forgot to meet her. "How did you get here?" her mum asked her.

"By tube, of course," Sandy said, lowering her eyes bashfully.

* * *

"I came over here and took about three weeks of diction and cadences," Sandy said later when we found a room that was unoccupied. "Of course, I was terribly American, but it was simple enough, learning to say 'cahn't' instead of can't. At least, the girl I'm playing says 'cahn't.'

"And they drop all of the r's. Instead of car it's 'cah' and instead of park it's 'pahk.' Those I found relatively easy to do.

"There are other words like 'job' which they say like 'jawbb,' and sometimes they run words together until parents become almost 'pahnts' and letters become 'lettuce.' And sometimes when I'm talking to my husband"—Gerry Mulligan, of course—"he stops me and says, 'What did you say, honey?' because I've been talking English English to him.'

Sandy giggled when this was mentioned to her. "They probably let me get away with it," she conceded.

But it was to be expected that some of this English English would cling to her. She and her husband have been living a quiet life at a house in Maidenhead, she working on the film all day, her husband composing for an album, neither of them getting out into the high life of London. And they are deprived of the 28 cats that she keeps in her house or apartment back home.

Curiously, Sandy got involved with a friend in England about her beginnings in Nebraska and was told firmly that she's not from the Middle West . . . that Nebraska is in "the Great Plains area."

And I always thought I was from the Midwest, but they tell me the Midwest is more Chicago and places like Indianapolis, Missouri," Sandy said.

"Indianapolis, WHAT?" demanded this reporter.

* * *

"Indianapolis, Missouri, isn't that the name of it?" Sandy said.

She realized her mistake and agreed that she'd better hurry home—she's been away from the Middle West too long.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Totie Fields, a hit at the Royal Box, took out ads in the trade papers—and under her photo the hefty comedienne wrote: "Raquel Welch—eat your heart out!" Mae West, interested in spiritualism, plans a seance for film celebrities . . . Hairdresser Leslie Blanchard says his show horse won a blue ribbon (after Blanchard had fixed the horse's mane himself) . . . Actress Corinne Orr is the voice of both male and female leads in the TV cartoon series, "Marine Boy."

Rudy Vallee told Joe Franklin his old recordings are still selling well (and Rudy feels awful because he gets no royalties from these elderly discs) . . . Wally Cox had to use a double in one scene for his ABC-TVer "What Gap?" Wally, an expert motorcyclist, couldn't fake being a novice for a comedy shot . . . Choreographer Onna White flies to London Sept. 25 for the "Oliver!" premiere, returns Sept. 26 to work on "A Mother's Kisses."

Harry Belafonte will film "Angel Levine" (with Edward G. Robinson) in N.Y.C. this winter . . . Eva Marie Saint rented Johnny Carson's Las Vegas home while she films "Stalking Moon" there . . . Jimmy Dean was named honorary mayor of Plainview, Tex. (where he owns a sausage factory) . . . Broadway gets another cafe in January: The Billy Club.

What Wall Street Did

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market showed a burst of confidence in the immediate future for stocks and business as it racked up an impressive gain the first post-Labor Day week.

Labor Day, traditionally the start of a new year for business and the market, served once again as an apparent turning point. The stock market made its biggest advance in three months.

The Associated Press Average of 60 stocks rose 8.0 to 341.1. Its largest weekly gain since the week ended June 8 when it rose 9.8.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average advanced 25.24 to 921.25. This put the closely watched indecator near its 1968 closing high of 923.72, posted July 15. The question in Wall Street was whether the market next week could overcome expected resistance in this critical area and move on to a new high for the calendar year.

Volume for the four-day trading week, shortened by Monday's holiday, was 44,849,810 shares compared with 38,592,280 for the four-day trading week preceding.

What was Wall Street telling the financial world? In the opinion of some analysts, the market was saying that the powerful momentum generated by business in the first half would not be dampened too much by the effects of the 10 per cent income surtax.

"While a number of glamor issues have flashed some dramatic fireworks this week, it has been the soberly valued blue-chip stocks that have carried the brunt of leadership, and we envision a continuation of this trend," said Bache & Co.

★ ★ ★

The week's advance in the stock market got under way slowly and hesitantly. As one analyst noted, however, for the past month or so stock prices have been climbing steadily higher "against a wall of pessimism."

The trading week began with an advance Tuesday, but volume was light.

The market on Wednesday carved out a sharper gain in livelier trading. The "bandwagon effect"—the tendency to buy when the market seems to have made up its mind to rise —was under way.

★ ★ ★

On Thursday the rally got under a full head of steam as volume swelled and larger numbers of investors began to buy. Blue chips and less reputable issues went up together. The rally continued in heavier trading Friday.

Of 1,664 issues traded this week, 1,062 rose, and 462 fell. New highs for the year totaled 134 and new lows 24.

NEW YORK (AP)—Most bond prices declined the past week as investors remained cautious.

Government bonds were up at the beginning of the holiday-shortened week, but by the close about half of the gains had been lost, according to Salomon Brothers & Hutzler, Wall Street investment firm. Short-term rates were mostly unchanged. Three-month Treasury bills rates rose and six-month bill rates declined, so that they both closed at about the 5.24 per cent level.

★ ★ ★

Prices on recently issued and seasoned corporate bonds declined fractionally. Most of the previously unsold new issues were released from trading restrictions and sold down from 1 to 2 points.

★ ★ ★

The decline in municipal-bond prices continued into the fourth consecutive week. Some municipals were less than a point above their late May lows. Short-term issues, however, were steady.

★ ★ ★

The week's largest offering was a $100-million block of Ohio improvement bonds due 1969-78, which moved quite well at retail. The issue was priced to yield investors from three per cent for the 1969 maturities to 3.95 per cent for bonds due in 1978. The successful bid by underwriters was 100.0159, setting a net interest cost to the state of 3.8339 per cent. Ohio's previous bond sale to finance highway projects was Jan. 5, 1967, when it sold a $75-million issue at an annual net interest cost of 3.706 per cent.

★ ★ ★

Portland, Ore., sold $12.5 million bonds for dock development at an annual net interest cost of 4.08 per cent. Underwriters reoffered the bonds at prices to yield from 3.20 per cent in 1970 to 4.20 per cent in 1983.

★ ★ ★

The $20-million issue of Jacksonville, Fla., electric-system bonds sold to underwriters at a net interst cost of 4.3006 per cent. These were reoffered at prices to yield from 4 per cent in 1977 to 4.25 per cent in 1980-81.

★ ★ ★

In the corporate market, Mcihigan Consolidated Gas Co. sold $25 million in 30-year 7 per cent first mortgage bonds which were reoffered at 102.388 to yield 6.8 per cent.

★ ★ ★

South Carolina Electric & Gas Co.'s $20 million of 6½ per cent first and refunding mortgage bonds, due 1998, reached the public through underwriters at 100, to yield 6.50 per cent.

Adult Class Sign-Up Next Week at WKH

Registration for all adult education credit courses at Waterford Kettering High School will start Monday and run through Thursday. Anyone from Waterford or the surrounding area can register between 7 and 9 p.m. any of the nights, according to Director Donald Arsen.

Arsen said the adult program (anyone older than 16 is eligible) is designed to help residents of the Waterford area win high school diplomas with little inconvenience.

Classes are scheduled to begin the week of Sept. 23 and will end the week of Jan. 20. Both daytime and evening classes will be offered, according to Arsen. Day classes are at Mason Junior High School at 3835 W. Walton and evening classes are at Waterford Kettering High School, 2800 Bender.

Subjects listed range from American government to blueprint reading. Practical and academic subjects will be covered with about equal emphasis in the program, Arsen noted.

Each class meets four hours a week, usually in two two-hour sessions. Saturday classes run from 8 a.m. to noon. "We really have made an effort to schedule classes for every conceivable time of the day so that anybody desiring a high school diploma can get one," Arsen said.

All adults will be placed in high school classes regardless of the last grade they completed in school. Arsen said last year the program drew 971 students. Of these, he said, 213 accumulated enough credits to obtain high school diplomas.

"More than 25 per cent of the students were 40 years of age or older," he added.

HHH Blasts 'Warrior' Nixon

By The Associated Press

Democratic candidate Hubert H. Humphrey has launched his presidential bid with a frontal assault — picturing GOP opponent Richard M. Nixon as a "cold war warrior" and exploiter of voters' law and order fears.

The Republican candidate, making almost no reference to Humphrey called yesterday for reevaluation of the U.S.-Soviet bridge-building effort.

Humphrey set out his campaign challenge yesterday on a special hour-long edition of ABC's "Issues and Answers" and in a speech to the triennial B'nai B'rith convention in Washington.

"My Republican opponent is no racist," Humphrey told the international Jewish organization. "He is a fair and just man. But he and the Republican party have chosen this year to join forces with the most reactionary elements of American society."

'COMPETING WITH WALLACE'

He said the Republicans are competing with third-party candidate George C. Wallace "for the votes of people who at very best want to put the brakes on our progress toward full equality."

Nixon, also addressing the B'nai B'rith convention, said the United States must assure Israel a "technological military margin" to discourage attack from numerically superior Arab forces.

★ ★ ★

Nixon said earlier in the day he is concerned about some provisions of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty before the Senate.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, launching his Democratic vice presidential campaign, called in San Antonio for Americans to "get our emotions under control and start using our heads."

RED PLOT SEEN

Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew, the GOP vice presidential candidate, said on NBC's "Meet the Press" he believes some leaders of disorders such as those in Chicago two weeks ago are involved in a Communist conspiracy.

DAVID LEVINSON

Retirement May Mark End of Era

By ED BLUNDEN

Levinson, a real estate appraiser of 2150 Northlawn, Birmingham, served on the board for 35 years. At 72, he will end his duties in January.

★ ★ ★

On Sept. 25 his friends, relatives and fellow public officials will honor Levinson with a banquet. The event is titled, "35 Years of Public Service." It will be held starting at 6 p.m. at the Raleigh House, Telegraph at 10 Mile Road, Southfield.

IN OLD TRADITION

Appointed in 1932 to the board by Birmingham, Levinson was a public servant in the old tradition. That is, he was a man with a full-time occupation of his own who spent many of his free hours in government.

LBJ Aides List Spending Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration has decided where it will whittle and where it will hack to produce more than $6 billion in spending cuts imposed by Congress.

The agency-by-agency figures released Sunday add up not to $6 billion, but $3.5 billion.

★ ★ ★

The administration doesn't have to shoot for the full amount, Budget Bureau Director Charles J. Zwick said, because Congress, in passing the cutback legislation, reserved to itself the right to take the first bite.

And it appears, Zwick said, the lawmakers will make cuts totaling about $3.3 billion before adjourning.

$900 MILLION MORE

The reductions made on Capitol Hill and those the administration intends to make total nearly $7 billion because amendments and reestimates have added $900 million since January by the cutbacks subject to reduction by the cutback law.

Division Aiming at Million Sales

By HARRY J. REED
Managing Editor, The Pontiac Press

Pontiac Motor Division has set its sights on a million-car sales year, and unveiled a sharply restyled 1969 Grand Prix designed to lead the way to this figure.

In showing the new offerings at a press preview today, Pontiac General Manager John Z. DeLorean said all of Pontiac's merchandising and marketing plans point toward one goal—"to sell over 1 million cars in 1969, and to increase our third-place margin to 250,000 units."

Selling in third place in the industry for the eighth consecutive year, Pontiac expects to lead its nearest competitor by 175,000 units at the end of this year.

STRIKING EYE-CATCHER

The Grand Prix emerges from the styling shop as a striking eye-catcher which will have salesmen writing orders at top speed.

"The 1969 Grand Prix is totally new in image, concept and level of luxury," DeLorean said.

It sports the longest hood in the industry, and a simplicity of clean, sculptured, uncluttered styling that deserves the title "classic."

★ ★ ★

Among its innovations are a concealed radio antenna, an electrically heated rear window defogger and a driver's command seat completely enclosed in energy-absorbing material for optimum protection.

"It is the blue chip in the specific body sports car field," DeLorean says.

RECORD PRODUCTION

In the 1968 model run just completed, Pontiac produced a record 910,977 units, a gain of 94,000 over the previous year.

It was the seventh consecutive year in which deliveries exceeded those of the previous year. "No other auto manufacturer in the United States can point to a similar record," DeLorean said.

In eight years, Pontiac's share of the industry registrations has risen from 5.9 per cent to 9.9.

"To keep pace with our tremendous sales growth, we have embarked on the most extensive plant enlargement program of any manufacturer in the industry," DeLorean asserted.

Next month, he added, a new 281,000-square-foot engine parts and chassis components plant will be fully operative, and a new electric-melt foundry, which virtually will eliminate all air pollution, will be partially operative later this winter and fully operative by 1973.

Sharing the showroom space will be a full line of new Pontiacs, Tempests and Firebirds.

SPLIT BUMPER LOOK

The 16 models in the Catalina, Executive and Bonneville series have a new split bumper look to complement Pontiac's split grille, new roof lines, and the removal of vent windows.

The Bonneville series features a separate and distinct grille, a rear bumper with a rubberlike pad, and a 428-cubic-inch engine as standard equipment.

For Firebirds, the look is longer and lower. It has front bumper extensions of a tough plastic material in body color, with wider bucket seats and a new instrument panel.

★ ★ ★

For the first time in the Firebird, a three-speed automatic transmission will be available for all overhead camshaft six-cylinder engines. The Firebird is available in a two-door hardtop coupe and a convertible.

A new vertical theme front-end appearance, with newly designed instrument panels and elimination of vent windows on hardtop coupes and convertibles marks the lineup of Tempest, Custom S, Le Mans and GTO models.

In addition, there is a new two-way tailgate for station wagons, an ignition-steering gearshift lock, two Ram Air options for GTO customers, and the three-speed automatic transmissions available on all models.

"These new models are styled and engineered to further accelerate the surge which is carrying them to new sales records," according to DeLorean.

U.N. Reminds Israel, Egypt of Cease-Fire

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council today called on Israel and Egypt to stick to their 1967 cease-fire after 10 Israelis and 20 Egyptians were reported killed in a four-hour gun battle across the Suez Canal yesterday.

The battle at one point reportedly ranged along most of the canal, from El Qantara in the north to Port Taufiq in the south.

The U.N. truce team finally arranged a cease-fire by early evening. One member of the team was reported wounded and two U.N. observation posts were hit.

Israel said the Egyptians violated one agreement with the observers to stop the shooting.

The canal front was reported calm today.

COMPLAINT SHELVED

The battle was the fourth and most serious incident along the canal since Aug. 26. An Israeli charge of Egyptian provocations was already before the Security Council, but the battle yesterday and the council's response put the earlier complaint on the shelf, at least for the time being.

Israel and Egypt each accused the other of starting the shooting. Lt. Gen. Odd Bull of Norway, chief of the U.N. cease-fire teams, said one of his groups reported the Israelis fired first in the team's area of observation, while three other observer teams said the Egyptians shot first in their areas.

★ ★ ★

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah told the council that Egyptian forces opened fire first on Israeli engineers who had just detonated an antivehicle mine the Egyptians had planted north of Port Taufie, on the east bank of the canal.

Egyptian Ambassador Mohamed El-Kony said this was a fake charge to "cover another act of premeditated aggression."

The Egyptian command said Israel began the battle by shelling Port Suez.

Israeli officials denied Egyptian claims that the Israelis used missiles during the firing. The Jordanians claimed the same thing following a recent Israeli attack, but Israeli sources said the Arabs were confusing missiles with long-range artillery.

Suez Gov. Hamid Mahmoud said he plans to step up the city's evacuation program so that only 30,000 people will remain in the city to run its factories, which include two giant refineries and a fertilizer complex.

Gov. Mahmoud said the casualty figure was rather small because "we had advance warning that the Israelis were undertaking mysterious action on the east bank of the canal and that an artillery attack was impending."

Yesterday's shelling made 500 families homeless and destroyed the water supply pipes in three districts, the governor said.

55,000 Walk Out in NY Teacher Row

From Our News Wires

Teachers strikes were settled in East Haven, Conn., and Salt Lake City, but the United Federation of Teachers called 55,000 of its members out of classrooms in New York City on the first day of the fall term.

Aroused by a decentralization plan that gave 30 local governing boards throughout the city authority over teachers, the UFT went ahead with its walkout plans even though 10 teachers dismissed in a controversial Brooklyn district were reinstated.

However, a spokesman for the United Federation of Teachers (UFT) said the union and the central board of education had reached a "basis for agreement" during negotiations early today.

COULD AFFECT 1.1 MILLION

Schools remained closed by strikes for 60,000 students in Michigan and 20,000 in East St. Louis, Ill. Teachers walkouts also kept schools shut in East Chicago, Ind., and Madison, Ill.

★ ★ ★

In Michigan, a teachers federation and school officials at Inkster have accepted a fact finder's contract recommendations, signaling the opening of classes in one of the last seven Michigan school districts involved in contract disputes.

The Inkster Federation of Teachers and the school board last night endorsed the recommendations of fact finder William Gould. They include an agency shop provision calling for all teachers to pay dues to the union, whether they are members or not.

INKSTER PAY

Pay for Inkster teachers with bachelor's degrees will range from $6,400 to $10,500, compared with last year's $6,000 to $9,600.

The six other districts in which classes have been kept from opening because of contract troubles are Ecorse, Lincoln Park, Northville, Riverview, Taylor and Trenton.

Pontiac Div. Unveils New Cars

Fifteen Pontiac intermediate models are offered in four series. For the first time since its introduction, no Tempests will be built at the local plant.

This change is to facilitate the production of all Grand Prix models locally. Last year's total of 30,000 Grand Prix is expected to rise to 120,000.

For all Tempest models except the GTO the standard engine is the 250 cubic-inch overhead camshaft six-cylinder engine.

STANDARD EQUIPMENT

All 1969 Pontiac engines have as standard equipment closed crankcase ventilation, thermostatically controlled carburetor air preheater and emission control.

Flush-type rocker switches control the windshield wiper and accessories, and the ignition switch has been moved from the instrument panel to the steering column as part of the ignition steering gearshift lock feature.

★ ★ ★

New upper-level ventilation contributes to quieter interiors and draft-free ventilation with the windows closed. A picture-window effect is achieved by elimination of vent windows.

A performance Ram Air hood induction system is available on the GTO, which features driver control of the air intake on the hood scoops.

The Ram Air IV option for the sports enthusiast provides two hooded scoops, two air duct systems through the grille, and a higher performance engine.

Along with the two-way tailgate is a step built into the rear bumper, for ease of entry into the rear of the wagon.

In seeking the uncluttered styling look, the radio antenna on the Grand Prix has followed the windshield wipers into concealment.

Fabricated within the windshield is a barely visible wire, .005 inches in diameter, which extends up the center of the windshield and across the full width at the top. A wire at the lower center of the windshield connects the antenna to the radio.

Three round, deep-set instrument clusters house the engine instruments, speedometer and clock. Heater and radio controls are directed toward the driver, and the windshield wiper switch and all accessory switches are flush mounted, and clearly labeled.

★ ★ ★

It resembles an aircraft cockpit.

The passenger side of the front seat is more spacious with a curved dash, and the removal of the glove compartment.

This has been moved to the console between the seats. Door-locking knobs have been moved nine inches forward, for ease of front seat occupants.

IMPROVED STRENGTH

Among safety features in the Grand Prix and Pontiacs is a reinforcement barrier for added protection from side impact. A boxed, section steel member integrated in the doors and rear quarter forms a solid section for improved strength.

The 1969 Pontiacs ride on longer wheelbases—122 inches for Catalinas and station wagons, and 125 inches for Executives and Bonnevilles. This is up one inch from last year.

The Grand Prix wheelbase is 118 inches.

Catalina models are one inch longer this year, at 217.5, and Bonnevilles are one-half inch longer, at 224.

The Firebird is on an 108.1-inch wheelbase, with its over-all length up two inches to 191.1. Tempests are built on two wheelbases, 112 inches for two-door models and 116 inches for four-door models.

All 1969 Pontiacs will be equipped with newly designed ignition systems to significantly reduce radio frequency interference.

DeLorean pointed out that the average Pontiac dealership sold 61 units annually 10 years ago; five years ago it had risen to 173, and currently it is 261 units.

PREDICT SALES HIKE

"In the 1969 model year we forecast 300 sales per dealer—this could put us in first place in the number of cars sold for each franchised dealer," the general manager said.

Johnson's Aides List Budget Cuts

Agency heads have been told, Zwick said, that the $3.5 billion reduction will be made by cutting:

- $1 billion from defense expenditures, but without cutting into funds for the Vietnam war.
- $1 billion in loan programs of agencies such as the Small Business Administration, Farm Credit Administration and Export-Import Bank.
- $200 million from the federal-aid highway program, by delaying certain projects.
- 100 million from the space program, but without touching the Apollo man-on-the-Moon project.
- $1.2 billion from all other civilian agencies, but with high-priority social programs such as "safe streets," low-income housing and manpower training protected from cuts.

PONTIAC BOSS—Pontiac Motor Division General Manager John Z. DeLorean is shown with two of the Grand Prix models for 1969 previewed today. As chief engineer and then general manager, DeLorean is credited with establishing Pontiac as the innovator of the auto industry, with the overhead cam engine, concealed windshield wipers, plastic front bumpers, and this year, a concealed radio antenna in the windshield.

Birmingham

Delay Likely on Airing of Housing Law

BIRMINGHAM — The scheduled discussion at tonight's City Commission meeting at 8 regarding Birmingham's cluster-housing ordinance will probably be postponed.

The commission had tentatively scheduled the discussion with the Pleasant Avenue Homeowners Association. Commissioners had planned to talk about Birmingham's cluster housing regulations as they relate to Pleasant Avenue properties.

★ ★ ★

The request for the postponement came from city planning director William R. Brownfield. The commission had requested the planning board to consider the problem of cluster housing in the Pleasant Avenue area after pleas by the local home owners association.

Brownfield noted that the board is presently studying the problem and various solutions but that the report is not yet complete.

PLAN PROTESTED

He said that due to vacations, the city attorney's office has not been able to evaluate the proposals. Thus, Brownfield requested that the matter be postponed until Oct. 7.

★ ★ ★

The problem arose when the Pleasant Avenue group protested a local developer's plan to construct a cluster housing development in the area. Under cluster housing ordinances, the required square footage for the lots of residential dwellings is reduced.

The association pointed out that although the proposed homes would be in the $35,000 to $50,000 price range, they would not fit in with the general character of surrounding homes because of the size of the lots.

★ ★ ★

Tonight's discussion would have dealt with the establishment of a plan to maintain established residential areas which are more restrictive than the existing zoning.

SEWER HEARING SET

The commission will hold a hearing tonight concerning the Arlington-Shirley relief sewer. The commission will formally act to establish the amount that abutting property owners will be assessed for the project.

The hearing will allow all interested persons to voice their opinions on the proposed assessments.

★ ★ ★

In other business the commission will hear a report from police chief D. L. Bruestle on a traffic survey conducted on Eton between Lincoln and 14 Mile.

The survey was requested by residents of Eton who were disturbed by the amount of truck traffic on the road, especially late at night and in the early hours of the morning.

Bruestle will also recommend that the city allocate funds to erect a traffic signal at the intersection of Hunter and Forest.

★ ★ ★

Bruestle said that the cost of the signalization is estimated at $2,540 of which Birmingham's share would be $1,270. The other half of the project will be funded by the Michigan Department of State Highways. Bruestle said that the funds have already been budgeted for Birmingham's share of the project.

Share in Housework, Soviet Men Are Told

* * *

Soviet statistics show that women do three-quarters of the housework in this country. A full-time housewife is a rarity in the Soviet Union. Equal rights for women has been taken to mean they should go off to the office or factory just like their menfolk.

"How often are you tired?" was asked of women workers at a Leningrad factory. "Almost always," 70 per cent answered.

"Is it just that women gained the right to work, only to lose the right to have some free time of their own?" Mrs. Ada Baskina asked, her article intitled "Let's Take Care of Women" was run in the influential weekly newspaper Literaturnaya Gazeta, literary gazette.

* * *

Mrs. Baskina said that overworked wives had lost the "beauty and gaiety" that had won their men to them in the first place. She said that it was mainly because of this that husbands began seeking female companionship elsewhere — and if husbands shared in housework, they would be less given to drunkenness and excessive smoking.

Full-Day Classes Expected as Avondale Millage OK'd

A winning margin of 35 votes in Avondale School District's millage election Saturday is expected to restore full-day classes in the junior high school next week.

