Girl's Clubber Hangs Self as Police Close In

Hit-Run Driver Confesses

Father's Appeal Works

A father's plea led to a confession last night by the alleged hit-and-run driver who severely injured a 15-year-old Troy boy last week.

The plea had been publicized in The Pontiac Press Tuesday. Dwain Murphy, 140 Belhaven Rd. detailed the extensive injuries suffered by his son, Terence, and called upon the driver to turn himself in.

Saying his conscience was bothered, another Troy youth, Michael J. Cullen, 18, surrendered to Troy Police last night, just as the finger of guilt was beginning to point at him.

"I became panicky at the scene of the accident," said Cullen, of 3034 Helena St. "It's been one hectic week since."

Troy Police Chief David Grattop said he had received several tips in the accident since Dwain Murphy's moving story appeared in area newspapers.

One of these tips involved Cullen, and the police chief was on his way to the 18-year-old's home last night when he heard over the police radio that Cullen had gone to the police station.

Appearing remorseful over the accident, Cullen was taken to the Oakland County Prosecutor's Royal Oak office today to make a full statement before criminal charges are decided.

The youth's version of the accident, as it has been put together by police, appeared this way:

Cullen was driving north on Livernois road in Troy last Thursday night. Just north of 17 Mile road, he was passing another car that had slowed down to make a right turn.

The Murphy boy was riding his bicycle in the opposite direction, apparently without any headlights on. Cullen's car rammed the bike headon, pitching the 15-year-old head first over the left fender.

Cullen apparently "panicked," not stopping to help the injured boy, but driving on about two miles. There he turned around and returned to the scene. By that time other motorists had stopped. Cullen did not identify himself.

Afterwards he repaired most of the damage to his car, hoping to escape detection. This damage had been detailed by The Press as a clue to the guilty driver.

The Murphy family and Chief Grattop thanked The Press and other newspapers today for their help in obtaining the confession.

Accuse Beck of Taking Part in Election Rig

Ex-Boss of New York Union Levels Charge at Committee Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Martin T. Lacey, onetime New York Teamsters boss, charged today that Teamster President Dave Beck's office cooperated in the fraud and deception by which Lacey said he was unseated.

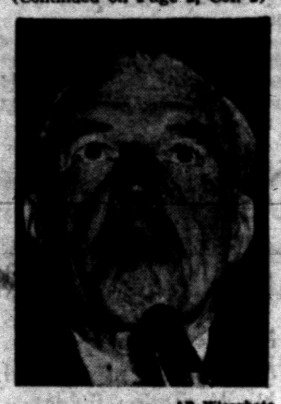

Lacey told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee he wrote Beck—but never got an answer—protesting the chartering of seven "paper" Teamsters locals.

The locals helped vote Lacey out of the presidency of the New York Joint Teamsters Council in 1956 and put in John O'Rourke, backed by Midwest Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa.

Lacey blocked O'Rourke's election temporarily in court proceedings but ultimately bowed out. O'Rourke, now titular New York City Teamster head, took the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer committee questions yesterday.

Chairman McClellan D-Ark said Leonard Geiger, the New York Council's recording secretary, is

Prepare for Anniversary Fete

DECORATE CITY — Bunting and special banners proclaiming the 50th anniversary of Pontiac Motor Division are decorating streets in the business area. Here a workman hangs bunting and a banner above the entrance to a Saginaw Street store. The celebration opens Monday.

Monday Parade to Sparkle With Color, Music, Floats

Colorful uniforms, blaring bands and picturesque floats will highlight Monday's parade to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Pontiac Motors.

Arrangements for the 6:30 p.m. parade are almost complete, Clarence Hardenburg, parade chairman for the Downtown Pontiac Assn., announced today.

The St. Andrew Society Junior Pipe Band, resplendent in kilts, will march, as will the Milford High School Band, the Detroit Edison American Legion Post Band from Detroit and the American Legion Post 77 Band, also from Detroit, Hardenburg said.

Included in the line of march will be the famous Dryer Sisters, nationally known baton twirling champions; the Sylvan Lodge Drill Team; Jackie Ray and Her Ravenettes, an all girl drill team; and the Land-O-Lakes Majorettes, 32 baton twirlers who do formation drills, he added.

10 FLOATS

Ten floats will be included in the parade, Hardenburg said, among them floats from the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and the City of Pontiac.

The Pontiac Press "Miss Front Page for August" will ride on the Chamber of Commerce float, flanked by two previous Miss Front Page title holders.

Michigan Rangers Saddle Club of Davisburg and the Oakland County Sheriff's Posse will add a touch of the Old West to the event.

★ ★ ★

Other acts will include the three famous John F. Ivory Roman Riders, a bareback team; a pony team of eight matched palominos pulling a show wagon; one of Pontiac's first motorized fire engines, which was restored by Ivory at a cost of over $15,000; The Detroit Edison Calliope, a color guard from the Pontiac 703rd Reserve Tank Battalion; and the Civil Air Patrol Reserve Rescue Squad.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Motor will parade three historical cars, including an Oakland, forerunner of the Pontiac.

Heading the parade will be the Pontiac Police motorcycle squad and a police pace car.

The parade will march up South Saginaw street, starting at Rapid street and winding up at Sanderson avenue.

'Forgive—Pray,' Father of 4 Asks in Suicide Note

East Detroit Victim, 16, Fights for Life After Maniacal Attack

DETROIT (AP) — A father of four hanged himself yesterday after he learned police sought to question him in the merciless beating of a 16-year-old girl.

Police found the body of Gregory M. Sullivan, 39, of suburban Harper Woods, in an abandoned garage about a mile from his home. A note he had left in his shirt pocket said he had attempted to rob a cleaning shop where Felicia Florka, 16, of East Detroit, worked as a part-time clerk.

He asked his wife and children to pray for him.

Miss Florka, a high school student, was clubbed 28 times Wednesday evening in a maniacal attack.

She is in critical condition in a hospital with multiple skull fractures.

Doctors are optimistic that Felicia will recover. She had not been molested sexually.

★ ★ ★

Detective Sgt. Charles Schlachter and Detective Kenneth Perry said witnesses identified Sullivan as the man at the cleaners immediately before the attack.

Sullivan was sought after police obtained a description of the assailant's car from witnesses.

His 38-year-old wife, Joann, said her husband telephoned her after police had been to their home. She quoted him as saying "Oh, my God" and said he hung up abruptly when she told him police wanted to talk to him.

His body was discovered a short time later by a construction worker. The garage is about a mile from the Sullivan home.

Sullivan said in the note, addressed to his wife, "I'm almost out of my mind with worry over money. That's why I tried to rob the cleaners." He asked his wife to forgive him.

EARNED $120 WEEK

Sullivan, a plumber with a Detroit contracting firm, earned about $120 a week.

Miss Florka told police that her assailant brought a pair of pants to be cleaned in the shop and then lingered talking to her about an hour. Then he attacked her.

★ ★ ★

Police said he beat the five-foot, 90-pound girl repeatedly with a pipe-like weapon as she screamed and fought for her life.

He chased her when she broke from his grasp and ran into the street where she collapsed in the arms of a service station attendant.

Her assailant fled in a car.

The clue that led police to Sullivan came from two young boys

Hold Strategy Session

AP Wirephoto

IN STEP — President Eisenhower and Sen. William Knowland, Senate Republican leader from California, walk through a White House door this morning after breakfasting together. After the last-minute strategy session, Knowland reported they both hope to get back in the Senate a substantial part of the $809 million the House chopped out of foreign aid.

Ike, Knowland Meet in Strategy Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) held a last-minute strategy session with President Eisenhower today and reported later they both hope to bet back in the Senate a substantial part of the $809,650,000 the House chopped out of foreign aid funds.

The President and the Senate Republican leader held a breakfast conference at the White House. It followed by only a few hours the House action on the mutual security appropriation bill.

Knowland told reporters he doubts the Senate will be able to restore the entire sum the House knocked out but he said he and Eisenhower are hopeful the Senate will restore a substantial part of the reductions.

Knowland added he will have to "explore further on a bipartisan basis" among fellow senators before making any estimate of the amount by which the Senate might raise the figures.

As finally passed by the House last night the measure provides $2,524,760,000 in new money. Eisenhower had sought the full amount of a previously passed authorization measure — $3,367,000,000.

The cut of more than 809 million is a net figure taking account of some permanent authorizations needing no new law, and some switching of carryovers from previous appropriations.

Even the authorization figure is half a billion below what Eisenhower originally sought.

Eisenhower came to the door of the north portico and bade Knowland a cordial goodby, while photographers pictured them together.

Seek New Site for Big Airport

Detroit Group Buying Land for Project in Sterling Township

The Detroit Aviation Commission is negotiating for land for a new airport in Sterling Township of Macomb County west of Mount Clemens.

William M. Packer, president of the commission, said efforts to buy land "have been going on quietly in order to avoid starting a commotion such as the one we had over the site in Warren."

In 1954 Detroit sought to condemn land north of 12-Mile road in what is now the city of Warren for a new northeast airport. The suit was fought by local residents and finally dismissed in April 1956.

The new site would be about five miles north of the Warren location in an area bounded by 17-Mile road on the south, 19-Mile road on the north and between Dequindre and Mound or Ryan.

The Sterling Township board met Tuesday night with Packer and John P. McElroy, vice chairman of the State Aeronautics Commission and a member of the Wayne County Road Commission.

Representatives of the aviation commission also met this week with the Utica Consolidated School board. In Mount Clemens it was reported the school board would not oppose the move.

However, township Supervisor Arthur Priehs declared: "We don't want the airport in our township. All of the other six men on the board feel as I do."

Forged for Wedding

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — A bride of six days faces a forgery charge in police court today. Police said Mrs. Shirley Ann Williams admitted forging a $100 check to pay for her wedding flowers and other expenses.

Newspaper Folds—Too Big

MINERAL, Va. (AP) — A newspaper has gone out of business here — because the circulation got too large.

Eight boys started the hand-written Mineral City Gazette this summer but gave it up earlier this month.

"We had 32 subscribers and it was too much work and too little money," said staff writer Michael Cook, 10. "We're all going to be salesmen instead of newspapermen."

Youth, 18, Killed at Dance in Flint

Two Others Wounded; Boy Admits Stabbings at Supervised Event

FLINT (AP) — An 18-year-old youth was stabbed to death by another youth last night at a city-supervised juke box dance in Kearsley Park. Two other youths suffered stab wounds.

Police today were pushing an investigation while holding the youth who they said admitted the stabbings.

Police said the victim, Ronald Allen of Flint, was stabbed when he and four companions accosted a group of other boys at Gilkey Creek, about 100 feet from the park's dance pavilion.

In custody is 17-year-old Donny Steinhoff of Flint. He is held without charge. Detective Lieut. Ray Weatherwax said Steinhoff admitted the stabbing.

Two other youths, Wayne Wiederholt and Robert Johnson, both 17, also were stabbed.

WENT TO CREEK

Police said Allen and his group had left the dance pavilion to walk to the creek and saw other youths on the far side of creek bridge.

Words were exchanged, according to police, and the stabbings followed.

Gashed in the chest from a 5-inch blade, Allen ran back to the pavilion.

He collapsed near the dance floor and was dead on arrival at St. Joseph Hospital.

The stabbings threw the young people's dance into confusion.

Man Helps Self to Police Car at Station House

Police are holding a Pontiac man for theft of a police car from behind the station house.

According to police, Harold S. Barnard, 21, of 193 N. Perry St., took the car last night when two officers left the key in it while in the station to pick up a woman prisoner for transfer to the Oakland County jail.

An alarm for the car was sent out and at 2:30 a.m. today Barnard was arrested on E. Pike at Mill.

Shortly after his arrest for auto theft, a motorist walked into the station with a complaint.

He said a man driving a police car had stopped him that night and said, "I am an illegal police officer. You were speeding, but if you give me two bucks I'll forget about it."

When the motorist refused to pay, the "illegal officer" drove off again.

Police are considering a charge of impersonating an officer against Barnard.

City Guardsman in Competition for High Award

A Pontiac man has been chosen as one of the six finalists for the honor of being the National Guard's outstanding enlisted man at their encampment at Camp Grayling.

Sgt. 1.C. Adolphus B. White, Jr., of 2025 Old Lane Dr., will be one of the six from which will be chosen the winner tomorrow.

Sgt. White, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus White, has been a guardsmen since 1953, living in Pontiac with his parents. He was elevated to his present rank early this year.

GM Denies Jet Profit Unfair

Margin Under Civilian Jobs, Claims Official in Probe of Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — John F. Gordon, vice president of General Motors Corp., said today his company's profit on an air force contract for 599 jet fighters was reasonable and "substantially below" its profit rate on commercial business.

In testimony prepared for a House Armed Services subcommittee, Gordon said GM's profit on a contract for 599 F84F Jet Thunderstreak fighters was 11.3 per cent on sales before income taxes and 5.4 per cent after taxes.

The planes were produced by GM's Buick - Oldsmobile - Pontiac Division plant in Kansas City, Kan. Most of them were delivered in 1955.

Gordon said that through negotiation between the Air Force "through good performance in reducing costs" the total contract value for the planes was reduced by $26,569,736 from the $370,529,236 contemplated in the July 1954, GM proposal.

He noted that the Thunderstreak contract is still before the renegotiation board which reviews profit rates on government contracts. He said the board "may negotiate any refund considered appropriate."

In conclusion, Gordon said:

"We are certain that an examination of the complete record will confirm that General Motors' prices on this contract and the profit accruing from it were fair and reasonable, and that our production performance — attended, as it was, by extremely difficult conditions — was outstanding."

Stadium Vendors' Strike May Halt Tiger Game

DETROIT (AP) — Tonight's American League game between the Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox was threatened with possible cancellation today by a strike of 250 concession workers.

The 250 vendors and commissary men and women employes of Briggs Stadium threw up a picket line today.

A spokesman for the Detroit Baseball Co. said there was a possibility of no game tonight if the strike is not settled.

Area Weather Drops Into a Pleasant Rut

Fair and pleasant weather in the Pontiac area will continue through tomorrow, says the U. S. Weather Bureau. It will be cooler tonight with a low of 53-57.

Not much change in temperature is expected tomorrow, with a high of 74-80.

Lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 59. At 2 p.m. the thermometer reached 77.

"... but a Good Cigar Is a Smoke."

Men Love 'em; Women Hate 'em!

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the odd facts about those odd creatures known as women is that they are secretly afraid of cigars.

They may deny it, but it's so. Ask the average woman who says she hates cigars what her objections to them are, and she'll reply: "Oh, they smell terrible and they make the men who smoke them look simply repulsive."

★ ★ ★

Then, assuming an air of balanced feminine tolerance—which is about as unbalanced as a human being can get—she'll add:

"Now, I don't mind cigarettes, and it's a pleasure to a woman to see the fun a man gets out of a pipe. But cigars, ugh! They're nasty. I don't see why any man wants to smoke them."

And what is the real truth? The real truth is the lady is a liar. The real truth is that she doesn't hate cigars because they are messy or smell up the house—but because she is afraid of them.

And why?

Because a little old cigar is a potential rival. Because, in this woman-dominated world, it is a subtle weapon by which a man can seek to regain his equal rights. Because it can give a man something a woman often can't—a feeling of serene power.

"A good cigar," wrote E. G. Bulwer-Lytton, "is as great a comfort to a man as a good cry to a woman."

Summing up the situation even better in one of the most terribly accurate lines in English literature, Rudyard Kipling said: "A woman is only a woman but a good cigar is a smoke."

Can most women realize these things are true? And naturally a woman secretly hates and fears the cigar that can give such a solace to her mortal prey, man. If the critter is going to get any solace in this dubious world, she believes she ought to provide it—not a cigar.

Debt Idea Abandoned

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Eisenhower Administration apparently has abandoned any idea of asking Congress to authorize a temporary increase in the 275 billion dollar public debt ceiling this year.

Alas, Still No Winner — Pot-O-Gold Worth $2,200

Although judges waded through 16,168 entries in last week's Pot-O-Gold puzzle, there was no winner. The prize continues to increase and now, with another $100 dollars, is at $2,200—just waiting for someone to win.

Man Convicted on Vendor Law

Was Accused of Selling Ice Cream Without Assistant on Truck

A second man was convicted yesterday of violating Pontiac's controversial safety ordinance concerning ice cream vendors.

Albert Whitehurst, of 9203 Melville St., Detroit was fined $20 or four days in jail by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Whitehurst indicated he would appeal the decision to Circuit Court, as had another Detroiter, Sam Wineman, of 3835 Duane St., also convicted and similarly sentenced on the same charge yesterday.

They were accused of selling ice cream from their freezer trucks without an assistant on hand to safeguard children against passing traffic.

The city withdrew charges against two other vendors yesterday for lack of evidence.

Although the ordinance had been upheld in Municipal Court once before, that conviction also was appealed and has not been tried yet.

Opponents of the ordinance say it is unconstitutional. The city, however, feels it is legitimate and necessary under Pontiac's police and health protection powers.

U.S. Plans Further Cut in Military Size

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said yesterday the U. S. tentatively hopes to cut its military forces to two and a half million men by the middle of 1959 — a manpower reduction of 300,000.

The new level would represent a reduction of an additonal 200,000 men beyond the 100,000 manpower cut ordered by Wilson earlier this year.

At present, the armed forces now have 2,800,000 men in uniform.

Wilson described the two and a half million goal as a "minimum planning figure" to be attained by July, 1959.

He told a news conference he personally favors such a reduction but added: "The decision has not been made yet."

Wilson said he would submit the manpower reduction proposal to Neil H. McElroy, Ohio industrialist, who will succeed him as Pentagon chief later this year.

Are today's winters more severe than those of yesterday, or milder —as most oldtimers claim?

The records indicate there is very little difference in today's winters and those of fifty or more years ago. Yet most elderly people will tell you that winters when they were young were much harder than they are today.

There are several reasons for the almost unanimous claims from the older generation.

First, heating and comforts which lessen the ordeal of a tough winter were not as widespread fifty years ago. Second, the mind recalls the extreme—the bitter winters, not the mild ones.

It is true that our winters have been getting slightly milder in recent years and there are some who believe the trend will continue. They point to the steadily northward movement of certain vegetation, formerly found only in more southerly localities.

Claim Beck's Office Had Part in Vote Rig

"now on the lam" and can't be found to be served with a subpoena.

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said investigators talked with Geiger a month ago but now can't locate him.

"I guess that's what you call being 'on the lam,' isn't it? asked McClellan.

"I guess so," Lacey said.

O'Rourke, in the witness chair yesterday, invoked the Fifth Amendment time and again in refusing to tell how he became president of the council. He also refused to say whether he knows Hoffa or labor racketeer Johnny Dio.

The committee contends Hoffa was allied with Dio in ousting Lacey through the device of phony Teamster locals that allegedly threw their voting weight to O'Rourke.

Hoffa's objective, the committee says, was to extend his already big labor power and that Dio's aim was to fatten his income from labor rackets.

Lacey, who has been with the trucking union more than half a century, denied to newsmen suggestions made in the hearings that he was approached with a $10,000 bribe to withdraw in O'Rourke's favor.

"No such offer was ever made," the 74-year-old Lacey told reporters in advance of his second appearance before the committee.

But one of several secretly recorded telephone conversations between New York racketeers Tony (Ducks) Corallo, Dio and Sam Goldstein seemed to speak of discussing such an offer with Lacey. That was the interpretation put on the recording by investigating senators after they heard it played at the hearing.

Another wiretapped phone conversation between the hoodlums told how Lacey wept "like a babe in the woods" in protesting, "If they would come and hit me with bats that would be all right. But not the way they done it to me."

Goldstein was quoted as telling Corallo that Lacey "would have listened to anything a couple of months ago—sit down and talk it over."

But at that point, Corallo was told, "the way they done things—if it was you and you was a whipped dog, . . . you'd get up and you'd fight. . . ." This was taken to mean Lacey wasn't knuckling under.

Well-posted labor sources say that John F. English — the man picked by the AFL-CIO to clean up the Teamsters Union's dirty linen —is supporting James R. Hoffa for Teamsters president.

The 68-year-old English, veteran Teamsters Union national secretary-treasurer, was reached at Chicago, where he's attending an AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting. He declined to discuss his reported support for Hoffa.

Detroit Offers to Sell Prison

Draws Plan to Unload to State Troublesome House of Correction

DETROIT (AP) — In the face of early legislative opposition the City of Detroit is drawing up a plan for sale of its House of Correction to the state.

Mayor Albert E. Cobo instructed aides yesterday to draw up a plan. He acted after a group of penal experts recommended that the women's division be turned over to the state.

A recent sitdown strike of women inmates protesting conditions led to an investigation and report. The state has offered to take over the women's division.

The women's division houses all women who are sent to prison in Michigan. As of now some 110 state prisoners are in the institution out of an average population of 1,063.

★ ★ ★

The prison cost four million dollars to build and unofficial estimates place its worth at twice that today.

GOP Narrowing on Civil Rights?

Top Rules Republican Sees Action by Group Monday or Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Allen of Illinois, top Republican on the House Rules Committee, said today that differences blocking House action on civil rights appear to have been pretty well ironed out.

★ ★ ★

As House Republicans appeared ready to stage a strategic retreat from their all-or-nothing stand for President Eisenhower's civil rights program, Allen told reporters:

★ ★ ★

"I think the Rules Committee will meet next Monday or Tuesday (to act on the bill). I think things have been pretty well ironed out, and I think we will adjourn with a bill."

★ ★ ★

Allen's statement strengthened reports that leaders were nearing an agreement to bring the stalemated bill to the floor of the House for a vote late next week.

★ ★ ★

The Rules Committee thus far has been blocking action. But with the four Republican members and four Northern Democrats voting together as a majority of the 12-member committee, the bill could be sent to the floor.

★ ★ ★

Just before Allen talked with newsmen, Republican civil rights leaders in the House put off a strategy conference.

The session, set for midmorning, was called off with a tentative understanding that it might be rescheduled for this afternoon.

who told them they saw a man run from the shop. They gave police a description of the car and the letters and two numerals of the license plate.

REPORTERS HELP

Newsmen on the police beat checked the registration of cars that tallied with the description. Among one was Sullivan's. They telephoned the Sullivan home and asked Mrs. Sullivan if her husband had a blue and white car. When she said he did they turned the information over to police.

Sullivan's note was an apology to his wife. It was written in pencil on two pieces of paper. It read:

"Joey dear:

Mrs. Sullivan, the mother of four children ranging in age from two to 13 years, collapsed when police told her her husband had hanged himself.

Senate Likely to Postpone Postal Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Senate postal subcommittee opens hearings today on a proposed postal rate increase amid indications the Senate will not act on the House-passed bill this year.

Chairman Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) virtually ended any hopes for action before adjournment, which may come this month, when he told the Senate yesterday he thought the measure needed thorough subcommittee study in public hearings.

As passed by the House, the bill would raise first-class letter rates from 3 to 4 cents, boost airmail rates from 6 to 7 cents, and provide increases on other classes of mail.

Hint Negligence in Ditch Deaths

Official Says Foreman Refused Safety Plea; Cave-In Killed 6

DRESDEN, Ont. (AP)—An official of the Keillor Construction Company said yesterday that a few days before Wednesday's cave-in which killed six company workmen the construction boss complained that shorings in the hole in which the men were working were not safe.

Douglas Bentley said the construction boss appealed to the foreman to increase the 10-foot shorings in the 35-foot hole to 30 feet. The foreman declined to do so, he said.

Bentley did not identify either man.

Wednesday night 200 tons of clay, steel and concrete caved in on six Dutch-Canadians working on an extension of the waterworks system of this community, 12 miles north of Chatham, midway between London and Windsor.

The sixth body was recovered last night, partially encased in a trough of hardened cement. Rescue workers struggled through steel beams and clay before finding the body at the bottom of the pit.

