JFK Seeks Taft-Hartley Injunction

Lightning Kills Dearborn Youth at County Camp

Storm Checks Heavy Holiday Traffic Flow Throughout County

Oakland County's latest fatal accident over the long Fourth of July weekend occurred when lightning struck and killed a University of Michigan football player in Milford Township during Sunday's thunderstorm.

Otherwise thousands here breathed a sigh of relief when the storm finally broke the heat wave. Heavy rains and cooler air probably kept many would-be outdoor pleasure seekers at home yesterday.

Pontiac state police reported that Saturday's "terrifically heavy" traffic flow failed to resume the next day.

However, troopers braced for tomorrow's anticipated return of millions who passed through the county when the weekend began.

Joseph Sligay Jr., 20, of Dearborn, was struck down by a lightning bolt that traveled through electrical wiring in a tent at Camp Dearborn and emitted from a light socket.

Death was instantaneous, according to Deputy County Coroner Dr. Isaac Prevette.

BURNED ON BACK

Another man in the tent was felled by the same bolt but suffered only a minor burn on his back. Stanley A. Zawaski, 65, of Dearborn was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

★ ★ ★

A witness, Daniel Alli, also of Dearborn, said he and Zawaski had been fishing nearby when the storm broke, and they dashed for refuge into the tent with Sligay.

Alli was unhurt.

Sheriff's deputies who investigated at the scene said the lightning bolt first struck a power line, followed through the wire into the tent and burst out of an overhead light socket.

Holiday Deaths Rising in State

Traffic Toll Across U.S. Running 25 Per Cent Ahead of Estimates

By The Associated Press

At least 26 persons had met violent deaths in Michigan as the long Fourth of July holiday weekend reached the half-way mark.

The Associated Press reported 9 dead in traffic, eight drownings and nine persons fatally injured in miscellaneous mishaps since 6 p.m. Friday.

Across the nation, the toll was:

Traffic	319
Boating	31
Drowning	110
Miscellaneous	66
Total	526

Safety experts today cautioned motorists that traffic deaths on the nation's highways at the halfway mark in the long Independence Day weekend were running ahead of estimates.

The traffic death toll since the start of the count at 6 p.m. Friday was approximately 25 per cent higher than estimates made by the National Safety Council. The council had estimated that 450 persons might be killed in highway accidents during the 102-hour period which ends at midnight Tuesday.

If the death rate during the first half of the period continues, a council official said, the final toll could pass 550, topping the record toll of 491 during the four-day Fourth of July holiday in 1950.

★ ★ ★

"This holiday weekend is a period of extra danger," said George C. Stewart, council executive vice president. "Extra care must be exerted to meet this extra danger. We ask all drivers to take it easy, to obey the laws and to use common sense and good judgment in their driving."

Willman Puts Ink to Contract

City Library Hub for Cooperative

A broad, intercommunity library cooperative program has become a reality in North Oakland County with the new Pontiac Public Library as its hub.

Contracts have been signed creating the North Oakland Library Cooperative (NOLC), result of three years of encouragement and financial help from the Michigan State Library Board in its experimental North Oakland Library Project (NOLP).

Pontiac has been joined as a charter member by township libraries in the Brandon, Holly, Milford and Oxford areas. The door is open to other communities to follow suit.

The benefits, according to Phyllis Pope, Pontiac librarian, will include more library books and library services for everyone, including Pontiac residents.

Miss Pope said that the three-year-old NOLP convinced state and local librarians and library supporters that the time was ripe to put the cooperative arrangement on a permanent basis, financed locally.

"Participation in the NOLP gave us all a chance to test the benefits of cooperation," said Miss Pope, who will head the new NOLC venture.

BETTER SERVICE

"This experience has demonstrated that together we can provide better library service and also stretch our budget dollars."

The initial contracts, renewable annually, call for township contributions to the cooperative at a rate of 25 cents per capita of population served, or $5,000 to 7,000 during the first year, Miss Pope said.

In return, the city is guaranteeing books and services in the amount of about $12,000 a year. But this is not all extra expense, since it involves services and books normally provided Pontiac library users, Miss Pope pointed out.

She estimated that during the coming year the cooperative will purchase as many as 1,000 books available on a rotation basis from all five participating libraries.

The cooperative will also hire a librarian as fulltime director with offices in the Pontiac Public Library, she said.

Within a short time, Miss Pope said, mechanics of the cooperative will be working.

Card bearers at any one of the five participating libraries will automatically have full privileges at all of them at no extra cost.

★ ★ ★

The 8,000 books which the Michigan State Library Board loaned the NOLP to stimulate library usage and intercommunity cooperation may remain in the area as a part of the NOLC collection.

Picnickers Get Set! July 4 Looks Fine

Residents planning picnics and fun in the sun for the Fourth of July holiday can expect warm temperatures and sunny skies. Tonight's low will be 57 and a high of 82 is expected Tuesday.

★ ★ ★ ★

Although many picnic plans were probably dampened by Saturday evening's and Sunday morning's thundershowers, farmers were more than appreciative. From 10 a.m. Saturday until 10 a.m. this morning, a half inch of rain fell in downtown Pontiac. The farmers could use more.

★ ★ ★ ★

For the next five days temperatures will average about 2 degrees below the normal high of 83 and normal low of 62. Temperatures will be warmer on Wednesday and Thursday. Thursday night and Friday will be cooler. Precipitation will total about .1 of an inch in scattered showers Thursday.

★ ★ ★ ★

Morning winds were northwesterly at 11 miles per hour. The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 61. At 2 p.m. the mercury stood at 75.

Sees Chance of Berlin War Breaking Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Thomas D. White, retired Air Force chief of staff, says "there is a fair chance" of war breaking out over Berlin.

And as one way of emphasizing the danger to Americans he suggested a partial mobilization.

"I don't think we have had a very firm expression of the determination of the American people," said White, who stepped down as Air Force chief just three days ago. "Mobilization of some kind might well be such a method of bringing it home to the people that we must be solidly behind the President."

White said if the Soviets or East Germans tried to blockade Berlin again, he would be in favor of breaking it with a ground attack rather than going over it with an air lift.

Britain Pouring Men Into Kuwait

Find Iraqi Forces on Frontier but Think Setup Now About Even

KUWAIT (AP)—Britain poured more paratroops and commandos into Kuwait today and moved advance units to within five miles of the oil sheikhdom's border with Iraq.

