Suspect Soldier in Gorham Case

GI Was Camp Aide When Boy Vanished; Showup Planned

MUSKOGEE — Police said they would question a soldier from Fort Riley, Kan., today in the slaying of 12-year-old Peter Gorham.

And they planned a showup of Camp Wabamungo personnel for a woman who reported seeing "a boy like Peter" talking to a motorist the day the Evanston, Ill., boy scout vanished.

Peter vanished July 5 while on a hike at the Duck Lake scout camp. His body was found Sunday five miles from the camp area. He had been shot through the head with a small caliber bullet.

Prosecutor Robert Cavanaugh said the soldier, whom he identified only as from Texas and a member of the special engineer corps' camouflage division at Fort Riley, was a counselor at the camp from July 27 to July 11 while on furlough.

SHOWUP PLANNED

The showup was planned for Mrs. Elsie Farrell who lives near the camp, 12 miles north of Muskogee. She reported July 7 she saw a boy she said was "like Peter" talking two days before to a motorist, Police are seeking the driver of a blue car who they believe talked to Peter about a half an hour after the youngster disappeared.

Capt. Leroy Hunt, who is heading the state police investigation in the boy's death, described Mrs. Farrell as a "positive witness."

In Evanston, Frederick A. Gorham, Peter's father, said it was his opinion that "no person connected with the camp had anything to do with the abduction and slaying of Peter."

Cooler Weather Predicted Here for Tomorrow

The U. S. Weather Bureau sees cooler weather tomorrow following today's near-90 degree temperatures.

Tomorrow's more temperate air will end a two-day return of the hot weather which plagued the area for more than a month. Yesterday, the mercury rose to 90 degrees in downtown Pontiac and today it hit the 88-degree mark.

Occasional rain is expected tomorrow night. Taking a look at the next month's weather outlook, the weather bureau said the Pontiac area will have normal temperatures, ranging between 62 and 82 degrees.

At 8 a.m. today, the mercury stood at 73 degrees, rising to 88 at 1 p.m.

Nonogenerian Dies

RAINELLE, W. Va. — Mrs. Mary Frances Kenney, 93, died yesterday, leaving 149 direct descendants, 5 sons, 6 daughters, 62 grandchildren, 75 great-grandchildren, 75 great-great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great-grandchild.

Oakland Citizens League Proposes County Manager

The Oakland Citizen League has published the first of a series of bulletins describing why it feels county government here could be improved by installing a stronger executive head, such as a county manager.

There is no chief executive in Oakland County. Instead we have a committee, the Board of Auditors, the league says.

"There is no business manager, as such. There is no centralized purchasing, administration or supervision over the numerous agencies performing duplicate functions within the county."

Loose Plug on Gas Line May Have Caused Blast

The explosion which demolished a home at 6-8 Liberty St. Monday may have been due to a loose clean-out plug on the 1 1/4-inch gas service line leading into the basement, Pontiac Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz said today.

An inspection team found the loose installation yesterday, Metz explained. Gas may have seeped into the basement through it, he added.

Peronistas End Uneasy Truce

Supreme Council Warns Catholic Churchmen to Expect Reprisal Action

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina. — The end of a shaky two-month truce between the Roman Catholic Church and Argentina's dominant Peronista political party appeared at hand today.

The party's Supreme Council last night indicated its open anti-church campaign would be revived with a statement condemning "those who use religious dogma and their church as instruments of low political ends." The council said the time had come for it to resume all-out political activity.

Such a move had been expected after the government announced Monday that it had uncovered a plot to assassinate President Juan D. Peron and other government leaders. The government blamed "Catholic nationalists" and opposition political leaders.

Peron last November brought a church-state dispute into the open with a charge that some church leaders were working to undermine his regime. The church denied the accusation.

Since the June 16 revolt the government has soft-pedaled criticism of the church and sponsored a move in Congress to postpone for six months the constitutional convention authorized to remove "Catholic nationalists" and opposition state church.

Public demonstrations and disturbances which began Monday continued yesterday. Police fired tear gas to break up a crowd of 500 students shouting insults at the government in the city of Eva Peron, 40 miles south of Buenos Aires.

Meanwhile, Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said his office will investigate the blast on request of W. E. C. Huthwaite and Arthur P. Bogue, attorneys for the home's owner, Hugh M. Dana.

Dana, 45, in the basement with two Consumers Power Co. servicemen when the explosion occurred, was taken off the critical list at Pontiac General Hospital today. He is now reported in fair condition.

The two servicemen are in fair condition. They are Benson Bruff, owners of a house at 103 Henderson St. directly in back of the blast site, returned from a vacation. They said their garage was wrecked and house and auto severely damaged.

The inspection team was composed of Metz, Assistant Fire Marshal E. J. Nolen, City Plumbing Inspector Peter Bickley, State Fire Marshal Loren O'Farrell and Pontiac Police Detective James Bale.

Assistant Prosecutor Homer G. Gerue will conduct the prosecutor's office investigation, said Ziem.

Bull Defies Captors

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — A 1,300-pound Brahma bull escaped from a slaughter house yesterday and still roamed free although hit by about 20 pistol bullets. Five armed men stalked the dangerous animal until sundown and then gave up the hunt until daylight.

The threat of Hurricane Diane moved the ceremony from the deck of an aircraft carrier in Norfolk, Va., where it had been planned, to the steps of the academy dormitory Burke left as a midshipman 32 years ago.

Burke won fame in World War II as commander of the "Little Beaver" destroyer squadron in the South Pacific. Adm. William Halsey nicknamed him "31-Knot Burke" for steaming through a group of American ships to attack an enemy-held island point. At 53, he becomes one of the youngest men to be named to the top post. Carney is 60.

South Koreans Stone GI Officer at Neutral Camp

American Hurt as Mob Raids Convoy En Route to Truce Team Billets

SEOUL (AP)—Rock-hurling South Koreans injured an American Army officer today as they again turned their wrath against U. S. troops guarding inspection teams of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission.

Lt. Wayne N. Hansen, Augusta, Ga., was hit on the head as South Koreans hurled a barrage of rocks and stones at eight U. S. Army vehicles crossing the causeway between Inchon and Wolmi Island, where neutral truce inspectors are housed.

Army doctors said Hansen sustained a slight brain concussion and bruises of the ribs and legs but described his condition as "not serious."

The incident, latest in the series of South Korean demonstrations demanding ouster of pro-Communist Czech and Polish members of the NNCS, flared into violence as 100 South Koreans tried to block Army supply trucks going to Wolmi.

It came just as last week's mob rioting and demonstrations against NNCS personnel appeared to have subsided and as Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, U.N. Far East commander, was en route to Seoul airport for the return flight to his Tokyo headquarters.

Lemnitzer spent several heated sessions with South Korean President Syngman Rhee last week, sternly warning Rhee that American troops would protect all members of the NNCS from violent demonstrations.

Lemnitzer conferred with Rhee again today.

The county "thus repeatedly demonstrated that it wants to run its own affairs and set up its government according to its own desires."

In 1958 Michigan citizens will vote on whether they want a constitutional convention for a general overhaul of the state constitution. This should afford a chance to make changes in the county government setup, the league points out.

A state law passed in 1927 would permit Oakland to name a "county controller," the group states.

He would have "some of the powers of a city manager—accounting, purchasing, building maintenance—but lack the important power of appointment of board members or department heads."

"Is that, however, what we want—a controller instead of a responsible executive?"

Threat to Shoot Puts Down Nebraska Prison Rebellion

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—A 12-hour prison rebellion at the Nebraska State Penitentiary collapsed today when armed troopers and National Guardsmen marched into the cell block with orders to shoot to kill if necessary. No shots were fired.

Gov. Victor Anderson said about 225 prisoners, who had set fire to six prison shops and spent the night smashing furniture and equipment in their cell block, offered "no difficulty at all" after Warden Joseph Bovey told them at 6 a.m. to be back in their cells within two minutes or the troopers would shoot.

When the troopers and guardsmen marched into the cell block they found all prisoners within their cells.

Newsmen waiting outside the walls heard a noise that sounded to them like a gun shot, but Gov. Anderson told them that was the automatic cell doors being shut.

Three convicts were injured during the rebellion which started just after supper last night. Two were slugged over the head last night by other inmates, and when officers entered the cell block this morning they found a third convict, his face and shirt covered with blood, curled up in the back of a cell.