As rescue work halted, John Ohrt an Ontario Labor Department inspector from Toronto, ordered that the pit be filled in, pending a decision on re-shoring.

Discount Animal Torture Reports

Probe in White Lake, Milford Areas Reveal No Mutilation Evidence

Residents in the White Lake Township and Milford areas were cautioned today by Dr. Frank Bates, Oakland County Animal Shelter director, and Pontiac State Police to avoid hasty action over an alleged series of animal mutilations.

Stories have circulated throughout this area for six weeks that three cats, four dogs and three horses were sadistically tortured. Residents posted reward for the culprits.

"I have carefully investigated the alleged instances of mutilation together with state police and we find not a shred of evidence of any such mutilations have occurred," Dr. Bates said.

"No one has brought forth an animal and said he was intentionally tortured by someone," he continued.

In the case of a valuable stallion, allegedly slashed on the left flank, Bates said he has discussed this with the veterinarian who is treating the animal and they agreed there was no sign the injury was deliberately inflicted.

"With residents roaming about at night with guns," Dr. Bates added, "some innocent person is going to get hurt, if people don't calm down."

Trooper Peter R. Basolo, who conducted a four day investigation of the rumors, said all stories of suspected mutilations were "unfounded" and "no actual proof has been found through talks with the owners as well as the vets concerned with each animal."

Injuries to any of the involved animals were attributed to natural causes and accidents, and not intentional.

Hill Top Restaurant Owner Pays Fine

Dewey Teague, owner of the Hill Top House Restaurant, 10755 Dixie Highway, Davisburg, was arraigned before Springfield Township Justice Emmet J. Leib, Thursday, on charges of violating the food act.

Teague, who was specifically charged with operating a restaurant under unsanitary conditions, pleaded guilty and was fined $95.10 plus paying costs of $4.90.

"Politics," said Peter Remnant, Member of Parliament in Britain, "is the art of looking for trouble, finding it whether it is there or not, diagnosing it wrongly and applying the incorrect cure."

Offer Assistance in Hunt for Boy

Sheriffs From Indiana, Kalamazoo May Join Search for 7-Year-Old

BRAZIL, Ind. (AP) — A Michigan sheriff and the Indiana Sheriff's Assn. Thursday offered to send all available men to Brazil to aid in the search for seven-year-old Billy Martin, who has been missing since Saturday.

Sheriff William S. Downing said he received a telephone call from Undersheriff Glen Hammel of Kalamazoo offering a detective team to help authorities in the baffling mystery.

And at Tipton, Sheriff Paul Grimme, second vice president of the Sheriff's Association, said member sheriffs could send all their available men, airplanes and other equipment to Brazil.

Downing said he may enlist the aid if the case is not solved soon.

The search party dwindled in size Thursday. But several persons were still trying to find the boy. Two old water reservoirs at the west edge of the city were dragged, and workmen sifted through tons of dirt at a school construction project.

Downing said he planned to give Harry A. (Tex) Higgins, 53, another lie detector test this weekend or early next week. Higgins was one of the last persons to see the boy Saturday.

He has been held in jail since an earlier lie detector test indicated he may know something about the boy's disappearance, police said.

Pedestrian Hurt at Intersection in Freak Accident

A freak accident yesterday afternoon injured a pedestrian at the intersection of N. Saginaw and Warren Streets.

Mrs. Arthur C. Roediger pulled her car up to the curb near the corner to go shopping. She left the motor running and the transmission in drive position.

Her husband, seated next to her, started to slide over on the front seat to drive the car around the block until she was through shopping.

His foot accidentally hit the accelerator, he told police, and the car lurched forward hitting Peter Zografos, 61, of 120 Ruth St. as he stood on the sidewalk.

Roediger grabbed the wheel with his left hand and steered the car off the sidewalk and into a car driven by Homer A. McMahan, of 5799 Berkley St. which was waiting for a red light.

★ ★ ★

Zografos was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital for multiple bruises and abrasions. His condition today is reported as satisfactory.

Rescue 16 Crewmen of Crashed Blimp

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A fishing boat today rescued the 16 crew members of a Navy blimp which crashed during the night in coastal North Carolina's Pamlico Sound.

The Coast Guard said the crew of naval reservists on a summer training cruise apparently escaped injury.

★ ★ ★

The fishing boat took the survivors' rafts in tow and headed for Wanchese Coast Guard Station, near Manteo, N. C.

A massive Navy, Coast Guard, Air Force search and rescue team of 50 planes already was standing at the ready to search for a missing jet pilot. He was picked up by a ship, however, before the aircraft took off.

A Navy search plane from the Oceana Naval Air Station near Virginia Beach, Va., spotted the blimp survivors and wreckage.

A distress message intercepted shortly before midnight by an Air Force B25 stating the blimp was being ditched led to the start of a massive search at dawn by planes and surface craft which already were standing by to search for the missing Navy jet pilot.

Marshall Fredericks to Do Shain Park Beautification

BIRMINGHAM — Beautification plans for Shain Park are progressing with the well-known architect Marshall Fredericks having made known his willingness to create the design for the center mall.

Commissioner Florence Willett told city officials Monday night that the women's organizations already active in the program have indicated their willingness to assume all costs other than those of "permanent" improvement.

This referred definitely to the propriated a sum not to exceed facilities which might be necessary in the park. The city apportioned a sum not to exceed $5,000 for this purpose.

Officials stated however, that the city should have control and final say on any plans. The organizations will take over design and supplies for appropriate landscaping, which must have city approval. It was pointed out that until the center mall is advanced enough to set the theme, little can be done.

Mrs. Willett said that while Fredericks has not prepared a definite plan, he has given the cooperating groups an idea of what he intends. She said the design would be simple and in good taste in creating the center of a three-block municipal area.

Spearheaded by members of the Garden Club and interested individuals, the Shain Park beautification program has been under discussion for many years. With the Municipal Building occupying the block immediately to the east and the city - owned library the block to the west, this forms the center of one of the business districts' most attractive sections.

One of the items included in the program met with regrets by many persons is the forced removal of the tree which has for many years been the focal point of the community's Christmas celebration. The old pine, which has been decorated with hundreds of lights has been the setting for the Nativity Scene and the annual community sing. Age however, has taken its toll and the city forester has declared it in an almost dangerous condition.

Police and fire chiefs have released figures for the July summary of their activities. Fire Chief Park H. Smith shows a total of 34 calls answered. Total loss on building and contents was estimated $240.

From the police department came the report of 40 accidents, a drop from 63 in the previous months. Both months show a total of eight personal injury accidents, with nine persons hurt last month.

July also recorded the city's first fatality. Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley said following too closely and right-of-way violations were the leading causes of accidents.

Mrs. Mary Beth Dombrowski

Mrs. Mary Beth Dombrowski, 71, died at her home 1590 Chapin yesterday after a brief illness.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Maurice Butler of Yonkers and one son Ray L. of Detroit, and a brother in Poland.

Services will be from the William R. Hamilton Co. Chapel, 3975 Cass, Detroit at 10:30 a.m. Monday with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

Paul Willick

Paul Willick, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo M. Willick of 23996 Manchester, died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. The baby was born Aug. 8.

Besides his parents he is survived by a brother Timothy, two sisters Linda Jean and Penolope J., his maternal grandmother Mrs. John Piatek of Birmingham and his paternal grandmother Mrs. Rose Willick of Detroit.

Monsgr. Eugene Paddock of Holy Name Church will give a blessing at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. at 10 a.m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

William Schollenberger

Service for William Schollenberger, of 237 North Woodward Ave., who died at Bloomfield Hospital last evening, following a long illness, will be at 1 p.m. Saturday from the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham.

Mr. Schollenberger belonged to Oriental Lodge No. 74 in Spokane Wash. and the Scottish and Moslem Shrines of Detroit.

He is survived by his wife Edith; and a daughter, Mrs. Norman Sutherland of Sarasota, Fla.

Most Dealers Pass Gas Cuts to Buyers

All major oil companies have joined the bulk gasoline price slash and most Pontiac retail dealers have passed the cut along to make gas cheaper by approximately 1.9 cents per gallon in the Pontiac area.

Some dealers have gone over the usual 1.9 cent bulk slash to price gas at two cents per gallon lower, absorbing part of the cut themselves. Most, however, have stuck to the bulk cut in lowering retail prices.

Some stations which have not lowered prices may do so soon when gas supplies on hand, purchased before the bulk cut, are replaced by lower-priced supplies.

Lowering of retail prices in the Pontiac area has been general and steady. No price war is seen by retail dealers in the near future.

Head School Board Agenda

Racial Questions Spark Meeting

Racial questions were the major order of business before the Pontiac Board of Education last night.

★ ★ ★

Delegations of parents from Whittier and McConnell Schools were on hand to hear the board's decision on transporting three classes of colored students from Whittier to McConnell.

Acting on the recommendation of Superintendent Dana Whitmer, the board voted to transport the children in classes and keep them together as classes at McConnell.

Rev. Joseph Parker, board member, protested the decision as a "plain case of discrimination." He argued the children should be integrated with classes at McConnell.

ESTABLISHED POLICY

Dr. Whitmer said it has long been established policy to keep classes together when temporarily moving them to another building, so that when they later attend their proper school they are familiar with each other and their teachers.

The board was supported by a spokesman for McConnell parents, but opposed by several from the Whittier area.

The Rev. Mr. Parker also charged he had been denied the opportunity to make a motion on the matter in an executive meeting following the last board meeting two weeks ago.

The board voted to affirm its informal policy of not taking any action in executive meeting. Several members told Parker he was mistaken in thinking that any votes have ever been taken in closed session.

Only informal polls of the board have been asked previously, they said.

★ ★ ★

A letter from the Michigan Fair Employment Practices Committee was read which said the board's employment applications violated the FEPC law in that they required a photograph of applicants and place of birth. Whitmer said the form would be changed to comply with the law.

DISCUSS IMPROVEMENT

A discussion of improving public relations also involved racial matters.

It was agreed by board members that something would have to be done to improve communications between the school system and the Negro community, as well as with other segments of the public.

The possibility of holding informal meetings with Negro leaders was considered.

★ ★ ★

In other action, the board discussed the parking problem at the Pontiac High School with a delegation of residents of Washington street.

WOULD BUY LAND

The board has been negotiating to buy land on Washington for a parking lot for teachers.

The residents objected, saying it would depreciate the neighborhood. The board agreed to consider other sites which the residents might suggest and urged them to form a committee to work on the matter. They agreed to do this.

★ ★ ★

A report on per pupil cost of driver education was made, in which it was shown that substantial savings are being effected by the recently inaugurated program. Cost is now $30 per pupil, of which the state pays $25.

★ ★ ★

The superintendent announced that the Herrington Hills School would not open until the first part of October, and students in that area would attend the Mark Twain and Willis Schools until then.

Dr. Whitmer also announced that the property necessary for the Franklin road site had been purchased by the board's attorney the morning of the day the condemnation suit was to start.

The board authorized him to buy four more lots which the owners had said they would sell at the same price.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Russell Curtis, secondary coordinator, presented the board with the Holding Power Study made by a committee of teachers designed to investigate and reduce the number of youngsters dropping out of school before graduation from high school.

Russia Biggest Winner in Diplomatic Dogfight Between Syria and U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia stood out today as the big winner so far in a diplomatic dogfight between Syria and the United States.

The Soviet policy of making trouble for the Western powers in the Middle East appears to have paid off handsomely in this conflict, which led yesterday to American ouster of the Syrian ambassador to Washington.

Announcing that Ambassador Farid Zeineddine was no longer State Department also declared that the U.S. ambassador to Damascus, James S. Moose Jr., will not be returning to his post.

In addition, the State Department ordered out of the country by tomorrow Second Secretary Hassin Zakaria of the Syrian Embassy. That step and the action against Zeineddine, who was already in Syria, were taken in retaliation for Syria's ouster of three American Embassy officials earlier this week.

But the department said the actions do not mean a breakoff of diplomatic relations, and officials disavowed any intentions to go that far.

★ ★ ★

The moves against Zeineddine and Zakaria were coupled with protests against a Syrian charge Monday that the United States was involved in a plot to overthrow President Shukri Kuwatly. That charge was followed by the Kuwatly government's order directing that Howard Stone, Francis J. Jeton and Col. Robert W. Molloy of the U.S. Embassy staff leave Syria.

★ ★ ★

The retaliation came yesterday afternoon when Asst. Secretary of State William Rountree summoned Dr. Mamun Hamui, Syrian Embassy counselor to his office for an 18-minute conference.

Rountree protested Syria's recent behavior toward the United States and handed Hamui a note declaring Zeineddine and Zakaria "persona non grata" (unwelcome). Hamui declined to make any comment upon leaving Rountree.

Boys Shoot at Rabbit but Kill Companion

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Clyde Grayson, 17, was shot to death yesterday while rabbit hunting with two friends, but Sheriff Harlon Wright said no effort will be made to determine which boy fired the fatal shot.

"The boys are torn up enough about it now and if we found out now it would just make the one that did it feel worse," Wright said.

★ ★ ★

Grayson, an Amon Carter Riverside High School senior, was hunting with Bill Lawrence, 15, and Phillips Johnson, 15, in a pasture about five miles east of Watauga.

Lawrence and Johnson were returning to Grayson's car along a fence line when a rabbit broke cover and ran.

★ ★ ★

Wright said the two boys thought Grayson was behind them, but he had circled and was in the line of fire concealed by scrub oak when both Lawrence and Johnson fired at the rabbit.

Grayson then fell into view, shouting he had been shot. One bullet penetrated his right side.

★ ★ ★

The two boys rushed him to a hospital. He was dead on arrival.

Engineers to Visit State

DETROIT (AP)—Four members of the Washington staff of the Chief of Federal Engineers visited Detroit this week in an inspection of Michigan installations. Their tour will include Wurtsmith Air Force Base at Oscoda and the locks at Sault Ste. Marie.

Contrary to a widely held view, the Secret Service has nothing to do with the FBI. It is a branch of the Treasury Dept., and concerns itself with the personal protection of the President and his family and the enforcement of counterfeiting laws.

City Blood Bank 200 Pints Short

Area Residents Given a Special Opportunity to Contribute Monday

"The empty vessel makes the greatest sound."

Although these are originally the words of the English poet William Shakespeare, the phrase can be applied to today's plea from the Pontiac Community Blood Bank.

★ ★ ★

The "vessel" of this organization should contain enough pints of blood to meet local demands. It is not empty, but the bank is short 200 pints of its quota for the summer months, according to Mrs. A. H. Magnus, bank chairman.

The few minutes it takes to donate a pint of blood may be the same amount of time it takes to save a person's life through the availability of blood.

Monday area residents will be given a special opportunity to contribute blood to the local bank and join in this emergency appeal.

★ ★ ★

Donors may give blood from 2-5 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave.

No appointment is necessary but to insure prompt service, Mrs. Magnus advises donors to call her at MI 6-1313 or the Red Cross, FE 8-3937, for an appointment.

OK Two Nominees After Senate Battle

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two controversial nominees of President Eisenhower were confirmed by the Senate last night despite vigorous Democratic opposition.

By a 50-25 vote, the Senate approved the reappointment of Jerome K. Kuykendall to the Federal Power Commission. Eisenhower is expected to rename him chairman of the agency.

A few hours later, a 42-32 vote confirmed the nomination of Don Paarlberg as assistant secretary of agriculture.

★ ★ ★

Underlying the fight against these two nominations was opposition to Eisenhower administration policies in the power and farm fields.

Money Mounts in Pot-O-Gold to $2,100

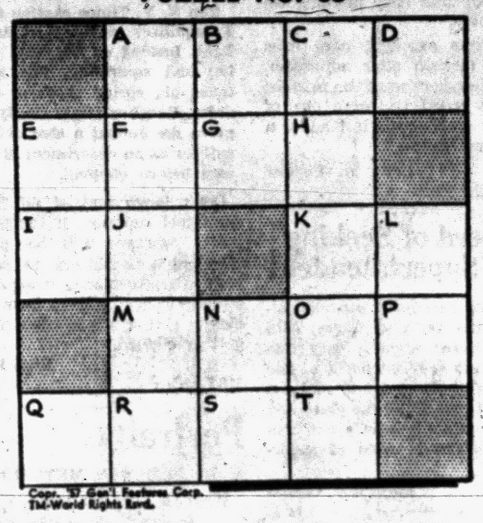

Another $100 added to the pot puts the Pot-O-Gold prize money at the $2,100 mark. Unless you don't mind someone getting in ahead of you to collect the loot, better get started right now on the new puzzle below.

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. Entries must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answers in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securly to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 63 must bear a Tuesday, Aug. 20 postmark (or before). No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or ackpowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Traveling in Red China Easy, Especially for Foreign Writer

(American newspapermen are still barred from Red China by the U.S. State Department, but a British reporter, David Hotham of the London Times, now touring that Communist nation has written some of his impressions exclusively for The Associated Press. The first story follows.)

By DAVID HOTHAM

PEIPING (AP) — Traveling in China is the easiest thing in the world, especially if you are someone the Chinese wish to impress, such as a foreign journalist.

The Chinese government travel agency Intourist acts as your guardian angel wherever you go. They book your seat for you, put you on the train, put your luggage on the train, pay the porters, hand you your tickets, help you through the customs, make excellent conversation. The charge is not unreasonable.

★ ★ ★

The Intourist interpreters are young men employed by the Chinese state, all well indoctrinated in communism.

Nursed by these paragons, one has nothing to do but lean back in comfort as the train rolls through the countryside.

What does China look like through the carriage window?

To begin with, South China is a land of strange and haunting beauty. It consists of an infinity of terraced paddy fields between smallish rounded hills. The whole country is sliced into a bewildering series of geometrical areas—squares, triangles, semicircles, oblongs and trapezoids—each of which is a little field, and each packed with the shoots of the rice crop.

Every cranny between the hills is worked and sown, and the carpets of rice plants descend like long gentle staircases of brilliant green to the level of the lower ground. The whole land is chiseled and molded by the toil of centuries.

People told me the recent flooding of the province of Kwantung had retarded but not seriously endangered the rice crop. From the train window the crop looked small, but in most places it seemed to be growing strongly.

There are few overt signs as one travels that China is a country under Communist rule. The Red star at the stations, an occasional picture of Mao Tze-tung, a good deal of official talk on the radio. Otherwise it all looks much like what one sees traveling in any other country.

One of the most curious aspects of Communist China is the passion for cleanliness. At every station the buffet attendants wore white mouthpads impregnated with menthol, and at all points of the journey there were others doing the same. The practice is not obligatory, but many people have become conscious through publicity campaigns of the number of germs in the air to which they are continually exposed.

Sometimes this becomes almost a mania. Several times an hour throughout one three-day journey, we were forced to lift our feet off the carriage floor while it was mopped by the railway attendant. Wherever one looked, people seemed to be mopping and scouring.

Even so, Chinese spitting, which has always been a remarkable feature of the race, seems hardly to have diminished at all under communism.

At the great plain of the Yellow River, and still more to the north of it, wheat and kao-liang—a sort of Chinese maize—replace rice as the main crop. The ox and the donkey, and the occasional horse, replace the water buffalo. The farming becomes almost European in character. It seemed an ideal land for tractors. But I did not see a single tractor throughout the journey. Nor, for that matter, a single machine more complicated than a wheelbarrow.

Gold Found in Ireland

DUBLIN — Gold has been found in Ireland at an old antimony mine at Clontibret, County Monaghan. Samples of ore taken from the mine has assayed an ounce of gold to the ton, making it a high-grade ore. The antimony content of the ore amounts to 63 per cent.

Puerto Rico Red Hotbed, Dominican Officials Say

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (INS) — The president of the Dominican Chamber of Deputies charges that Puerto Rico has become a "center of Communist conspiracy" under Gov. Luis Munoz Marin.

Munoz already has denied previous charges of this nature by the Dominican legislator, Carlos Sanchez Y Sanchez.

Huge Uranium Find Puts U.S. in Front

Up to the present time Canada has been the free world's number one source of uranium. Now comes news of the discovery of huge deposits of this ore, estimated at one billion dollars, near Grants, New Mexico and with it a boom is under way in the arid Southwest. The United States now becomes the world's largest producer of uranium ore.

★ ★ ★

The day of the lone prospector is gone and big scale drilling has taken over, says U.S. News & World Report. Thousands of workers are employed in exploration, drilling, mining and constructing new mills to process vast quantities of the new found uranium ore.

All this is in contrast to the situation three or four years ago when demand pushed eager prospecting in the U.S. and the signing of exclusive contracts abroad, mostly with Canada. It now is estimated that northern New Mexico has 70 per cent of the Nation's known reserves, enough for Government requirements beyond 1966.

For the next decade there is a Government guaranteed market for uranium. By then, company officials believe, there will be a considerable commercial market for the ore. Owing to the high cost of power abroad, and fear of another oil pinch, overseas demand for uranium ore for nuclear power is expected to increase rapidly.

It is good to know that a large supply seems assured in this country and every indication is that the boom will last for years if demand grows as expected.

World Court to Arbitrate Central American Row

Both Nicaragua and Honduras have agreed finally to put their long drawn out border dispute before the International Court of Justice.

The territory involved is a swampy, mosquito infested coastal strip between two rivers which empty into the Caribbean. There are few known resources but a trace of oil has been found.

★ ★ ★

A dispute between the two countries was arbitrated in 1906 by King ALFONSO of Spain. He gave most of the strip to Honduras but Nicaragua refused to abide by the decision and the area has been the scene of intermittent flareups ever since.

Earlier this year Honduras announced the creation of a new state in this area. Nicaragua protested and there have been more military skirmishes. Both nations appealed to the Organization of American States (OAS) which sent an investigating committee. After Nicaragua and Honduras signed a troop withdrawal agreement, OAS established a military observation system in the zone.

★ ★ ★

However, the Bogota Pact of 1948 binds signatories to submit disputes to the International Court of Justice and to arbitration. Honduras and Nicaragua were reminded by other Pact members, including the United States, that they too were signatories. Considering these pledges and the fact that other OAS members would look with disfavor on any refusal to accept the court's decision, nonacceptance appears unlikely.

This, of course, is a small matter in world affairs. But it could stir up the whole of Central America if it got out of hand.

To Help Purify the Air

Progress in the purification of automotive exhaust gases and resultant reduction in smog was reported to the Society of Automotive Engineers in Seattle recently, Ford Motor Co. chemists made the report.

★ ★ ★

They have developed a chemical which they say in large measure purifies the exhaust gases. In tests with a single cylinder engine the chemical eliminated more than eighty per cent of unconsumed hydrocarbons.

★ ★ ★

The Ford chemists also have perfected an integrator which measures the emission of hydrocarbons from an automobile's exhaust. This device, they point out, will assist in the effort to clean up automotive exhaust gases, thus making it possible for motorists to breathe purer air, even in heavy traffic.

★ ★ ★

Vanadium pentoxide is the chemical, in powder form. The motoring public will welcome this announcement and look forward to the time when its widespread use may largely eliminate the impurities which now are blown into the air from every automobile's exhaust pipe.

'Interested' Gives Residents Points for Consideration

As a Waterford resident I would like to point out a few of the things which the taxpayers should consider before incorporating. Waterford Township has progressed and advanced far better than most townships under the present government. We have adequate fire protection. We have adequate police protection. Our schools are the best. All our township officers have done a wonderful job. A city manager would draw $12,000 to $14,000 per year, plus other officers, all getting good wages.

The said city would have to be broken up into wards. The upkeep and repair of the state (M59), federal (U.S. 10) and county roads through the city of Waterford would have to be taken care of by the city. This includes drains, culverts, etc.

Work now done by the county road commission would have to be done by the city. All streets in new subdivisions would be paid for out of city taxes. The taxes would be doubled. Think twice before you jump. Just how much and where would the people benefit?

