The Pryale Foundation today announced gifts of $450,000 to Michigan State University Oakland for a major nuclear physics teaching and research project, a high-speed digital computer, and a student residence.

The Pryale Foundation was created by Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Pryale of Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Pryale, long-time president and board chairman of the Baldwin Rubber Co. of Pontiac, has been one of the community's most active business and civic leaders.

Today's benefactions are the third largest to MSUO since Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson gave their 1,400-acre estate and $2 million to found it in January 1957 and the Kresge Foundation gave $1.5 million for the Kresge Library. The funds will provide up to $63,000 for a 2-million volt Van deGraaff particle accelerator and accompanying equipment, as well as approximately $50,000 for the computer.

430,000 Sales Eyed by Buick

Division Shooting for 7.5 Per Cent Increase Over '62 Record

FLINT (AP) — Buick's general manager said today the division is shooting for a total of 430,000 sales next year, an increase of 7.5 per cent over 1962.

Edward D. Rollett, Buick general manager and a vice president of General Motors, said in a speech prepared for the annual press preview of Buick's new line that Buick sales are running 90 days ahead of last year. He said retail deliveries are expected to hit 400,000 in 1963 for the first time in six years.

"By the end of September we will have sold more cars this year than we did in all of 1961," Rollett said.

He said Buick dealers through August delivered nearly 271,000 cars, a 4.4 per cent increase over the same eight-month period of last year.

Rollett said this gain is substantially above the industrywide increase of 29.2 per cent recorded through July.

"This means that we are getting our former Buick owners back plus a lot of new ones," Rollett said.

Nationalist China Takes U2 Blame

GOP Folks in One Big Huddle

ROASTS DEMOCRATS — While Republicans enjoyed their co-roast Saturday, their gubernatorial candidate, George W. Romney, was pulling Democrats on the grill in a lively talk before 5,000 picnickers. Also shown on the speakers' platform are GOP state treasurer candidate Glenn S. Allen Jr., the back of whose head is shown left of Romney; Michigan Supreme Court

Romney Unveils Union Backing

Tells GOP Picnickers of Disgruntled Dems Who Pledged Support

By JIM DYER

Saturday was a nice day for a picnic, and George W. Romney enjoyed it by telling how he expected to win in the Nov. 6 election with help from disgruntled Democrats and union members.

In a "campaign experiences" speech before some 5,000 attending the third annual Republican picnic and co-roast at the John F. Kennedy Farm on Cooley Lake Road, Romney talked about Democrats he met during his campaign who said they would vote for him for governor.

A SMILE FOR GEORGE — Mrs. George W. Romney, wife of the Republican candidate for governor, gives picnickers at Saturday's Republican co-roast a big smile as her husband praises "the great job being done by my wife" in his campaign.

Sec. McNamara Testifies: Need Call-Up Authority

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today he requested presidential authority to call up 150,000 reservists is needed to enable the United States to respond "promptly and decisively" if the international situation worsens suddenly.

McNamara appeared before the Senate Armed Services Committee with Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to urge speedy approval of a resolution submitted to Congress Friday by the White House.

McNamara said the regular U.S. military forces "are strong today, and their strength continues to improve."

"The authority for a limited call-up of reserves, however, would provide us with a flexibility of response which could be crucial if the international situation deteriorates suddenly and specific crises occur," he said.

McNamara testified behind closed doors but newsmen were given copies of some of his prepared testimony.

He said he hoped sincerely it would not be necessary to use the stand-by authority to call up 150,000 reservists while Congress is out of session.

But he said the resolution's approval would permit a prompt response to any crisis, "short of measures which would require a declaration of war by Congress," an action which would have implications of a most serious nature.

Commissioner Rejects Blue Cross Increase

DETROIT (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn today rejected a proposed 50 per cent increase by the Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield for new subscribers to the dual agency's senior citizen plan.

Colburn said the proposal "offers essentially the same benefits as the existing plan and at the same time incorporates a 50 per cent increase in rates."

He declared it "would in effect be discriminatory between members of the same class."

At the same time, Colburn announced no decision had been reached on approval of a new extended benefit plan for senior citizens.

Peiping Blisters U. S.; Likely Americans Get Data From Flights

From Our News Wires

TAIPEI, Formosa — Nationalist China today assumed full responsibility for the flight of an American-made U2 plane which the Communists claim to have shot down over the China mainland.

Peiping practically ignored Taipei and laid the whole blame on the United States.

It loosed a propaganda barrage that blistered U.S. policies on Cuba, Berlin, South Asia and other trouble spots around the world.

Peiping radio said the plane was shot down over southeast China yesterday by "an air force unit. It gave no further details and did not disclose the pilot's fate.

A Nationalist spokesman said the U.S. were bought from the Lockheed Corp. in the United States in 1960 and put into operation that December.

A State Department spokesman said in Washington that the U2 purchases were made with U.S. approval, but that operation of the planes was solely a Nationalist matter.

Officials admitted privately, however, that it could be assumed that information obtained from Nationalist U2 flights would be turned over to the United States in the normal course of intelligence exchange between two allies.

Nationalist officials said intelligence experts were trying to learn just what happened — whether the extremely high-altitude plane was forced down to lower altitudes by engine trouble or whether the Chinese Reds possibly had used Soviet ground-to-air missiles to knock it down.

A Chinese Communist pilot, Liu Chen who defected to the Nationalists last March, said he had learned before leaving the mainland that Peiping had received

"I've heard," said Romney, "that they've organized a Democrats anonymous. When a Democrat feels he is going to vote for Romney, he calls up a fellow Democrat to come over and talk to him until the seizure passes."

The former American Motors Corp. president went on to charge his Democratic opponent, incumbent Gov. John E. Swainson, with bungling his chances to make good on his promise for fiscal reform.

Stating the key issue in the campaign was leadership, Romney termed Swainson a "man who takes credit for everything good and blames others for everything bad and is no leader."

The ox that was roasted was a 1,945-pound Black Angus steer that Oakland County Republican Chairman Charles L. Lyle bought for 40 cents a pound at the recent county 4-H fair.

Other speeches were delivered by Rep. William L. Broomfield, Republican candidate for re-election to Congress from Oakland County, and Alvin Bentley, GOP nominee for the at-large congressional seat to be filled by a statewide vote.

Master of ceremonies was 1960 GOP gubernatorial candidate Paul D. Bagwell.

Ike Gives Kennedy Report on Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, just back from a European tour, gave President Kennedy a report today on his observations and findings there.

Eisenhower conferred with Kennedy in the President's office for over an hour prior to a luncheon in the White House.

Kennedy returned this morning from a weekend at Newport, R.I.

Kennedy invited Eisenhower to lunch at the White House and discuss U.S. relations with Europe — a subject that embraces tension in Berlin, methods of dealing with it and the shape of the Atlantic Alliance.

Eisenhower recently got back from a trip with Mrs. Eisenhower and two of their grandchildren to most of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries.

This will be the fourth down-to-earth meeting between Kennedy and Eisenhower since inauguration Day 1961. They conferred at Camp David, Md., the following April, at the White House two months later before a reception for Japanese Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda, and last March at Palm Springs, Calif.

Kennedy and Eisenhower also talked privately for 10 minutes after the funeral of House Speaker Sam Rayburn in Texas last November.

Urges Switch for Supervisors

Ways, Means Group Head Wants Board to Leave School Field

Oakland County's Board of Supervisors should withdraw from the education field in the Opinion of David Levinson, supervisor from Birmingham and chairman of the board's ways and means committee.

In so stating before the board at its meeting in Pontiac today, he said the opinion was not his alone but is shared by at least several members of the seven-member committee, which controls the purse strings for county government.

Levinson said education costs in the county as shared by the board of supervisors represent 3 per cent of the $16.5 million budget for county government next year. He presented the budget to the board today for a week's consideration before taking final action.

Levinson said the cost of educating children who have been made wards of Probate Court and are otherwise using county facilities should be borne by the various school districts in the county, diverted from the county budget.

At an earlier meeting, the ways and means committee voiced suspicion that the county was being cheated out of state education funds by municipalities in the county.

This probably was being done, members said, by the school boards collecting the state funds on a per pupil basis before sending the problem youngsters to the county for special education.

Committee members said they suspected that the school boards are retaining the funds for the education of students which the districts have no intention of keeping. The result they said, is that while the county gets the student to provide for, it doesn't receive any of the funds provided by the state for this purpose.

RECOMMENDATION

He recommended that the board instruct its legislative committee to determine what legislation would be required in Lansing to shut all education costs from the county to the schools.

These costs would include those for juvenile court facilities, he said, which are Camp Oakland and the County Children's Home.

Soblen Suffers Brain Damage

LONDON (U)—Dr. Robert Soblen has suffered serious brain damage that "will take some time even to assess," his doctors said today.

The runaway spy lay in a coma racked by convulsions more than 100 hours after taking a massive dose of barbiturate to block attempts to fly him to the United States to begin serving a life sentence.

A medical bulletin this morning said:

"Dr. Soblen is less deeply comatose than he was but he is still unconscious. Convulsions continue to occur frequently and constitute the main cause of anxiety."

Dr. Cyril G. Barnes, the physician who heads the medical team fighting for Soblen's life, said the 65-year-old psychiatrist had suffered brain damage as a result of lack of oxygen.

He said it probably occurred while Soblen was being rushed to Hillingdon Hospital after being found unconscious in the ambulance and after their lifeline to be put aboard a New York plane last Thursday.

Battle Blaze at Kern Home

4 Area Departments Fight Fire at $100,000 Structure

A $100,000 Bloomfield Hills home was still burning at noon today after four area fire departments battled the blaze which was discovered at 5 a.m.

The owner, Ernst F. Kern, who is the son of the founder of Kern's department store in Detroit, told The Pontiac Press reporter that he had started the coffee maker and gone down the road to get the morning paper.

When he returned, he smelled smoke, he said, and thought it was coffee burning.

When he entered the kitchen he found the entire room engulfed in flames.

Turning he ran up the front stairs to rouse his wife and 10-year-old son Otto.

When the family started down the stairs, flames were racing up, and they fled down a back stairway in their nightclothing.

The older part of the house at 925 Richmond Road, which was built in 1918 suffered the most damage.

It was of English design in wood, stone and plaster. A newer section had been added and this too burned furiously.

Swimming and wading pools were drained time and again as the entire forces of the Troy, Bloomfield Township, Cranbrook and Bloomfield Hills fire departments strove to bring the blaze under control.

Hundreds of feet of hose were stretched down roads, and lawns were churned up by the heavy fire equipment being set up beside the pools.

Because his older children had grown up and left, Kern said that he had planned on selling the house soon and would have set the price at $100,000.

The four are John Bland of Reuters, John Barnes of Newsweek and Basil Cavanah and his wife, Anita Valdes, representing NBC.

Has Blues When It Rains

LONDON (AP)—Blue rain mysteriously sprinkled a 30-mile stretch of countryside basking in the Sabbath sun yesterday.

From clear skies, and without warning, the blue rain showered the peaceful towns of Egham, Staines, Chertsey, Virginia Water, Weymouth and Thorpe.

It fell on ladies' hair-dos bald heads, freshly washed cars, gardens ablaze with autumn flowers, white shirts, Sunday dresses.

It dried quickly and left a blue stain that wouldn't wash off.

"We had 20 complaints in 30 minutes," said a police spokesman at Egham.

A Scotland Yard spokesman said it must have come from planes taking part in Britain's annual glitzy air show at nearby Farnborough.

The blue rain, it was explained, came from jet planes that had been equipped with blue dye to color their vapor trails, and make a more spectacular display.

Bentley Holds Edge on Dem

Poll Shows Staebler With 48.2 Per Cent, GOP Man 50.1

DETROIT (U)—Republican Alvin Bentley holds a slight edge over his Democratic opponent, Neil Staebler, in their race for congressional seat at-large, a poll conducted by The Detroit News indicated today.

The News said if the election were held today Bentley, former congressman from Owens, would take 50.1 per cent of the vote against 48.2 for Staebler, Ann Arbor, former Democratic state chairman.

"Michigan's first at-large congressional race in 50 years is a nip-and-tuck contest, with the Republican nominee now leading by a margin too small to be considered significant," the News said.

A poll on the Michigan governor's race announced yesterday by the News showed Republican George Romney leading the Democratic incumbent, Gov. John R. Swainson, by 54.5 per cent to 45.5.

Romney took 55.5 per cent of the Wayne County vote. Bentley's percentage is 53.1.

Swainson took 63.3 per cent of the Wayne County vote and Staebler, 64.3.

The News said, "Outstate, Bentley would get 58.2 per cent of the vote if the election were held today, Romney only 58 per cent. In the same area, Swainson would get 61.6 per cent, Staebler 63.3."

IN RURAL AREAS

"In the rural-rural areas," the News said, "Bentley would get 64.5 per cent of the vote today, compared to 34.5 for Staebler. In that area, Romney would take only 62.6 per cent, Swainson 63.3."

"In the urban areas (including Wayne County), Staebler leads with 52.4 per cent of the vote to 53.7 for Bentley."

The News said that in the urban areas only 1.9 per cent were undecided or preferred to write in other candidates. In rural areas, only seven-tenths of 1 per cent failed to vote in the poll.

The poll was taken for the News by Market-Opinion Research Co. in what was described as a scientifically selected cross section of statewide voters.

The latest U2 incident, announced over Peiping radio, came five days after the Soviet Union protested that the American-piloted U2 had violated Soviet air space over Sakhalin Island north of Japan.

The United States admitted that one of its patrol planes might have been blown off course by a Soviet missile.

Peiping linked the Chinese flight with the current Far East tour of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who is to become chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, the American "failure" in Laos and other cold war issues.

The Buick Sports Model

Has Classic Lines

General Motors Buick Division is making a bid for recognition of an entirely new sports car in 1963 as an international classic.

Details of the Riviera were revealed today by the division, which calls its new product a "personalized custom sports coupe of revolutionary styling."

The Riviera possesses an extremely low center of gravity—15 inches—while the division claims allows a high degree of maneuverability.

"Over the years there have been few automobiles that, because of styling elegance and engineering design, have been acclaimed international classics," said Edward D. Rollert, GM vice president and general manager of Buick, "and this is Buick's bid for a car in this very exclusive class."

ONE MODEL ONLY

The Riviera will be available in one model only, a two-door hard-top coupe with four bucket seats. It is slated for display in dealer showrooms Oct. 4 along with the rest of Buick's 1963 line.

Local dealers are Otter Buick, 218 Orchard Lake Avenue, Shenton Pontiac Buick, Inc., 233 Main St., Rochester, and Homer Night Motors, Inc., 160 S. Washington St., Oxford.

Styling and engineering innovations of the Riviera include a steering wheel that can be tilted to the individual driver, side windows without frames, and the windshield and back glass set in a new glazing compound that makes them a structural part of the body.

Grilles in the front portion of forward fenders conceal parking lights and the amber directional signal lights which are standard on all cars for 1963.

The Riviera is sported on a 117-inch wheelbase with an over-all length of 208 inches. It is 74.6 inches wide and 55.2 inches high.

Miss America, 36-22-36, Starts Her Reign

NEW YORK (AP) — Lovely Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, a once chubby little girl who gave up eating lunches to realize her dream of some day being Miss America, began her year's reign today.

But before leaving Atlantic City and the scene of her triumph Sunday, the burn-haired beauty from Sandusky, Ohio, performed the last official act required of all the Miss America contestants. She ate lunch.

The hazel-eyed, 20-year-old Northwestern University student stood 5-feet-5, 115 pounds and measured 36-22-36 in the vital statistics department.

