Gulf Storm Aims at Florida; 3 Dead, 42 Lost

Firefighters Battle California Blaze

Flames Sweep Through Acres of Forest Area

Resort Homes, Lodges Threatened; Several Buildings Burned

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—Smoke-blackened firefighters battled today to ring a "fire storm" that has destroyed at least 20 homes and burned more than 8,500 acres of brush and timber near the Lake Arorwhead resort.

The "fire storm" — so called because it can generate its own intense winds —swept through the Crest Park summer home tract, about five miles east of the lake in the San Bernardino Mountains.

A U. S. Forestry Service spokesman said the area is still "too hot" to inspect closely but at least 20 homes were destroyed.

About 1,500 firefighters manned 18 bulldozers, 60 water tank trucks and fire hoses in an effort to hold back the flames from the Cedar Glen area, near the northern tip of the lake.

Seven crop dusting biplanes and a war surplus Navy torpedo bomber planned to continue dropping water and chemicals on the flames that have fused mountain peaks into a massive mile-high torch.

Nearly 1,000 residents of a nine-mile area were advised to evacuate after the blaze jumped State Highway 18 last night and burned into the Sky Forest pinewoods, more than a mile high in the San Bernardino Mountains.

The area toward the lake is studded with resort-lodges, homes and weekend cabins. None were immediately threatened but Elmer Osterman, fire prevention coordinator for the State Division of Forestry, said:

"A wind change could send the flames anywhere."

Osterman said the fierce 50 m.p.h. winds the "fire storm" itself created have quieted down.

Gov. Knight has been requested to declare the fire a disaster area, Osterman said. This would permit the U.S. Forestry Service to request civil defense aid from throughout the state and nation.

Already fire - fighting equipment from several nearby cities and counties has joined with the fire fighters, including Indian crews from New Mexico and Arizona.

State Highways 18 and 30 leading down to San Bernardino were closed and many evacuees were reported leaving by the back route—into the Mojave Desert.

Boisterous 'Flossy' Has Unladylike Manners

Britain, France Ask U.N. to Act in Suez Dispute

Pull Surprise Request; U.S. Expected to Stall Any Major Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council will meet Wednesday afternoon to take up the Suez Canal dispute at the request of Britain and France.

A full airing of the bitter wrangle with Egypt is expected to develop after the arrival of British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and other high officials by the end of the week.

Diplomatic quarters said French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and Secretary of State Dulles were expected to take part in the council discussion.

Britain and France put their surprise demand before the 11-nation council in a letter to its president, Emilio Nunez - Portuondo of Cuba. They did not say what action they would seek.

A British spokesman in London indicated the two nations would ask the 103-mile waterway be put under international control. Egyptian President Nasser already has rejected that proposal, and Western diplomats feared Russia would veto any council action opposed by Egypt.

* * *

Dulles indicated the United States would seek to delay the major debate. The American secretary in a television appearance endorsed the British-French appeal to the U.N. but said he thought "substantive discussion" before the council should wait until formation of the Suez Canal Users' Assn. agreed on at the 18-nation London conference last week.

Egyptian sources in Cairo said their government welcomed reference of the canal dispute to the U. N., feeling that the issue "should have been taken to the United Nations in the first place."

Woman Killed Flagging for Aid

Mrs. Emma Whittington Hit While Seeking Push for Stalled Car

A Pontiac woman was killed just outside the city limits early Sunday morning when she reportedly ran in front of a car while seeking a push for the stalled vehicle she had been riding in.

Mrs. Emma L. Whittington, 30, of 154 Perkins St., was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital following the accident at Opdyke and Mt. Clemens streets.

She was struck by a car driven by Donald Arnold, 23, of 3644 Auburn Ave. Arnold was released after questioning by deputies of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

During the questioning, Arnold told county officers he was driving about 50 miles an hour on Opdyke and did not see Mrs. Whittington until she was "on his front fender."

The woman was a passenger in a car driven by Austin Crisman, of 3439 Alco Dr., Waterford Township, prior to the accident. Crisman said Mrs. Whittington had left his vehicle to try to get a push for them when she was hit.

Flossy Packing 100-MPH Wind for Pensacola

Lowland Residents Flee to Emergency Shelters as Floods Threaten

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Hurricane Flossy, packing 100 m.p.h. winds, swept toward northwestern Florida today, leaving three men reported dead and 42 missing after it lashed near southeastern Louisiana.

The New Orleans Weather Bureau said in its 10 a.m. advisory the storm, sixth of the season, was centered about 80 miles southwest of Pensacola, Fla., and moving toward the east-northeast about 12 m.p.h.

"Movement is expected to continue toward the east-northeast at the same rate, bringing the center inland between Pensacola and Apalachicola, Fla., this afternoon or tonight," the advisory said.

The Red Cross in Biloxi said it appeared there was no further threat to Mississippi's Gulf Coast.

The hurricane had winds estimated at 100 m.p.h. near the center at 10 a.m. and gales extended outward 150 to 200 miles from the center.

The Weather Bureau reported a large squally area off the extreme northwestern Forida coast was causing winds to blow offshore and hold back the tide.

* * *

"This creates a dangerous situation," the Weather Bureau said, "since the hurricane winds will suddenly shift and may cause a rapid rise in the tide to about eight feet. This situation exists all the way from Pensacola to St. Marks."

Residents of low-lying areas in the southern Alabama and northwestern Florida areas were moved to emergency shelters. Hundreds of persons in southern Louisiana began moving back to their homes.

The storm, which developed early Saturday, originally pointed toward the New Orleans area but took a northeasterly course early today.

Heavy rains fell along the Gulf Coast in advance of the storm. The Weather Bureau cautioned persons living in southern Alabama and Georgia and extreme northern Florida to watch for possible flood warnings.

* * *

Harold D. Adair, Mobile, Ala., was killed early today when his auto skidded on a rain-slickened suburban road.

Two men were assumed drowned below the mouth of the Mississippi River. Capt. V. J. Greene of the motor vessel Carport reported that Charles Ayres, 47, Brooklyn, N.Y., chief mate of the 300-foot vessel, fell overboard, and the second mate, John Ritter, jumped in after him and disappeared.

The Coast Guard searched for more than 40 men reported stranded on boats and oil rigs off southern Louisiana.

Somoza Takes Turn for Worse

Nicaragua President Paralyzed Following Near Assassination

PANAMA (AP) — President Anastasio Somoza of Nicaragua, shot down Friday night, took a turn for the worse today in a Panama hospital.

A medical bulletin said he had developed paralysis of the entire left side of his body and that an emergency trachetomoy — opening a hole in the windpipe to facilitate breathing — had been performed.

The bulletin called the paralysis "an unexpected postoperative complication which has not been fully evaluated." Somoza underwent a 4-hour and 20-minute operation yesterday at Gorgas Hospital, in the Canal Zone.

Meanwhile wholesale arrests of opponents of the government have followed the attempt to assassinate Somoza.

About 200 persons, indluding two newspaper editors and a former president, were being questioned in a police search for possible accomplices of the assassin.

The assassin, Rigoberto Lopez Perez, 27, was slain by Somoza's guards immediately after emptying a revolver at the 60-year-old President just before midnight Friday at a reception in Leon, 45 miles from the capital, Managua.

County Dedicates Its Health Center

Over 1,000 visitors yesterday saw the dedication of Oakland County's new $309,000 health center at the county building area on North Telegraph road.

Retiring Rep. George A. Dondero and Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart were among officials speaking at the ceremony in the center's assembly room.

Members of the county Board of Supervisors were present, including Delos Hamlin, chairman.

Hamlin introduced Cyril E. Miller, chairman of the board's Health Committee, who was master of ceremonies.

Charles Schurrer, president of Schurrer Construction Co. in Detroit, presented the keys of the building to Harry Horton, chairman of the board's Building and Grounds Committee.

Schurrer's company has been building the center since August, 1955.

BROOMFIELD SPEAKS

State Sen. William S. Broomfield and Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson also made brief remarks.

Miller introduced Dr. John D. Monroe, county health director, and Dr. V. K. Volk, health director when the project started. Volk is now health director for Saginaw County.

Several members of the Macomb County Board of Health also were present.

Visitors were able to see the center's many facilities during open house time . The one-story center is of brick with wall-to-wall windows.

Temperature Drop Expected for Tonight

The weather prediction for tonight is fair and warmer. The thermometer will drop to a low of 50 degrees.

Fair and warmer is also predicted for tomorrow. The high is expected to be from 76 to 80 degrees.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 46. At 2 p.m. today the thermometer registered 73 degrees.

Ziegler Will Speak

Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler has accepted an invitation to attend a meeting of the Bloomfield-Southfield Civic Assn., Oct. 3, the group said today.

Jury to Decide Rail Yard Site

13-Man Group Will Determine Necessity of Proposed Location

Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick this morning ordered the impaneling of a 12-person jury to determine the necessity of placing the Grand Trunk Western Railroad industrial support yard in the railroad's proposed site.

The jury will also determine compensation to be paid Elmer L. Good, 54 Cadillac Ave. for a half-acre of land for which Grand Trunk filed a condemnation suit, if it rules in the affirmative on the necessity.

Clarence K. Patterson, attorney for the railroad, said officials have consented to Pontiac's requested intervention in the case.

He added that the railroad had come to terms with Strauss Brothers Co. of Detroit for a second half-acre piece of land sought by Grand Trunk. He refused to disclose the terms of the agreement.

No date has been set for the hearing in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Doctors Lose Hope for Babe

Call Famous Athlete 'Perceptibly Weaker' in Cancer Battle

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Babe Didrikson Zaharias became "perceptibly weaker" the last 48 hours although she spent a restful night, hospital authorities reported today.

* * *

Yesterday, in what they called their "first realistic statement" about her fight against cancer, the authorities said the famed woman athlete's condition might become critical at any time.

The John Sealy Hospital bulletin issued this morning said:

"Mrs. Zaharias' condition remains the same. There is no fever and there has been no distinct change. She is perceptibly weaker than she was 48 hours ago, and she sleeps a greater proportion of the time. Babe is rational when awake, however. This morning she reports a particularly good night's rest."

Yesterday, in the lengthy review of her condition, the hospital said "Babe has continued to lose ground each week both as to weight and to strength."

Division of United Fund Plans Kickoff Breakfast

A major division of this fall's Pontiac Area United Fund campaign will get off to an early start Tuesday morning when over 40 Special Gifts Torch Lighters meet for a kickoff breakfast at the Waldron Hotel.

The special gifts division under the chairmanship of H. Wayne Gabert will seek to raise $68,494 from over 280 contributors who have given at least $100 to the Pontiac Area United Fund in a past year.

Special Gifts solicitors are the second group to get a pre-campaign start in this year's United Fund campaign for $612,202.

Last week volunteer workers began calling on building trades firms and their employes following a series of training sessions.

Special Gifts Torch Lighters are scheduled to breakfast together at the Waldron Tuesday morning as the guests of the Pontiac Optimist Club. They will hear Gabert discuss this year's Special Gifts goal of $68,484.

Also attending the breakfast meeting will be Campaign Chairman Walter K. Willman and Commercial Division chairman, James Nye.

The Pontiac Area United Fund is this year seeking $612,202 in order to support its 54 community services during 1955.

The campaign will not receive its official kick-off until Oct. 23. However, many solicitors will be making business and individual calls before then.

Last Friday the United Fund staff moved into its campaign headquarters at 20½ East Lawrence St. phone number is FEderal 2-0259.

Defense Secretary Undergoes Surgery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson underwent surgery today for a "benign prostatic condition," the Pentagon announced.

The operation was completed in an hour and 15 minutes at Walter Reed Army Hospital here. The Pentagon announcement said the 66-year-old defense chief was expected to be back at his office in about 20 days.

* * *

A spokesman said the decision to operate was reached late last Thursday, after Wilson's news conference. Earlier last week Wilson had gone through his annual routine physical examination, conducted by Air Force Col. Marshall E. Groover.

Liberty Highway Co. Merges With Buyer

Liberty Highway Co. of Toledo, with Pontiac offices at 324 Irwin St., has been merged with its purchaser, Suburban Motor Freight Inc., by a recent decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Suburban Motor Freight said today.

Under the commission ruling, temporary authority was granted the purchaser to operate Liberty Highway Co. through management control. In the immediate future, both firms will retain their corporate identities.

Together, the two firms operate nearly 800 motorized units and run scheduled shipping service to 5,000 Midwest cities and towns.

Nationalists Bombard West German Ship

HONG KONG (INS) — The captain of the West German freighter Monika said today a Nationalist Chinese battery on Taitan, off Red China, bombarded his ship killing one crew member and wounding two others.

* * *

Captain Ewald Dirala said several rounds were fired at the Monika yesterday off the South Chinese port of Amoy as she sought shelter in an estuarty from a typhoon.

Dirala at a press conference said the Monika was flying a West German flag that must have been clearly visible from the shore's batteries.

He said, "All the shooting was directed toward the crew's quarters, aft, and was intended to kill the crew. There was no warning."

* * *

The Monika limped into Hong Kong last night with her wounded and dead after the ship was battered with more than 200 shells.

Royal Oak Sets November Vote on Liquor Sale

ROYAL OAK — Residents here will vote in November on allowing sale of liquor by the glass.

Petitions asking that the proposal be put on the November 6 ballot won by a narrow margin. There were only 11 signatures more than the required 6,971.

The petitions contained 8,873 signatures, but a check showed only 6,982 were registered Royal Oak voters.

Taverns in Royal Oak are allowed to sell only beer and wines.

If voters approve liquor by the glass, Royal Oak taverns will still need the approval of the State Liquor commission and the Royal Oak city commission.

Search Party Finds Girl, 2, 'Lonesome'

ISLE, Minn. (INS)—A two-year-old girl who wandered away from her parents' hunting shack Sunday was found alive today, complaining only of loneliness. She was hospitalized for exposure.

Four men of a 500-man searching party located the tot, Dennise Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Reynolds of Minn.

One man accidently stepped on the girl's hand before noticing her. Lying on the ground, she cried out. Then she said to him:

"Talk to me. I'm lonesome."

Physicians called her condition "fair."

Emma Tee Whittington

Emma Tee Whittington of 154 Perkins St. was dead on arrival at the Pontiac General Hospital yesterday at 2:30 a.m., after having been struck by an automobile.

She was the wife of Karl Whittington, and was born Nov. 18, 1925 in Bernie, Mo. She was the daughter of Lawrence and Emma Pinkston Smothers, and was educated in Pontiac schools. She had been in Pontiac for 28 years.

She is survived by her husband, her mother, and four sisters and two brothers. Her sisters are Mrs. Lola Behrends, Mrs. Myrtle Graham, and Mrs. Sybil Stinson of Pontiac, Mrs. Lois Thornton of Council Bluffs, and Mrs. Mildred Neil of Rochester. Her brothers are Victor Smothers of Pontiac, and Fred L. Smothers of the U.S. Navy, now in Hawaii.

Funeral service will be announced later by Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

FRED G. HAWKE

Forging Company's Executive to Resign

Fred G. Hawke, secretary-treasurer of the American Forging and Socket Co., will resign active supervision of the company's financial and purchasing functions Oct. 1 after almost 40 years of management service.

Hawke will, however, retain all the general duties of secretary and treasurer.

Since joining the company in 1917, Hawke has played an active part in the company's growth. His past experience and services will continue to be of great value to the company in its business dealing, Goodloe Rogers, company president said.

Hawke became treasurer in 1919, and secretary-treasurer in 1944. Besides managing financial affairs, he was purchasing agent for many years and is head of the purchasing department.

Hawke lives on Marlborough drive in partial retirement.

The Day in Birmingham

City Studies Free Parking and Greenwood Blocking

BIRMINGHAM — No-charge parking nights in city lots and blocking off of Greenwood by Holy Name School for play area are among suggestions before the city commission here this evening.

Charles Duffy, president of the Holy Name PTA, asks that traffic be blocked between 11:30 and 2 p.m. to provide playground area, reduced when the parish erected an addition to the school to provide extra class rooms.

The closing would run from September thru next June, and meets with approval of Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley and nearby residents, most of whom are parish members, Duffy says.

With need for ordering metal signs for the two under-construction parking lots, City Manager Harold K. Schone is asking the commission to consider taking meter charges off their schedule as well as Parking Lot 1.

"From a policing standpoint," he says, "it is much easier to police a large number of vehicles parked in a well-lighted parking lot than to attempt to prevent thefts in poorly lighted and isolated locations. Police reports show seven stolen cars and 31 larcenies from automobiles in the central business district so far this year."

"We feel these thefts could be reduced," he goes on. "Since most of these offenses are committed by juveniles, the temptation to commit these offenses would be reduced, thereby affecting the juvenile crime rate in our city."

Friday night parking charges for shoppers will continue in all lots, according to the suggested plan.

Schone also suggests the city formulate a special assessment procedure manual to solve such problems as one now facing city officials in the Cummings sidewalk special assessment district.

Final accounting for the district shows a surplus of $177.58, which would be refunded to property owners involved normally. But there are 477 property owners.

Request for city aid in case of emergency on facilities of the South Oakland County Water Authority will be considered. Insurance would cover city workers doing repairs outside of the city, a report assures city officials.

Mrs. William Harrington

Mrs. William (Elizabeth) Harrington, 1480 South Bates, died Saturday following a long illness in a Detroit hospital. Coming here from Detroit six years ago, she belonged to Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

Surviving are her husband, four children, William Jr., Hollis Ann, Cheryl, and John all at home, her father, Anthony Krupa and two sisters, all of Detroit.

Rosary service will be tonight at 9 p.m. at Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Service will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at her church, with burial in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Detroit.

State Doctors Elect Former Pontiac Man

A former Pontiac resident will be installed as president and three local doctors will receive 50-year awards during the 91st annual Michigan State Medical Society meetings in Detroit today.

He is Arch Walls, a general practitioner in Detroit. He will be formally inducted as society president Wednesday.

Among 15 recipients of 50-year pins will be Lucius B. Farnham, Edward V. Howlett and Clarence T. Starker.

Dr. William Jones, of Menominee, retiring president, will present the pins. Jones will be honored at a special Officer's Night banquet.

Walls, incoming president, was born in Pontiac in 1895 and graduated from Pontiac High School before entering the University of Michigan. After serving in World War I, he became active in Wayne County medical circles and has been since.

The meetings will continue through Friday. The last three days will be devoted to postgraduate work and lectures on recent developments in medicine.

Major Expenses Go for Schools, Utilities

WASHINGTON — The Federal Reserve System reports that a fourth of all expenditures for new construction in the United States are now going to provide services such as utilities and schools.

Such outlays in 1955 totaled 10.6 billion dollars, almost exactly 25 per cent of the 42.3 billion spent on new construction during the year.

* * *

The comparable expenditure and proportion in 1950 were 6.6 billion and 23 per cent. In 1946 these outlays were only 2.4 billion, or 20 per cent of that year's new-construction expenditures.

Hal Boyle Says:

Builder Creates Eden for Senior Citizens

NEW YORK (AP) — Millions of new homes for young married couples have gone up in America's vast postwar building boom.

But Gilbert P. Edwards, a 32-year-old Brooklyn-born engineer, is pioneering in a new field—providing housing designed to satisfy the different wants of retired couples.

His latest venture is a 16-million-dollar Eden for the elderly at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., a project he feels will help set a new pattern in living for the growing army of U. S. senior citizens.

* * *

Something of a boy genius, Edwards is already a veteran builder. At 19 he was graduated from Brown University. As an ensign still below voting age he was resident officer in charge of supervising construction at the multi-million-dollar Alameda Naval Air Station in California.

After leaving the Navy, he went to Florida with his $500 discharge payand immediately began to parlay it into a fortune by specializing in building developments catering to the older generation.

* * *

"I feel now I know exactly what retired people want," he said. "They want security, first of all, but a security that is physical as well as financial.

"They don't hanker for the wide open spaces, nor do they like the skyscraper - crowded big cities. They prefer a community which is small and friendly, one in which they can associate with people in their own age brackets and with the same interests."

* * *

His new project, Breakwater Beach, is a 34-acre site surrounded, except for a 450-foot ocean front, by a five-foot-high wall to give it privacy.

The walled-in city will have its own shopping center, an 11-story hotel, five cooperatively owned apartment buildings, an 18-hole pitch and putt golf course, tennis courts, gardens, boat anchorage space, and a surf club — but no night club.

"Most retired people don't want a whoop-de-do atmosphere," said Edwards. "They go South to relax and get away from noise."

He plans no paradise for paupers. The apartments will cost from $12,000 for one with a single bedroom to $50,000 for a five-room penthouse, with monthly maintenance fees ranging from less than $60 up to $120. But a surprising number of retired folk, particularly those who have owned their own homes in the past, can afford this scale of living.

"We're not going in for snob appeal," said Edwards. "We aim at the average retired small business or professional man."

His present project will take three years to complete. Edwards sees it only as the forerunner of a series of specially built cities for the elderly, has no fear his potential market will diminish.

Pointing out that the population of the Fort Lauderdale area has more than doubled since 1950, he said:

"There are 14 million people 65 or over in the United States now. By 1975 there will be more than 21 million.

"Their real housing needs have been pretty well overlooked in the rush to put up homes for the younger generation. They won't be from now on.

"Older people no longer just look for a place to die when they retire. They look for a place where they can go on living. They are learning what it takes to keep them happy — and I don't think any builder will go broke if he goes to the trouble of finding out what they really want, and gives it to them."

UM Enrollment Breaks Record With 25,473

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A record total of 25,473 students enrolled for the fall semester at the University of Michigan.

The figure was announced by Edward G. Groesbeck, director of the university's Office of Registration and Records. It compares with a final figure of 23,914 last fall. The previous mark was 24,232 in the fall of 1949.

18,385 Enrollments Set Record at MSU

EAST LANSING (AP) — Enrollment at Michigan State University reached a new high Saturday with 18,385 students signed up for fall classes starting Monday.