Just why look for a superintendent for the Oakland County Old Peoples Home when a very fine man, who is superintendent of one of our institutions, would make a wonderful man to fill the place and has had years of experience in contacting people in need of supervision.

'Willing Taxpayer' Works and Pays

Referring to Taxpayer's statement in column Voice of the People Aug. 12, I would like to know what she or he means saying the worker doesn't pay taxes. I'm a worker in a restaurant—not a waitress, either, and pay 1-6 of my wage for taxes — plus my living quarters which taxes are paid on. Food and clothing are neither tax free.

So I believe those that are able to have a set income are better off than those that don't and shouldn't complain, as I'm not.

'Lace Your Porks' Will Bring Smile

Speaking of muffs on TV, here's one that will make J. C. of Montcalm smile. It was something like this: the TV announcer said 'and now Miss so and so will show you the proper table setting for this Holiday dinner.

The screen was on Miss so and so and she stared into the screen with a terrified look and too long a moment of silence. She finally said, 'Ladies, place your sorks and foons' (hesitate) 'your sporks and soons' (hesitate) 'you lace your porks' and with that she dropped the silver and ran off the screen.

What a short career that was!

Tranquilizers May Aid Propaganda

Did you see that July 8 Associated Press Wirephoto from Palisades, Washington? It showed a sheep with a most sheeplike expression, being shorn of its wool.

The N. Y. Times caption read: Tranquilizer makes it shear delight. Instead of the usual kicking and squirming, this sheep takes his spring shearing lying down. Rancher Doyle Goedy had given the animal a shot of tranquilizer as an experiment 20 minutes before clipping.

Don't laugh and of all things, don't feel superior. If things continue, workers will be getting chemical tranquilizers to supplement the propaganda tranquilizers already in use to make them think they're getting ahead when they're getting clipped.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the Lord hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest. —Jeremiah 45:3.

★ ★ ★

Great grief makes sacred those upon whom its hand is laid. Joy may elevate, ambition glorify, but sorrow alone can consecrate.

—Horace Greeley

So?

David Lawrence Says:

Do Not Expect the Reds to Disarm

WASHINGTON—The government of the Soviet Union has again demonstrated its faithlessness.

It has revealed itself as the perpetrator of the biggest hoax of the age — professing an alleged willingness to make a disarmament agreement when the fact is the Soviets never sincerely intended to consummate any such pact.

LAWRENCE

What the Soviets have done is to spread throughout the world a propaganda that they want to disarm, but the plot really is to disarm the west while maintaining intact the strategic strength of the Moscow empire, including its slave states in the Balkans.

Announcement in London by the Soviet spokesman that there can be no first step in a disarmament program without some withdrawal of foreign forces from Germany and a start toward the elimination of overseas military bases of the Western allies is transparently the same old Communist game.

For several years now Moscow has sought to break up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and has refused to agree to any steps looking toward the unification of East and West Germany. Now the Communists have been forced into the open.

REAL DEMANDS UNCHANGED

Their real demands are disclosed at last, and these are the same as always. They constitute a palpable effort to get American forces and weapons out of Europe so as to leave the weaker democracies of the West at the mercy of the conventional armies of the Soviet Union, which are the largest in the world today.

The Soviet government has deluded many people in the United States and elsewhere with the argumnt that nuclear tests must be halted and will be in some sort of disarmament agreement.

But it is evident now that the Moscow regime isn't ready to ban its own tests and merely wants to exert pressure on the West to stop their tests, ban all nuclear weapons, large and small, and send American troops back to the United States.

Experience in two world wars has shown that American troops cannot get to Europe except after a lapse of months, and bases cannot be equipped overnight.

The wisdom of the concept behind NATO is that America stays in Europe and military bases are kept in a high state of readiness so our planes will be able to retaliate if the Soviets engage in any sudden aggression.

STASSEN TOO OPTIMISTIC

It is apparent now that Harold Stassen was a bit too optimistic in his impressions of what the Russians were ready to do, but he is not the only one in the American government who thought there was no harm in testing out Soviet intentions to the fullest.

Today the world knows that Moscow wants to bargain each step of the way and that already her rulers have flatly laid down the proposition that there can be no unification of Germany unless NATO is demolished and American troops go home.

Just what effect the sudden turn in the London conference will have on America's plans for maintaining present armament levels is too early to appraise.

For the Department of Defense has lately been making some very important economies based on the assumption that America's allies will provide certain forces overseas and that missiles and nuclear weapons stored there will render unnecessary the maintenance of as large a standing army as this country has been supporting these last few years.

Some of the cuts in the Federal budget have been predicated on the belief that there is an easing of tension involved somehow as a result of the very fact that disarmament talks have been going on.

WILL GET NOWHERE

But now that it is plain that the talks aren't going to get anywhere —at least not in the foreseeable future—it may be that defense planning will have to be revised. Anyway, while disarmament discussions may drag on for years, developments in the last 24 hours indicate that nothing tangible now may be expected for a long, long time and that the only way to prevent war is to keep America and her allies fully armed.

Dr. William Brady Says:

My Harping Aims to Keep You From Playing Harp

One way the trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers who don't like me, combat my teaching by complaining that I "harp" incessantly on a few pet theories.

DR. BRADY

I have to remind myself of this when a correspondent, obviously literate, says he or she "never misses" my column and asks my advice for arthritis.

★ ★ ★

When I finally quit stamping around kicking the files and snarling at innocent bystanders who happen to get in the way, I do some belly breathing or a few somersaults and console myself with the thought that what the correspondent "never misses" is probably the part in which I harped on the nature and cause of chronic joint disability. How can he fail to miss what his newspaper has deleted.

But even if every word of what I write were printed six or seven days a week my "harping" on this subject — chronic joint disability — would amount to an inaudible whisper amidst the din made by medical merchants exploiting victims of "arthritis."

Resuming my harping, I beg to tell you that genuine arthritis, a rare occurrence, does not come on insidiously. When arthritis (inflammation of joint tissues) does occur it is acute.

COMES ON INSIDIOUSLY

The all-too common chronic joint disability that comes on insidiously in persons who have attained or passed the peak of growth and development and, despite any and all the endless succession of miracle medicines with which the medical merchants exploit the "arthritis" customers, lasts and lasts—well, tell me, when you write, how long your joint disability has lasted.

★ ★ ★

I'm afraid casual readers with chronic joint disability resent the imputation when I call it rheumatiz (not rheumatism) and define it as physical degeneration of joint tissues. The poor geeks associate degeneration with moral depravity.

That's childish. It has no more to do with morality than has gray hair, slowness of movement, weakness of muscle, shortness of breath or brittleness of bone. Anyway, everybody who lives long enough begins to degenerate the moment he or she passes the peak.

For fuller information, send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for booklet, Chronic Joint Disability.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-371: Terry B., aged 29, has been married five years.

"Dr. Crane, I am about to chuck the whole thing," he said, glumly.

DR. CRANE

"We have three children and my wife is a pretty good mother. But she seems indifferent to me.

"She doesn't engage in conversation but sits and knits while I read. And she is certainly not ardent.

"She is too placid and stodgy. I feel as if I'll blow my top if I don't get away from her. I can't stand to be around the house very long.

"So I took a sales job a year ago to keep out on the road. But after I get home, within a few hours I wish I were away. What should I do—get a divorce or try to keep on for the sake of our kids?

BEWARE OF DIVORCE

Don't rush into divorce: For you can theoretically salvage every unhappy marriage if both parties will resolutely try to do their part.

And they should especially when children are involved, as is true in Terry's case.

Terry married a city girl, who liked to work in a department store as a clerk, and moved her to a farm home.

Then he ignored her social hungers. He confessed to me that he and his wife had not even attended a movie together in over a year!

If you don't go through normal motions, you can't expect to feel normal emotions!

So if your marriage is on the brink of disaster, why not take inventory? Rate yourselves on the marriage tests below and find out where you are making your mistakes.

★ ★ ★

Those tests require that a married couple have at least one date together every week!

MARRIAGE TESTS

Married couples should also go to church together every week! You can't expect to enjoy a normally happy homelife if you never enter a church but a few times per year, as on Easter and at Christmas.

And you certainly are failing down on your parents' tests if you don't set a positive example before your youngsters of faithful attendance at Sunday worship.

For if you are active together in the same church, you will rarely find divorce threatening your home.

And don't wait till the horse is stolen before you lock the barn. Start going to church together the first Sunday of your honeymoon!

★ ★ ★

And pay each other at least one spoken compliment every day. Don't stand around looking for faults so you can belittle your mate thereon.

"Molasses catches more flies than vinegar" runs an old adage.

And it holds them, too! Compliments are like the molasses. They sweeten daily life and make it far more pleasant.

MARRIAGE IS A GAME

"Oh, Dr. Crane, I simply must see you in person," is a common wail on the long distance telephone.

"Our marriage is breaking up and I need your advice at once. Please grant me an interview."

The tests below will do all that is required. For marriage is a game. And these tests show the precise laws for playing it.

If you are literate, then read these rules and apply them. You can pull your marriage out of its messy, unhappy state and get back on the beam.

★ ★ ★

Quit expecting us marriage counsellors to do all the work for you. You alone can salvage your home. So get going. The rules are simple but they must be followed.

So send for my 200-point "Tests for Husbands and Wives," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Man Not Drunk, but Couldn't Explain to Police

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Juan Alicea tried to tell the cops they were all wrong when they arrested him on a drunk charge.

But Alicea, a Puerto Rican who speaks very little English, couldn't get the point across. Finally an interpreter was called to the city jail.

Only then was Alicea able to expalin he was not drunk but had been slugged on the head by a robber who stole $50 from him, took his car and dumped him on a street where officers found him.

He was a free man today.

Hold Preliminary Talks of Economic Conference

BUENOS AIRES (INS) — A preliminary session of the Inter-American Economic Conference was held in Buenos Aires yesterday, but business sessions will not begin until next week.

A poll of delegates indicated that the three-week conference is unlikely to produce immediate positive results, but may pave the way to some regional understandings at an early date.

Chinese Blast U.S.

HONG KONG (INS) — Chinese Communist vice president Chu Teh was quoted by Peiping radio as saying the United States had violated the Korean armistice by sending new weapons to South Korea.

The United States recently announced its decision to send new weapons instead of old because of Communist violations of the agreement.

On December 27, 1776, George Washington was made dictator of the United States — the only one we have ever had.

JAMES E. GOTTSCHALK

Airman 2.C. James E. Gottschalk, 20, of 5959 Cooley Lake Rd. died Wednesday morning in Pontiac General Hospital of injuries received in an automobile accident near Orchard Lake several days ago.

He attended Pontiac Public Schools and was a member of St. Michael's Church.

Surviving besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gottschalk are three sisters and two brothers, Delores Ann, Barbara, Jacqueline, William and Thomas, all at home.

The Rosary will be recited at 8:30 tonight in the Brace-Smith Funeral Home. Service will be at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Michael's Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

MRS. ARTHUR W. HEWITT

Mrs. Arthur W. (Hazel G. Carr) Hewitt, 60, of 200 Sanderson St., died suddenly Wednesday morning at her home.

She was a member of the Church of the Good Samaritan.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Henry F. and James L. Carr, both of Pontiac, and a sister.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Pursley Funeral Home with the Rev. Carroll Ware of Garden City officiating. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

MRS. ROLLIE A. HILL

Mrs. Rollie A. (Mary Olmstead) Hill, 50, a former teacher at McCarroll and Wisner Schools, died yesterday in Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit. She was ill three weeks.

A resident of Pontiac most of her life, she moved to Detroit about eight years ago. At the time of her death she had been teaching English at Redford High School.

Surviving besides her husband and son, Edward T. of Detroit are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Olmstead of Pontiac; and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Ruff and Mrs. Waldo Ashley, both of Pontiac.

Service will be at 1 p.m. Monday from the Van Valkenburg Funeral Home, 22250 Grand River Rd., Redford. Burial will follow in Pine Lake Cemetery. The family home is at 16512 Braile St., Detroit.

GEORGE G. SORLES

George G. Sorles, 43, of Seattle, Wash., a former city resident, died yesterday in a train accident in Washington.

A native of Pontiac, he is survived by his father, William B. Sorles of Pontiac; several brothers and sisters, Mrs. Edna Blade, Charles and Nathan Sorles, all of Pontiac; Mrs. Violet Portello of Burdett, N. Y.; William and Roy Sorles, both of Clarkston.

Mr. Sorles' body will be brought to Pontiac for service and burial.

MATT R. WHEATLEY

Service for Matt R. Wheatley, 53, of 86 S. Roselawn Dr. will be at 11 a.m. Saturday from the Columbia Avenue Baptist Church with the Rev. Marion Sherrill of the South Lyon Baptist Church officiating.

His body will be at the residence until Saturday morning when it will be taken to the church. Burial will be in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery. Arrangements are by the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home.

RICHARD F. BLISS

LAPEER—Richard F. Bliss, 49, of 348 Turrill Ave., died unexpectedly at his home Thursday evening while watching television. The body is at the Baird Funeral Home here, as the family awaits word from a son in the armed forces in Germany.

An employe of Pontiac Motor Division, Pontiac, for the past 22 years, Mr. Bliss is survived by his wife Gladys; three sons, Leland of Lapeer, PFC. Douglas Bliss in Germany and PFC. Albert Bliss at Camp Milwaukee, Wisc.; one daughter Annette at home; his mother, Mrs. John Johnson of Lapeer and two brothers, Arthur of Lapeer and Kenneth of Clio.

Auto Pioneer H. J. Hayes Dies

Built 1st All-Metal Car; Also Believed Starter of Fender Incorporation

NEW YORK (AP)— H. Jay Hayes, 88, builder of the first all-metal automobile body, died Wednesday night at his home in Forest Hills, Queens. He was 88.

He borrowed the first storage battery built by Willard Co. to power his automobile, which he built in 1898. After Hayes moved his car by ship from Cleveland to Detroit, Henry Ford recharged the battery.

★ ★ ★

Like Ford, Hayes was in the bicycle business before he became interested in "horseless carriages." He worked for the Clipper Bicycle Co. of Grand Rapids, Mich., after leaving his father's lumber business.

Hayes defended his car against theories that metal would rust and dent and that wood should be used. He demonstrated the worth of the stovepipe sheet iron he had used by taking his car to a Chicago automobile fair where he showed its resistance to burning gasoline.

Hayes also pioneered in construction of automobile fenders, cutting the patterns on newspapers. His fenders are believed to have been the first incorporated into automobile design.

★ ★ ★

He was born in Muir, Mich., and attended Michigan State College, now a university. In 1918 he became president of the Hayes-Ionia Co., Ionia, Mich., and three years of Elizabeth, N. J., both body-later headed the Hayes-Hunt Co. making concerns for major auto companies.

He helped organize the Eastman Automobile Co. in Cleveland Ohio, and became manager in 1896.

His daughter, Miss Esther Frayne Hayes, an author, intends to complete the autobiography he had been writing in recent years. Also surviving is his widow, the former Miss Florence Frayne.

Confidential's Libel Defense

Movie Stars to Be Called

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The defense expects to start tossing its promised shock-filled grenades today in the libel trial of Confidential and Whisper magazines.

Defense Attorney Arthur J. Crowley says he is going to bring movie stars into court to testify whether stories about them in the magazines are true.

★ ★ ★

The magazines and their alleged Hollywood agents, Fred and Marjorie Meade, are being tried on charges of conspiracy to commit libel and publish lewd and obscene matter.

The defense has scattered 117 subpoenas among Hollywood celebrities and is trying to slip 40 more into the hands of unwilling stars.

★ ★ ★

Crowley was left in a position to summon the celebrities when Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker yesterday declined to rule on the admissibility of their testimony until they take the stand. Judge Walker also refused to dismiss criminal libel charges against the Meades and their Hollywood Research, Inc.

Crowley said he would call eyewitnesses to prove the truth of a Confidential story which alleged that actress Maureen O'Hara and an unidentified "Latin boy friend" made love in the rear row of a Hollywood theater.

★ ★ ★

As for Miss O'Hara herself, Crowley said: "Let the prosecution call her — we'll cross-examine."

Private detective Fred Otash, who has been serving subpoenas on prospective witnesses for Crowley, said he hadn't been able to find the red-haired actress.

"I think they've got her hiding out somewhere," he said.

Dep. Dist. Atty. William L. Fitzi said that wasn't the reason Miss O'Hara hadn't been served.

★ ★ ★

"I hope they get her and put her on the stand," he said. "But they haven't got the courage to put that woman on the stand. They'd be bound by her answers."

Teamsters Hit by Meany Again

AFL-CIO Boss Says Union Has Not Cleared Its Dirty Linen

CHICAGO (AP)—The president of the AFL-CIO yesterday said the Teamsters Union has failed to polish its tarnished record, but cautioned against any restrictive labor legislation that might result from Senate rackets investigations.

In the closing session of the four-day AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting, President George Meany told newsmen he doesn't think the Teamsters' linen is any cleaner now than it has been.

Meany was critical of proposals for restrictive labor legislation in the wake of the Senate Rackets Committee hearings.

"I feel a great many of the things that have come before the committee are covered by laws now on the books," he said.

★ ★ ★

If laws against thievery had been enforced, he said, "a lot of these men wouldn't be on the witness stand, but in the jailhouse."

The Teamsters' executive board is expected to meet Aug. 26 to consider possible action on AFL-CIO charges of corrupt influences against the union.

New York Republican Suggested

U. S. Pushing to Get American Elected Head of World Atomic Energy Agency

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS)—The United States is mapping a vigorous campaign for the election of an American to the top post of the fledgling but prospectively powerful International Atomic Energy Agency.

Authoritative diplomatic sources told International News Service the U.S. has "suggested" Republican Congressman Sterling Cole of New York as the "type of man" who should be director general of the atoms-for-peace agency.

Cole, former chairman and still a member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, has taken a deep interest in nuclear matters during a large part of his 12 terms in the House.

An attorney and college trustee, he also possesses the administrative qualifications to parallel technical abilities deemed mutually necessary in the man named as IAEA director general.

The U.S. has never been able to place an American in any top policy-making U.N. organ because of Soviet opposition, and these jobs inevitably have gone to Scandinavian or Asian "compromise" candidates.

WELL QUALIFIED

However, the U.S. was described as "determined to keep pitching" for the ranking atom agency post and Cole was named as "an obviously well qualified man" for the job—if he agrees to accept it.

Although the Congressman's acquiescence would not make his election a foregone conclusion, Iron Curtain diplomats intimated that this time an American would not be blackballed by the Kremlin.

They said that if the director-generalship went to the U.S., highly-placed posts in the agency's technical and personnel departments would go to Russian nationals.

The agency, which holds its first general conference in Vienna beginning Oct. 1, already has elected a board of governors which includes Russia and the U.S. as well as 11 other powers.

The conference will elect ten additional nations to the board and inaugurate a nuclear program first envisaged by President Eisenhower on Dec. 8, 1953, as civilization's effort to utilize "the miraculous inventiveness of man" for peace instead of war.

SIZE AND SCOPE

Details on the size and scope of the agency's proposed work during its inaugural year will be revealed Sunday night by a preparatory commission which has held months of secret meetings at headquarters.

With the annual general conference and the 23-nation board of governors to hold the reins as joint directing bodies of the agency, the U.S. hopes Russia will avoid throwing obstacles in the path of Cole or another American to the director-generalship.

Guarded optimism to this effect is bolstered by the fact that virtually all decisions of the preparatory commission have been taken unanimously in spite of the political upheaval of the Middle East and Hungary crises.

U. S. government circles feel that Eisenhower's initiative in originating the atoms-for-peace idea and launching the agency's program with an outright gift of 5,000 kilos (about 11,000 pounds) of precious uranium-235 should be recognized by the election of an American as first director general.

No One Killed on School Buses

But 229 Injuries a Jump of Seven Per Cent Over Last Year

EAST LANSING (AP) — Not a single person was killed in an accident involving a school bus in Michigan during the past year, state police reported in the annual summary.

There were 229 injuries, however, an increase of seven over the previous year.

School bus accidents and accidents associated with school busses increased 34 for a total of 457. Accidents in which school busses were directly involved gained 14 for a total of 248.

Most of the accidents were attributed to failure to observe traffic laws or recognized safe practices, police said.

Of the 257 violations reported in the accidents, 88 were charged to school bus drivers and 169 to drivers of other vehicles.

Police said 60 per cent of the school bus accidents occurred on county roads and 40 per cent on state trunklines.

January, February and March had the highest accident rates and the most dangerous hours were from 8 to 9 a.m. and from 4 to 5 p.m.

While Mrs. Louie Fourie and her children stood on chairs, on a farm near Rosendal, South Africa, one son brought a shotgun and killed a ringhals (snake) in the breakfast room.

Junior Editors Quiz on COINS

QUESTION: When were coins invented?

ANSWER: Imagine lugging a load of wheat down to a store to "buy" a toy. Or carrying a bag of salt to a theater to "pay" for a ticket. Well, that's exactly what people did centuries ago when they wanted to get something they needed. The custom of barter, or "swapping," was about the only way of exchanging goods.

Then about 700 B. C., as near as can be determined, the Greeks hit on the idea of lightening their load by making the first known coins. They were pieces of gold or silver, roughly stamped with pictures of rulers, war heroes or great battles.

Paper money did not appear until about 1400 A. D. in China.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Start a coin collection. You can buy an inexpensive set of old United States and foreign coins as a starter. Or you can start just by saving pennies and getting all the different dates you can.

(A $10 award goes to Ricky Smith of Oakland, Calif., for this question. Send yours to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this paper. Tomorrow: Why do people speak different languages?)

State Police Guard Negro's New Home

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A dozen state police, ordered out by Gov. George M. Leader, are guarding the home of the first Negro to move into this planned city of 60,000 today.

Leader detailed the police here after Bucks County Sheriff C. Leroy Murray telegraphed the governor for help. Murray said the citizens of Levittown were out of control.

★ ★ ★

Mobs ranging up to 500 have been assembling for the past three nights in front of the home owned by William Myers Jr. Five were arrested Tuesday night after stones broke two picture windows.

★ ★ ★

Last night, despite the presence of the state police, some stones were thrown by a crowd of several hundred, and a picket line was formed. The marchers stamped their feet and clapped their hands. No damage nor any arrests were reported.

Myers, his wife Daisy and three children are in York, Pa., visiting his family but he said last night he expected to return here shortly.

Baby Scalded to Death

DETROIT (AP) — A 13-month-old boy was fatally scalded in a bathtub Thursday while his mother tried to find the child outside the house. Mrs. Verlie Walker of suburban Inkster told police she was calling her son James outside when she heard screams inside the house. He was dead on arrival at a hospital.

River Yields Body

AMHERSTBURG, Ont. (AP) — The body of Roger Henry Christansen, 50, of Marinette, Wis., was taken from the Lower Detroit River Thursday. The Coast Guard said he is believed to have fallen recently from a passing ore boat.

Bob Considine Says:

Morros Blames Dad for Spying on Reds

NEW YORK (INS)—Boris Morros, whose life as a counter-espionage agent pales anything ever produced in Hollywood, looked back over his perilous decade of spying on Russian spies and said, "It's all my father's fault."

The 62-year-old movie man who worked for the FBI during an especially virulent Soviet assault on U. S. secrets, had to possess nerves of steel to play his role. The great strength is evident today, with his war won.

★ ★ ★

But the mere mention of his father can break that reserve. He is inordinately fond and proud of 98-year-old Michael Morros.

"He claims to be only 96," Morros told us with a twinkle. "He's 98. Don't let him fool you. He was the only one in the family or among my friends who knew what I was doing all those years.

"When my mother died in Russia in 1941, after a long illness, I went to the Soviet union's consular people on the coast and began the long and tedious process of getting an exit permit for my father to join me in this country.