Iraq today termed the landing a direct threat to its security and called on all Arabs to unite against "this tyrannical imperialistic aggression."

Air Marshal Sir Charles Elworthy, commander in chief of British Middle East forces, told newsmen his intelligence reports showed a continued buildup of Iraqi forces on the frontier despite Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem's denial.

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan said today Iraq was poised to invade Kuwait when Britain intervened last weekend.

"The Iraq forces at Basra, only about 30 miles from Kuwait's border, were clearly quite sufficient to occupy Kuwait by a rapid movement against the modest Kuwait army," Macmillan told the House of Commons.

Kuwait's Farwania Airport was jammed with incoming British forces and supplies. Two hundred men of the 2nd Parachute Battalion arrived by air from Cyprus. 400 men of No. 45 Royal Marine Commando flew in from Bahrain, a British outpost in the Persian Gulf.

Elworthy said he now is confident he has a balanced force in Kuwait capable of meeting any Iraqi aggression.

U.S. Attorney Files Complaint in Ship Strike

Snarled Talks Force Kennedy to Intervene Despite Misgivings

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy today sent the government to court to obtain a Taft-Hartley law injunction to stop the national maritime strike.

President Kennedy, opposed in principal to use of the Taft-Hartley law, nevertheless called upon its provisions in the face of a split between seamen's union groups that has hopelessly snarled maritime negotiations.

On direct orders from Kennedy, who is vacationing at Hyannis Port, Mass., U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau filed a complaint under the Taft-Hartley law in Federal District Court here.

If granted, the injunction would halt the strike of some 80,000 seamen for a period of 80 days.

The President, in announcing the decision to seek an injunction, said it should not interfere with efforts at settlement of the dispute.

The President said reports given him "clearly manifest that a continuation of this strike imperils the national health and safety.

"I have therefore directed the attorney general to seek an injunction against this strike . . .

"While an injunction will restore the maritime industry to full operation and return the striking members to work for a period of 80 days, it should not interfere in any way with efforts toward settlement," Kennedy said.

HOPES FOR SETTLEMENT

His statement was issued by the Cape Cod White House, after the President conferred with Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the President's brother, joined the patio discussion 15 minutes after the President and Goldberg sat down together.

The President's statement said progress toward settlement has been made in the last few days "and I hope the parties will exert the necessary effort to achieve it quickly."

Pontiac Press to Print One Edition Tomorrow

Tuesday is Independence Day and in order that its employes may join in observance of the holiday, The Press will publish but one edition, at noon.

Violence to the End

WRITER DEAD AT 61 — Ernest Hemingway, 61, famed author, accidentally killed himself Sunday at Sun Valley, Idaho, according to a statement issued by his family. The self-inflicted wound could have been accidental, or otherwise, stated the coroner. Hemingway has written many turbulent books, such as "Farewell to Arms" and "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Hemingway's Death Shocks All the World

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—Novelist Ernest Hemingway, 61, a literary giant who ranked with the greatest of his age, died of a shotgun blast in the head Sunday.

His wife Mary, awakened by the shot, found the body clad in pajamas just off the living room of their secluded retreat house.

She called a doctor although death apparently was instantaneous.

"Mr. Hemingway accidentally killed himself while cleaning a gun this morning at 7:30 a.m.," she said in a brief statement read to reporters by a family friend.

She was taken to a hospital and given a sedative.

Coroner Ray McGoldrick said it was "a self-inflicted wound" that could have been accidental or otherwise. He said no inquest is planned unless something new develops.

TO TALK WITH WIFE

Sheriff Frank Hewitt said authorities planned to talk with Mrs. Hemingway if a doctor permits.

Hemingway's violent death shocked the literary world. There were expressions of profound regret from President Kennedy and also from his obscure neighbors in Idaho.

To Hemingway, this was home — a quiet retreat far from the turbulent world of "Farewell to Arms," "Across the River and Into the Trees," "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

It was here that he came to hunt, relax and work. To local citizens he was as well known as the artful bearded hunter as the Nobel and Pulitzer prize winner, the author of the brilliant "Old Man and the Sea."

★ ★ ★

It was here that he worked on a new major novel, and a book of reminiscences of his youth. A close friend said Hemingway was serious when he boasted he had "a big novel, all about the land, the sea and the air" stashed away in a Cuban bank as "insurance."

It will be here that they lay Ernest Hemingway to rest in private funeral service tentatively set for Friday.

But some of the people he knew around here thought "papa" — as friends called him — seemed a bit distressed and traced it to the recent cancer death of actor Gary Cooper, his close friend and local hunting companion.

★ ★ ★

"They're both in the barn now," Mrs. Cooper commented when she heard of the death. Hemingway had told Cooper he wasn't feeling well, and the late actor replied: "I bet I'll beat you to the barn." Cooper died in May.

Writer's Sister Reminisces

Talks of Youthful Days at Walloon Lake When Ernest Was in School

DETROIT (AP)—"We were like twins," reminisced the oldest sister of novelist Ernest Hemingway Sunday after learning of his death.

The bearded writer, who accidentally killed himself Sunday at Sun Valley, Idaho, while cleaning a gun, spent much of his boyhood in Michigan.

"Ernest and I and the other children went every summer to a cottage father had on Walloon Lake near Petoskey," said Mrs. Marceline Sanford of suburban Grosse Pointe, She went on:

"Father always took us, from the time we were little—I was six months old when I first went — until we got through high school. Some of us even kept going back after we were in college, but Ernest didn't, since he just went through high school."

Hemingway never returned to Michigan after he finished high school.

"After high school he lived most of the time abroad and we didn't see too much of him," said Mrs. Sanford.

Mrs. Sanford is married to Sterling S. Sanford. They have lived in Grosse Pointe for 23 years. A younger sister, Mrs. Ernest Miller, lives at Wolverine.

Filipinos Cheer Return of Their Hero, MacArthur

MANILA (AP) — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, wearing his crushed wartime campaign cap and a neatly pressed military uniform, returned today to a triumphant and tumultuous welcome in the Philippines, which reveres him as its World War II liberator.

The general will be the principal speaker Tuesday at the celebration of the 15th anniversary of Philippine independence.

"I have indeed returned," MacArthur, 81, told a roaring throng at the Manila International Airport.

"Mabuhay (long live) Gen. MacArthur, liberator of the Philippines," was the thunderous response.

