City Hospital Addition Project Ready for Ballot

City Bus Lines Up Token Fare

2 for 25 Cents Will Be Price Starting Sunday

Company Bases Hike on Fewer Passengers Carried in '53

Pontiac City Lines will increase bus token prices from 3 for 35 cents to 2 for 25 cents.

The increase becomes effective Sunday.

The move was announced in a letter received by Pontiac City Commission last night.

The firm said "drastic losses in the number of revenue passengers" carried in 1953 was reason for the hike.

Both gross revenues and net profit dropped last year, the company explained.

Earl W. Dreasher, superintendent of transportation, said the increase will affect between 8,000 and 12,000 passengers daily.

Under the fare boost, the first since September 1952, individual tokens will cost about .8 of a cent more.

The commission received and filed the report.

Provisions of the bus firm's operating agreement with the city permit the company to increase fares without consulting city officials when its earnings indicate a fare increase is justified.

Parking Lot Suit Resumes Today

Habel Attorney to Call In Other Appraisers in City's Condemnation

The Jack Habel Chevrolet Co. today began attempting to show in court why its land at 11-49 Parke St. should not be condemned for public parking.

Pontiac's suit to condemn the land resumed at 9:30 a. m. in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Hearings had been adjourned since last Thursday when the city completed its arguments.

William J. Beer, attorney for Habel, said he planned to call appraisers to testify as to value of the land both by itself and to Habel.

Appraisers called by the city last week set values from $37,322 to $46,000. The jury must decide both the city's need for the land and what compensation Habel will receive if the condemnation is approved.

Beer also said he will show that other properties are available.

Ike Claims Public Opinion Can Halt Traffic Slaughter

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told a White House-sponsored conference on highway safety today that the problem of soaring traffic deaths can be solved by "mobilizing a sufficient public opinion."

The President said last year's toll of 38,000 traffic deaths has made traffic safety "a national problem of first importance."

Earlier, Secretary of Commerce Weeks opened the conference with an appeal to the 3,000 delegates to mobilize their communities against the rising toll of "agony and death" on the streets and highways.

In another speech, Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors urged the nation's businessmen to promote organized safety efforts at the local level as the best means of reducing the nation's highway accident toll.

Curtice, chairman of the business advisory group of the White House Conference on Highway Safety, spoke before the opening meeting.

He said, "We as businessmen have a tremendous responsibility. We also have the capacity to contribute to greater highway safety. He proposed that businessmen select as their primary objective the creation or expansion in every city of a special civic organization dedicated to highway safety promotion.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks, general chairman, said the con-

Tax Cut Passed by House Group

Exemption of 1st $1,200 in Retirement Pay Will Cost U. S. $300 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today approved tax cuts for millions of retired workers, amounting to about 300 million dollars a year.

The committee adopted a provision by Rep. Mason (R-Ill) exempting the first $1,200 of annual retirement income from personal income taxes.

The exemption would apply to all types of income—whether from pensions, dividends, rents, annuities, or other investments. And it would apply regardless of age to all retired workers, even those below 65.

It would take effect with the 1954 tax bill which falls due in early 1955.

The plan was approved as part of a general revision of tax laws. Presumably it would boost the total annual tax reduction under the program from about two billion dollars, as estimated by the Treasury, to about $2,300,000,000.

Under present law, retirement income gets no special treatment except that generally a worker is not taxed on pension or annuity benefits which he himself purchased through regular contributions.

Know Your Candidates for City Commission

Pontiac voters will select nominees for the city commission at a primary election March 1. Two nominees will be named in each of the seven district, and will be on the general election ballot in April. Pictures of candidates and information on their background will appear in the press starting today. Candidates in District 2 are listed today on page 5.

Better Weather Bringing Relief for Miry Roads

2-Inch Rainfall Makes Mudholes; Repair Cost to Run $55,000

Fair weather promised relief for a miry Michigan today after a thaw and rain that damaged Oakland County roads to the tune of some $55,000.

But much of Oakland County still wallowed in mud from an all-night, all-day rain that dumped almost two inches of water onto the Pontiac area Monday and Tuesday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts fair skies with a low of 26 to 30 degrees tonight and partly cloudy and warmer weather Thursday with a high of about 50.

Tuesday's temperatures fell from a high of 40 degrees to the day's low of 32 degrees last night. The mercury dropped to 30 degrees at 8 a. m. today icing streets briefly before starting its climb to 43 at 2 p. m.

This week's heavy rain and snow was blamed for two Michigan deaths. Harold Lockhurst, 61, of Owosso, was killed near here last night when his car collided with a truck during a snowstorm. Virginia Major, 20, of Detroit, was struck by two cars as she ran through the rain to catch a bus.

At least 50 Flint families had to leave their homes last night as flooded basements drenched their furnaces.

Rochester Community schools said that Kline, Brush, Snell and Goodison schools, closed yesterday because of bad roads, were open today.

Some other rural schools were forced to close because of bad roads and 21,500 telephones were knocked out of service in southern Michigan today.

Local offices of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reported the sudden drop in temperatures shrank telephone cables too rapidly, snapping off some 224 in the Pontiac area last night. Many individual

Names Commander for Atlantic Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today the appointment of U.S. Adm. Jerauld Wright as supreme commander of Allied forces in the Atlantic.

Wright will replace Adm. Lynde C. McCormick on April 12.

The White House said President Eisenhower also is nominating Wright to be commander in chief of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet and commander in chief of the U.S. Atlantic Command.

Eisenhower said in a statement:

"I feel that Adm. Wright is extremely well qualified to perform the duties of supreme Allied commander, Atlantic. Adm. Wright has had extensive background and naval command experience in positions of vital importance and he is an officer of outstanding character and ability."

$55 Million Livonia Fire Most Costly Blaze in '53

BOSTON (AP) — It's official now—the fire that swept the General Motors Transmission Plant at Livonia last August was the most costly blaze in the nation in 1953.

The National Fire Protection Assn. confirmed this today in its annual report. It said the GM fire loss was $55,000,000. Previous unofficial estimated had set the loss as high as $80,000,000. The report showed there were 283 big fires in the United States and Canada in 1953, causing 336 deaths and $274,374,500 damage.

Reveal '52 Hydrogen Blast Tore 1-Mile Hole in Pacific

CHICAGO (AP)—A congressional atomic specialist hinted today the United States may have hydrogen weapons even more potent than a device that nearly 18 months ago tore a hole a mile wide and 175 feet deep in the floor of the Pacific Ocean.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, gave details never before discussed publicly of a 1952 thermonuclear test in the Marshall Islands. President Eisenhower has termed that test a first step in the nation's hydrogen program.

Cole said in a speech prepared for a joint luncheon of the 38th Annual National Sand and Gravel Assn. Convention and the 24th Annual National Ready Mixed Concrete Assn. Convention:

"That thermonuclear test of 1952 completely obliterated the test island in the Eniwetok Atoll.

"It tore a cavity in the floor of the ocean—a crater measuring a full mile in diameter and 175 feet in depth at its lowest point.

"Within ... this crater, one could place 140 structures the size of our nation's capitol."

If this blast had been touched off in a modern city, Cole said, the resultant heat and blast would have completely devastated an area three miles in all directions from the point of the explosion.

In all, he said, the 1952 blast would have blanketed an area of 300 square miles.

But this test was held almost a year and a half ago, Cole said, and he added:

"Security keeps me from commenting on where our hydrogen

Highway Department Under Investigation

LANSING (AP) — The purchasers of rights of way for the State Highway Department in the Grand Rapids district are under investigation, Aud. Gen. John B. Martin said today.

Martin said that his office and investigators for Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard are probing reports of some irregularities. He refused to name a department employe and a real estate broker reportedly involved.

Martin said that highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler has been advised of the probe and is cooperating with it.

Receives Check for Straits Span

State Mackinac Bridge Authority Gets Funds From Bonds' Sale

NEW YORK (AP) — A check for $96,400,033.33 to finance a five-mile bridge across the Straits of Mackinac was delivered today to the State of Michigan Mackinac Bridge Authority.

The check represented funds from sale of revenue bonds issued to finance the ambitious project to link Michigan's two peninsulas which form the northern boundaries of Lake Michigan. It is scheduled for completion Nov. 1, 1957, and will replace the present ferry service.

In accepting the check, Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the bridge authority, announced completion of a $44,500,000 contract with the American Bridge Division of United States Steel Co. for erection of the superstructure and a $26,000,000 contract to Merritt-Chapkan & Scott Corp. for the substructure.

A representative of Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp. said a hiring office will be set up at the site of the bridge about March 1 to obtain about 500 workers on the substructure.

The American Bridge Division of U. S. Steel will not be prepared to work on the superstructure for at least a year, a spokesman said.

In a letter, Gov. G. Mennen Williams congratulated the authority on the successful financing venture. He said:

"This is another milestone in the long and sometimes weary road of giving the people of Michigan a connection between their two great peninsulas, and giving the United States and Canada a transcontinental highway between the industrial East and the Pacific Northwest."

New Red Move Upsets Parley

French Minister Asks Guidance After Latest Molotov Proposal

BERLIN (AP)—A new Soviet squeeze play on Korea and the Indochina War developed in the Big Four Berlin conference today. It compelled French Foreign Minister Bidault to ask his Paris government for new instructions.

The nature of the new Russian move was not disclosed. It occurred in the fifth secret meeting of the foreign ministers at the Soviet Embassy this morning.

Bidault, "very perturbed" when the meeting broke up, asked his government for guidance, an official source disclosed.

The Big Four were conferring in secret primarily about Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's resolution for a Big Five parley, including Red China. The West has refused to admit the Peiping government as a great power in such talks but concedes it should sit around the same table as other powers when specific Asiatic subjects come up.

The aim of the West was to get Molotov to use his influence to revive the stalled Korean peace talks first of all. The principal goal of the French, however, is to do something about ending the Indochinese War. If Molotov has definitely consented to interceding in Indochina in exchange for full recognition for Peiping, Bidault may have been put in an extremely difficult position.

Expansion Part of Tax Limit Charter Change

Proposal Set for April; New $3 Million Wing Could Add 200 Beds

Pontiac City Commission last night took first action toward a $3,000,000 project for expansion of the Pontiac General Hospital facilities.

If given final approval next week by commissioners, the proposal will be placed on the April 5 general election ballot.

A three-fifths vote of city property owners will be needed to approve the plan.

The hospital proposal would be included on ballots with the proposed amendment to the city charter raising the property tax limit from $10 to $12.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Although the tax money would be distributed differently, taxes could not be raised more than one half mill (50 cents per $1,000 of assessed valuation) over the present rate.

All registered city electors may vote on the tax limit increase, with a simple majority vote needed to pass it.

One mill (or $1 per $1,000 of property valuation) of the 2½ mills would be authorized for the hospital bond issue, although it is anticipated that only ½ a mill will be needed. (Legal requirements for the bond issue demand authorization of the 1 mill.)

Leo J. Heenan, architect for the proposed addition, said yesterday over 200 beds would be added bringing hospital capacity to about 400 patients.

Crowded conditions have been given as reason for the addition. Hospital Director Lauretta Paul yesterday said 248 persons plus 42 babies were in the hospital which she stated was designed for 136 patients plus 32 babies.

Heenan said the addition would be an "L" shaped, eight-story building with the new wing on Seminole avenue identical to the present one fronting on South Johnson avenue.

City Manager Walter K. Willman last night said although a $3,500,000 hospital bond issue had been talked of, only $3,000,000

Pontiac Reappoints 3 to Tax Review Board

James F. Spence, Gerald W. Kehoe and Vernon K. Archer were reappointed for one year last night to the Board of Tax Review by Pontiac City Commission.

City Finance Director Oscar Eckman and City Attorney William A. Ewart are ex-officio members.

Valuations placed on land, buildings or personal property by the city assessor's office are subject to review by the board. It also places total valuation on real and personal property within the city each year.

President Asks Authority to Share A-Weapon Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower asked Congress today for authority to share limited information on battlefield use of atomic weapons with friendly nations.

In a special message, the President also asked for the right to share peacetime atomic power production information with this country's allies and to give American private industry a greater share in the development of nuclear power.

Eisenhower said these steps would have the effect of "strengthening the defense and the economy of the United States and of the free world."

The President said the onward rush of atomic developments has out-moded the 1946 Atomic Energy Act which mistakenly assumed the United States could maintain a monopoly in atomic weapons for an appreciable time.

Counterbalancing the loss of monopoly, he said, is the development of a wide variety of atomic weapons which have "achieved conventional status" in the armed forces.

The President proposed a number of amendments to the Atomic Energy Act.

He said with emphasis, however, that changes should "make it clear that the authority granted must be exercised only in accordance with conditions prescribed by the President to protect the common defense and security." And he stressed that no secrets are to be given away which would be of military advantage to potential enemies.

Douglas Cites New Data as Indication of Recession

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) said today new government unemployment statistics support his contention that the nation already is in a recession.

The Commerce Department announced last night that a new method of gathering data indicates unemployment in early January totaled 3,087,000 or 728,000 more than a previous report showed.

The department said its Census Bureau collected statistics over a much wider area than before. Secretary Weeks said studies will be made to tell whether the new or old method is more accurate.

Douglas said in an interview the new unemployment total for early January "supports my previous contention that the unemployment figures issued by the Commerce Department have been drastically understated."

And some Republicans privately questioned the political wisdom of changing sampling methods at this time.

One Republican leader in the Senate said in another interview he could not understand switching to a new statistical method at a time Democrats were shouting "recession." He asked not to be quoted by name.

But Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, disagreed with his Republican colleagues who grumbled privately about possible adverse political repercussions.

"This does not change my mind at all about statements that we

Joint Community Council to Seek Solution to Rising Area Juvenile Delinquency

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—As a step toward curbing juvenile delinquency in the area, the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin Council on Community Services agreed last night to seek a solution to the growing problem.

Asked to tackle the job by a group of 30 representatives of civic organizations and the Birmingham Police Department, the council authorized chairman Charles B. Kass to appoint seven representatives from community organizations to study the problem.

Cass said he will name the representatives shortly.

The council is in a position to ask the United Foundation for financial aid and professional services if it is thought the project warrants it.

Rowdyism in the Community House Ranch Room for teenagers, which recently ended in the room's closing until more supervision can be provided, prompted the 30-man group to act.

Paul Wilson, member of the youth committee of the Community House, said that only seven per cent of the teenagers using the room cause the trouble. He blamed family background for much of the disturbance.

Urban League Dinner Tonight

Lauretta Paul to Speak to Group and Directors Will Be Elected

The Urban League of Pontiac will hold its fourth annual dinner tonight at 6:30 p. m. in St. Benedict Hall, 40 Lyn St., with Pontiac General Hospital Director Lauretta Paul the main speaker.

The league will honor an individual or a group for outstanding contribution to racial and religious understanding in Oakland County during the past year.

Everett C. Spurlock, league executive director, said Miss Paul's topic is "Employment Integration Can Work." Pontiac General is the largest employer of minority group professional and white collar workers in the city, said Spurlock.

Election of eight league board members also is scheduled.

Board members whose terms expire are Judge H. Russel Holland, Conrad N. Church, Dr. Howard H. McNeill, Leon H. Hubbard, the Rev. J. Allen Parker, Richard I. Moore, the Rev. Sarterios Gouvellis and Kenneth F. Young.

Church, Holland, Hubbard, McNeill and Parker have served two terms and are not eligible for re-election, said Spurlock.

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — John A. McKay, 88, former owner of the Windsor Record which later became the Windsor Star, died last night. He suffered a stroke last Saturday.

McKay was a former president of the Canadian Press Association. He sold the Record in 1918 to W. F. Herman. The name was changed to the Border Cities Star and later to Windsor Star. He was a native of Woodstock, Ont., where he began newspaper work with the Woodstock Sentinel.

Hospital Expansion Heading for Ballot

could be raised by Pontiac on one mill.

One mill would yield enough money per year to pay principal and interest on the $3,000,000 bond issue, Willman explained, which must be paid in 30 equal yearly installments under the city charter.

Additional hospital money might be secured through federal aid and private donations, said Willman.

If approved, the tax would take effect Jan. 1, 1955. After 1955, the city will no longer levy the $2 per $1,000 now being used to pay off existing debts.

Willman has said 2 mills will simply replace the nearly 2 mills now used for debt retirement and the legal tax limit actually will increase only about half a mill ($0 cents per $1,000 of valuation) over the current total tax.

Willman also has said the extra half mill would not be levied, because the hospital would pay about half the cost of new facilities from its own revenues.

But the city must pledge the whole amount, Willman explains, in order to obtain the bond issue, and that is why voters must approve one mill for hospital expansion.

Willman has stated the city commission is committed not to use the extra half mill, if the added 2½ mills is okeyed, and thus will hold the tax rate where it is.

Commissioner Paul A. Kern (district 3) last night asked if the commission actually had said the half mill would not be used.

Willman said he expected before the hospital reached the construction stage the hospital board of trustees would agree to "carry half the load."

Commissioner Harold W. Dudley (district 2) said he thought such an agreement would increase the chances of the bond issue passing.

Kern said he had long looked forward to 1955 when the city would be out of debt and could proceed on a "pay-as-you-go" program of capital improvments. "All of a sudden you're attempting to become doubly committed," he stated.

Willman said if the 2½ mill increase is approved Pontiac will be on a pay-as-you-go basis. "If the mills are voted down, the entire matter collapses," he added.

"If the hospital is voted down and the millage up, then we can still use 1½ mills for capital improvements on a pay-as-you-go basis," said Willman.

First reading of the ordinance passed with only Kern voting "no."

Ziem to Support Sex-Crime Bill

Will Ask State to Pass Measure Forcing Trial for Psychopath-Slayers

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem will make a personal appeal to state lawmakers Thursday to "plug the loopholes" in Michigan's law on criminal sexual psychopaths.

He will appear before the House Judiciary Committee at a public hearing on a bill that would amend the present law. The parley will start at 10 a.m. in the State Capitol.

The bill, introduced by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), would bar murder suspects from demanding psychiatric hearings under Michigan's Act.

It also would permit courts to try persons who have been committed to mental institutions as criminal sexual psychopaths, then later released.

The bill was inspired by the Donald V. O'Brian case here. O'Brian, confessed slayer, was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

Under the present law, he would not have to stand trial for murder if ever released from the hospital.

Turnpike Authority Does Traffic Check

Michigan Turnpike Authority is conducting an origin and destination survey today at a check-point on Woodward at Quarton road.

Traffic in the northbound lane is being halted to ask drivers where they came from and where they are going. The 30-man crew will switch their sampling to the southbound lane tomorrow.

The authority is studying the feasibility of constructing a toll road from Detroit to Bay City. If approved, the road would cut through Oakland County.

Legislators Cool to Bridge Probe

Key Man Sees No Sign of Any Wrong Doing in Lobbying Deal

LANSING (AP)—Key House members today were inclined to shy off a proposed legislative investigation of the Mackinac Bridge Authority and the lobbying of former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner.

Rep. Adrian De Boom (R-Owosso), chairman of the committee studying the resolution which would set up an investigating committee, said:

"I, for one, want more information that indicates some wrong doing before I would vote for the investigation."

Committee members he has talked to, he said, "are in no hurry" to act on the resolution.

"If we are not careful," the chairman said, "it will begin to look like the Republicans as a party are trying to block the bridge at every turn. We can't afford that."

The investigation was proposed by Rep. T. Jefferson Hoxie (R-St. Louis). He made no specific charges, asking only for a probe of the passage of legislation setting up the authority and the issuance of the $99,800,000 in bridge bonds.

He said privately he thought the public had a right to know if there was any truth in "rumors we have been hearing."

Van Wagoner resigned last week as a member of the bridge authority when is was learned he had registered as a lobbyist for Stifel-Nicolaus & Co., of Chicago.

The company was one of the underwriters of the bridge bond issue.

Van Wagoner, however, said he intended only to lobby in behalf of a bill to permit the Port of Detroit Authority to buy the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel. Stifel-Nicolaus is the sales agent for the tunnel company.

Van Wagoner and the company have filed sworn statements that he received no benefits of any kind from the bond sale.

Clear Skies Bring Relief to Highways

lines were repaired by mid-morning.

Although this week's speedy thaw took much of the frost out of local roads, Oscar D. Loomis of Oakland County Road Commission, feared that, "We may have it all to go through again later on. It seems too early to be the final spring breakup."

Washouts closed Wardlow road near Milford road, Decker near M-218; and Perry road east of U. S. 10.

Water rippled over Seymour Lake road near Oxford; Lakeville road, Eleven Mile road between Franklin and Inkster roads, Halsted between Thirteen and Fourteen Mile roads, Hospital road and Exmoor street near Elizabeth Lake road, and many others.

"We may have to close Grange Hall and Wixom roads today," Loomis said.

He guessed damage from this week's thaw at "maybe $80,000," but added the road commission was so busy keeping up with trouble as it happened yesterday that officials hadn't had a chance to look over the damage in detail.

County road crews, working at top speed, repaired some 100 washouts Tuesday. Some 250 flares burned last night at still unrepaired sinkholes, wash-outs and deep water on county roads.

Pontiac, too, had trouble on unpaved roads.

Arthur Hilliker, Pontiac Department of Public Works office manager, estimated damage to city streets at roughly $5,000 — "maybe more."

Hilliker said weak roadbeds, caved in Tuesday on several streets. Ruts, pits and mire made others impassible.

"And we couldn't get our equipment into many of these streets to fix the trouble," he added. "We'll get at it as soon as it dries up a bit."

Hilliker said cave-ins closed Brooklyn avenue from Carlisle to East End; Chicago from Hollywood to Baldwin; Cameron from Mt. Clemens to Perry; Melrose from Mt. Clemens to Pennsylvania; Euclid from Jefferson to LeGrand and W. Hopkins from Hollywood to Carlisle.

J. W. Hirlinger to Give Speech in Area Contest

Hirlinger, who won second place in the state contest in 1949, will compete against five representatives from Oakland County clubs next month. The national contest is scheduled to be held in Washington, D. C., next August.

6 Communists Plan to Appeal

Five Men Held in Jail, Mrs. Winter Still Sick, Is Free on Bond

DETROIT (AP)—Sentencings, then swift appeals from the defendants, were the next evident steps today after the conspiracy convictions of Michigan's six top Communists.

Five of the group—all the men—were in jail with their $37,500 in bonds canceled by Federal Judge Frank A. Picard.

The sixth, Mrs. Helen Allison Winter, who has been ill, was free on continuance of her $5,000 bond.

* * *

The group was convicted yesterday of conspiring to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government.

For Smith Act cases, it was a speedy verdict. The jury of seven women and five men required only six hours to reach its verdict. Other similar cases had taken far longer.

Found guilty were Mrs. Winter, 46, wife of Carl Winter, one of the top national Communist party leaders convicted similarly in New York; Saul Wellman, 40; Nat Ganley, 50; Thomas D. Dennis Jr., 36; William Allan, 47; and Philip Schatz, 39. All are party leaders in Michigan.

* * *

All the men were manacled in the courtroom and taken to the Wayne County Jail to await sentencing at 11 a.m. Friday. The six face maximum five-year prison terms.

After the conviction the defendants issued a joint statement announcing they would appeal and declaring their "only crime" was "fighting for and with the American people in their struggle for peace, democracy and economic security" and in working for socialism in the United States.

Kalamazoo Teachers to Get $100 Pay Raise

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Beginning teachers are due for a $100-a-year pay increase in a plan adopted by the school board to fill staff vacancies. Minimum starting salary for teachers holding B.A. degrees will be $3,300 annually and for teachers with M.A. degrees, $3,500 annually.

The board also promised further consideration of the salary question in the spring when better estimates of next year's revenues are available.

House Group OKs 4th Oakland Judge

Michigan House of Representatives Judiciary Committee recommended Tuesday that the House pass a bill to give Oakland County a fourth circuit judge.

The committee's report put the bill up for debate on the floor of the House.

But State Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), who introduced the bill, said he would suggest a debate be put off for a week. Broomfield said he must act as speaker of the House today.

The state representative said that some Oakland County representatives may oppose the bill, although Oakland County Board of Supervisors, through two committees, had given it full approval.

Roosevelt Nears Hearing Windup

Final Arguments Slated Today on Wife's Claim for $3,500 a Month

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A quick windup is expected today at a court hearing on whether James Roosevelt, who contends he is $72,185.15 in the red, can meet his estranged wife's demands for $3,500 temporary monthly support.

An amended balance sheet filed yesterday stated that as of last Jan. 31 the son of the late President Franklin Roosevelt had liabilities exceeding assets by $72,185.15. Mrs. Romelle Roosevelt has said he is worth two million dollars.

Attorneys said that after a brief period of testimony today they would make their final arguments.

* * *

Mrs. Roosevelt, 38, seeks the temporary support for herself and their three children pending trial of separate maintenance suits six to eight months hence. She has accused her husband of infidelities with 12 women and named three of them as co-respondents.

Roosevelt, 46, who filed the original suit for separate maintenance, has charged mental cruelty. He denies infidelity charges.

* * *

The name of one of the women named as co-respondents, Gladys Irene Owens, popped up in court again yesterday. She formerly was employed at one of Roosevelt's insurance firms.

Roosevelt had related that Atty. John K. Sloan helped write his will about last September, whereupon Arthur E. Schifferman, Mrs. Roosevelt's counsel, demanded:

"You mean that in the solemn act of drawing your will you employed a man who had represented Mrs. Irene Owens in her divorce action?"

Superior Judge Kurtz Kaufmann sustained the objection of Roosevelt's attorney, Samuel B. Picone.

Mrs. Roosevelt, called to the stand briefly, testified she had been forced to spend $3,000 for investigators and attorneys in pursuing her separate maintenance suit.

She added that some of her dividends, which she said were supposed to be reinvested by her husband, had been transferred to "another account" without her permission. Under questioning by Picone she said she believed it was a joint account.

Torch Club Hears About 'Automation'

An illustrated talk on "Automation" was given for members of the Oakland County Torch Club at the Birmingham Community House last evening.

Automation, a new word in industrial phraseology, is the science of mass production through the use of highly specialized, continuous-production machinery.

The speaker was Walter Bone, of the Ford Motor Co., and his talk was preceded by a motion picture showing the completely automatic foundry process being used by Ford in a new plant near Cleveland.

The speaker said that experience is showing that the new processes do not eliminate workers, but only change the character of jobs as men become more proficient as technicians in handling the new complex machines.

134 Auto Accidents Chalked Up in January

A total of 134 auto accidents with 46 persons injured was recorded in the January monthly report by Pontiac Police Traffic and Accident Bureau. There were no fatalities.

This is compared with 127 accidents and 33 injured for the same period last year when one fatality occurred. The report states that 107 of the accidents involved a traffic violation.

RALPH A. WILSON

Hold Service Today for Ralph A. Wilson

BIRMINGHAM — Service for Ralph A. Wilson, prominent pharmacist and owner of the Wilson Drug Co., 101 N. Woodward Ave., was at 2 p.m. today from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Wilson, 53, died at his home, 19370 Riverside, Sunday. President of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Assn., and numerous other state, local and national druggist and pharmacist groups, he is survived by his widow, Mildred, and two sons, Richard of Birmingham and Ensign Donald R., USN.

The family has requested memorials be sent to the cancer fund.

Board Slows Up on School Land for Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM—Board of Education members decided last night they need more information on the amount of land needed before authorizing a condemnation suit for 22 acres bounded by Adams, Derby and Buckingham roads and the Grand Trunk Western Railroad.

The board previously had planned to erect an elementary school and a playground on the site and had offered owners $1,250 per acre, which was refused.

Recent studies of student population growth show a greater need for an additional junior high school, which may have different land requirements.

Northern Counties Join in Anti-Pollution Law

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Boards of supervisers of Grand Traverse, Benzie and Leelanau Counties have passed a joint anti-pollution law to be effective May 1. The law is aimed at the dumping of industrial wastes and sewage into streams, lakes and harbors in the tri-county area.

Anyone found guilty of violating the law is liable to either a $100 fine or 90 days in jail.

Summer Preview

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — The oval at Grand Haven State Park on Lake Michigan gave the appearance of a summer Sunday preview. An estimated 8,000 persons visited the park, lured by unseasonably warm February weather.