KILLED 2 BROTHERS

"As the months went on, they killed two of my brothers, Izaak and Alexander. They killed them because they had the courage to be openly anti-Communist. And then they had the gall to ask me if I would work for them, as a sort of exchange for the release of my father."

We were at luncheon as he told the story. Morros picked up his knife and punched it into the tablecloth. "The gall of them!" he repeated. "Well, I made up my mind then and there that I would do what I could to kill them, too."

And thus a man who had made a comfortable niche for himself in the world of Hollywood and of music entered upon a life where one false move would have meant his death—and a terrible one it would have been if (as almost happened in the end) he was apprehended in Russia or a satellite.

His first act, as he has since related, was to contact the FBI. He could tell nobody else, except the man he knew would protect it with his own life.

"I told my father a bit, not all, but enough," he recalled. "He listened me out and then said simply, 'God bless you.'"

Morros stirred his coffee. "My father is a great man," he said softly. "A great man."

Mumps Cases Head City Disease List

Mumps continued for the fourth week to lead the list of city and county communicable diseases reported last week by Dr. John D. Monroe, director of public health.

Pontiac reported 16 cases, twice as many as the rest of the county during the same week.

Other communicable diseases reported to the county and city health departments last week included:

Asiatic Flu Strikes Sixth Fleet Sailors

MADRID (INS) — The U. S. embassy reports that "several hundred" sailors in the Sixth Fleet have been stricken with Asiatic flu.

An informed source said the number of cases in the fleet is decreasing and that the spread of the ailment has been controlled.

A fleet amphibious operation at Almeria, scheduled for Aug. 20, was canceled because of the flu outbreak.

Feared Atomic War

BLACKPOOL, Eng. (INS) — A letter produced at a Blackpool inquest into the suicide of a couple who also gassed their three children gave the reason as the parents' fear of an atomic war.

To Decide on Recall

The State Supreme Court has been asked to decide whether petitions seeking a recall election against five councilmen in suburban Berkley contain enough signatures.

Attorneys for the recall committee appealed Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty's ruling that the petitions signed by 3,000 residents were insufficient to call the election.

Question Effect of Person's Diet on Heart Disease

NEW YORK (AP)—The Nutrition Committee of the American Heart Assn. has challenged the assumption that too much fat in the diet is a major factor in heart attacks.

The five-man committee reported yesterday that hardening of the arteries—forerunner of heart disease and strokes—could result not only primarily from diet but from heredity, blood pressure and body chemistry.

★ ★ ★

Said the committee report, in part: "People want to know whether they are eating themselves into premature heart disease. They are entitled to an unprejudiced answer.

★ ★ ★

". . . There is not enough evidence available to permit a rigid stand on what the relationship is between nutrition, particularly the fat content of the diet, and arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) and coronary heart disease.

"We are certain of one thing: the evidence now in existence justifies the most thorough investigation."

Detroit Boy, 15, Shot at Burglary Scene

ROYAL OAK—James Edwards, 15, of 277 E. Euclid, Detroit, was shot in the right leg by Patrolman Robert Hawkins of Royal Oak Township early today, as he fled from a store he and a companion allegedly had entered.

★ ★ ★

His condition at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital is reported as temporarily serious. His companion, Richard Denney, 15, of Royal Oak, when challenged by Hawkins, surrendered and was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Capitol Hill Secretaries Plot Trips

May Out - Junket Their Employers This Year

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — It's beginning to look as if congressional secretaries and Capitol Hill staff members will be out-junketing their globe - trotting bosses this year.

★ ★ ★

Keeping their fingers crossed that their bosses will be closing up shop by then, members of the Senate Staff Club are making tentative arrangements for a Sept. 11 sailing on the Queen Elizabeth for an extensive holiday in Europe.

ELABORATE PLANS

Before heading home on the Queen Mary in October, the group hopes to have audiences with Pope Pius XII and the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg and probably a tete-a-tete with Princess Grace and her husband, Prince Rainier, in Moncao.

★ ★ ★

They also expect to visit London, Paris, Rome and Brussels, go boating on the Rhine, tour the Black Forest, poke through museums, cathedrals and laze a bit on the Riviera.

About 60 will join up for the fun, at a cost of $950 each.

★ ★ ★

The Congressional Secretaries Club, old hands at traveling with a trip abroad a year, also has announced its 1957 European Tour.

Nearly 100 have shown interest in the project which gets under way when they board the SS United States, Oct. 8.

★ ★ ★

It will be a six-week tour of England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France, which they will get at an "all-expense bargain rate of $890."

MOST EXPENSES

The price includes the steamship fare, all normal expenses in Europe such as transportation, double room accommodations in first-class hotels, all meals except dinners in London and Paris, sightseeing, tips and the services of a professional escort.

★ ★ ★

The secretaries are not worried about those dinners in London and Paris. As on former trips, they know many parties and special events not included in the formal itinerary are being planned.

On one such trip they were wined and dined by a member of Parliament at London's swank Carlton Hotel and at American Embassy parties in other capitals.

★ ★ ★

The club, which boasts more than 1,200 members, 80 per cent of them women, is made up of administrative assistants, secretaries and clerks to senators and congressmen and committees of Congress.

It's a nice job, but it has its drawbacks. "We would like to get some legislation from Congress in the way of security," one member told me.

Husbands were invited to the fish fry held by the Waterford gardeners Wednesday. Oliver Avery of Lotus drive, Mrs. E. J. Lally Jr. of Andersonville road and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Nicholie of Westlawn avenue (left to right) were photographed before the dinner was served.

Follow Heart, Not 'Their' Advice

By ANNE HEYWOOD

One of the biggest mistakes we can make is to listen to what "they" say, instead of listening to our own hearts.

★ ★ ★

Experts are helpful if we take their advice as a supplement to our own best thinking. But if we blindly do what the expert says, going against the grain of our own good sense, we'll get in trouble.

CHANGE MINDS

Among other things, the experts change their minds every few years. Then where are we if we've followed them?

★ ★ ★

Some years back, for example, all the experts in education were stressing specialized training. It was an era of specialists, they told us, so don't waste time on Latin and the cultural subjects—get into the engineering or home economic field.

If you want to be a success, put all your time into the technical training for your field.

As a result, we did get a lot of specialists.

★ ★ ★

But then a funny thing happened.

ZOOMING TO TOP

The people who had refused to be narrowed down, the engineers who had first taken some liberal arts courses, the business majors who had studied medieval history, all began zooming to the top—ahead of the narrow specialist!

★ ★ ★

In short, the people who had listened to their own hearts and studied what they wanted to, turned out to be more successful than the ones who had listened to what the experts were saying.

Today, the experts have changed their minds in view of these findings. Business executives are being given courses in liberal arts which are paid for by the companies.

★ ★ ★

And now the National Secretaries Association is sponsoring a liberal arts institute for secretaries at Gull Lake, Mich., in September. Top jobs of the type their members hold down require an old-fashioned liberal education as well as the business skills.

GO RIGHT AHEAD

Next time you feel strongly that a certain course of action is right for you, go ahead and do it, even if "they" say it is all wrong.

The chances are they'll be saying something different 10 years hence. Meantime, you can develop yourself along your own lines and hit the jackpot!

★ ★ ★

If, on the other hand, you've listened to "them" for so long that you don't honestly know what you are interested in, if you have ignored your own inner instinct so long that it has trouble getting through to you, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you my pamphlet, "Pointers to Your Basic Interests."

Mrs. Delbert Dexter Jr. entertained eight members of the Jolly Ten Club Wednesday evening in her Eason road, Watkins Lake home. Mrs. Delbert Dexter was a guest.

Don't Refer to Girls as Teenagers

Today's Young Set Shows Independent Mode of Living

By DOROTHY ROE

If you want to be friends with a high school girl, don't call her a teenager. And don't give her clothes with a teen label.

Today's young ladies between the ages of 13 and 17 refuse to be identified with the teen tag, connect it with all the furore over juvenile delinquency and consider themselves grown-ups. This probably is the only age at which girls want to be older.

★ ★ ★

They go shopping for their own clothes, and often earn the necessary money by baby-sitting. Most girls of this age bracket shop in groups, obeying the herd instinct, trying on countless dresses before selecting one.

And almost any girl over 12 and under 20 would rather be caught dead than go shopping with her mother.

These not-quite-adults have definite ideas on fashion. They love Shetland sweaters. Bermuda shorts, Ivy League sheaths worn without girdles, full skirted dance dresses with multiple petticoats—and black in almost anything, from lingerie to sweaters.

FALL OUTLOOK

This fall the girls will go back to high school in middies and pleated skirts, in slim tweed skirts and sweaters, in dark-toned Bermuda shorts, sweaters and boys' shirts and knee-high socks to match the sweaters.

They like velvety black corduroy date dresses, blazers and shorts, also favor a bright royal blue, loden green and red for variety's sake.

Short kilt skirts, "skorts" (combination of brief skirt and shorts) and even box-pleated culottes will be popular for sports wear.

★ ★ ★

The girls also like the Chanel look in loose, unfitted cardigan jackets worn with straight or pleated skirts. They adore bulky knit sweaters in black, dark brown or white.

They're the next generation of American women, impatient to grow up, but probably better equipped for adult life than were their mothers. They know where they're going and they're in a hurry to get there.

No Wonder Girl Resists Chores!

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Our 12-year-old Norma's Saturday morning chore is collecting soiled linen for the laundry.

She performs it slowly and reluctantly.

Often we come on her sprawled on a stripped bed with a comic, soiled sheets and pillow slips heaped beside her.

With exasperation, we say, "All worn out, are you? How would you like to be me? I'm so tired I could hardly crawl upstairs—and I've still got vacuuming to do and lunch to get before I can sit down. But someday, Miss Worn Out, you'll have to take responsibility!"

Will Norma take it someday?

I can't imagine why she'd want to. Nor will you if you'll listen again to what we've told her. We've told her that grownup responsibility is crushing burden. We've told her we find our adult work as a homemaker intolerably unrewarding.

★ ★ ★

How, with this revelation of our resentment of responsibility, can we expect Norma to want any? How can we expect her to want to be anything but a perpetual baby whom other people serve?

The answer to the problem of a chore-resisting child is our acceptance of part of his chore.

Right beside our comic-reading daughter we demonstrate our acceptance of responsibility. Without any criticism for her at all, we gather up the soiled linen next to her saying, "I'll put these in the hamper for you while you strip the other beds."

Today we hear a great deal of talk about making children "responsible."

We forget that the root meaning of the word is "response." A child's sense of responsibility is his "response" to our attitude toward work.

★ ★ ★

For some curious reason, parents often feel a deep resistance to the idea of helping children with chores. Their training has somehow left them with the impression that such help is indulgent and weak-minded.

In this begrudgement of cooperation with Norma, we have the cause of her bad "response" to cooperation with us. To understand this is to be freed into action on these frustrating occasions.

Stepmother Not Invited to Wedding

Believes Husband Should Not Attend Without Her

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have been a reader of your column for a long time and find it most helpful and interesting. Now I have a problem of my own with which I need help.

"My husband's daughter is to be married soon. She lives with her mother but has visited us often and has always seemed fond of me. This morning the invitation to her wedding arrived but was addressed to my husband alone.

"I think it would be very belittling to me for him to go alone and feel that since I was not invited, he should not go either. What is your opinion?"

Answer: As the father of the bride, it would in no way be belittling to you if he merely went to the church with his daughter and gave her away and then left immediately after the ceremony. He should not go to the reception without you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is necessary to invite the husbands and wives of the married wedding attendants to the rehearsal dinner?"

Answer: Yes, if you have room for them. You should also invite the fiance or fiancee of any attendant who is engaged.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Should people take seriously the remark, 'Stop in any time, we'd love to see you?' My husband thinks it is a perfectly good invitation and that we should take them up on it.

"I disagree and think that if people really wanted us, they would be a little more definite in their invitation and that this 'come in any time' invitation is just a lot of talk. Will you please answer this in your column?"

Answer: I agree with your husband in thinking most of the people who say it mean it and that you would be right in taking them up on it.

Spicy Batter Can Be Cake or Cookies

Mrs. Van Buren's Eggless Recipe Is Quick and Easy

By JANET ODELL

You want to bake a cake, but there isn't an egg in the house. You can have a good spicy cake or cookie squares, if you use Mrs. Clifton Van Buren's recipe. She says it's popular with her large family.

Mrs. Van Buren is active in 4-H Club work. She enjoys both sewing and gardening also.

EGGLESS CAKE

By Mrs. Clifton Van Buren

2 cups brown sugar
2 cups water
2 cups raisins
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup margarine

Boil together five minutes. Cool then add 1 teaspoon soda, dissolved in ¼ cup water.

Sift 4 cups of flour with 2 teaspoons baking powder. Add to first mixture. Bake in greased 9x13 cake pan or for cookies in a jelly roll pan. It takes an hour at 325 degrees for the cake or 30 minutes for the cookies in the shallow pan. Cut in squares for cookies when cool.

Nuts, chopped apple or crushed pineapple may be used in place of the raisins.

WSCS Meets to Plan Social Activities

Women's Society of World Service met at the home of Mrs. Cecil Leggett on Auburn Avenue to plan fall activities.

Mrs. P. J. Waldie had charge of the program, with Mrs. Lewis Ball, Mrs. Harry Britton, Mrs. Walter Frederiksen, Mrs. Grant Burlison, Mrs. Barbour Williams, and Mrs. Leggett participating. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Herbert Sipes and Mrs. Jack Wilmot, served refreshments at the Tuesday meeting.

The executive committee will meet Aug. 27th at the home of the president, and the September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Barbour Williams on Florence avenue.

Fashionettes Meet

Fashionette Club met at the Adah Shelly library. Mrs. John Neaves and Mrs. John Riechert took a trophy for losing the most weight. Mrs. Ronald Bohmier was welcomed as a member of the club at the Tuesday evening meeting.

Society Gathers

Fourteen members of Queen Esther Missionary Society of United Missionary Church met Tuesday evening at the Elizabeth Lake road home of Mrs. Charles Parks.

Bemberg dresses or crepe blouses are ironed more easily if starched lightly when laundered. The starch also gives them a newer appearance.

New Type Art Fun

Extra fun for young fingers is assured by a new kind of art medium. A powdered finger paint eliminates the mess of this favorite creative pasttime and provides the brilliant colors children love. Youngsters just sprinkle the powdered finger paint on a dampened paper and give their artistic impulses free sway right up to the elbows. Washes off easily, too, mothers will be glad to hear.

Even Though It Makes Hair Greasier

Brushing Helps Curb Oily Scalp

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. I don't see why I should brush my hair. It is VERY oily and brushing just makes it oilier."

A. It is true that brushing makes the hair oilier because it distributes the oil from the scalp over the hair. However, the important thing is to remedy the abnormal condition.

The reason your scalp is oily is because the little oil glands are too relaxed and pour out more oil than normal. The stimulation brushing provides is helpful in overcoming this condition. There also are splendid tonics for oily scalps on the market.

Q. "When a girl has dark brown hair and black lashes and brows, what color eyebrow pencil and mascara should she use?"

A. Always use a brown eyebrow pencil, in your case a dark brown. With lighter hair one would use a lighter brown. Even when hair and brows and lashes are very dark you will achieve a more natural effect with a brown pencil than a black one. Use black mascara.

Q. "I have a teenage son who has never had mumps. My neighbors say that it is necessary for him to have mumps. Please explain in your column why they say this is necessary."

A. When an individual has mumps a secondary involvement may cause sterility. However, this is not usual. I suppose your friends have this in mind and feel that mumps might be more severe in later years. However, many people never have mumps.

The only concern should be to see that your son follows his doctor's orders if and when he does catch this disease.

Q. "Lately my hair is very oily and looks dull and lifeless. I also have a few scabs on my scalp. My skin is rather oily, too, yet I have a few dry spots on my forehead and eyebrows. Sometimes scales appear here. What can I do about such a condition?"

A. It sounds as though you have a skin disease. Your forehead and brows are probably the result of the scalp condition. I suggest that you see your family physician and if he thinks it necessary he will refer you to a skin specialist.

★ ★ ★

Q. "I am a young teenager. Please tell me how to act around boys. Lots of us would like to know."

A. Just act natural. They are human beings. Treat them to the same friendliness and kindness and consideration you give your girl friends. Be yourself and do not be self-conscious.

Way to Solve Laundry Room Space Problem

In a multiple-purpose kitchen, the laundry area is frequently deficient in cabinet space for laundry aids, ironing board, etc. If there's absolutely no room for a much needed cabinet in your present arrangement, why not consider a vertical installation for your clothes dryer, to gain floor space for a floor-to-ceiling closet?

Many people prefer to have the dryer right on top of the washer anyway, as it saves a few steps. And in cases where there is a perfectly good washer but no room for a dryer, this arrangement is the solution.

However, if you're starting from scratch and have decided to have your laundry in a kitchen with limited space, the answer may be a duomatic that combines the washer and a gas clothes dryer and takes only 36 inches of space.

Papa's Vacation at Home Means No Rest for Mama

She Needs Holiday After He Returns to His Job Refreshed and Happy

Papa decided to take his vacation at home this year, which means that Mama isn't getting any vacation at all.

The housework doesn't just go on as usual. It's a little heavier with a man at home all day.

The cooking goes on just the same, but with one difference: Lunch isn't a snack but a real meal, with Papa home.

When Mama's friends telephone to ask if she can stop by for a cup of coffee or meet them downtown for lunch, Mama explains, "I wish I could—but Joe's home on vacation and I can't just go off and leave him."

Of course, if Papa gets a chance to play golf or go fishing, he takes off with a cheery goodby.

With Papa on vacation, there are innumerable jobs started—but few finished. And it is amazing how much of waiting on him it takes to keep a husband at the simplest kind of do-it-yourself job.

★ ★ ★

It's also amazing how upset Papa can get over finding that Junior has misplaced the hammer or used the boards meant for cupboards to build a tree house.

NOT CAREFREE

Life at home with Papa on vacation isn't quite the carefree, happy time it is supposed to be—not from Mama's point of view.

★ ★ ★

Just a little matter like keeping the neighborhood children from racing through the house or yelling in the yard while Papa gets an afternoon nap is quite a chore.

After two weeks at home Papa may possibly go back to his job refreshed—but Mama's had it.

And "it" decidedly does not refer to a vacation. After Papa's vacation at home, Mama really needs one.

Cut Cheese Waste

Get the good from every piece of cheese you eat. Waste none. Cut off only as much as you need each time; then store the rest tightly wrapped. Cheese may mold without spoiling; if it does, just cut off the mold and use the rest.

Apology Not Needed

If you have to make a talk or even just say a few words, don't begin by saying what a poor speaker you are, or how frightened you are to be standing up before so many people. Just forget yourself and start to talk.

In planning a new kitchen, save yourself some steps. Fronts of equipment placed on opposite walls should not be much more than five feet apart.

Smuggled Expose Draws Ire

Tito Blasts U. S. Meddling

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Official Yugoslav anger — which means the wrath of President Marshal Tito—has erupted in the wake of publication in the United States of Milovan Djilas' book, "The New Class."

Charges of interference in Yugoslav domestic affairs again are made against "certain circles in the West" and the publicity given the book is represented as a calculated campaign against international coexistence and cooperation.

Borba, the Red mouthpiece in Yugoslavia, refers to the imprisoned Djilas' work as "an anti-Communist pamphlet," and an example of "Goebbelsian" propaganda.

Djilas himself is presented as "demoralized" and "half mad," yet Borba conveniently ignores the actual contents of the book.

Djilas is a former Yugoslav vice president, and once close revolutionary friend of Josip Broz, who is now Marshal Tito.

HELD PRISONER

Now he is Tito's prisoner in a Yugoslav jail, imprisoned for "hostile activity" after he gave interviews and wrote articles in which he rejected the Communist world which he helped create in 20 years of dangerous, hard work.

Tito today can luxuriate in the silk shirts, which he liked even in the wartime days when he convinced Western leaders that his guerrillas were firmer allies than the partisans under Draja Mihailovic.

Djilas has nothing. In three years he has lost everything he won by a lifetime struggle as a revolutionary, except the freedom to think and to put "original ideas" into a manuscript that was smuggled out of Yugoslavia. But even in the war days Djilas chose an old cap and corduroy coat in contrast to the silk-shirted Tito.

Djilas still prefers to say that Tito is "a great revolutionary" but a man "without original ideas." But his attack on the Communist system is blistering, and assumes more significance at a time when Soviet Party boss Nikita Khrushchev is maneuvering for better relations with Tito and has axed some Kremlin opponents of Tito.

POINTS FALACY

"Beginning with the premise that they alone know the laws which govern society," says Djilas, "Communists arrive at the oversimplified and unscientific conclusion that this alleged knowledge gives them the power and the exclusive right to change society and to control its activities. This is the major error of their system."

★ ★ ★

In what is an explanation of Khrushchev's own power struggles in the Kremlin and the sporadic upheavals in all Red-ruled lands, Djilas says:

"Communists know that they are in conflict with all other classes and ideologies, and behave accordingly. They are fighting against not only actual but also potential opposition . . . the Communist regime in the U.S.S.R. is still remote from the independent administration of justice after 40 years of tenure."

Rep. Van Peursen Home From Hospital

ANN ARBOR (AP) — State Rep. George M. Van Peursem, speaker of the House, left University Hospital yesterday after a throat operation.

Dr. James H. Maxwell said a benign growth was removed Wednesday from the Zeeland Republican's throat. He said the operation was a success.

Van Peursem will recuperate at home for about a month, Maxwell said.

Down a Legal Drag Strip

Some Goodies, Pots and the Beast Roars

By SYLVIA de STEIGER

"Let's go and buy some goodies and twin pots to choose off, batch out, prune, and be the top eliminator at the strip. Then we won't get in trouble with any badge bandits or be called a squirrel because when we operate the beast, we are doing it legally."

These statements, in drag racing jargon, contain some of the major ideals and purposes of any member of a drag racing organization.

IN OTHER WORDS,

Putting them into the layman's language, this person was saying: "Let's go and buy some hot rod accessories and dual carburetors to challenge somebody to drag, take off from a dead stop, beat another car, and be the best car of the meet at the strip. Then we won't get in trouble with any police or be called dangerous, careless driver when we operate the exceptionally fast car because we'll be doing it legally."

Last night 83 county residents, from 14 to 30 years old, gathered at the Oakland County Jail for a second meeting to organize, with ultimate hopes of building a local drag strip.

The meetings were planned, held and directed through the cooperation of the sheriff's department and the Pontiac Police. The group is named the Oakland County Timing Strip Assn. It has elected officers and intends to meet bi-monthly.

★ ★ ★

When many adults hear the phrase "drag racing" or even "drag strip" they immediately think of rough and hoodlum-type teens racing a car motor next to them while waiting for a traffic light to turn green. When the signal changes, this speed-crazed driver zooms full speed ahead in low gear as fast and as long as possible . . . until the next light or the roar of a patrol car siren halts him.

ADULTS, TOO

This interpretation is a fallacy. True, some teens — as well as adults—do participate in this noisy, dangerous and reckless activity but this so-called drag racing is definitely illegal.

It's not an ideal or activity of the fellow who expressed his thoughts in the extreme hot rodders language above.

Drag racing is legal when it is conducted at the proper site and under capable supervision. The local group is one of more than 15,000 in the United States. Their dream, a legal drag strip, will be one of more than 130 located throughout 40 states if it comes true.

★ ★ ★

We know what illegal drag racing is. Also, it is against the law to set up a temporary strip on a public highway.

WHAT'S LEGAL?

What then is a legal drag race? Where are they conducted? Who usually sponsors them? And, we mustn't forget the question of the dollar sign . . . who usually comes through with the green stuff?

