Egyptians Told to Get Out

Syria Back on Her Own Feet

AP Photofax

HE'S GOT PROBLEMS — President Gamal Abdel Nasser wore a worried expression as his top military aide in Syria, Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer (left), conferred with him in Cairo's Republic Square today. United Arab Republic chieftain Nasser told an estimated crowd of 100,000 Egyptians gathered in the square about the situation in Syria. At right is UAR vice president Kamal Hussein.

Civilian Regime Forms Republic After Revolt

Damascus Raises Flag as Military Rule Ends; Democracy Promised

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syria's new civilian regime raised the flag of the Syrian Arab Republic over government buildings today and ordered the ouster of Egyptians in quick sequel to the revolt against Cairo's rule.

All Egyptians, civil and military, were instructed to present themselves at military headquarters for shipment home. The order, signed by "the commander of the Syrian Arab army," was broadcast by Radio Damascus.

This broadcast and another announcing the flag-raisings were monitored in Beirut, capital of neighboring Lebanon.

★ ★ ★

Premier Maaoun Kuzbari had announced dissolution of the military group that boosted him to power. He promised democracy and constitutional rule.

Kuzbari has not yet proclaimed Syria's independence from President Nasser's United Arab Republic, in which it joined Egypt in February 1958. But the new flags flying over government offices, indicate this was just a technicality.

The exact number of Egyptians in Syria is not known, but there must be several thousand. In addition to the hundreds of government officials who serviced the now-sundered United Arab Republic in Damascus and other cities, there were large numbers of Egyptians holding posts in the Syrian army. There were several units believed composed entirely of Egyptian soldiers.

WOMEN STAY HOME

Egyptian women were asked to stay in their homes today "for their own safety."

This, and a previous communique asking Syrians to stop staging demonstrations in support of the revolution, indicated the leaders may have been worried about disorders.

In Beirut the newspaper Lisan al Hal reported the new government, which was named only Friday, freed all political prisoners in Damascus. There was no confirmation in Beirut of the report.

★ ★ ★

The government waited less than two days after Thursday's virtually bloodless coup to ask foreign diplomats in Damascus to seek recognition by their governments of the new Syrian regime.

Turkey and Jordan already have accorded recognition. Iran was reported considering recognition, and Iraq came to Syria's defense. All four nations have

Basil's Kiss Reveals All

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Rule No. 1 for tourists entering Yugoslavia: Don't kiss the customs man.

A businessman, identified by the Belgrade newspaper Politika only as Basil, tried to and it cost him about $5,000. This is the story Politika told:

Basil was traveling by train from Germany and arrived at customs control in Jesenice on the Austrian border.

An officer checked his baggage and found it conformed to customs regulations. He saluted the businessman and turned around to leave.

★ ★ ★

Basil, evidently satisfied with the outcome, jumped to his feet, embraced the customs man and gave him two long, resounding kisses straight on the face.

This ends the gay part of the story.

The customs man, apparently unused to such friendliness by passengers, decided to take another look.

He took a screwdriver, opened several planks in the walls of Basil's sleeping compartment and felt around inside.

LUCK CHANGED

The end of the story has Basil sitting with a long face and the customs man beaming over a big pile in the middle of the compartment — 60,000 gold buckles for necklaces, three pounds of gold bars, a quantity of lighters and other commodities.

Politika figured out the two kisses cost Basil a total of roughly 4.6-million dinars, tax included.

GOP Delegates to Con-Con May Hit Stalemate

Could Bypass Romney and Hutchinson When Choosing President

LANSING (AP)—Republican delegates to the constitutional convention were headed today for a possible caucus deadlock over a choice for the presidency for the first such convention in Michigan in 54 years.

The GOP delegates, who will outnumber the Democrats 99-45 when this convene in Lansing's Civic Center next week, scheduled a preconvention caucus at the Elks Club here.

Democratic delegates, meanwhile, were meeting this afternoon in Detroit.

If no agreement is reached today on the presidency, the Republicans might meet Sunday and Monday in an effort to fill the post before the convention is called to order at noon Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Adoption of rules and committee assignments also may be settled at the caucus.

The two leading candidates for the presidency are Edward Hutchinson, former state senator, and George Romney, American Motors Corp. president.

Hutchinson, a candidate from the conservative wing, said Friday night that he felt confident there would be agreement on the presidency today.

CLAIMS TOP SPOT

He claims to be the front-runner, with between 30 and 50 votes lined up in his behalf.

Romney, backed by the moderate-liberal bloc, has said he was not campaigning actively for the nomination, but that he would accept the post if it were offered to him.

There appeared to be a growing feeling among observers here that delegates might not give the necessary 73 votes to either Hutchinson or Romney, but would settle for a "compromise candidate instead.

At a Republican conference last week in St. Joseph, Hutchinson was asked to draw up a set of rules and to present them at today's meting.

But Hutchinson said he believed the con-con preparatory commission had proposed an adequate set of rules.

Instead, Hutchinson said, he had turned his attention to drawing up an agenda for today's meeting. Several of his proposals were expected to stir up some controversy.

First item on the suggested agenda was whether the caucus should be newsmen. Hutchinson said he personally was in favor of holding closed meeting while certain subjects were being discussed.

Weekend Talks Held With Ford

Auto Company, Union Pressed by Pending Tuesday Deadline

DETROIT (UPI) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union planned today to meet through the weekend in hopes of reaching a contract settlement before Tuesday's 10 a.m. strike deadline.

★ ★ ★

After negotiations recessed Friday UAW negotiators moved to the 12th floor of the downtown Detroit hotel in which the bargaining sessions are being held, for a special meeting.

No details of the meeting were released, but one union spokesman termed it, "just a union meeting."

UAW President Walter P. Reuther was expected to be on hand for today's meetings.

ABSENT FRIDAY

He was absent Friday in the morning, to attend the funeral of Charles E. Wilson, former General Motors president and secretary of Defense and during the afternoon he worked in his office at UAW headquarters.

Talks continued along the lines established in the past few days. Noncontroversial matters, of the same type that idled nearly 250,000 General Motors workers for two weeks early this month, were points of discussion.

They centered on outside contractors, job seniority and working conditions.

★ ★ ★

Bargaining sessions continued to be conducted under a news blackout agreed to by company and union.

★ ★ ★

The strike deadline, set earlier by the union, applies only to national economic and noneconomic matters.

Recognition of Syria Is Put Off by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. recognition of the new Syrian regime seemed out of the question today until a lot more unfolds in the latest Middle East drama.

One impelling reason ruling out early establishment of formal ties with the Damascus insurgents was a U. S. desire to remain on good terms with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the now-disrupted United Arab Republic.

Another was that the Syrian group has yet to make any request to the United States for recognition.

Still another was lack of evidence of the new regime's nature.

Some experts said that it was still possible the Syrian group would want to maintain some political and military ties with Cairo provided Syria has a high degree of autonomy.

Resentment against being treated like a stepchild in the U.A.R. is considered a major reason for Syria's splintering the 3½-year-old union.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. policy to go slow on any recognition of the Damascus government was stated Friday by Joseph W. Reap, State Department press officer. Asked about U.S. recognition, Reap said, "It is premature to consider the question."

★ ★ ★

Reap also reiterated Washington's hands-off policy. He said the evidence indicated the uprising was of internal origin, not set off by any outside power.

Another high-ranking official said, "As far as we are able to detect there is no Communist influence" in the rebellion, which he attributed to deep dissatisfaction with Nasser.

U.S. authorities were reluctant to say anything more about the revolt for fear of further stirring up Middle East troubles and getting the United States involved.

Agents Smash Moonshine Still in Waterford Twp.

U.S. Revenue agents and Pontiac state police raided a Waterford Township home yesterday in which a moonshine still was allegedly being operated.

According to Trooper John Brown, Elmer L. Edmisten, 37, was preparing a batch of illegal whiskey when they arrived at his home at 872 Tyrone St. shortly after noon. The officers had a search warrant issued by Federal court in Detroit.

Officers smashed the still, and 13 barrels of mash fermenting in the basement, and confiscated about 20 25-pound sacks of sugar. The copper still had a weekly capacity of between 90 and 100 gallons of moonshine, according to Brown.

Neighbors in the suburban residential area apparently were unaware of any illegal activities at the Edmisten home. An exhaust fan had been installed in one of the basement windows to dispel telltale odors, according to officers.

Edmisten was taken into custody by the revenue agents from Detroit who said he would be arraigned in Federal Court on charges of violating the alcohol tax law.

★ ★ ★

Agents said they had received a tip in Detroit that Edmisten, who moved here from the South, was supplying a blind pig in the city, selling moonshine liquor at $5 a gallon.

Fire Fatal to Pontiac Woman, 44

Faulty electrical wiring was blamed for a house fire this morning that resulted in the death of a Pontiac woman.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Jeane Webber, 44, was pronounced dead of smoke inhalation in the burned-out bedroom of her home at 573 LeBaron St. She was alone in the house when the fire broke out.

A semi-invalid, she apparently was unable to get out of bed in time once the smell of smoke awoke her, according to Pontiac Asst. Fire Chief Victor Bodamer.

★ ★ ★

Flames in the house were spotted shortly before 6 a.m. today by a passing cab driver, who sped to nearby Fire Station 4 to report the blaze.

★ ★ ★

Chief Bodamer estimated the fire, which started in the basement, had been burning for about two hours before it was discovered.

He said the house was well-built and tightly sealed, preventing the flames from burning through the outer walls until just before the fire engines arrived. Mrs. Webber already was dead, crumpled at one end of her bed.

★ ★ ★

Her husband arrived home from work just as the fire engines pulled up in front of the house.

The blaze was extinguished within an hour and a half, and caused an estimated $2,500 damage to the 1½-story frame home.

★ ★ ★

According to Bodamer the fire started in faulty wiring of a washing machine in the basement, directly beneath Mrs. Webber's bedroom. The flames burned upward through the floor.

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's Central Meteorological Agency said today the highest radioactivity since Sept. 1, when the Russians resumed nuclear tests, was detected from rain and dust Friday in Northern Japan.

Nixon Hits Knight Charge of Pressure As Libelous

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard M. Nixon denies he sought a secret deal to get former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight out of the 1962 race for California's Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"False and libelous on its face," the former vice president said Friday of Knight's charge: That Nixon sent an emissary to offer Knight any state job he wanted if Knight withdrew.

"No person representing me or authorized by me has made such a promise," said Nixon.

Knight retorted, "I will disclose the name of Nixon's pressure emissary and present my proof and witnesses at a public press conference within a very few days."

These were the latest developments in a dispute between California's two top Republicans — a long-simmering feud that has come to a boil since Nixon announced his candidacy for governor Wednesday night.

RICHARD M. NIXON

Knight, now a Los Angeles TV commentator, claims Nixon engineered the GOP maneuvering that forced him to step aside as governor in 1958 to allow then U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland to run for that office. Knight ran for Knowland's Senate seat. Both lost badly.

Knight claims—and Nixon denies—that Nixon, then vice president, wanted both men defeated so he could have unquestioned control of California's Republican party.

The latest rupture in the never-cordial relations between Nixon and Knight started in this fashion.

On the eve of Nixon's nationally televised news conference Wednesday night, William A. Dumke, state Democratic chairman, issued a statement claiming a Nixon friend offered Knight a secret deal to withdraw from the race.

The next morning, Knight told newsmen that he had been offered any state job he wanted—including California chief justice—in a telephone call Sept. 7 by a wealthy Republican friend of Nixon's.

Robert Finch, Nixon's 1960 campaign manager, termed Knight's report "totally preposterous."

Youth Charged With Murder

Held Without Bond in Shotgun Death of Pontiac Girl, 18

John Haase 19, who has admitted slaying an 18-year-old Pontiac girl while "playing around" with a shotgun in his home was charged with first-degree murder yesterday.

Haase of 341 S. Marshall St. was bound over for examination Wednesday when arraigned before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday afternoon. He was remanded to the county jail without bond.

Asst. County Prosecutor Robert D. Long said the accused youth said in a formal statement that he "was just trying to scare" Janet M. Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Olsen, 115 Euclid St., when the 12-gauge shotgun went off.

Haase said he didn't remember pulling the trigger.

The shooting occurred during a party at Haase's home shortly after midnight Friday morning, while his mother, Mrs. Ivy Haase was at work at Pontiac General Hospital.

Other youths at the party told police they heard the shot but did not see the actual shooting.

The dead girl was shot once in the head while standing in a doorway between a hallway and a bedroom in the Haase home.

Haase ran out on the street and hysterically told two passing patrolmen what had happened.

Officers Roger Allen and Gerald Painter found the body where it had fallen in the hallway. The shotgun, belonging to one of Haase's brothers, was on the bedroom floor.

Haase said he didn't intend to shoot the girl, who he had been dating for the past month, but only intended "to scare her."

Icky Weather Is Scheduled for the Evening

Scattered showers will dampen the Pontiac area tonight, evening police they heard the shot but did with warmer temperatures. Tonight's low will be in the upper 50s.

Sunday is expected to be partly cloudy and somewhat cooler, the high about 60. Fair and warmer is the outlook for Monday.

Morning southerly winds at 5 miles per hour will become south to southeast late this afternoon at 15 to 25 m.p.h., and northerly late tonight or early tomorrow. Winds will shift to north to northwest at 15 to 25 miles per hour Sunday.

Fifty-three was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 79 at 2 p.m.

Tigers Lead Twins, 6-4, as Rain Falls in Sixth Inning

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Rain intervened in today's Detroit Tigers - Minnesota Twins baseball game as the Tigers came to bat in the top of the sixth.

The unusual morning contest was scheduled today to avoid conflicting with the Minnesota - Missouri football game.

PARIS (UPI)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson took off today from Paris en route to Washington after a swift round of talks with top American officials here on Berlin and Western defenses in Europe.

The U.S. vice president said he would report to President Kennedy that Western forces in Europe are "ready for whatever action they may be forced to take."

Pilots Threaten to Boycott DC8s

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Six hundred Eastern Air Lines pilots say they will stop flying DC8 jets in three days if the Federal Aviation Agency doesn't assure them the plane's hydraulic system is safe.

★ ★ ★

The pilots raised the safety question in a telegram sent Friday night to Najeeb Hallaby, FAA director, by Council 18 of the Air Line Pilots Association.

"Silence on this question will force us to suspend operation on DC8 aircraft which is used on Eastern Air Lines within three days," the telegram said.

The protest was a result of a new FAA regulation requiring pilots to answer 10 true-or-false questions on the Douglas DC8 hydraulic system.

★ ★ ★

Capt. John D. Payne, chairman of Council 18, said that the safety of the system was an FAA matter, not the pilots' responsibility. He indicated that the test might be used to blame pilots for a crash when the real cause might lie elsewhere.

Payne said the DC8 hydraulic system has been under scrutiny because of several failures. The pilots could tie up at least 15 DC8 flights which come and go from Miami daily.

Report Monday on Mail Drive

Unit Seeks to Stem Late Afternoon Flood of Sending by Firms

The Pontiac Mail Users Council will report on progress in efforts to halt late-afternoon overflow mailings by area firms when it meets at 4:30 p.m. Monday at the Main Post Office, 735 W. Huron.

★ ★ ★

The council was set up in July to gain cooperation from mailers to spread mailings throughout the day instead of dropping all mail in postal boxes when offices close in the afternoon.

A cross-section of mailers in the Pontiac area, totaling 100 handling the largest volume, composes the committee, explained Robert J. Featherstone, Pontiac superintendent of mails.

According to Featherstone, members attending the Monday meeting will see a film on mailing methods and will be shown through the post office during its peak hours of operation from 5 to 8 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Also on the agenda are discussions of every-day mailing problems and setting of plans for the Christmas flood of mail.

The Pontiac mailing area serves a population of 145,000.

FINAL SALUTE—Military men of all services carry the flag-draped casket holding the body of the late Charles E. Wilson from Christ Church Cranbrook following funeral service Friday. Lansing Argues Aid to Children

To Urge Lawmakers Decide Whether to Join U.S. Assistance Plan

LANSING (UPI) — Budget committees of both houses of the legislature will be asked to meet Oct. 17 or 18 to decide whether a third try at bringing Michigan under the Federal Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed would have a chance of success.

A meeting with Gov. John B. Swainson, who wants to call a special session on the matter, failed to produce much enthusiasm among lawmakers.

"I'm not optimistic about the chance of holding a special session of this (ADC-U)," said Rep. Arnell Engstrom, Republican head of the House Ways and Means Committee from Traverse City. "But I think we ought to give it a fair hearing."

Swainson said if the legislature would authorize Michigan's participation in the plan for the first six months of 1962, he would set up a "task force" to study the matter.

This would help lawmakers decide whether to keep Michigan in the program if Congress decides next year to extend it, Swainson said.

"I would not be interested in calling a special session if we can't get agreement," said Swainson, who told the lawmakers the State Treasury would save about $3.1 million by taking advantage of the federal money for six months.

OPENLY SKEPTICAL

Republican legislative leaders, however, were openly skeptical of the possible benefit from the program.

The House Ways and Means Committee killed a bill that would have brought Michigan under the ADC-U program for the entire current fiscal year during the regular session, and repeated the action at a special session which Swainson called a week after the regular meeting adjourned.

Pontiac Man Found Stabbed on S. Edith St.

The body of a 35-year-old Pontiac man who apparently had been fatally stabbed in the neck was found shortly before noon today between two houses on South Edith Street.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac police identified the victim as Frank Avery of 153 Raeburn St. Officers theorized that he did not take his own life but had been murdered.

A pocket knife was found laying next to the body. Police did not believe it was the murder weapon, however, but possibly belonged to the victim. There were no bloodstains on the short blade.

Asst. County Coronor Dr. Isaac Prevette said Avery had been dead for "several hours" and probably since last night.

A passerby noticed the body partially concealed by some brush stacked between houses at 478 and 474 S. Edith St. He notified police.

Rusk, Gromyko Show Signs of Negotiating Formula Accord

NEW YORK (AP)— Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko held the last of their New York talks on the Berlin crisis today with some evidence they will be able to agree on a negotiating formula at further meetings in Washington.

Western diplomats said the discussions here, though apparently inconclusive, had served to define the issues more clearly. They also gave some encouragement that the Soviets will agree to acceptable arrangements for an East-West foreign ministers' conference later this year.

The Western powers are reported to have told Russia emphatically through these talks that they have no intention of negotiating with East Germany over their rights to maintain troops in West Berlin. They also pressed Gromyko for an explanation of what the Soviet Union means by talking about guarantees of access to West Berlin.

★ ★ ★

Gromyko went to Rusk's suite in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel this morning. U.S. officials said that the talks would continue probably well into the afternoon. As he arrived for the meeting Gromyko said he did not know if he would see President Kennedy while in Washington.

CRITICAL ISSUES

The future status of the U.S., British and French garrisons in West Berlin is one of several critical issues discussed by Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home in separate talks with Gromyko.

★ ★ ★

Rusk and Gromyko expect to meet again in Washington next week. Rusk is returning to Washington and Home to London tonight.

In Washington, it is understood Gromyko hopes to have a conference also with President Kennedy, but U.S. officials said the meeting has not yet been arranged.

★ ★ ★

The talks, which actually mark the start of informal negotiations over a compromise settlement, have dealt with three major aspects of the Berlin crisis:

1. Rusk and Home have tried to impress upon Gromyko that the Western powers will fight to defend West Berlin and its access routes. Some aides of the two Western ministers think Soviet Premier Khrushchev now understands that he runs the risk of war if he overplays his hand.

MINISTERS CONFAB LOOMS

2. Rusk has tried to discover whether Khrushchev is willing to agree to a basis for negotiations on Berlin. If he is, an East-West foreign ministers' conference in November or December seems certain.

★ ★ ★

3. Rusk and Home have sought to explore the possibilities for success of a foreign ministers' conference. In essence, they want to know whether Khrushchev is willing to compromise or whether he intends to dictate the terms of a settlement.

★ ★ ★

Gromyko's practice in the talks, Western informants say, has been to repeat stated Soviet policy. Thus he has reaffirmed his government's plan to sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany by the end of the year.

Reds String Barbed Wire Around Tiny U.S. Enclave

From Our News Wires

BERLIN — Communist police today strung a barbed wire loop around a tiny American sector enclave from which U.S. Army helicopters rescued seven refugees this week.

Residents reported that East Germans put up concrete posts this morning and strung barbed wire around Steinstuecken, a village cut off from West Berlin by a one-mile strip of Communist territory.

The barbed wire cut off Steinstuecken inhabitants from the grassy field where President Kennedy's personal representative, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, landed by helicopter recently as the first U.S. official to visit the enclave in 10 years.

Helicopters also have been using the field to bring supplies to a three-man military police post stationed there following Clay's visit.

CLEAR NEW LANDING AREA

The inhabitants of Steinstuecken today promptly began to fell fruit trees and level off garden plots behind their homes to make a new landing place for the helicopters.

The Communists built their barbed-wire fence right across the only road leading from West Berlin into Steinsteucken.

Observers said the barbed-wire loop was aimed mainly at keeping East German refugees from reaching the tiny hamlet surrounded by Communist territory.

In Berlin, East German refugees sought liberty or death in a grim game of "hide-and-seek" with Communist border guards under orders to shoot to prevent them escaping to the West.

Bavarian police at Hof, Germany, reported that East German authorities will impose a curfew on border areas, effective Sunday, in a new move to make the Iron Curtain escape-proof.

The police said they have learned the restrictions would affect all East Germans living in a 500-yard zone along the border. At the same time, police reported preparations seem under way to evacuate all residents of this zone and to level their houses.

Although Communist police now have orders to fire at refugees trying to cross the border—even if the bullets land in West Berlin—the escapes continued, as about 20 fled in the last day.

★ ★ ★

Says Red China Can Coexist

Chou Sets Condition: U.S. Must Discontinue Opposition in U.N.

TOKYO (UPI)—Chinese Communist leader Chou En-lai said today his regime was willing to coexist peacefully with the United States, providing the United States drops its opposition to a United Nations seat for Peiping.

Chou said his Communist regime and the millions it rules "wish to live together in peace with the peoples of all countries, including the United States of America."

Chou made the statement in an unusually brief speech which he delivered at a Peiping reception for visiting dignitaries on the eve of Red China's 12th anniversary. His speech was carried by the Communist New China News Agency in a report monitored here.

Although Chou tempered his statements on coexistence with the United States by laying down certain "conditions," they were an apparent reversal of Red China's often repeated stand that war and only war can settle the issues between East and West.

★ ★ ★

As such, Chou's statements were the nearest thing to a Peiping endorsement of Russia's call for peaceful coexistence, which the Soviets announced in a new Communist party program in early August.

CHICAGO (AP) — Two United Air Lines DC8 jet planes carrying a total of 148 passengers made safe emergency stops Friday night. One landed at Chicago, the other at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

The plane that landed at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport with 68 persons aboard had one of its four engines out. It was on a scheduled nonstop New York to Denver flight.

The other plane had 80 aboard and was bound from New York to San Francisco. Crewmen said it suffered a complete hydraulic failure. The huge craft rolled nearly three miles down a runway before stopping.

FCC Chairman Wants Newscasts in Prime Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — Newton Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission says he thinks radio-TV newscasts perform an outstanding public service, but there aren't enough of them.

The FCC boss, who has jabbed at the quality of television programing often in the past, also complained there was not enough full-time news directors on radio and television stations.

In a speech before the annual convention of the Radio Television News Directors Association Friday night, Minow protested a "virtual news blackout" on television during the prime viewing hours each night.

★ ★ ★

"For those of us living in the Eastern Standard Time zone, at least," he said, "there is no news on television between 7:15 and 11 p.m. "The world goes on during prime evening time. But you wouldn't know it if you were watching television."

Grand Trunk Raises Fares

Await Word on Legality of Hike; Affects 1500 Pontiac-Detroit Riders

Grand Trunk Western Railroad is now charging increased fares for its Pontiac-Detroit runs. An estimated 1,500 commuters are affected by the hike.

★ ★ ★

The increase went into effect midnight Thursday. GTW was told it could raise the rates at its own risk — until the State Public Service Commission finds out exactly what its authority is in the case.

★ ★ ★

The hike is from $8.05 to $9.30 for a 10-ride ticket.

The commission was recently informed of a 1919 statute which sets railroad fares at a basic maximum of 2.5 cents per mile, with provision that this can be increased under certain conditions.

The commission ruled the railroad can raise its rates until the state attorney general adjudges whether the 1919 statute can legally be applied.

FURTHER OUT OF LINE

The commission indicated its feelings about the hike when a spokesman stated that fares were "getting further and further out of line."

The railroad can also cut its service as long as two trains a day run in each direction, the commission decision said. The railroad had asked permission to discontinue the train leaving Pontiac at 7:45 a.m. and one leaving Detroit at 6:15 p.m.

The fare hike was requested in June. The railroad claimed mounting losses in commuter operations.

U.S. Negro Fugitive Seeks Cuban Asylum

HAVANA (AP) — A Negro wanted for kidnaping a white couple in North Carolina during a race disturbance, has requested political asylum in Cuba, the official Cuban News Agency Prensa announced today.

Prensa said Robert F. Williams fled the United States "because of threats against his life and persecution in his country."

The announcement charged Williams was harassed by American authorities "because of his valiant fight in favor of colored people and his defense of the Cuban revolution."

Premier Abdel Karim Kassem of Iraq, Nasser's major counterweight in the continuing Middle East struggle for power, said in a speech in Baghdad that the Iraqi army was alerted "to stand ready in the face of any foreigner, if he tried to interfere in our brother country Syria."

WARN AGAINST EXCITEMENT

Radio stations in Damascus and Aleppo broadcast pleas to Syrians to stop staging demonstrations in support of the revolt. They warned that continued excitement might "allow exploiters to infiltrate their ranks."

Damascus radio also broadcast a word of friendship for Egypt in its morning program.

"Syria extends its hand to sister Egypt to strengthen the aim of the Arab nation on the basis of freedom and equality. We are ready any time to accomplish this," said an announcer. This was not an official statement, but was made by a commentator between musical programs.

The Day in Birmingham

Twelve Town Drain Bids to Be Opened Monday

BIRMINGHAM — Bids on $1.5 million in bonds to be used to finance the city's major share of the 12 Town Drain will be opened at the City Commission meeting Monday.

City officials have expressed hope that the interest rate on the 20-year general obligation bonds will be 3 per cent or lower.

The bids will be opened at the start of the 8 p.m. meeting and reviewed by the city's finance director and bond consultant.

Recommendations will then be made by them before the meeting ends and the commission will either accept or reject the bids.

It is the intention of the city to sell the bonds to a syndicate rather than have the Oakland County Drain Commission handle the long-term financing because it is believed there will be a savings.

Had the drain commission managed the financing of the multimillion dollar project for the city the bonds would not have matured for 30 years.

The city received approval of its method of financing the construcion of the drain from the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission Sept. 12.

No matter what plan of financing had the city decided on, taxpayers will begin being assessed for the major improvement in July, 1962.

A public hearing on the confirmation of the special assessment roll for the paving of the alley from Hunter Boulevard to the city water tank has been scheduled by the City Commission for Oct. 9.

Total cost of the project has been estimated at $3,700, with the city paying $1,400 of the improvement.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church will celebrate a Latin American fiesta at its first general luncheon of the season Wednesday.

Each of the 15 circles of the society will decorate a table to represent a different Latin American nation and foods representative of these countries will be served.

Mrs. Marshall Reed, wife of the bishop of the Methodist Church in Michigan, will be the guest speaker at the program.

She will present background information on mission work in Latin America and relate experiences she and her husband had during a visit to Chilean missions.

Kennedy Signs Foreign Aid Bill

Inks Another Measure to Let Football League Make TV Packages

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy today signed a $3.9 billion foreign aid appropriation bill that also included funds for the Peace Corps and other financial activities abroad.

Kennedy also put his name on legislation allowing the National Football League and other sports circuits to enter package television contracts.

★ ★ ★

The President signed two other spending measures—including the $1,133,453,164 supplemental appropriation, which the House dropped on the Senate in a temper-boiling adjournment of Congress early Wednesday morning.

The House quit work after passing the measure to add to funds previously appropriated for government agencies. As a result, senators who wanted to increase some of the allocations could do nothing about it.

The other appropriation bill furnishes $3,877,915,989 for public works of the Army, Atomic Energy Commission, Interior Department, Tennessee Valley Authority and for several study commissions.

★ ★ ★

The National Football League encouraged Congress to pass the TV bill in order to offset a federal court decision outlawing its share-the-revenue pact with the Columbia Broadcasting System. Each of the league's 14 teams would then split the cash.

Execution Raises Total to 625 for Fidel Castro

HAVANA (AP)—A firing squad executed Ezequiel Delgado Reyes in Santiago today on conviction of counterrevolutionary activities with arms that the prosecution charged were parachuted to his band from the U.S. Navy base at Guantanamo.

The shooting raised to 625 the count of announced executions since Fidel Castro took over the government in January 1959.

Pontiac General Making History

Breaks Occupancy, Billing Records

In-patient billings and occupancy at Pontiac General Hospital have hit history-making figures, according to Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

Billings are higher than any time in the hospital's history. Occupancy is higher than any time since the new addition opened in 1958.

Last week's in-patient billings amounted to a record $116,467, Euler said. Average occupancy for the first two weeks of the 10th accounting period was 95.8 per cent, record high for a two-week period.

★ ★ ★

Although the figures present an optimistic financial forecast, they also caused some hardships.

"All this created patient relations problems in that a number of surgical and elective admissions were canceled during peak loads and whenever we had hall beds," said Euler.

"All areas and services were operating at capacity except our 23-bed mental health unit that had an average daily census of 11."

★ ★ ★

Indications are that the year will result in a break-even operation even though occupancy will be over 90 per cent against a budget forecast of 87 per cent.

More services begun this year have increased patient day costs.

During the ninth accounting period which ended Sept. 9, income exceeded expenses by $4,362. For the last year, the excess of income over expenses amounts to $13,040.

Total patient billings this year are $4,077,000.

New York City Going Rural? Has 150 Farms

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. Department of Agriculture statistics released Friday showed the city has — within its boundaries — 150 farms occupying 1,436 acres with a gross income last year of $3.3 million.

* * *

Staten Island has 68 of the farms and Queens has 60. Their residents include 5,000 chickens, 208 cows, several pigs and one mule.

The total class will consist of 10 sessions of 2½ hours each. A small charge is made to defray operational costs and allow persons outside the city to participate.

The per couple charge is $3 for city residents and $6 for out of city residents. This is not a per-session charge; it covers all ten sessions.

Participants should be prepared to fulfill the requested fee when they arrive at the school for the first session next Thursday. Square dancers who want to up-grade their dancing ability can join this class by registering during the first class session.

Italian Rat Snatcher Caught In Her Own Trap

CATANZARO, Italy (AP)—Felicia Calafati, 33, tried to set a rat afire Friday and wound up in a hospital with severe burns.

California Feud Cools Republican Zeal in West

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—California's early outbreak of Republican feuding tempered GOP optimism today over prospects for major political gains in the West next year.

Party leaders from California, at the Republican regional conference, lined up behind Richard M. Nixon in his fast-developing battle with former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight in the Republican race for governor.

* * *

But there was open concern over how the intraparty squabble would affect Republican chances in the West's biggest state.

TO SPEAK TODAY

Nixon himself was due here today to address delegates from 13 Western states. It will be his first public appearance since the 1960 GOP presidential candidate announced he would seek the California governorship.

Rep. Bob Wilson, R-Calif., chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, talked of a 50-seat gain for the GOP in 1962 congressional elections, including a pickup of eight districts in California and six to eight in Southern states. This would overturn Democratic control of the House.

* * *

Wilson said Nixon would be of great help in his home state's campaign—provided he wins his own primary contest.

The present congressional lineup in California favors the Democrats 16-14. Eight additional congressmen will be elected next year as a result of census gains.

Wilson said he expected former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to campaign in California next year—but not until after the June primary showdown.

Episcopalians Plan Changes

Ecumenical Features Fashioned at Conclave; Appeal to Church Unity

DETROIT (AP) — Some new ecumenical features—the ties that bind Christians together—now mark the Protestant Episcopal church.

They were fashioned at the denomination's triennial general convention, which closed Friday with a stirring appeal from its bishops for the reunion of world Christianity.

* * *

They said the challenge was one that "in faithfulness to God we cannot evade."

In a 4,000-word pastoral letter, the bishops urged Christians "to work and pray without ceasing until by God's grace and in his time the divisions by which we dishonor our one Lord are done away with."

The message, in a sense, bespoke the theme of the two-week governing convention, which crossed some new milestones in bridging the chasms between churches.

APPROVED TALKS

It approved merger conversations with four other denominations, the United Presbyterians; Methodists; the United Church of Christ, including Congregationalists, and the Evangelical and Reformed Church; and the Polish National Catholic Church.

The convention also joined hands in full communion with churches in the Philippines, Spain and Portugal.

* * *

The letter of the 190-member House of Bishops, a teaching guide to the church's 3.5-million members, is to be read in all of the approximately 7,000 Episcopal congregations in coming weeks.

The world's shortest alphabet is Hawaiian with 13 letters. The longest is Hindu with more than 47.

Norwegian Ship Ripped by Blast; 21 Dead, Missing

TANANARIVE, Madagascar (AP)—Explosion and fire wracked the Norwegian freighter Starcarrier at Diego Suarez Friday night and port officials set the toll at 21 persons dead or missing. They said eight persons were badly injured.

* * *

Port officers said the freighter caught fire as she was discharging her cargo and a heavy explosion followed. Cause was not immediately determined.

The 5,564-ton freighter is owned by the A/S Star Carriers of Bergen and was under charter to the Peninsulaire Co. of Le Harve, France. Diego Suarez is a port on the northern tip of Madagascar.

