

Friday, November 20, 2009

OU faculty art show "sought/found" on display in Pontiac until Dec. 4

Faculty members in Oakland University's Studio Art program are the creators of an art exhibition currently on display at the Creative Art Center in Pontiac. The "sought/found" exhibition opened on Saturday Nov. 7 and features contributions from 15 faculty members.

Sally Schluter Tardella, director of the Studio Art program at OU, helped set up the exhibition, noting that it "reflects the diversity of the department." A variety of mediums are represented, such as painting, drawing, etching, sculpture, photography, ambrotypes and installation. The exhibition will remain on display through Friday, Dec. 4.

For more information, contact Tardella at tardella@oakland.edu or visit the Creative Arts Center Exhibition Web page

SUMMARY

Faculty members in Oakland University's Studio Art program are the creators of an art exhibition currently on display at the Creative Art Center in Pontiac.

Created by Katherine Land - Deleted (land@oakland.edu) on Friday, November 20, 2009
Modified by Katherine Land - Deleted (land@oakland.edu) on Friday, November 20, 2009
Article Start Date: Friday, November 20, 2009