New Delay Seen on Incorporation at Rochester

Attorney to Petition High Court to Appeal Suit Over Vote

Incorporation of Rochester may be delayed another six months by new legal action, attorneys disclosed today.

Pontiac attorney Harry D. Wise Jr., said this morning he will petition the Supreme Court for permission to appeal a decision by visiting Judge Timothy C. Quinn, of Caro, who has turned down a lawsuit seeking to block the incorporation.

Wise represents five Rochester residents who filed the suit on the eve of a Board of Supervisors meeting last April that would have set an election date for Rochester residents to vote on incorporation.

The suit asked a court ruling ordering supervisors to act on the first of three incorporation petitions filed with it, and then shelve the other two for two years.

County attorneys claimed the law quoted in the suit applied to annexation petitions, but not to incorporation.

The law quoted required that petitions covering the same territory must not be considered often than once in two years, and petitions must be considered in their order of their filing with the county clerk.

If Judge Quinn had ruled it would apply in this case, supervisors would have been forced to turn down the first petition, since ruled invalid, and delay consideration of the others for two years.

But Judge Quinn ruled this position "untenable." He did not amplify.

Wise said legal steps to apply for appeal permission are now complete, and the petition is ready for filing. He added he hopes to have a Supreme Court hearing on the appeal Dec. 11.

If the high court grants permission, a Rochester incorporation election would be delayed up to six months while the case was being reviewed.

And if the high court reverses Judge Quinn's decision, the delay would again stretch out to two years.

L. J. Rash Faces Murder Charge

Rochester Father of Two to Be Arraigned Today in Shooting of Wife

L. J. Rash, 52, of 313 Woodward Ave., Rochester, will be arraigned today before Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green for the shotgun slaying of his wife Nina yesterday.

The first degree murder charge against the father of two was issued this morning by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

"Although there appear to be some extenuating circumstances favorable to Rash, nevertheless under the law the charge must be first degree murder, and this case must be presented to the jury for consideration," Ziem said.

Rash gave himself up to Rochester police early yesterday morning shortly after his 45-year old wife was fatally wounded by a blast from his shotgun.

He told investigators the shooting occurred when Mrs. Rash returned from a long drinking session with friends and awakened him by pounding on the door. The factory worker said he fired the shot as she stood outside the door with friends because she protested his order to leave the home. Their children were sleeping at the time of the incident.

Squirtgun 'Firemen' Start Their Own Blaze

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. — Two young boys decided to see how their new water pistols would do as fire extinguishers.

The lads, 7 and 8, set a vacant house on fire, authorities said, and were squinting away manfully but unavailingly when firemen arrived with more powerful equipment.

Firemen estimated damage at $500. The boys were turned over to their parents.

Campaign Still Short of Overall 1956 Goal of $612,202

The Commercial division today became the second campaign group to reach 100 per cent of its quota in the current Pontiac Area United Fund drive for $612,202.

Campaign Chairman Walter K. Willman this morning announced that the Commercial Division has raised $158,168 from Pontiac businesses and their employees.

Willman congratulated Commercial Chairman James F. Nye and the hundreds of United Fund solicitors who took time from their jobs to work in the campaign. The campaign chairman said that this is only the second time in the eight year history of the United Fund that Commercial division has reached its goal.

Nye said that a good deal of the credit for his Division's success should go to H. Wayne Gable and his special gifts committee. He also congratulated his co-chairmen for their work.

The Pontiac Area United Fund campaign for 1956 is still $24,116 short of its overall goal of $612,202. The only campaign division that has not yet reached its goal is the Industrial Division under the chairmanship of Earl Maxwell, personnel director of GMC Truck and Coach division.

United Fund industrial pledges are short of their quota because of the smaller industrial work force this year.

Industrial Chairman Maxwell hopes that new hiring will put the United Fund plant campaign over the top during December.

The total pledged to the Pontiac Area United Fund campaign by the people of Pontiac, Pontiac Township and Waterford Township so far is $388,086 or 96 per cent of the total goal of $612,202.