Picket Lid Clamped on West Coast Ports

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With crews paid off and perishable cargoes removed, the nation's latest major maritime strike tied up most Pacific Maritime Association shipping along West Coast ports under a picketed lid today.

A FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

J. E. VOORHEES

From ancient times men have hunted for the Fountain of Youth. A. B Abbot found it when he said: "While one finds company in himself and his pursuits, he cannot feel old, no matter what his years may be." A penetrating bit of philosophy, written on a clay tablet at Mycenae was true then and today. "That man never grows old who keeps a child in his heart."

The man whose grandchildren climb upon his knee is a child at heart, he will never grow old. His hair may turn white, lines may crease his face and his limbs falter, but inside, where his soul resides, there you find the boy. Grandma never stops rocking a cradle, the lamp-of-her-life shines brightest in the life of her daughter and in the lives of her children. Age, in years, for her, is computed from the first baby's smile, first date, graduation, marriage and the first grandchild. As long as she rocks a cradle her lamp-of-life sends beams into the most secret recesses of her being. They are her Fountain of Youth.

"The evening of a well-spent life brings its lamp with it," by Joubert, is a beautiful thought; those who have reached three score and ten know it to be true.

The Christian Churches have embarked on a 10-year program called the "Decade of Decision" which embraces the forward moving emphasis of Christianity.

Eugene D. Thompson, president of Christian Men's Fellowship, will be in charge of Laymen's Sunday tomorrow at First Christian.

Speaking on the theme, "Ye Shall Be Witnesses" will be Harold Brown, Paul Colton and Donald Woodward.

It Seems to Me . . . .

President's Peacetime Budget Is Highest in History of World

Well, he did it

I mean JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The largest peacetime budget in the history of the Nation — or the world—comes to the American people as a completely unwelcome contribution from the President and his Democratic Congress.

★ ★ ★

Many people thought the House and Senate would rebel and back JFK down to size. But as they adjourn, the peacetime totals are a staggering and unbelievable $96 billion. This is $11 billion more than the previous peacetime high and the Dems thus break all existing records.

JFK really socks it to us.

He gives us both barrels.

★ ★ ★

Whether you're a Republican, Democrat, Socialist, Communist or a Disciple of the Errant Ground Hog, you're nailed with this monstrous budget. There's no more debate now for it has passed.

You'll pay your share.

There's no escape.

★ ★ ★

When Kennedy was campaigning, he promised almost everything to almost everybody, and even the case-hardened members of his own party had their tongues in their cheeks at times and regarded these as the campaign promises of irrepressible youth. However, the youngster made good.

He let us have it.

★ ★ ★

The total take on all taxes in this country — even before this record breaker—was approximately a third of the entire national income. Of course, this ups it a bit more but when your old man's worth $200 million dollars as JFK's is, another advance is probably unimportant. But if you aren't in that happy predicament, you can start to worry a little more.

★ ★ ★

And hang on to your hat!

Some of his inflationary measures didn't pass and others were reduced; and he promises to revive these next January when Congress meets again. The young man isn't a bit daunted and he's preparing to give a right, smart whirl to the balance that failed to pass.

★ ★ ★

If the boys from Washington hear enough from the people at home in the interim, we may yet survive. But if the free-loading, free-spending crowd runs unchecked and unchallenged, we're doomed.

If you don't like it, say so. If you're happy, pleased and content with the current tax confiscation, just remain silent. There's more in the offing for the victims and sufferers who accept their fate without a protest.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago, after the interim elections, Congress sat heavily upon the free-spending proposals of the new Democrats who had just been swept into office. The House and Senate held the line and tossed the inflationary measure in the basket. An early one passed and Eisenhower promptly vetoed it—and that was that.

But this time, both houses "rallied to the cause."

Frightening Facts . . . .

Do you want to know what a 100-megaton super weapon could do?

In U.S. News and World Report, LEWIS L. STRAUSS, who was a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, explains:

"It could level almost any U.S. city by wholly destroying every building within a radius of 12 miles. Its heat could cause lethal third degree burns to everyone exposed within a 50-mile radius. Radioactive fallout, carried by the winds, could destroy most living things within an area the size of the New England states."

★ ★ ★

There!

Know enough?

And in Conclusion . . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Everyone will feel safer about World War III when Russia applies for space in New York's 1964 World's Fair . . . . . Here are the leaders (in order) on the last TV check: Miss Universe Pageant, Gunsmoke, Have Gun, What's My Line, Candid Camera, My Three Sons, Real McCoys, I've Got a Secret and Untouchables . . . . . Understand a new Chinese restaurant in Tennessee is known as "The Chattanooga Foo-Chu." . . . . . ELSA MAXWELL has been blitzed. ONASSIS had several big parties on his yacht at Monte Carlo and she was uninvited. Then she tossed a big shindig of her own and people remained away by droves . . . . . Purely personal nomination for an especially attractive young lady: CAROLYN HUBBARD.

CAROLYN

★ ★ ★

I can't prove it but I'll bet a sugar cookie the 1961 Michigan-MSU football game will be one of the most fiercely (and cleanly) fought battles of the season . . . . . A Cadillac stopped on the turnpike and offered to tow a Model A Ford which had conked out. They hitched 'em together and soon the Caddie forgot the Ford and reached 60, 70 and then 80 miles an hour. An officer started in pursuit and the Cadillac ripped up to 90 plus whereupon the officer radioed ahead: "Black Cadillac headed your way doing 100 m.p.h. And you won't believe what I say next: Model A Ford on his tail honking madly and trying to pass Cadillac."

★ ★ ★

Today's English bit: I'm intrigued when anyone says "Hure-on," for Huron with a slight accent on the last syllable instead of "Hure-un." . . . . . They tell me GEORGE WASHINGTON started a lottery and if it was good enough for the F. of H. C it's good enough for me . . . . . TV men have been amazed to find JFK memorizing scripts in an amazingly short space of time . . . . . Tourists didn't leave us Labor Day. Licenses glimpsed this week: Oregon, Alberta, Alabama and Florida . . . . . Cry Baby BUDDY PARKER threatens to quit again if his team doesn't have a winning year . . . . . JIMMY HOFFA's personal airplane is equipped with all the best, the most luxurious and the finest . . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—the Detroit Lions; the J's—me (for telling duck hunters the hatch was plentiful when later advice says it wasn't).

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

PROMINENT MEN OF FAITH

Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger, presiding bishop of America's three million Episcopalians, says:

"We do not live in a world of worship and piety apart from the world . . . Christianity must affect the way people conduct business and the way they vote, as well as the way they live at home and conduct themselves on Sunday."

As a former college quarterback, he combines words with action, championing individual expression, minority rights, social justice. Respecting the faiths of others, he sees church reunion as the bringing together of "the gifts and treasures we now nurture separately."

The genial, silver-haired Bishop manifests his conviction: "The church has a mission . . . It is sent to serve God in the world . . . "

Days of All Faiths:

Correction on Beliefs of Witnesses

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

A discussion of some beliefs and customs of Jehovah's Witnesses in a recent column brought in quite a few letters from members of that group. Disagreements mostly boiled down to three points—I had said that Jehovah's Witnesses believe no one will be eternally punished, that they don't believe it is wrong to smoke and that they refuse to be vaccinated.

I went directly to their national headquarters for definite statements on these points, and here, in their own words, are the answers:

"Jehovah's Witnesses do believe that those who are incorrigibly wicked will be destroyed for all time. Therefore, the punishment, which is a cutting off from life, is eternal."

"Jehovah's Witnesses do not categorically condemn those who smoke. They themselves as a group, however, do not use tobacco."

"Whether or not to submit to inoculation with serums is a matter for personal determination. It is left to the individual as to whether to submit to such a vaccination or innoculation."

I am grateful to those who challenged what I said, causing me to find out more about this interesting group.

DEATH FOR TRANSLATING BIBLE

Another thing I would like to know more about is why, in the early sixteenth century, a man could be put to death for translating the Bible into the language of the people. From our 20th-century point of view he should have had a prize, not a criminal's death.

★ ★ ★

But that is the way it was in the time of William Tyndale, who was born on this Oct. 6, 1495 and came to a fiery end at the stake in 1536. His offense was that he translated the first five books of the Old Testament, the book of Jonah and the New Testament into English.

★ ★ ★

To accomplish this at all, he had to get out of England. He did his work in Germany, where the air was freer, and where the art of printing was flourishing by this time. He then sent copies back to England. The shipments were all secret, of course, but church authorities managed to get hold of most of them and burn them. They just did not want people reading the Bible.

Tyndale was not really the first to translate the Bible into English. A man named Wycliff had done it in 1382. But Tyndale did have two important "firsts" to his credit:

His translation was the first one made from the languages in which the Bible had originally been written. Wycliff's was only a translation of a Latin translation.

The other big point about Tyndale's Bible was that it was in real down to earth English — "plowboy" language, they said at the time. We can perhaps understand a little how shocking this was when we see how today people are made uncomfortable by Bibles written in our ordinary daily speech.

Dogs Can Do No Harm to Heart Trouble Victim

Father has heart trouble. He keeps two dogs. They sleep and eat in the house, winter and summer. I don't think it is good for father. The darn dogs jump up on the bed and lick his face . . . (E. C. J.)

DR. BRADY

Ans.—Of course dogs may transmit the eggs of worms in their saliva — this is the reason why children or adults should always wash their hands with soap and water immediately after petting or handling dogs. Otherwise the dogs will do your father no harm.

★ ★ ★

I wish to thank you for your remedy for hives. Numerous shots had been used, with no apparent effect. Within a week on your remedy the hives were gone and have not recurred . . . (T. V.)

★ ★ ★

Ans.—My remedy is an optimal daily ration of calcium and vitamin D, that is, two or three times as much as everybody requires to maintain good nutrition.

★ ★ ★

In my case, canker sores follow indulgence in chocolate, tomatoes, peaches. I can nibble a little of any of these occasionally without trouble, but if I take just a little bit more I get canker sores. Other members of my family have the same trouble. We have found niacin in small doses is very beneficial. You recommended this some years ago. (S.M.K.)

★ ★ ★

Ans.—I recommend not small doses but an optimal daily ration of niacin (nicotinic acid) or amide—for example a 50 mg. niacinamide tablet three times a day for a month when one is subject to recurring canker sores. I don't understand what chocolate, tomatoes or peaches may have to do with canker sores. Niacin isn't medicine. It is one of the B vitamins.

★ ★ ★

While picking raspberries, I ate some and I think I ate a worm . . . (Mrs. H. T.)

Ans.—No harm done. I hope it was not on Friday.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not discussion, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Give Children Mental Jobs, Too

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-412: Billy Q., aged 12, is a bright youngster.

"Dr. Crane," his mother began, "Billy wants some way by which he can earn more money.

"We have adopted your piecework method of paying for each job he performs, and it works perfectly.

"But Billy wants to raise his income still more, so what else would you suggest besides the usual chores around a small suburban home?"

DR. CRANE

Diversify the job opportunities of your children by mixing some mental pay jobs with their muscular chores.

Good mothers routinely try to nurture the spiritual life of their youngsters, so let your children start reading the Bible, probably beginning with the New Testament.

Mrs. Crane and I used to pay our children $1 for each of the 66 books of the Bible they read. That meant they got $1 for reading Matthew, plus another dollar for Mark, etc.

But children prefer quick rewards, so you might pay for each chapter. Since we are now in an inflationary period, better offer them five cents per chapter and 10 cents if they read it aloud.

They can finish a chapter in a few minutes, and the reading drill alone will be invaluable. It can help change slow readers into faster ones and thereby alter your child's school marks, too.

Meanwhile, it will be giving the youngster access to the most world shaking prose in mankind's history.

★ ★ ★

As a variation of the Bible reading, you can also pay the child for memorizing a few of the great church hymns, such as "Rock of Ages," "The Old Rugged Cross" and any others that your child wishes.

Most of us adults wish we could sing a few hymns without looking at the songbook.

Your children will thus be fortified with a dozen or maybe 50 hymns they can sing while you are driving in the car to visit their grandparents.

And in their old age, they will have a rich spiritual and musical "bank account" on which they can draw as a tonic for their souls.

BLESSED MOTHERS

Thousands of times, even after you good mothers have left this world for your heavenly home, your children will then think back gratefully and call you blessed.

Meanwhile, however, you will be furnishing them with extra spending money, as well as reading drill, so this injection of mental and religious chores as pay tasks will pay rich dividends.

In addition to the Bible and church music, you might also pay for their memorizing of the choice proverbs or wise sayings of the past.

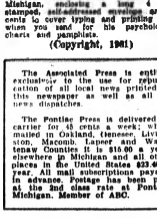

Because I deem these so valuable as ammunition for speakers, I have listed 900 famous quotations at the bottom of various pages of my college textbook, "Psychology Applied."

So send your child to the library and let him copy a dozen or more of those quotations from my textbook.

★ ★ ★

Then pay him for every one he can recite fluently from memory. I'd suggest 10 cents to 25 cents for such, paying 10 cents for immediate reproduction, and the additional 15 cents if he can recite it a week later.

For further hints, send for my booklet "20 Ways Children Can Earn Spending Money," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

'Local Governments Should Keep Money in First Place'

No nation in history has ever survived a tax burden of one-third of its national income. Today, 31 cents out of every dollar earned in the United States goes for taxes and out of that 31 cents, 23 cents goes to the federal government leaving 8 cents to be shared by the state, county and local community.

No wonder our local governments are told to ask for federal aid! But wouldn't it make more sense to keep money at home in the first place instead of running it through Washington only to get it back minus a sizable carrying charge?

Noah Mason, R-Ill.

'Health Principle Involved in Pork'

I read with awe remarks made by Dr. Crane (Sept. 23). Dr. Crane was using supposition that Joseph and Abraham ate pork. Before Abraham, God gave instructions to Noah concerning the clean and unclean classifications of beasts.

In the New Testament Acts 10:11-15 the doctor would have us believe Peter and God ok eating the unclean meats. In Verse 28 of the same chapter is the Bible interpretation of Peter's vision. In short, the Gentiles were to have the gospel. They were not unclean.

In the book of Isaiah 66:15-17 the prophet here is speaking of the second coming of the Lord. Those found eating swine's flesh, etc. will be consumed.

Yes, Dr. Crane, it's a health principle, then and should be now.

By United Press International

Today is Saturday, Sept. 30, the 273rd day of the year with 92 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1846, ether was used as an anesthetic for the first time in the extraction of a tooth — by Dr. William Morton, a dentist in Charleston, Mass.

In 1939, for the first time, a football game was televised. The cameras of station W2XBS in New York photographed the game between Fordham University and Waynesburg College at Randall's Island, N.Y.

In 1953, President Eisenhower named Gov. Earl Warren of California chief justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

A thought for today: American writer Ralph Waldo Emerson said, "The ornament of a house is the friends who frequent it."

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

Search for Fuel Cell Power Continues

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT — Even before gasoline engines became the standard power plant for automobiles, scientists were dreaming of using water for fuel.

★ ★ ★

The steamers tried and failed, although a small cult still talks of their revival. Charlatans got rich quick on magic pills which supposedly turned tap water into gasoline.

But behind it all has been a solid basis of scientific fact — the fuel cell. This is usually defined as an electrochemical device in which the chemical energy of conventional fuel is converted directly into low voltage electrical energy.

Science has known the fuel cell principle since the early 1800s. Over and over it has been proved sound. But as yet it has not been proved practical, especially for automobiles.

MANY SEEKING ANSWER

In a paper presented to the American Petroleum Institute's division of refining last spring, W. J. Sweeney and C. E. Heath of the Esso Research and Engineering Co. of Linden, N. J., noted that 100 research laboratories the world over are studying fuel cells. They added:

"The hope is that some day a practical fuel cell will be developed which will have twice the efficiency of the best present day thermal power plant — say 80 per cent.

"The surest thing about the fuel cell is that the theoretical concept is sound. This fact has tickled the imagination of everyone from laboratory boy to banker. They seem to say 'You scientists tell us it is possible, why don't you go and make one,' or 'Someone is going to do it, why not us?' "

★ ★ ★

Obviously it's not that easy.

The dream car would be powered by electricity. Today this would have to use storage batteries. But unlike conventional batteries, which deliver only the electricity previously stored, a fuel cell generates current as long as fuel is provided.

Ideally, this electricity would come from fuels costing next to nothing.

But before you decide to wait for such a car, consider the opinion of Manuel Shaw, head of electrochemical research (including fuel cells) at the Electric Autolite Co. in Toledo.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Shaw says: "If you are counting on a fuel cell to take dollars out of your car expense and add only pennies to your water bill — don't."

He says the major problem is cost.

Messrs. Sweeney and Heath elaborated on this point:

"From the standpoint of simplicity, pure hydrogen and pure oxygen are a relatively easy fuel and oxidizer combination around which to develop a fuel cell.

★ ★ ★

"However, hydrogen is several times as expensive as natural gas, oil or coal. And since one needs 8 pounds of pure oxygen for every pound of hydrogen, the oxygen in turn could cost as much as or more than the hydrogen. In the case of natural gas, petroleum or coal, the oxygen required could cost several times more than the fuel."

★ ★ ★

The Esso scientists say the economics of the fuel cell will depend on how important fuel costs are. In cases where efficiency is the prime aim, the fuel cell may become the answer.

Claims Voters Ready for GOP

Sen. Goldwater Says Electorate Disgusted With 'New Frontier'

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says "we would see the greatest Republican landslide in the history of this country" if congressional elections were held today.

The Arizona senator, addressing a Republican western conference dinner Thursday night said people have had enough of what he termed New Frontier fumbling and extravagance.

Goldwater looked up from his text to say of President Kennedy:

"We hear him talk like Churchill, then see him act like Chamberlain." Neville Chamberlain was the British prime minister who vainly tried to appease Germany prior to World War II.

CITES URGENCY

"The failure of the New Frontier, both at home and abroad, makes it a matter not just of political choice but of national and international urgency that Republican power be increased in the Congress," Goldwater said.

An audience of more than 750 gave the leader of conservative Republicans an ovation before and after he spoke.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon speaks to the conference Saturday night. It will be his first appearance since announcing his candidacy for governor of California.

Goldwater, who was boomed for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination, told a news conference he has no plans to seek it in 1964.

"If I run for anything, it will be for the Senate," he said. "I come up again in 1964. My plans are to help elect people to Congress and to the Senate."

Draft Director Says Sorensen's Record 'Regular'

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Nebraska's Selective Service director says he's reviewed the draft record of presidential aide Theodore C. Sorensen and found it "very regular."

★ ★ ★

"I noticed where some member of Congress said he (Sorensen) avoided military service by claiming to be a conscientious objector," said Guy N. Heinzinger Thursday.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., recently read to the Senate a newspaper story which said Sorensen, 33, had escaped military service as a conscientious objector and Korean War service as a father. The story said Sorensen was classified as "1-AO" between 1948 and 1954

"This 1-AO classification does not avoid military service," said Henninger, a retired Army major general. "A person with that qualification goes into uniform the same as any one else and serves in a branch such as the Medical Corps."

General Foods Corp. Cuts Price of Coffee

NEW YORK (AP)—General Foods Corp. Friday reduced the wholesale price of all its regular grind, vacuum-packed coffee two cents a pound, effective Monday.

The decline, first since a similar two cent cut in July 1960, was attributed by the firm to the "downward drift" of prices for green (unroasted) coffee since that time. The cut brings the wholesale level to the lowest level since 1949, the firm said.

Hunts Delegates to Michigan's 1908 Con-Con

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James M. Hare issued a tentative "missing persons report" Friday in connection with the forthcoming constitutional convention.

Hare, who will preside at the opening of the convention Tuesday, wants to know if there is any delegate to the 1908 convention who is still alive and living in Michigan besides retired U.S. Circuit Judge Charles C. Simons.

Simons will be an honored guest at a governor's reception and dinner Monday night at Kellogg Center at Michigan State University.

"I would personally feel very badly if we had overlooked any other delegate to the 1908 convention in our haste to get this 1961 convention under way," said Hare.

Buick Recalls 1,200 to Flint Auto Plants

FLINT (AP — General Motors' Buick division Friday recalled some 1,200 skilled trades and production workers.

Buick General Manager Edward Rollert said the recall followed a production boost to meet consumer demand. He said the company has had "the most successful new model introduction in several years."

The work force increase brings total Buick employment in Flint to nearly 17,000 — its highest level since last January.

Maybe Next Year, Abby Says—

Don't Accept Proposal Now, Give Him Awhile to Mature

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, 29 years old, and the mother of four children. I am the sole support of my children, and have been for four years.

My problem is a very handsome and wonderful young man who is only 19. He looks older, and has a very good job. He wants to marry me. I have known him a year, and I think the world of him but, Abby, I haven't a thing to offer him but my troubles.

ABBY

He knows this, but won't take no for an answer. He says he loves me and doesn't care what anyone thinks, and he is camping on my doorstep.

My children adore him. I think it would be unfair to him to marry him. I love him in a way, but am —

CONFUSED

★ ★ ★

DEAR CONFUSED: If you love him—don't marry him yet. He is only a boy. Give him a chance to mature and if, in another year, you both feel the same—well, perhaps it will work.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am told that ladies do not shake hands. Is that correct? When I meet someone, my hand automatically goes out, whether it is a man or a woman I am greeting. I can't find the answer in an etiquette book, but I want to do the proper thing. Can you help me?

A LADY

★ ★ ★

DEAR LADY: Ladies DO shake hands. Both with other ladies and with gentlemen.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: After raising my son, and seeing him through college on the start of a promising career I have the sorrow of watching him choose a girl of different religion, background and education. So far I have only shown "mild disapproval." Should I do more? I am afraid of forcing the wrong results.

TORN MOTHER

★ ★ ★

DEAR TORN: If you have given your son your best guidance, there is nothing you can do. You are wise not to snipe at the girl. That usually boomerangs.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Since I have seen all sorts of unusual problems in your column perhaps you'll use this, as it is indeed my biggest problem. I'm from Luxemburg and, invariably, when I am in the States, people will say, "Oh yes, GERMANY!" Now Luxemburg is a small country, and it is bad enough that people don't know where it is, but they mistake it for a part of a nation which, twice in 20 years, has invaded it.

Please print this, Abby, so that people will learn that Luxemburg is a very proud and independent country situated between France and Belgium, and that the official language is French, and that people should study a map once in a while.

The 10-week course will be offered from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday evenings at the Will-O-Way Workshop on West Long Lake Road.

Teen-Age Weddings Churn Up Dispute

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Teen-age marriages create problems for the school officials as well as for parents of the teen-age couples.

Some educators contend that a marriage in high school should mean expulsion of the couple. Others argue that marriage should not terminate the teen-agers' formal education.

★ ★ ★

A statistical look at how the young are marrying younger, and the results — both in schooling and in the divorce rate — came across this desk today from the Science Research Associates, Inc. The organization, with headquarters in Chicago, specializes in educational services including guidance publications.

Its researchers have rounded up the latest information on teen marriages and education from governmental and privately supported organizations, from school publications and sociologists.

39 PCT. UNDER 20

A Population Reference Bureau study, for instance, showed that in 1958 (latest year studied), 39 per cent of all brides and 12 per cent of all bridegrooms were in their teens.

In 1950, the figures were 32 and 7 per cent respectively.

In turn, a Bureau of the Census study showed that the annulment and divorce rates are the highest and the probability of second and third marriages the greatest among women wed for the first time while they were 19 years or younger.

★ ★ ★

Researchers cited another statewide study in Iowa made by Dr. Lee G. Burchinal, who found that teen-age marriage often means dropping out of school. Dr. Burchinal found that 80 per cent of the girls who married in high school dropped out and only 8 per cent ever re-enrolled. Among the boys, 43 per cent quit school and only 9 per cent reentered.

"Although the educational requirements for jobs are continually rising," said Dr. Burchinal, "the chances for further education for boys and girls who marry in high school are very slim."

EDUCATORS DIVIDED

Educators are divided on whether married students should be excluded from regular high school classes. The National Education Association asked a group of elementary and secondary teachers for their opinions. In both groups, 53 per cent replied that boys should be permitted to continue school. And 45.1 per cent contended married girls should be allowed to go on to classes.

★ ★ ★

Some 34.3 per cent thought the married boys should be excluded; 40.8 per cent thought the girls should. The rest were uncertain.

The publication Nation's Schools asked school administrators their opinion in two studies—one in 1960, the other in 1956. In 1960, 78 per cent thought married teen-agers should be permitted to continue their schooling.

★ ★ ★

Boston, Cleveland, Miami, New York, Atlanta and Long Beach, Calif., are among the cities which often send married students to evening schools instead of to regular schools, said the report. Several cities including Washington, D. C., place husband and wife in separate schools hoping to discourage other early marriages. Houston and many other cities leave to the school principal the decision of individual cases.

★ ★ ★

Omaha, Indianapolis and San Diego are among the cities permitting married students to stay in school, but often exclude them from extra curricular programs.

Your Friend Should Have Made Call

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Recently I learned through friends that a friend of mine from another city was in town. I did not call her as I felt it was her place to call me and let me know that she was in town. I understand that this friend is very busy because I did not call her. Will you please tell me whose place it was to call?

★ ★ ★

A: As an unexpected visitor to your town she should have let you know of her presence, but having learned that she was in town it was not very gracious on your part to insist that she be the one to make the first call.

SHOULD BE ON TIME

Q: Please give me your opinion regarding the following problem: When a large organization gives a luncheon or dinner and all the guests to be seated at the head table do not arrive on time for the function to be started at the appointed hour, how long must one delay the luncheon or dinner? Our club banquet was delayed over a half hour because all those to be seated at the head table were not present at the appointed hour. It didn't seem fair to those who made the effort to be on time to have to wait, but we didn't want to be rude.

★ ★ ★

A: It is an important requirement that those who are to be seated at the head table make a special effort to arrive punctually, and it is not necessary to wait more than 15 minutes for any of them except the guest of honor.

ACKNOWLEDGE VISITS

Q: I have just moved to a strange city. Several ladies have called on me. Some of them came while I was away from home and they left their cards. Just what is the proper way for me to acknowledge their visits?

★ ★ ★

A: You go to see them as soon as you can, and if they are not at home, you leave your card.

MAGAZINES

We constantly receive calls from housewives explaining that some magazine salesman or woman was at their door explaining some kind of a contest or they give a very strong sympathy appeal urging the housewife to purchase books or magazines.

Your Business Ethics Board frowns on such tactics. Buy the magazines for what they are worth and give charity to some local, legitimate agency.

How Many Do We Need?

Activity Dictates Calories

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Your basal metabolism represents the number of calories you need just to stay alive! In other words, these are the calories your body requires to maintain proper body temperature and to carry on all of its involuntary activities such as breathing and heart beating.

Added to these basic requirements are the calories you will need for all of your voluntary activities. How many you need depends on your height and weight and how active you are.

The calories used in physical exercise vary greatly depending on how strenuous the exercise is. For instance, you use less than 100 calories when doing an hour of light housekeeping, while you will use up several hundred calories an hour when indulging in very active sports.

STORED AS FAT

If you take in more calories than you use, these are stored as fat. If you take in less than you expend in activity, some of your stored fat is called on and you lose weight. It is just as simple as that.

★ ★ ★

Two factors which are important in finding your ideal weight are your bony structure and muscle development.

If you have a very light build, and too many pounds for it, you will be overweight and look it—whereas some other woman who weighs the same but has a large frame will be the correct weight and appear slim.

Women too often forget this factor and try to slim down to a weight which is impossible for them unless they become downright underweight.

★ ★ ★

Some women are heavier muscled than others. The development of the muscles also affects the weight.

The build also greatly influences the measurements. Often women try to slim their hips or waists to measurements which are impossible because of bony structure.

If you would like to have my Weight and Height Chart, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 40. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

'62 Ford Prices About the Same

Slight Changes From Last Year Noted by Vice President

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. says its 1962 models are going to cost about the same price as the 1961 models.

J. O. Wright, Ford vice president, said Thursday that slightly lower prices will be offered on 21 models; unchanged prices on 16 models and slightly higher prices on 17 models in the Ford and Mercury lines.

Wright said suggested list prices on all 6-cylinder models in the 1962 Ford Galaxie line have been reduced from 1961 levels. Prices on 6-cylinder models remain unchanged.

Ford Falcon suggested prices have been reduced $2 to $3. The Mercury Comet was increased $10.

The Thunderbird suggested factory list prices have been increased $38.

Ford, like General Motors, has made a heater and defroster standard equipment. Prices were increased to cover these former optional items.

All prices are minus state, federal or local taxes, transportation charges and dealer handling charges.

Pontiac Man Pharmacist on S.S. Hope Says:

Cultural Problems Ahead for Peace Corps

By RALPH HUMMEL

"The largest problems the Peace Corps will face will be language and cultural difficulties," says Charles W. Dickerson, 25, of 168 Ogemaw St., who recently returned from an 11-month, 20,000-mile medical mercy and teaching mission to Indonesia and Viet Nam.

"The corpsmen will have to live with strange people and eat their food, and they'll have to show they enjoy it whether they like it or not," according to Dickerson who returned yesterday to Michigan State University for graduate study.

In charge of the pharmacy aboard the privately sponsored mercy ship S.S. Hope on its maiden voyage, Dickerson carries a vivid impression of a dinner with a high Indonesian official who later told him:

"Mr. Dickerson, we are very happy that you enjoyed our food."

★ ★ ★

The official left Dickerson with the feeling the personal touch was sometimes as important as the medical team's actual mission: the training of doctors and nurses in Indonesia.

Eating Indonesian food takes some getting used to, Dickerson admitted. The original Spice Islands, to which Columbus wanted to find a short route, are part of the Indonesian Republic's island group.

"The food is hot," Dickerson said, "—very hot. But if you eat it without preconceived notions, you can get used to it and actually begin to like it."

MANY LANGUAGES

Language was the main difficulty for the 60 medical staff members on the S.S. Hope. The main language is a form of Malayan called Bahasa Indonesia; the secondary language is English used for government and scientific purposes.

★ ★ ★

However, Dickerson pointed out, each of the numerous islands in the thousand-mile-long chain has its own language.

The ship's staff got some basic language training but not enough, he said.

"We finally learned how to talk to our patients in their own language in terms of 'Sit down,' 'Where does it hurt?' and so on," said Dickerson. "I'm very happy to hear the Peace Corps is getting more intensive training. There is no better way to gain a person's trust than to try to speak his language."

Dickerson started his long journey Sept. 22, 1960, when the mercy ship sailed from San Francisco, and returned two weeks ago. The S.S. Hope followed requests by the governments of Indonesia and Viet Nam to teach new medical methods to doctors and nurses in these countries.

★ ★ ★

Her itinerary took the ship first to the Indonesian capital, Djakarta, to Java, the islands of Bali and Sumbawa, and to Timor, famed as the refuge of Captain Bligh of the English sailing ship Bounty.

When an earthquake hit the island of Flores, the ship was asked by the government to make an emergency stop there. It left a large portion of medicine and food supplies, but found little need for emergency medical aid, Dickerson said. Hong Kong and Saigon were also visited.

Indonesian doctors and nurses had been taken on at Djakarta to learn from the Americans and pass the knowledge on to doctor residents on the islands.

★ ★ ★

"There were government doctors on most of the islands of Indonesia," Dickerson said. "But much medical aid is still given by village medicine men.

"Part of the medicine men's method is black magic. However some of it is simple first aid using medical knowledge gathered after long experience and homemade remedies of herbs."

NOT ENOUGH DOCTORS

Little-paid government doctors often had an impossibly large practice, Dickerson said. On the island of Sumbawa, two doctors serve half a million people.

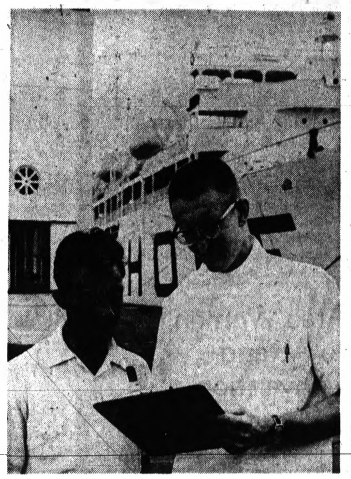

The scope of the medical need is shown by the 700 major operations performed aboard ship while in Indonesia and the treatment of a total of 18,000 patients.

Staff members conducted 800 lectures and classes. A total of 500 Indonesian doctors and nurses participated in the program.

★ ★ ★

Although Indonesian doctors were eager to learn western methods, it was somewhat of an exchange program, Dickerson said.

"I think we learned as much from them as they learned from us," he said. "Tropical diseases a they exist in the South Pacific are seldom seen in such advanced stages by U.S. doctors. There was much to learn."

PONTIAC TO JAVA — Pharmacist Charles W. Dickerson of 168 Ogemaw St. is shown as he checked over the day's problems with an Indonesian medical student in Sourabaya. In background is mercy ship S. S. Hope during its maiden trip.

Medical, Office Facilities to Be Expanded at Hospital

Pontiac General Hospital will open a new fluoroscopic unit before the end of this year and add IBM equipment to its accounting department shortly after Jan. 1, it was announced today.

The Hospital Board of Trustees has approved the purchase of the $27,000 fluoroscopic unit and authorized Administrator Harold B. Euler to lease the IBM facilities.

The fluoroscopic room will be the hospital's third. The unit will include an image intensifier.

★ ★ ★

"At present there are very few image intensifiers in operation in the Detroit area, so we're especially proud of this modern equipment," said Euler.

"The intensifier increases the brilliance of the picture of the fluoroscope and reduces greatly the radiation exposure to the patient."

