Car and Train Collide in West, Kill 11 in Auto

Crew Only Learns of Accident After Arrival at Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—An ancient passenger car slammed into the Southern Pacific's Golden State Limited today, killing 11 persons in the car.

The Limited, traveling at 75 m.p.h., continued on its way into Phoenix's Union Station, some three miles away, and only then did the train crew discover the accident.

Bits of human flesh and a car fender were found around the forward truck of the second half of the diesel engine.

The mortuary attendant said that the dead were three children and eight adults, but the bodies were so badly mangled that he was unable to determine their sex.

He said he believed they were of Spanish-American or Indian descent.

The train crew said they felt a "jar" when the car hit the train. Walter A. Vandergriff, who was driving nearby and saw the accident, said:

"It sounded like a hammer hitting a two-by-four."

At the station the train paused two hours for minor repairs and continued on its way from Los Angeles to Chicago. No one aboard was hurt.

The accident took place at a level crossing marked only by a standard wooden railroad sign. Bodies of the dead were strewn along a 30-foot-deep, 200-foot gulch at the base of the railroad embankment.

One survivor, an 18-month-old girl, was found whimpering in the bushes.

She was taken to the Maricopa County Hospital, where surgeons operated on her for a fractured skull and a broken jaw.

The Arizona highway patrol said it is believed to be the worst auto accident in the state's history.

Pot-O-Gold Up to $200 Mark—Try Your Luck!

Even though a winner was found for Pot-O-Gold just last week, the prize money has already climbed back up to the $200 mark. 6 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

450 Years Before Herod

MALACHI

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first in a series of eight studies of the setting and the people vital to the most joyful of all events in religious history—the Birth of Jesus.

The Tale in Bethlehem; 'Ah, That It Were So'

By GEORGE CORNELL

THE STORY OF CHRIST and His mission on earth begins many centuries before His birth. Prophets long had foretold His coming. But to an ordinary citizen of Jerusalem at the time of Jesus' birth, it was hard to believe that the time had finally arrived. This might have been his story:

The words whisper down through the years. Haunting words. Lofly words. Words rustling like the winds among the tents of olden Israel. But who can still believe them?

In these corrupted days, with that Roman cat's paw, Herod, on the throne of Judea, it is hard to trust the old prophecies—that an exalted leader will come to shield the people, even all the nations of the earth.

But yet, the words persist, swirling through memory like hidden waters, flowing down from father to son, through all the generations:

"...And His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor... the Mighty God... the everlasting Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end..."

Old words, dimmed by years, muted by graves of broken hopes. They are in the book of that silver-voiced prophet Isaiah, who lived 700 years before this present tainted reign of Herod.

But the words still blaze and linger: "Have yet not known? Have yet not heard? Hath it not been told you from the beginning? ... Behold, a King shall reign in righteousness... And the stretching out of His wings shall fill the breadth of the lands."

But how? Who could lift up such a peerless majesty, with Judea once again beneath a foreign heel, with our people scattered to the four winds, and only a remnant left in Jerusalem, and strangers all about?

Yet, we brood and yearn.

Even now, there comes this new, rash tale from Bethlehem about a God-sent child. Ah, that it were so. But it is merely gossip by unlettered herdsmen, the poor and quarry slaves. They, too, recall Isaiah's words:

"Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a Son and shall call His name Immanuel... With righteousness shall he judge the poor... with equity to the meek of the earth... And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed."

Musty old words, impossible sounding now. Already this land teems with graven gods, with fancied spirits of men's devising. Unlike these, Isaiah foresaw a living, real deliverer:

"...Unto us a Son is given... And He will lift up an ensign to the nations from afar..."

Puzzling words. Did Isaiah mean a wholly mortal ruler? His passions dwelt much on human matters, against injustices by priests and nobles. And yet he said this coming one would also reinforce the soul.

"...He shall be as an hiding place from the wind, a covert from the tempest... And a highway shall be there and a way... The redeemed shall walk there... The ransomed of the Lord... With joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation."

What expectations! But hardly still believable. Even in Isaiah's own day, even though he held aristocratic prestige in the royal court (Continued on Page 26, Col. 1)

Seek Solution to Plea for Help on Toy Balloon

The mystery of an SOS note attached to a toy balloon found yesterday near a Telegraph road restaurant remained unsolved today by area Air Force, police, and Civil Defense officials.

Signed by a "James Patterson," the note requested help saying he was in "great pain" after a plane crash north of Bay City. He said he was using the last part of his gasoline to float 10 balloons and that his plane was burning.

The discovery of the balloon by restaurant worker Alfred Cordingley at 1725 S. Telegraph Rd. began a search of the Bay City sector and check of aircraft movements which have turned up no evidence of a crash or missing plane.

A U. S. Air Force meteorologist said today there had been no winds since Dec. 1 that could have blown the balloon down from Bay City. State Police at East Tawas and West Branch are continuing to scan their sectors today for any signs of a crashed aircraft.

No one has figured out how aviation fuel can be used to send balloons aloft.

Courthouse Suit Held Up

Corporation Counsel Wins Time to Gather Needed Information

The hearing on the lawsuit filed last month by the Oakland County Taxpayers' League was adjourned indefinitely today at the request of Oakland County Corporation Counsel Harry J. Merritt.

Merritt requested the adjournment in order that the county might gather information as requested in the League's bill of complaint.

The county official gave a promise that the county would undertake no "major commitments on the building until the suit has been heard."

The suit charges that the county supervisors planned the proposed new courthouse without legal authority and padded county budgets to accumulate building funds.

Jeers Hit Ears: 'Jibs' and 'Jib' Just Don't Jibe

Because of an error in the answer material furnished The Press by the firm that compiles our weekly Pot-O-Gold puzzles, the word "jib" was incorrectly listed on Page 32 last Friday as the answer to Question 13 in Puzzle 27.

In answer to readers' queries, the correct word was "jibs," as indicated in the illustration on Page 1 of the same issue.

The Press points out, however, that the correct word (jibs) was used as the basis for judging the 9,639 entries received—consequently the error, although regrettable, did in no way affect the outcome of last week's contest.

Negotiate for 20 Hours

Fisher Strike Continues

A 20-hour marathon bargaining session between Fisher Body Division and UAW union officials ended this morning with both sides still deadlocked over settlement of the six-day strike of 4,300 Fisher plant workers.

After both sides adjourned at 9:30 after beginning at 1:30 p.m. yesterday afternoon, officials from management and union both issued "no report" statements.

Resumption of talks is expected at 1 p.m. Tuesday.

The strike, which began last Tuesday evening, has idled 5,000 Pontiac Motor Division workers due to the shortage of auto bodies. Confirmation as to how many additional workers would be laid off as the strike continues, was not immediately available.

The walkout resulted from a strike vote taken by members of Fisher Local 596 UAW who charged management with "speed ups" and other local grievances.

The workers left the plant after a five-day session between management and union failed Tuesday.

Over the weekend, Mayor William W. Donaldson wrote Thomas F. Wietborn, Fisher Body plant manager, asking resumption of work while negotiations continued.

High Interest Rates May Affect Roads

Mounting bond interest rates, which will swallow up large bites of the increased state and federal highway budgets, may force Michigan to reconsider its recent veto of toll roads, George N. Higgins said today.

