

Sane Driving Keeps Highways Safe

Beware Point of No Escape

By HILBERT BLACK
NEA Service Writer

Before every traffic mishap there is a moment when the accident becomes unavoidable... the moment when the marked victims may become aware of impending danger — too late to do anything about it.

To police and safety experts who study the causes of highway and street slaughter this is known as "The Point of No Escape."

For Motorist A it was a day of sunshine and fishing, grass stains on trousers and hot dogs roasted over charcoal. A beautiful summer holiday.

Next year, he tells himself, he'll remember not to drive so far from home for the picnic. Now it is almost 6 p. m. and the roads are crowded with other homeward-bound merry-makers.

The kids are asleep on the back seat, exhausted after a day of frolicking. Mom rests her weary head on the back of the front seat. Motorist A opens the vent window fully and finds the slightly cool breeze relaxing.

There's a heavy date ahead for Motorist B this holiday evening. He's tired after the all-afternoon ballgame. The fellows from the shop sure showed up the gang from the front office.

Now it is almost 6 p. m. His girl friend expects him to pick her up at 7:30, and she's the type who doesn't have to wait for anybody.

Motorist B has to shower and shave, and it's a good 20-minute ride to her house. C'mon traffic, let's get moving.

At exactly 6:05 p. m. Motorist A and Motorist B are both within 150 feet of the intersection, one coming from the east, the other from the south. They can't see each other because of the building at the corner.

If there is a stop sign or a traffic light, it will be ignored, because Motorist A is day-dreaming and Motorist B is thinking about his date. Both are driving a little too fast for road conditions.

Then each glimpses the other—but they have reached "The Point of No Escape."

There is a screeching of brakes and two children are hurled violently toward the front of the car. Metal meshes with metal. Two cars overturn, mangle five humans. For them there may never be another date, another picnic.

This year's Fourth of July provides for many another "long" weekend. It's a time that can be filled with fun and excitement. Police hope that all those enjoying the holiday will make special efforts to steer clear of "The Point of No Escape."

Action Needed, Say Citizens

Support Policy Survey

Five prominent Pontiac citizens favor an investigation of the current local police situation.

The Press yesterday in an editorial recommended the hiring of Donald S. Leonard, former State Police Commissioner, to perform such an investigation.

Several of those interviewed yesterday endorsed Leonard as an ideal choice, while others were non-committal on the selection of the investigator, while favoring such a study.

Some criticized the Civil Service act under which city policemen fell after voters approved a change last April.

They expressed, as did the Press editorial, that Chief Herbert W. Straley should have the power to hire and fire.

The local police situation has been brewing since the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. took steps to oust the chief, from office based on alleged charges against him.

Fred V. Haggard, president of the Oakland County CIO Council said: "Since we see that there is dissension in the ranks, an investigation by an impartial person probably is the best answer."

"I'd leave the selection of the individual up to the City Commission. The quicker this investigation is performed and the facts brought out in the open, the better it will be for the whole city."

Alfred C. Girard, president of the Downtown Pontiac Assn. and Community National Bank, had this to say about the proposed investigation:

"I think an independent investigation is necessary so the facts in this matter can be known by everyone. And it will certainly help the city tremendously the sooner this is done."

"I concur with the recommendations of The Press one hundred per cent, but with one reservation," said Frank S. Lyndall, manager of Sears Roebuck & Co. here.

"I believe that the diplomacy of Chief Straley has improved with his tenure in office. I favor the suggestion too that Chief Straley should have the power to hire and fire."

"As to who should come in for this much-needed investigation," Lyndall continued, "I would say that Mr. Leonard is a very competent man in his field."

A further interview with Mrs. Lola King, member of the Pontiac Board of Education, disclosed this opinion:

"I would endorse the suggestion wholeheartedly. It seems to me that such a study by Mr. Leonard is needed to look into what is going on in this dispute."

"Because of Mr. Leonard's past experience as police commissioner and similar investigations, I think he is well qualified to conduct the same here," Mrs. King said.

John W. Hurlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, said: "The time will undoubtedly come when a man of Leonard's character should come in for this investigation."

Final Approval of Compromise Bill Up to Ike

Senate OKs Decreases as Much as 50 Per Cent on U.S.-Insured Houses

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES
WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower had under consideration today a compromise bill to permit sharp reductions in the minimum down payment on government-insured houses.

The bill, passed in the Senate Monday by voice vote, would provide $1,990,000,000 in new federal authority to help take up the slack in home-building.

The bill was considerably higher than the President's housing request of about one billion dollars this year, but represents a concession by liberal Democrats who were plugging for a much more vigorous program.

The measure would give the administration authority to reduce FHA down payments to three per cent on the first $10,000 evaluation; 15 per cent on the next $6,000 and 30 per cent above that figure. The present schedule calls for five per cent on the first $9,000 and 25 per cent above.

On cheaper homes, the down payment could be reduced by as much as 50 per cent.

REDUCED BY FHA
The FHA last fall reduced required down payments to the present minimums — 5 per cent on the first $9,000 of a house's appraised value, plus 25 per cent of the rest.

Despite overwhelming Senate approval of the final bill, Senator Clark (D., Pa.) said he has grave reservations about going along with the compromise.

He said the bill has a "glaring defect" in that it failed to increase the present "completely inadequate" Government program for the construction of 35,000 public housing units each year.

The new bill would peg the minimum at 3 per cent of the first $10,000, 15 per cent of the next $6,000, and 30 per cent on the rest. The bill also would authorize the use of 640 million dollars more than the $1,000,000 the Eisenhower Administration requested for mortgage financing aids and housing grants and loans.

