Nixon Sworn In

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon solemnly took the oath as the nation's 37th president today and dedicated his administration in this time of war and turmoil "to the cause of peace among nations."

Under threatening skies — and elaborate security precautions — Nixon placed his hand on two family Bibles held by his wife Pat and repeated after Chief Justice Earl Warren the traditional 35-word oath to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Thus in the Capitol Hill ceremony Richard Nixon, citizen, became President Nixon. And with Lyndon B. Johnson, his predecessor, listening nearby, Nixon called in his inaugural address for Americans "to go forward together."

"We have endured a long night of the American spirit," Nixon declared in obvious reference to the divisions over race and war he has promised to heal.

'LET US GATHER THE LIGHT'

And he added this appeal: "But as our eyes catch the dimness of the first days of dawn, let us not curse the remaining dark. Let us gather the light."

To the oath which he took at 12:15 p.m., Nixon added the words "so help me God."

Pat Nixon, her eyes never leaving her husband's face, held the Bibles, one in each hand, one above the other.

As the cannons boomed out the 21-gun salute, the red-coated Marine band struck up "Hail to the Chief" and then Richard Nixon, 37th president of the United States, began his inaugural address—the charting of his administration's course.

SOLEMN SPEECH

He spoke solemnly and with deliberation, calling for the nation to go forward as a peacemaker and together, both blacks and whites.

"For the first time, because the peoples of the world want peace and the leaders are afraid of war, the times are on the side of peace," he said.

"We are caught in war, war, war," said Nixon. "We are torn division, wanting unity. We see a us empty lives, wanting fulfillment see tasks that need doing, waiting hands to do them."

"To a crisis of the spirit, we need answer of the spirit," he added.

'MUST STOP SHOUTING'

But, the new President said cannot learn from one another up stop shouting at one another."

He said his administration will forward goals of full employment, housing, excellence in education and rebuilding the cities, but "We are approaching the limits of government alone can do."

The greatest need, he said "is to beyond government, to enlist the of the concerned and the committed."

He said he is calling on Americans to lead neither a life of grim sacrifice nor one of uninspiring ease.

Michigan's Junior Miss, Lynn E. Barry Of Portage

Portage Girl Chosen State's Junior Miss

By DIANNE DUROCHER

"It's a great feeling" said 17-year-old Lynne Barry of Portage, brushing away

tears of excitement after being crowned Michigan Junior Miss Saturday night.

The lithe blue-eyed brunette is a senior at Portage Central High School. She performed a flute solo, her own arrangement of "Heaven Came Down," for her talent presentation at the 11th annual state pageant sponsored by the Pontiac area Jaycees.

She will represent Michigan in the national Junior Miss finals in Mobile, Ala., in May.

First runner-up Trudy Vincent of Madison Heights was presented $300 in scholarships and a $400 savings bond.

OTHER WINNERS

Barbara Tuttle of Lenawee County, second runner-up received a $250 scholarship and a $300 savings bond.

Third and fourth runners-up Alice Schuman of Taylor and Eugenia Klesney of Midland received $200 and $100 scholarships, respectively.

Prior to crowning Miss Barry, Pamela Smith of Northville, last year's Junior Miss, expressed her appreciation to the Jaycees for the opportunity of representing Michigan for the last year.

In addition to the trip to Mobile, Lynne was presented with $1,100 in scholarships and $525 in savings bonds.

'JUST THE GREATEST'

After expressing her appreciation to all those connected with the pageant, Lynne said, "You can tell just by looking up here that these girls are just the greatest there are."

Lynne has been playing the flute since she was 11, and participates in the Supreme Court Upholds Call of Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Court turned aside today a challenge to the mobilization of Army reservists for Vietnam duty without a congressional declaration of war.

Justice William O. Douglas, said the court had "become weary of helping to create an awesomeness gap."

A group of 113 reservists from the Cleveland area, most of them Vietnam, had posed the challenge.

They were mobilized under that gave President Johnson a call up reservists without a declaration of war or national emergency.

45-DAY CEILING

The men joined the reserve law was passed. Their agreement was a 45-day top on possible calls to duty.

The court evidently agreed with the Justice Department that the men were bound by a law providing units could be mobilized for years "in time of national emergency declared by the President or otherwise authorized by law."

Douglas disagreed and said reservists' enlistment contracts "were dishonored."

The court also limited today the call to repeat open-house

In an 8-1 decision the court, Akron, Ohio, had put an "unreasonable burden" on its Negro voters by requiring bans on discrimination to have the majority of the voters in

As the cannons boomed out the 21 gun salute, the red-coated Marine band struck up "Hail to the Chief" and then Richard Nixon, 37th president of the United States, began his inaugural address—the charting of his administration's course.

SOLEMN SPEECH

He spoke solemnly and with deliberation, calling for the nation to go forward as a peacemaker and together, both blacks and whites.

"For the first time, because the peoples of the world want peace and the leaders are afraid of war, the times are on the side of peace," he said.

"We are caught in war, wanting peace," said Nixon. "We are torn by division, wanting unity. We see around us empty lives, wanting fulfillment. We see tasks that need doing, waiting for hands to do them."

"To a crisis of the spirit, we need an answer of the spirit," he added.

'MUST STOP SHOUTING'

But, the new President said, "We cannot learn from one another until we stop shouting at one another."

He said his administration will press forward goals of full employment, better housing, excellence in education and rebuilding the cities, but added, "We are approaching the limits of what government alone can do."

The greatest need, he said "is to reach beyond government, to enlist the legions of the concerned and the committed."

He said he is calling on Americans to lead neither a life of grim sacrifice nor one of uninspiring ease.

The chilly crowd punctuated its brief applause for Nixon at times during his speech by thumping cold feet on the floor of the wooden stands.

Johnson accompanied Nixon to the Capitol after a coffee-chat at the White House. Both men smiled at each other and shook hands as they met.

Johnson also gave Mrs. Nixon a quick kiss of greeting.

Also on hand was outgoing Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the man Nixon defeated in November. Vice President-elect and Mrs. Spiro T. Agnew arrived at the White House a few minutes before the Nixons.

Nixon and Johnson posed without overcoats in the chill morning for photographers before entering the Executive Mansion for coffee and a chat before driving to the Capitol for the noon swearing-in.

Nixon began his formal inaugural day by attending a simple interfaith service at the State Department.

The president-elect accompanied by his wife, Vice President-elect and Mrs. Agnew and members of the incoming Cabinet listened intently as religious leaders prayed for a rebirth of spiritual and moral values in the United States and a new dedication to peace and unity.

Supreme Court Upholds Call-Up of Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court turned aside today a challenge to the mobilization of Army reservists for Vietnam duty without a congressional declaration of war.

Justice William O. Douglas, in dissent, said the court had "become an agency for helping to create an awesome credibility gap."

A group of 113 reservists from the Cleveland area, most of them already in Vietnam, had posed the challenge.

They were mobilized under a 1966 law that gave President Johnson authority to call up reservists without a declaration of war or national emergency.

45-DAY CEILING

The men joined the reserves before the law was passed. Their agreements put a 45-day top on possible calls to active duty.

The court evidently agreed with the Justice Department that the reservists were bound by a law providing reserve units could be mobilized for up to two years "in time of national emergency declared by the President . . . or when otherwise authorized by law."

Douglas disagreed and suggested the reservists' enlistment contracts were "being dishonored."

The court also limited today the power of cities to repeal open-housing laws.

In an 8-1 decision the court found Akron, Ohio, had put an unconstitutional "special burden" on its Negro residents by requiring bans on housing discrimination to have the approval of the majority of the voters in the city.

Cloud Cover Hides Morning Sunshine

Scattered sunshine may have delighted winter-weary residents this morning, but it was all too brief as a cloud cover closed over the area by afternoon.

Tomorrow will be more of the same, with the clouds carrying the threat of occasional rain by afternoon or evening.

Occasional rain, snow flurries and lower temperatures are on Wednesday's weather agenda.

Low mercury reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 24 degrees. By 2 p.m. the thermometer registered 34.

About a minute after the plane took off, Pilot Arnold Levenson radioed:

An Ecuadorian propjet carrying 81 persons was seized by four men armed with submachine guns and remained in Cuba. There was no explanation why Cuban authorities detained the propjet.

These were the sixth and seventh commercial airliners hijacked to Cuba in 18 days.

Passengers on the Eastern jet returned to Miami early today aboard two propjets sent to Varadero, Cuba, to get them.

The Ecuadorian plane landed at Jose Marti Airport in Havana at 6:30 p.m. — 12 minutes after Smith's jet landed at Miami. Aboard were a crew of six and 75 passengers, including four men reportedly carrying machine guns.

Bound to Miami from Guayaquil, Ecuador, the propjet lost radio contact with its base soon after takeoff.

Builder in City Is Loaned $3.3 Million for Housing

A $3.3-million loan was granted at noon today to Charles L. Langs, Pontiac developer, for 325 units of housing for elderly and low-income families. Making the loan is the New York Life Insurance Co.

Langs already has built 200 units of the 525-unit development on West Kennett, west of Alcott School. The loan will cover the second phase of the project.

Insurance company officials said it was the largest loan ever made by the firm for housing under the program connected with the $1-billion pledge made by American insurance companies for urban development after the 1967 civil disturbances.

The Pontiac project, known as North Hills Farms, will consist of 52 one-story apartment buildings plus a one-story community center. Some 96 of the apartments will be 2½-room efficiency, 164 will be one-bedroom and 65 two-bedroom units.

MOST FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

Most of the apartments will rent to senior citizens. However, units also will be available to low and medium income families who qualify under Federal Housing Administration rent-supplement rules, it was announced.

Financial arrangements and services are by the James T. Barnes Co. of Detroit.

Langs has several other federally assisted and private developments around Pontiac including a $2.5-million motor hotel under construction on Woodward across from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Pontiac Press Cooking School Opens Tonight

The 10th annual Pontiac Press Cooking School begins at 7:30 tonight in the Pontiac Central High School auditorium. The six sessions — four at night and two in the afternoon — will feature Consumers Power Co. home economists Ellen Tallis and Fredricka Hoxie.

The high school's east-end doors will open at 6:30 every night and 12:30 p.m. for the Tuesday and Wednesday daytime shows.

Local merchants are participating in the school with donations of dozens of daily prizes and special grand prizes. These include two stoves, a dishwasher, gas dryer, ice-maker, outdoor barbecue, refrigerator, TV set, dunette set, vacuum cleaner, water heater and wig.

Some of the food prepared on stage also will be given away. Persons under 18 and employees of The Pontiac Press and their immediate families are not eligible for prizes.

SPECIAL SHOWS

Fashion shows by Penthouse Fashions of Independence Square shopping center, wig presentations by Drayton Wigs and hair styles by Donnell will be intermission features.

Robert Lillyman from Smiley Brothers Music will again be part of the cooking school. He will present a program on the Baldwin theater organ before each session.

Canada Dry will serve free ginger ale in the lobby every day.

The annual recipe section, prepared by Janet Odell, Pontiac Press food editor, is in today's Press. Some recipes from area women are included.

Michigan's Junior Miss, Lynn E. Barry Of Portage

Portage Girl Chosen State's Junior Miss

By DIANNE DUROCHER

"It's a great feeling" said 17-year-old Lynne Barry of Portage, brushing away

tears of excitement after being crowned Michigan Junior Miss Saturday night.

The lithe blue-eyed brunette is a senior at Portage Central High School. She performed a flute solo, her own arrangement of "Heaven Came Down," for her talent presentation at the 11th annual state pageant sponsored by the Pontiac area Jaycees.

She will represent Michigan in the national Junior Miss finals in Mobile, Ala., in May.

First runner-up Trudy Vincent of Madison Heights was presented $300 in scholarships and a $400 savings bond.

OTHER WINNERS

Barbara Tuttle of Lenawee County, second runner-up received a $250 scholarship and a $300 savings bond.

Third and fourth runners-up Alice Schuman of Taylor and Eugenia Klesney of Midland received $200 and $100 scholarships, respectively.

Prior to crowning Miss Barry, Pamela Smith of Northville, last year's Junior Miss, expressed her appreciation to the Jaycees for the opportunity of representing Michigan for the last year.

In addition to the trip to Mobile, Lynne was presented with $1,100 in scholarships and $525 in savings bonds.

'JUST THE GREATEST'

After expressing her appreciation to all those connected with the pageant, Lynne said, "You can tell just by looking up here that these girls are just the greatest there are."

Lynne has been playing the flute since she was 11, and participates in the

Shaw Trial Is Near Start After Delay Try Halted

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The state today abandoned its effort to delay the trial of Clay L. Shaw, 55, the wealthy retired New Orleans businessman charged with conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy.

Asst. Dist. Atty. James Alcock withdrew the state's motion for continuance at a hearing before Criminal Dist. Court Judge Edward J. Haggerty and said the state would be ready to go with the long-delayed trial—scheduled to start Tuesday.

Defense Attorney F. Irvin Dymond's only comment during the five-minute hearing was, "We just announced our readiness to go to trial."

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's office had filed for the trial delay Friday contending that the federal government was withholding evidence vital to the case. At that time, the prosecution said the case could not be brought to trial unless the evidence was released by the federal government.

Garrison contends there was a New Orleans-based conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy in 1963. The Warren Commission findings said Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in shooting Kennedy and that it found no credible evidence of a conspiracy.

Garrison claims that his investigation shows there was a conspiracy involving Shaw, Oswald and others, including Jack Ruby, the nightclub operator who gunned down Oswald in the Dallas police station two days after the assassination and later died of cancer.

The prosecution move to delay the Shaw trial came shortly after a judge in Washington, D.C., rejected Garrison's subpoena of autopsy photographs and X-rays of Kennedy.

Court of General Sessions Judge Charles Halleck told a Garrison aide that he would have to show that the autopsy records are necessary to the case and that "this is something more than a fishing expedition." Halleck gave Garrison two weeks to produce evidence.

Exec of SCLC Says He Has Evidence Ray Is Innocent

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's nonviolent education and direct action wing says James Earl Ray is innocent of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. But he isn't saying what evidence he has.

The Rev. James Bevel said yesterday, "I won't discuss the specific evidence now because it wouldn't be beneficial to James Earl Ray. But he's not guilty."

Officer Watches Balloon Crash

A Troy policeman had an experience yesterday afforded few persons in our times. He was eyewitness to a hot-air balloon crash.

Patrolman Robert Crawford reported he was cruising near John R and Ordington about 10:20 a.m. when he spotted a hot-air balloon heading in a southeasterly direction and having difficulty.

As he watched, the balloon hit the ground and spilled the pilot from the basket underneath. The balloon then rose again only to crash into utility wires, Patrolman Crawford reported.

Subsequent investigation showed the pilot, Linden F. Harding, 27, of 1222 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Township, was unhurt and the lighter-than-air ship only slightly damaged.

RAN OUT OF GAS

The policeman said the pilot told him he had run out of propane gas needed to keep his balloon aloft after having flown for about an hour. The craft reportedly launched in a field near M59 and Adams in Avon Township.

The balloon is being readied for a racing meet to be held in Minnesota in two weeks, the officer was told.

Crawford said he was checking the legality of the flight with the Federal Aviation Agency.

Bevel, 32, a former liaison officer between SCLC and militant Negro groups, sent a telegram to Ray Saturday which read:

"I would like to inform you that I would be very happy to take your case without fee. I was present on April 4 at the Lorraine Motel when Dr. King died — you have been accused of murdering him. Of course, I know you are not guilty."

BEVEL

KING HEADED SCLC

King, who headed the SCLC, was shot to death in Memphis, Tenn., last April 4. Ray was arrested in London following an intensive manhunt and extradited to Memphis where he faces trial beginning March 3.

Bevel said he didn't step up with his alleged information sooner because "I hadn't been responsive to him."

"But then I thought, 'Here's a man sitting here that shouldn't be here.'"

Bevel is not a bar member, but a lawyer "by circumstances." A native of Itta Bena, Miss., he has represented himself several times in civil rights cases in Mississippi.

RAY'S ATTORNEYS SILENT

There has been no comment from either public defender Hugh Stanton in Memphis or Ray's attorney, Percy Foreman of Houston, to Bevel's telegram.

Ray, in a heavily guarded cell in Shelby County jail at Memphis since his extradition, had been scheduled to go on trial in November but Judge W. Preston Battle ordered a delay after Ray fired his lawyer, Arthur Hanes of Birmingham, Ala.

Last week, when Foreman was taken ill, Battle ordered Stanton to begin preparing a defense for Ray in case Foreman could not be ready for the March trial.

Pension Rate Hike Urged

BIRMINGHAM—The City Commission will act tonight at 8 p.m. on a request from the city's retirement board recommending an increase in retirement pay computation for city employees from two-tenths to three-tenths per cent of their base pay. The proposal would be placed on the April 8 ballot if approved by the commission.

The commission will also review correspondence received from WOMAN (Women Opposed to Missiles and Nuclear Warheads) requesting commission representatives to attend a town meeting Jan. 30 at Oakland University to organize protests against the possible establishment of a missile site in the area. A time will be established for the meeting.

The board of education here is expected to establish March 31 as a date for a special election on operating millage and a bond issue at its meeting tomorrow at 8.

The Oakland County Election Screening committee had approved the board's requested March 31 date.

Voters will be asked to approve up to 12.75 mills. The actual millage rate increase is to be decided at tomorrow's meeting. A bonding question calling for funds to build additions to both high schools will also be formulated. The board will attempt to work out the approximate amount of funds needed for the building program.

Unregistered voters in the Birmingham School District must register by Feb. 28 at 5 p.m. in order to be eligible to vote in the special election. Application can be made through the City Clerk's office.

The dinner meeting is set for 7 p.m., Jan. 29 at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake.

The madrigal choir of Pontiac Central High School also will perform under the direction of Gilbert Jackson.

Tickets at $7 each, are available at the Chamber office in the Riker Building.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—An in-service teachers training day is scheduled for teachers in the Bloomfield Hills School District at Traub School on Square Lake Road on March 11 at 1 p.m. The training will concern detection and correction of children's learning disabilities.

Several Detroit area specialists on special and low-learning education will speak. The Michigan Association for Children With Learning Disabilities is sponsoring the program.

Moose Lodge, Area Barn Burn; Causes Probed

Two fires, one that gutted the Moose Lodge in Pontiac and another that leveled a barn, killing eight horses in Waterford Township, were under investigation today by authorities. Both occurred early yesterday.

The blaze at the home of the fraternal organization, 350 University, caused an estimated $25,000 damage to the building and an unknown amount to its contents.

Fire Marshal Capt. Allen Tunney said the cause of the fire in the one-story building has not been determined.

Two engine and two ladder companies and a rescue company fought the blaze from 4:14 a.m. to 7 a.m. No one was reported in the building at the time the fire broke out.

LOSS ESTIMATED

Waterford Township firemen estimated the loss at $8,000 to the barn, owned by Darelle DeSotell, 739 Scott Lake, and $3,000 to the horses. The barn was behind the DeSotell home.

The horses stabled in the barn belonged to four different owners, firemen said.

The fire was under control an hour and a half after firemen arrived about 4 a.m. Its cause also was not known.

Finnish Vessel Sinks

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The 493-ton Finnish freighter Bore IX was abandoned by her 13 crewmen last night after she listed and began to sink in a heavy snowstorm. Seven men were rescued, one was found dead on a life raft and five are missing.

"There is no longer any hope of finding any survivors," a spokesman of the Stockholm Coastal Radio said today. He reported the Bore IX was sinking in the Stockholm Archipelago, northeast of the Alma ground lighthouse.

Lynne also was congratulated by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barry and her 13-year-old brother Daniel, who were present.

For the three days prior to the contest Lynne stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Froede, 1864 Lakewood, Bloomfield Township, who said they were just as "excited and thrilled" as her parents.

Nixon's Team Flying to Paris

PARIS — The Nixon administration's team for the Vietnam peace talks began arriving in Paris today, but authoritative sources said the first full-dress session of the four delegations will be delayed until the end of the week.

The hitch in the starting of business talks of the conference, set in principle for the beginning of this week, was reportedly due to the absence of Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky, the overseer of South Vietnam's delegation.

The Scott Junior Miss Hostess top award for the most attractive table setting went to Sally Pugsley of Paw Paw and the Breck award for the best hairstyle was won by Bettie White of Grand Lodge.

After the curtain went down on the program, given before an overflow crowd in the Pontiac Northern High School auditorium, all finalists and last year's Junior Miss gathered around Lynne to offer their congratulations.

Tears of excitement and relief were on all their faces as they wished Lynne luck and said, "We'll be seeing you on television."

New Italian Party Exec

ROME (AP) — Flaminio Piccoli was elected secretary general of Italy's ruling Christian Democratic party yesterday after a bitter convention dispute that threatened to split the party.

Piccoli, 53, is considered a close ally of Premier Mariano Rumor, who resigned as party secretary general Friday. Former Premier Aldo Moro tried to block Piccoli's election, accusing Rumor of trying to perpetuate "a hierarchy of power." Rumor's allies said Moro was bitter because he could not regain control of the party.

Agreement was reached Saturday to sit at a round table, avoiding the issue of recognition for the Vietcong as an independent delegation negotiating from its own side of a square table.

Harriman, obviously briefed on the goals of the Nixon administration, disclosed that the new U.S. negotiators will table a proposed allied agenda at the opening session calling for discussion on the following order of business:

Sirhan Defense Hints OK of 11 Jurors

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sirhan Bishara Sirhan's defense indicates it may accept as jurors the 11 persons unexpectedly seated by the prosecution in the young Jordanian's trial on a charge of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The five women and six men were provisionally seated Friday at the close of the trial's first week after the prosecution said it would accept the jury "as now constituted."

Should the defense also waive its peremptory challenges when the trial resumes Tuesday, the 11 tentative jurors would be permanently seated.

In this event the only argument remaining would center on the 12th juror and on the six alternates who must be chosen before testimony begins. It had been expected to take two more weeks to seat a jury.

DON'T BE SURPRISED

"Don't be surprised at what happens Tuesday," chief defense counsel Grant B. Cooper told newsmen. "We might just have a jury."

Before the move by the prosecution, none of the present jurors was expected to survive the 40 peremptory challenges available to both sides. Peremptory challenges dismiss a prospective juror without argument or explanation.

Of the more than 30 jurors questioned, one opposed the death penalty and was dismissed over defense objections. Two of the 11 tentatively seated are Jewish. Both have said they harbor no prejudice against Sirhan, a Palestinian-born Arab who the prosecution is expected to contend killed Kennedy because of the New York senator's pro-Israeli position.

MEDICAL BACKGROUND

They are Benjamin Glick, owner of a clothing retail outlet in West Los Angeles, and Dora Jacobi, a retired university instructor who says she has experience with psychiatric cases.

Miss Jacobi and Rosa Molina, a nurse, are the only members of the tentative panel with a medical background. They are considered important to the defense, which will peg much of its case on the testimony of psychiatrists and psychologists.

Sirhan's attorneys have stated in open court that their client fired the fatal shot. The defense case probably will be built on a claim of "diminished responsibility" by Sirhan.

Saigon Authority Suspends Paper

SAIGON (AP) — Quyet Tien (Determined to Progress), one of Saigon's largest Vietnamese-language newspapers, was suspended today for an indefinite period, government sources said.

The newspaper, which has a circulation of 10,000 to 15,000, was suspended because a gossip column allegedly slandered Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky and Premier Tran Van Huong.

when he pulled the trigger whether he was responsible for his act.

The other jurors tentatively seated

• Susan Brumm, a dark haired, bespectacled woman in her late 30s or early 40s, a retired instructor with the U.S. Armed Forces Institute.

• Carolyn Freeman, a telephone company worker in her 20s.

• Barbara Collins, in her 20s, also a telephone company employee.

• Lawrence Morgan, about 32, a computer programmer.

• Leslie Laney, a post office supervisor in his 60s.

• Alfonso Galindo, in his late 30s, a civilian mechanic for the Navy at Long Beach.

• And Gilbert Grace, about 45, and George Broomis, about 40, who both work for the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power and say they never met each other before the trial.

LAST JUROR

The 12th juror, still to be questioned, is Helen Woodworth, a retired legal secretary for the Automobile Club of Southern California. Miss Woodworth told Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walker in chambers Friday she had a health problem and would have to check with her doctor to see if she could withstand the trial, expected to extend into spring.

Detroit to Eye Controversial Refuse Plan

DETROIT (AP) — Questions concerning a proposed $20-million refuse incinerator for the City of Detroit faced its common council today.

The proposed incinerator would be built on Detroit's lower west side by a local firm, Thermal Conversion Co.

Questions that the council was to consider, however, included:

• An original Detroit City Plan Commission recommendation against a zoning application by Thermal.

MAFIA LINK?
• A report last year by Robert Toohy, then public works commissioner, that owners of the Thermal firm were "acquainted with certain individuals" named as Mafia members in 1963 before the McClellan Senate Investigating Committee on organized crime.

At least two hearings on the proposal are planned.

The city planning body subsequently reversed its earlier position and, on the strength of an outside report, concluded that the incinerator would not harm the city or nearby residents. The later report said a device to burn 2,400 tons of refuse a day was necessary and practical.

In another development, Toohy's report said Detroit police had information of Mafia connections with the firm.

GIACALONES CITED

Police information, Toohy said in a letter dated April 18, 1968, linked Thermal's owners, Louis Sarko and Richard Ankerson, to reputed Mafia figure Anthony Giacalone, who was convicted with his brother, Vito, for blackjack possession.

Ankerson, Toohy stated in his letter, "categorically denied" that Giacalone was involved in the firm "either directly or indirectly."

Other Detroit area firms reportedly have offered alternate refuse disposal plans in exchange for long-term contracts.

Robert P. Roselle, who succeeded Toohy as public works commissioner, said the city made no agreements and was investigating all offers.

It was expected that a second hearing would be held for public discussion of the Thermal offer.

Freeway Crash
Fatal to Youth;
State Toll Is 12

By the Associated Press
The recently extended Chrysler Freeway was the scene this weekend of the fiery fatal crash of a car driven by an 18-year-old Detroit youth. Police said Joseph Pry was fatally injured when he jumped from a flaming car on the southbound expressway and struck his head on pavement. He died three hours later in hospital.

Accidents elsewhere in the state claimed 21 other lives during the week-end period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday.
The reported victims
John Alexander MacKenzie, 23, Vandercook Lake, killed yesterday when his car skidded on ice on U.S. 127 in Ingham County near the Jackson County line and struck a guard rail.
Douglas Wayne Seiler, 17, Deckerville, killed last night when his car skidded off Deckerville Road in Marion Township, Sanilac County, and struck a tree.
Henry R. Barnum, 51, Three Rivers, killed Saturday when struck by a car at a Three Rivers intersection.

3-CAR CRASH
Gregory W. Zagata, 21, of Dearborn Heights, in a three-car, head-on crash on M39 at Ford Road in Dearborn Saturday night.
Ricky D. Smith, 18, of Carleton, when his car struck a utility pole and split in half yesterday in Monroe County's Ash Township.

David R. Johnson, 23, of Adrian, a teacher at Adrian High School, whose car struck a tree after he attempted to pass another auto Saturday night in Adrian.
Theodore R. Horn, 41, of East Detroit, in a two-car crash Saturday at a Warren intersection.
2 DIE ON I-75
Gary J. Paul, 25, and Francis G. MacNeill, 19, both of Hamilton, Ont., in a car-truck collision Saturday on I-75, five miles south of Monroe.
Joseph J. Buda, 21, of 4761 Arline, West Bloomfield Township, in a one-car crack-up in Oakland County Saturday.
Roy Aulph Jr., 35 of Berkley, when his car struck a utility pole Saturday in Royal Oak.

Farmington Slated to Get Request for
New Road Grader

FARMINGTON — City Manager John Dinan will ask for replacement of a city road grader at tonight's City Council meeting at 8.
The Department of Public Works vehicle has broken down and needs repairs totaling around $2,500. An increasing number of repairs have been required in recent years on the machine, which is more than 10 years old, said Dinan.
Dinan will also give a report on the district court organization, its personnel structure and expense. A district court, under the state's new court system, is located in the City Hall.
The biannual beautification committee report and the yearly public safety report will also be given tonight.
Ordinances to be considered include one detailing traffic regulations on public school property. A ban on parking on a portion of the west side of Farmington Road near Shiawassee also will be discussed.

County Landowners Face Big Tax Jump

By JEAN SAILE
The assessed valuation of Oakland County property continues to climb upward, along with land prices.
Unless property tax levies are reduced accordingly, county homeowners can expect significant increases in next December's tax bills, particularly on residential and vacant property, according to local assessors.

Parks Dept. Gets Photo Gear

Kenneth L. Van Natta, director of the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Department has announced receipt of $2,500 worth of photographic equipment from Rudolph E. Vogel, a naturalist.
The gift was made because of Vogel's interest in the county parks and recreation department's development. A resident of Chicago and Florida, Vogel is a long-time friend of the Van Nattas.

Lapeer Historians Placated
Oldest Courthouse to Get a Bit Older

LAPEER — The 130-year-old Lapeer County Courthouse, oldest in the state, appears good for a few more years.
City Manager Arnold Whitney, who evoked the wrath of history-minded residents by suggesting a few weeks ago that the courthouse be moved or torn down to make way for a municipal parking ramp, said today that the matter had been "blown up" out of proportion.
Whitney said no interest group or group of citizens had actively sought removal of the building.

Groveland Citizens to Map Zoning Fight

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP — A citizens' committee will meet at the Township Hall on Grange Hall Road at 8 p.m. Thursday to organize opposition against a rezoning request by the J. P. Burroughs Co., Saginaw, to allow expansion of its gravel processing operations in the township.
The property in question is a 325-acre parcel owned by William Scramlin and William Marshall. The company has an option to buy the property, between Dixie Highway and Jossman Road, from Oak Hill nearly to Bald Eagle Lake Road.
Burroughs has a gravel processing operation on other land near the Scramlin and Marshall property. The firm said it would take about 10 years to process the gravel on the new site, now zoned residential - agricultural.
A public hearing on the rezoning request was held Jan. 8. Citizen protest was unorganized at that hearing. Planning Board chairman Earl Rhinevault has scheduled a second public hearing for Jan. 29 at 8 p.m. to provide citizens an opportunity to argue their case.
The citizens' committee, organized by

Mrs. James Philips of 3920 Bald Eagle Lake, has contended that expansion of the Burroughs gravel operation could seriously decrease the valuation of homes in the area, most of which she said are in the $40,000 price range.
The committee also believes another quarry might have considerable effect on the water table in the area, which it contends is already low.
Other arguments against the rezoning request the committee will discuss include traffic and safety hazards to children in the area caused by the addition of another road for the gravel trucks and dust control and noise nuisance factors.
BIRMINGHAM — The First Presbyterian Church, 1669 W. Maple, is sponsoring a bloodmobile at the church Jan. 27 from 3 to 9 p.m.
Area residents are urged to participate. Donors can replace blood used by a patient or donate to a self- or group account.

Wool-Incentive
Pay Filing Set

The filing deadline for incentive payments for the 1968 wool marketing year is Jan. 31, it has been announced.
Alfred Haack, chairman of the Oakland County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) committee, announced that all producers who sold wool or unshorn lambs during 1968 would receive an incentive payment on their sales if they apply for the payment at their local ASCS county office by the deadline.
Haack said that, due to the low price producers received for wool this past year, the incentive payment would probably be between 30 and 35 cents per pound for 1968.
The payment will be based on the average price producers received for their wool. The difference between the average price and the incentive price of 67 cents will determine the final price per pound to be paid.
The incentive payment rates will be announced in March with payments to wool producers to be made about April 1.

Pontiac Twp. Drive
Seeks Recall of 4

By TOM GRAY
PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Petitions seeking the recall of four members of the Township Board are being drawn up for circulation by citizens irked by the board's stalemate on planning commission appointments.
Mrs. James H. Klipfel, 830 Lake Angelus Shores, said the petitions will urge recall of Treasurer Mrs. Goldie Mailahn and Trustees John Richardson, Walter Smith and Robert Grusnick.

The four have consistently opposed Supervisor Roy Wahl's attempts to name former Trustees, Claude Arnett and Ronald E. Drake, to the planning commission.
Wahl has also offered the name of Trustee Mrs. Ronald Drake for the commission without success. Mrs. Drake and Clerk Mrs. Greta Block were the only ones to vote in favor of the appointments.
COUNSEL RETAINED
After rejecting Wahl's appointments last week for the fourth time, the board voted to retain legal counsel "to resolve" the problem.
Mrs. Klipfel said the citizens who plan to circulate the petitions are concerned about the use of township money for attorneys' fees in the conflict.
"We don't think it's ethical to use tax money for petty differences like this, when every city and township government is crying for funds," she commented.

Mrs. Klipfel ascribed the hassle to political differences among board members and asserted, "The board is supposed to represent all the people — not just a political party."
PARTY TIES
Wahl is the only Democrat on the board. Arnett and Drake are also Democrats.
Mrs. Mailahn, when asked to comment on the planned petition drive, denied political motivations. "I think people are very misled," she said, "because this is not a political matter, it's a legal matter."
"We can't rezone and we can't take action on planning matters as long as the commission is four members short."
The township treasurer also noted, "There are around 15,000 people in the township, and there must be many more qualified people who could serve on the commission. The board has asked that more names be submitted."
"PRESSURE MIGHT EASE"
Mrs. Klipfel, while forecasting no difficulty in obtaining sufficient signatures, said the political pressure on the board might be eased if the deadlock is resolved.
"We don't want to have trouble," she said. "If the board is willing to get down to business and do the job it's supposed to do, the petitions will be withdrawn."

Kelley Court-Setup Ruling
Affects County, 9 Others

Oakland County, with its multidistrict courts, and nine other similarly organized counties were the object of a legal opinion issued over the weekend by State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.
Kelley ruled that where county seats constitute one district, with outcounty areas one or more other districts, a defendant may object to being tried in a jurisdiction other than that in which he was arrested.
It was explained, however, that the district judge of the jurisdiction involved has final discretion in fixing the trial site, subject to review by a higher court in the event of an appeal.
Kelley's opinion held that if a defendant doesn't raise an objection, there would be no grounds for appeal on the point of trial site.
SIMILAR PLANS
There are 10 counties in which county seats make up one district and the rest of the county another, and in three of these there are no outcounty facilities for holding court.
Most of these counties plan to make courtroom facilities available in existing courthouses — which are in cities which are county seats.
This is not the case in Oakland, however, where court facilities have been set up in each of the nine districts operating within its boundaries.
Kelley's opinion was in request to a question raised by St. Joseph District Judge John Hammond.

The 10 counties involved in the ruling are Saginaw, Genesee, Macomb, Muskegon, Kent, Kalamazoo, Berrien, Jackson, Washtenaw and Oakland.
Those without courtroom facilities outside county seats are Kalamazoo, Jackson and Saginaw.
New Detroit's Film Showing Is Tonight
UTICA — The Utica-Shelby-Sterling Human Relations Council will show the New Detroit Committee film, "The Black Eye" tonight at 8 at Utica Presbyterian Church, River and 19 Mile.
The film covers a full range of subjects within the black community. It was written, produced, filmed and directed by an all-black crew in and around Detroit.
Steven Johnson of the AC Spark Plug Co., Flint, a representative of the New Detroit Committee, will comment on the film and lead a discussion period.

Fuel Strike Talk
Progress Reported

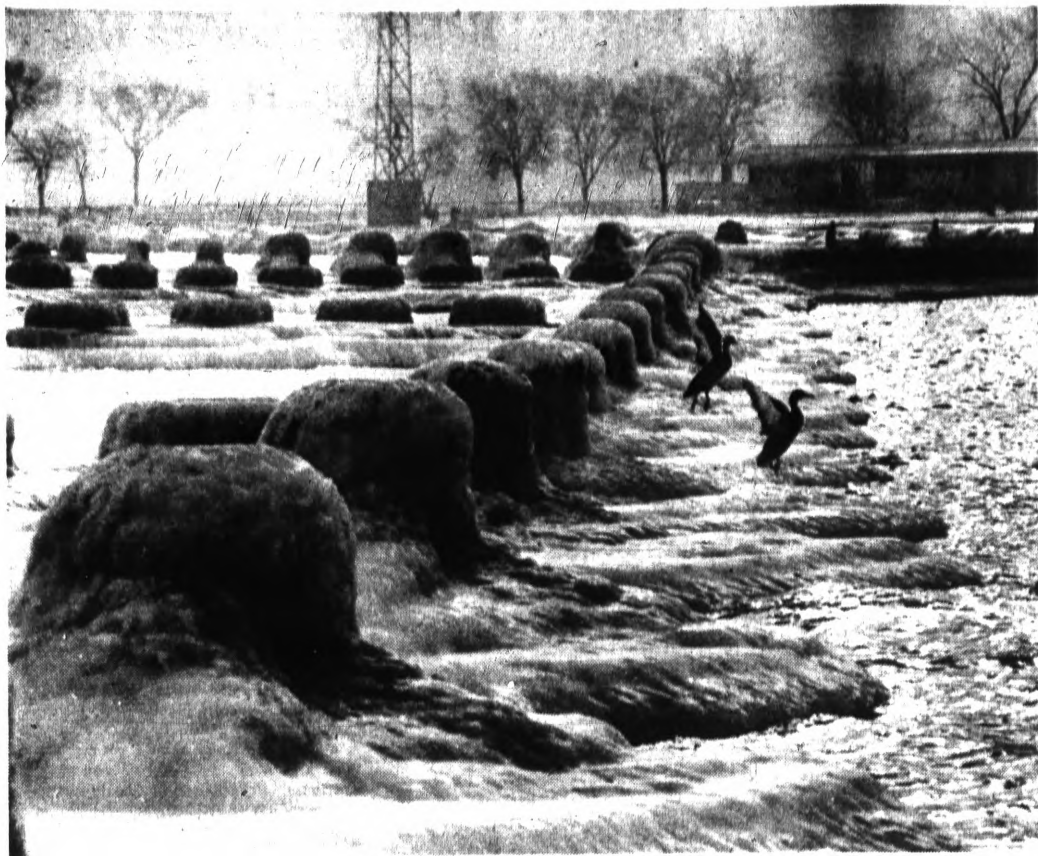

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — No new agreements were reached between the nation's oil companies and the striking Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers (OCAW) yesterday, but a union spokesman said further productive bargaining is expected today.
Two companies met OCAW contract demands Saturday. The American Oil Co. offered an average hourly wage increase of 66.5 cents over the next two years for its 1,000 employees in Texas City, Tex., while Mobile presented a contract offering a 26-cent hourly pay raise for the first year.
Prior to the midnight Jan. 3 strike, oil workers covered by OCAW contracts were averaging $3.80 an hour.
The first company to sign a contract with OCAW was the Pure Oil's contract, signed Friday, set the pace for the other companies by offering a 69.6 hourly raise over the next two years.

It Seems to Me . . .

Top Leadership Is Assured by President Richard Nixon

The United States and the world in general welcome a new President of the greatest nation on earth. Probably no other man, anywhere, carries as much responsibility or is as important.

Happily, for all concerned, RICHARD M. NIXON is keenly aware of the national and international burdens. He is every inch an All-American in all that this implies. Further, he is capable, well tutored in the intricacies that lie around him and the subtle traps that will be laid within and without.

Few men—if any—have ever stepped into the White House with greater preparation or advance training and knowledge. Mr. Nixon has "been around" and that includes all the labyrinths in the District of Columbia and the pitfalls from coast to coast. Further, he has great international perspective.

No one expects revolutionary moves or changes. Anything of that nature would be fatal just in itself. You can't seize a complicated, complex organization with thousands of ramifications, plus myriads of possible pathways, and shove the throttle to the floor. Absolute chaos would result.

There must be a very orderly, cautious and well-calculated series of moves in these complicated structures. Happily, no one knows this any better than President Nixon. Nothing will stampede him into precipitate actions.

He realizes that he faces a stern poverty battle on many fronts. These general circumstances have been glossed over too long. LYNDON B. JOHNSON faced the matter squarely for the first time in our history and deserves warm commendation for apprising the Nation of just where we stood. Here is a challenging circumstance that will require the best efforts of the entire White House contingent. No patent solution will save the day.

President Nixon is also aware of the fact he faces world problems that are astronomical in their size, importance and worldwide significance. Basically, he runs face to face into Vietnam. The President has been guarded and cautious about his plans, but you can bank on the fact he has been studying the situation completely.

The only people who are going to demand instant reform to everything with overnight solutions to problems that are almost insoluble will be his extreme and case-hardened foes. This element will start criticizing as soon as the sun comes up the second day. But it's a tiny minority.

We have an intelligent, analytical and capable administrator in the White House who is self-reliant and yet always willing to listen. We have a man who has been under fire in all sectors and who knows what to expect.

We're fortunate.
We have a great leader.
We must stand behind him staunchly, steadfastly and with the proper encouragement.
Mr. President, this is the kick-off. The ball sails high into the air.

Facts About 1968 . . .

Do you suppose there could be any possible connection between the two facts which follow? Here's Number One:

The year 1968 was the first in which no criminal was executed in the United States.

And then here's fact Number Two which deserves thought and study:

The year 1968 set an all-time record for crime in the United States.

If it's possible that there's any connection between these two, they should be studied by the Nation's courts.

And in Conclusion . . .

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Governor ROCKEFELLER of New York is slowly tightening the GOP reins in that state in his own strong hands. He announces he will seek a fourth term in 1970, just to throw other aspirants off the track. . . . "What's It All About World?"—a TV show February 6—plans to use a still life nude. The censors said "no" but the producers haven't backed away. They're the same group that struggled desperately to get irreverent material on the Smothers Brothers.

BARBARA

Scouts advise me Barbara Ann Hayes deserves mention as one of the area's attractive girls. . . . Overheard: "In 1970 there will be more than 200 million cars on the road and so if you want to cross the street, you better do it now." . . . The past

Holiday season saw an enormous run on cuckoo clocks in London.

Youngster in gas station: "Put in 34 cents worth. That's all I got but it'll get me home and the old man can fill'er up." . . . The last two dozen football games were all "the classic struggle of the year." Bah!

Overheard: "Women's clothes are getting more practical. What wears better than skin?" . . . The all-time top money winners in golf rank in this order: PALMER, $1,026,000; CASPER, $904,000; NICKLAUS, $864,000; BOROS, $713,000; LITTLER, $536,000.

Cleveland has a train that runs from downtown to Hopkins Airport in 20 minutes. It takes an hour in a car. The fare is 35 cents as against $1.60 in the terminal limousine or $6 in a taxi. . . . Black Panther leader ELDRIDGE CLEAVER forfeited $50,000 bail and faded. They think he skipped the country. . . . Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's—RICHARD M. NIXON; the J's—any attempt to disrupt a normal inauguration.

—HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

Strange Bedfellows!

David Lawrence Says:

Oath of Office Is Inaugural Key

WASHINGTON—How many people really understand the true significance of the inauguration of a president of the United States?

It is not an impression to be obtained merely by watching the crowds, the bands and the parades, or by reading about the gala affairs, entertainments and other forms of celebration. Nor is the meaning of the event necessarily revealed in the text of the inaugural address.

The basic and fundamental challenge to a new president is to be found in the 35-word oath he takes. It is contained in the Constitution, and reads as follows:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

It will be noted that the mandate doesn't say "to preserve, protect, and defend" the American people because the Constitution itself explicitly mentions these objectives.

So a president who ignores in any way the obligation to maintain the security of the United States against both external and internal threats isn't carrying out his oath of office.

It is the duty of a president to see that the laws are fairly administered and that governmental power shall not be misused in order to win the political support of factions or groups in sheer violation of what the Constitution itself says.

The United States has become involved in a war in Southeast Asia not only to repel aggression but to stop the Communist regimes in Moscow and Peking from taking over adjacent territories and depriving peoples of their right of self-determination.

Unfortunately, there has arisen an opposition within our country, parts of which at times are treasonable.

Whether or not Communist influences are to some extent back of this, as had been indicated in reports of a committee of the House of Representatives after lengthy investigation, the fact remains that many individuals have organized "antiwar" groups which have, intentionally or unintentionally, given "aid and comfort to the enemy."

The Constitution requires the president to see that laws forbidding treason are enforced.

Taxpayers' funds can help to build not only a peaceful country but a prosperous economy, and there are plenty of constructive reforms which can be made and social welfare projects established.

But the presidential oath commands the chief executive to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution," and this will be the true measure of whether President Nixon is fulfilling his oath of office.

Bob Considine Says:

'Man Nobody Knows' Takes Over Presidency

WASHINGTON — The Man Nobody Knows takes over today from the Man Who Couldn't Hack It.

Richard Milhous Nixon comes on stage bearing a script that only he seems to know in complete detail.

He revealed little or nothing of it during his campaign, best remembered for his ringing "Sock it to 'em!" which was directed more at his hairy hecklers than the tottering punch-drunk Democrats.

Lyndon Baines Johnson, having delivered himself of his "I'm Headin' for the Last Roundup" speech before Congress, rides into the setting sun like an old cowpoke going home to folks who'll understand him and share his suspicion of those perfume-melling, slick-haired intellectuals who done him dirt.

In his well-honed and diligently rehearsed inaugural address today, the new President may let the country and the world have a peek — but perhaps no more than that — at changes he hopes to effect, though for two years at least he will be saddled with a Democratic Congress calculated to give him the back of its hand if he monkeys with what's left of the Great Society.

A REMINDER

In his proud and eventually emotional valedictory, the old President reminded one and all — and the historians — that he achieved unprecedented domestic goals during his years of toil in the White House. And he did. But between every sentence he inserted an unspoken "I don't want to leave with my work undone."

But he was leaving, indeed shutting the door on the one compulsive drive in his life, politics. And he was plainly bugged that the great sacrifice of his abdication elicited only sighs of relief from the courtiers he so completely dominated.

Abraham Lincoln's carriage clopped up to the White House to fetch James Buchanan for the procession to the Capitol, Buchanan said, "If you are as happy about entering this house as I am happy about leaving it, then, my dear sir, you are the happiest man in this country."

There will be no replay of that when Nixon's car purrs under the portico on the morning of the greatest day of his odd, up-and-down life.

The retiring occupant, savoring his last minutes in the great mansion, will not be relieved to be leaving — even for a friendlier clime. For LBJ, giving up the power and the glory must be akin to the agony of surrendering an arm and a leg.

Presley Magic

Kansas City (Mo.) Times

Today's young teens were still in their cribs back in the mid-1950s when a twitchy, sneering youth from Memphis, his hair greased up in a pompadour and his guitar inlaid with ivory, took the world of rock music by storm.

The mothers of America were goaded to outrage by the bumps and grinds that were the Presley trademark. Prudent TV hosts ordered Elvis to sing standing still and told their cameramen not to focus on his frenzied undulations.

But the poor country singer was carried to fame and millions on the shoulders of a generation screaming for such modern classics as "Blue Suede Shoes" and "Houn' Dog."

Alas, Time, the great pianissimo, moderates all. The bobbysoxers of the last decade—who fainted in the footlights, who struggled savagely over torn scraps of shirt from their idol's back, who would have traded youth itself for just one pomaded lock—they're matrons now, married to gas pumpers and stock brokers, big in the PTA, concerned with time payments

Voice of the People:

Believes Smoking Habit Is Unpleasant to Others

This is only for smokers of cigars, pipes and cigarettes who care about other people. You may not inhale your smoke but people around inhale it. Also, the bitter smell of tobacco on your breath is most nauseating to the nonsmokers—especially the cigar and pipe smokers' breath.