Upwards of 500,000 Filipinos gave the returning hero a welcome which, in warmth and enthusiasm, equalled the reception given former President Dwight D. Eisenhower on his visit here last year.

Song Takes Over in South Korea

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Lt. Gen. Chang Do-yong resigned today as premier and head of the military junta, saying he was making way for stronger leadership in the drive for honest government and economic stability.

Maj. Gen. Pak Chung-hi, 44, prime organizer of the military coup that put Chang in office in May, became chairman of the junta—the Supreme Council for national reorganization and the real center of political power in South Korea. This makes him leader of the nation in name as well as in act, since the council takes precedence over the cabinet.

Named to replace Chang as premier is Defense Minister Song Yo-chang, army chief of staff under the Syngman Rhee dictatorship and a retired lieutenant general. The premier's job puts this tough, six-foot soldier in the position of seeing that the junta's policies are carried out.

40 RETIRED

Soon after the shakeup was announced, 40 general officers were put on the retirement list. Some were known to have disagreed with Song and been close to Chang. Most had at one time or another been accused of incompetence or corruption.

In a statement Pak said Chang resigned "for personal reasons." He said the ex-premier "greatly contributed to carrying out the revolutionary tasks."

The new junta chief added: "There lie many difficulties ahead of us, including reconstruction of the national economy and establishment of social morals. For us who have burned our bridges, there could be no retreat. There should be only a march forward."

As defense minister last week, Song had said he would resume an armed forces cleanup he claimed he was forced to halt last summer when he was retired as army chief of staff by the now defunct civilian government.

The move ended 44 days in office for Chang, 38.

List '4th' Fun at Oakland Park

Events Start Today and Run Through July 9; Fireworks Twice

Thousands are expected at Oakland Park tomorrow for a day full of Fourth of July fun, climaxed by 10 p.m. fireworks.

Holiday events, sponsored by the Northside Community Club with the help of the Parks & Recreation Department, began this afternoon and will continue through Sunday, July 9.

The week-long festivities include greased-pole contests today through Wednesday, three talent shows, a carnival tonight through Sunday and a second fireworks display Saturday night.

There'll be ballgames, contests for children and an official ceremony tomorrow afternoon.

Russell Themm, treasurer and athletic director of the club, is chairman of the celebration with Kenneth Strine, secretary, in charge of the talent shows, according to John H. Ridgway, club president.

The schedule of events began with a greased-pole contest at 1 p.m. today, followed by a midget ball game at 6 p.m. and a talent show at 8 p.m.

The greased-pole contest will start things rolling again tomorrow at 10 a.m., followed by a welcoming ceremony with city officials at 1 p.m.

Children's contests on the Fourth will be 1-2 p.m., a Class F ballgame 2:30 p.m., adult contests 4-5 p.m., a men's ball game 6 p.m., talent show 8 p.m. and fireworks 10 p.m.

Wednesday another greased pole contest is scheduled for 6 p.m., a midget baligame at the same hour, and a talent show at 8 p.m.

The fireworks Saturday are scheduled for 10 p.m.

Discover Troy Baby Dead of Suffocation

A 7-month-old boy, John Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of 437 Hartland St., Troy, was found dead of suffocation in his crib yesterday morning.

The child was discovered with his head lodged between railings on the crib shortly after 7:30 a.m. by his parents.

Oakland County Coroner Dr. Karl Koerner said the infant had been dead for 3½ hours when his body was discovered.

Funeral service was to be held at 2 p.m. today at the Price Funeral Home in Troy. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the parents of one other child, Cynthia Lynn, 3 years old.

Blacktop Hearing Set by Waterford Board

The Waterford Township Board will have a public hearing tonight on the blacktopping of Tyron Street from Pontiac Lake Road south two blocks at an estimated cost of $12,003.

A second hearing to determine individual property costs will be held later.

For the first time in recent years the township police department will get a package deal of four patrol cars. Bids were opened last week, and the low bidder, John McAuliffe Ford Agency will be recommended as the winner.

Sealed bids will be opened at 8 p.m. for a special car for Fire Chief Elmer Fangboner. The board also will appoint a member-at-large to serve on the township recreation board.

Possible revision in capital improvement charges for connections on water mains installed by new developers will be part of tonight's agenda.

Area Man Loses Toes in Mowing Accident

A West Bloomfield Township man lost two toes and suffered a compound fracture of the left foot in a power mower accident yesterday afternoon.

George C. Inman, 57, of 2032 Garland St., was reported in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today.

A STORYBOOK ENDING — Eleven years ago Barbara Wiersema and Henry I. Baylis starred as Tom Sawyer and Becky in a production of "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" at Pontiac Central High School. They were married Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wiersema, 316 W. Iroquois Road. It's now Dr. Baylis of Los Angeles. His "Becky" has been teaching dramatics in a Tucson, Ariz. high school.

Dr. Henry Baylis and Barbara Wiersema

Tom Sawyer Weds His Becky

Tom Sawyer began the biggest adventure of his life Saturday night. He married his childhood sweetheart, Becky.

The names on the marriage certificate were those of Barbara Wiersema and Dr. Henry I. Baylis.

But when they met 11 years ago in high school, he was Tom Sawyer, she was Becky.

That's the way they're still thought of in Pontiac.

They met during play tryouts for "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" at Pontiac Central High School in September of 1950.

Henry won the lead role. Barbara played opposite him.

They starred together in several other high school plays. She played Annie Oakley, he was Buffalo Bill in "Annie Get Your Gun."

It was only natural that Henry, president and class valedictorian, escort his leading lady to their senior prom in 1953.

Soon after graduation, however, their paths split.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wiersema, 316 W. Iroquois Rd., after a year at the University of Michigan, went on to the University of New Mexico, then to the University of Arizona.

COURTSHIP CONTINUES

After graduation in 1957, she was employed as a teacher at the Amphitheater High School in Tucson, Arizona. She was sponsor of a student theatrical troupe there for four years.

Baylis, meanwhile, studied medicine at the University of Michigan.

THEY ARE WED

He proposed in April.

And on Saturday night — in the backyard of the home where he'd courted her for years — the couple wed.

It was a storybook ending for Pontiac's Tom Sawyer and Becky.

Teamsters Hear Hoffa Speak

Opens Convention of Members Called to Elect Him to 5th Term

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Amid gaudy trappings and jazz tunes, James R. Hoffa today opened a special Teamsters convention summoned to elect him to a new five-year term as president of the nation's biggest labor union.