But four years ago, you never would have known her, she said at her first news conference. "I was always chubby until I was about 16 years old," she said. Her weight? "I guess it's all right to say it — I weighed 150 pounds."

The new Miss America related that at that point in her life she stopped having lunch, hardly ever ate breakfast and watched her evening meals.

Even today, she said, she must be careful of her diet. Jackie looked fresh and bright-eyed as she met the press after only four hours sleep.

Crowned Miss America 1963 shortly before midnight Saturday by the 1962 queen, Maria Beale Fletcher of Asheville, N.C., Jackie didn't get back to her room until several hours later.

After her year as Miss America, Jackie said she intends to complete her education at Northwestern. She hopes eventually to become an actress.

The Miss America scholarship was one of the most important things to me. Now I can go on to my masters degree, or even my doctorate, if I decide I'd like to do that much," she said.

Her title carries with it a $10,000 scholarship, and personal appearances during the year are expected to bring her about $75,000. Scholarships also went to the four runners-up—Miss Wisconsin, Joan Mary Engh, $3,000; Miss Texas, Penny Lee Roud, $2,500; Miss South Carolina, Evelyn Keith Ellis, $2,000 and Miss Hawaii Patricia Lei Anderson, $1,500.

Estes Connection Plagues Congressman

Rep. Andersen, D-Minn., Fight to Survive

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — H. Carl Andersen, a veteran congressman who came to grief when he met Billie Sol Estes, will be fighting for political survival in Minnesota's primary election tomorrow.

A light statewide turnout was predicted, but heavy voting was expected in the sprawling 6th District where Andersen and his opponent, fellow Republican Robert Odegard, have been conducting one of the hottest primary campaigns in Minnesota history.

Andersen became a national figure this spring when it was revealed that he sold Estes $4,000 of stock in the Andersen family coal mine.

The 65-year-old, 12-term congressman has maintained that the transaction with Estes was above board. But it has provided the main issue in the election.

Party leaders disavowed Andersen and threw their support to Odegard, a 41-year-old car dealer who just finished his freshman term in the state legislature.

TRADE CHARGES

At one time Andersen announced he was turning his back on the GOP and would seek re-election as an independent. He later changed his mind and filed again as a Republican.

The Andersen-Odegard fight has been a daily series of charges and countercharges. Odegard has demanded that Andersen give a precise explanation of his involvement with Estes.

Andersen, in turn, has questioned Odegard's qualifications for congressional office because his family potato firm was once fined for violating federal agriculture marketing orders.

The Republican fight in the 6th District overshadowed a contest on the Democratic - Farmer - Labor (DFL) primary ballot for the congressional nomination.

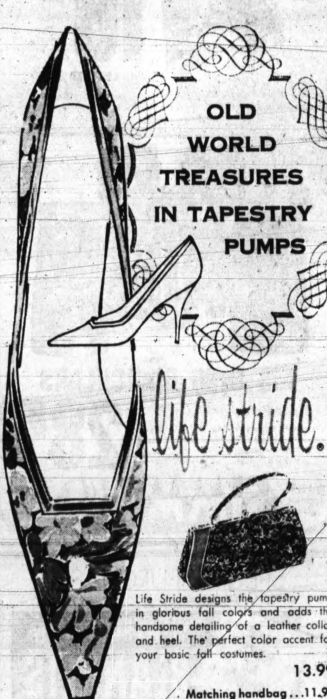

The DFL scrap is between Alec Olson, the party's choice, and James Youngdale, a frequent candidate who once was drummed out of the party for objecting to DFL leaders' views.

Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag, the DFL-endorsed candidate for governor, has a token foe in Belmont Tudis, St. Paul artist, Rolvaag has been running ahead of Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen (no relation to the congressman) in the popularity polls.

Physiologists Gather

THE HAGUE (AP)—The week-long 22nd International Congress of Physiologists opens today at Leyden University under auspices of the International Union of Physiological Sciences with about 2,500 from both sides of the Iron Curtain attending.

Andersen is not opposed for the Republican nomination. Other candidates who have been endorsed by their parties are either without opposition or face minor contenders.

Swainson Fires Charge at Romney

By The Associated Press
Gov. Swainson called former President Harry Truman one of the nation's most "illustrious" presidents over the weekend, and at the same time accused George Romney of calling Truman a "Socialistic fellow traveler."

In a speech Saturday at a testimonial dinner for Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski in Detroit, Swainson charged Romney, his Republican opponent, with concealing his record and beliefs.

"What does my opponent think of Harry Truman?" the governor asked. "He won't tell you but will."

"My opponent has called Harry Truman a Socialistic fellow traveler."

Swainson charged Romney made the accusation in a statement he made criticizing Truman's administration for its alleged inability to recognize communism and socialism.

The governor also charged Romney had referred to social security as "a fraud" and that Romney was "opposed to social security

Romney said later he could not recall ever having made such statements about Truman or social security.

Swainson said the Republicans would sell out Michigan's retired people "if they got their hands on any part of the social security system."

The governor challenged Romney to tell the people of his beliefs on Medicare, social security, Truman and the Democratic party.

Earlier, Swainson and Romney had both agreed to speak — "in my capacity as governor" — to a Detroit conference on open housing next January.

Only one of them, of course, will keep the appointment two days after inauguration of the next governor.

Each accepted the invitation privately Friday and formal invitations will be sent immediately, said Dr. Abraham Citron, of the American Jewish Congress.

The conference is designed to promote equality in housing everywhere in the Detroit area for people of all races and creeds.

HOSPITALIZATION ISSUE

Romney, who holds an office equivalent to that of bishop in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon), took Sunday off from campaigning as customary, but a Romney running mate, speaking at Monroe, made a proposed Blue Cross-Blue Shield rate increase a campaign issue.

Neil Staebler, Democratic candidate for congressman-at-large, told a group of senior citizens gathered at a Monroe park that the proposed increase "clearly demonstrates the need for a health insurance program under social security."

Staebler said private health insurance for the elderly was unfair to those who have low cash incomes and said "the cost of carrying for those senior citizens who do not have private insurance now falls heavily on property owners who in the final analysis foot the bill."

He added that the hospital insurance program under the King-Anderson bill would allow persons to "pay for our hospital insurance in our later years from earnings during our productive years with no burden on the property owners."

It Seems to Me . . .

U.S. Embarrassingly Answers to Nikita for Second Time

This second reconnaissance plane incident leaves most of us in a slow burn. Admittedly, a U.S. military airplane desecrated sacred Russian soil by flying over a small sector. There's no excuse.

The errant pilot should be dispatched to our own private Siberia while we stammer, stammer and yammer. The President is struggling to talk our way out of the thing as best he can. He says the "violation was unintentional." Well, isn't that just wonderful. And then he adds that the plane had been "buffeted by a storm."

Stuff and nonsense. If our pilots can't tell which way the wind is blowing, they better switch to submarines or act as post librarians. Nothing important happened, but we opened the gate wide and the big international blabber mouth put on his panache, grabbed his megaphone, microphone and walkie-talkie as he started to scream. What an opening!

Khrushchev just loves to start us "explaining." This makes us look bad before the world in general and he exults and revels as we get increasingly tongue-tied and twisted. He made Eisenhower eat his words in the U2 incident and now we're playing an encore.

Apparently, KENNEDY has handled this boo-boo as skillfully as possible, and there shouldn't be as much unfavorable publicity as we had the other time.

But it's enough. It's too much.

Nothing on the face of this earth does Khrushchev as much good as a new crisis and that's exactly what we gave him, on a silver platter complete with background music, flowers and a couple of ham actors.

Let's get things under control.

Kefauver Speaks . . .

"Government Sues GM Again" — Headline
"Kefauver After Steel Officials" — Headline

Here are the two most recent examples of the "olive branch" which President KENNEDY extends toward big business and more employment. The "Justice" Department claims GM orders dealers to sell cars at specific prices.

FREDERIC G. DONNER says it isn't so.

And there you are.

The move against steel was so pathetic that many officials told the Senate they wouldn't show up at the "investigation." Kefauver immediately doffed his conks cap, sheathed his Tennessee whittling knife and issued a ringing challenge, alleging they were "defying Congress." He knew that defying him wouldn't bring a ripple of attention anywhere.

It isn't hard to recall the President's recent classification of businessmen. Apparently, it's unchanged.

Round and Round . . .

Mr. Taxpayer, you're still on a bobbing hobbyhorse as the foreign aid merry-go-round spins and spins.

Rep. Otto E. Passman wants to cancel at least a billion dollars of the "foreign aid" we bestow so generously, so lavishly and — according to some — so stupidly. He has a lot of exhibits of extravagance and wastefulness. Emperor Haile Selassie, Ethiopian Potentate, has a renovated American naval vessel for his personal and private use. According to The Chicago Tribune, it has air conditioning and gold colored wallpaper. Passman classifies it as "a floating palace" and says that's no exaggeration. The Tribune continues: "It cost the U.S. taxpayers $3,100,000 to take this out of mothballs, equip it for modern patrol duty and train a group of Norwegian sailors to man it for the Lion of Judah."

There you are. We taxpayers are now providing SELASSIE with an air-conditioned yacht for his personal and private use. Like it? SELASSIE does.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Advertising man, ERNIE JONES, was a guest of famed conductor, EUGENE ORMANDY, who lost five pounds leading a symphony, Prokofiev's Symphony No. 6. He says Tchaikovsky costs ten Jackie Gleason's pals are suggesting he's so big, fat and simply gigantic that he deserves a Congressman all his own GM led the world in advertising expenditures — $141.5 million. Procter and Gamble was next with $132.7, followed by General Foods, Ford and Lever Bros. BOBBY KENNEDY's invitations now read: "black tie and snorkle."

I can't prove it but I'll bet a sugar cookie Michigan's Benny McRae sticks with the Bears as a defensive back when scores of name collegians have already been dropped Purely personal nomination for an especially attractive area girl: MARGE Swoboda Overheard: "So, OK. Maybe the Russians did put two astronauts in space but can Mrs. Khrushchev water ski?" Mrs. Graham John Graham just added Galloping Hill (from Pennsylvania) to her string of horses which gives Metamora its finest show animal and hunter.

A few days ago my golf partner and I had a best ball of 66 at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. The only catch is he had a 33-33—66 all by himself. No amateur in the mid-west can keep up with Chuck Kocasz, anyway Business bureaus warn people again not to buy unseen real estate — especially "retirement acres." One rather well authenticated report says Russia landed 5,000 "civilians" on Cuba recently The first big time Negro broadcaster is Marvin Goode, whom ABC-TV just assigned to the U.N. He's very competent Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—the scientists who switched that rocket back towards Venus; the J's—Traitor SOBLEN.

Time Trial

David Lawrence Talks:

Says Powell on Frivolous Junket

WASHINGTON — There's a lot of agitation these days about "civil rights," but very little is said about public demonstrations. All sorts of things are being staged in the South to assure Negroes of the right to vote—but there is little concern apparently what they do with the vote in those sections of the country where they have been exercising that right freely for many years.

For nine consecutive terms now — 18 years in a district in New York City populated predominantly by Negroes and Puerto Ricans, Adam Clayton Powell, a Negro congressman, has been elected to Congress.

By reason of the seniority rule and length of membership, he now is chairman of the House committee on education and labor. He cannot be displaced unless the Republicans win control of Congress this November, or unless he is himself defeated.

It might be thought that the chairman of the committee of the House of Representatives which deals with such an important subject as labor relations would be attending committee meetings and sessions of the House at this time, as the work of Congress is currently in the most decisive stage of the present session.

Strikes and work stoppages in missile plants are causing grave anxiety. The all-important federal aid-to-education bill is tied up in joint conference, in which his committee plays an influential part. But Mr. Powell chose this period for a six-week trip abroad. The New York "Times," in an editorial last Thursday under the caption "Powell's shameless junket," said:

A FRIVOLOUS JUNKET
In the midst of the important closing period of the congressional session, when a record of accomplishment vs. do-nothingism is in the balance, the chairman of a major committee of the House is traveling about Europe on a frivolous junket.

"Almost needless to say, this is Adam Clayton Powell, chairman of the Education and Labor Committee, a Democrat from Harlem who annually vies with Buckley of the Bronx for the dishonor of being among the most absent members of Congress."

"Representative Powell sailed for Europe Aug. 8, with Mrs. Tamara J. Wall, associate labor counsel for the committee, and Miss Corinne Huff, receptionist in his office. They are due back about Sept. 21."

"Mr. Powell is supposedly conducting an inquiry into sexual opportunities for women in Europe, a study that will take him to a Paris nightclub show, a Venice film festival, and possibly on an Aegean cruise."

State Department officials have been alerted to arrange hospitality and entertainment, as well as counterpoint funds — other countries' reimbursement for our foreign aid — which conveniently need not be accounted for in detail by our traveling congressmen. Mr. Powell is not alone in the enjoyment of this and other abuses of the congressional privilege.

"The reckless, irresponsible conduct of Mr. Powell is a disgrace to the people of his district, to the United States Congress and to the Kennedy administration, which to its discredit sent Secretaries Ellsberg and Goldberg to New York last year to attend a Powell glorification dinner."

"We say it is time for the people of Harlem to wake up, quit making a hero out of this man who holds in such contempt his obligations in public office, and retire him from Congress before he has a chance to make good on his repeated promises to retire himself."

As for the House of Representatives, have they no discipline for a member, and especially a committee chairman, who runs away to Europe for six weeks on idle whimsy like this "inquiry" just at a time when Congress is — belatedly — trying to get down to serious business?

The next day news dispatches reported that Mr. Powell had suddenly cut short his tour and flown from Madrid to Puerto Rico, where he maintains a $50,000 home and where his wife spends most of her time, though she is on the congressional payroll at a salary of $12,000 a year as a staff member of the committee of which her husband is chairman.

Mr. Powell says his wife earns her pay because she handles the voluminous mail he receives from Spanish-speaking constituents in New York City.

Mr. Powell is up for re-election this autumn, but he isn't worried about the outcome. The Negroes in his district are expected to continue to re-elect him.

The Kennedy administration is expected to help him get elected. In other words, American policy in foreign affairs is made nowadays on the basis of what will win the Negro vote in America and not on the principle of what is right for all the people of the United States.

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Transplant of Cornea Can Restore Vision

Q—Years ago, I had an eye infection that left me with a cloudy cornea through which I have never been able to see except to recognize light and dark. I have been advised to have a corneal transplant to give me a "window" that will restore vision to the damaged eye.

But I know enough about medicine to know that transplanted tissues do not live when they are placed in another. Why then should a corneal transplant survive? And should I have the operation?

A—Skillfully done, a corneal transplant does give every promise of success.

And, while you are quite correct in your statement about the failure of transplanted tissues to thrive under usual conditions, your reasoning does not apply to the cornea for the good and simple reason that the cornea does not have blood vessels. It can accept a transplant that is expertly introduced.

Q—I am badly in need of a good hearing aid. I have deafness due to defective bone conduction and a salesman induced me to buy an aid that cost over $400 but that helps very little.

He said that less expensive aids were of poor quality and I might as well get the best. Is there anything else I can do or must I resign myself to deafness?

A—My dear madam, you have made a great mistake. One is to buy your hearing aid from a salesman who is obviously intent on selling you the product put out by his employer.

The Country Parson

Another is to permit yourself to be persuaded that the most expensive is necessarily the best. I'd suggest you make a fresh start by consulting an ear, nose and throat (otologist) who will determine the type of deafness from which you suffer, refer you to a Hearing Aid Center where you can try aids of various manufacture, and then re-examine you when you have decided on the type of instrument you think is best suited.

But do not resign yourself to your deafness on the basis of this single bad experience.