Higgins, chairman of the dormant Michigan Turnpike Authority, said in a statement he feels turnpike projects can be financed despite the current tight money problem.

He offered the state "assistance" from his authority if too much of the increased gas and weight tax goes in interest instead of pavement.

George M. Foster, chief deputy highway commissioner, was unenthusiastic over toll roads. He said the department doesn't yet consider advancing interest rates a problem.

State Electors Casting Votes Today for Ike

LANSING (AP)—Michigan cast its official vote for President Eisenhower today.

By law and custom, 20 Republican electors chosen in the Nov. 5 general election balloting gathered in the state senate chamber to vote for Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon.

A certificate recording their votes was to be sent to Washington where the electoral vote of the entire nation will be canvassed when Congress reconvenes next month.

The technicality is that when voters marked for the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket last month they chose not them directly but the slate of Republican electors who in turn register the state's preference for President and vice president.

Leaders Talk at Gettysburg to Gain Quiet

Hoping to Work Out Closer Friendship for Both Countries

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and India's Prime Minister Nehru set out for the privacy of Eisenhower's Pennsylvania farm today for secret talks on world issues including communism and Red China.

Eisenhower picked up the Indian leader at Blair House, the government's guest residence. They started immediately on the drive of some 80 miles to the farm near Gettysburg.

There, without even their advisers on hand, the two national leaders will have opportunity for hours of uninterrupted private discussion. They plan to stay until midmorning tomorrow.

The basic aim is the achievement of closer relations and better understanding between the United States and India—not the working out of specific agreements.

Eisenhower was smiling broadly as he alighted from the automobile at Blair House, to greet his guest.

"Good morning, your excellency," Eisenhower said. Nehru shook hands vigorously, and Eisenhower escorted him to the limousine.

They climbed in, posed briefly in the back seat for photographers, then sped away.

About 500 spectators gathered to witness the departure.

Nine additional automobiles, carrying Secret Service men, reporters, photographers and TV and newsreel cameramen followed the car carrying Eisenhower and Nehru.

Nehru, who recently entertained Premier Chou En-Lai of Red China, was expected to tell the President that Chou sincerely wants to clear away Washington-Peking antagonisms. Nehru himself would like the United States to accept Communist China in the United Nations and eventually recognize it.

Flew in Ike's Plane

In a talk to fellow countrymen at the Indian Embassy last night, Nehru said Chou had received a warm welcome in India, and he added:

"If the President of the United States were to come to India, and I hope he will, we will give him an equally great welcome."

Nehru described India's role in international affairs as being that (Continued on Page 26, Col. 5)

Defeated Lions Cheered on Return From Chicago

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

A cheering throng of fans filled Willow Run airport last night to welcome the Lions' football team despite the fact that the Chicago Bears whipped Detroit, 38-21, to win the Western Division title.

Every member of the team was given a roaring cheer from the estimated 2,000 people as each came through terminal gates, but the greatest applause went up for Bobby Layne, veteran Lions' quarterback who suffered a brain concussion early in the second quarter of the game.

Layne walked into the crowd with his head down, so as not to make his water-filled eyes obvious.

"I'm so sorry we couldn't have brought them a victory," he said. "Isn't this terrific, we get whipped and they treat us like champions," said rookie Don McIlhenny.

A huge sign hung in front of the gateways reading, "There's Next Year."

It was altogether different from the signs which hung at Wrigley Field in Chicago with such lines as "We Want Lion Blood," and "We Want Lion Meat."

Detroit's rugged defensive line was wrecked by the Bears, led by big Rick Casares, J. C. Carline and Harlon Hill.

The Lions' running game, minus Layne for three periods, was held to only 51 yards, the lowest output of the season.

The Bears however gained 307 yards rushing and 144 passing including 190 by Casares himself.

Riots, free-for-alls and injuries marred the game as spectators raced onto the field three times.

Layne was injured in the second quarter when he was hit by defensive end Ed Meadows after he had already pitched out to half-back Gene Gedman.

Lion officials called the act "deliberate and vicious," and they have begun proceedings to have Meadows barred from football.

"This has become common in the field," said coach Buddy Parker in referring to the riots on the field, "and it was Meadows who also put Layne out of the game in Pittsburgh last year," he added.

The loss snuffed Detroit's bid for a 4th Western Division title in five years and sends the Bears against the New York Giants Dec. 30 for the National Football League and World's championship.

Plan Sanitary Hearing for Heath Today

A Probate Court sanitary hearing for Alvin Heath, 33, of Avon Township, who terrorized his neighborhood with a six-hour barrage of rifle shots Dec. 5, was scheduled for 2 p.m. today.

Heath's wife, Jean, requested the hearing after his arrest on charges of assault with intent to murder.

The gunman was subdued by sheriff's deputies who stuck out a half-hour fusillade of 32 shots before slipping up to the door of his house while he was inside reloading his gun.

Neighbors told police he had been shooting wildly around the neighborhood for three weeks, and that afternoon had riddled a neighbor's car with 20 shots before firing at the neighbor.

Shoestring's All It Takes to Get Foreign Diploma

ZURICH—Anyone who wants to hang a foreign diploma on the wall can do it on a shoestring. Europe offers everything from a six-year curriculum leading to a major degree to a four-weeks' study course plus intensive sightseeing. Dollars go a long way on the Continent nowadays, and European tuition is incredibly low.

You can, for example, take a semester at a Swiss University for $80 or two semesters at the Sorbonne for $6. Most countries have government-run restaurants and student hostels where prices are way, way down.

The Case dello Students in Italian university towns provides board and lodging for $50 a month, and similar rates are offered by the Colegio Mayores in Spain. A summer course for foreigners at so venerable an institution as Oxford runs $200.

Girl Seriously Hurt as Train Hits Auto

A 14-year-old girl was critically injured and three other teenagers were shaken up when their car was struck by a Grand Trunk & Western Railway passenger train at the West Huron street crossing at midnight Saturday, Pontiac police said.

Karen Scott, of 1233 Applewood Rd., White Lake Township suffered a fractured jaw and critical head injuries, authorities at Pontiac General Hospital said.

She was with Walter W. Philipian Jr., 16, of 1088 S. Lake Dr., who told police he was heading west at about 25 miles per hour and did not notice the red flashing signals.

Philipian was treated for a bruised hip. Two other youths suffered no apparent injuries, hospital authorities said.

They are Frederick W. Spruth, 18, and Gaylen R. Owen, 15, both of Oxbow Lake.

The northbound train was traveling about 25 miles an hour, police said. It struck the rear of the car.

Kidnap Jeweler, Nab Cut Gems Worth $300,000

BURBANK, Calif. (U)—Two gunmen abducted a New York jewelry company owner as he left an airport last night, police said, and robbed him of $300,000 in cut diamonds and emeralds.

Police said David Gurfin, 49, told them he was forced to drive a car at gunpoint through this Los Angeles suburb while one of the holdup men ransacked his briefcase seeking two envelopes containing the gems.

When he placed his bags in a rented car at the airport the men got in from each side, Gurfin told police.

The victim phoned police from a filling station after his abductors made him stop the car.