No guards were injured. The governor attributed this to Warden Bovey's move in withdrawing the unarmed guards from the prison yards yesterday when he got the tip-off to the impending outbreak—demands from a group of convicts that two men who had been placed in segregation yesterday be released.

This was Nebraska's second prison rebellion this year. Last March eight prisoners seized two guards and holed up in the security building for 3 1/2 days before they were starved out.

Beach Resorts Hit as Center Creeps Inland

Winds, Rain Whiplash Unprotected Area Torn by Connie's Fury

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Hurricane Diane threw her full punch at the North Carolina coast today and moved inland across the southeastern part of the state.

High winds and tides lashed the beaches of upper South Carolina and southern North Carolina but earlier reports indicated the damage would not be as serious as feared.

The center of the hurricane, about which 100-mile winds revolved, moved inland over Wilmington about 5:20 a.m., approximately two hours before high tide.

The storm began to lose force as it plodded north-northwest at about 14 miles an hour over the land.

South Carolina beaches, at the edge of the storm after it veered northward during the night, suffered only minor damage as they had during Connie, which hit roughly the same area last week.

North Carolina was harder hit but not damaged as much as during Connie, reports indicated.

At Carolina Beach, N. C. on a peninsula south of Wilmington, waves washed away several feet of the beach and pounded the buildings in the boardwalk area. Water flooded streets and washed across from the ocean to the yacht basin. But observers said the damage there was not as serious as that caused by Connie.

At Atlantic Beach, to the northeast, many houses were seriously damaged by waves.

Hurricane winds, 75 miles or higher, were recorded along the North Carolina coast with gusts up to 95 miles at Southport, N.C.

In a special 7 a.m. bulletin, the Weather Bureau said Diane's center was a short distance north-northwest of Wilmington.

Before the storm hit land, hurricane force winds extended far ahead of the storm center and gales ranged up to 250 miles out.

Many of the buildings on the North Carolina coast were unprotected. Last week's Connie carried away protective sand dunes which had been rebuilt after Hurricane Hazel's onslaught only last October.

Tentatively OK Annexing Land

Shopping Center Site Final Approval Hinges on Several Provisos

Annexation of a 145-acre shopping center site in Bloomfield Township was given tentative approval by the City Commission last night.

Although not giving a full green light to the project, the Commission gave the developers strong indication the city will annex the land at Telegraph and Square Lake Rds. when it concurred with a Plan Commission report recommending the move.

Final approval will hinge on several provisos included in the planning board's report. Included were the questions of sewage, draining and water facilities, land for widening Franklin road and annexation of other nearby property to straighten the city limits.

The commission sent the questions to City Manager Walter K. Willman for answers. He is scheduled to present them at next week's meeting.

"I don't see any serious objections, but in fairness to the citizens of Pontiac we want all the angles covered," said Mayor William W. Donaldson. "But this, in effect, is tentative approval."

Developer Bernard Edelman, of Detroit, said the center, which will cover 50 of the 145 acres, will have a property value of $5,000,000 and a yearly inventory of another $5,000,000.

"And this is only a portion of the development," he added. "It may hit $25,000,000 in three, maybe four years." Edelman previously indicated offices might be constructed on the adjacent land.

Official Plan New POW Code

Compromise of Strict, Lenient Attitude Set in Case of War

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Summer White House in Colorado and the Pentagon planned to spell out late today a new code for conduct for American servicemen who become prisoners in another war.

President Eisenhower, vacationing at Fraser, Colo., was reported ready to sign an executive order authorizing the new program.

A commission of retired senior officers and Pentagon civilians prepared a report to guide the services in training their men.

The new code is known to represent a compromise between the stern attitude of the Army and the far more lenient viewpoint of the Air Force on conduct of prisoners of war.

The commission studied cases growing out of charges that some Americans yielded to Communist pressure in North Korean camps and either signed false confessions or collaborated with the enemy to obtain better treatment for themselves.

Only the Army has actually court-martialed anybody on such charges. In eight completed cases, two men were acquitted, one officer was dismissed after a finding of guilty and five servicemen drew sentences ranging from 2 to 20 years.

An additional six court-martial cases are pending and the Army said that preliminary investigations point to the possibility of 12 other trials.

The Air Force secretly investigated 83 cases. It found no serious fault in most of these cases, but allowed seven men to resign and released three others, none of them under dishonorable conditions.

Discussion Set on Institutions' Lack of Space

Two Oakland County officials will meet Monday with Governor Williams to discuss how institutional space might be provided to care for the increasing number of mentally-defective juveniles in this area.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore and State Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) will convene with governor at 2 p.m. in Lansing.

The two revealed Aug. 8 that 93 county children have been committed to the Lapeer State Home and Training School but cannot gain admittance for lack of space.

They remain a tremendous burden on their families. Bloomfield said today he has learned the Pinecrest Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Oshtemo is vacant. The senator said he will propose converting it to care for mental defectives.

"At least 100 Oakland and Wayne County children could probably be housed there," he stated. "We're going to suggest that it be converted immediately."

Brothers Suffocate in Old Refrigerator

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two young brothers playing in an abandoned refrigerator were trapped and suffocated last night.

The bodies of Lee Andrews, 2, and his brother Lewis, 5, were discovered by their mother when she opened the refrigerator in a vacant first-floor apartment of their north Philadelphia tenement.

The mother, Mrs. Veronica Andrews, 21, had just returned from a police station where she reported the boys missing.

She pulled the boys, clad only in shorts, from the tiny cubicle and summoned aid. A doctor reported he detected signs of life in the younger boy, but despite emergency efforts, both were pronounced dead in Hahnemann Hospital.

Police Clinics Continue Slow Pace in Area

The vaccine anti-polio program continues at a low ebb in the two County clinics, as 83 first and second graders were inoculated yesterday.

Dr. John D. Monroe, Oakland County health director, reports that 51 children were treated Tuesday at the Pontiac clinic on West Huron street.

At the South Oakland County Health Center in Royal Oak, doctors yesterday administered vaccine to 32 youngsters, according to Dr. Frank J. Condon, deputy director.

The two figures bring the total of children treated Monday and Tuesday to 135, which brings the overall figure for youngsters processed at both clinics to 1,768. Some 11,113 have yet to be inoculated. Meanwhile, the number of reported polio cases in Oakland County continues to decrease. Last week four cases were listed in the county, while the previous week saw six polio victims stricken.

POW Murder Trial Continues

Gallagher Denies He Caused Death of Three American Prisoners

NEW YORK, (AP)—The court-martial of Sgt. James C. Gallagher, 23, accused of collaborating with the Reds and of unpremeditated murder of three fellow prisoners in North Korea, is expected to end today.

The tall, red-blond Brooklyn soldier completed his own defense testimony yesterday. He denied causing the deaths of three other prisoners and said much of the previous testimony was mistaken in alleging that he carried favor with Communist captors.

He said mistaken impressions probably stemmed from his general unpopularity in the POW camp. "The men just didn't like me," he stated.

Emuel Turner, 22, Evans, Ky., said Gallagher had kicked him when he tried to get a pair of trousers from a banister at Gallagher's hut. When defense counsel suggested he might have been caught stealing, Turner answered:

"I didn't have any pants. Gallagher had about six pair hanging up there."

He said Gallagher kicked him several times and "after the first one I didn't feel any more." He said he was suffering from dysentery and "could hardly walk."

center and were expected to spread over eastern North Carolina and into Virginia as the storm progressed.

BEACHES EVACUATED
Most of the exposed beaches had been evacuated as Diane approached. Hurricane-wise Carolinians took no chances with Diane as they had taken none with Connie.

Last week's storm lashed the same area and swept northward at reduced force, pouring flooding rains on areas as far north as New York. Forty-three deaths were attributed to her, but no one died on the beaches.

Once again the South Carolina shoreline, though buffeted by wind and tides along the northern beaches, appeared to have escaped the main power of the storm as it did with Connie.

Military and naval installations had made preparations early. Planes were flown out of the area and ships moved into more secure anchorages. More than 80 naval ships put to sea, or moved up the Chesapeake Bay to hurricane anchorage.

More than 500 naval planes were flown inland from Virginia bases. Marine air bases in North Carolina were emptied.

The Weather Bureau said Hurricane Diane is expected to hit northwestern Virginia early tomorrow.

Grace Smith of Toledo Taken by Death Today

TOLEDO (AP)—Grace Estelle Smith, 72, operator of Smith's Cafeteria and Service Restaurant and one of the nation's leading restaurateurs, died here today.

