1. Election of the 1969-71 Steering Committee (Mr. Kleckner)

The Constitution of Oakland University reads as follows: [Article V, Para. i]

The University Senate shall have a Steering Committee composed of the Provost of the University, who shall serve as chairman, and six other senators elected at the first Senate meeting of the fall semester. The Committee's term of office shall be two years. At least one senator from the College of Arts and Sciences, one from the School of Engineering, and one from the School of Education shall sit on the Committee, and no more than three seats shall be held by senators from any one faculty.

The Election Committee that conducted the spring balloting for the Senate has graciously consented to supervise the election of the new Steering Committee. The Election Committee is: Mr. Kleckner, chairman; Messrs. G. P. Johnson, P. Johnson, and C. R. Linsalata.