Civil Service Body Sets Ouster Hearing

BIRMINGHAM—A Civil Service Commission hearing on the dismissal of Postmaster Bernard E. Fowler has been set for 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in Detroit.

Fowler lodged an appeal when he was notified Oct. 12, 1953 by Assistant Postmaster General N. R. Abrams that his successor would be named at an early date "as a result of unsatisfactory conditions disclosed at a recent investigation at your office."

"I have not yet decided whether I will carry my appeal to Washington if I'm not reinstated here," Fowler said.

Local Republican sources have hinted Roland Reese, 1847 Webster, will be named to replace Fowler, a Democrat, if the dismissal stands.

Thieves Fail Long Job Breaking Wall for Safe

BIRMINGHAM — Thieves who spent hours last night trying to pound through two sides of a brick wall around the safe at Barnum School failed, Birmingham Police reported today.

Entry was gained through part of the building under construction. The safe was empty.

weapons program now stands, and from outlining the directions in which it is now moving. But I can assure you that it is moving."

Cole said he feels "it is more sinful to conceal the power of the atom than to reveal it."

He referred indirectly to a recent remark of Secretary of Defense Wilson, who told a news conference he wished there was less "atom rattling."

Without mentioning Wilson by name, Cole said:

"If telling the American people the facts about the atom be 'atom rattling' then I confess my guilt. My faith in the capacity of the American people to face up to peril is boundless."

Cole said this country has "in being" an entire family of atomic weapons, some of them 25 times more powerful than the missile that wrecked the Japanese city of Hiroshima in the late stages of World War II.

"We must now adjust our thinking to the prospect of an entire family of hydrogen weapons," he said.

Says Jobless Increase Indicates Recession

are entering a depression," he said. "We are not."

The new figure, he said, showed unemployment at about 5 per cent of the labor force, while normally, he said, it is about 3 per cent.

The old method pegged unemployment at 2,259,000 the first week in January. The difference was almost entirely accounted for by an increase in the number of persons credited to the labor force, which consists of all persons working or looking for work.

The Commerce Department for years has not counted as unemployed those workers who are "temporarily" laid off. But Douglas has maintained they should be added in, since he has claimed temporary layoffs often extend well beyond stipulated 30-day periods.

Pontiac Motor Division Low in Accident Rate

Pontiac Motor Division had the lowest accident frequency rate of any of the five General Motors auto divisions during 1953, according to Ward's Automotive Reports. Only 1.20 accidents were reported per million man hours worked.

Eleven Pontiac plants went through the year without mishaps, the report stated.

Pontiac Deaths

Raymond Smith

Raymond Smith, 77, of 3192 Joslyn Ave., died at his residence Monday.

He was born here Sept. 20, 1876, the son of Roderick and Permelia Hartwick Smith.

Last employed as a bricklayer, Mr Smith was a lifelong resident in this area.

A brother Roy J., of Pontiac, survives.

Funeral will be Thursday at 1 p.m. from Kirkby Funeral ome. Buliar will be in Oak Hill Cemetery with Dr. Tom Malone of the Emmanuel Baptist Church officiating.

Four of the most prominent men in the development of the railroads over the Sierra Nevada which completed the nation's transcontinental system were neither financiers nor trainmen, but merchants — Leland Stanford, Charles Crocker, Mark Hopkins and Collis P. Huntington.

Cheboygan Store Block Is Damaged by Fire

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Fire damaged three business places in downtown Cheboygan yesterday. Loss was estimated at $12,000.

No one was injured. The fire gutted the Nor-Jak Furniture Repair Shop, causing damage in an adjoining barber shop and confectionary.

Jack Savella, owner of the furniture repair store, said the fire apparently started in a short in the wiring.

Cave Explorers in 'the Beyond'

3 Expedition Members Advance Into Uncharted Rooms, Passages

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (AP) — Unknown canyons deep in the earth beneath the rolling hills of southern Kentucky were reached today by a tired band of Crystal Cave explorers.

Great cave rooms, decorated with spider-like stone formations, were found by three male members of the National Speleological (cave study) Society expedition.

After three hours of tortuous crawling and climbing they broke into "the beyond"—the explorers' term for the dark world of rough virgin passages 300 feet below the scenic landscape of the Mammoth Cave National Park area.

The zigzagging passages opened into larger cave rooms where the strangely contorted stone projections called helictites, rarest of all cave formations dangled from the ceilings.

The three explorers—John Lehrberger of Louisville, Ky., Russell H. Curnee of Tenafly, N. J., and Albert C. Mueller Jr. of Scotch Plains, N. J.—listened to their words bounce back from cave walls that never before echoed the voices of men.

At the expedition's advance camp three miles inside the cave, Phil Harsham, Louisville Courier Journal reporter with the expedition, said the three explorers pushed beyond "Bogardus Waterfalls."

* * *

Striking out from the falls, said Lehrberger, a Louisville dance instructor, was "like diving into a bowl of spaghetti—passages ran in every direction."

"There was considerable excitement at the camp," William Burke Miller, an NBC newsman accompanying the expedition said. Other exploring groups, of four or five members each, also had probed into hitherto unknown passageways.

A group led by R. E. Charlton, a farmer of Dillwyn, Va., discovered an unknown shortcut to Bogardus Waterfalls. The old route took seven tedious hours to travel one way. The shortcut saved other explorers four valuable hours to spend searching on the other side of the falls, which are named for "Bud" Bogardus, 22-year-old Kentucky farmer who first found them in 1949.

2-Minute TV Kiss Brings Firing of Disc Jockey

CHICAGO (AP)—A disc jockey was fired yesterday for kissing a Hollywood starlet for more than two minutes on his television program in what he termed an experiment testing the reaction of TV audiences.

The reaction, said an official of station WBKB, an American Broadcasting Co. affiliate, came from hundreds of women viewers after the marathon kissing episode involving Jack Eigen, radio and TV veteran, and Cleo Moore, film starlet.

A station spokesman said the women protested the long kiss, and charged Eigen with "vulgarity," "coarseness," and "bad taste."

* * *

The station told Eigen in a telegram notifying him of his dismissal that the kissing exhibition on his telecast Monday night was in "extreme poor taste." It added that the long kiss "under no circumstances can be considered acceptable television fare in the homes of our viewers."

"I have no guilty conscience," said Eigen, a former New York disc jockey. "I have been happily married for 18 years, and my wife knew what I planned for the program. If she had thought there was anything unladylike or rude about it, she would have told me."

* * *

Eigen said his performance on his telecast, which was not a network program, was inspired by the censorship imposed on the length of kisses in the movies. Eigen and Miss Moore sat in separate chairs when they kissed. The station estimated the kiss was "more than two minutes."

"I wanted to see whether TV audiences are more broadminded than movie audiences," Eigen said. "I can't see that it was in poor taste."

Miss Moore said the kiss "certainly was not intended to be offensive." When Eigen suggested the kiss, she said, "I tried to be a good sport. I'm sorry that all this came about because I wouldn't want anyone to lose his job."

Bride of Ten Days Dies of Leukemia

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Paul Chylak Jr., 21, who married her state trooper sweetheart 10 days ago without knowing she had a fatal blood disease, died last night with her husband at her bedside.

Evidence that Marie Chylak was suffering from leukemia turned up in a state-required blood test two weeks before her wedding. Doctors said she was dying.

Her husband, a state policeman at the Bedford, Pa., barracks, was told of the situation and insisted on going through with the wedding. Marie was never told the nature of her illness. She collapsed while on her wedding trip.

3 Killed in Head-on Bus, Truck Crash

LA CYGNE, Kan. (AP)—Three persons were killed last night in the flaming, head-on collision of a Continental Trailways bus and an auto transport truck whose driver was believed to have gone to sleep at the wheel.

The dead included Ross Cook, Independence, Mo., driver of the bus, and Russell Gibson, Fort Scott, Kan., driver of the truck operated by Auto Transport, Inc., Oklahoma City.

The third fatality, a bus passenger, had not been identified.

Eight other persons were injured.

Both vehicles burst into flames and a witness said they were virtually "welded" together.

State Highway Patrolman Bill Gray quoted the driver of another auto transport that the one involved in the crash was on the wrong side of the road. Gray quoted Glenn Stanley of Stanley, Kan., that the doomed driver apparently had gone to sleep at the wheel.

When a modern military leader is called a "great captain", the figurative use of the title reflects the great early-day importance of the rank.

Country Seems Free of 'Quakes

Most Portions of U. S. Unbothered by Tremors at All Times

WASHINGTON — In a world jarred by more than 20 000 recorded earthquakes a year the U. S. — except for its West Coast — stands as a stable land seldom disturbed by surface upheavals.

The large majority of Americans thus know earthquakes only by newspaper acounts.

In 1953 not a single major temblor rocked the country; all 700 tremors noted on the 100 U. S. seismographs were quakes of little consequence.

In its past, however, the nation has weathered sharp disturbances, like the one in 1946 when a Seattle housewife said her home "rode like a boat at anchor."

The last major U. S. earthquake occurred in California. In mid-1952 the region around Bakersfield counted its damage in the tens of millions. Fifteen people died.

Many Americans sleep right through quakes. When tremors along the seaboard from southern Canada to Virginia set seismographs scriggling in September 1944, millions of easterners never knew what had happened until they read news dispatches.

The greatest East Coast tremor hit Charleston, S. C., in 1886. Felt in Chicago and Boston, it snuffed out 60 lives and piled up vast damage to buildings, bridges and railroad tracks.

The western plains, surrounding the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys, and the Gulf Coast seem almost quake-proof. But strangely, the Mississippi Valley was once the scene of one of the foremost cataclysms of all time.

However, greatest wrecker in American history was the quake, that wrenched San Francisco in 1906. Seven hundred lives were lost, and fire razed the city. Nearby, the land slipped 21 feet sideways.

In few places does the face of Mother Earth twitch more regularly than in California. In 1949, for example, 200 oil wells were sheared off near San Pedro Bay.

Once a golf championship was at stake in Arizona. One contestant putted the ball straight toward the hole but it paused agonizingly near the lip. Just then the earth quivered. The ball plopped in. And the putter was declared champion.

Neon Cross Guards Church, Guides Fliers

PITTSBURGH (UP) — A church congregation, worried about low-flying planes, has come up with something new in the way of aircraft warning beacons.

An eight-foot, neon-lighted cross has been mounted on the steeple of Union Church, near the Greater Pittsburgh Airport.

The church is located about two seconds flying time from the field and lies in direct line with one of the busiest runways.

"Ever since the new terminal opened, planes have buzzed the belfry like bees after honey," said the Rev. William S. Ruschhaupt, pastor of the church.

It got so bad, that low-flying jets turned Sunday evening services into sudden prayer meetaings. So members of the congregation bought a remedy.

"A neon-lighted sign seemed to be the best idea," Rev. Mr. Ruschhaupt explained. "It would serve as a warning device and an effective crown for the church."

Since the church is located atop the highest point near the airport the cross can be seen all the way to the Ohio border. Even the pilots like the idea.

"At first I thought it was some sort of neon advertisement," said one jet-jockey. "It certainly was strange to suddenly see a huge lighted cross coming at you while landing. But now, most of us are using it as a guide to the field."

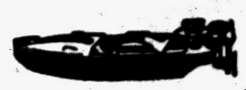

The throat and ears of the beaver are equipped with valves which voluntarily close when the animal dives and open when it comes to the surface.

About 95 per cent of fresh eggs and poultry reach primary markets by truck, and 75 to 80 per cent of all livestock shipments also reach their destinations by truck carriers.

U. S. railroads during 1953 spent $1.2 billion for capital improvements.

Teamsters Plan Fund Safeguard

Executive Board Mulls Action to Halt Misuse; Considers No-Raid Pact

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL Teamsters Union Executive Board today considered establishing safeguards on handling rich union welfare funds and taking a stand on the proposed AFL-CIO "no raiding" agreement.

Teamster union lawyers were prepared to make recommendations to the board on welfare fund checks and on legal questions involved in the AFL-CIO arrangement.

Dave Beck, teamster president, told newsmen in advance he favors establishing "necessary rules and safeguards" around multimillion-dollar union trust funds. Several locals of the teamsters union have been under fire from congressional probers on handling such funds.

* * *

Beck was critical, however, of some suggestions from Congress that he should oust union officials whose dealings with such funds have been questioned.

He said he supported a resolution adopted by the AFL Executive Council here last week calling on all AFL unions to establish procedures to guard against "abuses" of welfare fund administration and distribution of insurance fees.

* * *

As to th AFL-CIO "no raiding" agreement, he has made it plain he doesn't like it.

Under the proposed AFL-CIO pact, an AFL union would be barred from seeking to have a CIO union's members switch allegiance, and vice versa.

Beck's fast-growing union, already claiming more than 1,300,000 members, is reported doubtful about making commitments that might hamper its organizing activities, even at the expense of other unions.

The teamsters stand is important because an outright rejection from so large a union might kill off the whole idea. The "no raiding" agreement is considered as a major step toward an eventual AFL-CIO merger.

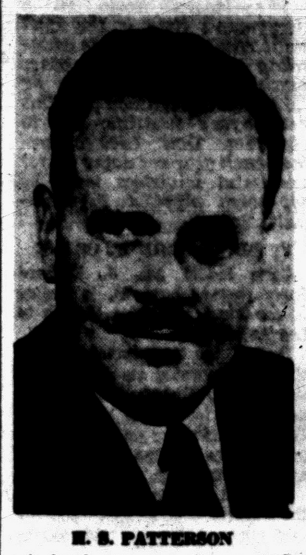

Bartender Loses Recipe for Fancy New Cocktail

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — William Kimura caters to fancy parties. One night a guest found him in the kitchen, frowning and thumbing a drink recipe book.

"I thought I knew them all, but I'm stuck," Kimura said. "How do you make a rain-check?"

Your Commission Candidates

Three Men Seek Nomination on March 1 to Represent City From District Two

H. S. PATTERSON

A local attorney, Harcourt S. Patterson, 44, resides at 88 Oriole Rd. He was educated in Pontiac schools and received his law degree from the University of Michigan in 1935.

Patterson has served as president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and on the advisory boards of Oakland County Town and Country YMCA, Northern Oakland Girl Scout Council and Salvation Army. He is former president of the Pontiac Kiwanis Club, Pontiac Real Estate Board and former director and secretary of the Community Chest.

Patterson is now vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and a director and secretary of Pontiac City Club. He is the father of three children.

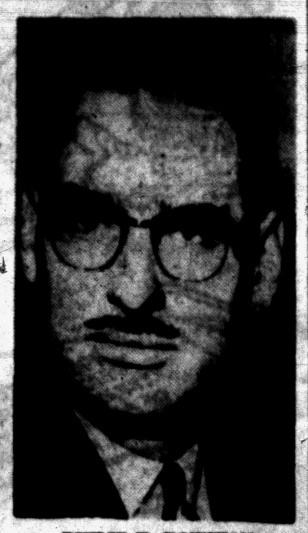

MANLEY E. YOUNG

A Pontiac resident for the past 15 years, Manley E. Young, 53, lives at 196 Cherokee Rd. He is a graduate of Michigan State College and now owns the Art Metal Platers, a local firm.

He is a member of the Elks, Optimists, Congregational Church and Chamber of Commerce.

A former real estate broker, Young belongs to the National Association of Metal Finishers, the American Electroplaters Association and the Plating Institute of Michigan. He is married, with two children.

PHILIP E. ROWSTON

A native of Pontiac, Philip E. Rowston, 32, lives at 24 Utica Rd. A graduate of Detroit College of Law, he has served the past 5½ years as an Oakland County Circuit Court clerk and will soon begin general practice of law.

Rowston is a World War II veteran and member of the local Elks, Amvets and Congregational Church. He served as an accountant at GMC Truck & Coach following his military service.

District 2 is bounded on the west by Telegraph road, the Grand Trunk Railroad and Johnson avenue on the north and east, and Orchard Lake and Voorheis roads on the south. It has six voting precincts, 8, 5, 30, 31, 40 and 41. Commissioner Harold W. Dudley is not seeking re-election.

Pontiac Educators Plan Dinner Feb. 25

Deward Clark, a summer tour director for National Education Assn., will speak on Central and South America when Pontiac Eduation Assn. meets Feb. 25.

The dinner-meeting is scheduled for 6 p.m. at Lincoln Junior High School. Lincoln students will present a program of music before the film-lecture by Clark, who heads Lansing Sexton High School foreign language department.

Miss Mildred Gingell will have charge of table decorations, and program committeemen include Mrs. Edna Forman, Melvin Staebler and Henry Elling.

Smithy Goes to Horses Without Chestnut Tree

DENVER (AP) — No longer does this village smith do his blacksmithing under a spreading chestnut tree.

Gordon C. Crick, retired Army sergeant, uses the back end of a pickup truck. His mobile shop serves more than 600 horse owners within a 50-mile radius of Denver. Crick, says he does about 1,200 shoeing jobs a year at $5 to $6 each.

British Enjoying Boom

In cheering contrast to the situation in recent years our British cousins are enjoying the spectacle of clearing economic skies.

Surprising though it may sound to American ears, the Britain which not so long ago admitted that austerity still ruled, is experiencing something of an economic boom.

According to a United Press dispatch from London, production and employment are at record levels despite a drop in trade with the United States during the last three months of 1953.

Latest figures point to further strengthening of the economy. For example steel production was the highest last month for any January in history. With overall production at new high levels, industrial bonds and share prices are just below the all time records set in 1947.

Not only have gold and dollar reserves reached new highs, but British farmers last year helped materially by producing record yields of wheat, barley, oats, potatoes and turnips.

All this is just about as good news here as it is in the United Kingdom. A brightening of Britain's economic outlook and her increasing posperity means a stronger free world.

A Year Round Job

The period February 21-28 has special significance for all Americans because it will mark the 21st national observance of Brotherhood Week.

The idea of such an observance, originated by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, is to emphasize once a year that brotherhood is a never ending need for us as a Nation.

It is heartening to realize the forces of organized bigotry gradually are being routed. Steadily and surely in all departments of human relations discrimination is disappearing. Much of the credit for this belongs to the high-minded Protestants, Catholics and Jews who organized the National Conference 26 years ago.

We endorse a Brotherhood Week because it helps remind all of us that democracy is a system of free men banded together to keep freedom in a free country. Freedom thrives only where there is understanding. Prejudices and discrimination, intolerance and persecution exist only where there is ignorance.

We can do much to promote brotherhood by helping the many organizations which foster it. Contributing to the community blood bank or supporting the United Fund is an act of brotherhood.

Our hope is that the time will come when Brotherhood Week will be a reminder not of the presence of discrimination, but of its absence.

U. S. Aims in Indochina

Despite some Congressional doubts on the issue, there is growing support for President EISENHOWER's position on the Indochina problem.

IKE's aim above all else is to avoid involvement in that seven year struggle. At the same time he backs the sending of 200 technicians to teach the French how to service the B-26s we loaned them to fight the Vietminh. These 200 mechanics reinforce the 125 already there.

★ ★ ★

On this issue the President's position is directly opposite to that taken by two Democratic members of the Senate Armed Services Committee, RUSSELL of Georgia and STENNIS of Mississippi. These two Senators regard the dispatch of mechanics to the fighting area as risking "piecemeal" involvement in the war.

Yet the fact is that the American people already have a large investment in the fight for Indochina. We have sent a great deal of military help directly to the fighting area and more in the form of economic and military help to France.

Our cause wouldn't be helped by allowing the Reds to think we have lost interest in Indochina. If the Commies win this fight the principle that armed aggression does not pay, established at such heavy cost in Korea, will have been lost.

★ ★ ★

That there is a risk involved no one can deny. Neither can it be denied that a Communist victory would give Red China the gateway to Southeast Asia. Beyond that gateway lie Thailand, Burma and India with their millions of people, their wealth of raw materials and products.

All these considerations, it seems to us, leave no alternative but to support the Administration's position.

Let's Help God Tear Down Iron Curtain and Stop Arguing, Says Young Reader

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I am only a girl 13 years old and do not understand many world problems but recently I heard over the radio where a Republican senator accused the Democratic party of being as bad as Communists.

Don't we have enough trouble keeping our country free and trying to get other countries to see the light of God without fighting among ourselves?

God gave us this country, let's be proud of it and fight to keep it up, not run it down by arguing among ourselves. Remember, think before you say something.

Would the boys who died for our country want us to fight among ourselves? If people of the two parties want to fight they should be put in Korea to fight for our country and not personal problems.

Let's try and help God tear the iron curtain down, after all, what is a God loving and God fearing country for?

Dislikes Proceedings to Confiscate Property

I have been reading about the condemnation proceedings which, to me, seem to indicate that our City Manager, Mayor and City Commissioners are trying to confiscate property purchased by Jack Habel Chevrolet Company which undoubtedly is very valuable to Mr. Habel in order to enlarge his business.

I understand Mr. Habel paid $60,000 for this piece of property and that the city management has now procured estimates to place a so-called fair value of less than $40,000 on that piece of property.

Mr. Habel is a well known businessman and I am sure that both Mr. Habel and his business is an asset to this city. What is our city government trying to do, drive business out of Pontiac?

Dem Liberals Sponsoring Legislation Restricting Free Speech . . . but Why?

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—This is certainly a topsy-turvy world—if one takes seriously the news dispatches of today which show "liberals" trying to restrict freedom of expression and another group on the opposite side, called "reactionaries," trying to prevent such restriction.

Some senators of the Democratic party usually described as "liberals" are sponsoring legislation which would prevent certain high officials in the Department of State from speaking at political meetings.

They say that the Hatch Act should be amended so as to prohibit the security officer of the State Department, R. W. Scott McLeod, from making political addresses.

Normally one would expect any "liberal" to be interested in widening rather than restricting the area of expression for the individual.

No more reactionary piece of legislation was ever put on the statute books than the Hatch Act, which takes away from government employes their right to speak their own views on the subject of public affairs.

With all the shouting that has been done lately about a "hysteria" that would deprive citizens of guarantees given them under the Bill of Rights, it is surprising that an effort now is being made to make the Hatch Act more rather than less restrictive.

The fallacy in this movement can be readily discerned when it is noted that the Hatch Act does not deprive "presidential appointees" of their right to speak at political meetings.

In the State Department, for instance, the legal adviser as well as the various assistant secretaries of state and the secretary himself all have duties to perform with reference to decisions on the security or loyalty status of employes.

McLeod may gather data, but his is not the final decision on security and the employe who is charged with irregularity of any kind has the right of appeal above McLeod's jurisdiction to the under secretary of state for administration, Donald Lourie.

It seems passing strange that when Adrian Fisher, legal adviser of the Department of State under the Truman administration, made political speeches—and the legal adviser certainly is in a "quasi-judicial" or "judicial" position on almost every question that comes before him, including the security of personnel—no objection came from any of the "liberal" senators.

Just why should anybody in the United States Congress be afraid to let a government official express himself on any subject of public interest whether it is at a political meeting or a non-political gathering?

The line of demarcation between a speech extolling administration policies, yet not mentioning the name of a political party, and an address which happens to use the name of a political party or candidate is too thin to recognize.

Any official or employe of the government can make so-called "non-political" speeches at any time and yet be immune from the Hatch Act penalties but, the moment political parties are mentioned, freedom of speech for the government employe vanishes.

One wonders what the Supreme Court of the United States will say to all this some day if it gets a clear-cut case of a Hatch Act violation based on a public speech at a political meeting. On its face, the law seems invalid.

Liberal groups, moreover, are adopting resolutions advocating restriction on congressional committees. They seem to forget the words of wisdom which came from the pen of a well-known liberal—then an esteemed professor at the Harvard law school—Felix Frankfurter, who wrote in a magazine article in 1924:

"The question is not whether people's feelings here and there may be hurt or names 'dragged through the mud,' as it is called... Critics, who have nothing to say for the astonishing corruption and corrupting soil which have been brought to light, seek to divert attention and shackle the future by suggesting restrictions in the procedure of future congressional investigations."

What brought forth that comment from Professor Frankfurter? Scandals in a Republican administration which were being exposed by the relentless "methods" of Sen. Tom Walsh, Democrat, of Montana—who, incidentally, had presidential ambitions that year.

The persons whose names were being publicized then were just business men who were protesting violations of the rights of privacy by congressional investigations.

So it all depends on whose ox is gored—whether and when "liberals" really stand for the widest congressional investigations and the freest expression by individuals in the government.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Writing Problems Down Helps Dispel Petty Woes

The biggest drain on a clergyman's time is the constant request for private counseling on marriage and other psychological problems. So take full advantage of this newspaper's scientific aid to churches. Over 1,500 clergymen each year are doing so, for successful ministers must be top-notch Applied Psychologists,, too.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-327: Dr. J. Richard Sneed, aged about 48, is pastor of the First Methodist Church in Los Angeles.

During the past summer that church celebrated its 100th anniversary, so Bishop Gerald Kennedy was invited to deliver the 11 o'clock sermon and I was imported from Chicago to handle the evening assembly.

I talked on the topic "Jesus—the Perfect Psychologist" and the vast audience seemed most appreciative.

"But you aren't through yet," Dr. Sneed smilingly informed me afterwards, "for I'd like to have you address 150 clergymen and their wives at a luncheon tomorrow.

"For we pastors are swamped with requests from parishioners to counsel with them on marriage and family problems.

"So please tell us what system or methods we should employ."

The clergy are the best applied psychologists in America but they cannot meet the needs of all their parishioners if they must be freely accessible to everybody for a 2-hour interview apiece.

So I recommend the following method for priests and clergy.

First, inform your parishioners that you are available to all of them for personal interviews.

But as a part of your method, insist that each person write an outline of his problem and submit it in advance so that you can study it carefully.

This enables the clergyman to digest the case in a few minutes, instead of wasting an hour or two of his time while the parishioner wanders around in trying to get down to brass tacks.

For patients notoriously try to avoid facing their problem. They will actually go way around Robin Hood's barn, so to speak, and take many hours of the counsellor's time.

Many problems, moreover, are not serious or permanent. Sometimes a good night's sleep will cause the difficulty to vanish which a "gushing" parishioner might want to pour out to her clergyman in a 2-hour interview.

Obviously, it would be a waste of his time to have devoted the two hours to her case when sleep or some other event would have solved it in a few days.

So insist that parishioners write their problem. This will save you time and weed out the non-critical problems.

For unless a problem is of a serious nature, most people are too lazy to sit down and write it out.

If it is a real difficulty, however, they are willing to outline it on paper.

The very act of facing the problem and describing it in written words is worth almost 50 per cent of the cure.

In fact, many patients then don't need to call on the doctor or clergyman at all, for they can solve their own problems after they have had the courage to face them and name them.

If a parishioner then submits his written case, you clergymen can see him in person. Give him a 15-minute interview.

Then place in his hands some tangible psychological chart, such as the "Compliment Club" bulletin, which will keep him occupied for 30 days.

If he fulfills this psychological task, then let him see you for a second interview, but not otherwise. Patients must work out their own salvation!

Over 1,500 clergymen each year write for the various Rating Scales offered via this column.

Your newspaper and I will send you a complimentary set, and if you want quantity lots for use in your churches, you get them at cost, so take full advantage of such aids to pastoral counselling.

Speaking of security risks would you hire a Minotaur for a baby-sitter?

Would you send a cabbage leaf by a rabbit? Would you bank your money on a slanting roof on a windy day?

These are security risks that we are all too chipper to go for. So you must figure the government has a complete right to screen its employes.

We are living in a time when the walls have ears and the keyholes have eyelashes.

But if your conscience is as clear as consomme you can sleep on a circular stairway without wrinkling your pants.

President Eisenhower streeted around 2,000 riskeroos since he changed the oil on the executive swivel chair. Some for disloyalty and some for reasons you would whisper to a Sixth Avenue druggist's clerk.

Some were rumpots, some were blabbermouths and some were just some.

Ike switched a century old political slogan with his dismissals of the spotted minority. To the victors do not belong the spoiled.

This writer has been perstonicated by the frankness of both the committees and the newspapers in printing the details. They've stopped spelling out things in front of the White House reporters.

Would you say a bartender with a wet mustache is a bad security risk? Would you hire a color-blind paint mixer?