Elementary classes should be back on full-day schedules within two weeks, according to administrators who curtailed schedules at the beginning of this school year due to lack of funds.

* * *

Voters approved by a count of 1,532 to 1,497 a 7.7-mill increase for five years. It was the third request for additional funds made in the district this year. Two previous issues were soundly defeated.

Annual revenue from the millage hike is estimated at $273,000.

REAL WINNERS

"The real winners in this election were the boys and girls," said John W. Dickey, school superintendent.

He noted that the question of whether the district should cease to furinsh textbooks for its high school students was turned down.

* * *

The vote was 1,676 opposed and 1,307 in favor.

Another area school millage issue is being decided today in Oxford where voters are being asked to approve 2.5 additional mills for one year.

MONEY FOR SALARIES, CUTS

The money there is to be used for increased salaries and the reinstitution of program and capital outlay cuts made last spring.

Dickey noted the Avondale millage was carried by the voters of Precinct 1, residents of Auburn Heights and Bloomfield Orchards.

* * *

A count of 1,032 "yes" and 604 "no" there successfully offset the heavily "no" vote from Princint 2, located at the Avondale Fire Hall on Auburn Road.

The Avondale Board of Education will meet at 8:30 tonight at the board offices, 72 S. Squirrel, Pontiac Township, to certify the election and to reinstitute those cutbacks made by the board last July.

Dickey said the R. Grant Graham School, a new school in Bloomfield Orchards, will be opened once teachers are employed. He said its opening which has been delayed for financial reasons would cause a change of boundary lines for other elementary schools.

A savings in transportation is anticipated with the opening of the new school. Dickey said no buses will be required for any of its students.

* * *

The resumption of a full sports program is also expected with the millage passage, Dickey said, however he noted it might be too late in the season to engage in cross-country track this year.

JAMES W. LAHTI

Walled Lake GI Dies in Vietnam

WALLED LAKE — The Defense Department has announced the death of Army 1st Lt. James W. Lahti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvo Lahti of 1157 Delta, Walled Lake. He was 20.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Richardson-Bird Funeral Home, Walled Lake, with burial slated for Glen Eden Memorial Park, Livonia.

Surviving besides his parents are a brother, Bruce D., and a sister, Kristine, both at home.

Lt. Lahti died in Vietnam Sept. 1 when his unit was engaged in a fire fight with a bostile unit.

'66 GRADUATE

A 1966 graduate of Walled Lake Central High School, he enlisted July 15, 1966, and was commissioned second lieutenant in the infantry Aug. 24, 1967, at officer candidate school, Ft. Benning, Ga.

Lt. Lahti was platoon leader, Company B, 1st battalion, 1st Infantry Division.

Huron Valley Board to Meet on Contracts

The Huron Valley Board of Education will meet at 9:30 tonight following an executive discussion of teacher contract negotiations.

Teachers in the district failed to ratify this years portion of a two-year contract on Sept. 3.

Oxford to Police: Show Union Proof

OXFORD — The village police department has been asked to furnish proof that a majority of its employes seek union representation by the Metropolitan Council No. 23 of the AFL-CIO.

The village is in receipt of a letter from the union which states that a majority has enrolled.

* * *

The department consists of the chief (who is excluded in the proposed representation), four officers and four dispatchers. Whether or not the dispatchers are to be included remains a matter of question, according to Manager Robert Smalley.

The officers currently receive $3 an hour, time and a half for overtime, and fringe benefits, including paid vacation, hospitalization and accumulative sick days.

Police, DPW Pacts Due Action Tonight

LAKE ORION — Ratification of village contracts with the police department and department of public works as the main order of business at tonight's 7:30 village council meeting.

The contracts, already ratified by the union — Metropolitan Council 23, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL-CIO — some two weeks ago, were the subject of a special meeting last week.

* * *

No action was taken, however, due to lack of a quorum, according to manager John Reineck.

The contracts, the first since village employes voted to join the union last April, are apt to cost the village some $30,000 over the next two years, said Reineck. They will also reduce a policeman's work week from 48 to 40 hours.

INCLUDED IN PACT

Increased pay scales and fringe benefits including longevity and retirement plans to be activated next July, sick leave, nine paid holidays, hospitalization, overtime pay and up to three weeks vacation after five years are included.

The pay scale for police is to be $6,300 to $7,700 for patrolmen and $8,100 for the sergeant; $2.50 per hour for relief patrolman; $2.28 per hour for radio operators and $1.95 per hour for relief radio operators.

* * *

In the village Department of Public Works, laborer's wages are to be scaled between $2.71 and $3.10 and equipment operators' wages $3 to $3.30. The assistant superintendent is to be paid $3.60 an hour.

The contracts provide that during the second year policemen's wages will be increased $100 and DPW wages 30 cents an hour.

They are expected to cover 19 employes.

As 8th Dead Body Is Frozen

Cryonics Advisory Unit Formed

DETROIT (AP) — The body of a young New Yorker, frozen since death July 28, was interred last week in a capsule of liquid nitrogen 320 degrees below zero — for possible revival years or even centuries later.

To help explore the possibilities of such revival, the Cryonics Societies of America has announced that 11 scientists, including five experts in low-temperature biology, have agreed to become a scientific advisory council to them.

The announcement was amde in Detroit by Prof. Robert C. W. Ettinger, president of the Michigan Cryonics Society and a long-time advocate of freezing at death for possible revival when science has learned how to conquer the disease or repair the damage that caused death.

Speaking of the involvement of recognized scientists, Ettinger said, "It took a long time to bring them around, but we did it." He is a professor of physics and mathematics at Highland Park Junior College here.

NO COLLECTIVE STAND

In agreeing to serve as an advisory council, the scientists stipulate they take "no collective stand on the societies' advocacy of cryogenic (low temperature) interment of legally dead people in the present state of the art."

They do agree, however, they are interested in "the importance and urgency of finding better methods of saving, extending and improving individual human lives" and in "perfecting techniques of suspended animation or anabiosis, hence in low temperature biology."

The body of Stephen Jay Mandell, 24, was the eighth interred in a frozen state. Ettinger said Mandell died of complications following surgery for an intestinal ailment last July 28, adding that he understood the complication involved adrenalin insufficench.

Ettinger said Mandell's body was frozen at the St. James Funeral Home on Long Island in cooperation with the Cyronics Society of New York, of which Mandell was a member, and had been stored in dry ice since at Washington Memorial Park Cemetery at Coram, N. Y.

Ettinger said the transfer to the nitrogen-filled capsule was made at the cemetery. When revival is attempted will depend upon "the trustees of his estate at the time, in consultation with experts of that time," Ettinger said.

The societies, which Ettinger said are organized as nonprofit corporations and whose officers are unpaid, agree to undertake a fund-raising program through a nonprofit Cryonic Research Foundation. The advisory council would channel these funds to research scientists and institutions.

* * *

Members usually arrange in advance for freezing, specifying costs of this and "perpetual" storage to come from insurance, Ettinger said, estimating costs could run as high as $10,000 to $15,000. He also said members will be asked to earmark $1,000 for the new foundation.

He estimated there are 1,200-plus society members nationally. He said the largest bequest ever made for cryonics research was $100,000 left by the late James Bedford, a professor of psychology at Glendale Calif. College, who died in 1967 and became the second person ever frozen in death for possible future revival.

'USE PERMISSIBLE'

Ettinger quoted Dr. Christian Barnard, of South African heart transplant fame, at a news conference as saying that use of unproved remedies is permissible if the patient has no other hope.

"His remarks," Ettinger continued, "apply even more forcefully to the freezing of clinically dead patients such as Mandell, in the hope that eventually all types of damage, including freezing damage, will prove reparable.

* * *

"There will be no freezing damage, since thawing will await perfected methods, as proved by animal experimentation. Physical and administrative resources must be gradually built long before perfected methods are available.

"The often-heard assertion that revival of patients frozen by present methods has only a 'remote' or 'negligible' probability is unscientific and irresponsible. The probability of success is not small, but only unknown, which is entirely different."

QUICKER THE BETTER

Ettinger concedes that the quicker a body is reached, the less damage to brain and other vital organs.

The Michigan society, with some 70 members, has purchased a $10,000 van to speed initial body conditioning. It even is equipped with a Westinghouse "Iron Heart," designed to keep the heart pumping and the lungs filled with oxygen, even after death. He said members are paying for it.

* * *

"Who," he asked, "is to say that the future will not lead us to repariment of damage occurring before freezing and replacement of blood with chemicals?"

It is toward the answer to this and many, many other questions Ettinger said he hopes the new scientific advisory board will lead the three existing Cryonics Societies: in Michigan, New York and California. There are branches elsewhere, but no other state organizations.

Believer in Cryonics Has Fear of Death

Is there really a twilight zone? Does cryonics, freezing after death, leave more to science or to the imagination? What does it take to make a believer?

"I feel that nothing is impossible, said Mrs. Algis Gricius of 30022 Astor of Farmington, a member of the Michigan Cryonics Society for one year.

* * *

"I have a fear of death and believe that science may find a way to revive life in the future," said the attractive 27 year-old brunette. Last year she had her father, Louis T. Nisco of Detroit, frozen in a nitrogen capsule following his death on Sept. 7.

* * *

Nisco, a former investigator for the State of New York, was 78 when he died at his home. His body remained at Ford Hospital for five days following his death while Mrs. Gricius completed arrangements with the Cryo-Care Equipment Corp. in Phoenix, Ariz., for the freezing and storing of his body.

SIXTH

She said that her father was the sixth person to undergo the $5,800 freezing process. She also pays a $47 monthly maintenance fee for the storing of the capsule.

* * *

Mrs. Gricius said that she and her father discussed the possibility of freezing after death but her father objected to the cost of the process.

"I had to refinance our house and car in order to have my father frozen," she said, "but I am convinced that it is worthwhile."

* * *

Mrs. Gricius has made provisions for herself, her mother and her two children, ages 6 and 8 to be frozen after death.

SPOUSE AN UNBELIEVER

Her husband, Algis, doesn't believe in the philosophy of cryonics and chooses not to be frozen, she said. However he doesn't object to having the members of his family undergo the freezing process, she added.

Mrs. Gricius first became acquainted with the field of cryonics three years ago when she saw Prof. Robert C. W. Ettinger, president of the Michigan Cryonics Society, on a television show.

* * *

Ettinger, who is also a physical science professor at Highland Park Junior College, Detroit, said each society is an independent and nonprofit organization.

200 CORRESPONDENTS

There are about 200 correspondents in the Michigan society, he said. Members pay a $25 initiation fee and dues of $50 a year, he added.

Ettinger said the cost of the freezing process is expected to decline in future years because scientists probably will come up with more efficient freezing procedures.

Lake Orion Guide Spells Out Right of Student Appeal

LAKE ORION — There has been at least one change here as a result of last spring's uproar over the school district's discipline policy.

* * *

An awareness of some parents' dissatisfaction with old Student Council Handbook rules on disciplinary procedure has been noted in the revised Student Handbook for this year.

Schools Supt. Lewis Mundy said it now includes the statement that youngsters do have the right to appeal any disciplinary action to the administration or to the board of education.

* * *

He said it was a written statement of a policy that had long been in effect.

POLICY QUESTIONED

Last spring the school's discipline policy — particularly in regard to suspension for suspicion of smoking — had been questioned by a group of parents and by the American Civil Liberties Union which had been brought into the case.

* * *

A clearer definition of student rights was asked.

Flint Man Killed, 3 Hurt in Crash in Lapeer County

HADLEY TOWNSHIP—A Flint man was killed early this morning and three others were seriously injured in a single-car accident about six miles north of the Oakland County line in Lapeer County.

* * *

The dead man was identified as Dewey Haskins, 23, of Flint. According to Lapeer sheriff's deputies, he was riding in a car driven by Anthony Wayne Hubbard, 21, of Flint, traveling west on Pratt, three miles west of Hadley.

* * *

Officers said Hubbard's car failed to negotiate a curve on Pratt and struck a tree about 2 a.m. this morning.

Injured besides Hubbard were the other two passengers, identified as Perry Hyder, 20, of Flint and Sandra Wildey, 20, of 211 N. Main, Lapeer.

* * *

They were taken to Lapeer County General Hospital and are reported in serious condition.

4 Dead in Avon

Dog Poisonings a Mystery

AVON TOWNSHIP — Residents here are watching their dogs more closely than usual after six dogs were reported poisoned recently. Four are dead.

No one is sure exactly who is doing it, but they know whoever it is is determined.

* * *

"My dog never left our yard, and I know one other dog was always fenced in," said Mrs. Norman Zayler of 3334 Emmon, whose pedigreed poodle died from the poison.

The Oakland County Sheriff's department doesn't know what to make of it.

NO FURTHER ACTION

One person suggested that perhaps the dogs had eaten a neighbor's mothballs, but Detective Harry Jones said, "There will be no further action unless someone comes up with some better evidence."

Area dog owners are still awaiting results of tests on the mothballs from Lansing.

* * *

"A thousand and one people put mothballs in gopher holes," he added.

A local veterinarian said the dogs were poisoned with strychnine.

PRIZE WINNERS

"The veterinarian found a bird-seedlike poison in the dogs," said Mrs. Zayler. "It probably isn't mothballs, after all."

Of the four dead dogs, one was a prize-winning Whittney and another, Mrs. Zayler's poodle, came from a line of prize-winning pets.

It Seems to Me . . .

Our Nominating Procedure in Need of Modernization

Both political parties must be in pretty general agreement about one thing:

The entire nominating procedures should be revamped. Certainly the exhibitions in Miami and Chicago depicted public forums in a low form and at bottom levels.

First of all, the interminable squabbles about who represents whom should be resolved in advance and preferably at home. Once you reach the convention city, local bickering should cease.

Certainly the hours of actual assembly should be drastically revised. This summer the important steps were reached at the wee small hours in the morning and the heralded TV coverage probably found a large percentage of viewers asleep in bed or dozing easily in comfortable chairs before the screen.

All the unimportant doings should be handled in the afternoons and swept under the rug when the evening sessions open. "Favorite sons" are entitled to a reasonable hearing, according to tradition and local desires, but these incidents should be confined to the early or late hours when the important business isn't at hand.

TV interviewers who pushed their ungentlemanly way into the midst of a party caucus or a private conference should be eliminated. Usually these took place when there was definite action at the main podium and thus they caused confusion and unseemly interruptions.

The whole question of physical peace and personal security should be in hand four years hence. If the simple passage of time doesn't bring this about, then the host city owes it to the guests to prevent disgraceful procedures.

★ ★ ★

Certainly this antiquated electoral college should be tossed into the ash can and the absolute election of the man with the most votes made a certainty. The device was probably spawned when the Nation was a million or so and the progenitors of the plan couldn't possibly foresee a population of 200,000,000.

★ ★ ★

Citizens accepted the current session with tolerance and good nature, but they are unanimous in demanding a modernization before 1972. If "Let George Do It" becomes the unspoken motto, the United States Congress should leap into the business and dig out the caves and caverns in which these political activities currently exist.

Candidate's Declarations . . .

GEORGE WALLACE won't be elected President of the United States, but he is stirring up a fighting band of followers who cheer him to the echo.

In a current speech, he made these declarations covering his intent if he were elected President of the United States:

If necessary, I'll ring Washington, D.C. with 30,000 troops with fixed bayonets to keep the City safe and orderly.

Any crackpot that stretched himself in front of a Presidential automobile will be run over.

Every college professor that calls for a Red victory in Vietnam will be jailed and indicted.

States' Voting Strength . . .

Both political parties are paying the closest attention to a band of contiguous states that may well settle the national election.

Michigan is one of these.

The others are: Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. These six great commonwealths are of primary importance in every way. First of all, they're among the largest in the Nation in voting strength and they form a relatively small but tight band right across the Country from the Middle West to the Atlantic Ocean.

★ ★ ★

Others are of great importance, of course, and especially do we recognize California which now claims to be the largest State in the Union in population and well may be.

The campaigning in this north-east-central area will be intense and both parties will participate in full strength.

And in Conclusion . . .

The Christian Science Monitor reports that 85½ hours of programs in prime time on TV showed 84 killings. . . . . If the GOP gains control of the House, Michigan's GERALD FORD should move up to Speaker. . . . . The rumor persists that President JOHNSON will visit Moscow before he leaves office. . . . . Overheard: "It takes a lot of will-power but I'm absolutely determined to give up trying to stop smoking."

SUE

Scouts advise me Sue Logan rates mention as one of the area's attractive young ladies. . . . . And speaking of attractive individuals in the feminine ranks, Hubie Humphrey's Muriel easily qualifies. . . . . Sid Barnett and the missus drove 8,300 miles through 21 states which must set some sort of local record for sure. Sid says seeing America is many times more important than viewing Europe, Asia and Africa and I'm sure he's right.

The New Republic says: "Despite lavish promises, chances of winning in a game (at a gas station) is dismally small. KAYS GARY, a newspaperman in Charlotte, N.C., decided it would be a good idea to get all his readers to send in their game coupons (Dino Dollars, Super-Pro, etc.) so that he could match them up, or take off the ink, and give the money from the resulting winners to a proposed retarded children's nursery. After 6,300 chances GARY had a grand total of $21. Said GARY, 'I am thoroughly convinced that we could make more for Holy Angels Nursery by poking through sidewalk grates with chewing gum on a stick, hoping to snag a quarter.'" . . . . David Lawrence Says:

U.S. Silent as Peace Threatened

WASHINGTON — Neither the United States government nor any of the presidential candidates are making a positive declaration about the events of last month in Czechoslovakia. Yet this act of aggression constitutes one of the biggest threats to world peace that has arisen since World War II.

LAWRENCE

For, despite the sacrifices made by the western powers in coming to the rescue of Eastern Europe in 1939, the Moscow government has asserted itself as the imperialist master today not only of Czechoslovakia but of Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, East Germany, Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania.

★ ★ ★

Military strength has been brazenly employed by Russia to tell these small countries that they must obey their conqueror, and that their peoples must submit to censorship of their press and a squelching of their aspirations for liberty and domestic reform.

The sacrifices in World War II seem wasted today. The United Nations, which was formed to preserve peace or at least to emphasize the rule of law, is inactive and appears helpless.

HAVEN'T AWAKENED

The free nations have not yet awakened to the big threat to world peace. The United States has curtailed its "cultural-exchange program" with the Soviets, but the American government has not spoken out about the violations of World War II agreements.

So far as Western Europe is concerned, there is uneasiness now that the NATO organization has been allowed virtually to crumble. President de Gaulle of France — who not only pulled out of the western defense system but asked NATO to remove its troops and headquarters from French territory — may presently see the tragic mistake which he has made.

The challenge today is to the free nations, including France, to join together in a dramatic manifestation of support for the preservation of the agreements which ended World War II and an adherence to the provisions of the U. N. charter which have been so flagrantly ignored.

Unless the United States calls a conference of all the western governments in Europe, as well as other governments in Asia and Latin America, the inevitable result will be further steps of usurpation by the Soviet Union.

This doesn't mean that nuclear threats have to be employed or that conventional military power has to be used to rescue the small countries of Europe in whose capitals puppet governments have been established by Moscow.

There is a much more powerful weapon available — an economic boycott by the free countries and direct appeals by radio to the peoples of the Soviet Union.

Certainly experienced officials in international affairs here and abroad will see the danger of another big war unless constructive steps of prevention now are taken by stating the case clearly to the peoples of the Soviet Union.

For they are becoming more and more involved in an imperialism of whose possible effects and consequences they are not fully aware.

Bob Considine Says:

Ike May Be Living Proof —'Old Soldiers Never Die'

NEW YORK — I've never believed that jazz about "old soldiers never die." But Gen. Eisenhower gives one second thoughts.

CONSIDINE

His recent comeback after his seventh heart attack and myriad other problems was reminiscent of a vigil some of us kept on Gen. John J. Pershing as he lay on the point of death.

Pershing's coffin was ordered. It was on stand-by near the freight elevator in the servant's entrance but Pershing stopped just short of the threshhold of eternity, thumbed his nose, and returned to the world's hustle and bustle. I never knew what became of that coffin.

When Ike suffered his first heart attack, at his mother-in-law's home in Denver in 1955, he casually remarked to Press Secretary Jim Hagerty — as he was being carried out of the house — "Take care of things until I get back, Jim."

He was equally noncommittal about his other heart attacks, the minor stroke that for a time affected his speech, the ileitis operation, and various massive attacks of indigestion.

JUST THE TICKET

His newest lease on life could be just what the Nixon-Agnew ticket needs to put it over in November. His clear endorsement of Nixon for the nomination just before the GOP convention amounted almost to positive proof that Nixon rather than Rockefeller would get the bid and to hell with the polls.

It is now quite likely that he will recover sufficiently to urge the election of the man whose candidacy he virtually ignored in 1960.

The 34th president of the United States came by his diffidence toward politics in a traditional way. It has been the custom of senior military officers to keep themselves aloof of politics.

★ ★ ★

But now he promises to be in there punching for the prospective father-in-law of his grandson David. Stranger things have happened in politics.

If Nixon and Agnew are not among Ike's first nonfamily visitors at Walter Reed they should have their heads examined. The old soldier can tell them a thing or two about winning.

Smiles

Verbal Orchids

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Charter of 4800 Hobson; 54th wedding anniversary.

Voice of the People:

'Appointment of Fortas Is Not Change We Need'

It has been the suggestion of a number of politicians that we should accept everything they say or do as words and deeds of extreme wisdom. One such suggestion came from the retiring President and the not retiring Senator Hart—the suggestion that we accept without question the appointment of Abe Fortas to the strongest court in the land.

★ ★ ★

The Supreme Court has, under the lopsided direction of Mr. Warren, caused greater strife in this Nation than Korea and Vietnam combined. The decisions of the Court regarding the criminal and the Communists will never be undone unless we have a change.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Fortas is not a change. We must have a balance. I do not feel Mr. Warren was qualified when he was appointed, nor do I feel Mr. Fortas is qualified. His appointment would only lead us further down hill. I would think that even Senator Hart with his rose-colored glasses could see this. Perhaps someone should pass a "truth in politics" bill.

Speaks on Far-Reaching Effects of Sprays

If DDT, as reported, has traveled the air currents even to far-off polar regions where penguins have absorbed it, might it not be plausible to suppose that defoliation sprays used by the Army in the jungles of Vietnam could wind up rendering trees, gardens and pastures leafless in various distant parts of the world—even in our area of the universe?

'Need to Change Attitudes Toward Police'

My hat goes off to Mayor Daley of Chicago. From experience I learned a couple good attitudes. My children at ages 12 and 13 were always being brought home by police for walking in the street in car tracks in the snow. The policeman said, "Lady, you will appreciate this when your children are older." A nurse who had been in pediatrics for 15 years said to me when I asked for a pain pill for my 12-year-old, "I don't believe in doping my children."

★ ★ ★

I don't believe policemen anywhere will hurt anyone without reason. Until our children's and some adults' attitudes are corrected we won't have any police to protect anyone.

'Urge Citizens to Weigh Votes Carefully'

Seeing the political trend, John Q. Public has two choices in this coming election: either democracy of, for and by the people; or socialism which is of a few, for a few and by a few. It is up to the majority whether this is to be the last free election. Weigh your votes carefully and may the "man upstairs" give us wisdom.

'Michigan's Tax Rating Not Most Desirable'

According to the August 12 issue of U.S. News & World Report, this State is classed as having one of the highest property tax rates in the U.S., besides paying all other taxes that are common to most of the other 50 states. This is one honor we could do very nicely without.

Traffic Engineer Koren agrees it is a problem and tells us markings will be put on the street at that location to guide motorists into the proper lanes.

Do you like crossword puzzles? Do you have a horror, of not getting the last word in an argument? If your answer is no to the first question and yes to the second, then you are probably cut out to succeed in business.

The two questions are part of a questionnaire devised by a British company, Cambridge Consultants, to spot (with the smallest margin of error, according to the inventors) people who have got what it takes to get ahead.

Language Gap

The Boston Globe

There's a deficiency in the English language.

The son of parents A marries the daughter of parents B. The newlyweds instantly acquire relatives known as in-laws. The parents of the newlyweds acquire respectively, a daughter-in-law and a son-in-law. The language takes care of this.

★ ★ ★

But what is the relationship of parents A to parents B? Obviously they are now a little closer than friends or, in some unfortunate cases, enemies. But for what it is there is no name. Father A gets around it by speaking of "My son's mother-in-law," a reference which the listener has to think twice to comprehend.

★ ★ ★

It can get worse than this, too.