"We hope to have the unit installed and operating in 60 days."

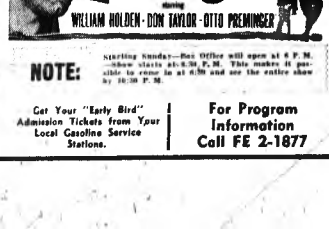

SO NEW IN SCOPE

The IBM equipment is so new in scope that the hospital must train business office personnel in its use. Installation isn't slated to begin until early next year.

The system will be brought in pieces with final installation and beginning of full operation scheduled for April.

It is estimated that rental fees for all the new machines will total $1,500 per month.

Governor Fights All-Out Battle on Coffee Break

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Gov. Matthew Welsh of Indiana has unveiled a secret weapon in his campaign to shorten state employes' coffee breaks.

He ordered the state office building cafeteria closed for two hours in the morning and two hours in the afternoon, and he divided it into areas with 15-minute time limits. Coffee drinkers are asked to leave at the end of the 15-minute time segment.

Falls Down on Job

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (UPI)—Police inspector Loren D. Pierce, who also serves as Santa Clara's coordinator of civil defense, sprained an ankle Wednesday when he fell 12 feet into the excavation for a bomb shelter he was building in his back yard.

Set Year-Round Program to Make Michigan Safer

Beginning Oct. 1, a new year-'round program to make Michigan a safer place in which to live, work and vacation will be established by the Michigan Safety Conference, according to R. H. Goring, president, a Michigan Bell Telephone Co. executive.

The conference has compiled a very extensive roster of experts in all phases of safety, such as traffic, home, fire, water, industrial, construction and transportation. These people have willingly agreed to donate their services to help Michigan citizens enjoy a safer and happier life.

"Our new facilities will enable us to provide safety services, free-of-charge, to any individual, group or organization in Michigan," said Goring. "In addition, our representatives will gladly assist Township, Village or City officials who are charged with the legal responsibility for public safety."

* * *

Those who desire to inquire about assistance may write: Michigan Safety Conference, Inc., Suite 1211 — Bank of Lansing Building, PO Box 1138, Lansing 4, Mich.

The conference is a nonprofit, self-supporting organization that has functioned for 31 years, sustained by the individual efforts of many citizens.

"It is an outstanding example of business, industry and citizen support cooperating to more effectively accomplish their goals," Goring stated.

Annually, the conference conducts a 3-day meeting each spring, which is open to the public and is attended by some 4,000 delegates. Over 50 outstanding programs are presented and there is on display 100 exhibits of all types of safety equipment and material.

WALL MURIAL — When the Rogers' eat in the kitchen, they sit beneath a colorful farm mural. The wainscoting in this area is painted light brown. Captains chairs surround the table; all are maple. The floor has a spatter print covering. Walls are cream. The cafe curtains and the ruffle are natural color. Appliances are bronzetone.

background for LIVING

CURVING LINES — The brick patio is pleasing to the eye with its gently curving walls. White brick like that used on the house exterior is repeated in the patio and the screened porch. The Rogers' are pleased that their clump of birch trees has done so well. Take a close look and you'll see Lady, the Rogers' blond cocker, posing prettily in front of the barbecue grill.

Your Neighbor's House

First Family to Settle in Concord Green

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Moving from one town to another can be lonesome business. But if you have friendly neighbors in your new location, this helps to bridge the first few weeks.

★ ★ ★

The Philip Rogers not only moved into the Pontiac area from Glenview, Illinois last December; but they were the first people to move into Concord Green subdivision. Now almost all the 49 lots are sold and there are many families settled in the neighborhood.

★ ★ ★

Lots in Concord Green run about half an acre in size. All utilities are underground and the builders left a good many trees. So the subdivision has a more settled look than many of its contemporaries. It's east of Opdyke and south of Long Lake Road.

Tom Rogers is a college student. His younger sister, Sandra, is in high school.

It was raining the day we took pictures of the Rogers' home and we ducked into the garage, entering the house through the kitchen. It's a long room with a farm mural on the end wall. The brown and green scene with its touches of red looks so real that you think you're looking out of a window.

Cabinets are birch. Counter tops and splash backs are white. All appliances are bronzetone.

Between the kitchen and the living room is the family room which opens onto a back screened porch. This porch and the curving patio outside are made of brick matching the exterior brick. The porch is screened around three sides.

★ ★ ★

There's an oak block floor in the family room with taffy colored walls and dado. Natural draperies can be pulled across the sliding glass doors.

One green and one beige textured armchair provide comfortable seating for TV watchers. At one side is a metal table with a plastic top that looks for all the world like woven bamboo.

White iron furniture with pale gray-blue cushions is used on the porch. The rug is a gray and white fiber one. There's an inside planter around one corner. Mrs. Rogers' father laid all this brick when the porch and patio were added during the summer.

★ ★ ★

In the dining room and living room and up the stairs there is creamy white carpeting. Walls and draperies are the same color.

The dining room furniture is ash which has a beautiful grain. A buffet and a small chest provide storage space. All the chairs (there are 2 armchairs) have seats and backs of a tweedy material in green, beige and yellow.

The front hallway has a slate floor. Cranberry red wallpaper on the stair wall offers a pleasing contrast to the cream background of the adjoining rooms.

FORMAL ROOM

Quiet formal simplicity is the theme of the cream colored living room. The Rogers' are still looking for just the right pictures to hang. There's a gray brick fireplace with a plain wooden mantel.

The sofa is beige. At one end of the room there's a pair of turquoise chairs. A club chair upholstered in a light aqua squared design is near the fireplace. Tables are mahogany.

This is a house with 4 bedrooms. One of the front ones is the guest room. In here walls only whisper that they're green. Pale green carpeting complements them. Draperies are creamy.

Mrs. Rogers had fun painting all the furniture in an antiqued aqua shade. The twin beds have blue, green and aqua spreads. In one corner is a bookcase and a desk-vanity.

Tom's room has cream walls and carpeting. Natural linen double cafe curtains hang at the windows. The furniture has been spray painted beige. The bedspreads are brown corduroy.

In the bathroom there is a blue and white color scheme. The blue wallpaper has diamond shaped figures of white. Fixtures are blue. The shag rug and the little shutters on the window are white.

Sandy has a charming bedroom with new furniture of her own choosing. She displayed mature taste in picking out the cherry Italian provincial bed and triple chest of drawers. Both have a narrow gold trim.

Walls are pale sandalwood. Two sets of natural shutters at each window take the place of curtains. She has a green slipper chair. A cork bulletin board is crammed with souvenirs.

The flowered bedspread has violet, pinks and aqua in it. Scatter pillows are purple, orchid, olive and beige.

There are pale aqua walls in the master bedroom. In the attached bath wallpaper is blue and green. Draperies are cream. Furniture is antiqued gray. The bedspread has stripes of blue, green and aqua. Mrs. Rogers is about to cover a chair in blue and moss green.

★ ★ ★

William J. Pute, Inc. was architect and builder for the Rogers' home. The exterior is white brick and white siding with black shutters.

TEEN TALK — Sandy (left) and her house guest from Glenview, Illinois, Judy Layman, are probably discussing fall fashions as they lounge on the bed. Sandy's room is A large one with light sandalwood walls. She likes the little folding shutters in place of curtains. Behind the girls is the Italian Provincial triple chest with its big mirror.

LOOKING DOWN — The Press photographer went part way up the stairs to get this shot of the dining room. Walls, draperies and carpeting are just like those in the living room. The furniture is ash. Chairs have a tweed-like upholstery of green, beige and yellow.

Prepare Entryways for Winter Run

Are your front and back doorways protected? A door canopy is among the least costly home improvements but is very important in keeping the door step clean and safe, in cutting down on the amount of tracked-in mud and dirt and in protecting the finish of both the door and frame.

Have you set aside a specific area (such as the garage or basement) where skates, boots, rubbers and raincoats can be neatly stored? These are leading causes of dirt and hard-to-remove scuff marks.

New Plastic Patching Expands and Contracts

The product — a heavy-bodied pigmented material for patching plaster cracks. A thin coat of the product is spread over the crack and smoothed down with a special applicator. A length of glass fabric is applied over the coated area, followed by another coat of the pigmented substance.

★ ★ ★

The manufacturer's claim — that this material is flexible and will expand and contract with the opening and closing of the plaster crack and thus will last indefinitely. (Made by Tuff Kote Co., Wood stock, Ill.)

CREAM BACKGROUND—Walls, carpeting and draperies are a warm cream color. Over the gray brick fireplace there's a simple shelf mantel. The club chair is aqua and the sofa beige. The Rogers' are still looking for exactly the right picture to hang above the mantel.

Plan Island Apartments

Plans are being revived to build a $1.5 million dollar apartment development on Dawson's Island in White Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dawson bought the island in 1944. They are planning 102 apartment units in 8 buildings to be sold rather than rented.

Recreation and park facilities are planned for 20 acres of the island. These will include a clubhouse and swimming pool, picnic area and beaches.

Dawson's Island is 1,400 feet off shore. It will be connected with the mainland by a causeway, much in the same manner in which this is done in many Florida locations. A model apartment is on view on the White Lake mainland.

Spacers Are Built In

Have you ever wondered how the tile-setter is able to install a wall of bright, durable ceramic tile and manage to keep them so evenly spaced? Well, most glazed ceramic tile made in America comes with built-in lugs — spacers — on all four edges which automatically and uniformly space the tile for mortar joints.

HOME CLINIC

Do it yourself . . . or leave it to a professional?

That's one of the first questions that you, as a homeowner, must answer when you're planning a home improvement project. Sometimes it is a difficult question, too, with sound arguments on both sides.

Try A Compromise

As with most questions, the best answer is a compromise. If you have the talent and the time, go at those small projects on your own. Tiling a floor, painting a room, panelling a wall—these are the kind of jobs that anyone who is even slightly handy with tools can accomplish with fine results. It's economical and it can be mighty satisfying, too.

When you are planning an extensive project, such as a room addition or a remodeled kitchen, there are many reasons why you should rely on a professional home modernizer. Good design will assure maximum results, and that takes experience. When several types of work are involved—such as carpenter, plumber, electrician and painter—the job of coordinating them requires professional attention. The efficiency and close supervision that a reliable company provides often make the total cost less than if you tried to make your own arrangements with each of these independent workmen.

We're Ready to Help

At Poole's Home Improvement Center you will find help and encouragement for the projects you can do on your own. We will be happy to provide professional design help and how-to-do-it advice. If you decide that the job is really too complicated for you, our highly trained craftsmen are at your service.

Think of the Car It Needs Room

If you're still stumbling over lawnmowers and garden rakes in the garage by Christmas each year, this article is for you. If you're one of millions of Americans whose cars have been dispossessed by summer clutter, then this article is really for you!

We Americans are obsessed with the possession of tools. We see them advertised, decide we need them, buy them and use them. This is wonderful. It's good for the economy — it helps us with our work — and, besides, it's very satisfying to own and use gadgets.

All these acquisitions, however, tend to fill up our garages. And, since most of them are used in the summer months only, it is especially annoying to have them in our way all winter long.

There are two parts to the solution. First, think before you buy: Do I have room to store this tractor? Even though it will definitely help in weeding the petunia patch, is there really space for it beside the mulch spreader, leaf cart, lawnmower, hedge clippers, rakes, shovels, pruning shears, lime bags, garden hose, lawn roller and other equipment?

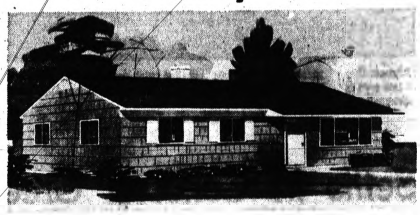

The other possibility — one you'd better get started on right now — is the construction of a tool shed or an area inside the house where all this needed summer equipment can be stored during the bulk of the year when it isn't in use.

Your reward for this forehanded thought and action will be the ease with which you back your car into the garage all winter long.

Houses Are Built Really Too Strong

Laboratory tests show that most U. S. softwood species have far greater strength than is necessary for most house framing needs.

The tendency, says H. V. Simpson, executive vice president of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, has always been to overbuild our homes. We always use better and stronger lumber than is needed. No one, he said, ever heard of a house falling down because lumber framing gave way.

That is one reason, said the lumber leader, why we recommend Utility grade west coast lumber for most house framing requirements. Not only is Utility grade Douglas fir and west coast hemlock less expensive than other grades, but it is almost as strong.

In home framing, Simpson said, stiffness is one of the prerequisites, and Utility grades have ample stiffness, strength, and long life to frame both the cottage or the $100,000 home.

Only Simple Math Is Needed to Buy Tile

Here is an easy way to determine how many tiles are needed for a room when installing a floor of solid vinyl or vinyl asbestos tile.

Get the square footage of the room by measuring length and width, then double it and subtract 10 per cent, which gives you the number of tiles needed. This is based on the fact that a standard 9" by 9" tile is 9.16 of a square foot.

Window Boxes Improve Looks of Most Homes

With all due respect to contemporary asceticism of architectural line, window boxes can naught but enhance the exterior of a home. Built of easily handled Western Pine region wood, the project would be highly do-it-yourselfable.

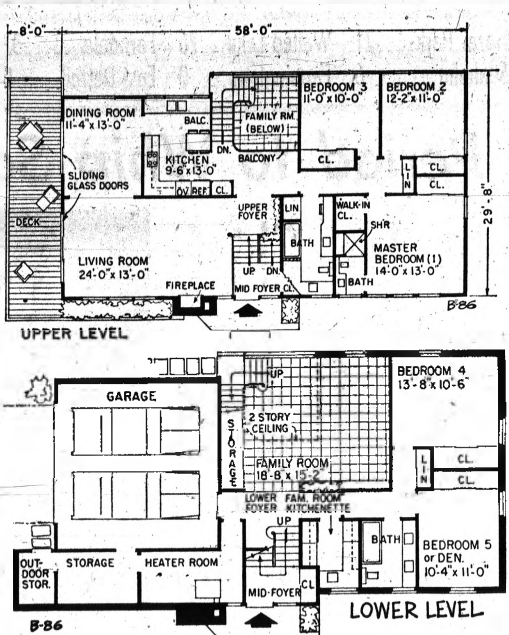

★ ★ ★

In general the box should be as wide as the window sill and as deep and high as necessary. Beveled side pieces and an extended front piece make a more finished product. And don't forget drainage holes.

FLOOR PLANS — A mid-level foyer in this bi-level home guarantees privacy for both levels. A second staircase, from the family room up to the kitchen balcony, completes the traffic circulation pattern. Not also the abundance of storage space in this house, especially the storage wall off the family room.

Large Bi-Level Plan Has Many Unusual Features

The bi-level home, by now firmly established, still is new enough to offer the freshest variations of all contemporary designs.

The house is definitely in the large-size category. It has five bedrooms (or four bedrooms and a den), three bathrooms, a double garage, a 24' by 13' living room with a large fireplace, separate dining room, and — one of the most practical touches of all — a separate lower level kitchenette off the family room.

Its dimensions are 66' wide by 29'8" deep with 1,658 square feet of living area on the upper level and 924 square feet on the lower level not counting the garage and basement area. An 8' wide deck on the upper level, entered through sliding glass doors from both the living and dining rooms, runs the full depth of the house.

A mid-level foyer controls the traffic in and out of the house, guaranteeing no intrusion on the privacy of either level. A second staircase, from the family room up to the kitchen balcony, completes the traffic circulation pattern. At no time is it necessary to pass through a room, which may be occupied, to get to another room in the house.

The family room in this house is a spacious 283 square feet, which seems even larger because of the two-story ceiling and the huge, panoramic rear window. There are three entrances to the family room — from the rear and through the garage as well as down from the mid-level entrance foyer.

SECOND KITCHEN

The lower - level kitchenette makes the family room truly a livable area as well as an excellent place for teen-agers to entertain. And the surrounding balcony makes possible supervision (of small fry as well) from an unobtrusive vantage point.

As dramatic as the balcony is the upper level porch, or sun deck, which has the effect of adding about 235 additional square feet to the living room-dining room expanse. The large planter extending from the deck across the front of the house, on the upper level, provides an unusual exterior feature.

Use of the lower level for living — the primary economical value of bi-level design — does not, in B-86, eliminate all the normal basement space. There is plenty of room for storage, both indoors and out, as well as an oversized heater room.

As a matter of fact, storage space is one thing this house has more than enough of. Note the oversized closets in each of the five bedrooms, and especially the large storage wall in the family room. Note also how the closets are arranged to serve as sound buffers, especially for the master bedroom.

Another Frustrating Night for Chiefs

SPORTS

PCH Loses Lead Twice as Hillites Gain 13-13 Tie

Chiefs Muff Field Goal Attempt on Final Play of Valley Game

By BILL CORNWELL

SAGINAW — It would be difficult to imagine a more frustrating football evening than the one Pontiac Central High School experienced here Friday night.

The Chiefs spent most of the evening pushing a beefy Arthur Hill team up and down the gridiron but when the 48 minutes had elapsed on the scoreboard clock, all they had to show for their efforts was an exasperating 13-13 deadlock.

Coach Paul Dellerba's PCH gridders led Arthur Hill in every statistical department but when the Saginaw Valley Conference battle came to an end, they were still searching for their 1st victory of the 1961 season.

It marked the 2nd straight year that the Chiefs and the Hillites have fought to a draw. They struggled to a 20-20 tie last year on this same field in a contest quite similar to this one.

The Chiefs twice blew leads, then climaxed their frustrating night by muffing a field goal attempt from the Arthur Hill 17-yard line on the final play of the game.

Just as in their 13-0 loss to Bay City Central a week ago at Wisner, fumbles and penalties cost them dearly in crucial moments. For the second consecutive week, PCH lost four fumbles to an alert enemy.

Pontiac's most prominent mistakes can be listed as follows:

Two costly fumbles, two penalties and two bad passes from center.

Central enjoyed a 7-0 lead at halftime, but the Chiefs so completely dominated the first two quarters that the estimated 4,000 fans gathered in Arthur Hill Memorial Stadium probably were wondering why they didn't collect three or four touchdowns.

The Chiefs were stalled twice in the 1st quarter. They lost the ball on downs on the Hillite 19 after a fumble lost 10 yards, then another bobble was recovered by AH on the Saginaw 23 to halt another threat.

The Chiefs finally hit pay dirt midway through the 2nd period. A 26-yard punt return by halfback Roy Couser ignited the drive and they marched 55 yards in nine plays with Couser scoring the touchdown on a 10-yard swing around left end. Quarterback Bob Pomeroy kicked the point.

Arthur Hill squared matters at 7-7 late in the 3rd stanza. A 34-yard punt return by Dave Landeryou sparked the Hills' 1st TD and they pushed 38 yards for the tying counter with fullback Ken Bublitz cracking across from one yard out. Ed Krietz booted the 7th point.

A 15-yard unnecessary roughing penalty against PCH kept this drive going after AH quarterback Jim Flora had been dumped for a 12-yard loss.

Pontiac bounced right back and drove 68 yards for a TD with Andy Roach streaking 28 yards off tackle for the counter on the first play of the 4th period.

The Chiefs had three cracks at the all-important extra point. Pomeroy made the 1st attempt but PCH was offside. He missed the 2nd try but Arthur Hill was offside. An errant pass from center nullified the 3rd effort as the kick never got off the ground and PCH led, 19-7.

The Hillites rebounded immediately. Ken Birch raced 46 yards on the 1st play to reach the PCH 22, then three plays later Bublitz fumbled 12 yards into the end zone. Krietz' kick was wide and the score was even.

Pontiac got its first real break with 5:17 remaining when tackle Dick Richards recovered a Hillite fumble on the Saginaw 21. After gaining a 1st down on the AH 10, the Chiefs gave up the ball again as Roach fumbled and Tim Brennan of Saginaw fell on it on the 10.

Aided by a pass interference penalty, PCH kept punching away but the Chiefs were also fighting the clock. They took to the air and moved to the AH 9-yard stripe. Pomeroy dropped back to attempt a field goal from the 17 on the game's last play, but a poor pass from center ruined the effort.

Skipper Torment Resumes; Walled Lake Rolls Along

By BOB BEEDLE

Waterford High coach Stu Thorell is going to have nightmares about runbacks.

Two weeks ago, it was a pair of long interception returns which upset Waterford's applecart and provided township foe Kettering with a one-point triumph.

But last night was the topper. The Skippers won the battle of the statistics for the third straight week, but dropped a 26-19 verdict to Berkley when the Bears exploded with two tremendous kick runbacks within two and a half minutes in the third quarter.

In another opening Inter-Lakes League action, Walled Lake easily downed Farmington, 26-0, for its third straight win.

Berkeley had the upper hand in the first half in taking a 12-0 lead. But the Skippers came back strong and moved to within six-points on Gary Walls' one-yard scoring plunge early in the third stanza.

On the succeeding kickoff, however, Berkley junior Steve Hollingsworth made new coach Irv Wilson breath easier when he grabbed the ball and raced 75 yards through what seemed the entire Waterford defense for a 19-6 lead.

Then, just 2:25 later, it was Dick Kakkuri's turn to help relax Wilson when he took a punt and sped 77 yards up the right sideline for the final — and clinching — Berkley TD.

Rick LaBair's 57-yard kickoff return helped set up a Waterford touchdown minutes later, Bob Readler going across from six inches. The scoring was capped late in the contest on a two-yard dive by Walls.

It was Kakkuri, a big high-stepping halfback, who opened the scoring with a six-yarder in the opening quarter. Dan Osborne made it 12-0 on a two-yard plunge.

Waterford, now 1-2 overall, completely dominated the second half —with the exception of the two long runbacks — Berkley (2-1 overall) managing only 14 yards from scrimmage during that time.

Lee Keiser, 14-year-old sophomore whiz, continued his solid running for the losing Skippers. Keiser picked up 131 yards in 18 carries to push his season ground total to 366 yards.

Waterford was without the services of Readler, first-string quarterback, for most of the first half, due to the slow recovery of an ankle injury he suffered in practice this week. Gary Moran, normally a halfback, did creditably in his place.

Mike Buffmyer tallied twice—on runs of one and 12 yards, and Mike Hinckley (10) and Bill Green (14) wrapped up the scoring for offensive-minded Walled Lake in its easy triumph over Farmington.

Dave Smith's Walled Lake crew has now counted 119 points in three contests while limiting its foes to a mere 26.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS — Pontiac Northern quarterback Rick Fisher seems to be running out of the crowd in this double exposure picture taken by Press photographer at Wisner Stadium last night. Les Wilkinson of Southfield is the other gridder mixed in with the happy Northern fans who had plenty to cheer about in a 14-6 triumph.

Bay City Teams Stay Unbeaten in Valley Race

Few cities in the country can boast of two teams fighting for a state championship but Bay City is one.

The town of near 60,000 population on Saginaw Bay this year has produced two of Michigan's top prep elevens in Bay City Central and its crosstown rival, Bay City Handy.

Last night, each school won its third straight Saginaw Valley Conference game, Central walloping Flint Southwestern, 32-6, and Handy downing Flint Northern, 20-13. In another Valley game, Midland routed Saginaw High, 26-7.

Fullback Roy Campbell scored twice on runs of 8 and 6 yards to lead another Class A power, unbeaten Ann Arbor, to a tight 19-16 victory over highly-rated Flint Central which suffered its first setback.

Anchor Bay Player Dropkicks PAT

Imlay Routs North Branch

Imlay City picked up its second South Central win in as many games Friday night by crushing North Branch, 47-14.

The dropkick made one of its rare appearances in present day football as Anchor Bay rolled past Dryden 40-0 in a Southern Thumb contest.

★ ★ ★

Doug Perkins and Dick Sefvocic scored twice for Imlay City.

Perkins went three yards to open the scoring and Sefvocic sprinted 29 before the first quarter was over. Bob Maison picked up a second quarter TD on a two-yarder and Sefvocic went 28 to give the Spartans a 28-7 halftime lead.

Perkins got his second touchdown in the third period on a one yard plunge and Mike Folk scored from two yards. Jim Rivert caught a three yard scoring pass in the fourth quarter to end the Imlay TD parade.

★ ★ ★

Folk ran three extra points, Perkinds, Maison and Terry Ignasiak one each.

The freshmen combination of Fred Monroe to Denny Smith produced 20 and 39-yard scoring passes for North Branch with Hibbard running the PAT.

Don Halley dropkicked one of two extra point attempts for Anchor Bay. Al Ludeman scored twice on runs of 22 and 82 yards. Gary Marcero sprinted eight and 45 yards for TDs. George Torney scored on a two-yard plunge and added an extra point. Dennis Folan scored the other touchdown on a 15-yard run.

Gary Gorslin scored twice in Brown City's win over Almont. The losers were inside the Brown City 20-yard line three times only to lose the ball on downs.

★ ★ ★

Perry Lee scored on a 20-yard run and Dwight Lee ran 28 for a TD, but it wasn't enough to keep New Haven in the game. Armada held a 13-7 halftime lead.

Stan Kobyashi passed 40 yards to Jim Stanlioul for the lone score in Capac's triumph over Memphis.

West Suburban Grid Homecoming Tonight

A parade and participation by civic officials will help feature the West Suburban Boys Club Homecoming tonight at West Bloomfield.

Following a parade from the club through Keego Harbor to the West Bloomfield High field, township supervisor John Rehard will kick off the 1st ball which will be held by Keego mayor Russell Gregg.

Games in the All American Little Football League against Grosse Pointe Farms will follow at 6 for the Frosh, 7 for Jaycees and 8 for varsity. The varsity boys were the only victor last week at Royal Oak.

North Farmington 3-0

North Farmington chalked up its 3rd straight triumph blasting the Plymouth reserves 31-0 yesterday paced by alternate quarterbacks Bill Hall and Lee Martella. Five different boys scored as the victors gained 470 yards — 350 on the ground. Kettering is the next NFHS foe Thursday.

WHOA, HUSKIE — Southfield defenders swarmed all over PNH star back Dave Shields on this 3rd quarter play last night but they didn't have much success stopping him otherwise. He scored a touchdown and gained 71 yards rushing to help pace a big Inter-Lakes triumph.

Rochester, Romeo Roll; Big Contest Next Week

Touchdowns exploded all over the place at Rochester last night as the Falcons beat highly-rated Troy 28-19 in a spectacular offensive show.

Meanwhile, Romeo was getting warmed up for a meeting next week with Gene Konley's gridders by blasting Oxford, 38-0.

Rochester scored twice in a two minute span in the third period, and they were enough to send Troy reeling to its first defeat in three games while giving the Falcons their second victory in three.

★ ★ ★

Both of the rapid-fire TDs were of the same thrilling variety as the first one late in the second quarter when left halfback Tom Mitzelfeld raced 64 yards to give Rochester a 7-6 halftime lead.

Mitzelfeld's run and the extra point plunge by fullback Eddie Dando stunned the Colts, who had ground out 19 first downs during the first half but had only Dave Aldred's four-yard slant for a touchdown to put on the scoreboard.

The go-ahead tally still had the Falcons fired up when they returned for the third period and they struck again with devastating speed. Mitzelfeld sped 49 yards following the kickoff and then he went the final 10 yards three plays later.

After Rochester held Troy on the next series, Dando scooped up a short punt and dashed 40 yards for another six-pointer. Dando had plunged for the extra point on Mitzelfeld's TD; this time Mitzelfeld ran it over.

Troy hit back through the air and two completions for long gains set up Aldred's two yard blast early in the fourth to make the score 21-12.

But the Falcons came right back to put the game on ice. Dando rambled for runs of 34 and 20 yards before crashing seven yards right up to the goal line stripe. Quarterback Bud Baldwin then sneaked the ball over and Pete Long ran for the conversion.

Troy found new vigor after recovering a Rochester fumble on its 36 and pushed over the final touchdown when only 20 seconds remained to play. A 46-yard pass from Harold Klusendorf to Aldred put the ball on the Falcons' five and Tom Towler carried it over from the three.

Rochester rolled up 262 yards, all on the ground, with Mitzelfeld accounting for 167 in 13 carries. Troy rushed for 223 yards and a furious passing attack by the Colts in the second half added 120 more.

Tabbed as "The Untouchables" by their followers after posting their 3rd straight shutout triumph, the Bulldogs increased their season point margin to 112-0.

Romeo got off to a slow start taking 11 plays to go only 23 yards following a fumble recovery in the opening period. John Hanley crashed over from the 1 on 4th down and Butch Peraino kicked his 1st of two extra points.

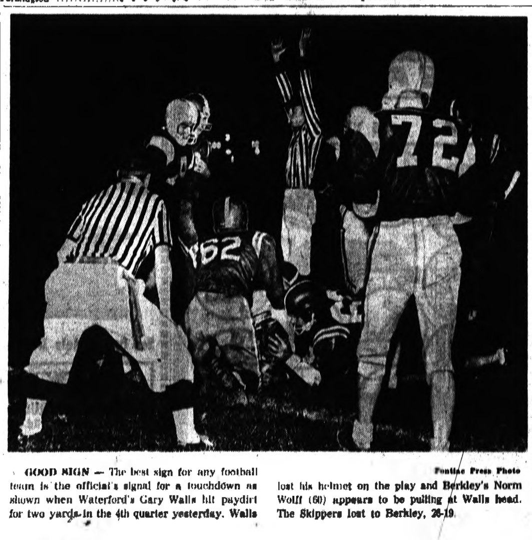

Bill Trieloff followed with two six-pointers in the 2nd quarter and another in the 3rd besides having one nullified by a penalty. He ran 73 and 31 and made paydirt on pass from Mark Johnson covering 45 yards. Trieloff now has seven TDs.

Saline Strikes Early to Defeat South Lyon

Saline struck for two first period touchdowns and went on to down South Lyon 19-8 Friday night.

South Lyon got a TD on its own in the opening period on a 45-yard pass from Lowell Burgess to Dave Race. The losers picked up a safety in the second quarter when Dennis Glass tackled a Saline ball carrier in the end zone.

The Lions, now 1-2 on the season, pushed to the Saline 10 twice in the second half before losing possession of the ball.

GOOD SIGN — The best sign for any football team is the official's signal for a touchdown as shown when Waterford's Gary Walls hit paydirt for two yards in the 4th quarter yesterday. Walls lost his helmet on the play and Berkley's Norm Wolff (60) appears to be pulling at Walls head. The Skippers lost to Berkley, 26-19.

Shields, Fisher TD Scores in Last Quarter

Win Gives Northern Big Start in I-L; Walled Lake Next

By CHUCK ABAIR

Striking back for two last period touchdowns, Pontiac Northern hammered out an impressive 14-6 triumph over visiting Southfield before about 5,000 fans on a perfect night for football Friday.

It was a big victory for the Huskies for several reasons. It got them off to a good start in the Inter-Lakes race and was against a 1960 co-champion figured to be a strong contender again. The come-from-behind win in the PNH home debut was sweet revenge for a 52-13 lacing last fall.

The Red and White gridders will invade the new Walled Lake field to meet the other defending co-titlist next week.

Northern dominated most of the play against the much bigger Bluejays hitting hard both on offense and defense right from the opening kickoff..

Tricky quarterback Rick Fisher scored seven points, hard-running Dave Shields tallied the other touchdown and Chris Payne averaged better than 10 yards per carry but it was a team-type effort! Happy home coach Ed Heikkinen refused to single out any individuals. The blocking was strong and the defense, led by Mike Marcum, was surprisingly successful against the rugged SHS backs and linemen.

Southfield looked very good going 53 yards in seven plays to open the point-getting midway through the 2nd quarter but Northern had the edge before and after.

Fisher's running paced an early PNH threat which fizzled after reaching the Southfield 18 partly due to a 15-yard penalty. The Huskies reached the enemy 42 before punting early in the 2nd session and that was when Southfield got going.

★ ★ ★

After being held without a 1st down for 16 minutes, the blue shirted invaders appeared to be taking command with an easy ground march to paydirt. A 41-yard dash by sophomore Dennis Lamb was the big gainer. Les Wilkinson cracked over from the 2.

But the gritty Pontiac kids shook it off and started a drive of their own. Payne went 41 on the opening play. They got to the Jays 23 with a 1st down but were halted by an interception.

A penalty nullified a Southfield TD pass early in the 2nd half and it was all Northern the rest of the night. The Huskies took an ensuing punt and traveled 92 yards — all by rushing — to go ahead to stay with two minutes gone in the final quarter.

★ ★ ★

Fisher mixed his plays well along the way using Shields mostly. Payne went 21 once and Fisher a crucial 12 another time. Bill Young's seven-yard scamper made it 1st down at the 2 and Shields went into the end zone standing up.

A neatly-executed PAT play broke the tie. Soph Dean Souden put on a good act apparently getting ready to kick but Fisher scooted across for the point.

The Huskies missed a golden opportunity to boost the lead later when two 15-yard penalties helped ruin a fumbled punt recovery at the Southfield 10. Guard Don Vance recovered another fumble a few minutes later at the 17 and this time the locals made it count. Payne went 6, Shields 10 and Fisher the last 1. Souden booted a perfect placement this time.

★ ★ ★

Southfield had reached the home team's 35 as the final whistle sounded.

NOWHERE TO GO — Berkley's quarterback Phil Krumm (14) has nowhere to go as he runs into a wall of linemen of both teams. The white Waterford helmets close the gap to keep Krumm from going anywhere. Berkley still won, 26-19.

Avondale Tops Clawson, Dragons Tie Madison

Avondale opened Oakland B play on a victorious note Friday, but Lake Orion had to settle for a tie.

The Yellow Jackets rolled to a 19-0 lead and then held off a third quarter Clawson surge to post a 19-13 triumph. Lake Orion led until late in the fourth period when Madison tied the game at 7-7.

