Harriman Talks to French Leader

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman conferred with Charles de Gaulle today amid increasing speculation that other powers may intervene with North Vietnam and the United States to assist Vietnamese peace negotiations.

RALPH T. NORVELL

Emerging from Elysee Palace, Harriman treated his visit purely as a courtesy call, saying he had thanked the French president for his hospitality to the American negotiating team. But U.S. officials believe that at some point de Gaulle may have an important role to play in encouraging accords to end the war.

★ ★ ★

North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy was scheduled to see de Gaulle later in the day.

A spokesman for Thuy slightly expanded Hanoi's public statements on how the next phase of the negotiations may develop — if the present first phase succeeds.

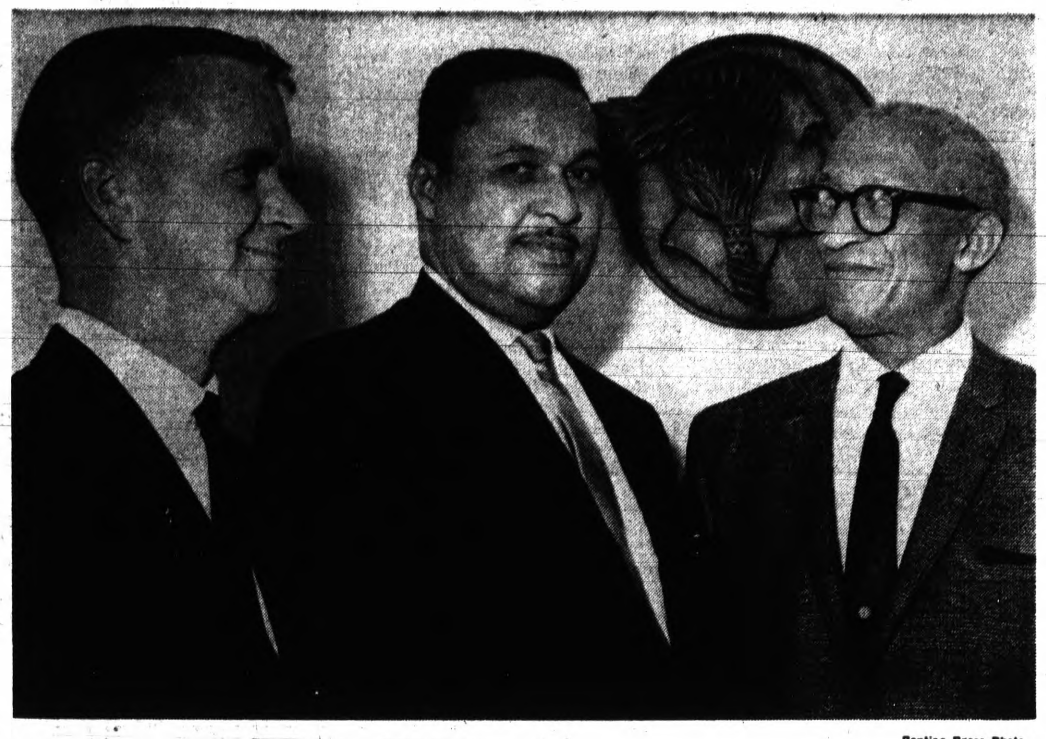

WOULD BE PREPARED

Nguyen Thanh Le told a news conference that if the United States ends the bombing and other attacks on North Vietnam his government would be prepared to discuss a political settlement for Vietnam based on the 1954 Geneva accords.

★ ★ ★

The talks were in recess again today. Harriman and Thuy meet tomorrow for their fourth session. Their last previous talk was Saturday. They have been here almost two weeks and have spent about 10½ hours together. Harriman has said he thinks the talks are going about as expected.

British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart will fly to Moscow tomorrow to confer with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The two men are cochairmen of the Indochinese peace machinery created in 1954 and could be instrumental in arranging a peace conference if progress in the Paris talks ever warrants one.

Waterford Will Appeal Ruling on Longer Terms

An Oakland County Circuit Court ruling that declared a state law extending the terms of incumbent township officers as unconstitutional will be appealed by the Waterford Township Board.

The board approved the action in a 5 to 1 vote at its regular weekly meeting last night.

Township Attorney Calvin E. Patterson said he was ready to file an appeal later this week with the Michigan Court of Appeals.

★ ★ ★

Because of the importance of the public question and the lack of time for candidates to file nominating petitions, Patterson said he also would request that the Supreme Court immediately consider the issue. June 18 is the deadline for filing nominating petitions.

STRUCK DOWN ACTION

Circuit Judge William J. Beer struck down the legislative action on May 6 after three Waterford Township residents filed suit against Township Clerk Arthur J. Salley for not accepting their nominating peitions.

Salley refused the petitions on the grounds that the Legislature, in extending the terms of those in office, had canceled any elections this year for township offices.

The state statute was designed to eliminate the lame duck period affecting township officers who were elected in November but do not assume office until the following April.

Under the provision of the law, township officers elected in 1966 would continue in office until Nov. 20, 1970, 18 months longer than the terms to which they were elected.

Beer ruled that the law deprived persons from running for office and denied the right of voters to fill the offices with whom they wanted.

Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson said that if Judge Beer's decision is affirmed, he and other members of the board affected by the ruling, will pay for the cost of the appeal.

A Pontiac man, Ralph T. Norvell, president of the Austin-Norvell Insurance Agency, will head the commercial division of the 1968 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

Norvell's appointment was announced today by Alger V. Conner, general campaign chairman.

The Commercial Division will require the services of approximately 700 volunteers this year to cover government, education, the professions and business firms in the area.

Last year Daniel T. Murphy of the Oakland County Board of Auditors led the commercial division which raised 25.8 per cent of the $1,030,000 total used to support the 55 agencies within the PAUF.

CIVIC WORKER

Norvell, who has been active with PAUF for six years, was president of the Pontiac Jaycees in 1949 and president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce in 1955.

Norvell of 70 W. Lawrence, was named Pontiac's Outstanding Young Man of the Year in 1950 and Boss of the Year in 1968 by the American Business Women's Association.

Visiting Mayor Points to Parallel

Pontiac, Ypsi Problems Alike

By BOB WISLER

Two major problems which continue to plague Pontiac — housing and finances for city government — also are the bane of Ypsilanti, visiting Mayor John H. Burton revealed yesterday.

Burton and Ypsilanti Mayor Pro Tem Vaughn E. Filsinger toured Pontiac and exchanged information with city officials during Mayors Exchange Day, a regular feature of Michigan Week. The Ypsilanti officials were accompanied by their wives.

★ ★ ★

The other part of the exchange — the visit of Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. to Ypsilanti — was cut short by the sudden illness of Taylor's mother-in-law.

Taylor, after being greeted in Ypsilanti and getting part-way through a tour of Eastern Michigan University, was informed of the illness about 11 a.m. He left immediately with his wife for Canada where her mother lives.

EVENTS CANCELED

★ ★ ★

Burton, one of Michigan's three Negro mayors (the others are at Flint and Saginaw), was elected mayor of his city by fellow councilmen this spring. He is entering his 20th year as either a city councilman or alderman for Ypsilanti and is the first Negro to serve as mayor of that city.

He said he was enthused by a number of steps being taken in Pontiac — creation of a downtown parking mall, construction of low-cost housing, and attempts to renovate the downtown area through urban renewal.

Burton said the problems of Ypsilanti are similar to those of Pontiac and are typical of most urban communities in the United States.

Ypsilanti is a town of 25,000 residents, of which about 25 per cent are Negro. It is the site of a number of manufacturing plants and Eastern Michigan University, which this year has an enrollment of approximately 14,000 students.

★ ★ ★

Burton said Ypsilanti has had an urban-renewal program which has been marked by lack of success and legal difficulties. Burton said the city is on the right track now.

Ypsilanti's urban renewal project is one of residential housing development.

About 120 new houses have been constructed for low-income residents and the city is building another 102 units. There are plans for a high-rise development for senior citizens, Burton said.

INTEREST IN HOUSING

Burton said he was especially interested in the Pontiac programs for construction of 221d3 housing (federally financed housing by a private developer limited to persons of low and medium income).

★ ★ ★

Burton said adequate financing for city programs is a definite problem even though Ypsilanti can levy up to 20 mills per thousand dollars of valuation against property (compared to the 10-mill levy

Norway Cruise Ship Afire in North Sea; Rescue Made

LONDON (AP)—Fire aboard the 5,000-ton Norwegian cruise ship Blenheim today forced her 98 passengers and most of her crew of 80 to abandon ship in the middle of the North Sea. One passenger was reported injured.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Two Danish fishing trawlers relieved the Blenheim's lifeboats of about 65 of the passengers and took them to the Danish port of Esbjerg.

The sea was calm as rescue ships, planes and helicopters converged 170 miles west off the Danish harbor of Tyboron. They were summoned from Britain, Scandinavia and the Netherlands.

REPORT IN ERROR

Reports to the British Defense Ministry said the ship was sinking, but they proved erroneous.

Reports from the scene said there were 89 passengers and 78 crewmen aboard, but the ship's owners, the Fred Olsen Line, raised these figures.

★ ★ ★

The fire broke out in midmorning as the ship was halfway across the North Sea on a regular run from Newcastle to Oslo.

★ ★ ★

15 PICKED UP

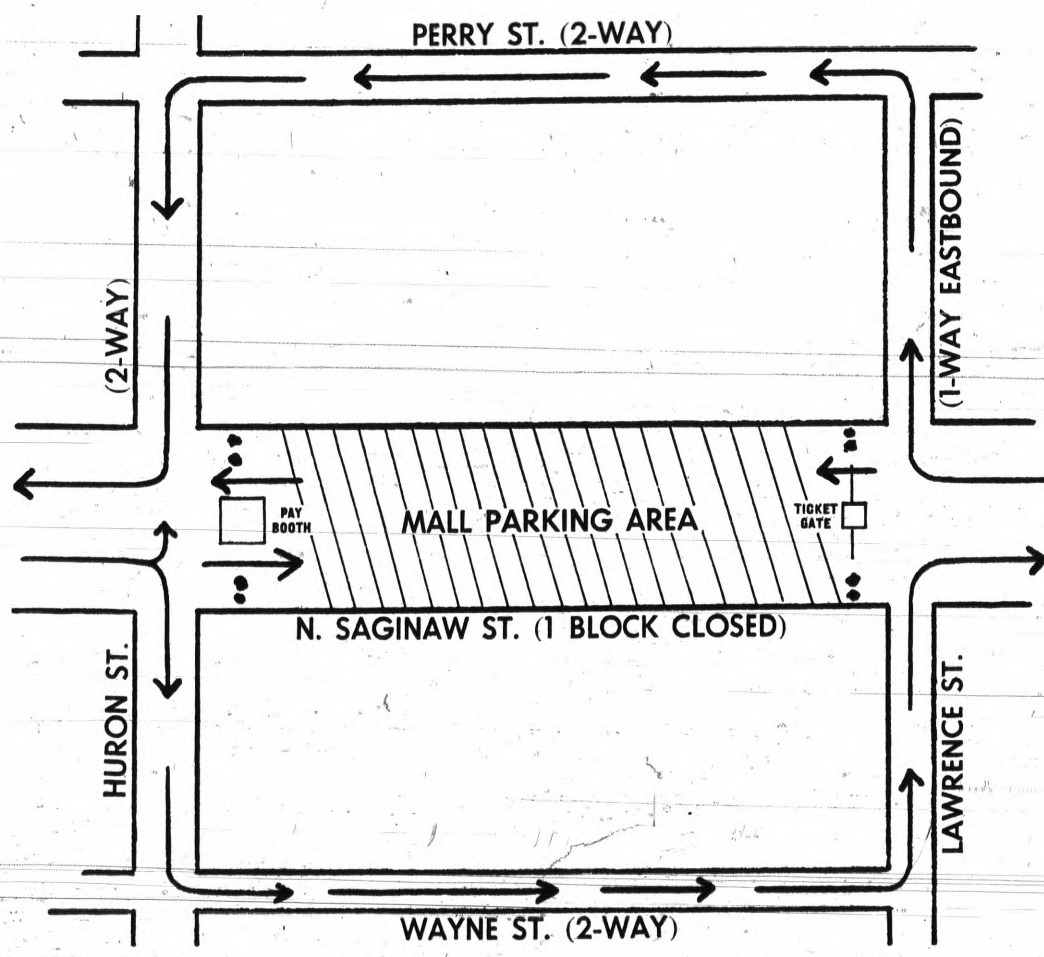

The first rescue ship to arrive, the Danish trawler Gina Wulff, took 15 passengers from the lifeboats. Other craft hurried to pick up the rest.

★ ★ ★

Later the Smit Lloyd 3, a small Dutch supply vessel, reached the scene. Her owners said she would try to tow the Blenheim to a safe harbor with the help of two German tugs.

'U.S. Spread Too Thin'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The United States is trying to do too much in too many fields all at once, and should assign priorities to its many goals, the board chairman of American Motors, Roy D. Chapin Jr., told the National Association of Purchasing Management Monday.

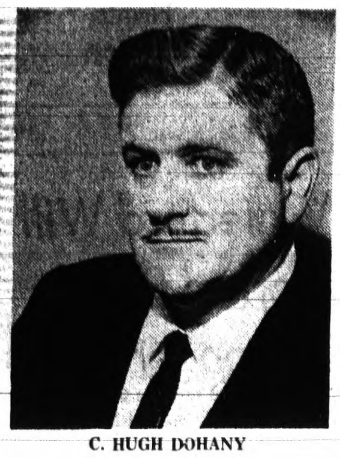

TRAFFIC PLAN—Creation of a downtown parking mall on North Saginaw between Huron and Lawrence necessitates routing traffic off Saginaw during the hours the downtown stores are open. Southbound traffic can turn left, but turns to the right are the most convenient for skirting the mall. The traffic pattern calls for southbound traffic to follow West Huron to Wayne, south on Wayne to Lawrence and east on Lawrence to North Saginaw. Northbound traffic must turn right on Lawrence—a one-way eastbound street—then can turn left on Perry and left on East Huron to best get back to North Saginaw. Store hours will dictate the hours the mall is in operation.

C. HUGH DOHANY

Southfield Man Seeks County Treasurer Post

Southfield City Treasurer C. Hugh Dohany announced today that he will be a Republican candidate for the office of Oakland County treasurer in the August primary election.

Dohany has been an elected official in Southfield since its incorporation more than 10 years ago. He has served as charter commissioner, councilman, council president and city treasurer.

As a former member of the board of supervisors, his committee appointments included building and grounds, cooperative extension service, auditor general-local taxes, veteran affairs and ways and means.

LIBRARY BOARD MEMBER

Dohany, 48, left his position two years ago as a field supervisor of the marketing division of Detroit Edison Co. after 26 years to devote full time to his duties as treasurer.

Dohany said he would see that the county treasurer's office would be "operated like a business, efficiently and economically."

Under his direction, the Southfield treasurer's office is the first in the state to be fully computerized.

"Local and county government is far behind industry in automation and if it is to exist on present tax levels it must attract capable officials with know-how of modern business methods," he added.

Crisis Worsens; DeGaulle Waits

PARIS (AP) — France's massive crisis worsened today, with more than one third of the nation's workers on strike, but President Charles de Gaulle's government still did nothing.

The Gaullist governing coalition expressed confidence it would survive a parliamentary vote on a censure motion tomorrow night, but it gave no indication what it would do about the workers' revolt for higher pay, shorter hours and job security.

Related Story, Page C-12

Nearly 6 million of the nation's 16 million workers were on strike, 250 factories were idle, and the movement was still growing. And unlike previous French strikes of 24 to 48 hours, no limit was put on these walkouts and sit-ins.

The strikes stopped trains, subways, buses, taxis and garbage collection in Paris and closed coal mines, airports and seaports. Some tourists were stranded. Lines formed at food and tobacco ships, banks and gasoline stations.

FEW POLICEMEN

Amid a monstrous traffic jam in Paris, made worse by cars that were abandoned after running out of gasoline, few policemen were in sight. Although not on strike, many apparently stayed home.

Facing the gravest threat yet posed to his 10-year-old Fifth Republic, de Gaulle has made no public statement since breaking off a visit to Romania Saturday and returning to the Elysee Palace. He is to address the nation on television Friday night, and there was no indication of what he planned for a situation strongly reminiscent of the turmoil that brought him back to power in 1958. Opposition political leaders conferred with trade union leaders yesterday in preparation for their attempt in the National Assembly to oust Premier Georges Pompidou and his Cabinet.

The French Communist party called for an end to the de Gaulle regime and the formation of "a true republican regime opening the way to socialism."

A successful censure motion in Parliament would not oust de Gaulle, whose term runs until 1972, but would be a major setback to his policies.

SAME DEMANDS

George Seguy, secretary-general of the big Communist-backed General Confederation of Labor, said in a speech that the striking workers will present their same demands to whatever government is in office until they obtain satisfaction.

The French crisis began with a revolt early this month of university students demanding educational reforms. Despite a promise from Pompidou to meet these demands, the students launched round-the-clock sit-ins at most of France's universities.

LBJ Asks More for Viet, Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson asked Congress today for an additional $3.9 billion ot support military operations in Vietnam and South Korea.

The request for a supplemental appropriation for the fiscal year that ends June 30 would boost estimated defense spending during the 12 months to $76.2 billion—up from a January forecast of $73.7 billion.

Of the $3.9 billion in supplemental requests, the bulk would be earmarked for Vietnam. But $230 billion would go to Korean operations and $300 million would be available to meet any now-unforeseen emergency needs that might arise in the next few weeks.

The figure of $3.9 billion is higher than the forecast $2.5 billion in actual spending in the current fiscal year because some of the appropriations sought would not actually be paid out until later.

LETTER TO McCORMACK

In a letter to House Speaker John W. McCormack D-Mass., Johnson said his request was urgent and he called for "prompt and favorable consideration."

In a second letter to McCormack, Johnson asked for supplemental appropriations of $791.6 million for the current bookkeeping year to foot the bill for civilian and military pay increases Congress voted in December.

Force Lands as Haiti Bombed

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Unidentified planes dropped four bombs on Port au Prince yesterday without causing any damage and also attacked the city of Cap Haitien with bombs and a landing of armed men, officials said.

Haiti's ambassador in Washington blamed Haitian exiles and Cubans, and the Haitian consul in Miami, Fla., said, "More than 4,000 Haitian workers have been trained in Cuba for guerrilla warfare."

In Port au Prince, one bomb exploded near the palace of President Francois Duvalier. He was not hurt. Three other bombs, including one which hit the military airfield, did not explode, said Aubelin Jolicoeur of the newspaper Le Nouvelliste.

Ambassador Arthur Bonhomme said in Washington: "The planes which landed the armed men at Cap Haitien are on the ground, and the Haitian army believes it has surrounded the men who landed and has them under attack. We should know pretty soon who are the attackers."

★ ★ ★

Consul Eugene Maximilien said in Miami that reports late Monday night indicated the "exile men" who landed at Cap Haitien, 85 miles north of Port au Prince, were under siege but still holding their positions.

'Blue Flu' Ends for Bus Drivers

The Pontiac bus drivers' version of the "blue flu" has apparently been cured today and all bus lines are reported operating normally.

Yesterday 12 out of 18 drivers failed to show up for work, reporting themselves sick, and three of the city's five lines were shut down.

A spokesman for Pontiac Transit Co. said today a disagreement between management and the men had been resolved. The spokesman didn't elaborate.

KEY EVENT—Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. (center) receives the key to Ypsilanti yesterday from Ypsilanti City Manager John G. Cartwright during Mayors Exchange Day. Mrs. Taylor looks on. The Taylors' visit was cut short when they left for Canada upon learning of the illness of Mrs. Taylor's mother.

which Pontiac is limited to by the city charter).

He said he wanted to discuss further with Pontiac officials the implementation of a city income tax with the possibility this could be used by Ypsilanti to solve money woes.

★ ★ ★

Burton said that although Ypsilanti's urban renewal program has been in the works longer than Pontiac's, he definitely feels that urban renewal can accomplish much toward creating housing that is lacking for low and medium income families.

GOOD RELATIONS

Burton said his city has good community relations at the moment and almost full employment. He said the city could experience problems if the large manufacturing plants have big layoffs.

To avert possible problems in this area several groups, including the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce and the city are working on programs to hire youths during summer months.

★ ★ ★

Burton, 57, a native of St. Louis, Mo., came to Ypsilanti in 1936 and was employed as a tool and die maker in the Ford Motor Co. plant.

He was active in union activities and shortly after his arrival became a full-time worker for the United Auto Workers. He is an official in the political education division of the UAW Solidarity House.

ELECTED IN 1946

He was first elected to the city's board of aldermen in 1946 and became a councilman in 1947 after the city changed its charter. He was a councilman until 1948, sat out one term, and was reelected in 1950.

★ ★ ★

He served continuously from then until 1966 when he did not seek reelection. He was reelected in 1967.

For the past three years he has been a member of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors.

Filsinger, 36, was elected to the Ypsilanti council in 1967 for a two-year term. He was elected mayor pro-tem in April.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS TEACHER

A 20-year resident of Ypsilanti, he is an industrial arts teacher at a junior high school in Ann Arbor.

The Mayors Day tour yesterday included visits to City Hall, Pontiac Motor Division and the Oakland County Service Center.

ARTHUR J. LAW

New School Head in W. Bloomfield

The West Bloomfield school board officially hired a new superintendent last night to fill the vacancy of Dr. Leif Hougen, whose contract expires June 30.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Witham said he signed his contract before the meeting yesterday. He was chosen from at least 60 other candidates.

The West Bloomfield board had voted in early February not to extend the contract of Hougen, who had held the superintendent's position 16 years.

The amount of Witham's annual salary is $22,000. Hougen had received $22,500 a year. Witham's present salary in Monroe is $18,000, he said.

DR. ANTHONY P. WITHAM

State Legislator Will Run Again in 62nd District

State Rep. Arthur J. Law of Pontiac announced today he will seek reelection to a sixth term.

A Democrat, Law, 62, of 27 Miami represents the 62nd District which includes most of the City of Pontiac.

Elected to the House of Representatives in 1958, Law has served as a member of the House Appropriations Committee for the last four years.

A native of Poteau, Okla., Law has been a Pontiac resident since 1925.

ELECTED TO COMMISSION

After one unsuccessful bid for a seat on the City Commission in 1938 he was elected to the commission in 1942, retaining the position until 1954.

A long-term supporter of a sports complex at the Michigan State Fair Grounds, Law recently was heartened by the fact that the state approved a $200,000 expenditure to study his plan for the recreation development.

EX-LABOR LEADER

Employed as a production worker at the Fisher Body Plant in Pontiac from 1925 to 1943, when he was named a labor representative for the War Production Board and the OPA, Law is a former president of Fisher Body Local 596 and is now an honorary member of the UAW.

★ ★ ★

He is a member of the Roosevelt Lodge, F&AM, and a 32nd degree Mason.

Man Gets Probation in Death of His Wife

The sentence was imposed on Otto Tyson, 296 Crystal Lake, by Oakland County Circuit Judge Farrell E. Roberts.

Tyson had pleaded guilty to manslaughter April 9 in the death of his 32-year-old wife, Irma. He had been charged with the more serious offense of second-degree murder.

★ ★ ★

The Tyson's 14-year-old daughter told police that she saw her father aiming the revolver at her mother. She said that she attempted to grab her father's arm but was unable to prevent the shooting.

Waterford to Appeal Ruling on Long Terms

"We would not want it said that public money had been spent to protect our jobs," Johnson said.

He said, however, that if the law is declared constitutional, it should be considered a normal expenditure of the township.

Objecting to the township paying any legal fees to appeal was Patrick K. Daly, one of the three residents who had challenged the statute.

Birmingham

Talks Slated on Transfer of Rubbish

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set a formal date of June 10 for discussion of the Southeast Oakland County Incinerator Authority's proposed rubbish transfer station.

The commission received a report from the transfer station study committee, but took no action because it had previously pledged to notify two home owners' associations prior to a decision.

★ ★ ★

The two groups, the Sheffield Estates and Pembroke Manor civic associations, have objected to the sale of city-owned property on Coolidge north of 14 Mile in Troy for a site for the station.

The commission also approved the rezoning of four lots in the south Woodward area to the city's new R-8 row or town-house classification.

REQUEST OKAYED

Also okayed was a request from Charles Edwards Post No. 14 of the American Legion in the amount of $150 to defray costs of grave flags and a memorial wreath for the city's Memorial Day observances.

In other business, the commission appointed members of the newly-formed Board of Building Trades, to hear appeals on permit regulations and problems.

★ ★ ★

The board was created a week ago on the recommendation of building official Harold C. Weber.

New members are Fred M. Harley, architect; Gordon E. Hoyem, mechanical engineer; Ross Pierce, electrical contractor; Gordon C. Johnston, plumbing contractor; Jack Sights, heating contractor; and Donald Worsley, refrigeration contractor.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — A forum of community leaders will close out the "Focus Summer Hope" series in the school auditorium of St. Hugo of the Hills Elementary School, 380 E. Hickory Grove.

The discussion, to begin at 8 p.m., will be entitled "What You Can Do" and will center around actions which individual citizens can take to help solve urban problems.

The panel will include Mrs. Richard V. Oxford, 727 Robinhood, Bloomfield Township; Harry Peterson, 655 N. Cranbrook, Birmingham; Ed Rivas, director of the Oakland County Commission on Equal Opportunity (OCCEO); Tom Rosenthal of Pontiac, Eastern Community school director; Mrs. Philip Goetzman of Operation Head Start; Robert Sanchez, a Pontiac post-office employe who is tutoring underprivileged persons for civil service examinations in a government-sponsored program; and Rev. Sister Denise, who is presently working for open housing in Detroit.

The public may attend and participate in the general discussion.

BIRMINGHAM — "A New Look at the Metropolitan Region" will be the topic discussed by William T. Patrick, executive director of the New Detroit Committee, at the annual meeting of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Council of Human Relations Sunday.

The meeting, to begin at 7 p.m., will be held at the First Baptist Church of Birmingham, 300 Willits.

★ ★ ★

In addition to his work with the New Detroit Committee, Patrick is chairman of the Wayne County Planning Commission. He is on leave from his position as assistant general attorney for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

The talk will be informal and will be followed by a question-and-answer period. The public may attend.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The board of education will not meet tonight as reguarly scheduled. Instead, a meeting will be held Tuesday, May 28, at 8 p.m.

City to Consider Wording of Ballot

City commissioners tonight will consider a resolution approving the wording of the June 24 referendum ballot on the city's open housing ordinance. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at City Hall.

The ordinance was adopted by the City Commission early this year. It never went into effect because referendum petitions forced an election on the ordinance.

★ ★ ★

The ballot likely will contain the designations, "for the ordinance" and "against the ordinance" with the voter being able to choose one.

In other business, the commission is scheduled to consider a proposal to sell a city-owned site at Featherstone and East Boulevard for construction of a nursing home.

King Medals Proposed

House Nixes Senate Court-Revamp Bill

LANSING (AP) — The House heartily slapped down the Senate's quickly drawn version of court reorganization Monday night, making likely a long spell of two - chamber negotiations on the complex issue.

★ ★ ★

A five - page Senate substitute for the 24 - page court bill passed earlier by the House was rejected by the parent chamber, 18-82. Needing a two-thirds majority to pass, the Senate bill drew a two-thirds-plus majority against it.

★ ★ ★

The procedural step, urged by Rep. Donald Holbrook, R-Clare, the measure's sponsor, sends the bill briefly back to the Senate, which will decide whether to withdraw the vast changes it made or to ask for a House-Senate conference.

★ ★ ★

The House proposed to abolish not only justice courts and circuit court commissioner — which are doomed at the end of the year anyway under the State Constitution — but also municipal courts outside Detroit.

181-JUDGE PLAN

Replacing them, under the House bill, would be a 181-judge district court system stretching across the state. The Senate version leaves municipal courts intact and expands their powers to take on duties now handled by the abolished judicial officers.

Before rejecting the Senate substitute, the House beat back a third attempt to bring Detroit into the proposed district court system. It had been left out by the House bill's authors, who feared a fight over Detroit's courts would endanger the bill.

Rep. David Holmes, D-Detroit, tried to include the city in the bill, warning that "Detroit has 28 votes in this House, and if you're talking about a two-thirds majority (which the court bill requires) then you'd better find some way of getting us back in the ball game."

★ ★ ★

Other Detroiters disagreed. "He'd better count noses again," said Rep. Michael Novak, D-Detroit.

AMENDMENT LOSES

"Detroit doesn't want to come in on this," added Detroit Republican Rep. J. Harold Stevens. Holmes' amendment was defeated, 38-61.

Inkster Schools Apply for Loan

LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan Legislature Monday was asked to grant the Inkster school district a $400,000 emergency loan so the district's teachers can be paid Friday.

The resolution requesting the loan was submitted less than eight hours after it was announced that Gov. George Romney had signed into law the bill establishing a revolving loan fund of $1.5 million.

It was no surprise to Inkster, which earlier this year threatened to close its schools if emergency funds were not made available. It was the first district to apply under the new act.

Inkster previously met other requirements for securing the loan: a state audit revealed a deficit of $400,000 and the State Board of Education and Romney have reviewed and approved the loan request.

IN INSTALLMENTS

Under terms of the resolution, introduced by Rep. William Jowett, R-Port Huron, and Vincent J. Petitpren, D-Wayne, the loan will be disbursed by State Treasurer Allison Green "in such installments as he deems necessary."

Jowett said legislative approval of such loans was made a requirement in order to keep the Legislature "completely versed on all the funding of these districts."

"It's something we didn't want to let out of hand," he said.

If the Legislature approves the loan, Inkster will have 10 years in which to pay it back with statutory interest. If a district defaults in repayment of the loan the State Board of Education is ordered to dissolve and reorganize it.

Dearborn's Mayor Hubbard Addresses Troy Officials

From Visiting Dearborn Mayor

Troy Officials Get Homespun Advice

By TOM GRAY

TROY — Dearborn Mayor Orville Hubbard came to this city yesterday and departed last night, leaving in his wake some homespun advice on how to run a good city government.

Speaking at a noon luncheon at Big Beaver Methodist Church as part of the activities for Mayor's Exchange Day of Michigan Week, Hubbard told Troy officials, "Public service is the best politics.

"It takes a long time to get smart in this business," Hubbard, who has been in office since 1941, added, "but after a while you learn how to get along."

In Dearborn elections, Hubbard explained, "We run slates. We put it right on the line. We have slogans: 'If you like things done the Hubbard way, vote the Hubbard slate on election day.'

SUNG IN SCHOOL

More specifically, the visiting mayor advised his hosts to keep their fire department volunteer and to think about enlarging the facilities for their city government.

Hubbard predicted that a volunteer fire department would save the city "millions," because the power of the firemen's lobby.

Troy's new city hall is "too small," he said, because of the demands for space which will be placed upon it on the future.

CAN'T FINISH

"In government," Hubbard philosophized, "you should start something you can't get finished. Then you can keep adding a little bit at a time, and you can get quite a bit done with it."

No citizen's complaint goes unanswered in Dearborn, he said, reflecting, "You get a certain satisfaction out of serving the people of the community. There's a general feeling among people that politicians are dishonest. But people are smart. They eventually know if you're square of if ou're on the take."

★ ★ ★

Dearborn department heads meet every morning at 7:49, "because it's an odd time," he explained. "If somebody's late, we take his (city) car away from him — we ground him. That means he doesn't have a city car to ride around in. And if somebody else gives him a ride, we ground him too."

★ ★ ★

"It's on every policeman's hat. If you come to our town, ask a policeman to show you his hat. If he does't have it, call me and I'll give you $10 — and we'll fine him $15 to get even."

Council to Review Imlay Pay Dispute

IMLAY CITY — A lengthy discussion of the wage dispute which caused all municipal employes but one to submit their resignations last week is expected at tonight's Village Council meeting at 7.

