Coal-Mining Crew Escapes Shaft Fire

MOUNT MORRIS, Pa. (UPI) — Twelve miners were rescued today after being trapped more than six hours by fire deep inside a soft coal mine on the Pennsylvania-West Virginia border.

Rescue teams led 11 of the men to safety from an area where they had barricaded themselves 3,000 feet from the end of a long shaft which slanted to a 430-foot depth from the Mount Morris portal of the Christopher Coal Co.'s Humphrey No. 7 mine.

★ ★ ★

The 12th man was carried out by stretcher and taken in an ambulance to a hospital. Rescuers said he did not appear to be injured seriously.

The trapped men were among a force of more than 100 miners working the overnight shift when the fire broke out shortly after 6 a.m., EST.

RACED TO SAFETY

The other miners raced through underground tunnels to safety on the West Virginia side as soon as an alarm was sounded.

The fire still burned in the mine after the trapped men were rescued.

Company fire crews and firemen from nearby communities fought the flames with water and then with foam.

Millard Brock, 38, of Morgantown, W. Va., section boss of the trapped men, said the men did not panic and immediately employed routine survival measures, first finding a safe area with fresh air and building a barricade.

"It was not bad down there," Brock said. "We got a little smoke but nobody panicked. Everybody followed my orders to a 'T' and we got out okay."

Brock said the men followed a tunnel away from the fire until they found an area with fresh air.

★ ★ ★

"Thank the Lord for that," he said.

Three rescue teams entered the mine shortly before 11 a.m. and quickly made contact with the 12 miners.

★ ★ ★

The Humphrey mine is located 20 miles northeast of the Mannington No. 9 mine, Mannington, W. Va., where 78 miners were trapped underground by explosion and fire last Nov. 20 and given up for dead.

Two Defend City After Rights Report

By ED BLUNDEN

Two Pontiac officials leaped to the defense of the city yesterday following issuance of a report on race relations in Pontiac by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission (MCRC).

The report, which took 7½ months to prepare, was sweeping in its criticism of race bias in almost all levels of the community and charged "Pontiac is a city divided by racial and ethnic prejudices and fears."

★ ★ ★

Following the morning presentation, rebuttal was offered by City Manager Joseph A. Warren and Police Chief William K. Hanger.

Both said the report was based on findings of last June and insisted substantial changes had been made since then.

DETAILED EXPLANATIONS

Though each gave detailed explanations of what the city and police are doing in attempting to rectify racial policies, many black members of the audience said little actually had been accomplished.

In the law enforcement section of its findings and recommendations, MCRC stated, "The black community does not trust the police department, and the department has done little to improve the situation."

★ ★ ★

Hanger made a point-by-point defense of the police department, which took over an hour. He insisted most of the recommendations for action had already been placed in effect.

He said that, in a four-year period, the police had recorded 331,551 contacts with the public, out of which 33 civil rights complaints had been filed.

'SHOULD BE COMMENDED'

"I think the Pontiac police should be commended," Hanger said. He also reported that a stepped-up Negro recruitment program had produced only two additional Negroes out of 31 new officers.

At the conclusion of Hanger's talk, a black speaker accused him of making it sound as if no problems existed. Hanger then admitted "problems and tensions exist," but added he would "stack up my organizations against any in the state."

★ ★ ★

Warren also hit the time lapse and said, "We in Pontiac had made great strides over the past 7½ months and many of the recommendations (by the MCRC) have become obsolete."

He pointed out that a failure to provide bus service to the social services center at the county center at Pontiac Lake

MCRC's Report Time Explained

Michigan Civil Rights Commission Cochairman Julian A. Cook Jr. commented today on the length of time it took for the MCRC to report following hearings here last June.

Pontiac's was the first in a series of reports on race situations in Michigan cities.

Cook, a Pontiac attorney, said, "I think we'll do it differently next time. In the case of the Pontiac hearing, we had all this taken down on stenotype machines, then it had to be transcribed and typed, and then sorted through and examined.

"There were several drafts written, edited and refined before we came up with the final report. We had some 2,000 pages of testimony to begin with. This was condensed to a full report of some 70 pages, and a summary report of eight pages.

TAPE NEXT TIME

"I think the next time we'll record testimony on tape to omit the time-consuming procedure of transcribing it," Cook said.

The Pontiac report was written by teams of MCRC employes, under the direction of Donald Bauder, a former director of the Pontiac office of the MCRC.

★ ★ ★

Israel Charges More Iraqi Jews Face Execution

By The Associated Press

Israel told U.N. Secretary General U Thant yesterday that another group of Jews is threatened with execution in Iraq. Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, Joel Barromi, conveyed the information, and Thant said he would look into the report immediately.

After the Iraqi government announced that nine Iraqi Jews and five other Iraqis were hanged yesterday for spying for Israel, Iraqi Information Minister Abdullah El Samarrai told a news conference in Baghdad that 65 other persons would be brought to trial soon on charges of spying for Israel and plotting against the Iraqi government. Barromi, in his warning to Thant possibly, was referring to members of this group.

Israel denied that those executed yesterday were spying for her and said their only crime was being Jewish. Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban in a statement to Thant said the Baghdad government "has perpetrated an act of barbarity which exceeds even what the world has come to expect from a country in which violence and murder have become almost commonplace."

Thant expressed fear that the executions would upset U.N. efforts to achieve peace in the Middle East. The Iraqi delegation to the United Nations at once complained that Thant was mixing in something that was "entirely an internal affair of Iraq."

'FACTS UNKNOWN'

The U.S. government and American Jewish leaders also condemned Iraq's action. Secretary of State William P. Rogers said the mass public executions were "repugnant to the conscience of the world" and "a matter of deep concern" to the U.S. government. But Rogers noted that because the United States has no diplomatic representative in Baghdad, he could not comment "on the facts surrounding the trials."

Murder Retrial Verdict Is Guilty

By JIM LONG

For the second time in six years, a Pontiac man was found guilty yesterday of first-degree murder in the slaying of a Pontiac grocer during a robbery in 1962.

An Oakland County Circuit Court jury of four men and eight women deliberated 75 minutes before returning the verdict against R. G. Stroman, 35.

★ ★ ★

He will be sentenced Feb. 26 by Judge Clark J. Adams. First-degree murder is automatically punishable by life imprisonment.

Since January 1963, Stroman has been serving a life term for his part in the killing of Eftimias Vasiliou five months earlier, but late last year the Michigan Supreme Court granted him a new trial.

ATTORNEY DISMISSED

When the trial began last week, Stroman dismissed his court-appointed attorney, William Bolle of Royal Oak, so that he could act as his own attorney.

During his final argument to the jury yesterday Stroman dealt mainly with problems he claimed he encountered in getting reports and transcripts from earlier proceedings, and charged the court, prosecutor, defense counsel and police with a conspiracy to violate his rights.

KY OKAYS PRIVATE MEETINGS—South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky stands besides U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge yesterday outside Ky's Paris residence after an hourlong working session between the allied negotiators. Ky said his government is prepared to meet privately with the other side to discuss peace.

Trouble and Retreat Likely Hanoi Tactics

PARIS (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese officials anticipate three developments from North Vietnam and the Vietcong in connection with the Paris peace talks.

If they are right, then the Americans and their South Vietnamese allies can expect some difficult moments on the battlefield and at the conference table. But they believe North Vietnam may also be preparing a diplomatic retreat.

Related Story, Page A-2

The U.S. and South Vietnamese sources give this assessment of the intentions of the North Vietnamese and the National Liberation Front.

1. Hanoi and the Vietcong will try to inflict some form of military embarrassment on the U.S. and South Vietnamese forces in Vietnam while the negotiations continue in Paris.

SIGNS OF PREPARATION

There are signs of such preparations in the field, but the sources do not anticipate that the blow will be as heavy as last year's Tet offensive.

They believe the attack will be aimed primarily at increasing the American public's distaste for the war.

2. Hanoi and the Liberation Front will use the Paris talks as a forum to enhance the NLF's status and its claim to be the legitimate power in South Vietnam.

This will be the kind of verbal attacks on the Saigon regime that were delivered by the Front during last Saturday's opening session of the full-dress talks.

One ranking official said he expected "the other side's propaganda broadsides to play a prominent role in the negotiations for some time."

3. Meanwhile, North Vietnam may begin preparing its own people for an agreement which falls short of the victory promised for so long by the Communist leaders.

CHANGE IN TERMINOLOGY

South Vietnamese officials put more emphasis on this than the Americans do. The men from Saigon point out what they consider to be a significant change in the terminology used by Hanoi's negotiators.

One source said that when the preliminary talks between the United States and North Vietnam began last May, North Vietnamese delegate Xuan Thuy referred to the Saigon regime as the "nguy quyen," the Vietnamese expression for "enemy power."

★ ★ ★

After President Johnson's bombing halt last Nov. 1, Thuy called the Saigon regime "nha cam quyen," or the "administration."

At last Saturday's session Thuy referred to his Vietnamese opponents as "chinh quyen," an expression meaning the South Vietnamese "state," the informant said.

U.S. Endorses 'Disney Dream'

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A year-round resort 7,800 feet up in the High Sierras, in Sequoia National Park, received the go-ahead yesterday from the U. S. Forest Service.

The approval means "realization of one of Walt Disney's last and greatest dreams," said Disney's brother, Roy O. Disney, board chairman of the sponsoring Walt Disney Productions.

★ ★ ★

Among conservation groups opposing the development was the Sierra Club, a nationwide organization headquartered in San Francisco.

Dr. Edgar Wayburn, its president, said the Sierra Club has "under consideration the filing of legal action, but first we want to study what the Disney firm plans and what is involved."

RUIN FEARED

Wayburn said the club feared Mineral King Valley would be ruined.

The resort will be known as Mineral King, after the valley. It will be built in a wilderness area 55 miles east of Visalia and about halfway between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

★ ★ ★

No automobiles will be allowed within 1½ miles.

An estimated 8,000 skiers will zip down the slopes on weekends by 1978. Most visitors are expected for summer sports such as horseback riding, hiking, camping and fishing.

Forest Service approval of the $35 million resort was announced at the news conference at the Disney studio.

Skyjack Cures: Flights of Fancy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American citizens, aroused by the number of airline hijackings, has come up with several cures — some serious, some frivolous and most pretty unusual.

One of the strangest suggestions called for installing a trap-door in the cockpit. Once a would-be hijacker entered, the pilot could open the trap with the hapless air pirate plummeting to his death.

★ ★ ★

Some other ideas:

Build a double-door cockpit entrance, trap the hijacker between them and fill the space with gas. Or shoot would-be hijackers with a tranquilizer gun — that's the way TV thugs are handled.

Day after day, proposed cures flood the Federal Aviation Administration, which says it is in danger of being swamped by the mail.

The FAA serves as a clearinghouse for suggestions sent to the FBI, the White House, the State Department and airline companies.

Suggestions from experts are sent to the FAA's engineering division for careful analysis. Manufacturers of devices that might control the problem are invited to give demonstrations.

Letters stream in suggesting metal-detection devices. The trouble is, the FAA responds, there's no way to tell a pistol from a cigarette lighter or belt buckle.

★ ★ ★

Nor would metal detectors warn of a plastic explosive or a bottle of nitroglycerine.

Another popular solution is for the U.S. to provide free transportation to Cuba, where most hijacked planes are taken.

★ ★ ★

And then there's the ultimate solution: "Have the Cuban national anthem played over the public address system of the airliner just before takeoff. Arrest anyone who stands up."

Nixon to Request Extra Funds From Congress to Fight Crime

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon told Republican congressional leaders today he will soon ask Congress for extra money to combat crime, with emphasis on speedier court trials and unclogging of crowded courtroom calendars.

After Nixon conferred with the GOP chiefs for more than two hours, the party's Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, said a supplemental appropriation to cover anticrime activities between now and June 30 would be submitted by the President "shortly."

Related Stories, Page A-7

Dirksen said that in order to "bring crime to heel" there will have to be more judges and a large Justice Department staff. U.S. attorneys are so overworked, he reported, that people in their offices can devote an average of only 45 minutes to the preparation of a case for presentation in court.

Nixon also is planning to apply a personal touch as boss of the federal bureaucracy and press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said before the chief executive is through he will have visited most if not all of the major departments.

After a lunch at the Senate tomorrow, for instance, Nixon will visit the State Department. Later in the week he plans a repeat of his visit yesterday to the Pentagon.

★ ★ ★

Nixon's maiden news conference as President yesterday drew high praise from Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and Senate Democratic Whip Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

"He did very well," said Kennedy.

Mansfield said he was favorably impressed with the "tone, the tenor, the frankness" of responses by the President who marked almost exactly one week in office when he went before live radio and television in the East Room of the White House.

That was the general impression, too, of the more than 450 newsmen who attended — a record for first news conferences by newly elected presidents.

Realtors Will Hear State Budget Chief

Michigan Budget Director Glenn S. Allen Jr. will be the featured speaker Monday at a meeting of the Pontiac Area Board of Realtors.

The 6:30 p.m. program will be held at First Federal Savings of Oakland, 761 W. Huron.

Prior to his appointment as budget director in 1966, Allen had held the position of state controller for four years. He is a former mayor and city commissioner of Kalamazoo.

★ ★ ★

An attorney, Allen received his degree from the Columbia Law School. He has been a partner in the law firm of Crum and Allen since 1945.

Murder Retrial Verdict Is Guilty

called it a "blatant appeal for sympathy" and told the jury they must only consider the facts presented in the case.

Leftman pointed out that four witnesses had testified to statements made to them by Stroman that placed him in Vasiliou's Boulevard Market, 309 Orchard Lake, the evening of July 30, 1962.

THREE CONVICTED

Stroman was one of three men who were convicted of the crime in December 1962. The other two — Joseph Page and Benny L. Spells — are serving their life terms.

Page was convicted of actually pulling the trigger and shooting Vasiliou three times. The three allegedly were members of a stocking bandit gang.

Stroman is believed to have driven the pair to the market and then served as a lookout while the robbery took place. Under Michigan law, Storman is equally as guilty since he participated in a felony that ended with murder.

Nixon Will Extend Surtax, Dirksen Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Senate Republican leader, said today the Nixon administration now is convinced the 10 per cent income tax surcharge must be continued until June 30, 1970.

It is needed, he said, to finance federal activities to help damp down inflation.

Dirksen spoke after a conference between President Nixon and GOP congressional leaders.

He reported Nixon undecided whether to present 1969 legislative proposals in a single package accompanied by his own State of the Union message. But the senator said "the present thinking" is to submit the bills one at a time.

Commission Again Defers Pension Action

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission deferred action on a City Retirement Board request for an increase in retirement pay compensation for the third time last night.

City employees have asked for an increase in retirement pay computation from two-tenths to three-tenths of one per cent of their base pay.

★ ★ ★

The proposal would be placed on the April 8th ballot for voter approval. The commission has repeatedly postponed action on the request on the grounds of further study.

The commission authorized the city manager to negotiate a possible purchase of property on Maple directly opposite the end of Southfield as a site for a historical park.

BUILDING RELOCATION

The Hunter House, the city's oldest building, would be moved to the site.

Commissioners also beefed up the city's dog ordinance, doubling the fine to $10 for a second dog pick-up. Third-time offenders will receive a summons.

Earnings at Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank increased to $882,222 or $4.35 per share for the year ending Dec. 31, 1968, a 47 per cent increase over 1967 earnings of $600,255 or $2.96 per share.

The bank passed the one-hundred million mark with total resources reaching $110,127,155 versus $97,281,737 at year-end 1967, an increase of 13 per cent, James A. Hayden Jr., president, said.

★ ★ ★

The bank's board of directors have declared a dividend of $1 per share on its capital stock outstanding to shareholders of record Jan. 30, 1969.

Kidnap-Assault Brings Jail to 4

An Oxford youth and an Orion Township man were each sentenced this morning to 20 to 40 years for the abduction and assault of a Pontiac couple last September. Two companions were given 2-to-4-year prison terms.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt imposed the longer sentences on James R. Perna, 19, and Raymond M. Spring, 24.

★ ★ ★

Both had pleaded guilty earlier this month, Perna to rape and Spring to kidnaping. Their pleas were entered while their nonjury trial was in progress before Pratt.

The lesser sentences were ordered for Percy J. Greenwood, 21, of Pontiac and James L. Davidson, 19, of Oxford, both of whom had pleaded guilty during the trial to felonious assault in connection with the part they played in the offense.

'NOT DIRECTLY INVOLVED'

Assistant Prosecutor John J. Davey said that though Greenwood and Davidson beat the 19-year-old girl's escort, they were not directly involved in the kidnaping and rape.

They were picked up by Perna and Spring after the kidnaping and rape took place, according to Davey.

★ ★ ★

Charges of rape, kidnaping and armed robbery are pending against Perna and Spring in Lapeer County in another incident the same day.

S. Viets Report 320 Reds Dead in 2-Day Battle

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese headquarters said today a crack battalion of government rangers backed by U.S. planes and artillery killed 320 North Vietnamese in a bloody battle Saturday and Sunday 18 miles from the Laotian border.

A spokesman said the U.S. bombers and artillery accounted for 200 of the enemy dead. He said 51 rangers were wounded in the engagement 25 miles northwest of Pleiku city, in the Central Highlands.

★ ★ ★

U.S. officers said the Communist command has pulled thousands of troops into border areas, apparently waiting to see what happens at the Paris peace talks.

The ranger battalion was reported still sweeping the area today and U.S. B52 bombers unleashed 500 tons of bombs last night and today on enemy troop concentrations.

REPORT ANOTHER BATTLE

The South Vietnamese reported another battle four miles from the Cambodian border and 54 miles northwest of Saigon early today in which about 400 North Vietnamese troops assaulted the night bivouac positions of a government paratrooper battalion.

★ ★ ★

By dawn the enemy had been beaten back after a U.S. flareship illuminated their positions for a hail of fire from U.S. helicopter gunships. A spokesman said 23 enemy bodies were found. Two South Vietnamese were killed and several wounded.

★ ★ ★

A U.S. spokesman said American gunships, bombers and artillery killed another 24 North Vietnamese soldiers and smashed four heavy machine gun positions along the Cambodian border 63 miles northwest of Saigon.

Determined Californians Start Big Cleanup Chore

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. William Sugden walked into their $70,000 home in the flood-swept suburb of Glendora. The floor of the ranch-style stucco house was covered with two feet of mud, the furniture was soggy and beyond repair, shelves were covered with slime.

"My wife and I built every bit of this house ourselves 12 years ago, and we will rebuild it ourselves," said Sugden, a supervising engineer at Lockheed Aircraft.

★ ★ ★

Sugden's determination was typical of other California householders as they surveyed the damage done to their property by mud, water and debris.

There were 91 known deaths in the nine days of heavy rains. Seven other persons were missing and presumed dead in mud slides and flooded rivers.

Damage was estimated at $35 million by Gov. Ronald Reagan before he set out today on a private airplane tour of the flood stricken areas. The estimate was expected to go millions of dollars higher.

★ ★ ★

Families with brooms and hand shovels trudged up hillside streets to their mud-caked homes. Strewn in their paths were bolders rolled like pebbles from the several California mountain ranges paralleling the Pacific Ocean.

State officials said nearly 9,000 Californians were evacuated from their homes in similar circumstances.

Nearly 1,000 persons were isolated because of washouts, landslides and wrecked bridges throughout the state. Helicopters, flying under bright sun, came to the aid of the sick and the elderly.

FEDERAL AID

The floods brought promises of emergency credit and other aid including the distribution of government food commodities from the U.S. Agriculture Department.

In San Francisco, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers estimated various flood control facilities around the state prevented another $1.25 billion in damage to property in foothill areas.

Riots Shake Pakistan

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan's army, already on patrol in Lahore and parts of Karachi, was ordered into the northwest city of Peshawar today to put down more antigovernment rioting.

Radio Pakistan said Peshawar, on the approach to the storied Khyber Pass, was hit by a general strike protesting President Mohammed Ayub Khan's policies. All shops were closed and no traffic was moving.

However, Julian A. Cook Jr., cochairman of the MCRC and a Pontiac lawyer, said he doubted that any progress had been made.

In response to a question from the audience, he was not able to say he had "optimism" for the community. He said he had failed to see any "real progress" between last June, when the hearings were held, and now.

★ ★ ★

Cook said the hope was that the report will get to the persons responsible for discrimination and that they would change their behavior.

2 Force Jet to Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — Two men, one brandishing a .38 revolver and the other armed with a bomb, hijacked a National Airlines jet over the Florida Everglades today and forced the pilot to fly to Cuba.

It was the second act of aerial piracy on National in five days. A Key West to New York flight was commandeered and taken to Havana Friday by a knife-wielding man who said he was a U.S. Navy deserter.

Antifilibuster Victory Seen—Someday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says efforts to change the Senate's filibuster rule are bound to succeed, but apparently not in this Congress.

Mansfield reported yesterday that efforts to work out a compromise between opponents and defenders of Rule 22, which requires a two-thirds vote to shut off debate, were unsuccessful.

But he predicted that "in time — in my opinion, a very short time," the Senate would vote to let a majority invoke cloture. This, he said, would change the basic character of the Senate as a deliberative body to the detriment of both the Senate and the country.

The last hope for a change this session was today's vote on a petition by 35 senators — 27 Democrats and eight Republicans — to end debate and allow a vote on a motion to consider a proposal that would let three-fifths of the senators voting and present invoke cloture.

The motion has been pending for three weeks but defenders of the present two-thirds rule have filibustered against it, preventing a vote.

The fight over the Senate's cloture rule broke out shortly after Congress convened. It was a repetition of what has happened at the start of each new Congress in recent years.

★ ★ ★

The session's first vote on cutting off the debate was taken Jan. 16. The count was 51 to 47, 15 short of a two-thirds majority.

Hubert H. Humphrey, then presiding over the Senate as vice president, ruled that only a simple majority was necessary to end the debate. But on an appeal the Senate overrode him, 53 to 45.

★ ★ ★

Secret Pueblo Session Hears Admiral

CORONADA, Calif. (AP) — The admiral who had operational control of the USS Pueblo told his story of the intelligence ship's seizure behind closed doors Monday. The Navy then said he would repeat in public Wednesday the unclassified parts of it.

There was no hint of what Rear Adm. Frank L. Johnson, former commander of U.S. naval forces in Japan, testified during an afternoonlong appearance before the Navy court of inquiry.

A Navy spokesman, briefing newsmen, said the testimony was classified but that Johnson would appear at the open hearing for at least two hours and answer questions from attorneys for the Pueblo skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher.

"He will go over what he said in the closed session with classified matter taken out," the spokesman said.

ASKED FOR HELP

As North Korean gunboats closed in on the Pueblo, Bucher radioed Johnson's headquarters at Yokosuka, Japan, with urgent pleas for help.

"These guys mean business" was one of Bucher's messages.

★ ★ ★

Johnson will have an opportunity to say publicly whether he considered the Pueblo adequately armed. Bucher said he got 50-caliber machine guns for his ship where he wanted larger 20-millimeter cannon.

"Two 50-caliber guns sound awful big to a lot of people," says one of Bucher's close friends, Lt. Cmdr. Alan P. Hemphill, "but in the Navy we call them 'spitball guns'."

Johnson's former chief of staff, Forrest A. Pease, spent the morning in closed session.

PUBLIC OPINION

During the noon recess, Bucher's attorney, E. Miles Harvey, called a news conference to say Bucher thinks the public is wrong in getting indignant over his treatment by the court.

The court warned Bucher last week that he is suspected of breaking military regulations by surrendering the Pueblo and could be court-martialed."

★ ★ ★

"The court of inquiry has been completely fair," Harvey said.

"We have received hundreds of telegrams from people indignant with the court. This is simply wrong. It is not a big thing."

DEFENSE

Harvey also said Bucher wants to command another ship, adding that Bucher "embodies to me everything you want in a commander and a commanding officer." He said Bucher was in good physical condition, that the hearings "have not been taxing on either his physical or mental health."

Harvey said Bucher has received 300 to 400 telegrams and "we have yet to receive one telegram adverse to the commander's position." In addition, it was disclosed that Bucher has been given a private note of support from some members of his crew, written on a piece of the Pueblo letterhead stationery.

"Captain, we made it this far together and we'll finish it together," the note said. It was signed, "Bucher's Bastards," the name the Pueblo crewmen gave themselves during captivity.

Asked by the court to explain his surrender, Bucher testified last week, "It was my intention to surrender the ship rather than have a continuous barrage of fire . . . which would only have resulted in what I considered to be the needless loss of lives."

MONTH'S HEARING

The Navy has said the court may last another four weeks.

Harvey said Bucher hopes the court will end as soon as there has been a full opportunity for testimony "because he'd like to get on with his job with the Navy. He's anxious to get this show on the road." He said Bucher wants the entire story on the record "to clear any slur that might have existed on his name and to get the facts before the nation."

Cast Cancels Nude 'Rerun,' Has Seminar

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Deciding one nude performance — which resulted in 10 persons being arrested — was enough, the cast of the controversial play "Dionysus in '69" talked rather than stripped Monday night.

Instead of a scheduled performance of the play at the University of Michigan Monday night, the actors of a New York-based company called the Performance Group held an impromptu seminar, discussing censorship, repression and art.

★ ★ ★

With police watching in the 200-member audience, one girl appeared about to remove her blouse, but did not.

Earlier, six men and four women members of the cast, appeared in court at Ann Arbor Monday on charges stemming from their Sunday night performance in which they disrobed.

Court Judge Dieter Thomassen entered innocent pleas for all. Preliminary examination was set for March 12. All were freed on $75 bonds.

TEN IDENDIFIED

The 10, all from New York, were identified as Anne R. Barclay, 22; Margaret J. Ryan, and Ciel Smith, both 26; Joan E. McIntosh and Richard Dia, both 23; Patrick E. McDermott, William F. Finley Jr., William H. Shepard and Robert J. Bosseau, all 24; and Samuel E. Blazer, 23.

While they were discussing art at Ann Arbor, the State Senate in Lansing Monday night adopted a resolution calling for a study of the breaches of the peace and disorders on university campuses.

★ ★ ★

Senate backers of the resolution, however, said it did not stem from the arrest of the 10 Sunday.

ARREST AFTER PLAY — Three members of the cast of "Dionysus in '69" and one of the assistant managers await booking and fingerprinting at Ann Arbor Police headquarters after their arrests for indecent exposure Sunday. The four were arrested after the play at the University of Michigan. Pictured are (from left) Joan MacIntosh, Ciel Smith, Richard Schechner, director, and Judith Allen, all of New York.

Dems Claim 'Witch Hunt'

Campus-Unrest Probe OK'd

LANSING (AP) — Amid cries of "witch hunt" and "Little HUAC," the Michigan Senate yesterday authorized a study of breaches of the peace and disorders on university campuses of the state.

The resolution passed by a voice vote.

Backers of the proposal said it did not stem directly from the arrest Sunday of 10 persons at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor for indecent exposure as they performed in the play, "Dionysus in '69."

"The people are sick and tired of billy goated, shaggy-haired idiots with little moral worth who are interfering with and corrupting the education that their children want and that we are paying for," said Sen. James fleming, R-Jackson, chief sponsor of the resolution.

SMOKESCREEN CHARGED

"The cry 'witch hunt' is a smoke screen to torpedo this committee," Fleming charged.

"A little (U.S. House of Representatives) Un-American Activities Committee in Michigan concerning the area of academic freedom will not solve the problem" of student unrest, said Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Roger Craig, D-Dearborn, pointed out that one young man had disrobed at Oakland University to read poetry — and 10 had at the University of Michigan. Taking the respective sizes of the universities into consideration, he said, the numbers were "proportionately representative."

"Nothing that happened," he added, "authorized such a witch hunt."

'CONCLUSIVE TO LEARNING'

"It is imperative that the atmosphere on the campuses be conducive to the learning process, and that it not be disrupted through illegal or disorderly student activities," the resolution states.

The measure empowers an eight-member committee to "study breaches of the peace and disorders or the possibility of criminal conspiracies on university campuses."

Included are "the influence of any subversive groups or illegal interference by individuals and groups with the enjoyment and use of Michigan educational facilities; strengthening state criminal laws relating to breaches of the peace on the campus and disorders on the campus; and the role of the Students for a Democratic Society as related to campus disorders."

★ ★ ★

The committee, which will have an expense budget of $25,000, planned to meet later this week to decide its first move.

COMMITTEE CHOICE HIT

Senate Minority Leader Sander Levin, D-Berkley, blasted the assignment of the study to the Senate State Affairs Committee, rather than to the education, judiciary or appropriations committees.

★ ★ ★

Several state affairs committee members are among those who have most vocally decried campus unrest.

The senate state affairs committee includes Republicans Robert Huber of Troy, Gordon Rockwell of Mount Morris and George Kuhn of West Bloomfield Township and Democrats Michael O'Brien and Charles Youngblood, both of Detroit.