I am a nurse and often take care of the heavy smokers dying of cancer. It is a slow, gasping death. I pity both the old and the young who let themselves be hooked by tobacco smoke. It is so very dangerous, foolish and weak.

MRS. E. K. S.

Questions Survey of Students in Area School

Recently 9th graders at Isaac Cray School were given a survey test which I feel was bigoted, exclusive, and had nothing to do with education. They were asked questions like: "I would marry a Negro." "I would date a Negro." "I would not mind a Negro family moving next door." "Do you agree, or not?" were the choices. Where are the same questions about Polish, Jewish and Indian people? What does the education department plan on doing with this survey information, and why was it brought out in the first place?

Also, I feel that unmerited history should not be taught. If a man is great enough to make the history books and has reached the heights of those in the books, he should be there.

Reply to Editorial on Recent OU Incident

The confidence expressed for the administration at Oakland University in your editorial, while optimistically wholesome, some, may not be totally realistic. What action was taken against the "nude guru" when he gave a similar "weird" performance last year? What steps have been taken concerning the instructors? What corrective efforts are under way concerning the degeneration of the college paper to where it now "educates" via juvenile four-letter obscenities? Where is the administrative apology for the public smear of Senator Huber distributed on campus?

You say in the editorial: "you can't take off your clothes in class at OU and escape unnoticed" but you really should add "at least not a second time and as long as men like Senator Huber are around."

DAVID BRADBURY
4066 TELEGRAPH, BLOOMFIELD HILLS

(Editor's Note: The matter is in the hands of campus officials to receive proper action. Senator Huber seems to speak for a small minority of which you must be one. The clipping—from some other paper—on which your letter is based, is largely erroneous.)

Question and Answer

Is there any way to make an Oakland County Deputy enforce the laws of our county and state?

OAKLAND COUNTY TAXPAYER

REPLY

You didn't state your specific complaint and we couldn't reach you by phone. However, Sheriff Irons says he wants to know about any deputy who isn't doing his duty, and if you think you know of such an officer, you should call the Sheriff at FE 5-8194.

Question and Answer

Will you please list the states which have no sales tax, also those that have no state income tax?

TIRED OF TAXES

REPLY

No personal State income tax—Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Maine, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Texas, Washington, Wyoming.

No state sales tax—Alaska, Delaware, Montana, New Hampshire, Oregon, Vermont. Alaska, however, has sales tax in some cities. And remember, all those states have to operate, too, and if they don't get money from these sources, it must come from others. You'll pay one way or another.

Presley Magic

Kansas City (Mo.) Times

Today's young teens were still in their cribs back in the mid-1950s when a twitchy, sneering youth from Memphis, his hair greased up in a pompadour and his guitar inlaid with ivory, took the world of rock music by storm.

The mothers of America were goaded to outrage by the bumps and grinds that were the Presley trademark. Prudent TV hosts ordered Elvis to sing standing still and told their cameramen not to focus on his frenzied undulations.

But the poor country singer was carried to fame and millions on the shoulders of a generation screaming for such modern classics as "Blue Suede Shoes" and "Houn' Dog."

Alas, Time, the great pianissimo, moderates all. The bobbysoxers of the last decade—who fainted in the footlights, who struggled savagely over torn scraps of shirt from their idol's back, who would have traded youth itself for just one pomaded lock—they're matrons now, married to gas pumpers and stock brokers, big in the PTA, concerned with time payments and clogged garbage disposers.

And what of Elvis? He's well past 30, and bearing down on what demographers define as middle age, with a hitch in the Army and a long list of undistinguished motion pictures behind him. But Elvis survives, still topping the record lists long after—by most predictions—obscurity should have swallowed him up again.

On television the other evening, his first such appearance in a decade, there was something wistfully old-fashioned about the Presley gyrations and the Presley big beat. To a new generation that worships the Monkees and selects its toothpaste by "sex appeal," Elvis, for all his animal energy, must seem bland.

But for every teen-ager across the land who slouched away untouched or unmoved by the Presley magic, there must have been a mother eager to put down her dish cloth and take the vacated chair, remembering that splendid madness and shocked to think how very long ago it's been.

Jack for Cuba

New York Daily News

From the Nov. 30 hijacking of an Eastern Airlines plane to Cuba, Red F. Castro's government made $2,472, what with landing fees, weather reports, meals for passengers, etc. It is logical to assume that Castro makes such jack out of each skyjack.

This is another reason why we hope the incoming Nixon administration will crack down like a ton of bricks on the bearded Havana pert-squirt.

He has bankrupted his country, to the point of rationing sugar to his miserable slaves. From here, he looks ripe for overthrow by those slaves with a bit of encouragement from the U.S.A. — say a blockade to keep Soviet Russia from shipping war gear in quantity to him — and the sooner the better.

FIT TO BE TIED?—The Museum of Contemporary Art on Chicago's near north side is wrapped in dark tarpaulin and tied with ropes. Artist Christo Javacheff, who has a whimsy for packaging all manner of things, says he does so to "poeticize material." The building is scheduled to stay under wraps until March 2.

Art Museum Kept Under Wraps

CHICAGO (AP) — The Museum of Contemporary Art is "poeticize material," he says. all wrapped up with no place to A FIRST

The museum is the first building in the United States to be section of Michigan Avenue, is packaged. bundled up in dark tarpaulin and tied with ropes.

Jan van der Marck, museum director, considers the choice most appropriate. He says, "Christo succeeds in parodying assistants. Christo, born Christo all the usual associations with a Javacheff in Bulgaria in 1935, museum: a mausoleum, a re-makes an art of packaging pository of precious contents, a things—nudes, chairs, bicycles, desire to wrap up all of art history."

The Museum of Contemporary Art, which commissioned the packaging, is unlike most museums in that it has no permanent collection. It features changing exhibitions by living artists and stages events in which the viewer may participate.

Why does Christo wrap improbable things?

"VERY BEAUTIFUL"

"I like to do that," he told an interviewer. "I think it is very beautiful."

In contrast to studio painting, his packages are not "make believe" art—they make reality of space, he says.

The packaging of the museum was begun Monday and required 11,000 square feet of tarpaulin and 10,000 feet of manila rope. The building, made of white-painted brick, is 94 by 103 by 24 feet.

Christo also packaged the museum's basement gallery with off-white tarpaulin, as well as the starway leading down to it. Upstairs he has packaged in plastic a tree lying on its side, and the museum's vertical free-standing sign also is packaged in plastic.

SIDE ENTRANCE

The wraps will stay on until March 2. Meanwhile, visitors may enter the museum through a door-size opening on one side.

Previously, Christo draped the Bern Kunsthalle—art gallery—in Switzerland in polyethylene. And he wrapped a church facade, a fountain and a medieval tower for the Spoleto Festival in Italy last summer. At the Kassel Documenta in Germany last summer he wrapped a 280-foot-high column of air.

Pile Treatment Works Wonders For California Couple

Treatment Shrinks Piles, Relieves Pain In Most Cases

Sacramento, Cal. Mrs. C. Arnold of this city reports: "I can't contain myself any longer to write you about wonderful Preparation H for hemorrhoids. My husband has also been using same and it's doing wonders for him."

(Note: Doctors have proved in most cases—Preparation H® actually shrinks inflamed hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from pain, burning and itching. The swelling is gently reduced. There's no other formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids like doctor-tested Preparation H. It also lubricates to make bowel movements more comfortable, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.)

Junior Editors Quiz on CONSTITUTION

QUESTION: When and why was the Constitution written?

ANSWER: Starting in 1781, Americans had the Articles of Confederation which had been approved by Congress in 1777. But the Articles did not give Congress enough authority to act in national matters. Leaders like Washington, Hamilton and Madison pointed out this weakness.

As a result, the states agreed to draw up a new constitution.

No one man, by himself, can be said to have written the wonderful document which was signed September 17, 1787. Its ideas were worked out by discussion and compromise. It was the result of a meeting of brilliant minds, of men with different points of view, who were inspired to pool the best of their thinking for the general welfare.

James Madison, by his particular ability to bring opposing ideas together, contributed so much that he is often called the Father of the Constitution.

But the man who took the ideas as worked out and put them into final words was Gouverneur Morris, and in this sense, Morris was the man who actually wrote the Constitution, even if the ideas back of the words had been worked out by many others.

(You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Year-book if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Italy, Birthplace of Opera, Now Turning to Pop

ROME (AP) — Opera is fading, and there have been few new operas of any note. Perhaps the last of the famed bel canto has given way to the pop song.

The change has come despite desperate efforts of the country's great old conservatories of music and the massive subsidy of $20.8 million a year paid by the Italian government to the nation's opera houses.

Italy's 17 opera theaters still are full or nearly full during the opera season, but often half the tickets are free handouts to keep up appearances.

The old opera classics have failed to attract a new genera-

The average Italian still sings, but it is the pop music of television shows and the disc and tape recordings.

TOSCO' WHO?
At a recent quiz for teen-age music fans on Italy's state-run television, 10 out of 10 youths knew the name of the wife of pop singer Gianni Morandi, but not one could remember who composed "Tosca" (It was Puccini).

While the lyric theaters held their hands out for state subsidy, Italy's television was paying out $1.92 million in lottery prizes pegged to a weekly competition among pop singers.

GI and Dog Work Well in Viet Action

LONG BINH, Vietnam (UPI) — "He's issued to me; he's a soldier, you know, a career man."

Spec. 4 Charles Freeland of Mampa, Idaho, describes his big black Labrador retriever this way, and perhaps Shane thinks of Freeland in just the same manner.

For both belong to a Vietnam combat tracker team. Both took the same basic obedience course, and once they got to know each other, they became inseparable.

"Once when I was sick and had to go to the hospital, Shane came with me and slept under my bed", Freeland said. "Then I did the same sort of thing for him. He needed a checkup at Long Binh and there we were."

SMART DOG

Freeland described his powerful tracker dog as really smart.

"When he tracks down the enemy, he doesn't start barking and running for them; he just perks up his head and points in their direction. He's well-trained, believe me."

Freeland and Shane were enrolled in a two-month course at the jungle warfare school before arriving in Vietnam for point duties with infantry units.

Eventually, however, man and dog will be separated. When Freeland rotates back to the United States, Shane will stay on in Vietnam. Once a combat dog in Vietnam, you never go home.

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP) — David Raymond Johnson, 17, hit the fire hydrant at Vincent and Walnut Creek Parkway with his car and sheared off the hydrant. While firemen worked to cap the gushing water Saturday, two other youths ran off with the hydrant.

Slighted Southpaws Survive

WASHINGTON — An Romans posted slaves at their estimated 300 million people doors to assure that arriving guests put their best foot forward. In time, the servants afflicted Benjamin Franklin, forward. In time, the servants Babe Ruth, Leonardo da Vinci, became known as footmen. Michelangelo, Charlemagne and Alexander the Great. Each was left-handed in a everyday products are designed with the right hand in mind: telephones, scissors, wristwatches, adding machines, gearshifts, fountain pens, baseball diamond — have been misunderstood since earliest times.

“Southpaws” — a term that apparently originated on the misunderead since earliest times.

The left side traditionally was linked with evil and left-handedness with dullards.

The devil was popularly depicted as being left-handed. The Romans had a word for left — sinister.

BEST FOOT FIRST

Considering it unwise to enter a house left foot first, rich plays a role.

A neurologist succinctly summed up knowledge of the subject: “You can put all we know about left-handedness on one page.”

In recent years, the world has become somewhat easier for this sizable minority. Manufacturers now turn out left-handed golf clubs, egg beaters, fishing reels, desks, and other articles. Some banks furnish left-handed checkbooks, the stubs to the right of the checks.

Turks Flood Aussie Firm Seeking Jobs

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — A clothing manufacturer, Yakka Pty. Ltd., offered a job to a Turkish migrant, and in on time had 40 Turks on the pay roll.

When 160 Turks from Istanbul meadows migrant hostel, Yakka was asked to help some of the new settlers get jobs.

The company's personnel officer, Herb Falvy, advised that one woman could be employed. But when she arrived for her first day's work, she had 19 other women with her, believing all had been offered jobs.

Rather than disappoint them, the company put all 20 to work. But then Herb Falvy's troubles really began. The women's husbands arrived looking for their wives. So Herb put them on the payroll, too.

BUSES TO WORK

Now the Yakka company has a section of the machine room manned entirely by Turkish women. A section of the automatic presses is manned by Turkish men. Yakka has hired a bus to take them to and from work each day.

PRESIDENT NIXON

HIGH SHOES, sailor suit and Buster Brown haircut were the fashion for 4-year-olds when Richard Milhous Nixon had this portrait made in 1918.

NIXON'S BIRTHPLACE in Yorba Linda, Calif., was dedicated as a shrine when he became vice-president; has become tourist attraction since recent election. Present plans call for its conversion into a museum.

FIRST PUBLIC ATTENTION for Richard Nixon came when, as member of the House Un-American Activities Committee, he was credited with breaking the Alger Hiss case. Here he looks at film of stolen documents.

VICE-PRESIDENT NIXON posed with his mother in 1958 when he visited her California home. She died in 1967 at 82. Nixon's father died in 1956.

The Cautious Man

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
NEA Washington Correspondent

Richard Nixon as president will move with caution both at home and abroad, and he most likely will be at his best when he is confronting foreseeable situations whose elements he can in some part control.

His presidential campaign and indeed his whole public career reveal caution to be his hallmark. At root he is not a risk taker, accepting only those he must and then within a framework that acts to minimize what dangers he can.

Nixon now and then surprises his watchers with bursts of boldness. But there is some reason to believe he does these things mostly to confound his critics, to take the curse of predictability off his course of action.

It might be argued that a cautious man is hardly one suited to the demanding tasks of settling the Vietnam war and the baffling crisis of the cities. Nevertheless, with luck he may come through his four years with quite high marks.

Being a cautious type, he is unlikely to raise too high the expectations of troubled Americans of 1969. He comes to office less encumbered by specific promises than almost any president in recent memory.

He did pledge, in a general but not sweeping way, to do something about the war, about crime, about unrest. But his options are wide open. Almost any gains he makes will look big on the credit side.

The Nixon administration will not be primarily a "legislative" regime but one in which the president seeks to spur groups within society to move to solve problems at less than federal level in a spirit of mutual and self-help.

Nixon will be tested sorely in the foreign field. His indicated path is one of caution, short of a new isolationism. He wants all our commitments re-examined with a view to avoiding the mistakes of overreaching suggested by Vietnam. He wants a new look at the internal machinery designed to aid the president in making foreign policy decisions.

If fortune is with him, if the private sector responds well and he is able to steer his way cautiously through more dilemmas than any three administrations should have to face, he may be well placed for his bid for a second term in 1972.

But if the unexpected develops—war in the unforeseen quarter, recession, unbridled domestic strife—then there is no telling. No one can guess how effective and sure-handed the response will be from the man who has spent a lifetime trying to avoid crisis, suffering when he could not.

HAPPY HUGGERS, Richard Nixon and wife Pat showed unrestrained glee when he was nominated in 1952 as the Republican vice-presidential candidate. The Eisenhower-Nixon team went on to win in '52 and again in '56.

CAMPAIGNERS CROSSED TRAILS in Chicago before taking off for different destinations. Kennedy and Nixon later met in famous 1960 debates at which the GOP hopeful fared badly. Debates are generally credited with giving JFK the edge.

AFTER DEFEAT in 1962 California gubernatorial race, Nixon was firmly saddled with "loser" image and considered by many to be in political oblivion. He left his native state to live in New York.

VICTORY AT LAST and President-elect Nixon strikes a victorious pose with wife Pat, daughters Tricia and Julie and Julie's then-fiance David Eisenhower. Julie and David were married Dec. 22.

WINNING SMILE is flashed by the new President, who achieved an unprecedented political miracle. To dispel "loser" image, Nixon fought the "battle of the primaries"—and won.

Nixon Relaxes at D.C. Concert

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Nixon approached the moment of his inauguration in a warm, mellow mood, finding it hard to express his feelings or restrain the instincts of a campaigner.

"Great moments are hard to describe," Nixon said Sunday night as he relaxed with his family in the presidential box at Constitution Hall for the inaugural concert.

A cheering ovation greeted the president-elect and his family as they took their seats for an all-American program that began with everyone singing the National Anthem and ended with the Nixons joining in "America the Beautiful."

Nixon also joined in the prolonged applause for the artists — 21-year-old pianist Andre Watts; pretty, dark-haired Philadelphia-born soprano Anna Moffo; the National Symphony Orchestra and the 375-member Salt Lake Mormon Tabernacle Choir.

Then, impulsively, he turned to his aides and asked "Can I go down there?" pointing to the stage filled with performers. In minutes, he was down there, his arm around symphony conductor Howard Mitchell, Watts and Miss Moffo, offering them congratulations and giving a big wave to the audience.

Nixon had spent the brief intermission talking to the performers and VIPs in a private off-stage reception room.

He stepped out of the tight security guard to chat a bit with reporters as he came and went.

WITH THE FAMILY

With the Nixon family was the president-elect's 85-year-old aunt, Mrs. Jane Beeson of Whittier, Calif., who taught him how to play the piano as a youngster.

Nixon said he and his aunt agreed that young Watts' performance was "magnificent." He said that she had chided him: "If you practiced, you might have been (down) there."

The concert, a tradition of inaugural festivities since 1933, was the first event in which Nixon participated. His wife, Pat, and daughters, Tricia, 22, and Julie, 20, and Julie's husband David Eisenhower, made the rounds of some private parties earlier.

Julie and David also dropped in for a visit with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower at Walter Reed Army Hospital, where he is recovering from several heart attacks.

Oath-Taking Caps Rise to Fame for Spiro

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spiro T. Agnew, who helped his Greek immigrant father hawk vegetables on the streets of Baltimore during the Depression, caps a meteoric political rise today by taking the oath of office as the nation's new vice president.

The 50-year-old Agnew, whose father's name was Anagnostopoulos, didn't even enter politics until 1962 when he was elected Baltimore County executive. He became Maryland governor two years ago. He is the first vice president since Henry Wallace in 1940 that did not serve in Congress.

Agnew selected Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen to administer the oath, using his daughter Pamela's Bible opened to the 100th Psalm, which reads, in part, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord."

Agnew, in an inaugural-evening news conference, said he looks forward to tackling the problems of urban America and indicated he would have a major announcement about those problems in America's largest city soon.

URBAN PROBLEMS

Agnew said he would primarily devote his energies to problems of the cities, but he said he hoped to move gradually into foreign policy matters.

Agnew said the inaugural ceremonies are more than a celebration of the accomplishments of any one man. "It is a rededication to our highest ideals of government. Only in the United States is the transfer of power done with such lucidity and with so little rancor."

Agnew originally had planned to take the oath of office on a 40-pound Bible used by the first governors of Maryland. The Bible is now in St. Ann's Episcopal Church in Annapolis, Md. Plans to use it were canceled when it was determined that the 262-year-old Bible was too fragile to move.

KEEPING WATCH The U.S. Capitol Building is reflected in the rain-covered street yesterday as a policeman stands guard over the stands set up for today's inauguration. A tight security watch is in force.

Security Is Tightest Ever for Inaugural

WASHINGTON (AP) — Up to 20,000 soldiers and police, including out-of-town experts known for their ability to spot pickpockets, con men and psychopaths, formed the tightest security today ever devised for the inauguration of an American president.

Focal point of the security was the stand in front of the Capitol set up for Richard Nixon's oath-taking, the inaugural parade route from there to the White House and the presidential viewing stand on the sidewalk before the executive mansion.

Bulletproof glass protected the front of both the inaugural and viewing stands with flanking panes extending back diagonally to deflect shots from any angle.

Along the parade route, manhole covers were locked shut, roofs were cleared of all but uniformed personnel and every last building on both sides of broad Pennsylvania Avenue was barred to all but those with special passes, including permanent occupants.

OUT OF SIGHT

Atop the inaugural and viewing stands, concealed from sight, special agents armed with automatic weapons scanned the throngs with wide-angle devices.

Other precautions included helicopters loaded with Secret Service agents hovering over the car carrying Richard M. Nixon and Lyndon Johnson to the Capitol and another patroling several blocks to the side.

The 10,000 regular troops of the military district of Washington lined the two-mile parade route although they carried no weapons.

On duty throughout the city were 7,700 National Guardsmen, some downtown, others riding with city police in outlying areas.

All 3,200 city policemen were on duty, plus 300 reservists on special assignment.

FOR INAUGURAL OATH Richard Nixon placed a hand on these two Bibles when he took the oath of office today in Washington. Both will be open to Isaiah 2:4. The verse reads, "And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plow shares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

Johnson Plans Quiet Exit After Escorting Successor

WASHINGTON (AP) — While Richard M. Nixon stands in the spotlight today as the nation's 37th President, Lyndon B. Johnson quietly leaves the national capital, a private citizen for the first time in 32 years.

The plans called for Johnson, after escorting Nixon to the Capitol for the oath-taking ceremonies, to have a quiet lunch with outgoing Defense Secretary Clark Clifford and then fly on an Air Force plane to his ranch in Texas.

While Johnson has said he has looked forward to exchanging the 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. address of the White House for Ranch Road No. 1, Johnson City, Tex., his last days in office as 36th president have been filled with sentiment and expressions of good will.

"I'm leaving this town with nothing but gratitude and love in my heart," he said.

JOIN MOTORCADE

The Johnson family, leaving the White House for the last time as residents about 11:10 a.m. EST, first join the motorcade that will carry Nixon to the Capitol for the oath-taking ceremony.

Leaving with him were his wife, Lady Bird, their two married daughters, Lynda Robb and Luci Nugent, and grandchildren, 18-month-old Lyn Nugent and 3-month-old Lucinda Robb.

True to form, Johnson spent Sunday, his final full day as president, working for hours in his office cleaning up some final details.

He went to church in the morning. The Marine Corps band came by later to serenade him while the Johnsons stood on a balcony.

JOHNSON PRAYER

During the church service, the minister read a prayer written by Johnson in which he asked God to "deliver us from the follies of power and pride."

"Show us the uses of our strengths that will make life better on this earth for all Thy children. In season and out, help us to hold to the purpose Thou has taught us, feeding the hungry, healing the sick, caring for the needy, trusting our young, training them up in the way that they should go."

Johnson urged the Lord to help the nation rid itself of bigotry, hate and violence, especially in Washington, D.C.

"Watch over his city and keep it from strife and sorrow," he wrote.

The differences, the criticisms, seem to have melted these last few days in the mellowness of goodbyes.

It's like the signs on the backs of the city buses—"Farewell and Best Wishes, President Lyndon B. Johnson."

Body of Missing Fireman Found; Widow Arrested

SANFORD, Fla. (AP) — Two detectives who broke into an abandoned house on a hunch found the body of a city fireman missing since last June, Police Chief Ben Butler said Sunday.

The body of Bobby Thompson, 32, was found jammed into a 30-by-30-inch linen closet at the house where he lived with his family. Thompson's widow, Mabel Frances Thompson, 25, was arrested Sunday on a first-degree murder charge.

Butler said Detective Sgts. Donald Brumley and Ralph Russell knew that Mrs. Thompson and her three children had moved out of the house.

"When Brumley and Russell learned the house was being repossessed, they suspected the body might be there and they broke in and found it," he said.

Nixon's Reign Off to Rainy, Blustery Start

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau says there is a 90 per cent chance for rain for the inauguration of Richard M. Nixon as the nation's 37th president today.

In addition, the forecast called for northeasterly winds, gusting to 25 miles per hour during the swearing-in ceremonies, plus temperatures reaching into the mid-40s.

5,000 March at Counterinauguration

New President No. 1 Target

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anti-war demonstrators, holding their own inauguration, have elevated Richard M. Nixon to the position of No. 1 target for their protests.

Even before taking the oath as the 37th president today, Nixon was made sharply aware of what life in the bull's eye is going to be like.

Nixon masks and effigies, were featured in a counterinaugural parade staged by 5,000 demonstrators Sunday. Signs calling the new President criminal and the tool of billionaires bobbed in the straggling throng as it moved along Pennsylvania Avenue in the opposite direction of Nixon's route to the White House.

The youthful marchers also blighted a reception for the new vice president, Spiro T. Agnew, at the Smithsonian Institution. They jeered arriving guests and threw stones and firecrackers at a few of them before mounted police drove the demonstrators from the entrance.

2 POLICE INJURED

Two policemen were injured by hurled objects, but no guests were hurt and no injuries were reported among the demonstrators, who gave ground readily in the face of the police action.

Park police reported arresting five youths in the Smithsonian incidents, and the metropolitan police arrested 10 others during the parade. But for the most part, march leaders succeeded in their announced aim of keeping the demonstration peaceful and orderly.

An attempt by some demonstrators to haul down an American flag in front of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration building at the foot of Capitol Hill was thwarted by a small band of marchers who rugged the base of the flagpole and kept the others back.

What organization the demonstration had was furnished by David Dellinger, chairman of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, and a veteran of the peace march on the Pentagon in 1967 and last summer's disorders at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

But the marchers were a widely disparate group of young people, mostly from eastern and midwestern states, who seemed united mainly in their youth and their opposition to the Vietnam War.

The biggest disruption was to traffic, already a problem as thousands of visitors for the inauguration clogged the streets. Blocked at one intersection by the passing parade was a busload of Marines who leaned out the windows and traded insults with the demonstrators.

Perhaps the persons most outraged at the demonstration, however, was a well-dressed group of Republicans picking their way in furs and shiny shoes through the sodden grass to the Smithsonian reception in order to avoid the entrance where the youths were jammed. "I, this right," said a woman to her escort. "The hippies have the sidewalk and the establishment has to walk in the mud."

GIFT FROM JOHNSONS—President and Mrs. Johnson are leaving as a gift for future presidential youngsters this small, hidden and as yet unfinished garden on the White House grounds. In the foreground is a plaque announcing the gift; the two next to it contain the footprints of Patrick Lyndon Nugent and the handprints of Lucinda Desha Robb, both in bronze.

PROTESTERS GATHER — Protest signs and flags are carried by a group of demonstrators outside the Treasury Building in Washington yesterday before the start of a counterinaugural march. The demonstrators are protesting the inauguration of Richard Nixon.

Horses to Spacecraft Models

Procession Will Have Variety

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There'll be something for everyone, from horse lovers to moon-flight fans, in Richard M. Nixon's 2½-hour inaugural parade.

Millions of Americans will watch on television as the parade moves down historic Pennsylvania Avenue from the Capitol to the White House. Perhaps half a million will brave the weather and traffic jams to watch in person.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. today shortly after the new president takes his oath of office at the official inaugural ceremony on the Capitol steps.

For horse lovers, there will be three of the famous Austrian Lippizaners, the Arizona Comancheros, the Culver Black Horse Troop from Culver Military Academy in Indiana, and the Mounted Patrol of Long Beach, Calif.

NASA MODEL

Moon-flight fans will be interested in a float, sponsored by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), displaying a full-size model of the lunar landing craft in which American astronauts will try to land on the moon's surface later this year.

Those who get a thrill out of marching military units will see the handsomely trained cadets of West Point, Annapolis, the Air Force Academy, the Coast Guard Academy and the Merchant Marine Academy.

And fanciers of band music will be treated to the tooting, thumping and twirling of 56 high school, college, civil and military bands. The average band will boast more than 100 pieces, and the New York State University Marching Band will weigh in with 250 musicians.

Thirty-four states will be represented by floats. Theoretically, the floats are supposed to reflect the official parade theme chosen by Nixon: "Forward Together."

TOURISM ADS

But the opportunity to grab a little free commercial time on the TV networks often proves irresistible, so that some floats turn out to be rolling advertisements for the tourist at-

LAST-MINUTE DETAILS — Workers on both sides of rain-dampened Pennsylvania Avenue make final checks on inaugural stands for today's major events. The covered stand at the top is directly in front of the White House. Richard Nixon and his family will watch the inaugural parade from the stand, protected by bulletproof glass.

tractions and industrial advantages of the sponsoring states.

California, Nixon's home state, and Maryland, home state of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, will have the places of honor in the parade. They'll be followed by other states in the order of their admission to the Union, with Delaware first and Hawaii bringing up the rear.

To add variety to the usual state entry of a band and/or float, Indiana is sending the Indianapolis Police Department's trick-riding motorcycle team. Minnesota will be represented by an all-girl drill team; Michigan by some high stepping Elks (the human kind) from the French Dukes drill team of Ann Arbor; and the Virgin Islands by a steel band and native dancers.

Inaugural planners are determined that this year's parade shall begin and end on schedule. If they bring it off, it will be an historic achievement. Most inaugural parades begin late and run overtime. Dwight E. Eisenhower in 1952 was kept in the chilly reviewing stand in front of the White House for nearly five hours. John F. Kennedy's 1961 parade ran on for nearly an hour after dark.

ORGANIZING MAN

To keep things moving this year, the Inaugural Committee has enlisted the expert help of Terry Chambers, who has been organizing the famous Rose Bowl parade in Pasadena, Calif., for 18 years. Chambers was tapped at the personal suggestion of Nixon, who was impressed with the way the Rose Bowl parade was handled. Nixon, Agnew, their wives, congressional leaders, Cabinet officers, the governors of all 50 states and other dignitaries will lead the parade down "the Avenue of Presidents" in automobiles, disembarking at the White House to review the following parade units from a specially constructed stand.

Reserved seats in the choice area in front of the White House cost $25 each, and sold out some time ago. About 35,000 other seats in temporary bleachers along the avenue were offered to the public, first come first served, at prices ranging from $4 to $18, depending on location. Standing room is free and plentiful.

In case any of the marchers or spectators require medical attention, more than 200 doctors, nurses and first aid attendants will be standing by at 37 medical aid stations along the parade route. Television viewers at home will have to provide their own aspirin.

Baboons Do Well in Cold

CHICAGO (AP) — The baboons have been left out in the cold at Brookfield Zoo this year and they seem to be thriving on it.

Zoo Director Peter Crowcroft reports they may get a bit cold sitting in the snow but their coats are thick and gleaming and they are healthier than in past years, when they wintered indoors.

LEAVING NEW YORK — Richard Nixon enters a car outside his Fifth Avenue residence yesterday, preparing to leave for Washington where he takes up residence at the White House.

Eisenhower Gesture Embarrasses Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon telephoned former President Dwight D. Eisenhower Sunday night and said he was embarrassed when his former boss told him he won't be calling him Dick any more.

Nixon spent about 15 minutes on the telephone with the man he served as vice president.

"This is the last time I can call you Dick for a while," Eisenhower was quoted as saying to Nixon, sworn in as 37th president today.

"That is very, very embarrassing for me," Nixon replied. Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler reported that segment of the conversation but the rest of their talk was private.

Eisenhower is at Walter Reed Army Hospital convalescing after suffering a series of heart attacks.

U.S.-Europe Split Over NATO Arms Mix Still Unhealed

By CARL HARTMAN
BRUSSELS (AP) — Looking back on years of cooperation in Atlantic defense, officials of the Johnson administration believe they have gone a long way toward reconciling European and American ideas about the right mix of nuclear and nonnuclear weapons in their arsenal.

The new administration has quite a way to go.

That was shown in a clash last week between British Defense Minister Denis Healey and U.S. deputy defense secretary, a North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting. It was the Johnson administration's last appearance at a big international conference.

MADE POINTS

Nitze made these points:

The European members of NATO are wealthier and more populous than the Soviet Union and its allies. The NATO countries have more men under arms than the East bloc, even discounting U.S. troops in Vietnam. The cost of bringing NATO's conventional forces to the point where they match the conventional forces of the Warsaw Pact would be marginal, compared to the money the West Europeans are already serving and capacity for rapid mobilization.

To begin with, they have the underpinning of more than 300,000 American troops on their soil.

U.S. officials declined to be pinned down on what the cost would be of increasing conventional NATO forces to match the Warsaw Pact. They spoke in terms of a 5 to 10 per cent increase in spending. The shortcoming, they said, is not in manpower or equipment, but in training, maintenance of re-

BRITISH PESSIMISM

Healey took a pessimistic view of the chances of increasing European defense budgets by that much. Military plans, he said, had to be based on realistic spending plans.

He saw NATO forces in Europe as greatly outnumbered, presumably by the troops the Soviets could bring in quickly from their hinterland.

If they attacked suddenly and in force, he said, they would be able to make great incursions, and nuclear weapons would have to be used in a day or two.

Many West Europeans have been partial to the doctrine of "massive retaliation," the idea that only the threat of nuclear weapons aimed at the Soviet Union prevents an invasion of Western Europe. The possibility of another war on European soil with modern weapons, even nonnuclear weapons, has been too terrible for them to think about. And reliance on the American nuclear umbrella for negotiations and prevent the use of even tactical nuclear weapons in Europe, which might bring Soviet attacks on nuclear weapons. This is a job in which Britain and West Germany are now taking a major part.

This doctrine helps create a market for U.S. weapons in Europe—a consideration that rates high with some Americans who advocate it.

The Europeans have gone along with "flexible response," U.S. administration, which will but Healey's reaction to Nitze's control of nuclear weapons in the aftermath of his acceptance. Speaking

SPRING SOLUTION

They are expected to come up with their ideas in the spring. It will then be seen to what extent they are acceptable to the new U.S. administration, which will but Healey's reaction to Nitze's control of nuclear weapons in the aftermath of his acceptance. Speaking

28-Death Air Crash Laid to Turbulence

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago Tribune reported in a copy-righted story Saturday that air turbulence created by an intercontinental jet departing O'Hare International Airport was the probable cause of the crash of the North Central airliner Dec. 27, killing 28 persons.

A new safety seat with built-in shoulder belts is being developed for automobiles for use in 1971.

OUT OF CONTROL

Thomis said the violence of the cyclones "was such that the plane, probably flying 120 miles per hour, was flipped into a near-vertical left bank. It shuddered violently, changed direction 90 degrees to the left and continued to fly even though out of control of its crew."

"The flight path continued for almost 1,200 feet from the previous approach lane," the Tribune said. "Then the left wing touched the ground, broke off, and the remainder of the wreck smashed through the weighty full-span doors of Braniff Airways' hangars near O'Hare's northwest corner."

The Tribune reported it had learned from aircraft industry sources the present analysis of the accident by federal investigators.

The newspaper reported, "Federal investigators believe a Boeing 320 Intercontinental jet crew delayed between 10 and 25 seconds after their takeoff clearance, and this permitted the smaller Convair plane to be very close to the runway end as the big jet got rolling."

TRAGEDY

The captain and first officer of the North Central jet were killed in the crash.

Of the 45 persons aboard the airliner, 27 were killed. Also killed was a 15-year-old member of an American Legion drum and bugle corps in suburban Chicago. The corps was practicing in the hanger at the time of the accident.

A former Upper Peninsula resident, Mary Jean Peltier, 41, of Dayton, Ohio, died in the crash. Bark River resident,

State Men Argue; One Shot 4 Times

DOUGLAS (UPI) — A Saugatuck man was shot in the back at least four times Sunday after getting into an argument with a companion with whom he had been target shooting.

James Buswell, 24, underwent emergency surgery at Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids late yesterday and was described in critical condition. Buswell had staggered to a trailer home 1 1/2 miles south of here and told the occupants he had been shot.

He told officials that his children, Robin, 5, and Jay, 6, were in his station wagon while he and David Arndt, 21, were target shooting. The children told investigators the two men had argued and Arndt had shot Buswell. Arndt was arrested.

NASA Planners Ask Study of Reusable Space Vehicles

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Suppose one dollar to put a pound of manned space flight, has made every time you flew in a jet payload into orbit around the transport from one coast to another. The orbital cost now other, the airplane was then ranges from $500 to $18,000 a pound.

Suppose this was done over and over again.

In the course of time, the expense of transporting thousands of people back and forth across North America would add up to the throw-away cost of flying just three Apollo astronauts on space stations and moon bases. Costs have got to come down.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) estimates the cost of the Apollo 8 moon flight at $310 million.

REUSABLE ITEMS

The only items left over from the Apollo 8 mission that could be used again are the astronauts themselves, their colleagues on the ground, the launch and control centers, and the far-flung communications and recovery systems.

The $185-million rocket and the $55-million spacecraft will never fly again. Considering the grandeur of the Apollo 8 voyage and its tonic effect on an unhappy world, there are those who feel it was worth every cent of what it cost.

But what about the space future, as the planners see it — a future filled with orbiting observatories, factories and planetary launch pads on the moon? This future cannot come into being on the basis of the present use-and-discard practice. So NASA is ordering studies on reusable spacecraft and reusable rockets.

A Look at What's Up as Presidents Switch

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Each time the presidency changes hands, the U.S. capital goes through a difficult period of readjustment.

The transition isn't especially hard on members of the incoming administration. Most of them already are accustomed to the ways of the new president.

And those who aren't can quickly adapt themselves to his style without having to break themselves of any conflicting habits they may have picked up from his predecessor.

Members of the administration also have it relatively easy. Most of them follow their leader out of town and thus are spared the necessity of reorienting themselves.

TOUGH PERIOD

But those of us who are more or less permanent fixtures here, the transition is a trial and a tribulation.

The influence of a president extends far beyond government and politics. His personal eccentricities and idiosyncrasies are pervasive as well.

If golf is his bag, Washingtonians drop the bowling balls they had purchased during the previous administration and head for the links.

If one president drinks heavily, nobody would be caught dead sober.

TREND-SETTER

If the next president is a teetotaler, everybody joins Alcoholics Anonymous.

The Johnson-to-Nixon handoff is the fourth White House changeover I have been through, and each time it takes more out of me. Guess I'm not as flexible as I once was.

At any rate, I am steeling myself for a rough interval of ups and downs.

Up, for instance, with cottage cheese doused with ketchup. Down with chili sauce. Up with meat loaf. Down with barbecue.

UP PRAGMATISM

Up with Whittier. Down with Johnson City. Up with beaches and the Gulf Stream. Down with ranches and the Perdenales.

Up with pragmatism and togetherness. Down with great societies and consensus. Up with 5 o'clock shadows. Down with the gall stones. Up with tape recorders. Down with telephones.

MSU Crop Experts Using New Tool in Weed Battle

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University crop scientists have come up with a research tool they hope will help them determine the best way to kill weeds.

The tool is an "injection blade," mounted on the seed planter.

The blade—a flat, V-shaped metal plate about 14 inches wide—can put a highly concentrated band of herbicide beneath a layer of soil at predetermined distances above or below the seed.

In experiments, for instance, the researchers placed herbicide one inch above the seed and found the method giving weed control equal to or better than conventional spraying of a variety of chemicals.

ADVANTAGES

"The injection blade offers several advantages over conventional spraying," report Dr. William Meggitt, an MSU crop scientist, and graduate researchers John Schrader and Jerry Doll.

They say a layer of soil placed over the herbicide band prevents evaporation of some chemicals. This weed-control method, they add, is not dependent on rainfall to sift chemicals down into the soil.

Since distance of application from the seed is controlled, they say, seed injury from burning can be eliminated.

Their blade-application method now is being used primarily as a research tool in MSU fields and laboratories, Meggitt says. The crop scientists hope to gather information on what happens to seeds, weed shoots and roots. If they can determine whether chemicals attack germinating weeds through the roots or the shoots, they'll know better where chemicals should be placed for most effective use.

A chemical placed one inch below the seed, for instance, could be most effective if the weed roots absorb it. If the shoots are the absorbing agents, the chemicals should be placed differently, Meggitt says.

"This (injection) method provides us with a way of studying the uptake of chemicals," he explains. "We can say this herbicide performs thus and so, because we know precisely where we placed it."

Meggitt has been working on the development for some three years, trying applications at different levels of the soil.

"We arbitrarily selected depths to really determine what happened," he says, adding that researchers found more cases in which the weeds absorbed the herbicide through the shoot, rather than through the root.

"The shoot is playing a more important role," Meggitt says, citing previous ideas that indicated the root was the important part. "But as a researcher," he adds, "I'm not ready to say which is which."

Lone Woman at 500-Man Base Is Happy

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. (AP) — Susie Ward is a seaman in the Spars, the women's branch of the U.S. Coast Guard. She is tall, blonde, attractive—and the only woman among 500 men stationed at the Elizabeth City Coast Guard base.

Does she like the duty? "I've been treated very well here, really better than any place I've ever been," said Susie.

The daughter of a Navy captain and a native of Norfolk, Va., Seaman Susie said the only problem she has faced came on her first day at the base.

She reported early one Saturday morning, and the sentry at the main gate didn't know where to send her nor to what sleeping quarters to assign her. The officer of the day was summoned and he too was stumped for an answer.

OFF BASE

Finally, Susie spent the night in Elizabeth City with the wife of a yeoman who was on duty, and the next day the Coast Guard found living quarters for her in the city—a few miles from the base.

There's just one thing—in February another Spar is scheduled to arrive and the male-female ratio will then be down to 250-to-1.

Biologist Mourns Natural Selection Is Really Fowl

FORT VALLEY, Ga. (AP) — Biologist Thagart Colvin of Fitzgerald was studying the habits of the red jungle fowl, a Burmese game bird thought to be the ancestor of the chicken.

He used collars containing radio transmitters in studying the birds' living habits.

The first bird had a collar equipped to last three months, but Colvin was able to track the bird for only five days.

Then all he found was a few feathers and the collar.

"Something caught him" and ate him," the biologist mourned.

Finds Ex-Maine Governor

How Fleeting Is Fame!

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — John Hathaway Reed, a former governor of Maine, stepped down from his plane Friday at the Portland Municipal Airport, was immediately hustled into a fur parka by a group of Boy Scouts and given a ride around the grounds behind a team of sled dogs.

Reed was puzzled. He was on his way to a meeting of the Maine Harness Horsemen's Association in Augusta and he hadn't expected an airport reception.

The ex-governor soon discovered that the reception hadn't been intended for him.

The Scouts were waiting to greet Mac Gardner, associate editor of Scouting magazine who was coming to Maine to cover a Scout leaders' winter survival course.

While Reed was riding around and waving, someone approached and told "Mr. Gardner" how much he resembled former Gov. Reed.

"But I am former Gov. Reed," he said. "I thought you knew that."

Reed quickly slipped out of the parka and hopped out of the dog cart. Gardner arrived on the next plane and the ceremony was repeated.

Oswald: "The hands for the November National charity game were quite interesting and well worth devoting several articles to."

Jim: "Let's discuss hand five first. We will shift directions around so that the declarer will be the South hand."

Oswald: "There's no problem in the play. There are 13 top tricks available at either clubs, diamonds or no-trump. The problem for match point players is to get to the top spot, seven no-trump.

Jim: "Why don't we just show the first two rounds of bidding? Not that everyone will bid this exact way. After these bids there will start to be real divergence."

Oswald: "North's diamond opening will be almost universal but many players will respond one heart instead of two clubs. They will do this with the mistaken idea that they are keeping the bidding low."

Jim: "This heart response is a poor one. South is going to game at least, and should bid his longer suit first in order to get the maximum amount of information."

Oswald: "I would have no criticism for a North player who jumps to four clubs but I prefer the three-club call. South is not going to pass and North does not want to bypass three no-trump right away."

Jim: "South's rebid of three hearts is automatically correct. He also doesn't want to bypass three no-trump and he should not bid it with the spade suit wide open."

Oswald: "A three spade call by North is now correct. After this bid it will be easy to reach seven clubs and players who get there will be rewarded with good scores. As for seven no-trump and a real top, we just don't know how to get there."

Wings' Streak Ends; Bruins Keep Rolling

By the Associated Press

In hockey circles the traditional thaw of mid-January is a reminder that Stanley Cup playoff time is approaching, but it was a grim reminder for the Detroit Red Wings this weekend.

Needing a victory Saturday night to top Toronto, the Wings could only tie, 1-1, and Sunday, the Red Wings fell victims of an expansion club again and lost 3-1 to the Philadelphia Flyers.

The loss and tie Saturday stopped a six-game Detroit winning streak and left the Wings fourth in the Eastern Division. Gordie Howe scored the lone Detroit goal Sunday at 8:08 of the first period on a pass from center Alex Delvecchio.

Washout Cools Hot Golf Pro

NAPA, Calif. (AP) — That moisture on Tommy Aaron's glasses could be tears, not rain.

The 31-year-old golfer from Gainesville, Ga., who won $75,000 last year but has never won a PGA tournament, saw his five-under-par 31 for nine holes washed down the drain Sunday as the third round of the $135,000 Kaiser International Open was rained out for the second straight day.

The 92 players who made Friday's cut at 145, one over par, were to try again today on the par 36-36 — 72, 6,849-yard Silverado Country Club course about 45 miles northeast of San Francisco.

More rain was forecast. As they were Saturday, all scores were scratched Sunday, leaving the field just like Friday night's.

HOLDS LEAD

Miller Barber of Sherman, Tex., led with a 68-67 — 135, nine under par, a stroke ahead of Australia's Bruce Devlin, two ahead of Arnold Palmer and three ahead of Charles Coody of Abilene, Tex., and the first day leader, 23-year-old Bob Lunn of Sacramento, Calif.

Forty-five players had completed nine holes including Californians Dave Stockton and John Miller, the only amateur in the field. Each shot a four-under 32.

The rain-forced rescheduling sets the final round for Tuesday, but should play be washed out again today, said tournament director Vern Peak, "I'll recommend that we stop the tournament right there."

"There's no way we can play 36 holes in one day. However, if we get in 18 Monday, I'll recommend we go ahead Tuesday."

The last multi-rainout was at the Westchester Classic in 1967 when rounds were washed out Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

In the event the tournament has to be stopped, the prize money, including $27,000 for the winner, will be distributed in fractions of one half or three-fourths depending on how much of the 72-hole tournament is completed.

Ontario Driver Wins

EAGLE RIVER, Wis. (AP) — Marv. Kennedy of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, won the Class I modified competition and Dick Hill of Munising, Mich., was the Class A stock-model winner in the sixth annual world snowmobile championship Sunday at Eagle River, Wis.

Guy Gendron scored twice for the Flyers and teammate Dick Cherry had the third.

The league-leading Boston Bruins, meanwhile, stretched their winning streak to 11 games, downing Toronto 5-3. Phil Esposito, top NHL scorer, got his 29th goal of the season.

The Minnesota North Stars, on the other hand, lost their 14th straight game, 3-1 to St. Louis, and benched their coach, John Muckler. In the other game Sunday night, Oakland defeated Pittsburgh 6-3.

The bruising Bruins shrugged off Toronto's challenge on their first period goals by Fred Stanfield and Ed Westfall to take a four-point East Division lead over Montreal's Stanley Cup champs into the All-Star break.

Esposito, driving to become the first 100-point scorer in NHL history, set up Bobby Orr's 13th goal and then shot Boston ahead 2-1 in the opening period. Ron Murphy also scored for the Bruins while Paul Henderson hit for two Maple Leaf goals.

Esposito had tallied 67 points in 43 games for a four-point edge over Howe.

EIGHT STRAIGHT

Muckler, who took over the Minnesota coaching reins from General Manager Wren Blair last Nov. 6, was replaced by Blair following the North Stars' eighth consecutive setback. The Stars, picked by pre-season pollsters to battle St. Louis for the West Division pennant, won only six of 35 games under Muckler.

Two goals by Ab McDonald carried the torrid Blues, runaway leaders in the West, past Minnesota. It was St. Louis' 17th successive game against West Division opposition without a loss.

