GM No Monopoly, Curtice Answers Senators

Area Near Troy Has No Government . . . No Taxes

Wanted: Home for Orphan Land

Back in 1955 when township residents voted to become a city, this uninhabited piece of land, just under 10 acres, was overlooked and later found itself without any governing unit—not a village, not a city nor a township. Just an unwanted parcel of land, apparently.

With this in mind, Rep. Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township) this week sponsored a bill in the House of Representatives to prevent such an omission from occurring again.

"Every piece of land has just got to be under some form of government — township, village or city," Roberts said.

The property, one parcel of 4.34 acres and a second of 5.26 acres, is bounded on the east by the Grand Trunk railroad, by Birmingham city limits on the north and west, and by the City of Troy on the south.

WANTS ANNEXATION

Roberts' bill, in this instance, would authorize the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to act so that this "left out" parcel would be annexed to Troy or Birmingham.

The representative emphasized that his measure does not stipulate to which, but only that it should be part of some unit.

The bill would require in similar cases where parts of a township find they are without constitutional or statutory officers to perform governmental functions, that they become part of the adjoining city or township.

"Right now that property is escaping taxation as there is no officer to see that it is assessed," Roberts said.

Ziem Removed From Squabble on Justice Costs

Circuit Judge Holland Dismisses Suit Against County Prosecutor

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem found himself pulled out of a justice court squabble today by an opinion of Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

Judge Holland granted a motion of Ziem's made last fall to dismiss a suit brought against him by Allen C. Ingle, Farmington Township justice.

Ingle, president of the Michigan Justices Assn., asked the court to issue a declaratory judgment on how much money justices can charge as costs. Ziem was named defendant in the suit.

The opinion of Judge Holland said Ziem was not "a proper party defendant," and that no actual controversy existed between the prosecutor and the justice.

However, the opinion pointed out that there was "an actual and real" controversy over what justices may legally charge, but not the one of Ingle versus Ziem.

Ingle also sought to have the court rule on just what prosecution costs justices can levy. Judge Holland said this would be a matter for all four judges to consider.

The suit developed when Ziem answered an inquiry of another local justice of the peace as to whether he and other justices should abide by a ruling of former Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh.

Kavanagh expressed a year ago that justice costs should be limited to actual expense of prosecution, with no money left over.

This was aimed at a system in Oakland County where justices charged enough money as costs of prosecution so that there was some left over to help defray county and township law enforcement expenses.

Ziem, in a letter to Milford Justice James H. VanLeuven last March, said it was his belief that the attorney general's opinion should be followed "to the letter unless a court of record should rule to the contrary."

The judge said this was "merely . . . an opinion." 'Ziem did not concur in the opinion (Kavanagh's), he neither lauded nor criticized the same," the judge said.

BEFORE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE — Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, defends automobile price increases before the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee. Curtice said higher price tags on 1958 General Motors models fail to cover the increased cost of producing them. "For every dollar of increase in our own costs," he said, "price has increased only 60 cents."

'No Alternative on Price Policy for Car Makers'

Auto Executive Urges Congress to Cut Taxes to Stimulate Confidence

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON — General Motors President Harlow Curtice testified today there is "no alternative" to the auto industry's pricing policy and that it does not spell monopoly.

Curtice told the senate anti-monopoly subcommittee that GM's interest "goes far beyond a successful business." He said it includes service to communities, educational aid and what is "best for our country."

Curtice said GM's "objective" is to make a profit of about 15 per cent on capital investment after taxes.

Committee Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) recited GM earnings figures showing that the big corporation had exceeded 15 per cent profits every years and "sometimes doubled that" between 1942 and 1956.

"I think that's good," said Curtice.

The committee was told that GM made an average profit after taxes of 24.8 per cent between 1940 and the third quarter of 1957 —excluding the war years.

FURNISH FIGURES

When Curtice was asked to furnish the salary-bonus figures of GM's top executives, Sen. Everett Dirksen (R-Ill) asked him also to "put in the list" the salaries of Elvis Presley, Red Skelton, Frank Sinatra, Mickey Mantle, Marilyn Monroe, Jane Russell and Jayne Mansfield.

Curtice yesterday called on Congress to grant an "across the board" tax cut to stimulate confidence among both business and consumers.

Curtice testified that consumers today are "cautious" — and that business conditions resemble those of early 1954 before Congress cut taxes that year. He said the 1954 reduction "contributed immeasurably to a resurgence of confidence."

"I urge Congress to consider such action in this session," he told the Senate Anti-Monopoly Subcommittee yesterday.

"Cut taxes across the board to restore and stimulate confi-

Youth Explains Murders: 'A Hatred Built Up in Me'

GERING, Neb. (INS) — A 19-year-old Nebraska youth who earlier bragged, "I killed 'em all," was silent most of the way back to the state where 9 of his 11 victims will be buried today.

But Sheriff Merl Karnof of Lancaster County, Neb., who accompanied Charles Starkweather back to Nebraska from Douglas, Wyo., quoted the youth as saying:

"I suppose they got the chair ready for me. Wyoming has the gas chamber. I don't like the smell of gas."

The red - headed, sullen youth was en route to Lincoln, Neb., today, tracing the mad flight he made Wednesday to escape a police net which tightened with the discovery of each new victim of his blood-soaked escape.

He was accompanied by Sheriff Karnoff and other Lancaster County sheriff's officers and Nebraska state patrolmen. Starkweather spent the night in the Scotts Bluff County jail in Gering.

CARIL IN SEPARATE CAR

In a separate car on the return trip was Starkweather's 14-year-old girl friend, Caril Ann Fugate, who told officers yesterday she witnessed 10 of the 11 murders.

Starkweather waived extradition in Wyoming, but refused to fly in a Nebraska Air National Guard plane to return to face trial for murder in Lincoln.

Sheriff Karnoff told reporters Starkweather broke his silence along the way to explain his killings:

"It is just a hatred that has built up within me. Ever since I was a child I wanted to be an outlaw. I didn't mean it to go this far."

Karnoff said Starkweather showed no remorse "whatsoever" for his three - day killing spree.

Extradition was speedily arranged after Wyoming Gov. Milward Simpson, a foe of capital punishment, declared he would not allow the youth, if condemned in a Wyoming court, to die in the state's gas chamber.

Nebraska's Gov. Victor Anderson, however, said he would stand behind the decision of his state's courts, regardless of his personal feelings toward the subject of the death penalty.

Funeral services for nine persons slain in the three-day murder binge were scheduled today in four eastern Nebraska towns.

In the jail at Gering, the once talkative gunman refused to talk with the guards, turning his back to stare at the wall of his cell while lying face - down on his bunk.

He had asked for a newspaper, apparently to read about himself, but Sheriff Steve Warrick refused.

Miss Fugate had to be given a sedative by a Gering physician before sleeping. Officers said she apparently still was suffering from shock of the wild killing spree and dramatic capture on a Wyoming roadside Wednesday.

Karnoff said the youth was kept

Intangibles Tax Plan Dropped

Governor Accepts GOP Plan to Allow Liquor Purchases on Credit

LANSING (AP) — A prospective legislative fight over a hurry up boost in state intangibles tax rates dissolved with Gov. Williams' acceptance of a Republican alternative.

The Democratic governor yesterday wrote Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton) he would not object to Conlin's plan to meet the state's cash emergency by putting state liquor purchases on a 90-day payment basis.

However, he cautioned state fiscal relief would be temporary.

Conlin had estimated the switch to buying whisky on credit would funnel 18 million dollars into the state treasury within the next few months by freeing cash now tied up in inventory.

Williams figured 16 million dollars was closer to it. Both agreed that the device, along with resort to certain fund transfers, would keep the state out of bankruptcy at least until June 30.

A month ago, the governor foresaw a deficit of around 35 million dollars by May or June. He recommended a solution built around an immediate 21 million dollar a year hike in the intangibles levy.

In his letter, Williams said of the Conlin proposal:

"It is clear that adoption of the plan will at best provide only partial and short term relief for the treasury. It will not provide any help whatsoever for the 1958-59 fiscal year, when additional revenues will be needed to avoid a fiscal collapse."

This was the governor's way of saying that the intangible tax increase, although no longer necessary immediately should be enacted at the current legislative session to apply to payment of 1958 tax liability.

The governor accepted Conlin's proposal after being advised by the commission that it was workable.

Auto-Truck Collision Kills Two From Auburn Heights

Two Auburn Heights residents died last night when a car carrying four persons rammed into the back of a gravel truck and trailer on Opdyke Rd. just south of Auburn Rd.

Dead are: Paul Jarrell, 53, of 2903 Adams Rd., and Esther Mansfield, 44, of 3119 Adams Rd.

Jarrell was driving south on Opdyke at a high rate of speed, said Oakland County Sheriff's deputies, when he hit the truck. Deputies reported the truck wss climbing a hill at about 25 miles per hour when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Mansfield, who was sitting in the front seat, was dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 7:07 p.m. Oakland County Deputy Coroner Dr. Isaac C. Prevette listed the cause as a basal skull fracture and broken neck.

Jarrell, who was pinned behind the wheel, died at 11 p.m. of a crushed chest and internal injuries, while in surgery at St. Joseph's.

His wife, Nellie, 49, and Mrs. Mansfield's husband, Archie, 50 were treated for minor injuries and released. The truck driver, Virgil C. Capps, 53, of 1666 Glendale Ave., Detroit, was uninjured.

He told deputies that he "felt something nudge the trailer and thought at first that it had come loose." He pulled over and got out to find that Jarrell's car had hit it.

Deputies said the two couples had been drinking beer at a nearby restaurant and were on their way to a pizzeria on Woodward.

Mrs. Mansfield's body has been removed to the Huntoon Funeral Home, 79 Oakland Ave. Jarrell's body was taken to the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home, 268 N. Perry Street.

Plans to Deliver Report Monday

Hospital Board Prepares Sullenberger Findings for City Commission

A report covering procedures followed by the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees in the suspension of Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger should be delivered to City Hall by Monday, Hospital Director Carl I. Flath said today.

The outline for the report was prepared with the aid of City Attorney William A. Ewart at an unofficial meeting of the board last night, Flath said.

"When we refine it, it shouldn't be more than four pages long," he said.

The report, requested by the City Commission four days ago, gives a chronological history of the steps leading up to the suspension Nov. 13, Flath said, and of the litigation that has resulted from the $250,000 damage suit Dr. Sullenberger subsequently brought against the hospital.

Meantime Dr. Sullenberger visited the hospital yesterday afternoon for the first time since his suspension and met briefly with Flath, who as a defendent in the suit has alleged that the surgeon violated professional standards in 25 cases, in six of which he said the patients died.

"Dr. Sullenberger wanted to know if all his personal medical instruments had been returned to him," was Flath's summation of the meeting.

Ironically, it was the first time the two men had met face to face.

Little Change in City Weather Picture

No weather changes are expected in the Pontiac area this weekend, the U. S. Weather Bureau reports.

Mostly cloudy with little change in temperature tonight and tomorrow is the prediction. Occasional light snow is due tonight with snow flurries tomorrow.

The low tonight will be around 26 degrees and the high tomorrow near 30.

Sunday will be mostly cloudy and colder with a chance of light snow.

The Weather Bureau's five-day forecast predicts temperatures will average 2 to 4 degrees above the normal high of 33 and normal low 19. Only minor temperature fluctuations are expected for the next five days. Snow is predicted daily.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 25. The reading at 2 p.m. was 28.

Nebraska Chief Views Capital Punishment

Must Uphold Law, Governor Declares

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

LINCOLN, Neb.—Gov. Victor Anderson of Nebraska, questioned about his views on capital punishment, said today he is obligated to "uphold the law."

The governor declined to discuss specifically the case of accused multiple slayer Charles Starkweather of Lincoln, pointing out it is a violation of Nebraska law for a member of the Board of Pardons to talk about any case which may come before him.

On the general subject of capital punishment, however, the Governor said:

"Our state law provides that we have capital punishment. I took an oath to uphold the law. It is not my personal feelings that count.

"I also took an oath to carry out the law of the state of Nebraska. If a man received a fair trial, if the State Supreme Court reviewed the lower court verdict, as it is obliged to do when capital punishment is assessed, then I think I am obliged to carry out the judgment of the court, regardless of any personal feelings about capital punishment."

The governor pointed out that for a death sentence to be commuted in Nebraska a majority of the Board of Pardons must vote in favor of reducing the sentence.

In Renton, Wash., words came slowly from Leonard Starkweather, brother of Charles.

"I had to hear it twice," said Leonard Starkweather, assistant manager of a busy restaurant in this Seattle suburb.

"At first I didn't believe it was Charles. I figured it was someone else with the same name."

Leonard said he left home five years ago to seek work. He became a dishwasher in Renton in the same restaurant where he now is assistant manager.

He said he received a letter several months ago in which Charles mentioned Caril Ann Fugate, 14, who was with him when he was captured at Douglas, Wyo., Wednesday.

"They may have been in love and when her folks objected to

Woman Learns Mystery Auto Hers Forever

A considerable mystery has developed in Huntington Woods.

Mrs. Margaret Stark now has a Thunderbird automobile, but she doesn't know where it came from.

Finding the car parked across her driveway, Mrs. Stark called police to come and move it. When he arrived, Patrolman Charles Tufts looked inside the car and told her: "See for yourself. It's yours."

And sure enough it was. There was a set of keys on the front seat, a paid-up insurance policy in her name, a registration and a note saying the title would be sent from Lansing shortly.

The note added: "We trust that this transaction is satisfactory to you."

That was 10 days ago. Since Mrs. Stark and her husband, Walter, a manufacturer's representative, have been conducting an unsuccessful investigation.

"My husband and I have wanted a Thunderbird ever since they were introduced," Mrs. Stark said. "We've expressed ourselves to a lot of friends. But none admits knowing anything about the car. Charles insists he didn't do it."

Meanwhile, there's a traffic jam at the Stark home. Both husband and wife own convertibles, but no garage, so the three cars have to be lined up in the driveway.

Denies Sympathy in Doctor's Cause

Mrs. Benjamin Pawley, of Leonard, said yesterday that she had "no sympathy" with a petitioning movement by her daughter-in-law for the reinstatement of ousted staff surgeon Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger to Pontiac General Hospital.

The daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Pawley, of Drayton Plains, had complained to the Pontiac City Commission Tuesday that because of the suspension, Nov. 3, Dr. Sullenberger was not allowed to continue post-operative care of her father-in-law, Benjamin Pawley, a cancer victim who died in the hospital Nov. 18.

Mrs. Benjamin Pawley said she felt the hospital had given her late husband "excellent care."

Patients Told: 'Have Fun'

According to Mrs. Beatrice Hill, a consultant with the National Recreation Association, the have-fun or "recreation prescription" already is being used in some hospitals.

Williams Wants Mortgage Plan

Sees Action 'Imperative' on Construction Projects Mostly for Schools

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today proposed bonding through a building authority to finance 24 construction projects, mostly for education, costing 55 million dollars.

In a special message, he told legislators pay-as-you-go financing would be cheaper.

"The difficulty is that we do not have the cash," he said. "We have the choice of building with a mortgage or not building at all."

The need for action has become "imperative," he said.

The Governor enumerated the projects. Seven, totaling $15,837,000, were proposed for the University of Michigan and the U. of M. Hospital.

He put Michigan State University down for four projects totaling $12,900,000, and six other state supported colleges and universities for eight jobs aggregating $9,641,280 more.

The program would work like this, the Governor explained:

Either an entirely new state building authority should be created, or powers of the state office building corporation enlarged, and authority granted to borrow funds to finance the enumerated projects.

Rentals to be paid by the state for the new facilities out of annual legislative appropriations would be pledged against repayment of the bonds.

This was the system successfully used by the office building corporation in financing of the Stevens T. Mason office building.

21st Ice Carnival Opens Tomorrow

Snow flurries expected this weekend will add to the setting of Pontiac's 21st annual two day ice carnival which starts tomorrow at the Northside Skating Rink, Montcalm and Edison streets.

Ice skating races, figure skating contests, an all star city hockey game, an ice show and the selection of an ice queen are the main events scheduled for the winter program.

The carnival is sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation department and the Northside Community Club.

Highlight in the carnival will be the crowning of the 1958 Pontiac Ice Queen Sunday night at 8 by Russell Themm, chairman of the carnival.

This is the first year the queen contestants are not required to know how to skate. Previously, they had to display their skating skills as a part of the judging.

Tomorrow morning at 10 the preliminary queen judging will be held at McCarroll Elementary School, 191 Glenwood Ave.

The contestants will be judged on bathing suits: Donna Robinson, 17, Commerce; Suzanne Lee Haddrill, 17, Clarkston; Louise Freeman, 19, Waterford Township; Judie Garlitz, 17, Orchard Lake; Sherry Gremore, 16, 20 W. Brooklyn St. and Phillenore Drummond, 16, Bloomfield Hills.

Judges are: John A. Riley, president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce; Les Langford, president of the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce and John A. Dugan, city commissioner, district five.

A cast of 30, all members of the Pontiac Skaters Club, will present an ice show at 7 p.m. Sunday under the direction of Peggy Bowman, skating instructor.

Sandra Stockton, Miss Pontiac Ice Queen of 1957 will star as Miss Galaxy in a celestial theme portion of the show.

The first half will be western and pajama party theme on the 85 by 200 foot rink.

The hockey game, at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon, will be between the Pontiac city champs, Deans Hardware and the all stars of the city teams.

A new feature of this year's carnival will be the presentation and ice skating performances Saturday night by 15 previous Pontiac Queens since 1939.

Eliminations for the races and figure skating contests will be held at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow. The races include boys and girls one lappers (one eighth of a mile) up to 20 laps (the silver skates derby) and various age classifications from seven to 18 years old. Backward, and relay races will also be conducted.

The five finalists in each age, sex and type of race classifications will compete in the finals Sunday at 1:30 p.m. First, second and third place cups, medals and pins will be awarded to the winners. Winner of the Silver Skates Derby will receive winter sports equipment.

Admission to the carnival is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Free ice skating will be available each of the two nights following the program.

handcuffed, but a heavy restraining belt often used on prisoners was not employed.

Karnoff's wife, Gertrude, was to take over matron duties for the girl prisoner from Mrs. Early Heflin. Mrs. Heflin, wife of the Wyoming sheriff who captured Starkweather after a 115-mile-an-hour police chase, accompanied the party from Douglas.

Thus far, only one murder charge has been filed in Nebraska against Starkweather and his girl: the slaying of 16-year-old Carol King of Bennett, Neb.

Starkweather alone had been charged before a Wyoming justice of the peace with the slaying of 37-year-old traveling shoe salesman Merle Collison of Great Falls, Mont., whose bullet-riddled body was found after Starkweather's capture.

Karnoff said the bespectacled youth denied raping Miss King.

Starkweather told Karnoff he shot her and her companion in "self defense." He said the couple approached his car when it became stuck in a farm yard.

Holding a pistol on the pair, he told Karnoff he walked them to a storm cellar where he forced the young man down the cellar stairs. He said the man started to come up the stairs. Starkweather said he shot him and then turned the gun on the girl.

Asked by Karnoff why he killed 70-year-old August Meyer, a friend of the family, Starkweather said the elderly farmer came out of his house with a rifle in hand.

Karnoff said Meyer apparently had heard Starkweather was wanted and came out prepared to defend himself when he saw the young man approach.

Starkweather denied he was familiar with the residence of Lincoln businessman G. Lauer Ward. He told the law officer he knew of the house because it was on his Lincoln garbage truck route.

Flash Snowfall Blankets Central Portion of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A snowstorm swirled in the central portion of the nation today, dumping 2 to 4 inches of snow within the span of six hours.

The storm was concentrated in the area including the western portions of the Dakotas and portions of Nebraska and Iowa.

Weather Bureau forecasters said the storm would become even heavier during the day in eastern Nebraska and Iowa.

There was also light snow in the general area extending from the eastern Great Lakes and Ohio Valley into Pennsylvania and the north Atlantic Coast states.

Winter's second dense fog gripped most of England and Wales and large parts of northern Europe today.

By E. H. SIMS

In the approach of a warm front what is the significance of the arrival of wind?

When, after noticing the various cloud changes that reveal the coming warm front, the wind suddenly picks up, one can expect rain fairly close behind. This wind will almost always come from the right, when facing in the direction the front is moving in.

The rain which follows will usually be lengthy and steady and as soon as it ends the mass of air that is the warm air mass itself will have moved in overhead.

It is not until the rain ends, usually, and the warm air mass is above, that the weather map markers mark the front as having passed.

'We'll Help Her,' Says Dad

Caril Was Held Hostage, Father, Sister Believe

LINCOLN, Neb. (INS) — There was hope today in the family of Caril Ann Fugate—hopelessness in the home of Charles Starkweather.

The youth, charged with 11 murders, was accompanied, as hostage or accomplice, by 14-year-old Caril, whom he had dated for about a year and whom he had been ordered not to see again by her now-slain mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bartlett.

Caril's father, William Fugate, believes she is innocent and was an unwilling hostage on the murderous rampage.

"There is plenty of love here at home for her," said Fugate, 41-year-old custodian at a Lincoln school.

Fugate was divorced six years ago from Caril Ann's mother, who was one of the first three victims in the Southeast Nebraska murder trail.

He has remarried and lives with his wife in a tiny basement apartment crammed with evidences of his hobby, repair of radio and television sets.

OFTEN VISITED FATHER

"She will always have a home with her dad. That kid needs help and we will help her all we can. She couldn't have been in this without his (Starkweather) having a gun on her all the time," Fugate said.

Barbara believes Caril Ann saved the lives of the Von Busch family and Mrs. Pansy Street, Caril's grandmother, by denying them entrance to the Bartlett home before the slayings were discovered.

Fugate hopes his daughter will be released in his custody. He said: "I want to see her go through school and become a nurse and live a normal life."

The Fugate family, like the Starkweather, feared for their own lives during Lincoln's blood bath.

He never expected to see his daughter alive again. He said, "I knew she must be a hostage. I read where Chuck said she tried to get away three or four times.

"I told the police Monday I hoped she had sense enough to stay with him until the officers caught up with them. I told them if they had to get her in order to get him to go ahead and shoot. That boy had to be stopped."

The Fugate family agreed: "She couldn't have had anything to do with it. She couldn't even bear to see an animal hurt. She adored her baby sister, was always buying her presents. She worried about her mother and would never leave her alone at night."

Fugate said:

"Caril would have been killed, too, if they hadn't got him."

200 M.P.H. Winds Shift, Threaten Satellite Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (INS)—A weird development in upper atmosphere weather today dimmed hope for launching a U. S. earth satellite this week.

Powerful winds, with speeds of more than 200 miles an hour, were sweeping over the Cape Canaveral missile test center, where the Army's Jupiter-C satellite missile is poised for take-off.

Weather experts said the upper atmosphere jet stream which usually flows from Los Angeles to New York had moved south and was "sitting right over" Cape Canaveral at an altitude of 35,000 to 40,000 feet.

Even stronger winds, up to 230 miles an hour, were reported moving towards the Cape from the west. The forecast indicated that the launching of a satellite might be delayed for several days.

Curtice Proposes Tax Slash Now

dence on the part of the business and the consuming public," he said.

Curtice said GM car dealers are "doing very well" although the degree of public confidence is "not as high as it should be."