Added to the committee for this study were Republican Sens. Gilbert Bursley of Ann Arbor, a member of the Senate Education Committee; N. Lorraine Beebe of Dearborn, Health, Education and Retirement Committee member; and James Fleming of Jackson, judiciary committeeman who introduced the resolution.

'Only U.S. Budget Overhaul Could Cure M59 Problems'

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Residents of this township were told last night that it will take a swift realignment in federal spending before there can be any realistic hope of solving M59 traffic problems.

Residents also heard that quick adoption of badly needed highway safety improvements is the only answer for coping at least temporarily, with the existing M59 situation.

A presentation at a public meeting by two representatives from the State Highway Department made it clear that nothing can be definitey planned toward building a new M59 until funds are available.

Highway department engineers have projected a new highway corridor extending west from Pontiac to M23. The length and exact location of the road within the corridor, however, is far from being determined.

RUMORS CLARIFIED

The highway officials also clarified rumors that appropriations might be made for the new highway by the previously projected July 1973 date.

Sam Cryderman of the highway department's traffic planning division said if the government changes its spending priorities from defense to domestic matters, the M59 problem could be alleviated well before 1973.

★ ★ ★

He added, however, that it is not realistic to think that the actual site of the roadway will be determined and subsequent hearings begun until July 1973 at the earliest, and possibly well after that date.

"All we can do to correct such area service road problems as M59 is work with the existing funds available and as you know, those funds have been slipping considerably," said Cryderman.

7,000 MILES

He noted there are approximately 7,000 miles of two-lane roads in Michigan that need to be converted to four-lane highways now.

★ ★ ★

Cryderman added that traffic studies have indicated that the ratio of traffic fatalities to road use on M59 does not exceed the national average. "The situation is critical, but there are other situations which are worse in the state. Priority for area service road projects is still determined by accident rate and volume," Cryderman noted.

★ ★ ★

Admitting that the M59 project has suffered excessively from a federal spending emphasis on interstate prospending emphasis on interstate projects. William Rush, highway department road planner, pointed out overall federal cutbacks in highway spending along with doubled costs of construction and rights-of-way have contributed heavily to the delay in building the much-needed four-lane M59 highway.

SAFETY MEASURES

In answer to questions concerning what township residents could do to improve M59, James Reid, township supervisor, explained the only active pressure residents can apply is to work for new safety measures.

★ ★ ★

Prime safety needs, he said, are passing lanes at several key intersections, including the particularly critical Ormond and Hill Road intersections and at the entrance to the Alpine Valley ski resort. The next project probably will be a system of traffic lights at numerous bottleneck situations near factory entrances, Reid said.

★ ★ ★

Reid added that he plans to meet with Paul Reilly, district highway engineer in the near future to work out a thorough safety study of M59 from Pontiac west through the township in addition to determining the feasibility of applying needed safety measures.

Following last night's meeting, residents organized an advisory committee to assist Reid in attempts to work out the most immediate safety problems on M59. Ray Yokey will be chairman of the committee.

Anti-ABM Group to Hold Town Meeting Thursday

WOMAN (Women Opposed to Missiles And Nuclear Warheads) will hold a town meeting for all interested citizens at 8 p.m. Thursday to discuss the Sentinel antiballistic missiles proposed for the area.

The meeting will be in the Gold Room of the Oakland Center building at Oakland University.

Mayors from the cities in the metropolitan area will be asked to attend and discuss action local governments can take to support action being taken in Congress to prevent the Army from locating the antiballistic missiles in the metropolitan area.

Dr. Alvin Saperstein, physics professor at Wayne State University, and Dr. Robert Williamson, physics professor at Oakland University, will discuss the technical implications of the ABM system. The Army also has been asked to send a representative to present its point of view, said a WOMAN spokesman.

PETITION DRIVE

WOMAN, a nonpartisan group now composed of men and women, is conducting a petition drive calling for public hearings on the entire question of the ABM system.

"Although we are pleased that Congressmen (William S.) Broomfield and (John) Conyers have been successful in getting a delay in site selection from the Department of Defense, we think our work has just begun," said the chairman of WOMAN, Susan Grossman.

★ ★ ★

"We would like to warn people not to misinterpret publicized statements which imply that Rep. L. Mendel Rivers (D-S.C.) has agreed to hold public hearings. Rep. Rivers has only agreed to holding closed hearings to discuss problems related to real estate once the sites have been selected.

"These are not public hearings which will allow local citizens to voice their objections to the Army's proposals," concluded Miss Grossman.

FINAL SELECTION

The final ABM site selection must be approved by the House Armed Services Committee, which is headed by Rivers.

Date Set for Novi Incorporation Case

NOVI — A Feb. 4 court date has been set for Novi Township's requested hearing for immediate consideration of another motion for a stay of the Novi city charter election.

The election on the proposed charter is now set for Feb. 18.

★ ★ ★

The township has gone to the State Court of Appeals in its latest effort in a long fight to prevent the proposed incorporation of the village as a home rule city.

The township claims that the cityhood vote should not have been held because the petitions to hold the election were invalid.

LOST APPEAL

Last November, the state Supreme Court denied a township attempt to bypass the Court of Appeals in its effort to reverse an Oakland County Circuit Court decision made in 1966.

The township's legal battle to thwart incorporation of the 32-square mile village of Novi into a home-rule city has been in progress more than a year.

★ ★ ★

Village voters originally approved incorporation in a May, 1968 election by a margin of about 200 votes out of a total 1,192. A city charter commission was created to draft and submit a proposed charter for voter approval.

'Clean-Water Funds on Basis of Need'

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. William G. Milliken said yesterday funds under Michigan's new $350-million clean-water bond issue program will be distributed on a need basis.

He said no community or region will receive favorable consideration for political or other reasons.

★ ★ ★

"The funds must be spent with wisdom and selflessness," Milliken said in a letter to Warren Mayor Ted Bates. "Allocation must be on the basis of true need."

The city of Warren, a Detroit suburb, has applied to the state for financial assistance for sewage treatment facilities.

Highway-Fund Tap for Patrols Opposed

DETROIT (UPI) — Two top Michigan highway officials went on record yesterday in opposition to a proposed $1.6-million diversion of state highway funds to State Police road patrols.

Wallace D. Nunn, vice chairman of the State Highway Commission, and Henrik E. Stafseth, state highway director, made their views known at the annual meeting of the Michigan Road Builders Association.

★ ★ ★

Gov. William G. Milliken proposed the fund diversion in his first executive budget, sent to the Legislature last week.

Stafseth said the proposal could cost Michigan an additional $1.6 million in federal highway construction funds this year.

2nd Cityhood Talk Is Near in Oxford

OXFORD — The second of two informational meetings on the question of cityhood for this village will take place tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting, to be held at Oxford High School, 105 Pontiac, will be sponsored by Oxford Township.

An election to incorporate the village and about four square miles of the township as the city of Oxford is scheduled for Feb. 11.

Col. Joseph A. Parisi Jr., executive director of the Michigan Township Association, will speak at tomorrow night's meeting. His address will be followed by a question-and-answer session.

Rochester Unit to Hear Physical Fitness Talk

ROCHESTER — Members of the Rochester Cooperative Nursery and St. Paul's Cooperative Nursery will hold a joint meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. at St. Paul's Methodist Church, 620 Romeo.

At the meeting, Robert Broderick will speak on "Physical Fitness for the Family."

Broderick, a doctoral candidate at the University of Michigan, has taught school at Pearl River (N.Y.) High School and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, Mass.

Pontiac Twp. Deadlock Ends as Planning Post Is Filled

By TOM GRAY

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Around 35 residents turned out for last night's Township Board meeting and saw:

- The board temporarily break its two-month-old stalemate and name a new member to the planning commission.
- A resident indicate his intention to seek an injunction forbidding the board from paying legal counsel hired to help resolve the planning commission dispute.
- Supervisor Roy Wahl declare that he will call no more executive sessions of the board: "From now on, all board meetings will be open to the public."

APPOINTED TO POST

Clement J. Cleveland, 3625 Bald Mountain, was appointed to the commission after three earlier appointments had been turned down by the board.

★ ★ ★

The planning commission, however, still is blocked from action, according to Wahl, because it must have as one member a township trustee.

A two-hour debate, which included members of the public, was kicked off when the board rejected Wahl's first two appointees, Trustee Mrs. Ronald E. Drake and Claude Arnett, 4-2, with only Mrs. Drake and Clerk Mrs. Greta Block voting in favor.

★ ★ ★

The board's four-man majority, Treasurer Mrs. Goldie Mailahn and Trustees John Richardson, Robert Grusnick and Walter G. Smith, opposed the appointments, following the pattern of several earlier meetings.

COMPROMISE DISCUSSED

Richardson then said he would "implore" Wahl to submit additional names for appointment to the commission. "There are other people in the community who can ably serve it," the trustee asserted.

Wahl responded, "Thursday I received a call from your (the majority's) attorney, and we discussed a possible compromise."

★ ★ ★

Under the compromise, later revealed in conversation, Arnett would be accepted by the board, but Mrs. Drake's name would be dropped. The board would then agree on a board member for the commission, and a second citizen member.

The supervisor said, however, that since Arnett's appointment had been rejected, he would not withdraw Mrs. Drake's name.

REASONS DETAILED

Richardson and Mrs. Mailahn then read statements detailing their reasons for rejecting the appointments. Arnett and Drake, who were in the audience, replied. A general discussion followed.

Two weeks ago, the board approved a motion by Richardson to retain counsel for both board factions to settle the dispute.

★ ★ ★

Many of the comments by members of the audience centered around the use of township tax money to pay an attorney, since the township already employs an attorney on a regular basis.

CLEVELAND

However, Township Attorney Paul M. Mandel had previously asked not to be placed "in the middle" in an argument between members of the board.

EYES INJUNCTION

After some discussion of the question, a resident said he too had retained an attorney for the purpose of seeking an injunction against such a use of township money.

★ ★ ★

William J. VanderZee, 2751 Hatton, confirmed this morning that he and other residents are planning to begin legal proceedings against the board.

★ ★ ★

When the discussion ended, Wahl offered VanderZee's name to the board. It was rejected, 4-2, with the board splitting along the same lines as in previous votes.

In his fourth attempt of the evening, the supervisor offered Cleveland, editor of the Oxford Leader. The board approved the appointment, 6-0.

For Bloomfield Township

Right-of-Way Map OK'd

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Oakland County Road Commission has approved a new right-of-way map for the township.

The township's revised road right of ways were determined and adopted by the Township Board in 1962, but final action had been pending until the recent final approval and map publication by the road commission.

★ ★ ★

Prior to publication of the map, the township board has incorporated the potential road-widening right-of-way requirements in its zoning setback requirements.

★ ★ ★

"Publication of the map now just makes it official," township Supervisor Homer Case said. "The right of way map and attached brochure will be available to the public. They will also be attached to each building permit request so property owners will know exactly where they stand regarding future township right of way requirements." Case added.

The map diagrams the major thoroughfares in the township, indicating the varying width of footage needed for possible future road widening.

The right-of-ways vary from the 250 feet or more on freeways (I-75) to 204 feet for such roadways as M24 down to 86-foot widths for residential streets.

★ ★ ★

Case explained the right-of-way plan should provide for a minimum of hardship and inconvenience to property owners or occupants as well as providing increased safety to the motorist as highway facilities are expanded.

★ ★ ★

"Now that the right-of-way widths have been approved and published by the Oakland County Road Commission, property owners can landscape or do other property improvements accordingly, since they know how a future road widening project would affect them," Case said.

Case added that some of the older roads in the township have varying widths. The new right of way code calls for a uniform width for each road for its entire length. "This fact will definitely enhance the beauty of the road." Case said.

★ ★ ★

The supervisor illustrated the cost-savings factor by explaining that in the past residential or business property often ran over into the right of way resulting in additional costs to the township to buy part of the property when a roadway was expanded.

★ ★ ★

"Now that the precise width for each road that might be widened in the township has been determined, these extra expenditures can be eliminated," Case remarked.

★ ★ ★

Case also cited that in some road improvement projects water mains and utility poles had to be relocated costing several extra thousands of dollars.

Heavy Snow Blankets Pacific Northwest

By the Associated Press

Heavy snows blanketed the Pacific Northwest today while snow, freezing drizzle and rain slicked highways in a large part of the midcontinent.

Seven inches of snow piled into Seattle through Monday evening, and up to a foot covered outlying areas and other sections of western Washington. Traffic slowed to a crawl over the city's hills, and some businesses shut down or closed early on Monday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Seattle has plowed through 20½ inches of snow so far in January, compared with a normal average of 11 inches for the entire winter.

The snows spilling out of a storm system off the Washington coast ranged south over much of Oregon and east through Idaho as well.

CATTLE STRAY

A succession of heavy snows combined with continued bitter-cold weather has left drifts so high and hard-packed in some range areas of north-central Washington that cattle were reported walking across fences and wandering away.

Eastward across the Rockies, the weather from the Plains to the Appalachians was a treacherous pattern of snow in northern areas, freezing drizzle in central sections and thundershowers to the South.

Five inches of new snow coated the Sioux Falls, S.D., area, piled atop earlier accumulations of 18 inches. One and 2-inch snows ranged from Nebraska to Wisconsin.

Travelers warnings were in effect for much of the region from the south-central Plain through the Midwest.

With nine days of heavy rain ended in California, residents began the task of reclaiming and cleaning up property ravaged by floods and mud slides. The known death toll was 91, with seven other persons missing and presumed dead. Preliminary damage estimates ran to $35 million.

★ ★ ★

Subzero cold gripped the northern Rockies and Plains and also dipped into portions of the Northeast. Freezing weather nipped parts of the Southeast before dawn.

Temperatures ranged from 29 below zero at Bozeman, Mont., to 71 at Key West, Fla.

★ ★ ★

Some other early morning reports: Boston 8 clear, New York 15 clear, Philadelphia 21 clear, Washington 27 clear, Atlanta 33 cloudy, Miami 70 partly cloudy, Detroit 16 cloudy, Chicago 31 freezing drizzle, Minneapolis-St. Paul 24 snow, St. Louis 34 drizzle, Kansas City 32 freezing drizzle, Dallas 67 partly cloudy, Denver 31 partly cloudy, Phoenix 54 partly cloudy, Los Angeles 53 partly cloudy, San Francisco 42 partly cloudy, Seattle 21 snow, Anchorage 3 cloudy, Honolulu 68 partly cloudy.

Judy Garland's a Hit

LONDON (AP) — Judy Garland made a triumphal return Monday night to the nightclub where she flopped last week, singing with all her old verve and announcing later that she was secretly married in a London church nearly three weeks ago.

The audience at the Talk of the Town went wild with delight and cheered Miss Garland on the stage from which she fled amid boos and jeers last Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

The 46-year-old singer seemed fully recovered from the flu she said had upset her act and made her more than an hour late for her last appearance.

Her performance ended with members of the audience rushing forward to shake her hand.

WED JAN. 9

In her dressing room afterward, Miss Garland said she and Mickey Deans, 35-year-old New York discotheque manager, Deans added: "We were married in a London church between the hours of 3 and 4 a.m. I am not prepared to give the name or even the denomination of the priest. There are personal reasons."

College Is Getting First of 2 Planes

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — The first of two Navy twin-engine Beechcraft planes destined for Northwestern Michigan College is scheduled to arrive here this week, with the second due to be flown in next week. The planes, valued at more than $30,000, were purchased from the Navy for use in the college's aviation program.

Man, Ready to Die, Does

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Ron Frederickson couldn't take what he considered the futility of life tied to a kidney machine.

Last Wednesday the 33-year-old blind, pain-ridden diabetic signed a waiver removing himself from further treatment.

★ ★ ★

He died Monday.

Only a week ago he told his wife Karen, 24, that he was "ready to die."

'WORST OF ALL'

"I could put up with the blindness and even the pain but the futility — I mean being inactive and with no chance to do anything — this is the worst of all," he said.

For nearly three years, both Frederickson and his doctors knew the diabetic condition which caused his kidney condition would be fatal.

His life expectancy with machine treatments might have been a few weeks or months.

"I tell you I'm not afraid of death," Frederickson told Minneapolis Star columnist Jim Klobuchar. "Do you know how I feel? I'm kind of excited. Some time ago I became what I think is a real Christian. I now really believe this is just a beginning."

SOLE SURVIVOR

Mrs. Frederickson is the only immediate survivor.

Field Day for Pueblo Second-Guessers

Every armchair admiral in the Country knows what he would have done had he been skipper of the ill-fated USS Pueblo on Jan. 23, 1968. He would, in the finest tradition of JOHN WAYNE, have blasted the besieging North Koreans out of the water by sheer spit power or, if need be, scuttled his own ship by tearing it apart with his bare hands.

Only one man, Cmdr. LLOYD M. BUCHER, really knows what could have been done, given time, what weapons and what chances he had.

★ ★ ★

Weighing the lives of 82 men against the value of what he considered would be a suicidal resistance, he chose to surrender the ship after destroying as much of its secret equipment and papers as he could.

★ ★ ★

Unfortunately, officers are expected to be fighters first and humanitarians second. Hearing BUCHER'S own frank testimony, the Navy now suspects him of dereliction of duty, of violating the regulation forbidding a commanding officer to deliver his command or any personnel under his command to any person representing a foreign state so long as he has power to resist.

On the determination of his "power to resist" will hinge BUCHER'S future as a Navy officer, should formal charges be brought against him. His career may have already been determined, however, according to the unwritten law which states that the higher brass never makes mistakes, and if a member of the lower brass dares charge or imply that they have, it is the first and last time he ever does.

It is clear that BUCHER'S power to resist was far less than it should have been—machine guns against torpedo boats. His power to destroy his equipment or his ship was almost nil, despite his repeated requests for destruct mechanisms.

★ ★ ★

The Pueblo should never have been placed in such a vulnerable position. Certainly aid should have been readily available at all times. Every possible contingency should have been allowed for.

★ ★ ★

What happened was a repetition of the U-2 incident. The enemy was underestimated. Nobody apparently thought it could happen, including Bucher himself—and his superiors, who are now judging him.

'Medic' Bracelets Now Encircle World

In 1956, a young girl in California nearly died after receiving an injection of tetanus antitoxin to which she was allergic. Her father, Dr. MARION COLLINS, made a bracelet carrying the warning of her allergy for her to wear at all times.

This was the first Medic Alert bracelet and the beginning of an organization which has made more secure the lives of tens of thousands of persons with special medical problems who might receive no treatment or the wrong treatment during episodes of shock, delirium, unconsciousness or coma when they are unable to communicate with those trying to help them.

★ ★ ★

Today, the organization—its full name is Medic Alert Foundation International—has more than 200,000 members in America, with some 2,000 joining monthly. There are another 100,000 members in affiliates around the world.

★ ★ ★

Yet the American Medical Association estimates that there are over 40 million people in America alone who suffer from some special or "hidden" medical problem, such as epilepsy, heart condition, allergy to penicillin, who are taking coagulant drugs or wearing contact lenses.

Medic Alert is nonprofit. For a basic fee of $7, a member receives a bracelet or necklace in stainless steel and one medical problem engraving. Each emblem is registered and the serial number is engraved on the reverse side, as is the telephone number of the foundation's central file at its headquarters in Turlock, Calif.

★ ★ ★

The central file accepts, on a 24-hour basis, collect calls from physicians, hospitals, law enforcement officers and other authorized persons and relays additional information from the individual's file.

A new service which Medic Alert recently announced is the first worldwide human transplant information pool.

★ ★ ★

This will enable hospitals and officials to determine immediately whether a dead or dying accident victim wearing the Medic Alert emblem desires to donate his eyes, heart, kidney or other organs to help save the life of another.

Nixon Victim of Awkward Budget Setup

By RAY CROMLEY
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — It makes little sense for an outgoing administration to make budgets for the first 18 months of the next president's term of office.

CROMLEY

Since he must live with the second half of the Johnson budget for 1969 as well as the Johnson budget for 1970, President Nixon will not be living under a budget wholly of his own making until July 1, 1970, a year and a half from now.

By that time, about one-third of his four-year term of office will have passed.

★ ★ ★

Nixon can make changes, of course, and will. But major alterations are difficult, as outgoing officials make clear.

If the budgets are carefully set up to box the next man in, he doesn't have a great deal of leeway.

The outgoing man can promise all things to all men. His successor cannot help but look bad politically.

The present system thus invites a party holding the White House as a lame duck to make a political football out of the budget.

★ ★ ★

There is no sound reason for this awkward situation.

Budgets are almost 12 months in preparation. But it would be possible for the president-elect to be brought into the budget-making early in November of the year he is elected.

COULD TAKE OVER

He could take over the budget-making process at the stage it was in at that date.

His staff could move in, be given access to the position papers presented by the permanent working bureaucracy in the preparation of the budget proposals.

★ ★ ★

These staff men of the new president could also be given consultation rights with the technicians who prepared these papers.

Budgets normally are presented early in January. This need not be the case. There is no reason why, when a new administration comes into office (especially if a different political party will be at the helm) the budget presentation to Congress could not be delayed until April 1.

FIVE MONTHS

By such a process, the new president and his staff would have almost five months to rework the proposals and to make the budget in reality that of the new administration rather than the budget of the group going out of power.

At the same time, this procedure would give Congress three months to complete action by June 30.

★ ★ ★

This would be sufficient time for all, or almost all, budget proposals to be given careful study by congressional committees.

But if there were items on which the Congress had not completed action by June 30, provision could be made for expenditures to be continued at the old levels pending final congressional action.

★ ★ ★

Let us give our new presidents a break.

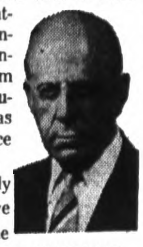

'When Do The New History Books Come In?'

David Lawrence Says:

Nixon Skillful at News Confab

WASHINGTON — President Nixon, at the first news conference of his administration, handled himself with a skill and forthrightness rather unusual and unexpected from a chief executive who has been in office only a week.

He obviously could not have done it if he had not been studying public questions carefully. His televised meeting with the press indicates that he has chosen a clear-cut rather than an ambiguous approach.

LAWRENCE

★ ★ ★

Nixon, for instance, in a simple manner disposed of a question on a highly controversial subject — the admission of Communist China to the United Nations.

He said his policy would be to continue to oppose Red China's entry — first, because Peking has not indicated any interest in becoming a member and, second, because it has not shown any intent "to abide by the principles of the U.N. charter."

Nixon suggested, too, that the resumption of talks at Warsaw soon by American and Red Chinese representatives may disclose "whether new changes of attitude on major, substantive issues may have occurred."

'ORDERLY WAY'

The President made it clear that he does not think policies — particularly foreign policy — should be made "by off-the-cuff responses in press conferences, or any other kind of conferences."

He stated that he believes decisions should be reached in an orderly way, and that this is why he has established the Urban Affairs Council and a Cabinet committee on economic policy and has revitalized the National Security Council for Foreign Affairs.

★ ★ ★

Nixon referred to two very long meetings of the National Security Council at which foreign policy was discussed. He declared that he regards the Middle East "a powder keg, very explosive" and that it is very important to "cool it off" so as to avoid "a confrontation between the nuclear powers."

Perhaps the most interesting explanation that the President gave was related to the possibility of a "cease-fire" in Vietnam.

He said the word applies more to a conventional war than to a guerrilla war. He pointed out that, in the latter, "One side may not even be able to control many of those who are responsible for the violence in the area," and that a cease-fire could then be "meaningless."

He feels that an agreement on mutual withdrawal of military forces and other factors should have priority in the peace talks at Paris.

As for the armament strength of the United States, Nixon declared that "sufficiency" is a better term than either "superiority" or "parity."

He said that the important objective is to get "sufficient military power to defend our interests and to maintain the commitments which this administration determines are in the interest of the United States around the world."

INFLATION

With respect to the problem of inflation, Nixon gave assurances that he is considering what actions can be taken which will not bring "an unacceptable rise in unemployment."

These were some of the various issues which the President discussed in a candid way with the members of the press, many of whom said afterwards it had been one of the most interesting and satisfactory news conferences in years.

Bob Considine Says:

Ted Kennedy's Course Determined by Tragedy

NEW YORK — The surviving Kennedy brother, Teddy, has made his second bold move in the direction of the highest office in the land. Dismiss his disclaimers. His course has been set not so much by personal ambition as by the disasters that destroyed his three older brothers. He is moving up in the political world by default.

CONSIDINE

Joseph P. Kennedy Sr. would have it no other way. Though mute, physically stricken since 1961, the steel-minded old man is playing the last card in a hand that once held four aces.

★ ★ ★

Edward Moore Kennedy surprised a lot of us by vaulting over a host of testing grounds and landing unscathed in the U.S. Senate in 1962. But the general impression was that he rode in on the coattails of his brothers, the president of the United States and the U.S. attorney general, aided by the lackluster competition he faced in his home state.

Now the most precocious, but hardly the brightest or toughest, of the Kennedy political dynasty is Senate whip. It is not an automatic step to greatness. Some of its duties are almost menial.

CONFINING JOBS

He must try to mollify dissidents within the clan — Among others Sen. Gene McCarthy, who doesn't like him — and stay in touch with missing colleagues by phone. He must prod his elders without provoking them.

Kennedy will have several assistant whips to help him, but it will still be a confining job. That was one of two reasons why Sen. Edmund Muskie did not try for it. The other reason was that Muskie could not have won over the incumbent, Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana. Teddy Kennedy could and did, 31-26.

★ ★ ★

Surely, he's on his way. But save for the violence that has cursed this family, Teddy might very well be as obscure today as any one of Gen. Eisenhower's brothers. So might Bobby have been. So might even Jack have been.

The anointed politician among the four sons was Joe Jr., the eldest. He was the prime heir to the father's fortune, political philosophy and perhaps even ruthless ambition. But he was killed in the war in 1944.

MANTLE WENT TO JACK

The father, heavily shaken by the tragedy, bestowed the mantle on Jack, who would have preferred to be a correspondent or a Harvard professor.

When Jack was killed, it became Bobby's turn to carry the torch forward as far as he could.

★ ★ ★

When Bobby was slain many friends of the surviving brother, Ted, begged him to abandon the inherited mission. Some loose nut in the land might try to make it a clean sweep, they said to him.

But clearly his dedication outweighs his trepidation. He has seen the beckoning light at the end of a long, dark tunnel. He has heard his father's unspoken command.

'Classrooms Need Comfortable Furniture'

The furniture in the schools today is outrageous. Parents are always looking for ways to make kids like school. Why don't they start with the desks and chairs? Since schools were started, desks and chairs have been changed the least. Grades have been divided; classrooms made smaller; special rooms made for shop, homemaking, chemistry and band; and better color schemes used to make schools more inviting.

★ ★ ★

Libraries have tables and chairs, but they also have easy chairs to sit in. If a library, a place especially built for reading and studying for long periods of time, has comfortable chairs, why shouldn't a school? There are water fountains in every office, lean-back chairs, and coffee breaks. A kid gets a few minutes between classes to make it to the next class. It's time parents did something about the school furniture. You selfishly did something about your own jobs, now do something to help your kids.

Few Benefit From Money Spent on Airports

It is interesting to note in the full-page ad of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association they stress "the people who use their own airplanes for the same reason you use your automobiles." While the pilots use the roads also, we drivers cannot utilize general airports, nor do we motorists get local, state and federal aid for garages or parking lots. Money spent on roads benefits 100 per cent of the people, but money spent on general airports benefits only one per cent of the people. Oakland-Pontiac Airport claims to be overloaded with operations and by 1970 another airport will have to be furnished. At whose expense and for how many? More and better airports but not roads? If the pilots want an airport and hangars, let them build them at their own expense as we motorists do our garages.

Nixon's 'Softer' Missile Stand May Stir Debate

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

News Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's preference for the term "sufficiency" rather than "superiority" as his standard for U.S. military power may be an attempt to improve the climate for U.S.-Soviet arms control talks.

★ ★ ★

But it is likely to provoke debate over what constitutes "sufficiency."

At his first news conference Monday, Nixon appeared to ease the hard stand he took during his campaign last fall.

Without abandoning superiority as a goal, the President said "I think 'sufficiency' is a better term."

HARD TO NEGOTIATE

Pentagon officials said the Russians have been implying publicly that U.S. emphasis on nuclear superiority makes it difficult for them to negotiate on arms control.

Nixon may have had this in mind when he told reporters: "When we talk about superiority, that may have a detrimental effect on the other side (meaning the Russians) in putting it in an inferior position and, therefore, giving great impetus to its own arms race," Nixon said.

The new President expressed his administration's goal this way:

"Our objective is to be sure that the United States has sufficient military power to defend our interests and to maintain the commitments which this administration determines are in the interest of the United States around the world."

SOFTER TONE

This had a decidedly less strident tone than Nixon's campaign statement that "We must maintain our military strength at a level so that we can talk equally with them, and I would hope from a superior standpoint."

Nixon at that time voiced the belief that the United States should attempt to maintain "an edge for the purpose of detering adventurism on the part of the Soviet Union or any other potentially expansionist power."