Billy Hicke and Mike Laughton each scored two goals and added two assists, helping Oakland regain second place in the West and top its 1968-69 victory total of 15 by one.

In Saturday's games, Montreal trimmed Chicago 3-1, Boston downed Philadelphia 5-3, Los Angeles blanked Pittsburgh 4-0 and New York tied St. Louis 2-2.

EX-BROWN DIES—Former defensive halfback Warren Lahr of Cleveland Browns died of an apparent heart attack at his Cleveland Heights home yesterday. Lahr, 45, retired in 1959 from the Browns and from 1963-67 did television color commentary on the Cleveland games.

Len Dawson Rallies AFL's West to Win

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) Len Dawson, 12 years a pro but overlooked by all of the American Football League coaches except his own, succeeded where youth failed as the West came from far back to defeat the New York-dominated East 38-25 in the league's annual All-Star game.

Although he topped the league in average yards gained during the regular season, the 33-year-old National League reject from Kansas City was overlooked by the coaches in favor of San Diego's 28-year-old John Hadl in their selection of the West's All-Star team.

But Hank Stram, coach of the West, lost no time correcting the error. He selected his Chiefs' quarterback as a member of the squad and it proved a smart move Sunday as the West chalked up its fourth All-Star victory against two defeats before a rainy day crowd of 43,800.

Dawson replaced Hadl at the start of the second half with the East leading 19-3, chiefly because of the passing and the smart signal calling of New York's Joe Namath, the league's Most Valuable Player. Broadway Joe completely overshadowed Hadl, who was far off in his passing.

The picture quickly changed as Bob Griese of Miami and Dawson became rival quarterbacks in the second half. Still the East led 22-13 going into the final period.

SIX FIELDERS

New York's Jim Turner kicked the last of his six field goals early in the final quarter to lengthen the margin to 25-13 but that ended the East's scoring as Dawson took complete charge with assists from three comparative youngsters—Jim Lynch, Floyd Little and Paul Robinson, the league's No. 1 rookie from Cincinnati.

Little provided the first big burst when he took a short pass from Dawson. The bow-legged former Syracuse University All-American from Denver cut down the left side and wasn't stopped until 81 yards later on the one-yard line. Hewitt Dixon of Oakland went over on the fourth down.

Lynch successfully covered an onside kick and Dawson and his mates were on their way again from the East's 43. This time Robinson went over from the one for the first of his two quick touchdowns.

A pass from Dawson to Warren Wells of Oakland ate up 37 of the yards. For the first time the West led — 28-25.

KEY INTERCEPTION

Lynch then came up with another great play when he grabbed Griese's pass and raced 37 yards to the one from where Robinson scored. Jan Stenerud of Kansas City kicked a 32-yard field goal in the closing minutes for the last of his three field goals—the longest of which was a 52-yarder in the opening period.

"We just gave away too much in the second half," said Wally Lemm of Houston, coach of the losers. "Alvin Reed (Houston) dropped a couple of good passes from Namath in the first half or we might well have been farther ahead. But loss of that onside kick, Emerson Boozer's fumble which led to a third-period touchdown, Little's long run and Lynch's interception really hurt us."

"Little's run gave us the spark," said Stram.

Most of the East's players, however, gave credit for the victory to Dawson, who was voted the game's outstanding back. George Webster of Houston, with two interceptions in the first half, was named the outstanding lineman.

The game was free of injuries except for the slight dislocation of his left shoulder received by Gerry Philbin of the Jets and the East in the final period.

Dawson held the advantage over the other three quarterbacks. He completed four of nine passes for 158 yards. Hadl gained only 23 with four completed of 19. There wasn't much difference between the East's two passers. Namath was seven out of 18 for 98 yards and Griese nine out of 14 for 97.

East Nipped, 10-7, in NFL Finale

Gabriel, Dale Spur West

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When they first started playing catch, quarterback Roman Gabriel and end Carroll Dale were reserves with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Sunday the pair combined for a last-quarter 25-yard gain and two plays later the West team scored to earn a 10-7 victory over the East in the NFL's 19th Pro Bowl game.

"It sure was great having Dale out there catching my passes again," Gabriel said after the victory.

"He and I came up the hard way together. He was a second-string receiver and I was a second-string quarterback.

We would usually go into the game together after the first stringers were through."

THREE CATCHES

Dale, now a regular with the Green Bay Packers, wound up with only three catches but the 25-yarder came with less than 3½ minutes to play and the West trailing 7-3.

Donny Anderson of the Packers bulled 22 yards up the middle one play later and Bill Brown of the Minnesota Vikings smashed the remaining yard for the go-ahead score.

Don Meredith of Dallas started for the East at quarterback but a stubborn West defensive line didn't allow a first down for the first 24½ minutes of the game. So midway in the second quarter, New York's Fran Tarkenton came in.

On his first offensive play, Tarkenton was dropped by Viking end Carl Eller for a nine-yard loss.

DEFENSE LANDED

"Our defense played a fine game," said winning Coach George Allen of the Rams. "The fooling was a little poor and the linemen put a lot of pressure on Tarkenton."

"But he's so unconventional you can never tell what he's going to do," said Ram Merlin Olsen of Tarkenton. Olsen was a nearly unanimous pick as lineman of the game.

The East gained only 81 yards in the first half and trailed 3-0 at intermission on Ram Bruce Gossett's 20-yard field goal. An earlier 52-yard Gossett attempt bounced high off the cross bar and fell back onto the playing field.

Meredith got the East's only score midway through the third period on a 34-yard pass to Cleveland's Paul Warfield, who eluded San Francisco 49er defensive back Kermit Alexander and raced in for the touchdown.

Then Gabriel and Dale teamed up. "We sent Anderson on a sweep," Allen explained. "Then, on the next play, Gabe used a play-action pass, faking to Brown. Dale was open up the middle."

W. Lake Retains Wrestling Crown

Walled Lake piled up 100 points Saturday in retaining its Fenton Invitational Wrestling Championship.

Trailing the Vikings were Fenton (94), Durand (77), Flint Bentley (65), Okemos (33), Northville (32), Milford (12) and Flint Kearsley (7).

The Vikings won the final two bouts in hanging onto their title. Rick Baker pinned Mike Alexander of Flint Bentley in their 175-pound match. That result left Walled Lake and Fenton in a tie.

Then in the heavyweight match, the Vikings' Pat Callan pinned Fenton's Dan Kurtz to wrap up the match.

Also posting individual victories for the Vikings were Tim McFadden (120), Randy Hyde (127), Mike Karner (133) and Dave York (145). Hyde's win came against state champion Mike Fierburger of Bentley.

Wisconsin Skater Sharp; Michigan Youngster Wins

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Pete Defalu of the host West Allis team won three events Sunday to capture the senior men's ice skating title in the two-day Great Lakes racing meet.

Cefalu, 20, won the 800 yard final in 1:08.8, breaking the 1:12.4 meet record set by Mike Passarella of New York. He also won the five-mile event in 15:54.5, and the 1-6 mile dash in :23.8.

Mark Elliott of Warren, Mich., won the midget boys crown, winning the 1-6 mile in a record :28.3, and the 1-3 mile in :59.1.

West Allis and Northbrook, Ill., shared the team title. Sheila Young Warren, Mich., took the senior women's title, winning the 680 in a record 1:23.

Cocker Seeks Role of Queen

By DON VOGEL

Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

A five-year-old cocker spaniel has her sights set on becoming queen of her breed . . . at least her owner has such visions.

Ch. Lamar's Ivory Summer chalked up her first best-in-show last night in the Pontiac Kennel Club all-breed show at the Waterford-Oaks activities building.

The victory over 1,049 other entered canines came on the heels of an impressive best-of-variety win in the American Spaniel Club's show. She was the first female of her breed to win the specialty event, according to her owner, Lamar Mathis of Wadsworth, Ohio.

He expects Ivory to become the winningest female of her breed before the year is over.

POINTS NEEDED

"She has won 10 groups and has accumulated over 1,200 points," said Mathis. "This was only the first show of 1969 and I expect she will reach the necessary 1,400 show points before the year is over."

Ascob cockers are rare visitors to the best-in-show stand and Ivory had to defeat some stiff competition in the six-

Gold Medal Winners, Norwegian Set Pace in Kennedy Games

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — Two Olympic gold medalists and a former Norwegian now skiling for the University of Denver led the field today in the second event of the first Kennedy International Memorial Winter Games—a 15-kilometer cross country race.

George Krog, 22, a naturalized American living in Washington, D.C., and a senior at Denver, won the opening event of the games—intended as interim Olympics—on Sunday with graceful jumps of 234 and 225 feet, giving him a commanding 209.5 points in the ski jumping championships.

Krog's performance on the 70-meter Olympic hill at Intervales in this Adirondack resort center cast him as a favorite today with Franz Keller of West Germany, winner of the nordic combined at the winter games at Grenoble last March, and Franco Nones, the Italian postman who grabbed his Olympic gold medal in the cross country sking.

Keller, with jumps of 215 and 221 feet, was eighth Sunday on the Intervales hill, built for the 1932 winter Olympics and now used as a training site for American and Canadian teams.

Tomjanovich Collects Only 18; Sorenson, Clemons Pace OSU

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan Coach John Orr "half" concedes the Big Ten basketball championship, and unless the Wolverines get hot pretty soon he may have to concede the other half.

Ohio State's 98-85 shellacking of Michigan Saturday prompted Orr to predict "They're going to be at least co-champs of the Big Ten without a doubt."

Even though the season is young the Buckeyes gave him reason to praise as they hit on a phenomenal 58 per cent of their field goal attempts to stun the Wolverines, who managed only 40 per cent from the floor. "We can't put the ball in the hole," Orr lamented after the game. "Every time we seemed to have a rally we couldn't get the ball in the basket."

The victory kept Ohio State atop the conference standings with a 3-0 record and dropped Michigan to 2-2.

SCORING DUO

The Wolverines couldn't match the scoring duo of Jim Clemons and Dave Sorenson. Clemons, a sophomore forward, tallied 31 points while Sorenson added 26.

Dennis Stewart was top man for Michigan with 24 points, while Rudy Tomjanovich, who has been averaging 27 points a game, was held to 18.

"Clemons surprised us scoring like that I thought he was great," Orr said.

Michigan led in the opening moments of the game but Ohio State took a 20-19 lead at 11:48 and was never headed. The Buckeyes led 53-39 at halftime as Michigan was only able to grab 19 rebounds compared with 29 by OSU in the half.

"We've had some good rebounding games but it hasn't been this strong all season," said Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor.

CHARITY TOSSES

The Wolverines also had trouble from the foul line, sinking only nine of 19 free throws. OSU, meanwhile, took advantage of 21 Michigan fouls to sink 20 of 30 charity tosses.

Amateur Golfer Whips Lady Pros in Florida Event

MIAMI (AP) — Capitalizing on her tremendous power, amateur golfer Joanne Gunderson Carner won the Burdine's Invitational Ladies PGA Tournament Sunday with a 54-hole total of even par 216.

Mrs. Carner thus became the first amateur golfer to win a tournament on the LPGA tour. She won by a stroke from Shirley Englehorn.

"I always use my power as a psychological advantage," Mrs. Carner said. "And I was especially charged up against Shirley today."

"She beat me by a stroke in a 1965 tournament and I don't forget things like that. If somebody beats me, it keeps me charged up until I return the favor."

Miss Englehorn, although she finished second, was awarded first prize of $5,200. Amateurs are not eligible for money prizes.

Fourth Straight Win

Miles Paces Pistons Over Bulls

Eddie Miles, whose 29 points paced the Detroit Pistons to their fourth straight victory Sunday over the Chicago Bulls, isn't exactly overwhelmed by the team's newfound momentum.

"I figure we have to win 15 to get back in it," said Miles after Detroit downed Chicago 120-111 at Cobo Arena.

The Pistons are next to last in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, 15 games behind Baltimore, six behind fifth-place Cincinnati.

Detroit led by 24 points at one point in the second period Sunday. But Chicago bounced back with 13 points by Bob Boozer to cut Detroit's lead to five at the end of the third quarter.

OTHER ACTION

In other NBA games, Walt Hazzard helped the surging Atlanta Hawks to their fifth straight victory as they defeated New York 100-96. San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 98-97. San Diego defeated Phoenix 136-118 and Los Angeles beat Cincinnati 132-117.

The Knicks rallied to within two points of Atlanta at 98-96 when Hazzard iced the victory. He had 15 points while Zelmo Beaty led the Hawks scoring with 21. Walt Frazier picked up 25 for New York.

Detroit saw an early 24-point lead dip to five after three periods when Dave Bing and Eddie Miles took over for the Pistons.

Nate Thurmond snared 34 rebounds—a season high in the NBA—and added 35 points in leading the Warriors past the 76ers. Jeff Mullins hit a basket with 3:43 remaining for a 92-90 lead and the Warriors held on. Mullins added 26 points for San Francisco while Hal Greer had 23 for Philly.

STRONG FINISH

San Diego exploded in the last quarter to whip Phoenix, with seven Rockets in double figures. Don Kojis led the parade with 26 points. Gail Goodrich had 29 for the Suns.

Elgin Baylor's 34 points and a furious fourth quarter led the Lakers over the Royals. Mel Counts chipped in with 23 points for the Lakers, who maintained a two-game Western Division lead over Atlanta. Tom Van Arsdale had 30 makers for the Royals.

In Saturday's action, Boston topped Seattle 111-97, New York downed Milwaukee 117-109 and Chicago outscored San Diego 107-102 in overtime.

The last time Oakland visited New York the Oaks lost the American Basketball Association's leading scorer Rick Barry. The Western Division leaders haven't lost anything since. The Oaks made the trip to New York again Sunday and came away on a much more pleasant note. They whipped the Nets 116-105 for their 16th straight victory, an ABA record. And it was Oakland's ninth in a row since Barry was sidelined on Dec. 27 with a knee injury.

Oakland snapped the previous mark of 15 straight set by the Pittsburgh (now Minnesota) Pirates last year. In other ABA games, Miami crushed Los Angeles 145-120 and Denver smashed Dallas 111-88.

Warren Armstrong, who popped in 30 points, led the Oaks, now 35-4. The Nets, who went down to their seventh straight loss, were led by Levern Tarr with 28 points.

SCORING MARK

Miami hit on 57 per cent of its shots en route to setting a team scoring record against the Stars. Les Hunter sparked the Floridians with 25 points. Merv Jackson had 19 for Los Angeles.

Denver raced to a 54-38 halftime lead and Dallas never got closer than 10 points in the last half. Larry Jonfess led the Rockets with 25 points while Ron Boone had 21 for Dallas.

PLUGHING THROUGH — Halfback Ken Willard of the West picks up a first down before running into the tough defense of the East in their National Football League All-

Star game yesterday in Los Angeles. Stopping Willard after a 10-yard gain are Chris Hanburger (55), George Andrie (73) and Bob Lilley (74). West won, 10-7.

'Record' Competition Looms for UCLA Five

By the Associated Press
UCLA might be having its own way in the college basketball rankings, but the Bruins have been bedridden the previous four days by tonsillitis.

John Vallely, with 18 points, and Bill Sweek, with 14, led the Bruins to a 69-66 triumph over Mexico State for the team with the best record in the nation.

Third-ranked Santa Clara, raising its record to 16-0 with a 64-49 victory over San Jose State last Saturday, appears headed for an unbeaten clash against top-ranked UCLA in the NCAA post-season regional playoffs on the West Coast.

New Mexico State No. 7, continued its steady climb in the rankings with an 80-65 decision over Texas-El Paso for a 15-0 mark.

UCLA is the only other major unbeaten with a 12-0 record as the Bruins buried once-powerful rival Houston 100-64 despite the absence of Lew Alcindor for much of the game.

TWO GAMES

The Bruins have two dates in Chicago Stadium against Northwestern and Chicago Loyola this weekend before heading into their final 12 games against Pacific 8 conference foes.

Santa Clara is idle this week before going into its last 11 games, and only a similar upset would stop the Bruins from a 27-0 mark.

New Mexico State will have the most difficult time remaining unbeaten in its final 11 contests with two straight meetings coming up against cross-state rival New Mexico after the Aggies host Tennessee Tech Saturday night.

UCLA started slow against Houston, the only team to beat the Bruins in their last 76 games, but pulled away from a 36-30 halftime lead, although Alcindor played only 17 minutes and scored eight points. He had been bedridden the previous four days by tonsillitis.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Spartans of old were taught to suffer adversity quietly until "the chance for revenge—and that's just what happened Saturday when Michigan State clobbered Northwestern in a Big Ten revenge game, 89-75.

Lee Lafayette hit a career high of 33 points to lead his team to revenge against the Wildcats, who had beaten MSU earlier in the season by a score of 85-71.

Northwestern's loss was its third in four conference chances. Michigan State boosted its Big Ten slate to 2-3.

MSU held a 42-40 halftime lead, but the Wildcats took the lead three times in the second half before Michigan State took the lead for keeps when Lafayette netted a field goal to make the score 70-69.

TOP CAT

Dale Kelley led Northwestern with 21 points.

While Ohio State was moving past idle Purdue, Iowa stepped back into contention with an 89-68 triumph over Minnesota.

The Hawkeyes boosted their mark to 3-1 in conference play as Ben McGilmer hammered home 30 points. McGilmer, a former soldier back at school, however, had to take a back seat to sophomore Jim Gim Clemons who scored 31 points for Ohio State.

Action will be limited in the Big Ten this week because of examinations. Ohio State will try to stretch a 60-29 nonconference record at Georgia Tech tonight and Michigan will be at Northwestern in conference action Tuesday night.

LIGHT SLATE

The only other conference games of the week find Michigan at Michigan State Saturday while Purdue returns to action at Minnesota.

Nonconference activity finds Northwestern facing top-ranked UCLA in part of a Chicago Stadium doubleheader Friday and Illinois meets Notre Dame in part of a Stadium doubleheader Saturday which also finds Loyola facing UCLA.

New Leader Among Gals in Keg Event

Bay City Bowler Keeps No. 1 Spot

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Barry Peets of Bay City was the only leader to retain his position during weekend action in the Michigan Men's Bowling Championship tournament, held at Grand Rapids.

Peets retained the lead in the handicap all-events division after the third weekend of action with a total of 2,084 pins.

Other leaders were: Handicapped teams, Cooper Products of Lansing with 3,322 pins; handicapped singles, Leo Brewster of Lansing with 763; and handicapped doubles, Paul Sims and Don Patnoud of Kalamazoo with 1,406 pins.

Actual leaders were: Teams, Adama Standard Service, Grand Rapids, 2,956; singles, Al Gardella, Wayne, 701; doubles, Vince Sanders and Clare Johnson of Detroit, 1,312, and all-events, Clare Kimberlin, Grand Rapids, 1,863.

In the doubles, Marji Fields and Margaret Rose of Pontiac came within three pins of commanding first place. They had a 1244 total yesterday to fall two pins shy of matching Jane and Marilyn Powell from Plymouth.

Dee Davidson of Kalamazoo had 64 2in singles to take over second place behind Plymouth's Elsie Gurchinoff who had 648 last week. There were no changes in the top five team totals.

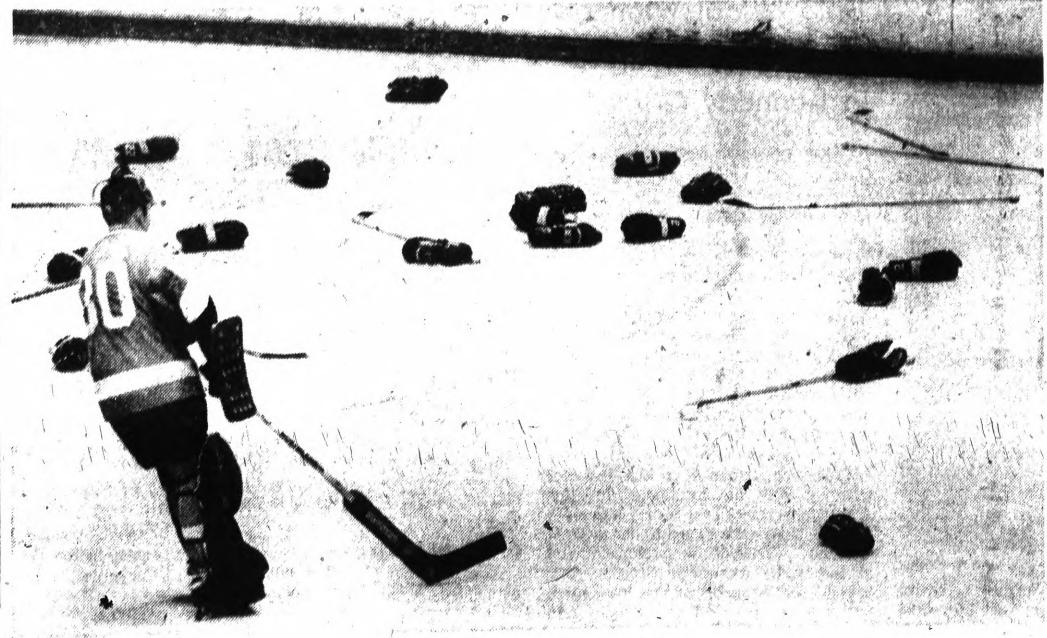

French Place 1-2 in Weekend Meet

REVELSTOKE, B.C. (AP) — French skiers finished one-two over-all in a weekend slalom derby sponsored by the International Ski Federation.

Christian Ganne of France won Sunday's giant slalom after finishing third Saturday in the slalom to take top honors. Second was teammate George Columbat-Patton, who was second Sunday, fourth Saturday.

Catholic Fives Await Title Showdown

The jousting is over. The 10th in a row this season Northwest Catholic League's without a loss. The Eagles are assured of a berth in the Detroit Catholic League playoffs at the small Orchard Lake St. Mary gymnasium where standing room only is a certainty.

OL St. Mary's highly ranked Eagles survived the controlled ball tactics of Ferndale St. James plus an excellent defensive effort on scoring ace Tim Megge for a 54-34 victory.

The victory is OLSM's 26th straight league conquest and its 70-53 decision on their home court when the Eagles visited there last month.

In the other league outings Saturday, Waterford Our Lady downed Detroit St. Rita, 78-64, and St. Francis de Sales topped Royal Oak St. Mary, 81-75.

OL St. Mary, ranked No. 3 in last week's Class C prep poll, was held to a 17-15 advantage in the first half.

Tom Sudek hit for six points as OLSM tallied eight straight points to start the last half and was never in trouble gain. Sudek finished with 19 points while Mike Krogulecki led the winners with 20.

St. James outrebounded the visitors and had 23 more shots from the field, but the Eagles only made 14 field goals while hitting at less than 20 per cent for the game.

St. James may have shown Pontiac Catholic coach Mel Larson how to halt Megge's high-scoring antics. Averaging 29 p.p.g. going into the contest, the St. Mary senior managed just two free throws against the pressing tactics of St. James' Carl Seidth.

EARLY LEAD

PCHS built up a 15-8 lead in the first quarter and widened its lead to 53-39 in the first three periods.

The Titans built their winning margin with a 31-25 advantage in baskets, paced by Sam Brady who hit 11 of 18 shots in a 25-point night. Kellie Dean's 18 and Herb Larson's 17 helped out.

Sorrows tumbled back into a sixth-place tie with Waterford OLL (3-7). hTe Lakers ran up their biggest point total of the season in overcoming an early Soap Box Derby Competition. St. Rita lead and then National Derby Competition was started in 1934 and is now their host.

Pat McColgan had the best racing program for boys. More scoring night of his career and than 50,000 youngsters are expected to compete in races, this season in hitting 24. Joe O'Connor added 17 for his best effort.

A 30-10 edge in successful free throws decided the outcome and ended a three-game losing streak for the Lakers.

St. Francis de Sales' tight win at ROSM boosted it into sole possession of third place at 6-4.

Clinic Series Scheduled for Soap Box Hopetuls

A series of clinics run by ex-step-by-step building of a car, parts and designed to assist Entrants will have a chance to Oakland County boys in building cover specific problems they their Soap Box Derby racers are having in their car-building was announced today by Gerard Lacey, director of the coasting program here.

Lacey said the first clinic, at Waterford-Oaks Activity Center, 2800 Watkins Lake Road, will be held February 1, at 10:00 a.m. It will include an interpretation of the latest official rules and basic procedures for building a car.

"The clinics will be conducted by former Derby contestants, members of the inspection team and other technical people," Lacey said.

"Future sessions will feature Slidefilms outlining recommended design and construction methods; also will be shown. Boys entering the 1969 Oakland County race are urged to participate in the clinics. Contestants' parents and friends are welcome.

In 1968 Oakland County Parks & Recreation Commission became the Nation's first County Parks & Recreation Department to sponsor a Soap Box Derby.

This season marks their 2nd annual Soap Box Derby and the Nation's 32nd year of National Soap Box Derby Competition.

National Derby Competition was started in 1934 and is now an internationally recognized racing program for boys. More scoring night of his career and than 50,000 youngsters are expected to compete in races, this season in hitting 24. Joe O'Connor added 17 for his best effort.

Pontiac Keglers Lead Tourney

Three men from the Pontiac Knights of Columbus Council No. 600 are early leaders in the 28th annual state Knights of Columbus Bowling Tournament after two weekends of action at 300 Bowl.

Richard Doll had a 671 handicap total in the singles, and Wally LaFave teamed with Ron McGinnis for a 1313 doubles total and a 39-pin lead.

Doll's singles effort beat out Portland's Ken Johnson by five pins for the top spot. Gervase Klein of Pontiac is tied for fourth with 650.

Gene Platte and Lou Hengelsbach of Westphalia have 1274 for the No. 2 spot in doubles, 20 pins ahead of Chuck Riharb and Frank Wyzgoski of Pontiac (1254).

TEAM TOTALS

The No. 1 team from Council 2924 of Bronson is the five-man squad pacesetter with its 3075 handicap effort. The K. of C. Knights from Portland are second at 3059.

Westphalia's Bruno Thelon tops the handicap all-events with his 1939. The only other entrant to surpass the 1900-pin level is Portland's Johnson.

The best Pontiac entry in all events is Glenn Harding whose 1870 is fifth.

Olympic Group in Boston Meet

BOSTON (AP) — Three U.S. Olympic team members who represent the Southern California Striders were entered today for the 80th Boston A.A. Indoor Track Games at Boston Garden Feb. 1.

Olympic hurdlers Geoffrey Vanderstock and Ron Whitney will run in the BAA Invitational 400-yard event and the Hollis 600, respectively. Bob Day, a distance runner, is expected to compete in the two-mile run.

Detroit (AP) — The Uni-Calihan. "We have to have good selves straight just in time for a variety of Detroit snapped a balance in our scoring. Satur-four-game losing streak over the day night was the best balance nova Wednesday. Villanova, like weekend when Spencer Haywood's teammates decided one Titan isn't enough for a titanic effort.

The five starters all scored 12 or more points—with Haywood leading the pack at 34—to score a 98-84 victory over Xavier.

"It's like I've been saying all along," ruminated coach Bob

Larry Moore, who went into the game with an 11-point average, netted 17, while Dwight Dunlap and Vern DeSilva had 12 each.

Xavier was led by 7-foot center Luther Rackley, who had 23 points and 10 rebounds.

Improving Highland Lakes mark and also scored 25 Harold Lowe wasn't enough to mark to 134 with its sixth of the good shooting of the straight win night as Oakland Community College's three quintets saw in its last five starts. Now 5-10, the Highlanders also saw Russell set a new assist mark.

The high-scoring guard concentrated on passing for 10 baskets by his teammates and thus was limited to seven points, his season low, in the easy victory.

Auburn Hills, meanwhile, suffered an 86-68 beating at Walt Causey pulled down 19 Alpena; and Grand Rapids JC rebounds and hit 14 points, Tim outlasted Orchard Ridge's Moller added 16 points and Joe Raiders, 118-102, despite 37 O'Connor had 14 as the High points by Fred Street of the landers managed a 41-32 edge in field goals.

Gems Stolen From Home

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — An estimated $10,000 in rubies, emeralds, diamonds and sapphires has been reported missing from the home of a vacationing Battle Creek man.

State Police said the gems, along with other cut and polished stones, apparently were stolen in a break-in at the home of Donald Sumrill, a retired architectural consultant who is vacationing in Florida.

Sumrill's daughter, Donna Smith of Ada, told police she discovered the theft Sunday while checking the Sumrill home. The loss apparently occurred sometime after Jan. 13, when Mrs. Smith said she last inspected the home.

Detroit Dies in 1 of 3 Fires

By United Press International — A Detroit man perished in a home fire over the weekend while flames gutted a beauty school and a country club.

Charles Terry, 50, died Saturday night of smoke inhalation from a fire that began in his west side home. Firemen said Terry apparently was smoking in bed.

The State College of Beauty in Mount Clemens was burned out during a pre-dawn blaze yesterday in which two policemen were overcome by smoke. They were treated at the scene.

Six business places in buildings adjacent to the college were damaged by smoke and water as firemen from Mount Clemens, Harrison Township, Chestfield Township and Selfridge Air Force Base battled the fire for some six hours.

In St. Clair Shores, the former Lapeer County Jail was destroyed by fire yesterday when flames spread through the one-story brick and wood building. Three fire departments from St. Clair Shores, Roseville and Clinton Township were called in to fight that blaze.

The building had been used for storing office equipment. All the fires are under investigation.

Man Charged After Chase

A Pontiac man was arrested Saturday after he led police on a chase on Bagley at speeds up to 115 miles per hour.

Clarence L. Thompson, 21, of 362 S. Marshall, was arrested after police reported seeing his car speeding at South Boulevard and Woodward without any lights on.

Officers said they gave chase along South Boulevard and Bagley before the car struck a truck at Bagley and Orchard Lake while trying to make a turn.

The car then pulled into a nearby parking lot where police caught up to it, Patrolman Dennis Kline said.

Thompson, who was charged with fleeing a traffic accident, was injured and is at Pontiac General Hospital in satisfactory condition.

Woman Is Hurt in Avon Crash

An Avon Township woman is in satisfactory condition today in Crichton Hospital after being injured in a two-car accident in Avon Township Saturday night.

Police Evict Rebels From Tokyo Campus

TOKYO (AP) — About 1,000 students before the end of the riot police guarded Tokyo University today after weekend battles with radical students that caused damage estimated at more than $4 million.

Police said 100 persons were arrested on the campus and in related demonstrations. But they said many student leaders who encouraged the violence may have gone underground.

Police believe these student leaders sneaked out before 8:50 p.m. Saturday to evict 700 students from 12 buildings they had occupied since fall.

Eleven buildings were cleared within a few hours Saturday. But a hard core of leftists holed up in the clock tower of Yasuda Auditorium and withstood a 22-hour tear-gas siege, throwing rocks, fire-bombs and acid on the police. They were evicted Sunday by 6,000 police.

Quaker Friends Remind Nixon of Peace Goal

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's boyhood friends of the Quaker faith want to remind him of his commitment to peace.

Silently, 35 persons carrying placards walked in rain Sunday from Whittier High School to Whittier College, five blocks away, where they held a two-hour vigil seeking world peace. Nixon attended both schools.

"As a Quaker, you are aware that for 300 years the Religious Society of Friends has opposed war in any form," the group said in an open letter to Nixon.

Ann Rush, chairman of Quakers for Action, said later the demonstration was "a prayer and a hope for a real beginning of world peace during the term of a Quaker president."

Sweden to Get Young Policeman Slain by Robbers

STOCKHOLM (AP) — South Vietnam is planning to open an information bureau here, a Swedish newspaper reported. It quoted two men who returned from an anti-Communist conference in Saigon.

The two, Arvo Horm and Lars Eric Nyman, said they proposed the information bureau at the conference and were invited to meet President Nguyen Van Thieu and other officials of his government.

Kato placed the campus off-limits to all students until Wednesday to allow tempers to cool and cleaners to cart away tons of rocks, damaged furniture and shattered Molotov cocktail bottles. In addition to the $4 million property damage, government is planning similar professors said, valuable documents were destroyed and some European cities to counter of research work was set back at least 10 years.

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Wayne Vonk grew up wanting to be a policeman just like his dad. And so, on Feb. 19, 1967, he joined the Grand Rapids Police Department.

Eleven months later he was dead — shot and killed on a gray Sunday while he attempted to apprehend a pair of grocery store robbers.

Vonk, a 21-year-old bachelor, was alone in his squad car when the owner of the Stocking radio for help and gave the Avenue Food Market flagged license number of the suspects' car him down and pointed to a car. Minutes later, Marvin shooting. He died shortly after fleeing car. The owner said the Holden, 24, of Lansing and the surgery.

Denver Goree, 25, of Grand Rapids were captured.

The two were arraigned on charges of murder while in perpetration of a robbery and open murder, police said. They were being held without bond.

Vonk, whose father, Herman, was with the Grand Rapids Police Department before joining the Kent County Sheriff's Department, underwent emergency surgery at Butterworth Hospital following the shooting. He died shortly after the surgery.

New First Lady Is Expected to Be Quietly Gracious Hostess to Capitol Crowd

AP Wirephoto

Mrs. Richard Nixon, who became first lady of the land today, poses in the gown she will wear at the Presidential Inaugural ball in Washington tonight. It is mimosa yellow of double faced satin. The belt of the bell-shaped skirt is embroidered with Byzantine scrolls of gold and jewels, as is the jacket. The gloves are eggshell tone kidskin. Karen Stark of the Harvey Bern house did the design.

By HELEN THOMAS
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Pat Nixon, the nation's 37th First Lady, is keenly aware she faces supreme challenges and soaring opportunities during her White House years.
She is no newcomer to public life. Except for an eight-year reprieve which she enjoyed thoroughly as a private citizen, she has been the wife of a man who has served as a congressman, senator and vice president.

She also has four living First Lady predecessors to take a cue from if she chooses.
She says her ideal is Mamie Eisenhower, the First Lady whom she understudied for eight years and is now linked by the marriage of her daughter, Julie, to Mrs. Eisenhower's grandson David.
But Mrs. Nixon inevitably is more apt to be compared to Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Lady Bird Johnson, both of whom won acclaim by meeting a national need.
The widow of John F. Kennedy restored the White House as a monument of public pride. Mrs. Johnson sparked a national beautification campaign that figured prominently in her husband's administration.
Mrs. Nixon will be an "active" First Lady," her close aides said. "She will use the office to dramatize worthy projects."

As a former school teacher, Mrs. Nixon stresses her interest in using her position in promoting projects in the field of education. A Detroit school system program to curb drop outs intrigues her.
As a Republican who is not keen on federal government involvement in social causes, she speaks of pulling together all of the nation's "volunteer" strength to cope with urban ghetto problems.
Her own personal involvement in youth activities has been as a PTA mother and a Girl Scout troop leader.
"The time I'd give to hobbies I've given to my daughters instead," she said. "I'm not worried about today's young people," she added. "They're great."
In 1960, the Republicans ran Mrs. Nixon on a "Pat for First Lady" campaign. In the last presidential campaign she went along with her husband, let her daughters Julie and Tricia carry the ball independently and she made no political speeches. She feels her husband is the only one who can speak on the issues.

But at the few news conferences she held with women reporters she countered booby trap questions with the poise of a veteran.
When asked if the Supreme Court should have a woman on the bench, she smiled and said, "It might pep them up."
Having been to the Soviet Union with her husband, she is intensely interested in relations with Russia and says the Soviets know "my husband is a strong leader". This of course stems from Nixon's emphatic kitchen debate with now deposed Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

At 55, Mrs. Nixon is extremely attractive, tall with an enviable size 8 slim figure and warm brown eyes.
She is considered very photogenic although she sometimes gives an "up-tight" impression, tense and with a frozen expression of raptness when her husband is speaking publicly. He praises her for listening to his same speeches, his same words over and over again with respectful tolerance.

She is a warm and friendly person, leading some observers to believe she is overprotected by those who do not fully appreciate how savvy she really is.
She has dignity and will be a gracious White House hostess. In many ways for stamina and discipline, she resembles the political wife she will replace — Mrs. Johnson.

silk brocaded coat. Julie Nixon Eisenhower's gown is white silk organza by the same designer and has a matching full length wool cape.

Signature Reveals Motive Behind 'Unselfish' Deed

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: My father is 57, extremely handsome and a real charmer. Mother died two years ago and Daddy is now engaged to a very lovely 45-year-old widow.
Abby, while Mother was living, I'm sure Daddy played around with other women. I am also sure he hasn't changed since then. I have grown very fond of Daddy's fiancée. She is a wonderful person and so much in love with Daddy that I'm sure she's blinded by some of his faults. I hate to see this fine woman hurt by marrying an incurable ladies' man.
Don't you think I ought to tell her exactly what she's letting herself in for?
DADDY'S GIRL:
DEAR GIRL: No. You can't possibly have all the facts related to your father's "other women." And how can you be sure that he hasn't changed! (P.S. The most revealing part of your letter is your signature. Think about it!)

DEAR ABBY: I am a 50-year-old woman. I'm not bad looking, but I look my age.

Career Workshop Set at Birmingham House

A career-building course for aspirants in professional radio-TV-film acting and announcing begins Jan. 28 at 7:30 p.m. at the Birmingham House, under producer-director Henry K. Martin. This Birmingham's Actors' Workshop is designed to polish talents, sharpen the tools (voice, face and body), and construct techniques for success, during its eight-week duration.
Further information may be had from Mr. Martin of East Maple Road.

Oakland District Nurses Association, 7:30 p.m., Mercy School of Nursing, Fulton Street. "New Concepts in Psychiatry."

I've been married for 28 years to a wonderful man who has only one fault. He resists change.
Harold likes for me to wear my hair the way I did back in 1939 and every time I'd come home with a new hair-do, Harold would say, "Change it back. I like the old way better."
My friends tell me I look like something straight out of an old Ginger Rogers movie but what can I do?
Harold isn't a tyrant, or anything like that, but he's set in his ways. Should I change it anyway and hope he changes his mind?
"VO DEE O DO"
DEAR "VO": "No! One compliment from your husband is worth a hundred from strangers. If you can't change Harold's mind first, don't change your hair-do. (P.S. Personally, I think Ginger Rogers looked a lot better in 1939 than some of today's glamor girls in their "Look, ma, no hair" hair-dos.)"

DEAR ABBY: You suggest that guests who are careless with cigarets and drinks should be entertained in the barn — those basement amusement rooms are too good for them! Good grief, Abby, that's the LAST place to send those tipsy smokers. Have you any idea how much 20 tons of hay cost? FARMER'S WIFE, PRESTON, CONN.

'Borrowed' Says Vietnam's Ky

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky is in political hot water at home because his beautiful wife posed in some expensive borrowed clothes during their recent stay in Paris.
Madame Ky, a former airline stewardess, was photographed in some Paris fashion creations for the French magazine Paris Match while her husband was awaiting the start of expanded peace talks.
Some Saigon newspapers questioned the propriety of Ky's apparent high living in Paris.
The vice president issued a statement today saying he was well aware of the sacrifices being made by his countrymen and that he has restricted his public appearances and "wasteful expenditures" in Paris.
The clothes, Ky said, were borrowed by the magazine in order for his wife to introduce some Vietnamese women to Western audiences. They were returned soon after the photographs were taken, he said.

$400 — and that ain't hay, lady. (Or is it?)
DEAR ABBY: I have never written to you before, but the girl who signed herself "NO PRIVACY" really got to me because I had the same kind of mother.
I finally solved my problem by keeping TWO diaries. One for myself, and one for my mother to read. I sort of "hid" the diary I wanted my mother to read in an obvious place, and I would even write something rather shocking in it so she would think it was the only one I was keeping.
My REAL diary I hid where she wouldn't find it in a million years. It worked like a charm. Mother was happy thinking she knew all about me. And I was happy knowing she didn't.
NO PRIVACY, TOO
Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Parking Fee to Be Paid by Car Owner

By ELIZABETH L. POST of The Emily Post Institute
The following letter has been chosen as the prize-winning one for this week. A copy of Emily Post's Etiquette has been sent to Mrs. Paulsen of Chicago, Ill.
Dear Mrs. Post: I live in a hi-rise, and the subject of parking for visitors has come up. The garage in my building charges $1.50 for five minutes or five hours. I have wondered if I was responsible for paying this.
There is no place outside to park, and since I don't garage my own car in the building, I do not have an account to which the charge could be added. On occasion I have paid this amount, and other times I let the guest pay it.
What is the proper thing to do?
—Mrs. Paulsen
Dear Mrs. Paulsen: You are not obligated to pay the parking charges. Automobile owners recognize that parking fees are inevitable in a city, and surely $1.50 is a small price to pay for being entertained in your home.
Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper to serve the husband prior to the guests, as he is the head of the household and commands this respect from his wife? I know that guests are entitled to every courtesy but believe that the respect due one's husband takes precedence. Barry.
Dear Barry: A wife naturally serves her husband before herself when they are alone but when company is present, the guest of honor, or the woman seated on the host's right is served first.

Italians Show Spring-Summer Fashions

By LEONORA DODSWORTH
AP Fashion Writer
ROME — Tricky stitching and architectural cut highlighted the Mila Schon fashion show Sunday night as Rome spring-summer couture collections concluded their third day of presentations.
In a land where sewing talents still abound, Trieste-born perfectionist Mila Schon outsews them all. Her masterpiece was a smooth white wool coat decorated with a delicate spray of multicolor flowers in intarsia work.
On wool coats, she made a big feature of massed pinch-tuck seams running from bust to hip, cinching in the midriff and allowing the skirt to bell out in a new silhouette. Other styles had seams like the spokes of a wheel and several coats had unpressed pleats in back below belted waistlines.
Seaming was also important on her city pants suits. The slacks had stitched creases at both the front and back of the leg. Her intarsia work was, as always, outstanding. Undulating bands of contrasting color were let into two-piece outfits and tunic dresses.
FORTIES STYLE
Mila Schon was the third designer to feature that forties favorite, the edge-to-edge coat. Her version was tie-belted or had a single button at the waist.

As always in Italian fashion, the fabrics were fabulous. Smooth wools with self-color damask stripes, chevrons and waving lines were a triumph of the weaver's art. There was a strong color story. Auberginepurple, Ming blue and ochre yellow were teamed with the inevitable white.
Barocco's theme was botanical. Apples, pears, pineapples, lemons and grapes were printed, jacquard-woven or embroidered on everything from day to evening wear. The house showed the shortest skirt lengths seen so far at these collections, about four inches above the knee.
Undulating lines were preferred to straight ones. Hem lines, cuffs and coat openings were bordered with deep bands of scalloping.
Almost all the designers in these shows have had a go, mostly unsuccessful, at seethroughs. But Barocco produced two super sexy evening gowns in smoky, floating black chiffon embroidered with gold and bronze bands round the forbidden areas. Underneath the girls wore tiny black bikinis.
Ognibene-Zendman were among the few to show suits. They had tiny hugging jackets that stopped well above the waist and waist-cinching skirts that spun into a flare. They promoted jade green and lapis lazuli blue. Even the buttons were made in these precious stones.

Prettiest dress of the Gregoriana collection was a white chiffon shift with bright colored maypole ribbons flying free from tiny sleeves.
Menswear crashed into the act again at these women's fashion shows with jazzy shirts by Samo, all color and capristyle. They came in lame, velvet and trilled organdie.

Modern Machine Signals End of Loomed Fabrics

The process of weaving fabric is some thousands of years old. Now, a new process has been perfected which may well make the loom obsolete. This fabric is made on a Malimo machine, which was invented in Europe.

Yarns are laid out side by side on trays, and hundreds of tiny needles positioned in a rack above the yarn come down to stitch the fibers in position, making a single big sheet of finished fabric. Advantages are speed and, therefore, economy of production; versatility; and fabrics that perform magnificently.

They are dimensionally stable under practically any circumstance, will not stretch, sag or shrink, and may be machine washed in ordinary unfinished walls of an attic room to lend color and interest. Choose one that can be washed often.

Linda Felice Says Vows

Newlyweds, the David Michael Beavers (nee Linda Joyce Felice) were joined at the Italian American Club following vows Friday evening.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felice of Fourth Avenue and the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Beaver of Royal Oak were married in St. Michael's Catholic Church.

Attended by Margaret Boehmer, the bride was attired in a satin gown with Chantilly lace and seed pearl trim. A cascading arrangement of white carnations centered with a white orchid corsage comprised her bouquet.

Pete Vas Oosten was bestman for the nuptials.

Bridesmaids were Janet Tipolt and Renee Post with John Lant and Fred Charlton as ushers. Diana and John Crossdell were flower girl and ring bearer.

Initial Clothing

Use laundry ink and mark the initials of each child's name in your family on their white socks and underwear. This helps the children identify their own garments, and will also help when sorting the laundry, for if a sock or other garment is missing this method shows it up quickly.

Jumper Designs for Mother, Too

The tiny woman who wants to look like her uniform-clad school-age daughter can this spring. The nation's pace-setting designers have adapted school jumpers—complete with white blouse and four-in-hand tie—for the new fashion season. Some of these for women are in flannel. For evening, the look features crepe or satin blouse with velvet jumper.

Life Is Just One-Upmanship After Another

By BETTY CANARY
NEA WRITER

There is rivalry in any household, but with a large family the competition can get really fierce. I don't mean that my children are always at war, but there are times when our house seems to be the set for "Can You Top This?"

Living as I do, under the pall of one-upmanship, I take consolation in thinking that perhaps somebody else is learning something. That somebody is usually me.

For example, the plasterers arrived at long last to do repairs in my bedroom. They were fine fellows and good workers and we smiled a lot at each other through the thick white clouds of dust they raised. "At least," I said when they left, "I have learned something about old-fashioned plaster." And my son remarked, "But it was sure cleaner when all you knew about was the leak in the ceiling."

Then my youngest daughter, also the possessor of a penny bank—a replica of the Empire State Building—asked me just the other day, "Is it really the tallest building in the world?"

"Yes," I replied authoritatively. "And I have been to the very top."

"The twin towers of the World Trade Center will soon be completed," my third grader recited through an ice cream bar, "and they will be the two tallest buildings in the world."

This must be a classic example. It added to my fund of knowledge and subtracted from my ego. And I stand revealed. I may be the only one here who has been on top of the THIRD largest building, but they are on top of everything.

I might vaguely recall that the world's largest Oriental rug is on display at the Cincinnati Art Museum, but it will be one of THEM who remembers the original owner and sions.

Because of this need for facts and figures, I keep wads of pamphlets on the obscure and exotic. I also save all tags, instructions and fact sheets from any merchandise that comes into the house.

As a matter of fact, I was sorting through these when the delivery truck arrived with a credenza I'd ordered. The children gathered around to admire my selection in their usual manner.

"It won't fit on that wall," said one.

"Mediterranean with French Provincial?" mocked another.

"I like the finish," I said defensively. "It's distressed pecan," I said, furtively studying the tag. I read further and thought it was my lucky day. In my most guileless manner I asked, "Good heavens, why do you think it looks so dusty?"

"White wax applied at the factory," snapped one. "Right. It's called simulated dust!" said another.

"They read the tags already, lady," the delivery man said. "Both of them got right up there in the truck."

'Sex Boom Bah' Cheer Led by MSU Professor

EAST LANSING (AP) — A lecture in a series on "Sexuality: A Search for Perspective" had the audience chanting words not used in polite society Wednesday at Michigan State University, but it was all planned.

The lecturer, Gerhard Neubeck, president of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, was leading the chant.

Neubeck was making the point that if sex is dealt with forthrightly, the psychological blockades surrounding it will be broken down and it will become an accepted experience rather than a problem.