Driver Education Teacher Praises Safety Articles

I have subscribed to your newspaper since I have been teaching at Walled Lake High School, going on 12 years. I am starting my eleventh year in driver education and am interested in traffic safety. One of the means of encouraging safety is to remind the public constantly of the results of poor traffic habits.

Your paper deserves the highest congratulations for the fine job you have been doing. The Press puts the results of accidents where everybody can see them and constantly runs articles on safety, such as the one about school starting and for motorists to watch out for children. You have given excellent cooperation to the enforcement agencies and your score on county traffic deaths is a good method of keeping the facts in front of the public.

You never miss an opportunity to make a point of the dangers of accidents and you are performing an excellent service to our community. Please keep up the good work.

'Let God Help You Solve Problems'

If the rest of the non-Christians in America believe Mr. Ally, then it is no wonder this country is no longer Christian. We need to get back to the Bible and find out just what a Christian really is.

As long as we leave God out and keep trying to solve our problems in our own strength, our prisons and jails will continue to be full.

In our selfish desires for material things we neglect the spiritual side and will be brought to our knees. We look to leaders, but they do not know how to solve our problems.

'Parents Must Buy Books in Clarkston'

Still nothing has been done about the school book situation in Clarkston. How much longer will this last? It costs from $30 to $50 to buy books for 4 children. It's time something was done. I would say a rental fee, and be responsible for any they might destroy. Other parents feel the same.

I have one son enrolled in the beautiful new senior high, but I don't know how parents with two or three can afford it. I also don't know how the directors of the school have been able to brag or boast about what a beautiful $2.5 million school they have and then hand the parents a bill of $35 for school books and fees. When they borrowed money for this building why didn't they borrow enough to get books?

I work for this school system but I don't understand it.

Long Distance Call Proves Difficult

After midnight I tried to place a long distance call from a Federal exchange. After dialing operator, a voice said, "This is the operator. One moment, please." Then I had to wait for 10 or 15 minutes. I got the same results each time.

'City Could've Had Museum, Too'

One of the interesting things on a vacation trip was to meet people who had been in the past. Asking about things, the reply often was, "You must see our museum." We visited two in Oregon and Nevada.

What a wonderful building the old courthouse would have made for a museum, but the courthouse is almost gone and I think "the powers that be" acted in haste. What area is richer in historical material than Pontiac with its Indian lore?

Ladies in Space?

Saturday Evening Post

Women in this century have secured the vote. They drive cars, frequent the bars, head corporations and hold important posts in the House and Senate. But one occupation is off limits—no woman is included among our astronauts.

Miss Jerri Cobb and Mrs. Jane Hart (wife of Michigan's Sen. Philip Hart), pilots of long experience, came before the House Science and Astronautics Committee recently to complain of discrimination against their sex. Not a brick was hurled, not a single window smashed. The ladies argued politely that women should be accorded the same training (thirteen women, including Miss Cobb and Mrs. Hart, have taken preliminary physical courses at the Lovelace Foundation in Albuquerque, New Mexico.)

Astronaut John Glenn told the committee "We would welcome them with open arms," but in spite of the generosity of his offer, women are not likely to be flitting around in outer space soon. James E. Webb, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, says: "We require that, in addition to the most extensive obtainable experience as jet-aircraft test-and-research pilots, each astronaut also possess extensive education, training and experience in one or more scientific and engineering fields. Under conditions as they exist in aviation at the present time, these qualifications are more readily met by men than by women." He quickly added, "Many women are already employed by NASA in numerous non-flight capacities."

Another representative of NASA was more succinct. "We have no openings for female astronauts," he said. Which means that for a time, at least, there is one place in the world—or out of it—that is reserved for men.

The ravages of the Dutch elm disease have provoked a great many sentimental remarks but it has remained for park superintendents to put the situation in focus. It has been impossible to prevent spread of the disease without spraying every tree regularly, and many persons have been unable to afford the expense. But unless all elms can be sprayed there is little point in spraying any of them. So spraying has been abandoned here and the parks department has embarked on a policy of replacing the

We'll Not Help, Says Pentagon

Officials Refuse to Aid Filming New Book on 1970 Staff Plot

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon officials, shuddering at the thought, have waved off a tentative suggestion that the Defense Department cooperate in the filming of a new novel about a Joint Chiefs of Staff plot to seize control of the government.

'SEVEN DAYS'

The novel, published today, tells about "Seven Days in May" sometime in the 1970s.

During those seven fictional days a colonel in the chief of staff's office discovers evidence of the plot and manages to reach the president with his information.

Although the time is set in the future, the scenery and events look and sound like today. "One of Jack Kennedy's rocking chairs" remains in the White House. There is worry about a treaty with the Soviet Union.

To save the country the plotting generals decide to take over.

The novel was written by Fletcher Knebel and Charles W. Bailey at the Washington bureau of the Cowles publications, and published by Harper & Row, New York.

Representatives of a couple of film companies came to the Pentagon several weeks ago to sound out the Defense Department on possible assistance in producing a film version.

An official, whose job includes decisions on such proposals, conferred with them and looked over the novel.

He is reported to have told the movie men that the Defense Department is not interested in participating in anything that suggests the Pentagon hatches plots to wrest control from civilian government—even in a novel and even in the 1970s.

RETIRED FOR FUN — After 20 years of driving, Oakland County's first woman rural mail carrier has retired to have fun. She and her husband will putter around their neat cottage at 1307 S. Bates St., Birmingham, tour upper Michigan and take back-road tours to revisit the hundreds of customer-friends along her route.

She Cut Barrier as Mail Carrier

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

When Mrs. John Dunn walked into the Birmingham post office 20 years ago and asked for the position as rural mail carrier, she was turned down flat.

It was the first time an Oakland County woman had dared invade the realms of the strictly male-man's ranks. Not only because of the hazards involved with weather and bad country roads but mostly she was turned down, she said, because she was a woman.

Waving a red flag in front of a bull was tame compared to the reaction of the determined Mrs. Dunn. She wrote letters to Washington and every other possible place asking county, state and national officials to intervene for her.

Finally Mrs. Dunn was reluctantly given a civil service examination which she passed with flying colors. She was given the job only because the war was beginning to drain the supply of men-power in every branch of office, including the rural carriers.

MANY MILES
That was 20 years ago. The gentle mother of four sons has just retired after thousands of driving-miles and "trillions" of mailbox stops in the Southfield area.

For 13 long hard years after she was 40, Mrs. Dunn drove her little rebuilt Chevrolet through mud, sleet, wind, rain and snow. She had the same type of route the men had and if her car slid into a ditch, she was required to "dig herself out."

"Now," she says, "carriers go to the nearest phone and a special post office truck comes and pulls them out."

When she started, the Birmingham branch was just a little country post office and now it's big business.

Last Christmas there were more than 100,000 cards and letters just going from Birmingham and again as many being sorted and delivered.

Now it's time for fun!

She and her retired newspaper husband plan to rest, enjoy leisure-time activities and go on a busman's holiday—driving over back-country roads.

"I just may get the old urge to slow down at every mailbox," she concluded.

'Escaped' Chief

Seeks Congo Unity

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Bahuba chief Albert Kalonji, whose "escape" from a Leopoldville jail apparently was arranged by the central government, has promised to work for a unified Congo federation.

Back in his capital of Bakwanga in South Kasai Province, Kalonji sent Interior Minister Cleophas Kamitatu a telegram thanking him for his intervention and pledging loyalty to the central government.

Kalonji was serving a five-year sentence for arbitrary arrests of political foes. Apparently he was allowed to escape Friday because only he could swing his area to the support of the government.

Dealers Don't Expect to Get Listed Amount

Auto Price Stickers Entering Fifth Year

By BEN PHILEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT — Suggested retail prices, gradually disappearing from many types of merchandise, begin their fifth year in the new car business this month.

Each of the 1963 models will include the new familiar window label showing the full price the manufacturer suggests for the car, plus only state or local taxes, or some item the dealer will install later.

No dealer expects to get that much. Most won't even try.

And in a pending court suit in California the Justice Department has asked that General Motors, by far the largest of the auto companies, be prohibited from telling its dealers what prices they can charge.

A new car is the one commodity which must by federal law carry a manufacturer's suggested retail price. This stems from the Automobile Information Disclosure Act, passed by Congress in 1958. It became effective with 1959 model cars.

COMPLETE LIST

The act requires the manufacturer to list a price which includes all federal excise taxes, factory-suggested preparation charges, freight charges, price of factory-installed accessories, point of production and name of the retailer to whom the car was shipped.

Congress acted after price padding had become general in the trade. This consisted of dealers jacking the supposed list prices of the car and optional equipment to such an extent they could offer what seemed to be fantastic discounts and still not be out of pocket. The buyer had no way of knowing what the price should be.

The law doesn't fix a retail price. A dealer is free to sell at any price he can get. But the sticker must remain attached and unaltered.

What happens to this price? A prospective buyer asks, "What are you really selling this model for?" And a salesman says, "Take a look at the sticker and then I'll tell you what I'm going to do."

Businesses in other fields which took such an attitude about list prices have felt the wrath of the Federal Trade Commission and Better Business bureaus. These agencies have said in effect, "If you don't mean it, don't advertise it."

The FTC particularly has branded many list prices as phony. But on automobiles they are required and the FTC can do nothing.

India Bans New Novel
About Gandhi's Death

BOMBAY, India (AP) — The Indian government has banned the import of "Nine Hours to Rama," Stanley Wolpert's novel about the assassin of Mohandas K. Gandhi.

Indian critics attacked the American's book, complaining that it portrayed the assassin, Nathuram Godse, in a heroic light and that it gave an untrue account of a love affair between him and a Delhi woman, Godse, a Hindu fanatic and high caste Brahmin, was known in his native city of Poona as a cellmate and an ascetic.

Champ Clogger Dead at Age 82

Pat Rooney, 5 Feet 3,
Famous for Dancing,
Is Heart Victim

NEW YORK (AP)—The final curtain has rung down on Pat Rooney Sr., the mite of a dancing man who refused to grow old. He died Sunday night at 82, watching television with his wife, Carmen, in their rooms at the Hotel Sherman Square.

Rooney, only 5 feet 3 with the looks and manner of a mischievous leprechaun, had been making night club appearances delighting audiences right up to the end. On the stage—in night clubs—on television—wherever he had an audience—he was the champion in dancing a waltz clog.

The son of an entertainer and the father of an entertainer—both named Pat Rooney—the old trouper danced and sang for 72 years.

Rooney was the son of the original stage Pat Rooney, a singing and dancing star of the gas light era. His mother was Josie Granger, a ballet dancer.

Rooney, a pal of the late George M. Cohan, was a headliner when vaudeville was in flower. Audiences from coast to coast cheered his "Rosie O'Grady" clog.

His son, entertainer Pat Rooney Jr., was notified in New Hampshire where he has a restaurant. Rooney's theatrical agent, John Williams, said the song-and-dance man had been writing his autobiography, but had not completed it.

Five Die in Crash on Way to Hospital

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont. (AP)—Five persons en route to a hospital were killed Sunday night when their car and a carload of football players collided head-on in rain and fog 11 miles south of Kirkland. Six football players were injured.

Killed were Herbert Widdfield and his wife Myrtle, both 70, of Englehart, Ont.; their son Barry, 24; and his wife, Shirley, 20, of Larder Lake, Ont., and Edna Brownlee, 52, mother of Shirley Widdfield.

They were going to Kirkland Lake to visit the younger Widdfield's infant son who is in a hospital.

The injured were members of the Sudbury Hardrocks, a northern Ontario rugby football union team that had played here Saturday.

REMAINS OF CHURCH — The ruins of the Mount Mary Baptist Church smoldered amid racial unrest in Sasser, Ga., a town near Albany. The fire Sunday was blamed on segregationists. Another Negro church a few miles away was damaged by flames. At nearby Dawson, Ga., gunfire tore into a house Thursday and wounded a young white man, a member of an interracial group working to register Negro voters.

Seek Funds to Rebuild Razed Negro Churches

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—Plans are being made to raise $25,000 to rebuild two Negro churches which burned in this racially troubled southwest Georgia area where an FBI agent was attacked by a white farmer in the latest outbreak of violence.

The farmer, Virgil Edmund Puckett, 58, was held in jail on a charge of assaulting a federal officer.

Civil rights leaders pledged to help rebuild the churches in the nearby Sasser area and intensify their Negro voter registration campaign.

Negro athlete Jackie Robinson agreed to serve as honorary chairman of a drive to rebuild the Mount Olive Baptist church at Sasser, 14 miles northwest of Albany; and the Mount Mary Baptist church, about four miles from the other church. Both burned Sunday.

Robinson, former baseball star, contributed $100 to the campaign and sent telegrams to boxers Archie Moore and Floyd Patterson asking their support.

ESCOET ROBINSON Robinson was invited to speak at a voter registration meeting in Albany before the latest trouble developed. Police provided an escort for the 42-car motorcade that met Robinson at the airport and escorted him into the city. No incidents were reported during the drive or on the athlete's return to the airport on the way back to New York.

W. G. Anderson, president of the anti-segregation Albany Movement, said it was encouraging to note that this was the first time the police cooperated in many months. The Negroes asked and obtained permission to hold the motorcade before Robinson arrived in this city where more than 1,300 demonstrators have been arrested in the past nine months.

Two of the FBI agents in the area were investigating the fire at the Mount Mary church when a farmer drove up in a truck, verbally abused the agents, threatened to whip them and four spectators present, and jumped to the ground.

The FBI said agent Paul Mohr was hit a glancing blow which broke his glasses.

Sheriff Z. T. Mathews said.

More Refugees From Cuba Are Due in Florida

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—More Cuban refugees were expected here today on the heels of more than 100 who arrived in south Florida aboard six boats Friday and Saturday—the largest group to arrive by boat over a similar period.

A Mobile, Ala., freighter, the SS Wacosta, reported Sunday it gave fuel and directions on how to reach Key West to a small Cuban motor vessel with five men, two women and a child aboard.

The Wacosta said it came upon the vessel in the straits between Cuba and the United States. It had run out of gasoline.

Thieves Rob Father of Miss Michigan

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI)—Peter J. Van Valin, father of Miss Michigan Jean Van Valin, was a victim of thieves over the weekend while here for the Miss America beauty pageant, police said last night.

Van Valin, of Roseconm, Mich., told police $30 was stolen from his pants and $10 from his wife's purse as they slept in the Sorrento Motel.

His 18-year-old daughter made the pageant semifinals before being eliminated. She also won a preliminary swim suit contest.

France Discloses Ties Resumed With Jordan

PARIS (UPI)—The government announced today it has resumed diplomatic relations with Jordan, one of the Arab states which broke with France after the Anglo-French invasion of Egypt in 1956.

An announcement yesterday in Paris and Damascus said relations would be resumed soon with Syria.

Trouble Always Bobbing Up Just Before Elections

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON—The American elections are getting to be a just for years some big distraction has happened once more.

This time it's over U2 spy planes, Berlin, and Cuba. Communists have contributed handsomely to the distraction over the years. So have the United States and its allies by amazingly clumsy performances.

Everything looked quiet less than a month ago. Trouble began Aug. 17 with the shooting of a refugee at the Berlin wall by East Berlin guards. West Berliners reacted violently. East-West relations got even more sticky.

This is bound to get an airing at the U.N. meeting which starts
Sept. 18. So, too, most likely will Cuba and the U2s.

On Aug. 19 the United States sent three U2s—they're called reconnaissance planes now—to Britain for "high altitude sampling" programs over the North Atlantic.
Skeptical Russians said the U2s should be kept "far away from us."

LOTS OF YARDAGE

They got a lot of yardage out of the last U2 they tangled with.
That was on May 1, 1960, when they shot down Francis Gary Powers in a U2 about 1300 miles inside Russia.