Besides the cafeteria, Miss Smith had operated five other Toledo eating establishments at various times. She was the only woman ever to serve as President of the National Restaurant Association.

She also was a past president of the Ohio State Restaurant Association and the Toledo Restaurant Association.

Surviving are her brothers, Ralph B. Smith, president of the Grace E. Smith Co., and Paul M. Smith, and sisters, Mrs. S. W. Mason, Toledo, and Mrs. James H. Sibbison, Cleveland.

Service will be Saturday in Toledo.

The Sault Ste. Marie canal has handled a total of 4,288,434,396 tons of freight since it was opened.

GUARDING THE SKYWAYS — A Nike rocket points sharply skyward as Sgt. Charles H. Spere of Wichita, Kans., talks to the fire control unit by phone during a demonstration at launching site in Skokie Lagoons north of Chicago. The missile site is one of many which ring the Chicago area. Nike missile installations like it are deployed throughout the United States as an inner ring of defense for industrial, highly populated and strategic areas.

Named after the goddess of victory of Greek mythology, the Nike is a deadly weapon designed to seek out and destroy enemy aircraft traveling at supersonic speeds.

INSTALLATION OPENED
This Nike guided missile installation was opened for inspection for the first time since the perimeter defense system was established. The first site was installed at Ft. Meade, Md., in December, 1953.

A visit to Nike launching site is revealing. Except for Nike itself, you see little that makes spectacular news until the details of its operation are explained. The speed, range, altitude and lethality of Nike are classified. So are its instrument panels and guiding equipment.

A Nike system consists of a large underground storage area available by platform elevator. The expendable missiles are launched from above ground racks. A separate missile loading area and a control station are placed some distance from the launchers.

The Nike is fired from an almost vertical position. Each is ready to go at a moment's notice. They are manned 24 hours a day, seven days a week, Lt. Henschel said.

NIKE GUIDED TO ITS TARGET BY RADAR
Nike is guided to its target by radar. Ground control equipment includes three radars, a computer, automatic plotting boards, remote control launching racks and gasoline powered generators.

One of the three radars searches the target and detects the approach of distant aircraft. The second is a tracking radar which picks up and tracks the enemy plane as it approaches and feeds information on its movements to the computer. The third radar tracks the missile throughout its flight and reports its computer. These data enable the missile to go where it can hit the target.

Snake Cultists Plan Rite With Killer Rattler

PINEVILLE, Ky. (AP)—As a testimony to their faith, members of a snake-handling cult planned to hold services Sunday with a rattlesnake that fatally bit one of their mountain preachers.

Preacher Oscar Sutton said the killer snake will be handled by a Pentecostal Church congregation at a "big" meeting just across the Kentucky line in Virginia.

The announcement came Tuesday at the funeral here for Lee Valentine, who died 10 hours after being bitten by the rattler during services Saturday in Ft. Payne, Ala.

Snake handling violates Kentucky and Alabama law. Alabama authorities are investigating the death of Valentine, 52, of Pineville.

An overflow crowd turned out for the last rites on Straight Creek, the community Valentine served for many years. There were eulogies, singing, guitar picking and snake handling.

More than a dozen preachers eulogized Valentine. And while four guitar pickers sang, other preachers handled two copperheads and passed them among the crowd.

Dawson Examination Re-Scheduled Sept. 7

The examination of former Lake Orion auto dealer David P. Dawson on an embezzlement charge has been postponed to Sept. 7 in Lake Orion Justice Court, Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today.

Dawson, 31, is accused of embezzling $28,862 from the Universal CIT Credit Corp. branch office here between Oct. 27, 1954 and May 18 this year. Defense attorneys asked the adjournment, Taylor explained.

Grand Larceny Attempt Charges Face Two Men

Two men will be arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court Monday on charges of attempted grand larceny.

They are Ralph Lee, 18, of Royal Oak, and Kermet McDonald, 21, of Warren Township. Both were being held in the county jail on $500 bonds set by West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

Keego Harbor police said they were caught in the act of taking a $425 outboard motor from a boat Aug. 5.

Nike Missiles Set for Defense

Antiaircraft Weapon Launching Site Opens for Inspection

CHICAGO (AP)—Nike, the U. S. Army's supersonic anti-aircraft guided missile, now is ready to act as the nation's first line of defense against enemy air attack.

"I hope the day never comes when we'll have to use it," said 1st Lt. William Henschel during a guided tour of site C-93 of the Chicago-Gary AAA defense network. "But we'll be ready if we do."

Lt. Henschel is one of 8 officers and 101 enlisted men who man "B" Battery of the 86th AAA Missile Battalion. Situated in Skokie Lagoons north of Chicago, the unit is one of many which ring the Chicago area. Nike missile installations like it are deployed throughout the United States as an inner ring of defense for industrial, highly populated and strategic areas.

Nike is guided to its target by radar. Ground control equipment includes three radars, a computer, automatic plotting boards, remote control launching racks and gasoline powered generators.

One of the three radars searches the target and detects the approach of distant aircraft. The second is a tracking radar which picks up and tracks the enemy plane as it approaches and feeds information on its movements to the computer. The third radar tracks the missile throughout its flight and reports its computer. These data enable the missile to go where it can hit the target.

Water Wonderland

LANSING (AP)—No point in Michigan is more than 50 miles from one of the Great Lakes. And a lake or stream is no more than six miles from any one spot. Michigan has 11,037 inland lakes larger than 10 acres.

SARTORIAL PERFECTION — What the well-dressed man will wear this year, either on the streets of Pontiac or the sidewalks of New York, is modeled by Robert Smith and Aaron Talcott. Smith, at the left, models a three-button Ivy League coffee brown sport coat with charcoal brown flannel slacks and pure silk tie. Talcott chooses an imported Dunkinshire fleece tweed charcoal-brown top coat and a Dobbs charcoal-brown, snap brim hat.

A-Power Knowhow Unmasked by U. S.

GENEVA (INS)—The United States explained at Geneva today the why's and wherefore's of atomic energy and just what has to be known to produce it.

The report, hailed as a "historic landmark," disclosed the results of highly secret research into the fundamental physical processes of the atomic era.

But the paper read by Dr. Vance L. Sailor of the Brookhaven National Laboratory shed little light on the subject for the man in the street or even the college physics student.

It summarized in terms and symbols incomprehensible to anyone but an advanced mathematician the results of all research made on atoms in the United States.

Dr. Sailor told the scientists at the atoms-for-peace conference that "the interaction of neutrons with uranium 235 is the fundamental physical process of the atomic era."

"A detailed understanding of the process," he added, "is the key to the entire atomic technology."

DETAILED REACTION
Another American scientist, Robert S. Stone of the University of California, said a person exposed to radioactivity might not show the effects for 25 years. He said the time lag would make it difficult to connect cause and effect.

Dr. A. A. Letavet of Russia advised the conference that shorter working days and longer paid vacations were among the best ways of protecting the health of workers in atomic plants.

Commissioners Seek Pay Hike After 30 Years

Although his proposal that City Commissioners' posts become completely honorary ones failed dismally, Mayor William W. Donaldson last night succeeded in establishing a committee to study increasing the seven commissioners' lowly salaries.

Commissioners receive $5 for each official meeting they attend, with a maximum salary of $300 a year.

"This schedule was set over 30 years ago and at the present time is considered grossly inadequate," Donaldson said.

"At present, the position is practically an honorary one. I, for one, would rather forego the present remuneration and make it purely an honorary position until an adequate adjustment is made."

The present Commission has often been referred to as a good commission. I would be willing to be "good for nothing" if it would help to rectify the present situation."

Donaldson's motion that the $5 pay scale be eliminated from the city charter failed for lack of a second. But unanimous approval was given his second proposal that a study committee be formed "to consider modern compensation for the commissioners."

Named to the committee were former mayors John C. Cowe, James F. Spence and Arthur J. Law, and former commissioners Harold W. Dudley and Harcourt S. Patterson.

The Day in Birmingham

City Okays $86,000 Bid in Eton Park Rink Start

BIRMINGHAM — After lengthy debate at this week's City Commission meeting, and upon advice of the architect, lawmakers approved the second low bid of $86,000 by Chissus Construction Co. of Birmingham for the architectural work to be done towards construction of the city's first artificial ice skating rink at Eton Park.