Village Manager Harvey Weatherwax, the only employe not to resign, said yesterday that the resignations, originally scheduled to be effective Monday, had been extended to Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

"They (the council) are going to meet . . . and we hope they'll find some agreement on these two points," Weatherwax added. He declined, however, to say what the points were.

Previously, employes had indicated that principal objections to the new budget centered around the elimination of a cost of living schedule, and the lack of pension provisions.

STRAIGHT INCREASES

In place of the schedule, which amounted to $350 to $500 for each employe, the council approved straight wage increases.

Public Works Supt. Kenneth Harley, one of those resigning, said the council had agreed upon a proposed pension plan last year, but dropped it at the last moment.

This year, Harley added, the council told him and Police Chief Larry Dougherty that their salaries were to be raised $500. Not unil later, he said, did the council inform them that the cost of living allowance was to be taken away.

Council President John Folk said the raises were all the village could pay without raising the present 9-mill tax rate, and compared favorably with other villages of the same size.

★ ★ ★

While calling the resignations "definite," Harley conceded the possibility that the employes might reconsider if the council were to alter its position.

Fire Guts Home; Mother, Child Feared Victims

ALMONT — A fire which destroyed a home near the village early Sunday morning may have claimed the lives of a young mother and her son.

Lapeer County Sheriff Kenneth Parks said Mrs. Winston Tisch, about 27, and Warren, about 6, have not been found since the fire swept their home at 7321 Bordman, about three miles south of Almont.

★ ★ ★

Earlier information had indicated they were visiting with friends near Romeo when the blaze was reported at 5 a.m. This report proved false.

Bones and other remains were found in the ruins of the two-story frame house, the sheriff said, but "we have nothing definite yet." The family dog also has not been found.

TO BE TESTED

The materials were to be shipped to the State Health Department Laboratory in Lansing this morning for examination.

The heat of the fire was so intense positive identification was impossible, Parks added. "The whole house fell into the basement and everything burned up. It was so hot the (Almont fire) department had to dump a terrific amount of water in there yesterday (Sunday) afternoon."

★ ★ ★

The sheriff said a state fire marshal inspected the home yesterday morning, but that no cause had been determined. The building was a total loss, Parks said.

Walled Lake Council to Eye Pool Ordinance

WALLED LAKE — A proposed ordinance to regulate swimming pools here is slated to come before the City Council at its meeting tonight at 8 in the City Hall.

The ordinance, in general, is to provide for the health, safety and welfare of pool owners and users, said a city spokesman.

Tea Set at Almont High for Retiring Teacher

ALMONT — A tea honoring Miss Agnes Glover, who is retiring next month after 42 years of teaching, will be held May 26 from 3-5 p.m. in the cafeteria of Almont High School, 431 Church.

Miss Glover has taught the fifth grade in Almont Community Schools for the past 17 years. The tea will be open to the public.

6th Fire Truck for Commerce

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — The township's sixth fire truck has been purchased for $28,313.

Delivery of the John Bean pumper on a Ford chassis is expected in four months.

In other recent Township Board action, Howard Preston of Bloomfield Township was hired as the architect for the township's third fire station to be located on Welch Road, a quarter mile north of Pontiac Trail.

About nine residents attending a recent board meeting discussed the petition of Wolverine Lake Village proposing cityhood for itself and part of the township.

★ ★ ★

Several residents questioned the possibility of the township itself incorporating. Township Supervisor Robert Long informed that the township doesn't fulfill the state law requiring 500 people per square mile for incorporation.

Reading-Funds Application Authorized

The West Bloomfield Board of Education authorized the admnnistration last night to apply for $15,898 in federal education funds for a remedial reading program at Roosevelt Elementary School this summer.

No action was taken last night on the hiring of a new superintendent. Board President Leonard Grossman said.

A vacancy in the top administration job for the next school year has existed since early February when the board voted not to extend the contract of Supt. Leif Hougen.

In other action last night, the board passed a resolution declaring its support of the community school concept.

The concept calls for schools to be used for purposes other than education, explained Grossman.

A community school, he continued, is open nights and weekends to serve all ages in the district through activities including sports, recreation, outdoor education, course, and arts and crafts.

A community school committee organized in Keego Harbor for the Roosevelt Elementary School has conducted a survey to determine interest in the community school concept in the city.

The results of the survey are expected to be presented to the board within the next several weeks, said the committee head, Donald Crothe.

Pending June 10 Vote

Avondale Hires 69 Teachers

While the June 10 vote for a 7.7-mill increase in operating funds will determine final hiring practices for next fall, the Avondale Board of Education nevertheless last night moved to offer second-year probation contracts to 47 teachers and tenure to another 22.

Supt. John W. Dickey said the probationary teachers will be informed that in the event salaries are raised due to negotiations, their salaries will be raised accordingly.

He said the district is now staffed for next year should the millage fail. He noted that at least eight grades would have to put on half-day sessions and that the R. Grant Graham elementary school would not open unless additional funds are received.

Several labor policies were discussed by the board and a determination was made in view of an Avondale Education Association grievance that the board is no longer in a position to support its ancillary teaching program.

★ ★ ★

A deed was received from the Michigan State Highway Department for 10 acres adjacent to the junior high school. The site is proposed for construction of a second senior high school.

School Board Quizzed on Contract

ROCHESTER — The board of education was quizzed last night on its decision to award the mechanical contract for the proposed Rochester Adams High School to the second low bidder.

James Morrissy of Sylvan Plumbing and Heating Co., Pontiac, noted his company had bid $970,000 on the job, but that the contract had been awarded to John E. Green Plumbing and Heating Co. of Detroit for $987,000.

Architects and attorneys for the board contended that the low bidder had made no allowance for temporary heat while the building was under construction and that it did not, therefore conform with the base specifications required in the bids.

Highland Sector Eyes Possibility of Incorporation

Brice L. Thompson, 3520 Woodland, president of the Beaumont, Seven Harbors, White and Duck Lake Subdivision Association, is seeking a legal opinion.

A meeting will be called soon to inform association members of the legal opinion and possible action, said Thompson.

"The main and only reason for becoming a village is to make the people pay their dues for the maintenance of the roads and beaches," said the president. Annual dues for most members are $15.

ROAD GRADER

Maintenance of roads will include operation of a road grader, recently purchased for $3,500. Association members will be receiving a $10-bill to help pay for the grader.

The association is putting up for sale its community center on the southeast corner of Duck Lake and Jackson roads.

★ ★ ★

The proceeds are to be used to renovate the clubhouse on White Lake.

The association dinner-dance is this Saturday from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the VFW Hall in Milford. These proceeds are also earmarked for clubhouse renovation.

Other officers of the association are vice president, James Fitzpatrick; secretary-treasurer Theodore Stoll; and chairman of the road and beach committee, Raymond Nunnery. The board of trustees includes 14 members.

Hope Not Abandoned for Ricky Thorne

LAPEER (AP)—Ricky Thorne, a teenager abandoned by his mother at a Miami, Fla., airport in 1965, may never speak but he's trying to learn to, a state hospital spokesman says.

His mother, Mrs. Victor Thorne, was quoted by newsmen about the time of abandonment as saying she wanted to focus attention on the boy with the hope that someone would know how to cure his retardation.

The Thornes, who lived in Troy, Mich., at the time Ricky was abandoned, have since sold their home there. Mr. and Mrs. Thorne's whereabouts are unknown.

Last October, the 16-year-old boy was sent from Florida to the Lapeer State Home and Training School.

'HE COULDN'T SMILE'

"He couldn't smile. He gulped his food," recalls Frederick Campbell, director of community relations for the hospital.

"Now, he has a real good smile," Campbell said. "And he takes his time at eating, like the other boys do."

★ ★ ★

He said as far as institution supervisors know, Ricky has never talked. He communicates by nodding or shaking his head.

★ ★ ★

Doctors could find nothing organically wrong with his vocal cords, however, and do not know why he has never talked. One doctor at Lapeer said it may be the result of brain damage. The boy, born a normal child, developed brain fever, probably from a virus, which caused retardation, Campbell said.

Campbell said the lad recently tried to speak. "He really strained. He moved his lips into the words, 'Thank you,' after a teacher praised him for his work at stringing beads," he said.

★ ★ ★

After Ricky's wandering around Miami International Airport led to publicity, his father, Victor Thorne, resigned his job as superintendent at a plant in Warren, a Detroit suburb. The parents sold their $35,000 house and moved.

★ ★ ★

Charles Wagg, chief assistant director of the Michigan Department of Health, said the parents would be billed for Ricky's confinement if they could be found.

Ricky's two sisters, both of whom are married and live in Michigan, have visited him at Lapeer.

"When one sister visited him recently, Rickie recognized her. He jumped up, hugged her and gave her a kiss," Campbell said.

After Ricky was found at the airport, Mrs. Thorne identified him as her son. Florida officials took custody of the youth, according to Dr. John Preskey, Dade County, Fla., youth services director. Last August the Thornes said they would no longer pay the $220 a month to cover Ricky's care, he said, and Preskey asked Michigan authorities to take Ricky.

The brown-haired Ricky has an intelligence quotient between 30 and 50, which puts him in a trainable level, Campbell said. Ricky attends half-day sessions in a school, where he is taught to work with coloring books and similar items.

Keego Budget Hearing Tonight

KEEGO HARBOR — The proposed 1968-69 budget — up an anticipated $18,000 over the current year — is slated for a public hearing tonight at 7:30 at the City Hall, 2025 Beechmont.

As proposed, it totals $143,930. Revenues reflect a $20,200 increase in property taxes.

Property reappraisal was a major factor in an increase in state equalized valuation from $4.8 million in 1967 to $5.2 million.

Another large increase is the $6,000 anticipated rebate from the state income tax.

EXPENDITURE HIKES

Major increases in expenditures in the proposed budget are $4,366 for police, for a total of $41,755; $5,540 for roads (no allocation last year); $3,560 for clerical employes for a total of $13,100; and $1,104 in the contingency fund to total $2,000.

Increases proposed include $200 in salary for the city manager, for a total of $9,000 and $200 more for his mileage allowance for a total of $600.

The budget also includes a $3,000 salary increase for police.

HOME AGAIN — Randell Wayne Bennett, 2, beams happily in the world of dirt and toy trucks after spending months in the world of hospital wards and operating tables. He was released Saturday after a complicated liver transplant operation.

Liver-Transplant Patient Released From Hospital

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Randell Wayne Bennett, 2, one of four known survivors of liver transplant operations, has been discharged from the University of Colorado Medical Center.

The curly haired son of Mrs. Sandra Bennett of Mesquite, Tex., is the first liver transplant patient to progress enough to be released.

The youngster underwent surgery Feb. 9, after doctors found he suffered from biliary atresia, the congenital malformation of bile ducts. The ailment often results in death by about the second birthday.

The transplant for Randy "was my only chance, so I decided to take it. There was no hope otherwise," said Mrs. Bennett.

REGULAR CHECKUPS

Randy and his mother are remaining in Denver, and he still makes regular trips to the center for checkups and treatments.

Another of the patients, Terry Jean Kent, 16, went home to Hillsboro, Ore., for the weekend, and returned to the hospital Monday. She had her transplant in March.

★ ★ ★

The other patients are Julie Cherie Rodriguez, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rodriguez of Pueblo, Colo., and Eddie Miller, 44, of West Helena, Ark.

Julie received her new liver nearly 10 months ago, on July 23, 1967 while Miller is the most recent addition to the group. He had the operation April 14.

A Party to Theft

ROCKY HILL, Conn. (AP) — A motel that reported the theft of four color television sets told police Monday a well-dressed man had reserved the four rooms from which they were stolen. The man, who did not pay for the rooms, told the motel he was reserving them for a party of friends.

Miriani Found Guilty on Four Tax Counts

DETROIT (AP) — Louis C. Miriani, 73-yar-old city councilman and former Detroit mayor, faces possible imprisonment of 20 years and a fine of $40,000 after his U.S. District Court conviction Monday of income tax evasion.

A jury of eight women and four men convicted Miriani on four counts after deliberating 5 hours and 45 minutes. Judge Charles G. Neese of Knoxville, Tenn., who presided, said Miriani would be sentenced Aug. 10.

Miriani's attorneys said the conviction will be appealed.

The government contended Miriani underestimated his income by $261,100 from 1959 through 1962. He was unseated by Jerome P. Cavanagh for mayor in 1961 but won reelection to the council in 1965.

CONVERTED 'GIFTS'

Miriani contended the money on which the government claimed taxes came to him as political campaign contributions and tax-free gifts, but the government argued he had converted it to his own use and it therefore was taxable.

The government presented evidence which it said showed Miriani had 28 different bank accounts and that he had used approximately $226,000 of unreported income to purchase tax-free municipal bonds for himself.

Internal Revenue Service agents estimated Miriani owed $154,000 in taxes and penalties.

Miriani's trial was delayed several months because of a circulatory ailment which confined him to his home much of the time.

Judge Neese rejected a plea at the beginning of his trial earlier this month for additional delay, ruling trial would not endanger the former mayor's health.

Little Chance of Electoral College Shift

Nearly everyone who has written on the subject for the last 180 years or so has called for doing away with or drastically altering the Electoral College method of choosing the Nation's president.

The criticism has been especially vigorous this year because of the possibility that the third-party candidacy of former Alabama Gov. GEORGE WALLACE could throw the election into the House of Representatives. The wheeling and dealing that might accompany that eventuality gives some people nightmares.

There are 538 electoral votes, which is the total of the representatives and senators of the 50 states, plus three for the District of Columbia.

When John Q. Public votes in November, he votes not for the presidential and vice presidential candidates of the party of his choice but for a slate of electors. The elected electors in turn meet in their respective state capitals in December and are morally—but not legally—bound to vote for the candidates they represented on the ballot.

The Constitution provides that when no candidate receives a majority (270) of the electoral votes, the House of Representatives must choose the president from the top three candidates, with each state's delegation casting one vote. (Senators vote as individuals for one of the top two vice presidential candidates.)

There are two main proposals for reform. One is to abolish the Electoral College outright and elect the president and vice president by direct vote, like every other elective Federal office. The other proposal is to retain the college, but make its votes proportional to the popular vote in each state instead of the winner-take-all of the electoral votes regardless of the margin (even a single vote) by which he won the popular vote.

But even if the president were elected by direct popular vote, there would still be the possibility, whenever there were more than two candidates, of no one receiving a majority.

The Electoral College is not ideal by any means. Yet, except for two or three elections, it has probably reflected national sentiment and operated as effectively as any electoral process that could be devised.

SST Would Pack Great Economic Punch

The sale of just one American-made supersonic transport would offset the import of 20,000 Volkswagens, eight million fifths of Scotch or 10 million Japanese transistor radios, according to Maj. Gen. J. C. MAXWELL, director of SST development for the Federal Aviation Administration.

★ ★ ★

Not only that, each SST exported would balance out the money spent abroad by 23,000 U.S. tourists in one month or pay the salaries of 800 Sophia Lorens for an entire year.

Despite the promising statistics, the future of the much-criticized SST remains in doubt. But 800 SOPHIA LORENS? There's an idea that at least one-half the American taxpaying public will agree ought to be pursued.

Library Head Would Mix Drinking With Thinking

Barroom barristers and dramshop debaters in Chicago may soon be able to imbibe a little knowledge along with refreshments, reports the National Observer.

"People are always calling the library and the newspapers to settle arguments," says RALPH G. NEWMAN, chairman of the city's library board. "They want to know what TY COBB's lifetime batting average was or what poet said what. So why not give them their own reference libraries in their favorite hangouts?"

He suggests that reference works like the Bible, the World Almanac and Bartlett's Quotations could settle a lot of the disputes that have been known to arise in such surroundings.

The public library has already placed books in neighborhood welfare offices. NEWMAN would now like to stock not only taverns but police stations and other places where people gather.

"People spend hours and hours in these places," he says. "Often they don't have anything to do while they wait. I'd like to have them fill that time by reading."

★ ★ ★

It's hard to fault the idea. Not only could it advance culture but it might very well help promote marital harmony.

What wife could complain if her husband called her and said, "I'll be a little late tonight, dear, I have to stop in the, uh, local reference library to look up something in the almanac."

Colorado River Project Reappraised

By RAYMOND MOLEY

PHOENIX — Arizona and California have measurably reappraised their long-disputed claims to the water of the Colorado River. The result is a plan known as the Central Arizona Project.

MOLEY

The Colorado is a hefty river but the needs of the states through which it and its tributaries flow are prodigious. Back in the 1920s an allocation of the water was made between what is called the upper basin and the lower basin.

Under that interstate compact Arizona was to have the use of 2.8 million acre-feet of the water, California 4.4 million acre-feet and Nevada 300,000. But when the Hoover Dam was built, the then secretary of the interior made contracts with water users in California for 5,362,000 acre-feet and that state built channels to carry the water from Lake Mead.

Since California insisted upon the more than 5 million acre-feet which had been assigned to it through earlier contracts, Arizona brought suit in the Supreme Court in 1952 to validate its claim for the 2.8 million acre-feet. After 11 years the court decided in Arizona's favor.

TRANSPORT BURDEN

But there still remained the problem of getting the means for transporting the water. For a while Arizona was busy designing a plan to carry the burden itself. Its plan was to build two lower dams above the Hoover Dam on the river and with the power thus generated carry the water to the needy counties.

But Sen. Carl Hayden and the Arizona House members decided to attempt to have Congress authorize a plan at federal expense. After many compromises the present plan was devised.

California was quieted by provisions that it should have prior claim to 4.4 million acre-feet and also that there would be facilities to augment the flow of the river by desalinization.

The dams would be eliminated and a big steam plant would be built and operated by a group of private and public agencies with some subsidy from the federal government.

In this reappraisal two hard facts are recognized. One is that electric power generated by hydroelectric dams is cheaper than generation by coal and steam is a myth. And the certain advent of nuclear energy may well make the great power dams in not so many years monuments to political folly.

Another fact recognized in this plan is that as cities and industries grow in such arid areas as Ceneral Arizona, they must have priority over irrigation in the use of water. Back there in the controversies of the early 1950s it was shown that if the agricultural acreage were cut by 10 per cent there would be water for a city twice the size of Phoenix.

That growth has already been exceeded and the city has actually taken over much of the crop-raising land. And the water problem here is much less serious than it was 20 years ago.

That is a lesson which was recognized in the laws of Hammurabi 4,000 years ago. The priorities were people first, then animals and, finally, the land.

Helpful Charlie!

David Lawrence Says:

Attack on Crime Bill Ill-Founded

WASHINGTON—The United States Senate has been considering a bill which would remove some of the technicalities in law-enforcement procedures that have permitted murderers and other criminals to escape punishment.

LAWRENCE

Sen. John L. McClellan of Arkansas, one of the veteran members of the Senate Judiciary Committee, has issued a memorandum explaining the proposal that would permit a trail judge to decide whether a confession has been made voluntarily. It would leave it to the jury to determine how much weight shall be given to a confession.

★ ★ ★

This attempt to correct Supreme Court decisions has been denounced by other senators as an assault on the independence of the judiciary and on the Constitution itself.

But many of the critics either have not read the Constitution or have forgotten what it says about the power of Congress to limit the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. Article III of the Constitution reads as follows:

"In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be party, the Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the Congress shall make."

RARELY UTILIZED

Congress has rarely utilized this power, but the crime crisis in America has focused attention on the part the courts have unwittingly played in giving freedom to criminals.

Sen. McClellan, in his latest memorandum, criticizes particularly three Supreme Court rulings — two of which were rendered by a five-to-four decision — and declares:

"These decisions have set free many dangerous criminals and are daily preventing the conviction of others who are guilty. How can the freeing of known, admitted, and confessed murderers, robbers, and rapists by the courts, not on the basis of innocence, but rather on the pretext of some alleged, minor, or dubious technically be justified? . . ."

The most momentous opinion by the Supreme Court was handed down on June 13, 1966, in what is known as the Miranda decision.

In that case, by a five-to-four ruling, the court said that no confession, even if wholly voluntary in the traditional sense, could be admitted in evidence over the objection of a defendant in a state or federal proceeding unless the prosecution could show that certain warnings were given in advance.

The prosecution also was required to prove that the suspect had voluntarily and "intelligently" waived his rights.

★ ★ ★

Bob Considine Says:

Lesotho Doesn't Rate in U.S. Aid Giveaway

NEW YORK — What have we got against Lesotho? our Agency for International Development has given Lesotho only $1.1 million. This is no time to alienate any country, not even Lesotho—which has a population just under 1 million, is completely surrounded by the Republic of South Africa and used to be known — but not very well — as Basutoland.

CONSIDINE

Lesotho is a stickout on the list of more than 100 countries we have spent about $125 billion on since the end of World War II. It has gotten just about the smallest share of the swag.

Our good friend Charles de Gaulle's France — now as rocky as a rope ladder rescue —is No. 1 on the same list. The American taxpayer, willing or not, has shipped more than $10 billion to France since V-E day.

REVIVED OPPONENTS

We revived our three World War II opponents — Germany, Japan and Italy — to the extent of more than $15 billion, and all three are underselling us in world markets.

We have sunk more than $5 billion in Chiang Kai-Shek's China, but won't accept aid from Taiwan in fighting the war in Vietnam.

We blew the better part of a billion dollars on Sukarno's Indonesia, and, if effect, underwrote his romantic forays through the world in search of new girls.

The two greatest beneficiaries of America's open purse, so far as per capita is concerned, are Israel and Jordan. Israel has received more than a billion dollars for benefit of its 2,175,000 people; Jordan, population 1,725,000, had been granted about $600 million.

RIDER ATTACHED

There is nothing in any AID contract which insists that a country express and demonstrate gratitude for even a life-saving handout — such as the $7-billion gift to India. But is does burn Washington now and then when some country we saved from going down the drain chooses to thumb its nose at us.

Now, at long last, there is a rider attached to the 1968 foreign aid bill which gives us the right to halt promised grants to any nation whose leaders appear to be playing fast and loose with our dough.

★ ★ ★

Peru is the first to feel those new teeth we've imbedded in our generosity.

Last December, the current bosses of Peru placed a $20-million order with France for 12 Mirages — supersonic fighter-bombers.

TO SLASH GRANT

The U.S., which has some very nice fighter-bombers for sale, had by that time showered $700 million on Peru, and had earmarked another $37 million in aid for fiscal 1968.

Washington has now decided to slash a promised $37-million grant. If Peru wants those French planes badly enough, apparently to protect her Guano Islands, she'll have to raise the dough herself. About $11 million in U.S. aid, largely food and technical services, will be Peru's lot this year.

Still, that's 10 times what Lesotho has gotten out of us, and Lesotho doesn't even want to buy spears.

'Citizens Can Be Proud of State Senator Lodge'

Recently I was privileged to attend an afternoon session of the Senate Commerce Committee in Lansing. The chairman of this important committee is State Senator L. Harvey Lodge of the 17th Senatorial District. Due to the fact that Mr. Lodge is a Republican and I am a lifetime Democrat, I was prepared to be unimpressed by his efforts. However, I found myself overwhelmed by this elder statesman. He demonstrated by his manner that he is a dedicated, patient, hard working member of the Michigan Legislature striving to secure action in the public interest.

LODGE

He often works late to be sure that everyone attending his hearings has ample opportunity to express his opinion on pending legislation. His 'homey' touch makes otherwise dull testimony lively and interesting.

★ ★ ★

Naturally, I would prefer an equally talented Democrat in this key position, but I must say with sincerity and honesty that his constituents can be proud of his efforts on their behalf.

Discusses Problems of Lake Orion Schools

After reading the Voice of the People I can understand why our entire Lake Orion school system has gotten in such a mess. Where did these people obtain information to be able to judge our group? One of our complaints is the students being judged before both sides are heard. Why are some people of this community afraid to openly voice their complaints? Why are students being interrogated about what goes on in our group meetings?

★ ★ ★

We have a lot of good teachers in the school system and we want them to stay. Why are some good teachers leaving? Why have some influential, professional and business people changed their minds about living here? We want a better school system and a community that we can be proud of. Should we be condemned for voicing our opinion?

Those who refuse to stand up for the U.S.A. and what it represents ought to lose their citizenship rights and be deported.

Reader Gives Views on Airport Proposal

The proposed Oakland-Orion airport is uneconomical, impractical and not in public interest. It would destroy much of the desirable character of adjacent areas. Bald Mountain Recreation, Camp Agawam (one of the State's finest Boy Scout camps), and Keatington development would suffer, as well as a multitude of long-established home owners.

★ ★ ★

Supervisors arbitrarily selected the site under pressure from manufacturers to provide easy air access for executives living in affluent areas of Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham without subjecting their tranquil acreages to disturbance. Protesting citizens' committees have been denied information or hearings.

The proposed airport is self-defeating for within five years labor and freight transport will glut all present arteries of surface travel. The solution is to provide small plane and helicopter ports for taxi service. Lapeer County has considerable sub-marginal farmland that could more economically provide facilities and room for expansion.

Young Rebels Rock East, West

PARIS (AP) — Rebellious youth in East and West have declared war on The Establishment.

In the East, the Establishment is the Communist party and its bureaucracy. In the West it is the bourgeoisie and its system.

* * *

The black flags of anarchism and the red flags of communism flying over the stately old Sorbonne in Paris signal the students' rebellion which has pushed Charles de Gaulle's Fifth Republic into deep crisis.

FRENCH SEIGE

France is virtually under siege because the student protest has billowed into nationwide unrest strikes and protests against the government.

RED CHINA, TOO

Red China, too, is an extreme example of war against "the high and mighty bureaucrats." This struggle is controlled and directed by the followers of Mao Tse-tung. The target is the entrenched party bureaucracy, which after the Communist takeover in 1950 became huge and difficult for Mao to handle, a power instrument in the hands of others. Mao feared that the party would surrender its influence to the bureaucracy, the strong and authoritative Establishment.

In the Soviet Union, in Communist Poland and East Germany, it is youthful ferment which bothers the political leaders. All the unrest has had its distinct manifestations in resistance to established systems.

* * *

As in the West, students and intellectuals join hands in protest. In the East, the protest is often against lack of intellectual and cultural freedom. In the West, such freedom are taken for granted, but the same young forces join hands in protest against conformity, against those they feel made a mess of the world the young will inherit.

In Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia, the intellectuals and students were in the vanguard of the reform movement which blossomed into something akin to a bloodless revolution that is still in progress.

SELF-DISCIPLINE

The students in Czechoslovakia want more intellectual freedom, but unlike those in France they displayed a large measure of self-discipline. Aware of the enormous pressures on their new leaders, they accepted limited gains in the expectation that their movement would go forward rather than invite the Soviet intervention which could kill it completely.

Back in 1956, it was the student movement in Hungary and in Poland which led rebellions. The young Czechoslovaks know what happened when those movements went too far. They were crushed.

* * *

In the United States and other countries of the Western Hemisphere, once again the Establishment finds itself the target of youngsters who resist conformity.

There are 600,000 university students in France, more than three times the number 10 years ago, and the ranks of eligibles are growing all the time. The facilities can no longer keep up with them. About a fifth of these students are reported directly involved in the rebellion.

WIDE VARIETY

In Paris, they include anarchists, nihilists, Trotskyists, Castroists, Maoists, Guevarists —anything but admirers of the French Establishment in which the rebel students scornfully include the orthodox French Communist party.

* * *

They are openly demanding destruction of the state as it now exists. The atmosphere may appear carnival and gay to the onlooker, but the students say they are deadly serious. Not only must De Gaulle go, they insist, but everything he stands for. And with him must go those the youths consider compromisers with the system, across the political spectrum from extreme right to the orthodox Communist left.

Snow's on the Roof and Fire's Out but He's Going to Fight it Anyway

DEAR ABBY: My husband is well over the age of collecting social security, but would you believe he is so vain he won't put in for it because he doesn't want to admit his right age?

He is still running after women, too. Believe me, if he ever catches any it will be perfectly harmless. I should know.

I have been touching up his hair for years, otherwise it would be snow-white. Lately I have been telling him it is time he let his hair go "natural," for it is no crime for a man his age to have white hair, but he says, no, he still wants me to touch it up for him. If you were me, would you? ELSA

ABBY

DEAR ELSA: No. Tell him as long as there is no fire in the furnace, he may as well leave the snow on the roof.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I will give you the facts, which are all true, as I am the girl's mother:

Millie and Don (made up names) were married two weeks after Don graduated from high school. They had to get married as Millie was five months along.

After the baby came I baby-sat for Millie so she could go back to school and get her diploma.

The baby is a year old now and Don says he wants a divorce. He says he doesn't love Millie anymore and he wants to be "free." He says he doesn't want the responsibilities of marriage and fatherhood.

He won't go to our priest, and he won't see a marriage counselor. He says all he wants is out. He went to a lawyer who says it will be difficult but not impossible for Don to get a divorce without Millie's cooperation because he has no grounds. (Millie has all kinds of grounds, but she doesn't want to file.)

Millie says she loves him and is willing to do anything to save her marriage. Can you help? MILLIE'S MOM

DEAR MOM: No one can "help" save a marriage unless both parties want to save it. Millie can make it tough for Don to get a divorce, but can't force him to live with her. Assuming she could "save" the marriage, a young husband who feels trapped would make a poor husband and a worse father.

DEAR ABBY: In answer to the question recently asked of you, "Is the pill 100 per cent safe?" — may I reply?

Thinking this was the only safe way to avoid having a baby at my age (42), I asked my doctor for the pill. I used it for nearly two years, then . . . bang! I found I was pregnant. I had not forgotten to take my pill at any time, so at first I thought surely it was the menopause. (So did my Doctor.) It turned out to be a beautiful baby boy instead.

Abby, I had two grandchildren, so naturally I was about as "overjoyed" at the prosepcts of having another baby as most women in their mid-forties would have been. But what seemed at first to be the end of the world turned out to be the most wonderful thing that ever happened to me.

I hope that other women who find themselves in the same situation will read this and realize it is not a catastrophe — but God's will. Only He could have known the joy this unexpected child was to give us. And now we know, too. BLESSED IN ZANESVILLE

DEAR ABBY: I have a "confidential" for my husband's secretary who is also doubling as "the other woman" in his life: I have offered my husband his freedom so he could marry her, but he said he doesn't want it. Another thing, we have been married for 29 years — not 21. He also lied about his age. HIS WIFE

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL to B. L. F.: When a woman marries John Jones, she becomes Mrs. John Jones . . . and remains Mrs. John Jones as long as she lives and is his legal wife. Should John die, she is Mrs. John Jones (not Mrs. Mary Jones) unless she marries another man.

However, if Mrs. John Jones divorces John, she does not retain the name of "Mrs. John Jones," she is Mrs. Smith (her maiden name) Jones. It makes sense to me because if John marries again, his wife becomes Mrs. John Jones, and if his former wife (and, heaven forbid, former wives) all retain the name of Mrs. John Jones, wouldn't they have a time with their charge accounts, mail and identification?

Paper Tissue Inside Napkin Is Good Idea

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: It is not often I disagree with your comments. I refer to the hostess who tucked a paper tissue into her linen napkin. It appears that the guest and yourself felt that only the tissue and not the napkin was to be used.

As a guest, I have often taken a tissue to the table to blot my lipstick, rather than smear a lovely linen napkin. I felt the hostess was most thoughtful in providing this tissue.

★ ★ ★

The tissue, I must assume, was tucked there for the excessive lipstick prior to the actual use of the linen. I feel this line of reasoning fits the situation more closely than the comments printed in your column. — Mrs. M.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. M.: I received a number of letters defending the use of a paper napkin with a linen one, most of them referring to the stains left by indelible lipstick. The original letter referred to a paper napkin — not a tissue.

★ ★ ★

I repeat that I consider the use of two napkins awkward and complicated, but I think providing a small tissue which, after use, may be tucked into a purse or a sleeve, is an excellent idea!