ANSWERS COMPLAINTS

Answering labor complaints that car prices are "rigged" too high, he said that GM price increases on 1958 cars cover only 60 per cent of higher production costs.

SITUATION HEALTHY

And when asked what he thought of General Motors capturing 40 per cent or better of the new car market every year since 1935, he said: "I regard that as a healthy situation so far as General Motors is concerned."

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said today "I certainly couldn't go along" with an over-all tax cut at this time, as proposed by Curtice.

HARD TO SEE

While Curtice recalled that the federal budget was balanced after the 1954 tax reduction, Kefauver told newsmen it was hard to see how the record peacetime budget submitted by President Eisenhower for next year could stand a tax cut.

Kefauver added, however, that if the present recession should continue and purchasing power shrink further, a temporary reduction in taxes might be advisable.

Kefauver's views were along the lines of the position that the administration has taken.

Kefauver also said today there will probably be legislative suggestions to limit the size and diversity of corporations like General Motors before his anti-monopoly committee hearings wind up.

Curtice was recalled for final questioning before the committee today. The group is investigating "administered prices" and Curtice was the first automotive executive to testify. He will be followed next week by top officials of Ford, Chrysler and American Motors.

Hatcher vs. Williams

ANN ARBOR (AP) — University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher calls Gov. Williams operating budget recommendation for the university an "austerity" measure that poses serious problems to education.

Greyhound to Sell Bus Lines in Oakland

Greyhound Suburban Bus Lines, which links Pontiac and other Oakland County communities with Detroit is being sold in a multi-million dollar deal.

The sale, it is reported, would transfer 160 buses and about 150 employes to the American Transit Corp., of St. Louis.

Representatives of Greyhound and American Transit discussed the impending sale yesterday at a meeting with officers of Division 1303, Amalgamated Assn. of Bus Drivers.

The union announced it would hold a general membership meeting Sunday to explain details and effects of the sale to the workers.

Greyhound has operated the suburban lines for 25 years. Officials referred all inquiries to the company headquarters at Niles, Ill.

Reds Preparing to Launch Third Earth Satellite?

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today the Soviet Union is preparing to launch a huge rocket, probably in an attempt to lift its third artificial earth satellite, according to reports believed to be reliable.

The story said the Russians, in their preparations to launch the huge rocket, were reported to have begun at least one countdown.

In the count-down, begun long in advance of the established time for launching, every working part of the missile is checked.

The Times said it was estimated that the Soviet launching will be attempted within a few days.

Advertising Up in '57; Papers Top Budgets

NEW YORK (AP) — Advertisers spent a record 10½ billion dollars to promote their goods and services in 1957, Printers' Ink magazine said today.

That was 5½ per cent more than the previous high in 1956.

Newspapers still accounted for the biggest share of all advertising with 31.9 per cent of the total. Dollar volume of newspaper advertising—about 3¼ billion—was up 2.8 per cent over 1956.

Television rose to 1¼ billion.

Two Rival Gangs in Fourth Grade Call Off Fighting

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Two rival fourth-grade gangs here called off fighting when police got wind of their activities.

One group called itself the "Help Club" and explained to detective G. L. Emmett they organized to assist third-graders in trouble. The other gang—apparently nameless — said they formed to protect themselves against the "Help Club."

Emmett said he collected a few brass knuckles and knives from the 9-year-olds.

The Day in Birmingham

Mark Increase of Cases at Child Clinic Branch

BIRMINGHAM — Case loads in 1957 at the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic Branch in Birmingham jumped from 754 to 1,133, according to Mrs. William Thomas, supervisor.

The clinic staff has been working at full capacity since it opened Jan. 27, 19556 on diagnostic treatments and consultation for area children, she said.

Half of the cases last year were from Birmingham, with the Bloomfield area and Franklin sharing the balance. More than 42 per cent of the cases were referred to the clinic from schools.

In its formative stages, the clinic has received financial support from the Birmingham Junior League, Mrs. Thomas said. This support will continue until Dec. 31.

"The current year is a crucial one," Mrs. Thomas said. "Other community agencies or funds must gradually assume responsibility for the future support and operation of the clinic."

Robert Girardin, city recreation director, went out on the limb this morning and without qualification said there will be skiing Sunday on ski slopes at Cranbrook and 14-Mile Rds.

Henry Gleisner, who holds instructor certificates in both Austria and the United States, will conduct the first class from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Additional classes will be held Tuesday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce has installed $400 in lighting facilities which permits evening use of the slopes.

Dr. Dwight D. Ireland, superintendent of Birmingham Public Schools since 1942, will speak on "What Teachers Should Expect of Parents" at the Feb. 5 meeting of the Derby Junior High School PTA.

His talk will be answer to that of Dr. Robert Fox, who spoke on "What Parents Should Expect of Junior High Teachers" at a PTA meeting earlier this month.

The first of three performances of "Chalk Garden," produced by the Village Players, will be presented at 9 p.m. today in Players Theater on Chestnut street.

Leading roles in the play are taken by Mrs. G. Thorndyke Dwelley and Allan W. Joslyn.

Performances also will be given Saturday at 9 p.m. and Sunday at 8 p.m.

Oakland Gas Drops Price Three Cents

A reduction of 3 cents per gallon off the price of their regular gasoline was announced today by the Oakland County Gas & Oil Co.

J. J. Levy, company president, also said the price of premium gas at its 13 stations in Oakland, Wayne and Macomb Counties was cut 2 cents.

This brought the price of its regular to 25.9 and its premium to 30.9 Levy said.

The decrease followed a cut of 1 cent off both regular and premium gasoline of most major companies this week. Several weeks ago they announced a 2.2 cents slice.

This latest move by the Oakland company was expected to lead to another price cut by the major companies, an industry spokesman believed.

About 132,000 Canadian veterans of World War II still have not picked up re-establishment financial credits. Money unclaimed totals $22 million dollars.

Waterford Event Set for March

Sports, Builder's Show Slated

Dates for the fourth annual Waterford Township Sports and Builders' Show have been set, and a campaign for selling booth-space starts tomorrow, according to chairman Tom Belton.

Sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, the show will be held March 21, 22 and 23 at the Community Activities Center on Williams Lake Rd.

Every type of sporting equipment, home modernization improvement, along with boats, tools, furniture and building supplies, will be on display by area merchants.

A contest for Waterford Township's most beautiful "queen" will run concurrently with the show plans, and the winner will be crowned March 21.

There will be entertainment during the three-day event, with nationally known sportsmen giving demonstrations on various indoor outdoor sports.

The jaycees expect to have between 40 and 50 exhibitors in the show this year. Gene Kelly is in charge of booth sales.

According to all indications, this year's show promises to be the largest and best, and will probably break the 5,000 record attendance set last year, Belton said.

Promises Dissolve Woes of Marriage

Appearing at his wife's hearing on a request for separate maintenance, Taylor 38, said he would:

Turn his pay check over to Mrs. Taylor and allow her full rein on the family's financial affairs; go out with the "boys" only one night a week; permit his wife to go out with the "girls" one night a week; take his wife out one night a week; stop insisting she get a job and — stop talking about the state of his marital affairs with friends and in-laws.

In bright light the pupil in the eye of a cat is a vertical slit, but in dim light it becomes circular.

Claims Suburbia Outsells Castles in Spain

By OLGA CURTIS

NEW YORK (INS) — Real estate tycoon John Tysen does a steady, multi-million-dollar business selling castles in Spain, king-size ranches and private islands.

But he's the first to admit that a hunk of real estate in "Suburbia, U.S.A." can outsell any island in sight. With or without palm trees.

"Suburban real estate is the real money-maker today," says Tysen. "We do a fairly strong business in islands, and there's a steady demand for castles, but the bulk of our business is in suburban properties—in the $10,000 to $75,000 class."

Since Tysen is the head of Previews, Inc., a concern labeled (against his will) as the "millionaire's real estate agency," this should make suburbanite property owners feel properly snooty. But possibly spendthrift.

"The best dollar buy today," Tysen believes, "is not suburban. It's probably a European castle. A castle is as economic a house as you can get; taxes overseas can be as watered down as weak tea. And in Europe you can have a castle and servants to run it, too."

PRICES CASTLES

What price castles in Spain? Tysen, who frankly admits he sells 10 castles in France to each castle in Spain, offers a nice 25-room job near Barcelona on the Mediterranean. Price: $77,000. Taxes: $85 a year.

A bigger castle in Austria, plus 1,700 acres of hunting estates, is on the block for $150,000. Privileges to shoot Ibex and golden eagles on the neighboring Krupp estate included.

Or if you prefer islands, there's a tidy section of one near Canada called Compobello that's going for $50,000. For a few thousand extra you can get mementoes of the family that used to live there. Name of Roosevelt.

Tysen also has a nice assortment of Caribbean islands, which are it's most in demand and which he says "are just about the easiest thing to sell."

PURE LUXURY

"Castles and islands are pure luxury," Tysen admits. "They are used as homes, not playthings, but they are luxury in the sense that you're not buying them to make a profit."

"Ranches are different," added the man who this month sold 71,000 acres of New Mexico real estate for $2,000,000. "They have a much better market because they are bought as money-makers, as businesses."

Tysen, who also sells canyons, farms, ghost towns and tunnels for a commission, says there's no slump in high-priced real estate in spite of all the mutterings about business recession.

"Our average property listing runs to $62,000," he explained. "That's what you might call middle-upper bracket, definitely not millionaire. And for people with money and a big family, it's not as expensive as it might appear."

In any price bracket, the bulk of real estate activity comes from suburbia, says Tysen. His personal candidate for the strongest real estate area around today is Connecticut, No. 46 state in size, but No. 1 state for commuting from the New York executive's point of view.

"Connecticut is the center of so much business probably because of two things: Freedom from state income tax and good community zoning laws," Tysen explained. He added:

"We can sell anything in Connecticut."

Lawyers Attach Hedy's Property in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Two attorneys seeking to collect alleged unpaid fees of $24,557 have attached actress Hedy Lamarr's local assets.

The attachment was disclosed when a sealed complaint, filed in Superior Court by William G. Israel and Norton B. Harper, was opened yesterday. They alleged the actress owes them $8,557 for general services in the last four years and $16,000 for special work in connection with the movie "Love of Three Queens."

THE STORY SO FAR: A blind in a train passing hers snaps up and respectable Mrs. McGillicuddy on a prosaic trip to visit her friend, Miss Marple, fluttery old lady with a shrewd brain and a gift for solving crimes, sees a man strangling a woman. After several trips over Mrs. McGillicuddy's route, Miss Marple figures that the body must have been thrown out as the train passed the neglected park of Rutherford Hall, built by Mr. Crackenthorpe, rich manufacturer. She asks Lucy Eyelesbarrow, brilliant young woman who has made for herself a unique profession—taking temporary charge of households and running them like magic—to get herself employed at Rutherford Hall. Emma, Crackenthorpe's daughter, engages her. In a barn, Lucy pries open a sarcophagus and finds the body of a murdered woman. Mrs. McGillicuddy identifies the picture of the murdered woman as that of the woman she saw in the train. Just before Christmas Martine, the girl Edmund Crackenthorpe, who was killed in the war, was going to marry, wrote Emma asking if she might visit them but later canceled the visit. French police find Anna Stravinska, dancer, left her show and there's no further record. If Edmund had a son, he'll inherit Rutherford Hall and share in the trust. Harold Crackenthorpe resents further questioning by Inspector Craddock. Alfred Crackenthorpe can't remember what he was doing the afternoon and evening in question.

Chapter 26

Inspector Craddock rose: "I'm sorry you couldn't have been more cooperative, Mr. Crackenthorpe."

"Most unfortunate for me!" Alfred said. "There's Cedric with a safe alibi in Iviza, and Harold, no doubt, checked with business appointments and public dinners every hour—and here am I with no alibi at all. Very sad. And all so silly. I've already told you I don't murder people. And why should I murder an unknown woman anyway? What for? Even if the corpse is the corpse of Edmund's widow, why should any of us wish to do away with her? Now if she'd been married to Harold in the war, and had suddenly reappeared—then it might have been awkward for the respectable Harold — bigamy and all that. But Edmund! Why, we'd all have enjoyed making Father stump up a bit to give her an allowance and send the boy to a decent school. Father would have been wild, but he couldn't in decency refuse to do something. Won't you have a drink before you go, Inspector? Sure? Too bad I haven't been able to help you."

"Sir, listen, do you know what?"

Inspector Craddock looked at his excited sergeant.

"Yes, Wetherall, what is it?"

"I've placed him, sir. That chap. All the time I was trying to fix it and suddenly it came. He was mixed up in that tinned food business with Dicky Rogers. Never got anything on him—too cagey for that. And he's been in with one or more of the Soho lot. Watches and that Italian sovereign business.

Of course! Craddock realized now why Alfred's face had seemed vaguely familiar from the first. It had all been small time stuff—never anything that could be proved. Alfred had always been on the outskirts of the racket with a plausible innocent reason for having been mixed up in it at all. But the police had been quit sure that a small steady profit came his way.

"That throws rather a light on things," Craddock said.

"Think he done it?"

"I shouldn't have said he was the type to do murder. But it explains other things—the reason why he couldn't come up with an alibi."

"Yes, that looks bad for him."

"Not really," said Craddock. "It's quite a clever line—just to say firmly you can't remember. Lots of people can't remember what they did and where they were even a week ago. It's especially useful if you don't particularly want to call attention to the way you spend your time—interesting rendezvous at lorry pull ups with the Dicky Rogers crowd for instance."

"So you think he's all right?"

"I'm not prepared to think anyone's all right just yet," said Inspector Craddock. "You've got to work on it, Wetherall."

Back at his desk, Craddock sat frowning, and making little notes on the pad in front of him.

Murderer (he wrote) . . . A

A tall dark man!!!

Victim? . . . Could have been Martine, Edmund Crackenthorpe's girl friend or widow.

or

Could have been Anna Stravinski. Went out of circulation at appropriate time, right age and appearance, clothing, etc. No connection with Rutherford Hall as far as is known.

Could be Harold's first wife! Bigamy!

Could be Harold's mistress. Blackmail!!

If connection with Alfred, might be blackmail had sent him to gaol?

If Cedric—might have had connection with him abroad — Paris? Balearics?

or

Victim could be Anna S. posing as Martine

or

Victim is unknown woman killed by unknown murderer!

"And most probably the latter," said Craddock aloud.

He reflected gloomily on the situation. You couldn't get far with a case until you had the motive. All the motives suggested so far seemed either inadequate or farfetched.

Now if only it had been the murder of old Mr. Crackenthorpe . . . Plenty of motive there . . .

Something stirred in his memory. . .

He made further notes on his pad.

Ask Dr. Q. about Christmas illness.

Cedric—alibi.

Consult Miss M. for latest gossip.

When Craddock got to 4 Madison Road he found Lucy Eyesbarrow with Miss Marple.

He hesitated for a moment on his plan of campaign and then decided that Lucy Eyelesbarrow might prove a valuable ally.

After greetings, he solemnly drew out his notecase, extracted three pound notes, added three shillings and pushed them across the table to Miss Marple.

"What's this, Inspector?"

"Consultation fee. You're a consultant—on murder! Pulse temperature, local reactions, possible deep seated cause of said murder. I'm just the poor harassed local G.P."

Miss Marple looked at him and twinkled. He grinned at her. Lucy Eyelesbarrow gave a faint gasp and then laughed.

"Why, Inspector Craddock — you're human after all."

"Oh, well, I'm not strictly on duty this afternoon."

"I told you we had met before," said Miss Marple to Lucy. "Sir Henry Clithering is his godfather —a very old friend of mine."

"Would you like to hear, Miss Eyelesbarrow, what my godfather said about her—the first time we met? He described her as just the finest detective God ever made—natural genius cultivated in a suitable soil. He told me never to despise the—" Dermot Craddock paused for a moment to seek for a synonym for 'old pussies'—" — er — elderly ladies. He said they could usually tell you what might have happened, what ought to have happened, and even what actually did happen! And," he said, "they can tell you why it happened!" He added "that this particular — er — elderly lady — was at the top of the class."

"Well!" said Lucy, "that seems to be a testimonial all right."

Miss Marple was pink and confused and looked unusually dithery.

"Dear Sir Henry," she murmured. "Always so kind. Really I'm not at all clever—just, perhaps, a slight knowledge of human nature—living, you know, in a village—"

She added, with more composure.

"Of course, I am somewhat handicapped, by not actually being on the spot. It is so helpful, I always feel, when people remind you of other people—because types are alike everywhere and that is such a valuable guide."

Lucy looked a little puzzled, but Craddock nodded comprehendingly.

"But you've been to tea there, haven't you?" he said.

"Yes, indeed. Most pleasant. I was a little disappointed that I didn't see old Mr. Crackenthorpe —but one can't have everything."

"Do you feel that if you saw the person who had done the murder, you'd know?" asked Lucy.

"Oh, I wouldn't say that, dear. One is always inclined to guess—and-guessing would be very wrong when it is a question of anything as serious as murder. All one can do is to observe the people concerned—or who might have been concerend—and see of whom they remind you."

"Like Cedric and the Bank Manager?"

Miss Marple corrected her.

"The Bank Manager's son, dear. Mr. Eade himself was far more like Mr. Harold—a very conservative man—but perhaps a little too fond of money—the sort of man, too, who would go a long way to avoid scandal."

Craddock smiled and said:

"And Alfred?"

"Jenkins at the Garage," Miss Marple replied promptly. He didn't exactly appropriate tools—but he used to exchange a broken or inferior jack for a good one. And I believe he wasn't very honest over batteries—though I don't understand these things very well. I know Raymond left off dealing with him and went to the garage on the Milchester road.

You'll gasp in amazement, stare at yourself in disbelief as day after day after day you get slimmer, trimmer, more attractive! . . . As day after day you come closer and closer to the safe, normal weight you should be!

NO PILLS, NO DIETS

Imagine! You don't take a single pill, capsule or tablet! You don't follow a plan, you don't go on a starvation diet, you don't strain your heart with brutal exercise. You don't pour money down the drain on so called slenderizing massages!

You lead a sane, normal life. You sleep, work, play just like any of your thin friends. You eat foods you want to eat. You don't wrestle with your power, and all the while ugly pounds melt away quickly and pleasantly, the safe scientific Du-Dol way!

HOW IT WORKS

Perhaps this all sounds too wonderful to be true! Perhaps you are wondering how Du-Dol can perform these "miracles" when other products that promised so much failed. That's a logical question. Here's the logical answer.

Du-Dol has little or nothing in common with other products you may have tried. Du-Dol contains, for the very first time ever, a fabulous Doctor-proved, Doctor-prescribed reducing drug in liquid form! After having been tried, tested and used by countless Doctors throughout the nation, this powerful drug has been approved safe for use without prescription by the Food and Drug Administration.

Secondly, and just as important, is this big difference. Other products depend on one of three basic reducing principles. They fill your stomach with bulk material OR they try to fool your taste-buds into thinking you aren't hungry, OR they contain a drug which works to lessen your desire to overeat.

Only Du-Dol combines all three of these medically accepted reducing principles into one great new, entirely different reducing product . . a product that works three ways at once to help melt your fat away more surely and more easily than anything you ever tried in your life.

In other words, when you take Du-Dol you get this powerful government-approved safe drug and you get appetite-satisfying concentrates to help ward off that overpowering urge to overeat, and you get hunger-satisfying bulk in the form of delicious liquids of your own choice!

PROVED BY DOCTORS

No wonder that when Doctors tested amazing new Du-Dol on overweight persons — many of whom had great difficulty in losing weight with ordinary reducing methods — they were amazed to find that in virtually every case, substantial losses were noted!

Patients lost pound after pound of ugly fat quickly, safely, and above all, pleasantly! And most important, they lost that weight without being told to diet . . . without being told what or what not to eat! . . . without depriving themselves of all the foods they loved!

In short, they lived like normal human beings! While they ate three delicious meals a day, they were losing weight! While they were enjoying mouth-watering chops, steaks, juicy roasts, vegetables, desserts and all the rest, off came ugly pounds, down came figure-marring inches from waist, hips, thighs, everywhere!

With less work, less effort, less discomfort than they ever imagined possible, they drank their fat away! . . . Drank off pounds that had made them miserable for years!

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

After all the products you've tried . . . after all the suffering you've done . . . after all the tortures you've subjected yourself to for year after weary year, and now it's all over!

In your lifetime, the miracle you secretly prayed for actually happened! This brand new reducing concept . . . this fabulous new method, so safe, so easy, so astonishingly effective, is here at last! And it's yours to try . . . yours to prove to your own satisfaction, without one penny's risk or obligation!

Think of what this can mean to you! Can you imagine the glorious feeling when you live like other people live, eat what they eat, do what they do without worrying, without feeling guilty, without feeling afraid? That's what Du-Dol's help can do for you!

Perhaps you have tried other products in good faith and been disappointed. Perhaps you have even gone so far as to promise yourself that you would never try another reducing product again! But stop and think a moment. . . .

You've tried so often in the past, haven't you? Wouldn't it be foolish to quit now, just a few steps short of your goal! Wouldn't it be silly to give up now when the product you've waited for is finally here? Why not try Du-Dol? If not for your sake, for the sake of those you love, Try Du-Dol.

TRY AT OUR RISK

Send for it now while you are still thinking about it. Or better still, come in and pick it up yourself. Then try Du-Dol in your own home at our risk! If Du-Dol isn't every bit as wonderful as we say it is, don't keep it! Return the unused portion and we'll send you an immediate refund without asking you a single question!

You risk nothing, and at least you have the satisfaction of trying what we sincerely believe to be the finest reducing product on the face of this earth!

But please don't put it off. Supplies are limited! Stop in for Du-Dol, or fill out the order blank below and mail at once. You'll be so happy you did!

YOU MUST READ THIS

Do you remember the story of the boy who cried "help, wolf" just to attract attention? When a real wolf finally approached, the boy's friends ignored his cries for help because he had fooled them so often. They refused to believe him when it really counted!

Don't be like that boy's friends. Don't miss out on this fabulously effective reducing method just because you may have been fooled by other reducing products.

You see, DU-DOL really is different. It really does work . . . really does help you reduce more safely, more quickly, more easily, because it is a more effective product than other reducers now being sold.

If you really want to reduce, try DU-DOL. Spend the few moments it takes to fill out and mail this order blank. If you aren't delighted in every way, we will be happy to refund your purchase price immediately and without question. You have nothing to lose but a few seconds of your time.

MAKES EVERY OTHER REDUCING PRODUCT OLD-FASHIONED

DU-DOL, is, in our opinion, the only reducing product on the market today to keep pace with the fantastic progress being made in other drug fields. For example, just as the drugs we relied upon yesterday are being out dated by the newer, better drugs of today, so do we believe that DU-DOL, because of its greater Doctor-proved efficiency in pleasant to take liquid form, makes other products now being sold, old fashioned.

What better proof is there than the fact that the very pills now being hailed as the last word in reducing aren't really doing the job you hoped they would? Perhaps that is because you are one of the many thousands of persons for whom pills and tablets just won't work. Surely that is reason enough to try this new reducing concept . . . a liquid reducer. Why not send for DU-DOL now? If you aren't delighted in every way, you get money back, so of course you really have nothing to lose.

