Cold Wave Hits South; Florida Reports Freeze

Some Schools Closed as Snow Piles Up in Carolinas, Virginia

From Our News Wires

Dixie shivered with the rest of the Eastern half of the nation today as snow and freezing cold spread across the Southland.

It was freezing in northern Florida. And it wasn't so hot in the southern section as temperatures dropped into the low 50s during the early morning.

Driving conditions in the snow-stricken Southern areas was reported hazardous.

Schools were ordered closed in more than a score of Virginia communities. Five persons, including four children, died in fires in the Norfolk area.

Although no snow was reported in other Southern states, it was cold. Temperatures were in the 20s in parts of Georgia and near freezing in sections of Mississippi and Alabama.

20 BELOW ZERO

Below zero weather again hit northern Midwest areas. The mercury tumbled to 20 degrees below zero at Rochester, Minn. It was -14 at International Falls, Minn., and -13 at Grantsburg, Wis.

The Weather Bureau didn't see much hope for immediate relief from the cold weather.

In the east, freezing temperatures and lower were reported from Viginiai nto New England. It was below zero in parts of northern New England.

IT'S WINDY, TOO

As the storm whipped northward, powered by gale winds of 40 to 50 miles per hour, weathermen issued heavy snow warnings for the

Wall Street Tells Virginia—Santa Is Uncle Sam

The business newspaper published a two-sentence editorial under the heading "There Sure Is." It read:

"The United States government is estimated to have given away more than 60 billion dollars in foreign aid since World War I.

"Now then, Virginia, what was your question?"

Virginia was the child who wrote a letter to the Sun many years ago asking if there is a Santa Claus. In an editorial now historically famous, the Sun assured her there is.

Train Hits Bus, 2 Pupils Killed

Driver, 8 Other Students Survive Crossing Crash Near Essex, Ont.

ESSEX, Ont. (AP) — A New York Central passenger train running 30 minutes late sliced a school bus in half at a rural grade crossing today, killing two boys aboard the bus.

The crossing is three miles east of Essex and about 17 miles east of Detroit in the southernmost tip of Ontario.

The bus was carrying 10 pupils to the Holy Names School in Essex.

The two boys who were killed were David Purvis and Paul Bossey.

The driver, Albert Slote, and three children were taken to the Essex Professional Center for treatment. Another boy, whose leg was broken, was sent to a Windsor hospital.

Dr. D. W. Clare said none of the children brought into Essex was injured seriously.

The grade crossing is marked but not protected by crossing gates. The approach is steep and icy.

Miss Margaret Seymour, who lives nearby, said several cars failed to make the grade on their first run up the incline this morning before the accident.

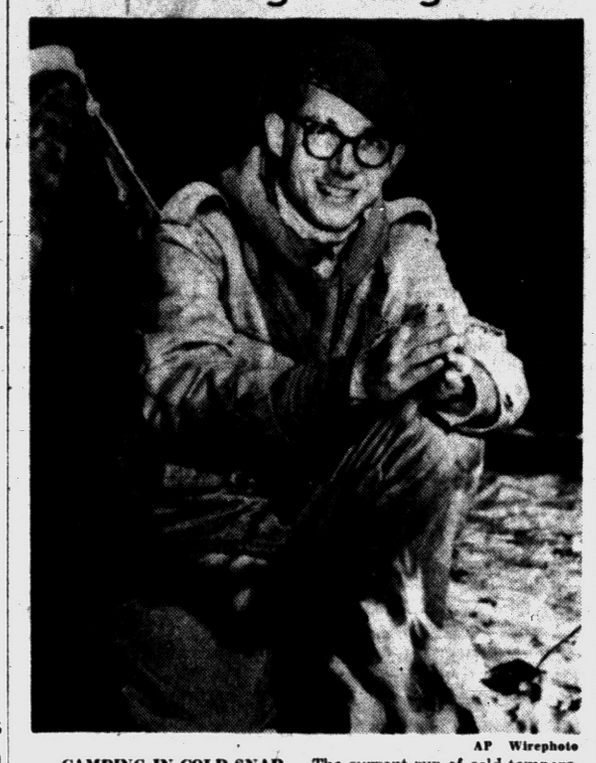

The 10-car train, the Detroiter, left New York City last night and was due in Detroit at 8 a. m. That was the time of the accident.

A spokesman for the railroad said the bus was knocked clear of the crossing by the train.

Salk Vaccine Drive On

CAMPING IN COLD SNAP — The current run of cold temperatures hasn't halted the outdoor living of University of Michigan senior Hilliard Goldman, who is living in a pup tent to protest what he terms the University's "mothering attitude."

Sub-Zero Weather Possibility Tonight

TODAY'S TEMPERATURES

12:30 a. m.	7	8 a. m.	5
2 a. m.	4	10 a. m.	9
4 a. m.	2	11 a. m.	17
6 a. m.	4	1 p. m.	22

Possible sub-zero weather was on the way here today on the heels of the lowest temperature so far during the eight-day cold wave.

The mercury tumbled to two degrees above zero at 2 a. m. today and may sink as far as a frigid 5 below tonight, the Weather Bureau said.

The freezing weather was setting in as fast here as the ice which clogged the St. Marys River, temporarily prevented downbound ships from passing through the Sault Ste. Marie locks.

No hopes for any real break in temperatures in the next five days were seen by the Weather Bureau, but there was some chance that the cold spell might relax a little bit Sunday or Monday.

The mercury is expected to remain at an average 10-15 degrees below normal, with a high today of 20 accompanied by a few snow flurries. Northerly winds of 8-13 miles an hour are expected this afternoon and tonight and tomorrow's high will be around 20 again.

In Pelston, which has had the distinction of being "the coldest point in the state this month, the mercury stood at a new low of -17 degrees. In Flint it was -8 and at Traverse City, -7.

The Coast Guard began clearing the St. Marys River again this morning after heavy fog kept ships out of the channel last night. The ice was reported 10-12 inches thick.

From Ann Arbor came a surprising prediction. Despite the coldest Michigan December since 1943, a University of Michigan astronomer said winter will be "a little shorter and a little milder this year."

Prof. Hazel M. Losh explained: The earth is a million and a half miles nearer the sun than usual. The earth will reach its closest point to the sun on Jan. 1. This tends to warm things up and make winter briefer, since the earth will be moving slightly faster in its orbit.