Find Two Bodies on Country Road

BALDWIN (INS)—The bodies of a Baldwin man and his sister-in-law, who were reported missing yesterday, were found on a seldom-traveled Lake County road.

Sheriff's officers said James E. Smith, 56, was driving his sister-in-law, Corinne Hankins, 38, to Reed City Tuesday when their auto left the road and hit a tree.

Troopers found the bodies a quarter of a mile apart and theorized the pair started out for help but died from exposure when temperatures dropped to 15 below zero.

Choose Gifts for Family Enjoyment

By JANET ODELL
Some gifts are meant for the whole family to enjoy. For example, if your family just adores outdoor meals, a charcoal burner or barbecue equipment would be an interesting and welcome gift. If you play Canasta every evening, an automatic card shuffler would please everyone.

Some families enjoy keeping track of the weather each day and try to make their own predictions. For such a group a combination thermometer, barometer and humidity chart might be chosen. Each instrument is housed in a wooden case with brass fittings; the three are strung together on brass chains.

A pre-Christmas gift might be a Merry Christmas rug to put just inside the front door. Red, with a green holly design, it has a greeting printed across it in metallic thread.

Why not give a gift of a wall hanger to hold shoes while they are being shined? You could include a supply of shoe polish in the most popular colors and a polishing brush. For the same fastidious family a battery-operated miniature vacuum cleaner to keep the dust off clothing and out of the family car would be different.

Did you ever think of giving an Historical Atlas to the Bible to your favorite family? Children interested in geography would be interested in comparing these maps with modern ones of the same area.

If the family does a lot of informal entertaining, they will keep perfect record of joyous vacations, most families have dozens of snapshots. Instead of keeping them in boxes, you can mount them in the new-type photo albums which lie flat when they are open.

Arrest of Seven Solves Thefts

Youths Admit Breakins at 52 Different Places in Oakland County

The arrests of seven youths, three of them juveniles, have cleared up 52 different breakins in Oakland County, Sheriff Department detectives said today.

Most of the articles taken by the boys during the past four months have been recovered by investigators. They were reportedly stolen from homes, golf clubs, and cottages in White Lake, Novi, Highland, Springfield and Bloomfield Townships.

The group admitted the burglaries following lengthy questioning by Sheriff Frank Irons and detectives Leo Hazen and Harry Maur.

Two of them, Carl Lipkuman, 17, and John Kidder, 18, both of Detroit, had been arraigned last Friday for some of the breakins and were bound over to Circuit Court after waiving examination. The Circuit Court hearing will be Dec. 26.

Leroy Howard, 18, and William Shoults, 18, both of White Lake Township, were to be arraigned today in Justice Court for breaking and entering in the night time. The juveniles are also from the White Lake area.

Detectives said the youths, operating in two teams, raided some of the same places two or three times. They are also wanted for questioning by the Brighton State Police concerning six breakins in the Howell sector.

Fall Through Ice Drowns Young Boy

Thin ice was termed the cause of the drowning Saturday of Tom Dunham, 12, at Hemingway Lake in Lapeer County.

Lapeer County Sheriff's officers and state police searched all night, finding the boy's body at 9 a.m. yesterday morning in 12 feet of water.

The boy was taking a shortcut home after watching a Boy Scout demonstration across the lake from his home on Saturday.

He lived with his mother, Mrs. Virginia Dunham. His father, Chester, is of Flint.

Father Faces Charges in Children's Deaths

OAKLAND, Calif. (U)—Authorities planned to file two murder charges today against Gerald Clayton, 23, accused of setting the fire that suffocated two of his three children.

The third child, 2-year-old Stephanie was rescued Friday night by a baby sitter, Mrs. Clayton returned from a bar to find Dion, 4, and her brother, Gerald Jr., 3, had perished. Mrs. Clayton was separated from her husband a month ago.

Inspector Magnus Thompson said Clayton confessed setting the fire at his wife's house in an attempt "to scare her" into staying home.

Practically Liquid Gold

PARIS (U)—French motorists got the bad news today that the price of gasoline has gone up 9 per cent. The government-decreed increase brings the price to 73 cents a gallon. Finance Minister Paul Ramadier explained this was due to the increased cost of shipping fuel around South Africa or buying it in the Western Hemisphere.

Both men had stockings drawn over their heads and faces. One was about six feet tall and slim, she said, and the other five feet four and of average build.

She gave them the money in the register, Mrs. Stottlemire said, and the thugs left the store on foot without harming her.

Waterford to Get Recreation Report

The annual report of the Waterford Township Recreation Department will be presented at tonight's Township Board meeting at 7:30, according to Supervisor Lloyd Anderson.

The board plans to set a future date for the discussion of the reports with Thomas Belton, recreation director.

Water and power installations for the Coleman-Friedman Subdivision at Cass Lake and Pontiac Lake Pils. and routine matters also will be under discussion, Anderson said.

Waterford to Get Recreation Report

The annual report of the Waterford Township Recreation Department will be presented at tonight's Township Board meeting at 7:30, according to Supervisor Lloyd Anderson.

The board plans to set a future date for the discussion of the reports with Thomas Belton, recreation director.

Water and power installations for the Coleman-Friedman Subdivision at Cass Lake and Pontiac Lake Pils. and routine matters also will be under discussion, Anderson said.

The Day in Birmingham

City Facing Lot Renaming and Costlier Evergreen

BIRMINGHAM — Among the several items of importance to come before commissioners tonight will be parking, zoning and both the North Evergreen and Evergreen Sewage Disposal Projects.

The estimated $1,000,000 cost of the development has already increased (in estimate) over 50 per cent, and may well be doubled if all requirements of the state health department are met.

A large part of the increase, according to City Manager Harold Sebore, comes from the state's insistence on the treatment of storm water. Since most of the storm water comes from the City of Birmingham, local costs could increase materially.

The parking question will include renaming the new lot, to Parking Lot No. 2, the question of parking on Maple between Chester and Southfield, and lying the ground-work to halt parking along the right-of-way of US 10.

The zoning item is a public hearing on an amendment to the established ordinance.

Items for this column as well as items about Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township, and Troy should be submitted to Alice Morgan at her home, 1835 Holland St., Birmingham. Her telephone is Midwest 6-3837.

The Planning Board at its Wednesday night meeting at 8 p.m., will again consider the request of Ruth A. Carll for rezoning of parts of four lots on Henrietta and Merrill streets from multiple family to business status.

Property owners within 300 feet have been asked to attend the meeting, as well as the immediate property owners.

Other items on the agenda are the revision of the zoning ordinance, rezoning of lots 12 to 28 inclusive, and 32 and 33 of East Maple Gardens from single family to multiple family residential, and revision of the business C classification.

Bandits Kidnap Pair, Flee With $20,000

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (U)—Two bandits kidnaped a young bank teller and his wife early today, held them captive for nearly six hours, then forced them to hand over an estimated $20,000 from a night depository.

The two men fled in the bank employee's auto with weekend deposits from the College Park branch of the Suburban Trust Co. An FBI investigation was launched immediately.

The teller's wife, Mrs. Donald E. Bishoff of Hyattsville, Md., was hysterical from the ordeal and cried, "It can't be true. It's like a fairy tale."

Neither Mrs. Bishoff nor her husband had been harmed.