DU-DOL IS GUARANTEED SAFE, GUARANTEED HARMLESS!

DU-DOL is a scientific formulation of safe, tested ingredients proved in Doctor-supervised clinical tests to be absolutely non-injurious. It has no unpleasant or dangerous side-effects . . may be taken with complete confidence by any normally healthy person.

© Anderson Pharmacal Corp.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Try DU-DOL in your own home for 7 days entirely at our risk. Weigh yourself before you start. Weigh yourself after. If you don't lose as much weight as you want to lose, if you don't look better and feel better, and above all, if you don't find DU-DOL so much more pleasant to take than any reducer you have ever tried in your life, don't keep it! Return the unused portion at once for your money back immediately, no questions asked. You must be completely satisfied in every way, or you pay nothing.

World Should Be Rid of Nebraska Killer of 11

Few one-man crimes in American history can match the enormity of our current fracas down Nebraska way.

CHARLES STARKWEATHER will loom up in all criminal history as one of the most bestial fiends in recorded happenings. For sheer depravity, he leads the list. Most murderers call it a day after a scant few killings. But he claimed 11 — and still was "in action" when the law closed in.

He struck and struck and struck—for no reason at all. Apparently, the most cogent explanation unearthed to date lies in the fact he "wanted to be important." Well, that's a very human and understandable desire, but no one since the beginning of time ever set about it in quite the same method.

Fortunately, both states in which he operated have capital punishment so there is a reasonable hope that mankind will be shut of this human horror for keeps. Happily, he didn't operate in Michigan where he probably would have been confined "for life" and then let out after the average 16 years and allowed to start all over.

It's time now for the pantywaists to spring into action and get out their crying towels. They can do a heartfelt job over poor Charley. Between tears, sobs and lamentations, they can beg "another chance" for this "poor, little mixed up lad." After all, they will contend, that this Boy Blue is probably "confused."

We believe the law should take its course. We believe this world should be rid of Starkweather at the earliest possible moment. We believe the rest of society should be protected against another outbreak — now or 25 years hence.

Our sympathy goes to the ELEVEN victims he killed. Our heart goes out to the fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, sons and daughters of 11 slain. Our thoughts are with them, and the host of friends of the dead.

Starkweather?

Law — move swiftly.

Congress May Pass Improved Labor Law

President EISENHOWER'S labor message to Congress offers a reasonable program to curb corruption and excesses in the labor-management field.

The program is intended to protect and improve collective bargaining. Its main points are:

1. Welfare funds would be accounted for annually to a new office in the Department of Labor.

2. Unions would be required to file reports, open for public inspection, on their finances and laws.

3. Unions would have to show that officials were elected by secret ballot.

4. Unions and employers would have to file reports on financial dealings with each other or with intermediaries. Secret deals to impair labor rights by "sweetheart" contracts or other means would be illegal.

5. Secondary boycotts would be redefined by amending the Taft-Hartley law to make plain that secondary boycotts of an employer who performs "farmed out" work for a struck company, are legal.

The matter of right-to-work laws, that is permitting or banning the union shop, was left to the states and no request was made to have unions put under anti-trust laws. It was recognized that recent Senate disclosures of abuses in industrial relations implicated only a minority and that victims are union men themselves.

The President's program offers protection for union members and the public without interfering with labor's right to organize, bargain collectively or strike. Its goal is to protect the basic rights of the industrial worker, and to maintain the integrity of trade unionism itself.

For the past 10 years every labor program has created sharp battles in Congress and gotten nowhere. But in view of the President's message backed by his leadership, Congress may yet pass labor law reforms.

One for All, All for One

David Lawrence Wonders:

Brooklyn Another Little Rock?

WASHINGTON — Could federal troops be used to police the schools in Brooklyn where incidents involving rape, juvenile crime, racial friction and violence in general have recently caused the foreman of the grand jury there to ask for police to be stationed inside the school buildings?

LAWRENCE

The mayor of New York and the governor seem reluctant to put police into the schools but, judging by the revelation of what happened at Little Rock just written by former Mayor Woodrow W. Mann in a series of copyrighted articles in the "New York Herald Tribune," it isn't necessary to ask the mayor of New York City or the governor of the state for police help.

Ordinary authority apparently can be bypassed and a direct request can be made to the White House by any official agency of a local nature. If the Little Rock precedent is upheld, this could mean the immediate dispatch of Federal troops to the scene.

Mr. Mann discloses that he did not even consult his own chief of police in Little Rock because the mayor didn't like the chief's political views. He also was at odds with the governor of Arkansas.

"Police Chief Potts did not know that I was in constant touch with Washington," writes former Mayor Mann of Little Rock. He adds that he told Maxwell Rabb, presidential assistant in charge of minority questions, on Tuesday, Sept. 24, 1957: "As far as I'm concerned, we need action as quickly as possible. We need Federal troops."

Former Mayor Mann says that on the morning of the same day Mr. Rabb told him that he should send "a telegraphed request for Federal troops" because this was necessary "to clear our files." The mayor complied, and within a couple of hours the President issued an executive order sending Federal troops to Little Rock.

The collaboration between the White House and Mr. Mann in preparing the way for Federal troops is commented on by the former Mayor of Little Rock as follows:

"I read Max Rabb my telegram. He suggested — and I made — a couple of minor changes."

The text of the message sent at 9:15 a.m. by Mr. Mann was as follows:

"The immediate need for Federal troops is urgent. The mob is much larger in numbers at 8:00 a.m. than at any time yesterday. People are converging on the scene from all directions. Mob is armed and engaged in fisticuffs and other acts of violence. Situation is out of control, and police cannot disperse the mob. I am pleading to you as President of the United States . . . to provide the necessary troops within several hours. Action by you will restore peace and order in compliance with your proclamation."

Mr. Mann writes further: "By 9:48 a.m., when next I called Maxwell Rabb, I was able to report that there were still several hundred people milling around the police cordon at Central High. There were agitators, but no violence. For lack of targets, the mob had cooled.

" 'Is help coming?' I asked. This I confess, was my real purpose for calling.

" 'Well,' said Rabb, 'This clears the way.' "

The foregoing episode is all the more surprising because, in an earlier article in the series, former Mayor Mann tells what he planned at one time in the way of escort of the Negro children by the Federal government through the Arkansas National Guard cordon around the school. Mr. Mann writes:

"I had in mind the use of United States marshals. Looking back on the situation — I am still surprised that the Justice Department did not adopt this approach at the start, or even later. The extremist agitators would have hesitated to interfere with these local representatives of the Federal law, and no such outcry would have arisen as came with the use of Federal troops."

Maybe the foreman of the grand jury in Brooklyn can cite the Little Rock precedent now if Mayor Wagner and Governor Harriman disregard his request for police in the school buildings or if he doesn't happen to like their political views.

The Country Parson

Dr. William Brady Says:

Walking in ANY Weather Good for What Ails You

As a youngster, a Wisconsin reader says, she had to walk to school and back (four miles) every day, often in blizzard or extreme cold weather. She usually arrived at school perspiring a little. Her classmates, most of them so bundled up they could hardly move, were nearly frozen. She firmly believes that any one but an imbecile knows by his own feeling whether he has enough clothing.

DR. BRADY

Furthermore, the Wisconsin lady agrees wholeheartedly with the teachings that "one does not catch cold (pardon me—the cri) from being in a draft or getting wet or going out to work or play without overcoat or other extra clothing."

She has worked in drafts day after day, winter and summer, and been so wet that water ran out of her clothing, yet she never got one little sniffle as a consequence of such exposure, she says. And so she tells her children to wear or leave off what they please.

The pupils who had to walk two miles to school and two miles back home every day were fortunate.

A daily walk of three to six miles is the best general exercise one can take. It is good not only for school children but for adults who live by their wits — clerical, business, professional people.

TOO MANY PAMPERED

Too many school children today get only nominal physical education in school and are denied even the boon of walking to and from school, either because of the traffic hazards or because parents or guardians coddle them by furnishing the money or means to ride to and from school as befits sissies.

An Idaho mother says she has whipped up many a batch of Doctor Brady's Home Made Fool Proof Cough Medicine for her husband, her children and her mother and she believes it's just GREAT.

In the Little Lesson, Call it C R I, (35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope), I give complete directions how to whip up a batch of cough medicine whenever the baby, one of the children, or gramps needs it.

I hope that you'll read the Little Lesson carefully and learn why you should call it cri (kree) instead of "cold" — for the health and safety of your family and your friends and neighbors.

After all, the cri (common respiratory infections) is responsible directly and indirectly for three-fourths of the everyday work of doctors. And cri is preventible.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Urges Praise for Police, Rather Than Complaints

So many have complaints about our Police Department I decided credit should be given where it's deserved. My husband and I were stopped one evening last week by a Pontiac policeman for going over the speed limit.

When he came to the car, we expected the usual "tough treatment." However, to our surprise, he was very courteous and polite. After writing the ticket he actually acted like he hated to give it to us. Also, as he was about to leave he said, "I hope our next meeting is under better conditions." In addition, we were stuck in the snow and he gave us a shove.

If more people would give mention to meetings with policemen who are courteous, people of this town wouldn't have such bitter feelings toward them. My hat's off to that officer.

Mr. Murdock Tells of His Appreciation

Words are very inadequate for the feelings in my heart, but at this time I know of no other way to express my appreciation to the many people who've helped me.

Law enforcement officers of the city, township, county and state were so wonderful and kind and so thorough in their work.

Words fail me, but to my many, many friends who are so closely knit in one big family of love and fellowship, who have given so freely of their love, sympathy, time and substance, I extend my deep felt thanks and God bless everyone.

'Shouldn't Print Such Letters'

Most of the letters in The Pontiac Press are truthful. So why run misstatements? Why should readers have to face letters like the one Wednesday? The Press owes us protection.

This letter says there are six million unemployed. The figure is now under four and a half million by government report. That is an error of one and a half million or 33 per cent.

Next the writer says only nine per cent of people who've bought homes in the last three years will be able to hold them. How can you print ridiculous falsehoods like this? The same writer says 95 per cent of the people that work can't buy what they help produce. What's the source of that blockbuster?

Then the writer says one man makes more in a year than a thousand men make in a lifetime. Well, if a man makes $4,000 a year from 20 to 65, that's $180,000. If he works longer — or makes more — it's greater. So one man would have to make $180,000,000 in ONE YEAR to equal a thousand.

Maybe a lot of readers can't add and multipy, but I should think The Press could. A newspaper shouldn't print letters like that.

T.T.

(Editor's Note: A little red in the face, we agree.)

'Faulty Light Isn't Always Neglect'

In answer to the wife of a factory worker with four children, I, too, am a factory worker's wife, and not as young as some years back. The reason there are so many autos with only one headlight is that a person will go to work and use the lots provided by the plants or pay for private lot protection, and both lights will be in good shape. But when you get out of work, you find one or two back or front lights smashed out, and the person who does it leaves no name or record of the accident. It's happened to us several times, old and new cars.

You say if people can afford new cars they can afford to put in the lights. We have the first new car in our lives, and two months after we got it both of the parking lights were broken out in a parking lot. We've also had front ends smashed and once the back. If you keep going to your insurance company you're dropped as a poor risk, even though none of it is your fault.

You say these drivers with one light should be arrested. I say arrest those who do the dirty work. I know some people are careless and need taken care of, but it isn't all the car owner's neglect.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Be Pressured Into Eloping

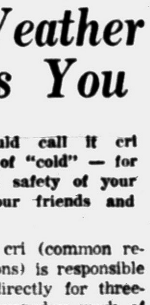

Elaine tried to stampede Bob into an elopement. Beware of such high pressure, for elopements are likely to be based on rash sex infatuation rather than true love. If you are now infatuated, send for the "Tests for Sweethearts" listed below. They help give you a more objective, detached view.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-317: Elaine T., aged 16, has been going steady for a year.

"Let's elope," she suggested to her boy friend, named Bob.

DR. CRANE

"We love each other, so why wait any longer?"

Bob was greatly tempted, for he was crazy about Elaine. She was a lush thrush with a vivacious personality and plenty of self-confidence.

That's why she took the initiative in suggesting an elopement. Her parents were wealthy and had let her have her own way a great deal.

Elaine had traveled widely and was quite a sophisticated chick for her youthful years.

But Bob realized he still had another year of high school and he had been reared to work for his own money, so he viewed with alarm his uncertain financial future!

So he stalled for time. Elaine pouted and accused him of not loving her but Bob held firm to his delaying tactics, though her kisses made him waver unsteadily.

FACTS OF LIFE

Bob asked me what I thought about the idea of their elopement. I praised his foresight in stalling off the matter.

Then I told him that girls in our larger cities nowadays usually don't marry till they are past 21 years of age, so it would look like a child marriage if he picked a 16-year-old.

And I reminded him that love is important but so is an adequate pay check. Then I told him of the data released by Dr. Paul C. Glick of our Census Bureau.

Dr. Glick showed that a person with a high school diploma earns $49,000 more in later life than a fellow who quits after the 8th grade.

LOVE VS. $$$

"Bob, you're a smart fellow," I began, "and have had a lot of business experience via your two years' operation of a newspaper route.

"So you know it takes money to finance a home. And Elaine has been spoiled by wealthy parents so she will require more money than the average wife.

"You can't give it to her without a college education, so keep on with your stalling tactics.

"Use our sales psychology technique which is called the 'Yes, but' strategy.

"In other words, 'Yes' her along gracefully 'but' suggest you must wait till you've had some college education. And let her rate you on the 'Tests for Sweethearts,' while you rate her, too."

There is an old adage to the effect that "Love flies out the window when poverty stalks in the door."

That has some exceptions, but it is basically a truism founded on the experience of the human race down through the centuries.

RATE YOUR DATE

Bob took the "Tests for Sweethearts" and let Elaine rate him while he rated her.

These tests contain the 50 most common merits, plus the 50 most common demerits, which engaged couples gave me in confidential interviews.

I would take them, one person at a time, and ask the boy, "Why do you love Alice? What attracts you to her most?"

After he had spontaneously started his answers, then I'd reverse the question and ask if there were any traits or characteristics about her that he'd change if he could do it without offending her.

So send for these helpful "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

They put eyes into blind Cupid's head and jolt people out of rash sex infatuations (elopements).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Precedes Choice of Community Status

Novi to Elect Charter Commission Mar. 17

NOVI TOWNSHIP — Candidates for a charter commission will be on the special election ballot March 17 when voters of Novi Township decide whether or not to become an incorporated village.

Persons seeking a position on the charter commission must file a petition at the Oakland County clerk's office before 4 p.m. on Feb. 10, Township Clerk Hadley J. Bachert announced today.

Should Novi voters approve a proposal to become a village, elected members of the charter commission will automatically be in office.

Novi Township will set up two precincts for the special election—one at the Township Hall, 25850 Novi Rd., and the other at the Novi Community Building, 26300 Novi Rd.

Not all residents of Novi Township will be eligible to cast ballots. Persons living in Wixom, Brookland Farms Subdivision No. 1, Northville Estates Subdivision, and that part of the city of Northville which lies in Novi Township are not eligible to vote March 17, Bachert revealed.

Bachert also pointed out that residents of the section of Novi Township now involved in a court case concerning annexation by Northville also have been declared ineligible.

Registration for the special election will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. each day at the Township Hall. The deadline has been set for 8 p.m. Feb. 17.

HUBERT W. EARLE

Service will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Spencer J. Heeny Funeral Home, Farmington, for Hubert W. Earle, 67, of 20010 W. Eight Mile Rd., Farmington. Mr. Earle, who died Wednesday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, had been supervisor and director of welfare for Oakland County for 23 years. He was a graduate of Ferris Institute.

Congress Fights for Tariff Rule

WASHINGTON (AP)—A powerful congressional move shaped up today aimed at stripping President Eisenhower of important parts of his tariff authority.

This challenge developed in the face of the President's urgent plea for added powers to negotiate further tariff cuts under a proposed five-year extension of the reciprocal trade agreements program beyond next July 1.

If transformed into law, this move by critics of the program would in effect give Congress a key check on the President's trade agreements authority.

It would deny the President authority he now has to ignore Tariff Commission recommendations for increased import duties where the commission finds such boosts are needed to protect American industry from serious harm.

As some leading members of the President's own party in Congress blasted his recommendations, Eisenhower's most ardent backers conceded he was in for a fight with the outcome highly uncertain.

Aligned against Eisenhower's proposals appeared to be a majority of House Republicans and a growing number of Democrats.

However, mixed in with the hostile comments were some expressions of support, particularly in the Senate.

The President, in a special message, appealed for broad new authority to lower U. S. tariffs by 5 per cent a year during the next five years. These reductions would be in return for similar trade concessions from other nations.

Final Go Ahead Granted Southfield Radio Station

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Board of Trustees last night cleared the way for Station WXYZ to go ahead with its plans to build a four million dollar television and radio studio and antennas in Southfield Township.

Meeting in a special session, the board approved the station's request to have a 104-acre tract of land upon which it has an option rezoned from residential to commercial use. The site is located just west of Northwestern highway on 10-Mile road.

The request previously had been approved by the Township and Zoning Boards.

Approximately 40 acres of the land will be used by the station for its studio and antennae and the remainder will be subdivided.

Southfield was permitted to buy one lot in the proposed subdivision for one dollar and other valuable considerations.

Supervisor Eugene Swem said the purchase was made so the Township Board, as land owner, could enforce restrictions now agreed upon by the state on which it could not enforce as a township board.

Maloney's Rule of Union Probed

Hear Witnesses Today on Violence in Locals of Operating Engineers

WASHINGTON (INS) — Senate rackets busters said they would trace today the "violent" and spectacular rise of William E. Maloney to the presidency of the 270,000-member International Operating Engineers Union.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy summoned witnesses to testify today on Maloney's alleged 29-year dictatorship over two Chicago locals — 150 and 399 — and about alleged violence against unionists who have opposed Maloney's rule.

The rackets committee accused Maloney yesterday of draining $171,110 off the union treasury for yacht cruises, fancy apartments, memberships in swank country clubs and race track clubhouses, and "double and triple" expenses

The disclosures brought a plea from chairman John McClellan (D-Ark) for legislation to require a full accounting of the expenditure of tax exempt union funds.

President Flying to Georgia Today for Rest in Sun

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower flies to Georgia today for "a little rest and some sun."

Eisenhower's weekend trip to the Augusta National Golf Club may be sort of a prelude to a possibly longer stay in mid-February at the Thomasville, Ga., estate of former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey.

Mrs. Eisenhower planned to stay in Washington while the President spends a few days in Augusta.

Eisenhower is expected to return to the capital Sunday night.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower "will get a little rest and some sun, in addition to what work there will be to do."

Reuther Testifies in Carl Renda Suit

DETROIT (INS) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther testified today at the trial of a damage suit growing out of the 1948 attempt on his life.

Carl Renda, a Detroit scrap dealer, is suing the UAW and several police officers for $4.5 million for alleged malicious prosecution in the case.

Reuther said he did not know how much money the UAW spent on Donald Ritchie of Windsor, Ont., who confessed and then recanted the shooting of the union leader.

"I didn't become involved in any way in the investigation of the attempt on my life," Reuther declared. "I wanted to forget the while thing. It was a sad chapter. I am trying to lead a useful life and the thought of this is very disturbing."

Reuther was shot on April 20, 1948, while in the breakfast nook of his Detroit home.

Monaghan Heads Payroll Savings Drive in Area

Philip J. Monaghan, vice president of the General Motors Corp., and general manager of Truck & Coach Division, will serve as drive chairman in the Pontiac area for a campaign to step up sales of savings bonds through the payroll savings plan.

The campaign, to be called "Share In America," will be held in the Pontiac area during the week of March 3. Employers will conduct person-to-person canvasses of employes, making sure all wage and salary earners are given an opportunity to enroll in the payroll savings plan.

It is hoped that at least 50 per cent of all employes not now enrolled will sign up to purchase savings bonds as a result of the drive.

Defense Funds Bill Clears Senate Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) (INS) — The Senate Appropriations Committee quickly approved today $1,410,000,000 in emergency weapons funds but knocked out all reference to the outer space agency proposed by the pentagon.

Chariman Carl Hayden (D-Ariz) said the bill will be ready for Senate action Monday. It cleared the committee by a unanimous vote.

Hayden said that there was a disposition in the committee to give more money to the Defense Department but that his unit wanted to give Defense Secretary Neil McElroy all the time needed to decide what his dollar needs will be.

Get Set for Upswing,' GOP Told

Ike Debunks 'Recession'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told Republicans today they can campaign on a "five years of prosperity" platform despite the current business recession.

The President told a breakfast sponsored by the Republican National Committee, that the economy will pick up later this year because it "remains basically confident."

"This is a period of consolidating the gains of recent years," Eisenhower said. "Many people are paying off installment debts. Many businesses are trimming inventories. The economy is catching its breath for a new advance after the fast expansion of recent years."

The meeting was closed but excerpts from Eisenhower's address were released for publication.

Vice President Nixon was down for a luncheon talk to the same group, called together to take stock of Republican chances in this year's elections.

Eisenhower's prescription followed much the same line as his Jan. 20 Chicago speech in which he hit at "pessimists" who say America is weak, and asked the people to push out their chins and say the country is strong and will grow stronger.

Eisenhower, given a rousing welcome, stressed the business situation in the portion of his address which was given out.

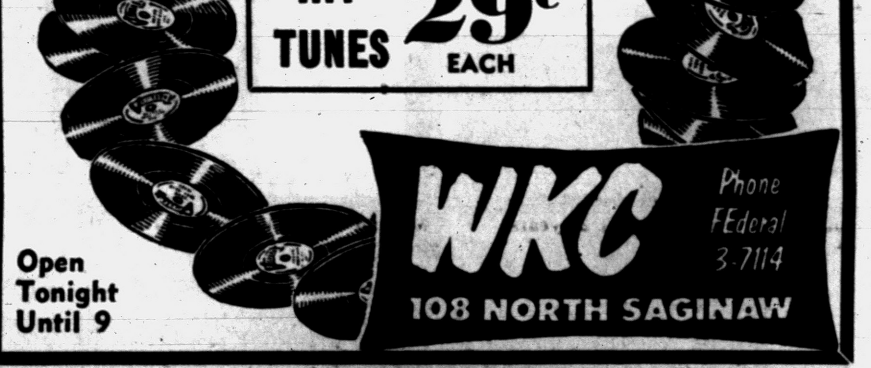

"Republicans have never sold American free enterprise short—and never will."

Hal Boyle Says:

Millions Now Suffer From 'Winter Willies'

NEW YORK (AP) Have you come down with the "winter willies?"

It is an ailment caused by too much indoor living; too many cloudy days and too few sunny ones; too many frigid winds and too few warm ones; too many icicles on the trees and too few buds.

Man is homesick for summer, and aches for the sight of a rainbow. He is weary of snow. His spirit is as desolate as his garden. Everything is dull, duller, dullest — one's job, one's mate, one's duty and, most of all, one's self.

Do you, too, suffer from cold weather boredom? Why? It is so needless. Anybody with a little gumption can make winter into one of the more rewarding periods of the year. All it takes is a little ingenuity, and bit of old hip-hip-hurray!