How long would you last with a victim of hay-fever sneezing in your loose stamp collection? Would you care to have your hair cut by the Australian champion woodchopper?

Dr. Brady Says Sure, He Calls Names but Actually Is Only Speaking Generally

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Perhaps I am prejudiced, but it does seem to me that the field of physiology, hygiene, nutrition and prevention of disease is so extensive and so important that it should rate a lot of newspaper space.

From the incidental remarks in the letters some of you poor misguided people write me, I gather that you feel hurt by my name calling propensity. I'm sorry if you take it that way.

All I can say is that no one can identify an individual I have called old geezer, scarpuss, knucklehead, fatsygamp, poor geek, stinker, Mrs. Sumsey, or other name. My name calling is purely rhetorical—what rhetoric! Excuse it, please.

This might well be frowned upon as unprofessional, undignified, unkind or whatever else unseemly a this were a medical column.

But haven't you noticed that precious few diseases, symptoms and medicines are served up here?

No, I'd much rather call you names and take my medicine if you happen to be a VIP than worry you about diseases and symptoms which should be discussed only in the privacy of your doctor's consulting room.

The sad effects of morbid suggestion seem to be the same whether victims get the suggestion from quack bait, doctor books or medical matter in newspapers.

A reader asks on a postal card: What are the symptoms of cancer in . . .? And requests an answer in my column.

I'd hesitate to answer the query even in private letter and I daren't do so here. Once I printed a gentle hint that it is unwise to assume that certain constant symptoms indicate "cancer" for the trouble might prove . . . man took alarm, hurried to his physician, who made a proper examination and assured the patient the trouble was only piles.

I was kicked out of the state. I felt sorry about it, too. Not that it made any noticeable difference in my income, but because I lost the opportunity to teach thousands of benighted people the ways of health.

My name calling, bumptiousness, feeble attempts to be humorous; my criticism of what I consider shameful abuses in the medical profession; and my refusal to side with anti-vivisection, anti-vaccination, anti-fluoridation, anti-aluminum propagandists, make some people mad at me, but under the precepts of Hippocrates I do try not to make 'em sick.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 300 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

Immigration Men Play Cupid to Aid Border Wedding

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—A displaced Polish couple was honeymooning in Ontario today after customs and immigration men helped play Cupid in a marriage ceremony performed on the International Bridge here.

Joseph Byczyk, 37, and Maria Krys, 26, were childhood sweethearts until the war separated them. Miss Krys came to the United States from Germany in 1950 as a displaced person. Byczyk arrived in Canada on the same basis recently.

American immigration laws prevented Byczyk from coming here to claim his bride. And Canada's regulations made it impossible for Miss Kry to get a license there.

J. N. Smith, a Fort Frances, Ont., attorney, paved the way for the ceremony a few hours before Valentine's Day when he helped the bride-to-be get a marriage license here.

Then the couple was married in the customs house on the bridge, with American and Canadian officials looking on—after they had bent the rigid regulations of both nations a little bit.

Job Opportunities Open for Women Engineers

CHICAGO (UP) — Women have the "opportunity of a lifetime" to make further inroads in such a "man's world" as the engineering profession, according to Mrs. Lois McDowell, assistant professor of mechanical engineering at Illinois Institute of Technology.

Industry, she said, urgently needs engineers — women as well as men. The need has been estimated at more than 30,000 a year and "there is little hope that this figure will be met."

Along with the serious shortage of engineers, she added, there is a growing emphasis on "brain work" and less physical labor, and "certainly, the well-trained woman has no handicap in this respect."

GENEVA, Neb. (UP) — When Gale Walton of Geneva flew on an airliner from New York to Omaha, he gave the airline pilot a lift the rest of the way to Fairmont, Neb. Walton discovered the pilot, Herbert Goodrich, was an old friend. Goodrich rode with Walton by auto to Fairmont to visit his family.

Subway Goes Ritzy

NEW YORK (UP) — New York is going to modernize its subway cars and tidy up the stations.

The City Transit Authority, which boosted fares from 10 to 15 cents, is going to spend some of the additional revenue for posture seats, rubber cushions and new lighting. The cost is estimated at $1,657,000.

Dean Is Name Collector

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — Arthur H. Huges, vice president and dean of Trinity College, collects oddly named Connecticut communities as a hobby. Some of the stranger ones he's come up with are: Gadpouch, Lull, Moose Meadow, Nod, Obtuse, Pigtail Corners, Puddletown and Wallop.

Tots Crash First Truck

BEVERLY, Mass. (UP) — A 4-year-old boy and his 3-year-old brother have crashed their first truck. The boys were riding a toy fire engine on the sidewalk when they lost control. The truck went over the curbing and collided with a car that was coming to a stop for a traffic light. Both boys had to be taken to the hospital.

Furlough Times Cut

FT. DEVENS, Mass. (AP) — Soldiers hustling back from furlough became involved in so many predawn highway accidents that Army authorities took action. Leaves formerly ended at 6 a. m. and the soldiers—weary from lack of sleep—often drove all night in an effort to arrive before reveille. Now all furloughs end at midnight.

Cut in Draft Won't Come Until '56, Claims Hannah

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Reduced draft calls cannot be expected until fiscal year 1956, and "are expected to average 18,000 for the next six months," according to John A. Hannah, Assitant Secretary of Defense for Manpower. The 18,000 figure is the same as that announced for February, the lowest since June, 1952.

Hannah made his prediction in a question-and-answer session with NEA's Washington Bureau, in which for the first time he specifically relates manpower goals to the new budget. The questions and Hannah's answers follow.

JOHN A. HANNAH: Some older men and a few 19-year-olds.

Q. Does the new military budget which calls for a reduced Army mean that draft calls will be reduced?

A. Not necessarily. Draft calls are determined by the need for replacement of losses due to expiration of term of services less the number who enlist voluntarily and less reenlistments. Therefore a change in end strength goals does not in itself indicate the size of draft calls.

Q. When can you look forward to reduced draft calls? What will they average for the next six months?

A. Draft calls are expected to average 18,000 for the next six months. We cannot expect reduced draft calls until fiscal year 1956, a year in which losses through expiration of term of service are relatively light.

Q. Does the cut in the size of the Army mean that draftees will start going into the Air Force and Navy?

A. No. Men will not be drafted for the Air Force and Navy as long as vacancies can be filled with voluntary enlistees.

Q. Does the so-called "new look" which places greater emphasis on use of newer, more complicated weapons mean that the mental level of draftees will be raised?

A. No. While it would be desirable from the standpoint of the services to raise the standards, there is no plan to adopt new criteria at present.

Q. Is there any plan to raise or lower the physical standards for draftees?

A. No. Physical standards are the same now as they were at the peak strength in World War II when we were scraping the bottom of the manpower barrel. It is the opinion of the Department of Defense that we cannot economically lower the standards further.

Q. Is the supply of men currently reaching draft age satisfying the needs for new men?

A. Yes.

Q. What is the draft outlook ring the next six months for the the various age groups?

A. It is expected that calls will be filled during the next six months primarily from registrants 20 years of age. It may be necessary to call a few 19-year-olds. Also some older men previously deferred will be called.

Q. Has the end of the fighting in Korea had any effect on the enlistment rate? On the reenlistment rate?

A. Apparently not. Enlistment and reenlistment rates continue to fluctuate about as they did in fiscal year 1953 and early fiscal year 1954 and no definite trend has developed.

Q. Is there any plan to ask Congress for an extended or reduced period of service for draftees?

A. No. The Department of Defense strongly supports the present 24-month period, as being the minimum economical, useful period of service.

Q. Is there any plan to ask Congress to change the draft age limits?

A. No. The present age limits are providing adequate numbers and no factors have developed indicating the advisability of a change.

Russian Libraries Forbid Books by Gandhi, Nehru

NEW DELHI (AP) — Iron Curtain Countries have ordered removal of books on the lives and teachings of Indian leaders Gandhi and Nehru from all libraries, the influential Hindustan Times says.

Quoting an unnamed Indian personage who recently visited a Soviet bloc country, the report stated that Red libraries stock numerous Indian Communist books translated into Russian.

Missing Yacht Found, Radio Out of Order

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (UP)—The Coast Guard reported last night that the Florida racing yacht Dirigo II, missing since Feb. 8 with four men aboard, was found 90 miles north of Galapagos Islands.

The Dirigo called the marine operator at the Coast Guard station here and said the passengers were well and not in any danger. The craft expects to reach the Galapagos Thursday, the Coast Guard said.

The owner and skipper, James W. Crawford Jr. of Bradenton and Sarasota, Fla., said the craft's radio had gone out of order and the crewmen were unaware of the search for them.

Woman Helps Police, Reports Her Violation

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — A Lincoln woman telephoned police headquarters with her "confession."

After a short consultation, police decided all would be forgiven — this time. The offense was running a red light.

Hunters Miss Many Kills Not Visible on Ground

ROSCOMMON (UP) — Peter Van Valin, pilot for the State Conservation Department, feels that some of the sights he sees while on aerial forest fire "smoke patrol" would raise the blood pressure of any good hunter.

He said it is not uncommon for him to see from his plane hunters sitting in a clearing with motionless deer only a few yards away behind the foliage.

Van Valin said he once spotted one of the largest deer he ever saw feeding in front of a hunting cabin while the hunters were strung out in a marsh behind the cabin.

200 HP makes BUICK's CENTURY the power buy of the year!

The sensational Buick CENTURY is available for 1954 in a full line of models including the completely new all-steel 4-door, 6-passenger Estate Wagon shown here.

NO OTHER CAR GIVES YOU ALL THIS:

GREATEST STYLING ADVANCE IN YEARS with completely new bodies across the board; lowered rooflines, longer and higher fender sweep, exclusive sweep-spear design

BIGGEST VENTILATION ADVANCE in Buick interior comfort: new, screened intake just below windshield brings in huge quantities of outside air at hood-high level, freer of road heat and fumes

NEWEST VISIBILITY ADVANCE with backswept windshields that give 19% more visibility; greater glass area around full 360° arc

FINEST MILLION DOLLAR RIDE—from all-coil springing, torque-tube drive, longer wheelbases—and a new front-end geometry that stabilizes "cornering," insures more positive control, more responsive handling

HIGHEST V8 HORSEPOWERS in Buick history—from advanced vertical-valve V8 engines with up to 8.5 to 1 compression and 200 hp—plus more fuel efficiency from new Power-Head Pistons

—PLUS THE WIDEST SELECTION OF MODERN FEATURES—either as standard equipment or extra-cost options: TWIN-TURBINE DYNAFLOW • SAFETY POWER STEERING • AUTOMATIC-BOOSTER POWER BRAKES • POWER-POSITIONED 4-WAY FRONT SEAT • DRAFT-FREE AIRCONDITIONER • POWER-OPERATED RADIO ANTENNA • EASY-EYE GLASS • WIRE WHEELS • ELECTRIC WINDOW LIFTS

It has sports-car smartness and sports-car snap.

It combines sports-car compactness with Buick roominess—six-passenger big.

And for sports-car performance, this spectacular CENTURY rolls off the assembly line with a 200-hp V8 engine and a trim 3852 pounds—highest power-to-weight ratio in Buick history.

But—what does all that horsepower get you?

It gets you brilliant performance. It gets you more economy. It gets you added safety.

At the wheel of a Buick CENTURY, you find getaway more responsive, cruising more pleasant, hill-climbing so nimble you feel you're on the level. Your engine is normally working at just a fraction of its capacity. You have a tremendous power reservoir to call on in sudden emergencies.

And beyond this, you have the lowest-cost automotive horsepower in the land. For in the popular-priced Buick CENTURY, you are buying more horsepower per dollar than you get in any other car in America.

Come in and try this glamorous new Buick beauty soon. It is, by all odds, the power buy of the year.

Congressional Quiz

Nomination of Postmasters Brings Question to Mind

Q. — I noticed that recently President Eisenhower nominated 272 people for Postmaster jobs. Just how many Post Offices are there?

A — There were 40,130 U. S. Post Offices, not counting branches or stations, as of Jan. 1, 1954. According to the Post Office Department, about 22,240 were first, second or third-class offices. The Postmasters for these offices are appointed by the President, who uses Civil Service registers, and the nominations are subject to Senate confirmation. The remaining were fourth-class offices, and Postmasters for them are appointed by the Postmaster General.

Q — What are the qualifications for serving in Congress?

A — The Constitution states that a Representative must be at least 25 years old, a citizen for at least seven years and at the time of election, a resident of the state he represents. A Senator must be at least 30 years old, a citizen for at least nine years, and a resident of his state at the time of election.

Q — When will the primary elections be held this year?

A — Illinois voters will be the first to select candidates in a primark this year on April 13. They will ballot for nominees for various offices, including the U. S. Senate seat now held by Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D). New Jersey's primary April 20 will be next. Alabama, Florida, Indiana, New Mexico, and Ohio will vote for party candidates May 4. Other primaries will occur later in May and in June, July, August and September.

Q — I read that the Disabled Veterans and other "chartered" veterans groups appeared before the House Veterans Affairs Committee recently to make their annual reports. Why do they have to report to Congress?

A — Veterans groups chartered by Congress are required by law to make annual financial reports to the House Veterans Affairs Committee. Besides the DAV, chartered veterans groups are the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Veterans of World War II.

Q — When will American troops be brought home from Japan?

A — Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) Chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations Far East Subcommittee, said Feb. 2 it may be four or five years before all American troops now in Japan may be brought home.

Q — How many additional persons would be covered by Social Security if Congress and the states adopted President Eisenhower's recommendations for extended coverage?

A — About 10.3 million more persons would be brought into the Old Age and Survivors Insurance system.

Q — Is a roll-call vote required when the Senate consents to ratification of a treaty?

A — No, but several of the compromise proposals offered during debate on the Bricker amendment — to amend the treaty-making procedure — would require roll-call votes for ratification. Consent to ratification now requires a two-thirds vote of those present.

Diseases Show Drop in County

Mumps Increases With 71 New Cases; Other Illnesses on Downtrend

More Oakland County people caught mumps last week than the week before but fewer came down with measles and chicken pox, a county health department report showed today.

The weekly report, released by Dr. John D. Monroe, county health director, covers the whole county except for Pontiac.

Last week's tally listed 71 cases of mumps, compared with 66 the week before. But measles cases totaled 110, well under the previous week's 185 cases.

Only 63 new cases of chicken pox were found, as against 72 cases the week before.

The county report follows in full:

	Past Week	Week Ending Feb. 6, '54	Feb. 14, '53
Chicken pox	63	72	152
Measles	110	185	46
Pneumonia (all forms)	0	3	3
Poliomyelitis	0	0	1
Scarlet fever	12	14	17
Tuberculosis (all forms)	0	3	0
Whooping cough	6	14	0
Mumps	71	66	20
Rubella	5	6	27
Rheumatic fever	1	2	0
Diarrhea	4	6	9
Hepatitis	1	1	5

Pontiac City Health Department's report, also released by Dr. Monroe, showed little change in disease standings last week.

New chicken pox cases totaled 7, just one less than the previous week's eight cases. Nine new cases of mumps were listed, one up from the eight shown for the week before.

The city department's complete report reads as follows:

	Past Week	Week Ending Feb. 6, '54	Feb. 14, '53
Chicken pox	7	8	23
Gonorrhea	9	8	14
Measles	2	2	51
Pneumonia	2	1	1
Syphilis	3	2	6
Tuberculosis	0	0	1
Whooping cough	2	1	0

Contracts Awarded for County Roads

Oakland County Road Commission has awarded contracts for blacktopping old concrete pavement on some 10 miles of three local highways this summer.

Robert O. Felt, commission chairman, said A and A Asphalt Paving Co., Birmingham, won contracts to resurface almost two miles of Orchard Lake road from Grand River to Eleven Mile road for $46,236.10 and three miles of Crooks road from M 59 to Adams road for $60,480.70.

Ann Arbor Construction Co. was low bidder on the third job, winning a $109,788 contract to blacktop 5.23 miles of Williams Lake road from U.S. 10 to Elizabeth Lake road.

DEEP WATER—An Oakland County Road Commission truck slogged bumper-deep in water as it tested the depth of a pond that formed Tuesday on Exmoor street near Elizabeth Lake road. Watching Louis McDonald of Davisburg drive through the hazard was Dewey Addington of Holly, who stood by with warning lamps.

SINKHOLE—Twelve-year-old James Larsen, 650 Melrose Ave., tests the depth of a sinkhole on Melrose following Tuesday's heavy rains. Streets throughout the Melrose area were softened, pitted and rutted by this week's high-speed thaw.

Kills His Family, Then Himself

Threats by Columbus Man Not Considered to Be Serious

COLUMBUS, Ind. (AP)—A 45-year-old former taxicab driver killed his wife, his daughter and three step-children as they slept yesterday, prowled his silent home for hours and then killed himself.

* * *

Coroner Joseph Dudding said the five members of Kyde Ricketts' family had been dead from 12 to 24 hours when the bodies were found last night. The coroner said Ricketts had killed them and spent several hours in the small house alone before killing himself.

* * *

Dead besides Ricketts were his wife Martha, 29; his daughter, Vicki Mae, 1½, and his step-children, Patricia Ann Shelley, 8, Marvin Eugene Shelley, 7, and Gloria Jean Davis, 4.

Neighbors told of threats by Ricketts to wipe out the family but said the threats were not taken seriously. No one could explain what led to his final action.

Propose College Students as Rush-Hour Policemen

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Busy street intersections may be manned by Western Michigan College students during rush hours if a current plan is adopted by the City Commission.

The plan was proposed after the Commission was told that the city doesn't have enough policemen to handle rush-hour traffic. The plan would cost the city an estimated $11,250 per year.

NO FISHIN'?—Typical of yards and fields flooded by Tuesday's heavy rains was the back yard and garage approach of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Harnack at 3303 Lexington St. The Harnacks, though, weren't inconvenienced by the February weather—they're vacationing in Florida.

Call City on Home Faults

Construction defects found in new homes should be reported immediately to the City Building Department, according to John E. Ryan, building inspector.

"The department inspects every new building at least four times during the course of its construction," Ryan said, "However, it is impossible to guarantee that some hidden defect will not show up after the house is occupied."

Examples are plugged sewers, cracked basement walls and floors, cracked plaster, leaking pipes, sprung windows and leaky roofs, said Ryan.

When such imperfections show up, Ryan explained, the building department is seldom informed in time for it to take effective action.

"The usual procedure is to call the builder first," Ryan stated, "if nothing is done, the FHA, VA or mortgage company is called in." If this accomplished nothing home owners sometimes secure legal assistance, Ryan added.

Following these channels, many complaints don't reach the building department for as long as two years, said Ryan. "In such cases there is very little the city can do for the unfortunate owner," he stated.

"However, if the owner will only call the City Building Department first, the city will take steps to see that all legitimate complaints are corrected immediately," Ryan said.

All complaints are considered, Ryan explained, and the property inspected within 48 hours. "In all cases where the department has been notified at once, legitimate complaints have been remedied within 30 days." he added.

Students Sell Bricks to Build New School

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — For the past two weeks some 250 pupils of Baldwin Christian School have been selling wooden bricks for 10 cents each, and business has been brisk. The miniature bricks are symbols of the bricks going into a $145,000 new school under construction.

A final tabulation showed the youngsters had raised nearly $1,000 for the building fund through the unusual campaign.

Champion salesman was Bert Klaver, 11, who came to Grand Rapids from The Netherlands only two years ago. His total: $129.80.

Only Two Men in Race for Seat

6 Other Sections of City Going to Polling Places on March 1

Pontiac City Commission last night ruled that no primary will be necessary in District 1 because only two candidates are entered in the race there.

Incumbent Commissioner Dr. Roy V. Cooley is a candidate for re-election and Reuben Lopatin of 336 Dick St. is also running.

More than two candidates are running in the other six districts and a primary will be necessary in each March 1.

In other action the commission accepted $4,015 from the Fidelity and Casualty Co. in payment for sidewalk constructed by the city at the firm's request.

Engineer's cost estimates were received and public hearings set for Feb. 23 on the following proposed projects: Curb, gutter and drainage.

E. Tennyson from Baldwin to University, $8,320.
Bartell from Rasbob to Columbia, $21,770.
E. Beverly from Joslyn to Fuller, $13,080.
Piddle from Jessie to east end of the street, $6,880.
Irwin from Going to E. Boulevard, $7,843.
Wilson from Going to E. Boulevard, $6,384.

First readings were given ordinances to: Rezone to C-1 the north 395 feet of lot 1, assessor's plat 37. Rezone to C-1 lots 503 to 512 inclusive of Du Pont Heights Subdivision.

Public hearings were held and special assessment rolls authorized for presentation Feb. 23 for proposed curb, gutter and drainage on:

Harrison from Franklin to Bagley.
Markle from Joslyn to east end of the street.
Going from Osmun to Whittemore.

Special assessment rolls were received and confirmation deferred on projects including:

Two-inch blacktop paving on Center from Osmun to Cottage.
Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Mayer from Cottage to Osmun.
Curb, gutter and miscellaneous drainage on Strathmore from Baldwin to University.
A sanitary sewer on the westerly side of Oakland from Cass to opposite Kinney.
A trunk storm drain on Bagley from Nevada to California.
Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on California from Franklin to Bagley.

A special assessment roll was accepted and public hearing set for Feb. 23 for proposed curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Bondale from Earlmoor to east line of the subdivision.

Resolutions of public necessity were passed for the following projects:

Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Willard from Center to Paddock.
Two-inch concrete recap and related work on Montcalf from Baldwin to Perry, Walton from west city limits to Perry, S. Boulevard from Belt Line Railroad to Opdyke, Emmett from Baldwin to W. Boulevard.

At Internal Revenue Office

Residents Asked to Phone About Income Tax Queries

Taxpayers were encouraged today to phone inquiries about their income tax to the Pontiac branch of the Internal Revenue Bureau, according to A. M. Menninger, district director.

"Many taxpayers come to our office with questions which could be answered in a few seconds," according to Menninger, "and it would save them time and energy if they used our telephone service."

The telephone number of the revenue office at 53½ W. Huron St. is FE 4-2541.

With no substantial changes in the income tax law since 1953, the director believes that many taxpayers' questions result from technical points which the taxpayer has not confronted in the past.

Menninger assured the public that "those taxpayers who prepare their own returns, but encounter a technical problem not answered in the tax return instructions, can get a prompt answer by telephoning."

Taxpayers are urged not to wait until the last minute to file their federal income tax returns which are due March 15.

School Enrollment to Hit 46 Million by '60 in U. S.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (INS) — Education Commissioner Samuel H. Brownell predicted tonight that by 1960 total enrollment in elementary and secondary schools in the U. S. will reach nearly 46,000,000 students.

Speaking at a general session of the 80th annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City, the federal commissioner declared:

"Office of Education figures reveal that enrollment now in grade schools, high schools and colleges is up to 36,700,000, 31.7 per cent over 1946. Another 25 per cent rise is certain by 1960."

Last of U.S. Cavalry Horses Get Reprieve at Ft. Riley

By MARY KAY FLYNN

FT. RILEY, Kans. (NEA)—The last of the U. S. cavalry horses aren't making a last stand, after all.

They won't be moved to strange pastures or be "put to sleep." They have been given a reprieve, and will stay at this century-old cavalry post of the Indian wars.

Famous for distinguished service to their country, the 30 retired horses at Ft. Riley will continue to graze on hills once covered with as many as 300,000 military steeds at one time.

They will remain as the final evidence of the glorious past of the mounted soldier.

Recently, Fifth Army Headquarters in Chicago announced that the retired horses would be moved to Camp Carson, Colo., home of a pack mule installation, or be destroyed as an economy move.

"Would you shoot General Wainwright's horse?" asked M Sgt. Charles "Kayo" Brown, Ft. Riley farrier for 26 years, when he heard the news.

Milwood, 21-year-old favorite mount of the hero of Bataan, is one of the retired horses fondly tended by Brown, a cavalryman for 33 years. The horse was chosen by Wainwright while the general was stationed at Ft. Riley in the 1930s.

Perhaps the prospect of moving or destroying the horses bothered others outside the Kansas post as much as it did old cavalrymen. An official spokesman at Fifth Army Headquarters, asked for a probable date for the economy transfer, reported that no action regarding the announced move is contemplated "now or in the foreseeable future."

According to Lt. Col. C. B. Johnston, commander of the Veterinarian Detachment responsible for the horses, Congress did not appropriate any specific funds for retired horses in fiscal 1954.

"They always did before," he commented.

Sgt. Brown, one of the three men detailed to care for the horses, recalled the law providing for retirement of distinguished horses when they reach the age of 16 and said he considered the lack of appropriation comparable to retiring a soldier and then not paying his pension.

Because each of the retired horses has a history, they were not sold in the Ft. Riley dispersal of 1947. Brown closed his horseshoeing school that year.

The last three horses to join the band at Ft. Riley are Swizzlestick, Rattler and Bull Biddle, veterans of the 1952 Olympics at Helsinki.

The oldest is 27-year-old Dakota, famed champion jumper of the 1936 Olympics.

In addition to General Wainwright, famous generals in Ft. Riley's past included Gen. George Armstrong Custer, whose ill-fated Seventh Cavalry regiment was stationed at the Kansas post; Gen. J. E. B. Stewart of the Civil War; Gen. George S. Patton, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

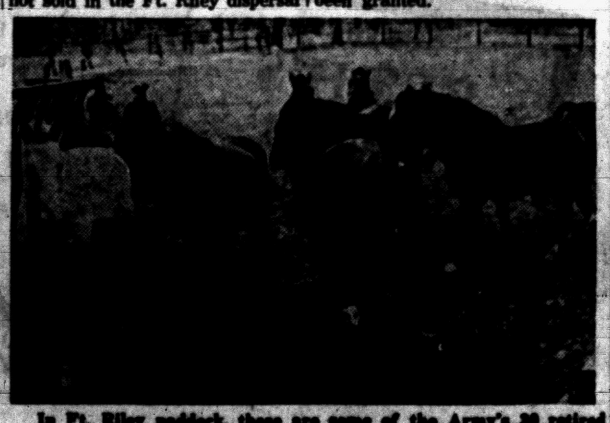

The post was founded in 1853 to guard westward-bound pioneers from Indian attacks.

A large collection of empty saddles at the post is polished daily in the tradition of the past, and Sgt. Brown still uses anvil and hammer at one of the two remaining blacksmith's forges.

Those duties lately are performed with more than usual devotion, now that the reprieve has been granted.

Oldest equine veteran, Dakota, famed Olympic jumper, gets a cheery word from M. Sgt. Charles Brown, Ft. Riley farrier.

In Ft. Riley paddock, these are some of the Army's 30 retired cavalry horses.

Newly Civilized People Need Joneses

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP) — The near-savages she visited 25 years ago now try earnestly to live the way they think Americans live, Dr. Margaret Mead said today in a report on her recent seven-month expedition to the Admiralty Islands.

Dr. Mead made her first visit to the village of Pere on Manus Island in 1928, when she was just beginning her career as an anthropologist. Now she plans a book on the dramatic changes which have transformed near-naked warriors into well-tailored citizens.

"They moved their houses ashore," Dr. Mead said in an interview. "They used to build them over the water. Because they thought we believed in measurements, they measured everything.

"Their houses are all the same size. The streets are the same width. They even measured the distance between each house."

Now, the pleasant, 52-year-old scientist said with a smile, "The natives need some Joneses to keep up with."

So far much of their progress can be traced to the huge American armed forces bases on Manus Island in World War II. But much of the material they salvaged from the abandoned bases, such as steel filing cabinets, planks for floors and even ideas for self-improvement, is wearing thin.

"We think of Joneses as a negative point, but they are also a positive point if you are going to modernize a community," Dr. Mead continued. "They need someone to show them how to set a table and someone to show the women how to wear clothes.

"They have no sawmills to replace the planks, and their taste for a plank floor instead of a split bark floor will be hard to gratify unless someone shows them how to make them."

As Dr. Mead talked in her cluttered tower office, reached in the American Museum of Natural History by climbing a steep flight of stairs and wandering through a dusty storeroom lined with Indian pottery, she picked out then-and-now pictures.