Hoffa marched through the packed Deauville Hotel convention hall arm in arm with John English, 72, Teamsters secretary-treasurer, to the platform where Murray (Dusty) Miller, Southern Teamsters chief, led delegates in cheers.

Hoffa's colorful, although unneeded, re-election campaign was conducted against only phantom opposition. Milton J. Liss, president of Teamsters Local 478 of Newark, N.J., had announced as a candidate against Hoffa.

But there was no Liss campaign material in evidence and Liss himself could not be located immediately as the convention got under way.

Cubans Force Plane to Miami, Shoot Guard

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Aerial hijackers shot a Cuban militiaman riding as guard aboard a Cuban airliner today and forced the pilot to fly to Miami.

Police threw a cordon around the plane when it landed here and the 16 passengers were hustled into immigration at Miami International Airport. Newsmen were not allowed to talk to them immediately.

The unidentified Cuban pilot reportedly told immigration authorities that the shooting broke out in the cabin a few minutes after he took off on a flight from Havana to Varadero Beach, Cuba.

One hijacker put a gun to the pilot's head and told him to fly to Miami, he said.

An immigration official said three passengers and the crew said they wanted to return to Havana. Thirteen passengers reportedly wanted to remain in Miami.

The militiaman was reported seriously wounded.

Alert Resident Helps Police Nab Suspect

Through the efforts of an alert Waterford Township resident, a suspect was nabbed at 2:30 a.m. yesterday hiding in a back room of a gasoline station at 5040 Elizabeth Lake Road.

Cecil Propter of 20 Crescent Lake Road called police when he saw one of three men pry open a back door and enter the Pure Gasoline station. The other two kept watch, Propter said.

When police arrived the two lookouts fled and police found Robert Rietano, 18, of 3357 Joslyn St., Waterford Township, hiding in the men's room with five envelopes marked "Pure Oil Credit Check." There was $12 in the envelopes.

The owner, C. H. Woflenbarger, of 30 Lorraine Court, Pontiac could not be reached. Rietano was taken to the Oakland County jail charged with breaking and entering.

May Drop Plan for Jobless Unit

Swainson Idea for Study of Compensation Gets Chill from 2 Groups

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson indicated today he probably will give up his plan to set up a special committee of business, labor and political leaders to study the problem of unemployment compensation.

Swainson returned to his executive desk today after a 10-day absence for a vacation and a trip to Hawaii to attend the annual governors' conference.

While he was away, two business organizations — the Michigan Employers' Unemployment Compensation Bureau (MEUCB) and the State Chamber of Commerce — rejected his invitation to name representatives to the committee.

"I may have legislation developed for the next session based on a study made by the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC)," Swainson said when asked what he planned to do about rejection of his committee plan.

WANTS POLITICS AVOIDED

"The MESC study took two years to complete and cost something like $20,000. It came up with statistics, tables and recommendations," he added.

Swainson said he had hoped to avoid politics in his plan to set up a joint committee but the action of the two employer groups had chilled that idea.

The governor said he planned to review the situation before deciding whether to abandon his committee plan altogether or extend the invitation to two other business organizations.

In addition to the chamber of commerce and the MEUCB, Swainson had asked that representatives be named by the Republican and Democratic state central committees, the Michigan AFL-CIO and the United Auto Workers Union.

The committee was to be charged with reaching agreement on how to bolster the sagging unemployment compensation fund.

Swedish actress Anita Ekberg today faced a furrier's law suit—allegedly because she wore next season's fur last season. A hearing was set for July 25. The Rome fur house Navarro said it gave her a $20,800 chinchilla coat at a bargain price of $2,000. However, the furrier said, Anita let photographers take her picture in the wrap and permitted immediate publication, contrary to an agreement.

Police reported today that valuables worth $20,000 were taken Sunday night in a burglary at the Hollywood Hills home of comic Jimmy Durante.

Los Angeles Attorney Edward M. Rose wil lsubmit a newly discovered will of Jef Chandler today for probate and ask the court to name him executor of the actor's estimated $600,000 estate.

The administration has asked Congress to ease restrictions on military aid for Latin America, saying it is important to bolster the internal security of hemispher countries.

City Auto Plants Closed Today in Observance of 4th

Pontiac's automotive plants were still today in observance of the Fourth of July tomorrow.

About 17,000 automotive workers had at least a two-day holiday and most a four-day respite, beginning with the weekend.

Production is scheduled to begin again Wednesday.

Find Man's Body in Plane Wreckage

ALPENA (AP) — The body of Walter Spannus, 23, of Roger City was found today in the wreckage of his single-engine plane in a wooded area 30 miles southwest of Alpena.

A search plane spotted the wreckage from the air and directed state police to the scene of the crash.

Spannus was last seen Wednesday night when he took off along from Mount Pleasant in Central Michigan to Alpena in Northern Lower Michigan.

The wreckage was found in a rugged forest area in Green Township, Alpena County.

Nearly 100 Civil Air Patrol personnel with some 300 planes had been conducting an intensive search for the missing plane.

Ontario Forest Fires Are Checked by Rain

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. (AP)—Overnight rain, cooler temperatures and high humidity had brought forest fires in Northwest Ontario to a standstill.

Fires were still burning but their wild progress of Sunday had been checked.

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield Twp. Envisions Need of 9 New Churches

BIRMINGHAM — At least nine more Protestant churches will have to be constructed in Bloomfield Township in the next nine years if the projected population estimate for 1970 are accurate.

According to a study made by the Detroit Council of Churches, 16 churches will be needed to meet the needs of an anticipated 40,000 by the end of the decade.

Currently there are seven churches in the township.

The report is based on projected figures, with a formula of one Protestant church for every 700 homes or every 2,500 persons.

The formula calculates 3½ persons for every home. It figures church membership at 600 adults and 300 young people under membership age.

The survey also shows that Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills have more than enough existing churches to meet the growth of the communities.

The survey was made available to the Bloomfield Township Planning Commission.

Fred Chapman, commission member, said he believes, however, that the formula basis in the township is "too ambitious."

"Our neighboring communities already have an excess of churches. Therefore it's logical to assume a number of township residents belong to churches in those areas."

Chapman said it is likely, though, that while there will be fewer churches built than the study reveals, these will be of large construction.

Police Probing $870 Burglary of Safe in Area

Pontiac state police today were piecing together slim clues in an $870 safe burglary at the Burke Lumber Co., 4495 Dixie Highway, in Waterford Township.

