The 1956 major league baseball campaign opens today in weather ranging from downright cold in the Midwest to crisp on the Atlantic seaboard.

Anticipated crowds were generally small, running from 20,000 at the meeting of the Red Sox and Baltimore Orioles in Boston to 50,000 in Detroit where the Tigers took on Kansas City.

President Eisenhower was scheduled to make the first pitch in Washington where the Senators met the New York Yankees before 28,500.

* * *

Windy and cold weather with scattered light showers were predicted after light snow flurries fell on Detroit early in the morning.

The annual pre-game ceremonies featured Gov. Williams pitching the first ball to Detroit Common Council President Louis C. Miriani, subbing for Mayor Albert E. Cobo, currently vacationing in Arizona.

Detroit third baseman Ray Boone, the team's top slugger, who was plagued by dizzy spells during the last few days of the exhibition tour, has been given a clean bill of health by club physicians.

Many Tiger fans hold big hopes for the Bengals despite a disastrous spring exhibition run in which they dropped 19 and won 11 contests.

The Tigers were welcomed home yesterday with a parade and civic banquet that Manager Bucky Harris called "the greatest reception ever accorded a baseball team."

* * *

The Brooklyn Dodgers, flaunting their first world championship flag, sent their big ace, Don Newcombe, out to pitch against the National League's best, Robin Roberts, as they met the Philadelphia Phillies at Ebbets Field.

In Milwaukee the temperature was not much above freezing as the Braves faced the Chicago Cubs. Despite the cold the park's 46,000 seats were virtually sold out.

New York was sunny with the mercury close to 50. Only 25,000 were drawn to the Polo Grounds where the New York Giants, performing under their new manager, Bill Rigney, took on the Pittsburgh Pirates, also under a new pilot, Bobby Bragan.

The weather was cloudy and cold at Cincinnati where the Cincinnati Reds faced the St. Louis Cardinals before 30,000. The same conditions prevailed in Chicago for the meeting of the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago White Sox.

Car Fire Claims Life of Boy, 5

Jeffrey Williams Jr. Dies in City Hospital of Multiple Burns

Playing with matches was given today as the possible cause of a blaze in an abandoned auto which claimed the life of a five year old Independence Township boy yesterday.

Jeffrey Williams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols, of 5570 Perry Lake Rd., died in Pontiac General Hospital at 6:30 p.m. yesterday.

According to hospital authorities, he had received severe burns over 90 per cent of his body.

State Police said they were unable to determine how the blaze began, and theorized he may have been playing with matches.

Nichols found his son in the abandoned car, and started for the hospital, but his car broke down near the State Police Post. The youth was transported the remainder of the distance in an ambulance.

Television May Replace the Rear View Mirror

BOSTON (AP) — The Universal Broadcast System, Inc., says the rear view mirror in the automobile of the future may be replaced by a televised view of the road behind.

The company says a small camera will be mounted in the car's rear trunk to flash views through closed-circuit television onto a 4 by 6 inch screen on the dashboard.

Dems Are Cool to Ike's Plea for Soil Bank

But Drive to Override Farm Bill Veto Seems Doomed to Failure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Key Democrats reacted coldly today to President Eisenhower's new request for a soil bank program while they awaited the outcome of an uphill House attempt to override his veto of the farm bill.

That effort, due tomorrow, seemed doomed to fall short of mustering the two-thirds margin required.

Political debate over the veto and over responsibility for the decline in farm income was stepped up.

Eisenhower, in a nationwide television and radio broadcast last night explaining his veto, insisted that politics had not entered into his decision.

"I will always resist any attempt to make the farmer and his problems a political football," he said.

Declaring that he had vetoed the big farm bill with keen disappointment, he said:

"I had no choice. I could not sign this bill into law because it was a bad bill. In the months ahead, it would hurt more farmers than it would help. In the long run it would hurt all farmers. It was a bad bill for the country."

* * *

Eisenhower urged again that Congress act speedily to approve his soil bank program. It is designed to pay farmers subsidies totaling as much as $1,200,000,000 yearly for taking land out of production of crops already in surplus. They would sign contracts with the government to do so.

MORE FARM AID

This time, Eisenhower added a new feature he said would give farmers an extra 500 million dollars this year.

"By a simple provision in the Soil Bank Act," he said, "the Congress can authorize this government to begin making payments to a maximum of 50 per cent after the farmer signs a contract.

"Thus immediately after July 1, 1956, farmers who agree to participate . . . will be eligible for payment. These initial payments will help our farmers this crop year."

Eisenhower said the remaining 50 per cent of the amount any farmer was entitled to for participation would be paid when he had complied with his agreement to take land out of cash production and put it to conservation uses.

Here are major points of the farm program as it now shapes up:

WHEAT — The crop is being grown — for the third consecutive year — under rigid marketing quotas which limit sales to production on 55 million acres, divided up among growers. To be supported at $2 a bushel or 84 per cent of parity compared with

PRINCE RAINIER III AND MISS GRACE KELLY

Just Like a Fairy Tale

Grace Weds Tomorrow

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Grace Kelly lunched with Prince Rainier III today for the last time as an American girl from Philadelphia.

The film queen marries the ruler of this little Riviera principality of Monaco in a civil ceremony in the throne room of his palace shortly before noon tomorrow. Religious rites will follow Thursday in the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Monaco.

Friends described the bride-to-be as "looking simply radiant." One quoted her as saying:

"Everything is working out wonderfully. Just like a fairy tale, and even the sun has come out."

* * *

For four days rain has poured in torrents, drenching this usually sunny resort on the blue Mediterranean. Today things were more like the travel posters.

SUN COMES OUT

The sun burst forth early in the morning, sending thousands of visitors and tourists to the flag-decorated square in front of the palace. Most of the sky was blue but fleecy clouds hung over the nearby mountains, to the delight of camera bugs.

* * *

The temperature was in the 60s. The weatherman said the "prospects for fair weather for the wedding tomorrow are good."

To one of his friends the Prince confided:

"My God, I'll be glad when this is over. What I need is the silence of the sea — with Grace."

Rainier and Grace will sail away Thursday after the religious ceremony on his yacht, the Deo Juvante II.

As the Prince fretted, Grace went about the palace smiling and laughing.

Last night was given over to excited pre-wedding girl-talk.

GRACE ENTERTAINS

Grace was hostess to her bridesmaids at a gay party in Rainier's palace. The Prince, who is living at his villa until after the weddings, was present for awhile, but the occasion was strictly for the girls.

Rainier also was in the background at yesterday's rehearsal for the religious ceremony. He took no active part while Grace and her mother Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia went through the rehearsal motions.

Both Grace and Rainier appeared nervous but they managed smiles for photographers. The Prince even romped a bit with one of the children who is to participate in the wedding.

As the time for the wedding ceremonies approached, more

Meany Calls Showdown on Teamsters-ILA Setup

WASHINGTON (INS)—AFL-CIO President George Meany called for a showdown today on the working alliance between the big Teamsters' Union and the independent International Longshoremen's Association.

Meany announced that the issue is being deferred to a special meeting of the 29-man AFL-CIO Executive Council in Washington May 1.

The question which will come before the council is whether the teamsters have violated the AFL-CIO constitution by their agreement with the ILA, which was ousted from the old AFL in September 1953 on charges of gangster domination.

Meany announced the council meeting following a face-to-face conference with President Dave Beck of the teamsters. He and Beck disagreed on the question as to whether the teamsters are violating the federation constitution.

Beck declared, on leaving Meany's office, that "my position is no different from what it

L. Harvey Lodge to Seek State Post

Former Michigan Assistant Attorney General L. Harvey Lodge today announced he will seek the Republican nomination for State Senator from Oakland County.

Lodge, 53, a Pontiac attorney and counselor at law, has been Oakland County prosecutor, Pontiac State Representative, and Director and president of the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

A graduate of Milford High School, he did undergraduate work and took his law degree from the University of Michigan. He lives in Drayton Plains.

Company Allots $8 Million for Ten Substations

New Installations Bring Electric Power Uptake to Entire Area

A major expansion program, involving the expenditure of $8 million to strengthen Oakland County's electric power supply in 1956, was revealed today by officials of the Detroit Edison Co.

The sum, to be spent to expand and construct 10 substations in the area, is part of $95 million which the utilities firm will spend on systemwide improvement aimed at keeping the electric power supply in Oakland County well ahead of the steadily increasing demand.

Howard L. Canfield, manager of Edison's Oakland district, said the $95 million will provide for continuation of work on the new River Rouge power plant, the construction of 34 distribution sub-stations, the building of new transmission and distribution lines, and the expansion of 18 existing distribution stations.

He added the additions will help insure an ample supply of electric power to meet the needs of 35,000 new customers the company expects to be serving this year.

The company's investment in Oakland, Macomb and western Wayne counties will exceed $20.5 million, Canfield stated.

BOOST ROUGE PLANT

About $40 million of the 1956 construction budget will be invested in the River Rouge plant where one 260,000 kilowatt unit went into operation early this year.

With the completion of two more units in 1957, a total of 820,000 kilowatts will be added to Edison's pool of electrical energy which can be drawn upon from any locality in the company's 7,600 square mile area.

Edison now serves 550,000 in Oakland County and expects an increase of 40,000 this year.

Edison's planning programs are based on company estimates that in ten years the average residential customer will be using 4,600 kilowatt hours as compared to the present 2,781.

One of the sub-station, scheduled for completion in September, is expected to increase the capacity in Troy Township by about 5,400 kilowatts.

Other increases are expected in Avon, Southfield, Bloomfield Townships and the Oxford area.

Canfield added that capacities will be boosted in five other substation areas in the county.

Chrysler Plans Big Expansion

To Spend $160 Million This Year; Employes May Buy Stock

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. expects to invest between 150 and 160 million dollars this year on plant expansion and improvement, President L. L. Colbert told a stockholders meeting today. This compares with 137½ million last year and $55,700,000 in 1954.

Colbert advised the shareholders that "the automobile business as a whole is operating at a somewhat lower level than it was at this time last year." He added that Chrysler earnings for the first quarter of 1956 will be lower than in the first quarter of last year.

Shareholders elected 21 directors, approved a stock purchase plan designed to attract and retain competent salaried personnel and voted to unify the company's pension program.

K. T. Keller, board chairman, who announced several weeks ago he would withdraw from active management of the company, retired as a director. With Chrysler for more than 30 years, he will henceforth be a consultant to Chrysler Corp.

Under the stock purchase plan, more than 16,000 salaried employes are initially eligible to invest in company stock. The plan becomes effective June 1, 1956.

Record-Size Smelt Run Choking Thunder River

ALPENA (AP)—Oldtimers said today Thunder River has the greatest smelt run in history.

Bud McDougall, an officer of the Alpena Sportsmen's Club, said, "I've dipped smelt for years and never saw anything like this. The river and the inlets around here are almost solid with fish. A full net comes up with each dip." Hundreds of fishermen were on hand as the smelt run started last night.

Direct Telephone Dialing in Store for Pontiac Area

Plans to put Pontiac's "FEderal" exchange in direct dial communication with 85 communities in Michigan and Canada were revealed today by local Michigan Bell Telephone Co. officials.

The changeover will go into effect July 8, according to E. J. Novak, Pontiac district manager.

Among Southeastern Michigan areas which will be within direct dialing range will be Detroit, Royal Oak, Ann Arbor, Port Huron, Flint, Monroe, Wyandotte and their surrounding communities. Windsor, Ontario, will also be connected to the system.

Company spokesmen emphasize that the changeover will affect only telephones in the "FEderal" exchange. Exchanges in outlying areas will continue to place their long-distance calls through the operator.

Users will be put in direct-dial communication by first dialing the numbers "112," and following with the number desired. Operators will then break in to ask for the number of the caller for billing purposes.

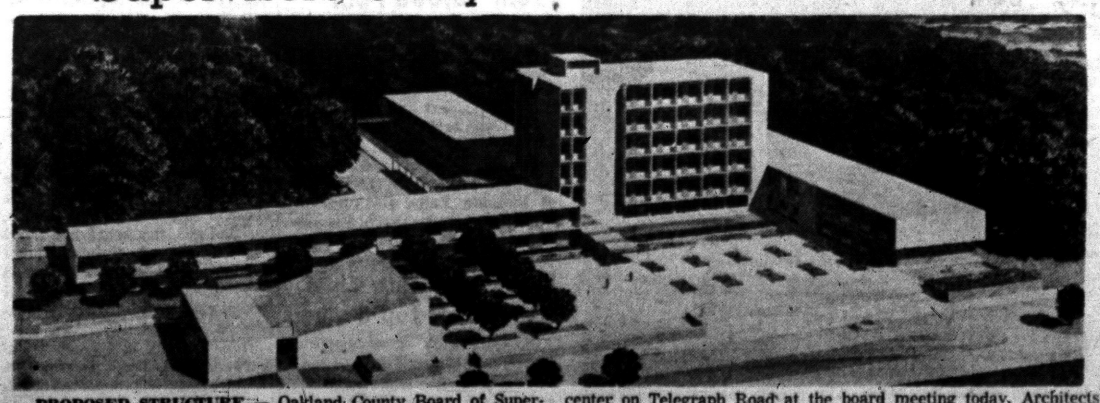

Person-to-person, coin telephone and reverse-charge calls will continue to be placed through the operator, Novak said.

Numbers in local areas will be reached by the present procedure, the manager pointed out. Local areas include Clarkston, Commerce, Drayton Plains, Lake Orion, Mayfair, Oxford, Rochester, Walled Lake and Birmingham.

Users of the service will not be billed for wrong numbers, Novak said, if they are reported to the operator immediately.

The first of a series of meetings before civic and school groups will be launched by Michigan Bell Wednesday to explain the use of the new system.

Polio Vaccine Supply Climbing

County Health Head Says Private Doctors Receiving Some

The supply of Salk poliomyelitis vaccine in Oakland County is slowly increasing as was anticipated, says Dr. John D. Monroe, director of the Oakland County Department of Health.

Vaccine is being released to private physicians to accommodate patients who have been on the waiting lists for some time.

Dr. Monroe said that it is hoped that vaccine will be available for two injections by June 15, 1956 for all who wish it, but he urges patience and cooperation on the parts of parents.

The so called "polio season" in Oakland County does not begin until mid-July allowing sufficient time to build antibodies following the injection, Dr. Monroe said.

In answer to many queries concerning third or booster doses of vaccine, the Michigan State Health Department has requested that all vaccine be used for only the first two injections. The aim is to protect as many children as possible rather than boost immunity levels for a few, Dr. Monroe said.

Third injections may safely be postponed until an adequate supply is available, he added.

Nine Indicted in Hat Swindle

Lev Is One of Those Accused of Conspiring to Bilk Armed Forces

NEW YORK (INS) — The government today opened indictments accusing nine persons including Harry (The Hat) Lev — of conspiring to swindle the Armed forces on a million-dollar contract for hats.

Lev, 54, wealthy Chicago manufacturer and former part owner of the Spencer Manufacturing Co. of Mayaguez, Puerto Rico — who once claimed he deserved a Congressional Medal — was named in the indictment for conspiracy. It was his testimony before Senate probers last summer which opened the whole case.

U. S. Attorney Paul W. Williams declared as the indictments were opened in New York Federal Court that at least $50,000 in bribes — plus a nine-cubic-foot deep freeze — were passed out to government personnel in return for illegal inside information on contract bids. He said that bribes were also handed out for switches in requirements after the contracts were awarded, and to "blind" inspectors who blandly okayed "stinky" hats for the Navy.

The indictments were handed down, sealed, on March 22. All the accused will be arraigned before Judge Noonan on April 26.

Tax Allocation Board Elects Sparks Head

At yesterday's organizational meeting of the County Tax Allocation Board, members voted to re-elect Charles Sparks chairman for the year.

Stanley Filkins, Leo Halfpenny and Kenneth Brown were appointed statisticians for the board, and Pontiac commissioner Philip E. Rowston was named to board membership replacing Harcourt Patterson.

Other board members include Robert Y. Moore, James Thorburn, Howard Warner and William J. Emerson.

The board's next meeting will be May 21.

Fair Share Men Oust Kuhlman

Director 'Kicked Out' for Part in Firing of Homer Martin

Leo Kuhlman, Fair Share Bargaining Assn. director, was ousted from the insurgent group of Michigan dairy farmers at a meeting in Romeo last night.

Leaders of the organization said Kuhlman was "kicked out" when he refused to resign after he had declined to explain his part in the recent ouster of Homer Martin as Fair Share adviser. Kuhlman had been ejected earlier from the parent Michigan Milk Producers Assn., Fair Share spokesmen said.

Kuhlman's ouster came at an impromptu session following a milk producers meeting called by Harold A. Fritz, local president, to inform members on the status of a lawsuit pending in Detroit courts. The milk producers seek clarification of their by-laws and membership rights.

Some 500 dairymen from 11 counties heard Fritz, a Romeo dairy farmer, tell of his fight for membership control of the milk producers.

Shortly after this meeting, a crowd gathered around Martin and Kohlman to question the pair on Martin's ejection following the recent settlement of the Detroit milk strike.

Martin, a former president of the United Auto Workers, said he had been ejected by Fair Share directors meeting in secret session. Several of the directors were unaware the meeting had been called, he added.

Arnold Wiss, a Capac member of the Fair Share group, said three counties have appointed Martin as their organizational director in an attempt to get greater profit for dairy farmers.

Bride-to-Be Radiant as Wedding Nears

guests and sightseers continued to swell the temporary population of the already overflowing Riviera.

Among the recent arrivals were a couple of name guests. One was hotelman Conrad Hilton, President Eisenhower's personal representative to the wedding. He told reporters at Nice he didn't know just why the White House had picked him for the job.

ALSO FAROUK

Another guest signing in here was Egypt's ex-King Farouk. He arrived from Rome with a large group of attendants and moved into a villa at the Hotel Metropole.

* * *

The girls gathered around Grace at last night's party agreed to a minor conspiracy to keep one bit of Monte Carlo news away from her. They did not tell her about the latest theft of jewels from some of the wedding guests.

The jewel thieves seemed to be concentrating on the luxurious Hotel de Paris, where many of the wealthy wedding guests are staying.

The activities of the jewel thieves are distressing the Monaco police. They do not want to alarm tourists who account for much of the little principality's revenue.

As a result, there is little information from official sources concerning the robberies.

Detroit 'Senior Citizens' to Ride Bus for Dime

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit's senior citizens, beginning May 15, will be able to ride city buses for 10 cents—half the regular cash fare.

The Department of Street Railways approved the 10-cent plan for a four-month trial run yesterday.

The plan, proposed by the United Auto Workers Union, will permit persons 65 years of age or over who are not employed to ride at the reduced fare from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. to midnight on weekdays; from 7 p.m. to midnight Saturday, and all day on Sunday.

Very Light Voting Marks Kefauver's Bid in Jersey

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)— Unusually light voting marked the start of the New Jersey primary today, an election featured by Sen. Estes Kefauver's struggle with the Democratic state organization.

* * *

From county after county came the same report on balloting—"very light."

Kefauver was bidding for the state's 36 votes in the Democratic national convention against a slate headed by Gov. Robert B. Meyner. The governor, professing to be personally neutral, said his delegates would be uncommitted.

There were no contests except for token opposition on the Republican ballot.

* * *

Polls opened at 7 a.m. Nearly three hours later, election workers in some of the state's biggest counties reported the voting was lighter than in 1952.

The weather was fair and sunny all over the state during the morning. There was a prediction of scattered showers in the afternoon.

* * *

Political observers thought Kefauver's chances would be better if the voting was heavy. The Tennessee senator had sought to rouse wide popular support in his battle with the party organization in the state.

Today's election is not a direct test between the Tennessee senator and Stevenson.

Kefauver's 72 delegate-candidates oppose a slate headed by Gov. Robert B. Meyner. The governor says he personally is neutral, and that his delegation will go to the convention uncommitted.

Courthouse Site Change Asked

Board of Supervisors Seeks to Have City Vacate Street

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors this morning voted in favor of asking the city of Pontiac to vacate a portion of West boulevard so that the proposed county courthouse may be relocated in the area.

The vote was 69 to 5.

By the same vote, the supervisors appointed O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach, Associates, of Birmingham, as the architects for the courthouse tower, the first step in the project of constructing the new building.

The supervisors also viewed preliminary plans and drawings of the proposed courthouse and county building.

In other action this morning, the supervisors unanimously accepted a tentative budget of $9,035,485 for tax allocation purposes in 1957.