"Here this girl was 25 years ago," she said, holding out a snapshot of a naked black baby. "Here she is today." The girl in the second picture was wearing a cotton print dress and holding her own baby who was dressed in a spotless sunsuit.

"Everything has changed," she said. "The bride of 25 years ago was dressed almost entirely in shell money—a pawn in an arrangement made between parents when she was a child. Now young people choose their own mates.

"Men, women and all children over 10 vote for local officers and projects. No one has told them that children don't vote here. The men wear regular western clothes when they dress up, including neckties and shoes and socks.

"It is much less picturesque," Dr. Mead concluded when she was asked to name any drawbacks of the transformation. "The men no longer wear bones through their noses, bracelets and bark G-strings."

Fabric news in made in David Crystal's beautiful white dress (left) of rayon and dacron. It is a shirtwaist silhouette with puffed sleeves and permanently pleated skirt. A check-printed rayon surah scarf tucked in the neckline has a matching sash at the waist.

You'll live in David Crystal's washable imported linen sleeveless coat-dress (right) which has a convertible collar and large platter buttons down to the hem. The skirt is flared to be graceful as you walk—and the fabric is crease-resistant.

Wardrobe Will Spark Warm Days

David Crystal Puts Simple Lines, Fine Fabrics Together

Romance starts at dawn on a cruise when you've planned your wardrobe to make you look your prettiest from breakfast on. The fashions you select for a cruise now should help you make the most of the 12 daylight hours by being simple, and made in fine fabrics with lines to flatter you.

David Crystal has made fashion news with a group of "Romance Wardrobe" dresses to travel with now and cherish for warm weather later on.

One is a navy silk shantung twin berry jacket dress with a large bow at the neckline of the short jacket, topping a smart fitted sheath dress without sleeves that has a deep V front and back.

Fabric news is made in a beautiful white dress of rayon and dacron . . . the silhouette is shirtwaist with puffed sleeves and a permanently pleated skirt fancied with a check printed rayon surah scarf to tuck in the neckline and a matching sash to twirl about the waist.

Then there is a muted striped cotton that is finished to laugh at wrinkles. It has an open-collared neckline with a hook and eye front closing and smart top darts in the slim skirt.

Constitutional Quiz Conducted by PEO

Mrs. Waldron Keasey led AW Chapter members of PEO in a constitutional quiz Monday. The program was in preparation for the election of new officers March 1.

Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Paul Snover, at her home on West Huron street. She was assisted by Mrs. A. W. Emery and Marion Emery.

Mrs. Charles Buck presided and Mrs. Charles Coppersmith read the state chapter bylaws. Officers will be elected at the home of Mrs. W. Henry Sink on Avondale avenue, Sylvan lake.

Congresswoman

Jeannette Rankin of Montana was the first woman to be elected to Congress. She voted against America's entry into World War I in 1917, dropped out of Congress, and returned in 1941 and voted against entry into World War II.

MOMS Unit Receives 4 Invitations

Mrs. Edgar Thomas opened her Center street home Tuesday to members of Unit Two, MOMS of America, Inc., for a cooperative luncheon. Mrs. Clarence Johnston was general chairman assisted by Mrs. William Morrell and Mrs. L. C. Pitts.

Units represented were Galloway Lake and Gingellville. Mrs. Edna Olmstead of Chapter Nine Gold Star Mothers was a guest.

Invitations were received to attend the Blue Star Mothers' 12th anniversary dinner to be held March 6 and the school of instruction to be sponsored by the Michigan MOMS State Board March 8 in Ferndale.

Members are also invited to attend the Galloway Lake MOMS dance Saturday and the Gingellville MOMS dinner on the same day.

The next business meeting of the group will be held March 2 in the South Roselawn avenue home of Mrs. Pitts.

Club to Hear Talk by Emil Zamorski

Emil Zamorski will be guest speaker when Washington Junior High School Community Club meets Thursday at 8 p.m. in the school.

A representative from Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic, Mr. Zamorski will speak on "Understanding the Teenager," a subject of interest to the parents of junior high school students. Announcements concerning the fair scheduled for April 1 will also be made at this time. A social hour will follow the meeting.

Couple Planning March 27 Rite

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Morelly of State avenue are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carole Lewis, to Thomas H. Baytarian, son of the Paul Baytarians of Lincoln avenue.

A March 27 wedding is planned by the couple.

Red Cross Volunteers Help With Blood Program

Volunteers assisting with the Oakland County Red Cross blood program include canteen workers, Gray Ladies and nurses aides, all of whom work in blood banks and bloodmobiles, as well as others working on other planes of recruitment.

Chairmen of these groups for north Oakland County are Mrs. Ben Holbel, registrar chairman; Mrs. Ward S. Newman, canteen chairman, and Mrs. Claude Tarcells, nurse's aide chairman. Mrs. W. C. Sproull is Gray Ladies' chairman for Oakland County.

Other volunteers staff automobiles to drive donors to the blood bank or mobile unit when they are unable to get other transportation.

In spite of the load carried by volunteers, Oakland County still falls below its annual quota. Last year the county fell below the annual quota by 1945 pints, or 162 pints a month.

Area residents can do their part by becoming regular donors, thus each becomes another volunteer in the network of individuals involved in collecting blood.

Moose Regents to Conduct Ritual

Plans for a College of Regents Day were announced Monday when Women of the Moose met at the Moose Temple.

On Feb. 28, members of the College of Regents will exemplify the ritual work, which will be followed by a buffet supper.

Program for the day is under the direction of Mrs. Victoria Ryan, College of Regents chairman.

Candidates will be initiated March 1 at 8 o'clock under the supervision of Mrs. Charles Meabon. Announcement was made that the ritual team will go to Detroit March 12 to assist in initiatory work, and plans were made for a St. Patrick's Day luncheon and dance.

Mrs. Michael Blahut will hostess the luncheon at her home on Spokane drive, and Mrs. Anna Page and the friendship committee have charge of the dance, which will be held March 19 in the Moose Temple.

Pontiacers Attend Music Convention

Mrs. William Heitsch and Mrs. Carl Clifford attended the Monday meeting of National Music Teachers' regional convention in Detroit. They are also planning to attend the Thursday meeting of the convention, which is being held Monday through Thursday.

Others from the area attending include Mrs. Lester Snell and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schmidt. Mr. Schmidt will be among those speaking Thursday morning.

You can do something to stop the color of a leather bag from crocking, that is, rubbing off. Apply a little liquid wax now and then until the crocking ceases.

Glove Makers Not Backhanded in Their Flattery

NEW YORK (INS)—Women can be interestingly underhanded this spring.

Fashionably speaking, of course.

That means that this spring, glove makers will be paying more attention to the palms, instead of concentrating all their ingenuity and glamor on the back-of-the-hand section.

Imagine these embroideries on the palm of a glove: Gold embroidered coins, so it looks like the wearer is loaded with spending money; felt-appliqued dice, ready to roll; bright red hearts, for women who reach out their hand to a man but can't give him anything but love, baby.

Glove palms will also be made of mesh, to keep the hand from being a hot little model on humid days. And some will have fascinating V's — like low-plunging necklines — at the cuff on the palm side.

About time, we say, that glove makers stopped being so backhanded in their flattery!

Detect Hearing Loss by Watching Child

Most parents whose children suffer a slight loss of hearing don't discover it in time to prevent a greater and more serious loss, according to the American Hearing Aid Association.

The national organization urges parents to watch for such telltale signs of hearing loss as inattentiveness, awkward listening posture, excessive fatigue, slowness in learning, shyness in playing with other children and voice peculiarities. (Since speech is an imitation of what is heard, hearing loss can cause speech defects.)

Lunch Needn't Be Dull, Fattening and Expensive

Whether you eat to live, or live to eat, it costs money, and there is no meal in the day that seems duller than dishwater to working men and women than the "budget" lunch. It's eaten in a rush, and chosen out of habit, and tastes like blotting paper and sawdust, washed down with radiator cleaner!

But even diet experts like Ann Delafield, as well as the medical profession, agree that efficient business and industrial workers must eat to do a satisfactory job. What to eat is the monotonous daily problem.

Too much of a lunch makes one lethargic for the rest of the day, thus reducing efficiency. The lunch brings on 4 p. m. fatigue. No breakfast, plus a heavy lunch, plus dinner at night means extra pounds and the beginnings of plumpness — except in the pocketbook, where it belongs.

Miss Delafield, past mistress at the art of keeping pounds off and energy and good looks in the human animal says to:

1. Eat a good breakfast (some citrus fruit, one or two eggs prepared without fat, a piece of whole wheat or melba toast very lightly buttered, coffee or tea without sugar or cream.

It's essential that the body has something to work on to keep its chemistry in good order. Remember, the average person has an empty middle from 8:30 p. m. through 7 a. m. The time span between breakfast and lunch is only four hours at most! Also, a good breakfast prepared at home is cheaper than a big lunch purchased out in a restaurant.

2. Don't nibble between meals. The more one puts in his stomach the more the stomach stretches and demands greater quantities of food.

3. Choose meat sandwiches on unbuttered white or wholewheat toast for lunch. If meat is unavailable (or prohibited) try sliced eggs, salmon or flaked fish.

4. Should you pack your own lunch, make smaller sandwiches but include two pieces of fruit as well as a stalk of celery or some raw carrots.

5. Eating out need not be expensive if you learn the specialties of particular restaurants. Restaurants which cater to men usually have a large assortment of meat dishes, especially broiled chops, sliced steaks or chopped steak.

They usually have salads with a choice of vegetable greens. Fridays menus almost always have a choice of fish or seafood.

6. Restaurants which cater to women usually have salad dishes or light foods — aspics, omelets, sliced meats and vegetables, served in smaller portions. These smaller portions will be amply satisfying to "till and tummy" if you've had a good breakfast.

7. Desserts are an expensive luxury from more than one angle. The day of the piece of cake or pie for 10 cents is gone. Even a sundae or a portion of ice cream costs twice that money-wise.

But their cost to your figure is even worse. Forget the "sweet" at lunch and have a piece of cake at night, at home, with dinner.

8. Cool weather is soup weather — something warming, but not pound or purse costly. Rather than a full hot meal at lunch try a bowl or cup of clear consomme plus a green salad, or a poached egg — and all your figures, both budget and physical, will stay solvent!

Mrs. Glisky Heads St. Therese Group

Mrs. Michael Glisky was elected president of St. Therese Unit of St. Benedict Church recently when the group met with Mrs. Eugene Hunt of Myrtle avenue.

Mrs. Stanley Hutosky is vice president; Mrs. John Walsh, recording secretary, and Mrs. Noel Derocher, treasurer. The group made cancer pads, and Mrs. Theodore Comps and Mrs. John Frombey assisted the hostess.

Secures Candles

You don't have to worry about candles toppling over if you melt a used stub and pour it into the socket just before inserting your new candle.

Missionary Talks to Willard WCTU

Mrs. George Kennedy, a missionary for five years in the Belgian Congo, gave devotions when Francis Willard WCTU met Friday.

Mrs. Orlo Mason was hostess to the group in her home on Moreland avenue. She planned the program of old hymns sung by the group. Mrs. Ella Ashley gave a Scripture reading.

Wed in Missouri

In a ceremony in Centenary Methodist Church in St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 30, Carolyn Tatten of Boston became the bride of Wendell Allen, son of Mrs. Farrell Ashley of Monroe street. Mr. and Mrs. Ashley made the trip to St. Louis for the occasion.

Beauty Clinic

By Edythe McCulloch

F. L. E.

Foundaiton, Lipstick, Eyebrows . . . these are the three MUSTS in make up. Two things are important when choosing a foundation . . . shade and basic ingredient. When choosing the shade, match your skin . . . foundation should not be too apparent. It is meant to give a smooth freshness to the skin and must not look like a mask. It is permissible to use a shade darker if you are very pale or a slightly rosy shade if you are sallow . . . but usually it is safest to match your skin. Foundations to which you add water often dry the skin and some liquids are irritating. A cream or an emulsion is kindest to the skin. When applying, put several dabs on the face and neck and spread quickly with fingertips. Then go over the face and neck lightly with a tissue to blend and remove surplus. This is quick and leaves the merest film which gives the skin a fresh youthful appearance. Lipstick application will be our subject next week.

Creswell Unit Has Panel Discussion

"Egypt's Historical Perspective" was the topic of a panel discussion led by Mrs. Donald Upton Monday at the meeting of Eleanor Creswell Missionary Society of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Howard Tanner opened her home on South Francis street to the group, and Mrs. William Bray led devotions. Cohostess was Mrs. Walter Napersky.

March 5 was announced as World Day of Prayer, and March 2 is the date of the Junior Presbyterial Rally to be held at the Oakland avenue church.

Two Shows Are Planned in Bloomfield

3 Schools in Hills Are Participating in Productions

Students at Kingswood School, Cranbrook School and Bloomfield Hills High School are rehearsing this week for two productions, "Let's Make an Opera" by Benjamin Britten and Gilbert and Sullivan's "HMS Pinafore."

Friday and Saturday are the dates set for Kingswood's "Let's Make an Opera," which will be given by the 11th and 12th grade glee clubs in the school auditorium.

Director of the show is Mrs. Edward Chapman, and Lois Engman is stage manager.

Cast members include Adelaide Wiley, Marianne Davidson, Mary Jo McCoy, Sue Barth, Annette Fogo, Lee Cooper, Alice Mohler, Gayle Smith, Dinah Redfield, Sandra Collon, Linda Hullinger and Gretchen Bower.

The boys of Cranbrook School and the girls of Bloomfield Hills High School have chosen Feb. 26 and 27 for their presentation of "HMS Pinafore." There will be a performance on Feb. 28 for the benefit of the Children's Hospital of Michigan.

To be held in the auditorium of Cranbrook School, the show is directed by William Reddick of Detroit, Clarence Luchtman, Templin Licklider, the Rev. Walter H. Young and Dorothy McCannon.

Principals in the cast are Robert Reed, Robert Griswold, Charles Lawson, Dwight Davis, Donald Wells, Carl Lutomski, Carl Karlstrom, Mary Lou Fuller, Glenna Miller and Mimi Coulter.

Templin Licklider, music director for Cranbrook School, coaches Phil Hubbard and Mimi Coulter (above) who will appear in Gilbert and Sullivan's "HMS Pinafore" to be given Feb. 26, 27 and 28 in the Cranbrook School auditorium by the boys of Cranbrook School and the girls of Bloomfield Hills High School.

Martha McDonald (left, left photo) and Alice Mohler discuss where to hide the "Little Sweep" who appears in the third act of the presentation of "Let's Make an Opera" to be given Friday and Saturday by the 11th and 12th grade glee clubs of Kingswood School in the school auditorium.

New Members Join Auxiliary

Ladies Auxiliary to the Metropolitan Club welcomed three new members at the Tuesday meeting in the clubhouse on South Perry street.

They are Mrs. W. A. Green, Jr., Mrs. Davy Gilpin and Mrs. Charles Thomson. Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Frank Cohoe, Mrs. Robert Betzing and Mrs. Sam Levin.

Plans were made for the Round Table in Sturgis March 6. Among those planning to attend the function are Mrs. Charles Evans, Mrs. Ruel Baker, Mrs. Ralph Dean, Mrs. John Morse, Mrs. Alda Fairman and Mrs. Cliff Hickmott. Mrs. Omar Winton and Mrs. John Schroeder served the luncheon.

One modern consolidated school usually takes the place of four or more smaller school units.

Diabetes Hereditary?

Specialists agree that there is a strong hereditary element in diabetes. Of the parents of diabetics, 10.45 per cent have had diabetes. Among them, there are many more diabetic mothers than fathers.

Classmates Hosted by Michael Biallas

Michael Biallas was host to several of his St. Michael School classmates Saturday evening for a party at his home on East Montcalm street.

Guests were Frances Goulet, Jo-Ann Moore, Joyce Dropps, Barbara Kucera, Mary Ann Reynolds, Helen Franzel, Connie Shindorf, Mary Catherine O'Dea and Marilyn Biallas.

Others were Thomas Chapdelaine, James Fox, Ronald Andrews, Michael Buchanan, Thomas Kollman, Joseph Weishaar, Charles Merithew and Robert Birchmeier.

George Storers, Friends Will Enjoy Gulf Cruises

George Booths, John Pooles Expected to Arrive Soon for Tropical Holiday

By ETHEL TOMBRINK

MIAMI—Talk goes around of a slump in south Florida tourist business during the 1954 winter season. But a look around shows the contrary.

Traffic inches along morning, noon and night on the main thoroughfares and many of the smaller ones. Cars ahead of you, behind you and on either side of you are bound to have out-of-state licenses. Automobile rentals have soared, too, in the past two months as compared with last year's figures.

Though many a motel and hotel hangs a "vacancy" sign, the fact that the Miami Beach alone accomodations for 4,418 were added in the last year must be considered.

And in that motel row in Sunny Isles, north of Miami Beach, 1,500 rental units have been added in the past year.

For this crop of winter vacationers, the sun shines daily, tropical breezes sway the palm trees, and miles of beaches await the daily visits of sun and sand lovers. The past few days have been "chilly" for the natives, but for those fresh from zero weather, they've been perfect days for swimming, golfing and sunning.

Fishing and cruising around Gulfstream waters and among the keys aboard the George Storers' yacht, the Verlaine, will be main pastimes of the George Booths and the John Pooles of Bloomfield Hills when they arrive here.

The Pooles are expected about Tuesday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Storer here before going on to Jamaica.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth will be down later next week for some sunshine and rest.

The Storers are just back from a midwinter trip out West, a combination business and pleasure jaunt.

They spent a week at the Camel Back Inn in Phoenix, Ariz., while Mr. Storer attended a board meeting of the National Association of TV Broadcasters.

A conveniently timed transfer from Pensacola, Fla., to San Diego gave their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Storer, a chance to visit the Storers in Phoenix. Bob is in the Navy.

Another pleasant surprise in Phoenix for the Storers was running into friends from Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Les Coleman, who were on their annual wintertime vacation in the West.

From the Arizona resort, the Storers went on to California to visit friends.

Another Michigander in town is Mrs. Otto Milbrand of Bloomfield Hills. She's the houseguest of Mrs. Carl Fisher—widow of the late developer of Miami Beach.

The Milbrands have been staying at the Emerald Isle Hotel, but while Mr. Milbrand went back to Detroit for a week or two, Mrs. Milbrand moved in with Mrs. Fisher. He's expected back here late this week.

They'll be guests of Mrs. Fisher at the big Polo Ball at Boca Raton late this month. The ball will benefit the Runyon Cancer Fund and judging from the reservation list so far, it will draw top society names from all over south Florida.

The Duchess of Windsor is honorary chairman of the gathering. Mrs. Fisher is Miami Beach chairman for the ball.

Coming Events

Anna Gordon WCTU will meet at 1:30 Thursday in First Baptist Church.

Frances C. Butterfield Tent 9, DUV, will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Grotto Hall, 138 W. Pike St.

Naomi-Ruth Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church will meet with Mrs. Leo Mineweaser, 484 Montcalm St., Thursday at 12:45.

Pontiac Temple Board will serve a fish supper Saturday at 6 p.m. in Malta Temple, 82 Perkins St.

Mrs. A. W. Hawke Hostess to Group

Mrs. T. C. McFetridge gave devotions Tuesday when January-March Group of First Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. A. W. Hawke of Dixie highway.

Mrs. Mahlon Benson Jr., Mrs. T. E. Tillson and Mrs. Sam Patterson assisted the hostess, and Mrs. David Crocker was a guest at the meeting. Plans were made for a birthday luncheon at Colonial Manor, and Mrs. W. J. Baumgartner gave a report on Alcoholics Anonymous.

Sorority Gathers With Mrs. Benham

Mrs. Robert Pritchett and Mrs. Richard Barrett gave the evening program Tuesday evening when Gamma Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met with Mrs. Richard Benham on Auburn avenue.

"Interpretation of love and love's miracle in marriage" was the topic of the program. Betty McMiller was cohostess for the evening, and plans were discussed for a Mother's Day program. Hotel Waldron will be the setting for the March 2 meeting.

Growing Up Discussed by Students

Address Members of Child Study Club at YWCA

A five-member panel from Highland Park High School led a discussion period before members of Junior Child Study Club Tuesday at the YWCA.

The students and their instructor divided the subject matter into four different parts, mental health, childhood, teenage problems, and marriage and divorce.

Panel members, who had studied the subjects in a special sociology course, answered queries and an informal discussion ensued.

On the serving committee were Mrs. Victor Schramm, Mrs. B. B. Roush, Mrs. James Hatton, Mrs. Neil Gray and Mrs. Ernest Wilcox. Hostesses were Mrs. Julius Koprince, Mrs. Wilfred Whitfield, Mrs. Lyle Passmore and Mrs. G. R. Sayers.

Three dolls representing an infant, a child and a bride were surrounded with the words "Growing Up." These formed the centerpiece for the refreshment table.

Shower Honors Mrs. Wyzgoski

Mrs. Arthur Wyzgoski was honored Tuesday at a post-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Edward Leach in the Leach home on Astor street.

Guests included Mrs. Edwin Crosby, Mrs. Earl Beach, Mrs. Earl Schram, Mrs. Edward Wyzgoski, Mrs. Cleo Taylor, Mrs. Vern Johnson, Mrs. Earl Leach and Mrs. John Blackerby.

Others were Mrs. Morley Cameron, Mrs. Edith Totheringham, Mrs. Steve Beinier, Mrs. Frank Crznoznik, Mrs. Lloyd Bigham, Mrs. Fred Ody, Marydell Johnson, Mary Leach and Mary Jackson.

Class Entertained by Sharron Stanton

Sharron Stanton entertained members of her eighth grade class and several other friends Saturday at a Valentine party at the home of her parents, the Thomas Stantons of Stirling road.

Attending the party were Lynne Stanton, Chuck Gilbert, Carol Simmons, Ronnie Bailey, Charles Seyler, Ronnie Mouser, Gary McCollum, Don Corey, Roy Sedan, Barbara Lake, Janet Bolton, Shelby Murphy, Freda Vanderpool, Darlyne Gould, Delores Gustavson, Martha Hodge, Doris Brooks, Mary Pfeiffer and Judy Koyl.

Workshop Moving to Power Company

The Girl Scout Workshop will move to Consumers Power auditorium Saturday to hold a folk dance and song session.

Instead of meeting at the Girl Scout Office, leaders and girls are invited to participate in the session from 1 until 3 o'clock in the auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Clark of Ditmar street were photographed while visiting at the Mont Tremblant Lodge at Mont Tremblant, Que.

Sisterhood Hears Panel

'Nursery Schools' Topic

"Nursery Schools" was the subject of a panel discussion held at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob.

Taking part were Joan Godschaff, Owen Morgan and Stanley Schneider. Announcement was made of an Oneg Shabot to be held Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Julian Levine on Ottawa drive.

Serving on the luncheon committee for the Tuesday meeting were Mrs. Harry Arnkoff, Mrs. Ted Fine, Mrs. George Wyman and Mrs. Robert Moore.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Harry Ackerman, and Mrs. Harold Chapman give the closing prayer.

Fellowship Class Planning Banquet

Orville Robb gave devotions Saturday when Berean Fellowship Class of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church met with the Quillen Mahans on James K boulevard.

Final plans were made for the father and son banquet to be held at the church Friday and pictures were shown of church and class activities.

Assisting with the refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Levely, the Stanton Levelys, the George Meriens and the Carl Kamers.

Prevent Mildew

If you're interrupted when you're ironing, or haven't time to finish it all up at once, place the bundle of damp clothes in a plastic bag and store them in the refrigerator until you have more time. They'll be safe from mildew for a week to 10 days.

Asks In-Law Not to Use Front Door

Relative Is Miffed by Carpet-Saving Request

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "The front door to our new house opens right into our living room where we have a beautiful light gray carpet. As this carpet was very expensive, we are anxious to take care of it.

"My husband's family lives next door to us and some member of the family drops in almost every day. They have been coming in the front door. The other day when my father-in-law dropped in I asked him if he would please use the side door in the future.

"I felt that since he visited us so often and is such a close relative, I could take the liberty of making such a request. However, my husband tells me that his father was insulted and thinks I was very discourteous. Was I discourteous as my father-in-law seems to think?"

Answer: I can't say that you were too courteous, but, on the other hand, I don't think your father-in-law should have taken what you said amiss.

The best thing to do now is to say you are sorry he thought you discourteous because you certainly didn't mean to be, and say that you were treating him like your own immediate family members, who all come in the side door to save your new carpet.

Dear Mrs. Post: At many parties I go to, the hosts serve alcoholic beverages, which I don't care for. How can I refuse and avoid dampening the party or offending the hostess?

Answer: Say "No, thank you!" There is no reason why refusal should offend your hostess unless your manner proclaims disapproval. In fact, the perfect hostess always includes a non-alcoholic beverage for those who prefer it.

Dear Mrs. Post: For my birthday I received a very pretty pair of black velvet slacks. I would like to know if I may properly wear them when having friends in for an evening?

Answer: If only a few of your intimate friends are coming, the slacks would be quite all right.

Removes Paper

Paper that's stuck to wood can be removed by allowing oil to soak into them. Use just a few drops of the oil and then rub gently with a clean cloth.

Square cut and simple as a barber's coat is this emblem jacket. The only ornament is the crest on the pocket. Playing a pretty counterpart to the white of the kid is the sheath dress of gray denim. The denim also lines the jacket.

Girl Needs to Respect Her Talent

Until Then Pianist Won't Be Willing to Share Spotlight

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

At 11, Agnes is a talented pianist and has already been star soloist in several local recitals.

Recently, her Sunday School teacher asked her to play in a church benefit. Agnes agreed. But at the first rehearsal she discovered she was expected to perform not as a soloist, but as accompanist to a boy cellist.

Now she refuses to appear in the benefit at all.

Her family is upset. Writes her grandmother: "All the flattery has gone to the girl's head. How can we make her realize what criticism she's aroused by her poor sportsmanship?"

Why wasn't Agnes told of the conditions under which she was to perform before she was asked to promise a performance?

And why is her family using fear of criticism to try to make her perform?

I'm not condoning her position. It would be ideal if she were willing to share applause. But right now Agnes isn't ready to give us this ideal, self-respecting behavior. She seems to be a child who has been allowed too much interest in other people's approval of her talent.

If her family can see this, they'll stop stressing the importance of opinions, good or bad, to her. And give Agnes a little time to develop some respect herself for her musical ability.

Right now she hasn't much. Or she would not be so scared to display it without reassurance of all the applause.

Could her family just accept her feeling, despite the disapproval of the benefit program committee? If we can now accept her refusal to perform without reproach, we will be intelligent. For we shall be demonstrating our own independence of what people think about us — and it is this example of integrity that Agnes needs. . .

It will encourage her to develop her own independence of community attention, so that she can think of her talent as a personal possession, instead of as a social institution. Then she'll begin to take such private delight in her ability to create that public appreciation will lose its power to intoxicate her.

After that it will be easy to share her billing with boy cellists. For public applause will be merely a pleasant confirmation of her own pleasure in what she can do with a Chopin nocturne.

But to bring her to this point of self-approval, her family may have to outgrow its own anxiety over what other people think. Like Agnes, it may have to learn to say, "This is what we think."

Diet, Drugs Help Control Airsickness

The investigation of a leading European airline found that airsickness occurs much less frequently than is supposed.

Stewardesses agree that a moderate diet, comfort while traveling, and drugs of the dramamine group were the most effective ways of controlling airsickness. Antihistamines, too, have been used successfully in treating this form of motion sickness.

Canadian Bacon Gets Party Look

Meat Baked With Vegetables, Nectar by Mrs. Robertson

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

The next time you see Canadian bacon in the piece, buy one weighing 3 or 4 pounds and fix it in the manner below, as suggested by Mrs. Alan M. Robertson. It's elegant party fare.

Mrs. Robertson is a delightful person to know. After years of a business career she is enjoying full-time homemaking again.

Artistically gifted, Mrs. Robertson turns out hats worthy of a Dache label. She has also a number of oil and watercolor paintings to her credit.