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird told the Senate Armed Services Committee when it was considering his Cabinet nomination two weeks ago that "I believe it is absolutely important that the United States maintain a superior position."

Nixon was consistent at his news conference with his past positions in rejecting parity between the United States and Russia in nuclear weapons.

NO ASSURANCE

"When we talk about parity," he said, "I think we should recognize that wars occur, usually, when each side believes it has a chance to win. Therefore, parity does not necessarily assure that a war may not occur."

Nixon seemed to be attempting to walk a middle path between extremes of viewpoint on how much atomic weaponry the United States needs.

★ ★ ★

But by opting for a broad term like sufficiency, the new President probably will satisfy neither group.

No 'Off-the-Cuff' Policy

President Seeks Orderly Style

By WALTER R. MEARS

News Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP) — Methodical and cautious, President Nixon is determined to make his an orderly White House, a place where policy emerges through a chain of command, not "off-the-cuff responses."

★ ★ ★

The President described the Nixon style at his first news conference Monday:

"I suppose the nation wonders what a President does in his first week and where is all the action that we have talked about. We have done a great deal, particularly in getting the machinery of government set up which will allow us to move in an orderly way on major problems."

That ordered, studied method of operation is, after all the way Nixon got to the White House. It characterized his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, and his autumn race against the Democrats.

In the same manner, he shaped his administration: Constant conferences with his deputies, a sweeping study of national issues by 22 teams of expert advisers.

PLANS SAME APPROACH

Now, in office, Nixon made clear he intends to operate the same way. "I do not believe, for example, that policy should be made, and particularly foreign policy should be made by off-the-cuff responses in press conferences, or any other kind of conferences," he said. "I think it should be made in an orderly way."

So the Nixon White House already has two new policy-shaping panels, on city problems and economic affairs, plus a presidential plan to revitalize and heed the National Security Council.

★ ★ ★

The Nixon pace and the Nixon caution were displayed at that first news conference when the President noted that in eight separately raised areas of concern, ranging from the tension in the Middle East to crime in the District of Columbia, there would be conferences, decisions and perhaps policy announcements later.

State House Balking at Listing Expenses

LANSING (UPI) — For the first time in Michigan history, legislators are about to be held accountable for their expense money, and members of the House don't like it.

Returning to work last night after a two-week recess, the House plunged into brief but brisk discussion of the proposed restraints.

★ ★ ★

Triggering the dissent was a recommended set of expense-fund guidelines which would, among other things, limit lodging and meals to $20 per day while the Legislature is in session.

The guidelines were drawn by the clerk's office in line with requirements of a legislative compensation program adopted late last year by the new State Salary Commission.

SALARY HIKE TOO

The commission increased legislators' salaries from $12,500 to $15,000 per year. It also provided for $3,000 in accountable expenses during a legislative session. In the past, lawmakers have been allocated $2,500 per year in unaccountable expenses.

A resolution has been introduced in the State Senate to scrub the commission's compensation program, but the move was given little chance since it takes a two-thirds vote of both chambers before Saturday to do this.

★ ★ ★

Five new bills and several resolutions were introduced. The legislation would:

• Permit a driver to designate on the back of his license permission to use his body for human transplants if death occurs as a result of an accident.

• Add "natural or processed sugar beets" to farm products subject to state taxation.

• Prohibit the charging of fees or charges other than those allowed by law in rendering financial assistance on real estate or property improvement.

• Exempt from state taxation the first 10,000 barrels of beer produced annually in Michigan, providing total output is no more than 50,000 barrels and export no more than 10,000 barrels.

• Split first-class school districts of up to 60,000 students into districts of from 15,000 to 40,000 students.

Whimsical Children's Medium Used to Teach and Entertain

By YOLANDA BENAVIDES

Traveling with Ed Johnson is a children's delight as his latest production "What World is This?" takes them to the land of their imaginations where fantasy reigns.

However, we find that even fantasyland, where marionettes are colored pink, red or orange, with outlandish hairdos and humorous grins, is troubled with problems of right versus wrong.

★ ★ ★

In "What World Is This?" for example, the whimsical inhabitants of the Blue World find themselves confronted, much like our own society, with a growing disrespect for law and order.

Once a prosperous, peace-loving and happy utopia, the land of the Blue people is now threatened with anarchy and unrest.

Challenging the dilemma, as he has in every Johnson production, is a lovable dragonish fellow who goes by the name of Applesauce. Accompanied by old friend and cohort, the golden Gee Whizzer, he sets out to rid the Blue World of its headache.

IS IT REALITY?

Is the Blue World realistic? Precisely the point, says the writer, producer, director, of this one-man operation, who lives in Highland.

As in past shows, notes Johnson, the setting can fit ANY world with the characters purposely cast in a rainbow of colors to avoid racial overtones, giving full attention to the moral involved.

By replacing the classical fairy tale with original satirical fantasies on common social ills, Johnson feels he is providing a useful teaching method as well as providing an hour of entertainment.

As subject matter ranges from morals to science, history, or government, Johnson has also found his audience is not limited to the very young, nor is his creativity confined.

During his annual school tour, a jaunt which takes him throughout southern Michigan to eastern Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, Johnson averages some 500 performances.

Saturday will mark an area appearance in Clarkston High School's Little Theater. The program, sponsored by the Clarkston Jaycettes, will be given at 11 a.m. and again at 1 p.m.

Tickets for those from four years to the sixth grade, will be sold at Bailey Lake, Pine Knob and Clarkston elementary schools Wednesday. Any remaining tickets will be available at the door.

St. Laurent Shows Covered-Up Look

By JOAN DEPPA

PARIS (UPI) — If there's a long even slightly warm summer ahead, anyone dressed by Yves St. Laurent is in trouble.

The youthful designer, currently considered the most important couturier in Paris, showed a covered-up look Monday that swathed the wearer from head to toe in trousers, maxicoats, scarves and face-shading hats.

When he showed dresses, the hemlines dropped to the top of the knee.

Arms were usually clad in long sleeves. Even short sleeves covered the entire upper arm.

The look was bound to be as immediately unpopular with men as shorter skirts were popular.

Louis Feraud showed a bright colored line built around the polo shirt that is replacing the turtle neck for sportswear.

Feraud took his inspiration from Brazil and nowhere was it more evident that in his prints, often primitive patterns borrowed from Amazonian Indians, other times a vivid mixture of colors borrowed from the carnival of Rio.

Finalists Named in Competition

Intensive study and dedication to career goals paid off for Emily Derr of Lansing and Elsie Inselman of St. Clair Shores Monday. Finalists in the Grinnell Opera Foundation scholarship competition, Miss Derr captured the top prize of $2,500 while Miss Inselman received the Elizabeth Hodges Donovan award of $1,000.

Emily received her B. A. and M. A. degrees in music from Michigan State University.

A lyric soprano, she has taught in the Meadow Brook School of Music, has toured with the Robert Shaw Chorale and appeared as Mimi in La Boheme in the 1968 Overture to Opera production.

MISS INSELMAN

Elsie holds a bachelor of music degree from Concordia College and received her master's from the Eastman School of Music where she was a scholarship student.

A mezzo-soprano, she appeared in the 1968 Overture to Opera productions.

Lynda R. Weston of Bloomfield Hills, student at the University of Michigan, and Mrs. Fred L. Puskas (Nancy) of Edgewood Drive, Independence Township, were among the finalists.

★ ★ ★

Francis Robinson, assistant manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, was guest speaker at the Detroit Grand Opera Association luncheon in the Detroit Institute of Arts, preceding the competition.

He gave the audience a preview of what is in store at the Masonic Temple when the Met visits Detroit the last week in May on its spring tour.

Mrs. Ralph T. McElvenny of Grosse Pointe Farms wound up her leadership of the Women's Committee by chairing this luncheon meeting. She introduced her successor, Mrs. Ernest A. Jones of Bloomfield Hills, who has served during the past year as cochairman.

Put 'Zip' Into Marriage Abby's Advice to Wife

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Is there anything wrong with a man wanting his wife to get all dolled up just for his benefit once in a while? I don't mean every night, but maybe once a week she could get her hair done, makeup her face and put on something sexy, enticing and just a bit revealing for her man.

I don't expect my wife to put on a 30-minute strip tease, but what's wrong with giving the old man the "come on" when they're alone in private?

She knows I've never been unfaithful. I'm sober, hardworking, and I give her unrestricted use of the checkbook. We're both in out mid-thirties, have three nice children, and she doesn't work outside the home. Am I wrong? She thinks I'm crazy. Sign me . . .

CASEY

DEAR CASEY: Your wife is "crazy" if she doesn't jump at the chance to put a little zip into your marriage. There's no excuse for a wife striking out when her man pitches 'em right over the plate.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I didn't appreciate that letter from ELAINE lambasting people who send annual newsletters to their friends at Christmas time.

As you have probably guessed, I write an annual newsletter, and must say that I, for one, look forward each year to receiving them from old friends we seldom see but who are often in our thoughts.

I would rather get a mimeographed newsletter at Christmas than a card with the sender's name printed at the bottom. May I defend the newsletter set and lambaste the card senders whose cards are about as personal as the "OCCUPANT" throw-aways we are always receiving. My retort would go something like this:

"Dear Friend, Your Christmas card was received so we know you still have our address.

"It must have come out of the $2.50 box at least. Or are you one of those smart shoppers who waits until after Christmas to buy them at half-price?

"Your messages was really original. 'Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!' I be you really had to burn the midnight oil to come up with something so creative. Glad your name was printed on the bottom. Never could remember how to spell your name. And oh, yes, one more thing. My memory isn't as good as it used to be. Who are you anyway?"

Sincerely, MARGY

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Guess what? You saved my life. I am stationed at a base four miles from Cambodia. This morning at 0830 we received incoming 82MM mortar 40-50 to be exact. I was sitting here reading the Stars and Stripes, turned the page and elected to read DEAR ABBY. I got so interested in it I put off Mother Nature for a few minutes.

Lucky for me. It turned out that the latrine was the center of Charlie Cong's vengeance. So because of your article I am still here. Thank you!

"STILL HERE"

DEAR STILL: Thanks for writing. You made my day.

Republican Luncheon Savors Victory

Artistic red and white peacocks graced the luncheon tables at Monday's Oakland County Council of Republican Women's Clubs meeting, proclaiming loudly — "the victory."

Mrs. Edward Downs, president, introduced speaker, William F. McLaughlin, first vice chairman, Republican State Central Committee. Praising the job Republican women have done during the past, he reminded his audience that the real work has just begun.

"1970 depends on what we learned from 1968," he said.

"The youth of this country can be a stimulant to the party. We must listen to them, get them involved in the party and make their involvement one of excitement and fun."

Sympathetic chuckles resounded throughout the room as he told some of the amusing, but frustrating happenings connected with the inaugural in Washington.

New club presidents installed were Mrs. Forrest Hall, Berkley; Mrs. Clifford Merriott, Beverly-Franklin; Mrs. Louis Peters, Huntington Woods; Eugenie Choquet, Novi; Mrs. Raymond Jahns, Rochester and Mrs. James Chamberlain, Royal Oak.

Rules Change With Times, New Conditions

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Of The Emily Post Institute

The number of women active in the business world continues to grow at a fantastic rate. Inevitably, a conflict arises between a girl's natural desire to be treated like a female, and her wish to be accepted as a man's equal in the business world.

There is no clear-cut line defining where social amenities are left off and a girl is treated as "strictly business" but the following quiz may clarify a few points which have bothered you.

★ ★ ★

Q. Should a woman rise when one of her superiors approaches her desk on a business matter?

A. She need not rise if it is a business discussion or for a brief greeting, but if an older man stops to offer congratulations or for some similar personal reason, a young girl would rise.

★ ★ ★

Q. Does a receptionist rise when visitors enter the office?

A. She does not rise unless the visitor is a personal friend or is someone she knows to be of special importance to her boss.

Q. Is there any rule which says a girl may not go out to lunch with her boss?

A. There is no rule, but the girl who does it frequently is asking for trouble. The gossip will soon start, and if she becomes involved, her work, and his, will suffer.

★ ★ ★

Q. When a woman takes a male client to lunch, what is the best way for her to pay?

A. By credit card, and any woman who will conceivably be in this position should get one—through her company, or personally, if necessary. Or she should go to a restaurant where her firm has a charge account.

Q. May a secretary who is traveling with her boss have dinner with him?

A. She may go to a restaurant with him — they should not dine alone in his room unless it is absolutely necessary to prepare papers that must be ready that evening or some similar task.

Guest List Is Start for Wedding Budget

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Where do you start when you're making plans for a wedding — and your budget says you can go just so far and that's it?

The bride-to-be may think first of the wedding gown. But her mother had better start with the guest list. The number of guests to be invited to the reception will inevitably determine, in the last analysis, how much the bride can spend on what she wears.

★ ★ ★

With $2,000 as the target figure, Mrs. G.B.T. is allowing six months time to figure how she's going to spread it around. This is a smart approach, since detailed planning allows for eliminating some costs in order to increase those that matter most.

Dear Miss Feeley:

Our daughter plans to be married next June. Before we can decide on the type of reception, it would seem advisable to make an over-all budget of probable expenditures involved in the wedding.

Based on an approximate total of $2,000 for all expenses, could you give us some guidelines to follow? I would like included figures for the wedding gown, flowers, gifts, reception, invitations, photographs, etc. And a reminder of the many other expenses we are responsible for, as the bride's family, but are apt to forget until they are incurred.

Many thanks.

Mrs. G.B.T., Madison, Wis.

Dear Mrs. T.:

To keep us from wandering all over the place, I'm going to base the following costs on the assumption that your invitation list for the reception will be limited to 150 guests. You can then add or subtract when your actual list has jelled.

Even then, there'll be many variables to deal with, depending on your daughter's personal preferences. So carry a note pad around with you for the next few months.

● Reception for 150 guests: $5 to $6.50 per person for a home buffet allowing from 37 to 49 per cent of your budget, or $750 to $975. For a buffet at a topflight restaurant, hotel, or club (where the wine will be extra), allow $5 to $7.50 per person, or 37 to 56 per cent of the budget, which would amount to from $750 to $1,125.

If you prefer a dinner, you'll run into a cost of about $12.50-$15 per person — and have to cut down your guest list.

Of course, even with a home buffet, you must allow for extra help in addition to the caterer, plus flowers. But often you can figure ways of holding these expenses to a bare minimum.

● Church fees (including awning, runner, music, flowers): seven to 12 per cent of your budget, or from about $140 to $240, often some of these costs can be split with other weddings, when the church calendar is well filled on the day.

● Invitations: Allow four to six per cent or $80 to $120.

● Photographs: Five to seven per cent, or from about $100 to $140.

● Wedding gown and accessories: Any bride can be beautiful in $240 to $300 worth of glamour, which absorbs from 12 to 15 per cent of total costs.

● Bride's gift to bridegroom, and bridesmaids gifts: for two-four attendants: $40 to $80 or two to four per cent.

● Additional flowers (attendants, reception): Two to five per cent, or from about $40 to $100.

● Transportation for Bridal party to church and reception: two to three per cent or $40 to $60.

As mother of the bride, you must also consider these items, though all of them may not apply: rehearsal dinner (which the bridegroom's family may request the privilege of giving); accommodation for out-of-town guests or attendants; the bridegroom's ring, if it's a double ring ceremony; bridesmaids' luncheon; bride-to-be's blood test.

Iron-on Tape Flares Pants

Newest fashion rage among the economy minded younger gals is converting straight-leg slacks into the popular new swinging flare-leg pants. The cost is four triangles of fabric — matching or contrasting and two packages of Iron-on tape, 72 inches long. Sound simple? It is!

★ ★ ★

Be your own designer — it's fun to do and fun to show off afterward. Buy a swatch of matching or contrasting fabric. Cut four triangles, each 12-inches long and six-inches wide at the bottom. Open seams of the slacks leaving edges turned under as originally pressed.

★ ★ ★

Heat iron to wool setting. Press edges of triangles on wrong side. Working from the wrong side, fit insert snugly into the split seam of the slacks.

Iron tape over the butted seams. Turn up bottom of insert and hem with tape.

Flare leg slacks for hostessing, party-going and casual wear are easy and fun to make this way — and they give you a chance to be the creator.

Three Oaks Wedding for P. J. Kitchens

He is the son of Mrs. Alfred Jackson of Ross Drive and Ralph Kitchen of Ardreth Street, her parents are the Clare Collinses of Three Oaks. The newlyweds were feted at Three Oaks School.

★ ★ ★

For the afternoon ceremony, the bride chose a crepe Empire waisted gown and matching Cathedral train trimmed with white fur. Her bouquet was comprised of gardenias and feather pom pons.

★ ★ ★

Diane Hinman was maid of honor with Phyllis Klop, Linda Slate and Mrs. David Collins as bridesmaids.

★ ★ ★

On the esquire, side, John Kitchen was best man with ushers Charles King, Robert Imhoff and David Kitchen.

★ ★ ★

The couple is honeymooning in Chicago. Upon their return, they will be guests of honor at a reception Saturday in Calvary Baptist Church.

Masking Tape for Striping Walls

Striping walls is fashionable and produces very decorative effects, advises the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. First, paint the walls in a chosen background color.

★ ★ ★

After thoroughly drying, securely fasten masking tape to the surface, marking off the area to be striped in the width you desire. Paint these designated areas in contrasting colors. When they are thoroughly dry, remove the strips of masking tape.

Luxurious Manes Balance Mannish Attire

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — The beautiful people decree an era of long, rich manes of hair for women.

And if Mrs. Richard M. Nixon still wears hers on the short side, count her daughters in with blessings from one hair stylist to the jet set.

★ ★ ★

Marc Sinclaire probably does as many "million dollar heads" as any stylist on the international scene and currently holds some sort of a record with eight of his clients on the latest list of best-dressed women.

"Mrs. Nixon is a rather conservative woman," said Sinclaire in an interview as he rolled up the below-shoulder length manes of such as Anne Ford Uzielli and Betsy Pickering Theodoracopulos.

"She's found her own sense of looks," Sinclaire figured. "Her hair style fits her way of life I guess. I admire her daughters more."

DAUGHTERS 'IN'

The below-shoulder lengths Tricia Nixon and Julie Nixon Eisenhower are wearing are right in the current mood, said Sinclaire, who has his clients all growing theirs longer and longer and longer. Some heads of hear are nearing waist length.

"Long hair has to continue," said Sinclaire. "It's a feminine balance for the mannish clothes . . . all those pants. Women can do more with it . . . pull back casually for sports or travel, really go fanciful for evening.

★ ★ ★

"They don't have to be always at the hairdresser's."

But many of his clients do spend quite a bit of their daily lives in the pink and white luxury area of basins and mirrors and rollers and hair sprays which is Sinclaire's "corner" at the Charles of the Ritz Park Avenue salon. Daily combings between weekly shampoos are the rule when the women are in town, sometimes twice a day if the social calendar calls for a special evening.

Eva of Norbert, who did the Nixon women's hair until they re-established in Washington, also has joined the Park Avenue salon.

Sinclaire, a native of Palm Beach, called in this reporter and a photographer one day this week when five of his eight best-dressed all had appointments.

After all, it isn't every year a hairdresser sees eight of his clients win such a fashion accolade; naturally some of the honor rubs off on the man who has styled their hair for years.

"The jackpot" on the one day were Mrs. Uzielli, Mrs. Theodoracopulos, Mrs. Liberman Savitt, Mrs. Ahmet Ertegun, and Mrs. William Rayner. The other three of Sinclaire's eight are Mrs. Thomas Kempner, Mrs. Robin Butler and Mme. Ahme Benhima, who's the wife of the Moroccan ambassador to the United States.

★ ★ ★

Study Indicates Fat Folk Burn Fewer Calories

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — Studies by University of California scientists indicate that some people may be overweight not because they eat more than normal but because they exercise less.

Preliminary research into the habits of obese women showed that their average intake of food was between 1,800 and 2,250 calories per day— not unusually high. But their expenditure of energy for the same period was considerably less than normal.

★ ★ ★

A long-term study is being prepared which will use new equipment that gives accurate figures on energy expenditure without encumbering the individual.

This study will be concerned with pre-school children, a particularly important age group because obesity at this age is more difficult to treat and is more likely to become permanent.

Quick Cleanup

Last minute, pre-holiday erasing of fingerprint smudges on woodwork, mirrors and television screen can be done quickly with washing soda. Use a solution of three tablespoons per quart of warm water and a sponge. Rinse and wipe dry.

Wrap sandpaper around a dry sponge when sanding a rounded surface.

Plastics Find New Market

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the newer expanding markets for plastic curtains, table cloths, and coverings is the mobile home market. J. Sidney Gould, vice president sales of Ex-Cell Plastics, says the larger, more fully-furnished and better accessorized homes which are being produced in this field have more than doubled this market in the past few years.

The design of today's mobile homes is such that it is no longer necessary to look for special or odd sizes to furnish it well. In almost every area, standard-sized merchandise offers no size problems.

To Show Films

Two films on automobile safety will be shown at tonight's Weaver Pre-School PTA meeting at 7:30.

Polly's Pointers

To Clean Cut Glass

DEAR POLLY — I suggest that B.S. clean her cut glass vase with a good detergent and a brush to get in the crevices and then follow with an ammonia solution. This should give it a real sparkle. — MRS. F. W.

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY — I clean my cut glass with household ammonia and a toothbrush which is great for getting into all the little "cuts." Be very careful of sudden changes in temperature of water when cleaning cut glass. It is easy to fracture from changes to hot or cold. Do not drain, but wipe and dry to a polish. — FRANCES

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY — I do like the new leather fashions but how can one keep them clean? — LINDA

DEAR POLLY — When traveling by bus or train I always take along a pillow-case and fold my house coat up in it to make a nice pillow. Youngsters could take their teddy bear or doll pajama bags that are kept on their beds at home.

★ ★ ★

Traveling is expensive enough without having to pay for a pillow and that 50 cents saved could be used for a more expensive lunch or for sightseeing.

I take along a book I SHOULD read but never get to at home because there are waiting times in depots when something to read is needed. If I take along something absorbing like a mystery I spend all available time on it and so lose good human contacts and interesting little happenings.

I don't want to get so interested in a book that I don't care about the surroundings but want to be alive to what is going on around me and see what there is to see. I want to see things and not be reading about them. — VERA

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY — If the children, or even mom and dad, dislike taking liquid medicine, first give them a piece of peppermint candy. As soon as it is eaten have them take the medicine. They will never taste it. — MRS. T. M.

Diane K. Smith Marries L. O. Craig Jr. Saturday

First Open Bible Church was the setting Saturday evening for vows uniting Diane Kay Smith and Lloyd Oliver Craig Jr.

Attended by Mrs. Danny Slater of Dayton, Ohio, the bride wore an Empire satin gown with Chantilly lace bodice and skirt trim. Matching lace accented her court train.

★ ★ ★

Bridesmaids were Wanda Craig, Janie Lucus of Ohio, Mrs. Charles Board and Mrs. Mickael Knibbs of Ohio with Earl Van Smith and Richard McClelland as ushers. Danny Slater was best man.

The newlyweds departed for a honeymoon trip to Florida following a reception at First Federal Savings of Oakland.

★ ★ ★

Couple Celebrates 79th Anniversary

If Mr. and Mrs. Ward McDaniel were gambling people, they probably never would have bet on celebrating their 79th wedding anniversary. But that's exactly what they did a few days ago in their Macon Mo. home.

★ ★ ★

One of the couple's 12 grandchildren asked the U.S. Department of Commerce the odds against a couple being married that long and was told it figured out at something like 8,750,000 to one.

★ ★ ★

Daniel, who is 100, and his wife, who will reach the century mark in May, planned no special celebration in the four-room house where they live alone.

★ ★ ★

"About the only thing that bothers Dad and Mother is to have a lot of people come in," explained Syril McDaniel, Columbia, Mo., 68, one of two of the couple's five children still living.

STILL ACTIVE

"Mother does all her own housework. Dad goes for a walk around the block, or farther, every day and does the errands," the son added.

Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel met in Winterset, Iowa, and farmed near there until moving to Macon County in 1920. They retired from farming in 1962.

Hearing problems have cut down on their radio and television, but Mrs. McDaniel says she still reads "anything I can get my hands on."

Syril McDaniel credits his parents' long married life to placid temperaments and not worrying about things.

But Mrs. McDaniel's prescription for 79 years of wedded life goes like this:

"You have to fix your own life, and don't go meddling in other people's business."

Students Have Day in Court

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A full day of visiting the San Diego County courthouse provided more than 200 area high school and junior college students with a first-hand look at the justice system at work.

More than 100 members of the local Legal Secretaries' Association, sponsor of the event, guided the group through tours, speeches, discussions and visits to courts and offices.

The Day in Court program is operated to give those interested in such a career an opportunity to see what part the legal secretary plays in the justice system and what her future can be.

'Tom Jones' Slated at N. Farmington

By KATHI CAMPBELL

The North Farmington players (NFP) are back in action with a rip-roaring play, "Tom Jones," to end their theatrical season.

For the first time the NFP will attempt a second play in one year. It has been traditional in the past to sponsor one play per year.

★ ★ ★

The play will be under the direction of speech teacher June Sulewski, assisted by English instructor Michael Rasmussen. This play will be in a quite different mood from the witchery of "Dark of the Moon" and the "Crucible."

"Tom Jones" will be performed in the arena-style staging as was "Dark of the Moon." Although there will be no props for this melodrama; authentic costumes will be worn.

TRYOUTS FOR PLAY

Tryouts were recently held for the 10 female and 11 male parts.

The play "Tom Jones" takes place in England during the 18th century.

★ ★ ★

NEW MEMBER

Olli Pesoli is a new member of NFHS. Pesoli, a sophomore, is an exchange student from Finland. He is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dolan of 30324 Wicklow in the Kimberly subdivision, Farmington Township.

Olli arrived in Farmington over the holidays and is planning on finishing his sophomore year at NF.

Senior Barney Welton proposed that the Student Council abolish its constitution. By a vote of 15-13 his proposal went into effect.

Welton felt that the council was receiving no student support and that it was necessary for the students to react. He believes that students should be involved in the affairs of the council.

The restructure of the Student Council will be according to the students' wishes.

Welton believes NF's present council to be an "activities" council whereby it assumed setting up various activities of the school. He believes that it is not possible for the council, faculty and administration to work together as things stand. Welton concluded by saying, "Students must react or else there will be no council."

Thursday Quiz Is Kickoff

Rice-Marian Weekend Due

By MICHAEL R. McGILL

Thursday will mark the end of hectic plans at Brother Rice. It launches the second annual Rice-Marian Weekend, the time when the two schools join their activities.

Preliminary planning goes back to the beginning of the year for both the Marian and Rice Student Councils, when ideas were originated and discussed. The first student-centered activity took place last Tuesday when tryouts were held for the talent show.

★ ★ ★

Starting the weekend Thursday at 7:30 p.m. is "Quiz-Em". The four best students from each year compete against their counterparts from the school "across the way." It is a question-answer panel based on points, with each school trying to prove its students are smartest.

At 9 p.m. volleyball begins, again with the corresponding classes competing against each other. The boys may not always dominate the mental gymnastics of "quiz-em" but volleyball is definitely their bag and they are promising to have no mercy on the girls.

UNITED CHEERING

Friday and Saturday, the Brother Rice Warriors have basketball games at which a united cheering section will be formed. After the home game Saturday a free record hop will be staged. The discs will be turned by Ken Calvert, DJ of "the dance of yesteryear," assisted by a number of dancing go-go girls from Marian.

To complete the weekend, the talent show will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Marian.

In conjunction with the weekend, plans are being made to construct a symbolic but functional wooden bridge between the schools.

Sunday morning the two schools plan a folk mass followed by a pancake breakfast put on by the junior class of Rice.

Later that day, if the weather is accommodating, the schools will have a contest to see which one can build the biggest snow pile.

Seaholm Picks New Officers

By MIKE FOX

Recently Ernest W. Seaholm High School elected a new set of student government officers.

Junior Dana Newhouse was chosen as president. He took office Monday when senior Joe Rimac relinquished the reins after serving as last semester's president. Dana defeated another junior, Scott Moore.

★ ★ ★

The vice presidential race pitted two seniors in opposition, with Matt Holtzman winning over Randy Smith. Holtzman will replace current Vice President Ann Wilson, one of the few girl vice presidents Seaholm has ever had.

Another girl, Ruth Dennis, beat junior Craig Bond in the treasurer's race. Pam Wyatt and Alison Currie are the present secretary and treasurer.

Seaholm's Student Court had its first girl elected as a judge with the victory of junior Anne Treadway. Also winning was Lee Wandel over Jim Keller and Dave Reeve.

Lahser Graphic Arts Student Wins Painting Scholarship

By GRETCHEN HAAS

Art is a favorite of Rob Young, a sophomore at Bloomfield Hills Lahser High School who recently won a scholarship or the '69 winter term at the Bloomfield Art Association (BAA).