Household Help Looks Forward to Upped Status

NEW YORK, N.Y. — If a suggestion put forward by one of America's most prominent women bankers is accepted, future help wanted ads for housemaids may read like this:

"ASSOCIATE WANTED: Successful small business operation desires competent individual with experience in household management. Our plant is located in quiet residential area. Executive take-home pay. Free parking. Free food and private room with bath. Excellent fringe benefits. Candidate should have diploma from home-counseling school or two years' experience. Please submit resume, including recent snapshot. An equal-opportunity employer."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Mary G. Roebling, chairman of the board of the Trenton (N. J.) Trust Company, asserted in a signed editorial in the current issue of McCall's that "the day of the master-servant relationship is gone, and the time of the competent, professional staff assistant in the home has come."

★ ★ ★

"We must recognize that household assistants are not a self-indulgent luxury and that the job of the competent household assistant is equally as attractive and socially acceptable as work in office or factory," she said.

BROADENING FIELD

"Today there are 21 million families with annual incomes over $10,000. These families have enough money to be able to exercise very broad options in disposing of their income," she said.

She added that "the wise and judicious use" of such income "on competent help could be a tremendous factor in revitalizing family life by providing the wife with more leisure time to be with her husband and her children."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Roebling suggested that to attract trained household help, "we must offer benefits competitive with business — standardized pay, health insurance, regular work hours, normal fringe benefits."

★ ★ ★

"The U.S. Department of Labor and the National Committee on Household Employment have been successfully sponsoring training centers throughout the nation, to develop household skills in unemployed or unskilled individuals. When they 'graduate a student,' he or she has a choice of high-paying jobs from which to select," Mrs. Roebling wrote in McCall's.

Sisters Will Seek New Image With Glamour Highlighted

By MARGARET CHARLTON
Kalamazoo Gazette Writer

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Many women spend an hour and a half at their beauty parlor getting their hair done and think nothing of it.

"I never dreamed the process would take so long!" exclaims Sister M. Clarice, a Nazareth nun of the Sisters of St. Joseph, who is enrolled in a course at a Kalamazoo beauty school. "When I first came here, I had no idea of the time involved, especially in bleaching and tinting."

Sister Clarice says that it was difficult for her to enter a brand new field, but since Catholic nuns now expose their hair, it became necessary for a Sister of St. Joseph to learn hair care. "Whenever a need arises in a community, sisters are trained in that particular field," Sister Clarice explains.

LEARNED

Since her course at the beauty school began last September, she has learned a great deal about hair care, wig styling and facials.

"I've enjoyed my course very much," Sister Clarice says. "Many of the sisters have told me I was a godsend to go into this kind of work. But I was glad to do it because it was necessary. There is a very large change taking place at a very rapid pace, and we must be ready for it."

Sister Clarice says that for many of the sisters having their hair done is a fantastic transformation for them.

"They are so busy and never realized, as I didn't, that they couldn't just walk in and walk out again." She also assists the other sisters at Nazareth in the care and styling of their hair and gives them beauty pointers.

Nuns now in contemporary dress are more than ever in the public eye, and they must be as well-groomed as any professional woman.

★ ★ ★

Recently a hair stylist did Sister Clarice's hair in a special style for a nun wearing a veil. "It's a little hard to adjust to, after going about in a habit for 20 years!" she laughs.

Daughter Torn Between Mother, Dad

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Oh, please help me. My mother hasn't spoken to me for months because she thinks I am a traitor for not hating my father as she does. They are divorced.

I love her dearly — but I love my father, too, as he is gentle, kind and so nuderstanding that he keeps telling me how much my mother needs my affection. But I am tortured with guilt because she says I am a Judas who's betrayed her by loving my father, too . . .

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: And you — what do you think you are?

★ ★ ★

Are you your mother, the hating ex-wife of your father — or are you that different person, their child?

★ ★ ★

Let's not get trapped in any of this nonsense about "guilt." There is no guilt in this situation. All there is is confusion — your confusion as to whether you're obliged to be your mother or are entitled to be what you are— the child of your father and of her.

HER LIFE

Want to be your mother? O.K. Feel her feelings and assume her life. But I'm warning you that you can't involve yourself in such craziness without great danger. For she's going to die before you do. And when she does, what then? You'll have to die with her. Having assumed her life, you're going to have to give up your life when she gives up hers.

This woman is trying to rid herself of you, child, exactly as she rid herself of your father. She doesn't want people. All she wants is agreement. So before she dies she's going to find herself very lonely indeed.

At which point it will be only humanly decent to rally to her what comfort you can. But it won't be effective. For people like your mother are sieves which leak everything you and I try to give them.

The problem is that she's just about convinced you that you're not yourself — but are she, your father's furious ex-wife.

She's cast a spell on you just as fairy tale witches cast spells on handsome young princes so powerful they actually believe themselves to be frogs.

★ ★ ★

This a powerful witch, your mother. So I want you to look for a psychiatrist until you find one you like very much. For a psychiatrist we like very much serves us exactly as Beauty in the fairy tale served the Beast in the forest castle. His love destroys the witch's power to make us believe we're a beast. Like Beauty, he restores our true shape to us.

Polly's Pointers

De-Electrify a Blanket

DEAR POLLY — I do hope that Regina, who wants to remove the cords from an electric blanket, will read this. I took a razor blade and clipped all the threads that hold the wires on the blanket. It took me a few evenings to do this.

Afterward, I cut a hole where the plug-in was and put a patch over it. I bought a two-pound dacron batting, put it between the two sides of the blanket and have the warmest comforter I have ever owned.—C. C.

DEAR POLLY — I am delighted to be able to tell Regina how I removed the wires from an electric blanket so it would be just a plain one. Unravel the thread from the bottom ribbon band, wind the thread and the ribbon on a spool to be ready for reuse.

Turn the blanket inside out a little at a time, clip the threads holding the wires and do this until you can get hold of the wire. Then cut the wire at the loop, pull it from top to bottom, thus saving a lot of thread clipping. The wires on mine went up and around and down again. Or, you can keep turning the blanket inside out and just clip threads that hold wires until you reach the top. Clipping was easier for me.

Turn the blanket right side out again, replace the ribbon, using the same thread and you have a useful blanket.

I also put blanket protectors on all my blankets. This solves washing so often as only the part that comes up around the face seems to show much soil. I use a wash fabric that blends with the bedroom's decor, fold selvage edges together, put fold on top of the blanket, baste in place with long stitches, and then the soiled protector can easily be removed for frequent washing.—MRS. J. E. L.

PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY—Can you tell me what I can use to restore a clean look to the badly scarred front of my radio? — MAE.

DEAR POLLY — I have received so many helpful Pointers I want to pass on one of mine to the other readers. I had a problem with the tie-on pads that I bought for my maple dinette chairs. The ties were always ripping off especially when one sat on a chair.

★ ★ ★

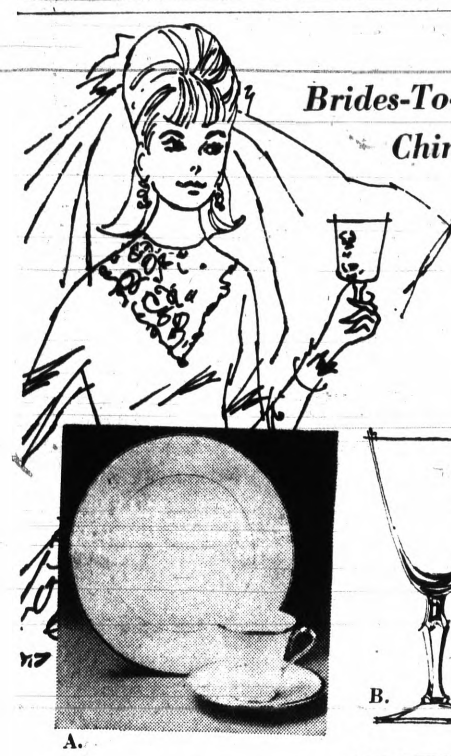

The pads would slide, then the ties ripped off. I finally bought narrow elastic, cut it in about one-inch lengths, to make loops sewed these elastic loops onto the corners of the chair pad and put the ties through the elastic loops, and then tied them to the chairs.

Now no matter how a cloth pad slides, the elastic stretches and there are no more annoying torn-off ties.—ANNE.

Keep long draperies off the floor while you clean by sewing a curtain tieback ring on the wrong side of the lower hem. Makeup Techniques Program

Every Woman an Artist in Illusion

The perfect oval is the ideal face shape, beauty experts say, but few women have it. Artful makeup techniques and hairstyling can be used, however, to make the face appear more like the ideal.

★ ★ ★

Many women across the country have learned these techniques this past year in a program prepared for local women's clubs by Avon Products, Inc.

★ ★ ★

After learning how to identify their face shapes as generally oblong, round, square, heart or diamond shaped, clubwomen are given advice on how the artist's touch in makeup and hairstyling can produce flattering visual effects that help camouflage problems.

★ ★ ★

To assist women in identifying their face shapes, clubs are provided with a translucent plastic chart showing six basic face types in life size. Each member is given the opportunity to "try on" the face shapes to find the one closest to her own.

★ ★ ★

Discussions, with diagrams, show women where to apply blushers on their cheeks so that their faces will appear to be closer to the attractive oval form.

CREATE ILLUSION

One of the more usual face types is the oblong shape. It is noted for its length, with forehead, cheekbones and jawline of about equal width.

★ ★ ★

To create the illusion of a more oval shape, the new program explains, blusher should be applied on the cheekbone beneath the center of each eye and winged out and up, beyond the outer eye corner. This also appears to broaden the facial area across the cheekbones.

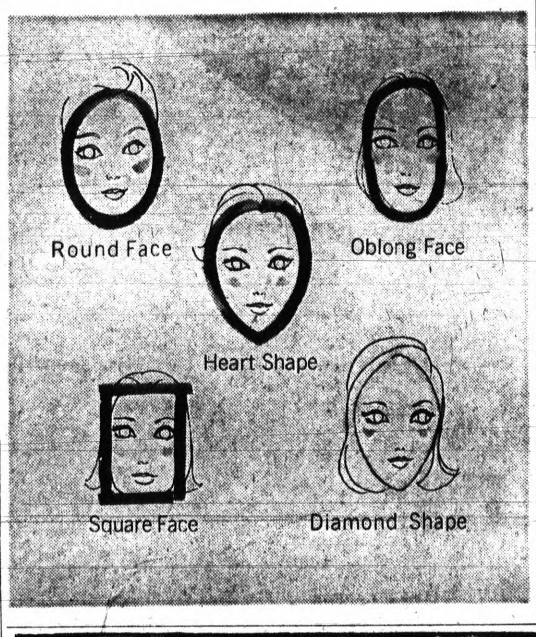

A hair style that has a side part and hair length ending at mid-cheek tends to shorten the long span of the oblong shaped face.

Similar analyses of the other face types, and suggestions as to how they may be made to appear more nearly oval, are explained in the new program, which is available free to local clubs through the Woman's Club Service Bureau, Dept. N (605 Third Avenue, N. Y., N. Y.).

★ ★ ★

A complete written commentary details the presentation of this information. Another unit in the program is a color and sound film that illustrates beauty routines and makeup techniques for busy women.

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Rumors from a very reliable source have reached this corner that Pontiac's long time dream of having an arena-auditorium complex is closer to reality.

If the rumors bear true that some announcement of this is due within a few days, it could be the most prolific venture to rejuvenate the city and its downtown ever undertaken in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Most notable story of what other cities have done to help themselves is the unbelievable success story of the city of Duluth, Minnesota.

A few years back, Duluth, similar in city size as that of Pontiac, but with a metropolitan area one-fifth of that of north Oakland County, was considered the most depressed area in all of the midwest.

Its downtown was dying and its overall economy was near tragic proportions.

APPROVE CONSTRUCTION

On Aug. 6, 1966, after three years of study, surveys of 150 similar structures in the country, Duluth inaugurated its magnificent facility.

★ ★ ★

One year later, Aug. 1967 these are the startling facts revealed by the Duluth Arena-Auditorium board:

1. There were 782 events held in the complex. This is an average of more than two a day.

2. Total attendance in the complex in the first year was 782,500 people, or almost eight times the metropolitan area of Duluth.

3. A total of 120,000 convention delegates spent an average of $35 per person per day and local expenditure amounted to $10 per person a day.

4. This meant that $7 million was spent through all segments in the city.

5. It also showed that payroll checks amounting to $272,000 in salaries were distributed and that $250,000 changed hands in purchases with local businesses.

6. In one year, $10 million in business building was begun in the area of arena and the projection called for $50 million in business construction within 10 years.

To go into detail on the structural part of the complex would take columns of words and adjectives, but to quote two famous personalities Bennet Cerf, "Duluth has joined the big leagues"; Paul Harvey, "Duluth has entered a new dimension in vitality."

NEW FLINT ARENA

In Michigan, the city of Flint has become the front-runner of cities in the state which have placed their faith in such complexes which are directed at the social, recreational, physical and educational needs of their citizens.

★ ★ ★

Newest additions in Flint include the twin-winged ice arenas and a franchise in the International Hockey League, and the addition of an astro-turf football field, one of only three in the country, which will be tested this fall.

Any announcement which may be forthcoming for Pontiac in the league of Michigan arena cities would be the most welcomed news in this city's annals.

8 Amateur Golfers in USGA Sectional

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Although the professionals were on hand to pick up the lion's share of honors, it was, nevertheless, a banner day for the amateurs in the opening phase of the USGA Open qualifying yesterday.

The pros plucked 16 of the 24 berths that were up for grabs in the 'local' qualifying round, and the 24 who made the grade will now move on to the 'sectional' phase of the competition June 3 at Knollwood Country Club in Birmingham.

FINAL STOP

Survivors from the sectional tournament then move to Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y., for the championship proper, June 13-16.

★ ★ ★

Heading the pack in yesterday's 36-hole grind over Forest Lake and Indianwood country clubs was former state amateur champion Melvin (Bud) Stevens, who carded an even par 72-71 — 143 to lead the field of 113 by three shots.

TAKES SECOND

Robert Clark of Monroe, a professional, grabbed the runner-up spot while the next three positions were taken by amateurs.

On the list at 147 were Jim St. Germain, a student at Eastern Michigan University, former amateur and Michigan Open champion Charles Kocsis of Red Run, and current Golf Association of Michigan champion Peter Green of Orchard Lake Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Rounding out the list of amateurs landing berths in the sectional were Tom Draper of Royal Oak, John U. Law of Birmingham and Tim Kilpelainen of Western Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Three pros bunched at 148 were Stan Brion of Tam O'Shanter, David M. Dunn of Holland, O., and Gene Bone of Bay Pointe Golf Club.

FOURTH MEDAL

For the 35-year-old Stevens, it was the fourth time he's bagged medalist honors in the 'Local' phase of the qualifying.

At the sectional, Stevens will be trying for his fourth trip to the U. S. Open. He made it in 1961, '65 and '66. He failed by a couple of shots in the 'local' qualifying last year.

Stevens' steady round included four birdies and a quartet of bogies. He matched par-72 over Indianwood's hilly 6,904 yards in the morning round and stayed at an even-par 71 over the 6,405-yard Forest Lake layout in the afternoon.

The cutoff came at 152 and seven players had to battle in a playoff for four spots.

WIN IN PLAYOFF

Picking up the berths with birdies on the first hole of the playoff were Dick Brooks of Orchard Lake, Richard Doyon of Fenton, Dick Bury of Birmingham and Kilpelainen, a junior at WMU.

Bone, former Michigan Open and PGA champ, had his tee-to-green game working but seven three-putt greens pushed him well off Stevens' pace.

SANDY PROBLEM — Melvin (Bud) Stevens of Livonia found a little trouble on this sixth hole at Forest Lake yesterday in the 'local' phase of the U.S. Open qualifying. Stevens blasted out, the ball scooting six feet past the pin, and his putt for a par-4 stopped six inches short. Despite this bogey, Stevens managed an even par round and went on to lead the qualifying field with a 143 total.

BOOTS BENGAL'S BOUNCER — Minnesota third sacker Rich Rollins (left) circles back to pick up ground ball he dropped off the bat of Detroit Tiger hitter Willie Horton in the fourth inning last night at Bloomington, Minn. The error prolonged a rally, enabling the Tigers to cut a 3-1 Twin lead to 3-2. Shortstop Cesar Tovar backs up Rollins. Two more errors in the 10th inning handed the Tigers a 4-3 triumph.

Twins' Errors Hand Bengals 4-3 Triumph

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Denny McLain has been emulating Cuban curveballer Camilo Pascual, and the sturdy Detroit right-hander says it's paying off for him.

★ ★ ★

McLain threw a three-run home run pitch to Minnesota's Dick Reese Monday night, but bided his time and let the Twins give him his sixth victory against one defeat, 4-3 in 10 innings.

Three of the Tigers' runs were unearned off loser Jim Merritt, and Detroit scored its winning run in the 10th without a base hit as the Twins committed their third and fourth errors.

WATCHES PASCUAL

"The biggest thing," said McLain, who leads the American League with six complete games, "is that I've been watching Camilo Pascual, who I think has the best curve I've ever seen.

★ ★ ★

"I was watching him Sunday, and he reaches way back to throw his curve. I've been short-arming my curve, bringing my arm up close to my shoulder instead of reaching way back. You might give a runner a little more chance that way, but that hitter still has to get a hit to score the run."

Pinpoint control also has returned for McLain. "Two years ago I had trouble with wildness and I had the same trouble last year. I couldn't get my curve over.

NO WALKS GIVEN

McLain didn't walk a man for the third time this season.

Twins' Manager Cal Ermer had two late-inning defensive replacements blow up in his face. But Ermer steadfastly defended his moves of inserting Jackie Hernandez at shortstop and Ron Clark at third base.

★ ★ ★

Hernandez' throwing error with two out in the 10th let Al Kaline reach second, then Clark let Bill Freehan's grounder get away from him to allow Kaline to score the winning run.

DEFENDS MOVES

"This is the first time this year they've beaten us." Ermer said of his defensive moves. "I know good and well the men I put in there are better defensively than the men I had in there for their hitting the first part of the game.

★ ★ ★

"I'd make that move again. I think you've got to make it in trying to protect a lead."

Central Announces New Cage Coaches

Principal Garth Errington Monday afternoon announced that 36-year-old Ralph Grubb and 32-year-old Earl McKee will be the PCH varsity and reserve coaches, respectively, next season.

Both will be familiar to the players and rate their respect. Grubb guided the PCH sophomore squads for seven seasons, and has led the jayvees to a 63-15 mark in the past five seasons.

★ ★ ★

Oddly, the junior varsity had a 14-1 mark in his first season at the helm and its win total has decreased by one each season at the helm and its win total has decreased by one each season, down to 11-5 this past winter.

EXPERIENCE

"We wanted someone who had had some years' experience coaching (not necessarily varsity) Class A basketball," Errington said of the search of the varsity coach.

Grubb has spent 13 years in the Pontiac school system since graduating from Eastern Michigan University in 1953 after lettering for three seasons in basketball.

RESERVE JOB

In all, about a dozen applicants were interviewed for the two jobs.

McKee, a familiar figure to followers of the city recreation basketball, softball and baseball leagues, has been the No. 1 coach at Jefferson Junior High School for four years, with a 31-9 cage mark.

★ ★ ★

At Central, the Western Michigan University graduate will join the physical edueation staff in addition to his basketball and assistant track coach duties.

On the PCH track staff he will replace Brian Castle who is becoming an elementary school principal.

Bruins Swap Krake, Scour Trade Market

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins are in the trade market while looking ahead to the National Hockey League player draft June 9 in Montreal.

"It's safe to say that we're looking to talk trade with anyone" Boston General Manager Milt Schmidt said Monday night after the Bruins sent Skip Krake to the Los Angeles Kings for a player to be named later.

Canham Requests Big 10 to Study Track Meet Film

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten Games Committee is planning a study of films of last Saturday's outdoor track meet with the possibility that Michigan—not Minnesota—will be declared the winner.

Minnesota compiled 50 points to edge Michigan, with 49 points, and Wisconsin, with 48.

ASKS FILM STUDY

However, Michigan Coach Don Canham has asked for a film study to determine if Minnesota's Rich Simonsen or Michigan's Sol Espie finished third in the 220-yard dash behind Minnesota's Hubie Bryant and Michigan's Leon Grundstein.

Simonsen was awarded third place but if there is a switch made giving Espie third place, Michigan will win the title with Minnesota second.

Commissioner Bill Reed was not available for comment but a Big Ten spokesman said still pictures from video tapes will be studied by the committee composed of coaches Bob Wright of Illinois and Dave Rankin of Purdue and a decision should be reached in a couple of weeks.

PAST CHANGES

If a switch is made because of the films, it will not be the first time. Last year Michigan picked up additional points because of film results and placed third ahead of Wisconsin.

Fans, Club Cheer Howard

WASHINGTON (AP)— Frank Howard's first game before the cheering hometown fans after his second homer binge wasn't one he's likely to long treasure — but he won't soon forget the treasury he took home afterward.

★ ★ ★

Before some 9,000 Washington Senator fans who gave him a lusty, minute-long ovation — wildly applauding his historic feat of 10 home runs in six games — Howard was hit by a pitch in the first inning. The next three times at bat, the mammoth slugger fanned.

But any disappointment the 6-foot-7, 270-pounder felt at his performance in the Senators' 6-1 shellacking by the New York Yankees was quickly erased when he reached the clubhouse at game's end.

★ ★ ★

Waiting for him with a new contract was Washington General Manager George Selkirk. Although its figures weren't announced, it was believed the pact raised Howard's pay to about $56,000 — or about $7,000 more than the one he signed last spring after a two-week holdout.

Anti-Turbine Speculation Mounts at '500' Race

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Speculation mounted today that a new concerted effort will be made soon to ban turbine-powered cars from the 500-mile Speedway auto race.

Pressure to that effect is being applied by a number of influential car owners to outlaw the controversial power plant in the Memorial Day classic on grounds it "doesn't belong" in racing.

SENTIMENT APPARENT

Antiturbine sentiment became apparent last year when Parnelli Jones nearly drove the first turbocar ever in the field into victory lane. Transmission trouble less than 10 miles from the finish wrecked that bid.

It was the only turbine machine in the race and it ran away from the field, leading 171 of the 200 laps and setting 17 records in the process.

★ ★ ★

This time at least three turbines are in the field — all identical machines from the Andy Granatelli team — and two of them emerged as the top qualifiers at record speeds last Saturday driven by Joey Leonard and former "500" winner Graham Hill.

★ ★ ★

Nine turbine cars were entered for the race but two have been wrecked.

Whether additional turbocars make the field in the final weekend of qualifications was uncertain.

O. Park, Franklin Score Late Wins

Some late-inning scoring enabled Oak Park and Livonia Franlin to record Northwest Suburban Association victories yesterday.

Oak Park pushed across three markers in the seventh and downed Birmingham Groves, 5-2, while Livonia Franklin picked up two in the bottom of the eighth to nip North Farmington, 6-5.

★ ★ ★

Jay Hazelroth's single brought home the lead run for North Farmington (4-5) in the top of the seventh, but three singles and a suicide squeeze play brought two runs and the victory for Franklin (5-3) in the last of the eighth.

Dave Ekelman tossed a three-hitter, striking out 11, and he drove in three runs to pace the Oak Park (4-5) attack.

Balanced Field in Press Prep Golf Tourney

Pontiac Press Photo

FALLEN CHAMPION — Waterford's Butch Fenlon, winner of the indoor Central Michigan University two-mile title earlier in the season, ran out of gas in the regional Saturday at Waterford and finished well back in the pack in that event. Winning the race was Douglas Latter of Grand Blanc in 9:49.1.

17th Annual Event Slated at PCC Friday

This year's edition of the Pontiac Press Invitational Golf Tournament shapes up as the most balanced in the history of the event.

The 17th annual running of the tourney is slated for Friday over 18 holes at Pontiac Country Club.

Bloomfield Hills Andover has dominated the tournament for the past seven years, but it appears the Barons do not have the balance this season to challenge the favorites.

TEAM CHOICES

★ ★ ★

WON TWICE

Walled Lake has won the title twice, the last time in 1963, and the Vikings fared better than Waterford in the regional play Friday. Walled Lake placed fourth and Waterford fifth.

★ ★ ★

Southfield has never won the event, but the Blue Jays served notice they'll have to be reckoned with when they won a Class A regional at Farmington Thursday.

The 25, four-man teams will start teeing off at 9:30 a.m. An awards banquet is slated at the club for 4 p.m.

Skippers Blank Milford Netters

In upping their mark to 3-11, the Skippers lost three games in only two of the ten sets played. Milford is 2-11.

Cougars Face Tornadoes in Home Contest

Half a dozen Cougars are sidelined by injuries, but Gus Moffatt, the 20-year-old Scottish forward who was the first player injured in early spring training, will be back in the lineup after recovering from a broken ankle.

Waterford Runs Over Kettering on Cinders

The losing Captains won eight events — including doubles by hurdler Bill Penoza and dashman Tim Donaldson—but the WTHS crew had sufficient depth to sweep three events.

The victory gives the Skippers a 650-100 lead in the All-Sports Trophy. WKHS' lone points among the 900 came in basketball. Waterford has won the trophy now 5 of 7 years.

The meet was highlighted by Gene Pankner's 56-6 heave in the shot put.

Southfield Blanks Kimball, Nears Crown in SEMA

Southfield's Blue Jays moved a step closer to the baseball championship in the Southeastern Michigan Association yesterday by blanking Royal Oak Kimball, 5-0.

The victory raised Southfield's loop mark to 9-3, leaving only Birmingham Seaholm standing in the way of a title for the Blue Jays. And they could remove that obstacle when the two tangle tomorrow.

In another SEMA game, Seaholm (8-5) downed Ferndale (6-6-1), 7-2.

Rocky Roe started Southfield on the way to victory in the first with a 400-foot home run. The Jays came up with four more in the fifth on a two-run single by Doug Digue, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly.

Seaholm opened with three runs in the first and closed with three in the seventh to stop Ferndale. George Metcalf paced the attack with three singles and five RBI.

Lakers Win in 11th; Clarkston Stumbles

Two of the winners Wayne-Oakland League baseball action yesterday traveled the come-from-behind route in bagging the decisions.

Down 2-1, league-leading Northville (11-2) came on to hand Clarkston (7-6) a 6-2 setback, and Bloomfield Andover (6-6) spotted Holly (6-7) an early 1-0 lead and battled back to claim a 2-1 verdict.

WINS IN 11th

In a more conventional manner, West Bloomfield's Lakers (5-8) picked up a run in the bottom of the 11th to hand Milford (7-6) its fourth loss in a row, 4-3.

★ ★ ★

RBI singles by Pat Cayley and Fred Holdsworth in the fourth enabled Northville to tie Clarkston at 2-2, and Barry Primeau put a little icing on the cake with a two-run single in the sixth.

A single, double and sacrifice fly produced the two runs in the first for Clarkston.

ERRORS DECISIVE

A throwing error enabled Mike Appleby to race home in the top of the seventh with the winning run for Andover. Appleby had singled and moved to second on one error and score on another. Mike Irving went the distance for Andover and posted seven strikeouts. He's allowed only two earned runs in 31⅔ innings.

Shrine Hands Detroit Foe 2-0 Setback

Royal Oak Shrine received a big boost in its bid for a berth in the Detroit Catholic League playoffs while defeating Holy Redeemer, 2-0, yesterday afternoon.

Jim Chiesa's two-hit hurling and 14 strikeouts stopped Holy Redeemer and boosted the Knights to 8-2 in the AA Section race, while Redford St. Mary upset Bishop Gallagher, 3-2, and dropped the losers to 7-2.

★ ★ ★

An error enabled Bob Szostkowski to score the game's first run for Shrine in the fifth inning.

In Sunday Catholic diamond action, Orchard Lake St. Mary gained its second Northwest triumph, 6-0, over Ferndale St. James as Tim Megge tossed a one-hitter and struck out 14. Don Bywalec cracked a two-run double for OLSM.

Birmingham Brother Rice raised its record to 9-6 by walloping Salesian, 11-0. Bob Wollenberg and Marv Dudek combined on a one-hitter. The Warriors are 4-3 in the Central Division circuit.

ANGELIC NIGHT FOR FREGOSI—Shortstop Jim Fregosi of the California Angels slides across the plate just before Boston catcher Elston Howard can make the tag in the third inning of their game last night at Anaheim. Fregosi tripled and came home on a sacrifice fly. He homered in the first, doubled in the eighth and plated the winning run with an 11th-inning single in the 5-4 contest.

Sectional Play Next Qualifying Stop

By The Associated Press

A couple of senior citizens from Kansas City, who qualified for the U.S. Open Golf championship long before Jack Nicklaus was born, are set to challenge the big Golden Bear in this year's National Open.

Chances are big Jack isn't too worried about the threat of Duke Gibson and Leonard Dodson — and they might not make it all the way to Rochester, N.Y. — but they're in there trying.

Gibson, 59, led the qualifiers on the par 70 Indian Hills course at Kansas City with two rounds of 72. Dodson, 56, also made it with a 148. Gibson first qualified for the Open 34 years ago, Dodson 35 years ago.

SECTIONALS NEXT

But they still must survive sectional qualifications June 3-4 before making it to Rochester's Oak Hills Country Club, where Nicklaus, 28, defends his Open title June 13-16.

★ ★ ★

About 2,500 golfers began competing for spots in the 150-man final field in regional qualifications Monday at 51 locations from Bolton, Mass., to Honolulu.

The final regional qualifications were held today at Los Angeles, Palmetto, Ga., Nashville, Tenn., New Jersey and in Westchester County, N.Y.

Survivors of the regionals move on to sectional tournaments for the final cut. The sectionals are scheduled June 3 at Denver, Colo. Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas and Seattle, Wash., and June 4 at Bakersfield, Calif., San Francisco, Washington, Indianapolis, Ind., Detroit, St. Louis, Montclair, N.J. and Pittsburgh.

OTHER OLDTIMERS

George Kinsman, 52, led the field at East Providence, R.I., taking a seven-over-par 147 over a rain-lashed, wind-whipped course. He competed in the Open in 1949 and 1950.

★ ★ ★

And at Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., Joe Lopez, 55, was second with a four-under-par 140. His son, Joe Lopez Jr., also qualified with a 144.

Bruce Fleisher, an amateur, led the group at Palm Beach Gardens, with a 138, six under par and one of the best rounds of the day.

Rivals Suffering More

Reds' Hitter Uneasy

By The Associated Press

Alex Johnson, given another chance to prove himself, still doesn't feel comfortable at the plate. But he is making believers of National League pitchers, who also are feeling uneasy when he is hitting.

"I don't feel natural at the plate for the long ball," moaned the 25-year-old Cincinnati outfielder. "I'm just blooping them.

WINNING HIT

Despite his troubles, Johnson managed a run-scoring single and later a game-winning double in the ninth inning Monday night, giving the Reds a 3-2 uphill victory over the Houston Astros.

★ ★ ★

Johnson's three hits raised his batting average to .333 and gave him 15 runs batted in as a bonafide regular for the first time in five major league tries.

JASTER WINS

Larry Jaster continued what he does best — beat Los Angles — by hurling St. Louis past the Dodgers 2-1 with a two-hitter. In the only other NL game, Felipe Alou singled in a ninth inning run, boosting Atlanta to a 6-5 triumph over San Francisco and into sole possession of second place.

Fregosi Completes Cycle, Ends Game

By The Associated Press

It isn't as if the Boston Red Sox didn't know any better; they can tell when a guy is on a hitting streak as well as anybody. It was just that they couldn't push the winning run across before Jim Fregosi got up to bat again.

Fregosi was murdering the Red Sox all night Monday — a homer in the first inning, a triple in the third, a double in the eighth — and when Rico Petrocelli's ninth-inning homer tied the score for Boston, the Sox desperately had to find a way to stop Fregosi.

INTENTIONAL PASS

In the bottom of the ninth, they came up with an acceptable method, giving him an intentional walk with two out and a man on second.

Neither team could score into the 11th and with two out and a runner at second again, the Sox took an awful chance. They pitched to Fregosi.

Moments later, the ball was bouncing off the left field wall, Fregosi had his cycle, the Angels had their 5-4 victory and the Red Sox had their lesson for the evening.