Neubeck also pointed out that in countries outside the United States sex is treated much more casually. He cited legalized prostitution in Germany, unpunished homosexuality in Holland and a comic strip dealing with a prostitute in Norway to illustrate his point.

The session last week was the first of its kind in the midwest. It continues for five more weeks on the Michigan State campus.

Author Reaps Fame From Indian Interest

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A local housewife who began devoting her time to research and writing after her children were grown has been inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame. She is Grace Steele Woodward, an authority on Indian history.

As a result of her interest in the Cherokees, who today live largely in eastern Oklahoma, she made a trip along the historic "Trail of Tears" which the Cherokees followed to the state and examined more than 1,300 unpublished tribal records. The result was a book, "The Cherokees," published in 1963 by the University of Oklahoma Press.

Mrs. Woodward recently completed a new manuscript, "Pocahontas," to be published by the OU Press next year. Research for the book has taken her to every site in America and England associated with the Indian princess who was reputed to have saved Capt. John Smith and who married Englishman John Rolfe.

Visiting AFS Students Pinpoint Major Problems Facing Teens

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bright high school students from 15 nations appear as truthful as mirrors when asked about American teen-agers and family life.

The pupils, here under the American Field Service program, were asked to cite the biggest problem of American teen-agers. Consider a few answers:

- "To acquire some humility." South African student.
- "Drugs and the establishment." Danish boy.
- "They hardly know what they are rebelling against, and don't have concepts of what they want." Yugoslav student.
- "The have too much freedom." Japanese boy.

Most of the visiting teen-agers, living with families on the east coast, agreed that American teen-agers also have a terrific communications gap with the older generation.

Clues to some problems came in answers to another question: "How does the quality of family life in your home differ from that in America?"

• "From the view of an Oriental, children have less respect for their parents here." A Philippine teen.

• "In my country older people in the family are respected and given more attention than here." Girl from Ethiopia.

• "In Australia family life is much closer than here. Adults here do not have the same interest in their children's activities as they do at home." An Australian miss.

PERMISSIVE PARENTS

• "American parents as a group are more permissive than in Germany. There is less family life in America. Everybody goes his own way." A Germany boy.

• "At home there is not such a big rush for everything as there is here." Boy from Uruguay.

The busload of foreign and American teen-agers viewed holiday decorations in New York, considered most spectacular. After the tour, arranged by Interchemical Corp. they were bug eyed.

• "It's nice to see but it doesn't make you think at all," said a boy from Germany.

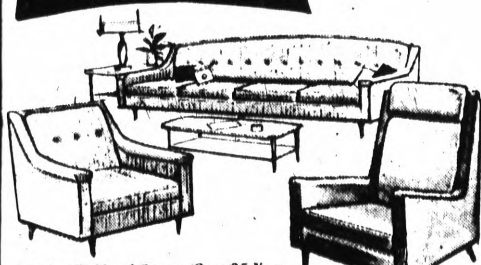

• "The money," another said, "could be spent in a better way."

Violinist Ughi Debuts Under Ehrling Baton

Case No. H-544

Uto Ughi, Italian violinist, will make his Detroit debut at Detroit Symphony Orchestra concerts Thursday and Saturday.

Vincent Melidon, assistant principal clarinetist with the Detroit Symphony, also will be heard as Marilyn soloist on the Saturday program.

The performances, with Ughi conducting, will and fell to the begin at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

Ughi will perform Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto. Also on Thursday's program are Carl Nielsen's Helios Overture, Opus 17; Frank Martin's "Petite Symphonie Concertante"; and selections from Mendelssohn's "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

The Martin work will feature three Symphony musicians — Mischa Kottler, pianist; Alice Lungershausen, harpsichordist, and Elyse Yockey Ilku, harpist.

The Nielsen Clarinet Concerto, with Vincent Melidon as soloist, will replace the Martin work for the Saturday program.

Ughi will also join the Detroit Symphony for two solo appearances on the Orchestra's 30 minutes or an hour later at forthcoming southern tour. He is a native of Milan and a protégé of conductor-composer to Georges Enescu. Ughi made his first tour in 1967, ending that visit with a highly praised appearance at Carnegie Hall.

Milliken Tells of Budget Wednesday

LANSING (AP)—William Milliken, Michigan's governor-to-be, will reveal his 1969-70 state spending proposals to a half-billion-dollar Legislature Wednesday, set for Wednesday following the state's election.

Name of OU Nude off List of Graduates

The name of Lee Elbinger, following day, claiming he was the controversial nude lecturer planning to study under a guru of Oakland University, will not appear on the list of graduates. Elbinger's case is under consideration by the university's State University board of student conduct committee. By Trustees for approval.

The Oakland University represented before the committee met Thursday for a preliminary approval of the may be made as to whether he will be awarded his diploma.

Elbinger's name was not on the list, and one of the three students, told the Senate that student members of the Senate the conduct committee has made a motion to restore his three alternatives to follow in name to the list, according to a handling this situation: university spokesman.

A short debate followed and personally face the charges the student-faculty Senate against him.

Elbinger was reportedly up at his hearing. Hold the hearing without also for cum laude honors.

U.S. Senate confirmation of Gov. George Romney as secretary of housing and urban development. The message will be delivered Wednesday, although the State House of Representatives will be in recess. Appropriations Committee members reportedly wanted to see the proposals as soon as possible so they could begin work on them.

Since the general fund budget each year accounts for only about half of total state spending, it appears Michigan will become a $3 billion operation in the year beginning next July 1.

The actual budget figure remains a tight secret until Milliken announces it Wednesday. But even a budget with no new programs and no extensions of existing programs would have to approach the $15 billion mark.

It was understood the proposed new budget will include no money for aid to nonpublic schools—a costly item which the Legislature will weigh this year. Milliken has warned lawmakers that if they approve

THE LONG WAIT — The faces of Pfc. James Bourgeois (right) of Concord, N.H., and Staff Sgt. such a program, they must find the money to pay for it. Legislative backers of private school aid announced last week they would introduce a bill costing an estimated $40 million a year.

CONTROL IS SPLIT

The executive budget could face a rocky road in the Legislature this year because Republicans and Democrats each control one legislative chamber for the first time since the 1930s.

Majority Senate Republicans are likely to look with favor on Milliken's hold-the-line spending program and resist efforts to increase it.

In the House, however, where Democrats have a 57-52 margin and plan to give themselves a large majority on the budget-writing Appropriations Committee, efforts to boost state spending almost certainly will be made.

The prospect is for two legislative budgets—one, the Senate version, similar to Milliken's or even smaller; the other, written by the House committee, substantially larger.

The disputed measures then would go to House-Senate conference committees, which this year will be made up of three Republicans and three Democrats each. Chances are there will be some hard fighting in those conferences.

Milliken also will tell the Legislature Wednesday that supplemental state spending will be needed this year, raising the current general fund budget total above the present $13 billion figure.

Sources will not say how much more money is needed this year, but they predict it will be less than the $45 million supplemental appropriation approved in 1967-68 and the $53 million spent in the previous year.

Although the budget has been prepared under the Romney administration, Milliken has stressed that he approves the proposals and will defend them.

The budget, although not to be delivered to lawmakers until Wednesday, will carry last Saturday's date and will be signed by both Romney and Milliken.

Hickel OK Only One Likely to Be Stalled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate was ready today to follow Richard Nixon's inauguration with speedy approval of all but one of his 12 Cabinet choices.

Indications were that approval of Alaska Gov. Walter J. Hickel as secretary of the interior probably would come Tuesday.

The committee had been expected to act over the weekend, but announced after a closed session Saturday that it had asked Hickel for a statement pledging he did not hold any oil or gas leases in his home state. The action followed three days of hearings last week during which the controversial Hickel apparently convinced the committee that his views on water pollution and conservation were in line with most of its members.

Remarks made by Hickel after his appointment was announced had been widely interpreted as indicating a pro-industry approach to both problems. The governor, however, who has made millions in Alaska real estate, told the committee he had been misunderstood. He also pledged to leave in effect for at least two years an Interior Department freeze on leasing of federal lands in Alaska.

The department imposed the freeze to allow settlement of claims by natives threatened by a land rush since discovery of vast oil reserves.

Hickel got the most attention of the 12 Cabinet appointees, but Senate committees also took a close look at the financial holdings of David Kennedy, the Chicago banker named secretary of the treasury, and David Packard, the multimillionaire nominated for the post.

A nickel in an Ortonville youth's pocket saved him from injury Saturday when his pistol accidentally went off. But the ricocheting slug hit a friend, sending him to the hospital for possible surgery.

Wayne Keener, 3115 Grange Hall, Brandon Township, is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after the 22-caliber bullet struck him in the right foot.

The bullet ricocheted off the coin in the pocket of Donald Perry, 19, of 1435 Merkle, as he was bringing the pistol to his side after wiring it, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Perry was target shooting while at the home of a friend, Carlin Steneil, on Rattalee Lake Road, Springfield Township, when he accidentally pulled the trigger.

The Waterford Township Board tonight will be asked to give its approval to a liquor license for the county-operated Oakland-Pontiac Airport, 6500 Highland.

If the board accepts the application, the request will be forwarded to the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for final action.

An amendment to the township zoning ordinance regarding outdoor signs also will be considered by the board at the 7:30 p.m. meeting at Waterford Township High School.

'Area Dem Out of State Race'

Farnum Reported Not Chairman Aspirant

Former Oakland County Congressman Billie S. Farnum reportedly has withdrawn from the race for Michigan Democratic party chairman.

Farnum, 52, of 7135 Hatchery, Waterford Township, asked precinct delegates from his home 19th Congressional District not to endorse him when the district convention was held Friday night.

At the time, Farnum said support needed to win the state post had not materialized. Farnum said his statement did not constitute a withdrawal from the race. However, he reportedly withdrew later the same evening.

The New Democratic Coalition, a group composed of former supporters of the presidential campaigns of Sens. Eugene McCarthy and George S. McGovern and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, failed to endorse Farnum at a meeting last week.

State Sen. Sander Levin of Berkley, current chairman, has announced that he does not intend to seek a second term.

With Farnum's withdrawal, other candidates include Bernard Klein, City of Detroit comptroller; William Hettiger, deputy secretary of state; Mrs. Patti Knox of Detroit, an incumbent vice chairman of the state party; and Otto Feinstein, a Wayne State professor who was Michigan campaign manager for McCarthy.

Losses Can Be Enormous

Road-Show Movies on Wane

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD — A glance at the movie release schedule for 1969 indicates that the film companies' passion for road show attractions is cooling.

The reserved-seat movie became popular with movie firms after the historic accomplishment of "The Sound of Music," which pushed through the $100 million barrier during its sensational three-year run. That success prompted the companies to seek other attractions that could be shown at advanced prices in a single theater for long periods.

But it wasn't that easy. No other film has come along to combine the magic elements of "Sound of Music," and millions have been lost in trying. The economic reality: Though you can earn fantastic profits on a road show, you can also lose enormously, because of the high cost of producing and exhibiting such films.

Only about one in three road shows appears to score, and there are apparently no rules for success. It used to be that the presence of Julie Andrews insured a hit—witness "Sound of Music." "Hawaii," "Thoroughly Modern Millie." But even she is fallible, as demonstrated by the disappointing returns for "Star!"

NOT NECESSARY

Big names and rave reviews aren't necessary. The no-name "2001: A Space Odyssey" drew many poor reviews, yet it has caught on with the young generation. But the all-star "Shoes of the Fisherman" is doing only fair business.

"The Graduate," "Bonnie and Clyde," "Rosemary's Baby" and "The Odd Couple" proved that pictures don't have to be road-shows to attract monumental grosses. In fact, such hits constituted better investments because of lower cost and faster payoff.

Twentieth Century-Fox continues to place faith in the road-show, and with good reason. The company has had the most profitable ones. Coming up for 1969 is "Justine," based on Lawrence Sanders' novels. "Hello, Dolly!" is also a hopeful entry, provided an arrangement can be worked out with David Merrick, who controls the release date.

Paramount, currently prospering with "Romeo and Juliet," has two big musicals ready for 1969: "Paint Your Wagon" and "Darling Lili." Also the Harold Robbins saga, "The Adventurers."

Warner Brothers has high hopes for the all-star "Madwoman of Chaillot." The new year may also bring the made-in-Russia "Tchaikovsky," then again, maybe not.

United Artists is bringing out two made-in-Europe road shows—Stanley Kramer's "The Secret of Santa Vittoria" and the war film, "The Battle of Britain."

Columbia is offering a large-size western, "McKenna's Gold," and a space epic, "Mooned." Universal has a Shirley Maclaine musical, "Sweet Charity," and the all-star "Airport." Even the new network-backed companies are getting into the act; CBS Films is sponsoring "The Royal Hunt of the Sun."

MGM, prospering once more with "Gone with the Wind," hopes that "Ben Hur" will have similar success on its reissue this year. Also coming from MGM: a musicalized "Goodbye, Mr. Chips" and the epic "Allred the Great."

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP) — Mrs. Stephen C. Dougherty, wife of an Army lieutenant colonel, knew all along she had a couple of champions romping about her home. She's had to feed 'em.

The pair of healthy appetites in the Dougherty home are Mike, 11, and Bill, 10.

This week, Mike won first prize in a pancake eating contest at nearby Fayetteville — downing 24 of the doughy disks in the final 30-minute round. Bill came in second, stowing away 21.

Mrs. Dougherty says she wasn't surprised when Mike was nosing around for dinner three hours after his championship performance.

MASTER BAKER — Mrs. John Ristich of First Avenue delights in making bread for her family. The Press photographer arrived just as the fragrant loaves came out of the oven. The stove was won by Mrs. Ristich at last year's Cooking School.

Use 'CoolRise' Method to Make Cheese Rolls

Busy homemakers and working wives who never had time to bake bread find that it's now possible — actually convenient! — with the "CoolRise" Method.

The secret of the "CoolRise" Method is controlled rising in the refrigerator. The dough is mixed, kneaded and shaped in a single operation taking only 45 minutes. The panned loaves are then refrigerated for at least 2 hours, or up to 24 hours. Then, whenever it's convenient, a loaf may be taken from the refrigerator and baked immediately.

Here is an intriguing variation. Chili Cheese Pinwheels are made from basic white, bread dough rolled up with a nippy cheese-and-chili filling.

CHILI CHEESE PINWHEELS

- 5 to 5½ cups flour
- ½ cup warm water (105-115 degrees)
- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 1¾ cups warm milk (105-115 degrees)
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon salt*
- 3 tablespoons margarine
- 1 cup yellow corn meal
- Melted margarine
- 1 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- Cooking oil

Spoon or pour flour into dry measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour onto wax paper.

Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add warm milk, sugar, salt and 3 tablespoons margarine. Add 2 cups flour. Beat with rotary beater until smooth (about 1 minute). Add corn meal.

Beat vigorously with a wooden spoon until smooth (about 150 strokes). Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic, about 5-10 minutes. Cover with plastic wrap, then a towel. Let rest on board, 20 minutes.

Punch down; divide dough in half. On a lightly floured board roll out half the dough into a 10 x 16-inch rectangle. Brush with melted margarine. Sprinkle with half the grated cheese and chili powder.

Roll the dough up to make a roll 16 inches long. Cut into 16 one-inch pieces. Place in greased muffin cups or on greased baking sheets. Repeat with remaining dough, cheese and chili powder.

REFRIGERATE

Brush rolls with oil. Cover muffin pans or baking sheets loosely with wax paper brushed with oil; then top with plastic wrap. Refrigerate 2 to 24 hours.

When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator. Carefully uncover the dough; let stand for 10 minutes at room temperature.

Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes, or until done. Remove from muffin pans or baking sheets and if desired, brush with melted margarine. Makes 32 rolls.

(* If you use self-rising flour, omit salt).

Bread Is Staff of Life

Mrs. John Ristich of First Avenue was a grand prize winner at the 1968 Cooking School, taking home a beautiful double oven stove.

Since then, she has baked hundreds of loaves of bread in those two ovens. So what was more appropriate than to picture her with newly baked bread? She shares her recipe with Press readers.

HOMEMADE BREAD

By Mrs. John Ristich

6½ cups all purpose flour

¾ cup sugar

1 teaspoon salt

2 packages yeast

2 eggs

2 cups lukewarm water

½ cup salad oil

Mix together flour, sugar, salt, eggs and oil. Dissolve yeast in water and add to first mixture. Turn out on floured board and knead until dough is springy.

Form into ball and place in greased bowl. Turn over to grease top. Let rise in warm place until double. Punch down and form into four loaves. Place in greased pans.

Let rise again until double. Bake 30-35 minutes at 350 degrees or until loaves sound hollow when tapped. Turn out on rack to cool. Makes four loaves.

Of Coffeecake

Streusel in Center

Add bits of grated orange peel and meaty raisin to your streusel coffee ring and you have a breakfast to surprise the family.

Try link sausages and scrambled eggs with it. That's a sure fire wakeup combination.

RAISIN STREUSEL COFFEE RING

¾ cup butter

1½ cups sugar

3 eggs

3 cups sifted flour

2 teaspoons baking powder

1 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon soda

1 cup buttermilk

1 tablespoon grated orange peel

Streusel mixture

1 cup seedless raisins

Orange glaze

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Resift flour with baking powder, salt and soda. Add to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk, mixing just until blended. Stir in orange peel.

Turn half of batter into greased and floured 10-inch tube pan. Sprinkle with half of streusel mixture, then half of raisins. Top with remaining batter and streusel mixture.

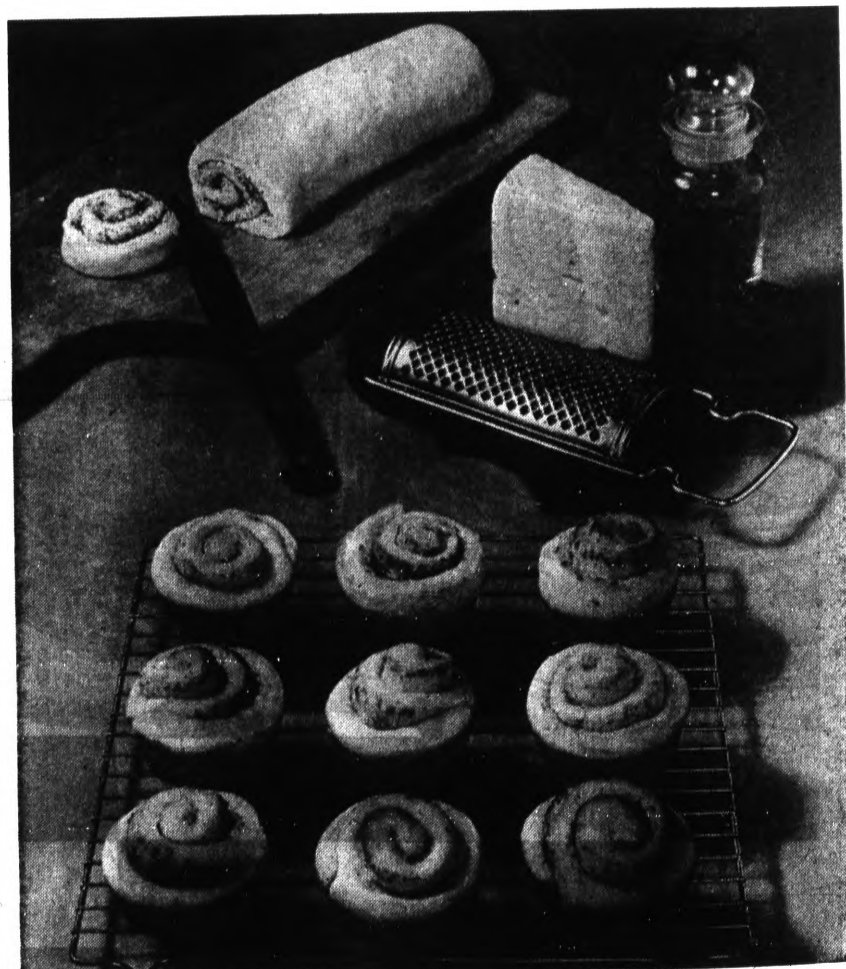

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 50 to 60 minutes, until cake tests done. Turn out of pan while warm and spread Orange Glaze over top. Sprinkle with remaining raisins. Serve warm. Makes 12 or more servings.

STREUSEL MIXTURE:

Blend until crumbly, ½ cup brown sugar (packed), ½ cup sifted flour, 2 teaspoons cinnamon and ¼ cup soft butter or margarine.

ORANGE GLAZE: Stir 1 cup sifted powdered sugar and 2 tablespoons orange juice together until smooth.

Wine is as civilization. It was made in China before the year 2000 B.C., and is mentioned over 150 times in the Bible.

CHILI CHEESE PINWHEELS—Chili Cheese Pinwheels are prepared in just 45 minutes by the "CoolRise" Method. They're made from basic white bread dough rolled up with a nippy cheese-and-chili filling.

Fruit Best Stuffing for Duck

Combine fresh flavor with the ease of popping pitted prunes into a stuffing for a duck for a holiday dinner, add an orange accent, and you have the makings of a meal that will keep the family coming back for more . . . for years to come!

ROAST DUCK WITH PRUNE-STUFFED ORANGE

2 ducks, 3-4 lbs each
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ginger

Dash or two freshly ground black pepper

4 prune-orange halves (see next page)

1 cup fresh orange juice

8 tablespoons fat and juice in roaster

2 tablespoons flour

1/2 cup water or broth

Rinse ducks and trim excess fat. Pat dry. Rub inside of each with 1/2 teaspoon each salt and ginger and dash pepper. Insert

2 prune-orange halves in each duck cavity.

Skewer feet together and tuck wings under, securing neck skin beneath them. Place ducks in shallow roaster on rack. Set in oven preheated to 350 degrees. Roast uncovered 1 hour.

Remove duck, pour off all fat. This may be done well in advance. Return ducks to roaster and reheat at 475 degrees until skin is hot, then dash 1/2 cup orange juice over each duck. Return to oven and roast until skin is crisp, about 30 minutes.

MAKE SAUCE

Remove ducks and keep warm. Skim excess fat from top of pan. Measure 8 tablespoons drippings from bottom of pan, scraping up all crustiness, into small saucepan. Add 2 tablespoons flour, stir carefully over very low heat until perfectly smooth. Cook until flour is completely clear.

Stir in the water or broth, bring to boil, and simmer a few minutes. Taste and adjust seasonings. Serve very hot with duck. Makes 8 servings.

Keep It Thick

When you need unsweetened applesauce to add to a cookie or cake batter, cook the apples in as little water as possible. A quarter cup will be enough for half a dozen medium apples so the sauce is on the thick side when you strain it.

CORNEB BEEF APPETIZER ROUNDS — Combine a 3-oz. package cream cheese with 1 teaspoon instant onion; add 1 can (12 oz.) corned beef and 1 cup well-drained sauerkraut, chopped. Mix well. Chill thoroughly. Shape into 1-inch balls. Roll in 1/2 cup flour, dip in evaporated milk (need 1/2 cup) and then into cornflake crumbs. Fry in deep fat (365 degrees) for 1 minute or until golden brown and heated through. Drain; serve immediately. Makes 4 dozen appetizers.

DILLY APPLE-WALNUT SALAD — Combine 1 1/2 cups cubed cooked potatoes; 1 cup drained diced pickled herring packed in wine sauce; 2 cups diced unpeeled red apples and 3/4 cup coarsely broken walnuts. Mix together 1/2 cup mayonnaise; 2 tablespoons bottled Italian dressing and 1/2 teaspoon dried dill. Pour over salad. Toss gently to mix. Serve on salad greens. Makes 4 servings.

Pureed Carrots Give Thick Soup

Here's a golden soup to serve on a snow-swirling day.

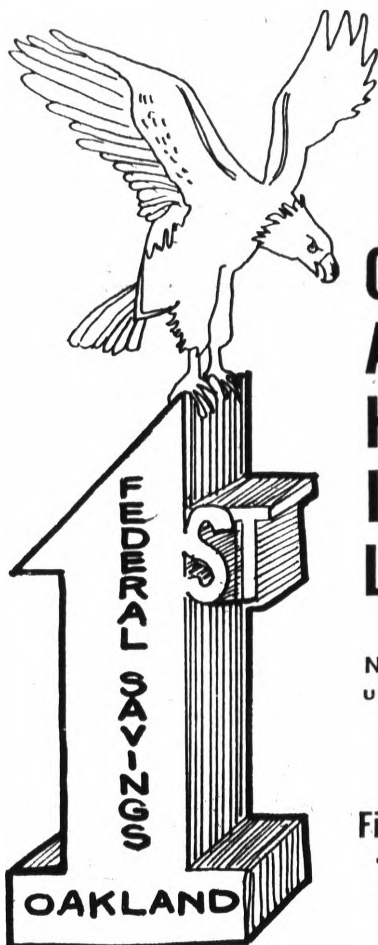

Dutch Carrot Soup

1/4 cup butter or margarine
6 carrots, sliced
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
3 cans consommé, diluted with 3 cans water
3 tablespoons farina (Cream of Wheat)
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Dash mace
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
Melt butter in saucepan; saute carrots, onion and celery for 15 minutes, stirring frequently. Add consommé and mix well. Cover and cook over low heat for 45 minutes.

Strain soup, forcing it through medium fine sieve or beat in an electric blender until it becomes a smooth pulp. Combine broth and pureed vegetables and return to saucepan. Add farina, pepper and mace, mixing well.

Cook over low heat for 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Sprinkle each serving of hot soup with parsley. Makes 6-8 servings.

BREAD 'N' BUTTER APPLE BAKE—Dish up the Apple Bake at family suppers or company affairs, or serve it as a surprise for your sewing circle group or the after school parade. It makes up in minutes - and will be devoured even faster!

Yes, we know you're busy, but we STILL think you should take the time to try this Bread 'n' Butter Apple Bake. It's that good! One glance at the ingredients and you'll see that it's a simple dessert made with everyday shelf items like canned apple pie filling, preserves and bread. The flavor is elegant!

The Apple Bake is made with a base of bread - even slightly stale bread will do. It's fitted into baking dishes and brushed with melted butter and a sprinkling of sugar before the filling is added.

For the latter, you'll use canned apple pie filling dressed up with apricot preserves, grated lemon peel and pungent cinnamon. Spoon this mixture into each nest of bread and bake until the filling is bubbling hot and the bread lightly browned and crisped.

But don't stop here. Serve the dessert hot crowned with a scoop of chilly 'n' rich ice cream.

BREAD 'N' BUTTER APPLE BAKE

6 slices white bread, crust removed
 1/2 cup butter, melted
 2 tablespoons sugar
 1 No. 2 can (2 cups) apple pie filling
 3 tablespoons apricot preserves
 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
 Dash salt
 Dash ground cinnamon
 Vanilla ice cream

Fit bread slices into 6 well-buttered small baking dishes (6-ounce Pyrex) or individual shallow casseroles. Brush slices with the melted butter and sprinkle with sugar. Combine pie filling, preserves, lemon peel, salt and cinnamon and spoon over bread in baking dishes.

Bake at 375 degrees for 30 minutes, or until bread is crisp and brown. Serve each with a scoop of ice cream. Makes 6 servings.

Hot Pudding Uses Apples

Mrs. Earl Rhinevault of Holly wants to share a recipe for apple pudding with Press readers. Try this some night when you are using the oven for the main course.

APPLE PUDDING

By Mrs. Earl Rhinevault

1 cup sugar
 1/4 cup soft shortening
 1 egg, beaten
 1 cup all purpose flour
 1/4 teaspoon soda
 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 4 large apples, Spies if available
 Cream sugar and shortening. Add egg and sifted dry ingredients. Mix well.

Peel and slice apples. Stir into batter carefully so as not to break apples. Pour into greased 8x8x2 pan.

Bake about 30 minutes in 375-degree oven, or until top springs back. Serve warm with cream or milk and sugar. Makes 9 servings.

Cooking Is Easy if Tools Near

Always store seasonings, serving dishes and utensils needed at the kitchen stove right next to it on easy-to-reach shelves.

Hang such utensils as stirring spoons and pancake turner on the wall near the stove.

Store Wine Properly to Keep High Quality

Once opened, all wines should be used as soon as possible. Contact with air and heat does not improve the wine. It is better to be overcautious than to be disappointed in wine that has been stored poorly or too long. The following general precautions, according to Great Western's winemaker, Richard P. Vine, should be taken with wine remaining from table or cooking use:

Dessert Wines (Ports and Sherries): Once opened, these wines keep well for weeks and even months. It is generally stated that dessert wines can be "kept at room temperature." Which room, what temperature?

A kitchen cupboard or closet shelf can be hot; the wine suffers in silence. Therefore, have a cool storage spot for opened bottles of dessert wines.

Dinner Wines: Because of the lower alcoholic content, dinner wines are perishable after opening. For this reason, wines of this type—both red and white—should be consumed in their entirety at a meal or as quickly as possible. Spoilage often can be traced to the hospitable host who hesitates to recork the bottle at the table, lest he seems to grudge a second serving.

But, if they are recorked promptly and kept refrigerated, they will remain in good condition for several days. When ready to use again, red wines may, if desired, be removed from the refrigerator and be brought back to room temperature.

When you have opened a gallon or half-gallon decanter of red dinner wine and have used only part of the contents, and if you do not plan to finish it within a few days, transfer it to smaller bottles to use later. Use clean screw-cap bottles and follow the general instructions of storage for dessert wines.

OIL FILM

When you plan to use the leftover dinner wine only for cooking, you can keep it much longer by just adding enough olive oil to form a thin film on the wine, then closing the bottle tightly. Such prepared wines are best used in meat, poultry, and fish cookery, not in desserts or with fruit.

Sparkling Wines: Once the cork is out, it is rather difficult to hold the lively bubbles in the wine. The design of some champagne bottles allows them to be recapped with bottle stoppers. If this is done, the wine must be kept well chilled.

If the champagne loses its effervescence, it can still be employed in cooking in the same manner as a white dinner wine. The loss of its bubbles doesn't affect its value as a cooking wine. Chilled, unopened bottles of sparkling wines may be transferred to regular storage without loss of flavor.

While on the subject of chilling, Mr. Vine pointed out that while champagne and white or rose dinner wines are usually best served chilled, they should not be so cold as to hide their delicious flavors. Three hours in the refrigerator is generally enough for champagne and sparkling burgundy; one hour for rose and white dinner wines.

Kids Can Mix Special Drinks

Here's a fun way to keep your youngsters back in their own backyard - a whole zoo of "Feed the Animals" chocolate drinks! They're made with wonderfully nourishing milk and ice cream.

First make a basic mixture right in each child's glass by stirring quick chocolate-flavored mix into milk. Then go on to a zoo full of fun.

Try a Honey Bear drink, made by adding honey, 2 scoops of chocolate ice cream and fizzy club soda to the chocolate milk mixture. How about a Shy Lion? Or a Nutty Elephant? Or even a Monkey which of course is bound to have banana in the proceedings!

'FEED THE ANIMALS'

(Chocolate Drink)

For each serving, blend together in a 16-ounce glass
 3 tablespoons quick chocolate-flavored mix

1/2 cup milk

Follow directions for one of variations.

Honey Bear: Stir in 1 tablespoon honey. Add 2 scoops chocolate ice cream and fill glass slowly with chilled club soda.

Shy Lion: Stir in 1 heaping tablespoon marshmallow cream. Add 2 scoops vanilla ice cream and fill glass slowly with chilled club soda.

Nutty Elephant: Stir in 1 tablespoon peanut butter. Add 2 scoops nut ice cream and fill glass slowly with chilled club soda.

Monkey: Add 1/2 banana, sliced, and 2 scoops vanilla ice cream (or use banana ice cream and omit sliced banana). Fill glass slowly with chilled club soda.

ZOO DRINKS Tame your kiddies with "Feed the Animals" zoo drinks that are chocolate-y and nourishing with milk and ice cream. Quick chocolate flavored mix makes chocolate milk instantly with a mere stir of the spoon.

GLENWOOD PLAZA - NORTH PERRY AT GLENWOOD

These Were Left Over From Yule 1968

ENGLISH FAVORITE — Succulent roast goose, an English favorite for centuries and as synonymous with Yuletide as Dickens' Christmas Carol, can make your holiday dinner an outstanding one this year.

English Stuff Goose With Apples, Raisins

The recipe made available to you belongs to a gourmet chef. He is Edward Gurret, award-winning master of cuisine at The Princess Hotel in Bermuda, who has adapted for your use his own recipe for stuffed goose and trimmings. It will be served as the culinary highlight on Noel at the plush British island hotel.

Be sure, when you set your holiday table, to use any pewter you may have, for serving or for table decoration, so you can maintain the authentic Merrie Ole England theme.

ROAST GOOSE WITH APPLE STUFFING

1 goose (8 to 10 lbs., dressed weight)
2 packages stuffing mix
½ cup diced celery
¼ cup dried parsley flakes
4 tart apples, chopped

1½ teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons poultry seasoning
¼ teaspoon coarse black pepper
½ cup golden raisins
½ cup giblet stock
2 tablespoons minced onion

Wash goose inside and out; pat dry. Cook giblets to make stock. (Used chopped giblets in gravy.) Prepare stuffing mix as directed on package. Add rest of ingredients; mix thoroughly.

If stuffing is not moist enough, add a little more stock to taste. Stuff and truss goose; place on rack in large open roasting pan. Do not add water; do not cover.

Roast at 325 degrees for 4 to 4½ hours until thoroughly done. (If goose is very fat, prick skin lightly after first hour.) Makes 8 servings.

CHRISTMAS SANDWICH WREATH — Fashion this delicious Christmas sandwich wreath to welcome holiday guests! Handy meat spreads and sliced miniature party breads are the ready-to-go ingredients you'll need.

Make Cranberry Aspic

Cranberries are as much a part of the holiday scene as the Christmas tree. They may turn up as a sauce... a salad... a stuffing... a pie... a pudding... centerpiece... decoration on a Christmas tree or a kissing ball but you can be sure, they'll turn up some place on festive holidays because folks just wouldn't have it otherwise.

When it comes to that special dinner, for the small fry in the family, why not decorate each individual plate with a mashed potato Christmas tree and serve a Cranberry Vegetable Aspic Square all dressed up and looking like a package. The ribbon can be made with creamed cheese.

CRANBERRY VEGETABLE ASPIC SQUARES

2 tablespoons (2 envelopes)

unflavored gelatin
2 cups cranberry juice cocktail
2 cups apple juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 small onion, grated
1 cup ground fresh cranberries
1 cup drained cooked sliced carrots
1 cup sliced raw celery

Sprinkle gelatin over ½ cup cranberry juice. Let stand 5 minutes to soften. Stir over low heat until gelatin is dissolved. Add remaining cranberry juice, apple juice and lemon juice. Blend well. Chill until thickened.

Fold in remaining ingredients. Pour mixture into an 8"x8" square pan. Chill until firm.

Unmold and cut into 9 squares. Decorate top of each square with creamed cheese to look like "package."

Welcome your holiday guests with an attractive Party Bread Sandwich Wreath. For all its beauty, it is surprisingly easy to prepare. Contrasting party breads and handy meat spreads are just about all you'll need.

Spread the little oval shaped pumpernickel, rye, and cheese bread slices with spicy deviled ham, crunchy chicken spread, and nippy liverwurst pate.

Then, on a serving tray, place the sandwiches upright in a circle — alternating the rich brown pumpernickel with the golden cheese and the light brown rye. They'll stand together easily.

Decorate the wreath with a bright satin or paper bow. When it's time to eat, serve the festive mini-sandwich arrangement with a cherry punch. Guests will find it as appealing to the appetite as it is to the eye.

CHRISTMAS SANDWICH WREATH

Deviled Spread

1 ¼ oz. can deviled ham
¼ cup chopped celery
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
20 party pumpernickel slices
Softened butter

Chicken Apple Spread

1 ¼ oz. chicken spread
¼ cup chopped apple
1 tablespoon sour cream
20 rye slices
Softened butter

Nippy Pate Spread

1 ¼ oz. can liverwurst spread
¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
20 party rye slices
Softened butter

Combine first three ingredients. Spread bread with softened butter. Spread half of bread slices with meat spread mixture; close sandwiches with remaining slices. Each recipe makes 10 sandwiches.

To form wreath, on a large round plate arrange sandwiches, on edge, around edge of plate. Decorate wreath with a satin or paper bow. Wreath contains 30 small sandwiches.

Specialty Foods Welcome

Plan on making and sending a dressed-up jar of jelly, cookies, candy or something home-made to your neighbors. Take or send your "thought gift" by the children during Christmas Eve day.

To help you with your "thought gift" here are several suggestions:

Keuka Wine Jelly

2 cups Burgundy or Port
3 cups (1½ lb.) sugar
½ bottle liquid fruit pectin

Mix wine and sugar in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water, stirring constantly until sugar is dissolved, about 2 minutes. Remove from heat and at once stir in fruit pectin. Pour quickly into hot sterilized glasses. Skim if necessary. Cover jelly at once with ½ inch hot paraffin.

Wrap jars in transparent paper. Tie with colored ribbon and add a sprig of evergreen when giving.

Tip: For variety, use Sauterne, Dry Sherry, Tawny Port, Delaware or red wine in this recipe. Also, since each fifth bottle of wine holds a bit over 3 standard cups, 2 bottles will make 3 full recipes of wine jelly.

Garden of the Vines Syrup

2 cups sugar
4 tablespoons water
1 bottle (1½-size) Port
Stir together all ingredients until sugar dissolves. Bring to a boil and boil until it reaches desired syrup consistency, about 10 minutes. Place in rather small pouring type bottles and for giving... label "For pancakes, waffles, French toast or fritters. Serve hot or cold."

Sherry Nuts

1 cup granulated sugar
Pinch cream of tartar
¼ cup Cream Sherry
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups nutmeats (pecans and walnuts)

Combine sugar, cream of tartar, and wine in a small saucepan; boil until syrup threads; remove from heat. Add vanilla and cinnamon; mix well. Add nutmeats; stir until cold. Turn out onto buttered platter. Separate with a fork.

Small cornucopias filled with these nuts or transparent paper bags tied to the tree make good gifts for unexpected callers.

Finger Lakes Apple Butter

1 quart water
1 bottle (1½ size) Solera Port
2 quarts apples, sliced and peeled
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon allspice
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1½ cups sugar

Heat water and wine to boiling in large kettle; add apples and cook slowly, stirring often, for 1½ to 2 hours, or until mixture starts to thicken. Add salt, spices and sugar; cook rapidly, stirring constantly, until thick enough to spread. Pour quickly into hot sterilized jars and seal with paraffin. Wrap jars in colorful foil and tuck in a sprig of evergreen or holly.

Holiday Stencils to Decorate Cakes

For a dramatic looking cake, bake your favorite flavor cake mix in 8 or 9 inch round layer pans as directed on package. Fill and frost cooled cake with 1 can ready-to-spread frosting.

Allow frosted cake to stand 15 minutes; place doily or Christmas stencil on cake. Sprinkle a little cocoa or sweet cocoa mix through sieve over doily. Gently remove doily or stencil.

Variation: Fill and frost cake with 1 can chocolate flavor ready-to-spread frosting; sprinkle top with confectioners' sugar.

Charm Children With Popcorn Lamb

He looks soft and woolly but he's really all popcorn and crunchy — this perky lamb.

Nestled comfortably in a bed of tinted coconut grass dotted with daisies, he is the picture of expectancy as he waits for the party to begin.

A gay centerpiece for a child's birthday party or a class gathering, it can also be the eatable surprise of the party. This striking looking centerpiece is made easily too.

The lamb can be shaped by hand or if you prefer, press the popped corn mixture into a lamb cake mold and let it set until cool.

Vanilla ice cream makes a tasty accompaniment. It, too, can be pressed into a mold and frozen until firm. Then unmolded and decorated with whipped cream and fresh strawberries just before serving.

POPCORN EASTER LAMB

1 pkg. ready-to-pop popcorn
¾ cup evaporated milk
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
¾ cup sugar
¾ cup light corn syrup
¼ teaspoon salt

Pop corn according to package directions. Grease a large kettle or bowl. Put popped corn in it.

In a saucepan, mix butter and evaporated milk and heat until butter has melted. Keep warm. In a heavy 2 quart saucepan, cook sugar, corn syrup, and salt over medium heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved and mixture comes to a boil.

Boil, stirring frequently, until mixture reaches firm ball stage, 250 degrees. Stir hot milk into sugar mixture very slowly so that the sugar does not stop boiling. Cook and stir until candy reaches firm ball stage again. Pour syrup over popped corn and mix well so all corn is coated with syrup.

SHAPE LAMB

With well greased hands, shape the body of the lamb by making a rounded rectangular shape, approximately 9" long, 4" high, and 3" wide. Then make a neck by making a disk 1" high and 2" wide. Attach neck to one end of body.

Shape head by making a 2½" diameter round ball. On one side, bring to a point so as to make a cone for nose.

Make 2 triangles, each 1" wide, for ears, and attach to head. Place head on top of neck. Gently press together and round edges.

If mold is used: Grease both halves of lamb mold well. With well greased hands, press coated popped corn into both halves of mold. Gently unmold both halves before popcorn is hard, and press halves together. Use raisins for eyes.

FOR A CHILD'S PARTY — In a child's world, this gay beguiling lamb will be a long time memory. Made of popcorn and a sugar syrup, it's easily shaped by hand or molded in a lamb cake mold. The ice cream is molded too.

Take Careful Handling

Sugar Plums Fondant

R. D. Marsh of Orchard Lake Road wants information on sugar plums and how to make them.

Sugar plums were one of the earliest forms of candy in the United States. The first real candy was stick candy; then came molasses taffy and sugar plums (not really plums, but plum-shaped bonbons).

Bonbons (which can be translated literally 'good, good' are made with fondant. This is a candy recipe that takes care and time.

FONDANT BONBONS

3 cups sugar
1½ cups water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup light corn syrup

Mix all ingredients in large sauce pan. Bring to boil, stirring. Cover; boil for 3 minutes. Remove cover and cook until small amount of mixture forms a soft ball in cold water (238 degrees).

Wash down sides of pan several times with a fork covered with cheesecloth and dipped into water, using an up and down motion.

Pour candy onto ungreased platter. Cook to lukewarm (110 degrees). Beat with paddle or spatula until mixture turns cloudy. Gather into a ball and knead with lightly buttered hands until smooth and creamy.

Put away in crock or glass jar to ripen for 2 or 3 days. Makes about 2¼ pounds.

MAKING SUGAR PLUMS

With a portion of this fondant, flavor as desired and shape into little plums. Bits of nuts, candied or dried fruits or coconut may be added. Let stand on wax paper, covered, overnight.

Next day, melt half as much fondant in double boiler. Flavor and color as desired. Remove from heat. Set pan in cold water for a moment and then put over hot, not boiling water to keep fondant warm.

With fork dip plums, one at a time, into melted fondant to cover. Place on wax paper to dry. Stir fondant after each plum is dipped to keep crust from forming. Leftover fondant may be dropped onto wax paper to make patties.

Sausage, French Toast Go Together

Just imagine Sausage French Toast, drizzled with warm honey, tempting the listless appetite of one of the little people in your house; or imagine it, topped with hot applesauce, for a teen party breakfast; or imagine these meaty toast slices, with dabs of bright tart jelly, improved for a host of friends in the wee hours.

Stop imaging, and start fixing. When you read the recipe for Sausage French Toast, you may think it's too complicated; but it really isn't.

What could be simpler than slicing a loaf of bread and opening shelf-handly cans of Vienna sausages? Success is assured if you use day-old or leftover bread — and if you soak both sides of each bread slice in the egg-milk mixture. (This will help hold the sausages in place.)

If you get carried away with the idea of inviting several couples in your dance club back to the house, prepare a giant recipe of the toast this easy way: Heat the oven to 500 degrees; place dipped slices of bread-and-sausage on a greased baking sheet; bake about 10 minutes.

SAUSAGE FRENCH TOAST

1 loaf (1-pound) enriched white bread, unsliced
2 cans (4 ounces each) Vienna sausages
3 eggs, slightly beaten
¾ cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
Butter
Cut bread into 6 slices, 1 inch thick. Drain sausages; arrange on bread as letters or designs, using about 2½ sausages for each. Carefully cut around and under sausages; remove bread pieces and fit sausages into hollows.

In shallow dish combine eggs with milk and salt. Add bread slices, one at a time, to egg mixture; coat each side completely. Fry until golden brown on both sides in small amount of hot butter.

Serve hot with honey, maple syrup or tart jelly. Makes 6 pieces of toast.

SAUSAGE FRENCH TOAST — Sausage French Toast is a real fun version of a conventional family favorite. So let your little one watch while you're fixing it — he'll just have to taste those plump little sausages nestled in the toast. He may even clean his plate! And after your teen-ager's crowd has survived their stave-off-sleep party at your house, they'll

Quick Recipe

Here's a delicious but low-cost casserole idea. In a casserole place two cans of lima beans, but only drain one can. Add a chopped medium onion, two cups of diced canned ham and some chopped pimiento. Mix well and bake about 30 minutes in a 350-degree oven. It's really good.

MICHIGAN CHERRY FESTIVAL — The 1968 National Cherry Queen and her court pose at the dessert table of the cherry smorgasbord luncheon in Traverse City. Pies, cakes, cookies, and all manner of puddings were made by wives of the cherry growers. Cherries, one of Michigan's most profitable and well known crops, are honored annually at a week long festival.

ROSY CHERRY DESSERT — Drain a 1-pound can tart red cherries; add water to juice to make 1 cup. Heat to boiling; remove from heat and add 2 packages (6 1/4 oz. each) tiny marshmallows. Cover and let stand about 5 minutes, or until marshmallows are melted. Add cherries and cook until mixture thickens. Cool. Fold in 1 cup heavy cream, whipped. Sprinkle 1/2 cup vanilla wafer crumbs in bottom of 11x7-inch dish. Pour in cherry mixture and top with 1/2 cup crumbs. Chill several hours, or overnight. Makes 10 servings.

Cherry Cookies Will Rate Cheers

If you really want to close the generation gap with your youngsters, bake cookies. It doesn't matter how you bake them — big, little, crunchy, chewy. But bake them. Yourself.

Cookies fill the bill like nothing else for kids who want something scrumptious that they can grab on the double and stash away — still moving at a fast clip.

Cookies are practically the easiest things in the world to bake. And you can always make them a little special if you have maraschino cherries on hand.

Blend them into the batter or perch them atop the cookies for decoration — or both. The bright red color and pleasant sweetness make any cookie doubly appealing.

CHERRY OATMEAL COOKIES

1/2 cup solid all-vegetable shortening
1/2 cup butter
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 jar (8 ounces) red maraschino cherries, drained and chopped
1/2 cup flaked coconut
2 cups quick rolled oats

1 jar (8 ounces) red maraschino cherries, drained and cut in pieces

Combine shortening, butter and sugars; beat until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs and vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Gradually add cherries, coconut, oats and sifted dry ingredients to creamed mixture. Chill 1 hour. Drop by tablespoonsful onto ungreased baking sheets. Place a piece of maraschino cherry atop each cookie. Bake in 375 degree (moderate) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown. After 1 minute, remove cookies to racks and cool.

Quick Cherry Pie Skips Crust

To "bake a cherry pie as quick as a cat can wink its eye" (almost) — skip the crust and 40-45 minutes baking time. Instead cook the cherry filling first and bake the pie only long enough to toast a fluffy meringue topping.