State, County Officers to Work Overtime on July 4th Weekend

As hundreds of thousands prepare to end their regular work-week tomorrow afternoon for a long carefree Independence Day weekend, law enforcement officials throughout the state and Oakland County will do just the opposite, doubling their efforts to make it a safe weekend.

An estimated 4,500 law enforcers will begin the four-day vigil on state highways at noon Wednesday. More than two thirds of the force will be made up of county sheriffs and their regular and special deputies.

In many cases detectives will man the desks permitting deputies to join the state highway force, which will also include about 1,000 state troopers and 300 national guardsmen.

In following the same program as for the four-day Memorial Day weekend, all State Police passes have been canceled from noon Wednesday to midnight Sunday. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

3 Americans Reach Semifinal Round

WIMBLEDON, England — Top-seeded Althea Gibson of New York defeated Sandra Reynolds of South Africa 6-3, 6-4 today to lead three American women into the semi-finals of the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Other U.S. winners were 21-year-old Darlene Hard of California, who upset Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, and Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N. Y., who won over Rosa Maria Reyes of Mexico.

An all-American women's sweep was prevented by a 16-year-old British lass, Christine Truman, who defeated Mrs. Betty Pratt of Jamaica, B.W.I.

Gardner Mulloy of Denver and Budgie Paffy of Los Angeles and Paris upset Ashley Cooper and Mal Anderson of Australia, in the quarter finals of the men's doubles.

Jet Pilot, Down in High Sierras, Rochester Pair Survives Grim 54-Day Ordeal Missing on Trip

CASTLE AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. — Air Force Lt. David A. Steeves grinned through his eight-week beard today and told how he lived 54 days in the night-frozen High Sierra after parachuting from his plane May 9.

"I feel pretty good now," he said. "I had a lot of pain in my legs most of the time. I was just trying to live."

Three weeks ago the Air Force had reported him dead.

Down 50 or 60 pounds from his normal 195, the 25-year-old pilot from Trumbull, Conn., was brought here today from Sequoia-Kings Canyon National Park, where he had stumbled onto a pack party.

"I wasn't religious when I went in there, but it was faith in the Lord that brought me out," he said.

In Trumbull, his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Harold Steeves, said the family had never given up hope although the Air Force had sent them a death certificate and reported their son could not have survived in an area where there was still eight feet of snow.

"I put my faith and trust in God and He certainly did a good job of it," Mrs. Steeves said.

Steeves' wife Rita, also in Trumbull, exulted: "It's true! It's true! It's marvelous! I'm not making much sense, am I?"

Steeves' grim story began shortly after he left May 9 from Hamilton Air Force Base, near San Francisco, for Luke AFB, Ariz., en route to his home base at Craig AFB, Selma, Ala.

EXPLODED IN AIR

He said he never knew what happened to the T-33 jet trainer he was flying solo.

"It just exploded," he told his mother over the telephone.

He said he was knocked out briefly and bailed out when he came to.

He landed at the 11,000-foot level, where there was still much ice and snow.

"I banged up both my ankles pretty bad," he said. "For about a day I couldn't move. Then I was able to crawl." He had his flight jacket to wear over his summer uniform, and wrapped himself in his parachute at night.

"I was cold without the 'chute. I was cold with it. I was cold the whole time I was there," he said. "It's a miracle I didn't get frostbite."

DID 'IMPOSSIBLE'

Steeves said he crawled, hobbled and slid about 12 miles in 15 days until he found a ranger's emergency log cabin tool shed at Simpson Meadows. He crossed an

Andrews, Middlecoff, Stranahan Qualify

ST ANDREWS, Scotland — Gene Andrews of California, Dr. Cary Middlecoff and Frank Stranahan qualified today for the British Open golf championship. Andrews carded 148, Middlecoff 149 and Stranahan 141. Larry Carpenter, Jimmy Thompson (161) and Roger Peacock (153) failed to make the cutoff.

Other Americans were late starters.

Middlecoff posted his qualifying score shortly after Frank Stranahan, two-time British amateur champion who now campaigns on the American pro circuit, had shot a two-under-par 70 on the old course.

Police Searching Lake in Possible Drowning of Couple, Friend

State Police continued searching today for the bodies of an Avon Township engaged couple and their companion, who were believed drowned late yesterday while fishing in Green Lake near Traverse City.

Identified as missing were Wallace Harrington, 27, a factory worker of 2481 Gerald Rd.; Mrs. Dorothy Brown, 26, of the same address, and Harrington's cousin, Melvin Gill, 33, of Mesick, northwest of Cadillac.

ON FISHING TRIP

Harrington has three young children by a previous marriage and Mrs. Brown, one. They had left the area for the fishing trip last Saturday night and were expected to return tomorrow night.

The search began when a resident of Green Lake reported seeing a boat carrying three persons overturn in what sheriff's deputies described as "50 feet of very black, cold muddy water."

The boat was recovered and identification made by tracing an automobile found parked at the lake side. Recovery of the bodies was hampered, however, by the murky water.

Lost: Child, 5; Flying Newlyweds

GRANTS PASS, Ore. — A heavy rain fell in a wooded area west of here last night as some 1,200 volunteers turned out with lights to look for a 5-year-old girl missing since Saturday evening.

Girard's Bride Target of Shakedown Attempt by Japanese 'Friend'

CAMP WHITTINGTON, Japan (U)—William S. Girard and his Japanese fiancée were married today—and promptly found themselves the target of a shakedown attempt by a shopkeeper who had posed as their friend.