The drive ran from October 23 to November 16 and then was extended for a 30 day mop-up period in order to reach goal.

Dental Congress Hears Praise for Fluoridation

ST. LOUIS — The President-elect of the American Dental Assn. says fluoridation isn't a "dental cure-all" but 50 years of doubt that tooth decay is reduced 65 per cent.

Dr. William R. Alstadt of Little Rock made the statement in a speech before the 13th annual Mid-Continent Dental Congress yesterday. About 4,000 delegates are attending.

Dr. Alstadt said 1,426 major communities with a total population of 30 million persons now have fluoridation.

Band Plays On Without 'Sentimental Gentleman'

Tommy Dorsey Dies in Sleep

GREENWICH, Conn. — Band leader Tommy Dorsey choked to death in his sleep, a medical examiner says.

Dr. C. Stanley Knapp said the 51-year-old bespectacled "sentimental gentleman of swing" vomited in his sleep and choked to death on food particles. Dr. Knapp fixed the time of Dorsey's death at about 2 a.m. yesterday.

Dorsey's third wife, Jamie, who was suing him for divorce, was in the house when he died, as were their two children, but it was 12 hours before the death was discovered.

His booking agent, Vincent Carbone, got no answer to a knock on the bedroom door at Dorsey's sprawling, $130,000 home, and went in through a window. Both Dorsey and his wife slept behind locked doors, on advice of lawyers, so they would not jeopardize the divorce proceedings.

Carbone found the body of the famed trombonist sprawled over the bed. The rest of the family had thought he was sleeping late, as he often did.

Dorsey's saxophonist brother Jimmy, two years younger, was in New York at the time. So was their mother.

CAUSE UNKNOWN

What made Dorsey ill was not known. He ate a heavy Italian meal with his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Ruth New of Atlanta, in his home the night before. Tino Barzile, his personal manager, said Dorsey was told recently at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore that he was developing an ulcer.

A note Dorsey left added to the mystery when police refused to comment on the case. Finally the text of the note was disclosed by Barzile.

In the note (Barzile said Dorsey had a habit of leaving notes, often by the door) Dorsey thanked his wife for the dinner and added: "I am leaving early in the morning. Kiss Susie for me before she leaves for school." Susie is his six-year-old daughter.

Barzile said he planned to meet Dorsey in New York today.

GM Employees Get Pay Hike

Cost-of-Living Raise Will Affect 502,000 on Hour and Salary

An upward revision of two cents an hour in its cost of living allowance to some 395,000 hourly-rated employees was announced yesterday by the General Motors Corp.

The revision will become effective with the first pay period after Dec. 1. GM officials said, resulting in a total hourly cost-of-living allowance of 13 cents an hour for the months of December, January and February.

Currently, hourly rate employees at the Pontiac Motor Division is about $11.855, and at the GMC Truck & Coach Division, about $6.600. The Pontiac Fisher Body plant employs 4,334 hourly-rated workers.

The corporation said that about 107,000 eligible salaried employees will receive an equivalent increase of $10 in their quarterly allowance, bringing the individual allowance to $65 for the three-month period.

Total salaried employment at the three local GM plants is approximately 6,150.

Under the General Motors wage formula, wages are reviewed quarterly and adjusted in line with the consumer Price Index of the U. S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The next review of the cost-of-living allowance will be in March, and will be based upon the Jan. 15 BLS Index.

The adjustments will also affect 145,000 hourly and 53,000 salaried employees of the Ford Motor Co. A total of 110,000 employees of the Chrysler Corp. will be similarly affected.

Thousands of other workers throughout Michigan also come under escalator clauses providing for automatic pay raises.

Hope to Gain Control Over California Fire

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Forestry officials hope by tomorrow to have full control over the fire that has claimed 11 lives and burned about 40,000 acres of timber and brush in the Cleveland National Forest.

Elmer Osterman, fire prevention coordinating officer for the U.S. Forestry Service, said today that firefighters should have control by then if favorable winds continue as predicted.