In competition with sophomores, juniors and seniors from other Oakland County schools, Young's "Firelight Girl" brought him one of four scholarships awarded in the Ruby Williams fellowship contest.

★ ★ ★

Young's winning entree is a pastel portrait of a young Victorian woman.

Young said that he worked on the portrait in his spare time. "I spent about one week on this particular picture."

ALWAYS IN ART

He was first introduced to art by his mother, and has drawn and painted all his life.

Having previously taken a course at BAA from James Wylie, Young has chosen to take drawing and painting from Richard Dexter this term.

★ ★ ★

Last year, Young won three Scholastic Art Awards for his charcoal fashion illustrations. One of the entrees went on to compete in the national contest in New York City. He plans to again submit fashion illustrations to the Scholastic Art Awards contest in February.

Young, a graphic arts student also studies geometry, American cultures, biology and physical education. He enjoys tennis and swimming and is a member of Lahser's Drama Club.

CLASS ELECTIONS

Last week, sophomores elected Bob Goohs as their class president; Tom Graddis, vice president; Pat Hieronymous, secretary; and Jay Bond, treasurer.

Besides preparing for finals, some students are doing art exhibits for the Junior Scholastic Award Contest. The art classes have been extremely active this week adding those important last-minute touches.

Miller published his film schedule for the coming week and the schedule includes everything from a picture on skiing in Germany to a movie on the cooking of steaks!

Lapeer

By SUE DeARMOND

The week of Feb. 3-7 marks the second annual Spirit Week at Lapeer High School. Spirit Week, an idea of the Lapeer cheerleaders to promote school spirit, was introduced last year and met with such enthusiasm that it was decided to make it an annual affair.

The main attraction of the week is the Spirit Cake, which is an enormous cake composed of several hundred pound cakes, and put together by the cheerleaders. The huge cake is frosted and topped with a large panther figure, the symbol of Lapeer High. Donations have been taken from the student body for the purchase of the cakes. Feb. 7, everyone will have a piece of the cake during their lunch hour.

★ ★ ★

Monday of Spirit Week, blue and yellow chrysanthemums will be sold to the students. Their meaning is to show spirit among the student body. Tuesday, panther-buttons will be sold during lunch hours.

Wednesday, blue and yellow ribbons will be passed out and are to be worn at the game that Friday night.

Thursday is Odd Sock Day, when students are expected to wear two different socks (preferably clashing) to show off their school spirit.

Friday is the big pep assembly, where the different class competes against the others to see which one has the most spirit by yelling the loudest. Selected teachers are asked to judge the winner.

'Shi' Trip a Major Event

By PAT EDWARDS

Yesterday saw one of the major events at Adelphian Academy — the "Shi" trip.

At 5:30 a.m., the rising bells rang in the dorms. At 5:45, breakfast was served. Then sack lunches were passed out, and about 250 students boarded the five buses.

★ ★ ★

At around 10 a.m. the skiers arrived at Bear Mountain Sports Park near Grayling.

★ ★ ★

The students immediately set out to take part in skiing and tobogganning until most of them stopped to "regenerate" and thaw out while eating lunch.

Then it was back out into the snow again, until late afternoon when the buses were boarded again to head for Frankenmuth and a banquet at Zehnder's.

America's 'Legion of the Concerned' Is Keeping Busy

By the Associated Press

America, said President Nixon in his inaugural address, has "legions of the concerned and committed" who by "small, splendid efforts" can "build a great cathedral of the spirit."

How busy were these legions during inauguration week?

★ ★ ★

An AP survey turned up a fine crop of small, splendid efforts. As usual, they didn't make the headlines. English playwright Phillip Massinger said in 1630 what remains eminently true today: "Ill news, madam, are swallow-winged, but what's good walks on crutches."

Some of the good things that happened in America in the seven days following the President's speech:

In Portland, Ore., Yoke Leim, 6, hospitalized with terminal leukemia, asked for some cotton candy. Her father, Yoke T. Liem, remembered that the concession stand at the zoo makes the confection and offered to buy all it had on hand.

SPUN OUT FREE

Instead, Ken Lewis of the zoo staff took the machine to the hospital, set it up in Yoke's ward, and spun out free candy for all of the 20 little patients allowed to eat it.

In Sioux Falls, S. D., the family of 18-year-old Karen Parker needed $35,000 to pay for transplantation of a kidney from her father.

★ ★ ★

Signs reading "Care for Karen" went up all over town. By the end of the week, $27,320 in donations had been received.

In Little Rock, Ark., $35,000 was required to finance a kidney transplant for Mrs. Brenda Shuffield Andry, 19.

MORE COMING IN

Members of the Arkansas State Legislatrue agreed to kick in a day's pay apiece. By week's end, there was $28,000 in the kitty with more still coming in.

"What can we say for something this wonderful?" asked Brenda's father, A. J. Shuffield.

★ ★ ★

In Philadelphia, Peter Jaskel, 19-year-old Villanova University freshman, plunged into the Delaware River in near freezing weather to rescue a driver whose car skidded down an embankment.

"There was nothing else I could do under the circumstances," declared Jeskel.

CONDOLENCE COUNSEL

In Washington, the Rev. Henry Breul set up a "Parents of Hippies" association at St. Thomas Episcopal church to provide condolence, guidance and counsel for mothers and fathers whose kids have turned themselves on and their elders off.

One graying mother whose son is lost among the flower children reported: "I found out I wasn't alone and that life goes on."

In Springfield, Ohio, 220 Wittenberg University students drummed up $1,644 in a one-day canvass for the Christian Rural Overseas program, a hunger appeal.

In Circleville, Ohio, wives of ham radio operators formed the "Roundtown Citizen Band Club" and announced they would help with communications problems during emergencies.

ST. LOUIS CAMPAIGN

In St. Louis, a campaign to help Mrs. Bernadean Edwards, bedridden mother of seven, brought an initial outpouring of $325 in cash, donations of clothing and household appliances and 40 books of trading stamps.

Mrs. Edwards said she would share the donations with Mrs. Shirley Bates, whose husband was shot dead Jan. 16, leaving her with nine children.

★ ★ ★

A year ago Mrs. Bates herself extended a hand in need when she collected donations for a neighbor family whose house caught fire. The father of the neighbor family, Forrest agner, is the man charged with shooting Mrs. Bates' husband, Robert.

In New Lenox, Ill., the 557 students of Roman Catholic Providence High School did not despair when its closing seemed imminent because of a budget deficit. They announced they had raised $30,000 in cash and pledges and were confident they could keep Providence open for at least the next three years.

TURN THEIR BACKS

Is it true that Americans turn their backs on acts of crime because they do not want to become involved?

Not all Americans—

● Albuquerque, N. Mex.: J. V. Williams saw two thieves putting his neighbor's television set in the trunk of their car. He prevented their escape by blocking a driveway with his truck and cowed them with a pistol until police came.

★ ★ ★

● San Diego, Calif.: Hans Aldershof witnessed a bank robbery, took down the license number of the getaway car, later spotted it parked at a motel he manages and called police, who arrested a man and The police captured both men. woman, recovered $3,700.

● Salt Lake City: William Olsen, 63, whose hands are crippled by rheumatism, painfully dialed police when he saw two men breaking into a furniture store near his home.

"It hurt my fingers to work the dial but I would be a poor citizen if I didn't," said Olsen. The tolice captured both men.

★ ★ ★

● Hagerstown, Md.: Arthur H. Katz trailed a suspect from the scene of a bank robbery, alerted a police dispatcher with his car telephone, later announced he would donate part of his $2,500 reward for the man's arrest to a police fraternal organization.

Church School in Britain Asks License for Bar

PETWORTH, England (AP — Seaford College, a boys' school operated by a Church of England clergyman, is applying for a license to operate a bar.

The headmaster, the Rev. Charles Johnson, said the students would be able to buy beer and wine "but not spirits."

"Obviously there will have to be a limit to the amount they are allowed to consume," he added.

Other members of the staff said the students would benefit by learning how to run a bar and how to behave in one.

Bill for Racing Dogs Is Likely

Advocates Not Sure How to Fetch It Up

LANSING (AP) — Legislative backers of legalized dog racing in Michigan are divided on tactics, but are determined to put their proposal before the Legislature again this year.

Greyhound racing, a near-annual issue during most of the 1960s, was defeated in the House last year.

★ ★ ★

But the sponsor of the 1967 bill, Rep. Roy Spencer, R-Attica, said another try will be made this year.

Spencer said dog-track advocates in the House are divided over whether to back a bill dealing merely with dog racing, or to introduce an omnibus racing bill which would alter existing horse racing laws as well.

DECISION IN WEEK

He said the matter should be resolved within a week, and the bill ready for House introduction within another week or two.

Spencer's 1967 bill was of the omnibus variety, rewriting horse racing laws as well as authorizing pari-mutuel betting at no more than eight greyhound tracks in the state.

★ ★ ★

Spencer said he personally favored introducing the same type of bill this year.

Meanwhile, at least two spokesmen for dog racing concerns are registered as lobbyists with the secretary of state.

In the past, dog bills have been defeated by an unlikely lobbying alliance of church groups, which oppose all gambling, and horse racing interests, which dislike the competition the dog tracks would represent.

Can School Board Split Vote? Well . . .

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The Fort Smith school board reached no decision Monday night on a proposal to increase its membership from six to seven.

Board member Luther Hodges made the proposal, saying that, with seven members, the possibility of having split, three-to-three, votes would become nil.

★ ★ ★

After some discussion about whether there have been any recent split botes, the board then voted and split three-to-three on the proposal.

ABA Aims at Crime War, Electoral College Reform

CHICAGO (AP) — The president of the American Bar Association said Monday that the ABA will increase its participation in programs for the reform of the electoral college system and for broader citizen support of the war against crime.

William T. Gossett of Detroit, president of the 137,000-member ABA, made the remarks at the opening of the midyear session of the ABA's House of Delegates.

Gossett said the ABA's prime legislative objective is amendment of the electoral college system.

"The recent election," he said "brought the dangers of the electoral college system dramatically to the attention of the American people...Congressional leaders of both parties are responding to the growing public concern by introducing bills and giving priority consideration to proposals for reform."

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Gossett said the ABA will conduct a national conference on reform of the system and that representatives of the association will appear Feb. 19 before a House Judiciary Committee on electorial reform.

The House of Delegates did not take action on formal reconsideration of the ABA's position on electoral reform which would amend the Constitution to abolish the electoral college and provide for direct, nationwide, popular election of the President.

Gossett also announced that a private program aimed at soliciting $25 million to $30 million a year from corporation and foundations is being developed for the war against crime.

Czech Conservatives Feeling for Support

PRAGUE (AP) — Leaders of Czechoslovakia's conservative Communist faction beat the woods for domestic allies today in the showdown struggle shaping up with the liberal leaders still in control of the ruling Communist party.

Sources in the liberal camp said the conservatives, assured of the support of the estimated 100,000 Soviet occupation troops, are sounding out the Czechoslovak army and the workers' militia to find out where they stand.

★ ★ ★

The liberals have the solid backing of the trade unions, the cultural organizations and the students. Although the sources said the conservative feelers have drawn no definite reaction yet, the liberals were said to be far from optimistic about the outcome of the power struggle.

A speech by conservative Deputy Premier Lubomir Strougal, made public Monday night, called on the militiamen to help the Communist party "overcome hesitations, disorientation and disintegration tendencies."

FIRM STAND ASKED

Speaking at a militia rally, Strougal urged "all-out efforts to weaken extremists, especially rightist forces." He said a firm stand must replace an "atmosphere of hopelessness and skepticism" within the party.

The party's policy-making Presidium met until Monday night to "assess the general political situation." It issued a communique warning that "new provocations" were expected.

★ ★ ★

The presidium blamed demonstrations in Prague and other towns Sunday, the day after Palach's funeral, on "hooligans" and "anti-Socialist groups" who it said "tried to aggravate the situation and terrorize peaceful citizens."

Prague remained tense as new reports came in of attempted self-immolations in the wake of student Jan Palach's suicide by fire.

The latest was a 17-year-old boy in Cheb, close to the West German border. He suffered second-degree burns Sunday before rescuers put out the fire. It was not known whether his motive was political.

There were more confrontations between youths and police on St. Wenceslas Square in Prague Monday, the scene of Palach's suicide. The police briefly withdrew their guard at the statue of Czechoslovakia's patron saint where since Sunday they had prevented youths from placing flowers and candles in memory of Palach. But the police returned in force to disperse new crowds that came to place candles at the spot where Palach burned himself to protest the loss of freedoms under the Soviet occupation.

How to Choose a College—6

Education Can Be Financed Many Ways

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the sixth article in a series on the dos and don'ts to observe in selecting the right college for you.)

By ELLA MAZEL
NEA Publications
DECISIONS 2: Cost.

Peter H. Richardson, an associate director of admissions at MIT—one of the most expensive as well as most selective of all colleges — has told me that "one makes fewer mistakes starting from the assumpton that a college — any college — can be financed than one does from the assumpton that cost is a limiting factor."

An MIT education, states the institute's financial aid brochure, is made possible "for every qualified student whose family will make a reasonable contribution toward his expense."

★ ★ ★

But what is "reasonable"? What does it really mean to "need" or to "afford"? With so many or our "needs" artificially created, where does "sacrifice" begin? These are questions that every family has to answer for itself.

In reply to a friend who asked how much it cost to run a yacht, multimillionaire J. P. Morgan is reported to have said, "If you have to ask, you can't afford it."

CAN BE TURNED AROUND

To the question, "What does it cost to go to college?" Morgan's answer can be turned around: If you can't afford it, you don't have to ask.

★ ★ ★

In other words, if it is obvious by any standards that you can't consider college at all without help — and if you have made a good academic match — you don't have to look at the colleges' price tags. In fact, the more expensive the college, the better your chances may be for getting maximum financial assistance because it may have more scholarship money available.

Scholarship awards are determined by ability and need, but can also depend on how long a sometimes limited supply of money lasts.

Theoretically, the amount of aid offered an applicant represents the difference between his total estimated expenses and what the family is supposed to be able to pay — the latter being based on income, assets, number of dependents, and many other factors, weighted according to various statistical scales.

AID SOURCES

Many colleges can't meet all the financial needs of all their qualified applicants, however, so if you plan to seek financial assistance, it's advisable to get your application materials in as early as possible in the year.

In the meantime, you should also investigate the many other sources of possible aid, from private organizations such as the National Merit Corporation and the National Scholarship Service and Fund for Negro Students to various state and federally sponsored programs, whether in the form of scholarship grants or long-term, low-interest loans.

★ ★ ★

Details on all of these are to be found in your guidance office or public library. The more thorough a research job you do, the more likely you are to turn up some unexpected forms of assistance.

If, on the other hand your family's financial status is just comfortable enough that you can't legitimately claim need, the cost of the colleges does become a factor to consider. As the CEEB reports, "some parents are more willing to provide for children's educaton than others with the same income."

DISTANCE A FACTOR

Aside from the basic charges for tuition, fees, room and board, your expenditures for books, supplies, laundry, entertainment, and the like, can run as high as $500 a year. The farther you go from home, of course, the more you will have to budget in addition for travel expenses.

After you have balanced the pluses and minuses as best you can, allowing for parttime and summer earnings, you will have arrived at some sort of estimate as to the maximum you are prepared to pay for your college's basic costs. But keep in mind also that, as they say in show biz, "This program is subject to change without notice."

★ ★ ★

Annual increases of $100-$200 are not uncommon. Some colleges have guaranteed tuition plans under which, whatever the charges are when you enroll, you continue to pay only this amount for your four years.

Otherwise, if the costs are, say, $2,400 when you enter, you may end up paying $3,000 by your senior year. It's even possible to be hit with an increase between the time you apply and the time you register.

So — caveat emptor — let the buyer beware!

DECISION 3: Geographical location.

How far you go from home in "going away" to college depends not only on the increasing travel expense as you lengthen the mileage but, perhaps more important, on your maturity (and that of your parents). It's a long, long way from Maine to Hawaii.

Educators, on the whole, feel that most 18-year-olds have much to gain from a total change of environment, geographical as well as cultural.

★ ★ ★

Physical separation can be a tremendous step in your development. Yet there are many parents who honestly believe that you should be where their advice and consent is readily available (but don't insult them by calling them overprotective).

It's essential that you and your parents try to analyze ahead of time whether distance is going to be traumatic for either of you.

GEOGRAPHICAL DIVERSITY

Most colleges are seeking geographical diversity in their student bodies. "Sophisticated" easterners in particular, who tend to look on everything west of Philadelphia as a "cultural desert," would do well to bypass the scramble for space in the oversubscribed, competitive northeastern colleges by considering any number of equally fine schools in states like Iowa, Minnesota, or Wisconsin.

You might like the idea of Utah or New Hampshire if you ski, Florida or California if you yearn for sunny climates.

★ ★ ★

When you think in terms of living somewhere for four years, you needn't feel embarrassed about including climate as a factor in college choice.

In any case, for financial or other reasons, your third important step in the process of elimination is to decide which states you prefer, and which you would consider going to if not enough college possibilities turn up in your first-choice group.

INTO THE SUNLIGHT

Having made your decisions as to academic level, cost, and geographical location, you are like the explorer who has hacked his way through dense jungle underbrush suddenly to emerge in a sunlit clearing.

Without realizing it, you have automatically eliminated hundreds of colleges from consideration because they don't fit your needs on one or another of these grounds.

★ ★ ★

It's downhill from now on. You are likely to have pretty definite ideas about your preferences on the rest of the factors. At the same time, having narrowed the field to such an extent, you will have to allow for adjustment and compromise on these upcoming decisions so as not to reduce your choice to zero. Keep an open mind — and a backup team of second-line preferences ready.

DECISION 4: Size of Community.

A college can be located in a rural area a hundred miles from even a medium-sized town. It can be an island of a few square blocks smack in the middle of a city. Between these extremes lie many graduations.

The urban college, of course, offers the maximum in off-campus activities. Nevertheless, many quite isolated colleges make great efforts to bring the outside world to the campus in the form of visiting performers, lecturers, and exhibits.

★ ★ ★

My own family lives in a small city, a suburb of New York. My daughter would only consider a college in or near a large city; my son definitely wanted a small town setting and couldn't care less how isolated it might be.

Must you have an environment very similar to the one you're used to? Would you perhaps enjoy transplanting yourself into a community that's just the opposite?

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

Don von Elsner has produced another Jake Winkman bridge mystery. This time the scene is laid at Los Angeles Bridge Week and there is plenty of action with Communist spies who seem to play bridge and get involved with bridge players. We don't quite understand the whole plot but the bridge hands are interesting as usual.

In today's hand Winkman doubles three no-trump in the East seat. He wins the first spade with the queen and returns the suit. His partner cashes the ace and king and sets up his last spade by leading the deuce. South played ace and one diamond. Winkman took his king and got out with a club and eventually South went down two tricks.

★ ★ ★

As Don points out, North probably should not have bid two diamonds in the first place but surely should have pulled the double out to four diamonds, but bridge players do make mistakes.

South corrals Winkman after the game and asks how he came to double with so little. Winkman replies, "I knew there was something wrong with the bidding somewhere. I did want a spade lead but it was a bad double. Furthermore, you should have made your contract for a top instead of going down for a bottom."

★ ★ ★

Here is the winning line of play. South is in with that fourth spade. He notes that West led the deuce, not the four. He might read that as a sort of suit preference request for a club lead. Then all he would have to do would be to cash his three high clubs before throwing Winkman in with the king of diamonds.

Winkman would be forced to lead a heart. South would let that ride to dummy's jack and dummy's diamonds would all be good.

The upshot of the story was that South decided he wanted to play with Winkman instead of against him.

UTRECHT, Holland (UPI)—Hollanders spent 25 guilders (about $7) per capita in 1967 on sweets. About 20 per cent of the money went for licorice, a tidbit of which the Dutch are believed to be the world's leading consumers.

HOW CAN THE 45th BUSIEST AIRPORT BE ONE OF THE FIVE HIGH DENSITY TERMINALS WHERE TRAVELERS ARE DELAYED?

Schedule bunching by the airlines is a primary cause. Kennedy International, La Guardia, Newark, Washington National and Chicago O'Hare are the five airports where the airlines and Department of Transportation say there is too much traffic.

Yet, there are 44 airports with more traffic than Newark, 22 busier than Washington National, 19 serving more airplanes than La Guardia. Van Nuys, California and Ft. Lauderdale, Florida accommodate more traffic than Kennedy. Phoenix and Denver are busier than La Guardia. Bedford, Massachusetts and Concord, California each accommodate more airplanes than Newark.

None of these airports is considered "High Density." None of these airports suffer from "schedule bunching."

On September 11, the Congressional Record carried the remarks of Senator Thomas J. McIntyre in which he indicated that 13 domestic airlines are scheduled to depart Kennedy Airport at exactly 9:00 a.m. This does not include Foreign carriers nor does it include scheduled arrivals.

The scheduled airlines concentrate nearly 20 percent of all their departures at just five cities. And, they operate on a national average with only 54 percent of the available seats filled.

With such wasteful use of public facilities there is certain to be delays for both the people who travel as passengers on the airlines and those who use their own airplanes.

Now the airlines and DOT want the public to agree to priority — and sometimes exclusive — use of these airports for scheduled carriers. This would deny one-half of the public which uses air transportation the right to operate to and from these publicly financed facilities. And, it would deny all the public the economic benefits that comes from all air commerce.

Airports are built for the public, by public funds, for use by all the public.

Trading Pattern Irregular

Mart Follows Uncertain Path

NEW YORK (AP) — Continuing to weave an uncertain course, the stock market early this afternoon was irregular in moderately active trading.

A slight early advantage for gains over losses evaporated and minus signs were a bit ahead of plusses.

* * *

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.06, at 936.41.

The market was mixed at the start despite a good assortment of favorable earnings reports. Stock splits and other special situations highlighted the action.

Armour was up a couple of points as General Host—off slightly—planned to sweeten its offer for Armour stock.

Schering gained a point as it proposed a 2-for-1 stock split.

A 2-for-1 proposal for National Lead and approval of a 3-for-1 split for Tishman Realty were accompanied by fractional losses in each stock.

American Smelting was down about 3 points in a continued reaction to the court order suspending Pennzoil's order for Asarco Stock.

* * *

Chrysler sagged about a point. It resumed Monday's slide on news of its February cutback in car production. General Motors was steady. Ford held unchanged.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Soviets' Czech Blitz Three-Pronged

GRAFENWOEHR, Germany (AP) — The Soviet blitz that rolled over Czechoslovakia was organized in three army groups with the hammer blow on Prague launched from East Germany.

This has been established by a U.S. and West German military analysis made available to troops stationed in the field.

★ ★ ★

According to a map of Communist troop movements on Aug. 21, the Red forces poured into Czechoslovakia from East Germany, Poland and Hungary. Whether they also crossed directly from the Soviet Ukraine was not clear.

★ ★ ★

The breakdown was given:

Army Group A—out of Poland thwart the backbone of the long Czechoslovak countryside.

Army Group B—down out of East Germany.

Army Group C—up out of Hungary.

STRONGEST GROUP

Army Group A had three Soviet tank divisions, one motorized division and one airborne division, plus three Polish division—motorized, airborne and air mobile. It was the strongest initial group.

★ ★ ★

Army Group B included three Russian tank divisions and one East Germany motorized division with its own artillery or missiles. It spearheaded the drive on Prague.

★ ★ ★

Some of Army Group A also could have deployed out of East Germany.

★ ★ ★

Army Group C had, as one of its assignments, dashing along Czechoslovakia's southern border with Austria.

At least 10 Soviet divisions were said to have been initially involved. Hungarian strength was put at one motorized division. Bulgarian forces were grouped in about three regiments. The Russians also poured in separate artillery, missile, supply and headquarters units.

★ ★ ★

A feature of the operation was that most units were armored. Even such units as paratroops could move with their own vehicles.

No information was available on what was flown into Czechoslovakia rather than sent by road.

Some U.S. officers at the Grafenwoehr training site for the coming Carbide Ice maneuvers say that by the time the occupation was completed, it numbered far more than 500,000.

LACK OF SUPPLIES

While impressed by the swift deployment of the Russians and their allies, some officers here feel that lack of supplies caused the Russians great difficulties when the Czechs and Slovaks refused to let them live off the land.

If the analysis is accurate, one of the invasion's significant features was the deployment of so many troops out of Poland.

According to some Western calculations, the Russians had only about 25,000 troops regularly stationed there. There must have been troop movements into Poland far larger than reported by travelers in the days before the invasion.

Nixon Should Stress Enforcement of Laws

By WHITNEY M. YOUNG JR.
Executive Director
National Urban League

President Nixon's inaugural address was, like most such ceremonial speeches, long on general philosophical statements and short on the specific policy directives we're all waiting for.

YOUNG

But I found one sentence, buried deep in the speech, of great potential significance. "The laws have caught up with our conscience," Nixon said. "What remains is to give life to what is in the law."

★ ★ ★

It is quite true that the laws are on the books; that equality is the law of the land, even if the law isn't honored as often as it should be. I hope that sentence from the inaugural adress will be interpreted by the new President and his top officials to mean that the antidiscrimination laws will be strictly enforced.

Fears that the laws would be ignored have been strong since the election. Some southern school districts, for example, are ignoring school desegregation orders in the hope that they won't be enforced by the new administration. Fifteen years after the Supreme Court said school segregation was unconstitutional, more black children than ever attended segregated schools.

I'm hoping that the President backs up that statement in the inaugural address with clear-cut orders to the Justice Department, the Office of Education, and all government departments to develop positive programs to effect desegregation, along with guidelines to be followed by all recipients of federal aid.

This is especially important now that the fair housing law is in effect. As of Jan. 1, it is illegal to refuse to sell or rent most housing on a discriminatory basis or to discriminate in advertising, servicing or financing most homes and apartments.

That's the law, and the millions of Americans so concerned with "law and order" are going to have to be helped to obey the law. The best way to help them is through strict enforcement, and the new administration can make an important contribution by publicly announcing that it plans to make such enforcement a top priority.

Much of the burden for this rests on the attorney general. The fair-housing law stipulates that an individual who is victimized by discrimination can make a complaint to the secretary of housing and urban development, and I'd advise anyone who suspects he's been discriminated against to do that, or to contact his nearest Urban League, NAACP or other civil rights organization for assistance in preparing his complaint.

But the law also gives the attorney general power to go to court to stop discrimination "where there is a pattern or practice of resistance to the law or where such widespread discrimination exists so as to raise an issue of general public importance."

I can't think of any area more ridden by discriminatory practices than selling and renting of homes. The ghetto exists because black people have been denied the right to move elsewhere, creating an issue of general public importance like no other.

I think that it would be disastrous to allow lax enforcement of the fair-housing law and to allow complaints to accumulate and court calendars to be clogged by a backlog of cases that are never brought to decision. Instead, all those smart young lawyers in the Justice Department ought to be turned loose with instructions to vigorously prosecute breakers of the antidiscrimination laws.

That would uphold "law and order," reinforce the spirit of President Nixon's inaugural statement, and live up to his promise to bring "white and black together as one nation, not two."

A Junior Editors Quiz About LIES

QUESTION: Do lies hurt us, and if so, where?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Telling a lie may not cause you to break out in bright red spots, but it may very well cause you to be very much ashamed of yourself; it is going to hurt you, if not in a physical way.

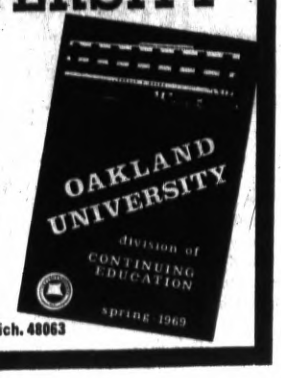

As you think about it, it will tend to lower yourself in your own eyes. You'll say to yourself, "So I'm Bill McCarthy, that little sneak who deserves a kick in the pants." How could anybody be happy thinking of himself like that?

Just exactly where you're going to feel this sense of shame is not so easy to say. In our picture, this sinking sensation hits Bill first in his head, as he thinks about having told a lie. Then the feeling sinks down and socks him in the pit of the stomach.

None of us are perfect, so we all know more or less how Bill feels. Is there anything he can do to cure his illness? You bet there is — go to the teacher and tell the whole story, the real truth. What will the teacher do? It doesn't matter. Bill will have gotten back his self respect — he will like himself once more — he will feel strong and clean. In the old phrase he will have made a "clean breast of it."

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Down in Texas, the Cowboys of the National Football League are fed up with the congestion of their football facility in the state fairgrounds, and have decided to go along with the building of a new stadium in Irving, Texas, 30 miles away.

Out in California, one of the finest facilities for sports is at Anaheim, 35 miles out onto the freeways and away from the maddening Los Angeles traffic.