Fukuji Shimizu, 34, promoter of a "forgive Girard" campaign and identified by police as a paroled extortioner, demanded two million yen ($5,500) as "condolence money" for the family of the Japanese woman the 21-year-old GI is accused of killing Jan. 30.

The demand was lodged with the bride, Mrs. Haru (Candy) Girard, 27, less than three hours after she had filed at the U. S. Embassy in Tokyo the papers which made her Girard's wife under Japan's laws.

Looking forward to their real marriage Friday when they kneel at the white chapel in this U. S. Army base, Candy found Shimizu waiting for her when she returned from Tokyo to her home village.

Shaken and in tears, she told newsmen of the encounter: "He told me 'The people of Somagahara are angry at you for marrying Girard. You must pay two million yen condolence money to Mr. Akikichi Sakai.'"

Have you ever noticed the effect of temperature on animals and insects outside your house? Certain patterns are followed faithfully by these creatures.

Birds, of course, start south when the temperature begins to drop. How they know just when to leave is a question, and whether they know a winter will be severe or mild one cannot say. But there are many who think they do.

Other creatures follow a definite pattern. Bees, for example, are vicious at less than fifty degrees and ants will stay home at a slightly higher temperature. The calls of the Katydid can be translated into a temperature reading, depending upon the length of the call. Some people believe that the cricket's chirp will give you a temperature reading—the black field cricket—and swear by this formula. At 70 degrees the cricket chirps 129 times and the number of chirps decrease as the temperature drops.

So nature has many tricks concerning the weather, and temperature greatly affects many of her creatures, in definite patterns you can learn to recognize.

She Used 'Positive Thinking, 23rd Psalm' for Courage

Save Woman From Texas Desert

ALPINE, Tex. (U)—A sturdy blonde woman who said she used positive thinking and the 23rd Psalm to keep her courage up was found yesterday after six days of struggling for survival in the burning jumble of rock and sand south of here.

"I got so hot I was frothing at the mouth," Mrs. Wilma White, 46, of Houston, Tex., said of part of her struggle through the Big Bend National Park of West Texas. "I kept repeating the 23rd Psalm: 'Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death...'"

She was spotted yesterday from the air and reached later by horsemen at the tiny cave and trickling spring which sheltered her from temperatures as high as 115 degrees.

Her husband had died in what appeared to be a vain attempt to find her after she set out for help when their station wagon bogged down in the sand near the Rio Grande. They had gone into the rugged Punta de la Sierra range last Tuesday to gather cactus for their garden.

The tall, blue-eyed blonde was badly sunburned and scratched, but not in serious condition.

"I always felt someone would find me," she told relatives.

"You know, I am a believer in positive thinking... at a time like this you cannot lose your head and get frantic. When I saw I was in a fix I figured the best thing to do was stay with the water, and that's what I did."

She said she found the cave and tiny water hole the second day she was lost and decided to stay until someone found her. She said she used rocks to keep her nails pared and combed her blonde hair by using the pool as a mirror. She said she kept track of the days by placing rocks on a ledge.

She ate only a few cactus berries during her ordeal, but said she didn't feel very hungry most of the time.

Yesterday morning was the first time she had heard any of the dozens of search planes which scoured the isolated area along the Mexican border.

"I heard the plane and took off my blouse and waved it," she said. Civil Air Patrol pilot Herbert Ogilvie, who said he flew into the dangerous canyon on impulse after deciding "a man could only die once," waggled his wings to let her know he had spotted her and flew back to arrange the rescue.

Dems Jubilant at Inaugural Luncheon, Mark New Era of Executive Control

LANSING (U)—Gov. Williams set the mood and his fellow Democrats responded with happy applause.

Quoting from an old hymn, Williams declared:

"Oh joy for which creation and all her tribes were made,
"Oh joy for all our former woes,
a thousandfold repaid."

Thus Michigan Democrats started off on a new era yesterday, taking over complete control of the executive branch of government for the first time in history.

More than 400 of the party faithful celebrated the occasion at an inaugural luncheon for Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction; Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, and Chris H. Magnusson, the Democrats' only representative on the three-member Board of Education.

Addressing the gathering, Bartlett lambasted the Republican-controlled Legislature for what he said was their failure to provide adequate revenue for support of public education, especially on the higher education level.

"All over Michigan many people are thinking a superhighway is just around the corner for their town to be built with 50 per cent federal funds," he added. "Actually, of course, only about 10 per cent of state trunkline mileage is entitled to 90-10 federal assistance in a program that has now been extended to 16 years."

To combat the situation, Mackie said he planned to launch a public relations program to keep Michigan Citizens informed of progress made in highway construction.

of our total highway needs and the prospects of meeting those needs," he said.

"Many of our key state and local highway officials are responsible for this," he said. "Many were just plain hypnotized by the recent enactment of the Federal Highway Bill."

"Subsequent optimistic announcements from both informed and rather uninformed sources have had the effect of convincing the public this bill was a cure-all for our highway needs."

Schone Raps Cobo 'Snub' to Regional Planning Unit

The Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission has been snubbed by Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, a Birmingham executive member said today.

Birmingham City Manager Harold K. Schone said the plan commission had not been told in advance of Cobo's recently announced plans for a co-ordinated metropolitan area transportation system.

Schone, an Oakland County supervisor and a member of the commission's executive board, said the planning group should take "a major role" in the proposed study.

"Although we've been invited to attend the first meeting next Tuesday," he said, "we have yet to be told what part we have to play."

