

Saturday, April 24, 2010

OU ALERT: Off-campus incident

Posted: April 24, 2010, 10:51 a.m.

A female OU student has reported she was abducted from a shopping center parking lot near Walton and Adams between 7:30 and 8 a.m. this morning by two white male subjects driving a green van. She further reports she was then taken a short distance away, sexually assaulted and then released. The Oakland County Sheriff's office is investigating. All persons should exercise caution and good judgment when walking or driving and report any suspicious activity to local police.

SUMMARY

A female OU student has reported she was abducted from a shopping center parking lot near Walton and Adams between 7:30 and 8 a.m. this morning by two white male subjects driving a green van. She further reports she was then taken a short distance away, sexually assaulted and then released. The Oakland County Sheriff's office is investigating. All persons should exercise caution and good judgment when walking or driving and report any suspicious activity to local police.

Created by Michelle Moser (strunge@oakland.edu) on Saturday, April 24, 2010
Modified by Michelle Moser (strunge@oakland.edu) on Saturday, April 24, 2010
Article Start Date: Saturday, April 24, 2010