* * *

Fitzgerald moved into first place, half game ahead of Avondale and Troy, by bouncing Oak Park, 26-14. Troy lost a non-league encounter at Rochester, 28-19.

Roger Ball put Avon in front in the first quarter with a 20-yard jaunt into the end zone.

The Yellow Jackets scored again in the second quarter on Roger Bauer's 70-yard TD run.

On the first play for scrimmage in the third period, quarterback Roger Van Conant hit end Dale Yarger with a 35-yard scoring pass. Romy Lucero picked up the extra point after the second touchdown.

Clawson rallied for two touchdowns in the third quarter. The first came on a 30-yard aerial from Paul Kebrow to Tom Grunber. Mike Bradley kicked the point. Mike Haley blocked an Avondale punt and fell on the ball in the end zone for the other Clawson TD.

Avondale marched to the visitor's 20 and four-yard lines during the game, but failed to score. Coach Frank Crowell had high praise for Bauer's play. He is a junior.

Lake Orion recovered a fumbled punt on the Madison 30 in the first quarter to setup its lone touchdown. Frank Ochoa went the final four yards and Jon Cuckaey passed to Dave Hallmark for the PAT.

A pass interference penalty against the Dragons helped Madison reach the Lake Orion four in the fourth quarter. Wally Niezguski bucked the needed short yardage and Jordan booted the extra point that tied the count.

Orion reached the Madison four in the second period, but lost the ball on downs. The deepest penetration for the Dragons in the second half was to the opponents' 30.

Coach Frank Kownacki noted that this was the Dragons best game. They didn't fumble once after bobbling the pigskin 11 times in the first two games.

Casey Stengel Is Back as Manager of Mets

NEW YORK (AP) — Casey Stengel was back in baseball today, a year after the New York Yankees fire him because he was too old. At the age of 71 the grizzled old-timer has agreed to a one-year contract with the New York Mets.

Thus George Weiss and Stengel are re-united with the new National League team that will compete with the Yankees for the fans' favor in 1962. Weiss also was put out to pasture by the Yanks last fall, at the age of 65, but later accepted a job as president of the Mets.

* * *

First item on the program of the Weiss-Stengel team will be to select the players made available by the other National League teams. This selection will be made by New York and Houston on alternate picks the day after the World Series ends.

Lists of the players will be made available to the Mets on Monday when Weiss expects Stengel to come to town from his Glendale, Calif., home for a meeting with the scouting staff.

Weiss said Stengel didn't agree to come back until about 6 a.m. (California time) Friday when he called Weiss on the phone. An earlier conversation in which Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson and Donald Grant (financial backers of the club) urged Casey to come out of retirement was an important factor.

Groves Romps Over Whitmore Lake, 50-0

Birmingham Groves, which has taken its knocks in two varsity years of football, dished it out last night. The Falcons white-washed Whitmore Lake, 50-0 as Art Schuler scored four times on runs of 65, 71, 53 and 20 yards.

Groves scored 20 points in the first quarter, 18 in the third period and 12 more in the final stanza.

Other scores were by Tim Mitchell on a 50-yarder in the third quarter, by Dick Clark on a 10-yard fumble recovery and run and by Bob Wright on a 40-yard pass from Clark. Clark passed to Bill Stevenson for a 22-yarder as final tally. Stevenson kicked both points.

Balanced Scoring Wins for Country Day, 25-0

Country Day scored one touchdown in each period Friday to down Hamtramck Immaculate Conception 25-0 for its first win of the season against one setback.

Arnie Deckerman scored in the first quarter on a four-yard run. Steve Soloman passed nine yards to Neil Satovsky and Deckerman kicked the point to give Country Day a 13-0 halftime lead.

Lakers, Trojans Record Upsets in W-O League

Broncos Notch First Win of Season 28-20 Over Brighton

By DON VOGEL

"He's the best."

Northville coach Ron Horwath used this simple statement to describe Steve Juday. It is doubtful if any Bloomfield Hills player will come forward to dispute Horwath.

The senior quarterback did everything right as the Mustangs rolled over the Barons 26-7 before 1,500 fans at Northville Friday night.

By winnig their third straight game without a defeat, the Mustangs now are top heavy favorites to make off with Wayne-Oakland League honors.

Northville is alone in first place after the second week of league action. Clarenceville knocked Clarkston from the ranks of the unbeaten, 19-13; West Bloomfield upset Milford, 32-6; and Holly slipped past Brighton, 28-0.

SHARP PLAYMAKING

Juday displayed good ball handling and sharp passing.

Twice he pulled the Bloomfield Hills defense out of position with fakes to enable halfback Tom Swiss to break loose for runs of 36 and 27 yards on pitchouts. Both runs setup two second period touchdowns, scored by Juday on short sneaks.

Late in the third period Juday sprinted 16 yards around end after faking a pass. This put the ball on the five and two plays later fullback Joe Hay pounded over from the one.

Juday didn't pass much, but when he did, the Barons had trouble. He completed eight of 10 aerials for 90 yards. To offset the Hills offense, he intercepted a pass and punted three times for a 38-yard average.

* * *

Twiss also had a good game. He carried the ball 10 times for 90 yards and scored Northville's first TD in the opening period on a five-yard slant.

Brian O'Neil ran one yard in the fourth quarter for the visitor's lone touchdown.

A pass interference penalty started the Barons to defeat. Northville had a drive going when Juday had a pass intercepted. But the Barons were detected interfering with the receiver and the Mustangs got the ball back on the Hills' 18. Three plays later Twiss scored.

Northville completely dominated play in the first half. The Mustangs rolled up 211 rushing and passing to only 40 for the Barons. With a 20-0 intermission advantage, the Mustangs seemed to let down in the final two periods.

They came up with only 10 yards total offense. A much improved Bloomfield defense took care of Juday.

BARONS SCORE

The Barons moved the ball a little better, but couldn't mount a threat until Roger Stewart broke away on a 52-yard gallop in the fourth quarter to the Northville 22. A pass interference penalty got the ball to 10 and O'Neil scored after faking a handoff.

Bloomfield recovered a fumble on the Northville 21 with two minutes to play, but gave the pigskin away on a pass interception.

Mike Paddy scored three touchdowns on runs of one, three and seven yards to lead West Bloomfield's win. The Lakers jumped to a 20-0 halftime margin and won going away.

Bill Vascassenno opened the scoring by racing 36 yards. Dan Greig passed 50 yards to Gary Carpenter for the other TD. Milford tallied in the last period on a 10-yard pass from Skip Miller to Ron Hoggard.

* * *

Dan Hermoyian and Paddy picked up extra points for the Lakers. Hoggard was credited with 22 tackles from the safety position.

Monroe Ashley raced 53 yards for a touchdown with 26 seconds to play to give Clarenceville its upset triumph. The sophomore speedster scored the Trojans' first TD on a 76-yard gallop in the first period and gained 192 yards during the game.

Willie Knox scored for Clarkston on spurts of 15 and six yards. Dick Shelden kicked the point.

Randy Marx scored two touchdowns, passed for a third and ran two extra points, but it wasn't enough to stop Holly.

The Broncos scored in each quarter to chalk up their first win of the season. Larry Bradsher raced 45 yards, Bill Conti 13, Jim McArthur four and Jim Ray four for the TDs. Ray and Conti got two PAT each.

NO GAIN — Xavier University fullback Tom Clark (wearing helmet) is hemmed in by University of Detroit players as tackle Bob Turley (79) makes shoulder high tackle in the 1st quarter of Friday night's game at U. of D. Stadium. The Titans routed Xavier, 34-8, for their 2nd straight victory.

Shorter Scores Twice as Titans Whip Xavier

DETROIT — Detroit's Titans, spurred by Jerry Gross' deadly passing and Billy Allen's 90-yard punt return, crushed Xavier, Ohio, 34-8 Friday night.

Xavier was bottled up by a tough defense and could cross midfield only three times under its own power.

Gross passed for both of Detroit's first-half touchdowns. He hit Lary Vargo with a 16-yarder and Jim Shorter with a 7-yard toss. Allen scampered 90 yards for Detroit's last touchdown after making an over-the-shoulder catch of an Xavier punt.

Shorter got another touchdown with a 36-yard run after intercepting a pass.

Xavier's lone score came when Bob Daumeyer intercepted Ron Bishop's pass at Detroit's nine and waltzed into the end zone with his team trailing 27-0.

MIAMI BEATS PENN. STATE

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Guided by two crippled quarterbacks, Miami's unrated Hurricanes hit Penn State with startling ground and air power Friday night to crush the nation's eighth ranked college football force, 25-8.

Although he had to be helped off the field three times after being hit in painfully bruised ribs, the sensational Miami sophomore quarterback, George Mira, guided Miami on a 79-yard touchdown drive to put the Hurricanes ahead 7-0 at halftime.

Bobby Weaver came out in the third period, limping on a bad ankle, and filled in beautifully for Mira as he led the Hurricans on another sparkling touchdown surge of 81 yards.

Against a badly beaten team of Nittany Lions, center Charlie Livingston kicked a 38-yard field goal and John Bennett drove three yards for another touchdown in the final period.

VMI OVER RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — VMI's Keydets used a 101-yard run by halfback Andy Tucker as the springboard for an 8-6 Southern Conference football victory Friday night over a Richmond team that huffed and puffed up and down the field most of the evening to no avail.

The electrifying run by Tucker, a sophomore from Cocoa Beach, Fla. came when he intercepted a Richmond pass one step inside the end zone. It was followed by a two-point conversion pass from Bobby Mitchell to end Bob Modarelli for the winning margin.

Goodrich Uses Workhorse to Nip Ortonville

Senior fullback Jim Kilibreath was the workhorse in a 99-yard march in the 4th period as Goodrich scored a 7-0 victory over Ortonville last night.

The 6-2 and 210 pound senior carried the ball 15 of 19 times in the long drive and went over from the one-yard line to score the TD. Longest gain for him in the drive was 20 yards.

Ortonville had a 35-yard TD run called back in the second period. For the remainder of the game, both teams battled between the 30-yard lines in a rough defensive game.

City Parochials Play 27th Time in Grid Series

Fired-up Rams Hope to Pull Good Upset at Wisner

By CHUCK ABAIR

It will likely make little difference after the opening whistle sounds but St. Michael will rank as the favorite going into the 27th annual head-on collision of city parochial schools tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Wisner Stadium.

St. Michael has dominated the series for the last several years and romped 26-6 last fall despite being a slight underdog.

The Shamrocks took their annual beating from West Bloomfield opening night this fall after playing the Lakers all even for one half. They bounced back last week with a come-from-behind over St. Benedict.

Coach Tom Kennedy's Rams outplayed Royal Oak St. Mary but had to settle for a tie first time out and then took a walloping at St. Clement last Sunday.

* * *

Greater experience and size gives the Big Blue the advantage on paper over the Parke Street contingent. The Mikes are also in their best physical condition of the year with Dick Ghastin set to play fullback for the 1st time.

Spirit has often turned the tables in games between old rivals and it could happen this time. St. Fred has been getting all fired-up for the occasion while St. Mike coach Jim Niebauer admits he has been battling an overconfidence problem. "I think they have a better team than last year," he says of the Rams.

Niebauer has a pair of standout runners in Jerry Martin and Gary Hintz and an always dangerous quarterback in Larry Sonnenberg. Bill Harding has filled in well for the injured Ghastin and will be a key reserve. The line is headed by star tackle Jim Hurren and Blaine Priebe.

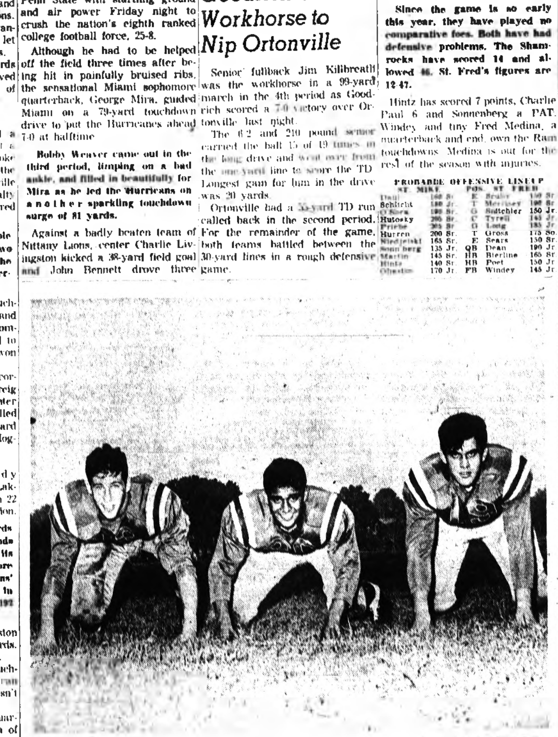

John Bierline heads the Red and Black offense. He runs fast and hard. Mike Windey has good speed. Quarterback Charley Dean has been recovering from early arm troubles and ready to fire some TD aerials. Tim Snitchler and Bernie Gross lead the forwards.

Since the game is so early this year, they have played no comparative foes. Both have had defensive problems. The Shamrocks have scored 14 and allowed 46. St. Fred's figures are 12-47.

Hintz has scored 7 points, Charlie Paul 6 and Sonnenberg a PAT. Windey and tiny Fred Medina, a quarterback and end, own the Ram touchdowns. Medina is out for the rest of the season with injuries.

Maples Lose, 21-6; Kimball, Dales Win

Birmingham Seaholm, expecting rough going in the rugged Eastern Michigan League this season, bowed 21-6 to visiting Hazel Park last night. Royal Oak Kimball and Ferndale won other loop games.

The Maples tried to keep it close but could not cope with the running of Rick Golinski and Frank Stagg. Each made a touchdown and Stagg kicked three straight extra points.

Bruce Bates took a 2nd period kickoff back 80 yards to score for the losers. Bill Merkel got the other six-pointer for the Parkers, who are unbeaten in three starts.

Both teams had several other scoring opportunities but could not capitalize on them. Seaholm is 1-2 for the season.

Mt. Clemens was blanked by Kimball 12-0 following two tune-up triumphs.

The teams were all even at 0-0 at halftime but Kimball took charge in the 3rd quarter. Wally Gabler hit Wally Frank on a 15-yard TD pass and Chuck Meager ran 25 for another tally a few minutes later.

One other Kimball chance fizzled out as did a Mt. Clemens march to the ROK 5. It was the 3rd successive win for Royal Oak.

Ferndale continued to roll along with ease by belting East Detroit 32-0. All the scoring was in the initial half.

Bob Micheau scored two touchdowns while Bob Nellson passed for one and ran for another to spark the Dales.

East Detroit got to the Ferndale 4 in the 3rd period but fumbled the ball away. Bob Marasco was an outstanding two-way performer for the losers.

Kimball tops the EML standings with 2-0. Ferndale and Hazel Park each are 1-0. Port Huron won its 3rd straight league warmup tilt 27-0 over Hamtramck.

Tigers After 100th in Morning Game

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (UPI) — The Detroit Tigers, shooting for their 100th American League victory of 1961, sent rookie Howard Koplitz after it in a morning game against the Minnesota twins today.

Koplitz was a 23-game winner at Denver and won his first appearance as a Tiger, a seven-inning relief stint in which he gave up only two runs.

Today's game was moved up to 11 a.m. (EST) to avoid conflict with the Missouri-Minnesota football game in Minneapolis. The Tigers and the Twins will close out their seasons in a single game here Sunday.

With no counter-attraction, the Tigers and Twins drew only 3,151 paying customers yesterday, but those baseball fans witnessed the breaking of one American League record and a rousing finish that brought Detroit a 6-4 victory in 10 innings.

★ ★ ★

The record was set by Jake Wood, who struck out for the 139th time before lashing a two-run single that provided the margin of victory in the 10th. Wood's whiff surpassed by the old AL record set by Minnesota's Jim Lemon when he was playing with Washington in 1956.

Wood has today and tomorrow to "improve" on the record Camilo Pascual forced onto him.

The Tigers were trailing 2-4 going into the ninth and had managed only six hits off Pascual. Their only runs to then had been provided by Norm Cash's 40th home run in the fifth with a mate aboard.

Cash opened the ninth with his third hit, a single. Steve Boros flied out, but Wood managed a walk. Dick Brown singled to center, loading the bases. Charley Maxwell, batting for Hank Aguirre, singled off Pascual's glove scoring Cash. Al Kaline, batting for Dick McAuliffe, was thrown out at first but Wood scored on the play. Bill Bruton grounded out to end the inning with the score tied 4-4.

Ex-Detroit Ace Now Coach of Frisco Defense

Jack Christiansen Back to Haunt Former Mates With Coast Team

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It's no wonder the San Francisco 49ers boast of having the best defensive backfield in the NFL. The man behind it all is Jack Christiansen, once the Lions' leader in the famed "Chris Crew," noted to be one of the most famous backfield arrays in pro football.

When Christiansen roamed the Lions' backfield during the great championship years of the 50's, with him were Yale Lary, Jimmy David and Carl Karilivacz.

Lary still remains, and the Lions feel that the Four L's the current defensive combination is the best since Christiansen and David departed for coaching jobs.

With Lary is Dick Lane, Gary Lowe and Dick Le Beau. The 49ers defensive foursome consists of Jerry Mertens, Abe Woodson, Dave Baker and Eddie Dove.

★ ★ ★

It will be interesting to see the battle of the two defensive quartets Sunday when the Lions and 49ers tangle at Tiger Stadium in the 24th game between the two teams.

Last year's game with the 49ers could be called the contest which actually cost the Lions at least a tie for the title.

After leading 10-0 late in the fourth quarter, the 49ers scored with four minutes to play to make it 10-7 and then John Brodie hit R. C. Owens in the end zone as time ran out for a 26 yard TD and a 14-10 victory.

★ ★ ★

The Lions then went to the coast and whipped the 49ers, 24-0 in the hot streak which they scored six wins in the last seven games.

Since then, the Lions have now won 14 of their last 17 games, including five pre-season games. The playoff bowl in Miami could be added to this streak.

It has been 1956 since the Lions have won two straight in starting the season and they did it the past two weeks against Green Bay and Baltimore, the top contenders of the Western Division. San Francisco is recognized as the other top contender.

Game is 1:30 p. m. and bleacher seats will go on sale at 11:00 a. m.

Ford, O'Toole Look Ready for World Series Opener

United Press International

Why wait for Wednesday? — Whitey Ford and Jim O'Toole, the two southpaws who'll open the World Series, look ready to go right now.

Both took their final tune-ups last night and although Ford was a mile sharper of the two, O'Toole turned in a smooth enough performance to win his 19th and bring a nod of approval from Cincinnati manager Freddie Hutchinson.

Ford struck out nine in a scoreless six-inning stint for the New York Yankees, allowed only four hits and might have won his 26th game of the season had not the Boston Red Sox tied the score off reliever Luis Arroyo in the seventh inning.

The Yankees snapped the tie and went on to win, 2-1, at the expense of Bill Monbouquette. Roger Maris failed in a bid for his 61st homer, going hitless in two official trips, but Johnny Blanchard belted his 21st homer in the fourth and then singled home the winning run in the ninth to bring reliever Rollie Sheldon his 11th victory.

Like Ford, O'Toole also gave up four hits during the five innings he pitched for the Reds in their 8-1 victory over last year's world champion Pittsburgh Pirates.

Warren Spahn scored his 21st victory as the Milwaukee Braves defeated the San Francisco Giants, 4-1, in a game called after 4½ innings because of rain.

Spahn yielded four hits in winning the 309th game of his major league career. Eddie Mathews broke a 1-all tie when he hit his 32nd homer with one on in the third off loser Jack Sanford. It was the only other National League game scheduled.

In other American League action, the Baltimore Orioles beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, in 10 innings; the Washington Senators blanked the Kansas City Athletics, 2-0; the Detroit Tigers scored a 6-4 win over the Minnesota Twins in 10 innings; and the Los Angeles Angels downed the Cleveland Indians, 6-4.

Fox Defends Title at St. Clair River

State PGA Event Sunday

Michigan's final major golf event of the 1961 season is slated Sunday at St. Clair River Country Club where 70 of the state's finest professional golfers tee off in the annual Michigan PGA championship.

Defending champion Ron Fox of Detroit heads the talented field and five other former State PGA champions also will shoot for the title over a 36-hole medal play route.

In addition to Fox, past champs entered in tomorrow's tournament include ageless Al Watrous of Oakland Hills, Horton Smith of Detroit Golf Club, Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills, John Barnum of Blythefield and Joe Belfore of the Country Club of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Fox fon the title last year at Farminton Country Clugb, defeating veteran Cliff Settergren of Muskegon in a sudden-death playoff with a birdie three on the 1st extra hole. Settergren also is entered in Sunday's tourney.

Barnum, reigning Michigan Open champ, and Burkemo are expected to give Fox plenty of trouble in his bid to repeat as State PGS winner.

Other title threats are Gene Bone of Warwic Hills, Mac McElmurry of Knollwood, Max Evans of Utica, Eldon Briggs of DGC, Washtenaw's Tom Talkington, Glenn Stuart of Grand Rapids, John Dalrymple of Lakepointe and Meadowbrook's Paul Shepherd.

The total purse is $3,000 with the winner pocketing $600. Host pro at St. Clair River C.C. is Don Perne.

★ ★ ★

Because of the lateness of the season and the size of the field, the State PGA will try a new tee-off system tomorrow.

General Statement of Condition

The Pontiac Public Schools provide a good educational program with adequate instructional materials, quality teaching, and sufficient physical facilities so that each student has the opportunity to attend classes full time, except for occasional unavoidable and temporary situations.

Continuous effort is made to provide superior teachers and more and better instructional materials, to evaluate and upgrade the various areas of learning, and to eliminate substandard classroom facilities.

Our revised elementary mathematics program is now well established. During this year a major emphasis will be placed on science and social studies. A reading specialist has been employed to assist in strengthening reading instruction and diagnosis of reading problems. Several elementary schools are experimenting with departmentalization in grades 4, 5, and 6.

The revised secondary mathematics program has been established in the seventh and eighth grades and will be used in the ninth grade this year for the first time. We have a four track mathematics program for the ninth grade. Plans are under way to revise our science and social studies programs. A major emphasis will be placed on in-service education for teachers in mathematics, science, and social studies.

The school district will again participate in the N.D.E.A. at both the elementary and secondary levels.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR husband and father, Vern H. McVey who passed away two years ago, September 30, 1959.
His smiling way and pleasant face,
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
Loved and sadly missed by wife, daughter and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SAMuel H. Moore who passed away Oct. 1, 1959.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,

Average Family Uses a Ton of Paper a Year

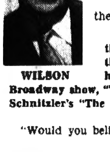

NEW YORK (UPI) — The average American family uses a ton of paper a year.

This accounts for articles from birth certificates, to newspapers, wallpaper and money, American Cyanamid Co. reports.

Actor Denies Rumors of Being Great Lover

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Walter Chiari hustled along W. 44th St. the other day—young, slim, good-looking, darkly romantic, often called the Danny Kaye of Italy, widely known to be the former sweetheart of both Ava Gardner and Anita Ekberg — but waving his hands and denying the widespread forecast that he'll soon be one of Broadway's greatest lovers.

WILSON

"Listen, everybody's a great lover," he scoffed.

"Men in rage even . . . but they don't have the publicity."

Rushing off to feast on some pasta at the Famous Kitchen, the slender-waisted, thirty-fivish Chiari said it's all because he's cast as a colossal lover in the new Broadway show, "The Gay Life," which is based on Arthur Schnitzler's "The Affairs of Anatol."

* * *

"Would you believe it — what I am interested in now is my singing?" he said.

CHIARI

"I made 15 pictures in Italy in two years — I paid $200,000 to the Italian government in taxes. But when something is too easy for me, I lose interest. If everybody thinks you're one of the best, you don't work so hard . . ."

So, he signed for 1½ years and "coming to America is like being born again" — even if Ava Gardner did arrive a short time after he did.

"I know I can act, I know I can dance in some clumsy way, but sing, never!" He gestured expressively as he ordered a daiquari. "All Italians can sing but I was the exception.

"But Kermit Bloomgarden says, 'There's a man here who gets some kind of noise out of you.'"

The man was Herbert Green, the coach. "I was my first astonished audience!" Chiari said. "Now I will sing seven songs. Seven!"

THE WEEK-END WINDUP . . .

The French refused to lend 25,000 troops for the filming of Darryl Zanuck's "Longest Day." A Paris wit cracked, "With 25,000 troops Zanuck could take over France" . . . Stan Kenton signed a five-year contract with Basin St. East . . . Theresa Brewer's going into the beauty salon business with hair stylist Ernie Adler . . . Jack Lemmon took a quart of Leone's spaghetti sauce to London, where he's making a film with Kim Novak.

* * *

EARL'S PEARLS: Taffy Tuttle told her escort, "I see both points of view just fine—the one that's wrong and the one that's mine."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Comic Jackie Kannon boasted, "Last night I was out with one of the town's really big spenders—my wife."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A married man differs from a bachelor in that when he ties one on, it's likely to be an apron.—Frank J. Pepe, Quote. . . . That's earl, brotther.

Romney to Tell Nation Thinking Behind Contract

DETROIT (UPI)—George Romney, president of American Motors, will discuss the national implications of the company's profit sharing contract with the United Auto Workers Union in a national television broadcast Sunday.

"Widespread interest in American Motors' progress (profit) sharing approach confirms our belief that it is of major national significance," Romney said.

* * *

He added, "We feel that it is important in the public interest that we explain the thinking behind our action."

* * *

Romney said that the profit sharing agreement, which stunned the auto industry, "opens a new door into labor relations, deepens the equity of our employes have in their jobs and . . . bucks inflationary trends."

CAB OKs Airlines' 'No Show' Penalties

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) has given the nation's airlines authorization to consider stiff penalties against passengers who make reservations but fail to show up for flights.

Chairman Alan S. Boyd said Thursday the CAB had given the carriers permission to discuss the possibility of an industrywide "no-show" penalty severe enough to discourage the practice.

But Boyd, who met with the presidents of major airlines, said that if the airlines levy such penalties, they also must accept fines for over-selling and over-booking.

State C. of C. Plans Statewide Growth Confabs

LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan State Chamber of Commerce reports its plans to hold a statewide series of at least 50 economic growth conferences in local communities during the next year.

The two-hour sessions, starting in October, will be conducted by teams from the state chamber staff and member business and manufacturing firms.

The programs will outline the economic and employment situation in the state and relate it directly to the immediate area of the conference. Speakers also will outline the legislative and follow-up action needed for economic growth.

Egyptians Told to Get Out

AP Photofax

HE'S GOT PROBLEMS — President Gamal Abdel Nasser wore a worried expression as his top military aide in Syria, Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer (left), conferred with him in Cairo's Republic Square today. United Arab Republic chieftain Nasser told an estimated crowd of 100,000 Egyptians gathered in the square about the situation in Syria. At right is UAR vice president Kamal Hussein.

Civilian Regime Forms Republic After Revolt

Damascus Raises Flag as Military Rule Ends; Democracy Promised

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syria's new civilian regime raised the flag of the Syrian Arab Republic over government buildings today and ordered the ouster of Egyptians in quick sequel to the revolt against Cairo's rule.

All Egyptians, civil and military, were instructed to present themselves at military headquarters for shipment home. The order, signed by "the commander of the Syrian Arab army," was broadcast by Radio Damascus.

This broadcast and another announcing the flag-raisings were monitored in Beirut, capital of neighboring Lebanon.

★ ★ ★

Premier Mamoun Kuzbari had announced dissolution of the military group that boosted him to power. He promised democracy and constitutional rule.

Kuzbari has not yet proclaimed Syria's independence from President Nasser's United Arab Republic, in which it joined Egypt in February 1958. But the new flags flying over government offices, indicate this was just a technicality.

The exact number of Egyptians in Syria is not known, but there must be several thousand. In addition to the hundreds of government officials who serviced the now-sundered United Arab Republic in Damascus and other cities, there were large numbers of Egyptians holding posts in the Syrian army. There were several units believed composed entirely of Egyptian soldiers.

WOMEN STAY HOME

Egyptian women were asked to stay in their homes today "for their own safety."

This, and a previous communique asking Syrians to stop staging demonstrations in support of the revolution, indicated the leaders may have been worried about disorders.

In Beirut the newspaper Lisan al Hal reported the new government, which was named only Friday, freed all political prisoners in Damascus. There was no confirmation in Beirut of the report.

★

The government waited less than two days after Thursday's virtually bloodless coup to ask foreign diplomats in Damascus to seek recognition by their governments of the new Syrian regime.

Turkey and Jordan already have accorded recognition. Iran was reported considering recognition, and Iraq came to Syria's defense. All four nations have

'Your Cheatin' Heart Will Tell on You'

Basils' Kiss Reveals All

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Rule No. 1 for tourists entering Yugoslavia: Don't kiss the customs man.

A businessman, identified by the Belgrade newspaper Politika only as Basil, tried to and it cost him about $5,000. This is the story Politika told:

Basil was traveling by train from Germany and arrived at customs control in Jesenice on the Austrian border.

An officer checked his baggage and found it conformed to customs regulations. He saluted the businessman and turned around to leave.

★ ★ ★

Basil, evidently satisfied with the outcome, jumped to his feet, embraced the customs man and gave him two long, resounding kisses straight on the face.

This ends the gay part of the story.

The customs man, apparently unused to such friendliness by passengers, decided to take another look.

He took a screwdriver, opened several planks in the walls of Basil's sleeping compartment and felt around inside.

LUCK CHANGED

The end of the story has Basil sitting with a long face and the customs man beaming over a big pile in the middle of the compartment — 60,000 gold buckles for necklaces, three pounds of gold bars, a quantity of lighters and other commodities.

Politika figured out the two kisses cost Basil a total of roughly 4.6-million dinars, tax included.

GOP Delegates to Con-Con May Hit Stalemate

Could Bypass Romney and Hutchinson Wheo Choosing President

LANSING (AP)—Republican delegates to the constitutional convention were headed today for a possible caucus deadlock over a choice for the presidency for the first such convention in Michigan in 54 years.

The GOP delegates, who will outnumber the Democrats 99-45 when they convene in Lansing's Civic Center next week, scheduled a preconvention caucus at the Elks Club there.

Democratic delegates, meanwhile, were meeting this afternoon in Detroit.

If no agreement is reached today on the presidency, the Republicans might meet Sunday and Monday in an effort to fill the post before the convention is called to order at Noon Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Adoption of rules and committee assignments also may be settled at the caucus.

The two leading candidates for the presidency are Edward Hutchinson, former state senator, and George Romney, American Motors Corp. president.

Hutchinson, a candidate from the conservative wing, said Friday night that he felt confident there would be agreement on the presidency today.

CLAIMS TOP SPOT

He claims to be the front-runner, with between 30 and 50 votes lined up in his behalf.

Romney, backed by the moderate-liberal bloc, has said he was not campaigning actively for the nomination, but that he would accept the post if it were offered to him.

There appeared to be a growing feeling among observers here that delegates might not give the necessary 73 votes to either Hutchinson or Romney, but would settle for a compromise candidate instead.

At a Republican conference last week in St. Joseph, Hutchinson was asked to draw up a set of rules and to present them at today's meeting.

But Hutchinson said he believed the con-con preparatory commission had proposed an adequate set of rules.

Instead, Hutchinson said, he had turned his attention to drawing up an agenda for today's meeting. Several of his proposals were expected to stir up some controversy.

First item on the suggested agenda was whether the caucus should bar newsmen. Hutchinson said he personally was in favor of holding closed meeting while certain subjects were being discussed.

Weekend Talks Held With Ford

Auto Company, Union Pressed by Pending Tuesday Deadline

DETROIT (UPI) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union planned today to meet through the weekend in hopes of reaching a contract settlement before Tuesday's 10 a.m. strike deadline.

★ ★ ★

After negotiations recessed Friday UAW negotiators moved to the 12th floor of the downtown Detroit hotel in which the bargaining sessions are being held, for a special meeting.

No details of the meeting were released, but one union spokesman termed it, "just a union meeting."

UAW President Walter P. Reuther was expected to be on hand for today's meetings

ABSENT FRIDAY

He was absent Friday in the morning, to attend the funeral of Charles E. Wilson, former General Motors president and secretary of Defense and during the afternoon he worked in his office at UAW headquarters.

Talks continued along the lines established in the past few days. Noneconomic matters, of the same type that filled nearly 250,000 General Motors workers for two weeks early this month, were points of discussion.

They centered outside contractors, job seniority and working conditions.

★ ★ ★

Bargaining sessions continued to be conducted under a news blackout agreed to by company and union.

UAW Vice President Ken Bannon would only say after the sessions Friday, "We had a very good discussion, I'm always hopeful."

Ford Vice President Malcolm L. Denise echoed his optimism, and reticence, saying, "I'm never without hope, we had a helpful discussion."

LOCAL ISSUE SEPARATE

The strike deadline, set earlier by the union, applies only to national economic and noneconomic matters.

★ ★ ★

"Locals of the vast union have not been given permission to strike over unresolved local issues. However, some locals have indicated they will walk out.

U.S. Negro Fugitive Seeks Cuban Asylum

HAVANA (AP) — A Negro wanted for kidnaping a white couple in North Carolina during a race disturbance, has requested political asylum in Cuba, the official Cuban News Agency Prensa announced today.

Prensa said Robert F. Williams fled the United States "because of threats against his life and persecution in his country."

The announcement charged Williams was harassed by American authorities "because of his valiant fight in favor of colored people and his defense of the Cuban revolution."

Recognition of Syria Is Put Off by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. recognition of the new Syrian regime seemed out of the question today until a lot more unfolds in the latest Middle East drama.

One impelling reason ruling out early establishment of formal ties with the Damascus insurgents was a U. S. desire to remain on good terms with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the now-disrupted United Arab Republic.