Union to Appeal Edict for Reform From Monitors

Top Man Apparently Not Shaken by Strong Court Opinion

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — The Teamsters braced for battle today in the face of a federal court threat to oust James Hoffa as their president unless they obey orders to clean house.

The Executive Board of the huge union voted to appeal U.S. Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts' ruling that the Teamsters must heed reform recommendations made by court-appointed monitors.

Hoffa, militant leader of 1½ million Teamsters, didn't seem worried by the court's vigorously worded opinion.

"H-l, it just means another fight," he said cheerfully. "We will appeal all the way. We've done nothing contrary to good unionism."

Hoffa said the union will cancel plans for a convention in Chicago next March if necessary.

The court forbade a convention that soon on the ground the union has not yet cleaned house of prepared for "return of control to the rank-and-file membership through democratic processes."

Hoffa had called the convention in an attempt to have himself reelected and bring an end to the monitorship.

The union's lawyers will go to Washington to seek an order staying Letts' ruling.

'NO REQUIREMENT'

"As of now there is no requirement, according to our lawyers, to change operations of the Teamsters Union," Hoffa said.

Two of the three Teamsters monitors complained Hoffa was ignoring their cleanup orders. Letts, who described the monitors as officers of the court, warned: "Remedies are not lacking in our judicial process if the orders of the court are violated, disregarded or ignored."

In Washington, the court-appointed monitors said they may bring corruption charges soon against Hoffa.

The monitor majority appeared likely to move in the wake of yesterday's court order giving them sweeping clean-up powers.

Judge Letts made it plain he felt he could remove Hoffa from office or punish him for contempt of court if he balked at the reform proposals.

Asked if he were afraid of losing his job, Hoffa, in Miami, shot back: "I never was afraid of nothing, let alone losing my job."

Soviets Again Gabbing About Summit Meeting

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union put in another bid Thursday night for a summit meeting on causes of international tension.

★ ★ ★

It included the Berlin situation, but ruled out discussion of German reunification.

The statement from the official news agency Tass also warned that any Western use of force to maintain access to Berlin would be met by Soviet force and would touch off a nuclear war.

Some Western officials have proposed that Berlin be discussed only in connection with the entire German unification problem.

RENEWS KREMLIN STAND

Tass renewed the Kremlin stand against negotiating on reunification and also rejected again the Western demand for all-German free elections.

The Soviet Union repeated, however, its readiness to talk about a World War II peace treaty for Germany.

The Communists contend that German unification should be negotiated by the East and West German governments, meeting as equals.

★ ★ ★

Preliminary negotiations for a summit conference broke down last June when the Kremlin published secret minutes of meetings in Moscow.

The West was insisting on searching talks at a lower level to insure likelihood of agreement before the heads of governments gathered. The Soviet Union wanted to get the government chiefs to do the actual trading.

The West also had insisted on restricting any summit conference to the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union, with possibly a few neutrals. It had rejected Soviet efforts to include such small Communist nations as Poland and Czechoslovakia for voting equality.

REITERATES TRANSFER

The statement reiterated that the Soviet Union will transfer its occupation powers to the East Germans in six months regardless of whether the West accepts Premier Khrushchev's proposal to make West Berlin an unarmed free city.

★ ★ ★

Chief of these powers is control of the Western Allies' supply routes to their garrisons in West Berlin.

Dulles Confers With President

Allied Unity in Face of Red Pressure on Berlin Topic of Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles confer today on efforts to obtain solid Allied unity in the face of mounting Soviet pressures against West Berlin.

Their afternoon conference was scheduled between Dulles' discharge from the hospital and his takeoff for a series of conferences starting next week in the French capital.

Dulles has been in Walter Reed Hospital since last Friday undergoing treatment for diverticulitis, an intestinal inflammation.

His chief task at Paris so far as the Berlin issue is concerned apparently will be to try to resolve a split between Britain and West Germany.

The two powers differ on the kind of reply which should be made to the recent Soviet proposal to convert West Berlin into a free city and end the Western occupation there.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany has taken the position that the Berlin issue should be disposed of before any new proposals on Germany are made to Soviet Premer Nikita Khrushchev.

Dulles' own attitude is reported to be that the Western powers must sternly reject the Khrushchev plan for West Berlin, but preferably at the same time put forth some kind of counterproposal based upon solving the Berlin problem through the unification of Germany with free elections.

Los Angeles Hot-Spot

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Residents of the Los Angeles area basked in sunny and warm weather yesterday with the thermometer hitting a Dec. 11 near-record high of 85 degrees. The U.S. Weather Bureau said today's high will be about the same. The warmest Dec. 11 temperature ever recorded here was 86 degrees — back in 1895.

Forget the Pants: Try Red Flannels

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—The problem, the three stewardesses explained, is that area between a shapely knee and a well-turned ankle.

"Baby, it's cold down there," they said.

Noni Myers, Anchorage, Alaska; Marilyn Batey, Seattle; and Rosemarie Fliseck, Kent, Wash., were surrounded by an admiring cluster of newsmen Thursday as they explained their problem.

Miss Batey, chairman of Council 77 of the Airline Stewards and Stewardesses Assn., said her union was in contract negotiations with Pacific Northern Airlines, which flies Alaskan routes.

A lot of things are involved in the talks, she said, but two things the company wants have the girls in a particular frost.

First, said Miss Myers, the company wants to be able to retire its stewardesses at the age of 32.

THIN VEIL NO HELP

But worst of all, piped up Miss Fliseck, the airline won't let its stewardesses wear ski pants on Alaska flights.

"There we are, exposed," Noni said. "They want us to have just this thin veil of nylon between us and the elements at 40 to 60 below zero."

And Marilyn chimed in: "Every other airline that flies out of Anchorage requires ski pants, for comfort and as a safety precaution. If we crash in nylons, our legs would freeze stiff."

"The only reason they'll give us is that ski pants are not in keeping with the decorum of the company uniform," Rosemarie said.

★ ★ ★

"I asked the airline man what we should do to keep from freezing," Noni said. "He suggested we wear adequate underwear. I said, 'What do you suppose we should do to keep warm between here and there?'"

★ ★ ★

There was no immediate comment from the airline.

April Ballot Could Include County Issue

Voters May Decide Home-Rule

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Michigan voters next April may decide the question of providing home-rule type government for counties.

Such a possibility grew out of a meeting in Pontiac yesterday afternoon of two county government reorganization study committees from Oakland and Wayne Counties.

