GARNET M. SPARKS

Ex-Pontiac Man Dies on Coast

Garnet Sparks, Former Funeral Director Here, Taken by Death

Garnet M. Sparks, well-known Pontiac funeral director, died at his home in Anaheim, Calif., Tuesday evening.

Born in Chatham, Ont., March 23, 1883, he was the son of Jacob and Janet Manning Sparks.

Mr. Sparks came to Pontiac in 1926 opening a funeral home on Auburn avenue, then moving to 107 Oakland avenue early in 1927.

In 1936 he purchased another site at 153 West Huron St., later locating at 46 Williams St. where the home has been for the past 20 years.

Two years ago Mr. Sparks moved to California, at which time the home was purchased by Glenn H. Griffin, who had been associated with the firm since 1940.

Mr. Sparks visited Pontiac in June, and was taken ill before he arrived back in California.

He was a member of Central Methodist Church, Lodge 21 F&AM, Knights Templar, White Shrine, Eastern Star, High-12, Lodge 810, BPOE and a past president of the Pontiac Lions Club.

Besides his widow, Gertrude, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Tekla Messer of Pontiac, Mrs. Virginia Hawkins of Anaheim and Mrs. Elizabeth Adams of Pontiac; two brothers, Jacob B. of Royal Oak, Frank of Chatham, and a sister, Mrs. Mabel Schuster also of Chatham.

The body is being returned to Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

Keep Salt Off Street Railways, Warns Old Law

Here's a time and money saving tip: Don't spread salt on street railway tracks in the city of Pontiac.

You're liable to lose six months to the sheriff and $500 to the city treasurer if you do. That's what an elderly city ordinance says, anyway.

Commissioner Philip E. Rowston, newly appointed to the City Commission, found the law, adopted in 1900, while becoming familiar with the city's collection of ordinances. Coincidentally, it is signed by his grandfather, William A. Brewster, who was mayor at the time.

The antiquated regulation was referred to City Attorney William A. Ewart at last night's Commission meeting to determine if it is still in force.

But even if it is, the law doesn't mean much. There hasn't been a street railway operating in Pontiac for nearly 20 years.

Scattered Showers Forecast for Area

Scattered showers and thunderstorms were predicted for this afternoon and tonight, with mostly fair and pleasant weather due tomorrow.

The U.S. Weather Bureau says temperatures will hit a high of 80 to 84 today and 83 to 87 tomorrow. Tonight's low is expected to be near 70.

Yesterday's high reading in downtown Pontiac was 83, the low 62. At 8 a.m. today, the mercury registered 73 degrees, rising to 83 at 1 p.m.

Ike May Name Ohio Attorney New Air Chief

David Ingalls Figures High Among Possible Talbott Successors

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower was reported today to be ready to name a new secretary of the Air Force. The name of David S. Ingalls figured prominently in speculation on the chief executive's choice.

The resignation of Air Secretary Harold E. Talbott, who decided to quit after a Senate probe of his outside business activities, is effective Saturday.

Secretary of Defense Wilson, avowedly "very distressed" about the resignation of Talbott, says he hopes to recommend a successor to Eisenhower this week.

"I didn't like any part of it," Wilson told newsmen who asked him about the Talbott case yesterday. Without elaborating, he said he felt he had aged a year in the last three weeks.

Wilson named no names, but said from 30 to 40 persons—some of them Democrats—had been suggested by various persons for the secretaryship.

TOUGH CHOICE

The appointment will be made by President Eisenhower, Wilson said the job of recommending someone is a tough assignment since "I don't know anyone who sits next to God and has financial and engineering experience."

* * *

Political leaders said it is unlikely that Eisenhower will leave for his Colorado vacation without naming Talbott's successor.

Ingalls returned to the U. S. Monday after a vacation in Spain. He said he had not been offered the Air Force job. But he made it clear that he would not shun the post.

Besides Ingalls, men whose names have been mentioned as possible successors to Talbott include Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado and Gov. George Craig of Indiana.

INGALLS QUALIFIED

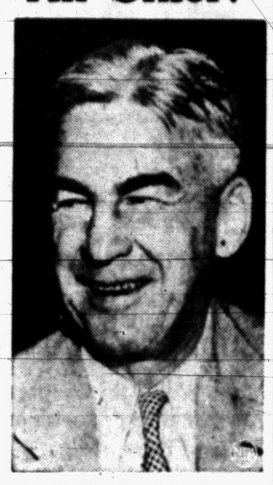

It was pointed out that Ingalls' background, both governmental and political, has equipped him with unique qualifications.

The 56-year-old Cleveland lawyer, as one of the "bright young men" of President Herbert Hoover's administration, was named assistant Secretary of the Navy for aeronautics at the age of 30.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UP)—The police found a woman's artificial leg, complete with nylon stocking, hanging from a street sign. Nobody's claimed it.

Air Chief?

DAVID S. INGALLS

Industrialist David S. Ingalls, above, cousin and presidential campaign manager of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, is being considered as a likely choice to succeed resigned Harold E. Talbott as Air Force Secretary, according to Washington reports.

Williams Hints at Nomination

Governor Claims He'll Enter Race Himself if Adlai Keeps Stalling

CHICAGO (UP)—Gov. Williams indicated today that if Adlai E. Stevenson doesn't announce his intention toward the 1956 Democratic nomination "within a reasonable time" he will toss his hat into the race for president.

The governor told reporters they could draw that conclusion at a press conference at the 47th yearly governors' conference.

"I am not presently a candidate for the presidency," said Williams.

He declined to clarify the meaning of "reasonable time," pointing out that anything can happen in the nation and the world that might change the entire political picture before next year's national conventions.

The governor declared that Michigan Democrats have not centered attention on either Stevenson or Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, both mentioned for the presidency.

Puzzled over the conflict on whether a toll road will be built to run through Oakland County?

U.S. Airmen Speed Toward Home Today

Hawaiian Holiday Due 11 POWs Before They Reach California

TOKYO (AP)—Eleven U. S. airmen who spent 32 long months in Communist captivity sped eastward across the Pacific to home and family today.

Two plush C54 air transports—one Gen. Douglas MacArthur's famed Bataan—left Tachikawa Air Base with the men early this afternoon. After a 27-hour layover in Hawaii they are due at Travis Air Force Base, Calif., Friday morning.

Aboard the Bataan are Col. John Knox Arnold Jr., Capt. John Vaadi, Capt. Elmer F. Llewellyn, Airman Harry M. Benjamin Jr. and Airman John W. Thompson III.

The second group, in a sister ship decorated and outfitted exactly like the Bataan, included Maj. William H. Baumer, Lt. Wallace L. Brown, Lt. John W. Buck, T. Sgt. Howard W. Brown, Airman Steven E. Kiba and Airman Daniel C. Schmidt.

In Honolulu the men will be welcomed today by pretty girls bearing flower leis. After a brief news conference, an Air Force spokesman said, the men "will be free to go anywhere and do anything they want—just like tourists."

BEST ROOMS READY

They will be quartered in the best guest quarters of Hickam Air Force Base but "they can stay at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel if they want."

The men will be given colorful aloha shirts and a chance to go sightseeing or night-lifing.

They'll tell us what the want to do and we'll help them do it," the spokesman said. "Nobody is being scheduled for anything."

In Washington the Air Force says it sent a telegram and a letter to Mrs. Una Schmidt in June 1954 to notify her that her airman husband Daniel C. Schmidt was reported a prisoner in Red China.

STORIES DIFFER

Mrs. Schmidt has told reporters that not until November 1954 was she notified Schmidt was a prisoner of war. That was two months after she married Alford Fine, 21, she said, in the belief Schmidt was dead.

There will be no mass reunion with relatives at Travis, as originally planned by the Air Force. The men asked to be transferred to other planes and flown to air bases nearest their homes. They should reach their homes by Saturday or Sunday.

Queen Named to Reign at 4-H Fair

DONNA FRISBIE

Pert Novi Blonde, 17, 4-H Fair Queen; Annual Agricultural Event Now Open

The ninth annual Agricultural and 4-H fair has a pert 17-year-old blonde reigning as fair queen today.

Five-foot two-inch Donna Frisbie, a 4-H Clubber from Novi, walked off with the honors last night in competition with 16 comely girls representing 4-H clubs all over the county.

The fair drew its first crowd last night, as the fair queen contest and hundreds of exhibits and displays began to attract area residents to the Perry St.-Walton Blvd. site. Activities continue through Saturday.

A member of the Northville Country Slicks, Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Frisbie, of 28175 Novi Rd.

Judges pared the field of 16 to six finalists, and then debated several minutes before making the final decision.

Judging was done on the basis of speaking ability, posture, personality, grooming, face and figure, and 4-H activity. The number of years in the organization, and the number of projects completed totaled 40 per cent of the possible points in selecting the winner.

NORTHVILLE SENIOR

Queen Donna, a senior at Northville High School, has been a club member for five years, and has completed some 47 projects. In previous contests, she had placed third, and also was a member of the queen's court in another year.

Judy Vanderhoof, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vanderhoof, of 1143 Porter Rd., Milford, was runner-up. In last year's contest, she was one of six finalists. She has 53 projects credited to her during her seven years in the club work.

Michigan State University will claim her as a freshman student in the fall. She plans to major in home economics.

After a day of setting up displays and generally completing preparations yesterday, judging began in earnest today.

AWARDS SET TODAY

Blue ribbons in the home economics, dairy classes, and general exhibits were slated to be awarded this morning.

The annual parade of clubs, featuring floats and bands, will begin tonight's activities for the thousands expected to crowd the sawdust and grass walkways. This 7 p.m. event will be followed by a concert by the Milford High School band.

A pig scramble will spark dusk activities, with 14 year-old club members vying for the chance to net a young sow. This annual affair is made possible by the winners returning one of the litter for the next year's scramble.

Judging of hogs and sheep will begin Thursday's activities and beef judging is planned for 1 p.m.

Always a popular and interesting event, the dress review will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday. Members of the various clubs will model clothes they have made as 4-H projects.

Although predicted thundershowers may thin today's turnout, tomorrow's predicted clear skies should boost the attendance figure again.

More than 2,500 4-H club members from 56 county organizations are displaying their work, along with the latest farm and home equipment by local businesses.

Health Center Here to Get Federal Aid

U.S. Sen. Patrick McNamara (D-Mich) told the Pontiac Press today the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved $105,196 in federal aid to help finance Oakland County's new health center.

Total cost of the building, to be constructed in the service center on North Telegraph Road, will be $309,400. The county's share will be $204,204.

Supervisors' Building Committee Member Willis M. Brewer said the federal action means work can start almost immediately. The supervisors gave final county approval to the project Aug. 1.

Public to Rule on 'Nude' Art in Courtroom

DETROIT (UP)—Probate Judge James H. Sexton will let the public decide if the bas-relief in his courtroom in the new City-County Building is, as the judge said, "nude and lewd."

Sexton had demanded the sculpture be removed but backed down when swamped by public protests.

The bas-relief, executed by Marshall Fredericks of Royal Oak, depicts a husband and wife teaching a child kindness and charity by tending an injured bird.

The woman and child are dressed. The man is naked from the waist up.

Judge Sexton said he would rely on the opinion of courtroom visitors and mail from the public in making a decision.

Dondero Thanked by Ike for Road Plan Support

In a personal letter to Oakland County's Congressman George A. Dondero, President Eisenhower thanks him for his support of the administration's highway program, and predicts eventual adoption of the plan. The President's letter:

Dear George:

Respecting your July twenty-eighth letter, I want, first to tell you that I am deeply appreciative of the splendid fight you made for our highway program. In any normal circumstances, you would have won the battle, and I share your disappointment that for a complex of reasons—none of them, in my opinion, warranting rejection of the legislation—the Congress postponed the program.

The public demand and critical national need for these roads to save lives, to strengthen our economy and to satisfy urgent defense needs will ultimately compel approval of this program. We must keep working for its early approval.

Certainly the Administration will continue doing everything it can to get the program under way, and in the meantime, I will carefully consider your suggestion that the Bureau of Public Roads give the program further study.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,
Dwight Eisenhower.

Storm Expected to Strike Land by This Evening

Military Planes Rushed to Bases in Michigan; Beach Area Evacuated

HATTERAS, N. C. (UP)—Hurricane Connie, her 135-mile winds posing a threat to the whole East Coast, hovered off the Carolina mainland today. She was almost stationary.

The Weather Bureau reported the dangerous hurricane—third of the year—was centered about 225 miles southeast of Wilmington, N. C.

Little forward movement was expected during the next six hours, the bureau said.

Then Connie was expected to move slowly toward land in the vicinity of Wilmington. Hurricane force winds may reach there late today.

Towering waves and high tides already pounded the Carolina beaches as the storm approached. Coastal residents and vacationers from Savannah, Ga., north have moved inland or taken utmost precautions against the big blow.

The Navy evacuated 97 propellor-driven aircraft from the Atlantic seaboard, threatened by hurricane Connie, to the Naval Air Station at Grosse Ile, Michigan, late yesterday and last night.

They explained it was standard operating procedure in the Navy to move everything that can't be battened down in the face of a hurricane.

The planes evacuated to Michigan were from squadrons PC33 and VC4, stationed at Atlantic City.

Proposal Would End 'Quagmires'

City Control of New Streets Construction Is Sought

An ordinance expected to put an end to quagmire street conditions which have plagued subdivision residents and the city in the spring and fall was introduced at last night's City Commission meeting.

Under the new regulation, which must have a second reading before becoming law, the city will have complete control of the construction of public improvements in newly platted sections.

The builder will give the city a sum of money equal to the estimated cost of the improvements tracts. Formerly, the builder let his own contracts for the improvements such as streets, sewers and water lines.

"It's a solution to the problem we've got," commented Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) from whose district stemmed a flood of complaints last spring when streets in a new subdivision were a mass of mud and impassable.

Lewis M. Wrenn, city engineer, said:

"It will certainly help. We won't let a contractor go cut up a street and then let it stand all winter. You'll never eliminate some inconviences of construction. But we won't have the long-term problems.

"This will give the control back to the city, where it always should have been."

Porter Abducts Wayne Matron

Armed Epileptic Caught After Police Chase in Heavy Traffic

WAYNE (AP) — The attractive young wife of a local physican was abducted and forced on a harrowing eight-mile ride last night by a part-time bartender and porter.

Mrs. Barbara Ann LeBost, 21, came out of the ordeal unharmed.

Robert L. Gates, 23, also of Wayne, was overtaken and disarmed by a sheriff's officer in one of several scout cars that answered an alarm.

Held for investigation of kidnaping, he told police, "I don't know why I did it. I just lost my head." Police said Gates is subject to epileptic seizures.

* * *

Arnold Mass, bartender in the establishment where Gates works, said Gates came into the bar about 5:30 p.m. yesterday and ordered a bottle of beer. He went behind the bar and grabbed a pistol kept on a shelf, Mass said, and waved it at patrons with threats to shoot before leaving.

VICTIM WAS SHOPPING

Mrs. LeBost said Gates approached her as she stepped from her car in a supermarket parking lot. He ordered her to get back in and drive away.

A Wayne police car answered a call from bar patrons overtook Mrs. LeBost's auto. Patrolman Virgil Lounsbery, who knew Gates, told him to "put down the gun, you're scaring the lady."

Instead, Lounsbery said, Gates put the gun to Mrs. LeBost's head and told the officer to not "monkey around or I'll shoot her."

* * *

Other police cars from Wayne, Garden City and the sheriff's road patrol joined the chase.

A sheriff's car pulled up alongside Gates as the LeBost auto became bogged down in heavy traffic. Deputy Frank Longhi said he found Gates sobbing fitfully, and the gun had been tossed onto the back seat.

* * *

Police said Gates, whose infant son died last week, had no previous record.

Longhi said Mrs. LeBost, wife of Dr. Henry M. LeBost, remained "remarkably calm and undisturbed."

U.S. to Stymie Red China Move for Seat in U.N.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is preparing to combat Red China's strongest bid yet for a United Nations seat by using the maneuver which worked successfully in the past two years.

* * *

U. S. officials are readying for use when the U. N. General Assembly meets at New York City on Sept. 20 a resolution, the effect of which would be to rule out for the year any consideration of proposals to replace Nationalist China.

Last year, despite Communist bloc objections, the General Assembly overwhelmingly adopted a resolution which read:

* * *

"The General Assembly decides not to consider, at its 9th regular session during the current year, any proposals to exclude the representatives of the central people's government of the People's Republic of China."

President Eisenhower reminded his news conference last week that Red China still is branded an aggressor by the U.N. That is enough to keep the Peiping regime out of the U.N. under the charter.

The Communists have made more than 160 attempts to get Red China into the U. N.

UNEXPECTED VISITOR — Without so much as knocking, a visitor got into the Harry Woody home at 543 Granada this morning. According to witnesses, the operator of a bulldozer struck a utility pole while leveling earth in the new subdivision where the house is located. When sparks started showering about him, the driver leaped off the still-moving machine, which continued rumbling right through the Woody back door. No one was home at the time.

Decision Near on Union Shop

Ban on Enforcement of GM-UAW Provision in Indiana Still Holds

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A temporary ban on enforcement of the union shop provision in the new General Motors-United Auto Workers contract is still in effect, and Judge Walter Pritchard says he will decide early next week whether to lift it or extend it indefinitely.

* * *

The temporary restraining order would have expired Tuesday, but Judge Pritchard continued it after hearings both the corporation and the CIO union oppose extension. He instructed attorneys to file written arguments by Saturday.

The injunction suit was filed in Marion County Superior Court by V. R. Smith, 40-year-old experimental assembler at the GM Allison Division here.

Smith alleged he and 200 other non-union employes of GM here and at Anderson are being coerced into joining the UAW under threat of losing their jobs. He contended the union shop provision violates the Indiana Constitution and a state law banning coercion.

* * *

Smith testified he would be willing to pay the union dues to $2.50 a month if he could do so without joining the union. A General Motors attorney said payment of dues would be enough to satisfy the requirements of the contract.

Kidnaping Charge Faces Pontiac Man

A kidnaping warrant will be issued against a 21-year-old Pontiac man who reportedly forced two women to commit "grossly indecent" acts with him at gunpoint, Chief Asst. Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today.

The suspect, Patrick W. Duggan, of 56 Matthews St., was arrested last night near his apartment after the two women described him to police. They later identified him in a lineup at the police station.

Both women, whose names were being withheld, told officers that the suspect forced them into his truck at about 11 p.m. Monday night while they were walking on Whittemore Street near Center Street. Both were released at about 3 a.m. on Parke Street.

Duggan admitted being with the women but denied forcing them to commit any indecent acts.

A kidnaping conviction calls for any number of years in prison up to life.

Tot, 4, Struck by Car Is Reported Recovering

A four-year-old girl was recovering, today from cuts and bruises suffered when she was struck by a car at Sanford and Prospect Sts. Monday.

She is Karan Louise Taylor, of 347 Prospect St.

The auto's driver, Harry F. Topalion, 18, of 145 Navajo Dr., told Pontiac Police the child stepped off the curb, apparently without seeing the approaching car.

City Prepares to Make East Huron 1-Way Street

City crews today began marking new parking meter locations on East Huron street in preparation for making the street one-way eastbound from Mill to Douglas.

Before the street can be made one-way, the meters between Mill and Union must be respaced and signs must be erected, according to T. M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer.

Lt. Joseph Koren, head of the Traffic and Safety Bureau, said work should be completed by the week end. Koren is directing work on the plans outlined by Vanderstempel.

Making East Huron one way is part of a comprehensive plan mapped by the traffic engineer to improve traffic flow in the city, especially in the downtown section. West-bound traffic will use either East Pike or Mt. Clemens streets.

STREETS MADE ONE-WAY

Two smaller streets, not in the downtown area, have just been made one way in order to eliminate traffic flowing in five directions at a pair of intersections. Wenonah drive, from Telegraph to Illinois, and Homestead drive, from East boulevard to Astor. Both are now northeast-bound streets.

Also in connection with traffic improvement, the city has begun posting "Yield to Right of Way" signs at residential intersections. They replace "stop" signs.

Crews are in the process of removing parking meters near busy intersections to allow right-turners to use the lane next to the curb. This will permit through traffic to travel unhindered, Vanderstempel said.

Some of the removed meters will be installed on Parke street, between Auburn and East Pike, he said. Presently, there are no meters on Parke.

Capitol Buzzes in Wake of Hint

Chicago Optical Head Leaves Lansing Agog After Chance Remark

LANSING (AP)—The president of a Chicago optical firm—accused of trying to bribe three state officials—headed for home today after dropping a remark that is still echoing through Capitol corridors.

The Capitol is buzzing with speculation as to what Benjamin Ritholz, 57, meant when he told reporters:

"You wait. I'll give you a story that will shake the administration."

Reaction to Ritholz' remark was summed up in the comment of Horace Gilmore, Deputy Attorney General who worked with State Police on Ritholz' arrest.

"That's very interesting," Gilmore said. "I have no idea what he's talking about."

Capitol sources were agreed on one thing, however, the investigation of the Ritholz case was one of the best-guarded secrets around the Capitol in recent years.

Gilmore said the Attorney General's office had been investigating charges that Ritholz tried to bribe three members of the State Board of Examiners in Optometry for the last seven months.

The investigation, started when Republican Frank Millard was attorney general, was handed over to Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanaugh—a Democrat—without a leak.

Ritholz, president of the King Optical Co., with offices in 17 midwestern states, was arrested by state police Monday night in a room at the Hotel Olds.

Walled Laker Faces Manslaughter Count

An order for a warrant charging manslaughter was issued this morning against a 49-year-old Walled Lake man by Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor William E. Lang.

Named is Hubert Benton, of 3183 Woodlawn, who police said drove the car which struck Milton D. Andrews, 14, of 2515 S. Commerce Rd., Commerce Township, Monday as the youth rode his bicycle on Commerce near his home.

Andrews was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Benton, who failed to stop at the scene, was arrested after his car was forced to the curb by a witness, Charles E. Johnson, of Milford, who told police he was driving behind Benton and noticed his car was weaving on and off the highway.

After pleading guilty to drunk driving, Edward Miller, 26, of Detroit, was sentenced to 30 days in Oakland County Jail. Miller failed to pay a $100 fine and $35 costs assessed by Royal Oak Judge Fletcher Renton.

2 Men Plead Guilty to Part in Brawl

Two of nine men involved in a fight at a south-side drive-in restaurant Friday night pleaded guilty in Municipal Court yesterday to charges of being disorderly and creating a disturbance.

The pair, Billy Spicer, 19, of 48 Allen St., and Duane P. Bills, 23, of 354 Midway Ave., will be sentenced Tuesday by Cecil B. McCallum. Both were released on personal bond.

Bills' brother, Carl, 34, of 113 W. Colgate, hospitalized with a stomach wound, will be charged on the same counts when he is released from the hospital, according to Det. James Bale.

The six others were released because the complainant could not identify them, Bale said. Police said broken bottles and knives were used in the brawl, which put five of the participants in the hospital.

Detroiter Is Sentenced

Fred Sparks, 26, of 2180 Lillibridge, Detroit, has been placed on two-year probation and assessed $200 costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

Sparks pleaded guilty Aug. 1 to taking indecent liberties with an 8-year-old girl at Pontiac Lake July 24.

Hutmates Label Gallagher as Red Prison Camp Bully

NEW YORK, (AP)—Testimony of former POWs has pictured an American sergeant as a prison camp bully who caused three deaths during a bitter North Korean winter.

The court-martial of Sgt. James C. Gallagher yesterday turned to the deaths of two fellow prisoners. Hutmates of Gallagher said he tossed the sick and enfeebled men out of the hut and left them to die in 40-degree-below-zero weather.

The case of a third prisoner who died after allegedly being beaten by Gallagher was told in Monday's testimony.

* * *

Gallagher, a tall, 23-year-old red blond with a boyish-looking face, is the only American ever tried on charges of having directly caused the death of GI prisoners in North Korea. He is accused of unpremeditated murder, which is classed as second degree, and of collaborating with his Red captors.

Witnesses against Gallagher, whose home is in Brooklyn, said he curried favor with the Reds and got warm clothing and extra food while they shivered in regular Army fatigue uniforms and were ill from malnutrition. They said they were too sick to oppose Gallagher when he allegedly threw John W. Jones, of Detroit, and Donald T. Baxter, of Waukon, Iowa, into the cold.

Walter J. Bolinsky, a 23-year-old former POW from Bloomsburg, Pa., said he knew the men were alive at the time because he saw them move.

The next morning, Bolinsky testified, the men were stiff and dead in "approximately the same place they were the night before."

Czar Bill Doyle Loses Throne

Mackinac Island 'Ruler' Evicted by Governor's New Appointment

MACKINAC ISLAND (INS)—Wilfred (Bill) Doyle, czar of historic Mackinac Island for 15 years, lost control of his private empire today as Gov. G. Mennen Williams appointed a new chairman of the Mackinac State Park Commission.

Alna F. Sawyer, city treasurer of the island, replaced the chain store lobbyist who is his friend and neighbor.

Doyle was considered one of the state's most astute politicians in the history of the Republican party. He charged that he lost his job because of an unlicensed horse being driven by a Democratic politician.

Island residents were disturbed because John Chambers had been taking tourists for buggy rides without joining the local carriage tour association and complying with the association's rate of $2.50 per passenger.

NO LICENSE

Doyle last week asked Atty. Gen. Thomas Kavanaugh to arrest Chambers, a hard-working Democrat, for not getting a horse license from the Park Commission.

Doyle said:

"I was fired by Gov. Williams because the State Park Commission yesterday recommended a warrant against a local political henchman of the Governor's.

"He has been violating the rules of the State Park Commission.

"The Governor can trot out all the red herrings he wishes, but if this case is quashed by the attorney general, I shall lay all of the facts before the Legislatuure in a written complaint."

* * *

Most observers were certain that the man really responsible for Doyles' firing was Mayor Sam McIntyre, owner of a Mackinac Island hotel and one-time state police bodyguard of the Governor.