The articles of incorporation of Oakland with Macomb County as the Southeastern Michigan Water Authority were adopted unanimously by the supervisors.

Board Chairman Delos Hamlin of Farmington was authorized to appoint three members as corporation board representatives.

Everything Quiet at Truman Home as Nuptials Near

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — There is little apparent hubbub at the old frame house on Delaware Street where Margaret Truman is preparing for her wedding Saturday to Clifton Daniel Jr., New York newspaperman.

Margaret said when she came home last weekend she would just rest. Efforts of newsmen to reach her have failed. She has left the family home only to visit friends.

She's expected to confer sometime today or tomorrow with J.D. Hammontree, the organist who will supply the music for the wedding at Trinity Episcopal Church. Her parents, former President and Mrs. Truman, were married there 37 years ago.

Miss Truman has said she wants no singing at the ceremony.

David Dawson Gets Probation

Ex-Orion Auto Dealer Must Make Restitution of $28,862

A former Lake Orion auto dealer who pleaded guilty March 14 to larceny by conversion of $28,862 was placed on five years' probation yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

But David P. Dawson, 32, will spend the first 60 days of his probation term in jail, and make full restitution of the money within five years.

Dawson was arrested last June 23 on a warrant obtained by the Universal CIT Credit Corp., which bought vehicles from the factory for sale by Dawson, who was to return the wholesale price to CIT.

The firm originally claimed Dawson owed them $87,146 for cars and trucks he had sold without paying for. The warrant charged $28,862.

Dawson lost his dealer's franchise shortly after his arrest.

Besides larceny by conversion, Dawson was charged with embezzlement and conceding mortgaged property. The last two counts were dismissed after he pleaded guilty to larceny by conversion.

Law Increases Aid to Junior Colleges

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today signed a bill more than doubling the present rate of state aid to junior colleges.

* * *

The measure appropriates $1,935,000 or $450,000 above last year, for the junior colleges.

Because Wayne University's freshmen and sophomore students are dropped from the new appropriation, it will mean aid to the two-year institutions at the rate of $190 per pupil compared with $90 for the year ending June 30.

Wayne will not share in junior college aid hereafter as a result of legislation providing for transfer of that institution from the city of Detroit to state control.

Schools with approximately 10,000 students will share in the 1956-57 allotment.

Higgins Warns Pike Objectors

Says MTA's Authority Permits Action Without 'Local Consent'

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The Michigan Turnpike Authority says it will determin the route of its Rockwood-Saginaw Turnpike "without local consent" if it has to in the Detroit area.

* * *

The authorities said only four communities are withholding approval of the location of the route. They are Detroit, Dearborn, Allen Park and Riverview.

"I hope we won't have to exercise that authority," Chairman George N. Higgins of Ferndale said at the board's meeting yesterday. "But unreasonable objections may have to be overcome in that manner."

Higgins said the legal counsel had advised the Authority they were empowered to finally determine route location in spite of local objections. The Authority also commended the State Legislature for extending its life by appropriating $150,000 for further turnpike studies.

In a resolution the Authority told the Legislature it would "redouble" its efforts to negotiate the financing of bonds for the 113-mile toll road.

* * *

"In Dearborn," Higgins said, "we have met with the Ford Motor Co. and are ready to adopt a new location which they have suggested which will take the route away from two churches and a school site . . . the route takes vacant Ford property and I think we can reach an agreement with the city of Dearborn soon."

Official Studies Stadium Plan

Detroit Mayor Directs Investigation of E. J. Anderson's Proposal

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit controller John H. Witherspoon today began a full study into a proposal that the city purchase Briggs Stadium.

Witherspoon said mayor Albert E. Cobo told him to investigate the possibilities of the city buying the stadium as suggested by Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Detroit Lions pro football team.

The controller said he planned to confer with Anderson and Detroit Tiger president Spike Briggs.

Witherspoon said a key financial issue for the city is whether income from the stadium would be sufficient to pay for a revenue bond issue needed to purchase it.

The stadium currently is owned by the Tigers but the baseball team and its assets, including the park, are expected to be sold soon.

The Day in Birmingham

Troy Commission Again Rejects Zoning Change

BIRMINGHAM — A commercial development on Derby Road received another zoning setback last night at Troy Commission meeting as a Birmingham school official pointed out the dangers of having its 750-car parking lot across from new Derby Junior High School.

Richard Featherstone, administrative assistant to the superintendent of schools here, said he voiced his board of education's opinions as he objected to the development's approval.

A zoning change was rejected 4 to 3 by the Troy Commissioners after hearing Dr. Featherstone and a lawyer representing the property owner, Patrick Meyrick. Indications were that the Meyrick faction would continue the two-year-old battle to change the zoning.

Besides safety of students, welfare of the shop owners would be threatened with proximity of the expected 12 to 1400 students when the school opens this fall, Dr. Featherstone said.

A few residents spoke on the school and commercial conflict, but the hundreds that overflowed the Troy Hall were present for action on the water assessments.

Lot owners who have not built on their properties were leading objectors to the assessed totals.

The Birmingham board of education meets tonight, and will hear a final review of the salary schedule which was presented to teachers yesterday.

* * *

Some details preliminary to Parking Lot A's construction have been tabled again. Continued until next week was last night's hearing at City Commission meeting on the right of way and the paving at the entrance to Park from Hamilton street.

But for the alley from Ferndale to Park the hearing brought approval by commissioners.

An outline for a bus ordinance was referred to the city attorney, who will formulate an ordinance and submit it later. Plans for the municipal building alterations were discussed, but no action was taken until more information can be furnished.

"The Fourth Dimension in Business" will be topic of W. Calvin Patterson's talk tomorrow night at the Chamber of Commerce annual dinner.

A record attendance is indicated by the 110 reservations tallied this morning by Executive Secretary Charles Mortenson, who expects still more to come in.

Patterson, a Foxcroft resident who is vice president of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, will point out that businesses not only have their own welfare to safeguard, but also have a stake in the whole community.

Names of three new directors will be revealed tonight, adding those newly-elected directors to the nine-man board.

Democrats Are Cool to Soil Bank Plea

$2.08 or 82½ per cent of parity last year.

CORN — A planting allotment of 43,238,000 acres has been set for a designated commercial producing area comprising 840 major producing counties in 23 states. This compares with 49,842,000 acres alloted a similar designated area last year. It had been announced that only farmers who planted within their allotments would be eligible for corn price supports.

In his message, Eisenhower said the department will announce price support aid for non-cooperators on a level yet to be determined.

The support for cooperators will be $1.50 a bushel of 86 per cent of parity compared with $1.58 or 87 per cent of parity last year.

Previously, non-cooperators on the corn allotment program have gotten no price support assistance. The support rate outside the commercial area is $1.13.

OTHER GRAINS — No acreage allotments or marketing quotas are in effect for these crops. Farmers are free to grow as much of them as they want. Supports were set at 70 per cent of parity both for last year's crops and this year's. The 1956 rates are 93 cents a bushel compared with 94 cents last year for barley, 59 cents compared with 61 cents for oats, $1.16 compared with $1.18 for rye and $1.80 a hundred pounds compared with $1.78 for grain sorghum.

MILK AND BUTTERFAT — No production controls are in effect. The support for milk used for manufacturing purposes is set at $3.25 a hundred pounds or 84 per cent of parity compared with $3.15 or 80 per cent last year.

The support for butterfat is set at 58.6 cents a pound or 81 per cent of parity compared with 56.2 cents or 76 per cent of parity last year.

DRY BEANS — No production controls. Support set at an average of $6.31 a hundred pounds or 70 per cent of parity compared with $6.36 and 70 per cent of parity last year. (Changes in the general price level account for the changed support level at the same percentage of parity.)

WOOL — No production controls. Wool will be supported — through the use of incentive payments — at an average of 62 cents a pound or 106 per cent of parity, unchanged from last year. The difference between the market price and incentive price will be paid farmers in the form of subsidies from the federal treasury.

HONEY — No controls. Will be supported at 9.7 cents a pound or 70 per cent of parity compared with 9.9 cents and 70 per cent last year.

PERISHABLES — The department has discretionary authority to support prices of such perishable items as fruits, vegetables, hogs, cattle, sheep, lambs, poultry and eggs. No supports have been established for any of them. Eisenhower said the department stands ready to bolster prices of these products through purchase programs. These programs remove a part of the supply from the market and usually influence market prices.

Bought products are donated to school lunch and public welfare programs and public institutions, and in some cases are exported. At present, no broad purchase program is in effect.

SOIL CONSERVATION PAYMENTS — The department is offering payments expected to total about 225 million dollars to farmers who carry out government-approved soil and water conservation practices. These practices emphasize the diversion of surplus cropland to grasses, trees and the like.

EXPORT PROGRAMS — The government is helping to move wheat, cotton, rice, feed grains, fats and oils, dry beans and dairy products abroad through direct and indirect export subsidies, and also through the acceptance of foreign currencies of friendly countries as payment.

EMERGENCY AID — In designated drought, flood, freeze, hurricane areas, the department offers low-interest loans and feed grains or reduced prices to enable distressed farmers continue farming operations.

Teamsters Get Showdown Signal

has been all along." He said: "We have a working agreement with the ILA that does not conflict with the AFL-CIO constitution."

If the council agrees with Meany, it can order the teamsters to dissolve their alliance with the ILA. If the teamsters should refuse, the council can recommend to a special convention of the AFL-CIO that they be suspended.

The showdown session on the ILA pact is the culmination of a long period of dissatisfaction with some activities of the teamsters on the part of top AFL-CIO officials.

Displeasure was expressed some months ago over a working agreement between the teamsters and the Mine, Mill and Smelter workers Union.

The latter was ousted from the old CIO several years ago on charges of Communist domination.

The teamsters recently backed down on a plan for a $400,000 loan to the ILA to enable that union to pay its debts. The loan plan was announced in New York some weeks ago by Teamster Vice President James R. Hoffa.

Pilot 'Chutes Safely From 40,000 Feet

MARLBORO, N.H. (INS)—An Air Force jet pilot today parachuted 40,000 feet to safety, landing in a treetop, when his rocket-laden plane blew apart and fell to earth.

The plane broke into two sections which fell on the snow-covered slopes of Mt. Monadnock. The pilot, First Lt. John P. Linman, 23, of Klamath Falls, Ore., escaped from the plane by use of the automatic ejector seat.

Bloomfield Police Chief Tracing Car-Top Slashers

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Chief Clark Green indicated today he believes he can trace who slashed the tops of three convertible cars parked outside Bloomfield Hills High School during last Friday night's game.

TIGERS WELCOMED — Despite wintry breezes and a few snowflakes, the Detroit Tigers were welcomed with a parade in downtown Detroit yesterday, prior to the opening game of the season. The opener begins at 2 p. m., with the Tigers opposing the Kansas City Athletics. Here pitcher Bob Miller (l-r), parade representative Dolores Holley, and outfielder Charles Maxwell wave to well-wishers outside Briggs stadium.

Bob Considine Says:

Once Upon a Time There Was a Prince---

MONTE CARLO (INS) — The beautiful young princess-to-be arrived off Monaco while the dashing prince eagerly awaited her. But suddenly the mother of the bride said: "We won't move another in. Let him come out to our ship and fetch you."

* * *

The prince adamantly refused to budge farther than the agreed-upon landing place. Instead he sent a bemedaled emissary. Discussions and negotiations continued for more than a week during which time her ship had to take refuge in Bordighera.

Finally an uncle of the bride came up with a brilliant solution which was accepted by both sides. A wooden bridge was built between the girl's galley and the quay off which the prince had refused to budge — and the two lovers and their families set off simultaneously to effect a meeting in the middle of the bridge.

As you may suspect, none of this had anything to do with Grace Patricia Kelly or Prince Rainier III. It happened in 1757 as one of the events of the marriage of Prince Honore III to Marie Catherine de Brignole Sale, whose rich, influential Italian father regarded Honore as a bum.

* * *

However, daughter was so set on it he gave his consent to have her married by proxy at Genoa. The mixup in the harbor of Monte Carlo, where two centuries later a new prince and princess needed no wooden bridge, is one of many odd and stormy events connected with the family into which the film star is marrying.

THEN NEW LOVE

To dispose first of Honore and Catherine, they had two sons. Then she fell in love with Prince de Conde and the marriage blew up.

* * *

The first real residents of Monaco were pirates, but no reflection is intended on modern Monaco's leading industry — the world famed Monte Carlo Casino.

An earlier people here who left a mark were the Ligurians, a band of scavengers who would set out from the fine harbor, knock off passing Roman ships which were keeping the Roman lines of communication open, then escape to the impregnable rock of Monaco.

VISITING DIGNITARIES — Dressed in the traditional "tux" of their species, these six penguins strut proudly on the deck of the Nishin Maru. The vessel has returned to Yokosuka, Japan, after a whaling expedition in the Antarctic. The penguins are to be presented to the local zoos.

The Romans got tired of this in time and wiped them out, making Monaco part of the maritime Alpine Province. Julius Caesar embarked from here on his campaign against Greece.

* * *

Rainier's ancestors came here from Genoa six centuries ago. Rainier is a bit on the short side, an inch or so shorter than Grace, but in the late 1600's the throne was taken over by Prince Antoine, then 40, whose size and military powers had made him known to the courts of time as "Goliath."

ONCE A POORHOUSE

The palace in which Grace and the Prince will live in splendor and which caused Grace's father, Jack Kelly, to complain that "there's a butler behind every chair when you eat," once was a poorhouse.

* * *

That was at the time when George Washington was our president and the French decided to knock off the little principality of Monaco and scatter its riches.

An incident of great significance took place in Monaco just as the north and the south collided in our Civil War. The principality now was sovereign again but flat broke.

Prince Charles III and his mother, Princess Caroline, knew they couldn't soak the Monegasques with more taxes so they set up a gambling house under the name "Societe des Bains de Mer," which means "Society of Sea Baths." It did less business than some Las Vegas joints are now doing.

* * *

But then railroad facilities improved, tourists swarmed in, and the casino has enabled generations of players to take a bath.

Detroiter Is Crushed by Own Car; Dies

DETROIT (AP)—Frank Velleau, 54, of Detorit, was killed last night, crushed by his own automoble against a loading dock.

* * *

Velleau, business office manager for Prince & Co., Inc., apparently stalled his car on an up-grade ramp and had been unable to start it, police said.

He was walking behind the car, apparently having failed to set the brake, when it started rolling back down the ramp and pinned him against the ramp, police said.

He had freed himself when police arrived and was sitting beside the car. He was taken to Lincoln Hospital and died shortly after being transferred to receiving Hosptial.

Only about one-half of the United States has been topographically mapped.

Foil Murder Plot on Mendes-France

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — Two Frenchmen were arrested early today and charged with attempting to murder former Premier Pierre Mendes-France — six hours after he had left for Paris.

* * *

A police guard at the French residency, where the pair thought Mendes-France was a guest, surprised the men after they had climbed into a residency bedroom about 1 a.m. Resident General Andre Dubois was away in Paris too.

* * *

Mendes-France, who had left for Paris Monday night, is now a minister of state in Premier Guy Mollet's Cabinet. French residents in Casablanca had demonstrated against him during his visit to Morocco, accusing him of sacrificing French interests in North Africa by starting home rule talks with Tunisia in 1954.

(230 horsepower and 340 lb.-ft. of torque in "88" models).

JETAWAY SMOOTHNESS . . . BEAUTY TO MATCH!

You'll go for the glamor of Oldsmobile, too! There's massive magnificence and solid assurance in the advance-design "Intagrille Bumper." It's two front bumpers in one for protection high and low—an Oldsmobile first, an Oldsmobile exclusive—more unmistakable evidence of Oldsmobile's styling leadership! JUNIOR CIRCUS — 2

Matoto Rides a Wheel

In the Junior Circus is a celver monkey named Matoto. Matoto does many tricks, but his best one is riding a one-wheel bike.

Matoto is dressed up for the act in a funny little hat, a jacket with brass buttons, short pants, and even a bow of ribbon on his long tail. He is careful to hold his tail so he will not get it caught in the spokes of the wheel.

For another circus cutout, color this picture with crayons. Matoto's face and ears are light brown, the rest of his fur darker, but choose bright colors for his clothes.

After pasting it down on cardboard, cut out the circle carefully, and then cut along the dotted line around Matoto, as far down as the center line. Fold the top back along the center line and then Matoto will sit up.

Rock him back and forth and he will move as if riding his wheel for you.

(Pat Hyche, Brookwood, Ala., first sent in this idea. Perhaps you have an idea for Junior Editors. If so, send it care of this newspaper, and if it is usable you will win $10. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Researchers Use Cancer Glands to Aid the Healthy

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Human glands invaded by cancer are being used in attempts to supply healthy new glands for other humans.

And the method is promising. It apparently succeeded in 2 of 11 persons for a time at least, said a team of physicians today in a report prepared for the American College of Physicians.

Bits of the glands from cancer victims are grown in test-tubes to get them accustomed or altered in order to live within a different person. Then 40 to 80 of the bits are planted into the arm of a person who needs new gland tissue.

There is no risk of giving the person cancer since human cancer cells do not "take" or grow in another person's body, said Dr. Roberto F. Escamilla, representing a research team at the University of California School of Medicine.

But healthy gland cells in the fragments of glands apparently can survive the transplanting, and produce hormones the person needs.

The research team includes Dr. C. Henry Kempe, who set up the method of culturing or growing the glands: Dr. Leon Goldman, surgeon performing the transplants; and Dr. Gilbert S. Gordan, caring for patients along with Dr. Escamilla.

They are working with parathyroid glands, usually four in number, tiny glands located near the thyroid gland in the neck. The parathyroid hormone regulates calcium in the body. Without parathyroid hormone, people develop tetany—jitteriness, numbness and muscle spasms. It can be fatal.

The transplanted glands have been given to persons, mostly women, whose own parathyroids had been removed accidentally during surgery on overactive thyroid glands.

They are bathed for a time in blood serum of the person who is to receive them, in hopes of making them "take" better in the new human host.

Michigan GOP to Pick Delegates to Convention

DETROIT (INS) — Republican district and county conventions will be held Wednesday night to name 433 delegates to the party's state convention on May 5 in Detroit's Cass Technical High School.

Two delegates and alternates and a presidential elector will be named from each congressional district to make up the 46 delegates to the national GOP convention at San Francisco in August.

Formosa Traffic Rules Bar Sidewalk Parking

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — New traffic rules issued here forbid automobiles and pedicabs from parking on sidewalks — a common sight in Taipei.

Sidewalks also may no longer be used—as they often are—as drying grounds for clothes, open air carpenter shops or for storing building construction.

Some scientists now doubt that intelligence declines after 30.

Steamship's Wilson to Enter Public Life

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles E. Wilson, 69, former president of General Electric Co. and the first chairman of the Defense Mobilization Board, will retire May 10 as board chairman of W. R. Grace & Co., it was announced.

Wilson left GE in 1950, became associated with W. R. Grace in 1952 and was elected board chairman in May 1955. The company has interests in banking, steamship and airlines and manufacturing in the United States and South America.

The company said Wilson's reason for retirement was his desire to undertake tasks of public service which have long been deferred.

Lookout 'Aids' Police in Nabbing Burglar Buddies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police say the lookout for a safecracking trio is in bad with his cronies, and all three are in jail on suspicion of burglary because—

* * *

The lookout, instead of staying put, decided to do some extra-curricular viewing, and in walking outside a market where the safe was being cracked he tripped the silent alarm.

Officers E. R. Wins and B. H. McGrahahan arrived, heard the vault being assailed by sledge hammers and drills, and sent for more policemen. They showed up with the owner of the market, who let the officers in with his key.

* * *

Very soon the two safecrackers were working in the glare of a police searchlight.

False Alarm

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—When a local airport attendant saw an American Airline DC-7 coming in for an unscheduled landing with smoke and flame belching from an engine he knew where there was plenty of help. He telephoned to the state fire school meeting and 12 trucks made a fast run to the airport. But it was all for practice because there wasn't any fire. It turned out the plane engine was just acting up a bit.