'Not Permanently Exiled' Red - Controlled Hungary Presses Attack on Nagy

VIENNA, Austria — Hungary's Soviet-controlled government has stepped up its propaganda attack on Ex-Premier Imre Nagy, apparently in a new attempt to discredit anti-Soviet workers demanding Nagy's return to power.

Premier Janos Kadar made a strong personal attack on the ex-Premier, admitting he is in exile in Romania and linking him with counterrevolutionaries Kadar said now are making "impossible demands" on the Hungarian government.

Kadar conceded Hungary's economy still is crippled and chaotic because of strikes and passive resistance. He said work started yesterday in "almost every section of the country but we cannot say that production is normal. There are still local and very damaging strikes."

Reports from Budapest said there was a general trend toward resumption of work but that many factories were still idle. This was attributed to unrepaid machinery in some cases and to passive resistance by workers in others.

Kadar declared his government does not consider Nagy "permanently exiled."

Kadar said Romania reported it was prepared to offer Nagy sanctuary and that the former premier and his party left for that Soviet satellite state Nov. 23.

This version of Nagy's departure is counter to the official Yugoslav account. Yugoslavia says Nagy was kidnapped by Soviet

Father Given Term in Prison

Sentenced for Burning Hands of 4-Year-Old; Faces 3-4 Years

Arthur D. Martin Jr., 27, Waterford Township father of two who was convicted Nov. 14 of burning his four-year-old son's hands over a gas burner as a punishment for playing with fire, was sentenced yesterday to a 3-4 year term in Jackson State Prison for the crime.

Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick, who sentenced Martin, had presided over his one-day trial before a one-man, 11-woman jury. Maximum sentence under the statute is four years.

Testifying at the trial, Martin denied he intentionally burned Dennis, claiming the burns were accidentally inflicted when Dennis touched a hot coffee pot standing on the stove.

Dennis reportedly suffered first and second degree burns of both hands. A second son, Terry, 2, also was burned, police said, but Martin was not charged with burning him.

Many Nations Object to Paying Costs of Project

Russia Insists Invaders Should Foot the Bill for Troops, Salvage

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Revolt spread among U. N. delegates today against footing any part of the bill for clearing the Suez Canal.

Spearheaded by Russia, diplomats of varying political hues served notice they saw no reason why bystander nations should clean out the ships and bridges sunk in the waterway by Egypt's invaders or the defending Egyptians.

Some delegates felt Britain, France and Israel should pay the entire bill. Others thought it should be covered by the owners and users of the 103-mile waterway.

The General Assembly approved over Soviet bloc objections a 10-million-dollar grant to pay initial costs of the emergency police force in Egypt.

Russia had insisted that Britain, France and Israel should pay the costs of both canal salvage and the emergency force. But the 79-nation Assembly, voting 52-9 with 13 abstentions, authorized Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to draw up to 10 million dollars from the U. N. working capital fund for the expenses of the force.

The Assembly must decide later how the money will be repaid to the capital fund. Hammarskjold had proposed first that the cost be shared by all U. N. members on the same percentage basis as the annual budget. Later he revised the request and left the apportionment to the Assembly's financial committees.

Mom Still Trying to Get Ousted Son Back Into School

Mrs. Alice Phernetton, of Washington yesterday sought to open the doors of the Romeo High School closed against her son Robert because of his alleged "Elvis Presley" type haircut.

Robert, 16, was denied admission Nov. 6 because he had failed to rid himself of the long locks, as ordered by Supt. of Schools T. C. Filippula. The Macomb County Circuit Court upheld the school's right to enforce such standards of grooming and dress as necessary for the educational process.

Filippula agreed yesterday to try and arrange a meeting with the board of education. He said he noted no difference in the youth's hair cut, however.

Acting on information that Muskegon Heights School Supt. W. R. Booker had said he would admit the youth with the haircut, Mrs. Phernetton tried there yesterday. Booker said today he advised Mrs. Phernetton to have her son comply with the Romeo haircut edict and return to classes there.