When the daughter of Richard Nixon marries the grandson of Eisenhower, what does that make the Nixon parents to the Eisenhower parents, besides Republicans? There's no world for this relationship, either.

Cousins in varying degrees can be labeled. Some know the difference between a second cousin and a first cousin once removed, although in the latter case there's a question how he got removed and by whom.

★ ★ ★

But what's the name for the relationship of grandfather to the cousins of his grandchildren on the other side? There's no word for it.

This lack in language, fortunately, concerns only those old enough to be parents-in-law or maybe great uncles and great aunts.

Such older folks, presumably have time to sit and figure out who are their relatives, and how much. For example, if a grandson of European decent comes home from Tokyo with a Japanese bride, does that make his grandfather a relative of all Asia?

But such thoughts are dangerous. Pursued far enough, they might lead to the conclusion that the brotherhood of man is not an idealistic notion, but a mathematical fact.

Anna Magnani kicked and kicked and when it hurt, she kicked again for the motion picture cameras at the man under her bed.

And when she finished kicking, Miss Magnani, 60, went to a Rome doctor who told her she had broken her foot.

"It hurt, but I kept kicking my screen husband as I was supposed to," she said.

Author Leon Uris Marries

The bride wore a full-length white gown of Israeli wool challis with Yemenite embroidery. And the bridegroom, who wrote "Exodus," a novel about modern Israel, smashed a glass under his foot for good luck—a Jewish tradition.

It was Uris' second marriage, Miss Edwards' first. A jewelry designer from Philadelphia, Miss Edwards met Uris when she moved to Aspen, Colo., where he lives and where they will make their home.

Uris' books include "Battle Cry," "The Angry Hills," "Mila, 18," "Armageddon" and "Topaz." He has been in Hollywood writing the screenplay for "Topaz."

Djilas was released from prison 18 months ago after serving eight years on charges of writing propaganda against Yugoslavia. Several of his books, including "The New Class," have been published abroad.

Ship Fire Kills Michigan Man

CHARLESTON, S. C. (UPI) — A young sailor from Taylor, Mich., was killed and another Michigan resident injured in a boiler fire aboard the USS Douglas H. Fox over the weekend.

The USS Corry steamed into the Charleston Naval Base yesterday with the bodies of Boiler Technician 1st Class Robert N. Rinaldi of Taylor and the fire's second victim, Fireman Apprentice Ralph Duren of Philadelphia, Pa.

* * *

They died when a "flare-back" resulted when crewmen were lighting a boiler in the destroyer's aft fire room, officers said.

Injured in the blaze was BT Fireman Robert Dandrow, 19, of Hopkins. He was listed in good condition. Five other sailors also suffered burns.

The fire was quickly brought under control, and officers said te Fox was heading here under her own power.

'Homesick' Bishop Will Take to Pulpit

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — "Ever since I became a bishop 20 years ago, I have been homesick for a pulpit," said Methodist Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy who announced he will become senior minister of the First Methodist Church of Pasadena in December.

Bishop Kennedy, 60, retains his post as supervisor of 500 churches and 800 Methodist ministers in the California-Arizona District from Honolulu to Holbrook, Ariz.

"I have been telling the boys, the ministers under my supervision, what they were doing wrong and how to do it right," he said Sunday. "Now I had better produce or stop giving advice."

Body Dumped, Set Ablaze

WHITE PIGEON (UPI) — The body of a man was dumped on a county road in nearby Mottville Sunday and then set on fire by an unknown assailant, said State Police here.

The unidentified body was burned beyond recognition.

Police said a witness spotted a man of muscular build fleeing in a 1960 blue Pontiac while the body burned on the roadside.

Lake Swim Is Abandoned

CHICAGO (AP) — Walter Kaufmann, 27, abandoned his attempted 42-mile swim across Lake Michigan as he drew near the halfway point Sunday.

Hiccups and indigestion forced the Chicagoan and former University of California swimmer out of the water near the middle of the lake.

Kaufmann began his swim from Chicago to New Buffalo, Mich., Saturday after six months of training in Chicago pools. He hoped to become the second man to swim across Lake Michigan. Ted Erikson, a chemical engineer, in 1962 swam from Chicago to Michigan City, Ind.—a distance of 36.75 miles.

Drip Puts Damper on Party

SCARBOROUGH, England (UPI)—The 250 guests invited to share a drop with Lord Derwent began to feel a drip down the back of their necks.

But the traditional British stiff upper lip prevailed almost to their undoing. The drips became trickles, then a downpour.

Waiters finally rescued the guests from the Hackness Grange Hotel dining room, now flooded.

"It was quite remarkable how people just sipped their champagne, pretending nothing was happening," said a spokesman for Lord Derwent.

Mansfield Eyes New Fortas Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless the Senate Judiciary Committee acts soon on President Johnson's Supreme Court nominations, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says he may try to take the matter directly to the Senate floor.

"I think the Senate ought to have to face up to the President's request, and I think the President is entitled to the courtesy of an up-and-down vote," Mansfield said Sunday.

* * *

President Johnson is seeking to have Associate Justice Abe Fortas succeed retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren and to name federal Appeals Court Judge Homer T. Thornberry as an associate justice.

The committee has been considering the appointments for more than two months without acting. Supporters fear that Congress will adjourn without confirming the nominations unless action takes place soon.

IN TOUGH POSITION

Allowing that the Fortas nomination is in a "tough position," Mansfield still ruled out any around-the-clock sessions in order to clear up the matter before the November elections.

But he did say he might call the Senate back into session after the elections if nothing is settled on the appointments by then.

* * *

In order to bypass the committee, Mansfield would have to obtain the approval of a majority of the Senate to bring the matter directly to the floor, something that seldom happens.

A coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats has attacked the Fortas-Thornberry appointments on several grounds.

Critics say Johnson engaged in cronyism because both Fortas and Thornberry are his close friends and political associates.

Some opponents say Fortas' court voting record reflects a permissive attitude toward criminals and pornography, while others are critical of his liberal civil rights stand.

* * *

Republicans also have said Johnson should let the next president make the appointment when he takes office next year.

No Sign of Pueblo Release as North Koreans Celebrate

SEOUL (AP) — North Korea continued to celebrate the 20th anniversary of its Communist regime today but gave no indication that it would release the 82 captive crewmen of the Pueblo in honor of the occasion.

Rumors had circulated in Seoul for several days that the Pyongyang Government would free the Americans captured aboard the U.S. Navy intelligence ship last Jan. 23, and North Korea's Central News Agency had promised "important reports" on a special Sunday broadcast. But there was no word of the Pueblo or its men from the Communists.

"We have nothing official and we've adopted a wait-and-see attitude," said a U.S. military spokesman in Seoul.

U.S. officials in Seoul believe that if the North Koreans decide to release the Pueblo's crew, they would first notify U.S. officials at the Panmunjom truce village and then free the men later in front of newsmen to get maximum publicity. But the U.S. military said it had received no request for a meeting at Panmunjom.

A Japanese correspondent in Pyongyang for the anniversary celebrations, Hiroshi Iwadare of Asahi Shimbun, reported the North Korean capital was in a "celebration mood" but "there is an oppressive feeling of tension."

"We were surprised at the large number of soldiers," he wrote. "People's Army members in civilian clothes march in formation down the center of the street singing songs. At bus terminals, soldiers wait for buses side by side with civilians.

"The city has a wartime atmosphere."

Delegations from more than 60 foreign Communist parties were reported attending, but Communist China and Czechoslovakia apprently stayed away, the Chinese presumably because the North Koreans have tried to remain neutral in the Peking-Moscow feud, and the Czechoslovaks because the North Koreans denounced the liberal movement in Czechoslovakia.

Epilepsy Hearing

LANSING (AP) — The State Mental Health Department will hold a public hearing Tuesday at Lansing on a proposed change in the hospitalization of epileptic patients. The rules change was caused by a legislative action changing the name and function of the Caro State Hospital for Epileptics to the Caro State Home and Training School for Mentally Retarded persons. The proposed rule provides that when a court commits a person as epileptic his admission shall be to the local area hospital for the mentally ill.

Retirement May Mark Era End

There has been little pay involved in the service and not much glory either, as public officials are as much a target for abuse as for acclaim. Levinson's public life began in 1930 when he served as justice of the peace for Bloomfield Township.

Probably Levinson is best-known for his eight-year reign as chairman of the supervisors' ways and means committee — easily the most powerful unit in county government. He also served as chairman of the entire board in 1941-42.

★ ★ ★

But the part-time amateur's role of Levinson and many others like him will end as far as the Board of Supervisors is concerned, in January. Courts and the State Legislature ruled that supervisors had to run for office. The board was reapportioned reducing membership from 87 to 27.

There didn't seem to be any room for Levinson in the new picture and he did not choose to run in the election.

No matter who wins in the Nov. 5 election it's doubtful many will take their seats in the county courthouse with as much experience and devotion that Levinson evidences.

★ ★ ★

In other community governments the pattern is repeated, with professional, full-time manager types taking over the duties that used to be filled by residents sacrificing part of their leisure time.

Levinson is a long-time Birminghamite who arrived there as a two-year-old, 70 years ago. He graduated from Birmingham's Hill School in 1913. His wife, the former Martha M. Nye, is a fourth-generation Birmingham resident. Their son, Bernard, and his wife and their three sons live behind their parents, at 2147 Fairway.

During his tenure on the board of supervisors, Levinson was well-known for championing inter-governmental cooperation. Through his efforts, along with others like-minded, the surrounding six-county area is noted for its cooperative efforts. They have brought and will bring areawide cooperation in such practical matters as water, sewers, trash disposal, transportation, etc.

Though Levinson no longer officially will serve county government, he said he has no intention of retiring and will continue in his business at the Wabeek Building, 296 W. Maple, Birmingham.

Among his many affiliations are: Camp Oakland board of directors; Oakland University Foundation trustee; member and past commander, Birmingham-Troy American Legion Post; Birmingham Exchange Club past president; Michigan Chapter, American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, and Real Estate Appraisers Association of Detroit.

French Experts Study H-Bomb Test Results

PAPEETE, Tahiti (UPI) — French scientists today evaluated France's second hydrogen bomb test in 16 days, partly to see if the blast suggested a way to trim the overweight bomb into a feasible missile warhead package.

The French bomb was detonated at 9 a.m. yesterday as it hung from a balloon one-third mile above Mururoa Atoll, 800 miles southeast of Papeete.

France joined the United States, the Soviet Union, Great Britain and Communist China in the possession of tested thermonuclear weapons with its first test Aug. 24. French government officials said then the weight of the bomb in relation to its payload was the main problem.

The Aug. 24 device was the size of a small car and had a force of two megatons, although its weight was a military secret. Yesterday's device was believed smaller in size. Its force was not announced officially.

★ ★ ★

The tests capped eight years of nuclear testing by France. They followed by 16 years the first hydrogen explosion unleashed by the United States. Communist China entered the thermonuclear circle 14 months ago.

Detroit Family Terrorized

DETROIT (UPI) — A mother and her three children were robbed by two gunmen who tied them up and pistol-whipped them in their home yesterday.

Mrs. Viola Smart, 41; her sons, Charles, 21, and Gregory, 20 and her daughter, Mrs. Karen Wynn, 16, were blindfolded by the intruders and terrorized for more than an hour, police said.

Police said the two men took about $200, a television set, a tape recorder and two stereos and drove away in the family's 1968 convertible.

1056 Tablets A Year—FOR LIFE

The above statement appeared recently in a leading Medical Journal. One thousand fifty-six tablets per year for life! Is the average dosage a migraine patient takes to help migraine headaches.

Isn't it a shame these migraine sufferers don't know how effective Chiropractic is in relieving this devastating condition. Do you have friends or relatives who suffer with migraines? Tell them about Chiropractic! They'll thank you!

New Private School to Open in Pontiac

A new nonpublic school for kindergarten through 12th grade is scheduled to open in Pontiac Sept. 30.

* * *

The school, Oakland Christian School, was requested mostly by parents and students of Emmanuel Christian School, which closed in June because of financial difficulties, according to a board member of the new school.

* * *

Rev. Gordon Lindsay, a member of the board and pastor of Five Points Community Church, 3411 E. Walton, Pontiac Township, said the school expects to lease the educational unit of Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church, 404 Oakland.

He said he expects about 240 students to attend the school which is to be headed by Dr. Paul Vanaman, pastor of Dixie Baptist Church in Clarkston and dean at Midwestern Baptist College, Pontiac.

DEMAND 'SHOCKING'

"The demand has shocked me," said Lindsay.

Lindsay said the school will be financed by tutition and gifts. Pledged gifts from donors now amount to $25,000.

Tuition will be $35 for one child; $60 for two and $75 for three or more.

Oakland Christian School is not affilated with any particular church, according to Lindsay. Organizers are made up of ministers and business people.

WILL MEET STANDARDS

The school will meet the public school standards set by the state, he said. They will not provide bus transportation but will assist in organizing car pools.

Registration is scheduled for 10 a.m.-4 p.m. tomorrow at the Five Points Church. The fee is $15.

* * *

All area pastors are invited to a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church to discuss the school.

Cycle Group to Test State's Helmet Law

LANSING (UPI) — The constitutionality of the 1968 Michigan law requiring motorcycle operators and their passengers to carry helmets will be challenged, the American Motorcycle Association (AMA) said today.

The AMA said a lawsuit will be filed early next month agains the Michigan State Police Department and will be carried to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary.

* * *

It will mark the second time the AMA has contested a mandatory motorcycle helmet law in Michigan. Last May it was successful in getting the State Court of Appeals to throw out a 1966 statute.

The 1968 law differs from the 1966 version in that the helmet is designated a part of the motorcycle but does not specifically equire the operator and passengers to wear the head gear.

LOCALLY SPONSORED

Both legislative measures were introduced by State Rep. Loren D. Anderson, R-Waterford Township.

* * *

Anderson, a motorcycle enthusiast and former motorcycle policeman, has been the leading force in the House in pushing for greater safety among motorcyclists.

* * *

The AMA said the intent of the new law is to make the wearing of helmets compilsory and that this is a violation of a constitutional right to privacy.

The appellate court struck down the 1966 Michigan law because it could find no direct relationship between wearing helmets and public health, safety and welfare.

Fire Destroys Two Stores in Jonesville

JONESVILLE (AP) — Fire swept unchecked for 10½ hours through a three-story building on Jonesville's main street and threatened a series of adjacent stores, before being brought under control today.

* * *

The blaze in the downtown section of the city of 1,900 in Hillsdale County destroyed Hennessy's Drug Store and Scott's 5 & 10 department store today. Both stores were located in a three-story building. The top two floors were unoccupied.

* * *

Unofficial estimates placed the loss as high as $100,000.

Nearly 50 firemen from Jonesville and eight nearby departments fought the flames. Nobody was reported injured.

Fire officials said at one point they thought the blaze was under control, but an unknown flammable material in the drug store basement gave new ferocity to the flames.

A state fire marshal was called to the scene today to investigate possible causes of the blaze.

* * *

Thick smoke spread to adjacent buildings, damaging Power's Clothing Store, Fast's Shoes and the Jonesville Bakery.

Man Stabbed; Woman Held

A 39-year-old man is reported in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital after being stabbed in the chest yesterday during an apparent argument at the home in which he is a boarder.

* * *

Pontiac police said that Robert Spears of 25 Walnut received a severe wound in the upper chest and several slash wounds in the neck and shoulder.

* * *

Arrested for investigation of attempted murder was Elizabeth B. Brooks, 38, of the Walnut address, according to officers.

Investigators said the argument reportedly started about 1:30 p.m. when the victim threw a plate of food.

* * *

They said that a fire department rescue team was called to aid Spears at least 30 minutes before police were contacted.

Arraignment of the suspect is expected today, according to police.

The facility to house the current Pontiac Medical Science Laboratories is being financed by the Teamsters' Union and will be named the Frank E. Fitzsimmons Research Laboratory after the union's acting president.

* * *

A number of local, state and nation officials are expected to be present at the groundbreaking except Fitzsimmons, who is in a Washington hospital for a knee operation.

The Teamsters will finance the building by holding a $100-a-plate dinner Sept. 20 in Detroit's Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. More than 1,400 persons are expected.

Troops on W. German Border Among Czech Concessions

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's embattled Communist leaders have agreed to the stationing of Soviet-bloc troops indefinitely along their country's border with West Germany, reliable informants say.

These border forces are not among those the Soviet Union has promised to withdraw from occupied Czechoslovakia when the situation "normalizes," the sources said.

* * *

Neither Prague nor Moscow has announced the agreement, but sources said it was one of seven concessions in the Moscow accord signed by Czechoslovak and Soviet leaders Aug. 28, a week after the Soviet invasion.

Vasily Kuznetsov, a Soviet first deputy foreign minister, is in Prague, reportedly to secure more speedy compliance with the secret agreements. Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, said Sunday Czechoslovakia was "taking the first steps toward normalization," but that its leaders still had failed to strike a decisive blow to "hostile forces" in the country.

MAJOR SORE POINT

The stationing of Soviet-bloc troops along the Czechoslovak-West Germany border had been one of the major sore points between Moscow and Prague during the tense months preceding the invasion. Czechoslovakia insisted it could take care of its borders with West Germany without Warsaw Pact help.

Informants said the Czechoslovak leaders also promised they would:

- Change Czechoslovakia's political development to conform with the conservative Soviet brand of communism.
- Remove from office Interior Minister Josef Pavel, Deputy Premier Ota Sik and Foreign Minister Jiri Hajek. Pavel has been replaced and Sik has resigned.
- Revive censorship to prevent the news media from criticizing the Warsaw Pact countries that participated in the invasion—the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, East Germany, Poland and Hungary.
- Repudiate the 14th congress of the Czechoslovak Communist party, held secretly while party leader Alexander Dubcek was a prisoner in Moscow. It purged the party presidium of conservative, orthodox Communists, but this has been partly nullified by election of a new presidium.
- Withdraw Hajek's formal request for debate on the Czechoslovak crisis by the U.N. Security Council. Hajek, just before he left New York after the Moscow agreement, asked the council to do nothing more.
- Take no reprisal against Czechoslovak citizens who collaborated with the invading armies.

* * *

The Russians agreed, in turn, to take their security police with them when the occupation forces leave and dropped a demand that Czechoslovak leaders declare that a "counterrevolution" existed in their country, the informants said.

Although the government has reintroduced press censorship, Pravda complained that the voice of "right-wing, antisocialist elements" still is heard in the Czechoslovak press.

FURTHER WARNING

Pravda further warned that despite the Soviet promise to withdraw its forces eventually, Soviet troops in Czechoslovakia will "carry out their noble international mission to the end."

Red Army troops in Prague celebrated Soviet Armored Forces Day Sunday by parading with carnations in their machine guns. Czechoslovak army units did not participate, and very few spectators turned out to watch the parade.

* * *

In what was viewed as another show of independence by Romania's Communist rulers, British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart arrived in Bucharest Sunday, becoming the first top-level Western statesman to visit Communist Eastern Europe since the Aug. 20-21 invasion of Czechoslovakia.

Stewart is to confer today and Tuesday with Romanian President Nicolae Ceausescu, who had been an outspoken supporter of Czechoslovakia's reformist regime and a critic of the invasion. He has been tempering his criticism in recent weeks in the face of Soviet pressure.

Informants said Stewart was expected to get a report from his hosts on Soviet pressure and Red Army movements along Romania's borders. There had been widespread rumors, subsequently denied by Moscow, that the Soviet Union was planning to invade Romania also.

The British had quietly passed the word to Romania that Stewart's trip—arranged before the invasion of Czechoslovakia—could be put off if it would embarrass Ceausescu. But the Romanians reportedly made it clear they looked forward to Stewart's visit now as a demonstration of their independence from Moscow.

* * *

Pravda charged that Stewart's mission was to renew the cold war.

The Czechoslovak crisis had weakened the East European Communist alliance, Polish Communist leader Wladyslaw Gomulka said Sunday. He added it might take a long time to restore unity.

STRICT ADHERENCE

Gomulka told 100,000 Poles at Warsaw's annual harvest festival that the damage caused by "counterrevolutionary and anti-socialist forces" could be overcome only by strict adherence to Marxist-Leninist principles.

Defending the invasion, he reiterated the Soviet claim that Czechoslovakia was in danger of leaving the Warsaw Pact and he accused West Germany of plotting for that end.

Saundra Williams, 19 (center) of Philadelphia, was crowned Miss Black America 1969 at ceremonies in Atlantic City early Sunday morning. Linda Johnson, 21 (left), also of Philadelphia was chosen second runner-up, while Theresa Claytor, 20 (right), of Washington, D.C., was first-runner up. Miss Williams was crowned a little over two hours after Judith Anne Ford of Belvidere, Ill., was chosen Miss America 1969 at Convention Hall.

Miss America Rests in New York Following Trampoline Triumph

From Our News Wires

The newly-crowned Miss America, Judith Anne Ford, arrived in New York City Sunday to begin a 10-day visit as part of her year's reign.

The 18-year-old blonde from Belvidere, Ill., will have a busy schedule of wardrobe fittings, interviews and conferences as she gets ready for the 200,000 miles of travel that go with her title.

She is scheduled to hold a news conference Tuesday.

Meanwhile, a spokesman said, she will be in seclusion at Barclay Hotel, resting from her four nights of competition in Atlantic City, N. J.

* * *

After an acrobatic performance on a trampoline during the talent contest Saturday night, the 5-foot-7, 125-pound beauty fielded reporters' questions at a news conference Sunday morning following only two hours' sleep.

"Do blondes really have more fun?" she was asked.

"I've never been a brunette to compare it with," answered Miss America, who is 36-24-36.

Judi, as she prefers to be called, believes in America's youth "because I'm one of them" and thinks 18-year-olds should be given the vote because:

"If you can give your life for your country, you should be able to vote in your country."

Judi won the Junior National Trampoline championship and the first coed varsity letter while studying physical education at the University of Southern Louisiana.

She worked as a lifeguard at a Belvidere pool last summer and plans to become a high school physical education teacher.

She said she has ruled out trying for a position on the U. S. Olympic gymnastic team because "I'm not going to have much time for it now."

Judi, whose tanned figure measures 36-24½-36 is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Ford. Her father is a corporation labor relations director and her mother is a high school English teacher in Rockford, Ill.

Judi said she would "love to" make a USO tour of Vietnam as did her predecessor, Debra Dene Barnes.

On the advice of a pageant official, Judi declined to discuss the Miss Black America pageant which picked 19-year-old Saundra Williams of Philadelphia.

The negro beauty pageant, staged to rival the Miss America extravaganza, took place on the boardwalk a few blocks from Convention Hall where Miss Ford was crowned.

The proceedings in the black pageant were similar to the familiar Miss America contest.

* * *

Philip H. Savage, tri-state director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said, in announcing the rival contest last week, that it had been scheduled to coincide with the Miss America contest.

MISS BLACK AMERICA

Saundra Williams, 19, of Philadelphia, who would have liked to compete in the Miss America pageant, was chosen Miss Black America of 1968.

The talented Maryland State College junior expressed a desire to "someday" enter the Miss America competition.

A major factor in Miss Williams' victory over seven other finalists was her interpretation of an African dance.

Some 200 spectators applauded the winner as she walked from the stage down a red-carpeted ramp. She wore a white evening dress with a sequined bodice and a regal robe, crown and sceptre.

From Shrinking Violet to Tiger Lily

Set Down Rules for Mother-in-Law

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my mother-in-law. I have been married for 42 years and have never said a cross word to her, but I am at the end of my rope. She lives in another town, thank God, but she uses up all her old age pension just traveling around visiting the relatives.

ABBY

When she comes here, she insists on sleeping on our sofa where she can hear and see everything. And she snores so loud we can't hear the TV. We have a spare room but she won't use it.

She complains about my cooking, my coffee, our children, grandchildren and friends. She puts her false teeth in my best china cups and when she leaves I have to throw the cup out. She won't go to church so one of us has to stay home and keep her company.

We never know when she's coming. She'll get on a bus and travel 600 miles and call us from the bus depot to come and get her. Isn't that a lot of nerve? If we have plans, it's just too bad. Everyone has to change their schedules to suit her. I would rather be dead than have her again. What should I do?

