

Commuter Newsletter

Published Sporadically by Commuter Council

DEC. 8, 1969 No. 3

CHRISTMAS ART, BOOK and GIFT FAIR Wednesday, December 10th

DORM STUDENTS AND COMMUTERS Cleaning out your rooms for the holiday?

Bring old clothes, books and toys to the Commuter Council Christmas Collection for needy families in the area. First collection will be Wednesday at the Christmas Art, Book and Gift Fair (upper level of the O.C. all day Wednesday) or take your contributions to the Commuter Council desk in the Activities Center.

CAR POOLS and APARTMENTS WINTER '70

Need transportation next semester?

Want more riders to join your car pool?

Commuter Council will start a new CAR POOL FILE of all commuters at Winter Registration. Sign up then and check the file later.

Looking for an apartment?

Commuter Council is composing a catalog of apartment locations near the University. Sign up your apartment house at Registration. There will also be a ROOMMATE FILE for anyone interested in becoming or finding a roommate.

VOTE YES FOR ENLARGEMENT AMENDMENT

Commuter Council would like to see the Council increase according to the commuter population so that we may adequately represent ALL commuter needs. We would like to see 15 members on the Council now and be able to increase as the need arises. Vote YES at registration.

Find out what your Commuter Council is doing for you.
Our weekly meetings are open to all students.
2-3 p.m. in the O.C. Faculty Lounge.

* O.U. Hockey Team has a game Friday, 2:30 p.m. at Winter Wonderland

THINK SNOW