* * *

Doyle said:

"I know more about operating Mackinac Island than Sam McIntyre will learn if he lives to be 136."

Reuther Takes Part in Chrysler Talks

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO and the United Auto Workers, was to join union negotiators in contract talks with Chrysler Corp. today for the first time since bargaining sessions began in late June.

A union source said there was no significance to Reuther's attending the session but simply part of his policy of periodically sitting in on negotiations.

* * *

Today's session, scheduled for 1:30 p.m., was the first full-scale meeting in more than a week.

Sessions recently were split into two groups to discuss separately the problems affecting 109,000 production and office workers and 39,000 workers in Chrysler's Automotive Body Division plant.

The current five-year-pact with Chrysler expires Aug. 31.

The talks have been blanketed by a news blackout since they began.

The union's Chrysler Council made up of 147 delegates representing local unions, will meet Friday to hear a progress report on the talks.

Fund for Victim's Family Is Started

Residents of Keego Harbor today announced the opening of a fund drive to aid the family of Milton D. Andrews, 14, of 2515 S. Commerce Rd., who was killed Monday night when he was struck by a car.

The boy, survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrews, and two sisters, was killed while riding a bicycle on Commerce near his home.

Collecting place for the fund drive, according to a spokesman, is located at the Keego Hardware, in downtown Keego Harbor.

HAPPY'S BATTING — Former baseball commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler scored a victory over the Kentucky State Democratic machine in his bid for the gubernatorial nomination. Kentucky's governor 20 years ago, he defeated Bert T. Combs for the nomination.

Reserve Plan Changes Eyed

Ike Will Ask Congress for Major Revisions; Signs Three Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says he'll ask Congress early next year to make major changes in the new military reserve program, which he signed into law yesterday.

Eisenhower said the measure, product of three months of congressional wrangling, "falls short" of his recommendation. However, he signed it a few hours before the deadline for presidential action because, he said, it will "definitely strengthen the reserve structure."

The President yesterday signed bills extending the defense production and small business administration laws.

The defense production law provides for allocations and priorities in funneling materials to military and atomic contracts and help in building the capacity of defense plants. It also forbids ships and planes to visit Red China or to carry items destined for Red China.

The business measure increases the total revolving fund available for small business loans from 150 million dollars to 175 millions. It also increases the maximum loan a single firm may get to $250,000.

The Day in Birmingham

Mayor Charles Renfrew Sets Constitution Week

BIRMINGHAM—Through a proclamation by Mayor Charles Renfrew, local schools, churches and residents will become aware of the fact that Sept. 17 marks the 168th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States.

At the request of the Piety Hill Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Renfrew has declared that week, "Constitution Week." Nationwide recognition of the signing is being sought by DAR groups throughout the country.

Mrs. Royce Beers, regent for the local chapter, said yesterday that all school principals and clergymen are being asked to hold a special service for that purpose on Sept. 18.

School principals are receiving small written copies of the document signed Sept. 17, 1787 and in many cases will hold special assemblies in commemoration.

The DAR will present auditorium flags to two new schools, Pembroke and Beverly, at that time. The groups' regional convention has been planned for that week in honor of the occasion.

The city received bids today for construction of its first artificial ice skating rink, with completion anticipated for some time in November.

After study by the architects, the bids will be turned over to the City Commission, probably in time for Monday's meeting so that the contract may be awarded.

Voters approved a $125,000 bond issue in April for the Eton Park rink and parking facilities.

Jim Patterson, president of the YMCA Youth Adult Club, has issued invitations to men and women between 18 and 35 years of age to join the group, leaving the Y at 7 tonight for a swimming party.

Besides holding its regular meeting, Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary has scheduled election of officers for tomorrow, with members to gather at the Pontiac home of Mrs. Harold Grogg. A potluck luncheon at 1 p.m. will open the proceedings.

Coast Gets Ready for Connie Today

Air Force Base, Va., were evacuated to Wurtsmith AFB at Oscoda, Mich.

For New York City the weather bureau forecast winds of 25 to 30 miles per hour by tonight, reaching gale force tomorrow. The bureau said that by gale force it meant 39 to 54 miles per hour.

LEAVES CANCELED

The Coast Guard canceled all leaves in the Third District which covers Delaware, New York, New Jersey and parts of Pennsylvania and Connecticut.

Navy ships put out to sea to escape or ride out the storm rather than risk being battered at their docks. Military planes were run into hangars or flown to safer spots.

At Norfolk, Va., two pilots were killed when their plane crashed into the bay. The twin-engine aircraft had just taken off on a flight to safety from the hurricane.

Construction men worked through the night to make as secure as possible a 10-million-dollar radar tower being built at sea 100 miles off the tip of Cape Cod. A Coast Guard cutter stood by to take the men aboard in case it became necessary to evacuate the long-legged structure.

POLICE STAND BY

Along the Carolina Coast all highway patrolmen were standing by for emergency duty.

Navy aircraft carriers put to sea from Norfolk, Va., and Quonset Point, R. I. The supercarrier Forrestal, not quite finished in a shipyard at Newport News, Va., was made as secure as possible in her berth.

* * *

The storm was preceded by heavy surf along the shoreline.

In Washington the Federal Civil Defense Administration put its units on a 24-hour operation basis in the District of Columbia, Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

The American Red Cross announced that 37 hurricane disaster experts are stationed at strategic points along the coast and it is prepared to open shelters in the Carolinas.

In a six-week period last year three hurricanes took more than 250 lives and caused damage estimated at 1¼ billion dollars.

IN THE DAYS OF DAVY CROCKETT

Told by an Old Scout

When Travis got to be about soldier-age it seemed there'd be no more wars. England had learned to let the United States alone, the Barbary pirates had turned polite and the Indians no longer walked the warpath. Buck, however, kept in shape—just in case.

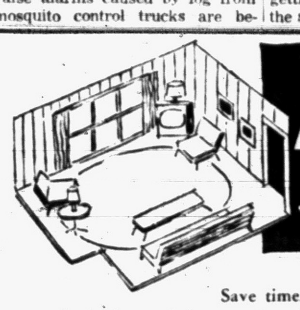

Being a powerful speaker like Davy Crockett, Buck Travis became a lawyer. When he was only 20 he was already pleading cases in court. After he'd make a special good case older men would predict: That boy'll make a great politician. They didn't know Travis!

Like Davy Crockett and Jim Bowie before him, Travis had a hankering to visit raw, new country. What lay beyond the western sun? Buck decided to find out. So he bundled up his law books, packed his kit bag, told his friends so-long, and headed for Texas.

Travis came to a town name of Anahuac, liked its looks and decided to settle. He put up his sign and opened for business as a lawyer. At first, some of the rougher citizens thought to make sport of him for a dude. They soon found out his red hair was real!

Teller Arrested as Embezzler

New York Bank Finds $46,000 Shortage After Auditor Check

NEW YORK (AP)—A young bank teller, who says $46,000 mysteriously disappeared from the bank, is being held on charges of embezzling the money.

William Gerard Gravius, 26, arrested yesterday at a summer bungalow in East Hampton on Long Island, told police the money disappeared after he set it aside to deposit in the bank vault last week. He said he was too scared to tell anyone about it.

The fact that the funds were missing was discovered in a bank audit Friday at the Hillside Avenue branch of the Jamaica National Bank. Gravius, who lives at East Meadow, N.Y., has worked at the bank seven years. His salary was $63 a week.

Police said he gave this explanation:

On the day before the audit he had taken $46,000 from his drawer and carried it to the vault. When he didn't find the head teller to check the money, he left it on the floor of the vault tagged with a slip saying it came from his account.

Three hours later he went back to the vault and discovered the money was gone but was too frightened to tell anyone about it.

Police said the teller was a frequent visitor to trotting race tracks and he explained a recent $2,000 deposit in his personal account as being the result of successful track bets.

AEC Gives OK to Detroit Edison on Atom Reactor

DETROIT (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission has approved plans for a breeder-type atomic reactor for Michigan.

The reactor is to be built by Detroit Edison Co. and 22 co-operating firms.

Details still must be ironed out with the AEC but it is expected the 54 million dollar unit will be turning out electricity by the end of 1959.

The reactor, intended for experimental purposes, will have a 100,000 kilowatt capacity.

There has been no announcement where the plant will be located.

IN MOTOR TRANSPORT GMC LEADS THE WAY

Even its looks carry weight

PRIMARY JOB of a truck is, of course, to carry loads. And this Blue Chip GMC is massively framed, ruggedly axled and mightily engined to do that with matchless competence.

But it also carries a lot of weight with people who judge your business—and you—by your equipment.

You can see what a picture it paints, with its classically smart lines—the flair of its panoramic windshield—the luxury of its cab. No doubt about that commanding respect!

And so does its Blue Chip performance. The V8 engine plays no second fiddle to a passenger car's flashing response. The Hydra-Matic Drive wastes no shifting time in traffic—permits neither engine nor rear-end strain in pulling loads.

So at work or play, this Blue Chip GMC speaks well of you—does well by you—and makes good your judgment every day you own it.

You'll be proud AND wise to put your name on a Blue Chip GMC. Come in and talk it over.

Appoint Doomed Priest Bishop—30 Years Ago

ATHENS (AP)—Fifty years ago, Spyridon Vlahos was a capable young priest. But he was afflicted with tuberculosis and the doctors had predicted he wouldn't last more than a few years. It was mainly to give him a break that the Holy Synod made him bishop of Konitsa although he was only 30 years old.

He is still going strong and has become Archbishop of Athens and Primate of all Greece.

Of his fellow-bishops of half-a-century ago, only one is alive.

U.S., Laos Raise Status of Missions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Indochinese kingdom of Laos announced today they are raising their diplomatic missions in each other's capital to the status of embassies.

That is the top category. Heretofore the missions have been legations.

The State Department, in an announcement timed to coincide with one issued in Vientiane, capital of Laos, said, "This diplomatic development is a symbol of the ever closer ties between the two governments."

U.S. Minister Charles Woodruff Yost will remain at Vientiane, becoming an ambassador.

Indian on Nickel Fined 2,000 of 'Em in Court

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Chief John Bigtree, whose nose appears on the Indian-head nickel, pleaded guilty in police court yesterday to a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $100 and his driver's license was revoked.

The 79-year-old Seneca chief was arrested last June 3 after his car struck a fire hydrant. He told Judge Truman H. Preston he had been driving since 1924 and it was his first offense.

The head on the nickel is a composite created by sculptor James Fraser from three representative Indian models.

Charles Bennett Left 'On Principle' but Made Fortune With BB's

DETROIT (AP)—You might say Charles H. Bennett is a man who gave up $30,000,000 for BB guns. And oddly, he's glad.

* * *

Now 92, Bennett is one of 12 men who scraped up $28,000 in 1903 to start the Ford Motor Co. Five of them—Bennett included—ditched the stock after two years.

The other seven held on 15 more years and became fabulously wealthy.

But Bennett, even in two years, didn't suffer. He invested $5,000, for this, Bennett made $5,000 in dividends and sold for $35,000 total profit of $40,000 in two years.

Why did he pull out? "It all was because of a transaction I objected to," he says.

The idea, said Bennett, was that those who were actively engaged in operation of the Ford Co. in its early days would freeze out those who merely had money invested in the firm. This would be done by setting up a holding company which would absorb the profits. Bennett says he was asked to remain, but:

DIDN'T LIKE DEAL

"I didn't like the deal—although it's common business practice. I believe in treating the other fellow as I'd like to be treated by him. So I got out, too. I'd do the same today."

Had he hung on, in 15 years the $5,000 would have brought him almost $5,000,000 in dividends and then could have been sold for another $25,000,000.

Today, Bennett and his cousin, Edward Hough, control the eight-million-dollar-a-year Daisy Manufacturing Co.—the largest BB gun firm in the world. They turn out five tons of BBs a day.

Bennett is a born salesman. That's why Ford wanted him and that's how he got started in the BB gun business.

Bennett was giving air rifles to farm youngsters while trying to sell their parents farm machinery. Hence, he became interested in BB guns and the Daisy factory was born.

"What more could a man ask? says Bennett. "No sir. I certainly have no regrets. What in the world could I buy with 30 million dollars?"

Grand Rapids Announces Traffic Record for July

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Police Supt. Dewey Beaver said today there were fewer traffic accidents in the city last month than in any month since travel-restricted World War II days.

A total of 619 accidents shaded the previous low of 672, set in June, Beaver reported. Beaver's report showed no traffic fatalities and only 69 injuries in July, compared with one fatality and 79 injuries in July 1954.

It revealed the 1955 total of 5,835 traffic accidents was about eight per cent lower than the 6,334 in the same period last year, considered one of the safest traffic years in the city's history.

Interesting to Both Rural and City Folks

Oakland County's biggest annual get together event now is in progress. Through the years it has grown to be one of our most substantial pride exciting institutions.

It is the 4-H Club and Agricultural Fair, being held on its permanent grounds out Perry Street, near the city limits.

This year's exhibition merits an increase over last year's attendance of 50,000, and that figure probably will be exceeded with good weather conditions. The fair closes Saturday when all exhibits will be released at four o'clock.

Already the largest event of its kind in Michigan, the fair gives the 2,500 Oakland County 4H Club members an opportunity to show both city and rural people what they are doing in a modernized program toward feeding all of us.

★ ★ ★

It is put on by young people who are recognized in their many communities as being outstanding in their thinking, love of hard work and desire to make this a better world than they found it.

Whether it is a farm product that runs on two or four legs or grows in the ground, at the fair you'll see in the raw what you buy across the counter in your market.

★ ★ ★

There you'll also see the handiwork in designing and dressmaking that puts to shame the work of the big city fashion experts in their efforts to accelerate feminine beauty.

And there you'll see that feminine beauty in its highest degree, for they also grow pulchritude out among the tall corn. There they can match or surpass any city product.

And these rural girls know how to boil water, make toast without burning, sew on a button or mend a sock. Likewise, if the milking machine breaks down or the tractor balks, they're on the job with a knowledge that meets the emergency.

★ ★ ★

No matter what may be your walk in life, you'll find many things to absorb your attention at the 4-H Fair. And you'll come away with a keener realization that no matter where we live we're not so far apart, either in distance or otherwise.

Tito Over Optimistic About Peace Prospect

A group of Americans who called upon Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia came away believing that he is far too optimistic about peace.

The visitors in fact felt that the West should be alert about everything that happens in Yugoslavia. This reaction was the direct result of Tito's expressed opinion that Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey should relax their defense preparations inasmuch as an attack by Russia no longer is imminent.

Another cause for concern was the Marshal's statement that the Yugoslav Communist party is ready to resume relations with the Russian Communist party.

At the same time Tito tried to reassure his guests that Yugoslavia would not again be a satellite in the Soviet led Communist bloc. Nonetheless his idea of a vast co-operative lineup of "Eastern and Western Socialist Parties," no matter how organized, stands out as a disturbing development.

★ ★ ★

There is some slight ground for the Marshal's optimism about peace. Obviously international tensions have been relaxed since the Big Four conference. Tito may be wholly sincere in his renewed protestations of continued friendship for the United States.

Nothing that has happened yet, however, or nothing that Tito told his visitors suggests anything but need for unceasing watchfulness by the West.

No Cause for Alarm

Housewives need feel no fear for the health of their families because the Board of Supervisors has asked for a State test of Oakland County dairy herds for Bang's disease.

The Board's action came following discovery that the disease known also as brucellosis, has infected some cattle in the County. Because this infectious and communicable ailment can be transmitted to humans in the form of undulant fever, the Board's request is a wise precautionary move.

Consumers are fully protected as long as they use pasteurized milk, Dr. John Monroe, County Health Director, told the Press. He added that the process of pasteurization is virtually a perfect safeguard.

A TIGHTWAD on vacation never spends enough to have an enjoyable time, and if he should, the expense would make him miserable.

Deer in Oakland County Increase at Rapid Rate

Responsible: The only way some men hold their wives.

Oakland County's deer population now is conservatively estimated at over 500. The largest herd is in Kent Lake Park, south of Milford, where

The Proud Lake area in Commerce Township also has a sizeable herd, and smaller herds are to be found northeast of Oxford, in big woods in Springfield Township, in the west part of Rose Township, and some in Holly, Orion and Oakland Townships, with scattered numbers in more than one-half of the county's 25 townships.

Styles for Women—and Men

David Lawrence Says:

U. S. Electorate Votes 'Against Things' Not for the Popularity of Candidates

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower is adopting a sensible attitude toward the question of whether or not he should accept re-nomination next year—and he is putting veteran politicians to shame by his approach.

* * *

For, as the President sees it—and he has hinted at it again and again in remarks to various groups—there is no indispensable man in America. He is right. If a major political party depends for success solely on the candidacy of one man, it may wind up with the discovery that the party's record is so weak that even a "popular" candidate can't win on it.

It is a strange myth which has wide currency that elections for the presidency are won on the basis of the popularity of a man. If this were so, William Jennings Bryan should have won at least once out of the three times he ran.

Few more popular figures have run for president than James Cox, three times governor of Ohio, Democrat, and a great campaigner who drew large crowds from coast to coast. He was defeated in a landslide by Senator Harding, who spoke a few times from the front porch of his Ohio home in the summer and autumn of 1920 and never made a speech anywhere else in the whole campaign. It wasn't any lack of personality in Cox or Harding's "popularity" that swung the election, as the Ohio senator was scarcely known throughout the country. It was the unpopularity of the record of the Democratic administration of President Wilson which turned the voters toward the Republican party in such great numbers.

TRUMAN UNPOPULAR

Mr. Eisenhower won in 1952 not because of his own popularity but because of the unpopularity of the Truman administration on the issues known as "Communism, Korea and Corruption." This correspondent in pre-convention days wrote that Eisenhower should be chosen as against Taft for the nomination on the theory that Taft couldn't win. But an examination of the election returns in November brought convincing evidence to the contrary—that Taft could have won in 1952, because it was primarily a negative verdict against the Truman administration which the voters recorded.

Do 50,000,000 voters really come to know any presidential candidate well enough to "like" him in a personal sense? They really like or dislike his views or the record he has made, and mostly they are swayed by three major issues—peace or the lack of it, prosperity or recession, integrity in public office or corruption.

President Eisenhower could win hands down, and so could any other Republican nominee if the election were held tomorrow. That's because, in the political sense, there's peace and there's prosperity and integrity in public office.

A year hence, if there's an economic recession and unemployment—as there was during the Congressional campaign of 1954, when the Democrats won the House and tied the Senate—even President Eisenhower would have a hard time winning. Likewise, if the peace situation is messed up and the "breaks" go against the President, he could be in political trouble in 1956.

IKE IS RIGHT

Mr. Eisenhower is right in being dubious about running again. He might ask himself why, if he has made a good record, a successor Republican could not benefit by it? He might ask why, if there's peace and prosperity and integrity in office, any Republican shouldn't win.

It has been said that Ike ought to have a good man in the Vice Presidency to succeed him if anything happens to him during a second term. Richard Nixon is probably better equipped to be president and better informed about the job than any vice president who has succeeded a president in office in 100 years. He has, of course, earned the undying enmity of the Communists, as well as various Left Wingers, New Dealers and Fair Dealers, but they will be found in the minority no matter who the Republican candidates are—provided there's peace and prosperity and integrity in office for the present administration to crow about in 1956.

Food Barons Rob Flour of Nutrients to 'Purify' It

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

Payday for the staff reminds me of (1) the $3 a week (sixty hours) I was paid when I worked in the brickyard in Canandaigua in vacation time, and (2) The wonderful dinner one could get for 25c at Statler's restaurant in Buffalo in the halcyon days—that was in the basement.

On the mezzanine a de luxe dinner cost 45c, we students were informed, and eight years later Mickey and I tried it, for our wedding breakfast, but I can't remember, though I have no doubt it was as good as one would expect a Statler meal to be.

Reverting to my $3 pay envelope—5c an hour—I tried to compute what the equivalent would be in terms of the purchasing power of the dollar today ... and all that sort of thing, but if there's anything that irks me ... never mind now, just suppose you are on the way home to wife and children when a gang of hoodlums overtake you, help themselves to the soft stuff, toss the small change back into the pay envelope and tell you to beat it.

WHO'S GETTING RICH?

Would you say you were enriched?

Have you ever noticed the word "enriched" on the package of white flour or on the wrapper of the loaf of bread you get at the store or market nowadays?

It means that the millers kindly restore to refined white flour some of the vitamins and minerals of which the wheat is robbed in the process of refining. This, according to government and nutrition authorities, is not only enrichment, but, by gum, it is "for better nutrition!" If you doubt it, you had better keep your trap closed or else.

The ultrarefinement of flour began away back before your time, even before my time, and I'm as old as the hills, the Bristol hills west of Canandaigua Lake or Bluff Point and other beautiful hills around Keuka (the two most beautiful Finger Lakes of Western New York, if you haven't seen anything yet).

GULLIBLE PUBLIC

But I can remember when flour was only as white as nature made it—before the food barons conceived the idea of bleaching it with chemicals and telling the credulous Yankee public this made the flour "pure."

Thereafter the snobbish portion of the population turned up their noses at the crude brownish flour produced by honest millers around home and demanded the "pure" white kind shipped in pretty packages from big mills far away.

Refined, bleached white sugar replaced "crude," "raw" or natural brown sugar in the same way.

* * *

So thoroughly misinformed, deceived and cheated are the majority of consumers today that they regard freshly milled or home ground whole wheat flour and undoctored natural or raw sugar as "not fit for human consumption"—and government and nutrition authorities intend to keep 'em that way.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

'Indignant Woman' Draws Comments From Readers

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Your correspondent, Indignant Woman, seems to be very much distressed and concerned about the immodesty of the men who leave off their neckties. It would be interesting to hear from that lady about the modesty of many of our teenage girls and young mamas who dispense with skirts and wear very brief 'briefs' these summer days.

The writer recalls that in the 'gay 90's' the girls in our high school always wore long skirts and high shoes, and so the appearance of a very few inches of stocking was quite unusual.

Bare arms in public also preceded bare legs; this correspondent recalls one time hearing mother and aunts discussing an immodest woman of those old days who was described as 'being right downtown in a dress without sleeves showing her whole bare arms in public.'

Indignant Woman, we shall be pleased to have some comments from you regarding the modesty of our present day maidens and young mothers.

Old Timer

Indignant Woman's letter should never have been seen in print. 'Indignant' means having just anger and scorn. Perhaps that accounts for such a letter.

She asks what this nation is coming to, and where our modesty is. Assuming she is still angry at the men, they are just now getting good sense. And the modesty left long ago when women came out in public dressed in shorts.

I commend the Press wholeheartedly. I am a shovel operator and know what heavy clothing and 100 degree heat is like.

E. Geyer

Birmingham

Certainly men should remove coats and ties during hot weather, and you don't have to wait until the temperature goes beyond 90. Anytime after 75 degrees, or Easter will do.

Men look about as well dressed in coat and tie on a hot summer day as a woman looks in a sunback dress in zero weather.

Belts are hot, too. Some fancy loosely-knit suspenders (flashy colored ones like a few years back) would look just as nice and probably serve much better.

Ann Advance

49 Camley Dr.

I would like to answer Indignant Woman. What a crime for men to leave off their ties when women are seen on the streets and in the stores with shorts, and I mean shorts, a shoestring around their bosom, and they are dressed.

Modesty? That went out with the horse and buggy.

Hurrah, men, take off your tie and more if you feel like it.

Gertrude L. Johnson

41625 14 Mile Rd.
Walled Lake

Indignant Woman asks what the nation is coming to. How about the women in shorts and halters on the street or wherever they care to go? Where is their modesty? Where is their sense of being a lady?

She doesn't condemn men wearing walking shorts (which look silly to me) but she wants us poor guys to strangle ourselves with a starched collar and a necktie. Could it be that she makes or sells men's ties?

Case Records of a Psychologist

Mother Finds Cause of Son's Atheism Lies in Poorly Adjusted Personal Life

Horace's mother destroyed his espousal of atheism by using the strategy described below. We doctors often by-pass the apparent problem because we know the real difficulty is deeper and maybe unrecognized by the patient. Scrapbook this interesting case and discuss it in your church groups.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-309: Horace G., aged 31, is a single man living at home.

"Dr. Crane, I am so worried about Horace," his mother protested.

"He just comes home from the mill every night and refuses to go out on dates, like other boys.

"He may sit and read till 1 or 2 a.m. And he argues that there is no God. He tells me he is an atheist.

"I've tried to prove him wrong, but he keeps making up new arguments and quoting leading authorities that take his side.

"I have brought him up in the Sunday school, so why should he develop this hostility to religion?"

DON'T ARGUE

It doesn't pay to engage in chronic arguments with an atheist. For atheism is usually just a symptom.

* * *

When a person has a headache, that headache is also a symptom. Maybe you have astigmatism and need properly fitted eye glasses.

To treat the headache with aspirin, simply masks the pain temporarily but the headache will be back again in the future.

The real cure is to delve to the root of the problem and then eradicate the basic cause.

When a person who has been brought up in a religious home, then tries to champion atheism, what is the diagnosis?

WHY DENY GOD?

Well, what's to be gained by denying God? Where does the atheist derive more peace of mind by trying to eliminate Deity?

* * *

"Cherchez la femme" is the motto of the French police, meaning, "Find the woman". Now we interpret that to mean, "Find the basic motive".

So an atheist usually has a basic motive. And one of the most common motives, at least in America, is his wish to eliminate a guilt complex.

A pickpocket seldom becomes an atheist, for he fears the police rather than God. And so does an ordinary burglar.

But a person who has indulged in self-sex practices, seldom thinks about the police.

PERSONAL SIN

For this is regarded as a personal type of sin between man and God.

Many victims of auto erotic habits work themselves into an abnormal mental state and may even end in mental sanitariums where they require shock therapy.