Troopers suspect the burglar has a compulsion for neatness. He left the safe closed without a mark on it, they said.

His work probably would have gone unnoticed longer, but he failed to replace a set of keys in the safe.

They were spotted on the floor by the night watchman Saturday, morning.

Troopers said entry had been forced by smashing a rear window in the office building.

Motorcycle, Car Hit; Man Suffers Injury

A motorcycle-auto head-on collision, on Baldwin Road in Orion Township Saturday, sent a Lake Orion man to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Churchill E. Barker, 37, of 169 Parkview St. was reported in satisfactory condition today at the hospital. He received lacerations of his right thigh and a possible back injury.

He was seated behind his brother, Carl, 22, of the same address when their motorcycle and an oncoming car driven by Jerome V. Katz, 23, of 2693 Landsdowne Road, Drayton Plains, collided.

The car, traveling an estimated 60 miles an hour, veered over the centerline and struck the motorcycle, according to the deputies' report.

Oil Company Presents Plaques to 2 Dealers

The Shell Oil Co. has presented service plaques to two Pontiac area service station dealers.

D. W. Nelf, district sales manager, presented the plaques to John Heller, 2005 14-Mile Road, Birmingham, for 10 years as a Shell dealer and to Warren Brandell, 4310 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains, for five years.

Repeats Performance in Same Snowy Ditch

CRAIG, Colo. (AP)—Ray Green was traveling west on Berthoud Pass. He was suddenly blinded by snow whipped up by passing vehicles. His truck wound up in a ditch. Estimated damage: $200.

Green tried the trip again the next day. Same mountain. Same snow. Same ditch. Estimated damage: $150.

Can't Swim, Saves Child

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Mrs. Mary Schneider ignored her inability to swim when she plunged into the Grand River Sunday after her 3-year-old daughter Margaret Ann, who had fallen from a steep bank. Officers said she managed to hold the child's head above water until help arrived.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes
Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

California Legion Demands Probe of State Dept.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The California American Legion demands a full-scale investigation of the U.S. State Department.

The 4,300 delegates charged Sunday that Communist sympathizers in the State Department "have molded schemes for our destruction."

Their resolution said: "The State Department has for years been infiltrated by men who have been sympathetic to Soviet Russia and the cause of communism.

"No nation in all history has fallen in such a brief time without war from the prestige we enjoyed to our present condition. The decline will continue unless drastic changes are made in our State Department."

Two Plead Guilty to Drunk Charge

Two men pleaded guilty to drunken driving today before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Each was ordered to pay a $100 fine or serve 15 days in the Oakland County Jail.

They were Lyle E. Wilson, 54, of 82 Cutting St., Troy, and Harvey W. Place, 46, of 273 N. Saginaw St.

Two Churches Cement Merger

Move Joins Evangelical Reformed and Christian Congregational Bodies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—They've finally made it.

After 21 years of negotiations, referendums, lawsuits, delays and other preliminaries, representatives of two branches of American Protestantism met today to seal their historic merger.

"We've reached the climax of our years of planning," said Rev. George C. Kirk, a Congregational Christian pastor of Muskegon, Mich.

The new church, whose constitution is to be declared in force here Tuesday, is the United Church of Christ.

It combines Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the first church merger in the United States to unite denominations of different structure and origin.

ALL DIFFERENCES FADE

"The spirit of unity here is beyond anything that has preceded it," Dr. Kirk said. "All the debates and difficulties have faded."

Approximately 750 delegates and visitors gathered for opening of the new church's general synod with Rev. Dr. Abraham Akaka, of Honolulu leading a special service of prayer for its future.

Some rousing hymn-singing, at an informal session Sunday night, preceded the formal conclave. "Our church's one foundation is Jesus Christ the Lord," the massed company sang with vigor.

The new church embraces about 2,000,000 Christians.

It brings together Lutheran-Calvinist traditions of the Evangelical and Reform church, with its roots in Germany, and the liberty-stressing Pilgrim traditions of the Congregational Christians, with their origins in England.

"The life of the united church will be enriched by bringing together these two traditions," commented Rev. Dr. F. W. Schroeder, president of the Evangelical and Reformed Eden Theological Seminary, of Webster Groves, Mo.

Rev. George S. Siudy Jr., of Edgebrook Community (Congregational) church, Chicago said the unprecedented merger of separate lines of Protestantism also sets an example for further healing of Christian divisions.

Warns of Proposals to Cash In Policies

A warning to the public to be wary of proposals to cancel permanent life insurance policies with substantial cash values for other types of investments or replacement of policies has been issued by State Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford.

The Pontiac Life Underwriters Association joined in the warning.

"It has come to my attention that individual policyholders are being approached to cash in their policies so as to have funds for other investments, offering glib promises of more lucrative returns in a shorter period of time," Blackford said.

"Most established policies have benefits, advantages and provisions that should not be lightly discarded. All citizens are urged to give careful consideration to advantages of their policies before they impulsively act on 'pie-in-the-sky' alternatives."

38,000 Armed in East Berlin

Communists There in Case of War, but West Has Only 11,000

BONN, Germany (AP) — The East German Communists have 38,000 trained men under arms in East Berlin for use in case of war, the West German Defense Ministry said today.

These men are members of the Communist alert police, the peoples police and the so-called Kampfgruppen, a worker's militia, the ministry reported.

"They are not called military units by the Communist regime but their strength and heavy armament clearly shows that they have a military mission," an official said.

The ministry also listed a number of purely military installations of the East Germans in East Berlin which violate four-power agreements.

The agreements on the occupation of Greater Berlin say that only troops of nations which "participated actively in military operations against Germany" may be stationed in the city.

The Western allies have 11,000 troops in West Berlin. The West Berlin police totals 13,000 men, including 3,000 alert police armed with light infantry weapons. The 10,000 men of the regular police includes traffic details and detectives.

Royal Couple Attacks Italian Cameramen

VIAREGGIO, Italy (AP)—Several Italian photographers today nursed bruises and broken cameras, suffered in a predawn clash with Prince Albert and Princess Paola of Belgium.

★ ★ ★

TRAIL COUPLE

Photographers have been trailing the couple since their arrival last week. Saturday night the cameramen camped outside the night club after they learned Albert and Paola were inside.

Italian newspapers said the sudden popping of flash bulbs surprised Paola and Albert as they left the club. The prince, obviously angry turned on the nearest photographer. The cameraman ran down the street with Albert chasing him.