The automotive sport of organized drag racing can be an exciting and colorful outdoor recreation for teens and grown-ups alike.

If conducted properly, it can also be a productive safety campaign. To be effective, it must be endorsed by local law enforcers.

ACCELERATION TEST

The race is an acceleration contest. Participants compete within the limits of a one-quarter mile straightaway strip. The entire strip is one-half mile long and approximately 60 feet wide. A timed electronic eye or rubber hose is located at the one quarter mile point.

An average race takes 10 seconds. The object of the sport is to time cars individually from a standing start to the one quarter mile point.

Later, cars are paired off according to classes into tournament style two-car elimination matches. The second quarter mile is used to have sufficient space to apply brakes and stop safely.

★ ★ ★

The drag strip provides a place for enthusiastic and mechanically-minded persons to test their skills, challenge their ability and fulfill their natural love or desire for speed and excitement instead of creating public safety hazards by doing the same on streets and highways.

STOCK CARS USED

To insure wide interest, more than 20 class divisions are provided in drag strip racing although the National Hot Rod Association reports 80 per cent of drag race participants drive stock production models.

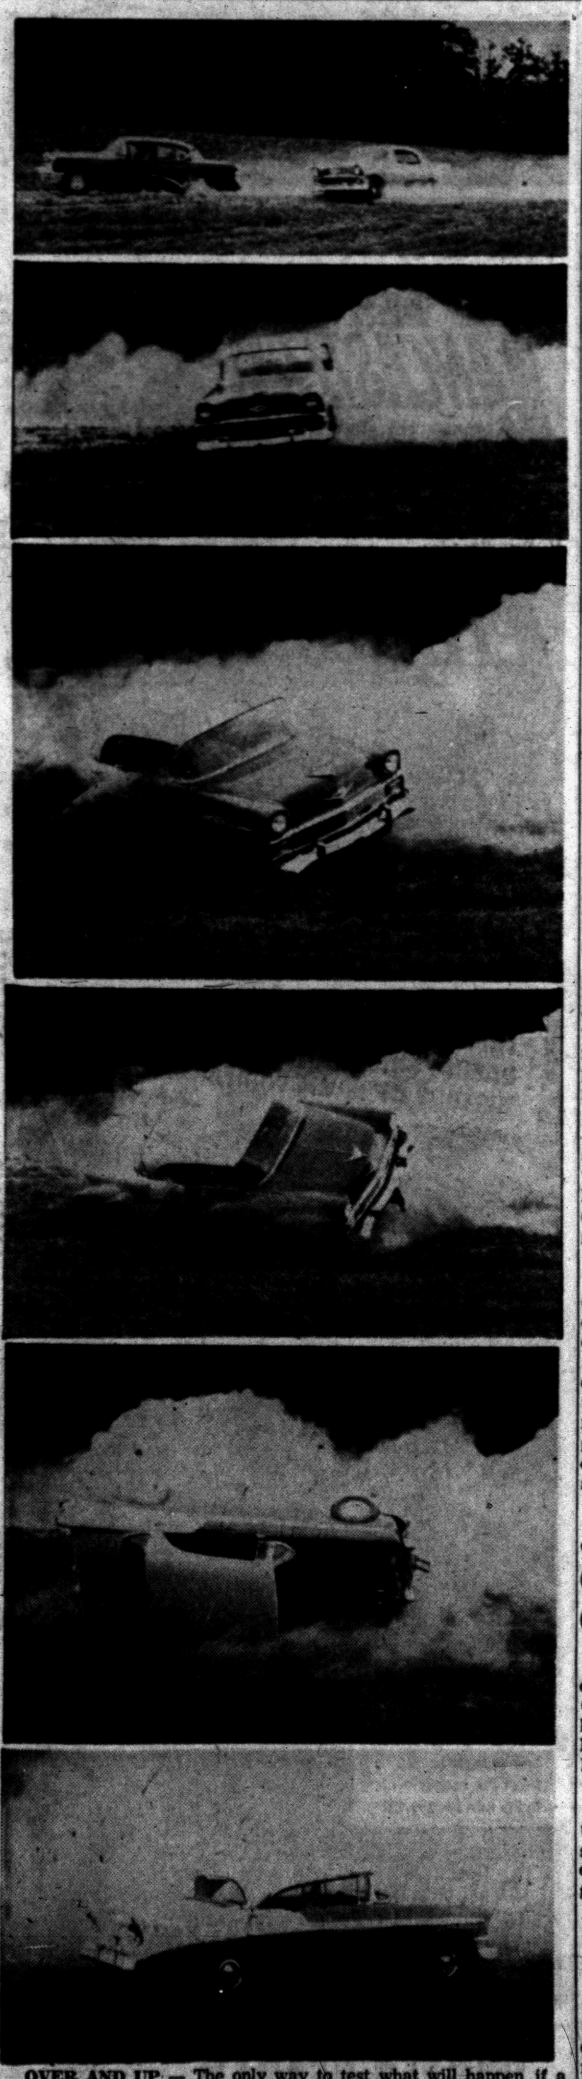

★ ★ ★

The ideal economical site of the strip is an abandoned airport runway or one which is seldom used. Paved strips built specifically for dragging have increased with the growth of respect for the sport.

★ ★ ★

They are usually sponsored by car clubs, timing associations or co-sponsored with local service clubs.

Making money is not the purpose of holding drag races. Thus, once the strip is set up, through promotions and fund raising drives, gate receipts, small entry fees and concession stands at the strip usually maintain the average strip.

OVER AND UP — The only way to test what will happen if a car rolls over at high speed is to roll one over. So, technicians at the General Motors Proving Ground at Milford hooked this car, minus driver, behind another and towed it into the open. Some preset mechanisms took over and the car rolled over and up on its wheels, demonstrating the sturdiness of the car but not necessarily assuring that all cars will come back up on the wheels after a similar rolling journey.

Objects to Pop, Coffee in State Fair Dairy Barn

DETROIT (AP) — The State Fair Commission yesterday directed manager Donald L. Swanson to inquire into the possibilities of installing milk dispensing machines in the dairy cattle barn in time for the opening of the state fair Aug. 30.

The action was taken after Joe Kurka of Ovid, a dairy farmer, objected to a plan to have soft drink and coffee dispensing machines in the dairy barn.

"If anything is going to be sold there, it's milk," said Kurka, who is a member of the commission and in charge of the dairy barn.

The other commissioners agreed with him but approved soft drink and coffee dispensers in other fair buildings.

50 Young People, Counselors Plan Camping Trip

More than 50 young people and counselors from Christ Lutheran Church in Waterford Township have registered to attend the Pleasant Hill Lutheran Camp at Bass Lake.

★ ★ ★

The three weeks of camping activity which began August 4, is sponsored by the eastern and western Michigan Districts of the Augustana Lutheran Church.

During the past week, twenty boys from the congregation have been attending Boys Week, and Mrs. Jerry Mejeur is serving as camp nurse.

Pastor Arvid Anderson is the chairman of the Joint Camp committee which co - ordinates the camping program for the districts.

In the past five years, the camping program has grown from one week each summer, to three weeks and from one hundred campers and counselors to 425, Pastor Anderson said.

HOT SHOWER — Included in newest Army methods is this "hot" shower designed to wash decontamination from soldiers exposed to radioactivity in training, or warfare. Its most frequent use comes at guided missile sites, where men come in contact with liquid fuels for the missiles.

Michigan GOP Sets Fall Confab

All - Level Conference to Map Campaign Plans Leading to '58 Elections

LANSING (AP) — The Republican State Central Committee today announced plans for an all-level conference Sept. 7-8 at Mackinac Island to make plans for a year-long campaign leading to the 1958 elections.

More than 400 party members from every section of the state, ranging from precinct workers to elected officials, will attend the two-day session.

Meade Alcorn, Republican national chairman, will be the featured speaker in his first visit to Michigan since his election.

"This conference will bring together all elements of the party to build a concrete action program for 1958," said Lawrence B. Lindemer, state chairman.

"We intend to discuss thoroughly organization, financing and action to bring the Republican position on issues home to the people. Everyone attending will be asked to participate in the discussions, express his views and ask any questions.

Then we will develop an integrated program of action on all fronts and conduct a year-long campaign.

"The 1958 election will be a crucial one," Lindemer said, "and Michigan is a key state. The Mackinac Island conference, in effect, will be the kickoff of the campaign."

500-Lb. Cheese Is Big Problem

Officials of State Fair Foresee Tight Squeeze in Cheese vs. Door

Among the problems facing the State Fair officials is what shape the 500-pound cheese will be in when it arrives for the Dairy Products Exhibit at this year's fair, Aug. 30 to Sept. 8.

It isn't the age of the cheese but its diameter and thickness that's worrying Swanson because it has to get through the door in the 40 foot long special plate glass refrigerator in the Agriculture Building.

DOOR IS SMALLER

The door, it turns out, is smaller than State Fair officials estimatel when arrangements for the cheese were made with Prof. Donald L. Murrary, of Michigan State University's Dairy Department.

With Prof. Murray away somewhere on summer vacation all anyone seems to know for sure is that it will be an American cheddar and will weigh 500 pounds.

One cheese expert said that it wouldn't be as big as you'd think and General Manager Don Swanson relaxed until the expert guessed it would be about 48 inches in diameter and 40 inches thick.

TOO BIG

That would be from four to 12 inches too big no matter how it was rolled in.

Eldon McLachlan, State Fair director of agricultural exhibits, with tongue in cheek, offered his solution.

I've been figuring the number of slices in 500 pounds of chese, he said, and it works out that we could cut it up into about 8,000 cheese sandwiches if we had to."

Swanson, meantime, has issued an edict that no matter what, there won't be any 500 pounds of ripening cheese sitting outside the refrigerator during any hot and humid days of the Miehigan State Fair.

Flood Relief Plans Go On at Waterford

Plans to relieve flooding in Waterford Township's Whitfield Estates subdivision proceeded yesterday with the opening of storm sewer bids at the Oakland County Road Commission.

A low bid of $11,587 was submitted by a Southfield Township firm, Carlesimo and LaMarra Construction Corp. The only other bid submitted, by George Tripp Inc., 3260 Elizabeth Lake Rd., was for $11,973.

The work, including almost 200 feet of metal pipe and 580 feet of concrete sewer, is scheduled for completion this fall. The construction schedule is expected to be set Monday when action on the bids is taken.

The subdivision suffered extensive flood damage during rainstorms in July.

A RARE ONE — Mike Hagenian does a little touch up work on his "St. Louis Cardinal" airplane, a veteran of 27 years of flying, a rare bird indeed.

Ex-Waterford Man Risks Life Flying Ancient 'Cardinal' Plane

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Of Our Waterford Bureau

A former Waterford Township resident admits that he literally "takes his life in his own hands," every time he goes up in his antique plane.

Mike Hagenian, 28, owns a tiny St. Louis Cardinal plane that is 27 years old. It is hangared at the Pontiac City airport and officials there claim that it is probably the oldest aircraft in Michigan.

WEIGHS HALF TON

The red and yellow plane weighs a mere 1,000 pounds, and its capacity load-limit is 1,558 pounds. Mike has replaced the tail-skid with a small 4-inch wheel.

The craft is strictly for day-time flying, as there is no radio or other electrical equipment installed.

It has a single one-piece wing with a spread of 34 feet and the 90-horsepower motor can rev up to 65 miles per hour.

Hagenian is a bachelor, employed as co-pilot for the Burroughs Adding Machine company at Wayne Major airport. He lives at 79 Avalon Ave. in Highland Park.

★ ★ ★

When he was a young lad living near the Detroit City airport, Mike would wander over and admire the little Cardinal, parked back of all of the big planes in the hangar.

It was used only now and then by the flying school that owned it, and he vowed that someday he would own and fly the "baby" plane.

Long after he was out of high school, Mike's dreams finally came true and he purchased the plane for $200 in 1950.

Every spare minute for the next three and a half years went into work on the plane. The wings were rebuilt, gas lines replaced, new upholstery installed and the plane was repainted.

He purchased 70 yards of Irish linen, sewed it together and wrapped the material around each wing. The trailing edge was tacked down and doped.

Mike hand tied more than 500 knots in a rib-stitch, every three and a half inches, to keep the fabric from lifting off the wings in flight.

The wings were then wet-sponged for shrinkage and sanded down between each of the sixteen phases in the doping process.

"The only thing that could not be overhauled was the motor," Mike said. Vital engine parts are absolutely unobtainable, he added.

TIRES RARE

Other irreplaceable items are the small tires. These are the old clincher-rim type tires and carry about 15 pounds of air, "so they will last longer."

At a recent meeting of Dawn Patrolers, held in Bay City, some 400 planes flew in from everywhere and Mike won first prize for being the "youngest pilot with the oldest plane."

According to Mike, this rare plane takes five hours of hard ground work, for one hour of flying time. However, he is now getting ready for the International Antique Airplane show to be held September 14 and 15, in Iowa.

★ ★ ★

He's also getting set for the No. 1 question asked of him by hundreds of curious spectators—"Does it fly?"

Ups Ike Request for Flu Fund

Senate Bill Includes $800,000 to Battle Asiatic Disease Here

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appropriations committee has increased by $300,000 an Eisenhower administration request for funds to fight Asiatic flu.

The committee did this late yesterday in approving a $1,700,000,000 supplemental money bill. Most of the funds in the bill would go to pay for military construction in the United States and abroad.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower had asked for $500,000 to use against the Asiatic flu which government health officials have said may reach epidemic proportions in the United States this winter. The $800,000 after hearing Surgeon committee upped this figure to General Leroy E. Burney say under questioning he believed that amount was needed.

★ ★ ★

The overall total in the bill is about 200 million dollars greater than the $1,581,000,000 voted by the House. The Senate committee boosted House allotments for military construction projects. It also added funds for small business loans and several lesser items.

Investigating Break-In at Sporting Goods Store

The Oakland County Sheriff's Department is investigating a break-in at the Clay Sporting Goods Co., 2616 Dixie Highway, sometime Wednesday night.

Merchandise valued at $1,449.20 was stolen, according to reports. Included were 163 fishing reels, 370 rods and a window fan.

Port Huron Man Killed

PORT HURON (AP) — Julian Zajac, 49, of Port Huron, was killed Thursday night when the car he was riding in went out of control and hit a tree 10 miles west of Port Huron.

Promise Cooperation in Troop Withdrawal

TOKYO (AP)—The United States promised today to consult in advance and cooperate closely with Japan in the current withdrawal of American ground forces from this country.

★ ★ ★

That assurance was given at the first meeting of a top-level U.S.-Japan security committee created by President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi last June.

★ ★ ★

Kishi and Eisenhower established the committee partly to meet Japanese complaints that Japan had little voice in the disposition of U.S. troops here under the U.S.-Japan security agreement.

This Grandma Holds Own as Gravel Truck Driver

Driving a big double trailer-tractor truck for a construction company is all in a day's work for a youthful Waterford Township grandmother who has lived in the area all of her life.

Ever since the day her father put her behind the steering wheel of a farm truck 27 years ago, Mrs. Leland (Viola) Vandewater has been maneuvering heavy equipment all over the area.

OLDEST CHILD

The oldest of nine children, she was raised on a farm near Clarkston and learned the importance of hard work early in life. Today, at the age of 37, she is living with her husband at 6300 Andersonville Rd., and is considered one of the top truckers in the area.

Vi and her husband each own big 225-horsepower, G.M. trucks, costing some $22,000. When loaded with the gravel which they haul, the gross weight is 82,000 pounds.

Vi explained that as 'brokers', she and other truck owners are contracted by various companies. They work under special permits, are paid by the tonnage weight and the contracts run indefinitely.

There are 20 wheels rolling down the highway when Vi gets the cab in motion, and each tire holds ninety pounds of air.

BIG BANG

"When one of those tires blows out, you can hear the explosion four blocks away," Vi said. Even with a full load, however, there is no danger of swerving off the road because of the dual-wheel combinations, she added.

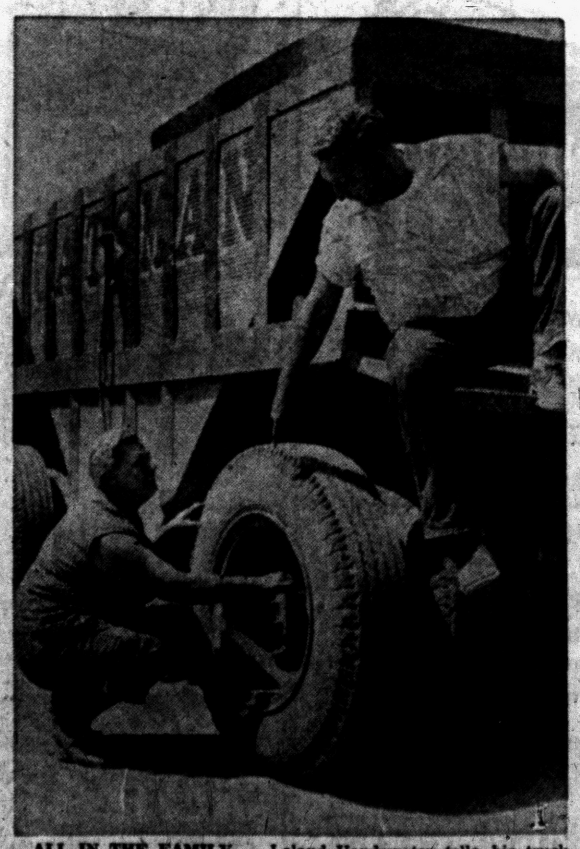

One of Vi's pet peeves is for a driver to swing out around her, get in front of the truck, then slow down—or turn a corner.

"If people only knew the danger of this procedure, they sure would think twice before pulling such a stunt," she said. "These loaded outfits do not stop on a dime."

Vi says she drives more than 50,000 miles a year. Her biggest record for one week was 38 loads when she was hauling gravel for construction of the new bridge at the Straits, two weeks ago.

★ ★ ★

After driving in the big tractor-cab, five feet off the ground all day, a regular car seems strange to Viola. "I can't seem to get used to automobiles," she said. "It feels like I'm just sliding along on the ground."

ALL IN THE FAMILY — Leland Vandewater tells his truck-driving wife, Vi, how to adjust some of the equipment on one of the big trucks that they both own and drive. Vi, a young grandmother, has never had an accident or ticket in all her years on the highways.

Asiatic Flu Infection Kills Six in Sydney

SYDNEY (AP)—The deaths of six Sydney youngsters have been attributed to a deadly infection which medical authorities say appears to accompany some cases of Asiatic flu.

Dr. H. G. Wallace, New South Wales director general of health, disclosed the six deaths had occurred in recent weeks and said other cases are suspected in Sydney and nearby towns.

★ ★ ★

Wallace said there was no positive confirmation that the infection — staphylococcal pneumonia — was linked directly with influenza, but he added that it was significant the infection occurred at the time of a flu epidemic.

The number of students enrolled for higher education in the United States has increased from 50,000 in 1870, to over three million in 1957.

Top New York Financiers Behind 'John Paul Jones'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Some of New York's top financiers are backing the spectacular Todd-A-O movie, "John Paul Jones," story of the life of the father of our Navy, with locations in Virginia, Italy and Spain.

Academy award-winner (for his writing on "Around the World in 80 Days") John Farrow has been chosen to write and direct. Samuel Bronston is the producer.

The top brass associated with this film includes Rear Admiral J. L. Pratt, chairman of the board, and Fleet Commander Chester W. Nimitz, five-star admiral is top consultant.

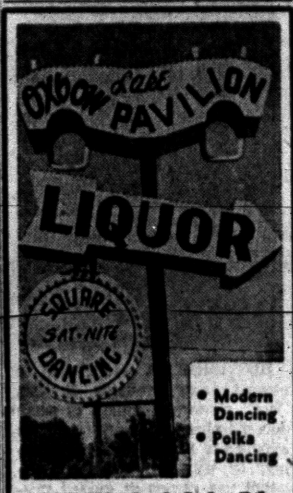

The "John Paul Jones" story, which has been off and on again for years with many stars interested in playing the heroic Jones is so recently reactivated that no star has yet been chosen.

When Johnny Meyer told me that his next picture is the story of the notorious gangster "Pretty Boy" Floyd, I asked him, why a gangster movie?

He said, "I won't glamorize Floyd, but gangster pictures are coming back, and I think they are good propaganda weapons against crime. In the 30's we had a lot of gangster films and not nearly the juvenile delinquency we have today. The kids were shown how miserable the Dillingers and Capones were for all their blood money."

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Natalie Wood's farewell luncheon in the Green Room at Warners was with Lance Reventlow. But Bob Wagner goes to New York when Natalie travels to Schroon Lake close by for "Marjorie Morningstar" locations.

Hollanders smoked 10 per cent more cigarettes in 1956 than 1955, The Hague reports.

Phony Tractor Buyer Cuts Deputy's Sleep

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Officers in this southern Idaho city got a tip from an observant resident who had seen a stranger in the Western Equipment Co. building late at night.

Bonneville County Deputy Sheriff Clifford Nielsen was off duty, but he roused himself and sped several blocks to the scene.

Nielsen discovered a cardboard cutout of a prospective tractor buyer standing where it could be noticed from the street.

Senate Debates AEC Bill Today

Includes Disputed Plan for Government-Built Power Reactors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today debates a 389-million-dollar Atomic Energy Commission authorization bill which includes a disputed program of government-built power reactors.

Democrats expressed confidence they can keep the power program in the bill, but Eisenhower administration forces were ready to try to knock it out.

★ ★ ★

The House already has rejected most of the power provisions, which are strongly opposed by AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss.

The biggest part of the bill would authorize AEC construction projects for both military and peaceful uses. There is no dispute over most of the items.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, told a reporter in advance of the debate "I believe we can keep the bill in good shape without crippling amendments."

Senators Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), Bricker (R-Ohio) and Knowland (R-Calif), all members of the committee, offered amendments to knock out the Democratic-sponsored provisions for 58 million dollars worth of experimental power reactors.

The bill also would direct the AEC to build reactors for five municipal power groups and rural cooperatives, then sell them steam at a price based on that from the use of conventional fuels. The House has rejected this.

Hickenlooper said in an interview the fight over these proposals was "a straight private vs. public power issue." He said the controversial provisions seek to put AEC "into a field it does not want to be in and in which it has no business."

Gardener Quiz

Q — Do roses require lots of water?

A — While roses do not like a soggy soil they require plenty of water at regular intervals. If the bed is properly drained, a generous weekly supply will improve both growth of foliage and quality of bloom.

The ability of a rose to manufacture food and deliver it to the plant depends to a great extent on the water supply. For this reason, watering must be deep and not just a wetting of the surface.

★ ★ ★

Q—When should strawflowers be cut?

A—Strawflowers intended for for winter decorations ought to be cut before the blossms are fully open. Dry them in the shade, hanging head downward in small, loose bunches.

Q—Can garbage be used with safety in garden and shrub soil?

A—Discarded matter from the kitchen and table will, if dug and mixed well with the soil, eventually make good plant food. Do not mix grease with it.

★ ★ ★

Q — Will flower seed, purchased this spring and not used, germinate next spring?

A—Yes, if they are stored over winter in glass jars in a dry place. Fresh seed usually germinates well for several years.

★ ★ ★

Q—Our Lima beans grew poorly this year, due, according to a neighbor, to the fact that the beans were planted with the eye down. Is this the cause of failure?

A—Lima beans need not be grown with the eye down. Experiments prove that there is small difference in results when planting in this way.

★ ★ ★

Q—For the last two years, I have had trouble with aphids and wilt spoiling my asters. What should I do to overcome this?

A—Aphids on plant tops may be killed by spraying with lindane or a nicotine sulfate and soap solution and on the roots by scraping away some soil around the plants and pouring in some of the same solution.