Last week Phernetton sought to enroll at the nearby Amont High School. Officials there turned him down, backing the Romeo School edict.

Wilson Clips Budding Army Wings

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Defense Wilson has clipped the sprouting air wings of the Army and forbidden it from operating longer range guided missiles than it now has.

Announcing his action late yesterday, Wilson said the Army and Air Force couldn't agree how they would divide up their duties and areas of control in the expanding guided missile and aviation fields.

His order limited the Army's aviation mission to providing "local mobility" for "small combat units and limited quantities of material."

All other airlift must be provided by the Air Force, which also was given "sole responsibility" for operating land-launched missiles of medium and long ranges.

The Pentagon left no doubt that the aim was to curb the Army's aviation ambitions. Deputy Secretary of Defense Reuben Robertson told newsmen the Army has been "enthusiastic about developing an Air Force of its own."

Asked whether the Army would be permitted to go ahead with previously announced plans for a much larger air arm than it now has, Robertson said: "We are not going to have a separate Air Force within the Army."

Wilson said his decision should end unnecessary duplication of efforts and make for better use of defense money voted by Congress. Robertson said President Eisenhower was generally familiar with the order and approved it without going into specific details.

The new order continued unchanged, despite frequently voiced Army hopes for an upward revision, a weight limit of 5,000 pounds for Army fixed wing aircraft.

The Army was given, for the first time, a 20,000-pound limit for helicopters. It has been working to get heavier helicopters capable of moving more troops.

Wilson told the Army that the Army now has enough airlift to move Army troops over long distances "in the light of currently approved strategic concepts."

The military services have stated that the strategic airlift is now sufficient to move no more than one division, with light equipment over a long distance.

The order specifically forbids the Army from developing or using airplanes capable of bombing or otherwise attacking enemy troops in a battle area. All close support must be provided by the Air Force.

Possibly the heaviest blow dealt by the Wilson order to Army efforts and expectations was contained in the injunction against any Army planning at this time to employ "any other missiles with ranges beyond 200 miles."

The Army, working with the Navy, has developed to an advanced stage the ballistic missile Jupiter which has a planned range of 1,500 miles.

There was some consolation for the Army in the award to it of primary responsibility to operate all anti-aircraft guided missiles. The Navy was left with the responsibility and authority to protect its ships with whatever guided missiles it develops or might borrow from any other service.

Boost in Dues Denied by UAW

Union Attacks Report as Nothing More Than Speculation

DETROIT (AP) — A published report that the United Auto Workers will boost the dues of its 1½ million members drew a firm denial from the union last night.

The union attacked the report as "nothing more than speculation in order to create a cheap headline."

UAW members now pay dues of $2.50 a month. The report said the UAW International Executive Board, meeting yesterday in Detroit, would propose an increase.

However, a statement from the union said a committee appointed at the last UAW convention to study the dues structure "has reached no conclusion and has made no recommendations."

UAW dues are among the lowest levied by major unions. In the event of a major strike, however, an automatic assessment of $3 more a month is made for a maximum of four months.

approved by the UAW convention next spring in Buffalo, N.Y.

The union reported last December its net worth amounted to $39,405,360. Its strike fund is now about 21 million dollars.

Dorsey Chokes, Dies in His Sleep

Va., and Thomas F. Dorsey 3rd, in the Navy stationed at Hawaii. His second marriage was to actress Pat Dane. His third wife, Janice, sued for divorce last month, charging intolerable cruelty.

NO CHURCH RITE

Dorsey was an Irish Catholic, but as a twice divorced person he cannot be buried in the church. Services will be held Thursday in the Walter Cook E. 72nd St. Funeral Home, New York City. Tommy will be buried beside his father in the hills of Shenandoah, Pa.

Some people will remember Dorsey for playing with his brother Jimmy in Paul Whiteman's band, later with Vincent Lopez, and in recent years again in a joint orchestra with Jimmy. Some will remember the unknown he made stars — Like Frank Sinatra, Jo Stafford and Connie Haines.