Next week's meeting will be the first phase of a plan that eventually will seek help from federal, state and county organizations.

"That survey took a lot of time and a lot of money," Schone observed. "It should prove invaluable to a transportation study, unless the mayor thinks for some reason it is necessary to duplicate it with another survey."

The commission's survey is of highway use and highway needs, and from it, Schone pointed out, can be gathered information on the financial feasibility of providing transportation systems along major routes, many of them in Oakland County.

MAKES ME SICK

Bartlett said "It just makes me a little sick" to consider the Legislature's refusal to appropriate any money for new construction at colleges and universities.

"We know," he said, "that Michigan State University has had to limit its enrollment for the next year, that Eastern Michigan College limited its enrollment this past year, and that many more of our state institutions of higher learning will have to do likewise in the next few years unless a reasonable and logical capital improvement program is maintained."

"How can we allow such actions to take place when we know that the need for trained manpower in all fields of endeavor is greater in our country today than ever before in the history of our nation," he declared. "To me, it is absolutely incomprehensible that such action can take place."

HITS INADEQUATE AID

Bartlett also assailed the $190 per pupil state aid formula for primary and secondary schools as inadequate.

"In terms of my own department," he added, "there will be less money on which to operate next year than there was this year—even though there will be an increase of some 70,000 pupils in the public schools of our state."

Mackie said his men already had started to correct highway deficiencies which he said "have too often been underestimated or minimized."

"Michigan will require over 3,000 miles of four-lane divided highways to meet future needs and presently less than 200 of these miles are up to standard," he said.

"Of the 1,000 miles of express type highways needed on our vital interstate highway system, less than 100 are up to standard and open to traffic."

UP'S ROAD FIGURE

At a reception for department employees last night, Mackie said he had learned the cost for reconstructing the 1,000 miles of interstate highway routes would amount to 1 1/2 billion dollars, about 300 million over the original estimate submitted to the federal government.

"There is a vast lack of understanding by the general public

FEARS DUPLICATION

Noah Henry Lee, 31, of 269 Orchard Lake Ave., will appear in Municipal Court July 11 to face charges on $41 worth of traffic tickets.

He is free on a personal bond granted by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum until trial.

Kalamazoo Moms Find Answer

Babysitting No Problem!

KALAMAZOO (U)—A perplexing problem in babysitting has been solved to the satisfaction of the mothers in suburban Milwood.

It's working so well they are recommending it to their friends in other parts of the city and even in other parts of Michigan.

They have formed a "corporation" and struck off paper money in two denominations—one calling for a half hour's service and the other a full hour's. They would have a hard time buying groceries with their "coins," but it's a fine medium of exchange in the Milwood circle for mothers needing the services of a baby sitter.

To begin with, one of the mothers out paper pieces and marked each with its value. Then the lot was equally divided among the charter members. There's a strict ban against borrowing or "counterfeiting," of course.

When a mother wants to go shopping, get her hair fixed or visit the doctor's office, she gets one of her fellow members to babysit for her and pays her in coins of the corporation's mintage. If she accumulates a surplus, as she does whenever she goes through a considerable period of time without using a baby sitter, she is supposed to "speed up" her demands on her fellow members. If, on the other hand, she begins running short, she stays at home long enough to "balance her budget."

OK Predicted on Defense Bill

Senators See Approval Today on Biggest Sum of Session

WASHINGTON (U)—Senate leaders predicted passage today of the biggest appropriations bill of the session — the $34,534,229,000 defense money measure.

Leaders said they expect passage in just the form the bill came from the senate appropriations committee.

That group put back into the bill $971,504,000 of the $2,565,275,000 in reductions voted by the House. Differences will be worked out in a conference.

President Eisenhower asked restoration of only about $1,200,000,000 of the House cuts. The administration regarded the remainder as largely bookkeeping transactions which would not affect spending in the year ahead.

One Democrat, Sen. Douglas of Illinois, urged the Senate to accept the House cuts. He announced he would offer an amendment to have the Senate take these reductions, but then add 500 million dollars to the measure for Army and Marine combat troops.

In yesterday's debate, Douglas charged the armed services with "fantastic" and "shocking" waste. He read from dozens of contracts which he said showed money was spent for swimming pools, diaper service, golf courses and other items he described as luxuries.

Mayor William Roberts said that even though this may be the case the city commission has no power to make decisions on recreation. It was pointed out that the city and the school are participating and supporting members of the recreation board but that the latter is an independent authorized group whose sole responsibility is recreation.

"MUST BE ALERT"

Joseph A. Childs, State Police commissioner, said today that in order to hold down the anticipated highway death count "drivers must remember that in the heavy holiday period traffic they must be unusually alert."

Childs urged motorists to watch weather conditions, obey traffic regulations, and to guard against the mistakes of others.

In 1956, a total of 23 persons was killed during a three-day Independence Day weekend. However, Oakland County officials and motorists are shooting at much more—they have a clean record to maintain.

No one has died in accidents over the July 4 holiday for the past two years in the county, and furthermore, no one was killed last Labor Day weekend nor on the recent four-day Memorial Day holiday.

County officials are hoping to maintain this outstanding safety record, but they realize the biggest job lies in the hands of the motorist.

"PLENTY OF TIME"

"Be sure to leave early enough to give yourself plenty of time to reach your destination at safe speeds," said Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons. "Being late is the major excuse of speeders, and a poor one when lives are at stake."

"One of the major causes of accidents is following the car ahead too closely," he continued. "Be sure to allow yourself enough room to come to a safe stop."