1. Learn to hibernate. If a bear and a woodchuck can chuckle away a winter in happy sleep, you can too. Practice at the office as well as at home — to the envy of your fellow workers. Don't worry about the boss. No boss has the heart to fire a man who's asleep. And when you wake up, come spring, you'll have plenty of strength to look for a new job.

2. Since you can't grow anything in your garden, why not grow something else? A beard, for example. No man who has both a beard and a mirror is ever bored.

3. Figure out new ways to save money. Instead of bawling out your wife for her inability to stay within a budget, ask her "Frankly, honey, don't you think I'd have gone further in life if I'd remained single?" Then you can turn off the furnance and cut down the heating bill. Her answer will warm up the house for months.

If, after conscientiously trying all these treatments you are still swept by winter ennui and lassitude, there is only one thing left to do—catch a cold and then attempt to borrow money from your friends.

It is impossible to be bored if you are trying to sneez and at the same time listen to a pal explain why he can't lend you $500.

Idlewild Airport Hotel Different—It's for Pets

NEW YORK (AP)—Idlewild Airport now has a deluxe "hotel for pets," with accommodations for anything from adog to a bag of cobras.

The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals yesterday opened its $275,000 hostelry—the first of its kind in the United States, London Airport also has one.

The 24-hour shelter occupies more than an acre of land in the huge airfield's cargo area. Pets are kept for a fee.

German Roads Busier

BONN — Germany's network of roads is equal in length to 15 feet per inhabitant. This compares with 90 feet available for each resident in the United States. Germany has 154 motor vehicles for every 6.2 miles of streets; the United States has 128.

Ike's Wreath Placed on Roosevelt's Grave

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP)—A wreath from President Eisenhower was placed on President Franklin D. Roosevelt's grave here yesterday on the 76th anniversary of his birth.

Maj. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy at nearby West Point, placed the wreath as four honor cadets at the academy stood at attention.

The wreath of palms and laurel bore the inscription: "The President."

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt attended the ceremony with two of her sons, Elliott, of Rolling R. Ranch, Meekr, Colo., and John, of New York City. The widow placed a wreath of jonquils and asters at the grave marker.

The Rev. Gordon L. Kidd, rector of St. James Episcopal Church Hyde Park, the late President's church, read a prayer as a light snow fell on the rose garden of the former Roosevelt estate where the President is buried. It is now a national historic site.

Science Revolution Promises to Alter Course of Education

By CHARLES L. STAFFORD
AP Staff Writer

Third in Series

Blissfully unaware, the parents in the auditorium of a Salt Lake City school watched an incident in a peaceful revolution.

It was an ordinary occasion, the annual play by the sixth grade of Franklin School. They expected the ordinary thing—Columbus discovering America, or perhaps Christmas in foreign lands.

The parents were startled when they heard the boom of a rocket blast-off. Then faintly, on the waves of an imaginary radio, they heard their children's voices. The youngsters announced proudly that they were on their way to the moon.

Tuning in on the trip on "interplanetary television," the parents laughed at the boy who had forgotten his magnetic shoes and kept hitting the ceiling of the space ship. They saw their children demonstrate the weakness of moon gravity by jumping over mountains. They learned that temperatures on the moon range from 200 degrees during the day to 200 below at night.

This imaginary moon trip was a clue to a revolution which promises to alter the course of American education.

In a nationwide survey of teachers, principals and administrators, The Associated Press found that the art of teaching science is being given new birth.

A gentle swell in educational circles for a half decade, the new emphasis on test tube and triangle, physical theory and the atom became a nationwide tidal wave in the weeks after the Russians launched the first man-made satellite.

At the national and state levels, educators are talking of plans and studies. But in cities and individual schools—as in Salt Lake City's Franklin School—the change has begun.

Thirteen hundred miles southeast of Salt Lake City, Miss Smith performs a simple experiment for her first grade in a San Angelo, Tex. school. Somehow she got through teachers' college without exposure to a single science class.

But she doesn't fumble. She works on a "science table" where the needed equipment has been placed in proper order. Carefully detailed cards lead her through the experiment.

This is the San Angelo plan for whetting the science appetite of the youngest student while aiding the teacher who has scientific limitations.

Across the Gulf of Mexico in the high school at Melbourne, Fla., talented students labor to learn among residue from the scene of a failure. The science laboratory is equipped with surlus equipment from the missile test center at nearby Cape Canaveral. It was there the United States failed Dec. 6 to launch a satellite.

At Miami Beach Senior High School five boys willingly remain after school. Specially chosen, they are experimenting with radioactive isotopes on plants and small animals. Their current project is using radioactive iodine to trace the reaction when a rat is given a tranquilizer.

At Des Moines, talented students began accelerated classes in physics and chemistry on Jan. 18. After regular week-day sessions they spend Saturday mornings in the laboratory probing the subjects to a greater depth.

At Perry, Iowa, Mrs. Dorothy Kelleher holds a model of the Russians' Sputnik II aloft before her first-grade pupils. Appropriately, it is labeled "Laika" after the Russian dog it carried into outer space.

In Topeka, Kan., 38 high school seniors with a special talent for learning listen to a lecture by an instructor from Washburn University. These youngsters are dou-ling as college freshmen. In an elementary school nearby, a group of children examine the wings of flies beneath their microscopes. They must take the microscopes home with them at night and are encouraged to prepare their own slides.

New Orleans is an old city with a new approach to teaching science. "Rolling laboratories" are moved from classroom to classroom in the elementary schools. A special high school trains bright students with intelligence quotients of 120 or better.

2 Daring Log Riders Fined $100 Each

FORTUNA, Calif. (AP) — Two young men who rode big redwood logs down the Eel River were fined $100 each yesterday for disturbing the peace.

Justice of the Peace William Guthrie also gave Eugene Smith, 18, and Clifford Bates, 26, suspended 10-day jail sentences and placed them on probation for a year.

Guthrie said motorists who stopped to watch the wild ride down the river, nearly at flood stage, jammed traffic on U.S. 101 Wednesday and "one man almost lost his life when he tried to throw them a rope and nearly fell off a bridge."

A 1,199-foot tower for a Boston television station is braced to withstand winds of 165 miles per hour by 22,200 feet of steel wire rope.

Egypt, Syria Soon to Announce Union

CAIRO (AP) — Syrian President Shukri Kuwatly arrived today to join with President Nasser of Egypt in proclaiming a "united Arab state" of their two nations. The proclamation is expected to be made tomorrow or Sunday.

Nasser, prospective president of the union, and Kuwatly embraced and kissed at the nearby Almaza military airport as a 21-gun salute boomed. As they drove into Cairo together, triumphal arches were being set up and flags of the two nations hung out in preparation for the announcement.

Sources in Damascus, the capital of Syria, say Egypt and Syria have agreed to hold a plebiscite before Feb. 20 on a temporary constitution and an election of the first president. Nasser will be the only candidate for president, with Kuwatly expected to become vice president.

Kelly Clan Taking Over U.S. Infantry Regiment

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Hawaii (AP)—The Kelly clan is taking over the top jobs with the 27th Infantry Regiment, the Wolfhounds.

Col. John Kelly steps in to command the regiment Feb. 8. Standing beside him will be the adjutant Maj. James Kelly. And Woodrow Wilson Kelly is the outfit's sergeant major.

The Army said none of the Kellys is related.

Electron Bombards Tumors 'Cleanly'

Finds Cancer Treatment

CHICAGO (INS) — A cancer specialist today revealed a new technique for the "clean" radioactive bombardment of a tumor in which the radiation exposure of healthy tissues is reduced "about 50 per cent."

Dr. Erich M. Uhlmann, 56, who headed the research into the new procedure at the tumor clinic of Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital, said:

"This development is very important because it will give us greater safety in utilizing a tremendously powerful electron beam to knock out cancerous growths.

"We will be able to cut down the present radiation exposure of the intervening healthy tissue by about 50 per cent."

The beam which Uhlmann utilizes consists of electrons—tiny particles which revolve around the nucleus of an atom—traveling at a speed of approximately 170,000 miles per hour.

The beam is produced by the hospital's linear accelerator, the only machine of its kind being used for medical purposes, and can be stepped up to an intensity of more than 40 million electron volts.

Uhlmann said the exact method of cutting down unwanted radiation—always a crucial matter in dealing with radiant energy—cannot be told in detail until it has been published in a medical journal.

The development was reported Tuesday at a closed-door government meeting in Gatlinburg, Tenn., according to Uhlmann.

AEC, AF Form Joint Agency

Speed Up Race to Find Nuclear Power Plant for Space-Age Aircraft

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Atomic Energy Commission and the Air Force have created a new "integrated joint project office" to speed up their race to find a nuclear power plant for space-age aircraft and intercontinental missiles.

This was revealed today in the AEC's 23rd semi-annual report to Congress. The report added:

"The office will have complete executive management responsibility for all aspects of the nuclear propulsion system for manned aircraft as well as for reactors for nuclear missile propulsion and auxiliary nuclear power units.

"This arrangement is designed to eliminate areas of coordination required previously, and to expedite communications between the operating contractors and the project director."

The office, it was said, is located in the headquarters of the commission at nearby Germantown, Md.

The office, according to the report, is staffed by the AEC, the Air Force and the Navy under Maj. Gen. D. J. Keirn, of the Aid Force, who is the project director within the commission and Air Force. Keirn is an assistant deputy chief of staff for development for nuclear systems of the Air Force.

No additional details were given but it was evident the government wanted to "expedite" its search for a power plant that would give plants and missiles limitless range and, perhaps, limitless altitude.

Says Soviets Spend Less on Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Dworshak (R-Idaho) said today that the Soviet Union has spent only a sixth the amount that the United States has spent on foreign aid and produced 29 times the result.

Dworshak, a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, offered figures to show that since World War II the Soviets have spent 1½ billion dollars in aid to free world countries and 8½ billions for Communist satellite nations. By comparison, he said, the United States spent 60 billion to help foreign countries.

"The Russians have taken 29 countries into the Soviet fold and we have lost that many from the free world," he added in a statement.

Michigan was the first state to permit women to serve on juries, the act passed in 1915. Maine and Utah legislatures followed shortly thereafter with similar enabling acts.

Million-Dollar Error Made on Bank Check

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Someone made a million-dollar error in a check sent to Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier for a $10.50 set of Illinois automobile license plates.

Romeo Rizzatto of Alton requested the Alton Banking and Trust Co. to make out a check for $10.50 but through a mistake the bank added a million dollars to the amount.

Carpentier said the check would be returned.

Japan's Antarctic Party Decides to Call for Aid

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's antarctic expedition headquarters decided today to call for help to get the trapped expedition icebreaker Soya into open water.

The 2,700-ton Soya has been locked for nearly four weeks in an ice mass in Lutzow-Holm Bay, off Cook Peninsula some 1,500 miles from the South Pole. A 50-man scientific observation team is aboard, trying to get to the Japanese base at Ongul Island, 110 miles to the southeast.

Four foreign icebreakers were reported close enough to help the Soya: the American Glacier, Burton Island and Atka, and Australia's Thala Dan.

Roosevelt Play Seen by Widow

Late President's Four Sons Also Present at Broadway Opening

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt marked the 76th anniversary of her husband's birth last night at the opening of a new play built around him.

The 73-year-old widow and her four sons, sitting apart in the Cort theater audience, attended the opening of "Sunrise at Campobello" and saw themselves portrayed on stage in earlier phases of their lives.

Mrs. Roosevelt called it fine entertainment and expressed delight with the acting of Ralph Bellamy as the late President Roosevelt and Mary Fickett as herself.

Dressed in a long, cream-colored brocade gown, he was introduced after the final curtain from her seat in the next to last orchestra row. The cast bowed in her direction.

Former movie executive Dore Schary wrote the play. It covers Roosevelt's fight against his crippling polio handicap after he was afflicted in 1921 at the family summer home in Campobello, N. B., Canada.

Schary had said: "What has been written is true. What is on stage actually happened."

Bellamy, in the lead role, claimed: "Even good, solid Republicans who hate Roosevelt are stirred by the play."

Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. commented: "It is done wonderfully. It is a very accurate and true pay about a very difficult period in father's life."

Expelled Teamsters Maintain Alliance

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Teamsters Union, even though expelled by the AFL-CIO as corrupt, is maintaining close working alliances with several key AFL-CIO unions.

The Teamsters and three of their old AFL-CIO pals—the Operating Engineers, Laborers and Carpenters unions—have just renewed a three-year-old pact to cooperate in joint organizing of workers in highway and other heavy construction jobs.

How this is going to suit George Meany, AFL-CIO president, and other federation leaders remains to be seen. Iz likely will be discussed at the AFL-CIO Executive Council session opening here Monday.

The Teamsters, along with the Laundry and Bakery Workers unions, were ousted from the AFL-CIO in December for alleged corrupt leadership.

Blood Tests Favored

CANBERRA—A recent poll conducted throughout Australia indicates that 85 per cent of the people favor blood tests, compulsory or otherwise, for automobile drivers suspected of being under the influence of liquor.

N.Y. Couple, Pet Found Stabbed

Mystery Shrouds Brutal Slayings as Detectives Find No Clues

NEW YORK (AP)—A wealthy shipyard operator and his wife hacked to death in the bedroom of their beach home—their pet dog killed with a knife in the basement—no sign of a weapon—a broken window but no indication of a robbery.

There was no clue to this mystery today as detectives fanned out through the Gerritsen Beach residential section of Brooklyn.

Oscar Ramberg, 50, and his wife Anna, 55, were found dead last night on the floor alongside a double bed in their $40,000 two-story home.

Police called the case a double murder. Each victim had been stabbed about 15 times. Autopsies were to be performed today.

Police said Mrs. Ramberg was an aunt of Eddie Stanky, Cleveland Indians baseball coach, and former National League second baseman and manager.

An assistant medical examiner said initial examination indicated the couple were slain between 4 and 5 p. m.

Valuable jewels and clothing were in the house, but police said nothing appeared to be missing.

The bodies were discovered at 9:45 p. m. by Mrs. Ramberg's daughter of a former marriage Mrs. Constance Salvadore, 19, who lives a few doors away.

The body of the Rambergs' spitz Champ was found in the basement later. The dog had been stabbed many times.

Worker 'Old' When Age Is Only Job Hindrance

WASHINGTON (AP)— The U.S. Labor Department has an answer to a touchy question: When are people classed as older workers?

"When the only difficulty they encounter in looking for a job is that of their age."

According to Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, head of the women's bureau of the Labor Department, that is the official view.

She gave it in response to a query at a news conference yesterday.

Large Docket of Criminal Cases Here

Murder Trial Heads List at County Court

A 26-year-old ex-convict will go to trial for murder Tuesday at the Oakland County Circuit Court begins on a large docket of criminal cases in its first court term of 1958.

To be tried Feb. 4 for first-degree murder before Judge Frank L. Doty will be Edward Drew, of Commerce Township, who confessed slaying 63-year-old Karl Kolm Oct. 23 in his township grocery store.

Tentatively set to go to trial for second-degree murder the same day is Clisby Watkins, 23, of 415 Bloomfield St. He is accused of the fatal stabbing Nov. 19 of Freddie D. Rhimes, of Pontiac.

Present plans call for utilizing two of the four circuit judges to try by jury more than 100 criminal cases, Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor said.

He emphasized that all trial dates are tentative, arrived at by pre-trial conferences between the prosecutor's office and defense attorneys.

POOLROOM MURDER

James Witherspoon, 56, of 130 Wessen St., charged with murdering Joseph Wright, 37, of Pontiac, in a poolroom Nov. 18, will be tried Feb. 7 on a first-degree charge.

To go to trial the same day will be Maelouise Russell, 44, of 262 Hughes St. She is charged with manslaughter in the fatal stabbing of Woodrow Wilson, 43, last December.

Another manslaughter case resulting from a fatal stabbing Sept. 1 will be tried Feb. 11. Brozie Reed, 32, of 295 Howard McNeil St., is charged with killing James Quiet, 27, of 241 Wilson St.

INTENT TO MURDER

The first assault with intent to murder case will be tried Feb. 13. This is the tentatice date when 59-year-old Terrance F. McGowan, of 370 S. Edith St., will appear. He is accused of dynamiting the house of his estranged wife, Nov. 15.

To stand trial for first-degree murder Feb. 21 will be Ray Goff, 35, formerly of Flint, and just recently released from Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

He is charged with the fatal shooting in 1955 of a Flint woman. He is being tried now as he was judged insane at a sanitary hearing following the shooting of Mrs. Rita M. Cummings. He was released from Ionia last year when hospital psychiatrists ruled he was sane.

Junior Editors Quiz on LEGENDS

QUESTION: Was the unicorn a figure of fact or fantasy?

ANSWER: The unicorn kept popping up in Greek and Roman mythology. So far as science has been able to determine, this weird animal combining the body of a horse, the legs of an antelope, the tail of a lion and a single horn never existed in the flesh. But as a legendary figure it outlasted most of its ancient counterparts and was carried over into the Middle Ages where it often apeared on heraldic shields and in church art as an emblem of purity. The unicorn is teamed with the lion on the seal of Great Britain, as you will probably remember from "Alice Through the Looking Glass:"

"The lion and the unicorn were fighting for the crown
some gave them white bread and some gave them brown."

FOR YOU TO DO: Paste this picture down on cardboard, cut out and color with your crayons. Look at some of the prominent public buildings in your town to see if any unicorns are used for decorations.

14 County PEO Groups Observe Founders Day

Oakland County Cooperative Group of PEO representing 14 area chapters celebrated PEO Founders Day with a luncheon at Birmingham community yesterday.

The sisterhood, which was founded Jan. 21, 1869 by seven students at Iowa Wesleyan College in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, now is an international women's organization with its principal interest in furthering the education of women.

THREE PROJECTS

This has been accomplished through three projects; the PEO Educational Fund, PEO International Peace Scholarships and Cottey Junior College for women at Nevada, Mo. This is the only college in the United States owned and operated by a women's organization which has been the property of the PEO Sisterhood since 1927.

Delegates to the Cooperative Group from Pontiac Chapter AW are Mrs. Joseph Bara, Mrs. Webster Francis, Mrs. Martin J. Wager and Mrs. L. V. Ostrander.

Speaker was Mrs. Philip Gentile, who spoke on "You and Your United Nations." Mrs. Gentile pointed out:

"We are living in an atomic and satellite world. Fear and hate exist, and no home, state or world can ever be saved by hate and fear," she said.

She stated that from 72 to 80 per cent of all human beings throughout the world are illiterate and in need of help.

In conclusion she said, "This is a satellite age and the one institution in the midst of it is the U. N. We must know what it is, fight for it, and reach out to human beings, to those who are sick and hungry in other nations. This is a new world and the problems are world problems."

Dior Heir Acclaimed at Showing

Hips Swathed in Stiff Crinoline by Saint Laurent

PARIS (INS) — A dramatic and sensationally successful unveiling yesterday of the first creations from the House of Dior since the death of the master today skyrocketed 21-year-old Yves Saint Laurent to the top of the list of the great Parisian fashion designers.

TRAPEZE SACKS

His new line, presented to thunderous ovation from 300 fashion editors and buyers, featured sacks shaped like a trapeze with sidebars widening in stiff crinoline skirts.

The effect is slightly reminiscent of the famed Dior "A" line. There is no straight bag, shuttle or off silhouettes and not a single hip belt or low waist or flapper look.

The new styles from the House of Dior put the waist slightly higher than its natural position and on some models achieved an empire line.

The new daytime look stresses the waist or hip-length arm to hem with 4-inch-wide jackets flaring from under the box-pleated skirts standing away like lampshades over stiff crinolines.

They are worn with waist-length chemise blouses in "baby skirt" or in vest styles. Skirt hems just cover the knees for daytime and reveal part of the kneecap on late-day dresses.

BELL-SHAPED DRESS

The dress bulk calls for even bulkier coats which look like crinoline worn over the shoulders instead of fastened at the the waist.

This most important Paris fashion showing in years appears to have guaranteed France's future prestige in the fashion world.

PLENTY OF APPLAUSE

It appears evident that during the past three or four seasons Dior used many of Saint Laurent's designs in his collections.

Applause greeted almost every model from the beginning of the show until at the end there was a thunderous ovation when the pale, shy Saint Laurent appeared before the excited crowd.

There were admiring oohs and aahs when bosomy star mannequin Victoire displayed sophisticated black creations with low boat neck decolletages additionally slashed far down to the midriff in true Dior sex-appeal style.

Better Keep These 'Girls' Apart

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is a lovely woman but she is very vain. Everyone in the family knows that she must be close to 75, but nobody mentions it. My own mother is just the opposite. She is 76 and is always telling people about it.

At family get-togethers my mother starts up with my Mother-in-law about "age," asking her how many years she was married and how old she was when she got married, trying to trap her into admitting her age.

My husband gets sore and takes it out on me. How would you handle this?

IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR IN: Your mother may be honest—but she is causing trouble unnecessarily. If you can't convince your mother to maintain a peaceful silence—keep the two apart.

DEAR ABBY: I expect a man friend to visit me this spring. Not a sweetheart, just a real good friend. We have never met in person.

We started to write back and forth a few years ago when I began to buy olive oil from him. I would like to know should I kiss him, hug him, or just shake hands?

MRS. S. G.

DEAR MRS. S. G.: Start off shaking hands . . . and if you have a living husband, I suggest you end up that way.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is the son of a lefthanded father. We have a left-handed son. My husband said when he was a little boy, his teacher would crack his left hand with a ruler every time she caught him writing with his left hand. She broke him of being left-handed and he thinks she did him a big favor because everything is geared for the right-handed person.

Now he is cracking our son to keep him from being left-handed. I am against this as it makes the boy nervous. Do you think it is a serious handicap to be left-handed or not?

MRS. S. J. G.

DEAR MRS. G.: The inconvenience of being a southpaw is slight compared to the emotional damage a child might suffer from being forced to use his right hand. Some of our happiest people are lefthanded.

DEAR ABBY: I have been told by one of my girl friends that girls without escorts are not obligated to leave a tip in a restaurant. Is this correct?

IN DOUBT

DEAR IN: The person who waits on the public expends as much energy serving females as males, and should be tipped regardless.

CONFIDENTIAL TO GARY: Don't believe the ROOMERS or the RUMORS. Where there's smoke there is not always fire—but you're apt to find somebody pretty burned up!

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of The Pontiac Press. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

They Strengthen Abdominal Muscles

Firm Up Tummy With Exercises

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I am 14 years old, 5 feet tall and weigh 105 pounds. My bust measures 32, waist 25 and hips 33 inches. My tummy is very large and sticks out quite a bit. Could you give me an exercise to reduce my tummy?"

A. You are not overweight. Girls of your age always have larger waists than they have later on. You have not lost all of your little girl chubbiness yet. However, it would be a good idea to take abdominal exercises. This will firm and strengthen your abdominal muscles.

Try this one: Lie on the floor on your back with your arms resting on the floor overhead and your legs straight. Bend both knees up close to your tummy and then straighten the legs, toes pointing toward the ceiling. Slowly lower your legs to the floor (with stiff knees). Stretch out against the floor and continue.

Q. "Can you tell me what causes the veins to protrude in the arms? Is there any way to make them disappear? This just started happening to me this past year. I am only in my late 20s. I have an easy life but to see my arms you would think that I do manual labor."