★ ★ ★

Paola joined in the chase. Pretty soon there was a lot of confusion and a lot of yelling. More than one camera was smashed. A second photographer was pushed to the ground by the prince.

Says State GOP Due for Sweeping Reorganization

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Republican party is due for a sweeping reorganization, State Chairman George M. Van Peursem says.

Van Peursem says the party will abandon what he terms a "defensive policy" and move to build strength in outstate areas while challenging the Democrats in the populous southeastern portion of the state.

Heavily Democratic Wayne County, in particular, will be a target of the campaign, Van Peursem said.

The GOP will map its strategy in a series of conferences with office holders, party groups and county and congressional district chairmen throughout the state in the next few weeks.

Future Looks Favorable for Automobile Industry

With many leaders expressing themselves on general business conditions, residents of this area will be particularly interested in the current comments of EDWARD N. COLE, General Manager of Chevrolet.

COLE

Mr. COLE, of course, speaks for the whole automotive outlook and he suggests quiet optimism and faith in the period more or less directly ahead.

★ ★ ★

Speaking to The First National Bank of Chicago, he says:

"There are a number of reasons why the last half of 1961 will be good.

"Our economy is on the way to recovery from the recession which started last summer and bottomed out in late February. The automotive industry hit its low point in January and February. Industry sales for March, April and May advanced and further improvement is expected.

"The downward adjustment of inventories, which played such an important role in the earlier economic decline, has been essentially completed. The production of steel and other basic materials is on the rise. Along with the general improvement has come a significant rise in consumer confidence. This is particularly important for the automotive and other 'hard goods' industries.

★ ★ ★

"Personal incomes have already recovered to October, 1960, and can be expected to continue to rise. Gross national products will likely establish new highs in the late summer or early fall. Spending by consumers, government and business will show substantial increases. Under these conditions, spending for automotive products should rebound sharply. This has been the experience in other periods of recovery.

"Many people who deferred purchasing new cars or trucks because of the recession will come into the market. Incentive to buy will be tremendously increased in the fall when the industry brings out its 1962 models.

★ ★ ★

"Current negotiations with labor raise questions about the ability of the auto industry to operate at high levels during the last half of 1961. Work stoppages would hurt because many other industries which serve as our suppliers could seriously impair the well-being of the entire economy. We are hopeful, however, that an equitable settlement can be reached.

★ ★ ★

"In summary, I believe that the last half of 1961 should be a period of good business for the automotive industry."

Fidel's Price Increase Lucky Break for U.S.

It is beginning to look like the abortive ransom deal with CASTRO is really off—fortunately.

★ ★ ★

Apparently President Kennedy has finally cooled on the brain child that was finally traced back to the White House. He couldn't buy his way out of this one, even with other people's money, when the ante went from $2.5 million to $26 million.

★ ★ ★

CASTRO really helped this country when he raised the price. If it had stayed at the original offer, we probably would have rushed in, with all the enthusiasm of children buying a zoo elephant with their ice cream nickels. The deal would have been completed, and we'd have a blot on our honor which would remain for a long time.

"So Long, There's the Abandon Ship Order"

David Lawrence Says:

How Careless Can Washington Be!

WASHINGTON — Khrushchev and Kuwait may be in the headlines, but the talk of the town here is the damage done to the prestige of the Kennedy administration by the case of Frank B. Reeves, a Negro.

He was nominated on June 21 by the President to be one of the three commissioners who govern the District of Columbia. After some startling revelations during a Senate hearing, the nomination was withdrawn a few days ago by the President.

LAWRENCE

This was done ostensibly at the request of the appointee, but it turns out that White House staff members initiated the step.

Now the question is whether he is to remain as a member of the Democratic National Committee representing the District of Columbia.

The significance of the whole affair is not the fact he is a Negro but the proved incompetence of the President's staff in checking up in advance on appointees, and the damage done to the Negro community itself.

For if ever there was an occasion to select the best-qualified Negro for a public post, it was when the President had before him the task of filling the vacancy on the District Board of Commissioners. Reeves got the appointment as a political reward for services rendered.

WHAT HAPPENED?

What happened in checking on the qualifications of the prospective commissioner? The customary loyalty checks were made and were satisfactory, but nobody at the White House examined court records on tax liens.

The Republicans learned of irregularities in the Reeves' tax payments, and raised a fuss before the Senate committee.

Evidence was brought forth there showing that over the last 10 years the nominee had not regularly paid his income taxes on time, and that several tax liens had been filed in the past by the federal government, as well as by the District of Columbia tax office, to enforce collection.

There were delays, too, in filing returns. His 1952 return, for example, was not filed until 1956, while his 1960 return, due on April 15, was not put in the mails until June 27 — after the question of its filing had been raised in the Senate hearing.

The Reeves' explanation is that he was unable to keep up his earnings to pay his taxes because he spent so much time away from his law office working at his own expense with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He was at one time assistant counsel to the national group.

But apart from tax matters, if the Reeves nomination had not been withdrawn, a "conflict of interest" charge would have been made by the Republicans because of his purchase of a $47,500 house in February of this year with a loan allegedly made by a prominent liquor dealer in Washington.

A CONFLICT

It so happens that the new district commissioner will have supervision over the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

★ ★ ★

No charges of any criminal nature are involved, but the question of whether the appointee is careless and whether he could handle efficiently the duties of a district commissioner — which are directly related to the collection of all local taxes — bothered some of the senators who were to vote on whether to confirm or reject the nomination.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Prudishness the Style if Pregnant Years Ago

In the preface of "Maternity," an excellent guide for expectant parents, the author, Frederick W. Goodrich Jr., M. D., says:

"Sixty years ago when my father started to practice obstetrics there was no such thing as prenatal care. When one of his patients was going to have a baby, he was not usually aware of it until labor had started and he was called by the anxious husband. Very often by the time he was called a complication had already developed which could have been avoided by proper preventive care."

DR. BRADY

Sixty years ago, there were no books, booklets or health department pamphlets for the expectant mother.

She was at the mercy of friends, neighbors, relations, fishwives and Salreygamps, all of them as ignorant as herself of everything pertaining to pregnancy and childbirth.

Sixty years ago, people, especially women, were prudish about pregnancy. The prospective mother was embarrassed about her condition and often reclusive. She avoided all physical activities during the nine months of pregnancy, as her instructors advised, and so became flabby and unfit by the time she arrived at labor.