A handful of tobacco dust worked into the soil as the plants are set out will also help. Wilt is a seed-borne disease. Seed may be treated for wilt by soaking in a mercuric chloride solution (one tablet to one pint of water) for 30 minutes. New plants should be set up in a fresh location.

Study Location of New Trees

Have Experts There to Save You Money in Transplanting

Especially in suburban areas, large numbers of beautiful and valuable trees are killed each year because they are unskillfully moved from one location to another on home properties.

★ ★ ★

First, carefully study the location of any new tree on your property. If you plant it in the right place in the beginning, you probably don't want to move it later.

But in case where it is necessary to transplant a tree with a trunk diameter of two inches or more call in your local tree expert or arborist and discuss your problem with him.

Some species of trees are much more difficult to move than others. Thousands of lovely dogwoods, for example, are ruined each year by inexpert transplantings.

★ ★ ★

The arborist in moving shade or ornamental trees of any size usually first prunes the roots and he may prune small branches to balance the smaller root system.

He will dig a hole of sufficient size for the tree, remove the tree with a sufficient ball of earth around the roots, and then fertilize the soil properly.

He may, depending on the season, spray the foliage with a plastic spray to lessen transpiration, which keeps the foliage from drying out. He may wrap the trunk to prevent sun scald.

PATIO ESPALIER — The preparation of an espalier tree and cultivation of its fruit is rewarding to the home gardeners. Handsome effects can be achieved by training trees to grow in stylized paterns.

In the blooming season just ahead, gardeners will see the color and charm of three newest All-America Rose Selections, Fusilier, Gold Cup and White Knight in their own gardens for the first time.

Trees Near House Need Annual Care

Large trees close to houses need at least annual inspection to prevent the possibility of damage during storms with consequent danger to the home and its occupants.

★ ★ ★

Some trees have V-type crotches which are a source of weakness that will not usually show up except in a storm. Dead or dying branches should be removed. Plant diseases and insects should be warded off by a regular spraying program. One spraying annually may be sufficient to do the job though it is best to depend on the advice of your local arborist or tree expert.

Cut Straw Flowers Before Centers Open

For winter bouquets, straw flowers should be cut before the centers open, and be hung upsidee down in a cool, dark place to dry.

The foliage should be stripped off, and if it is desired, a fine stiff wire may be twined about each stem to make them easier to handle.

To grow large flowers, disbud, allowing only one bud to remain on each stem.

Storming the Country

Miniature roses are taking the country by storm; they are perfectly hard outside in this state and also make good house plants. A foot or less in height, they adapt themselves to the perennial garden, rockery or window box.

Strawberries Seen by Expert as 1 of Highest Yielding Crops

BY WAYNE B. SEIFERT
Ass't County Agricultural Agent

One of the finest of the home garden crops, and one of the highest yielding is strawberries. Often the question of fertilizers arise, and when it is best to apply.

High yields due to fertilizer are obtained when the soil fertility is high before planting. This effect develops because it stimulates good runner production and consequently a large number of bearing plants.

Fertilizing just before fruit development is not recommended. Often this early spring fertilization results in very large juicy fruit, which are extremely susceptible to this rot.

★ ★ ★

Strawberries normally set flower buds in late August for next years crop. A fertilizer application in July or early August greatly contributes to increased yields because of increased numbers of blossoms.

A recommended rate is ten pounds of 10-10-10 or 12-12-12 fertilizer over 1,000 sq. ft. of strawberry bed. For small areas, lawn spreaders should do a satisfactory job.

Often a particular row, or variety or patch is very unfruitful. There are several reasons for this;

(A) When rows are wide and very thick the plants rarely have fruit. Most of the fruit is borne along the edge. This is basically competition for light. The outside plants get sufficient light, water, and fertilizer and produce well.

One remedy is to have rather narrow rows. 15-20 inch rows are very satisfactory. And they are very easy to pick also. Thinning of the plants in wide rows is also effective, and should be done at this time.

Plants should be thinned so no more than two or three plants per square foot are present. When selecting plants, the larger the plant, the more it will produce next year. Any plants which are not well rooted by now will not fruit next year.

PLANTINGS MADE TOO LATE

(B) When new plantings are made in late May and June, the new runner plants don't get established before July 15. Plants not rooted in by July 15 produce very poorly. For this reason, very early plantings are desirable, with the use of starter fertilizers such as "Take-Hold" and "Rapid-Gro" to get early prolific runnering.

(C) Late spring frosts often cut yields, sometimes to the point of complete loss. Plantings at the bottoms of hills and slopes and on low ground often are lost due to freezing out. The vines aren't injured, but the blossoms are killed. When blossoms show a black center, those have been killed by frost.

★ ★ ★

This is a good practice because of disease and weed control. It is done right after harvest time and can be done to a heighth of three inches. Do not do it now because we are near bud setting season.

★ ★ ★

Lots of people suspect these tiny pests of attacking their garden and ornamental plants. And in many cases their suspicion is correct. Several species of this sucking spider are found, but the symptoms are much the same.

On evergreens they attack the needles, causing them to become silvery gray. Severe needle drop usually is the end result. On shrubs the between-vein areas become silver speckled. Usually the lower leaves show the symptoms first.

How can I identify the problem? Usually the infested areas have a dusty or slightly webby appearance. Many tiny dark specks are seen among the webbing and on underside of the leaves.

★ ★ ★

Where suspicious specimens occur, severely shake a twig over a sheet of white paper or cloth. If several of these dark specks appear on the paper and start moving around, you are looking at the adult mites. A strong magnifying glass will show up these pests on the leaves.

Control? Careful spraying with Malathion, Aramite, or Kelthane will destroy the infestation. Three applications at weekly intervals. The plants should be thoroughly soaked each time.

PROCLAIMS PATRIOTISM — Richard Rudolf, 60, a native of Italy, puts the finishing touch on a hedge clipping job that proclaims his patriotism for his adopted land. The block letters, cut into the hedge at his home in Pennsylvania, spell out "God Bless America." The retired railroader also has hedge designs of garden furniture in his yard. He said he learned the art in Italy as a boy.

Many Gardeners Become Hobbyists in Other Fields

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y. —One of the fascinating aspects of gardening — or of any hobby faithfully pursued — is that it leads one into collateral hobbies or interests.

Any number of gardeners have become camera bugs after they started snapping pictures of their own blooms and mass plantings.

A New England man, who started by specializing in growing iris, today is an antiques dealer specializing in pressed glass.

Somewhere along the line he started collecting antiques decorated with fleurs de lys, a design based on the iris and used on an enormous range of articles, from corner cupboards to toothpick holders.

★ ★ ★

He learned, in the course of collecting, a lot about antiques and eventually went into the business.

★ ★ ★

Gardening leads one into studying garden lore, garden history, botany and even — if one is interested in plant names and classifications — into Latin and Greek.

There's really no telling where you'll wind up once your fancy has been caught by the pleasures of making a garden. You might even turn out to be a flower show judge, certainly the elite of the gardening world.

This being the season when many gardening groups hold local flower shows, it might be well to point out that judges — no matter what you may privately think — are not allowed much latitude for personal preference or whim in awarding blue, red and white ribbons.

★ ★ ★

Most judging is conducted on a point basis. By this scale, the perfect bloom or plant would roll up 100 points. The American Rose Society, for example, has approved the following judging scale for cut roses:

Color	20 points
Stem	20 points
Form	15 points
Size	15 points
Substance	15 points

Other flower societies have also set up their judging guides for, among others, carnations, peonies, iris, chrysanthemums, gladiolus, dahlias, delphinium.

However, judging, whether in a law court or a community flower show, is a touchy business.

★ ★ ★

Most handbooks for local flower shows suggest — nay, insist — that judges be brought in from the outside to eliminate any possibility of favoritism.

But whether you win a blue ribbon or not, local flower shows can be fun for competitors as well as for those of us who just come in to look around.

Valuable Trees May Be Saved

Follow a Set Plan to Check Damages on Property

A few minutes of your time periodically, may save valuable trees on your property from damage by insects or diseses.

Follow these observations:

Is the trunk healthy? With no ugly scars? Are there fungus growths near the base of the tree?

Are the branches straight, and unbroken? Are some branches growing in such a way that they interfere with others and should be removed?

★ ★ ★

Is the foliage off color in any way? Is it yellow when if should be green? Is some of the foliage withered or dead?

And finally, pluck a few leaves and examine them. Yellowness between the veins or dying tips of leaves may indicate deficiency of plant food.

Holes in the leaves indicate insect damage. Some leaves may be eaten to such an extent that some of them look like a web of leaf veins instead of a solid leaf, showing that the tree needs spraying.

Periodical inspection of trees will prevent future damage. Either examine your trees yourself or have a local tree expert do it for you at least twice each year.

Many trees require a dormant spray and later one or more foliage sprayings each season. Do not neglect your evergreen trees.

Browning new growth on pine trees, for example, may be due to an insect which is difficult to detect.

★ ★ ★

Most evergreen tree insects are more or less difficult to see. These trees should be examined closely either by you or your tree service, and should be regularly sprayed as needed from top to bottom to insure their health.

Successful spraying requires identification of the insect or disease and the right spray to control it.

Explodes Firecracker After 50-Year Wait

GOODRICH (m — A firecracker 85-year-old Steve Hagel was saving for almost 50 years was set off recently when the 24-year bank holiday ended in Goodrich. The community of 500 people hasn't had a bank of its own since state banks were closed in February, 1933.

The firecracker Hagel set off was one he had left in a dresser drawer in 1908. He found it years later and promised himself not to fire it until a bank was opened again in the town.

Pruning Methods Change for Cone-Bearing Trees

Coniferous evergreen trees cannot be pruned and shaped with the same methods used for deciduous trees.

The reason for this is that coniferous or cone-bearing trees grow outward and upward only at the terminals of the branches.

It the terminal growth is pruned off completely conifers will not sprout out again lower down on the branch as will most other types of trees.

To keep coniferous trees shapely and beautiful, make them grow more densely, the secret is to shear off about one-half of the new terminal growth.

New terminal growth can be distinguished by its light green color. By doing this the distance between the new branches will be reduced by half, making the whole trees more compact and preventing and ragged look that fast growing coniferous trees may otherwise achieve.

★ ★ ★

The home owner eaily can shear small coniferous trees himself, but as they grow large a tree expert or arborist will need to do the job. Since he will have the equipment for it.

However, many large, neglected coniferous evergreens can be made more shapely and denser by such treatment.

Coniferous evergreens should be examined annually during spring growth for evidence of disease or insects. Most of these can easily be controlled with a single or at the most two sprayings.

★ ★ ★

Fertilization is usually needed as it is for other trees, as well as a good soaking with water whenever natural rainfall is insufficient.

★ ★ ★

Some evergreens such as hemlocks will not come back at all once they have encountered severe dryness. The only answer is to keep them from drying out by a weekly soaking of the soil about the roots in dry weather.

See Girdling Roots as Weakness Cause

Sometimes trees have girdling roots which are a big source of weakness in a storm and these are a principal cause of the whole tree toppling over during a heavy wind. Here inspection by a good local arborist is the answer, since girdling roots can be eliminated and the tree strengthened materially so it will withstand heavy winds.

NOCTURNAL AWAKENING — Night blooming Moonflowers open under the camera's eye. It took just 40 minutes for the fragrant-shaped flowers to spread their faces to the evening sky. At top, the flowers are seen closed as they are during the day. In center, they are partially open and a bee has flow into the one at right. Below, fully opened, the blossoms await the morning, when they'll fold up again. The Moonflower is a nocturnal variety of morning glory. United Press Photo

World's Goods Are Stockpiled in Panama Zone

COLON, Panama — Centuries ago the Spanish conquistadors stockpiled in Panama the gold, silver, and other treasures they found in the New World while they waited for ships to take the riches to Europe.

Now Panama is again becoming a world storehouse, but this time the flow of goods is reversed.

Millions of dollars' worth of goods from Europe and other parts of the world are piling up in huge warehouses established in the Colon Free Zone by the government of Panama.

Goods sent to the zone can be held and processed without payment of tax or duty until they reach their final destination. When an order is received from a Latin-American customer it is usually shipped by plane. Some 160 firms from 20 countries are using the warehouses.

Most of us spend one-third of our lives in bed and asleep.

Polio Victims Search for List

Foundation's Search Will Aid Rehabilitation Planning

County residents who have ever been polio victims are being sought to participate in a national survey to discover current rehabilitation needs of the disease victims.

The county-wide survey will be conducted by the Oakland County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the Rev. G. Burton Hodgson, chapter chairman, announced.

It is a portion of the project of the National Foundation to compile a roster of polio cases of all ages and degrees of disability, regardless of date of onset.

The local canvass is to be completed by September 1. Each patient will be asked if he is employed or attends school, if he can climb stairs and dress himself, and if he receives regular treatments or uses a respiratory aid.

Modern medicine has made impressive strides in developing new rehabilitation techniques in recent years," Hodgson said.

He claimed there were thousands of polio-handicapped in the United States who haven't had the opportunity of medical evaluation to determine if they could benefit from the new techniques.

The survey seeks to find everyone who has had polio, whether paralytic or non-paralytic, and find out their special problems in hopes of helping them to regain useful lives.

All polio victims, whether disabled or not, are requested to send their names and addresses directly to Rosalind Wildgen, executive secretary of the Oakland County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 75 W. Huron St., Pontiac.

Author of War Novel to Play Part in Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Author Erich Maria Remarque will play one of the key roles in the movie version of his own novel about World War II.

★ ★ ★

Remarue, who wrote the movie classic of World War I, "All Quiet on the Western Front," is making final revisions on his newest screenplay, "There's a Time to Love." Edward Muhl, in charge of production, says he persuaded the author to play the role of a kindly German professor who helps John Gavin and Lisa Pulver hide from the dreaded SS troops.

Remarque will leave in a few days for West Germany, where the shooting of the picture will take place.

Price-Fixing Under Probe

Charges U.S. With Laxity in Handling Salk Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House subcommittee said that the government acted without proper regard for economy, efficiency or the possibility of illegal price fixing in its handling of the 50-million-dollar Salk vaccine program.

The Government Operations subcommittee said it found evidence of a possible price-fixing conspiracy in the sale of polio vaccine, and also of possible price fixing on other drugs and hospital supplies sold to the government.

★ ★ ★

The Justice Department already has started a grand jury investigation into whether there has been a price-fixing conspiracy in sales of the vaccine. Six manufacturers produce the Salk product under government license.

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee headed by Rep. Fountain (D-NC) issued a report on its inquiry into the two-year-old program of federal help to states in making available anti-polio vaccinations. The report was approved by the full committee.

In general, the subcommittee decried what it called unimaginative and less-than-effective leadership by the Public Health Service in the nationwide polio program.

The report said the service and the Health, Education and Welfare Department "did not exercise a proper regard for economy and efficiency" in handling the vaccine.

In this connection the subcommitte said: 1. The service paid about twice as much for the vaccine as did the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis; and 2. The service got no quantity discount for buying its millions of dollars worth of vaccine, made no genuine attempt to secure competition before the subcommittee started investigating, and did not try to find out the vaccine's production cost.

The subcommittee said a possible price-fixing conspiracy was indicated by what it said were literally hundreds of identical bids received by state and federal agencies when they sought to buy the vaccine. "Polio vaccine prices exhibited an unusual resistance to the law of supply and demand," it added.

★ ★ ★

The report said the Welfare Department and its subagency, the Public Health Service, were lax in not guarding against possible antitrust law violations, and that the Justice Department did not take effective action against a possible price conspiracy until after subcommittee hearings last October.

★ ★ ★

The congressmen said the question of prices on other drugs and hospital supplies arises because, they said, bids for federal purchases of these products have often been identical to within a fraction of a cent.

They recommended that the Justice Department expand its present inquiry into Salk vaccine sales to include these other medical items.

Yugoslav to Visit China

Lonely U.S. Platypus Will Receive New Mate

SYDNEY (AP)—An Australian zoo official said today Cecil, the lonely platypus in the Bronx Zoo in New York, can have a new mate from Down Under.

Cecil's former mate, Penelope, has disappeared.

Sir Edward Hallstrom, chairman of Sydney's Taronga Park Zoo, said: "When we receive a formal request we will set about getting a female.

Ohioans Seek Babe Ruth Title

Polio-Crippled Skipper Guides Team to Finals

CINCINNATI (AP)—A modest 28-year-old baseball coach will take a rags-to-riches team to Ann Arbor, Mich., next week for the national finals of the Babe Ruth League tournament.

He's a polio victim who has to walk on crutches.

Don Hasselbusch, who was stricken with polio when he was 14 years old, is no bench-sitting team director either.

He coaches his Mt. Healthy All-Stars from third base, pitches batting practice while sitting flat on the mound and locking his crutches under his arm, does the hitting for fielding practice.

Funds to finance the team's tournament trips have been a bit on the short side. They use borrowed equipment and scarred old practice baseballs. They barely made it to the state tournament because of lack of funds.

They won that and then didn't have the $1,000 it would take to send them to the regional tournament at Portage, Wis. Radio broadcasts and newspapers stories attracted attention to the plight of the team and organizations and individuals made up the necessary money.

Hasselbusch gave his shy grin, however, as he said, "the kids will enjoy themselves next week.

"The sponsor foots the bill, we'll go by train, stay in a University of Michigan dormitory and there will be new uniforms waiting for them."

Hasselbusch, who works as a payroll clerk in a valve company plant here, played knothole baseball from the time he was nine years old until he was stricken with polio.

His father, Charles Hasselbusch, who used to coach teams here, related that en route back from Warm Springs, Ga., he told his son he never could play again but suggested he start helping other kids by coaching.

Don said that in his coaching, "naturally, I have to have help . . ."

"I tell the other persons how I want it done and they show the kids," he said.

Tigers Home After 7-2 Loss to A's

Hoeft to Pitch in First Game Against Chisox

Bunning Suffers Fifth Loss at Kansas City Yesterday

DETROIT (AP)—Billy Hoeft, who has lost two games to Chicago in a disappointing 4-7 season, will be after his first victory over the White Sox this season when the Detroit Tigers open a four-game series tonight at Briggs Stadium.

The 25-year-old southpaw lasted less than an inning against Chicago last week and had trouble getting the ball over the plate.

Jim Wilson, who handed him an 11-2 defeat in that disastrous showing, will start for the Pale Hose.

Hoeft was 3-3 against the White Sox last year.

The series against Chicago opens an extended home stay for the Tigers who were jolted 7-2 by the Kansas City Athletics yesterday.

Tiger ace hurler Jim Bunning went down to his fifth defeat against 14 victories with a four-run Kansas City onslaught in the first inning setting the pace.

Only the performance of Johnny Groth, back with Detroit after a waiver deal with the A's three weeks ago, kept the Tigers from being swamped by Kansas City.

Groth, called in at centerfield to replace Bill Tuttle who was benched Wednesday night by a pulled leg muscle, doubled and came home on a pair of ground outs in the first inning and drove in pinch hitter Dave Philley with another double in the seventh.

Woody Held, Billy Martin and Hec Lopez blasted Detroit pitching with home runs in the 11-hit attack.

Held's 14th homer in the first inning sealed Bunning's defeat before Martin blasted a solo shot off reliefer Lou Sleater in the seventh and Lopez followed suit in the eighth.

Billy Hunter, who had three hits in his first three times at bat, tripled home Vic Power who had walked in the first inning and the A's were off and running. With two out Martin singled and rode home on Held's 400-foot blast over the centerfield fence.

A pair of doubles by Hunter and Power got a fourth inning run off Bunning who gave way to a pinch hitter in the fifth. Rookie Bob Shaw who came in in the fifth shut out the A's for two innings.

Oldtimers Play Sunday

The Pontiac Oldtimers will play the Detroit club Sunday afternoon at Jaycee Park's No. 1 diamond in an International Oldtimers League baseball game. Starting time is 2 p.m.

Have Little to Fear

Braves Sitting Pretty in NL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With 41 games to go and an 8½-game lead, Milwaukee's Braves have nothing to fear but fear itself.

And maybe, the Chicago Cubs.

All the Braves have to worry about, now that they've won 10 in a row after last night's 8-1 victory at Cincinnati, is the haunting 1956 season, when they won 11 straight, had a 5½-game edge — and then blew it in the last week as Brooklyn won the pennant by one game.

And they also must be remembering the 1951 season when even Brooklyn's old pros couldn't hold a 13½-game August lead and were beaten in a pennant playoff by the New York Giants.

The Braves are back home tonight for the first of a four-game series with St. Louis Cardinals, whose slump is every bit as surprising and sudden as Milwaukee's surge. The Redbirds lost their ninth in a row—their longest skid since 1947—with a 4-1 setback at Chicago. The seventh-place Cubs are now 9-7 over the Cards—and have beaten the Braves in seven of 13.

★ ★ ★

Brooklyn stayed in third place, also 8½ back and within one percentage point of St. Louis, as the Dodgers twice blew leads and lost to the Giants 9-4 in the only other NL game scheduled.

Hank Aaron, the NL's bat leader but with a poor .273 average during the first nine games of Milwaukee's streak, hammered across five runs with a pair of homers, pushing his major league lead to 34, as the Braves swung for 12 hits. Eddie Mathews and ex-Redleg Bob Hazle, an outfield replacement who has hit .586 with 10 RBIs in the streak, also homered for Milwaukee.

Warren Spahn, who with Bob Buhl has won three in the Braves' streak, won his 13th with an eight-hitter, losing a shutout on an unearned run in the second. That gave the Milwaukee staff a 2.40 earned run average for the 10 games with seven complete games.

★ ★ ★

Spahn, given a four-run cushion in the first that chased Hal Jeffcoat, now has won six in a row from the Redlegs since last September 5 and is 44-14 against them in his 13-year career. That's a whopping .759 percentage, his best against any one club.

Sarazen at Top of Senior Open

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Gene Sarazen, 55 years old but feeling great in the 85-degree heat, took a single stroke lead in the first annual Senior Open Golf Tournament yesterday with a 5-under-par 65.

The veteran pro from Germantown, N.Y., had rounds of 33 and 32 as he swept around the par 35-35 Esmeralda municipal course here. He was never over par on the 6,077-yard layout and collected five birdies.

One stroke back in a three-way tie for second at 66 were Jim Barfield of Grand Rapids, Mich., Willie Goggin of Englewood, N.J., and Fred Wood of Vancouver, B.C.

The sponsoring Athletic Round Table has put up $12,500 for the 72-hole medal tourney for golfers 50 years old and up. The winning pro will take $10,000 and the runner-up $1,400. Play will continue through Sunday.

Kinder Paces Navy Tourney

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The All-Navy Golf Tournament goes into the final round today with Jim Kinder of Ocean Beach, Calif., holding a two-stroke lead.

Kinder, stationed at Pensacola, Fla., was in 10th place after the first round Tuesday, but added two sub par rounds of 71 and 68 to replace the early leaders. Par is 72. His score: 75-71-68—214.

John Kalinka of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., second round leader, and Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore., were tied for second place, both with 216s. Kalinka is stationed at Seattle and Cudd at Clarksville, Tenn.

Best Race in American League Is Batting Fight

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

The best race in the American League isn't the pennant, but fight for the batting title between Mickey Mantle and Ted Williams.

New York won its game from Boston, 6 to 3, but Williams won the latest round of his batting fight with Mantle.

The Yanks increased their league lead to 5½ games as Cleveland edged the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 4, behind Chico Homers by Woody Held, Billy ..Homers by Woody Held, Billy Martin and Hector Lopez sparked Kansas City to a 7-to-2 victory over Detroit and Jim Bunning, Washington and Baltimore had the day off.

Williams singled and doubled in three official at-bats to lift his average to .393 while Mantle struck out twice and was walked three times to fall to .380.

★ ★ ★

But Elston Howard and Gil McDougald picked up the hitting slack for Mantle with homers that gave Bob Turley the win over Willard Nixon. Frank Malzone hit a two-run Boston homer.