Kermit H. Smith, registrar, said late registrations should boost the figure to 18,875. The previous high was 17,176 last year.

The total includes 12,719 men, an increase of 11.8 per cent, and 5,666 women, an increase of 5.8 per cent. There are 16,481 undergraduates and 1,904 advance students. Freshmen enrollment has reached 5,559.

Come Back to Nursing, State Association Urges

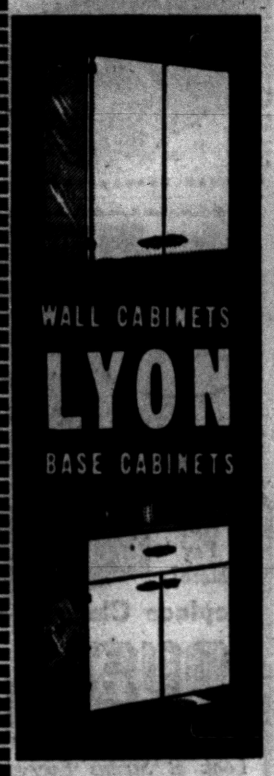

DETROIT (INS) — Professional nurses in Michigan have been asked to return to nursing, either full or part time, to help fight a critical shortage.

The appeal was made by the Michigan State Nurses Assn.

A recent survey of about 3,200 unemployed nurses showed 75 per cent of them have children 10 years old or younger, and 35 per cent would like to return to the profession if acceptable schedules could be arranged.

Axes Destroying Pleasure Ship

Wreckers Pulling Apart D&C's City of Detroit III for Scrap

DETROIT (AP) — The wrecker's ax is echoing through one more of the Detroit & Cleveland passenger steamers, picking it apart for junk.

* * *

This time it is the City of Detroit III, a 44-year-old side-wheeler, sister ship of the already scrapped City of Cleveland III. The Eastern States, smallest of the defunct company's fleet, is expected to be wrecked soon by burning off the superstructure. The Greater Detroit, largest side-wheel steamer in the world, may be sold for use again. The D & C line was dissolved two years ago.

Before wrecking crews moved in on the City of Detroit, more than 2,000 souvenir hunters picked the 44-year-old ship over from bow to stern, buying everything from pitchers to tableware.

Another crew headed by Frank Schmidt, owner of a private Cleveland museum, carefully pried away the valuable carved oak paneling, paintings and huge stained glass windows in the ornate Great Lakes cruise ship.

* * *

Edward J. Zebrowski, president of the Union Wrecking Co., said "We'll save any metal in the superstructure, but everything else will be trucked outside Detroit and burned in a dump."

His firm has contracted to cut the boat down to bare steel by Oct. 20 for a price of $23,000.

It will then be put to the torch, and its 5,000 tons of iron will be sold for scrap at about $50 a ton.

The only other boat in the fleet, the Western States, is a floating motel at Tawas City.

Pity Poor Kukin! Even Winners Lose in Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—It's possible to become a millionaire in the Soviet Union—but it's probably not legal.

* * *

The news and photo magazine Ogonyok says Moscow militiamen since 1947 have had their eye on an unidentified "farm expert" who haunted the people's market buying up Russian savings bonds from people in distress. Its account continues:

Finally, the militiamen caught up with Alexander Evgraphovich Kukin. His speculations in bonds at cut rate prices had made him the owner of a 280,000 ruble ($70,000) country home, similar homes for his son and daughter, and two large automobiles.

* * *

In the country home, bonds worth millions of rubles were unearthed. Kukin had been "cheating the state" because "for honest people these bonds are a form of savings and aid for the state; to swindler Kukin they became a means of parasitic existence."

* * *

Kukin and the members of his family have been arrested. But the magazine rebuked associates in the district where he worked five years as an agronomist for not inquiring into the means by which Kukin acquired a fine country home and two automobiles.

By bus and train, a tourist may now travel the 4,500 miles between Paris and Baghdad on a ticket that costs $135. Ten countries are crossed.

Integration, India Faces Same Big Issue

The United States is not the only country facing a problem of racial integration. India right now is toiling with a situation which is similar in many ways with the issue now being worked out in America.

India's population is separated into castes, a division which has been legally recognized for some two thousand years. This caste system is not only recognized but is strengthened by the Hindu religion.

Nearly one-sixth of India's huge population is included in the lowest caste, the "untouchables." From birth these people are doomed to ignorance and poverty and limited to the most menial tasks.

The untouchables are descendants of the dark skinned aborigines of India. For centures they have been segregated, forbidden to use public wells or to enter temples.

The Indian constitution abolished untouchability. Then last year a law was adopted setting up legal punishments for any discrimination against an untouchable. During the past year, however, less than three hundred cases were brought to court under this law. This low total indicates what little progress has been made toward integration.

Now a government report calls for a fresh attack on this problem, more government jobs for untouchables. But the government recognizes a need for gradualism in its program, and that a change in public attitude is as important as the physical change in status of individual untouchables.

India's problem may prove more difficult of solution than does the one Americans face in the integration of Negroes into our southern public schools. India's caste system has been functioning for a far longer period. It has been fostered through religious doctrine. It is not surprising that government officials at New Delhi suggest that the change should be made gradually. Any attempt to overturn established custom overnight would be doomed to failure.

★ ★ ★

Americans will watch India's integration efforts with interest, as, undoubtedly, many in India will be watching American efforts to carry out our Supreme Court's order that there shall be no discrimination in our public schools because of racial differences.

Milford Booming

Recently The Press again called attention to the big housing boom taking place between Milford and Commerce. Some ten million dollars is being spent there on a whole community of new homes.

This is good news for Milford and Commerce. Likewise it is good news for Pontiac and this whole area. It is good news for Michigan, for this one development is but a sample of what is happening all over the state.

★ ★ ★

New homes are going up by the thousand. New shopping centers are being built. New stores are being erected. Factories are being expanded. Highways are being constructed. Hospitals are being enlarged. Schools are going up in ever increasing numbers.

★ ★ ★

Building totals for 1956 are higher than last year, and the highway program is just getting under way. While fewer homes are being built nationally, commercial, civic and industrial building is up more than enough to offset the drop in housing.

And what lies back of this tremendous surge in construction? The soundest, most solid cause that could exist. It is a steady increase in population. More homes are needed because more babies are being born, more new families are being established.

This population increase is nationwide, but even so, the gain is far greater in Michigan than the national average. Pontiac and Oakland County lie in the very center of the most rapid growth. Many problems result from this growth, but they are not to be compared with those we would face if our population was decreasing as rapidly as it is growing.

As a well known Pontiac industrial leader would say: "We should regard today's problems as happy troubles."

'Many of us would not be greatly disappointed if we never saw another chart of President Eisenhower's insides.

Football Contest to Close at Noon on Next Saturday

Autumn: A season that has summer for a bad example.

This is the closing week of the football contest. The $300 in U. S. Savings Bonds goes to the person who makes the nearest prediction on the results of the following games:

Sept. 29—Mississippi vs. Kentucky.
Oct. 6—Michigan vs. Michigan State.
Oct. 13—Duke vs. Southern Methodist.
Oct. 14—Detroit Lions vs. Los Angeles Rams.
Oct. 20—Michigan State vs. Notre Dame.
Oct. 27—Stanford vs. Southern Calif.
Nov. 2—Pontiac vs. Saginaw.
Nov. 3—Detroit vs. Cincinnati.
Nov. 10—Texas vs. Baylor.
Nov. 17—Georgia vs. Auburn.
Nov. 22—Penn vs. Cornell.
Nov. 24—Michigan vs. Ohio State.
Dec. 1—Army vs. Navy.

Clip out the list and make a check mark on the teams you think will win. If you think it will be a tie game, do not check either team. Then attach it to a piece of paper bearing your name and address.

For other members of your family the list may be copied. Every member is eligible, and it costs nothing to enter. Mail entries to "Football Contest," The Pontiac Press.

All entries must be received by next Saturday noon, Sept. 29. Better send yours NOW, or you may forget it later. Don't let $300 get away.

David Lawrence Says:

Who's Right About H-Test Ban?

WASHINGTON—Americans can judge the quality of a presidential candidate's mind only by the judgment he displays when discussing publicly a problem involving national safety and possibly national survival.

* * *

Such a problem is presented by the H-bomb. Congress by law gives only the President authority to decide on its use.

Adlai Stevenson has said some strange things about abandoning H-bomb tests. If what he said originally were followed, Soviet Russia would be free to continue developing horrible weapons of destruction and America meanwhile would halt her experimental work. This would give an immense advantage to the Communists.

The record of what Stevenson said is going to plague him until he confesses the error in his statement. He has never done so since his original comment of April 21, before the American Society of Newspaper Editors when he said:

"I believe we should give prompt and earnest consideration to stopping further tests of the hydrogen bomb, as Commissioner Murray of the Atomic Energy Commission recently proposed. As a layman, I question the sense in multiplying and enlarging weapons of destructive power already almost incomprehensible. Of course, I would call upon other nations to follow our lead, and if they don't, and persist in further tests, we will know about it and we can reconsider our policy."

KEFAUVER DIFFERS

Two days later Sen. Kefauver—then a rival for the Democratic presidential nomination—said in a public statement he didn't believe this country should halt testing of the hydrogen bomb unless Russia does. He added:

"I think that anything we do along that line should be reciprocal. I wouldn't want this country to stop testing if they (th Russians) are going to keep on testing."

It should be recalled Moscow had been for some time the prime mover in a worldwide propaganda crusade to ban all H-bomb tests.

* * *

Stevenson claimed in his April speech he was merely accepting a proposal laid down by Thomas E. Murray one of the five members of the Atomic Energy Commission. What Murray in a public statement had said was this:

"We must beware of the false idealism lurking in the Soviet slogan 'Ban the Bomb.' In the discussions and negotiations looking to disarmament, it would be sheer folly to be maneuvered into making a blanket renunciation of the use of all types of nuclear weapons."

Murray only last week—after the Stevenson speech—amplified his statement by saying he doesn't think any more tests of the very big bombs are necessary because we have enough and there should be a balanced stockpile of nuclear weapons.

MISSING THE POINT

The point, however, is not what kind of bombs should be developed but whether the United States should ever take a one-sided action on disarmament. That's why President Eisenhower in opening his campaign Sept. 18 said:

"We cannot prove wise and strong by any such simple device as suspending unilaterally, our H-bomb tests. Our atomic knowledge and power have forged the saving shield of freedom. And the wise future use of atomic power can be assured, not by any theatrical national gesture—but only by explicit and supervised international agreements."

Adlai Stevenson two days later made a speech at Silver Spring, Md., in which he said the President had "dismissed curtly" his (Stevenson's) proposal "that the United States take the lead in promoting curtailment of all nations of hydrogen bomb tests."

But there's a vast difference between "promoting curtailment by all nations" and actually stopping the tests without any agreement with the Communists or other nations. Yet Stevenson insists he has all along proposed a mutual and not a one-sided ban and President Eisenhower now is rejecting a two-sided ban on tests. If any high-ranking Republican had resorted to such twisting of the facts the ADA and the Stevenson camp would have been calling it "tricky" and "low-level campaigning."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Three Full Meals Per Day Still Best Diet for Humans

"A man 6 feet tall, 34 years old, has had angina pectoris for five years. It is getting worse, at least he has attacks more frequently. He weighs 214 pounds, eats no breakfast, but always a hearty lunch and dinner. His doctor hasn't said so, but it seems to me that the man eats too fast. Is there any good reason why one with coronary disease should not gulp food in a hurry?" (D. R. T.)

No one should gulp food down in a hurry. Especially a person whose arteries are not as soft and elastic as they should be.

You do not mention the reason why the man eats no breakfast. I hope it is not to reduce. If so, the man is an idiot, for the hearty lunch and dinner will make up for the calories a fair breakfast would have contained.

It would probably be beneficial for the man to reduce some 12 pounds in the course of two or three months of moderate restriction of diet, that is, limiting his intake of sugar and sweets and carbohydrates at every meal and, if he uses beer, wine, or liquor at all, cutting it out altogether, for alcoholic beverages or liquors represent too many calories and give no energy at all. No reduction program is likely to succeed if the individual uses beer, wine, or liquor.

If the young man really has angina pectoris, I hope his doctor sees to it that he always has a vial of nitroglycerin tablets in his pocket, so he can take one immediately upon the occurrence of any distress—and repeat the dose in five or ten minutes if the first tablet does not bring relief.

Some physicians are altogether too timid about the use of this medcine by patients with angina. It is often a godsend to such sufferers, and so I say it is malpractice to deprive them of it just because of unfounded fear that it may be "dangerous."

Some people eat no breakfast because, as they say, they have no appetitite for food in the morning, or perhaps they want nothing but tea or coffee and a cigarette.

This lack of interest in breakfast is familiar in topers, who can take nothing on an empty stomach but straight gin, whiskey, or brandy.

Most of the namby-pamby folk who breakfast on tea and toast or coffee and a roll or a dish of sugar pap, and some sweetened fruit juice fresh from the can, are satisfied, for a short while, with such cheat food just as a growing youngster is by sucking on a bottle of pop, but anyone who takes, instead of real food (protein, fat, and carbohydrate), only sugar, sweets, or refined carbohydrate (cheat food), will get plenty of calories to give enough energy for a brief spurt of work, play or activity; but he is bound to tire quickly, lose interest, and feel the need of a lift.

This, I believe is a common predisposing factor of alcoholism and drug addiction.

The most essential item of an adequate breakfast is protein, such as eggs, ham, bacon, fowl or fish.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to diseases, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Surprises Are Good for Children

Dr. Leo Phillips and his charming wife surprise their children frequently. But these surprises come in the form of sugar-coated educational episodes. All of you parents whose children are still at home, can profitably imitate the strategy employed in the Phillips family.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-373: Dr. Leo Phillips, aged about 36, is a very popular professor at Hillsdale College, Michigan.

"In order to widen the social horizons of our two children," he told me recently, Mrs. Phillips and I schedule a special menu every few weeks.

"If we wish the children to direct their attention toward the Mexicans or the Irish or any other nationality, we may try to serve a typical Mexican meal or an Irish dinner, etc.

"It adds novelty to the otherwise routine family life and also perks up the interest of our youngsters in those far-away lands.

"Dr. Crane, don't you think it is wise to add such surprise to the ordinary schedule of children?"

MAKE LIFE EXCITING

Yes, it is mentally exhilarating for children to obtain desirable surprises.

And this innovation which Dr. Phillips and his wife are employing, is worthy of imitation by all cultured parents.

Prior to the meal the children can consult the encyclopedia about the life and customs of the particular country to be stressed by that special menu.

Then at the table they can even be asked to recite some dramatic or unusual item they have thus learned about the Mexicans or Egyptians, Russians or Hindus.

This strategy also encourages them to maintain an open mind regarding new foods, which is usually helpful from their mother's viewpoint.

Also too frequently the average daddy gets into a "menu rut." He wants very little variation in his meat, potatoes and pie routine.

WOMEN WANT SURPRISES

But women like variation. They get bored with the monotony of sameness. You can notice this fact by seeing how often they want to buy a new hat or frock.

A man will wear his old felt hat till his family tell him he looks like a hobo or tramp.

"That makes no difference to me," he may argue, "for I like this hat and it offers several more years of good service."

Indeed, you can hardly get a man to buy a new head piece, whereas many husbands report they can scarcely restrain their mates from purchasing a new chapeau every few months.

Children are more like their mothers, however, regarding their desire for surprises. They are continually alert to newness.

So it behooves a good father to consider the wishes of the rest of his family occasionally. Spring a surprise on them at least once per month.

MENTAL TONICS

Let them obtain the mental tonic of a break in the family routine. For that gives them something stimulating to which they can look forward.

When we human beings have nothing exciting to anticipate in the future, we are growing psychologically senile, even if we haven't passed our 21st birthday.

Emerson said that age is a matter of where we live in our thoughts. If we dream of the tomorrows and are breathlessly waiting for future anticipated pleasure to materialize, we are young, though the calendar may state we are octogenarians.

If, however, we look backwards chronically to the spilt milk and broken dreams or romances of the past, then we are psychologically old, senile and ready for the grave.

So try to "package" your surprises in an educational manner, as the Phillips family are doing.

And send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. They'll streamline your parental behavior.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Asks Road Commissioner to Drive White Lake Road

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I would like to have the Oakland County Road Commissioner or one of his representatives take a ride over White Lake Road west of the junction of Andersonville Road and form his own opinion of its condition.

My opinion is that every curve on this road, with its washboard surface and loose gravel, is a driving hazard. I travel this road twice daily and to my knowledge it has been floated down with a truck twice since the first of July. Anyone else traveling this road please voice your opinion.

Khrushchev Call on Tito Is Being Studied Closely

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Soviet party boss Nikita Khrushchev has hurried to Yugoslavia to huddle with President Marshal Tito on a somewhat mysterious mission.

* * *

It is billed as a "private" visit with the chunky Soviet leader taking "a rest" at Tito's summer residence on the island of Brioni.

But diplomatic reports from Belgrade dismiss that window-dressing for various reasons.

Vice President Edvard Kardelj and other Yugoslav leaders themselves conceded that Khrushchev's vacation would give him a chance to do some secret political talking with Tito.

* * *

In the first place, Soviet leaders are not in the habit of taking "rest" trips outside the Soviet Union.

There were similar straightface pretexts given when Deputy Soviet Premier Anastas Mikoyan flew into Yugoslavia last July. Mikoyan used two days of flying time for little more than 24 hours of "rest" in Yugoslavia.

ALUMINUM DEAL

Mikoyan's visit closed a joint Soviet-East German deal on aluminum with Tito after the Yugoslav negotiators had balked at the project when the Soviets first raised the question in Moscow.

* * *

Khrushchev's trip, in the opinion of observers, means that he wants to try some more soothing of Tito after his peace-making pilgrimage nearly a year and a half ago.

Since the original Khrushchev visit, the Soviets have been pretending publicly that it was all right for Tito to follow his own road to socialism, not Moscow's.

But reports from several capitals behind the Iron Curtain say that the Soviet Communist Party distributed a secret circular warning satellite Reds to be vigilant against Yugoslavia's alleged, continued "pro-Western tendencies."

* * *

The satellites also were warned not to follow Yugoslavia's highly independent "road to socialism."

AWARE OF CIRCULAR

Yugoslavs are aware of this reputed secret circular and also are annoyed at satellite press comment defending Yugoslavs who turned against Tito in favor of Moscow at the time of the famous 1948 Stalin-Tito break.

* * *

Yugoslav relations with the West definitely have been cool lately, hence Khrushchev's arrival at this time will cause more doubts about Yugoslavia's exact status in the Belgrade balancing act.

Washington officials will study the Tito-Khrushchev talks, if they can find out exactly what they are about, very keenly. And also will take another close look at Tito's behavior.

This is because President Eisenhower must make a decision soon on whether more American aid is to be given to Tito.

Red Plane Rescues 5 Trapped on Glacier

LONGYEAR CITY, Spitsbergen, Norway (AP) — A Soviet plane has rescued five scientists lost almost a week on an Arctic glacier.

The five men, two Swedes, one Norwegian and two Russians, landed on wild Nordaustlandet Island in the Spitsbergen Archipelago last weekend for a study of the 50-mile long Vestfonna glacier. They were put ashore from the Soviet Polar expeditionary ship Ob.

Soviet authorities notified the Norwegian Foreign Office Monday the scientific team was lost and asked for help. A Norwegian ship landed a dog sled team on the island but fog and a blizzard kept it from reaching the glacier.

A message to authorities here yesterday said a Russian pilot had landed a ski-equipped plane on the glacier and taken the five men off. The report said the plane was returning to a Soviet air bast on Franz Josef Land, an island east of Spitsbergen.

Clergy Warns Drivers 'Thou Shalt Not Kill'

GREENWICH, Conn. (INS) — Clergymen of Greenwich opened a month-long sermon crusade Sunday aimed at reducing traffic deaths here. If it shows results, safety officials hope it may be used throughout the nation.

The crusade, approved by Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, will be based on the Fifth Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Kill."

New Statue to Honor Cheese Girl

VAN WERT, Ohio (AP)—Two statues of Marie Harel, 18th Century French peasant girl who originated Camembert cheese, will be dedicated Oct. 4 in joint ceremonies here and in Vimoutiers, France.

The statue in France will be the gift of the employes of a Van Wert cheese plant, Borden, said to be the biggest producer of Camembert cheese in the world. Its Ohio counterpart will be a plaster model.

The original statue of Marie Harel was erected by the farmers of Normandy, France, in 1928 in honor of the young girl who first served Camembert cheese to Napoleon in 1791. The pleased Emperor named the cheese for the commune of Camembert.

But American bombers during World War II destroyed Vimoutiers, and the statue, on false information that there were large stocks of ammunition in the village.

Welles Bosworth of Marietta, Ohio, who was living in Paris, heard of the village's plight and started a movement to help in its reconstruction. During this reconstruction the idea was offered to replace the statue, also.

Employes of the Van Wert plant raised $2,000 for the statue project.

Hunt Oil in Red China

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—A team of Hungarian geologists is seeking oil in Central China, Budapest Radio reports.

In 1925 oil and gasoline accounted for only 28 per cent of the nation's energy requirements. Now they are said to account for about 60 per cent plus of the total, the industry estimates.

For the price of this sprinkler* you can do 2 full loads in your electric dryer. Here's a neat trick. Take out pieces, that have to be ironed, before they're completely dry, thus eliminating sprinkling. Many things come out so soft and fluffy they don't need to be ironed at all. Smart homemakers know how to . . .

Bob Considine Says:

Murrow's TV Invasion Unnerves Family

ALLENHURST, N. J. (INS)—It all started innocently enough one day last spring at Toots Shor's joint. Jesse Zousmer, of Ed Murrow's "Person to Person" show, said, "What about going on sometime in the fall when we return to the air?"