Indeed, there would probably be very few cases of insanity if we were not sexual creatures!

But many hardier personalities refuse to break under their inner conflicts. They may grow neurotic.

TWO EXTREMES

They may even rush into a fanatical devotion to religion and go to excessive extremes.

* * *

But they may also run just as vigorously in the opposite direction and deny religion or call themselves atheists.

For they subconsciously reason as follows: "If there is no God, then I am no longer guilty of violating divine laws. So I can thus feel relaxed."

The usual American atheist tries to deny God as a convenient means of attaining more freedom from inner conflicts.

But auto eroticism is a widespread and normal reaction, as measured by statistics, so millions have been needlessly alarmed thereby.

* * *

Send for my booklet, "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime. Use it to attain proper perspective.

Horace's mother eliminated his defense of atheism by by-passing the argument and leaving this booklet on his reading table.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

GM Lawyer Maintains Workers Must Pay Dues

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—An attorney for General Motors Corp. denied today that non-union workers would lose their jobs if they failed to join the CIO United Auto Workers.

However, the attorney, Frederic Anderson, admitted they would be required to pay an initiation fee and $2.50 a month dues.

Anderson's statements were attacked by attorneys for a GM employe as inaccurate and misleading.

Capt. W. Williamson, 83, Sailed Lakes for 45 Years

MANITOWOC, Wis. (UP) — Capt. William Williamson, 83, who began his career as a Great Lakes skipper as an 18-year-old master of sail, died last night at Memorial Hospital.

Williamson sailed Lake Michigan for 45 years, first with a sailing schooner, then for years as master of the motorship White Swan. He retired in 1945.

Poor Horses, Worn Out From 'Range' Exercise

TAMPA, Fla. (UP) — Mrs. H. W. Doyle complained that her four horses, with nothing to do right now except graze in a big pasture, always looked worn to a frazzle.

Investigation disclosed two boys, one 13, the other 10, had been slipping into the pasture and showing the gentle saddle horses how they thought western cowpokes would ride.

Juvenile Judge O. D. Howell issued an order tying the boys down to their own corral. At last report Mrs. Doyle's horses are looking (and no doubt feeling) much better.

Story Clues

Mr. and Mrs. Mallard had been doing some traveling in the west, and also been much occupied in furnishing a new home. They suddenly realized that they had not heard from their young son, attending a large boarding school in the East, for almost a month, so they sent off a chiding telegram, asking that he write them air mail immediately. The youth, who had been busy with his own concerns, athletic and otherwise, noted it was April First and decided it was time for a spoof. He wrote them in cryptic terms, leaving many of the words incomplete. He knew it would amuse them to figure out what news he had for them. The parents were able to fill in and understand the letter. How to Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 16. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, Aug. 16 for Bonanzagram No. 23. Address "Bonanzagram," % Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p.m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." This letter must reach the Press not later than 5 p.m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly Bonanzagram. If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

Civil Service Clears Agency Consultants

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Service Commission says the government had 174 consultants from industry on its rolls as of June 30, all of them serving legally.

Three have been found to be serving in industrial operating jobs in violation of regulations since the Eisenhower administration took over in January 1953, the CSC said. But all violations were corrected voluntarily, it reported yesterday.

* * *

In the period between 1950 and the advent of the present administration, 202 cases of violations among consultants were found, commission figures showed. Chairman Philip Young said, "The general trend in the number of violations has been sharply downward from the time of the first report in 1951 to the present."

* * *

The consultants are business or industry experts borrowed from private firms to help the government in their fields. They are paid up to $50 a day for each day actually worked, may receive expenses up to $15 a day and may draw travel allowances from the government. They also may receive their regular salaries from their own firms while serving the government.

RETIRED WORKER ENJOYS GOOD HEALTH

Mr. Jos. Craddock
7244 Farnum St., Inkster

"I'm glad to tell the readers of your paper about O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I was handicapped with rheumatism and arthritis for 10 years, but never too seriously, until about six years ago. Then, my left hip, both shoulders and arms ached terribly, and sometimes the pains spread down into my fingers. I used to shove my shoulder against the wall to try to ease the pain. Cramps in my legs kept me awake nights, and in the morning, it would take two or three efforts for me to get out of bed. I'm retired now, but used to work on a large machine for the Ford Motor Co. Even pushing buttons to operate it caused severe pain in my finger and arms. My wife was taking O-JIB-WA BITTERS at the time, and it helped her rheumatism, and calmed her nerves, so she thought it would help me too. Well, I started taking it, and by the time the first large bottle was finished, the pains were gone, but I took it longer just for good measure. Now, I'm not bothered with rheumatism or arthritis, my nerves are steady, and I sleep well. The cramps in my legs have left too, and I just feel good all over. My friends have asked me how in the world I regained my good health, and I'm always happy to tell them, its easy. Just get yourself a big bottle of O-JIB-WA BITTERS, follow the directions, and let this wonderful medicine do the rest."

Gettysburg Taking Ike 'In Stride'

GETTYSBURG, Pa.—One thing this proud but friendly battlefield town means to do: It is doing its best to take in stride its eminent part-time resident, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

You'll hear this determination stated by many of the town's 7,200 people who have found themselves neighbors to the President. Mostly they put it something like this:

* * *

"We're glad to have Ike living here — delighted, in fact. We're proud he picked Gettysburg, out of the whole country, as the place to buy a farm. And, if you come right down to it, it looks as if he's going to be good for the tourist business.

"But don't forget that Gettysburg was on the map long before any of this happened. We had a battle here — remember? and, much as we like him, Ike is not the first president to honor us with his presence."

And of course he isn't, although others haven't spent as much time here.

* * *

Gettysburg — and the country — will not forget the November day in 1863 when the lean, melancholy figure of Abraham Lincoln descended from a train (at the gray-painted station still standing here) and delivered a few words:

"Four score and seven years ago . . . . ."

Other presidents have come to Gettysburg — every one since McKinley, in fact.

But Eisenhower is the first chief executive to take up residence here. He lives — all this week and most summer weekends — in the roomy, air-conditioned house he rebuilt a little south of the town, a stone's throw from where Pickett's charge carried the Confederacy to its high water mark.

What does a town do when it finds a president in its midst?

Gettysburg has done the tactful, dignified thing. It found out what the President wanted, then tried to give it to him.

* * *

It made him welcome at the Presbyterian Church, where Lincoln worshipped that memorable day in 1863. The Gettysburg Country Club opened to him, and most good days when he's here see the President happily careening over the golf course in one of the colorfully painted go-carts which the club just happened to buy after it found out he liked them. It fixed up a private locker room for him.

Gettysburg enjoys having Mamie Eisenhower drop in for a round of shopping at the five-and-dime. It understands her husband's visit don't leave much time for such events as Lion's Club luncheons or corn-and-wiener roasts.

So Gettysburg's attitude is, for the most part, to give the President a smile and a wave and then to forget about him. The town knows he likes it that way. The town rather likes it, too.

Some folks here have worked up a lather over a report, published recently in a magazine, that the porches of houses overlooking the golf course are in demand as balcony seats when the President is playing.

Reporters and photographers playing behind the President checked on that one last weekend. The verdict: Not a peeker on any porch.

The President's total gallery on the last green consisted of three women and one little girl who wandered down from the swimming pool in bathing suits.

* * *

Another example of how Gettysburg takes Eisenhower in stride:

One weekend the President was playing with the club pro, Dick Sleichter. A newcomer approached Melinda Hauser, the pretty little lifeguard at the club pool, and asked which of the golfers was the President.

"Oh" said Melinda casually, without looking up, "he's the fellow that's playing with Dick."

Two Firemen Get Stung in Honey of a Situation

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Firemen here had a sweet assignment yesterday —but two of the smoke eaters got stung.

Fire Lt. E. L. Reuck told of the man who tried to remove a bee comb from a tree:

"He had cut a limb out in the section where the comb was located, about 40 feet up. Then the comb broke. It looked like nothing but a fire hose could wash up the mess . . . Only a couple of the fellows were stung. The man got stung three times that I know of—but it didn't seem to bother him like seeing that honey all over the place."

Mines Would Halt Trade

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A Taipei newspaper said today one of the best ways of stopping British ships from trading with Red China would be to mine ports on the mainland. The English-language China News said such action would make British shippers think twice before entering.

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The five-member Earl Drew family of suburban Grattan Township lost its household goods and personal belongings Monday when a fire leveled the Drew farmouse with losses estimated at $9,000.

Health Service OKs Another Salk Batch

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another batch of Salk polio vaccine has been released for general use.

The Public Health Service announced yesterday 1,177,068 cubic centimeters made by the Wyeth Laboratories, Marietta, Pa., had been released for use by state or local public agencies, or by private physicians. Each cubic centimeter is enough for one shot.

The new vaccine will go to the states on the basis of the number of unvaccinated children aged 5-9 in the state. It brought to 2,023,068 c.c.'s the amount allocated thus far for general use, as contrasted with the vaccine going only to the inoculation program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for first and second-graders.

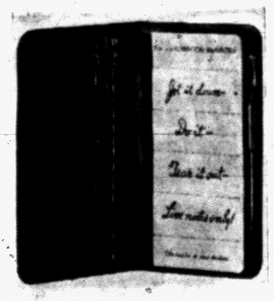

About 25 per cent of wives in the U. S. have jobs outside the home.

Too Much Ado Bugbear of Pair Wed 76 Years

SNYDER, Okla. (AP)—Two celebrations in one hot summer are too much, says a Kiowa County couple who observed their 76th wedding anniversary today.

A little over a month ago, neighbors helped the husband, W. A. (Uncle Bunch) Fullingim, celebrate his 100th birthday with a stag party at the home of a son. Only the family was invited to today's quiet occasion.

Fullingim and his 95-year-old wife Annie are natives of Texas. He was born in Clarksville, Tex., in 1855 and she was born in Decatur, Tex., four years later. They were married in Denton, Tex., in 1879.

They crossed into southwest Oklahoma in the 1890s and carved a cattle domain in the foothills of the Wichita Mountains.

Fullingim is believed Oklahoma's oldest active rancher. He enjoys visitors and journeys into town occasionally to keep track of acquaintances.

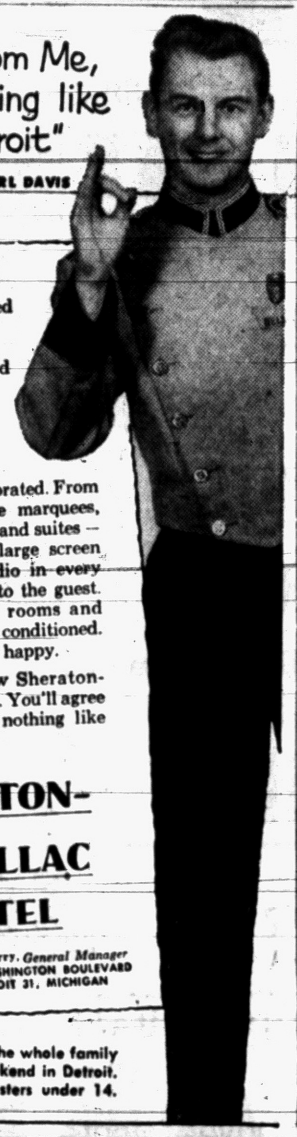

The observance at the ranch home today included a daughter, Mrs. Madge Walker, Altus, Okla.; two sons, Frank and Will, who live nearby; and three grandchildren.

Fullingim and his wife have their own recipe for a long and happy married life.

"I don't worry, and she does," he explained. "And it works out fine that way."

Employment Up All Over Nation

Labor Department Says Unemployment Average Dipped in July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Employment boomed in July to an all-time record of nearly 65 million, while the number of jobless dipped below 2½ million, the government reported today.

The fifth successive monthly rise in employment carried the total of jobholders to 64,995,000, or about a million above the previous record set only one month earlier. The total is three million above July a year ago.

Extraordinary brisk hiring of youngsters released from school contributed much of the gain, the Labor and Commerce Departments said in a joint report. They added the employment of adults in most industries "held up better than usual for this time of year."

"As a result, unemployment — which is normally stable in July — went down by 200,000 to 2½ million and is now almost a million lower than a year ago," the report said.

* * *

The tally of jobless was 2,471,000 as against 2,679,000 in June.

"The rate of employment increase during the past five months has not been matched since the postwar reconversion period of 1946." Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Secretary of Labor Mitchell said in the joint statement.

They reported about five million persons have been added to the employed total since February, 1955, as compared with an average spring and summer rise of three million in the 1947-54 period.

Power Line Break Closes Service in Detroit Areas

DETROIT (AP)—A break in a 120,000 volt Detroit Edison Co. power line left most of Detroit's lower west side and adjacent suburbs without electrical service for 45 minutes yesterday.

Until the power was switched to an alternate line police scout cars were without contact with their precinct stations. Several burglar alarms were set off when the emergency circuit switch was made.

Ten Die in Bus Crash

SEOUL (AP)—A crowded bus plunged over a cliff yesterday and carried 10 passengers to their deaths 90 miles south of Seoul. Twenty others of the 50 passengers were injured seriously.

Detroit Police Sell Titan Grid Tickets

DETROIT (AP)—If a Detroit cop stops you and tries to SELL you a ticket, don't think the heat's got him.

He'll be selling tickets, all right, football tickets.

The Detroit Police Department, in a civic gesture, said it will assist the University of Detroit in selling season football tickets to the Titan's home games this fall.

Has Bullet in Heart

EL PASO, Ill. (AP) — Andrew J. Stephens has a .22 caliber bullet in his heart and there is little he can do about it. An examination by a Chicago heart specialist showed that there would be more danger in removing the bullet than in allowing it to remain in his heart muscle. Stephens was accidentally shot when his cousin, Beulah Wanger, handed him a gun.

Toll Road or Freeway? Hot Controversy Continues in State

U.S. Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) told the Pontiac Press yesterday he is sure there will be no special session of Congress called to reconsider increased federal aid for road building.

An act stepping up the aid program cannot be expected at least until Congress reconvenes for its regular session in January, he stated. His decision was reached in conferences with top administrative officials before leaving Washington at the end of the recent session, Dondero explained.

The congressman's statement sheds some light on the confused status of the toll road proposed to be built running north-south through Oakland County.

It indicates the State Highway Department can expect no increase in funds which would speed up construction of a north-south freeway until at least next year. The freeway would take too much traffic from the toll road to allow the pay-highway's construction.

GROUPS SQUABBLING

The Highway Department and Michigan Turnpike Authority have been squabbling over whether the department will build a freeway or the authority a toll road.

A look at the background of the mix-up seems in order.

The Michigan Turnpike Act passed the Senate with one dissenting vote and the House 80-12 in the spring of 1953 and was signed by Governor Williams in June that year.

It created a "public benefit corporation, an agency and instrumentality of the State of Michigan" consisting of a five-man, unpaid commission including State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler and four appointees.

It was to investigate the feasibility of two turnpikes. One, from near Toledo to Bay City and another from Detroit west across the southern section of Michigan to its southwest border with Indiana.

The act loaned $500,000 from state highway funds to conduct necessary engineering studies and for administrative expense.

HELD FIRST MEETING

The authority held its first meeting Aug. 6, 1953 under chairmanship of William E. Slaughter Jr., of Birmingham. In September 1953, the authority retained four engineering firms to make preliminary studies.

In November 1953, the authority engaged First of Michigan Corporation of Detroit and Blyth and Co., Inc., of New York, as financial advisers and a group of 155 investment banking firms as prospective buyers of the initial revenue bond issue.

The preliminary engineering report on the north-south project was received in August 1954 and a general study route published. In September that year, it was decided the most logical first section for construction was 115 miles from Bridgeport south of Saginaw cutting through Oakland County to Rockwood.

The final engineering report was submitted in April 1955. It estimated cost of the 113-mile section at $164,000,000 (now about $198,000,000 including bond interest and financing costs).

Meanwhile, stiff opposition was breaking out among communities and home owners along the route.

The City of Dearborn filed suit against the Authority Feb. 16, 1955, alleging the authority's powers were in conflict with Michigan law. In June this year, Washtenaw Circuit Judge James Breakey Jr., ruled in favor of the authority and against Dearborn.

CASE ON APPEAL

The case is on appeal to the State Supreme Court. A decision is expected this fall. If it does not support the authority, bonds cannot be sold and the project will die.

In March this year, a group of residents along the proposed toll-road route in the Bloomfield Hills-Franklin area formed the Citizens Protective Association of Michigan, Inc., to "oppose construction of toll roads anywhere they may crop up in the state."

Their move was given impetus when State Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) introduced a bill to abolish the turnpike authority.

The largest public hearing in Michigan legislative history was held in Lansing April 20 to protest the turnpike, but both Broomfield's measure and a similar one passed by the House died in the Senate Highways Committee.

REVEALED PLANS

At this time, Ziegler revealed highway-department plans for a freeway between Detroit and Bay City which would compete with the turnpike.

He now says completion of the freeway over 103 miles from the John C. Lodge Expressway in Detroit to Kawkawlin could be done in five years and sooner if an increased federal aid bill is passed next year.

Completion time for the turnpike was first estimated at 39 months, but George N. Higgins, the new authority chairman named July 12 this year, asserts the toll road could be built in about two years.

Higgins, of Ferndale, has said if the freeway is to be pushed, the turnpike authority might as well dissolve itself. He has repeatedly asked Ziegler how the freeway can be financed and how soon it will be built. Ziegler has given no direct answer.

SURVEY CONDUCTED

Higgins has conducted a detailed survey of most of the route and says community and home-owner opposition has diminished to where it appears their objections can be overcome without major difficulty.

Failure of the federal-aid bill has prompted him to indicate a feeling the north-south freeway plans should be dropped and the turnpike pushed at top speed. Highway Department money which would be spent on the competing route might be better spent elsewhere, he has said.

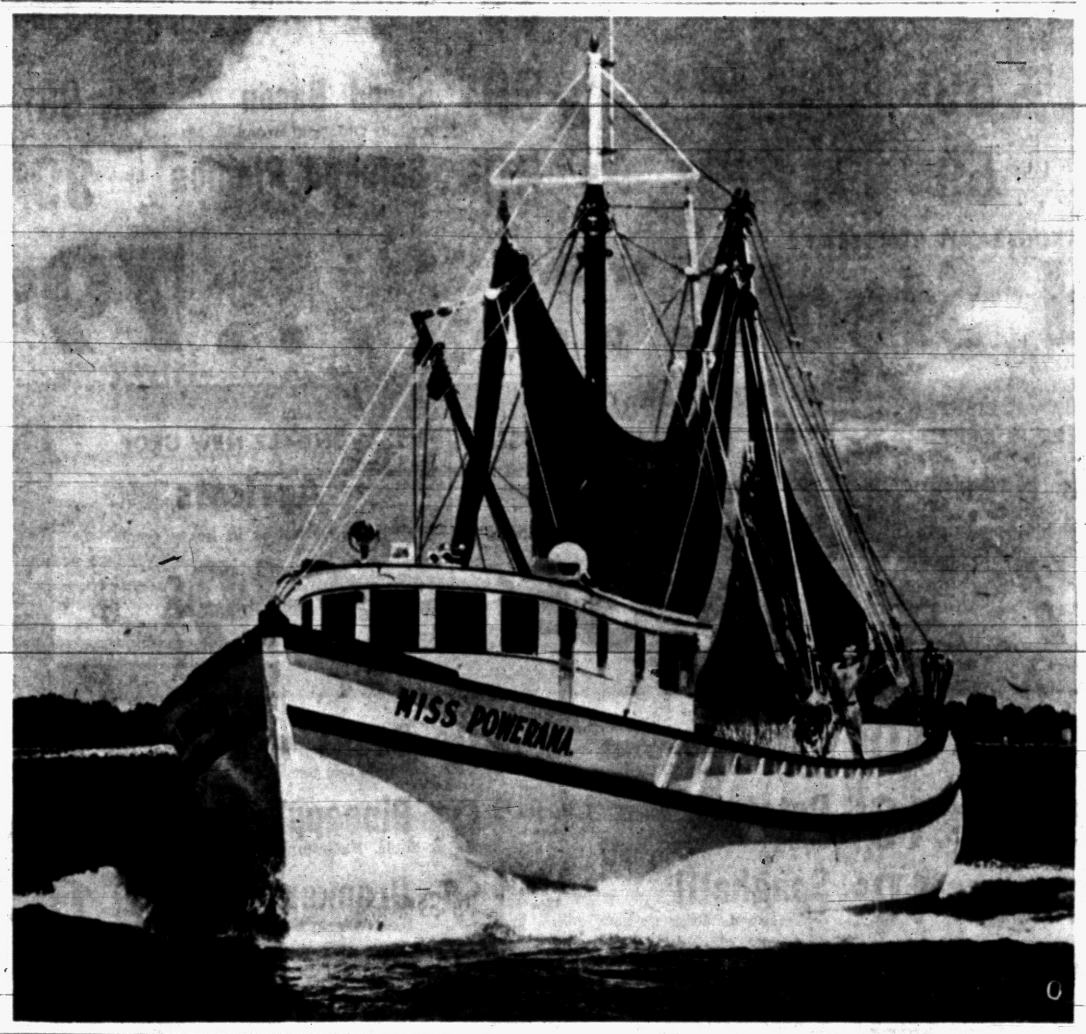

Ziegler, however, claims he is too far committed on the freeway to stop now. He asks the authority to wait for a Supreme Court decision and to see if Congress will pass an aid bill during its next session.

Higgins indicates the authority has waited long enough and should speed its project to assure that the badly-needed north-south route will be built. He asserts that Michigan can build more highways through prudent use of combined tax funds (which finance freeways) and toll charges.

Oakland officials feel the freeway plan has too many "if's." The County Road Commission and Supervisors' Road Committee have gone on record as approving the toll road.

PROPOSED FREEWAY ROUTE — Shown is the route of the freeway which State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler says he will complete over 103 miles from Detroit to Kawkawlin. The layout generally parallels that of the proposed toll road. If the freeway is built it will make the toll road impractical. The toll road would run in the comparatively open area east of Pontiac. Ziegler plans the freeway to run through the heavy residential area west of the city. The nearly-completed Lodge Expressway in Detroit forms the planned freeway's south end. Two other portions have already been built—the east bypass of Saginaw and the west bypass of Flint. Ziegler says the freeway could be completed in at least five years at cost of $115,000,000.

SHRIMP BOAT—"Miss Powerama," the first shrimp boat ever to cruise on the Detroit River, is shown before newsmen boarded her yesterday as guests of the Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors. The craft arrived in Detroit after sailing up the Atlantic Coast and down the Inland Waterway from Florida. It will proceed to Chicago to take part in "Powerama," a world's fair of diesel and aircraft power being presented by GM from Aug. 31 to Sept. 25. Detroit Diesel builds the power plants for about 60 per cent of the 4,000 shrimp boats operating along the Gulf Coast.

Shrimp Boat Makes Detroit Debut

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

It was cool and breezy riding a shrimp boat on the Detroit River yesterday.

"This reporter is nuts," you say, "ther are no shrimp in the Detroit River."

True enough, but the voyage —a historical first—was made replete with an accidental stowaway and rescue of two youths who ran their outboard motorboat under a wave while racing the shrimp trawler.

"Miss Powerama," a 67-foot Gulf Coast shrimper, was recently built in St. Augustine, Fla., for the Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors.

DIESEL-POWERED

Detroit Diesel builds the power plants for some 60 per cent of the 4,000 shrimp boats operating along the Gulf Coast, explained S. E. Knudsen, the division's general manager, as he munched most appropriately on one of a bountiful supply of iced shrimp served newsmen.

Powered by a 300-horsepower diesel built by the division, the trawler came up the Atlantic Coast from Florida, through the Inland Waterway, the Erie Canal and the Great Lakes to Detroit.

The vessel will now head for Chicago to be displayed at the "Powerama," a world's fair of diesel and aircraft power being presented by GM from Aug. 31 to Sept. 25. The event marks the production of the 100-millionth diesel horsepower by GM plants.

After the voyage was nicely under way a woman stowaway was discovered. The lady didn't care to give her name, but explained she had come on board to make final catering arrangements and didn't realize the boat had slipped anchor.

Mate Douglas W. Dean, of Daytona Beach, Fla., was heard to mumble something about women bringing back luck on shrimp boats and the lady was put ashore—with no objections.

CRAFT UPSET

When the boat arrived opposite downtown Detroit, two 15-year-old youths in a motorboat zoomed up to race. Their craft hit a swell and nosed under. The bedraggled and chagrined pair were taken aboard and their boat in tow. They perked up considerably when fed coffee and shrimp. Knudsen said he would have their 25-horse motor reconditioned.

Capt. George Sperry, of Daytona Beach, was quizzed on the methods, trials and tribulations of supplying the American shrimp fancier with the culinary delight.

The shrimp move in schools and cover a wide area propelled by strong tails, Sperry explained. The first problem is finding them. A small "try-net" is dragged and examined for shrimp at regular intervals.

When the small net nails some shrimp, its larger brother is thrown out capable of dragging the ocean bottom at depths up to 900 feet.

The net is dragged for periods up to an hour, then pulled in and dumped on the deck. All sorts of things besides shrimp are apt to pour out including small sharks, crabs and 6-foot sting rays.

A board crosses the deck to keep the crabs—"always mean before a rain"—from scurrying into the galley and pilot house. The dangerous sting rays are roped by the tail, swung overboard and their tails cut off dropping them back into the water. A sting on the hand from one can cause the whole arm to swell painfully.

GOOD HAUL

Some 20,000 pounds of shrimp is considered a good haul for one trip. They are sold at 46 to 54 cents a pound.

Capt. Sperry swears by shrimp fishing as a "fine job," but Mate Dean says "it's no place for a family man." He's going into the tugboat trade.

U.S. Will Ease Arrest Policy in Alien Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Immigration Service plans to stop arresting aliens in most deportation cases.

Instead, it will serve an alien with an order to show cause why he should not be deported.