Carrasquel's bases-loaded smash erased an early Chicago lead and tagged Jack Harshman with his seventh loss against a like number of victories. Don Mossi went all the way for Cleveland to make his record 9-and-7.

The three K. C. homers helped Jack Urban to his second triumph although he needed help in the ninth from Tom Morgan, Bunning, who has won 14, was charged with his fifth defeat.

★ ★ ★

The victory for Cleveland ended a six game losing streak. Chicago had a 3-0 lead when Carrasquel rapped his grand-slammer.

'No Deal,' Says Bell on Trade

CLEVELAND (AP)—Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League has decided the Detroit Lions don't have to send halfback Lew Carpenter to the Cleveland Browns for line backer Roger Zatkoff.

Bell said yesterday he was making the ruling "in the best interest of football."

Title Round Aug. 23 for Women Golfers

Women's golf championship round has been set for next Friday, Aug. 23, for Orchard Lake CC. Matches are progressing on a flight basis, with last year's champion Mrs. R. E. Leahy and runnerup Mrs. W. L. Mosher still very much in the running again.

★ ★ ★

Plans are also under way for the club's annual "Stag Day." A golf tourney, other entertainment and a dinner are being arranged for the Tuesday, Aug. 20 affair.

Bass on a Flyrod

One of the big thrills for anglers who use light tackle is taking a big, fighting black bass, like the one Frank Green, 61 Church St., Clarkston, landed Wednesday. Green took his four-pound, 19½-inch long fish from Little Walters Lake on M59. His lure was a small "popper" on a light line and a 4-ounce flyrod. The fish put up a good fight.

Rare Double-Double Credited to Carina

PLYMOUTH, England (AP) — Carina, a 53-foot yawl owned and skippered by Richard S. Nye of Greenwich, Conn., has chalked up a rare double-double in deep water yacht racing competition.

★ ★ ★

The sleek craft last month won the 3,000-mile transatlantic race from Newport, R. I., to Santander, Spain. Yesterday she was proclaimed the winner of the gruelling 605-mile Cowes-Fastnet Rock-Plymouth race after a stormy passage that forced two-thirds of the 40 starting yachts to quit.

★ ★ ★

The sturdy Carina thus duplicated her feat of two years ago when she won the 3,450-mile Newport, R. I. to Sweden transatlantic race and also the Fastnet Rock classic.

Stadium Only Casualty

3 Pontiac Area Teams Win

Four Pontiac area softball teams opened their bids for district crowns last night and three of them won 1st round games. Stadium Inn was the only casualty in the double elimination tournaments.

Louie's Tavern and Emmanuel Baptist conquered their opening foes in the Class B district at Mt. Clemens while Lakeland Pharmacy was a convincing winner in the "C" tourney at Drayton Plains. Stadium was victimized by Mt. Clemens in Class A at Beaudette Park.

Over at Mt. Clemens, Emmanuel went 11 innings before downing Berkley, 3-1. Glenn (Wimpy) Johnson hurled the distance, allowing four hits while fanning 18, and Ken Orr's two-run double in the top of the 11th decided the argument.

Mike Hanes pitched a two-hit shutout as Louie's defeated Royal Oak, 5-0. Louie's iced the verdict early with four runs in the 1st inning.

Bill Troyer blasted a three-run homer plus two singles and Don Herr hurled a four-hitter to pace Lakeland's 12-2 rout of Royal Oak. Stadium was the victim of a four-hit whitewashing by Gave in bowing to Mt. Clemens, 3-0.

★ ★ ★

Thomas blanked Roseville on one hit as Southfield took a 5-0 decision in the other "A" game at Beaudette. Roseville drubbed Highland Park, 13-1, and Southfield tripped Mt. Clemes, 3-1, in other Class B games. Dominic Citrone spun on a one-hit shutout and fanned 12 as Roseville dumped Southfield, 8-0, at Drayton.

★ ★ ★

Stadium Inn meets Roseville tonight at 8:30 on the Beaudette diamond. Louie's plays Southfield at 9 o'clock and Baptist faces Roseville at 7:30 in the "B" event. At Drayton, Lakeland battles Madison at 8:30 and the Pontiac Police opens against Howell in the 7 o'clock attraction.

Hartack, Cuban Each Win Five

The Associated Press

Willie Hartack, well on his way to an unprecedented third straight riding championship after chalking up 14 winners in three successive days, found himself sharing the spotlight for the day with a little known Cuban jockey.

★ ★ ★

While the Johnstown, Pa., rider was scoring with five of his mounts for the second consecutive day yesterday at Washington Park to run his total victories for the year to 245, 28-year-old Francisco Saumell also put together a string of five at Wheeling Downs.

★ ★ ★

The five winners gave Hartack a lead of 34 over Willie Shoemaker his nearest rival, as he pulled away from the field in a bid to be the first jockey in American turf history to capture the title three consecutive years.

Los Mayos in Twin Bill

Los Mayos is scheduled to play a Latin-American League doubleheader Sunday afternoon at Columbia-Joslyn's north diamond. Los Mayos will meet the Imlay City Tigers in the opening game at 1 o'clock, then take on Mt. Clemens at 3:30.

Eight Teams Left in Amateur Field

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Eight teams—half the original field of 16 — moved into fourth round games today of the 13th annual All-American Amateur Assn. baseball tournament here.

★ ★ ★

Of the eight survivors only four are unbeaten. They are Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Milford, Mass., and Baltimore.

★ ★ ★

Johnstown, New York City, Holyoke, Mass., Schenectady, N.Y., Maryland State, Allentown, Pa., Bessemer, Ala., and Pittsburgh suffered second defeats yesterday and were eliminated from the tourney for boys 19-years-old and under.

From The PRESS BOX

Chuck Spieser's five year contract with his manager Hec Knowles expires tonight at midnight and he said he would not renew it. "Why give away one-third of what you make to a guy who doesn't do anything for it," he said.

Ashley Had Colorful Past

Remember the Sports Stars of Yore?

(This is the 20th of a series of articles about former outstanding athletes from Pontiac and Oakland County and what they are doing today. We feature today Waldo Ashley former Oxford High star athlete now athletic director of Waterford schools).

"I have no regrets about having followed an athletic career. It was a lot of fun and a great experience." Those were the words of former Oxford High sensation Waldo Ashley today as he looked back on a career that started in the early 1920s and is still going.

Now athletic director and driver training instructor at Waterford Township High School, Ashley still is a sports fan and has two sons who may follow in his footsteps. The oldest, Martin, 17, was a member of the Waterford football and hoop teams last season. "I don't force sports on them. It is up to them if they want to play or not." he commented.

Success and the name Waldo Ashley have certainly been synonomous over the past 35 years. He started out by winning 13 letters in four sports at little Oxford and went on to win six more at Michigan Normal now known at Eastern Michigan College. Several years of semi-pro ball in Detroit and local leagues followed.

★ ★ ★

Waldo's coaching days started at Roosevelt High in Keego Harbor right after he graduated from college in 1933. He later coached Orchard Lake St. Mary College and High School at the same time (the college had only basketball) before moving on to Pontiac and then Waterford.

Five of Ashley's prep letters were in baseball as he started playing in the 8th grade before there were any rules against it.

In basketball, Waldo played on one of the best teams ever produced at Oxford during 1925-26. "We beat Oak Ridge at Pontiac for the district title and then took Marine City in the state regional final at Detroit. But we lost to Three Oaks in the state quarter-final. They had Jumping Joe Savoldi who went on to be an All-American at Notre Dame."

★ ★ ★

In football, he started out as 118-pound six-foot reserve that a "good wind would blow over." Starting chances came later when his weight zoomed to 178.

One of Waldo's most memorable experiences at college was in 1930 when he played all but five minutes as Normal bowed to Michigan 7-0. All-American Andy Valyou was amoung his teamates.

Waldo turned out some of the best teams in history at Keego. Top year in basketball was the '36-37 season when a co-championship was shared with Walled Lake.

After three good seasons at Orchard Lake, Ashley came to Pontiac to coach basketball and baseball and assist in football. He has been at Waterford since 1951.

WALDO ASHLEY

Title Shot for Folley?

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A Phoenix promoter, Paul Clinite, says No. 2 heavyweight contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., has been promised a title bout this fall with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

In Seattle, Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, said he was not considering any further matches until after Patterson's defense Aug. 22 with Pete Rademacher, 1956 Olympic champion.

Henry Clay is credited with saying "I'd rather be right than president."

No Retirement Plans Even at 95 for Stagg

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—Looking as if he'll live as long as the game he's grown up with, football's Amos Alonzo Stagg celebrated his 95th birthday today.

★ ★ ★

Stagg, hale and hearty after 65 years of coaching, has no plans for retirement. He has served as an advisory coach at Stockton College the past two seasons and hopes to be invited back this fall.

★ ★ ★

Even at home Stagg has refused to slow down. Recently a group of friends, fearing that his lawn mowing work was too difficult with the old-fashioned cutter he was using, sent him a power machine.

He sent it back, saying simply, "I need the exercise."

Stagg does all the yard work in his moderate-sized Stockton home but still craves more exercise. So twice a day he swings a golf club on the lawn — 100 healthy swings at a time.

It was way back in 1887 that Stagg first swung a baseball bat for Yale. In 1889 he was named an end on Walter Camp's first All-America team, then went on to coach the game at his alma mater.

★ ★ ★

In 1892 he joined the newly-opened University of Chicago and stayed on there as director of athletics, football coach and sometimes track, baseball and basketball mentor until university regulations forced his retirement at 70.

During that period Stagg developed football innovations including the forerunners of the modern T-formation as well as the huddle, flanking ends and cross blocking.

Stagg didn't end his career with the Chicago retirement — he moved west to College of the Pacific for more than 10 years.

His home in Stockton is a veritable football museum, containing hundreds of mementos of the game to which he has contributed more than any man. Keeping the house in order is a big job for his wife, Stella, 81, but he pitches in to help the woman he calls "my coach."

No Fracture Is Found

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mickey McDermott, Kansas City Athletics' pitcher was struck on the cheekbone by a line drive while pitching batting practice yesterday.

X-ray examination at a hospital showed no fracture and Manager Harry Craft said McDermott, who also serves as a lefthanded pinch hitter, probably will be ready to play tomorrow.

Coast to Have 1st Major Loop Baseball Team

New York Giants Set to Clear Last Hurdle Over Weekend

NEW YORK (AP)—The West Coast very likely finally will have its first major league baseball franchise within the next 72 hours, with San Francisco claiming the New York Giants.

The question of whether the Giants should flee New York and shift to California will be put before the club's board of directors Monday by President Horace Stoneham, who will recommend acceptance of the proposal.

The board appears to be the last hurdle in San Francisco's bid to win the Giants. Stoneham already is sold. So is the National League, which approved such a switch last May 28.

And while there are reports that one or two members of the board are against a shift to San Francisco, there apparently is little doubt that Stoneham can win them over to accepting what he has termed a "very firm and fair offer" from the West Coast city.

The offer was received in official form by Stoneham last week, and starting with a 45,000-capacity city-built stadium meets Stoneham's earlier demand for a "satisfactory proposition".

Stoneham, who has been hot on the idea of moving to San Francisco for some time, probably also will place a contract proposition for closed-circuit televising of Giant games in San Francisco before the board Monday. The contract reportedly carries a minimum guarantee of a million dollars annually and Stoneham already has advised his stockholders "I can sign the contract the minute we're ready to move."

Vasquez-Rosi Bout on TV

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Sixth-ranked Baby Vasquez of Mexico City takes on No. 8 Paoli Rosi in a 10-round nationally televised lightweight fight tonight.

The fight is a rematch of their all-out duel in New Orleans last December. Vasquez, an amateur bullfighter and one-time skiing enthusiast, won that one with a TKO.

SUMTER, S. C. (AP) — With the field reduced to the low 36, Lt. Miller Barber carried a three-stroke lead into today's third round of the Air Force World Wide Golf Tournament.

Chestnut Gets Split Decision

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Third-ranking featherweight Ike Chestnut last night hooked and countered his way to a split 10-round decision over Mexico City's Ernesto Parra before 5,058 fans at Olympic Auditorium. Both weighed 127.

The decision in the free-swinging donnybrook was unpopular with some fans and Chestnut had to be escorted from the ring under a shower of cups, paper and even a bottle.

★ ★ ★

There were no knockdowns, although Chestnut scored repeatedly with jolting combinations to the head. The New Yorker brought blood to Parra's nose with a flicking jab in the second round. He continued to peck at the nose, which bled badly throughout the fight. Parra halted Chestnut with strong rights to the head in the fourth.

★ ★ ★

Judge Tommy Herman called the fight 96-96, a draw. Herman was overruled, however, by Referee Charley Randolph and Judge Tommy Hart, who scored 98-92 and 96-93, respectively, for Chestnut. The Associated Press carded for Chestnut 99-91.

Holly Canoeists Beat 44 Others in Ludington Race

A pair of Holly carpenters tried canoeing a few years ago, liked it so well, they have become one of the top team paddlers in the state.

★ ★ ★

Only last weekend LeRoy, 37, and Albert Widing, 32, of Holly, outsped a field of 45 teams to capture the Ludington 16-mile race. In 1956 they were 5th in the big 240 - mile Michigan canoe marathon, and they'll be in it again Aug. 36. This grind starts at Grayling, ends at Oscoda, down the rushing Au Sable. They won a trophy and $100 at Ludington.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago the Widings couldn't finish when a bubble-gum patch on an early hull puncture finally gave out after 10 hours. Last year they finished 3rd, after a delay caused by another puncture.

★ ★ ★

This time the team will paddle a wood-hull, fiber-glassed canoe under sponsorship of Pontiac's Slaybaugh Sport store. They make their own paddles of basswood, tipped with fiber-glass.

Work Lags at Squaw Valley

Delays Hurt Winter Games

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California's planners for the 1960 Winter Olympic Games are worrying out loud about delays that already have thrown the Squaw Valley construction timetable out of kilter.

The 1960 date may sound comfortably far off, but the short summer seasons in the high Sierra impart a note of immediate urgency to the schedule.

★ ★ ★

By this time, the building program was expected to be well under way, well ahead of the snow and freezing weather that soon will force a halt until 1958.

★ ★ ★

Instead, little has been done because the land acquisition effort still is unsettled. Seven million dollars in construction has been put out to bid but the state has been unable to award contracts.

★ ★ ★

H. D. Thoreau, executive secretary of the Olympic commission, said yesterday that a "crash program" will be necessary. He indicated the price of building consequently will rise.

★ ★ ★

"The situation is not desperate, but serious," Thoreau declared.

★ ★ ★

The state Legislature has appropriated $7,990,000 for staging the Winter Olympics and any request for additional funds would meet opposition.

Miss Myers Aims for Diving Sweep

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Australia's Lorraine Crapp hoped to break another American freestyle record today and Paula Jean Myers aimed for a grand slam in diving in the windup of the National AAU woman's outdoor swim meet.

The goal today for the Australian world and Olympic champion was the 880-yard championship. Last night Miss Crapp easily won the 440 with a record 5:08.5 just seven hours after breaking the old American mark with a 5:09.6 in qualifying trials.

★ ★ ★

With four outdoor and indoor gold medals already won, Miss Myers, a 22-year-old Los Angeles star, was a strong favorite to complete the grand slam by regaining the platform diving title she won in 1953.

Olympic champion Pat McCormick of Los Angeles, the only other woman to accomplish a grand slam, won all five titles in 1951 and 1954. Recently turning professional, Mrs. McCormick did not defend her three outdoor titles this year.

The meet entered its final day with new records for seven out of 10 swimming events.

Sharing honors with Miss Crapp last night was Carin Cone, who successfully defended her 110-yard backstroke championship with a record 1:13.6. The Ridgewood, N. J., champion finished inches ahead of Christine Kluter, 15, Cleveland, Ohio, who had broken Miss Cone's old record of 1:14.5 with a 1:13.8 in afternoon qualifying.

Miss Cone had lost the 220-yard backstroke title and record to 13-year-old Chris Von Saltza of Santa Clara, Calif., Wednesday night in her first defeat in nine consecutive national title races. After winning last night Miss Cone said her Wednesday defeat made her a "lot calmer" for the 110-yard event.

Two Californians who placed third and fifth in qualifying trials came from behind in last night's finals to win their first national championships.

Jane Wilson, 15, Santa Clara, won the 220-yard butterfly with a 2:47.6, while Mary Lou Elsenius, Berkeley, won the 220-yard breaststroke with a 3:04.8.

Miss Wilson had qualified with a 2:57.0, to hold third place behind Sylvia Ruuska, Berkeley, and Becky Collins, Indianapolis, Ind. In the finals, Miss Ruuska, who won the 440-yard individual medley title Wednesday, finished second, Miss Collins third.

Miss Elsenius won a thrilling race from Suzie Ordog, Seattle,

Rosburg Heads St. Paul Open

His Sizzling 64 Leads Johnson by One Stroke as Par Takes Beating

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Bob Rosburg of San Francisco, set out today to protect his shaky one-stroke lead in the $24,000 St. Paul Open Golf Tournament which started yesterday with one of the wildest scoring binges in Keller course history.

★ ★ ★

Rosburg fired an 8-under-par 64, to lead Howie Johnson of Houston, Tex., by one shot, four others by two strokes and six more by three in a first round which saw par bettered 56 times and equalled 16 more.

★ ★ ★

Ken Venturi of San Francisco, long-hitting George Bayer of Los Angeles, and Peter Thomson of Melbourne, Australia, along with Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., started the day two strokes behind. Bayer and Venturi are looked upon as top threats to push for the 36-hole lead today.

Sam Snead, long-time favorite at Keller, was five strokes behind with a 69 and defending champion Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N.Y. was four strokes back with 68.

Spotlight Falls on Althea Gibson in Essex Tourney

MANCHESTER, Mass. (AP)—Wimbledon champion Althea Gibson was the center of attraction today as two quarter-final matches were scheduled in the 30th annual Essex County Club Women's Invitation tennis tournament.

Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., already had reached the semifinals on the strength of victories yesterday.

Miss Brough, 34, eliminated Janet Hopps of Seattle, Wash., 6-3, 6-2 yesterday.

Miss Hard defeated 16-year-old English sensation Christine Truman 6-1, 8-6.

MSU Fraternity Lizard AWOL, Eludes Keepers

EAST LANSING (AP)—It's pretty hard to hide five feet three inches of orange and black lizard, but Igor the iguana is somehow doing it.

The lizard, kept as a fraternity house pet at Michigan State University, has been AWOL since a week ago Wednesday. Organized searches have been abandoned and police said they have received no lizard reports for several days.

Herb Wendt, a junior from Tawas City, speculated that the lizard might be hiding up a tree days and coming down nights to search for food or water. But Wendt said the first cold snap would kill the South American reptile.

Most Stocks Start Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — Stocks were mostly higher in quiet early trading today.

Changes were generally narrow, with only a few standard issues rising as much as a point. A number of blue-chips were unchanged.

★ ★ ★

Volume was moderately heavy at the start, then subsided after the overnight accumulation of orders had been cleaned up.

The news budget was more encouraging than it has been for some time. The government said housing starts rose during July, industrial production held steady during that month, while personal income climbed to a record annual rate.

Most oils, motors and rails moved higher. Aircrafts and metals were irregular. Steels were steady.

Boeing, Air Reduction, International Paper, RCA, Westinghouse, Royal Dutch, Eastern Airlines, Texas Co. and Illinois Central rose fractions.

Anaconda dropped a major fraction after reporting earnings for the first half of $2.66 a share compared with $7.07 a share in the like period last year.

Other fractional losers included Goodrich, American Smelting and American Cyanamid.

Push Planning of 'Strip' Group

83 County Residents Present at 2nd Meeting to Elect Officers

Organization of the Oakland County Timing Strip Assn., which is pushing the idea of building a local drag strip, continued last night when 83 county residents, from 14 to 30 years old gathered to elect officers.

During the second organizational meeting the group elected Bill Martin, 21, of 1704 Crescent Lake Rd., Waterford Township, president; Dale Chaffee, 21, of 335 Walton Blvd., vice president; Harry McGowan, 21, of Drayton Plains, secretary, and Dave Birchmeier, 21, of 417 E. Montcalm St., treasurer.

The meeting was conducted by Patrolman Richard A. Navarre, Pontiac police vice squad; his brother, Juvenile and Safety Deputy Steve Navarre, Oakland County Sheriff's Department, and Deputy Donald Kratt.

These three have been appointed by heads of the local law enforcement agencies to help support and organize the group, although they cannot sponsor it.

They and three other adults, who attended the meeting, will serve on the board of directors of the association. They are: Ralph R. Brownell, 30 Chamberlain St.; Ed Pool, 184 Prospect St., and Loren D. Anderson, of 2361 Edinburgh Rd.

More than three quarters of those attending the meeting were from Pontiac although Waterford, Berkley, Drayton Plains and Birmingham were represented.

Planning to meet bi-monthly, the association will hold the next session Aug. 29 at 8 p.m. Meanwhile, a committee will draw up a constitution and by-laws to be presented for approval.

Association membership will be open to female as well as male county residents. Steve Navarre estimated the group could interest and provide constructive recreation for at least 3,000 teens.

Production of Cars Goes Up This Week

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's car makers will build 118,614 passenger cars and 7,450 trucks this week, Ward's Automotive Reports said today.

This would compare with 118,864 cars and 18,279 trucks completed last week and with 98,348 cars and 21,679 trucks built in the same week last year.

The agency noted that Studebaker - Packard ended its 1957 model car output this week. Other makes finished with the old model run are Nash, Hudson, Rambler, Lincoln and Continental.

Ward's reported Canadian factories, back in production after vacation shutdowns built 7,450 cars and 1,561 trucks last week. There were no assemblies the preceding week. In the comparable 1956 week dominion plants built 4,290 cars and 2,358 trucks.

Ford Tractor Unit Makes Appointments

Two appointments in the controller's office, Tractor and Implement Division, Ford Motor Company, Birmingham, have been announced by Anthony Alic, divisional controller. C. H. Buswell has been named manager, accounting department, and C. D. Olmstead has been appointed manager, budget analysis department.

Buswell has been supervisor of the profit analysis section. He succeeds J. B. Kuras, who has resigned. Olmstead was formerly supervisor of the cost analysis section, Highland Park tractor plant.

Fifth Wildcat Strike Hits Chrysler Corp.

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. today was involved in its fifth wildcat strike in four days.

Operations at Chrysler's Vernor South Plant were bogged down late yesterday just as two other Chrysler plants resumed operations after wildcat walkouts.

The company sent home an additional 200 workers after five crane employes walked off the job at the Vernor Plant. Another 144 workers were sent home when four crane operators failed to report on the second shift.

Issues involved in the dispute were not immediately learned.

Chrysler's Lynch Road Axle Plant and Center Line Parts Plant returned to full operation yesterday after brief walkouts which the United Auto Workers Union said were unauthorized.

Grain Prices Edge Higher

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices edged higher today on the Chicago board of trade after an unimpressive opening, except for soybeans which were up a cent or more at the start.

Light early trading reflected strength in cash oil prices, little significant weather news and some concern about the impending curtailment of government foreign aid spending.

Near the end of the first hour, new style wheat was ⅛ to ½ higher, Sept $2.18⅛; corn was ¼ to ½ higher, Sept. $1.27⅞; oats were unchanged to ¼ higher, Sept. 64⅞; rye was ½ lower to ⅝ higher, Sept. $1.37¼; soybeans were 1⅛ to 1⅜ higher, Sept. $2.48; and lard was 10 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, Sept. $13.20.

Reports Heard on School Sites

Waterford Education Board Takes No Action on Bus Request

Waterford Township board of education members heard a committee report on additional sites for the Watkins Lake and Elizabeth Lake elementary schools and a future senior high school last night.