And some will remember how that sweet trombone used to sound wrapped around Tommy Dorsey's theme song, "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You."

In New York, according to show tradition, the fabulous Dorseys kept their engagement last night at the Cafe Rouge in the Statler Hotel.

The band formed by Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey played for the dancers and diners, and the Dorsey singers went through their routines.

They went on because they were told Tommy would have wanted it that way.

Trumpeter Lee Castle, who had been with Tommy since 1938, led the band. Jimmy was consoling his aged mother on the sudden death of Tommy.

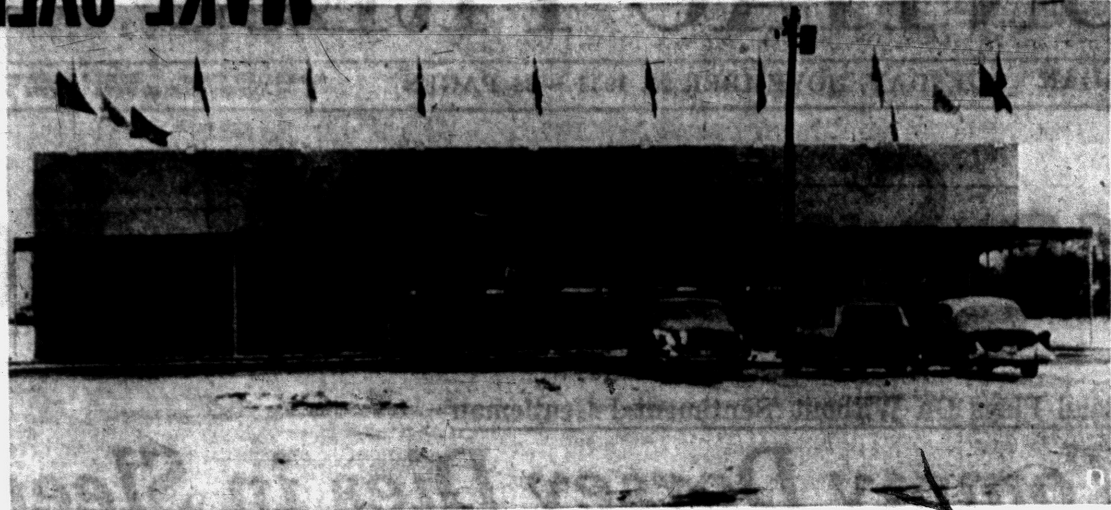

Castle said the entire company was shocked and didn't want to play. "But Tino Barzile (Tommy's personal manager) phoned from Greenwich and told us to go on because Tommy would have wanted it that way."

Skippy Caluccio, the elad alto sax, breezed in as usual for his night's stint without knowing Tommy was dead.

"He almost keeled over when I told him," Castle said.

Pretty vocalist Bobbi Cooke had been hired by Tommy only a couple of days ago. This was her very first night on the job and she didn't feel like going on.

But, like the others, Bobbi did her best, along with Tommy Mercer, who has been singing with the band for more than a year.

Treasury Announces Refinancing Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — The treasury announced today that $303,000,000 of an issue of government certificates due Dec. 1 will be redeemed for cash as part of a big refinancing move involving $9,083,000,000 of indebtedness.

It said holders of $8,580,000,000 of the maturing securities will exchange them for new issues of tax anticipation certificates due next June 24, or for regular certificates maturing next Oct. 1. Both of the new issues bear interest at 3½ per cent compared with 2½ per cent for the debt due Dec. 1.

The maturing certificates were issued a year ago. One treasury official has estimated the higher interest rate will cost the government about 50 million dollars. However, he said the higher rate is "a fair measure" of the general increase in interest rates during the last year.

33 Floats to Join Yule Parade

The biggest parade spectacle in Pontiac — the ninth annual za — is mounting in popularity as float entries have reached 33 and the number of bands 7, with the parade four days away.

If the Weatherman is good to Pontiac this year, Gerard A. Poehlman, executive director of the affair, estimated attendance would pass the 1955 rain-drenched crowd of 30,000.