Assistant City Engineer Grober R. Serenbetz said this morning the commission has 10 days after awarding the bid to sign the contract. He did not know when construction would begin but hoped the rink would be available by the first of the year.

With a $125,000 bond issue passed for that purpose, City Manager Donald C. Egbert estimated that costs now stand at $136,000. Mechanical bids will be received this Friday.

Despite the July heat wave, the city's water department records for that month show that no day has equalled the May 21 water demand, when just under 6,000,000 gallons were consumed.

The monthly report indicates heavy demands, with an output of 116,887,200 gallons from Birmingham's eight wells. The maximum total gallons pumped for any one day fell on July 17 when water usage totaled 5,893,300 gallons.

A dance is in store for members of the YMCA Young Adult Club tonight, who will leave the "Y" at 8 p.m. for the Hannan YMCA in Detroit. President Jim Patterson invited men and women between the ages of 18 and 35 to join the group.

What's in a name? Plenty, as far as Bruce Carlisle is concerned. The young dancer, home on vacation from the Juillard School of Music in New York, joined the cast putting on the Melody Circus performances at the Botsford Inn, Farmington.

This necessitated entry into Chorus Equity Society, theatrical union. Much to his chagrin, Carlisle was told that someone else already had the stage name of Bruce Carlisle, and that he'd have to find something different.

He's now trying to accustom himself to the new moniker of "Kevin" Carlisle. Bruce, or Kevin, is staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carlisle, of 764 Southfield Rd.

Baldwin and St. James Parks, in addition to Booth Playground, will receive the consideration long due them, city commissioners said this week.

Because the three were gifts, lawmakers moved to secure bronze name signs, showing the donors and the official name of the park. Other city parks will receive future consideration.

City Manager Donald C. Egbert attended his first City Commission meeting this week, since incapacitated with a broken leg suffered in a June 27 automobile accident.

Study New Proposal on Prisoners' Release

A suggested city ordinance establishing a new policy for the release of arrested persons was referred to the city attorney for study at last night's City Commission meeting.

The ordinance, closely paralleling a recently established county-wide policy for releasing state law violators from jail, was proposed by Milton R. Henry, a Pontiac attorney. It would apply to persons arrested for violating city ordinances.

City Attorney William A. Ewart was instructed by the Commission, to which Henry submitted the proposal, to study the plan and report on it at a future meeting.

State GOP Official To Be Guest at Picnic

Michigan's recently appointed Republican National Committeeman Clifford O'Sullivan, a Port Huron attorney, will be an honored guest at the annual picnic of the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County tomorrow at 6 p.m. in Rochester's Avon Park.

O'Sullivan was named by the GOP State Central Committee to replace David Kendall, of Jackson. Many other state Republican leaders will attend, according to Federation Chairman Mrs. Charles Barrett, of Pontiac.

Sunday Dixie Crash Claims 2nd Victim

A 4-car crash Sunday on Dixie Highway claimed its second victim today when 16-year-old Bobby Fugate, of Jackson, Ky., died at Pontiac General Hospital.

Fugate, who died at 3 a.m., was one of nine persons injured in the smashup. Glenda Churchwell, 17, of Flint, was killed instantly.

The crash, at Tindall Road in Brandon Township, took place when a northbound car went out of control and collided head-on with three southbound autos.

Pontiac Boys' Clubbers Hold 'Bike Rodeo' Today

Following a "Bike Rodeo" this afternoon at Eastern Junior High School for all members of the Boys Club, younger children in the club will officially close their Davy Crockett program with an open house tonight.

William Coulaos, executive director of the club, said bike riders would participate in small races, speed races, and carrom contest.

All age groups will participate. Davy Crockett Clubbers and older boys, Coulaos said. Prizes will be given to winners of the various events.

About 75 youngsters in the Davy Crockett program will meet in the Boys Club tonight at 7 o'clock to receive awards for completing various projects. Wooden medals with an embossed symbol of their accomplishments will be given for library activities, airplane spotting, woodworking, campfires, and swimming, among others.

The afternoon and evening events will be jointly supervised by physical education director Michael Florillo, program director Joseph Sheveller, and Coulaos.

Coulaos announced that the Boys Club will close for two weeks beginning Saturday, allowing the 34 staff members to take vacation at the same time.

"Because of our large membership and the number of boys we serve, it is advisable to close the club for two weeks, rather than be short-staffed during the summer," Coulaos explained.

He said program changes have been made for the coming year in order to serve new members who have joined since the first of the year.

He remarked on the summer program by saying, "The program gave the boys an opportunity to learn to do things they have never done before, such as various wood-working projects, camping, and other activities."

Red Chinese Accuse U. S. of Korean Truce Breach

TOKYO, (AP) — Communist Peiping's People's Daily today accused the United States of preparing to send atomic cannon into South Korea in violation of the Korean armistice agreement.

The propaganda article, broadcast by Radio Peiping and heard here, ignored repeated statements by American Army officials at Washington and Tokyo that atomic cannon will not be introduced into South Korea.

The U. S. Defense Department announced earlier this summer that it was sending atomic cannon to U.S. bases in Okinawa.

Model T Saga

HOLLAND (AP) — Peter Elzinga and Gerhard Ritsema, each 20, made a 4,500-mile trip to California in a 1919 Model-T Ford. They reported they had only minor motor trouble and only two flat tires.

Guide Children in Entertainment

Help in Movies, Video Aids Youth in Choice of Material

A child can be helped to learning through proper guidance in selecting movies and television programs. This is the verdict of experts.

The Child Study Association of America has published several booklets on problems involved in television, radio comics and the movies, which it considers "part of our children's world today." Here is a check list of some of the things parents can do to help their children through the maze of influences involved in these forms of entertainment.

It is condensed from "Comics, TV, Radio, Movies—What Do They Offer Children?" a booklet by Josette Frank.

1. Understand your children's interests and needs.
2. Know what they are reading, seeing, hearing. Be with them and let them share your choices.
3. Discuss their books and programs without condescension.
4. Don't arbitrarily tear up a comic book or interrupt a program.
5. Be firm in saying "No" to what seems truly upsetting and harmful, and stick to it.
6. Help them budget their time reasonably.

7. See that they have enjoyable things to do, places to go, wholesome friendships, hobbies, responsibilities.
8. Help them discover how to use the library.
9. Take part in your community's effort to safeguard children from vicious horror and crime comics, programs and movies.

"Very young children," says Miss Frank, "can be kept away from the movies."

There is little in the motion picture theater for children under 6, and just sitting still and keeping quiet through a full-length film is

Returned Flier to Fight for Son

Parents of Re-Married
Una Schmidt-Fine May
Side With Airman

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Una Schmidt-Fine's own parents may be on opposite sides of the fence when Airman Daniel Schmidt fights for custody of the 2½-year-old son he has seen only once.

The 23-year-old gunner is one of 11 American airmen released recently by the Communist Chinese after 32 months in prison. In Schmidt's absence, his 20-year-old wife Una says, she married Alford Fine, 21, a logging worker, in the belief that the airman was dead.

Schmidt, through his Sacramento attorney, said yesterday he intends to ask the courts for custody of his son Danny Jr. as well as a divorce.

The lawyer, Howard P. Welch, said the airman's determination to ask for the boy was seconded by Una's mother Mrs. Walter Ferguson formerly of Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. Ferguson was quoted as saying she wanted to show her daughter that "her own flesh and blood" was in favor of seeing the boy with his father. Una's mother, who now lives in northern California's Tehama County, is staying with Schmidt here.

Una's father Ralph Howell, of Bruneau, Idaho, and his second wife, on the other hand, have given continuous support to Una since they joined her at her Sierra hide-away last week.

There has been no comment from Una other than a remark by her attorney Harold Berliner that she "would fight for her child as any mother would."

Police Act Quickly—
but Not in Bostontown

BOSTON — It took Edward White, 32, three days to convince authorities they had the wrong man in jail.

White, father of three, was arrested while in bed before dawn Saturday and hustled to jail on warrant dated Sept. 16, 1953, charging an Edward White used an auto without authority.

He protested his innocence to jail guards all day Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Finally authorities took his fingerprints and found they did not match those of the Edward White who was wanted.

About 20,000 Americans from 15 to 44 years old died of cancer last year.

Rare Dollar Bill Found by Philadelphia Woman

PHILADELPHIA — An "$1 bill" — genuine American money — turned up in Philadelphia today.

