OU offers discounts through preferred travel partner

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

Oakland University Athletics has partnered with Passageways Travel of Rochester to offer OU students, faculty, staff and alumni great discounts on travel services.

Passageways Travel, one of the largest travel retailers in the Midwest, offers an unparalleled combination of service and value for corporate, leisure, group, meeting or incentive travel. Those who book a trip through Passageways will receive a 10 percent discount off Northwest Airlines flights and Enterprise Rent-A-Car rentals. Those who book by Dec. 31 also will get $50 off OU basketball season tickets and a free Golden Grizzlies T-shirt.

To take advantage of this offer, visit Passageways Travel at 410 Main St. in downtown Rochester or call (248) 652-1990 and ask for Veronica Brooks.

“Passageways Travel has provided great services for OU’s athletics, and they’re eager to serve the OU community,” said Mark Doman, assistant athletic director – marketing. “Competitive pricing and exceptional service makes Passageways stand out from other travel providers. I’ve personally arranged an upcoming trip to Mexico through Passageways, and they booked a great hotel and arranged all the details at a great price.”

For more information on these promotions, visit the Travel Partners page on the OU Athletics Web site.