Gotham Garbage Men to Eliminate Clang-Bang

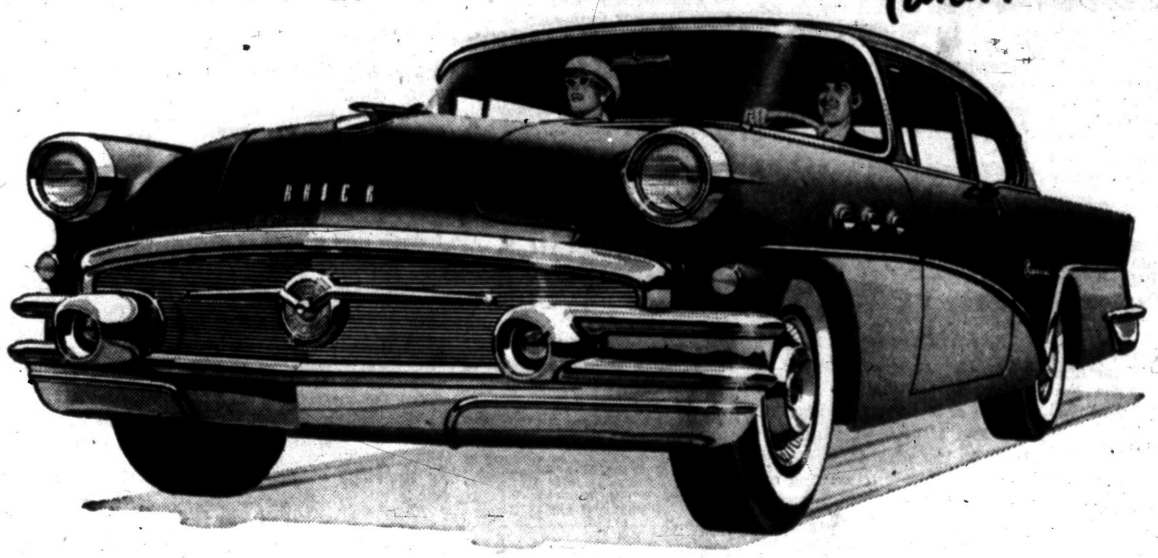

NEW YORK (INS)—The familiar clang bang of garbage can striking garbage truck will soon be eliminated from the early morning life of New Yorkers—well, almost, a spokesman for the committee for a quiet city declared yesterday.

The city sanitation department is placing a rubber strip at the edge of the hopper, where the can touches. It is also muffling the packing machinery inside each truck to mute the grinding noise.

It's a 1956 Buick SPECIAL—which means, of course, it's a big car.

But look again at the price news it carries.

It tells you this big Buick SPECIAL can be yours for only a few dollars more than the price of the well-known smaller cars—for even less than some models of those very same cars. (And the price we'll show you proves how true that is.)

The gospel truth is—this brawny new beauty is the biggest bundle of high style and hot performance ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

Even that, though, doesn't completely explain why Buick outsells every car in America except the two well-known smaller ones.

To understand the big reason, you've got to know something about how much more pure automobile you get for your money in a 1956 Buick—

The extra satisfaction of commanding Buick's walloping new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine—

Four Farm Bill Faults Basis of Ike's Veto

President Eisenhower has vetoed the farm bill with understandable reluctance.

In his message to the House, where the rejected measure originated, he made it clear that his objections were based on four principal features. These are return for one year to 90 per cent of parity on basic crops, dual parity for wheat, corn, cotton and peanuts, mandatory price supports for feed grains and multiple price plans for wheat and rice.

Continuing, the message said the bill enacted by Congress "would do harm to every agricultural region of the country and also to the interests of consumers." Then, as if to temper his veto message, Mr. Eisenhower announced that the Administration is taking three actions under existing law to increase farm income now. These are:

1. Price supports on five basic crops will be set at 82.5 per cent of parity. 2. Price support of manufacturing milk will be increased to $3.25 per 100 pounds and butter to 58.6 cents. 3. Beginning July 1, $400,000,000 will be used to strengthen the prices of perishable farm commodities.

In addition, the President asked the lawmakers to enact his soil bank plan, a part of the vetoed bill, as promptly as possible before next fall's seeding.

The Press believes Mr. Eisenhower was right in vetoing this bill. He was right in refusing to let Congress take the country back to measures which have served only to intensify surplus problems. All the economic facts are on his side and happily there doesn't appear to be enough votes to override the veto.

★ ★ ★

The President undeniably suffered a political defeat when the measure was enacted. It is equally true that he scored a moral victory when he vetoed it and a political victory on his own account when he ordered additional aid to hard pressed farmers under the existing and sounder flexible price support law.

Polio Defeat in Sight

With the output of Salk vaccine steadily increasing, a heartening prediction has come from the anti-polio front.

Author of the forecast is Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. He says that paralytic polio in this country can be cut in half in the epidemic period in 1956 and can be reduced to a negligible amount in 1957.

His statement is based on the expected production of sufficient vaccine by next July 10 to give two shots each to 67,000,000 persons. That is enough to vaccinate everybody in the country in the most susceptible age group of 19 years and under plus all expectant mothers.

More good news has come from the same source indicating that by the end of this year there'll be enough vaccine to provide two shots each for about 97,000,000 persons. That works out at about 80 per cent of all Americans 45 years old and younger.

★ ★ ★

These figures indeed reflect remarkable progress in the war on this dread and crippling disease. It is more remarkable because it's only a little over a year ago that Dr. Salk's vaccine was officially reported to be safe and effective.

An Unexpected Defeat

Free world friends of Sir John Kotelawala still are trying to fathom the factors which resulted in the defeat of his United National Party in Ceylon's recent election.

The West's interest in this unexpected upset stems from the fact that Sir John earned free world gratitude at the Bandung conference by calling for denunciation of Soviet imperialism. It also is based on the facts that his party has been in power for 25 years and that it went down to defeat before a neutralist coalition of Socialists, Buddhists, Trotskyites and Stalinists.

★ ★ ★

Leader of the victorious coalition is Oxford educated Solomon West Ridgway Diaz Bandaranaike, a Socialist. His program includes recognition of Red China and Russia and friendship for all nations. Other coalition aims are nationalization of all British owned tea and rubber plantations and ejection of Britain from the naval and air bases of Trincomalee and Negombo, their last remaining between the Middle East and Malaya.

★ ★ ★

As if to reassure the West, the coalition chief denies it is hostile to the United States. He admits, however, the possibility that within a year Ceylon may become a republic but perhaps within the British Commonwealth.

'Close Taverns on Sunday to Have Respectable City'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Has there ever been any attempt to establish a city ordinance to close all taverns within the city limits on Sunday? To help make Pontiac a clean, respectable city, this would be a very good suggestion to put to our city manager.

Let us all remember that Sunday is the Sabbath.

'80 Year Old but Looking Ahead' Likes Progress

I wonder why fluoridation opponents don't "rally the red blooded Americans" they prate about and fight vaccination "against smallpox? They vaccinate "against your will." If you think they don't, try going to school and see what happens. Or just join the army, navy or marine corps. You have to protect some people's health in spite of them. Otherwise, we'd revert back to the health standards of a hundred years ago when life expectancy was far, far short of what it is today.

Most progress has been consistently and uniformly opposed since the beginning of time. Those with ability, education and vision struggle forward in spite of the sniping behind their backs, in spite of the front opposition and in spite of the misguided and uninformed. The forward looking people have been the salvation of mankind forever. Wouldn't our mechanical progress have been in a sorry state if the scoffers, the disbelievers and pessimists had ruled? In the long run, the progressive side wins out, happily.

80 Years Old But Looking Ahead

Hal Boyle Says:

Carroll Baker Succeeds in Theater by Insisting Upon Only Quality Roles

NEW YORK (AP)—To get ahead in the entertainment world, says Carroll Baker, "you have to be willing to turn down jobs—and eat macaroni.

"Half the problem in building a career is picking worthwhile roles."

SUCCESS AT 22

It was her willingness to subsist on macaroni until the right part came along that has made Carroll Baker a star at 22. After only two films, she is already in the $50,000-to $75,000-a-picture class.

* * *

Chances are you never even heard of Carroll Baker, a slender, child-faced beauty who wears no makeup and looks as if she'd just stepped off a Victorian valentine.

But the chances are you won't be able to avoid hearing a lot about her before the year is out.

* * *

In the theater belt she is being readied for Cinderella girl buildup as director Elia Kazan's "latest discovery." To be discovered by Kazan is better than having a rich old uncle in Australia—it's the stepping stone to quick money in the bank.

OTHER PROTEGES

Among the other young stars Kazan helped rocket to fame are Marlon Brando, Julie Harris, Eva Marie Saint and the late Jim Dean.

* * *

Miss Baker had played only a relatively minor part in one film, the dramatization of Edna Ferber's "Giant," when Kazan had her try out for "Baby Doll." After one reading, he awarded her the title role.

"Baby Doll," written by Tennessee Williams, is a sex-haunted Southern tale in which a child bride comes to emotional maturity in an atmosphere of middle-aged arson and young grace.

The success of the 1¼-million-dollar production is almost sure to depend on how well the public likes Carroll's performance as the bewildered, thumb-sucking young bride.

SIGNED AGAIN

But Kazan was so taken with her acting, he immediately signed her for another film—an unusual step for him. And Warner Bros. put her under contract for four more to be made in the next six years.

* * *

That's as many as Miss Baker, who has a clear and stubborn head on her young shoulders, wants to be bound to.

"It isn't the number of productions you're in that counts," she said. "The important thing is to be in the right thing, with the right director."

Carroll, the daughter of a traveling salesman turned farmer, was born in Johnstown, Pa. She started her career as a dancer at 11. On one of her later jobs on TV, she doubled as weather announcer. One night she lost her cue cards and, while trying to improvise the weather from memory, she announced:

"There is a lot of air blowing in from Texas."

This impromptu observation left Miss Baker at liberty at once to take up the serious study of acting, which she did.

* * *

She made her Broadway debut in "Escapade," and first won critical attention in "All Summer Long." Later she auditioned for Jack Garfein, a young stage director, and he signed her soon after to a lifetime role as his wife.

Both she and her husband share a serious interest in the drama that goes beyond the opportunity for making a fast buck.

"I turned down film scripts for eight months before I thought the right one came along," she recalled.

INTEGRITY FIRST

"We were eating cheese and macaroni three times a week. But Jack and I believe integrity comes first."

Now she and her husband are moving from their cramped apartment to a larger one on the upper East Side, they eat out whenever they want to—and they don't have to order macaroni unless they really want it.

"But it's still a treat to eat out," saind Carroll, her baby doll expression crinkling in a smile, "because it's certainly no treat to eat at home—not when I do the cooking."

Columnist Blasts Medics for Teachings on Physics

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

The late great Dr. Kellogg of Battle Creek, Arbuthnot Lane of London or somewhere in England, and Elie Metchnikoff who wrote books on "intestinal toxemia" and what to do about it were, in my opinion, unpractical.

Dr. Kellogg never learned or never acknowledged that protein putrefaction is a constant, normal process in the intestine.

Dr. Lane advocated and practiced surgical removal of the colon, which he considered a useless and often dangerous structure.

* * *

Prof. Metchnikoff was daffy about Bulgarian sour milk, yahourth, sauerkraut and all that stuff. He was sure it gave Balkan people long life. The professor turned up his toes when he was a callow youth of 71.

I believe these three men, by their teachings, did an incalculable amount of harm to the uninformed and half-informed laity.

For many years after their passing it was extremely difficult to manage patients who had colon derangement. They generally knew more about it than an "ordinary doctor" did. They were typical Yankee Wiseacres, if you know what I mean. In my horse-and-buggy days there was one in our neighborhood who sometimes called me in when her regular doctor couldn't be reached—he was asleep or maybe gone fishing.

The lady tried to educate me and I, in turn, tried—well, in time I might have learned to call colon derangement "mucous colitis" and pick up many a quick buck, but unfortunately we reached an impasse incidentally — one sleepy summer day the ladys' screams brought me on the run, expecting to find her having one of her colicky spells.

But no, she pointed in horror to her woodpile where a blacksnake two or three feet long was enjoying his nap. The lady wanted the snake killed instantly.

I demurred, assuring her that the little creature was not only harmless but would keep the place free from mice, etc. It was no use. The lady would not heed my advice and I would not kill a harmless creature. So we picked up no more ice cream money from that source—that was three or four years before a new neighbor of ours, a pipe-smoking clergyman, initiated me.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Farmers Wonder if Dems, GOP Caused Income Fall

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Who struck John?

* * *

In this case the farmers are John. They'll have to decide in this presidential election year whether to blame Democrats or Republicans for the fall in their income, particularly if it keeps going down.

Within the past 24 hours—with Democrats and Republicans both aching for the farm vote—farmers have become a roaring campaign issue in a series of events which may leave them scratching their heads:

* * *

1. President Eisenhower vetoed the farm bill passed by the Democratic-run Congress with the help of farm state Republicans. The Democrats said this bill was just what the farmers needed to bail them out.

2. Immediately the Democrats began trying to make political capital of the veto. They said Eisenhower himself had dealt the farmers a "direct blow" and that he would have to take "full blame" for the farmers' troubles.

* * *

3. Eisenhower struck back in a nationwide broadcast last night, blaming Congress for giving him a bill which he said he had to veto as a matter of conscience because it would do more harm than good.

This was one of the few times in Eisenhower's three White House years when, by direct action of his own, he risked losing a vast chunk of personal popularity, as he will if the farmers now blame him for their plight.

He made it clear he knew he was taking a political chance by acknowledging he had been told "what a risky thing in an election year to veto this bill."

* * *

Besides the farm state Republicans who voted for the bill, three farm state Republican governors flew here to urge him to sign it and two farm organizations favored the measure: the National Grange and the National Farmers Union. A third group, the American Farm Bureau, opposed it. So did Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Eisenhower, who has had some experience in generalship, refused to let the Democrats put him on the defensive, or at least entirely on the defensive.

The bill passed by this Democratic-run Congress would have restored high, rigid supports. Although vetoing the Democrats' high support bill, Eisenhower at the same time announced he was going to increase price supports—although not up to the Democrats' figure—to give farmers an additional 600 million dollars in benefits this year.

Democrats hooted at this reasoning. Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler said Eisenhower had the authority to raise prices any time since becoming president but does it now "after farmers have lost three billion dollars."

* * *

But Eisenhower wrapped a challenge around the Democrats' necks, knowing the farmers would be watching to see what happened.

He urged Congress to pass this year a soil bank program that would pay farmers for cutting down on production by withdrawing acreage from surplus crops. He said it would, if passed with a provision for part payments when farmers sign contracts, give farmers up to 500 million dollars additional this year.

Now it's up to the farmers to figure out who hit them, if anybody, or whether they knocked themselves out by overproducing.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Knowledge of Sex Differences in Men and Women Averts Couple's Divorce

Nora blamed her husband for their so-called incompatibility. But she had the wrong notion about sex. She was accusing her mate of an essential sex difference that God had planned when He created male and female to be different in their hungers. To understand these vital sex differences, send for the booklet below and scrapbook this case record.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-332: Nora G., aged 29, is the wife mentioned yesterday who was on the verge of a divorce.

"Dr. Crane, when I wrote to you last year, I was making my last attempt to save my marriage," she confessed.

* * *

"You didn't know it, but I had decided if you didn't offer me any helpful advice, I was going to call a lawyer and start divorce proceedings.

"For I considered that my husband and I were totally incompatibile. We got on each other's nerves.

"He snapped at me and I was cross and irritable. We had moved into twin beds because he left me jittery and angry.

"Despite a fight at the dinner table, he would suddenly turn on his ardor and want physical affection. I felt he didn't love me but was only using me for his own selfish enjoyment.

"And he called me frigid. He said I wasn't even half a wife. Well, it was then that you sent me your sex booklet.

FACE THE FACTS

"Nobody had ever explained to me that men are endowed with much more sexual hunger than women.

"So when you mentioned that men crave 3,500 calories at the dinner table whereas women may desire only 2,500, I could easily see this different amount of gastric hunger.

* * *

"Then when you made the analogy to the erotic appetite of the two sexes and said that God had made husband and wife to have as great a difference in their sex hunger as in their gastric appetite, it suddenly made sense.

"Until that very moment, I had blamed my husband for being unduly erotic. I had accused him of selfishness.

"But I now realized that he wasn't selfish at the dinner table just because he wanted more meat and potatoes than I craved.

"So why should I blame him for his greater erotic hunger, since he was created that way?

"Well, I read the booklet; then gave it to him. And he learned some new things, too.

"So I apologized to my husband and said: "I'd like to start our marriage all over again. I think things will be different from now on.'

* * *

"And they have been. Our incompatibility has vanished. Actually, we are more in love with each other than we were during our courtship.

"And I now realize that we shall never have a divorce, for I know how to prevent it henceforth."

IGNORANCE CAUSES DIVORCE

It isn't lack of love that produces divorce, for almost every young married couple are devoted to each other on the wedding day.

But they don't stay devoted unless they have access to the vital facts of life. Those courtship "butterflies" in the stomach will not safeguard a marriage permanently.

A few essential facts are also necessary. There are four major hungers that must be satisfied daily, namely, the desire for food, love, sleep and ego inflation.

Many wives gorge their mates at the dinner table; then try to impose an unnaturally severe rationing regarding erotic calories.

They fail to realize that a husband's hunger is far greater than their own, both at the dinner table and also in the erotic realm.

Send for my booklet "Sex Difference Between Men & Women," enclosing a stamped, return envelope and 20 cents in coin.

It will quickly give you the correct scientific viewpoint and thus prevent a divorce.

1,300 State Scholarships Listed

Hifh School seniors around the county longing to go to college may have a better chance than they think in attending the Michigan college of their choice.

In a new scholarship handbook prepared by the United States National Student Association (Michigan region) are listed over 1,300 scholarships available each year from Michigan colleges and universities.

The Scholarship Handbook was published to inform talented high school graduates with limited financial means of the various scholarship, aids and self-help available in the colleges and universities of the state.

Nearly every Michigan college gives general scholarships of varying financial assists. But there are some that students never take advantage of because they do not know they are available.

Some of these scholarships are strange in that qualifications for application stress unusual things.

For example, there are five scholarships to the University of Michigan available to American Indians of either sex who are enrolled at or eligible for admission to the university in any field of study, recommended on the basis of worthiness, need and ability.

Different cities or clubs often set up scholarships for deserving local students. Pontiac Senior High School War Memorial Scholarship at the U. of M. is one of these. A variable number of scholarships are awarded graduates of Pontiac High, usually those entering the university for the first time.

The awards are ordinarily equivalent to semester fees and are renewable up to a total of eight semesters if the holder's record at the university warrants.

High School Principal Francis Staley said that he or C. P. Forsman, assistant principal, handles the scholarships and students can apply there.

Another university scholarship is the LaVern Noyes Scholarship awarded to students in need of assistance who either served in the Army or Navy of the United States in World War I and were honorably discharged or descended by blood from one who served. Enlistment on which application is based must have been prior to May 11, 1918 unless there was overseas duty before the Armistice.

The amount of the award is variable as is the number awarded, which is usually between 20 and 25 each semester.

Wayne University has a Pontiac High School Endowment Fund Scholarship that gives small grants to supplement others awarded qualified students of Pontiac High School. Another Wayne Scholarship, the Frank Rosenblum Scholarship grants $500 each to qualified members or descendants of members of the Amalgamated Clothing Co. Workers of America.

* * *

Scholarships ranging from those for children of Greek parents to qualified 4-H and Future Farmers of America members, members of certain Catholic parishes and those for qualified music students, are available for Michigan high school graduates.

* * *

Detroit Edison has a scholarship in nearly every state college valued at $250 and available for a well qualified freshman from the territory served by the company.

* * *

Qualified county high school seniors or graduates are urged to consult with their principals to become acquainted with the scholarships available from Michigan colleges.

Kefauver Rips Ike Veto; Adlai Sees Farm Setback

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) Sen. Estes Kefauver, on a swift campaign trek in California, labels President Eisenhower's farm bill veto "a breach of promise" to the farmers.

* * *

Kefauver concentrated vigorous and critical attack on the farm vote in four northern California cities yesterday. Today he visits seven more.

In a Santa Rosa press conference last night he said Congress might pass the soil bank bill, as President Eisenhower proposed in his radio and television speech.

* * *

"But the soil bank isn't going to give relief now. It would replace further losses," he asserted.

"The need is substantial help for farmers at this time."

The Tennessee senator, aspiring to the Democratic presidential nomination, is campaigning for 68 convention votes in California's June 5 primary.

* * *

By the veto, Kefauver said, President Eisenhower "will now take full blame for the callous attitude of his administration" toward the farmers' troubles.

Heading north, Kefauver blasted the veto in talks at San Rafael, Petaluma, Sebastapol and in Santa Rosa.

SOUTHERN PINES, N.C. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson says President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill "showed again his reluctance to face the facts of the farm depression."