Miss Lillian Knoff, a federal government secretary, has it. One stamp and coin dealer here said it might be worth many thousands of dollars to collectors.

The bill has the $1 "Washington face" and the seal back of a $10 bill. Miss Knoff said she didn't recall where she got it.

U.S. auto wash businesses had 100 million customers in 1954 and took in 120 million dollars, says the Automobile Manufacturers Assn.

Let the Instalment Buyer Beware!

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK, (AP)—You walk along the street and see a sign on a good used car: "Only $5 down." You look at a new house and the builder tells you: "If you're a veteran, $200 down is all you need." (Until recently you didn't need even that.) Your radio blares: "Install a window cooler now, payments start next April." An ad in the paper says: "Wall-to-wall carpeting for the entire house at $4 a week."

Next to striking oil, it's the easiest way man ever has devised for raising his standard of living—and fast.

It's also one of the easiest ways of getting beyond your depth if you don't watch your step.

The vast majority of Americans are meeting their weekly or monthly payments. Finance companies say the record of installment payments on cars is now the best in history. In June, when a record $1,766,000,000 of credit was extended to new car buyers, others were paying in $1,190,000,000 on previous loans.

The percentage of delinquencies and repossessions remains at a remarkably low level—and stable

Social Security Laws Change With Times

WASHINGTON (INS) — Welfare Secretary Marion B. Folsom says the nation's social security system "must change with changing economic and social conditions."

In his first speech as Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Folsom told past and present officials of the Social Security Administration that "social security cannot remain static."

Pledging a continuing study of the 20-year-old social security program, Folsom said:

"I am cognizant of the fact that millions of persons are dependent upon social security as a basic floor of protection, that huge sums of public funds are involved, that a tremendous administrative machinery has been developed to administer the program."

"All of these, and other factors, call for a continuing analysis and a willingness to recognize that programs as large as social security cannot remain static."

The American Collectors Assn. says that six million American families are delinquent on payments for one or more things they've bought on time.

An agency that specializes in helping families after they get in a financial mess estimates that 10 million families are pinched by the debts they've piled up with overenthusiasm.

The quality of some installment loans in recent months worries Administration officials. Terms have been getting easier—down payments lower, maturity times extended.

This has been due largely to sales competition. Almost all kinds of consumer goods are in abundant supply.

How do people get in over their depth? Silver Shield, an organization that makes a business of trying to help people who find they can't meet their payments—down charges 10 per cent for doing it—says that most of them just didn't realize they were taking on so much debt.

Modern merchandising puts such emphasis on time payment sales and makes credit look so easy that a family lacking sound money judgment just eases into debt before it knows it.

Others are victims of illness or reduced income because of loss of overtime or from layoffs.

Finance companies and bankers have assured the administration that from now on they'll be looking more closely to see if loan applicants are credit-worthy.

American Tourists Help French Profit

PARIS (AP) — American tourists make a lot of food, drink and laundry business for the French. The Compagnie Internationale des Wagons-Lits et des Grands Express Européens — which operates the familiar blue railroad dining cars—says that during the season it serves American tourists each month with:

A half million meals, 17,000 half bottles of fine wines (hardly any one ever buys a full bottle); 15,000 bottles of champagne, 8,000 bottles of cognac.

In addition, Wagon-Lits launders 55,000 table covers a month, 530,000 napkins and 100,000 bed sheets. Crockery makers do all right, too. Each year, the company replaces 100,000 plates, 71,000 glasses, 93,000 saucers and 10,000 broken cups.

Government experts estimate that a black snake has a value of $1.75 for rodent control.

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly in Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass you when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (identical breath). Land Sale to City of Dearborn OK'd by Park Authority

Parcel Adjoins Present Camp

Purchase of 6.81 Acres to Clear Way for Fifth Lake in Area

MILFORD—The sale of the City of Dearborn of a 6.81-acre strip along the east boundary of Camp Dearborn, near Milford, has been approved by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, according to director, Kenneth L. Hallenback. The price for the tract was set at $250 an acre.

Addition of the 200-foot strip will open the way for construction of the camp's planned fifth lake between Lake 2 and the pony ride site, according to Mayor Orville Hubbard. He said that construction would get underway this fall and the new lake would cover about 30 acres.

In preparation now is the camp's fourth lake, which will cover about 10 acres, east of the camp entrance along General Motors road. Three other lakes—one for swimming and boating, another for pedal boats, and another for fishing, have been in use for several years.

The two new lakes, like the others, will be stocked with fish, the mayor added.

Another project planned is the partial dredging of the Huron River along the southeast border to provide better fishing for Dearborn residents.

Dance to Benefit Team

METAMORA—There will be a dance at the Metamora Township Hall Saturday evening, starting at 9:00 o'clock for the benefit of the Metamora-Hadley ball team. There will be both round and square dances.

Railroad Worker Killed

LAPEER—Gordon McKinn, 46, of Marlette, was killed Tuesday when a railroad crane car struck him while he was working on Chesapeake & Ohio tracks near Clifford, 28 miles northeast of Lapeer.

FIRST TIME IN NEW QUARTERS—High on the agenda of Walled Lake City Council, meeting for the first time in their new quarters at 115 North Pontiac Trail Tuesday, was final settlement with Commerce Township of assets due the city. At a previous meeting with township officials, it was determined that the city's share was 21 per cent of total assets, based on a population and area ratio. Hold Patrolman in Theft Charge

LAPEER—A Lapeer patrolman, father of two small children and a member of the force since 1953, was charged yesterday with a grand larceny in the theft of $930 in tax money from the City Hall.

Lawrence McCartney, 24, was held under $2,000 bond for circuit court arraignment Aug. 22 after he waived examination Monday before Justice Elmer Holman.

Police Chief Matt Dougherty said that McCartney admitted he took the money from a walk-in vault at City Hall after working hours July 29. The theft was discovered the following morning.

Dougherty, terming McCartney a trusted member of his eight-man police force, said the patrolman came under suspicion when he refused to take a lie detector test after 24 other city hall employees volunteered to undergo polygraph questioning.

"I can hardly believe it," the chief said. He said McCartney gave no reason for the theft.

McCartney had been on the force since September 1953, following his discharge from the armed service where he was in the Air Police from 1948 to 1953.

New Drug Aims at Eliminating Terrific Hog Loss

MINNEAPOLIS (INS)—Farmers were offered today a new drug aimed at fighting roundworm parasites which cause a 75 million dollar loss in hogs each year.

The drug is called parvex. It was introduced to the 92nd annual convention of the American Veterinary Medical Association in Minneapolis.

Dr. A. C. Todd, parasitologist of the University of Wisconsin, told the group that the drug is the first which cleanses hogs after a single dose and can be used routinely without harmful effects.

Last Youth Dance Set at Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Ted Donay will spin records Friday night for the last of the summer youth dances conducted by the Waterford Township Recreation Department.

"Youth Nite, conducted weekly for Waterford High students during the school year has drawn as many as four hundred teenagers," states Thomas Belton, recreation superintendent.

Approximately 200 are expected for this Friday's dance, 8:30-11:00 p.m. at the Community Center on Williams Lake Road.

Donay, of WPON Radio Station and graduate of Birmingham, is one of the few 18-year-olds in the country associated as a program producer and is widely known for his Saturday Morning Radio show, Kay Baum's Platter Party and other musical shows.

2-Day 4-H Fair Opens at Lapeer

Horse Show, Judging Scheduled for Today, Dinner Tomorrow

METAMORA—The annual 4-H Club Fair for all 4-H clubs of Lapeer County will be held today and Thursday at the Center Building in Lapeer. About 750 exhibits were expected, varying from needlework and foods to dairy cows and riding horses.

The Lapeer County Center Building was erected partly with money earned by the 4-H members themselves and the Lapeer Rotarians donated money to paint all the show barns before the fair opened.

The horse show and judging of horses will take place this afternoon. Other judging will be done tomorrow. Programs are planned for both evenings.

Tomorrow night Rotary-Kiwanis will serve the annual supper to about 600 4-H members and parents.

In charge of the Fair are the 4-H Council, 4-H Agent John Bondarenko, Lapeer County Agent Marvin Eppelheimer and Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Dorothy Pohl. Committee members are Mrs. Dave Steckly of Inlay City, Norman Clothier of North Branch, Margaret Muir of Almont, Mrs. Carl Nielsen and Jack Buckingham of Attica, Adolph Broecker, Metamora, Harry McNish, Foster and Ralph Grossbauer, Mrs. E. A. Stocker, Mrs. Leslie Inman and Jim Davis of Lapeer.