He also added that "fatigued drivers are a constant hazard. Don't drive if you're overtired."

Hugh Rutter, Local 83, United Dairy Workers, financial secretary; Walter Eberle, president of the Royal Oak Government Workers' Local 270, sergeant-at-arms; Norman Mallory, GMC Truck & Coach Local 594, UAW, guide.

Elected as trustees for the 1957 term were Albert Wilkinson, Local 125, United Rubber Workers; Richard Crowner, Local 711, UAW, of the National Twist Drill & Tool Co. at Rochester, and Earl Anderson, Local 105 of the Consumers Power Utility Workers.

Of the 41,000 ballots possible, 31,078 were cast by delegates. The council, with offices at 21 1/2 E. Lawrence St., was organized June 26, 1939.

Jailed in Gun Violation

Ervin B. Burton, of 383 Bloomfield Ave., was ordered committed to the Oakland County Jail for 35 days Monday by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum after he pleaded guilty to the charge of possessing an unregistered .38 caliber revolver.

He was given the longer jail sentence after he failed to pay a $100 fine plus 15 days in jail.

The Day in Birmingham Pool Fee Problem Sent to the Recreation Board

BIRMINGHAM (U)—City commissioners last night refused to become involved in the swimming pool fee problem between protesting residents and the recreation board.

Commissioners told the group that all recreation charges are levied by that body and that any changes should necessarily come from them.

A petition signed by nearly 300 residents was referred by commissioners to the recreation board. The board's next meeting is scheduled for July 11 at which time the question will probably be taken up.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Goode led the discussion in behalf of petitioners in asking the fee adjustment. Mrs. Goode pointed out that should they go to the recreation board and then be referred to the board of Education, which also participates in the program, the swimming season will be ended before any action can be taken.

The city has authorized the purchase of a truck for the Forestry and Parks Dept. with Rice O'Green as the successful bidder.

Additional truck purchases saw successful bid from Floyd Rice Sales and Service for three dump trucks for a purchase of $3,150 per unit.

A public hearing has been scheduled for July 15 for the installation of a sidewalk along Derby road from Eton to the Grand Trunk line.

It was pointed out that the city has the authority to order this sidewalk in, without a public hearing. The hearing is being granted purely because so many people in the area have expressed keen interest in the sidewalk installation.

Van Atta Not Mentioned at Area Board Meeting

All was quiet in the case of dismissed Waterford Township Police Chief Frank J. Van Atta at last night's weekly board meeting.

Neither friend nor foe of Van Atta appeared with anticipated petitions for or against his reinstatement.

"PACKED TO CAPACITY"

The town hall was packed to capacity, as it has been the last several weeks, but no mention of the chief's dismissal was made.

He was released from the force June 21 because of budget reductions. However, his supporters have circulated petitions asking for a trial board hearing.

Those opposed to his reinstatement are also circulating petitions. This was the recommendation of Trustee Charles Pappas in order to determine "the pulse of the public" on this matter.

REZONE LAND

Of major interest to those attending last evening's session was the rezoning of Williams Lake road property from residential to commercial. Board members turned thumbs down on the project on the strength of the Oakland County Zoning board's disapproval due to "ribbon-type" zoning in the township.

The property is in the Burlingham Lake Park Subdivision extended from the railroad tracks to Coventry avenue.

The board approved the low bid of the Howell Construction Co. for paving of Crescent Lake road from M59 to Hatchery road.

The bid for the one mile stretch of road was $13,953.38. The township pays $6,976.69 as its share. The Oakland County Road Commission matches this figure.

Payroll saving bonds for township employees were approved by the board and Treasurer Dorothy Olson was authorized to deduct bond payments for those desiring such service.

Board members tabled a "hunting in Waterford Township" referendum for further study.

The State Legislature has approved the referendum for hunting in the area. Supervisor Elmer Johnson told the group that it now can be voted on by the people at the next regular election.

According to the treasurer's report there is $10,000 less in the township funds this month than last. Balance to July 1 is $74,302.14. There was $35,029.28 dispersed and

Way to Tragic Fourth: Smuggle In Fireworks

By DOROTHY V. WHIFFLE, M.D.
AP Newsfeature Writer

Fireworks are not toys. They are dangerous explosives and should not be in the hands of children or even of inexperienced adults. Every year many children and adults suffer painful injuries or blindness because of fireworks.

A federal law passed in 1954 makes it illegal to ship fireworks into 33 states and the District of Columbia, except for controlled public exhibitions.

However, in spite of this law there exists a prosperous black market in bootlegged fireworks which again will spell needless tragedy for some Americans this Fourth of July.

There is one family who won't have fireworks this year, and Joe

Sparks would like to shout his experience from the housetops to prevent other families from suffering as he has suffered.

PLANNED TO CELEBRATE

Last year the Sparks family planned a big celebration in their backyard for the Fourth. Joe knew where he could get the fireworks that to him meant the grand and glorious Fourth.

They couldn't be bought in his state, but by driving 20 miles he could reach another state where fireworks were sold. He knew he was not supposed to carry them across a state line but he felt quite sure he would never be searched. So he made the trip and put in a good supply.

He bought firecrackers, pin-wheels, Roman candles and a few skyrockets. He planned carefully.

After the picnic supper the children all sat around in a circle while he placed and lighted the fireworks. All went well until almost the end. Joe lighted a Roman candle and nothing happened. He left it in place and finished up with all the rest of the fireworks.

Young Jackie had his eye on that Roman candle that didn't go off, so when the party was about over he ran up to the apparently dead candle.