Fregosi scored three runs and drove in two as the Angels took a 3-0 lead that was shortened by solo homers from George Scott and Elston Howard. Petrocelli's shot came with two out in the ninth.

Orioles Nip Chicago; Yankees 6-1 Winners

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jim Hardin stopped the streaking Chicago White Sox 2-1 on six hits Monday night, riding to victory on a two-run Boog Powell homer that ended Baltimore's three-game losing streak.

Powell connected for his seventh homer of the season after Frank Robinson rapped a two-out single off loser Jack Fisher, 0-2, in the third inning.

The White Sox opened the scoring in the second when Ken Berry tripled with one out and came across on a suicide squeeze bunt by Jerry McNertney.

YANKS BEAT NATS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jim Bouton scattered eight hits for his first victory as a starter since 1966 as the New York Yankees defeated the Washington Senators 6-1 Monday night.

★ ★ ★

Bouton, 1-1, who had won only eight games since starring for the Yankees in the 1964 World Series, gave up Ed Stroud's first homer of the season in the first inning and then cut off the Senators. He also struck out Frank Howard, just off a home run spree, three times after hitting him with a pitch in the first inning.

Yankee Manager Ralph Houk was ejected in the sixth after protesting a double play hit into by the Yankees.

County's Paul Collis Stars in Tournament

Age caught up with Paul Collis of Pleasant Ridge last week in the Oakland County table tennis championships.

Collis, 61, had the senior men's singles championship in sight until he ran out of gas.

Competing in men's singles, one of the area's top players a few years back, started by ousting Robert Tunnell, who is half of the Michigan State Recreation championship doubles team. Next, he downed Howard Heckmen, then John Whettlaufer, but he dropped a 21-17, 21-17, 21-18 decision to defending champion Robert Quinn of Madison Heights in the finals.

DOUBLES FINALS

Moving to the senior men's doubles, Collis teamed with Robert Holmes of Royal Oak and made it to the finals only to lose a 21-18, 20-22, 21-12 verdict to Perc Secord and Vic Corpron.

Then came the senior men's singles. Collis advanced to the finals but he was exhausted after all the other activity and defaulted in the finale to Terry Fraser of Pontiac.

Committee to Draft Campaign-Cost Bill

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James Hare has appointed an 18-member nonpartisan committee to recommend legislation for reporting political campaign expenses.

Present laws are "meaningless and a monstrosity," he said.

★ ★ ★

"We should either have a good law or none at all," added Hare, chief state elections officer.

Bills aimed at tightening the laws died in the Legislature.

'NO WITCH HUNT'

Hare said he is not interested in a "witch-hunt" or "an investigation into past questioning practices."

Hare said increasingly enormous sums of money are needed to run for public office. These sums are not being accounted for, he said.

"We're all aware of the almost unlimited methods of fund-raising that don't violate the letter of the law, but they certainly bruise its spirit," Hare said.

He said he also is concerned about the voter-registration law. It requires citizens to vote every two years or be taken off the voter list.

He predicted this would result in a "substantial" decrease in the number of voters in the next presidential election.

Hare said he is afraid many citizens, particularly those in the core cities, are not aware of the new law.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Named to cochair the committee were Mrs. Pat McNamara, widow of the U. S. senator from Detroit, and Raymond Plank, Ludington television executive.

Other members of the committee are:

Elwood Bender of Muskegon Community College; Wayne County Circuit Court Judge George Bowles; D. Hale Brake, former state treasurer and Detroit attorney; Avern Cohn, Democratic party fund-raiser of Detroit; Tom Downs, Detroit attorney; the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan; Mrs. Margaret Foerch of the Michigan League of Women Voters; Douglas Fraser, United Auto Workers, Detroit;

★ ★ ★

Damage Soars in City Blazes

Fire damage in Pontiac in the first third of 1968 is more than triple that of the same period last year — largely due to several major building blazes.

Some $327,000 in damage has been caused by 491 fires this year, as compared to about $96,000 in damage in 229 fires through April 30, 1967.

The 161 building fires in 1968 include a $70,000 blaze April 8 at Herrington Hills Eementary School, a $35,000 fire in a commercial building at 695 Auburn Jan. 28 and a $13,000 fire in a grill at 49 N. Saginaw Jan. 30.

A second major increase is reflected in grass and brush fires, of which 221 have been extinguished in 1968 as opposed to 50 in the same period last year.

Two persons have died in fires this year, the same number as through April 30, 1967.

SENTENCE CHANGED — S. Edward Bloom, Chicago lawyer convicted of criminal contempt for allegedly filing a spurious will for probate, had his two-year prison term thrown out yesterday by the Illinois State Supreme Court.

'Suharto, 19 Bigwigs Unharmed'

Jakarta Reports Plot Is Foiled

JAKARTA (AP) — The Indonesian government foiled a plot two months ago to kill President Suharto and 19 of his generals and cabinet ministers and as they prayer at a mosque, officials at the presidential palace said Monday.

It was reported seven men had key roles in the abortive assassination attempt. All have been arrested and will be tried by a military court, military sources said.

Officials said the plot was inspired by the Communists but that some of these involved were still at large. Several alleged Communists serving in the army were arrested in Jakarta last week, but it was not known how many in all would be implicated in the plot.

The mass assassination was to have been sprung while Suharto and his top officials knelt at the mosque on the grounds of the president's Merdeka Palace during a Moslem festival March 9, the palace officials said.

HAND GRENADES

Officers said the plotters planned to hurl hand grenades into the small mosque while Suharto and his group were on their knees.

★ ★ ★

Security agents unearthed the plot several days before, officials said, and arrested an army captain and several other soldiers. Several newsmen were also reportedly picked up. News of the plot was withheld to aid the investigation.

It was the first reported attempt against the life of the 47-year-old former army general since he took the reins of power from President Sukarno early in 1966. Sukarno's ouster came after the collapse of a pro-Communist coup attempt and a nationwide massacre of Communist party members in retaliation for the favored position they held under Sukarno.

Sources said the 67-year-old former president is not believed to have had any part in the plot against his successor. Sukarno lives in his old summer palace in Bogor and is closely guarded.

★ ★ ★

Others reported marked for death in the plot included Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, chairman of Indonesia's Congress, and Suharto's close associate, and Foreign Minister Adam Malik, a longtime opponent of Sukarno and the Communists.

Also on the list were the air force and army commanders, the deputy army commander and the capital's military commander, sources added.

Ambulance Bill Vote Near

LANSING (UPI) — Counties would be able to contract with private ambulance services, according to a bill coming up for a final vote in the Senate.

The House-passed bill also would require ambulance drivers to pass the advanced Red Cross first aid course, be at least 21 years old, and obtain a special license costing $5 annually.

Policemen and firemen would be exempt from the requirements.

Ambulances would be licensed under the bill's provisions at a $25 fee and would have to have a rear-door opening, a flashing red light, a siren, oxygen equipment and first-aid equipment.

2,500 March, Protest Odor

KALAMAZOO (UPI) — Residents of this southwestern Michigan city are raising a stink over a pungent odor that hovers over the east side.

Some 2,500 marchers paraded two miles from their east side homes to the City Building Monday night. Spokesman met with the City Commission.

The commission unanimously endorsed a proposal, submitted by City Engineer Donald H. Swets, to clean up Lagoon No. 5 temporarily, and to have it covered entirely and cleaned up within three years.

LBJ Blasts Those Who 'Bad Mouth Our Country'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may have added a new phrase to the 1968 political lexicon: "Bad-mouthing our country."

He returned to Washington immediately after the speech.

Johnson didn't accuse anyone of "bad-mouthing" and didn't relate it directly to the presidential campaign. But the entire context of his speech made it evident he looks with something less than full approval on much of the campaign oratory.

FATAL SICKNESS

Talking to affluent patrons of the Arthritis Foundation, Johnson said: "I simply refuse to accept the diagnosis of fatal sickness in our society—and I refuse to follow those who say that."

He went on: "I refuse to accept the diagnosis of indifference in our society—and I say shame on you who point that out."

Once again, the "shame on you" remark seemingly was off the cuff.

The burden of the President's speech was that the nation can solve its problems and is not sick, indifferent or racist.

TEARING DOWN

But he repeatedly returned to the thought that some individuals, unnamed, are tearing down rather than building up the country.

America's problems, he said, "will not be solved if we give way to crippling dispair or to bad-mouthing our country all day long or all week long."

Johnson said the problems "will be solved by the impatience of the American people—but not by pessimism and the bad-mouthing of the American people."

Neither reference to "bad-mouthing' was in his prepared text.

Espousing the politics of joy and happiness, Humphrey has suggested equal time be given to those who discuss the good things about the country in contrast to those who find fault.

Johnson acknowledged the United States has its faults, and added in another extemporaneous statement that these are faults "of which we are constantly reminded."

More specifically, he cited problems of poverty, racism, ignorance and illness which "still plague us."

But he cited his administration's record in health, education and civil rights to argue "we are on the move" and that only despair, pessism and "bad-mouthing" can delay their solution.

Among those who greeted the President at the dinner were Edwin L. Weisl, New York's Democratic national committeeman and long-time Johnson friend, and investment banker Sidney J. Weinberg, prominent financial backer of Humphrey.

Johnson said he attended the banquet only after receiving iron-clad assurances no candidates would be present and that there would be no partisan speeches.

★ ★ ★

Declaring he was very relaxed and happy, the President said: "It's a wonderful feeling being able to count the days instead of the votes."

2 Colleges Offer 'Panic-Clinics' for Exam Week

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — At least two California state colleges will operate "panic clincs" to help students cope with the emotional pressures of final examination week starting May 31.

"If we can prevent one attempted suicide, the entire project will be worth the effort," said Dr. Suzanne A. Snivley of the Sacramento State College health clinic.

★ ★ ★

The college will provide special therapy with faculty, doctors and other students. A similar program is planned at San Fernando State College.

"This is an experiment designed to help our students meet their emotional pressures at a time when they are most fatigued and upset after a busy year at school," Dr. Snivley said.

By OSWALD And JAMES JACOBY

North's jump from one to three no-trump is the correct response in any standard American system. With eight points in high cards and a six card minor suit, North wants to be in game but does not have the potential to try for the 11 tricks necessary to make a minor suit game.

JACOBY

There is no reason to shilly-shally and he jumps to three no-trump. No guaranty of success goes with this bid but if you wait for guaranteed games you will be a losing player. Winning players push for games.

The game contract is a lay down for experts. But a lot of average players would fail to make it.

South must win the first spade in his own hand to retain the king of spades in dummy as an eventual entry for the diamond suit.

At trick two, South must lead the queen of diamonds. If he leads the 10, West will rise with his king and dummy's diamonds will never come home.

★ ★ ★

If he returns a low diamond to his 10 in an effort to collect six diamond tricks, he will go right out of business. West's nine will still stop the suit and South will make only three diamond tricks.

South's correct play is to lead dummy's jack of diamonds. This will cost him a trick in case diamonds were 3-2 or 4-1 with the nine spot guarded, but the loss will not be important. South can count on two tricks in each major suit. Thus, he only needs five diamond tricks for his game and should play in such manner as to insure making them.

Emergencies—Part of Ambulance Routine

Pontiac Press Photos

THE LATEST—This 1968 General Motors Ambulance is the pride of General Ambulance Service and cost $18,000 fully equipped. Showing the new vehicle is driver John Steinbach, of 218 Vernon. Paying for the ambulance is only part of the cost as the insurance rate is about $1,000 per year. An average one lasts about four years. This one is stationed and dispatched from the Riker Building in downtown Pontiac at Huron and Wayne.

Disfigurements and Death Commonplace to Drivers

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Following are interviews with two ambulance drivers from Pontiac. Though they work for two different companies, their viewpoints are basically the same. Their trade, it would appear, is exciting and demanding, with more than a share of danger.)

"It gets rough. You have to be devoted," is how one ambulance driver in Pontiac described his job.

And John Steinbach of General Ambulance Service, 57 Wayne, is apparently the "devoted" type. Steinbach, 29, of 218 Vernon, has been in the business, off and on, since he was 16.

STEINBACH

Seeing dead bodies is not so bad, he says. "You get sort of hardened to it." A large part of ambulance duty is transporting dead bodies, he explained.

But the rough part is the children and seeing them mutilated in auto crashes or fires. "I'll never get used to that," Steinbach said. He has a 1½-year-old son.

But there's also a lot of personal satisfaction in the job, he said. "I remember I pulled a guy out of a burning car once, he wouldn't have been alive today . . . Another time I ran into a burning building, picked up a kid and ran out."

ALREADY ON SCENE

But most of the time the police and firemen are already on the scene when the ambulance arrives and the heroics are all over, Steinbach said.

★ ★ ★

"I find myself going faster when I have a hurt child aboard," he said.

Among the drawbacks to ambulance driving is the hours — 24 hours on and 24 off — Steinbach said.

★ ★ ★

He admits he once gave it up to work at a local automobile plant. "But I came back. I enjoy it," he said.

Steinbach said he is planning to add to his training by taking scuba-diving training. Divers are often used in recovering bodies of accident victims.

The ambulance driver of the near future will be piloting a helicopter, predicts Dick Rudloff, ambulance driver for Fleet Ambulance, 79 E. Huron.

RUDLOFF

Rudloff, 23, of 140 E. Howard said plans are already being made for heliports at area hospitals and emergency cases will be carried by air from accident scenes more often in coming years.

Rudloff explains he is a cousin of the two brothers who own and operate Fleet, Dan and Floyd Miles. "It's sort of a family business," he said. "I sort of grew up in it, starting when I was 16."

★ ★ ★

Like most experienced ambulance drivers, Rudloff has seen his share of horrible disfigurements and death. The most severe case he recalls involved two trucks which collided head-on.

"It was about a year ago at Telegraph and Hickory Grove," he said. "It was a gravel truck and a semi. One of the drivers must have gone asleep and crossed the center line. He must have had his arm out the window because when we tried to put the pieces back together it was missing. We had to go back and find it."

'AN OLD HAND'

Rudloff is an old hand at delivering babies and said, "It's simple." He's delivered over 10, he figures. He said first-aid training is important, however, not only in the case of babies but for all emergencies.

Rudloff has taken several medical courses including a four-day session given in Chicago by the American College of Surgeons.

He said Fleet tries to obtain as much training as possible for its drivers.

With two children of his own, Rudloff, like most drivers, is most appalled by the number of children in accidents. "I try to be careful driving, but when there's a kid on board, I drive fast," he said.

ROOMY INTERIOR — Displaying some of the medical equipment contained in modern ambulances is Michael Lipinsky, driver for General Ambulance. This vehicle has room for four stretchers and as many as eight persons.

By ED BLUNDEN

Kyle Roberts, manager of General Ambulance Service in Pontiac must sort of wince every time one heads out from the garage in the Riker Building. He realizes the ambulances cost $18,000 fully equipped. The yearly insurance on one is $1,000.

Roberts says his firm is the largest in the Pontiac area with franchises from several local cities and townships. He employs 46 persons and has 21 ambulances stationed in the area.

★ ★ ★

His newest ambulance, a General Motors model, can carry eight persons. This new model has all the latest innovations. For instance a color code flasher on the instrument panel operates from the rear of the ambulance. The attendant can flash if a patient's condition suddenly turns more critical.

All the ambulances carry a wide range of equipment such as oxygen, inhalators and resuscitators.

General Ambulance carries out an average of 35 calls a day. Charges are $25 for transfers, $30 for emergencies and $7 is added by municipal agencies if they place a call.

★ ★ ★

However, collecting the fees has become a major problem in the ambulance service business, mostly due to government regulations and complicated forms. Virginia Deeg, treasurer and vice president of General Ambulance, demonstrated this by displaying a drawer full of unpaid bills.

It's not that all those people are deadbeats, Miss Deeg explained, but there are some aspects of payment most people don't realize, she said.

★ ★ ★

Miss Deeg pointed out the following:

- Most insurance companies do NOT pay ambulance fees.
- People on Medicaid and Medicare have to pay a percentage of the fees.
- Medicaid and Medicare patients must give the ambulance firm their number and sign the appropriate form.
- Welfare recipients must supply their number so that the firm can file the form and get its fee.

McCarthy Debates, but Wrong Kennedy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, who has been pressing for a presidential campaign debate with rival Robert F. Kennedy, has come within one brother of his target. He matched words with a Kennedy, but the wrong Kennedy.

The Minnesota Democrat headed his campaign back into Oregon today after his inconclusive encounter with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, a stand-in for Robert at a San Francisco labor dinner.

★ ★ ★

The printed program for the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education fund-raising dinner listed Robert Kennedy as the man who would share the platform with McCarthy. And McCarthy himself originally accepted the invitation with the idea he would be face to face with Kennedy.

It didn't work out that way.

'CAME PREPARED'

"I came prepared to offer the vice presidency to Sen. Kennedy," McCarthy told more than 400 people at the dinner Monday night—"of Massachusetts."

McCarthy and Kennedy of New York meet June 4 in California's crucial, final presidential primary.

But their next encounter is due May 28 in Oregon. Campaigning for that one, McCarthy planned to hunt votes today in Klamath Falls, Coos Bay and Corvallis.

In San Francisco, he told the union men that he had long supported their cause in Congress, and that he was challenging President Johnson when no one else was in the field. McCarthy said when talk of his presidential candidacy began he was asked for the use of his name. "Some said it isn't worth very much, we know that, but its the only one around.' "

★ ★ ★

"I have felt that I had to be prepared to take some chance with my political future because I though the future of America was involved," McCarthy said. "And so I call on you to take some chances with your own futures in the name of and in the interest of the future of America."

★ ★ ★

National leaders of organized labor are backing the presidential campaign of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

★ ★ ★

"Is it a time for complacency?" he asked. "Is it a time for joy? Is it a time for the status quo? In the history of this country the call for complacency has never moved labor."

'RIGHTEOUS CAUSE'

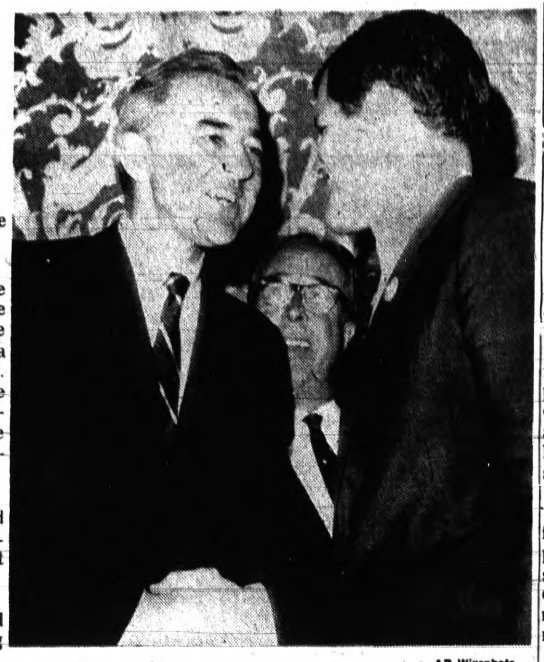

Kennedy said he is confident union men will recognize the righteousness of Robert Kennedy's cause. "we shall continue to look for the encouragement and support of the union man."

The Kennedy forces issued a six-page dossier of correspondence to explain why their candidate was not there. He was campaigning in southern California.

Robert Kennedy wired organizers of the dinner that he had never accepted the invitation to speak there and regretted that "confusion apparently has developed as to which Sen. Kennedy will be present."

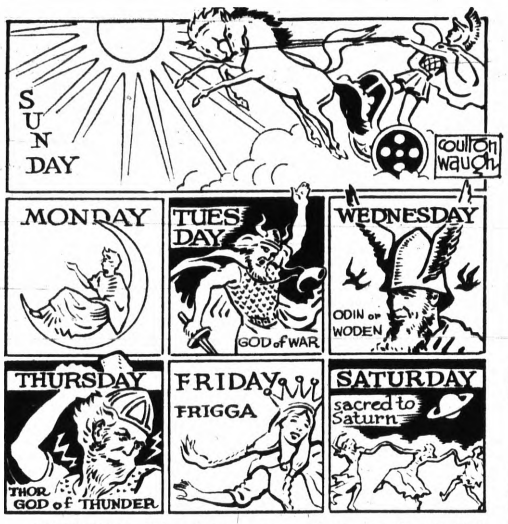

He said other commitments kept him from attending.

Junior Editors Quiz on DAYS OF WEEK

QUESTION: How did the days of the week get their names?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The days got their names because in ancient pagan times each day was sacred to some particular god or goddess.

Sunday, first day of the week, meant "the day of the sun" for the old Teutonic peoples. To the Romans, Apollo was the god of the sun. Our picture shows him galloping across the heavens in his golden chariot.

The Anglo-Saxon word "monandaeg" meant goddess of the moon; from this, Monday got its name, Tuesday was Tyr's day, Tyr being the god of war in ancient Norway.

Wednesday was sacred to Odin or Wodin, ruler over mythical Valhalla. His two ravens flew around the world every day and brought him the news. Odin's famous son, Thor, god of thunder and lightning, gave his name to Thor's day or Thursday. Frigg, Odin's wife, gave us Frigg's day or Friday; she was considered so wise she knew everything.

Saturday, last day of the week, comes from the Roman god Saturn, god of the harvest. The Romans had a gay festival in honor of Saturn called a Saturnalia. It lasted seven days, beginning Dec. 17.

Earl Spins a Wondrous Yarn About a New York Pigeon

By EARL WILSON

About 3 months ago, pretty Rica Dialina, a former Miss Greece, was feeding a pigeon which had flown to her hotel window in W. 57th St.

WILSON

"There went my good luck!" moaned Rica. Hoping to recover the charm, Rica caught the pigeon, caged it and kept it with her. She named it "Walter."

"Walter Pigeon," she explained logically. Rica got Walter X-rayed.

"The blue-eye is still in Walter Pigeon," the report said.

Last week, while Rica was still waiting for Walter to surrender the charm, she let him out on the lawn of her husband's country home at St. James, L.I., on a loose string.

Through a community paper Rica offered a $100 reward which due to a typographical error came out $1,000.

"Maybe he's a homing pigeon—and flew to NY," somebody said.

Rica phoned to insert an ad in N.Y. An ad-taker, skeptical about the big reward, advised her to inquire of police and the ASPCA.

Mary Boylan, a writer of W. 58th St., had phoned in an ad a day earlier about finding a pigeon with a name tag "Walter" which she assumed was a pet.

"That's my Walter!" crowed (oops!) Rica. Miss Boylan, a co-auther of the off Broadway show, "Curley McDimple," who feeds pigeons, had met Walter in her window—just a few blocks from where Rica'd met him.

Education's Link to Politics Cited

NEW YORK (AP) — McGeorge Bundy, president of the Ford Foundation, says a "marriage" of politics and education has made it necessary for educators to deal with politicans from the local to the federal level.

Speaking at the 80th anniversary dinner of Columbia University's Teachers College, Bundy said Monday night the new relationship of politics and education "is a factor of such depth and meaning, so quietly achieved and so imperfectly understood that it constitutes a quiet revolution."

2nd-on-Ticket Talk Is Rankling Reagan

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — California Gov. Ronald Reagan has given congressional Republicans the clear impression he is highly irked at being tagged as a possible vice presidential nominee.

Some senators and House members who joined him at a private luncheon Monday at the Capitol reported he talked most about why he isn't—and not likely ever to be—available for second place on the GOP ticket.

★ ★ ★

He was said to have minced few words in discussing his displeasure at New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's frequent observations that it would be nice to have Reagan as second man on a ticket with him.

The informal conclusion expressed by those Republicans was that Reagan is sighting broader horizons than the favorite-son role he has carved out for himself in California.

CONCLUSION SAME

It's doubtful that conclusion was weakened by Reagan's Monday night appearance before a Fort Lauderdale, Fla., audience. When a man asked the governor if he would seek the presidency, Reagan replied:

"No, I don't think any useful purpose would be served by saying so. But when the convention opens in Miami Beach next August I will be nominated as a favorite son and very briefly will be a candidate.

PRESIDENCY FIRST

He earlier told a Washington news conference he would rather finish his job as governor than retire to the relative seclusion of the vice presidency.

But asked if he would be willing to give up his job for the White House, he grinned and replied: "I'm not going to put the governorship of California above the presidency of the United States."

Traveling with the kind of entourage usually associated only with announced presidential candidates, Reagan explained he was only going about raising money for Republican congressional campaign chests.

In these and similar tours, he said, he had found Republicans generally "keeping their options open" and waiting for the convention to decide on their nominee. With California's 86 convention votes tucked under his arm and scattered support elsewhere, the governor obviously was hoping this situation would endure.

He said he didn't find it at all surprising, however, that a California poll indicated 56 per cent of the Republicans in his own state preferred former Vice President Richard M. Nixon as their nominee. Reagan got eight per cent backing in the same poll and Rockefeller 32 per cent.

KEEP LOOSE

What he has been telling his own delegate candidates, he said, is to keep loose so they can have a hand in picking the nominee most likely to win in November.

If that should just happen to be Ronald Reagan, none of those who heard him thought there would be any reluctance on his part to carry the GOP banner.

Ex-Defense Aides Getting Big Salaries

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ex-officials of the defense establishment are pulling down salaries of as much as $90,000 a year in research firms almost entirely supported by defense contracts, according to congressional testimony.

Many of the well-paid researchers, including Gen. Maxwell Taylor, are military officers also drawing retirement pay, according to testimony presented the Senate Foreign Relations Committee May 9 and released yesterday.

The salary scales were disclosed in the committee's investigation of so-called government "think tanks" — private research corporations created to satisfy the Defense Department's desire for independent studies of complex problems involving U.S. security.

Dr. John S. Foster Jr., the Pentagon's research and engineering director, testified that the best-paid research executive was the president of the Aerospace Corp., Dr. I. A. Getting, former Air Force planning and development chief, who earns $90,000 a year — $10,000 less then the President of the United States.

Improves After Hesitation

Stock Mart Shows Firmer Tone

Trading was fairly active. The volume total was boosted by a series of unusually large blocks in assorted issues.

While caution reigned over Wall Street, analysts said that the list had technical reasons for advancing after a series of declines. The business background was generally good, they added, even though there was no fresh impulse in the way of news.

In fact the turmoil in France and continued rise in the price of gold bullion were disconcerting influences, but, for the moment, the street was learning to live with them.

AVERAGE UP

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .6 at 328.5, with industrials off .7, rails up 1.5, and utilities up .4.

Due to weakness in some of its blue chip components, the Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 1.04 at 893.15.

Broader-based indicators showed gains, and the number of advances outstripped declines by 160 or so issues on the New York Stock Exchange.

★ ★ ★

Apollo Crew Ready for Escape Testing

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The first thing astronauts Walter Schirra, Donn Eisele and Walter Cunningham will do when they get in their new Apollo 7 spaceship at the moon port next month will be to see how fast they can get out.

A rehearsal of emergency escape procedures is the first order of business for the spacemen after their capsule has been readied for the manned portion of the ground testing leading up to launch in September.

They were trapped by a slow-operating hatch that swung the wrong way, and they were overcome before rescue workers could reach them.

QUICK-OPENING

The Apollo 7 capsule is equipped with a quick-opening hatch. Many of its systems have been improved and strengthened, the cabin interior has been virtually fireproofed, and the cabin atmosphere during ground tests and launch will be a mixture of oxygen and nitrogen instead of pure oxygen which fed the Apollo 1 holocaust.

★ ★ ★

Moon-port test procedures also have been improved. Spacecraft test conductor C. A. Chauvin, who held a similar position for Apollo 1, said in an interview that the entire test program has been examined and revised to eliminate all unnecessary hazards and to plan for a great variety of potential emergencies.

★ ★ ★

"The planning involved (for Apollo 1) was not nearly what we have now," he said. "We're going down to minute details now."

★ ★ ★

The Apollo 7 spacecraft and crew will go through the same launch pad test that ended in disaster for Grissom, White and Chaffee Jan. 27, 1967. But there will be one big difference — the Apollo 7 hatch will be open with the cabin filled with ordinary air.

SAFER AIR

By that time, however, Schirra and crew will have tested their spacecraft in a giant vacuum chamber. The pilots will be wearing spacesuits pressurized with oxygen and the hatch will be closed, but the cabin will be filled with the safer nitrogen-oxygen mixture.

The Apollo 1 astronauts passed a similar test in their capsule using a pure oxygen atmosphere under pressure — conditions identical to those that led to the fatal launch pad fire.

Second, Third, Fourth and so on.

There are all kinds of reasons why Chevelle is the most popular car in its field.

It gives you the mid-size field's greatest choice of engine-transmission combinations. That includes six V8's ranging up to a 350-hp Turbo-Jet available in the SS 396 above. It also gives you the kind of ride you'd expect only in the more expensive cars . . . with Full Coil suspension and a separate frame with advanced body mounting system. And Chevelle comes on with all sorts of credentials. For instance in the recent NASCAR-sanctioned Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, a Chevelle won the Sports Intermediate Class, scoring the highest number of total points in the braking, economy and acceleration tests.

So what else can Chevelle do for you? How about giving you the widest choice of personalizing features in its field? And something else that contributes to its popularity: prices that start a full $100 lower than competitive models.

At Rochester High School

Senior Art Show Is Tonight

By KARIN HEADLEE

Van Gogh, Rembrandt or Picasso undoubtedly would be proud to claim the works of art displayed in the hallways of Rochester High School this evening. The annual Art Show, from 7 to 9 p.m., features the works created by seniors during the last three years, a novelty shop, industrial art work, ceramics (figures and pottery) and a gymnastics show.

From the displayed work of the seniors, a jury of art teachers from the elementary and junior highs will choose the best portfolio. Drawings and other art pieces will be exhibited from the classes of Mrs. Wilson Cohoe, Walter Ewald, Mrs. Neil Montgomery and Suellen Sass.

GERMAN AWARD

John Quitmeyer, a German IV student at RHS, won first place in the Michigan division of the National German Contest for high school students. John and Mrs. Elfi Werzer attended a dinner at the University of Michigan, where John received his award from the German consul.

The annual government convention will be held this Thursday in the auditorium. As is customary, the party out of office, the Republican party, will hold its convention from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Barry Goldwater, Claude Kirk, William Scranton, Margaret Chase Smith, Winthrop Rockefeller, Strom Thurmond, John Tower, John Chafee, James Rhodes, and Everett Dirksen will run as favorite-son candidates.

CONVENTION HEADS

Committee chairman for the convention are Larry McLean, permanent organization; Judy Hill, Credentials; Cindy Shaver, rules; and Paul Wisniewski, platform.

Planks involving 18-year old voting, the draft, Vietnam, foreign aid, the United States and China, law enforcement, civil rights, welfare programs and monetary policies are being drawn up.

Senior Exams Near at Central

By KATHY McCLURE

Senior exams will be held at Pontiac Central High tomorrow and Thursday.

Students will be hitting the books hard tonight as in some cases the exam grade will determine whether or not a student will graduate.

★ ★ ★

Most seniors were speechless when asked what they thought of exams.

COUNTING THE DAYS

Last week sighs of relief or groans of anguish were heard as seniors either handed in their term papers or counted the days until they were due.

The next few weeks will be busy ones for seniors, with Senior Day, a Bob-Lo trip, Senior Skip Day, the Senior Prom, baccalaureate services and graduation.

"A Night on the Town," the junior prom, will be held at the Metropolitan Club on May 24.

Tickets are on sale in the teachers' work room. The prom will be from 9 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

WORKING ON DECORATIONS

Students have been working on decorations for about three weeks.

New members were inducted into Central's Varsity Club last Friday.

★ ★ ★

During the week prior to induction, pledges wore placards proclaiming "Varsity Club Pledge," made paddles, and followed several other traditional initiation rules.

New members include Steve Cuthrell, Bruce Markham, Joe McMillen and Dave Rogers.

Teacher Feted at Country Day

By SHARON BERRIDGE

Bloomfield Country Day School helped John Popplestone (Mr. Pop) celebrate his "39th" birthday Friday. Mary Ann Bricker and Nancy Russ as a ruse took him him out for lunch.