LAKE ORION—A Thursday cafeteria dinner, sponsored by the Immaculate Heart of Mary Guild, St. Joseph Church here, will be held on the grounds of the Refus home, 112 Grandview. Hours for serving are 12 to 2 p.m. and 5 to 7 p.m.

Entertainment afterward will include games for both adults and children. Two new Fatima films to be presented are: "A Blue for Every Red" and "The Mercy of God."

To Start Constructing New Hospital Wing

MARLETTE—Construction is expected to begin this fall on a 24-bed wing for Marlette Community Hospital.

The decision was announced after a recent meeting of Joe Homing of the Michigan Office of Hospital Survey and Construction, Lansing, with local authorities. Federal approval of the project was announced earlier by the offices of U. S. Sen. Charles E. Potter and Congressman Jesse P. Wolcott.

Cost of the $132,600 wing will be shared by the U. S. Government and the community of Marlette. Construction will be by the Arthur Vollmer Construction Co. of Saginaw and the architect is to be St. Clair Pardee, who designed the present hospital.

Southfield Man High in Marksmanship

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—Pfc. James E. Blacklaw, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blacklaw, Inkster road, broke the all-time record score in firing for the 139th Army Band during recent firing range maneuvers at Camp Grayling.

Blacklaw topped the score by 14 points, missing 9 out of a possible 160, having missed the bulls-eyes only five times.

He has qualified as an expert and will wear a medal for marksmanship. This is his second year at National Guard training camp.

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE R. BIGLER

Judy Elaine Sanderson Wed to Wayne R. Bigler

COMMERCE—A bridal gown designed by her aunt was worn by Judy Elaine Sanderson recently when she became the bride of Wayne R. Bigler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Sanderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Devere Bigler of Cass Lake are the bridegroom's parents.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, Pontiac.

Mrs. James Sanderson designed the bridal gown, which featured a floor-length skirt of bridal satin worn with a hoop. It had a long sleeved fitted bodice of Chantilly lace, buttoned down the back with a satin yoke and lace Peter Pan collar.

A Juliet cap of satin and lace to hold her fingertip veil of illusion lace completed the bride's costume.

Jean Sanderson was maid of honor for her sister, James Berry aided the bridegroom as best man and Donald Shingler and Larry Ferguson acted as ringmen.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. After a trip through northern Michigan, the couple will live in Pontiac.

Defeat Motion to Park Trailers

Romeo Body Stalemates Petition of Company for Road Workers

ROMEO—A request for permission to park trailers within village limits, made by the company laying out roads at the new Michigan Proving Grounds, again met a stalemate here this week.

The Council defeated a motion that the present ordinance outlawing trailers within village limits be altered only by petitions, on a vote of 4 to 2.

Discussions continued but no further action was taken to provide water and sewage facilities for trailers to house the 75 to 100 Groves Co. construction workers.

These migratory employees are developing the proving grounds for the Ford Motor Co. in an area northwest of the village.

They remain in the vicinity only until their phase of the project is completed, and then a new crew moves in.

A 30-day extension on payment of village taxes was authorized. Deadline is now Sept. 15.

Thomas E. Currans Tell Daughter's Engagement

KEEGO HARBOR—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Currans, 2169 Maddy Lane, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Richard John Roise of Pontiac.

He is the son of Mrs. Ella Roise of Hudson Ave. and Harold E. Roise of Johnson street. The wedding is planned for Sept. 17.

Chaplin's Son, 8, Plays in Father's Next Movie

By EARL WILSON

BEVERLY HILLS—Pinky Lee dropped in at the new Beverly Hilton to litho hello to me and made the first big purchase at one of the hotel shops—two red bar chairs for his new home, "The House That Pinky Built." He paid in cash, and the price for two was $352, or $176 each.

The first man in the Beverly Hilton pool each morning is also the richest: Chicago's Col. Henry Crown, owner of the Empire State Building. He splashes in at 8 a.m. when all the guests (except, of course, this columnist) are still asleep.

George Gobel told us how actress Jeff Donnell, who plays his wife on TV, was asked for an autograph by a timid fan. First she signed "Jeff Donnell," and then, discreetly, underneath in smaller letters, she wrote, "Mrs. Aldo Ray."

The timid fan timidly asked: "And would you also sign it 'Mrs. George Gobel?'"

The wonderful world of tomorrow:

California's sharpies are asking their tailors to convert old double-breasted suits to single-breasted... Doctors have discovered a lucrative new disease expected to hit N.Y. soon: "Smog-Fever"... Producer Joe Pasternak has agreed to be one of the judges of the Miss America pageant at Atlantic City.

Hollywood is not a drinking community, Mike Romanoff says so. The Prince maintains that the average dinner check at his place is about $8 per person, including beverages.

"People with money don't drink a lot," he says. "They are too busy seeing doctors, trying to prolong lives that won't be prolonged. The young people who don't have to see doctors yet, haven't the money to drink heavily."

Mike also told me that he has a wonderful chef... that today's chef must be an executive, an employer, an administrator... and that the chef's assistants can do the cooking.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL...
Vanessa Brown and her husband reconciled; they'll leave for Mexico to make a movie... Robt. Q. Lewis' classmate in a Berlitz French class in Paris is Gene Kelly... Tony Bennett returned from Europe and found his wife's gift at the airport: a station wagon wrapped in red ribbon.

The Rita Gam-Sidney Lumet divorce became final... Charlie Chaplin's youngest son, 8, has a role in his next movie... Lew Parker complained he'd lost his ring in millionaire Tony Farrell's private lake, and Farrell asked, "What do you want me to do—drain the lake?"... Rosette Shaw's newest hit record is "Wyoming."

Fred Allen's publishers want him to do a book on his vaudeville years... Decca will put on an album commemorating Ted Lewis' 45th-ann'y in show biz... The Milton Greenes returned from Europe... James Cagney will get a Sat. Eve. Post profile... The Queen of Belgium, a violinist, was offered a U.S. recording contract.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "Foreign aggressors don't realize that even if they invaded the U.S. they couldn't afford to live here."—Dan Bennett. That's earl, brother.

Predict Truman for Presidency

Folsom Sees Comeback of Former Executive in Next Election

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Gov. James E. Folsom, one of the few who predicted Harry Truman's election in 1948, is forecasting a Democratic victory again in 1956 with the former president once more at the head of the ticket.

Folsom has made the prediction several times in recent weeks. He repeated it at his news conference this morning.

"I just figure Mr. Truman is a candidate," the governor explained "and if he's a candidate he'll be nominated, and if he's nominated he'll be elected."

Folsom didn't elaborate except to say "if I was a candidate for any office I'd be doing just what Mr. Truman is doing. I just think he'll be elected, that's all."

For the vice presidential nominee, the governor who sought the Democratic presidential nomination himself seven years ago, said the Democrats should pick "some young fellow" in 1956—"someone like Soapsuds Williams (Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan) or Clement (Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee)."

Gordon MacRae Shopping for Broadway Musical

By DOROTHY MANNERS

For Louella O. Parsons
HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Gordon MacRae, long hankering for a Broadway musical, has promised William Gaxton, via long distance, that he will fly to New York to read "If I Were Queen" and if it is as good as it sounds—he'll star in it this season.

Gaxton, himself a musical comedy star, is serving only as the producer on this show for which Ogden Nash is writing the lyrics and J. Fred Coots the music. The plot is one of those mythical things about life in this country—as a monarchy and ruled by a queen.

Gordon is currently in San Francisco appearing at the Bal Tabarin and plans to go east in two weeks.

You can put it down in your little book that when Marilyn Monroe leaves for Europe and a visit to Russia, she will be accompanied by Joe Di Maggio!

These two are on better terms than at any time since their honeymoon and once again Marilyn is listening to Joe and taking his advice.

Their trip may last to the end of the year with both Marilyn and Joe doing shows for our European armed forces just as they did on their famous Korean junket.

Hollywood In Shorts: Jackie Cooper and his pretty Barbara couldn't be happier. They're expecting a baby in February.

This one is really out of left field, — but Charlie Schnee is seriously mulling on Mickey Mantle for the Rocky Graziano role in "Somebody Up There Likes Me."