The colorful floats entered by local churches and schools are expected to begin their march up Saginaw from Turk at 9:30 Saturday.

Fourteen schools are busily working over their floats which will be designed on a "Toyland Theme" selection. The remaining 19 floats will bear religious themes and will be entered by churches.

To kick-off the Christmas season in Pontiac, Santa Claus will be atop the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce float at the rear of the parade.

Added to the list of bands yesterday, which will provide the Christmas music Saturday, was that of Waterford Township High School. Other bands will be from the following high schools: Pontiac, Lake Orion, Avondale, a Wal-lake, Oxford, and the All-City Junior High band composed of 250 musicians.

C. of C. Executive Resigns to Head Inter-County Unit

The resignation of Gerard A. Poehlman as assistant manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce has been announced by John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Chamber.

Poehlman will become executive director of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee effective Monday.

Poehlman, 42, joined the Chamber June 18 after serving as assistant Oakland County prosecutor since November 1954. "It is with a great deal of regret that we see Gerry go," Hirlinger said when he heard of Poehlman's resignation.

STUDIES JOINT PROBLEMS — The Supervisors Inter-County Committee was established to study and make recommendations of joint problems concerning Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair, Washtenaw, and Wayne Counties.

Prior to his appointment as assistant prosecutor, the new appointee was associated with the Abstract and Title Guaranty Co. in Pontiac.

He was admitted to the Bar in

Clearance of Canal Sparks U.N. Revolt

ain and France to help in the clearance job and demanded that work not start until all British and French troops were out of Egypt. The British went ahead, however, and announced this week they had cleared a channel 140 feet wide for the northern 27 miles of the canal they hold. They said they would have it widened to 180 feet — sufficient to pass big ships — within a week.

Latin American and Asian delegates formed the bulk of the opposition to paying any percentages of the canal salvage costs.

It has been estimated that upwards of 40 million dollars will be required to clear the 47 ships and tow bridges reported sunk in the waterway.

The Assembly so far has only authorized Hammarskjold to work out the preliminary phases of the salvage job. He will have to submit an estimate of the cost to the Assembly.

JAPANESE BIDS

The secretary general already has consulted some Dutch and Danish salvage firms. It was also reported that Toshiyazu Kase, Japanese observer at the U.N., had talked with Hammarskjold about the possibility of Japanese firms entering bids.

Observers expected India's V. K. Krishna Menon would insist the bill be passed on to Britain, France and Israel when the Assembly learns the actual cost. In a lengthy speech to the Assembly last night, the roving Indian diplomat contended that the U.S. should not have to pay.

"If the United Nations is going to indemnify the aggressors, it will actually be underwriting aggression," he declared.

Rope Not Needed in This Roundup: Just Grab Halter

A stray horse that surprised residents of the Saginaw-Howard street area by clomping through back yards this morning was rounded up by two Pontiac police officers with nary a rope being circled o'er head, or a single ki-yi.

Shortly before 9 a.m. the switch-blazed with calls reporting the need of a roundup in their neighborhood.

Lt. Don Ashley and Officer Fred Favre made the capture at the intersection of the two streets. Just by walking up slowly and grabbing the halter. They had searched for 20 minutes.

Owner Homer Feneley, of 33 E. Howard St., said he had missed the mount, and was searching for it, too.

The Day in Birmingham

Downtown Building Plans Tangle Traffic and Taxis

BIRMINGHAM—Reported building plans at the McCall Investment Co. parking lot on South Woodward and a 3-3 commission vote have set aside any immediate decision on opening a right-turn lane on Merrill at the Woodward intersection.

Although cab company owners told the commission last night that they would not object to being moved across the street to near the private parking lot operated by the McCall company and a neighboring jewelry store, that idea was eliminated.

Charles Mortensen, of the Chamber of Commerce explained that plans are in talking stages for a building to stand on the lot, filling the retail space between the Briggs and Theater buildings.

Renowned for over a year, it was first concrete public report on the construction plan.