The two bandits, one described as tall and the other as short, abandoned the Bishoffs' auto two or three miles from the bank, the FBI reported.

The FBI said the two men apparently released the Bishoffs about 3:15 a.m. today. One of the robbers was described as being about 6 feet 4, the other about 5 feet 6.

Neuru's Biographer Talks

Why Does 'Neutral' India Align With Reds?

NEW YORK (NEA) — Why does India call herself neutral and find herself time after time allied with Soviet Russia's policies?

Frank Moraes pushed the bedclothes back and looked at the ceiling. "Yes," he said, "that must be answered because it appears to be so and yet it is not so."

Moraes, editor of the Times of India and biographer of Nehru, was resting after a two-month tour of the United States before his return to Bombay.

"In the first place," he said in impeccable Oxonian English, "it must be understood that we are Western in much of our outlook."

subject has left its cultural mark. "Even to the writing of our own constitution," he said, "we sent our experts to the western nations to learn about the making of a democracy."

But that, he said, was the limit of outside entanglements. "We are very much like the United States when she gained her independence. We want only to consolidate our states — and that means a generation of peace in which to work without outside entanglements."

However, in United Nations business, India along with the Arab block abstained in the voting to censure Russian tactics in Hungary.

"Oh yes," Moraes said in his quiet voice. "To understand this you must understand the Indian mind."

And that mind, as he spelled it out, is "unsophisticated in any way." In the first place, 93 per cent of India is unschooled and politically uneducated. And second, the Indian understanding of colonialism or imperialism does not extend to political action in Europe.

"Tell an Indian," he said, "that Russia has a base in Helsinki, 800 miles from Moscow. And that Indian will tell you that England has a base in Singapore, 8,000 miles from London."

INDIA'S THOUGHT

Even the classic definition of colonialism—access to cheap raw material and labor—makes no dent in the Indian understanding. Why then, the Indian asks, would you include Russian domination of Czechoslovakia? That country is poor in materials and is highly industrialized with skilled labor. Or take Poland. She has been partitioned many times in history, the Indian reasoning goes. This is merely a continuation of old European rivalries and political wars.

"The Indian understanding of colonialism," Moraes said, is simply the subjugation of a colored people by the white."

And while the Hungarian uprising against Russia might have been used to teach India a new definition of colonialism, he said, the march on Egypt came too soon.

"And that," he said, "was something India could understand — a colored people attacked by whites."

It will take at least a generation of peace and internal work, he said, to begin to mature India as a democracy. "And until then, she will stand by the things she understands."

Except for seven years of study at Oxford and travel in Europe in his youth, Moraes has spent his 49 years in India or traveling throughout Asia.

"Because this is where," he explained, "the new crisis will be. You must look at Red China to understand." She, like India, has been a victim of imperialism. But she has also made the most striking industrial progress. It has cost her dearly in personal liberty. But Nehru, back from a visit to Red China, was fired with a spirit of competition."

Low-Slung Auto Puts Squeeze on Prowler

DALY CITY, Calif. (U) — The design of those new low-slung cars came to the aid of police.

They found an intruder under a 1957 model in an automobile showroom.

"Come out," called Sgt. Dave Hanson.

"I can't," was the answer. "I'm stuck."

Officers jacked up the car and released the man. T. E. booked Winfred Ivanhoe, 26, on suspicion of burglary, prowling and vagrancy.

Loose Bullet in Ashtray Explodes, Shoots Boy

BUFFALO, N. Y. (U) — John Sell, 13, was critically injured when a bullet, lying in an ash tray, exploded as he and a friend threw lighted matches on it. Flying pieces of metal pierced his jugular vein and windpipe, authorities said.

Investigators said the boy found the bullet in a trash heap and took it with him to the home of a friend.

The second boy, Edgar J. Allen, also 13, was unhurt.

Attractive Gifts Please Smokers

Selection and Price Will Give Shoppers Wide Choice

Gifts for the smoker are easy to pick, since smoking is a luxury, though many smokers would deny it.

The cigar smoker has a whole raft of "necessities" from which his family may pick a gift, according to the cigar institute of America. Gifts for the cigar smoker are both decorative and functional.

A cigar cutter for the table has an actual white walrus tusk for its handle. Humidor, so necessary for preserving the freshness and fragrance of cigars, come in all price ranges, in all shapes and colors. A distinguished one is in fine blond Florentine leather. It has gold tooling on it. A matching ash tray, big enough for a man, completes the ensemble.

A new design in table lighters may also please. It's done in chrome in the form of a miniature tankard and burns with a cigar-sized flame.

And, of course, there's always the possibility of a box of his favorite cigars.

Gifts for the cigarette smoker are also available in plenty. For the desk, there's a combination unit that holds ash tray, lighter and cork-lined cigarette box.

Cigarette cases for the pocket come in leathers to match the billfold to make a nice dual gift.

This kind of item can be managed financially by a brother and a sister. They also come in bright plaids for use with sportswear or during a fishing trip.

Big ash trays delight men, who find most women's choices too small or too shallow.

The man who likes patio living in warmer weather would appreciate a deep, windproof ash tray.

Many have safety features, a not-too-subtle, but wise, suggestion to the man who tends to put cigarettes down on furniture.

For the pipe smoker, a pig-skin tobacco pouch that has a moisture-proof lining is nice. One, in addition, has an extra compartment for the pipe.

Hold Flint Man, 29, for Weekend Shooting

SAGINAW (AP)—Pedro Adrian, 29, of Flint, was held for investigation today in the fatal shooting early Sunday of Philip Renda, alias Jose Juarez Ortigo, 21, also of Flint. The shooting occurred early Sunday outside a tavern near Saginaw. Sheriff's officers quoted Adrian as saying he fired after Renda pulled a knife on him.

Michigan Man Dies in Florida Tragedy

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A Michigan man has been killed in the worst automobile accident in the history of the overseas highway which links the Lower Florida Keys. Five were killed, a sixth critically injured.

The Michigan man was Gunnar R. Naslund Jr., 20, of Baggett. He was en route to Miami with three navy buddies, who also were killed, on weekend leave.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Alcoholism is rare in Russia.

Dad, Mother, Son to Get College Degrees in '57

MT. PLEASANT (U)—The Porters make it a family affair when they go to college. Father, mother and son all expect to graduate from Central Michigan College in 1957. Oliver C. Porter of Standish, head of the family, will graduate in February with a bachelor's degree in English. He is a public school teacher.

Son Oliver, a star on Central Michigan's unbeaten, untied football team, will get his degree in mathematics in June. He was named most valuable player by his teammates.

Mrs. Porter is taking extension work and will attend summer school to get her degree by the end of the summer term.

Skin Specialist Warns on Sun Tanning Pills

CHICAGO (INS)—A New York skin specialist has warned against the indiscriminate use of newly-developed pills taken by mouth to promote quick sun tanning.

Dr. Norman B. Kanof of New York University's post-graduate medical school told a meeting of the American Academy of Dermatology and Syphilology in Chicago that the pills contain a preparation called 8-mop which might induce skin cancer in susceptible persons.