A. It would be a good idea for you to see your family doctor and ask him about your problem. There are some physical conditions which lead to this. I wonder, too, if you have lost weight recently. This makes the veins more prominent. Large veins are usually an inherited characteristic, but since you say this has happened rather suddenly I suggest the checkup.

Q. "The three of us are sending in our weight and measurements and would like to know if they are right. M. L. is 51 years old, 5 feet 7½ inches tall, weighs 164 pounds. Her measurements are bust 42, waist 35 and hips 41 inches.

"G. L. is 14 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighs 145 pounds. Bust 36, waist 28, and hips 37 inches. D. R. is 15 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall and weight 125 pounds. Bust 34 inches, waist 25 inches, hips 37 inches."

A. M. L. is about 20 pounds overweight (with a medium frame). Concentrate on waist and abdominal reducing exercises.

G. L. Your figure is in good proportion but you should lose about 10 pounds. Eat a well-balanced diet but leave off a few of those extra, in-between-meal goodies.

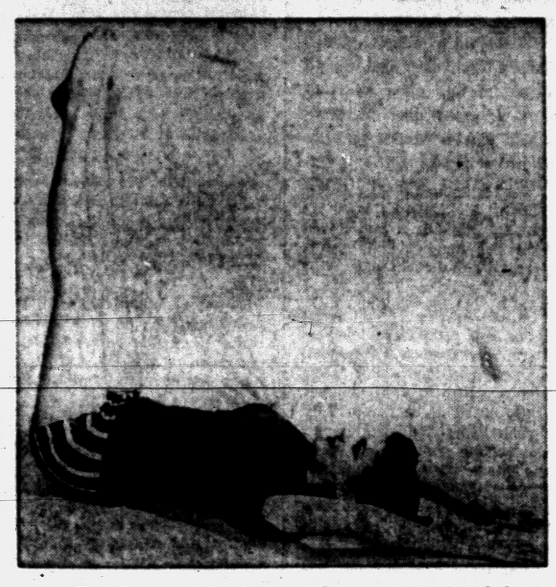

D. R. Your weight is correct. Your figure is in proportion. If you wish to strive for absolute perfection, take hip-slimming exercises.

Q. "My parents are constantly telling me that I am underweight but I do not think this is so and would like your opinion. I am 16, 5 feet 1 inch tall. Bust 32½, waist 23 and hips 33 inches. Do you think I am too thin"

A. You are not terribly underweight but you are a little on the low side. A gain of from 5 to 7 pounds would please your parents and certainly will not hurt your figure. It also will give you some health reserve.

Tomorrow: "Oily Skin, Blackheads Have Made Her Shy."

Here's a good abdominal exercise: Bend both knees up close to your tummy and then straighten the legs (as pictured), pointing the toes toward the ceiling. Slowly lower your legs to the floor (with stiff knees).

Engraving Done Before Dad's Death

His Name Appears on Announcements of Wedding

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My father passed away since my wedding announcements were made up. No invitations were engraved as we planned to marry rather quietly and send personal notes of invitation to those few who were to be invited to the wedding.

"We intend to go ahead with our plans and be married next week. However, we don't know what to do about the announcements. Both my mother's and father's names appear on them.

"I would like to know if we can possibly sent them out as they are, or could a line be drawn through the 'Mr. and,' or must they be destroyed and new ones made up?"

Answer: If you can readily afford new ones, I think you should have them by all means. But if the cost would be hard to meet, surely everyone will understand and not criticize you for drawing a line through "Mr. and."

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon and would like very much to have my only sister as my maid of honor. She is, however, only 13 years of age and I am wondering if she is too young to fill this position?

"In addition I am having two regular bridesmaids and two ushers. Will you please tell me if it would be proper to have my sister serve as maid of honor?"

Answer: If she has poise and is not small for her age, it would be quite all right for her to serve as your maid of honor.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it ever permissible for a man to go through a door first? I find it very awkward to try to hold open a heavy office building door from behind, whereas it would be simple to go first and hold it open for the woman with me. Could I be considered rude for doing this?"

Answer: Under the circumstances you speak of, it is always proper to say, "Excuse me—let me go first and open the door for you; it's very heavy."

Wisner School PTA Sees Education Board in Action

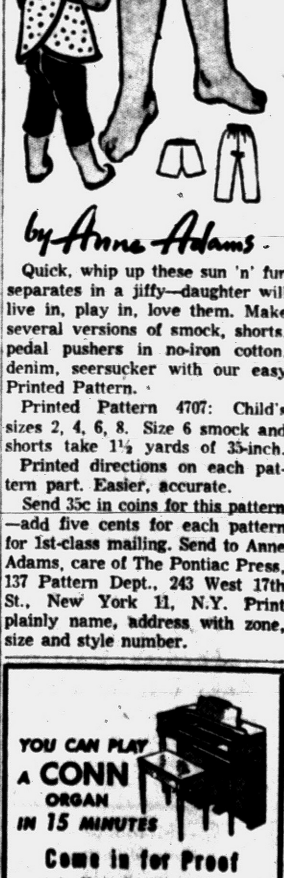

"A Date with Our Community" was the theme of the PTA meeting at Wisner School Thursday evening. Guests were members of the Pontiac Board of Education which held a business meeting at the session.

Questions raised during the meeting concerned federal aid for education, addition of a new kitchen to the school, and action taken by the board upon child injuries on the playground.

Mrs. Fred Goines, Mrs. George DeQuis, and Mrs. LeRoy Koch took charge of refreshments assisted by homeroom mothers from Mrs. Martha Robertson's and Alice Hayes' rooms. Hospitality chairmen were Mrs. Paul Webster, Mrs. William Hinsperger, and Mrs. Irving Cocking. Mrs. Robert Andrews and Mrs. Billy Hargraves poured.

Final arrangements were completed for the Founders Day dinner to be held Feb. 4 at Lincoln Junior High School. Mrs. Wesley Roberts and Mrs. Robert Turnbull are Wisner School chairmen for the affair.

Appointed to serve on the nominating committee for the year were Miss Hayes, Mrs. Wilson Wilcox, and Mrs. Webster.

Share Child's Hurt Without Showing Pity

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Since Fred entered the second grade this fall, he's had less and less time for his younger brother.

Yesterday he brought home two friends to see his airplane hangar. Bobby overheard their passionate arguing over flight schedules from the room where he was supposed to be taking his nap.

Excited by hope of sharing the fun, he scrambled out of bed, grabbed his new fuel truck from its shelf and ran to Fred's room. There he offered it to one of the guests, saying eagerly, "See, it's got a real hose! Wanna see it work? I can show you. . . ."

"Beat it," Fred said. Then the friend pushed away the fuel truck, adding, "Yes, beat it. Don't you know when you're not wanted?"

Downstairs Bobby tried to play with the truck alone. But he hadn't the heart for it.

STORY COMES OUT

Overcome by his sense of sadness, he went out to his mother and said he didn't feel well. When she took him on her lap, he began to cry and the story of the hurt come out.

She showed no surprise. Holding him close she said, "Some people don't want me. Some don't want Daddy. But I want you and you want me. That's so good I think we ought to celebrate and have a glass of chocolate milk together."

In a recent issue of the American Journal of Psychoanalysis, Dr. Antonia Wenkart writes about this kind of comfort.

She says, "There is a type of compassion that is weakening because its main ingredient is pity. It sets the sufferer apart and sends him alone into the vale of tears. But the type of compassion we are concerned with goes through the pain with a fellow human, not fearing our own vulnerability. It accepts the sufferer without the sense that what we hear from him is odd."

We cannot truly comfort a child's hurts unless we have fully experienced our own.

We have many ways to avoid fully feeling them. We can pretend we didn't mind them. We can hate the fellow who dealt them. We can diffuse the hurt into a vague, perpetual feeling of discontent.

Because we have not come through and out of our own vale of tears, we can't encourage Bobby to feel he will emerge from his. We can give him only pity's shock and anger that reflects our pity for ourselves.

Small Amount of Flattery Spreads Lot of Happiness

Please Women by Telling the Things They Especially Want to Hear

By RUTH MILLETT

It never hurts to tell a woman—

That she can't possibly be old enough to have grown children or grandchildren. (You can be sure she has a hard time believing it herself.)

That you'd love to have the recipe for whatever dish she has served you. (All women love to be asked for their recipes. Even those few who are mean enough to change the recipe just enough so that no one else can duplicate it.)

That she's a wonderful "manager." (All women secretly feel that they are good managers — even the most disorganized and extravagant.)

That she seems to entertain so easily. (Entertaining is hard work for any woman, but all women strive to make it appear easy.)

That she certainly has a devoted husband. (All women want to think they have devoted husbands, so naturally they love the reassurance of being told that they have.)

That she must have lost weight since you saw her last. (If she has she'll be pleased you noticed. If she hasn't she'll be pleased to think the added pounds don't show.)

That she has wonderful children. (Few mothers would ever quarrel with that statement or feel it in the least insincere.)

That her husband is a lucky man. (What woman thinks her husband isn't lucky to have her for his wife?)

That she has excellent taste. (No woman ever admits, even to herself, that her taste isn't excellent.)

That you like her new hairdo. (A new hairdo is tried by most women with fear and trembling and they need all the reassurance they can get to convince them that it really is becoming.)

That you've heard so much about her. (She'll naturally assume it's all to the good.)

Study Club Hears Panel

A panel discussion, "Voices on Vocations," was held when members of Child Study Club, Group III, met at the home of Mrs. Charles Rogers on Miami road.

Participating in the program were Donald McCracken and Vernell Duffy, Pontiac Central High School counselors, and Gregg Uligian and Julie Blank, senior students.

Co-hostesses for the Tuesday affair included Mrs. Richard McPartland, Mrs. Hart Morris, Mrs. Donald Rath and Mrs. William Wright.

Mrs. Jesse MacLeay was welcomed as a new member.

Marchers Gather

Following the Mothers' March on Polio Wednesday evening, those from the Wisner district were entertained at the home of Mrs. Cameron Clark.

Chief feature of Paris coiffures is straight hair, covered ears and cheeks. Wonderful for fine hair that kinks under permanents.

Paris hair stylists are designing hairdos derived from 1925 to make the new head-covering hats more becoming. Hair puffed at top for the short face, covering the forehead to shorten the long face, and this done in straight hair.

Thin Spicy Cookies Cut Fancy Ways

Geraldine Daniel's Specialty Pleases Entire Family

By JANET ODELL

Crisp spicy cookies cut in heart shape would make a delightful Valentine's treat. It's not too early to plan refreshments for that holiday. Try Geraldine Daniel's cookies now and plan to make another batch later on.

MY SPECIALTY COOKIES
By Geraldine Daniel

1 cup butter or other shortening
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon lemon or almond extract
2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1 cup chopped nuts

Cream butter and sugar. Save out one egg white and beat the other one with the remaining yolk. Add to creamed mixture. Sift dry ingredients and add. Add nuts and mix thoroughly. Chill if desired for easier handling.

Roll out on lightly floured board. Cut into fancy shapes. Brush with saved egg white, slightly beaten. Bake on greased cookie sheet 10-12 minutes at 375 degrees.

An average American who has reached 50 years of age may expect to live 25 more years to an age of 75, according to mortality statistics.

WALLED LAKE COUNTRY KIDS — Stepping high while practicing for the annual talent show scheduled at Walled Lake High School Wednesday and Thursday are the "Backhills Brothers and Sisters" including Rhele Diver, Rosemary Kreza, both of Walled Lake; Chris Fish, of Milford; Sandra Capel, Dotty Cavin and Susan Alm, all of Walled Lake. Linda Chabot, seated, is the director.

Pontiac Student to Sing in Europe This Summer

By CAROL ESSER and SARA HETHERINGTON

Vickie Vandecar, Pontiac Central High School senior, has been selected as one of the 60 seniors from Michigan who will visit Germany this summer.

These 60 seniors will compose a mixed choir which will perform throughout Germany from June 23 to August 24. Vickie, of 38 E. Longfellow St., is the only student from Pontiac.

The plan for the choir is sponsored by the Washtenaw Council of Churches and the Michigan Council of Churches which gave Vickie a partial scholarship for the trip.

A week's stay in each of eight different parts of Germany, where they will give free concerts, is planned by the group.

They will also present several concerts in Amsterdam, Holland on their way to Germany. Two U. S. Army bases will also be visited in Germany. The group will also help celebrate the 800th Anniversary Music Festival at Munich, and the American Consulate, the 4th of July.

HONOR TEA HELD

Students receiving the pins were Carol Asher, Virginia Brandon, Elaine Glazier, Delores Oretz, Lawrence Peet, Carol Heiple, and Addie Taylor. In order to be eligible for the pins students must work in the library for three semesters.

Also attending the tea were faculty members, student teachers, and student's guests.

Committees and chairmen have been chosen for the annual science fair which will be held March 14, and 15 in the PCH gym.

The fair is open to any school student in Oakland County regardless of grade level. There will be a registration fee for each entry in the competition.

Each student cannot enter more than two projects for judging. Group projects can be displayed, but will not be entered in the judging. Projects will be judged on creative ability, scientific thought, thoroughness, skill, clarity, and dramatic value.

FAIR CHAIRMAN

Rick Serwin, Don Mann, Garry Bowes, and Sharon Freeman are on the publicity committee. Set up committee will be Jerry Powers, Jim Ruth, and Bruce Benter.

The movie committee will consist of Marcia Shepherd and Dick Jackson. Members of the committee on specialized science include Bud Baril, Jim Williams, Doug Roeser, Bruce Berg, Bill Cashin, Mary Wood, Howard Warren and John Blamy.

Prepare Talent Show at Walled Lake High

The annual talent show will be held at the Walled Lake High School Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

Eighteen acts including dance routines, singing, baton twirling, pantomime acts and instrumental selections will be included in the program.

Performing dance routines will be Sondra Forsyth and Jeanne Crumbaugh and a Charleston group consisting of Judy McIntosh, Kay Stewart, Sue Laffery, Lynne Terry, Linda King, Marion McKenzie, and Ann Churchill.

Other dance acts are Linda Chabot's 'brothers and sisters' who will entertain in a backhills routine. They are Joan Flowerday, Chris Fish, Sandy Capel, Louann Pirtle, Rhele Diver, Sue Alm, Dotty Cavin, and Rosemary Kreza.

Singing duets will be Barbara Spears and Barbara Littleton; Sue Lowery and Carol Burgess; Maryanne and Betsy Clark; and Karen Zaverl and Clare Krusac. Soloists scheduled are Paul Aubrey and Marie Sanderson.

There will also be a baton duet by Dot Williams and Lorene Payton and a solo baton act by Ruth Marshall.

A pantomime act will consist of Pat McIntosh, Kit Gugel, Sharleen Moore, Dorthea Buck, Nan McKaig, and Pinky Carnahan. Frank Crawford will play a tuba solo.

The best acts will be selected to participate in exchange assemblies with other high schools.

Skitamard players held tryouts this week for all persons interested in participating in the spring production, "Mumbo-Jumbo." Sixteen players, eight men and eight women, were required. Since there were openings for more male roles than the club could furnish, students with an interest in dramatics other than club members are invited to try out for the roles.

Mrs. Frank Balaam is the club sponsor and director. She is reviving dramatics at the Walled Lake High School after an absence of several years. Mrs. Balaam said she welcomes assistance on scenery and lighting from parents and students.

Nine Clarkston Teens Tour Albion College

Mrs. Fredrick Warrick and Rev. William J. Richards, Clarkston Methodist Church, accompanied the students.

High School Musicians Supported by Peanuts

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — Most of the money for the support of the Bellefonte High School band comes from peanuts.

Each fall, members of the band canvass the school district selling peanuts. The proceeds go toward general band expenses. Band director Bruce I. Garner says it is practically the only means the band has for raising money.

Plan Tobogganing Party Tomorrow

WTHS Students to Dance Following Tonight's Game

BY SANDY CLEMENCE

A dance will be held tonight at Waterford Township High School following the home basketball game with Farmington High School.

The Hi-Y and GAA Letter clubs plan to have a toboggan party tomorrow.

Tryouts for the senior class section of the school talent assembly are now being held. The assembly will be presented in May with each class competing against each other to win a trophy.

ANNOUNCE CAST

Cast members for the Speech II presentation of "The Sleeping Beauty" for Children's Theatre are Carole Tynan, Tom Hatfield, Stevie Boylan, Olen Wright, Sandy Seconder, and Harry Nicholie.

Others include: Sharon Del' Montier, Bill McDonald, Linda McDowell, Nancy Young, Bev Maguire, and Judy Hruska. The fairy tale will be presented in March at WTHS.

Don Tate, Dennis Wiesniewski, Jean Rexford, Terry Walker, Mary Beechum, and Gail Winter are the new Thespians who were formally initiated this week.

SEE SHAKESPEARE PLAY

Twenty-five students from the speech department and Dramatics Club went to the Riviera Theatre in Detroit to see Katharine Hepburn and Alfred Drake in Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing" last Saturday.

Members of the GAA (Girls' Athletic Association) Board went up to the Caberfae Ski Lodge last weekend. Those who attended were: Barb Floyd, Char Pankner, Carol Ponn, Linda McDowell, Linnea Hedlund, Ruth Newman, Tish FitzGerald, Janet Delbridge, and Kathy Kantarian. Chaperons were Norma Feiler, Barbara Frank, and Patricia Vannorsdall.

Emmanuel Christian Gets 6 Cheerleaders

Six new cheerleaders were selected this week at Emmanuel Christian High School.

They are Pat Morris, Carolyn Ladwig, Lillie Wilson, Jackie White, Joy Malone and Judy Jones.

The sextet will introduce some of their new cheers to be used during the basketball season at the annual talent assembly Wednesday.

PLAN TALENT SHOW

Other students who will participate in the talent show include: Jackie White, reading; Floyd Morris and Murry Snow, vocal solos; Gerry Daniels, Sharon Carlson and Marlene Heinitz, vocal trio; Ken Brown, organ solo; and an instrumental duet by John Best and Clarence Groner.

Each member will be judged and a winner will be chosen.

The members of the freshman class are planning a bowling party.

Avondale Career Day Set for February 10

Plans are nearly completed for the annual Career Night to be held February 10 at the Avondale High School. The affair is under the supervision of the guidance department, Isobel Baker and Charles Miles.

Parents have been urged to accompany their son or daughter to Career Night.

Seniors Lead Honor Roll at St. Mike's

By MICHAEL BUCHANAN

St. Michael High School students received semester report cards this week. The seniors headed the list of honor roll students with 18.

Those seniors on the honor roll include: Ronald Andrews, Judy Bassett, Michael Biallas, George Budwit, Rose Marie Flanigan, Helen Franzel, Frances Goulet, Patricia Harbert, Kathleen Heitjan, Mary Ann Johnson, Elizabeth Klinck, Barbara Kucera, Robert Mineweaser, JoAnne Prudhomme, Phyllis Raymond, Constance Shindorf, Joseph Tatham, and James Wyzgoski.

The 12 juniors were Delores Ardelan, Carol Bauer, John Fortier, Dominic Ginell, Elaine Johnson, Ruth Kaoocik, Judy Merithew, Shelia O'Rourke, Patricia Popps, Jane Rindfusz, Marlene Tadlock, and Mary Taylor.

The freshmen were: David Baumgartner, Kathleen Daugherty, Russell Greenless, Tonya Hurst, Monica Maddox, Anna Rita Massacessi, Judy Stickney, and Michael Wyzgoski.

Brother George from the Brothers of Christian Instruction came to speak to the students about religious vocations this week. His order has schools and missions in 13 countries around the world. They are essentially a teaching order.

The junior class announced that they are planning a boat ride to Bob-lo Island as the trip for them and the seniors next June.

To Crown Queen at Game Tonight

Lake Orion Basketball Homecoming Beauty Election Held Today

Lake Orion Community High School students will select a homecoming basketball queen today but the winner will not be announced until tonight at the game.

Candidates for the queen are: Jean Myre and Rose Marie Foster, seniors; Beth Woodward and Judy Rose, juniors; Janice Perry and Anita Best, sophomores, and Jeri Terrian and Camille Williamson, freshmen. Seven of the girls will be in the court.

Marilyn McKennzie is chairman of the ceremonies and Jerry Exline will conduct the voting.

Following the game between Lake Orion and Troy high schools, a dance, the Frosty Frolic, will be sponsored by the senior class. Dick Mason, local disc jockey, will spin the platters.

Committee chairmen of the dance include: Margaret Braid, decorations; Mary Lynn Shoup, tickets, John Wiltse, refreshments and Jack Schaffer, clean up. The dance will be held in the school gym until midnight.

Each class has set a goal of $100 to collect for the March of Dimes and is sponsoring a variety of events to reach it. The amounts will be tabulated regularly on the bulletin board.

ORGANIZE FUTURE NURSES

An organizational meeting of the Future Nurses of America club was held this week.

Nancy Wickman was elected president of the new group. Other officers include: Ann Kamacis, vice president; Karen Craven, secretary; Carol Wallis, treasurer, Geraldine Case, publicity and Mary O'Conner, program chairman.

The first regular meeting will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

CANCEL CLASS TRIPS

Senior trips at the Lake Orion Community High School will be discontinued after two years, permitting classes that have already earned sizable funds for that purpose to go.

The growing size of the class, which is estimated will exceed 200 in another two years; the difficulty of finding suitable sponsors; and the upset of the school schedule that week especially in the classes with both juniors and seniors, were cited by the school board as reasons for the move.

It is expected that many families will welcome the curtailment. The cost of rings, pictures and proms has risen to a new high in the past few years. The end of the class trip will save the average senior about $75.

Donna Needle Named President of St. Fred Club

By PAT FOSTER

Other officers include: Judy Ermel, vice president; Mary Agnes Brown, secretary; and Julie Slowik and Janice Rabaut, treasurers.

The club is planning field trips to various public and parochial schools to gain valuable observation points. The girls recently received FTA pins which denote their affiliation with the Future Teachers of America in Washington, D. C.

The Future Nurses Club took a field trip to Menscola Convalescent Home, 2380 Watkins Lake Road recently. This week they made a conducted tour of the Bertha Fisher Home in Detroit under the direction of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Tomorrow representatives from our school's sodality will be present at the Training School of Sodality Action in Detroit at the University of Detroit college campus.

44 RECEIVE HONORS

Those meriting honors in the senior class are: Larry Cosgrove, Judy Ermel, Fred Metz, Donna Needle, Nicholas Pavlinac, Pat Sagamang, Paul Saghy, and Julie Slowik.

In the eleventh grade, honors were awarded to Judy Nichols, Mary Lang, Larry Crake, Gerrard Coriture, Catherine Blascyk, Mary Jane Brandt, Judy Cosgrove, Geraldine Dobski, Joanne Goodsell, Karen Gullet, Sue Johnson, Mary Ellen Kremer and Myra Levering.

The Future Social Workers club has been helping out at the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic stamping and addressing envelopes.

138,000 New Teachers

WASHINGTON — The nation's public schools hired an estimated 138,000 new teachers in 1956, according to the National Education Association.

Madison Holds Fair Today, Dinner Tonight

Junior Highs Enlarge Science Study

The enlarged science program begun in September in Pontiac junior high school gives students a chance to explore the basic fundamentals of science known today.

Teaching aids, such as a torso model are used at Washington Junior High School. Machines demonstrate physical forces, experiments disclose chemical changes and nature specimens are used to study plants and animals.