Commissioners tied, with only six present, on the issue of moving parking of cabs back from the corner 40 feet. Objectors felt such a move wouldn't solve the situation, since women shopping at the A&P at the corner would occupy the vacated space with their cars.

Commissioners had hoped to clear the lane for use as a right-turn lane, freeing the traffic block caused by long waits needed to turn left into the four-lane traffic.

Hearings were set for the Lambert Property rezoning question for Jan. 7, and for the Hunter-Oakland-Lawndale and Madison block question for the second Monday in February.

Purchase of two police cars from Floyd Rice, Inc., was approved since his bids were lower than local firms.

Order of a $800 installation of new valves in the city hall heating system was approved by commissioners.

The resolution asking the county drainage board to establish finally what lands are in the Twelve Towns Drain area, was passed by commissioners.

"There is an immediate need for a multiple use site for off-street parking and driver training," says Bennett Root, planning board chairman, in a communication to the city governing body.

He advised setting aside of about four acres of the 66-acre property north of the sewage treatment plant and near the high school for that purpose, but commissioners declined to act at once on the advice.

Root also reported that his group has been studying recreational designs of the property, along with recreation board members, and advised waiting on further plans for the large acreage until a recreational survey is completed.

"There is no immediate need indicated for recreational facilities for the remaining parts," he said. Revision of the zoning ordinance will be discussed again at the Planning Board meeting set for 8 p.m. tomorrow at the municipal building.

Death of Student Ruled as Suicide

NEW LONDON, Conn. (INS) — A socialite New York family's 18-year-old daughter, whose body was found in her Connecticut College dormitory room, was listed by authorities today as a suicide.

The victim was Margaret Kennedy, whose father, Moorhead C. Kennedy, is a New York banker and president of Goodwill Industries, a non-profit organization employing and training handicapped persons.

Miss Kennedy, a freshman, was found dead in her bed late yesterday by her roommate, Catherine Perutz, who had wondered about the girl's absence from morning classes.

Two bottles, which apparently contained sleeping pills, and a note were found in the girl's room.

Medical examiner Harold Irwin, listing Miss Kennedy's death as suicide, said the note "suggested she was depressed" but he refused to divulge its contents.

Scientists Blast Perpetual Youth Theory

Space Travel Won't Keep Us Young

NEW YORK (U) — Harvard University scientists today blasted the idea that you would stay younger aboard a spaceship than by staying home.

Such an idea is based on a misunderstanding of Einstein's special theory of relativity, they told the American Rocket Society.

Science fiction writers, some college teachers and others have proposed that space travel could give you a drink at an Einsteinian fountain of youth.

The suggestion has been that anyone traveling away from earth at high speed relative to the earth's speed would undergo slowing of his life processes.

So astronauts might return from a long trip actually younger than they would be if they had stayed home all that time. A man could return younger than his identical twin who had stayed home.

But this is a fallacy, William R. Brewster Jr., Harriet B. Brewster, Majic S. Pops and James P. Isaacs said in a formal report at the opening of the Rocket Society's 11th annual meeting.

Uniform motion relative to the earth would have no effect whatever on the rate of life processes, they declared.

An example cited for thinking space travel could slow down aging is this:

If a clock is moving at a certain speed relative to a clock at rest, it loses time, slows down. A human is a kind of clock. If one twin is at rest and the other is moving at high speed relative to him, the traveling twin would experience fewer heartbeats. He could return younger than the twin at rest.

The Harvard twin might see his brother whizz by in a space ship and observe that his brother's clock is running slow and that his heartbeats also are slow.

But this velocity is relative, not absolute, "and Einstein says the two frames of reference may be interchanged, and the calculation that was true for one system of reference will hold true for the other."

So the brother in the space ship, since he is moving uniformly and therefore cannot detect his own motion, may assume his ship to be at rest. He sees the earth whizz by and observes that the earth-bound brother's clock and heartbeats are slow.

When the twins get together again, they can have a nice discussion over who is older, Brewster said.

An average wage earner in the U.S. today lives to an age of 70 years as compared with 46 years in 1909.