* * *

I said sure, sure—knowing that something would happen in the meantime. The bomb would drop, or the invention of color radio would drive TV off the air. The thing was forgotten.

Then one day about a month ago a nice guy named Chuck Hill and another one named Dave Moore called up in the city and one said, "Well, let's drive out and look at your place. Got to start getting ready for the show." (Where had the sad, sad summer gone? Why had the bomb failed me?

Since then, well, there has been little else in life. The children, trapped by their parent's lighthearted trust that somehow the whole thing would be forgotten, turned on him with teeth filed down much sharper than folklore's serpent.

* * *

"Hey, I don't want to go on television," a 12-year-old kid named Dennis protested. "Other kids don't go on television. Why pick on me? If I blow my lines the kids'll say I'm a jerk."

* * *

We presented a small plan by which Dennis would talk briefly about the guns he collects, and suggested several alternatives. He thought them over for a long time. "Have you made up your mind about what to do?" I asked, reflectively swinging a sand wedge. "Yes," he said. "I'm going to run away."

ARMY OF WORKERS

But in due time a small army of workers headed by a Gen. Paley, or some such, descended on our whitewashed hutch in this pleasant borough and built a bright-red microwave tower in the yard.

* * *

It rises two or three flights over the roof gargoyles, and promises—by the ghost of Marconi—to throw our images to a rooftop in Asbury Park, a couple miles away, and thence to CBS on Madison avenue, over to the tower on top of the Empire State Building, and thence to a number of other people.

It is an impressive tower, this one in our yard. I was able to sell $85 worth of oil stock to passersby, awaiting D-Day.

"Well, I see where you're going to lose your fig leaf," John Mason Brown observed at Deke Lyman's lunch at the Century Club the day before.

* * *

He was on "Person to Person" last year. He looked like a man who knew. Shor was more comforting. "That Murrow's really scraping the bottom of the barrel," he said.

STILL TAKING BOWS

Shor was on two years ago, and the only exercise he's had since Millie and I are trussed with has been taking bows.

* * *

Murrow was telling us over a farewell drink that the "Person to Person" idea came out of a talk in which he and several others set down to figure out what are people most curious about in life—aside from food, sex and dough.

They agreed that most people wondered mainly what goes on behind a closed door, or inside a lighted room. Hence this program, and our mounting dismay.

The joint is full of cameras, lights, and googly-eyed gear. Loud speakers and mikes hang like bats from our belfry.

special built-in transmitters. My microphone is in my navel. Disaster impends. At the final rehearsal, Ed said to Debbie, "I understand you're the musician of the house."

SHE'S NO TRICKSTER

The little girl looked about wildly. "I can't do no tricks," she protested. Two English teachers at St. Rose's fainted.

Quiet now, the director is coming to get me. Why is he wearing a white coat in this kind of weather?

How to Cut U. S. Tax Subject for Meeting

How to cut federal taxes will be outlined by speakers at a Michigan Action Conference on Hoover Commission recommendations in Battle Creek Wednesday.

Michigan's business and civic leaders are to attend the conference sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the Battle Creek Chamber, the Hoover Report Division and the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

Pontiac will be represented by John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Chamber of Commerce; William F. Kalwitz, Ralph B. Lee, Q. R. Mahan and D. B. Thomas.

Theron Rice, social coordinator of the National Chamber's Hoover Commission program, will explain how the estimated annual $5.5 billion cut in federal spending, which would result from adoption of Hoover proposals, could be applied to federal tax reductions.

Ask State to Save Historic Building

LANSING (AP) — The Legislature has been asked to take steps to preserve an historic building on Mackinac Island provided the City of Mackinac Island agrees to surrender title to it.

The building is the clerks' quarters of the American Fur Co., erected early in the 19th Century and now badly deteriorated.

Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman) has filed a resolution asking creation of an interim committee of three senators to try to work out the structure's salvation.

Andrews said the city owns the building and doesn't want to give it up but has no funds for restoration.

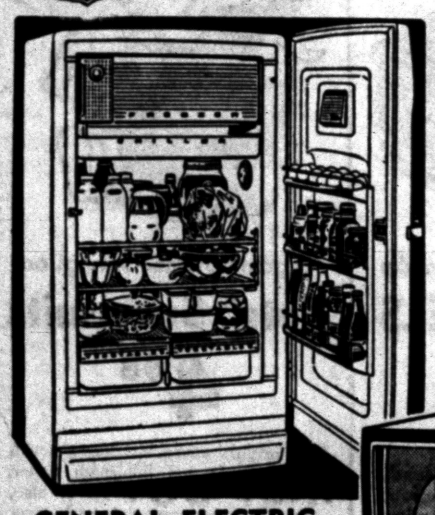

The resolution contemplates the state step in only in the event the city deeds the property to the state.

New Car Color Angle

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Tourist guides in Mexico City are fighting a law requiring their cars to be painted yellow like taxis and hired cars. They say their customers make trips outside the capital and prefer vehicles that look like private cars. Cars painted like taxis would identify them immediately as tourists—something no tourist likes, the guides say.

Racial Problem Talks Continue

Washington's School Hearings Going Into Second Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Over protests by Negro leaders, a House subcommittee starts today a second week of public hearings on problems raised by racial integration of Washington's schools.

* * *

William Gerber, subcommittee counsel, said he will continue calling school principals and teachers. Without naming the witnesses, he said they are being selected "from a number of schools so people can't say we picked out a few schools as examples."

But a Negro spokesman criticized the probe yesterday as an attempt "by some Southern congressmen to force their views and those of their constituents on the nation through the mechanism and publicity of a congressional hearing."

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. James C. Davis (D-Ga), is composed largely of Southern members of Congress.

* * *

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, told a protest meeting that "it's a Georgia and Mississippi hearing, not a hearing of Congress."

A telegram from Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, was read at the meeting. It said, "I think the hearings are serving no constructive purpose."

President Eisenhower was quoted last week in a telegram sent by an aide as believing that the hearings would not impair desegregation in the District of Columbia.

* * *

But Wilkins told the rally the hearings would affect integration in other parts of the country.

Some of the witnesses heard last week testified that integration had brought increases in disciplinary problems of various kinds and that the Ngro children rated lower than white ones scholastically. District schools have been integrated for the last two years.

Bill Holden Believes Travel Aids Marriage

BY PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Bill Holden—an actor who looks like the boy next door after he's grown big and leather-faced and confident—was explaining how you go about holding a marriage together.

* * *

"You travel," he said, "as much as you can. Most of the time with your wife, but some of the time without one another."

You get homesick but you keep going. See new vistas. Re-evaluate the person you live with. At the end of the trip, "your home will be the greatest place in the world."

It may sound unreasonable that a Hollywood actor should discuss successful marriages this way, but Holden is one of those Hollywood spectaculars—a husband who has had the same wife for 16 years, not to mention three children of utmost psychologic normalcy.

* * *

An average, wealthy West Coast family it is; except that father has traveled 100,000 miles a year for the past six.

NOW OFF AGAIN

"I was away 10 months last year," he said, "and now I'm off again to Europe and the Far East. On this trip Ardis (his wife) comes with me. We think it's the best thing they've invented since true love to hold a marriage together."

Gazing philosophically into a glass of watered-down Scotch, Holden added that "a marriage shouldn't be allowed to settle into a rut and take a back seat to the man's job and the woman's care for her children."

And on the subject of traveling "alone," the actor pointed out he was away from home 10 months last year. Sometimes his wife went with him, oftentimes not. Either way it was good.

"I'm not an authority on sick marriages, but I'd say the best cure I can think of is occasional absence from one another. It not only makes the heart fonder, as they say, but it revives your feeling of individuality and gives you the time to re-evaluate the person you're married to."

* * *

Before 1951, when Bill Holden came into his real heydey as a fine actor, he'd scarcely been out of California except for brief vacations. He'd lived most of his life in Pasadena, where he got his start in acting by playing an 85-year-old man while he was in junior college.

ACTED HIS AGE

A Paramount talent scout caught the performance and rushed him in for a screen test. Knowing no other role, Bill stooped his half-back shoulders and went into the octogenarian bit.

"Act your age," he was told. "If we want Paul Muni, we'll hire Paul Muni."

So by playing juveniles in a well-bred manner, Holden was hired in 1938, and has been climbing ever since. Year before last, he won the Academy Award, and there are many in the film industry who think he's the finest actor of, at the very least, the decade.

It stands to reason that not only his marriage, but his acting, has been stimulated by his travels.

* * *

For his many pictures in recent years he has traveled far and high (he broke the sound barrier in a jet for his latest movie, "Toward the Unknown"), and by now has seen almost everything there is to be seen, and is looking forward to revisitations.

2 Czechs Steal Plane, Flee Red Oppression

PASSAU, Germany (AP) — Two Czechs have fled to West Germany in a stolen Communist plane in the fourth "freedom flight" from behind the Iron Curtain in a little over two months.

* * *

Lt. Vladimir Vzral, 22-year-old pilot in Communist Czechoslovakia's air force, and Ludovic Sebela, 24-year-old mechanic, landed their small, slightly damaged trainer in a meadow near the Bavarian town of Vilshofen after a 120-mile flight.

They said they knocked out a Communist guard at the Czech military airport of Byskov, near Budweis, in order to reach the plane yesterday and take off for West Germany.

They told police they "couldn't stand living conditions" in Czechoslovakia or the lack of freedom. Vzral said he had planned the escape for a month and was joined at the last minute by Sebela, a boyhood friend.

* * *

Police planned to turn them over to U.S. agents for questioning.

Corrects Grave Error

VOBARNO, Italy (AP) — Kurt Allgonver, 31, of Erlangen, Germany, a bodyguard for Benito Mussolini in World War II, hastened here when his family received a belated letter from the Italian government reporting him killed in action. He assured the custodian of the local cemetery the gravestone inscribed "Kurt Allgonver, Wehrmacht soldier" is not his.

Doctor Says It Often Backfires on Reds

Brainwashing Wears Off in Few Months

CHICAGO (AP) — Brainwashing rarely hammers a permanent change in a subject's viewpoint. It can wear off in a few months. Often it backfires, generating an intense hatred of communism.

That's the opinion of two American physicians who made an exhaustive study of Communist techniques used to obtain false confessions from American war prisoners and win converts of the Communist way of life.

Doctors Lawrence E. Hinkle Jr. and Harold G. Wolff of New York made the study while serving as consultants to the Defense Department. Their information sources included experts in the areas involved, direct observation of released prisoners, Army and Air Force investigators and various laboratory and clinical investigations.

* * *

They scoffed at impressions that brainwashing is a new scientific technique of thought control, guaranteed to give permanent results. They said it consists merely of "elaborations and refinements of police practices, many of which were known and used before the Russian revolution."

However, they said brainwashing can make a subject "emotionally bankrupt" and bring him to "the end of his rope." He reaches a state where he "avidly accepts any help that is offered."

Writing in the Archives of Neurology and Psychiatry, published by the American Medical Assn., they said:

"The available evidence suggests that within a period of months (after a prisoner's release from captivity he readjusts himself to the outside world and resumes a set of beliefs roughly similar to those he held prior to his imprisonment."

* * *

They added, however, that some "susceptible" prisioners who had no previous strong convictions and who suffer from feelings of guilt "appear to experience long-lasting and even permanent changes in their attitudes and behavior."

Others, they said, become "bitterly anti - Communist," remembering vividly their mistreatment.

The doctors gave this account of how prisoners are "brought to the end of their rope":

An individual's living system is entirely dependent upon maintaining a satisfactory relationship with his total environment. This includes the other human beings in that environmet, sometimes only the captors.

When a prisoner is subjected to such unpleasant pressures as anxiety, fear, anger and loneliness, he is strongly motivated to make adjustments.

* * *

The first move in the reaction pattern is a period of patient exploratory activity— activity — the prisoner looks for a possible satisfactory solution. If none can be found, the second reaction is "an increasing and random exploration." The subject becomes excited and shows evidences of anxiety and sometimes panic.

However, if the pressures continue, the subject gradually subsides and finally becomes dejected and dependent upon anyone who offers help.

* * *

At this stage, the doctors said, the prisoner is "emotionally bankrupt"—in much the same shape as many patients who turn to a psychiatrist for help.

"In the experimental situation of frustration, the subject who has reached this stage will readily accept suggestions for solving the experimental problem, however absurd," the doctors said.

Interpretive Dancing?

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama's interpreter when he goes to Moscow to reopen Soviet-Japanese peace talks will be a ballet dancer. Mrs. Chieko Hattori, head of Tokyo's Hattori-Shimada Ballet Troupe, was born in Vladivostok. She studied dancing under Russian teachers, and learned their language.

U. S. families spend one-quarter of their income for food.

Building Record Set

DETROIT (AP) — Southern Michigan construction awards for August totaled $117,121,000 or 36 per cent higher than August, 1955, Dodge Statistical Reports said Friday. The firm said the amount is the biggest dollar volume of awards for any August ever recorded.

Average U. S. farm tractor costs an estimated $500 a year to operate.

Turkey Shoot Scheduled

Old Guns to Boom Again

DEARBORN (INS) — About 100 muzzle-loaders — devotees of old-time firearms — are expected at the "Muzzle-Loaders Turkey Shoot" at Greenfield Village in Dearborn Oct. 14.

* * *

The shooters, members of organized military and gun clubs from Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky—dressed as Civil War soldiers and pioneers—will participate in the colorful event on the village target range.

A 15-man fife and drum corps from Port Huron will also take part. Last year's shoot attracted nearly a thousand shooters and spectators.

One of the features of the day will be a match between selected members of the muzzle - loaders groups and teams of Army and Marine personnel. The latter will use present-day cartridge rifles.

* * *

Other outstanding events will include the raising of 1860 colors, accompanied by the boom of a Civil War cannon and a gala parade to the target area.

Some of the groups in the 10-event program include the Huron Rangers of Port Huron; the First Michigan Artillery Volunteers, the Potawatami Valley Muzzle-Loaders, the Wolverine Muzzle-Loaders Association, and Michigan Gun Collectors Association, all of Detroit.

The Wyandotte Muzzle-Loaders Club of Wyandotte, the 111th Ohio Infantry of Toledo and the 2nd and 4th Kentucky Calvary of Covington, will also participate.

Housemaids Fade From U.S. Scene

NEW YORK (AP)—Lo, the vanishing servant!

A study published today says the domestic servant is swiftly disappearing from the nation's labor force. There were 94 servants for every 1,000 persons in the early 1900s; today there are only 34 per 1,000.

Prof. George J. Stigler of Columbia University, author of the study, says the sharp decrease is due to greater education, lowered rate of immigration, progressive equalization of income and simplification of household tasks.

There are memorials or similar momentos in France of all wars in which the United States has engaged.

Lost 20 Lbs.
PLEASES HUSBAND TOO

NOVI, MICH. "I have been taking Rennel Concentrate for two months and have already lost 20 lbs.," writes Betty Lou Basye, 26246 Novi Rd. "I cannot praise Rennel enough for what it has done for me and will certainly use it until my correct weight is reached. To anyone in need of a reducing aid I recommend Rennel. My husband can hardly believe that I have lost so much in so little time."

Ask your druggist for 4 ounces of liquid RENNEL Concentrate. You'll never know a hungry moment while reducing with RENNEL.

Borrow with confidence where grandad did

HFC has provided cash loans since the days of the handle-bar mustache and the surrey-with-the-fringe-on-top. Yes, since 1878 millions of people have depended on HFC for money help.

This dependable service is now streamlined to meet today's demands. Loans are made in one day, on terms you select. But the friendly, helpful spirit is just as it was in Grandad's day. And that is why today more modern Americans borrow from HFC than any other company in its field.

Sees Little Chance for Gas Rationing

WASHINGTON (INS) — M. J. Rathbone, president of Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, predicts gasoline will be rationed in the U.S. only if Europe loses its entire oil supply from the Middle East.

He said merely shutting off oil shipped through the Suez Canal would not necessarily mean restrictions on American motorists.

Rathbone explained Europe imports two million barrels of oil a day from Middle Eastern sources. Sixty per cent goes through the Suez Canal and the rest through pipelines that bypass the disputed waterway.

He said 1,200,000 barrels a day which move toward Europe through the canal could be supplied from the U. S. and Venezuela without domestic rationing by drilling new wells and increasing production.

3 Treated at Hospital for Accident Bruises

Two women and a man suffered minor injuries in a collission in Commerce Township Saturday.

Joseph H. Sweet, 55, of Oak Park, one of the drivers, his wife, Anna J., 51, and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Kolonay, 46, of Detroit, a passenger in the other car, all were treated for bruises at Pontiac General Hospital.

The other driver was George Kolonay, 57. The accident occurred on Oxbow Lake road, north of Cooley Lake road.

Citizenship Classes Stage 18th Annual Picnic Event

More than 100 past and present members of Miss Janice Anton's American citizenship classes sat down to a table spread with food from many nations at the 18th annual Constitution Day picnic held yesterday.

* * *

The food was prepared by class members and represented Poland, Japan, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Greece, Mexico, England, Germany, Ireland and Spain.

The picnic was held at Dodge Park No. 4 at Cass Lake.

Attending the gathering as special guests were retiring U. S. Congressman George A. Dondero, Oakland County Circuit Judge H. russel Holland, and Pontiac Mayor William W. Donaldson.

Present members of Miss Anton's classes presented an outline of the U. S. Constitution.

Polish-born Eugene Bora led the pledge to the flag, while Jose Vega presented a recital on the American creed. Mrs. Mickey Kurns recited on "What the Constitution Means To Me."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sell, director of the Pontiac High School night classes at which Miss Antona teaches, also attended the picnic.

Five Hurt as Car Rams Utility Pole

A fast-moving car banged into a utility pole, early Sunday after striking a "no parking" sign and ploughed through a hedge on the other side of the street, Pontiac police said.

* * *

The driver, Horace Brooks, 25, of 299 Orchard Lake Ave., and a passenger, Wilma Gamble, 21, of 221 Rockwell Ave., both were admitted to Pontiac General Hospital and are listed in good condition.

Three other passengers were released after treatment, authorities said. They are: Harry E. Reynolds, 22, of 476 California Ave. and the woman's brothers, Noah, 19, and Charles, 20, both of the Rockwell address.

Brooks suffered a fractured skull and Miss Gamble severe face cuts, authorities said.

Two Are Hospitalized After Two-Car Crash

Two persons were hospitalized and another slightly hurt in a two-car crash at Commerce and Keith Roads in West Bloomfield Township Sunday.

Mrs. Onice Hutton, 37, of Detroit, is in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital with a fractured right ankle. Timothy Conner, 49, of Bloomfield Township, is reported "fair" at the hospital with a fractured jaw and multiple cuts.

Also injured in the accident was Samuel Hutton, 43, husband of Onice. He was treated and released at Pontiac General for cuts of the left wrist.

Tools Worth $584 Lost in 2 Robberies

Two thefts of tools at houses under construction in West Bloomfield Township were being investigated by State Police today.

The missing equipment is valued at $584. Both thefts took place in the same area yesterday.

Hardest hit was a house at 1677 Parkview where tools were stolen worth $579 from A. Atkins of Detroit.

The other house was looted of three hammers. It is located at 1751 Bungalow Dr.

3 Juvenile Escapees Nabbed in Stolen Car

Three of five juvenile boys arrested in a stolen car Saturday afternoon had just escaped from the County Children's Home, Pontiac Police report.

They walked away from the home at 9 a.m. The car was stolen from a lot near the Fisher Body plant and was spotted by police about an hour later on Irwin avenue at S. East bouleyard.

The three escapees, all 12 years old, were returned to the home, police said. Their friends were released to parents pending an appearance today before juvenile authorities.

Two Unhurt in Fire of $2,000 Damages

A West Bloomfield Township couple escaped injury in a fire which resulted in an estimated $2,000 in damages to their home late last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beecham were able to flee to safety after being awakened by the explosion of a can of paint, according to the West Bloomfield Fire Department which extinguished the blaze.

The home fire at 2291 Garland Rd. was reported to have been caused by defective wiring in a furnace. The damages were $1,000 each to the house and furnishings.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

P.S. DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SPECIAL LAXATIVE TO EASE PAINFUL ELIMINATION WHILE SHRINKING PILES

The makers of Preparation H also make Petro-Syllium®, a special type laxative prescribed by doctors for hemorrhoid sufferers. Softens hard dry stool and assures easy elimination without pain. Ask for Petro-Syllium.

Cadillac

When He Calls...He Has News!

The gentleman you see in the picture above is a Cadillac salesman.

He is placing a telephone call to a citizen in his community—to pass along some news of a very special nature.

He is calling to tell of the wonderful opportunity that exists today to become the proud and happy owner of a new Cadillac car.

What exactly will he have to say?

Well, first of all he will tell of the unusually generous trade-in allowance that he can give at this particular season.

Then he will reveal some wonderful and surprising information about how quickly delivery can be obtained on a new Cadillac.

And then, time permitting, he will recite some of the other practical aspects of Cadillac ownership.

He will talk about the car's relatively modest initial cost . . . about its amazing dependability and endurance . . . about its remarkable economy of operation and freedom from repairs . . . and about its marvelous resale value.

And we feel almost certain that, with so much logic on his side, he will have little difficulty explaining why this is the "time of times" to make the move to Cadillac.

* * * *

Within a short time, this gentleman—or one of his colleagues—might be calling you. And when he does, we hope you'll remember that he has news!

We think you will enjoy talking with him—for he is a fine person, long accustomed to serving the leading citizens of his community.

And we think you'll be grateful that you took the time to hear what he has to say.

FAMOUS INDIAN CHIEFS—1

Pontiac

When European settlers arrived in the new world they found a dark skinned native race whom Christopher Columbus had called Indians, in the belief he had reached India. At first the Indians were friendly, but when they realized that the settlements were absorbing their best hunting ground they rose against the invader and long and bitter warfare followed.