★ ★ ★

Up north in Minnesota, the baseball Twins and football Vikings are blessed with beautiful parking and road access to their fine stadium at the outskirts of Minneapolis.

Here in Michigan, where there is certainly a dire need to give the major professional teams a decent home, the men on instrumental committees for building a stadium are determined that it should go in either congested and troubled downtown Detroit or in the similarly crowded State Fairgrounds area.

It seems to be a matter of trying to accomplish a 20th century idea with 19th century thinking as both Detroit sites tip the scale with far more disadvantages than advantages.

Taking a common sense look at the two Detroit sites and the site offered at I-75 and M-59 near Pontiac doesn't even produce a sensible argument for either downtown Detroit or the Fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

The acquisition of land for the downtown Detroit site which Mayor Cavanagh prososes would cost about $18 million, almost the entire construction cost of the Texas Stadium, which received the okay with a $20 million revenue bond issue.

The Fairgrounds, located next to the 8-Mile road death trap, would put 5,000 cars in deck parking and another 7,500 in area street parking to take care of 65,000 stadium fans, plus thousands of others who would try to attend the big top tent events at the site on the same given day.

★ ★ ★

The newly created Pontiac Stadium Authority can offer volumes of advantages to argue for the I-75 and M-59 site and it would be tragic if stadium, state and pro athletic officials failed to look at these arguments closely.

BETTER ARGUMENTS

Here are just 10 good arguments favoring the Oakland County site just east of Pontiac:

1. Population—the line of M-59 and I-75, within a 60 mile radius will soon be the center of the state's population.

★ ★ ★

2. Distances—the site offers equi-distant travel of 30-35 miles from the Wayne (south), Macomb (east), Genesee (north) and Livingston (west) county lines within the center of Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

3. Site Access—has I-75 and M-59 as major immediate arteries, with M-24, U.S. 10, I-94, U.S. 23 and I-96 all connecting within the 35-mile radius.

4. Site acquisition—would be about $17.5 million CHEAPER than downtown Detroit, and the availability at I-75 and M-59 now already exists at an estimated cost of $400,000.

5. Site development—the land contour at I-75 and M-59 already exists with its natural bowl contour which would eliminate as much as $250,000 in earth moving.

★ ★ ★

6. Parking — at least 25,000 surface parked cars and as many as 32,000 with added deck parking is conceivable at the I-75 and M-59 site.

★ ★ ★

7. Commuter travel facilities—the possibility of a commuter stop on the Grand Trunk track abutting the I-75 site, the availability of commuter flights to either Oakland-Pontiac or Oakland-Orion airports and the added possibility of the Grank Trunk and bus service from downtown Pontiac, 3 miles away.

★ ★ ★

8. Lodging—the rapid growth of hotel and motel structures can be found within short commuter distances of the site on all arteries.

★ ★ ★

9. Utilities—there is an unlimited and immediate supply of all utilities available at the I-75, M-59 site, including water, sewer, electric, gas, etc.

★ ★ ★

10. Stadium personnel — With Oakland University and Oakland Community College almost adjoining the I-75 site there is also unlimited availability of manpower needed for stadium and parking operations.

★ ★ ★

And, for those who might be interested in the million dollar concession part of a stadium undertaking, there is a state law which prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages on state property such as the Fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

If is apparent that the decision on a stadium site now becomes one of foresight versus hindsight.

Kentucky Edges Alabama

Vols Thrive on Chinese Dish

By The Associated Press

While Adolph Rupp and the Kentucky Wildcats are having their cake and eating it, too, Ray Mears and his Tennessee Volunteers are thriving on an unlikely Chinese dish named Pete Maravich.

The Kentuckians had a cake celebration for the third time this season and Rupp claimed his 800th coaching victory Monday night following an 83-70 overtime conquest of stubborn Alabama.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, Tennessee, which held Louisiana State's Maravich to lows of 17 and 21 points last season, limited the national scoring leader and defending champion to another 21, this season's low, with a Chinese defense in an 81-68 victory over the Tigers.

Kentucky enjoyed its first cake after beating Mississippi State on Jan. 6 and claiming it was the first school to post 1,000 college basketball triumphs. The NCAA, however, threw out five games played in Israel in 1966 but Kentucky uncovered three previously overlooked victories in the early 1900s and celebrated again two games later.

CAKE EATERS

Now comes Rupp with his 800 wins, including the five in Israel, so perhaps the menu should have been matzoh ball soup instead of cake.

"They're just a bunch of cake eaters, and they played like it tonight," said a Kentucky spokesman after lowly Alabama, 4-9, had scared the daylights out of the fifth-ranked Wildcats, 13-2.

Kentucky led most of the way but Alabama's Jim Adkins tied the score at 64-all by making a free throw with 18 seconds left in regulation time.

The overtime was a different story. Larry Steele tipped in a basket, Mike Casey hit a 15-footer and Dan Issel sank two free throws for a 70-64 lead. After an Alabama basket, Kentucky broke it open, with the 6-foot-8 Issel scoring seven overtime points and finishing with 33.

Tennessee's Mears described his Chinese defense as a zone with two men concentrating on Maravich.

"It takes more than one guy to stop him," said Mears, noted for his teams' defensive play.

"I think we did a pretty good job. Sure, we were concentrating on him, just like they were putting more than one guy on our Bill Justus. That enabled Jimmy England to get open and you saw what he did."

★ ★ ★

What England did was 29 points, including 13 of 18 from the floor. Bill Hann added 21 as Tennessee ran its record to 10-3 and tied Vanderbilt for second place in the Southeastern Conference at 5-2 behind 7-0 Kentucky.

Maravich, averaging 46 points a game, made eight of 18 shots under intense pressure.

★ ★ ★

The only other teams in The Associated Press' Top Twenty besides Kentucky to see action Monday night were 13th-ranked Tulsa, which overcame North Texas State 104-94, and Dayton, No. 20, a 72-64 winner over Xavier of Ohio.

Buffalo's Selection of Simpson Kicks Off Draft

Notre Dame Tackle No. 2; Eagles Pick Leroy Keyes

NEW YORK (AP) — The Buffalo Bills of the American Football League chose Southern California's O. J. Simpson, an All-American halfback who won the Heisman Trophy, as the third annual combined pro football draft got under way today.

The choice of Simpson as the No. 1 pick came as no surprise. Many rate him the best ball-carrier in football history.

★ ★ ★

Simpson has indicated that he would demand as much as a $600,000 bonus, equalling the highest price ever paid for a graduating collegian. Donny Anderson of Texas Tech reportedly received that figure in a long term contract with the Green Bay Packers in 1966.

The ten teams of the American League and the 16 of the older National Football League will choose 442 college seniors during the next two days.

LONG RUN

Simpson, a 6-1, 207-pounder rushed for 1,709 yards, an alltime record, and scored 22 touchdowns. He had an 80-yard scoring run in the Rose Bowl, in which Southern California lost to Ohio State.

The choice of Simpson marked the second straight year that a Southern California player had been No. 1 in the draft.

★ ★ ★

Last year the honor went to Ron Yary, a giant tackle, grabbed by the Minnesota Vikings. However, Yary saw little action during the past season.

Atlanta of the National Football League, the second to pick, chose George Kunz, a tackle from Notre Dame.

Kunz is 6-foot-5, 245 pounds and 21 years old. He was the Irish co-captain and a member on The Associated Press' second All-American team.

EAGLES LIKE KEYES

The Philadelphia Eagles of the NFL, third in line, selected Leroy Keyes, the great running Purdue halfback.

He is 6-foot-3, 205, a standout on the Purdue team that played in the Rose Bowl in 1968. He gained 1,003 yards and scored 15 touchdowns in his senior year despite a run of injuries. He also was an ace pass-catcher. Keyes also was outstanding on defense.

The Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL, with the No. 4 pick, grabbed Joe Greene, a North Texas State defensive tackle, an All-American. He is 6-foot-4, 274 and 21 years old.

Greene was rated one of the outstanding defensive men of the 1968 college season.

Cincinnati of the AFL, fifth in the order of the draw, took quarterback Greg Cook of the University of Cincinnati.

Cook is 6-foot-4, 200 pounds and 21 years old. He was on the All-Missouri Valley team. He was the major college total offense leader with 3,210 yards.

LOOSE-JOINTED

The Boston Patriots of the AFL, picked Ron Sellers, Florida State split end, a lanky, loose-jointed ex-basketball player who was on the All-American team. Sellers is the all-time college receiving champion, with 3,598 yards. He led the major college ranks with 86 catches.

The San Francisco 49ers of the NFL, using a New Orleans pick grabbed in the Dave Parks deal, grabbed Ted Kwalick, All-American tight end on Penn State's unbeaten Orange Bowl champions.

Kwalick is a towering 6-foot-4, 230-pound giant with huge hands and potent blocking ability. He averaged 17 yards a catch.

There was mild surprise that teams to this point had passed up Terry Hanratty, the Notre Dame quarterback.

Los Angeles of the NFL, using Detroit's No. 1 pick acquired in the Bill Munson deal, took Larry Smith, second-leading rusher in the Southeast Conference. The Florida senior is 6-foot-4 and 221.

SURPRISE CHOICE

San Diego, which had Denver's pick in Steve Tensi surprised with Marty Domres, Columbia quarterback who is 6-foot-4 and 212.

Domres, who holds 15 Columbia and 12 Ivy League records, was the fourth leading passer in the country and third in total offense last season.

His career total yardage was 5,345 yards, fifth best of all time.

Los Angeles, using its second of three first-round picks, selected receiver Jim Seymour of Notre Dame, 6-foot-4 and 205.

GEORGE ARCHER

Crosby Tourney Won by Archer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Your average golfer doesn't generally consider double bogeys and triple bogeys blessings in disguise. But then, George Archer isn't your average golfer.

Sitting in an overstuffed chair while sipping a short beer, Archer was flushed with victory after carrying off the $25,000 first prize in the Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament. He shot a 71 Monday for a 283 total, five strokes under par.

★ ★ ★

One stroke back on the Pebble Beach course were Bob Dickson and Howie Johnson, who found missed putts costly, and thirdround leader Dale Douglass, who got that close with a birdie on the final hole.

Pittsburgh Seeks Rise With (K)Noll

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Chuck Noll, going from the heights to the depths of pro football, has taken over the head coaching duties of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Steelers have won only 11 games in the last three National Football League seasons and never have gained an NFL championship.

★ ★ ★

But that doesn't bother Noll, who came to Pittsburgh from an assistant's post with the NFL champion Baltimore Colts.

CHUCK NOLL

"I just don't believe that any certain area is doomed to have losers," said Noll at a news conference Monday.

Noll's first big job will be to help the Steelers in their selections in the college draft, which got under way today. Pittsburgh owns the No. 4 pick.

MOVIE CRITIC

Noll worked late into the night Monday, reviewing films and data on Pittsburgh's personnel to, as he put it, "bolster weak spots on the roster."

After the draft, Noll said he'll get down to selecting his assistants.

"I want people who are not just in it (football) for hanging on," he said. "I want people who are dedicated to bringing the best out of the players we have."

Noll said he was on the phone talking to prospective assistants minutes after he took the job offer from Dan Rooney, Steelers vice president.

Rooney, commenting on Noll's selection, said, "We were looking for someone who knows the pro game. We expect to get five of the best players in the country Tuesday and we want someone to motivate them."

AUSTIN OUSTED

Noll succeeds Bill Austin, fired after posting an 11-28-3 record in three seasons.

Noll played college football at the University of Dayton, then played guard and linebacker for the Cleveland Browns.

He was an assistant coach for the old Los Angeles Chargers, a team that captured five of six Western Division titles in the American Football League, and then went to Baltimore.

Lakers, OLSM Among Top Ten Despite Defeats

West Bloomfield and Orchard Lake St. Mary remained in the top ten of their respective classes in the Associated Press weekly basketball ratings despite suffering initial setbacks last week.

The Lakers are seventh in Class B and OLSM is ninth among the "C" schools. Pontiac Central is sitting in the No. 6 slot in Class A with Brother Rice eighth. Rochester has moved up to 13th.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Catholic was rewarded for its upset of OL St. Mary by being moved up to 12th in Class C. Detroit Country Day is now 15th in the same class.

Although it was one of last Friday's many upset victims, River Rouge held first place by a slim margin in Class B. Detroit St. Martin DePorres continues to lead the "C" schools and Detroit All Saints holds the "D" top spot.

WANTS REMATCH

Ypsilanti was rated the No. 1 high school basketball team in state last year but lost to Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills in the state tournament finals.

Pleased With Young Catcher

Redleg Manager Likes 'Bench' Signals

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dave Bristol had better get ready for an argument.

★ ★ ★

He says he's got a signal-caller he wouldn't trade for anybody in the world, including Joe Namath.

"My boy's got that quick release, too," points out the always observant, always alert manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Bristol was talking about Johnny Bench, his 21-year-old catcher who looks like the greatest thing to come out of Oklahoma since Mickey Mantle and who many believe is the best young prospect in baseball today. But how could anybody in his right mind stand his ground and say un-uh to a straight up deal, even a hypothetical one, for Broadway Joe Namath?

NOT INTERESTED

You don't know Dave Bristol. He's in his right mind but even if they came to him with the proposition he wouldn't take Namath for Bench even up.

Had he seen what Namath did to Baltimore in the Super Bowl?

"Certainly I did," laughed the Cincy manager from his home in Andrew, N.C., after he had shaken the snow off his shoes to come inside and talk on the telephone. "He did a tremendous job picking that defense apart. Joe Namath's got that great arm, good instincts and he can throw the ball but Johnny Bench can do all that and more."

"You got something against Namath?"

"Not a thing," said Bristol, laughing some more.

Eagles-Dallas Deal Happy One

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mike Ditka is delighted ... and Dave McDaniels is excited. It just goes to show what a change of scenery in the National Football League will do for you.

The Philadelphia Eagles Monday traded former All-Pro tight end Ditka to the Dallas Cowboys for untested split end McDaniels, prompting these euphorious comments:

Ditka: "I don't know anything about it, but if it's true, I'm delighted."

★ ★ ★

McDaniels: "I'm real excited about going to Philadelphia. The main thing is that I will get a chance to play."

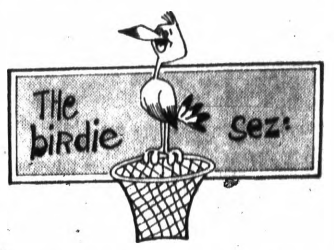

Ditka was obviously happy about clearing out of town. His battle with Coach-General Manager Joe Kuharich was an open war. In fact, Ditka had said publicly he would never again play for the Eagles' field boss.

Ditka, 29, an eight-year NFL veteran, had his brightest years with the Chicago Bears. Before coming here two years ago in a trade for quarterback Jack Concannon, Ditka was Rookie of the Year in 1961 and four times a member of the All-Pro team.

★ ★ ★

His performance, which reached a high of 75 pass receptions in 1964, deteriorated after coming to the Eagles. Ditka blamed his two sub-par seasons here on Kuharich.

"I couldn't play for Kuharich under the same situation and system," he had said in a recent interview. "We just clashed, and I blame the way I was misused ..."

Our friend "The Birdie" had to give up his nest this week for the stockpile of bird seed, corn and feathers which have come to him by his loving readers (primarily at Pontiac Catholic and Andover High Schools).

Oh yes, life is full of rude awakenings as the Birdie learned when the Titans of Pontiac Catholic bopped OL St. Mary and Andover took the sail out of the West Bloomfield Lakers.

. . . And which the Titans may find out tonight when they meet the neighboring Huskies.

So the Bird chirps:

Pontiac Central over Southwestern
West Bloomfield over Walled Lake
Lahser over Groves
East Detroit over Ferndale
Berkley over Oak Park
BLUE PLATE SPECIAL
Northern over Catholic

No Backing by Plymouth for Racers

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The Plymouth Division of Chrysler Corp., long a potent force in big time stock car racing, has no plans for fielding a factory-backed team this year, The Associated Press learned Monday.

The company lost its No. 1 stock car driver, Richard Petty, last December. Petty, the biggest winner the sport has ever known, switched to Ford for what he termed "a better deal over the long haul."

★ ★ ★

Thus, for the first time in 10 years Plymouth will not have a factory-sponsored team in stock car racing's premier event, the 500-mile Daytona 500 at Daytona Beach, Fla., next month.

"We could change our minds if the right situation came along, but right now we do not plan to back any team or teams in stock car racing this season," a Plymouth spokesman said in Detroit. "However, our performance parts will continue to be available to anyone who wants to use them in legitimate racing."

★ ★ ★

Petty's switch to Ford apparently left the company with a vacancy it could not fill from the available unattached driv-

2 Coast Foes for Uclans

By the Associated Press

The powerful UCLA Bruins, again a unanimous choice for first place in The Associated Press' major college basketball poll, take on two teams with opposite records when they return to action on the West Coast this weekend.

Back from a successful two-game stand in the Midwest where they defeated Northwestern and Chicago Loyola to increase their record to 14-0, the Bruins meet California, 10-4, Friday and Stanford, 4-10, Saturday, both games at home.

The Golden Bears may turn out not to be so gentle because they have played well and two of their four setbacks have been by a single point, 70-71 to Cincinnati and 74-73 to Washington. Another defeat was to Purdue, which dropped to 14th in the weekly poll.

Pontiac Central's girls remained unbeaten Monday afternoon in their eastern division Prep Ski League duel with Lakeview at Mt. Holly.

The PCH girls, competing for the first time this year, posted their third straight victory, 138.7-145.0, by taking the 2-3-4 spots behind Lakeview's Karen Trinkous.

★ ★ ★

The Central boys boosted their record to 2-1 with an easy win, paced by Bruce Clark's 32.6-seconds combined time. PCH entries also finished 3-4-5 with good showings.

Tow Trucker Finds Clay Amidst Snow

FERGUS FALLS, Minn. (AP) — A wrecker operator from Fergus Falls had a surprise waiting for him Monday when he went to pull a chauffeur-driven limousine from a snow-filled ditch 15 miles northwest of this Western Minnesota community.

The passenger in the stuck car asked the tow truck driver if he knew who he was.

"You should recognize me," the man said. "I'm Muhhammad Ali, the world's greatest fighter."

The former heavyweight champion, also known as Cassius Clay, apparently was travelling north for a speaking engagement when the car went off — 94. The car bore Florida license plates, an unusual sight in Minnesota this winter of heavy snowfall.

Pontiac Central Ranked No. 6 in Class A Poll

This year Ypsilanti is again on top of the Class A Associated Press ratings but would like to prove it belongs there ahead of No. 2 Ottawa Hills.

"We'd sure like another opportunity to meet them," said Ypsilanti coach Dick Ouelette.

Ottawa Hills beat Ypsilanti 76-68 in the finals to provide Ouelette's quintet with its only loss of last season.

"Last year we met Grand Rapids (Ottawa Hills) without knowing a lot about them," he said. "I think we have as good a team as they do this year."

FORFEIT LOSSES

Ouellette is in his 14th year of coaching and fifth at Ypsilanti. In his first four years his teams went to the regional tournament, quarterfinals, and last year to the finals. They chalked up a 49-29 record, but 10 of the losses came during Quellette's first year on forfeitures due to the use of an ineligible player.

Ypsilanti has run up a 10-0 record already this season and has won 35 regular season games in a row.

★ ★ ★

Three starters are back from last year's squad: 6-foot-3 center Robin Raymond, 6-foot-3 forward Bob Rhodin and 6-foot-1 forward Joe Frye. Two newcomers are guards Steve Rhodin, Bob's brother, and Sid Frye, Joe's brother.

"They're as good as any team I've had," praised Ouellette. "But they're not a showy group of kids. The ball club this year has probably the most pride in themselves of any team I've had."

"Being on top (of the ratings) is a goal the players set for themselves," Ouellette said. "And being rated there helps them meet their goal because when they're on top they want to stay there."

Lakers' Skiers Outrace Three Prep Rivals

The improving ski teams of West Bloomfield High School spilled three rivals at Sylvan Knob Monday behind the trailblazing of Kim Woodruff and Pauli Cunningham.

Woodruff dominated the boys field with his combined time of 1:24.2 easily outdistancing his closest pursuers from Charlevoix and Petoskey.

Host Gaylord, the runner-up team, was led by Rich Shelter's fifth-place finish. Al Musser and Jeff Swarbrick of West Bloomfield were fourth and sixth. The Lakers won by more than 24 seconds.

'NO CONTEST'

The girls' conquest was even more decisive. Charlevoix's coeds were more than 110 seconds behind the Lakers.

Pauli Cunningham, a newcomer to the West Bloomfield roster, upset All-Stater Brenda Walker of Gaylord in the individual duel by almost three seconds.

In City League 'Unbeatable' Quint Falls

Dwayne Hardiman tallied three points in the overtime session Monday night to give Conn Clothes a 71-69 conquest of the Unbeatables No. 1 quintet in the city men's recreation basketball league.

Alvin Keel of the losers sent the game into overtime with a basket that knotted the score at 68-all with just two seconds left to play.

★ ★ ★

Hardiman scored the only basket of the overtime and also matched McKinley Jones' charity shot to earn the win for Conn's. He finished with 14 points as the winners put five players in double figures. Fred Davis' 19 let the attack.

★ ★ ★

Rudy Ransom had 20 for the Unbeatables who led most of the game.

★ ★ ★

The other city league contest saw Club One Spot spurt past Perry Drugs, 19-10, in the second quarter and maintain the lead for a 60-52 victory.

★ ★ ★

Felix Brooks, who led all the scorers with 22 points, hit eight in each of the first two periods to pace the winners. Paul Harris notched 14 points to top the Perry cagers.

In the other city contest, the century mark was topped for the first time this season by Local 596 in a 101-38 whipping of the Black Culture team.

★ ★ ★

Willie Peck and Curly Craft had 22 each for the winners, and Theodro Hall added 21. The winners made 48 field goals.

Saints Playing Like Gladiators

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Lutheran College plays its basketball games in a Catholic high school gym, has a coach named Sunday and 60 per cent of its players are freshmen, but the "Saints" are nobody's patsies.

President of the previously little-known, four-year liberal arts college, John Choitz, said the Saints "play like Christians but win like gladiators."

★ ★ ★

So far they've done a lot of winning, piling up a 17-1 record to lead the nation's small colleges in rebounds.

"This is the first time our school has received any publicity and the guys on the team realize one loss can drop them out," said coach Richard Sunday.

"They're fighting to keep that exposure," he added. "These kids know that only five men play the game at a time, but they think they can beat five men anywhere. Confidence is a big thing, believe me."

"Some people thought all we played was church ball until we played Eastern Michigan, Hillsdale, St. Joseph's of Indiana and Ashland (Ohio), last year," Sunday said. "Ashland was the top defensive team in the country."

★ ★ ★

The Saints play their games in the Servite High School gymnasium and practice at Our Savior Lutheran Church's gym near the college.

"Next year we open the season against DePaul in Chicago," he said with determination, "We're not going there to open their season, but to win! We don't believe in being patsies."

TOURNEY SETBACK

Michigan Lutheran's only loss this season was a 104-100 squeaker to Luther of Iowa in a Lutheran tournament at Chicago during the Christmas holiday.

"We didn't play well that day," Sunday said. "But it brought the kids back to reality. They found out some other teams can shoot too."

★ ★ ★

The college is owned by the Michigan district of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

★ ★ ★

"The Missouri Synod is fostering this program to help kids who couldn't get to school otherwise," Sunday said. "We want them to find a school where they can belong. It's to help the late bloomers or the ones who just woke up late."

LIVE AT HOME

The students don't get any aid and have little of the glamor of college life. They live at home and many have outside jobs.

★ ★ ★

Sunday, 41, is a former coach in Catholic, city and suburban high school leagues in the Detroit area. Four of the 13 players on his team are from Catholic schools, seven from public schools and one from a Lutheran high school. Eight of the 13 are freshmen and two of those call Baghead, Iraq, their hometown.

"They're Caldeans," Sunday said. "Their parents were from Iraq and came here and now own small neighborhood grocery stores."

★ ★ ★

Last year Michigan Lutheran compiled a 22-9 record. This is its fourth year against regular four-year schools and the "Saints" didn't have their first graduating class until last year.

★ ★ ★

"We're working on next year's team already," Sunday said confidently. "We're not going to let this be a one-year shot. If we can be the Notre Dame of small college basketball in Michigan we'll be happy."

How the '69 cars compare.

Get this Official Results Handbook—free—for complete data on the sixty models entered in the 12th Annual Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials

Once again the Trials hand you the answers to your questions about the new models.

Like, how many miles you get to a gallon of gasoline. How quickly you can make an emergency stop. And, what kind of acceleration you can expect for passing.

Each of the entries was a regular production model taken off a showroom floor by NASCAR and made test-ready by a 1,500 mile break-in.

The Trials were carried out under the strict supervision of NASCAR, the nation's leading authority on stock cars. Sponsored as a public service by the Union Oil Company of California and its Pure Oil Division, the Trials are the only comparative tests of new model automobiles of their kind in the country.

So if you want to know how the '69 cars really perform, check the test results and overall class-winners here. And get the Official Results Handbook for the whole story, free, from your Pure Oil dealer. Or write to:

A time-tested maneuver with a new wrinkle is keeping the Colts of Troy very much in the running for the basketball championship in the Oakland A League.

With 11 games behind them—they've won nine and lost two—the Colts have averaged 61.4 points a game, but the key to those nine verdicts has been defense.

The Colts, coached by Jack Acton who played his prep ball at Troy, have given up only 42 points a game and only three opponents have scored more than 50—Rochester (51), Alpena (51) and Clawson (65). Two of those were losses—Rochester and Clawson.

Acton is checking his opponents with a zone defense. "It's the same zone that Peyton Goodwin (now athletic director at Troy) used for 18 years," says Acton. "We used it when I played for him. The only thing we've added is the press."

TOUGH TEST

The Colts' defense will get perhaps its toughest workout in a home game Feb. 14 against Rochester. The Rochester squad is 7-1 in the league race at present, one full game ahead of the Colts.

A top prep swimmer in Grand Rapids a few years back is the new swimming coach at Auburn Hills of Oakland Community College.

OSGOOD

He's Richard Osgood, 24, a product of Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills and Michigan State University. Osgood was a freestyler as a prep.

---

SMITH

Wayne wrestling coach Bob Hurley says Smith actually would do better in the 115-pound class, but not many wrestling teams have men in that weight. "So we use Smith at 123," says Hurley.

★ ★ ★

Smith had a 7-8 mark last season, picking up four pins along the way. "He's a good consistent performer with a lot of potential," says Hurley.

---

Two candidates for the 'Unsung Hero' honors this week are Mitch Hansen of Detroit Country Day and Paul VanWagner of Livonia Stevenson.

HANSEN

VanWAGNER

Hansen, a 6-3 junior forward, has been overshadowed by the play of teammate Jack Zwemer, one of the county's top scorers. However, Hansen has contributed a respectable 14 points a game in the Yellow Jackets 7-2 record. Defense is Mitch's forte. In that department he leads the team. Against Algonac Saturday night, Mitch intercepted the ball or stole it eight times along with collecting 14 points. "It was quite a performance," said coach John Hannett.

★ ★ ★

VanWagner is a senior guard who runs the offense for Stevenson. In a 69-67 win over Waterford Friday, VanWagner scored only four points, but his overall play in directing the Spartans was a major factor in the verdict.

Champions Triumphant in Playoffs

The two regular season champions posted impressive victories as the Pontiac Church League opened playoffs last night.

Northeast Community, the only unbeaten squad with a 7-0 mark in National loop play, sent Bethany Baptist to the sidelines in the one-game knockout tournament by posting a 102-76 decision.

Trinity Baptist (6-1), pacesetter in the American loop, turned back Bloomfield Hills Baptist, 91-33, behind the scoring of Rich Evans (22), Daryl Mitchell (19) and Spurgeon Graves (15).

SETS RECORD

Bill Foster matched the league record and set a playoff mark with 43 points for Northeast. Phil Walter aided the cause with 25 markers and Owen Edwards added 22. Jim Doll led Bethany with 23 points.

The victory sends Northeast into second round play this evening against Pontiac Free Methodist, an 83-77 winner over Wesleyan Church last night. In a couple of first-round games this evening Northside Baptist meets Emmanuel Baptist and Oxford Free Methodist takes on United Missionary.

Jack Neidrick with 31 points and Bob Rose with 23 sparked the Pontiac Free Methodist win. Frank Hoag tossed in 42 for Wesleyan.

★ ★ ★

In other games last night, Lake Orion ousted Rochester Nazarene, 43-26, behind the scoring of Larry Blount (15), Gethsemane Lutheran surprised Stone Baptist, 57-48, and Drayton Heights Free Methodist knocked off Auburn Heights Free Methodist, 94-68.

HOT TWOSOME

Tom Grund poured in 18 markers and Don Bonnett added 17 to pace the Gethesemane win. Gerland Spangler led Stone with 20.