For the filling, boil 1/4 cup each of sugar and water or cherry liquid for 5 minutes; add 2 cups pitted, red sour cherries, well-drained, and simmer 10 minutes. Stir in 1/4 teaspoon of almond extract with a few drops of red food coloring; then turn into an 8-inch pie plate or 4 individual baking dishes.

For the meringue, beat 2 egg whites (at room temperature) with 1/4 teaspoons of vanilla extract to froth stage; gradually beat in 4 tablespoons of superfine sugar to stabilize the air bubbles in the egg foam; and continue beating until stiff. Swirl over pie filling.

Brown lightly in a preheated oven for about 4 minutes, or place under broiler unit for even faster baking of this quick cherry pie.

Wine Sauce Penetrates Sponge-Type Cake

For dessert, a Thirsty Torte is fun to prepare and delightful to serve with a glass of California Cream Sherry. The torte is a baked meringue punched with thirsty holes, then the thirst is quenched with a Sherry sauce.

The recipe is from a best-seller among specialty cook books, "Favorite Recipes of California Wine Makers." As the name implies, the recipes in this book are the long-time favorites of California wine producers, their families and employees — the people who know wines best.

The book is now available for one dollar in paper back form at many book stores or by mail from the Wine Advisory Board, 717 Market St., San Francisco, Ca. 94103.

THIRSTY TORTE

4 eggs, separated
3/4 cup sugar
1 cup sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder

1/2 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
Wine Sauce

Beat egg whites to soft peaks; gradually add 1/4 cup sugar, beating until stiff. Beat yolks with remaining 1/2 cup sugar until thick and lemon colored; fold into meringue. Sift dry ingredients together; fold into eggs.

Gently fold in melted butter and vanilla. Pour into 2-qt. casserole. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for 30 minutes or until done.

When done, poke holes all over cake with a fork or skewer; spoon over Wine Sauce. Sprinkle with coconut or chopped nuts. Top with whipped cream or ice cream.

especially when you express your affection with easy-eating Cherry Oatmeal Cookies. That's saying a mouthful!

Raised Doughnuts Hold Mincemeat

A new version of an old favorite — glazed or sugar-coated Berliners are plump and tender companions for any beverage.

These rolls are made from an airy yeast batter, deep-fried to a rich, brown color. Two circles of dough, with mincemeat in between, are carefully sealed together to prevent separation while frying, and then dropped into hot oil.

In deep frying, the temperature of the cooking oil is always an important factor. If you don't have a deep-fat thermometer, a one-inch cube of bread, dropped into the hot fat, will tell you when the oil is ready to use.

If the bread browns in 60 seconds, you'll know the temperature of the liquid has reached the necessary 375 degrees.

BERLINERS

5½ to 6½ cups enriched flour*
2 packages yeast
1 cup water

½ cup milk
½ cup sugar
¼ cup oil
2 teaspoons salt
2 eggs
½ cup mincemeat

Stir together 2 cups flour and yeast. Heat water, milk, sugar, oil and salt only until warm, stirring to blend. Add liquid ingredients to flour mixture and beat until smooth, about 2 minutes on medium speed of electric mixer or 300 strokes by hand.

Add eggs and beat 1 minute or medium speed or 150 strokes by hand. Stir in more flour to make moderately stiff dough. Turn onto lightly floured surface and knead until smooth and satiny, about 8 to 10 minutes.

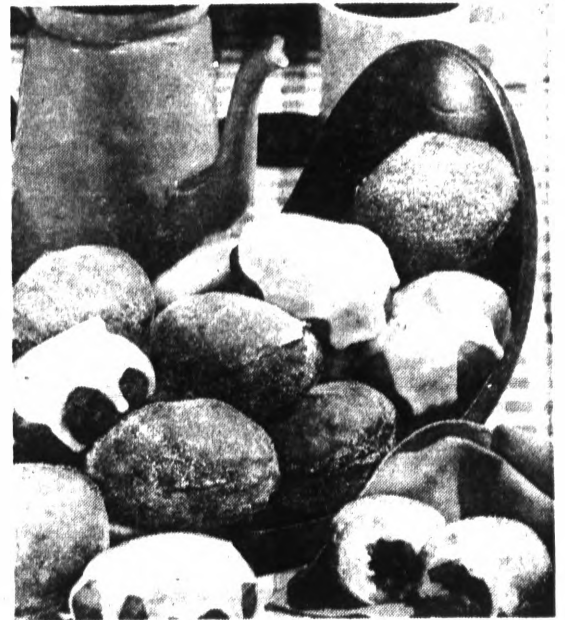

LET RISE

Place in lightly greased bowl, turning to grease all sides. Cover and let rise in warm place (80 to 85 degrees) until doubled, about 1½ hours.

Punch down. Divide dough in half; shape into balls. Cover; let rest 10 minutes. Roll dough ¼-inch thick. Cut 48 2½-inch circles. Place 1 teaspoon mincemeat filling on half the circles. Top with remaining circles; seal edges well. Let rise in warm place until doubled, about 30 to 45 minutes.

Deep fry in preheated 375 degree fat until golden brown, about 2 minutes on each side. Drain. Shake warm Berliners in sugar, or glaze with confectioner's sugar icing.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

BERLINERS — Fried buns are fun — to eat, to serve — especially when juicy mincemeat is the surprise filling.

Molasses Gives Flavor to Tempting Bran Muffins

Bran muffins are a perpetual favorite hot bread for breakfast and luncheon. Baked with the fragrant richness of fine molasses, with the added texture and flavor of sweet dates, bran muffins hit the spot with a cup of hot coffee.

Molasses Bran Muffins

½ cup shortening
¼ cup West Indies molasses
1 egg
1 cup bran
¾ cup milk
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup finely cut dates

Blend together shortening and molasses. Add egg; beat well. Stir in bran and milk; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to molasses mixture with the dates; stir only until blended.

Fill greased muffin cups two-thirds full. Bake in 350 degree oven 30 minutes. Yield: 12 small muffins.

Warming Drink

In a warm punch cup, blend 1 heaping teaspoon sugar with 2 whole cloves, 1 small cinnamon stick, 4 unsalted almonds, 1 teaspoon dried currant, and 1½ jiggers warmed light rum.

Ignite the rum and stir gently until the flame goes out. Add ½ jigger Amontillado Sherry, stir, and serve immediately.

Need Sharp Knife to Section Fruit

Sectioning grapefruit is easy to do if you follow these directions. Using a sharp pointed knife, peel each chilled grapefruit spiral fashion, cutting strip of peel 'round and 'round, down to the "meat" and removing all outer skin and white membrane.

To section, run the knife along the membrane of one side of each segment to the core; tip the knife outward and continue along membrane of other side of the segment, carefully lifting off the segment.

Be sure and section grapefruit over a bowl to reserve the juices, often used as an important ingredient of the recipe — or save for dressings, marinades or other recipes.

Brunch Bread Has Surprises

Into the line of play comes this football buffet. A brunch fit for big appetites of the young and the young at heart. There will be no passes; it's a touchdown!

Tomato Juice

Assorted Nabisco Crackers
Corned Beef with Onion Sauce
Wedges of Hard-Cooked Eggs
Cherry Tomatoes
Pineapple Upside Down Bread
Coffee

PINEAPPLE

UPSIDE DOWN BREAD

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup butter or margarine, melted
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup light brown sugar
1 (1-pound, $\frac{4}{8}$ ounce) can pineapple chunks, well drained

$2\frac{1}{2}$ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon baking powder
5 shredded wheat biscuits, finely rolled
1 tablespoon caraway seeds
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup finely grated sharp Cheddar cheese
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup grated raw carrot
2 eggs, lightly beaten
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup milk
Grease an 8x8x2-inch baking dish. Pour 3 tablespoons butter or margarine into baking dish. Sprinkle with $\frac{1}{2}$ of brown sugar. Arrange pineapple chunks on top. Set aside.
Sift flour, salt and baking powder. Add next four ingredients and remainder of brown sugar. Make a well in the center of dry ingredients. Add combined eggs, milk and the rest of butter. Stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Spread evenly over pineapple.

Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) 55 to 60 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes in pan before turning out. Serve warm. Makes 12 (approximately 2x2 $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch) portions.

CORNEB BEEF WITH ONION SAUCE

A half brisket (4 to 5 pounds) will be sufficient for 6 to 8 people. Sauté $\frac{1}{4}$ cup finely chopped onions in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine until golden.

Prepare 2 (2-ounce) packages white sauce mix according to label directions. Add onions and $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon ground nutmeg. Hard-cook 6 eggs; peel; cut in wedges and serve around the corned beef. Garnish with cherry tomatoes.

DRAIN ON TOWELS — Nowhere are paper products more valuable to the homemaker than in the kitchen. The paper towel has been an indispensable aid for food preparation, as in this brunch recipe for Fried French Sandwiches introduced at 1968 Food Editor's Conference in New York. Planned for a Warm-Up Brunch, the sandwiches go directly from electric fry pan to deep tone avocado paper towels for draining.

Chicken, Ham, Cheese Fill Hot Sandwich

Skis, sleds and snowmobiles, appearing on the weekend amusement scene, suggest the ideal situation for casual entertaining. This year invite your winter sporting enthusiasts to a "Warm-Up brunch."

Mid-morning is the ideal time to entertain because once brunch is served, the hostess is free to join in all the fun. Your menu need not be elaborate—just warming and cheerful.

And the smart hostess will make it easy on herself by utilizing convenience products wherever possible, according to Rosemary Zuern, Kimberly-Clark's consumer consultant.

Begin your Warm-Up Brunch with a glowing table setting. Make individual placemats out of bright red or orange adhesive covering. Cut in squares larger than your plate, pink edges and affix directly to table surface. The adhesive covering "sticks" easily and later peels off without damage to the finish.

Make matching napkin rings by adhering the covering to a one-or-two-inch ring cut from a paper towel core.

MENU

Suggested menu for your

"Warm-Up" brunch includes hot buttered tomato bouillon, Fried French Sandwiches, assorted relishes, hot apple pie with brandy hard sauce, and beverage.

FRIED FRENCH SANDWICH

1 cup diced cooked chicken
1 cup diced cooked ham
1 cup shredded Swiss cheese
1 tablespoon sharp mustard
4 eggs
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 loaf Vienna bread

Combine chicken, ham, cheese and mustard. Beat eggs with milk, salt and Worcestershire sauce. Cut bread into 16 slices, about $\frac{3}{8}$ inch thick, discarding the ends.

Spread the first mixture on 8 slices; top with remaining slices and press together lightly. Dip each sandwich into egg mixture.

Fry in hot fat ($\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup shortening) until brown; turn and fry second side. Add more shortening if necessary. Drain sandwiches on paper towels. Makes 8 sandwiches.

To make boiled eggs easier to peel, add 1 tablespoon of salt to the cooking water.

Silver Today Is Efficient, Does Its Job

Queen Elizabeth, as we understand history, carried her head pretty high. Most pictures show her with a still ruff round her neck which prevented most movement in any direction.

Have you ever wondered how those ladies of court handled simple matters like eating? The Queen was not to be discomforted for any reason, so she solved the problem of mealtime simply—she had extra-long-handled spoons made which required no excess movement at all!

And then there was the Traveler's Spoon, used by men on the road in the 17th and 18th centuries. This utensil had a tubular stem which held either a concealed toothpick or a tiny receptacle for salt.

The handle was usually hinged for easy storing and was often perched jauntily in the possessor's hatband.

Our silverware of the 20th century is much less elaborate than that of earlier days when lavish meals were practically a way of life. Today we are conscious of calories and efficiency.

GRAPEFRUIT

Grapefruit halves have long been a family favorite, and with a variety of toppings they're a delicious way to low calorie snacks, appetizers and desserts. No matter what the occasion a grapefruit spoon is a must for simplified sectioning.*

You simply halve juicy thin-skinned Florida grapefruit and serve; the serrated tip of the spoon enables the eater to remove each section easily without previous cutting.

Florida grapefruit are economical and healthful appetizers, desserts and morning eye-openers. And they provide us with the vitamin C we need every day.

*Available at one dollar for four spoons from FLORIDA CITRUS MUTUAL, P.O. Box 499, Lakeland, Florida.

PINEAPPLE UPSIDE DOWN BREAD — It looks like an upside down cake, but the batter is sharp and herby, not sweet. You'll find it right to serve for brunch during the football season.

Frozen Hash Browns Excellent in Pancakes

Frozen hash browns are one of the convenience potato forms about which there can be little argument. Even the most conservative cooks appreciate the time saved in peeling, trimming and grating or shredding — and with no sacrifice of quality. Just making breakfast potatoes so easy is enough of a reason for their popularity.

In addition, there are many other ways in which shredded hash brown potatoes can earn a permanent place in your freezer. Added to meatballs or meatloaf instead of bread crumbs, they add moistness and delectable flavor. Perfect to use in soups and, of course, hash. These shredded potatoes have put potato pancakes back on the active list.

If you've given up making them because you couldn't stand to peel and grate, substitute the luxury of pre-shredded Idaho potatoes for all that elbow grease and indulge in potato pancakes often.

POCATELLO POTATO PANCAKES

12 ounce pkg. frozen Idaho shredded potatoes
3 tablespoons chopped chives
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, lightly beaten
Caviar
Sour cream

Let potatoes thaw; drain well on paper towels. Mix with chives, salt and eggs. Drop by the tablespoon into about 1-inch hot cooking oil, flattening slightly with your spatula. Cook until golden brown on both sides.

Serve warm as hors d'oeuvres with caviar and sour cream. Makes about 20.

NOTE: This recipe can be used to make layer pancakes. Serve with whole strawberry preserves and sour cream; with pot roast; with pork chops and applesauce.

Today's Pork Is Customized

Grandma and her predecessors depended heavily on the hog as a source of fat — for cooking, candle-making, and all sorts of other jobs. Obliging, yesterday's hog was "plump."

But today's homemaker needn't do many of those chores, and doesn't want to pay for excess fat. Also, she is quite diet conscious. So is the modern hog "diet conscious."

Today's hogs — therefore the pork you find in food stores these days — are more "Mod" you might say.

Less fat means fewer calories in servings of pork, thus weight watchers are able to include generous servings of this tasty meat in their diets.

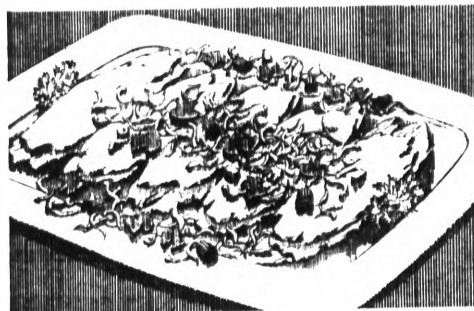

GOOD FOOD

An average serving of lean pork provides only 250 calories — and pork is 96 to 98 per cent digestible, says USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Another attribute of this meat is its rich supply of thiamine. Pork is one of the best sources of this B vitamin and also contains iron and niacin, plus, of course, high-quality protein.

Wine Added to Sauce for Chicken

Chicken is such a common food these days that cooks seek new ways of preparing it.

One delicious method is to simmer browned pieces of fowl in a flavorful tomato sauce. At the end of the cooking time, blend in half a cup of Rhine wine. Serve on hot spaghetti.

HUNTER'S CHICKEN WITH SPAGHETTI

- 2 broiler-fryer chickens, disjointed
 ½ cup seasoned flour (salt and pepper added)
 ½ cup vegetable oil
 1 clove garlic, minced
 2 medium onions, chopped
 1 green pepper, diced
 1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes
 1 can (6-oz.) tomato paste
 1 can (6-oz.) sliced broiled mushrooms
 1 teaspoon salt
 ¼ teaspoon pepper
 ¾ teaspoon oregano
 ½ cup Rhine wine

Dredge chicken in seasoned flour. Brown on all sides in hot oil. Add all remaining ingredients except wine. Simmer for about 1 hour, or until chicken is tender.

Add wine; blend well. Serve on hot spaghetti. Makes 6 servings.

Celery Soup Is No Longer Bland

Tempt the family to the table with a hearty bowl of soup. In saucepan, cook 2 ounces Canadian bacon, cut in strips (about ½ cup), ¼ cup chopped onion, and ¼ teaspoon caraway seed until onion is tender.

Add 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of celery soup, 1 soup can water, and 1 cup shredded cabbage; bring to boil. Cover; simmer about 10 minutes or until cabbage is tender. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Keep Large End Up

"Large ends up" is a good rule to follow when storing eggs. The yolks then will be centered. Use the handy plastic containers when refrigerating eggs.

KRAUT AND FRANK SKILLET—A crisp crusted layer of fried potatoes tops a tangy mixture of kraut and frankfurters, making a hearty, economical supper dish.

HUNTERS' CHICKEN—Tomatoes, mushrooms and wine are components of a sauce for chicken that will have diners coming back for seconds. With thin spaghetti, a crisp green salad and glasses of Rhine wine, you have a meal that's tops.

Dish Stars Sauerkraut

One particularly good, economical combination is sauerkraut and frankfurters—hearty food for winter meals. Kraut and Frank Skillet make a meal-in-one dish that needs only the addition of a salad or maybe some applesauce to round out the menu.

KRAUT AND FRANK SKILLET

- ¼ to ½ cup solid all-vegetable shortening
 4½ cups finely chopped cooked potatoes (about 1½ pounds)
 1 medium onion, finely chopped
 ½ teaspoon salt
 ½ teaspoon pepper
 3¼ cups drained sauerkraut
 1 pound frankfurters, sliced 1-inch thick
 ¼ cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar
 Prepared mustard

Heat shortening in a heavy 10- to 12-inch skillet. Combine potatoes, onion, salt and pepper; add to skillet.

Press potato mixture firmly and evenly over bottom of skillet. Cook over medium high heat, without stirring, until a brown crust forms on the bottom, about 10 minutes.

Mix together kraut, frankfur-ters and sugar; spread evenly over potatoes in the skillet. Reduce heat; cover and cook 10 to 15 minutes, or until kraut is heated through.

Run spatula around edge of skillet. Turn out onto large plate or serve from skillet. Serve with mustard.

Vegetables Accompany Baked Chops

Here's an easy-to main dish that looks pretty and colorful. Mock Stuffed Pork Chops feature center cut chops baked with whole kernel corn and lima beans in a barbecue-like sauce made from handy canned tomato sauce with mushrooms.

Tomato sauce with mushrooms gives a luxury touch to many main dishes for just pennies. Such a convenient way to pamper your family!

MOCK STUFFED PORK CHOPS

- 6 center cut loin pork chops (1/4 to 1/2 inch thick), trimmed
- Salt and Pepper
- 1 can (1 pound, 1 ounce) whole kernel corn, drained
- 1 can (1 pound) baby lima beans, drained
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce with mushrooms
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard

In skillet brown chops on both sides. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. In 8x4x2-inch loaf pan stand up chops; place corn and lima beans alternately between chops. Combine remaining ingredients; pour over all. Bake, covered, at 350 degrees for 1 hour. Uncover and bake 20 minutes more. Makes 6 servings.

WINTER DINNER Apple Sauce-Age Stuffed Towers and Spinach Salad help you prepare a meal that is rich in color and flavor.

Bake Veal Round Steak

Mrs. Frank Eagle of Pontiac has a way with veal steak that is especially pleasing to her junior high school son. He likes to have it for dinner after a session with his ski club.

Lemon Pudding Gets Party Touch

Prepare a 4-ounce package of lemon pudding and pie filling mix as package directs, folding two stiffly beaten egg whites into the hot mixture. Gently mix in 1 1/2 cups well-drained crushed pineapple or fruit cocktail and one cup chopped toasted California walnuts. Chill.

Makes eight to ten servings. Has tangy flavor, and pretty yellow color with interesting textures of crunchy walnuts and fluffy pudding.

VEAL A LA BUCKSKIN By Mrs. Frank Eagle

- 1 slice veal round steak, 1-inch thick
- 1 cup stewed tomatoes
- 1 onion, sliced
- 3 tablespoons oil
- 1/2 cup sour cream

Season veal with salt and pepper. Brown in oil in skillet. Add onion and tomatoes. Cover and bake 1 1/2 hours at 350 degrees.

Ten minutes before serving, spread meat with sour cream. Serve with hot French bread. Makes 4 servings.

Lots of Color, Flavor in Apple-Sausage Dish

During this chilly time of the year your family likes nothing better than a steaming hot dinner.

Apple sauce and pork are naturals together. They're both combined in Apple Sauce-Age Stuffed Towers. This is a spicy combination of pork sausage patties layered with a unique herb-seasoned stuffing and topped with apple sauce.

A salad of fresh spinach, tomatoes and whole kernel corn is delicious, especially if you're tired of plain lettuce salads.

minced onion, parsley, mustard and pepper, toss until mixed.

Arrange 6 sausage patties in a shallow pan. Top each with 1/2 cup stuffing, then another patty, insert toothpick through center to hold. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 55 minutes or until done.

Heat remaining apple sauce and serve over sausages. Six servings.

Spinach Salad

- 1/2 cup bottled Italian dressing
- 1 can (12 or 16 oz.) whole kernel corn
- 1/2 teaspoon dill seed
- 1/2 pound fresh spinach
- 1/2 cup small croutons
- 2 medium tomatoes
- 4 green onions
- Salt, pepper

Heat Italian dressing and pour over drained corn. Add dill seed to mixture and chill several hours or overnight to marinate. Break spinach into pieces. Add croutons, tomato wedges, chopped onions and corn with the dressing. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Toss lightly. Six servings.

Stuff Celery

Stuff celery with cream cheese or blue cheese spread, press in sliced natural almonds and cut into segments for hors d'oeuvre or to add to tossed salads.

Add baked potatoes, julienne carrots and spice cake with whipped cream for a family pleasing menu.

APPLE SAUCE-AGE STUFFED TOWERS

- 1 1/2 pounds bulk pork sausage
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 cups packaged herb-seasoned stuffing
- 1 can or jar (16 oz.) apple sauce
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1 small onion
- 2 tablespoons flaked parsley
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Shape sausage in 12 thin patties, 1/4 inch thick. In a mixing bowl, add melted butter to stuffing, tossing gently. Gradually stir in 1/2 cup hot apple sauce. Add finely chopped celery,

Let Spiced Nuts Rice Torte Is Delicious Dry in Oven

Sunkist's new exciting cookbook, "Citrus Treasures of The West" is refreshingly different, colorful and inexpensive, too — only $1.95, plus 30 cents for mailing and handling. It runs the gamut of good eating, from appetizers through desserts with more than 200 recipes.

The cookbook is not now available in local bookstores. It must be ordered through:

Sunkist Growers, Inc.
Consumer Service Division F.E.
Box 2706, Terminal Annex
Los Angeles, Calif. 90054

Send check or money order and allow at least 30 days for delivery. Here is a sample recipe from the cookbook.

Spicy Orange Nuts

$1\frac{1}{2}$ cups unsifted confectioners' sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 teaspoon cinnamon
 $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon cloves
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon allspice
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons freshly grated orange peel
2 egg whites, slightly beaten
3 tablespoons freshly squeezed orange juice
2 cups walnut or pecan halves
Sift together sugar, cornstarch, spices and salt; stir in grated peel. Blend egg whites with orange juice; stir in nuts, coating each half completely. Drain thoroughly, then roll in sugar mixture to coat well.

Spread on cookie sheet; do not allow nuts to touch. Bake at 250 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes, or until dry. Cool before storing in covered container. Makes 3 cups.

Chill Crumb Crust

A crumb pie crust will hold together much better if it is chilled 24 hours before the filling is put into it. This also makes for neater cutting.

Rice Torte Is Delicious

Rice recipes from 13 of America's top restaurants are included in a new booklet. They have been adapted for easy home preparation in the Uncle Ben's Kitchens, and many of them can be prepared with quick rice.

The luscious Rice Torte à la The Four Seasons is a pastry shell filled with creamy, lemon accented rice crowned with a golden meringue.

Rice Torte

1 9-inch pie shell, baked and cooled
3 cups milk
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup converted rice
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon freshly grated lemon peel
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup lemon juice
3 egg whites
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar

Bring milk just to boiling. Stir in rice, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar and salt. Cover tightly and cook over low heat until rice is tender and mixture thickens, about 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Blend in lemon peel and juice. Turn into baked pie shell.

Beat egg whites until foamy; gradually beat in sugar until stiff peaks form. Spread over rice mixture, sealing meringue to pie crust on all sides. Bake at 425 degrees for 6 to 8

Two-Fruit Sauce Made With Wine

Apple-cranberry wine sauce is good with meats and poultry. Wash, core and dice enough unpeeled apples to make 2 cups.

In a saucepan, combine apples with 1 cup of whole berry cranberry sauce, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of red table wine, 4 teaspoons of prepared hot mustard and 2 teaspoons of prepared horseradish. Simmer, uncovered, until apples are cooked and sauce thickens. Makes 2 cups.

FRESH PEAR PIE — Fresh winter pears — Anjou, Bosc, Nelis or Comice — are delicious in pies and desserts if cooked while slightly firm-ripe.

Keep Them Moist

Pair of Cookies Is Full of Pears

Cookies and milk, the favorite snack for after-school munching! To make this treat extra yummy, bake up a bath of "Pear Drops." Brimming full of canned Bartlett pears, these spicy cookies are perked with a juicy fruit flavor and moist mixture.

Used right from the can, the pear halves are finely chopped and folded into a creamy batter along with chopped nuts. The result is a wholesome cookie that satisfies children's hungry appetites.

The "Pear-A-Bars" are in a two-in-one cookie that can be plain or marbled with chocolate. Cut into squares or bars, they have a cake-like texture that is permeated with morsels of pear.

PEAR DROPS

- 1 (1 lb.) can Bartlett pears
- ½ cup soft shortening
- 1½ cups brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon ground cloves
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- 2 tablespoons pear syrup
- 1 cup chopped nuts

Drain and dice pears, reserving syrup. Cream shortening and brown sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Sift together dry ingredients and add to creamed mixture alternately with the 2 tablespoons pear syrup. Blend in diced pears and nuts.

Drop by teaspoonfuls on a lightly greased baking sheet. Bake in a 375-degree oven 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about 4 dozen cookies.

PEAR-A-BARS

- 1 (1 lb.) can Bartlett pear halves
- ½ cup butter
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- ½ cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
- 1¼ cups sifted flour
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- 1 egg
- ¼ cup chopped walnuts

All Winter Pears Are Delicious

It takes some very lush adjectives to describe a fine, soft-ripe pear: "Buttery-smooth, satin-fleshed!" "Rich, vinous flavored!" "Juicy, piquant, perfumed!" These are all terms which have been used to set forth the delights of fruits such as the Anjou, Bosc, Nelis and Comice pears which reach our produce counters during winter months.

Anjous, often called "Beurre d'Anjou" (and beurre means buttery) is an old French pear of obscure origin. It has always been a fruit bowl favorite and was introduced into the United States in 1842 by a Colonel Wilder of Boston.

It's a medium to large pear, oval to globular in shape. Its yellowish-green skin is sometimes tinged with crimson. Its smooth, fine grained flesh has an aromatic, spicy, sweet flavor.

When juicy and soft-ripe, this is an exquisite fruit eaten just as is or served in a fruit cup or salad. Firm-ripe it can be cooked gently or sliced into a pie or fruit compote.

BOSC

The Beurre Bosc can be identified immediately by its long tapering neck, its dark yellow skin overlaid with cinnamon russet. It's very juicy when ripe, with a wine-y and aromatic perfume. Boscs are delicious raw, but are especially good when broiled or baked. It is the second winter pear in volume produced.

The winter Nelis and Comice are not as plentiful as either the Anjou or Bosc. The large, greenish-yellow Comice is a gorgeous pear, but a temperamental grower, while the richly flavored Winter Nelis doesn't keep as well in storage as do the other three. Both are perfect for eating out of hand, for salads and in the preparation of delectable desserts.

RIPEN AT HOME

Pears do not ripen satisfactorily on the tree but ripen perfectly off the tree when picked at the right stage. Pears as offered in retail stores usually are not ready to eat, need ripening for two or three days at room temperature.

So buy them ahead of time to keep a supply ripening, and to have some ripe ones in the refrigerator ready to eat. They ripen well in the bag in which they come from the store. A sheet of damp paper towel near the fruit supplies desirable humidity.

FRESH PEAR CREAM PIE

- ¼ cup cornstarch
- ½ cup sugar
- 1/16 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups milk
- 4 egg yolks
- 1½ teaspoons pure vanilla extract

Poached Fresh Pears

- 9-inch baked pastry shell
- ½ cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- ¼ teaspoon pure vanilla extract

Combine cornstarch, sugar and salt in the top of a double boiler or in a saucepan. Heat 1½ cups milk and gradually blend with dry ingredients. Stir and cook over medium heat until the mixture is very thick.

Blend the remaining ¼ cup milk with egg yolks and add. Mix well. Cook over hot water until the cream is about as thick as mayonnaise. Remove from heat and stir in pure vanilla extract. Cool completely.

Turn into a baked 9-inch pastry shell. Chill 3 to 4 hours or overnight. Just before serving, arrange well-drained, cold Poached Pears over the top.

Combine whipped cream, the 1 tablespoon sugar and ¼ teaspoon pure vanilla extract and spoon over the top as desired. Yield: One 9-inch pie.

'Hot' Mixture Goes on Rice

Here's a salmon quickie which takes only 10 minutes to prepare. Serve it with cooked instant rice.

Madagascar Salmon

- 2 hot green chile peppers, seeded and chopped
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons cooking oil
- ¾ ounce can salmon

In skillet saute peppers, onion and garlic in oil until very lightly browned. Stir in salmon and sprinkle with salt and pepper to taste. Makes 2 servings.

Light corn syrup is a little sweeter than dark corn syrup.

PEAR COOKIES — Greet after-school appetites with these perky pear treats. Chopped pears are folded into cookie batter, adding an interesting taste and moistness. They'll disappear fast.

Elegant Sauce Adds Mint to Pear Salad

Need an elegant winter salad?

Pears, Lettuce and Creme de Menthe Sauce

- 6 pears, cored and halved
- Salt
- 6 iceberg lettuce cups

Place two lightly-salted peach halves on each iceberg lettuce cup. Top each serving with ¼ cup Creme de Menthe sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Creme de Menthe Sauce

- 1 egg
- ½ cup confectioners sugar
- ½ cup whipping cream
- 2 teaspoons green Creme de Menthe or ¼ teaspoon pure mint extract and 2 drops green food coloring

Beat egg until thick; add sugar gradually and continue beating until thoroughly blended. Whip cream very stiff and add Creme de Menthe or mint extract and food coloring.

Combine cream mixture with egg. Beat thoroughly. The secret of the success of this recipe is thorough beating. Sauce will keep for hours in the refrigerator. Makes 1½ cups.

With Vegetables

Try This New Way

Tired of the usual round of vegetables? Well, don't just sit there and sulk. Try a new way of preparing some of the old favorites. Take squash, for instance. Present it as a puffy mound garnished with meringue and nuts. Do the same thing with turnips or sweet potatoes.

VEGETABLE PUFFS

- 2 packages (12 ounces each) frozen cooked squash, turnips or sweet potatoes
- ¼ cup melted butter or margarine
- ¼ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons rum
- ½ teaspoon ground mace
- 2 eggs, separated
- ½ cup corn flake crumbs
- 2 egg whites
- ¼ cup granulated sugar
- ¼ teaspoon ground mace
- ¼ cup pecan halves

Mix together squash, butter, brown sugar, rum, ½ teaspoon mace, egg yolks and corn flake crumbs. Spoon mixture in 6 mounds on a buttered shallow baking dish.

Beat egg whites until stiff. Gradually beat in granulated sugar, a tablespoon at a time, until mixture holds stiff peaks. Fold in ¼ teaspoon mace. Put a large spoonful of meringue on each squash mound.

Garnish each with several pecan halves, inserting them part way into the meringue mixture. Bake in a preheated slow oven (325 degrees F.) for 20 to 25 minutes, or until meringue is golden brown.

Variations

Turnip Puffs. Substitute an equal amount of frozen cooked squash.

SWEET POTATO PUFFS. Substitute an equal amount of frozen whipped sweet potatoes for the frozen squash, but omit butter, sugar, seasonings and crumbs if the frozen sweet potatoes are seasoned.

VEGETABLE PUFFS — Frozen squash is the foundation for these festive vegetable puffs, an excellent accompaniment for turkey or a roast. They are baked beneath a meringue of beaten egg white spiced with mace and garnished with pecan halves. Frozen turnips and frozen whipped sweet potatoes are suggested in the recipe as alternates for the frozen squash.

Cook Rutabagas With Apples and Mash Together

If your menu-planning is caught in the mid-winter doldrums, try giving your vegetable dishes a lift by adding apples to them.

Nutmeg and honey are used to simmer Apple-Rutabaga Whip; the combination here of flavors will convince you that it's the only way to serve rutabagas.

Apple-Rutabaga Whip

- 2 lbs. rutabagas, peeled and diced
- Boiling salted water
- 2 apples peeled, cored and quartered
- 4 tablespoons butter, at room temperature
- 2 tablespoons honey
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Place rutabagas in a saucepan. Barely cover with boiling salted water and simmer, covered, for 15 minutes, or just tender.

Peel, core and quarter the apples, add to rutabagas and continue cooking until apples are tender. Drain.

Mash the rutabagas and apples together. Stir in butter, honey, salt and pepper and nutmeg. Whip until fluffy. Serves 4-6.

Use a swivel-blade vegetable peeler to pare off the brown covering from fresh coconut meat.

Tropical Touch in Poultry Stuffing

The tropical stuffing made with pineapple tidbits, chicken consomme and rice is a gourmet's delight. Water chestnuts, green onion and celery provide the crisp texture contrast.

And soy sauce seasons this Polynesian stuffing with the right amount of zip.

Our version of the classic bread stuffing has crushed pineapple as well as bread crumbs, onion, and celery.

PINEAPPLE BREAD STUFFING

- ½ cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped celery
- ½ cup butter
- ¼ teaspoon thyme
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

- 5 cups toasted bread crumbs*
- 1 (8½-ounce) can crushed pineapple

Cook onion and celery in butter until soft but not browned. Add thyme and pepper. Pour over bread crumbs, tossing to blend. Add undrained pineapple and mix lightly. Makes 5 cups dressing (enough for 10-pound turkey).

*Toast day-old bread, then break into coarse crumbs or cut into small cubes. NOTE: Bread should not be completely dried out.

TROPICAL RICE STUFFING

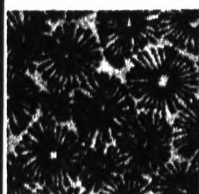

- 1 (13½-ounce) can pineapple tidbits
- 1 (10½-ounce) can chicken consomme

- Water
- 1 cup rice
- 1 (5-ounce) can water chestnuts
- ¼ cup butter
- ½ cup chopped green onion
- ½ cup thinly sliced celery
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce

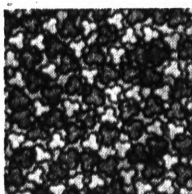

Drain syrup from pineapple and combine with consomme. Measure and add water to make 2 cups. Stir in rice and heat to boiling. Cover and cook 15 minutes, or until liquid is absorbed and rice is tender.

Lightly mix in pineapple, drained and sliced, water chestnuts and remaining ingredients. Makes about 5 cups dressing (enough for 10-pound turkey).

Carpet designed for the busiest room in the house!

The kitchen . . . where neighbors troop in and kids troop out—where husbands putter around and wives spend nearly every minute of the day.

The people at Barwick Mills decided to improve the kitchen. So they developed a floor covering that is so great you'll just have to see it to believe it. Imagine.

The luxury and comfort under foot of soft carpet—the dramatic change in appearance. Bold, bright colors. Patterns to mix and meld with any decorative motif. No more hands and knees scrubbing and waxing. Wipe up spills with a sponge. Pick up crumbs with a vacuum. The only thing it absorbs is noise.

There's a lot to be said for a kitchen carpeted by Barwick. A built-in rubber cushion makes standing much easier. There's no need for a separate pad and it grips the floor reducing skids and slides. Kitchen Classic . . . surprisingly inexpensive.

TO START A PARTY — Pimiento-stuffed olives, served either as they are or used as an ingredient for Chicken Liver Pate or in Barbecued Chicken-Little "Legs," are perfect for hors d'oeuvres and appetizers.

Start Party Well With Appetizers

There is no food more fun to prepare nor any that takes greater imagination than hors d'oeuvres and appetizers. It may just be a few nibbles in the living room before dinner or the first course for a sit-down formal affair. Then again, appetizers may be the only food served . . . at a cocktail party . . . at a card games' intermission . . . or for TV watching.

OLIVE - CHICKEN LIVER PATE

1/4 cup chopped shallots
1 1/4 cups butter
2 pounds chicken livers
1/2 cup Madeira wine
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon each: nutmeg, pepper
Dash thyme leaves
1/2 cup heavy cream
3/4 cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
Sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
In large skillet, saute shallots in 1/4 cup of the butter until crisp-tender but not browned; remove with slotted spoon. In same skillet, saute chicken livers a few at a time, until lightly browned (use more of the butter if needed); remove.
Pour Madeira into skillet and add the seasonings; bring to boil, stirring to loosen browned bits in skillet. Combine half the livers, shallots and Madeira and cream in blender jar; blend smooth. Repeat, blending remaining half.
Melt remaining butter; blend into liver mixture with chopped olives. Turn into pate mold or serving dish; chill several hours or overnight. When ready to serve, make diagonal cuts on top of pate and garnish with sliced olives in center of each diamond. Makes about 5 cups.

PIMIENTO OLIVE PUFFS

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 cup water
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon Tabasco
4 eggs
Small whole pimiento-stuffed olives (about 40)

Sift together flour, mustard and salt; mix with cheese. Set aside. Heat water, butter and Tabasco in saucepan until water simmers and butter melts. Remove from heat; quickly add flour mixture all at once.

ADD EGGS

Beat until mixture leaves the sides of pan and forms a ball. Beat in eggs, one at a time, beating smooth after each addition. Drop by level tablespoonfuls onto lightly greased cookie sheet. Press olive into center of each. Bring up dough around each olive.

Bake in 400 degree (hot) oven 20 to 25 minutes, or until puffed and lightly browned. Serve hot. Makes about 3 1/2 dozen.

BARBECUED CHICKEN-LITTLE "LEGS"

3 pounds chicken wings
1/2 cup salad oil
1/2 cup lemon juice
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives

Cut wings at both joints; discard tips. Combine disjointed wing pieces with remaining ingredients. Marinate several hours or overnight in refrigerator, stirring occasionally. Arrange wing pieces on rack in shallow roasting pan.

Roast in 450 degree (hot) oven 35 to 45 minutes, or until crisp and browned. Spoon marinade over wings several times during roasting time. Makes about 28 pieces.

Use discarded wing tips to make broth or soup stock, if desired.

Bitters Give Eggs Special Taste

Anybody can make a meal of eggs and everybody has. There is the morning fry, the luncheon souffle, the dinner omelet, the midnight scramble.

Since there is such an insatiable appetite for them, no wonder that eggs presented in new and imaginative ways command interest and attention.

A famous New York restaurant makes scrambled eggs that its gourmet clientele insist are worth a trip from Europe for.

Why are they so unusual and superbly good? A drop or two of aromatic bitters is used to flavor them, just enough to give a fresh new character to the delicate taste of the eggs.

That same unique blend of herbs and spices gives rare flavor to this casserole of baked eggs, a delightful main dish for lunch or supper or a surprise appetizer to serve in the living room as a first course.

STUFFED EGGS EN CASSEROLE

8 hard cooked eggs
2 tablespoons light cream
¼ cup finely chopped canned mushrooms
2 teaspoons aromatic bitters
Salt and pepper
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup flour
2 cups milk
½ cup grated cheddar cheese
Paprika

Cut a slice from the small end of eggs so they can stand upright. Scoop out yolks. Mash yolks and mix with light cream, mushrooms, 1 teaspoon of the bitters and salt and pepper to taste. Refill egg whites.

MAKE SAUCE

Melt butter and stir in flour. Gradually stir in milk and remaining bitters. Cook over low heat stirring constantly until sauce bubbles and thickens. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Spoon sauce over eggs. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Dust with paprika. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400 degrees) for 20 minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

Switch bottled Italian Dressing, ordinarily used for vegetable salads to a fruit salad dressing by pouring in a little light corn syrup.

MEXIDOGS — Combine 1 can (12 oz.) mexicorn, drained, with ¼ cup chopped dill pickle; 2 tablespoons barbecue sauce and 2 tablespoons prepared mustard. Spread on 6 enriched frankfurter rolls. Top with frankfurters. Wrap in aluminum foil. Heat over coals on a grill or in 400-degree oven 15 minutes, until hot. Makes 6 sandwiches.

Cookies Are Spirited Goodies

Mrs. Everett R. Shepherd wants Pontiac Press readers to have a favorite cookie recipe of hers.

The recipe came down in the family from her great grandmother.

TEXAS LIZZIES

By Mrs. Everett R. Shepherd

½ lb. butter
2 cups dark brown sugar
4 eggs
1 cup whiskey
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
3 cups whole pecans
3 cups whole walnut meats
1 box dark raisins
1 box white raisins
½ lb. red and green candied cherries, sliced

3½ cups cake flour
3 teaspoons soda

Cream butter and sugar in large bowl. Add well beaten eggs. Add whiskey slowly. Mix flour, soda, spices, fruit and nuts together in another large bowl. Add to the first mixture. Mix well with large spoon or hands.

CHILL

Chill overnight. In the morning, drop from spoon two inches apart on greased cookie sheet. Bake 10-15 minutes in 350-degree oven or until slightly brown. Makes about 7 dozen.

Dough will keep for a month in the refrigerator.

Do not substitute margarine for butter or regular flour for cake flour.

STUFFED EGGS — Eggs stand on their own for luncheon or supper when imaginatively-seasoned and baked with a flavorful sauce.

Stale spices steal flavor

The difference between a plain meal and a superb dinner is often just a pinch of the right spice.

PEANUT BUTTER PIE — Mrs. John DePauw, 995 Argyle, makes an interesting custard-type pie. Under the filling and over the meringue she sprinkles a tasty mixture of peanut butter and flour. It's different and delicious.

Peanutty Mixture Is Part of Cream Pie

Several months before this recipe book was being worked on, Mrs. John DePauw of Pontiac called the paper to say she had an excellent peanut butter pie recipe.

She agreed to make one about 10 days ago, just before The Press photographer was due to take her picture. Then this thoughtful cook presented said photographer with the pie.

It came back to the office to be happily sampled by editorial staff members. All agreed with the cook's definition of excellent.

PEANUT BUTTER STREUSEL PIE

By Mrs. John DePauw

Make crust for an 8-inch pie pan as follows:

- 1 cup sifted flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- One-third cup shortening, plus 1 tablespoon
- 2 eggs slightly beaten
- 2 tablespoons milk

Mix in order given and form into ball. Roll to fit pie pan. Flute edges and prick shell.

Bake at 475 degrees for 8-10 minutes. Cool and fill.

Filling

Mix together one-third cup peanut butter and ¾ cup confectioner's sugar until well blended into crumbs. Spread half of this on baked pie shell. Set rest aside for top of pie.

- ½ cup sugar
- one-third teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- ¾ tablespoon flour
- 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
- 2¼ cups milk
- ¾ teaspoon butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix sugar, salt, cornstarch, flour, egg yolks and milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat when thick and add butter and vanilla. Cool. Pour into prepared crust.

MERINGUE

Whip egg whites until slightly foamy. Add pinch of salt and ½ teaspoon cream of tartar, 4 tablespoons sugar. Continue beating until mixture forms stiff peaks. Spread over cream filling.

Top with remaining streusel mix and brown slightly in 350-degree oven. Makes one pie.

Cheese Shell Just Right for Tartlets

For an extra special treat for guests, make these Blue Cheese Tartlets. Despite their festive appearance, they're amazingly easy to prepare.

The tender cheese pastry lends itself to advance baking. Then, when guests drop in, all you have to do is pour in the custard mixture and let the oven do the rest.

In 15 to 20 minute, you'll have an oven-hot and non-sweet treat to offer guests with a beverage.

BLUE CHEESE TARTLETS

- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 3-ounce package cream cheese, softened
- ¾ cup crumbled American Blue cheese (about 4 ounces)
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 tablespoons chopped chives
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- ¾ cup light cream
- ¼ cup milk
- ½ teaspoon pepper

Combine 1 tablespoon butter, cream cheese, ¼ cup Blue cheese and flour; blend. Press dough lightly into a ball. Roll out on lightly floured surface to ⅛-inch thickness.

Cut into 12 rounds and press into 12 1½-inch, party-size muffin pans or individual, fluted tart pans. Prick pastry to allow escape of steam. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 5 minutes.

Melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter; add chives and cook 5 minutes. Divide chive mixture among 12 pastry shells. Sprinkle with ¼ cup Blue cheese. Combine eggs, cream, milk and pepper; mix well. Pour into pastry shells.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes, or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Garnish tops with remaining ¼ cup Blue cheese.

Date Bar Mix Turns Into Rich Pecan Pie

You'll love this Holiday Date Pecan Pie because it starts with a convenient mix — Date Bar Mix. It's an elegant treat that's certain to be a hit with your family and guests this merry time of year.

QUICK

You have no difficult, time-consuming pastry to prepare with Holiday Date Pecan Pie because part of the Date Bar Mix is used to make the tender, delicate crumb crust.

Corn syrup, eggs, pecan halves and raisins are added to the date filling mix before baking to make this delightful pie a rich addition to your holiday festivities.

HOLIDAY DATE PECAN PIE

- 1 package date bar mix
- 1 tablespoon cold water
- 1 cup light corn syrup
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 cup pecan halves
- 1 cup raisins

Heat oven to 350 degrees. In bowl, blend crumbly mix from date bar mix and water with fork. Pat evenly in 9-inch pie pan.

In saucepan, heat date filling and corn syrup until filling is dissolved, gradually stir in eggs. Stir in pecans and raisins. Pour into prepared pan. Cover edge with 2- to 3-inch strip of aluminum foil to prevent excessive browning.

Sounds Super

Mushrooms with almonds can be such a dressy vegetable! Arrange nice big caps in baking dish, sprinkle with Madeira and stuff with a mixture of buttered soft bread crumbs and finely chopped almonds. Bake at 425 degrees 8 to 10 minutes.

Bake about 35 minutes. Cool. If desired, serve with sweetened whipped cream. 8 servings.

Add Raisins to Mocha Pie

Here's a unique raisin mocha pie. The coffee is absorbed by the sweet raisins. Then the raisins and coffee are folded into the fluffy chocolate cream. Turn this filling into a crisp meringue shell and chill until ready to serve. It's really as simple as that.

Raisin Mocha Meringue Pie

- 1½ cups seedless raisins
- 1 cup water
- 2 teaspoons instant coffee
- 1 (6-ounce) package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- ½ pint whipping cream

Meringue Shell

Simmer raisins, water and coffee 5 minutes. Cover and let stand until cold; drain.

Melt chocolate over warm water. Whip cream until barely stiff. Fold warm chocolate into cream slowly. Fold in raisins. Turn into meringue shell. Chill thoroughly.

Meringue Shell: Beat 4 egg whites with ½-teaspoon cream of tartar and ¼-teaspoon salt until stiff. Gradually beat in 1 cup sugar, adding a tablespoon at a time.