In that unforgettable mish-mash
the State Department lied, said the plane hadn't been spying, then admitted the truth and said President Eisenhower had authorized spy flights.

All this happened just a few days before his summit meeting with Premier Khrushchev in Paris.
Khrushchev broke it up. On May 16, 1960, Eisenhower said there would be no more spy flights over Russia. On Jan. 25, 1961, shortly after President Kennedy took office, he said the same thing.

The U2s have been in business since around the world. It makes no sense to think they haven't been used for spying from high altitudes.

Then on Sept. 2 Russia did something to embarrass the United States. This country has been busy trying to stiff-arm communism in all the far places of the earth.

On Sept. 2 Russia and Cuba issued a joint statement acknowledging publicly what already was known: That Russia is arming Cuba, right in America's backyard and sending in military technicians to train the Cubans.

Some senators, perhaps without thinking of possible consequences, called on Kennedy to invade Cuba or at least do something. In this election year Kennedy inaction might give Republicans a handy issue.

VAGUE REQUEST

On Sept. 4 he warned the Russians and Cubans not to get rambunctious. But that's about all he said. Then he asked Congress for power to call up 150,000 reservists if needed. Why he might need them, what he'd do with them, or whether he'd actually call them isn't clear. Nor did he make it clear.

But something else happened on Sept. 4. The Russians complained an American U2 plane had flown over Soviet territory in Sakhalin Island, just north of Japan, the far side of the world from England.

The United States hastily admitted this might have happened but denied it was intentional and explained the pilot might have been blown off course.

Then Sunday the Red Chinese announced they had brought down a U2 over their territory. The Nationalist Chinese on Formosa said the plane was theirs, and that they had bought it from the Lockheed Aircraft Corp. in the United States.

Here are some of the distractions in other election years:

1948—The Russians began the Berlin blockade. 1950—The Communists began the Korean War and, just a few days before election, some Puerto Rican assassins tried to kill President Truman.

1952—The Korean War, still on, was a central issue. 1954—Sen.
Joseph McCarthy's career was coming to a climax in the Senate and a month after election his conduct was condemned.

1956—Britain, France and Israel invaded Egypt in such a wild expedition that Eisenhower had to call them off. Also, the Russians crushed the Hungarian revolt.

1958—This election time was least explosive but the Red Chinese were bombarding China
Kai-shek's offshore islands. No one could be sure of the outcome.
It was not a completely quiet time.

The lid blew off in 1960 with the shooting down of the U2 over
Russia and all that followed.

Stops Contention due to "Aging Colon"

But, doctors say, this is new laxative principle that re-creates 3 essential of youthful energy.

As you grow older, the muscular motion of your colon wall also ages, less the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents dry out and shrink so they fail to stimulate the "mass movement" of your lower colon.
Only new COLONADO gives you this special 3-way relief.

(1) COLONADO prevents the formation of hard, lumpy waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) helps restore baby colon muscle with unique relieving action. (3) acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the "mass movement" of your lower colon.
COLONADO relieves even chronic constipation overnight, is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for functioning mothers. Introductory Size 43¢

HULA DANCERS TWIST — Contrary to what spectators along the route of the Shelby Lions Round-up Parade expected these "Hawaiian" dancers to do yesterday, it was not the hula but the twist. Because of this and the attractiveness of their float, Alibi Inn, 14-Mile Road at Gratiot, won first prize for the most unusual entry.

Shelby Lions Parade Attracts 5,000 Persons

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Despite overcast skies and the threat of rain the parade which yesterday highlighted the Shelby Township Lions annual Fall Round-Up went off on schedule — unmarred by drizzle or downpour.

5,000 WATCH

It attracted a crowd of about 5,000 along the parade route on Van Dyke and featured gaily-decorated floats, several area high school bands, high-stepping majorettes and comic entries of every description.

First place honors for the most beautiful float were awarded to the Village of Algonac entry which had placed third in the Romeo Peach Festival Parade on Labor Day.

The Peach Festival publicity float with Virginia Verrill, Miss Romeo of 1962, in the place of honor, was the second place winner.

UTICA IN 3RD PLACE

Third most beautiful was the Utica Lions float with Irene Heydens, Miss Utica of 1962, on the throne.

The best decorated pleasure car was entered by the Roseville Knights of Columbus.

Prize for the most unusual entry was awarded to Alibi Inn, 14 Mile Road and Gratiot, Clinton Township. It was a large float featuring a group of singers and dancers in a rustic Hawaiian setting with the dancers doing all things, the twist.

Sharing top honors for the best marching group were the Richmond Flashes and the Tannettes.

Prize for the best-mounted horse entry went to Phyllis McGrath of Washington who wore full Indian regalia and rode a prancing white horse in the parade.

The most unusual pet which won a prize for Comic Campbell, 16 of Disco, was a raccoon named "Spokum."

Several other prizes were awarded for comic entries. Judges were Macomb County Sheriff Lester A. Almstadt, Shelby Township Clerk Mae Stecker and Mrs. Josephine Switzer, local insurance agent.

One of the groups that came the farthest for the fifth annual round-up celebration was the Canadian Legion Piper Band from Wallaceburg, Ont.

Despite the poor weather outlook for the rest of the day, the concluding activities, a dance and fireworks, were held as planned — with the sponsors expressing "satisfaction" with the success of the three-day program.

Count Petitions in Farmington

Citizens Have Chance to Ask Law Against Detroit Income Tax

FARMINGTON — Signatures on petitions circulated here over the weekend for a state law to stop Detroit from taxing suburbanites who work in the Motor City were being counted and notarized this morning.

No exact total was immediately available, but City Manager John D. Dillon said 80 to 90 per cent of Farmington was canvassed.

Local city police and firemen were called back on the job on their days off to circulate the petitions for the Vigilance Tax Committee of Michigan.

They were ordered back as part of their duty to officers and at least one policeman said he was told to register as a voter so that he could qualify as a petition passer.

BACKED BY CITIZENS

The order was signed by Joseph C. DeVriendt, public safety director, but the project was ordered by Farmington Mayor Robert B. Lindbert who said he had the unanimous backing of the City Council.

"I know there will be criticism, but we think we are justified and citizens are backing us up," said Lindbert.

Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, author of that city's 1 per cent income tax levy, called Lindbert's viewpoint "highly unusual." The Farmington employees who were called in to work during off-duty hours will be given compensatory time off.

Fugitive Back in Detroit Jail

Alleged 1960 Slaying Gunman Returned by Cleveland Hearing

DETROIT (UPI) — The alleged gunman in the 1960 slaying of a druggist was behind bars here today.

Joseph Kelly, 32, was returned to the Motor City from Cleveland Saturday following an extradition hearing. Kelly allegedly is one of a gang that was tried for the murder of David Lipton, Oct. 4, 1960.

Kelly was released by mistake from Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson before the trial of the men in connection with the hold-up slaying.

Three other members of the holdup gang were convicted of murder in connection with Lipton's death and are serving life sentences.

Kelly was released on parole by accident following an error in the Recorder's Court clerk's office here.

He was arrested in Cleveland following a tip by a Cleveland man who told federal authorities he had harbored Kelly not knowing he was wanted by the authorities.

To Head UF Drive

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — Kenneth Jesse, 2301 Ortonville Road, has been named 1962 United Fund campaign chairman for Brandon Township.

The announcement was made today by Charles Pungas, president of the Brandon Township United Fund board.

Jesse said the goal this year is $17,000. He added that this is the amount raised in 1961, the township's all-time high, and that every effort will be made to top that figure in the coming drive.

A resident of this area for the past 15 years, Jesse was graduated from Brandon High School in 1953. He served the Junior Chamber of Commerce as president when it was organized two years ago. From 1960 to 1962 he served with the U.S. Army Chemical Corps.

Jesse, a press operator for the Fisher Body Division at Grand Blanc, attends Ortonville Methodist Church.

Brandon Community Activities is among the 10 local and 32 Michigan United Fund services available to the township through affiliation with the Pontiac Area United Fund. Jesse said this year's successful activities program included nursery school, their wives are expected to attend.

Warren Claims Its 4th Biggest

Mayor Says Population Now 116,500, Topped Only by 3 in State

WARREN (UPI) — This Detroit suburb was all aglow today, boasting that new home permits made it Michigan's fastest growing community.

Warren Mayor William A. Shaw said the statistics showed that his city was now the state's fourth largest — behind only Detroit, Flint and Grand Rapids — with a population that exceeds 116,500, and the most populous Detroit suburb, replacing Dearborn, whose population was cited at 115,000.

Federal census figures in April 1960, showed Warren in seventh place among the urban centers of Michigan, behind Detroit, 1,670,464; Flint, 196,940; Grand Rapids, 117,312; Dearborn, 112,007; Lansing, 107,807; and Saginaw, 98,265.

Warren's 1960 population, according to the census, was 89,246. Silta G. Tomasi, an analyst for the Detroit metropolitan area regional planning commission, predicted that Warren's population would reach 142,000 by 1970 and close to 200,000 by 1980.

AREA NEWS

Continues Hunt for Mother and Daughter

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP — Macomb County sheriff's detectives continued their search today for a 28-year-old Washington Township mother and her daughter who disappeared last Tuesday.

A spokesman said today that the detectives were virtually without clues and were undertaking a thorough check of the close relatives of Mrs. Irma Moore, 58780 Romeo Plank Road.

Mrs. Moore disappeared with her 10-month-old daughter, Deana, whom she supposedly left home to go to the supermarket.

Her husband, John, 36, a salesman, said his wife, who is pregnant, had only $3 or $4 with her when she left. He said they had had no arguments.

Moore told officers the family had planned a dinner for last night to celebrate the visit of his 17-year-old son by a previous marriage.

Farmers May Withhold Feeder Stock From Mart

CORNING, Iowa (U) — The National Farmers Organization said today its members may withhold feeder livestock from the market if packers start slaughtering them to supplement dwindling meat supplies.

Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., NFO president, issued the warning as the NFO started the second full week of its effort to raise livestock prices to farmers by keeping slaughter animals off the market.

Feeder cattle are steers and heifers which have not been fattened for slaughter. They normally are purchased from ranchers by feeders who fatten them and then sell them to processors.

Staley contends processors are buying the feeder cattle to make up for the shortage of fat cattle.

Staley also disclosed that he asked the Department of Justice and congressional committees a week ago to investigate the possibility that impending higher meat prices may be the result of "collusion and price fixing" by chain stores and a major packer.

Chain stores and some packing companies announced Saturday that retail meat prices will be increased this week because of wholesale price increases.

Staley said the retail price increases, ranging up to 19 to 25 cents a pound on some cuts, are "uncalled for and unjustified," though he conceded some increases may be necessary if NFO goals are won.

Staley predicted a severe shortage of meat by the end of next week as the result of the NFO holding action.

Ann Arbor Singers to Help Celebration

LAKE ORION — The Ann Arbor Methodist Church Chancel Choir will present a concert in the Lake Orion Methodist Church Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

The concert will be a feature of the local church's 90th anniversary celebration and a prelude to the program scheduled for Sept. 22 and 23.

Currently on tour directing the Michigan Choral, Lester McCoy is minister of music at the Ann Arbor Church. He is also director of the Musical Societies' Choral Union.

Saturday night's concert is open to the public.

Too Little Ineffective

Don't make the mistake of applying make-up too sparingly in your attempt to achieve a natural-looking effect.

For results that are both natural-looking and glamorous it is important that you give your complexion full make-up coverage.

Whether you are using make-up in a tube, stick, cake, or bottle, cover every blemish and blend the color to an even tone.

Your eyes and lips also should be adequately made up to give them definition and color. Take enough time to line your eyes, give your lashes a luxuriant look with generous amounts of mascara, and pencil your eyebrows carefully while shaping them for an attractive expression.

Your lipstick, as well, should be applied with care and artistry, using enough color to give your lips a smooth, full contour.

Abby Tells Gal to Decide

Vies With Job for Love

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a guy who thinks more of his job than he does of me. He is an insurance agent who loves his work and is trying to get ahead.

After work he comes straight to my house. When he walks in the door he doesn't say, "I love you."

ABBY

He says, "Don't bother me, I have work to do."

We never go out any more because he's either too tired or wants to study. He practically ignores me and we aren't even married yet. Should I stick with him?

IGNORED: Your boy friend's ambition is impressive, but he's courting a career—not a girl. If he wants a go-getter in business and a go-to-sleep at home, he's your answer.

DEAR ABBY: I am allergic to lawyers. I have practically supported lawyers all my life and I am sick of them. Now I want to get a divorce, but I don't want a lawyer getting into the act.

I know I either have to pay alimony to my wife or make a flat settlement on her. I am willing to make a deal with her, but I don't want any lawyers cutting themselves a big slice for nothing. Is it possible to get a divorce without a lawyer?

SICK OF LAWYERS

DEAR SICK: Only a lawyer is qualified to advise you in legal matters. Better ask a lawyer if you need to hire one.

DEAR ABBY: A very pretty young woman recently moved to town and I started dating her. I made up my mind that I was going to be a perfect gentleman. I didn't try to take her parking or anything like that.

She soon dropped me. Later

I found out that she didn't want to have anything to do with me because she thought something must be "wrong" with me.

MISSED MY CHANCE

DEAR MISSED: You didn't

miss much. Something was "wrong" with her. She was probably so conditioned to wolves that she didn't know how to handle a lamb.

Teachers in Rho Chapter Hold Meeting

An executive board meeting preceded the first gathering of Rho chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa international honorary sorority for women teachers, Thursday evening.

The chapter will sponsor Mrs. E. Cleo Wiley for international office of grand sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Morrell Jones, Rho president, was appointed delegate to the state convention slated for Sept. 22 at the Executive Inn, Warren.

All area chapters will gather Oct. 4 at Devon Gables in Bloomfield Hills for the founders day dinner. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Isa Vogel and Wilma Webb.

Zeta chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority, got the fall season under way Thursday evening with a picnic supper. Faye Donelson was hostess for the affair.

President Margaret MacKenzie announced the area presidents' council dinner meeting Sept. 19 at the Waldron Hotel. Mrs. John Borwald and Miss Donelson will represent the Zeta chapter.

Mrs. Alton Madden is the alternate delegate with Miss Donelson as delegate to the sorority's state convention, set for Sept. 22 in Warren.

The group plans to attend the founder's day dinner. Future plans also include a leadership training meeting at Michigan State University Oakland, Nov. 10, and a benefit sale in October.

A cooperative dinner was held by members of Epsilon Chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority, Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lewis Cornell, Lansdowne Drive, Waterford Township.

Co-hostess was Mrs. Lola Sandage. Guests included Mrs. Alice Benson, Mrs. Freeman Stuart, Mrs. Etta Leech and Mrs. Lola Sandage.

Reservations for the state convention Sept. 22 were taken and plans for the founders' day dinner completed.

Wayside Gleaners Hear Guest Speaker

Wayside Gleaners of the First Baptist Church met Friday afternoon. Guest speaker was Esther O'Neil, director of the Child Evangelism Fellowship of Oakland County.

She addressed some 40 members of the group in Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. William Carls led the hymn singing and Mrs. H. L. Stunt accompanied her. Mrs. John McCormick and Mrs. Ira Davis led the devotions.

I told her later that while it was all right to do this at home, when offered candy in someone else's house it is bad manners to "look the candy over."

She thinks it is perfectly all right to do this no matter where, I would like your opinion on this.

A: If she fingered the candy or took a very long time in selecting a piece, then you are right. But if she merely looked it over quickly before choosing one that she liked, it was not wrong.