* * *

"While the bill was not perfect," he told a news conference yesterday, "it would have helped to check the decline in farm income which has already played such havoc with so many farmers.

"The Democrats in Congress tried to help the President meet his 1952 promises to the farmers. I hope they will keep on trying despite this setback."

* * *

A possible hitch developed last night in plans for a radio and television debate between Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, his rival for the Democratic presidential nomination.

They had agreed tentatively to debate at Miami, prior to the May 29 preference primary in Florida, and in California.

Yesterday Stevenson suggested as possible dates May 13, a Sunday, in California and either May 20 or May 27—both Sundays—in Florida.

* * *

Last night in Miami, Kefauver's Florida manager said the senator would not debate on a Sunday because "the people of Florida are churchgoing people and Sunday is no time to hold a political debate."

Lee Still Balks at Paying Tax

Utah's Governor Calls for Court Ruling Before Meeting 'Obligation'

SALT AKE CITY (AP)—The dead line for paying federal income tax passed last midnight, but part of Utah Gov. J. Bracken Lee's tax money rests today in a safe deposit box in a Salt Lake City bank.

"And that's where it will stay," Lee says, "until a court rules that either I or the government have a right to it."

* * *

The Republican governor contends it is inconstitutional for the federal government to use tax revenue to aid foreign nations. By refusing to pay his tax he hopes to force a court test of this contention.

NO PROVISION

"There is no provision anywhere in the Constitution granting the U.S. government the right to appropriate taxpayers' money for support of foreign nations," Lee said, adding he'll "fight . . . in the Supreme Court, if necessary, to prove my case."

Last week Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey wrote Lee the government would "proceed in the usual manner to collect the taxes" if the governor didn't pay up before the deadline.

* * *

Lee said yesterday he believes the "'usual manner' might take some time — probably until after the November elections."

TO ASK JUDGMENT

"But I'm not going to wait for the government to come to me," he said. "I have my attorneys preparing briefs and I expect to take the case into court in about 50 days. At that time I will ask the government for a declaratory judgment."

* * *

Lee filed his income tax return last January but did not enclose the money he owes on earnings other than his salary of $10,000, which is subject to the federal withholding tax. He declined to say how much the "other earnings," mostly from investments, amount to.

Why Suffer Bleeding Piles Any Longer

Medical research has developed a miracle medicine called RECTORAL. It does away with the continual use of old-fashioned ointments, suppositories, injections, etc., that give little, if any, even temporary relief. RECTORAL has a tendency to shrink the piles and usually in a few days, the bleeding, soreness, irritation and pain start to disappear and in a few days more are completely gone. Thousands of sufferers have used this remarkable medicine and have never had any further trouble, even years afterwards. Many of these people had been advised that only an expensive and painful operation would help them. Why suffer any longer? Get well NOW! Stay well! Get a bottle of RECTORAL today at

British Tighten Security Clamp

Scotland Yard Readies England as Red Bosses Steam Toward Isles

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard called a last-minute dress rehearsal today of the elaborate security arrangements it will throw around Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, due in Britain tomorrow morning.

* * *

The Yard pressed its biggest peacetime check to put on ice known British and foreign Communist-haters who might try to annoy or assassinate the two Russian leaders during their 10-day official tour.

AREA SEARCHED

Claridges Hotel, where the visitors will occupy a 50-room suite, swarmed with Soviet officials and guards and with British policemen in and out of uniform.

* * *

Apartment and office buildings in the area were searched. Their occupants were questioned and more than 1,000 names were taken.

Every window looking on the Russians' rooms was charted. A particularly close watch was kept on refugees from Communist countries.

ELOCUTION LESSONS

Bulganin and Khrushchev, meanwhile, sailed steadily toward Portsmouth aboard the cruiser Ordzhonikidze. Moscow radio gave this description of life aboard the ship:

* * *

"There is great interest among the crew in everything connected with England. Officers and ratings (seamen) take part in song and dance groups. Elocution is another feature of the program. The latest, incidentally, includes poems by Robert Burns and some of Shakespeare's sonnets."

* * *

Two Soviet aircraft arrived with a load of vodka, champaigne and caviar for the functions at which the Russians will return British hospitality. An advance group of Soviet officials also came in.

Runaways, 9, 12, Take 'Essentials' With Them

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Danny McElwee, 9, and brother Victor, 11, ran away from home yesterday.

A bus station clerk became suspicious when they tried to buy tickets to Shreveport. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. McElwee, were notified.

A check of the boys' suitcase showed: two baseballs and gloves, a homemade butterfly net, Victor's butterfly collection and a jar of live caterpillars.

That's all.

"I appreciate the splendid cooperation the Election Division of the Department of State has had from your county clerk in every way."

Montgomery mentioned that Allen had conducted the first school in the state intended to explain changes in election laws to local clerks.

Jews Demand He Ask Arabs to Lift Shipping Restrictions on Suez

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold arrived today from Lebanon and immediately began talks with Israeli government leaders in a new stage of his Middle East peace mission.

* * *

The U. N. secretary general traveled directly from Lydda Airport outside Tel Aviv to the office of Premier David Ben-Curion.

He was accompanied by Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett, who welcomed him at the airport.

Maj. Gen. Edson L. M. Burns, Canadian chief of the U. N. armistice commission, came with Hammarskjold from Beirut.

TOUGHER TASK

An afternoon meeting was expected to follow the morning conference.

His task was made tougher by Israel's demand that Egypt lift all restrictions on Israeli shipping through the Suez Canal. He was reported optimistic, however.

Prior to leaving for Israel, he conferred in Beirut with Lebanese chiefs.

The Isaeli border area was comparatively quiet.

Restaurant, YWCA Entered by Thieves

City police are investigating two breaking and enterings, Martin's Drive-in Restaurant at 426 W. Huron St., which is owned by Della Martin, and the YWCA at 22 Franklin Blvd.

Entry was gained by breaking a rear window at the restaurant. Quarters and nickels of an undetermined number were taken from a cigarette vending and pinball machine.

The YWCA Snack Bar was looted of food with the total loss placed at $4.15. Entry there was gained by a skeleton key after getting into the building through breaking a basement window.

Deputies Investigate Home, Car Damage

The Oakland County Sheriff's department is investigating malicious destruction of property which took place at 884 Round Lake Road, White Lake Township sometime between 1 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday. The land is owned by Clifford E. Johnson.

Johnson's automobile is believed to have been stoned along with aluminum storm doors. The car which had been left in the driveway, was found with the left rear taillight lens smashed and a dent in the hood. Several large stones were found near the scene. Two yard lights were torn out and one destroyed.

The owner told deputies $35 worth of lumber was missing.

First Choice of Auto Engineers

New '56 Blue Sunoco

Used by more Auto Engineers than all other premiums combined

Of engineers who compared it with premium-priced brands:

- 93% say Blue Sunoco matches or excels premium-priced brands for overall performance!
- 86% say it matches or excels premium-priced brands for miles per gallon!

Once again, the most exacting gasoline jury in the world—the automotive engineers who design and build America's great cars—has made Blue Sunoco its first choice over all other gasolines.

We recently invited a large group of automotive engineers to try New 1956 Blue Sunoco, boosted to a new high in octane, in their own cars and give us their reactions. Results of this survey, compiled by an independent, nationally-known firm of certified public accountants, make '56 Blue Sunoco the favorite, by an overwhelming margin, of the men who know car performance best.

43% already users of Blue Sunoco

Of the 1,166 engineers who reported on '56 Blue Sunoco, 43% told us they were already users of our gasoline. This was a far greater number than reported using all other premium gasolines combined—perhaps the greatest testimonial any gasoline ever had!

9 out of 10 say Blue Sunoco matches or excels all other gasolines

The engineers compared Blue Sunoco with both regular and premium-priced gasolines and 90% found Blue Sunoco matches or excels all other gasolines in anti-knock performance, power and pick-up. Of those who compared it with premium-priced brands, 93% said Blue Sunoco matches or excels these premiums for overall performance. Yet Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price, gives many more miles per dollar.

Premium octane at regular gas price

'56 Blue Sunoco is recommended for the newest high-compression cars when owners' manuals recommend a premium gasoline. Follow the lead of automotive engineers, the men who know most about cars—try New Blue Sunoco in your car. Make your own 10-gallon test today.

Forming Hot Rod Group in Area

An association which would offer proper recognition and control of "hot rod" clubs in the Pontiac area is slowly approaching reality according to its one-man steering committee chairman.

Loren D. Anderson, of Waterford, and a member of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee, said yesterday the proposed association will be established to assist three clubs in Pontiac to set up supervised activities.

One such plan is to use the Pontiac Motor Division quarter-mile square parking lot on Joslyn avenue on Sundays as an improvised "drag strip."

Anderson said he had received the cooperation of the division and the Pontiac Police Dept. in setting up the program.

"I have looked at this situation with the attitude that these clubs do exist, and that we can either recognize this and organize them, or ignore them and pass it on to law enforcement agencies to handle," Anderson declared.

Some 75 members ranging in age from 16 to 22 years comprise the "Rod Benders," "Shifters," and the "Challengers" in the Pontiac area.

Anderson expects membership to expand to 1,000 with the establishment of the association which will provide greater facilities for the members.

Anderson has been campaigning for a larger "drag strip" for the clubs which is included on a program set up by the safety committee.

Assisting Anderson has been Roland W. Elkins, of Lake Orion, treasurer of the "Rod Benders."

No date has been set yet for the first speed event to be held.

The "strip" will be restricted to one car races against time over the two-tenths of a mile course. It will also be limited to club members using automobiles directly off the road.

Club members met Saturday to illustrate their interest in safety and showed two safety films to the group.

Alma Lady Loses Ugly Fat, Freshens Complexion

"I would like to tell you what Rennel Concentrate has done for me," writes Mrs. Clifford Mosher, 100 Woodworth, Alma, Mich. "Five months ago I weighed 197 lbs. Then I started to take Rennel and brought my weight down to 148 lbs. I feel so much better, my nerves are fine, my face has cleared up and looks so much fresher. My friends tell me I look ten years younger. It's nice to wear a 16 dress again and I feel like a completely new person. Anyone with a weight problem like mine can lose ugly fat safely and easily with Rennel. It is a must at my house. Without tiring I can now do more work and work faster. For all these benefits I am thankful to Rennel."

Discussion goes on even at the coffee-break at the annual Standard Oil Dealers' Advisory Council meeting in Chicago. Left to right: W. H. Miller, Standard Oil assistant general manager of sales; W. C. Lane, dealer in Kansas City, Missouri; D. F. Benton, Standard Oil vice president, sales; W. H. Harrison, dealer, La Porte, Indiana; A. C. Sallstad, Standard Oil general manager, sales. INSET: August Arnoldi of Denver, Colorado; Wilbert Barnickle of Mendota, Illinois; Harlan G. Lewis of Bellevue, Nebraska—all dealers.

Well-known Newscaster, WJBK-TV, Detroit

Jac LeGoff asks small businessmen:

"HAS A BIG BUSINESS EVER ASKED YOUR ADVICE?"

Denzil Watkins, Standard Oil Dealer, St. Louis, Missouri:

"This is my third year at this meeting where Standard Oil dealers discuss sales and service problems with company executives for three days. Nine dealers, who are elected by other dealers at regional meetings, give the company advice, which is always very carefully considered. The result is better service and better products!"

Manuel Mislove, Standard Oil Dealer, Milwaukee, Wisconsin:

"One of the smartest things any big business can do is to consult the people who come in contact with customers. That way, it can find out first-hand what the public needs and what its sales people need to keep customers coming back. Standard Oil does just that. The company asks our advice and acts on it. And our customers benefit."

Roy Wilson, Standard Oil Dealer, Brainerd, Minnesota:

"This was my first opportunity to talk to top executives at Standard Oil about problems that are very important to dealers—products, sales and service. It's a wise company policy to talk over such matters with the men who meet the public. Actually we helped plan the meeting by first outlining the matters we wanted to discuss."

W. H. Ehrenberg, Standard Oil Dealer, St. Joseph, Michigan:

"Under the dealer advisory plan, I represent many Michigan Standard Oil dealers who elected me to meet with company officials. That's certainly an example of a big company asking for advice from small businessmen. Did you know that Standard Oil's popular plan for guaranteed radiator protection came out of a dealer-company meeting?"

What makes a business a good citizen?

Constantly improving products and services for its customers. Several years ago Standard Oil established a program for a dealer advisory council to meet annually with us in Chicago and tell us, first-hand, how they and we can better serve our millions of customers. These men are selected by their fellow-dealers for their high qualities as independent businessmen—and they do tell us! We listen and we act whenever an improvement in prpducts or services seems mutually practical. This seems to us a fine example of large and small business giving each other a helping hand and benefiting you, our customers, in the process.

Press Cartoonist Is Among National Medal Winners

Winners of the 24th annual Sigma Delta Chi Awards for Distinguished Service in Journalism were announced today in Chicago by Mason Rossiter Smith, national president of Sigma Delta Chi and editor and publisher of the Gouverneur (N. Y.) Tribune Press, on the 47th anniversary of the professional journalistic fraternity.

Among the winners in the 14 catagories for outstanding work is John Fischetti, NEA editorial cartoonist whose drawings appear in the Pontiac Press. The SDX medal goes to Fischetti for the second time in three years.

It is for a cartoon on the farm question entitled "The Natives Are Getting Restless." (Reproduced on this page today.) Fischetti's earlier award, in 1954, ment on the death of Stalin.

Winners in other newspaper catagories included:

Asks Military Training Probe

Official of Vets Group Urges U.S. Mothers to Write Congressmen

DETROIT (AP)—Joseph J. Lozo, national commander of the Third Calvary Group Veteran's Assn., today called upon American mothers to "band together and ask their congressmen for a complete investigation of our military training policies."

* * *

Lozo, of suburban Ecorse, said in a statement tht the Defense Department "is guilty of adhering to stupid and antiquated military traditions in teaching young American teenagers to fight tomorrow's battles with yesterday's weapons."

"The United States," Lozo said, "suffered 30,000 casualities in Korea because the Defense Department relied chiefly upon manpower and not enough on modern, scientific methods of warfare.

"The Department of Defense is instructing our draftees to take it, instead of dish it out.

"The present policy of our Defense Department is like the blind leading the blind into the tidal swamps to die."

The latter obviously was in reference to the recent drownings of six Marines on a disciplinary march at Parris Island, S.C.

Gets 1-Year Probation

Joseph Thomas Sears, 44, of Ferndale, who pleaded guilty April 4 to selling a pint of moonshine whiskey Dec. 5, 1955, in Royal Oak Township, was sentenced to a year's probation and payment of $100 court costs yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

This proverb, a part of our language for three centuries, points up the danger of buying at a bargain price and discovering later that you have received only what you've paid for and sometimes not even that.

Certainly, it is absolutely true in the insurance field that you get what you pay for. Insurance is a science based upon unfailing statistics. Therefore, insurance which truly protects you is insurance against the hazards which you and your insurance agent believe to be a part of your circumstances and your daily activities.

To be "penny wise, pound foolish" in the matter of insurance is to be inadequately insured. You learn this, however, only AFTER you have a loss.

The facilities of this office are at your disposal for a cost-free analysis of your insurance position. Let us examine your policies and make sure that they are complete and fairly priced. We particularly urge this if you have ever purchased "bargain insurance" on your home or your car.

'They're for Soup'

Victor Mature Shies Away From Sharks

BY PHYLLIS BATTELLE

ISLE OF PINES, CUBA (INS)—Thirty years ago when Victor Mature was only a miniature caveman of 10, he shied away from nothing except the castor oil bottle on the cupboard shelf.

Today it is different. A full grown caveman now, Mr. Mature has become aware of another type of oil, and of the man-eating receptacle which contains it, called the shark. He is negatively impressed.

"Call me intolerant, warn the ASPCA if you will," he says, scowling at the serene Caribbean waters he is about to plunge into, "but you know how I feel about sharks?

They're for soup."

It cannot be said that 6-foot-3, bronzed and beauteous Mr. Mature is in any way a sissy as he stands in the tropic sun, poised for another "take" of the film, "The Sharkfighters." It is just that this little Cuban island location for his latest movie happens to be circled with a picturesque frame of shark fins etched against the blue.

* * *

And, as the actor says, "It's a fine swimmin' hole when a guy who feels something touching his feet prays that it's only an octopus.

NAVAL PICTURE

Mature has been "located" on the Isle of Pines for two weeks now working on "Sharkfighters," which is the story of the Navy's dangerous search for a shark-repellent to be used by fliers who are shot down at sea.

* * *

He lives in a 6-by-15-foot shack on the white sand with a script to study, an electric razor to groom him, and some ravenous sand fleas and an occasional 3-inch scorpion for company.

None of this Mature minds, for he is an outdoor-type actor whose last three movies have been made amid the lava in Mexico, the dust of Nairobi and the rains in Spanish Morocco.

"It's really an idyllic island," he says, "and we are happy to announce there are no poisonous snakes. Of course, there are some sexy snakes that will hug you to death (boa constrictors)."

* * *

What troubles the entire crew of cameramen, technicians, actors and director Jerry Hopper here is what they refer to, breezily, as "shark situations."

Although the sharks which are being filmed in the movie are in no condition to devour the actors (these are technical details we won't release at this time), a constant lookout is always on—to prevent unworldly sharks, who don't know this is only a movie, from getting into the act.

EXTRAS WANTED

"This is one movie," Mature explains, "where we don't want any unpaid extras."

* * *

So far, the only casualties have been light—people spraining toes and cracking heads trying to get out of the water fast when shark and barracuda, also plentiful in these waters, are sighted.

Besides, everyone is heavily insured and equipped with his own vial of copper acetate shark-repellent.

"So who's worried?" says Mature, putting down his high power binoculars, crossing his fingers, and leaping into the foam.

H-Bomb Test for Civilians

Newsmen, CD Officials to View Explosion From 5-Mile Distance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first nongovernment, civilian observers to see one of the hitherto secret tests of a hydrogen bomb will do their looking from 50 miles away.

Safety, not security, dictates the distance.

* * *

Fifteen newsmen and about 20 representatives of the Federal Civil Defense Administration will see one test next month in the Operation Redwing spring series at the Marshall Islands proving grounds. They are scheduled to see one of the large, but not the largest, of the H-bomb trials.

PROVIDES BUFFER

The average 50 miles viewing point aboard a ship provides a buffer against the three immediate dangers of a large H-bomb explosion—blast, heat and radiation.

It also allows for maneuvering if winds change unexpectedly and carry the drifting cloud of contamination in the direction of men.

REMEMBER BIKINI?

Ten years ago a few of the news correspondents who have been assigned to cover Operation Redwing were present for Operation Crossroads. The scene was the same—Bikini atoll. The weapons were different — two "little" nuclear weapons yielding only 20,000 tons (20 kilotons) of force in 1946 compared with the multimillion ton hydrogen weapon of today.

* * *

For the two 1946 test shots, the observer ships backed away an average distance of about 11 miles.

But the safety rules that applied for the old model T atomic bombs don't fit the hot rod models of today.

Personal Letter Gift From Pope to Royalty

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII will give a personal letter as a wedding gift to Prince Rainier and his bride, Grace Kelly.

A spokesman at Monaco's Embassy to the Vatican said today the letter will be taken to Monaco by the pontiff's representative to the wedding, Msgr. Paolo Marella apostolic nuncio to France.

The spokesman said that he did not know what the letter would contain, but guessed that it would include an expression of good wishes.

Big Great Lakes Ferry Slated for '56 Service

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (AP)—Construction of a larger ferry boat for the Kingsville-Pelee Island-Sandusky, Ohio, run will be started this year, Vincent A. Barrie, president of Pelee Shipping Co. Ltd., said today.

The Diesel-powered craft will cost about $800,000, he said. It will be 160 feet long and accommodate 500 passengers and between 30 and 35 cars. It is expected to begin service in June 1957.

Stock Exchange Fires Page Boy for Cheating

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Stock Exchange has fired an 18-year-old page boy for putting out false reports on the ticker.

The reports, which caused considerable stir in the financial community, cited two "ghost" stock transactions which never actually occurred.

His name is being withheld.

Texas produces about 70 per cent of the U.S. carbon black output.

Ask for Celery Plants

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Michigan celery growers have been asked to donate excess celery plants to growers in the tornado-devastated Hudsonville area. The twister destroyed most of the area's greenhouses, which were full of plants ready for transplanting to fields. County agriculture agents will handle plant donations.

Announce Appointment

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Economic Development department has anounced the appointment of Clair M. Hekhuis as chief of the department's information division.