Immigration Commissioner Joseph M. Swing, announcing the plans yesterday, said the new action "will relieve many aliens from the stigma of being served with a warrant of arrest and being placed on parole or being forced to post bond."

The new regulations will be adopted sometime this fall unless public reaction causes some changes before then.

Driver License Bureaus Open

New System Facilitates Issuance of Permits in Out-County Areas

In a move to facilitate issuance of drivers licenses throughout Oakland County, Sheriff Frank Irons today announced a schedule for six license bureaus located in out-county communities.

The branches will be open each week at the following times:

Monday — Farmington Township fire station from 1 until 8 p.m. and at the Troy Township Hall from 2 until 8 p.m.

Thursday—Walled Lake fire station from 1 until 8 p.m. and at Orion Township Hall from 2 until 8 p.m.

Friday — Holly Police Station from 1 until 7 p.m.

The main office at the Oakland County Jail is open daily from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. except Wednesday when it remains open until 9 p.m. On Saturday, the bureau closes at noon.

Irons pointed out that the out-county bureaus have been established for residents who find it inconvenient to make a long drive to Pontiac to renew their licenses.

The bureau, which processes more than 150 applications and renewals daily, last year took in $51,643 and so far this year has totaled $41,078 worth of licenses, according to Amelia A. Sach, bureau supervisor.

Irons said that a police officer will be on duty at the branches to give tests to prospective licensees. He also warned that applicants under 18 years of age should have their fathers with them to sign the license application form.

Officers on duty at the jail here administer road tests daily until 3:45 p.m. except Saturdays. Tests are given until 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Massachusetts Boys Camp Reports Polio Outbreak

BOSTON (AP)—Five cases of polio were reported today among 114 boys attending a summer camp at Middleboro, Mass.

The report came as the 1955 polio total in the six New England states rose to 1,189 compared with 240 in the corresponding period last year. The disease has taken 34 lives.

Dr. William Fishman, director of Camp Avoda at Middleboro, which caters to boys from New York and Boston, said he had written the young campers' parents advising them that every precaution is being taken.

Strippers Often Net as Little as They Put On

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW ORLEANS (INS)— There are more than 200 "strips" in New Orleans. And they bear no resemblance whatever to the Sunset Strip in Hollywood, the bacon strips on calf's liver or the gear strips by eager autoists.

These are the kind of strips that are usually blonde, weigh about 140 pounds, make $50 a week if they're lucky, and do a disappearing act with superfluous outerwear.

"Poor little things," coos a woman named Loni Stoltz. "They can hardly afford what they go offstage in, much less what they wear at the start of a show."

Because she is sympathetic, and also because it's a way to make an honest living, Loni is the official "strip-teasers' couturier" in the French quarter of New Orleans. She makes budget-priced clothes to be discarded—"in no less than two minutes, no more in three"—by the ladies of the Minsky set.

Proud is she to be called the flimsiest fashion designer in town!

NO MORE SEQUINS

Loni, who is petite and brown-haired and reminiscent of trustworthy baby sitters with her wide eyes and soft voice, says there is a definite trend away from too much glitter in the strip-tease business. (Which has never ceased to flourish in New Orleans over the last 100 years.)

"They used to wear heavy sequin ball gowns, but my goodness, they were so expensive and so—uh—inconvenient, you might say.

"Now the girls prefer to look more simple and boudoir. For some reason or other, it appears to appeal more to audiences and it is lots cheaper."

French quarter strips, she says, can get by nicely on a $30 gown and negligee set—all nylon tulle and washable, of course. The undergarments, referred to blushingly by the designer as the "bare essentials," can be purchased for a total low cost of $5.49.

"And they last, with good treatment, for several months," she assures us. "Although I am told that lately there is considerable theft of little odds and ends of attire among the girls."

THAT BLUE ROOM

If you ask politely, Loni will bring out a few of her most sensational stripping styles from the blue room, which is just behind the rack of short-short chiffon chemises in her Bourbon street boutique.

"This is similar to the one I sold 'The Cat Girl' recently," she says, holding up a net negligee of such fullness it would wrap up a menagerie of cats. Around its hem are fan-shaped insets of lace, each topped with a pink satin bow, and at its top is a frothy puritan collar, framed in fluffy caribou.

"Real chic and mod-ren, isn't it?" she sighs. "It cost $74.95, but that didn't scare 'The Cat Girl.' She makes about $2,000 for a week of strips, you know. She's divine."

Loni got into this business only three years ago, she claims, because of a man. Her ex-husband. After her divorce, she went to stay with a girl friend because she was not feeling very well and one day her "ex"—hearing she'd been ill—came to call.

EX EXPRESSES

When he arrived, the girl friend admitted him. She was wearing a lacy, frilly hostess gown. Loni was wearing a cotton brunch coat. Ex remarked, with that rare frankness that lovers-turned-friends possess: "Gee, Loni, why didn't you ever wear anything like that?"

"I have been putting bows and lace on clothes ever since," she says.

In her present business which nets her, in this strip-happy settlement, about $4,000 any good month, Miss Loni says she has few technical problems. All her girls like the same styles: Black boudoir fashions ("98 per cent of my sales are black, with only an occasional red"); hook or snap fastenings ("zippers are undependable"), and as many trimmings for as little cost as possible.

* * *

She showed me her latest model, a lace coat reaching from chin to thigh, and concluded "well, that about covers everything."

Not quite, we'd say.

Concrete Walls of Bathroom Protected Animals in Yucca Flats H-Bomb Test

This is the second of four articles on how to survive a hydrogen bomb attack.

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Four homes tell part of the story of survival against H-bombs.

They stood on Yucca Flat in Nevada less than a mile from the center of an atomic blast nearly twice as powerful as the bomb that killed 70,000 Japanese in Hiroshima.

* * *

A two-story brick house was demolished. But its basement and its shelters came through intact.

Next door, a one-story frame rambler was smashed into rubble. It had no basement haven.

But part of this rambler house did stand up—the bathroom. Inside were two tail-wagging, barking dogs, showing no immediate signs of injury.

This bathroom was specially made. It had thick concrete walls, a blast door and window that recessed into the wall when not needed. The blast door and window had been closed.

The A-blast last May gave a test of this built-in shelter; which cost $500 when the rambler was constructed.

* * *

A safe haven for humans? Very probably, at this distance from that powerful A - bomb. Or safe if it were in a house at a five-mile distance from an H-bomb 1,000 times more powerful than the Hiroshima bomb.

Atomic weapons lash out not only with the blast, but with heat and with radiation. At this distance of less than a mile from an explosion of this power, the rambler house probably was bathed with X-rays of 400 to 450 Roentgens. That dose of X-rays would be fatal to about half of humans exposed to it.

The concrete walls of the bathroom shelter soaked up or stopped much of the X-rays. Studies will show whether humans would have been made sick by such X-rays even if they had survived the blast and the heat. The concrete stopped the heat waves.

* * *

This X-ray radiation is immediate, and over very quickly, like the X-rays that take a picture of your chest. They did not make the bathroom walls radioactive.

The lesson: This bathroom shelter greatly boosted the human chances of living through that close to an atomic blast of that power.

Next door to the rambler houses were two other one-story houses, one of precast lightweight concrete, the other of reinforced lightweight cinder block.

* * *

They were damaged, structurally, a bit, but easily repairable.

These two houses pointed up one very important survival lesson—the necessity of avoiding flying glass or other objects. The windows in these concrete houses were smashed, spreading a lethal gravel of glass that ripped the bodies and clothes of mannequins, slashed the curtains, pitted the walls. Doors blew in, and bits of venetian blinds became dangerous bullets.

* * *

But there were places, in corners or in hallways, or behind furniture, where this lethal spray of broken glass and flying objects would not have reached. Humans who had ducked into such places, or even behind stuffed furniture or into a fireplace, would have stepped up their chances for survival or even escaped from injury, that close to a bomb more powerful than those which burst over Japanese cities.

Don't Urge Tot-Talk

If you start telling baby that he can't have his ice cream until he finishes up his other food, you're in for trouble.

He'll get the idea lodged in his head that sweets are superior to plain food. And you won't be able to dislodge it.

A Step in Time

Wrap melon and banana skins immediately after enjoying the goodies. We don't know where they come from in nothing flat, but such skins are the quickest lures for fruit flies ever seen.

Check Iron Items for Rusty Spots

Iron furniture, particularly outdoor furniture, should be checked for rust spots. These can spot clothing or weaken the furniture over a period of time.

Remove spot with fine steel wool, then paint over area. Spots can also be treated by rubbing with a paste of rottenstone and oil. Polish with a clean, dry cloth.

Save Plastic Bags

Save bags in which lettuce and carrots are packaged these days. They make wonderful wrappings for a piece of onion you'd like to store in the refrigerator, and are fine for throw-away picnic sandwich bags.

2 Teachers Run Saline Mill Plays

Schoolmarms Work Summers Producing Stock Company Acts

To many school teachers summer is a time reserved for pleasing only themselves. But, in the case of two young area teachers, it's the season when they seek to charm an even more critical group—audiences of adult playgoers.

* * *

Margaret Booth, a native of Birmingham, has been the Saline Mill Theater's apprentice supervisor. She will join the staff of Denby High School, Detroit, in September, as an English teacher.

Barbara Hamel is founder and producer of the group who make up this small summer stock theater located at Saline, eight miles south of Ann Arbor.

Miss Hamel teaches speech and dramatics at Kingswood School, Cranbrook.

The teachers live at the old Schuyler Mill or in a nearby country hotel. The plays are presented in a machine shed behind the mill.

Betty Ellen Irish Becomes Bride of Neil E. Watson

Betty Ellen Irish became the bride of Neil Eugene Watson, at First Baptist Church, Lake Orion, Saturday evening.

* * *

Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Everett Irish of North Shore drive, Lake Orion, and Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Watson of Richmond avenue, Pontiac, exchanged nuptial vows at a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Walter C. Ballagh at seven o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a ballerina length lace gown of ice blue. The neckline was trimmed with opalescent sequins. Her bouquet was of white roses and white gladioli.

Patricia Madonia of Lake Orion, maid of honor, wore a pink sheath gown and carried an arrangement of pink carnations.

David Gray carried out the duties of best man.

A reception was held in the chapel undercroft immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Ernest Chauvel, Mrs. Jeff Axsom, Mrs. C. B. Clark and Mrs. Cecil Irish assisted at the reception.

The couple will make their home in Pontiac.

Large Earrings Are Latest Fad

The new look in earrings is the big look. Bold buttons, sometimes flat, sometimes domed, clasp the ear. Handsome tassled drop earrings sway with animation beneath small head hugging berets, flat sailors and deep cloches.

Large textured geometric designs are impressive attention getters, and ridged squares are king-size and almost too big to be believable.

There's an aura of the East in bangle bracelets that mass at the wrist or almost cover skinny-tight-at-the-wrist foresleeves.

Narrow or wide, textured in interesting patterns and highly polished, and often set with stones in bright gem colors, they add a touch of drama to the understated fall silhouette.

If You Must Pursue the Boys — Be Subtle

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: Nearly two months ago my boy friend broke up with the girl he was going with 'because of me.' He said he didn't like her any more and was looking for a reason to break up with her.

"I took it for granted he liked me enough to do that, but now I wonder if I was just an excuse and after I was so used I was no longer wanted.

"He isn't the girl-chasing type; he expects the girl to come to him we had a lot of dates and he kissed me a few times. We went steadily together until he went to camp, and now he seems to have forgotten me.

"It's a custom for steadies to go out a last time before parting for the summer, and he didn't even do that. He hasn't written me a word. He isn't the type to write, or to love and forget. So what's wrong? He told me with the other girl he didn't think it was right to drop off and not let her know why. But he hasn't told me anything. Am I being jilted?"

Answer: Could be. But you might as well find out. No point in stewing silently when it's so easy to do something about it. And the simplest thing is to write to him.

He may be no good at letter-writing. He may be quite caught up in his holiday activities. He expects his girl to make a fuss over him. She's supposed to make the moves. I'm wondering what has kept you silent for so long?

Sit yourself down and write. In brief, tell him what you've been doing since he left. And how is camp this year? Good kids, good food, plenty going on?

Chat along merrily as though you were sure he would be glad to hear from you. Act as though nothing had happened to make you doubt and fear. Tell him you'll be glad to see him when he gets home and it won't be too long now, thank goodness, 'cuse things just haven't been the same with him away.

* * *

If he wants his girl to come to him, go ahead and do it on paper. It will remind him of his sins of omission. And if you don't scold him, he might get up his courage to write back.

He'll know that you'll be right there waiting for him when he gets home. Call it chasing, if you must. But it's the forgivable kind. It's what he likes.

* * *

And remind yourself that though he didn't take you out for that last date before the summer set in, he also didn't give you any big break-up speech.

* * *

He claims to think it's necessary and fair. And he said nothing. So tell yourself he didn't mean to say anything, because he didn't mean any break-off. It will make your letter easier to write.

Contemporary Furniture Features Legs

The graceful curve and the shapely leg rate a second glance in furniture, too. New, contemporary designs that employ these devices have more in mind than glamor, however. The light-looking result doesn't crowd limited floor space. But there is nothing fragile about the construction.

* * *

Many of the designs prove that comfort and sturdiness are not synonymous with massive lines. I've even heard some strongly opinionated men who classed all "modern" as too delicate change their tune.

One place where the trend to light-but-sturdy design is especially welcome, in my book, is in dining-room tables and chairs. With the children getting bigger and more social, our cozy dinette table is caught in the squeeze.

Some of the new, modern tables I've seen can seat six comfortably. They open up to handle 10 plus the dishes. At the same time, they are given the open, airy treatment that keeps them from visually hogging the room.

Dining chairs that are comfortable enough to double as occasional chairs also make sense to this homemaker.

TAPERED LEGS

Designer Sanford Wallack, for example, has included chairs in his dining-room group that have padded, curved backs and generous seats. Although the slender, tapered legs look light, they are skillfully braced so that a gentleman of ample dimensions could safely tip his chair back if he were so inclined.

This may seem a minor point to you, but I've paid too many repair bills for chairs fractured in this way not to look for sturdy construction in the future.

The dining table is supported by half-moon-shaped pedestals at each end, brightened with brass bands. More lightness is added by an open apron around the table edge, sparked by slender brass rods.

A buffet in the group, finished on four sides, has a removable deck so that it can be used as room divider. Accenting the pale beige finish are sharp accents of black — a black drawer on the buffet or china cabinet, black upholstery on the chairs.

* * *

Side chairs in the light and airy manner provide contrast to the bulky upholstered pieces in a living room. In one collection, a horseshoe-shaped chair is framed with tapered spokes all around. Again the curve of the back and the slope of the arms is geared for comfort as much as for style. Occasional tables include a tiny tripod table just large enough for ash tray and glass, and lamp tables that are round and have clear glass tops supported by tapered spokes, instead of the conventional legs.

Wind Harms Clothes

Clothes dried outdoors are whipped by the wind and faded by the sun; they're worn out, pulled and frayed long before their time. That's expensive! But a gas clothes dryer saves your money and your clothes.

Accept Kind Invitation of Date's Parent

One May Properly Visit Boy's Mother if Asked

By EMILY POST

A mother writes: "My daughter has a steady boy friend, but she is not engaged. I've never met his mother, but have talked with her on the telephone several times when she has called here to speak to her son. The last time she said to me, 'You must come over ssometime to see us.'

"No date was set, nothing further than that was said. I'd like to meet her, but am I to take this invitation seriously? Would it seem too eager since I'm the girl's mother?"

Answer: Having already invited you to come, it is entirely proper for you to telephone her and say you would like to accept her invitation to come to see her, and wonder if that afternoon would be convenient for her.

"Dear Mrs. Post: We live in a big city. Very soon I expect a friend of mine who lives in a distant city to spend part of her vacation with us. I know she will want to take in everything while she is here.

"I would like to know if we are expected to pay for her entertainment. We are in modest circumstances and have to watch our budget. Might she be allowed to pay her own way?"

Answer: It is really not expected of any host to go beyond their means in entertaining their guests. If she offers to pay the way and you know she is able to do it, it is quite proper to let her do so.

If she can't, you must explain your budget limitation and just not do the things you cannot afford.

Face Your Unconscious Resentment

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

You saw the suit yesterday in a downtown shop. Its price is $29.95, and you're going downtown to get it as soon as you've put away the lunch dishes.

Then you discover you're not. For the telephone rings and your family dentist says, "Betty's X-ray shows four cavities. I estimate her bill at about $30. Can she see me on Tuesday at 3 o'clock?"

You say "Yes," hang up—and Betty, leaning over the upstairs banister yells, "Mother, can Margy and I make some chocolate milk? Can we bring it up here to my room? Can we . . ."

You cut her off. You shout, "Can't you think of anything but eating? Have you finished cleaning your closet yet? Or have you just been giggling with Margy over movie magazines up there? If that closet isn't finished, let Margy go home—and you finish your work!"

Between you and the two children on the upstairs landing there trembles the unspoken accusation, "Mean old crab!"

You're not a "mean old crab." You're just a woman who wanted a new suit—and resented surrendering it to the child's right to first consideration.

Why didn't you say you were? Why, instead of grabbing Betty's pleasure from her didn't you express what you feel at losing yours? Why didn't you say, "No chocolate milk. I don't feel like being nice just now. I have to give up my new suit because you need your teeth filled. I know you can't help it—but I'm disappointed anyway. So leave me alone till I get over it . . ."

Because you didn't truthfully express your envy of childhood's claim to sacrifice from you, you gave her an untruthful impression of you. You made her see you as an arbitrary killjoy instead of what you were—a naturally disappointed woman.

Let's begin to express this envy truthfully.

Otherwise, we can often look like "mean old crabs." After a bout of ironing we'll envy daughter's heedless swinging in the lawn hammock—and instead of expressing our feeling, snap out a sharp reminder of an errand to be done. We'll meet a son's joyful announcement of swimming plans with an irritable, "Weren't you supposed to mow the lawn this week?"

How foolish!

Since our envy of their light-hearted irresponsibility is quite natural, children can easily accept our direct announcement of it. What they don't understand is the killjoy attack through which we express it when we don't accept it as natural.

Social Spotlight Turns to Weekend Weddings

'Golden Touch' Brightens Tweed

The "golden touch" is the magic jewel-brightener for tweeds, the important browns, and the new knitted fashions. Textured surfaces and scratch finishes, reminiscent of old hand-crafted jewelry, are the news!

Chunky gold, with a geometric motif, fashions high riding chokers, handsome against a background of muted tweed or cashmere.

Huge golden discs, sometimes round, sometimes irregularly shaped, are linked together, belieing their look of heaviness by resting as lightly as a feather at the throat.

Gold combined with beads, color-coordinated to fall fashion hues, creates important necklaces that set a pace in color and brightness for the entire costume.

Matching bracelets are bold enough to wear alone, or, for double drama, in sets of twos and threes. Smooth, highly polished gold also sparkles on fall ensembles, sometimes combined with textured surfaces.

Janice Elaine Fosmoen, daughter of the Thomas Porters of Willard avenue, became the bride of John N. Helzer, Saturday evening. He is the son of the George Helzers of Perry street.

MR. and MRS. JOHN HELZER

Helzers Tour Wisconsin

Mr. and Mrs. John Nell Helzner, now honeymooning in northern Michigan and Wisconsin, will reside on Oakland avenue.

The bride is the former Janice Elaine Fosmoen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Porter of Willard avenue. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Helzner of Perry street.

St. Trinity Lutheran Church was the setting for the 7 o'clock ceremony performed Saturday evening before an altar banked with white gladioli. The Rev. Ralph Claus officiated.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Rose Pointe lace over white satin. A scalloped band of pleated nylon tulle and Rose Pointe lace was fashioned in the bouffant skirt, which ended in a chapel length train.

A headpiece of small pearls secured the bride's veil of nylon tulle and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

SISTER ATTENDED

Jeanette Compton of Walled Lake attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a strapless gown of white lace over powder blue with matching lace jacket, and carried a bouquet of blue, white and pink gladioli.

Eva Harris, Joan McLean and Donna Helzer were bridesmaids wearing gowns like the maid of honor's in shades of pink, aqua and orchid, respectively. They carried bouquets of assorted gladioli.

Sharon Helzer and Pamela Compton wore blue nylon floor length dresses for their duties as flower girls. They carried baskets of rose petals. Gregory Compton served as ring bearer.

George Helzer served as best man and seating the guests were Jack Helzer, Bobby Helzer and Larry Fenely.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Amvets Hall on Oakland avenue.

Honeymooning in North

Honeymooning in northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Kehl. The bride is the former Mary Lee Ashbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ashbaugh of Marquette street.

* * *

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kehl of Osmun street.

St. Michael Church was the setting for the 9 a.m. ceremony performed Saturday.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of satin and Chantilly lace, with rhinestones trimming the bodice. A tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones secured her veil of illusion and the bridal bouquet was composed of white carnations.

Carol Ashbaugh was her sisters only attendant wearing a ballerina length gown of aqua crystalline. She wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Jack Campbell served as best man.

A breakfast was held, following the ceremony, at Devon Gables. The bride's mother wore a dress of rose nylon over taffeta with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a powder blue and white silk dress with white accessories.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride was wearing a white linen suit with matching accessories. Upon their return the couple will reside on West Lawrence street.

Handy Hints for Teenage Wardrobes

Back-to-school shopping is fun for mother as well as daughter—but not when mother has to do a retake! "All the girls are wearing—" is a maddening (and expensive) reminder that fashion news travels fast in the younger set, too.

* * *

Youngland's Helen Lee, famous designer of little girl dresses summarizes the surfire trends in the field as briefing for both adults and children:

1. The jumper dress with one bright colored, one white and one print blouse and various sweaters is a must this year. It has replaced the separate skirt in the smart young wardrobe.

2. Two new trends make the lower waistline a success. They are the overblouse (becoming to adolescent bulges) and the low belted "convent cut" dress, ideal for the stringbean figure—but not for chubbies.

* * *

3. Bright colors accented with black. This is the first year that small fry can wear black without looking weird. And do they love it!

4. The importance of the "costume." Three and four-way outfits will give the miniature wardrobe a new convenience and climate control as well as a new look. Dresses with under-dresses and extra bolero or cardigan jackets are news.

Return Compliment of Powder Room

There are considerate department stores who put their ladies' rooms someplace reasonable like the first or second floor, rather than behind Victorian furniture on the eighth.

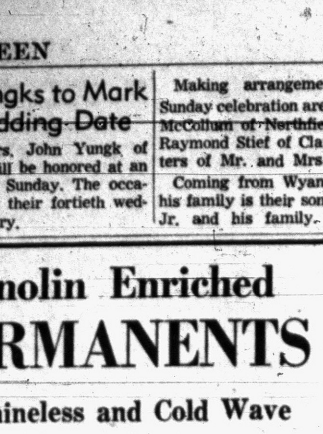

Return the compliment by cleaning up after yourself; not combing over the bowl or blotting lipstick on the roller towel.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES FURLONG

The Christian Missionary and Alliance Church was the setting for the wedding of Zoe Jane Cretal and Charles W. Furlong. The bride is the daughter of the Leon L. Cretals of East Beverly street, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furlong of East Walton boulevard.

Zoe Jane Cretal Is Bride

Before an altar banked with white gladioli and carnations, Zoe Jane Cretal exchanged marriage vows with Charles W. Furlong Saturday evening in the Christian Missionary and Alliance Church. The Rev. G. J. Bersche performed the candlelight ceremony at 7:30 in the presence of 200 guests. Pat Walton sang the bridal recital accompanied at the organ by Bob Porter.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Cretal of East Beverly street and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furlong of East Walton boulevard.

As she approached the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was wearing a floor length wedding gown of bridal satin with short lace sleeves and lace gauntlets. The bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline of lace. A four pointed apron of Chantilly lace topped the skirt of tulle.

A double crown tiara set with seed pearls secured the illusion veil. Wearing a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, the bride carried white carnations and pale pink roses.

MRS. OGG, MATRON

Mrs. Donald Ogg, matron of honor, was gowned in a pale pink crystallette, ballerina length, fashioned with short sleeves and scoop neckline. Her headpiece was a soft pink velvet band trimmed with pink net and lily of the valley. She was carrying deep pink carnations and American Beauty roses.

* * *

Wearing gowns and headpieces of pale blue and lace gloves, the bridesmaids, Gerri Locke and Edna Whitman, carried yellow carnations and roses.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Donald Ogg and seating the guests were Robert Martin and Eugene Cretal, the bride's brother.

The bride's mother was gowned in pink crystallette with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

* * *

A gown of blue cotton lace was chosen by the bridegroom's mother. A corsage of Talisman roses and white accessories completed her costume.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

A reception was held in Roosevelt Temple immediately after the ceremony with Guyneth Lampher assisting with the serving.

When Mrs. Furlong left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan, she was wearing a navy orlon and cotton princess style dress with rounded neck and wide, white collar, white accessories and a pale pink rose corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Furlong will make their home on Sashabaw road, Clarkston.

'Lady Executives' Really Don't Bite

By ANNE HEYWOOD

The woman executive is, historically speaking, a rather new development on the scene. Perhaps because of that, many misconceptions about her are still thought to be true.

"The woman executive is aggressive and unfeminine," people will say, or "A woman executive is harder to work for than a man," and many, many other such statements.

Yet some of the nicest and gentlest women I know are executives. They bear no resemblance whatever to the general misconceptions people have about them.

Charlotte Leyden is such a woman. I'll never forget an experience I had with her, recently at Fordham University, where I was doing a series of talks on careers for women.

My class, a group of about twenty girls, had evinced great interest in learning more about what one of them referred to as "the do-good field"; that is, jobs in health organizations. They wanted me to get somebody in the field to talk to them about it and describe how it functions.

WAVE OF RESISTANCE

When I announced that on the following week I would bring Mrs. Leyden, who was director of womens activities for the American Cancer Society, I could feel a wave of resistance sweeping through the audience.