PROVOKED

DEAR PROVOKED: After playing the shrinking violet for 42 years, it may be difficult to become a tiger lily, but try. Tell the crusty old lady where you want her to sleep, where to put her false teeth, and if she doesn't care to go to church, she can sit alone. Also let her know that unless you have some advance notice, you may not be home.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a very successful businessman who insists on holding all his business conferences in his private sauna? DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Maybe that's his way of sweating out the best deal.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P. O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056. and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Two Couple Recite Vows

Carrying a bouquet of white carnations encircling yellow Sweetheart roses, Joyce Diane Reynolds was escorted to the altar of St. Paul's Methodist Church Saturday where she became the bride of James D. Lundy.

The ensemble chosen by the former Miss Reynolds was fashioned from taffeta with an overlay of Alencon lace. To complement the bridal sheath, she wore a matching lace train which fell from the shoulders. Seed pearls and crystal accents frosted the crown of lace securing her veil.

Mrs. Ronald A. Shelton and Gerald Cook were honor attendants at the candlelight ceremony for the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Harold G. Reynolds of LaSalle Street and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Lundy of Homesite Drive.

MRS. JAMES D. LUNDY

Bridesmaids, Marilyn Breeding, Karen Woodworth and Sarah Reynolds were escorted by ushers, Pat Krywko, Terry Frisch and Van Lundy. Marlene Kilmer was flower girl.

The newlyweds left for a northern Michigan honeymoon trip following a reception in the church parlors.

Rowe-Giles

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Giles of West Princeton Street was gowned in an A-line skimmer of silk organza over taffeta. Seed pearls trimmed the scooped neckline highlighting the lace Empire bodice with wrist length sleeves. A matching organza train completed her ensemble.

* * *

To secure her veil of elbow length, she wore a rose petal headpiece detailed with seed pearls and crystals and she held white rose buds with orchids.

The Ronald G. Sheltons lead the bridal party as honor attendents with Rebecca Giles as flower girl.

The Dennis Vincents, Edwina Delbridge, the Robert Smiths, Mark Vincent, Bill Giles and George Rowe assisted as bridesmaids and ushers.

A reception in the church parlors followed the evening rite. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Rowe of Lapeer and his bride then departed for a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls.

MRS. RONALD R. ROWE

Agenda Reported by Auxiliary Unit

Fall activities headed the business agenda as members of the Jimmy Dey Amvet auxiliary, Post 12, gathered Wednesday at the Sylvan Lake home of Mrs. Roy Williams.

A rummage sale on Oct. 5, at the Cook-Nelson Post Home will be followed with a November Card Party chaired by Mrs. Al Hudson.

A current project is the collection of items for Christmas packages which members plan to donate to the Veterans' Hospital. Mrs. Grant Wilton is chairman.

Corduroy Look for Seersucker

A corduroy that looks like seersucker is the newest look in fall fabrics.

The weave is a distinctive departure from the usual closely spaced plush ribs of cotton corduroy. To achieve the seersucker effect, the fabric is woven with puckered strips that alternate with narrow ribs of plush pile.

The new "seersucker" corduroy will be used in shirtwaist dresses and other dressed-up sportswear styles. Completely washable, the fabric is one hundred per cent combed cotton.

Classes Scheduled at OU for Career in Medicine

Courses for both the professional nurse and the interested layman in public and industrial hygiene are being offered this month by Oakland University's Division of Continuing Education.

For the registered nurse will be an assessment course of patient's needs, applications of nursing principles, the relationship of nursing to the social order and current issues.

Also new are two courses dealing with medical administration concepts and medical terminology.

The introductory course to medical administration is designed for persons wishing to prepare for an administrative and/or clerical hospital nursing job. The course in medical terminology gives basic preparation in jobs as medical secretary or record clerk, or assistant to a doctor or in labs and clinics.

Also available for supervisory personnel are courses in food service and building operations managment.

The classes, which begin the week of September 23, last 10, 12, and 15 weeks. More information may be obtained by contacting the Division of Continuing Education in Room 263 South Foundation Hall, Oakland University, Rochester.

Mom Goes Strong but Son Retires

JEFFERS, Minn. (AP) — Although her son, Alfred, 67, has retired after being a partner in a butcher shop here, Mrs. Laura Wessel, 87, still works six days a week in the meat department of a store now operated by her grandson-in-law.

She wraps beef for lockers, makes sausage and bologna, and saws and trims meat. She says she is not ready to retire.

Are You Bride-to-Be?

Are you planning a wedding?

We are interested in having your engagement and wedding news. But we need your cooperation.

The Pontiac Press has printed forms for both engagement and wedding announcements. But you may send in the details, giving full names and addresses (husband's names for a married woman) and other pertinent details.

Please include a telephone number so that we may check if necessary.

TIME LAPSE

There must be four months between engagement and wedding stories, if there is to be a picture with both.

No engagements are announced less than a month before the wedding date.

If pictures are taken at the wedding, we must have them no later than two days after the ceremony (that is, by noon Tuesday for Saturday weddings.)

If the wedding takes place out of town, this deadline is extended.

BEST PICTURES

Pictures should be black and white, preferably glossy prints. Snapshots cannot be used. Color and tinted prints are not acceptable.

While The Pontiac Press makes no promise to use every picture submitted, some printed mention of the event will be made.

There is no charge for editorial space, but it cannot be reserved nor can we promise the size of picture or its position.

Engagement and wedding pictures are kept for two months, then discarded. They may be called for any time after publication.

Why should we invest in a new piano until we're sure our child will keep on taking lessons?

The best way to insure your youngster's continuing interest in music is to start him on a new, easy-to-play Kimball that makes practicing more fun—there's nothing more discouraging to the beginner than learning to play on an old, stiff-action piano. Your investment in a new Kimball at the start, is the most important contribution you can make to your child's musical education.

HENKEL-BROWN

David Cook carried rings exchanged Friday by Georgi Anne Brown and James Edward Henkel during nuptials in St. Michael's Catholic Church. For the evening rite, the bride was attired in an A-line sheath of organza with Alencon lace accents. A three tiered pearl crown secured her veiling and she held a white prayer book mounted with white roses and Stephanotis. Sue Rupp and Philip Henkel lead the bridal party for the daughter of the William L. Browns of Whittemore Street and the son of the Edward J. Henkels of Franklin. Following a reception at First Federal Savings of Oakland, the newlyweds departed for a northern Michigan honeymoon.

Keeping in Trim Bugs Him

By BETTY CANARY

I'm thinking about doing some mosquito farming so that I'll have enought insects to last us through the winter months.

Keeping trim and fit is no problem for me (I shake my head and sigh a lot) but my husband is a more active type. He does not care for jogging — an exercise he could pursue on a year-round basis. During the summer months he golfs and sometimes plays a few sets of tennis.

* * *

His real exercise, however, comes from chasing mosquitoes. I don't join him in this sport, as I find pulling a sheet over my head not only wards off flying insects but also gives me all the exercise I care to have.

However, I have observed his nightly workout and my conclusion is that mosquito chasing not only stimulates the exerciser's circulation but also heightens his wife's blood pressure.

LITTLE EQUIPMENT

Little equipment is necessary for participation in the sport. No club fees are required. If one has a philosophical bent, one can, while threshing about the room alone, think deeply about The Family of Man Versus Bugs.

Tools required are: a rolled newspaper and a can of insect spray.

Rules are simple:

● Turn out lights and recline on bed. ● Slap first one arm, then the other. ● Shout (this helps lung expansion) aloud, "Bit me AGAIN!" and then, in rapid succession, come the last three steps.

* * *

Exercises begin with slow, paced movements which quicken and then, some 15 minutes later, build to a climax. Graceful as a dancer, the chaser balances on balls of feet, alert and watchful (rolling the eyes is great relaxation) as he looks for mosquito.

Next he practices short bursts of running about the room while shaking the curtains and striking lamp shades with newspaper. Shouting, similar to that of karate practitioners, begins. "Hah!" he cries, slashing at the telephone. Whap! Whap! "HaaaaahaH!" he shrieks, delivering a resounding slap to his wife's head.

* * *

Mattress-jumping is followed by headlong lunges into the walls, after which, with cry of "Gotcha! Gotcha!" he shoots bug spray full force into croers of ceiling and wife's face.

Exercise is completed when man collapses on bed. Brief period of gasps and moans sometimes follows after wife turns off lights and mosquito returns to circle man's supine figure.

INSTANT SEWING

How to make a basic design individually yours often depends on as simple a thing as a choice of fabric. Here are some ideas you may want to consider. Use your imagination and many more may occur to you.

Why Not —

Use an upholstery fabric for a dress, suit or coat?

How about a double layer of sheers, each a different color or shade, for an iridescent effect?

Line your jacket with the same print that your blouse is made of or try a hat to match your blouse to give that total look.

Trimmings

Since fashion is turning more and more to the romantic look you might turn your attention to a lace trim. You might edge a collar or even the hem of a dress.

You can gather Val lace in a delicate ruffle, whip lace to lace insertion or overhand lace to a hem as is done in the most expensive of couture models.

Beads or Sequins

Beads and sequins are other individual touches to a dress that give it distinction. All you need to sew beads on individually is to draw an outline of the design with either basting thread or dressmakers chalk on the right side of the fabric. Back-stitch on the outline of the design, picking up a single bead with each stitch. Easy — and around a neckline can be very glamorous. Sequins can just as easily be sewn on. If you sew them on a string, back-stitch through sequins that are to be placed in a row. Or slip-stitch string of sequins over the design.

These are just a few ways in which you can be your own designer and turn out really distinctive clothes that you might not comfortably afford to buy.

There are many more ideas — these are just samples from our INSTANT SEWING Book that is immediately available to you if you fill out the coupon below.

here's how shape takes shape

the shoulder has a wider look

Since the end result of the shaped look is to make you look leaner, trimmer, more perfectly proportioned, the shoulders are cut to the widest angle to provide contrast to the waist. But they're not exaggerated; they simply follow the natural line in the most flattering way. The shaped look, therefore, is a compatible departure whether your present preference is high-fashion or classic.

the lapels are wider

Just as the shoulders are widened to give better contrast with the waistline, so are the lapels—so that the top portion of the coat looks well, and naturally, proportioned. What evolves is a sophisticated version of the ideal physique: narrow hipped, lean waisted, wide shouldered.

the waist is suppressed

This, of course, is the key element of the shaped look, around which all the other tailoring details are built. The waistline in the coat is suppressed through the use of shape-defining darts at the front and seams on the side/back. The suppression is seen in various ways—from slight to extreme, depending upon the maker. Generally speaking, the European cut is the more exaggerated.

the coat is longer, the trousers leaner

The trimmed-in line is given continuity from the shoulders to the shoe-tops, by slightly extending the length of the coat, giving the middle portion more depth by raising the armhole, and by hollowing out the trousers at the thigh and then tapering them naturally to a cuffless bottom. Pocket accents along the way adroitly punctuate the line.

the vents are cut high

When a coat is shaped, the vents have to be cut more deeply than usual, so that the coat will fall smoothly—particularly across the back, where the tail of the coat often rides up. The vents may be either on the side or at the back; whichever way, they're very deep. This gives the coat an elegance, too—like an English riding coat.

and we have it in an important collection, by many fine makers.

Shape is no passing fancy—a fact that's attested to by the many famous makers who are showing it this fall. Among them: GGG, Fashion Park, Hart Schaffner & Marx, Eagle, Austin Leeds, Hammonton Park, Botany 500. Nor is shape limited to suits, but is also here in sport coats and outercoats. For this is the year that shape takes shape—and you'll see handsomely how at HHS. But don't simply look into it. Get into it.

In White Patrolman's Death

Black Panther Leader Guilty

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Black Panther leader Huey Newton, 26, was convicted Sunday night of voluntary manslaughter in the killing of a white policeman. The jury took four days to reach a verdict.

Newton's attorney, Charles R. Garry, moved immediately for an arrest of judgment and a new trial, and said later he would appeal the conviction to the U.S. Supreme Court if necessary.

* * *

The verdict "didn't make any sense," Garry told newsmen.

The defense contended that the dead policeman hated Negroes and harassed them.

HEARING IS SET

Newton could be imprisoned from two to 15 years. A hearing was set for Thursday on Garry's motions.

The jury of seven women and five men found Newton guilty of shooting patrolman John Frey last Oct. 28 in a West Oakland Negro district.

The prosecution said the killing occurred after Frey stopped a car containing Newton and another Negro for questioning about traffic tickets. Frey was shot five times and died to death. Another officer, Herbert Heanes, was critically wounded, and Newton was shot once.

The verdict ended an eight-week trial conducted in the atmosphere of an armed camp.

DAILY SEARCHES

Dozens of policemen were in the courthouse during the trial and spectators were searched daily before entering the courtroom.

Negro militants had predicted trouble if the verdict went against Newton, but the city was quiet today.

HUEY NEWTON

Newton stared expressionless when the verdict was read. As the jury was dismissed, an unidentified person among the spectators shouted, "Black Power!"

Te jury found Newton innocent of a second count, assault and battery with a deadly weapon on Heanes. It ruled, too, that Newton's 1964 knifing conviction was a felony and that therefore the current manslaughter conviction could carry a penalty of two to 15 years in prison instead of one to 15.

The jury contained one Negro, its foreman.

In an impromptu news conference before television cameras, Garry quoted Newton as saying of the verdict: "I want you to know the Black Panthers are very unhappy because these are the kind of disappointments we've been receiving."

* * *

Testimony showed that at 5 a.m., on Oct. 28, 1967, Frey radioed that he had come upon a "known Black Panther vehicle." He stopped it.

The driver was Newton. His passenger was Gene McKinney. Shortly another police car, with Heanes, arrived. Shooting started. About 30 minutes later Newton, a bullet wound in his abdomen appeared at a hospital.

The most damaging prosecution witness against Newton was a Negro bus driver, Henry Grier, who testified that he happened by with his bus and saw Newton shoot Frey.

Prosecutor Lowell Jensen said Newton started shooting rather than go back to prison as a parole violator from his 1964 conviction.

Jensen contended Newton had a German luger pistol in his car, but it wasn't found.

World Series Parking Fees May Hit $10

DETROIT (AP)—If the World Series does come to the Motor City, Detroit's parking lot operators apparently are going to make a mint.

The last time the Detroit Tigers were in the World Series was in 1945, and Detroit's parking lot impresarios apparently are determined to make up for the long famine.

* * *

At least one parking lot close to Tiger Stadium has indicated it will charge $10 a car each game. Other parking lots reportedly are doubling and tripling their rates—to $4 and $6 and even more.

Major hotels and motels, however, have so far resisted the temptation to cash in on the series, if it should come to Detroit. And many people apparently are pretty sure it will be played here. Some downtown hotels already report capacity reservations for the expected games against the St. Louis Cardinals on Oct. 5 and 6, and, barring a four-game sweep, again on Oct. 7.

A computer programmed to react as a patient will be studied as a teaching tool at a college of medicine in this country.

Little Opposition Thus Far to 2 State Bond Proposals

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's voters will be asked in November whether they want the state to go $435 million into debt to finance an attack on water pollution and a stepped-up recreational program.

Little opposition has been heard so far to the two big bonding programs, which would cost the state an estimated $20 million a year in principal and interest.

* * *

But backers, led by Gov. George Romney, have been outspoken in their support.

Romney first proposed the bond issues in his budget message to the Legislature in January. He called for voter approval of $335 in general obligation bonds for water purification and of $100 million for recreation.

VOTER OK NEEDED

Michigan's Constitution provides the state may not contract such debts unless both the Legislature and the voters approve. Lawmakers acted earlier this year, putting the two questions on the Nov. 5 ballot.

Michigan has issued such general obligation bonds before.

Romney's message to the Legislature set the $335 million pollution figure, which assumes that Congress will not obligate the federal government to pick up its 50 per cent share of the costs of building sewage treatment and interceptor facilities in the 1970s.

Estimated cost of the work is $568 million. Under the 50 per cent formula, the federal share should be $284 million. But, Romney warned, past experience has shown that Congress doesn't always spend what it authorizes to be spent.

ANTICIPATED SPLIT

So Romney's budget message assumes a federal appropriation for Michigan of $141 million by 1972, leaving the state to pay $285 million and local governmental units $142 million.

But since many of the 191 local communities required to build or improve sewage plants are small or have low tax bases, Romney proposed that the state sell another $50 million in bonds and set up a loan fund to help them with their 25 per cent share of the costs.

* * *

If more federal money is forthcoming than the $141 million Romney expects, Michigan wouldn't have to issue the full $335 million in bonds which it is asking the voters to authorize.

Romney also called for the $100-million recreation bond issue, saying land and construction costs are climbing rapidly and the state could save a good chunk of money by accelerating its recreational programs.

RECREATION PROPOSAL

Proposed in the budget message was allocation of $40.8 million for parks, $30 million for local recreation grants, $17.7 millions for fisheries, $7.5 million for game areas and habitat, and $4 million for forest camp grounds.

The $30 million for local units is intended to aid in construction of swimming pools and athletic fields and acquisition of park sites in the state's congested urban areas.

* * *

The 10-year program of the State Conservation Department which the $100 million would help finance, includes 6,000 new park camp sites to serve another 189,000 people daily, three new fish hatcheries to allow planting of another 20 million fish a year, and in the forests another 1,500 camp sites and 1,000 miles of roads and trails.

Romney again backed both proposals last week, and announced formation of a citizens committee to fight for their approval.

POLLUTION 'A DISGRACE'

"The pollution plight of our lakes, rivers and streams, including the Great Lakes, is rapidly becoming a disgrace," he said. "The longer we wait to clean them up, the more it's going to cost and the more lakes and streams will be completely destroyed."

Turning to the recreation proposal, Romney said the Kerner Commission report and other urban studies "have pinpointed the relationship of urban unrest to a lack of outdoor recreation facilities."

Junior Editors Quiz on WORSHIP

QUESTION: When did worship begin?

* * *

ANSWER: It would be impossible to give details about this, for the beginning of man's thought and feeling are shrouded in time now long past. Yet there are records, from many lands and peoples, which show that as far back as man has left a trace, he has felt the presence of a vast force greater than himself. People of different civilizations have called this force by different names. We usually use the word God.

Religious people agree that men gain the greatest good by relating themselves to this mightiest power in the universe. They may belong to separate faiths, but religious people agree on a Creator who is just and good, and they agree that His commandment to us is to serve and help our fellow men.

Science is extremely valuable since it uncovers facts about the world around us and the functioning of our bodies. But most people feel that religion is necessary too, because it searches for the values in life rather than just for the facts. And they feel that this search toward God-like qualities gives our lives a purpose and a meaning.

Scares Close Spans, Church

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — Two bomb scares Sunday forced police to close the twin North Grand Island bridges of the New York Thruway for about three hours and to evacuate about 70 persons from the Grand Island United Presbyterian Church.

* * *

No bomb was found. The warnings were telephoned by an anonymous female caller to a toll booth on the bridge and a few minutes later to the church.

State Police, thruway maintenance men and Army ordnance experts searched the surfaces and undersides of the twin 3,025-foot bridges that span the Niagara River from here to Grand Island. Sheriff's deputies searched the church building and premises.

Arab Refugees in Syria Await 'Day of Return'

Poorly fed and shabbily clothed, they have bitter memories of the six-day war with Israel. Until June 5, 1967, they lived in villages on the Golan Heights which the Israelis seized with the explanation the area had been used for shelling of Israeli territory.

* * *

Many villagers fled, reporting incendiary shells and napalm bombs. Israeli occupation authorities, refugees say, forced Syrian refugees eastward.

They speak of what they term "atrocities" perpetrated against their fellow Syrians in Golan villages and are obsessed with one supreme hope—revenge.

'NO SETTLEMENT'

Said one refugee teacher: "We don't want any political settlement with Israel. Was it all in vain, the blood of our brothers and fathers killed by Israelis? No, we would rather stay here in the tent until, in God's good time, the day will come when we can exact due vengeance on our merciless occupiers."

* * *

Most refugees in this camp have joined militia training centers organized by the Syrian government. They train in mountain warfare with light arms, mortars and machine guns.

Not far from the Duma camp live refugees from the Palestine of 1948. This is the Yarmuk camp housing more than 50,000. There are other camps scattered about Syrian territory, embracing a total of 170,000.

In Arab parlance the Duma people are called displaced or evacuees and the Yarmuk people are called refugees. The displaced hope to return to homeland areas when the current Middle East crisis is resolved. The refugees reside in rather permanent stone-built houses, and believe their problems are more difficult to tackle.

These people seem to have lost hope of settling their 20-year-old problems through peaceful, political means.

Males over 15 are trained for guerrilla warfare, to become "fedayeen" or commandos. Younger boys receive special preparatory training prior to joining the fedayeen corps. The junior guerrillas are called "young lions."

The emergence of the fedayeen movement gave rise to social problems. Men are often told that fedayeen are dedicated suicidal fighters hence they should refrain from marriage and settling down to family life. Elderly refugees, particularly women, tell their sons to marry and procreate in order to enhance population growth among Palestinians and protect their cause against corrosion and oblivion.

Troublesome Twins Slow Tigers Express

ROOKIE SHOWS POWER — Outfielder Graig Nettles of the Minnesota Twins unloads on an Earl Wilson slider Sunday afternoon for his fourth home run in three weekend games at Tiger Stadium and a 3-1 Minnesota win yesterday over the Detroiters. The 24-year-old slugger paced the 1966 Midwest League in homers, tied for the lead in the Southern League last season and shared the Pacific Coast League lead this season before being recalled.

Jets Prevail, 9-6

Lions Are Generous in Defeat

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

CLEVELAND — "Thou shall not fumble." This is one of the commandments of pro football running backs and this has become a mortal error for the Detroit Lions.

In one of the most listless games ever played by the Lions, more than 84,000 Cleveland fans cheered as the final gun sounded to end a 9-6 contest won by the New York Jets in the opener of a doubleheader at Municipal Stadium Saturday night.

Neither the Lions nor the Jets appeared to be concentrating on the game. If the Lions were looking ahead to the season opener with the Cowboys they'll have to prove this to be the reason when they travel to Dallas on Sunday.

The huge Cleveland crowd awakened to cheer the Browns for the second game but even they dwindled to smaller proportions by the third quarter as the Green Bay Packers scored a 31-9 rout over the home team.

MISSED CHANCES

The Lions' offense again sputtered in the shadows of the Jet goal line. In the five exhibition games, the offense has scored only five touchdowns, but threw away opportunities by losing 11 of 16 fumbles.

As they did against Washington a week earlier the Lions had the statistical advantage in rushing and passing but the bugaboo fumble ended the threats which would have brought victory.

The Jets, led by former Lions' draft choice Gerry Philbin at defensive end and second year defensive tackle John Elliott of Texas, smashed through the pass protection six times to smear quarterbacks Bill Munson and Greg Landry.

* * *

Munson gave way to Landry after suffering an injury which many feared might have been a shoulder separation. However, Xrays yesterday revealed it was a bad bruise and that Munson would be ready to go against Dallas in the opener.

Injuries have plagued the Lions during the exhibition season and coach Joe Schmidt shuddered at the thought he would have to go into the regular season without his No. 1 quarterback and several first string regulars.

MAKING BIDS

Offensive guard Chuck Walton came into the game for the first time this season and gave an adequate performance when the Lions' were making their bids to score in the final quarter.

The Lions scored first on a 38-yard field goal by Jerry DePoyster after 4:20 had elapsed.

Joe Namath then connected on successive passes of 20 and 37 yards to ex-New York Giant Don Maynard and George Sauer and after six plays, Matt Snell hit from the one to score. The pass for the point failed as Lem Barney intercepted.

* * *

The Lions' punting game, which has been anemic, gave the Jets good field position throughout the game and after Alex Karras smeared Namath for a 17-yard loss, the Jets added a 30-yard field goal early in the second quarter to complete their scoring.

It was all defense for the Lions in the second half, but with no help from the offense.

DePoyster booted a 17-yard field goal after two minutes of the fourth period, and two other Lions' drives ended inside the Jets' 20 on a fumble and a pass interception.

Munson had seven completions in 13 attempts before his injury and Landry finished with six of 14.

TWO INTERCEPTIONS

Namath, who believes he should be immune to onrushing defensive ends, tackles and blitzing linebackers, completed five of 11 in his short stint and had two intercepted.

The high priced quarterback, who wears the mod white shoes, pointed an angry finger at Karras, Larry Hand and red-dogging Mike Lucci for hitting him three times for big losses.

The hard core football fans of Cleveland however urged the Lions to blitz the long haired Jets' quarterback. It was when he left the game after just one period, that the fans' urgings simmered down to sleepy yawns, anxiously awaiting the end of the 9-6 exhibition.

Rookie Nettles Bombs Bengals With Hot Bat

By JERE CRAIG

Minnesota manager Cal Ermer's two Chances Sunday at Tiger Stadium proved Nettlesome to the Detroit Tigers' pennant push.

