2 Youths Trace Hit-Run Driver

Avon Township Man Jailed for Leaving Scene of Accident

Alertness of two 15-year-old Avon Township boys was credited today for the capture of an admitted hit-run driver who struck their companion.

Floyd Gray, 48, of 2780 Dearborn St., Avon Township, is in jail today charged with leaving the scene of an injury accident.

Gray's victim, 15-year-old John Allen Baggett, of Millard street, Avon Township, is in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital with a compound fracture of the leg.

According to witnesses David Reagan and Larry Gronski, the car allegedly driven by Gray struck Baggett from behind as the three boys were walking along Auburn road near Crooks road last night. The impact, they said, threw him into the field to the right of the road and ripped both his shoes off.

The car slowed down, they said, and drove off.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies Wilson Gardner and Gordon Misenar contacted the two boys and then drove to the hospital to see the victim.

While there, they said, the boys called to say they had seen the hit-run car again, and had taken its license number.

Gardner and Misenar arrested Gray at his house, where he admitted he had driven the car which hit John, and had left the scene after the accident.

"I don't know why I did it," he told the deputies. "Why would a man do a thing like that?"

President Plans to Meet Press on Wednesday

Second Term Decision Could Come During His 10:30 A.M. Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will hold a news conference at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow—his regular hour for meeting the press.

White House Secretary James C. Hagerty said he "wouldn't know" whether Eisenhower will announce his second term intentions at that time.

Hagerty also told reporters he did not know whether Eisenhower planned to make a radio and television appearance later tomorrow.

That is a step the President is generally expected to take after any announcement of a decision on the second term question.

Asked if there was any plan at present to ask for such broadcast time, Hagerty said: "I haven't any comment on that at all."

The press secretary said in reply to further questions there are no plans for Eisenhower to hold a second news conference tomorrow.

This question was prompted by speculation that Eisenhower might hold up any announcement on the big question until after the 3:30 p.m. closing of the New York Stock Exchange.

He has expressed concern in the past over market fluctuations stemming from his heart attack and related developments.

Hagerty was asked whether the market situation was taken into consideration in setting the hour of tomorrow's news conference at 10:30. A reporter said this might be taken as a hint that the President would announce he planned to run again.

"I wouldn't know," Hagerty replied. He said 10:30 a.m. "is the regular time for our press conference."

A newsman asked if there were any plans for a "live" telecast of the news conference.

Hagerty said there would be no such telecasts at any time—past, present or future.

In reply to further questions, Hagerty said he didn't know whether tomorrow's news conference would open with a prepared statement by Eisenhower or how long the normally half-hour meeting with reporters might last.

Steel Train Ripped Open in Crash

DEATHS MAY REACH 20 — A stainless steel Boston and Maine diesel train is ripped as though by a giant can opener in collision with a standing B. & M. train this morning in Swampscott, a North Boston suburb.

Massachusetts Wreck Injures Many Critically

Boston & Maine Road Commuter Plows Into Standing Cars

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. (AP)—Two Boston & Maine Railroad trains, laden with morning commuters, collided here today.

Between 14 and 20 are believed dead.

Scores were injured, many of them critically.

An estimated 1,000 passengers were aboard the trains.

A Danvers to Boston four car stainless steel train plowed into a standing Portsmouth, N. H., to Boston train. Most of the dead were in the Danvers train which left Salem shortly before.

The first car of the Danvers train was split open by the crash which crumpled the rear of the Portsmouth train.

The injured were rushed to hospitals in the vicinity as ambulances and doctors were hastily summoned. Priests rushed to the scene and later to hospitals to administer rites of the Catholic Church.

Heavy snow was falling as the crash occurred.

It was not known immediately why the Portsmouth train was halted.

A huge moving van was driven down beside the tracks and the bodies were placed in there. Catholic priests climbed aboard to administer the last rites of the church.

Don Flynn of the Lynn Daily Item said most of the dead he saw were badly mangled. Most of them were men.

MANY STUDENTS

The trains carried a high proportion of college students, many of them bound for Boston institutions and others for Burdette College, a business school, in Lynn.

Books, brief cases and lunch boxes were scattered a half mile along the tracks. Train seats were tossed helter skelter.

Police Capt. John Costin, on duty at Swampscott Police Station, received the first call about the crash a little before 8 a.m. He telephoned all neighboring communities for ambulances and rescue wagons, and also notified state police.

Within 15 minutes some 15 towns—including Marblehead, Salem, Saugus and Nahant—responded with ambulances and fire department emergency squads.

BY OPEN FIELD

The crash scene, a half mile from Swampscott Station, is beside an open field. This made the wind and snow more cutting.

Some 100 to 150 of the less seriously hurt passengers took shelter in nearby homes.

Reporter Flynn said the first car of the self-propelled Danvers train was "laid open like an open wound." One half of its length, he said, was completely ripped off and the other half "opened like a watermelon."

"There was a terrific crash and all hell broke loose," said a passenger, Joseph Cappuccio, 23, of Salem, a Northeastern University senior. He said the collision was preceded by a "long whistle from the rear."

EYEWITNESS STORY

The family of Mrs. Warren McCann lives within a short distance of the spot where the collision occurred.

Here is Mrs. McCann's story: "I was looking out the back window of our home, which is about 50 feet from the tracks, when I heard what sounded like a terrible rumble—building up and building up into an awful sound."

"Actually the sound seemed to come from underneath—like an explosion of some kind."

"Then came the loud crack of the collision, and then silence."

"People started to stream out of the cars of both trains. It was a terrible sight. I guess I just stood there dumbfounded while my son, Paul, 16, ran out to the scene."

RAN ONTO TRACKS

Paul McCann said: "As soon as the sound of the ripping trains died away, I ran onto the tracks."

"In order to get around to the other side of the trains I went (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Hearings Open Today on State Milk Price Boost

DETROIT (AP)—The Federal Agricultural Marketing Service opens hearings today on a request from the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. (MMPA) for a more than penny-a-quart increase in milk prices paid to dairy farmers. Officials of the Fair Share Bargaining Assn. (FSBA) said they would attend.

Yesterday, the FSBA threatened to picket creameries here to enforce demands for higher prices.

Brengle said picketing would be on a "step by step" basis. No attempt would be made to shut off the Detroit area's entire milk supply, he said. No date was set for picketing.

PICKET THREAT

The threat of picket lines came after officials of the 62 creameries who sell milk in Detroit, Pontiac, Port Huron, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Mt. Clemens and the surrounding areas ignored a bargaining session called by the Fair Share group.

Eleven creameries were reported, however, to have indicated by telephone to the FSBA that they would be willing to talk prices.

Brengle said dairy farmers now get an average of $3.72 a hundred-weight for milk, or about 8 cents a quart. They are demanding $4.72 a hundred-weight, or 10.3 cents a quart.

Milk in Detroit retails for 21½ cents a quart at the stores and 22½ cents delivered.

The MMPA has asked the agricultural marketing service to boost the price differential of drinking milk to $1.85 above milk which goes to manufacturing plants. The farms the length of eastern Michigan present differential is $1.43. The gain from Lenawee County on the increase would be effective only in Ohio line-to Presque Isle County, state summer, fall and early winter, north of Alpena.

ter, the relatively dry period of the dairy business.

Samuel T. Angott, president of the Detroit Milk Dealers Assn., said of the FSBA's picket line threat: "I don't know whether the group has the power to carry out their ideas or not. We will deal with the situation when it comes."

Detroit's milk suppliers operate goes to manufacturing plants. The farms the length of eastern Michigan present differential is $1.43. The gain from Lenawee County on the increase would be effective only in Ohio line-to Presque Isle County, state summer, fall and early winter, north of Alpena.

50-YEAR-CAREER

Miss Janis spent nearly 50 years on the stage and in films. Her last few years were spent fighting illness.

ENTERTAINED Gals

During World War I she was the "Sweetheart of the AEF," appearing in hazardous advanced areas to entertain troops.

Her service to soldiers was repeated in World War II.

On Broadway she was a hit in "The Vanderbilt Cup," "The Fair Coed," "The Slim Princess," and other productions. Her films included "Close Harmony," for which she wrote the original story, and "Dark Victory," for which she wrote one of the songs, with Edmund Goulding, titled "Give Me Time for Tenderness."

Big 3 Reportedly Agree on Middle East Program

LONDON —The Big Three Western Powers today were reported agreed on the main lines of military action they would take against any nation starting a new Arab-Israeli war.

A British informant said the exact details still are being worked out by diplomats and staff officers of the United States, Britain and France in Washington. But Western action in an emergency, he asserted, would be swift and effective.

NO COMMENT

The Foreign Office refused to comment on the report. Officials said, however, the British and French ambassadors in Washington will meet again soon with State Department leaders to continue a study of the problem.

The United States and Britain already have begun a show of their naval strength in sight of the disputing parties in the eastern Mediterranean.

Current or planned naval moves in that area suggest that Western sea and air power would be used initially if large-scale fighting broke out between Israel and her Arab neighbors. The informant said present arrangements call for dispatch of land forces to a battle zone only as a last resort and after consultations with the United Nations.

German Couple to Live in State

Pair Finds New Home in Western Michigan After Daughter's Death

NEW YORK —A German couple was en route to Michigan today to make their home at Watervliet, where their daughter lived as an exchange student for a year before she died.

Erich Luedtke, 55, and his wife, Margaret, 56, arrived on the liner America yesterday and were met by the Rev. Emerson Minor, a Watervliet Methodist minister, and Mrs. Minor.

The Minors were hosts to the Luedtkes' daughter, Elfi, an exchange student at Watervliet High School in 1933 and until May, 1934, when she was stricken by leukemia. Miss Luedtke was flown home to Germany with a nurse and died six weeks later in Dusseldorf.

An exchange of correspondence followed between Luedtke, a hotel head waiter at Dusseldorf, and the Rev. Mr. Minor. Luedtke told how the Communists had ousted him and his wife from their Berlin home. The minister succeeded in getting Luedtke the promise of a job from a battery equipment manufacturing firm in Watervliet.

The Luedtkes are scheduled to arrive in South Bend, Ind., by train tomorrow and drive to Watervliet, a community of 1,327 off the Lake Michigan shore some 12 miles northeast of Benton Harbor. And when they reach Watervliet, the Luedtkes will find an apartment waiting, furnished by the Rev. Mr. Minor's Methodist Church and residents of the community.

Musicians Trying to Upset Petrillo

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Los Angeles musicians today threatened a major revolt against the long reign of James C. Petrillo as president of the American Federation of Musicians.

Some 2,800 members of Local 47 met angrily last night to suspend John Tegenro, a Petrillo supporter, as president of the 15,000-member local. They apparently were readying an all-out battle with the Petrillo group for control of millions of dollars in a trust fund designed to provide employment for musicians in charity concerts and other benefits.

Sewage Disposal Plant Approval Is Withdrawn

Waterford Township Board with drew temporary approval of the sewage disposal plant proposed for Watkins Hills and Smoker subdivisions last night.

This action was taken, according to the resolution, to permit further study of the sewage disposal plant problem.

Supervisor Lloyd Anderson reported he was in Lansing last week and discussed the proposed disposal plant plan for an area south of Pontiac Lake road near Crescent Lake Estates with the Michigan Health Department.

He discovered then, he said, that the proposed plant was to be an open pit type, which he considers undesirable for the proposed location. He said there was danger of odors from such a plant.

Last week state health department officials flew over the township area with Anderson. Following the flight, the group agreed on an area located off Lockhaven road near Hartland road as the only desirable location for an open pit plant.

The board emphasized that sewage disposal plants of any type are to be used only until the proposed Farmington Interceptor is placed in operation.

The open pit plant recommended by the health department, would serve approximately three subdivisions. Builders of such areas would have to share the expense of construction, Anderson explained.

Before construction of any disposal plant, Anderson pointed out that it must be approved by three units, namely, the state health department, Water Resources Commission and the township board.

Two weeks ago, approximately 150 persons representing the Crescent Lake area appeared before the board, objecting to the proposed disposal plant being located south of Pontiac Lake Road.

France Pushes Algerian Plan

Step-Up Military Action in North African Strife Is Government Aim

PARIS —Premier Guy Mollet's government today pushed a sweeping new plan to step up military action against rebellious Algerian nationalists.

The aim is to restore peace as a prelude to promised broad reforms in the revolt-torn North African territory.

Approved by Mollet's cabinet at a marathon session, the new plan will be submitted today to the nation's top military advisers, the National Security Council. Later it will go to the National Assembly for endorsement.

The plan reportedly would send at least 20,000 more French soldiers to Algeria, swelling the French fighting forces in North Africa to 350,000 men. Government sources said the expanded Algerian campaign would cost about 540 million dollars beyond the normal French military budget of about 24 billion dollars for 1956.

Mollet also will ask the Assembly for wide military, political and economic powers to cope with the 17-month-old rebellion.

The Day in Birmingham

Eton Widening Subject of Commission Debate

BIRMINGHAM — Widening of the present 18-foot pavement on Eton road, a much-traveled street on the city's eastern edge, to a 41-foot wide roadway from Lincoln and Yosemite was the subject of long debate at last night's city commission meeting.

Commissioners heard discussion from a number of residents in a meeting which, with parking lot, annexation, and other details stretched to 11:30, when several items were continued to another date so that the commission could adjourn.

Eton road would be paved with funds from a special assessment district, which was considered last night. Parallel parking would be allowed on the east of the three-lane street, with industrial users needing the extra lane for turning, according to City Manager D. C. Egbert's report.

Costs would be split, so that residential property owners would not be assessed for the extra depth of concrete needed and the extra lane for industrial use. West side of the street owners would pay, according to Egbert's summary, $11,335 for paving, except for the city's 25 per cent. Industrial share of $29,845 would be paid, 15 per cent by the city, and 85 per cent by the industries. The project is expected to total $41,800.

More study by the city manager and the chief of police was requested as the commission tabled the resolution on Eton for three weeks.

Willis street widening and paving from Bates to Chester was approved, but Webster Cross-Over through Hunter boulevard was discussed but put off to be included with other traffic problems on the highway under current study.

The curve of Park street as it enters Hamilton was discussed again, with the property owners on either side, John Gaffill and Mrs. R. C. Chenault questioning whose property should give up the needed road area. The engineer and manager will study the matter further.

RECONSIDER PARKING —Parking Lot 3-A was reconsidered, and its necessity voted, without the Bany or Kassaban properties being included. The owners of the Bany store on Willis and the Kassaban land on Woodward near the Congregational Church asked to be in the levy but commissioners disagreed.

Parking on Maple, and the finance study for the parking lots were the items held over for lack of time, since they have in the past been subjects for long study sessions for the commission.