When he returned for his last class the multipurpose room was decorated, and many of his former pupils waiting, as was his wife.

This is Mr. Pop's last year. He has watched the school grow since 1956, when he and one other teacher comprised the faculty.

Born in London, England, Mr. Pop received his formal education in England. He was in the Canadian Air Force during both World Wars.

GRANDDAUGHTER

He married his wife in Canada, and has a son and granddaughter who live in Ohio.

Mr. Pop teaches geometry, Spanish and French. Famous pupils he has tutored include "Bud" Guest, and "Bunkie" Knudsen.

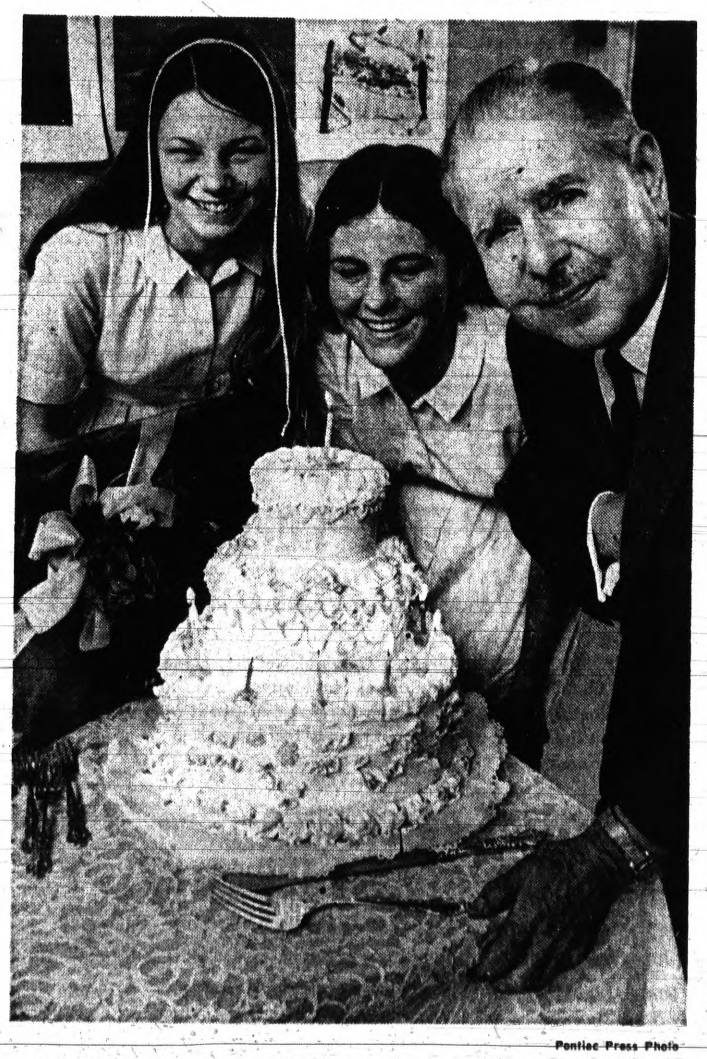

★ ★ ★

Physicist Explains Uneven Atom Split

By Science Service

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — For almost 30 years, physicists have been watching atoms split without understanding why they don't split into equal parts. In fact, most scientists have simply ignored the fact.

★ ★ ★

The simple theory they have been using says the nucleus should divide in two equal parts, and they behave as if that were the case, even when they know it isn't.

The gap in theory has not kept them from using fission to produce bombs and power stations and to provide the stuff for thousands of experiments. But it has stuck in their theoretical craws.

A University of Maryland physicist, Dr. James J. Griffin, has now come up with an explanation. Building on the old theory, called the liquid drop model because it pictures a splitting atom like a pinched water drop — or balloon — he adds features that predict and explain the unequal split when heavy atoms, such as uranium, undergo fission.

★ ★ ★

The more detailed theory also explains why lighter atoms, when they undergo fission — almost any nucleus can be split if it is hit hard enough — do divide into equal parts, according to the simple model.

UNIFORM MASS

The liquid-drop model treats the nucleus as a uniform mass with a uniformly distributed charge. When the drop begins to divide, it forms a dumbbell shape: two blobs held together by surface tension and pushed apart by the electric charge.

When the neck of the dumbbell becomes narrow enough, the surface attraction is less than electric repulsion, and the drop, or nucleus, separates.

This description is adequate for the early stages of fission, says Dr. Griffin. But at the instant of splitting, the fact that the nucleus is made up of particles — protons and neutrons rather than an even, lumpless mass — becomes important.

★ ★ ★

It is the particle nature of nucleus that causes heavier atoms to split into unequal fragments, and lighter ones to split evenly.

WAVE MOTION

One cornerstone of modern physics is the assumption that all matter has a wave motion within it, insignificant in human-sized objects but important at the subatomic level.

Working with the wave motion of nuclear particles, Dr. Griffin concludes that they can be divided into two types. He calls these n-plus and n-minus.

What distinguishes the two types, he believes, is that the wave motion of the n-minus nuclear particl es never takes them through the center of the nuclear particles never takes fission takes place. The n-plus particles, on the other hand, do pass through the center.

★ ★ ★

At the moment of fission, according to the new theory, there are in the heavy atoms more n-plus than n-minus particles.

IN THE CENTER

Because the n-plus particles are concentrated in the center, the dumbbell-shape of the splitting nucleus means there is great pressure to send the surplus n-plus particles to one side or the other.

This means that when the nucleus splits, the surplus n-plus particles will be concentrated in one fragment, which will be heavier than the other.

Dr. Griffin says the surplus n-plus particles all go together in a single fragment because that takes less energy than to send half one way and half the other.

★ ★ ★

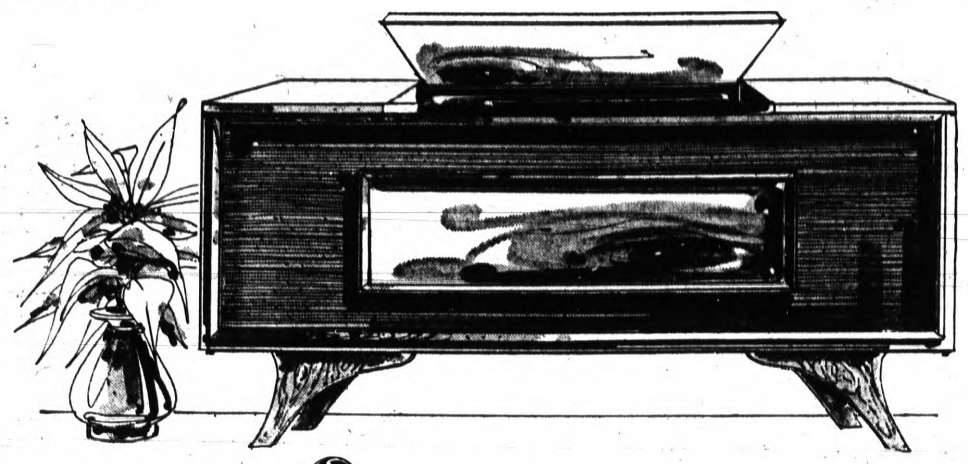

In the lighter elements, on the other hand, the number of n-plus and n-minus nucleons at the moment of fission is practically equal. With no surplus, the tendency is for half the nuclear particles to go into each fragment.

Close Vote on Crime Bill Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A close Senate vote is expected on proposals to strip the Supreme Court of authority to invalidate confessions and restrict use of police lineups.

Gen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., scheduled to lead the attack against the proposals today, contends they represent "the most serious assault on the Supreme Court and the independence of the judiciary" in the nation's history.

★ ★ ★

But Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C., urging their enactment, told the Senate Monday the Supreme Court has invented new, arbitrary and unrealistic rules that impede police in bringing criminals to justice.

The proposals are part of a broad crime-control bill which has been before the Senate for three weeks.

MAY BE ADMISSIBLE

They provide that a confession be admissible as evidence in any federal criminal case when the judge decides it was voluntarily given.

A confession could not be ruled out just because of delay in arraignment after a suspect's arrest. Nor could it be invalidated because a suspect had not been advised by police of his right to remain silent or not advised to get a lawyer before questioning.

★ ★ ★

'SOME BALANCE'

The American Bar Association's board of governors said it also opposes the proposals.

But Sen. Herman G. Talmadge, D-Ga., said their approval would "restore some balance to our system of justice—a system which has become far too weighted in favor of the criminal."

Under the proposals, federal courts would be denied authority to reverse a ruling of any state court admitting a confession in evidence as voluntarily given if this had been upheld by the highest court in the state.

Also, the bill provides that eyewitness testimony shall be admissible in evidence in federal and state criminal trials and bars the federal courts from reviewing the admission of such testimony in state trials.

This is designed to overcome a Supreme Court ruling last year barring in-court identification of a defendant by an eyewitness to a crie if the original identification was made in a police lineup without a lawyer for the suspect being present.

JURISDICTION DISPUTE

Another provision would deny federal courts jurisdiction in habeas corpus actions challenging the legality of the detention of persons convicted in state courts.

Ervin said this was designed to relieve overburdened federal courts from the growing practice of convicted persons using habeas corpus procedures as a substitute for direct appeal.

★ ★ ★

But Tydings said it was unthinkable "to suspend the great writ of habeas corpus." He said if it could be done for one class of citizens, it could be done for others.

Reds Score Gains in Italian Elections

ROME (AP) — The Christian Democrat and Communist parties scored major gains in Italy's elecionts for a new Parliament. Final returns today gave the Communists their biggest vote in postwar history.

The Roman Catholic Christian Democrats and their enemies, the Communists, improved their positions in both the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate. The chief losers was the Socialists, which had hoped to recover from the defection of its leftist elements. Instead they came out a poor third in the multiparty race.

★ ★ ★

The coalition comprises the Christian Democrats, the small Republican party and the Socialists. The first two gained more seats than the Socialists lost.

32 MILLION VOTE

Nearly 32 million persons voted in the election for 315 senators and 630 deputies. They will take their seats in a new Parliament June 5.

The fascists and the Monarchists also lost ground.

Finals results gave the three coalition parties 366 seats in the Chamber and 183 in the Senate compared with 361 and 179 in the previous Parliament. This gave the coalition a 102-seat majority in the Chamber and a 51-seat majority in the Senate.

The astonishing Communist vote totalled 8,555,131 in the Chamber balloting, compared with 12,428,663 for the dominant Christian Democrats. The Christian Democrats percentage of the total was 39.1, compared to 38.5 per cent in the last elections in 1963.

HIGHEST VOTE YET

The Communist vote, 26.9 per cent of the total, was 1.6 per cent higher than it had ever polled before.

The Red performance soundly contradicted forecasts that the Vietnam peace talks in Paris, the upheaval in Czechoslovakia and unrest in neighboring France would weaken the party at the polls.

★ ★ ★

In the Senate the Communists ran on the same ticket with the Moscow-oriented Proletarian Socialist party and together they captured 30 per cent of the vote. The Proletarian Socialists were leftist defectors from the traditional Socialist party and the principle cause of the latter's losses.

House Turns to Question of Longer Terms

LANSING (AP)—House members had before them today a proposal to lengthen their terms of office from two years to four, an issue that touched off a partisan battle in the chamber Monday.

Defeated, however, was another proposed constitutional amendment — one outlawing Michigan State University's sliding-scale tuition system.

Sent to the governor were bills to repeal the state's Criminal Sexual Psychopath Law, requiring windshields on most motor vehicles, add 10 cents to the price of a fishing license and permit legislators to run for other offices during their terms.

Few representatives oppose giving themselves four-year terms, but politically they disagree on whether they should run in presidential election years, or in off-years with the governor and the Senate. Senators now have four-year terms.

In the past two elections, admitted Rep. James Farnsworth, R-Plainwell, "It just happens that the Republicans did much better when they ran with the governor (in 1966) than when they ran with the president (in 1964). Now it's just that simple."

A Republican-sponsored proposal for running in off-years failed 25-62, drawing only one Democratic vote. Final action then was put off.

Saginaw Man Convicted of First-Degree Murder

DETROIT (AP) — A 23-year-old man accused of slaying four persons was convicted of first-degree murder Monday in the death of a Saginaw couple.

A jury of 10 men and two women found William Eddington Jr. of Saginaw guilty in the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Middledorf Feb. 3, 1967.

The jury deliberated more than four hours before delivering its verdict. Circuit Judge Fred J. Borchard set the date for sentencing as May 31. The trial was moved to Detroit on a change of venue due to extensive publicity of the case in Saginaw.

The Middeldorf bodies were found two days after the killings. Middeldorf, 63, was found tied up in the bedroom of his home with a piece of plastic over his head, several small knife wounds, and an eight-inch butcher knife in his back. His wife was found in the bathroom, where she was drowned.

ANOTHER TRIAL

Eddington faces another trial June 10 on charges of first-degree murder in the slayings of Dr. and Mrs. Archer A. Claytor of Saginaw, Feb. 1, 1967.

The trial is scheduled for Ludington on another change of venue.

Ronald L. Johnson, 24, of Saginaw is also charged in the murders of the Claytors. His trial date has not been set.

Claytor was found in his home beaten over the head, possibly with a hammer and then shot. His wife was shot to death.

Claytor was named Michigan's Foremost Physician of the year in 1959. He was the doctor who delivered Eddington and Johnson.

Board Excuses Teacher's Strip

FLINT (AP) — The School Board in Burton Township has ruled against firing a 24-year-old sex education teacher who reportedly stripped before her all-girl class to emphasize a point.

The alleged action six weeks ago by the unidentified teacher raised the ire of many parents, who demanded her dismissal, along with that of junior high school Principal C.F. Heidtke.

The Bentley School District board, meeting in special session Monday night, concluded there was insufficient evidence to justify dismissal of the teacher or the principal.

"We find she had intentions in the best interests of her students," said Gerald Felger, school board president. "She erred in judgment by using herself as a model. Thus her methods, action and words were misinterpreted by some of her students," he added.

OCCEO to Hear Progress Report on Legal Aid Plan

A report on the progress of its legal aid program will be heard by the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OCCEO) at its meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The group will meet at the OCCEO central office, 1 W. Lafayette, in downtown Pontiac.

An expanded legal aid program for the poor was started in April using an additional $82,000 U.S. grant.

Four full-time lawyers were added to the staff, along with other personnel, and the expanded program has been under way for about six weeks.

★ ★ ★

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY of our Husband and Father, Richard H. Rodgers who passed away May 21, 1946.
I have only your memory, dear Husband,
The love a heart holds dear.
Fond memories linger every day
Remembrance keeps him near.
Sadly missed by wife, Louise and children.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Lee R. Stinson who passed away May 21, 1966.
God saw you were getting weaker,
So he did what he thought best.
He came and stood beside you,
and whispered come to rest.
You wished no one a last farewell,
Not even said good bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
and Only God knows why.
Sadly missed by mother, and sister Eleanor.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Alexander Joss, who passed away May 21, 1965.
God saw you getting weaker,
So He did what He thought best.
He came and stood beside you.
And whispered come to rest.
You wished no one a last farewell,
Not even to say goodbye.
You had gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

Arms Curb Eyed by Broomfield

U. N. Parley Sought Toward Mideast Pact

Prime Minister Stoned in Belfast

A jeering crowd of demonstrators hurled eggs, stones and bags of flour at Northern Ireland's Prime Minister Terence O'Neill during an appearance last night in Belfast.

O'Neill was unhurt. He had been speaking before a Conservative party meeting in a strongly Protestant district of the Northern Ireland capital.

Carrying placards saying "O'Neill Must Go," the demonstrators surrounded the prime minister's car and battled with police protecting him.

Damages Won After 14 Years in Mental Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — A man who spent 14 years at Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminally Insane has been awarded $300,000 in damagse for being subjected to what the judge called "brutal and callous" treatment at the hospital.

In a 28-page opinion delivered Monday, Judge Henry W. Lengyel also asserted that Victor J. Whitree, 69, did not receive "meaningful psychiatric care" during his incarceration.

Lengyel said Whitree spent 11 years more in the hospital than the maximum sentence for his crime.

Whitree, a former chef, pleaded guilty of second-degree assault in a 1945 stabbing and was given a suspended sentence. He was later arrested for parole violation and ordered to Matteawan in May 1947, as a paranoid and chronic alcoholic. The maximum sentence for assault is three years.

★ ★ ★

He filed the claim against the state after his release from Matteawan in September 1961. Whitree's lawyer said the award was the highest ever made in such a case.

A Look at TV

God's Work Lifted Up

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — "In the Name of God," a program about the work of missionaries to improve the living standards of their parishioners abroad, made for a frequently inspiring hour on ABC-TV Monday night.

Since the producers were the honored husband-wife team, John Secondari and Helen Jean Rogers, this was no surprise. For the veteran televiewer, it is needless to dwell again on their skill, intelligence, scope and sense of humanity.

What is worth dwelling upon, however, is the unforgettable impression made by several of the missionaries on whom the documentary focused: men not concerned with conversions or building up empires, but simply in serving people's needs.

One of these, Father Vincent Ferrer, a Spanish-born Jesuit, seemed to have stepped right out of the Bible in his simplicity, faith, determination, devotion to the poor, use of parables and utterly beautiful sincerity. He helps farmers solve the drought problem.

PARABLE USED

His remarks about helping India "with dignity" were uplifting, as were his respect for that nation's customs and culture. "By giving we produce riches," he said. "We become rich." And there was a remarkable example of his use of parables to solve problems in an episode in which he told farmers the following:

"This is the miracle of generosity which you all should understand. I have 10 poor farmers. They all ask for help, and I have only 2,000 rupees to dig one well. I give that money to the first man. He digs his well . . . gathers a good crop . . . sells part of his land and, being a generous man, returns to me the money. Now I give the 2,000 rupees to the second man, and he does the same. So I give to a third, a fourth and so on until the 10th.

"What has happened? We have dug 10 wells. How much money is left? The same 2,000 rupees. A miracle has been worked. With no money we have produced 10 wells."

Father Ferrer has helped his parishioners in many other ways. And so has another Jesuit, Father Hugh Costigan, a very impressive 54-year-old ex-New Yorker who has spent 20 years serving people's needs in Micronesia, in the South Pacific.

DOWN-TO-EARTH

A down-to-earth fellow, Father Costigan's chief efforts were to give his parishioners a sense of dignity, usefulness and community cooperation. And the way he succeeded was graphically chronicled in the exceptionally fine opening sequence about the emergence of Micronesia into more modern ways. His closeness to the people illustrated the program's point with impact.

★ ★ ★

The sequence of Father Ferrer and Father Costigan were the most impressive of the three sections in the hour.

Upset Drivers Called Trouble

ANN ARBOR (AP) — If you're the kind of person who goes for a drive when something's bugging you, there's a good chance you'll end up dead, a University of Michigan psychiatrist's study indicates.

Dr. Marvin L. Selzer made a study of 96 drivers responsible for fatal auto accidents and found that 69 per cent of them had at least one sympton of mental illness.

Selzer compared the group of subjects to a contral group of the same age, sex and county residence. Of those 96 drivers, only 18 were found to be emotionally upset.

More than 30 per cent of the drivers involved in fatal accidents showed evidence of depression, Selzer said, and 50 per cent showed signs of paranoid thinking.

Selzer said 53 per cent of his fatal accident drivers were burdened with vocational or financial problems before the accident and 20 per cent were upset because of personal tragedy.

French Student-Labor Crisis Explained

Associated PressWriter

PARIS (AP) — Here in question and answer form is an explanation of the French student-worker crisis, a period of turmoil Parisians are calling "The Days in May."

Q. When and how did it all start?

A. Student agitation on a small scale has been common in France since World War II. In recent years complaints have centered on jammed lecture rooms and lack of teachers. Last November, sociology students in the suburban Nanterre branch of the University of Paris struck for 10 days, protesting the slowness of promised reforms in teaching. They also complained that they were not being prepared for careers in the modern world and called for teacher-student committees to modernize education. Nanterre classes were suspended for two days in March, and on May 2 they were suspended again, the dean complaining that "certain groups of students were trying to create a climate of insecurity." On May 3, rioting broke out in Paris' Latin Quarter, with students taking part from Nanterre and the Sorbonne, the main university branch on the Left Bank. Disturbances continued almost every night, and on May 5 five rioters were jailed. This fired up the students, and police swarmed into the Latin Quarter, throwing tear gas and swinging their clubs. The Sorbonne was closed.

Q. What did the students do then?

A. Their long-range demands for educational reform were replaced by these immediate ones: reopening of classes at Nanterre and the Sorbonne, withdrawal of police from the Latin Quarter, and freeing of jailed students and lifting of disciplinary action against others.

Q. At what point did things become really serious?

A. The night of May 10-11. Students built barricades in the streets, burned cars and tossed Molotov cocktails. The police retaliated with tear gas and concussion grenades. The toll: 367 persons injured, 468 arrests.

★ ★ ★

Q. What happened next?

A. Premier Georges Pompidou returned from a visit to Afghanistan May 11, promised to reopen the Sorbonne May 13, said the jailed students would be freed and promised renovation of the university system. He also leashed the police.

★ ★ ★

Q. Was this enough to calm the students?

A. It made them more militant than ever, and the major unions called a one-day general strike for May 13 to protest police action against the strikers. The students and unions formed an uneasy alliance. Students occupied the Sorbonne and one of the state theaters, the Odeon.

Q. What was the government's response?

A. President Charles de Gaulle was on an official visit to Romania. Premier Pompidou told the National Assembly "our civilization. . .is at stake." He issued a communique saying the turbulent students would not "plunge the country into disorder." Then he went on the radio and television and promised that "all the legitimate demands" of the students would be met. He also hinted at steps to restore order, but none was taken.

Q. What were the unions and workers doing?

A. A grass-roots strike movement began, with leaders saying that they had learned from the student disorders that only sharp, unlimited action would bring satisfaction for their demands for higher pay and other benefits. Union leaders began to cool toward the students since they had no control over them. The students continued to woo the workers and passed the hat for the strikers. The character of the "Days in May" now changed. The student turmoil stabilized, with sit-ins at most universities, nonstop debating in the Odeon and refusal to take examinations. But the labor strikes spread; about 6 million of France's 16 million were out Monday, and the strike wave was still spreading.

Q. What do the workers want?

A. What they have been wanting for years—more money, shorter working hours, job security.

Q. Haven't their demands been met?

A. The government, which runs such major sectors of French industry such as rail and air transport, communications and the like, has been granting regular raises of a few per cent a year. Private industry has also come through. But the workers have never been satisfied and have frequently struck for one or two days to push their demands. The government has been able until now to keep the lid on. Recently, however, unemployment began to increase, reaching upwards of half a million. Job security became a big issue.

★ ★ ★

Q. What steps are the politicians taking?

A. The Leftist Federation led by Francois Mitterrand and the Communist party smell blood. They introduced a censure motion in the National Assembly, and the vote will come Wednesday night or early Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Q. Is De Gaulle himself in danger?

A. If the censure motion passes, only Pompidou and his cabinet will be out. De Gaulle is serving a seven-year term, which ends in 1972.

★ ★ ★

Q. What will De Gaulle do if Pompidou's government is thrown out?

A. He will address the nation on Friday, and until then it's anyone's guess.

Waterford Will Appeal Ruling on Longer Terms

An Oakland County Circuit Court ruling that declared a state law extending the terms of incumbent township officers as unconstitutional will be appealed by the Waterford Township Board.

The board approved the action in a 5 to 1 vote at its regular weekly meeting last night.

Township Attorney Calvin E. Patterson said he was ready to file an appeal later

Related Story, Page C-10

this week with the Michigan Court of Appeals.

★ ★ ★

Because of the importance of the public question and the lack of time for candidates to file nominating petitions, Patterson said he also would request that the Supreme Court immediately consider the issue. June 18 is the deadline for filing nominating petitions.

STRUCK DOWN ACTION

Circuit Judge William J. Beer struck down the legislative action on May 6 after three Waterford Township residents filed suit against Township Clerk Arthur J. Salley for not accepting their nominating peitions.

Salley refused the petitions on the grounds that the Legislature, in extending the terms of those in office, had canceled any elections this year for township offices.

The state statute was designed to eliminate the lame duck period affecting township officers who were elected in November but do not assume office until the following April.

Under the provision of the law, township officers elected in 1966 would continue in office until Nov. 20, 1970, 18 months longer than the terms to which they were elected.

Beer ruled that the law deprived persons from running for office and denied the right of voters to fill the offices with whom they wanted.

Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson said that if Judge Beer's decision is affirmed, he and other members of the board affected by the ruling, will pay for the cost of the appeal.

Harriman Talks to French Leader

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman conferred with Charles de Gaulle today amid increasing speculation that other powers may intervene with North Vietnam and the United States to assist Vietnamese peace negotiations.

Emerging from Elysee Palace, Harriman trated his visit purely as a courtesy call, saying he had thanked the French president for his hospitality to the American negotiating team. But U.S. officials believe that at some point de Gaulle may have an important role to play in encouraging accords to end the war.

★ ★ ★

North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy was scheduled to see de Gaulle later in the day.

A spokesman for Thuy slightly expanded Hanoi's public statements on how the next phase of the negotiat'ons may develop —if the present first phase succeeds.

WOULD BE PREPARED

Nguyen Thanh Le told a news conference that if the United States ends the bombing and other attacks on North Vietnam his government would be prepared to discuss a political settlement for Vietnam based on the 1954 Geneva accords. Those accords ended the French-Indochina war and set up the division of Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

In the past the North Vietnamese position has been expressed as readiness to talk on problems of concern to the United States and North Vietnam once the U.S. attacks ended. Today he said they could discuss "questions relative to a political settlement of the Vietnamese problem, on the basis of the 1954 Geneva accords.

★ ★ ★

Both Harriman and Le said they saw no reason for moving the talks from Paris because of the strikes which have virtually paralyzed the nation's economic life and confronted de Gaulle with a massive political crisis.

TALKS IN RECESS

The talks were in recess again today. Harriman and Thuy meet tomorrow for their fourth session. Their last previous talk was Saturday. They have been here almost two weeks and have spent about 10½ hours together. Harriman has said he thinks the talks are going about as expected.

U. S. officials expect Britain, France and the Soviet Union to play some part in carrying the talks forward.

British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart will fly to Moscow tomorrow to confer with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The two men are cochairmen of the Indochinese peace machinery created in 1954 and could be instrumental in arranging a peace conference if progress in the Paris talks ever warrants one.

★ ★ ★

Even more important, in the view of diplomats here, is the Soviet government's influence on Hanoi. This is believed to have grown in the past year or so at the expense of Red China. As Peking's policy has fallen into the paralyzing grip of internal crisis, Vietnamese reliance on the Soviets is believed to have increased.

U.S. authorities welcomed Stewart's decision to go to Moscow, and Harriman sent him a report yesterday on the Paris discussions so far.

98 Passengers Flee Ship Fire

LONDON (AP) — Fire aboard the 5,000-ton Norwegian cruise ship Blenheim today forced her 98 passengers and most of her crew of 80 to abandon ship in the middle of the North Sea. One passenger was reported injured.

A skeleton crew stayed aboard to fight the fire. Tugs arrived to join in the effort.

Two Danish fishing trawlers relieved the Blenheim's lifeboats of about 65 of the passengers and took them to the Danish port of Esbjerg.

The sea was calm as rescue ships, planes and helicopters converged 170 miles west off the Danish harbor of Tyboron. They were summoned from Britain, Scandinavia and the Netherlands.

REPORT IN ERROR

Reports to the British Defense Ministry said the ship was sinking, but they proved erroneous.

Reports from the scene said there were 89 passengers and 78 crewmen aboard, but the ship's owners, the Fred Olsen Line, raised these figures.

★ ★ ★

The fire broke out in midmorning as the ship was halfway across the North Sea on a regular run from Newcastle to Oslo.

Cause of the fire was not known in London.

15 PICKED UP

The first rescue ship to arrive, the Danish trawler Gina Wulff, took 15 passengers from the lifeboats. Other craft hurried to pickup the rest.

Later the Smit Lloyd 3, a small Dutch supply vessel, reached the scene. Her owners said she would try to tow the Blenheim to a safe harbor with the help of two German tugs.

Police Force Sit-In End

NEW YORK (AP) — About 100 policemen forced their way into the Brooklyn College registrar's office early today to remove 43 demonstrators who had staged a day-long sit-in to demand admission of more Negroes and Puerto Ricans to the school.

Visiting Mayor Points to Parallel

Pontiac, Ypsi Problems Alike

By BOB WISLER

Two major problems which continue to plague Pontiac — housing and finances for city government — also are the bane of Ypsilanti, visiting Mayor John H. Burton revealed yesterday.

Burton and Ypsilanti Mayor Pro Tem Vaughn E. Filsinger toured Pontiac and exchanged information with city officials during Mayors Exchange Day, a regular feature of Michigan Week. The Ypsilanti officials were accompanied by their wives.

★ ★ ★

The other part of the exchange — the visit of Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. to Ypsilanti — was cut short by the sudden illness of Taylor's mother-in-law.

Taylor, after being greeted in Ypsilanti and getting part-way through a tour of Eastern Michigan University, was informed of the illness about 11 a.m. He left immediately with his wife for Canada where her mother lives.

EVENTS CANCELED

The remainder of the scheduled activities in Ypsilanti were canceled by Ypsilanti officials.

Burton, one of Michigan's three Negro mayors (the others are at Flint and Saginaw), was elected mayor of his city by fellow councilmen this spring. He is entering his 20th year as either a city councilman or alderman for Ypsilanti and is the first Negro to serve as mayor of that city.

★ ★ ★

He said he was enthused by a number of steps being taken in Pontiac — creation of a downtown parking mall, construction of low-cost housing, and attempts to renovate the downtown area through urban renewal.

Burton said the problems of Ypsilanti are similar to those of Pontiac and are typical of most urban communities in the United States.

Ypsilanti is a town of 25,000 residents, of which about 25 per cent are Negro. It is the site of a number of manufacturing plants and Eastern Michigan University, which this year has an enrollment of approximately 14,000 students.

Burton said Ypsilanti has had an urban-renewal program which has been marked by lack of success and legal difficulties. Burton said the city is on the right track now.

About 120 new houses have been constructed for low-income residents and the city is building another 102 units. There are plans for a high-rise development for senior citizens, Burton said.

INTEREST IN HOUSING

Burton said he was especially interested in the Pontiac programs for construction of 221d3 housing (federally financed housing by a private developer limited to persons of low and medium income).

Burton said adequate financing for city programs is a definite problem even though Ypsilanti can levy up to 20 mills per thousand dollars of valuation against property (compared to the 10-mill levy

Sunday Liquor Bill Revived in Senate

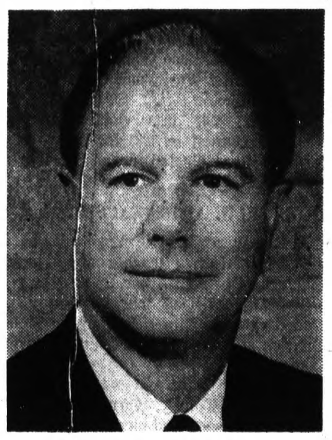

LANSING (AP)—Sale of liquor on Sunday — a proposal defeated earlier this session — emerged again last night as the Senate approved an amendment permitting counties to decide the controversial question.

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, tacked the proposal on a bill requiring the Liquor Control Commission to notify county prosecutors of liquor violations by minors. The bill was advanced to final voting stage.

Lockwood's amendment, defeated once this session, permits counties to conduct a referendum to decide whether to sell liquor on Sunday.

If approved by a majority of voters, liquor would be sold by establishments whose gross receipts from sale of food and other services exceed 50 per cent of their total business.

TRAFFIC PLAN—Creation of a downtown parking mall on North Saginaw between Huron and Lawrence necessitates routing traffic off Saginaw during the hours the downtown stores are open. Southbound traffic can turn left, but turns to the right are the most convenient for skirting the mall. The traffic pattern calls for southbound traffic to follow West Huron to Wayne, south on Wayne to Lawrence and east on Lawrence to North Saginaw. Northbound traffic must turn right on Lawrence—a one-way eastbound street—then can turn left on Perry and left on East Huron to best get back to North Saginaw. Store hours will dictate the hours the mall is in operation.