One of those who fought the British was Pontiac, chief of the Ottawas, and also leader of the united Ojibway and Potawatomi tribes. He was friendly with the French, and joined them in their wars with the British.

After the French made peace he continued to fight, and was eventually captured, and killed in 1749. A squad of French soldiers buried him with full honors.

Here is Pontiac wearing a necklace of bear claws, and beside him a drum, such as his men used to rouse warriors or call council. For a collection of Indian chiefs, color the picture with your crayons and paste it on cardboard. Cut around the heavy outline, and fold back the ends so it will stand.

You can make a drum similar to Pontiac's out of a small wooden keg (A), with a piece of rubber inner tube stretched over it, secured with tacks and firmly bound. Decorate the top and sides with paint.

(Barbara Collins, Bantam, Conn., first suggested this idea. If you have an idea send it in care of this newspaper and it may win you $10. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures).

Boy, 12, Enters Harvard to Earn Physics Degree

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Fred Safier of Berkeley, Calif., is off toward his goal of nuclear physicist today.

* * *

And he's only 12.

Fred met his classmates last night at a class of '60 gathering and they accepted him with only a few raised eyebrows.

* * *

The youngster was allowed to enter Harvard only on condition that he live with his family and not at a Harvard house.

His father, Dr. Fred Safier, obligingly moved the family to Cambridge for the school term.

Young Fred has wanted to be a nuclear physicist ever since he read a biography of Madame Curie, co-discoverer of radium.

* * *

He prepped at Drew School in California, where he showed his aptitude for science. As a student, he was invited to teach two chemistry classes.

Fred plans eventually to do graduate work in nuclear physics at UCLA but right now he has a stiff four years at Harvard ahead—including physics, mathematics, social sciences and general education.

And there are times when he'll realize that he is a wee bit different than his classmates.

* * *

A few days ago a fellow freshman who was graduated from Drew School stopped him in the Harvard Yard.

"Aren't you Fred Safier?" he asked.

Fred agreed he was.

"You taught my chemistry class," the classmate told the 12-year-old.

Red Tape Stalls Magazine Swap

U. S. and Russia Fail to Agree on Terms for Distribution

NEW YORK (AP)—For two months the projected Soviet-American exchange of official propaganda periodicals has been tangled in red tape.

* * *

There's no indication it will get unsnarled soon.

Thousands of copies of the Soviet government's English-language magazine U.S.S.R. are lying in a Manhattan warehouse. Thousands of copies of the Russian-language Amerika are stacked up in the American Embassy in Moscow.

* * *

State Department officials said today negotiations are going on in Moscow over the question of how big a cut the official Soviet government distribution agency is going to take from the sale price of Amerika. Until that is agreed, the officials indicated, there isn't going to be any exchange.

The U.S. and Soviet governments agreed on the exchange last December. Both magazines were ready to go in early July. A simultaneous release date for both early that month had been hoped for. But it was delayed when the Soviet distribution agency failed to present a contract covering Amerika to the U.S. Embassy for a considerable period. The Soviets, meanwhile, had reached an agreement with State Department approval for the American News Co. to distribute U.S.S.R.

* * *

When the draft Soviet contract did arrive at last, State Department officials reported the Soviet agency was attempting to outdo capitalists in its commission margin. The Russian agency has been seeking, apparently, to slice off more than half the sale price of 5 rubles ($1.25 at the official exchange rate).

* * *

The Soviet government intends to price U.S.S.R. at 20 cents on American newstands. American News Co. declines to indicate exactly how much of this the Soviet Embassy will get — but informed guesses are that it is likely to be a little over half.

Focus on Women's Contribution

Spiritual leadership is one of the many projects of the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club. Pictured as they attended a corporate church service Sunday at All Saints Episcopal Church, launching National Business Women's Week activities, are Mrs. Anne Stapp, public affairs chairman of the club; Mrs. Margaret Long and Mrs. Harry Randall, who serves on the organization's legislative committee.

Working Girls Spotlighted in National BPW Week

Area Clubs Take Part in Sept. 23-29 Observance of Year's Strides Ahead

Every year, National Business Women's Week spotlights the women who work and their responsibilities in the community, the nation and the world.

This year the week of Sept. 23-29, sponsored throughout the United States by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, is set aside to pay tribute to women in business and professions and the contributions they make to the nation.

In their stride forward this year, the National Federation established the first worldwide foundation for women who work, The Business and Professional Women's Foundation.

The Foundation provides a research center, clearing house and library on all topics and materials related to women workers, and facilities are open to the public.

TO CONDUCT STUDIES

The Research Center will conduct special studies in the effects of automation, problems of retirement, and the legal and economic status of women in the business and professions.

* * *

The national headquarters was recently located in Washington, D. C., giving new vitality to the organization's prestige.

Here the organization's growing liaison with government departments, including the expanding program in international relations, is better served, and the federation's leading interest in international work is now a matter of direct contact.

As a member of the National Federation, the Pontiac club is vitally interested in the security of democracy for the individual and in promoting growth of the community through good government. Individual members are encouraged to be active and participating citizens.

KEEGO CLUB JOINS IN

Joining in the week's observance is the Keego Harbor Club organized by the Pontiac club in 1948. It is proud of the members it has in policy making positions.

Mrs. Homer Van Horn, a past president of the club and active member serves her community as city clerk. Mrs. Wilma Webb, second vice president, is mayor protem; and Mrs. William Billingsley, president, is deputy clerk.

The club serves it's community in many capacities and is currently interested in the civilian defense program and the establishing of a city library.

Mrs. Charles Leaf, also a member of the Keego club, is chairman of District One of the Michigan Federation.

NEWEST UNIT

The Waterford club is the newest unit of the federation in this area. It was organized in 1952 by the Keego club and presently has 39 active members, with Mrs. Helen Reese serving as president.

* * *

Its members have been working on their township study program for the past two years. They are helping establish and staff a service center for the recently organized Waterford branch of the American Cancer Society, and are currently assisting with the registration of voters for the coming election.

Members also completely staffed a motor transport corps for the Red Cross last year, and have been recognized for their work on the Ground Observer Corps.

In a message delivered to the National Federation from President Eisenhower, he said.

"I extend greetings on the occasion of the observance of National Business Women's Week. Since 1919 the Federation has occupied a position of leadership, advancing the interests and status of women in all types of endeavor. Through individual projects the organization has benefitted communities throughout the nation, it has supported efforts to promote international understanding and a durable peace.

A highlight of National Business Women's Week for the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club will be the presentation of government bonds to the Pontiac Civic Auditoruim Fund. Looking over the bonds are (left to right) Grace McLaughlin, first vice president of the club; Mrs. C. W. Salton, president, and Mrs. John Dow, second vice president.

The Daisy F. Jewett trophy was presented the Michigan State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs by the Pontiac BPW. The trophy is in the possession of the Waterford club for having published the best monthly publication in the State Federation during the past year. Pictured (left to right) are Mrs. Helen Reese, president of Waterford club, Mrs. Harry Ault, assistant editor of the publication, Mrs. Edmund Windeler, chairman of the committee on government study and Laura Day, bulletin editor.

Dinner Is Held for College Student

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt W. Rockwell and son, Arthur T. Rockwell of North Ardmore avenue entertained Thursday at a going away dinner for Beth Tuson who left Saturday for Central Air College in California.

Those present were Beth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tuson and son, Dick Johnson, Mrs. Edna Dinnan, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dinnan and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dinnan and family and Mr. and Mrs P. W. Dinnan.

Karen Marie Hoff Weds James Lafnear

Karen Marie Hoff chose a gown of Chantilly lace over tulle and satin for her wedding Saturday to James Russell Lafnear at St. John Lutheran Church. The Rev. Carl Nelson performed the rite.

Scalloped panels of the lace fell over a full hooped skirt of tulle and satin. A headpiece of lace trimmed with seed pearls held the bride's fingertip veil of illusion. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Karen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoff of South East boulevard, and James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Owen of Auburn Heights.

Mrs. Clarence Mount Jr., the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of aqua taffeta, princess style, and carried a bouquet of red Happiness roses.

FLOWER GIRL IN AQUA

Flower girl Patricia Mount also wore a dress of aqua taffeta in princess style.

Jack Morse was best man, and ushers were Joseph Swift and Ronald Fiscus. Jan Gatz was ringbearer.

For the ceremony Mrs. Hoff chose a blue-gray dress with which she wore pink accessories. Mrs. Owen's choice was a black lace dress with rose lining and pink accessories.

* * *

Attending from out of town were Mrs. Olga Lindberg of Chicago, Mrs. Ben Hoff of Brooklyn, Mrs. Tuppin Hoff of Chicago and Bob Nelson of Chicago.

MRS. JAMES R. LAFNEAR

Married Saturday in St. Johns Lutheran Church were Karen Marie Hoff and James Russell Lafnear. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoff of South East boulevard and James, of East Pike street, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Owen of Auburn Heights.

Past Presidents Hold Meeting

Mrs. William Jones, president of Zone Eight, Past President's Club, MOMS of America, Inc. appointed Mrs. Arthur Burgess, ways and means chairman of the organization, and Mrs. Duncan McVean, publicity chairman at the Thursday meeting held at her home on Cass avenue.

Retiring president Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind was presented with a gift, and a money donation was sent to the Detroit Tri-County League of Nursing to help a student nurse.

Zone Eight will serve luncheon to the Future Nurses Class at the Alger House, Detroit Oct. 20. Members are planning to attend the Michigan State MOMS convention at Hotel Statler Oct. 17 through 19.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 25 at the Lake Angelus home of Mrs. Bessie Clark.

Aims Are Presented

Tipacon Unit Holds Membership Tea

A discussion of the aims and purposes of the American business Women's Association was presented as part of the program held Sunday at the annual fall membership tea of the Tipacon Chapter.

* * *

Lillian Laska, charter member and first president of the local group, and Arlene Newcombe took part, explaining the ABWA history and functions to prospective members.

They spoke of the organization an educational association for progressive women in business, telling how in the six years since its inception, it has grown to a membership of over 8,500 in 43 states.

An educational benefit spoken of by Miss Laska and Miss Newcombe was the association magazine, "Women in Business" published nine times yearly with items on such subjects as personality, letter writing and grammar. The book also has a section devoted to chapter activities through the United States.

Another benefit explained was the accident insurance provided by the ABWA merely by membership in the organization.

Prospective members, guests of the group, were Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Paul Burke, Mrs. Claude Dodge, Mrs. Betty Ann Sheridan, Marilyn Main, Mrs. Homer Sisney, Martha Boatright and Mrs. Nita Beach. They were presented white carnation corsages by Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, president.

Mrs. William Reynolds of North Telegraph road opened her home for the event. Assisting Mrs. Joanne Callahan, general chairman, was Mrs. Elva Templeton. Mrs. William Preece poured.

A bouquet of garden flowers in shades of pink, nauve and blue centered the tea table flanked by white tapers.

The tea is one of two given annually by the group for prospective members. Other activities include a "Boss Night" dinner given annually by members with their bosses as guests. The local chapter also handles an educational project yearly, keeps a scrapbook and publishes a monthly newsletter for members.

Pontiac Group Hears Address by Broomfield

Sen. William S. Broomfield, Republican candidate for U. S. Congress was speaker at the Thursday evening meeting of Anna Gordon WCTU. Members gathered at the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church for the meeting.

Speaking to the group Sen. Broomfield said, "Many of the issues confronting us cannot be solved by legislation alone. A program of legislation and education must be combined," he said.

Mrs. Joseph Green, president of the 18th district, introduced the speaker.

The Ethel E. Little YTC presented a short program consisting of an instrumental duet by Larry and Garry Sherman of Auburn Heights; two numbers by Carolyn Jessee of Oxford and Billy and Shirley Smith and a report of YTC camp by Joanne Deaver, concluded by group singing.

Announcement was made of a farewell get-to-gether for Mrs. Frank Clemens, to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Deaver on Cottage street Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m.

At Luncheon in R. C. Gibson Home

Chorus to Welcome New Members

BIRMINGHAM — Several new members will be welcomed into the Birmingham Musicale's Chorale Ensemble when Mrs. Robert C. Gibson entertains that group at a potluck luncheon Thursday noon at her home on Lenhill court.

The newcomers, selected by audition, will join in the chorale's rehearsals starting Oct. 4, in Thursday morning 9:30 sessions at the Community House.

Mrs. Elliott S. Kinney is chairman this year, with Mrs. John V. Whitehouse in charge of luncheon arrangements. Aiding her will be Mrs. A. Frye Ayers, Mrs. Elmer C. Rosenberg, Mrs. Miles G. Welter and Mrs. James M. Wilson.

Director for 14 years, Mrs. Elwin C. Greer will outine details of two programs scheduled this season.

Travelers last week included former Gov. and Mrs. Murray D. VanWagoner, who attended the roadbuilders' convention at Mackinac Island.

Sharing the island stay with them, including hearing the talk by the Mackinac Straits bridge designer and taking a boat trip to see the bridge under construction, were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Swayze of Cass Lake.

The VanWagoners plan an Oct. 15 trip to Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., to see their daughter and her husband, Capt. Fred Karhohs, who is studying there.

ACCIDENT BRINGS CHUCKLE

Still laughing at language difficulties on their summer's trip are the William R. Shaws of Jonathan lane.

Their French car rolled over off the Autoban in Germany, and minutes later an ambulance was rushing Shaw off to a hospital with what turned out to be a broken rib and bruises.

Mrs. Shaw was left with tourists madly photographing the wrecked car, and two German police with whom she struggled to talk in snatches of French.

"We'd learned just enough in the conversational French course they gave last spring at Bloomfield Hills High School," says Mrs. Shaw, "that I learned the ambulance had gone to Badreichenhall and that a tow truck was on its way. It came—two hours later."

MOVED TO DISPENSARY

By that time, Shaw had been transferred to an Army dispensary in Berchtesgaden. After Mrs. Shaw found him there, he was moved to the Kreis Krankenhaus (sick house in the same city.

"Ein rippe gebrochen" was a phrase they learned was quite useful in explaining Shaw's difficulties in getting in and out of taxies as they went about Berchtesgaden in the next few days to see spots where Hitler had his hideaway.

The couple spent seven weeks abroad, seeing spots that they had too briefly visited on their honeymoon three years ago.

Mrs. Arthur Zebedee was hostess for cocktails and dinner at her home, 19400 Riverside, Beverly Hills, one night last week.

Among guests were the Fred Missals, who left Thursday for a convention in California and a two week visit.

ATTEND FASHION SHOW

About 375 attended the Fur and Fall Fashion show last Thursday afternoon at Birmingham Country Club, sponsored by the Altar Society of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs.

Mrs. Thomas Devine was chairman for the luncheon event.

Gale Stringer, president of the Country Club, will meet tomorrow night with board members of the club for dinner and planning of future events.

Mrs. John S. Judd, chairman for the AAUW Book Sale in October, entertained committeewomen at her home on Bingham road for dessert luncheon Friday.

The book pickup service is already in operation, with donated volumes being stored at a few residential points. On Oct. 20 a force of high school boys will move the books to the Detroit Edison office for the sale.

The boys are Howard Willetts, David Bugbee, Bill Acorn, Jim Walz, and Hal Dittrich, working on a truck loaned by Earl Russel of Hazel Park.

Private sale on Oct. 21 precedes public sale days.

Take Time to Tap Source of Creative Life

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Every human needs time for contemplation! Even if we do not pray in the conventional way, we need chunks of time when we can completely relax and allow the hectic pieces of life to fall into place in order to achieve some semblance of beauty and symmetry in living.

It is impossible to come into contact with the "feel" of life, and its sweep, when a child is crying, the radio is blaring, the biscuits are burning or your husband is waiting to play gin rummy with you.

Unless you consciously plan for these revitalizing times alone you will not have them. Probably the best time for the woman is in the late evening after the last child is tucked into bed, or in the early morning before the family is stirring.

It must be a time when you will not be interrupted. Then you can completely relax and let the forces of life flow into you.

KEEPS YOU YOUTHFUL

Such times will keep you youthful. They will bring problems into focus, renew energy, deepen your sleep and brighten your days. They will bring new eagerness to daily living and replace fear with courage.

* * *

Many people go for day upon day and week upon week and sometimes month upon month, without ever being alone for a period of complete relaxation. This means physical limpness, and mental and emotional uncoiling. Once you tap this source of inspiration and health you will not allow life to rob you of it again.

We live in the midst of so much confusion, so many problems, so much noise, so many demands, and so many associations and duties, that we fail to realize how great our need for these times is until we try this therapy.

The correlation between the emotions and health is so certain and strong that any procedure which promotes the good of both is a magic potion.

* * *

If you would like to have my leaflet "Individual Happiness," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 65 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

TEENAGERS GET TIRED, TOO, AND SHOULD GUARD HEALTH

We often think of the old saying, "It is too bad that youth is wasted on young people." However, teenagers often suffer from fatigue. In fact this is a characteristic of this age and accounts for much of the seeming indolence which accompanies it.

* * *

For a day or so I want to write about teenagers, not from the viewpoint of correcting blackheads or overweight, but concerning the nutritional and health needs of this group.

The terrific physical growth which takes place during these years is one of the main reasons for this fatigue. Not only the bone structure but the muscles, heart and glandular systems, are developing rapidly. Busts appear and girls start their menstrual periods while boys turn into men.

There are also other strains; school work, keeping up with the crowd, late hours, self-consciousness which appears as each sex becomes aware of the other, the longing to be popular. A feeling of failure in school work or in making friends also may lead to fatigue.

TIME OF TRANSITION

This transition period between childhood and maturity may be a bewildering one. The youngster suddenly is confronted with a whole new set of concepts, outlooks and experiences, without the judgment and settled beliefs and experience which would act as guides.

* * *

Teenagers require a lot of sleep in order to aid nature in her rapid physical development. When they are up late they should sleep late in the morning. As a habit they should get eight or nine hours a night, and nine is better.

Do not be too hard on your teenagers when they loll about and seem incapable of energetic action. However, girls and boys of this age need exercise. Sometimes this is the answer to their weariness. An interest in outdoor life and sports will do much to build health and to relieve the strains of this age.

* * *

If you would like to have my leaflet which was written especially for teenage girls, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for "Popularity" leaflet No. 58, to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow: "Here's What the Teenager Needs in the Way of Diet."

Every human needs time for contemplation . . . such times will keep you youthful.

Esther Circle Plans Dinner, Booth at Bazaar

Esther Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Fay Magnar on East Tennyson avenue. Mrs. kenneth Skeleton gave devotions at the Wednesday evening meeting, using as her topic, "Heaven."

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Lulu Luby, plans were made for the booth the circle will have at the bazaar and turkey dinner, being held at the church Nov. 1.

A cooperative dinner and family night are planned for Oct. 4 at the church. Members of the Esther and Mary Martha Circles will be responsible for shutins during the month of October.

Mrs. James Deeg was a guest at the meeting. The group was invited to meet at the home of Mrs. A. T. Twiet on East Mansfield avenue for the next meeting.

Meals are more interesting if foods that stimulate the appetite such as highly seasoned soups or tart fruits, are served first. Sweet foods tend to dull the appetite, so serve them last.

Mary Lyon Group Meets, Hears Talk

The September meeting of the Mary Lyon Group of First Congregational Church was held Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

Mrs. Franklin Bens of Birmingham, a former social worker with the Sioux Indians of South Dakota, gave an informative talk on the Indian way of life and their place in society. Meg DeCourville presented devotions using two Indian prayers.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Malcolm K. Burton, Mrs. Elwood Bigler, Mrs. Dora Dawson, Mrs. George Gaches and members of the Plymouth Group.

True Test of Selfless Mother-Love

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Lying in wait for you is your son's wedding day.

From your church pew you'll watch him as he moves to join the other woman at the altar. Your heart will contract with pain. In her bridegroom you'll see your baby — the child you've nursed, cherished, educated, worked for. For years it's been your life to fill every need he brought you.

Now the sound of his voice pledging himself in marriage will be more than you can bear. You'll want to cry out, "Oh, come back, come back to me!" For you'll know that going forward for him means looking to the other woman to fill his needs.

And you don't want him to discover that she can do it.

This fear of a child's appreciation of other people is what upsets us on his first day of school as well as on his wedding day.

DON'T ROMANTICIZE

It's a harmless fear so long as we don't romanticize it.

But if around the first day of school, we think of our possessive fear as love, it becomes harmful. We ask the child to trust it.

Trusting it, he begins at once to imagine he's as threatened by his new experience as we secretly want him to think he is. And in effect he'll cry: "I don't want to go forward, but stay a baby with you."

However if we refuse to dignify our possessiveness with the name of love, the child at once senses it. As we obviously don't trust it ourselves, he doesn't have much respect for it either.

* * *

He begins to be able to think: "Maybe this new experience, teacher and group of other children will prove interesting instead of threatening to me." And gradually he accepts the idea that the new people he's going to meet can fill needs of his we can't possibly fill.

DIFFERENT

To mothers approaching a child's first day of school, let me commend these words of psychoanalyst Erich Fromm: "Unlike other loves, motherly love begins with oneness and leads to separateness.

"It must help the child to grow away from her. It is easy for any mother to love her child before this process of separation has begun; but to love the child and at the same time to let it go — and to WANT to let it go — is the task in which most mothers fail."