In looks, too, Ford's out front—with styling that only the Thunderbird could inspire

Ford goes First!

In Performance

At NASCAR's Speed and Safety Events at Daytona Beach, Ford won the Manufacturer's Trophy for best all-around performance. And Ford's 225-h.p. Thunderbird Special V-8, in one day, smashed 30 world speed records at Kingman, Arizona. No wonder the Ford V-8 is the world's largest-selling eight.

In Safety

When the editors of "Motor Trend" unanimously voted Ford's safety program "the top car advance" of 1956, they had in mind Ford's Lifeguard Design ... a whole family of safety features, including a deep-center steering wheel and double-grip door latches, to help protect you from injury in case of accident.

In Economy

In this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford Customline V-8 with Fordomatic Drive won over all cars in its class. The sturdier, heavier Ford carried more weight with greater gasoline economy per pound than any competitive car ... "sixes" as well as "eights"! In this tough test, Ford proved itself a regular gas miser.

The way a Ford performs, the way it saves, the way it protects you, go hand-in-hand with the way it looks and lasts. Ford's look was inspired by America's most exciting car, the Thunderbird. Its rugged K-bar frame and carefully-built body give it the endurance and reliability traditional with Ford. These are the facts behind Ford's reputation as the car that's worth more when you buy it ... worth more when you sell it, too! Come in and let us show you!

Hollywood Headlines

Lana Acquires Freedom to Guide Future Career

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — For the first time in 17 years, Lana Turner can call her career her own. And she's never been happier.

* * *

Lana got sprung from her long exclusive contract with MGM after months of campaigning. She still owes the studio five pictures in the next five years, but otherwise she's a free agent.

HER OWN DEALS

"And does it feel wonderful!" she enthused over lunch in a Hollywood hideaway. "At last I can read scripts from other studios—I've been going through a stack this high at home. And I can talk about my own deals, instead of doing what the studio tells me to do."

* * *

For some time Lana had been unhappy about a few things at the studio. For one thing, she never did a picture off the lot in her first 15 years there.

"I didn't even get to see the scripts that were offered to me from the outside," she remarked. "The studio turned them down for me.

* * *

"Finally, I made a big pitch to be allowed to do 'The Sea Chase.' I argued that it would do me a lot of good to be teamed in a picture with John Wayne.

SET PRECEDENT

"I finally convinced them. I'm sorry the picture didn't turn out as well as people had hoped, but at least it set the precedent. And it led to another loan-out, 'The Rains of Ranchipur.'"

* * *

Lana made no bones about her dissatisfaction with her last two epics at MGM, expensive turkeys called "The Prodigal" and "Diane."

"I argued with them that I was not the kind of a girl who should be in costume pictures," she said. "Look—I'm a modern-type girl. The good pictures I've done 'Postman Always Rings Twice,' 'The Bad and the Beautiful,' perhaps 'Rains of Ranchipur'—should have proven that.

* * *

"But they wanted me to do costume pictures. So I did the best I could—and took the blame for them."

EPITOME OF GLAMOR

Lana enters the free-lance market at the best possible time. Stars with big names can just about write their own ticket at any studio in town. And the name of Lana Turner still stands for the epitome of glamor in the movie world. She offered some hint of how she has stayed that way:

* * *

"When I started in pictures, there was still an air of mystery about the stars. Garbo was still working then, and Norma Shearer and Joan Crawford were still queens on the MGM lot. I was brought up in the tradition of not telling all about yourself, of withholding something of yourself from the public."

27 Proposed Resolutions Face DAR Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Daughters of the American Revolution got down to business today with the presentation of 27 proposed resolutions.

* * *

The DAR—a women's patriotic organization claiming some 183,000 members—opened its 65th Continental Congress here last night amid colorful pageantry.

In a message read by Miss Gertrude S. Carraway, DAR president general, President Eisenhower sent greetings from him and the first lady.

* * *

Eisenhower said the DAR had his "best wishes" for successful continuance of their efforts "to strengthen their devotion to liberty and justice and to uphold a high ideal of citizenship."

Some 4,000 delegates and guests in Constitution Hall clapped briefly after Miss Carraway read the message.

1.5 Billion Board Feet of Lumber Up for Sale

DENVER (AP)—One and a half billion board feet of wood killed by beetles went on auction today. Government officials said it was one of the largest timber sales in Western history.

The estimated three million cords of wood covers 275,000 acres in White River and Routt national forests. Beetles killed the trees by boring into the bark. The U.S. Forest Service conducted the auction.

Two Years Probation Given Pontiac Driver

Harold E. Parkinson, 35, of 86 Cottage St., was placed on two years' probation and ordered to pay $150 court costs yesterday for second-offense drunk driving.

McClellan Resumes Clothing Graft Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said today his Senate Investigations subcommittee will resume tomorrow hearings in its search for evidence of possible graft in the buying of Army uniforms.

The subcommittee originally had planned to resume the inquiry today. It already has heard testimony that two garment manufacturers who held big government contracts invested millions of dollars in government bonds, using fake names.

McClellan has said he intends to show whether any of the bonds were used to bribe government officials, or whether the purpose was tax evasion.

Car Crushes Youth

BAY CITY (AP)—Sixteen-year-old Edward Vermeesch was killed Monday when a car he was repairing at his home five miles east of here slipped off a jack and fell on him.

Mute Upon Arraignment for Night Breakin

Charged with the nighttime breaking and entering of a Clawson house Nov. 28, 1955, Lawrence A. LePage, of 502 Highland Rd., Clawson, stood mute at his arraignment yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

A plea of innocent was entered for LePage by Judge Frank L. Doty. No trial date was set.

Detroit Resident Gets Two Years Probation

Steve C. McClain, 22, of 3832 Merrick St., Detroit, who pleaded guilty April 2 to unlawfully taking and using a motor vehicle, was sentenced yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

McClain was placed on two years' probation and ordered to pay $100 costs and $110 restitution.

Give Pair Probation

Two men who pleaded guilty April 2 to breaking into a Madison Heights factory Feb. 27 were sentenced yesterday to three years' probation and payment of $100 court costs apiece. Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams sentenced William Otis Wall, 20, of Detroit, and Nickolas DeLeo, 24, of Hazel Park.

Gun Charge Admitted

Charged with possession of an uninspected gun, Max A. See of 2580 Dixie Highway pleaded guilty yesterday before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty. See will be sentenced April 23.

Countless Gifts Pour Into Monaco

Grace and Rainier Get Animals, Autos but No Appliances

MONTE CARLO (AP) — The diamonds, lions, limousines and other wedding gifts sent Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier could easily reach the million-dollar figure.

* * *

When all the gifts are in and counted, the newlyweds will be in position to open an adequately stocked jewelry store, a used—and only slightly used—car lot, an antique shop, liquor store, art gallery, zoo or specialty shop for oddments.

SEVERAL HUNDRED

The number of gifts already runs to several hundred. Palace officials, far behind in their cataloguing, have little idea of the actual total value.

* * *

The jewels and such items already announced run to at least $300,000. These include $150,000 worth of matching baubles from the citizens of Monaco and a $40,000 diamond and ruby item—usable as a necklace or a tiara—from the gambling casino controlled by shipowner Aristotle Onassis.

Gifts have poured in from royalty all over Europe, from official representatives of 25 governments, from scores of Miss Kelly's wealthy friends, from every sizable foreign colony, from Monacan officials and from just plain well-wishers.

* * *

The palace concierge has been accepting a steady stream of French cheeses, wines, embroidery, handicrafts and such for many days.

ZOO BENEFITS

The Prince's zoo has benefited to the extent of two Canadian beavers, two long-legged cranes and two lion cubs, the latter from the Sultan of Morocco.

* * *

Notably missing from the announced list of gifts are such traditional standbys as coffee pots, electric mixers, toasters nad kitchen equipment. No complaint about this has been heard from either Grace or the Prince.

Most of the gifts are valuable, or unusual.

* * *

Radio Monte Carlo is contributing a phonograph with special fittings in a sort of compass mount so the Prince can install it on his yacht.

SHIP'S WHEELS

French President Rene Coty sent two ship's wheels in rare wood. Rainier's yacht already has a wheel, which presumably is good for a number of years.

* * *

Egypt's ex-King Farouk is giving two sixth century Japanese vases once owned by the emperors of Japan. Britain's Queen Elizabeth II sent an inscribed gold and silver tray.

Conrad Hilton, President Eisenhower's personal representative for the wedding, said he brought the President's "best wishes" but no present from the White House. He didn't bring a present from himself either.

* * *

The couple is getting a Gobelin painting from Frenchmen living in Monaco, a Dufy painting from the local hotel owners, a painting of the Flemish school from the German colony, a Val St. Lambert crystal vase from the Belgian residents, and a Neufchatel clock from the Swiss.

PLENTY TO DRINK

The Academy of Bordeaux Wines has sent an undisclosed amount of an excellent 26-year-old vintage to correspond with the bride's age. Other gifts of wine would stock any good-sized cellar.

* * *

Although the Prince's personal garage already bulges with nine cars, the Council of Monaco bought him a luxurious black and gray Rolls Royce. Racing driver Louis Chiron, an old friend, is sending a French Renault Dauphine.

American residents in Monaco are coming through with a gold inlaid picture frame worth roughly $2,000. The couple also is getting a lot of historical paintings and such items as a silver eagle which Napoleon had on Elba.

* * *

Dads Feted at McConnell

Social Worker Speaks

John Vanderline, staff social worker from Pontiac State Hospital, spoke at the annual Father's Night at McConnell School.

In his discussion of the emotionally disturbed child, he explained the predominant problem is that such a child cannot cope with the reality presented to him by his environment. He sometimes develops a fear of asserting himself and acts of regression occur.

Mr. Vanderlind pointed out to parents that children are durable. Any mistakes made in child rearing will be overcome if the qualities of love and acceptance of the child are present.

He stated that as a child identifies himself with his parents, examples of good character are important.

Gerald Stoner, father vice president, and Earl Bidelman, secretary, presided at the business meeting.

Robert Carney, program chairman, introduced the Parent-Teacher Mothersingers who presented several selections. They were directed by Mrs. Charles Chapman and accompanied by Mrs. John Bills.

Frank Biggers presided at the coffee hour following the recent program.

Programs Combat Age Prejudice in Jobs

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Many women at mid-life and later have a difficult time. There may be a decrease in income and at this time illness is more apt to strike some member of the family.

* * *

Many women of this age are taking care of their older parents and many more have the misfortune of losing their husbands. It may suddenly become imperative that they add to the family income or provide all of it.

Age-consciousness, which is reflected in the classified advertisements, may place them in desperate situations. There is no doubt that though there has been a great shortage of clerical help since World War II, employers as a whole have been slow to employ the woman past 35. Often the age limit is even more ridiculous.

This shortage of office workers had become so acute by 1950 that the Women's Bureau and the Bureau of Employment Security, United States Department of Labor, became interested. In fact the bureau spark-plugged experiments in training the mature woman with refresher courses in clerical work. New York City, Cleveland and Denver tried out such pilot courses.

* * *

In commenting on the women who had completed their courses, the Colorado State Employment Service said, "They are now above the average level of ability and are superior applicants because they are permanent, dependable and have a potential work life of from 10 to 20 years if they remain in good health. Before training they would not have been hired because they did not have a valuable skill to offer."

GREENWICH PROJECT

The project at Greenwich House in New York has succeeded greatly. However, because of lack of funds it cannot expand as those associated with it would like. The other day I had the pleasure of visiting Greenwich House and talking with some of the teachers, leaders and mature women who are preparing to go back into the business world.

* * *

Several factors contribute to the trouble middle-aged women have in getting jobs. In the first place, most employers do prefer younger workers, although this is gradually changing. Also, the age-consciousness the woman herself has may affect her personality and make her defensive.

Then, too, many of these women have not been in the business world for many years and they realize that their skills have become rusty. When they get a job which they cannot adequately fill this adds to the sum total of prejudice against employing the older woman.

I am writing about this problem today and tomorrow because I hope that it may act as a stimulant to such programs in other cities and also because I think that some suggestions may help middle-aged women who are looking for jobs.

Tomorrow: "Community House Aids Older Working Women."

Age-consciousness is reflected in the classified advertisements.

Grammar Corrected by Neighbor

Woman Objects to Public Criticism of Her Errors

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "A neighbor of mine who is a very highly educated person has a habit of correcting me whenever I mispronounce a word or make a grammatical error. I know I don't speak perfect English, but I resent the correction very much when she does it in the presence of others.

"I have not said anything to her about this before because I did not want to hurt her feelings, but it has come to a point where I can't stand it any longer. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully handle this situation?"

Answer: Tell her frankly exactly what you have told me and tell her that you appreciate her kind intention when you are alone with her but that it makes you very unhappy to be criticized before others—who left to themselves would not know how often you make mistakes.

"Dear Mrs. post: My daughter is going to be confirmed shortly and we plan on having a dinner for about 25 close friends and relatives following the church service. "As it will be impossible to seat this number of guests in our dining room at one time, it will be necessary to have two seatings. As parents of the guest of honor, I would like to know if it will be proper for my husband and me to be seated at the first sitting."

Answer: Rather than two seatins, I would like to suggest that a stand-up buffet would be more practical.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it not bad manners to file one's nails in the presence of visitors? A friend and I are having a disagreement over this and would like very much to have you settle it."

Answer: To file a broken nail that is catching onto things would be permissible, but to give yourself a manicure in the presence of anyone whom you consider a "visitor" would be very discourteous. (A member of your family would not be expected to object.)

Couple Reveals Betrothal News

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Daeschner of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine, to Carleton P. McLain Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton P. McLain of Detroit.

Katherine was graduated from Bradford Junior College and Purdue University where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. McLain is an alumnus of Cranbrook school and Princeton University. He is a member of Elm Club. An August wedding is planned by the couple.

Church Group Has Luncheon

Mrs. Robert Sanford was hostess to 25 members and guests of the Mayflower group of First Congregational Church at a luncheon at her home in Drayton Plains. She was assisted by Mrs. William Wilcox.

* * *

Mrs. Gale Hedrick opened the meeting with devotions using as her theme, "Spring." Plans were made to assist the Women's Fellowship of the church in serving a luncheon to the Oakland County Extension Service women May 3. Members sang several hymns accompanied by Mrs. George Gaches at the piano.

Career Demands Good Grooming

BY ANNE HEYWOOD

The older woman has changed a good deal in the past decade, I find.

There was a time when she went to the beauty shop because she was frantically interested in looking as young as a teenager. Her only motive was a neurotic fear of losing her husband.

But with people living decades longer than they used to, and being healthier, too, the older woman is a very different person today.

She no longer wants to look silly-young. She wants to be an attractive woman, of whatever age. And, often as not, she'll have a job on her mind as well as a husband.

* * *

The enlightened people in the beauty business know this and are helping her achieve what she wants.

A well-known New York coiffeur, is one of these.

EMPLOYABLE LOOK

He works a good deal with personnel people and is concerned with the kind of grooming that makes a woman look employable, at whatever age.

Also, he is very much aware of the problem facing the woman who has been a housewife for years and years.

"Frequently," he told me, "the woman who has been busy at home raising children has had to neglect her personal appearance, has been too busy to give it the care it requires—especially for the business world."

He told me of a woman he knew who had all the qualifications necessary for the job she was going after, as an interviewer in consumer research, but was turned down becausce of too-long, straggly, unkempt hair.

* * *

"She was still wearing it the way she did in her 20's," he commented, "which dated her. And it looked so sloppy and careless that the employer probably figured she would be sloppy and careless on the job."

FACE THE FACT

If you are entering the business world for the first time after years as a housewife, do face the fact that grooming is of top importance.

Go and get a really modern and neat hairdo. It's just as much of a business expense, really, as carfare, a basic black dress or a typewriting course!

For further pointers, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of The Pontiac Press and I'll send you my pamphlet, "The Older Woman Goes to Business."

Hazel Park Votes June 11 on $8,500,000 Bond Issue

Plan Greatest School Program

Madison Heights Sets May 7 to Accept Bids for 3 Schools

HAZEL PARK — June 11 is the date set for residents here to vote on a $8½ million school building program.

The largest building program in Hazel Park's history will include a new high school, two junior high schools and additions to elementary schools.

After months of study, the school board made its decision at a special meeting on Friday following recommendations by the Hazel Park Citizens Advisory Committee.

The program includes the sale of Lacy Junior High School so that the property on the corner of John R. and Nine-Mile—the heart of the city's business section—may be used for business purposes.

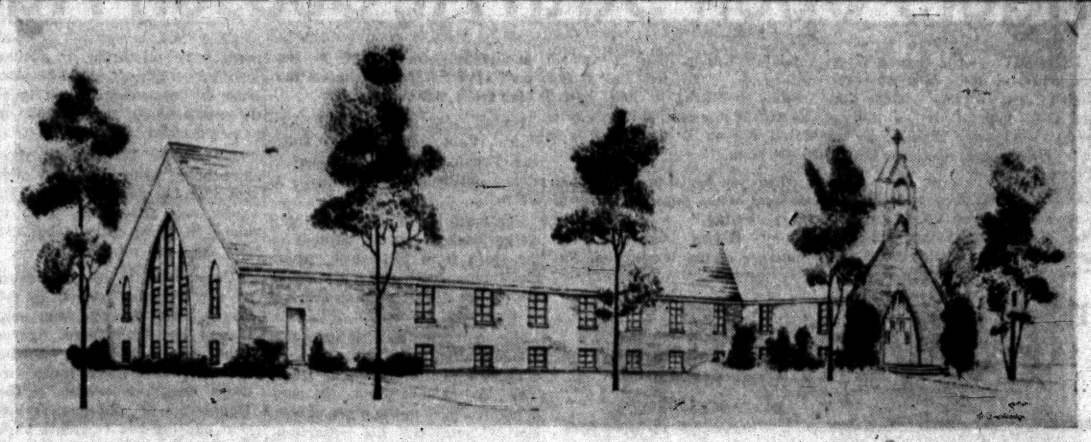

The new high school will be located southeast of Hoover school on Hughes and Felkner.

The new junior high schools will be built on sites west of Martin Road School and on the Ford School site.

MADISON HEIGHTS—Construction bids for three elementary school additions will be accepted by the school board here May 7.

Plans have been approved for the 22 rooms included in the building plans, 6 at Vandenburg, 5 at Monroe and 11 at Edison.

Approval has also been received by the board from the Municipal Finance Commission and the State Department of Public Instruction for sale of $1,500,000 in school bonds recently approved by Madison voters.

ADDITION AT CHRIST LUTHERAN — This is the way Christ Lutheran Church, Airport and Williams Lake Rds., will look when its new addition is completed. The structure will accommodate the growing Sunday School in the basement, and the sanctuary will seat over 400. A $50,000 bond selling drive to complete financing of the $115,000 building is now under way in the Waterford Township church.

Christ Lutheran Church Launches $50,000 Bond Drive

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Christ Lutheran Church, Williams Lake and Airport Rds., has launched a two-week bond selling drive of $50,000 to complete financing for the proposed addition to the present church building.

The program was announced by the Rev. Arvid E. Anderson, pastor. The new structure will cost approximately $115,000. When the drive has been completed, construction will begin immediately.

The structure will be of bessalite block with brick facing and amber glass windows. The full basement will accommodate the growing Sunday School and also serve as a large banquet hall.

The sanctuary will seat over 400. The overall size of the completed church will be 42 by 175.

The congregation was started in 1944 by The Rev. Milton Lundahl of the St. John Lutheran Church, Pontiac, and met in the Waterford Community Activities building until that building was destroyed by fire in January, 1947. The congregation then used the Williams Lake School until the present church was completed in 1949. The Church became self-supporting in January 1953.

The Rev. Mr. Anderson has been pastor since June 1950.

Serving on the building committee are Robert B. Edwards, chairman; Felix Anderson, William Kansier, and Raymond Jacobson. Jerry Mejeur heads the financing committee and working with him are William Cobb and Glen Byington.

'Business Day' Stirs Criticism

Tour of Industry by Teachers Brings Blast From Union Official

LANSING (AP) — An AFL-CIO Union official criticized and a chamber of commerce official supported today a "Business-Education-Industry Day" sponsored by the Lansing Chamber of Commerce.

Clifton Fair, region seven educational representative of the United Auto Workers, took issue with a project in which the city's teachers were guests for a day last week of business and industry groups.

Fair sent a letter to all union officials in western Michigan asking them to oppose similar programs in their areas.

Fair said he was not pushing for a special day for unions, saying he was opposed to any group taking over teachers for a day.