Candidates for commission and library board posts have filed their petitions to be placed on the April 2 ballot.

Mayor Charles Renfrew, on the commission since appointed to fulfill a term in September of 1951, and who has been mayor for two years, will run against three who have not served on the commission, Carl F. Ingraham, Donald K. Fill and Omar Hansen. Ingraham is on the planning board. There are two three-year terms open.

Dr. Dwight D. Ireland, Superintendent of Schools, and Cassius Miller are the only ones running for the two posts on the library unit. Both are incumbents.

John Krasnick, Birmingham Drug Store's owner, was fined $7,500 in Federal Court in Detroit Monday, after pleading guilty to evading the Federal Excise Tax on cosmetics. U.S. Attorneys said he still was liable to a civil suit for alleged evasion of $10,000 in taxes over a ten-year period from 1943 to 1953.

Negro Coed Goes to Court Tomorrow

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. —Autherine Lucy, the University of Alabama's first Negro student, to tomorrow seeks a federal court order returning her to the campus from which she was driven by an angry mob.

The 26-year-old Birmingham woman, university officials and other subpoenaed witnesses were called before U.S. Dist. Judge Hobart Grooms for a hearing at 10 a.m.

The University Board of Trustees said they excluded Miss Lucy for reasons of safety Feb. 6.

Tourist spending in Haiti last year hit $5,000,000 by 55,007 visitors.

Sees Vote Bait in Farm Battle

Administration Fighting to Win Cotton States, Says Senator

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today "the administration is holding out some bait" to try to win votes of cotton state senators in the close Senate battle over farm price supports.

The bait, he said in an interview, apparently will take two forms — support for legislation which would prevent further cuts in cotton acreage and an announcement expected soon that cotton prices will be supported around 87 per cent of parity in 1956.

Asked "if this might win some Southern senators away from price supports fixed at 90 per cent, which they traditionally have backed, Ellender replied:

"I don't know. But if they make the bait attractive enough, some might be tempted."

He added, however, that "some senators don't like these side deals."

There was no immediate comment from Republican backers of the administration's system of flexible price supports, which on cotton and other basic crops may range between 75 and 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a legal standard said to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

For Cancer Victim, 14,

Returning From Hospital, Mother Offers Prayers

"I just thank God that I still have my boy," said the mother of a cancer victim, 14, whose right leg was amputated Thursday.

Only son of Mrs. Selma Thoun, 34, of 1032 Arline St., the boy, Gary, made the sacrifice in order to halt the spread of a malignant bone cancer.

Mrs. Thoun, home yesterday from Ann Arbor for the first time since the operation was performed by specialists of the university of Michigan Hospital, said:

"Gary's been an angel. The doctors say he's doing fine."

The athletic and husky ninth-grade student at Lincoln Junior High School had his leg removed at the hip, his mother said. "But he took his loss like a man. I explained that the doctors thought it was the only way to save his life."

"He'll have to go back for check-ups for five years. And he'll have to learn how to use an artificial leg. But that's in the future. Right now, I want him to get better and come home."

A number of donations were reported sent by sympathizers to Pontiac Motor Division Plant No. Nine, where Mrs. Thoun is an office worker.

A fellow-employee, Robert Gardner, of 551 DeSota Pl., offered his home as a center for contributions from anyone wishing to help the woman meet expenses of Gary's treatment. His telephone number is FE 4-1382.

Men, Millinery Must Share Gals' Homage

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
NEW YORK (INS) — It is with heartfelt foreboding that I report tomorrow is not only the day for leaping, as decorously as possible, at males; it is also, by official proclamation of the mayor of New York, "Millinery Day."

This means that men and hats go on the block simultaneously, and that women are in for a devil of a problem.

Trying to pin both a hat and a man down in the same 24-hour span is a feat to be compared with whistling while munching on soda crackers. It can be done, by persons of keen concentration and dexterous mouth muscles, but the accomplishment is scarcely worth the effort.

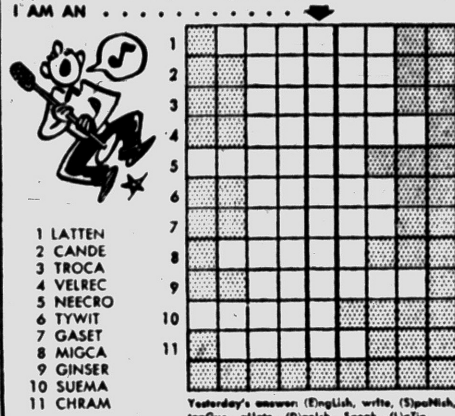

The cracker is poorly digested, if at all, and the whistle is of inferior sibilance.

So it is with man and hats. To attempt to honor (and snatch up) both at one and the same time is to split the energies recklessly and probably with poor results. You are likely to get indigestion and rum your whistling potential permanently.

"You may be right," conceded a Year Day, when women will probably be out scouting around. But Billionization Bureau, "our timing was really, the hats this year are woefully planned. Forgot about Leap derful. They're bigger than ever!"

Convict-Author to Appeal Again

Caryl Chessman Fights Eight-Year-Old Death Decree in San Quentin

SAN FRANCISCO (U) — Condemned convict-author Caryl Chessman has another chance to appeal the death sentence which has hung over him for nearly eight years.

Chief Judge William Denman of the U.S. Court of Appeals yesterday granted Chessman a "certificate of probable cause" to appeal to the court against Dist. Judge Louis E. Goodman's decision on Jan. 31. Goodman refused Chessman a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Denman said the new appeal would be entertained solely on grounds of Chessman's contention that he was denied proper representation in Los Angeles Superior Court in April 1949, when his trial transcript was approved.

Chessman was convicted in May 1948 and sentenced to death for kidnapping, sex perversion and attempted rape and robbery.

He has written two books, including the best-selling "Cell 2455, Death Row."

Undiluted Bitter Brew Sickens 10 Teenagers

KANSAS CITY (U) — Girls being initiated into the Aristonian Literary Society at Central High School here must sip a bitter fluid. It's part of an old custom symbolizing the bitter and the sweet.

Ten teenage girls gulped their bitter potions during a ceremony the other day—and promptly became ill.

School officials said someone got to dilute the potassium solution they used.

One girl was hospitalized overnight, but all are recovering.

Youngster, 6, Has Ideal Party With No Girls

BURBANK, Calif. (U) — Pat Coyle celebrated his sixth birthday with the kind of party 6-year-olds like. No girls.

If any of Pat's girl friends wonder why they didn't get invitations they need not feel slighted. None of Pat's boy friends came, either. The only guests were firemen. The party was held in station 4, near Pat's home, and Capt. Charles O. Anderson, in charge of the A shift, arranged it after he heard that was what Pat wanted most.

There were a few idle minutes for Pat when he was left alone as the firemen rushed off to a false alarm, but they came back to help him eat the ice cream and cake.

Pat is wondering if some of those spiteful girls turned in that alarm, just to get even.

Train of Tomorrow Takes to the Rails

NEW YORK (U) — The Pennsylvania Rail Road's speedy new Aerotrain has breezed through its first regularly scheduled round trip between here and Pittsburgh.

The low-slung, nine-car lightweight train hit speeds of 100 m.p.h. on the 878-mile trip, finishing a few minutes ahead of schedule at both ends of the run yesterday.

Dubbed "The Train of Tomorrow," the Aerotrain met with several minor mishaps on its inaugural run Sunday and was sidetracked at Philadelphia for repairs. The coupling between the first car and the locomotive had loosened.

"It looks like most everything has been ironed out now," a railroad spokesman said in Pittsburgh.

Hungry Bovine Feasts on Convertible Top

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla. (U) — Mrs. Mickey Tondakos needs a new top for her convertible.

A cow chewed it up while the car was parked in a lot.

The cow suffered no pain, Mrs. Tondakos' insurance company said it will pay for a new top although the case was something of a precedent.

That's more, I guess, than can be said for men.

"The new millinery models are as elegant as you've ever seen them. Wait till women see the fabrics—silk, soft, and yet extremely long-wearing!"

That's certainly more than can be said for men.

"And the shapes—gee, terrific. Some of them are small and jaunty, and some stand tall and upright and proud: Statuesque, you might call them. Of course there will always be the fine traditional silhouette, the straightforward, all-business sailor."

They don't hardly make those in men anymore.

WON'T BLOW AWAY

"Some of the hats are old-fashioned. You can even tie them on, so they won't blow away."

They certainly don't make those in men anymore.

"When you go out strolling in the parade next Easter, you can have almost anything you want to wear on your head. Whatever style smart, casual—you know it'll complement your wardrobe."

Men never compliment my wardrobe.

"And believe it or not, costs haven't gone up. No matter what style hat you choose, I almost guarantee the price won't be too high. A good hat will never leave you flat."

All I can say after that last remark is this:

Ladies, on this ominous day when we pay combined homage to men and millinery, expend your energies on one or the other. Both

Canada Forbids Planes to Annoy Scarce Cranes

OTTAWA (AP)—Whooping cranes will be protected by a ban on low flying planes over their nesting grounds in the Northwest Territories.

The Northern Affairs Department has announced that a Transport Department order effective April 1 forbids planes to fly lower than 2,000 feet over nesting grounds in Wood Buffalo National Park or land within the area.

The whooping crane, one of North America's most beautiful birds, has been close to extinction. Their present recorded number—28—is the highest in recent years, but their survival chances are still regarded as critical.

About two-thirds of the crane's nesting grounds lie within Wood Buffalo Park, a vast wilderness of lakes, forest and bush straddling the Alberta-territories boundary. The protected area covers 2,250 square miles, one-seventh the area of the park.

The flying ban will remain in force annually from April 1 to Oct. 15, the period covering the bird's residence in Canada.

Brotherhood in Action

From neighboring Oak Park has come indisputable proof that the spirit of Brotherhood Week abides in that rapidly growing city.

On February 17 fire destroyed the Catholic Church of Our Lady of Fatima. This was a crushing disaster for the parish, as the $250,000 edifice was protected by only $136,000 insurance. Nonetheless, the parishioners lost no time in deciding to rebuild.

What they weren't prepared for during celebration of Brotherhood Week, just ended, was the spontaneous movement of Protestants and Jews to help them rebuild. Before Fr. GEORGE B. PARZYCH realized what was happening, contributions were pouring into the rectory from them, as well as from members of his own faith.

Overwhelmed by this unexpected help, Fr. PARZYCH said "there aren't words to express the gratefulness of myself and my parishioners." The spirit of the community also was lauded by Rabbi FRANK F. ROSENTHAL, of Temple Emanu-El and Rev. JESSE R. DEWITT, pastor of Faith Methodist Church. Only last week Rev. DEWITT received a brotherhood award from a Jewish organization.

It is inspiring to know that for our Oak Park neighbors who are 40 per cent Jewish, 30 per cent Catholic and 30 per cent Protestant, brotherhood means action as well as belief.

Voters Urged to O.K. City's Parking Plan

Some sound advice has been offered voluntarily to Pontiac voters for use in the March 5 primary.

It came by wire from GEORGE E. BEAN, former city manager here. He urges voters to approve the City parking program which will provide 624 additional parking stalls.

Now city manager of Peoria, Ill., Mr. BEAN has no ax to grind. He merely has a friendly interest in the welfare of Pontiac. Far more than most former residents, he realizes how important to the local economy is the addition of these parking spaces.

The incontrovertible fact is that the only issue is the urgent need for more parking facilities. As Mr. BEAN put it, it is a matter of sustaining "the recent gains in civic improvement."

Even the false issue of increased taxes has disappeared. The $600,000 worth of revenue bonds needed to finance this project will be paid off entirely with money received from the parking meters. The question that will confront every voter at the polls March 5 is—

Do you want more five cent municipal parking?

Fire Hall No. 5 Assured

Pontiac's West Side now has official indication that it is to have long needed additional fire protection.

This came when the City Commission approved a contract with Architect LEO J. HEENAN for the design of a new fire station at West Huron and Genesee Streets.

While the project is still in the planning stage, it is a part of the City's 1956 capital improvement program. Present intentions are to erect a bungalow type structure that will harmonize with other buildings in the neighborhood.

Accommodations will be provided for the two 12-man crews needed to operate the station. Motorized equipment will include a pumper and an aerial ladder truck. City Manager WILLMAN says details of the plan are being worked out by Fire Chief SCHROEDER and the architect.

The new station will be Number 5. Others, besides the Central Station on East Pike Street, are located on Wilson Avenue, Close Street and Montcalm Street.

When the new station is ready, the residents of the ever growing area it is to serve will have even better and faster protection against fire than they now have.

It is becoming increasingly stylish or faddish to poke fun at intellectuals. If you know something, be careful about divulging it, lest you be called an egghead.

SOMETHING we've wondered about now and then for many years is why no two restaurants make coffee that tastes the same.

The Man About Town

Yes, Ike Will Run

High Political Figure, Very Close to Him, Says He Will

Social Swim: What it takes more cash than splash to keep in:

On Nov. 7 this column announced that close personal friends of President Dwight D. Eisenhower had given me the information that he again would seek the office. Today I have confirmation from the same source that he has not changed his mind. While I am not at liberty to divulge the source of this information, I can say that it comes from a name high in the political life of our nation—so high that I am in almost daily contact with him, although the public does not know it. In fact, it is so high that this man may be named by Eisenhower as Secretary of State next January if he is again elected and John Foster Dulles wishes to retire. From the same source comes the information that Ike will not dictate to the convention as to his choice of a running mate, but will tell them that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is agreeable to him. Yes, Ike will run.

Man About Town never will forget his interview with Charles F. (Boss) Kettering at the Miami Motorama. Director and chief research consultant for General Motors, and now in his eightieth year, he said, "Men of our age no longer are living on borrowed time. We are living on time that science has created for us."

Now the great northern snowy owl has been added to the wild life of Oakland County. According to Marcellus Densmore, who lives near there, one has frequently been seen this winter in the Ortonville state park. It is the largest of the owl family, a native of the Arctic region, and heretofore quite unknown this far south.

The Pontiac City army draft board is asked for 14 men, and the out-county board for 23 men as their March quota, the induction date being March 1.

One of the local indications of an early spring is a caterpillar found by

Marlin Salo, the nine year old son of

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Salo of Twin Beach. It was quite lively in spite of the frigid weather.

Now president of the National Old Line Insurance Company of Little Rock, Ark.

W. E. Darby formerly was employed in the office of The Pontiac Press.

Word comes to me from Harold L. Pocklington, Executive Director of Leader Dogs for the Blind at Rochester, that they are experiencing a shortage of dogs for training. If you have a dog suitable to be trained for a companion for some blind person, write him. This is a non-profit organization that is doing a grand work.