With the possibility comes a number of "ifs" before the vote could take place.

Biggest of them, as far as Oakland County is concerned now, is first to get approval on home-rule from the 82 Oakland supervisors.

And time is important if the question is to be put on the April 6 ballot.

Should a joint resolution be sponsored by both the House of Representatives and Senate, state laws say the form of the proposed permissive constitutional amendment must be in Lansing 45 days before the election.

This would mean a deadline around Feb. 20 in order to get the proposal on the April 6 ballots.

Another possible stumbling block in initiating the constitutional amendment will be the necessary two-thirds vote required of both the House and Senate. Both convene Jan. 14 for the 1959 session.

Ready then to push the need for home-rule county government will be Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman) and his special Senate committee, which has been studying this type of government.

Despite the many hurdles ahead, Oakland and Wayne counties are ready to press for the April vote,

Hard to Find Students Who Don't Drink, Smoke

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The University of Colorado has a problem distributing the $5,000 Herrick loan fund.

That fund, set up in 1913, is limited to students who don't smoke, drink or swear and Ronald M. Brown, coordinator of scholarships, says it's almost impossible to find a qualified student.

No Colds at Pole!

LONDON (UPI)—Antarctic explorer Ralph Lenton said last night he "can't wait to get back" the cold continent because of the common cold. "All the time I was at the Pole I never had a cold," he said. "Since I came back to Britain, I've hardly been free of the perishing things."

U.S.-Alabama Clash Shaping

Power Battle Looms Over Court's Demand for Voter Registrations

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A federal versus state power clash loomed today on a federal court's demand that an Alabama judge and five voter registrars show their records to the U.S. Civil Rights Comission.

After District Court orders were issued Thursday, rapid-fire developments indicated further possible difficulty for the year-old federal agency probing complaints of discrimination against Negro voters.

Macon County Registrars E. P. Livingston and Grady Rogers, two of the five who silently defied the commisson at its first hearing Monday and Tuesday, resigned on grounds they were being intimidated.

They said they would obey orders to appear at a second hearing here before the six-man commission or a subcomittee Dec. 19.

Refusal to obey the orders could bring contempt citations and possible penalties of imprisonment or fines. This would be at the court's decsion.

The $1,579,943 building at Quarton and Wing Lake Roads will be open for inspection from 2 to 3 p.m. when a brief dedication prgoram will be held.

Gordon G. Nyquist, Parent Teacher Organization president, will be master of ceremonies. Brief talks will be given by Merrill O. Bates, board president; William McGuire, school principal, and Johnson.

Musical numbers by the band and choir and a skit by the Dramatics Class will complete the program.

The new school is situated on a 25-acre campus, and has nearly 75,000 square feet of floor space. Planned to accommodate 600 students, it has a present enrollment of 666.

The annual White Gift Service will be held at 5 and 7 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday.

Gifts of money will go to the Rev. and Mrs. William Hopper Jr., missionaries from the church to Iran.

Gifts of clothing, toys and food, to be wrapped in white paper, will be distributed through Presbyterian Neighborhood Houses in Detroit.

The Christmas story told in scripture will be presented in pantomime by high school juniors. Following the service the traditional Christmas candle will be presented to each family to be lighted every night until Christmas.

The "Blue Room," a devotional center at the Birmingham YMCA Building, has been dedicated to service by the United Church women.

Dr. Harry L. Martin of the First Methodist Church conducted a ceremony. Furnishings for the center were formally presented by Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, group president.

Fire Chief Clark H. Smith said the Birmingham department answered a total of 40 alarms last month, including seven first aid runs.

Property damage to buildings and contents was set at $2,295.

The Stewardship Class of the First Paptist Church will hold its Christmas meeting at 8 p.m. tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, 1320 Dorchester Road. Christmas stories will be told by Mrs. Catherine Wolter.

May Transfer Youths Who Kidnaped Man

NEWBERRY (AP)—Three mental patients who kidnaped a State Highway Department employe and held a butcher knife at his throat may be transferred from Newberry State Hospital to a stronger security institution.

Luce County Prosecutor John Shimmens said yesterday he will demand that the three, all teenagers, be moved to Ionia State Hospital. They are Harold Gardner, 18, of Bark River; Roger Grove, 16, of Newberry; and Theodore Clark, 16, of Ontonagon.

Because they are mentally incompetent, they cannot be prosecuted, Shimmens said.

The youths, who have been habitual escapees, broke out of the Newberry institution Tuesday night and kidnaped 23-year-old James Archambeau from his trailer home near here. They threatened him with a knife, a deer rifle and a shotgun.

They were captured at a road block some 55 miles away near Manistique. Archambeau was not harmed.

State Junior Miss Contest Lacking Oakland Entrants

A Milford girl may become the first Oakland County belle to enter the Michigan Junior Miss contest to be staged by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce Jan 16.

Milford Jaycees have asked for an application blank, indicating they have a candidate in mind, said W. B. Neal, contest chairman.

So far, Pontiac and Oakland County are still not represented in the contest, although entries have been received from such far away places as Niles and Middleville.

Neal urged area organizations to consider sponsoring contestants in the contest.

"Candidates shouldn't be hard to find—there are lots of lovely girls in Oakland County," he said.

Applications will be accepted through Dec. 27, Neal said.

The contest is open to any Michigan high school senior who will be at least 16 years old but not more than 17 on March 8, 1959.

Michigan contestants will be judged in Pontiac Jan. 16 and the winner will go to the national contest in Mobile, Ala., March 4.

Others installed at the ceremony were Robert Alton, John Stefanski and Daniel Murphy, vice presidents; Haig Barsam, treasurer; and Robert Lazelle, secretary.

Three new members of the board of directors installed for two-year terms were Max Evans, Donald Hicks and William Fox.

The president-elect presented Dr. Lynn D. Allen Jr., outgoing president, with a plaque in behalf of the club for "outstanding club leadership as president during the past year."

The Kiwanians and their wives were entertained by a Pontiac Central High School choral group which sang several Christmas season selections.

Worst Storm in History

Sun Shines as Oswego Starts Tunneling Out

OSWEGO, N.Y. (AP) — Residents amost could look back on it all today. But not quite. There was still a lot of snow to be shoveled.

The worst snow storm in the history of this city of 23,000 by Lake Ontario appeared to be over. A bright sun broke through Thursday and no heavy snow was in sight today.