With a big job like that, you could see they were thinking, "She'll be a real battle-axe!"

* * *

I'll never forget how rapidly Mrs. Leyden dispelled that false impression.

In the first place, she looked so friendly, with a wonderful combination of shyness and humor. She was wearing a silly, becoming hat; she carried no briefcase and had no notes. She just sat down and told the girls all about her job, what it involved and what opportunities existed for them in the field.

She told how she stumbled into the field — not the egotistic, shrewd, calculated success story they expected, but a terribly funny description of her first job, as a secretary for a wire service, which led to her career.

She told about the women's clubs she works with. Instead of sounding like the eminnently successful woman she is, she sounded like a motherly soul who loves nothing so much as a cup of tea with "the girls"—which, you could tell, is the truth.

* * *

By the time Mrs. Leyden had finished, the girls were laughing till the tears ran down their cheeks.

More important, they had not only learned a lot about jobs in the health field, but they also had learned that a woman executive is modest.

Miriam R. Hegle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hegle of Napoleon, Ohio, became the bride of Harold E. Rose Saturday evening. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil T. Rose of Euclid street.

MR. and MRS. HAROLD ROSE

Weds in Blush Pink Satin

A blush pink satin gown, fashioned with princess lines and chapel length train, was worn by Miriam Ruth Hegle Saturday evening when she became the bride of Harold E. Rose.

* * *

The gown was designed with an empire waist of Chantilly lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and pearls. The long sleeves tapered over her hands. Her fingertip veil of blush pink silk illusion was held by a double coronet of seed pearls and sequins.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hegle, of Napoleon, Ohio, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil T. Rose of Euclid street.

The Rev. Kenneth Hutchinson of the First Church of the Nazarene and Dr. Eldon Fuhrman, of Western Evangelical Seminary, Portland, Oregon, performed the eight o'clock ceremony before 250 guests at First Church of the Nazarene.

OUT OF STATE ATTENDANT

Lois Winrich of Madison, Wis., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Donna Rose, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. The attendants wore identical floor length gowns of nylon tulle fashioned with satin bodices over which they wore satin shrugs.

The long molded torso waistlines were formed by narrow tucks of satin and the voluminous skirts were marked by tiered ruffles that cascaded to the floor. They were in shades of rose and blue. The attendants carried arrangements of roses.

* * *

Billy J. Rose served as best man and seating the guests were Keith Winrich of Madison, Wis., Ronald McCabe, Zane Goyette and Warren Robertoy.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

The bride's mother wore a gown of mauve lace over taffeta with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a mauve colored dress with white accessories and both wore orchid corsages.

The bride was graduated magna cum laude from Taylor University and the bridegroom is a senior at Olivet Nazarene College, in Kankakee, Ill.

Notice How Today's Moms Are Younger

Look behind most any baby buggy on any main street for proof. The statistical fact is that one new mother in four is under 20, and will be the parent of teen-agers in her thirties, and most likely a grandmother in her forties. With people living longer all the time, the prospect is that a lot of young parents today are a cinch to become great-grandparents someday.

How many people have government jobs? As of this spring 7,232,000 persons were on federal, state and local government payrolls.

HOW to CHOOSE a HAIRDO

The first consideration in choosing a hair style is your own characteristics and personality. No greater error was ever made than to decide on a certain hair do because it looks well on your friend or neighbor. In many ways she may resemble you but the chances are that you two are different in many respects.

You may be the same height and have the same color hair but what about the shape of your face? Your forehead may be low and hers a little higher. Your face may be round while hers is angular. Her hair may be medium coarse and unmanageable, while yours is fine.

Your best style can be one designed only for you!

The new cotton coats are a pert and pretty answer to your summer wardrobe problems.

Cool and lightweight, they're being shown in many wonderful weaves, patterns, and colors for fashionable wear in town or in transit.

And since they're cotton, they're as soap-and-water washable as your blouse or gloves—a particularly happy thought for the vacationer who doesn't want to carry a collection of wraps.

New Health Insurance Plan Protects Your Right to Renew

Omaha, Nebr.—A special Renewal Safeguard is part of a new health insurance plan, now being offered by Mutual of Omaha. The Renewal Safeguard specifies that the company cannot refuse to renew the policy for health reasons to age 65.

Yours to Own

Many insurance plans are what might be called "rental" plans. But the new Circle Security Plan goes beyond such protection. When a person qualifies for this new coverage, he can continue to renew his plan to age 65, no matter how many times he receives benefits or how much his health may change. And, at age 65, he automatically is eligible for the protection for which he then qualifies.

Long Hospital Care

Special features of the new Circle Security Plan include hospital insurance that pays for as long as 500 days of hospital care for for covered sickness or accident. Also included are surgical benefits, maternity benefits on family plans, and certain medical benefits. The Plan can be designed for one person or an entire family.

Circle Security income replacement insurance provides regular monthly benefits, even for life, during total disability from covered accident or confining sickness.

Available Now

This extended coverage is now available to readers of this paper. To see if you can qualify for this broader protection with the Renewal Safeguard feature, you may use the coupon below. Information will be supplied by the licensed career-trained representative of the Mutual Benefit Health & Accident Association, the largest exclusive health and accident company in the world. Arrangements have been made to provide you with full information at no obligation. (Policy Forms 3D-3FH.)

Keweenaw Peninsula's Awesome Beauty Hides Untapped Wealth of Copper Ore

By JERRY SULLIVAN

IRONWOOD (AP) — Visitors to the iron ranges of the Upper Peninsula like to climb the mountain peaks and scan the hazy horizon.

* * *

It is hard for them to believe that the wealth of the area is buried thousands of feet below. It is hard to visualize the great "cities" that lie beneath the ground, with their miles and miles of interlocking "streets."

Ironwood lies within a view of two parallel ranges of hills—the Gogebic iron range which stretches away to the east, and to the north the copper-bearing range which runs northeastward 120 miles to the end of the Keweenaw Peninsula.

To the south, beyond the Montreal river, one can see the hills of Wisconsin.

On a clear day the blue water of Lake Superior is visible to the northwest. And, to the northeast the hump of the Porcupine Mountains rises 2,023 feet above sea level—highest point in Michigan.

FEARSOME PLACE

One hundred miles to the east lies the Marquette iron range, once shunned by the Indians as a "fearful place of thunder and lightning."

It was on this range, in 1844, that William Burt, a surveyor working under the direction of Douglas Houghton, discovered the iron deposits which had attracted the lightning.

Today Negaunee (the Indian name for "Pioneer") is called one of the richest of small cities. For beneath it is the largest iron mine in the world, the Mather mine of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co.

Geologists speak of an "Iron Triangle," an imaginary diagram touching the three major iron ranges—Gogebic to the west, Marquette to the east, and Menominee to the south.

Throughout the iron country there is a feeling of moderate optimism for a continual, gradual growth in the economy of the Upper Peninsula.

IRON ORE GALORE

Geologists have estimated there is at least as much iron ore in the ranges today (some 750,000,000 tons) as has been mined since the start of the industry in 1846.

The iron companies are spending $250,000,000 in a vast modernization program, including experimental plants to obtain commercial ore from low-grade deposits.

Throughout the area, communities are expressing their faith in the future by building new schools and churches, and improving their streets and recreation facilities.

Cities like Ironwood, which lost thousands of residents when mechanization of mining cut down the number of available jobs, are finding they need new housing today for young families.

STRIKE HURTS

A summer-long strike of copper miners has brought a wave of depression to Keweenawland, and reminded Calumet residents of the 1930's, when the price of copper dropped to 4½ cents a pound.

The struck Calumet division of Calumet & Hecla Inc., long the backbone of the area's economy, has threatened to close its 10 mines permanently.

The only copper plants in operation on the Keweenaw Peninsula today are Quincy Mining Co.'s reclamation plant on Torch Lake, where the waste product of another era of mining is being sifted again and the company's smelter at Ripley, near Hancock.

* * *

The awesome beauty of the Keweenaw peninsula has been compared to the coastal area of Maine.

People come to Keweenawland—which really is an island perched in Lake Superior—to get cool, to lose hay fever, to fish, loaf, to photograph and to paint.

At Reipley, tourists go on conducted tours through the cool, damp tunnels of once-abandoned Arcadian copper mine. They buy copper souvenirs — some of them made as far distant as California.

After the Hawaiian islands had established themselves as a republic, they voluntarily had their domain annexed to the United States in the status of a territorial possession in 1898.

IN A POTTERY TOWN IN OLD MEXICO—3
Dolores Takes the Pottery to Market

Pancho, who makes pottery in his home has two signs on mud wall: "Alfarero," which means "potter," and "Barro Fino," which means "Fine earthenware."

His sister Dolores takes the pottery to market. First she packs it in big baskets and strings bags with clean straw packed around it. Then she puts the packs on Pancho's burros, Toto and Chico.

Dolores carries two of the best pieces. She twists a small scarf into a ring and sets it firmly on her head. Then she puts the big rooster jug in it and balances it carefully on her head.

She carries the other bowl in her arm. Her woven bag hangs over her arm to hold money.

Paste this page on cardboard. When dry, color with crayons. Dolores' skin is brown, her blouse white, skirt red, girdle green and scarf blue. The mud wall is light gray with red tiles on top. The cactus is green, bag yellow, pottery light brown with bright designs.

Cut out the large piece and fold the two ends forward. Cut a slit in the middle of the scarf on Dolores' head. Cut a slit on the dotted line along the left arm. Cut out the big jug and push the tab on its bottom down through the opening in the folded scarf.

Cut out the bag, push the tab on the bag handle through the slit above the left arm and fold the tab down at the back. Then the bag will hang down from Dolores' arm.

Because Buick sales are soaring past all records—

We're declaring a profit-sharing bonus for you

THIS we've never seen before—a sales year that's shattering every record in the Buick book—a soaring success far greater than the one that moved Buick so solidly into the Big 3 of America's best sellers.

So we're going to share profits with you—by stretching our regular big trade-in allowances to practically our break-even point.

That means you can now buy the most wanted Buick ever built—for less than ever before.

That means you can have Buick style distinction and prestige—Buick room and comfort—Buick size and solidity—for plenty dollars less on the profit-sharing deals we're making now.

And that means you can have, at a terrific buy, the hottest-action Buick in history—with walloping V8 power raised to new highs, and with the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—world's first and only transmission using the switch-pitch principle of the modern plane's propeller.

Come in today—tomorrow, for sure—and see for yourself that you can now make the biggest buy of the year on the car that's far and away the thrill of the year.

4,000 Movers Relocate America's Nomad People

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 (AP)—We are a restless, unsettled people, eternally on the move.

And 450 delegates who rejoice in this nomadic fact are the nation's capital today for the annual meeting of the movers conference of America.

Their statistics look impressive: Each year a couple of million families move to another state, or maybe even another continent. An additional four million families move, but don't leave their home state. Other millions also move, but since they stay in the same city, or maybe even in the same apartment building, they don't count with the long distance movers.

All this adds up to 4,000 companies, with 25,000 vans bumping along the highways, fetching in a half billion dollars in business each year.

Still, everything isn't completely rosy in the moving business. In our complex civilization, each new development may create unexpected problems.

* * *

Take the do-it-yourself craze.

In the old days, a mover could count on one solid fact: A piece of furniture that went into a house certainly would come out. But now our busybody handyman may have gone into a room and put together his own furniture, without thinking of ever trying to move it. Or he may have remodeled the house so the escape hatches are smaller.

* * *

"We have reports," said Thomas Kingsley of the Movers' Headquarters, "not only of having to take out door jambs, but in some cases of having to remove the brick itself."

One electrical appliance has proved so pesky it is the subject of a booklet, "regarding the handling and transport of laden home freezers."

"We have found," Kingsley said, "that a freezer doesn't make a very good container for carrying 450 pounds of food."

Atomic Garbage Disposal Area Needed by College

ST. LOUIS (INS) — Washington University of St. Louis has revealed a perplexing problem that is the outgrowth of the atomic age. The university has no place to dispose of the atomic garbage created by its cyclotron.

For the past 10 years work crews have encased the radioactive waste in galvanized containers and buried them in the 40-acre plot. Now, all the available space has been used and a new site for the hot atomic garbage is sought.

Wild game provides up to 250 million pounds of edible meat each year in the U. S.

Bob Considine Says:

Aged Brazilian Marshal to Be Guest of U.S.

RIO DE JANEIRO (INS)—U. S. Ambassador Jimmy Dunn recently extended an invitation to visit the U. S. to Marshal Rondon, the grand old man of Brazilian military circles. The marshal is coming up 91 years of age, and without much doubt he is the oldest personage ever offered the hospitality of our shores.

* * *

Rondon accepted promptly, with one proviso. He wanted to go by ship rather than plane, and asked to take along his daughter, a child of 70. He also could not resist taking a good-natured jab at the colossus to the north.

"I accompanied President Theodore Roosevelt to the River of Doubt in 1914," he told Ambassador Dunn. "I recall vividly that when we parted, after a most cordial relationship under trying conditions, President Roosevelt said, 'You must come to visit the United States.' It is nice to know that the invitation has come through — forty-one years late — but has come through."

Rondon is in charge of Indian affairs in Brazil. Under the state department's educational exchange program, he will tour U. S. Indian reservations.

The vigorous old fellow probably will be shocked by what he sees.

AMBASSADOR DUNN

Ambassador Dunn is far from the customary concept of the austere diplomat of ambassadorial rank. At a reception he gave for the people who flew down here on Varig airlines the other night he took me aside and said, "I don't think I've ever told you this story.

I was charge d'affaires in Brussels in 1927 when Lindbergh paid that country a visit shortly after his flight to Paris. I didn't know what to say to him, after congratulating him. So I said, 'Well, captain, I suppose that one of these days a dipomat—assigned to a new post in some faraway land—will simply step on his plane and fly away over ocean and jungle.'

"Lindbergh looked at me with those cold blue eyes and said, 'Might be a way to get rid of a lot of diplomats.'"

My wife and I now have visited three tombs of Christopher Columbus, or Cristobal Colon as each sarcophagus spells it. All three are doing well, thank you. In the cathedral at Havana the guide will lower his voice, give off a wink, and say, in effect, "The Spanish they think they took his bones away some centuries age. But they're still here, right here in Havana."

In Seville a couple of years ago, we were assured at the cathedral that the discoverer of the New World lay within the great marble coffin held magnificently aloft on the shoulders of the four evangelists.

Well, a couple of days ago at the cathedral in Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, the guide chuckled piously, winked, pointed to the towering white marble and gold tomb, and confided, "All that is left of the great Admiral Columbus is in an urn within the bronze box atop this shrine. When the French had us, we hid his remains. When the French were gone, we placed the remains in this, the oldest church in the hemisphere. All that is left is a bit of his skull, a bit of his arm. The rest is dust. If you have a contribution for the poor box give it to me and I will see that it reaches the rector in person."

A 'FREER PRESS'

There are more than 20 daily newspapers in Rio and the vigor of their editorial policy indicates that the press is freer here than in most parts of the world. All are grievously concerned with the recent national catastrophe, the cold weather which is said to have destroyed up to 80 per cent of the 1955 coffee crop.

For you it will mean paying a few more cents a pound for your favorite blend. For Brazil it is a cause of war-like headlines. Coffee represents about 75 per cent of the economy of the nation. It is as if there was a full season's shutdown of all U. S. automobile plants and steel mills.

SKYLINE VIEW — Giraffes arriving from Africa aboard SS. Spreewald need not crane their necks for a view of New York skyline. They're destined for a Cleveland zoo.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!
CAPTAIN JOE S. ANDERSON tells why he uses Flite-Fuel

"I'm Captain of an American Airlines DC-7 Flagship. I know that Phillips 66 Aviation Gasoline is outstanding for performance because we use it regularly. In 'Avgas' it's performance that counts . . . and I judge automobile gasoline the same way.

"In my car I use Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL. FLITE-FUEL is the only automobile gasoline with added Di-isopropyl, a high-powered aviation fuel component. It gives wonderful performance in my car."

Expert Initiates Dream to Assist Lepers Till Land

ST. LOUIS (INS)—A 27-year-old agronomist from Wisconsin who made up his mind in 1948 to return to help a colony of Philippine lepers will leave about Sept. 1 for lay misisonary duties at the Far East colony.

* * *

Harold L. Baar of Oshkosh hopes to prove what crops can be grown successfully on the island of Culion. He also plans to teach the residents of the leprosarium there to grow crops which will help supplement their meager diet and, perhaps, provide an income for them.

Baar will be making his second trip to Culion. He visited the island for five days while serving in the Philippines. During that two-year hitch in the Coast Guard time, Baar conceived his plan to serve the lepers.

The island of Culion is 200 miles from the nearest mission of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, the church group which will sponsor Baar's humanitarian project. The leper colony, one of nine regional colonies in the Republic, houses 6,200 persons stricken with the active disease.

An average U. S. family spends 15 per cent of its food budget for dairy products.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Women buy about 80 per cent of all men's neckties, and most of the sales occur around the Christmas season.

Dry human hair can be stretched 20 to 25 per cent without breaking, tests show, and wet hair will stretch more.

Homefurnishings Sales Score Largest Advance

CHICAGO — Although total department store sales in the seventh federal reserve (midwest) district increased 6 per cent over a year ago during the first half of 1955, gains varied widely for individual departments. Homefurnishings turned in the best performance, whereas women's apparel and accessories barely matched their previous-year figures.

Leading the departmental showing, major household appliance sales at district department stores scored a rousing 32 per cent increase over 1954's first half. Detroit and Milwaukee areas turned in especially strong appliance gains during June.

Egyptians Accept Red Chinese Bid for Her Cotton

CAIRO, Egypt, (UP) — Egypt's neutralist government announced today Red China has placed a multimillion dollar order for Egyptian cotton — a boost to this nation's sagging economy.

The Egyptian press hailed the announcement with criticism of the West and there was immediate speculation as to whether the economic deal would mean closer political cooperation with the Communist bloc.

* * *

A Finance Minister spokesman said the order was for 290,000 kantars of cotton in addition to normal purchases of 172,000 kantars made by Red China earlier in the season which ends Aug. 31. A kantar is 99 pounds. The deal was concluded by a Chinese trade mission which left Egypt a few days ago and an Egyptian trade mission now in Peiping.

Egypt's press insisted the deal totaled eight million pounds $22,400,000 payable in sterling, but at current market prices the sale of 290,000 kantars would bring only about 3½ million pounds.

Lives Up to His Name

INDIANAPOLIS (UP) — "What's your name," asked motorcycle patrolman Cal Burnham after he had clocked a driver at 47 miles an hour. "Robert C. Speed," was the reply. He got a ticket.

Police Have Information on Third Brink's Robber

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Police said today they have learned the name of the third man in Wednesday's $150,000 Brink's armored car holdup here.

Police would not disclose the man's name, nor would they indicate the source of their information. They did say, however, that the man is not the same one named by the two gunmen captured by police after a running gun battle through city streets Wednesday night.

Sylvester Mazzella, 46, of the Bronx, and Anthony Pattinato, 39, of Baltimore, told police that their partner in the holdup was James Sheridan of New York. However, a check by police failed to turn up any record of Sheridan and, in fact, police now doubt his existence at all.

Kalamazoo Boy Shot in Scuffle Over Rifle

KALAMAZOO (UP)—Tragedy came near a second son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Powers last night.

Claude, 7, was shot in the chest when a rifle discharged in a scuffle between two of his chums.

But at Bronson hospital today Claude's condition was reported good although the bullet had penetrated his entire body. It came out his back.

Donald Powers, 11, a brother, was struck and killed by a car last April.

Four Southern Schools to Ban Race Segregation

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP) — Beginning next month the four high schools in Texas' capital city will admit both Negro and white students.

* * *

However, a desegregation program approved unanimously last night by the Austin School Board also provides that transfers in and out of any of the four districts will be allowed.

Because of the liberal transfer plan, it will not be known until next month how many negroes will attend the previously all-white schools or how many white students will attend Anderson High School, until now an all-Negro school.

Other major Texas cities which have announced plans for complete or partial desegregation include El Paso, Corpus Christi, Amarillo, San Antonio and San Angelo.

Rising Floods Threaten Pakistani City Suburbs

DACCA, East Pakistan (UP)—Some 2,200 persons were homeless today as slowly rising floodwaters crept over parts of Dacca.

Seven of East Pakistan's 14 districts were affected by the flood but no loss of life has been reported.

The U. S. has 30 per cent of the world's railway mileage.

Church Expansion Fund Tops Goal of $75,000

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—The Rev. Thomas A. Edison, pastor of St. Patrick Church, has announced that the expansion fund campaign has been oversubscribed to a total of $95,031.

The original goal was $75,000, to finance building a parochial school and convent, and for renovation and expansion work on the church.

NANCY KOVACK
New Romeo Peach Festival Queen

Title Awarded to 19-Year-Old

Nancy Kovack Honored Over Ten Contestants; to Receive Crown

ROMEO—Looking forward to receiving a crown for the second time from Gov. G. Mennen Williams is lovely Nancy Kovack, 19-year-old Flint resident.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kovack was named Michigan Peach Queen over 10 other contestants last night in the Romeo High School auditorium.

She will reign over the Peach Festival here Sept. 3-5, following a month of public appearances.

Queen Nancy will be crowned by the governor during coronation ceremonies Sunday, Sept. 4.

WON ANOTHER TITLE

Her first appearance as a queen was when she was chosen to reign as Miss Page 1 in Detroit. Gov. Williams also crowned her on that occasion, too.

In addition to these honors, she was named top talent entry in the state Miss Michigan contest. She missed that title by one point.

The 11 contestants in the contest here represented five counties. They were interviewed personally before an enthusiastic audience which packed the auditorium.

GIRLS INTERVIEWED

Conducting the interviews was local attorney Gerald McLean, who also acted as master of ceremonies. Each girl carried a card bearing the name of the peach which was her identification, until the final decision was announced.

The four judges, all members of the Scarab Club of Detroit, were amateur photographer Dr. Walter McBride; cartoonist Karl Larsen, water color artist Warren Simpson, and portrait painter John S. Coppin.

They based their decision on poise, ability to converse, carriage, and beauty.

Bert Kernaghan, president of the Peach Festival Assn., welcomed the crowd to the 23rd annual queen's contest.

Before Nancy was named winner, her two maids of honor were introduced. They are Dolores Heiser, 18, Miss St. Clair Shores, also a runner-up in the Miss Michigan contest, and Lorraine Hammond, 18, Miss Macomb County of Mt. Clemens. She is also Miss Michigan Amvet.

The other contestants were Pat Dallwitz, Miss Romeo; Laveta Foust, Miss Oakland County; Carol Hall, Miss Metropolitan Beach; Joann Kirschling, Miss Fraser; Maureen Shipman, Miss Mt. Clemens; Charlotte Starke, Miss Pontiac; Judith Taack, Miss Imlay City; and Lorraine Webb, Miss Utica.

Pontiac City Commission Acts on Routine Matters

A generally routine City Commission meeting last night was brightened briefly when one of the Commission's "dry" members unexpectedly made the official motion for a pair of liquor license transfers.

After Mayor William W. Donaldson jokingly suggested Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) move that the Commission approve the ownership transfer of tavern and package beer and wine licenses at 1225 Baldwin Ave., Miles, known for his anti-liquor sentiments, said with a twinkle: "Sure, I'll offer it. It's only a transfer."

Running down the agenda, the Commission referred to the currently vacationing city manager a City Plan Commission report concerning rezoning of property at Walton and Highwood Blvds.

Received and filed was a plan board report saying the board had received a letter from City Attorney William A. Ewart concerning a suit pending in Circuit Court.

The attorney was instructed to draw up rezoning papers changing the classification of an unnamed plat at Stanley and Ypsilanti Aves. from manufacturing to residential.

REPORTS DEFERRED

Deferred one week were plan commission reports recommending vacating of an alley parallel to North Perry street extending from Arlene to Madison, and stating the body had taken action on the request to rezone the Bryan French property.

Also given a week's delay was a request to allow a co-owner of a tavern license to move just outside the city limits, Commissioner John E. Carry (District 6) said such a move by the Commission would be in violation of city law.

M. E. Gorman, owner of a used auto parts business, was given a hearing on his plea for renewal of the business license, refused by the Commission last week.

The Commission referred the matter to the chief of police after Gorman said the business was operated at 543 S. Saginaw St. and had been for many years. The license had been rejected on the grounds the business was operating in violation of the zoning for that district.

A contract for work on the parking lot behind the City Hall was given final approval and a request for reassignment of a land agreement with a local bank was tabled until "further information" is obtained.

Advertisement for sale of a house at 72 E. Pike St. was authorized.

Four Injured in Crash at Orchard Lake, 14 Mile

Four persons were injured in a two-car collision at Orchard Lake and 14 Mile Roads last night.

Mrs. Leona Boyle, 26, of Detroit is in fair condition, Pontiac General Hospital officials say. Her husband, Joseph, and son, Wayne, were treated and released, as was Mrs. Trellia Bogya, 28.

West Bloomfield Township Police said the car driven by Ernest Bogya, 27, of Dearborn, failed to stop at 14 Mile Road, and hit the side of Boyle's car. Bogya was uninjured.

Grand Rapids Gets Parking Lot Hearing

LANSING (UP) — The State Municipal Finance Commission began hearings yesterday on the request of the city of Grand Rapids to issue $80,000 in special assessment bonds to finance an off-street parking lot.

The financing plan is being watched closely by other Michigan cities as a way to finance off-street parking in congested business areas at the expense of benefiting businessmen.

City officials asked authority for the bond issue last April, but the request was turned down. Hearings on an appeal began yesterday.

Clapperton contended that the city charter requires such a bond issue to be approved by three-quarters of the voters. The issue has not been submitted to voters.

Commission members delayed a decision until a supplemental brief is submitted by George R. Cook, Grand Rapids city attorney.