STUFFED CANADIAN BACON

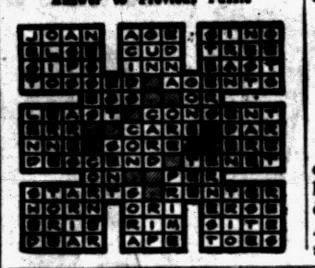

3-4 pounds Canadian bacon in one piece
Onions
1 green pepper
2 cans whole kernel corn
1 can apricot nectar

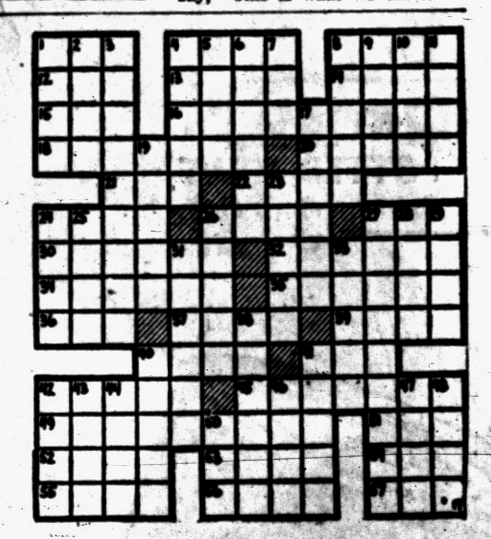

By Mrs. Alan M. Robertson

Slash Canadian bacon at intervals, being careful not to cut all the way through. Put slices of onion in the slashes. Cut the green pepper into rings and put over the top of the meat.

Place in a baking dish and surround with whole kernel corn. Pour the apricot nectar over all. Bake in a 375-degree oven about 20 minutes.

Gail Borden FORTIFIED

Signature Quality Skimmed Milk

If you're counting calories, you're not alone! 20% of all American adults are on diets . . . and 20% more should be! But dieters find it difficult to get enough vitamins and minerals, simply because they eat less food. Yet the need for these vital nutrients remains just as high as ever.

Gail Borden Skimmed Milk is the perfect answer!

One quart contains 100% of the minimum adult daily needs of 9 of the 10 essential vitamins and minerals . . . and all this with only 421 calories, or about one-third less than whole milk. And since Gail Borden Skimmed Milk has extra non-fat milk solids, plus a little fat (½ of 1%), and is homogenized, it has a full, delicious flavor . . . not at all like ordinary "skim".

This chart tells the vitamin and mineral story of GAIL BORDEN Milk

For regular diets . . . Gail Borden Whole Milk has the same vitamin-mineral fortification!

When Tyrant Boss Forces Girl to Resign, How Should She Explain It?

Tell Truth, but Not Whole Truth

By ANNE HEYWOOD

What can you do if your last employer was a perfect horror, one of those real monsters, and you had to resign in order to keep your sanity?

What can you say to prospective employers, when you know very well you're going to get no reference at all, or maybe a horrible one?

Many girls solve this dilemma by just skipping the whole job, not putting it on their application blank and pretending it didn't exist. But if you hold the job for three years, say, that gets difficult.

Also, you may have learned a good deal from the job, acquired new skills that will be of value to your next employer. No, leaving it out is not the right answer.

Mary Elizabeth faced that problem and handled it beautifully. "But," sh etold me, "not until I had made all the mistakes you can make. You, see this ex-boss of mine was awful.

"He couldn't keep a secretary for more than a week. There were 11 people in my job in the two months before me. I lasted a year, but it honestly wasn't worth it.

"I'll spare you the details, but he was terrible. Well, when I left and started job hunting, People would always ask why I had left the Blank Company.

"At first I said 'personal trouble," but then they look at me as if to say, 'It takes two to make personal trouble. She must be difficult.'

"Also, I would protest too much—not knowing that nine times out of ten they knew his reputation in advance, and when I carried on about it, I showed great immaturity. But it was hard to think of the right thing to say.

"But finally," Mary Elizabeth continued, "after I had refined a good many interviews, the right answer just popped into my head.

"It was on an interview for a job I really wanted a lot, and I was dreading that question.

"When it came—the old 'Why did you leave your last position,' I blurted out, 'To much of my energy was channeled into getting along with a difficult temperament, and too little into doing my work. I like to work hard and give it my best, and I couldn't there.' They hired me!"

Vocationally speaking, it pays sometimes to tell the truth, nothing but the truth—but not the whole truth!

Steel Frame Furnishings May Bring Down Prices

By ELIZABETH HILLYER

Steel frames may be the answer to a problem that's a big one to all of us, the designer and the manufacturer as well as the user.

They may be the best structural idea for bringing down the cost of furniture, storage cabinets in particular.

Steel frames are strong and light and don't warp, and drawers and doors in them stay well fitted, and they roll along easily on mass production lines.

News in the recent previews of home furnishings for spring was the new Steelframe series designed by George Nelson, one of the greats of contemporary designs.

Black and white enamled steel hard plastics, hardwoods in colored lacquer and sometimes hardboard combine in the various units.

Colors are blue, olive bright orange, yellow and gray, and some cases have neutral finished drawers which can be used as is or painted the do-it-yourself enthusiast's choice of color.

At upper right is the back of a case, to show how the steel frame supports, rather than encloses, the drawers and cupboard areas.

The U. S. produces 25 per cent of the world's apple crop — and probably a larger percentage of applesauce and apple polishers.

Iron Collar First

Ironing blouses and dresses will go smoothly if you do collars, sleeves and trim first, leaving smooth areas to the last.

Great changes in timekeeping styles are shown here by comparing Abraham Lincoln's key-wound watch with the modern self-winding wristwatch.

Metallic Threads Hand Washable

The metallic thread that brightens up so many 1954 accessories is usually as practical as it is pretty. For, generally speaking, it's as washable as the scarf, sweater, gloves, or whatever else that it decorates.

Do treat this metal fiber fairly, though, in lukewarm soapsuds and rinses and use only a gentle, squeezing motion. If you need to press a metallic-trimmed article, use an iron that's just cool.

Columnist Changes Her Reply to Girl Who Fears Breakup With Boy Friend

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

It's the first time I've ever done this! Every day in this column of mine there are new questions to answer and new puzzles to solve. But for once I'm going to rehash a problem that appeared in my column in the very recent past for the express purpose of revising my answer. It seems there's more than one way to skin a cat!

Here's the problem all over again—it concenrs a girl who'd been warned that her boy friend was going to break up with her. She wrote it this way.

"I'm crazy about him and he's going to break up with me but doesn't want to tell me because he thinks I'll cry. He told a girl friend of mine and told her not to tell me. Of course she did, but he doesn't know it.

"Is there anything I can do to prevent his breaking off with me? He still walks me home from the store where everyone loafs, but he doesn't say much to me.

"He kids around with this girl friend and after we leave her he doesn't talk about anything much. On Sundays he used to come over, but now he doesn't even call me up.

"I don't know of any other girl he would want to go with. Please help me!"

Honest John me, knowing how much of a young love affair is waged in public and "helped" along by mutual friends, took the warning seriously.

And I proceded to fill up quite a few lines with what I thought was helpful stuff on snapping her relationship out of the doldrums—the shot in the arm that would salvage the thing.

I was happy with it that way until along came a letter from quite a different girl with quite a different angle. she says I'm gullible — I swallowed the hook! The other girl is no friend, she says. And maybe she's right. The other girl's a cat, she says. I'm inclined to agree with her.

She wasn't supposed to pass on that warning — and he doesn't know, of course that she did. Our victim was supposed to be so surprised, horrified and grieved that she wouldn't mention it to him—consequently she wouldn't find out that there wasn't a word of truth in it.

'Cause the other girl is playing both ends against the middle. Maybe she hasn't a boy friend of her own and is jealous of the happy goings-on around her, so she can't resist busting it up. Maybe she wants him for herself—she's flirting with him enough for that.

Maybe she made the whole thing up, knowing our victim's attitude toward him would freeze and he really would break up with her. Maybe she told him the girl wanted to break off with him but didn't dare tell him for fear of hurting his feelings.

She's getting away with her little game because her victim is stunned and helpless. But she won't be for long when she realizes her tormentor is a cat!

She'll avoid her, believe nothing she says, give a try at being doubly sweet to her boy friend—and if the opportunity offers, frankly talk the whole thing over with him.

Whew, I feel better now that I'm rid of that hook!

World Knows Red Stand ...Result of Berlin Talks

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign Editor

Despite failure to agree on nay major issue, a certain amount of good has come from the Big Four foreign ministers' conference in Berlin.

Most clearly than at any time since the end of World War II, Russia has been forced to declare her intentions.

If the fact that some 25,000,000 East Germans and Austrians are doomed to continue life behind the Iron Curtain can be ignored, then Western strategy has been successful.

The United States, Britain and France did not expect the Reds to agree to German and Austrian peace treaties on any terms the West could accept, nor did they believe the Reds were prepared to surrender any occupied territory.

However, if the conference was to fail, then the West wanted the blame to rest squarely on Russia.

In Western eyes, at least, this has been accomplishd.

The Russian tone, as expressed by Foreign Minister Vyavheslav Molotov, also has indicated that, failing to reach agreemnt on their own terms, the Russians now are satidfied to let the situation in Europe continue as is.

Even their opposition to the European Defense Community and a European army which would include German soldiers has been couchd in softer language.

Molotov apparently believes that, even while sacrificing good will among the Germans and Austrians, his propaganda appeals to the French have been effective enough that the European army plan is doomed anyway.

Molotov, who is not often caught off base, was tagged twice in this session.

First he was caught by surprise when the Western powers immediately accepted his proposed agenda for the Berlin conference. The Western move cut off a Russian harangue demanding admission of Red China to world councils which might have lasted for days.

The Western ministers, in a move led by Secretary of State Dulles, caught him a second time and threw him into confusion by suddenly accepting the last five controversial points in the 1949 Austrian treaty.

Molotov stuttered and then was forced to improvise new stalling tactics to make the Austrian treaty impossible to accomplish.

The clearest indication of Russian intent, as regards Europe, came in the one new Russian suggestion to come out in three weeks of talk.

It was a united Europe which would exclude the United States and Britain and would recognize Russia, France and Germany as the great European powers.

It would insure a neutral Germany which would live in a military vacuum, and, by giving separate votes to various of the Soviet republics, would assure Russia a balance of power in European councils.

So far the Western powers have shown no signs of breaking.

This has been the first foreign ministers' conference since before Korea — when the Communists learned the West would react to aggression with deeds not words.

Th growing military strength of the West has helped its representatives at Berlin.

No Amateurs Wanted

WESTPORT, Conn. (UPL) — The Westport Volunteer Fire Department says it's okay for policemen to go to blazes, but it thinks they should confine their activities to traffic duties. The firemen adopted a resolution asking police not to "interfere" by helping fight fires.

Executive Counsels, 'Take Wife's Advice'

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UP)—The business man who wants success should "learn to appreciate his wife and seek her counsel," says one industry executive.

"The wife is more important than you think," said Charles E. Deger, merchandising executive of the Owens-Illinois Glass Co. "If you had to pay for the services performed, it would cost around $150 per week."

"In a year's time," he told a recent meeting of the Cleveland Salesman's Council, "the wife cooks 1,095 meals, does 650 hours of cleaning, is in the laundry 312 hours, spends 26 hours mending, and usually has a smile at the end of each monotonous day."

"Share your planning and destinies with her," Deger said. "Her natural shopper's intuition will result in golden practical advice."

Siren Stampedes Birds, Poultryman Tells Town

NEWBURY, Mass. (AP) — That town fire siren is murder, says poultryman Arthur Fuller. When it blows, he told town officials, his birds stampede. Recently 95 were crushed to death in the rush.

Officials sympathized but suggested that if the siren is moved volunteer fire fighters might not hear the summons to duty.

On Doctor's Orders

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP)—The drinks were on the house when a construction worker submitted a bill to an insurance company for $8.11 for a bottle of whisky. He claimed his doctor ordered the liquor to relieve an injury he received while working. The company paid the bill.

Bob Considine Says:

Is Bad Luck Contageous? Lincoln's Son Thought So

NEW YORK (INS)—Some people, some places, some things—Is bad luck contagious? During the war a newly-assigned member of a platoon, ship or a plane crew engaged in dangerous work was prone to have his face studied very carefully by those who had weathered the life until then.

There are people today who silently scrutinize the faces of fellow passengers on bus, train and plane to see if the faces match those commonly associated with newspaper accounts of catastrophies.

These thoughts are brought on by a piece written by Howard Harris in Pen Magazine and picked up in the current issue of "The Catholic Digest," hardly a champion of fatalism. Quote:

Robert Lincoln, son of Abraham Lincoln, was in the Army when his father was President. A few hours before his father's assassination, the young man received orders to report to Washington. He arrived late in the evening and was informed that his parents had gone to Ford's Theater. On entering the building, he met a group of men carrying out their President.

"Years later, during President Garfield's administration, Robert Lincoln became secretary of war. The President requested that he accompany him on a trip to Elberon, N. J., but urgent business necessitated Lincoln's remaining in Washington.

"At train time he hurried to the depot to inform his chief of the fact. When he approached the door of the building, he met a group of men carrying their fatally wounded President, a victim of the assassin Charles J. Guiteau.

"Twenty years passed. Robert Lincoln, ever mindful of tragedy stalking his footsteps, received another invitation. President McKinley requested the pleasure of his company at the Pan American Exposition.

"With grave misgivings, Lincoln accepted. At the door of the building he met a group of men carrying President McKinley, a victim of assassin Leon Czolgosz!" Unquote.

Chiang Kai-shek's younger son, Maj. Gen. Wego Chiang, commander of the armored forces of the Republic of China, will be honored at a Chinese buffet supper in New York Saturday.

Last (and only) time I saw him was in 1945 at a Chinese buffet supper in Sian which (as everyone knows who has the American College Dictionary at hand) is a city in Central China, the capital of Shensi Province, ancient capital of the Chinese empire, 209,236 (est. 1939.) Must do something about getting a younger dictionary from Mr. Cerf.

Young Chiang had part of his military training in Arizona and spoke English like a native of same. During a lull between two Chinese dishes I was frankly suspicious of, never having seen them listed on the menu at Ruby Foo's, I told Chiang a story Gen. Pat Hurley had told me a few days before.

Seems I asked Pat how he had become a diplomat after all those years of realism and he described a Japanese bombing he had undergone at Port Moresby. Pat said, "I was running for a slit trench when this bomb hit behind me and a hunk of the metal caught me in the back of the head. When I woke up I was a diplomat."

"You must tell that to my father," young Chiang insisted. "He's a great friend of Ambassador Hurley. Tell him the story just the way you told it to me and I'll interpret for him. He doesn't speak English."

Well, Mac, you ever try to tell a story to a Chinese generalissimo who doesn't speak English? I don't urge it.

Anyway, I went through the tired anecdote again, with young Chiang giving it in zingy Chinese to the old man as fast as I talked. When I got to the unbearably amusing punch-line young Chiang howled all over again and whacked his knee as he translated.

The face of the generalissimo, which had been a mask throughout, crinkled—but only into an expression of worry. He said something to his son and the son beckoned me to step aside.

"Did I say something wrong?" I asked.

"No," the son replied. "Father did. He said, 'I trust the ambassador was not badly hurt.'"

Even Babies Learn Early Under Communist Rule

TOKYO (AP) — Peiping radio said recently "over 3,100,000 translated copies of 265 Soviet textbooks have been printed in China" in one year.

One was "Collective Rearing and Education of Babies Less Than 3 Years Old."

Retired School Teacher Proud of Former Student

PALACIOS, Tex. (AP) — "There are not many teachers who can sit back and say one of their boys became President of the United States," says Mrs. A. L. Van Ostrand, 79. She had a fourth-grade pupil named Dwight Eisenhower in her four-room school house in Abilene, Kan., in 1900.

Mrs. Van Ostrand, now retired, says "Dwight was a smart lad and above average in his books. After he left my room at the end of the term," she said, "I never saw him again." She says, however, that she followed his young activities and later his career as best she could.

Balloons Float 650 Miles

SUNRIDGE, Ont. (AP) — A string of nine toy balloons was found on the shore of Lake Bernard by Mrs. Isobel Brimacombe. An attached card showed they had been released as give-aways at a grocery in Rochester, Minn., more than 650 miles distance.

Brooklyn Girl Signs Settlement Papers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Brooklin beauty Jackie Loughery, Miss U.S.A. in the 1952 Miss Universe beauty contest, has signed out-of-court agreemnt papers toward settling her divorce from crooner Guy Mitchell, her attorney announced yesterday.

Irving B. Glickfield said she would receive $1,500 monthly alimony for three years, $20,000 in cash and a division of community property, which includes two automobiles and a $60,000 home.

Mitchell's lawyer, Bernard Reich said the crooner has not seen the papers yet but that if they contain items discussed a few weeks ago, with minor changes, Mitchell will be ready to sign also.

Beer License Suspended

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission recently suspended the beer and wine license of Ray's Market, 530 S. Saginaw St., for seven days and ordered the licensee, Raymond Hernandez, to pay a $150 fine. Hernandez was accused of selling an alcoholic beverage to a minor.

No Gold Wing Insignia, No Ground Observers

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Reno's Ground Observer Corps post has folded because of a mass resignation by 20 members. But Supervisor George Umbenhaur hopes to get things humming again sometime next week.

Umbenhaur said the observers were griped over—among other things—the Air Force's failure to send them the gold-wing-shaped insignia they'd been promised.

Burns are fatal to about 7,000 Americans a year.

Reuther Is Sad, C. of C. Cheerful

U. S. Chamber Claims New Plant, Equipment Good Business Omens

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, voicing a cheerful outlook for the nation's economy, said today, "It is difficult to see any reason why this country should ever again experience an old-fashioned depression."

But CIO President Walter Reuther calls it "dangerous and unrealistic" to think that "spring and the robins will bring prosperity."

* * *

He obviously referred in a statement for the Senate-House Economic Committee to recent predictions by administration spokesmen that the U. S. economy, which they contend is adjusting after the Korean War, will start turning upward about spring.

* * *

The Chamber said in its statement for the committee that so far the "inevitable readjustment" which it said was "bound to follow the end of fighting in Korea" has been "surprisingly easy."

The committee is making its annual study of the President's economic report, which Reuther discribed as a "weak-visioned document."

The Chamber said business in 1954 "will be good by any standards established before 1950," but that it probably will not be as "buoyant" as in 1953.

* * *

The Chamber pointed to these good signs: "Strong sources of investment and consumer demand remain. Consumer income is still very high. Business intentions to invest in new plant and equipment indicate high level of capital investment this year."

* * *

Discussing unemployment, the Chamber said the Census Bureau reported that unemployment in January totaled 3.8 per cent of the civilian labor force. This, it said, is "in no sense an alarming amount."

However, the Commerce Department announced last night—after the Chamber statement had been prepared—that a new method of collecting statistics indicates that the number of unemployed early last month was 3,087,000—about 728,000 more than reported previously. This works out to 4.9 per cent of the civilian labor force.

Reuther said there may be differences of opinion on the seriousness of the unemployment situation, but "the problem is real, it is here now, and it is inexcusable in a country like ours . . ."

* * *

The CIO president, who also heads the CIO United Auto Workers, said signs of an economic pickup have not been seen yet in the automobile industry. The Chevrolet division of General Motors, he said, has just cut back to a four-day week "at a time when they should be moving toward higher production."

He referred to recent criticism leveled at him by Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall. Said Reuther: "If worrying about unemployment makes me a prophet of gloom . . . then I must plead guilty."

Jeffers' Libel Suit Jury Is Dismissed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Superior Court jury that heard the 10-month trial of actor Michael Jeffers' libel suit against the Screen Extras Guild has been dismissed after five days of fruitless deliberation.

The long deliberations of the 10 women and two men jurors were interrupted when Jeffers' attorney asked that they be dismissed and that Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler decide the case. The judge declined to do so. He dismissed the jury yesterday.

Jeffers asked $200,000 damages on the ground that a guild newsletter charged he was "part of the Commie-influenced Conference of Studio Unions" and damaged his ability to find employment.

Jeffers' lawyer said he will move for another jury trial.

George Murphy Ailing, Can't Greet Friend Ike

Gas Antidote for War Use Now Plentiful

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP)—The life-saving antidote for frightening nerve-gas war now can be made artificially, and there is already enough to treat 400 million persons, it was disclosed today.

The drug is atropine, until now obtained only from plants grown mostly in Iron Curtain countries controlled by Russia.

The synthetic drug, made with chemicals from petroleum, frees this country from dependence upon foreign supplies.

Synthetic production of atropine is announced by Winthrop-Stearns, Inc., of New York City and Rensselaer, N. Y.

* * *

Nerve gas blocks or paralyses nerves, causing death unless quickly counteracted. Atropine is the best known antidote, for it neutralizes the paralyzing chemical in nerve gas.

* * *

The firm has supplied 330 pounds of atropine for Defense Department stockpiles. A life-saving dose is only 1-150th of a grain of atropine sulfate. Thus a single pound of atropine is enough to treat more than one million persons. The drug can be stockpiled, in ampules ready for injection, at strategic locations for military or civilian use.

Atropine is obtained naturally from atropa belladonna and datura stramonium. The biggest producers of these plants are Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania and Yugoslavia, with some now beginning to be grown in Australia.

"There is evidence that large quantities of natural atropine have been disappearing recently behind the Iron Curtain," said Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, president of Winthrop-Stearns.

About 1,000 pounds of atropine are used annually in this country, mostly as an anti-spasmodic to relax muscles in treating gastro-intestinal disorders, and for eye drops in eye examinations.

Synthesis of the drug was achieved by research teams of Sterling-Winthrop Research Institute, Rensselaer, and Winthrop-Stearns, building on developments by other scientists.

Playing cards originated in Asia, many students believe.

$2 Million Suit Filed Against Actor Brando

NEW YORK (AP)—Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corp. has filed a two-million-dollar damage suit in federal court here against actor Marlon Brando, alleging he "refuses to perform under his current contract and contemplates working for others."

A spokesman for Brando said last night that the actor had no comment on the action.

The film firm said papers in the suit were served on Brando yesterday at his New York apartment.

Brando came here from the West Coast about two weeks ago. Later Dr. Bela Mittelmann, a psychiatrist, telegraphed the studio that Brando was under his care and would be unable to work for 10 weeks.

In its federal court suit, the studio said he had contracted to appear in the movie, "The Egyptian," but refused to show up.

Also asked by the studio was an injunction which would bar Brando from taking any other acting job for another concern while under contract to 20th Century. The terms of his pact with the studio were not disclosed.

Deer Goes Berserk, Attacks Farm, Auto

ST. CHARLES, Mo. (UP)—The caretaker on the Gale F. Johnston farm near here encountered something of a rarity—a belligerent deer.

The caretaker, Albert Garner, reported that a buck weighing about 300 pounds laid siege to the farm, attacking anyone who came out of the house, sharpening its antlers on Garner's auto, pawing at the door and looking in windows.

Garner, armed with a board, ventured out of the house but was butted twice.

The caretaker and a half a dozen volunteers finally caught the buck and identified it as an English stag named Ike which had been raised as a pet on a nearby island in the Mississippi River.

Rabbit, Wildcat and Deer in Hunter's Big Story

LACONIA, N. H. (UP) —William Begin of Lakeport saved the life of a rabbit while hunting deer in the Meredith Center area.

He saw the rabbit cringing motionless beneath a tree and laid aside his rifle to examine it. The rabbit didn't run from Begin. He found out why a moment later when he heard a hissing sound from the tree and saw a wildcat there, ready to spring on its prey.

Begin fired hastily at the cat which leaped away and disappeared. The rabbit also recovered his locomotive power. Begin's reward was bagging a deer a short time later.

Tests Prove Roach Is Disease Carrier

TYLER, Tex. (INS)—The Texas State Health Department is conducting "Operation Cockroach" to determine if the insect is a disease-carrier.

In an experiment being conducted at Tyler, cockroaches are cornered in sewers, where the health department says they live, breed and die, and marked with green phosphorescent paint.

The wanderings of the pesky little creatures are then traced. Already it has been determined that they carry at least nine different strains of dysentery.

The Hereford breed of beef cattle was first introduced into America in 1817.

New Spectrometer Is 'Fine' Detector

CHICAGO (UP)—An instrument developed at the Illinois Institute of Technology has made it possible to analyze minute samples of substances ranging from chemicals to metallic alloys.

The instrument, developed at the Institute's Armour Research Foundation, is known as a nuclear spectrometer.

A spokesman said it enables scientists to detect and measure materials in amounts far below the limits of other methods.

Dr. Leonard Reiffel, supervisor of the foundation's nuclear physics section, said the instrument makes it possible to measure the amount of arsenic in oil down to as little as two parts per billion.

The instrument is based on various radiation detectors, he added.

Miner's Lamps Solve Book-Hunting Problem

NEW YORK (AP)—A new lighting system is being installed in the New York Public Library's book stacks.

In the meantime, employes were equipped with flashlights to locate books on the unlighted shelves. But they had a tough time manipulating flashlights when their arms were loaded with volumes.

The library has found a solution: it's ordered 48 miner's head lamps.

Criminal Justice Study Is Begun

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—The American Bar Association has embarked on the first research project in its history with a comprehensive study at the University of California on administration of criminal justice in the United States.

The project, which started last Nov. 13, is expected to last five years. Three will be given to compiling data and two to formulating recommendations to be presented to the association.

Phases of criminal justice to be studied are reporting of an offense, local, county, state and national policing and prosecuting agencies, court, probation and parole procedures.

A Ford Foundation grant of $50,000 is financing the study. Arthur H. Sheery, professor of law and criminology at California, is research director.

Father Had Problems; Settled by School Board

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (AP)—Their house is in Durham, but the two children of Harry Ravitch are entitled to attend school in Middletown, the Middletown Board of Education has ruled.

Ravitch pointed out the front yard of his home and more than half his property are in Middletown; he pays taxes to Middletown, and the Middletown school bus uses his front yard to turn around in.

Bean Harvester to Do Work of 60

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (UP)—A mechanical bean - picker that will replace 60 farm workers is being developed by a company here and should be in production within two years.

Burton E. Brewer, sales manager of Chisholm Ryder, manufacturers of canning machine equipment, said the bean harvester can pick a 10-acre field of snap beans as fast and as well as 60 handpickers. The device is presently being leased to a limited number of growers for experimentation.

The picker is mounted on a four-wheel tractor. It convers two rows and will harvest three-fourths of an acre per hour. Steel fingers on reels snap the beans off the plant and then leaves and beans are conveyed to a cleaning section.

Efficiency in snap bean fields goes up to 90 per cent and in lima bean fields 60 per cent.

Undergrads at Columbia Facing Tougher Courses

NEW YORK (AP)—Deans of Columbia University's undergraduate college have decided that courses aren't tough enough. In their annual report, the deans said about a fourth of students really get their teeth into subjects, but the others get a "gentlemanly grade" without "undue mental exertion."

Recommended: stiffer requirements that force the easy-going student "to perform at his optimum capacity."

Taxes Take 29 Pct. of Cost on New Car

Whenever a resident of Michigan handed $2,000 to his dealer for a low-priced car last year, he enriched the coffers of various governmental units to the tune of $583.

That was the amount — more than 29 cents out of each dollar—demanded in "luxury" taxes and other levies.

Taxes on parts, materials and their transportation had mounted to $150 even before the auto manufacturer received them. Exclusive of the federal excise tax, the manufacturer paid $149.35 in income and other taxes. The excise levy itself amounted to $146. The dealer's property, income and other taxes added another $80.65, the Michigan sales tax took $57.85, and then the purchaser forked over $12.75 for his license plate and title.

For a final nip, the federal and state governments shared 40 cents — the tax on 5 gallons of gasoline and 6 quarts of oil.

Start Fight on Malaria Before Irrigation Project

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—A five-year antimalaria campaign is underway in the Yarmuk Valley where a big irrigation project is to be started soon. The campaign is to be jointly conducted by the United Nations and the Jordan government.

The Yarmuk irrigation project will give plots of fertile lands to an estimated 200,000 farmers.

Church to Get Official Status

Congregation at Pontiac Lake to Become a United Presbyterian Affiliate

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — With members of the Detroit Presbytery conducting the service, Pontiac Lake Community Church will be officially organized as a congregation of the United Presbyterian Church of North America at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The ceremony will take place in the Pontiac Lake School, where the church group has been meeting regularly.