The expectant mother today, if well advised, continues all her usual activities — walking, swimming, dancing, golf, tennis, doing all her own housework and whatever exercises she enjoys, and so she comes to labor in condition to have her baby with the least possible difficulty.

The old women used to warn the expectant mother particularly about raising her arms above her head, lest such strain cause the umbilical cord to become twisted around the baby's neck. This notion is pretty silly — but then, aren't all superstitions?

Throughout pregnancy, up to the beginning of labor, the fetus is well insulated and protected against any injury by the amniotic fluid in which it floats, in the membranous sac called the "bag of waters."

When the womb is sufficiently dilated or opened to permit passage of the child's head, the "bag of waters" is broken, the amniotic fluid gushes forth and then labor is on in earnest. Within an hour or two the baby is born.

EXERCISE DAILY

In addition to pursuing her ordinary activities the expectant mother can do much to promote easy delivery and preserve her youthful figure by doing daily gymnastic exercises, as described and illustrated in these publications:

"Natural Childbirth," by Helen Heardman, Physiotherapist and mother of three, published by Williams and Wilkins, $2.

"Maternity," by Frederick W. Goodrich, M. D., published by Prentice-Hall, Inc., $1.75.

For any woman from 19 to 49, a useful primer is Little Lesson No. 4, "Preparing for Maternity," for which send me 35 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"Folks always seem to demand a little better behavior of others than of themselves."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Compliments Undermine Hostility

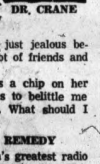
By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE J-431: Margot M., aged 16, has a common problem.

"Dr. Crane, I have an enemy," she said. "It is a girl of my own age who lives in our block.

"We attend the same high school and also go to the same church.

"But she seems very unfriendly even though I have done nothing to hurt her feelings in any way.



DR. CRANE

"Maybe she is just jealous because I have a lot of friends and she doesn't.

"So she carries a chip on her shoulder and tries to belittle me behind my back. What should I do?"

DR. HOLLAND'S REMEDY

One of America's greatest radio pastors was the late Dr. John Holland, who said:

"The best way to knock a chip off your enemy's shoulder is to pat him on the head!"

Dr. Holland meant that a compliment undermines hostility. A bit of verbal praise melts down ire.

When repeated steadily, as per our "Compliment Club," the enemy soon becomes a staunch friend.

In our "Compliment Club" we urge members to pay a minimum of three sincere compliments per day — one each to three different people.

If you have a special problem case, as Margot does, then tactfully try to give one of those three daily compliments to that person.

"Oh, but I hate so-and-so," you may protest, "so would it be sincere to pay her a compliment?"

IMITATE MEDICS

Yes, it is entirely moral and proper to pay even your worst enemy a compliment!

Just divorce yourself from your own bias or anger until you can size up that enemy long enough to pick out some merit or virtue.

Maybe she has beautiful hair or even white teeth, dimples or artistic fingers. It may be a new frock or hat.

Nobody is so devoid of merits that you can't find something good on which to pay a compliment.

Surgeons soon learn to rule their own emotions and thus practiced just as good medicine on the wounded Japanese and German enemy as on our American injured.

So imitate those surgeons. A compliment is a tool of social science, just like the surgeon's scalpel in medicine.

You must employ both with precise, impartial attitudes, whether on a boon companion or a critical foe.

MIRACLE MAKERS

Soon you will become an actual miracle-maker. For nobody can long remain cold and aloof, hostile or caustic if you melt him down by sincere words of praise.

Margot agreed to try the "Compliment Club" strategy on her enemy.

It worked so fast Margot could hardly believe her own eyes. For the other girl had been jealous of Margot and envious of her popularity. Besides, the hostile girl was lonely and a comparative newcomer to the town.

So it wasn't very long until she blossomed out as a happy, cheerful coed who became one of Margot's best rooters.

Send for the "Compliment Club" booklet, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It is ideal for church groups, as well as home and factory use, for it puts the Golden Rule into immediate action!

★ ★ ★

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope, and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Monday, July 3, the 184th day of the year with 181 more to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1775, George Washington assumed command of the Continental army at Cambride, Mass.

In 1863, the turning point of the Civil War, the battle of Gettysburg, was fought. After this battle, the fortunes of the Confederacy began to decline.

In 1890, Idaho became the 43rd state to enter the union.

In 1898, the U.S. Navy defeated the Spanish fleet at Santiago, Cuba, in the Spanish-American war.

In 1950, United States soldiers met North Koreans in battle.

Thought for today: Poet John Keats wrote: "If poetry comes not as naturally as leaves to a tree, it had better not come at all."

Wedding Bells Ring Out for Area Brides

Casey-Kellogg Vows Spoken in Candlelight

A garden reception at the Birmingham home of the Winston T. Kelloggs followed the marriage of their daughter Constance Andreae to Brian J. Casey of Boston, Mass. Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook. Rev. Louis C. Gillette performed the six o'clock candlelight ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William G. Koebel of Burlington, Mass., and the late James Casey.

Wearing her sister's wedding gown of ivory Italian silk appliqued with heirloom lace touched with seed pearls, the bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy. Her short veil of French illusion was held by a small jeweled court cap.

Attending their sister were matron of honor Mrs. Alfred F. Uhry of Forest Hills, N. Y., and Emily T. Kellogg who served as bridesmaid with Janet Casey, sister of the bridegroom; Joan G. Page of Fairfield, Conn., and Judith Mellecker of New Canaan, Conn.

Bouquets of mixed summer flowers complemented their bouffant frocks of light blue organza.

On the esquire side were Luther Van Ummersen of Wayland, Mass., best man; and ushers, Dr. Thomas J. Coot of Chicago, Comerford W. McLoughlin of Birmingham and Alfred F. Uhry.

The newlyweds will make their home in Boston.

MRS. BRIAN J. CASEY

Pair Says Vows in Sunken Garden

The sunken garden at the Theodore E. Wiersema home on West Iroquois Road was the setting for the Saturday evening marriage of their daughter Barbara to Dr. Henry I. Baylis of Los Angeles, Calif.

Dr. Milton H. Bank of Central Methodist Church officiated at the small family ceremony which was followed by a garden reception for some 400 guests.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Morgan Baylis of Long Beach, Calif., formerly of Pontiac, and the late Mr. Baylis.