Presaging Another Olympic Victory?

David Lawrence Says:

Dulles Faces Barrage of Criticism as 'Man With the Impossible Job'

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles may become known as "the man with the impossible job."

Whatever Mr. Dulles says is subject to criticism that goes to extremes—either that he has too firm a policy, or too weak a policy, or no policy at all. The favorite comment of his critics is that "we are losing Asia" or that "we are losing the world." The world seems to be regularly "lost" in January but regained in June when Congress votes billions of dollars to aid allies, some of whom have been in the cold for years.

But the truth is that the world situation today is made in large part by the Kremlin.

The Russians, of course, don't tell Dulles in advance the steps they intend to take or how they are executing them. He is also confused by the speeches made by partisan critics—most of them Democrats who consider an election year a good time for sniping.

The average American knows very little about what these confusing crosscurrents of criticism mean and what motivates them. All he reads is that the Secretary of State has been traveling tens of thousands of miles by airplane around the world and seems to be about the most indefatigable Secretary of State the nation has ever had—but still his services are apparently unsatisfactory, at least to the Democrats.

Some of the members of Congress are conscientious about wanting an exposition of foreign policy for their background. Others show by their speeches and comments that what they are seeking is campaign publicity, and they would just as soon say derogatory things about their own government if it helps to support a charge of alleged incompetence against the Secretary of State.

It is so easy for members of Congress to disparage the efforts of the United States Government abroad, though the speeches profess to be attacking only the Republican party.

ACCUSED, ASSAILED

If the Secretary of State refers to the "deterrent force" built up by the United States, then he is accused of going to "the brink of war." When he points out that little wars might mean big wars, and that atomic weapons might have to be used in small wars, he is immediately assailed as creating a bad impression "on the peoples of Asia."

But when the Secretary of the Air Force answers a question at a public meeting and says America may have to use atomic weapons in little wars to prevent them from becoming big wars—as he said last week—it scarcely gets attention.

So the lot of a Secretary of State is a difficult one, and the average American will have to form his own judgment. He can do so by reading such a well-reasoned address as Mr. Dulles gave last Sunday. The Secretary doesn't say the change in tactics by the Soviets necessarily means peace. He doesn't say the Soviet power has crumbled. On the contrary, he shows that the Communists now are trying an even more devious method because they have been blocked in military aggression. He says:

"The extra 250 to 500 calories are best supplied by one or two glasses of milk—a glass at bedtime in the early months; an additional glass at any other time of day in the later months."

The expectant mother doesn't need extra calories so much as extra vitamins and minerals for that new citizen who is coming along.

NEED VITAMINS

From a great deal of research in recent years and the recommendations of nutrition authorities, there is now available in a single dietary supplement every vitamin and mineral element for which there is a known requirement in pregnancy and lactation, namely calcium, iron, vitamin A, thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, vitamin C, vitamin D and the intrinsic factor of vitamin B.

A frequent question is whether an expectant mother can limit the size of her baby and, presumably, make delivery easy, by restricting her diet to a minimum.

The answer is no. The baby will grow to normal size anyway. But the expectant mother may seriously impair her own vite and good looks by such fool dieting.

EAT FOR 2?

Should an expectant mother "eat for two?" In quality, yes, but not necessarily in quantity. She needs, say 250 to 300 more calories daily than she needed before she became pregnant, to maintain normal weight.

The extra 250 to 500 calories are best supplied by one or two glasses of milk—a glass at bedtime in the early months; an additional glass at any other time of day in the later months.

The third rule consists of learning the medico-psychology of the bedroom, for that's where most of our divorces really start.

Fourth, learn how to operate your home on a budget.

If your bride is a normally intelligent girl with some experience in earning her own livelihood and in budgeting her own pay check, then make her the treasurer of your family corporation.

MAKE HER TREASURER

Women are generally shrewd bargain hunters than men, so they will compare competing prices and haggle over a matter of pennies.

Furthermore, when pals at your place of business try to "touch" you for a five-spot till next pay day, you can then truthfully say you don't have $5, since your wife is the treasurer and handles your pay checks.

Let her dole out what you need for lunch money or carfare, but leave the balance for her to spread around wisely in paying necessary bills.

Let her dole out what you need for lunch money or carfare, but leave the balance for her to spread around wisely in paying necessary bills.

Voice of the People

Former Pontiac Minister Favors Municipal Parking

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Pontiac has made more improvement in the past few years than any city I know. The next step forward would be to solve its tremendous parking problem in the downtown area.

I am confident that there are enough good citizens with vision and faith for the future of Pontiac to carry a favorable vote for the new Municipal parking lots in the next election.

The Reverend Ivol Curtis (Former member of Pontiac Planning Commission)

For Better Pontiac' Lists Municipal Parking Assets

There are several reasons why I like our municipal parking lots.

I can park my car by myself and lock it. I am much easier on the motor, brakes, and bumpers than some attendants are.

Because the cars are not parked so close together, I can go to and away from my car with less chance of soiling my clothing. I can go directly to my car and drive it away without waiting for other cars to be moved.

Because the parking spaces are more roomy, there is less chance of scratches and dings resulting from opening and closing of car doors.

I am convinced that in the long run the nickels collected will more than "match any and all expenses involved. My conclusion: I want 'em and I'm going to vote for 'em.

Hal Boyle Says:

You Can't Control Wives by Taking Away Money

NEW YORK (U)—Curbstone reflections of a Pavement Plato:

Who should control the spending of the family income—husband or wife?

It is generally believed that women boss the spending of about 85 per cent of the expenditures in the American home.

CHALLENGES FIGURE

A revolutionary new organization—"The Brotherhood of the True Man"—has been formed by publicist Carl Ruoff to challenge this figure and spread the doctrine that the American male is and ought to be master of his own paycheck.

Operating under the slogan, "Never Underestimate the Power of a Man," the organization cites a magazine survey to make the following claims:

That 4 out of 5 men buy the roofing for their home, and 7 out of 10 picked out and purchased its insulation, heating system and paint.

That 4 out of 5 American men select and buy the car they drive and the gasoline to power it.

CAR NEEDS, TOO

That 4 out of 5 select and buy the liquor, beer and wine consumed in their home.

That 4 out of 5 buy their own suits, hats, shoes, cigarettes and razor blades.

That 9 out of 10 buy their own cigars, 7 out of 10 their own shaving cream.

That 3 out of 5 pick the brand of shirts they wear, and 1 out of 2 actually go to the store themselves and purchase them.

Crying for even more masculine control over spending, Ruoff continues:

"Do you want your 1957 automobile to be painted 'tinkled pink' to match madam's new lipstick, or do you want one in which you can stretch out to your natural length?"

"Will you drink your whisky out of a bottle or from the makings of next year's lamp?"

ASKED TO JOIN

Ruoff has invited me to join in his new fight for "male freedom." He has also invited such other distinguished exponents of masculinity as Humphrey Bogart, Bob Considine, Robert Ruark, Toots Shor, Ernest Hemingway, Errol Flynn and Papa Dionne.

I don't know how they feel about it, but in me they picked the wrong fellow. This is one revolution I'm going to sit out.

It isn't that I'm against subverting womankind. But the Brotherhood of the True Man is going about it in exactly the wrong way.

You don't weaken women by trying to take money away from them. That only makes 'em stronger and more determined. The true way to cross up women is to hand the control of money over to them—and make them feel responsible for spending it.

No book of happy memories... Is written in a day... No page or chapter is composed... Of moments whittled away... No paragraph or sentence is... Without a touch of fear... As now and then some period... Reflects a tiny fear... There are those anxious hours that... Are penned between the lines... The sickness and the struggle and... The sun that seldom shines... But when the space is growing small... For wrinkled hands to write... The ink is flowing smoothly and... And words are clear and bright... When the book is finished with... A blessing from above... The pages are securely bound... By faith and hope and love.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Advises Budget and Children to Keep Marriage Happy Until Golden Wedding

Don't be an abnormal American husband. Instead, make your wife the treasurer of your little family corporation. "Stingy with money; platonic in the bedroom," is an axiom of Marriage Counseling, so learn how to keep your marriage happy through your Golden Wedding Day.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-386: Harry S., aged 24 is the prospective bridegroom who asked for the latest scientific advice for making his marriage permanent.

I gave the first three cardinal rules, which involved marriage by a clergyman, with active participation together in the church. The second law was to verbalize your love daily.

The third rule consists of learning the medico-psychology of the bedroom, for that's where most of our divorces really start.

Fourth, learn how to operate your home on a budget.

If your bride is a normally intelligent girl with some experience in earning her own livelihood and in budgeting her own pay check, then make her the treasurer of your family corporation.

MAKE HER TREASURER

Women are generally shrewd bargain hunters than men, so they will compare competing prices and haggle over a matter of pennies.

Furthermore, when pals at your place of business try to "touch" you for a five-spot till next pay day, you can then truthfully say you don't have $5, since your wife is the treasurer and handles your pay checks.

Let her dole out what you need for lunch money or carfare, but leave the balance for her to spread around wisely in paying necessary bills.

Please note that word "necessary," for many marriages become financially bankrupt by squandering money on frills and non-essentials.

For example, the average cigarette smoker spends about $100 yearly on tobacco. And the liquor drinker squanders far more than that.

Neither tobacco nor liquor has any health arguments to support it. They are medically unwise, so lop off such costly health hazards and of 45 to 50, who are so scared they thus try to coerce wifely devotion via doling out the dollars for household expenses.

"Generous with love; free with money," is a truism of practical psychology.

"Stingy with money; platonic in the bedroom," is a corollary that is well known to us psychologists and marriage counselors. Tomorrow's Case Record will illustrate this point more fully.

PARENTAL HUNGER

Fifth, in the normal male and female we also find a desire for children or child substitutes, so a young couple should set their goal at three youngsters, or more.

It requires three children to illustrate the very different personalities that develop between eldest, middle and youngest children.

If you can't have children of your own flesh-and-blood, then try to legally adopt a pair. If that isn't possible, then foster-parent an entire Sunday school class or a scout troop, Camp Fire Girls unit, etc.

Child substitutes also include Red Cross and church missionary projects, polo campaigns and other hospital projects, plus the YMCA and CYO.

Happy marriage is a matter of intelligent planning, plus a great deal of hard work, sacrifice and forgiving. But you must first understand the specific problems before you can efficiently solve them.

So send for my 200-point "Tests for Husbands and Wives" enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. Use them for monthly ratings.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send phials.

This male miserliness not only may indicate a fearful young husband, but is a common symptom of the impotent males after the age

Radar Warning System to Encircle Half of Globe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is slowly assembling a radar warning system—in the air, on the ground, at sea—which will reach around almost half the globe.

The Distant Early Warning Line (Dewline) being built in secret places on the polar rim of the North American continent is only a component of the vast system intended ultimately to give warning to this country of enemy aircraft (and perhaps later missiles) approaching from almost any point of the compass.

Stations somewhat similar to the powerful radar installations going into the Dewline sites apparently are beginning to appear in far corners of the world—in Okinawa and other far Western Pacific up in the strategically critical archipelago of Alaska; in Green- stations now are in operation. More islands; on islets in the Central land; far southward in the are being built. Pacific; in the Hawaiian group; Caribbean.

Widow of Ex-Official Dies in Port Huron

PORT HURON (INS) — Mrs. Josephine H. Kiefer, widow of former Michigan Health Commissioner Guy L. Kiefer, died yesterday at the home of a daughter in Port Huron.

Dr. Kiefer, who died in 1930, was the son of Herman Kiefer, for whom Detroit's contagious disease hospital was named.

Iraq is building a steel railway bridge over the Diyala River at Baqubah.

Texas towers are being built in coastal waters to extend the fixed position stations of the radar chains across Canada and the United States.

Unlike the continental American radar systems, the overseas stations cannot be considered a warning "chain." There are, of course, huge gaps of thousands of miles which the mainland and island stations cannot cover by overlapping range of their radar units.

Into these gaps, the United States through its Navy and Air Force is putting plugs. They are planes and ships.

Re-Election of 11-Man Soviet Presidium Ends 20th Red Congress

MOSCOW (U) — The Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party Monday re-elected the 11 members of its ruling Presidium. Nikita S. Khrushchev was re-elected first secretary.

Defense Minister Georgi K. Zhukov, World War II hero, became a candidate (alternate) member of the ruling body, which was known in Stalin's day as the Politburo.

Thus the so-called collective leadership of the Soviet Union remained unchanged at the close of the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist party. As first secretary, Khrushchev remains boss of the party, a position he assumed in 1953 when Georgi Malenkov relinquished the job. The first secretary is in a position to control the vast party apparatus throughout the country.

WOMAN ELECTED

The party elected six candidate (alternate) members, an increase of four. Among them was the first woman ever to serve on the ruling party body. A party secretariat of eight members, headed by Khrushchev, also was elected. These are the presidium members:

Khrushchev, first secretary of the party and a deputy in the Supreme Soviet (Parliament). He has been the dominant personality in the party since the fall of 1953 when he took over its leadership, while Malenkov still was premier.

Nikolai A. Bulganin, who succeeded Malenkov as premier early in 1955.

Lazar M. Kaganovich, a first deputy premier, Supreme Soviet deputy and head of a wages and hours commission for Soviet industry.

Malenkov, former premier until he confessed failure at the job and now a deputy premier, minister of electric power stations and a Supreme Soviet deputy. His ministry came under fire at the recent party Congress.

A. I. Mikoyan, a first deputy premier, Supreme Soviet deputy and foreign trade expert.

V. M. Molotov, first deputy premier, foreign minister, Supreme Soviet deputy. He confessed to an error in ideology recently.

Mikhail G. Pervukhin, first deputy premier, Supreme Soviet deputy and Malenkov's boss as a leading Soviet industrialist.

Maxim Z. Saburov, first deputy premier, chairman of the State Planning Commission and a Supreme Soviet deputy.

K. Y. Voroshilov, a Soviet marshal and comrade of Stalin who now is chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, and in effect—President, but without presidential power.

M. A. Suslov, first named to the Presidium last July, former editor of Pravda and long a Central Committee member.

A. I. Kirichenko, named to the Presidium with Suslov in July. He came up from the Ukraine party organization — once Khrushchev's — where he was first secretary.

Member of the Supreme Soviet. The candidate members, beside Zhukov, are:

Leonid I. Brezhnev, first secretary of the party for Kazakhstan, long a member of the Central Committee and the party secretariat. He is a former deputy chief of political administration in the Defense Ministry with the rank of lieutenant general.

N. M. Shvernik, member of the Supreme Soviet Presidium and former president, he is now chairman of the all-union Council of Trade Unions.