Q: My wedding ring is a plain gold band which I have not had off my finger since the day I was married.

At the time of our marriage my husband couldn't afford anything better but now that he has become more affluent he would like to give me a new wedding ring, a platinum one set with diamonds, for our anniversary.

I would like to know if it would be proper to wear both rings?

A: Certainly you may wear both rings together. The plain gold one will, of course, continue to be your wedding ring and the new one can be worn as an ornamental guard over it.

Q: Last year another young woman and I gave a baby shower for a friend. The baby died soon after birth and she returned all the presents.

Would it be proper now to give her another baby shower? She is expecting a baby shortly.

A: It will be entirely proper to give her another baby shower. However, I think it would be best to wait until the baby has safely arrived and mother and child are home from the hospital and then give the shower.

You Should Tell Your Children the Truth

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: Several weeks ago my husband lied to our 13-year-old boy. He promised to buy him a boat which a neighbor had at our lake cottage wanted to sell. After talking it over, we both realized that the boy doesn't swim well enough to take the boat out.

So my husband told him that the neighbor had sold it for more money.

As we do not make a habit of lying to our youngsters, we are troubled by the way my husband handled this, though there is no possibility that the child will discover the falsehood.

ANSWER: I believe in telling the truth as nearly as we know it. Especially to children.

Your husband's purpose in lying was protection, wasn't it? It was born of the wish to protect the child, not only against possible danger but against hurt to his pride as a swimmer. It is a lie to accept, as understandable—as well as mistaken. It should be confessed, I think, without any sense of guilt.

Unless, of course, your husband requires himself to present an example of moral perfection to his child.

I congratulate him on the confession that is leading his knowledge the understandable weakness that produced his lie.

As children well understand the temptation to parade themselves as bigger and better than they are, they are experienced in the understanding of lies. They treat our confessions of falsehood more generously than we are accustomed to receive their confessions to us.

CAN BE BEGINNING

As I have already suggested, the only example any parent should want to give a child is the example of his own moral struggles.

Those of us who claim to offer an example of moral perfection are never loved. We are only respected until our children discover what frauds we are.

Then we are remorselessly hated, not because our weaknesses have been exposed but because we have pretended not to have any. To children this is often the unforgivable sin.

It is fine for a child to be told that we have fallen into weakness. Our confession of it says to him, "You see, like you I am a person who still has growth to make." I hope that your husband tells his boy that he lied to him.

OTHER TOPICS

Let her start talking food or recipes to other women and she will know from their half-hearted attention that she should be talking about something really important and stimulating, and not be making noises like a housewife.

Let her make a batch of homemade rolls and she'll find that practically everyone at the table has enough strength of character to take only one or none and the poor weak person who takes two or three is sure to give her an accusing look for providing so much temptation.

Let her start talking food or recipes to other women and she will know from their half-hearted attention that she should be talking about something really important and stimulating, and not be making noises like a housewife.

So how can a woman manage to take much pride today in being a good cook when nobody wants to talk about cooking, except in terms of short cuts, and practically no one over 12 years of age can look at food without accusingly counting calories?

Sweatshirt Glamorizes Wardrobe

Once upon a time a sweatshirt was a sad old gray slipper stuck in the back of the closet to be used when you cleaned the basement or played baseball with the kids or went fishing. Today, Miss Sweatshirt of 1962 is the glamour garment of the modern wardrobe.

Well, maybe this is a small exaggeration. But the introduction of sweatshirts as fashionable year-around wear is apparel is not.

And an important new feature has been introduced. You can now buy sweatshirts that are rain and stain resistant. This bonanza does not in any way affect the moisture absorbent inner side of the shirt.

But what a relief to know that your sweatshirt protects you from petting snout or sudden showers. When you go boating or fishing, a water spray rolls off you like water off a duck's back.

As for smudges and dirt, a damp cloth will remove both fast. And, the shirts are, of course, machine washable.

In addition to jacket and hooded pullover styles, rain resistant sweatshirts are available in classic crew neck and hooded jacket designs.

Taste Counts in Smart Look of Individuality

You can be a skilled seamstress and turn out unimaginative dresses. Or, you can lack sewing background and put together a smart looking outfit.

The secret, according to Miss Joan Messmore, fashion coordinator, is an elusive little thing called "style."

To achieve style in dressing is the alternate aim of every home sewer. It can be learned by observation and study, she believes.

"Style is difficult to analyze since it is an expression of individuality," she points out. "Yet, ask yourself these questions: What is your taste? Do you like highly styled clothes or subdued fashions? How do you combine your taste with lines suited to your figure?"

You'll be amazed at the beautiful results!

Authoritarian Traits Evident in Freshmen

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI)—The typical college freshman has a psychological makeup much like that of an authoritarian adult, reports Nevitt Sanford, a professor at Stanford University.

"The freshman, inhibited impulse by being morally strict with himself and others," Sanford said. "He is ready to meet stiff requirements and work hard, to conform with what he takes to be the prevailing standards of behavior—and he is inclined to be somewhat intolerant of those who do not."

"An element of perfectionism, of striving for purity of thought and action is characteristic of the freshman. He needs, and finds, moral heroes, and is likely to demand that they be perfect. He is rather unprepared for the discovery that his idols have feet of clay, or, as any rate, have some human weaknesses."

Sanford's comments were in "The American College," a 1,000-page study which he edited. He is a professor of psychology and education, and director of the Institute for the Study of Human Problems at Stanford.

He said one of the hardest things about growing up in contemporary America is that a young person discovers some of the things that are wrong with the world just when he must needs models of private and public virtue.

"If the young person is not to remain in an authoritarian stage of development, he must learn to see things as they are, develop an articulate individual power of judgment, and become able to criticize what he judges to be bad," Sanford said.

The freshman also is unsure of his worth, Sanford said, and thus vulnerable to the opinions of others. "In this situation it is often a good thing that he is given academic grades, and is told about the results of tests of ability and achievement.

"Bad news may be better than no news; better, that is, than uncertainty or his gloomy imaginings."

Camera Points Out Flaws

(NEA) — When you look at your beach photographs, don't mean that the camera has added pounds to your appearance. You're probably not as heavy as you look in the candid photos, but you may be more overweight than you'd realized.

Even the camera won't make a splash look like a baby elephant. If you appear somewhat heavier in your snapshots than you do in your mirror, perhaps your posture was careless. Slouching, when standing or sitting, can add inches to your waistline and give your shoulders a rounded thickness.

The candid shots also may tell you that you made a wrong choice when you bought your swimsuit and that vertical stripes or a deeper solid color would have been a better selection.

These pictures can be a wonderful reference source for self-improvement. So don't shrink out that you can't possibly look that bad! Just take steps to insure better results at the next picture-taking session.

Eye Make-up Can Be Very Dramatic

Here's a quick, easy way to determine how to wear eye make-up that will be most flattering to you and still be in keeping with the current fashion look which calls for more dramatic application techniques.

Try a noted beauty authority's suggestion of first making-up one eye completely and then comparing it with the other for a "before and after" effect. You can experiment with varying degrees of drama in the colors used as well as in the method of application.

Achieve the most dramatic effect by boldly applying eye shadow on your upper eyelid and softly blending the edges with your fingertip. Next, use an eyeliner brush to apply fluid eyeliner along the base of your upper eyelashes.

The band of color should be at least one-eighth inch wide at the center and tapered slightly at each corner. Draw a lighter line along the base of your lower lashes with a sharp eyebrow pencil.

Now, brush mascara on your upper and lower lashes and keep applying this important requisite until each eyelash is completely encircled with color from root to tip. If your eyelashes are thin and fine, don't overlook the beauty that artificial eyelashes can impart. With the one eye completely made-up, start applying make-up to the other eye, using lighter applications of the color.

Then, steadily progress to bolder touches, comparing each effect with your dramatically made-up eye until you arrive at the exact effect you want — and finally duplicate this on both eyes.

Don't Handicap Children

Put 'Halo' Around Books

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE N-419: Cathy, aged 19 months, is my granddaughter.

She lives in a mobile or trailer home at Bloomington, Ind., where my son Philip is working on his Ph.D. in history.

While Philip was shaving the other day, Cathy toddled into the bathroom. "Walk! Walk!" she said in a commanding tone.

Philip didn't know what she had in mind, but she reached for his hand and led him into the living room.

Then she pointed to the top shelf of a bookcase. "Book! Book!" she exclaimed, and while Philip got her picture book, she climbed upon the davenport.

Then she patted the cushion beside her and said, "Sit!" Philip sat down. "Read! Read!" she added, as she indicated her picture book.

It isn't grandparental pride that makes me mention this interesting case, but my school teacher background.

All teachers wish every child could be "conditioned" to view books with similar delight.

For the art of reading is the actual "motor" in the entire educational machine.

STRESS READING

Unless your children can read easily, they will become second-rate students.

Even their marks in arithmetic will be poor, for unless they can swiftly understand the written problems in their textbook, they will not know how to start solving them.

Philip has no TV in his trailer home, for he figures he must spend all of his spare time studying.

So Cathy has learned to regard books as fascinating. Printed matter already has a "halo."

And unless you parents put this "halo" on books by the time your youngsters enter kindergarten and first grade, you have actually handicapped them for life!

Please paste that statement on your bathroom mirror and review it every day, for it is true.

The children who make high grades and who win the free college scholarships are those who had a "halo" placed on books.

They are also the youngsters who patronize the local public library!

Maybe you haven't realized

It Has Responsibilities

College Is a New Life

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Today let us talk to the young men and women as they leave for college.

The first year is the most hazardous. For the first time you will be completely on your own. You will be among strangers in an entirely new environment. You will have to learn to get along with all sorts of people. You will be subjected to all kinds of pressures.

In a way a college is a community like any small city or town. It prepares you for citizenship later on and the same qualities and attitudes and standards which will make you a fine citizen later on will make you a successful member of your college community now.

As you march forward into the college classrooms, you'll find more than new facts—it's a whole new way of life.

Either in college or out of it a good citizen must be dependable. He must have a sense of responsibility. He must take an interest in his community and the others who live in it. He must be ready to help his neighbor. While he is friendly with everyone he chooses his close associates with care.

To Absorb Odor

The odor of cantaloupe is not so difficult to remove from a refrigerator container if you place crumpled newspaper inside the container. Leave it for several hours or overnight, if possible. Remove the paper and then wash and rinse as usual.

He enters into the activities of the community and carries his weight in any worthwhile enterprise. He must learn how to spend his time.

There are always so many demands and interests that the way time and energy are spent is most important. Remember too, that every good citizen works.

A good citizen lives by his own standards, not those of someone else. He does not violate his own integrity. It is also wise to consider the fact that the standards you learn at home which may have seemed old-fashioned at 16 or 17 are likely to seem very wise to you at 30.

College should be a happy time as well as one which is stimulating to the mental processes. I hope your year is happy.

Nicklaus Wins $50,000 Series Check to Top $100,000

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—When he is to be the boss of America's golfers, he may have replaced Arnold Palmer.

THE WINNER — Jack Nicklaus is greeted by his wife, Barbara, after he took a four-hole victory and $50,000 in the World Series of Golf Sunday at Akron, Ohio. The U.S. Open champion shot rounds of 65 and 69 over the Firestone Country Club course.

Nicklaus Just Beginning to 'Shoot at the Moon'

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—At 22, at least I've proved by now that blue-eyed Jack Nicklaus has it.

"made" today but he was only beginning to "shoot at the moon." His aim in the golf business, which he had begun to dominate with victory over Arnold Palmer and Gary Player in the fairway "World Series" on the heels of his U.S. Open triumph, is the big grand slam. That means winning the U.S. and British Opens as well as the Masters and P.G.A.

Nicklaus, dominating but heavily favored by the yards, is looking for two such slams, or maybe more.

"I hope people wouldn't think I was bragging," he said after he conquered the Firestone Country Club "second" course with a two-round five-under-par effort and a four-shot win over both his rivals, "but I think you should always shoot high."

The thing he has going for him, in addition to one of the finest golf games the fairway industry ever has seen, is the tenderness of his years. Palmer was nudging 30 when he started to hit the top and only in the last three years has become recognized as "The King." Before that, the big man was Ben Hogan, and the mighty mile from Texas was well into his 30's before he found that golden touch.

"I would have to admit that this seemingly gives me an edge in shooting for a slam," the curly blond from Ohio State said. "I've been lucky, maybe, but I feel that I can win."

"Goodness no," Nicklaus grinned. "Let's not forget this one. And I certainly hope they invite the defending champion back next year."

From The PRESS BOX

Service for Gabriel Cavazos Jr., 24, popular Hart athletic and pro boxer who was killed in a car accident Saturday, will be tomorrow.

Nadine, owned by Mrs. W. R. Kelly of Bloomfield Hills, paid $24.40 in winning the $25,000 Michigan Derby at Hazel Park Saturday over favored Goodwin Wind by a head. Nevada cut three-fifths of a second off the track record for a mile and sixteenth with a time of 1:45.

Dearborn's Troy Ruttman finished third Saturday in the U.S. Auto Club 100-mile championship at the state fairgrounds in Syracuse, N.Y. Roger Ward won the race and A. J. Foyt was second.

James Howard of Southfield scored the No. 7 hole on the red side at Money Saturday. He made a seven iron on the 125-yard hole and posted a 54 for the round.

Royal Oak's Harry Gilmore scored his second hole in one in a month Saturday at Edgewood. He made the 163-yard No. 10 hole with a seven iron. A month ago Gilmore posted an ace at Maple Lane.

Palmer as pariah of the fairways Sunday when he was the first World Series of golf-leaving the LaTrobe, Pa., better and PGA champion Gary Player four strokes in the wake of his birdies and pars.

The sensational "rookie" from Columbus, Ohio, in his first year as a pro after winning a couple of national and numerous other amateur fixtures, hoisted his 1962 earnings over the $100,000 mark by picking up the first place check of $50,000. Palmer, first day leader er by a stroke over Nicklaus and four over Player, had to settle for a second-place tie with the dapper South African—each getting $12,500.

None of the money won here, however, counts on the official PGA money-winning list since the "World Series" was rated an exhibition. Palmer remains the leader in money earned this year with over $30,000—a single season record.

Skeptics who thought Nicklaus' three-stroke victory over Palmer in the National Open playoff could have been a fluke were convinced that this 210-pound blond youngster from the Buckeye capital has all the shots he needs to carry him—and keep him—at the peak of the pile.

Palmer, putting sensationally, had torn this 7,165-yard Firestone Course apart in the first round with a 65—matching the course record. But he found himself only a stroke ahead of Nicklaus, who carved out a 66.

In Sunday's 18-hole stretch drive, Palmer three-putted the first two greens and hit a shot into a lake on the third—and Nicklaus was in front to stay. He clinched the big prize with birdie putts of 12 and 18 feet on the 10th and 11th holes, and put the finishing on the cake with an 18-foot birdie on the 36th hole for a closing 69. Palmer soared to 74, and Player matched par 70 to tie him.

ALWAYS IN MONEY

Nicklaus hasn't been out of the money in any tournament this year, but he has won only two which he said was the best he had ever done—Palmer finished with 61 shots on the greens to 59 for Nicklaus and 62 for Player.

Player, outwitted on every hole by his buxier opponents, had to rely on woods and long irons to reach these distant greens—but he played the most consistent golf of all as he had 23 pars to 25 for Nicklaus and 23 for Palmer.

For Palmer, it was a disappointing way to wind up his 1962 year. Arnold is celebrating his 33rd birthday today.

Tigers Finally Discover Way to Beat Twins

Yanks Lose Pair, Little Ground

By The Associated Press

If the New York Yankees played two games every day, they might be holding up the American League instead of heading it. The Yankees dropped a pair to the Boston Red Sox Sunday, 3-2 and 5-4 in 16 innings, for their eighth doubleheader loss this season. They have split 10, and swept only three.