All seventh and eighth graders receive one year of science while about one third elect the course for the ninth grade level, according to Warren W. Abbott, assistant principal at Washington.

The seventh graders study plants and animals, health and nutrition, safety and first aid. Eighth graders explore forces of nature, planets and stars, and weather and magnetism. Using this basis, the ninth grade program adds: electricity and communications, chemical processes, tomorrow's power, and human life.

The second semester began at WJHS this week with an enrollment of 810.

The boys homeroom basketball program is in full swing. Tied currently as seventh grade champions are homerooms 216 and 204. The eighth grade champs are the boys of 206. Homeroom 217 holds the honors in the ninth grade division.

The students met three new faculty members when they returned to school, Julia Hollyer, a University of Michigan graduate, will teach music and speech. Diana Pierson, who was graduated from Eastern Michigan College, also is in the speech department and will advise a seventh grade homeroom group.

Phil Lifton has been added as an English and general language teacher and will sponsor an eighth grade homeroom. He was graduated from the University of Chicago.

AT MADISON

A school fair, sponsored by the Parent - Teacher - Student Association of Madison Junior High School will be held today at the school.

A dinner will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. and entertainment will be provided by the Madison faculty. A bake shop, gift booth and games will be included in the program and dancing will follow.

A field trip to Greenfield Village in Dearborn is being planned by the eighth grade social studies classes of Dennie Beach, instructor.

Last night, Charles W. Brown, special agent in charge of the Detroit office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was the guest speaker at the Pontiac Education Association's dinner-meeting at Madison.

AT LINCOLN

A roller skating program has been instituted at Lincoln Junior High School through the co-operation of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation department, the student council, and the Lincoln PTA.

The first installment of skates has been purchased. Membership is 25 cents and 25 cents for each party. The first party will be held next Friday.

Seven members of Bobbie Comparoni's homeroom are rehearsing their roles in the Lincoln PTA pageant which is to be presented in February. Margo Edwards is chairman of the episode assisted by Linda Lake, Sandra Lockwood, Charlotte Childers, Mary Lou Ashley, Christine Adams, and Roberta Branham.

The 8B speech class with Mary Lou Ashley and Christine Adams as co-chairman of a poetry project, created an exhibit of "Poetry Writing Is Fun." The class members started with the limerick form and wrote 25 selections all starting with the same first line. Originality was used in developing ideas as they planned, wrote, and recited their creations. Brent Golden was awarded first prize and Margo Edwards, second prize in a class vote.

Dick Zika, of the Leader Dog School for the Blind, Rochester, was the guest speaker at an assembly this week. He explained the work of the organization and demonstrated the training of the dogs.

AT EASTERN

A total of 41 clubs offer a variety of interesting activities in which students may participate at Eastern Junior High School. Some of the clubs available to students are track, archery, chess and checkers, handicrafts, camping, embroidery, social games, projectionists, crossword puzzle, record, dramatics and various study clubs.

One of the interesting new clubs this semester is a movie making club for ninth graders sponsored by Raymond Must, art teacher. Each student is expected to belong to one club.

Yesterday 10 undergraduate students from Michigan State University who are student teaching in Pontiac schools visited Eastern where they observed classes.

Eastern welcomes two new teachers this semester. They are: John English, English, and Lester Mack, science.

Marching Squirrels, Little Men

Mental Perils in Space Found in Experiments

By JOHN A. BARBOUR
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—An Air Force scientist says man may find space crawling with these mental hazards:

Marching squirrels, tiny rocket ships that fire pellets, and little men who swing on space ship instruments.

Reporting today to a meeting of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences, experimental psychologist George T. Hauty told of three pre-space-flight experiments.

One of these was conducted by McGill University scientists of Montreal, Canada. They wanted to find out what happened when you shut off sights, sounds and other sense stimuli. They closed male volunteers in cubicles for 48 hours.

Another said he saw a miniature rocket ship shooting pellets at his arm.

In addition to having hallucinations, the volunteers became irritable and were unable to concentrate on complex ideas.

The volunteers were amused by the visions at first—but later complained that they interfered with their sleep.

Researchers made the experiments to determine if there is a background activity as well as normal sensory activity in the brain.

In another experiment, Hauty and R. Payne confined 30 volunteers in cockpits and put them to work for 30 consecutive hours. They had to regulate and control certain occurrences using dials and buttons on instrument panels.

While allowed 20-minute breaks at mealtimes, they were not permitted to sleep.

Much to the surprise of researchers, the subjects reported hallucinations and illusions.

Some were simple and poorly defined, said Hauty—for instance "the instrument panel kept melting and dripping to the floor."

Other subjects reported were as: "On several occasions, the (instrument) showed a hippopotamus smiling at me."

Another said he spent a good deal of time brushing away little men who kept swinging on the air speed indicator and preventing him from reading it.

Women Urged to Back Statehood for Alaska

"With the current threats from Russia, the Alaskans are our first bulwark and they are entitled to statehood," said Mrs. R. I. C. Prout of Wakefield, Mich., head of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

She made public a copy of a letter she has sent to state residents of the federation urging them to support the Alaska statehood proposal.

The heaviest known materials are usually metals, but some metals are also among the lightest in weight.

Will Seek Opinion on Blue Water Span

LANSING (AP)—Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie says he will ask an attorney general's opinion on apparent confusion in state law as to when the Blue Water Bridge will become toll free.

Mackie decided on the course after a conference with Senate Highway Committee members yesterday.

He said the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads had asked him whether the state plans to continue charging tolls on the Port Huron Bridge after construction costs are paid up.

Mackie said the letter was "curt" and had an "or else" tone. He said he was "afraid" that unless the matter was straightened out federal aid might be withheld on approaches to the projected international bridge at Sault Ste. Marie.

The federal bureau would consider an agreement on federal aid for the Blue Water structure had been broken if Michigan failed to remove tolls after retirement of construction bonds, possibly within the next two or three years.

Seattle Ace Hits 60 for Top Scoring Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elgin Baylor of Seattle threatened the pace setting Oscar Robertson and Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas for individual basketball scoring honors among major colleges today following a 60-point spree.

Baylor upped his average to 31.7 points a game last night in leading Seattle to 94-91 victory over Portland. The Seattle flash tallied 24 field goals and 12 free throws for the highest point production of the year.

Warriors Down Boston, Lakers Win

Pistons Nip Syracuse

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Detroit Pistons, in a reversal of form, overcame a 14-point deficit, took a second half lead, held it in the closing minutes and defeated Syracuse 87-83 last night.

The Pistons, with 7-foot Walt Dukes showing the way, downed the Nationals in the first game of a National Basketball Assn. doubleheader. Philadelphia defeated Boston 116-96 in the second game.

Dukes played about half the game, then fouled out late in the fourth quarter. He scored 21 points before leaving and turned in a crack defense job against Syracuse's Dolph Schayes.

Schayes hit for 23 points, but most of them were scored while Dukes was on the bench.

Detroit trailed early in the game. Then Dukes and Phil Jordan came in and dominated the backboards and shooting in the second quarter. Detroit led 44-42 at halftime.

The Pistons moved to a 12-point lead in the third quarter. The Nats came back in the fourth period and tied the score 77-77 before Detroit staged a seven-point outburst.

Syracuse came within two points in the last 24 seconds before Gene Shue scored on two free throws for the Pistons.

Detroit's George Yardley was held to three points.

The last place Warriors made it seem as if they and not the world champs, were in first place by six and a half games over the Nats as they ran away from Boston. The Warriors led by seven at the quarter, 15 at the half and 24 at the three-quarter mark before 11,214, the largest NBA crowd of the season at Convention Hall.

Vern Mikkelsen tossed in a pair of free throws in the final seven seconds to give the Lakers a comeback victory. Mikkelsen and Larry Foust got hot in the last period to cut down a 93-79 Cincinnati lead for a 96-95 Lakers advantage.

Clyde Lovellette's three points play in the final 2 minutes gave Cincinnati a 104-102 lead, but Art Spoelestra's foul and Mikkelsen's two points wrapped it up for the Lakers, 105-104.

The Downey-Lindsay duo yesterday won a 4 and 3 victory over the veteran Miami team of Mrs. George Wilcox and Mrs. Evelyn Trippe. Miss Downey, from Baltimore, and Miss Lindsay, from Decatur, Ill., were three over par for the distance.

Total of Thirty Penalties Called in Rough Contest

Plante Registers Eighth Shutout of Campaign in Easy Win

MONTREAL (AP) — Montreal goalie Jacques Plante was a mere bystander last night as the Canadiens submerged the Detroit Red Wings 7-0.

Plante, who recorded his eighth shutout of the season, got only a routine number of shots in his direction while pucks flew into Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk's net and players from both teams paraded in a steady stream to the penalty box.

A total of 30 penalties — two majors, one game misconduct, two 10-minute misconducts and 25 minors — marred the brawling game.

Montreal, playing without hospitalized Bernie Geoffrion, scored five times in the final period. Referee Red Storey kept pace by calling 22 penalties in the period.

Dickie Moore paced the Canadiens' onslaught with his 27th and 28th goals of the year. Jean Beliveau scored his 15th, Don Marshall his 19th, Marcel Bonin his 10th, Doug Harvey his sixth, and Dollard St. Laurent his third.

The biggest blowups in the third period had Storey directing an almost steady stream of traffic to the penalty box.

Forbes Kennedy of Detroit drew the game misconduct penalty for horning into another argument and wound up by shoving one of the linesmen about. The penalty carries an automatic fine of $50.

Henri (Pocket) Richard and Andrew Pronovost of Montreal received the misconduct penalties and fines of $25.

Major penalties went to Jean Beliveau of Montreal and Al Arbour of Detroit for a slugging fest near the end of the game.

The 30 penalties were six short of the National Hockey League record set in a game between Montreal and Toronto in Toronto last Dec. 9.

Montreal's victory left the Canadiens with a 22-point hold on first place in the NHL race. Detroit remains in a third-place tie with Boston.

Teams to Pick All-Star Lineups

Majors Drop Fan Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball is abandoning the fan poll to let the major league players, coaches and managers pick the starting lineups for the 1958 All-Star game at Baltimore, July 8.

Commissioner Ford Frick announced the change yesterday after conferring with Presidents Will Harridge of the American League and Warren Giles of the National League.

Each player, manager and coach will vote for an all-opponent team. None can vote for a player on his own club.

Bitter complaints about the 1957 poll when Cincinnati almost had all eight National starters brought about the new rules. Frick stepped into the situation last year after the poll was "unbalanced" by an avalanche of Cincinnati votes. He ruled out Cincinnati's Gus Bell, Wally Post and George Crowe in favor of Willie Mays of New York, American.

Musial eventually beat out Crowe for first base in the final voting.

Frick said he received hundreds of letters from fans, suggesting various changes. He said the vast majority favored letting the players vote.

The players never have participated in the voting since the game first was played in 1933. At various times, the managers have selected all or part of the squads. Originally the fans picked all the players but in recent years they have voted only for the eight starters.

As in the past, the remainder of the 25-man squads will be picked by the manager of the two competing teams. In 1958 that would be Fred Haney of the National and Casey Stengel of the Frick said the mechanics of the voting would be decided later when he would set the dates. However, he has been assured of cooperation by the 16 player representatives who are expected to conduct the polls in their clubhouses.

The players will vote only for men in their own league.

Howe Incident Is Closed

MONTREAL (AP) — The Gordie Howe incident is closed as far as president Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League is concerned.

Campbell said yesterday he is closing the books both on the collision that broke two of Howe's ribs and on the subsequent remarks of Red Wings' Gen. Mgr. Jack Adams.

Howe, leading scorer of the Red Wings, was sidelined for three to six weeks after a collision with Leo Boivin and Real Chevrefils of Boston in a game Saturday.

Adams Monday accused the two Boston players of "dirty play," calling it "lousy, dirty and uncalled for."

Later he said he meant no criticism of the Boston club and that he had too much respect for Milt Schmidt and general manager Lynn Patrick of the Bruins to believe they would direct any such action. Adams said his critical remarks were directed at the two players.

"There is no foundation for the charge of deliberate attempt to injure," said Campbell after receiving a report on the incident from referee-in-chief Carl Voss. "This is borne out by direct inquiry made to Howe himself by Voss and others.

"Inasmuch as Adams has made a public declaration exonerating the management and coaching staff of the Boston club from any possible complicity in the charges which he made, I do not consider any further action necessary."

Big Weekend in Elks Bowling

Ladies' Tourney in 3rd Round at Local Lodge; Men in State Meet

A busy weekend of tournament bowling gets under way tomorrow for several men's and women's teams of Local Elks Lodge 810.

Over 50 men's teams will be at Muskegon in the final opportunity for area keglers to shoot for championships in the various divisions. Meanwhile, the 3rd weekend of the Ladies National Invitational event will be held here.

Pontiac Retail Store, an early leader, is currently 2nd in team handicap in the men's state tourney. The doubles duo of Steve Jaska and L. Wilkes, another early leader, is 2nd in actual scoring and 3rd in handicap.

Pontiac holds the 1st two places in team play and has the all-events pacesetter in Esther Vitasinsky in the women's meet. A Hillsdale pair and Pittsford woman lead doubles and singles, respectively.

Detroit 76-47 Victor Over Western Ontario

DETROIT (AP) — The University of Detroit defeated Western Ontario 76-47 in a non-conference basketball game last night.

Western Ontario took an early 12-9 lead but failed to connect for a single field goal over a 16-minute period in the first and second halves. Detroit rolled to a 40-19 halftime edge.

TV Game From Ann Arbor Saturday

'M' Quint Aims to Pad Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan's Wolverines, idle since Jan. 13, will try to protect their Big Ten basketball lead Saturday afternoon in a regionally televised game with Purdue.

The game at Ann Arbor will be followed by three night contests that send Northwestern to Illinois, Minnesota to Michigan State and Ohio State to Iowa.

The four conference engagements open up the title race in earnest after term and semester examinations at all schools. Indiana has a non-league date at DePaul. Wisconsin is idle.

Michigan trimmed Ohio State 72-63 in its last start to capture the Big Ten lead with a 3-1 record. Ohio State, meanwhile, has taken outright possession of second place with a 4-2 while Michigan State and Indiana are locked in third with 3-2.

The race, however, still hasn't broken open. Wisconsin, Iowa, Northwestern, Purdue and Illinois have lost only three games. Minnesota is last with a 1-4 mark.

The Wolverines, who have not lost in five home games this season, have two players in the league's top 10 scorers and also rank among the best rebounders. Pete Tillotson is fourth in scoring with a 20.8 average and has retrived more than 13 rebounds per game. Burton, tied for ninth in scoring with 16.8, has netted nearly 15 rebounds in each contest.

The Spartans, currently tied for third with a 3-2 record, hope to fatten their average Saturday night against the Gophers, in the Big Ten basement with a 1-4 mark.

A win would pull State up to challenge league-leader Michigan (3-1) and second place Ohio State (4-2). An upset would drop MSU back in the pack with a 3-3 record.

Minnesota started out strong in early season play but wilted once the heat of conference competition started.

The Gophers still have two men ahead of Michigan State's highest entry in the Big Ten scoring race. Forward George Kline is third and center Ron Johnson ninth while State's center John Green is in 12th place.

Green, tops in rebounds in the Big Ten, will be jumping against Johnson, a 6-7 sophomore who has been averaging 18 points a game compared to a 16 average for Green. Johnson made 30 points against Iowa last week.

Kline, the leading Minnesota scorer, has been averaging better than 18 points a game.

The third home sellout in a row, a crowd of better than 12,500 is expected to pack Jenison fieldhouse.

NFL Closes Conference

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Age, success and Congress appear to have mellowed National Football League owners.

Time was when an NFL annual meeting could best be described as a verbal brawl, four days and four nights of noisy disagreement. Again and again, only the firmness of commissioner Bert Bell kept things under control. In those days most teams were in the red.

NFL meetings now might be likened to a state department confab headed by John Foster Dulles. All is diplomacy. Most teams are now making money.

Practically every move at the 2½-day NFL annual meeting which ended yesterday was made with Congress hovering in shadow over the conference table. Here are two of those cautious moves:

1. Congress suggested that the league's practice of drawing a lucky slip from a hat, with the winning team receiving negotiating rights to a star college football player, bordered on a lottery. Even though this practice, known as the bonus pick, brought the league gobs of publicity as well as helping the teams, it was eliminated.

"We don't want to offend Congress," said Bell.

2. There was talk at the congressional hearing about players being forced to play in designated cities even though it was impractical for them to do so. So, at the meeting Wednesday, the owners wrote a rule into the book that would allow for the trade or sale of player to a locality of his if the player had a valid on in the eyes of the commissioner.

"We don't want to offend Congress," said Bell.

Still in placating mood, the NFL owners extended the olive branch to the colleges who through the NCAA recently spanked the NFL for its system of drafting players. They wrote up a rule which prevented any pro club from signing a college or high school coach or player who starts fall training with his school. This would prevent midseason tampering.

"We don't want to offend the colleges," said Bell.

Then there was the Players Assn. The players want a pension.

"Draw us up a plan," said Bell. "After all, we don't want to offend the players."

Nagel Selected to Coach Utah

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Handsome Ray Nagel, who flew quietly into town under an assumed name, happily came out in the open yesterday to accept the head football coaching job at the University of Utah.

Wearing a broad grin, Nagel told the University board of regents after notified of his selection:

"It's a real, real pleasure. I hope you too will be pleased."

Curtice received about $14,000 a year as head coach and athletic director. Nagel will get $12,000. James R. "Bud" Jack, who was named athletic director last week, gets $10,000.

Pontiac Central Goes After 7th Victory Tonight

Chiefs to Test Junior Combination Against Catholic Central

Whether Pontiac Central's fine showing against Saginaw Tuesday night was just a one night spree or an indication that the Chiefs have finally jelled as a unit, is a question which will be given a stern test tonight against always-strong Detroit Catholic Central.

The visiting Shamrocks always have fast and good outcourt shooting teams which have made hair-raising thrillers out of the past games with Pontiac.

The Chiefs started the season by defeating Catholic Central in Detroit, 55-45. Since then however the Shamrocks have shown great improvement in winning seven of 11 contests.

"We have improved since the first game," said coach Bill Foley, "and our boys always seem to play well against Pontiac."

Coach Art Van Ryzin will again go along with his all-junior team which has started the last two games. The Chiefs will be searching for their 7th victory of the season in 10 starts.

Harrison Munson, who had his best night against Saginaw Tuesday as he hit for 26 points and led the rebounding, will again start at center.

Charley Barge, despite an ailing ankle, also played a fine floor game in the last contest, and he will be at the guard post with John Bandy.

An outstanding job on the boards was turned in by both Jerry Williams and Bill Hayward at the forward slots in the 61-59 rout of Saginaw.

The Shamrocks very seldom have had any high scoring performances in one game by a single player. "We depend on a few double figures in each game, only once has one player gone over 20 points," said the Catholic Central coach.

Play Tonight, Sunday Afternoon

Busy Card for Mikes

It'll be a busy weekend of basketball for St. Michael and from the looks of theopposition, it'll be a losing one.

The Mikes play two Suburban Catholic League rivals in three days, starting tonight on the road and ending Sunday afternoon at home, and coach Bob Mineweaser does not relish the task in either case.

Already saddled with a three-game losing streak, the Shamrocks seem destined to take it on the chin for the 4th straight time this evening when they square off against league-leading St. Benedict at Highland Park.

If they emerge from that engagement in a condition somewhere near normal, they'll have to come back home and tackle Orchard Lake St. Mary, the league's 2nd place club, in a Sabbath Day battle at Pontiac Central High.

The Orchard Lake Eaglets, boasting a 6-1 league record and an overall mark of 8-1, try to keep their title hopes alive tonight at Ferndale against tough St. James and Detroit St. Rita plays host to Royal Oak St. Mary in the remaining SCL game.

St. Ben, the defending SCL champion, handed the Mikes a severe beating here less than two weeks ago and the northsiders will probaby fare no better in the return match. The Ravens are undefeated in 10 games, eight in loop action.

St. Mike's meeting with the Eaglets will be the 1st and only contest between the two schools this season. Incentive to win should be high for St. Mary, which gets another crack at St. Ben on Feb. 17 at Orchard Lake.

The Shamrocks have dropped to 6th place in the SCL after bowing to St. Ben, St. Fred and the Royal Oak Irish in their last three outings. Their league record now stands 2-4.

Sunday's contest with the Eaglets was originally scheduled next Tuesday, but St. Mike's inability to obtain a playing floor that evening forced the change. Reserve teams will open the proceedings at 2 p.m.

Spahn Gets $65,000

Oldtimers Sign Contracts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Old-timers continue to bag the heavy rewards in the 1958 signing sweepstakes of baseball.

Warren Spahn and Alvin Dark, whose ages will total a combined 72 years by opening day, stowed away official contracts yesterday amounting to a reported $105,000 between them. Added to the $100,000 signature 37-year-old Stan Musial sold the St. Louis Cardinals on Wednesday, it amounts to some $205,000 the sport of the kids will be spending for 109 years of "seasoning" among three National League old pros this season.

Spahn will receive a reported $65,000 from the world champion Milwaukee Braves — on that estimate making him the highest paid pitcher in the Majors.

Spahn, who will be 37 in April, earned it by leading the Braves with a 21-11 record. His 21 victories marked his eighth 20-game season, tying the Major League record for lefthanders.

Dark, now 35, accepted an estimated $40,000 from the Cardinals, representing about a $1,500 raise over the sum he drew while playing some of the National League's best shortstop, hitting .290 and driving in 64 runs.

Bob Nieman, Baltimore power-hitter, and pitcher Tom Gorman of Kansas City, were other vets to sign yesterday.

The youngsters had representation among righthander Bob Trowbridge of the Braves, right-hander Tom Brewer of the Boston Red Sox, catcher-first baseman Gus Triandos of the Orioles, and catcher Danney Kravitz and rookie outfielder Emil Panko of Pittsburgh.

Umphrey's 27 Points Fails to Avert Loss

Despite the sharpshooting of Bill Umphrey Hutchins Mobile failed to stop M59 Sunoco, last night in a Waterford Recreation basketball league contest. Umphrey compiled 27 points, but Sunoco, led by J. Robinson's 21 and Don Thompson's 19, won 72-51.

Leaders were idle, but Drayton Drugs, led by Marshall O'Shaughnessy's 11 points defeated Johnson and Anderson, 55-37, in the only other game of the night.

Freds Defeat St. Clement

St. Frederick romped to a 20-point 1st half advantage and just coasted along the rest of the way to defeat Center Line St. Clement 49-40 and take a firmer grip on 3rd place in the Suburban Catholic League last night in the only game involving area prep teams.

Coach Gene Wright took advantage of a 34-14 lead to empty his bench in the final half and the result was eight of ten players who saw action scored.

Host St. Clement sliced the final margin considerably with a 14-4 last quarter edge against the Ram reserves in dropping its 9th straight. St. Fred is now 6-3 for the season.

Tom Derocher, who has been held to less than 14 points only once in nine starts, paced the victors with 16 and new Ram offensive star Joe Keller added 10.

Lou Hallman matched Derocher's total and Gary Gathen contributed 11 to handle most of the St. Clement scoring.