Albert Boyd, general manager of the greater Lansing Chamber of Commerce, said Fair's objections were based on "misunderstanding."

"The visitations," Boyd said, "are part of the educational background the teacher must have if she is going to do a good job in preparing pupils for their place in the community. It is an extension course in economics and civics, like a trip to the legislature by a school class."

Tigers Open 56th AL Season Against A's

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers embarked on their 56th American League season today against Kansas City, hopeful that a pair of husky youngsters would lead the rest of the team out of its batting doldrums.

Only Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn have lived up to expectations at the plate during a 31-game spring exhibition tour that ended Sunday. Kaline, the 21-year-old righthander who led the major leagues in hitting in 1955, batted 320 with 16 hits in 53 at-bats. Kuenn batted .340 on 36 hits in 106 trips to the plate.

"But you have to figure that the rest of the guys are going to start hitting," said Manager Bucky Harris, one-time boy manager of the Washington Nationals in this time around with the Detroit club. Harris managed the club from 1929 through 1933.

Harris said players like Ray Boone, Earl Torgeson, Bill Tuttle and Frank House "are bound to start hitting—the question is when."

The team had a "just wait until we get back to Detroit" attitude on the train from Pittsburgh, where the Tigers closed out their exhibition series Sunday with an 11-9 loss to the lowly Pirates.

But the spring records show that Boone batted only .229, Torgeson only .305, Tuttle .235 and House .255. To make it worse, the combined averages of the other players Harris considers his "starters" figures out to a puny .225.

Harris said he is "disappointed but not worried" about it all. "You know these fellows can hit," he said. "How can you figure that all of a sudden all of them just stopped? I just hope they'll start today."

The Tigers could show the experts were all wrong in picking them for a third straight fifth-place finish by improving in two spots: the extra-inning games and the games decided by one run.

Last season Detroit lost more extra-inning games than any other American League club—nine. The Tigers won seven and were involved in more extra-inning contests than any other club.

Their record in games decided by one run was poorest in the league. The Bengals won only 15 and lost 28. Harris figures improved second line pitching will "certainly mean more victories than last season." The Tigers won 79 and lost 75 last year and finished 17 games back of the title-winning Yankees of New York.

Last year at one time or another the Detroit club had Babe Birrer, Jim Bunning, Joe Coleman, George Zuverink and Leo Cristante in the so-called 2nd line—along with some players still on the roster. But those five names are missing as the Tigers begin another season.

This season, the Tigers feel some of their "second-liners"—like Bud Black, Paul Foytack, Dick Marlowe and Duke Maas, all righthanders, and lefties Al Aber and Bob Miller—have improved vastly. Then there are bonus baby Jim Brady and Pete Wojey to back up starters Bill Hoeft, Frank Lary, Ned Garver, Steve Gromek and Virgil Trucks.

Lary, a 25-year-old righthander, got the nod to open the season today against Kansas City in the first of a three-game series at Briggs stadium. Alex Kellner, veteran Athletic lefthander, opposed him.

THE POWERHOUSE
By Jimmy Powers

It seems to this sideline observer that never before have so many baseball jobs been open as there are this year.

Take Washington. The club has no pitching, no outfielding, no power, and, half an infield. For any healthy young American who can play ball at all, here is a golden opportunity.

I can name a half dozen clubs with three to six varsity positions going begging. Converted outfielders are stumbling around the bases trying to plug gaps in the outer gardens, staggering under high flies bouncing off the fences.

It's little wonder that morale sags by Fourth of July so many clubs are hopelessly mired in second division with absolutely no chance of finishing in the money.

This is the time of year when disgruntled fans assemble teams composed of players rejected or traded away by their home town front offices . . . How about managerial rejects? Casey Stengel, bounced by the Braves and Brooklyn, is making good in the Stadium.

There is Lou Boudreau, managing Kansas City . . . The Indians wished they had kept Birdie Tabbetts in their organization. Birdie is doing fine at Cincinnati.

Charley Dressen is squelching all criticism of Nat trades. Writer said: "I thought you could have gotten a better shake in giving away Porterfield, McDermott and Vernon." Chuck snapped: "We finished a good last with them in '55."

TIGERS' HOPES HOOKED TO KALINE'S HITS

The Tigers are jittery watching Al Kaline. They need his hits. If Al has a bad year the club is cooked. The pitching is only fair, but could mature. Billy Hoeft won 16 last year with a 2.99 ERA. The club has a reputation for coming alive in crucial series.

Remember the last 10 days of the season when the Tigers clobbered the panicky Indians? But in the run-of-the-mine games the team seems to lack spark. It is sluggish until an important series comes along and then it catches fire.

It would take a cold-hearted person, indeed, to begrudge Hurrican Jackson his success in a sport he seems strangely fitted for. The Far Rockaway Fury is doing all right financially with a growing bank account, an annuity and a small piece of real estate fully paid for. He is cvertainly an unpredictable fighter.

At times he looks like a world beater, flinging leather with abandon, his lips peeled back in a friendly grin.

At other times he is moody, stalking about the ring apparently pouting over some imagined grievance. Hurricane meets Johnny Williams, the former British Empire heavyweight king, this Friday in Washington.

★ ★ ★ ★

It could be a good fight, but I expect Williams will come apart at the seams when he runs into Hurricane's buzzsaw attack.

Pitching Key to Brooklyn's Hopes in 1956

Alston Says His Club Will Be OK if Staff Comes Through

BROOKLYN (AP) — Walt Alston, king of the sovereign state of Flatbush, principality of Brooklyn, wore a thoughtful look today as he prepared to lead his world champion Dodgers into their first combat of 1956.

* * *

"If our pitching comes through, we'll be all right," opined the former school master who piloted the Brooks to their first world's championship in history last season.

* * *

"It has looked bad generally in the South," he added, frowning just a little.

Possibly he was thinking back to the pre-season statements of his predecessors — Leo Durocher, Barney Shotton and Chuck Dressen. Their problem always was pitching, too.

Big Don Newcombe, the starter in the opener against the Philadelphia Phillies, was a case in point. Newk is being counted on to act as bellwether of the staff.

"But he's been blowing hot and cold all spring," sighed Alston.

The lefthanded brigade of Brooklyn pitchers is vanishing before Alston's very eyes. Johnny Podres of World Series fame, is in the Navy, Karl Spooner has a sore arm, and Ken Lehman, who was the heir-apparent to Podres, job, has failed to live up to expectations.

"We have been hard hit by injuries," observed Alston, "and under the circumstances, a heavier burden has been placed on our youngsters, Roger Craig, Sandy Koufax and Don Bessent."

44,000 to See Braves' Starter

Gov. Kohler to Toss First Ball in Tilt With Chicago Cubs

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A sell-out crowd of 44,000 ticketholders were prepared today for a chilly afternoon watching the National League opener between the Milwaukee Braves and the Chicago Cubs.

The weatherman predicted cloudy skies, northwest winds and temperatures in the upper 40s at County Stadium.

* * *

Gov. Walter Kohler was asked to toss out the first ball, with game time set for 2:30 p.m. EST.

Lew Burdette, who never before opened or relieved in a Braves' season opener, was picked as the Braves, starting pitcher. Bob Rush, also a righthander, was Chicago's choice.

* * *

Louis Perini, the Braves' president, arrived yesterday upon his return from a trip around the world and told a baseball dinner audience of 800, "I'll be just a little disappointed if the Braves don't win the National League pennant this year."

The Braves finished second last year.

Favorites Roll Past 1st Round

Seixas, Bartzen Move Up in 22nd River Oaks Tennis Tournament

The two top player, Seixas and second-seeded Bernard Bartzen of Dallas, eliminated their first-round foes by identical 6-0, 6-0 scores. The Philadelphian defeated Alfredo Robles of Mexico City while Bartzen downed Tony Trejo.

Gil Shea, Herb Flam, Ed Moylan, Tom Brown, Sidney Schwartz, Grant Golden were among other favorites advancing in the first day's play.

Army Calls Warrior Star Cager Tom Gola

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tom Gola, rookie basketball star for the Philadelphia Warriors and a three-time All America at LaSalle College, was called up for his draft physical today.

Gola helped the Warriors win their first National Basketball Assn. title in 10 years, scoring 732 points during the pro season.

Gola, whose height has been listed variously at 6-6 and 6-7, injured his back while in high school. That may cause his deferment, although it doesn't affect his playing ability. Also, the services usually reject anyone taller than 6-6.

Prep Tankers Beat Collegians on Coast

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A tankfull of Sacramento high school boys are splashing their way to swimimng renown by whipping the college boys.

* * *

A year and a half ago they matched strokes and dives with the varsity at the University of California at Los Angeles and ended up with 14 points to spare.

Already this season they have sunk the varsities of San Jose State College, California Polytechnic and the College of the Pacific. In 15 starts they've lost only once. Last season they dropped two.

The boys swim under the banner of the suburban Arden Hills Swimming and Tennis Club, although they attend two different high schools.

Today, incidentally, they're in Berkeley taking on the University of California frosh.

* * *

And they're rarin' to swim, fresh from last Saturday's first defeat of the season. The Stanford frosh beat them, 45-38. The meet wasn't over till the last event, though, when they lost the free-style relay.

* * *

Most of the Arden boys got their start at the YMCA where Coach Sherman Chavoor taught them and led them to the pool of the club he now owns. He has a squad of about a dozen.

* * *

The star is Brian Hogan, 15, who holds five different National AAU records for boys 14 or younger. Chavoor started him off at nine. Tom Nevin, 16, holder of the National Junior Olympics 400-yard freestyle, is also on the roster. So are Gil Soltero, 16, Junior Olympic diving champion and Ted Baker, 17, coholder of the Junior Olympic 50-yard freestyle title.

Eight of Chavoor's graduates have college swimming scholarships, six at College of Pacific in Stockton and one each at Stanford and California.

Chavoor's boys recently swamped Monterey College, Vallejo College and Stockton and Sacramento Junior Colleges.

Secrets of Better Golf

By Patty Berg

Some players have personal idiosyncrasies when it comes to the motions they employ just before starting the club back on the backswing with a driver. I am one of these players. Although it may not be part of your swing, it is definitely a "must" for me.

I feel this initial motion—waggle with the hands and forward press with the right knee—relaxes my muscles so my body can pivot or coil completely. It is like warming up the engine a second before putting the car in rear. If it is not part of your stroke, you might give it a workout and see if it eases your swing any.

After this initial motion, the club should be started back in a one-piece motion by the hands, arms, shoulders and body. The club is swung, not picked up or lifted back. You should have the feeling of a weight pulling your arms out and back. Keeping this thought in mind generally aids me in extending my arms through the swing.

The clubhead should be kept low to the ground in your original motion. For the average player it is wise not to hurry the backswing. Remember, a speedy backswing is often wasted energy. Conserve your speed for the downswing where it is essential to distance.

As the club moves back, your weight shifts to the right leg and the left knee bends gradually toward the right knee. This is a natural movement of the body if you are doing it right.

When the club is about waist high, your wrists will start to cock or break. I feel to much emphasis is placed on the cocking of the wrists by the average player.

There should be no need for thought; the cocking of the wrist is as natural as the shifting of your weight from left to right. If the club is taken back in the proper arc, your wrists will cock without any meditation over it.

One of the important points I would like to stress is the fact the body, hips and shoulders pivot as if on an axis. So many beginners sway from the ball rather than pivot. If you work on pivoting on your backswing, the other motions will follow naturally.

GOOD BACKSWING FOLLOWS NATURAL BODY MOTIONS

Pontiac High School cagers and swimmers, members of the girls cheer-leading contingent, and the Junior Varsity and sophomore basketball and tank squads were honored last night at a pleasant affair in the school cafeteria.

Rod Treais and Willie Dewalt were elected honorary captains for the last season. No captains are named at the start of the cage years.

Roberts Faces Don Newcombe

BROOKLYN (AP)—Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, who has registered 20 or more victories six years in a row, faces Don Newcombe on the mound today as the Brooklyn Dodgers open defense of their National League title at Ebbets Field.

These strapping righthanders were the major leagues' only 20-game winners in 1955. It was to be the seventh straight opening day assignment for Roberts. He has won three and lost three.

The Dodgers, who ran up 10 straight victories at the season's start a year ago, planned to start rookie Charley Neal at second base. He replaces Junior Gilliam, shifted to left field.

Ted Kazanski, a second baseman, was the only new player for the Phils.

Philadelphia, with its 100,000-seat Municipal Stadium and a gross gate expected to top the best New York could offer by $190,000, will get the game instead. It also has been the site of recent Army-Navy games.

* * *

Game time is Oct. 12, 1957—ending a 10-year break in football rivalry between the two institutions.

Yankee Stadium, with a maximum capacity of 74,000, was the site New York had to offer, but Lt. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy, said he "reluctantly" had to choose Philadelphia because of greater seating capacity and the prospect of greater revenue.

* * *

He announced his decision after conferring with Mayor Robert Wagner of New York and George Weiss, general manager of the New York Yankee Baseball Club, yesterday. He indicated he would confer with Yankee officials about bringing some other Army game to New York.

Mayor Wagner said the situation pointed up the need for a larger stadium in New York. A bill setting up a tax-free authority to build a 30-million-dollar home for the Brooklyn Dodgers currently is being considered by Gov. Harriman and the Borough of Manhattan is talking about a 110,000-seat stadium for the New York Giants.

Lindsay Named on All-Stars

MONTREAL (AP)—The Montreal Canadiens, runaway leaders of the National Hockey League all season and winners of the Stanley Cup, placed four men on the NHL's All-Star team today.

* * *

The only unanimous choice was big Jean Beliveau, the league scoring champion and star center for the Canadiens. Doug Harvey missed a unanimous choice on defense by three points.

* * *

Goalie Jacques Plante of Montreal, the Vezina Trophy winner, won the All-Star goalie berth and Maurice (Rocket) Richard nailed down the right-wing position. Captain Ted Lindsay of Detroit won the left-wing spot.

The big surprise on the team was the selection of Bill Gadsby of New York over Red Kelly of Detroit for the other defense berth. Gadsby edged the Red Wings star by two points.

* * *

Kelly had been selected five straight years to the first All-Star team, but a stint as a forward this season hurt his chances of extending the string.

The team was selected by sports writers in all NHL cities.

* * *

Five points were given for a first choice, three for a second choice and one for third. The maximum total is 180 points.

Three members of the Red Wings, two Canadiens and one Toronto player made the second team.

Detroit's Glenn Hall won the call in goal, with Kelly and Tom Johnson of Montreal on defense. Tod Sloan of Toronto was picked as center with Gordie Howe of Detroit on right wing and Bert Olmstead of Montreal on left.

Each member of the first team receives $1,000 from the NHL and the second-team players get $500.

The teams showed only two changes from those selected in midseason. Gadsby replaced Kelly on the first-team defense and Hall replaced Lorne Worsley of New York in goal on the second team.

Dodge Settles Suit Against Tennis Star

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Attorneys reported that the $300,000 damage slander suit brought against Horace E. Dodge II by Gardnar Mulloy, Miami tennis player, has been dismissed.

Counsel for both sides said yesterday the suit was dismissed after the two parties resolved their differences amicably.

The attorneys reported that Mulloy recently visited the Dodges at their Palm Beach home. Dodge is a member of the Detroit automobile family.

'Natives' Race at Bowie

BOWIE, Md. (AP)—The 33rd and final day of horse racing at Bowie today is featured by a race for 2-year-old natives of Maryland.

Twelve of the young Marylanders are slated to race 4½ furlongs in the $7,500-added Bowie Breeders Stake.

Johnny Groth Appears Today With A's Club

DETROIT (AP) — A familiar face popped up in Briggs Stadium today with the Kansas City Athletics. The A's, themselves, had no idea until late yesterday he might be around.

* * *

The face was that of Johnny Groth, one-time baseball golden boy who tarnished. Athletics claimed him on waivers from the Washington Senators yesterday.

Groth began with Detroit in the majors and always showed promise of flowering into a spectacular fielder and hitter. He never did.

Groth hit .254 last season and ended up with the Senators in a deal that sent outfielder Jim Busby to Chicago and then to Cleveland.

Cincinnati relief pitcher, Hal Jeffcoat, turned from the outfield to the mound during spring training with the Chicago Cubs in 1954.

BOB GAJDA, Forest Lake

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Another student from Al Watrous' school of assistants is genial Bob Gajda the pro at fast growing Forest Lake.

This is Bob's 3rd year at this club along with his capable assistant Knobby Walsh.

It didn't take long for Bob and Forest Lake to get next to the big names in golf.

Last year, his 2nd season at the club, he and the membership joined forces to bring to Michigan the top lady pros in the country.

The Wolverine tournament was so successful that the LPGA has decided to hold its national meet at Forest Lake, June 21-24.

* * *

Gajda started his caddying at the Detroit Golf Club in 1929. He turned pro in 1947 when he became the assistant at Red Run.

After two years, he moved on to Oakland Hills under Al Watrous where he stayed for five years before going to Forest Lake.

Bob expects this to be a peak year for his club with the three-year building program reaching the completion stage.

(Tomorrow we present Warren Orlich, pro at Tam O'Shanter Country Club.)

'Don't Count 'Em Out,' Tiger Coach Says of U.S. Olympic Hopes

NEW YORK (AP) — "Don't count the Admirals out."

That's the word from college rowing coaches who hope to beat Navy's Admirals, the 1952 Olympic championship crew, for the honor of representing Uncle Sam in the Melbourne Games.

* * *

The Admirals, stroked by Ed Stevens, never tasted defeat between 1952 and 1954 when they racked up 29 straight in the academy's colors. The fact that they were defeated so early was no surprise. That it was Princeton's green crew to turn the trick was a definite upset.

"The season's young and don't count the Admirals out," said Dutch Schoch, coach of Princeton's upsetters. "The Admirals have plenty of time yet."

Trotters Beat Stars to Clinch Cage Tour

CHICAGO (AP) — The Harlem Globetrotters clinched their barnstorming tour with the College All-Stars last night with a 67-59 triumph, their 11th in 18 games.

Tom Heinsohn, All-America from Holy Cross, was the game's high scorer with 20 points. Stars led 19-18 at the end of the first quarter but the Globetrotters went ahead to stay at the half, 39-35.

The two teams, who played before 13,244 last night, meet at Chicago Stadium again tonight. They move on to Cleveland Wednesday and finish up at Indianapolis Thursday.

Sailor, winner of the 1956 Gulfstream Park Handicap, has a full brother named Sea Test.

Ike Starts It!

Yanks, Nats Open Season

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York's pennant defending veterans do battle today with Washington's pink-cheeked youngsters before President Eisenhower and an anticipated gathering of 28,500 in Griffith Stadium.

Following a tradition that goes back almost half a century, Eisenhower was scheduled to throw out the first ball to make official the start of the 1956 baseball season.

The weather forecast was partly cloudy and windy with the temperature around the 50s.

Eisenhower planned to arrive at the stadium 15 minutes before the 1:30 p.m. (EST) starting time to fling the replica of an oldtime baseball into a mass of scrambling Yanks and Senators. The President expected to stay for at least part of the game.

* * *

He's a fan, and in the past surprised the late Clark Griffith, the Senators' long-time president, with his knowledge of players and records. Mickey Vernon was an Eisenhower favorite, but the lanky first baseman has since gone to the Boston Red Sox.

* * *

Against a Yankee lineup including only one newcomer, shortstop Jerry Lumpe, Washington Manager Chuck Dressen fielded a collection of big league newcomers hands, Roy Sievers at first, Pete Runnels at second and Eddie Yost at third.

* * *

Six of the Senators were playing in a major league opener for the first time. Among them is Camilo Pascual, chosen to oppose the Yankees' Don Larsen in a duel of right-handed pitchers.

Pascual, who won two and lost 12 last year, has never beaten the Yanks. Larsen, whose 9-2 log gave New York a big push toward the 1955 American League pennant, hasn't scored over Washington since 1953. At that time he was with the old St. Louis Browns.

An operation to remove scar tissue from a childhood injury will be performed Thursday by Dr. Danie H. Leventhal at Santa Monica, Calif.

Cold Weather Is Promised for Hose, Indian Opener

CHICAGO (AP)—Cold and cloudy weather threatened to mar opening day ceremonies between the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago White Sox today before an expected crowd of 30,000.

* * *

Aside from the fact that both teams are front-line contenders for the American League pennant, added interest stems from the big winter deal between the two clubs.