Attorney General Gives Township Board Ruling

LANSING (UP) — A deputy township treasurer may not sit as a member of the township board in the absence of the treasurer, Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh held today.

Answering a question of George M. Holmes, Alpena attorney, Kavanagh said the State Supreme Court has held in a similar case that a deputy township clerk cannot sit on the board in the absence of the clerk.

In another opinion, Kavanagh held that a person whose name does not appear on an assessment roll is not eligible for a school district office even if he bought property after the assessment roll was prepared.

Kavanagh made the ruling in answer to a question from John V. Zanardi, Dickinson County prosecuting attorney.

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — Plans for placing all the township insurance under one "package" basis are under consideration. Last year insurance cost the township a total of $4,593.57.

Polio Clinics Proceeding at Slow Pace Here

The anti-polio shot makeup program is continuing at a slow pace and county health officials think the campaign will have to be extended for several weeks.

At the Pontiac clinic, 181 children were given injections yesterday, and only 90 showed up this morning, according to Dr. John D. Monroe, Oakland County health director.

Meanwhile, the South Oakland Health Center in Royal Oak treated about 40 first and second graders today, following an attendance of 85 yesterday, reported Dr. Frank J. Condon, deputy director.

The total of children inoculated to date is 750, according to figures reported by both clinics since Monday. This number includes both booster and second shot injections.

A termination date for the anti-polio program will be announced later, Dr. Monroe said. The Pontiac Clinic is located at 15 W. Huron St. and is open daily from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The Royal Oak center will observe the same hours, and is located at 2401 E. Fourth St.

Galbraith Case Jurors Seated

Testimony Is Expected to Get Under Way in Doctor's Murder Trial

McALESTER, Okla., (UP) — The murder trial of Dr. Ben T. Galbraith moves into its third day today with testimony expected to get under way.

An all-male jury was seated late yesterday after two days of dickering between attorneys.

Galbraith, a prominent McAlester heart specialist, is being tried for the murder of his 34-year-old wife Mary Katherine.

* * *

He also is charged with murdering their three children. The bodies were found in the ruins of their home, destroyed by fire March 17.

The prosecution is expected to present evidence with hopes of proving Galbraith struck his wife with a wine bottle and drugged the children before firing the house.

The defense spent from 10 to 20 minutes with each juror passed by the state, posing questions designed to draw out the panelist's views on mental illness.

The defense team, Fred Whetsel and Jim Rinehart, have indicated they plan to fight the case with arguments that Galbraith is innocent by reason of being insane at the time of the slaying.

Pontiac Boys' Club Plans Coed Saturday Activities

The local Boys' Club will go co-ed—at least on Saturdays—for the first time in its history this fall.

For members 17 years of age or older, the program will not interfere with regular club activities, and will be held only on special occasions, said William Coulacos, executive director.

Girls will be allowed to attend the Boys' Club only by invitation or as the date of a member, Coulacos explained. Co-ed activities will be scheduled for Saturday night, when the Club is normally closed.

"The new program is being introduced for the older boys here, as the request for this type of entertainment has been made to me by some 140 senior members of the Club," Coulacos pointed out.

He emphasized that the Saturday events will not conflict with the usual Club schedule, and will be based on the boys themselves inviting the girls to attend.

"I feel that Saturday night is the ideal time for this type of thing. School affairs are planned for weekday nights — basketball, and football games, as well as school dances," Coulacos remarked.

He explained that the co-ed activities will be supervised by Boys' Club staff members, which is in line with the Club's policy of planning programs which lend themselves to formation of good habits, as well as enjoyment.

Hazel Park Resident Crushed by Automobile

HAZEL PARK — Lester A. Martin, 31, of 46 Sonoma, was crushed to death yesterday while repairing his car in his garage.

He was removing the rear axle of the car when the hoist holding up the rear of the car apparently slipped. A Chrysler Corp. employe, he was the father of four children.

Rochester Man Hurt in Crash

Condition Termed Poor After Auto Hits Truck Early Today

Seriously injured when his car crashed broadside into a heavily-laden gravel truck early today, Theodore Barnett, 54, of Rochester, was reported in poor condition by Pontiac General Hospital authorities.

Barnett, of 321 East St., apparently disregarded a stop light at Opdyke Rd. and Walton Blvd., according to Sheriff's Deputies Steve Hawlick and Donald Wright. He suffered a concussion and broken ribs.

Truck driver Alfred D. Lint, of Detroit, leaped to safety after gasoline from a ruptured tank ignited, enveloping the cab in flames. He was not injured.

Barnett's car, headed west on Walton, careened out of control 225 feet before stopping in a ditch. The truck, southbound on Opdyke, with a double trailer, narrowly missed a store after plunging 212 feet off the highway. The accident occurred at 5:08 a. m.

Two witnesses, following the truck, said Lint, employed by the Cooper Supply Co., of Detroit, had the right of way.

Kentuckian, 108, Thinking About Church Career

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — Dan Hughes is 108 today but may take to preaching yet. He's done almost everything else.

"If nothing breaks me down, I'll live another 50 years. I've never been sick in my life and never took doctor's medicine."

* * *

Hughes says the "Lord's sparing me for something, and I just can't figure out what it is. It might be preaching."

Crossing and uncrossing his legs with the agility of a teen-ager, the former slave recalled in an interview his years on steamboats, farms and dray wagons, where he spent 50 years shoveling coal.

"It was too much for me. It knocked me off and I finally had to give it up."

* * *

Now living with a daughter, he spends a lot of time thinking about the old days.

"Sometimes when I'm here by myself, I just sit around and live my life again. I got a good memory."

His hearing also is excellent but not his sight.

As for the future, Hughes says, "I'm waiting on him. Whenever he calls me, I'm ready to go."

Kids Must Find New Home for Banished Dog

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UP) — Seven-year-old Stanley Pulaski and his 5-year-old sister Janice had 24 hours left today to find a new home for their 4-year-old collie Ike.

The dog was ordered banished from the Pulaski home yesterday by Municipal Judge Robert B. Burns.

* * *

Last June, Mrs. Harry F. Wells, a neighbor, said Ike bit her Chihuahua. She took the case to court.

Judge Burns ordered the dog kept on the Pulaski property. He wasn't to leave his kennel unattended.

* * *

Mrs. Wells testified in court yesterday she had seen Ike unattended on a romp around the neighborhood. Another neighbor corroborated her testimony.

Defense attorney Donald G. Dewey brought 12 neighborhood children into court to testify in behalf of Ike.

He was a good dog, they said. He was loyal. He was noble. He never hurt anybody . . . a model dog and a friend. But to no avail.

With his ruling punctuated by the crying and sobbing of the children, Judge Burns gave Mrs. Pulaski 48 hours to find a new home for Ike — five miles or more from the Pulaski residence.

Citizens' Group Formed to Fight Credit Abuses

LANSING (AP) — A Detroit group yesterday submitted to the State Board of Canvassers forms for the petitions they will circulate seeking an amendment to the constitution to prevent "flagrant abuses" in the repossession of automobiles and other items purchased on time.

The Citizens for Better Government, which plans to incorporate in Detroit, claims to have the backing of labor organizations, professional people and clergymen. Gregory M. Pillon, Detroit attorney, represented the group.

Spokesmen said cars and other items often are repossessed without warning when only a few dollars is owed.

Bob Francis' Movie Role Given to Stage Newcomer

By DOROTHY MANNERS
(For Louella Parsons)

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The role poor Bob Francis was to have played in "Tribute to a Bad Man" has been given to Don Dubbins, the young actor who attracted so much attention with Deborah Kerr in the road company of "Tea and Sympathy."

During the Los Angeles run, Don rated rave reviews which were not overlooked by casting directors. It's the first screen role for this sensitive and talented actor, but you can bet it won't be his last.

Producer Sam Zimbalist has alerted Jimmy Cagney, himself a replacement for Spencer Tracy in "Tribute," to be in Colorado August 15 for start No. 2 on this MGM picture.

No TV contracts are being signed during the strike of television actors. But when the ban is lifted it will be verified that George Sanders and Joan Bennett will play husband-and-wife in "Yacht on the High Seas" for the 20th Century-Fox series for General Electric.

Come to think of it, this marks Sanders' debut on TV,—he's been one of the most determined holdouts.

It's a high drama about a money mad millionaire faced with the decision of possibly wrecking his million dollar yacht (and his marriage) or rescuing three fishermen helplessly adrift in a storm.

Doris Day is completely sold on the idea of vacations. The trip to Europe did it. When the blonde singing star finishes "The Man Who Knew Too Much" for Alfred Hitchcock, she's taking two months off to "See America First."

She and Marty Melcher will go east to pick up a new car and then head for New England at it's most beautiful season — as the leaves are turning gold.

Although it isn't set, Sol Siegel has been talking with Doris about starring in a remake of "The Philadelphia Story," revamped as a musical, at MGM.

Flat-Top Haircuts Up

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Beginning Tuesday, barbers say, youngsters and some adults will pay 25 cents more for flat-top and flat-top boogie haircuts here. Barbers Local Union 672 approved the increase last night. There will be no change in the price of regular haircuts, now $1.25.

Michigan's auto club says vacationing motorists in that state spend an average of $400 per family.

Yankees Most Potent!

Nixon Finds 'em Easy to Beat, Like on Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP)—This undoubtedly will come as a surprise to the New York Yankees and their followers but Willard Nixon, the man who practically owns them, thinks they have the most powerful batting order in the American League.

Strange as this statement sounds from a man who has whipped the Yankees eight times in nine tries over the past two seasons, it is no stranger than the hold the Boston righthander holds over Casey Stengel's bewildered athletes.

* * *

Nixon last night trounced New York 4-1 with a neat six-hitter, pitching the roaring Red Sox to within a half-game of the Yankees, who dropped to third place in this pulsating five-team pennant battle.

"Now don't ask me to explain why I can beat the Yankees," the curley-topped righthander said with a grin in the clubhouse after the game. "I haven't the faintest idea. If anybody could give me the answer, I'd sure be grateful.

* * *

"Honestly, I don't look forward to pitching against the Yankees. They've got the most potent lineup in the league, bar none. I've got a great deal of respect for fellows like Yogi Berra, Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron and Joe Collins, and that Eddie Robinson, he always wears me out."

Nixon, only pitcher this year to beat the Yankees four times, was asked whether he pitches differently to the Yankees than against the other clubs.

* * *

"Not a bit," was the reply from the 27-year-old native of Taylorsville, Ga., "I pitch the same way to the Yankee hitters as I do against Cleveland, for instance. Yet, I can't seem to get any of those Indians out. Last year, I beat the Yankees four times without a defeat. It was just the reverse against the Indians.

Sam Giammalva Sidelined After Meteoric Rise

Texas Youngster Bows Out at Newport; Won Grass Courts Title

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Sam Giammalvas rising star plummeted to earth today and the Houston youngster took his seat in the grandstand of the Newport Invitation Tennis tournament.

* * *

Hailed as a potential Davis Cupper two days ago when he won the Eastern Grass Courts title, Giammalva fell before the superb stroking of Dick Gaines of Lawrenceville, N.J., yesterday, 6-3, 6-4.

* * *

Gaines, a 29-year-old veteran, is no novice in his role of "spoiler." Last year, he polished off Gil Shea of Los Angeles in this same tournament. If Gaines gets past Bob Wilson, a 20-year-old Englishman, today, he enters the quarter-finals.

There were several other surprises yesterday. Dick Sorlien of Philadelphia, like Gaines unseeded, polished off sixth-ranked Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., 6-2, 6-3. Irv Dorfman of New York whipped Ronaldo Morreira of Brazil—who conquered Australia's Lew Hoad in the Davis Cup—6-1, 6-3.

* * *

Ron Holmberg, a 17-year-old Brooklynite, surprsied Roger Becker of England, the second seeded foreigner, 9-7, 6-1.

Defending champion Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., had no trouble with Karl Kamrath of Houston, Tex., 6-4, 6-2.

Drug 9 Downs Sylvan Center

Victory Ties Dick-Wes for 2nd Place; Battle Tonight for Berth

Drayton Drug put together two three-run innings to defeat Sylvan Center, 6-2, in a Waterford League softball game Tuesday night at Drayton Plains. Victory moved the Drug nine into a tie for 2nd place with Dick & Wes, necessitating a playoff at 8:30 tonight between the two teams to determine the runner-up spot.

Bill Goulet spun a six-hitter against Sylvan last night while Drug was bunching five hits off Ray Conley. Conley walked four batters and one of them scored while an error and two fielder's choices accounted for three more. Wayne O'Shaughnessy hit a 2nd-inning home run for Sylvan on a ground ball which skipped by the 1st baseman and right fielder.

Harris Wins Upset Over John Eubanks

DETROIT (AP)—Duke Harris of Detroit, battered savagely for four rounds by Johnny Eubanks, came back in the 5th to drop the Pittsburgh fighter with a hard right to the head and score an upset knockout victory in their eight-round bout at Motor City Arena last night.

Eubanks carried a 4½ pound edge over Harris, who entered the ring at 145½.

Winner of 12 of his last 13 professional starts before he met Harris, Eubanks looked impressive while he lasted against the Detroiter.

Al Carbuck, 146, Saginaw, stopped Ronnie O'Berry, 147, Pontiac, 1:11 of 2nd round in a scheduled four-rounder.

24 Skippers Sail in Snipe Contests

ALLATOONA LAKE, Ga. (AP)—Twenty-four skippers matched skills today in the first phase of the title race in the National Snipe Sailing championship.

Harry S. Allen of Westport, Conn. came out on top yesterday in the final qualifying race. He led the 24 who qualified in a field of 58.

The races continue through tomorrow.

Class A Clubs Go 8 Innings, End in 1-1 Tie

Meet Again Tonight to Settle Playoff Halted by Darkness

Don Nicholie Real Estate and the L. C. Anderson Jets battled to a 1-1 deadlock Tuesday night at Wisner Field in the Class A City Baseball League's post-season play-offs. The game was stopped after eight innings because of darkness.

Albie Roman of the Realty nine and the Jets' Russ Lothery engaged in a brilliant pitchers duel. It was the 3rd tie game of the season for the Jets, who previously knotted counts with CIO 594 and Auburn Merchants.

An infield error, Maurice Stack's single, and a wild pitch allowed John Wert to score Don Nicholie's run in the 1st inning. This appeared to be enough for Roman, who blanked the Jets until the bottom of the 7th. But Judge Booker's double and a single by Colle Hunt tied the score and darkness decided the rest.

Both Roman and Lothery permitted only four hits and both struck out seven batters and walked one to indicate the closeness of the scrap. Three of Don Nicholie's safeties were doubles and two of the Jets' hits were two-baggers.

Two squads will meet again tonight at Wisner as the Class A tournament rolls on. Game time is 5:30 p. m.

AL Pennant Race Continues Its Dizzy Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That American League pennant race is really a dilly. Where else could a team lose three straight to the seventh place club, then win one from the fifth place member and still edge upward into second place?

Cleveland did just that in its last four games—blowing a three-game set at Washington that dumped the Indians out of a virtual three-way tie for the lead and then moved up again with a 4-2 decision over Detroit last night.

What's more, while the Indians dropped 7 of 13 on their recent Eastern swing, they lost only a half-game in the frantic pennant scramble.

With the victory over Detroit Cleveland moved into the runner-up spot ahead of the New York Yankees, beaten by Boston 4-1. The Chicago White Sox stayed out front with a 4-1 success at Kansas City.

* * *

Here's the way the titans line up at the moment:

	Won	Lost	Pct.	Behind
Chicago	64	43	.598	—
Cleveland	65	45	.591	½
New York	65	46	.586	1
Boston	64	46	.582	1½

Four runs in the second inning got the job done for the Indians, who combined a pair of walks, two singles and Gene Woodling's double to beat Ned Garver and the Tigers in the opening game of a vital three-game set for Detroit. The Tigers now are 6½ games behind the White Sox and can't afford to fall much farther back.

* * *

Rookie Herb Score won his 11th, with Ray Narleski wrapping it up in the seventh after two unearned runs had come across.

Southpaw Billy Pierce took over for the White Sox, checking the Athletics on two hits—both by Bill Wilson, who banged a homer with two out in the ninth. The A's had whacked 16 hits while losing 16-12 to Boston Sunday.

Pierce contributed a run-scoring single ahead of Minnie Minoso's two-run triple as the White Sox shelled Bobby Shantz with three runs in the second.

Boston powered past the Yanks on homers by Billy Klaus and Grady Hatton while Willard Nixon was doin' what comes naturally—scattering six Yank hits for his fourth victory in five decisions against the New Yorkers this season. The big righthander is 8-2 against the Yanks lifetime.

* * *

The two homers and a single were the only hits Boston got off loser Whitey Ford until the ninth. Then a single and Nixon's double made it 4-1

A crowd of 61,678—largest night throng in the majors this season and tops at Yankee Stadium since July 21, 1950—sat in as the Red Sox made it four straight in New York.

The other AL action saw Bill Wight four-hit Washington for a 1-0 Baltimore victory in the first game of a twi-night pair; then Roy Sievers homered twice for four runs in a 6-3 Nat success in the nightcap.

In the National, Brooklyn stayed 14 games out front with a 3-2 decision over New York in 10 innings; Milwaukee smacked St. Louis 6-2; Philadelphia clung to fourth with a 9-1 pasting of Pittsburgh, and Chicago beat Cincinnati 4-3.

The Dodgers spotted the Giants two runs in the first inning on Willie Mays' 36th homer, then nicked Ruben Gomez in the sixth and seventh to tie it. Reliefer Marv Grissom walked home the clincher in the 10th.

Warren Spahn, who was 19-10 this time last year, snared his 10th victory against 12 defeats by dumping the Cards to their 1°th defeat in 11 games. Stan Musial homered with a man on for his 999th extra base knock.

* * *

The Phils stayed a half-game up on the Cubs as Bobby Morgan knocked in four runs with a homer, triple and single against the Pirates. Chicago managed to edge the Redlegs with an unearned run in the sixth, after a three-run first inning gave them a good start.

Title List Complete

Griff's, Boys Club Annex D, E Crowns as Junior League Baseball Concludes

CLASS D
Griff's Grill 7, Mets 1 (Final)
CLASS E
Boys Club 3, Lunsford 2 (Final)

Griff's Grill and Boys Club garnered championships Tuesday to complete the circle of four city titlists in the Junior Baseball Leagues as the playoffs came to an end.

Griff's Grill wound up a perfect season by winning the Class D diadem yesterday. Griff's downed the Mets, 7-1, making it two straight in their "best of three" series.

Ted Wharry hurled a four-hitter for the new champions and also helped himself at the plate with a home run and single in four times at bat. Hoot Lamphere chipped in with two singles in four tries. An infield error and a double by Larry Dion gave the Mets an unearned tally in the 6th inning.

Boys Club annexed the Class E crown by edging Lunsford Market, 3-2. The winners saw a 2-0 lead erased by Lunsford's two-run 4th stanza to set the stage for Jerry Orr's single and two errors for the winning run in the 6th.

Orr not only scored the game-deciding run, but hurled a one-hit masterpiece as well. A single by Len Biallas in the 4th frame was Lunsford's lone safety.

He struck out nine opponents and walked four in decisioning Lunsford's Leon Weeks, who yielded just four hits.

Two other Junior League championships were decided Monday. So the 1955 list of city kings reads Griff's Grill in Class D and the Boys Club teams in Classes E, F, and Knothole.

All-Stars Plan Aerial Attack

CHICAGO (AP) — The College All Stars will fight fire with fire when they meet the Cleveland Browns Friday night and on the arms of some of the nation's top quarterbacks ride the possibilities of an upset.

After last year's 31-6 loss to Detroit, fourth straight suffered by the Stars, sponsors of the game finally decided the pros couldn't be beat without an efficient passing attack.

* * *

The late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune and originator of the game, announced after the defeat that the Stars would employ professional coaches in the future.

Curly Lambeau, football pioneer at Green Bay and later coach of the Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins, was named to the job.

Lambeau and his pro assistants decided to pick out the players they wanted. They selected big, fast linemen; hard-hitting, good blocking fullbacks, and halfbacks who can do everything.

In addition, they named five quarterbacks including All America Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame; Dave Leggett, the brain trust who led Ohio State to a national championship; Paul Larson, California's pass master; Oregon ace George Shaw and Tom Carey of Notre Dame.

* * *

If the Stars do upset the Browns, who are favored by 12 points, it will be with passing. Hunk Anderson, former Chicago Bear line coach who is one of Lambeau's assistants, said "You can't score on the ground in pro football unless you're lucky. You have to throw touchdowns."

On the All Star receiving end will be ends Max Boydston of Oklahoma, Henry Hair of Georgia Tech, Jim Hanifan of California who was one of Larson's favorite targets, and Dean Dugger of Ohio State.

* * *

Ends, however, will not be the only targets for the All Star quarterbacks. Lambeau hopes to break loose such halfbacks as Dick Moegle of Rice, Bobby Watkins of Ohio State, Frank Bernardi of Colorado, Frank Eidom of Southern Methodist and Marquette's Ron Drzewiecki.

* * *

In front of this array of talent will be one of the biggest lines ever fielded by an All Star team.

Cleveland Coach Paul Brown is one of many who is impressed by the All Stars. Brown yesterday told his charges that they can "expect to run into an All Star squad the likes of which no other pro club has had to face."

Birmingham Blanks Hosts, Shoots for Legion Lead

Birmingham	4	2	Berkley	1	3
Waterford	3	2	Clawson	1	4

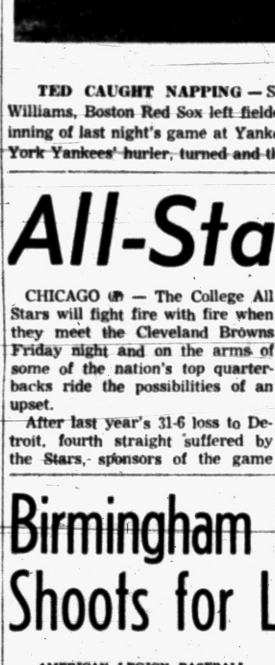

Don Picmann continued his sparkling pitching in American Legion 18th District League baseball play Tuesday night at Rochester, as Birmingham blanked the host nine, 6-0.

Picmann mowed down the opposition yesterday to record a three-hit shutout. While the Birmingham star was chalking up his masterpiece on the mound, his mates were collecting six hits and capitalizing on five Rochester errors to win going away. Al Meury worked until the 6th inning for Rochester and got the loss. Bill Henderson finished.

Birmingham's victory moved it to within half a game of league-leading Boys Club. Birmingham renews its bid for the lead tonight at Clawson while the Boys Club plays host to Waterford, winner of its last three starts. A Waterford win would make the pennant chase more wide-open than ever. Rochester entertains Berkley in tonight's other contest. All games start at 5:30 p.m.

Penn's Boxing Code Receives Final Approval

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's proposed new boxing code was given final legislative approval last night by the State Senate. But because of a parliamentary technicality the code cannot become law until at least Aug. 29 and the state ban on boxing will remain in effect until then.

* * *

Gov. George M. Leader, who asked the State Athletic Commission to form the new code, imposed the ban following the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos boxing fiasco in Philadelphia May 6. He said he would not lift the ban until the new code became law.

The code provides for tighter state control of boxing.

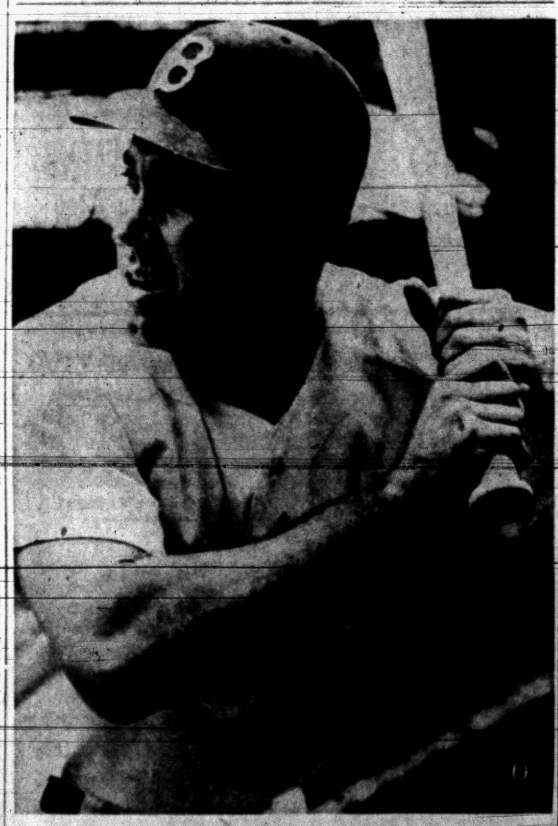

Royal Oak Gridder on Boilermaker Squad

Stan Orlikowski of Royal Oak is among 61 candidates for the 1955 Purdue University football team. The speedy sophomore was a freshman letter winner at fullback for the Boilermakers last season.

Orlikowski attended Warren High School where he starred in three sports. He gained all-state honors in football, all-county recognition in basketball, and won the 220-yard dash in the state high school track meet.

NOT EXACTLY AIMING AT RECORD — Intense concentration marks big league baseball's number one home run hitter Duke Snider in batting practice. Going into the Aug. 8 game against the Cubs in Chicago, Dodger Snider had a record of 38 home runs to Cub Ernie Banks' 37. Snider, who'll be 39 in September, said he hopes no one ever breaks Babe Ruth's 1927 record of 60 homers, but if anyone does, he hopes it's himself.

NFL Steelers' Coach, Player Engage in Fight

Kiesling Chases Finke Off Field, Hangs Fine on Star Quarterback

FOREST GROVE, Ore. (AP) — Pittsburgh Steelers Coach Walt Kiesling had a fight with his star quarterback Jim Finks yesterday and wound up chasing him from the practice field and then plastering him with a $100 fine.

* * *

Kiesling said later the fine was for misconduct and added that Finks had missed a noon squad meeting.