Just as he peered down into the barrel the thing exploded right into his face. Jackie was knocked over and when his terrified father picked him up his little face was a blackened mass.

He was rushed to the hospital but not all of the skill of the best doctors could save Jackie's eyes. Both eyes were so badly damaged that Jackie must go through the rest of life without the blessing of sight.

Such tragedies are completely unnecessary. Good times can be just as good without the use of dangerous explosives for amusement.

There are, of course, sparklers and other types of special Fourth of July celebrations that are safe and fun.

In addition big public displays of fireworks are beautiful to see and are managed by experienced operators who protect themselves and the spectators from injury.

In addition to the danger of such terrible tragedies as happened to Jackie Sparks, it's not too good for the children to take part in any bootlegged activity.

We want our children to respect the law of the land and to obey it and not to feel it's smart to hoodwink the authorities.

Tip on Cleaning White Shoes

The first step in cleaning white canvas or linen shoes is to scrub off mud and surface dirt with thickly beaten soap or detergent suds.

Rinse with a cloth wrung from clean warm water. Then apply a whitening polish intended for fabric shoes and allow to dry away from heat.

The final step is to brush or rub off excess white powder.

Medics Study Flu Outbreak

200 Afflicted in Iowa but Officials Regard It as 'Very Mild'

GRINNELL, Iowa (U)—Iowa and federal health officers today studied an epidemic of influenza here which afflicted 200 persons at a national Presbyterian youth assembly.

The Westminster Fellowship National Assembly, sponsored by the Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A. was attended by 1,800 persons. It was adjourned one day early yesterday because of the outbreak.

Dr. Edmund G. Zimmerman, state health commissioner, referred to it as an "epidemic," but a U. S. Public Health Service physician said the cases were "very mild."

One of the first reactions was whether the outbreak was Asian influenza which has spread out of China to other parts of the world. Although this type flu is believed to have reached the West Coast, Dr. Zimmerman said no cases have yet definitely been diagnosed in this country.

Nineteen of the first 22 cases reported beginning last Friday were delegates from California. A Nevada youth who traveled with the Californians also became ill. Many of those who were stricken had roomed with the Californians.

The illness produces a sore throat, backache and fever.

Dr. Tom Chin of the U. S. Public Health Service's communicable disease center at Kansas City said the illness "is not serious, it runs about two days."

Assembly officials said parents of all those taken ill were to be notified.

Buses destined for Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Tennessee and Kansas left here yesterday. All of the early diagnosed cases have recovered, officials said.

Hoping to Save Life of Toscanini's Kin

SAN REMO, Italy (U)—Sonia Horowitz, injured granddaughter of the late Arturo Toscanini, was reported "slightly improved" this morning.

Hospital attendants said she was still unconscious, but they quoted one of her doctors as saying, "At least now there is hope she can be saved."

The 22-year-old girl, daughter of pianist Vladimir Horowitz and Wanda Toscanini, fractured her skull Sunday night when she crashed into a light pole after losing control of a motor scooter she was riding.

Miss Horowitz is visiting relatives in San Remo. Her mother was reported trying to get plane passage from New York.

City Resident Arrested on Desertion Charge

Charles W. Brown, special agent in charge of the Detroit FBI office, said yesterday bureau agents had arrested Osmar Rhenhart Kipfer at 231 Osmun St., Pontiac, charged with being a deserter from the Army.

Kipfer, who was using the name Fred Stevens, deserted the Army at Fort Hood, Texas, on Jan. 24, 1955, Brown said.

Since his desertion he has been in Pensacola, Fla., Bay City and Flint.

He is married and has a child. He will be turned over to military authorities, Brown said.

It requires 40 materials and 125 processes to make an average lead pencil, yellow colors still preferred.

Asks Congress to Help Algeria

Sen. Kennedy Blasts 'French Empire Myth,' U.S. Support of It

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) asked Congress today to put pressure on the Eisenhower administration to use its influence "in shaping a course toward political independence for Algeria."

Kennedy, chairman of a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee on United Nations affairs, said the United States must abandon what he called its "head-in-the-sands" policy and "the myth of a French empire."

"The problem is to save the French nation as well as free Africa," he said.

In a speech prepared for the Senate, Kennedy voiced a sweeping indictment of French policies in Algeria and United States support of them.

He offered a resolution calling on the Senate and House to authorize President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles to act promptly to:

1. Apply United States influence to achieve a solution which will recognize the independent personality of Algeria and establish the basis for a settlement interdependent with France and the neighboring nations.

2. Undertake to exert this influence either through the North Atlantic Treaty Organization or through the "good offices" of the Prime Minister of Tunisia and the Sultan of Morocco.

3. "Support an international effort to derive for Algeria, the basis for an orderly achievement of independence" when the United Nations General Assembly meets in the fall, if earlier efforts fail to achieve "substantial progress" by then.

Kennedy said Algeria "is no longer a problem for the French alone—nor will it ever be again." He said the United States position on Algeria has been marked by "rapid encouragement and moralizations to both sides" and an obvious desire "not to become involved."

"We have thus deceived ourselves into believing that we have thus pleased both sides and displeased no one with this head-in-the-sands policy—when, in truth, we have earned the suspicion of all," he added.

It's Time for Divorce, so North Goes South

EL PASO, Tex. (U)—Actress Sherree North has filed for a divorce from screen writer Bud Freeman.

The suit, filed yesterday in Civil Court at Juarez, Mexico, charged incompatibility and mental cruelty. In Hollywood, Miss North's attorney said the Freemans have signed a property settlement, and that Freeman isn't expected to contest the divorce.