* * *

However, the Weather Bureau predicted periods of light snow or snow flurries in the area today with possibly heavier snow squalls tonight and Saturday.

The streets were open, the men were working, the women went shopping, and the kids still had a holiday.

But maintenance crews had a great deal of work remaining.

* * *

The storm, which began Sunday noon, had left extensive damage. Buildings and roofs had collapsed under the weight of the 6½ feet of snow that fell. Workers had lost nearly a week's wages. Merchants missed what was to have been the first big holiday sales week.

The schools, which remained closed today, were a week behind schedule.

* * *

The Chamber of Commerce expects that December business will show a 25 per cent drop. A Chamber official said hourly workers would not be paid for the time they lost.

Voters May Decide Oakland Home-Rule

In the process of being drafted is a resolution recommending home-rule to the Oakland board. Working on such a resolution is William F. Kalwitz, a member of Oakland's Special County Government Study Committee, and James Sherry, research associate assisting the Oakland group in its attempt to win home-rule.

The committee of nine, headed by John L. Carey, Springfield Township supervisor, has already put its stamp of approval on home-rule government.

This action followed similar approval by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors Nov. 13 of a resolution drafted by the Wayne County Organization Study Committee.

★ ★ ★

Simply, home-rule government would give to counties the power to frame their own governing charters flexible enough to suit the individual needs of each county, should they desire home-rule.

★ ★ ★

During the course of yesterday's meeting of Carey's and the Wayne Committee it was pointed out that should state voters approve the constitutional amendment it would serve only tp enable legislation for organization.

Since 1932 Michigan voters have four times turned down such home rule amendments. Such votes were held in 1934, 1936, 1942 and 1944.

Major opposition in those years came mostly from rural out-state counties which apparently felt satisfied with their present structures, officials say.

The need for home-rule is evidenced from the fact that currently county governments are working under provisions of the original 1908 Michigan Constitution, observers point out.

★ ★ ★

"Like everything else, times have changed," said Carey, "and rapidly growing urban counties like ours find it most difficult to operate under laws created 50 years ago."

It was during the third constitutional convention in 1907-08 that home-rule was created for cities and villages.

Michigan voters last month rejected another constitutional convention. Some good might still come from the vote, according to William H. O'Brien, executive secretary of the Detroit Citizens League.

O'Brien suggested at yesterday's meeting it would be wise to put the home-rule question on the April ballot because "the awareness of the people for the need of reform of government is still fresh in their minds."

Despite its defeat, some 800,000 Michiganders still voted for a constitutional convention Nov. 4, O'Brien said.

Other counties are expected to line up with Oakland and Wayne in the support of home rule, said Edward Purdy, chairman of the Wayne committee.

It is expected that the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, made up of the six most populated counties in southeastern Michigan, will be asked to back the move.

Action by Carey's committee marks the third big step toward streamlining Oakland's government since the Board of Supervisors created the group in October, 1957, to study reforms in government.

★ ★ ★

Already taken place is the merger of the county clerk and register of deeds office, and the approval of the consolidation of the Drain Commission Office with the Department of Public Works. Enabling legislation is needed here also before the latter move can be realized.

Every Christmas

One gift means more than any other. It stands out under the Christmas tree . . . is still useful months later.

But this year you can give your child a gift that will always be remembered . . . and useful for life.

It's the gift of Better Grades in School.

Fantastic? Impossible? No. It's simple.

Leading educators agree that students who know how to type learn more, actually do better work in school . . . and get better grades. So you teach your child touch-typing.

What's more, he can learn at home . . . through a recorded 10-day touch-typing course, developed by the country's leading author of typing instruction, Dr. John L. Rowe of the University of North Dakota and by Norman Saksvig, world's champion typist.

Actually, this can be a gift to the whole family, for the 10-day course is perfect for adults, too. Typing helps a man get ahead faster in his career and helps homemakers with their household bookkeeping and letter writing. Typing's value for every member of the family, has always been far greater than its cost even if each person pays as much as $150.00 to learn from a typing school.

But this course is free!

Free, without a penny extra charge, when you buy any new Smith-Corona portable typewriter. Most models are only $5.00 down with up to 24 months ot pay the balance.

Stop in this week and see our full selection of the world's first and fastest portables, the Smith-Corona, with all the features an expert demands, all the conveniences a beginner requires. General Printing & Office Supply, 17 W. Lawrence, Phone FE 2-0135.

Cold Wave Hits South

mid-Atlantic region into New England. Up to six inches of snow was expected in the northeast.

The week long series of wintry storms, which have ranged from the Continental Divide to the Atlantic, have been blamed for at least 54 deaths, 19 of them yesterday.

Cold weather fires and fumes from overheated stoves took a tragic toll with most of the victims children. Ohio counted 12 fire deaths, six of them yesterday, and five persons died yesterday in two fires near Norfolk, Va. There were four such deaths in Illinois, two each in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota and one in Nebraska.

Traffic accidents on snow and ice slicked highways also claimed a mounting toll, including a woman killed yesterday at Atlanta, Ga., in a collision blamed on icy roads. Other traffic deaths included 9 in Illinois, 3 in Indiana, 2 in New Jersey and one each in Iowa, Michigan and New York. Three men froze to death in Chicago. Exhaustion was blamed for 2 deaths in Iowa and Michigan and one in Illinois.

The brunt of the storm was expected to bypass the New York metropolitan area, but some snow was seen for eastern Long Island. Light snow blanketed the coastal regions of New Jersey, creating hazardous driving conditions.

The worst fall drought since the Gold Rush days of 1849 continued in California with no rain in sight.

U.S. Pressing for Resolution

Reds Say Denouncing Hungary Tactics by U.N. Waste of Time

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States pressed today for the U.N. Assembly to denounced the Moscow and Budapest governments for their reign of terror in Hungary. The Reds told the West it was wasting its time.

The Hungarian debate went into its second round before the General Assembly after day of bitter exchanges between the Western countries and the Soviet bloc.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge called on the Assembly to denounce Hungary's puppet leaders for the executions of former Premier Imre Nagy, Gen. Pal Maleter and "other Hungarian patriots" who took leading roles in the 1956 uprising against Soviet domination.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin summed up the Communist position. He termed the Hungarian debate a "cold war concoction" and declared that neither Moscow nor Budapest would yield to U.N. pressure.