Driver Is Arraigned in Death of Couple

Arraigned yesterday on manslaughter charges, John A. Killen, 24, of 986 Durant St., stood mute before Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland.

The charges stem from an auto accident Nov. 3 in Brandon Township after which an Ortonville couple died.

Killen's car reportedly smashed into the rear of one driven by Ernest Z. Mitchell, with his wife, Allie, 72.

Judge Holland, who set no trial date for Killen, entered a plea of innocent for him and continued his bond of $1,500.

Rep. Alvin Bentley (R-Mich) to Aid Hungarians

HONOLULU (U) — Rep. Alvin Bentley (R-Mich) says he has written President Eisenhower urging the United Nations to approve a plan to send "volunteers" from free nations to help the Hungarian rebels.

Bentley, a former U.S. diplomat in Budapest, said he also sent U.N. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge his proposal, suggesting the volunteers include "nurses, aides and even soldiers."

Bentley is a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Rochester Council Approves Parking Bond Sale

Village Endorses Plan for $100,000 Project

ROCHESTER — The Village Council last night authorized the sale of $100,000 in revenue bonds to finance the Rochester Automobile Parking system.

The bond sale has to be approved yet by the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission.

The 28-page report was presented last night by Village Attorney Roscoe Martin and was read in full. Council members voted unanimously to pass the measure.

The final survey and recommendations have been made previously given by T. M. Vanderstempel, traffic engineer.

The plan includes purchase of the proposed parking lot between Fourth and Fifth street east of Main street, and also metering of a new lot.

It will be the second lot, but the present lot—now being used—is not metered yet. It is at the corner of East street and Fifth street.

The Vanderstempel survey showed that people use the Walnut street strip, a block west of the present lot.

The property, for which the village has options, still has homes standing upon it.

James McCarthy of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. presented last night at the Council meeting his firm's proposed increased rate schedule, which was tabled until Dec. 10 by the council.

He was asked by Councilman John Dahlman if the raise was necessary, and McCarthy said it was to meet increased expenses.

Ex-Senator Nowak Faces Ouster as Red

DETROIT — Former State Sen. Stanley Nowak of Detroit and Mrs. Rebecca Maisenberg, a Detroit dress shop operator, faced deportation to their native countries today for once concealing their membership in the Communist party.

The U. S. District Court of Appeals in Cincinnati yesterday denied appeals through which the two sought to regain their United States citizenship. In so doing, the court upheld Federal District Judge Frank A. Picard, who ordered them denaturalized in 1955.

Nowak, a native of Poland, and the Russian-born Mrs. Maisenberg, are accused by the federal government of concealing their party membership when they became citizens in 1938.

Louis F. Budenz, former editor of the Communist Daily Worker, testified in court that Nowak had been "a valuable party member" even while serving in the Michigan State Senate from 1938 to 1948.

Orion School Being Groomed for January Use

LAKE ORION — Aiming for partial January completion, the board of education is directing work on the new Lake Orion School building.

Ground has been leveled so that landscaping can be completed in the spring.

Glass is installed throughout so that work indoors can progress. Heat and plumbing installation is near completion, so that sections will be in readiness for use in January.

A spring-air floor has been chosen for the gym floor by the board. The new type of flooring has huge springs, numbering in about 1,000 and is guaranteed for 80 years.

Exposed beams are part of the architectural style of the building, and long straight surfaces are being painted a soft platinum color, with charcoal on the corners for an unbroken-line effect.

Priest Fights for Life at Soo as Parish Prays

FARMINGTON — While the Rev. Fr. John Dunn lies in critical condition in Sault Ste. Marie War Memorial Hospital following a Sunday morning car accident, members of his parish here are praying for his recovery.

Fr. Dunn, on a hunting trip in the Upper Peninsula was driving to a Trout Lake church to say mass when his car skidded on icy pavement on U. S. 2 Highway and collided with a snowplow.

His injuries included both legs broken and a crushed chest in the 8 a.m. Sunday accident.