Continue beating until very stiff and shiny. Blend in 1 teaspoon vanilla. Spread in bottom and sides of buttered 9-inch pie plate. Bake in slow oven (275 degrees) 1 hour.

Turn off heat, open oven door and leave in oven one half hour. Cool thoroughly before filling.

Add curry powder and lemon juice to mayonnaise; serve with shrimp, lobster, crabmeat.

Salad Vegetables Are Quick-Cooked

If you like vegetables cooked Chinese style, you'll enjoy this dish.

Steamed Salad

- 1 medium or large cucumber
- 1 green pepper
- Romaine
- 2 tablespoons butter
- ½ teaspoon salt

Peel cucumber; halve lengthwise; cut out seed portion; slice crosswise into thin crescents. Halve green pepper crosswise; discard seeds and white membranes; cut lengthwise into thin strips.

Knife-shred outer leaves of romaine (about ¼-inch wide) to make 4 cups lightly packed.

In a 10-inch skillet over low heat, melt butter. Add vegetables and salt and mix to coat with butter; cover tightly and simmer, stirring several times, just until cucumbers look transparent—about 10 to 15 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

LOW CALORIE DESSERT — Scald 2 cups skim milk; blend in 1 tablespoon liquid sucaryl and ½ teaspoon almond extract. Beat 6 egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored; add milk, stirring constantly. Pour into 6 half-cup cream pots or small custard cups. Set pot in pan of hot water; cover with foil and bake about 30 minutes at 325 degrees, or until knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Serve chilled. Makes 6 servings, each 90 calories; 515 grams protein; 5.5 grams fat; 4 grams carbohydrate.

Cook Suggests a Menu

Mrs. Edward Vines of Murray Street was recommended as one of the best cooks in the Newman AME Church. When readers see the picture of the foods she cooked for this occasion and her recipes, they will agree.

Mrs. Vines does some catering. She is a painstaking cook, wanting to have everything perfect. Here are her recipes for the dinner she prepared.

RISOTTO WITH SHRIMP

By Mrs. Edward Vines

- 2 cups Italian rice
- 2 pounds shelled and deveined shrimp
- 4 cups fish bouillon
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1 tablespoon salad oil
- 1/4 of an onion
- 1/2 of a small carrot
- 1/2 stalk celery
- 2 cups dry white wine
- 1/4 cup brandy
- Pinch of thyme
- Salt
- Freshly ground pepper

Chop the vegetables and put in a large heavy skillet with 3 tablespoons butter and the oil. Cook over medium heat until lightly browned. Add wine, brandy and thyme and cook until liquid is reduced by half.

Add shrimp and continue cooking for 10 minutes over moderate heat. Keep this hot while you prepare rice.

COOK RICE

Bring bouillon to a boil in oven proof casserole. Add rice and a little salt and let it return to a boil. Put into 350 degree oven, covered, for about 25 minutes.

Toss rice well with a fork, add rest of butter and turn onto a hot platter. Cover with hot shrimp sauce and serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

MUSHROOM TOSSED GREENS

- 1 head romaine
 - 1 bunch leaf lettuce
 - 1/2 pound mushrooms
 - 1/2 pound Belgian endive
 - 1/2 cup lemon French dressing
- Wash and dry all greens. Break them into a bowl. Wipe mushrooms and trim stems. Slice thin and put on top of greens. Toss with lemon French dressing.

Dressing

- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/8 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/4 teaspoon sugar
 - 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
 - 1/2 cup olive oil or salad oil
- Mix first five ingredients. Pour in oil slowly and mix well.

LEMON MOUSSE

- 5 eggs, separated
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
- 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup strained lemon juice
- 1/8 cup heavy cream

Beat egg yolks and sugar until pale and thick. Stir in lemon rind. Sprinkle gelatin on 6 tablespoons cold water and stir. Heat gently until dissolved and clear. Add lemon juice. Beat egg whites stiff.

Stir gelatin and juice mixture carefully into beaten yolks. Whip cream and fold into yolk mixture, together with beaten egg whites.

Rinse a glass bowl and leave it wet. Pour in mixture and chill at last 3 hours. Unmold and decorate with additional whipped cream and fresh grapes. Makes 6 servings.

Sweet Figs Part of Unusual Parfait

This handy easy-to-use dessert may be made up ahead of time and stored in the freezer.

Tropical Parfait

- 1 cup very thinly sliced dried figs
 - 1/2 cup pineapple juice
 - 2 tablespoons brown sugar
 - 1 tablespoon rum (optional)
 - 2 cups pound cake, cut into bite-sized cubes
- Lemon or orange sherbert
Whipped cream
- In small saucepan, bring figs to boil with pineapple juice, brown sugar and rum. Simmer five minutes; cool.
- In sherbert or parfait glasses, arrange alternate layers of figs with cake and sherbert. Top with whipped cream.
- Serve immediately or freeze until serving time. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

When you are making cranberry sauce be sure to skim the foam from the top after cooking.

Ramaki Becomes a Spread

Good fun, good cheer, and good food — these are the ingredients for a party, whether it's a gala dinner planned long in advance or a snack for a few friends.

But because today's hostess is discovering that it's a party whenever friends gather, she plans her shopping so that her refrigerator, freezer and cupboard shelves hold the makings of party refreshments at any time of day.

One welcome example of instant refreshment when a party just happens, is an attractive array of cheese and crackers. Your grocer's dairy case yields a wide selection of cheeses that are good by themselves, or blended with other ingredients.

Two spreads were developed to go with bacon-flavored crackers. One adapts the ingredients of Ramaki, the exotic Cantonese bite-size appetizers, in a spread.

RAMAKI SPREAD

- 1/2 pound chicken livers
- 1/4 cup butter
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 2 teaspoons brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon chopped green onion
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- Dash of ground ginger
- Dash of garlic salt
- 1 5-oz. can water chestnuts, drained and finely chopped
- 4 slices crisply cooked bacon, crumbled
- Chopped green onions

Cook chicken livers in butter, stirring occasionally for 10 minutes or until chicken livers have lost their pinkness. Cool. Sieve or whirl chicken livers and liquid in blender until smooth.

Add lemon juice, soy sauce, sugar, onion, mustard, ginger and garlic salt, blending until smooth. Stir in water chestnuts and bacon. Chill. Garnish with green onion. Yields: 1 1/4 cups.

The second is a handsome cheese log, with sour cream added to give a piquant flavor.

CHEESE ALMOND LOG

- 1 8-oz. pkg. mild cheddar cheese, shredded
- 1 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese
- 3 tablespoons dairy sour cream

Simple Recipe Makes Souffle for Twosome

Cheese souffle is baked in individual dishes.

Cheese Souffle for Two

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/8 pound sharp cheddar cheese, grated medium fine
- 2 large eggs, separated

In a 1 1/2-quart saucepan over low heat, melt the butter; stir in the flour, salt and mustard. Add the milk; cook, stirring constantly, until thickened.

Remove from heat; add cheese and with a whisk stir until melted. Whisk in the egg yolks, one at a time.

With a rotary beater, hand or electric, beat the egg whites until they hold stiff peaks; fold into cheese mixture. Turn into 2 souffle dishes (each about 4 1/2 by 2 inches and each holding about 1 1/2 cups) or similar baking dishes.

Bake in a 375-degree oven until puffed and brown — 20 minutes for firm souffles. Serve at once. (Souffles sink rapidly.) Makes 2 servings.

NEW SPREADS — Guests will be intrigued by the true bacon flavor of the new Bacon Toasts. These crisp round crackers have the flavor and aroma of bacon baked right into them. They'll be conversation pieces at any party, and they'll go well with all your favorite spreads and dips.

SUNDAY BRUNCH PUFFS — A welcome change from the usual food served at brunch is creamed chicken and ham in patty shells. The shells are the convenient frozen kind. There's nothing wrong with serving this dish at the next luncheon you plan for the bridge foursome.

Unbaked Cheese Cake Is Strawberry Pink, Smooth

From Metamora comes a recipe for an unbaked strawberry cheese cake that sounds delicious. It would be an elegant dessert for a Valentine's party.

STRAWBERRY CLOUD CHEESE CAKE

By Mrs. Edward S. Budnick

Crust:

1 1/4 cups vanilla wafer crumbs
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup crushed almonds
1/2 cup browned butter or margarine

Take out 1/2 cup of crumbs for topping. Mix rest of crumbs with other ingredients and press into 8x12 pan.

Filling:

1/2 cup cold water
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin

1 small carton creamed cottage cheese
8 oz package cream cheese
1 cup, plus 2 tablespoons sugar
10-oz. package frozen strawberries
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups sour cream
Soften gelatin in cold water and place in pan of hot water to dissolve. In large mixer bowl, place cottage cheese, softened cream cheese, sugar and partially thawed strawberries. Beat until fluffy. Add salt and sour cream.

Add dissolved gelatin and fold until well blended. Pour into crumb crust. Sprinkle reserved crumbs over top.

Let chill one hour or until set. Makes 12 servings.

Cream Meats to Fill Shells

For a quick and easy Sunday brunch try this delicious combination of chicken and ham. These two go-togethers simmered in a rich cream sauce and served in tender flaky patty shells are sure to make a hit with the family.

SUNDAY-BRUNCH PUFFS

1 package frozen patty shells
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 cups cooked diced ham
1 cup cooked diced chicken
1/2 cup sliced olives
2 tablespoons snipped parsley

Prepare patty shells according to package directions.

In saucepan, melt butter or margarine, then blend in flour. Gradually add milk and stir until mixture thickens. Add remaining ingredients. Heat thoroughly, about five minutes.

Spoon into warm patty shells and garnish with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

Straining Improves

When whole eggs are used to make baked custards, strain the mixture into the custard cups before baking. This makes for a smoother custard and a better looking one.

PATIO YAM PLATTER — Keep cool with easy luncheon menus. Colorful and quick, this simple entree uses boneless ham, frozen peas topped with herb butter, and a border of colorful orange instant mashed Louisiana yams.

Summer Will Come With Patio Meals

If you're like many women you still love to entertain during summer but cast your eyes toward something fairly simple to prepare.

One entree combining meat and vegetables makes use of boneless ham slices, instant mashed Louisiana yams and frozen peas. Topped with an herb butter, this is a delectable combination.

Smooth as silk mashed yams are perfect for piping from a decorating tube, or for spooning onto the top of meat pies.

This dish is excellent to make and carry out to the porch or patio on a platter. Just lift a portion onto individual plates and serve with a salad.

And since these are iced tea days, make a big pitcher with lots of lemon slices to accompany it.

PATIO YAM PLATTER

- 1 package (5 ounces) instant mashed yams
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 4 round boneless individual ham slices, ½-inch thick
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen green peas, cooked and drained
- Herb Butter

Prepare yams according to package directions, adding ¼ teaspoon salt (omit butter). Broil ham 3 inches from source of heat 5 minutes; turn ham slices and pipe yams around edge of each, using pastry tube. Broil 1 minute longer.

Arrange on serving plate; mound peas in center. Top peas with Herb Butter.

Herb Butter: Cream ¼ cup butter or margarine with ¼ teaspoon each: marjoram leaves, savory and grated lemon peel.

Corned Beef Put in Potato Salad

If you plan to have a regular Irish dinner — corned beef and cabbage with other vegetables — be sure to plan enough meat for a second day. This tempting hearty salad is topped with a tangy mustard-horseradish dressing. A delightful luncheon entree to serve with thin slices of rye bread, spread with soft Cheddar cheese. For dessert, a minty fruit compote!

Potato Corned-Beef Salad

- 2 cups diced cooked potatoes
- 2 cups diced corned beef
- 3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
- ½ cup diced cooked carrots
- ¼ cup chopped green pepper
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- ½ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
- 2 tablespoons vinegar

- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
- Dash of Tabasco
- Salt and pepper, to taste.

Combine potatoes, corned beef, hard-cooked eggs, carrots, green pepper, onion, and pimiento. Toss with mixture of mayonnaise, vinegar and seasonings. Pile into lettuce cups and garnish with tomato wedges. Makes 6 servings.

Mild Molasses Adds Zest to Peach Dessert

Peaches, packaged yellow cake mix (or you might like to use a spice mix), mellow West Indies molasses, plus some chopped nuts, make a delicious dessert with lots of potential.

For example, you can serve it at a children's party, a company dinner for your own guests, or wrap the cake in its pan and carry it along to a picnic. Crown it with ice cream, whipped cream, or whipped topping if you're counting calories.

Unsulphured molasses is all smooth, rich texture and flavor with no "bite" — gives just enough rich sweetness to this dessert.

This fine molasses, produced from sugar cane grown in the West Indian islands — of the Caribbean, never varies thanks to skillful blending and careful aging in this country.

PEACH "DOWNSIDE-UP" CAKE

- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- ¼ cup granulated sugar
- ½ cup West Indies molasses
- 1 can (1 pound, 14 ounces) sliced peaches
- ½ cup chopped nuts
- 1 package (18½ or 19 ounces) yellow cake mix or other flavor of your choice

Melt butter over low heat in 13x9x2-inch pan. Add sugar and molasses and stir until blended. Arrange peach slices over molasses mixture. Add 2 tablespoons peach syrup. Sprinkle with nuts.

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Pour carefully over fruit mixture in pan. Bake in 350 degree oven 50 to 55 minutes. Cool cake 5 minutes, then invert on serving plate.

Serve warm or cold. Top with whipped cream or whipped topping. Yield: 15 to 18 servings.

When you are adding chicken livers to an omelet, cook the livers before you add them to the egg mixture.

Color Code Lets Picnickers Get Favorite Food

Football weekends prolong the picnic season as tailgate picnics gain in popularity each fall. Station wagon owners gather friends and fans, and they're off to the stadium.

Parking lot picnics before the game are instant-lunches. The tail gate comes down, the food is brought out and football fans are ready to eat.

Fill the basket with picnic fare. Pack a variety of sandwiches — ham, cheese, roast beef, or your favorites.

The color of paper napkins can "code" the sandwiches for easy identification. Wrap the napkins, practical yet pretty, around the sandwiches — the ham in avocado green napkins, the cheese in antique gold and the beef in blue. Each football fan can help himself to his favorite.

Matching cocktail napkins, conveniently disposable, hold glasses, keeping the beverages inside icy cold or steaming hot. Dinner napkins serve as placemats too, adding a festive look to the picnic meal.

Fall is the time for football games and the tailgate picnic. It should be easy for the hostess — and planned to get fans in the stadium before the kickoff!

Hot Popcorn Done Over Barbecue Grill

When the picnic is over and the fire burned low, here's a wonderful treat for the kiddies. Let them pop foil bundles of popcorn tied to a long stick or your barbecue tools over the barbecue grill.

Just put 2 or 3 tablespoons of popcorn, 1 tablespoon of oil and a little salt in the center of a 14 inch square of heavy duty foil.

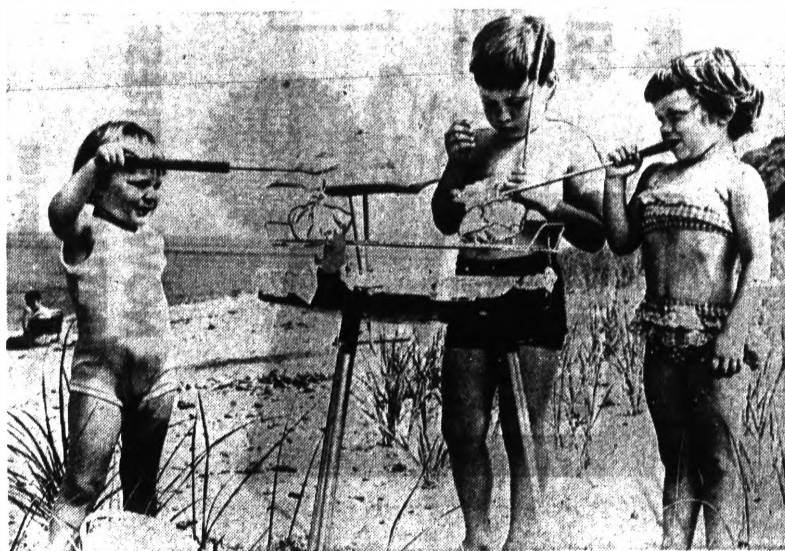

Bring the edges of the foil together up over the corn to form a hobo-like bundle, then tie to a long stick or a long handled barbecue tool.

Heat and shake for a few minutes over the fire. As soon as the popping stops, you can eat the delicious hot corn right out of the foil. It will bring a perfect day on the beach or in the park to a delightful close.

Although this came originally as a summer idea, there is no reason why it can't be done on a winter picnic. If you take a portable grill to the skating or tobogganing party, let each one and the meal with hot popcorn. Prepare the foil packets at home.

AMERICANA BEEF PIE — Combine 2 cans (12 oz. each) roast beef with gravy; 1 can (12 oz.) whole kernel corn, undrained; $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sliced cooked carrots and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup minced parsley in shallow baking dish, mixing well. Separate 1 tube refrigerator butterflake rolls and arrange around edge. Brush with 2 tablespoons melted butter and sprinkle with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup grated Parmesan cheese. Bake in 350-degree oven 12 to 15 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 5 servings.

Asparagus Tops Egg and Rice Dish

Asparagus and Rice Bake is hearty enough to be the main lunch or dinner dish. Or, you may choose to serve it with broiled chops or fish. Either way, it's a worthy addition to your recipe file.

Rice is the important ingredient in this baked dish and that's good news anytime, but especially now when we want to take it easy. And, rice does provide the easy way out because it's easy on the digestion, the budget and the time spent in the kitchen.

Few foods are simpler to cook than rice. All that's required is to follow the simple directions on the package — whether your choice is regular milled white, brown, parboiled or pre-cooked rice.

Asparagus and Rice Bake is one of the numerous ways of adding "va-rice-ity" to your meal planning. This new word has been coined to describe rice's most outstanding trait, versatility.

What other food can you think of that can combine with soups, sauces, spices and can be enjoyed at breakfast, lunch and dinner, as well as at snack-time?

ASPARAGUS AND RICE BAKE

- 1 can (11 ozs.) cheese soup
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk
- 2 tablespoons diced pimiento
- $2\frac{1}{2}$ cups hot cooked rice
- 1 can (1 lb. 3 ozs.) asparagus spears
- 5 hard-cooked eggs, sliced

Blend soup, milk, and pimiento. Heat thoroughly. Into a greased 10x6 $\frac{1}{2}$ x2-inch baking dish, layer the rice, asparagus spears, and eggs. Pour soup over all. Bake in a 375-degree oven 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Canned Peaches Fine at Brunch

For a hearty winter breakfast or brunch, serve bacon, corn meal mush and sunny canned cling peach halves. Fry mush in bacon drippings.

Saute well-drained clings in bacon drippings, too, spooning fat over the fruit. Fill peach cups with cranberry jelly and serve at once.

Green and Orange

Delightful salad: marinate cooked snap beans in French dressing; arrange on salad greens and garnish with rounds or sections of oranges.

ORANGES FOR DESSERT — Colorful and delicious is this new version of Ambrosia. Slice oranges and arrange on plates. Sprinkle coconut (fresh, if possible) over the slices. Garnish with a spoonful of sour cream topped with a sprinkling of brown sugar.

Begin With Oysters

A delicacy from ancient times, oysters today are more popular than ever. Like milk, they are almost a complete food alone. They are easily digested, have no coarse muscle fiber, and rate highly as a valuable source of minerals, vitamins and protein.

There are three major species of oysters marketed in the United States, one found along the Gulf Coast and up the Atlantic Coast to Cape Cod; and two species, the Pacific and Olympic oysters, found along the Coastal areas of Washington State.

According to the Oyster Institute of North America and the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries of the United States Department of the Interior, Gulf oysters from Louisiana and Chesapeake oysters from Virginia and Maryland are superb in quality this year and in very good supply.

The Bureau hopes you will enjoy the abundance of succulent oysters. Its home economists have developed a cocktail recipe with a new touch for your entertaining ease and enjoyment.

OYSTER COCKTAIL ITALIAN

1 can (12 ounces) oysters, fresh or frozen
1 cup Italian salad dressing
Lettuce
Capers
Pimiento

Thaw frozen oysters. Drain. Marinate oysters in salad dressing for one hour. Drain. Place lettuce in cocktail glasses. Arrange oysters on lettuce. Sprinkle with capers. Garnish with a strip of pimiento. Makes 6 servings.

OYSTER COCKTAIL ITALIAN

SAUCY OYSTER COCKTAIL

1 can (12 ounces) oysters, fresh or frozen
Lettuce
Cocktail Sauce
Lemon wedges
Thaw frozen oysters. Drain oysters. Place lettuce in cocktail glasses. Arrange oysters on lettuce. Top each serving with approximately 1/4 cup of Cocktail Sauce. Serve with lemon wedges. Serves 6.

Cocktail Sauce

1 cup catsup
1 tablespoon finely chopped celery
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion

1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon horseradish
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
3 drops liquid hot pepper sauce
Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Chill. Makes approximately 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Lamb Stew and Creamy Yam Pie Stars of Winter Menu

Here's a special dish for the cold days of the year. It's a lamb stew, but it's the gourmet cousin of the everyday version of meat and vegetables simmered in stock.

And to carry out the gourmet theme, choose one of the brightly colored aluminum Dutch ovens for preparation. Select a rainbow of colors to throw from, all handsome enough to carry right from the range to the table.

First, chunks of tender lamb are cut into uniform pieces, then added with a nip of onion to gently sizzling butter.

When the lamb is browned to perfection, the water, tomato juice and a medley of vegetables are added. Then the savory stew bubbles lazily to a juicy tenderness, drifting a warm aroma of goodness through the kitchen.

ADD SOUR CREAM

Just at the peak of doneness, swirl in a drift of sour cream and some canned cut green beans with their flavorful liquid; then heat ever so gently until piping hot.

For the grand finale to this delightful menu, serve velvety Maple-Yam Custard Pie. The deep copper-colored Louisiana yams mash up to a smooth-satin base for this cinnamon-sugar 'n' spice pie.

BEST LAMB STEW

- 1 medium onion, thinly sliced
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter, melted
- 3 pounds boneless lamb shoulder, cubed
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1 can (1 pound) Blue Lake Variety cut green beans, drained and liquid reserved

Bouquet garni*

- 1 teaspoon salt
- Freshly ground pepper
- 4 large carrots, cut into 1-inch pieces
- 1 cup diagonally sliced celery
- 1 pound medium potatoes, peeled and quartered
- $\frac{1}{2}$ pound large mushrooms, sliced
- 1 cup dairy sour cream
- Chopped fresh parsley

Saute onion in butter until golden and crisp. Add cubed lamb and cook over medium heat, stirring, until lightly browned, about 10 minutes.

Lower heat; add water, tomato sauce, bean liquid, bouquet garni, salt, and pepper to taste and simmer covered for 20 minutes. Add carrots, celery, potatoes, and mushrooms; continue simmering, covered, 40 minutes or until vegetables are tender.

Stir in beans and sour cream; heat to serving temperature (do not boil). Serve, sprinkled with chopped parsley. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

*To make bouquet garni — Wrap celery leaves, two sprigs parsley, one bay leaf, and $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon each of thyme and rosemary leaves in small square of cheese cloth.

Note: Small whole mushrooms may be substituted for large, sliced mushrooms.

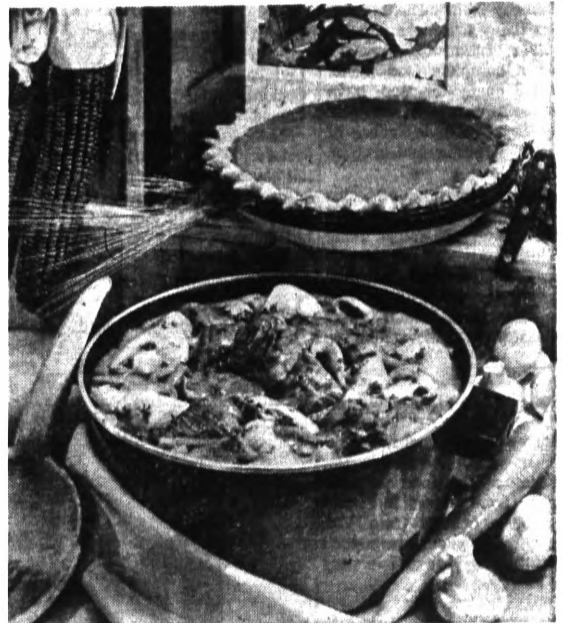

MAPLE-YAM CUSTARD PIE

- $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups mashed, cooked or canned yams
- 2 eggs
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
- $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon cinnamon
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon each: nutmeg, allspice
- 2 tablespoons maple syrup
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups light cream
- 9-inch unbaked pie shell

Combine yams, eggs, salt and spices; beat until well blended. Stir in maple syrup and cream. Pour yam mixture into pie shell. Bake in 375 degree (moderate) oven 50 minutes or until metal knife inserted in center comes out clean.

Serve with sour cream or whipped cream, if desired.

BEST LAMB STEW — Succulent, tender lamb cubes simmer in a rich, savory gravy to perfection stew in this handsome red-orange non-stick coated aluminum Dutch oven which can go right from range to table.

Syrup From Pears Tops Cake Squares

Serve squares of plain warm cake with a fruit sauce.

LEMON PEAR SAUCE

- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- Pinch of salt
- 1 cup syrup from drained canned pear halves
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 2 (or more) drained canned pear halves, diced

In a 1-quart saucepan thoroughly stir together the sugar, cornstarch and salt. Gradually stir in the pear syrup, keeping smooth. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened and clear.

Off heat, stir in the lemon rind, lemon juice, butter and diced pears. Serve warm.

Cook Beef Tongue With Burgundy

Why not give beef tongue a second chance? Long, slow cooking and the vigorous flavor of Burgundy will make this solid, wholesome meat a real favorite. The method worked out for this new recipe is a combination of simmering and baking, plus basting with a wine broth that unites the original cooking liquid with a cup of Burgundy.

Crowning joy is the sauce, served hot and lively, with a surprise of golden seedless raisins.

Pass the wine-raisin sauce separately, and as beverage — have the very same bottle of Burgundy that flavored the tongue.

BEEF TONGUE BURGUNDY

- 1 smoked beef tongue (about 4 lbs.)
- Cold water*
- 1 medium onion, quartered
- Celery tops
- 2 tablespoons mixed pickling spices
- 1 cup Burgundy wine
- 2 cups wine broth
- 4 teaspoons cornstarch
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup golden seedless raisins

Cover tongue with cold water; add onion, celery tops and spices; cover. Bring to boil, then reduce heat and simmer 2 hours.

Remove tongue to baking pan; pierce surface with tines of fork. Strain broth in which tongue was cooked. Measure $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups, add Burgundy. Bake tongue in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., 1 hour; baste with broth mixture at frequent intervals during baking.

Remove tongue; cool slightly. Cut off bones and gristle at thick end of tongue. Peel off skin, starting at thick end.

Sauce

Measure 2 cups wine broth from baking pan. Blend cornstarch with $\frac{1}{2}$ cup broth, add remaining ingredients except raisins. Stir over medium heat until thickened. Add raisins; simmer 10 minutes longer.

Serve with sliced tongue. Makes about $2\frac{1}{2}$ cups sauce.

Garnish: Drained small canned peach halves filled with chutney.

Noodle Cups Baked With Ham in Oven

One big factor in preparing any meal is time. A quick accompaniment to baked ham is an individual Curried Noodle Bake. Similar to noodle pudding, the little cups bake right along with the ham during the last 40 minutes of baking. It only takes 12 minutes to prepare them and you can bake one for each guest in a small custard cup. Any leftover mixture can be stored in the refrigerator to be used another day.

CURRIED NOODLE BAKE

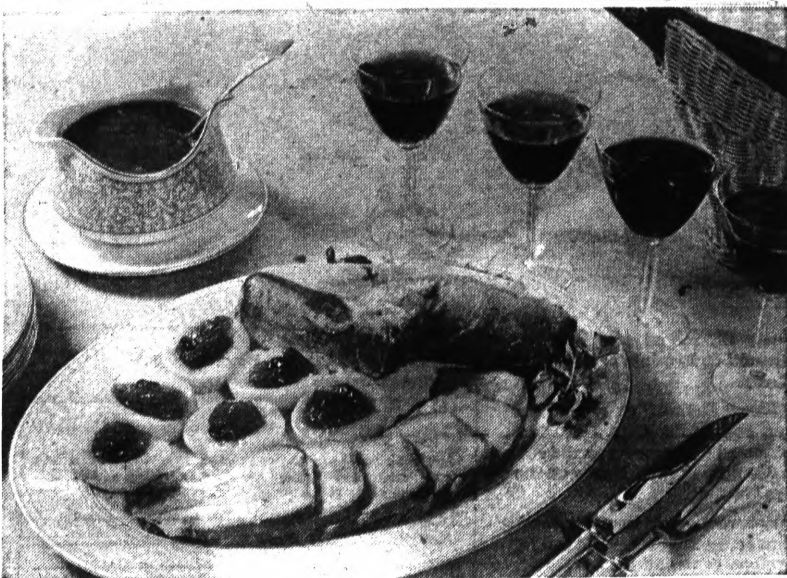

- 8 ounce package egg noodles
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dairy sour cream
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup small curd creamed cottage cheese
- 2 teaspoons butter, softened
- 4 ounce can mushroom stems and pieces, drained
- 1 egg
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon curry
- Paprika

Cook noodles in medium saucepan according to package directions. Drain noodles. In same saucepan, combine all ingredients, folding gently.

Spoon mixture into 8 greased 6-ounce glass baking cups. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake along with hostess ham in slow oven (325 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes. Makes 8 servings.

Hash Into Eggs

Dice any small amount of leftover corned beef and add to scrambled eggs. This is good for breakfast, but also makes an excellent supper dish. Leftover corned beef hash may be added the same way.

BEEF TONGUE BURGUNDY — Beef tongue may not be the budget dish it was 20 years ago, but it is still a good buy.

Serve it hot for buffet or dinner, garnished with canned peach halves centered with a spoonful of tantalizing chutney.

SIX O'CLOCK TWIST — Time short? Make Six o'Clock Twist — corkscrew macaroni sauced with robust canned tomato sauce with mushrooms, bacon and just beginning to melt cheese cubes.

Canned Sauce Speedy

When the rush of a hectic day catches up with you and you need a quick and easy meal, prepare "Jack-be-nimble"-quick Six O'Clock Twist.

Simmer the bacony tomato sauce while you cook the corkscrew macaroni which gives the dish its name and toss a crisp green salad. When your macaroni is tender, the sauce will be ready to pour over. Quickly toss in some cheese cubes and serve before they have a chance to melt.

The long-simmered flavor of the sauce comes from canned tomato sauce with mushrooms — rich tomato sauce mildly seasoned and combined with mushroom pieces.

For dessert, pour vanilla sauce (made from instant pudding) over canned cling peaches.

Six O'Clock Twist is an excellent choice for week-end campers. The ingredients are light to pack and easy to prepare on a camp stove. The onion and pepper can be diced at home and kept fresh in plastic bags. Cheese cubes are available at many local markets.

SIX O'CLOCK TWIST

- 8 slices bacon, cut in squares
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- ½ green pepper, diced
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce with mushrooms
- 1 cup water

- ½ teaspoon oregano
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
- ½ pound process American cheese, cut in ½ inch cubes
- 8 ounces corkscrew macaroni, cooked and drained
- In skillet cook bacon until crisp; remove from skillet, drain and reserve. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons drippings; add onion, green pepper and garlic; lightly cook until tender. Stir in tomato sauce with mushrooms, water, oregano and parsley; simmer 30 minutes. Add bacon and cheese cubes; stir just to mix.

Serve immediately over hot macaroni. Makes 4 servings.

NOTE: If desired, substitute 8 ounces elbow or shell macaroni, cooked and drained, for corkscrew.

Use bananas that are slightly underripe for baking. Serve with pork chops, ham, chicken or duck.

Ginger and Sesame Seeds Add Oriental Touch

Whether you plan to bake a lot of cookie for gifts or just a few for family treats, "Almond Ginger Sesames" should be in your repertory.

Almond Ginger Sesames

- ½ cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1 cup brown sugar (packed)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¼ teaspoon almond extract
- 1 egg, beaten
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped preserved or candied ginger

- ½ cup finely chopped, plain or toasted almonds

- 1 (2½-oz.) package sesame seeds

Cream butter, sugar and flavorings together until light and fluffy; beat in egg. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Add to creamed mixture making a moderately stiff dough. Stir in ginger and almonds. Shape into small balls, roll in sesame seeds. Place on lightly greased baking sheet about 3 inches apart. Flatten with bottom of glass. Bake at 375 degrees about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen.

YANGTZE CHICKEN — Tie 2 broiler-fryer chickens (2½ to 3 pounds each) with wings in and legs together. Place on charcoal broiler rotisserie rod, securing with forked holders. Broil on rotisserie for approximately 1 hour. Baste frequently with marinade made of 1 cup soy sauce; 1 cup catsup; 1 cup water; 1 cup orange marmalade and 4 tablespoons honey. Serves 6 to 8.

1960 Winner of Range Bakes Cake

When the two-oven gas range is given away at the last session of The Pontiac Press 10th annual Cooking School, Mrs. Arnold Cummins of Landsdowne Street will be on stage. Mrs. Cummins won a range at the first cooking school in 1960. She is still happily using that range as the accompanying

Pontiac Press Photo

LOVE THAT STOVE — Mrs. Arnold Cummins of Landsdowne Street won this range at the first Pontiac Press Cooking School in 1960. She's used it in this picture to bake a carrot cake and cook lemon sauce. The sauce recipe is in her grandmother's handwriting.

Glaze Moist Ham Loaf With Mustard and Jelly

Ham loaf, sparkling with an apple-mustard glaze — what could be more glamorous?

Yet this is a recipe that every practical cook will want to keep handy. Tasty ham loaf is easy on the budget and a wonderful way to use left-over ham. It goes together in minutes, may be made ahead and baked later, holds well for late diners, and best of all, it is delicious hot or cold.

Cold ham loaf slices are perfect for sandwiches and cold meat platters.

Ham loaf is a favorite in any season.

HAM LOAF WITH APPLE-MUSTARD GLAZE

- 2 pounds ground ham or 1 pound each of ground ham and pork
- 2 eggs
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup fine corn flake crumbs
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup milk
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup (firmly packed) brown sugar
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup finely chopped onion
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons dry mustard
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon pepper
- 1 jar (10 ounce) apple jelly
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup light corn syrup
- 3 tablespoons vinegar or lemon juice

Combine meat, eggs, crumbs, milk, brown sugar, onion, 1 teaspoon mustard and pepper;

mix well. Pack into lightly greased loaf pan (9x5x3 inches) or, if preferred, shape into loaf and bake on greased shallow baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until done, about 70 minutes.

GLAZE

For glaze, combine apple jelly, syrup, vinegar or lemon juice and remaining $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon mustard; stir. Boil 5 minutes. Brush loaf with glaze several times during last 15 minutes of baking. Serve with remaining glaze. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Kraut Is Often Forgotten Food

One cup of sauerkraut contains only 33 calories and provides a considerable amount of vitamin C, thiamine and riboflavin, plus bulk. Kraut also ranks among the top few calcium-rich vegetables dieters are allowed.

Try kraut salad, relish or slaw, a hearty stew or casserole. Caraway or poppy seed, fresh dill or dill weed, juniper berries, pimiento, green pepper or green herbs season kraut without adding calories.

Bake Your Hash

You can bake corned beef hash. Just pack the hash from a couple of one-pound cans into a baking dish a glass one that is 10 by 6 by $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches will be fine. Brush with melted butter or margarine and bake in a moderate oven until piping hot, this may take half an hour.

picture shows. Here is her recipe for carrot cake and her grandmother's lemon sauce.

CARROT CAKE

By Mrs. Arnold Cummins

- 3 cups flour
- 2 teaspoons soda
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups sugar
- 4 eggs, well beaten
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups salad oil
- 2 cups grated raw carrots
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup broken nut meats.

Sift dry ingredients together twice. Add eggs and oil alternately. You will have a very stiff dough. Stir in carrots and nuts.

Grease and lightly flour 2 pans 8x8x2, or 2 loaf pans. Pour in batter. Bake 50 minutes at 325 degrees. Serve warm or cold with sauce. This cake freezes well.

Grandmother's Lemon Sauce

- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoons flour
- 1 cup water
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt

Mix sugar, flour and salt. Add water slowly, stirring until smooth. Boil 10 minutes. Remove from heat and add lemon juice and butter. Serve over cake.

Variations: Omit lemon juice and add 2 teaspoons vanilla. Or omit water and substitute 1 cup orange, cherry, pineapple or peach juice. Omit lemon juice.

STUFFED HAM SANDWICHES — Perk up those packed lunches with pickles! Here's a winner: baked ham rolled around a zingy cole slaw spiced with sweet gherkins and brightened with canned pimiento.

For Lunchbox Set

Roll Slaw Inside Ham

The daily question is what to put in school lunches to be sure they are nourishing and filling. And appetizing, too, so that they will be eaten!

According to the pickle packers of the nation, the problem is easily solved by putting a little pickle in every lunchbox. It may be one big pickle or several small ones tucked in a plastic bag, these to be eaten out of hand or added to a sandwich.

Or the pickles may be incorporated in sandwiches to keep them more moist and add their distinctive tangy flavor.

Our recipe for Stuffed Ham

Sandwiches really provides two recipes in one. The cole slaw used for stuffing the ham rolls may be prepared the night before and chilled. The recipe makes about 1½ quarts, more than is needed for the sandwiches, so there is a salad ready for next night's supper or for packing in the lunch separately another day.

STUFFED HAM SANDWICHES

12 thin slices baked ham, about ½ pound
1 cup cole slaw* (about)
2 sweet gherkins, quartered lengthwise
4 frankfurter rolls, split and buttered

Stack together 3 slices ham. Arrange on top of ham, near one end, about ¼ cup of the cole slaw*. Top with 2 of the gherkin strips. Roll up ham, jelly-roll fashion, and place in frankfurter roll. Repeat procedure to make 3 more sandwiches. Wrap in saran or transparent lunchbox wrap. Makes 4 sandwiches.

*To make Cole Slaw: Mix together 2 quarts shredded or chopped cabbage (1 head, about 2 pounds); ½ cup chopped sweet gherkins; 1 canned pimiento, diced; 1 cup mayonnaise; ½ teaspoon salt; ½ teaspoon onion salt; ¼ teaspoon pepper and 1 tablespoon prepared mustard. Chill. (Makes about 1½ quarts.)

Dessert Pizzas Are Nut-Topped

Flatten refrigerated baking powder biscuits to four-inch circles on ungreased baking sheet. Spread each biscuit round with butter, and top with jam such as boysenberry or plum, sprinkle with nutmeg, and finally add chopped California walnuts.

Bake at 425 degrees, five to six minutes, or until lightly browned. Serve hot.

She's baking rolls.

How does she do it? The CoolRise way. A new way to yeast bake in half the time with Robin Hood Flour. Quick. Simple. Practically foolproof.

This morning she mixed the ingredients, kneaded the dough for about five minutes, shaped the rolls and put them in the refrigerator. The dough rises there. And she can bake whenever she's ready.

That's the CoolRise way to bake with Robin Hood. It takes you half the time. Half the fuss. You'll find CoolRise recipes in every bag of Robin Hood All-Purpose Flour. Why not bake some sweet rolls tomorrow? You'll have time to bake and more time to be a woman.

Divinity Type of Candy Made With Coconut

In a nice note signed by Mayme Whittington of Pontiac came two candy recipes. One was for a fudge, but the recipe is not new. The other is for a good sounding coconut candy.

COCONUT DELIGHT

By Mayme Whittington

In a one-quart saucepan, combine 1 cup sugar, ¼ cup light corn syrup, ¼ cup hot water and ¼ teaspoon salt. Cook and stir until sugar dissolves and mixture come to a boil.

Cook to 250 degrees or firm ball stage when tested in cold water; do not stir during this time. Wipe crystals from side of pan now and then with a fork wrapped in damp cloth.

Remove syrup from heat. Beat 1 egg white stiff. Pour hot syrup slowly over beaten white, beating all the time. Beat another five minutes. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla and enough coconut to make mixture thick enough to form into balls.

Decorate tops of balls with cherries or nut halves.

SHRIMP SALAD BOATS — The next time you make shrimp sandwiches, use small poppy-seed rolls instead of slices of bread. You'll like the combination. You'll also like the chive butter that goes on before the filling. Use freeze dried chives now, fresh ones in summer.

Fill Rolls With Shrimp Salad

Shrimp are an excellent source of proteins in what the nutritionist calls the "complete" form — that is, proteins which contain all of the amino acids essential for proper growth and strong, healthy bodies. Shrimp Salad Boats are colorful and delicious.

SHRIMP SALAD BOATS

1 pound fresh or frozen shrimp, cleaned, cooked and chilled
1 cup celery, diced
Salt and pepper to taste
¼ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
12 small rolls
Speedy Chive Butter (recipe below)

Select six shrimp and cut these in half lengthwise, reserving for garnish. Chop remainder. Mix with celery and mayonnaise and season to taste. Chill.

Slice rolls almost through, leaving a hinge. Spread with Chive Butter, using about two teaspoons per roll. Fill each with a heaping tablespoon of shrimp salad and garnish with a shrimp half. Wrap and chill until serving time.

Shrimp Boats make a pleasant tea-time snack with a beverage or may be served two to a person with soup or a salad for luncheon. Makes 12.

Speedy Chive Butter

¼ pound butter or margarine
3 tablespoons freeze dried

chives
½ to ¾ teaspoon aromatic bitters
Freshly ground pepper, if desired

Soften butter at room temperature. Beat with a wooden spoon until creamy, gradually adding chives. Beat in ½ teaspoon bitters. Then taste and add remaining bitters and pepper if desired. Makes ½ cup.

Fish Fillets, Macaroni Cooked Into Stew

There are still plenty of cold and blustery days to come. On those days a hearty fish chowder would be a warming dish to serve. This recipe from the National Macaroni Institute blends fish and vegetables with elbow macaroni. The result is a stalwart stew, to be served in bowls and dipped up with soup spoons.

MACARONI FISH STEW

1 cup thinly sliced celery
½ cup thinly sliced onion
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 package (1 pound) frozen haddock fillets, partially thawed, cut in cubes
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon leaf thyme
¼ teaspoon leaf marjoram
1 small clove garlic, crushed
1 bay leaf
1 can (1 pound) cut green beans, undrained
1 can (1 pound) sliced carrots, undrained
Water -
2 cups elbow macaroni (8 ounces)
2 cups milk

Cook celery and onion in butter until crisp-tender, about 2 minutes. Add haddock and seasonings. Drain bean and carrot liquids into measuring cup; add enough water to vegetable liquid to measure 1½ quarts. Add to fish mixture. Simmer 15 minutes, then bring to boil.

Gradually add macaroni. Boil 10 minutes or until macaroni is tender. Add drained vegetables and milk; heat to serving temperature. Makes 4-6 servings.

Change Coating Used on Fish for Frying

Most parts of the country have a favorite variety of fish, either salt or fresh water, and a particular way of serving it. Since many people view bones as the only serious drawback to our finned friends, boneless fillets are generally preferred.

The various ways to prepare fish fillets are infinite . . . poached, sauced, stewed, chowdered, broiled, baked, fried. Of these, frying is by far the most popular.

If you always fry fish with a corn meal coating or perhaps use cracker crumbs you might be interested in something new and a little different. Crushed corn flakes and dehydrated mashed potato granules both give fried fish a crisp texture and wonderful flavor.

BASIC FRIED FISH

½ cup solid all-vegetable shortening
1½ pounds fillet of sole, cod, halibut, flounder or other fish
Salt and pepper
1 egg
1 tablespoon milk
¼ to 1 cup crumbs or meal*
Lemon wedges
Parsley

In large skillet heat shortening. Sprinkle fish with salt and pepper. Beat egg with milk. Dip fillets into egg, then in crumbs or meal. Over medium-high heat, fry fillets in shortening on each side until golden.

Serve immediately with lemon and garnish with parsley. Serve with tartar sauce, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

*New England Fish Fry: Use ¾ to 1 cup finely crushed cracker crumbs.

*Corn-Crumb Fried Fish: Use ¾ to 1 cup finely crushed corn flakes. Season crushed corn flakes with ½ teaspoon garlic salt.

*Tortilla Flat Fried Fish: use ¾ to 1 cup finely crushed corn chips. Do not season fish with salt.

*Herbed Fried Fish Fillets: use ¾ to 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs. Season bread crumbs with ½ teaspoon garlic salt and ¼ teaspoon oregano.

*Potato Crisp Fried Fish: use ¾ to 1 cup dehydrated mashed potato granules.

*Southern Fried Fish: Use ¾ To 1 cup corn meal. To 1 cup corn meal.

Pep Up Fish Loaf With Bit of Curry

Always a favorite, this salmon loaf is light and mildly flavored with curry.

Curried Salmon Loaf

2 1 pound cans salmon
2 eggs, beaten
½ teaspoon turmeric
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 tablespoon chopped green onion
¾ cup milk
1 cup corn flakes crumbs
¼ cup melted butter
½ cup chopped fresh parsley
Salt and pepper to taste

Empty salmon with salmon liquid into mixing bowl. Flake salmon and crush bones with a fork. Add remaining ingredients and blend thoroughly. Pack into oiled 4-cup loaf pan.

Bake in preheated 375-degree oven for 40 to 50 minutes. Serve with chutney. Also good with an egg or mushroom sauce.

Red and White

Holly Berry Parfaits are layered red and white beauties. Vanilla ice cream is alternated with a cranberry sauce made by bringing to a boil 2 cups whole cranberries, 1 stick cinnamon and 1 cup water. Cover and simmer 5 minutes. Add 1 cup sugar and pinch of salt; cook uncovered 2 minutes to dissolve sugar. Cool, remove cinnamon stick and serve. Makes 6 parfaits.

MACARONI FISH STEW — Colorful vegetables, delicately flavored fish and elbow macaroni blend in a sturdy stew for a cold day.

FRIED FISH — Give fried fish new flavor and texture interest with corn flakes, dehydrated potato granules or crushed corn chips.

Whip Up Batch of Cookies Fast

Jewelled Thumbprints, an updated version of a traditional favorite, promise sure success with family and friends. To make, refrigerated sugar cookie dough is rolled in butter and nuts. While still warm from the oven, center with your favorite jelly for a regal taste.

For a bar cookie that's pretty to look at and even better to eat try the Butter Rum Cheese Bars. These feature a creamy cheese cake layer which bakes atop refrigerated butterscotch nut cookies.

JEWELLED THUMBPRINTS

- 1 roll refrigerated slice-and-bake sugar cookies
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter, melted
- 2 cups chopped pecans
- Red or green jelly

Slice cookie dough $\frac{3}{4}$ inch thick and cut each slice into four quarters. Roll each into a ball. Dip in butter and roll in nuts. Place on ungreased cookie sheet and bake at 375 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown.

Remove from oven and quickly indent the center of each with finger. Cool slightly and then place $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon jelly in each center. Cool completely. Makes 4 dozen.