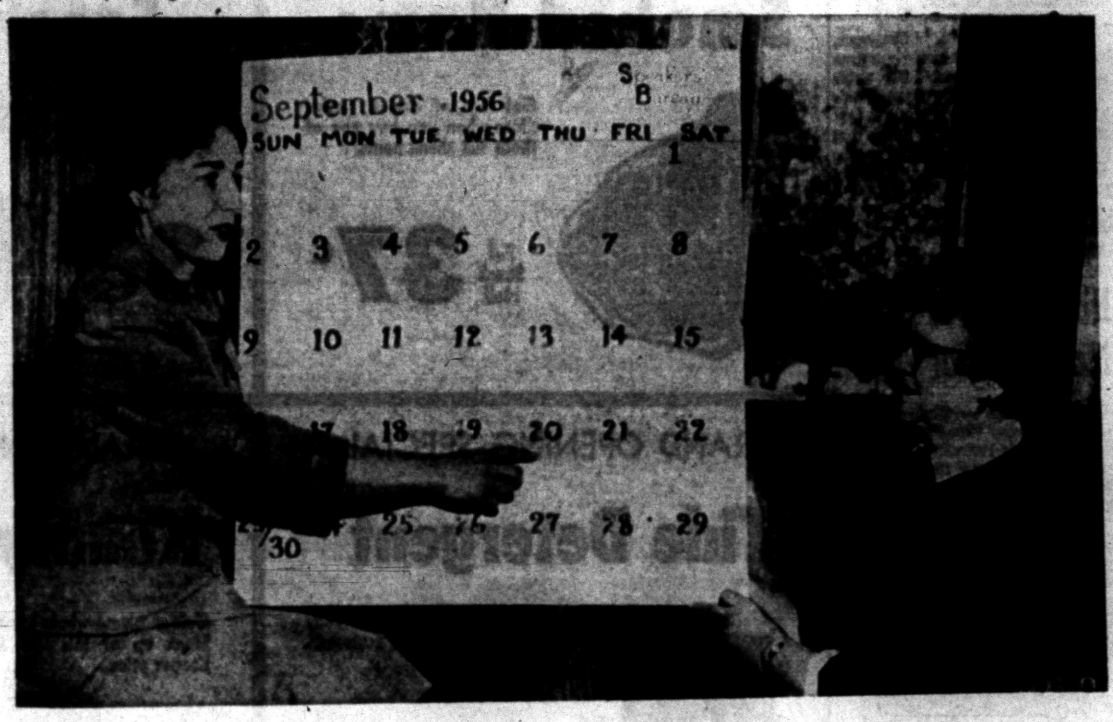

Yet it's the task we should begin to set for ourselves around the first day of school.

If we refuse to, we pay for our possessive fear. Unless we will struggle to overcome our fear of releasing the child to new experience, we are held enslaved to him to our own destruction as well as his.

To date, approximately 45 organizations are cooperating in the recruitment drive. Mrs. Shunck spoke at the Better Home and Garden Club meeting held at Mrs. John Cowe's home on North Hammond Lake road.

We Found a Rhubarb Conserve!

By JANET ODELL

Recently, when we mentioned in an article that we had liked Rhubarb Conserve as Grandma made it, we received a whole batch of Rhubarb Conserve recipes from Mrs. Anthony Kalvin of Lake Orion.

She says that beginning in September the young tender shoots of rhubarb are just as good to use as they are in the spring. If you don't have a rhubarb plant, use the frozen variety. Or just tuck this away for use next spring.

Mrs. Kalvin is a great gardener, with flowers as her specialty. She also cares for dogs, has two German Shepherds of her own.

RHUBARB CONSERVE
By Mrs. Anthony G. Kalvin

2 pounds rhubarb
2 pounds sugar
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
Pulp and juice of 4 oranges
Little piece of ginger root (optional)
1 cup chopped blanched almonds

Mix all ingredients except almonds. Simmer slowly until thickened. Add almonds. Pour into hot glasses and seal. The ginger root gives this conserve a decidedly different and pleasing flavor.

Pick Committee for St. Michael Fall Bazaar

Committee members for the annual fall bazaar of St. Michael Church were announced at the meeting of St. Monica Guild of the church. Mrs. John Wargel and Mrs. Arthur Ebert entertained the guild at the Ebert home on Harper street.

Appointed to work on the bazaar were Mrs. Stephen Turner and Mrs. Randel McNerney, rummage; Mrs. Louis Petrusha and Mrs. Ed Backus will handle the gift tree; Mrs. Harry Cook, miscellaneous booth; and Mrs. Ben Budwit religious articles booth.

Mrs. Vincent Vaverek invited all to attend the NCCW luncheon at the church hall Oct. 2. New guild members attending the recent meeting were Mrs. Bernard Eibergen, Mrs. Raymond Shindorf, Mrs. J. T. Bramble, Mrs. Alex Hiller and Mrs. Norman Brower.

Mrs. Merrit Johnson of Vinewood avenue will be the October hostess.

FEDERAL DEPT. STORES SAGINAW AT WARREN, PONTIAC

But Ike and Adlai Don't Have to Worry

Splinter Parties Continue to Make White House Bids

WASHINGTON (AP) — Splinter parties are making their customary bids for the presidency again this year, despite the fact they polled a total of only 309,000 votes, or a half of 1 per cent, in 1952.

Seven minor party tickets have been named so far, but few will qualify and poll votes in more than 20 states if past history is a yardstick.

Latest to nominate was the Constitution party, a states' rights, anti-federal income tax group. It picked Democrat T. Coleman Andrews, a Richmond, Va., insurance executive and former U.S. Internal Revenue commissioner, for president, and Thomas H. Werdel, former Republican House member from California, for vice president.

* * *

Andrews, a critic of the income tax who says his business obligations will prevent him from waging a campaign, also has been endorsed by a number of splinter groups which last weekend launched a "national conservative movement" at a conference in Memphis, Tenn.

That movement hopes to get slates of independent electors on the ballot in about 15 states. A strongly pro-segregation organization has put Andrews on the ballot in Virginia as a candidate of the "States' Rights party of Virginia."

Six other minor parties are in the field, including New Jersey's Poor Man's party.

* * *

The Prohibition party nominated Dr. Enoch A. Holtwick, Greenville, Ill., retired history professor, for president, and Brig. Gen. Herbert C. Holdridge, ret., Sherman Oaks, Calif., for vice president. The party polled 72,769 votes in 1952 in 21 states.

The Greenback party, which started campaigning for "money reform" in 1874, picked its candidates by mail referendum. On Dec. 1, 1955, it nominated Fred C. Proehl, 75-year-old Edmonds, Wash., grocer, for president, and Edward Kirby Meador, Boston book publisher, for vice president. Voting records list no votes cast for the Greenbackers in 1952.

* * *

The Socialist party, which passed its peak years ago, nominated last June the same ticket it put up four years ago—Darlington Hoopes, Reading, Pa., and Samuel H. Friedman, New York City. In 1952 the ticket won the support of 19,685 voters in 16 states.

The Socialist-Labor ticket also is headed this year by its 1952 candidate — Eric Hass of New York City. Mrs. Georgia Cozzini, Milwaukee housewife, is his running mate. The party rang up 30,376 votes in 23 states in 1952.

The Socialist Workers party last month renominated its 1952 ticket of Farrell Dobbs for president and Mrs. Myra Tanner Weiss for vice president. Both are from New York. They received 10,306 votes in seven states in 1952.

* * *

Henry Krajewski, Secaucus, N.J., tavern owner and one-time pig farmer, who got 4,203 votes in his home state as Poor Man's candidate in 1952, announced last fall he'll be seeking to boost that figure in November. His running mate is Mrs. Ann Marie Yezo, North Bergen, N.J., housewife.

The Progressive party and Vegetarians have not named slates this year.

Nixon Tries to Find More Time for Visit

LANSING (AP) — State Republicans said today Vice President Nixon is trying to rearrange his schedule to allow more time in Grand Rapids Oct. 1 than originally planned.

Nixon is scheduled to make only a noon appearance.

John Feikens, Republican state chairman, said Nixon "wants to meet as many people as possible during his visit."

"Plans are under way to make his visit a rally for all Western Michigan Republicans," Feikens said.

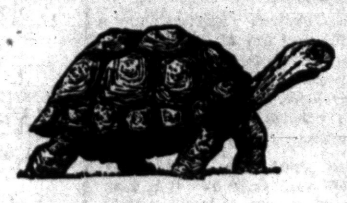

The Department of Commerce and Labor was created by an act of congress on February 14, 1903.

Dedication Ceremonies Sunday

Health Center Has Modern Look

The brand new Oakland County Health Center, 1070 N. Telegraph, which was dedicated in a program yesterday afternoon, is a sparkling structure of glass and aluminum.

* * *

Strictly modern — one of the most advanced of its kind — the building which is 216 by 48 feet long, contains 40 rooms.

First floor of the new structure contains a complete tuberculosis control clinic, a dental clinic and a series of medical treatment rooms, all of which adjoin a waiting room.

Also off the waiting room is a play terrace provided for children to occupy time when they're waiting for vaccination appointments.

Field Nurses quarters, offices for sanitarians, statisticians and medical examiners are also located in the first floor facility.

The medical director and his assistant occupy offices adjoining the entrance lobby.

POPULAR FEATURE

One of the most popular features of the building is a large assembly room which can be divided into three smaller conference rooms. These rooms will be used for public insruction.

A new feature of the building is a kitchen to be used for diet and nutritional instruction. A library is also housed on the first floor.

In the basement are two storage rooms, a mimeograph room and a future laboratory. The Health Department now uses the laboratory facilities of the Oakland County Contagious Hospital.

The new center is the most modern of its kind and is dubbed a "workshop for the health department" by staff members.

* * *

Federal funds paid for 34 per cent of the building, and these funds were made available under the Hill-Burton Act and administered by the state Office of Hospital Survey and Construction.

The building itself was planned by Dr. John D. Monroe, health director and Dr. John S. Lambie, Oakland County medical coordinator.

Dr. Lambie said of the building, "Bricks and stones don't make a health center. However, we have an excellent start in an overall program to protect the health of all our county residents from the unborn child to the aged person. That's why we like to call the building a 'workshop.'"

Herman Dignan, Politician, Dies

Ex-Secretary of State Under Gov. Harry Kelly Dies in Sleep at 65

EAST LANSING (AP) — Short, jovial Herman H. Dignan, Michigan's secretary of state from 1943 to 1947, is dead after a long illness.

Dignan, 65-year-old Republican elder statesman, died Saturday shortly after going to bed about 11 p.m. He served two terms each in the State House and State Senate before being elected secretary of state.

In recent years Dignan had been a public relations counsel for Mitchell-Bentley Corp., of Owosso and Ionia, a legislative lobbyist and a harness race starting judge at Northville Downs.

Funeral service is scheduled for 2 p.m. Tuesday at Owosso's Congregational Church. Burial will be in Owosso, where Dignan operated a hardware store for 25 years.

A native of Saginaw, Dignan spent his boyhood on a farm near Frankenmuth. Then he moved to Owosso, where he became a leading hometown booster and president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dignan's two terms as secretary of state were under former Gov. Harry Kelly, now a Supreme Court justice. After the late Kim Sigler was nominated for governor in 1946, the state Republican convention bypassed Dignan and nominated Fred Alger Jr., for secretary of state.

Engineer to Speak on Foundry Methods

Robert Tallman, process engineer for Pontiac Motor Division's foundry, will discuss a meeting of Pontiac Chapter 69 of the American Society of Tool Engineers tonight in the Pontiac Elks Temple.

Tallman will speak on methods of developing engineering drawings into foundry pattern equipment.

"Tool engineers responsible for providing tools and methods for the machining of castings will have an opportunity to learn what to expect of the foundry," publicity chairman Emerson Brown said today.

1—Half of a 48-foot ladder; 2—One flashlight; 3—Apair of binoculars.

Getting Smaller

NEW YORK — A new tiny transistor has been developed that may replace the conventional "big" transistors. Twenty of the new ones can fit on a dime.

NEW PLANS — Plans are being completed for the renewal of the weekly dances of the Blue Note Teen Club of this area which now includes over 900 members. The first such dance was held Saturday at the Pontiac Armory. Bandleader Donald Sayles, at far right, base fiddle player Tex Thor, left, and vocalist Bonnie Williams are pictured above going over new arrangements for the fall program.

Nixon Raps Dems for 'Distortion'

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) —Vice President Nixon started the second week of a 15,000-mile campaign tour today by accusing the Democrats of stepping up "their campaign of misrepresentation and distortion."

* * *

He made the accusation as he headed for a noonday speech at Phoenix, Ariz., and a night rally at Salt Lake City after a weekend pause here in his current tour that started last Tuesday. He has visited 11 states.

Despite the Democrats' tactics, Nixon said, the Eisenhower administration intends to "rest its case with the voters on a full and truthful presentation of its record."

That record, he said, is one of peace, prosperity and progress and of elevation of "the whole moral tone of the federal government" during the past four years.

* * *

"This is one of the historic occasions in American political history when an administration welcomes the opportunity to rest its case with the voters on a full and truthful presentation of its record," he said.

He said he was sure that "if we continue to tell our story vigorously and effectively," all 11 states visited—in the Far West, the Northwest and the Grain belt —"should remain in the Eisenhower column on Nov. 6."

Reports from political leaders in those states, he said, convinced him that Republican senatorial and congressional candidates "are gaining strength" and the GOP stands a good chance of winning the seats necessary for control of Congress.

JUST AVERAGE — Straining his muscles, James Barry of New York City tries to measure up to the standards set by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. The youngster really puffed up with pride after he was named the "average American boy" by the Children's Aid Society. Jim's 27-inch chest is only eight one-thousandths of an inch off the standard, and his height, waist and hip measurements were just as close.

Teen Club Staging Weekly Dances

The Blue Note Teen Club, a local organization for youngsters, has begun a series of school-year dances at the Pontiac Armory.

* * *

The first was held Saturday night. They will continue each Saturday. Don Sayles and his band will provide the music.

Sayles is one of the club founders. It has grown to almost 1,000 members in four months.

The group was formed to give teenagers a place to go during the summer, but it became such a success plans were made to continue the weekly programs during school months.

SITE CHANGES

The summer dances were held at the Waterford Township Eagles Club on M59 on a week night. Classes made it necessary to change the night to Saturday so a new site had to be found because the Eagles hold their own dances Saturdays.

The saxophone-playing Sayles and his band have been working on some new arrangements along with vocalist Bonnie Williams to provide Teen Club members with the best in music.

They also hope to stage various guest acts and have other bands appear on the program during the season.

The dances are open to members only and are always under adult supervision. Non-members may join by attending one of the dances and signing up. A limit soon will be placed on membership.

FINE FEATHERED FRIEND — Their playmate doesn't seem unusual to these pups who get ready to romp with a three-month-old wild buzzard. The bird, found by a Palmetto, Ga., farmer shortly after it was hatched, sleeps at night with the pups and their mother, spreading its wings to cover them all. Allowed to roam the farm at will, it sometimes flies to the barn's rooftop but never makes any attempt to escape.

Truman Advises Past Presidents How to Carry On

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says an ex-president must act "as if he had never been president."

* * *

Speaking at a dinner honoring past presidents of Kehilath Israel Synagogue last night, Truman had this advice for the former presidents:

"A man finds it difficult to return to his former position. It is difficult to get people to understand that you want to live as anyone else.

"The past president should be helpful to those who succeed him, but he must be diplomatic. He must be exceedingly careful to remember the feelings of both the man going out and the man coming into office."

"It is interesting to watch the reaction of people once you have stepped down. If a person isn't careful, he will begin to think he's as good as friendly people think he is," he added.

* * *

Truman said no one has been treated more kindly than he since he left office.

Undaunted by Colombia Native

Russia Claims 10,000 in 100-Year-Old Bracket

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS) —The Russians refuse to be outdone by the Colombian native who claims to be 167 years old. They insist there are more than 10,000 persons in the Soviet Union living a century or more.

* * *

To back up their claims, they cite a "Longevity Album" recently published in Russia containing case histories of 50 reputed ultra-centegenarians—one of whom, said to be 155 years old, saw the Napoleonic invasion of 1812.

Another, reported to be 123 years old, took part in the Crimean War and witnessed the events described by Count Leo Tolstoy in the "Sevastopol Stories," the album states.

The Soviet U. N. delegation, reporting on publication of the album, said the 155-year-old man, Russia's oldest, is Yagor Koroyev of Yermani Village in Java District. According to the account, he was a contemporary of the famous writer, Pushkin, and served as kitchen boy "with the famous Russian General Yermolov, who fought in the war against Napoleon."

TEETH NOT GOOD

The other is Suleiman Arshba who lives in Tkvarcheli. Now a gardener, he was asked about the condition of his teeth and reportedly replied: "They are not so good, one is shaking."

Many of the 100-plus Soviet citizens are said to live in the Republic of Georgia, birthplace of the late Stalin who died at 73.

The Soviet delegation said in reporting on the album:

"Each page of the album arouses astonishment. There is a picture of Yekaterina Dzanzava of Gali (Agkhazi) born in 1833; then there is a photograph of 115-year-old B. Mamporia, resident of the Sukhumi District; 110-year-old Nusho Grdzelishvili, a collective farm woman of Kisiskhevi Village in Telavi District, and others."

The report said that in Fbilisi alone 617 persons of extreme old age have been recorded.

* * *

It said "until now the opinion has been prevalent that there is a connection between living in the mountains and longevity." However, the statement added, scientific observation fails to confirm this belief, since ultra-centegenarians were found in level country as well.

Jobless Can Refuse Less Than $1 an Hour

DETROIT (AP) — A man laid off from his job can refuse work paying less than $1 an hour and remain eligible for unemployment compensation, the Michigan Employment Security Commission has ruled.

MESC said no claimant of jobless insurance will be forced to accept less than the federal minimum of $1 an hour under duress of losing benefits.

The ruling came in the case of a stockboy who refused to accept an 80-cent hourly job with his company after being laid off from his regular job.

U. of Illinois Installs Ex-Wayne President

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — A day-long schedule of activities is on tap today as the University of Illinois celebrates the formal installation of Dr. David Dodds Henry as its 12th president.

Henry, former head of Wayne State University, has served as president for more than a year. He succeeded Dr. Lloyd Morey Sept. 1, 1955, but the formal installation was deferred.

A symposium on "The Contribution of the State University of the American Waye of Life" highlighted installation activities. Six prominent Illinois alumni, representing education, business, agriculture, government and labor, participated in the discussion.

Boy Bounced in Traffic

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Husky Danny Brentlinger, 2, learned about hard knocks during a 1½-hour adventure while AWOL from his mother. He was bumped twice by cars while trying to cross a street and came out with hardly more than a black eye. Police finally returned him to his mother.

The end of the 1956 college baseball season brought the end of the coaching career of colorful Bunn Hearn, North Carolina coach for 27 years.

Copter Rescues 3 Lost Children on Florida Beach

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Two Michigan youngsters and a Florida pal talked importantly to playmates today about a helicopter hop.

* * *

But it was a different story yesterday when the helicopter found them a little scared, a little cold and very hungry on a desolate beach where they had spent the night while their parents and many others hunted them in vain miles away.

The adventurers are Christopher Berner, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Berner of Clearwater, and Robert Lambert, 11, and his sister, Gayle, 9, children of Mrs. Phyllis Lambert of St. Clair, Mich.

The trio, accompanied by Christopher's mongrel dog, Sarge, went out Saturday to play in an old boat. They had sandwiches in a paper bag and were to be home in two hours.

SHOVE OFF

The boys got sticks and shoved the oarless boat into the water. Then they polled it around for a while. Suddenly their sticks wouldn't reach bottom any more.

They drifted three miles to the northernmost tip of Belleair Beach, which was deserted. They managed to beach the boat about dark but had no way to get home. They camped out on the beach, where a Coast Guard helicopter found them Sunday morning.

City Parks Director to Attend Institute

John A. Streit, assistant Pontiac Parks and Recreation director, will attend the National Recreation Assn. training institute on recreation administration in Philadelphia, Oct. 1-2.

14 Persons Spark Drive for Record Vote on Nov. 6

NEW YORK (INS)—Fourteen unknown, dedicated men and women may turn out to be among the most important people in the forthcoming presidential elections.

* * *

They are helping more than 140 organizations, plus committees and businesses, in America's greatest campaign to get out a record vote.

That means persuading millions of of non-voters, sometime and first time voters to ballot in the national elections on Nov. 6.

The 14 are former executives, advertising men, housewives, secretaries nad high school graduates now working for the American Heritage Foundation.

* * *

The foundation's non-partisan "register, inform yourself and vote" program is sparking the vote drive, which may be writing a major chapter in American history.

SUCCESS IN MAINE

It helped write one in Maine, where the final vote in the general election was 42 per cent above the first prediction of Paul MacDonald, deputy secretary of state in charge of elections.

* * *

And the volunteer foundation president, John C. Cornelius, said today he sees no reason why the drive can not get the same result through the nation.

The 56-year-old retired executive vice president of an advertising firm said, "If every member and affiliate of the 140 organizations doing the work, votes, it will set a new record . . .

"I would guess that the organizations will do a lot better in some states than they did in Maine; in some states they may do much worse. . . So far, in a very general way, we hear registration is up."

* * *

Among the organizations working with techniques and suggestions supplied by the foundation are many industry-wide groups, some 500 companies, civic, fraternal and other organizations like the Non-partisan League of Women's Voters and the Advertising Council, which has made the drive its major 1956 project.

FEEL STRONGLY

Cornelius said: "I don't think there has ever been a drive that equals this in the numbers of people working and involved . . . We feel pretty strongly about this thing."

* * *

In 1952 63 per cent of U.S. adults voted. Cornelius compared that percentage with the figures for similar elections in Belgium, 90 per cent; England, 83 per cent, and Sweden, 80 per cent.

"The lowest in any other democratic country that I know of was recently in Canada," he added, "and that was 72 per cent."

To increase the American vote, the non-profit Heritage Foundation operates in a number of ways. It has sparked contests between cities to see which can achieve the highest regigstration or vote, and city campaigns for 100 per cent votes.

With the foundation's stimulus, thousands of pamphlets have been mailed out. Voting reminders have been distributed in baseball parks, on bread wrappers, milk bottles and cereal packages.