★ ★ ★

"The Soviet Union and all friends of free Hungary will be able to stand up to it," Zorin said. "Hungary has not and will not be a colony of the U.S.A. or any other state."

Hungarian Delegate Janos Peter said that Nagy and his associates were executed for acts of treachery. Any nation permitting capital punishment would have done the same, he added.

★ ★ ★

Britain's Sir Pierson Dixon declared that the present situation in Hungary exists solely because it is the will of the Soviet government that it should exist, "and because they are prepared to crush by armed force any challenge to their authority."

The Western resolution calls on the Soviet Union and Hungarian Communists to end their repression in the satellite.

Chicago Janitor Describes Fire

Says Blaze Killing 92 Started Earlier Than Witnesses Said

CHICAGO (AP) — A janitor's story stirred a new conflict today over the time of the start of the fire which flashed through Our Lady of the Angels School Dec. 1, killing 89 pupils and three nuns.

James R. Raymond, 44, the janitor at the West Side grade school for 13 years, told a coroner's inquest yesterday he noticed the blaze at either 2:20 or 2:25 p.m.

Mystified he ran to the nearby rectory and shouted to the housekeeper there to call the fire department.

Authorities and witnesses earlier had said the fire was spotted between 2:30 and 2:40, that the alarm was sounded at 2:42 and firemen arrived about 3 minutes later.

Raymond told the jury inquiring into the fire deaths he believed it was caused by "human hands," meaning he thought it was set by an arsonist or accidentally. But he gave no reason for that belief.

He checked some other parish alleyway separating the school buildings and was south of the school about 2:20 or 2:25 in an and church rectory. He saw a "whiff of smoke" from the ground floor window of the school, ran up, and through the frosted glass saw a red glare. Then he ran to the rectory and told the housekeeper to call firemen.

Then, Raymond told the grave, intent jurors, he ran into the boiler room and saw two boys. They were the last of a group who brought wastepaper from the classrooms to empty it into drums. He warned them to get out, ran up to a second floor classroom and broke down a door giving partial access to a fire escape. The pupils and the teacher fled down the escape, he related.

Next, he said, he ran to the front of a second floor corridor and because the smoke was so dense broke out two windows, slashing his left wrist. He stumbled down the stairway and outside and then he remembered struggling with some person who wanted to put him in an ambulance.

13-Day Dig Frees Dog From Crevice

Two weeks ago, Old Touse and a smaller dog, baying joyfully, ran a coon through a crevice in a granite cliff just over the Georgia border.

★ ★ ★

Then they couldn't get out. It looked hopeless. Luke took his hammer and chisel, though, and began pecking away at the stone.

Five days later the smaller dog, thinned down from loss of weight, escaped. But as he did some rocks slipped and penned Old Touse even more securely.

The dog could only poke his nose through the hole for food and water.

Luke kept chipping away, and fellow hunters spelled him. The 13th day came and Old Touse still was alive, but time was growing short and there was only three inches of room to swing the hammer.

Luke decided. Red Talley, 15, of Satolah, Ga., wriggled into the crevice and set a dynamite charge then squirmed out. There was an explosion and a cloud of rock dust, closely followed by Old Touse.

Coons, beware. Old Touse gonna ride herd on you again.

He Wasn't Slighted at All

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My brother was divorced many years ago and has made his home with us ever since. He has a daughter who is living with his ex-wife, who is married again. However, the daughter has always been very fond of her father and comes to our house at least once a week to visit him.

"Now comes her wedding invitation, sent in her mother's and stepfather's names, just as though her own father didn't exist. He is very much hurt over this. Wasn't this very belittling to him?"

Answer: I'm sorry, but you are quite wrong! No matter what the feelings of the parents might be, it would be in very worst taste to have included his name on the invitations. In other words, the absence of his name is a requirement of propriety and is not in any way belittling to the bride's father. His importance is shown when he walks up the aisle of the church with his daughter and gives her away.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married shortly and was given a bridal shower last week. On of the women present at the shower is one I did not intend to invite to my wedding reception, as she is not a really intimate friend. Am I under any obligation to invite her to the reception because she was at my shower?"

Answer: If your reception is not going to be so overcrowded that there will not be room for her, you should invite her to it. The fact that she came to a shower given for you shows that she considers herself to be an intimate friend of yours.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I have tickets for the opening night of a new play. I have been told that evening clothes are a must on a first night. Will you please tell me if ths is true or may day clothes be worn?"

Answer: Until a few years ago evening clothes were necessary at the theater on an opening night. Today, I am sorry to say, this is no longer so.

Diet for Teenagers

Plot to Parry Advocates of Weakmanship!

By RUTH WEST

In "Gamesmanship, Lifemanship, and One-upmanship," Stephen Potter, one of England's top humorists, concentrates on ways and means of beating people to the punch.

Now, I don't know a life situation where you can get more tangled up than when you're trying not to play follow the leader about what you eat. So here, with apologies to Mr. Potter, is our idea of The Theory and Practice of Dietmanship:

WATCH FOR TRAPS

What does dietsmanship mean? It means, in the plainest of English, that you, who plan to dodge the fat-fraught eating habits of your family and friends, need to maintain conversational control of all situations in which you might be trapped.

★ ★ ★

For this you need to be prepared with parrying remarks —ploys, as Mr. Potter would say, to distract the heckler who—let us face this squarely —wants you to waver.

"There is a vicious streak in some people that makes them want to make the fat fatter."

Susan Strasburg

The important thing is to remember to answer back with a will. If you mumble around, look furtive, or blame the whole thing on your mother, you will, before you know what has happened, find yourself fist-deep in a Marshmallow Delight Triple-Dip Chocolate-Nut Sundae.

BEWARE NUDGER!

For the purpose of convenience, we will refer to those who try to sway you as Nudgers. Some Nudgers mean well, some mean not so well; the effect is the same.

★ ★ ★

Here are some typical conversational patterns:

Nudger: You mean you're worrying about your weight?

Almost no one can emerge unsquelched from this. Obviously not those who are overweight. Not the skinny ones who are just as worried about needing pounds as you are about shedding them. Not even the well-built who almost always have a vulnerable fat area.

★ ★ ★

Then there is intimidation, or the suggestion of superior knowledge gleaned from extensive research at the library.

Nudger: That's ridiculous, all this calorie-counting. You don't weigh any more than I do.