Selected for the secretariat with Khrushchev were:

A. B. Aristov, first named a secretary last July. He was in the secretariat previously, but was dropped just after Stalin's death.

N. I. Belyayev, also originally named to the secretariat last July. He has headed the party machine

P. N. Pospelov, a high-ranking of Pravda, who is now a Presidium to Molotov as foreign minister. He they visited Belgrade to make peace with the maverick Communist Yugoslavia last year when mentioned as a possible successor chey to Yugoslavia last year when nist, Marshal Tito.

retariat. Suslov, Brezhnev, Shepilov and Furtseva.

ZHUKOV RISING
The election of Zhukov as an alternate member of the Presidium once again spotlighted the rising influence of the Soviet armed forces in post-Stalin Moscow. During Stalin's postwar regime Zhukov had been in eclipse, apparently by Stalin's wish, in a military post in the Ukraine. Zhukov's star rose rapidly after Stalin's death. The marshal, a war-time acquaintance of President Eisenhower, became deputy defense minister under Malenkov and was elevated to defense minister a year ago when Bulganin gave up the post to succeed Malenkov as premier.

Also considered noteworthy was the rise of Shepilov, chief editor

Ford Wins at Stock Car Racing "Olympics"

HERE'S FORD'S RECORD AT NASCAR'S DAYTONA BEACH NATIONAL SPEED WEEKS

FIRST in sports car acceleration.

A Ford Thunderbird set a new record for American production sport cars, sprinting a measured mile from a standing start in only 40.5 seconds — reaching a top speed of nearly 150 MPH.

FIRST in top speed—class 4.

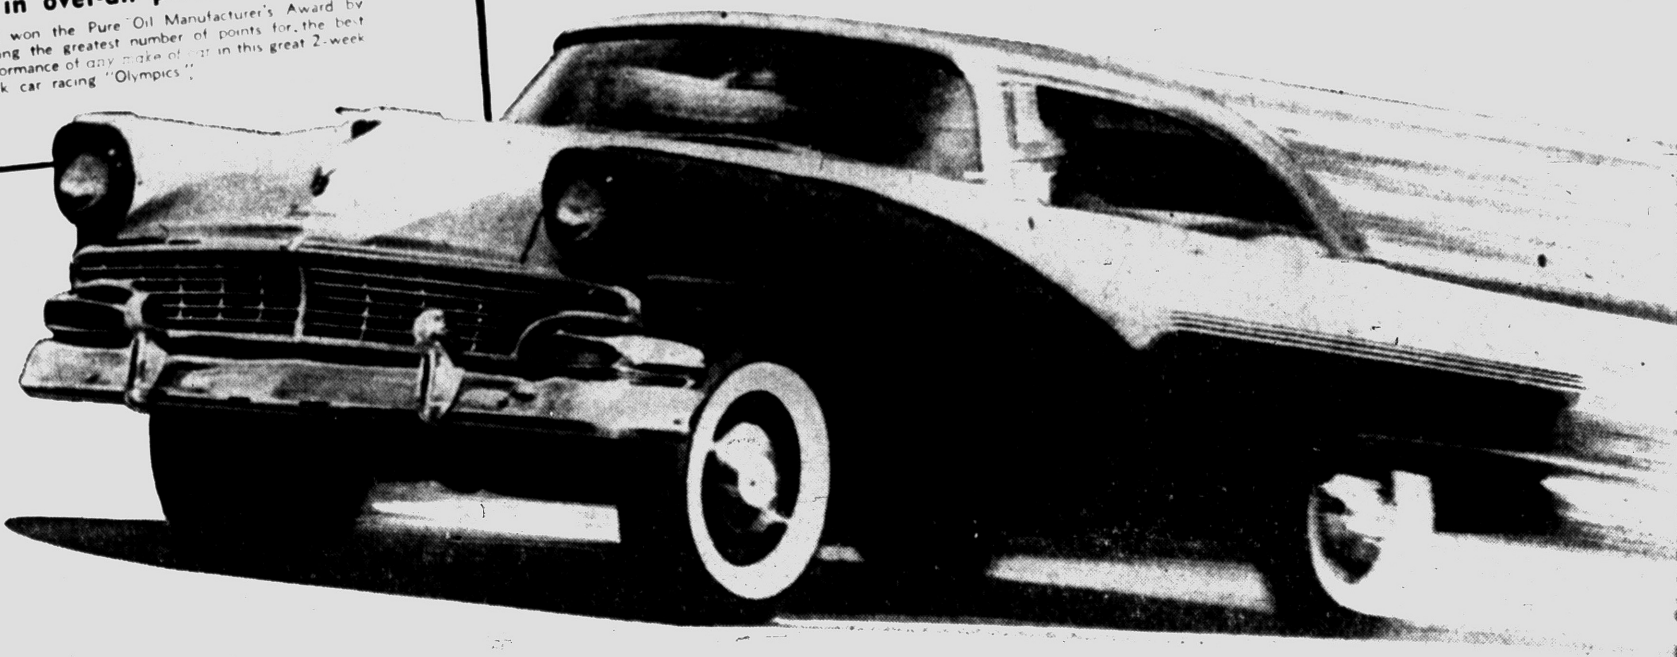

A Ford "Six" took top honors in the flying mile for Class 4 American production passenger cars.

FIRST in 160-mile convertible race.

Ford V-8s took 1st and 2nd place in the National Convertible Championship Race. Ford not only won over all cars entered, but it also topped the all-time record for the Grand National Championship Race.

FIRST in over-all performance.

Ford won the Pure Oil Manufacturer's Award by gaining the greatest number of points for the best performance of any make of car in this great 2-week stock car racing "Olympics".

The Ford V-8 again showed its taillight to all competitors in the "Olympics" of stock car racing at Daytona Beach, Florida.

In blazing across the finish line Ford demonstrated once more the sizzling performance that keeps it the largest-selling V-8 in the world. No other car in the field could match Ford for getaway "git" . . . for straightaway acceleration . . . for all-around roadability. To see exactly how the other cars trailed behind Ford, see the chart at the top of this page.

One of the secrets of Ford's performance is the tremendous torque (wheel turning power) developed by Ford engines. For example, Ford's new 225-h.p. Thunderbird Special V-8 engine develops more torque than any other engine in the low-price field. This means quicker response, smoother running in the kind of driving you do. Just a gentle nudge of Ford's accelerator and whoosh! You pass in instants when instants count!

Ford now offers this mighty 225-h.p. engine with any Ford Fairlane or Station Wagon model with Fordomatic. What's more, these engines are coming off the assembly lines right now! So why wait? Come in today for a Test Drive. Find out for yourself about Ford performance. Find out why Ford is the V-8 with the biggest following!

What's Parking Fee for Auto Airplane?

PITTSBURGH (INS) — What fee do you charge for parking an airplane when it's also an automobile?

Officials at Greater Pittsburgh Airport were asking themselves that question today.

It came up when Frazer Daugherty of Detroit flew into Pittsburgh, unbolted the wings and drove away leaving the wings parked on the airport ramp.

Technically, his craft is known as an airbivian.

More than $90,000,000 a year is collected by parking meters in the United States.

WE'RE REACHING FOR A STAR

(the Real Estate Kind)

Everyone says good Real Estate men—specialists—are almost impossible to contract these days. Have to be approached through emissaries. Too busy answering phones to answer ads like this.

Maybe. But we have a hunch that the kind we're reaching for will reach for us.

Because we have an ideal plan of operation. Firm is owned by its members — each a specialist. A hard hitting, fast selling, imaginative, congenial team. No boss, no salesmen, all profits to members. Each has a option to participate in all investments.

Firm has many years diversified background, modern office, efficient staff, ample capital. Record profits last year.

Room for one more member, must be tops, a specialist in Commercial, Industrial or Acreage. No investment required. Membership strictly limited to five.

Others tell us this plan of operation is terrific. We're crazy about it ourselves. But maybe we're prejudiced.

How does it sound to you? Want to know more about it?

Worth a lifetime of accomplishment and big income? Worth disturbing that comfortable niche? Worth a letter?

Worth making us say, "We're going to Town. Care to join us?" We hope so.

If (and only if) you're tops in your field. Write us at Box 6, Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich. Confidence observed.

Bob Considine Says:

Briton Criticizes U.S. Care of Delinquents

NEW YORK (INS) — Sir Basil Henriques, Britain's foremost authority on juvenile delinquency, feels that on the whole we do a pretty awful job with our bad kids on this side of the Atlantic.

American parents are afraid of their teenage children and this encourages many of them to reckless deeds, he feels. Before he returned to England the other day, after a 15 city visit here, he said:

"Your welfare people are trying to twist the delinquent boys' outlook on life by twisting their arms—by punishment. 'Don't do this, don't do that... or else.' Really, even adults know that when they see a 'No Smoking' sign that's when they want to smoke. It's just not good for the boys."

He found some encouraging places here, however.

One was the Berkshire Industrial Farm at Canaan, N. Y. After visiting this lockless school for the wayward and needy boy, the eminent 65-year-old British authority decided to stop generalizing about American juvenile delinquent reforms.

"Better than the schools in South Wales, which I always thought were the best in the world," he said of the Berkshire layout. "I found the boys self-disciplined, unrepentant and above all, happy. They look you straight in the eye and talk to you man-to-man."

"Such a thorough rehabilitation of delinquents can only be accomplished by love... love shown by the Berkshire farm people for the boy and for his work."

"It entails an enormous amount of work to show the boys, as individuals, they are wanted and loved. But it's worth the effort, of course."

Sir Basil was impressed, too, at the Citizens Training Center in Boston. He liked this group's idea of keeping the delinquent in the home and in school and confining his rehabilitation to 2½ hours of training (for three months) after school.

After the three-month period

Americans Save 6 Pct. of Wages

Manhattan Banker Says First 2 Months of 1956 Show Thriftier Trend

DETROIT (AP) — Banker David Rockefeller states Americans saved only 6 per cent of their income after taxes last year but he added there is evidence in the first two months of 1956 that they are getting thriftier.

The executive vice president of the Chase National Bank, New York, said in a speech prepared for the Economic Club of Detroit that the $17 billion saved by Americans last year was the smallest since 1950.

Saving at this rate, he said, probably would be too low to finance the nation's expanding economy.

"Rather," Rockefeller said, "savings on the order of 8 per cent of income after taxes appear necessary if economic growth is to move ahead as we desire."

"Fortunately," he added, "I do not think we need despair of achieving this level, although the financial community may have to exercise some ingenuity to bring it about."

"Let us look for a moment at the past history of savings in the United States. A recent study gives us for the first time adequate information on this matter. It shows that if one ignores abnormal periods of war and serious depressions, Americans have tended to save about the same proportion of their incomes year in and year out. That proportion interestingly enough is 8 per cent—just what seems to be required for the future."

"Thus it appears highly probable that savings in 1955 were abnormally low; indeed, even in the first two months of 1956, there is evidence that consumers have begun to save more than they did in the past year."

Rockefeller said, "Personal savings on the order of $30 billion a year may be needed by 1965 to support the growth of the economy. If savings return to an 8 per cent rate in relation to disposable income, our goal can be realized."

Police went on strike in East Pakistan.

ends, a court decides whether he stays home or is put in a standard reform school.

HOW ABOUT MOBS?

I wondered aloud how the big, gentle fellow would do with some of our switch-blade, zip-gun mobs such as were seen in Metro's "Blackboard Jungle."

"I'm not sure you try to break up your young gangs," he said seriously. "We've found with our 'Teddy boys' that they are mostly sheep. Their courage comes from their numbers. Their numbers come from a leader."

"If we find he is armed he is guilty per se unless he can prove without question that he did not intend to use the arms offensively."

"We have a different outlook, too, on what it means to be 'armed.' A lad who carries brass knuckles is 'armed.' So is one who carries a large, filled keyring. A great number of keys, stuck through the closed fist, can be an almost lethal weapon."

Some 95 per cent of all British magistrates who deal with juvenile delinquents are lay people approved by the lord chancellor. Sir Basil was the most famous of these until his recent retirement.

"I was Harrow... Oxford... well-to-do family," he said of his own life in the calling. "When I was through with school I thought to myself, 'How unfair it is, really, that I have all this and others should have so little.'"

SLUM WORKER

Sir Basil became a slum worker in London, formed a boys' club with 25 grimy youngsters (it has now reached 5,000), married and lived in a single room over the club, gave all his money and time to the work.

His theme through the long years has been that if a kid has 1) security and 2) love, there can never be delinquency—ever.

"A boy who steals a car is, at heart, a boy you can do something with," Sir Basil says. "The theft shows he has imagination and courage."

"All that is needed, aside from giving him security and love, is to teach him that it is better to compete against other boys—in sports, for instance—than it is to compete against the police, who have a knack of always winning."

Local Democrats Concentrate on Rally in Detroit

Stevenson Will Speak on March 10

Party Members in County Plan Teas to Raise Funds

Democrats of Pontiac and Oakland County are looking forward to the big party rally in Detroit's Masonic Temple Saturday evening, March 10, when Adlai Stevenson will be guest of honor and speaker.

Democrats in this county again this year will forego their traditional Jefferson-Jackson dinner here in order to give all their support to the larger event in Detroit.

More than 2,500 persons are expected to attend the Detroit dinner to greet Stevenson, and tickets already are close to capacity, according to Billie S. Farnum, Oakland County ticket chairman for the event.

Oakland Democrats are not idle and are planning a series of teas in the coming weeks to raise money for party expenses.

One will be a style show at the Kingsley Inn and will have as guest of honor Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of the governor. Details of this program will be announced soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Farnum opened their home at Williams Lake Saturday evening for a reception attended by party leaders to plan similar events throughout the county.

Special guest on this occasion was James M. Hare, Michigan Secretary of State.

Amvets Group to Stage Show and Card Party

A benefit card party and style show is planned by members of the Auxiliary to Wright-Fourmier Amvets Post. Fashions from Malloy's will be featured at the affair March 7 at 7:30 p. m. in Roosevelt Temple.

The second annual party and fashion show will benefit the child welfare project of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Orval Russell is general chairman and will narrate the style show.

She is assisted by Mrs. Matt Lingenfelter, chairman of the prizes; Mrs. Jack Mariner, refreshments, and Mrs. Robert Brown, tickets.

Models will be Mrs. James Cavillier, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mrs. Ben Weber, Mrs. Lingenfelter and Mrs. Carl Bartlett. Modeling men's fashions will be Mr. Cavillier, Mr. Russell, Ed Good and Mr. Hughes.

Slides Are Viewed by Alpha Sigma Nu

Mrs. John Garrison showed slides at the Monday evening dinner meeting of Alpha Sigma Nu sorority held at Hotel Waldron. Twenty-six members and guests attended the meeting at which Mrs. Arthur Dahl presided.