Miss North and Freeman were married Feb. 20, 1955, and separated last March. They do not have any children.

Anti-noise ordinances date back to as early as 1831.

boy-like character of this girl in the sky.

With the "Lady Lindy" on the scheduled round-the-world flight, was navigator Frederick J. Noonan.

The daring fliers had neared the end of a 2,550-mile overwater hop from Lae, New Guinea, to Howland Island.

The first indication of trouble, a radio message at 7:42 a. m. July 2, 1937, said:

"We must be on you but cannot see you. Gas is running low. Been unable to reach you by radio."

The Coast Guard cutter Itasca, stationed near the island, tried frantically to bring Miss Earhart's twin engine plane to a safe landing. It broadcast directions, but at 7:58 a. m. came this message from the unseen plane:

"We are circling but cannot hear you."

Forty-eight minutes later—at 8:46 a. m.—came a brief, flickering, final radio signal.

There followed one of history's greatest sea searches in the vicinity of Howland Island, 1,660 nautical miles southwest of the Hawaiian Islands.

The search involved more than 3,000 men, 10 ships, 100 American planes and many Japanese navy aircraft. It cost the American government more than a million dollars.

No trace of the fliers or plane ever was found.

"I just fly because I want to," Miss Earhart often said in her efforts to prove planes could fly anywhere, and women could pilot them.

She took her first flying lessons at Los Angeles in 1918, when she was 20 and a student at University of Southern California. She soloed after only 10 hours instruction, and two years later went up to 14,000 feet, an altitude record for women at that time.

Ten years later the world's horizons stretched before her.

She flew across the Atlantic with Wilmer Stultz and Louis Gordon in the tri-engine monoplane "Friendship," landing at Burry Port, Wales.

The first woman to cross the Atlantic by plane became a new and shy heroine.

She soloed the Atlantic in 1932, and on Jan. 11, 1935, flew from Hawaii to Oakland alone in 18 hours and 16 minutes.

"That landing is something I'll never forget," she told a dinner in her honor. "It is in the diary of my heart. It has made Oakland my favorite airport and one of my favorite cities."

She and Noonan took off quietly from Oakland on May 20, 1937, on their world flight, going first to Miami. They made history, traveling 22,000 miles before they reached New Guinea June 29.

The global flight was to have ended in Oakland where her husband, publisher George Palmer Putnam, awaited her.

Also waiting anxiously were her mother, Mrs. Amy Otis Earhart, who said she wanted to be present "when my child comes home," and Noonan's bride of only three months, Mary.

There were rumors that the Japanese had imprisoned Miss Earhart and Noonan, perhaps because they had flown over island fortifications.

These stories persisted for many years—perhaps because people wanted to believe Miss Earhart and her navigator were still alive. But today all such hopes of survival have vanished.

Actor Wants Freedom, Wife Gives It to Him

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U)—Actor Gerald Mohr, star of the "Foreign Intrigue" television series, has been divorced on his wife's testimony that he "just wanted his freedom."

Mrs. Rita Mohr charged cruelty and told Superior Court Judge Mohr, 42, wouldn't accept emotional responsibilities of a family. They had been married nearly 20 years.

If you put medium-sized sweet potatoes into a hot oven, they'll bake in about half an hour.

Is there a rice in your kitchen? Then rice boiled potatoes directly into a serving dish and top with thin slices of butter and a dusting of paprika. The potatoes stay fluffy this way.

Pick Miss Utica at 11th Event

Fourth of July Festival and Parade Expected to Draw Thousands

UTICA — Gov. G. Mennen Williams will have a two-fold job here July 4 when he crowns "Miss Utica" and acts as marshal for the Utica Lions' 11th annual Fourth of July parade.

It will be the eighth straight year Gov. Williams has led the Utica parade that brings up to 25,000 spectators to this little town of 2,000 residents.

Accompanying the Governor will be Lt. Gov. Phillip Hart. Gov. Williams will crown "Miss Utica" at 9:30 a.m. in downtown Utica. "Miss Utica" will be one of the three top contestants of a beauty contest held last month, Carol Parrott, Charlotte Haupt or Bette Zale.

After the queen-crowning ceremony, Gov. Williams will lead a parade of some 20 floats, high school bands, marching units and horse entries from Utica to Ramona park. The parade will get under way at 10 a.m.

Following the parade, there will be an all-day celebration at the park, climaxed by a giant fireworks display at 10 p.m.

Games and entertainment are planned for both children and adults at the park located on M59 at the western city limits of Utica. Highlighting the entertainment will be helicopter rides over the Utica area.

Carl Burandt is general chairman of the day's activities. Chairman of the parade for the 11th straight year is Harry Magahay.

Pilot Rides Bomber to Death in Canyon

CALABASAS, Calif. (AP) — A pilot who said he'd never drop a plane on anyone's house rode a flaming plywood bomber across the populous San Fernando Valley to his death yesterday.

James Keith Gibbs, 31, died in the crash of a war-surplus British Mosquito bomber.

The twin-engine craft dove into a canyon and exploded about 30 air miles northwest of Los Angeles.

Gibbs had a parachute and, evidently thinking of using it, released his escape hatch. It fell on the grounds of Pierce Junior College in the valley.

But a long-time friend, pilot Jack Ford, recalled: "He had said he'd never drop a plane on someone's house. He had enough altitude to get back to the airport. But with a fire you can't tell how long a wooden airplane will stay together."