Dietsman: I wonder — have you ever checked your weight against a Wetzel Physical Fitness Grid? I'm perfectly healthy at this weight, I suppose, but I'm just not as fit as I could be.

Or:

Nudger: Why don't you just eat less? Skip sweets, for instance. That's what I do. Overweight is just a matter of eating too much.

Dietsman: (laughing) I guess if it was as simple as all that, overweight wouldn't be our biggest national health problem. Dr. Jean Mayer — Harvard, you know — says overweight can't be explained simply as the result of overeating —that's why doctors haven't had much success in treating it.

BRAZEN IT OUT

Then there's The Big Lie. Variations are: "Who me? I never diet," or "I don't know, somehow I'm just not hungry," or "I just had two chocolate bars, I couldn't eat another bite."

Look everyone straight in the eye. The shock of it—and the doubts it raises — practically guarantee it as a conversation-stopper.

Then there's this approach:

Nudger: My sister's been on a diet for weeks, and she hasn't lost a pound.

Dietsman: Sounds as though she's on one of those starvation diets that doesn't have enough excess protein to raise metabolism and burn up stored fat. Actually, I'm not dieting . . . I probably eat lots more than you do.

★ ★ ★

You will need specific methods to deal with the particular situations that come up in your own life. For instance:

Nudger: Why do you eat carrots instead of caramels?

Dietsman: Cavities — dentist's orders!

Or:

Nudger: How can you bear salad without gobs of mayonnaise?

Dietsman: How can you bear it with all that messy stuff on it!

★ ★ ★

This will take a bit of thinking, so when you hear a given remark more than once, make a note of it. Then figure out a nice, pleasant, knowledgeable —and confusing — answer or two, and you'll be all set.

Persistent Female Needs Telling—Abby

Change Cold-War Tactics

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR MISS ABBY: I am a young man not long in your country who has problems with an aggressive young woman whom I met in my Adult Education class. I have been polite but did not give her any notions to encourage her friendship. She first requested a ride home from class. Now she expects it.

ABBY

"She found out my telephone number and rings me up during the week a shocking number of times. Twice she has taken the bus to my apartment, and was sitting on my front steps when I arrived home. (She asked my janitor to let her in, but was refused!)

"Almost daily I receive in the mail a long slender carton card with messages bluntly declaring her "affection." Lately I have taken the bus to class to avoid giving her rides home. Please, Madame, what can I do to discourage this woman without hurting her feelings?" NEW AMERICAN

DEAR NEW: This woman has about as much sensitivity as a Sherman tank, so don't be concerned about "hurting her feelings." Tell her at the first opportunity that you have neither the time nor the desire to see her outside the classroom.

"DEAR ABBY: Could you please give me your opinion of a man with four growing children who has all four walls of his garage literally covered from floor to roof with pictures of nude women? Some of these are photographs from life. Very sincerely," J.M.B.

DEAR J.M.B.: He's not only sick—he's advertising it!

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My son went off to college and left an $18 100 per cent wool sweater hanging in the closet "for the moths," he said. Of course this is his High School sweater with two colored stripes woven into the left sleeve and a large 'M' on the front. Now the sweater fits me perfectly and I want to know if I can wear it out in public. Say, to the grocery store or something like that?" MRS. E.

DEAR MRS. E.: Why not? You've earned your letter "M" for mother.

"DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have no children so we have always been very generous at Christmas time with the children of our friends. In many cases these children get so many gifts they can't even remember which is ours. I know it isn't their fault, but do you think we should continue sending them Christmas presents? How do you 'break the habit?" CHILDLESS

DEAR CHILDLESS: Simply write a note telling them that this year a gift to some underprivileged child has been sent in their name. Then get a list of needy children from a local orphanage, Salvation Army or Welfare Society. Your gift will mean so much more!

Parents' Divorce Removes Safety Valve

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Jay's parents were divorced two years ago.

Last night as his mother was finishing the dishes, she heard a burst of television noises from the living room. Investigating, she found Jay relaxed on the sofa before the set, absorbed in a scene of violence between cattle rustlers and a virtuous pioneer marshal.

She turned off the set, saying, "No TV till your homework's done." Then picking up the arithmetic book Jay had let fall to the floor, she added, "Take this. And get going on those examples."

He knocked it from her hand. "Rotten old book!" he exploded. "I don't want to do examples for that rotten old teacher! I hate that stinky school anyway . . ."

Deeply discouraged by this wholesale condemnation of educational privilege, his mother thought, "Oh dear, what can I do about his rebellion against school?"

May I remind her that for some time now Jay has been attacking many obligations she requires of him as "stinky" or "rotten."

It is his indirect way of saying to her, "Mother, I hate you for an intolerable pest."

It is indirect because it is very hard for a child who lives with one parent to directly attack that parent.

COULD COMPLAIN

One of the nice things we don't remember about living with two parents was the freedom it gave us to attack one or the other. If Mother seemed too unreasonable, we could complain of her to Daddy, knowing that his affection for her could absorb our rage at her. Our protest was safe with him.

But if, like Jay, we're a child of divorce, there isn't any Daddy around to make our rage at Mother safe. If we say, "I hate you for an intolerable pest," there's always the awful possibility she may get mad beak at us—and leave us completely orphaned.

So when we're furious at her demand that we detach ourselves from TV to do homework, we'll attack educational privilege as "stinky" and "rotten" because we don't dare say we hate her.

The divorced parent has a special obligation to make direct expression of anger safe for children. If he fills it, he is rewarded by a special trust and respect.

Pistol-Whipper Mute on Charge

Berkley Man Will Be Arraigned Monday for Beating Woman

BERKLEY — The confessed pistol-whipper of a woman clerk in the Piggy Bank Cleaners, 2829 Coolidge Highway, Walter H. Budry, 25, stood mute in court late yesterday before Justice of the Peace Ralph Finley on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily harm.

Budry, who lives at 3665 Oakshire Rd., waived examination before trial and was bound over for arraignment Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court, Pontiac. He will come before Judge William John Beers.

The victim, Mrs. Marguerite Baker, 37, of 2130 Highland St., Ferndale, was reported in "very satisfactory condition" today, at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. She is expected to be released soon. Mrs. Baker suffered multiple lacerations about the head and face.

Budry's bond was set by Judge Finley at $20,000. The accused was unable to post that amount and is being held in the Oakland County Jail.