Mrs. Garrison took her listeners to Banff, Lake Louise, Mt. Rainier, Mt. Hood, the Bonneville Dam and Grand Canyon with her colorful slides taken on her recent trip. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. B. H. Ogden.

Artist-Lecturer Will Address Fathers, Sons

Noted artist-lecturer Arthur A. Sinclair will speak at the Father and Son Banquet at the Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Saturday. The program will begin at 6:30 p. m.

Using vari-colored chalks, Mr. Sinclair sketches large pictures to illustrate his themes as he talks. His training at the Chicago Art Institute and a wide experience in other fields of art, in personnel and recreational work in industry, and in editing an outstanding industrial magazine, have provided him a background for his work.

For the past 20 seasons he has devoted his time to the preparation of his chalk talks and their delivery before thousands of audiences throughout Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois.

Plans for a series of teas in the county in coming weeks were made when Democratic leaders met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Farnum at Williams Lake. Shown above discussing details are (left to right) Mrs. Farnum, Mrs. Donald Lee of Farmington, vice chairman, Oakland County Democratic Committee, and James M. Hare, Michigan secretary of state.

Age Is No Barrier in Bookkeeping

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Two and two will always make four and the woman who is good at arithmetic will always be able to get a job.

Even the age barrier, which affects so many other skills as far as the employer is concerned, does not hold for bookkeeping and clerical work.

In the past six months, I have seen nearly 20 women over 50 get jobs. Furthermore, I found that more than three quarters of them found jobs in bookkeeping.

Some of them had typing as an accessory skill and some did not.

But all of them got decent salaries and good working conditions.

If this interest you, here are some pointers.

GET A BOOK

First go to your public library and ask for a good book on simple bookkeeping. Then, check your local high school and see if your adult education program includes a course in bookkeeping.

With these under your belt, you'll have no trouble getting a job. But even if such facilities are not available, the picture is still good.

Try your local hospitals and apply for a clerical job.

Hospitals have many, many such jobs. Some involve billing, some are in the records department, some in filing.

If you are a neat and accurate worker, with good eyesight, you can handle a job like this easily.

Many places give a simple clerical test which will give you a chance to show your stuff in advance.

SEEK MATURITY

Also, business firms offer good jobs in their billing and credit departments and tend to prefer the mature woman.

This is partly because she is apt to be more conscientious and to stay longer in the job and partly, I'm sorry to say, because she will work for a slightly smaller salary than the young ambitious girl.

But, be that as it may, if you are an older woman and really want a job, you can get one in the behind-the-scenes clerical departments.

Be sure to apply at your local state employment agency as well as the good private employment agencies in your town.

And if you would like a list of good books in the bookkeeping field, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope in care of The Pontiac Press.

'Caracos' and 'Canezous' Top Paris Jacket Vogue

PARIS (INS).—Style-conscious women in Paris are buzzing about "Caracos" and "canezous," which have become new words in the fashion vocabulary.

Both words are names for new types of jackets introduced for the Paris spring look by Dior, Lanvin-Castillo and other famous designers, as "musts" in a modish wardrobe. They will replace tunics and possibly even suit jackets.

A "caraco" is a waist-length jacket, simple and semi-fitted. With sleeves and a collar for daytime it can replace the tailored suit jacket. Without sleeves and worn over a decollete dress, it is a part of a dinner outfit or meant to cover up the low cut neck of a cocktail dress.

Dior shows "caracos" in worsted fabrics to match a slim or pleated skirt. He shows them embroidered with sequins as chic tops for dressy occasions.

The "canezou" (pronounced canezoo), introduced by Lanvin-Castillo, is a modern replica of grandma's combing jacket. It is always loose and flaring. It can be very short, just cover the bust or it can reach down to the waist to look like a cape with sleeves.

Lanvin-Castillo features a short "canezou" jacket as part of a 1956-looking outfit. It is a sand-colored shantung dress flaring out in a funnel line from a high empire waist. The cane zou of matching fabric just covers the high waist.

Teen Strategy: Jot It Down, Then Buy Coming Events

NEW YORK — Put it in writing. Before you buy so much as a hanky, have your wardrobe on paper, urges the magazine. "Then stick to your list!"

This is their plan for a foolproof spring wardrobe that will guarantee you exactly the outfits you want all springtime long.

1. Make a clothing checklist—Divide clothes into categories covering your activities: school, dates, sports, parties, etc. Allow space for listing coat, suit, separates, dresses and accessories in each category.

2. Take stock — Go through last year's spring clothes and decide what to keep. Give "un-usables" to a charity. Divide

"stillgoods" according to category and list them in a HAVE column of the check list.

3. Decide on an over-all wardrobe mood—soft prettiness, for example, or a gay casual look with bright accents. Keep the mood consistent from category to category.

4. Select your silhouette—A slim coat, for instance, requires slim clothes. Coat and suit necklines and sleeves must look well over the blouses and dresses you choose.

5. Pick your colors—Clothes that harmonize in color with each other have the most uses. Color key your clothes to your major investments—your coat and suit.

6. Study the fashion news—Select the newest versions of the silhouettes you know are most flattering to you. For instance, the news in sheaths is the Empire waistline; full-skirted suits are now shown with wide, flat pleats; this season's straight coats have slit sides or elbow length capes.

7. Fill in the check-list—Describe clothes in detail: Don't write just "suit," but "beige suit with a pleated skirt and a fitted jacket." Enter all accessories necessary for a given costume. Make sure the fashions and accessories you choose have multiple uses.

8. Plan your spending over several months—Allow for a major purchase first and accessorize it gradually, so that you will have the completed costume when the weather gets warm.

Suggests Glamour Dresses

PARIS (INS) — Paris fashion designer Carven advises the young very French and taken from antique bathroom tiles in porcelain blue and white. Carven uses this material for a tailored, waisted jacket and a skirt with unpressed pleats.

Carven believes that young girls, too, should have a break in true elegance and wear clothes with a custom-made look. She proposes dresses made either of original materials or trimmed with elaborate embroidery as dressy outfits that will be wearable for several seasons.

There is, for instance, a two-piece outfit in her collection which is simple in style but of a very special fabric. It is in cotton woven to look like the jacquard knit of those typical, Norwegian sweaters.

Election Conducted by Les Filles Club

Shirley Hutchinson entertained members of Les Filles Club recently at her home on Lake Ward lane where members elected new officers.

Judy Dearing is president assisted by Barbara Strang, vice president; Linda Doris, recording secretary; Priscilla Dawe, corresponding secretary; Connie Crozier, treasurer, and Barbara Learned, historian.

Alex Johnson of Voorheis road, will become the bride of Welland G. Lotan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lotan of Loundsbury tato with chicken, mushroom with street, at a ceremony to be performed April 7.

Miracle of the Towns Without Toothaches. For years, children growing up in certain Western towns were virtually without cavities. Then science learned why: nature's decay-preventive, fluoride, was present in their drinking water!

Science Long Tried to Capture Fluoride—only medically approved preventive of decay—in a toothpaste. At last, university scientists and Procter & Gamble found the answer: Fluoristan, exclusive fluoride compound, far superior to fluoride alone.

Fluoristan Makes Possible Crest—world's greatest weapon against tooth decay. Unless you get Fluoristan, you cannot get maximum protection against tooth decay with a toothpaste. Protects permanent teeth of adults and of children, six and over.

Dentists Tested Crest for three years, on 5,673 people. Crest set records of decay prevention never equalled by any other toothpaste. And Crest blocks out bad breath as it locks out decay... helps keep teeth white. You'll love refreshing Crest!

IMPORTANT

Crest with Fluoristan is the only toothpaste ever developed that makes possible a major reduction in tooth decay, for people of all ages. Thereby, Crest marks the turning point in man's age-old struggle against this almost universal disease.

Instead of waiting helplessly for cavities to strike, Crest now makes it possible for you to build strong defenses against decay within teeth themselves... to actually fortify teeth so that they turn back the destructive attacks of decay (as opposed to the old-fashioned method of depositing a temporary coating of protection on the surface of teeth). With Crest, your family approaches the long dreamed-of day of healthy, decay-free teeth.

General Probes 'Witches' Brew' in Algeria

(Second of six articles by a famed soldier-diplomat and educator reporting the results of a survey he has just completed of explosive North Africa, Spain, and France.)

By BRIG. GEN.
FRANK L. HOWLEY, USA (RET.)
Vice Chancellor,
New York University
NEW YORK (INS) — Algeria, scene of fierce Communist-aided guerrilla warfare against French rule, is a big melting pot. Some call it a witches' brew.

Politically, Algeria is as much a part of France as Puerto Rico is of the United States. In area, it is four times as big as metropolitan France. By nature, it is more than four times as complicated.

One million of the 9,500,000 citizens are of European origin, most of them born and reared there, and mostly French. The natives are a mixture of more than 20 races. No one knows for sure what to call those who are not of European origin. Usually they settle for the word Arab, but no title fits.

The natives, stirred to massacres of French colonials and their own peoples by both Red agents and Moslem organizers in Egypt, have no great leaders, no great traditions, no unifying force but Islam.

Islam supplanted Roman Christianity in the seventh century when the conquering Moslems gave all no choice but to "acknowledge Mohammed or die." This was brutally ended the Christianity that St.
Augustine, the Berber of North Africa, worked so faithfully to establish.

FRENCH CAME IN 1830

French troops entered this pit of chaos and savagery in 1830. When they conquered the city of Algiers, they were greeted by the heads of more than 200 of their countrymen, hanging from hooks on the wall.

All progress in Algeria is the result of French rule of order.
Swamps were drained and cities built, farms created, railways built, hospitals founded, great hydro-electric dams constructed to recover arid land.

If it were humanly possible to oust people of European origin, as Hitler drove out German citizens of Jewish origin, the blow to Algeria's political, social and economic life would be fatal.

Has the non-European been held down? No, he couldn't care less for modern progress. "If Allah wanted a bridge built there," an Arab will tell you, "he would have created one."

GREAT HANDICAP

This is one of the great handicaps of Moslems in Algeria—the acceptance of ancient economic and social interpretations of the Koran, the sacred book of the Moslems.

An example: I asked one Arab worker what he wanted and expected to get in heaven. His reply was "Oh, a little pretty garden, with a few fruit trees." If this chap sitting on a stone, contemplating the universe wants only this out of heaven, a little extra work on this globe would give it to him while he is here.

Africa produced some great women in ancient times, but no leadership can come from Moslem women under present restrictions.
The poor little Moslem girls, sheet-wrapped from head to toe with only one sad brown eye peeking out of the folds, do not have a chance. Often they are married at 11 and have their first child at 12.

An evolution is occurring, however, though slowly. Many Moslems, dissatisfied with their lot, gradually are breaking away from fixed customs. French culture is doing this. Many Moslems educated in French schools no longer are willing to accept a concept of the world being flat.

It is this evolution which the Communists are trying to turn into a violent revolution.

City Official Answers Questions on Parking Lot Management

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following questions were submitted to City Manager Walter K. Willman by the Detroit Certified Public Accountant firm of L. M. Bloomberg & Co. for later submission to Sam L. Stolorow, manager of Pontiac's Outdoor Parking Co. They are presented in connection with the public vote to be taken March 9 on the city's proposed $600,000 municipal parking program. Inasmuch as these questions are related to a public matter, the City Commission has authorized the city manager to release them to The Press for publication.

Q. What is the revenue from the Mill street parking lot for the year ended Dec. 31, 1954, and the date it was put into operation?

A. $5,173.60, representing storage fees derived from parking in the old market building.

Q. What was the revenue from the Parke street parking lot for the year 1954 and the date when this lot began operation?

A. $8,408.51. This lot, commonly called the Parke street lot, was placed in operation July 23, 1954.

Q. What was the revenue for the calendar year 1955 from the Parke street lot and the Mill street lot and the date this latter lot was put into operation?

A. $33,409. When the lot on Mill street was opened to the public, the operation of Mill and Parke was combined and since that date the two lots have been treated by the city as one. During 1955, the Mill street lot was under construction for the major portion of the year, and was only partially used.

Q. Is our understanding correct that prior to Jan. 1, 1953, revenues from street parking meters were placed in the general fund?

A. Yes.

Q. Reference is made to statement 9-6, page 57, of the financial report of Pontiac, for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1953, wherein is shown "Transfers from other Funds—General Fund, $157,890." Does this transfer include street parking meter revenue for the year 1953? If so, what was this amount and if any excess was included in such transfers, what was the original source of these moneys?

A. The Off-Street Parking Fund in the amount of $157,890 was established by Ordinance 1202, amended by Ordinance 1215 in 1953. This fund included $54,000 as the estimated income from street meter revenue for the year 1953. The Supreme Court of Michigan in the case of Stolorow vs. the City of Pontiac, unanimously approved the right of the city to establish the fund and to use such meter revenues for the acquisition and operation of off-street parking lots on April 5, 1954. This decision is on page 199, volume 393 No. 2 of Michigan Reports, dated May 7, 1954.

Q. What was the street meter revenue for the calendar year 1955?

A. $46,943.29.

Q. Where did the city of Pontiac get the revenues to replace the street meter revenue which prior to METER REPAIRMAN BUSY — Andy Kulich, an employee of the city's electrical department, is shown here inspecting one of the 1,360 parking meters that must be checked to keep them in working condition. In his 18th year of repairing meters for the city, Andy, of Waterford Township, says an average of eight broken meters are reported to him a day by the violation bureau. He is shown inspecting one of the dual Park-O-Meters on the city's Parke street municipal lot.

Jan. 1, 1953 went into the General Fund and thereafter was taken out?

A. In the process of municipal budgeting, the city's income and expense varies from year to year. In answer to question 8, it can be stated that the transfer of meter revenues to the off-street parking fund was balanced favorably by an increase in miscellaneous income from sources other than taxes and by a corresponding increase in assessed valuation which is subject to property and personal tax. In order to properly portray the effect of the transfer occasioned by the establishment of the off-street parking fund, it should be shown that in 1950 and 1951, the tax rate for municipal purposes per thousand of assessed valuation was $13.98. In 1952 and 1953, this rate was reduced to $13.80. In 1954, which was the year following the establishment of the off-street parking fund, this rate was reduced to $13.70 and in 1955 the rate was continued at $13.70. The anticipated rate for 1956 is likewise $13.70.

Q. Why was the $45,928.08 transferred to the General Fund and $32,000 transferred to the Capital Improvement Fund in 1954 as shown by statement 9-6 of the financial report of Pontiac for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1954?