Vittorio Gassman denies marriage is in the offing for him and Italian actress Anna Maria Ferrero, which at one time might have interested Shelley Winters, but not now.

Maxon Brando and Rita Moreno on their second date to the Har-Omar.

Add to the list of those planning trips to Moscow, Pat (Mrs. Peter) Lawford, who, with her sister, will visit Russia on her European tour. They leave New York the 27th.

That's all today.

2 Pontiac 9's in State Finals

A pair of Pontiac Junior League baseball champions, Griff's in Class D and Boys Club in Class E, fought their way to the finals in state tournaments here Tuesday.

Three city diamonds — The north and south fields at Columbia-Joslyn and Washington Junior High — were the scene of 11 games yesterday involving an original field of 16 teams in the single elimination tournaments.

Griff's boasting a flawless record for the season, waded through two opponents to reach the finals against Port Huron. The city "D" kings shut out Grand Rapids in the 1st round, 2-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Jim Jones, then clubbed Roseville in the 2nd game, 4-3, as Ted Wharry tossed a four-hitter.

Griff's will clash with Port Huron Thursday at south Columbia-Joslyn for the state title. Game time is 1:30 p.m. Port Huron advanced to the title contest with victories over Dearborn and Saginaw.

Boys Club, one of three by that name to win city crowns this summer, reached its lofty position with a 3-2 decision over Ann Arbor and a 5-1 triumph over Jackson. Boys Club meets Lavonia in the crucial contest Thursday at north Columbia-Joslyn, also at 1:30 p.m. Lavonia advanced to the finals with a forfeit win over Coldwater and a 6-2 victory over Battle Creek.

Jerry Orr hurled a two-hitter in Boys Club's verdict over Ann Arbor to best Dick Tomshack, who yielded four safeties. Denny Evans set down Jackson on three blows, one a home run by Neil Otto to tally the losers' lone run. Evans aided his own cause with two hits in three trips to the plate.

Remaining Class D teams that bowed out yesterday were Wayne and Battle Creek, while Saginaw and Ecorse were the other "F" squads falling by the wayside. State Junior tournaments are sponsored by the Michigan Recreation Association.

Pontiac's two remaining Junior League champions, Boys Club nines in Class F and Knottshole, did not fare too well in their state tests at Jackson. The "F" club was edged by Allen Park in the 1st round, 3-2. Midgits lost out to Saginaw in the semi-finals, 4-3, after smashing Ecorse, 17-0, in their 1st attempt. Teams from Saginaw and Battle Creek are the finalists in both divisions.

HOOK'S-EYE VIEW — Jaws dropped all over when these two huge striped bass were landed by James Colon, 13, and his father in Long Island Sound, off Larchmont, N. Y. Jimmy, who's been angling since he could hold a rod, caught the 21-pounder at right, and his father landed the other, which weighed 18½ pounds. The big-mouthed bass were named Connie and Diane after the current hurricanes.

Let the Government Run Boxing, Jim Norris Says

DETROIT — National Boxing Assn.'s plea for congressional help in cleaning up big-time boxing has drawn the challenge of New York fight promoter Jim Norris to "let the federal government run it."

That, the president of the powerful International Boxing club said yesterday, would be "okay" with him.

"If the commissions can't run boxing," he said, "if they're too impotent to do the job, then let the federal government run it. It may be the best solution."

The NBA asked for federal intervention as it wound up its annual convention. Sen. Potter (R-Mich) promised he would recommend a congressional probe.

The plea was sent as George A. Barton of Minneapolis, former NBA president, reported an investigation he was making of professional fighting ran into a blank wall when witnesses refused to sign affidavits.

Barton quoted them as saying they didn't want to "get knocked off."

The government currently has an antitrust suit against Norris' IBC, and the fight promoter, whose intertwined family interests include control of the Detroit Red Wing Hockey team and Detroit's Olympia Stadium, said he was "fed up with investigations."

"Let them investigate anything they want," Norris said, "we've got nothing to hide."

Meanwhile, the NBA named a 10-man committee to meet with Gov. George M. Leader of Pennsylvania in Harrisburg Sept. 19 to discuss his proposal for a uniform boxing code to regulate professional fighting across the nation. Leader made the proposal in a convention address.

Chief Lenawee Wins Wolverine Feature

Chief Lenawee, owned by Dr. James A. Blanchard of Motenec, Mich., and driven by Tommy Winn, won the featured $1,500 pace before 6,197 fans at Wolverine Raceway last night. The time for the mile was 2:04 2-5.

PHS Distance Runners Try Out Their Legs

Looking ahead to the fall cross-country competition, and with a desire to get themselves in good condition for those grueling events, several Pontiac High School runners are doing a bit of informal conditioning at Beaudette Park.

Says Bill Douglas, ace half miler, one of the lads with some definite aims at state prep schools, "we just do a bit of running around the park, maybe about three miles each day. It's a lot of run, too."

Some of the lads getting in on the impromptu running, from time to time, are Archie Brooks, Perry Williams, Rod Treas and Gene Cretal.

Russians All Out for 1956 Olympics

EAST LANSING—New confirmation of reports that Russia is pulling out all stops to win the 1956 Olympic Games comes from the coach of a United States swimming team which returned from an exhibition tour of Europe and the Near East.

"Everywhere we received reports of tremendous official efforts being put forth by the Russian government to assure top performances in Melbourne," says Charles McCaffree, veteran Michigan State swimming coach. "Reports indicate clearly that the Russians have made almost unbelievable progress since the 1952 Olympics and especially in swimming."

Arc Tilts Force Haney Into Roof Sunbathing

PITTSBURGH — When Manager Fred Haney of the Pittsburgh Pirates was a major league ball-player he didn't have to worry about getting enough sun. Now, because there are so many night games, Haney is a frequent afternoon sunbather on the roof of the downtown hotel where he lives while the Pirates are in the Steel City.

Ejected for 1st Time

MILWAUKEE — Andy Pafko, veteran outfielder for the Milwaukee Braves, was ejected from a game for the first time in his 13-year major league career. Pafko yelled at umpire Augie Donatelli and threw his cap into the air when called out on a close play against the Redlegs here. Donatelli gave him the thumb.

Hoeft's 2-Hitter Shoves Tribe Into 3rd Place

DETROIT (AP)—Everyone was in complete agreement—it was Billy Hoeft's greatest game. "It was the best I've ever pitched," beamed the slender 21-year-old southpaw after dealing a 7-0 jolt to the Cleveland Indians last night.

Hoeft permitted only two singles—in the 1st and 2nd innings—and retired 21 batters in a row as he posted his 5th shutout and ran his record to 12-6 for the season. "I'll bet I didn't throw 70 curves all night," Hoeft said. "My fast ball was alive—it was hopping across the plate. Zip! Zip! Zip! So I kept using it. Why not?"

"It was the best I've ever seen you pitch," offered Harvey Kuenn, Hoeft's roommate. "Yeah, I guess you're right," replied Hoeft with a smile.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Tigers said Hoeft's success stemmed from his ability to stay ahead of the hitters.

"Before the game I told him not to walk anybody if he could keep the ball in there. It's easy to say—but Billy did it," Harris explained. "He followed orders as though I was using a whip."

Hoeft gave up a 1st-inning single to Bobby Avila and another to Larry Doby in the 2nd. That was all of Cleveland's batting attack.

Hoeft then mowed down the Indians' big lineup in order before giving up his only walk of the game to Al Smith with two out in the 9th inning.

But any threat of a rally was quickly snuffed out when Bobby Avila skied to Charley Maxwell in left to end the game.

It was a costly loss for the Indians, dropping them to 3rd place, a game and a half behind the roaring New York Yankees.

At the plate, Hoeft was supported by Frank House and Bill Tuttle, who drove in all of the Tigers' runs before a crowd of 47,553.

Using a new open batting stance, House hit his 10th home run and a pair of doubles to knock in three runs. Tuttle collected his 11th home run and a two-run single.

Detroit had lost six straight to the Tribe before last night.

SETS HOME RUN PACE — Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati first baseman, is at bat in recent game with Cardinals when he hit his 40th homer of the season to take over the lead in that department in the National league. At left he waits for ball to cross plate. The muscles on his arms bulge as he swings at a pitch in the center photo. At right he watches ball sail out of Busch stadium as he completes his swing. He hit another out of the park in the 8th inning of game to bring his total to 41.