Neither could be called calculated risks, however. The first was the ace of the Twins' mound staff, Dean Chance, and the other is the young man Ermer is taking a chance on as the replacement for injured right fielder Tony Oliva, 24-year-old Graig Nettles.

A converted third baseman, Nettles lofted an Earl Wilson slider off the fencing in the upper deck for a three-run homer in the sixth inning to give Chance a 3-1 conquest of the Tigers, his fourth in five decisions with them this season.

The defeat enabled the pursuing Baltimore Orioles to gain ground, again. The Tigers' pennant-clinching combination remains 12 with 18 games to play and the Orioles now trailing by seven.

SMALLER

While the 6-0, 180-pound Nettles doesn't resemble the bigger Oliva, he did as much damage as the Twins' All-Star might have.

A league home run leader in each of his three professional seasons in the minors, the recently recalled San Diego resident cracked his first major league roundtripper Friday night off Denny McLain — the top winner in the major leagues.

Then Saturday night Nettles ripped a Pat Dobson fast ball and slider for solo home runs and a 2-1 Twins' victory. Although Wilson adroitly handled the youngster three times. Sunday, his one mistake in the game was lofted just to the front of the second deck, approximately 330 feet away, and Nettles left town with a .333 average, four home runs and six runs batted in in five games.

* * *

Ironically, Sunday's game was a battle of out-of-state "neighbors." Wilson and Nettles both are ex-San Diego State athletes. The Tigers' lone run off Chance — a Wooster, Ohio, native — was a solo home run by Gates Brown — the pride of Crestline, Ohio.

Brown had another shot at Chance in the ninth inning after Jim Northrup lined sharply to Cesar Tovar, who made a running backhanded grab in center field, and Norm Cash drilled a safety up the middle.

Greeted with a big roar by the crowd of 27,777, Gates was only able to ground the ball to Bob Allison at first base, and his throw to second forced Cash. Ed Mathews took a third strike to end the game.

RATES CHEERS

Wilson also had the fans' vocal support. Making a strong performance for the fourth straight outing, the big right-hander was touched for five hits, fanned nine (showing excellent control of his breaking pitches) and the only runner after Nettles' homer reached on an error.

When manager Mayo Smith let him bat in the eighth inning with Tom Matchick on first (after a single) and none out, the fans responded approvingly. But Chance fanned him with breaking pitches.

* * *

Outside of Brown's homer, no Tiger went beyond second base. Chance yielded six safeties, walked one and struck out seven in squarring his record at 14-14. Wilson's mark slipped to 12-12.

The Tigers left this morning for Anaheim where they will meet the California Angels three times, beginning with Mickey Lolich facing Dennis Bennett tonight.

ELECTRIFYING MOMENT — The unlimited hydroplane Miss Eagle Electric flips and disintegrates amid a cloud of spray Sunday near the Yacht Club on the Detroit River. Lt. Col. (Ret.) Warner Gardner, the driver, was thrown into the water and suffered critical injuries in the accident which happened during the second lap of the championship final heat of the Gold Cup Race.

Driver Injured Critically

Gold Cup's Showdown Tragic

DETROIT (AP)—A high speed showdown between powerboating's top two drivers ended abruptly on the Detroit River Sunday when the 5,600 pound craft of Lt. Col. Warner Gardner, a retired Air Force officer, was virtually ripped to pieces in a stunning moment during the Gold Cup race.

The 52-year-old Gardner of Bay City was critically injured when his 30-foot speedboat suddenly became airborne, flipped on its side and disintegrated as it smacked against the water.

Gardner's No. 1 rival, defending champion Bill Schumacher of Seattle, was about to make an effort to help rescue Gardner until he saw a Coast Guard amphibious helicopter swooping in to pluck the unconscious driver from the river.

"I got out of the way in a hurry for I knew they could be of more help to the colonel than I could," the shaken Schumacher said later.

CHAMPIONSHIP HEAT

After a delay for regrouping of boats, the third and championship heat in which Gardner and Schumacher had been dueling was run over again.

Schumacher, who had a runaway in his first two heats of the day, had a rougher time in the rescheduled final heat but he won it to retain the Gold Cup championship he won last year.

* * *

The 26-year-old Schumacher and the 25-year-veteran of the Air Force had dominated the American Powerboat Association scene all year. Each had won three of the seven meets thus far, with the seventh going to Miss U.S. in Seattle last month.

Reports along the riverfront during the week had built the two drivers, Gardner and Schumacher, into a hot rivalry. There were rumors of a minor feud but both men denied them.

The two hot-footed drivers were not pitted against each other until the third heat. Schumacher had won his first two and Gardner had a first and second place finish to his credit when they headed for the starting line for the 15 mile windup.

EARLY LEADER

Miss Budweiser, piloted by Bill Sterett of Owensboro, Ky. jumped out ahead of both boats and roared along with a 40-yard lead over Gardner's boat Miss Eagle Electric and an even longer lead over Bardahl which was running third.

Many of the 70,000 spectators who lined the shores of the Detroit mainland and the Belle Isle recreation area were present at the 1966 Gold Cup when veteran Detroit driver Chuck Thompson plunged to his death when his boat disintegrated in the final heat.

History virtually repeated itself Sunday as Gardner's boat, running under what race officials called the most favorable water conditions in 15 years, suddenly swooped upward as many spectators screamed.

Silent Detroit Bats Keep Race in Doubt

* * *

After opening a nine-game lead over the Birds of Baltimore Friday, the Bengal bats suddenly stopped booming and they dropped two in a row, an event which keeps the race in a bit of a doubt.

* * *

So, with 18 games remaining, the Tigers are now seven ahead. The magic number is still 12 — any combination of Detroit wins and Baltimore losses totaling 12 will give the Bengals their first flag in 23 years

U.S. Committee Approves LA Bid

CHICAGO (AP) — The U.S. Olympic Committee does not expect any revolutionary action by Negro athletes at the Olympic Games in Mexico City next month.

The committee met Sunday and selected Los Angeles over San Francisco as the U.S. city to officially bid for the 1976 Games before the International Olympic Committee when it meets in Amsterdam in May.

* * *

The committee then followed with a brief discussion on the possibility of Negro athletes wearing black armbands as a display of protest or refusing to take ascent to the victory stand in acknowledgements of triumphs.

"We discussed the matter," said Everett Barnes, the committee's acting executive director," and decided the present rules and bylaws of the constitution cover the matter.

NO INDICATION

"No new rules were imposed under the conditions," said Barnes. "At present there is no real indication that anything will happen. We are optimistic there will be no difficulties and so are our coaches and the chairmen of the track and field committee at Lake Tahoe."

Los Angeles, site of the 1932 Olympics, and San Francisco were the only cities bidding to represent the United States States for a chance at the 1976 Olympic Games.

Douglas Roby, president of the USOC, said "Los Angeles is probably the best equipped city in the world for the Games.

"The United States is due to have the games," said Roby.

Roseboro Views It

Series Edge for Cardinals

Former All-Star backstop John Roseboro, who came to the Minnesota Twins in the trade that sent Zoilo Versalles to Los Angeles said Sunday that the St. Louis Cardinals will have two key advantages should they meet the Detroit Tigers next month in the World Series.

Commenting before yesterday's Twins-Tigers game, Roseboro noted that the two clubs over-all are nearly equal.

"St. Louis has it head and shoulders over the Tigers in running," Roseboro stated. Of all the Cardinal regulars, only Roger Maris isn't regarded as a good runner on the bases.

* * *

"In fielding the Tigers are on a par," he continued. "They don't have any pitcher who throws as hard as Gibson, but they shouldn't have trouble with any of the other Cardinal pitchers.

* * *

"Detroit may have more power throughout its lineup. But the bigger St. Louis park will make a difference. (Dick) McAuliffe and (Mickey) Stanley are line-drive hitters, but the others will find it a long way to the fences over there."

Should the Bengals make it the Series for the first time since 1945, Roseboro's advice is simple: 'Keep the Cardinals off the bases.

Earl Wilson is an intense competitor who doesn't take defeat easily. Already disturbed over his failure to contribute more to the Tigers' pennant bid, the 32-year-old ex-Marine was visibly upset by yesterday's 3-1 loss to the Twins.

When asked about the 3-2 pitch that Minnesota rookie Graig Nettles just managed to reach the right field stands with for the margin of victory, Wilson would only sadly shake his bowed head in the locker room after the game.

His comment about the power-hitting display Nettles gave during the series (four homers in three games) was "You don't have to be a power hitter in this ball park (Tiger Stadium)!"

ADDED TV

The Tigers retain the television rights to their ball games — unlike radio — and are expected to add several more road games to the video schedule this month, including any game that might involve clinching the flag.

However, none will be shown this week from Anaheim. Presently, only the Saturday matinee games (two at home) the next three weekends are listed on the TV schedule.

In all, the Tigers have nine road games and nine home contests to play. Six of them are against Washington's tenth place Senators.

Bettenhausen Winner

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — Gary Bettenhausen took the lead on the 12th lap and stayed in front to win the 25-mile Don Branson Sprint Car Classic Sunday.

Bettenhausen, of Tinley Park, Ill., started in third position in the U.S. Auto Club 50-lap feature on the Vigo County Fairgrounds, half-mile dirt oval. He won $1,196 of the $6,945 purse.

Bob Scheffing Among Angel GM Candidates

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Bob Scheffing and Dick Walsh were mentioned Sunday as possible successors to California Angel General Manager Fred Haney, retiring after 50 years in baseball.

Scheffing currently serves with the Mets and Walsh, a former Dodger executive, is now commissioner of professional soccer. Haney's retirement, effective Jan. 1, was announced Saturday. He'll continue as a club adviser.

FIREBIRD FLIES GOALWARD — Bob Brown, who stayed in the background as a reserve halfback for two years with the Pontiac Firebirds, brought the crowd of 2,300 at Wisner Stadium yesterday to its feet when he made a dazzling 53 yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter as the Firebirds defeated Ypsilanti, 26-6. A former high school star at Alliance, Ohio and formerly with the Canton Bulldogs of the Continental League, Brown is seen in the photo on the extreme right breaking through scrimmage. He appeared to be trapped several times, but broke away in zig-zag fashion. The excitement of the run can be seen by a dark shirted fan who sat with his hand on his chin when the play started in the first photo, a more excited fan urging Brown onward with an arm gesture in the second photo and teammates George Nickson (78) and Ron Bemis (83) when Brown crossed the goal line in the photo to the extreme left.

The scramble is starting in the Midwest Football League, and the Pontiac Firebirds have found new life in the race with a new running star who received the approval of 2,300 fans yesterday at Wisner Stadium.

Bob Brown, a substitute halfback for two years, and the rejuvinated quarterbacking of Bill Harrington carried the Firebirds to a 26-6 triumph over the Vikings.

The race in the MFL tightened when Lackawanna was knocked from the ranks of the unbeaten by the Flint Wildcats, 31-21 before 5,000 fans at Atwood Stadium's new astroturf gridiron.

Dayton continued to roll along unbeaten as Pete Mikolajewski passed for three more touchdowns in routing Fort Wayne, 48-6.

Pistol Pete now has 17 touchdowns to his credit for the five games.

FAST START

The Firebirds scored fast as Harrington made his first start in four games since his leg injury in the home opener against Flint, and the veteran quarterback threw for three touchdowns.

tight end Ron Bemis for eight and 65 yards, another early in the game went 49 yards to Ray Donescu.

* * *

The most spectacular, however, was a 53-yard zigzag run by Brown in the final quarter to pull the game far out of reach.

Brown, a product of Alliance, Ohio, High School, one of the hotbeds of prep football, brought the crowd to its feet as he fought his way out of trapped situations and away from defenders all over the field for his sizzling run.

* * *

On the first series of plays, Harrington connected with Donescu who went the distance on a 49 yard play. Tom Eifert Converted to make it 7-0 after four minutes.

POOR PUNT

A poor Ypsilant punt started the second drive and Harrington flipped to Bemis for the TD after five plays from the 35. Marty Malatin converted on a plunge to make it 14-0.

The Pontiac offense then bogged down, even after a couple chances, and in the third quarter on an attempted screen, Carroll McFadden grabbed the loose football in mid-air and went 63 yards to make it 14-6.

* * *

With 4:14 left in the period, Bemis got behind the corner back and took Harrington's pass on the 50 and completed the run for a 65 yard play.

* * *

Harrington regained his passing eye in the fourth period and moved the team 65 yards but a 33 yard pass to Bemis was nullified by a penalty.

A few minutes later Brown tore off on his run to make it 26-6.

Casper Makes Prophet Out of Crampton

Billy Takes Top Spot of Tourney With Four Outstanding Rounds

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Bruce Crampton said last week that it takes four super rounds to win a tournament in pro golf today, and he turned out to be a prophet—for Billy Casper.

Casper, golf's leading money winner in 1968, put together the four super rounds in the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Tourney which wound up Sunday. Australian Crampton had only three rounds in the super category and wound up in second place.

* * *

Casper had scores of 68-65-67-66 to claim the $20,000 top prize at Wethersfield Country Club with a 72-hole score of 266, 18-under-par. Crampton had 65-67-70-67 for a 269 finish Sunday and $12,000 in consolation money.

* * *

Crampton's prophecy of sorts came on Thursday after his first round 65 led the way. He said pro golf is so much tougher in 1968 because of the number of players who can win and an improved standard of play. Three good rounds and one great one was once the winning formula, he stated.

HOT PUTTER

The most spectacular aspect of Casper's play was his putting. He needed only 27 putts on the second round when he fashioned a brilliant 65 in chilling cold, rain and wind.

When the sun returned Saturday and Sunday, Casper needed only 26 putts for each 18 hole round. It was "some of the best putting I've had in several years," Casper said.

* * *

Casper is enjoying his best year in money winnings, $171,436, and although others claimed the major titles at the U.S. and British Opens, Masters and PGA tournaments, Casper's five tournament victories this year is three more than any other golfer.

Buffalo Beaten, 16-7

New Patriot Shines

By United Press International

Mike Taliaferro, the young man who stepped in when old-timer Babe Parilli stepped out, may be just the field general the Boston Patriots need to rebuild their sagging American Football League fortunes.

Taliaferro, a little-used quarterback who rarely got a chance to display his talents while riding the New York Jets bench, was traded to the Patriots in July, in a deal which sent veteran Parilli to the Jets as backup man to Joe Namath.

The former University of Illinois back gave the Boston brass something to gloat about Sunday when he directed the Patriots to a season-opening 16-7 victory over the Buffalo Bills. The contest was the only game played in the AFL's Eastern Division and left the Pats alone on top of the conference standings.

San Diego downed to fledgling Cincinnati Bengals, the AFL's newest entry, 29-13 Friday night in the only Western Division game played.

TAKE ON OILERS

The biggest AFL clash of the young season takes place tonight in Houston's Astrodome where the Kansas City Chiefs tangle with the Houston Oilers. A capacity crowd of 45,000 is expected for the first regular season AFL game in the famed indoor stadium.

National Football League teams were idle Sunday as were other AFL clubs with the exception of Boston and Buffalo.

The NFL opens its season next Saturday with Atlanta at Minnesota. Six league games are on next Sunday's schedule.

* * *

As the exhibition game schedule came to a close, the young AFL wound up with a 13-10 advantage in the interleague series with the more established NFL. It was a major breakthrough for the AFL teams who were on the short end of a 3-13 mark in interleague play a year ago.

In NFL exhibitions Saturday, the lowly Philadelphia Eagles upset the fumbling New York Giants 21-7, Baltimore downed the Dallas Cowboys 16-10 and the Washington Redskins beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 24-17.

Player Homeward Bound With $50,000 Golf Check

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Little Gary Player, who has amassed more than a half million dollars in an illustrious 15-year career as a golf professional, picked up his check for $50,000 and headed for home.

* * *

"I'm anxious to get home. I miss my family," the 5-foot-7 South African said after he added the prestige-packed World Series of Golf title to his British Open Championship.

* * *

The 32-year-old Johannesburg star calmly rolled in an eight-foot birdie putt on the fourth extra hole of a sudden death playoff Sunday to wrest the big prize from Bob Goalby.

Only a month ago on this same tough par 70, 7,180-yard Firestone Country Club layout, Jack Nicklaus edged Lee Elder on the fifth hole of a playoff in the drama-filled American Golf Classic.

Player, who won this event in 1965, and Masters champ Goalby had deadlocked at 143, three over-par, for the regulation 36-holes before the South African won it all with his only birdie of the day.

* * *

Veteran Julius Boros, the PGA king, had a chance to forge a three-way tie but blew it when he missed a four-foot putt on the final hole and settled for a 144.

* * *

U. S. Open winner Lee Trevino, who dropped out of contention Saturday with a 79, added a 74 for a 153 score, 13 over par. He won $5,000. Player had rounds of 71-72 and Goalby 72-71.

Goalby, who earned $15,000 for his runner-up finish, said, "I had my chances but couldn't take advantage of them. I guess I was choking a bit."

Lou Groza May Lose Job With Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Lou Groza, the most durable of all the Cleveland Browns and the greatest point-maker in pro football history, may have played his last pro game.

* * *

The Browns must cut three more players to get down to the 40-player limit before their National Football League season opener in New Orleans Sunday, and the 44-year-old Groza is expected to be one of them.

* * *

Don Crockroft handled Groza's job in the exhibition against Green Bay Saturday night and provided one of the few bright spots in the Browns' dismal 31-9 defeat.

* * *

The first-year man from Adams State of Colorado kicked field goals of 32, 17 and 36 yards, accounting for all the Cleveland points. He also handled the punting duties.

Trotting Record Set in Half Mile

His time for the half mile at Saratoga Raceway was 1:23 1-5, topping his previous mark of 1:25 set two years ago.

Mays' Error Gives Cards 2-1 Victory

By The Associated Press

Herman Franks' desperate three-day siege of St. Louis had the Cardinals squeezed into an unfamiliar bind . . . until they got the drop on Willie Mays and started pinching back.

Franks' San Francisco Giants, king for a four-game sweep over the National League front-runners, led 2-1 in the ninth inning of Sunday's series finale when Mays dropped pinch hitter Roger Maris' long drive for a two-base error.

* * *

The Cardinals went on to tie the game on a sacrifice fly by pinch hitter Johnny Edwards and won it 3-2 in the 11th on a run-scoring pinch single by Phil Gagliano.

The victory sent St. Louis 11½ games ahead of the second place Giants and lowered the Cards' magic number for clinching their second successive, pennant to seven. Any combination of Cardinal victories and Giant losses adding up to seven will put the leaders over the top.

In Sunday's other NL action the Chicago Cubs bombed Philadelphia 10-3, Los Angeles shaded Cincinnati 3-2, Atlanta downed Houston 4-1 and Pittsburgh beat the New York Mets 3-0.

Mays, whose three previous errors in the St. Louis series hadn't hurt the Giants, pinch hit in the fifth inning Sunday and tied the game 1-1 with a run-scoring single.

Dave McNally 'Slides' Into 20-Victory Season

By the Associated Press

Until he rediscovered his slider pitch, Dave McNally didn't believe he'd ever win 20 games in the major leagues.

* * *

But the pain subsided after a lengthy therapy program, the slider came back as mysteriously as it disappeared, and McNally became a big winner in his sixth American League season.

The quiet southpaw notched his 20th victory of 1968 Sunday, striking out seven while stopping the Chicago White Sox 3-2 on four hits. It was the 12th consecutive victory for McNally, who hasn't lost since July 5.

BIG INNING

Brooks Robinson tripled to spark the rally, Frank Robinson and Ellie Hendricks rapped run-scoring doubles and Dave Johnson's single drove in the final run. That was enough to pull the Orioles to within seven games of the league-leading Detroit Tigers, who lost for the second straight day to Minnesota, 3-1.

Ken Berry doubled in the fifth and eighth innings and scored both unearned Chicago runs.

In other AL action Sunday, New York rapped Washington 7-2, California edged Boston 3-2 and Oakland walloped Cleveland 10-2.

* * *

The Yankees, who had scored 26 runs on 27 hits sweeping a Saturday doubleheader from Washington, kept the offense rolling with 11 more hits and beat the Senators again for Stan Bahnsen's 15th victory.

Cater had four hits, raising his batting average to .289. Duncan and Campaneris had three each with Campaneris scoring twice on two doubles and a triple.

California scored all its runs in the first inning and then hung on to beat Boston.

Rookies Jarvis Tatum and Jim Spencer each singled in the first inning uprising with Spencer's single driving in what turned out to be the Angels' winning run.

Greens' Officials in Annual Outing

The third annual golf field day sponsored by the Michigan and Border Cities Golf Course Superintendents Association is slated for Tuesday at Green Acres in Bridgeport.

The public is invited to join in for the day of festivities, which are held to raise funds for turf research through the Michigan Turf Foundation. A total of $6,000 was raised last year.

Thinclads Run in Higher Site for Final Trials

Expect World Marks Despite Elevation at South Lake Tahoe

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — The final track and field trials to select the U.S. Olympic team began today at this 7,377-feet high test site.

Hopes are high for world records in some events.

Jimmy Hines and Charlie Green, who share a claim for a 9.9 seconds for 100 meters, go in the same heat of the first round, the opening event. The listed record is 10 seconds flat.

* * *

Hines confidently said he can run 9.8 here and that he doesn't fear this altitude or Mexico City's 7,349 at the Olympic site.

Observers say that some field events like the discus, shot put and javelin travel farther through the thin air here.

Jim Ryun, entering both the 800 and 1,500 meters, gets his first test today in the shorter race.

A crowd of 4,000 is expected for the day's five events, including the final of the 10,000 meters run.

Sunny skies and 85 degree temperature are forecast.

The United States' three decathlon entrants performed with determination Saturday before 3,000 fans.

Bill Toomey won the 10-event championship with 8,222 points, only eight less than the American record of 8,230 Russ Hodge set two years ago.

* * *

Hodge, a 1964 Olympian, tore a thigh muscle, limped through the 1,500-meter final event here for a token one point and wound up eighth with 7,186.

Rick Sloan and Army Dr. Tom Waddell, second and third with 7,800 and 7,706 respectively, also made the team. Jeff Bannister, fourth with 7,650, is the alternate.

Gerry Lindgren, who hopes to qualify in both the 5,000-and 10,000-meter runs, is among 12 in the latter event.

Other contenders include Tracy Smith, Tom Laris and Billy Mills, surprise 10,000 winner at Tokyo in 1964.

Today's preliminaries are in the 100 and 800 meter runs, 400 meter intermediate hurdles and shot put.

THREE ROUNDS

Three rounds of the 100—with two heats in each round—are scheduled for 11 entrants. To progress they must run at least 10.5 seconds in the first round and 10.4 in the second.

The first three in each semifinal heat plus the other two fastest would comprise the eight man final, to be run Tuesday.

Randy Matson, Dave Maggard and Neil Steinhauer head the nine shot putters who advance into Tuesday's final if they throw 60 feet.

Eleven men will challenge Ryun in the 800, in which the first five in each heat advance to the semifinals. Wednesday's final will have the fastest six men.

The trials will continue through Sept. 16.

The first three men in each event will make the U.S. Olympics team. A total of 206 are entered for these finals trials.

Miss Bardahl Wraps Up Second Straight Gold Cup

Traveling at an estimated 130 miles an hour, the craft smashed down on the water as if it were a cement wall. Pieces of the boat flew in all directions; the planks on the craft's deck were peeled back as if by a giant knife and its tail fins were torn loose and smashed to bits.

The Coast Guard helicopter swooped in quickly and took Gardner, who was floating unconscious face up, from the water and to a waiting ambulance on shore. He was taken to Detroit General Hospital.

HEAD INJURIES

Dr. Sinclair Finch of Detroit, medical consultant to the American Power Boat Association, said Gardner had suffered severe injuries to the left chest and his head.

"Seven ribs on the left side were fractured and there is some internal bleeding but that does not worry us as much as the head injury which is of some magnitude," Dr. Finch said.

* * *

The injury to Gardner and two earlier mishaps took some of the thrill out of the final heat of the 60th running of the Gold Cup but it still wound up as a crowd pleaser as Schumacher and Bill Sterett's Miss Budweiser staged one of the greatest bow to bow duels in the history of the Detroit River.

The two, never more than 15 feet apart in the first six miles of the 15 mile finale, battled on even terms until Budweiser took on some water from Schumacher's wash as the third lap started and dropped out of contention. The last two laps saw Schumacher pad his lead as he powered home to prove his prerace contention that "this race is going to be won on brute strength alone."