Move On to Dredge Mouth of Au Sable

OSCODA (U)—To keep the mouth of the Au Sable River free of silt that impedes both fishermen and Air Force crash crews, the Army engineers announced they will advertise a silt project. The program consists of dredging of the channel at the mouth of the river near Oscoda and the construction of 2,100 feet of steel piling jetties. An eight foot channel, 80 feet wide and 2,250 feet long will be dredged and shored by steel.

That's Some Record! CORTLAND, N.Y. (U)—The Cortland State Teachers College newspaper reports that books taken out of the school library in the last five years include 3,800 in a special category. All 3,800 are still out.

Egypt Mistreats Citizens, Say Britain and France

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Britain and France pressed complaints in the U. N. today that Egypt is mistreating its citizens with arrests, deportation and seizure of property. The two partners in the October-November invasion of the Suez Canal called a private meeting of 16 non-Communist European U. N. delegations to explain their case against Egypt — apparently in anticipation of bringing it before the General Assembly. A French spokesman said this afternoon's Assembly session "very likely" would be devoted to the charges against Egypt.

France has circulated a resolution asking Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to send observers or take other measures to induce Egypt to stop mistreating British and French nationals. Israel has also complained of Egypt's treatment of Jews since the Israelis invaded the Sinai Peninsula Oct. 23.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi denied his country had mistreated any foreigners. He called the British and French allegations a "propaganda campaign based on unfounded reports."

Of reports that some Jews and holders of British and French passports had been arrested in Egypt, Fawzi said: "We did take some security measures."

Opposing views of Egypt on one hand and Britain and France on the other brought new complications to the U. N.'s job of clearing the shipwreck-clogged canal, the main artery for transportation of Middle East oil to Europe.

Fawzi said in a statement that Egypt would agree to the use of British salvage equipment to reopen the waterway—but that the British and French crews could not remain in Egypt "in view of their own safety," since many persons were killed in the "recent aggression against Egypt."

British and French spokesmen reiterated that they would be willing to loan their equipment to tackle the job only if the crews remain.

Chrysler Gives Grant to Research Program

DETROIT — Chrysler Corp. today announced an additional grant of $100,000 to the Cornell University Medical College's automotive crash injury research program through Aug. 31, 1958.

Since its first grant to the program in September, 1955, Chrysler has donated $300,000 to the program designed to analyze automotive crash injuries and causes. L. L. Colbert, Chrysler Corp. President, said: "The program is one of the means by which we can advance highway safety to still better records. We believe continuation of the studies will not only shed further light on recent design innovations which reduce risk of injury in highway accidents, but will be of continuing usefulness."

British-French Fight Back, Near Last Phase of Pullout

PORT SAID, Egypt — The British-French forces have begun the last phase of their withdrawal from Egypt after a tank-supported attack on guerrillas in retaliation for the ambush slaying of a British officer.

The deadline for the final pullout was not announced. U. N. sources indicated it might be tomorrow or Wednesday. But Lt. Gen. Sir Hugh Stockwell, commander of the British-French task force, implied some of the Allied troops might still be on hand Thursday behind the barbed wire ringing their narrow beachhead along Port Said's harbor front.

Stockwell said he had agreed to a U. N. request to let 350 armed Egyptian police enter Port Said Tuesday and 350 more two days later "if the first contingent behaves itself."

Egypt planned to have more than 1,000 black-uniformed police with rifles maintain order in the city after the British-French evacuation.

After the fighting yesterday the British withdrew behind the four miles of barbed wire that bounds their two-block-wide beachhead.

The French were preparing to quit Port Fuad, across the harbor. The U. N. police patrol maintained order throughout the rest of the city.

British and French units staged their power drive against the guerrillas by moonlight late Saturday night and early yesterday through Port Said's dark streets and twisting alleys. The attack was launched after a British officer on patrol duty was killed by a grenade hurled from ambush.

Tanks rumbled through the streets and troops combed the alleys, firing at the elusive guerrillas during the 3½-hour battle. Bullets zoomed over rooftops and red streaks from tracer ammunition laced the sky. British officers said the Allied forces "killed some Egyptians—we're not sure of the number," and captured 10 men in the battle area.

The only casualty reported on the British-French side was the victim of the grenade ambush.

The guerrilla attacks have increased as the British and French prepared to quit Port Said from their ships. Egyptian President Nasser's government has dis-claimed responsibility for these attacks. After the moonlight retaliatory battle, Egyptian Information Director Abdel Kader Hatem said in Cairo Egypt would protest to the U. N. against the "British-French attacks on the civilian population in Port Said over the weekend."

The Egyptians expect the U. N. troops to have a short stay in Port Said. An Egyptian officer at Abu Suweir, near Ismailia, said the troops would leave a week after the Egyptian police arrive.

Egypt has insisted that except for a brief preliminary period to restore order, the U. N. units sent in to guard the peace must take up positions along the uneasy Israeli-Egyptian armistice line that existed before Israel and the British-French task force penetrated Egypt.

Anyone for Tennis With Motmot Bird?

PANAMA—The motmot, a grayish-green tropical bird, has a tail that looks like a tennis racket.

The "rackets" are fashioned by the birds themselves, which pluck off about an inch of the feather vane below the end of the two outermost feathers.

The bird, found on the Smithsonian Institution's tropical preserve in Gatun Lake, swings the tail from side to side like a pendulum.

Adversity Can Prove Rewarding

By ANNE HEYWOOD
"Sweet are the uses of adversity," the old saying goes.
For years I used to think that was a lot of nonsense, but now-days I keep encountering cases which prove there's a good deal of truth in it.
Mary K. is a good example.
Mary is a young mother, with four children. Her husband has a wonderful future, but a present day salary which just barely covers necessities for this family.
"Last Christmas," Mary told me, "I was miserable because, once again, I couldn't get a dress for the holidays. I had to wear the same basic black dress which was in my trousseau."
"Year after year, I used to haul it out for the holiday season and wear it with a new dime-store flower or a string of inexpensive beads."
SAVED ENOUGH
"Last year I decided that whatever happened, I'd have a new dress for this year's parties. I scrimped all year and found that I'd have enough to buy a new dress the week before Thanksgiving.

"You can guess what happened," she continued. "An emergency came up in mid-November and my nice nest egg went out the window."
"The day it happened was bleak and windy and I had a real self-pity session. I loved my husband and I adored the children, but I kept thinking I never had a thing for myself."
"I pictured all the other gals in their holiday finery, and me in that same old black dress, and had a real good cry."
"Finally, I picked myself up and got out the old black dress to see what could be done with it."
FESTIVE BOLERO
"I'm a pretty good seamstress, but for a while I couldn't think of a way to change it. Then I decided to top it off with a really festive bolero."
"I shopped until I found an attractive and inexpensive piece of material and put my Christmas ornaments on it."

"The result was perfectly beautiful, yet it cost under three dollars. The costume made a big hit and made me feel glamorous."
"But the funny thing is," she continued, "I got a lot of orders for similar jackets!"
"My friends practically tried to buy it off my back and people I met at cocktail parties asked me where I'd gotten it. When I told them I'd made it, they asked me to make them one."
"This year, I've made and sold three dozen—I began back in July—and now I have enough money to buy a new party dress!"