Police are still searching for the pistol which Budry says he threw away in the Walled Lake Amusement Park area where he was picked up by Novi police on Tuesday, a few hours after the crime was committed.

Investigating officers in Berkley doubt that robbery was the motive as was believed earlier. Budry has been under a doctor's care for long periods in the past. No rational motive has been established.

School Bus and Car Collide, No One Hurt

AVON TOWNSHIP—A Rochester school bus and car collided head on at the intersection of School and Dequindre roads in Avon Township yesterday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

No one was injured, Romeo State Police reported today.

The bus driver started to make a left turn just as the car reached the corner. The vehicles met head on, police said, causing about $100 damage to the car. Damage to the bus was slight.

The bus driver was William F. Armstrong, 43, of 327 Third St., Rochester. He was ticketed for making an improper left turn.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Gracie Rose Cannon, 37, 3790 24-Mile Rd., Utica, was the driver of the car.

'Buccaneer' Film Causing Trouble for De Mille

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Attorneys for movie producer Cecil B. DeMille studied a petition today which ordered him into court Jan. 2 to pinpoint responsibility for production of the film "The Buccaneer."

★ ★ ★

DeMille, in New Orleans for the world premiere of the movie Thursday night, said he hadn't looked at the petition.

Atty. Hugh Wilkinson Sr. filed the petition in state court in behalf of Henri de Balther Claiborne of Center Cross, Va., a great-grandson of Louisiana Gov. William Charles Claiborne.

★ ★ ★

The Claiborne descendant claims the movie causes the family "great mortification" by picturing a romance between Jean Lafitte, the pirate, and a daughter of the governor who had died many years prior to the time of the fictional romance — about the time of the Battle of New Orleans in 1815.

Clarkston Will Open Bids on New School Tuesday

CLARKSTON — Approximately 35 construction bids for a new $2½ million high school will be opened at 2 p.m. Tuesday, according to superintendent Dr. F. F. Greene.

★ ★ ★

Bid specifications, which were divided into three sections, include general contractor, mechanical and electrical.

For more than a year, a group of 100 Clarkston residents, known as the School Steering Committee, compiled an extensive survey of school needs, before the proposition was put to a vote of the people, Greene explained.

The $2½-million school bond issue was passed by a two-to-one majority of registered voters at a special election held last May.

★ ★ ★

To be constructed on 40 acres of the 72-acre Clarkston elementary school site on Waldron Rd., the new high school will be the first separation of the Junior and Senior high school pupils.

There will be 37 teaching stations for 1,200 pupils, a gymnasium with seating capacity for 2,000 spectators, an auditorium and cafeteria to accommodate some 350 pupils at one time.

An ultra-modern science and labratory department has been included in the specifications, along with an up-to-date library, and fully equipped shop department.

At the present time, there are four elementary schools in the 48-square mile Clarkston school district, accommodating more than 4,000 pupils.

The present junior-senior high school will eventually house 7th, 8th, and 9th graders, exclusively, Greene said.

After the bids have been opened, reviewed and contracts awarded, construction on the building will probably get under way as soon as weather conditions permit, Greene concluded.

"Lucky Ike" was sold on the auction block yesterday, and immediately given to the Old Newsboys' Goodfellow Fund in Detroit.

"Lucky Ike" was the grand champion hereford steer raised by Kenneth Rush, 17, 64510 Dequindre Rd., Romeo. The 1,155-pound animal brought $1.75 per pound on the block at the annual Detroit Livestock Show at the Fair Grounds Coliseum in Detroit.

Purchaser of the steer was E. C. Natherton of Food Fair Markets, who turned the animal over to Detroit Recorder's Court Judge John P. Scallen, Goodfellows president right after the purchase.

Yesterday climaxed a busy two days for area 4-Hers in the 29th annual statewide livestock competition. The coliseum was a bee-hive of activity as the exhibitors gave their animals a final grooming before the sale started.

One of the most excited families was the Rushes from Romeo, for not only did son Kenneth walk off with top honors for grand champion of the show, but other members placed high in the award-winning column.

Kenneth's older brother Robert, 18, had the reserve champion hereford and also won the grand champion showmanship award. Fifteen-year-old Carroll Rush's lightweight herefords placed fifth and sixth in that class.

SISTER WINS TOO

Not to be outdone by her brother, Mary Rush, who is 12, won ribbons for her steers which placed third in the lightweight shorthorn division and fourth in lightweight herefords.

The Rushes swept five out of six places in the lightweight hereford class with three of their animals making all-county herd. Robert had a first and third; Mary fourth; and Carroll, fifth and sixth.

"Lucky Ike" was named just minutes before he went on the auction block. Kenneth picked the "Lucky" part because of the previous day's decision in his favor.

And the "Ike" stood for president, the office the Romeo youth holds in the Highland 4-H Club which accredited itself well in the show.

BUS Y DAYS

Fritz Lutz, 18, of Rochester, who had reserve grand champion hereford, also had a busy couple of days. It was examination time at Michigan State University where he is a freshman.

★ ★ ★

Fritz was at the show and banquet Wednesday afternoon and evening, went back to school and took an exam yesterday morning and was back at the show in time to lead his steer into the buyers' ring yesterday afternoon. The animal brought 75 cents a pound.

Faye Walker of Metamora, who raised the champion shorthorn of the show, received 37.5 cents a pound for her prize-winner.

★ ★ ★

The grand champion individual hog went to Food Fair Markets for $1.50 per pound and reserve champion brought 50 cents per pound from Farnsworth Packing Co.

The grand champion individual lamb went for $2.50 a pound and the reserve champion for 60 cents, both to Food Fair Markets.

AMC Puts $10 Million in Rambler Expansion

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp., is going to back up its faith in the future of the undersized Rambler to the tune of $10,150,000 for expansion within the next year.

In a news conference afterward he said the expansion eventually would mean 4,200 more jobs in AMC's automotive plants at Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis., and would increase maximum production capacity from the present 330,000 units a year to 440,000. Current AMC employment is 18,475 compared with 11,076 at the corresponding time last year.

Romney said he was confident the expansion will serve to widen the head start of AMC over any small car plans of General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co., and of Chrysler Corp.

★ ★ ★

There have been reports the big three are planning to enter the small car field where AMC found amazing success but none of them has announced it.

American Motors was the only U. S. car maker that put out more cars in the recession year of 1958 than it did in 1957.