* * *

Finks had no comment on either the fine or the banishment from the practice field. He originally planned to leave camp for Pittsburgh but then changed his mind. He did not say if he would practice today.

Tiger 'Farmer' Bumped Off List by Softballer

SEATTLE (AP)— Detroit Tiger pitcher Van Fletcher has been bumped off the Seattle Rainiers by a softball pitcher.

Fred Hutchinson, former Tiger manager, sent Fletcher back to the Tigers yesterday to make room for Bob Fesler, 25, of Seattle.

Fletcher was optioned to the Rainiers in mid-June.

"It's no publicity stunt," Hutchinson said. "I think Fesler has an excellent chance in organized baseball."

The exceptional whip to Fesler's underhand delivery has given him several dozen no-hit victories in softball.

In a recent exhibition, he struck out all of 11 Seattle and Sacramento players who faced him at the ball park. He was pitching from the close-up mound used in softball.

Louisiana Still Refuses to OK Mixed Fights

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Louisiana State Athletic Commission turned down renewed efforts to promote matches between white and Negro boxers.

J. T. Owen, executive vice president of Louisiana Boxing Enterprises, Inc. (LBE), said yesterday he submitted signed contracts for a bout between former lightweight champion Paddy DeMarco and New Orleans Negro lightweight Joe Brown. But Owen said the commission refused to approve the contracts, contending it violated an earlier commission ruling against mixed bouts.

Joe Dorsey, New Orleans Negro light heavyweight, filed suit against the commission last month. Dorsey said the ruling banning mixed bouts prevented him from earning as much as $10,000 a year and limited his earnings to about $600 in Louisiana rings.

MacPhail Puts Fillies on Block

Offers 11 at Tonight's Saratoga Sale; General Staff Tag $240,000

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—Twelve fillies from the Genangus Farm of Bel Air, Md. — owned by former baseball executive Larry MacPhail—go up for auction tonight in the Saratoga Yearling Sales.

MacPhail, former president of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees, last week sold his General Staff to a syndicate of 17 persons for $240,000.

Last night one of General Staff's sons drew a price of $20,000 during the second session of the 35th annual sales.

The highest price of the night was $41,000 paid by the Hasty House Farm of Toledo, Ohio, for a bay colt by Royal Charger out of Pin Up Girl.

The night's average for 47 yearlings was $7,632.

Win Moves Indians to AL's 2nd Place

CLEVELAND (AP) — "It don't mean a thing if you ain't got that swing," as the Detroit Tigers learned last night.

Tigers got 10 men on base in the 1st six innings of their game against the Cleveland Indians but couldn't tally a run.

Cleveland bunched two walks with singles by George Strickland and Al Smith and a double by Gene Woodling to score four runs off Ned Garver in the 2nd inning and beat the Tigers, 4-2, in the 1st of a three-game series.

Detroit's two runs came in the 7th inning and both were unearned.

Victory moved the Indians into 2nd place in the tight American League pennant race a half game ahead of the New York Yankees who lost to Boston, 4-1.

Southpaw Herb Score got his 11th victory with the help of Ray Narleski, who relieved him in the 7th and held the Tigers to one hit for the rest of the game.

Detroit got only four hits off Score, who walked eight and struck out five.

Ned Garver went down to his 11th defeat against 10 wins. He gave up all seven Cleveland hits before he was relieved by Leo Cristante in the 5th. The Tribe was held hitless the rest of the way as Detroit sent three more reliefers to the hill—Paul Foytack, Joe Coleman and Frank Lary.

Tigers picked up their two runs after Al Smith dropped Bill Tuttle's easy fly in short right field.

Narleski came in and retired pinch hitter Jim Delsing on a pop foul for the 3rd out.

Billy Hoeft, with an 11-5 record, meets Mike Garcia, who has 8 against 10, in another night meeting with the Indians tonight.

Basilio Given Favorite's Role

NEW YORK (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio swaps his fishing rod for boxing gloves tonight when he faces Italy's Italo Scortichini in a non-title 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

The 28-year-old 147-pound king, idle since he lifted the crown from Tony DeMarco two months ago, is a 3-1 favorite to whip the stocky middleweight in their third meeting. The bout, starting at 9 p.m. (EST) will be broadcast and telecast by the ABC networks.

Basilio has been taking bows and loafing since he stopped the hard-hitting DeMarco in the 12th round of a dramatic scrap in Syracuse, June 10.

Berklich, Blythefield Take Caddy Honors

Blythefield Country Club of Grand Rapids and Nick Berklich from Washtenaw were winners Monday in the Detroit District Caddy Championship at Oakland Hills.

Blythefield's caddies captured the Chris Brinke Memorial Trophy with a team total of 527 strokes. Defending champion Washtenaw finished 2nd with 534.

Washtenaw's dethroned 6-man team held the lead until the last when Blythefield's Gary Rosely came in with an 80 to change the script. Plum Hollow took 3rd with 541.

Berklich was tournament medalist, but had to engage in a "sudden-death" playoff with George Crabb to gain the honor. Crabb, from the Country Club of Detroit, tied Berklich at 77 for the regulation 18 holes. The Washtenaw golfer ended the match on the 1st extra hole with a par four. Rosely's 80 gave him 3rd place.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

Rhythm, boy — you got it!

The player pictured here today is sacrificing his all for yardage. Don't do that! Train yourself to think of golf as a game of accuracy and placement rather than of power. Very few golfers could bring that clubhead back, accurately, to the ball from this position. Could you? Don't try it.

Stop your backswing at horizontal. The fun in golf comes from turning in low scores, in your class, and watching yourself whittling away that handicap.

School yourself to think of golf as a game of rythm. Never think of it as a power-house proposition. Soon a great and pleasant fact will dawn on you. This is it: as you increase your rhythm your shots fly farther and straighter. That's a pleasant thought, isn't it? You want to play the very best game you can — as long as you have fun. After that it's work.

9-Run Blast in 5th Wins for Pete's Nine

For four innings Pete's Service and Maceday Gardens played a bangup, scoreless battle in Waterford's Little League Tuesday night. Then the roof caved in on the Garden club.

The Service team compiled nine runs, on five hits, four errors and four walks. That was more than enough to win, eventually, 13-4. Victory gave Pete's 2nd place, all alone.

Murray Snow, one of the smallest players in the league, racked up his 4th win against a single loss. Jim Hoke of the winners had a double and triple (doubled in 2 runs in the big 5th).

Bow Has Youth, Angling Sportsmen's Oldest Group

In the outdoor fraternity, bow and arrow hunters are youngest, fishermen are oldest and firearm game hunters are in between the two groups in age.

A Conservation Department check of the ages of license buyers shows that archers are most numerous in the 26-30 year age group.

For fishermen, the peak group was 36-40 years of age and for firearm game hunters, including both small game and deer, the peak group was 31-35 years of age.

But while a "bunching-up" of hunting activity occurred in certain age groups, the breakdown showed a general, lifelong interest apparent in outdoor fish and game harvesting.

For example, the youngest archer found in the random sample survey was eight years old and the oldest was 78.

Fishermen do not need licenses under 14 years of age, so it's not known how young they start, but a visit to most any dock, lakefront or streamside on a summer afternoon shows that even the smallest of moppets can make cheerful mayhem with fish populations.

The study was based on 1954 license sales.

Help for Bass

State Improves Habitat for Fish in Huron River

By MORT NEFF

No more than 200,000 Michigan sportsmen choose to fish for trout as opposed to nearly 800,000 who prefer bass, pike and panfish as their angling targets . . . yet the state is spending far more money to improve or maintain trout fishing than for the betterment of the warm water species.

NEFF

Recognizing this fact the Conservation Department is giving careful study to the possibility of extending more aid, particularly in the direction of small mouth bass fishermen who find their sport in many of the state's well known rivers.

First on the program, as an experimental project, is an improvement plan for the Huron River between Ann Arbor and Dexter—a stretch of water heavily favored by bass and bass fishermen.

The river in that section is relatively free from pollution, has a good growth of trees along the shoreline to curb erosion, and a fairly substantial supply of natural food.

Its weakness lies in the lack of deep channels and fast moving current — characteristics favored by smallmouth bass. Steam shovels are wading into the Huron River now, gouging 5 foot channels, lifting the bottom onto the shore where it forms a long deflector. The deflectors are so located that the sluggish river is narrowed. The current is forced into high gear rushing into the man-made deeper channels where bass will lie in wait for the food carried directly to them.

* * *

The backwater eddies form resting pools for the fish behind the deflectors, and the increased current in the improved portions of the river will restrain weed growth in late summer months.

Some 20 miles of the river is now undergoing improvement work. The deflectors are so designed as to withstand heavy floods and spring runoffs of ice and snow. Added current means good gravel stretches washed clean to make ideal bass spawning areas.

Archer Shoots 6 Bullseyes at 80 Yards

Coast Bowman Turns in Feat First Time in 71 Tourneys

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Davy Crockett may have shot bar at three but he never hit six bullseyes in a row from 80 yards in a National Archery Assn. tournament.

The feat was turned in yesterday by Joe Fries of Los Angeles and Sylvester Chessman of Cleveland. Tournament officials said today it was the first time in 71 tournaments that two men hit six straight during the same round of firing from that distance.

* * *

While the Fres-Chessman demonstration was a spectacular display of accuracy, the steady shooting of O. K. Smathers of Brevard, N.C., took first day honors in the three-day scramble for the national target title. His 72 arrows at 100 yards, 48 at 80 yards and 24 at 60 yards—called a York Round — amassed 922 points. Chessman was second with 898 and Emil Pikula of Cleveland was third with 893. The defending champion, Bob Rhode of Minneapolis, ranked seventh with 852.

KC Athletics Set All-Time Record

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics last night easily broke the all-time home attendance record of 945,078 set in 1948 when the A's were located in Philadelphia.

The A's, playing their first season in Kansas City, have 20 remaining home dates. The A's drew 304,888 at Philadelphia last year.

National tennis championships will be held at Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 2-11, inclusive.

U.S. Golf Prestige at Stake in Tam Event

CHICAGO (AP)—It might not make a particle of difference in the $100,000 "World" tourney starting tomorrow, but national golf prestige is at stake in Tam O'Shanter's International matches which close today with a promised dog-fight.

In yesterday's opening round of the Tam version of the Ryder Cup matches, an eight-member United States team nudged to a 2½ to 1½ lead over a foreign team in foursome competition.

The same 16 players pair off today in eight matches which may produce as close a finish as last year's opening International competition resulting in a 6½ to 5½ American victory.

* * *

This sideshow which serves as a free admission lure between last weekend's All-American and the rich "World" with its $50,000 cash first prize will have these windup pairings:

Doug Ford, national champion and new All-American winner, vs. Roberto De Vicenzo, an Argentine registering from Mexico City.

Leo Biagetti, Willoughby, Ohio, All-American runner-up, vs. Kel Nagle, Sydney, Australia.

Jimmy Demaret, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., vs. Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B. C.

Ted Kroll, Utica, N. Y., vs. Yoshiro Hayashi, Tokyo, Japan.

Freddie Haas Jr., Claremont, Calif., vs. Angel Miguel Gutierrez, Madrid, Spain.

Tony Holguin, Midlothian, Ill., vs, Peter Thomson, Melbourne, Australia.

Jay Hebert, Woodmere, N.Y., vs. Rudy Horvath, Canada.

Bo Wininger, Oklahoma City, Okla., vs. Antonio Cerda, Buenos Aires.

In yesterday's play, Ford and Biagetti got a surprise drubbing from Gutierrez, the Spanish champion who doesn't speak a word of English, and twice British Open champion Thomson. The foreign duo, mainly on Gutierrez fine putting, scored a 3 and 2 triumph.

Two decisions, worth a point each in the international scoring, went to the twosomes of Demaret-Haas, over Horvath-Cerda, 6 and 4, and Kroll-Holguin over De Vicenzo-Nagle, 5 and 4.

The fourth match was a deadlock between America's Hebert-Wininger team and the Leonard-Hayashi duo giving each squad a half-point. Leonard's failure to hit the green on the 17th for a one-over-par five enabled the Americans to draw even, and the final hole was halved.

* * *

Although each of the 16 players collects $500 regardless of the finish order, Demaret and Haas played as though they were shooting for the $50,000 "World" prize. They had 10 one-putt greens and were six under par for the 14 holes played against Horvath and Cerda.

Golf's most lush tourney, the "World", opens tomorrow with 105 men chasing the $50,000 gold pot in the pro division; 23 women pros shooting for a $5,000 first prize; and 15 men amateurs and 12 women amateurs firing for glory and trophies.

Del Ennis Joins 1,000 Run Club

Phils' Left Fielder Is Fifth Active Player in Exclusive Group

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Left fielder Del Ennis of the Philadelphia Phils has become the fifth active player in major league baseball to drive in 1,000 runs.

Ennis accomplished the feat in the fifth inning of the Phils' 9-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates last night. A sacrifice fly to center field scored pitcher Herman Wehmeier with Ennis' 1,000th RBI of his 10-year career, his 91st of the season.

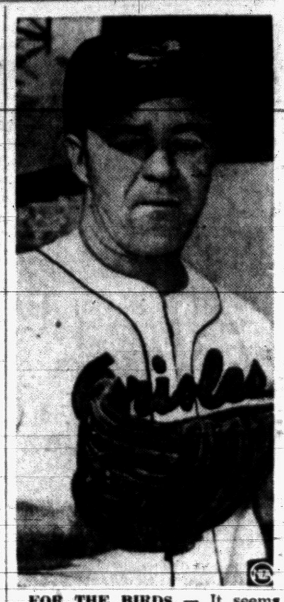

The only other active players who have topped the 1,000 mark are the Red Sox Ted Williams, Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, Enos Slaughter of the Kansas City A's and Mickey Vernon of the

Determine to Retire as Top Money-Winner

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP) — Determine, the little horse with the big heart, has run his last race.

He's only four years old, but the 1954 Kentucky Derby winner is retiring as the top money-winning California-owned horse of all time. His earnings of $573,360 place him ninth in the list of big money winners behind Citation, Stymie, Armed, Native Dancer, Nashua, Assault, Oil Capitol and Mark-Ye-Well.

Southpaw Paul LaPalme, St. Louis knuckleball pitcher, likes to face the New York Giants. In 21 innings this season he has shut them out.

FOR THE BIRDS — It seems strange to see Ed Lopat in the uniform of the Baltimore Orioles. The veteran southpaw was the last of long time Yankees' famous Big Three to go.

Local Grid TV Plan Not Good, Crisler Says

ANN ARBOR (AP)—H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, University of Michigan athletic director, says the National Collegiate Athletic Assn's plan to permit local football television of sell-out games will work only in such sparsely populated areas as the Rocky Mountains.

The NCAA rule will permit television of sell-out games when they do not conflict with any other game in the immediate area.

Taking Michigan as an example, Crisler points out that University of Detroit, Wayne University, Eastern Michigan and Hillsdale College are among those in its area. If one of them were playing at home when Michigan wanted to telecast a sell-out it would bar the telecast.

"In an area such as this, where colleges and universities dot the state like measles," Crisler said, "there is no hope."

Except for games that fit into its rules covering local telecasts, the NCAA will limit colleges to two televisied appearances — once regionally and once nationally, or twice regionally.

Ortiz Fights Mexican in Comeback Effort

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP)—Former bantamweight champion Manuel Ortiz, who says he is trying a comeback, has signed for another fight in the nearby Mexicali, Mex., bull ring.

It will be a 10-rounder Aug. 16 against Papelero Sanchez, who has fought numerous main event scraps in Mexico City and elsewhere in Mexico. The fighters have agreed to enter the ring at 132 pounds.

U.S. Wins 8th Straight Track and Field Meet

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—The United States recently won the eighth International Military Track and Field Meet with 128 points.

Greece finished second among the 12 nations with 112.3 points. France was third with 38 and the Netherlands fourth with 35.3 followed by Turkey with 34.

Joe DiMaggio has made two trips to Cooperstown, N. Y. The first time he failed as a pinch hitter with the Yankees and the second time, July 25, 1955, he was inducted into the Hall of Fame.

ALL SMILES — Driver Joe O'Brien, left, who piloted Scott Frost to victory in the 30th running of the Hambletonian at Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 3, and owner S. A. Camp, pose with cup awarded to the winner after the race. Scott Frost pokes nose into the trophy.

Low Water Hits UP Trout Fishing

By JACK PATTERSON

MANISTIQUE—Lake trout fishing in Lake Superior is following rather an odd pattern. The east end of the lake, as previously noted, isn't producing at all to speak of. At Grand Marias, on the other hand, guides report fishing for lakers about normal, for this time of year pretty good, in other words.

PATTERSON

At Munising lake trout fishing is way off and that seems to be true farther west. Why it should be good in one traditionally hot spot and poor in another no one can say, although there are lots of theories, including lampreys and warm water.

Speaking of lampreys we heard one cure proposed by a long-time Superior guide. Catch all the fish. No food for the lampreys and bye and bye no more lampreys. Not the most practical suggestion in the world, perhaps, but as sound as many we've heard.

Low water in the streams has taken the heart out of U.P. trout fishermen, from all signs and portents. Checked a half dozen of the most favored summer streams and found nary a fisherman. From the looks of thinks it was easy to see why.

In most streams water looked so low that it seemed unlikely it could float a fly, let alone support trout. But, we thought, it can't be as hopeless as it looks. Let's give it a try.

* * *

We picked the Sturgeon, not to be confused with the fine rainbow stream of the same name in the L.P. because it looked about as tough a proposition as might be found.

Large sections of its rock bed were high and dry and what normally were pools were little more than puddles. Elected to fish dry and down stream.

For two or three hundred yards the stream looked devoid of any kind of life at all then below we suddenly noted a rise. Not a big fish, but a fish. An Adams drifted down and was unexpectedly intercepted by a rather nice fish—nice enough to cause us to part the 5x leader and leave the fly with it.

Began to be a war of other rises on every hand and tangled with some small ones before time called a halt.

Significant part of the business was that practically every fish in a quarter mile of stream was concentrated in a comparatively short, narrow run. Pretty obvious too. The fish have to go somewhere. Find that spot and forget about low water.

* * *

Down on the Lake Michigan shore walleyes are beginning to put on their usually fine show in Little Bay De Noc. The big bay seems to be developing somewhat more slowly. But there's only one way to go and that is up—.

As a regular Wednesday feature we try to point out some of the hotter fishing for the benefit of our readers. This week we hardly know which way to point, or whether we should. Best advice is to fish where you'd planned and one way or another you'll make out all right.

Maybe do real well at that, and make us out a liar. Or as Richard Zimmerlan put it, when we ran into him in Munising this morning, "I've been too busy up here all summer with a U. of M. group to fish at all, and for once it didn't hurt a bit. It's just been too blamed hot.

OCSC's Skeet Fields Enjoy Heavy Action

Greathouse Fires Top Round (25) in Last Weekend Trials

While scores of Oakland County families were enjoying the annual picnic at Oakland County Sportsmen's club Sunday, shotgun devotees were making good use of the 20-field skeet layout that has been groomed for the 1955 National Skeet Championship matches, starting Aug. 28 and running through Sept. 4.

Scores of these rabid gunners ranged all the way from a 1st timer's 6x25 to a perfect round, but a great time was enjoyed by the many who faced the stations with varied degrees of success. If the interest manifested so far in advance of the big shoot is any criterion, this year's Nationals will be a record-breaker.

High gunner was Jack Greathouse with a perfect round, while Oliver LeMeaux and E. Graff were close behind with 24x25s. Club Prexy Robert White, Dave Gerraduzzi, Lewis Kochevar and E. Gerardot missed but two to tie down third place.

Other shooters scores were:

J. Woolever, 21; Wm. Bosserman, 19-21-16; Walt Mason, 16-16-19-19-19; L. Sibley, 20; J. Navarre, 20-18-18-17; Lloyd Kirby, 19-20-19; R. Homark, 7; L. Lawrence, 17; C. Gussie, 17-16-17; M. Greathouse, 25-23-24; D. Fairchild, 6; O. LeMeux, 24-20; R. Kramer, 16; R. White, 23-19; H. Coss, 22-19-22; J. Oates, 10; G. Tadin, 10; L. Kochevar, 23; D. Gerradussi, 23-20-19; D. Eakle, 12; J. Chiera, B. Williams, 11; C. Jones, 12-18; S. Lacey, 6; E. Graff, 24, and E. Gerardot, 23.

Jim Lee Howell, head football coach of the New York Giants is in his 19th season with the Giants as a player and coach. This is his second season as head mentor. He was end coach for five years.

ONE FOR THE BIRDS — Vern Smith appears to be sadly contemplating cutting one of his clubs in half to make this shot during a tournament on the Blue Hills Course of Kansas City.

Sept. 1 Deadline for Williamston Plan Requests

LANSING — Landowners should apply before a Sept. 1 deadline if they desire benefits under the state's Williamston Plan of hunting cooperatives.

Last year, 167,000 acres in 50 clubs were included under terms of the plan.

Farmers whose lands adjoin form a large single block to parcel out hunting rights and make game harvest control simpler. The Conservation Department provides free signs, hunting passes and other material.

Interested groups should contact the department's game division at Lansing, 26.

No-Hit, No-Run Game

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Rich Lessmann, 17-year-old righthander with Hannibal, (Mo.) of the Class D Mississippi-Ohio Valley Baseball League pitched a no-hit, no-run game last night to beat Lafayette, Ind., 1-0, in the second game of a doubleheader. Hannibal won the opener, 9-8.

1313 Rainbows Turned Loose

State Puts Big Plant in South Branch, Under Terms of Will

LANSING — Conservation Department fisheries workers released 1313 rainbow trout in the South Branch of the AuSable River recently as partial fulfillment of the will of George Mason, former president of the Nash-Kelvinator Corporation.

Mason willed about eight miles of stream and land on both sides of the river to the public of Michigan and set aside $25,000 for stocking the water with trout over a long period of time.

This year, the Department purchased the 11-inch rainbows for $1000 from a commercial trout farm and released them at several points along the former Mason property. All fish were tagged before release.

Mason died late last year. The fish release was the first to be made under terms of the will.

Helisik Hurls 2nd Blank as Bicmar Trims Ashland

John Helisik pitched a three-hit shutout to spark Bicmar to a 5-0 victory over Ashland Flying Octane Tuesday night at North Side Park as the Class B City Softball League playoffs ended the 3rd round.

It was Helisik's 2nd shutout in the playoffs, matching the blanking he handed Elks 810 Sunday. Helisik fanned six and walked only one while his teammates did all their scoring in the 1st and 2nd innings to eliminate Ashland from the double elimination playoffs.

Knights of Columbus knocked Elks 810 out of the tournament, 9-2, in a battle of survival at North Side. Both teams had dropped one decision. K. of C. team collected nine hits off Ralph Alee while Frank Garza was hurling a five-hitter.

Louie's Tavern defeated Chuck & Louie's Market, 8-6, in a National loop game at Beaudette. Louie's piled up an 8-2 margin, then fought off late rallies by the Market nine to post the decision. Pontiac & Opdyke was awarded a 7-0 win over North Side Service via forfeit in the other scheduled contest.

Playoffs resume tonight at Beaudette. General Motors tangles with Riteway at 7 p.m. and Knights of Columbus face Bicmar at 8:30. GMC plays Gingellville at 7 p.m. and Avondale meets Giles Realty at 8:30 in girls' league games at North Side.

Negro 9 Loses in 1st Round

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Without incident white and Negro teams met in the Florida Little League baseball tournament yesterday and the white team won.

The Negro team from Pensacola, which got into the state tourney at the direction of National Little League headquarters and over protests of the Northwest Florida district director, was nervous at the start of its game with Orlando.

Pensacola pitcher Robert East, 12, was wild and Orlando scored four runs in the first inning. Orlando's Johnny Lane, also 12, pitched one-hit ball and struck out 13.

While there were mixed races on the field—the first time at the city-owned park—segregation continued in the stands.

A crowd of about 750, including some 125 Negroes, applauded when the Pensacola team took the field and whenever the Negro boys made good plays.

TUMBLING SPEED BOAT — This series of pictures shows the speed boat Slo-Mo-Shun V somersaulting at 160 miles per hour while the big hydroplane was in a qualifying run for the Gold Cup race in Seattle, Wash. The driver, Lou Faegol, narrowly escaped death in the mishap, getting off with back and internal injuries when thrown into the water. In this sequence boat takes off (top), is upside down (center) and dives back into the water (bottom). The boat continued forward several yards after completing the somersault.

Beaumont Seems Finished as Texas League Member

BEAUMONT, Tex., (AP)—This city, able usually to outdraw its population at the baseball park, appears through in the Class AA Texas League.

It isn't big enough, especially if it has a losing club, something, the fans complain it has had far too often lately.

Owner Allen Russell is seeking to transfer the franchise and Wichita, Kan., and Corpus Christi and Amarillo, Tex., are under consideration as new homes for the club.

Russell now is in Corpus Christi talking with owners of the Big State League club there. Bob Hamric, owner of the Corpus Christi franchise, is asking Big State League clubs to post $5,000 each as forfeit money to insure the circuit of playing next season and wants an answer in 10 days. If the money isn't pledged he said he would try to buy the Beaumont franchise and enter the Texas League.

Painter Enters Swim Across Lake Ontario

LONDON, Ont., (AP)—A 55-year-old house painter said today he hopes to become the oldest man to swim Lake Ontario. Lean, graying Alfred E. Marchant of London announced he will enter the gruelling cross-lake swim at the Canadian National Exhibition Sept. 5. Marchant, who said three London doctors have certified to his physical fitness, said he doesn't expect to win.

Fighting Hurler Wins 26th Game, Starts Free-for-All

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Rene Vega, who may be the first pitcher in baseball to start a fight after hitting a home run, marked up his 26th victory last night and is the winningest hurler in the game today.