That works out to a .281 pace, and spread over the full season it would put the Yankees in a flat tie for ninth place with the Washington Senators, who are going at that same speed.

The Yankees have also lost one-day-night bill, and split three. These are not counted as doubleheaders in the standings, but they were the Yankees' twinbill.

In other action, the Chicago White Sox slipped into fourth place ahead of Detroit by trimming Washington, twice, 4-3 and 3-2 in 11 innings, and the Cleveland Indians dropped Kansas City 12-7.

The Red Sox squeezed home the winning run in the top of the 10th inning in the nightcap, after Bob Tilton doubled and went to third on a wild pitch. Pinch hitter Billy Gardner, a former Yankee, laid down a perfect bunt that scored eight scoreless innings in relief until the breakthrough. Dick Radatz, who has the league's second best earned run average, took over in the seventh, allowed the run that tied the game at 4-4, and then shut out the Yankees the rest of the way.

Home runs by Carl Yastrzemski, Ed Bressoud and Lu Chilton powered the opening game victory and spoiled the pitching debut of Skippy Brown of the Yankees. Bill Montague, went all the way for Boston.

land Indians dropped Kansas City 12-7.

BLEW CHANCE

If the formula for beating the Yankees has been found at last, the two top pursuers lost a golden opportunity to take advantage of it.

The second-place Minnesota Twins dropped a 10-3 battle to Detroit, and the third-place Los Angeles fell 4-3 to Baltimore in 14 innings. The Twins inched up to within 2½ games and the Angels to four, but there is bad news for them: the Yankees are not scheduled to play any more double bills this season.

In other action, the Chicago White Sox slipped into fourth place ahead of Detroit by trimming Washington, twice, 4-3 and 3-2 in 11 innings, and the Cleveland Indians dropped Kansas City 12-7.

Lions Turn Nomads for Next 3 Weeks

The Detroit Lions, nursing new aches and pains, become nomads for the next three weeks.

With the season opener slated for next Sunday at Tiger Stadium against the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Lions will be unsettled in their training camp schedule up to October 1st.

After this morning's workout at Cranbrook, the squad moved out of the school's dormitories to the Ritz Hotel in Pontiac for the remainder of this week. They will continue morning workouts on the Cranbrook practice field each morning through Friday and then take up quarters at the University of Detroit until they can get into Tiger Stadium.

Couch George Wilson received some good and bad news over the weekend. The first bit of information was the return of center Bob Scholtz to the squad on an accumulated leave from the Army.

Scholtz will workout with the team for the next few weeks and then be available on the weekends for regular season games.

Wilson was happy to get the news on Scholtz but it presented a minor problem in as much as the fact that Bob Whitlow has been doing an outstanding job as Scholtz's replacement.

With this in mind, Wilson has been working on player shifts to help the defensive end and offensive tackle positions.

He gave John Gonzaga a crack at defensive end last weekend against the Cardinals. Gonzaga did well but suffered rib injuries. Scholtz is now being considered for an offensive tackle post in view of Whitlow's performance at center.

MORRILL INJURED

Added to the list of injuries was the accident Earl Morrill suffered Saturday afternoon when half of his big toe had to be removed after getting mangled by a power mower.

Morrill, who did not play in the Cardinal game last Friday night, was established as the team's No. 2 quarterback. Doctors reported that the injury would keep him out of action for possibly a week.

Meanwhile, along with camp and player problems, the Lions received the unpleasant news that the Steelers are now in top shape and proved their intention to be Eastern Division challengers by whipping Baltimore 20-9 yesterday.

Rookies Joe Womack and Bob Ferguson supplied the running power and rookie end John Barrill was the pass catching sensation.

Womack ran wild in piling up 126 yards himself three weeks into the Lions' 20-9 exhibition victory while Ferguson, the former Ohio State great All-American was out with a leg injury.

RUN DOWN — Detroit catcher Dick Brown puts the tag on Minnesota's Lenny Green after the Twins' outfielder was caught in a run down between third and home in the first inning yesterday. Green was caught off by Rich Rollins' grounder to third baseman Frank Kostr.

11 Farmhands Recalled

From Our News Wires

DETROIT — The Tigers aren't afraid of the big, bad Yankees but some of them cover at the sight of a little hygienic needle.

TEAN physician Dr. Russell Wright, it seems, has been directing a program of smallpox and typhus immunizations and some fearfully sore arms have resulted. Only Frank Lary can't tell the difference. He had one to begin with.

The shots are in preparation for the Tigers' five-week exhibition tour to Japan and the Orient, which starts Oct. 12 — a date which, it can be safely said, won't clash with the World Series.

George Myatt, the Tigers' frogvoiced third base coach, was still in Baltimore, recuperating from a seriously swollen arm suffered from one of the injections.

Others who have felt the sting of Dr. Wright's needle are pitcher Don Mossi and first baseman Vic Wertz. Wertz missed yesterday's 10-9 victory over Minnesota with a sore arm.

Record 3-12 vs. Contenders; Slam 15 Hits

Still Lose 4th Place; Yanks Invade Detroit Tonight

DETROIT — It's easy to beat the Minnesota Twins.

"Nothing to it," said manager Bob Schefling, flashing a wink and grin that told of great satisfaction. "All you have to do is score 10 runs. We knew the way to do it all along."

The Tigers re-discovered the magic formula yesterday. They were able to score 10 runs and managed to hold off their former tormentors for a 10-9 victory.

No team in recent seasons has dominated the Tigers as the Twins have. The victory in the finale of a three-game series put the only the third in 15 games with contending Minnesota.

The Tigers prevented the second-place Twins from ailing the Yankees' American League lead in half. The Yankees lost a doubleheader to the Twins, cut only a half-game off the lead and trail by 2½ games.

Tonight the Tigers will have the opportunity to help the Twins when the Yankees open a two-game visit to Detroit. Schefling nominated Hank Aguirre, who's beaten the leaders three times this season, to pitch the opener. Ralph Terry, the league's first 20-game winner, will pitch for New York.

MADE HITS COUNT

It was the Tigers' hitting rather than a crumbling of the Twins' defenses that enabled Detroit to salvage yesterday's slugging. The Twins played their seventh straight game without an error—but the Tigers treated themselves to 15 hits. And all but two of the hits were used in Detroit's run-producing.

The Tigers broke a 6-6 tie with four runs in the seventh after each club had hit twice. Dick McAuliffe started the winning rally with his 18th homer off lower Bill Piele. A walk to Terry Fox, Chico Fernandez' double, Billy Branton's single and Al Kaline's double sent in three more runs.

That turned out to be just enough cushion. Fox, who'd pitched three scoreless relief innings, issued a walk and Jerry Zimmerman's double at the start of the ninth. Bob Humphreys came in and Bernie Allen promptly belted a three-run homer. But Humphreys retired the next three batters to preserve Fox' second victory.

Jim Bunning started for the Tigers in quest of his 17th victory. He was bombed out after yielding a two-run homer by Bob Allison in the fifth and a three-run homer by Don Mincher in the sixth.

Northern Takes Central

SAGINAW (UPI) — Tom Neumann's 35-yard touchdown sprint with eight minutes left Saturday night gave Northern Michigan a 20-12 victory over Central Michigan in the 10th annual Red Feather charity game.

Neumann's run broke open a 14-12 contest as the two teams launched the 1962 college football season. A crowd of 7,500 saw the game at Memorial Field.

While Neumann accounted for 146 of the Northern's crushing 322-yard ground attack, Central also had a star in quarterback Dick Moffitt. Just returned from military service, Moffitt passed for both the Chippewa tumbles — 10 yards to Gary Finnin and 19 yards to Bob Smith.

DALES ROMP

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Hillsdale's varsity warmed up for the 1962 grid season Saturday with a 22-7 exhibition victory over Grand Rapids Junior College.

It was the third bout between two clubs in preseason play. Hillsdale took the series, 2-1.

Tom Riddling of Southfield scored twice for the Dales.

'M' Regulars Score Rout Over Reserves

By United Press International

Quarterbacks Dave Glinka and Bob Chandler each directed three touchdowns drives and halfback Dave Rainey scored twice Saturday to lead Michigan's varsity to a 34-28 football victory over the Whites.

While satisfied with his offensive machine, head coach Pump Elliott said the defensive team looked "ragged." It was the Wolverines' first game-style scrimmage at the stadium.

Black Day, 170-pound sophomore quarterback from Waukegan, Ill., drew praise from Elliott.

Elliott said he was pleased with a "no injury" report. Junior quarterback Frosty Evashevich didn't play because of a sore back.

At East Lansing, MSU Coach Duffy Daugherty ran his squad through its fourth grueling scrimmage in as many days. This time the workout was before the movie cameras.

Daugherty planned to view the films to decide on his traveling squad for the Spartans' opener Sept. 29 at Stanford.

Jerry Gross, the University of Detroit's senior quarterback star, gained almost 400 yards running and passing Saturday in a Titan scrimmage.

Gross, All-America hopeful from Bay City, tossed two scoring passes to Flint senior end John Lower. However, U-D mentor John Idzik received another injury setback — Detroit's fourth of the practice season. Right half Bob La Porte of Wyandotte dislocated his left elbow.

A six handicap gave the Birmingham golfer a net score of 64, low in the first flight handicaps standings. Charlie Barker of Pontiac, who grossed a 72, took championship handicap honors with a 68.

Joining Barker at 72 and trailing the leaders were Dr. Roy Smith, Farmington; John Kurach, Detroit; and Roy Cullenbine, Detroit. Deadlocked at 73 were Lee Goba, Redford Township; and Joe St. Amour, Detroit.

Five players tied 74. They were Gus Kramies, Union Lake; Graham Walker, Pontiac; Chuck Thornton, Birmingham; Bill Curtis, Farmington; and Jim Rriegel, Ann Arbor.

Sammy Laine, one-armed golfer from East Detroit, grossed a 79 and took the second flight handicap with a 66. Larry Kummich of East Detroit was third flight handicap winner with a 63. The last tourney will be Oct. 7.

The Blazers defeated Indianapolis three times last season.

THE PALMER METHOD

SLOW THAT SAND TRAP SHOT

When you see an expert golfer swing his sand wedge, you get an impression that he is swinging in slow motion. It's true. The swing is indeed slow, if firm and decisive.

From an open stance, swing the clubhead outside the intended line on the backswing.

For a normal sand shot, aim to hit about two inches behind the ball. Make sure that the clubhead digs in and under the ball, and comes out the other side. The sand will force the ball up and into a high arc.

Leading the Pontiac group were Coleman Barker and Charles Barker with 71s, followed by Harold Daniels with 72, A. K. Burton with 73 and Paul Bada with 77. Par at city course is 69.

Mike Andonian, city medal play champion, withdrew from the tournament and was replaced by A. K. Burton.

Medal honors for the tournament however went to Len Cunningham and Bob Rymar of Grand Rapids who fired 70s. The pair played off for the medal trophy and Cunningham birdied the first hole to win it.

Final team scores: Pontiac 266, Grand Rapids 276; Dearborn 278; Inkster 285; Livonia 287; Wayne 292; Treston 401; Silver Ridge 404; Ypsilanti 407; Dearborn Township 426 and Garden City 428.

The Pontiac teams were winners in 1951, 1956, 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962. They finished second in 1953, 1957 and 1959 and third in 1954.

EASY VICTORY

Laver made the final Sunday by crushing Rafael Osuna of Mexico, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4, after Emerson had downed America's last hope, Chuck McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, before a capacity crowd of 14,000 at the West Side Tennis Club. This makes the seventh straight year the United States has been shut out of the finals.

If you're looking to see a championship fight this week you'll have to take it for either Sao Paulo, Brazil, or Milan, Italy.

In Sao Paulo Tuesday night, world bantamweight king, defended his 115-pound crown against Mexico's Jose Medel. The fight was postponed from last Thursday because Jose reportedly bruised a shoulder.

It's not expected to make any difference in the fight, scheduled for 15 rounds. Jose, 26, has knocked out his last 12 foes, five of them in title contests, and is favored to add Medel, 26, to his current list. The Belin Brazilian stopped Medel two years ago in 10 rounds but that was before he held the title.

In Milan Friday night, Italy's Duilio Loia defends his junior welterweight diadem in a return bout with Chicago's Eddie Perkins. Loia, 33, and Perkins, 25, battled to a 15-round draw last Oct. 21.

On the American front, lightweight contender Kenny Lane of Muskegon takes on Len Matthews of Philadelphia in the television fight of the week at the Philadelphia Arena Saturday night. Lane, 30, has a 72-11-2 record. Matthews, 23, has a 36-8-3 record.

California Prepster Dies After Practice

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—A School football player died Saturday at the Bakersfield Memorial Hospital of injuries suffered in practice.

James Chumley received a head injury during a tackling practice Wednesday. He walked away and then collapsed. He never regained consciousness. An operation was performed Wednesday night.

Goodby Denver Champ

DENVER — Bob Goalby collected $4,300 first prize yesterday in the Denver Open golf tournament.

His final 69 gave him a 277, three under par over the 6,753-yard par 35-35 Denver Country Club course. It was one stroke better than six other players in the closely bunched field — Art Wall Jr., Billy Maxwell, Jack Fleck, Bob Duden, George Bayer and Bill Johnston.

American Netters Shutout of Finals

Laver-Emerson in National Rematch

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Rod Laver will reach the end of the rainbow today and it could be lined with gold.

The 158-pound Australian meets his countryman, Roy Emerson, for the National Tennis championship—the second year in a row these two Davis-Cup teammates have tangled in the final. Emerson won in straight sets last year.

This time, though, a barrel of money is riding on the title. Laver is shooting for the coveted grand slam of amateur tennis—the Australian, French, Wimbledon and United States championships. Don Budge, who accomplished the feat in 1938, is the only other player to win all four.

Laver made the final Sunday by crushing Rafael Osuna of Mexico, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4, after Emerson had downed America's last hope, Chuck McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, before a capacity crowd of 14,000 at the West Side Tennis Club. This makes the seventh straight year the United States has been shut out of the finals.

On the other hand, this is Laver's sixth try at the United States championship and he never has won it. He tries when it is suggested that he may be floundering.

"Of course, there's no flax," he snapped. "How can there be a flax when I've gotten to the finals twice in five previous tries?"

As for Emerson, he doesn't take things quite as seriously as Laver. "If you find anyone coming around offering $100,000 pro contracts, let me know, eh," he quipped. "I'm not really concerned with the grand slam. That's the Rocket's problem. It doesn't give me any more incentive. If he gets it, he's going to earn it."

FAT CONTRACT

A victory for Laver would mean a fat professional contract, estimated between $75,000 and $125,000 after the Davis Cup in December.

"All the talk about the grand slam hasn't bothered me," said Laver. "In fact, if anything, it has helped me concentrate better, and that's the main thing. That's probably why I've been doing so well this year."

Laver and Emerson have met seven times this year on all kinds of surfaces — grass, clay and cement. Laver holds the upper hand, five victories to two.

On the other hand, this is Laver's sixth try at the United States championship and he never has won it. He tries when it is suggested that he may be floundering.

Wills Steals 3 More Bases

Dodgers Hold On to Slim Lead Over Giants

By the Associated Press

Because Maury Wills, the lacrosse son of a Washington minister, refuses to adhere to the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," the Los Angeles Dodgers are still in first place today by half a step.

That was just about all Wills needed Sunday as he stole three more bases and helped the Dodgers defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-3 to protect their half-game National League lead over the relentless San Francisco Giants, who kept pace by beating the Chicago Cubs 5-4.