According to the pastor, the Rev. Roy F. Lambert, persons desiring to unite with the church as charter members will be welcomed at the service.

Originally a branch of the Community United Presbyterian Church of Drayton Plains, the new congregation was recently taken over by the Board of American Missions of the United Presbyterian Church, and is now served by its pastor on a full-time basis.

Property is being considered and it is hoped work may be started on a church building by 1955, a spokesman said.

An election of ruling elders will be held at tomorrow night's gathering. Preceding the meeting will be a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m.

Discuss Ruling for Airport Area

Public Hearing Is Held on Ordinance to Limit Height of Buildings

A public hearing was held Monday at Waterford Township Hall on the proposed Pontiac Municipal Airport zoning ordinance to limit height of buildings in the area.

Darrel S. Downey of the Michigan State Department of Aeronautics said most severe restriction would be in small sections at approaches to the southwest, northeast and east-west runways.

Maximum height for structures in these areas would start at 25 feet above the mean airport level and increase as the distance from the airport increased, said Downey.

Outside the approach zones allowable height would start at 150 feet, Downey explained. The ordinance would not affect present buildings, he added.

Homer Hoskins, airport manager, said the ordinance is designed to protect both property owners and aircraft.

A joint zoning board will take final action on the plan, and this action will be binding on all areas within the scope of the ordinance.

The plan is sponsored by the State Department of Aeronautics and the Pontiac Department of Aeronautics.

MARCH 15 BRINGS NO PAIN—Earl E. Dudding, 92, watches his daughter, Mary, 9, play with income tax blanks and feels no pain. Dudding says he worked on a job 40 years, as founder and president of the Prisoners Relief Society, and having received no income from it, paid no taxes. (The society is backing legislation to handle the problem of chronic drunks and drug addicts.) His older children now help support him, Dudding says.

Lutheran Rite Weds Waterford Couple Saturday

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP —Before an altar banked with white gladioli, Mrs. Irene W. Stoltenberg of 4130 Airport Rd. and John H. Zander of Drayton Plains exchanged marriage vows Saturday in Christ Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Locher of Marco Island, Fla., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Zander of 3620 Airport Rd., Drayton Plains.

Serving as the bride's attendant at the candlelight ceremony was Mrs. Dolores Bailey of Clarkston. William Tucker of Ortonville, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, was best man.

Ushers were Howard Steele of Waterford and Bruce Bartholomew of Detroit, cousin of the bridegroom.

For the wedding, the bride chose a pink ballerina - length gown, with fingertip veil of pink seed pearls and rhinestones.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to the bride's parents home in Florida. Upon their return, they will live in Drayton Plains.

Oxford Lodge 108 to Mark Anniversary

OXFORD — Members of Oxford Lodge 108, Knights of Pythias, will hold a potluck dinner tomorrow night to celebrate the 90th anniversary of the order.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by entertainment.

Presentation of membership awards will also be made by Grand Chancellor Edmund Unger and Grand Chief Joann Miller.

Warner to Stand Trial in Murder

Bound to Circuit Court in Shooting of Wife, 21, at Home Jan. 13

A 29-year-old Avon Township man examined in justice court yesterday on a first degree murder charge was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Corut for arraignment Feb. 23.

Donald G. Warner, of 2645 Emmons, is accused of shooting his wife, Betty, 21, while she lay asleep at their home Jan. 13.

Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green ordered Warner held without bond.

Warner, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies, shot himself in the head in a suicide attempt.

Later investigation by Detective Mahlon France and Undersheriff Donald O. Menzies disclosed that on the night of the shooting Warner was served a bill of complaint in a divorce suit filed by Mrs. Warner. Police believe that this touched off the shooting incident.

Schwable Saw Classified Data

Marine Colonel Who Confessed Had Access to Secrets

WASHINGTON (INS) — A Marine court of inquiry was told today that Col. Frank H. Schwable had access to classified material before he was taken prisoner by the Communists and falsely confessed to phoney germ warfare charges under Red torture.

Maj. Gen. Clayton C. Jerome, who was commander of the First Marine Air Wing in Korea when Schwable was its chief of staff, testified, however, that the colonel did not intensively study this information, which included the wing's long-range plans.

Jerome explained that Schwable was seeking a combat assignment at the time and therefore did not do all the work normally assigned to a chief of staff.

The general added that a few weeks before Schwable was shot down over enemy lines during a reconnaissance mission, he had promised to make him leader of the wing's 12th Combat Group.

Jerome said Schwable's ill-fated reconnaissance mission was an authorized flight but that the plane had apparently drifted off course, possibly due to a southeast wind of 50 to 60 miles an hour.

At least 40 former POWs are expected to testify before the board, which went into its second day today and which will determine whether Schwable should be court-martialed.

Fifth Grade Girls Win Church Contest

DRAYTON PLAINS — Mrs. S. V. Griffin's fifth grade girl's class of the Community United Presbyterian Bible School won top honors in a recent contest conducted by the church's Junior Department, it was announced today.

The competition was based on attendance, lesson preparation, church attendance and the bringing of visitors over a six-week period.

Because of the popularity of the contest, a second one is being planned, according to Gerald Rustem, department superintendent.

MR. AND MRS. J. R. WALTER

Newlyweds Plan to Attend Los Angeles Bible School

DRAYTON PLAINS — Judith Ann Blackstone, of Drayton Plains, became the bride of John Russell Walter, of Clarkston, in a ceremony Saturday in the Christian Temple, of Pontiac, with 250 guests attending.

Judith is the daughter of Mrs. Lewis Jenson, of Oneonta, N. Y., and William S. Blackstone, of 6368 Barker Rd., Drayton Plains. John's parents are Mrs. Leo Finzel, of 6615 Maple Dr., Clarkston, and Russell Walter, of Route 1, Clarkston.

For the ceremony the bride wore a white satin gown with a floor-length veil and a train. She also wore an orange blossom tiara and carried red roses and a white carnation on a white Bible.

Zana Rouse, of Pontiac, served as maid of honor, wearing a gown of powder-blue lace and carrying a gardenia on a white Bible.

Bridesmaids were Patricia Everitt of Auburn Heights, in a gown of pastel pink lace, and Betty Shaver of Pontiac, wearing a gown of pastel yellow taffeta. They also carried gardenias on white testaments which were gifts from the bride.

Serving as best man was Walter Jones, of Clarkston. Charles Walter, of Pontiac, and Carl McIntyre, of Oxford, were groomsmen.

Ushers were Stanley Walter, of Clarkston, brother of the bridegroom, and Bill Blackstone, of Drayton Plains, brother of the bride.

Nine-year-old Barry Blackstone, brother of the bride, served as the ring bearer.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

The newlyeds plan a wedding trip to California where they will attend the American Soul Clinic Bible School in Los Angeles.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Waterford High School where they were active in Christian Youth activities.

Dancing School for Teenagers Starts Monday

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Teenagers will be able to learn the latest social dance steps when a new 12-week ballroom dancing course gets under way next week at the CAI Bldg.

Students in grades 6 through 12 are eligible for the course.

Classes for students in grades 9 through 12 will begin at 7:15 p. m. Monday, and at 2:30 p. m. the following Saturday, youngsters in grades six through eight will attend their first session.

Under the direction of Mrs. Carol Wolfe, the classes will teach waltz, rhumba, and fox trot steps, plus ballroom courtesies.

Registration may be made by mail or in person at the CAI Bldg., 5640 Williams Lake Rd. or by phoning OR 3-9152.

Slate Father and Son Banquet for Tomorrow

WATERFORD — A father and son banquet is slated for 6:30 p. m. tomorrow at Christ Lutheran Church, with Howard Peterson as toastmaster.

The dinner is under the direction of Group 2, Ladies Guild.

On the entertainment agenda are group singing, a solo by Gary Waltz and a motion picture. Ticket chairman is Helmut Angler.

Set Church Function Dates

'Seminary Day' Slated for Feb. 21 in Drayton Plains Church

DRAYTON PLAINS — Dates for two Community United Presbyterian Church functions were announced today.

Feb. 21 has been designated "Seminary Day" for the denomination, it was announced by the Rev. W. J. Teeuwissen Jr., pastor.

According to Rev. Teeuwissen, the congregation has contributed approximately $4,000 to the relocation program of the Pittsburgh Xenia Seminary and has pledged an additional $500 per year for four years.

March 7 was set at dedication day for the new educational unit for the church by Harold Detweiler, chairman of the dedication committee.

Featured speaker for the occasion will be Dr. A. E. Kelly, secretary of the board of administration of the denomination.

Club to Make Plans

Surprise Deal Brings on Fire From Real Gun

MCLOUD, Okla. (AP)—Curtiss Haskell Smith and his wife Audrey paid her mother, Mrs. Lena Cotney, a visit yesterday but found she wasn't home.

"We thought it would be funny to hide in the closet and holler boo when she came in," Smith told J. C. Farris.

But Mrs. Smith's 14-year-old brother Marvin was the first to return home. He heard a noise in the closet, grabed a .22-caliber pistol and went to investigate.

When Smith yelled "Boo," the boy pulled the trigger, wounding him in the elbow.

Find Dynamite, Fuse Under Home in Texas

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP)—Two boys playing under the Henry Vann residence here unearthed 15 sticks of dynamite and about 200 feet of fuse yesterday.

Vann said he was surprised. Police said they were, too, because the house hadn't been blown up.

Governor Cool to Election Code

House GOP Abandons Plans for Joint State, Presidential Ballot

LANSING (AP)— Gov. Williams today was still not buying a proposed codification of election laws despite a Republican attempt to placate him.

The House Republican caucus decided to drop plans to include in the codification the combining of the presidential and state ballots after a separation of 10 years.

The Democratic governor had all but threatened to veto the measure if the ballot-combining proposal was in it.

The ballot was split at the height of the power of the late President Roosevelt to prevent riding his coattails to victory.

Republicans in the Senate, which has passed the codification, reportedly pushed the ballot combination through to give Republican office-seekers the benefit of President Eisenhower's appeal.

The codification makes no other major changes in election laws. It only gathers them together and irons out discrepancies.

Williams refused to say whether the bill would be more palatable to him with the ballot combination out of it.

"I am extremely disappointed," he said, "that with all the good work which has been done to get a good election system, they have ignored it all."

The Republicans, he said, have failed to act on any of the weaknesses in the election law pointed out by a legislative study committee or the governor's own blue ribbon committee.

Both chambers of the Legislature had routine formal sessions.

The House advanced for a vote today a bill to impose a statewide curfew on children under 16.

A measure to permit parents to refuse to pay for the state care of mentally deficient children was sent to the House Ways and Means Committee for more study.

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill requiring motorists to stop when approaching or overtaking a school bus, except on four-lane highways. Present law requires a stop only when overtaking a bus.

The chamber will vote tomorrow on a bill to include hotels in a 1949 law forbidding "bottle clubs" — permitting persons for a fee to use facilities to engage in drinking. Sponsors said it was aimed at "bottle clubs" masquerading as summer hotels.

Legislator Loses Out; Was Only a Batchelor

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—State Rep. Herman D. Ferrara got up in the Legislature yesterday to speak on a resolution congratulating Rep. Thomas W. Pearlman, a recent bridegroom.

He was shut off, however, on an objection by Rep. Joseph Savage, who said: "I submit that the gneltmen is not qualified to speak on married life. He's a bachelor."

Want to Lose Weight . . . Easy-Like?

Learn This Calorie Count to Do Quick Plate Addition

By ELMER WHEELER
Chapter 19

Here is the calorie count that took 40 pounds off Elmer Wheeler in 80 days.

Only by weighing beforehand each portion of each item of food you eat could you make an exact estimate of the calories it contains—and think how cold your eats would get that way!

Realizing this—and being luxuriously lazy in true fat boy style—Elmer naturally didn't bother weighing what he ate.

Since many a hostess or banquet chef doesn't choose to count calories to be of help to the poor fat boy, Elmer devised his own rapid system of calculating at a glance the approximate calorie content of food. (Elmer lost his 40 pounds on an average intake of 1,500 calories a day.)

Here it is—an average serving in round figures:

	Calorie Count
Soups
Thin ones like consomme, per bowl	25
Thick ones like split pea	300
Clam chowder (oh boy!) only	85
Onion (wow!) just	100

'Mezzy' Barber to End Career in Sunday Test

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP)—Merrill "Mezzy" Barber, affectionately termed the "old man" by his younger competitors, will hang up his skis on Sunday after winding up his 29th active year by jumping in a field of 60 on the Fred H. Harris 70-meter hill.

Mezzy, now 55, first jumped when he was 6 on a 20-meter takeoff at Greenfield, Mass. Now a chemist for the American Optical Co. at Southbridge, Mass., Mezzy has won practically every skiing title in the country.

In his collection are 134 trophies and 32 medals. He owns a $750 sterling silver three-leg Hemsvetd trophy bowl put up by the Norsemen's ki Club of New York.

Another of his possessions is the Chicago medal he won for being the 3rd skier since 1881 to make a grand slam—longest jump, most graceful and first in Class A.

There is no spring, summer, fall or winter in Indopesia. The gigantic island republic knows only two seasons, wet and dry. The wet season is from November to March, while the dry is from June to October, with transitional periods in between.

Chiefs Defeat Ferndale in Major Prep Upset

By BILL MARTIN

A fired-up Pontiac High team administered one of the biggest upsets of the 1953-54 Michigan prep basketball season here last night, toppling Ferndale from the thin ranks of undefeated Class A squads, 51-48.

Coach Roy Burkhart's Railsplitters went into the contest boasting 11 straight victories and a berth among the top four "A" quintets in high school ratings. Pontiac had won only three of 11 starts.

Free throws proved the winning factor in Tuesday's game as both teams connected for 18 field goals. Pontiac hit on 15 of 28 chances at the foul line, while Ferndale sank 12 of 26.

Chiefs took charge from the opening whistle and held a comfortable lead through the 1st three periods, only to be forced to stave off a desperate 4th-quarter Ferndale rally to win.

Pontiac's front line — forwards John James and Walter King and center Dick Blacklaw—took command of both backboards and the PHS crew jumped into an 8-2 lead in the opening three minutes. Dick McKinney sank Ferndale's 1st field goal with a minute and 28 seconds remaining, but Walter Poe countered with a free throw to keep Pontiac in front, 9-4, at the end of the period.

Art Van Ryzin's scrappy charges increased the margin to 25-18 by halftime and pulled away to 33-20 before the Lincs began making their belated move midway through the 3rd quarter. Ferndale guard Walt Wilkins found the range for six points to spark a drive that reduced the gap to 38-30 going into the finale.

Chiefs saw their 8-point lead become a 2-point deficit in the 1st two minutes of the last period. After that, it was "dog-eat-dog."

Poe sank three straight charity tosses to regain the advantage, 43-41, but a foul shot by Larry Shelton and a bucket by Wilkins again pushed Ferndale into a 1-point lead. Poe, one of the most fiery competitors to wear Pontiac's Orange and Black, then came through with two driving jump shots to give his mates a lead they never relinquished.

McKinney and John Scott popped in Ferndale's final two baskets while John James was keeping PHS ahead with a bucket and free throw. Sophomore Walter King iced the victory when he connected on two foul shots in the last minute-and-a-half.

Poe led Pontiac in scoring with 16 points, while the Railsplitters' Wilkins took game honors with 21. Seven of the eight men Van Ryzin used figured in scoring.

Three men left the game on personal fouls during the rough-and-tumble action. Pontiac lost guard Bob Johnston in the 3rd period, and Ferndale lost McKinney and Wilkins in the final quarter.

PHS reserves scraped past Ferndale's juniors, 47-45, in the preliminary contest.

Chiefs entertain Saginaw in their final home game of the year Friday night.

Summary:

I'LL TAKE IT!—That's what Walt Poe, husky Pontiac High guard might have been saying (above). Walt, who collected 16 points against hitherto unbeaten Ferndale Tuesday night in PHS gymnasium, was snapped as he grabbed a loose ball in 2nd period. At left is Ferndale's (24) Tom Turner and at right (11) is Mark Rudman. Chiefs won an upset 51-48.

Pontiac Press Photo

Ex-Calgary Coach Claims WIFU Gridders Use Dope

HAMILTON, Ont. (AP)—Bob Snyder, former coach of Calgary Stampeders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, said it is "common knowledge" that players in Canadian football used benzedrine tablets to "give them a lift" during difficult schedule periods.

Carl Voyles, coach of the Grey Cup champion Hamilton Tiger-cats, reported that "Snyder has said that before and it was proven to be a lot of bunk."

Snyder said in an interview last night that he was hired by the National Football League to acquaint United States college players about "the truth" of football conditions in Canada. He denied he had given an improper picture of Canadian playing conditions to the U. S. players.

"I simply told them the truth," Snyder said. "There were numerous wild stories attributed to me but they weren't true."

Snyder said the U. S. players were surprised when he told them football stadiums in Western Canada weren't larger. He said they asked him how "they afford to pay such large salaries."

"I told them they played two games a week, on Saturdays and Mondays to make it up," Snyder said. "That shocked them, especially when I told them that American players had to play both offense and defense. And there were only three Americans in the WIFU, Mac Speedie, Glen Dobbs and Frank Albert, who didn't play offense and defense. The rest did.

Snyder said he was amazed that many of the players had the stamina to stand the rough schedule. Then, he added, he discovered that some of them were using artificial means.

"In one game in Regina I saw some of my players taking pills," he said. "I didn't think anything of it. I thought they were harmless. On the way home one player told me, 'I'll never take those Bennys again.'"

Snyder said the player confided that "Bennys" were benzedrine tablets.

"Next thing I know Voyles is telling everybody that I said that all Canadian players take dope. I know at least one Hamilton player who told me he has been taking benezdrine tablets for every game since he came to Canada several years ago. It isn't any secret."

Frank Claire, coach of the Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four League, commented in Toronto:

"How silly can a fellow get. It's nonsense."

Minor Hockey Loop Meeting Urged by AHL

Joint Session Proposed for Early June Between Three Circuits

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—A meeting of the three professional minor hockey leagues—American, Western and Quebec—was urged today as a method of exchanging ideas on the future of minor league hockey.

Governors of the American Hockey League proposed the joint session for early June, probably in Montreal.

"I believe we should meet with the others for an exchange of ideas and suggestions on how to improve the status of the sport," said John B. Sollenberger, Hershey and league president, who made the proposal.

"We all know the troubles facing everyone at this time and if we can come up with some of the answers we will be helping out everyone involved."

The AHL, meeting here yesterday, set Tuesday, March 23, two days after the end of the regular 1953-54 season, for the opening of a Calder Cup playoffs. Season winner will face the 3rd place team and the runnerup will play the 4th place club in best of five game series.

Two victors meet in the finals, a best of seven set. Last year Cleveland, now 2nd in standings, won both regular season and playoff competition.

Representatives of five of the AHL's six clubs were present. Syracuse was not represented.

Governors voted to allow sports-writers and sports broadcasters in league cities to pick the league's outstanding rookie as well as all star team and most valuable player. In former years the best rookie was chosen by vote of the coaches.

Rupp Foresees Trouble Ahead

Bemoans Loss of 'Big Three' if Kentucky Gains NCAA Test

CHICAGO (INS)—Adolph Rupp, controversial basketball coach of Kentucky's top-ranked Wildcats, foresaw a dim future for his team "if it reaches the NCAA tournament."

The 53-year-old coach who has been at Kentucky many years, made the prediction yesterday by telephone from Lexington to a meeting of the Chicago Basketball Writers' Association in reply to a question.

Rupp's scoring punch — Cliff Hagan, Frank Ramsey and Lou Tsioropoulos — have been declared ineligible by an NCAA regulation which disqualifies graduate students from tournament play.

The trio, called the "big three" by Rupp, are in their 5th season at Kentucky. They remained an extra year when the Wildcats were banned by the Southeast Conference last season because of the school's violation of the loop's eligibility code.

However, Rupp said:

"I can't comment on the NCAA setup. We have to win the Southeast Conference 1st if we even want to enter the NCAA tournament."

Perva, 'Marvel' Collide in Mat Feature Tonight

One of the oldest 'mysteries" in professional wrestling will be on display again tonight at the Pontiac Armory when the newest in a long series of masked marvels returns to share top billing in the weekly mat show of Promotor Ludwig Mann.

The Mystery Man, hooded "villain," will meet another roughhouse artist, Ted Perva, in the main event, scheduled for the best two out of three falls with a one-hour time limit.

Tonight, Perva will try to unmask the Mystery Man, in his second attempt in two weeks. Last week, in Pontiac, the match was stopped when Perva was cut in the third and deciding fall.

In the semi-final match, Lou Klein, of Detroit, and Chris Averoff, the new "Golden Greek", preliminary brings together Hassan Koenig, called "Mr. New York," Bye of Turkey and Seymour starting at 8:30 p.m.

Deacons' Athletic Head Admires Own Coaching

WAKE FOREST, N. C. (AP)—Athletic Director Jim Weaver of Wake Forest College has his reasons for expecting the Deacon golf team to be a winner this spring. He explains it this way:

"Mark this down in your little black book — we're going to be tough, take them all in golf. I wouldn't say our material is so much better. I do think however, we have superior coaching. I'm the coach."

It's Time Out!

"Him? He's the $60,000 bonus baby!"

NBC Lists Four-Way League Classification

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — National Baseball Congress plans a four-way classification of leagues in its non-pro program this year.

For the first time, the Congress said today, it will franchise four types of loops:

Class A, for inter-city competition, patterned after organized baseball's leagues but with most cities under 5,000 population. Teams play one to three games weekly, with no salaries for players.

Class B for industrially-sponsored clubs only.

Class C for teams sponsored by civic or fraternal organizations—non-commercial sponsors — with teams all from the same city.

Class D for rookie league play, with an 18-to-21 year age limit for players, and co-sponsored by Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Golfer Posts Hole-in-One, Wins Match

AIKEN, S. C. (AP)—Ever need a hole-in-one to win a golf match? Willie Vieth did. He also scored the hole-in-one.

His foursome match was all even after the 17th hole. Driving for the par three, 200-yard 18th green, one of his opponents rimmed the cup. The ball stopped less than two feet away. It was almost a certain birdie.

Vieth, however, was equal to the occasion. His shot with a No. 3 wood was perfect. It was his first ace.

Russian Skier Gains Visa to Attend Meet

Afanasev Is Cleared to Enter Ishpeming Weekend Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The state department said today that Russian skier Yuri Sergeevich Afanasev is being admitted to the United States temporarily to compete this weekend at an international ski meet at Ishpeming, Mich.

A department statement said Afanasev and his interpreter, Grigori Ivanovitch Kukushkin, will be given temporary U. S. entry visas. The announcement said the pair, arriving by air in New York Thursday, were invited by the National Ski Association of America to participate at Ishpeming.

The competition Feb. 18-21 will commemorate the 50th anniversary of the National Ski Association.

James Parker, department press officer, told newsmen the Russians' visit was authorized by attorney general Herbert Brownell on recommendation of the State Department. He said the pair may travel without restriction.

Finn Wins Cross Country Ski Title

FALUN, Sweden (AP) — Veikko Hakulinen of Finland won the world's 15-kilometer cross country ski championship today with an unofficial time of 55:26.0.

Sverre Stenersen of Norway won the world championship in the Nordic combined event on the basis of unofficial times when he completed the 15-kilometer portion with the best average showing in cross-country and jumping.

Gil Hodges of the Dodgers was the last major leaguer to hit four home runs in one game. He did it on Aug. 31, 1950.

Jenkins Figured to Sweep Title

Free Skating Ability Expected to Produce Victory

OSLO, Norway (UP) — His famed ability in the difficult free skating competition was expected to carry defending champion Hayes Alan Jenkins to the world's men's figure skating championship today in a close battle with fellow American Jimmy Grogan.

Only the slimmest of margins separated Jenkins of Akron, O., and Grogan of Colorado Springs, Colo., after the 1st half of the competition, the compulsory figures, Tuesday.

But even Grogan, who said that his current service in the United States Army prevented him from training sufficiently for a world title challenge, predicted that Jenkins would pull away to win by a comfortable margin today. Only as a major mishap, such as a fall, apparently could bar Jenkins' way to his second crown.

Battle for the title lay strictly between the two American stars. Young Alain Giletti of France was in third place, but did not figure to gain any ground today.

Don Budge Admits He's Slowed Down—a Little

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Budge, making a comeback in professional tennis, admits that he has slowed down—just a little.

The 38-year-old Budge who took every top tennis crown in 1938—U. S., England, Australia and France—is now touring with the Jack Kramer group.

Says Budge "I figure maybe I'm a point or two worse per game than I was 15 years ago. I'm used to the big tour. I turned pro in 1939 and also toured in 1940, '42 and '46.

Could Be Regular With Sox

Lane-Stengel 'Feud' Brings Attention to Unfortunate Plight of Andy Carey

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The current exchange of barbed pleasantries between Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees and General Manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox has, among other things, brought into sharp focus one of the unhappier features of the reserve clause, the "peonage" rule, which baseball would as soon not hear mentioned.

* * *

Stengel, in needling Lane over his failure to catch the Yanks, made especially caustic reference to the fact that the Chicago dynamo had tried "about 17" third basemen since he took over the club and had not yet come up with one good enough to plug that hole in the White Sox infield.

Lane conceded this, but at the same time implied strongly that if George Weiss, his opposite genius in the Yankee organization, were willing to deal him the player he wants he might make things very hot for the five-time champions in the coming race. He did not name the player, but left no doubt in anyone's mind that he meant Andy Carey.

* * *

Stengel, who plainly is getting an impish pleasure out of goading Lane, promptly bellowed that in his opinion Lane was guilty of "tampering." He probably winked broadly when he said it, but the fact remains that he called attention to the owner conspiracy which makes it a felony to express interest in acquiring a player who belongs to another club.

However, in the present case, the Stengel-Lane exchange seems to emphasize the feature of the serve clause which its critics always harp upon. That is the plight of the young player who, through no fault of his own, is prevented from playing regularly on a big league club and earning a commensurate salary.

Lane is convinced that Carey, a 22-year-old native of Oakland, is ready to step in and play a bang-up third base for the White Sox. The Yankees, on the other hand, have no immediate need of the strapping youngster except as part of their bench strength.

Nova Suggests 'Farm System' for Scrappers

Can't See Why a Plan Like Major Leagues' Wouldn't Work

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Lou Nova, once a contender for the world's heavyweight boxing title, suggests a boxing farm system in the manner of baseball.

Nova, now doing a comedy routine about the fight game on the night club circuit, said in an interview yesterday such a group as the International Boxing Club could inaugurate the "farm system."

"They need to develop good boys just like the big league ball clubs and could farm them out to places like Oklahoma City and other cities of its size for several years experience," Nova said.

"There is no reason why the system wouldn't work.

"If it works for baseball why wouldn't it be just as good for boxing?"

Nova retired in 1946 and has been a jack-of-all trades since, doing television, sports writing, radio and movies.

'Skins Snatch Bowl Away From Canada

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington Redskins today snatched Don Bowl away from a prospective football job in Canada and signed him to a two-year contract in the National Football League.

Bowl, a tackle from Nebraska, was one of the best rookies in the NFL last season.

Bowl was closely associated with Larry Siemering, who left as the Redskins' backfield coach to take a job as head coach at Calgary in the Canadian League. It had been reported that Siemering was trying to line up Bowl and Eddie LeBaron, who formerly played under Siemering at Pacific, to lucrative Canadian contracts.

Broadway Limited, who cost $65,000 as a yearling, never won a race. He dropped dead in the home stretch of a race at Washington Park.

Sebo Selects Coaching Aides for Penn Squad

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— One of Pennsylvania's most successful high school coaches and a part-time assistant coach at Michigan State have been named to the staff of the University of Pennsylvania's new football coach Steve Sebo.

John Butler, coach at Bethlehem, Pa., High School for the past 16 years, was named yesterday as freshman coach. His teams won more than 80 per cent of their contests. Butler's most prominent protege was Charles (Chuck) Bednarik, All-America center at Penn and all-pro for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Dewayne (Dewey) King, named as an aide, played at the University of North Dakota after World War II, coached there for one year and was assistant coach at McKinley High, Canton, Ohio, before going to Michigan State. He enrolled as a graduate student at the latter school. King will be an assistant coach and scout.