BUTTER RUM CHEESE BARS

- 1 roll refrigerated slice-and-bake butterscotch nut cookies
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar

8 ounce package cream cheese, softened
1 egg
 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 teaspoon rum flavoring

Slice cookie dough $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick and place in bottom of greased 8 or 9 inch square pan. Bake at 375 degrees from 15 to 20 minutes or until lightly browned. (Cookies will be puffy when removed from oven.) Cool slightly.

In small mixer bowl cream sugar and cream cheese. Add egg and flavoring and beat until smooth. Pour cheese mixture over baked cookie base and return to 375 degree oven for 20 to 25 more minutes. Cool slightly; refrigerate at least one hour. Cut into 20 bars and decorate as desired with nuts, candied fruits, or decorator frosting.

SHORT-CUT COOKIES — With the family coming home for the holidays and friends dropping in, you'll want special cookies on hand to greet them. Butter Rum Cheese Bars resemble bite-size cheese cakes and feature a subtle rum flavor. Made from refrigerated sugar cookies, Jewelled Thumbprints are a quick version of a famous festive cookie.

Thin Cookies Are Lemony

Delicate lemon flavor distinguishes these delicious cookies.

Brownstone Cookies

- 2½ cups sifted flour
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon baking powder
- 2 sticks ($\frac{1}{2}$ pound) butter
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup sugar
- 2 egg yolks
- Grated rind of 1 large lemon
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 egg white
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup very finely chopped walnuts

On wax paper sift together flour and baking powder. In large bowl cream butter and sugar; add egg yolks. 1 teaspoon of the grated lemon rind and the lemon juice; beat thoroughly. Gradually stir in sifted ingredients.

Chill, covered, if necessary to make dough firm enough for rolling. On floured pastry cloth with floured stockinet-covered rolling pin roll out dough, one-quarter at a time, about $\frac{1}{8}$ inch thick. Use 2-inch round cookie cutter to cut out.

Place about 1 inch apart on buttered cookie sheets. Beat egg white until frothy; brush over cookies; mix walnuts and remaining lemon rind; sprinkle over egg white. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven until lightly browned 10 to 12 minutes.

Remove to wire rack to cool. Store in tightly covered tin box. Makes about 6½ dozen.

PEANUTS WITH VEGETABLES — The warm mellow flavor and crunchy texture of peanuts make a tempting culinary contrast for a variety of vegetables. Shown here is Celery au Gratin with Peanuts and Nutty Baked Mushrooms.

Winter Corn Comes From South

There's no doubt that corn or maize was one of the greatest treasures discovered in the New World. Indians throughout the Americas had grown corn for many centuries and worshipped the plant as a god. Corn was taken to Europe by the early explorers.

At the same time that many new foods from the Western Hemisphere were introduced to Europe, invading Turks came from the Near East bringing their foods, also new to most of Europe. Europeans became confused by the sudden influx of new foods. That is how corn came to be named "Turkey wheat," and was often called that by settlers who came to New England in the 17th century. Naturally corn grew happily in the land of its origin and one settler wrote this about the corn crops he had seen:

"The abundant increase of corn proves this country to be a wonderment. Thirty, forty, fifty, sixtyfold are ordinary here. Yea, Joseph's increase in Egypt is outstripped here with us."

What would this same Francis Higginson have thought about the sweet corn fields of Florida? The Sunshine State has become the greatest grower of sweet corn in the world, especially during winter months.

The secret of good corn flavor is to prevent heat from converting the corn's sugar to starch. If the ears are chilled as soon as picked, and shipped and stored under refrigeration both in the food store and in the home, you will have perfect corn.

Most Florida corn, shipped 1,000 miles or more, has better flavor than local, "in-season" corn which is allowed to sit around before it reaches the consumer.

Here are some suggestions for serving Florida sweet corn.

COOKING LIQUIDS FOR FRESH CORN

BLEND I

1 package (1½ oz.) onion soup mix
1 quart water
½ teaspoon instant onion powder

BLEND II

1 can (12 fl. oz.) mixed vegetable juice
1 can water

BLEND III

4 beef bouillon cubes
3 cups water

BLEND IV

2 bottles (8 oz. each) clam juice
¼ teaspoon ground white pepper
6 ears of husked corn

Combine ingredients for each blend in a large skillet. Bring to boiling point. Add corn. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 10 minutes or until done, turning occasionally. Leftover broth may be used in soups, sauces, etc.

Peanuts Delightful in Vegetable Dishes

According to Larousse Gastronomique, a vegetable is "any kitchen garden plant used for food." But did you realize that the peanut is a vegetable? It is, in scientific circles! As a matter of fact, in other countries the peanut is known as a ground pea or goober pea. But alas, to Americans the peanut will always be a nut!

Their close relationship makes peanuts and vegetables a popular twosome in cookery.

Here cocktail peanuts team with cheese in a flavorful sauce for celery, and with herbs as a savory stuffing for mushroom caps. Celery au Gratin with Peanuts doubles as a luncheon main dish or dinner accompaniment. Nutty Baked Mushrooms may be served as a side dish or appetizer.

CELERY AU GRATIN

2 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon dill weed
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup milk
½ cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
3 cups cooked 1 inch celery pieces
½ cup chopped cocktail peanuts
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
2 tablespoons chopped onion
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons margarine, melted

Over low heat melt 2 tablespoons margarine in a small saucepan. Blend in flour, dill weed, salt, dry mustard and pepper. Stir in milk. Over medium heat, bring mixture to a boil, stirring constantly. Add grated Cheddar cheese and stir until cheese is melted.

Fold cooked celery, chopped cocktail peanuts, pimiento and onion into sauce. Spoon into greased 1-quart casserole. Combine bread crumbs and melted margarine. Sprinkle over mixture.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes, or until mixture is hot. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

NUTTY BAKED MUSHROOMS

1 pound (about 10) fresh large mushrooms
¼ cup minced onion
2 tablespoons margarine
½ cup chopped cocktail peanuts
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon tarragon leaves
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons melted margarine

Clean mushrooms and remove stems. Chop stems and saute with onions in 2 tablespoons margarine until tender. Remove from heat and add chopped cocktail peanuts, chopped parsley and tarragon.

Stuff mushroom caps with filling and place in baking dish. Combine bread crumbs and remaining 2 tablespoons melted margarine. Sprinkle over tops of mushrooms.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes, or until done. Serve hot. Makes about 10 stuffed mushrooms, or 5 servings.

Present Onions in New Ways

O is for onions.

"O" also can stand for Out-of-the-Ordinary dishes using these tasty vegetables.

With plentiful supplies of onions at the market now, according to USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service, why not try some interesting new ways to use this old favorite?

CURRY CREAMED ONIONS

Peel 1 pound onions. Cook in boiling salted water 20 minutes, or just until tender. Drain. Stir in 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup, ½ cup milk and ¼ teaspoon curry powder. Heat slowly, stirring once or twice, until bubbly-hot and creamy-smooth. Makes six servings.

SAUCY HAM-EGG-ONION

Broil slices of onion with ham slices. Place onion on toasted English Muffin, then ham slice and poached egg. Pour Hollandaise sauce over top.

BARBECUED ONIONS

Cook peeled onions until almost tender in boiling water. Place onions in baking dish and top with a tangy barbecue sauce. Bake at 400 degrees about 45 minutes, basting several times. Serve with a sprinkling of chopped parsley.

New Way With Sprouts

Brussels sprouts are plants of great mystery.

The mystery of Brussels sprouts begins with their origin, which varies, in account, from time immemorial to 400 years ago, when a British botanist found them growing near London.

Some say that Brussels sprouts, like their cabbage cousins, grew up with the history of civilization and were used, whole and stuffed in Egypt and along the Mediterranean Sea 2,000 years ago.

Baked Sweet Sour Brussels Sprouts

1 10-ounce package frozen Brussels sprouts
2 tablespoons salad oil
¼ cup vinegar
1 tablespoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Arrange sprouts in shallow baking dish. Combine oil, vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper; blend. Pour over sprouts and sprinkle with cheese. Cover and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 minutes, or until sprouts are tender. Makes 3-4 servings.

Bake Onions in Foil With Roast

When preparing roasts or baked casseroles, put in a medium-sized whole dry onion for each member of the family on a sheet of heavy aluminum foil. Let them bake, 30 minutes at 400 degrees; 45 minutes at 350 degrees, with the entree. Serve the onion like baked potato. They are delicious seasoned with salt, pepper and butter.

Recipes Come From Africans

When the Pontiac YWCA held its World Fellowship bazaar in November featured was a luncheon of foreign foods. Among the dishes offered were two African specialties.

Not only are these authentic recipes, but they were prepared that day by two African students from the University of Michigan. Friends of the T. Warren Fowlers, the girls often visit Pontiac.

These are the foods that Maureen Menta and Inyang Ekpenyong made for the YW.

AKARA

1 cup black eyed peas
1 medium onion, chopped
Oil for frying
Salt to taste
½ cup water
Shrimps (optional)

Soak peas in water to cover for about four hours. Rinse and remove skins. Put washed peas in a blender and blend for about one minute. Add just enough water to make the blended peas soft. Add onion and blend one more minute, or until smooth.

Pour mixture into bowl and add salt water and shrimp, if desired. Use ½ to 1 cup shrimp*.

Heat oil in skillet. Spoon mixture into hot oil. Fry six or seven spoonsful at a time. Turn Akara as each side browns. Serve hot as a vegetable without the shrimp or the main course with shrimp.

Variation: Instead of frying, add ½ cup salad oil to recipe after the *. Stir and add ½ cup water. Stir again. Pour into casserole and bake 35-45 minutes at 350 degrees. This is called Moi Moi.

Beans Are Universal Food

You'll find Les Drugstores in Paris, American processed cheeses in Germany, our corn flakes in England and the hotto doggu in Tokyo. No less surprising are the tasty dishes from countries round the world made with the beans we think of as distinctly American. Each has its own special national touch, each is different and delicious.

TURKISH FASULYA

½ pound dry navy beans, soaked overnight
3 small onions, chopped
2 cloves garlic, finely sliced
½ cup cooking oil
4 carrots, sliced
Salt and pepper to taste

Add more water to cover, if necessary, and boil beans 1 hour. In a deep kettle pan fry onions and garlic in hot oil 10 minutes. Add beans, carrots and seasoning. All ingredients should be just barely covered with the bean liquor. If not, add a little water.

Simmer till beans are soft.

about 45 minutes. Serve with crisp bacon and a fruit salad.

LEBANESE SALAD

1 pound can kidney beans
4 tablespoons oil
Juice of 1 lemon
Salt and pepper to taste
Chopped dill, parsley and mint
4 scallions, sliced fine
1 tomato, sliced
1 hard cooked egg, quartered
Drain kidney beans. Blend oil, lemon juice, salt and pepper in salad bowl. Add beans and mix well. Scatter dill, parsley, mint and scallions over beans. Top with tomatoes and egg. Serves 4.

Sweet Sour Taste Given to Beans

A seasoning trick adds extra flavor to a canned vegetable.

Sweet-Sour Wax Beans

1 can (about 1 pound) cut wax beans
1 tablespoon light brown sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 pat (1 tablespoon) butter
Salt

Into a 1-quart saucepan turn the beans and their liquid; heat thoroughly; drain. In the empty saucepan over low heat, stir together the sugar, lemon juice and butter until butter melts. Add beans; mix well; add salt to taste; reheat. Makes 4 servings.

Eggs for Lunch

If you're tired of eggs each morning why not serve them at lunch? Add a small can of tuna, some chopped green Fry and serve between slices of pepper and onion, salt and pepper to several beaten eggs. Toasted whole wheat bread. Try it with catsup or chili sauce.

TWICE-AROUND — Cheeseburger Bites are an appetizer-sized version of one basic meatball recipe. Inside, each pint-sized meatball is a golden nugget of melty cheese.

Lemonade and Green Grapes Good in Salad

A cool looking clear mold is filled with seedless grapes and bits of celery. Serve on greens with mayonnaise or sour cream.

Molded Grape Salad

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
- 1 can (6 ounces) frozen concentrated lemonade
- 1 cup white wine
- 2 cups water
- 1 to 1½ cups seedless grapes
- ½ cup chopped celery
- Bite-size greens

Soak gelatine in lemonade for 5 minutes. Stir over low heat until gelatine is dissolved. Stir in white wine and water. Chill until Syrupy. Fold in grapes and celery.

Pour mixture into a 1½ quart mold. Chill until firm. Dip mold into lukewarm water for a few seconds, tap to loosen and invert on a platter.

Garnish with bite-size pieces salad greens and small bunches of seedless grapes. Serve with mayonnaise and sour cream.

Space Age Punch Will Delight Kids

For children's parties, serve flying saucer punch.

Fill a 1-quart rounded-bottom pyrex or metal mixing bowl with water and freeze until firm. Unmold and turn upside down in a 9-inch layer cake pan. Fill pan with water and freeze.

Mix ¾ cup of breakfast orange juice with 4 cups water. Add 1 quart of cranberry juice cocktail and pour into punch bowl. Stir in 1 quart of club soda.

Unmold "flying saucer" ice and float on top of punch. Serves 10 to 12.

Pumpkin-pie spice on your shelf? Add a pinch of it to stewed tomatoes when you are heating them.

Fancy Meatballs Hide Cube of Cheese Inside

What happens to your favorite appetizer recipes when the party's over? No doubt, most get filed away till the next party.

Well, here's one appetizer recipe that goes on all year long. The recipe for Twice-Around Meatballs makes cute little Cheeseburger Bites for a party and also does double duty by providing a Spaghetti and Meatballs version for family meals.

For Cheeseburger Bites make the basic meatball mixture. Shape the meat around small cubes of Cheddar cheese to form bite size balls. Brown then simmer in zesty canned tomato sauce, garlic, mustard, Worcestershire and pickle relish. Provide an assortment of sliced breads and rolls for eating with the meatballs.

FOR MEAL

To make Spaghetti and Meatballs shape the basic meatball mixture into larger balls, brown and simmer in canned tomato sauce, oregano and garlic. Serve on cooked spaghetti.

TWICE-AROUND MEATBALLS

Basic Meatballs:

- 1 pound lean ground beef
- ½ cup dry bread crumbs
- ¼ cup finely chopped onion
- 1 egg, beaten
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

Cheeseburger Bites:

- 2 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce
- 32 cubes Cheddar cheese (½-inch cubes)
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish

Combine Basic Meatball mixture with 2 tablespoons tomato sauce. On waxed paper pat into square; mark into 32 equal pieces. Shape each around a cheese cube.

Brown meatballs in large skillet; pour off fat. Combine remaining tomato sauce with remaining ingredients; pour over meatballs. Simmer, tightly covered, 15 minutes.

Serve very hot on picks. Provide an assortment of rolls and breads to serve with the meatballs. Makes 32 bite-size meatballs.

Spaghetti and Meatballs:

- 3 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce
- ½ cup water
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- 1 clove garlic, crushed

Combine Basic Meatball mixture with 2 tablespoons tomato sauce. Shape into 12 meatballs. Brown in large skillet; pour off fat. Stir in remaining ingredients; simmer, tightly covered, 30 minutes.

Serve over hot cooked spaghetti, noodles or macaroni. Pass grated Parmesan cheese, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

BAKED BEAN SANDWICHES — Convenient canned oven-baked pork and beans are the basis for this appealing and nutritious open-faced sandwich, perfect for luncheon or light supper.

In Open-Faced Sandwich

Cheese Tops Beans

Beans have been regarded by various civilizations throughout history as a highly nutritious staple food as far back as 3,000 B.C. On this continent, the Incas are said to have been the first to domesticate the bean plant and Indians of both North and South America were cultivating and drying beans long before the first adventurers "discovered" the New World.

Today, especially in Mexico and South America, beans are almost always included in the daily diet: as a food with high energy content, they are one of the best.

In our country, each region boasts of its own special bean dishes: and as a delicious tasting substantial vegetable, everyone likes them. They are low in cost, but high in flavor and excellent nutrition.

Preparing dried beans, however, can be a long tedious process and few of us have the time in our busy schedules to devote the attention they require to properly bake them. Fortunately, we don't have to. The canned baked beans we can buy today are delicious.

These bean sandwiches are different, quick and easy to make. Oven-baked pork and beans, right from the can, are spooned on bread slices spread with mustard, topped with tomatoes and strips of cheese, then baked in the oven for a few minutes.

It's a tasty dish to serve for luncheon or light supper when you have unexpected guests. Accompany the bean sandwiches with glasses of refreshing iced tea. Even the ancient Incas would have approved of this!

OPEN-FACED BAKED BEAN SANDWICHES

- 4 slices pumpernickel or rye bread
- Prepared mustard
- 1 can (1 lb. ½ oz.) oven-baked pork and beans in tomato sauce
- 4 slices tomato

Spice Dried Figs for Meat Go-With

A very spicy, sweet-sour fruit treat enhances almost any meat — especially poultry and pork.

- 1 pound dried figs
- Whole cloves
- 1 cup sugar

TOFFEE CHARLOTTE RUSSE TORTE — Chopped candy bars and a trio of convenience foods are used to make an elegant looking and delicious tasting lady finger torte. Serve with sliced frozen peaches.

Fold Bits of Toffee Candy Into Torte Filling

Toffee Charlotte Russe Torte is prepared almost as easily as a dish of pudding, yet this creation looks and tastes as exquisite as any expensive pastry. No baking; just prepare and chill.

TOFFEE CHARLOTTE RUSSE TORTE

- 2 dozen lady fingers, split in half lengthwise
- 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
- ½ cup cold water
- 1 package (3 ounce) vanilla pudding and pie filling mix (not instant)

- 1½ cups chopped English Toffee candy bars
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 envelopes (2 ounces each) dessert topping mix
- 2 or 3 cups defrosted frozen sliced peaches, optional

Cut 2 dozen of the lady finger halves into 2-inch lengths and stand them upright, crust side towards pan and cut side down, around edge of 9-inch spring form pan. Line bottom of pan with lady finger halves.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Prepare pudding mix as directed on package label. Add gelatin to hot pudding and stir until it melts. Stir in 1½ cups toffee pieces and vanilla. Chill mixture until it starts to thicken.

ADD WHIPPED MIX

Prepare 1 envelope of dessert topping mix as directed on package label and fold it into chilled toffee mixture. Fill center of pan with layers of pudding and remaining lady fingers and pieces, making pudding the top layer. Chill until firm.

To serve prepare remaining

George Washington was fascinated by French ice cream and described in his account book for May 17, 1784 "a cream machine for making ice." Thomas Jefferson imported the recipe for a type of Baked Alaska so he could introduce it with his carefully-brewed coffee at a White House affair.

James Madison's First Lady, Dolly, gained ice cream fame the night she served a mold of pink ice cream at her husband's second inaugural dinner.

Like our Founding Fathers (and mothers), we have come to love ice cream. And since coffee is America's most popular beverage, it follows that it is also a popular ice cream flavor.

COFFEE CREAM

Put the two together and you come up with an irresistible dessert such as this Frozen Coffee Cream.

Soften one tablespoon unflavored gelatin in a quarter cup of cold coffee. Combine one and a quarter cups sugar, one and a quarter cups hot coffee and a few grains salt. Stir until the sugar dissolves, then add to softened gelatin and stir until gelatin dissolves.

Add two cups milk, one cup heavy cream and one teaspoon vanilla, and mix well.

Remove the ice-cube partition from a double refrigerator tray and pour the mixture into the tray. Freeze until firm.

BEAT WELL

Remove the mixture to a chilled bowl and break up, then beat until it is free from lumps, but is still a thick mush. Now return the mixture to the tray and freeze until firm.

This recipe makes enough for eight servings of Frozen Coffee Cream. For an old European coffeehouse touch, contrast this delicious icy dessert with cups of steaming demitasse.

Let Eggs Stay in Beet Juice

When Mrs. John Brown of Rochester reads this recipe, she'll be able to satisfy her husband's request for pickled eggs. It may not have come from South Carolina where Mr. Brown first tasted eggs prepared in this manner, but it's a tested recipe.

PICKLED EGGS

- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon mixed pickling spices
- 2 cups cider vinegar
- 12 to 16 hard-cooked eggs

Add sugar, salt and spices to vinegar (dilute one-third with water, if strong) and simmer 8 minutes. Strain and pour over the peeled eggs arranged in a large glass jar.

Seal and let stand two days before using. Keep in refrigerator.

Add sprig of dill, a few caraway seeds, garlic, a clove, or onion to the brine as desired.

Prosaic Prunes Get Holiday Treatment

Don't contort your face like an old prune!

A surprise flavor combination of tart sweet prunes and protein-rich foods like ham spread, cream cheese or peanut butter can be created as after-school treats, tea-time favorites or he-man snacks.

As the prune-wich filling varies, so can the bread.

- Youngsters might prefer sticking with their old standby of white or whole wheat.

- The women might enjoy a variety of nut breads sliced into a number of shapes.

- The men-of-the-house might consider pumpernickel, rye or sour dough.

PRUNE-CHEESIES

Blend ½ cup chopped cooked prunes with one eight-ounce package cream cheese which has been softened by mixing with a spoon. Makes about ¾ cup spread.

PEANUT-BUTTER 'N' PRUNES

Mix 2 tablespoons prune liquid from cooked prunes with ½ cup peanut butter. Add ½ cup finely chopped cooked prunes and mix well. Makes about 1 cup.

PRUNE DEVILS

Combine ½ cup chopped cooked prunes with ¼ cup deviled ham, 2 tablespoons catsup, pickle relish, finely cut parsley and onion. Season with few drops of tabasco sauce and few grains of salt. Makes about 1 cup.

Refrigerator Cake Is Lemon-Filled Treat

A truly elegant dessert for a festive occasion! Creamy, fluffy lemon whip is layered with shortbread cookie crumbs. You make it up ahead of time and decorate it too, so there is no last minute hustle and bustle!

LEMON COOKIE TORTE

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
- ½ cup cold water
- 6 eggs, separated
- 2-3 cup fresh lemon juice
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1½ cups granulated sugar
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 2 cups heavy cream, whipped
- 32 shortbread cookies, finely rolled (2¼ cups)
- Lemon pieces
- Angelica, cut into strips (optional)

Sprinkle gelatine over water to soften; then stir over hot water until dissolved. In top of double boiler combine egg yolks, lemon juice, salt and 1 cup sugar. Cook, while stirring, over boiling water, until mixture is thickened and coats back of spoon. Stir in gelatine and lemon rind.

Turn into a large bowl and refrigerate, stirring occasionally, until mixture just begins to mound when dropped from a spoon. Beat egg whites until foamy, then gradually add remaining sugar, while beating until stiff and glossy. Reserve 1 cup whipped cream.

Fold rest with egg whites into lemon mixture. Spread ½ of mixture over bottom of 9-inch spring form pan. Top with 1 cup shortbread crumbs. Over it spread half of remaining lemon mixture. Top with 1 cup crumbs; then with remaining lemon mixture.

Garnish top with remaining crumbs, reserved whipped cream, lemon pieces and angelica. Refrigerate at least 4 to 6 hours. Makes 12 (2½-inch) wedges.

OUTSIDE DISPENSER — General Electric has a new refrigerator with a handy on the door dispenser; it automatically delivers ice cubes or chilled water at a touch. You merely press your glass against a cradle to trigger the action. One outlet is for ice . . . one for water. They can be used separately or at the same time. An automatic icemaker stores up to 260 cubes. The new side-by-side refrigerator has a capacity of 23.5 cu. ft.; the freezer holds up to 295 lbs. The fresh food section has tempered glass shelves and a 7 day meat pan convertible to extra vegetable storage. Frost never forms in either section.

Creole Main Dish Calls for Rice, Ham, Shrimp

A New Orleans minister once noted that his Creole cook prepared his breakfast eggs in the amount of time it took to sing two verses of her favorite hymn. A festive air has long prevailed in the practice of Creole cookery and many loyal Southerners consider their culinary customs to be among the finer arts.

It is difficult to find the true origin of Jambalaya. Most authorities believe the dish came from the French and Spanish who settled the Louisiana Territory. At first it was made only with ham, but the Creoles couldn't resist adding the delicate seafoods abounding in their Gulf waters.

The combination of meat, seafood, rice and spices is brought to a succulent whole with Tabasco liquid red pepper sauce. This traditional seasoning is a native of Avery Island, Louisiana, and no Creole would consider cooking without it.

Jambalaya is a marvelous party dish because it can be prepared ahead of time, cooked till nearly done, refrigerated, then reheated when the guests arrive.

JAMBALAYA

3 cups water
2 teaspoons salt, divided
1 teaspoon Tabasco, divided
1 bay leaf
1 stalk celery with leaves
1 pound shrimp
¼ cup butter or margarine
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
1 garlic clove, minced
1 cup uncooked rice
1 can (1 pound) tomatoes
¾ cup bouillon
1½ cups diced cooked ham

To prepare shrimp, put water, 1 teaspoon of the salt and ½ teaspoon Tabasco in a saucepan. Add bay leaf and celery. Bring to a boil; add shrimp. Return to a boil and cook 5 minutes. Drain shrimp and cool quickly. Shell and clean.

Melt butter in a large skillet. Add onion, green pepper and garlic. Cook until onion is tender, but not brown. Stir in rice, tomatoes, bouillon, remaining 1 teaspoon salt and ½ teaspoon Tabasco. Quickly bring mixture to a boil.

Reduce heat and cover skillet. Simmer 20 minutes. Add ham; cover and cook 10 minutes longer or until liquid is absorbed. Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

Mix Celery Seed, Butter for Bread

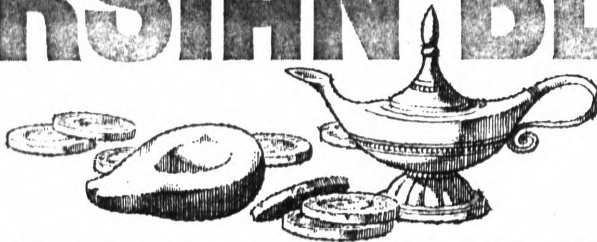

Celery-seed butter balls are an excellent way to complement any good bread. To make these flavorful spheres, cream one stick of butter or margarine; mix in ¼ teaspoon celery seed. Form into balls and refrigerate until serving.

Or, spread the mixture on French bread slices and heat in 400 degree oven 12 to 15 minutes.

Change for Turnips Comes With Basil

Tender white turnips are seasoned with sweet basil.

Western Turnips

2 pounds turnips
1 slice of onion
1 cup boiling water
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ teaspoon dried sweet basil leaves, crushed
Dash of pepper, salt and sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Parsley and paprika

Peel turnips, cut in half. Add turnips and onion slice to salted boiling water. Cook with cover off until tender, about 15 minutes. Melt butter and add seasonings. Pour over drained turnips. Garnish with chopped parsley and paprika. Serves 5-6.

Salad Bowl Holds Medley of Vegetables

A particularly appetizing way to serve vegetables is in a salad. Made up of both cooked and raw vegetables, it can accompany dinner's main dish or it can be the mainstay or a recipe for Mixed Vegetable Salad is akin to both the French Nicoise and the salad that the Spanish call Russian Salad.

MIXED VEGETABLE SALAD

- 1 cup diced cooked potatoes
- 1½ cups cooked sliced carrots
- 1½ cups cooked whole or cut green beans
- 1½ cups cooked green peas
- 1 cup sliced or diced cooked beets
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- ¾ cup small pimiento-stuffed olives
- Boston lettuce
- ¾ cup mayonnaise
- 1 cup chili sauce
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Chill vegetable, eggs and olives separately, then arrange in lettuce-lined salad bowl. Combine remaining ingredients. Just before serving, toss salad with dressing. Makes 8 servings.

MIXED VEGETABLE SALAD — A salad of raw and cooked vegetables is one of the delights of spring. Add pimiento-stuffed olives for a salty tang and toss the salad with a Russian-type dressing.

Fresh Beans Perk a Salad

How would you enjoy a bowl of snap bean (bush or pole) salad with cucumbers and a sprightly dressing flecked with dill?

GREEN BEAN CUCUMBER SALAD

- 1 pound green beans
- 1 large cucumber
- 1 cup olive or salad oil
- 2 tablespoons white vinegar
- 2 tablespoons fresh dill, chopped or dried dill
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1½ teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1½ teaspoon instant onion powder
- 1½ teaspoon instant garlic powder

Remove tips from beans and cut into 1½-inch pieces. Cook in boiling salted water to cover, 5 minutes. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, 15 minutes or until beans are tender. Drain and chill.

Peel and slice cucumber. Arrange with beans in salad bowl. Combine oil, vinegar, dill, salt, pepper, onion and garlic powder. Mix well. Pour over beans and cucumbers. Toss gently.

Serve well-chilled. 6 portions.

Pare With Towel

To make a quick job of skinning new potatoes, cut an old nubby bath towel into six inch squares. Wash potatoes in clear water. Rub the wet potato briskly in the towel for a few seconds and they will be completely cleaned and skinned, doing away with that scraping chore.

Salad Features Color, Flavor

"Tropic Isles Salad" is good served with chicken. Or, at lunch, you might make the servings larger and accompany each with a roll and a mug of soup.

This is a Polynesian-like combination of colors and flavors. Pineapple, tomato, ham and field-fresh western iceberg lettuce play the important roles, with bacon drippings, onion, brown sugar and vinegar providing flavor accents.

Like some famous Chinese salads, this one should be hot and cold simultaneously. Be sure the iceberg lettuce is crunchy-cold, and don't pour the hot mixture over it until you're ready to serve.

TROPIC ISLES SALAD

- 1 head western iceberg lettuce

- ½ to 1 cup julienne strips cooked ham or luncheon meat
- 2 tablespoons bacon drippings or salad oil
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
- 2 teaspoons flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper
- 1 can (8½ oz.) pineapple tidbits, undrained
- 4 teaspoons brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 tomato, cut into wedges

Core, rinse and drain lettuce. Place in disposable plastic bag or plastic crisper; chill. Just before serving tear lettuce into bite-size pieces in large salad bowl. Add ham.

Heat bacon drippings in small saucepan. Add onion; saute until golden. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Drain juice from pineapple into saucepan. Cook, stirring, until mixture comes to a boil and is thickened.

Add brown sugar, vinegar and pineapple; heat through. Pour mixture over lettuce and ham; toss lightly. Garnish with tomato wedges. Makes 6 servings.

Cheese Top for Hot Salad

Hot chicken salad is a delicious luncheon or supper dish. It's an excellent way to present chicken the second time around — or turkey, too. Mrs. L. A. Lingle of Sylvan Lake contributes this recipe.

BAKED CHICKEN SALAD

By Mrs. L. A. Lingle

- 2 cups cooked cubed chicken
- ¼ cup slivered almonds
- 1½ cups diced celery
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
- ¾ cup salad dressing
- salt and pepper

- 1 cup grated Cheddar cheese
- 1 cup potato chips, coarsely crushed

Combine chicken, celery, nuts, onion and salad dressing in bowl. Toss lightly to blend. Gently mix in potato chips. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Place in one-quart casserole. Sprinkle cheese over top. If desired, add a few more crushed potato chips on top of cheese.

Bake 25 minutes in 350-degree oven or until cheese begins to bubble. Makes 6 servings.

Vinegar Is Base of Hot Dressing

Every man enjoys hearty, deeply satisfying foods. So take off on a stouthearted, robust experiment in good eating — German cookery. Set your German castle scene with heavy candles and your "earthiest" dinnerware.

Make hot, tangy German potato salad, serve it with a relish tray, bratwurst or your favorite sausage, brown bread and cider.

SEHR GUT (VERY GOOD) POTATO SALAD

- Two 15-oz. cans sliced cooked potatoes, undrained
- 6 slices bacon, diced
- ½ cup finely chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons bacon fat
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1½ tablespoons sugar
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ½ teaspoon dill weed
- ¾ cup water
- 1½ cup tarragon vinegar
- One 8½-oz. can sweet peas, drained
- 1 hard-cooked egg, quartered

Heat potatoes in saucepan; cover and keep warm. Fry bacon until nearly crisp. Add celery and saute until bacon is golden brown; drain and set aside. Reserve 2 tablespoons bacon fat in skillet; blend in flour, sugar, salt and dill weed.

Combine water and vinegar; slowly stir into flour mixture. Cook sauce over medium heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Add bacon and celery.

Drain potatoes. Add potatoes and peas; heat through. Turn into serving bowl. Garnish with egg wedges. Yield: 6 servings.

SEHR GUT POTATO SALAD — German potato salad is warm and hearty. It's a dish that knows no season. Try it for a buffet supper sometime with thick slices of sausage. Remember it next summer for patio dinners.

SUNDAY SUPPER — Rich and delicious Salmon Chowder is a hearty dish for family or friends. End the meal with a flourish by serving Zippy Fruit Compote and an elegant chocolate cake. It will be smart to plan for second helpings as your family is sure to request more.

Sunday Supper Is Pleasant Meal

Sunday supper is usually a family affair. When planning your menu, make simplicity and heartiness your guide lines. A satisfying bowl of steaming rich chowder followed by Zippy Fruit Compote and an elegant chocolate cake will be just the answers for this get-together family supper.

A rich blend of celery soup and cream swimming with large flakes of salmon and seasoned to a tee becomes the best mouth-watering Creamy Salmon Chowder you ever tasted.

Zippy Fruit Compote is a tangy combination of pineapple slices, stewed prunes and pear halves. Seasoned with lemon and cinnamon, this dessert is a delightful contrast of flavors for the meal.

Serve generous slices of your favorite elegant chocolate cake to your sweet-tooth family and friends, and listen to them "purr" with pleasure.

Relax — this Sunday supper is easy to prepare by using convenient canned and packaged foods. You can expect it to become a request menu for week days as well as Sunday.

CREAMY SALMON CHOWDER

1 small onion
¼ cup chopped green pepper

2 tablespoons butter, or margarine

1 can condensed cream of celery soup

1 can (1 lb.) salmon

½ cup light cream, or half and half

1 cup milk

¼ teaspoon thyme

Cook chopped onion and green pepper in butter until tender. Stir in soup, oil and liquid drained from salmon and light cream; blend until smooth. Add milk, thyme and salmon, broken into chunks; heat. Four one-cup servings.

Zippy Fruit Compote

1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

1 tablespoon lemon juice

1 Stick cinnamon

1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) sliced pineapple

1 can or jar (1 lb.) stewed prunes

1 can (1 lb.) pear halves

Combine grated rind and lemon juice with cinnamon and syrups drained from fruits; boil gently 15 to 20 minutes, until syrup is reduced about in half. Remove cinnamon stick.

Pour hot syrup over pineapple slices cut in half, prunes and pears; chill several hours. Six to eight servings.

Grapefruit Can Star in Salad, Dessert

From the desert areas of Southern California and Arizona, solid, juicy winter grapefruit is available November through June or early July.

Weight watchers look to fresh grapefruit as a treat not a treatment. One half medium grapefruit contains only 44 calories.

GRAPEFRUIT TOSSED GREEN SALAD

2 medium to large grapefruit, peeled, sectioned

2 quarts torn salad greens

2 to 3 green onions, sliced

5 to 6 radishes, sliced

½ cucumber, peeled, sliced

1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice

½ to ¾ French dressing

Coarsely ground black pepper

Drain grapefruit sections.

Reserve 5 to 6 sections for garnish; cut remaining sections in halves. In large bowl, combine cut grapefruit sections, salad greens, onions, radishes and cucumber.

Blend lemon juice with salad dressing; pour over salad ingredients. Sprinkle with ground pepper. Toss lightly until evenly coated with dressing. Arrange grapefruit sections on top.

Serve at once. Makes 6-8 servings.

DATE NUT MERINGUE IN GRAPEFRUIT SHELLS

2 medium to large grapefruit

2 egg whites

¼ teaspoon cream of tartar

¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar

8 pitted dates, sliced

¼ cup broken walnuts, pecans or almonds

Cut each grapefruit in half; remove any seeds. With sharp knife, cut around each section to loosen fruit from membrane. Carefully scoop out sections with a spoon; drain well. Scrape any remaining membrane from shells, leaving them

MAKE MERINGUE

Beat egg whites until frothy; add cream of tartar and beat to soft peak stage. Gradually add brown sugar and continue beating until whites hold firm peaks. Fold in well-drained grapefruit pieces, dates and nuts; spoon into grapefruit shells.

Place on cookie sheet and bake at 325 degrees for 20 minutes, or until lightly browned. Serve warm. Makes 4 servings.

PASSOVER CAKE — For some reason, brown sugar is not a usual ingredient in Passover recipes. So this upside-down cake is a welcome newcomer. But don't try to substitute regular brown sugar in any recipe calling for granulated brown sugar.

Upside-down Cake Is Passover Time Treat

The Passover sections of Jewish cookbooks seldom contain recipes calling for brown sugar. Consequently the Pineapple Upside-down Cake represents the most unusual updating of a recipe.

It calls for making a superb sponge cake with matzo meal and potato starch on top of fresh pineapple slices and a glaze made with the convenient granulated brown sugar which was introduced a few years ago by America's leading refiner.

PASSOVER UPSIDEDOWN CAKE

Glaze

- 4 fresh pineapple slices, cored and halved
- ½ cup water
- ¾ cup granulated brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons all-vegetable margarine
- 9 marshino cherries, drained

Cake

- 4 eggs, room temperature
- ¾ cup granulated sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup orange juice
- 1¼ teaspoons grated orange rind

- ½ cup matzo cake meal
- 2 tablespoons potato starch

Place pineapple in large flat pan; add water; cover and simmer about 8 minutes. Transfer pineapple to absorbent paper to drain. Reserve liquid.

Place 2 tablespoons liquid in greased 9" upside-down cake pan. Add sugar and margarine; stir over low heat until syrup forms. Remove from heat. Arrange pineapple in pinwheel pattern in syrup; place cherries in core cavity and one in middle of pan.

MAKE CAKE

Separate eggs into large mixing bowls. Gradually beat ½ cup sugar and salt into yolks until thick and light in color. Add juice and rind; beat at high speed until light and fluffy, about 3 minutes. Stir together meal and starch; fold into orange mixture until smoothly blended.

Beat egg whites at highest speed until whites stand in peaks but are not dry. Beating continuously, make meringue by beating remaining ¼ cup sugar into whites, a tablespoon at a time. Fold meringue lightly into batter. Spoon batted over pineapple.

Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees about 50 minutes or until done. Allow cake to cool in pan about 10 minutes. Turn out on serving plate. Yield: 8 servings.

Vary Recipe for New Cake

Wives with outside jobs bake just about as often as full-time homemakers, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Instead of the flavors suggested below, you could use sugar maple cake mix and butterscotch instant pudding, lemon flake cake mix and vanilla instant pudding, yellow cake mix and pineapple cream instant pudding, or almost any combination your imagination suggests.

"Tell Your Neighbor Cake

- 1 package German chocolate cake mix
- 1 cup water
- 1 package (4-serving size) coconut cream instant pudding
- 4 eggs

Combine ingredients in large mixing bowl. Blend; then beat 8 minutes at medium speed of mixer or with wooden spoon. Pour into 13x9-inch pan lined on bottom with brown paper.

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 to 50 minutes, or until cake tester comes out clean. Cool in pan 15 minutes; then remove from pan. Cool thoroughly on a rack. Frost as desired.

Alternate baking pans: This cake may also be baked in the following brown paper-lined pans: a 10-inch tube pan for 50 to 60 minutes, two 9x5-inch loaf pans for 45 to 50 minutes, or three 9-inch layer pans for 25 to 30 minutes.

Use Apple Corn Bread in Chop Stuffing

Flavorful corn bread stuffing is the success key to this satisfying dish that's sure to please the men at your dinner table. Stir up the corn bread quickly with convenient corn muffin mix, adding succulent chopped apple and celery for mouth-watering flavor.

Step two calls for crumbling

the corn bread, and mixing with bread cubes, seasonings, butter and egg to hold the stuffing together. Pile into the "pockets" of double-thick pork chops. Brown the chops briefly, then top with onion slices and bake until the meat is juicy-tender.

Bake extra stuffing in a casserole as an accompaniment for the chops. Green beans complement the golden stuffing and richly browned pork. Chilled citrus sections are an excellent salad choice and chiffon cake a la mode finishes this family or company meal with a flourish.

STUFFED PORK CHOPS

- 1 recipe corn bread, crumbled*
- 3 cups cubed day-old bread
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 egg, beaten
- 6 double pork chops, pocketed

Place corn bread, bread cubes, salt, pepper, poultry seasoning, butter and egg in large bowl. Toss lightly to combine. (For a more moist dressing, add 1/4 cup water.)

Lightly stuff pocket of each pork chop. Fasten with toothpicks. Brown in small amount of hot fat. Place in baking dish; top each chop with thin slice of onion. Cover and bake in preheated moderate oven (375 degrees) about 1 hour or until tender.

Bake remaining stuffing in uncovered casserole last 30 minutes. Remove toothpicks from pork chops before serving. Makes 6 servings.

*Corn Bread

- 1 12-oz. package (2 cups) corn muffin mix
- 2 cups chopped apple, pared and cored
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1 egg
- 3/4 cup milk

Heat oven to hot (400 degrees). For corn bread, empty contents of package into bowl. Add apple, celery, egg and milk. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened. (Batter should be slightly lumpy.)

Pour batter into greased 8-inch square baking pan. Bake in preheated oven 20 to 25 minutes.

Sweet Sauce of Fruit, Nuts Top for Ham

Fruit-Jeweled Ham Steak is easy to fix. While the fully-cooked ham is heating in the oven, prepare the simple sauce on top of the range.

Serve with cauliflower Poinsettia and buttered zucchini slices.

FRUIT-JEWELLED HAM STEAK

- 1 1/2 to 2 inch center-cut slice fully-cooked bone-in-ham (2 1/2 to 3 pounds)
- 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon or orange rind
- 1/3 cup chopped mixed candied fruit
- 1/4 cup walnut halves, cut in half lengthwise

Slash fat edge of ham diagonally at 1 1/2 inch intervals. Place steak in shallow baking pan. Reserve 2 tablespoons butter or margarine for brushing over surface of ham during heating.

Bake in slow oven (325 degrees) until heated through, about 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 hours, brushing surface of ham 2 or 3 times with reserved butter or margarine during heating.

MAKE SAUCE

Combine remaining 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, flour and salt in small saucepan; mix well. Add milk, all at one time; cook slowly, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in mustard, fruit rind and half of mixed fruit and nuts; mix and heat.

Arrange ham slice on serving dish; spoon half or all of sauce over meat and sprinkle remaining candied fruit and nuts over top. If half of sauce is reserved, serve it with sliced meat. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

STUFFED PORK CHOPS — Stuffed pork chops have always been popular. They're no less so when a tasty apple-corn bread stuffing is used. Top with a succulent onion slice before baking.

Cashews and Curry Improve Plain Rice

If you think that pork chops are just about the greatest, then you surely know they deserve the very best accompaniment. So the next time this favorite food is on the menu — and pork chop fans see to it that this happens once a week — try this luscious new rice recipe.

Cashew Rice will easily prove that it's worthy of sharing the plate with those succulent chops.

All your favorite cuts of meat are entitled to the best company on the dinner plate. This is where rice meets the challenge. It has a subtle, yet distinctive, flavor that is uniquely its own.

And, most important, rice is so versatile. There are literally hundreds of ways of dishing it up in interesting new combinations, such as the recipe given here.

But the really great thing about rice is that you can use your imagination. Just follow the easy directions on the package and add a touch of your own.

Some crumbled bacon and sour cream add excitement, for example. So do chopped olives or grated Parmesan cheese. Or, just pour gravy over it. Aside from good eating, rice provides the opportunity to show real culinary creativity.

CASHEW RICE

- 1 cup finely chopped onions

- 2 tablespoons olive oil (or salad oil)
- 1 teaspoon curry powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups hot cooked rice, cooked in chicken broth
- 1/4 cup cashew nuts
- Saute onion in olive or salad oil until tender. Add seasonings, rice and cashew nuts. Toss lightly. Makes 6 servings.

Watch Carefully or Salad's Gone

Be sure that gelatin salad is firm before you attempt to unmold it. Then dip a small pointed knife in warm water and run it around the edge of salad.

Next, dip the mold in warm water just to the rim for about 10 seconds. Lift mold from water. Hold upright, and shake slightly to loosen gelatin from it. Turn upside down on plate.

Put Sausage in Limelight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department plans a series of public hearings to consider new standards for the content and labeling of federally inspected frankfurters, bologna, knockwurst and similar sausages.

Present regulations state only that processed meats be "made from clean and safe ingredients . . . truthfully and informatively labeled."

The new rules, to be considered at the hearings, would be more specific. Among them is a controversial proposal, put forth by the poultry industry, that would allow hot dogs and similar products to contain up to 25 per cent poultry without requiring the name of the product to reflect that content.

The hearings will be held in February and March in Atlanta, Chicago, and Denver.

FRUIT-JEWELLED HAM STEAK—Fruit-Jeweled Ham Steak is as pretty as it is flavorful, with a colorful sauce of candied fruits and nuts.

Layer Almond Meringues With Fillings

Let's face it. No one expects you to make "Almond Anniversary Torte" just any old day. The occasion must be something special — wedding anniversary, birthday, holiday, graduation, promotion at the office, new baby in the family, et cetera. Any of those happy events merits the extra effort that goes into this elegant dessert creation.

A delicious almond flavor pervades each mouthful. The three thin crisp layers are made with ground almonds, powdered sugar and egg whites. One of the fillings features ground almonds again (with whipped cream) while the other is a buttery coffee filling. And crisp roasted diced almonds are a part of the gala garnish.

You hardly need to be told that it's all quite rich — and quite possibly the best-tasting new dessert in a long, long time.

ALMOND ANNIVERSARY TORTE

1½ cups roasted diced almonds
1½ cups sifted powdered sugar
3 egg whites
1 cup whipping cream
¼ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup water
½ to 1 teaspoon instant coffee powder
2 egg yolks
6 tablespoons soft butter or margarine

Grind 1½ cups almonds in food chopper. Mix with 1 cup of the powdered sugar. Beat rest of powdered sugar with egg whites until stiff. Fold in 1 cup almond mixture.

Divide mixture into 3rds; spread each 3rd into 9 x 4-inch rectangle on greased aluminum foil. Place on cookie sheets. Bake one sheet at a time in 325-degree (moderately slow) oven about 15 minutes or until light brown. Remove foil; cool layers on wire rack.

Whip cream until stiff; reserve and refrigerate about two thirds cup. Fold remaining almond mixture into remaining cream; refrigerate.

COFFEE FILLING

Combine granulated sugar, water and coffee powder in small saucepan; cook over medium heat about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until reduced to half. Slowly pour warm sauce over egg yolks, stirring constantly. Add butter a little at a time and beat until smooth.

Spread coffee filling evenly on 2 layers; spread almond cream filling on top of coffee filling. Stack layers on serving plate with plain layer on top. Garnish with reserved cream and remaining almonds.

To serve, cut into slices with sharp knife. Makes about 8 servings.

Eggs With Cheese Start Day Well

Here's something different to do with scrambled eggs for a first meal of the day:

Cream a (3 ounce) package of cream cheese until fluffy, then add slowly a cup of scalded milk. Season with salt and pepper. Add 6 eggs which have been beaten slightly.

Melt lard or drippings in frying pan, then add 1 cup cubed leftover ham or luncheon meat to cook with the eggs. Cook slowly stirring only until eggs are set.

This ham and egg breakfast dish is delightful served with toasted English muffin, cinnamon buns or toast.