The decision to expand was made several weeks ago when American Motors decided the increased sales momentum of its Ramblers showed signs of speeding up rather than slowing down, Romney said.

★ ★ ★

"We hope to make 33,000 cars in December," Romney said, "and even then we will be about 11,000 cars behind dealer orders."

Aside from that, he said, applications for dealerships are at a peak.

Romney told the suppliers that much of the expansion program will be finished by next spring and all of it will be completed before the company swings into 1960 model production.

He said none of the expenditure will go for new plant construction.

"We will spend $4,600,000 at Milwaukee and $5,550,000 at Kenosha," he said. "At Milwaukee we will increase our body capacity. We will augment our facilities there by installing additional welding equipment, lengthening our trim lines and adding to our paint facilities.

★ ★ ★

"At Kenosha we will boost our six-cylinder engine capacity," he said. "Additional equipment will be installed to increase capacity of our rear axle and front suspension machine lines to the same rate of production."

Romney predicted the small car market will represent 50 to 60 per cent of the total market before the end of the 1960s.

"In the fiscal year just ended (Sept. 30) our U. S. dealers sold 154,372 Ramblers at retail," he said. "In the first two months of the current fiscal year they sold 48,642 Ramblers."

Counting time off for model changeover and other production interruptions, he said sales the first two months of this fiscal year indicated an annual Rambler sales rate of more than 300,000 units.

★ ★ ★

"The total smaller car market in 1958 including foreign and compact cars, should be about 600,000 units," he said. "In all probability it will approximate one million units in 1959, with the greatest rate of gain going to U. S.-built compact cars. We expect Rambler sales to be running at an annual rate of 400,000 early in the 1960 model year."

Blaze Leaves 8 Without Home

6 Children, 2 Women Left Without Anything but Clothes on Back

BELLEVILLE (UPI) — Eight persons were homeless today following a sudden fire which left them with nothing but the clothes they were wearing.

The fire broke out in their rented, wooden home yesterday, gutting it and driving six children, ages 3-9, into the snow-covered yard.

Police searched today for food, shelter and clothing for Mrs. Marjorie Edwards, 27, and Mrs. Sylvia Freeman, 24, and the youngsters.

Mrs. Edwards, a University of Michigan secretary who divorced her husband two years ago and has received no support money from him, was at the county welfare office in Inkster when her four children—Mark, 9, Joan, 8, Roderic, 5, and Gretchen, 3—were forced out of their home.

★ ★ ★

The Freeman family, including five-year-old Linda and four-year-old David, was taken in by neighbors.

Chief Stech issued a plea for help for the destitute families: "Any help we can get for these people will be appreciated."

8 Gift Reindeer Bring Bonus to Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A herd of reindeer clattered into the Nation's capital today bringing with them a Christmas bonus. Eight of the 14 animals turned out to be in a family way.

★ ★ ★

But Dr. Theodore Reed, director of the National Zoological Park, quickly scotched a rumor that the reindeer used their 5,100-mile trip from Alaska as a honeymoon.

He said the females got that way before they left the frozen North. All of the expectant mothers are in fine shape, he said, the and eight blessed events, one calf each, are expected sometime in April.

★ ★ ★

The reindeer, a Christmas gift to the nation from Alaska, will represent the 49th state in the annual Pageant of Peace Christmas display on grounds just south of the White House.

2-Car Collision Kills 1

DETROIT (AP)—Philip Gallant, 41, of Grosse Pointe, was killed Thursday night in a two-car collision on M97 in suburban Warren.

Slight Change, Rules Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market was narrowly uneven in active early trading today except for a few features.

★ ★ ★

Fractional changes were the rule for most key stocks.

American Motors was an exception on the upside, advancing President George Romney's forecast of greater profit margins in 1959 and increased production.

News that the proposed merger of Warner-Lambert and R. J. Reynolds Tobacco had been called off brought gyrations to these stocks. Reynolds spurted more than a point and then settled back for a 2-poin loss. Warner-Lambert sank more than 4, then recouped the loss and alternated between fractional gains and losses.

'the opening was mixed with a few 1-point losers giving the list a slightly lower tendency. Goodyear, Gulf Oil and Westinghouse Electric took losses in the 1-pont range while American Cyanamid dropped a bit more than that.

★ ★ ★

No New York Papers as Strike Continues

NEW YORK (AP)—A newspaperless New York today awaited the outcome of a negotiation session aimed at ending a deliverymen's strike at the city's nine major dailies.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner offered his help.

The New York Central Railroad was distributing handbill-like digests to commuters with news supplied by The Associated Press as a public service.

The Long Island Daily Press, one of the nine papers at which presses were still, set up a projection slide news service in Pennsylvania Station for Long Island Rail Road commuters.

Also, a limited amount of out-of-town papers were seeping into the city, the largest newspaper publishing community in America.

Several of the papers announced they were furloughing most of their employes without pay for the duration of the strike.

U. of M. Professor to Dig for Fort, Mission in UP

ANN ARBOR (AP) A University of Michigan archaeologist will go digging in the Upper Peninsula next summer for a 300-year-old fort and Jesuit mission.

Prof. Emerson F. Greenman's underground hunt for a buried French military stockade and mission will be sponsored by the Michilimackinac Historical Society of St. Ignace. The two dirt covered relics are believed to date back to the mid-1600s.

★ ★ ★

Greenman said he would excavate the old structures if he can locate them.

He hopes to uncover stone foundations, evidence of the stockade's wooden posts, chinaware, metal tools, glassware and religious objects.

Greenman recently helped unearth an Indian burial mound in the Upper Peninsula from which evidence of Festival of the Dead ceremonies was taken.

Solar Steel to Spend $650,000 for Expansion

CLEVELAND (AP) — Solar Steel Corp. of Cleveland says it will spend more than $650,000 for expansion at its Union, N.J., plant.

Company President Daniel A. Friedman says Solar will make cold-rolled formed steel sections at Union. The firm now operates a fully equipped flat-roll steel processing warehouse there.

Friedman said Solar has installed three new rolling mills at its Detroit plant. He said Solar is increasing emphasis on flat-products at Detroit and has sold inventory and equipment for producing bar and tubular steel products.

NEW YORK (AP)—The first public offering of common stock of Upjohn Co., of Kalamazoo, Mich., was reported oversubscribed yesterday by underwriters. Stock of the big 72-year-old ethical drug manufacturer was offered by a syndicate of investment concerns at $45 a share.