Supper Dish Uses Cheese and Shrimp

Male Cook Adds a Gourmet Touch With Pink Wine

By JANET ODELL
When men start experimenting in the kitchen, they usually come out with good food. They are more daring with ingredients. William J. Emerson, county superintendent of schools, concocted a seafood dish recently that was most successful.
When free time is available, Mr. Emerson likes to read, go to the theater or play bridge. Each winter he delights his children by making a miniature skating rink in the front yard of his home.

SHRIMP ROSE
By William J. Emerson
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon flour
3 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup medium sharp cheese
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tomatoes, chopped
1 teaspoon paprika
1 cup Rose wine (pronounced Ro-say)
pounded shrimp, cooked and split
4 ounces butter mushrooms
Make a white sauce of the first four ingredients. Add cheese and let it melt in sauce. Add parsley, paprika and paprika.
Just before serving add wine, shrimp, and mushrooms. Stir while shrimp is heating or heat over boiling water. Serve on dry toast. Serves six.

Push-Buttons to Control Home of the Future

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I have the "word" that housekeeping in the future, and fairly near future, is not going to be as it is today.

In fact the time may be nearer than you think when you will be able to sit right in your own home and press buttons to designate the menus for that day or for all of that week. You will be able to specify the number of servings and the time at which the first course should appear.

Also, it seems that you may be able to change your mind about a meal over the telephone, after you leave for your bridge club or whatever event you have on for the afternoon. Women have been changing their minds for years, even over telephones, but this does seem an extra luxury.

You will not need blankets because you will have a radiant heating panel over your bed. I suppose it will be comfortable not to have the covers pull on your toes but it is sort of cozy to snuggle under a comforter.

You will have a television-telephone. I have been dreading that for years although I can see many advantages. For instance, you will be able to look at the vegetables you are ordering over your television-telephone, but how will you and I look, upside down on a beauty angle, doing facial exercises or cold-cream, while we listen? Oh well, I suppose we will be able to cut off the television part of it when we want to.

TIME OUT TO REPAIR

This may lead to complications. If someone insists on talking to us face to face we may have to leave the phone while we take our hair out of curlers, repair our makeup or put on our latest costume.

You will be able to watch Junior while he is in another room via television. That's fine so long as Junior cannot watch you. There are just a few of the wonders of the future.

I am so excited about the things they are discovering in the research laboratories, about these wonderful aids to more leisure that I could easily be sold a "gold brick." However these are not "gold bricks." The things I have described today are the dreams of the future toward which one of the largest and most progressive companies in the United States is working.

So, you should get ready for more leisure. For one thing you have the expectancy of many more years after the age of retirement than before. Modern invention is going to give you more time away from your duties.

Leisure is wonderful if you can take it! Today many bored women fill doctors' offices because of psychosomatic illnesses. The same thing often happens to men after they retire. Therefore, it seems crucial to me that women should begin preparing for big chunks of time on their hands.

READY FOR LEISURE

It is indeed a blessing if we are equipped to use this extra leisure in happy and productive ways. However a woman does not change suddenly into an individual with myriad interests when she has been completely wrapped up in the demanding job she has had for 20 or 25 years.

Unless she prepares ahead of time, she may find herself at a loss, bewildered and frustrated. The woman in the home should begin to develop outside interests and forgotten skills or talents NOW.

'EATING LIKE A BIRD' MAY BE FATTENING

How did the expression, "I eat like a bird," ever start? As you know, this infers that the woman in question eats very little, practically nothing.

Do you know how much birds eat? Let me give you a few examples. One yellow-billed cuckoo will eat more than 200 webworms or 250 tent caterpillars at a sitting. Two scarlet tanagers once ate 2,000 small caterpillars.

A pair of northern yellow throats dined meagerly on 7,000 plant lice. One flicker consumed 5,000 ants without stopping, while his lady polished off 3,000.

I know something of this after feeding about 18 bluejays during the winter months. I did not keep count of the tremendous amount of grain they ate last winter. My main problem was to see to it that the squirrels got some of the peanuts which were bought for them.

With the first crack of peanuts falling on the snow or ice I always heard the bluejays call. From then on they dive-bombed until every one of the nuts had disappeared.

EAT FREQUENTLY

There is probably nothing that eats more for its size than a bird and nothing that eats more often. It is true that neither an ant nor a tent caterpillar looks very large, even for a bird. Neither do many of the things we women pick at in between meals.

"For heaven's sake, what difference can 12 little old pecans make, or one chocolate cream, six olives or one doughnut?" What difference can they make? Lady, they make a difference of about 500 calories, and this list is not unusual but rather on the low side for the woman who is accustomed to eating in between meals.

Then take the non-essential but luscious items such as Thousand Island dressing, about 175 calories a tablespoonful; a chocolate nut Sundae, about 425 calories an average serving; or four small biscuits 200 calories.

You take them! I cannot afford them figure-wise, not often. Yet these are not unusual items on the average woman's diet.

So when an overweight woman says she "eats like a bird" she probably is telling the truth. She may not eat much at meal time but she may sabotage reducing efforts by pecking. If not this, she may eat moderate amounts at mealtime but her menus may include one or more calorie zooming items.

FACE THE FACTS

I know how you feel. I love those items, too, but we may as well face up to facts. Don't let a bird lead you astray. There is a definite correlation between your weight and your food intake.

Bridegroom Divorced

ST. LOUIS (U)—Robert E. Peters went rabbit hunting the day after his wedding 21 months ago. The 25-year-old laborer said when he got home his bride, Adria, 20, was gone and he hasn't seen her since. Circuit Judge Raymond E. Ladriere granted Peters a divorce yesterday.

Fabulous Result in Missile TestArmy Reportedly Fired 'Jupiter C' Projectile Highest, Fastest Yet

WASHINGTON (U)—The Army reportedly has fired a test missile more than twice as high and fast as any projectile yet launched by man. The missile was said to have gone farther than any previous unmanned vehicle.

The Air Force is getting set possibly to duplicate or exceed the accomplishment.

In a forthcoming issue of Missiles and Rockets magazine, its editor, Erik Bergaust, will say that an Army "Jupiter C" three-stage test device reached an altitude of almost 650 miles and a distance of 3,300 miles. He will say it flew almost 15,000 miles an hour — 19 times the speed of sound.

The Army declined comment, but other informed sources said the information was accurate.

They added that the Air Force is set at Cape Canaveral, Fla., to launch a test model of the Douglas Thor which, like the 80-foot-long Jupiter, is an Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile. The Jupiter was developed by the Army and Navy.

Bergaust said in an interview the Army launched the Jupiter C after dark the evening of Sept. 20. He said it went out over the missile test range extending 5,000 miles from Patrick Air Force Base in Florida across the Caribbean and the South Atlantic.

He said it landed well off South America, some 1,400 miles west of Ascension Island, tracked all the way by radar.

PORT HURON (U)—Port Huron's new 1½ million dollar YMCA will front on Fort Street. A change in the entrance was ordered by the board of directors yesterday to provide a new street address. The original plans had the building fronting Beer street.

Refugees Ride 'Special' Train to Freedom

VIENNA (U)—Hungarians call this train the "Austria Special." It never gets to Austria, but most of its passengers do.

It is the late morning train running westward from Budapest to the Hungarian town of Hegyesalom near the Austrian border. It stops more than dozen times on the 110-mile run. Though crowded to overflowing, few passengers leave before the end of the line.