C. HUGH DOHANY

Southfield Man Seeks County Treasurer Post

Southfield City Treasurer C. Hugh Dohany announced today that he will be a Republican candidate for the office of Oakland County treasurer in the August primary election.

Dohany has been an elected official in Southfield since its incorporation more than 10 years ago. He has served as charter commissioner, councilman, council president and city treasurer.

As a former member of the board of supervisors, his committee appointments included building and grounds, cooperative extension service, auditor general-local taxes, veteran affairs and ways and means.

LIBRARY BOARD MEMBER

Dohany, 48, left his position two years ago as a field supervisor of the marketing division of Detroit Edison Co. after 26 years to devote full time to his duties as treasurer.

Dohany said he would see that the county treasurer's office would be "operated like a business, efficiently and economically."

Under his direction, the Southfield treasurer's office is the first in the state to be fully computerized.

"Local and county government is far behind industry in automation and if it is to exist on present tax levels it must attract capable officials with know-how of modern business methods," he added.

Crisis Worsens; DeGaulle Waits

PARIS (AP) — France's massive crisis worsened today, with more than one third of the nation's workers on strike, but President Charles de Gaulle's government still did nothing.

The Gaullist governing coalition expressed confidence it would survive a parliamentary vote on a censure motion tomorrow night, but it gave no indication what it would do about the workers' revolt for higher pay, shorter hours and job security.

Nearly 6 million of the nation's 16 million workers were on strike, 250 factories were idle, and the movement was still growing. And unlike previous French strikes of 24 to 48 hours, no limit was put on these walkouts and sit-ins.

The strikes stopped trains, subways, buses, taxis and garbage collection in Paris and closed coal mines, airports and seaports. Some tourists were stranded. Lines formed at food and tobacco ships, banks and gasoline stations.

FEW POLICEMEN

Amid a monstrous traffic jam in Paris, made worse by cars that were abandoned after running out of gasoline, few policemen were in sight. Although not on strike, many apparently stayed home.

Facing the gravest threat yet posed to his 10-year-old Fifth Republic, De Gaulle has made no public statement since breaking off a visit to Romania Saturday and returning to the Elysee Palace. He is to address the nation on television Friday night, and there was no indication of what he planned for a situation strongly reminiscent of the turmoil that brought him back to power in 1958. Opposition political leaders conferred with trade union leaders yesterday in preparation for their attempt in the National Assembly to oust Premier Georges Pompidou and his Cabinet.

★ ★ ★

The French Communist party called for an end to the De Gaulle regime and the formation of "a true republican regime opening the way to socialism."

★ ★ ★

A successful censure motion in Parliament would not oust De Gaulle, whose term runs until 1972, but would be a major setback to his policies.

SAME DEMANDS

George Seguy, secretary-general of the big Communist-backed General Confederation of Labor, said in a speech that the striking workers will present their same demands to whatever government is in office until they obtain satisfaction.

★ ★ ★

Court Extends Jury Trial Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defendants in all but "petty" criminal cases are entitled to the chance to be tried by juries, a precedent-shattering Supreme Court has ruled.

The ruling, one of several expanding the rights of criminal defendants, made the jury trial guarantee of the sixth amendment to the U. S. Constitution binding on the states.

At the same time, also by a 7-2 vote, the court erased the distinction between criminal contempt and other crimes and put "serious" contempt cases under the jury-trial rule.

In two other decisions, meanwhile, the court junked longstanding decisions. It said a man cannot be tried fairly if the jury hears a codefendant's confession incriminating him. And it said prisoners do not have to complete their sentences before testing additional sentences that await them.

★ ★ ★

Along with the criminal law decisions, the court opened shopping centers to mass picketing, gave illegitimate children equal treatment under the law and set the stage for consideration next fall of the speeded induction of Vietnam war protesters.

Force Lands as Haiti Bombed

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Unidentified planes dropped four bombs on Port au Prince yesterday without causing any damage and also attacked the city of Cap Haitien with bombs and a landing of armed men, officials said.

Haiti's ambassador in Washington blamed Haitian exiles and Cubans, and the Haitian consul in Miami, Fla., said, "More than 4,000 Haitian workers have been trained in Cuba for guerrilla warfare."

In Port au Prince, one bomb exploded near the palace of President Francois Duvalier. He was not hurt. Three other bombs, including one which hit the military airfield, did not explode, said Aubelin Jolicoeur of the newspaper Le Nouvelliste.

Ambassador Arthur Bonhomme said in Washington: "The planes which landed the armed men at Cap Haitien are on the ground, and the Haitian army believes it has surrounded the men who landed and has them under attack. We should know pretty soon who are the attackers."

★ ★ ★

Consul Eugene Maximilien said in Miami that reports late Monday night indicated the "exile men" who landed at Cap Haitien, 85 miles north of Port au Prince, were under siege but still holding their positions.

★ ★ ★

Burton said that although Ypsilanti's urban renewal program has been in the works longer than Pontiac's, he definitely feels that urban renewal can accomplish much toward creating housing that is lacking for low and medium income families.

GOOD RELATIONS

Burton said his city has good community relations at the moment and almost full employment. He said the city could experience problems if the large manufacturing plants have big layoffs.

To avert possible problems in this area several groups, including the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce and the city are working on programs to hire youths during summer months.

Talks Slated on Transfer of Rubbish

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set a formal date of June 10 for discussion of the Southeast Oakland County Incinerator Authority's proposed rubbish transfer.

The commission received a report from the transfer station study committee, but took no action because it had previously pledged to notify two home owners' associations prior to a decision.

★ ★ ★

The two groups, the Sheffield Estates and Pembroke Manor civic associations, have objected to the sale of city-owned property on Collidge north of 14 Mile in Troy for a site for the station.

The commission also approved the rezoning of four lots in the south Woodward area to the city's new R-8 row or town-house classification.

City commissioners tonight will consider a resolution approving the wording of the June 24 referendum ballot on the city's open housing ordinance. The meeting is set for 6 p.m. at City Hall.

McLain Learns by Watching, Wins 6th by Waiting

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Rumors from a very reliable source have reached this corner that Pontiac's long time dream of having an arena-auditorium complex is closer to reality.

If the rumors bear true that some announcement of this is due within a few days, it could be the most prolific venture to rejuvenate the city and its downtown ever undertaken in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Most notable story of what other cities have done to help themselves is the unbelievable success story of the city of Duluth, Minnesota.

A few years back, Duluth, similar in city size as that of Pontiac, but with a metropolitan area one-fifth of that of north Oakland County, was considered the most depressed area in all of the midwest.

Its downtown was dying and its overall economy was near tragic proportions.

APPROVE CONSTRUCTION

On Aug. 6, 1966, after three years of study, surveys of 150 similar structures in the country, Duluth inaugurated its magnificent facility.

★ ★ ★

One year later, Aug. 1967 these are the startling facts revealed by the Duluth Arena-Auditorium board:

1. There were 782 events held in the complex. This is an average of more than two a day.

2. Total attendance in the complex in the first year was 782,500 people, or almost eight times the metropolitan area of Duluth.

3. A total of 120,000 convention delegates spent an average of $35 per person per day and local expenditure amounted to $10 per person a day.

4. This meant that $7 million was spent through all segments in the city.

5. It also showed that payroll checks amounting to $272,000 in salaries were distributed and that $250,000 changed hands in purchases with local businesses.

6. In one year, $10 million in business building was begun in the area of arena and the projection called for $50 million in business construction within 10 years.

To go into detail on the structural part of the complex would take columns of words and adjectives, but to quote two famous personalities Bennet Cerf, "Duluth has joined the big leagues"; Paul Harvey, "Duluth has entered a new dimension in vitality."

NEW FLINT ARENA

In Michigan, the city of Flint has become the front-runner of cities in the state which have placed their faith in such complexes which are directed at the social, recreational, physical and educational needs of their citizens.

★ ★ ★

Newest additions in Flint include the twin-winged ice arenas and a franchise in the International Hockey League, and the addition of an astro-turf football field, one of only three in the country, which will be tested this fall.

Any announcement which may be forthcoming for Pontiac in the league of Michigan arena cities would be the most welcomed news in this city's annals.

8 Amateur Golfers in USGA Sectional

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Although the professionals were on hand to pick up the lion's share of honors, it was, nevertheless, a banner day for the amateurs in the opening phase of the USGA Open qualifying yesterday.

The pros plucked 16 of the 24 berths that were up for grabs in the 'local' qualifying round, and the 24 who made the grade will now move on to the 'sectional' phase of the competition June 3 at Knollwood Country Club in Birmingham.

FINAL STOP

Survivors from the sectional tournament then move to Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y., for the championship proper, June 13-16.

★ ★ ★

Heading the pack in yesterday's 36-hole grind over Forest Lake and Indianwood country clubs was former state amateur champion Melvin (Bud) Stevens, who carded an even par 72-71 — 143 to lead the field of 113 by three shots.

TAKES SECOND

Robert Clark of Monroe, a professional, grabbed the runner-up spot while the next three positions were taken by amateurs.

On the list at 147 were Jim St. Germain, a student at Eastern Michigan University, former amateur and Michigan Open champion Charles Kocsis of Red Run, and current Golf Association of Michigan champion Peter Green of Orchard Lake Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Rounding out the list of amateurs landing berths in the sectional were Tom Draper of Royal Oak, John U. Law of Birmingham and Tim Kilpelainen of Western Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Three pros bunched at 148 were Stan Brion of Tam O'Shanter, David M. Dunn of Holland, O., and Gene Bone of Bay Pointe Golf Club.

FOURTH MEDAL

For the 35-year-old Stevens, it was the fourth time he's bagged medalist honors in the 'Local' phase of the qualifying.

At the sectional, Stevens will be trying for his fourth trip to the U. S. Open. He made it in 1961, '65 and '66. He failed by a couple of shots in the 'local' qualifying last year.

Stevens' steady round included four birdies and a quartet of bogies. He matched par-72 over Indianwood's hilly 6,904 yards in the morning round and stayed at an even-par 71 over the 6,405-yard Forest Lake layout in the afternoon.

The cutoff came at 152 and seven players had to battle in a playoff for four spots.

WIN IN PLAYOFF

Bone, former Michigan Open and PGA champ, had his tee-to-green game working but seven three-putt greens pushed him well off Stevens' pace.

BOOTS BENGAL'S BOUNCER — Minnesota third sacker Rich Rollins (left) circles back to pick up ground ball he dropped off the bat of Detroit Tiger hitter Willie Horton in the fourth inning last night at Bloomington, Minn. The error prolonged a rally, enabling the Tigers to cut a 3-1 Twin lead to 3-2. Shortstop Cesar Tovar backs up Rollins. Two more errors in the 10th inning handed the Tigers a 4-3 triumph.

Twins' Errors Hand Bengals 4-3 Triumph

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Denny McLain has been emulating Cuban curveballer Camilo Pascual, and the sturdy Detroit right-hander says it's paying off for him.

McLain threw a three-run home run pitch to Minnesota's Dick Reese Monday night, but bided his time and let the Twins give him his sixth victory against one defeat, 4-3 in 10 innings.

Three of the Tigers' runs were unearned off loser Jim Merritt, and Detroit scored its winning run in the 10th without a base hit as the Twins committed their third and fourth errors.

WATCHES PASCUAL

"The biggest thing," said McLain, who leads the American League with six complete games, "is that I've been watching Camilo Pascual, who I think has the best curve I've ever seen.

★ ★ ★

"I was watching him Sunday, and he reaches way back to throw his curve. I've been short-arming my curve, bringing my arm up close to my shoulder instead of reaching way back. You might give a runner a little more chance that way, but that hitter still has to get a hit to score the run."

Pinpoint control also has returned for McLain. "Two years ago I had trouble with wildness and I had the same trouble last year. I couldn't get my curve over.

NO WALKS GIVEN

McLain didn't walk a man for the third time this season.

Twins' Manager Cal Ermer had two late-inning defensive replacements blow up in his face. But Ermer steadfastly defended his moves of inserting Jackie Hernandez at shortstop and Ron Clark at third base.

★ ★ ★

Hernandez' throwing error with two out in the 10th let Al Kaline reach second, then Clark let Bill Freehan's grounder get away from him to allow Kaline to score the winning run.

DEFENDS MOVES

"This is the first time this year they've beaten us." Ermer said of his defensive moves. "I know good and well the men I put in there are better defensively than the men I had in there for their hitting the first part of the game.

★ ★ ★

"I'd make that move again. I think you've got to make it in trying to protect a lead."

Central Announces New Cage Coaches

Principal Garth Errington Monday afternoon announced that 36-year-old Ralph Grubb and 32-year-old Earl McKee will be the PCH varsity and reserve coaches, respectively, next season.

Both will be familiar to the players and rate their respect. Grubb guided the PCH sophomore squads for seven seasons, and has led the jayvees to a 63-15 mark in the past five seasons.

★ ★ ★

Oddly, the junior varsity had a 14-1 mark in his first season at the helm and its win total has decreased by one each season at the helm and its win total has decreased by one each season, down to 11-5 this past winter.

EXPERIENCE

"We wanted someone who had had some years' experience coaching (not necessarily varsity) Class A basketball," Errington said of the search of the varsity coach.

Grubb has spent 13 years in the Pontiac school system since graduating from Eastern Michigan University in 1953 after lettering for three seasons in basketball.

RESERVE JOB

In all, about a dozen applicants were interviewed for the two jobs.

McKee, a familiar figure to followers of the city recreation basketball, softball and baseball leagues, has been the No. 1 coach at Jefferson Junior High School for four years, with a 31-9 cage mark.

★ ★ ★

At Central, the Western Michigan University graduate will join the physical education staff in addition to his basketball and assistant track coach duties.

On the PCH track staff he will replace Brian Castle who is becoming an elementary school principal.

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins are in the trade market while looking ahead to the National Hockey League player draft June 9 in Montreal.

"It's safe to say that we're looking to talk trade with anyone" Boston General Manager Milt Schmidt said Monday night after the Bruins sent Skip Krake to the Los Angeles Kings.

Canham Requests Big 10 to Study Track Meet Film

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten Games Committee is planning a study of films of last Saturday's outdoor track meet with the possibility that Michigan—not Minnesota—will be declared the winner.

Minnesota compiled 50 points to edge Michigan, with 49 points, and Wisconsin, with 48.

ASKS FILM STUDY

However, Michigan Coach Don Canham has asked for a film study to determine if Minnesota's Rich Simonsen or Michigan's Sol Espie finished third in the 220-yard dash behind Minnesota's Hubie Bryant and Michigan's Leon Grundstein.

Simonsen was awarded third place but if there is a switch made giving Espie third place, Michigan will win the title with Minnesota second.

Commissioner Bill Reed was not available for comment but a Big Ten spokesman said still pictures from video tapes will be studied by the committee composed of coaches Bob Wright of Illinois and Dave Rankin of Purdue and a decision should be reached in a couple of weeks.

PAST CHANGES

If a switch is made because of the films, it will not be the first time. Last year Michigan picked up additional points because of film results and placed third ahead of Wisconsin.

SANDY PROBLEM — Melvin (Bud) Stevens of Livonia found a little trouble on this sixth hole at Forest Lake yesterday in the 'local' phase of the U.S. Open qualifying. Stevens blasted out, the ball scooting six feet past the pin, and his putt for a par-4 stopped six inches short. Despite this bogey, Stevens managed an even par round and went on to lead the qualifying field with a 143 total.

Fans, Club Cheer Howard

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank Howard's first game before the cheering hometown fans after his second homer binge wasn't one he's likely to long treasure — but he won't soon forget the treasury he took home afterward.

★ ★ ★

Before some 9,000 Washington Senator fans who gave him a lusty, minute-long ovation — wildly applauding his historic feat of 10 home runs in six games — Howard was hit by a pitch in the first inning. The next three times at bat, the mammoth slugger fanned.

But any disappointment the 6-foot-7, 270-pounder felt at his performance in the Senators' 6-1 shellacking by the New York Yankees was quickly erased when he reached the clubhouse at game's end.

★ ★ ★

Waiting for him with a new contract was Washington General Manager George Selkirk. Although its figures weren't announced, it was believed the pact raised Howard's pay to about $56,000 — or about $7,000 more than the one he signed last spring after a two-week holdout.

Anti-Turbine Speculation Mounts at '500' Race

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Speculation mounted today that a new concerted effort will be made soon to ban turbine-powered cars from the 500-mile Speedway auto race..

Pressure to that effect is being applied by a number of influential car owners to outlaw the controversial power plant in the Memorial Day classic on grounds it "doesn't belong" in racing.

SENTIMENT APPARENT

Antiturbine sentiment became apparent last year when Parnelli Jones nearly drove the first turbocar ever in the field into victory lane. Transmission trouble less than 10 miles from the finish wrecked that bid.

It was the only turbine machine in the race and it ran away from the field, leading 171 of the 200 laps and setting 17 records in the process.

★ ★ ★

This time at least three turbines are in the field — all identical machines from the Andy Grantelli team — and two of them emerged as the top qualifiers at record speeds last Saturday driven by Joey Leonard and former "500" winner Graham Hill.

★ ★ ★

Nine turbine cars were entered for the race but two have been wrecked.

Balanced Field in Press Prep Golf Tourney

FALLEN CHAMPION — Waterford's Butch Fenlon, winner of the indoor Central Michigan University two-mile title earlier in the season, ran out of gas in the regional Saturday at Waterford and finished well back in the pack in that event. Winning the race was Douglas Latter of Grand Blanc in 9:49.1.

17th Annual Event Slated at PCC Friday

This year's edition of the Pontiac Press Invitational Golf Tournament shapes up as the most balanced in the history of the event.

The 17th annual running of the tourney is slated for Friday over 18 holes at Pontiac Country Club.

Bloomfield Hills Andover has dominated the tournament for the past seven years, but it appears the Barons do not have the balance this season to challenge the favorites.

TEAM CHOICES

★ ★ ★

WON TWICE

Walled Lake has won the title twice, the last time in 1963, and the Vikings fared better than Waterford in the regional play Friday. Walled Lake placed fourth and Waterford fifth.

★ ★ ★

Southfield has never won the event, but the Blue Jays served notice they'll have to be reckoned with when they won a Class A regional at Farmington Thursday.

The 25, four-man teams will start teeing off at 9:30 a.m. An awards banquet is slated at the club for 4 p.m.

Cougars Face Tornadoes in Home Contest

★ ★ ★

Half a dozen Cougars are sidelined by injuries, but Gus Moffatt, the 20-year-old Scottish forward who was the first player injured in early spring training, will be back in the lineup after recovering from a broken ankle.

★ ★ ★

The Cougars hold third place in the league's Lakes Division with a 3-4 record while Dallas will have on show several new players from Turkey, Britain and the Netherlands in an attempt to boost its 0-8-1 record.

Waterford Runs Over Kettering on Cinders

The losing Captains won eight events — including doubles by hurdler Bill Penoza and dashman Tim Donaldson—but the WTHS crew had sufficient depth to sweep three events.

The victory gives the Skippers a 650-100 lead in the All-Sports Trophy. WKIIS' lone points among the 900 came in basketball. Waterford has won the trophy now 5 of 7 years.

The meet was highlighted by Gene Pankner's 56-6 heave in the shot put.

Southfield Blanks Kimball, Nears Crown in SEMA

Southfield's Blue Jays moved a step closer to the baseball championship in the Southeastern Michigan Association yesterday by blanking Royal Oak Kimball, 5-0.

The victory raised Southfield's loop mark to 9-3, leaving only Birmingham Seaholm standing in the way of a title for the Blue Jays. And they could remove that obstacle when the two tangle tomorrow.

In another SEMA game, Seaholm (8-5) downed Ferndale (6-6-1), 7-2.

STARTS JAYS

Rocky Roe started Southfield on the way to victory in the first with a 400-foot home run. The Jays came up with four more in the fifth on a two-run single by Doug Digue, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly.

Seaholm opened with three runs in the first and closed with three in the seventh to stop Ferndale. George Metcalf paced the attack with three singles and five RBI.

In a more conventional manner, West Bloomfield's Lakers (5-8) picked up a run in the bottom of the 11th to hand Milford (7-6) its fourth loss in a row, 4-3.

RBI singles by Pat Cayley and Fred Holdsworth in the fourth enabled Northville to tie Clarkston at 2-2, and Barry Primeau put a little icing on the cake with a two-run single in the sixth.

A single, double and sacrifice fly produced the two runs in the first for Clarkston.

ERRORS DECISIVE

A throwing error enabled Mike Appleby to race home in the top of the seventh with the winning run for Andover. Appleby had singled and moved to second on one error and score on another. Shrine Hands Detroit Foe 2-0 Setback

Royal Oak Shrine received a big boost in its bid for a berth in the Detroit Catholic League playoffs while defeating Holy Redeemer, 2-0, yesterday afternoon.

Committee to Draft Campaign-Cost Bill

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James Hare has appointed an 18-member nonpartisan committee to recommend legislation for reporting political campaign expenses.

Present laws are "meaningless and a monstrosity," he said.

★ ★ ★

"We should either have a good law or none at all," added Hare, chief state elections officer.

Bills aimed at tightening the laws died in the Legislature.

'NO WITCH HUNT'

Hare said he is not interested in a "witch-hunt" or "an investigation into past questioning practices."

Hare said increasingly enormous sums of money are needed to run for public office. These sums are not being accounted for, he said.

★ ★ ★

"We're all aware of the almost unlimited methods of fund-raising that don't violate the letter of the law, but they certainly bruise its spirit," Hare said.

He said he also is concerned about the voter-registration law. It requires citizens to vote every two years or be taken off the voter list.

He predicted this would result in a "substantial" decrease in the number of voters in the next presidential election.

Hare said he is afraid many citizens, particularly those in the core cities, are not aware of the new law.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Named to cochair the committee were Mrs. Pat McNamara, widow of the U. S. senator from Detroit, and Raymond Plank, Ludington television executive.

Other members of the committee are:

Elwood Bender of Muskegon Community College; Wayne County Circuit Court Judge George Bowles; D. Hale Brake, former state treasurer and Detroit attorney; Avern Cohn, Democratic party fund-raiser of Detroit; Tom Downs, Detroit attorney; the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan; Mrs. Margaret Foerch of the Michigan League of Women Voters; Douglas Fraser, United Auto Workers, Detroit;

★ ★ ★

Damage Soars in City Blazes

Fire damage in Pontiac in the first third of 1968 is more than triple that of the same period last year — largely due to several major building blazes.

Some $327,000 in damage has been caused by 491 fires this year, as compared to about $96,000 in damage in 229 fires through April 30, 1967.

★ ★ ★

The 161 building fires in 1968 include a $70,000 blaze April 8 at Herrington Hills Eementary School, a $35,000 fire in a commercial building at 695 Auburn Jan. 28 and a $13,000 fire in a grill at 49 N. Saginaw Jan. 30.

In the first third of 1967, 103 building fires occurred.

A second major increase is reflected in grass and brush fires, of which 221 have been extinguished in 1968 as opposed to 50 in the same period last year.

Two persons have died in fires this year, the same number as through April 30, 1967.

'Suharto, 19 Bigwigs Unharmed'

Jakarta Reports Plot Is Foiled

JAKARTA (AP) — The Indonesian government foiled a plot two months ago to kill President Suharto and 19 of his generals and cabinet ministers and as they prayer at a mosque, officials at the presidential palace said Monday.

It was reported seven men had key roles in the abortive assassination attempt. All have been arrested and will be tried by a military court, military sources said.

★ ★ ★

Officials said the plot was inspired by the Communists but that some of these involved were still at large. Several alleged Communists serving in the army were arrested in Jakarta last week, but it was not known how many in all would be implicated in the plot.

The mass assassination was to have been sprung while Suharto and his top officials knelt at the mosque on the grounds of the president's Merdeka Palace during a Moslem festival March 9, the palace officials said.

HAND GRENADES

Officers said the plotters planned to hurl hand grenades into the small mosque while Suharto and his group were on their knees.

★ ★ ★

Security agents unearthed the plot several days before, officials said, and arrested an army captain and several other soldiers. Several newsmen were also reportedly picked up. News of the plot was withheld to aid the investigation.

It was the first reported attempt against the life of the 47-year-old former army general since he took the reins of power from President Sukarno early in 1966. Sukarno's ouster came after the collapse of a pro-Communist coup attempt and a nationwide massacre of Communist party members in retaliation for the favored position they held under Sukarno.

Sources said the 67-year-old former president is not believed to have had any part in the plot against his successor. Sukarno lives in his old summer palace in Bogor and is closely guarded.

★ ★ ★

Others reported marked for death in the plot included Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, chairman of Indonesia's Congress, and Suharto's close associate, and Foreign Minister Adam Malik, a longtime opponent of Sukarno and the Communists.

Also on the list were the air force and army commanders, the deputy army commander and the capital's military commander, sources added.

Ambulance Bill Vote Near

LANSING (UPI) — Counties would be able to contract with private ambulance services, according to a bill coming up for a final vote in the Senate.

The House-passed bill also would require ambulance drivers to pass the advanced Red Cross first aid course, be at least 21 years old, and obtain a special license costing $5 annually.

Policemen and firemen would be exempt from the requirements.

★ ★ ★

Ambulances would be licensed under the bill's provisions at a $25 fee and would have to have a rear-door opening, a flashing red light, a siren, oxygen equipment and first-aid equipment.

2,500 March, Protest Odor

KALAMAZOO (UPI) — Residents of this southwestern Michigan city are raising a stink over a pungent odor that hovers over the east side.

Some 2,500 marchers paraded two miles from their east side homes to the City Building Monday night. Spokesman met with the City Commission.

The commission unanimously endorsed a proposal, submitted by City Engineer Donald H. Swets, to clean up Lagoon No. 5 temporarily, and to have it covered entirely and cleaned up within three years.

LBJ Blasts Those Who 'Bad Mouth Our Country'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may have added a new phrase to the 1968 political lexicon: "Bad-mouthing our country."

He returned to Washington immediately after the speech.

Johnson didn't accuse anyone of "bad-mouthing" and didn't relate it directly to the presidential campaign. But the entire context of his speech made it evident he looks with something less than full approval on much of the campaign oratory.

FATAL SICKNESS

Talking to affluent patrons of the Arthritis Foundation, Johnson said: "I simply refuse to accept the diagnosis of fatal sickness in our society—and I refuse to follow those who say that."

He went on: "I refuse to accept the diagnosis of indifference in our society—and I say shame on you who point that out."

Once again, the "shame on you" remark seemingly was off the cuff.

The burden of the President's speech was that the nation can solve its problems and is not sick, indifferent or racist.

TEARING DOWN

But he repeatedly returned to the thought that some individuals, unnamed, are tearing down rather than building up the country.

America's problems, he said, "will not be solved if we give way to crippling dispair or to bad-mouthing our country all day long or all week long."

Johnson said the problems "will be solved by the impatience of the American people—but not by pessimism and the bad-mouthing of the American people."

Neither reference to "bad-mouthing' was in his prepared text.

Espousing the politics of joy and happiness, Humphrey has suggested equal time be given to those who discuss the good things about the country in contrast to those who find fault.

Johnson acknowledged the United States has its faults, and added in another extemporaneous statement that these are faults "of which we are constantly reminded."

More specifically, he cited problems of poverty, racism, ignorance and illness which "still plague us."

But he cited his administration's record in health, education and civil rights to argue "we are on the move" and that only despair, pessism and "bad-mouthing" can delay their solution.

Among those who greeted the President at the dinner were Edwin L. Weisl, New York's Democratic national committeeman and long-time Johnson friend, and investment banker Sidney J. Weinberg, prominent financial backer of Humphrey.

Johnson said he attended the banquet only after receiving iron-clad assurances no candidates would be present and that there would be no partisan speeches.

★ ★ ★

Declaring he was very relaxed and happy, the President said: "It's a wonderful feeling being able to count the days instead of the votes."

2 Colleges Offer 'Panic Clinics' for Exam Week

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — At least two California state colleges will operate "panic clincs" to help students cope with the emotional pressures of final examination week starting May 31.

"If we can prevent one attempted suicide, the entire project will be worth the effort," said Dr. Suzanne A. Snivley of the Sacramento State College health clinic.

★ ★ ★

The college will provide special therapy with faculty, doctors and other students. A similar program is planned at San Fernando State College.

"This is an experiment designed to help our students meet their emotional pressures at a time when they are most fatigued and upset after a busy year at school," Dr. Snivley said.

Mixed Pattern Shown

Market Firms After Declines

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market firmed a bit after a series of declines and displayed a mixed pattern early today. Trading was active.

Gains outnumbered losses by nearly 100 issues on the New York Stock Exchange, but weakness in some key industrials put down the Dow Jones Industrial Average between 2 and 3 points. The broader-based New York Stock Exchange index rose slightly.

Another gold stock, American-South African, gained about a point. Some of the others showed little change or were slow in opening.

UNSETTLING FACTORS

Amphenol climbed more than 2 points, Penn Central and Goodrich a point or so.

Control Data and Westinghouse Electric lost more than a point each.

The rise in gold prices and the turmoil in France were unsettling factors, but analysts said the stock market had technical reasons for a rally despite the lack of any outstanding bullish news.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the eighth article in a 15-part series on U.S. educational and training benefits available to you.)

By RAY CROMLEY
NEA Publications

Among the opportunities for those students who intend to go into teaching is the chance to participate in the National Teacher Corps.

★ ★ ★

Under the corps, interns with bachelor degrees will teach in low-income areas under the guidance of an experienced teacher, a team leader.

Such training should normally lead to an advanced degree.

★ ★ ★

Teacher interns will be paid in training and while teaching.

For further information contact the Division of Education Personnel Training, Bureau of Elementary and Secondary Education, U.S. Office of Education, Washington, D.C. 20202.

Universities nominate their promising young men and women administrators. Successful candidates work from 10 months to one year in the U.S. Office of Education as research, program and administrative assistants at the Civil Service level of GS-11.

INFORMATION

★ ★ ★

Consult the National Science Foundation for the names of participating colleges and universities in your area.

Graduate students, selected by their institutions, are eligible for fellowships in programs of library and information science.

Apollo Crew Ready for Escape Testing

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The first thing astronauts Walter Schirra, Donn Eisele and Walter Cunningham will do when they get in their new Apollo 7 spaceship at the moon port next month will be to see how fast they can get out.

A rehearsal of emergency escape procedures is the first order of business for the spacemen after their capsule has been readied for the manned portion of the ground testing leading up to launch in September.

★ ★ ★

They were trapped by a slow-operating hatch that swung the wrong way, and they were overcome before rescue workers could reach them.

QUICK-OPENING

The Apollo 7 capsule is equipped with a quick-opening hatch. Many of its systems have been improved and strengthened, the cabin interior has been virtually fireproofed, and the cabin atmosphere during ground tests and launch will be a mixture of oxygen and nitrogen instead of pure oxygen which fed the Apollo 1 holocaust.

★ ★ ★

Moon-port test procedures also have been improved. Spacecraft test conductor C. A. Chauvin, who held a similar position for Apollo 1, said in an interview that the entire test program has been examined and revised to eliminate all unnecessary hazards and to plan for a great variety of potential emergencies.

★ ★ ★

"The planning involved (for Apollo 1) was not nearly what we have now," he said. "We're going down to minute details now."

★ ★ ★

The Apollo 7 spacecraft and crew will go through the same launch pad test that ended in disaster for Grissom, White and Chaffee Jan. 27, 1967. But there will be one big difference — the Apollo 7 hatch will be open with the cabin filled with ordinary air.

SAFER AIR

By that time, however, Schirra and crew will have tested their spacecraft in a giant vacuum chamber. The pilots will be wearing spacesuits pressurized with oxygen and the hatch will be closed, but the cabin will be filled with the safer nitrogen-oxygen mixture.

Second, Third, Fourth and so on.

There are all kinds of reasons why Chevelle is the most popular car in its field.