Another was that the Syrian group has yet to make any request to the United States for recognition.

Still another was lack of evidence of the new regime's nature.

Some experts said that it was still possible the Syrian group would want to maintain some federal and military ties with Cairo provided Syria has a high degree of autonomy.

Resentment against being treated like a stepchild in the U.A.R. is considered a major reason for Syria's splintering the 3½-year-old union.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. policy to go slow on any recognition of the Damascus government was stated Friday by Joseph W. Reap, State Department press officer. Asked about U.S. recognition, Reap said, "It is premature to consider the question."

★ ★ ★

Reap also reiterated Washington's hands-off policy. He said the evidence indicated the uprising was of internal origin, not set off by any outside power.

Another high ranking official said, "As far as we are able to detect there is no Communist influence" in the rebellion, which he attributed to deep dissatisfaction with Nasser.

U.S. authorities were reluctant to say anything more about the revolt for fear of further stirring up Middle East troubles and getting the United States involved.

Agents Smash Moonshine Still in Waterford Twp.

U. S. Revenue agents and Pontiac state police raided a Waterford Township home yesterday in which a moonshine still was allegedly being operated.

According to Trooper John Brown, Elmer L. Edmisten, 37, was preparing a batch of illegal whiskey when they arrived at his home at 873 Tyrone St. shortly after noon. The officer had a search warrant issued by Federal court in Detroit.

Officers smashed the still, and 12 barrels of mash fermenting in the basement, and confiscated about 20 25-pound sacks of sugar. The copper still had a weekly capacity of between 90 and 100 gallons of moonshine, according to Brown.

Neighbors in the suburban residential area apparently were unaware of any illegal activities at the Edmisten home. An exhaust fan had been installed in one of the basement windows to dispel telltale odors, according to officers.

Edmisten was taken into custody by the revenue agents from Detroit who said he would be arraigned in Federal Court on charges of violating the alcohol tax law.

★ ★ ★

Agents said they had received a tip in Detroit that Edmisten, who moved here from the South, was supplying a blind pig in the city, selling moonshine liquor at $5 a gallon.

Fire Fatal to Pontiac Woman, 44

Faulty electrical wiring was blamed for a house fire this morning that resulted in the death of a Pontiac woman.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Jerome Webber, 44, was pronounced dead of smoke inhalation in the burned-out bedroom of her home at 571 LeBaron St. She was alone in the house when the fire broke out.

A semi-invalid, she apparently was unable to get out of bed in time once the smell of smoke awoke her, according to Pontiac Asst. Fire Chief Victor Bodamer.

★ ★ ★

Flames in the house were spotted shortly before 6 a.m. today by a passing cab driver, who sped to nearby Fire Station 4 to report the blaze.

★ ★ ★

Chief Bodamer estimated the fire, which started in the basement, had been burning for about two hours before it was discovered.

He said the house was well-built and tightly sealed, preventing the flames from burning through the outer walls until just before the fire engines arrived. Mrs. Webber already was dead, crumpled at one end of her bed.

★ ★ ★

Her husband arrived home from work just as the fire engines pulled up in front of the house.

The blaze was extinguished within an hour and a half, and caused an estimated $2,500 damage to the 1½-story frame home.

★ ★ ★

According to Bodamer the fire started in faulty wiring of a washing machine in the basement, directly beneath Mrs. Webber's bedroom. The flames burned upward through the floor.

Nixon Hits Knight Charge of Pressure As Libelous

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard M. Nixon denies he sought a secret deal to get former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight out of the 1962 race for California's Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"False and libelous on its face," the former vice president said Friday of Knight's charge: That Nixon sent an emissary to offer Knight any state job he wanted if Knight withdrew.

RICHARD M. NIXON

"No person representing me or authorized by me has made such a promise," said Nixon.

Knight retorted, "I will disclose the name of Nixon's pressure emissary and present my proof and witnesses at a public press conference within a very few days."

These were the latest developments in a dispute between California's two top Republicans — a long-simmering feud that has come to a boil since Nixon announced his candidacy for governor Wednesday night.

Knight, now a Los Angeles TV commentator, claims Nixon engineered the GOP maneuvering that forced him to step aside as governor in 1958 to allow then U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland to run for that office. Knight ran for Knowland's Senate seat. Both lost badly.

Knight claims—and Nixon denies—that Nixon, then vice president, wanted both men defeated so he could have unquestioned control of California's Republican party.

The latest rupture in the never-cordial relations between Nixon and Knight started in this fashion:

On the eve of Nixon's nationally televised news conference Wednesday night, William A. Munnell, state Democratic chairman, issued a statement claiming a Nixon friend offered Knight a secret deal to withdraw from the race.

The next morning, Knight told newsmen that he had been offered any state job he wanted—including California chief justice—in a telephone call Sept. 7 by wealthy Republican friend of Nixon's.

Robert Finch, Nixon's 1960 campaign manager, termed Knight's report "totally preposterous."

The Democrats, plagued by intraparty fights for years in California, obviously were happy at signs of an intramural GOP squabble.

Youth Charged With Murder

Held Without Bond in Shotgun Death of Pontiac Girl, 18

John Hause, 19, who has admitted slaying an 18-year-old Pontiac girl while "playing around" with a shotgun in his home was charged with first-degree murder yesterday.

Hause of 181 S. Marshall St. was bound over for examination Wednesday when arraigned before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday afternoon. He was remanded to the county jail without bond.

Asst. County Prosecutor Robert D. Long said the accused youth said in a formal statement that he "was just trying to scare" Janet M. Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Olsen, 115 Euclid St. when the 12-gauge shotgun went off.

Hause said he didn't remember pulling the trigger.

The shooting occurred during a party at Hause's home shortly after midnight Friday morning, while his mother, Mrs. Ivy Hause was at work at Pontiac General Hospital.

Other youths at the party told police they heard the shot, but did not see the actual shooting.

The dead girl was shot once in the head while standing in a doorway between a hallway and a bedroom in the Hause home.

Hause ran out on the street and hysterically told two passing patrolmen what had happened.

Officers Roger Allen and Gerald Pointer found the body where it had fallen in the hallway. The shotgun, belonging to one of Hause's brothers, was on the bedroom floor.

Hause said he didn't intend to shoot the girl, who he had been dating for the past month, but only intended "to scare her."

Take 99th, in 10 Innings

Tigers Seek No. 100 in Morning Game

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — There was baseball with morning coffee breaks in the twin cities today.

At 10 a.m. local time (11 a.m. Pontiac time) the Minnesota Twins and Detroit Tigers met with the Tigers seeking victory No. 100 on the nearly dead season.

They got No. 99 Friday but for eight innings it appeared that they weren't interested. The final score, in 10 innings, was 6-4 Detroit.

The unusual morning contest was scheduled today to avoid conflicting with the Minnesota - Missouri football game.

★ ★ ★

Howie Koplitz (1-0) was making his first major league start for the Tigers, against Jim Kaat (6-16), the pride of Zebland, who started for the Twins.

After the "morning hour" there is only one game left—Sunday.

Jim Bunning started for the Tigers Friday and reportedly had hopes of winning No. 18 this year. He lost four innings and gave up all four Twin runs before giving way to Ron Kline.

CASH HITS 40th

Norm Cash slammed his 40th homer of the year into the seats in the fifth to highlight his attempt to single-handedly lead the stumbling Tigers out of the wilderness. Altogether Cash had four-for-five to boost his average to .339 and clinch the American League batting title.

Camilo Pascual, on the mound for the Twins, struck out Jake Wood in the second inning to allow the Detroit rookie a spot in the record books.

It was the 139th strikeout of the season for Wood, a league record. It also helped Pascual's teammate Jim Lemon clear his name. Lemon held the old record of 138 set in 1956 when the team was at Washington.

Wood redeemed himself in the 10th when he rifled a single to drive home the winning run.

★ ★ ★

Pascual had six other strikeouts to his credit, even though he took the loss, and that ran his league-leading total to 221 for the season.

Billy Martin poked his sixth homer of the season for the Twins off Bunning.

★ ★ ★

Terry Fox got the win for Detroit, coming on for the final two innings after Hank Aguirre also got into the act. It was Fox's fifth victory in seven decisions. Pascual took the loss, his 16th against 15 wins.

★ ★ ★

Today's game was delayed for a time by rain. The action:

TIGERS FIRST

Fernandez singled to right. Bruton sacrificed Fernandez to second. Kaat to Killebrew. Morton doubled down the right field line, scoring Fernandez. Colavito singled, apparently scoring Morton, but Morton was called out due to failing to touch third. Green to Tuttle, Boros singled to right, Colavito stopping at second. Wood singled to center, scoring Colavito. Boros then scored when the ball got by Green for an error. Wood tried to go all the way home and was thrown out, Allison to Valdivielso to Battey.

Green bounced a single to right. Martin singled to center, Green going to third. Killebrew struck out. Altobelli grounded to Wood, who dropped the ball trying to tag Martin on the baseline for an error, Green scoring. Allison singled to left, scoring Martin, with Altobelli going to third. Naragon walked, loading the bases. Tuttle flied to Bruton. Altobelli scoring after the catch and Allison going to third. Valdivielso bounced a single to left, scoring Allison, with Naragon stopping at second. Kaat was called out on strikes.

Four runs, four hits, one error, two left.

Red Leaves Finland

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev returned home today after an eight-day official visit to Finland.

Icky Weather Is Scheduled for the Evening

Scattered showers will dampen the Pontiac area tonight, coming with warmer temperatures. The tonight's low will be in the upper 50s.

Sunday is expected to be partly cloudy and somewhat cooler, the high about 60. Fair and warmer is the outlook for Monday.

Egyptians Told to Get Out

Syria Back on Her Own Feet

NO. 1 NASSER GOT PROBLEMS — President Gamal Abdel Nasser wore a worried expression as his top military aide in Syria, Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer (left), conferred with him in Cairo's Republic Square today. United Arab Republic chieftain Nasser told an estimated crowd of 100,000 Egyptians gathered in the square about the situation in Syria. At right is UAR vice president Kamal Hussein.

Civilian Regime Forms Republic After Revolt

Damascus Raises Flag as Military Rule Ends; Democracy Promised

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syria's new civilian regime raised the flag of the Syrian Arab Republic over government buildings today and ordered the ouster of Egyptians in quick sequel to the revolt against Cairo's rule.

All Egyptians, civil and military, were instructed to present themselves at military headquarters for shipment home. The order, signed by "the commander of the Syrian Arab army," was broadcast by Radio Damascus.

This broadcast and another announcing the flag-raisings were monitored in Beirut, capital of neighboring Lebanon.

★ ★ ★

Premier Mamoun Kuzbari had announced dissolution of the military group that boosted him to power. He promised democracy and constitutional rule.

Kuzbari has not yet proclaimed Syria's independence from President Nasser's United Arab Republic, in which it joined Egypt in February 1958. But the new flags flying over government offices, indicate this was just a technicality.

The exact number of Egyptians in Syria is not known, but there must be several thousand. In addition to the hundreds of government officials who serviced the now-sundered United Arab Republic in Damascus and other cities, there were large numbers of Egyptians holding posts in the Syrian army. There were several units believed composed entirely of Egyptian soldiers.

WOMEN STAY HOME

Egyptian women were asked to stay in their homes today "for their own safety."

This, and a previous communique asking Syrians to stop staging demonstrations in support of the revolution, indicated the leaders may have been worried about disorders.

In Beirut the newspaper Lisan al Hal reported the new government, which was named only Friday, freed all political prisoners in Damascus. There was no confirmation in Beirut of the report.

★ ★ ★

The government waited less than two days after Thursday's virtually bloodless coup to ask foreign diplomats in Damascus to seek recognition by their governments of the new Syrian regime.

Turkey and Jordan already have accorded recognition. Iran was reported considering recognition, and Iraq came to Syria's defense. All four nations have

Basil's Kiss Reveals All

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Rule No. 1 for tourists entering Yugoslavia: Don't kiss the customs man.

A businessman, identified by the Belgrade newspaper Politika only as Basil, tried to and it cost him about $5,000. This is the story Politika told:

Basil was traveling by train from Germany and arrived at customs control in Jesenice on the Austrian border.

An officer checked his baggage and found it conformed to customs regulations. He saluted the businessman and turned around to leave.

★ ★ ★

Basil, evidently satisfied with the outcome, jumped to his feet, embraced the customs man and gave him two long, resounding kisses straight on the face.

This ends the gay part of the story.

The customs man, apparently unused to such friendliness by passengers, decided to take another look.

He took a screwdriver, opened several planks in the walls of Basil's sleeping compartment and felt around inside.

LUCK CHANGED

The end of the story has Basil sitting with a long face and the customs man beaming over a big pile in the middle of the compartment — 60,000 gold buckles for necklaces, three pounds of gold bars, a quantity of lighters and other commodities.

Politika figured out the two kisses cost Basil a total of roughly 4.6-million dinars, tax included.

GOP Delegates to Con-Con May Hit Stalemate

Could Bypass Romney and Hutchinson When Choosing President

LANSING (AP)—Republican delegates to the constitutional convention were headed today for a possible caucus deadlock over a choice for the presidency for the first such convention in Michigan in 54 years.

The GOP delegates, who will outnumber the Democrats 99-45 when they convene in Lansing's Civic Center next week, scheduled a preconvention caucus at the Elks Club here.

Democratic delegates, meanwhile, were meeting this afternoon in Detroit.

If no agreement is reached today on the presidency, the Republicans might meet Sunday and Monday in an effort to fill the post before the convention is called to order at noon Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Adoption of rules and committee assignments also may be settled at the caucus.

The two leading candidates for the presidency are Edward Hutchinson, former state senator, and George Romney, American Motors Corp. president.

Hutchinson, a candidate from the conservative wing, said Friday night that he felt confident there would be agreement on the presidency today.

CLAIMS TOP SPOT

He claims to be the front-runner, with between 30 and 50 votes lined up in his behalf.

Romney, backed by the moderate-liberal bloc, has said he was not campaigning actively for the nomination, but that he would accept the post if it were offered to him.

There appeared to be a growing feeling among observers here that delegates might not give the necessary 73 votes to either Hutchinson or Romney, but would settle for a compromise candidate instead.

At a Republican conference last week in St. Joseph, Hutchinson was asked to draw up a set of rules and to present them at today's meeting.

But Hutchinson said he believed the convention preparatory commission had proposed an adequate set of rules.

Instead, Hutchinson said, he had turned his attention to drawing up an agenda for today's meeting. Several of his proposals were expected to stir up some controversy.

First item on the suggested agenda was whether the caucus should bar newsmen. Hutchinson said he personally was in favor of holding closed meeting while certain subjects were being discussed.

Weekend Talks Held With Ford

Auto Company, Union Pressed by Pending Tuesday Deadline

DETROIT (UPI) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union planned today to meet through the weekend in hopes of reaching a contract settlement before Tuesday's 10 a.m. strike deadline.

★ ★ ★

After negotiations recessed Friday UAW negotiators moved to the 12th floor of the downtown Detroit hotel in which the bargaining sessions are being held, for a special meeting.

No details of the meeting were released, but one union spokesman termed it, "just a union meeting."

UAW President Walter P. Reuther was expected to be on hand for today's meetings

ABSENT FRIDAY

He was absent Friday in the morning, to attend the funeral of Charles E. Wilson, former General Motors president and secretary of Defense and during the afternoon he worked in his office at UAW headquarters.

Talks continued along the lines established in the past few days. Noneconomic matters, of the same type that killed nearly 250,000 General Motors workers for two weeks early this month, were points of discussion.

They centered on outside contractors, job seniority and working conditions.

★ ★ ★

Bargaining sessions continued to be conducted under a news blackout agreed to by company and union.

★ ★ ★

The strike deadline, set earlier by the union, applies only to national economic and noneconomic matters.

Recognition of Syria Is Put Off by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. recognition of the new Syrian regime seemed out of the question today until a lot more unfolds in the latest Middle East drama.

One impelling reason ruling out early establishment of formal ties with the Damascus insurgents was a U. S. desire to remain on good terms with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the now-disrupted United Arab Republic.

Another was that the Syrian group has yet to make any request to the United States for recognition.

Still another was lack of evidence of the new regime's nature.

Some experts said that it was still possible the Syrian group would want to maintain some political and military ties with Cairo provided Syria has a high degree of autonomy.

Resentment against being treated like a stepchild in the U.A.R. is considered a major reason for Syria's splintering the 3½-year-old union.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. policy to go slow on any recognition of the Damascus government was stated Friday by Joseph W. Reap, State Department press officer. Asked about U.S. recognition, Reap said, "It is premature to consider the question."

★ ★ ★

Reap also reiterated Washington's hands-off policy. He said the evidence indicated the uprising was of internal origin, not set off by any outside power.

Another high ranking official said, "As far as we are able to detect there is no Communist influence" in the rebellion, which he attributed to deep dissatisfaction with Nasser.

U.S. authorities were reluctant to say anything more about the revolt for fear of further stirring up Middle East troubles and getting the United States involved.

Agents Smash Moonshine Still in Waterford Twp.

U. S. Revenue agents and Pontiac state police raided a Waterford Township home yesterday in which a moonshine still was allegedly being operated.

According to Trooper John Brown, Elmer L. Edmisten, 37, was preparing a batch of illegal whiskey when they arrived at his home at 873 Tyrone St. shortly after noon. The officer had a search warrant issued by Federal court in Detroit.

Officers smashed the still, and 15 barrels of mash fermenting in the basement, and confiscated about 20 25-pound sacks of sugar. The copper still had a weekly capacity of between 90 and 100 gallons of moonshine, according to Brown.

Neighbors in the suburban residential area apparently were unaware of any illegal activities at the Edmisten home. An exhaust fan had been installed in one of the basement windows to dispel telltale odors, according to officers.

Edmisten was taken into custody by the revenue agents from Detroit who said he would be arraigned in Federal Court on charges of violating the alcohol tax law.

★ ★ ★

Agents said they had received a tip in Detroit that Edmisten, who moved here from the South, was supplying a blind pig in the city, selling moonshine liquor at $5 a gallon.

Fire Fatal to Pontiac Woman, 44

Faulty electrical wiring was blamed for a house fire this morning that resulted in the death of a Pontiac woman.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Jerome Webber, 44, was pronounced dead of smoke inhalation in the burned-out bedroom of her home at 571 LeBaron St. She was alone in the house when the fire broke out.

A semi-invalid, she apparently was unable to get out of bed in time once the smell of smoke awoke her, according to Pontiac Asst. Fire Chief Victor Bodamer.

★ ★ ★

Flames in the house were spotted shortly before 6 a.m. today by a passing cab driver, who sped to nearby Fire Station 4 to report the blaze.

★ ★ ★

Chief Bodamer estimated the fire, which started in the basement, had been burning for about two hours before it was discovered.

He said the house was well-built and tightly sealed, preventing the flames from burning through the outer walls until just before the fire engines arrived. Mrs. Webber already was dead, crumpled at the end of her bed.

★ ★ ★

Her husband arrived home from work just as the fire engines pulled up in front of the house.

The blaze was extinguished within an hour and a half, and caused an estimated $2,500 damage to the 1½-story frame home.

★ ★ ★

According to Bodamer the fire started in faulty wiring of a washing machine in the basement, directly beneath Mrs. Webber's bedroom. The flames burned upward through the floor.

Nixon Hits Knight Charge of Pressure As Libelous

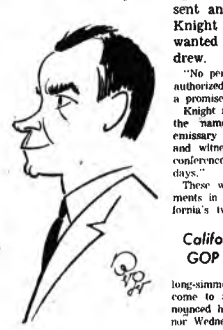

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard M. Nixon denies he sought a secret deal to get former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight out of the 1962 race for California's Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"False and libelous on its face," the former vice president said Friday of Knight's charge: That Nixon sent an emissary to offer Knight any state job he wanted if Knight withdrew.

"No person representing me or authorized by me has made such a promise," said Nixon.

Knight retorted, "I will disclose the name of Nixon's pressure emissary and present my proof and witnesses at a public press conference within a very few days."

These were the latest developments in a dispute between California's two top Republicans — a long-simmering feud that has come to a boil since Nixon announced his candidacy for governor Wednesday night.

RICHARD M. NIXON

Knight, now a Los Angeles TV commentator, claims Nixon engineered the GOP maneuvering that forced him to step aside as governor in 1958 to allow then U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland to run for that office. Knight ran for Knowland's Senate seat. Both lost badly.

Knight claims—and Nixon denies—that Nixon, then vice president wanted both men defeated so he could have unquestioned control of California's Republican party.

The latest rupture in the never-cordial relations between Nixon and Knight started in this fashion.

On the eve of Nixon's nationally televised news conference Wednesday night, William A. Munnell, state Democratic chairman, issued a statement claiming a Nixon friend offered Knight a secret deal to withdraw from the race.

The next morning, Knight told newsmen that he had been offered any state job he wanted—including California chief justice—in a telephone call Sept. 7 by a wealthy Republican friend of Nixon's.

Robert Finch, Nixon's 1960 campaign manager, termed Knight's report "totally preposterous."

Youth Charged With Murder

Held Without Bond in Shotgun Death of Pontiac Girl, 18

John Haase, 19, who has admitted slaying an 18-year-old Pontiac girl while "playing around" with a shotgun in his home was charged with first-degree murder yesterday.

Haase of 181 S. Marshall St. was found over for examination Wednesday when arraigned before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday afternoon. He was remanded to the county jail without bond.

Asst. County Prosecutor Robert D. Long said the accused youth said in a formal statement that he "was just trying to scare" Janet M. Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Olsen, 113 Euclid St., when the 12-gauge shotgun went off.

Haase said he didn't remember pulling the trigger.

The shooting occurred during a party at Haase's home shortly after midnight Friday morning, while his mother, Mrs. Ivy Haase was at work at Pontiac General Hospital.

Other youths at the party told police they heard the shot but did not see the actual shooting.

The dead girl was shot once in the head while standing in a doorway between a hallway and a bedroom in the Haase home.

Haase ran out on the street and hysterically told two passing patrolmen what had happened.

Officers Roger Allen and Gerald Pointer found the body where it had fallen in the hallway. The shotgun, belonging to one of Haase's brothers, was on the bedroom floor.

Haase said he didn't intend to shoot the girl, who he had been dating for the past month, but only intended "to scare her."

Pilots Threaten to Boycott DC8s

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Six hundred Eastern Air Lines pilots say they will stop flying DC8 jets in three days if the Federal Aviation Agency doesn't assure them the plane's hydraulic system is safe.

★ ★ ★

The pilots raised the safety question in a telegram sent Friday night to Najeeb Halaby, FAA director, by Council 18 of the Air Line Pilots Association.

"Silence on this question will force us to suspend operation on DC8 aircraft which is used on Eastern Air Lines within three days," the telegram said.

The protest was a result of a new FAA regulation requiring pilots to answer 10 true-or-false questions on the Douglas DC8 hydraulic system.

★ ★ ★

Capt. John D. Payne, chairman of Council 18, said that the safety of the system was an FAA matter, not the pilots' responsibility. He indicated that the test might be used to blame pilots for a crash when the real cause might lie elsewhere.

Payne said the DC8 hydraulic system has been under scrutiny because of several failures. The pilots could tie up at least 15 DC8 flights which come and go from Miami daily.

Unit Seeks to Stem Late Afternoon Flood of Sending by Firms

The Pontiac Mail Users Council will report on progress in efforts to halt late-afternoon overflow mailings by area firms when it meets at 4:30 p.m. Monday at the Main Post Office, 735 W. Huron.

★ ★ ★

The council was set up in July to gain cooperation from mailers to spread mailings throughout the day instead of dropping all mail in postal boxes when offices close in the afternoon.

A cross-section of mailers in the Pontiac area, totaling 100 handling the largest volume, composes the committee, explained Robert J. Featherstone, Pontiac superintendent of mails.

According to Featherstone, members attending the Monday meeting will see a film on mailing methods and will be shown through the post office during its peak hours of operation from 5 to 8 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Also on the agenda are discussions of every-day mailing problems and setting of plans for the Christmas flood of mail.

The Pontiac mailing area serves a population of 145,000.

Lansing Argues Aid to Children

To Urge Lawmakers Decide Whether to Join U.S. Assistance Plan

LANSING (UPI) — Budget committees of both houses of the legislature will be asked to meet Oct. 17 or 18 to decide whether a third try at bringing Michigan under the Federal Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed would have a chance of success.

A meeting with Gov. John B. Swainson, who wants to call a special session on the matter, failed to produce much enthusiasm among lawmakers.

"I'm not optimistic about the chance of holding a special session of this (ADC-U)," said Rep. Arnell Engstrom, Republican head of the House Ways and Means Committee from Traverse City. "But I think we ought to give it a fair hearing."

Swainson said if the legislature would authorize Michigan's participation in the plan for the first six months of 1962, he would set up a "task force" to study the matter.

This would help lawmakers decide whether to keep Michigan in the program if Congress decides next year to extend it, Swainson said.

"I would not be interested in calling a special session if we can't get agreement," said Swainson, who told the lawmakers the State Treasury would save about $3.3 million by taking advantage of the federal money for six months.

OPENLY SKEPTICAL

Republican legislative leaders, however, were openly skeptical of the possible benefit from the program.

The House Ways and Means Committee killed a bill that would have brought Michigan under the ADC-U program for the entire current fiscal year during the regular session, and repeated the action at a special session which Swainson called a week after the regular meeting adjourned.

Pontiac Man Found Stabbed on S. Edith St.

The body of a 35-year-old Pontiac man who apparently had been fatally stabbed in the neck was found shortly before noon today between two houses on South Edith Street.

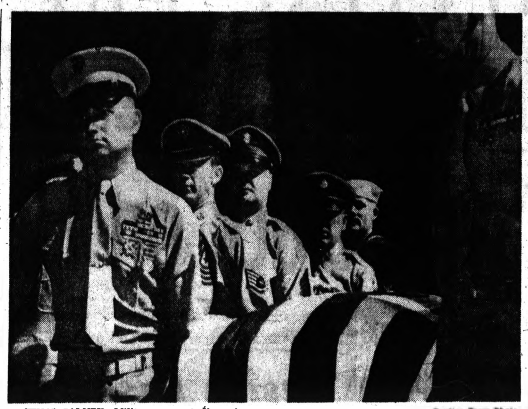

★ ★ ★

Pontiac police identified the victim as Frank Avery of 153 Raeburn St. Officers theorized that he did not take his own life but had been murdered.

A pocket knife was found laying next to the body. Police did not believe it was the murder weapon, however, but possibly belonged to the victim. There were no bloodstains on the short blade.

Asst. County Coronor Dr. Isaac Prevette said Avery had been dead for "several hours" and probably since last night.

A passerby noticed the body, partially concealed by some brush, stacked between houses at 478 and 474 S. Edith St. He notified police.

Rusk, Gromyko Show Signs of Negotiating Formula Accord

NEW YORK (AP)— Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko held the last of their New York talks on the Berlin crisis today with some evidence they will be able to agree on a negotiating formula at further meetings in Washington.

Western diplomats said the discussions here, though apparently inconclusive, had served to define the issues more clearly. They also gave some encouragement that the Soviets will agree to acceptable arrangements for an East-West foreign ministers' conference later this year.

The Western powers are reported to have told Russia emphatically through these talks that they have no intention of negotiating with East Germany over their rights to maintain troops in West Berlin. They also pressed Gromyko for an explanation of what the Soviet Union means by talking about guarantees of access to West Berlin.

★ ★ ★

Gromyko went to Rusk's suite in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel this morning. U.S. officials said that the talks would continue probably well into the afternoon. As he arrived for the meeting Gromyko said he did not know if he would see President Kennedy while in Washington.

CRITICAL ISSUES

The future status of the U.S., British and French garrisons in West Berlin is one of several critical issues discussed by Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home in separate talks with Gromyko.

★ ★ ★

Rusk and Gromyko expect to meet again in Washington next week. Rusk is returning to Washington and Home to London tonight.

In Washington, it is understood Gromyko hopes to have a conference also with President Kennedy, but U.S. officials said the meeting has not yet been arranged.

★ ★ ★

The talks, which actually mark the start of informal negotiations over a compromise settlement, have dealt with three major aspects of the Berlin crisis:

1. Rusk and Home have tried to impress upon Gromyko that the Western powers will fight to defend West Berlin and its access routes. Some aides of the two Western ministers think Soviet Premier Khrushchev now understands that he runs the risk of war if he overplays his hand.

MINISTERS CONFAB LOOMS

2. Rusk has tried to discover whether Khrushchev is willing to agree to a basis for negotiations on Berlin. If he is, an East-West foreign ministers conference in November or December seems certain.

★ ★ ★

3. Rusk and Home have sought to explore the possibilities for success of a foreign ministers' conference. In essence, they want to know whether Khrushchev is willing to compromise or whether he intends to dictate the terms of a settlement.

★ ★ ★

Gromyko's practice in the talks, Western informants say, has been to repeat stated Soviet policy. Thus he has reaffirmed his government's plan to sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany by the end of the year.

Reds String Barbed Wire Around Tiny U.S. Enclave

From Our News Wires

BERLIN — Communist police today strung a barbed wire loop around a tiny American sector enclave from which U.S. Army helicopters rescued seven refugees this week.

Residents reported that East Germans put up concrete posts this morning and strung barbed wire around Steinstuecken, a village cut off from West Berlin by a one-mile strip of Communist territory.

The barbed wire cut off Steinstuecken inhabitants from the grassy field where President Kennedy's personal representative, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, landed by helicopter recently as the first U.S. official to visit the enclave in 10 years.

Helicopters also have been using the field to bring supplies to a three-man military police post stationed there following Clay's visit.

CLEAR NEW LANDING AREA

The inhabitants of Steinstuecken today promptly began to fell fruit trees and level off garden plots behind their homes to make a new landing place for the helicopters.

The Communists built their barbed-wire fence right across the only road leading from West Berlin into Steinstuecken.

Observers said the barbed-wire loop was aimed mainly at keeping East German refugees from reaching the tiny hamlet surrounded by Communist territory.

In Berlin, East German refugees sought liberty or death in a grim game of "hide-and-seek" with Communist border guards under orders to shoot to prevent them escaping to the West.

Bavarian police at Hof, Germany, reported that East German authorities will impose a curfew on border areas, effective Sunday, in a new move to make the Iron Curtain escape-proof.

The police said they have learned the restrictions would affect all East Germans living in a 300-yard zone along the border. At the same time, police reported preparations seem under way to evacuate all residents of this zone and to level their houses.

Although Communist police now have orders to fire at refugees trying to cross the border—even if the bullets land in West Berlin—the escapes continued, as about 20 fled in the last day.

★ ★ ★

The border was tense because the Communist orders to shoot threatened to touch off a possible international incident.

Says Red China Can Coexist

Chou Sets Condition: U.S. Must Discontinue Opposition in U.N.

TOKYO (UPI)—Chinese Communist leader Chou En-lai said today his regime was willing to coexist peacefully with the United States, providing the United States drops its opposition to a United Nations seat for Peiping.

Chou said his Communist regime and the millions it rules "wish to live together in peace with the peoples of all countries, including the United States of America."

Chou made the statement in an unusually brief speech which he delivered at a Peiping reception for visiting dignitaries on the eve of Red China's 12th anniversary. His speech was carried by the Communist New China News Agency in a report monitored here.

Although Chou tempered his statements on coexistence with the United States by laying down certain "conditions," they were an apparent reversal of Red China's often repeated stand that war and only war can settle the issues between East and West.

★ ★ ★

As such, Chou's statements were the nearest thing to a Peiping endorsement of Russia's call for peaceful coexistence, which the Soviets announced in a new Communist party program in early August.

Syria Sets Up Rule After U.A.R. Split

long been wary of Nasser's ambitions for a unified Arab state dominated by Egypt.

Premier Abdel Karim Kassem of Iraq, Nasser's major counterweight in the continuing Middle East struggle for power, said in a speech in Baghdad that the Iraqi army was alerted "to stand ready in the face of any foreigner, if he tried to interfere in our brother country Syria."

WARN AGAINST EXCITEMENT

Radio stations in Damascus and Aleppo broadcast pleas to Syrians to stop staging demonstrations in support of the revolt. They warned that continued excitement might "allow exploiters to infiltrate their ranks."

Damascus radio also broadcast a word of friendship for Egypt in its morning program.

"Syria extends its hand to sister Egypt to strengthen the aim of the Arab nation on the basis of freedom and equality. We are ready any time to accomplish this," said an announcer. This was not an official statement, but was made by a commentator between musical programs.

FCC Chairman Wants Newscasts in Prime Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — Newton Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission says he thinks radio-TV newscasts perform an outstanding public service, but there aren't enough of them.

The FCC boss, who has jabbed at the quality of television programing often in the past, also complained there was not enough full-time news directors on radio and television stations.

In a speech before the annual convention of the Radio Television News Directors Association Friday night, Minow protested a "virtual news blackout" on television during the prime viewing hours each night.

★ ★ ★

"For those of us living in the Eastern Standard Time zone, at least," he said, "there is no news on television between 7:15 and 11 p.m. "The world goes on during prime evening time. But you wouldn't know it if you were watching television."

2 DC8 Jets Make Emergency Stops

CHICAGO (AP) — Two United Air Lines DC8 jet planes carrying a total of 148 passengers made safe emergency stops Friday night. One landed at Chicago, the other at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

The plane that landed at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport with 68 persons aboard had one of its four engines out. It was on a scheduled nonstop New York to Denver flight.

The other plane had 80 aboard and was bound from New York to San Francisco. Crewmen said it suffered a complete hydraulic failure. The huge craft rolled nearly three miles down a runway before stopping.