Drayton Heights, sparked by Jeff Harnack (32) and Mike Peterson (28), raced to a 45-27 lead at halftime and coasted. Tom Hopper led Auburn Heights with 30.

Play continues this evening at Pontiac Free Methodist. Three quarter-final games are slated for Thursday, semifinals Friday and finals Saturday.

All-America Bowl Players Penalized

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Players who participated in Tampa's All-American Bowl football game are ineligible for further college sports competition, the executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Association said here Monday.

NCAA Director Walter Byers said gifts to players were far in excess of allowable limits. The game's promoters gave players wrist watches, hotel rooms, two meals a day, about $20 a day spending money and free trips to Bermuda at any time they want to take them.

"We told the operators of the Tampa game this was excessive," Byers said. "They first indicated they would conform, but then they didn't."

He said the NCAA would require schools to deduct the over-payments from financial aid to players who participated in the game.

Struble Five Loses in Waterford

The L.L.B.'s dropped Struble Realty from the ranks of the unbeaten Monday night and tied the losers for the lead in the Waterford Township recreation basketball National League with a 45-34 victory.

Booker Brothers' Concrete won its second in a row, 48-44, over Buick Warehouse; and Don Murphy Inc. took over third place by trimming Lakeland Hardware, 57-54.

The L.L.B.'s fashioned their upset win with the aid of a 19-9 advantage in field goals. They limited Struble to three baskets in the opening half in building a 24-12 margin. Sam Gibbons of the losers was the top pointmaker with 12.

Joe Beseau's men's loop debut added 18 points to Booker's attack and the concrete firm raised its record to 2-5. The Buick team is also 2-5 now. It was led by Doc Hill's 15.

Lakeland Hardware, also 2-5, rallied to within a point of Don Murphy's but Frank Ballard's two free throws in the final 30 seconds clinched the win. Ron Stafford hit 19 for the winners, while Bob Perry paced Lakeland with 15.

Former Hurler to Head Old Baseball Loop

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The American Association, final stepping stone to the major leagues for Stan Musial, Ted Williams, and Willie Mays and many other baseball stars, is back in business after a six-year layoff.

Former pitching great Allie Reynolds was named president of the six-team league at an organizational meeting Monday. League headquarters will be in his home town, Oklahoma City.

Members of the reborn Class AAA league include four teams in the Pacific Coast League last season—Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Denver and Indianapolis. Omaha and Des Moines are the other teams.

The league adopted a 140-game schedule for its 1969 season that will open April 18 and close Sept. 1.

Bullets Rip Pistons to Hold Onto Lead

By the Associated Press

The Baltimore Bullets ended their National Basketball Association losing streak just in time.

With all but one-half game of their Eastern Division lead melted in the heat of a three-game losing streak, the Bullets pulled out of the sag with a 126-106 victory over Detroit Monday night. It restored their lead to one game over idle Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

In the only other NBA game played, the Seattle SuperSonics turned back the Milwaukee Bucks 128-107 in Tacoma, Wash.

Kevin Loughery poured in 37 points and added 11 assists to lead the Baltimore attack. It was Loughery and Earl Monroe who keyed a 10-point Bullet string in the third period that opened a 78-67 lead for Baltimore.

Monroe, favoring a sprained left ankle, was held scoreless in the first half after picking up three quick personal fouls. But he got hot with eight points in the final three minutes of the third period and finished with 20 for the night in 26 minutes of action.

Gus Johnson had 23 and Loughery hit on 16 of 26 shots for his 37.

Dave Bing led the Pistons with 22.

Bob Rule's 31-point output triggered Seattle's success over Milwaukee. A jump shot by the big center at the outset of the second period broke a 26-all tie, and the Sonics led the rest of the way.

Seattle boosted its halftime bulge to 67-52 before the Bucks bounced back and closed to within 84-73 late in the third quarter. But the Sonics opened the gap to 95-82 at the end of the stanza and won going away.

Teen to Stand Trial in Slaying

A Pontiac teen-ager yesterday was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court to stand trial on an open charge of murder in the slaying of a 53-year-old truck driver last June.

Pontiac District Judge James R. Stelt ordered the higher court hearing following the preliminary examination of Raymond P. Reece Jr., 18, of 7 Grant. He is held without bond in the county jail.

★ ★ ★

Reece and a 16-year-old juvenile are accused of killing Robert Terry of Andersonville, Ind. The pair was arrested and charged earlier this month after police received a tip. The 16-year-old is in custody of juvenile authorities.

Terry, an employe of the Ellis Trucking Co., was on his way to the company terminal at 120 Franklin Road when he was killed by a blow on the back of the head.

★ ★ ★

Reece will be arraigned Feb. 3 before Circuit Judge Farrell E. Roberts.

Girl Objects to the Pledge of Allegiance

NEW YORK (AP) — A 17-year-old high school girl has asked not only to remain silent during the pledge of allegiance but to be allowed to either sit down or be excused from the classroom in an appeal to the state commissioner of education.

The appeal was filed Monday for brown-haired Dorothy Lynn, a senior at Jamaica High School in Queens, by the National Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ramona Ripston, codirector of the committee, described Miss Lynn as "a lovely, bright girl" who does not believe in God and objects to the "one nation under God" phrase in the pledge.

The girl's principal, Louis Schuker, in a letter to the board of education, described Dorothy as "a poor scholar who has failed most subjects."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ripston said Miss Lynn also believes "It is impossible for her to say there is liberty and justice for all in America today."

The school had agreed that the student could remain silent during recitation of the pledge, but she was told to stand when a teacher noticed her sitting.

Crisis Is Ended in Luxembourg

LUXEMBOURG (AP) — A three-month-long crisis ended Monday with agreement between Christian Democrats and Liberals to form the next government.

Christian Democrat Pierre Werner will remain as premier in a team of seven ministers, three fewer than in the resigning Cabinet. The chairman of the Liberal party, Gaston Thorn, will likely be foreign minister.

Was Gina Putting Earl On With Her Talk About Love?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Gina Lollobrigida was probably kidding me when she pictured herself — since her divorce — as being "very generous" with her love and planning to be single for the rest of her life because "I am by nature unfaithful."

WILSON

My jaw kept popping open as Gina, in a leopard dress, sat on a divan in her suite at the Waldorf Towers and said, "The people who love only once are not very rich . . . I do not believe in marriage . . . I think marriage should not be till you are 80 . . . You can love many people in your life . . . When I'm in love, I love everything about the man, the good thing and the bad thing . . . I think perhaps I am a little too much woman."

★ ★ ★

Gina has been called "hot-blooded" and "a man-eater" by the European press, and she disagrees with that.

But she has been in love frequently since she and Dr. Milko Skofic parted.

"I was too young to marry," Gina said. "The same thing happened that happens to all love. It ends, everything is finished . . . Other women feel it but don't have the guts to say it. I have the courage to start my life over . . . I am not a 'ipocrite."

By coincidence, this is about the kind of woman that Gina plays in "Buona Sera, Mrs. Campbell." Maybe she grabbed these ideas from the script.

But she looked very grave. When I asked her who she's in love with now, she answered, "Very many. I told you, I am very generous."

★ ★ ★

Bonnie Bell, seeing an underground actress, said, "The way she looks, she should stay underground" . . . President Nixon, working at a Woodrow Wilson desk that he likes, explained, "I'm a Wilson fan." (Thanks, Mr. President. Just about everybody is nowadays.)

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

John Davidson's hair down below his coat collar was longer than his bride's (blonde Jacqueline Miller) when he opened at the Plaza Persian Room but it didn't reduce his talent and he was lustily cheered by Jimmy Dean, Karen Morrow, Nancy Dussalt, Howard Da Silva and others. Davidson told the crowd, "My wife and I were married in old San Juan Dec. 29 with her father standing beside that huge cannon."

Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt showed up at the Act I party for their show "Celebration" looking like Blue Cross ads — Jones' dislocated arm in a sling, Schmidt's fractured ankle in a cast . . . Surprise visitor to Arthur: Noel Coward . . . Katharine Hepburn — an Oscar contender for "Lion in Winter" — starts Broadway rehearsals for "Coco" in July.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The way prices are rising, more marriages may end in bankruptcy than in divorce.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The shortest answer is to do it."

EARL'S PEARLS: "Silver wedding? That's when a man celebrates 25 years of working for the same boss."

A Look at TV

Nixon Carries Interview

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — Richard M. Nixon presided over his first news conference as President Monday morning, a televised event that occupied precisely 30 minutes in which he handled a wide assortment of questions fluently and smoothly.

The President chose to present himself in a formal, almost stark situation — standing before a microphone, with two flags behind him.

At the outset, responding to the initial questions about his proposed legislative program and the Vietnam talks, Nixon seemed on the tense side, his hands behind his back or clasped in front. But as the session went on, he eased up considerably.

By the time he was answering a question about his position on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, he was beginning to make gestures as he talked. When he reached crime in the District of Columbia, he even essayed a small joke about a woman columnist.

Jack Webb strung out one of his patented "Dragnet" stories to two hours in length to make an NBC "World Premiere" feature Monday night, and although the program was made a couple of years ago, the final scenes by coincidence looked as if they had been shot on location last week.

The story basically concerned a manhunt by Sgt. Friday and his partner for a photographer believed to have kidnaped and murdered four pretty young models. Along the way there were opportunities for the colorful character bits, and there was one subplot in which the intrepid team solved the murder of a jewelry salesman.

★ ★ ★

In spite of being four times as long as the series, it was nevertheless standard "Dragnet." The most interesting aspect was the climax — the capture of the models' murderer in a torrential rainstorm in the Hollywood hills.

ABC skipped its early evening news program Monday night to carry the Bing Crosby golf tournament to a point where it was certain that George Archer was the winner — two hours covering the final play. Originally, the network planned to devote 60 minutes to the windup, a day late because of bad weather.

COSTAR SOUGHT

The producers of ABC's "Bewitched," which was renewed for the 1960-70 season several weeks ago, are now busily seeking a replacement for Dick York who costarred as the witch's husband in the series during the past five years.

York informed Screen Gems, the producer, on Friday that he would not renew his contract which expires at the end of this season.

'Sinatra' Book Reflects His Career Fully

Sinatra
By
Arnold Shaw
Holt Rinehart Winston

By CORENNA ALDRICH

It's unlikely anyone could write a book about Frank Sinatra that would satisfy everyone. But "Sinatra" by Arnold Shaw may come pretty close for all but the most biased.

Not really a study of Sinatra himself, the book is more a collage of images reflected over the years in quotations and publications.

★ ★ ★

Shaw apparently had little personal contact with Sinatra, but he's done an enormous amount of research on persons who have. Episodes from those associations are documented as they were reported.

Controveries arising from them are examined in light of the contradictions, misinterpretations, exaggerations and outright lies often surrounding well-known personalities.

KEPT IN SPOTLIGHT

The result is an objective presentation of public and private reaction to a man whose personal and professional activities have kept him in the spotlight almost continuously for a quarter of a century.

It's left to the reader to decide how much of his trouble was his own doing and how much of his success was luck.

★ ★ ★

From bobby-soxers' idol to business executive, Sinatra's life has spanned an evolution in popular music. As a recognized composer, author and lecturer in the music field, Shaw's own background provides the necessary material to write such a story.

Waterford Teen to Be Eagle Scout

A Waterford Township teen will become an Eagle Scout in a court of honor scheduled tomorrow at the Central United Methodist Church, 3882 Highland, Waterford Township.

Mickey O'Hearn, 14, a ninth-grader at Crary Junior High School, will be honored at a family night dinner at 6:30 p.m.

A scout for three years, Mickey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Hearn of 4044 Woodstock, holds the order of the arrow and is senior patrol leader of Troop 2, Waterford Township.

Airline Reports New 'Hijacking'

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Continental Airlines is the victim of a different kind of hijacking.

Sunset Outdoor Advertising of Seattle reported Monday that a 14-by-48-foot billboard—depicting a Continental jet flying off into the sunset—was stolen from its stand.

OCC Board to Air Bond-Issue Plan

A $7-million bond-issue proposal will be considered at a special meeting of the Oakland Community College Board of Trustees at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the George A. Bee Executive Office, 2480 Opdyke, Bloomfield Hills.

This bond issue would be part of a five-year, $17.5-million capital outlay project for nine building projects on the college's three campuses, according to officials.

★ ★ ★

Also on tomorrow night's agenda is the installation of David M. Preston as a member of the board of trustees. The installation was postponed last week since Preston had the flu.

City Budget Hearing Set for Tonight

A public hearing on the proposed $10,177,620 city budget for 1969 will be held at 8 tonight at the City Commission meeting at City Hall, East Pike and East Wide Track.

The budget, the city's biggest ever, is $2 million above last year and has been hailed by city officials as enabling the city to hire more personnel and step up its programs.

★ ★ ★

The budget benefits from revenues of the city income tax imposed January 1968. The budget is late this year due to installation of new equipment, it has been explained.

Among other items on the agenda is presentation of the city's "Workable Program." This covers a wide range of activities and is used in reference to federal and state grants.

★ ★ ★

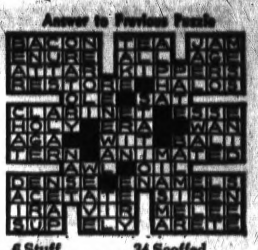

Also to be considered will be a report from City Attorney Sherwin Birnkrant, on functions of the Pontiac area Planning Council. Birnkrant was requested by the commission to offer his opinion on whether or not the city can legally subscribe funds to support the PAPC, an advisory group formed last year to aid in city, community and school planning.

DST Loss Margin Holding Steady

LANSING (UPI) — A margin of 400-450 votes is holding steady in the recount of Daylight Saving Time votes, elections Director Bernard Apol said yesterday.

With 144 precincts in eight counties left to check, Apol said the recount should be finished by Friday. The counties left to be tabulated are Mason, Manistee, Wexford, Ogemaw, Iosco, Delta, Alger and Schoolcraft.

★ ★ ★

The unofficial post-election results had the DST issue winning by 25,000 votes. Official results, however, had the measure losing by 1,501 votes. In the recount of 2,700 precincts, the issue is now losing by 400-450 votes.

During this Limited Enrollment Period, you can enroll yourself and all eligible members of your family simply by mailing the Enrollment Form below with $1. There's nothing else to do—but you must mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, February 23, 1969!

Think of it. Now, with a stroke of your pen, you can have tax-free, expense-free extra cash paid direct to you when a sudden accident or unexpected illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period without having to see a company representative and without any red tape whatsoever. All you need do is mail the Enrollment Form below together with just $1 before the expiration date. It's that easy!

Why You Need Extra Cash In Addition To Ordinary Hospital Insurance

Anyone who has been in the hospital recently knows ordinary hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply will not cover everything. You have to pay many "extras" out of your own pocket—and it can add up to hundreds of dollars in a frighteningly short time.

But even if your ordinary hospital insurance covers most of your medical and hospital bills, what about the bills that keep piling up at home?

If you, as husband, father and breadwinner are suddenly hospitalized, your income stops, your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "salary insurance" it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay.

If your wife is suddenly hospitalized, who will look after the family, do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? You may have to take time off from your job—or hire full-time domestic help—to take care of things at home.

If one of your children is suddenly hospitalized you will certainly spare no expense. You wouldn't even think of the cost.

If you're over 65 and are suddenly hospitalized, Medicare, fine as it is, won't pay all of your hospital expenses or any household expenses. Most senior citizens won't want to use up savings it may have taken a lifetime to accumulate... they want to retain their independence and not become a "burden" to their children or community.

Without "extra cash" protection, a hospital emergency may leave you with savings gone, debts you can't pay, peace of mind shattered—even your recovery can be seriously delayed by money worries!

How The Plan Protects You And Your Family

Now, with the unique "extra cash" protection of The Doctors Hospital Plan you can avoid these worries because you can be assured of extra cash income when you or any covered member of your family goes to the hospital. No matter how large your family, no matter what your age or occupation and without any qualifications whatsoever, you can choose any of the four low-cost plans shown at right to meet your family's special needs.

In addition to the "extra cash" hospital benefits, you get all these valuable "extra" features:

Your "Health-Bank Account" Grows Each Month

Here's a wonderful benefit, no matter which plan you choose—almost like having an extra "Bank Account." When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account."

Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum! When you have claims, your benefits are subtracted from your "account." It's much like putting money in and taking it out of a bank account.

Enjoy Life-Long Security

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

You May Actually Come Out "Money Ahead"

Because The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance you carry—individual, group or even Medicare—and because all your extra cash benefits are tax-free, you may leave the hospital many dollars ahead... money you don't have to account for to anyone. Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

Enroll For Only $1

Regardless of your age, the size of your family, or the plan you select, you get your first month for only $1.00. If you choose the All-Family Plan—all your eligible children (including future additions) are included at no extra cost. (See box at right for low rates.)

Extra Cash Protection At Surprisingly Low Cost

How can a hospital plan offer so much for so little? The answer is simple: We have lower total sales costs. The Doctors Hospital Plan is a mass enrollment plan. All business is conducted between you and the company by mail. No salesmen or investigators are used. It all adds up to real savings we share with you by giving you high quality protection at low cost.

Offered By Physicians Mutual "The Doctors Company"!

Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and reputation of the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, "the doctors company," specializing in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists for more than 65 years. Dunne's Insurance Reports, one of the leading insurance industry authorities in the nation, gives Physicians Mutual its highest policyholders' rating of "A Plus (Excellent)." Serving hundreds of thousands of policyholders throughout the United States direct by mail, Physicians Mutual has its headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and is licensed and incorporated in that state. Its Board of Directors is composed entirely of respected members of the medical, dental and insurance professions.

Easy To Enroll! No Salesman Will Call!

During this limited enrollment period there are no other qualifications other than to complete and mail the Enrollment Form below. We will issue your Doctors Hospital Policy (Form P308 Series) immediately—the same day we receive your form. This automatically puts your policy in force. Along with your policy you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. When you need your benefits, you can be sure that your claim will be handled promptly.

Protect Your Family—Enroll Now. If Not Satisfied Your $1 Will Be Refunded

CHOOSE THE PLAN THAT SUITS YOU BEST

ALL-FAMILY PLAN $10,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized. $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.

If yours is a young, growing family, we recommend the All-Family Plan. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. And all your children (including future additions) between 3 months of age and under 21 are included at no extra cost as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

You pay only $7.95 a month and you get your first month for *only $1.00!

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN $7,500 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the Husband-Wife Plan.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for *only $1.00!

ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN $7,500 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Family Plan. This plan has been tailored to help meet your particular needs. It covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the One-Parent Family Plan.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for *only $1.00!

INDIVIDUAL PLAN $5,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized.

If you are living by yourself, or if you wish to cover only yourself or one family member, choose the Individual Plan.

You pay only $3.50 monthly and you get your first month for *only $1.00!

On all plans, your "extra cash" benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

Naturally, The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover any new accident or sickness. Accidents are covered immediately. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the All-Family Plan which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or conditions covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

You are free to go to any hospital of your own choice that makes a charge for room and board, with these exceptions only: nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals or Federal hospitals.

SPECIAL EXTRA BENEFITS!

Whichever plan you choose, you get:

50% INCREASE IN YOUR CASH BENEFITS...if you or any member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

If you choose the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, you get in addition:

DOUBLE CASH BENEFITS if both you and your wife are injured and hospitalized at the same time: You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

Important: Here is another real "plus"—if you have been told that anyone in your family is "uninsurable"! Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past—ailments that come back again and again, or are likely to recur—you will be covered for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for two years!

IF YOU ARE OVER 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses it will not cover all of your needs. During this limited enrollment, you can get the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years without any qualifications just by using the form below!

It's a fact that people over 65 go to hospitals more often and have larger hospital bills. That's exactly why they need extra cash protection! And that's why some hospital plans won't accept them or charge rates beyond their means. But The Doctors Hospital Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you easy-to-carry protection that is within your means. If you are over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following modest monthly increase applies. (This is the only increase that can ever be made as long as your policy is in force):

|---|---|
| Female on All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan | $2.25 |
| Female on One-Parent Family or Individual Plan | 3.00 |
| Male on any Plan | 3.00 |

19 Important Questions Answered

ABOUT THE NEW DOCTORS HOSPITAL PLAN

1. What is The Doctors Hospital Plan?

The Doctors Hospital Plan is a brand-new, low-cost health protection plan—that pays extra cash direct to you when a covered accident or illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family.

2. Why do I need The Doctors Hospital Plan in addition to my regular insurance?

Probably your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital expenses, but even if it does, you will still need help to cover all your household expenses when you are hospitalized.

3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?

Yes, The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry, whether individual or group—even in addition to Medicare! And all your benefits are tax-free! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?

None at all. Your only qualification is to complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.

5. Which plan should I choose?

You may choose any of four low-cost plans—you can actually select the exact plan that suits you best!

If yours is a young, growing family, we recommend the ALL-FAMILY PLAN. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. All your children (and future additions) between 3 months and under 21 are included, at no extra cost, as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN.

Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

6. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.

7. How much can I be paid?

Each plan has its own "Aggregate of Benefits," what we call the maximum.

For example, under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $10,000—$100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash income for you; $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you; $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife.

Under the INDIVIDUAL PLAN, the maximum is $5,000—$100 a week ($14.28 a day) for you.

8. Are any additional benefits included in The Doctors Hospital Plan?

Yes. You receive a 50% increase in cash benefits if you or any covered family member is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

9. What are the "double" cash benefits?

If you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized at the same time and are covered by the ALL-FAMILY PLAN or the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, you get double cash benefits. You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

10. Does this plan pay in any hospital?

You will be covered in any hospital that makes a charge for room and board, except nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals or Federal hospitals.

11. When does my policy go into force?

It becomes effective the very same day we receive your Enrollment Form. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, sicknesses which begin thereafter are covered. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequence thereof is covered after your policy is in force for 10 months.

12. What if someone in my family has had a health problem that may occur again?

Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past, pre-existing conditions are covered after the policy has been in force for two years.

13. What conditions aren't covered?

Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-FAMILY PLAN), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or if something happens "on the job" and is covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

14. Can I drop out any time? Can you drop me?

We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums. We guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.

15. Why is The Doctors Hospital Plan almost like having an extra "bank account"?

When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account." Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum. When you have claims, benefits are subtracted from your "account"!

16. Will my claims be handled promptly?

Yes. With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. Your claims will be processed quickly and your checks sent directly to you.

17. Why are the premiums so low?

With The Doctors Hospital Plan, you actually get all these benefits—at such a low cost—because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen are used. Our volume is higher and our total sales costs are lower.

18. How much does my first month cost?

Only $1.00, regardless of your age, the size of your family or the plan you select. After the first month, if you are under 65, you pay only these low monthly rates: only $7.95 a month for the ALL-FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN; only $3.50 a month for THE INDIVIDUAL PLAN. (When you are over 65, premiums increase. See modest increase in box above.)

19. Why should I enroll right now?

Because an unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.

Coal-Mining Crew Trapped by Flames

From Our News Wires

MOUNT MORRIS, Pa. — Fire early today in a deep coal mine straddling the Pennsylvania-West Virginia border trapped a crew of seven to 10 miners.

The rest of the 100 miners at work when the fire broke out were able to make their way from behind the flames to safety.

★ ★ ★

The blaze broke out 430 feet underground in the Mount Morris portal of the Christopher Coal Co.'s Humphrey No. 7 mine shortly before 6 a.m., EST.

First reports indicated the fire was touched off by a roof fall near the mine's main portal. Most of the miners made their way to safety through two other portals, one at Baker Run and one at Calvin Run.

Three rescue teams entered the mine shortly after the fire was discovered. They are attempting to prevent the fire from spreading along the main shaft.

Elmer C. Workman, West Virginia state mines director, said "There originally was an entire shift caught behind the fire, but we have accounted for all except one crew. We haven't heard from them in three hours," Workman said.

★ ★ ★

Christopher Coal Co. is a division of the Consolidation Coal Co., operator of the Mannington No. 9 mine at Mannington, W. Va., 20 miles southwest of here, where 78 trapped miners were killed by explosions and fire which started underground in Nov. 20.

Workman said there were "four or five ways" the trapped crew could escape from the Humphrey mine.

NO CONTACT YET

"It could be that the remaining men are on their way out by one of those routes, but I emphasize we have not been able to contact them," Workman said.

The fire broke out about one hour before the overnight shift was due to leave the mine.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the mine said the fire broke out on the route by which mined coal is brought to the surface.

Firemen from Morgantown and Star City, W. Va., pumped water into the Mount Morris portal, the mine's main portal, in an effort to put out the fire.

Two Defend City After Rights Report

By ED BLUNDEN

Two Pontiac officials leaped to the defense of the city yesterday following issuance of a report on race relations in Pontiac by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission (MCRC).

The report, which took 7½ months to prepare, was sweeping in its criticism of race bias in almost all levels of the community and charged "Pontiac is a city divided by racial and ethnic prejudices and fears."

★ ★ ★

Following the morning presentation, rebuttal was offered by City Manager Joseph A. Warren and Police Chief William H. Hanger.

Both said the report was based on findings of last June and insisted substantial changes had been made since then.

DETAILED EXPLANATIONS

Though each gave detailed explanations of what the city and police are doing in attempting to rectify racial policies, many black members of the audience said little actually had been accomplished.

In the law enforcement section of its findings and recommendations, MCRC stated, "The black community does not trust the police department, and the department has done little to improve the situation."

★ ★ ★

Hanger made a point-by-point defense of the police department, which took over an hour. He insisted most of the recommendations for action had already been placed in effect.

He said that, in a four-year period, the police had recorded 331,551 contacts with the public, out of which 33 civil rights complaints had been filed.

'SHOULD BE COMMENDED'

"I think the Pontiac police should be commended Hanger said. He also reported that a stepped-up Negro recruitment program had produced only two additional Negroes out of 31 new officers.

At the conclusion of Hanger's talk, a black speaker accused him of making it sound as if no problems existed. Hanger then admitted "problems and tensions exist," but added he would "stack up my organizations against any in the state."

★ ★ ★

Warren also hit the time lapse and said, "We in Pontiac had made great strides over the past 7½ months and many of the recommendations (by the MCRC) have become obsolete."

He pointed out that a failure to provide bus service to the social services center at the county center at Pontiac Lake

Israel Charges More Iraqi Jews Face Execution

By The Associated Press

Israel told U.N. Secretary General U Thant yesterday that another group of Jews is threatened with execution in Iraq, Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, Joel Barromi, conveyed the information, and Thant said he would look into the report immediately.

After the Iraqi government announced that nine Iraqi Jews and five other Iraqis were hanged yesterday for spying for Israel, Iraqi Information Minister Abdullah El Samarrai told a news conference in Baghdad that 65 other persons would be brought to trial soon on charges of spying for Israel and plotting against teh Iraqi government. Barromi, in his warning to Thant possibly, was referring to members of this group.

★ ★ ★

Israel denied that those executed yesterday were spying for her and said their only crime was being Jewish. Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban in a statement to Thant said the Baghdad government "has perpetrated an act of barbarity which exceeds even what the world has come to expect from a country in which violence and murder have become almost commonplace."

Thant expressed fear that the executions would upset U.N. efforts to achieve peace in the Middle East. The Iraqi delegation to the United Nations at once complained that Thant was mixing in something that was "entirely an internal affair of Iraq."

'FACTS UNKNOWN'

The U.S. government and American Jewish leaders also condemned Iraq's action. Secretary of State William P. Rogers said the mass public executions were "repugnant to the conscience of the world" and "a matter of deep concern" to the U.S. government. But Rogers noted that because the United States has no diplomatic representative in Baghdad, he could not comment "on the facts surrounding the trials."

Murder Retrial Verdict Is Guilty

By JIM LONG

For the second time in six years, a Pontiac man was found guilty yesterday of first-degree murder in the slaying of a Pontiac grocer during a robbery in 1962.

An Oakland County Circuit Court jury of four men and eight women deliberated 75 minutes before returning the verdict against R. G. Stroman, 35.

★ ★ ★

He will be sentenced Feb. 26 by Judge Clark J. Adams. First-degree murder is automatically punishable by life imprisonment.

Since January 1963, Stroman has been serving a life term for his part in the killing of Eftimias Vasiliou five months earlier, but late last year the Michigan Supreme Court granted him a new trial.

ATTORNEY DISMISSED

When the trial began last week, Stroman dismissed his court-appointed attorney, William Bolle of Royal Oak, so that he could act as his own attorney.

During his final argument to the jury yesterday Stroman dealt mainly with problems he claimed he encountered in getting reports and transcripts from earlier proceedings, and charged the court, prosecutor, defense counsel and police with a conspiracy to violate his rights.

KY OKAYS PRIVATE MEETINGS—South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky stands besides U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge yesterday outside Ky's Paris residence after an hourlong working session between the allied negotiators. Ky said his government is prepared to meet privately with the other side to discuss peace.

Trouble and Retreat Likely Hanoi Tactics

PARIS (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese officials anticipate three developments from North Vietnam and the Vietcong in connection with the Paris peace talks.