Skeptical Reynolds Slated to Talk Contract Today

NEW YORK (AP)— A rather skeptical Allie Reynolds was scheduled to talk contract with the New York Yankees sometime today as the champion sought to sign another of their big stars for 1954.

The Big Chief, his work on the pension fund committee completed for the time being, believes he may have a hard tussle with Roy Hamey, Yankees' trouble shooter.

"Do you think I can get what I want?", he asked. "Frankly I don't know." Allie reportedly is looking for a $42,000 pact.

Reynolds, looking tanned and apparently in excellent physical condition, was slated to meet with Hamey yesterday. But their meeting was postponed.

"I'm glad it was put off," he said.

Yankees had considerable success in their contract negotiations yesterday. They bagged lefty pitcher Eddie Lopat and 3rd sacker Gil McDougald.

Others to come to terms were Jack Dittmer of the Milwaukee Braves, Dick Gernet and Ben Flowers of the Boston Red Sox, Frank Kellert of Baltimore, Jim Hearn and Ray Katt of the Giants and Bob Friend and Elroy Face of Pittsburgh.

News from the Philadelphia Phillies' front office was negative. Owner Bob Carpenter met with Robin Roberts, his star pitcher, for three hours but a "slight raise" was turned down by the husky righthander.

Pension Scrap Seems Settled

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's pension fund squabbles which divided the players and owners into two warring camps during the winter meetings today appeared to have vanished almost completely.

* * *

The two-man major league owners pension committee and two players' representatives found themselves so much in accord during a five-hour meeting yesterday that they agreed to recommend a similar committee be set up to run the fund in the future.

"You'll notice we have only two owners and two players," said John W. Galbreath of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who represented 14 other player representatives, would be a radical step forward the owners along with Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

"That's the way we wanted it. Nobody will have the advantage. We have no arbitrator. We don't want one."

* * *

Such a move, if approved by the rest of the owners and the after the winter rhubarbs in which charges of bad faith were hurled by both sides with abandon.

The new four-man committee would have "full and complete" jurisdiction over pensions. At present the fund is run by a five-man group—two owners, two players and Commissioner Ford Frick. This body in turn is responsible to the Executive Council, made up of owners.

* * *

"I think this is a real big thing," Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs, one of the two players in yesterday's meeting, declared. "I don't know whether the other players will accept it but I think they will."

Allie Reynolds of the New York Yankees, who sat in with Kiner, said:

"We know a whole lot more about pensions now. I think there has been a lot of misunderstanding and misinformation."

* * *

Financially, the group yesterday also recommended certain changes to give the fund a steady income. They agreed that 60 per cent of the gross receipts of the All-Star Games and the same percentage of the television and radio fees for both All-Star Games and the World Series should be paid directly into the pension fund.

Violators Pay State $134,349

Total Game, Fish Law Infractions Show Rise From 1952

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's conservation department Tuesday announced that 5,968 persons were convicted of violating game and fish laws during 1953 and they paid fines and costs totaling $134,349.

Total violations rose slightly from 1952, when 5,662 persons paid fines and costs of $129,296.

Hunters accounted for the greatest number of violations, 3,892 including 2,380 during the small game season and 1,212 during the deer season.

During 1952, hunting violations totaled 3,139.

Other violations included fish 1,987, compared to 2,026 in 1952; trapping 129, compared to 182 the previous year, and miscellaneous offenses 260, compared to 292 in 1952.

Make Lakes for Anglers

TOPEKA, Kan. (UP)—If you don't have a lake, make one. That's the attitude of the Kansas Forestry, Fish and Game Commission. They will start soon on the sixth new man-made lake. This one, near Mankato, will be a 60-acre lake with a maximum depth of 35 feet. The others in the program range from 43 to 105 acres.

City Sportsman's Brother Lands 85-Pound Specimen on Trip to Indian River

By JACK PATTERSON

Along with Michigan's other rapidly growing winter outdoor activities, the sport of sturgeon spearing is gaining in popularity among the state's sportsmen. Although the sturgeon is found in reasonable concentrations in other large lakes, and casually in many smaller ones, the sport is concentrated for the most part in the Burt-Mullet-Black lake region around Indian River.

PATTERSON

Latest to score in that area was Herman G. Taylor, deputy State Bank Commissioner and brother of Community National Bank's Art Taylor. Along with M. C. Taylor of the Ann Arbor Bank, Herman speared a 5-foot-8-inch sturgeon a few days ago which tipped the scales at 85 pounds. While not the largest of the year, the fish that fell to the Taylor combine was no mean beastie by any standard.

Getting a fish like this through a relatively small hole in the ice is no mean feat. Sort of like pulling a basketball through a keyhole with a salad fork.

Shouldn't come as a surprise to anybody that what promises to be the biggest boom in the history of small boating is getting well under way. Probably factor chiefly responsible is large production of kits and knockdown models which purchaser can assemble at home, thereby saving labor costs that jack up the prices of the completed article.

There's been a big to-do lately between the conservation department and various interested Michigan trout streams to fly fishing only. There's been a lot of opposition from well-meaning people.

Here's the situation: Michigan streams cannot stand the present fishing pressures and provide decent trout fishing. Studies show that in a comparison of death rates of brook trout taken on flies and on worms, the largest death rate caused by fly hooking was 3.3 per cent. The SMALLEST death rate caused by worm hooking was 32.4 per cent. Need we say more?

Sure, lots of people like bait fishing, and in some places it's the only practicable method of catching big bish, or sometimes any fish at all. So what?

We like to hunt ducks from batteries and bait and use live decoys. But we can't because the duck population simply won't stand the use of such efficient methods.

In many cases these methods would provide good shooting where legal methods fail to produce. But we can live with it, go back for more and have a lot of fun hunting ducks, despite the fact one can't hunt the way he'd like to.

See no reason why the same kind of thinking can't be applied to trout fishing. If the future of the sport is threatened by use of methods which too efficiently thin out the fish population, then outlaw those methods. Readers of this column know anyway that the only civilized, proper and, indeed, allowable method (take a dry-fly addicts word) of taking trout is on a dry fly.

OFFICER AT WORK—Conservation officer Ed Beecham of the Houghton Lake area is kept plenty busy these days checking ice fishermen, but like all fellow officers, this task occupies only a portion of his time. Seen here in the role best known to the public, Beecham chats with a fisherman while checking his license. Among other things, the officer provides films and lectures for school and sportsman groups, helps in wildlife surveys and does routine land and timber survey work.

Snake, Robins Are Sighted as Spring Nears

Dr. Olsen Sees Black Water Snake at Bird Sanctuary

Harbingers of a fast-approaching spring:

Dr. Richard E. Olsen reports he sighted a black water snake lazily gliding around his bird sanctuary on Franklin Road Monday. Dr. Olsen believes the snake's winter quarters became full of surface water during the thaw of the past few days, forcing the serpent out into the open.

Manager H. B. Guillaume at Rochester-Utica recreation area says two robins were seen in his area late last week. The bright-breasted birds appeared in no hurry to go anywhere.

Turkey Planting Plan Cheered

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

LANSING (UP) — Most of the people who are devoted to Michigan's outdoors were heartened by the conservation commission's decision to try to re-establish wild turkeys.

No one's hopes are too high, because the experiment might not work. But they are heartened that the commission still has enough of the spirit of adventure to go ahead in the face of the luke-warm attitude of game Chief Harry D. Ruhl.

Ruhl said the birds, which once swarmed in the Southern Michigan hardwood forests, had only "a fair chance at best" of being re-established.

More than that, he said if they do catch on, he doubts there will be enough of them to permit hunting. Like the elk in the Pigeon River State Forest, he said, the turkeys will probably only be for observation and scientific interest.

But the commission told him to go ahead and spend $5,000 a year for three years on the try.

"We'll never know for sure until we try it," said Commissioner Joseph P. Rahilly of Newberry, the instigator of the move.

So Ruhl plans to make the first plantings in the remotest parts of the Allegan State Forest in Allegan County this spring.

Belmont Stakes Has 4 Fillies Nominated

NEW YORK (UP)—Four fillies have been nominated for the Belmont Stakes on June 12. Two of them, Clear Dawn and Kilt Dancer, are owned by John W. Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm.

The other two fillies eligible for the $100,000 added mile and a half classic are Roy P. Steckler's Montrachet and King Ranch's Riverina. The latter is well-bred for her sire was the noted distance horse Princequillo and her dam was the fleet mare Bee Mac.

Michigan Pheasants Have Had Good Winter So Far

LANSING (UP) — Michigan pheasants have had a good winter so far, Ralph Blouch, conservation department specialist, reports.

Weather in the southern pheasant range, he said, has been moderate with no severe storms or heavy snow crusts to hamper the birds' hunt for food.

Rural mail carriers counted about 10 per cent more birds in December than they did the year before, Blouch added.

Throughout the pheasant range, Blouch said, the cooperating carriers counted one rooster for every three hens. This is an indication that the roosters were under-harvested by hunters last year. The ratio can go as low as one rooster per 15 hens and still permit good reproduction, he said.

Easy for Broncos

KALAMAZOO (UP) — Albion never was in the running here Tuesday as Western Michigan hung up a lop-sided track victory.

Winners took every 1st place and seven 2nds in swamping Albion 85 1-3 to 14-2-3. Western Michigan's Ira Murcheson, a Chicago sophomore, broke the only meet record when he stepped off the 40-yard dash in :04.5.

Fishermen's Attitude Is Undergoing Change

By MORT NEFF

How would you like to live in a state where you could throw away the rule book, and go fishing for just about any fish you please just about anytime you please? It's coming closer and closer according to a recently released summary of changes in fishing regulations now in effect in all of our 48 states. Nearly every state now has some year-round fishing. Twenty-three states now allow the taking of bass the entire year. Thirty-seven open a season on pan fish for 12 months annually, but only three states still permit year-round trout fishing although 40 others have long open seasons on this species.

NEFF

And everywhere the change toward lighter tackle is in evidence. More spinning outfits are finding their way into more homes—not just for the man of the house but for the former anglers' "widows" who used to stay home while hubby had all the fun.

In the south many states have created huge artificial lakes, making entirely new fishing grounds. In the short space of three years many of these man-made lakes have developed excellent fishing.

But, implies this report, the most important change noted is in the attitude of the fishermen. Many of them are now realizing that the number of fish on the stringer or in the creel is of secondary importance. If the fishing trip was "an adventure in pleasant relaxation," regardless of the amount of tangible evidence — it's called a big success.

Grateful Lark Sings for Boy Who Found Him

Nine-year-old Gary Lee Bandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Bandy, 891 Kent road, Ortonville, didn't expect the reward he received after rescuing a cold stunned horned lark a few days ago.

Gary found the bird, an early returnee to this area, near his home. The lark had nearly frozen. Gary took it into the house and the bird soon recovered.

Apparently grateful for its care, the lark made friends with the youngster, perched on his shoulder and sang. An improvised cage was provided and the lark learned quickly that by banging its beak on a tin water dish it would be refilled.

Gary took his new friend to school on the school bus, where the lark entertained the fourth grade with its lovely song. Gary identified the bird by referring to his own bird book. His identity was confirmed.

Here's the situation: Michigan streams cannot stand the present fishing pressures and provide decent trout fishing. Studies show that in a comparison of death rates of brook trout taken on flies and on worms, the largest death rate caused by fly hooking was 3.3 per cent. The SMALLEST death rate caused by worm hooking was 32.4 per cent. Need we say more?

Sure, lots of people like bait fishing, and in some places it's the only practicable method of catching big bish, or sometimes any fish at all. So what?

We like to hunt ducks from batteries and bait and use live decoys. But we can't because the duck population simply won't stand the use of such efficient methods.

In many cases these methods would provide good shooting where legal methods fail to produce. But we can live with it, go back for more and have a lot of fun hunting ducks, despite the fact one can't hunt the way he'd like to.

See no reason why the same kind of thinking can't be applied to trout fishing. If the future of the sport is threatened by use of methods which too efficiently thin out the fish population, then outlaw those methods. Readers of this column know anyway that the only civilized, proper and, indeed, allowable method (take a dry-fly addicts word) of taking trout is on a dry fly.

Snake, Robins Are Sighted as Spring Nears

Dr. Olsen Sees Black Water Snake at Bird Sanctuary

Harbingers of a fast-approaching spring:

Dr. Richard E. Olsen reports he sighted a black water snake lazily gliding around his bird sanctuary on Franklin Road Monday. Dr. Olsen believes the snake's winter quarters became full of surface water during the thaw of the past few days, forcing the serpent out into the open.

Manager H. B. Guillaume at Rochester-Utica recreation area says two robins were seen in his area late last week. The bright-breasted birds appeared in no hurry to go anywhere.

Turkey Planting Plan Cheered

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

LANSING (UP) — Most of the people who are devoted to Michigan's outdoors were heartened by the conservation commission's decision to try to re-establish wild turkeys.

No one's hopes are too high, because the experiment might not work. But they are heartened that the commission still has enough of the spirit of adventure to go ahead in the face of the luke-warm attitude of game Chief Harry D. Ruhl.

Ruhl said the birds, which once swarmed in the Southern Michigan hardwood forests, had only "a fair chance at best" of being re-established.

More than that, he said if they do catch on, he doubts there will be enough of them to permit hunting. Like the elk in the Pigeon River State Forest, he said, the turkeys will probably only be for observation and scientific interest.

But the commission told him to go ahead and spend $5,000 a year for three years on the try.

"We'll never know for sure until we try it," said Commissioner Joseph P. Rahilly of Newberry, the instigator of the move.

So Ruhl plans to make the first plantings in the remotest parts of the Allegan State Forest in Allegan County this spring.

OCSC Plans Special Ladies Night Program

A program arranged specially for wives of Oakland County Sportsmen's Club members will be held at the clubhouse Thursday at 8 o'clock.

Highlighting the evening's entertainment will be Joe Hanneford, one of the world's most famous clowns.

Co-chairmen Jerry Wooliever and Bob White have arranged for flowers for the ladies, and something extra-special in the way of free prizes for the women.

Belmont Stakes Has 4 Fillies Nominated

NEW YORK (AP)—Four fillies have been nominated for the Belmont Stakes on June 12. Two of them, Clear Dawn and Kilt Dancer, are owned by John W. Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm.

The other two fillies eligible for the $100,000 added mile and a half classic are Roy P. Steckler's Montrachet and King Ranch's Riverina. The latter is well-bred for her sire was the noted distance horse Princequillo and her dam was the fleet mare Bee Mac.

Michigan Pheasants Have Had Good Winter So Far

LANSING (UP) — Michigan pheasants have had a good winter so far, Ralph Blouch, conservation department specialist, reports.

Weather in the southern pheasant range, he said, has been moderate with no severe storms or heavy snow crusts to hamper the birds' hunt for food.

Rural mail carriers counted about 10 per cent more birds in December than they did the year before, Blouch added.

Throughout the pheasant range, Blouch said, the cooperating carriers counted one rooster for every three hens. This is an indication that the roosters were under-harvested by hunters last year. The ratio can go as low as one rooster per 15 hens and still permit good reproduction, he said.

Easy for Broncos

KALAMAZOO (UP) — Albion never was in the running here Tuesday as Western Michigan hung up a lop-sided track victory.

Winners took every 1st place and seven 2nds in swamping Albion 85 1-3 to 14-2-3. Western Michigan's Ira Murcheson, a Chicago sophomore, broke the only meet record when he stepped off the 40-yard dash in :04.5.

Fishermen's Attitude Is Undergoing Change

By MORT NEFF

How would you like to live in a state where you could throw away the rule book, and go fishing for just about any fish you please just about anytime you please? It's coming closer and closer according to a recently released summary of changes in fishing regulations now in effect in all of our 48 states. Nearly every state now has some year-round fishing. Twenty-three states now allow the taking of bass the entire year. Thirty-seven open a season on pan fish for 12 months annually, but only three states still permit year-round trout fishing although 40 others have long open seasons on this species.

NEFF

And everywhere the change toward lighter tackle is in evidence. More spinning outfits are finding their way into more homes—not just for the man of the house but for the former anglers' "widows" who used to stay home while hubby had all the fun.

In the south many states have created huge artificial lakes, making entirely new fishing grounds. In the short space of three years many of these man-made lakes have developed excellent fishing.

But, implies this report, the most important change noted is in the attitude of the fishermen. Many of them are now realizing that the number of fish on the stringer or in the creel is of secondary importance. If the fishing trip was "an adventure in pleasant relaxation," regardless of the amount of tangible evidence — it's called a big success.

Grateful Lark Sings for Boy Who Found Him

Nine-year-old Gary Lee Bandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Bandy, 891 Kent road, Ortonville, didn't expect the reward he received after rescuing a cold stunned horned lark a few days ago.

Gary found the bird, an early returnee to this area, near his home. The lark had nearly frozen. Gary took it into the house and the bird soon recovered.

Apparently grateful for its care, the lark made friends with the youngster, perched on his shoulder and sang. An improvised cage was provided and the lark learned quickly that by banging its beak on a tin water dish it would be refilled.

Gary took his new friend to school on the school bus, where the lark entertained the fourth grade with its lovely song. Gary identified the bird by referring to his own bird book. His identity was confirmed.

Oldtimers at Track

MIAMI (AP) — Four jockeys who rode Hialeah's opening day 28 years ago are still at the track, though not in a rider's capacity. Ivan Parke, Walter Kelly and Ken Noe are trainers. Freddy Stevens is an agent for Jockey Hedley Woodhouse.

Castellani Not Planning Switch in Ring Style

Rocky Scoffs at Talk That He'll 'Turn Tiger' Against Durando

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Any attempts to depict Rocky Castellani as a "new Castellani—a slashing, attacking fighter" leaves Rocky cold.

"I'm still the old Castellani and what's wrong with that," said the No. 1 middleweight contender from Cleveland, who meets hard-punching Ernie Durando for the third time at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The 26-year-old Castellani outpointed Durando in 1950 and was stopped by The Rock in seven rounds in 1952.

* * *

"I've won 53 fights and only lost five and I'm still a boxer," said Castellani. "Boxing is my style and if I beat Durando I'll be ready for a title shot against either (Bobo) Olson or (Kid) Gavilan. Why change when I've gone this far."

The ballyhoo artists have been trying to build up Rocky as a boxer who has turned "tiger." Hints have been dropped, too, that he intends to go in and slug it out with the stocky Bayonne, N. J., bruiser.

"That Durando is the hardest hitter I've ever met or seen," Castellani said. "If anyone thinks I'm going to stand and slug it out with him they're crazy. And if anyone doubts my guts remember I'm an ex-Marine.

* * *

"I beat Durando easy the first time even if he dropped me. I was winning in the second fight too when he nailed me with that right in the seventh. Sure, that punch hurt and I was wobbly but Referee Ray Miller shouldn't have stopped it. I pleaded with him not to. I was okay."

He will take over his new post as soon as the election is certified, and will represent the 3rd Oakland County district.

Compiles Sweep of All Game's Important Marks

Furman Ace Eclipses Standards for 3 Top Divisions

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Furman's Frank Selvy, the "Babe Ruth" of college basketball, was home free today with a clean sweep of all major cage records in the bag and five more games in which to add to his already fabulous totals.

The heralded senior from Corbin, Ky., broke the only important marks he had left to shoot at last night as Furman walloped Wofford College 123-102.

* * *

Selvy pumped in 57 points and eclipsed the standards for single-season scoring with 925 points, single-season field goals (330) and career field goals (825).

* * *

He also improved on the marks he set last Saturday for career scoring (2,254), two-year scoring (1,663) and three-year scoring. It was also the fifth time he scored as many as 50 points in a game, four times this season.

With an average of 42 points a game, he is well ahead of last season's 29.5, with which he won individual national scoring honors. His career scoring average is 31.7 points per tilt.

* * *

Only one of the schools ranked among the first 10 in the nation was in action last night.

George Washington (No. 8) ended its Southern Conference schedule with a 10-0 record by defeating William and Mary 69-58. It was the first time the Colonials ever went unbeaten in league play and brought their over-all year's work to 17-1.

* * *

In a vital Atlantic Coast Conference game, Duke snapped Maryland's nine-game winning streak 68-61 and took over first place from the Terps.

The Texas Longhorns whipped Texas A&M 66-49 to move into a tie with Rice for the Southwest Conference lead.

* * *

Richmond upped its Southern Conference record to 8-2 by trouncing VMI 94-76.

Texas Tech raised its pace-setting Border Conference record to 8-1 by whipping Hardin Simmons 85-75.

* * *

In a Skyline Conference tilt, Colorado A&M, the league leader, trounced Denver 58-45, and Idaho edged Washington State 45-42 in a game involving Northern Division teams of the Pacific Coast Conference.

Adds 17th Record

No Major Collegiate Marks Left for Selvy

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—Having shattered every major collegiate scoring record in the books, there's nothing left for Furman's fabulous Frank Selvy but to break his own from here on out.

Latest count shows the 6-3 shooting wizard with 17 records. But it may turn out to be more after the score keepers go back into the record books.

Going into last night's game against Wofford, Selvy needed 17 points to pass the single season record of 804 points held by Seattle's Johnny O'Brien. He had the record in the 1st eight minutes and finished the evening with 57 points.

He scored 21 field goals, running his total to 330 this year and breaking the old record of 315 held by Clyde Lovellette of Kansas. This pushed Selvy's career field goal total to 825, beating William and Mary's Chet Giermak's record of 808.

Frank boosted his season point total to 925 points, giving him an average of 42 points for 18 games. His 3-year varsity total now is 2,254 with an average of 31.7 for 71 games.

In spiraling over the 50 mark for the 5th time this season, Selvy dropped in 21 of 44 field goal attempts for a 44 per cent average. Fifteen of his points came from the foul line.

Major records the Corbin, Ky., senior holds include:

The career point total; the 3-year total; the 2-year total; highest 1-game total (100 points set last week against Newberry, S.C., College), best 1-game free throw mark; 1-game field goal total of 41; most field goals in three years; single-season scoring record set last night; most field goals in single season and most field goals in career; the 2-year field goal record; and most times scored 50 or more points in one season and in career.

Davey Will Modify Ring Style Thursday

LOS ANGELES (UP)—There are signs that Michigan welterweight Chuck Davey intends to modify his fancy stepping fight tactics and wade in with a slugging attack when he meets California's flashy Art Aragon in a scheduled 10-rounder at Olympic Auditorium Thursday night.

Word from Davey's training headquarters was that the southpaw has concentrated upon a hard-banging body attack with long lefts.

Aragon is at his camp at Ojai, Calif., developing his attack for the much awaited battle. He was reported planning on an early knockout.

Times Have Changed in Senior Loop; Once-Mighty Cubs, Giants Now Threatened by Financial Troubles

BY GRANTLAND RICE

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—It has been a matter of 48 years since I saw the Chicago Cubs come ripping out of nowhere and dominate the National League for the better part of five years.

* * *

Back in 1906, with players like Johnny Kling, Frank Chance, Johnny Evers, Joe Tinker, Harry Steinfeldt, Jimmy Sheckard, Rabbit Slagle, Circus Solly Hofman and Wildfire Schulte, they won 116 games, an all-time record. They flattened the Tigers in two successive World Series.

* * *

They had a strong pitching staff, headed by Miner Brown, and there was nothing to stop them.

That was far away and long ago. The Cubs haven't amounted to much since, except for winning an occasional pennant. Today, the Cubs and Giants, representing the two largest cities in the country, have little chance to finish in the 1st division.

Both the Cubs and Giants dropped below the 1,000,000 mark in attendance last year. Milwaukee had over 1,000,000 more paid admissions than Chicago.

No one expects the Cubs, Giants or any team—not even the Yankees—to keep on winning. But when a city like Chicago is nearly always flirting with last place, and a team like the Giants seem to be headed for the 2nd division again, there is sure to be financial trouble on ahead.

* * *

I can't see that the Cubs look any better than they looked last year or the year before. They are almost certain to be beaten in the pennant race by the Dodgers, Braves, Cardinals and Phillies. They have little chance of nosing out the Giants or Reds.

* * *

Yet, whether right or wrong, the feeling in Los Angeles seems to be that Mr. Wrigley is keeping Los Angeles out of the big league. Los Angeles would about double Chicago's attendance as a major-league town.

Cage Fan Hits Player; Winds Up in Hoosegow

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — A spectator who leaped from the stands and struck a basketball player has been barred from high school games here for three yars.

Municipal Judge D. L. McCarroll also sent the man, James F. Horner, Jr., 20, to jail for two months yesterday and fined him $200. The jurist called it a "vicious assault absolutely without cause."

Horner ran out on the floor Saturday night and broke the player's nose with a blow after the latter had fouled another high school player.

Bob Porterfield of the Washington Senators had his best year in 1953. He won the most games (22), pitched the most complete games (24) and the most shutouts (9) in the American League.

A TIME OF CONFUSION

Prosperity is based on fair and profitable dealing.

But today we hear of deals that are neither fair nor profitable. It seems to be a time of confusion for some.

WATCH OUT FOR:

- The Pack: The buyer demands another $100.00 for his trade so the seller obliges by raising the new car price.
- Balloon Notes: All the monthly payments are low except the last one which may cause you serious financial stress.

REMEMBER:

Most business men follow sound principles but foolish dealing will hurt the American economy. So buy where the deals make sense.

Murderer Best as Parole Risk

Study Shows Slayers, Sex Criminals Tend Less to Violate Trust

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Murderers and sex offenders make the best parole risks, according to the first major study of parolees ever completed in the United States.

The study was made of 8,954 men paroled during a four-year period, 1946-1949, from California prisons.

The statistical review showed that 17.3 per cent of all murderers paroled violated parole, while 32.9 per cent of sex offenders returned to prison. Only 2.5 per cent of the murderers and 6.2 per cent of the sex offenders paroled committed new felonies. The rest are deemed violators through "technicalities" such as failing to report to a parole supervisor, leaving the state, or found carrying a gun.

The real habitual criminals, according to the report, are those convicted of "annoying" but "not dangerous" offenses and whose crime requires a specialist's technique. Auto thieves are bad risks. A total of 65.2 per cent of them return to prison after being paroled. More than 64 per cent of the forgers return to prison, and half that number on charges of—you guessed it—forgery.

Other facts learned from the four-year study:

There is no significant difference in violation rates among different racial groups.

Parolees with no prior criminal record showed a low violation rate, and 54.6 per cent of all men released on parole for the first time made good in society.

The younger the parolee the greater the chance of his return to prison. A total of 58.2 per cent of parolees aged 25 to 29 returned to prison while only 30.8 per cent of those who were 55 years old or more violated parole.

The smarter the criminal the less chance of parole violation, although the percentage of difference is small. A total of 44.4 per cent of those whose intelligence tested "superior" returned as violators. As the intelligence quotient went down, the percentage of returnees rose to 50.4 per cent.

Advocates of the parole system see great hope in the fact that the rate of violators is getting smaller each year. The report shows 50.8 per cent of all parolees failed in society in 1946, and that this percentage decreased each year through 1949, when the percentage was 46.4.

Farmhands Turn Pro, Hold Jobs Longer

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (UP)—A national farm magazine recently cited Bob Sullivan, near-by farmer, for his practical ideas "on getting and keeping a good farm hand."

Sullivan said he never pays a farm worker "wages" — he gives him a "salary."

"On my farm," Sullivan added, "he has a position — not a job."

Temperatures in Madrid, Spanish city, sometimes range 50 degrees in a single day.

Man's Day in Court Busy

TOLLAND, Conn. (UP) — John Ulrich, 17, had a busy day in court. First he was fined $12 for a traffic violation. Later he was given 60 days for evading responsibility. He appealed the sentence. Finally he was bound over to a higher court on charges of breaking, entering and theft.

Livery Owner Appeals Quintupled Assessment

READING, Pa. (AP) — John Flamish went before the county assessment board here to appeal a tax increase on a structure he owns in Sinking Spring.

He told the board that the assessment had been $500 and this year jumped to $2,500.

"It's called a four-car garage but it's really an old livery stable and there's not a horse in Sinking Spring," he told the board.