The Dodgers' fleet shortstop, staging a one-man show before 37,594 fans, hit three singles in four at-bats, stole second each time and scored twice. His three hits gave him nine in his last 12 at bats. His three stolen bases gave him eight in his last three games and 25 in his last 22.

With 86 stolen bases in 144 games, Wills needs 11 more to top Ty Cobb's modern major league record of 96 set with Detroit in 1915. The Tigers played 156 games that year. The Dodgers have 18 left in their 162-game schedule.

KIDGLES FALTER

Cincinnati's third-place Reds fell 5½ games off the pace and virtually out of the race, losing a 5-3 decision to St. Louis when the Cardinals scored five runs in the ninth inning, four on Carl Sawatski's grand slam homer. Philadelphia defeated Milwaukee 4-2 and Houston played a 7-7 tie with New York. The game halted after eight innings to allow the Mets to catch a plane, will be completed in New York Sept. 20.

Southpaw Johnny Podres was touched for 11 hits in 7 1/3 innings but got his 13th victory for the Dodgers in 24 decisions. Pittsburgh's Bob Friend, seeking his 17th victory, absorbed his 13th defeat.

Wills, hitting safely in his 17th consecutive game, singled with two out in the third, promptly stole second and scored the first run on Jim Gilliam's single. Wills

No Weapon Devised for Stopping Wills

LOS ANGELES (AP)—In baseball, the only weapon against which no workable defense has ever been devised is the home run.

Perhaps the next toughest thing to combat is the stolen base as executed by Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

One National League pitcher, asked what defensive action he would take if he saw Wills trying to steal second base, replied: "I think I'd throw the ball to third."

Others, on more sober reflection, have concluded the only reliable defense against Wills is to keep him off first—the one base he has never managed to steal.

It is uncertain, however, that this strategy will succeed often enough to keep Wills from becoming the foremost base stealer in modern major league history. Ty Cobb established the modern record by stealing 96 bases for Detroit in 1915.

Wills has stolen 86 already this season—and has 19 games to play. The 160-pound shortstop may have to hurry, however, if he wants to keep the statisticians from putting an asterisk after his 1962 record. The Tigers played 156 games the year Cobb set the record and the Dodgers will play 162 this season. So Wills has only 12 games in which to tie or break the record.

Wills, who has stolen 177 bases in about 3½ seasons in the majors, refuses to discuss his prospects of surpassing the Cobb record.

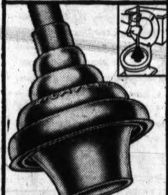

"I don't even want to think about it," Maury said Sunday after pulling his 84th, 85th and 86th steals as the Dodgers protected their half-game lead over San Francisco by defeating Pittsburgh 5-3.

DON'T WANT TO

"I won't say I haven't thought about it," Wills added, "but I do not want to."

Wills has stolen 26 bases in his last 23 games. Much of this success is attributable to his hitting. He has a .17-game batting streak and in his last three games has had 8 hits in 11 at-bats. In those same three games he stole eight bases.

Guardian Maintenance servicemen care for your General Motors car the way it was built to be cared for. Torque wrenches, measuring exact pressures, are used to tighten bolts on many parts of your car to factory-engineered specifications. Precisely tightening each cylinder head bolt, as illustrated, could mean the difference between maximum power at each cylinder and uneconomical engine performance due to distortion of critical machined surfaces. At thirty GM Training Centers across the nation, Guardian Maintenance servicemen learn by doing the right way—the Guardian Maintenance way. NFL Ready for Regular Season

By the Associated Press

Green Bay's mighty Packers and the resurgent Cleveland Browns stand out as favorites as the National Football League heads into its third season.

The Packers, with the same powerful team that swept to the Western Division title and devastated New York 37-0 in the championship playoff last year, open with a home game against the Minnesota Vikings next Sunday when the 14-club league begins firing in earnest.

The Browns, once invincible in the East but shut out of the division crown since 1957, start right off against the arch rival New York Giants in a battle at Cleveland between the conference's top two contenders.

Also on the first day schedule: Pittsburgh at Detroit, St. Louis at Philadelphia, Los Angeles at Baltimore, Chicago at San Francisco and Washington at Dallas.

PACKERS-BROWNS TOUGH

Green Bay and Cleveland shared honors in the month of exhibition play which concluded over the weekend: The Packers scored five straight victories over NFL teams after their 52-20 conquest of the college all stars. The Browns won all five of their exhibition games against league opposition.

Green Bay closed out its pre-season action with a 20-14 decision over the Washington Redskins (1-4) Saturday night and Cleveland overcame the Chicago Bears (0-5) 28-24 Friday night.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh rookies led the Steelers (2-3) 20-9 over the Baltimore Colts (2-2) yesterday, Minnesota (2-3) clouted the Dallas Cowboys (0-5) 45-26 and the San Francisco 49ers (4-1) beat the Los Angeles Rams (2-3) 19-3 Saturday night.

The Giants (2-2-1) racked up the Philadelphia Eagles (0-2) 27-19 in a day game Saturday, and the Detroit Lions (4-1) blanked the St. Louis Cardinals (1-3-1) by 14-0 Friday night.

MARKETS

Investors Lack Inspiration

Market Prices Slip Gradually

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices slipped gradually early this afternoon in slow trading.

Changes were small and there were scattered gains. The list had opened mixed but the tone slowly deteriorated.

There was little in the weekend business and economic news to inspire investors. Without some special provoking, the slow decline of last week carried over to the first half day of this week's trading.

The one weekend development the market watched intently was the latest U2 incident in which a Nationalist Chinese plane was brought down by the Red Chinese Air Force. The tense foreign situation was believed a main factor in last week's market slide.

A business weekly reported dividend reductions and omissions were increasing almost daily. A business newspaper mentioned AT&T and General Motors as being among the blue chip issues that are likely to have good news for shareholders at the end of the year.

At noon the Dow Jones Industrial average was off 2.56 at 588.30, again slipping below the critical 600 level.

Just about all major sections of the market were a shade lower. An exception was the oil group which showed mostly small plus signs.

Amerasia was ahead a little more than 1 and fractional gains included standard (New Jersey) and Royal Dutch. Texaco was off a minimum fraction and Standard Oil (Indiana) was unchanged.

In the best corporate gains, Southern Railway 3s of 1964 added 1/8 to 10 1/2 and Standard Oil of New Jersey 2 1/4 of 1974 advanced the same fraction to 9 1/2.

Bonds Open Up Quietly

NEW YORK (AP)—The bond market opened the new week quietly today. Trading was light and there were few price changes.

Activity on the New York Stock Exchange was insufficient to establish a clear trend in any of the major sections of the corporate list.

Gains and losses were about a standoff in the utility and industrial areas. There was a shade of heaviness in the rails.

In the best corporate gains, Southern Railway 3s of 1964 added 1/8 to 10 1/2 and Standard Oil of New Jersey 2 1/4 of 1974 advanced the same fraction to 9 1/2.

Ten States Face Primary Elections This Week

By The Associated Press
 Names out of the political pot—Bridges, Lee and Benson—are among the hundreds that go before the voters this week in primary nominating elections in 10 states.

Voters nominate their party candidates Tuesday for eight Senate seats, 39 House seats and six state seats in New Hampshire; in Utah, Arizona, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Rhode Island, Washington and Colorado.

Georgia Democrats make their choice Wednesday.

Most of the attention is focused on New Hampshire where four Republicans are waging a hot fight for the seat held by the late Sen. Maurice Murphy. There also are close battles in Arizona, Minnesota and Utah.

SEAT IN JEOPARDY
 Six incumbent senators have either light or no opposition. They are Republicans Norris Cotton of

New Hampshire, George Allen of Vermont and Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, and Democrats John Carroll of Colorado, Warren G. Magnuson of Washington and Carl Hayden of Arizona.

Sen. Maurice Murphy, appointed to fill the vacancy created by Bridges' death late last year, may be unseated. Sen. Wallace Bennett, along with Rep. Perkins Bass, a self-styled Eisenhower Republican.

New Hampshire's other House member, Rep. Chester E. Mer-row, a liberal Republican, competes the field.

Powell, seeking a third term as a possible springboard to higher office, has received stiff opposition from State Rep. John Pillsbury in the Republican gubernatorial campaign.

In Arizona a pair of conservatives are vying for the GOP Senate nomination. They are State Sen. Evan Mecham and Stephen Shadegg, former state chairman and campaign manager for Sen.

Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. Gov. Paul Fannin is unopposed for the Republican nomination to a third term.

The Billie Sol Estes case is included into Minnesota's 6th Congressional District. Rep. H. Carl Anderson, who sold some mining stock to the Peccot Tex, financier, is running hard for the GOP nomination to a 13th term in the House against State Rep. Olegard, who labeled Anderson "the rogue elephant of the Republican party."

Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen of Minnesota is unopposed for re-election.

UNSET EXPECTED
 In Utah, Bennett is favored to win a third-term nomination to the Senate over Lee, but the narrow two-time former governor has pulled political upsets before. Rep. David S. King is the leading candidate for the Utah Democratic senatorial nomination and one of the Republican candidates for King's seat is Reed A. Benson, 34, son of former Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

Wisconsin's Gov. Gaylord Nelson is unopposed for the Democratic senatorial nomination to oppose Wiley this fall. There's a three-way fight for the Republican gubernatorial nomination featuring 1960 GOP nominee Philip G. Kuehn and farmer Wilbur N. Reak. The winner meets Atty. Gen. John W. Reynolds, who is opposed for the Democratic nod.

In Rhode Island, Gov. John A. Notte Jr. has spirited opposition from Woodcock's Mayor Kevin Coleman in the Democratic primary.

In Colorado, Gov. Stephen L. R. McNichols, a Democrat, is unopposed for a third-term nomination.

Sandwiches Top U.S. Menus —We Have Big Ulcers Too

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

America's favorite menu items are sandwiches. We eat 100 million daily. There may be no conception, but some 18 million Americans also have ulcers.

A hurried here, has a line of crink coats for this season. The coats will sell for $385 each. The dolls come extra.

Next to headaches, the most common form of pain is caused by backaches.

Girdles for men aren't really new. In the first half of the 19th century, paddy gentlemen in London and Paris customarily wore corsets to achieve a slimmer waistline.

Advertising isn't normally considered a dangerous occupation, but a survey showed advertising men have a life expectancy of only 57.9 years, 10 years below the average for men in all types of jobs.

FAVORITE SCENT

It has been found you can catch a house easier by baiting a trap with bacon rather than cheese.

British researchers discovered that the favorite scent of women, whether single or married, was orange blossoms.

One of Russia's biggest film stars is Innokenty Smoktsovsky. Imagine trying to get that one on an American theater marquee.

Your 6-year-old child is smarter than you think. Tests of first-grade children show that most have a vocabulary of 2,500 words — although the one they seem to use most in the home is "No."

THAT IS WIDE

Arraignment Set on Arson Charge

JACKSON (UPI) — Jackson County authorities today planned to arraign a Dearborn man on charges of arson and making a false report.

Leo Korte, 31, who is confined to a hospital here, was accused of setting fire to his car and then stabbing himself last Thursday near Mount Hope Road just off I-94 near here.

State police officers said Korte at first told them he was robbed of $300 and stabbed by a high-schooler but later admitted the story was a hoax.

13 Governors, Truman to Honor Constitution

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman and the governors of the 13 original states will be here next Monday for ceremonies marking the 175th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution.

Albert M. Greenfield, chairman, said Truman will speak at ceremonies outside Independence hall.

Slowest Season for Hurricanes in 30 Years

MIAMI (UPI) — Weather forecasters said yesterday the first half of the 1962 hurricane season was the slowest in the last 30 years.

Chief Forecaster Gordon Dunn said, if hurricanes develop during the coming week, the height of the season will have passed with only one real storm — Alpha.

However, Dunn said at least one or two tropical storms probably would develop before the hurricane season ends Nov. 15.

"We've still got two more months to go, and I wouldn't give up on the season yet," said Dunn. "It's like a baseball game—not over until the last out."

U.A.R. to Snub Session of Arab League Council

CAIRO (U.P.) — The United Arab Republic will not be represented when the fall session of the Arab League Council begins Thursday, it was announced today.

The session originally was scheduled for Sept. 1 but it was put off in the hope that the U.A.R. might change its mind and attend.

Britain Likes Slapsticks

LONDON (AP) — The newest thing in British entertainment is new silent movies in the old Mack Sennett-custard pie opera style — subtitled, heroes saved in the nick, heroes falling off cliffs. Comedian Bob Monkhouse & Co. will do 51 slapsticks for television and movies at an estimated million-dollar cost.

Strike by Plumbers Averted in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — A plumbers strike in the Detroit area was averted yesterday when members of Local 98 of the Journeymen Plumbers Union ratified a new contract with two employers.

A strike deadline had been set for today but the settlement, which the union called equitable, blocked that.

The 2,300 member union reached agreements with the Detroit Association of Plumbing Contractors.

and the Mechanical Contractors Association of Detroit.

The settlement, for the first time in the union's history, was reached with the help of state and federal mediators.

U. S. Sending Home Filipinos Aiding Laos

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — A total of 116 Filipino technicians employed by the U.S. military advisory assistance group in Laos have returned home so far in the pullout of foreign military personnel from the neutralized country.

The latest group of 58 arrived Saturday. The remaining 234 will be flown back in groups twice weekly.

Give Vaccine to Thousands in Polio Epidemic

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Medical authorities battling a polio epidemic in Pasadena gave oral vaccine to thousands of residents of a 65-block area Sunday.

Six cases of paralytic polio have been reported here in four weeks — the first cases in Pasadena since 1959.

Dr. Morris L. Grover, city health officer, officially labeled the outbreak an epidemic.

Four clinics were set up to give free immunizations to the area's residents. Ten thousand of the 25,000 residents responded.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Youngsters swimming in the children's pool at Bellevue Country Club Sunday came out as white as snow.

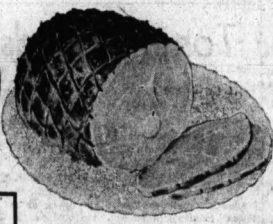

Pranksters dumped soap into the pool Saturday night creating a sea of suds.

MSUO Given $450,000 by Foundation

The Pryae Foundation today announced gifts of $450,000 to Michigan State University Oakland for a major nuclear physics teaching and research project, a high-speed digital computer, and a student residence.

The Pryae Foundation was created by Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Pryae of Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Pryae, long-time president and board chairman of the Baldwin Rubber Co. of Pontiac, has been one of the community's most active business and civic leaders.

Today's benefactions are the third largest to MSUO since Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson gave their 1,400-acre estate and $2 million to found it in January 1957 and the Kresge Foundation gave $1.5 million for the Kresge Library. The funds will provide up to $65,000 for a 2-million volt Van deGraaff particle accelerator and accompanying equipment, as well as approximately $50,000 for the computer.

HARRY M. PRYAE

Chancellor D. B. Varner said the accelerator will give the outstanding physicist on MSU's faculty the initial equipment to start research projects which are of fundamental importance to nuclear physics. It will also give MSU students the opportunity to work in this field. The computer will serve research and instructional programs both in the sciences and in the social sciences.

The new student residence to be named Pryae House, will accommodate 96 students in two halls and will be similar to the two existing ones, Aubert and Fitzgerald houses. Work will start on it this fall and it will cost approximately $35,000.

"Such a private gift as this," said Chancellor Varner, "is the only way such expensive equipment necessary to the growth of an important new university could have been obtained this soon. The costs of equipping a new university are heavy and cannot always be met, or met in time, without the aid of the community."