WIDESPREAD DRIVE

The campaign to increase the vote is being waged through television film shorts, in factories, social centers and by personal doorbell ringing and telephone calls.

* * *

According to surveys of the 1952 election, people from 21 to 29, low-income groups and women had the lowest voting records because they refused to decide, couldn't identify with the issues, figured it was futile to vote, were uninformed or felt social and political pressures.

By contrast, these gruops had the highest voting record in 1952: Urban residents, college-educated and professional and managerial groups. Why? Because they want to be "in the swim," have feelings about civic duty and want to participate in government.

"The main reason people do not not vote is because they do not realize how important they and their votes are," Cornelius said. "We must find the right way to tell them they are important."

Vessels Avoiding Suez Converge on Capetown

JOHANNESBURG (AP) —Capetown, halfway to India in the days of the great trading empires, has become a key center in plans to beat the Egyptian hold on the Suez Canal.

* * *

Passenger liners totaling more than 225,000 tons are converging on Capetown and other South African ports. Dutch emigrant ships, British troopships and Australian passenger vessels are voyaging round the Cape of Good Hope to avoid Suez.

Ships of many nations have called at Capetown in the 300 years since the Dutch first settled there.

* * *

Ships seeking respite from the treacherous waters of the Cape of Good Hope used to put in at Table Bay, as Capetown's harbor is called, to replenish supplies of drinking water and buy cattle from the natives.

South Africa's other main port is Durban, which handles more cargo but fewer ships than Capetown. Port Elizabeth and East London are mainly wool ports.

* * *

During two world wars, the South African ports played major strategic roles. For the Suez crisis the South African government is setting up a similar emergency organization in Capetown to handle the influx of ships expected.

The emergency organization will direct incoming ships to the South African ports where they can be resupplied with a minimum of delay. Ships normally operating to and from South Africa will have priority.

Last July, before the Suez crisis, 113 ships tied up at Table Bay. In August the number jumped to 201. So far, the diverted ships arriving are mainly from the Far East, Australia and New Zealand.

Veteran Pension Checks Go to Non-Americans in 63 Countries

WASHINGTON (INS) — Every month, the U.S. treasury mails veterans benefit checks to 5,808 foreign citizens living in 63 countries.

They are pensions for disabilities incurred after, but not during, service with American military forces.

Some checks apparently have been forwarded regularly since the 1890s. They vary from $20 to $101 monthly, but average $78.91 for a veteran and $51.15 for a dependent widow or child.

The recipients are either U.S. nationals who dropped their citizenship after settling abroad or veterans who never were citizens.

TO CIVIL WAR

The checks are mailed to 3,523 veterans and 2,285 dependents of the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, and of World Wars I and II.

Data on the unusual payments was made public by the House Veterans Committee with indications efforts will be made when Congress reconvenes in January to halt them.

The report also showed monthly payments are being sent abroad to 1,801 American veterans and dependents of ex-servicemen; to 496 who claim dual citizenship, including American, and to 1,421 whose citizenship could not be determined by U.S. consular officials abroad.

In all, the annual payments amount to $7,903,557, of which veterans and dependents clearly identified as non-Americans receive 61 per cent.

The non-Americans are scattered all over the globe, including such out-of-the-way places as Tahiti, Samoa, French West Africa and the Sudan.

Assure Polar Teams of Chance to Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The vote is going as far South this year as possible — to 167 Americans in Antarctica near the South Pole.

The Defense Department said absentee ballots will be sent by air courier to the men waiting down there for the return of the Navy expedition later this year.

The marked ballots will be returned to the U. S. ambassador in New Zealand, who will forward them to the various states.

If all the world was to become as industrialized as the U. S., the requirements for raw materials would be multiplied by at least seven times, according to engineering surveys.

Home Rule Petition Set

Attorney Checks Papers for Westwood Village Proposal

SOUTHFIELD — Petitions to incorporate East and West Beverly Hills and Berkshire Hills subdivision into a home - rule village were delivered to Howard I. Bond this morning.

Bond, attorney for the Greenfield-Beverly Assn., formed last spring to incorporate the northern section of Southfield Township into what will be known as Westwood village, will turn the petitions over to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors as soon as they are checked said committee chairman Ted Shurtleff this morning.

Boundaries of the 4¼ square mile area with a population of 6,376, proposed for incorporation, would be from Greenfield to Evergreen between 13 and 14 mile roads, and from Evergreen to the eastern boundary of Bingham Farms Village, between 12½ and 14 Mile roads.

The area boasts seven civic associations, four of which have taken polls of residents as to their choice of becoming a home rule village, annexation to Birmingham or being in the new city of Southfield.

Shurtleff said the majority favored becoming a home-rule village.

The latest poll by the Beverly Artesian Civic Assn. shows of the 164 homes polled, out of the 119 votes returned, 84 were for the village, 22 for the city of Southfield, 11 for annexation to Birmingham, and two in favor of remaining as a township, said president of the association, Richard J. Blackhall.

Print Copies in Township on City Plan

SOUTHFIELD — Charter commissioners here have completed a new charter, copies of which are now being printed, Chairman of the Commission Leo. J. Walton said this morning.

Walton said they will be distributed to each home in the proposed new city of Southfield area Wednesday and Thursday.

A public hearing on the charter will be held Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Southfield High school gymnasium.

Voters agreed to incorporate last June but turned down the charter at the Dec. 12 election. Election date for the new city charter has been st for Dec. 3.

Bolivia Still Remains Under State of Siege

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Bolivia remained under a state of siege today in the wake of antigovernment riots that killed four persons and injured 25.

La Paz was quiet, but the government radio said armed workers and peasants were marching to the capital and other major towns to "help preserve order and prevent a possible attack on the headquarters of the federation of labor."

The government accused "vandals and Fascists" of touching off the riots Saturday night at the behest of the Socialist Falange party and with the backing of tin magnate Carlos Victor Aramayo. The government took over Bolivia's mines four years ago.

Other rioters burned the buildings of the progovernment newspaper La Nacion and put the torch to the government radio station. Demonstrators also attacked the police station.

Stevie Sees 'His Army'

AUBURN HEIGHTS—Little Stevie Jones, fighting the painful cancer that has taken oneofhiseyes vie Jones, fighting the painful cancer that has taken one of his eyes and makes his legs too painful to use for walking, is four years old today.

He'll be seeing "his army," the soldiers who have made the little son of the Norval Joneses of 3841 Featherstone, Auburn Heights, happier with their friendliness.

The "army" is the retinue of soldiers at the Nike base less than a half a mile from the Jones home, where the captain is taking Stevie and his parents for dinner at 4 p.m. today.

His grandmother, aunts and other relatives gathered for a birthday dinner party Saturday at the Jones home, and among gifts was a toy spinet piano, at which Stevie can sit and play.

Greeting cards arriving indicate public interest in the little boy, and the fire department of Auburn Heights entertained the lad with a two-fire-truck drill on Wednesday.

People have helped with the family's financing, drained by much hospitalization for Stevie. His mother says, "Right now we're making ends meet because the doctors and everyone are so good to us, but if anything else happens to Stevie, I don't know what we'll do."

Treatments at Ann Arbor have stopped, since doctors there said he was not responding any more, Mrs. Jones reports.

Crary Instructor Heads Waterford Study Slate; Board Eyes Bids

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Wayne McMeans, instructor at Isaac E. Crary Junior High School, was named by the Board of Education Thursday night as director of the district's adult education program.

This position was formerly held by George Tramontin, now principal of Covert School.

McMeans has been a member of the junior high school staff since September, 1953. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan College of Education and has done graduate work both at Wayne University and the University of Michigan.

Prior to his arrival in Waterford, he had completed 18 years of teaching.

The Board of Education will receive bids on the sale of $1 million in bonds on Oct. 4 at 8 p.m. It authorized the investing of $732,000 of reserve account funds in 90-day treasury bills which currently are paying 2.8 per cent interest.

A delegation of parents was on hand to request that something be done to control heavy traffic on Pontiac Lake road, west of Leggett School.

Automobiles travelling at excessive speeds make walking conditions hazardous, they pointed out. The board agreed to make a study of the situation and take action at a later meeting.

Fire After Explosion Causes $5,000 Loss

ROCHESTER — Damage to the extent of $5,000 was done to the William Lyon home, 5230 Orion Rd., Saturday night, about the time of an electrical storm here.

Fire Chief George Ross said "a faulty furnace could have caused an explosion," which was heard by Mrs. Lyon, who was home at the time. The family escaped the flames.

Alarm was turned in by a neighbor and the furious blaze was put out after two hours by Rochester firemen. The damage was covered by insurance.

Illness Causes Dem to Quit Election Race

LANSING (AP)—Jacob Theut withdrew today as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the seventh district.

Theut filed his notice of withdrawl in the office of Robert M. Montgomery, state elections director.

He said he was forced to step out of the race because of illness. A physician's statement, submitted with the notice, said Theut is suffering from coronary heart disease.

Montgomery said another nominee will be chosen by the Democratic chairman, secretaries and treasurers of the six counties comprising the seventh district.

Theut was Macomb county sheriff from 1941 to 1945. His replacement on the ballot will face Robert J. McIntosh, Port Huron, the Republican nominee.

Ortonville Man Has Historic Car License

By MARTHA LEWIS
Ortonville Correspondent

ORTONVILLE—A familiar sight in the village here is a 1929 Studebaker, bearing a license plate marking it as an historic vehicle.

Proud owner is Jerome B. Huff, 157 South St., who says, "I know I'll never have to purchase another license for this car." To own such a plate, one must have owned and driven the vehicle for 25 years, and he's had this car 27 years.

Many offers for "Old Faithful" as he calls the vehicle, have been a new coupe, another, $285 in cash, and one from a dealer who asked him to name his price, sight unseen. He refuses all offers with "That car's just like a member of the family."

Having taken its owner to California, the car registers about 200,000 miles. Huff recalls how he made two round trips to the west and home, besides driving from Los Angeles to Seattle, all without any repair.

The car's stainless steel valves have never been ground, its crankcase has never been removed and its copper radiator does not leak.

"On cold winter mornings," Huff testifies, "I'm always using 'Old Faithful' to help neighbors with cars that won't start."

His driving record includes a trip from the West when he was driving his new car. He drove, he recalls in one instance 257 miles without stopping.

He says, "Of course, you couldn't drive like that now with all these red lights. I used 14 gallons of gas on that stretch, with still some gas left when I arrived here in Ortonville."

One tire, purchased in 1938, has never had a puncture, Huff reports. It survived the winter that he hauled, with a trailer, 200 cords of wood with the car. The tire was 18 years old at that time, he says.

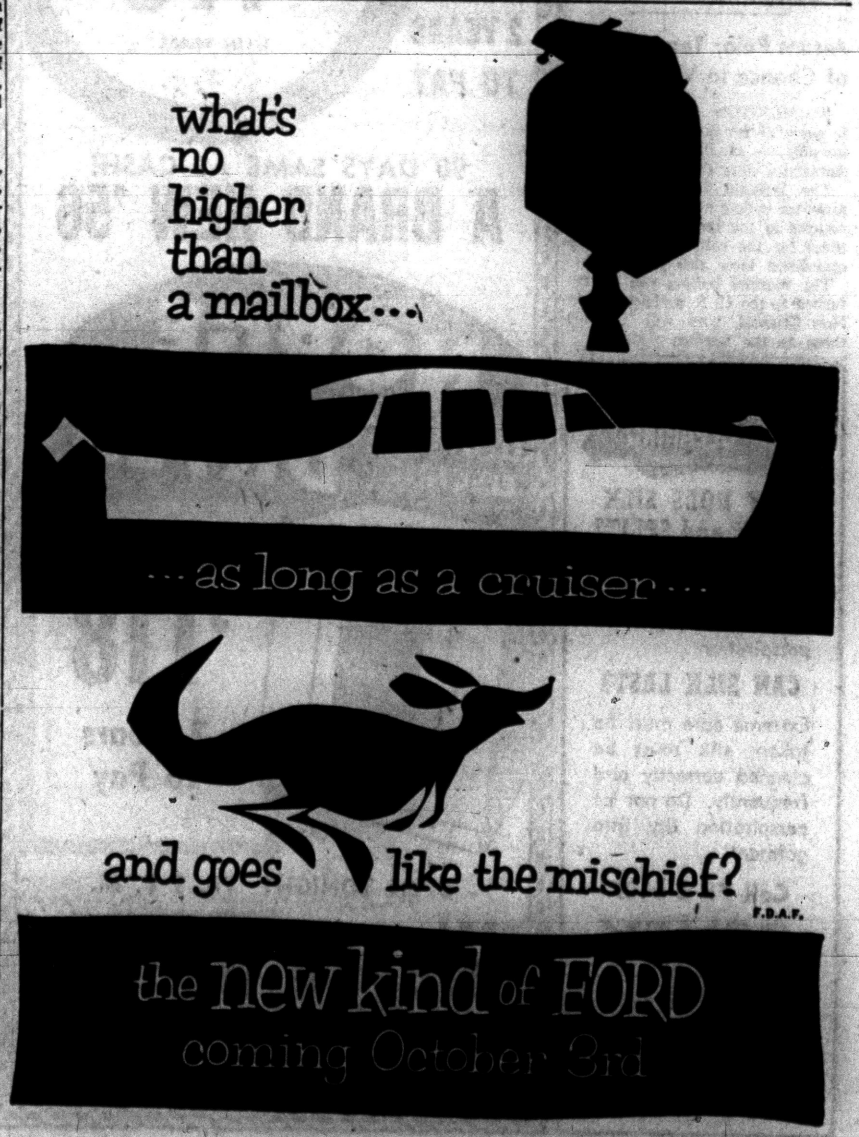

Using the car now in his work as sexton of the local cemetery, Huff has worked there for four years.

Born in 1879 in Brandon Township, Huff's secret of keeping well is "everyone should keep busy." He says he feels "more like 40."

He carries a membership card for safe driving awarded this year and citing his 46 years of driving with never a traffic violation ticket. He has never been involved in an accident.

HISTORIC LICENSE — Plates on the Jerome B. Huff automobile are symbol of its ownership by Huff for 27 years. Having registered about 200,000 miles, the old car of 1929 vintage has taken its Ortonville owner to California three times and hauled such loads as a trailer with 200 cords of wood.

Why Sit Back? All That Money Can Be Yours

Pennies from heaven may be all right for some, but more enterprising individuals are concentrating on the dollars in Pot-O-Gold. With nothing to lose and possibly $1,125 to gain, why don't you get busy on the clues and rules and see if you can come up with the right answers? Sixteen words are all between you and at least $100.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 17 must bear a Tuesday, Oct. 2, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press' judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Next 8 Days Busy Ones in Michigan

Political Fires to Blaze in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Both the Democratic and Republican parties will bring their big guns into Michigan in the next eight days for some political target practice. For the Republicans, it will be Vice President Nixon. For the Democrats, his challenger, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Kefauver hits the state first with speeches scheduled at Ironwood, Rudyard and St. Ignace in the Upper Peninsula and at Traverse City and Grand Rapids in the Lower Peninsula. He'll squeeze them all into one day—Tuesday.

Next Monday, Nixon will speak in Grand Rapids. Also for the Republicans former New York Gov. Thomas Dewey will revisit his alma mater, the University of Michigan, Wednesday for a talk before a Young Republicans club.

HALLECK OF INDIANA TOO

Today, the Republicans feature Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana in Flint and Port Huron. Halleck will appear Tuesday in Sault Ste. Marie and on an Iron Mountain radio program and speech.

While Gov. G. Mennen Williams, a Democrat seeking a fifth consecutive term, was attending a potato festival at Posen and a meeting of party leaders at Cheboygan Sunday, his running mate, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, was criticizing the Republican farm record in a speech at Battle Creek.

Walter P. Reuther, whose AFL-CIO slate has endorsed the Stevenson-Kefauver slate, added fuel to the political fires by saying "We would like to hear unequivocating commitments of concrete government support for a shorter work week."

Otherwise, Reuther said unionists would have to write off "as merely an example of political expediency" a speech by Nixon at Colorado Springs Saturday night in which the Vice President envisioned a four-day week in the "not too distant" future.

Profitable Panhandling Sends Beggar to Jail

DETROIT (INS)—Genter Adams, 66, of Detroit, the city's most solvent beggar and one of the House of Correction's best customers, was back in jail today.

Adams was arrested for panhandling yesterday while carrying $201 in cash and a bank book showing reposits totaling $5,702.

He has been arrested 28 times since 1929, serving 1,537 days in the House of Correction.

3 in County 4-H to Visit New York

Three Oakland County winners in judging and demonstration programs at the State 4-H Show in East Lansing last month, will leave for New York City this week.

Frank Lessiter, 16 and William Middleton, 16, both of Lake Orion, and Janet Long, 15 of Milford, will leave Saturday and return Oct. 4. They will be among some 30 state winners making the trip.

Lessiter won his trip by demonstrating an electrical setup; Janet was a food preservation demonstration winner, and Middleton demonstrated poultry cutting.

Redskins "Boot" Lions to Defeat, 19-17

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—What is the difference in the 1956 and the 1955 Detroit Lions? There's no difference, if one uses pre-season exhibition games as a measuring stick.

The Washington Redskins outplayed and out-smarted the Lions for three quarters, then overcame a 4th-period rally by the Detroiters to win a Buffalo exhibition Sunday by a 19-17 margin.

* * *

That loss gave the 1956 Lions a 4-2 exhibition record.

The Lions won four and lost two in 1955 exhibitions. Then in regular season play they lost nine and won only three, and finished in the cellar of the National Football League's Western Division.

Besides the Redskins, the Chicago Cardinals have beaten the Lions in exhibitions this year. The 1955 pre-season losses were to the Cardinals and the Philadelphia Eagles. The Lions managed to beat the Redskins, 17-14, last year.

A week hence the Lions open their 1956 regular season against the Green Bay Packers at Green Bay, Wis., as they did in 1955, when the Packers won, 20-17.

Sam Baker, a fullback from Oregon State whose name wasn't even on the program, booted four field goals, did the punting and often cracked the Detroit line in leading the Redskins to their Sunday triumph.

Baker's 4th field goal clinched the game for Washington. It came from 19 yards out with only two and a half minutes remaining.

* * *

Baker, a so-so player in his single season with the Redkins before entering military service two years ago, returned to the Washington camp this year after trying out in Canadian football.

With the Redskins leading 16-3, the Lions finally snapped back in the fourth quarter. Two quick touchdowns gave them a scant and temporary 17-16 lead.

Quarterback Bobby Layne hit Dick Booker, Leon Hart and Dorne Dibble with first down passes late in the 3rd period. Gene Gedman climaxed the 87-yard drive as the 4th quarter began by banging over from a yard out for the first Detroit touchdown.

* * *

Jack Christiansen intercepted a pass by Washington's quarterback, Al Dorow, a few seconds later. Layne threw to halfback Howard (Hopalong) Cassady for six yards and a touchdown.

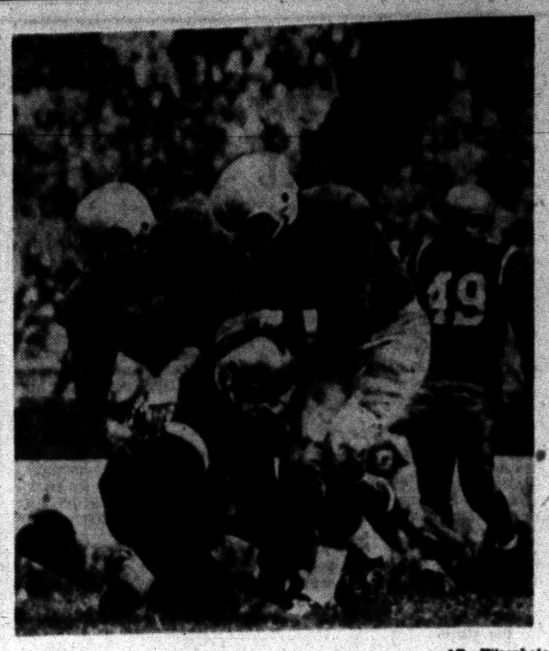

Layne made both conversions. Jim Martin added a 38-yard field goal.

TWISTING AHEAD — Nick Adduci, Washington Redskins' halfback, drives 5-yards for a touchdown in the third quarter against the Detroit Lions yesterday. It was the last exhibition game of the season played in Buffalo and the Lions lost, 19-17.

Golf Champ Praises Loser

Marlene Stewart Lauds 17-Year-Old Beaten in National Amateur

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Between phone calls two hours after she won the Women's National Amateur Golf Championship, Marlene Stewart took a serious look at the girl she beat and said:

"Joanne, you're the greatest. I mean it."

* * *

As far as golf followers in the United States are concerned, that was the story of the 56th championship tournament that ended Saturday at Meridian Hills, with Miss Stewart a 2 and 1 winner in the 36-hole finals.

* * *

Joanne Gunderson, a tall, strong girl with reddish-blonde hair and pale blue eyes, was the most exciting player to appear in this tournament. She's the junior champion now, 17 years old, and has a great future ahead of her. Professionals who followed her don't agree with Marlene that she's the greatest, but they say she will be when she acquires maturity and improves her rather flat backswing.

During the six days of the tournament, Miss Gunderson eliminated two members of the 1955 Curtis Cup team—defending champion Pat Lesser and Mrs. Philip Cudone—and a couple of top-rank older players, Mrs. Helen Sigel Wilson and Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone.

2 Long Putts Spell Victory

Hawkins on Top at Oklahoma City by 2 Stroke Margin

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — There is a first for everything, and the Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament was a good example for Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex. one of the nation's best golfers.

* * *

Hawkins had a $2,400 check in his pocket today after beating a solid field of contenders in Oklahoma City's first major open professional tournament since 1929. Hawkins shot rounds of 71-71-68-69 for a 279 total, 9-under par.