Marilyn Sings for 60,000 GIs

Film Star on 2nd Day of 'Honeymoon Leave' Tours Korean Divisions

CENTRAL FRONT, Korea (AP)—Mrs. Joe DiMaggio continued her Korean tour today, but the boys weren't interested in baseball.

The former New York Yankee star's wife—better known as Marilyn Monroe—appeared morning and afternoon before thousands of soldiers of the 3rd, 40th and 24th Divisions.

Snow drifted down lightly on the stage at her last two shows.

Officers estimated she has played to about 60,000 soldiers in her two days in Korea.

• • •

She arrived yesterday for a four-day front-line tour, taking time off from a honeymoon in Japan, where DiMaggio is coaching Japanese baseball teams.

Clad in a soldier's uniform, but wearing a tight, un-uniform black sweater, she rode a rumbling Patton tank to the natural—and chilly—outdoor bowl for her 40th Division show.

"This still is exciting," she said. "I'm from California and I don't get to see too much of it."

• • •

Then she changed to her low-cut purple cocktail gown for her stage show, and shivered . . . to the delight of 10,000 troops ogling the movement of her snugly fitting dress.

She sang in a low, husky voice that drew rounds of applause.

Marilyn had lunch with a score of 40th Division men.

Cpl. Robert N. Burkhart of Johnstown, Pa., held the place of honor as the 160th Regiment's "Soldier of the Week."

He said only a few words to Marilyn as they ate steak in a messhall.

"She wasn't anything like I expected," he said. "She was a wonderful, sweet girl."

Tarzan Barker Leaves Jungle for Wild West

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lex (Tarzan) Barker is turning in his loincloth for boots and saddles.

The handsome actor will no longer be flexing his muscles in the jungle. From now on, his dialogue will be "Head 'em off at the crossroads," instead of "Me Tarzan; you Jane."

He has signed a seven-year contract with Universal-International, which is news in itself. Not for many months has any studio signed any established player to an exclusive deal. U-I specializes in action pictures, especially Westerns, and that's all right with Lex.

• • •

"That's the kind of picture I want to do," he said. "I like working outdoors. Besides, I think a big man looks silly in indoor pictures. A fellow like John Wayne looks much better on a horse than in a business suit."

Barker was the 10th of the Tarzans, and his resignation from the series means that producer Sol Lesser will have to start hunting for an 11th ape man. The actor explained the reason for the split:

"I figured at this point in my career I ought to be able to enjoy a little more profit from doing the pictures. Mr. Lesser didn't see it that way. So I signed with U-I.

• • •

"But I am grateful to him for exposing me to the public—and I do mean exposing. I readily admit that the series was a great thing for me. Traveling to Europe and Mexico made me realize how tremendously popular Tarzan is."

So much so that the foreigners passed up his bride, a girl named Lana Turner, in order to get his autograph. That was partly due to her new brunette hair shade, which makes her look unlike the Lana film audiences know.

"Lana was delighted when the fans failed to recognize her," Lex said. "There are two stages in star's career. The first is when he's starting out and is wild to have someone ask for an autograph. The second is when he's happy to go somewhere and not be recognized."

• • •

That's why Lana likes her new hair. Her husband likes it too—says it makes her look softer.

U-I has big things planned for Lex. The studio's programming has been built around three stars—Rock Hudson, Tony Curtis and Jeff Chandler—and a new boy is needed to avoid a sameness of product.

U. S. Aid to Israel: 39 Million Since July

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has given Israel 39 million dollars in special economic aid during the past four months while allocating nothing to Arab countries.

Informed officials who reported this today attributed the lack of Arab allocations to failure of their governments to devise specific projects which the United States feels it could back.

The latest allocation to Israel—a 13-million-dollar sum—was made without publicity by the Foreign Operations Administration (FOA), presumably to keep from upsetting Arab governments which contend Washington favors Israel in economic aid.

This grant, coupled with a 26-million-dollar allocation announced last Oct. 28, boosted Israel's total to 39 million dollars for the fiscal year which started July 1 with prospects that the final figure will reach about 60 million dollars.

Ex-Red Captive Is Remarried

GI and Japanese Girl for Whom He Quit Reds in 2nd Ceremony

TOKYO (AP)—Cpl. Claude Batchelor, war prisoner who left the Communists for the love of a Japanese girl, looked at the leaden skies and misting rain in Tokyo today and exclaimed:

"What a hell of a day to get married."

Then he got married—for the second time—to Kyoko Araki, the Japanese he has considered his wife since July 1949.

It was a swift ceremony—a sort of swearing-in process—at the American Embassy here. They hope to go to the United tates together next month, to his home at Kermit, Tex.

He is 22 and she is 28. They were married five years ago in a Shinto ceremony in Tokyo. The Japanese marriage never was recorded. He was captured by the Reds the next year.

• • •

He was among a group of 22 pro-Communist American prisoners who refused repatriation. But early New Year's Day, he slipped out of his prison compound in the Korean neutral zone and told an Indian guard he wanted to go home.

He later credited letters from his Japanese wife as playing an important part in this decision. She was all smiles today.

She wore a black and white striped suit, a green sweater, black shoes and new fur coat. He wore his uniform and overseas cap.

• • •

The short ceremony took place in the office of Erich W. A. Hoffmann, of Milwaukee, a vice consul.

Outside in the rain, Batchelor suddenly remembered something.

"Lord, I forgot to ask the hospital for an overnight pass for to night," he said.

"Can you get?" his wife asked.

"I think I can," he said. "Let's go to the hospital and see."

Tokyo Army Hospital gave him a pass until 8 a.m. tomorrow.

Driver 18, Just Showing Girl What Police Dislike

AUBURN, Ind. (AP)—Richard E. Roberson, 18, Fort Wayne, told the state trooper who arrested him yesterday that he was showing his girl friend how drivers get into trouble with police.

Trooper H. E. Austin said in a six-mile stretch he saw Roberson's car in the wrong traffic lane four times and off the pavement three times.

Roberson will get a chance Feb. 24 to show his girl what drivers who get arrested for reckless driving tell the judge.

See Service, Mileage Rising in Motor Vehicles

The American people are now scrapping annually more cars and trucks than were registered in the United States in 1916.

Total vehicles scrapped annually increases each year, but the age in years and the total accumulated mileage of these vehicles show steady increases.

For example, about four million cars, trucks and buses currently are being hauled to the junkyard each year. That's almost twice the number scrapped annually prior to World War II. But the life of scrapped vehicles is now 14 years, compared with ten years for those scrapped in 1941, and the derelicts is 121,000 in contrast with the 85,500 of those that reached their last mile in 1941.

A look at the comparative statistics for a longer period shows conclusively how better manufacturing methods and improved pavements helped the American people get more miles and more years of service out of their motor vehicles. In 1925, the average scrapped motor vehicle emitted its final death-rattle when it was a mere six-and-a-half years old, and when it had but 25,780 miles on its odometer.

How many miles, how many years of service are being built into today's vehicles? Nobody dares to predict, but there is no reason not to believe that the rate of annual improvement is a statistical curve that still continues to rise.

Bar Patron Not Fooled by Texas Citizen's Claim

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — The police blotter told the story this way:

"Subject walked into a tavern and explained loudly: 'I'm a Texan and I can whip any con-Texan in the joint.' One man accepted the challenge. Subject Texan received cuts on the back of his head when his head hit the floor."

New Cinerama Uses 4 'Actors'

Two Couples Never on Film Before See U. S. and Europe

NEW YORK (UP) — The second film for Cinerama is in active production on two continents. Its "stars" have never been on the screen before and may never be again.

They are a young Swiss couple, Fred and Beatrice Troller, who are working in the United States, and John and Betty Marsh of Kansas City, who are working in Europe.

"The Thrill of Your Life," name of the second film for the Cinerama process—the first was "This Is Cinerama," uses the two previously untraveled couples to show their reactions to getting acquainted with some of the world's wonders and with ways of life foreign to them.

The film being directed by Louis de Rochemont apparently will be a sort of humanized travelogue. The director hopes to get from his non-professionals as natural reactions as possible, just as though they were touring on their own.

Fred Troller is a free-lance commercial artist, aged 23. He and Beatrice, an art student and 21, have been married slightly over a year. Their home is in Zurich.

The Marshes are in their early 20s and have been married three years. Dr. John Marsh is a dentist, and shares an office with his father, Dr. Robert Marsh in Kansas City. His wife is a singer of some home-town reputation and recently has taken up painting.

It was Betty Marsh who was responsible for the couple getting the Cinerama assignment.

She was attending a night drama class at the University of Kansas City when James Petrie, talent scout for de Rochemont, appeared there in his search for a Cinerama couple.

Five of 25 couples interviewed in Kansas City were given screen tests. The Marshes were the last couple tested and almost lost out because John was late in getting away from his office for the test.

A 75-minute drive will take a motorist to Providence from the farthest point in Rhode Island.

Hal Boyle Says:

Legal Distillers Are Angry Over Boom in Bootlegging

NEW YORK (AP)—The bootlegger is enjoying boom times in America again.

He's getting to be a big operator, just as he was in Prohibition days. He is able to put up $25,000 to $60,000 for a still that will turn out a thousand gallons of alcohol a day.

* * *

He has new lists of suckers eager to buy his cases of "smuggled" scotch or Canadian whisky at cut-rate prices. He is again using counterfeit labels and tax stamps on a big scale.

* * *

Maybe no one has offered you a bargain basement buy in moonshine lately, but the liquor industry says moonshine is being sold in parking lots, candy stores, gas stations, cigar stores, and by telephone. It says the bootleggers have henchmen working in hotels, apartment houses, business buildings and industrial plants all over the United States.

The postwar rise of the bootlegger has the regular liquor industry more than annoyed. It is so angry that it is considering hiring its own agents and lawyers to track down bootleggers and help the government convict them.

Ralph Heymsfeld, 42, president of Schenley's and a spokesman for the industry, feels the government

Heymsfeld said that the distilled spirits industry paid $1,840,850,650 in federal and state taxes in 1953, roughly $13.25 a gallon, but that the government spent less than six-tenths of one per cent of this revenue to enforce the liquor laws.

"Most bootleggers get suspended sentences," he added. "Only a third are sent to jail. The courts simply aren't doing the job.

* * *

"Curiously, the government concentrates its campaign against bootlegging in the southern states, but the bootleg industry actually is flourishing in every section of the country.

Heymsfeld thinks bootlegging could be cut down if the taxes on legal liquor were lowered, thus permitting it to be sold more cheaply. But he doesn't believe there is much real prospect of getting the taxes lowered.

He wouldn't go into the details of his program, but he was hopping mad. He left no doubt that the legal liquor industry is tired of paying all the taxes and taking all the worries, while the bootlegger ducks the taxes and reaps the big profits.

Mother OKs Snake, Says No Alligators

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)— Mary Lou Hull, 18, has a pet blacksnake named George. She says she would rather have the 5-foot George wrap himself around her arms than hold a kitten or a puppy. Mary Lou has been interested in reptiles since she was old enough to hold a garter snake. A clerk-typist by day, Mary Lou studies herpetology in her spare time.

Her father, James T. Hull, says, "The whole family is enthusiastic about George." Her mother a little less enthusiastically, says she tolerates George around the house but "draws the line" at pet alligators.

Soviets Considering Production of Skates

NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet authorities are now pondering the question of whether or not to produce roller skates, Moscow newspapers reaching here say. Up to now the Soviet Union hasn't had any except a few pairs imported from abroad.

The problem arose when Soviet skating star Rimma Zhukov who uses roller skates purchased outside the country to train in the summer when her native Sverdlovsk has no ice sent hers to be repaired.

The repair workshop in Sverdlovsk which made the repairs got the idea that other Russians would like some too and made an experimental pair which was presented to the 'experts council" for approval. The application is under consideration. Izvestia reports that the demand for roller skates among Soviet athletes is "immense".

Canine Purse Snatcher

Grains Steady After 1st Sales

CHICAGO (UP) — Grains steadied after selling off in early dealings on the board of trade today.

At the outset the market was hit by quite a few selling orders, a continuation of the liquidation which got under way in yesterday's session. Prices retreated grudgingly, however, and it wasn't log before corn reversed its trend and moved above the previous close that helped other cereals.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ⅜ cent lower, March $2.13¼, corn ½ lower to ⅜ higher, March $1.51⅜, oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, March 76⅛, rye unchanged to ¼ lower, March $1.18½, soybeans unchanged to ¾ lower, March $3.20½ and lard unchanged to 8 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $16.70.

Mart Starts Off Third Low Day

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market started out abruptly lower today, its third straight fall.

The market yesterday went through its deepest slump of this year with the Associated Press average of 60 stocks off $1.20, an amount that hasn't been exceeded since mid-September of last year.

That weakness carried over into today's market with losses going to around 2 points at the outside. At the same time there were scattered gains some as large as a point.

All major divisions of the list were lower or unchanged to lower. Merchandising shares displayed small plus signs.

New York Central, late in opening all week so far, was right on the dot today with a start on 3,500 shares up ⅛ at 24¼. Interest in the issues has been whipped up by the proxy fight by Robert R. Young for control of the railroad.

Among other losers were Santa Fe, American Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse Electric, General Electric, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Goodyear, and Boeing.

Until the end of the 17th century, poor people in England were buried without coffins, wrapped in cloth or even merely covered with hay and flowers.

ACCIDENT STORY—Above Newschart tells the 1953 accident story in terms of deaths as compared with the 1952 totals. The 1953 total of 98,300 was 700 less than the preceding year. Nevertheless, one out of every 16 persons in the U. S. suffered a disabling injury in 1953, at an economic cost of some $9 billion. Data from National Safety Council.

Boys Go Back to County Home After Wild Night

Two boys who escaped from the Oakland County Children's Home last night were under custody again today after seven hours of freedom and two joy rides in stolen cars.

The boys, 15 and 14, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies they walked away from the home at 7 p.m. and took a car parked near the Huron Theater belonging to Gordon P. Winkel of 1609 Maryland, Birmingham.

They abandoned the auto in Perry Park and took another from Shimmons Trailer Park in Pontiac Township, owned by Kenneth Blough of 2300 Shimmons Rd.

At 2 a.m. today the pair spotted Deputies Melvin Glover and Robert Metro parked at Telestopped the car and fled into a nearby swamp.

The deputies apprehended the escapees standing ankle-deep in frigid water and returned them to juvenile home authorities.

Admits Murder to Flint Police

Grateful Prisoner Tells of Stabbing Las Vegas Woman Dec. 18

FLINT (UP) — A 32-year-old warehouse worker confessed the two-month-old murder of a Las Vegas woman Tuesday night as a "favor" to Flint Police who treated him so well while questioning about a burglary.

Walter Horace Sefton, employed at a Salvation Army warehouse during the past week, admittd breaking into a local hamburger stand. Then he asked Detective Sgt. Robert Corrington, "Will I be seeing you again?"

"No," Sefton thanked him and other officers for their kind treatment and said:

"Well, how would you fellows like for me to do you a favor? Call the sheriff in Las Vegas and ask him about Jackie Kelley. I'm wanted there for her murder."

Sefton said he and the woman, a boarding house operator, drank about six quarts of wine the night of Dec. 18, 1953. He said he stabbed her when she threatened to "blackmail" him by accusing him of rape.

"The blade broke off and I kept on haking at her," police quoted Sefton. "Then I dumped her on a junk heap."

Flint Police said a telephone call to Nevada authorities substantiated most of Sefton's story.

Sefton said he remained in Las Vegas about 10 days after the woman's death. Then he said he "bummed around in El Paso" before driving to Flint a little more than a week ago. Police said he was driving a 1952 station wagon on which his mother had made the down payment in Las Vegas.

Woman Invents Mechanical Sow for Feeding Pigs

KALAMAZOO (UP)—Mrs. Harold Ewert of Decatur invented a "mechanical mother" when her sow refused to feed its eight baby pigs.

It's a trough-like rack that holds bottles with just the nipples protruding through slits in the bottom. Comes feeding time now, she places the rack among the litter and the little pigs eat to their hearts' content.

Mrs. Ewert said feeding each of the pigs by hand every three hours was "beyond the endurance of one woman."

Freakish Blast Kills Detroit Area Man

DETROIT (UP) — A freakish explosion, blamed on natural gas pumped up from a basement water well, brought death today to a suburban Warren Township man. His wife suffered minor burns and a daughter was injured.

Killed was Otto De Rosia, 45, a school bus driver and an express agent. A fire started by the explosion set his clothes afire. Damage to his $14,000 home was estimated at $8,000.

Township Fire Capt. Earl Hartsig said the explosion apparently resulted from an accumulation of natural gas from a well in the basement. De Rosia said in a statement before he died: "I went to the basement to check the water pump. It had been running all day because a tap had been left open. I struck a match. There was a big flash and everything caught on fire."

Local Chamber in U. S. Bureau

New Service Will Aid Pontiac Merchants With Data and Suggestions

To better serve Pontiac merchants and others desiring to establish a new business, Robert J. St. Clair, manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, announced today that the local chamber recently became a cooperative office of the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The new service will make available countless aids to business, management, industry and beginning businessmen.

"This material is now in our office and available to anyone interested in promoting better trade," said St. Clair. He added that such aids are helping many thousands of businesses to increase sales, distribution and production through the United States.

Some of the material available are government procurement manuals, agriculture census, data, on county and city commerce, foreign trade, management aids to small business, retail trade reports, survey bulletins on business, technical reports, information on establishing and operating a diversified number of businesses, and other comprehensive reports.

All information and publications are available by contacting St. Clair at the C. of C., 34 E. Pike St.

Wilbur Shaw, three time winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile race, will make a personal appearance at the Dodge exhibit Feb. 20 during the Detroit Automobile Show, it was announced today. Shaw is president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Aaron Fox, owner of Fox Dry Cleaners at 719 W. Huron St., has returned from the 45th annual convention of the National Institute of Drycleaning held Feb. 12-14 in Washington, D.C.

Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit, has reported net earnings of $9,344,017 for 1953. Net sales were $109,852,079. Stockholders earnings for the same period equalled $1.91 on each of 4,894,900 outstanding shares. In 1952, the company reported net earnings of $16,256,343 on net sales of $126,313,461 and $3.32 earinngs per share.

The number of diesel locomotives owned by the nation's railroads topped steam locomotives for the first time last year, according to Railway Age magazine. The publication said the number of diesels rose to 16,171 in 1953, while steam locomotives numbered 12,247.

Rescue Four From the Clinton

Police Pull Utica Boys From Tree in Swollen River Yesterday

UTICA—Four young junior high school students were back in class today after spending an hour and a half clinging to a tree in the middle of the rain-swollen Clinton River yesterday.

The youths, Thomas Getts, Howard Hubble and Thomas Leonard, all 14, and Floyd Davison, 15, hopped on some ice just off the shore of the river behind Utica Junior High School during their noon lunch hour yesterday.

Before they knew it, the fast-rushing waters broke up the ice and they found themselves floating downstream on an ice floe.

According to Police Chief Hazen Anderson, they were carried three-quarters of a mile down the 100-foot wide river before they crashed into a big tree growing in midstream.

They leaped on to the tree and clung there, shouting for help.

Meanwhile, Principal Floyd Ebling, searching for the four heard their cries. He sighted them above the nine-foot deep waters and notified police, who got a boat and rescued the cold, wet boys.

"They were pretty well frozen," Anderson said. "They couldn't have held on much longer . . . I don't think they'll ever do that again."

About $851 million worth of gold was mined in 1952 and most of it went into private hands, the U. S. government taking about 30 per cent.

Woman Hospitalized in Car-Truck Crash

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—Mrs. Homer Jones, 29, of 27053 Delton is reported in good condition today after driving into the side of a gravel truck on 12-Mile and Dequindre Rds. yesterday.

Donald R. McCubbin, 23, driver of the truck, told township police he was driving south on Dequindre when Mrs. Jones ignored a stop sign and drove into the right side of his vehicle. He was not held.

Mrs. Jones is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, suffering possible internal injuries and facial lacerations.

No Shortage of Babies

BENTON HARBOR (UP) — Births in Berrien County in 1953 set an all-time record high, 2,488, topping the 1952 record by more than 200, and 1,344 ahead of the 1943 figure.

Rabies Clinics Set for Sunday

Shots Cost Only $1.50, Vets Will Donate Their Time at 4 Places

Oakland County dog owners may have their pets inoculated against rabies for $1.50 a shot at clinics in Avon, White Lake, Highland and Orion townships Sunday.

Hours for this Sunday's clinics are 1 until 4 p.m.

The clinics are sponsored by Oakland County Health Department and the Veterinarians Assn., with the veterinarians donating their time. Health officials urged dog owners to have their animals vaccinated soon as the county's dog license deadline is March 1.

Dog owners must have proof their dogs have been vaccinated within the past year to get county licenses.

Avon Township's clinic this Sunday will be at the township hall, 276 W. Auburn Rd.

Dr. K. W. Sancrainte of Pontiac will inoculate dogs at a clinic at White Lake Fire Hall, M 59 and Porter Rd.; and Dr. H. L. Cotton of Milford will work at Highland Fire Hall.

Drs. C. H. Failing of Oxford and R. A. McNeil, Lake Orion, will have charge of the fourth clinic at Lake Orion Fire Hall, 37 E. Flint St.

$19 Million for Highways Earmarked for Michigan

A total of $19,363,779 has been authorized as Federal aid to Michigan for highways in the fiscal year beginning July 1, according to E. S. Matheson, Michigan Automobile Club general manager.

Of the total, $7,641,646 was earmarked for the primary highway system, $4,662,919 for secondary or feeder systems, $6,277,985 for urban highways, and $781,229 for the interstate system. The funds will be available for expenditure until June 30, 1957.

Lebanese Premier Quits

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UP)—The six-month-old government of Premier Abdullah Yafi resigned last night after narrowly winning a vote in Parliament on local issues. Yafi considered the margin too slender to remain in office.

She Can Ad Lib With Any of 'em

Comedienne Was Born Into Show Business and Now Stars on TV

NEW YORK—Take the following ingredients: A human dynamo with virtually unlimited energy—a prancing, gesturing, mugging clown of the highest caliber — a comedienne with rare sense of timing and ad lib—and an outstanding singer of ballads and jump tunes.

Mix them all together, and you have Martha Raye, an exceptional comic personality who stars in her own 90-minute TV show every fourth Saturday.

"Your Show of Shows" is presented the other weeks.

Martha comes from a show-business family. Her Irish parents played vaudeville for many years in a family act, Reed and Hooper. Martha joined the act when she was three and she's been a performer ever since.

Although noted as an exceptional comedienne, with a quick, ready wit, Martha at one time sang only serious, popular melodies. It wasn't until a theatrical agent advised her to switch to burlesquing her songs that she began her quick ascent to stardom.

Martha can still sing a song with the best of them and proves it on her TV show when she takes time out from her boisterous comedy to sing several selections.

A mite of a girl, Martha's well-distributed weight averages around 110 pounds on a five-foot, four-and-a-half-inch frame, topped by dark brown hair, blue eyes, and her famous mouth.

Superstitious like most people in show business, Martha always wears a chain around her neck from which hangs a St. Christopher medal, a St. Genevieve medal—the musician's patron—and the Star of David, the latter given to her by Sophie Tucker.

Martha's birthplace is Butte, Mont. She came into the world while the family was appearing there in a miniature musical comedy.

Martha is the proud mother of a very pretty, nine-year-old daughter, Melodye. The child's father, Nick Condos, was divorced by the comedienne last summer but is still associated with Martha as her manager.

RAYE OF LAUGHTER—Here's exuberant Martha in repose . . . a rare state of the effervescent comedienne. She clowns, sings, dances and is seldom still through an hour-and-a-half of top flight comedy on "The Martha Raye Show" which is on TV every four weeks.

Natural gas output in 1952 was 8.6 trillion cubic feet, a new record.

Weird Canasta Played in Italy

Three Decks Required Instead of Usual Two; Score Runs Higher

By OSWALD JACOBY

Canasta develops in different ways in different parts of the country, so it shouldn't surprise anybody to learn that it is played differently in Italy.

Certain features of the Italian game are quite interesting, and I present them to American readers with the reminder that these are not new official rules.

Italian canasta is played with three packs and six jokers, like samba. The melds are much the same as in standard (two-pack) canasta, consisting of natural and mixed canastas. There are no sequences, and the only new or unusual melds are canastas of wild cards.

A mixed canasta of wild cards earns a bonus of 2,000 points. For seven deuces, you get a bonus of 3,000 points. For all six jokers and one deuce, you get a bonus of 3,500 points.

At each turn you draw two cards and discard only one. Hence your hand tends to grow larger as the game goes on.

In order to meld out, your side needs two canastas, at least one of which must be a natural canasta.

The discard pile is considered frozen at all times. This means that you always need a natural matching pair to pick up the previous discard.

For this reason there is very little advantage in discarding a wild card; but if you do, the next player cannot pick it up even if he has two matching wild cards.

The game is 7,000 points. Minimum melds are the same as in regular canasta.

Some of the players who play this game give unusual bonuses for all six red threes, for a natural canasta of aces, and for melding out.

In my opinion there is no need to clutter up the game with wierd bonuses. Just use the standard bonuses for melding out, for canastas, and for the red threes (1,000 points for all six).

The game is quite entertaining for those who like the excitement of high scores without sequences. You keep your hand arranged by ranks, as in the original game of canasta, instead of arranging it by suits, as most players do when they play samba or bolivia.

If you try the game of Italian canasta, avoid using wild cards in the early stages of a hand. If you have a good hand, you will need your wild cards to make a canasta of deuces or jokers.

If you have a bad hand, you will need one natural canasta (at least) to meld out, and it will pay to hold your wild cards until you find out which meld can be made into a natural canasta.

Breaks His Neck, Figures X-Ray Cure Treatment

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Ben Hayes who left City Hospital because he figured an X-ray was the only "treatment" he needed for his broken neck, was in fair condition today.

Hayes, 34 - year - old Negro, checked in at the hospital Monday, complaining of arm and shoulder pains. The X-ray showed a fractured vertebra in the neck.

But when a doctor hurried to tell Hayes, he had left. Officer couldn't find his rural home. A doctor warned any sudden jolt could cause permanent injury. A search was started.

Yesterday, his sister read a story saying he should go to the hospital immediately. Hayes returned, explaining to attendants he thought the X-ray was "treatment" enough and saw no reason to hang around.

He broke his neck Monday in a tumble from his porch.

Poor Old Railroad! No One Wants It

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — They couldn't even give the Camino, Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad away.

The eight-mile logging line was offered free by its owners to the Southern Pacific Co. but SP President D. J. Russell rejected it because new rails would have to be laid and curves would have to be straightened between Placerville and Camino, he said.

50,000 Whistles Need Volunteers (Not for Testing)

BALTIMORE (AP) — When the Maryland state civil defense agency ordered 50,000 whistles last November, officials wondered if there would be enough volunteers to blow them.

The agency made an announcement to that effect in an effort to recruit more personnel.

A national magazin epicked up the story but mistakenly said volunteers were needed to test the whistles.

Yesterday an application for test-Maywood of Jonesboro, Ark. The agency regretfully turned him down.

Liquor Cache Raided 22 Times—No Arrests

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—Police have confiscated liquor from the same spot 22 times in a year — no arrests.

The spot is in a vacant city area, close enough to be within handy reach of nearby houses when customers arrive, but not close enough to connect the contraband booze with anyone.

Hungry Youth Is the Answer to Cafe Breakins

DETROIT (UP)—Police solved a recent series of breakins at a North Side restaurant early today when they found a North Carolina youth asleep at a table where he had fixed himself a meal on the house.

The youth, Ecil Jacobs, 19, of Pembroke, N. C., was held for investigation of burglary. Police said he admitted breaking into the restaurant the past three nights and helping himself to food.

Police said Jacobs ate several ham sandwiches Tuesday night and leaned back in a chair to rest. Officers said they found him fast asleep when they made a routine check of the restaurant.

Jacobs said he came to Detroit a week ago from Pembroke, where he was employed as a farmhand.

Deduction Spots Filled

CINCINNATI (AP) — County employes' paychecks are so overloaded with deductions, the payroll machines can't handle any more, County Auditor George Guckenberger says new machines may have to be purchased to subtract a new city of Cincinnati earnings tax.