OTHER MISHAPS

In earlier mishaps of the day, an explosion in the pits sent two crewmen of Miss U.S. to the hospital with first and second degree burns. Russ Johnson and Rickey Iglesias were burned as fumes in the bottom of the craft exploded while the boat was being pushed on a wheeled trailer towards the riverfront for launching.

Ed Muncie, father of Bill Muncie, driver of Miss U.S. heard about the mishap and slipped and fell as he hurried towards the boat. Doctors said he suffered several cracked ribs.

* * *

The first mishap of the day saw rookie driver Tommy Fults of Walnut Creek, Calif. sustain first degree burns on his hands when the engine on his My Gypsy flared up during the first heat. Fults got the craft into the inner circle of the track and successfully battled the flames as black smoke poured over the course. He got a new engine and had some first aid on his hands and was back for the second heat.

Lesson for Parent Tigers

Mud Hens Capture I-L Championship

By the Associated Press

Toledo's Mud Hens have won the 1968 pennant in the Class AAA International League in a breath-taking finish that provides both an example and a lesson for their major league parents, the Detroit Tigers.

Trailing Columbus by one percentage point going into Sunday's finals, the Mud Hens took their first IL crown by bombing Rochester 17-0 while Columbus was splitting two with Jacksonville-losing 7-3 and winning 2-1.

* * *

The almost imperceptible difference in the latest of the IL's hair-raising flag races was a half-game and three percentage points. Toledo wound up 83-64-.565, Columbus 82-64-.562.

Cancellation of the rained-out second game of a doubleheader between Columbus and Jacksonville last Thursday night left the Jets playing only 146 games to Toledo's 147-and may have cost them a tie for the pennant.

EXAMPLE SET

The very fact of the pennant, of course, is the example Toledo furnishes Detroit's American League leaders, who now are seven games in front of Baltimore.

The lesson is that even impressive leads can be squanders. For as last Aug. 17, with only 23 games to go, Toledo led Columbus by 5½ games and seemed poised to coast home to the pennant.

* * *

But after holding first place in the IL for 45 days, Toledo lost it to the Jets on Aug. 28. From then to the end, it was a dilly of a race. Toledo took first again Sept. 1; Columbus reclaimed the lead Sept. 6 and, finally, the Mud Hens took it for keeps at the last moment.

* * *

Pitching did it for Toledo, more than anything else, right-handers Mike Marshall and Dick Drago each won 15 games; Jim Rooker won 14 and led the league in strikeouts with 206. Dave Campbell hit 26 home runs.

* * *

Rochester's Merv Rettenmund, now with Baltimore, won the IL's batting championship with an unofficial average of .331. Richmond's Dave Nicholson, playing for the last-place team, led in home runs with 34 and in runs batted in with 85. Columbus lefty Dave Roberts led the IL pitchers with an 18-5 record.

* * *

It was appropriate that Toledo won the pennant by defeating Rochester for the Mud Hens had found the Red Wings to be patsies all year, beating the league's third-place team 15 times in 21 games.

NO MERCY

Sunday they showed no mercy at bay as lefty Les Cain pitched a three-hitter and hit a grand slam home run, to boot in the flag-clincher. It was his first hit all season long. Campbell hit his 26th homer and Don Pepper his 15th for the new champions.

Ashe, Okker in Net Final

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Can a big service overpower speed and finesse in a championship tennis battle?

This was the question that divided the court wizards today as Arthur Ashe, the U.S. Army lieutenant from Highland Falls, N.Y., and Tom Okker, the cat-quick giant-killer from The Netherlands, squared off in the men's singles final of the U.S. Open Tournament.

* * *

"I think I would have to pick Ashe because of his powerful service," predicted Pancho Gonzales, the old pro who gave the fans a show before bowing out to Okker in the quarter-finals.

"Ashe serves as hard as any man in tennis, much harder than I do today. He has too much power for Okker."

Bill Talbert, the former U.S. Davis Cup captain, disagreed. "Okker's all-around strength will beat Arthur," Talbert said. "It's true that Ashe serves harder but Okker is quicker and has more shots."

"I'll go with the big serve and Ashe," said Jack Kramer.

"I lose only to the champion —I have to pick Okker. He's not only fast but he is capable of making some of the most fantastic shots I've ever seen," said the veteran Ken Rosewall.

13TH VICTIM

The third-seeded Rosewall, who became the 13th professional to fall before an amateur racket, was Okker's victim in the dramatic semifinals Sunday, the 24-year-old Dutchman winning 8-6, 6-4, 6-8, 6-1.

Ashe, 24, reigning U.S. amateur champion and the first Negro over to win the American title, unleashed a 115 miles-per-hour service in blasting aside his Davis cup teammate, Clark Graebner of New York, 4-6, 8-6, 7-5, 6-2.

They are shown here yesterday during semifinal victories. Ashe defeated Clark Graebner, 4-6 8-6, 7-5, 6-2, while Okker ousted Ken Rosewall, 8-6, 6-4, 6-8 and 6-1.

U.S. Skaters Take Honors

W. Germany Shares World Roller Event

VIGO, Spain (AP) — West Germany and the United States won top honors in Sunday's two final events of the 14th World Roller Skating Championship.

Astrid Bader of West Germany won the women's individual event, competing with 26 other entrants from 14 countries. Her score was 1,543.20 points.

Two other German girls, Christine Kreutzfel, and Renate Zedworly, were second and third with 1,536.55 and 1,474.60 points, respectively.

Darlen Barile of the United States was fourth with 1,366.55.

MIXED PAIRS

The mixed pairs title was captured by Rita Smith and Donald Rudalewicz of the United States with 219.6 points.

They were followed by Margaret Gibbs and Peter Hicks of Britain with 214.4, and Margot Nissen and Heinz Germershausen of Germany with 214.

State Senior Golfers Eye National Title

Fifteen of Michigan's senior players will be trying for three spots in the U.S. Senior Amateur Championship when they tee off tomorrow in a qualifying round at Red Run Country Club in Royal Oak.

Defending champion Ray Palmer of Lincoln Park, who was exempt from qualifying, did not enter this year because of injuries suffered in a recent accident.

39 SITES

The Red Run course is one of 39 sites across the country playing host to sectional qualifying competition. An 18-hole round is scheduled.

The 120 qualifiers will then move to Atlanta Country Club, Atlanta, Ga., for the championship proper Sept. 23-28. The 120 will play two rounds of stroke play — 18 holes each of two days — with the low 32 scorers then moving to match play.

Among the state players who'll go after those three spots at Red Run tomorrow are Charles Kocsis of Royal Oak, William E. Holt, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, Angelo V. Lotti of Birmingham and Leo T. Daigle of Lake Orion. All contestants are 55 years of age or older.

NMU 11 Starts With Victory

MARQUETTE (AP)— Northern Michigan University jumped the gun on the rest of the state's college football teams and it was the same old story for NMU with the same old happy ending.

A 37-yard, second-quarter field goal by Gene Grady put NMU ahead to stay and the Wildcats defeated the University of Northern Iowa 24-13 Saturday in their season opener at Marquette.

* * *

The victory for Coach Rollie Dotsch's Wildcats extended the team's perfect nine-game winning streak from last year.

It rained all the way through the game, but the Wildcats were glad of it since half of Northern Iowa's eight fumbles were recovered by Northern Michigan and three of those led to touchdowns.

One bright spot for the losers was Northern Iowa's quarterback Phil Schooley, who set a school record by completing 21 of 35 attempted passes for 240 yards gained.

DRC Race for Damascus

DETROIT (AP) — A favorable weight allowance has landed Damascus, thoroughbred racing's Horse of the Year in 1967, in the 20th running of the $100,000 added Michigan Mile Saturday at the Detroit Race Course.

In a surprise move, trainer Frank Whiteley Jr. announced Saturday in New York that he would enter Damascus and the four-year-old champion's stablemate, Hedevar, in Michigan's top race.

Hedevar often is entered along with Damascus to kill off the early speed in the race. Whiteley said Braulio Baeza, top U.S. money-winning jockey for three years running, would ride Damascus. Canadian Ron Turcotte will handle Hedevar.

Scientist Predicts Upsurge in Heart Transplants

NEW YORK (AP) — With the number of heart-transplant operations throughout the world edging near 50, a scientist predicts an even greater upsurge in the number of operations over the coming months.

Dr. F. C. Spencer of the New York University Medical Center also said that despite the obvious success of the heart transplants so far, a great number of questions remain.

* * *

One problem that needs exploring, Spencer said, is why many recipients seem to respond either "extremely badly or extremely well."

He told the second International Congress of the Transplantation Society Sunday that the next year will provide major and needed information about long-term survival of recipients, adding, "I predict a great increase in frequency in the next several months."

FIRST MEETING

The society held its first meeting last year in Paris.

Dr. Theodore Cooper, director of the U.S. National Institute of Health, told the hundreds of researchers Sunday that the United States is setting up a cardiac transplantation registry to record treatment and results on all heart transplants for the use of the world's scientists.

* * *

Cooper also cited the problem of supply and demand in heart transplants. Government statistics show that there are 200,000 deaths each year in the United States from acquired heart disease, he said.

"For the 80,000 or so of these which occur before the patient can reach the hospital," he said, "only prevention will provide a cure."

MIGHT AVOID SURGERY

Of the 120,000 who get to a hospital, about 40,000 might be returned to the community without surgery. That leaves 80,000 persons each year who "clearly require new forms of surgery," Cooper said.

There are about 8,000 deaths each year from congenital heart disease occurring before the age of 1 year, but these are largely due to lesions that could be handled with other surgery. Various other cases would amount to about 1,000 additional persons a year to be added to the 80,000 transplant candidates.

* * *

Looking at a potential supply of donors, Cooper said there are 260,000 deaths of men and women between the ages of 15 and 64 each year from causes other than cancer or heart disease.

Assuming that all would be suitable donors, he added, that means that one out of three would have to be willing and available as a donor to supply the 81,000 candidates.

Synthetic meats made from soybeans are being served by restaurants and hospitals to persons who must restrict their fat intake. The new products are prepared to look and taste like ham, sausage, hamburger, beefsteak, chipped beef and chicken.

Threat a Joke, but Boy's Dead

NILES (UPI) — Twelve-year-old Philip Hart sprawled on his neighbor's couch Sunday with a 22-caliber rifle nested between his knees and said, "I think I'll kilt myself."

* * *

He pulled the trigger of the single-shot weapon and died instantly. Witnesses said the boy had been joking.

* * *

No one knew the rifle was loaded, they said.

The gasoline carburetor was invented in 1876 by Daimler.

Recipient of Kidneys Is Dead in Texas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The 41-year-old Odessa, Tex., chemical engineer who received kidneys from two heart transplant donors died Sunday.

* * *

The three other men who received a heart, lung and kidney from a 20-year-old shooting victim in a mass transplant operation Aug. 31 were reported in satisfactory condition.

At the time of death, Kaiser's "kidney was functioning satisfactorily but wasn't functioning as well as a person's natural kidney," the spokesman said.

* * *

Kaiser, admitted to the hospital April 18, received on May 5 the kidney of a teen-age accident victim whose heart was transplanted to another man. The heart recipient died three days later.

Doctors said Kaiser's first kidney operation was unsuccessful. He was aided by a kidney machine until the Aug. 31 transplant surgery.

Barnard's 3rd Heart-Switch Patient Okay

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Dr. Christiaan N. Barnard is "more than satisfied" with the progress of his third heart-transplant patient, Pieter Johannes Smith, a bulletin from Groote Schuur Hospital said Sunday.

Barnard's transplant team gave the 52-year-old former policeman the heart of a pregnant black woman Saturday night in the world's 42nd heart transplant operation. Twenty-two of the 42 patients are living.

The hospital said Smith was fully conscious 12 hours after the operation and asking for solid food, but he was kept on liquids Sunday. A bulletin said he complained of thirst and backache but his blood pressure, respiratory rate, pulse and temperature were normal and stable.

The donor died of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Gallup Poll: GOP Is Best for U.S. Woes

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP) — Americans feel the Republican party can deal with the nation's vital problems more effectively than the Democrats, according to the Gallup Poll.

The poll organization said Sunday that a survey taken in mid-August found that 37 per cent of those questioned thought the GOP handled vital issues better; 25 per cent favored the Democrats and 38 per cent were undecided.

When the undecideds were divided equally, the Republicans had a 56-44 edge.

Four years ago, Gallup said, a similar poll gave the Democrats a 62-38 margin and they went on to win the election with 61 per cent of the vote to 29 per cent for the Republicans.

The present poll also reported that the four major worries of the electorate are: the war in Vietnam, 51 per cent; crime and lawlessness, 21 per cent; civil rights, 20 per cent; and the high cost of living, 7 per cent.

Opening lead—J♣

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY

Oswald: "One low card looks a lot like any other but one test of an expert is his ability to select the right low card to play."

Jim: "It is also well to remember that once you play a low card you can't get it back."

Oswald: "Today's hand shows some excellent competitive bidding. East and West can make three diamonds but no more and that is just what they bid. North and South can make only eight tricks in spades but it was good tactics for them to bid to three. They weren't going to get doubled and it is always better to go down one trick not vulnerable than to let your opponents make a part score."

* * *

Jim: "I really like South's rebid. He only had eight high card points but they were two aces and he decided to show his second five-card suit in hope that his partner might actually take him to game."

Oswald: "The hand is very unusual in that South can't be beaten at three hearts but can and should be beaten at the apparently better three spade contract."

Jim: "The defense to beat three spades is for East to take two clubs and one diamond and to continue with a third club. This will establish a trump trick for West and West will also get a heart trick. With hearts as trumps the third club lead won't matter. South will simply ruff low and West will use up his heart trick if he overruffs."

* * *

Oswald: "South did make three spades. Trick one produced the jack, queen and king of clubs. At trick two East led his king of diamonds and West played the four spot. East studied that card carefully, looked around for the deuce, couldn't find it, couldn't see why his partner would be hiding it from him, and tried to cash his queen of diamonds. South ruffed, drew trumps and made his contract."

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
	1♦	Pass	2♣
Pass	2♠	Pass	3 N.T.
Pass	4♣	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠J4 ♥KJ98 ♦A2 ♣KQ1054
What do you do now?

A—Bid four no-trump. You plan to bid six clubs if your partner shows two aces.

TODAY'S QUESTION

MUSIC MUSIC EVERYWHERE

Theaters across the country this fall will be filled with the sounds of music and laughter as top motion picture companies bring out the happy sounds of song and story. There will be the plight of young "OLIVER" or the old famous car "CHITTY CHITTY BANG BANG"; there will be stage productions recreated for the screen, from "HELLO DOLLY" and "FUNNY GIRL" through the extravagant "FINIAN'S RAINBOW." The original "WEST SIDE STORY" will be re-released and "THE STAR" recreates the life of Gertrude Lawrence. For the younger set, the Beatles sing to the all-cartoon story of the "YELLOW SUBMARINE."

Being made all over the world, these musical masterpieces involve cars and stars, songs and throngs, dancing and prancing, ringing and singing, all coming forth as part of the wonderful excitement of MUSIC MUSIC EVERYWHERE.

Barbra Streisand is Columbia's "FUNNY GIRL."

For Julie Andrews, it is being "THE STAR" in the 20th-Century Fox production.

Barbra also becomes Dolly Levi in 20th's "HELLO, DOLLY."

The art of picking pockets is part of young "OLIVER," where Ron Moody as Fagin discusses the talent to Mark Lester, playing the lead role in the Columbia release.

Fred Astaire and Petula Clark join together to do the wash in the Warner Bros.-Seven Arts production of "FINIAN'S RAINBOW."

Man's New Heart Unhurt in Crash

MONTREAL (AP) — Gaetan Paris, who underwent a heart-transplant operation on June 28, was shaken up and bruised in a minor automobile collision Saturday night, but one of his doctors said the new heart was not affected.

Mrs. Paris was driving her 49-year-old husband at the time of the collision. He was taken immediately to the Montreal Heart Institute and remained overnight for examination, then returned to his home in a Montreal suburb.

GRANDMA 'PUPPY' SITS — Cookie (right) gave birth to six Boston Terrier pups but rejects them most of the time. So Cookie's mother, Mascot Toy O, takes over at lunchtime when her irresponsible daughter turns the pups away, according to Mrs. Sesta Matheison of Adrian, owner of the two dogs and the pups. Dr. Wyman Davis, Adrian veterinarian, says the phenomenon sometimes happens in the animal world. Mrs. Matheison has won dozens of prizes with Cookie and Mascot Toy O at dog shows.

Pied Piper Device Dazes London Rats

LONDON (AP) — Researchers using a device emitting sounds pitched too high for humans to hear are playing a fatal game of Pied Piper with rats near London.

The device appears to give rats nervous breakdowns.

In one experiment, the device was switched on in a field near a slaughterhouse. A dozen rats dashed from the building after a few minutes.

* * *

A number of dazed rats were caught and killed by dogs around the slaughterhouse in the next week. Then there was none.

Varying degrees of success were reported in several experiments on farms. There was one failure — in a building where grain sacks were believed to have absorbed the sound.

LIVESTOCK NOT AFFECTED

Horses, cows and other livestock were not noticeably affected.

According to 13th century legend, the original Pied Piper played magic pipes and lured the rats in the German town of Hamelin to drown in a river nearby. When townsfolk refused to pay him, he played another tune and drew the town's children to their deaths.

* * *

Researchers say the new device will cost less than $75 and run for three months on a 30-cent battery. It is the invention of C. D. Naegeli, managing director of a London radio manufacturing firm, and resembles a transistor radio with a long aerial. Further tests are planned.

Primary Elections in 9 States Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

Primary elections, some involving the Vietnam policy issue and one marking Barry Goldwater's political comeback, will be held tomorrow in nine states.

Party nominations for seats in the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives will be voted in Arizona, Colorado, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Maryland, Vermont and Utah, and all but Colorado and Maryland also will choose nominees for governor.

* * *

Rhode Island will nominate party choices for the House and governor. Minnesota will decide on nominees for House races only.

Goldwater, snowed under by Lyndon B. Johnson in the 1964 presidential race, is unopposed for the Arizona Republican nomination to succeed a retiring Democratic incumbent, 90-year-old Carl Hayden, in the Senate.

3-WAY RACE

On the Democratic side there is a three-way race between Roy Elson, Hayden's administrative aide, State Tax Commissioner Robert Kennedy and State Corporation Commissioner Richard Herbert.

In Colorado, the Vietnam question has been raised in a contest for the Democratic Senate nomination between State Rep. Kenneth Monfort, a dove, and former Gov. Steve McNichols, who backs the Johnson administration approach.

* * *

Vietnam is an issue too in Vermont, where Republican Sen. George D. Aiken is opposed for renomination by William K. Tufts, a political unknown. Tufts has contended that Aiken has taken too soft an attitude on prosecuting the war.

Republican Sen. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire, who says he is neither hawk nor dove, has as a primary opponent, Mayor John C. Mongan of Manchester, whose rallying cry is "Let's either fight or get out." Gov. John W. King is unopposed for the Democratic Senate nomination.

WISCONSIN RACE

Bronson C. La Follette, 32-year-old heir to Wisconsin's most famous political name, seeks the Democratic nomination to oppose incumbent Republican Gov. Warren P. Knowles in November.

La Follette is heavily favored to win from Floyd Wille, a political unknown. Gov. Knowles is unopposed for renomination, as is Democratic Sen. Gaylord Nelson. There is a three-way fight for the Republican nomination to take on Nelson in the general election, with State Sen. Jerris Leonard the favorite.

* * *

Republican Sen. Wallace F. Bennett of Utah faces a primary challenger in Mark Anderson, a former official of the rightist John Birch Society, who is given little chance.

IT HAS TO GO — Countess Cecilia Lewenhaupt of Sweden has received the king's permission to set her century-old castle afire. The three-story wooden castle will be burned down this year when weather conditions are right. The countess said the mansion is too expensive to keep, and she wants to build a smaller house on the lot. The structure has no special historic value.

Wonder Drug Can Be Made Synthetically

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A Cornell University chemist announced Sunday night that for the first time Terramycin—one of the antibiotic wonder drugs—can be produced artificially.

Dr. Han H. Muxfeldt said his discovery is a possible breakthrough toward developing tailor-made drugs for fighting certain diseases now either wholly or partially resistant to the most powerful drug weapons.

★ ★ ★

Muxfeldt told the 156th national meeting of the American Chemical Society that artificial production or synthesis of the drug was achieved by starting with a compound called jugalone, which is derived from walnuts.

★ ★ ★

Terramycin—a trade name for a chemical called oxytetracycline—is used against many diseases, ranging from pneumonia and scarlet fever to syphilis.

★ ★ ★

It is produced naturally as a fermentation product from microbes that occur in soils or molds, as are all antibiotic wonder drugs, and Muxfeldt said that would continue to be the cheapest means of production.

BEFORE AND AFTER — Double-duty glasses promise to be a boon to wearers of prescription eyeglasses who carry an extra pair with dark lenses for outdoor use. These darken and clear automatically, over and over again, according to changes in light conditions. The new glasses, a development of Corning Glass Works, are darkened by ultraviolet light and are not affected by ordinary incandescent lighting.

To Keep Standards Low

Film Group Screens the Clean

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Veteran movie-goers, which includes everyone who predates Doris Day, will remember when the Hays Office was a powerful factor in Hollywood.

WEST

The Hays Office enforced a purity code that kept the silver screen free of nudity, profanity, obscenity and other sins and misdemeanors.

If you have seen any movies lately, you may be wondering what happened to the Hays Office. I think I have the answer for you.

★ ★ ★

To the best of my knowledge and belief, the Hays Office has been replaced by the De Praved Office.

As I understand it, the function of the De Praved Office, headed by J. Arthur De Praved, is to make certain that movies released in this country meet certain standards of concupiescence, poor taste and degeneracy.

TOO DECENT

Let us say, for example, that Sam Paragon, the famous producer - director, is bringing out a motion picture version of that great literary classic "The Five Little Peppers and How They Grow."

He submits the film to the De Praved Office and asks for its seal of approval. Clearance is denied on grounds the bedroom scene is excessively decent. De Praved explains why.

★ ★ ★

"Sam, baby," he says, "you can't have a scene like that in an American picture. It may be okay for European audiences but the public in this country isn't ready for it."

"What's wrong with it?" "It shows a middle-aged married couple occupying twin beds. Both husband and wife are wearing long flannel nightshirts and have blankets pulled up to their shoulders."

NUDE, UNCOVERED

"But that's the way people used to sleep in those days."

"I know, Sam. I'm not saying it isn't historically accurate. But the code specifically states that a bedroom scene must show young, unmarried couples in bed together. It further requires that they be nude and uncovered."

★ ★ ★

"Couldn't you make an exception in this case? I've sunk a lot of money in this pix and, after all, it's a classic. People who read the book when they were kids expect to see the couple in nightshirts."

"Sorry, Sam. If we let down the bars once, the country will soon be flooded with wholesome pictures."

WHITELISTED

"Suppose I defy the code and release the picture as is?"

"Don't try it, Sam. I'll have you whitelisted in every theater in the United States."

Schuler's Suspect Awaits Examination

MARSHALL (AP) — James Eugene Smith, 21, of Marshall, was held in lieu of $10,000 bond today to await examination on an armed robbery charge in connection with the $20,000 Labor Day holdup of Win Schuler's hotel and restaurant in Marshall.

Smith, arrested Saturday, demanded examination at his arraignment before Marshall Municipal Judge A. P. Stewart. No examination date was set.

Store Clerk Killed

DETROIT (AP) — Police today sought the slayers of a 70-year-old clothing store clerk who was gunned down Saturday on Detroit's East Side as he tried to stop three men who had stolen some clothing. Police said Archie King, clerk in the A. E. Gilbert store on East Jefferson, followed the shoplifters outside the store where one of the men pulled a gun and shot the elderly clerk twice in the chest.

"LOSE WEIGHT FOREVER"

Florine Mark, mother of five children, is Executive Director of Weight Watchers.

Free Meeting – Open to the Public
Learn to lose weight and keep it off

You are invited to attend a free lecture by Mrs. Florine Mark . . . One of America's most distinguished examples of successful living. This remarkable woman who not only changed her life but that of thousands of others will speak Thursday Sept. 12th 7:30 P.M.
Rochester High School

Mrs. Mark, a mother of five children, was a victim of one of America's most crippling and humiliating diseases—overweight.