A. The general fund had advanced $45,928.08 toward the construction of Lot No. 1 and was reimbursed from the off-street parking fund. The Capital Improvement Fund had advanced $32,000 for the purchase of the Douglas property and a payment on the Mill street property to the County of Oakland and was reimbursed from the off-street parking fund.

Q. Why was $50,000 per year set up as estimated revenues from on-street meters as shown in schedule A-1 of the application to the Municipal Finance Commission when the same schedule shows "Estimated 12 Months or $47,620?"

A. The relocation of meters in 1955 reduced the number of street meters with a corresponding reduction in the income. New planned locations for additional street meters justified the estimate of $50,000 for 1956.

Q. What were the reasons for the decrease in on-street meter revenue in 1955 and 1954 as compared to 1953?

A. The removal of street meters from locations too close to intersections and the lengthening out of parking spaces to 23 feet so as to permit parking of vehicles with less difficulty by reason of new car lengths were the major reasons for the decrease in street meter revenues in 1955 and 1954. The establishment of block long bus loading zones was also a factor tending to decrease street meter income in 1954.

Q. What were the amounts paid in 1954 and 1955 and the estimated amounts in the operation and maintenance fund in B-1 of the application to the Municipal Finance Commission for the following items in connection with the operation and maintenance of on-street and off-street parking areas:

(1) Engineering. (2) Management. (3) Office supplies. (4) Bookkeeping and accounting. (5) Upkeep and maintenance of motor equipment. (6) Electricity. (7) Insurance: (public liability, property damage, fire and theft and workmen's compensation). (8) Maintenance and repair of parking meters. (9) Reserve for parking meter replacement. (10) Maintenance and repair of electrical equipment. (11) Maintenance and repair of parking lot surfaces, islands and driveways. (12) Snow and dirt removal. (13) Wages for enforcement of parking regulations. (14) Wages for collection of metered money. (15) Wages for counting, sorting cash and making bank deposits. (16) Retirement or pension fund. (17) Legal expense. (18) Gasoline. (19) Maintenance and replacement of signs. (20) Painting of lines for car stalls. (21) Reserve for repaving of all parking areas. (22) Appraisals of real estate.

A. The Mill and Parke street lots were operated during 1954 and 1955 as a part of the street system and specific costs requested in subsections 1 to 22 were not detailed except as to the following:

(1) Engineering: 10 per cent of the construction cost has been chargeable to engineering as a capital item.

(6) Electricity: We do not have a full year's electrical bill for our present installations, but the total energy bill on lots 1 and 2 for the six-month period through November was $235.01.

(8) Maintenance and repair of parking meters: In

PARKE STREET LOT—A view of the city's first large municipal lot located at Parke and Pike streets. The 250-car capacity lot was put into operation on July 23, 1954 and produced a revenue for that year of $8,408.51 according to City Manager Walter K. Willman. Located conveniently for downtown shoppers, it is situated a block distant from the city's second largest 80-car municipal lot on Mill street. For the calendar year 1955 the two lots produced a combined income of $33,409. The latter lot was only partially used during 1955 as it was not completed.

1954, the charge for the moving, winding, maintenance and repair of all meters including the street meters amounted to $8,123.81. In 1955, the charge for the above work was $8,169.75. It should be noted that these totals include the costs of removing and replacing meters as well as a portion of the cost of the installation of new meters. The estimated average cost for the winding and maintenance on meters alone is $6 per car space.

(22) Appraisals of real estate: The cost of acquiring all real estate was chargeable as a capital item.

With the approval of the proposed bond ordinance, a budget is mandatory which would cover the operation and maintenance of the parking system. All of the items from 1 to 22 with the exception of engineering and appraisals of real estate would be covered in the proposed budget and included in the estimated budget submitted as follows:

The above total is 20 per cent of the gross estimated receipts.

Twenty-one Michigan cities have issued revenue bonds for the development of off-street parking. The operating budget has varied from 9.2 per cent in East Lansing to 37.4 per cent in Royal Oak. The average has been 23.1 per cent. The city's bond consultant estimates 20 per cent as reasonable.

Samples of operating estimates follow:
Birmingham, 19.5 per cent of gross; Highland Park, 34.1 per cent of gross; Jackson, 25.7 per cent of gross; Mt. Clemens, 21.3 per cent of gross; Kalamazoo, 13.4 per cent of gross; Muskegon, 18.6 per cent of gross; Owosso, 21.9 per cent of gross; Wyandotte, 21 per cent of gross.

Q. What is the arrangement with the state of Michigan for the operation of the Auburn Avenue parking lot? In connection with this lot, what was the cost of putting the lot in shape for use and what is the anticipated income and expense for same. Why isn't this lot included in the parking system stated in the application to the Municipal Finance Commission?

A. The city has the Auburn Avenue lot leased from the State Highway Dept. at a lease rental of $120 per month. This lot is not completed to date. The cost to parking revenues is not anticipated.

The city has an option to purchase the balance of this lot not needed for trunk line right-of-way in a proposed adjustment of the intersection at Auburn and Saginaw street at the end of a two-year period. This lot is being financed by funds on hand and is not included in the application to the Municipal Finance Commission. Upon completion, it is estimated that the lot will produce $75.00 per car space with an operating expense of approximately 20 per cent of the income.

Q. Does the city of Pontiac lease the property on the southwest corner of Wayne and Lafayette streets with an option to purchase? If so, what is the yearly rental, the term of the lease and why wasn't this amount included as a disbursement in the application to the Municipal Finance Commission?

A. The city has a lease purchase agreement for the property on the southwest corner of Wayne and Lafayette street with an option to purchase at the end of a three-year period or prior to that time at the desire of the lessor. The lease rental now paid by the city is $300 per month until the purchase agreement is consummated. The city is now renting this parcel to a tenant for $400 per month until such time as construction commences upon the lot. When this rental arrangement with a tenant is terminated and the lot is completed and operated as a metered parking lot, the lease cost will be added to the operating budget under the ordinance.

Q. Is it true that the city of Pontiac will increase real property taxes by 10 cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation as stated in the Pontiac Press? If so, please state the amount the city of Pontiac must raise by such a tax increase.

A. No. The estimated assessed valuation for 1956 will permit the continuation of a rate of $13.70 per thousand of assessed valuation.

Q. Schedule 15-1 page 88, of the financial report of the city of Pontiac for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1954 shows an increase in assessed value of real property of $9,411,430 in 1953 over 1952. What percentage of this increase resulted from new construction?

A. The correct assessment value for real property for 1953 was $116,360,735. This is a gain over the 1952 valuation of $5,485,770. Ninety-nine and seven tenths per cent of the gain represents new construction.

Q. What was the increase in assessed valuation of real property in 1955 over 1954? What percentage of this increase resulted from new construction?

A. The assessed value on real property for 1955 totaled $126,289,080. The assessed value on real property for 1954 totaled $120,286,375. The gain was $6,002,705; 94.48 per cent of this gain represents new construction.

Q. Does the traffic program of the City of Pontiac contemplate the moving of street meters off of highly congested state and federal highways to less congested streets in the downtown area. If so, do you anticipate further decrease in on-street parking revenue?

A. It is expected that traffic demands on state and federal highways in the city will require further study of meter locations. Section 17 of ordinance 1292 states that the number of meters in the parking system shall not be reduced below the number to be installed under the terms of the proposed ordinance if meter income after reduction in the number of meters should reduce the net revenue of the system below a sum equal to 150 per cent of the largest amount of principal and interest still outstanding. It is expected that meters will be removed where and when traffic conditions make it necessary. It is also expected that the stipulations of section 17 of ordinance 1292 as to income will not be a limiting factor. This provision assures liquidity as to meter location. Spaces lost on heavily traveled arteries will be recaptured on less congested streets and in a program of off-street parking which could be both public and private. A decrease in street parking revenues is not anticipated.

OK Bond Issue by Wide Margin

To Finance Building New Elementary, Plus Other Additions

CLARKSTON—A $1,200,000 bond issue to build a new elementary school and enlarge existing schools was passed by a 354-93 vote in a special election in the Clarkston Community School District yesterday.

A total of 447 of a possible 2,500 voters cast their ballots in the election.

Passage of the bond issue will not increase current taxes, school officials said. Tax rate will remain at the present $13 per thousand on state equalized valuation.

Reserves on existing levies will enable the district to appropriate part of the present tax millage to pay off the new issue, by stretching the tax over a longer period of time.

The bond issue will finance the construction of an elementary school on the east side of Sascha, baw road, between Maybee and Walden roads. It also will provide for additions to the Clarkston Elementary School and Clarkston high and junior high schools, as well as needed additions to other school buildings.

Clarkston's school enrollment jumped from 1,200 in 1951 to 2,270 in 1956. A 1956 fall enrollment of 3,000 is predicted.

Ronald Webber, treasurer of the Clarkston School Board, said 900 more elementary students are expected by next year. This will require 30 additional classrooms.

Mother, Son Uninjured After Jet Smashes Home

KNOB NOSTER, Mo. — A jet smashed into an unoccupied dwelling mother and her son miraculously escaped serious injury yesterday when a six-engine 147-ft bomber exploded and smashed into their small frame farmhouse. The Air Force Base exploded about 100 feet above the ground before it crashed.

Mrs. Clay Curtis and her son Danny, 11, were in the living room of the four-room house. Danny, with the jet was lying on a couch in his pajamas. Suddenly they heard a terrific roar.

"That must have been an airplane," Danny recalled saying to his mother. Then the big ship came hurtling into the house, setting it on fire.

"About all we heard was the roar and the crash," said Mrs. Curtis. "Everything was a mass of flame. We started out the kitchen door but it stuck and we had a hard time getting it open."

Mrs. Curtis and her son suffered only minor burns. The home was destroyed.

Assured his seat on the bench was a sound one the judge proceeded with the case at hand.

Piles No Longer A Problem

If they are the bleeding kind, suffer no longer

Medical research has developed a miracle medicine called RECTOLAL. It does away with the usual use of old-fashioned medicine, suppositories, injections, etc., that give little, if any, even temporary relief. RECTOLAL has a tendency to shrink the piles and usually in a few days, the bleeding, soreness, irritation and pain start to disappear and in a few days more are completely gone. Thousands of sufferers have used this remarkable medicine and have never had any further trouble, even years afterwards. Urges Voting Machines

MARQUETTE — Purchase of voting machines by the city of Marquette has been recommended by city clerk Everett H. Kent. The city commission has not yet acted upon the recommendation.

Kent told the commission it would be cheaper to buy machines than to cut down the number of voters in the precincts to not more than 800 as required by a new state law. Machine precincts may have up to 1,400 electors.

Lenten Guideposts

By LEE H. BRISTOL, JR.
President, Laymen's Movement
For a Christian World.

A friend of mine, Wallace Speers, was waiting for a train in New York. Near him stood a man whose shoulders sagged and whose face needed a shave.

Two British sailors approached Wallace and asked the way to the information booth. After Wallace had directed them, the unshaven man, nearby, walked over to Wallace. "Who were those men?" he asked.

"They were British sailors," said Wallace.

"Are you a British sailor?"

"No, what makes you ask that?"

"I thought you had something in common with them," said the man. "You're not like the others around here. You talk friendly."

Wallace replied that the city was full of friendly people who do a lot of good and yet never make headlines.

JUST THINK ABOUT ME

"Maybe so," said the man who then proceeded to tell Wallace his whole life's story. He had committed a crime, was sentenced to 25 years in jail, and after serving 15 years got out for good behavior. "I'll bet you wish now you hadn't spoken to me," he said finally.

"No," said Wallace. "I don't see why. You've paid your debt to society and are a free man again."

The man looked at Wallace. "Say, will you do something for me? There's not a soul in this whole wide world who cares whether I live or die," said the man. "For a couple of weeks would you mind just thinking about me?"

To Wallace, this was one of the most pathetic statements he had ever heard. It made him realize how many lonely, desolate humans he probably came in contact with each day.

Wallace Speers is Chairman of the Laymen's Movement for a Christian World, an international non-denominational organization whose purpose is to inspire laymen everywhere to search for a greater understanding of God and to find more effective ways of applying Christian principles to their everyday affairs.

SPIRITUAL COMMANDOS

We call these people "spiritual commandos," because they are ready to do a job for God. It may mean driving 100 miles to visit a man in prison, or visiting the family of a boy who got in trouble in the big city, or it may mean just calling on the new family that moved into town.

A businessman, who works across the street from me in New York, is a great believer in the fact that God will sometimes throw a rather unlikely assignment his way.

One day, for example, his telephone rang. It was a displaced person, whom he had never met. "I don't know you," he said, "but I've heard that you try to do a lot for your Church and I've read about you. There are 86 political prisoners in Italy who should have been released who are still locked up. Nobody seems to be able to do anything about them."

"Well," said my friend, "I'm just in the dry-goods business here in New York. What do you expect me to do?"

"I know that you once met the Pope. Won't you write him?"

Two weeks later the D.P. called again. He was almost hysterical.

"I don't know what you did," said the man, "but 84 of the 86 prisoners have been released!"

And sure enough, about a week later came a letter from the Vatican saying the letter had called a situation to their attention of which they had not been aware.

You see what I mean? Oftentimes the sky is the limit for what an ordinary person can do. As this same friend puts it, "You can do just about anything for good you want, if you don't mind who gets the credit."

Bucky Looks for Third Place Finish Set Stage for Title Battle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Illinois and Iowa set the stage for their Big Ten basketball title-deciding battle at Iowa City Saturday with comparatively easy home-floor victories last night against 2nd-division foes.

Illinois blasted Minnesota, 97-81, with center George Bonalle scoring 36 points and Iowa moved past winless Northwestern with ease, 86-68.

The results left the two teams tied for the conference lead with 12-1 records. The winner of Saturday's nationally televised game will virtually clinch the title and move on to the NCAA championship.

Both teams close the season Monday with Illinois at Northwestern and Indiana at Iowa. Although possible, it is highly improbable that Saturday's winner will get tripped up Monday.

Purdue defeated Michigan, 72-63 at Lafayette, and Michigan State downed Wisconsin, 89-82, at East Lansing rounding out last night's schedule.

Illinois, beaten Saturday by Ohio State, 87-74, had to put on one of its do-or-die rallies to overcome the Gophers. Minnesota grabbed a 49-46 halftime lead as Dave Tucker and George Kline accounted for 19 and 16 points, respectively.

Bonalle put Illinois ahead to stay by opening the 2nd half with a basket and three free throws but Minnesota hung on and twice came within two points of the Illini. Ahead 78-76 late in the game, Illinois scored the next 10 points and won going away.

Tucker finished with 27 points and Kline had 20 while Harry Schmidt scored 23 for Illinois.