Grand Trunk Raises Fares

Await Word on Legality of Hike; Affects 1500 Pontiac-Detroit Riders

Grand Trunk Western Railroad is now charging increased fares for its Pontiac-Detroit runs. An estimated 1,500 commuters are affected by the hike.

★ ★ ★

The increase went into effect midnight Thursday. GTW was told it could raise the rates at its own risk — until the State Public Service Commission finds out exactly what its authority is in the case.

★ ★ ★

The hike is from $8.05 to $9.30 for a 10-ride ticket.

The commission was recently informed of a 1919 statute which sets railroad fares at a basic maximum of 2.5 cents per mile, with provision that this can be increased under certain conditions.

The commission ruled the railroad can raise its rates until the state attorney general adjudges whether the 1919 statute can legally be applied.

FURTHER OUT OF LINE

The commission indicated its feelings about the hike when a spokesman stated that fares were "getting further and further out of line."

The railroad can also cut its service as long as two trains a day run in each direction, the commission decision said. The railroad had asked permission to discontinue the train leaving Pontiac at 7:45 a.m. and one leaving Detroit at 6:15 p.m.

The fare hike was requested in June. The railroad claimed mounting losses in commuter operations.

U.S. Negro Fugitive Seeks Cuban Asylum

HAVANA (AP) — A Negro wanted for kidnaping a white couple in North Carolina during a race disturbance, has requested political asylum in Cuba, the official Cuban News Agency Prensa announced today.

Prensa said Robert F. Williams fled the United States "because of threats against his life and persecution in his country."

The announcement charged Williams was harassed by American authorities "because of his valiant fight in favor of colored people and his defense of the Cuban revolution."

Twelve Town Drain Bids to Be Opened Monday

BIRMINGHAM — Bids on $1.5 million in bonds to be used to finance the city's major share of the 12 Town Drain will be opened at the City Commission meeting Monday.

City officials have expressed hope that the interest rate on the 20-year general obligation bonds will be 3 per cent or lower.

The bids will be opened at the start of the 8 p.m. meeting and reviewed by the city's finance director and bond consultant.

Recommendations will then be made by them before the meeting ends and the commission will either accept or reject the bids.

It is the intention of the city to sell the bonds to a syndicate rather than have the Oakland County Drain Commission handle the long-term financing because it is believed there will be a savings.

Had the drain commission managed the financing of the multimillion dollar project for the city the bonds would not have matured for 30 years.

The city received approval of its method of financing the construction of the drain from the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission Sept. 12.

No matter what plan of financing had the city decided on, taxpayers will begin being assessed for the major improvement in July, 1962.

A public hearing on the confirmation of the special assessment roll for the paving of the alley from Lester Boulevard to the city water tank has been scheduled by the City Commission for Oct. 9.

Total cost of the project has been estimated at $3,700, with the city paying $1,400 of the improvement.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church will celebrate a Latin American fiesta at its first general luncheon of the season Wednesday.

Each of the 15 circles of the society will decorate a table to represent a different Latin American nation and foods representative of these countries will be served.

Mrs. Marshall Reed, wife of the bishop of the Methodist Church in Michigan, will be the guest speaker at the program.

She will present background information on mission work in Latin America and relate experiences she and her husband had during a visit to Chilean missions.

Kennedy Signs Foreign Aid Bill

Inks Another Measure to Let Football League Make TV Packages

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Kennedy today signed a $3.9 billion foreign aid appropriation bill that also included funds for the Peace Corps and other financial activities abroad.

Kennedy also put his name on legislation allowing the National Football League and other sports circuits to enter package television contracts.

★ ★ ★

The President signed two other spending measures—including the $1,133,453,164 supplemental appropriation, which the House dropped on the Senate in a temper-boiling adjournment of Congress early Wednesday morning.

The House quit work after passing the measure to add to funds previously appropriated for government agencies. As a result, senators who wanted to increase some of the allocations could do nothing about it.

The other appropriation bill furnishes $3,877,915,989 for public works of the Army, Atomic Energy Commission, Interior Department, Tennessee Valley Authority and for several study commissions.

★ ★ ★

The National Football League encouraged Congress to pass the TV bill in order to offset a federal court decision outlawing its share-the-revenue pact with the Columbia Broadcasting System. Each of the league's 14 teams would then split the cash.

Pontiac General Making History

Breaks Occupancy, Billing Records

In-patient billings and occupancy at Pontiac General Hospital have hit history-making figures, according to Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

Billings are higher than any those in the hospital's history. Occupancy is higher than any time since the new addition opened in 1958.

Last week's in-patient billings amounted to a record $116,467. Euler said. Average occupancy for the first two weeks of the 10th accounting period was 95.8 per cent, record high for a two-week period.

★ ★ ★

Although the figures present an optimistic financial forecast, they also caused some hardships.

"All this created patient relations problems in that a number of surgical and elective admissions were canceled during peak loads and whenever we had half beds," said Euler.

"All arms and services were operating at capacity except our 23-bed mental health unit that had an average daily census of 11."

★ ★ ★

Indications are that the year will result in a break-even operation even though occupancy will be over 90 per cent against a budget forecast of 87 per cent.

More services begun this year have increased patient day costs.

During the ninth accounting period which ended Sept. 9, income exceeded expenses by $4,362. For the last year, the excess of income over expenses amounts to $13,040.

Total patient billings this year are $4,077,000.

New York City Going Rural? Has 150 Farms

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. Department of Agriculture statistics released Friday showed the city has — within its boundaries — 150 farms occupying 1,436 acres with a gross income last year of $3.3 million.

* * *

Staten Island has 68 of the farms and Queens has 60. Their residents include 5,000 chickens, 398 cows, several pigs and one mule.

Square-Dancing Classes to Start Thursday at 8

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department has scheduled its intermediate and advanced level square dance classes for 8 p. m. Thursday at Wisner Elementary School starting Oct. 5.

The total class will consist of 10 sessions of 2½ hours each. A small charge is made to defray operational costs and allow persons outside the city to participate.

The per couple charge is $3 for city residents and $6 for out of city residents. This is not a per session charge; it covers all ten sessions.

Participants should be prepared to fulfill the requested fee when they arrive at the school for the first session next Thursday. Square dancers who want to up-grade their dancing ability can join this class by registering during the first class session.

Italian Rat Snatcher Caught in Her Own Trap

CATANZARO, Italy (AP)—Felicia Calafati, 33, tried to set a rat afire Friday and wound up in a hospital with severe burns.

California Feud Cools Republican Zeal in West

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—California's early outbreak of Republican feuding tempered GOP optimism today over prospects for major political gains in the West next year.

Party leaders from California, at the Republican regional conference, lined up behind Richard M. Nixon in his fast-developing battle with former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight in the Republican race for governor.

* * *

But there was open concern over how the intraparty squabble would affect Republican chances in the West's biggest state.

TO SPEAK TODAY

Nixon himself was due here today to address delegates from 13 Western states. It will be his first public appearance since the 1960 GOP presidential candidate announced he would seek the California governorship.

Rep. Bob Wilson, R-Calif., chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, talked of a 50-seat gain for the GOP in 1962 congressional elections, including a pickup of eight districts in California and six to eight in Southern states. This would overturn Democratic control of the House.

* * *

Wilson said Nixon would be of great help in his home state's campaign—provided he wins his own primary contest.

The present congressional lineup in California favors the Democrats 16-14. Eight additional congressmen will be elected next year as a result of census gains.

Wilson said he expected former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to campaign in California next year—but not until after the June primary showdown.

Episcopalians Plan Changes

Ecumenical Features Fashioned at Conclave; Appeal to Church Unity

DETROIT (AP) — Some new ecumenical features—the ties that bind Christians together—now mark the Protestant Episcopal church.

They were fashioned at the denomination's triennial general convention, which closed Friday with a stirring appeal from its bishops for the reunion of world Christianity.

* * *

They said the challenge was one that "in faithfulness to God we cannot evade."

In a 4,000-word pastoral letter, the bishops urged Christians "to work and pray without ceasing until by God's grace and in his time the divisions by which we dishonor our one Lord are done away with."

The message, in a sense, bespoke the theme of the two-week governing convention, which crossed some new milestones in bridging the chasms between churches.

APPROVED TALKS

It approved merger conversations with four other denominations, the United Presbyterians; the United Church of Christ, including Congregationalists, and the Evangelical and Reformed Church; and the Polish National Catholic Church.

The convention also joined hands in full communion with churches in the Philippines, Spain and Portugal.

* * *

The letter of the 190-member House of Bishops, a teaching guide to the church's 3.5-million members, is to be read in all of the approximately 7,000 Episcopal congregations in coming weeks.

The world's shortest alphabet is Hawaiian with 13 letters. The longest is Hindu with more than 47.

Norwegian Ship Ripped by Blast; 21 Dead, Missing

TANANARIVE, Madagascar (AP)—Explosion and fire wrecked the Norwegian freighter Starcarrier at Diego Suarez Friday night and port officials set the toll at 21 persons dead or missing. They said eight persons were badly injured.

* * *

Port officers said the freighter caught fire as she was discharging her cargo and a heavy explosion followed. Cause was not immediately determined.

The 5,564-ton freighter is owned by the A/S Star Carriers of Bergen and was under charter to the Peninsulaire Co. of Le Harve, France. Diego Suarez is a port on the northern tip of Madagascar.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, derives its name from the fact that Indians used to hold their powwows on the site.

Picket Lid Clamped on West Coast Ports

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With crews paid off and perishable cargoes removed, the nation's latest major maritime strike tied up most Pacific Maritime Association shipping along West Coast ports under a picketed lid today.

Pickets were set up late Friday just after a meeting—urged by the federal government—between PMA representatives and the Masters, Mates and Pilots Union ended.

Acting Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz had arranged the meeting. No federal representative attended.

Reflections
A FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

J. E. VOORHEES

From ancient times men have hunted for the Fountain of Youth. A B Abbot found it when he said: "While one finds company in himself and his pursuits, he cannot feel old, no matter what his years may be." A penetrating bit of philosophy, written on a clay tablet at Mycenae was true then and today. "That man never grows old who keeps a child in his heart."

The man whose grandchildren climb upon his knee is a child at heart, he will never grow old. His hair may turn white, lines may crease his face and his limbs falter, but inside, where his soul resides, there you find the boy. Grandma never stops rocking a cradle, the lamp-of-her-life shines brightest in the life of her daughter and in the lives of her children. Age, in years, for her, is computed from the first baby's smile, first date, graduation, marriage and the first grandchild. As long as she rocks a cradle her lamp-of-life sends beams into the most secret recesses of her being. They are her Fountain of Youth.

"The evening of a well-spent life brings its lamp with it," by Joubert, is a beautiful thought; those who have reached three score and ten know it to be true.

It Seems to Me . . . .

President's Peacetime Budget Is Highest in History of World

Well, he did it.

I mean JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The largest peacetime budget in the history of the Nation — or the world—comes to the American people as a completely unwelcome contribution from the President and his Democratic Congress.

★ ★ ★

Many people thought the House and Senate would rebel and hack JFK down to size. But as they adjourn, the peacetime totals are a staggering and unbelievable $96 billion. This is $11 billion more than the previous peacetime high and the Dems thus break all existing records.

JFK really socks it to us.

He gives us both barrels.

★ ★ ★

Whether you're a Republican, Democrat, Socialist, Communist or a Disciple of the Errant Ground Hog, you're nailed with this monstrous budget. There's no more debate now for it has passed.

You'll pay your share.

There's no escape.

★ ★ ★

When Kennedy was campaigning, he promised almost everything to almost everybody, and even the case-hardened members of his own party had their tongues in their cheeks at times and regarded these as the campaign promises of irrepressible youth. However, the youngster made good.

He let us have it.

★ ★ ★

The total take on all taxes in this country — even before this record breaker—was approximately a third of the entire national income. Of course, this ups it a bit more but when your old man's worth $200 million dollars as JFK's is, another advance is probably unimportant. But if you aren't in that happy predicament, you can start to worry a little more.

★ ★ ★

And hang on to your hat!

Some of his inflationary measures didn't pass and others were reduced; and he promises to revive these next January when Congress meets again. The young man isn't a bit daunted and he's preparing to give a right smart whirl to the balance that failed to pass.

★ ★ ★

If the boys from Washington hear enough from the people at home in the interim, we may yet survive. But if the free-loading, free-spending crowd runs unchecked and unchallenged, we're doomed.

If you don't like it, say so. If you're happy, pleased and content with the current tax confiscation, just remain silent. There's more in the offing for the victims and sufferers who accept their fate without a protest.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago, after the interim elections, Congress sat heavily upon the free-spending proposals of the new Democrats who had just been swept into office. The House and Senate held the line and tossed the inflationary measure in the basket. An early one passed and Eisenhower promptly vetoed it—and that was that.

But this time, both houses "rallied to the cause."

Frightening Facts . . . .

Do you want to know what a 100-megaton super weapon could do?

In U.S. News and World Report, LEWIS L. STRAUSS, who was a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, explains:

"It could level almost any U.S. city by wholly destroying every building within a radius of 12 miles. Its heat could cause lethal third degree burns to everyone exposed within a 50-mile radius. Radioactive fallout, carried by the winds, could destroy most living things within an area the size of the New England states."

★ ★ ★

There!

Know enough?

And in Conclusion . . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Everyone will feel safer about World War III when Russia applies for space in New York's 1964 World's Fair . . . . . Here are the leaders (in order) on the last TV check: Miss Universe Pageant, Gunsmoke, Have Gun, What's My Line, Candid Camera, My Three Sons, Real McCoys, I've Got a Secret and Untouchables . . . . . Understand a new Chinese restaurant in Tennessee is known as "The Chattanooga Foo-Chu." . . . . . ELSA MAXWELL has been blitzed. ONASSIS had several big parties on his yacht at Monte Carlo and she was uninvited. Then she tossed a big shindig of her own and people remained away by droves . . . . . Purely personal nomination for an especially attractive young lady: CAROLYN HUBBARD.

I can't prove it but I'll bet a sugar cookie the 1961 Michigan-MSU football game will be one of the most fiercely (and cleanly) fought battles of the season . . . . . A Cadillac stopped on the turnpike and offered to tow a Model A Ford which had conked out. They hitched 'em together and soon the Caddie forgot the Ford and reached 60, 70 and then 80 miles an hour. An officer started in pursuit and the Cadillac ripped up to 90 plus whereupon the officer radioed ahead: "Black Cadillac headed your way doing 100 m.p.h. And you won't believe what I say next: Model A Ford on his tail honking madly and trying to pass Cadillac."

★ ★ ★

Today's English bit: I'm intrigued when anyone says "Hure-on," for Huron with a slight accent on the last syllable instead of "Hure-un." . . . . . They tell me GEORGE WASHINGTON started a lottery and if it was good enough for the F. of H. C. it's good enough for me. . . . . TV men have been amazed to find JFK memorizing scripts in an amazingly short space of time . . . . . Tourists didn't leave us Labor Day. Licenses glimpsed this week: Oregon, Alberta, Alabama and Florida . . . . . Cry Baby BUDDY PARKER threatens to quit again if his team doesn't have a winning year . . . . . JIMMY HOFFA's personal airplane is equipped with all the best, the most luxurious and the finest . . . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—the Detroit Lions; the J's—me (for telling duck hunters the hatch was plentiful when later advice says it wasn't).

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

PROMINENT MEN OF FAITH

Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger, presiding bishop of America's three million Episcopalians, says:

"We do not live in a world of worship and piety apart from the world . . . Christianity must affect the way people conduct business and the way they vote, as well as the way they live at home and conduct themselves on Sunday."

As a former college quarterback, he combines words with action, championing individual expression, minority rights, social justice. Respecting the faiths of others, he sees church reunion as the bringing together of "the gifts and treasures we now nurture separately."

The genial, silver-haired Bishop manifests his conviction: "The church has a mission . . . It is sent to serve God in the world . . ."

Correction on Beliefs of Witnesses

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

A discussion of some beliefs and customs of Jehovah's Witnesses in a recent column brought in quite a few letters from members of that group. Disagreements mostly boiled down to three points—I had said that Jehovah's Witnesses believe no one will be eternally punished, that they don't believe it is wrong to smoke and that they refuse to be vaccinated.

I went directly to their national headquarters for definite statements on these points, and here, in their own words, are the answers:

"Jehovah's Witnesses do believe that those who are incorrigibly wicked will be destroyed for all time. Therefore, the punishment, which is a cutting off from life, is eternal."

"Jehovah's Witnesses do not categorically condemn those who smoke. They themselves as a group, however, do not use tobacco."

"Whether or not to submit to inoculation with serums is a matter for personal determination. It is left to the individual as to whether to submit to such a vaccination or innoculation."

I am grateful to those who challenged what I said, causing me to find out more about this interesting group.

DEATH FOR TRANSLATING BIBLE

Another thing I would like to know more about is why, in the early sixteenth century, a man could be put to death for translating the Bible into the language of the people. From our 20th-century point of view he should have had a prize, not a criminal's death.

★ ★ ★

But that is the way it was in the time of William Tyndale, who was born on this Oct. 6, 1495 and came to a fiery end at the stake in 1536. His offense was that he translated the first five books of the Old Testament, the book of Jonah and the New Testament into English.

★ ★ ★

To accomplish this at all, he had to get out of England. He did his work in Germany, where the air was freer, and where the art of printing was flourishing by this time. He then sent copies back to England. The shipments were all secret, of course, but church authorities managed to get hold of most of them and burn them. They just did not want people reading the Bible.

Tyndale was not really the first to translate the Bible into English. A man named Wyclif had done it in 1382. But Tyndale did have two important "firsts" to his credit:

His translation was the first one made from the languages in which the Bible had originally been written. Wyclif's was only a translation of a Latin translation.

The other big point about Tyndale's Bible was that it was in real down to earth English—"plow-boy" language, they said at the time. We can perhaps understand a little how shocking it was when we see how today people are made uncomfortable by Bibles written in our ordinary daily speech.

Dogs Can Do No Harm to Heart Trouble Victim

I wish to thank you for your remedy for hives. Numerous shots had been used, with no apparent effect. Within a week on your remedy the hives were gone and have not recurred . . . (T.V.)

In my case, canker sores follow indulgence in chocolate, tomatoes, peaches. I can nibble a little of any of these occasionally without trouble, but if I take just a little bit more I get canker sores. Other members of my family have the same trouble. We have found niacin in small doses is very beneficial. You recommended this some years ago. (S.M.K.)

★ ★ ★

Ans.—I recommend not small doses but an optimal daily ration of niacin (nicotinic) acid or amide—for example a 50 mg. niacinamide tablet three times a day for a month when one is subject to recurring canker sores. I don't understand what chocolate, tomatoes or peaches may have to do with canker sores. Niacin isn't medicine. It is one of the B vitamins.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Give Children Mental Jobs, Too

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-412: Billy Q., aged 12, is a bright youngster.

"Dr. Crane," his mother began, "Billy wants some way by which he can earn more money.

"We have adopted your piecework method of paying for each job he performs, and it works perfectly.

"But Billy wants to raise his income still more, so what else would you suggest besides the usual chores around a small suburban home?"

DR. CRANE

Diversify the job opportunities of your children by mixing some mental pay jobs with their muscular chores.

Good mothers routinely try to nurture the spiritual life of their youngsters, so let your children start reading the Bible, probably beginning with the New Testament.

Mrs. Crane and I used to pay our children $1 for each of the 66 books of the Bible they read. That meant they got $1 for reading Matthew, plus another dollar for Mark, etc.

But children prefer quick rewards, so you might pay for each chapter. Since we are now in an inflationary period, better offer them five cents per chapter and 10 cents if they read it aloud.

They can finish a chapter in a few minutes, and the reading drill alone will be invaluable. It can help change slow readers into faster ones and thereby alter your child's school marks, too.

Meanwhile, it will be giving the youngster access to the most world shaking prose in mankind's history.

★ ★ ★

As a variation of the Bible reading, you can also pay the child for memorizing a few of the great churchalypns, such as "Rock of Ages," "The Old Rugged Cross" and—say others that your child wishes.

Most of us adults wish we could sing a few hymns without looking at the songbook.

Your children will thus be fortified with a dozen or maybe 50 hymns they can sing while you are driving in the car to visit their grandparents.

And in their old age, they will have a rich spiritual and musical "bank account" on which they can draw as a tonic for their souls.

BLESSED MOTHERS

Thousands of times, even after you good mothers have left this world for your heavenly home, your children will then think back gratefully and call you blessed.

Meanwhile, however, you will be furnishing them with extra spending money, as well as reading drill, so this injection of mental and religious chores as pay tasks will pay rich dividends.

In addition to the Bible and church music, you might also pay for their memorizing of the choice proverbs or wise sayings of the past.

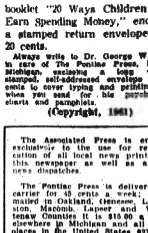

Because I deem these so valuable as ammunition for speakers, I have listed 200 famous quotations at the bottom of various pages of my college textbook, "Psychology Applied."

So send your child to the library and let him copy a dozen or more of those quotations from my textbook.

★ ★ ★

Then pay him for every one he can recite fluently from memory. I'd suggest 10 cents to 25 cents for such, paying 10 cents for immediate reproduction, and the additional 15 cents if he can recite it a week later.

For further hints, send for my booklet "20 Ways Children Can Earn Spending Money," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

K-412

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

'Local Governments Should Keep Money in First Place'

No nation in history has ever survived a tax burden of one-third of its national income. Today, 31 cents out of every dollar earned in the United States goes for taxes and out of that 31 cents, 23 cents goes to the federal government leaving 8 cents to be shared by the state, county and local community.

No wonder our local governments are told to ask for federal aid! But wouldn't it make more sense to keep money at home in the first place instead of running it through Washington only to get it back minus a sizable carrying charge?

Noah Mason, R-Hf.

'Health Principle Involved in Pork'

I read with awe remarks made by Dr. Crane (Sept. 23). Dr. Crane was using supposition that Joseph and Abraham ate pork. Before Abraham, God gave instructions to Noah concerning the clean and unclean classifications of beasts.

In the New Testament Acts 10:11-16 the doctor would have us believe Peter and God ok eating the unclean meats. In Verse 28 of the same chapter is the Bible interpretation of Peter's vision. In short, the Gentiles were to have the gospel. They were not unclean.

In the book of Isaiah 66:15-17 the prophet here is speaking of the second coming of the Lord. Those found eating swine's flesh, etc. will be consumed.

Yes, Dr. Crane, it's a health principle, then and should be now.

Today is Saturday, Sept. 30, the 273rd day of the year with 92 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1846, ether was used as an anesthetic for the first time in the extraction of a tooth — by Dr. William Morton, a dentist in Charleston, Mass.

In 1939, for the first time, a football game was televised. The cameras of station W2XBS in New York photographed the game between Fordham University and Waynesburg College at Randall's Island, N.Y.

In 1953, President Eisenhower named Gov. Earl Warren of California chief justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

A thought for today: American writer Ralph Waldo Emerson said, "The ornament of a house is the friends who frequent it."

Search for Fuel Cell Power Continues

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT — Even before gasoline engines became the standard power plant for automobiles, scientists were dreaming of using water for fuel.

★ ★ ★

The steamers tried and failed, although a small cult still talks of their revival. Charlatans got rich quick on magic pills which supposedly turned tap water into gasoline.

But behind it all has been a solid basis of scientific fact — the fuel cell. This is usually defined as an electrochemical device in which the chemical energy of conventional fuel is converted directly into low voltage electrical energy.

Science has known the fuel cell principle since the early 1800s. Over and over it has been proved sound. But as yet it has not been proved practical, especially for automobiles.

MANY SEEKING ANSWER

In a paper presented to the American Petroleum Institute's division of refining last spring, W. J. Sweeney and C. E. Heath of the Esso Research and Engineering Co. of Linden, N. J., noted that 100 research laboratories the world over are studying fuel cells. They added:

"The hope is that some day a practical fuel cell will be developed which will have twice the efficiency of the best present day thermal power plant — say 80 per cent.

"The surest thing about the fuel cell is that the theoretical concept is sound! This fact has tickled the imagination of everyone from laboratory boy to banker. They seem to say 'You scientists tell us it is possible, why don't you go and make one,' or 'Someone is going to do it, why not us?' "

★ ★ ★

Obviously it's not that easy.

The dream car would be powered by electricity. Today this would have to use storage batteries. But unlike conventional batteries, which deliver only the electricity previously stored, a fuel cell generates current as long as fuel is provided.

Ideally, this electricity would come from fuels costing next to nothing.

But before you decide to wait for such a car, consider the opinion of Manuel Shaw, head of electrochemical research (including fuel cells) at the Electric Autolite Co. in Toledo.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Shaw says: "If you are counting on a fuel cell to take dollars out of your car expense and add only pennies to your water bill — don't."

He says the major problem is cost.

Messrs. Sweeney and Heath elaborated on this point:

"From the standpoint of simplicity, pure hydrogen and pure oxygen are a relatively easy fuel and oxidizer combination around which to develop a fuel cell.

★ ★ ★

"However, hydrogen is several times as expensive as natural gas, oil or coal. And since one needs 8 pounds of pure oxygen for every pound of hydrogen, the oxygen in turn could cost as much as or more than the hydrogen. In the case of natural gas, petroleum or coal, the oxygen required could cost several times more than the fuel."

★ ★ ★

The Esso scientists say the economics of the fuel cell will depend on how important fuel costs are. In cases where efficiency is the prime aim, the fuel cell may become the answer.

Claims Voters Ready for GOP

Sen. Goldwater Says Electorate Disgusted With 'New Frontier'

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says "we would see the greatest Republican landslide in the history of the country" if congressional elections were held today.

The Arizona senator, addressing a Republican western conference dinner Thursday night said people have had enough of what he termed New Frontier fumbling and extravagance.

Goldwater looked up from his text to say of President Kennedy:

"We hear him talk like Churchill, then see him act like Chamberlain." Neville Chamberlain was the British prime minister who vainly tried to appease Germany prior to World War II.

CITES URGENCY

"The failure of the New Frontier, both at home and abroad, makes it a matter not just of political choice but of national and international urgency that Republican power be increased in the Congress," Goldwater said.

An audience of more than 750 gave the leader of conservative Republicans an ovation before and after he spoke.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon speaks to the conference Saturday night. It will be his first appearance since announcing his candidacy for governor of California.

Goldwater, who was boomed for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination, told a news conference he has no plans to seek it in 1964.

"If I run for anything, it will be for the Senate," he said. "I come up again in 1964. My plans are to help elect people to Congress and to the Senate."

Draft Director Says Sorensen's Record 'Regular'

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Nebraska's Selective Service director says he's reviewed the draft record of presidential aide Theodore C. Sorensen and found it "very regular."

★ ★ ★

"I noticed where some member of Congress said he (Sorensen) avoided military service by claiming to be a conscientious objector," said Guy N. Heinninger Thursday.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., recently read to the Senate a newspaper story which said Sorensen, 33, had escaped military service as a conscientious objector and Korean War service as a father. The story said Sorensen was classified as "1-AO" between 1948 and 1954.

"This 1-AO classification does not avoid military service," said Henninger, a retired Army major general. "A person with that qualification goes into uniform the same as any one else and serves in a branch such as the Medical Corps."

General Foods Corp. Cuts Price of Coffee

NEW YORK (AP)—General Foods Corp. Friday reduced the wholesale price of all its regular grind, vacuum-packed coffee two cents a pound, effective Monday.

The decline, first since a similar two cent cut in July 1960, was attributed by the firm to the "downward drift" of prices for green (unroasted) coffee since that time. The cut brings the wholesale level to the lowest level since 1949, the firm said.

Hunts Delegates to Michigan's 1908 Con-Con

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James M. Hare issued a tentative "missing persons report" Friday in connection with the forthcoming constitutional convention.

Hare, who will preside at the opening of the convention Tuesday, wants to know if there is any delegate to the 1908 convention who is still alive and living in Michigan besides retired U.S. Circuit Judge Charles O. Simons.

Simons will be an honored guest at a governor's reception and dinner Monday night at Kellogg Center at Michigan State University.

"I would personally feel very badly if we had overlooked any other delegate to the 1908 convention in our haste to get this 1961 convention under way," said Hare.

Buick Recalls 1,200 to Flint Auto Plants

FLINT (AP) — General Motors' Buick division Friday recalled some 1,200 skilled trades and production workers.

Buick General Manager Edward Rollert said the recall followed a production boost to meet consumer demand. He said the company has had "the most successful new model introduction in several years."

The work force increase brings total Buick employment in Flint to nearly 17,000 — its highest level since last January.

Maybe Next Year, Abby Says—

Don't Accept Proposal Now, Give Him Awhile to Mature

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, 29 years old, and the mother of four children. I am the sole support of my children, and have been for four years.

ABBY

My problem is a very handsome and wonderful young man who is only 19. He looks older, and has a very good job. He wants to marry me. I have known him a year, and I think the world of him but, Abby, I haven't a thing to offer him but my troubles.

He knows this, but won't take no for an answer. He says he loves me and doesn't care what anyone thinks, and he is camping on my doorstep.

My children adore him. I think it would be unfair to him to marry him. I love him in a way, but am —

★ ★ ★

DEAR CONFUSED: If you love him—don't marry him yet. He is only a boy. Give him a chance to mature and if, in another year, you both feel the same—well, perhaps it will work.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am told that ladies do not shake hands. Is that correct? When I meet someone, my hand automatically goes out, whether it is a man or a woman I am greeting. I can't find the answer in an etiquette book, but I want to do the proper thing. Can you help me?

★ ★ ★

DEAR LADY: Ladies DO shake hands. Both with other ladies and with gentlemen.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: After raising my son, and seeing him through college on the start of a promising career I have the sorrow of watching him choose a girl of different religion, background and education. So far I have only shown "amid disapproval." Should I do more? I am afraid of forcing the wrong results.

TORN MOTHER

★ ★ ★

DEAR TORN: If you have given your son your best guidance, there is nothing you can do. You are wise not to snipe at the girl. That usually boomerangs.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Since I have seen all sorts of unusual problems in your column perhaps you'll use this, as it is indeed my biggest problem. I'm from Luxemburg and, invariably, when I am in the States, people will say, "Oh yes, GERMANY!" Now Luxemburg is a small country, and it is bad enough that people don't know where it is, but they mistake it for a part of a nation which, twice in 20 years, has invaded it.

Please print this, Abby, so that people will learn that Luxemburg is a very proud and independent country situated between France and Belgium, and that the official language is French, and that people should study a map once in a while.

MAGAZINES

We constantly receive calls from housewives explaining that some magazine salesman or woman was at their door explaining some kind of a contest or they give a very strong sympathy appeal urging the housewife to purchase books or magazines.

Your Business Ethics Board frowns on such tactics. Buy the magazines for what they are worth and give charity to some local, legitimate agency.

A new course "Modeling" for Teens and Moms" has been announced by the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theater in Bloomfield Hills.

The classes are an extension of the popular teen-age modeling course offered by the theater school in the past. The 10-week course will be offered from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday evenings at the Will-O-Way Workshop on West Long Lake Road.

Celia Merrill Turner, Will-O-Way's director, reports "Aunts and nieces also will be accepted in this imaginative course which plumbs the depths of your closets to match and refashion styles and accessories that are right for you uses tape recorders to improve the "look" of your voice; finds out the truth about your figure —and deals out exercises consequences; takes the elbows out of walking and the knees out of climbing and puts 'art into your make-up.'"

Marge Bradford will be fashion consultant for the course. Noted for her charm and "know how" Miss Bradford who was Miss Canada of 1950 has appeared with the Windsor Symphony and Light Opera Company, Leonard Smith's Belle Isle Band and a Canadian television station. Teen-Age Weddings Churn Up Dispute

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Teen-age marriages create problems for the school officials as well as for parents of the teen-age couples.

Some educators contend that a marriage in high school should mean expulsion of the couple. Others argue that marriage should not terminate the teen-agers' formal education.

★ ★ ★

A statistical look at how the young are marrying younger, and the results — both in schooling and in the divorce rate — came across this desk today from the Science Research Associates, Inc. The organization, with headquarters in Chicago, specializes in educational services including guidance publications.

Its researchers have rounded up the latest information on teen marriages and education from governmental and privately supported organizations, from school publications and sociologists.

38 PCT. UNDER 20

A Population Reference Bureau study, for instance, showed that in 1958 (latest year studied), 39 per cent of all brides and 12 per cent of all bridegrooms were in their teens.

In 1950, the figures were 32 and 7 per cent respectively.

In turn, a Bureau of the Census study showed that the annulment and divorce rates are the highest and the probability of second and third marriages the greatest among women wed for the first time while they were 19 years or younger.

★ ★ ★

Researchers cited another statewide study in Iowa made by Dr. Lee G. Burchinal, who found that teen-age marriage often means dropping out of school. Dr. Burchinal found that 80 per cent of the girls who married in high school dropped out and only 8 per cent ever re-enrolled. Among the boys, 43 per cent quit school and only 9 per cent reentered.

"Although the educational requirements for jobs are continually rising," said Dr. Burchinal, "the chances for further education for boys and girls who marry in high school are very slim."

EDUCATORS DIVIDED

Educators are divided on whether married students should be excluded from regular high school classes. The National Education Association asked a group of elementary and secondary teachers for their opinions. In both groups, 53 per cent replied that boys should be permitted to continue school. And 45.4 per cent contended married girls should be allowed to go on to classes.

★ ★ ★

Some 34.3 per cent thought the married boys should be excluded; 40.8 per cent thought the girls should. The rest were uncertain.

The publication Nation's Schools asked school administrators their opinion in two studies—one in 1960, the other in 1956. In 1960, 78 per cent thought married teen-agers should be permitted to continue their schooling.