The Indians traded slugger Larry Doby to the Sox for shortstop Chico Carrasquel and outfielder Jim Busby. All three will be in the starting lineups as will Luis Aparicio, rookie shortstop who is expected to fill the gap left by Carrasquel.

* * *

The weatherman has forecast cool and cloudy weather with the temperature reaching a high of 46.

White Sox Manager Marty Marion has named southpaw Billy Pierce (15-10) to oppose Cleveland star Bob Lemon (18-10). Pierce won two and lost four to Cleveland last year while Lemon beat the Sox five times in seven games.

* * *

Mayor Richard Daley will toss out the first ball, a replica of one used in 1876, and there'll be a Marine color guard for traditional flag raising ceremonies.

Cleveland had a successful spring record, finishing second only to the Yankees in American League standings but the Sox lost 11 of their last 12 games and had a 12-18 record.

Ryney, Bragan in Major Debuts

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Ryney, taking over for Leo Durocher, and Bobby Bragan, replacing Fred Haney, make their major league managerial debuts today when the New York Giants clash with the Pittsburgh Pirates in the season's opener at the Polo Grounds. About 25,000 fans are expected.

* * *

Ryney called on lefty Johnny Antonelli for the Giants while Bragan pinned Pittsburgh hopes on Bob Friend, the National League's earned - run leader last season when he compiled a 14-9 record. Antonelli also won 14 games in 1955, but he lost 16.

* * *

The Pirates, seeking to improve on their last-place finish of a year ago, have Curt Roberts at second base and Bobby del Greco in center field. Both are up from Hollywood. Danny Kravitz, a .298 batter for New Orleans, is the new catcher.

Hector Constance, Trinidad middleweight boxer, came to the United States from England in 1954.

Former Major League Player Dies on Links

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — George Puccinelli, 48, an outfielder with the St. Louis Browns and Cardinals and the Philadelphia Athletics in the 30s, died yesterday while playing golf.

* * *

Puccinelli, a television repairman, also had played with San Francisco and Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League, Baltimore, Houston, Rochester, Dallas and Shelby, Mont., where he started pro ball in 1925.

He is survived by the widow, Roma.

Pontiac Prepsters Share State 'Y' Swim Crown

The Pontiac YMCA prep swimmers, ages 9-12, tied with Detroit Northern 'Y' for the state YMCA swimming championship Saturday at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Pontiac scored 51 points to equal Northern and climax a successful weekend for the city's YMCA tankers in the Jenison Fieldhouse pool. The intermediate B and A swimmers took 2nd and 4th places respectively in Friday's competition.

Mike Harrington, who has been a winner in every meet this season, won the 25-yard butterfly breaststroke in the time of 16.2 seconds and teamed with Ed Kummert, Bruce Norvell and Tom Eley to win the 100-yard medley relay with a clocking of 1:04.1.

Pontiac prepsters who finished in the running in individual events were Phil Cashion, Jim Velzy, Bob Newman, Dick Richards, Eley, Norvell and Kummert. The 100-yard freestyle relay team of Tom McKinnon, David Sias, Velzy and Newman placed 4th.

The junior swimmers, ages 13-14, scored four points in their division. Jim Gibbs, Ron Newman and Dennis Roberts placed for Pontiac. A total of 14 YMCA teams participated in the state meet.

Pontiac and Northern will share the trophy, each 'Y' holding the prize six months. Medals and ribbons will be awarded place winners.

Milford High Pitcher Drops No-Hit Effort

Control Trouble Helps Lakers Nip McFarlane; Clarkston Wins 2nd

Milford High School's Al McFarlane hurled a no-hit game Monday afternoon — and lost.

The Redskin pitcher completely silenced the bats of West Bloomfield in the Wayne-Oakland League season opener yesterday at Keego Harbor, but control trouble plus a costly error led to his downfall as the Lakers won, 3-1.

McFarlane struck out 10 opponents but issued seven bases on balls and three of them scored. Two walks, a double steal and an invield miscue produced two runs in the 5th and another pass and wild pitch tallied the 3rd run in the 6th.

John Lucadum hurled for the Lakers and gave up three hits, all singles, while walking two and fanning nine. McFarlane, who collected two of Milford's safeties, singled home the lone tally in the 2nd.

Clarkston raceked up its 2nd win of the season, defeating Oxford in an abbreviated game at Clarkston, 3-1. The teams played only five innings by pregame agreement due to inclement weather.

Dave Gaddis pitched three innings for the Wolves to receive credit for the win with Gary Nelson finishing. Atwood and Harrison worked for Oxford, Atwood the starter and loser.

Clarkston scored twice in the 2nd inning and once in the 3rd. The Wildcats tallied their only run in the 5th stanza.

Berrios Defies Sandy Saddler

Pint-Sized 'Feather' Seeks to Fight Champ or Frenchman Hamia

NEW YORK (AP) — Miguel Berrios, a pint-sized featherweight with a big book and a big heart, today dared champion Sandy Saddler and French contender Cherif Hamia to take him on.

* * *

The 5-2, 23-year-old Puerto Rican who now lives in New York issued his challenge to the top 126-pounders after beating experienced Bobby Bell of Youngstown, Ohio, in a televised 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

A solid right to the chin in the final round staggered the 27-year old Bell and gave Miguel his second straight split verdict over the Ohioan and his fourth consecutive win.

"I'm going to the commission this week and post a forfeit check for a title fight with Saddler," said manager Jimmy DeAngelo as his tiny gladiator vigorously nodded his head.

Majors Face Many Queries in '56 Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Will Brooklyn dash from the barrier for 10 straight, as it did last year? Did the Yankees pick up pennant insurance when they snagged southpaw Maury McDermott from Washington? Are the Boston Red Sox improved sufficiently to wrest the American League title from New York?

* * *

Which team got the better of the deal that sent Larry Doby to Chicago and Chico Carrasquel to Cleveland last winter? Can rookie Luis Aparicio fill Carrasquel's shoes at shortstop for the White Sox? Is Hank Sauer the answer to St. Louis' quest for right-handed punch? Can Jackie Robinson's legs hold up for a full season? Will Gene Conley and Curt Simmons recover from their sore arms?

These are some of the questions confronting the 16 managers today as the 1956 major league season got under way in eight big league cities. It marked the first time in many years that all clubs inaugurated their campaigns simultaneously.

* * *

Although tabbed as heavy favorites to meet again in the World Series, the Yankees and the Dodgers, like the 14 other clubs, are beset with problems. The Yankees are vulnerable at shortstop and in the relief department. Their biggest headache may come from their strongest department — the outfield.

Brooklyn is plagued by pitching miseries. The departure of Johnny Podres, the lame arms of Billy Loes and Karl Spooner and the uncertainty of Carl Erskine to pitch the full season with a balky elbow should prevent a romp such as last year.

Every contender has key men who must come through for their clubs to win.

Milwaukee's key man is Conley. If he can't pitch, the Braves will be lucky to finish second. Daryl Spencer must fill the second-base vacancy for the Giants, Vinegar Bend Mizell must become the St. Louis' Cards' "stopper" on the mound, Simmons must regain his winning form for Philadelphia and Cincinnati must come up with adequate pitching to supplement their awesome hitting.

* * *

Approximately 250,000 spectators, barring bad weather, was expected to view the openers. A crowd of some 28,500 is assured at the nation's capital where President Eisenhower was all set to uncork the first "pitch", the signal for the official opening of the '56 season. The scheduled pitchers were Don Larsen (9-2) for New York and Camilo Pasqual (2-12) for Washington.

NAVAL OPERATION — Eddie Erdelatz appears confused in spring football practice at the United States Naval Academy. Halfback Chet Burchett, guard Jim Hower, center Wilson Whitmire and halfback Ned Oldham, left to right, are the only holdovers from the starting lineup of last season. There are shoes to fill, but they hardly will be empty when the Middies take the field in September.

Bennie Tries Daring Experiment; Tries Kramer at Halfback Position

ANN ARBOR (AP)—"If you're scared you'd better not play football . . ."

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan opened the University of Michigan spring football practice yesterday with those words, while the wind, sleet and snow backgrounded some daring pigskin experiments.

Specifically, Oosterbaan was referring to a West Coast idea that short sleeves on burly football players might scare the opposing team.

But his words had more of a significance.

Oosterbaan's 9th edition of the Wolverines has little to lose. After last year's 3rd place finish, they are at best a Big Ten dark horse. They can afford to be daring.

One of the most heralded of the experiments may never stick. It's the shift of Ron Kramer, one of the top all-time Michigan athletes, from end to right halfback.

Kramer himself isn't sure it will work. "It's too early to tell," he said. "I've only just started at the position. I'll do the best I can."

Oosterbaan is more confident. "Kramer's shift won't make us change our strategy . . . I think he can start fast enough in the single wing to work the reverse . . . we wouldn't try him if we didn't think he had possibilities."

Even Oosterbaan admits grudgingly that the combination of two fine pass receivers like these on one side of the Michigan line "may offer some difficulties to a defense."

But Oosterbaan still spells out the major Wolverine weakness as passing.

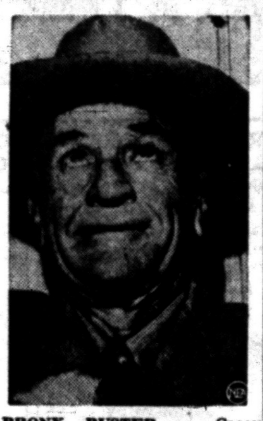

With last year's regulars Jim Maddock and Jim Van Pelt back again there's some hope they will have improved. If they haven't smooth working sophomore Bob Ptacek of Cleveland and un-used junior Jack Lousma of Ann Arbor can press for the job.

The Wolverines are still equipped with the finest contingent of ends in the Big Ten. They have so many they're trying some at other positions.

Assistant end coach Bob Hollway says letterman end Mike Rotunno (6-foot, 190 pounds) of Canton, Ohio may shift to center while sophomore end Walt Johnson (6-foot-2, 212 pounds) of Dearborn may move to tackle.

That would leave regular Charlie Brooks, Dave Bowers, a 6-foot-2, 195-jound junior from Traverse City, and a sophomore prospect, Gary Prahst (6-foot-4, 210) of Berea, Ohio carrying the major pass receiving load with Maentz.

In the line, coach Jack Blott insists "there's a lot of beef out there but we want the fastest men in spite of their size."

BRONX BUSTER — Casey Stengel couldn't come out of Texas enroute home to Yankee Stadium without 10-gallon hat.

Big Goal for Bears

BERKLEY, Calif. (AP) — The California Bears football team opened spring practice yesterday with a big goal, a better record than last season's 2 wins, 7 losses and 1 tie, the worst in nine years under Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf.

Waldorf has 19 lettermen, eight more than last spring, and a good sprinkling of transfers and sophomores.

Williams Starts Season 1st Time in Four Years

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, displaying a "new look" infield and Ted Williams in an opening game lineup for the first time in four years, met the Baltimore Orioles today in the 1956 American League curtain-raiser at Fenway Park.

* * *

Big Frank Sullivan, the Sox Ace righthander who won 18 games and lost 13 last year, and veteran southpaw Bill Wight of the Orioles drew the starting mound assignments. Wight posted a 6-8 record in 1955.

Despite the weatherman's forecast of partly cloudy with temperatures in the low 50s, a crowd of 20,000 was expected to see Massachusetts Gov. Christian A. Herter throw out the first ball.

* * *

Williams, the only player left from the Red Sox pennant winner in 1946, is counted upon to be on hand for his first full season since 1951. The tall slugger, with 394 major league homers and a lifetime batting average of .348, has missed time during the past four years because of the Korean War, injuries and personal affairs.

Bob Pettit, high scorer for the 1955-56 National Basketball Assn. campaign, also led the league in most rebounds with 1,164, breaking the record of 1,098 made two seasons previous by Harry Gallatin of the New York Knickerbockers.

New Supreme Allied Head Has Brilliant Background

WASHINGTON (INS)—The new Supreme Allied Commander for Europe is a tall, blond, Minneapolis-born son of a Lutheran minister who looks as much like a motion picture hero as any officer in the Air Force.

Gen. Lauris Norstad, who was named by President Eisenhower to succeed retiring Gen. Alfred M. Grunther in the Paris command, is also rated as Gruenther's equal in intellectual brilliance.

Now 49 years old, Norstad became a major general in World War II at a time when his appointment required a special act of Congress because of his youth.

* * *

The President first met Norstad during the North African campaign. Eisenhower later wrote that "he so impressed me by his alertness, grasp of problems and personality that I never thereafter lost sight of him . . . he was, and is, one of those rare men whose capacity knows no limit."

IN EUROPE SINCE 1950

Norstad is still the first Air Force officer to get a major overseas command involving extensive allied forces and requiring diplomatic ability in dealing with foreign governments.

* * *

He has been in Europe with the U.S. Air Force and the Supreme Allied Command since 1950, and is believed to have laid a secure groundwork for the job ahead of him.

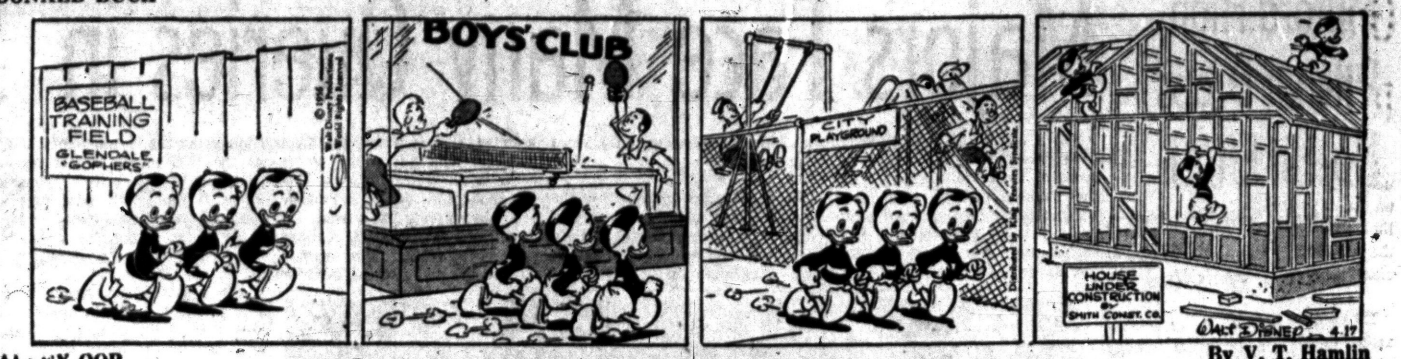

His biggest job is holding together and maintaining the spirit of the loosely-bound North Atlantic Treaty forces. He has shown tolerance and skill in recognizing the problems of other nations.

During the long delay that preceded formation of the present European military forces, he said: "I think we should be tolerant of delays; after all, our own Congress frequently debates at great length before it takes action."

Norstad added that some resentment against U. S. forces abroad is inevitable, and said "if the French had air bases scattered through Illinois, Indiana, and Iowa, I'm not sure our own people's reaction would be all sweetness and light."

Norstad was born March 24, 1907, and was graduated from West Point in 1930. He was air operations officer for the North African invasion, and later chief of staff of the 20th Air Force in the Mediterranean.

Grains Continue to Move Ahead

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains continued to advance in active dealings on the Board of Trade today but their gains were not as large as in the latter part of the previous session.

* * *

The market opened with a rush as buying was stimulated by President Eisenhower's statement yesterday that he would boost the price support level on this year's wheat and corn crops to at least 82½ per cent of parity.

There was plenty of grain for sale, however, and the market was by no means a one-way street.

* * *

Prices dipped below the opening levels as active trading proceeded.

Wheat near the end of the fist hour was ¼ to ⅞ higher, May $2.38; corn ½ to 1¼ higher, May $1.46⅞; oats unchanged to ⅜ higher, May 65; rye ½ to ¾ higher, May $1.30½; soybeans ¼ to 2½ higher, May $2.94¼; lard 5 to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $13.70.

Does Your Youngster Suck His Thumbs?

DETROIT (AP)—A Brazilian child specialist says that when children suck their thumbs after they are 4 years old it probably means the parents need mental treatment.

* * *

Dr. Hans Freudenthal of Sao Paulo told the continental convention of the Michigan State Dental Assn. yesterday that thumb sucking is likely to begin because bottle fed babies don't get enough mouth exercise.

"If it continues after the fourth year," he said, "it means either that the child feels rejected and needs more attention and affection; or that the child is maladjusted or mentally retarded."

"The habit gets fixed for psychological reasons," he added. "Maybe his parents quarrel a lot. They have mental problems which reflect in their offspring."

More than 2,000 dentists, including guests from nearly all states and Canada, are attending the four-day meeting that opened yesterday.

Arthur J. Bogue, 42, of Detroit, yesterday was named manager of the Pontiac Branch of the Automobile Club of Michigan located at 63 N. Perry St.

The announcement was made by the Auto Club General Manager E. S. Matheson. Bogue replaces Emerson Alston who died last month.

Bogue has been one of the club's leading membership counselors in its northwest Detroit territory for eight years. He was assigned to the Palmer Woods district previously and last year received the club's award for outstanding service to motorists as a membership counselor.

Born in Ontonagon in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Bogue later received a business administration degree from St. Patrick's College in Ottawa, Canada.

In 1936-37-38, he was one of two Michigan players to play on the United States Olumpic Hockey team in the world's championship competition.

Bogue presently lives in Detroit but plans to move to the Pontiac area with his wife Barbara and their six children.

Glass for Tornado Area Lost in Fire

KALAMAZOO (AP)—A load of 380 cartons of window glass, earmarked for the tornado stricken area of western Michigan, was destroyed today when a semi-trailer truck caught fire near Galesburg. Damage was estimated at $10,000.

* * *

State police said the truck driver apparently failed to realize that a flattened tire had caught fire until a motorst spotted the smoking rubber on a rear wheel of the vehicle about 10 miles east of Kalamazoo on the U. S. 12 bypass.

* * *

The truck driver, Donald Moore, 39, of Grand Rapids, pulled up to the side of the road and made an unsuccessful attempt to put out the fire with an extinguisher. He managed to disconnect the cab from the trailer, but the trailer and its load of excelsior-packed glass were destroyed.

Lapeer Mother Jailed on Probation Break

LAPEER (AP) — Mrs. Grace Teverstol, 29, of Otter Lake, was convicted of manslaughter in the slaying of her husband in the climax to a drinking bout, and Circuit Judge Timothy Quinn placed her on four years probation last January. One of the judge's probationary specifications was that she should not frequent places where liquor was sold.

Today Mrs. Teversol's probation has been revoked and she faces the next 2 to 15 years imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction. Under-Sheriff W. J. Porter said she had frequented a number of bars, on one occasion leaving a 10-year-old daughter alone at home with a drinking man.

Mrs. Teversol was convicted of manslaughter in the shotgun slaying of her husband, Glendon, 35, in the climax to a drinking bout at the Otter Lake home. She said he dared her to shoot him; she didn't know the gun was loaded.

Nance Reports More Red Ink

Informs Stockholders of Inadequate Sales for Studebaker-Packard

DETROIT (AP) — The Studebaker-Packard Corp., which lost 29 million dollars last year and still is losing money, is in an "extremely difficult situation," President James J. Nance told stockholders yesterday.

* * *

Nance reported that new financing which the company hoped to negotiate earlier this year "did not materialize as expected."

New car sales have been disappointing, too, Nance told a somewhat stormy session of stockholders, which re-elected all directors.

Asserting that new financing this year virtually is mandatory, Nance said the company's directors and its finance committee are giving the problem serious attention and alternate plans and courses of action are being prepared and studied.

Because factory sales to dealers in 1956 have been "most unsatisfactory," Nance said that when financial statements are completed for this year's first quarter they will show a loss.

* * *

So far this year the combined output of Studebaker and Packard cars has been 42,705 units of an industry total to date of 2,010,698 cars.

Some Say: 'It Will Hlep the Party'

Ike Farm Bill Veto Causes Some GOP Dissatisfaction

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Evidence of some Republican dissatisfaction with President Eisenhower's farm bill veto emerged today from a GOP campaign conference despite Party Chairman Leonard W. Hall's contention it "will help the Republican party."

* * *

Eisenhower will speak at a final conference session tonight—in effect formally opening his re-election campaign.

George F. Etzell, Minnesota national committeeman, told reporters the farm bill veto "is going to make it harder for us to elect Republicans in the Midwest."

* * *

A committee headed by Etzell heard at closed sessions yesterday what some members described as unfavorable reports about the political complexion of the farm situation from Kansas and South Dakota.