Iowa's five starters scored in double figures with center Bill Logan putting in 21 points for the Hawkeyes. Iowa led 39-26 at the half and coasted to victory as coach Bucky O'Connor cleared the bench with five minutes left in the game.

Illinois will be seeking its 1st victory over Iowa since 1954 when the Illini beat the Hawkeyes, 74-51 at Iowa City. Since then Iowa has beaten Illinois twice at Champaign and once at Iowa City. The two teams have not played this year.

Figures Hurling Will Be Better in '56 Season

Tiger Manager Thinks Bosox, Chisox Will Be Clubs to Beat

LAKELAND, Fla. (P) — Although his regulars don't report until Thursday, manager Bucky Harris already is thinking in terms of a third-place American League finish for his Detroit Tigers.

"Boston and Chicago (which finished 3rd and 4th last season) are the teams for us to beat," Harris said. "If we make the move I think we can make it this year."

"Right now, I figure that both New York and Cleveland are too strong," Harris added in predicting a Tiger rise.

"Naturally, that depends on a lot of things, but our record of last year proves that if we had had better reserve pitching we could have caused much more trouble. I feel that we will have that pitching this year."

And as for the pitching picture, Harris had in mind the addition of Virgil Trucks, the old fireballer acquired from the Chicago White Sox, with whom he had a 13-8 record.

He apparently also had in mind Pete Woy, a 33-year-old right-hander, up from Montreal who had a 12-6 record last season.

Besides, several hurlers who joined the Detroit rookie camp that opened Feb. 15 have had Harris and other Tiger brass beaming from ear to ear. Among them are Paul Foytack, who apparently has found long-missing control, and a confident Bud Black, and bonus baby James J. Brady Jr., who apparently has cured a sore arm that plagued him all last season, following his signing off the Notre Dame campus.

Incidentally, general manager Herold (Muddy) Ruet (talked two pitchers into signing 1956 contracts yesterday, leaving only shortstop Harvey Kuenn and 1st baseman Earl Torgerson outside the fold.

Ruet signed Werner (Babe) Birrer, who was 4-3 with Detroit and 2-4 with Buffalo, and Billy Hoelt, left-handed ace of the Tiger staff with a 16-7 won-lost record and a .90 earned run average last season.

As usual the Tigers didn't indicate what either will get.

Don't Wager Against Russell, Woolpert Warns

SAN FRANCISCO (P) — Coach Phil Woolpert of San Francisco had a word of advice today regarding the expected duel between his own Bill Russell and Dayton's Bill Uhl in the East-West All-Star basketball game at New York March 31.

"I wouldn't bet against Russell against anybody," Woolpert said. "Uhl is a 7-foot center; Russell, a 6-10 All-America pivot man."

"I've never seen Uhl or Dayton, even in movies," Woolpert said. "But Russell always has reacted well to playing against big men. He's looking forward to the game."

Majors Decide on New Clubs

Frick Says Big Loops Won't Ask Cities to Take Franchises

PHOENIX, Ariz. (P) — Cities that want big league baseball are going to have to come to the majors, Commissioner Ford Frick believes, because "the majors aren't going to come to them."

The occasional rumors about big league teams hunting for new homes because of financial troubles are "silly," the commissioner said.

"There are 16 sound organizations in the majors now. None is financially weak," he said.

If cities think they're ready for major league status, he advised, "it's up to those cities to go after the franchises."

Frick, here on a visit that will take him to four major league spring training camps in Arizona, noted that there have been several major league franchise shifts in the past few years. But he said he thinks the moving is over, at least for the time being.

CC Luncheon Has Flavor of All-America

John W. Hirlinger, Pontiac's capable and popular Chamber of Commerce Secretary, was host at a luncheon here the other day that included Bob Brown, Secretary of the Kalamazoo Chamber.

Bob's the Ypsilanti boy who played football straight through high school, losing every game but one over the entire stretch.

Thus when Bob matriculated at the nearby University of Michigan, there wasn't a ripple along the greensward on Ferry Field. However, in his sophomore year Bob had the unbridled temerity to go out for the Varsity. His main opponent was one Jack Blott, unanimous All-American the year before and this was in the days of "one platoon" football.

Bob struggled valiantly for a game or two and was finally so discouraged he confided to his cousin, Paul Leidy, once of Pontiac, that he might drop football.

Paul talked to the authorities that be and wanted to know whether his cousin was really that bad. "Bad?" said someone close to the throne, "why, he's so good we're considering playing him at tackle so he can be in the game all the time."

Anyhooooo, the following Saturday Michigan's All-American, (and truly a great one), Jack Blott, broke his leg. This gave the unknown, bewildered and even slightly flustered Bob Brown a break.

Bob finished the Wisconsin game in the place of the great All-American center and Michigan discovered to her intense amazement and delight that the team hadn't been weakened one whit. In fact, as all Michigan fans know, Bob went on to become a full-fledged All-American in his own right.

The Kalamazoo Chamber of Commerce executive now weighs 200 pounds, which is precisely what he weighed as an undergraduate.

How many of you "past forty" graduates can say the same?

DITTO'S IN THE PRESS BOX

It might not impress the AAU but a telephonic poll to Los Angeles sportswriters and sportscasters in regard to the Wes Santee suspension showed that 4,639 calls favored Santee and only one against him.

Balloting for the All-Oakland County basketball team has reached its final stage with the coaches' selection panel making the final tabulations, to be announced soon.

While the massacre was in progress at Louisville, Alabama seemed up no worse than a tie for its first Southeastern Conference title since 1934 by thumping Tennessee 95-81 with George Linn canning 20.

Only the clock stopped the Wildcats as they assaulted helpless Georgia 112-66.

It was the third highest total by one club in college competition after Saturday's surprise, has a 12-0 record. Only Furman's 134-67 pasting of S.C. mark with two to play. The Citadel last season and Ball State can claim the title outright more than 100-100. Auburn, which won 17 of its 18 games, including a 100-0 victory over Vanderbilt, 1944 top it.

Even considering Georgia's dismal 3-17 record, Kentucky's triumph provided a stunning rebuttal after holding an 11-year monopoly after Alabama had hailed off and on the championship.

Except for the explosion in Dixie things went about as expected last night. Illinois, ranked No. 2, 23-2, came back with a vengeance—sinking 60 field goals and 100 points, and, rated 10th, 23 of 32 free throws—even though stayed in a deadlock for the Big Coach Adolph Rupp yanked his Ten lead. They met in a title starters after 17 minutes. It was showdown at Iowa City Saturday 61-26 when the regulars departed in a nationally televised game.

Stadium, Jewelers Trounce Foes in City Cage Activity

Stadium Inn trounced the Keego Merchants and Shaw's Jewelers romped over Stone Front as Pontiac's city basketball leagues began their final week of regular season action Monday night.

All five of Stadium Inn's starters broke into double figures during a 65-55 victory over Keego in adult American League play at Pontiac High School. Randy Hancock and Dal Nelson were high for Stadium with 15 points each while Mike Haines of the Merchants dumped in 21 to take scoring honors.

The league-leading Jewelers rolled merrily along, routing

Clarkston Triumphs in Waterford Loop

Front-running Clarkston blasted the Philgas, 77-42, in Waterford Township Recreation League basketball Monday night at Isaac Cray gymnasium. It was Clarkston's 12th victory in 13 games.

Bob Mills and Dick Hesselgrave led the Merchants with 16 and 14 points respectively. Ed McNamara topped Philgas with 11.

Beattie Motor trimmed the cellar-dwelling Waterford Merchants, 67-56, behind a 32-point effort by Dick Carter. But Stoddard meshed 22 points for Waterford.

Poole Lumber tackles Drayton Drug at 7:15 and Manny's Bar battles Johnson & Anderson at 8:30. In tonight's league activity, ARCADIA, Calif. (P) — A pair of ex-Arizona cowboys may have the pat hand in the $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby this week, a role that is hardly unusual in racing at Santa Anita race track this season.

The leading money winning team at the moment are Rex Ellsworth and Mesbach Tenney, the owner and trainer of two 3-year-olds who are standouts in the derby. Terrang and Luke Magie.

They also have a pat hand in a horse named Swaps, who still merited arguments today over the unique fact that he did not run in the famous Santa Anita Handicap two days ago.

Three of the past four winners of the Santa Anita Derby have gone on to win the traditional Kentucky Derby. Hill Gail in 1952, Dermure in 1951, and Swaps last May.

Opinion was divided on whether Swaps, who was scratched from the handicap Saturday afternoon, could have won. He was withdrawn today Tenney, looking back on the victory of Bobby Brocato, whom Swaps defeated eight days before, reflected.

ARCADIA, Calif. (P) — The 1955 Philadelphia National Sports G. L. Award "for her outstanding contribution in the field of sports" was presented last night to Babe Didrikson Zaharias.

North Dakota's hockey team finished eighth in the playoffs. Officers of president, 1st vice president, 2nd vice president, secretary, treasurer, sergeant-at-arms, one trustee, and 15 board members are to be filled. Bob White is the retiring president.

Pettit Zooms to NBA Lead

NEW YORK (P) — The most productive one-week performance in National Basketball Assn. history has catapulted Bob Pettit of St. Louis well into the lead for the individual scoring title.

The former Louisiana State All-America totaled 190 points—a 31.77 points-a-game average—in 6 games last week and added a "slumping" 23 last night to take a 78-point edge over Philadelphia's Paul Arizin.

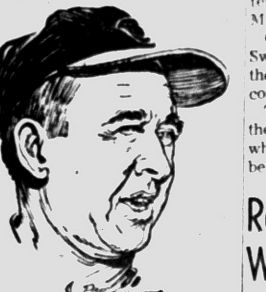

Pettit has a 1,549 total to Arizin's 1,471. Both have played 61 games with 11 to go.

Pettit, who also leads in game average at 25.4 and is near a rebounding record with 986 (excluding last night's game), took a back seat to New York's Carl Braun last night, however, as the Knick playmaker canned 44 points for a 113-109 victory that snapped the Hawks' three-game streak.

Only five games are scheduled in the Oakland County area tonight to mark the most abbreviated prep activity since the 1955-56 basketball season began.

Many teams have already completed their regular season cards and are now awaiting district tournament play.

Tonight's chief attraction looms at Rochester where Gene Keady's

Falcons close their slate against Fitzgerald, leader and probable champion of the Oakland B League.

The well-balanced Spartans, who have dropped just two decisions, chalked up a 50-40 win over Rochester in the season opener for both schools at Fitzgerald. Bolstered by a home floor advantage, the Falcons are hoping for better luck in this one.

Madison's Eagles, deadlocked with Avondale for runner-up spot in the Oakland B, take on Thurston in a return duel at Detroit.

It was against the inept Thurston outfit that sharp-shooting Jim Simer, Oakland County's No. 2 scorer, poured 53 points through the hoop during a 101-56 rout by the Eagles. Simer's total is still tops for the season.

The tussle with Thurston will end Madison's schedule.

St. Frederick clashes with St. James tonight at Ferndale in a return match. Gene Wright's Rams, who have an overall record of 6-7, nosed out the Dales, 58-57, in a previous Suburban Catholic League encounter at St. Fred.

In other area games, Walled Lake's Vikings, who finished 2nd in the Inter-Lakes League, battle the non-loop Wayne on the latter's back Clarence (Ace) Parker today court, and Dryden of the Southern were named to the Virginia Hall Thumb circuit winds up its season of Fame by the Virginia Sports against visiting Flint Hoover.

Dunlap Chilled in First Round

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Archie Moore, light-heavyweight boxing champion, threw only about 10 punches before he knocked out Bob Dunlap, Oakland, Calif., heavyweight, in the first round of their scheduled 10 rounder last night.

Moore weighed 196; Dunlap 200. Dunlap, trying to stay away from Moore, was caught with a left in the midsection and a hard right cross to the jaw. He went down face forward and was counted out in 1:56 of the non-title fight.

"They've been saying my reflexes have slowed up and that I'm slow," Moore said. "I guess this will show them."

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Righthander Joe Dahlke is one of those oddities in baseball who has no desire to be a starting pitcher but hopes to make the Chicago White Sox as a relief specialist.

He has an excellent chance, says Manager Marty Marion.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Pitcher Bill Herriage, a slender righthander with a good fast ball and a quick-breaking curve, is getting close attention in the Kansas City Athletics' training camp.

Herriage, 24, was drafted by the A's from Montgomery, Ala., of the Sally League.

Spud Chandler, A's scout who's been working with pitchers here, has taken a fancy to Herriage.

MONTREAL, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Montreal Royals of the International League today announced the sale of lefthander Tom LaSorda to the Kansas City Athletics of the American League on a conditional basis.

The sale will depend on whether LaSorda makes good in spring training with the Athletics. If he doesn't, he will be sent back to Montreal.

Claim 13 Trophies

Pontiac Table Netters Prosper in Tournament

Pontiac's table tennis contingent captured a goodly share of the honors over the weekend in the 25th annual Michigan Closed Table Tennis Tournament at the Godwin Heights High School gym in Grand Rapids.

This city's representatives claimed four championships, five runner-up positions, and a come-home with a collection of 13 trophies.

Carol Ryan and Ellen Tiffany created the most interesting fireworks. Miss Ryan failed in defense of her junior singles title, but she passed it on to Miss Tiffany who defeated her in the finals in five hotly-contested games by scores of 21-17, 16-21, 21-18, 17-21, and 21-17.

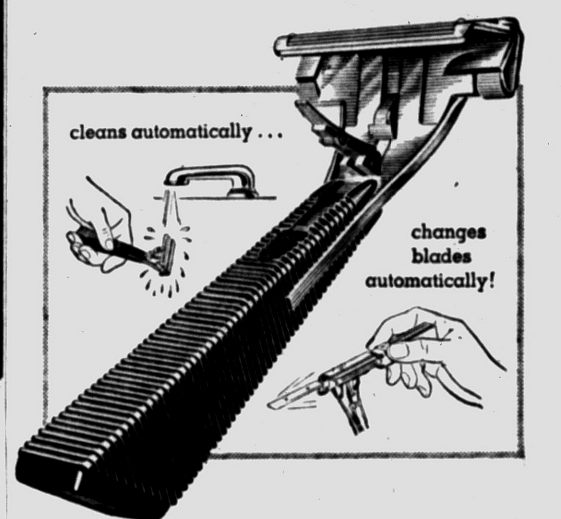

Carol retaliated by downing Ellen in three straight games in the finals of the women's singles, 21-17, 21-19, and 22-20.

The two young ladies then combined their talents to take a fling in the women's doubles competition and finished 2nd. They were beaten by June Martin and Sue Bradford of Grand Rapids in the finals.