Gibbs, employed by an aerial photography firm, lived in Van Nuys, a few miles from the Palmdale schoolyard where a flaming airliner crashed with severe loss of life last Jan. 31.

He was to have been married this month.

Waterford Twp. Youth Injured While Bicycling

James M. Major, 14, of 359 Hickory Lane, Waterford Township, was injured while riding his bicycle through the intersection of Crescent Lake road and Pleasant street at 6:30 last night.

He was hit by a car driven by Mrs. Edith C. Lewis, 42, of 150 N. Avery St., Waterford Township.

Mrs. Lewis told township police she swerved to miss the boy, but he seemed to lose control of his bike and rode in front of her car.

He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital with abrasions of the head and right knee and a fractured right shoulder. His condition is described as "good."

CONSTITIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloot or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H and STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery, possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions. It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98¢ for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2¢ per tablet.

SASHABAW PLAINS — Sandra Lorraine Scarborough, Westview drive, became the bride of James Richard Dale Saturday at an 8 p.m. candlelight ceremony in New Hope Bible Church.

The bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace with a bateau neckline and long, tapered sleeves. Sprays of the rose patterned lace encircled the bouffant skirt of blossom white tulle. The fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a princess hat of lace and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of carnations and lilies of the valley.

Kay Sharon Scarborough was her sister's maid of honor, Cheri Nan Littleton of Clarkson, was bridesmaid.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Hubert Belcher.

Lapeer Divides Bloody District in Metamora

METAMORA — The Blood school district, a closed school in Metamora township, has been divided by the Lapeer County Board of Education under authority of the present state law.

The major portion of the district has been annexed to Dryden, and part of the north section of the district to Metamora. Children of the district have been attending both Dryden and Metamora districts.

Dryden maintains a high school, while Metamora has only an elementary school, sending its high school students to either Lapeer or Dryden in the past.

Lapeer is now refusing to accept any more tuition high school students, which is an indication that all Metamora's ninth graders will have to go to Dryden. No plans are under way for Metamora to annex to a high school district at the present time.

The annual school meeting at Metamora will be held on Monday, at 9 p.m., at the schoolhouse.

Seek to Avoid Partisan Bias

Special Citizens Group Will Be Given Hand in State Tax Research

LANSING (AP) — Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton) says the Citizens' Advisory Committee for his study of the state's tax structure will be given a hand in directing research.

This will be done, Conlin said yesterday, "so no one can charge partisan bias or motivation."

Conlin's statement followed one from Gov. Williams who said he was "thoroughly disappointed" that the legislature rejected his idea for putting the study entirely in the hands of a "blue ribbon" citizens group.

"Instead, the legislature has two committees in progress, both of them under Republican partisan control," the Democratic governor said.

"Does anybody think they will find they were wrong in adopting the business activities tax and the new taxes on cigarettes a liquor over my protest?" he asked.

"What we need is a truly impartial study by a group which is not beholden to anyone in public office — a group of citizens who can approach this question from the viewpoint of economics and not politics."

Conlin, who has a date with Williams tomorrow on the tax study matter, said he considered the Citizens' Advisory Committee, he has in mind as one that would measure up to Williams' prescription.

Skidding Wheat Declines Again

CHICAGO (AP)—The reaction in wheat futures continued on the board of trade today following recent sharp advances.

More favorable weather for harvesting, hedging sales and a lack of export or flour business caused weakness in wheat, which dipped more than a cent in some cases on top of yesterday's losses.

Who's Counting? Asks Producer Todd to Dish Out $20,000 at London Party for 1,700

LONDON (AP)—Film producer Mike Todd is throwing a party for 1,700 people tonight which may set him back as much as $200,000.

And here's one for the tax collector. Even if the festivities are launching Mike's movie, "Around the World in 80 Days," he's not writing the party off as advertising and business expense. A spokesman said the fun and games after the film are "purely a private affair... so the tax question doesn't arise there."

The big binge will begin with the film premiere — for charity — at the Astoria Theater. That will cost Todd 30,000 pounds—$84,000.

After the show the guests will cross the Thames River on five bar-equipped steamboats and take over the Battersea Festival Gardens.

Thief Replaces Window

Fate of Benjamin Franklin Trust Fund May Be Decided by Special Group

BOSTON (INS)—The fate of a thousand pound trust fund left by Benjamin Franklin in 1790, that has since grown to nearly $1,500,000 may be decided by a special legislative commission.

A resolve to create the commission was on the desk of Governor Foster Furcolo after having had necessary readings and been passed to be enacted by both branches of the legislature.

PART OF SALARY
The original 1000 pounds represents part of the salary that the American statesman received, according to a codicil in his will, as "president" of Pennsylvania. Another 1000 pounds went to Pennsylvania.

Franklin maintained that, in a "democratical" state, there ought to be no office of profit. Therefore, he left his salary for various public purposes.

The money left in Massachusetts was to be used for loans to young married artificers under 25, who had served their apprenticeships, and who wished to set up their own business. Rate of interest was set at five per cent.

NO LOANS ISSUED
No loans have been issued under the fund, since the Civil War. But the Franklin Institute in Boston was founded.

Under Franklin's will, the entire amount in the fund in 1990 — 200 years after his death — which he estimated would then be 4,061,000 pounds — would go to the City of Boston and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The city would receive 26.74 per cent, the commonwealth the remainder.

As of last June 30, there was actually $1,418,000 in the fund which would mean that, if divided at once, Boston would receive $369,000; the commonwealth $1,049,000.

"At present," the trustees maintain, "the fund serves no public purpose but simply accumulated by the addition of the income to principal."