The committee arranged to hear today from representatives of Colorado, North Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska.

Kansas National Committeeman Harry Darby was reported to have told the group Kansas may turn out some Republican congressmen because of farm price dissatisfaction. The South Dakota delegation, headed by Senators Francis Case and Mundt, was said to have made it clear they don't want Secretary of Agriculture Benson campaigning in their states.

Hall said the farm bill veto "won't make my job any tougher," but he indicated rather clearly the Republicans hope to make up in the big cities any votes they might lose in farm areas.

* * *

"To my mind, the Republican party is doing all right in the cities," he said.

Hall said the Democrats in Congress had "stalled" action on farm legislation. He intimated they deliberately sent Eisenhower a bill they hoped he would veto.

* * *

"The President was absolutely right in vetoing the farm bill and he will be sustained by the American people," he said.

He said the farm situation "is not as I would like it," but he said he doesn't think it will cost the Republicans any states in the November presidential election.

* * *

"In my opinion the veto will help the Republican party," he said. He added he thinks Eisenhower's proposal for new soil bank legislation —which Congress may not pass— and for price support increases "will take care of the economic picture quite well" in the farm areas.

Dissents to the veto action appeared to be limited among the Republicans to states in the Midwest tier which depend largely on one crop. GOP workers from states where diversified farming is the rule voiced no public complaints.

Williams Signs 'Big Truck' Bill

Issues Order for Strict Enforcement of Speeds and 'Tailgateing'

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams, in signing a bill sought by the trucking industry, has called for stricter enforcement of state laws governing truck speeds and forbidding "tailgaiteing."

* * *

The bill signed Monday by the Governor makes permanent the existing temporary 55-foot maximum on the length of trucks and truck-trailer combinations. Without it, the limit would have reverted in 1960 to 50 feet.

Williams said that after consulting State Police and highway commissioners he concluded that reducing the truck length maximum five feet was unlikely to cut the accident rate.

The Governor said some of the truckers who share the public roads with motorists have brought about a recent increase in complaints of violation of the 45 mile an hour speed limit and the law requiring truckers to maintain a 500-foot interval while moving on the highways.

He said the state wants to be fair with the truckers, who occupy an important place in the state's economy, but "the truckers must be fair with the public, too."

* * *

Also signed by the Governor Monday were bills which:

Appropriate $237,500 in state funds to be used in combination with Federal aid monies for construction of a terminal building at Capital Airport in Lansing.

Provide for fact-finding and unbinding recommendations in labor disputes involving public employes.

8 Retarded Children Enter Custer Hospital

The eight, all girls, were brought here from the Coldwater State Home and Training School.

Raymond Peters, business manager of the new Fort Custer Home, said there now are 230 beds ready for use and that by next weekend there will be more than 400. November is the target date for having accommodations ready for a maximum 800.

* * *

The state leased the Fort Custer Hosptial from the Army last February for three and a half years, and the state appropriated $350,000 to remodel the hospital into a facility for mentaly retarded children.

Straits Bridge Work Stopped

Tugmen Yell 'Lockout' as Strike Hits Chicago Yard, Affects Seaway

DETROIT (AP)—Federal mediators will meet with dredge operators and tugboat men Friday in an effort to resolve a contract dispute that has stopped work on the Straits of Mackinac Bridge.

* * *

Involved in the dispute are some 100 crewmen employed by dredging firms throughout the Great Lakes including the substructure of the new 100 million dollar bridge.

The disagreement also is holding up the start of work on the St. Lawrence deep waterwa channel.

Patrick J. Cullnan of Chicago, president of the Licensed Tugmen's Protective Assn., termed the dispute a "lockout."

WANT PAY HIKES

The tugmen employed on the bridge work for Fitzsimmons & Connell Dredge and Dock Co., a division of Merritt, Chapman & Scott Corp., contractors for the bridge foundation. American Bridge Division of U. S. Steel Corp. which holds the contract for the superstructure of the bridge, is not affected.

Cullnan said primary issues are the tugmen's demand for a 40-hour work week without loss of pay, and an increase of at least 10 per cent in hourly wage rates.

Besides the bridge, the stoppage affected primarily work which Great Lakes Dredge and Dock had planned to get under way on the Seaway at Ogensburg, N. Y.

CHICAGO STRUCK

The Chicago yards of Merritt, Chapman & Scott, and Great Lakes Dredge and Dock were picketed yesterday but company spokesman said members of other maritime unions passed through lines.

In New York, a Merritt, Chapman & Scott spokesman said, "to our knowledge, the stoppage is part of a general tugboat strike on the Great Lakes and it affects other firms in the areas as well as us."

He said information available at the firm's headquarters was that the bridge work was halted only as part of an "overall strike" and not as a result of any separate dispute.

Five concerts are promised for the 1956-57 season. The choice was made from ballots which accompanied the membership cards. Those receiving the highest rating were:

The Columbus Boy Choir; Amparo Iturbi, sister of Jose Iturbi, the pianist; Carl Palangi, bass baritone; duo piano team, Nelson and Neal, and a dance duo, Carola-Goya Matteo.

Saginaw Becomes Port for Shipment of Grain

SAGINAW (AP) The first boatload of grain shipped from Saginaw in modern Great Lakes history was to move out today from the Saginaw Grain Co.

A cargo of 75,000 tons was loaded aboard the freighter Carrollton for Buffalo.

Saginaw Grain Co. recently completed dock installations to make Saginaw an important grain terminal. It plans shipments of 75,000 bushels of wheat next week, 80,000 bushels the following week, and 180 tons of corn in May.

Rainier's Small Yacht May Make Grace Sick

By EARL WILSON

MONACO — Her Serene Highness faces a possible seasick honeymoon.

Prince Rainier's small yacht, which looks like a poor relation alongside shipping tyconn Aristotle Onassis' yacht, was declared by experts as being unprepared for rough weather. It's liable to shake Grace up quite a bit.

★ ★ ★ ★

After the overflow of reporters was advised they could only cover Grace's arrival here from the roof of the Coca Cola plant, I went out on the luxurious yacht of Mrs. William Harkness of New York, accompanied by the very social Mrs. James Thayer of Philadelphia.

Some people along had a very snobbish attitude. They said, "Why, every yacht here is bigger than the Prince's!"

Rainier, whose future mother-in-law calls him just plain Ray, sent a wedding invitation to Broadway and Holyoke beauty Mrs. Jean McCormick Poncha, wife of the big international lawyer from Darien, Conn.

★ ★ ★ ★

Rainier's press relations are getting better, although an aide threatened to turn the dogs on United Press man Robert Ahier.

Whereupon UP reporter Bob Musel, who was along too, yelled:

"I'll get my Boy Scout troop and capture your whole army."

King Peter of Yugoslavia revealed that he was not invited to the wedding. He's embarrassed, because he bought a wedding gift.

I have it on the authority of Grace Kelly's voice coach, Vera Murray Covert, New York—whom Grace invited to the wedding, even making hotel arrangements for her — that what the bride needs most is picture frames.

VERA COVERT

Says Miss Covert, "I asked what I could give her as a wedding present."

"Oh, you don't have to give me any wedding present," Grace said.

"I know I don't have to, but I want to," insisted Miss Covert.

"Well, then, I'd like a picture frame," Grace told her.

"That's the weirdest wedding present I ever heard of," Miss Covert replied.

"I gave my sister one," Grace said, "It was the only one she got and she loved it. Just get me a big or little one, and one that's young or old."

Miss Covert shopped for a sterling silver frame and presumably it'll hang in the Royal Palace — maybe with Prince Rainier's picture in it.

Tornadoes Point Up Need for Insurance

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—West Michigan's devastating tornadoes April 3 brought a common complaint from farmers who suffered property damage, says Allegan County Farm Agent A. D. Morley.

He says the reverberations sound the single note of "not enough insurance."

Morley reports that large numbers of affected farmers discovered "too late" that their insurance coverage hadn't been "kept up to date." In most cases, he adds, insurance payments are not enough to replace barns, sheds and homes ruined in the twisters.

Film Executive Explains Woes

Columbia Spends Over Year Getting Pictures Ready to Peddle

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Have you ever wondered how a Hollywood motion picture reaches your television screen?

* * *

Sometimes it looks as if somebody reached in a grab-bag of old films and slapped the first one he found on the home screen. Actually there's much more to it than that.

PAIN AND PROFIT

Ralph M. Cohn, vice president and general manager of Screen Gems, television subsidiary of Columbia Pictures, described in detail the other day some of the pain—and the profit—involved in release of Hollywood films to the nation's TV stations.

* * *

When Columbia announced its decision to relese 104 old films through Screen Gems several weeks ago, it was the result of more than a year of planning and research by a large staff. The fundamental decision was whether more profit was to be found in TV release than in motion picture theatre reruns and remakes.

* * *

Information and opinion about a large number of films from movie distributors, TV distributors, individual TV stations and numerous other sources over a long period of time were carefully collated and weighed. Meanwhile, about a year ago a large staff of lawyers and assistants began investigating the legal rights involved in films proposed for TV distribution.

VERY COMPLICATED

This is such a complicated situation it's difficult to describe. Involved are the rights of actors, directors, writers, composers. Some actors, for example, had contracts stating that films in which they appeared could not be shown on TV at hours when they had regularly scheduled TV appearances. Other actors' contracts forbade TV film showings—and their permissions had to be obtained.

* * *

In many cases story rights were even more complicated, involving renewable copyrights and tracing the heirs of deceased authors. The same problems existed in the case of musical rights.

* * *

As legal patterns of clearance emerged from the work of a staff costing about $150,000 a year, Screen Gems took up the problem of making new films and sound tracks from stored negatives and tapes in order to assure a better TV production of films than often is seen on the home screen. The cost of this Cohn estimated at between $2,000 and $3,000 a film.

NEW PROBLEMS

When 104 films finally were cleared and selected there began new problems of selling to the nation's TV stations. Did you know, for instance, that the South and West go heavily for action pictures, while sophisticated comedies are of secondary interest? In the Northeast, on the other hand, it is the opposite case.

* * *

All types of "packages" and varieties of these 104 films were set up for sale to agencies and individual TV stations. Cohn estimates that profits from the films over the next two years will range between $75,000 and $100,000 each.

Convention for Lover-Boys

Noted Don Juans Arrive in Rain-Soaked Monaco

BY OLGO CURTIS

MONTE CARLO (INS)—Rain-drenched Monaco has clinched a monopoly on international romance with the arrival of three of the world's most publicized Don Juans.

* * *

Porfirio Rubirosa, Pietro Melle, and king-sized Farouk all popped upon the scene of the Prince Rainier-Grace Kelly nuptials athough all claim they do not know Miss Kelly.

Rubirosa said gambling brought him to Monte Carlo. The dominican diplomate playboy, who was once married to Woolworth heiress Barbara Hutton and then romanced Zsa Zsa Gabor, said: "I am not in town for the wedding. I don't know Miss Kelly. I am through with dames."

Her then resumed playing roulette with 60-cent chips.

MELE-ITALIAN LOVER

Mele is the Italian lover who first made headlines with another Kelly. He also disclaimed knowing Grace although he is a friend of Oleg Cassini, formed beau of Grace Kelly's.

Mele is the Roman who once was given the heave-ho by New York police from the apartment of Brenda Frazier Kelly and who wound up in jail after trying to skip bail.

Mele said he was in Monaco just to take newsreel pictures.

* * *

The pudgy Farouk, known as an old chum of Rainier, obviously doesn't know Grace, since her family has been asking: "Is Farouk really coming to the wedding?"

The ex-king arrived at his private hotel villa with a royal retinue of 15, but no blondes were in slight.

Also on the wedding scene is "the handsomest man in Europe," Prince Tasilo Fuerstenberg, a first cousin of Rainier.

AND PUDGY LOVER

Fuerstenberg is famed as the father of 15-year-old Princess Hohenlohe Langenburg. He is also the possessor of a dimpled smile, curly brown hair and much European charm.

It was also reported that on his way to Monaco is the top Don Juan, Prince Aly Khan, whose father, the Aga Khan, already is in Monte Carlo.

Aly, who set the precedent for prince-movie queen weddings on the Rivera, was last reported in Africa, but the Aga Khan was quoted as saying his son will show up for this one.

Admits Knife Assault

Walter Andrews, of 533 Harvey Ave., who pleaded guilty yesterday to a March 30 knife assault, will be sentenced April 23 by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Denver Selecting Jury; Matricide Accusation Given Against Graham

DENVER (AP)— Gum chewing John Gilbert Graham, 24, is showing little strain as attorneys examine prospective jurors to try him for the slaying of his mother—one of 44 blown to death in a dynamited airliner.

* * *

Graham, a slim 160 pounds on a 6-1 frame, was a picture of relaxation yesterday while 47 prospective jurors were questioned. He looked squarely at them during their examination.

UNCONCERNED LOOK

His intent expression never wavered as they answered questions whether they would inflict the death penalty "in the proper case." Sixteen were excused because they said they objected to capital punishment.

* * *

He was unconcerned too when 13 said they had fixed opinions in the case and that any evidence presented—or anything Graham might say—wouldn't change their opinions.

PLANE EXPLODED

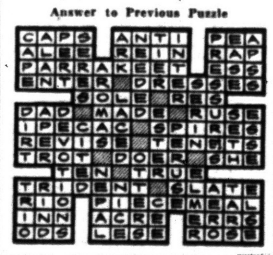

Graham is charged with the murder of his mother Mrs. Daisie E. King, 55. He took out $37,500 flight insurance on her life before she boarded a United Air Lines DC6B at the Denver airport last Nov. 1. The plane exploded 11 minutes after takeoff.

* * *

Federal officials said Graham signed a statement admitting he planted a 25-stick dynamite time bomb in her luggage. Graham has denied the statement to newsmen, claiming he gave it under threats the FBI would arrest his wife Gloria, 22, mother of their two children.

* * *

Judge Adams placed Bader on two years' probation and ordered him to pay $300 court costs.

Jockey on $$ Show Brings Pal for Help

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — When jockey Billy Pearson shows up for the $64,000 question TV show in New York tonight he'll have California artist Millard Sheets by his side.

* * *

This doesn't necessarily mean that Billy will go for the $64,000, but Pearson and Sheets have been friends for several years.

* * *

"Billy rode one of my 2-year-olds, Gala Mac, at Hollywood Park," Sheets said last night before flying East. "When he discovered I was an artist he hounded me for information. He is very well posted. I'm frank to say I couldn't have answered some of the questions he answered."

Ike on Air Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower's address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington Saturday will be broadcast over major radio networks and CBS-TV from 10 to 10:30 p.m., EST.

Southfield Township Man Stands Mute on Charge

Charged with the nighttime breakin March 23 of a Southfield Township gas station, Thomas Gertcher, 30557 Brentwood, Royal Oak, stood mute at his arraignment yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

* * *

A plea of innocent was entered for Gertcher by Judge Frank L. Doty. No trial date was set.

Admits Dope Possession

Jessie L. Taylor, of 21004 Reimanville, Royal Oak Township, pleaded guilty to possession of a marijuana cigarette at his arraignment yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

* * *

Taylor will be sentenced by Judge Frank L. Doty April 23.

Admits $30 Bad Check

Charged with drawing a $30 check on a non-existent account, Vera M. Gregerson of 1013 Argyle Ave. pleaded guilty yesterday at her arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

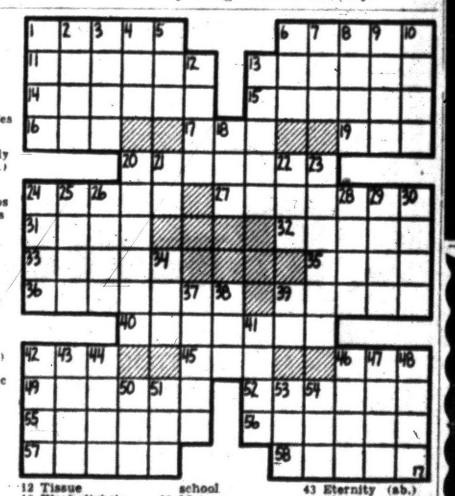

She will be sentenced April 23 by Judge Frank L. Doty.

No One Drives A Truck For Fun!

Every Truck You See On The Road Is There Because It's Needed... Needed To Serve You And Every Other Michigander!

NEXT time you see a truck on the road, remember — it's not there just for the ride. It's loaded with cargo bound for some important destination —and ultimately that destination is you.

Yes, the economy of Michigan—and of every other state, in fact—is geared to motor transport.

Trucks are the key to our great achievements in production. They have made possible new products and new marketing methods. They've enabled us to go out into the rural and suburban areas and build homes and business projects.

All this, and more, they have done because trucks provide fast, flexible, efficient transportation for every kind of material or product.

It's no wonder that trucks have increased in number in Michigan from 150,190 in 1941 to 351,337 in 1954. Their popularity has grown because they've done such a magnificent job —for manufacturers, farmers, retailers, the public—everyone!

So, you see—every truck you see on the road is there because it has a job to do, a job that may be tied right in with your job, your day to day living!

TRUCKS ARE YOUR FRIENDS—SERVING YOU NIGHT AND DAY!

Qualifications of Ambulance Drivers Subject of Proposed City Ordinance

Slated to be heard by the City Commission tonight is the introduction of a proposed city ordinance regulating the qualifications of ambulance drivers and their assistants in the city.

The ordinance was drawn up by City Attorney William A. Ewart and patterned after a similar Flint ordinance,

Institution of the law was urged by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee in January and a group of local doctors.

The ordinance is to provide safeguards for persons injured on Pontiac streets by controlling the qualifications of ambulance attendants and other emergency vehicles.

It will also require certain training for all attendants and require first aid equipment to be carried in all ambulances operated within Pontiac.

Other action to be considered on tonight's 24-point agenda consists mostly of public improvement projects.

Among these items are seven engineer estimates which are expected to be accepted by the commission.

The city attorney is scheduled to report on a warranty deed from John J. McCue for lot 23 of assessor's plat 35, which is included in the municipal parking lot program.

The commission is expected to give an answer to the Marine Corps League-Amvets Post 16 request to hold a carnival in May on Montcalm street. The action was carried over from last week to provide Commissioner Floyd Miles time to investigate the feasibility of the area.

Special assessment rolls are expected to be accepted on the following projects:

Curb, gutter, and related work for Valencia drive from Mt. Clemens to south line of lots 144 to 253 of the Eastview Subdivision. Hazel street from Telegraph to Starr, and for Beverly avenue from Laurel to Highwood.

Sanitary sewer in Astor street from Maines to Michigan.

Sidewalk and related work on the north side of Michigan avenue from Jessie to Tasmania.

The city assessor is expected to be granted an extension to April 24 to submit a special assessment roll for work on Glenwood avenue relocated from Perry to Paddock and Grandview.

Confirmation is scheduled for rolls involving eight public improvement jobs on which public hearings were held previously.

After a report from the City Plan Commission and a public hearing to be held tonight, adoption is expected to follow on an ordinance to rezone to Residential 3, lots 26 to 36 and lots 48 and 49 of assessor's plat 133. They are situated on the south side of Auburn avenue from Perkins to Center.

A public hearing is slated to follow the second reading of an ordinance amending zoning ordinance 944 which will prohibit bumping shops in Commercial 1 districts in the city.

The State Highway Dept. is expected to be granted permission for widening Telegraph road from 40 to 44 feet.

The commissioners are scheduled to authorize the city manager to sign an application for laying out and designating a county drainage district.

In final action two communications will be acted on by the commission.

The first is from Hod's Radio and Television Service requesting that lots 8 and 9 of the Elkins Addition be rezoned to commercial.

The second is from the Hilton Lumber and Supply Co. regarding curb, gutter, blacktop, and related work on Clinton River drive in the Robert Herndon Pontiac Apartment Subdivision.

Dems Use Substitute

DENTON, Md. (AP) — A substitute donkey named Dusty has furnished a good omen for supporters of George P. Mahoney, candidate for Maryland's Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate. Mahoney rode Dusty, who is really only a burro doubling as the democratic symbol and mascot, once around an auction sales arena yesterday. Last week his chief rival for the nomination, former Sen. Millard E. Tydings, tried the burro ride and was tossed off.

Former Rep. Clardy Runs for Nomination

FLINT (AP)—Former Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich) has announced he is a candidate for the Republican nomination to the Sixth District seat he lost to Rep. Don Hayworth (D-Michigan).

Clardy was chairman of a House Un-American Activities subcommittee during his 1953-54 term in Congress. James H. Gardner of Flint also announced he will seek the Republican nomination.