Perc Second joined Miss Ryan to win the mixed doubles crown, defeating their Pontiac friends, John Wettlaufer and Miss Tiffany.

Wettlaufer and Jerry Kruskie won the state junior doubles title by trouncing Detroit's Leo Griner and George Payotellis. Payotellis defeated Wettlaufer in the finals of junior boys singles.

Treasure Box, Sidelights Found in Spinster's Shack

CHICAGO (U.P.)—A secret room in a ramshackle house has produced a treasure box filled with money and gold and some intriguing sidelights about the life of two spinster sisters who earned a fortune on the stock market.

The 100-year-old, two-story dwelling in the center of suburban Itasca was the home of Josephine and Cecelia Schroeder—last survivors of a family that settled in Itasca when the region was virgin farmland. They lived there with 16 pet cats.

Josephine died April 23, 1934, at the age of 89. Cecelia died last night after stumbling into a romantic Valentine's—addressed to her last night at 76, leaving to charity the bulk of the $225,000 estate the sisters had amassed.

Good Samaritan Stuck Paying All the Bills

WHEELING, W. Va. (U.P.)—When Dog Warden William Custer found a lost dog, he read in a Wheeling Intelligence want ad that it had been lost by a man from Garfield, Kan.

Custer, at his own expense, telegraphed the Kansan he was shipping the dog and took it to the express office in a $20 wooden shipping crate. The other day, Custer got a call that his crate had been returned so he went to pick it up.

The crate had been shipped collect and Custer had to pay shipping charges out of his own pocket.

Building Show Plans Advance

Joycees Sponsor Event Scheduled for April in Pontiac Armory

Preparations for the 1936 Pontiac Home & Builders Show gathered momentum this week, prompting the prediction from planners that more than 40 city-area business firms will enter exhibits in the third annual event.

Sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, the show will be conducted April 4-5-6-7-8 at the Armory.

Theme of the exhibition will be the presentation of the newest innovations in home building, decoration and planning, according to Co-Chairman L. W. Langford and Donald Weddle.

Displays will be shown in more than 50 specially constructed booths placed along the walls and center of the armory. Exhibitors will include real estate and construction firms, landscaping companies, supply and furnishing firms, insurance agencies and finance institutions.

According to Langford, several booths are still available. Current planning is being devoted to newspaper and radio advertising, and

More than 5,000 area residents paid admission to see last year's four-day event.

Junior High Chorus Will Sing Tonight

All five of the city's junior high schools are set for tonight's Vocal Musical Festival at 8 in the Pontiac High School gymnasium.

This is the first such concert in the city's history. It will include 1,100 students in a mass chorus with each individual school presenting selections.

The chorus will sing spirituals, hymns, folk songs and popular music plus several audience participation numbers.

The chorus is under the direction of George H. Putnam, supervisor of secondary vocal music in the Pontiac schools. He will be assisted by music directors from the participating schools.

The purpose of the festival, Putnam said, is to give the students the experience of participating in a large choral group.

Health Head Seeking Nomination of Sal Mineo Surprises Film Citizens

Oakland County Health Director Dr. John D. Monroe is seeking a Circuit Court order directing owners of a rooming house at 262 Branch St. to demolish the structure.

"The large structure is in a gross state of disrepair and is used as a human habitation by many persons," said Dr. Monroe. It is "dilapidated, unsanitary and unsafe," he alleged.

A date will be set for the owners to appear and attempt to show the building should not be destroyed.

One-half of the pedestrian deaths in the U. S. occur from 6 p. m. to midnight.

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (U. P.) — Who is Sal Mineo?

Many citizens asked that after the Academy Award nominations, in which the name Sal Mineo appeared among the supporting actors. He was named for "Rebel Without a Cause," the second youngest actor ever to be so chosen. (Brandon DeWilde was the youngest, for "Shane" in 1952.)

BRONX YOUNGSTER
For those who are still wondering, I can report that Sal is a 17-year-old boy from the Bronx and proud of it. The Sal is short for Salvatore. You're right—he's of Italian ancestry. His pa is from the old country, is now head of a casket company. His mother was born in this country of an Italian family.

Sal is here for his sixth movie, playing Rocky Graziano's pal in "Somebody Up There Likes Me." For the fourth time, he's playing a juvenile delinquent. But this time he gets to play an adult delinquent too since he ages to 26.

"I'm growing a beard for it," cracked Sal, with only a slight fuzz to show for three days' growth. "And I'm letting my voice drop—like this." His usual tenor descended to a baritone.

The lad admitted he was still reeling from being nominated for the supporting Oscar.

NOT EVEN ASKED
"I wasn't even invited to the affair," he related. "I was home having dinner while the telecast was on. I was going out on a date and I was hardly listening to the announcements."

"I glanced over and saw Edmond O'Brien reading off the names. Suddenly I heard him say 'Sal Mineo.' I leaped up and ran over to the set. I saw O'Brien looking around for me and I yelled, 'I'm here! I'm here!' But he couldn't hear me."

Sal said his great ambition is to win the Oscar, but he feels he'll lose out to Arthur Kennedy, who's up for "Trial."

"It's enough of an honor to be considered along with great actors like Kennedy, Joe Mantell, Arthur O'Connell and Jack Lemmon," he said.

Daughter of Famed Tom Mix Divorces

LOS ANGELES (U. P.) — The daughter of the late Tom Mix got a divorce on testimony that her husband was sullen, refused to have a telephone and was rude even to his own friends.

Superior court awarded an interlocutory decree to Thomasina Mix Andre, 33, married two years ago to Lt. Col. John Allen Andre, 41, a reserve Army officer and writer. They separated last August.

Thomasina, whose father was the king of silent era western movies, was married previously to Bernard J. Matthews, an electronics expert.

"Not as a Stranger" was selected by the Lampoon to head the list of "ten worst movies" last year. Other nominees were "Ulysses," "The Prodigal," "Hit the Deck," "The Tall Men," "The Rains of Ranchipur," "Battle Cry," "The Last Time I Saw Paris," "Long Grey Line" and "Underwater."

The new edition of the 79-year-old undergraduate humor month-ly selected actress Sheree North for its "Roscoe" on the basis of the "courageous self-analysis" which she has displayed in answering a Lampoon questionnaire.

BOBBY MEN
Asked what her hobbies were, Sheree replied, "Yale men—I toy with them."

The clincher for the award, however, might have been her answer to Lampoon's request for "In 50 words or less, please state why you deem yourself worth of this award?"

Sheree's answer: "I am not now nor have I ever been a Communist and I never did a bump and grind in my life."

Other awards:
Title with most interesting alternatives, "Love Me or Leave Me."
Most mature nature movie, "The Seven-Year Itch."

MOST UNPROFITABLE
Most unprofitable return, "To Hell and Back."

Title with most unattractive connotations, "You're Never Too Young."

Most pathetic remnant of a vanishing race, "Victor Mature as Chief Crazy Horse" in film of same name.

Title with most futile advice, "Bring Your Smile Along."
Best reason "For Closing the Open Door," "Love is a Many Splendored Thing."

For the first time, the magazine handed out a "Boscoe." It went to June Allyson "in recognition of the science of geriatrics" (study of old age).

Critic Defends the Emotionalism of 'This Is Your Life'

Boneheaded Critics Irk TV, Stage Actress

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Miss Kim Stanley, the brilliant TV and stage actress, wishes to apologize to the Broadway drama critics whom she purportedly called "fatheads."

"I didn't say 'fatheads'—I said 'boneheads,'" she emphatically told me... so it's all right now, you critics, you can relax... you're only boneheads.

"To me," explained Miss Stanley, "a fathead is somebody who has so much fat around the head he can't think."

"But a bonehead is somebody who is, as they say down in my part of the country, 'sot in his ways.'"

Her part of the country is San Antonio, Houston, Austin and Albuquerque. Blond Miss Stanley explained "the famous boo-boo" while taking time off from a rehearsal for a TV show to be done on "Playwrights 56." The play is "Flight" written by Horton Foote of Texas, with his usual setting—about 40 miles from Houston—and it'll be directed by the celebrated Fred Coe.

"Would you consider it a compliment to be called a bonehead?" I asked Miss Stanley.

"Of course not! In my lexicon a bonehead takes a narrow point of view. I think the critics should not just be reporters saying 'I thought it was a lousy play'—but have an interest in the theater. Many interesting plays that the public would enjoy are not helped by the critics as they should be."

"Once the critics like an actor, they seem to go with him and blame whatever faults there are on the playwright—but I don't think they always know the difference," Kim said.

"Take myself. They act as though I get up on the stage and make up the words, and give very little credit to the playwright."

"Yet in 'Bus Stop,' which they liked, I never really got it right. There was something about that girl I never caught."

(She referred to the girl whom Marilyn Monroe'll play on her return to Hollywood.)

"Maybe it was the playwright's fault," I suggested.

"It was my fault!" she insisted.

"You can see—everybody but you boneheads—she's serious."

"Whenever I hear an actor say, 'That's an awful audience we have tonight,' I think to myself, 'Oh, oh, there's something wrong with the show. Audiences are all right if you give them something.'"

So, anyway, I'm back on the diet. Got to take off a few pounds around my head.

KIM

THE MIDNIGHT EARL...

Bobo Rockefeller and Charles Mapes, the Reno hotel boss, are a big thing again in Hollywood. At the Mocambo regularly... Defense plants now working 40 to 48 hrs-a-wk. will be upped to 60. Trouble ahead... Jack Pearl dropped out of "Strip for Action" because they wanted him to be dramatic and he's a comic. A minor item: they wanted to call him Danny—and he's famous as a Dutchman. But he says they've the best score he ever heard and predicts a hit.

The 20% cabaret tax is finally about to be cut to 10%... "Under-the-table" payoffs to stars and agents is reportedly Herman Hovver's reason for closing famous Ciro's in Hollywood May 26... Jim Hanson, the truck tycoon, must like Audrey's. First Hepburn (they were engaged), now Meadows, at El Morocco... Actress Carol Marcus Saroyan Grace, the Dayton, San Francisco, Hollywood, New York beauty in "Rock Hunter," one of the nicest women anybody ever met, is writing a play in which she might star.

CAROL GRACE

Jackie Gleason winds up his season's TV filming this week... Jack E. Leonard, now down to 235, told Sinatra, "To me you're 'Fat Frank'..." AGVA and ARA (Artists Representative Ass'n, the theatrical mgrs.), agreed to a 5-year pact, a big step for the Cafe Biz...

Kim Novak gets the next Life cover... Ex-Mayor Bill O'Dwyer is due here next month and may stay for St. Patrick's Day... Farley Granger, trying to visit Sammy Davis Jr. backstage at the "Wonderful" in Philly was thrown out by the doorman... Jill Corey was refused a drink at the English Grill 'cause she looked too young. (Her job: Singing at a night club.)

James Cagney may do the film bio of song publisher Jack Robbins... MGM paid 7G's to use the suspense music from the $64,000 Question in its film, "Meet Me in St. Louis"... Eddie and Debbie named their two new horses "Coke" and "Cola"... Doris Day who played Ruth Elting in "Love Me or Leave Me" now wants to buy the Elting home in Hwood.

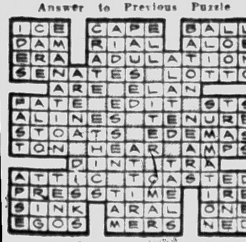

Earl's Pearls... Most men will agree that a woman's work is never done... she usually puts it off for a few days.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Most people can piss in more languages than they can speak"—Morty Gumpy.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Pat (Red Carpet) Harrington, told of a Hwood blonde... Thursday has a special meaning for her—it's the only day of the week she wasn't married.

Come Jimmy Carter heard of a singer going to Hwood, hoping for a screen test, and said, "The last people who went west without a signed contract were Lewis and Clark!" That's earl, brother.

Runaway Gets Ride From the Wrong Man

CATLETTSBURG, Ky. (P)—Jack Hodge, an investigator for the state, gave Jack Ellen, 32, a ride yesterday.

He recognized the hitchhiker as an escaped prisoner. Ellen was back in jail today, with six months automatically added to his term for escaping.

State Descendants of 'Lost 10 Tribes' Plan to Make New Home in Israel

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A Michigan man and his wife who say they sincerely believe they descended from the "lost 10 tribes" of Israel are heading for a new home in Israel and are sure others will follow.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Cletas Trinker who have just sold their home at Fairhaven, Mich., to emigrate to Israel. He is 44, a tool maker, and he says he gave up a $125-a-week job in a factory to make the change. His wife, 53, was once a Salvation Army worker.

They and their three married children are only a few of hundreds in Michigan, who, they say, have been converted to observance of old Jewish Biblical laws and holidays. They look on settling in Israel as carrying out old Biblical prophecies.

The United Israel World Union, a New York and Tel Aviv organization, claims there are five million people like them in the world. It points to Italian and Japanese immigrants who already have settled in Israel, observing its religious laws. It says others are clamoring to go there.

Trinker, who quotes the Bible copiously to justify his stand—"some of the boys thought I was crazy to give up a good job," he says—insists that he and his wife are making their move because they think it is the only right thing to do.

He was pleased when compared with Joshua going out to spy on the Bible's promised land for others.

CHILDREN TO FOLLOW

Their married son and two married daughters and their families, have remained behind but plan to come later on, Trinker told reporters here.

There are others in the Fairhaven and west Olive region who think the same way he does, he insists. They not only observe laws forbidding the eating of pork or certain kinds of fish but all of them went through new marriage ceremonies several years ago that united them according to Mosaic rites.

The Trinkers hope to catch a freighter to get them to Israel in time for the Passover Holidays late in March.

"What about the talk of Israel being in danger of a war," he was asked.

"The Bible says there will be a final struggle and that Israel will prevail," Trinker answered.

Anxious Police Answer Alarming False Alarm

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—After two recent bank alarms, Wichita's edgy detective force poured out in heavy force when another alarm was set off, this time at the Internal Revenue Service, only two blocks from police headquarters.

Plainclothesmen and uniformed cops galloped in squads to the federal office, found a clerk had inadvertently put a stack of papers on the burglar alarm button.

Arabic but he thinks they can get along and that he will be valuable because of his machine and tool knowledge. And he already has friends there. His decision to go followed a long correspondence with the family of Eliezer Tritto, one of the Italians in the convert colony at Safad.

Sore Thumb Proves Difficulty in Parking

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Parker Pyatt can testify that it's getting pretty difficult finding a parking place in downtown Peoria.

car after circling a block. But another motorist—unidentified—raced him to squeeze into the space first.

Both men jumped out of their cars and scuffled. The other man bit Pyatt's thumb so severely the nail had to be removed at a hospital. Pyatt, 25, of Galesburg, Ill., finally found a space to park his car.