If they are right, then the Americans and their South Vietnamese allies can expect some difficult moments on the battlefield and at the conference table. But they believe North Vietnam may also be preparing a diplomatic retreat.

Related Story, Page A-2

The U.S. and South Vietnamese sources give this assessment of the intentions of the North Vietnamese and the National Liberation Front.

1. Hanoi and the Vietcong will try to inflict some form of military embarrassment on the U.S. and South Vietnamese forces in Vietnam while the negotiations continue in Paris.

SIGNS OF PREPARATION

There are signs of such preparations in the field, but the sources do not anticipate that the blow will be as heavy as last year's Tet offensive.

They believe the attack will be aimed primarily at increasing the American public's distaste for the war.

2. Hanoi and the Liberation Front will use the Paris talks as a forum to enhance the NLF's status and its claim to be the legitimate power in South Vietnam.

This will be the kind of verbal attacks on the Saigon regime that were delivered by the Front during last Saturday's opening session of the full-dress talks.

One ranking official said he expected "the other side's propaganda broadsides to play a prominent role in the negotiations for some time."

3. Meanwhile, North Vietnam may begin preparing its own people for an agreement which falls short of the victory promised for so long by the Communist leaders.

CHANGE IN TERMINOLOGY

South Vietnamese officials put more emphasis on this than the Americans do. The men from Saigon point out what they consider to be a significant change in the terminology used by Hanoi's negotiators.

One source said that when the preliminary talks between the United States and North Vietnam began last May, North Vietnamese delegate Xuan Thuy referred to the Saigon regime as the "nguy quyen," the Vietnamese expression for "enemy power."

★ ★ ★

After President Johnson's bombing halt last Nov. 1, Thuy called the Saigon regime "nha cam quyen," or the "administration."

At last Saturday's session Thuy referred to his Vietnamese opponents as "chinh quyen," an expression meaning the South Vietnamese "state," the informant said.

U.S. Endorses 'Disney Dream'

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A year-round resort 7,800 feet up in the High Sierras, in Sequoia National Park, received the go-ahead yesterday from the U.S. Forest Service.

The approval means "realization of one of Walt Disney's last and greatest dreams," said Disney's brother, Roy O. Disney, board chairman of the sponsoring Walt Disney Productions.

★ ★ ★

Among conservation groups opposing the development was the Sierra Club, a nationwide organization headquartered in San Francisco.

Dr. Edgar Wayburn, its president, said the Sierra Club has "under consideration the filing of legal action, but first we want to study what the Disney firm plans and what is involved."

RUIN FEARED

Wayburn said the club feared Mineral King Valley would be ruined.

The resort will be known as Mineral King, after the valley. It will be built in a wilderness area 55 miles east of Visalia and about halfway between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

★ ★ ★

No automobiles will be allowed within 1½ miles.

An estimated 8,000 skiers will zip down the slopes on weekends by 1978. Most visitors are expected for summer sports such as horseback riding, hiking, camping and fishing.

Forest Service approval of the $35 million resort was announced at the news conference at the Disney studio.

Snow, Cold Rain a Driving Hazard

Travel warnings have been issued for Southeast and Mideast lower Michigan, where light snow mixed with sleet and freezing rain are expected today and tonight.

Freezing rain, changing to rain and a little warmer, is tomorrow's forecast. Cloudy and turning colder with chance of snow flurries is the outlook for Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Temperatures will hit a low of 24 to 30 tonight and warm up to near 36 tomorrow.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are 80 today, 100 tonight and 60 tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Twelve was the low reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury was near 23 at 12:30 p.m.

MCRC's Report Time Explained

Michigan Civil Rights Commission Cochairman Julian A. Cook Jr. commented today on the length of time it took for the MCRC to report following hearings here last June.

Pontiac's was the first in a series of reports on race situations in Michigan cities.

Cook, a Pontiac attorney, said, "I think we'll do it differently next time. In the case of the Pontiac hearing, we had all this taken down on stenotype machines, then it had to be transcribed and typed, and then sorted through and examined.

"There were several drafts written, edited and refined before we came up with the final report. We had some 2,000 pages of testimony to begin with. This was condensed to a full report of some 70 pages, and a summary report of eight pages.

TAPE NEXT TIME

"I think the next time we'll record testimony on tape to omit the time-consuming procedure of transcribing it," Cook said.

The Pontiac report was written by teams of MCRC employes, under the direction of Donald Bauder, a former director of the Pontiac office of the MCRC.

★ ★ ★

Skyjack Cures: Flights of Fancy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American citizens, aroused by the number of airline hijackings, has come up with several cures — some serious, some frivolous and most pretty unusual.

One of the strangest suggestions called for installing a trap-door in the cockpit. Once a would-be hijacker entered, the pilot could open the trap and the hapless air pirate plummeting to his death.

★ ★ ★

Some other ideas:

Build a double-door cockpit entrance, trap the hijacker between them and fill the space with gas. Or shoot would-be hijackers with a tranquilizer gun — that's the way TV thugs are handled.

Day after day, proposed cures flood the Federal Aviation Administration, which says it is in danger of being swamped by the mail.

The FAA serves as a clearinghouse for suggestions sent to the FBI, the White House, the State Department and airline companies.

Suggestions from experts are sent to the FAA's engineering division for careful analysis. Manufacturers of devices that might control the problem are invited to give demonstrations.

Letters stream in suggesting metal-detection devices. The trouble is, the FAA responds, there's no way to tell a pistol from a cigarette lighter or belt buckle.

★ ★ ★

Nor would metal detectors warn of a plastic explosive or a bottle of nitroglycerine.

Another popular solution is for the U.S. to provide free transportation to Cuba, where most hijacked planes are taken.

★ ★ ★

And then there's the ultimate solution: "Have the Cuban national anthem played over the public address system of the airliner just before takeoff. Arrest anyone who stands up."

Nixon Launches Major Effort to Win Dem Votes in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, coming out of his first news conference with high marks, launched a major effort today to win friends in the Democratic-controlled Congress.

Most of today's schedule was devoted to meetings with Capitol Hill leaders, ranging from a sunup breakfast with

Related Stories, Page A-7

Republicans, to lunch at the House with members of both parties and an afternoon session at the White House with members of both parties.

* * *

Nixon also is planning to apply a personal touch as boss of the federal bureaucracy and press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said before the chief executive is through he will have visited most if not all of the major departments.

After a lunch at the Senate tomorrow, for instance, Nixon will visit the State Department. Later in the week he plans a repeat of his visit yesterday to the Pentagon.

Nixon's maiden news conference as President yesterday drew high praise from Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and Senate Democratic Whip Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

"He did very well," said Kennedy.

Mansfield said he was favorably impressed with the "tone, the tenor, the frankness" of responses by the President who marked almost exactly one week in office when he went before live radio and television in the East Room of the White House.

That was the general impression, too, of the more than 450 newsmen who attended — a record for first news conferences by newly elected presidents. Even John F. Kennedy, who was the first to open his news conferences to live television coverage, drew fewer — 418 — at his maiden appearance Jan. 25, 1961.

OVERCAME NERVOUSNESS

Standing before a chest-high microphone, without the lectern favored by his predecessors, and speaking without notes, Nixon quickly overcame slight intial nervousness.

Realtors Will Hear State Budget Chief

Michigan Budget Director Glenn S. Allen Jr. will be the featured speaker Monday at a meeting of the Pontiac Area Board of Realtors.

The 6:30 p.m. program will be held at First Federal Savings of Oakland, 761 W. Huron.

* * *

Prior to his appointment as budget director in 1966, Allen had held the position of state controller for four years. He is a former mayor and city commissioner of Kalamazoo.

An attorney, Allen received his degree from the Columbia Law School. He has been a partner in the law firm of Crum and Allen since 1945.

called it a "blatant appeal for sympathy" and told the jury they must only consider the facts presented in the case.

Leitman pointed out that four witnesses had testified to statements made to them by Stroman that placed him in Vasiliou's Boulevard Market, 309 Orchard Lake, the evening of July 30, 1962.

THREE CONVICTED

Stroman was one of three men who were convicted of the crime in December 1962. The other two — Joseph Page and Benny L. Spells — are serving their life terms.

Page was convicted of actually pulling the trigger and shooting Vasiliou three times. The three allegedly were members of a stocking bandit gang.

Stroman is believed to have driven the pair to the market and then served as a lookout while the robbery took place. Under Michigan law, Storman is equally as guilty since he participated in a felony that ended with murder.

Nixon-Clark Dispute Brews on Nominations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The dispute between President Nixon and former Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark brewed today over whether Nixon went back on his word by withdrawing former President Johnson's judicial nominations.

At his new conference yesterday, Nixon said he "did not have any understanding with President Johnson directly." Nixon said no one had any discretion "to agree to a deal" that he would approve the nominations.

Earlier yesterday Clark said he had been informed by Nixon's attorney general, John N. Mitchell, that Nixon would not withdraw the nominations, and therefore, Johnson did not seek Senate confirmation.

Birmingham

Commission Again Defers Pension Action

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission deferred action on a City Retirement Board request for an increase in retirement pay compensation for the third time last night.

City employees have asked for an increase in retirement pay computation from two-tenths to three-tenths of one per cent of their base pay.

* * *

The proposal would be placed on the April 8th ballot for voter approval. The commission has repeatedly postponed action on the request on the grounds of further study.

The commission authorized the city manager to negotiate a possible purchase of property on Maple directly opposite the end of Southfield as a site for a historical park.

BUILDING RELOCATION

The Hunter House, the city's oldest building, would be moved to the site.

Commissioners also beefed up the city's dog ordinance, doubling the fine to $10 for a second dog pick-up. Third-time offenders will receive a summons.

S. Viets Report 320 Reds Dead in 2-Day Battle

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese headquarters said today a crack battalion of government rangers backed by U.S. planes and artillery killed 320 North Vietnamese in a bloody battle Saturday and Sunday 18 miles from the Laotian border.

A spokesman said the U.S. bombers and artillery accounted for 200 of the enemy dead. He said 51 rangers were wounded in the engagement 25 miles northwest of Pleiku city, in the Central Highlands.

* * *

U.S. officers said the Communist command has pulled thousands of troops into border areas, apparently waiting to see what happens at the Paris peace talks.

The ranger battalion was reported still sweeping the area today and U.S. B52 bombers unleashed 500 tons of bombs last night and today on enemy troop concentrations.

REPORT ANOTHER BATTLE

The South Vietnamese reported another battle four miles from the Cambodian border and 54 miles northwest of Saigon early today in which about 400 North Vietnamese troops assaulted the night bivouac positions of a government paratrooper battalion.

* * *

By dawn the enemy had been beaten back after a U.S. flareship illuminated their positions for a hail of fire from U.S. helicopter gunships. A spokesman said 23 enemy bodies were found. Two South Vietnamese were killed and several wounded.

* * *

A U.S. spokesman said American gunships, bombers and artillery killed another 24 North Vietnamese soldiers and smashed four heavy machine gun positions along the Cambodian border 63 miles northwest of Saigon.

* * *

Beginners' lessons were postponed last week due to warm temperatures causing poor skiing conditions.

* * *

The last class for the January session of The Press Ski School will be tomorrow night at Mt. Holly.

The February session begins Feb. 5. There are still openings for this four-week session. Those interested may call the Pontiac Press, ski extension, for tickets.

Determined Californians Start Big Cleanup Chore

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. William Sugden walked into their $70,000 home in the flood-swept suburb of Glendora. The floor of the ranch-style stucco house was covered with two feet of mud, the furniture was soggy and beyond repair, shelves were covered with slime.

"My wife and I built every bit of this house ourselves 12 years ago, and we will rebuild it ourselves," said Sugden, a supervising engineer at Lockheed Aircraft.

* * *

Sugden's determination was typical of other California householders as they surveyed the damage done to their property by mud, water and debris.

There were 91 known deaths in the nine days of heavy rains. Seven other persons were missing and presumed dead in mud slides and flooded rivers.

Damage was estimated at $35 million by Gov. Ronald Reagan before he set out today on a private airplane tour of the flood stricken areas. The estimate was expected to go millions of dollars higher.

* * *

Families with brooms and hand shovels trudged up hillside streets to their mud-caked homes. Strewn in their paths were bolders rolled like pebbles from the several California mountain ranges paralleling the Pacific Ocean.

State officials said nearly 9,000 Californians were evacuated from their homes in similar circumstances.

Nearly 1,000 persons were isolated because of washouts, landslides and wrecked bridges throughout the state. Helicopters, flying under bright sun, came to the aid of the sick and the elderly.

FEDERAL AID

The floods brought promises of emergency credit and other aid including the distribution of government food commodities from the U.S. Agriculture Department.

In San Francisco, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers estimated various flood control facilities around the state prevented another $1.25 billion in damage to property in foothill areas.

Riots Shake Pakistan

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan's army, already on patrol in Lahore and parts of Karachi, was ordered into the northwest city of Peshawar today to put down more antigovernment rioting.

Radio Pakistan said Peshawar, on the approach to the storied Khyber Pass, was hit by a general strike protesting President Mohammed Ayub Khan's policies. All shops were closed and no traffic was moving.

2 Defend City on Rights Report

Road and Telegraph had been corrected in November.

'BETTER ENFORCEMENT'

He said better housing code enforcement had been accomplished by the new Housing Enforcement Division.

Warren claimed progress toward more housing was being worked on by cooperation with Harambee, a Negro development firm. Warren also defended the city's hiring practices.

* * *

However, Julian A. Cook Jr., cochairman of the MCRC and a Pontiac lawyer, said he doubted that any progress had been made.

In response to a question from the audience, he was not able to say he had "optimism" for the community. He said he had failed to see any "real progress" between last June, when the hearings were held, and now.

* * *

Cook said the hope was that the report will get to the persons responsible for discrimination and that they would change their behavior.

SECOND SCHEDULED

The Pontiac hearing and report was the first one carried out by the MCRC. A second one was tentatively scheduled for Kalamazoo in the week of March 17.

Kidnap-Assault Brings Jail to 2

An Oxford youth and an Orion Township man were each sentenced this morning to 20 to 40 years for the abduction and assault of a Pontiac couple last September. Two companions were given 2-to-4-year prison terms.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt imposed the longer sentences on James R. Perna, 19, and Raymond M. Spring, 24.

* * *

Both had pleaded guilty earlier this month, Perna to rape and Spring to kidnaping. Their pleas were entered while their nonjury trial was in progress before Pratt.

The lesser sentences were ordered for Percy J. Greenwood, 21, of Pontiac and James L. Davidson, 19, of Oxford, both of whom had pleaded guilty during the trial to felonious assault in connection with the part they played in the offense.

'NOT DIRECTLY INVOLVED'

Assistant Prosecutor John J. Davey said that though Greenwood and Davidson beat the 19-year-old girl's escort, they were not directly involved in the kidnaping and rape.

They were picked up by Perna and Spring after the kidnaping and rape took place, according to Davey.

* * *

Charges of rape, kidnaping and armed robbery are pending against Perna and Spring in Lapeer County in another incident the same day.

2 Force Jet to Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — Two men, one brandishing a .38 revolver and the other armed with a bomb, hijacked a National Airlines jet over the Florida Everglades today and forced the pilot to fly to Cuba.

It was the second act of aerial piracy on National in five days. A Key West to New York flight was commandered and taken to Havana Friday by a knifewielding man who said he was a U.S. Navy deserter.

Antifilibuster Win Seen—Someday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says efforts to change the Senate's filibuster rule are bound to succeed, but apparently not in this Congress.

Mansfield reported yesterday that efforts to work out a compromise between opponents and defenders of Rule 22, which requires a two-thirds vote to shut off debate, were unsuccessful.

But he predicted that "in time — in my opinion, a very short time," the Senate would vote to let a majority invoke cloture. This, he said, would change the basic character of the Senate as a deliberative body to the detriment of both the Senate and the country.

The last hope for a change this session was today's vote on a petition by 35 senators — 27 Democrats and eight Republicans — to end debate and allow a vote on a motion to consider a proposal that would let three-fifths of the senators voting and present invoke cloture.

The motion has been pending for three weeks but defenders of the present two-thirds rule have filibustered against it, preventing a vote.

The fight over the Senate's cloture rule broke out shortly after Congress convened. It was a repetition of what has happened at the start of each new Congress in recent years.

* * *

The session's first vote on cutting off the debate was taken Jan. 16. The count was 51 to 47, 15 short of a two-thirds majority.

Hubert H. Humphrey, then presiding over the Senate as vice president, ruled that only a simple majority was necessary to end the debate. But on an appeal the Senate overrode him, 53 to 45.

* * *

Heavy Snow Blankets Pacific Northwest

By the Associated Press

Heavy snows blanketed the Pacific Northwest today while snow, freezing drizzle and rain slicked highways in a large part of the midcontinent.

Seven inches of snow piled into Seattle through Monday evening, and up to a foot covered outlying areas and other sections of western Washington. Traffic slowed to a crawl over the city's hills, and some businesses shut down or closed early on Monday afternoon.

* * *

Seattle has plowed through 20½ inches of snow so far in January, compared with a normal average of 11 inches for the entire winter.

The snows spilling out of a storm system off the Washington coast ranged south over much of Oregon and east through Idaho as well.

CATTLE STRAY

A succession of heavy snows combined with continued bitter-cold weather has left drifts so high and hard-packed in some range areas of north-central Washington that cattle were reported walking across fences and wandering away.

Eastward across the Rockies, the weather from the Plains to the Appalachians was a treacherous pattern of snow in northern areas, freezing drizzle in central sections and thundershowers to the South.

Five inches of new snow coated the Sioux Falls, S.D., area, piled atop earlier accumulations of 18 inches. One and 2-inch snows ranged from Nebraska to Wisconsin.

Travelers warnings were in effect for much of the region from the south-central Plain through the Midwest.

With nine days of heavy rain ended in California, residents began the task of reclaiming and cleaning up property ravaged by floods and mud slides. The known death toll was 91, with seven other persons missing and presumed dead. Preliminary damage estimates ran to $35 million.

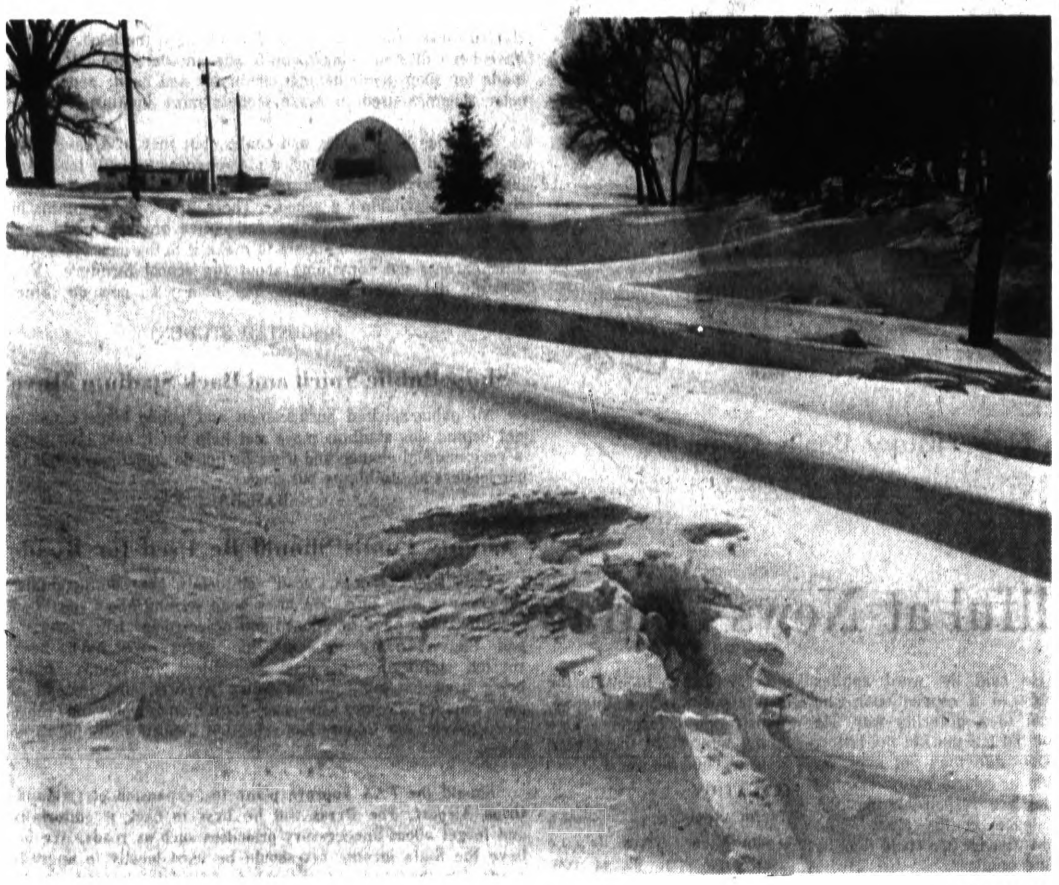

* * *

Subzero cold gripped the northern Rockies and Plains and also dipped into portions of the Northeast. Freezing weather nipped parts of the Southeast before dawn.

Temperatures ranged from 29 below zero at Bozeman, Mont., to 71 at Key West, Fla.

* * *

Some other early morning reports: Boston 8 clear, New York 15 clear, Philadelphia 21 clear, Washington 27 clear, Atlanta 33 cloudy, Miami 70 partly cloudy, Detroit 16 cloudy, Chicago 31 freezing drizzle, Minneapolis-St. Paul 24 snow, St. Louis 34 drizzle, Kansas City 32 freezing drizzle, Dallas 67 partly cloudy, Denver 31 partly cloudy, Phoenix 54 partly cloudy, Los Angeles 53 partly cloudy, San Francisco 42 partly cloudy, Seattle 21 snow, Anchorage 3 cloudy, Honolulu 68 partly cloudy.

DOWN ON THE FARM—One way to keep 'em down on the farm is to have the farm blocked off by drifted snow as is this farmyard near St. James, Minn. In the wake of last week's snowstorm in southwestern Minnesota, most roads were open yesterday, but many farms still are isolated by drifts.

Judy Garland's a Hit

LONDON (AP) — Judy Garland made a triumphal return Monday night to the nightclub where she flopped last week, singing with all her old verve and announcing later that she was secretly married in a London church nearly three weeks ago.

The audience at the Talk of the Town went wild with delight and cheered Miss Garland on the stage from which she fled amid boos and jeers last Thursday night.

* * *

The 46-year-old singer seemed fully recovered from the flu she said had upset her act and made her more than an hour late for her last appearance.

Her performance ended with members of the audience rushing forward to shake her hand.

WED JAN. 9

In her dressing room afterward, Miss Garland said she and Mickey Deans, 35-year-old New York discotheque manager, Deans added: "We were married in a London church between the hours of 3 and 4 a.m. I am not prepared to give the name or even the denomination of the priest. There are personal reasons."

Man, Ready to Die, Does

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Ron Frederickson couldn't take what he considered the futility of life tied to a kidney machine.

Last Wednesday the 33-year-old blind, pain-ridden diabetic signed a waiver removing himself from further treatment.

* * *

He died Monday.

Only a week ago he told his wife Karen, 24, that he was "ready to die."

'WORST OF ALL'

"I could put up with the blindness and even the pain but the futility — I mean being inactive and with no chance to do anything — this is the worst of all," he said.

For nearly three years, both Frederickson and his doctors knew the diabetic condition which caused his kidney condition would be fatal.

His life expectancy with machine treatments might have been a few weeks or months.

"I tell you I'm not afraid of death," Frederickson told Minneapolis Star columnist Jim Klobuchar. "Do you know how I feel? I'm kind of excited. Some time ago I became what I think is a real Christian. I now really believe this is just a beginning."

SOLE SURVIVOR

Mrs. Frederickson is the only immediate survivor.

Park Man Hiked Plane for College

The planes, valued at more than $30,000, were purchased from the Navy for use in the college's aviation program.

Diane K. Smith Marries L. O. Craig Jr. Saturday

First Open Bible Church was the setting Saturday evening for vows uniting Diane Kay Smith and Lloyd Oliver Craig Jr.

Attended by Mrs. Danny Slater of Dayton, Ohio, the bride wore an Empire satin gown with Chantilly lace bodice and skirt trim. Matching lace accented her court train.

A cascading arrangement of white carnations with red Sweetheart roses comprised her bouquet.

* * *

Bridesmaids were Wanda Craig, Janie Lucus of Ohio, Mrs. Charles Board and Mrs. Mickael Knibbs of Ohio with Earl Van Smith and Richard McClelland as ushers. Danny Slater was best man.

The newlyweds departed for a honeymoon trip to Florida following a reception at First Federal Savings of Oakland.

Couple Celebrates 79th Anniversary

If Mr. and Mrs. Ward McDaniel were gambling people, they probably never would have bet on celebrating their 79th wedding anniversary. But that's exactly what they did a few days ago in their Macon Mo. home.

* * *

One of the couple's 12 grandchildren asked the U.S. Department of Commerce the odds against a couple being married that long and was told it figured out at something like 8,750,000 to one.

* * *

Daniel, who is 100, and his wife, who will reach the century mark in May, planned no special celebration in the four-room house where they live alone.

* * *

"About the only thing that bothers Dad and Mother is to have a lot of people come in," explained Syril McDaniel, Columbia, Mo., 68, one of two of the couple's five children still living.

STILL ACTIVE

"Mother does all her own housework. Dad goes for a walk around the block, or farther, every day and does the errands," the son added.

Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel met in Winterset, Iowa, and farmed near there until moving to Macon County in 1920. They retired from farming in 1962.

Hearing problems have cut down on their radio and television, but Mrs. McDaniel says she still reads "anything I can get my hands on."

Syril McDaniel credits his parents' long married life to placid temperaments and not worrying about things.

But Mrs. McDaniel's prescription for 79 years of wedded life goes like this:

"You have to fix your own life, and don't go meddling in other people's business."

Trade Moderately Active

Stock Mart Moves Irregularly

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved irregularly in moderately active trading early today.

Gains and losses were close to even on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average showed a trifling loss of .13 at 937.34.

United Fruit forged ahead in early trading as it sold on a block of 29,000 shares, up ⅞ at 83, ex-dividend. Later it expanded its gain to about 1½.

The savings-and-loan holding companies were active and higher, apparently in relief that the ceiling had been raised for interest rates on mortgages which the government agencies could insure. The most-active of these were Great Western Financial and Imperial Corp. both fractional gainers.

* * *

Also active, General Dynamics continued soft, losing nearly a point. Broadway Hale advanced a point.

American Smelting, down about 3, resumed its slide of Monday when it was jolted by the court order suspending Pennzoil's offer for Asarco stock.

Chrysler, off a fraction, was still depressed by its February production cutback. General Motors held firm.

* * *

Openings blocks included

Natomas, off ⅛ at 42⅛ on 25,000 shares; Chrysler, off ¼ at 51½ on 15,000; Electric & Musical Industries, unchanged at 8¼ on 10,000; and Armour, up ⅝ at 63 on 6,100.

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Down in Texas, the Cowboys of the National Football League are fed up with the congestion of their football facility in the state fairgrounds, and have decided to go along with the building of a new stadium in Irving, Texas, 30 miles away.

Out in California, one of the finest facilities for sports is at Anaheim, 35 miles out onto the freeways and away from the maddening Los Angeles traffic.

★ ★ ★

Up north in Minnesota, the baseball Twins and football Vikings are blessed with beautiful parking and road access to their fine stadium at the outskirts of Minneapolis.

Here in Michigan, where there is certainly a dire need to give the major professional teams a decent home, the men on instrumental committees for building a stadium are determined that it should go in either congested and troubled downtown Detroit or in the similarly crowded State Fairgrounds area.

It seems to be a matter of trying to accomplish a 20th century idea with 19th century thinking as both Detroit sites tip the scale with far more disadvantages than advantages.

Taking a common sense look at the two Detroit sites and the site offered at I-75 and M-59 near Pontiac doesn't even produce a sensible argument for either downtown Detroit or the Fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

The acquisition of land for the downtown Detroit site which Mayor Cavanagh prososes would cost about $18 million, almost the entire construction cost of the Texas Stadium, which received the okay with a $20 million revenue bond issue.

The Fairgrounds, located next to the 8-Mile road death trap, would put 5,000 cars in deck parking and another 7,500 in area street parking to take care of 65,000 stadium fans, plus thousands of others who would try to attend the big top tent events at the site on the same given day.

★ ★ ★

The newly created Pontiac Stadium Authority can offer volumes of advantages to argue for the I-75 and M-59 site and it would be tragic if stadium, state and pro athletic officials failed to look at these arguments closely.