From her teens, Mrs. Mark had been an almost constant dieter and user of diet drugs with no permanent success. Repeated failure had caused her to abandon almost all the social activities healthy people take for granted.

In 1965, Mrs. Mark discovered the international Weight Watchers movement, started by Jean Neidetch, and the medically sound principles on which it is based. More than that, she discovered these principles can be used to lead a more successful, happier life

In 1966 she brought the dignified Weight Watcher movement to Michigan. In two short years the organization she directs has expanded into more than ninety classes every week. Over 8 thousand people have achieved success through her methods.

Speaking with eloquence, understanding and honesty, Mrs. Mark will describe the techniques that have done so much to help so many people live more successfully.

Be sure to attend this free lecture if you are sincerely interested in losing weight.

PESSIMIST—This Frenchman carries not one umbrella, but two, while waiting for a bus near the Paris Opera House. Judging by the sizes, perhaps one is for a light rain and the other for a downpour.

Laine demonstrates the form she used to win at the Second National Festival of French Majorettes. Danielle, 20, was crowned queen of baton twirlers.

THE SMITH FAMILY wishes to thank each and everyone for their kindness in their hour of grief and sorrow.

In Memoriam 2

IN MEMORY OF MY mother and my father, Mrs. Walter Guess who passed away Sept. 9, 1967, and father who passed away Sept. 10, 1943.
No pen can write,
No tongue can tell,
My sad and bitter loss.
But God who knows,
But God alone has helped so well,
To bear the heavy cross.
Your loving daughter Junie, Don and loving grandsons, Don Jr., and Lindsay Brandon.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF our dear mother Bertha Guess who passed away one year ago today.
No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief we bear in silence
For the one we loved so well,
We miss you so,
No one can take your place.
Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Guess and Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey Highgate.

Celebrities Solicit Insults From Rickles, the 'Prime Rib'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Politeness, courtesy, chivalry — and all those old-time virtues — have become rather cheapened lately by the success of the great insulters like Don Rickles, "the Prime Rib," who can make you a big celebrity in the cafes if he insults you personally.

WILSON

"Don't you think you're being overexposed — you've been on TV so much?" we asked him recently.

"No," quoth Don. "Don't forget, I was off TV for 20 years."

The Kid from Brooklyn says he's a ribber, not an insulter, and when he meets Jack E. Leonard, the other insulter, who got known in the business before he did, they act like friends.

"I always looked up to Milton Berle as top comic," says Rickles. "I think I picked up some of his mannerisms. Today I go over to Milton's house and as the saying is, 'I help him.' I say that in fun because Milton will come over break my leg if he thinks I mean it."

* * *

Rickles had a memorable incident with Dean Martin whom he had ribbed pretty good. Getting to his feet, Martin said:

"Pally, I enjoyed you, my Jeannie enjoyed you, my family enjoyed you. We think you're just wonderful, Pally."

"Thank you," stammered Rickles.

"Don't go by me, though, Pally," said Dean. "I'm drunk."

* * *

Patachou had the very best and dressiest of all her openings at the St. Regis Maisonette (with Lord Mountbatten and Wendy Vanderbilt in the mob)—but the biggest hand was when she announced "I'm going to do 'Mame' in Paris." Patachou becomes like Piaf every season, and for us, that's good, that's great!

* * *

Look for LBJ to make a most dramatic exit from the White House; something that history will record . . . Wash'n joke: Mayor Daley's going on two TV shows: "Beat the Press" and "Mace the Nation" . . . Story's around about a superbly educated, well-brought-up Southern Negro who was taken to a gourmet restaurant in Chicago. "One of the curses of integration," he said, "is having to eat the white man's food."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

A line written eight months ago for the forthcoming B'way comedy, "Lovers and Other Strangers," now gets yocks from preview audiences: "What kind of world is this when you have to choose between Nixon and Humphrey?" . . . Hairdresser Vidal Sassoon and his wife Beverly, named the baby Catya (Beverly says, "The delivery was so easy I didn't even have to take my false eyelashes off") . . . Comic Corbett Monica made his first parachute jump, to win a $100 bet . . . The huge "Funny Girl" Times Sq. premiere party'll be held in a tent (to make Omar Sharif feel at home, claims Ray Stark).

Secret Stuff: A sexpot's husband is steaming at the leading men working opposite her—that old jealousy bug . . . Acquaintances of a current show business phenomenon say his many managers give him only a few dollars weekly from his huge salary, "but he doesn't know what to do about it. He's broke, and his parents are in poverty."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Dick Cavett explains how to tell if it's gonna be a clear day in N.Y.: "When you wake up, your pillow isn't dirty."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "If you worry about what other people think of you, it shows you have a better opinion of the opinion of others than of your own."

EARL'S PEARLS: Ray Sackett urges us to use Zip codes on our letters: "Unzipped mail is indecent."

Barbara Lacey tells how to spot Secret Service men: "When the benediction is given, they're the only ones who keep their eyes open and don't bow their heads." . . . That's earl, brother.

A Look at TV

Todd Warmly Recalled

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — "Around the World of Mike Todd," ABC's Sunday night special, was a warm and entertaining memoir of a man in a hurry who made and lost two fortunes by the time he was 21 and who, as he put it, "grew up and married Elizabeth Taylor."

Miss Taylor, who was 24 when Todd, then 44, became her third husband, was woven into the program, reminiscing on the years of their marriage with affection, warmth and even amusement. She recalled his whirlwind courtship and her engagement ring: "Mike said it was 29-7/8 carats — 30 carats would have been vulgar."

* * *

The program was as full of stars as Todd's most famous movie, "Around the World in 80 Days", which received almost reverent treatment. Orson Wells, narrating, called Todd "the most colorful of the great showmen." Jack E. Leonard, who went to grammar school with Todd, told how Mike ran their schoolyard crap game and how he acted as lookout for the cops.

Todd quit school at 17, made and lost a couple of million dollars building Hollywood sound studios, and recouped with an act at the Chicago World's Fair. He parlayed a Broadway musical into a hit attraction at the New York World's Fair in 1939 and then struck it rich—for a while—on Broadway.

EXCITING MAN

Gypsy Rose Lee, one of his stars, called him the most exciting man she ever met. Ethel Merman, recalling Todd's complete supervision of "Something for the Boys," said, "He told Cole Porter how to write the songs; he even told me how to sing them."

They were just a few who contributed to the carefully edited picture drawn partly by his son, the show's producer, Michael Todd Jr.

* * *

Todd died in a private plane crash almost 10 years ago. Miss Taylor, in a serious note, said that his legacy to her was "a gift of love, not only how to give but how to receive, with love."

The hour was like a highly retouched photograph—not the complete portrait of a man but pleasant to look at.

The annual two-hour "Miss America Pageant" on NBC Saturday night came off as usual as far as TV viewers were concerned. The big effort was to turn the contest into a sort of variety show. The girls, of course, were pretty and the level of professionalism in the performances by the finalists was higher than in other years.

There were excellent production values—the sets and costumes were effective. But things bogged down when they dragged in that "Traveling the Road to Someday" theme.

Nigerian Army Feeds 300 in Captured City

ABA, Nigeria (AP) — The Nigerian army, in an effort to show it is not intent on wiping out the rebellious Ibo tribe, rounded up 300 persons in this nearly deserted city and handed over food to them.

The distribution Sunday was made three days after federal troops captured Aba, which had been the largest city left to secessionist Biafra in eastern Nigeria.

* * *

The Ibos, the predominant tribe of Biafra, claim the federal troops are waging a war of genocide against them. Virtually none of the 300 were Ibos.

They were some of the thousands the army believes remain in Aba, which before the war was a trading center of 131,000 inhabitants. But as the trucks and armored cars deposited food at the town hall, the streets were almost empty except for those collected by the troops in the roundup.

STINKING FISH

Troops gruffly hustled weakened men to unload sacks of rice, beans, and dried and smoked fish from Norway.

The stinking fish crawled with vermin. One bone-thin man took his ration, climbed to the roof of the modern two-story town hall and chewed at his fish.

Some men were too weak from hunger to carry bags. The children stared listlessly but wide eyed. The very young had pale golden hair, symptomatic of protein starvation.

* * *

From an Italian-built ammunition carrier, civilians pulled cartons of condensed milk, presumably for children short of protein.

SOUR PICKLE

On the second floor of the town hall a 3-year-old boy, the size of a year-old toddler, sucked on a sour green pickle.

Col. Benjamin Adekunle, commander of the 3rd Marine Commando Division, said his troops —not the Red Cross—would handle relief in the area because "They know what Nigerians need, not milk but rice, beans and such solid foods." He has refused to permit the International Red Cross and its cartons of dried milk into the front.

* * *

Newsmen at Port Harcourt, Adekunle's headquarters 35 miles to the south, found about 50 tons of grain, salt and Bulgarian tomato juice in a warehouse. But Lt. Col. Abdou Abubakar, Adekunle's officer in charge of rehabilitation, said in Aba he did not know how much food was available or how long the truckloads at the town hall were expected to last.

The town hall was a pathetic scene with families cooking mashed roots at the front door, and dazed persons, twisted from malnutrition, wandering about.

RESISTANCE MELTED

"I am Jesus Christ," said one bright-eyed Ibo main. "Father has passed a miracle."

Lt. Col. Godwin Ally, the 3rd Division chief of staff, said that once his troops marched to within five miles of Aba, resistance melted. The troops now stared across the narrow Aba River and the destroyed bridge to the opposite hill where the Biafrans were believed silently holding defensive positions, hoarding their scarce ammunition.

* * *

The federals said they were waiting for more troops from the east before advancing north toward Umuihia, headquarters of the Biafran chief of state, Lt. Col. Odumegwu Ojukwu, 30 miles to the north.

The International Red Cross said it flew 80 tons of food and medicine into Biafra Saturday night. Since Sept. 3, the Red Cross has flown in 218 tons of supplies and 55 doctors, nurses and Red Cross workers to aid the sick and starving Biafrans.

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N. Y. (Special): A scientific research institute has discovered a medication which has the ability in most cases — to actually shrink hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from the itching, burning and pain. Then this medication starts right in to gently reduce the swelling of inflamed, irritated hemorrhoids.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so.

And it was all accomplished without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H® — an exclusive formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids. There is no other formula like it! In addition to actually shrinking piles and relieving the painful distress — Preparation H lubricates, makes bowel movements less painful and soothes the irritated tissues. It also helps prevent further infection.

Preparation H comes in ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.

Nixon Woos Texas; Humphrey Plans Michigan Visit

By The Associated Press

With President Johnson reaffirming he'll steer clear of "partisan politics," Republican Richard M. Nixon is trying to woo back the Texas votes that shifted to the Democrats when Johnson ran for public office.

★ ★ ★

And Vice President Hubert Humphrey will visit Michigan next Wednesday with stops at Saginaw and Flint, State Democratic party headquarters announced yesterday.

Details of the trip—Humphrey's first since winning the Democratic presidential nomination — will be announced later, the party said.

State Chairman Sander Levin, in making the announcement, said Michigan "is a key state in the vice president's plans to win the election. We in the Democratic party of Michigan are determined to do everything we can to insure a victory for the Humphrey-Muskie ticket here.

Nixon fell only about 45,000 votes short of winning Texas' 25 electoral votes when he lost to the John F. Kennedy-Johnson ticket in 1960.

Texas' had come through with majorities over 100,000 for the Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower-Nixon pairing in the two previous elections.

Nixon appeared in Houston yesterday on the third day of a cross-country campaign and contrasted his own policies with what he termed "the policies of the last four years."

★ ★ ★

When Nixon arrived at the Houston airport, he was met by Ben Carpenter, a wealthy Dallas resident and former Johnson backer.

Carpenter helped organize "Texans for Eisenhower" in 1952 and 1956 and said he is planning to lead "Texans for Nixon" this year.

While Nixon was in Texas, the President was telling a news conference he would speak on "matters affecting this administration," but would refrain from "partisan politics."

Nixon said in his Houston speech, "The Nixon road and the Humphrey road are miles apart . . . There is not a dime's worth of difference between the policies Hubert Humphrey offers America and the policies America has had the last four years."

Nixon was urged to make the speech by Texas Republicans concerned by the threat of third-party presidential candididate George C. Wallace, who had said there's "not a dime's worth of difference" between the Republicans and Democrats.

Teachers Strike Across Nation

By the Associated Press

Teacher strikes and threats of strikes have spread across the nation, leaving students in many cities wondering whether there will be classes Monday.

Some 2,500 delegates at a meeting of New York City's United Federation of Teachers voted overwhelmingly to begin a strike Monday unless a local school board in Brooklyn agrees to reinstate 10 teachers who were dismissed last spring.

MICHIGAN STRIKES

In East Chicago, Ind., a teachers' strike that began Wednesday had closed down all but one of the city's 13 elementary and high schools.

Meanwhile, teacher strikes kept 60,000 students out of classes in 10 school districts in Michigan. Teachers were working without contracts as negotiations continued in 31 other Michigan districts.

Teachers ratified a two-year contract with the Charlevoix Board of Education yesterday. The 1,444 students in the district were scheduled to return to classes Monday after losing three days of school.

Fact-finding procedures were expected to continue over the weekend in most of the troubled districts. A spokesman for Lt. Gov. William Milliken, troubleshooter in the school situation, said meetings with fact-finders and preparation of reports have slowed the settlement rate.

Moms Unite for Kids' Safety

White Lake Township mothers, concerned about the high speed of cars rounding a curve near Oxbow Lake Elementary School, have formed an emergency safety patrol to protect their children.

★ ★ ★

"We don't mind them walking," says Mrs. Robert Wallace of 10053 Cedar Shores, a mother of two. "It's the dangerous conditions that concern us."

NO LIMIT POSTED

Mrs. Wallace said that since no speed limit is posted, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department told her the speed limit was 65 mph.

"Near the school, the road curves where there is a dam control, and the children have to walk on a narrow path between the bumper guards and the road," she added.

Sixteen other mothers have joined Mrs. Wallace in forming the safety patrol.

A group of 12 mothers called Clifford A. Scherer, administrative assistant of the Huron Valley schools, to tell him of the dangerous conditions that exist because of the curve and because there are no crosswalks.

Scherer said the school board has requested the Oakland County Road Commission to paint crosswalks and install appropriate signs marking the school area.

The board will receive a request to hire three adult crossing guards at Monday night's meeting, he said.

He added that White Lake Township Supervisor James L. Reed has been cooperating with him in an effort to have the speed limit on the curve reduced.

Oakland County Highway Department officials said they will make a radar check of the area to determine whether the present speed limit is appropriate.

NO PROMISES

So far, the mothers said, they have received no promise of immediate temporary action and will continue to act as a safety patrol until they feel their children will be safe.

New Terror Wave Is Feared in Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — Seven terrorist attacks in Saigon within 24 hours raised fears today that the enemy command is beginning a new wave of terrorism.

American servicemen were advised to stay off the streets during the night and to carry their weapons with them at all times. But U.S. officers said they did not foresee an imminent attack on Saigon.

Police said the terrorists were trying to frighten their victims into turning against the South Vietnamese government.

Intelligence reports have said that a terror campaign would be a prelude to and a key part of any major attack on Saigon, which presumably remains the ultimate goal of any third offensive by the enemy.

2 CHILDREN INJURED

In the most serious of the new incidents, a bomb exploded in an unoccupied office in Cholon, the Chinese section of Saigon, injuring a woman and two schoolchildren in a schoolyard next door.

The office belonged to the Association of Chinese Regional Administrative Groups, a group of Vietnamese civic leaders of Chinese origin which backs and is supported by the government.

The bombing took place only three blocks from a government information office and two other buildings that were wrecked by an explosion last night that killed nine Vietnamese and wounded 55. The dead included four children.

Also last night, a Vietnamese ward chief was shot and critically wounded in the dock area of Saigon by a woman about 20, police said. She escaped.

POWER STATION HIT

Police said a power transformer station was slightly damaged yesterday afternoon when a bomb exploded next to it.

The other incidents involved grenades tossed at ward chiefs and government facilities with only a few casualties and minor damage reported. One terrorist tried to blow up a U.S. Navy truck with a booby trap, but it was discovered in time and defused.

In addition, an enemy 100-pound rocket slammed into the southern edge of Saigon around midnight, killing one Vietnamese woman and wounding 11 other persons, including eight children.

37 ENEMY KILLED

Four South Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed and 28 wounded. Five civilians also were wounded. Enemy casualties were put at 37 killed.

My Tho itself, an important civilian and military center 40 miles southwest of Saigon, also came under a mortar attack.

Senate Passes Spending Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $19-billion money bill containing a slap at President Johnson and big increases over sums voted by the House for antipoverty, education and health programs.

The measure was sent to conference with the House which passed a $17.2-billion version June 26.

The Senate considered about $1.1 billion of budget requests from President Johnson in connection with the bill which were not before the House. This accounted for a large part of the Senate boosts over the House totals.

The final Senate figure still was $300 million below Johnson's requests for the agencies covered by the bill—chiefly the Health, Education and Welfare and the Labor departments and the Office of Economic Opportunity, which administers the antipoverty program.

SLAP AT PRESIDENT

The Senate took a slap at the President by voting to require the spending of $91 million in impacted-areas school funds despite his decision not to do so.

This is the program started during the Korean war to reimburse school districts for expenses involved when their populations become swollen by federal installations in their areas.

The $91 million restores the program to full entitlement instead of the 80 per cent Johnson sought.

During three days of floor debate, the Senate added to the over-all bill almost $500 million more than its appropriations committee approved.

★ ★ ★

Biggest increase was $215 million for the OEO, which passed, 37-26, over the objections of Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.

Greeks Say 20 Admit Roles in Bombing Plot

ATHENS (AP) — The Greek government today said that 20 persons had been arrested in connection with the assassination attempt against Premier George Papadopoulos, and "all of them have confessed their guilt."

It accused the Paris-based "Greek Resistance Organization" of planning the attempt last Aug. 13.

★ ★ ★

Regime press spokesman Byron Stamatopoulos told newsmen that Alexander Panagoulis, an ex-army private arrested within minutes after the attempt, showed police where bombs had been planted around the city by the resistance group.

He said that bombs were found on the Acropolis and city gardens and parks and where large crowds gathered.

Schuler's Suspect Held

MARSHALL (AP) — Marshall police said they made the first arrest today in connection with the $20,000 Labor Day robbery of Schuler's hotel and restaurant.

★ ★ ★

The name of the man taken into custody was not revealed immediately by police.

192 Are Arrested in Welfare Sit-In

From Our News Wires

ANN ARBOR — Police arrested 192 University of Michigan students in the Washtenaw County Building yesterday as they protested in favor of higher payments to welfare mothers.

★ ★ ★

The students were charged with violating the state trespass law, the same charge leveled against 52 demonstrators arrested Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

The students said they were demonstrating on behalf of welfare mothers who want bigger payments so they can clothe their small children for school this fall.

They said they objected to a county board of supervisors rejection of a proposal to base the children's clothing grants on a family need basis instead of a flat yearly rate. The board agreed to boost the payment from $40 to $60 per year per child but would go no further.

★ ★ ★

Sheriff's deputies from the counties of Wayne, Monroe, Oakland, Jackson and Livingston were on hand, in addition to about 100 State Police kept outside the city.

A detachment of the Oakland County Tactical Mobile Unit, accompanied by 10 police dogs, was used to hold back a crowd that varied from 500 to several thousand persons at different times.

STRONG ARM OF THE LAW — A helmeted sheriff's deputy ejects a University of Michigan student from the Washtenaw County Building in Ann Arbor. The students protested yesterday in sympathy with women who claimed their welfare payments were too low to allow them to adequately clothe their children for school.

3 City Men Are Charged in Attempt to Bribe Officer

Bribery charges were leveled yesterday against three Pontiac men who allegedly were involved in a payoff to a Pontiac policeman.

★ ★ ★

The attempted bribe, reported to be $800, was intended to influence a gambling case pending against one of the men, Carmon Green, 43, of 5 Pingree, according to Oakland County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Thomas G. Plunkett.

Green was charged with bribery and two counts of conspiracy to bribe, while conspiracy to bribe charges were ordered against William Moncier, 34, of 428 N. Perry and Roy Murphy, 79, of 60 S. Marshall.

PERSONAL BOND

Following their arrests, the three were arraigned before Pontiac Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum. He released them on personal bond pending their preliminary examination Oct. 9 at 9 a.m.

Rood and another vice squad officer, Guy White, had met Moncier and Murphy prior to Rood receiving the money from Green at a prearranged meeting in Waterford Township, Plunkett said.

★ ★ ★

He said that Green gave Rood the money in an attempt to reduce the gambling charge from a felony to a misdemeanor.

The gambling charge against Green stems from a police raid on a home at 817 St. Clair in June.

GAMBLING CHARGE

Green, according to Plunkett, was trying to get a charge of conspiracy to violate state gambling laws reduced to operating a gambling house.

The gambling case has been taken under advisement by Judge McCallum.

LBJ Hopes for OK of N-Spread Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although concerned about the situation in East Europe, President Johnson says he hopes for approval of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty and is keeping the door open to possible arms talks with Russia.

But, the President acknowledged Friday, the Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia has clouded prospects for beginning talks on curbing the missile race. The Russians agreed to the talks before the invasion.

* * *

"I see none in the offing," he said of the chances for a meeting before he leaves office in January.

The prospects for peace abroad and success at home in such things as cutting federal spending and getting his nomination of Abe Fortas as Supreme Court chief justice through the Senate dominated an impromptu news conference in the White Cabinet Room.

NO PARTISAN PLANS

The President also touched on politics. He said he hoped to see the Democratic ticket win in November. But he added that he still had "no desires or plans or hope to enter into any personal partisan political activities."

On the nonproliferation treaty, Johnson said, "We continue to believe that the treaty is very much in the interest of the United States despite the recent developments" in East Europe.

* * *

His comment came after Senate leaders reported chances for ratification this year were not helped by the Czech invasion or reported Russian threats to Romania.

Despite the pessimism on the part of Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, who met with the President before the news conference, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee said he will press for action next week.

NEARLY 80 SIGNERS

Democrat Albert Gore of Tennessee said he would move for a meeting Tuesday. He told the Senate that failure to ratify the treaty could slow the momentum of worldwide approval. Nearly 80 nations, including Russia, have signed the treaty.

Troubleshooter Soviet Diplomat at Prague Talks

PRAGUE (AP) — A top Soviet diplomatic troubleshooter was in Prague for political talks today as the Soviet press complained that Czechoslovak liberals are still not steering close enough to the Moscow line.

First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasile Kuznetsov, who arrived yesterday, began meeting immediately with Czechoslovak President Ludvik Svoboda. Their discussions were described as "a frank and comradely exchange" on relations between the two countries. In Communist terminology, "frank" means they disagreed.

* * *

Kuznetsov has figured prominently in some of the Soviet Union's most difficult problems of the past including the 1962 Cuban missile crisis.

It was expected he would also meet with Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek and other Czechoslovak leaders during his visit.

* * *

The government-controlled Soviet press has made plain the Kremlin's displeasure at what it considers the Czechoslovaks' lack of speed in carrying out their part of the Moscow accord — a clampdown on liberalization. In return, Soviet occupation forces are to leave when the situation "normalizes."

The Soviet news agency Tass said Friday the "appearance of normalization" would not be enough.

Tass said Soviet troops cannot be withdrawn from Czechoslovakia until conditions are "created which would exclude the possibility of actions by counterrevolutionary forces."

RFK Successor Hinted

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Tuesday will name Rep. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., to succeed the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, according to sources close to the governor.

Fortas Foes Just Little Group--LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says a little band of senators is holding up confirmation of his Supreme Court nominations. But the opposition claims its forces are building toward a majority.

Johnson contended yesterday that a little group of senators — "a sectional group primarily" — is resorting to parliamentary tricks and a filibuster to thwart the majority will.

* * *

But foes of his nominations of Abe Fortas and Homer Thornberry, claiming growing strength, retorted there is nothing sectional about the opposition. They said it represents the will of the people across the country.

Fortas, an associate justice of the Supreme Court since 1965, has been nominated to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren, who has resigned. Thornberry's nomination is to take Fortas' place as an associate justice.

* *

Supporters of the nominations said it looks as though Johnson is going to lose.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Tonight's forecast is for showers in eastern Montana and rain in the upper Great Lakes. It will be warmer in the Mississippi valley and cooler in the northern plains and New England.