★ ★ ★

Boston, Cleveland, Miami, New York, Atlanta and Long Beach, Calif., are among the cities which often send married students to evening schools instead of to regular schools, said the report. Several cities including Washington, D. C., place husband and wife in separate schools hoping to discourage other early marriages. Houston and many other cities leave to the school principal the decision of individual cases.

★ ★ ★

Omaha, Indianapolis and San Diego are among the cities permitting married students to stay in school, but often exclude them from extra curricular programs.

Weary with the ways of primping womanhood, 6-year-old Jamie French of Church Street fell sound asleep under the dryer after a session with the hairdresser. She emerged from the curlers and cocoon of warmth to admire the end result at right.

Your Friend Should Have Made Call

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Recently I learned through friends that a friend of mine from another city was in town. I did not call her as I felt it was her place to call me and let me know that she was in town. I understand that this friend is very hurt because I did not call her. Will you please tell me whose place it was to call?

★ ★ ★

A: As an unexpected visitor to your town she should have let you know of her presence, but having learned that she was in town it was not very gracious on your part to insist that she be the one to make the first call.

SHOULD BE ON TIME

Q: Please give me your opinion regarding the following problem: When a large organization gives a luncheon or dinner and all the guests to be seated at the head table do not arrive on time for the function to be started at the appointed hour, how long must one delay the luncheon or dinner? Our club banquet was delayed over a half hour because all those to be seated at the head table were not present at the appointed hour. It didn't seem fair to those who made the effort to be on time to have to wait, but we didn't want to be rude.

★ ★ ★

A: It is an important requirement that those who are to be seated at the head table make a special effort to arrive punctually, and it is not necessary to wait more than 15 minutes for any of them except the guest of honor.

ACKNOWLEDGE VISITS

Q: I have just moved to a strange city. Several ladies have called on me. Some of them came while I was away from home and they left their cards. Just what is the proper way for me to acknowledge their visits?

★ ★ ★

A: You go to see them as soon as you can, and if they are not at home, you leave your card.

How Many Do We Need?

Activity Dictates Calories

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Your basal metabolism represents the number of calories you need just to stay alive! In other words, these are the calories your body requires to maintain proper body temperature and to carry on all of its involuntary activities such as breathing and heart beating.

Added to these basic requirements are the calories you will need for all of your voluntary activities. How many you need depends on your height and weight and how active you are.

The calories used in physical exercise vary greatly depending on how strenuous the exercise is. For instance, you use less than 100 calories when doing an hour of light housekeeping, while you will use up several hundred calories an hour when indulging in very active sports.

STORED AS FAT

If you take in more calories than you use, these are stored as fat. If you take in less than you expend in activity, some of your stored fat is called on and you lose weight. It is just as simple as that.

* * *

Two factors which are important in finding your ideal weight are your bony structure and muscle development.

If you have a very light build, and too many pounds for it, you will be overweight and look it—whereas some other woman who weighs the same but has a large frame will be the correct weight and appear slim.

Women too often forget this factor and try to slim down to a weight which is impossible for them unless they become downright underweight.

* * *

Some women are heavier muscled than others. The development of the muscles also affects the weight.

The build also greatly influences the measurements. Often women try to slim their hips or waists to measurements which are impossible because of bony structure.

If you would like to have my Weight and Height Chart, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 40. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

'62-Ford Prices About the Same

Slight Changes From Last Year Noted by Vice President

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. says its 1962 models are going to cost about the same price as the 1961 models.

J. O. Wright, Ford vice president, said Thursday that slightly lower prices will be offered on 21 models; unchanged prices on 16 models and slightly higher prices on 17 models in the Ford and Mercury lines.

Wright said suggested list prices on all 8-cylinder models in the 1962 Ford Galaxie line have been reduced from 1961 levels. Prices on 6-cylinder models remain unchanged.

Ford Falcon suggested prices have been reduced $2 to $3. The Mercury Comet was increased $10.

The Thunderbird suggested factory list prices have been increased $38.

Ford, like General Motors, has made a heater and defroster standard equipment. Prices were increased to cover these former optional items.

All prices are minus state, federal or local taxes, transportation charges and dealer handling charges.

Cultural Problems Ahead for Peace Corps

By RALPH HUMMEL

"The largest problems the Peace Corps will face will be language and cultural difficulties," says Charles W. Dickerson, 25, of 168 Ogemaw St., who recently returned from an 11-month, 20,000-mile medical mercy and teaching mission to Indonesia and Viet Nam.

"The corpsmen will have to live with strange people and eat their food, and they'll have to show they enjoy it whether they like it or not," according to Dickerson who returned yesterday to Michigan State University for graduate study.

In charge of the pharmacy aboard the privately sponsored mercy ship S.S. Hope on its maiden voyage, Dickerson carries a vivid impression of a dinner with a high Indonesian official who later told him:

"Mr. Dickerson, we are very happy that you enjoyed our food."

* * *

The official left Dickerson with the feeling the personal touch was sometimes as important as the medical team's actual mission: the training of doctors and nurses in Indonesia.

Eating Indonesian food takes some getting used to, Dickerson admitted. The original Spice Islands, to which Columbus wanted to find a short route, are part of the Indonesian Republic's island group.

"The food is hot," Dickerson said, "—very hot. But if you eat it without preconceived notions, you can get used to it and actually begin to like it."

MANY LANGUAGES

Language was the main difficulty for the 60 medical staff members on the S.S. Hope. The main language is a form of Malayan called Bahasa Indonesia; the secondary language is English used for government and scientific purposes.

* * *

However, Dickerson pointed out, each of the numerous islands in the thousand-mile-long chain has its own language.

The ship's staff got some basic language training but not enough, he said.

"We finally learned how to talk to our patients in their own language in terms of 'Sit down.' 'Where does it hurt?' and so on,' said Dickerson. "I'm very happy to hear the Peace Corps is getting more intensive training. There is no better way to gain a person's trust than to try to speak his language."

Dickerson started his long journey Sept. 22, 1960, when the mercy ship sailed from San Francisco, and returned two weeks ago. The S.S. Hope followed requests by the governments of Indonesia and Viet Nam to teach new medical methods to doctors and nurses in these countries.

* * *

Her itinerary took the ship first to the Indonesian capital, Djakarta, to Java, the islands of Bali and Sumbawa, and to Timor, famed as the refuge of Captain Bligh of the English sailing ship Bounty.

When an earthquake hit the island of Flores, the ship was asked by the government to make an emergency stop there. It left a large portion of medicine and food supplies, but found little need for emergency medical aid, Dickerson said. Hong Kong and Saigon were also visited.

Indonesian doctors and nurses had been taken on at Djakarta to learn from the Americans and pass the knowledge on to doctor residents on the islands.

* * *

"There were government doctors on most of the islands of Indonesia," Dickerson said. "But much medical aid is still given by village medicine men.

"Part of the medicine men's method is black magic. However some of it is simple first aid using medical knowledge gathered after long experience and homemade remedies of herbs."

NOT ENOUGH DOCTORS

Little-paid government doctors often had an impossibly large practice, Dickerson said. On the island of Sumbawa, two doctors serve half a million people.

The scope of the medical need is shown by the 700 major operations performed aboard ship while in Indonesia and the treatment of a total of 18,000 patients.

Staff members conducted 800 lectures and classes. A total of 500 Indonesian doctors and nurses participated in the program.

* * *

Although Indonesian doctors were eager to learn western methods, it was somewhat of an exchange program, Dickerson said.

"I think we learned as much from them as they learned from us," he said. "Tropical diseases as they exist in the South Pacific are seldom seen in such advanced stages by U.S. doctors. There was much to learn."

PONTIAC TO JAVA — Pharmacist Charles W. Dickerson of 168 Ogemaw St. is shown as he checked over the day's problems with an Indonesian medical student in Sourabaya. In background is mercy ship S. S. Hope during its maiden trip.

Medical, Office Facilities to Be Expanded at Hospital

Pontiac General Hospital will open a new fluoroscopic unit before the end of this year and add IBM equipment to its accounting department shortly after Jan. 1, it was announced today.

The Hospital Board of Trustees has approved the purchase of the $27,000 fluoroscopic unit and authorized Administrator Harold B. Euler to lease the IBM facilities.

The fluoroscopic room will be the hospital's third. The unit will include an image intensifier.

* * *

"At present there are very few image intensifiers in operation in the Detroit area, so we're especially proud of this modern equipment," said Euler.

"The intensifier increases the brilliance of the picture of the fluoroscope and reduces greatly the radiation exposure to the patient."

"We hope to have the unit installed and operating in 60 days."

SO NEW IN SCOPE

The IBM equipment is so new in scope that the hospital must train business office personnel in its use, Installation isn't slated to begin until early next year.

The system will be brought in pieces with final installation and beginning of full operation scheduled for April.

It is estimated that rental fees for all the new machines will total $1,500 per month.

Will Conduct Course to Discuss Children

In a course directed by Esther Middlewood, chief of the education section, State Department of Mental Health, lectures, films and discussions on children and sex will be offered to couples four consecutive Monday evenings beginning next Monday at the Waterford Township High School at 8 p.m.

* * *

Miss Middlewood, the author of numerous articles in the field of child growth and development has had experience in public school teaching and child guidance clinics.

Arrangements for her appearance were made by the Parent Education Associates of Waterford.

Governor Fights All-Out Battle on Coffee Break

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Gov. Matthew Welsh of Indiana has unveiled a secret weapon in his campaign to shorten state employes' coffee breaks.

He ordered the state office building cafeteria closed for two hours in the morning and two hours in the afternoon, and he divided it into areas with 15-minute time limits. Coffee drinkers are asked to leave at the end of the 15-minute time segment.

Set Year-Round Program to Make Michigan Safer

Beginning Oct. 1, a new, year-round program to make Michigan a safer place in which to live, work and vacation will be established by the Michigan Safety Conference, according to R. H. Goring, president, of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. executive.

The conference has compiled a very extensive roster of experts in all phases of safety, such as traffic, home, fire, water, industrial, construction and transportation. These people have willingly agreed to donate their services to help Michigan citizens enjoy a safer and happier life.

"Our new facilities will enable us to provide safety services, free-of-charge, to any individual, group or organization in Michigan," said Goring. "In addition, our representatives will gladly assist Township, Village or City officials who are charged with the legal responsibility for public safety."

* * *

Those who desire to inquire about assistance may write: Michigan Safety Conference, Inc., Suite 1211 — Bank of Lansing Building, PO Box 1136, Lansing 4, Mich.

The conference is a nonprofit, self-supporting organization that has functioned for 31 years, sustained by the individual efforts of many citizens.

"It is an outstanding example of business, industry and citizen support cooperating to more effectively accomplish their goals," Goring stated.

Annually, the conference conducts a 3-day meeting each spring, which is open to the public and is attended by some 4,000 delegates. Over 50 outstanding programs are presented and there is on display 100 exhibits of all types of safety equipment and material.

WALL MURIAL — When the Rogers' eat in the kitchen, they sit beneath a colorful farm mural. The wainscoting in this area is painted light brown. Captains chairs surround the table; all are maple. The floor has a spatter print covering. Walls are cream. The cafe curtains and the ruffle are natural color. Appliances are bronzetone.

CURVING LINES — The brick patio is pleasing to the eye with its gently curving walls. White brick like that used on the house exterior is repeated in the patio and the screened porch. The Rogers' are pleased that their clump of birch trees has done so well. Take a close look and you'll see Lady, the Rogers' blond cocker, posing prettily in front of the barbecue grill.

Your Neighbor's House

First Family to Settle in Concord Green

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Moving from one town to another can be lonesome business. But if you have friendly neighbors in your new location, this helps to bridge the first few weeks.

★ ★ ★

The Philip Rogers not only moved into the Pontiac area from Glenview, Illinois last December; but they were the first people to move into Concord Green subdivision. Now almost all the 49 lots are sold and there are many families settled in the neighborhood.

★ ★ ★

Lots in Concord Green run about half an acre in size. All utilities are underground and the builders left a good many trees. So the subdivision has a more settled look than many of its contemporaries. It's east of Opdyke and south of Long Lake Road.

Tom Rogers is a college student. His younger sister, Sandra, is in high school.

It was raining the day we took pictures of the Rogers' home and we ducked into the garage, entering the house through the kitchen. It's a long room with a farm mural on the end wall. The brown and green scene with its touches of red looks so real that you think you're looking out of a window.

Cabinets are birch. Counter tops and splash barks are white. All appliances are bronzetone.

Between the kitchen and the living room is the family room which opens onto a back screened porch. This porch and the curving patio outside are made of brick matching the exterior brick. The porch is screened around three sides.

★ ★ ★

There's an oak block floor in the family room with taffy colored walls and dado. Natural draperies can be pulled across the sliding glass doors.

One green and one beige textured armchair provide comfortable seating for TV watchers. At one side is a metal table with a plastic top that looks for all the world like woven bamboo.

White iron furniture with pale gray-blue cushions is used on the porch. The rug is a gray and white fiber one. There's an inside planter around one corner. Mrs. Rogers' father laid all this brick when the porch and patio were added during the summer.

★ ★ ★

In the dining room and living room and up the stairs there is creamy white carpeting. Walls and draperies are the same color.

The dining room furniture is ash which has a beautiful grain. A buffet and a small chest provide storage space. All the chairs (there are 2 armchairs) have seats and backs of a tweedy material in green, beige and yellow.

The front hallway has a slate floor. Cranberry red wallpaper on the stair wall offers a pleasing contrast to the cream background of the adjoining rooms.

FORMAL ROOM

Quiet formal simplicity is the theme of the cream colored living room. The Rogers' are still looking for just the right pictures to hang. There's a gray brick fireplace with a plain wooden mantel.

The sofa is beige. At one end of the room there's a pair of turquoise chairs. A club chair upholstered in a light aqua squared design is near the fireplace. Tables are mahogany.

This is a house with 4 bedrooms. One of the front ones is the guest room. In here walls only whisper that they're green. Pale green carpeting complements them. Draperies are creamy.

Mrs. Rogers had fun painting all the furniture in an antiqued aqua shade. The twin beds have blue, green and aqua spreads. In one corner is a bookcase and a desk-vanity.

Tom's room has cream walls and carpeting. Natural linen double cafe curtains hang at the windows. The furniture has been spray painted beige. The bedspreads are brown corduroy.

In the bathroom there is a blue and white color scheme. The blue wallpaper has diamond shaped figures of white. Fixtures are blue. The shag rug and the little shutters on the window are white.

Sandy has a charming bedroom with new furniture of her own choosing. She displayed mature taste in picking out the cherry Italian provincial bed and triple chest of drawers. Both have a narrow gold trim.

Walls are pale sandalwood. Two sets of natural shutters at each window take the place of curtains. She has a green slipper chair. A cork bulletin board is crammed with souvenirs.

The flowered bedspread has violet, pinks and aqua in it. Scatter pillows are purple, orchid, olive and beige.

There are pale aqua walls in the master bedroom. In the attached bath wallpaper is blue and green. Draperies are cream.

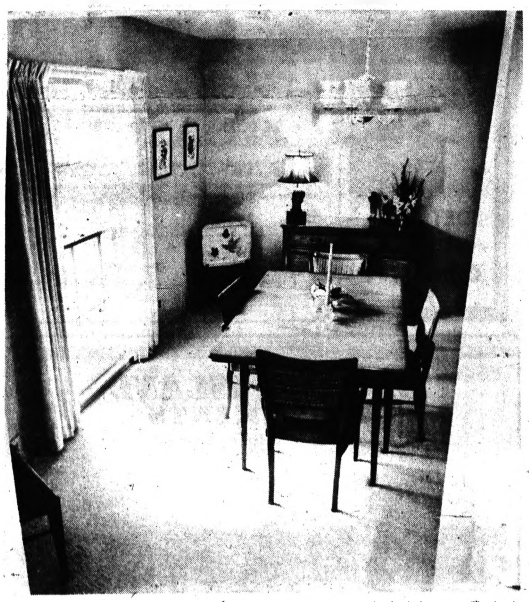

Furniture is antiqued gray. The bedspread has stripes of blue, green and aqua. Mrs. Rogers is about to cover a chair in blue and moss green.

★ ★ ★

William J. Pute, Inc. was architect and builder for the Rogers' home. The exterior is white brick and white siding with black shutters.

TEEN TALK — Sandy (left) and her house guest from Glenview, Illinois, Judy Layman, are probably discussing fall fashions as they lounge on the bed. Sandy's room is a large one with light sandalwood walls. She likes the little folding shutters in place of curtains. Behind the girls is the Italian Provincial triple chest with its big mirror.

LOOKING DOWN — The Press photographer went part way up the stairs to get this shot of the dining room. Walls, draperies and carpeting are just like those in the living room. The furniture is ash. Chairs have a tweed-like upholstery of green, beige and yellow.

Prepare Entryways for Winter Run

Are your front and back doorways protected? A door canopy is among the least costly home improvements but is very important in keeping the door step clean and safe, in cutting down on the amount of tracked-in mud and dirt and in protecting the finish of both the door and frame.

Have you set aside a specific area (such as the garage or basement) where skates, boots, rubbers and raincoats can be neatly stored? These are leading causes of dirt and hard-to-remove scuff marks.

New Plastic Patching Expands and Contracts

The product — a heavy-bodied pigmented material for patching plaster cracks. A thin coat of the product is spread over the crack and smoothed down with a special applicator. A length of glass fabric is applied over the coated area, followed by another coat of the pigmented substance.

★ ★ ★

The manufacturer's claim — that this material is flexible and will expand and contract with the opening and closing of the plaster crack and thus will last indefinitely. (Made by Tuff-Kote Co., Woodstock, Ill.)

CREAM BACKGROUND—Walls, carpeting and draperies are a warm cream color. Over the gray brick fireplace there's a simple shelf mantel. The club chair is aqua and the sofa beige. The Rogers' are still looking for exactly the right picture to hang above the mantel.

Pontiac Press Photos—by Ed Noble

IN CONCORD GREEN — This is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rogers on Lamp Post Lane. Designed in the southern colonial style, the house is half brick and half siding. Shutters are black. William J. Pute, Inc. has done the developing of the 49-lot subdivision, designed and built the houses. The Rogers' were the first family to move in.

Plan Island Apartments

Plans are being revived to build a $1.5 million dollar apartment development on Dawson's Island in White Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dawson bought the island in 1944. They are planning 102 apartment units in 8 buildings to be sold rather than rented.

Recreation and park facilities are planned for 20 acres of the island. These will include a clubhouse and swimming pool, picnic area and beaches.

Dawson's Island is 1,400 feet off shore. It will be connected with the mainland by a causeway, much in the same manner in which this is done in many Florida locations.

A model apartment is on view on the White Lake mainland.

Spacers Are Built In

Have you ever wondered how the tile-setter is able to install a wall of bright, durable ceramic tile and manage to keep them so evenly spaced? Well, most glazed ceramic tile made in America comes with built-in lugs — spacers — on all four edges which automatically and uniformly space the tile for mortar joints.

Think of the Car It Needs Room

If you're still stumbling over lawnmowers and garden rakes in the garage by Christmas each year, this article is for you. If you're one of millions of Americans whose cars have been dispossessed by summer clutter, then this article is really for you!

We Americans are obsessed with the possession of tools. We see them advertised, decide we need them, buy them and use them. This is wonderful. It's good for the economy — it helps us with our work — and, besides, it's very satisfying to own and use gadgets.

All these acquisitions, however, tend to fill up our garages. And, since most of them are used in the summer months only, it is especially annoying to have them in our way all winter long.

There are two parts to the solution. First, think before you buy: Do I have room to store this tractor? Even though it will definitely help in weeding the petunia patch, is there really space for it beside the mulch spreader, leaf cart, lawnmower, hedge clippers, rakes, shovels, pruning shears, lime bags, garden hose, lawn roller and other equipment?

The other possibility — one you'd better get started on right now — is the construction of a tool shed or an area inside the house where all this needed summer equipment can be stored during the bulk of the year when it isn't in use.

Your reward for this forehanded thought and action will be the ease with which you back your car into the garage all winter long.

HOME CLINIC

Do it yourself . . . or leave it to a professional?

That's one of the first questions that you, as a homeowner, must answer when you're planning a home improvement project. Sometimes it is a difficult question, too, with sound arguments on both sides.

Try A Compromise

As with most questions, the best answer is a compromise. If you have the talent and the time, go at those small projects on your own. Tiling a floor, painting a room, panelling a wall—these are the kind of jobs that anyone who is even slightly handy with tools can accomplish with fine results. It's economical and it can be mighty satisfying, too.

When you are planning an extensive project, such as a room addition or a remodeled kitchen, there are many reasons why you should rely on a professional home modernizer. Good design will assure maximum results, and that takes experience. When several types of work are involved—such as carpenter, plumber, electrician and painter—the job of coordinating them requires professional attention. The efficiency and close supervison that a reliable company provides often make the total cost less than if you tried to make your own arrangements with each of these independent workmen.

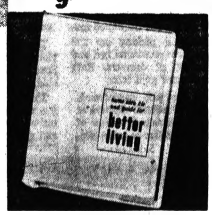

We're Ready to Help

At Poole's Home Improvement Center you will find help and encouragement for the projects you can do on your own. We will be happy to provide professional design help and how-to-do-it advice. If you decide that the job is really too complicated for you, our highly trained craftsmen are at your service.

Houses Are Built Really Too Strong

Laboratory tests show that most U. S. softwood species have far greater strength than is necessary for most house framing needs.

The tendency, says H. V. Simpson, executive vice president of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, has always been to overbuild our homes. We always use better and stronger lumber than is needed. No one, he said, ever heard of a house falling down because lumber framing gave way.

That is one reason, said the lumber leader, why we recommend Utility grade west coast lumber for most house framing requirements. Not only is Utility grade Douglas fir and west coast hemlock less expensive than other grades, but it is almost as strong.

In home framing, Simpson said, stiffness is one of the prerequisites, and Utility grades have ample stiffness, strength, and long life to frame both the cottage or the $100,000 home.

Only Simple Math Is Needed to Buy Tile

Here is an easy way to determine how many tiles are needed for a room when installing a floor of solid vinyl or vinyl asbestos tile.

Get the square footage of the room by measuring length and width, then double it and subtract 10 per cent, which gives you the number of tiles needed. This is based on the fact that a standard 9" by 9" tile is 9-16 of a square foot.

Window Boxes Improve Looks of Most Homes

With all due respect to contemporary asceticism of architectural line, window boxes can naught but enhance the exterior of a home. Built of easily handled Western Pine region wood, the project would be highly do-it-yourselfable.

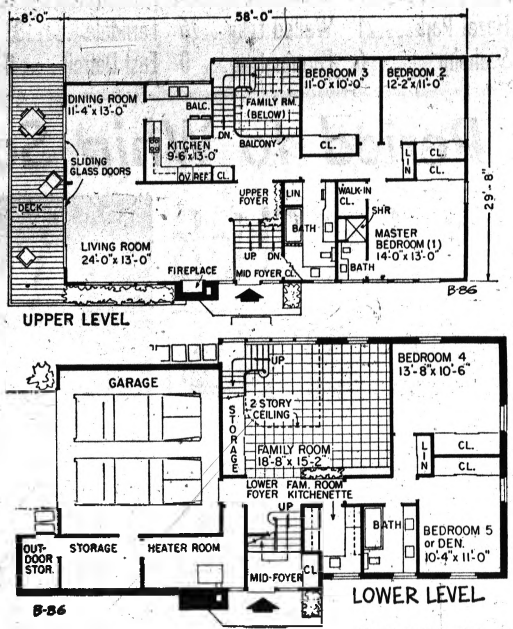

★ ★ ★

In general the box should be as wide as the window sill and as deep and high as necessary. Beveled side pieces and an extended front piece make a more finished product. And don't forget drainage holes.

FLOOR PLANS — A mid-level foyer in this bi-level home guarantees privacy for both levels. A second staircase, from the family room up to the kitchen balcony, completes the traffic circulation pattern. Not also the abundance of storage space in this house, especially the storage wall off the family room.

Large Bi-Level Plan Has Many Unusual Features

The bi-level home, by now firmly established, still is new enough to offer the freshest variations of all contemporary designs.

The house is definitely in the large-size category. It has five bedrooms (or four bedrooms and a den), three bathrooms, a double garage, a 24' by 13' living room with a large fireplace, separate dining room, and — one of the most practical touches of all — a separate lower level kitchenette off the family room.

Its dimensions are 66' wide by 29'8" deep with 1,858 square feet of living area on the upper level and 924 square feet on the lower level not counting the garage and basement area. An 8' wide deck on the upper level, entered through sliding glass doors from both the living and dining rooms, runs the full depth of the house.

A mid-level foyer controls the traffic in and out of the house, guaranteeing no intrusion on the privacy of either level. A second staircase, from the family room up to the kitchen balcony, completes the traffic circulation pattern. At no time is it necessary to pass through a room, which may be occupied, to get to another room in the house.

The family room in this house is a spacious 283 square feet, which seems even larger because of the two-story ceiling and the huge, panoramic rear window. There are three entrances to the family room — from the rear and through the garage as well as down from the mid-level entrance foyer.

SECOND KITCHEN

The lower level kitchenette makes the family room truly a livable area as well as an excellent place for teen-agers to entertain. And the surrounding balcony makes possible supervision (of small fry as well) from an unobtrusive vantage point.

As dramatic as the balcony is the upper level porch, or sun deck, which has the effect of adding about 235 additional square feet to the living room-dining room expanse. The large planter extending from the deck across the front of the house, on the upper level, provides an unusual exterior feature.

Use of the lower level for living — the primary economical value of bi-level design — does not, in B-86, eliminate all the normal basement space. There is plenty of room for storage, both indoors and out, as well as an oversized heater room.

As a matter of fact, storage space is one thing this house has more than enough of. Note the oversized closets in each of the five bedrooms, and especially the large storage wall in the family room. Note also how the closets are arranged to serve as sound buffers, especially for the master bedroom.

Another Frustrating Night for Chiefs

PCH Loses Lead Twice as Hillites Gain 13-13 Tie

Chiefs Muff Field Goal Attempt on Final Play of Valley Game

By BILL CORNWELL

SAGINAW — It would be difficult to imagine a more frustrating football evening than the one Pontiac Central High School experienced here Friday night.

The Chiefs spent most of the evening pushing a beefy Arthur Hill team up and down the gridiron but when the 48 minutes had elapsed on the scoreboard clock, all they had to show for their efforts was an exasperating 13-13 deadlock.

Coach Paul Dellerba's PCH gridders led Arthur Hill in every statistical department but when the Saginaw Valley Conference battle came to an end, they were still searching for their 1st victory of the 1961 season.

It marked the 2nd straight year that the Chiefs and the Hillites have fought to a draw. They struggled to a 20-20 tie last year on this same field in a contest quite similar to this one.

The Chiefs twice blew leads, then climaxed their frustrating night by muffing a field goal attempt from the Arthur Hill 17-yard line on the final play of the game.

Just as in their 13-0 loss to Bay City Central a week ago at Wisner, fumbles and penalties cost them dearly in crucial moments. For the second consecutive week, PCH lost four fumbles to an alert enemy.

Pontiac's most prominent mistakes can be listed as follows:

Two costly fumbles, two penalties and two bad passes from center.

Central enjoyed a 7-0 lead at halftime, but the Chiefs so completely dominated the first two quarters that the estimated 4,000 fans gathered in Arthur Hill Memorial Stadium probably were wondering why they didn't collect three or four touchdowns.

The Chiefs were stalled twice in the 1st quarter. They lost the ball on downs on the Hillite 19 after a fumble lost 10 yards, then another bobble was recovered by AH on the Saginaw 23 to halt another threat.

The Chiefs finally hit pay dirt midway through the 2nd period. A 26-yard punt return by halfback Roy Couser ignited the drive and they marched 55 yards in nine plays with Couser scoring the touchdown on a 10-yard swing around left end. Quarterback Bob Pomeroy kicked the point.

Arthur Hill squared matters at 7-7 late in the 3rd stanza. A 24-yard punt return by Dave Landeryou sparked the Hills' 1st TD and they pushed 34 yards for the tying counter with fullback Ken Bubilitz cracking across from one yard out. Ed Krietz booted the 7th point.

A 15-yard unnecessary roughing penalty against PCH kept this drive going after AH quarterback Jim Flora had been dumped for a 12-yard loss.

Pontiac bounced right back and drove 68 yards for a TD with Andy Roach streaking 28 yards off tackle for the counter on the first play of the 4th period.

The Chiefs had three cracks at the all-important extra point. Pomeroy made the 1st attempt but PCH was offside. He missed the 2nd try but Arthur Hill was offside. An errant pass from center nullified the 3rd effort as the kick never got off the ground and PCH led, 19-7.

The Hillites rebounded immediately. Ken Birch raced 46 yards on the 1st play to reach the PCH 22, then three plays later Bubilitz fumbled 12 yards into the end zone. Krietz' kick was wide and the score was even.

Pontiac got its first real break with 5:17 remaining when tackle Dick Richards recovered a Hillite fumble on the Saginaw 21. After gaining a 1st down on the AH 10, the Chiefs gave up the ball again as Roach fumbled and Tim Brennan of Saginaw fell on it on the 10.

Aided by a pass interference penalty, PCH kept punching away but the Chiefs were also fighting the clock. They took to the air and moved to the AH 9-yard stripe. Pomeroy dropped back to attempt a field goal from the 17 on the game's last play, but a poor pass from center ruined the effort.

Skipper Torment Resumes; Walled Lake Rolls Along

By BOB BEEDLE

Waterford High coach Stu Thorell is going to have nightmares about runbacks.

Two weeks ago, it was a pair of long interception returns which upset Waterford's applecart and provided township foe Kettering with a one-point triumph.

But last night was the topper. The Skippers won the battle of the statistics for the third straight week, but dropped a 26-19 verdict to Berkley when the Bears exploded with two tremendous kick runbacks within two and a half minutes in the third quarter.

In another opening Inter-Lakes League action, Walled Lake easily downed Farmington, 26-0, for its third straight win.

Berkley had the upper hand in the first half in taking a 12-0 lead. But the Skippers came back strong and moved to within six points on Gary Walls' one-yard scoring plunge early in the third stanza.

On the succeeding kickoff, however, Berkley junior Steve Hollingsworth made new coach Irv Wilson breath easier when he grabbed the ball and raced 75 yards through what seemed the entire Waterford defense for a 19-6 lead.

* * *

Then, just 2:25 later, it was Dick Kakkuri's turn to help relax Wilson when he took a punt and sped 77 yards up the right sideline for the final — and clinching — Berkley TD.

Rick LaBair's 57-yard kickoff return helped set up a Waterford touchdown minutes later, Bob Readler going across from six inches. The scoring was capped late in the contest on a two-yard dive by Walls.

It was Kakkuri, a big high-stepping halfback, who opened the scoring with a six-yarder in the opening quarter. Dan Osborne made it 12-0 on a two-yard plunge.

Waterford, now 1-2 overall, completely dominated the second half —with the exception of the two long runbacks — Berkley (2-1 overall) managing only 14 yards from scrimmage during that time.

Lee Keiser, 14-year-old sophomore whiz, continued his solid running for the losing Skippers. Keiser picked up 131 yards in 18 carries to push his season ground total to 386 yards.

Waterford was without the services of Readler, first-string quarterback, for most of the first half, due to the slow recovery of an ankle injury he suffered in practice this week. Gary Moran, normally a halfback, did creditably in his place.

Mike Buffmyer tallied twice—on runs of one and 12 yards, and Mike Hinckley (10) and Bill Green (14) wrapped up the scoring for offensive-minded Walled Lake in its easy triumph over Farmington.

Dave Smith's Walled Lake crew has now counted 119 points in three contests while limiting its foes to a mere 26.

WHOA, HUSKIE — Southfield defenders swarmed all over PNH star back Dave Shields on this 3rd quarter play last night but they didn't have much success stopping him otherwise. He scored a touchdown and gained 71 yards rushing to help pace a big Inter-Lakes triumph.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS — Pontiac Northern quarterback Rick Fisher seems to be running out of the crowd in this double exposure picture taken by Press photographer at Wisner Stadium last night. Les Wilkinson of Southfield is the other gridder mixed in with the happy Northern fans who had plenty to cheer about in a 14-6 triumph.

Rochester, Romeo Roll; Big Contest Next Week

Touchdowns exploded all over the place at Rochester last night as the Falcons beat highly-rated Troy 28-19 in a spectacular offensive show.

Meanwhile, Romeo was getting warmed up for a meeting next week with Gene Konley's gridders by blasting Oxford, 38-0.

Rochester scored twice in a two minute span in the third period, and they were enough to send Troy reeling to its first defeat in three games while giving the Falcons their second victory in three.

* * *

Both of the rapid-fire TDs were of the same thrilling variety as the first one late in the second quarter when left halfback Tom Mitzelfeld raced 64 yards to give Rochester a 7-6 halftime lead.

Mitzelfeld's run and the extra point plunge by fullback Eddie Dando stunned the Colts, who had ground out 10 first downs during the first half but had only Dave Aldred's four-yard slant for a touchdown to put on the scoreboard.

The go-ahead tally still had the Falcons fired up when they returned for the third period and they struck again with devastating speed. Mitzelfeld sped 49 yards following the kickoff and then he went the final 10 yards three plays later.

After Rochester held Troy on the next series, Dando scooped up a short punt and dashed 40 yards for another six-pointer. Dando had plunged for the extra point on Mitzelfeld's TD; this time Mitzelfeld ran it over.

Troy hit back through the air and two completions for long gains set up Aldred's two yard blast early in the fourth to make the score 21-12.