Voters have approved funds for the two future elementary schools and for two new schools opening this fall, Superintendent William Shunck said.

"Only negotiations for the three proposed building sites are under way," Shunck added.

No action was taken by Board for school bus transportation from the new Our Lady of the Lakes parochial school which will open in September.

★ ★ ★

However, the board indicated that the matter would be included in the agenda for the September meeting.

The board approved the hiring of two additional paid crossing guards to be stationed at the new Henry R. Schoolcraft School, at the intersection of Williams Lake road and Maceday drive.

The second crossing guard will be in the Lambert School area on Cass Lake road between Odel street and Otter Beach avenue.

Approval of 15 teacher contracts brings the total number to 365 instructors for the some 10,500 Waterford Township pupils to be enrolled next week.

★ ★ ★

The reinvestment of Waterford Township School District funds totaling $1,700,000 into treasury bills was approved by the Board of Education last night.

Vote to End Strike at Great Lakes Steel

DETROIT (AP)—Workers at the sprawling Great Lakes Steel Corp. plant in suburban Ecorse voted late yesterday to end a 12-day strike which had idled 11,000 employes.

The workers, members of United Steelworkers Union Local 1299, agreed to return to the jobs they left Aug. 2 at a rank-and-file meeting yesterday in Ecorse High School auditorium.

Paul Carnahan, Great Lakes president, said it was decided to re-open the huge plant after the union assured him there would be no more unauthorized walkouts.

Carnahan told union officials earlier the plant would stay closed until such a guarantee was made.

The first workers to return were those on the afternoon shift which began at 4 p.m., shortly after the stormy membership meeting at which they decided to heed the pleas of Thomas Shane, USW district 29 director.

★ ★ ★

The 2,000 who attended agreed to return after Shane explained why their local had been placed under an administratorship Tuesday and also told them their complaints would be handled through regular grievance procedure.

The strike began as a protest against the firing of 117 employes and what the workers called "an accumulation of grievances."

Slate Street Dance

ROCHESTER—The new village parking lot No. 2 which has been completed this week will be opened tonight with a street dance at 8 p.m. The Eagle Lodge Aerie No. 2634 is sponsoring the affair and the program is supported by local merchants and car dealers.

$2,014 for Each American

Personal Income in U. S. at $345½ Billion in July

WASHINGTON (AP)—The personal income of Americans last month was at a seasonally-adjusted annual rate of 345½ billion dollars, the Commerce Department reported today. That was 750 million dollars higher than the June rate.

On the basis of an estimated population of 171½ million, the July annual rate averages about $2,014 for every American, about $40 higher than in June.

For the first seven months of the year, the annual rate was 341 billion dollars—19 billion higher than in the corresponding period of 1956.

Personal income, in the meaning used by government statisticians, includes wages and salaries, the net income of proprietorships and partnerships, farm income, dividends and interest, Social Security payments, net rents received by landlords and other types of individual income. The annual rates represent the seasonally-adjusted dollar totals for each month multiplied by 12.

★ ★ ★

The bulk of the July increase was in wages and salaries, up 800 million dollars over June. This was partly offset by a 300-million-dollar drop in government transfer payments with Social Security checks including fewer retroactive payments to new claimants than in other recent months.

The rise in total payrolls from June to July reflected increases particularly in trade, services and state and local governments where employment gains were strongest.

★ ★ ★

Manufacturing payrolls dipped somewhat in July, with a decline in employment more than offsetting higher average weekly earnings. Payroll declines were noted especially in transportation equipment, food and apparel. The metals industries and printing and publishing payrolls showed moderate gains.

Agricultural income fell 100 million dollars between June and July to a total of $15,400,000,000. The June rate of 15½ billion was the highest ever recorded.

Resume Trial of Local Lawyer

Milton Henry Assumes Own Defense on Charge of Assaulting Officer

The trial of Attorney Milton R. Henry, on charges of assault and battery against Pontiac Police Officer Clarence Smith, resumed yesterday in Municipal Court.

Assistant City Attorney Sherwin Birnkrant called several witnesses to the altercation, all of whom told substantially the same story.

Henry, assuming his own defense objected strenuously to the witnesses, saying he was willing to stipulate that he hit Officer Smith.

He clashed frequently with Birnkrant over the case, arguing he was not denying the assault, but maintaining it was a justified defense of his property.

The fight occured in the alley behind the Oakland County Court House when Smith was trying to have Henry's car towed away for past parking violations.

Henry charged the city ordinance under which Smith was acting was unconstitutional.

★ ★ ★

Birnkrant said the only question was whether Smith was acting under the law as it exists, not as Henry thinks it should exist.

Henry tried to block admission of any evidence pertaining to his past traffic record as immaterial to the assault charge, but Judge Cecil B. McCollum said he would rule later on the defendant's objections.

The day's proceedings concluded with Lt. Claude Evans, head of the Police Violations Bureau, on the stand. It will continue next Thursday, at 1:30 p.m.

Chrysler Production Returns to Normal

DETROIT (INS) — Production was reported back on normal schedule today in the two Chrysler Corp. plants hit by wildcat strikes.

Disputes over production standards yesterday sent 350 workers home from the Center Line parts plant and 500 from the Lynch Road axle plant.

Company officials had said continuation of the walkouts might affect all 70,000 Detroit-area Chrysler employes. The strikers returned on their normal shifts today.

MIKE STOKEY

Show Returns Every Season

But Mike Stokey Hopes to Put TV Charades on Year-Round Basis

By DICK KLEINER

NEW YORK (NEA) — There are a few things that are certain about summer. There will be some hot weather, and attack by Japanese beetles and Mike Stokey's "Pantomime Quiz" will return to television.

★ ★ ★

"I'm getting used to the gags about me being a summer replacement," Stokey said. "Actually, they do me good — keep the name mentioned."

The problem isn't so much summer. What Stokey does in the summer is a matter of public record. But what happens in the winter? Is Stokey a hibernator?

"There've been a few winters," he says, "when my show has gone all though. Not in the last few years, though.

"But I keep working — figuring to sell the show 52 weeks a year, things like that."

★ ★ ★

This summer, like last, "Pantomime Quiz" is subbing for Edward R. Murrow's "Person to Person" over CBS-TV.

PLEASES THE PUBLIC

And, as always, it gets good ratings, good reviews and seems to please public and sponsor alike. Why can't he get a permanent spot?

★ ★ ★

"I've often asked myself that same question," Mike says. "I don't know the answer. I always have possibilities, but they never seem to work out.

"Right now, for instance, there are three possibilities — a film deal, a five - afternoon - week show in which four regulars would be challenged by various teams from the audience, and a night time network spot. I hope one of them works out."

If it doesn't, Mike Stokey will continue to work summers. Actually, he can make enough in the summer to support himself all year around.

But the only trouble is he never knows, for certain, that he'll be on in the summer until sometime in the spring.

★ ★ ★

"If I knew for sure," he says, "that I'd be on every summer, I could have the nicest life imaginable. Just work 10 weeks a year — what could be sweeter?"

Youth Defeats 'Brain' at Game of Chess

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Robert Strom, the 11-year-old wizard who won clear title to $224,000 in television quiz show money, outwitted a giant electronic brain yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The Brooklyn, N. Y., braintrust and his family were on a specially staged tour of the computor laboratories of Hughes Aircraft Company in Los Angeles when young Robert met his latest mental competition.

As they approached the huge electric data processing machine, Robert stood rigid with delight.

When he was offered a chance for a chess game with the automatic thinker, Robert acted like he had gained another plateau on the quiz shows where his mathematical knowledge astounded a nation.

★ ★ ★

Robert played avidly. He sketched a schematic drawing of a computer with his left hand, and at the same time kept up a running conversation with his family and Hughes officials.

When the 30 minute contest ended, Robert easily was declared the winner.

★ ★ ★

The previously undefeated computer only blinked, and blinked once more, and then the lights went out.

Most Healthy Village — No Crime, No Deaths!

By EARL WILSON

GUARAPARI, Brazil—Before taking a vacation in Brazil, it is a good idea to get a little rest.

So we flew from Rio to this village of 2,000 which has six automobiles—but is it healthy! Maybe that's why it's healthy—because there are so few cars.

"The town's so healthy that when the mayor wanted to inaugurate a new cemetery, he had to borrow a corpse from the next village, because nobody had died here in years," a native told me.

WILSON

"It was the same with the new jail—the mayor had to send over to a neighboring town and borrow a criminal," the man said.

The kids of Guarapari are the same as kids anywhere else—they play in the dusty main street with their dogs.

Mary Martin and Dick Halliday, Cary Grant, and Janet Gaynor and her husband Adrian—who have homes in Brazil—could hardly have them in such a picturesque location as this.

The airport "administration building" was about as big as a living room.

It had a thatched roof but no sides—it was just a shelter.

"You lie on the beach here, cover yourself to the neck with the sand, and you'll quickly get over your arthritis," they assured us—not kidding this time.

Nancy Williams' Father to Be Honored at EMC

LANSING (AP) — The State Board of Education today approved naming of the dramatic arts building at Eastern Michigan College the Daniel L. Quirk Jr. Dramatic Arts Building after the father of Nancy Williams, wife of the governor.

Quirk, who died two years ago, sponsored the little theater movement in Ypsilanti and was a lifetime supporter of the college. He also served two six-year terms on the governing board of the Student Aid Corporation, which provides loan funds for students.

Here's Solution for Pot-O-Gold

The following are correct answers and explanations for the Pot-O-Gold puzzle which appeared in last week's Pontiac Press.

A. (1) FRACTION. Faction indicates an organized body which, however small, would be capable of concerted action and be a cause of harassment. A small FRACTION, if unorganized, would cause little worry.

B. (3) PAUNCH. A retired championship fighter would probably pack quite a Punch even after years away from the ring. Once the vigorous exercise ceases, he would tend to put on weight and add inches to his PAUNCH or stomach.

C. (5) REIGNING. Unfulfilled promises are not necessarily an indication that the monarch was Feigning or making an attempt to deceive when he made them. He might well have had every intention of carrying them out. There can be no such objection to the use of REIGNING or ruling monarch in the context of the clue.

D. (7) BOTTLE. After drinking a Pottle of wine (4 pints), the average man would become thoroughly drunk, to say the least, rather than tipsy or slightly intoxicated. A BOTTLE could be almost any size and a small one might well make him tipsy.

E. (9) BREADED. A vegetarian would certainly avoid a veal cutlet in any form, including BREADED. In spite of his vegetarianism, he need not consider meat Dreaded or terrible.

F. (11) SWINDLING. The SWINDLING of his life's savings would make the man penniless except for his pension and property. If his savings were only Dwindling or decreasing little by little, he would still have some money and the future would not look quite so bleak.

G. (13) BLOCKERS. Adequate Lockers in the dressing room would be provided as a matter of course by any football team, professional or otherwise. To say, then, that the owners would "try" to provide these would hardly be fitting. Blocking is an integral part of football and would be more appropriate.

H. (16) PREDICTION. The Production or amount of goods manufactured is just one indication of a company's prosperity. A PREDICTION or forecast, if authoritative, would take in many other factors in addition to production. And if the forecast pointed to a slump, many stockholders would, no doubt, decide to get rid of their holdings.

I. (18) FUSTIGATED. Just about everyone with a sense of justice would be glad to see such a slanderer Castigated or severely criticized or punished. There would bound to be some, though, with a distaste for physical violence, no matter how justified it might be. The clue states "most people" so FUSTIGATED or soundly thrashed, as with a cudgel, would be more appropriate.

J. (20) POSTURE. The years of hard physical labor that go with farming on arid soil would almost surely produce a noticeable change in the farmer's POSTURE or physical bearing. Not all farms have Pastures — grassland for grazing cattle; and, assuming they did, the nature of the soil would make it unlikely that much of a change would be effected.

K. (21) FITNESS. Fatness or obesity is just one of the reasons that might prompt a man to work out in a gym once a week. FITNESS, in the physical sense, would take in fatness as well as any other needs or symptoms that would make a man seek exercise to keep himself in shape.

L. (24) BOUGHT. In either case mother would, no doubt, be touched. However, "especially" in the clue points to BOUGHT. A youngster would normally have limited financial means. If he were prompted to put enough aside to buy the flowers, it would probably touch mother all the more.

M. (26) UTILITY. The Futility or hopelessness of atomic weapons might be preached by non-military men because of the great mutual destruction that would result from their use. However, the UTILITY or usefulness of such weapons has been demonstrated in numerous tests as well as in actual use in World War II. Thus, they must figure in the strategy of possible future use and military men would certainly be aware of their usefulness.

N. (27) FATEFUL. While there are probably many Japanese who would consider the bombing of Hiroshima Hateful or odious, many others might objectively conclude that this action was a legitimate, necessary operation from the enemy point of view. FATEFUL would take in decisive and disastrous and, from any point of view, the bombing was all this.

O. (29) FLAME. The loss of Fame would be a gradual rather than a sudden process. The loss of one's FLAME or sweetheart could certainly be a serious blow and would be more applicable in this case.

P. (31) SWILLING. If the husband had been Willing to go home, there would have been no need for coaxing or wheedling him into it. Some men, when SWILLING or drinking heavily, become more open to suggestion and can readily be coaxed.

Q. (33) PERSONNEL. In a large corporation, minor PERSONNEL problems would probably never get beyond the personnel manager, let alone to the president. Minor, day-to-day Personal problems of the employes would hardly be the concern of the president either. However, he might certainly be concerned with trivial problems of his own. There is nothing in the clue to preclude this possibility.

R. (35) FILLING. Incorrect Billing would be more the concern of the accounting or bookkeeping department than the purchasing department. The purchasing agent, on the other hand, would certainly be interested in whether or not the supplier had been correctly FILLING his orders.

S. (37) PRIGGISH. A Piggish or gluttonous fellow would certainly be more offensive to the other guests than a PRIGGISH or conceited person. To say, then, that the "hostess might be hesitant about reinviting" a PIGGISH guest would be an understatement. She would almost be sure to keep him off the guest list.

T. (39) DISTRESS. Mistress (his master's wife) is too limited. His DISTRESS or misfortune could stem from any number of things, including dislike of his mistress. Thus, DISTRESS would be the more inclusive answer.

Coming on Your TV Screen

Perry Como to Have Burr in His Hair Come Fall

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — "Can Mason jar Como?"

Perry Como's reign with Saturday night's most popular TV show is going to have a Burr in its side this fall. Film star Raymond Burr starring as famed lawyer-amateur sleuth Perry Mason in Hollywood's first weekly one hour series filmed especially for home screens.

The producer of the show, one-time movie actress Gail Patrick, and the TV division of the 20th Century-Fox studio, which is filming the suspense adventures of the Erle Stanley Gardner character, are convinced Mason will jar Como, but good, starting Sept. 21.

"Perry Mason" will start on CBS-TV a half hour before the rival NBC Perry Como show. Once hooked with the clues of a one hour Perry Mason who-dunit thriller, audiences, they predict, "just won't switch over to Como."

But with Star Raymond Burr, who has appeared in 90 movies since 1946, there is a more vital problem. Raymond Burr is wondering:

"How long will it be before I drop dead?"

Every six days Burr stars in what almost amounts to a full-length feature movie. He's in 98 per cent of all the scenes. He rolls out of bed at 2:30 every morning, after about five hours' sleep, and arrives at the studio at 3:30 to be made up, to study his lines and to grab a cat nap before shooting starts at 8.

"It's killed any other existence for me," he told me, "and it may kill me. But if I can keep it up for three years I can retire for life. But, mister, I'll never do it again."

Burr, best remembered for his district attorney role in the movie, "A Place in the Sun," and as the killer in "Rear Window," lost 100 pounds for health's sake a couple of years ago. But now he's losing more poundage on a TV film diet.

"I just don't have time to eat," he grins.

With show titles like "The Vagabond Vixen," and "The Crimson Kiss," Perry Mason is the lawyer who likes to do his own sleuthing and solves every case in the courtroom as the climax of each show.

He uses brains instead of violence and if you've ever been an Erle Stanley Gardner fan you'll remember his clues as the most exciting of all the mystery thriller writers.

In the regular cast are Barbara Hale as Mason's girl Friday, Della Street; Bill Hopper as private eye Paul Drake; Bill Tallman as the prosecuting attorney Tragg.

For Barbara Hale and hubby Bill Williams, once TV's Kit Carson, it means two TV shows in the family this fall. While Barbara teams up with Burr, Bill is costarring with Betty White in "Date With the Angels."

They've been happily married for 11 years.

"If our marriage can survive two TV shows," laughs Barbara, "you'll know nothing can bust it up."

There's a $100,000 budget for each weekly film and, says Burr, "more enthusiasm than I've ever seen on any Hollywood set. The cast, the crew, everyone is pulling for the show's success. The crew is giving it the best of Hollywood's techniques, and there's at least one location in every show.

Expect Thousands at Commerce

Set Outdoorama Event

By STAN BOK
Press Correspondent

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP —One of the biggest summer attractions in Oakland County — the Multi-Lakes Conservation Assn.'s Outdoorama—will bring visitors from all parts of Michigan and many other states this weekend.

A host of competitive events for sportsmen have been scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at the Multi-Lakes property at 3860 Newton Rd. in Commerce Township, beginning at 9 a.m.

This is the second promotion of its kind. Last year's Outdoorama drew an estimated 7,000 persons to the area. This year's event is expected to attract a bigger crowd.

No admission will be charged and the public has been invited. Food and beverages will be available at the club grounds.

Al Dixon and Walt Horstman, chairman and co-chairman of the Outdoorama, respectively, have arranged a full program for both days.

There will be many forms of archery and rifle shooting competition. In addition, a horseshoes tournament, three Little League and Junior baseball games, and bait and fly casting contests will complete the program for the club grounds. Novice field trials for dogs will be held at a nearby farm all day Saturday and Sunday.

Extra features have been planned for both days.

The Multi-Lakes Conservation Assn.'s clubhouse ranks among the best in the state, and is 100 by 80 feet in size. The club also has an indoor rifle range in a 90 x 30 ft. building.

Harry Helvey, a past president of the organization, said the event is not a fund-raising project, pointing out that the club's only intentions are to offer good competition and to meet expenses. He said the clubhouse and rifle range buildings are owned outright.

The club buildings are located on a landscaped site and the club owns the 66 acres which surround the buildings.

Organized in 1942, the club has a limited membership of 850.

Complete program follows:

Saturday and Sunday:
Archery, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.
Trap shoot, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
Skeet shoot, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
Rifle shoot, heavy bore, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.
Baseball, 2 p.m. Extra game Sunday at 4:30 p.m.
Balloon shoot, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.
Novelty archery shoot and sling shot contest, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.
Horseshoes (doubles, Saturday; singles, Sunday), 1:30 p.m.
Indoor rifle shoot, small bore, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Merchandise shoot, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
Bait casting, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
Fly casting, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
Medalist shoot, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

A host of trophies and prizes will be awarded during the two-day meet.

Offers Petition on Street Lights

Monthly Meeting Held With Several Present in Independence

CLARKSTON — A petition for street lighting was presented by George Mantyla for Pelton Heights Subdivision at the regular meeting of the Independence Township Board this week. The board voted that the petition be turned over to an attorney for an opinion.

Frank Ronk submitted prices on coveralls for Civil Defense men. The board voted to buy ten suits at $7 each from the mechanics laundry.

The financial report for the month of July was read by Treasurer Ira Snader on the Township and Water Departments. It was accepted as read.

A representative was present to seek the approval of the Board on Water Hill Manor Subdivision No. 1. Harold Bauer, moved the board approve the proposed subdivision subject to the approval of the Oakland Country Road Commission and the County treasurer. Clerk Harold Doebler was authorized to sign the plats after such approval.

Darlene Carter Marries

MILFORD — In an Aug. 10 ceremony at White Lake Presbyterian Church, Darlene F. Carter, of 1850 Hill Rd. became the bride of Delmar Ralph Miller. The Rev. Robert vonOeyen performed the service before 150 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carter of Buckley (Mich.) and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James A. Miller of 7790 Gale Rd.

A princess-style ballerina length white taffeta dress with lace inserts was chosen by the bride, along with a shoulder-length veil secured by a rhinestone and orange blossom tiara. She carried white roses and feathered carnations on a white pearl Bible.

Mrs. Melvin Miller attended as matron of honor with Glen Carter, brother of the bride, as best man. James Carter and Zane Pryomski seated the guests.

A reception was held immediately following at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Group of Nine Aids Rochester

Avon Board Chooses Committee to Study Local Government

ROCHESTER—Avon Township Board named a nine-man committee to study what form of government will be best for the area, at Wednesday's meeting.

★ ★ ★

Chosed were Carl Simon, Jack Fetterly, Sarah Van Hoosen Jones, Henry Duff, E. Tillson Peabody, Mrs. Oscar Sorenson, Mrs. Robert Ott, Lewis B. Arscott and Donald H. Butcher.

This committee will meet and plan for public hearings. They will have speakers from the Michigan Municipal League, Township Association and Mayors from chartered townships.

★ ★ ★

The group's resolution also granted the Detroit Edison Co. an easement through the former Sarah Van Hoosen Jones property, known as the Stoney Creek Cemetery. The Bolinger Subdivision plat on East Avon was accepted, subject to recommendations made by Avon Zoning Board.

Don McInnes was reappointed by the board for a three year term on the Water Commission. At the next regular meeting a study will be made of the temporary village dump, according to Attorney L. R. Bebout.

The Stars and Stripes has flown over West Point continuously since the academy was built.

The Nursery School of the City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills still has some openings for Fall for 3 and 4 year old children for the Bloomfield Hills and Pontiac residents. Program includes dancing, music and art instruction by specialized experts, nature study, planning for individual interests, dramatics and puppets. Transportation provided. Call MI 4-4511.

Farm Owners to Be Honored for Centennial

MARLETTE — The Michigan Historical Commission has designated six Sanilac County farms, which were purchased directly from the government and have been owned by the same families for 100 years or longer as Centennial Farms.

These present owners are Floyd Dale, Mariette Township; George Abbott, Marion Township; Lincoln Franzel, Delaware Township; Wesley Keyworth, Freemont Township; Frances Roth, Deleware Township and Ralph Willis, Marion Township.

All of the six Centennial Farms were transferred from the United States Government to the original owners in deeds signed by President Franklin Pierce.

All these families will be honored at a dinner with the Sandusky Rotary Club, and will be presented at the 4-H Fair Wednesday evening. They will be presented with a Centennial Farm certificate and a plaque.

Seymour Homecoming Slated for Saturday

SEYMOUR LAKE — The Seymour Lake Annual Homecoming will be held here Saturday. WSCS of the Methodist Church will serve a chicken dinner.

A program will be held in the church auditorium, starting at 2 p.m., with the Rev. L. H. Kemp of Lake Fenton as main speaker.

Board at Orion Hears Problems

Citizens Seeking Relief From Swimmer Influx Near Homes

ORION TOWNSHIP—Delegations from three areas appeared at the recent meeting of the board of Orion Township.

Two of the groups are seeking relief from the problem of holiday and evening influx of swimmers obstructing driveways, parking on lawns and general noise late at night.

LAKE ORION HEIGHTS

The board suggested that citizens contact the County Road Commission for permission to erect "no parking" signs and that they check into the possibility of placing on the next ballot the sale of the 40 foot easement lot to the association in this area, for use of property owners only.

★ ★ ★

The second matter to be discussed by the board was the fact that no action on the part of the county dog warden is being taken in the area to deal with unlicensed and unleashed dogs. No decision was reached.

★ ★ ★

Concluding the meeting was Paul Hammond, realtor, presenting the proposition of sale of 78 acres on Silverbell road to a Pontiac firm for use as a dump for rubber trimmings. The board referred Hammond to the Zoning Board.