The train has been hauling hundreds out of Budapest each day. The strongly anti-Red railway men have repeatedly saved the lives of their refugee passengers by warning them of police checks.

"Everyone in Budapest knows about the 'Austria Special,'" said a young Hungarian refugee who crossed the border.

"The train reached Hegyesalom without any incident. There were no police checks. The passengers all got out."

"We set off for the border after dark, across fields and wading through icy rivers. We walked for four hours, then we took over in a haystack to avoid detection by Soviet border guards."

"A guide said we were already near the border. From time to time we heard gun shots. Then we moved onward again, dropping to the ground at the slightest sound."

"When the guide suddenly said 'all right, you are in Austria,' we had to sit on the moist earth for a while to let the idea sink in that our tribulations were over. We gave him all our money, which is valueless here anyway, out of sheer gratitude. For, after all, he was going back, but we were free."

Should Have Carried Forget-Me-Not Flowers

NORMAN, Okla. (U)—Several days before the Oklahoma Hall of Fame ceremonies at Oklahoma City, the seven-year-old flower girl Donna Kay Bacon — practiced dropping leaves in the backyard of her home.

When the big day arrived she marched down the aisle in her new formal carrying a basket full of blossoms. The excitement was too much: she forgot to drop a single petal.

Kids Help Draft
Curfew Ruling
for Their City

ALBERT LEA, Minn.—The City of Albert Lea has enacted a curfew ordinance prepared with help from a citizens committee that included teenagers.

The ordinance forbids anyone under 16 to be on the streets or in public places between 10:30 p.m. and 5 a.m. unless accompanied by a parent, guardian, or custodian.

Violators are to be delivered into the care of a guardian or held at the police station until called for.

A special exception is made for "prom night," when members of the junior and senior high-school classes are exempt, and for "homecoming dance night," when high-school students may be out until 1 a.m.

Bad Luck Tale
Continues On

Nine Theft Hearings Called Off Because of Defendant's Mishaps

TOKYO (INS)—A hard luck story to top all hard luck stories—or is it?

Kazuo Kawawashi, a fish monger of Otsu City in central Japan, was arrested late last year on charges of theft and embezzlement.

It seems that he felled and stole three huge trees from a forest preserve and otherwise cheated gullible farmers in the area out of about $300.

At the first hearing held last Dec. he was released on a bail of $500 but then his troubles or blessing in disguise began.

A play-by-play of the subsequent fascinating series of coincidences—so maddening the judges, prosecutors and even his defense counsel—follows:

Second hearing (Jan. 19, 1956)—Kawawashi suffered an agonizing stomach ache as soon as he entered the court and was rushed to a nearby prison hospital where his attack was diagnosed as acute intestinal cramps.

Third hearing (Jan. 20.)—It never opened. Accused was still in the hospital.

Fourth hearing (May)—No progress. On the day before the trial Kawawashi suffered a relapse and was sent to the hospital for a stomach operation.

Fifth hearing (June)—The accused was carried out of the court on a stretcher—another sudden case of stomach cramps.

It seems, he had come to court riding a motorcycle over the bumpy dirt road traveling at top speed.

Sixth hearing (July)—Same. The fishmonger was involved in a traffic accident the day before.

County Gets Complaints on Yearly Tree Thieves

With the holiday season just around the corner, the usual complaints of people stealing Christmas trees are starting to hit the Oakland County Sheriff Department.

William Buell, of 5690 Cedar Island Rd., White Lake Township, notified deputies yesterday he caught three carloads of people entering his land with axes.

He said he had been missing trees in recent weeks and that his parents at 5901 Cooley Lake Rd. have also had some stolen.

Home Burglar Flees as Owner Awakens

A home burglar was routed when his victim was awakened early Saturday morning, Pontiac police said.

Lee Houck, of 224 Raeburn St., said the thief fled through the rear door when Houck shouted at him.

Vandals Steal Lights From Christmas Tree

Vandals stole an outdoor set of 20 Christmas lights decorating a tree outside a home at 465 W. Walton Blvd. sometime early Sunday, Pontiac police said.

Russell Lindsey of that address said there apparently was an unsuccessful attempt to remove a Santa Claus figure from the top of the tree.

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Al-ready, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

GRIM SYMBOLS IN A PLACE OF PEACE—At first glance this Budapest park presents the aspect of peace and quiet one might expect. But the view is made grim by the lone grave of a freedom fighter in the foreground and the man in background, carrying a sack of potatoes. They are symbols of the death and hunger that have descended on the Hungarian capital.

American Indians Face Choice:
Move to Industrial Cities or Starve

NEW YORK (U)—Many American Indians, says a leading Indian interest organization, are faced with this choice: leave their homes on the reservation to move into large industrial cities—or starve.

The Association on American Indian Affairs, Inc., in a report on its survey of the government's controversial relocation program, says that the program is "humanely operated" and needed by the destitute Indians living a barren existence on undeveloped reservations.

Under relocation, reservation Indians are resettled at government expense in industrial centers—Los Angeles, San Francisco, Denver, Chicago, St. Louis and San Jose—where year-round employment is available.

The association, however, urges the government's Bureau of Indian Affairs to get behind a Point Four program to "elevate American Indian communities to the level of health and well-being prevailing elsewhere in the United States."

The survey team, headed by Dr. Mary H. S. Hayes, spent months in on-the-spot research and study. The report was written by La Verne Madigan, the association's executive director.

More than a million dollars was spent in the last fiscal year in relocating about 4,275 persons.

The report said, however, that "as long as the relocation program remains the only program being carried out visibly and vigorously for the Indians, as long as the Indians have no economic choice between relocation and something else, that long will the program have to carry the blame for all the bureau's and the country's omissions."

The survey team found bitter opposition between local organizations—such as clubs, churches and Indian centers—and the relocation offices in the big cities. These community groups were right, says the association, in questioning the motives of the program, but "in their almost exclusive concern with federal Indian policy they failed to strengthen the Indian newcomers' belief in their ability to succeed."

In urging the Bureau of Indian Affairs to develop tribal communities economically, the association says that as long as Indians have no decent alternative to emigration from their homes, the bureau's relocation program will be under suspicion as a device to move the Indians off their land.

Nehru came to Washington from London on Eisenhower's plane Columbine III.

Eisenhower greeted the 67-year-old Indian leader at the north portico of the White House, which is flanked by two big Christmas trees, welcoming him "to this land—and to this house." It was the beginning of Nehru's second U.S. visit. He had been here in 1949.

The two men held their first talk informally across the luncheon table, surrounded by members of their families. Nehru was accompanied by Mrs. Indira Gandhi, his daughter.

Pageant at Cass City Draws Big Audience

CASS CITY (U)—An estimated 25,000 spectators were on hand last night for the pageant which has earned Cass City the title of "Michigan's Christmas Town."

Some 200 townspeople took part in the second annual Christmas pageant featuring the Nativity and other scenes.

People began arriving at the four-acre hillside stage at 11 a.m. yesterday for the presentation last night. Cars were lined up for more than a mile on M 81 leading into the city. Many spectators came in chartered buses.

The Pageant, first held in 1954, was not presented last year. It was revived because of many requests. Cass City churches and civic clubs sponsored the outdoor program.