But the Falcons came right back to put the game on ice. Dando rambled for runs of 34 and 20 yards before crashing seven yards right up to the goal line stripe. Quarterback Bud Baldwin then sneaked the ball over and Pete Long ran for the conversion.

Troy found new vigor after recovering a Rochester fumble on its 36 and pushed over the final touchdown when only 20 seconds remained to play. A 46-yard pass from Harold Klusendorf to Aldred put the ball on the Falcons' five and Tom Towler carried it over from the three.

Rochester rolled up 262 yards, all on the ground, with Mitzelfeld accounting for 167 in 13 carries. Troy rushed for 223 yards and a furious passing attack by the Colts in the second half added 120 more.

Tabbed as "The Untouchables" by their followers after posting their 3rd straight shutout triumph, the Bulldogs increased their season point margin to 112-0.

Romeo got off to a slow start taking 11 plays to go only 23 yards following a fumble recovery in the opening period. John Hanley crashed over from the 1 on 4th down and Butch Peraino kicked his 1st of two extra points.

Bill Trieloff followed with two six-pointers in the 2nd quarter and another in the 3rd besides having one nullified by a penalty. He ran 73 and 31 and made paydirt on pass from Mark Johnson covering 45 yards. Trieloff now has seven TDs.

Saline Strikes Early to Defeat South Lyon

Saline struck for two first period touchdowns and went on to down South Lyon 19-8 Friday night.

South Lyon got a TD on its own in the opening period on a 45-yard pass from Lowell Burgess to Dave Race. The losers picked up a safety in the second quarter when Dennis Glass tackled a Saline ball carrier in the end zone.

The Lions, now 1-2 on the season, pushed to the Saline 10 twice in the second half before losing possession of the ball.

Shields, Fisher TD Scores in Last Quarter

Win Gives Northern Big Start in I-L; Walled Lake Next

By CHUCK ABAIR

Striking back for two last period touchdowns, Pontiac Northern hammered out an impressive 14-6 triumph over visiting Southfield before about 5,000 fans on a perfect night for football Friday.

It was a big victory for the Huskies for several reasons. It got them off to a good start in the Inter-Lakes race and was against a 1960 co-champion figured to be a strong contender again. The come-from-behind win in the PNH home debut was sweet revenge for a 52-13 lacing last fall.

The Red and White gridders will invade the new Walled Lake field to meet the other defending co-titlist next week.

Northern dominated most of the play against the much bigger Bluejays hitting hard both on offense and defense right from the opening kickoff.

Tricky quarterback Rick Fisher scored seven points, hard-running Dave Shields tallied the other touchdown and Chris Payne averaged better than 10 yards per carry but it was a team-type effort. Happy home coach Ed Heikkinen refused to single out any individuals. The blocking was strong and the defense, led by Mike Marcum, was surprisingly successful against the rugged SHS backs and linemen.

Southfield looked very good going 88 yards in seven plays to open the point-getting midway through the 2nd quarter but Northern had the edge before and after.

Fisher's running paced an early PNH threat which fizzled after reaching the Southfield 18 partly due to a 15-yard penalty. The Huskies reached the enemy 42 before punting early in the 2nd session and that was when Southfield got going.

* * *

After being held without a 1st down for 16 minutes, the blue-shirted invaders appeared to be taking command with an easy ground march to paydirt. A 41-yard dash by sophomore Dennis Lamb was the big gainer. Les Wilkinson cracked over from the 2.

But the gritty Pontiac kids shook it off and started a drive of their own. Payne went 41 on the opening play. They got to the Jays 28 with a 1st down but were halted by an interception.

A penalty nullified a Southfield TD pass early in the 2nd half and it was all Northern the rest of the night. The Huskies took an ensuing punt and traveled 92 yards — all by rushing — to go ahead to stay with two minutes gone in the final quarter.

* * *

Fisher mixed his plays well along the way using Shields mostly. Payne went 21 once and Fisher a crucial 12 another time. Bill Young's seven-yard scamper made it 1st down at the 2 and Shields went into the end zone standing up.

A neatly-executed PAT play broke the tie. Soph Dean Souden put on a good act apparently getting ready to kick but Fisher scooted across for the point.

The Huskies missed a golden opportunity to boost the lead later when two 15-yard penalties helped ruin a fumbled punt recovery at the Southfield 10. Guard Don Vance recovered another fumble a few minutes later at the 17 and this time the locals made it count. Payne went 6, Shields 10 and Fisher the last 1. Souden booted a perfect placement this time.

* * *

Southfield had reached the home team's 35 as the final whistle sounded.

Bay City Teams Stay Unbeaten in Valley Race

Few cities in the country can boast of two teams fighting for a state championship but Bay City is one.

The town of near 60,000 population on Saginaw Bay this year has produced two of Michigan's top prep elevens in Bay City Central and its crosstown rival, Bay City Handy.

Last night, each school won its third straight Saginaw Valley Conference game, Central walloping Flint Southwestern, 32-6, and Handy downing Flint Northern, 20-13. In another Valley game, Midland routed Saginaw High, 26-7.

Fullback Roy Campbell scored twice on runs of 8 and 6 yards to lead another Class A power, unbeaten Ann Arbor, to a tight 19-16 victory over highly-rated Flint Central which suffered its first setback.

Anchor Bay Player Dropkicks PAT

Imlay Routs North Branch

Imlay City picked up its second South Central win in as many games Friday night by crushing North Branch, 47-14.

The dropkick made one of its rare appearances in present day football as Anchor Bay rolled past Dryden 40-0 in a Southern Thumb contest.

* * *

In the same league, Armada upended New Haven, 19-14, Brown City routed hapless Almont 58-0, and Capac slipped past Memphis, 6-0.

Doug Perkins and Dick Sefvocic scored twice for Imlay City.

Perkins went three yards to open the scoring and Sefvocic sprinted 29 before the first quarter was over. Bob Maison picked up a second quarter TD on a two-yarder and Sefvocic went 28 to give the Spartans a 28-7 halftime lead.

Perkins got his second touchdown in the third period on a one yard plunge and Mike Folk scored from two yards. Jim Rivert caught a three yard scoring pass in the fourth quarter to end the Imlay TD parade.

* * *

Folk ran three extra points, Perkinds, Maison and Terry Ignasiak one each.

The freshmen combination of Fred Monroe to Denny Smith produced 20 and 30-yard scoring passes for North Branch with Hibbard running the PAT.

Don Halley dropkicked one of two extra point attempts for Anchor Bay. Al Ludeman scored twice on runs of 22 and 82 yards. Gary Marcero sprinted eight and 45 yards for TDs. George Torney scored on a two-yard plunge and added an extra point. Dennis Folan scored the other touchdown on a 15-yard run.

Gary Gorslin scored twice in Brown City's win over Almont. The losers were inside the Brown City 20-yard line three times only to lose the ball on downs.

* * *

Perry Lee scored on a 20-yard run and Dwight Lee ran 28 for a TD, but it wasn't enough to keep New Haven in the game. Armada held a 13-7 halftime lead.

Stan Kobyashi passed 40 yards to Jim Stanlioui for the lone score in Capac's triumph over Memphis.

West Suburban Grid Homecoming Tonight

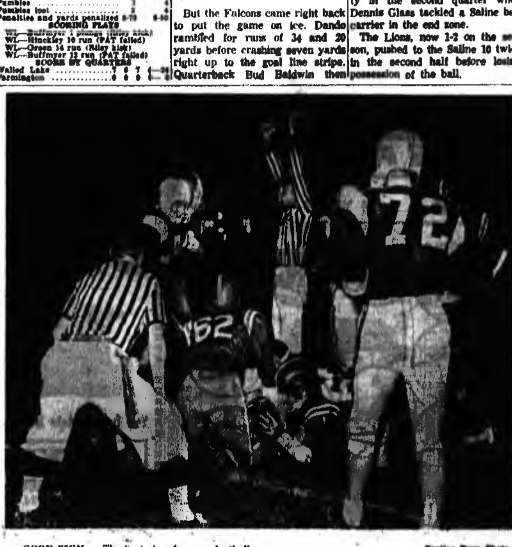

A parade and participation by civic officials will help feature the West Suburban Boys Club Homecoming tonight at West Bloomfield.

Following a parade from the club through Keego Harbor to the West Bloomfield High field, township supervisor John Rehard will kick off the 1st ball which will be held by Keego mayor Russell Gregg.

Games in the All American Little Football League against Grosse Pointe Farms will follow at 6 for the Frosh, 7 for Jaycees and 8 for varsity. The varsity boys were the only victor last week at Royal Oak.

North Farmington 3-0

North Farmington chalked up its 3rd straight triumph blasting the Plymouth reserves 31-0 yesterday paced by alternate quarterbacks Bill Hall and Lee Martella. Five different boys scored as the victors gained 470 yards — 350 on the ground. Kettering is the next NFHS foe Thursday.

GOOD SIGN — The best sign for any football team is the official's signal for a touchdown as shown when Waterford's Gary Walls hit paydirt for two yards in the 4th quarter yesterday. Walls lost his helmet on the play and Berkley's Norm Wolff (60) appears to be pulling at Walls head. The Skippers lost to Berkley, 26-19.

Avondale Tops Clawson, Dragons Tie Madison

Avondale opened Oakland B play on a victorious note Friday, but Lake Orion had to settle for a tie.

The Yellow Jackets rolled to a 19-0 lead and then held off a third quarter Clawson surge to post a 19-13 triumph. Lake Orion led until late in the fourth period when Madison tied the game at 7-7.

* * *

Fitzgerald moved into first place, half game ahead of Avondale and Troy, by bouncing Oak Park, 26-14. Troy lost a non-league encounter at Rochester, 28-19.

Roger Ball put Avon in front in the first quarter with a 20-yard jaunt into the end zone.

The Yellow Jackets scored again in the second quarter on Roger Bauer's 70-yard TD run.

On the first play for scrimmage in the third period, quarterback Roger Van Conant hit end Dale Yarger with a 35-yard scoring pass. Romy Lucero picked up the extra point after the second touchdown.

Clawson rallied for two touchdowns in the third quarter. The first came on a 30-yard aerial from Paul Kebrow to Tom Grunber. Mike Bradley kicked the point. Mike Haley blocked an Avondale punt and fell on the ball in the end zone for the other Clawson TD.

Avondale marched to the visitor's 20 and four-yard lines during the game, but failed to score. Coach Frank Crowell had high praise for Bauer's play. He is a junior.

Lake Orion recovered a fumbled punt on the Madison 30 in the first quarter to setup its lone touchdown. Frank Ochoa went the final four yards and Jon Cuckney passed to Dave Hallmark for the PAT.

A pass interference penalty against the Dragons helped Madison reach the Lake Orion four in the fourth quarter. Wally Niezguski bucked the needed short yardage and Jordan booted the extra point that tied the count.

Orion reached the Madison four in the second period, but lost the ball on downs. The deepest penetration for the Dragons in the second half was to the opponents' 30.

Coach Frank Kownacki noted that this was the Dragons best game. They didn't fumble once after bobbling the pigskin 11 times in the first two games.

Groves Romps Over Whitmore Lake, 50-0

Birmingham Groves, which has taken its knocks in two varsity years of football, dished it out last night. The Falcons white-washed Whitmore Lake, 50-0 as Art Schuler scored four times on runs of 65, 71, 53 and 20 yards.

Groves scored 20 points in the first quarter, 18 in the third period and 12 more in the final stanza.

Other scores were by Tim Mitchell on a 50-yarder in the third quarter, by Dick Clark on a 10-yard fumble recovery and run and by Bob Wright on a 40-yard pass from Clark. Clark passed to Bill Stevenson for a 22-yarder as final tally. Stevenson kicked both points.

Casey Stengel Is Back as Manager of Mets

NEW YORK (AP) — Casey Stengel was back in baseball today, a year after the New York Yankees fire him because he was too old. At the age of 71 the grizzled old-timer has agreed to a one-year contract with the New York Mets.

Thus George Weiss and Stengel are re-united with the new National League team that will compete with the Yankees for the fans' favor in 1962. Weiss also was put out to pasture by the Yanks last fall, at the age of 65, but later accepted a job as president of the Mets.

* * *

First item on the program of the Weiss-Stengel team will be to select the players made available by the other National League teams. This selection will be made by New York and Houston on alternate picks the day after the World Series ends.

Lists of the players will be made available to the Mets on Monday when Weiss expects Stengel to come to town from his Glendale, Calif., home for a meeting with the scouting staff.

Weiss said Stengel didn't agree to come back until about 6 a.m. (California time) Friday when he called Weiss on the phone. An earlier conversation in which Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson and Donald Grant (financial backers of the club) urged Casey to come out of retirement was an important factor.

Balanced Scoring Wins for Country Day, 25-0

Country Day scored one touchdown in each period Friday to down Hamtramck Immaculate Conception 25-0 for its first win of the season against one setback.

Arnie Deckerman scored in the first quarter on a four-yard run. Steve Soloman passed nine yards to Neil Satovsky and Deckerman kicked the point to give Country Day a 13-0 halftime lead.

Lakers, Trojans Record Upsets in W-O League

Broncos Notch First Win of Season 28-20 Over Brighton

By DON VOGEL

"He's the best."

Northville coach Ron Horwath used this simple statement to describe Steve Juday. It is doubtful if any Bloomfield Hills player will come forward to dispute Horwath.

The senior quarterback did everything right as the Mustangs rolled over the Barons 26-7 before 1,500 fans at Northville Friday night.

By winnig their third straight game without a defeat, the Mustangs now are top heavy favorites to make off with Wayne-Oakland League honors.

Northville is alone in first place after the second week of league action. Clarenceville knocked Clarkston from the ranks of the unbeaten, 19-13; West Bloomfield upset Milford, 32-6; and Holly slipped past Brighton, 28-0.

SHARP PLAYMAKING

Juday displayed good ball handling and sharp passing.

Twice he pulled the Bloomfield Hills defense out of position with fakes to enable halfback Tom Swiss to break loose for runs of 36 and 27 yards on pitchouts. Both runs setup two second period touchdowns, scored by Juday on short sneaks.

Late in the third period Juday sprinted 16 yards around end after faking a pass. This put the ball on the five and two plays later fullback Joe Hay pounded over from the one.

Juday didn't pass much, but when he did, the Barons had trouble. He completed eight of 10 aerials for 90 yards. To offset the Hills offense, he intercepted a pass and punted three times for a 38-yard average.

* * *

Twiss also had a good game. He carried the ball 10 times for 90 yards and scored Northville's first TD in the opening period on a five-yard slant.

Brian O'Neil ran one yard in the fourth quarter for the visitor's lone touchdown.

A pass interference penalty started the Barons to defeat. Northville had a drive going when Juday had a pass intercepted. But the Barons were detected interfering with the receiver and the Mustangs got the ball back on the Hills' 18. Three plays later Twiss scored.

Northville completely dominated play in the first half. The Mustangs rolled up 211 rushing and passing to only 40 for the Barons. With a 20-0 intermission advantage, the Mustangs seemed to let down in the final two periods.

They came up with only 10 yards total offense. A much improved Bloomfield defense took care of Juday.

BARONS SCORE

The Barons moved the ball a little better, but couldn't mount a threat until Roger Stewart broke away on a 52-yard gallop in the fourth quarter to the Northville 22. A pass interference penalty got the ball to 10 and O'Neil scored after faking a handoff.

Bloomfield recovered a fumble on the Northville 24 with two minutes to play, but gave the pigskin away on a pass interception.

Mike Paddy scored three touchdowns on runs of one, three and seven yards to lead West Bloomfield's win. The Lakers jumped to a 20-0 halftime margin and won going away.

Bill Vascassenno opened the scoring by racing 36 yards. Dan Greig passed 50 yards to Gary Carpenter for the other TD. Milford tallied in the last period on a 10-yard pass from Skip Miller to Ron Hoggard.

* * *

Don Hermoylan and Paddy picked up extra points for the Lakers. Hoggard was credited with 22 tackles from the safety position.

Monroe Ashley raced 53 yards for a touchdown with 28 seconds to play to give Clarenceville its upset triumph. The sophomore speedster scored the Trojans' first TD on a 76-yard gallop in the first period and gained 192 yards during the game.

Willie Knox scored for Clarkston on spurts of 15 and six yards. Dick Shelden kicked the point.

Randy Marx scored two touchdowns, passed for a third and ran two extra points, but it wasn't enough to stop Holly.

The Broncos scored in each quarter to chalk up their first win of the season. Larry Bradsher raced 45 yards, Bill Conti 13, Jim McArthur four and Jim Ray four for the TDs. Ray and Conti got two PAT each.

NO GAIN — Xavier University fullback Tom Clark (wearing helmet) is hemmed in by University of Detroit players as tackle Bob Turley (79) makes shoulder high tackle in the 1st quarter of Friday night's game at U. of D. Stadium. The Titans routed Xavier, 34-8, for their 2nd straight victory.

Shorter Scores Twice as Titans Whip Xavier

DETROIT — Detroit's Titans, spurred by Jerry Gross' deadly passing and Billy Allen's 90-yard punt return, crushed Xavier, Ohio, 34-8 Friday night.

Xavier was bottled up by a tough defense and could cross midfield only three times under its own power.

Gross passed for both of Detroit's first-half touchdowns. He hit Lary Vargo with a 16-yarder and Jim Shorter with a 7-yard toss. Allen scampered 90 yards for Detroit's last touchdown after making an over-the-shoulder catch of an Xavier punt.

Shorter got another touchdown with a 30-yard run after intercepting a pass.

Xavier's lone score came when Bob Daumeyer intercepted Ron Bishop's pass at Detroit's nine and waltzed into the end zone with his team trailing 27-0.

MIAMI BEATS PENN. STATE

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Guided by two crippled quarterbacks, Miami's unrated Hurricanes hit Penn State with startling ground and air power Friday night to crush the nation's eighth ranked college football force, 25-8.

Although he had to be helped off the field three times after being hit in painfully bruised ribs, the sensational Miami sophomore quarterback, George Mira, guided Miami on a 79-yard touchdown drive to put the Hurricanes ahead 7-0 at halftime.

Bobby Weaver came out in the third period, limping on a bad ankle, and filled in beautifully for Mira as he led the Hurricans on another sparkling touchdown surge of 81 yards.

Against a badly beaten team of Nittany Lions, center Charlie Livingston kicked a 38-yard field goal and John Bennett drove three yards for another touchdown in the final period.

VMI OVER RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — VMI's Keydets used a 101-yard run by halfback Andy Tucker as the springboard for an 8-6 Southern Conference football victory Friday night over a Richmond team that huffed and puffed up and down the field most of the evening to no avail.

The electrifying run by Tucker, a sophomore from Cocoa Beach, Fla. came when he intercepted a Richmond pass one step inside the end zone. It was followed by a two-point conversion pass from Bobby Mitchell to end Bob Modarelli for the winning margin.

Goodrich Uses Workhorse to Nip Ortonville

Senior fullback Jim Killbreath was the workhorse in a 99-yard march in the 4th period as Goodrich scored a 7-0 victory over Ortonville last night.

The 6-2 and 210 pound senior carried the ball 15 of 19 times in the long drive and went over from the one-yard line to score the TD. Longest gain for him in the drive was 20 yards.

Ortonville had a 55-yard TD run called back in the second period. For the remainder of the game, both teams battled between the 30-yard lines in a rough defensive game.

Fired-up Rams Hope to Pull Good Upset at Wisner

By CHUCK ABAIR

It will likely make little difference after the opening whistle sounds but St. Michael will rank as the favorite going into the 27th annual head-on collision of city parochial schools tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Wisner Stadium.

St. Michael has dominated the series for the last several years and romped 26-6 last fall despite being a slight underdog.

The Shamrocks took their annual beating from West Bloomfield opening night this fall after playing the Lakers all even for one half. They bounced back last week with a come-from-behind over St. Benedict.

Coach Tom Kennedy's Rams outplayed Royal Oak St. Mary but had to settle for a tie first time out and then took a walloping at St. Clement last Sunday.

Greater experience and size gives the Big Blue the advantage on paper over the Parke Street contingent. The Mikes are also in their best physical condition of the year with Dick Ghastin set to play fullback for the 1st time.

Spirit has often turned the tables in games between old rivals and it could happen this time. St. Fred has been getting all fired-up for the occasion while St. Mike coach Jim Niebauer admits he has been battling an overconfidence problem. "I think they have a better team than last year," he says of the Rams.

Niebauer has a pair of standout runners in Jerry Martin and Gary Hintz and an always dangerous quarterback in Larry Sonnenberg. Bill Harding has filled in well for the injured Ghastin and will be a key reserve. The line is headed by star tackle Jim Hurren and Blaine Priebe.

John Bierline heads the Red and Black offense. He runs fast and hard. Mike Windey has good speed. Quarterback Charley Dean has been recovering from early arm troubles and ready to fire some TD aerials. Tim Snitchler and Bernie Gross lead the forwards.

Since the game is so early this year, they have played no comparative foes. Both have had defensive problems. The Shamrocks have scored 14 and allowed 46. St. Fred's figures are 12-47.

Hintz has scored 7 points, Charlie Paul 6 and Sonnenberg a PAT. Windey and tiny Fred Medina, a quarterback and end, own the Ram touchdowns. Medina is out for the rest of the season with injuries.

Maples Lose, 21-6; Kimball, Dales Win

Birmingham Seaholm, expecting rough going in the rugged Eastern Michigan League this season, bowed 21-6 to visiting Hazel Park last night. Royal Oak Kimball and Ferndale won other loop games.

The Maples tried to keep it close but could not cope with the running of Rick Golinski and Frank Stagg. Each made a touchdown and Stagg kicked three straight extra points.

Bruce Bates took a 2nd period kickoff back 80 yards to score for the losers. Bill Merkel got the other six-pointer for the Parkers, who are unbeaten in three starts.

Both teams had several other scoring opportunities but could not capitalize on them. Seaholm is 1-2 for the season.

Mt. Clemens was blanked by Kimball 12-0 following two tune-up triumphs.

The teams were all even at 0-0 at halftime but Kimball took charge in the 3rd quarter. Wally Gabler hit Wally Frank on a 15-yard TD pass and Chuck Meager ran 25 for another tally a few minutes later.

One other Kimball chance fizzled out as did a Mt. Clemens march to the ROK 5. It was the 3rd successive win for Royal Oak.

Ferndale continued to roll along with ease by belting East Detroit 32-0. All the scoring was in the initial half.

Bob Micheau scored two touchdowns while Bob Neilson passed for one and ran for another to spark the Dales.

East Detroit got to the Ferndale 4 in the 3rd period but fumbled the ball away. Bob Marasco was an outstanding two-way performer for the losers.

Kimball tops the EML standings with 2-0. Ferndale and Hazel Park each are 1-0. Port Huron won its 3rd straight league warmup tilt 27-0 over Hamtramck.

Tigers After 100th in Morning Game

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, shooting for their 100th American League victory of 1961, sent rookie Howard Koplitz after it in a morning game against the Minnesota twins today.

Koplitz was a 23-game winner at Denver and won his first appearance as a Tiger, a seven-inning relief stint in which he gave up only two runs.

Today's game was moved up to 11 a.m. (EST) to avoid conflict with the Missouri-Minnesota football game in Minneapolis. The Tigers and the Twins will close out their seasons in a single game here Sunday.

With no counter-attraction, the Tigers and Twins drew only 3,151 paying customers yesterday, but those baseball fans witnessed the breaking of one American League record and a rousing finish that brought Detroit a 6-4 victory in 10 innings.

★ ★ ★

The record was set by Jake Wood, who struck out for the 139th time before lashing a two-run single that provided the margin of victory in the 10th. Wood's whiff surpassed by the old AL record set by Minnesota's Jim Lemon when he was playing with Washington in 1956.

Wood has today and tomorrow to "improve" on the record Camilo Pascual forced onto him.

The Tigers were trailing 2-4 going into the ninth and had managed only six hits off Pascual. Their only runs to then had been provided by Norm Cash's 40th home run in the fifth with a mate aboard.

Cash opened the ninth with his third hit, a single. Steve Boros flied out, but Wood managed a walk. Dick Brown singled to center, loading the bases. Charley Maxwell, batting for Hank Aguirre, singled off Pascual's glove scoring Cash. Al Kaline, batting for Dick McAuliffe, was thrown out at first but Wood scored on the play. Bill Bruton grounded out to end the inning with the score tied 4-4.

Ex-Detroit Ace Now Coach of Frisco Defense

Jack Christiansen Back to Haunt Former Mates With Coast Team

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It's no wonder the San Francisco 49ers boast of having the best defensive backfield in the NFL. The man behind it all is Jack Christiansen, once the Lions' leader in the famed "Chris Crew," noted to be one of the most famous backfield arrays in pro football.

When Christiansen roamed the Lions' backfield during the great championship years of the 50's, with him were Yale Lary, Jimmy David and Carl Karilivacz.

Lary still remains, and the Lions feel that the Four L's the current defensive combination is the best since Christiansen and David departed for coaching jobs.

With Lary is Dick Lane, Gary Lowe and Dick Le-Beau. The 49ers defensive foursome consists of Jerry Mertens, Abe Woodson, Dave Baker and Eddie Dove.

★ ★ ★

It will be interesting to see the battle of the two defensive quartets Sunday when the Lions and 49ers tangle at Tiger Stadium in the 24th game between the two teams.

Last year's game with the 49ers could be called the contest which actually cost the Lions at least a tie for the title.

After leading 10-0 late in the fourth quarter, the 49ers scored with four minutes to play to make it 10-7 and then John Brodie hit R. C. Owens in the end zone as time ran out for a 26 yard TD and a 14-10 victory.

★ ★ ★

The Lions then went to the coast and whipped the 49ers, 24-0 in the hot streak which they scored six wins in the last seven games.

Since then, the Lions have now won 14 of their last 17 games, including five pre-season games. The playoff bowl in Miami could be added to this streak.

It has been 1956 since the Lions have won two straight in starting the season and they did it the past two weeks against Green Bay and Baltimore, the top contenders of the Western Division. San Francisco is recognized as the other top contender.

Game is 1:30 p. m. and bleacher seats will go on sale at 11:00 a. m.

Ford, O'Toole Look Ready for World Series Opener

United Press International

Why wait for Wednesday? — Whitey Ford and Jim O'Toole, the two southpaws who'll open the World Series, look ready to go right now.

Both took their final tune-ups last night and although Ford was a mile sharper of the two, O'Toole turned in a smooth enough performance to win his 19th and bring a nod of approval from Cincinnati manager Freddie Hutchinson.

Ford struck out nine in a scoreless six-inning stint for the New York Yankees, allowed only four hits and might have won his 26th game of the season had not the Boston Red Sox tied the score off reliever Luis Arroyo in the seventh inning.

The Yankees snapped the tie and went on to win, 2-1, at the expense of Bill Monbouquette. Roger Maris failed in a bid for his 61st homer, going hitless in two official trips, but Johnny Blanchard belted his 21st homer in the fourth and then singled home the winning run in the ninth to bring reliever Rollie Sheldon his 11th victory.

Like Ford, O'Toole also gave up four hits during the five innings he pitched for the Reds in their 8-1 victory over last year's world champion Pittsburgh Pirates.

Warren Spahn scored his 21st victory as the Milwaukee Braves defeated the San Francisco Giants, 4-1, in a game called after 4½ innings because of rain.

Spahn yielded four hits in winning the 309th game of his major league career. Eddie Mathews broke a 1-all tie when he hit his 32nd homer with one on in the third off loser Jack Sanford. It was the only other National League game scheduled.

In other American League action, the Baltimore Orioles beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, in 10 innings; the Washington Senators blanked the Kansas City Athletics, 2-0; the Detroit Tigers scored a 6-4 win over the Minnesota Twins in 10 innings; and the Los Angeles Angels downed the Cleveland Indians, 6-4.

Fox Defends Title at St. Clair River

State PGA Event Sunday

Michigan's final major golf event of the 1961 season is slated Sunday at St. Clair River Country Club where 70 of the state's finest professional golfers tee off in the annual Michigan PGA championship.

Defending champion Ron Fox of Detroit heads the talented field and five other former State PGA champions also will shoot for the title over a 36-hole medal play route.

In addition to Fox, past champs entered in tomorrow's tournament include ageless Al Watrous of Oakland Hills, Horton Smith of Detroit Golf Club, Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills, John Barnum of Blythefield and Joe Belfore of the Country Club of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Fox fon the title last year at Farminton Country Clugb, defeating veteran Cliff Settergren of Muskegon in a sudden-death playoff with a birdie three on the 1st extra hole. Settergren also is entered in Sunday's tourney.

Barnum, reigning Michigan Open champ, and Burkemo are expected to give Fox plenty of trouble in his bid to repeat as State PGS winner.

Other title threats are Gene Bone of Warwic Hills, Mac McElmurry of Knollwood, Max Evans of Utica, Eldon Briggs of DGC, Washtenaw's Tom Talkington, Glenn Stuart of Grand Rapids, John Dalrymple of Lakepointe and Meadowbrook's Paul Shepherd.

The total purse is $3,000 with the winner pocketing $600. Host pro at St. Clair River C.C. is Don Perne.

★ ★ ★

Because of the lateness of the season and the size of the field, the State PGA will try a new tee-off system tomorrow.

General Statement of Condition

The Pontiac Public Schools provide a good educational program with adequate instructional materials, quality teaching, and sufficient physical facilities so that each student has the opportunity to attend classes full time, except for occasional unavoidable and temporary situations.

Continuous effort is made to provide superior teachers and more and better instructional materials, to evaluate and upgrade the various areas of learning, and to eliminate substandard classroom facilities.

Our revised elementary mathematics program is now well established. During this year a major emphasis will be placed on science and social studies. A reading specialist has been employed to assist in strengthening reading instruction and diagnosis of reading problems. Several elementary schools are experimenting with departmentalization in grades 4, 5, and 6.

The revised secondary mathematics program has been established in the seventh and eighth grades and will be used in the ninth grade this year for the first time. We have a four track mathematics program for the ninth grade. Plans are under way to revise our science and social studies programs. A major emphasis will be placed on in-service education for teachers in mathematics, science, and social studies.

The school district will again participate in the N.D.E.A. at both the elementary and secondary levels.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR husband and father, Vern H. McVey who passed away two years ago, September 30, 1959.
His smiling way and pleasant face,
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
Loved and sadly missed by wife, daughter and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SAMuel H. Moore who passed away Oct. 1, 1959.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,

Actor Denies Rumors of Being Great Lover

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Walter Chiari hustled along W. 44th St. the other day—young, slim, good-looking, darkly romantic, often called the Danny Kaye of Italy, widely known to be the former sweetheart of both Ava Gardner and Anita Ekberg — but waving his hands and denying the widespread forecast that he'll soon be one of Broadway's greatest lovers.

WILSON

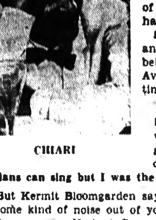

"Listen, everybody's a great lover," he scoffed.

"Men in rage even . . . but they don't have the publicity."

Rushing off to feast on some pasta at the Famous Kitchen, the slender-waisted, thirty-fivish Chiari said it's all because he's cast as a colossal lover in the new Broadway show, "The Gay Life," which is based on Arthur Schnitzler's "The Affairs of Anatol."

★ ★ ★

"Would you believe it — what I am interested in now is my singing?" he said.

CHIARI

"I made 15 pictures in Italy in two years — I paid $200,000 to the Italian government in taxes. But when something is too easy for me, I lose interest. If everybody thinks you're one of the best, you don't work so hard . . ."

So, he signed for 1½ years and "coming to America is like being born again" — even if Ava Gardner did arrive a short time after he did.

"I know I can act, I know I can dance in some clumsy way, but sing, never!" He gestured expressively as he ordered a daiquari. "All Italians can sing but I was the exception.

"But Kermit Bloomgarden says, 'There's a man here who gets some kind of noise out of you.'"

The man was Herbert Green, the coach. "I was my first astonished audience!" Chiari said. "Now I will sing seven songs. Seven!"

Romney to Tell Nation Thinking Behind Contract

DETROIT (UPI)—George Romney, president of American Motors, will discuss the national implications of the company's profit sharing contract with the United Auto Workers Union in a national television broadcast Sunday.

"Widespread interest in American Motors' progress (profit) sharing approach confirms our belief that it is of major national significance," Romney said.

★ ★ ★

He added, "We feel that it is important in the public interest that we explain the thinking behind our action."

★ ★ ★

Romney said that the profit sharing agreement, which stunned the auto industry, "opens a new door into labor relations, deepens the equity of our employes have in their jobs and . . . bucks inflationary trends."

CAB OKs Airlines' 'No Show' Penalties

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) has given the nation's airlines authorization to consider stiff penalties against passengers who make reservations but fail to show up for flights.

Chairman Alan S. Boyd said Thursday the CAB had given the carriers permission to discuss the possibility of an industrywide "no-show" penalty severe enough to discourage the practice.

But Boyd, who met with the presidents of major airlines, said that if the airlines levy such penalties, they also must accept fines for over-selling and over-booking.

State C. of C. Plans Statewide Growth Confabs

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State Chamber of Commerce reports its plans to hold a statewide series of at least 50 economic growth conferences in local communities during the next year.

The two-hour sessions, starting in October, will be conducted by teams from the state chamber staff and member business and manufacturing firms.

The programs will outline the economic and employment situation in the state and relate it directly to the immediate area of the conference. Speakers also will outline the legislative and follow-up action needed for economic growth.

The symbol of the 1964 World's Fair in New York's Flushing Meadow is to be a huge openwork globe of stainless steel, called a Unisphere.

Steam locomotives are on their way out in Italy. They haul about 15 per cent of the traffic at present, but plans call for them all to be replaced by diesels by the end of 1961, when all major routes will be electrified.