* * *

Hawkins could thank two marvelous putts for his triumph. He holed a 50-footer for a birdie three on the par-four 404-yard 15th hole and repeated his act for some 5,000 spectators by knocking in a 40-footer on the 557-yard, par-5 16th hole.

* * *

This gave him the upper hand over Gardner Dickinson Jr., Panama City, Fla., who missed two putts of five feet on the same holes that Hawkins had mastered. Dickinson finished second at 281 for $1,800.

Yank Pitchers Give Williams Batting Woes

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—If Ted Williams fails to overtake Mickey Mantle in quest of his fifth American League batting title, he can blame it on his ineptness against New York Yankee pitching.

* * *

Latest unofficial averages, through Sunday's games, give Mantle the lead with .356 to .350 for the Boston Red Sox slugger.

In 17 games against the Yankees this season, Williams had made only 10 hits in 47 official times at bat for an anemic .213 mark. The two teams still have three games to play against each other, all in New York.

* * *

Mantle, kept out of the starting lineup yesterday because of a pulled muscle, singled as a pinch hitter to boost his average while Williams went hitless in three official trips to the plate.

Blake May Get Call

GRAND SLAM WELCOME — Milwaukee centerfielder Bill Bruton (38) is welcomed home after his grand slam homer against the Chicago Cubs yesterday. It was Bruton's first grand-slamer and helped the Braves beat the Cubs, 7-4, to stay in the pennant race.

Redlegs Still in Race, Win 2

Braves Hold "Curfew" Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Brooklyn Dodgers, out of first place for the first time in a week—by the grace of rain and a curfew law—were in position today to thrust themselves right back atop the National League without any outside interference.

* * *

Trailing the Milwaukee Braves by a half game because of Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew law which halted play in the ninth inning with the Dodgers leading Pittsburgh 8-3, Brooklyn faced a grand opportunity tonight. If the Dodgers can check the Pirates in the ninth of the resumed game, then go on to defeat Bob Friend in the regularly scheduled game, they would regain the lead from the Braves by a half game.

Neither the Braves nor the third-place Cincinnati Redlegs were in position to do anything about it since neither is scheduled.

The Braves' half game lead, insecure though it may be, was made possible by their 7-4 victory over Chicago while Brooklyn and Pittsburgh were locked in their unfinished struggle, twice interrupted by hour-long rains and finally halted by the umpires at the 7 p.m. deadline.

Cincinnati, which simply refuses to be counted out, bounded back into the pennant fight by sweeping a doubleheader from St. Louis 3-2 and 5-4 to climb within 1½ games of Milwaukee and one game of Brooklyn. In another National League game, Philadelphia downed the New York giants 6-2.

* * *

The New York Yankees, who already have clinched the American League flag, defeated Boston 7-4. Detroit trimmed Cleveland 11-1. Baltimore blanked Washington 6-0 and Kansas City and Chicago divided a doubleheader, the White Sox winning the second game 5-1 after losing the opener 3-2.

* * *

Billy Bruton, a .194 hitter in September, broke loose with four hits, including the first grand slam homer of his professional career.

A crowd of 47,014—second largest stadium crowd on record—shot Milwaukee's home attendance total to 2,046,331 on the Braves' final home game of the season. They play their last four games on the road, one in Cincinnati and three in St. Louis. Cincinnati has three left to play and Brooklyn has seven, including the unfinished game.

Another tremendous turnout of 44,932, largest in Pittsburgh history, saw the Dodgers snap a 3-3 tie in the sixth with a four-run attack highlighted by Duke Snider's base-clearing double. Gil Hodges blasted two home runs for Brooklyn in a game that seesawed until the sixth.

Oosterbaan Unhappy

"M" Hears UCLA Report

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The Michigan coaching staff is worried over the turn of events as the Wolverines head into their last few days of pre-season practice.

Head coach Bennie Oosterbaan frankly admitted his dissatisfaction after Satruday's scrimmage. The first two teams pushed across six touchdowns, but didn't look well polished while doing it.

"If we played in a game the way we played Saturday, we'd be beaten," observed Oosterbaan.

"We've got a lot of work to do before we meet UCLA Saturday," he added.

The staff gathered yesterday to hear scouting reports of the Uclans' slender 13-7 victory over Utah, Friday night from assistant coaches Matt Patanelli and Bob Hollway, who made the whirl wind journey to the coast.

The score didn't indicate UCLA's strength, Patanelli disclosed.

The Bruins are much stronger than that and they're well-spirited and superbly coached by Red Sanders, her said.

Patanelli and Hollway had the highest praise for UCLA's tailback, 172-pound Doug Bradley. "He runs and passes very well," they said.

They learned UCLA's single wing attack is very similar to Michigan's except that the Bruins use a balanced line and don't switch to the "T" formation.

New Pact for Dressen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chuck Dressen, who spurned a one-year contract from the pennant-winning Brooklyn Dodgers in 1953, has signed again to manage the seventh-place Washington Senators—for one year.

"I am delighted to remain in Washington," Dressen said after he and Club President Calvin Griffith announced the one-year renewal Saturday night.

Rams and Crusaders Win Pee-Wee Tilts

The newly organized Pee-Wee Football League for boys between the ages of 9 and 12 opened its six-week season Saturday night with three games at Beaudette Park. Winners were the Wilson Rams and the Emmanuel Crusaders while Webster and Scotch School battled to a tie.

Pee-Wee football is co-sponsored by PTA groups and local merchants. Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department facilities are being used for the program.

Saturday's results:

Cubs	0	7	0	9	—16
Rams	15	6	6	0	—27

Touchdowns: Cubs—Farms, Rawston; Rams—Hodge (2), Ward, Keller; extra points: Cubs—Rawston (2); Rams—Hodge

Lions	7	0	0	0	—7
Crusaders	0	12	0	0	—12

Touchdowns: Lions—Smith; Crusaders—Moran (2); extra points: Lions—Marcoux.

Scotch School	0	0	7	7	—14
Webster	0	0	0	14	—14

Touchdowns: Scotch School—Stons (2); Webster—Jackson; extra points: Scotch School—Nemier (2).

Bears Top League

Western NFL Teams Best

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The 12 members of the National Football League start playing for keeps Sunday with exhibition games indicating that the strength of the circuit is in the Western Conference.

* * *

Only the New York Giants of the six-member Eastern Conference finished above the .500 mark in exhibition games. By contrast four of the Western Conference teams wound up above that mark and the two others matched their won-lost columns.

The Chicago Bears, in a throwback to their pre-World War II glory days, won five straight games before dropping their final exhibition to the champion Cleveland Browns 24-14.

* * *

The Bears' 5-1 record gave them a slight margin over the Green Bay Packers, who complied a 4-1 mark. Other Western Conference teams who finished above .500 were Detroit 4-2 and Baltimore 3-2. Los Angeles and San Francisco each broke even in six games.

The Giants topped the Eastern Division with a 4-2 mark followed by Washington with 3-3, Pittsburgh was 2-3, Philadelphia 2-5 and the Chicago Cardinals and Cleveland 1-5.

The Eagles chalked up their second triumph yesterday by defeating San Francisco 21-14 in one of the three weekend games. Bobby Thomason tossed two touchdown passes in leading the Eagles.

The Steelers got into the victory column for the second time Saturday night by downing the Rams 20-17 as they took advantage of two pass interceptions and a fumble to score three touchdowns in the first half.

British Champ Makes U.S. Debut Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joe Bygraves, the British Emmakes his American debut tonight at St. Nicholas Arena and matchmaker Teddy Brenner couldn't have found a much better trial horse than Wayne Bethea to put the Jamaican to the test.

Bethea, 24, strong and ambitious, holds victories over former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles, Harold Carter and Jimmy Slade among others. The New Yorker's record is 11-4-2, including five kayos. Bygraves has a 32-7-0 record, including 14 kayos.

Eaglets Breeze Past Rams, 31-0

Late Aerial Wins Thriller for Mikes

A dramatic forward pass snatched victory from defeat for St. Michael and Orchard Lake St. Mary served notice that it is once again a power to be reckoned with in weekend Suburban Catholic League football games at Wisner Stadium.

The aerial arm of veteran halfback Dan Dropps and end Ron Call, an unlettered sophomore, combined to hand St. Mike a thrilling 7-6 decision over Highland Park St. Benedict yesterday afternoon.

St. Mary's Eaglets, boasting a giant line and a fleet set of backs, opened defense of their SCL crown by methodically grinding out a 31-0 triumph over St. Frederick in a Saturday night game.

St. Mike's Shamrocks, frustrated at every turn by fumbles and other errors, struck for glory with only two minutes of game time remaining.

Call, subbing for the injured Paul Amman, streaked into the open to receive Dropps' perfectly-executed pass and galloped for the tying touchdown on a play which covered 55 yards. Dropps then place-kicked the all-important extra point.

St. Ben's Ravens had held a 6-0 lead since midway in the 2nd quarter when dangerous Larry Gacki crossed the Shamrock goal on a 30-yard end sweep. Jim Fox broke through to block the attempted conversion.

* * *

St. Mary encountered no difficulty with a willing but unable St. Fred team. The Eaglets rolled to four touchdowns in the 1st half and coasted through the last two quarters to stretch St. Fred's winless string to 27 games.

Quarterback Larry Charkowski's 46-yard end run on a bootleg play and Paul Franckowiak's 40-yard pass to end Pete Madelans scored twice in the 1st period. Chet Wajda's two-yard buck and Franckowiak's three-yard end sprint added two more touchdowns in the 2nd quarter.

Fullback Terry Raymond smashed over from the five-yard line in the final period to complete the Eaglets' scoring. Franckowiak's kick after the 4th TD was the only successful conversion attempt.

In other Suburban Catholic League games Sunday, Phil Van Hulle's 10-yard run gave Center Line St. Clement an 18-12 victory over Ferndale St. James and St. Rita of Hazel Park downed Royal Oak St. Mary 13-6. Shrine bested St. Gregory, 12-6.

Irish, Duke, Terps Are Beaten

Three Top Elevens Upset in Openers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sounds mighty strange, it does, with the season barely under way, but the mythical championship of the East could be decided Saturday when virtually every major college football team in the country swings into action.

Pitt and Syracuse, the two powers of the section, clash in Pittsburgh, and the winner very well could go through the rest of its schedule unbeaten. The main stumbling block on both schedules is Army which also has bright eyes for the title.

A week ago, the Panthers would have ruled the heavy choice. They were advertised as a club that could play in the fastest company and hold their own. But their struggling 14-13 decision over West Virginia last Saturday, combined with Syracuse's stunning 26-12 throttling of Maryland, could swing the pendulum to the Orange. Pitt won on two recovered fumbles.

In an equally compromising position is mighty Notre Dame, the No. 3 team in this year's Associated Press pre-season poll. The Irish were embarrassed, 19-13, by Southen Methodist, reputedly one of the greenest teams in the Southwest Conference.

The South Benders have an open date this week before meeting Indiana a week from Saturday.

Duke, Maryland's powerful buddy in the Atlantic Coast Conference, also has plenty of amends to make for its 7-0 defeat at the hands of South Carolina. This was even more surprising than the Maryland and Notre Dame losses. The Gamecocks simply bottled up Duke's ace quarterback, Sonny Jurgenson.

South Carolina hadn't whipped Duke in a quarter of a century and, for that matter never even had won an ACC game. Nor had the Blue Devils ever lost al league encounter. So all things considered, this probably will go down as the most shocking upset of the season when all the returns are in. Duke plays Virginia this week.

Pontiac Dogs on Top in Record Irish Setter Test

With a field of 81 dogs, Irish Setter Club of Michigan held its biggest field trial over the weekend at Highland Recreation Area, and Pontiac entries were among the top winners. The annual fall event occupied two days.

"Moffat's Apache Bill," owned by Tom Moffat of Pontiac took first placing in both the open puppy and derby stakes. "Argo Lane's Countess of Cork," owned and handled by Charles Benton of Farmington, placed second in the puppy; "Moffat's Red Jack," third and "Thorleen," owned and handled by Ted Stronski of Detroit was fourth.

Derby wins were "Thorleen," second! "Moffat's Red Jack," third and "Mahogany Friction II," (Mrs. Irene Walker of Milwaukee, Wis.)

Open all-age winners were "Van's Cindy," first and "Ike Jack Kendrick," second who were owner-handled by W. E. LeGrande of Douglasville, Pa. Third place was won by "Burnham's Cinnamon Sinner,"" (A. L. Wilson of Chicago) and fourth, "Red Rover of Kensington," (Joe Frydrych of Warren).

"Ike Jack Kendrick" also captured first place (making his 35th win) in the open gun dog stake with "Timothy Shawn O'Day," (Charles Benton), "Mike" owner-handled by Earl Morrison of Grosse Pointe, third and "Fracassi's Red Pat," fourth, (Louis Fracassi of Detroit).

Winner in the amateur gun dog stake, which was open to all breeds, were Fld. Ch. "Kay Star Summers Falkenhurst," a German shorthair owned by Levi Summers of Detroit; "Ike Jack Kendrick," second; "Freckles Breton Boy," a Brittany Spaniel, owned by Ralph Gardner of Voorheis road, third and duo-ch. "Tyrone's Mahogany Mike," owned by Ed McIvor of Dearborn, fourth.

Sophs Lead Titan Win

DETROIT (AP) — University of Detroit football coach Wally Fromhart wants to win games—badly—and he's gambling on some green sophomores to do it.

Why? The answer became even more obvious Saturday as a sophomore-sprinkled Titan squad eased past Marquette, 20-7.

Fromhart is building for the big time and makes no bones about it. Seniors, although more capable, are a very temporary thing.

The Titan coach unleashed 24-year-old Billy Dando, fresh out of the Marines and injured for two weeks of practice to take care of two touchdowns.

The 185-pound halfback from Ashland, Pa., skillfully passed the first score and received a pass for the 56-yard second score.

* * *

But Dando wasn't all Fromhart displayed. He played two soph tackles all but eight minutes of the game and admitted afterward "I was scared stiff to put them in, but they did a wonderful job."

Fromhart was referring to 6-foot-2, 230-pound Jim Russell from Algonac, and 6-2, 215-pound Jimmy Pyle, a transfer from Potomac Junior College, W. Va.

"I can't remember when we've played most of the game with two sophomore tackles who didn't have five minutes game experience between them," said Fromhart. "They were great."

* * *

Another sophomore, quarterback Steve Piskach, passed to Dando and end John Maciejewski for two Detroit touchdowns.

* * *

U of D showed good backfield depth. Junior Al Korpak from Algonac who came in for injured ace Billy Russell sparkled for two quarters showing very good speed. Three fullbacks, two quarterbacks and six halfbacks saw action in the game.

Lary Wins 20th, Beats Tribe

DETROIT (AP) — This American League city today is toasting its first 20-game baseball winner in eight seasons, a gritty little sophomore pitcher who credits his success to a knuckleball "that's just good enough to keep the hitters guessing."

"It's not a real good knuckler," says the 25-year-old Detroit Tiger righthander who whipped Cleveland 11-1 yesterday on a two-hitter for his 20th triumph. "It doesn't jump around and I can't control it too well, but it's an extra pitch and it's something for the batters to think about."

* * *

Lary started using the knuckler in mid-season, after a miserable start that saw him win only four games in his first 14 decisions.

"I wasn't doing any good without it," he said, "so I figured I couldn't do much worse with it."

Since July 1, the Alabama-born hurler has won 16 games and lost only three. His victory yesterday, in which he had a no-hitter going for 7 1-3 innings, was his seventh straight—all complete games.

Lary is one of baseball's hardest working pitchers, totaling 285 innings in 37 starts and three relief stints. He has completed 19 of those starts.

Not since "prince" Hal Newhouser won 21 games in 1948 have the Tigers had a 20-game winner. Lary joins Chicagos' Billy Pierce and Cleveland's Bob Lemon as the American League's top winners.

In his rookie season a year ago, Lary won 14 games and dropped 15. This season started out as a sophomore-jinx year for the former University of Alabama pitcher.

The Tiger bats boomed out 19 hits to make Lary's task easier. Shortstop Harvey Kuenn hiked his batting average six points to .332 with five hits in as many times at bat.

Second baseman Frank Bolling, with four safeties including his 7th home run and a triple, boosted his average eight points to .287.

While acquiring a 20-game winner for themselves, the Tigers made short work of Cleveland's 20-game winner Lemon. He lasted only 2 1-3 innings, Bolling's home run in the third finishing Lemon after he yielded six runs and seven hits.

Spartan Scouts Report on Stanford's Victory Saturday

EAST LANSING (AP) — The emphasis will be on pass protection this week in the Michigan State football camp.

* * *

"Stanford is a throwing ball club," reported assistant coach Johnny Polonchek back from scouting the Stanford-Washington State, won 40-26 by Stanford, Saturday.

"An amazing total of 78 passes were thrown by the two clubs in the game," Polonchek said. "Stanford threw 36 and completed 24 of them, and four of their six touchdowns came on pass plays.

"They are going to give us a close game next Saturday."

Polonchek was impressed particularly by quarterback John Brodie, who completed 17 of 24 pass tries for 174 yards and two touchdowns.

* * *

"He can either pass from pocket or roll out and throw from either side," Polonchek said.

The assistant coach added that Stanford stuck pretty close to the tactics that the MSU team, directed by assistant coach Bill Yeoman, has been using to school the Spartans in the Indian style of attack.

PSW Net Titles to Flam, Gibson

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Herb Flam of Beverly Hills and Athea Gibson of New York both came from behind to win the singles titles of the 30th annual Pacific Southwest Tennis Championships.

For Flam, the victory was a major upset as he trailed two sets to one at intermission yesterday, but rallied for a five-set win over favored Ken Rosewal of Australia. The scores were 4-6, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3 and 7-5.

Miss Gibson dropped the first set but came back to triumph for a 4-6, 6-2, 6-1 victory over Mrs. Nancy Kiner of San Diego, Calif.

Rosewall, and fellow Australian Lew Hoad won the men's doubles title, defeating Sweden's Ulf Schmidt and Bob Perry of West Los Angeles 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Birmingham Teams Win, Lose and Tie

Birmingham's Little Football Leaguers won one game, lost one and tied another for the varsity, while their freshmen teams lost one, won two, in weekend contests.

The scores:

At Royal Oak—Birmingham Tigers 12, RO Yankees 0; Freshmen—Tigers 6, Yanker 13.

At Grosse Pointe—Birmingham Wolverines 6, GP Lions 0; Freshmen—Wolverines 20, Lions 7.

At Birmingham — Birmingham Browns 0, GP Rams 33; Freshmen—Browns 20, Rams 0.

Kell 'Sits Out' Orioles' Finale

BALTIMORE (AP)—Veteran third baseman George Kell has been given permission by the Baltimore Orioles to return to his Swifton, Ark., home to sit out the last week of the season.

* * *

Kell pulled a back muscle when he ran into the stadium wall going after a foul fly Saturday night. He aggravated the injury later in the game while batting and was taken from the lineup.

* * *

The 34-year-old infielder, whose lifetime batting average before this year was .309, wound up with a .271 mark for the season.

Writers' Ivory Tower

UM's New Press Box Gets 'Dry Run'

By H. GUY MOATS
Pontiac Press Special Writer

ANN ARBOR — Writers covering University of Michigan football games this fall will work under conditions vastly superior to any heretofore afforded in the huge (101,001 seats) stadium. Several hundred Michigan sports writers, and others were given a "dry run" preview of the "communication center," as it is called, on Saturday. Structure cost $450,000.

It's one of the latest things in press boxes, with greatly improved and expanding facilities for getting out stories, handling TV, radio and photographic services. For the 1st time cushioned chairs add to comfort, a very, very far cry from the old wooden benches and "air - conditioned" (open air) coop atop old Ferry Field stands in the days of Willie Heston, "Boss" weeks, "Shorty" Longman, Germany Schultz, where this observer first covered U. M. football.

The smaller, jam packed box that served since the stadium was built held 202 persons. So does the new one, but in far more plush style. Press level, above the writers' section accommodates 38 picture-men. TV, radio and darkrooms on the top level have 17 booths and six darkrooms.

* * *

Dr. Harlan Hatcher, Michigan's prexy, headed a group of speakers in brief informal talks. He mentioned that the press box "is the newest of our facilities, and in line with overall growth." Dr. Hatcher said U.M. soon will have an enrollment of more than 22,000.

Athletic director Fritz Crisler said the facility had been provided entirely from football receipts.

A luncheon preceded the "unveiling".

* * *

The facility will be in full operation for the UCLA game this Saturday.

Blue team, with most of the "regulars," including Captain Tom Maentz, Ron Kramer, Jim Pace, Jim Maddock, Terry Barr, Johnny Herrnstein, and Bob Ptacek, battered the Whites 40-9. First TD came after only four plays, the 2nd after five tries. Herrnstein accounted for two. Pace, Jim Byers, Barr and Ptacek got the other five, all on runs.

Writers and alumni were shown what to expect from the Wolverine squad this fall, in the first pre-game scrimmage prior to the opener.

Aerial Attacks Mark Canadian Pro Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Canadian professional football, accused sometimes of being basketball on cleats, was just that during the weekend. The scores and passing figures proved their points.

In the East, the league-leading Montreal Alouettes trampled the Hamilton Tiger-Cats 56-14 and the Ottawa Rough Riders downed the Toronto Argonauts 31-20 in the passingest game in Big Four history.

Out West, the Edmonton Eskimos humiliated the Calgary Stampeders 52-0, the worst shutout beating in Western Conference post-war years, and the Saskatchewan Roughriders defeated the Winnipeg Blue Bombers 24-7.

Hillsdale Wins 18th Straight

Dales Loom as State's Small Powerhouse

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Of all Michigan's small college football powers, Hillsdale again looms as the team to beat.

Eastern Michigan of Ypsilanti got a taste of the Dales' strength Saturday as the state's college football season moved into full swing.