'CUDA 340—The Plymouth Barracuda lineup for 1969 includes the new 'Cuda 340, pictured here. Among the standard equipment on the 'Cuda are four-speed manual transmission and red-line tires. All Barracuda models feature hardtop, fastback or convertible body styles, an enlarged exhaust system and automatic brake adjusters. The 225-cubic-inch displacement six-cylinder engine is standard on the 1969 model.

Mexican Police Stop 'Kidnap' of Cuban Refugee

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexican authorities intervened last night to aid a Cuban political refugee who said the Cuban ambassador and six embassy personnel were trying to force him on a Cuban airlines flight back to his native country.

The refugee, Juan Ojeda Femarrola, 30, arrived at the international airport with his arms held by members of the party of Ambassador Joaquin Hernandez Armas, witnesses said.

* * *

As the party entered the airport Ojeda began shouting for protection, declaring he was a political exile, they said.

Before he could be pushed through immigration with a diplomatic passport, police intervened and took the party to a nearby office.

POLICE PROTECTION

Hernandez, who stormed out of the airport, later issued a statement saying the Cuban Embassy would make a formal protest to the Mexican government for what it called the "illicit kidnaping of a Cuban citizen enjoying diplomatic immunity while in transit through Mexico to Cuba."

* * *

Ojeda told reporters that he had been employed at the Cuban Embassy but that following difficulties there, he had asked for and received asylum from Mexico.

He said he was constantly followed until he was finally captured by the Cubans about a week ago.

* * *

Airport authorities said that the Ministry of Interior has sent out an official notice indicating Ojeda had asked for asylum in Mexico.

Spanky, Gang Get Rocking Reception

Spanky and Our Gang entertained an estimated 8,000 on a cool evening at the Meadow Brook pavilion, in a concert sponsored by the Student Activities Board and the Off Campus, a student-run coffee shop.

* * *

What the blanketed crowd heard was a wide assortment of tunes ranging from oldies like "Coney Island Washboard" and "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime" to the latest rock hits, including the group's biggest, "Sunday Will Never Be the Same."

With an individualistic style which bordered on barber shop harmony at times, the six-member group received enthusiastic support through the evening.

GUITARIST'S HOMECOMING

It was a homecoming for guitarist Nigel Pickering, who grew up in Pontiac. He is a graduate of Pontiac Central and a former Pontiac Press carrier.

Spanky and Pickering both sought refuge in the same chicken coop near Miami some three years ago during a hurricane. They started to sing, and Spanky told him if he were ever in Chicago to look her up and they would sing together.

* * *

He did, they acquired other members and they were off on their way to top popularity around the nation.

French Unrest Surges

PARIS (AP) — France's university problems suddenly surged up again — after two months of holiday recess — when more than half the medical students refused to take an exam in a Paris suburban college.

The medical students, who took an active part in the riots last May and June, demand that the yearly final exams be replaced by a continuing check of each student's work all year long.

'Pueblo Accord Due by Monday'

SEOUL (AP) — A South Korean newspaper said today U.S. and North Korean negotiators are likely to settle the Pueblo case by Monday, and the North Koreans announced they will have "important reports" tomorrow.

* * *

Quoting unidentified sources, the newspaper Chosun Ilbo said the negotiators met Aug. 29 and discussed a draft letter of the apology the North Koreans have demanded from the United States.

* * *

The North Koreans claim the U.S. in telligence-gathering ship Pueblo was intruding in their territorial waters when they seized it Jan. 23. They have demanded an apology as a condition for release of the 82 crewmen.

Chosun Ilbo said the U.S. side made some concessions at the last meeting but also suggested amendments to the draft proposed by the North Koreans. It said another meeting is scheduled at the truce village of Panmunjom, at which the North Koreans are expected to react.

* * *

The North Koreans' official news agency did not say what the special reports Sunday would concern. Sunday is the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the North Korean Peoples Republic. There has been speculation this might be the date for a break in the Pueblo case.

Area Doctor Pleads Innocent in Tax Case

He reportedly earned a total gross income of $112,104.89 during the period. If convicted he could be fined up to $40,000 or imprisoned for four years or both.

2 Feared Dead in Coho Quest

FRANKFORT (AP) — Two persons were presumed drowned in 20 foot seas in Lake Michigan yesterday after gale-force winds threatened the lives of scores of coho salmon fishermen.

Vernon Watley, 36, of Chicago was washed overboard from a cruiser on which he was riding with three other persons near Ludington, officials said.

* *

The Coast Guard said it spotted an overturned boat near Frankfort off the northwestern Lower Michigan coast. Later, a Coast Guard spokesman said, officials were notified the fisherman using the boat had not returned from his trip into the lake.

Several other boats were reported to have capsized under the force of winds gusting to 40 knots.

WARNING EFFORT

Two Coast Guard helicopters equipped with bull horns and a State Conservation Department flew over the lake to warn the fishermen.

The Coast Guard also put two rough-water boats into the warning effort, towing one disabled fishing craft to refuge and alerting others.

* * *

But the Coast Guard said a number of fishermen ignored pleas to head for shore.

Small craft warnings were posted when many of the fishermen headed into the lake yesterday, the Coast Guard said.

At the time, waves were five feet high, the spokesman said.

Nine Monterey models will go on sale Sept. 27, including sedans, hardtops, station wagons and convertibles. The Mercury Monterey two-door hardtop (pictured) reveals styling characteristics similar to the Lincoln Continental line, which it closely resembles.

1969 Monterey Longer, Has New Chassis

The 1969 Mercury Monterey offers a new chassis, longer body, and increased wheelbase. The new look closely resembles the Lincoln Continental with its characteristic long hood and short deck.

When Mercury was introduced in 1939 a wheelbase of 116 inches and length of 195.9 inches were recorded as compared to the 1969 dimensions of a 124-inch wheelbase and over-all length of 221.8 inches.

Nine models will be available in the Monterey and Monterey custom series in various body styles: four-door sedan, four-door hardtop, two-door hardtop, station wagon and convertible.

Local car dealers displaying the Monterey series after Sept. 27 are: Kaverley Mercury, 420 Main, Rochester; Don Spiker Ford, 130 S. Milford, Milford; Hillside Lincoln-Mercury, Inc., 1250 Oakland, Pontiac; and Bob Borst Sales, 1960 Maple, Bloomfield Township.

* * *

Two optional 429-cubic-inch displacement V8 engines, with either 320 or 260 horsepower are available. Two or four-barrel carburetion is offered with only select-shift automatic transmission. The standard engine is a 265-horsepower 390 2V teamed with a fully synchronized, three-speed manual transmission.

Birmingham Area

Carillon Recital Will Feature Two Students

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Two high school students will be the guest artists for tomorrow's carillon recital at 4 p.m. from Christ Church Cranbrook.

They are Betsy Austin of 1770 Tiverton, Bloomfield Hills, a senior at Kingswood School Cranbrook, and Carol Jickling, 600 Shepardbush, Birmingham, a 10th grader at Seaholm High School.

* * *

The girls are members of the Cranbrook Carillon Guild. Their recital will be a replay of the May 26 concert which was rained out.

All carillon recitals are open to the public without charge. Concert-goers may sit on the church lawn or in their cars.

BOTANY COURSE

Cranbrook will also be the scene of a field course for non-botanists this fall. Conducted by Dr. James R. Wells, associate botanist at the Institute of Science, it will run on Tuesdays and Thursdays from Sept. 17 through Oct. 10 from 1 to 3 p.m.

The course, "Fall Wildflowers," will consist principally of short trips to study the variety of fall flora, according to Dr. Wells.

* * *

Participants in the course are expected to provide or share transportation. Fee for the noncredit course is $25 and interested persons are asked to call the Institute of Science for registration information.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Work is scheduled to begin Monday on the paving of Walnut Lake Road between Inkster and Franklin roads.

According to County Construction Engineer Dennis A. Grylicki, the one-mile strip of road will receive grading, drainage and full depth bituminous surfacing.

* * *

The $198,000 project will be constructioned by Ben P. Fyke & Sons of Berkley and is expected to be completed by Nov. 1.

Walnut Lake Road will be closed to through traffic, although access for local traffic will be provided, Grylicki said.

BIRMINGHAM — The Birmingham Power Squadron, through the cooperation of the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education, will conduct free boating classes every Thursday evening for the next 12 weeks.

Registration and the first class will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at East Hills Junior High School, 2800 Kensington.

* * *

According to a squadron spokesman, the class is one of the most complete and comprehensive boating courses available to area boaters.

The course will cover all nautical subjects applicable to outboard, inboard and sail boats, from six-foot runabouts to large cruisers.

* * *

The classes are presented through lectures and demonstrations and are open to anyone interested in safe boating.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Amateur distance swimmer Walter Kaufmann was scheduled to try today to swim across Lake Michigan, after a postponement of his first scheduled attempt a week ago.

Kaufmann had been slated to attempt the swim Aug. 31 but weather problems and communications and lighting troubles on his escort boat canceled the try.

Tigers' McLain Keeps Hex on Twins in Posting 28th Win

GOOD SHOW! — Tiger manager Mayo Smith (10) offers his congratulations as pitcher Denny McLain walks from the mound after recording his 28th victory of the season last night at Tiger Stadium in Detroit. The 8-3 nod over the Minnesota Twins hiked Denny's mark to 28-5.

Horton's Bat Work Backs Denny's Sharp Pitching

The 25-year-old right-hander, who didn't win a game last September because he said he dislocated two toes after standing up with a sleeping foot while watching television, notched his 28th victory Friday night with an 8-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

Staked to a 4-0 lead that included a three-run homer by Willie Horton, McLain survived a rocky start to beat the Twins for the sixth time in six games this year. He scattered nine hits and struck out 12, including four of the last six men he faced.

"I had as good stuff tonight as I've had all year," said McLain. "But I have a tendency to coast until they start to hit me. I've always been that way. I don't concentrate until it gets close.

"I know it's wrong," he added, "everybody does . . but that's the way I am."

Some slick defensive work and a lecture on concentration from Manager Mayo Smith got McLain back on the beam after Minnesota scored twice in the fifth inning.

Detroit was leading 6-3 and the Twins had men on second and third with one out when Smith went to the mound.

"I just told him to start thinking about what he was doing; to concentrate," Smith said.

* * *

McLain bore down and got the next two men on infield grounders to get out of the jam. He was in trouble again in the seventh when pinch-hitter Bruce Look singled with none out. But Cesar Tovar, who had three hits, slammed a liner to Don Wert who converted it into a triple play.

The Tigers, who have won four straight and 10 of their last 13, extended their American League lead over the Baltimore Orioles to nine games. Chicago beat Baltimore 3-2 in 11 innings.

* * *

"If we play .500 baseball in our final 20 games, Baltimore would have to win 19 of 20," said Jim Campbell, Detroit's general manager.

WILLIE THE WONDER

The Tigers jumped to a 4-0 lead on Twins' starter Jim Kaat, 12-11, by scoring four runs. Dick McAuliffe and Mickey Stanley singled to start things off. Al Kaline, playing first base, drove in the first run with a single and Horton, who had five runs batted in, slammed his 32nd homer.

A run-scoring single by Don Wert and Dick Tracewski's infield grounder made it 6-3 in the fourth and Horton drove in two more runs with a double in the seventh.

* * *

"That's the first time I've driven in five runs this year," said Horton, who now has 78 RBIs. "It was my first three-run homer. I noticed around the All-Star break that I hadn't hit too many homers with men on base.

"My wife told me it was because I was leading off an inning two or three times a game. She keeps track of that stuff. I just like to win games."

FIRST HOME RUN

McLain gave up a run in the second when rookie Graig Nettles hit his first major league home run. The Twins scored two more runs in the fifth when Frank Quilici led off with a triple and came home on Tovar's one-out single. Rich Reese followed with a single and Rich Rollins doubled over Jim Northrup's head for the third run.

* * *

"I started running sideways and it just carried over my head," said Northrup. "In Oakland, I would have come in to catch that ball. But the ball carries better in Detroit."

New, Old Spicing Pro Grid Twinbill

CLEVELAND (AP) — Something old and something new will spice Art Modell's seventh pro football doubleheader extravaganza tonight in Municipal Stadium.

The new is the New York Jets club, first American Football League team ever to play in Cleveland. The Jets play the National Football League Detroit Lions in the opening game (6:30 p.m., EDT).

The Browns have a special incentive in this final preseason tuneup. The last time they met the Packers — Nov. 12, 1967—they went down to a humiliating defeat, 55-7, with a national television audience watching.

As part of their preparations for tonight's game they looked Friday at films of that game. In the library of game films, that one is kept in the "horror movie" section.

"If you don't feel well, it's not a good movie to look at," said Coach Blanton Collier. He added the game "certainly was no indication of the relative strength of the two teams. I believe we have a squad capable of playing football against anyone.

* * *

"We have our pride and that defeat hurt. This is an exhibition game . . . but we still want to win."

The Packers, 3-2 in exhibition play—including their opening victory over the College AllStars—are in good condition. Bart Starr will be calling the plays, with Donny Anderson and Jim Grabowski at running back positions and Carroll Dale at flanker.

BACKFIELD CHANGE

The Browns, 2-2 will start Charley Harraway at fullback in place of Ernie Green, who is on the injured reserve. Leroy Kelly is the other running back.

The Jets and Lions, both with strong defensive teams, carry identical 2-2 exhibition records into the contest.

* * *

The NFL opened its weekend exhibition schedule Friday with three games. The Minnesota Vikings held off New Orleans 20-17 at Shreveport, La., Chicago edged St. Louis 19-17 and Los Angeles edged San Francisco 21-20.

Los Angeles quarterback Roman Gabriel threw first half touchdown passes of 63, 23 and 14 yards and the Rams defense made it stand up in the face of a second half San Francisco rally.

TWO FUMBES

The Vikings turned two fumble recoveries into touchdowns, both scored on runs of 1 and 16 yards by Billy Brown, then fought off a late New Orleans rally.

Mac Percival kicked field goals of 50, 22, 37 and 28 yards —the last with only 3:15 to go, in leading Chicago past St. Louis. Jim Hart hit Dave Williams with St. Louis touchdown passes of 10 and 29 yards.

Philadelphia played the New York Giants in a day exhibition game at Princeton, N.J., today, while the night schedule has Pittsburgh vs. Washington at Norfolk, Va., and Atlanta at Miami of the AFL in an interleague game. The AFL also has Denver vs. Oakland at Portland, Ore., an exhibition game.

Bubba's Brother Leaves Football

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Tody Smith, the 19-year-old brother of former Michigan State University great Bubba Smith, has decided to give up football because leg injuries have failed to respond to treatment.

Smith, a 6-foot-5, 245-pound defensive guard from Beaumont, Tex., injured a heel in the opening game of the 1967 season, underwent surgery last winter and was pronounced fit for play this season.

* * *

But, he has been suffering from pulled leg muscles and has been discouraged by the failure of treatment, according to an MSU spokesman.

Smith watched the Spartans practice Thursday from the stands and then announced he was withdrawing from the football squad. His brother, Bubba, is now with the Baltimore Colts.

FIRST SCRIMMAGE

Sophomore quarterback Scooter Longmire also was impressive.

Junior linebacker Rich Saul, the leading tackler on the Michigan State team last season, was everywhere on defense.

Pennant Celebration Nearing for Bengals

If you made a bet in April that the Tigers would be winners in '68, you're on the verge of collecting.

With Walloping Willie Horton and Marvelous Denny McLain (28-5) subduing the Minnesota Twins last night, 8-3, while Chicago was pinning a 3-2 loss on Baltimore, the magic number in the American League race was reduced to 12.

Firebirds Play Sunday

Key Games Slated in MFL

The standings of the Midwest Football League may change this weekend, at least for a couple teams.

League leading Dayton won't have any trouble when it hosts Fort Wayne which hasn't won a game, but the Lackawanna Lancers may be in trouble tonight when they face Flint on the brand new astroturf in Flint's Atwood Stadium.

* * *

Lackawanna is unbeaten with a 4-0 record like Dayton, and a Flint victory would change the face of the MFL.

Tomorrow, at Wisner Stadium the Pontiac Firebirds will be hoping to get back into the MFL race after winning 13 straight and then losing a pair.

STARTS AT 4:00 P.M.

The Sunday game against Ypsilanti will start at 4:00 p.m. and the Firebirds have been installed as eight point favorites over the Vikings.

* * *

The Firebirds are hopeful of attracting a crowd of 3,000 for the contest which will feature a passing duel between Ypsi's Craig Kirby and Pontiac's Bill Harrington.

Next week Pontiac travels to Fort Wayne and then return home to meet Hamtramck before making a visit to Flint's astroturf.

* * *

The big game will be Saturday night October 5. This is General Motors Retirees night, and over 1,000 of the 4,000 retirees from Pontiac's three GM plants will be in attendance.

Many of the old Pontiac and GM cars will be on display that night, along with some of the brand new 1969 models.

Ticket windows for tomorrow's game will open at 3:00 p.m.

Time Running Out for Baltimore

HOMER HERO — Outfielder Willie Horton (left) is followed by teammates after clouting a three-run home run in the first inning against the Minnesota Twins last night in Detroit. Trailing Horton are Mickey Stanley, Bill Freehan and Al Kaline. Stanley and Kaline were aboard when Willie connected. Horton later drove in two more runs to spark an 8-3 Tiger victory.

Orioles Drop 3-2 Tilt to Chisox

By The Associated Press

The magic number for the pennant-bound Detroit Tigers is 12. For manager Earl Weaver of the Baltimore Orioles, it's 19.

Any combination of 12 Detroit victories and-or Baltimore defeats will enable the Tigers to wrap up their first American League championship since 1945.

* * *

Weaver still talks in terms of the Orioles winning 100 games this season. But after losing seven of their last 10, including a 3-2 decision to the Chicago White Sox in 11 innings Friday night, Baltimore must win 19 of 20 to reach Weaver's goal.

* * *

Detroit, now nine games ahead after its 8-3 victory over Minnesota, would need only to win 12 of their final 20 to top even such a miracle Baltimore wind-up. So while the task is virtually hopeless, Weaver clings steadfastly to his dream.

"It's not impossible to win 19 more," he said after Buddy Bradford's 11th inning homer downed the Orioles Friday night. "There's no reason we can't win seven, eight, nine in a row."

NOTHING ELSE

Then, Weaver showed how he felt about finishing as the runner-up, a spot many managers would find satisfying in lieu of a pennant:

"If you don't win," he said, "there's nothing else."

* * *

Elsewhere in the AL, rookie Andy Messersmith fired a two-hitter in his first major league start as California blanked Boston 4-0 and John "Blue Moon" Odom shut out Cleveland for the third time this season in pitching Oakland to a 7-0 victory over the Indians. Washington at New York was rained out.

Impresses Jack Kramer

"I have really been impressed by Ashe's play this week," said Big Jake, who, as man and boy, pro and amateur, promoter and commentator, has been watching the parade of greats pass through the West Side Tennis Club for a quarter of a century.

* * *

"I am astounded at the improvement Ashe has shown. He is so much more mature, more sure of himself. In the matches I have seen he seems to be playing well within himself. I wonder how good he could be if he had to."

* * *

Kramer should find out within the next three days when the skinny Negro boy from Richmond, Va., meets his greatest test in the semifinals and perhaps the finals of the first U.S. Open.

SEEKING 'DOUBLE'

Should Ashe pull it off, he then would have scored the American "double"—winning the U.S. Amateur and Open in the same year, a feat that might stand unchallenged for decades. With more top players swinging to pro ranks, the chances of an amateur winning future Opens are fairly remote.

In the semifinals Sunday, the 25-year-old Army lieutenant, top man on the U.S. Davis Cup squad, will meet either teammate Clark Graebner or Australia's John Newcombe, the rookie pro who was the outstanding amateur in the world in 1967.

The other semifinal involves 24-year-old Tom Okker, the giant-killer from The Netherlands, and the winner of the remaining quarter-final match between third-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., both pros.

Season-Ticket Holders Rank 1st in Detroit's Series Ducat Plans

Season ticket holders of box and reserved seats, plus special combination ticket plan purchasers for 1968 will begin receiving their application forms for World Series tickets next week, the Detroit Tigers announced Friday.

The Tigers' plans concerning public sale of World Series tickets will be divulged in two weeks.

* * *

Season ticket holders will be permitted to buy an equal number of box or reserved seats plus an additional equal number of reserved seats for World Series games in Detroit.

Jim Campbell, the Tigers' general manager, has indicated when World Series tickets go on sale they may be broken up — that is, instead of the normal policy of selling each purchaser a seat for each game, each buyer would get a ticket for just one game. This could enable three times as many fans to see at least one Series game.

SPACE AVAILABLE

Hotel rooms are available for world series dates, but reservations should be made as soon as possible, the St. Louis Hotel and Motel Association announced today.

Series games will be played in the National League city Oct. 2 and 3 and, if necessary, Oct. 9 and 10.

The St. Louis Cardinals appear to be the National League entry, provided their pennant drive does not collapse during September.

Scoring Bids Foiled as Cougars Fall, 2-1

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Detroit Cougars had their chances Friday night but couldn't strike pay dirt, falling to the Chicago Mustangs 2-1 in a North American Soccer League game.

The result gave new coach Andre Nagy a 1-5 mark since taking over as head coach. The Cougars now stand last in the Lakes Division of the NASL with a 6-21-4 mark.

Although the Mustangs dominated the first half when all the scores were made, the Cougars commanded the second half, peppering the Chicago goal but failing to penetrate.

Youth Corps Visits Colombia

Debe Brooker, daughter of the pastor, who spent the summer in Colombia, South America working with the Alliance Youth Corps, will share some of her experiences and show color slides at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church Sunday evening.

* * *

In speaking of her impressions of the country, Debe said "The area where I spent most of my time was mountainous but there was lush tropical foliage in the valleys. There were so many varieties of everything — flowers, trees, fruits, birds, butterflies.

* * *

"As to the food, contrary to expectations, the food was not hot. In fact it was hardly seasoned at all. I ate the food of the common people almost every day — rice and fried platinos. This is a type of green banana. To my complete surprise steak was cheaper than chicken."

NEVER IN A HURRY

"I found the people were never in a hurry. Planes never leave on schedule. Nothing ever starts on schedule. One just had to learn to be patient while people got ready, or while they changed their minds. Tomorrow was always as good a time as today to do most anything," Debe said.

The Youth Corps teams ministered in a number of churches, but spent most of their time with children and young people.

* * *

Debe told us of her most vivid experiences of service were in a small town with but very few Christians. She and her friends mustering their best Spanish words and phrases went from door to door distributing free Gospel literature and explaining Bible texts to families in the home.

After visiting more than half the homes they held a children's meeting and everyone came, even the parents and babies.

* * *

Her ansyer was an emphatic "Yes."

She went on to explain "I learned to love those people, as did my colleagues, it was actually hard to leave them to return to the United States. Several, like myself, plan to go back and spend their lives there in missionary service."

* * *

MAKE OUR PAGES

THINK ABOUT IT!

I've a wonderful boy, and I say to him, "Son -
Be fair and be square in the race you must run,
Be brave if you lose and be meek if you win,
Be better and nobler than I've ever been.
Be honest and noble in all that you do
And honor the name I have given to you.
We will grow up together, I'll too be a boy
And share in your trouble and share in your joy.
We'll work out our problems together and then
We will lay out our plans when we both will be men.
And oh, what a wonderful joy this will be,
No pleasure in life could be greater for me."

We hope this verse opens treasured avenues of family thought for you. Incidentally, we don't know who wrote the poem. If you happen to know, will you be kind enough, please, to write and let us know. Reflections

WHERE THE LIGHT ALWAYS SHINES

J. L. VOORHEES

Can you conceive what it would be like if suddenly all electric light bulbs were to disappear from the earth, never to be replaced or rediscovered? The light we flick on and off many times each day is taken for granted by so many of us but what if suddenly we no longer possessed it?

M. E. SIPLE

Light to man means so much. It means warmth and security. It is our constant desire here to give what light we can to families in their hour of darkness. The light we do our best to give can never be measured in kilowatts for ours is the light of human understanding.

It is our constant goal to make that light burn stronger and brighter each day in serving our fellow man.

Program Shift Likely to Help Apprentices

The program for 15 trades is being switched from the jurisdiction of the Pontiac School District to Oakland Community College for a one-year trial period.

* * *

This way the program is likely to get more than 12 times as much in funds from the state.

Last year the state gave about $8,000 for the program; about $100,000 is possible under OCC, according to Maurice C. Prettengeier, Pontiac schools director of vocational and adult education.

An estimated 600 students who take some 50 classes will now receive college credit for the courses.

Pontiac's Board of Education has given approval for the change.