It gives you the mid-size field's greatest choice of engine-transmission combinations. That includes six V8's ranging up to a 350-hp Turbo-Jet available in the SS 396 above. It also gives you the kind of ride you'd expect only in the more expensive cars . . . with Full Coil suspension and a separate frame with advanced body mounting system. And Chevelle comes on with all sorts of credentials. For instance in the recent NASCAR-sanctioned Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, a Chevelle won the Sports Intermediate Class, scoring the highest number of total points in the braking, economy and acceleration tests.

So what else can Chevelle do for you? How about giving you the widest choice of personalizing features in its field? And something else that contributes to its popularity: prices that start a full $100 lower than competitive models.

Close Vote on Crime Bill Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A close Senate vote is expected on proposals to strip the Supreme Court of authority to invalidate confessions and restrict use of police lineups.

Gen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., scheduled to lead the attack against the proposals today, contends they represent "the most serious assault on the Supreme Court and the independence of the judiciary" in the nation's history.

★ ★ ★

But Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C., urging their enactment, told the Senate Monday the Supreme Court has invented new, arbitrary and unrealistic rules that impede police in bringing criminals to justice.

The proposals are part of a broad crime-control bill which has been before the Senate for three weeks.

MAY BE ADMISSIBLE

They provide that a confession be admissible as evidence in any federal criminal case when the judge decides it was voluntarily given.

A confession could not be ruled out just because of delay in arraignment after a suspect's arrest. Nor could it be invalidated because a suspect had not been advised by police of his right to remain silent or not advised to get a lawyer before questioning.

★ ★ ★

'SOME BALANCE'

The American Bar Association's board of governors said it also opposes the proposals.

But Sen. Herman G. Talmadge, D-Ga., said their approval would "restore some balance to our system of justice—a system which has become far too weighted in favor of the criminal."

Under the proposals, federal courts would be denied authority to reverse a ruling of any state court admitting a confession in evidence as voluntarily given if this had been upheld by the highest court in the state.

Also, the bill provides that eyewitness testimony shall be admissible in evidence in federal and state criminal trials and bars the federal courts from reviewing the admission of such testimony in state trials.

This is designed to overcome a Supreme Court ruling last year barring in-court identification of a defendant by an eyewitness to a crie if the original identification was made in a police lineup without a lawyer for the suspect being present.

JURISDICTION DISPUTE

Another provision would deny federal courts jurisdiction in habeas corpus actions challenging the legality of the detention of persons convicted in state courts.

Ervin said this was designed to relieve overburdened federal courts from the growing practice of convicted persons using habeas corpus procedures as a substitute for direct appeal.

★ ★ ★

But Tydings said it was unthinkable "to suspend the great writ of habeas corpus." He said if it could be done for one class of citizens, it could be done for others.

Reds Score Gains in Italian Elections

ROME (AP) — The Christian Democrat and Communist parties scored major gains in Italy's elecionts for a new Parliament. Final returns today gave the Communists their biggest vote in postwar history.

The Roman Catholic Christian Democrats and their enemies, the Communists, improved their positions in both the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate. The chief losers was the Socialists, which had hoped to recover from the defection of its leftist elements. Instead they came out a poor third in the multiparty race.

★ ★ ★

The coalition comprises the Christian Democrats, the small Republican party and the Socialists. The first two gained more seats than the Socialists lost.

32 MILLION VOTE

Nearly 32 million persons voted in the election for 315 senators and 630 deputies. They will take their seats in a new Parliament June 5.

The fascists and the Monarchists also lost ground.

Finals results gave the three coalition parties 366 seats in the Chamber and 183 in the Senate compared with 361 and 179 in the previous Parliament. This gave the coalition a 102-seat majority in the Chamber and a 51-seat majority in the Senate.

The astonishing Communist vote totalled 8,555,131 in the Chamber balloting, compared with 12,428,663 for the dominant Christian Democrats. The Christian Democrats percentage of the total was 39.1, compared to 38.5 per cent in the last elections in 1963.

HIGHEST VOTE YET

The Communist vote, 26.9 per cent of the total, was 1.6 per cent higher than it had ever polled before.

The Red performance soundly contradicted forecasts that the Vietnam peace talks in Paris, the upheaval in Czechoslovakia and unrest in neighboring France would weaken the party at the polls.

★ ★ ★

In the Senate the Communists ran on the same ticket with the Moscow-oriented Proletarian Socialist party and together they captured 30 per cent of the vote. The Proletarian Socialists were leftist defectors from the traditional Socialist party and the principle cause of the latter's losses.

House Turns to Question of Longer Terms

LANSING (AP)—House members had before them today a proposal to lengthen their terms of office from two years to four, an issue that touched off a partisan battle in the chamber Monday.

Defeated, however, was another proposed constitutional amendment — one outlawing Michigan State University's sliding-scale tuition system.

Sent to the governor were bills to repeal the state's Criminal Sexual Psychopath Law, requiring windshields on most motor vehicles, add 10 cents to the price of a fishing license and permit legislators to run for other offices during their terms.

Few representatives oppose giving themselves four-year terms, but politically they disagree on whether they should run in presidential election years, or in off-years with the governor and the Senate. Senators now have four-year terms.

In the past two elections, admitted Rep. James Farnsworth. R-Plainwell, "It just happens that the Republicans did much better when they ran with the governor (in 1966) than when they ran with the president (in 1964). Now it's just that simple."

A Republican-sponsored proposal for running in off-years failed 25-62, drawing only one Democratic vote. Final action then was put off.

Saginaw Man Convicted of First-Degree Murder

DETROIT (AP) — A 23-year-old man accused of slaying four persons was convicted of first-degree murder Monday in the death of a Saginaw couple.

A jury of 10 men and two women found William Eddington Jr. of Saginaw guilty in the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Middledorf Feb. 3, 1967.

The jury deliberated more than four hours before delivering its verdict. Circuit Judge Fred J. Borchard set the date for sentencing as May 31. The trial was moved to Detroit on a change of venue due to extensive publicity of the case in Saginaw.

The Middeldorf bodies were found two days after the killings. Middeldorf, 63, was found tied up in the bedroom of his home with a piece of plastic over his head, several small knife wounds, and an eight-inch butcher knife in his back. His wife was found in the bathroom, where she was drowned.

ANOTHER TRIAL

Eddington faces another trial June 10 on charges of first-degree murder in the slayings of Dr. and Mrs. Archer A. Claytor of Saginaw, Feb. 1, 1967.

The trial is scheduled for Ludington on another change of venue.

★ ★ ★

Ronald L. Johnson, 24, of Saginaw is also charged in the murders of the Claytors. His trial date has not been set.

Claytor was found in his home beaten over the head, possibly with a hammer and then shot. His wife was shot to death.

Claytor was named Michigan's Foremost Physician of the year in 1959. He was the doctor who delivered Eddington and Johnson.

Board Excuses Teacher's Strip

FLINT (AP) — The School Board in Burton Township has ruled against firing a 24-year-old sex education teacher who reportedly stripped before her all-girl class to emphasize a point.

The alleged action six weeks ago by the unidentified teacher raised the ire of many parents, who demanded her dismissal, along with that of junior high school Principal C.F. Heidtke.

The Bentley School District board, meeting in special session Monday night, concluded there was insufficient evidence to justify dismissal of the teacher or the principal.

"We find she had intentions in the best interests of her students," said Gerald Felger, school board president. "She erred in judgment by using herself as a model. Thus her methods, action and words were misinterpreted by some of her students," he added.

Theaters Shut

PARIS (AP) — Many of the best known theaters in Paris, including the Folies Bergeres, were shut by strikes Monday. A spokesman at the Folies Bergeres said he refunded ticket money when his staff was reduced because of the strike.

The only wild horses on earth today are the tarpan found on the plains of the Altai Mountain region and extreme western Mongolia.

OCCEO to Hear Progress Report on Legal Aid Plan

A report on the progress of its legal aid program will be heard by the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OCCEO) at its meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The group will meet at the OCCEO central office, 1 W. Lafayette, in downtown Pontiac.

An expanded legal aid program for the poor was started in April using an additional $82,000 U.S. grant.

Four full-time lawyers were added to the staff, along with other personnel, and the expanded program has been under way for about six weeks.

★ ★ ★

Gold-Mining Shares Rally

Market Down, Trade Heavy

NEW YORK (AP) — Gold-mining shares staged another rally early today as the over-all stock market declined in heavy trading. The ticker tape was late.

Losses outnumbered gains by 125 issues or so on the New York Stock Exchange. The Dow Jones Industrial Average was off about a point.

* * *

Gold-mining shares responded to a rise in the price of gold bullion to more than $42 an ounce. Homestake and American-South African gained about 2 points each, Campbell Red Lake, Dome Mines and McIntyre Porcupine more than a point each.

Engelhard Minerals & Chemicals, major domestic dealer in gold, also rose more than 2 points in active trading.

ACQUISITION'S EFFECT

International Telephone was off a fraction in the first reaction to news it had agreed to acquire Continental Baking. The latter was delayed in opening.

Gains of about a point were posted for McDonnell Douglas, Seaboard Finance, Ling-Temco-Vought and Merck.

Off a point or so were Commercial Credit, Katy Industries, Gulf & Western and RCA.

Some analysts expected the market to rally after its string of declines last week. The drop continued despite good news of a strong advance in housing starts, a forecast of record levels of steel shipments, and a climb in motor truck sales.

* * *

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Fractional gains were made by Burma Mines, Campbell-Chibougamau, Reliance Insurance, Universal Marion, Bunker-Ramo, Stein, Hall & Co.

CWA Workers OK New Pact

Work to Start Today; Detroit Locals Rebel

By The Associated Press

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. workers were expected back on the job throughout Michigan today after Communications Workers of America members ratified a contract with the company.

The vote announced Sunday by CWA officials was 7,111-5,208.

Walter R. Schaar, CWA District 4 president, said the result clearly demonstrated "that the members want to and will vote if given a sensible opportunity and that they will vote their true convictions in the privacy of their homes."

The vote was conducted by mail.

REBELS IN DETROIT

In Detroit, though, where some rebellious locals had refused an earlier CWA order to return to work pending the ratification vote, a union official remained unsatisfied with the contract.

The ratification, said Norman G. Mackay, president of CWA Local 4000 in Detroit, "does not in any way indicate our satisfaction with the contract."

* * *

The local has 5,000 members, more than 25 per cent of the total 18,000 CWA members in Michigan. It and two other locals, 4015 in Plymouth and 4016 in Royal Oak, Detroit suburbs, remained on strike after the first CWA order to return to work.

Mackay said, though, that Local 4000 would return to work this time.

'WON'T BE PUSHED'

"We view the stand taken by our membership with heartfelt gratitude," he added, however. "We are determined that we never will be pushed around again."

Mackay said, though, that Local 4000 members would not cross Western Electric Co. picket lines. Western Electric is the arm of Michigan Bell representing installers. The results of a contract ratification vote by Western Electric workers has not been tabulated yet.

Wall Street Desperate

Clerk Shortage Felt

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AB Business Analyst

NEW YORK — What Wall Street needs today more than new issues or higher volume or perhaps even more than bullish news, is clerks.

CUNNIFF

Never in recent history, in fact, have the big financial institutions been so dependent upon the worker who can handle paper with speed and acuracy under constant pressure and while working long hours.

* * *

Continued high volume and the slowness of the industry to computerize some operations are generally regarded as the reasons for the big demand for clerks.

Reflecting the shortage, a partner of one nationwide brokerage house complained that no sooner had his firm trained novices than they were hired away for more money as experienced workers.

TUITION HELP

High school graduates without experience can begin as high as $100 a week, and in some instances help is provided with day or night school tuition.

One firm in the past week offered "rank biginners" $5,000 a year and agreed to train them for jobs as margin clerks paying $8,800 a year, plus quarterly and annual bonuses.

* * *

To say that clerks and administrative and supervisory personnel are urgently needed would be an understatement. They are needed desperately, for the growth and income of more than a few firms is threatened by their inability to handle backroom or "cage" operations.

During the past week the investment community was surprised if not shocked to learn that Lehman Brothers, one of the world's most prestigious investment bankers, was one of the firms caught in a clerical bind.

ONLY PART

Lehman could produce the volume without great problems. It could share in the increased trading of institutional investors. It could handle the purchases for its large customers. But the sale is only part of the transaction.

The problem for Lehman, and many houses, is that its clerical operation is temporarily unable to keep up with the volume of business. The strain apparently caused clerical errors and delays which tied up funds.

* * *

As a result, Lehman Brothers reportedly has told the New York Stock Exchange that it will refrain from expanding its brokerage business until it can resolve clerical difficulties.

This is not an exceptional case. Other firms also are suffering backroom problems, partly because they have emphasized sales and somethimes ignored the need for more clerks to handle these increased sales.

BACK-UP PERSONNEL

Some of these firms have been ordered by the New York Stock Exchange to restrict their growth until they can hire and train more backup personnel. Others have received an advisory letter on the need for more workers.

"A failure to match production capacity with operations capacity may very well result in future problems and could bring exchange restrictions on growth of a firm's business," the letter warned.

* * *

The problems, however, are no more peculiar to the future than they are to the past and present. Twice the back office load has forced the Big Board to shorten trading hours in the past year so brokers could catch up on paperwork.

Still, the heavy volume in recent weeks has resulted in a continuation of errors in customer accounts, in delays in delivering stock certificates and in other failures to transact business properly.

MORE ERRORS

What apparently worries the stock exchange as much as anything is that continued high volume might result merely in a continued high volume of errors unless the ratio of salesmen to backroom workers changes.

The advisory letter suggested that brokerage houses should aim to recruit and train two operational, administrative or supervisoury persons for each salesman hired.

* * *

As for clerks, that's as bullish as any recent news from Wall Street.

Waterford Will Appeal Ruling on Longer Terms

An Oakland County Circuit Court ruling that declared a state law extending the terms of incumbent township officers as unconstitutional will be appealed by the Waterford Township Board.

The board approved the action in a 5 to 1 vote at its regular weekly meeting last night.

Township Attorney Calvin E. Patterson said he was ready to file an appeal later this week with the Michigan Court of Appeals.

★ ★ ★

Because of the importance of the public question and the lack of time for candidates to file nominating petitions, Patterson said he also would request that the Supreme Court immediately consider the issue. June 18 is the deadline for filing nominating petitions.

STRUCK DOWN ACTION

Circuit Judge William J. Beer struck down the legislative action on May 6 after three Waterford Township residents filed suit against Township Clerk Arthur J. Salley for not accepting their nominating peitions.

Salley refused the petitions on the grounds that the Legislature, in extending the terms of those in office, had canceled any elections this year for township offices.

★ ★ ★

The state statute was designed to eliminate the lame duck period affecting township officers who were elected in November but do not assume office until the following April.

Under the provision of the law, township officers elected in 1966 would continue in office until Nov. 20, 1970, 18 months longer than the terms to which they were elected.

Beer ruled that the law deprived persons from running for office and denied the right of voters to fill the offices with whom they wanted.

Township Supervisor Elmer R. Johnson said that if Judge Beer's decision is affirmed, he and other members of the board affected by the ruling, will pay for the cost of the appeal.

Visiting Mayor Points to Parallel

Pontiac, Ypsi Problems Alike

By BOB WISLER

Two major problems which continue to plague Pontiac — housing and finances for city government — also are the bane of Ypsilanti, visiting Mayor John H. Burton revealed yesterday.

Burton and Ypsilanti Mayor Pro Tem Vaughn E. Filsinger toured Pontiac and exchanged information with city officials during Mayors Exchange Day, a regular feature of Michigan Week. The Ypsilanti officials were accompanied by their wives.

★ ★ ★

The other part of the exchange — the visit of Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. to Ypsilanti — was cut short by the sudden illness of Taylor's mother-in-law.

Taylor, after being greeted in Ypsilanti and getting part-way through a tour of Eastern Michigan University, was informed of the illness about 11 a.m. He left immediately with his wife for Canada where her mother lives.

EVENTS CANCELED

The remainder of the scheduled activities in Ypsilanti were canceled by Ypsilanti officials.

Burton, one of Michigan's three Negro mayors (the others are at Flint and Saginaw), was elected mayor of his city by fellow councilmen this spring. He is entering his 20th year as either a city councilman or alderman for Ypsilanti and is the first Negro to serve as mayor of that city.

★ ★ ★

He said he was enthused by a number of steps being taken in Pontiac — creation of a downtown parking mall, construction of low-cost housing, and attempts to renovate the downtown area through urban renewal.

Burton said the problems of Ypsilanti are similar to those of Pontiac and are typical of most urban communities in the United States.

Ypsilanti is a town of 25,000 residents, of which about 25 per cent are Negro. It is the site of a number of manufacturing plants and Eastern Michigan University, which this year has an enrollment of approximately 14,000 students.

Burton said Ypsilanti has had an urban-renewal program which has been marked by lack of success and legal difficulties. Burton said the city is on the right track now.

About 120 new houses have been constructed for low-income residents and the city is building another 102 units. There are plans for a high-rise development for senior citizens, Burton said.

INTEREST IN HOUSING

Burton said he was especially interested in the Pontiac programs for construction of 221d3 housing (federally financed housing by a private developer limited to persons of low and medium income).

Burton said adequate financing for city programs is a definite problem even though Ypsilanti can levy up to 20 mills per thousand dollars of valuation against property (compared to the 10-mill levy

Harriman Talks to French Leader

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman conferred with Charles de Gaulle today amid increasing speculation that other powers may intervene with North Vietnam and the United States to assist Vietnamese peace negotiations.

Emerging from Elysee Palace, Harriman trated his visit purely as a courtesy call, saying he had thanked the French president for his hospitality to the American negotiating team. But U.S. officials believe that at some point de Gaulle may have an important role to play in encouraging accords to end the war.

★ ★ ★

North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy was scheduled to see de Gaulle later in the day.

A spokesman for Thuy slightly expanded Hanoi's public statements on how the next phase of the negotiations may develop —if the present first phase succeeds.

WOULD BE PREPARED

Nguyen Thanh Le told a news conference that if the United States ends the bombing and other attacks on North Vietnam his government would be prepared to discuss a political settlement for Vietnam based on the 1954 Geneva accords. Those accords ended the French-Indochina war and set up the division of Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

In the past the North Vietnamese position has been expressed as readiness to talk on problems of concern to the United States and North Vietnam once the U.S. attacks ended. Today he said they could discuss "questions relative to a political settlement of the Vietnamese problem, on the basis of the 1954 Geneva accords.

★ ★ ★

Both Harriman and Le said they saw no reason for moving the talks from Paris because of the strikes which have virtually paralyzed the nation's economic life and confronted de Gaulle with a massive political crisis.

TALKS IN RECESS

The talks were in recess again today. Harriman and Thuy meet tomorrow for their fourth session. Their last previous talk was Saturday. They have been here almost two weeks and have spent about 10½ hours together. Harriman has said he thinks the talks are going about as expected.

U.S. officials expect Britain, France and the Soviet Union to play some part in carrying the talks forward.

★ ★ ★

British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart will fly to Moscow tomorrow to confer with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The two men are cochairmen of the Indochinese peace machinery created in 1954 and could be instrumental in arranging a peace conference if progress in the Paris talks ever warrants one.

★ ★ ★

Even more important, in the view of diplomats here, is the Soviet government's influence on Hanoi. This is believed to have grown in the past year or so at the expense of Red China. As Peking's policy has fallen into the paralyzing grip of internal crisis, Vietnamese reliance on the Soviets is believed to have increased.

U.S. authorities welcomed Stewart's decision to go to Moscow, and Harriman sent him a report yesterday on the Paris discussions so far.

98 Passengers Flee Ship Fire

LONDON (AP) — Fire aboard the 5,000-ton Norwegian cruise ship Blenheim today forced her 98 passengers and most of her crew of 80 to abandon ship in the middle of the North Sea. One passenger was reported injured.

A skeleton crew stayed aboard to fight the fire. Tugs arrived to join in the effort.

★ ★ ★

Two Danish fishing trawlers relieved the Blenheim's lifeboats of about 65 of the passengers and took them to the Danish port of Esbjerg.

The sea was calm as rescue ships, planes and helicopters converged 170 miles west off the Danish harbor of Tyboron. They were summoned from Britain, Scandinavia and the Netherlands.

REPORT IN ERROR

Reports to the British Defense Ministry said the ship was sinking, but they proved erroneous.

Reports from the scene said there were 89 passengers and 78 crewmen aboard, but the ship's owners, the Fred Olsen Line, raised these figures.

★ ★ ★

The fire broke out in midmorning as the ship was halfway across the North Sea on a regular run from Newcastle to Oslo.

Cause of the fire was not known in London.

15 PICKED UP

The first rescue ship to arrive, the Danish trawler Gina Wulff, took 15 passengers from the lifeboats. Other craft hurried to pickup the rest.

Later the Smit Lloyd 3, a small Dutch supply vessel, reached the scene. Her owners said she would try to tow the Blenheim to a safe harbor with the help of two German tugs.

Police Force Sit-In End

NEW YORK (AP) — About 100 policemen forced their way into the Brooklyn College registrar's office early today to remove 43 demonstrators who had staged a day-long sit-in to demand admission of more Negroes and Puerto Ricans to the school.

Sunday Liquor Bill Revived in Senate

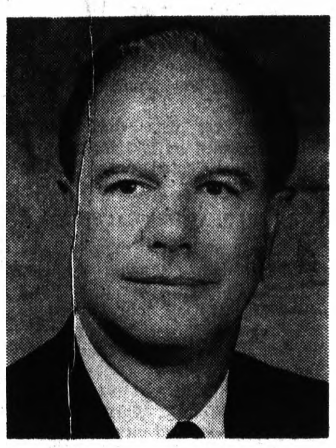

LANSING (AP)—Sale of liquor on Sunday — a proposal defeated earlier this session — emerged again last night as the Senate approved an amendment permitting counties to decide the controversial question.

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, tacked the proposal on a bill requiring the Liquor Control Commission to notify county prosecutors of liquor violations by minors. The bill was advanced to final voting stage.

Lockwood's amendment, defeated once this session, permits counties to conduct a referendum to decide whether to sell liquor on Sunday.

If approved by a majority of voters, liquor would be sold by establishments whose gross receipts from sale of food and other services exceed 50 per cent of their total business.

TRAFFIC PLAN—Creation of a downtown parking mall on North Saginaw between Huron and Lawrence necessitates routing traffic off Saginaw during the hours the downtown stores are open. Southbound traffic can turn left, but turns to the right are the most convenient for skirting the mall. The traffic pattern calls for southbound traffic to follow West Huron to Wayne, south on Wayne to Lawrence and east on Lawrence to North Saginaw. Northbound traffic must turn right on Lawrence—a one-way eastbound street—then can turn left on Perry and left on East Huron to best get back to North Saginaw. Store hours will dictate the hours the mall is in operation.

C. HUGH DOHANY

Southfield Man Seeks County Treasurer Post

Southfield City Treasurer C. Hugh Dohany announced today that he will be a Republican candidate for the office of Oakland County treasurer in the August primary election.

Dohany has been an elected official in Southfield since its incorporation more than 10 years ago. He has served as charter commissioner, councilman, council president and city treasurer.

As a former member of the board of supervisors, his committee appointments included building and grounds, cooperative extension service, auditor general-local taxes, veteran affairs and ways and means.

LIBRARY BOARD MEMBER

Dohany, 48, left his position two years ago as a field supervisor of the marketing division of Detroit Edison Co. after 26 years to devote full time to his duties as treasurer.

Dohany said he would see that the county treasurer's office would be "operated like a business, efficiently and economically."

Under his direction, the Southfield treasurer's office is the first in the state to be fully computerized.

"Local and county government is far behind industry in automation and if it is to exist on present tax levels it must attract capable officials with know-how of modern business methods," he added.

Crisis Worsens; DeGaulle Waits

PARIS (AP) — France's massive crisis worsened today, with more than one third of the nation's workers on strike, but President Charles de Gaulle's government still did nothing.

The Gaullist governing coalition expressed confidence it would survive a parliamentary vote on a censure motion tomorrow night, but it gave no indication what it would do about the workers' revolt for higher pay, shorter hours and job security.

Related Story, Page C-12

★ ★ ★

Nearly 6 million of the nation's 16 million workers were on strike, 250 factories were idle, and the movement was still growing. And unlike previous French strikes of 24 to 48 hours, no limit was put on these walkouts and sit-ins.

The strikes stopped trains, subways, buses, taxis and garbage collection in Paris and closed coal mines, airports and seaports. Some tourists were stranded. Lines formed at food and tobacco ships, banks and gasoline stations.

FEW POLICEMEN

Amid a monstrous traffic jam in Paris, made worse by cars that were abandoned after running out of gasoline, few policemen were in sight. Although not on strike, many apparently stayed home.

Facing the gravest threat yet posed to his 10-year-old Fifth Republic, De Gaulle has made no public statement since breaking off a visit to Romania Saturday and returning to the Elysee Palace. He is to address the nation on television Friday night, and there was no indication of what he planned for a situation strongly reminiscent of the turmoil that brought him back to power in 1958. Opposition political leaders conferred with trade union leaders yesterday in preparation for their attempt in the National Assembly to oust Premier Georges Pompidou and his Cabinet.

★ ★ ★

The French Communist party called for an end to the De Gaulle regime and the formation of "a true republican regime opening the way to socialism."

★ ★ ★

A successful censure motion in Parliament would not oust De Gaulle, whose term runs until 1972, but would be a major setback to his policies.

SAME DEMANDS

George Seguy, secretary-general of the big Communist-backed General Confederation of Labor, said in a speech that the striking workers will present their same demands to whatever government is in office until they obtain satisfaction.

★ ★ ★

Court Extends Jury Trial Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defendants in all but "petty" criminal cases are entitled to the chance to be tried by juries, a precedent-shattering Supreme Court has ruled.

The ruling, one of several expanding the rights of criminal defendants, made the jury trial guarantee of the sixth amendment to the U. S. Constitution binding on the states.

At the same time, also by a 7-2 vote, the court erased the distinction between criminal contempt and other crimes and put "serious" contempt cases under the jury-trial rule.

In two other decisions, meanwhile, the court junked longstanding decisions. It said a man cannot be tried fairly if the jury hears a codefendant's confession incriminating him. And it said prisoners do not have to complete their sentences before testing additional sentences that await them.

★ ★ ★

Along with the criminal law decisions, the court opened shopping centers to mass picketing, gave illegitimate children equal treatment under the law and set the stage for consideration next fall of the speeded induction of Vietnam war protesters.

Force Lands as Haiti Bombed

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Unidentified planes dropped four bombs on Port au Prince yesterday without causing any damage and also attacked the city of Cap Haitien with bombs and a landing of armed men, officials said.

Haiti's ambassador in Washington blamed Haitian exiles and Cubans, and the Haitian consul in Miami, Fla., said, "More than 4,000 Haitian workers have been trained in Cuba for guerrilla warfare."

In Port au Prince, one bomb exploded near the palace of President Francois Duvalier. He was not hurt. Three other bombs, including one which hit the military airfield, did not explode, said Aubelin Jolicoeur of the newspaper Le Nouvelliste.

Ambassador Arthur Bonhomme said in Washington: "The planes which landed the armed men at Cap Haitien are on the ground, and the Haitian army believes it has surrounded the men who landed and has them under attack. We should know pretty soon who are the attackers."

★ ★ ★

Consul Eugene Maximilien said in Miami that reports late Monday night indicated the "exile men" who landed at Cap Haitien, 85 miles north of Port au Prince, were under siege but still holding their positions.

'Blue Flu' Ends for Bus Drivers

Yesterday 12 out of 18 drivers failed to show up for work, reporting themselves sick, and two of the city's five lines were shut down.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for Pontiac Transit Co. said today a disagreement between management and the men had been resolved. The spokesman didn't elaborate.

New School Head in W. Bloomfield

The West Bloomfield school board officially hired a new superintendent last night to fill the vacancy of Dr. Leif Hougen, whose contract expires June 30.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Witham said he signed his contract before the meeting yesterday. He was chosen from at least 60 other candidates.

The West Bloomfield board had voted in early February not to extend the contract of Hougen, who had held the superintendent's position 16 years.

The basic amount of Witham's annual salary is $22,000. Hougen had received $22,5000 a year. Witham's present salary in Monroe is $18,000, he said.

He said he wanted to discuss further with Pontiac officials the implementation of a city income tax with the possibility this could be used by Ypsilanti to solve money woes.

★ ★ ★

Burton said that although Ypsilanti's urban renewal program has been in the works longer than Pontiac's, he definitely feels that urban renewal can accomplish much toward creating housing that is lacking for low and medium income families.

GOOD RELATIONS

Burton said his city has good community relations at the moment and almost full employment. He said the city could experience problems if the large manufacturing plants have big layoffs.

To avert possible problems in this area several groups, including the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce and the city are working on programs to hire youths during summer months.

Burton, 57, a native of St. Louis, Mo., came to Ypsilanti in 1936 and was employed as a tool and die maker in the Ford Motor Co. plant.

He was active in union activities and shortly after his arrival became a full-time worker for the United Auto Workers. He is an official in the political education division of the UAW Solidarity House.

ELECTED IN 1946

He was first elected to the city's board of aldermen in 1946 and became a councilman in 1947 after the city changed its charter. He was a councilman until 1948, sat out one term, and was reelected in 1950.

★ ★ ★

He served continuously from then until 1966 when he did not seek reelection. He was reelected in 1967.

★ ★ ★

For the past three years he has been a member of the Washtenaw County oBard of Supervisors.

Filsinger, 36, was elected to the Ypsilanti council in 1967 for a two-year term. He was elected mayor pro-tem in April.

A long-term supporter of a sports complex at the Michigan State Fair Grounds, Law recently was heartened by the fact that the state approved a $200,000 expenditure to study his plan for the recreation development.

He said, however, that if the law is declared constitutional, it should be considered a normal expenditure of the township.

Objecting to the township paying any legal fees to appeal was Patrick K. Daly, one of the three residents who had challenged the statute.

Talks Slated on Transfer of Rubbish

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set a formal date of June 10 for discussion of the Southeast Oakland County Incinerator Authority's proposed rubbish transfer.

The commission received a report from the transfer station study committee, but took no action because it had previously pledged to notify two home owners' associations prior to a decision.

The two groups, the Sheffield Estates and Pembroke Manor civic associations, have objected to the sale of city-owned property on Collidge north of 14 Mile in Troy for a site for the station.

The commission also approved the rezoning of four lots in the south Woodward area to the city's new R-8 row or town-house classification.

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Rumors from a very reliable source have reached this corner that Pontiac's long time dream of having an arena-auditorium complex is closer to reality.

If the rumors bear true that some announcement of this is due within a few days, it could be the most prolific venture to rejuvenate the city and its downtown ever undertaken in Pontiac.

Most notable story of what other cities have done to help themselves is the unbelievable success story of the city of Duluth, Minnesota.

A few years back, Duluth, similar in city size as that of Pontiac, but with a metropolitan area one-fifth of that of north Oakland County, was considered the most depressed area in all of the midwest.

Its downtown was dying and its overall economy was near tragic proportions.

APPROVE CONSTRUCTION

On Aug. 6, 1966, after three years of study, surveys of 150 similar structures in the country, Duluth inaugurated its magnificent facility.

One year later, Aug. 1967 these are the startling facts revealed by the Duluth Arena-Auditorium board:

1. There were 782 events held in the complex. This is an average of more than two a day.

2. Total attendance in the complex in the first year was 782,500 people, or almost eight times the metropolitan area of Duluth.

3. A total of 120,000 convention delegates spent an average of $35 per person per day and local expenditure amounted to $10 per person a day.

4. This meant that $7 million was spent through all segments in the city.

5. It also showed that payroll checks amounting to $272,000 in salaries were distributed and that $250,000 changed hands in purchases with local businesses.

6. In one year, $10 million in business building was begun in the area of arena and the projection called for $50 million in business construction within 10 years.