"This important gift will be of inestimable benefit in helping MSUO launch a research program of fundamental importance. It obviously will be a great boon to our students. We are indeed happy to have an additional student residence building and to have the honor of naming it after Mr. and Mrs. Pryae. The Pryaes have always been outstanding contributors to the business and social welfare of this community, and the durability will be a lasting memorial to their achievement and generosity."

"We hope that the vision and generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Pryae will be a source of inspiration to all of us."

Coolish on Tuesday, Warm Wednesday

Showers will be escorted out of the Pontiac vicinity tonight, with cooler weather ushered in, the weatherman says.

Following tonight's expected 52 low, the mercury will climb to the mid-to-high 60's degrees Tuesday.

Temperatures will average near to two degrees above the normal high of 71 to 75 and the normal low 47 to 55 throughout southern lower Michigan during the next five days.

Warmer temperatures are expected Wednesday, cooler Friday and a warm trend again Saturday.

The lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. today was 71 degrees at 5 a.m. By 1 p.m. the reading was 76.

Insurance Official, Blue Cross to Talk

FROM OUR NEWS WIRE

DETROIT — Michigan Blue Cross, seeking a 50 per cent increase in hospitalization insurance premiums for Michigan citizens over 65, expects to learn the fate of its request today.

State insurance commissioner Sherwood Colburn was scheduled to meet here with Blue Cross officials in their headquarters. He said Blue Cross had asked him to judge on two issues.

Whether Blue Cross should be allowed to increase the cost of 20,000 policies covering persons over 65 from $203 to $306 annually.

Whether Michigan Blue Cross will be allowed to join in an extended coverage national program for those over 65 that will cost $380 a year.

"The visit was scheduled over the weekend, as the Detroit Free Press reported a Blue Cross official had hinted at another general rate hike for 3½ million Blue Cross members."

"There has been no request to the insurance commissioner's office for any general hike in rates and none has been discussed, even informally," Colburn said.

He added that his office would "take a good hard look at all the figures" before reaching any decision on rate increases.

A Blue Cross official said the new program for senior citizens is scheduled to be launched with a promotional campaign this fall.

He said the plan places increased stress on nursing-home care and increases the coverage from 30 to 70 days.

Doctors' visits to nursing-home patients would be covered under the new plan, he said.

Nationalists Take U2 Blame

GOP Folks in One Big Huddle

ROASTS DEMOCRATS — While Republicans enjoyed their ox-roast Saturday, their gubernatorial candidate, George W. Romney, was putting Democrats on the grill in a leisurely talk before 5,000 picnickers. Also shown on the speakers' platform are GOP state treasurer candidate Glenn S. Allen Jr., the back of whose head is shown left of Romney; Michigan Supreme Court

Romney Claims Backing of Disgruntled Unionists

By JIM DYGERT

Saturday was a nice day for a picnic, and George F. Romney enjoyed it by telling how he expected to win in the Nov. 6 election with help from disgruntled Democrats and union members.

"In a campaign experience" speech before some 5,000 attending the third annual Republican picnic and ox-roast at the John F. Ivory Farm on Cooley Lake Road, Romney talked about Democrats he met during his campaign who said they would vote for him for governor.

"They can't get anywhere in the Democratic party," Romney said, "because it's controlled by political bosses."

He read a letter he said was from "a minor UAW-CIO official" that, he said, claimed there were "rabid unionists who would vote for Hitler if told to" by union leaders — but that there were also many other union members whose votes union leaders could not control.

"We wear Swinson buttons but we'll vote for Romney," the GOP candidate read from the letter.

"I've heard," said Romney, "that they've organized a Democrats anonymous. When a Democrat feels he is going to vote for Romney, he calls up a fellow Democrat to come over and talk to him until the seizure passes."

The former American Motors Corp. president went on to charge his Democratic opponent, incumbent Governor George Romney, with

Peiping Honors Unit for Downing Airplane, Blisters U. S.

From Our News Wires

TAIPEI, Formosa — Nationalist China today assumed full responsibility for the flight of an American-made U2 plane which the Communists claim to have shot down over the China mainland.

Peiping practically ignored Taipei and laid the whole blame on the United States.

It lost a propaganda barrage that blistered U.S. policies on Cuba, Berlin, Southeast Asia and other trouble spots around the world.

Peiping radio said the plane was shot down over southeast China yesterday by "an air force unit." It gave no further details and did not disclose the pilot's fate.

Peiping radio reported that the Communists honored an air force unit for shooting down the plane. The unit was not identified.

The Nationalists confirmed that one of the high-altitude U2s they have been operating for nearly two years disappeared yesterday on a routine reconnaissance mission over the Red mainland.

BOUGHT FROM LOCKHEED — A Nationalist spokesman said the U2s were bought from the Lockheed Corp. in the United States in 1960 and put into operation that December.

A State Department spokesman said in Washington that the U.S. purchases were made with U.S. approval, but that operation of the planes was solely a Nationalist matter.

Officials admitted privately, however, that it could be assumed that information obtained from Nationalist U2 flights would be turned over to the United States in the normal course of intelligence exchange between the two allies.

Nationalist officials said intelligence experts were trying to learn just what happened — whether the extremely high-altitude plane was forced down to lower altitudes by engine trouble or whether the Chinese Reds possibly had used Soviet ground-to-air missiles to knock it down.

McNamara Urges Call-Up Authority

WASHINGTON (P) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today the requested presidential authority to call up 150,000 reservists is needed to enable the United States to respond "promptly and decisively" if the international situation worsens suddenly.

McNamara appeared before the Senate Armed Services Committee with Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to urge speedy approval of a resolution submitted to Congress Friday by the White House.

McNamara said the regular U.S. military forces "are strong today, and their strength continues to improve."

"The authority for a limited call-up of reserves, however, would provide us with a flexibility of response which could be crucial if the international situation deteriorates suddenly and specific crises occur," he said.

McNamara testified behind closed doors but newsmen were given copies of some of his prepared testimony.

He said he hoped sincerely it would not be necessary to use the authority to call up 150,000 reservists while Congress is out of session.

But he said the resolution's approval would permit a prompt response to any crisis, "short of measures which would require a declaration of a national emergency — an action which would involve implications of a most serious nature."

"President Kennedy has made crystal clear his recognition of the threats with which we are faced, and the policy of this government not to allow the export of Communist aggressive purposes by force in this hemisphere or in other areas of the world," McNamara said.

"It is obvious to all Americans that we are in a period of acute international tension. It is also obvious that the forces opposed to us have the capability to precipitate crises, at the moment of their choosing, in many parts of the world — and that we must be able to respond promptly and decisively."

The secretary said the United States at any time may "face a challenge requiring an immediate and effective response," and that the enactment of the resolution would constitute "an endorsement by the American people of our determination to make that response, and provide us with the means to do so."

Rollett said this gain is substantially above the industrywide increase of 20.2 per cent recorded through July.

"This means that we are getting our former Buick owners back, plus a lot of new ones," Rollett said, adding:

"With our 1963 line of cars blanketing the price classes in which eight out of ten new cars are sold, we have every reason to believe our current sales momentum will accelerate in 1963."

"One '62 model cleanup is progressing at its finest rate in years and assures that Buick dealers will enter the new model sales year under a full head of steam."

He said Buick dealers through August delivered nearly 271,000 cars, a 47.4 per cent increase over the same eight-month period of last year.

Frost Has Note for JFK

NEW YORK (AP) — Poet Robert Frost came back Sunday from a trip to the Soviet Union and implicitly told about a secret and a few surprises.

The secret, the 88-year-old poet said, was a message from Soviet Premier Khrushchev to President Kennedy.

Asked to disclose the message, he wagged a finger at newsmen and replied: "Oh, no, that's up to the President. I couldn't do that." As for planning to meet with the President, Frost answered: "I don't plan; I wait for the President."

The white-haired poet then disclosed that Khrushchev believed the United States would not fight.

"Khrushchev said he feared for us modern liberals," Frost declared. "He said we were too liberal to fight. I suppose that he thought we'd stand there for the next hundred years saying, 'On the one hand—but on the other hand.'"

Frost spent 10 days touring the Soviet Union, during which he read poetry and met with many Russian leaders.

"I had a great time," he said. "I went over there with preconceptions to confirm or correct, and I didn't have to correct many."

He noted that "the Russians give you the feeling that we

Soblen Suffers Brain Damage

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert Soblen has suffered serious brain damage that "will take some time even to assess," his doctors said today.

The runaway spy lay in a coma racked by convulsions more than 100 hours after taking a massive dose of barbiturate to block attempts to fly him to the United States to begin serving a life sentence.

A medical bulletin this morning said:

"Dr. Soblen is less deeply comatose than he was but he is still unconscious. Convulsions continue to occur frequently and constitute the main cause of anxiety."

Dr. Cyril G. Barnes, the physician who heads the medical team fighting for Soblen's life, said the 61-year-old psychiatrist had suffered brain damage as a result of lack of oxygen.

He said it probably occurred while Soblen was being rushed to Hillingdon Hospital after being found unconscious in the ambulance.

Pringle will make to others the value of making such investments. The university, as the source of educated men and of new knowledge, creates for the community both wealth and good. Gifts that increase the university's ability to produce, are thus both the noblest and most fundamental kind of investments. They are returned to the community many fold.

The Pryle Foundation was established last year as a vehicle for charitable gifts by the Pryles during and after their lifetimes. President Alfred C. Girard of the Community National Bank of Pontiac, and James L. Howlett, Pontiac attorney, are trustees. The trustees said:

"The Pryles have always been primarily interested in Oakland County business, charitable and educational activities. They are gratified that the Pryle Foundation can support a project by which this community through the faculty and students of MSUO, can benefit the nation and bring further credit to Oakland County, to Michigan, and to the university."

Battle Blaze at Kern Home

4 Area Departments Fight Fire at $100,000 Structure

A $100,000 Bloomfield Hills home was still burning at noon today after four area fire departments battled the blaze which was discovered at 5 a.m.

The owner, Ernest F. Kern, who is the son of the founder of Kern's department store in Detroit, told The Pontiac Press reporter that he had started the coffee maker and gone down the road to get the morning paper.

When he returned he smelled smoke, he said, and thought it was coffee burning.

When he entered the kitchen he found the entire room engulfed in flames.

Turning he ran up the front stairs to raise his wife and 10-year-old son Otto.

When the family started down the stairs, flames were racing upwards, and they fled down a back stairway in their neighborhood.

The older part of the house at 323 Ridgewood Road, which was built in 1912 served the most damage.

It was of English design in wood, stone and plaster. A new section had been added and this too burned furiously.

Swimming and wading pools delayed time and again as the entire force of the Troy, Bloomfield Hills fire departments strove to bring the blaze under control.

Hundreds of feet of hose were stretched down roads, and lawns were churned up by the heavy fire equipment being set up beside the pools.

Because his older children had grown up and left, Kern said that he had planned on selling the house soon and would have set the price at $100,000.

5,000 Troops Occupy Algiers

ALGIER (AP)—Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella and regular army Col. Houari Boumedienne were Algeria's rulers today and preparing to nominate the nation's first legislature heavily weighted in their favor.

Boumedienne's march 5,000 men of his Communist-equipped Army into Algiers Sunday ending the chaotic, seven-weeks occupation of the city of rebellious guerrilla forces of Wilaya (zone) No. 4.

The smart, well-disciplined regular troops were given a tumultuous welcome as they drove up and down the streets of the capital in flagrant violation of an agreement with Wilaya 4's leaders to demilitarize the city.

With roar after roar of cheering, the civilian crowds expressed both their pride in their national people's army and their relief to be freed from the oppressive Wilaya 4 regime.

Soviets Allow GI Convoy on Berlin Corridor

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet guards let U.S. troop convoys through to West Germany from Berlin today without incident, an American Army spokesman said.

There were 30 officers and men, moving over the Communist-controlled highway in 42 vehicles. They were elements of the 3rd Battle Group, 6th Infantry, on their way from West Berlin to the West German frontier.

Germans using the highway between West Berlin and West Germany had a more difficult time.

West Berlin police reported a man of about 25 and a woman of about 20 were arrested by East German police at the Marienborn checkpoint. The cause of the arrest was not known.

Poll Shows Staebleer With 48.2 Per Cent, GOP Man 50.1

DETROIT (AP)—Republican Alvin Bentley held a slight edge over his Democratic opponent, Neil Staebleer, in their race for congressman-at-large, a poll conducted for the Detroit News indicated today.

The News said if the election were held today Bentley, former congressman from Owosso, would take 50.1 per cent of the vote against 48.2 for Staebleer of Ann Arbor, former Democratic state chairman.

"Michigan's first at-large congressional race in 50 years is a nip-and-tuck contest, with the Republican nominee now leading by a margin too small to be considered significant," the News said.

A poll on the Michigan governor's race announced yesterday by the News showed Republican George Romney leading Democrat incumbent Gov. John B. Swainson by 50.5 per cent to 48.8.

Romney got 53.3 per cent of the Wayne County vote, Bentley's percentage is 33.7.

Swainson took 63.3 per cent of the Wayne County vote and Staebleer, 64.3.

The News said, "Outstate, Bentley would get 58.2 per cent of the vote if the election were held today, Romney only 58 per cent. In the same area, Swainson would get 41.6 per cent, Staebleer 40.3."

Too Little Ineffective

Don't make the mistake of applying make-up too sparingly in your attempt to achieve a natural-looking effect.

For results that are both natural-looking and glamorous it is important that you give your complexion full make-up coverage.

Whether you are using make-up in a tube, stick, cake, or bottle, cover every blemish and blend the color to an even tone.

Your eyes and lips also should be adequately made up to give them definition and color. Take enough time to line your eyes, give your lashes a luxuriant look with generous amounts of mascara, and pencil your eyebrows carefully while shaping them for an attractive expression.

Yod lipstick, as well, should be applied with care and artistry, using enough color to give your lips a smooth, full contour.

Vies With Job for Love

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a guy who thinks more of his job than he does of me. He is an insurance agent who loves his work and is trying to get ahead.

ABBY

He says, "Don't bother me, I have work to do." We never go out any more because he's either too tired or wants to study. He practically ignores me and we aren't even married yet. Should I stick with him?

IGNORED: Your boy friend's ambition is impressive, but he's courting a career — not a girl. If you want a go-getter in business and a go-to-sleep at home, he's your agent.

DEAR ABBY: I am allergic

Quick Look at Candy Is Not Wrong

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: The other afternoon while my daughter and I were visiting in the house of a friend, the hostess passed out a box of candy.

When it was passed to my daughter she looked at each piece before selecting one that she liked. Instead of taking just any piece.

I told her later that while it was all right to do this at home, when offered candy in someone else's house it is bad manners to "look the candy over."

She thinks it is perfectly all right to do this no matter where. I would like your opinion on this.

A: If she fingered the candy or took a very long time in selecting a piece, then you are right. But if she merely looked it over quickly before choosing one that she liked, it was not wrong.

Q: My wedding ring is a plain gold band which I have not had off my finger since the day I was married.

At the time of our marriage my husband couldn't afford anything better but now that he has become more affluent he would like to give me a new wedding ring, a platinum one set with diamonds, for our anniversary.

I would like to know if it would be proper to wear both rings?

A: Certainly you may wear both rings together. The plain gold one will, of course, continue to be your wedding ring and the new one can be worn as an ornamental guard over it.

Q: Last year another young woman and I gave a baby shower for a friend. The baby died soon after birth and she returned all the presents.

Would it be proper now to give her another baby shower? She is expecting a baby shortly.

A: It will be entirely proper to give her another baby shower. However, I think it would be best to wait until the baby has safely arrived and mother and child are home from the hospital and then give the shower.