BETTER ARGUMENTS

Here are just 10 good arguments favoring the Oakland County site just east of Pontiac:

1. Population—the line of M-59 and I-75, within a 60 mile radius will soon be the center of the state's population.

★ ★ ★

2. Distances—the site offers equi-distant travel of 30-35 miles from the Wayne (south), Macomb (east), Genesee (north) and Livingston (west) county lines within the center of Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

3. Site Access—has I-75 and M-59 as major immediate arteries, with M-24, U.S. 10, I-94, U.S. 23 and I-96 all connecting within the 35-mile radius.

4. Site acquisition—would be about $17.5 million CHEAPER than downtown Detroit, and the availability at I-75 and M-59 now already exists at an estimated cost of $400,000.

5. Site development—the land contour at I-75 and M-59 already exists with its natural bowl contour which would eliminate as much as $250,000 in earth moving.

★ ★ ★

6. Parking — at least 25,000 surface parked cars and as many as 32,000 with added deck parking is conceivable at the I-75 and M-59 site.

★ ★ ★

7. Commuter travel facilities—the possibility of a commuter stop on the Grand Trunk track abutting the I-75 site, the availability of commuter flights to either Oakland-Pontiac or Oakland-Orion airports and the added possibility of the Grank Trunk and bus service from downtown Pontiac, 3 miles away.

★ ★ ★

8. Lodging—the rapid growth of hotel and motel structures can be found within short commuter distances of the site on all arteries.

★ ★ ★

9. Utilities—there is an unlimited and immediate supply of all utilities available at the I-75, M-59 site, including water, sewer, electric, gas, etc.

★ ★ ★

10. Stadium personnel — With Oakland University and Oakland Community College almost adjoining the I-75 site there is also unlimited availability of manpower needed for stadium and parking operations.

★ ★ ★

And, for those who might be interested in the million dollar concession part of a stadium undertaking, there is a state law which prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages on state property such as the Fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

It is apparent that the decision on a stadium site now becomes one of foresight versus hindsight.

Kentucky Beats Alabama

Vols Limit LSU's Shooter

By The Associated Press

While Adolph Rupp and the Kentucky Wildcats are having their cake and eating it, too, Ray Mears and his Tennessee Volunteers are thriving on an unlikely Chinese dish named Pete Maravich.

The Kentuckians had a cake celebration for the third time this season and Rupp claimed his 800th coaching victory Monday night following an 83-70 overtime conquest of stubborn Alabama.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, Tennessee, which held Louisiana State's Maravich to lows of 17 and 21 points last season, limited the national scoring leader and defending champion to another 21, this season's low, with a Chinese defense in an 81-68 victory over the Tigers.

Kentucky enjoyed its first cake after beating Mississippi State on Jan. 6 and claiming it was the first school to post 1,000 college basketball triumphs. The NCAA, however, threw out five games played in Israel in 1966 but Kentucky uncovered three previously overlooked victories in the early 1900s and celebrated again two games later.

CAKE EATERS

Now comes Rupp with his 800 wins, including the five in Israel, so perhaps the menu should have been matzoh ball soup instead of cake.

"They're just a bunch of cake eaters, and they played like it tonight," said a Kentucky spokesman after lowly Alabama, 4-9, had scared the daylights out of the fifth-ranked Wildcats, 13-2.

Kentucky led most of the way but Alabama's Jim Adkins tied the score at 64-all by making a free throw with 18 seconds left in regulation time.

The overtime was a different story. Larry Steele tipped in a basket, Mike Casey hit a 15-footer and Dan Issel sank two free throws for a 70-64 lead. After an Alabama basket, Kentucky broke it open, with the 6-foot-8 Issel scoring seven overtime points and finishing with 33.

Tennessee's Mears described his Chinese defense as a zone with two men concentrating on Maravich.

"It takes more than one guy to stop him," said Mears, noted for his teams' defensive play.

"I think we did a pretty good job. Sure, we were concentrating on him, just like they were putting more than one guy on our Bill Justus. That enabled Jimmy England to get open and you saw what he did."

★ ★ ★

What England did was 29 points, including 13 of 18 from the floor. Bill Hann added 21 as Tennessee ran its record to 10-3 and tied Vanderbilt for second place in the Southeastern Conference at 5-2 behind 7-0 Kentucky.

Maravich, averaging 46 points a game, made eight of 18 shots under intense pressure.

★ ★ ★

The only other teams in The Associated Press' Top Twenty besides Kentucky to see action Monday night were 13th-ranked Tulsa, which overcame North Texas State 104-94, and Dayton, No. 20, a 72-64 winner over Xavier of Ohio.

Pro Grid Talent Hunters Put Choices on Line Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Pro football's talent hunters put their scouting reports on the table today as the annual college draft—a 17-round marathon—got under way at a midtown hotel.

The owners, general managers and coaches of the 16 National Football League and 10 American Football League clubs hoped to complete their selection lists in two days time.

★ ★ ★

They were reconciled to a much longer wait before realizing the fruits of their endeavor.

Of the 442 graduating college stars to be snapped up in the two leagues' third combined draft, less than half figure to win jobs this summer at the AFL and NFL training camps. Injuries will scratch some of the rookies, but most of the dropouts simply won't have the ability to make the big jump to the hard knocks of the pro game.

EXPENSIVE PROGRAM

Last year, the pro clubs spent more than $4 million scouting and signing rookie prospects. Cincinnati's AFL expansion team opened its first season with 23 first-year men on the roster. Los Angeles and New Orleans of the NFL went with just two apiece.

As it turned out, the 1968 rookie crop was one of the best in recent years.

Detroit's Earl McCullouch, Atlanta's Claude Humphrey, Philadelphia's Tim Rossovich and Cleveland's Marvin Upshaw, all No. 1 picks, had standout freshman seasons in the NFL. Bob Johnson of Cincinnati, Miami's Larry Csonka, Kansas City's Mo Moorman and Buffalo's Haven Moses were among the first round choices who clicked in the AFL.

However, running back Paul Robinson of Cincinnati and defensive back George Atkinson of Oakland emerged as the best of the AFL lot. Robinson was the Bengals' fifth pick in the draft and Oakland didn't tab Atkinson until the seventh round.

Archer Overcomes Bogey Trouble to Win Crosby

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Your average golfer doesn't generally consider double bogeys and triple bogeys blessings in disguise. But then, George Archer isn't your average golfer.

Sitting in an overstuffed chair while sipping a short beer, Archer was flushed with victory after carrying off the $25,000 first prize in the Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament. He shot a 71 Monday for a 283 total, five strokes under par.

★ ★ ★

One stroke back on the Pebble Beach course were Bob Dickson and Howie Johnson, who found missed putts costly, and thirdround leader Dale Douglass, who got that close with a birdie on the final hole.

They were that close only because of what had happened to Archer the day before. Playing the back nine of the Spyglass Hill course, Archer got bogged down in sand on the 17th and 18th holes and took a double and triple bogey.

He came in with three birdied putts and finished at even par, two strokes behind Douglass and one in back of Johnson.

"If I hadn't made double bogey and triple bogey," the 29-year-old pro said, "I'd have teed off today with a five-shot lead and I'd have been scared to death. It's the hardest thing in the world to keep a lead."

★ ★ ★

Dickson who turned 25 Saturday, shot one of the day's best rounds, a 68, but missed a tie for the lead when he blew a 10-inch putt while three-putting the 11th hole.

Jack Nicklaus, at 71—287, Billy Casper at 70—290 and Arnold Palmer at 73—297 were well out of contention while young John Lotz, shooting a 72, came up to take fifth place at 285.

BEST-BALL

Dickson and actor Jack Ging, won the pro-am best ball competition with a 64 on Monday and a 257 total. Dickson added the 3,500 first prize to his winnings.

★ ★ ★

Archer, fourth leading money with more than $150,000 on the tour last year but still not the best known of golfers, now sets his sights on the Masters, U.S. Open and PGA titles.

Pittsburgh Seeks Rise With (K)Noll

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Chuck Noll, going from the heights to the depths of pro football, has taken over the head coaching duties of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Steelers have won only 11 games in the last three National Football League seasons and never have gained an NFL championship.

★ ★ ★

But that doesn't bother Noll, who came to Pittsburgh from an assistant's post with the NFL champion Baltimore Colts.

CHUCK NOLL

"I just don't believe that any certain area is doomed to have losers," said Noll at a news conference Monday.

Noll's first big job will be to help the Steelers in their selections in the college draft, which got under way today. Pittsburgh owns the No. 4 pick.

MOVIE CRITIC

Noll worked late into the night Monday, reviewing films and data on Pittsburgh's personnel to, as he put it, "bolster weak spots on the roster."

After the draft, Noll said he'll get down to selecting his assistants.

"I want people who are not just in it (football) for hanging on," he said. "I want people who are dedicated to bringing the best out of the players we have."

Noll said he was on the phone talking to prospective assistants minutes after he took the job offer from Dan Rooney, Steelers vice president.

Rooney, commenting on Noll's selection, said, "We were looking for someone who knows the pro game. We expect to get five of the best players in the country Tuesday and we want someone to motivate them."

AUSTIN OUSTED

Noll succeeds Bill Austin, fired after posting an 11-28-3 record in three seasons.

Noll played college football at the University of Dayton, then played guard and linebacker for the Cleveland Browns.

He was an assistant coach for the old Los Angeles Chargers, a team that captured five of six Western Division titles in the American Football League, and then went to Baltimore.

Lakers, OLSM Among Top Ten Despite Defeats

West Bloomfield and Orchard Lake St. Mary remained in the top ten of their respective classes in the Associated Press weekly basketball ratings despite suffering initial setbacks last week.

The Lakers are seventh in Class B and OLSM is ninth among the "C" schools. Pontiac Central is sitting in the No. 6 slot in Class A with Brother Rice eighth. Rochester has moved up to 13th.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Catholic was rewarded for its upset of OL St. Mary by being moved up to 12th in Class C. Detroit Country Day is now 15th in the same class.

Although it was one of last Friday's many upset victims, River Rouge held first place by a slim margin in Class B. Detroit St. Martin DePorres continues to lead the "C" schools and Detroit All Saints holds the "D" top spot.

WANTS REMATCH

Ypsilanti was rated the No. 1 high school basketball team in state last year but lost to Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills in the state tournament finals.

Pleased With Young Catcher

Redleg Manager Likes 'Bench' Signals

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dave Bristol had better get ready for an argument.

★ ★ ★

He says he's got a signal-caller he wouldn't trade for anybody in the world, including Joe Namath.

"My boy's got that quick release, too," points out the always observant; always alert manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Bristol was talking about Johnny Bench, his 21-year-old catcher who looks like the greatest thing to come out of Oklahoma since Mickey Mantle and who many believe is the best young prospect in baseball today. But how could anybody in his right mind stand his ground and say un-uh to a straight up deal, even a hypothetical one, for Broadway Joe Namath?

NOT INTERESTED

You don't know Dave Bristol. He's in his right mind but even if they came to him with the proposition he wouldn't take Namath for Bench even up.

Had he seen what Namath did to Baltimore in the Super Bowl?

"Certainly I did," laughed the Cincy manager from his home in Andrew, N.C., after he had shaken the snow off his shoes to come inside and talk on the telephone. "He did a tremendous job picking that defense apart. Joe Namath's got that great arm, good instincts and he can throw the ball but Johnny Bench can do all that and more."

"You got something against Namath?"

"Not a thing," said Bristol, laughing some more.

Eagles-Dallas Deal Happy One

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mike Ditka is delighted ... and Dave McDaniels is excited. It just goes to show what a change of scenery in the National Football League will do for you.

The Philadelphia Eagles Monday traded former All-Pro tight end Ditka to the Dallas Cowboys for untested split end McDaniels, prompting these euphorious comments:

Ditka: "I don't know anything about it, but if it's true, I'm delighted."

★ ★ ★

McDaniels: "I'm real excited about going to Philadelphia. The main thing is that I will get a chance to play."

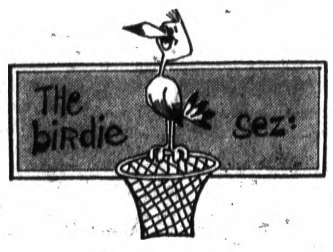

Ditka was obviously happy about clearing out of town. His battle with Coach-General Manager Joe Kuharich was an open war. In fact, Ditka had said publicly he would never again play for the Eagles' field boss.

Ditka, 29, an eight-year NFL veteran, had his brightest years with the Chicago Bears. Before coming here two years ago in a trade for quarterback Jack Concannon, Ditka was Rookie of the Year in 1961 and four times a member of the All-Pro team.

★ ★ ★

His performance, which reached a high of 75 pass receptions in 1964, deteriorated after coming to the Eagles. Ditka blamed his two sub-par seasons here on Kuharich.

"I couldn't play for Kuharich under the same situation and system," he had said in a recent interview. "We just clashed, and I blame the way I was misused ..."

Our friend "The Birdie" had to give up his nest this week for the stockpile of bird seed, corn and feathers which have come to him by his loving readers (primarily at Pontiac Catholic and Andover High Schools).

Oh yes, life is full of rude awakenings as the Birdie learned when the Titans of Pontiac Catholic bopped OL St. Mary and Andover took the sail out of the West Bloomfield Lakers.

. . . And which the Titans may find out tonight when they meet the neighboring Huskies.

So the Bird chirps:

Pontiac Central over Southwestern
West Bloomfield over Walled Lake
Lahser over Groves
East Detroit over Ferndale
Berkley over Oak Park
BLUE PLATE SPECIAL
Northern over Catholic

Prep Front

By FLETCHER SPEARS

A time-tested maneuver with a new wrinkle is keeping the Colts of Troy very much in the running for the basketball championship in the Oakland A League.

With 11 games behind them—they've won nine and lost two—the Colts have averaged 61.4 points a game, but the key to those nine verdicts has been defense.

The Colts, coached by Jack Acton who played his prep ball at Troy, have given up only 42 points a game and only three opponents have scored more than 50—Rochester (51), Alpena (51) and Clawson (65). Two of those were losses—Rochester and Clawson.

Acton is checking his opponents with a zone defense. "It's the same zone that Peyton Goodwin (now athletic director at Troy) used for 18 years," says Acton. "We used it when I played for him. The only thing we've added is the press."

TOUGH TEST

The Colts' defense will get perhaps its toughest workout in a home game Feb. 14 against Rochester. The Rochester squad is 7-1 in the league race at present, one full game ahead of the Colts.

A top prep swimmer in Grand Rapids a few years back is the new swimming coach at Auburn Hills of Oakland Community College.

OSGOOD

He's Richard Osgood, 24, a product of Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills and Michigan State University. Osgood was a freestyler as a prep.

Sophomore Ron Smith, a graduate of Waterford Township, is working against a handicap of sorts but he's still managed to compile a 2-0 record with the Wayne State University wrestlers this season.

SMITH

Wayne wrestling coach Bob Hurley says Smith actually would do better in the 115-pound class, but not many wrestling teams have men in that weight. "So we use Smith at 123," says Hurley.

★ ★ ★

Smith had a 7-8 mark last season, picking up four pins along the way. "He's a good consistent performer with a lot of potential," says Hurley.

Two candidates for the 'Unsung Hero' honors this week are Mitch Hansen of Detroit Country Day and Paul VanWagner of Livonia Stevenson.

HANSEN

VanWAGNER

Hansen, a 6-3 junior forward, has been overshadowed by the play of teammate Jack Zwemer, one of the county's top scorers. However, Hansen has contributed a respectable 14 points a game in the Yellow Jackets 7-2 record. Defense is Mitch's forte. In that department he leads the team. Against Algonac Saturday night, Mitch intercepted the ball or stole it eight times along with collecting 14 points. "It was quite a performance," said coach John Hannett.

★ ★ ★

VanWagner is a senior guard who runs the offense for Stevenson. In a 69-67 win over Waterford Friday, VanWagner scored only four points, but his overall play in directing the Spartans was a major factor in the verdict.

Champions Triumphant in Playoffs

The two regular season champions posted impressive victories as the Pontiac Church League opened playoffs last night.

Northeast Community, the only unbeaten squad with a 7-0 mark in National loop play, sent Bethany Baptist to the sidelines in the one-game knockout tournament by posting a 102-76 decision.

Trinity Baptist (6-1), pacesetter in the American loop, turned back Bloomfield Hills Baptist, 91-33, behind the scoring of Rich Evans (22), Daryl Mitchell (19) and Spurgeon Graves (15).

SETS RECORD

Bill Foster matched the league record and set a playoff mark with 43 points for Northeast. Phil Walter aided the cause with 25 markers and Owen Edwards added 22. Jim Doll led Bethany with 23 points.

The victory sends Northeast into second round play this evening against Pontiac Free Methodist, an 83-77 winner over Wesleyan Church last night. In a couple of first-round games this evening Northside Baptist meets Emmanuel Baptist and Oxford Free Methodist takes on United Missionary.

Jack Neidrick with 31 points and Bob Rose with 23 sparked the Pontiac Free Methodist win. Frank Hoag tossed in 42 for Wesleyan.

★ ★ ★

In other games last night, Lake Orion ousted Rochester Nazarene, 43-26, behind the scoring of Larry Blount (15), Gethsemane Lutheran surprised Stone Baptist, 57-48, and Drayton Heights Free Methodist knocked off Auburn Heights Free Methodist, 94-68.

HOT TWOSOME

Tom Grund poured in 18 markers and Don Bonnett added 17 to pace the Gethesemane win. Gerland Spangler led Stone with 20.

Drayton Heights, sparked by Jeff Harnack (32) and Mike Peterson (28), raced to a 45-27 lead at halftime and coasted. Tom Hopper led Auburn Heights with 30.

Play continues this evening at Pontiac Free Methodist. Three quarter-final games are slated for Thursday, semifinals Friday and finals Saturday.

All-America Bowl Players Penalized

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Players who participated in Tampa's All-American Bowl football game are ineligible for further college sports competition, the executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Association said here Monday.

NCAA Director Walter Byers said gifts to players were far in excess of allowable limits. The game's promoters gave players wrist watches, hotel rooms, two meals a day, about $20 a day spending money and free trips to Bermuda at any time they want to take them.

"We told the operators of the Tampa game this was excessive," Byers said. "They first indicated they would conform, but then they didn't."

He said the NCAA would require schools to deduct the over-payments from financial aid to players who participated in the game.

Struble Five Loses in Waterford

The L.L.B.'s dropped Struble Realty from the ranks of the unbeaten Monday night and tied the losers for the lead in the Waterford Township recreation basketball National League with a 45-34 victory.

Booker Brothers' Concrete won its second in a row, 48-44, over Buick Warehouse; and Don Murphy Inc. took over third place by trimming Lakeland Hardware, 57-54.

The L.L.B.'s fashioned their upset win with the aid of a 19-9 advantage in field goals. They limited Struble to three baskets in the opening half in building a 24-12 margin. Sam Gibbons of the losers was the top pointmaker with 12.

Joe Beseau's men's loop debut added 18 points to Booker's attack and the concrete firm raised its record to 2-5. The Buick team is also 2-5 now. It was led by Doc Hill's 15.

Lakeland Hardware, also 2-5, rallied to within a point of Don Murphy's but Frank Ballard's two free throws in the final 30 seconds clinched the win. Ron Stafford hit 19 for the winners, while Bob Perry paced Lakeland with 15.

Former Hurler to Head Old Baseball Loop

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The American Association, final stepping stone to the major leagues for Stan Musial, Ted Williams, and Willie Mays and many other baseball stars, is back in business after a six-year layoff.

Former pitching great Allie Reynolds was named president of the six-team league at an organizational meeting Monday. League headquarters will be in his home town, Oklahoma City.

Members of the reborn Class AAA league include four teams in the Pacific Coast League last season—Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Denver and Indianapolis. Omaha and Des Moines are the other teams.

The league adopted a 140-game schedule for its 1969 season that will open April 18 and close Sept. 1.

Bullets Rip Pistons to Hold Onto Lead

By the Associated Press

The Baltimore Bullets ended their National Basketball Association losing streak just in time.

With all but one-half game of their Eastern Division lead melted in the heat of a three-game losing streak, the Bullets pulled out of the sag with a 126-106 victory over Detroit Monday night. It restored their lead to one game over idle Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

In the only other NBA game played, the Seattle SuperSonics turned back the Milwaukee Bucks 128-107 in Tacoma, Wash.

Kevin Loughery poured in 37 points and added 11 assists to lead the Baltimore attack. It was Loughery and Earl Monroe who keyed a 10-point Bullet string in the third period that opened a 78-67 lead for Baltimore.

Monroe, favoring a sprained left ankle, was held scoreless in the first half after picking up three quick personal fouls. But he got hot with eight points in the final three minutes of the third period and finished with 20 for the night in 26 minutes of action.

Gus Johnson had 23 and Loughery hit on 16 of 26 shots for his 37.

Dave Bing led the Pistons with 22.

Bob Rule's 31-point output triggered Seattle's success over Milwaukee. A jump shot by the big center at the outset of the second period broke a 26-all tie, and the Sonics led the rest of the way.

Seattle boosted its halftime bulge to 67-52 before the Bucks bounced back and closed to within 84-73 late in the third quarter. But the Sonics opened the gap to 95-82 at the end of the stanza and won going away.

Hayes, the Rockets' rookie sensation, has scored 1,554 points and is 329 ahead of Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, the No. 2 man.

Record Harness Crop

NEW YORK (AP) — A record 1,807 trotters and pacers, 23 of them at prices of $10,000 or higher, were claimed in American harness racing last year, the U.S. Trotting Association said Monday. The total exceeded the previous high of 1,318 claimed in 1966.

It's Horseplay, but Law

BISMARCK, N. D. — Gov. William L. Guy went along with some horseplay in the North Dakota Legislature Monday and signed into law a bill that prohibits discrimination against women jockeys in a state which has very little horse racing.

Was Gina Putting Earl On With Her Talk About Love?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Gina Lollobrigida was probably kidding me when she pictured herself — since her divorce — as being "very generous" with her love and planning to be single for the rest of her life because "I am by nature unfaithful."

WILSON

My jaw kept popping open as Gina, in a leopard dress, sat on a divan in her suite at the Waldorf Towers and said, "The people who love only once are not very rich . . . I do not believe in marriage . . . I think marriage should not be till you are 80 . . . You can love many people in your life . . . When I'm in love, I love everything about the man, the good thing and the bad thing . . . I think perhaps I am a little too much woman."

★ ★ ★

Gina has been called "hot-blooded" and "a man-eater" by the European press, and she disagrees with that.

But she has been in love frequently since she and Dr. Milko Skofic parted.

"I was too young to marry," Gina said. "The same thing happened that happens to all love. It ends, everything is finished . . . Other women feel it but don't have the guts to say it. I have the courage to start my life over . . . I am not a 'ipocrite."

By coincidence, this is about the kind of woman that Gina plays in "Buona Sera, Mrs. Campbell." Maybe she grabbed these ideas from the script.

But she looked very grave. When I asked her who she's in love with now, she answered, "Very many. I told you, I am very generous."

★ ★ ★

Bonnie Bell, seeing an underground actress, said, "The way she looks, she should stay underground" . . . President Nixon, working at a Woodrow Wilson desk that he likes, explained, "I'm a Wilson fan." (Thanks, Mr. President. Just about everybody is nowadays.)

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

John Davidson's hair down below his coat collar was longer than his bride's (blonde Jacqueline Miller) when he opened at the Plaza Persian Room but it didn't reduce his talent and he was lustily cheered by Jimmy Dean, Karen Morrow, Nancy Dussalt, Howard Da Silva and others. Davidson told the crowd, "My wife and I were married in old San Juan Dec. 29 with her father standing beside that huge cannon."

Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt showed up at the Act I party for their show "Celebration" looking like Blue Cross ads — Jones' dislocated arm in a sling, Schmidt's fractured ankle in a cast . . . Surprise visitor to Arthur: Noel Coward . . . Katharine Hepburn — an Oscar contender for "Lion in Winter" — starts Broadway rehearsals for "Coco" in July.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The way prices are rising, more marriages may end in bankruptcy than in divorce.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The shortest answer is to do it."

EARL'S PEARLS: "Silver wedding? That's when a man celebrates 25 years of working for the same boss."

A Look at TV

Nixon Carries Interview

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — Richard M. Nixon presided over his first news conference as President Monday morning, a televised event that occupied precisely 30 minutes in which he handled a wide assortment of questions fluently and smoothly.

The President chose to present himself in a formal, almost stark situation — standing before a microphone, with two flags behind him.

At the outset, responding to the initial questions about his proposed legislative program and the Vietnam talks, Nixon seemed on the tense side, his hands behind his back or clasped in front. But as the session went on, he eased up considerably.

By the time he was answering a question about his position on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, he was beginning to make gestures as he talked. When he reached crime in the District of Columbia, he even essayed a small joke about a woman columnist.

Jack Webb strung out one of his patented "Dragnet" stories to two hours in length to make an NBC "World Premiere" feature Monday night, and although the program was made a couple of years ago, the final scenes by coincidence looked as if they had been shot on location last week.

The story basically concerned a manhunt by Sgt. Friday and his partner for a photographer believed to have kidnaped and murdered four pretty young models. Along the way there were opportunities for the colorful character bits, and there was one subplot in which the intrepid team solved the murder of a jewelry salesman.

★ ★ ★

In spite of being four times as long as the series, it was nevertheless standard "Dragnet." The most interesting aspect was the climax — the capture of the models' murderer in a torrential rainstorm in the Hollywood hills.

ABC skipped its early evening news program Monday night to carry the Bing Crosby golf tournament to a point where it was certain that George Archer was the winner — two hours covering the final play. Originally, the network planned to devote 60 minutes to the windup, a day late because of bad weather.

COSTAR SOUGHT

The producers of ABC's "Bewitched," which was renewed for the 1960-70 season several weeks ago, are now busily seeking a replacement for Dick York who costarred as the witch's husband in the series during the past five years.

York informed Screen Gems, the producer, on Friday that he would not renew his contract which expires at the end of this season.

'Sinatra' Book Reflects His Career Fully

Sinatra
By
Arnold Shaw
Holt Rinehart Winston

By CORENNA ALDRICH

It's unlikely anyone could write a book about Frank Sinatra that would satisfy everyone. But "Sinatra" by Arnold Shaw may come pretty close for all but the most biased.

Not really a study of Sinatra himself, the book is more a collage of images reflected over the years in quotations and publications.

★ ★ ★

Shaw apparently had little personal contact with Sinatra, but he's done an enormous amount of research on persons who have. Episodes from those associations are documented as they were reported.

Controveries arising from them are examined in light of the contradictions, misinterpretations, exaggerations and outright lies often surrounding well-known personalities.

KEPT IN SPOTLIGHT

The result is an objective presentation of public and private reaction to a man whose personal and professional activities have kept him in the spotlight almost continuously for a quarter of a century.

It's left to the reader to decide how much of his trouble was his own doing and how much of his success was luck.

★ ★ ★

From bobby-soxers' idol to business executive, Sinatra's life has spanned an evolution in popular music. As a recognized composer, author and lecturer in the music field, Shaw's own background provides the necessary material to write such a story.

Airline Reports New 'Hijacking'

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Continental Airlines is the victim of a different kind of hijacking.

DST Loss Margin Holding Steady

LANSING (UPI) — A margin of 400-450 votes is holding steady in the recount of Daylight Saving Time votes, elections Director Bernard Apol said yesterday.

With 144 precincts in eight counties left to check, Apol said the recount should be finished by Friday. The counties left to be tabulated are Mason, Manistee, Wexford, Ogemaw, Iosco, Delta, Alger and Schoolcraft.

★ ★ ★

The unofficial post-election results had the DST issue winning by 25,000 votes. Official results, however, had the measure losing by 1,501 votes. In the recount of 2,700 precincts, the issue is now losing by 400-450 votes.

OCC Board to Air Bond-Issue Plan

A $7-million bond-issue proposal will be considered at a special meeting of the Oakland Community College Board of Trustees at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the George A. Bee Executive Office, 2480 Opdyke, Bloomfield Hills.

This bond issue would be part of a five-year, $17.5-million capital outlay project for nine building projects on the college's three campuses, according to officials.

★ ★ ★

Also on tomorrow night's agenda is the installation of David M. Preston as a member of the board of trustees. The installation was postponed last week since Preston had the flu.

City Budget Hearing Set for Tonight

A public hearing on the proposed $10,177,620 city budget for 1969 will be held at 8 tonight at the City Commission meeting at City Hall, East Pike and East Wide Track.

The budget, the city's biggest ever, is $2 million above last year and has been hailed by city officials as enabling the city to hire more personnel and step up its programs.

★ ★ ★

The budget benefits from revenues of the city income tax imposed January 1968. The budget is late this year due to installation of new equipment, it has been explained.

Among other items on the agenda is presentation of the city's "Workable Program." This covers a wide range of activities and is used in reference to federal and state grants.

★ ★ ★

Also to be considered will be a report from City Attorney Sherwin Birnkrant, on functions of the Pontiac area Planning Council. Birnkrant was requested by the commission to offer his opinion on whether or not the city can legally subscribe funds to support the PAPC, an advisory group formed last year to aid in city, community and school planning.