To go into detail on the structural part of the complex would take columns of words and adjectives, but to quote two famous personalities Bennet Cerf, "Duluth has joined the big leagues"; Paul Harvey, "Duluth has entered a new dimension in vitality."

NEW FLINT ARENA

In Michigan, the city of Flint has become the front-runner of cities in the state which have placed their faith in such complexes which are directed at the social, recreational, physical and educational needs of their citizens.

★ ★ ★

Newest additions in Flint include the twin-winged ice arenas and a franchise in the International Hockey League, and the addition of an astro-turf football field, one of only three in the country, which will be tested this fall.

Any announcement which may be forthcoming for Pontiac in the league of Michigan arena cities would be the most welcomed news in this city's annals.

8 Amateur Golfers in USGA Sectional

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Although the professionals were on hand to pick up the lion's share of honors, it was, nevertheless, a banner day for the amateurs in the opening phase of the USGA Open qualifying yesterday.

The pros plucked 16 of the 24 berths that were up for grabs in the 'local' qualifying round, and the 24 who made the grade will now move on to the 'sectional' phase of the competition June 3 at Knollwood Country Club in Birmingham.

FINAL STOP

Survivors from the sectional tournament then move to Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y., for the championship proper, June 13-16.

★ ★ ★

Heading the pack in yesterday's 36-hole grind over Forest Lake and Indianwood country clubs was former state amateur champion Melvin (Bud) Stevens, who carded an even par 72-71 — 143 to lead the field of 113 by three shots.

TAKES SECOND

Robert Clark of Monroe, a professional, grabbed the runner-up spot while the next three positions were taken by amateurs.

On the list at 147 were Jim St. Germain, a student at Eastern Michigan University, former amateur and Michigan Open champion Charles Kocsis of Red Run, and current Golf Association of Michigan champion Peter Green of Orchard Lake Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Rounding out the list of amateurs landing berths in the sectional were Tom Draper of Royal Oak, John U. Law of Birmingham and Tim Kilpelainen of Western Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Three pros bunched at 148 were Stan Brion of Tam O'Shanter, David M. Dunn of Holland, O., and Gene Bone of Bay Pointe Golf Club.

FOURTH MEDAL

For the 35-year-old Stevens, it was the fourth time he's bagged medalist honors in the 'Local' phase of the qualifying.

At the sectional, Stevens will be trying for his fourth trip to the U. S. Open. He made it in 1961, '65 and '66. He failed by a couple of shots in the 'local' qualifying last year.

★ ★ ★

Stevens' steady round included four birdies and a quartet of bogies. He matched par-72 over Indianwood's hilly 6,904 yards in the morning round and stayed at an even-par 71 over the 6,405-yard Forest Lake layout in the afternoon.

The cutoff came at 152 and seven players had to battle in a playoff for four spots.

WIN IN PLAYOFF

Bone, former Michigan Open and PGA champ, had his tee-to-green game working but seven three-putt greens pushed him well off Stevens' pace.

BOOTS BENGAL'S BOUNCER — Minnesota third sacker Rich Rollins (left) circles back to pick up ground ball he dropped off the bat of Detroit Tiger hitter Willie Horton in the fourth inning last night at Bloomington, Minn. The error prolonged a rally, enabling the Tigers to cut a 3-1 Twin lead to 3-2. Shortstop Cesar Tovar backs up Rollins. Two more errors in the 10th inning handed the Tigers a 4-3 triumph.

Twins' Errors Hand Bengals 4-3 Triumph

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Denny McLain has been emulating Cuban curveballer Camilo Pascual, and the sturdy Detroit right-hander says it's paying off for him.

McLain threw a three-run home run pitch to Minnesota's Dick Reese Monday night, but bided his time and let the Twins give him his sixth victory against one defeat, 4-3 in 10 innings.

Three of the Tigers' runs were unearned off loser Jim Merritt, and Detroit scored its winning run in the 10th without a base hit as the Twins committed their third and fourth errors.

WATCHES PASCUAL

"The biggest thing," said McLain, who leads the American League with six complete games, "is that I've been watching Camilo Pascual, who I think has the best curve I've ever seen.

★ ★ ★

"I was watching him Sunday, and he reaches way back to throw his curve. I've been short-arming my curve, bringing my arm up close to my shoulder instead of reaching way back. You might give a runner a little more chance that way, but that hitter still has to get a hit to score the run."

Pinpoint control also has returned for McLain. "Two years ago I had trouble with wildness and I had the same trouble last year. I couldn't get my curve over.

NO WALKS GIVEN

McLain didn't walk a man for the third time this season.

Twins' Manager Cal Ermer had two late-inning defensive replacements blow up in his face. But Ermer steadfastly defended his moves of inserting Jackie Hernandez at shortstop and Ron Clark at third base.

★ ★ ★

Hernandez' throwing error with two out in the 10th let Al Kaline reach second, then Clark let Bill Freehan's grounder get away from him to allow Kaline to score the winning run.

DEFENDS MOVES

"This is the first time this year they've beaten us." Ermer said of his defensive moves. "I know good and well the men I put in there are better defensively than the men I had in there for their hitting the first part of the game.

★ ★ ★

"I'd make that move again. I think you've got to make it in trying to protect a lead."

Central Announces New Cage Coaches

Principal Garth Errington Monday afternoon announced that 36-year-old Ralph Grubb and 32-year-old Earl McKee will be the PCH varsity and reserve coaches, respectively, next season.

Both will be familiar to the players and rate their respect. Grubb guided the PCH sophomore squads for seven seasons, and has led the jayvees to a 63-15 mark in the past five seasons.

★ ★ ★

Oddly, the junior varsity had a 14-1 mark in his first season at the helm and its win total has decreased by one each season at the helm and its win total has decreased by one each season, down to 11-5 this past winter.

EXPERIENCE

"We wanted someone who had had some years' experience coaching (not necessarily varsity) Class A basketball," Errington said of the search of the varsity coach.

Grubb has spent 13 years in the Pontiac school system since graduating fron Eastern Michigan University in 1953 after lettering for three seasons in basketball.

RESERVE JOB

In all, about a dozen applicants were interviewed for the two jobs.

McKee, a familiar figure to followers of the city recreation basketball, softball and baseball leagues, has been the No. 1 coach at Jefferson Junior High School for four years, with a 31-9 cage mark.

★ ★ ★

At Central, the Western Michigan University graduate will join the physical education staff in addition to his basketball and assistant track coach duties.

On the PCH track staff he will replace Brian Castle who is becoming an elementary school principal.

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins are in the trade market while looking ahead to the National Hockey League player draft June 9 in Montreal.

"It's safe to say that we're looking to talk trade with anyone" Boston General Manager Milt Schmidt said Monday night after the Bruins sent Skip Krake to the Los Angeles Kings.

Canham Requests Big 10 to Study Track Meet Film

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten Games Committee is planning a study of films of last Saturday's outdoor track meet with the possibility that Michigan—not Minnesota—will be declared the winner.

Minnesota compiled 50 points to edge Michigan, with 49 points, and Wisconsin, with 48.

ASKS FILM STUDY

However, Michigan Coach Don Canham has asked for a film study to determine if Minnesota's Rich Simonsen or Michigan's Sol Espie finished third in the 220-yard dash behind Minnesota's Hubie Bryant and Michigan's Leon Grundstein.

Simonsen was awarded third place but if there is a switch made giving Espie third place, Michigan will win the title with Minnesota second.

Commissioner Bill Reed was not available for comment but a Big Ten spokesman said still pictures from video tapes will be studied by the committee composed of coaches Bob Wright of Illinois and Dave Rankin of Purdue and a decision should be reached in a couple of weeks.

PAST CHANGES

If a switch is made because of the films, it will not be the first time. Last year Michigan picked up additional points because of film results and placed third ahead of Wisconsin.

SANDY PROBLEM — Melvin (Bud) Stevens of Livonia found a little trouble on this sixth hole at Forest Lake yesterday in the 'local' phase of the U.S. Open qualifying. Stevens blasted out, the ball scooting six feet past the pin, and his putt for a par-4 stopped six inches short. Despite this bogey, Stevens managed an even par round and went on to lead the qualifying field with a 143 total.

Fans, Club Cheer Howard

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank Howard's first game before the cheering hometown fans after his second homer binge wasn't one he's likely to long treasure — but he won't soon forget the treasury he took home afterward.

★ ★ ★

Before some 9,000 Washington Senator fans who gave him a lusty, minute-long ovation — wildly applauding his historic feat of 10 home runs in six games — Howard was hit by a pitch in the first inning. The next three times at bat, the mammoth slugger fanned.

But any disappointment the 6-foot-7, 270-pounder felt at his performance in the Senators' 6-1 shellacking by the New York Yankees was quickly erased when he reached the clubhouse at game's end.

★ ★ ★

Waiting for him with a new contract was Washington General Manager George Selkirk. Although its figures weren't announced, it was believed the pact raised Howard's pay to about $56,000 — or about $7,000 more than the one he signed last spring after a two-week holdout.

Anti-Turbine Speculation Mounts at '500' Race

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Speculation mounted today that a new concerted effort will be made soon to ban turbine-powered cars from the 500-mile Speedway auto race..

Pressure to that effect is being applied by a number of influential car owners to outlaw the controversial power plant in the Memorial Day classic on grounds it "doesn't belong" in racing.

SENTIMENT APPARENT

Antiturbine sentiment became apparent last year when Parnelli Jones nearly drove the first turbocar ever in the field into victory lane. Transmission trouble less than 10 miles from the finish wrecked that bid.

It was the only turbine machine in the race and it ran away from the field, leading 171 of the 200 laps and setting 17 records in the process.

★ ★ ★

This time at least three turbines are in the field — all identical machines from the Andy Grantelli team — and two of them emerged as the top qualifiers at record speeds last Saturday driven by Joey Leonard and former "500" winner Graham Hill.

★ ★ ★

Nine turbine cars were entered for the race but two have been wrecked.

Whether additional turbocars make the field in the final weekend of qualifications was uncertain.

Oak Park pushed across three markers in the seventh and downed Birmingham Groves, 5-2, while Livonia Franklin picked up two in the bottom of the eighth to nip North Farmington, 6-5.

Jay Hazelroth's single brought home the lead run for North Farmington (4-5) in the top of the seventh, but three singles and a suicide squeeze play brought two runs and the victory for Franklin (5-3) in the last of the eighth.

Dave Ekelman tossed a three-hitter, striking out 11, and he drove in three runs to pace the Oak Park (4-5) attack.

FALLEN CHAMPION — Waterford's Butch Fenlon, winner of the indoor Central Michigan University two-mile title earlier in the season, ran out of gas in the regional Saturday at Waterford and finished well back in the pack in that event. Winning the race was Douglas Latter of Grand Blanc in 9:49.1.

17th Annual Event Slated at PCC Friday

This year's edition of the Pontiac Press Invitational Golf Tournament shapes up as the most balanced in the history of the event.

The 17th annual running of the tourney is slated for Friday over 18 holes at Pontiac Country Club.

Bloomfield Hills Andover has dominated the tournament for the past seven years, but it appears the Barons do not have the balance this season to challenge the favorites.

TEAM CHOICES

★ ★ ★

WON TWICE

Walled Lake has won the title twice, the last time in 1963, and the Vikings fared better than Waterford in the regional play Friday. Walled Lake placed fourth and Waterford fifth.

★ ★ ★

Southfield has never won the event, but the Blue Jays served notice they'll have to be reckoned with when they won a Class A regional at Farmington Thursday.

The 25, four-man teams will start teeing off at 9:30 a.m. An awards banquet is slated at the club for 4 p.m.

Waterford Runs Over Kettering on Cinders

The losing Captains won eight events — including doubles by hurdler Bill Penoza and dashman Tim Donaldson—but the WTHS crew had sufficient depth to sweep three events.

The victory gives the Skippers a 650-100 lead in the All-Sports Trophy. WKHS' lone points among the 900 came in basketball. Waterford has won the trophy now 5 of 7 years.

The meet was highlighted by Gene Pankner's 56-6 heave in the shot put.

Southfield Blanks Kimball, Nears Crown in SEMA

Southfield's Blue Jays moved a step closer to the baseball championship in the Southeastern Michigan Association yesterday by blanking Royal Oak Kimball, 5-0.

The victory raised Southfield's loop mark to 9-3, leaving only Birmingham Seaholm standing in the way of a title for the Blue Jays. And they could remove that obstacle when the two tangle tomorrow.

In another SEMA game, Seaholm (8-5) downed Ferndale (6-6-1), 7-2.

STARTS JAYS

Rocky Roe started Southfield on the way to victory in the first with a 400-foot home run. The Jays came up with four more in the fifth on a two-run single by Doug Digue, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly.

Seaholm opened with three runs in the first and closed with three in the seventh to stop Ferndale. George Metcalf paced the attack with three singles and five RBI.

WINS IN 11th

In a more conventional manner, West Bloomfield's Lakers (5-8) picked up a run in the bottom of the 11th to hand Milford (7-6) its fourth loss in a row, 4-3.

★ ★ ★

RBI singles by Pat Cayley and Fred Holdsworth in the fourth enabled Northville to tie Clarkston at 2-2, and Barry Primeau put a little icing on the cake with a two-run single in the sixth.

A single, double and sacrifice fly produced the two runs in the first for Clarkston.

ERRORS DECISIVE

A throwing error enabled Mike Appleby to race home in the top of the seventh with the winning run for Andover. Appleby had singled and moved to second on one error and score on another. Royal Oak Shrine received a big boost in its bid for a berth in the Detroit Catholic League playoffs while defeating Holy Redeemer, 2-0, yesterday afternoon.

Jim Chiesa's two-hit hurling and 14 strikeouts stopped Holy Redeemer and boosted the Knights to 8-2 in the AA Section race, while Redford St. Mary upset Bishop Gallagher, 3-2, and dropped the losers to 7-2.

Bishop Gallagher must beat Holy Redeemer Wednesday to force a sectional playoff with Shrine for the berth in the league elimination series.

Committee to Draft Campaign-Cost Bill

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James Hare has appointed an 18-member nonpartisan committee to recommend legislation for reporting political campaign expenses.

Present laws are "meaningless and a monstrosity," he said.

★ ★ ★

"We should either have a good law or none at all," added Hare, chief state elections officer.

Bills aimed at tightening the laws died in the Legislature.

'NO WITCH HUNT'

Hare said he is not interested in a "witch-hunt" or "an investigation into past questioning practices."

Hare said increasingly enormous sums of money are needed to run for public office. These sums are not being accounted for, he said.

★ ★ ★

"We're all aware of the almost unlimited methods of fund-raising that don't violate the letter of the law, but they certainly bruise its spirit," Hare said.

He said he also is concerned about the voter-registration law. It requires citizens to vote every two years or be taken off the voter list.

He predicted this would result in a "substantial" decrease in the number of voters in the next presidential election.

Hare said he is afraid many citizens, particularly those in the core cities, are not aware of the new law.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Named to cochair the committee were Mrs. Pat McNamara, widow of the U. S. senator from Detroit, and Raymond Plank, Ludington television executive.

Other members of the committee are:

Elwood Bender of Muskegon Community College; Wayne County Circuit Court Judge George Bowles; D. Hale Brake, former state treasurer and Detroit attorney; Avern Cohn, Democratic party fund-raiser of Detroit; Tom Downs, Detroit attorney; the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan; Mrs. Margaret Foerch of the Michigan League of Women Voters; Douglas Fraser, United Auto Workers, Detroit;

★ ★ ★

Morris Gleicher, Detroit advertising executive; Marcus Gray, Calhoun County Clerk; Art Leutscher, Muskegon city clerk; Hudson Mead, Detroit attorney; Joseph Parisi of East Lansing, Michigan Townships Association; John Smith, Detroit elections director; and Steven Toth of Bay City, Bay County Clerk.

SENTENCE CHANGED — S. Edward Bloom, Chicago lawyer convicted of criminal contempt for allegedly filing a spurious will for probate, had his two-year prison term thrown out yesterday by the Illinois State Supreme Court.

'Suharto, 19 Bigwigs Unharmed'

Jakarta Reports Plot Is Foiled

JAKARTA (AP) — The Indonesian government foiled a plot two months ago to kill President Suharto and 19 of his generals and cabinet ministers and as they prayer at a mosque, officials at the presidential palace said Monday.

It was reported seven men had key roles in the abortive assassination attempt. All have been arrested and will be tried by a military court, military sources said.

★ ★ ★

Officials said the plot was inspired by the Communists but that some of these involved were still at large. Several alleged Communists serving in the army were arrested in Jakarta last week, but it was not known how many in all would be implicated in the plot.

The mass assassination was to have been sprung while Suharto and his top officials knelt at the mosque on the grounds of the president's Merdeka Palace during a Moslem festival March 9, the palace officials said.

HAND GRENADES

Officers said the plotters planned to hurl hand grenades into the small mosque while Suharto and his group were on their knees.

★ ★ ★

Security agents unearthed the plot several days before, officials said, and arrested an army captain and several other soldiers. Several newsmen were also reportedly picked up. News of the plot was withheld to aid the investigation.

It was the first reported attempt against the life of the 47-year-old former army general since he took the reins of power from President Sukarno early in 1966. Sukarno's ouster came after the collapse of a pro-Communist coup attempt and a nationwide massacre of Communist party members in retaliation for the favored position they held under Sukarno.

Sources said the 67-year-old former president is not believed to have had any part in the plot against his successor. Sukarno lives in his old summer palace in Bogor and is closely guarded.

★ ★ ★

Others reported marked for death in the plot included Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, chairman of Indonesia's Congress, and Suharto's close associate, and Foreign Minister Adam Malik, a longtime opponent of Sukarno and the Communists.

Also on the list were the air force and army commanders, the deputy army commander and the capital's military commander, sources added.

Ambulance Bill Vote Near

LANSING (UPI) — Counties would be able to contract with private ambulance services, according to a bill coming up for a final vote in the Senate.

The House-passed bill also would require ambulance drivers to pass the advanced Red Cross first aid course, be at least 21 years old, and obtain a special license costing $5 annually.

Policemen and firemen would be exempt from the requirements.

★ ★ ★

Ambulances would be licensed under the bill's provisions at a $25 fee and would have to have a rear-door opening, a flashing red light, a siren, oxygen equipment and first-aid equipment.

2,500 March, Protest Odor

KALAMAZOO (UPI) — Residents of this southwestern Michigan city are raising a stink over a pungent odor that hovers over the east side.

Some 2,500 marchers paraded two miles from their east side homes to the City Building Monday night. Spokesman met with the City Commission.

The commission unanimously endorsed a proposal, submitted by City Engineer Donald H. Swets, to clean up Lagoon No. 5 temporarily, and to have it covered entirely and cleaned up within three years.

Damage Soars in City Blazes

Fire damage in Pontiac in the first third of 1968 is more than triple that of the same period last year — largely due to several major building blazes.

Some $327,000 in damage has been caused by 491 fires this year, as compared to about $96,000 in damage in 229 fires through April 30, 1967.

The 161 building fires in 1968 include a $70,000 blaze April 8 at Herrington Hills Eementary School, a $35,000 fire in a commercial building at 695 Auburn Jan. 28 and a $13,000 fire in a grill at 49 N. Saginaw Jan. 30.

A second major increase is reflected in grass and brush fires, of which 221 have been extinguished in 1968 as opposed to 50 in the same period last year.

Two persons have died in fires this year, the same number as through April 30, 1967.

LBJ Blasts Those Who 'Bad Mouth Our Country'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may have added a new phrase to the 1968 political lexicon: "Bad-mouthing our country."

He returned to Washington immediately after the speech.

Johnson didn't accuse anyone of "bad-mouthing" and didn't relate it directly to the presidential campaign. But the entire context of his speech made it evident he looks with something less than full approval on much of the campaign oratory.

FATAL SICKNESS

Talking to affluent patrons of the Arthritis Foundation, Johnson said: "I simply refuse to accept the diagnosis of fatal sickness in our society—and I refuse to follow those who say that."

He went on: "I refuse to accept the diagnosis of indifference in our society—and I say shame on you who point that out."

Once again, the "shame on you" remark seemingly was off the cuff.

The burden of the President's speech was that the nation can solve its problems and is not sick, indifferent or racist.

TEARING DOWN

But he repeatedly returned to the thought that some individuals, unnamed, are tearing down rather than building up the country.

America's problems, he said, "will not be solved if we give way to crippling dispair or to bad-mouthing our country all day long or all week long."

Johnson said the problems "will be solved by the impatience of the American people—but not by pessimism and the bad-mouthing of the American people."

Neither reference to "bad-mouthing' was in his prepared text.

Espousing the politics of joy and happiness, Humphrey has suggested equal time be given to those who discuss the good things about the country in contrast to those who find fault.

Johnson acknowledged the United States has its faults, and added in another extemporaneous statement that these are faults "of which we are constantly reminded."

More specifically, he cited problems of poverty, racism, ignorance and illness which "still plague us."

But he cited his administration's record in health, education and civil rights to argue "we are on the move" and that only despair, pessism and "bad-mouthing" can delay their solution.

Among those who greeted the President at the dinner were Edwin L. Weisl, New York's Democratic national committeeman and long-time Johnson friend, and investment banker Sidney J. Weinberg, prominent financial backer of Humphrey.

Johnson said he attended the banquet only after receiving iron-clad assurances no candidates would be present and that there would be no partisan speeches.

★ ★ ★

Declaring he was very relaxed and happy, the President said: "It's a wonderful feeling being able to count the days instead of the votes."

2 Colleges Offer 'Panic Clinics' for Exam Week

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — At least two California state colleges will operate "panic clincs" to help students cope with the emotional pressures of final examination week starting May 31.

"If we can prevent one attempted suicide, the entire project will be worth the effort," said Dr. Suzanne A. Snivley of the Sacramento State College health clinic.

★ ★ ★

The college will provide special therapy with faculty, doctors and other students. A similar program is planned at San Fernando State College.

"This is an experiment designed to help our students meet their emotional pressures at a time when they are most fatigued and upset after a busy year at school," Dr. Snivley said.

Mixed Pattern Shown

Market Firms After Declines

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market firmed a bit after a series of declines and displayed a mixed pattern early today. Trading was active.

Gains outnumbered losses by nearly 100 issues on the New York Stock Exchange, but weakness in some key industrials put down the Dow Jones Industrial Average between 2 and 3 points. The broader-based New York Stock Exchange index rose slightly.

Another gold stock, American-South African, gained about a point. Some of the others showed little change or were slow in opening.

UNSETTLING FACTORS

Amphenol climbed more than 2 points, Penn Central and Goodrich a point or so.

The rise in gold prices and the turmoil in France were unsettling factors, but analysts said the stock market had technical reasons for a rally despite the lack of any outstanding bullish news.

Apollo Crew Ready for Escape Testing

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The first thing astronauts Walter Schirra, Donn Eisele and Walter Cunningham will do when they get in their new Apollo 7 spaceship at the moon port next month will be to see how fast they can get out.

A rehearsal of emergency escape procedures is the first order of business for the spacemen after their capsule has been readied for the manned portion of the ground testing leading up to launch in September.

★ ★ ★

They were trapped by a slow-operating hatch that swung the wrong way, and they were overcome before rescue workers could reach them.

QUICK-OPENING

The Apollo 7 capsule is equipped with a quick-opening hatch. Many of its systems have been improved and strengthened, the cabin interior has been virtually fireproofed, and the cabin atmosphere during ground tests and launch will be a mixture of oxygen and nitrogen instead of pure oxygen which fed the Apollo 1 holocaust.

★ ★ ★

Moon-port test procedures also have been improved. Spacecraft test conductor C. A. Chauvin, who held a similar position for Apollo 1, said in an interview that the entire test program has been examined and revised to eliminate all unnecessary hazards and to plan for a great variety of potential emergencies.

★ ★ ★

"The planning involved (for Apollo 1) was not nearly what we have now," he said. "We're going down to minute details now."

★ ★ ★

The Apollo 7 spacecraft and crew will go through the same launch pad test that ended in disaster for Grissom, White and Chaffee Jan. 27, 1967. But there will be one big difference — the Apollo 7 hatch will be open with the cabin filled with ordinary air.

SAFER AIR

By that time, however, Schirra and crew will have tested their spacecraft in a giant vacuum chamber. The pilots will be wearing spacesuits pressurized with oxygen and the hatch will be closed, but the cabin will be filled with the safer nitrogen-oxygen mixture.

Second, Third, Fourth and so on.

There are all kinds of reasons why Chevelle is the most popular car in its field.

It gives you the mid-size field's greatest choice of engine-transmission combinations. That includes six V8's ranging up to a 350-hp Turbo-Jet available in the SS 396 above. It also gives you the kind of ride you'd expect only in the more expensive cars . . . with Full Coil suspension and a separate frame with advanced body mounting system. And Chevelle comes on with all sorts of credentials. For instance in the recent NASCAR-sanctioned Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, a Chevelle won the Sports Intermediate Class, scoring the highest number of total points in the braking, economy and acceleration tests.

So what else can Chevelle do for you? How about giving you the widest choice of personalizing features in its field? And something else that contributes to its popularity: prices that start a full $100 lower than competitive models.

Close Vote on Crime Bill Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A close Senate vote is expected on proposals to strip the Supreme Court of authority to invalidate confessions and restrict use of police lineups.

Gen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., scheduled to lead the attack against the proposals today, contends they represent "the most serious assault on the Supreme Court and the independence of the judiciary" in the nation's history.

★ ★ ★

But Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C., urging their enactment, told the Senate Monday the Supreme Court has invented new, arbitrary and unrealistic rules that impede police in bringing criminals to justice.

The proposals are part of a broad crime-control bill which has been before the Senate for three weeks.

MAY BE ADMISSIBLE

They provide that a confession be admissible as evidence in any federal criminal case when the judge decides it was voluntarily given.

A confession could not be ruled out just because of delay in arraignment after a suspect's arrest. Nor could it be invalidated because a suspect had not been advised by police of his right to remain silent or not advised to get a lawyer before questioning.

★ ★ ★

'SOME BALANCE'

The American Bar Association's board of governors said it also opposes the proposals.

But Sen. Herman G. Talmadge, D-Ga., said their approval would "restore some balance to our system of justice—a system which has become far too weighted in favor of the criminal."

Under the proposals, federal courts would be denied authority to reverse a ruling of any state court admitting a confession in evidence as voluntarily given if this had been upheld by the highest court in the state.

Also, the bill provides that eyewitness testimony shall be admissible in evidence in federal and state criminal trials and bars the federal courts from reviewing the admission of such testimony in state trials.

This is designed to overcome a Supreme Court ruling last year barring in-court identification of a defendant by an eyewitness to a crie if the original identification was made in a police lineup without a lawyer for the suspect being present.

JURISDICTION DISPUTE

Another provision would deny federal courts jurisdiction in habeas corpus actions challenging the legality of the detention of persons convicted in state courts.

Ervin said this was designed to relieve overburdened federal courts from the growing practice of convicted persons using habeas corpus procedures as a substitute for direct appeal.

★ ★ ★

But Tydings said it was unthinkable "to suspend the great writ of habeas corpus." He said if it could be done for one class of citizens, it could be done for others.

Reds Score Gains in Italian Elections

ROME (AP) — The Christian Democrat and Communist parties scored major gains in Italy's elecionts for a new Parliament. Final returns today gave the Communists their biggest vote in postwar history.

The Roman Catholic Christian Democrats and their enemies, the Communists, improved their positions in both the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate. The chief losers was the Socialists, which had hoped to recover from the defection of its leftist elements. Instead they came out a poor third in the multiparty race.

★ ★ ★

The coalition comprises the Christian Democrats, the small Republican party and the Socialists. The first two gained more seats than the Socialists lost.

32 MILLION VOTE

Nearly 32 million persons voted in the election for 315 senators and 630 deputies. They will take their seats in a new Parliament June 5.

The fascists and the Monarchists also lost ground.

Finals results gave the three coalition parties 366 seats in the Chamber and 183 in the Senate compared with 361 and 179 in the previous Parliament. This gave the coalition a 102-seat majority in the Chamber and a 51-seat majority in the Senate.

The astonishing Communist vote totalled 8,555,131 in the Chamber balloting, compared with 12,428,663 for the dominant Christian Democrats. The Christian Democrats percentage of the total was 39.1, compared to 38.5 per cent in the last elections in 1963.

HIGHEST VOTE YET

The Communist vote, 26.9 per cent of the total, was 1.6 per cent higher than it had ever polled before.

The Red performance soundly contradicted forecasts that the Vietnam peace talks in Paris, the upheaval in Czechoslovakia and unrest in neighboring France would weaken the party at the polls.

★ ★ ★

In the Senate the Communists ran on the same ticket with the Moscow-oriented Proletarian Socialist party and together they captured 30 per cent of the vote. The Proletarian Socialists were leftist defectors from the traditional Socialist party and the principle cause of the latter's losses.

House Turns to Question of Longer Terms

LANSING (AP)—House members had before them today a proposal to lengthen their terms of office from two years to four, an issue that touched off a partisan battle in the chamber Monday.

Defeated, however, was another proposed constitutional amendment — one outlawing Michigan State University's sliding-scale tuition system.

Sent to the governor were bills to repeal the state's Criminal Sexual Psychopath Law, requiring windshields on most motor vehicles, add 10 cents to the price of a fishing license and permit legislators to run for other offices during their terms.

Few representatives oppose giving themselves four-year terms, but politically they disagree on whether they should run in presidential election years, or in off-years with the governor and the Senate. Senators now have four-year terms.

In the past two elections, admitted Rep. James Farnsworth. R-Plainwell, "It just happens that the Republicans did much better when they ran with the governor (in 1966) than when they ran with the president (in 1964). Now it's just that simple."

Saginaw Man Convicted of First-Degree Murder

DETROIT (AP) — A 23-year-old man accused of slaying four persons was convicted of first-degree murder Monday in the death of a Saginaw couple.

A jury of 10 men and two women found William Eddington Jr. of Saginaw guilty in the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Middledorf Feb. 3, 1967.

The jury deliberated more than four hours before delivering its verdict. Circuit Judge Fred J. Borchard set the date for sentencing as May 31. The trial was moved to Detroit on a change of venue due to extensive publicity of the case in Saginaw.

The Middeldorf bodies were found two days after the killings. Middeldorf, 63, was found tied up in the bedroom of his home with a piece of plastic over his head, several small knife wounds, and an eight-inch butcher knife in his back. His wife was found in the bathroom, where she was drowned.

ANOTHER TRIAL

Eddington faces another trial June 10 on charges of first-degree murder in the slayings of Dr. and Mrs. Archer A. Claytor of Saginaw, Feb. 1, 1967.

The trial is scheduled for Ludington on another change of venue.

Ronald L. Johnson, 24, of Saginaw is also charged in the murders of the Claytors. His trial date has not been set.

Claytor was found in his home beaten over the head, possibly with a hammer and then shot. His wife was shot to death.

Claytor was named Michigan's Foremost Physician of the year in 1959. He was the doctor who delivered Eddington and Johnson.

Board Excuses Teacher's Strip

FLINT (AP) — The School Board in Burton Township has ruled against firing a 24-year-old sex education teacher who reportedly stripped before her all-girl class to emphasize a point.

The alleged action six weeks ago by the unidentified teacher raised the ire of many parents, who demanded her dismissal, along with that of junior high school Principal C.F. Heidtke.

The Bentley School District board, meeting in special session Monday night, concluded there was insufficient evidence to justify dismissal of the teacher or the principal.

"We find she had intentions in the best interests of her students," said Gerald Felger, school board president. "She erred in judgment by using herself as a model. Thus her methods, action and words were misinterpreted by some of her students," he added.

OCCEO to Hear Progress Report on Legal Aid Plan

A report on the progress of its legal aid program will be heard by the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OCCEO) at its meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The group will meet at the OCCEO central office, 1 W. Lafayette, in downtown Pontiac.

An expanded legal aid program for the poor was started in April using an additional $82,000 U.S. grant.

Four full-time lawyers were added to the staff, along with other personnel, and the expanded program has been under way for about six weeks.

★ ★ ★

Theaters Shut