Pure Vanilla Is Flavor Helper

For an extra fast breakfast pick-up, give the youngsters hot chocolate with a twist — make Mexican Hot Chocolate. Just stir in 1½ teaspoons of pure vanilla extract into a cup of hot chocolate before serving.

For an extra special treat, give the youngsters a stick of cinnamon to stir the chocolate — Delicious and fun.

Use the delicate and subtle vanilla to flavor most sweet foods such as eggnog, milk shakes hot chocolate and other milk beverages. Enhance dessert or fruit sauces, custards, pies and coffee. Winning note in frostings, candies, muffins, coffee cakes and cream cheese filling for fruit bread.

VANILLA SUGAR

Vanilla Sugar — long a seasoning favorite in Europe — is easy to make. Cut a vanilla bean into pieces and bury in a covered container of sugar. After several days, use the delicately flavored vanilla sugar on fruit, cereals or cookies.

White or yellow cake mixes are even more flavorful when additional pure vanilla extract is added. Use 1 teaspoon to 2 teaspoons in your favorite mix.

For a full flavor effect, pure vanilla extract should be added to custards after they have been removed from the heat. Add vanilla while custard is cooling.

PINEAPPLE AVALANCHE — Stir together 1 can (1 lb., 4½ oz.) crushed pineapple drained; 1 can vanilla ready-to-serve pudding and ½ cup drained maraschino cherry halves. Chill. Bake 1 package pineapple chiffon cake mix according to directions. Cool. Remove from pan; cut hole ½ inch larger. In chilled bowl, beat 1 cup chilled whipping cream until stiff; fold into pineapple mixture. Stir in 1 teaspoon rum extract. Fill center and spread top of cake with whipped cream-pineapple mixture. Chill until set. Spoon mixture from center onto individual servings. Refrigerate leftover cake.

SCANDINAVIAN PORK ROAST — Slice 3 lengthwise pockets in a 5-pound lean pork loin roast 3/4's of the way through, 2 inches apart. Drain 10 prunes, halved and pitted. Insert prunes deep into each pocket. Combine 2 teaspoons salt with 1/2 teaspoon pepper and 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger and rub over surface of meat. Place rib side down on rack in shallow pan. Roast at 325 degrees about 3 hours or until meat thermometer indicates 170 degrees.

Store Crab Burgers, Bake as Needed

You're sure to make points with the teen age crowd when you serve King Crab Burgers. Easy to prepare, these foil wrapped 'burgers' can be put together in advance and stored in your refrigerator or freezer. When the active and seemingly always-hungry teenagers arrive home, scrumptious King Crab Burgers need only a quick heating in the oven.

The flavorful filling combines tender morsels of Alaska King crab with pickle relish, celery and cubes of Cheddar cheese. Creamy mayonnaise and chili sauce bind the mixture together. Pile the filling high in buttered hamburger or hot dog buns and wrap in foil.

Relish kabobs, lots of potato chips and tall glasses of icy cold milk complete the menu.

KING CRAB BURGERS

1 (7 1/2 oz.) can Alaska King crab or 1/2 pound frozen Alaska King crab
1 cup diced celery
2 tablespoons pickle relish
1 cup diced Cheddar cheese
3 tablespoons chili sauce
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon onion salt
6 to 8 hamburger buns, buttered

Drain and slice canned crab or defrost and slice frozen crab. Combine with celery, pickle relish, cheese, chili sauce, mayonnaise and onion salt.

Fill buns with crab mixture and wrap each individually with heavy-duty aluminum foil. Bake in a 350-degree oven 20 minutes.

If preparing ahead, refrigerate (a few hours) or freeze (up to one week). When ready to serve, bake refrigerated buns at 350 degrees

Raises Cake Pan

If you have a medium size funnel you can use it to "hang" an angelfood cake (in its pan) when you remove the cake from the oven. Let the cake stand this way until it is cold, then ease it from the pan. Stand the funnel on its wide end and place the tube of the pan over the funnel's narrow end.

APPLE SCALLOP SALAD — Diced sea scallops chill overnight in a lime juice and wine mixture. When apples and sour cream dressing are added, you have an interesting salad to serve as an appetizer.

Fish 'Cooks' Overnight in Marinade

Apples add the fresh, fruity flavor and texture so right with the scallops in this recipe; the lime juice called for "cooks" the scallops; the apples add color as well as their unbeatable good flavor and texture.

APPLE SCALLOP APPETIZER SALAD

1 lb. sea scallops, fresh or frozen
 ½ cup bottled lime juice
 ½ cup white wine
 2 tablespoons minced parsley
 2 tablespoons minced onion
 2 unpeeled red apples, diced
 Sour cream dressing
 Defrost scallops, if frozen. Slice, then dice. Combine all ingredients except apples and dressing; refrigerate overnight. Drain. Add apples and enough sour cream dressing to hold ingredients together.

Serve small portions on heart leaves of lettuce with additional dressing as a first course. Makes 8 servings.

Sour Cream Dressing

1 cup mayonnaise
 ½ cup dairy sour cream
 Few drops Tabasco
 ½ teaspoon garlic powder
 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 2 teaspoons capers (optional)
 Combine all ingredients; mix well.

Nixon Sworn In as 37th President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Milhous Nixon, shielded by the tightest security ever devised for an inauguration, today became the 37th president of a nation he said faces "a crisis of the spirit."

In a pageant almost as old as the republic, the California grocer's son repeated the tradition-hallowed presidential oath and accepted the power and the agony of the office that eluded him eight years ago.

And afterward, in his prepared inaugural address, Nixon said the nation is "rich in goods but ragged in spirit; reaching with magnificent precision for the moon, but falling into raucous discord here on earth."

Such simple virtues as "goodness, decency, love, kindness," are the answer to the crisis of spirit, Nixon said.

'MUST STOP SHOUTING'

"We cannot learn from one another until we stop shouting at one another," he said.

Nixon assumed the office by reciting only 35 words.

"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States," the 56-year-old Nixon intoned, his hand resting on two family Bibles held by his wife, Pat.

"And will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States," he repeated after Chief Justice Earl Warren, a one-time political foe administering the oath for the fourth and probably last time.

SPIRO SWORN IN

Before Nixon took the oath, his vice president, Spiro T. Agnew, was sworn in by Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

The historic tableau was played out on a stand before the Capitol, its participants shielded on three sides by broad panes of bulletproof glass and guarded above by armed federal agents scanning the crowds with special wide-angle devices.

As the totems of power passed from Lyndon Johnson to Richard Nixon, from Democrat to Republican, from "Great Society" to "Forward Together," helicopters carrying Secret Servicemen hovered in the leaden skies nearby.

Capital streets, lined with more than 10,000 soldiers and stands where victorious Republicans jostled with antiwar protestors, were damp from three days of rain.

Related Stories, Pictures, Pages A-2, A-12, A-13, A-14

The principal emphasis of Nixon's inaugural speech clearly was on the search for peace.

"For the first time, because the people of the world want peace and the leaders are afraid of war, the times are on the side of peace," he said.

To help make the world safe for mankind, he added, "is our summons to greatness."

In these difficult years, America has suffered from a fever of words," Nixon contended, "from inflated rhetoric that promises more than it could possibly deliver; from angry rhetoric that fans discontents into hatreds, from bombastic rhetoric that postures instead of persuading."

PROGRAMS TO CONTINUE?

At the same time, Nixon seemed to hint that portions of President Johnson's Great Society programs will be continued.

He promised to "press urgently forward" toward such goals as rebuilding cities, providing better housing, strengthening education, protecting the environment and seeking full employment.

But Nixon suggested government's capacity for dealing with many of the major domestic problems is limited.

Noting that in the last third of a century "government has passed more laws, spent more money, initiated more programs, than in all our previous history," Nixon said: "... we are approaching the limits of what government alone can do."

'DO IT TOGETHER'

"What has to be done, has to be done by government and people together ..."

Employing greater eloquence than usual, Nixon said that with the energies of the people enlisted, "we can build a great cathedral of the spirit — each of us raising it one stone at a time, as he reaches out to his neighbor, helping, caring, doing."

Two More Airliners Hijacked to Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — A young man clutching a Dominican Republic passport hurdled another passenger and ran "like a football player, dodging from tourist to first class" before grabbing a stewardess and forcing an Eastern Airlines jet to Cuba. It was one of two hijackings yesterday that took 259 persons to Havana.

The Eastern Jet — with 178 aboard — was hijacked as it neared the end of its New York-to-Miami flight. Its passengers flew on to Miami during the night.

An Ecuadorian propjet carrying 81 persons was seized by four men armed with submachine guns and remained in Cuba. There was no explanation why Cuban authorities detained the propjet.

These were the sixth and seventh commercial airliners hijacked to Cuba in 18 days.

RETURNED TO U.S.

Passengers on the Eastern jet returned to Miami early today aboard two propjets sent to Varadero, Cuba, to get them.

The Ecuadorian plane landed at Jose Marti Airport in Havana at 6:30 p.m. — 12 minutes after Smith's jet landed at Miami. Aboard were a crew of six and 75 passengers, including four men reportedly carrying machine guns.

Bound to Miami from Guayaquil, Ecuador, the propjet lost radio contact with its base soon after takeoff.

Cloud Cover Hides Morning Sunshine

Scattered sunshine may have delighted winter-weary residents this morning, but it was all too brief as a cloud cover closed over the area by afternoon.

Tomorrow will be more of the same, with the clouds carrying the threat of occasional rain by afternoon or evening.

Occasional rain, snow flurries and lower temperatures are on Wednesday's weather agenda.

Low mercury reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 24 degrees. By 1 p.m. the thermometer registered 33.

Builder Loaned $3.3 Million for Housing in City

A $3.3-million loan was granted at noon today to Charles L. Langs, Pontiac developer, for 325 units of housing for elderly and low-income families. Making the loan is the New York Life Insurance Co.

Langs already has built 200 units of the 525-unit development on West Kennett, west of Alcott School. The loan will cover the second phase of the project.

Insurance company officials said it was the largest loan ever made by the firm for housing under the program connected with the $1-billion pledge made by American insurance companies for urban development after the 1967 civil disturbances.

The Pontiac project, known as North Hills Farms, will consist of 52 one-story apartment buildings plus a one-story community center. Some 96 of the apartments will be 2½-room efficiency, 164 will be one-bedroom and 65 two-bedroom units.

MOST FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

Most of the apartments will rent to senior citizens. However, units also will be available to low and medium income families who qualify under Federal Housing Administration rent-supplement rules, it was announced.

Financial arrangements and services are by the James T. Barnes Co. of Detroit.

Langs has several other federally assisted and private developments around Pontiac including a $2.5-million motor hotel under construction on Woodward across from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

3,500 Strike in England

LONDON (AP) — More than 3,500 overseas telegraphers struck for more pay today, disrupting cable and telex communications to and from Britain.

Cooking School Opens Tonight

The 10th annual Pontiac Press Cooking School begins at 7:30 tonight in the Pontiac Central High School auditorium. The six sessions — four at night and two in the afternoon — will feature Consumer Power Co. Home economists Ellen Tallis and Fredricka Hoxie.

The high school's east-end doors will open at 6:30 every night and 12:30 p.m. for the Tuesday and Wednesday daytime shows.

Local merchants are participating in the school with donations of dozens of daily prizes and special grand prizes. These include two stoves, a dishwasher, gas dryer, incinerator, outdoor barbecue, refrigerator, TV set, dinette set, vacuum cleaner, water heater and wig.

Some of the food prepared on stage also will be given away. Persons under 18 and employees of The Pontiac Press and their immediate families are not eligible for prizes.

SPECIAL SHOWS

Fashion shows by Penthouse Fashions of Independence Square shopping center, wig presentations by Drayton Wigs and hair styles by Donnell will be intermission features.

Robert Lillyman from Smiley Brothers Music will again be part of the Cooking School. He will present a program on the Baldwin theater organ before each session.

Canada Dry will serve free ginger ale in the lobby every day.

The annual recipe section, prepared by Janet Odell, Pontiac Press food editor, is in today's Pontiac Press. Recipes from area women are included.

Jet Crash in Pacific Kills 38

LOS ANGELES (AP) — On the bottom of the storm-tossed Pacific today lay the battered wreckage of a U.S. jetliner in which 38 persons died. A mile away rests the hull of an European jet in which 11 are entombed.

Aboard the United Air Lines Boeing 727 when it crashed Saturday night after takeoff for Denver, Colo., and Milwaukee, Wis., were a theology school president ... a college coed ... the parents of six Wisconsin youngsters ... one of United's four "Flying Le Roys."

One body was recovered from the fuel-stained waters around the crash site. Searchers also found scraps of the baggage and mail sacks in the waters cut by sharks' fins.

Related Story, Page A-24

Heavy seas and rain hampered search operations yesterday.

About a minute after the plane took off, Pilot Arnold Levenson radioed:

"I have a fire warning light on engine No. 1. I'm turning around and coming back."

Radar showed the plane made a left-hand turn about 12 miles west of the coastal airport. Then radio contact with the plane was lost and its blip on radar screens disappeared.

Officials were unable to say whether the plane had exploded before it crashed and disintegrated.

About a mile to the southwest, searchers were attempting to recover the tail section of a Scandinavian Airlines System Douglas DC8 which crashed last Monday trying to land at Los Angeles. Four bodies were recovered and 30 persons survived.

Portage Girl Is State Junior Miss

By DIANNE DUROCHER

"It's a great feeling," said 17-year-old Lynne Barry of Portage, brushing away tears of excitement after being crowned Michigan Junior Miss Saturday night.

The lithe blue-eyed brunette is a senior at Portage Central High School. She performed a flute solo, her own arrangement of "Heaven Came Down," for her talent presentation at the 11th annual state pageant sponsored by the Pontiac area Jaycees.

She will represent Michigan in the national Junior Miss finals in Mobile, Ala., in May.

First runner-up Trudy Vincent of Madison Heights was presented $300 in scholarships and a $400 savings bond.

OTHER WINNERS

Barbara Tuttle of Lenawee County, second runner-up received a $250 scholarship and a $300 savings bond.

Third and fourth runners-up Alice Schuman of Taylor and Eugenia Klesney of Midland received $200 and $100 scholarships, respectively.

Prior to crowning Miss Barry, Pamela Smith of Northville, last year's Junior Miss, expressed her appreciation to the Jaycees for the opportunity of representing Michigan for the last year.

In addition to the trip to Mobile, Lynne was presented with $1,100 in scholarships and $525 in savings bonds.

'JUST THE GREATEST'

After expressing her appreciation to all those connected with the pageant, Lynne said, "You can tell just by looking up here that these girls are just the greatest there are."

Garrison Seeks Delay of Shaw Conspiracy Trial

From Our News Wires
NEW ORLEANS — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison sought today a delay in the start of the trial of Clay L. Shaw, charged with conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy, until state medical experts are given a chance to study the Kennedy autopsy material, including clothing, photographs, and X rays.

Garrison had set the Jan. 21 opening date last month and said: "The moment of truth has arrived... even if I'm killed, Clay Shaw will go to trial."

But he changed his mind Friday after the outgoing U.S. attorney general, Ramsey Clark, made public the finding of a private panel of medical experts he had appointed a year ago.

DECISION ON COMMISSION

The panel, after studying the autopsy material, concluded the Warren Commission was correct in saying the assassination shots in Dallas in 1963 came from behind. Garrison, who has scoffed for two years at the commission's conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in the murder, says his experts can show one shot came from the front.

The state filed a motion Friday, to be argued in criminal district court today at 11 a.m. EST, asking an indefinite continuance, with the opening to be reset by the state.

'GOVERNMENT SUPPRESSION'

Garrison's chief assistant, James L. Alcock, said he would go all the way to the state supreme court if necessary to delay the trial. In a statement issued Friday, following the filing of the motion to delay, Alcock hinted strongly that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock charged the federal government was withholding evidence vital to the case and added: "In the event the federal government does not honor our subpoenas and blocks our attempts to present all of the evidence, this case cannot be brought to trial."

Shaw's lawyers are opposing the latest prosecution move. One of them, F. Irvin Dymond, said: "We are going to oppose any motion for a continuance and ask for a speedy trial."

The autopsy material was given to the National Archives by the Kennedy family with the proviso that it be kept locked up, except to government investigators, until 1971.

A general sessions judge in Washington told Garrison's representative he would not order the evidence released unless Garrison can prove during the next two weeks its materiality to the Shaw case.

Exec of SCLC Says He Has Evidence Ray Is Innocent

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's nonviolent education and direct action wing says James Earl Ray is innocent of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. But he isn't saying what evidence he has.

The Rev. James Bevel said yesterday, "I won't discuss the specific evidence now because it wouldn't be beneficial to James Earl Ray. But he's not guilty."

Officer Watches Balloon Crash

A Troy policeman had an experience yesterday afforded few persons in our times. He was eyewitness to a hot-air balloon crash.

Patrolman Robert Crawford reported he was cruising near John R and Ordington about 10:20 a.m. when he spotted a hot-air balloon heading in a southeasterly direction and having difficulty.

As he watched, the balloon hit the ground and spilled the pilot from the basket underneath. The balloon then rose again only to crash into utility wires, Patrolman Crawford reported.

Subsequent investigation showed the pilot, Linden F. Harding, 27, of 1222 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Township, was unhurt and the lighter-than-air ship only slightly damaged.

RAN OUT OF GAS

The policeman said the pilot told him he had run out of propane gas needed to keep his balloon aloft after having flown for about an hour. The craft reportedly launched in a field near M59 and Adams in Avon Township.

The balloon is being readied for a racing meet to be held in Minnesota in two weeks, the officer was told.

Crawford said he was checking the legality of the flight with the Federal Aviation Agency.

Bevel, 32, a former liaison officer between SCLC and militant Negro groups, sent a telegram to Ray Saturday which read:

"I would like to inform you that I would be very happy to take your case without fee. I was present on April 4 at the Lorraine Motel when Dr. King died — you have been accused of murdering him. Of course, I know you are not guilty."

BEVEL

KING HEADED SCLC

King, who headed the SCLC, was shot to death in Memphis, Tenn., last April 4. Ray was arrested in London following an intensive manhunt and extradited to Memphis where he faces trial beginning March 3.

Bevel said he didn't step up with his alleged information sooner because "I hadn't been responsive to him."

"But then I thought, 'Here's a man sitting here that shouldn't be here.' Bevel is not a bar member, but a lawyer "by circumstances." A native of Itta Bena, Miss., he has represented himself several times in civil rights cases in Mississippi.

RAY'S ATTORNEYS SILENT

There has been no comment from either public defender Hugh Stanton in Memphis or Ray's attorney, Percy Foreman of Houston, to Bevel's telegram.

Ray, in a heavily guarded cell in Shelby County jail at Memphis since his extradition, had been scheduled to go on trial in November but Judge W. Preston Battle ordered a delay after Ray fired his lawyer, Arthur Hanes of Birmingham, Ala.

Last week, when Foreman was taken ill, Battle ordered Stanton to begin preparing a defense for Ray in case Foreman could not be ready for the March trial.

JOHN Z. DeLOREAN

Executive Heads GM City Panel

John Z. DeLoorean, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and a GM vice president, has been appointed chairman of the General Motors Plant City Committee for 1969.

The committee is made up of members of management from the three GM plants in Pontiac and is responsible for guiding and coordinating GM's community relations activities in the area.

Other members of the Pontiac Plant City Committee from Pontiac Motor Division are D. Robert Bell, general manufacturing manager; Thomas C. Dorais, personnel director; Enoch Eley, divisional controller; and Robert W. Emerick, director of public relations.

Members from Fisher Body Division are John F. Dudas, plant manager; Alger V. Conner, plant personnel director; and Karl F. Davies, resident controller.

Members from GMC Truck & Coach Division are Martin J. Caserio, general manager and a GM vice president; John A. Castle, director of public relations; Robert G. Courter, divisional controller; Earl A. Maxwell, personnel director; and Bert T. Olson, general manufacturing manager.

Pension Rate Hike Urged

BIRMINGHAM—The City Commission will act tonight at 8 p.m. on a request from the city's retirement board recommending an increase in retirement pay computation for city employees from two-tenths to three-tenths per cent of their base pay. The proposal would be placed on the April 8 ballot if approved by the commission.

The commission will also review correspondence received from WOMAN (Women Opposed to Missiles and Nuclear Warheads) requesting commission representatives to attend a town meeting Jan. 30 at Oakland University to organize protests against the possible establishment of a missile site in the area. A time will be established for the meeting.

The board of education here is expected to establish March 31 as a date for a special election on operating millage and a bond issue at its meeting tomorrow at 8.

The Oakland County Election Screening committee had approved the board's requested March 31 date.

Voters will be asked to approve up to 12.75 mills. The actual millage rate increase is to be decided at tomorrow's meeting. A bonding question calling for funds to build additions to both high schools will also be formulated. The board will attempt to work out the approximate amount of funds needed for the building program.

Unregistered voters in the Birmingham School District must register by Feb. 28 at 5 p.m. in order to be eligible to vote in the special election. Application can be made through the City Clerk's office.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—An in-service teachers training day is scheduled for teachers in the Bloomfield Hills School District at Traub School on Square Lake Road on March 11 at 1 p.m. The training will concern detection and correction of children's learning disabilities.

Several Detroit area specialists on special and slow-learning education will speak. The Michigan Association for Children With Learning Disabilities is sponsoring the program.

Bell Prexy Speaker for C. of C. Dinner

Kenneth J. Whalen, president of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., will be the guest speaker at the 59th annual meeting of the Pontiac area Chamber of Commerce.

The dinner meeting is set for 7 p.m., Jan. 29 at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake.

The madrigal choir of Pontiac Central High School also will perform under the direction of Gilbert Jackson.

Tickets at $7 each, are available at the Chamber office in the Riker Building.

Moose Lodge, Area Barn Burn; Causes Probed

Two fires, one that gutted the Moose Lodge in Pontiac and another that leveled a barn, killing eight horses in Waterford Township, were under investigation today by authorities. Both occurred early yesterday.

The blaze at the home of the fraternal organization, 350 University, caused an estimated $25,000 damage to the building and an unknown amount to its contents.

Fire Marshal Capt. Allen Tunney said the cause of the fire in the one-story building has not been determined.

Two engine and two ladder companies and a rescue company fought the blaze from 4:14 a.m. to 7 a.m. No one was reported in the building at the time the fire broke out.

LOSS ESTIMATED

Waterford Township firemen estimated the loss at $8,000 to the barn, owned by Darrell DeSotell, 739 Scott Lake, and $3,000 to the horses. The barn was behind the DeSotell home.

The horses stabled in the barn belonged to four different owners, firemen said.

The fire was under control an hour and a half after firemen arrived about 4 a.m. Its cause also was not known.

Finnish Vessel Sinks

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The 493-ton Finnish freighter Bore IX was abandoned by her 13 crewmen last night after she listed and began to sink in a heavy snowstorm. Seven men were rescued, one was found dead on a life raft and five are missing.

"There is no longer any hope of finding any survivors," a spokesman of the Stockholm Coastal Radio said today. He reported the Bore IX was sinking in the Stockholm Archipelago, northeast of the Alma ground lighthouse.

Lynne also was congratulated by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barry and her 13-year-old brother Daniel, who were present.

For the three days prior to the contest Lynne stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Froede, 1884 Lakewood, Bloomfield Township, who said they were just as "excited and thrilled" as her parents.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Rain is predicted tonight in both the Southwest and Southeast. Showers are expected in the Pacific Northwest, and snow is forecast for Montana, northern Colorado and the Great Lakes region. It will be colder in the Northeast and northern Plains and warmer in the south-central region.

WAITING FOR A RIDE — Michigan Gov. George Romney, his wife, Lenore, son Mitt and Mitt's fiancée, Ann Davies, wait outside their Washington hotel for a ride to the pre-inaugural governor's reception yesterday. Romney is awaiting Senate confirmation as President Nixon's secretary of housing and urban development before resigning his state post.

Nixon's Team Flying to Paris

PARIS — The Nixon administration's first team for the Vietnam peace talks began arriving in Paris today.

Lawrence Walsh, who will replace Cyrus R. Vance as the U.S. delegation's No. 2 man, arrived this morning. Henry Cabot Lodge, the delegation chief, was due tonight from Washington.

The team's decision to bypass the events surrounding Nixon's inauguration indicated full-scale talks involving the U.S., North and South Vietnam and the Vietcong will begin tomorrow.

Outgoing chief U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman expressed hope yesterday that full-scale military and political talks will lead promptly to a peace settlement, now that procedural matters have been resolved after nine months of preliminary bargaining.

ISSUE IS AVOIDED

Agreement was reached Saturday to sit at a round table, avoiding the issue of recognition for the Vietcong as an independent delegation negotiating from its own side of a square table.

Harriman, obviously briefed on the goals of the Nixon administration, disclosed that the new U.S. negotiators will table a proposed allied agenda at the opening session calling for discussion on the following order of business:

De-escalation of the war; Mutual reduction of Vietcong, North and South Vietnamese and American forces; Full withdrawal of American and North Vietnamese forces from the South.

The North Vietnamese and Vietcong are expected to demand priority discussion on an American pullout from South Vietnam. Hanoi has never admitted publicly its troops are in the South.

Lodge held last-minute consultations with Nixon Saturday in Washington.

New Italian Party Exec

ROME (AP) — Flaminio Piccoli was elected secretary general of Italy's ruling Christian Democratic party yesterday after a bitter convention dispute that threatened to split the party.

Piccoli, 53, is considered a close ally of Premier Mariano Rumor, who resigned as party secretary general Friday. Former Premier Aldo Moro tried to block Piccoli's election, accusing Rumor of trying to perpetuate "a hierarchy of power." Rumor's allies said Moro was bitter because he could not regain control of the party.

Death of Czech Student Spurs Mass-Protest Talk

PRAGUE (AP) — Spurred by the death of Jan Palach, Czech students talked today of strikes and mass meetings to pressure their leaders into standing up to the Soviet occupiers.

Palach died Sunday, three days after he set himself afire in a protest that electrified the nation. Many Czechs said his act of sacrifice affected the country more than anything since the Soviet invasion five months ago.

"We have new courage, a new symbol," said one young man who had placed a candle in Wenceslas Square where the 21-year-old student drenched himself with gasoline and set himself aflame.

The country's Communist leaders tried to prevent a new crisis that could bring a new Soviet crackdown. They faced the threat of another student becoming a human torch to protest the loss of freedoms since the invasion and of the growing gap between the leadership and the public.

Speakers at rallies and on radio and television asked that there be no more human sacrifices. Another student who talked with Palach three hours before he died said in a broadcast that Palach told him: "My act has fulfilled the purpose but let nobody else do it... Let the living make their efforts in the struggle. I say goodbye. We may still see each other."

Karel Kovanda, a representative of the student union in Bohemia and Moravia, told a rally the students will act, but they will choose acts which will be adequate to Jan Palach.

Students passed the word for a mass meeting in Prague's Old Town Square and chalked "strike" on streetcars and on shop windows in Wenceslas Square.

They tried to line up support from the workers. University departments in Prague were in an emergency state with monitors checking passes at the doors. Students reported schools closed in other parts of the country.

DUBCEK 'MOVED'

The country's top leaders, including party chief Alexander Dubcek, sent a telegram to Palach's mother saying they were "deeply moved" by his death. "The sacrifice of your son Jan is a tragic event on our common path," they declared.

The government radio and television stations reported extensively on his death and the reaction to it. There were appeals for calm, and demonstrations in the streets were restrained. Some students marched to Prague Castle, shouted, "Russians go home!" a few times and departed.

A candlelight procession moved slowly through the streets Sunday night, the demonstrators carrying the Czechoslovak flag. Candles lined the ledges and steps in front of the statue of St. Wenceslas, and young people took turns throughout the night holding the national flag at the statue.

In front of the National Museum fountain where Palach set himself afire Thursday, a wreath, dozens of candles and a black flag were placed.

COMMEMORATIVE ACTS

A second tent was set up near by as three workers and four students joined a hunger strike started by a pair of students on Saturday. They were to fast until Tuesday, the fifth monthly anniversary of the Soviet invasion and the day when Palach's suicide note said another student would burn himself.

Heavy police patrols guarded the Soviet command's headquarters in Prague.

Government officials met with student leaders and Czechoslovak Premier Stanislav Razl urged the students to "submit their concrete demands" to the government.

Palach demanded abolition of censorship and banning of Zpravdy, the propaganda sheet distributed by the Soviet occupation force. To these student leaders added demands for immediate negotiations for the withdrawal of the Soviet troops, new elections for the National Assembly, a date for the convening of the 14th Communist party congress and assurances that press censorship will end within six months. These demands have been made before without success.

Gems Stolen From Home

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — An estimated $10,000 in rubies, emeralds, diamonds and sapphires has been reported missing from the home of a vacationing Battle Creek man.
State Police said the gems, along with other cut and polished stones, apparently were stolen in a break-in at the home of Donald Sumrill, a retired architectural consultant who is vacationing in Florida.

Sumrill's daughter, Donna Smith of Ada, told police she discovered the theft Sunday while checking the Sumrill home. The loss apparently occurred sometime after Jan. 13, when Mrs. Smith said she last inspected the home.

Detroit Dies in 1 of 3 Fires

By United Press International
A Detroit man perished in a home fire over the weekend while flames gutted a beauty school and a country club.
Charles Terry, 50, died Saturday night of smoke inhalation from a fire that began in his west side home. Firemen said Terry apparently was smoking in bed.

The State College of Beauty in Mount Clemens was burned out during a pre-dawn blaze yesterday in which two policemen were overcome by smoke. They were treated at the scene.
Six business places in buildings adjacent to the college were damaged by smoke and water as firemen from Mount Clemens, Harrison Township, Chesterfield Township and Selfridge Air Force Base battled the fire for some six hours.

In St. Clair Shores, the former Lakepointe Country Club was destroyed by fire yesterday when flames spread through the one-story brick and wood building. Three fire departments from St. Clair Shores, Roseville and Clinton Township were called in to fight that blaze. The building had been used for storing office equipment.
All the fires are under investigation.

Man Charged After Chase

A Pontiac man was arrested Saturday after he led police on a chase on Bagley at speeds up to 115 miles per hour.
Clarence L. Thompson, 21, of 362 S. Marshall was arrested after police reported seeing his car speeding at South Boulevard and Woodward without any lights on.

Officers said they gave chase along South Boulevard and Bagley before the car struck a truck at Bagley and Orchard Lake while trying to make a turn.
The car then pulled into a nearby parking lot where police caught up to it, Patrolman Dennis Kline said.
Thompson, who was charged with fleeing a traffic accident, was injured and is at Pontiac General Hospital in satisfactory condition.

Woman Is Hurt in Avon Crash

An Avon Township woman is in satisfactory condition today in Crittenton Hospital after being injured in a two-car accident in Avon Township Saturday night.
Carolyn Fifield, 22, of 1611 S. Rochester was admitted to the Avon Township hospital after the car in which she was riding collided with another at Rochester and Tienken roads.

The driver of the car, her husband, Richard, 22, and their two children were treated and released from the hospital.
Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said the other car, driven by Harold N. Crowe, 60, of 1712 Rochester, Addison Township, disregarded a traffic signal. Crowe also was treated for injuries at the hospital.

Plane Crash Kills 'Brilliant' Young Doctor

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Ill-fated Flight 266 put an abrupt and tragic end to the promising young lives of Dr. and Mrs. Victor W. Wallin Jr.
Wallin, 30, and his wife were aboard the United Airlines plane which sank in the Pacific Saturday night, claiming 38 lives.

A resident and teaching associate at the University of Michigan Hospital, Wallin was described by Dr. William Frye, head of the hospital's general surgical section, as a "brilliant young surgeon."

Hospital authorities said Wallin, who specialized in liver functions research, would have become chief surgical resident in the coming year.
Though the Wallins, who were returning from California where Wallin had toured medical installations, lost their lives and the hope of a successful career, they did leave something behind, their 1-year-old daughter, Sara, who was staying with her grandparents at the time of the crash.

3 Men Use Spray Hold Up Motorist

A Pontiac man told police he was robbed of belongings worth $315 when three men jumped into his car at a stoplight Friday night and knocked him out by spraying liquid into his face.
Linzy Bell, 29, of 612 Alton said when he woke up he found he was missing a diamond ring, wallet and gold watch.
He said that the incident happened at South Boulevard and South Saginaw and that he was unconscious for four hours.

Modern Machine Signals End of Loomed Fabrics

The process of weaving fabric is some thousands of years old. Now, a new process has been perfected which may well make the loom obsolete. This fabric is made on a Malimo machine, which was invented in Europe.

Yarns are laid out side by side on trays, and hundreds of tiny needles positioned in a rack above the yarn come down to stitch the fibers in position, making a single big sheet of finished fabric. Advantages are speed and, therefore, economy of production; versatility; and fabrics that perform magnificently.

They are dimensionally stable under practically any circumstance, will not stretch, sag or shrink, and may be machine washed in ordinary soap or detergent suds and machine dried. Look for Malimo fabrics first in drapery and linen departments.

Hide Bare Walls

A few yards of budget-priced fabric can be hung along the unfinished walls of an attic room to lend color and interest. Choose one that can be washed often.

Linda Felice Says Vows

Newlyweds, the David Michael Beavers (nee Linda Joyce Felice) were feted at the Italian American Club following vows Friday evening.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felice of Fourth Avenue and the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Beaver of Royal Oak were married in St. Michael's Catholic Church.

Attended by Margaret Boehmer, the bride was attired in a satin gown with Chantilly lace and seed pearl trim. A cascading arrangement of white carnations centered with a white orchid corsage comprised her bouquet.

Pete Vas Oosten was bestman for the nuptials.

Bridesmaids were Janet Tipolt and Renee Post with John Lant and Fred Charlton as ushers. Diana and John Croasdel were flower girl and ring bearer.

The good parts of a discarded quilted robe make fine everyday potholders. Cut two mittens from the part that is still bright, stitch together on the wrong side and turn.

Vinyl Place Mats Stir Conversation

New place mats are conversation-makers. Printed in a variety of colors on expanded vinyl foam, the mats feature replicas of traffic signs. Samples: Stop, Dead End, Wrong Way, No Thru Street.

They also are suggested to decorate walls or ceilings. Ceilings are what the manufacturer suggested.

Mrs. Brinkman Is New Head

Mrs. George Brinkman was installed as manager at a recent ceremony held by Mizpah Temple No. 7, Pythian Sisters, at Fellowship Lodge Hall.

Taking part in the proceedings were Mrs. Elton Losey, Mrs. Reino Perko, Mrs. H. H. Pattison and Mrs. Milton E. Probert.

Mrs. Thelma Cook of Olympia Temple, Detroit, assisted in the role of acting grand senior. As district deputy of District No. 8 of the Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters of Michigan, she will preside over the convention to

Initial Clothing

Use laundry ink and mark the initials of each child's name in your family on their white socks and underwear. This helps the children identify their own garments, and will also help when sorting the laundry, for if a sock or other garment is missing this method shows it up quickly.

Life Is Just One-Upmanship After Another

By BETTY CANARY
NEA WRITER

There is rivalry in any household, but with a large family the competition can get really fierce. I don't mean that my children are always at war, but there are times when our house seems to be the set for "Can You Top This?"

Living as I do, under the pall of one-upmanship, I take consolation in thinking that perhaps somebody else is learning something. That somebody is usually me.

For example, the plasterers arrived at long last to do repairs in my bedroom. They were fine fellows and good workers and we smiled a lot at each other through the thick white clouds of dust they raised. "At least," I said when they left, "I have learned something about old-fashioned plaster." And my son remarked, "But it was sure cleaner when all you knew about was the leak in the ceiling."

Then my youngest daughter, the possessor of a penny bank—a replica of the Empire State Building—asked me just the other day, "Is it really the tallest building in the world?"

"Yes," I replied authoritatively. "And I have been to the very top."

"The twin towers of the World Trade Center will soon be completed," my third grader recited through an ice cream bar, "and they will be the two tallest buildings in the world."

This must be a classic example. It added to my fund of knowledge and subtracted from my ego. And I stand revealed. I may be the only one here who has been on top of the THIRD largest building, but they are on top of everything.

I might vaguely recall that the world's largest Oriental rug is on display at the Cincinnati Art Museum, but it will be one of THEM who remembers the original owner and also the rug's exact dimensions.

Because of this need for facts and figures, I keep wads of pamphlets on the obscure and exotic. I also save all tags, instructions and fact sheets from any merchandise that comes into the house.

As a matter of fact, I was sorting through these when the delivery truck arrived with a credenza I'd ordered.

The children gathered around to admire my selection in their usual manner.

"It won't fit on that wall," said one.

"Mediterranean with French Provincial?" mocked another.

"I like the finish," I said defensively. "It's distressed pecan," I said, furtively studying the tag. I read further and thought it was my lucky day. In my most guileless manner I asked, "Good heavens, why do you think it looks so dusty?"

"White wax applied at the factory," snapped one.

"Right. It's called simulated dust!" said another.

"They read the tags already, lady," the delivery man said. "Both of them got right up there in the truck."

'Sex Boom' Bah' Cheer Led by MSU Professor

EAST LANSING — A lecture in a series on "Sexuality: A Search for Perspective" had the audience chanting words not used in polite society Wednesday at Michigan State University, but it was all planned.

The lecturer, Gerhard Neubeck, president of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, was leading the chant.

Neubeck was making the point that if sex is dealt with forthrightly, the psychological blockades surrounding it will be broken down and it will become an accepted experience rather than a problem.

Neubeck also pointed out that in countries outside the United States sex is treated much more casually. He cited legalized prostitution in Germany, unpunished homosexuality in Holland and a comic strip dealing with a prostitute in Norway to illustrate his point.

The session last week is the first of its kind in the Midwest. It continues for five more weeks on the Michigan State campus.

MASTER BAKER — Mrs. John Ristich of First Avenue delights in making bread for her family. The Press photographer arrived just as the fragrant loaves came out of the oven. The stove was won by Mrs. Ristich at last year's Cooking School.

Use 'CoolRise' Method to Make Cheese Rolls

Busy homemakers and working wives who never had time to bake bread find that it's now possible — actually convenient! — with the "CoolRise" Method.

The secret of the "CoolRise" Method is controlled rising in the refrigerator. The dough is mixed, kneaded and shaped in a single operation taking only 45 minutes. The panned loaves are then refrigerated for at least 2 hours, or up to 24 hours. Then, whenever it's convenient, a loaf may be taken from the refrigerator and baked immediately.

Here is an intriguing variation. Chili Cheese Pinwheels are made from basic white bread dough rolled up with a nippy cheese-and-chili filling.

CHILI CHEESE PINWHEELS

5 to 5½ cups flour
½ cup warm water (105-115 degrees)
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
1½ cups warm milk (105-115 degrees)
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon salt*
3 tablespoons margarine
1 cup yellow corn meal
Melted margarine
1 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
1 teaspoon chili powder
Cooking oil

Spoon or pour flour into dry measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour onto wax paper.

Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add warm milk, sugar, salt and 3 tablespoons margarine. Add 2 cups flour. Beat with rotary beater until smooth (about 1 minute). Add corn meal.

Beat vigorously with a wooden spoon until smooth (about 150 strokes). Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic, about 5-10 minutes. Cover with plastic wrap, then a towel. Let rest on board, 20 minutes.

Punch down; divide dough in half. On a lightly floured board roll out half the dough into a 10 x 16-inch rectangle. Brush with melted margarine. Sprinkle with half the grated cheese and chili powder.

Roll the dough up to make a roll 16 inches long. Cut into 16 one-inch pieces. Place in greased muffin cups or on greased baking sheets. Repeat with remaining dough, cheese and chili powder.

REFRIGERATE

Brush rolls with oil. Cover muffin pans or baking sheets loosely with wax paper brushed with oil; then top with plastic wrap. Refrigerate 2 to 24 hours.

When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator. Carefully uncover the dough; let stand for 10 minutes at room temperature.

Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes, or until done. Remove from muffin pans or baking sheets and if desired, brush with melted margarine. Makes 32 rolls.

(* If you use self-rising flour, omit salt).

Bread Is Staff of Life

Mrs. John Ristich of First Avenue was a grand prize winner at the 1968 Cooking School, taking home a beautiful double oven stove.

Since then, she has baked hundreds of loaves of bread in those two ovens. So what was more appropriate than to picture her with newly baked bread? She shares her recipe with Press readers.

HOMEMADE BREAD

By Mrs. John Ristich

6½ cups all purpose flour
¾ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 packages yeast
2 eggs
2 cups lukewarm water
½ cup salad oil

Mix together flour, sugar, salt, eggs and oil. Dissolve yeast in water and add to first mixture. Turn out on floured board and knead until dough is springy.

Form into ball and place in greased bowl. Turn over to grease top. Let rise in warm place until double. Punch down and form into four loaves. Place in greased pans.

Let rise again until double. Bake 30-35 minutes at 350 degrees or until loaves sound hollow when tapped. Turn out on rack to cool. Makes four loaves.

Of Coffeecake

Streusel in Center

Add bits of grated orange peel and meaty raisin to your streusel coffee ring and you have a breakfast to surprise the family.

Try link sausages and scrambled eggs with it. That's a sure-fire wakeup combination.

RAISIN STREUSEL COFFEE RING

¾ cup butter
1½ cups sugar
3 eggs
3 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup buttermilk
1 tablespoon grated orange peel
Streusel mixture
1 cup seedless raisins
Orange glaze

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Resift flour with baking powder, salt and soda. Add to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk, mixing just until blended. Stir in orange peel.

Turn half of batter into greased and floured 10-inch tube pan. Sprinkle with half of streusel mixture, then half of raisins. Top with remaining batter and streusel mixture.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 50 to 60 minutes, until cake tests done. Turn out of pan while warm and spread Orange Glaze over top. Sprinkle with remaining raisins. Serve warm. Makes 12 or more servings.

STREUSEL MIXTURE: Blend until crumbly, ½ cup brown sugar (packed), ½ cup sifted flour, 2 teaspoons cinnamon and ¼ cup soft butter or margarine.

ORANGE GLAZE: Stir 1 cup sifted powdered sugar and 2 tablespoons orange juice together until smooth.

Wine is as civilization. It was made in China before the year 2000 B.C., and is mentioned over 150 times in the Bible.

APPLE SCALLOP SALAD — Diced sea scallops chill overnight in a lime juice and wine mixture. When apples and sour cream dressing are added, you have an interesting salad to serve as an appetizer.

Fish 'Cooks' Overnight in Marinade

Apples add the fresh, fruity flavor and texture so right with the scallops in this recipe; the lime juice called for "cooks" the scallops; the apples add color as well as their unbeatable good flavor and texture.

APPLE SCALLOP APPETIZER SALAD

1 lb. sea scallops, fresh or frozen
½ cup bottled lime juice
½ cup white wine
2 tablespoons minced parsley
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 unpeeled red apples, diced
Sour cream dressing

Defrost scallops, if frozen. Slice, then dice. Combine all ingredients except apples and dressing; refrigerate overnight. Drain. Add apples and enough sour cream dressing to hold ingredients together.

Serve small portions on heart leaves of lettuce with additional dressing as a first course. Makes 8 servings.

Sour Cream Dressing

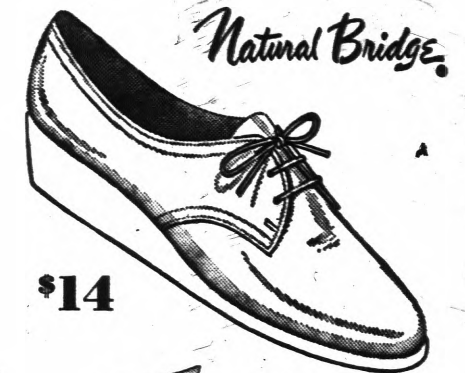

1 cup mayonnaise
½ cup dairy sour cream
Few drops Tabasco
½ teaspoon garlic powder
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 teaspoons capers (optional)
Combine all ingredients; mix well.

TWICE-AROUND — Cheeseburger Bites are an appetizer-sized version of one basic meatball recipe. Inside each pint-sized meatball is a golden nugget of melty cheese.

Lemonade and Green Grapes Good in Salad

A cool looking clear mold is filled with seedless grapes and bits of celery. Serve on greens with mayonnaise or sour cream.

Molded Grape Salad

2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
1 can (6 ounces) frozen concentrated lemonade
1 cup white wine
2 cups water
1 to 1½ cups seedless grapes
½ cup chopped celery
Bite-size greens
Soak gelatine in lemonade for 5 minutes. Stir over low heat until gelatine is dissolved. Stir in white wine and water. Chill until Syrupy. Fold in grapes and celery.

Pour mixture into a 1½ quart mold. Chill until firm. Dip mold into lukewarm water for a few seconds, tap to loosen and invert on a platter.

Garnish with bite-size pieces salad greens and small bunches of seedless grapes. Serve with mayonnaise and sour cream.

Space Age Punch Will Delight Kids

For children's parties, serve flying saucer punch.
Fill a 1-quart rounded-bottom pyrex or metal mixing bowl with water and freeze until firm. Unmold and turn upside down in a 9-inch layer cake pan. Fill pan with water and freeze.

Mix ¾ cup of breakfast orange drink with 4 cups water. Add 1 quart of cranberry juice cocktail and pour into punch bowl. Stir in 1 quart of club soda.

Unmold "flying saucer" ice and float on top of punch. Serves 10 to 12.

Pumpkin-pie spice on your shelf? Add a pinch of it to stewed tomatoes when you are heating them.

Fancy Meatballs Hide Cube of Cheese Inside

What happens to your favorite appetizer recipes when the party's over? No doubt, most get filed away till the next party.

Well, here's one appetizer recipe that goes on all year long. The recipe for Twice-Around Meatballs makes cute little Cheeseburger Bites for a party and also does double duty by providing a Spaghetti and Meatballs version for family meals.

For Cheeseburger Bites make the basic meatball mixture. Shape the meat around small cubes of Cheddar cheese to form bite-size balls. Brown then simmer in zesty canned tomato sauce, garlic, mustard, Worcestershire and pickle relish. Provide an assortment of sliced breads and rolls for eating with the meatballs.

FOR MEAL

To make Spaghetti and Meatballs shape the basic meatball mixture into larger balls, brown and simmer in canned tomato sauce, oregano and garlic. Serve on cooked spaghetti.

TWICE-AROUND MEATBALLS

Basic Meatballs:

1 pound lean ground beef
½ cup dry bread crumbs
¼ cup finely chopped onion
1 egg, beaten
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Cheeseburger Bites:

2 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce
32 cubes Cheddar cheese (½-inch cubes)
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish

Combine Basic Meatball mixture with 2 tablespoons tomato sauce. On waxed paper pat into square, mark into 32 equal pieces. Shape each around a cheese cube.

Brown meatballs in large skillet; pour off fat. Combine remaining tomato sauce with remaining ingredients; pour over meatballs. Simmer, tightly covered, 15 minutes.

Serve very hot on picks. Provide an assortment of rolls and breads to serve with the meatballs. Makes 32 bite-size meatballs.

Spaghetti and Meatballs:
3 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce
½ cup water
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 teaspoon oregano
1 clove garlic, crushed

Combine Basic Meatball mixture with 2 tablespoons tomato sauce. Shape into 12 meatballs. Brown in large skillet; pour off fat. Stir in remaining ingredients; simmer, tightly covered, 30 minutes.

Serve over hot cooked spaghetti, noodles or macaroni. Pass grated Parmesan cheese, if desired. Makes 6 servings.
