LECTURE: Michigan Supreme Court Justice Theodore Souris will address students at the regular meeting of Mr. Heubel's class at 11 a.m., Monday, November 6, in 156 NFH. His lecture, especially directed to the students of the University's basic course in political science, will include his estimation of improvements in Michigan's judicial system which he believes should be considered at the Constitutional Convention now in progress. Faculty, staff, and students interested in attending the lecture are welcome to occupy space not used by members of the class.

DEBATE: The U.S. Military Academy and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy debate teams, participating in the national Debate Days Tournament, will meet at 1 p.m., Monday, November 6, in the Oakland Center Lounge. Students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

CONCERT: Pianist Eugene List, celebrated veteran of more than 2,000 concerts in the United States, Europe, Asia, and South America, will appear at 8:15 p.m., ^{Tuesday} November 7, at Pontiac Northern High School, under the sponsorship of the MSUO-Community Arts Council. Tickets are available in the Dean of Students' office.

FILMS: Two films, "The Renaissance in Italy" and "Leonardo da Vinci: Giant of the Renaissance," will be introduced by Mr. Straka at 12 noon, Wednesday, November 8, in 156 NFH. This is the seventh event in the 12-series Collateral Program sponsored by the Western Institutions department.

TREE PLANTING: Chancellor Varner has designated Saturday, November 11, as "T" Day and invites students, faculty, staff, and their families to participate in the tree planting on campus, commencing at 9 a.m. The Oakland Center will provide inexpensive lunches and occasional free coffee during the course of the day. The trees are a gift from Mr. C. Allen Harlan, a member of the Board of Trustees, who has committed himself to helping make this campus the most beautiful college campus in America.