Hillsdale claimed its 18th straight victory with a 16-7 triumph over Eastern. It was the season's opener for Fred Tronko's Hurons.

The Dales used three quarterbacks against Eastern, Bill Allinder, Doug Mason and Dan Ludlow. Allinder ran 33 yards on his home turf to set up the first touchdown. He passed 20 yards for another.

Another pass from Mason to Lee Jones made possible a 17-yard field goal kicked by Ludlow.

Hillsdale has won the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Assn. crown in both 1954 and 1955.

Michigan teams lost four of five encounters with out-of-state opponents after taking three victories without defeat a week ago.

* * *

In other games, Central Michigan's swift Jim Podoley returned two punts to set up touchdowns against Mid-American Conference club Western Michigan at Kalamazoo. Podoley's club came away with a 14-7 decision before 13,000 enthusiastic rooters.

At Albion, Wabash (Ind.) continued the hex over the Britons, winning 26-7. The Indiana school scored the first time it had the ball and never was headed.

Northern Michigan—which failed to win a game and scored only 51 points in seven defeats last year—broke out with a 32-0 win over Alma.

Kalamazoo College failed to kick the all-important extra point and bowed to Valparaiso (Ind.) 7-6, and Ferris uitilized a fast ground attack, scoring the first two times it had the ball, as the Bulldogs edged Olivet 20-13.

Yogi Gets 1,001st RBI

BOSTON (AP)—Yogi Berra has passed another milestone in his record-breaking career as catcher of the New York Yankees by reaching 1,001 runs batted in as a major leaguer.

The stubby little receiver lashed out a two-run single in the third inning against Boston yesterday to hit the 1,000 mark.

Birmingham Harriers Begin Title Defense

Birmingham High School's cross-country team, defending Eastern Michigan League champion, runs against the Mt. Clemens Bathers Tuesday afternoon at Mt. Clemens in its opening league meet of the season.

The Maple harriers, coached by Kermit Ambrose, have already indicated strength for the defense of their EML title with non-league victories over Detroit Thurston and Walled Lake, the latter breaking a string of 19 straight wins by the Vikings.

Leading runners on the 40-man varsity squad are captian Bill Alcorn, Lynn Benn, Bob Bensen.

What About Schoolwork?

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Casting, fishing, shooting and hunting may soon become a part of the curricula of U.S. high schools and colleges. Dr. Julian W. Smith, associate professor of outdoor education at Michigan State University says more than 50 per cent of 28,000 high schools surveyed last year were interested in developing such programs.

More than 100 million acres of land in the U.S., one-fifth of the land now available for crops, have been made arable by drainage practices.

Siobhan McKenna to Do 'The Letter' Spectacular

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Siobhan McKenna, the Irish actress who has been hailed as the greatest and most inspiring Saint Joan of our generation, will be starred in Willy Wyler's first NBC spectacular.

With practically everyone in the motion picture and television world trying to sign this fine dramatic actress since she made history in Shaw's play, Willy pulled a coup in getting her for "The Letter," which he'll produce Oct. 15.

Miss McKenna had seen some of Wyler's pictures, and that plus the fact that she likes Somerset Maugham's play is responsible for Willy's good luck.

"The Letter" won Bette Davis much praise when she made it for the screen some years ago.

By the time you read this Rita Moreno, who is brunette and Latin, will be signed to play Martha Stewart, who is blonde and American, in the Joe E. Lewis biography, "The Joker Is Wild."

Mitzi Gaynor, Martha Hyer and some other beauties have been hot for this part in the Frank Sinatra picture, but Mitzi won't be finished with "Les Girls" in time and director Charles Vidor needed a girl who sings and dances better than Martha.

SLIMMER EDMUND

Dropping 45 pounds is very becoming to Edmund O'Brien, who is on the 20th Century-Fox lot these days getting ready for "Do Ri Mi" with Jayne Mansfield and Tom Ewell.

Eddie inherits the Brod Crawford comedy gangster role, which Brod lost after his accident in which he suffered a concussion and broken ribs.

Brod has gone to the home of his estranged wife, the former Kay Griffith, to recuperate. I wouldn't be surprised if Brod's illness doesn't bring about a reconciliation.

The surprises came with double voltage when I verified that Barbara Ruick has been the secret bride of composer-arranger John Williams, her childhood sweetheart, since April 15. And not only that, she and her bridegroom are expecting a baby in February!

The marriage took place in Juarez, Mexico, and was kept secret probably for the reason that Barbara's divorce from actor Robert Horton is not final in California until next June.

When I checked with Lurene Tuttle, Barbara's mother and a TV star in her own right, she said, "We are all so happy and excited about the baby. And I've always been crazy about John.

"You know, the cast of 'Plain and Fancy,' the show Barbara has been doing in Westbury, Long Island, won't know why she suddenly withdrew from the play last week, until they read your column."

THE WRONG MARIE

Marie Windsor says I done her wrong. Seems I attributed a comment to Marie Wilson when it was really Marie Windsor who said she didn't know whether she played the lady or the prowler in "The Lady and the Prowler" but either would be a character role.

I have just heard that Dorothy Dandridge will have auburn hair in "Island in the Sun" and that Joan Collins goes blonde. Dorothy was all set to do "Nina and the Vagabond and the Sea" for Giuseppi Amato in Italy when 20th pre-empted her.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Cheryl Clark, the girl Henry Fonda was so attentive to when he was here, planes to New York today to meet Hank. This would seem to put an end to the stories that Fonda is heading for Rome to visit Baroness Afdera Fanchetti.

Mike Wilding, whose torch for Liz was lighting up the European skies, is home. Hard to imagine him not meeting with Liz since his father is living at her house.

Friends of character actress Marguerite Padula will be sorry to hear she's in Mount Sinai Hospital for a leg amputation.

"Wide, Wide World" is telecasting the Hollywood story from the Brown Derby on Sept. 30, with Dave Garroway interviewing top names in the motion picture industry.

Charlie Chaplin Ex-Wife Marries Bank Clerk

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lita Grey Chaplin, 48, a former wife of Charlie Chaplin, has married Pat Longo, 30, a bank clerk. The wedding was performed Saturday in the non-denominational Little Brown Church. It was the third marriage for the bride, the first for Longo.

The former actress married Chaplin in 1924 when she was 16.

Kefauver Bids for Farm Vote

Charges Eisenhower With 'Cheering' Ezra Benson On

By JOHN CHADWICK

MITCHELL, S. D. (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver said today, "The Eisenhower administration is seeking to plow under what it considers the 'surplus' farm families."

* * *

"All through 1953, and 1954 and 1955," the Democratic vice-presidential nominee said, "President Eisenhower cheerfully watched Ezra Taft Benson slide farmers deeper and deeper into debt."

"He stuck right by him and cheered him on," Kefauver said in a speech prepared for a farm festival here.

* * *

"The economic disaster that fastened itself upon our farm families left President Eisenhower unshaken in his determination to keep his back turned against his own campaign promises," he said.

On an 11,600 - mile campaign tour that started Sept. 14, Kefauver is to go on to Jamestown, N. D. tonight and then strike out through several other Middle Western states.

In his latest bid for the farm vote, Kefauver renewed his charges that Eisenhower had broken his 1952 campaign promises to the farmers and fired fresh volleys at Secretary of Agriculture Benson and Vice President Nixon.

* * *

"For many farmers," he said, "the natural disaster of drought came to afflict them, along with the unnatural disaster of Ezra Taft Benson.

* * *

"And the millionaire dominated Eisenhower administration raised the interest rate on disaster loans to these farmers from 3 per cent to 5 per cent."

Road Workers Wearing Skirts in Kentucky Town

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Women road workers of Coburn Hollow expect to finish the job today but whether they have "shamed" county officials into blacktopping the road remains a question.

* * *

Said Joe Thacker, a railroad employe who has one of the three telephones in the Hollow, "I doubt it seriously."

The women, mostly miners' wives, began their "do-it-yourself" job Thursday, filling in holes and leveling a mile-and-a-half stretch of road to the remote Hollow, home of some 50 families.

The next day they were joined by some of their husbands and a county road grader which, the women said, "came out of nowhere" to save the women some blisters.

* * *

Mrs. Rex Rutherford said the repairs should be completed today and the road ready for blacktop coating. "And unless they get a hard top to make it last, it won't last long," she said.

The women claimed "politicians" had promised the blacktop during the last election. They plan to send a delegation to county offices here Oct. 2 to see about it.

Suspect Polecats

ST. LOUIS (AP)—When the telephones went dead all over suburban Bellefontaine, trouble shooters found a 170-foot stretch of cable had been stolen right off the poles.

Body Pulled From River

DETROIT (AP) — The body of a man taken from the Detroit River was identified Sunday as that of Chris H. Simpson, 46, of Ypsilanti. Police said an autopsy revealed a bruise on the left side of the head and a four-inch cut on the body. An attempt will be made to determine whether foul play caused the wounds.

2 Troopers Added to Romeo Police Post

The Romeo State Police Post will get two new troopers, according to State Police Headquarters in East Lansing.

Cpl. John D. Lewinski will be transferred to Romeo from the Petoskey Post, and Cpl. Frederick H. Buschell will be transferred from the Niles Post. Both received their rank with the transfer.

Thirty-five other transfers were announced. Twenty-three of the men received promotions.

Eastern Mich. College Enrollment at 3,761

YPSILANTI (AP) — Enrollment at Eastern Michigan College totaled 3,761 with the close of formal registration, Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, president, announced.

He said he expects 4,100 with late arrivals. This would be 20 per cent above last year.

Decline Noted in Feed Grain

CHICAGO (AP) — Feed grain declined on the Board of Trade today following news the Agriculture Department had offered to cancel soil bank contracts for farmers who wanted to have them canceled.

Other cereals also were mostly lower at the start, but wheat quickly reversed its trend. This was particularly true of the distant wheat futures, influenced by the fact dry weather was continuing in the Southwest.

Soybean receipts expanded to 284 cars. Beans were under mild hedging pressure, but did not lose much ground.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛-⅝ higher, December $2.30½; corn ¼-⅝ lower, December $1.36¼; oats ½-¾ lower, December 74; rye unchanged to beans ¼ lower to ¼ higher, November $2.32½, and lard five cents lower, to two cents higher, October $11.57.

Stocks Show General Rise

NEW YORK (AP) — Oils had a short burst of activity and the stock market was generally higher in early trading today.

* * *

Leading issues advanced fractions to a point or better.

Following through from Friday's rally the market displayed a good front of gains in most divisions. A few small losers spotted the list. After an active opening, the pace slowed.

* * *

The oils improved as the Suez Canal situation awaited consideration by the United Nations and an immediate crisis seemed dispelled.

Gulf Oil was up around a point. Royal Dutch, Texas Co., Phillips Petroleum, Panhandle Oil and Standard Oil (New Jersey) rose fractions.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube was up around a point. Republic, U. S. Steel and Bethlehem advanced fractions.

* * *

Ford and General Motors were up slightly. American Cyanamid, Dow Chemical, Union Carbide and Du Pont made small advances.

Boeing and American Tobacco eased.

* * *

On Friday the market rallied. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $1.40 to $179.60.

News in Brief

Loose change and a $1 bill were taken from a hiding place in the bedroom of a home at 107 Adelaide St. Sunday, according to Pontiac police, who said entry was gained through an unlocked side door.

A 18-year-old youth and his juvenile companion were held early Sunday for investigation of the theft of four wheels and tires from a car in an auto dealer's sales lot, Pontiac police said.

A man's billfold, $50 and personal papers were reported lost Friday night on S. Saginaw street, Pontiac police said.

A $35 boy's bicycle was reported taken from the front yard at 32 Portage St. sometime Sunday night Pontiac police said.

Hefty Comedian to Play 'Stanley'

Funnyman Remembers Climb From Brooklyn to Video Stardom

By EMILY BELSER

NEW YORK (INS) — Roly-poly comedian Buddy Hackett's homespun philosophy is one of the big reasons for his socko success—"Don't hurt nobody and don't take what ain't yours!"

On this premise, the 32-year-old showman has managed to climb out of the dim confines of a backyard in Brooklyn to the bright spotlights of big-time television.

Buddy, who has been described as "a primitive" and a "distillation of the Borscht cirkuit," will play the role of a manager of a midtown New York hotel newsstand in his own live comedy series, "Stanley," begining on NBC tonight at 7:30.

"I was born at an early age," cracked Hackett, "and then suddenly here I am selling newspapers."

* * *

EVERYTHING ELSE

"But I did everything else," he admitted. "I jerked sodas, worked as an upholsterer, waiter, clerked in a grocery store and sold lumber."

* * *

Then one day he told somebody he was a comedian.

"They believed me," he yelled, "and gave me a job—as a busboy in the Catskills."

The 215-pound funnyman rolled around his office in the City Center Building and said he is very happy that his new show is originating in New York.

* * *

"The only way to live in Hollywood," he said, "is to start taking two grains of arsenic a day and then when you're used to it—go there!"

ONLY SKIN DEEP

Hackett, whose bitterness against movietown is only skin deep, was one of the first comedians ever to appear on television. He made his debut back in 1945 on a show called, "Laugh Time."

"I did a sort of cleaned-up burlesque," he recalled, "but really—burlesque ain't dirty. It's just a kind of comedy."

However, the plump funnyman thinks TV has "more dignity" and his great ambition is to "make enough money" so he can retire to working only 10 weeks a year.

"You know," he said, "like Wallace Beery used to do." Hackett says the worst thing that can happen to a comedian is a "swelled head."

* * *

"If a guy starts thinking he's too smart for the audience," he said, "and feels he's gotta get down to their level then the idiot is a gonner—he needs a new act!"

Buddy, who is naturally the "happy" type, thinks the best things in life are being married, having a family, loving them and having them love you.

He's wed — happily — to Sherry Dubois, an ex-mambo teacher. Sherry and Buddy are the proud parents of a 3-month-old baby boy named Sandy.

BUSY BUSINESSMAN—Buddy Hackett plays the busy proprietor of a hotel newsstand in "Stanley," his new NBC-TV comedy series which begins tonight at 7:30. The live situation comedy is produced and directed by Max Liebman.

Car Output to Pick Up

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Nearly 30,000 passenger automobiles will be assembled in Canadian factories next month, when production of 1957 models begins. Only 4,000 were completed in September, the fewest in any month since World War II.

Bill Holden Discourages Gals by Wearing Specs

By EARL WILSON

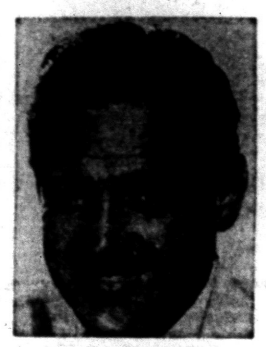

NEW YORK—One way to make your doll mad is to interview dreamy Bill Holden—without taking her along.

★ ★ ★

But there were other fluttery females. One twittered to him, "Are you who we think you are?"

"I'm not Al Capone," he smiled. Snickering, she handed him a menu to autograph and he pleasantly asked her, "Do you want me to write it on the appetizers or the salads?"

"Honestly," he said to me after she'd evaporated, "I'm not bothered much by it, really." I mentioned a young society wife who proclaimed publicly she wanted a smooch from Bill . . . "and all these girls of 17 or 18 who are swooning."

BILL HOLDEN

"They think I'm their father." Puffing a cigaret (he has the prettiest nostrils, girls), he said, "It's a business.

"It's easy to get yourself trailed by young fans. But without giving them the brush you can discourage it.

"Let me tell you a story.

"Carole Lombard came to this town at her peak. A photographer said to her, 'This is amazing. Your're Carole Lombard window shopping on 5th Avenue and nobody's following you.'

"She said, 'But I'm not playing Carole Lombard now. Watch!'

"She flipped a fur piece over her shoulder a certain way and went into a certain stride. Within few minutes, 50 people were following. She said 'Now I'm through.' The crowd vanished.

★ ★ ★

"Look!" Bill Holden, Academy Award winner, star and producer of "Toward the Unknown," 38-year-old father of three, put on some glasses.

"Do I look like I did in 'Picnic'?' (He didn't). "They're not dark glasses. They're just glasses like blind business men wear.

"If you act busy when you come out into the street, they respect it. But in some places—like Hong Kong—they're frantic.

"They'll invade your bedroom."

He and his wife were trying to nap one afternoon in the Hotel Gloucester when a crowd of fans was spying on them through the slatted doors used there for ventilation.

"One guy was looking into our bedroom 'announcing' to 40 others. I heard him say 'He moved,' then 'She moved,' then 'He moved again.'

★ ★ ★

"They even spied on our bathroom and I had to get the cops to chase them away long enough for me to get a bath. It was the first time I ever had a police escort to the bathroom."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Carter, accepting the Roseland award as top B'way comic, said, "I got it for two reasons — I deserve it, and Sammy Davis wasn't available . . . Singer Jane Morgan's in the race to replace Edie Adams on the Ernie Kovas TV'er . . . Rome Buzz: Farouk hopes to get into the U.S. and will hire press agents to make him lovable here.

EARL'S PEARLS . . . "There is much to be said on both sides in the election campaign, and," sighs E. J. Melton, "I'm afraid both sides will say it."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Herb Sherry's idea of a modest H'wood actor is one who'll take a girl to a picture he's not playing in.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Jean Gendron knows who started the idea that "50 million Frenchmen can't be wrong"; it was 50 million Frenchmen.

It's Arthur Tracy's definition of rock 'n' roll music: "Bad grammar set to horrible sounds." That's earl, brother.

Princess Margaret Ends Kenya Visit

MOMBASA, Kenya (AP)—Organ music at the service attended by Princess Margaret at Mombasa Cathedral yesterday was by courtesy of an American missionary.

A new organ ordered from a Chicago company failed to arrive

The Rev. M. J. Sickler, pastor of the Mombasa Gospel Hall of the Elim Missionary Assemblies loaned the Anglican officials a new organ—from the same Chicago company—delivered to the tabernacle two weeks ago.

* * *

The Elim Missonary Assemblies is a Pentacostal society with headquarters at Lima, near Rochester, N. Y. Sickler's home is at Endicott, N. Y.

The Princess sailed last night aboard the royal yacht Britannia for Mauritius.

Moonshiners' Foe Dies

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Many a Kentucky moonshiner was apprehended because Charles D. Campbell was fleet of foot. Campbell, 72 who died yesterday, developed his speed as a pioneer prohibition agent and later a "revenooer." When he was 45, Campbell said he could run 100 yards in 11 seconds.

Far East Gets Half 1956 Aid

Ike Claims 50 Per Cent Non-Military U.S. Help Is Sent There

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told Congress today the Far East got almost half of the 1½ billion dollars obligated in non-military U.S. foreign aid during fiscal 1956.

* * *

The President's report on the last half of that year which ended June 30 left no doubt of the program's essential emphasis on defense against communism.

The report also noted:

1. Of the 760½ million dollars obligated for Far East nonmilitary aid during fiscal 1956, 726½ million was for "defense support". That's a phrase to cover the aid the United States gives a country to replace funds that country uses to build up its national defense. Most of it went to South Korea, Nationalist China and South Viet Nam.

2. All of the 110 millions sent Europe for nonmilitary aid in fiscal 1956 went for defense support.

3. The biggest share of the nearly 2½ billions set aside for the whole mutual security program during fiscal 1956 went for direct military aid and defense support. Of the total, 843 millions was obligated or reserved by the Pentagon for direct military assistance.

4. During January-June 1956, the United States shipped nearly two billion dollars in military goods to the free world. Two thirds of it went to Europe. Half the value of the total was made up of planes and related air force items.

The six-month deliveries of military aid brought the over-all total to $14,200,000,000. This covers the whole military aid program since it began in 1950. Two thirds of this total went to Europe also.

Michigan Bar Society to Meet in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (INS) — More than 1,500 lawyers and judges are expected in Grand Rapids tomorrow for the 21st convention of the State Bar of Michigan.

Some 32 guest speakers, selected from the foremost lawyers and jurists of the state and nation, will speak.

Americans in 1955 ate 26.8 billion pounds of meat.

Father Rescues Four in Warren Explosion

WARREN (INS) — A 26-year-old Warren Township father headed for a hospital today to receive treatment for burns suffered in an explosion and fire at his home.

John Ursu, although severely burned on the face and hands after the blast Saturday night, managed to rescue his four children from the house.

Ursu was cleaning paint brushes with gasoline when the pilot light of a hot water heater ignited the fumes.

The blast blew out the kitchen windows and the ensuing fire destroyed $3,000 worth of furniture. The furniture was not insured and Ursu said the family doesn't have any money.

Alcoholics Anonymous End Battle Creek Parley

BATTLE CREEK (INS) — More than 1,600 Lower Michigan members of Alcoholics Anonymous attended the group's fourth annual conference which ended in Battle Creek Sunday after a three-day meeting.

AA is a fellowship of men and women who have recovered from the disease of alcoholism.

Go-Easy Tennis Aids Folks Over Fifty

CHICAGO—An article in Today's Health, magazine published by the American Medical Association, tells of a modified form of tennis that persons over 50 can play without taxing their hearts unduly.

* * *

The pace is slowed in "take-it-easy" tennis by making two major modifications: The court is marked off half as wide as the usual singles court and there is a rule that the ball must always bounce before being returned.

* * *

The article says the new variation eliminates "the sudden starting and stopping, the dash back into position, the lunge for those passing shots, and the youthful speed needed for power volleys at the net."

Straw Blazes 2 Hours

DETROIT (INS) — Children set fire yesterday to 100 bales of straw set aside to cover grass seed beds on embankments of Detroit's John C. Lodge Expressway. Firemen brought the blaze under control after two hours.

About 7 million new cars were sold in 1955 as compared with only about 4,000 new cars in the year 1900.

Wisconsin produces about 20 per cent of the U.S. supply of evaporated milk. In 1933 it produced 40 per cent.