Bada Faces Strong Field in Defense of City Title

Twenty-eight city golfers, including defending champion Paul Bada, will tee off Saturday and Sunday in the 36-hole finals of the men's medal play golf championship at Pontiac's Municipal Golf Course. Starting time each day is 12:30 p.m.

Twenty linksmen who met the qualifying rounds will be joined by Bada, other previous titleholders, and the low five scorers a year ago to complete the starting field of 28. Schedule calls for 18 holes each day.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

Oh, I see! This bunker jumper is swinging with a long iron—about a No. 2. The ball is positioned slightly forward of center, perhaps an inch. The club should take the ball just after the bottom of the arc of the swing.

The more lofted the iron, the shorter the club shaft, so you should stand nearer the ball. The shorter the shaft the more upright the swing. And the shorter the club—the shorter the backswing. If the highly lofted irons Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9 are correctly swung you inevitably take some divot because the ball is played a bit back of center, nearer the right heel. So the clubhead does not reach the low point in the arc of the swing until just after clubhead meets the ball. Then a divot has to happen. And, oh yes, replace the divot. I might be in the foursome behind you.

First of Two Dispatches

NEW YORK (NEA)—A veteran, stand-up-and-tell-jokes comic surveyed the current crop of TV comedians in one disgruntled sentence: "They're a bunch of lightweights."

Steve Allen, a heavyweight among lightweights, typifies this group. While not exclusively a comedian, he is the perfect example of television's new brand of lightweight comedy. TV has outgrown the pratfall and the seltzer squitter; TV doesn't smile on performers who simply tell jokes; TV likes low pressure.

And Steve Allen, a non-joke-telling, non-seltzer-squitter, low pressure comic, came along at just the right time. He's become the undisputed king of the wee hours, and his popularity is such that he's currently filming the starring role in a movie about Benny Goodman.

What with his movie, his TV work, his records and his many other operations, Steve Allen will gross upwards of $250,000 this year. And that's a pretty high figure for low pressure.

If Allen had come along ten years ago, chances are he wouldn't have made much of a name for himself. He had long exposure on radio, with only moderate success.

Students of comedy say he would have been "a bomb" (dud) in vaudeville. But his style is perfectly suited to the new TV type of comedy, a type which admittedly he did much to form.

Actually, Steve Allen is one of the least-likely-to-be-a-comedian of anybody you could meet. He is shy and introverted off-screen, almost to the point of this being a problem. When you meet him and talk to him, his eyes rarely meet yours. At lunch he keeps his head down, plays with the food on his plate. He answers questions in a faint voice, politely and sincerely, but never volunteering information.

IMMEDIATE CHANGE

Yet, stick a microphone in his hand and point a camera at him, and he changes immediately. He becomes the Steve Allen of TV—a remarkably witty ad libber, a guy who'll do any zany stunt that comes along, a man who'll look you straight in the screen and talk in a firm voice on any subject he deems worthwhile.

In show business, such a complete transformation is unusual. There are many performers who change slightly, but most are pretty much the same person on screen or off. But Steve Allen is two distinct persons, two diametrically opposed personalities.

One explanation for this phenomenon is that Allen, the performer, is a phony. The real Steve Allen is a man who likes to write, likes to sleep, enjoys reading good books.

This Steve Allen decided, for some unknown reason, that he wanted to be a big star, and so he set about to create a new Steve Allen. And, after a few years, he succeeded.

So Steve Allen, the man with the quick ad lib, is strictly a product of deliberate planning. The raw material was there—Allen has a good native comic sense, comes from a show business family, is a naturally-talented musician.

To these he's added the facility that comes with years of experience, the ability to select and stick by talented associates, and a few tricks that can only come with practice.

He's been wise enough to capitalize on his assets and not attempt a straight, old-fashioned comedy show. His greatest talents—ad lib, an easy manner in interviewing people, off-the-cuff comedy—fit the late night hours. And there are those who doubt whether Steve Allen would have been as successful earlier in the evening, when tradition dictates a more formal approach.

"The important thing in TV is to be tolerated," Steve has said. He feels that his personality will wear well in a medium that has killed off top comics quickly and cruelly.

Steve was born in New York, but brought up by relatives in Chicago while his vaudeville mother toured. Perhaps a psychologist would point to these years, when he lived in many homes and attended many schools, as the root of his introversion. But it is equally possible to attribute his easy-going ability to get along with people to the same source.

ARMY FLING

After college and a brief fling in the Army—he was medically discharged—he got into radio and began the career that has brought him fame, high salaries and a marriage with the lovely actress, Jayne Meadows.

Now there seems no stopping Allen. The only problem would appear to be which way does he want to go. He obviously can continue as a TV comedian and personality.

He is an actor, with an appearance in a flop Broadway play and now his first big movie part. He is a composer, with dozens of published songs. He is an author, with at least two books ready for printing.

He confesses to only one unfulfilled desire—he would like to write a musical comedy, book and lyrics. The odds are he'll do that, too.

About two-fifths of all U.S. hospital beds are occupied by mental patients, and the ratio is increasing.

Dems Criticize Ike's Golf Play

GOP Says President Performs Job Perfectly Even When Relaxing

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.), denouncing Democratic criticism of President Eisenhower's golf and vacations, said today the President "can run his office as well from Gettysburg or Denver as from the White House."

He said Eisenhower has "such an unexcelled grasp" of the presidency that he "could spend most of his time in Gettysburg and no criticism would be justified."

Sen. Murray (D-Mont.) brought up the subject of the Gettysburg farm yesterday in criticizing Eisenhower's veto Sunday of a bill which would have continued stockpiling of some domestic minerals. The President said the minerals are no longer needed.

Murray contended the veto was unjustified and said it resulted from "bad advice and a lack of personal understanding on the part of the chief executive made inevitable by his isolation from the work-a-day world."

Murray said it is "unfortunate" that Eisenhower "has found it necessary to devote so much time to his golf game and his Gettysburg farm."

Capehart said Murray's criticism was "neither warranted nor factual," and added in an interview: "President Eisenhower knows more about what's going on in the nation and in the world than any other president ever has. He has excellent advisers. The American people ought to be delighted that we have a president who has learned to handle the job without ruining his health."

Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.) said in a separate interview Eisenhower probably would carry the Western states if a presidential contest were held today.

Two Detroit Men Given Probation Terms Here

Two Detroiters were placed on two-year probation and assessed $200 court costs Monday by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick.

Sentenced to spend the first 60 days in jail are Dock Davis, 35, of 1922 Magnolia, and Henry Murray, 27, of 204 Hague. They admitted Aug. 8 robbing a Pontiac man of $300 July 17.

Little Schoolgirl Clicks Off Those 'Biggest' Words

NEW YORK (AP)—A 12-year-old schoolgirl spelled her way into $8,000 last night by clicking off "antidilettantism" on the CBS television show "The $64,000 Question."

Gloria Lockerman's grandmother will decide whether the junior high school student tries the $16,000 question next Tuesday or settles for the $8,000.

If she tries for the $16,000 and fails, she will receive a $1,000 college education trust fund as a consolation prize. The regular consolation prize is an expensive automobile, but the rule was altered in view of Gloria's age.

Gloria, a Negro, who finished 34th out of 62 finalists in the Nationalist Spelling Bee at Washington, D.C., last May, smiled as she picked spelling as her category on the TV show last night.

Gloria, a ninth-grade student at Booker T. Washington Junior High School, Baltimore, was accompanied on the program by her grandmother Mrs. Bertha Key, with whom she lives.

Gloria spelled coyote, dinosaur, chinchilla and hippopotamus to win an assured $312. She then moved up through $1,000 by spelling plenipotentiary, $2,000 by gingham and taffeta, and $4,000 by minuet, waltz and mazurka.

Screen Actors Guild Ends TV-Film Strike

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Screen Actors Guild has accepted a new contract for actors in television entertainment films, ending a 12-day strike. The actors voted 735 to 307 last night to end the strike.

Spokesmen for both the Guild and TV film producers said the agreement will give actors residual pay for second runs of filmed programs, a key issue in the dispute. Under the old contract the actors got a percentage of the original pay for third through sixth runs. The new contract, to run through March 31, 1960, provides for payment for second through sixth runs.

Area Man Sentenced

Cleo Burton, 30, of 20800 Wyoming, Ferndale, Monday was placed on two-year probation and assessed $150 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick.

Burton admitted Aug. 10 breaking into a Royal Oak Township building July 21.