Lake Orion Has Unbeaten Troy for Big Battle

Waterford Entertains Farmington; Berkley After Lakes Honor

By BILL CORNWELL

Lake Orion and Southfield wage "blue chip" battles tonight to dominate the Oakland County area prep basketball scene.

Orion, pre-season favorite to win the Oakland B League crown, finds itself backed up against the wall for this evening's "do or die" struggle with unbeaten Troy on the Orion court.

The Southfield Bluejays, picked to fight Berkley for the Inter-Lakes title, will face an identical situation when they collide with the league-leading Bears at Berkley.

County area circuits engage in heavy activity to highlight a weekend card.

The Orion Dragons have reached the stage where they cannot retreat another step. They already trail the pace-setting Colts by two full games and one more defeat means almost certain elimination.

Hal Carlin's quintet, tied with Avondale for 2nd place, can bounce back into the championship picture by topping Troy, which drew first blood in their home-and-home series. The highly-ranked Colts are nursing a 10-game winning streak.

In other Oakland B games, Avondale fights to keep its head above water on the home floor against Clawson and Fitzgerald travels to Madison.

A seven-game victory string and at least a share of the Inter-lakes diadem are on the line for the Jays in their "chips down" struggle with Berkley.

The well-balanced Bears, who split I-L honors with Walled Lake last season, ride at the top of the heap on a 5-0 loop record. Runnerup Southfield enters its battle of survival with a 4-1 mark, the lone setback coming at the hands of Berkley.

While Berkley is trying to virtually clinch I-L laurels, other league clubs are also seeing action. Waterford entertains Farmington and Walled Lake visits Van Dyke to round out the program.

Ferndale, front-runner in the Eastern Michigan circuit, risks its undefeated record in a loop game at Birmingham. East Detroit at Mt. Clemens and Hazel Park at Port Huron complete the EML schedule.

League powers should rule the Wayne-Oakland roost tonight in a comparatively dull slate. First place Clarkston hopes to make visiting Bloomfield Hills its 10th victim, Holly initiates its new gymnasium against Milford, Brighton invades Northville and West Bloomfield goes to Clarenceville.

The annual Southern Thumb League tournament resumes tonight at Memphis and the South Central Conference menu lists Oxford at Millington and North Branch at Imlay City. Utica invades Center Line for a Bi-County scrap.

Roseville's jaunt to Romeo is the top non-league offering. Cranbrook meets Shady Side Academy in an Inter-State tussle Saturday at Pittsburgh.

Anti-Trust Bill Is Concern of Baseball

NEW YORK (AP) — Football and basketball appeared happy today with prospective legislation for pro sports, but baseball expressed concern over certain aspects of the bill drafted by the house anti-trust subcommittee.

The bill would make only commercial aspects of baseball, football, basketball and ice hockey—concessions, ticket sales, stadium rentals, etc. — liable to antitrust laws. Other aspects — reserve clauses, player drafts, farm systems, territorial rights, etc.—which are "reasonably necessary" to the sports would escape monopoly jurisdiction.

It's that "reasonably necessary" phrase which troubles baseball.

Particularly upsetting to baseball officials was the fact the legislators threw the television problem back into their laps.

Chairman Celler (D-NY), who drafted the bill, said it "encourages baseball to work out a television agreement." He defined "reasonably necessary" as anything "not detrimental to either the public or the sport itself."

It would be up to the courts, however, to decide what is detrimental, he added. Pro sports have known that all along.

Said one top baseball official, who declined to be identified:

"Say we reach an agreement, blacking out Major League telecasts in Minor League areas when those Minor League clubs are playing at home. The Majors are happy, and the Minors are happy.

"But then a TV station in a blacked out area says we are denying its right to telecast Major League games. Then we all go to court. Even if we are found to be right in taking 'reasonably necessary' action, it has cost us money. We win the battles, but we lose the war because we go broke."

What baseball wanted, and didn't get, was a bill listing what it could and could not do in restricting TV under anti-trust laws—thus making costly court action unnecessary.

Approval of the reserve clause, regionally a touchy subject to Celler, is a load off baseball's mind. The clause, giving a club title to any player it signs until he retires or is traded, is the foundation of the sport.

As for baseball's current problem of territorial rights, Celler said he would not be in favor of a rule which would permit "one club from preventing another to move into its territory. That would not be fair or reasonable to the public, or to the sport itself."

He added it would be "reasonable" for the invading club to compensate the original club "in some manner."

Rep. Keating (R-NY), minority leader on the subcommittee, took pot shots at the "reasonably necessary" provision of the bill. He said it would antagonize baseball's "many friends" in Congress, jeopardizing passage of the bill. He would favor an amendment which would clearly establish the reserve clause and other "sporting" aspects as being free of antitrust jurisdiction.

The "reasonably necessary" provision, he said, leaves the door open for "endless litigation."

Pro football, originally found subject to antitrust laws, got a break when the bill limited such jurisdiction to "commercial aspects." Baseball, found to be "an unique business" by the Supreme Court, already had enjoyed that distinction. It was such inequality Celler attempted to remedy.

Bert Bell, National Football League commissioner, said the proposed bill was "a wonderful job. We are very appreciative and delighted."

Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Assn., said, "without having read the bill, it appears very fair and cooperative."

President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League reserved comment.

Boxing was not included in the bill. That sport now is in a court battle over its antitrust status.

Vikings, Farmington Wrestling Winners

Walled Lake posted another victory and Farmington kept rolling along as one of the hottest teams in Oakland County wrestling circles last night. Pontiac hosts Flint Tech today.

Pins by Bob Christian, Don Proulx, Whitey Richardson and Dennis VanSicklen and a decision by 171-pound heavyweight Jim Teddy over a 230-pounder paced Walled Lake.

Farmington, which drubbed Thurston 46-5 Tuesday, won its 6th in the last seven starts easily after leading 28-0. Tom Peckham, Randy Jordan, Amos Deaven, John Clark, Dan Ressler and John McCamy all had pins. Mike Ewer got Waterford's only pin.

Two Share Lead in Phoenix Open

Dow Finsterwald, Mosel Shoot 66 in First Round of Tournament

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Dow Finsterwald and Stan Mosel each held a share of the lead today in the second round of the $15,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament. Both posted five-under-par 66s over the 6,585-yard Phoenix Country Club course yesterday to move two strokes in front of newcomers John McMullin, Tom Jacobs and Wesley Ellis Jr. and veteran Jerry Barber.

Mosel picked up four strokes on the front nine and then had to make a great recovery on the 18th to tie.

Grouped at 69 were Jay Hebert, Billy Maxwell, Bert Weaver, J. C. Goosie, Shelley Mayfield, Lyle Crawford and Julius Boros.

Another stroke back were 12 golfers, including Tommy Bolt, Jimmy Demaret, John Barnum and Ken Venturi of San Francisco, winner of last week's Thunderbird invitational.

Infection Found in Campy's Lung

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (UNS) — A spokesman at Glen Cove Community Hospital said today that infection had developed in the right lung of Dodger catcher Roy Campanella. An artificial opening was made in his trachea (windpipe) to aid in removing mucous from the lungs.

The hospital said in its morning bulletin that the development of infection "is not unusual nor unexpected" and that following the operation Campanella "was greatly improved and spent a restful night."

The 36-year-old all-star backstop, who suffered a broken neck in an automobile accident on Tuesday, remains paralyzed from the shoulders down.

The bulletin said:

"Last evening the patient developed infection in his right lung. This is not unusual nor unexpected.

2 Overtimes Needed to Down Merchants

The downtrodden Merchants' basketball team, cellar occupant in the Class B City League, came within a whisker of winning its first game of the season last night at Pontiac Central High.

But victory was not in the cards as the Merchants bowed to the Boys Club in a double overtime thriller, 60-58, for their 8th straight loss. Bob Hutchins of the Merchants took scoring honors with 21 points while Jim Honchell fired 17 for the Boys Club.

In Class C action at PCH, the Pontiac Police defeated the Vikings, 44-38. Leon Weeks led the Police with 15 points and the Vikings' Bert Elzy scored 12.

Dulles, Lloyd Talk on Missile Bases

Expect Agreement Soon

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—U.S. and British representatives should have an agreement for stationing American nuclear missiles in Britain ready for signature within 10 days, American informants said.

Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd discussed missile bases and other matters a few hours before Dulles left for home after the Baghdad conference ended yesterday.

American sources said Dulles proposed a solution for the lone remaining point of disagreement. The nature of the point was not disclosed, but it was described as minor.

The plan is expected to call for four bases costing Britain 80 to 90 million dollars. The weapons stationed there will be 1,500-mile intermediate range ballistic missiles. Custody of the nuclear warheads will remain with American teams at the launching sites.

The bases are expected to be in operation by the end of this year.

Falls Out of Bathtub —and Onto Main Street

ASPEN, Colo. (AP)—Chuck Zordel fell out of a bathtub in the middle of Main street.

The tub was on a float entered by a plumbing firm in a ski celebration parade. Zordel leaned to wave to spectators and fell out, the tub tumbling on top of him.

The tub was loaded back on the float and Zordel was given medical aid for cuts and bruises.

U.S. Anti-Missile Missile Readied

Congress Hears Report on New Weapons to Tighten Defense

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States disclosed today it is working on the development of nuclear counterweapons designed to destroy intercontinental and other aggressive missiles.

Referring to its previously announced weapons tests at Eniwetok next spring, the AEC said: "The forthcoming series will advance the development of weapons for defense against aggression whether airborne, missile-borne, or otherwise mounted."

The government previously has hinted at work on atomic rockets and antiaircraft shells designed to pulverize airplanes, and has announced development of atomic depth charges to knock out submarines. This was the first official mention of efforts to neutralize missiles with nuclear warheads.

Presumably, in the forthcoming Eniwetok tests, the AEC would mount an A-bomb or an H-bomb as the warhead of an actual missile to test the effective scope of the blast at theoretically interceptive ranges.

Michigan Losing Money Due to Wine Definition?

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Wine by another name would not only taste as sweet, it also would bring in more money for Michigan.

They want the Legislature to change the legal definition of wine in Michigan from "a liquid with an alcoholic content of up to 16 per cent" to "one made from any type of fruit by fermentation and not by distillation."

The grape growers say that out-of-state wines escape a 50-cent-a-gallon tax when they send in wine with more than 16 per cent alcoholic content.

House of Lords OKs Adding Lifetime Peers

LONDON (AP)—Addition of lifetime peers to the House of Lords, including the British upper chamber's first women members, was assured today.

Without a dissenting vote, the Lords gave third and final approval last night to the government's bill providing for creation of lifetime peerages. They can also go to women, previously barred from the upper house.

The bill now goes to the House of Commons, where approval is assured. It aim is to make membership in the almost powerless upper chamber more democratic.

The titles of lifetime peers will not be handed down to the holder's eldest son the way regular peerages are. Some Labor politicians had refused to accept titles previously because they opposed the principle of inherited nobility.

Court Authority Asked to Market Stocks in Estate

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Court authority has been asked to sell $2,403,383 worth of stocks and bonds from actress Norma Talmadge's estate.

The money would be used to pay federal and state estate taxes, costs of administering the will and some cash legacies. A hearing on the petition, filed yesterday by an executor, was set for Feb. 4.

Waterford Pumping Proves Big Chore

Pumping operations at Lorraine Manor sewer plant in Waterford Township, have turned out to be a much bigger job than workmen anticipated.

When the project began last week, township officials were told there were between 18 to 20 thousand gallons of sludge at the bottom of the system, preventing the two pumps from operating properly.

More than 45,000 gallons have been pumped out since that time and contracts were awarded to the Eames & Brown company to remove and repair the damaged pumps.

The plant is located near M59 and Elizabeth Lake Rd. and services about 120 families.

Parts for the two pumps have been ordered and normal operation should get under way in a couple of days, according to clerk James Seeterlin, who is supervising the project.

Rocket Fuel Explodes, Worker Slightly Hurt

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A workman was injured slightly when a batch of solid rocket fuel exploded at the Aerojet General Corp. plant last night.

It was the third recent explosion there, but none has halted production.

E. E. Nelson, resident manager, estimated damage at $75,000. An investigation was opened to learn cause of the explosion.

Neighbors' Kindness May Save Girl's Life

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—Through the generosity of neighbors, Janice Kiest, 3, will be taken to Minneapolis Monday for surgery to correct a congenital heart condition.

The little girl has a hole in her heart that threatens her life.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kiest of nearby Marseilles, used up their savings on medical treatment. Then a columnist on the Daily Republican-Times suggested a communitywide campaign for funds.

The suggested goal was $2,500—but generous contributors doubled the figure. Part of the fund was used to buy a portable oxygen device which will be taken with the girl to Minneapolis.

Hollywood Headlines

Ava Will Come Home to Do Movie on Texas

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — One thing for sure—Ava Gardner will HAVE to come home for "Home From the Hill," the first novel by William Humphrey just bought by MGM for their glamour girl. It's a story of modern Texas, and even Europe-happy Ava can't make any spot on the continent look like Texas!

Published by Alfred Knopf and due to reach the bookstalls next week, "Home From the Hill" tells the drama of a rich Texan (are there any other kind?) who continues his philandering after his marriage to a beautiful girl (Ava).

Her heart breaks even more when their only son grows up to worship his father.

Of course, the Gardner has first to make "Goya" in Rome—then, from the City of the Seven Hills, she comes back for "Home From the Hill."

George Sanders will have to stop playing his favorite game of croquet with Sam Goldwyn for a while when he goes to Mexico to co-star with Joseph Cotten in Jules Verne's "From the Earth to the Moon."

Ben Bogeaus, who is making this fanciful Verne tale, says George's role is that of a scientist and armament king of 1860, who invents a missile that will carry a man to the moon.

Debra Paget, who married David Street amid strife and stress, moves into the femme lead, and leaves the much-married Street behind when she goes to Mexico.

Some very good news for our Hollywood technicians is that when Jhnny Farrow leaves for Spain to film "John Paul Jones," he'll take more than 100 Americans including stars, crews and technicians.

With so many productions being made abroad, many of our own capable carpenters, electricians and others in the technical end have been without jobs. Thank goodness, Johnny plans to give them a break.

There's an optimistic note right now in our town with Warner Bros., Paramount, MGM and of course, 20th Century all announcing big production plans.

In all my years of attending nightclub openings I've never seen a star-studded audience react with more appreciation than they did to singer Johnny Mathis at the Crescendo. He was cheered to the echo.

Twenty-two-year-old Johnny is so fresh, so untouched by life's problems, and so unspoiled. Among his numbers were his popular "It's Not for Me to Say," songs from his album "Wonderful," and "There Goes My Heart."

Appearing with him are two of the funniest comedians I have ever seen, Bennett and Patterson. Their material is new and different, and never off-color. This is their first engagement in a big nightclub, and it won't be their last.

Orchestra leader David Prell said there was no time for rehearsals for either Johnny or the comics—well, they didn't need it.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Joel Preston, praise agent for Columbia, and his socialite bride, Harriet Newell Ward, have had a nod from the stork, who'll visit them in July.

Evie Johnson had a needle in her mouth for two weeks, she told me, which her dentist had difficulty in removing.

School Board to Get Hold-the-Line Budget

Pontiac's Board of Education will be presented with a "hold-the-line" budget for the 1958-59 fiscal year, Supt. Dana P. Whitmer revealed last night.

Reporting to the board at a meeting held with the Wisner School PTA, Dr. Whitmer said the outlook for state aid next year appears about the same as this year.

He said that an anticipated enrollment increase for Pontiac schools of 717 pupils would mean a larger budget, but the administration hoped to keep the cost per pupil the same as the current budget or $398.

The present budget, he noted, is some $7.5 million.

Dr. Whitmer said that the opening of Pontiac Northern High School would boost operating costs in some items next year and would mean "belt tightening" in other areas.

He explained that a number of repair, rehabilitation and replacement programs for school buildings and equipment would have to be postponed.

"In light of the economic conditions in the community, we feel we must adopt a tight budget," he told the audience.

A large question, still unanswered, the superintendent said, is whether a proposed cut in Pontiac's personal property tax rate will hurt the school district's income next year.

Also to be decided, he added, is the millage allotment for schools to be set by the county.

In other reports, Dr. Otto Hufziger, assistant superintendent, stated that excellent progress is being made in the construction of Pontiac Northern, an addition to Owen Elementary, and erection of the Franklin Road Elementary.

In response to a question from the audience, the school board members were polled on their attitudes toward federal aid to education.

President Glenn H. Griffin, Monroe M. Osmun and Dr. Walter L. Godsell opposed it. Mrs. Lola King supported it, along with Rev. H. Allen Parker for districts unable financially to give a decent education to their students.

William Anderson said he opposed it for public schools, but favored it for universities.

Member Louis H. Schimmel arrived after the poll was taken, but has previously gone on record in opposition to federal aid.

Teddy Bear Smokes

ROCKY FORD, Colo. (AP)— Cecilia Zavala, 4, wondered if her teddy bear could smoke. She inserted one of her daddy's cigarettes in the bear's mouth, lighted it and put the bear in a clothes closet. Firemen managed to keep the fire from spreading far, but Teddy was pretty much a ruined bruin.

Change of Rail Gauge to Take Four Years

SYDNEY, Australia — In a job that will take four years, the Australian Government is giving some $22,000,000 towards replacing 250 miles of wide-gauge railway track to allow travel direct between Sydney and Melbourne.

Now, passengers have to change at Albury, a junction on the border of New South Wales and Victoria, where the line alters from standard 4 feet 8½ inch gauge to the broad 5 foot 3 inch line that runs to Melbourne.

Dems Pick 2 Sites for Hart's Dinner

Oakland County Democrats have had to seek out another place to handle the increased demand for tickets for the Feb. 14 testimonial dinner for Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart.

Carlos Richardson, county committee chairman, said the 750 persons expected to attend will gather either at the originally scheduled Northwood Inn in Berkley or at the Normandy Restaurant in Pleasant Ridge.

Because of the change, Gov. Williams has been asked to join Lt. Gov. Hart as a second speaker. They will alternate between the Northwood and the Normandy.

Tickets at $13.50 a couple or $8.50 single are available at Democratic headquarters in the Roosevelt Hotel.

Chrysler Strike Threat Grows

Dodge Grievance Talks Reported Deadlocked; Early Walkout Seen

DETROIT (AP) — Possibilities of a strike that would affect 70,000 Chrysler Corp. workers in the Detroit area increased today as a United Auto Workers source reported negotiations with Chrysler over Dodge workers' problems had bogged down.

The dispute centers on operations at the Dodge Main plant, which makes Dodge parts and also serves as headquarters for the fleet of trucks which carry parts between the various Chrysler plant in the area.

UAW representatives of the 10,500 Dodge Main workers complained that the company recently stepped up its production standards, requiring more work from the employes. The UAW International Executive Board authorized a five-day strike notice which expired Tuesday. Workers at the Dodge plant now can be called off their jobs any time.

The UAW source, who declined use of his name, said negotiations between Dodge and the UAW bogged down yesterday after management rejected some union suggestions for ending what the union termed a speedup. No date was set for another meeting.

Chrysler declined comment on the union version.

Truck Firm Buys 100 GMC Tractors

McLean Trucking Co. of Winston-Salem, N.C., one of the largest motor freight common carriers in the nation, has purchased 100 GMC Diesel cab-over-engine highway tractors, it was announced today by R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager for GMC Truck & Coach Division.

Of the 100, 35 have sleeper cabs and are equipped with 10-speed transmissions while the others have a 5-speed transmission with a 2-speed axle.

Warned to Rid High Conditions on the Ground

DALLAS (AP)—The plush Longhorn Room at Dallas' new air terminal has been given 30 days to tame down an atmosphere city officials say encourages the consumption of alcoholic beverages.

City Manager Elgin Crull said the matter can be turned over to attorneys by that time. The Longhorn Room Management switched to Western decor earlier after city councilmen and others protested that its Gay 90s motif, featuring waitresses in brief costumes, had encouraged drinking. Sale of mixed drinks is prohibited in Texas.

The space, known as the Elbow Room before the protests, was originally leased as a package store, drugstore and soda fountain.

Stocks Irregular in Active Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market churned irregularly in moderately active trading early today.

Most gains and losses of key stocks were fractional.

The market was still struggling in a price area about equal to the November highs where the amount of stock for sale made upward progress difficult.

While the steel scrap market was reported strong, there was no response among steel shares as there was to similar news a week ago. In fact, leading issues in this group shaded off.

The background included Labor Secretary Mitchell's forecast of greater unemployment in February, lower prices for copper and tin in the London market and a decline in department store sales.

Grain Prices Nudged Slightly

CHICAGO (AP) — The prices of grain futures were nudged only minor fractions either way from yesterday's closes in early dealings on the Board of Trade today.

Trade was not more than moderate, but buyers and sellers were about even on the supply and demand.

Wheat and corn were slightly on the weak side, oats and soybeans about steady and rye leaned toward the strong side in the initial transactions.

After about an hour's trading, however, soybean prices had been bid up as much as a cent a bushel. Wheat was ⅛ cent higher to ⅝ lower, March $2.17⅞; corn ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, March $1.08¾; oats unchanged, March 62⅝; rye ⅝ to ⅝ higher, March $1.26⅝; soybeans ⅛ to 1 higher, March $2.21¾ and lard 5 to 7 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $11.55.

GM Picks Crowley for Relations Director

General Motors Corp. announced the appointment of Patrick J. Crowley as director of the dealer relations section and the promotion of Alexander F. Baillio to director of the patent section today.

Crowley will handle communications between General Motors' car and truck dealers and top management of the company.

Previous to his appointment, he was administrative assistant to Ivan L. Wiles, vice president in charge of dealer relations.

Baillio, whose promotion becomes effective Feb. 1, has been with General Motors almost 35 years. He has served as assistant director of the patent section since 1949.

Pontiac Credit Union President Elected

James P. Clancey, a city water department employe, has been elected 1958 president of the Pontiac Municipal Employes Credit Union.

In making the announcement, Clyde G. Townsend, who was re-elected treasurer-manager, said that this year's dividend rate would be 3.6 per cent, or .3 per cent higher than last year's.

For the first time, Townsend said, the credit union's assets have passed the half-million dollar mark.

Marvin M. Alward was elected vice president and Mrs. Josephine Gamester, clerk.

Other new members of the board of directors are George P. Kiel-horn, Kenneth P. Anthony, Morris M. Doolin, Mrs. Irene Kentros and William Aho.

New credit committee members are Arthur D. Hilliker, Joseph A. Tunny and James J. Johnson. On the supervisory committee are John L. Waldo, Henry C. Smith and Walter A. Giddings.

'Must Be an Easier Way'

Long Wait for Used Cars at 99c Pays Off Today

FLINT (AP) — Mrs. Sandra Hollingshead will pick up her "second car" today and she'll pay only 99 cents for it, but the attractive mother of three children is convinced there must be an easier way.

The 22-year-old housewife is one of eight in line since Tuesday at the office of a Flint used car dealer who advertised he would sell four cars at 99 cents each and four at $99. The sale started at 9 a.m. today.

"I just picked a hard way of getting a second car," said Mrs. Hollingshead. "My husband thinks I'm nuts."

James Stewart, 27, an unemployed auto worker, holds the No. 1 spot in the line. He arrived at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday.