Enters Plea of Guilty

John R. Givens, 17, of 350 S. Anderson St. Saturday pleaded guilty to reckless driving through a stop sign into the side of another car.

Clarence Foust, 52, of 162 Perkins St. and his wife Pansy, 42, who were in the other car, both suffered minor bruises in the collision and were treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

The accident occurred at the corner of S. Paddock street and Whittemore street, police said. Givens paid a $25 fine levied by Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Officials Warn of Threat From Russian Soldiers Near Austria

VIENNA (U)—U.S. and Austrian security officials are strongly advising Vice President Richard M. Nixon to keep away from the hole in the Iron Curtain on Austria's border with Hungary.

Nixon is due in Vienna Wednesday for a two-day look at the problem of Hungarian refugees from communism.

When the visit was first planned, the vice president reportedly wanted to see for himself the arrival of refugees who continue to pour past the line of red-and-white flags that mark Austrian territory.

It was authoritatively reported that Austrian and American security officials agree this would not be a good idea. Details of Nixon's itinerary have been withheld for security reasons.

The Austrians are jittery lest the Soviet troops in Hungary do something to follow up their charges that Austria is harboring "Hungarian Fascists." Since the flow of refugees started two months ago, only one Soviet incursion into Austria has been reported. On that occasion three Russian soldiers chased fleeing refugees across the border. One was killed by Austrian police, one captured and the other escaped.

Last night, Austrian police counted 1,040 refugees coming across. A heavy fog made it easier.

Thief Leaves Trousers, Pockets Billfold, $20

A pair of trousers, a billfold and $20 were stolen over the weekend from an unlocked home at 75 Elm St., Pontiac police said.

George Johnson of that address said he found the trousers discarded in his back yard, but the billfold, money and personal papers were missing.

He said the front door of his home was unlocked when the theft occurred sometime Saturday morning.

Investigate Burglary of Service Station

Pontiac State Police today are investigating the weekend burglary of a White Lake Township service station in which $15 in cash and tools were stolen.

The garage, located at Round Lake and Mandon roads, was reportedly looted of 10 sets of wrenches, 15 pairs of pliers, 20 screwdrivers, and a tool box besides the money.

to Avoid Border

Officials Warn of Threat From Russian Soldiers Near Austria

VIENNA (U)—U.S. and Austrian security officials are strongly advising Vice President Richard M. Nixon to keep away from the hole in the Iron Curtain on Austria's border with Hungary.

Nixon is due in Vienna Wednesday for a two-day look at the problem of Hungarian refugees from communism.

When the visit was first planned, the vice president reportedly wanted to see for himself the arrival of refugees who continue to pour past the line of red-and-white flags that mark Austrian territory.

It was authoritatively reported that Austrian and American security officials agree this would not be a good idea. Details of Nixon's itinerary have been withheld for security reasons.

The Austrians are jittery lest the Soviet troops in Hungary do something to follow up their charges that Austria is harboring "Hungarian Fascists." Since the flow of refugees started two months ago, only one Soviet incursion into Austria has been reported. On that occasion three Russian soldiers chased fleeing refugees across the border. One was killed by Austrian police, one captured and the other escaped.

Last night, Austrian police counted 1,040 refugees coming across. A heavy fog made it easier.

Thief Leaves Trousers, Pockets Billfold, $20

A pair of trousers, a billfold and $20 were stolen over the weekend from an unlocked home at 75 Elm St., Pontiac police said.

George Johnson of that address said he found the trousers discarded in his back yard, but the billfold, money and personal papers were missing.

He said the front door of his home was unlocked when the theft occurred sometime Saturday morning.

Investigate Burglary of Service Station

Pontiac State Police today are investigating the weekend burglary of a White Lake Township service station in which $15 in cash and tools were stolen.

The garage, located at Round Lake and Mandon roads, was reportedly looted of 10 sets of wrenches, 15 pairs of pliers, 20 screwdrivers, and a tool box besides the money.

Wages Go Up for U.S. in '57
Hikes Due to Contracts Now in Effect Estimated at Billion Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Workers across the nation will get a billion dollar annual pay boost next year under terms of already negotiated labor contracts.

This showed up today in a Labor Department summary of long-term contracts already in effect between employers and unions and providing for specified pay increases in 1957. These contracts cover about five million workers.

The summary by the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics provided no over-all money amount. It listed the specified cents-per-hour raises to be put into effect and the numbers of workers due to get them.

Projecting the figures on a 52-week earnings basis shows industry's annual wage bill will be increased by about a billion dollars by these deferred pay hikes.

The bureau said workers "in practically every major industry group" will receive such deferred pay increases. But the bulk of them are concentrated in the auto, farm equipment, aircraft, electrical, metalworking, steel, aluminum, and other metalworking industries as well as construction, transportation, food and mining.

The bureau said more workers than ever before will receive wage increases in 1957 as a result of contracts negotiated in prior years.

In addition, most contracts of this type call for automatic cost-of-living pay changes. They provide for adjusting pay rates in part at stated intervals according to the rise or fall of the government's living-cost index. The index has recently been rising to new record levels.

The bureau's summary showed the number of workers covered by such living-cost "escalator" clauses has risen back to nearly four million. That was the figure in 1952 but the number dropped to under two million in 1954. Many unions had temporarily abandoned their living-cost arrangements when living costs stopped going up and became stabilized.

The summary covered more than 550 collective bargaining settlements affecting the five million workers. Of these 350 were negotiated in 1956 and the balance in 1955 or earlier years.

About 90 per cent of workers due for deferred pay raises in 1957 will receive at least 5 but less than 11 cents an hour. Some deferred raises go to 13 cents per hour and higher.

Sum Spent Less Than Yule of 1955

NEW YORK (AP) — Christmas shoppers spent less money on toys, apparel, gifts and other items this week than they did a year ago, Dun & Bradstreet reported today in its weekly retail trade review.

But they spent more on new and used autos.

Despite the increase in new and used car sales, total volume of retail trade across the country continued below the high levels of December 1955. There were marked declines in the buying of many apparel lines, toys, gifts and major appliances, Dun & Bradstreet noted.

With the weather in many parts of the country abnormally mild for this time of year, sales of women's suits and coats lagged noticeably. Men's wear merchants said consumer buying of dress shirts, sportcoats and suits was up to 1955.

One of the few bright spots in this week's retail picture was furniture. Sales topped the year-ago week by a good margin.

Byrd Supports Cut of Federal Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) says it is "very evident" that federal taxes cannot be cut any time soon unless the government cuts back on foreign aid and domestic spending at home.

Byrd, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee which handles tax legislation, said yesterday that "in the present state of the world, defense expenditures should not be reduced and may have to be increased."

"I sincerely hope the President's next budget will attack this problem," he continued, "and deal strongly to eliminate every non-essential public expenditure and allot one half of the savings to paying on the national debt and the balance to much needed tax reduction."

Byrd made it clear he feels there should be no tax cuts unless there is a balanced budget and the reductions can come out of a Treasury surplus.

The Eisenhower administration has indicated strongly that it will oppose any move in Congress next year to reduce taxes.

Byrd, without mentioning a specific figure, said he believes "vast economies can be effected in both foreign aid and nondefense expenditures at home."