* * *

The balding, 28-year-old Cuban is having a rollicking time with Corpus Christi in the Big State League and has ambitions to go to the majors. His manager, Connie Ryan, former big leaguer, thinks Rene has the ability to do it, too.

* * *

That fight he started occurred Friday night. Rene was winning his 25th game. He slugged a homer and as he rounded the bases he laughed at pitcher Bill Bagwell of Port Arthur and pointed to the fence where the horsehide had disappeared. Bagwell threw a baseball at him. The portly Cuban grabbed a fungo bat and started for Bagwell. It caused a free-for-all and Bagwell and Ryan were thumbed out of the park.

Lighted Golf Course Opens in Pasadena

PASADENA, Calif. — Golfers in southern California, who hate to see the evening sun go down, can have all the night play they want now.

The new and lighted 2,000-yard Arroyo Seco course has 18 beautiful holes built to stubbornly test any player's iron game. The better players can bring clubs from the 5 iron on up. Weaker hitters and women have plenty of use for the 3 iron and clubs higher. The rolling layout is complete with plenty of trees, creeks, ponds and sand traps. One feature in favor of the player is big greens.

Schmidt Gets Last Chance With Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Willard Schmidt, 26-year-old right-hander, is getting his fourth and probably final chance with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Schmidt came up to the Cards in 1952 and in 35 innings compiled a 2-3 record. In 1953 he lost his only two decisions while working in 18 innings. In 1954 he went to St. Petersburg with the Red Birds but failed to make the team. Schmidt was recalled from Omaha after the All-Star game. He had a 12-5 record. His options have expired.

Windsor Angler Claims Trout Wise Old Fish

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ontario (AP) —Frank Chick, a Windsor fisherman, claims there's a large old trout in a stream in this area which teaches younger fish not to bite lures. He says that several times the big fish has chased other fish away from bait in the water. The smart old fish didn't touch the bait either.

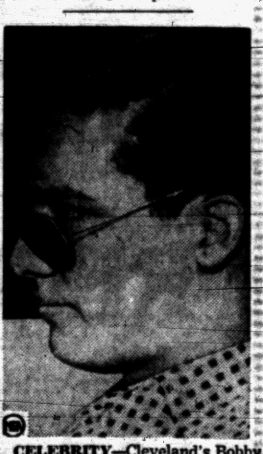

Winner of 1931 Open Still Can Play Golf

CLEVELAND (AP) — Billy Burke won his first pro tournament 23 years ago but that's no reason why at 52 he should quit playing an occasional championship. Recently the 1931 National Open champion won the Ohio Open with scores of 70, 70, 71, 73.

TUESDAY'S STARS

PITCHING—Willard Nixon, Red Sox, tumbled New York for fourth time in five decisions this season, scattering six hits and fanning five for a 4-1 victory in opener of crucial series.

HITTING—Bobby Morgan, Phillies, drove in four runs with homer, triple and single in 9-1 pasting of Pirates.

CELEBRITY—Cleveland's Bobby Avila had to don dark glasses and watch from the stands after recent minor eye surgery.

Thermometer Takes Reading on Smoking Meat

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Engineers have figured out a way to take the temperature of meat.

Minimum internal temperatures of smoked meats — hams, bacon, shoulders and butts, wieners, sausage and balogna—must be maintained to kill off bacteria. Generally to be on the safe side— and not knowing the internal temperatures — meat processers overcook (or smoke) the meats, which causes the meat to shrink.

The new system uses a needle-like thermometer, connected to an electronic recording instrument. Inserted in the meat during smoking it measures the internal temperature, eliminating the need for over-processing. In turn, this increases the meat quality, keeps the flavor properly sealed in, and improves the texture and shelf life of the meat.

Corn Weakest Among Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—Most grains eased on the Board of Trade today although wheat and rye managed to climb after a barely steady opening.

The selloff was not as pronounced as in yesterday's early dealings and the only delivery to set a new seasonal low was September corn. That grain was again about the weakest cereal, as has been the case in recent sessions.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ⅝ higher. September $1.94½; corn ¼ to ⅜ lower, September $1.31⅝; oats ⅛ to ¾ lower, September 58¼; rye unchanged to ½ higher, September 99¼; soybeans ¾ to 1½ lower, September $2.26¼, and lard 2 cents lower to 3 cents a hunderd pounds higher, September $10.65.

Baer Suit Dismissed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former prize fighter Jacob (Buddy) Baer said yesterday in explaining why he couldn't pay $750 alimony arrears: "I'm too old to fight, and I haven't had enough acting experience to be a good wrestler." The judge dismissed the suit, brought by Baer's estranged wife, May Mann, movie fan magazine writer and Miss Utah of 1938. Baer, 40, said he is a film actor but has earned only $6,000 so far this year—a sum consumed by living expenses.

Trial Date Is Set

Trial was set Aug. 18 for Essie C. Simer, 41, of Detroit, who pleaded innocent yesterday before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. Simer was held on $50 bond.

Aircrafts Lead Mart Advance

NEW YORK (AP)—Strength in the aircrafts encouraged an advance in the Stock Market today in early dealings.

Gains were most pronounced in aircrafts. Motors were steady, higher on balance were the steels, rubbers, coppers, chemicals, railroads, oils, airlines and the utilities.

Aeroquip Corp. moved today from the American Stock Exchange to the New York Stock Exchange and opened on a sale of 100 shares at 17¾, the price at which it closed yesterday on the American.

Yesterday the market was down sharply after selling in the motors unsettled the list. The depression of prices continued to the close despite a late rally in the aircrafts.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was down $2.00 at $169.30.

Gains today at the start ran to around 2 points. Losses were infrequent.

Boeing started on a block of 3,500 shares up 2⅛ at 61¾, and among other blocks were General Dynamics 1,500 up ⅝ at 58½, Goodyear 1,100 up 1 at 54½, Studebaker-Packard 1,400 off ⅛ at 9¾, U. S. Steel 2,500 up ⅛ at 51, and Westinghouse Electric 1,000 up ⅜ at 64⅜.

Chrysler, yesterday's most active stock off 2¼, opened today on a block of 1,500 shares up ¼ at 83¾.

Herbert Hoover 81 Today

NEWBERG, Ore. (AP)—This Willamette Valley town today helped Herbert Hoover celebrate his 81st birthday.

Hoover comes to Newberg, where he lived as a boy some 70 years ago, to speak at the dedication, as a national shrine, of the cottage which was his home.

* * *

The former President, spry and fashionable in a new straw hat, arrived by plane in Salem, 30 miles south of here last evening. He was 18 hours ahead of schedule because he wanted to get plenty of rest for the big day. There was no official reception in Salem because only a few friends knew he was arriving early.

As a boy, Hoover moved to Newberg after his parents' death to live with his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Henry R. Minthorn. The Minthorn cottage has been restored to its 1884 condition by the Herbert Hoover Foundation. Hoover will speak there.

The State Highway Commission planned official dedication of a new 25-mile stretch of the Pacific Highway between Portland and Newberg as Herbert Hoover Boulevard.

* * *

Hoover made the trip to Oregon with A. C. Mattei, a San Francisco oil executive and a long-time friend; Mrs. Mattei; and Bernice Miller, Hoover's secretary.

Hoover plans to leave after the ceremonies for his favorite fishing stream, the McKenzie River in southwestern Oregon.

FOUR ACRES OF WARPOWER—The new carrier Forrestal with four-acre canted flight deck seems to dwarf this port city of Newport News, Va., as it nears completion at Newport News Shipbuilding Co. The 1,036-foot super-flattop is called the world's largest warship.

Pontiac YMCA Renovating Gym for Fall Activities

The local YMCA gymnasium will have a new look by September 6. A $10,000 renovation project, which will include the installation of modern glass block windows, a cool-air fan system, and a complete paint job will ready the gym for the YMCA fall program, announced Ted Slosson, executive secretary.

The glass block window installation began yesterday, and bids are still being taken on the painting and fan system, Slosson said.

It will mark the first such major construction in the history of the 30-year-old arena. Last year new lights were sunk into the ceiling, but the black metal-frame windows remained. Along with other improvements, the gym floor will be refinished, as is done each year.

The project was decided on at the last YMCA board of directors meeting in June, Slosson said. The money will be furnished by a United Fund agency for contingent repairs, and will come under the Y's budget.

With a fan system, Slosson said it will now be possible to hold summer activities in the gymnasium, and the new windows will be fine for athletics, as there is no sun glare, and the blocks are heat resistant.

Also, no wire screens will be needed to prevent breakage when the 34 windows are completed.

The old windows did not furnish adequate protection from winter winds, Slosson remarked. Designed to push warm air out through the roof, the estimated cost of the fan unit is $1,200.

GMAC Gives Sales Warning

Credit Group's Brochure Points Up Flaws Found in Liberal Loans

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors dealers around the country have been urged to tighten up on "easy credit" for auto buyers.

* * *

The warning was issued by General Motors Acceptance Corp., world's biggest auto finance company, in a memorandum to GM dealers. The memorandum said:

"GMAC has a suspicion that some people now buying General Motors new cars may not be paying as much as they could comfortably afford and may be obligating themselves to make monthly payments stretched out beyond their actual needs."

The dealer memorandum also states that "undoubtedly some customers who should buy used cars are being induced through 'easy terms' to take delivery of new cars, and some people who ordinarily would buy a lower priced new car are 'easy-termed' into a bigger more expensive model."

USE STANDARD MEANS

By and large, the brochure says, dealers won't run into too much trouble if they stick to the "standard" credit formula which requires a down payment of one-third of the purchase price and allows 30 months for paying off the balance. But, it warns, even in such cases there is a five-month danger zone in which the money owed on the car is greater than the car's actual market value. Fifty-one per cent of GMAC new car repossessions are made before the fifth instalment is paid, it says.

Biggest danger in granting credit, the memo warns, is the temptation to buyers to let the car go back to the finance company when they discover they can go out and buy a similar car for less money than they still owe on the old one.

As an example it cites the dealer accepts a 25 per cent down payment and allows a three-year payoff time. Says the brochure: "For more than 15 months the customer's willingness to keep up his payments could be under pressure if he sees a like car advertised or displayed at a price below his gross balance. Any financial reverses or softening in car prices would make it difficult to keep the car sold."

Detroit Steel Plans $45 Million Refinance

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Steel Corp. will submit to stockholders next month a plan to refinance its 45 million dollar loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corp.

The company borrowed the money in September, 1952, to retire mortgage bonds and expand its Portsmouth, Ohio, plant.

The company said the plan would provide more than two million dollars in additional working capital. It also would open the way for resumption of cash div lends, the company added. There have been no cash dividends paid by Detroit Steel since September, 1953.

The plan involves three steps: the sale of 30 million dollars worth of 15-year first mortgage bonds; issuance of six million dollars worth of new $100 par value preferred stock, and sale of about 503,000 additional shares of common to present stockholders.

M. J. Zivian, president of Detroit Steel, said the company's indebtedness to RFC will have been reduced to $38,180,000 Sept. 1. He said this will be paid off with $32,180,000 in cash and six million dollars of the new stock.

Stockholders will be permitted to acquire the new common stock at a ratio of one share to each five shares presently owned. The price will not exceed 80 per cent of the market value immediately prior to the offering.

Car Dealers See Big Sales Task

Consumers Can Expect Deals as Agencies Vie to Deplete Inventory

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP)—The biggest selling job the auto industry has known lies immediately ahead of the new car retailer; it contemplates the retail delivery of 1½ million or more 1955 model cars in the next 10 to 12 weeks.

* * *

Of the cars to be sold, something like three-quarters of a million currently are in dealer inventories. At least as many more are scheduled for production before the factories are fully converted to 1956 model assembly.

Optimistic industry experts are saying most of these cars will be sold before new models appear; they agree profit margins on most such sales will be unusually slim.

Less optimistic authorities say there will be many "new" 1955 model cars on sale by used car dealers for months after the 1956 models appear. That means many retailers may clear out their current model inventories by selling cars at cost or less to retailers whose chief business is the sale of second hand vehicles.

UNTIL SEPTEMBER

Generally the new car retailers wil' have from now through most of September to clean out their outgoing model inventories. Most General Motors and Chrysler 1954 lines are scheduled for October and early November introduction.

Ford and Mercury cars are expected in the showrooms several weeks ahead of Chevrolet. Ford is trying to whittle down a production lead of some 80,000 cars held by Chevrolet.

The new models are scheduled for introduction four weeks and more ahead of any previous new models in the postwar years to date. It has been suggested in some quarters the switchover to new models was set ahead so that new car retailers could get their sales campaigns started before normal Christmas buying flattens too many purses.

* * *

The first 1956 model to go on sale this year should be Ford's improved Lincoln. It is expected early in September.

To Halt Military Post Businesses

Camp Shops Compete With Private Enterprise, Defense Claims

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Defense Department announced today it is putting a stop to 14 business activities at military posts that have been competing with private enterprise.

On the list which the Pentagon said will be discontinued in the near future were coffee roasting plants, a rope works, a bakery, a dry cleaning plant, paint manufacturing operations and cobbler shops.

The Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization recommended earlier this year that such operations be halted.

The Defense Department submitted the list of 14 operations to the House and Senate Appropriations Committee in accordance with a provision of law which President Eisenhower has declared is invalid.

The 14 operations which will be closed "in the near future" were as follows:

* * *

Coffee roasting plants at Atlanta, Ga., general depot; Auburn, Wash., general depot; Oakland, Calif., Naval Supply Center, and the Naval Supply Center in New York City.

A rope works at Boston, Mass., naval shipyard.

Paint manufacturing plants at the Mare Island, Calif., naval shipyard and the Norfolk, Va., naval shipyard.

A bakery at Camp Kilmer, N.J.

A dry cleaning plant at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Cobbler shops at Gary, Texas, Air Force base; Chanute, Ill., Air Force base; Lowry, Colo., Air Force base; McCord, Wash., Air Force base and F. E. Warren Air Force base in Wyoming.

Star Vocalists to Appear Here at 'Record Hop'

An all-star musical lineup has been scheduled for the second "Record Hop" teenage dance to be held Thursday at St. Michael's Hall, announced Jim Barnowsky chairman.

Featured will be singing starlet Patti Jerome, Ted Donay, local disc jockey, will MC the show, from 8:30 to midnight. Other attractions scheduled are two vocal groups, the Five Jets, from Detroit, and the Birds of Paradise.

Barnowsky said an attempt is being made to secure Bunny Paul for Thursday night's program, and final arrangements are pending.

A music note pattern on the stage curtains, along with silhouettes of dancers, will make up the decorations. Besides Barnowsky, those serving on the decoration committee are Patricia Backes, Danny Donahue, Gloria Barnowsky and Lorraine Deberger.

A list of chaperones will soon be completed, Barnowsky said.

St. Michael's Hall is located on Lewis and Edison streets, and tickets may be purchased at the door. Admission is 75 cents per person. Refreshments will be available.

New Safety Guide Ready for Schools

LANSING (AP)—Tips on how to help avoid playground accidents when children start to school this fall are contained in a new booklet on school playground safety released by the State Department of Public Instruction.

The booklet, available to school officials, stems from a two-year study of the subject conducted by a committee headed by L. P. Cushman, superintendent of schools at Owosso.

About 30 per cent of the accidents among school children occur somewhere around the school grounds or buildings, the study found.

Recommendations to cut the accident rate included:

Proper supervision at all times.

Separation of children into age groups.

Proper surfacing for play areas and proper selection of equipment.

Cooperation of all community agencies in playground programs.

American Watch Trader Jailed in South Korea

SEOUL (AP)—The Seoul district prosecutor's office today said a U.S. businessman, Murray L. Schwarzman, was jailed for questioning about illegal entry of 460 wrist watches and 2,400 watch bands valued at $230,000.

Schwarzman is manager of the Schwarzman International Trade Co. with offices in Seoul and Hong Kong. His home was given as New York.

Of the total, $9,858,361 will be alloted for primary highways, $6,017,283 for secondary highways, $8,072,113 for urban thoroughfares and $6,205,304 for interstate highways.

House Probes News Censure

Seeks to Learn What Kind of Data Agencies Withhold From Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — Just what kind of information do government agencies withhold from the public, the press, radio and TV and Congress — and why?

Do the agencies give out enough information to keep the public informed of what goes on in its government?

A House Government Operations subcommittee set out today to determine the answers. It was established specifically to inquire into government information policies.

* * *

It sent out 5½ pages of questions asking all federal executive and independent agencies to explain by Sept. 15 their practices and policies in giving out information.

* * *

Criticism has been focused on a March 29 directive from Secretary of Defense Wilson saying that information from the Pentagon must be "constructive" to the mission of the Defense Department. A Pentagon spokesman said later the criteria was not meant to be applied to newsmen's questions but only to information originating in the department's public relations offices. The directive has been criticized by some professional newsmen's organizations.

The House group had 80 questions on its questionnaire, divided into three general groupings of information to the general public, to the press and to Congress.

Inflation, Shortages Hamstring Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Turkey, southeastern anchor of NATO, is traveling an increasingly rocky economic road.

Prices are rising. Shortages have developed in some food and industrial items. The country has exhausted its foreign exchange and foreign credit is drying up. It is already heavily in debt.

* * *

Premier Adnan Menderes has inaugurated a series of measures designed to ease the situation — chiefly a crackdown on hoarders and speculators.

Western diplomats have been urging even more drastic measures.

* * *

Ironically, Turkey's problems stem from its own great energy, ambition and desire to complete the modernization begun 32 years ago by Kemal Ataturk. Since then Turkey has achieved remarkable economic progress for an underdeveloped, predominantly agricultural nation.

* * *

Menderes is pushing a development program that includes construction of five hydroelectric plants, 16 cement factories, sugar refineries, new port facilities, rail lines and roads. All this has been a heavy drain on the treasury and on foreign earnings and credits.

Schoolmen Weigh Plea to Renew Segregation

HOXIE, Ark. (AP) — The Hoxie School Board, which ordered racial integration in local schools, has under advisement a petition asking that segregation be restored.

The petition was presented yesterday by eight committeemen of a citizens group which began boycott of the integrated schools last week.

About 25 Negroes were affected by the integration order issued July 16. The white enrollment is about 1,000. Previously Negro pupils were sent to schools in adjoining towns at public expense.

Rig to Hold Harmonica Strangles Guitarist, 13

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Larry George Wealand, 13, was strangled in his bedroom yesterday by a harmonica holder he had rigged up himself. He was found slumped over the edge of his bed with one end of a belt tied to a metal rod at the head of the bed and the other end looped around his neck.

The support was designed to hold a harmonica to his mouth and free both hands to play a guitar. A deputy coroner said the mattress apparently slipped off the edge of the bed and carried the youth with it, causing the belt to tighten around his neck.

Bigotry Issues Badly Handled

Program Fails to Show the 'Why' Causes Behind Intolerant Ideas

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—"I feel most of these Sunday morning religious television programs are weak," the man said. "But it's a tough thing to say. People think you're attacking religion."

"Not if youre specific," the older man said. "Not if you say what you don't like and why—and what you do like and why."

* * *

The older man has been a Protestant clergyman for 45 years. Retired now, he sat before the TV set with the younger man for a couple of Sunday mornings. They found themselves in close accord.

Both were impressed by the television presence of the clergy of all faiths upon the screen—Catholic, Jewish and Protestant. Without exception these men and sisters of the Catholic faith who appear on Sunday television are marked by a serenity and conviction that cannot be matched by the cleverest actors. After all, actors only speak lines written for them. But those who have devoted their lives to religion speak from the heart.

* * *

An example of a strong, assured presence on television last Sunday was the Rev. Robert E. Goodrich on The Pastor—Religion (CBS-TV). It was his task to help a man purge himself of bigotry toward Jews. The theme of tolerance is a great and important one; probably it's the theme most frequently expressed on TV religious programs.

"But Goodrich found himself stuck with a thin story and poor actors," the younger man said when the program ended.

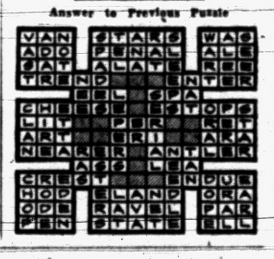

"Maybe there's a problem of budget there," said the retired clergyman. "And isn't it hard to develop any idea dramatically in only 15 minutes? Regardless, I agree with you that it really wasn't a story at all. It was only a situation. Everybody agreed in the end it's a terrible thing to be a bigot. Which it certainly is.

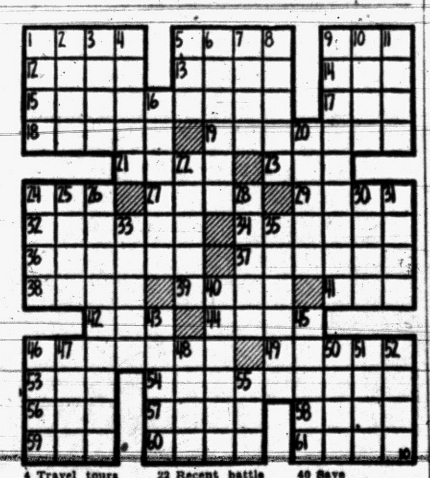

* * *

"But the important thing is to explain WHY bigotry is bad. From the programs I've seen that's where TV misses the boat. It doesn't take advantage of the dramatic opportunity to show how bigotry — how sin — corrodes the human soul. When you show that a bigot cannot be happy, you give a man a good reason not to be a bigot."

The favorite religious program of both men was Look Up and Live on CBS-TV. Its a drama workship program, with excellent actors and intelligent camers, in which a guest clergyman interprets some aspect of life that our grandparents thought far removed from "religion." It has taken up such matters as "the theology of jazz" and folk music of the Southern mountains.

Bold French Restaurant Put Snails on the Menu

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Don Ameche steered me onto a great gustatory adventure recently—he introduced me to the restaurant that "invented" snails.

"You're going to Paris?" the boy from Kenosha, Wis., said to the boy from Rockford, O. "You must have dinner at L'Escargot."

★ ★ ★ ★

Now I like l'escargots, or snails, at the Colony and the Versailles here . . . but they hadn't made me give up chiliburgers, steerburgers and just plain beans. (I wish somebody'd invent a beanburger right now.)

So one night at L'Escargot, 38 Rue Montorgueil, Paris, the famous chef Gabriel served us snails — and explained that until this restaurant sold snails more than 100 years ago, snails had an unglamorous life.

DON AMECHE

Now, of course, they have a future.

"I will have a glorious death," Snailie may say. "I may be eaten by Greta Garbo, or Darryl Zanuck, or the Duchess of Windsor."

They were just pests loafing around gardens, till they got themselves promoted to one of the first courses at fancy dinners.

"And it is a matter of pride with us that they are live snails when we start to cook them," Gabriel said—in French.

"Live!" I said. For I'd always met a snail first when pulling him out of a shell with a fork, ready to eat.

"Oui!" Gabriel brought out four snail shells, each with a live snail in it.

"He's bringing them on a warm plate to make the snails get out fast," an interpreter explained.

One snail popped out of his shell quickly. "He walks!" exclaimed Gabriel. The others were stubborn. Gabriel got a hotter plate. They emerged slowly. We saw the meaning of the term, "snail's pace."

The best part of the snail is the sauce, consisting of a lot of garlic, butter, parsley, pepper, sage and salt.

George Jessel told me he had once enjoyed snails at this very restaurant.

He was frightened of the wriggly article at first. Then he tested one and smacked his lips. He loved the sauce.

"Look, never mind the snail, just let me eat the sauce," he said.

"Listen, you guys aren't selling snails. You're selling sauce. Why, I could eat a piece of straw hat with this sauce on it," he announced.

★ ★ ★ ★

And, happening to have a straw hat with him, Georgie tore a hunk out of the brim, put some sauce on it, ate it, and found it luscious. So he says. I am reminded of an editor who once said, "Never check a good story too closely. It may not be true!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Babette Holmes, the Fleischman heiress, wired an admirer she flew to Juarez to divorce Fred Wille . . . Slapsie Maxie and Horace McMahon are teaming at the Palace and there's a laugh a second . . . One of Frankie's 7 NBC spectaculars will be called "Hoboken"—and in it he'll go back there.

GAY-DARLENE

Jean Pierre Aumont, vacationing on the Riviera, says he'll be here next month to see Grace Kelly . . . Dan Topping's ulcers are acting up (because of his Yankee's slump?) . . . Gay-Darlene Bidart, a hostess on Alexander Cohn's Theater Tours, is a psychology major at Hunter College.

Sally Marlowe, Gina Lollobrigida's double in the Burt Lancaster circus movie, fell off a trapeze and busted her nose . . . Veteran columnist S. Jay Kaufman had a stroke in Europe, was flown here . . . Marlene Dietrich visited some of Paris' flossiest dress designers last week and bought only mannish slacks . . . latest in line to sue a scandal magazine is socialite Bob Sweeney. That's earl, brother.

Takes $32,000 on the Advice of His Papa

NEW YORK (AP)—Shoemaker Gino Prato, still accustomed to following his father's advice at the age of 55, has taken his $32,000 and given up on The $64,000 Question.

A cable from Papa Prato in Italy advised: "Stop where you are. That's enough this way. Regards, Daddy."

And that's what the Bronx cobbler, with the pleasing ways and amazing operatic lore, did last night.

* * *

Before a jammed studio and a vast television audience, Prato took a check for the $32,000 he had won so far. He translated the cable from Genoa, and said:

"Because I take my Daddy's advice all my life, I accept."

Prato said he received the cable from his 92-year-old father this week, in the midst of a dilemma over a deluge of "do" and "don't" advice from well-wishers.

* * *

No one yet has tried for the grand prize on the CBS-TV giveaway show.

If Prato had taken a chance and lost, he would have received an expensive automobile as a consolation prize.

Under the policy of the show, the opera question Prato would have faced last night will remain a secret.

Prato, his wife Caroline and their daughter Lorraine, 23, will leave for Italy to visit his father soon after the daughter is married to Eugene Jonnides, 26, Aug. 27.