WELL EQUIPPED

Of the original eight, only one has dropped out. He was James F. Bowers, 33, who held down No. 4 in the line until Wednesday night. State Police picked him up after he had warmed up at a bar across the street. The charge was drunk and disorderly.

Three of the bargain hunters are students at General Motors Institute here. Fraternity pledges have kept them supplied with hot food.

MADE OWN RULES

The original group set up its own rules for the long wait. No one could leave the line more than 15 minutes without losing his place. No one could sell his place, and no one could use a standin.

At one point, last night, the line stretched to 12 when four men arrived to see if any of the original buyers were going to drop out. They left at midnight.

The owner of the used car lot says the eight cars are all in good condition. He values the 99-cent cars at $250 and the $99 models at $500.

Crowds swarmed through the lot last night to encourage the waiters.

DEALER WORRIED

Warren Seibold, manager of the used car lot, had only one worry.

"I had no idea we'd get this kind of a response," he said, "I'm afraid someone will get pneumonia."

Stewart said he is going to need his car immediately. While he stood in line he learned his old car had been wrecked in a collision.

Two Guilty of Soliciting Without City Licenses

Two Detroiters pleaded guilty in municipal court today to soliciting without city licenses.

Judge Cecil B. McCallum fined Joseph D. Enos, 30, $5 or one day in jail, while Judge Maurice E. Finnegan did the same with Daniel A. Whitfield, 59.

The pair were soliciting orders for a photography studio.

Famed Mormon Choir to Appear in Detroit

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The Mormon Tabernacle Choir plans to make a 12-city concert tour next fall, including appearances in Detroit and with the Philadelphia Orchestra at Philadelphia and New York.

President David O. McKay of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Church announced the tour at last night's rehearsal.

The tour will run from Oct. 20 to Nov. 11 and include Wichita, Kan., Kansas City, St. Louis, Columbus, Washington, Baltimore, Boston, Detroit, Chicago and Toronto.

Albania, a republic on the west side of the Balkan peninsula in southeast Europe, has a population of about one million.

Solons in Stew About Paregoric

Bill to Halt Sale of Kids' and Addicts' Favorite Stirs Legislature

LANSING (AP) — Children like it and so do opium addicts, but for different reasons.

It's the dark red liquid tranquilizer called paregoric, available in any drug store. Parents often use it to quiet children suffering from intestinal troubles or other painful ailments.

Drug addicts boil it down and take the opium extract as an intravenous injection.

Lawmakers in the House hassled for half an hour yesterday over a bill to ban sale of paregoric except by doctor's prescription.

Rep. Joseph J. O'Connor (Detroit) called it "silly."

Rep. Willard I. Bowerman Jr. (R-Lansing), the sponsor, said it had the backing of police authorities, the Michigan Medical Society, the State Board of Pharmacy and the Michigan Pharmaceutical Assn.

Rep. John T. Bowan (R-Roseville) protested that "any time a mother wants to give her kid a dose of paregoric she would have to go to the doctor and pay $5 to get a prescription."

House members finally agreed to postpone further consideration until Tuesday.

In other action, the House passed its first bill, sending to the Senate a measure to require 30-days residence in the county where a person files for divorce. Current minimum is 10 days.

Magnetic Cooking Saves Time, Work

CHICAGO—A Chicago manufacturer has developed a method of cooking which utilizes magnetic currents to generate and concentrate heat inside a cooking vessel.

The company says its new cooking range, employing this method, keeps the kitchen cooler and cuts cooking time by up to 50 per cent.

78 Pct. of Test Group Aided

Reports Diabetes Control Possible With Oral Drug

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A German doctor says an oral drug successfully controlled diabetes in 78 per cent of a test group of patients who developed first symptons as adults.

Dr. Ernest F. Pfeiffer, assistant professor of medicine and chief of the diabetes clinic at the University of Frankfurt, made the report in an address to a group of doctors last night.

He reported there is definite laboratory evidence that the oral drug works by stimulating the manufacture and release of natural insulin by the patient's own clinical and experimental studies with the oral antidiabetic agent.

"If patients are properly selected for Orinase therapy and maintained under medical supervision, 78 per cent of diabetics whose disease occurs in later life can be controlled with the oral drug," he said.

The drug he used in studies was developed and produced by the Upjohn Co. under the trade name Orinase.

Some medical researchers believe that of the estimated three to four million diabetics in the United States, 75 per cent experienced their first onset of symptoms after the age of 30.

Pfeiffer said he found no bad effects from the drug after long term usage, except for such minor things as skin rashes. These minor side effects were found in 1.9 per cent of the patients, he reported.

Report Man Pinned by Slab 'Satisfactory'

It took rescuers 1½ hours to dig Buck out from under the slab, which toppled over on him at the bottom of a 15-foot pit.

Potter's Advice on Engineers:

Go to Detroit for 'Miracles'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Potter (R-Mich) says the Detroit area has engineering talent which could produce "miracles in the weapons field."

"We talk about lack of research and development engineers and yet I know for certain there are upwards of 3,000 trained men available in 40 leading and reliable independent engineering companies in the Detroit area alone," Potter said.

Potter issued the statement yesterday after meeting with representatives of Detroit engineering companies and defense officials.

"If the Department of Defense wants engineering miracles in the weapons field," Potter said, "the best place to get them is where engineering miracles have been happening for a long time—the Detroit area."

Urban Renewal OK Expected

Bid for Project Funds by Pontiac to Be Sent to Washington

Pontiac's bid for funds to plan its first urban renewal project was expected to be approved by Urban Renewal Administration (URA) officials in Chicago today and forwarded to Washington.

Assistant City Manager Robert A. Stierer said that there was a stipulation, however, that the boundaries of the proposed project would have to be altered if Washington approves the advance loan of $98,000.

George Conklin, URA Chicago field representative, indicated that the area affected would be that lying between Saginaw street and the Grand Trunk Railroad from Pike street to Osmun street.

"Conklin told me by telephone today that there is probably not sufficient residential use of this area to justify its inclusion in the project," Stierer said. Urban renewal funds are primarily granted to improve residential areas, he added.

According to present schedules in Washington, Stierer said, approval of the advance loan may come in four to five weeks.

With the advance money, the city and its planning consultants will begin the big job of detailing the project, which involves about a 40-block area lying south of the business district.

Pontiac Youth Injured When Car Strikes Tree

Richard Freeland, 17, of 3212 Avalon St., was admitted to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Thursday night after his car ran off Squirrel Rd. near Butler Rd. in Pontiac Township, striking a tree, said Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

Freeland suffered a broken nose, possible fractured skull and facial abrasions, said a hospital official. He is reported in satisfactory condition.

Visitor Catches Mystery Animal Hunting 'Snipe'

Heffernan was taken on a "snipe hunt" last night by his hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Lassiter, of Southfield Township, and Mrs. Lassiter's brother, Larry Rhodes, a college friend of Heffernan's.

Like other city boys before him, Heffernan was left in a wooded area with a gunny sack and told to wait while the others "drive the snipe toward you."

Alone in a ravine, near the Rouge River, Birmingham, Heffernan followed orders to the letter and, while his hosts returned home to greet their victim's late arrival with laughter, he caught his "snipe."

At least he caught something he insists is a snipe. The jokesters had told Heffernan the snipe was a small animal, reddish brown, with ears like a squirrel and a face like a rabbit.

An animal remarkably like that description is what Heffernan brought home in his sack.

Now the Lassiters are far from laughing. They know the "thing" is not a snipe, which is really a bird, but they are wondering — what is it?

Senator's Hot Potato Hurled Back by Military

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Pentagon has tossed a hot potato back to Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine).

In answer to her charge that Idaho potatoes are being served to troops at Limestone Air Force Base in Maine, the Defense Department said:

"A thorough check of recent procurements of potatoes . . . reveals no instances in which other than Maine potatoes have been purchased for supply to Armed Forces Installations in the state of Maine for troop feeding."

The statement added, however, that the Defense Department does purchase potatoes any place it can get the cheapest delivery price consistent with quality.

One Person Injured as 2 Cars Collide

★ ★ ★ ★

Mary Elizabeth Theobald, 37, of 9585 Eston Rd., Clarkston, was in a car driven by Roy Murphy, 41, of 2971 Winton, Waterford Township.

The driver of the other car, Arvilla Nichols, 32, of 485 Oakland, Lake Orion, told Pontiac police she was making a left turn into Voorheis from southbond Telegraph and did not see Murphy's car northbound as another car blocked her vision.

Miss Theobald was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for cuts and bruises and released.

County Considers Fingerprinting New Employes

Oakland County is contemplating fingerprinting new employes, it was learned yesterday from John Witherup, personnel director.

"So far the reaction has been half and half," he explained. Letters are out to department heads to get their opinion on the proposal.

"Some people seem to have an aversion to fingerprinting," Witherup said. "They seem to think they are being classed as a criminal."

Reason for the plan is to provide additional screening of applicants for county jobs, he said. "We might just make it for certain positions such as those at the Children's Home where our employes are working closely with these kids," Witherup explained further.

Wayne County already has put the practice to work, he said.

If approved, the fingerprinting here most likely would be done when the applicant receives a physical examination.

Nothin' Doin', Is Ruling

LANSING (AP) — Requests by state employes for a pay boost were rejected by the Civil Service Commission today.

John Payne Injects Comedy Into 'Restless Gun' Show

Cameron Mitchell Subs for Dad in Play

The 37-year-old actor will be playing the role of Matthew Harrison Brady in the play based on the famous Scopes monkey trial of the 20s. Brady is the fictional counterpart of the late William Jennings Bryan.

Mitchell said it was the first time he'd ever undertaken a role on such short notice, and added: "It's a great part—just right for my father—but not for me."

JOHN PAYNE

Believe Humor Keeps It Lively

Uses Movie Formula in Producing Westerns for Television

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

I still don't know where the yellow went, despite harassment by all those TV toothpaste commercials, but after talking to John ("Restless Gun") Payne I sure know where TV comedy is going.

It's going—and don't let this unsaddle you—right into those Western telefilms some comedians and Madison avenue bright boys predicted would lay turkey-sized eggs on home screens this season.

One-third of his "Restless Gun" stanzas for 1957-'58, says Payne, will have comedy overtones based on a theory learned long ago by Hollywood movie makers.

"It's the theory," says Payne, "that if you play Westerns down the middle with a straight hero, they're boring and dull. Comedy characters and occasional comedy situations involving the hero — that's the blueprint I'm following.

"But it isn't mine—it belongs to the movies—and I'm making a half-hour movie every week."

LOOK FOR LAUGHS

James Garner told me the same thing recently about "Maverick," the Sunday night competition that has Ed Sullivan and Steve Allen on a diet of fingernails.

"In addition to the laughs in the script," Garner said, "we look for them on the set while we're shooting. Directors are giving 'Maverick' the light touch every place they can."

In pre-TV juvenile Westerns, of course, Roy Rogers and Gene Autry and Bill Boyd always had old codger pals who made with the kid jokes.

"But if today's "adult" Westerns can be adult, the comedy can be adult, too—and that's what Payne and other TV sagebrush heroes are counting on to keep home screen fans from flipping the dials.

The "comedy overtones" coming up in Payne's series include one stanza in which he's simultaneously elected to three town offices—mayor, coroner and sheriff; one with a gunfighter who gets the laughs when he's outdrawn by a balding little country store clerk; and another in which Payne lands behind the eightball when he awards a prize to the wrong jar of strawberry preserves at a county fair.

GOOD SHOWMANSHIP

"It's just good showmanship," says Payne, "to get the hero off the boring and dull hook. You do it with light situations and by hiring outstanding bit players in the supporting casts.

"It was supporting casts — outstanding featured players — which once made big movie hits. Now I'm doing the same thing on TV."

Like other film stars turned soft by working in only two or three films a year, Payne at first cringed at the thought of a weekly show and even though now conditioned for fast-moving TV production, he says, "I don't think I could keep it up for more than maybe three years.

He even tried to work through a flu attack but finally halted work. "I went on the stage one morning and looked at the set. It was moving. I said, 'What's happening here?' and then I realized the set wasn't moving. It was me. I went to bed and called a doctor."

"The Restless Gun" series, telecast by NBC Monday at 8 p.m., is based on Jimmy Stewart's onetime radio show, "Six Shooter," which was based on a one-time Jimmy Stewart film Western character, Destry.

Payne bought all the stories and the character rights, but changed the hero's name.

Some Hoods Are Just Too Nice for Words

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—My wife says I should write a hoodlum love story.

Uncle Mike has got rid of guys by ordering them killed. But with dames he could never have one shot, nor even flatten one with a chair. He's just a big softie.

But Uncle Mike, the modern hood, had a wife—also a "girl," named Rose.

Mike loved his wife, and in public was always with her. He bought her mink coats, and diamonds, and movie magazines, and comic books. Only on a sneakaway out to Hot Springs, would he take Rose. Rose was getting to be a pretty old tomato.

Mike came back from Hot Springs all full of health. His wife, unpacking for him, found a night club picture and saw Rose had been along.

His wife bawled for two weeks. "Humiliatin' me like that! I'm going to shoot you."

"You, too?" Uncle Mike felt bad, and got her a new chinchilla, and a diamond bracelet, and didn't sneak out to see Rose for four nights.

Then Mike's legal eagle suddenly discovered that the Feds were tapping Rose's phones, trying to send Mike away.

"WAID A MINUTE," Mike said. "Waid a minute."

The lawyer rubbed his hands. "Without a court order the Feds are tapping the wires of your mistress. We can delay your case for YEARS!"

"Forgedd it!" Uncle Mike said. "Rather'n have my missus humiliated about my girl, I'll go to the can." So he went.

Some of the young hoods think Mike has been very soft-hearted to go to the can to save his wife's feelings.

But some of the older hoods claim that any man who had the same wife and same mistress for 20 years, with each knowing about the other, must find jail a very restful place.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Charles Laughton is delayed here awaiting a work permit for a London play—though he was born in Scarborough, England, in 1899 (penalty of becoming an Ameddican) . . . Lindsay Crosby (now of the U.S. Army) is here making recordings for Uncle Sam.

JUNE

Faye Emerson's beau, Jack Walker, got his final decree, leaving 'em free to wed . . . Robert Wagner and Natalie Wood sought good honeymoon weather in N.Y., Miami, St. Louis and Ft. Worth, finally went to Palm Springs . . . Grace Kelly told Rainier there'll be no picture-peddling when the second baby's born . . . Sir Laurence Olivier was asked if he'd make another film with M. Monroe. The answer: "No!" . . . Pretty model-turned-actress June Blair gets her big break in a movie. Hank Greenberg'll spend the summer touring Europe . . . William Saroyan wants Art Carney (of "The Rope Dancers") for his next play.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A young Bronx student took the difficult N. Y. State scholarship exams, and signed afterward, "Well, I just saved the state $2,800." That's earl, brother.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

This week the rock 'n' rollers are in their glory. According to a poll of Pontiac record shops, the most consistent sellers are all real rockers (and we don't mean the kind grandmothers use).

Running in a dead heat for first place are "Maybe" by the Chantels, and "Get A Job" by the Silhouettes. Holding down the next spot solidly is "Oh Julie" by the Crescendos . . . a newcomer to the upper echelon.

Others in the top five, in their order of popularity are "Short Shorts" by the Royal Teens, and "Dede Dinah" by Frankie Avalon (making its first appearance in the top five).

Most promising of the latest releases are "The Stroll" by the Diamonds and "Waitin' In School" by Rickey Nelson.

Jazz fans of the traditional school may turn their backs on a commercially tainted "Yellow Dog Blues" by Joe Darensbourg's Dixie Flyers, but it has proven that straight instrumental Dixie can turn some heads by creeping near the top five in sales.

ALBUMS: Pick of the new crop is a gem "The Art Of Mabel Mercer" (Atlantic 2-602). This is destined to be one of 1958's finest. Miss Mercer is at her sit-and-sip-your-last-drink-best in this set of two 12" LP's.

Newest show album is "The Music Man" (Capitol WAO-990) by original cast . . . looks like a big one. Also affords the finest version of "Seventy Six Trombones" to be had.

THE JAZZ NEST: For those who insist that jazz has gotta be this or that, our choice this week will give them much to ponder over. "Salute To Satch" (RCA Victor LPM-1324) by Joe Newman should cause widespread head-scratching. It's more a mixture of Armstrong and the modern idiom than anything . . . excellent and puzzling.

Selling well to an otherwise divided jazz public is "Garnering" (EmArcy MG-36026) by Garner. No doubt the living piano most liked by all schools, Garner's is a steady seller. This LP swings out in the "clomp-clomp" style Garner is known for.

Churchill's Oils 'D-n Good,' Says Truman

"Impossible," said the former President. "He would have to be a Rembrandt. . . . He's the statesman of the age, you know."

Churchill's paintings are on display at the William Rockhill Nelson Art Gallery. It is the first time his work has ever been exhibited to the public in a one-man show. The collection will move on next week for showings in eight other cities in the United States and Canada.

"They are damn good," Truman concluded.

"At least you can tell what they are. And that's more than you can say for a lot of these modern painters. Ham-and-eggers, I call them. They just throw an egg at the canvas and mix in a little ham."

Gold Take Nears Billion

PERTH, Australia — Gold delivered to the Royal Mint in Perth during 1957 brought the total value of gold production in Western Australia since the first gold rush to £400,000,000 ($900,000,000).

Bob Considine Recalls:

Runyon Called Death a Direct Cannon Hit

NEW YORK (INS) — So many good friends of mine have died recently that I keep thinking of something Runyon used to say in the muted little bull-sessions that formed around him on the street outside the church or the funeral parlor just after a service was over.

"They're hitting all around us," he'd say. His listeners would nod agreement, and wonder — like survivors of a battle — why the shell had landed just there instead of, say, over here.

Cas Adams, Ann Gillis, Andy Geer, Louie Ruppel, Bob Levitt . . . some others.

Wonderful, hearty, courageous, intelligent, worthwhile people, all gone 25 and more years before allotted Biblical and actuarial span. It seems a terrible waste of talent.

Cas was a most invariably good-natured man. The first time I ever met him he had a fainting spell in Mike Jacobs' office in the old Hippodrome. I was alarmed, but Joe Jacobs and a few others who knew him better at the time said, "Forget it, he'll be okay." We went on drinking a bottle of champagne Mike had popped.

"Here we are drinking that Tiffany," Joe said contentedly, bubbles tickling his nose. Cas sat up after a time and cheerfully joined us . . . he was still cheerful the last time I saw him, though engaged in the Homeric task of trying to train a new part of his brain to assume the borden of re-teaching him how to walk, after his stroke.

Ann taught me how to talk on radio. I was one of her lesser products. As a very young lady she had a producer's hand in F.D.R.'s Fireside Chats

She helped shape or polish the air careers of John Daly, Ed Murrow, H.V. Kaltenborn, Bob Trout, John Cameron Swayze, Walter Kiernan, Morgan Beatty, George Gobel and many others.

Nobody in that trade knew politics and its people as well as Ann Gillis Slocum, nor had more poise under pressure, more patience under stress.

Ann was the only person, man or woman, I've ever met who never — in my hearing, at least — complained about his or her health. And, bless her, she had so little of it. So darned little.

Andy was all muscles, except in his head. He must have had muscles around his heart. He was one of those overage destroyers that only the U.S. Marine Corps seems able to develop properly, so naturally he wound up in combat in Korea.

He wrote tenderly and informatively of The Corps and was just getting squared away for bigger things in books, movies and TV when he woke up one morning with Big Casino. The doctor had to tell him he was a terminal case.

Andy got his things in order like the night before a battle. One of the first things he did — and it was curiously fitting — was to resign from his favorite club, the Bohemian. Of San Francisco, of course.

The Bohemian Club has a long waiting list. A member has to die before a new one can enter. Resignations are virtually unhead of. Andy just wanted the fellow who had been waiting to join enter a little earlier than expected.

Louie invented atomic fission before the scientists. He was born with it. Wherever he went in newspapers, magazines, radio and TV he left his explosive imprint.

He could bellow his way through a wall, once he knew he was right. Nothing scared him in war (another overage Marine destroyer) or peace, politics or the fighting of crime.

Louie had a hide a cleaver couldn't nick, but at heart he was the softest touch in town. Once he condemned a series of mine on hooldums as rot ("Those things stink unless they put the bums in jail") and five minutes later bought a piece of mine that had been turned down by half a dozen magazines.

It was a short-short about Christ taking a vacation in Palm Beach during Christmas time and finding it impossible to get a room in a restricted hotel. Louie gave it the title, "Well, a Little More Time."

As for Bob, he was such a gifted guy. When he'd visit his famous ex-wife and their children, she'd say, "The whole house lighted up." He helped get this column started when nobobdy much wanted it. I pray that he had time to explain. I'm sure he could.

Hits Grand Jury School Probe

New York's Board of Education Feels Legality of Investigation in Doubt

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York City Board of Education charged last night that the special Brooklyn grand jury probing school crime "may not be legally valid."

After a 6½ hour closed meeting the board, continuing its battle with the grand jury and Kings County Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz, said in a statement: "It usually is the function of grand juries to investigate the commission of a crime and not to review administrative functions of government agencies unless there is evidence of dereliction by public officials amounting to a crime."

The board added that it "will not tolerate the intimidation of its staff or the students of our schools either by teen-aged hoodlums or misguided persons."

Before going into the board meeting, School Supt. William Jansen said Leibowitz "called me names in the presence of a member of our professional staff."

Leibowitz denied Jansen's allegation.

The board's statement endorsed earlier statements by Jansen and Board President Charles H. Silver that the grand jury may have been responsible for the suicide of George Goldfarb, principal of Brooklyn's John Marshall Junior High School, scene of two recent rapes and assaults on a policeman and a gym instructor.

Crimes in the integrated schools have involved both white students and Negroes—including the rape of a 13-year-old white girl. The girl identified her attacker as a Negro.

Threats Follow Kick at Little Rock School

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A 17-year-old white youth said last night that anonymous telephone callers threatened his family with death because he kicked a Negro girl pupil at integrated Central High School.

Richard Boehler told newsmen that he launched a kick at Minnie Jean Brown, 16, as she passed him near the school campus after classes were dismissed Wednesday afternoon.

He said she didn't try to fight back.

"She just put her han dto her face and cried like the baby she is," he said.

Prosecutor Frank Holt refused to issue a warrant for Boehler's arrest. The warrant was sought by Minnie Jean and her mother.

Holt said his office would investigate.

The Navajo, Mescalero and Jicarilla Apache, Indians are related tribes. They migrated from Canada to the Southwest United States over the past thousand years.

Asks U.S., Reds to Match Brains on Cancer Cure

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cancer research should be put on the same competitive basis as satellite development, says the science editor of the American Cancer Society.

Pat McGrady of New York City proposed that the U.S. government challenge Soviet and other foreign scientists to compete for cancer control.

"Few people," he told reporters, "would care whether a cancer cure were stamped 'Made in the U.S.A.' or 'Made in the U.S.S.R.'"

Wives, Children Invited to Union Contract Talks

DALLAS (AP)—Roy Evans, president of Local 893, United Auto Workers, announced the union has invited its members to bring their wives and children to a meeting Sunday at which contract proposals will be discussed.

"Wives are as much a part of the union as their husbands," Evans said. Children were invited too, Evans said, to "avert worry about the baby-sitting problem."