Pearl-frosted Alencon lace accented the scoop-neck bridal gown of white dulcetl satin styled with dome skirt and chapel train. Bouffant waist-length veiling of silk illusion was caught by a double crown of pearls and crystals. The bride carried a cascade of white roses.

Matrons of honor were the bridegroom's sister Mrs. Donald Saltman of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Theodore E. Wiersema Jr. of Los Angeles. Assisting Dr. Baylis as best man was Paul Kors of Los Angeles, formerly of Pontiac.

CARRIES RINGS

The bridal attendants wore

MRS. HENRY I. BAYLIS

harmonizing shades of blue in matching dresses with shoulder corsages of white roses.

Four-year-old Sherry Saltman, in baby blue organza, niece of Dr. Baylis, carried his ring and double heirloom wedding rings of the bride's maternal grandmother and great-grandmother on a satin and lace heart.

Mrs. Wiersema appeared in powder blue lace over silver blue taffeta and the mother of the bridegroom wore a light blue afternoon dress and shoulder corsage of white roses.

The bride received her master of arts degree from University of Arizona following studies at University of Michigan and University of New Mexico. She was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority and several honorary speech and drama fraternal organizations.

Dr. Baylis was graduated from University of Michigan Medical School where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Mu and Nu Sigma Nu fraternities. He has completed his internship at Los Angeles County Hospital.

Leaving on a two-month motor tour of the Southwest, California and Mexico, the new Mrs. Baylis was wearing a royal purple silk sheath and white flowered cloche.

At Evangel Temple

Pair Exchanges Vows

Wedding vows were exchanged by Charlene Raydelle Holdridge and Tyson L. Daniel of Wyandotte before Rev. Geoffrey Day in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at Evangel Temple.

Daughter of Mrs. Audrey Holdridge of Waterford Township and John Holdridge of South Paddock Street, the bride appeared in white silk organza with sequined Swiss lace applique.

★ ★ ★

Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and sequins on lace. She carried white carnations centered with red roses.

★ ★ ★

Attendants wore white embroidered organdy over blue taffeta. Honor maid Linda Clarkson of Waterford Township carried yellow carnations. Flowers for bridesmaid Lorraine Baril of Pontiac and junior attendant Beverly Gage of Flint, cousin of the bride, were blue-tipped carnations.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Eileen Hodge and Leland Daniel, both of Wyandotte had Daniel Horn of Wyandotte for his best man. Forest and Duane Olk ushered and the bride's brother Raymond carried the rings.

After a reception in the Roosevelt Hotel, the newlyweds left for a week's honeymoon at Niagara Falls. They will live in Wyandotte.

Blue carnations harmonized with Mrs. Holdridge's sheath dress of blue lace. The mother of the bridegroom, in orchid polished cotton and silver accessories, wore pink carnations.

Mrs. Doris Gage of Flint honored her niece at a pre-bridal shower with Mrs. R. E. Heflinger of Swartz Creek, Mrs. Earl W. Hudnell and daughter Jolene of Court Drive also entertained.

MRS. TYSON L. DANIEL

Iowa Reception Held for Pair Wed in Illinois

Reception at the Outing Club, Davenport, Iowa, followed the marriage of Louise Anne McCreary to David B. Lorimer, of Port Byron, Ill., Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church, East Moline, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of the Richard T. McCrearys of East Moline and the bridegroom's parents, the Robert E. Lorimers of Port Byron, Ill., were formerly of Lake Angelus.

Mrs. Barry J. Tuttle of Pontiac, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Caroline Parkhurst and Ann Bornstein, both of Moline, were bridesmaids.

The duties of best man were performed by Barry J. Tuttle. Guests were seated by William H. Redfield, Lake Forest, Ill., Michael B. Redfield, Birmingham, Ennis A. and Anthony B. Fruhauf, Bloomfield Hills, all cousins of the bridegroom.

The couple left on a southern honeymoon and will live in Port Byron.

Dear Abby Hates Pigeons

Only a Starling's Whistle

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The bird your reader inquired about, with the shiny black plumage and yellow beak, is the starling. It is found in the U.S.A. and Canada all year 'round. I discovered this bird while I was hanging out my wash in my short shorts. I heard a long, low whistle and thought a man was trying to be fresh with me.

ABBY

I am told they eat destructive insects, but they can also drill holes in your roof and are extremely dirty. They make a terrible racket when a flock of them gets together. They are an amusing and handsome bird, but will soon be the world's worst feathered pest.

MRS. F.

'DEAR MRS. F.: Not while the pigeon is with us!

DEAR ABBY: I have not made a habit of reading letters to Abby, but I think I shall, for each time my glance falls upon your column I realize what I have missed in the study of human nature.

I was particularly intrigued with a letter signed "Mother of a Doctor." She was disgusted with her daughter-in-law who insisted on referring to her husband as "the doctor."

I am reminded of Bill and Marie, whom we have known since childhood. Colonels were a dime a dozen in the last war, but Marie started calling her husband "the colonel." This revealed an inferiority complex and a lack of taste.

As a West Pointer and ex-captain, I wouldn't tolerate my wife's calling me "the captain." My father was a doctor, and none of us (least of all my mother) called him "the doctor." There were 50 other good ones in our town. "Mother of a Doctor" has my sympathy.

EX-CAPTAIN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married only a short time and already I am getting annoyed with my husband's mother. I work, and the minute I get home, my telephone starts ringing.

She calls me every blessed day at this hour and asks a million questions. She talks from 30 to 40 minutes about nothing.

I like to start my dinner as soon as I get home so that I can have dinner ready for my husband when he gets home, but his mother holds me up. It does no good to say, "Something is burning on the stove."

Should I complain to my husband and ask him to tell his mother not to call me at this hour? I haven't the nerve to tell her myself.

YOUNG BRIDE

DEAR YOUNG: One of the worst mistakes a young bride can make is to complain to her husband about his mother. Gather your courage and ask your mother-in-law nicely to please wait until after dinner time to call you. And tell her why. If your phone rings while you are preparing dinner—let it ring.

Five Couples Win in Bridge Session

The Pontiac Bonneville Duplicate Bridge Club met Saturday evening in Hotel Waldron with seven tables in play.

Winners were Mary Malchie and Mrs. Norma Keller; Mrs. Melvin Small and David Utley; Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Willis; Ernest L. Guy and Henry Georgia; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Patrick.

Senior Citizens Planning Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coombe of Chippewa Road opened their home to the senior citizens of Oakland Park Methodist Church for a picnic luncheon Friday. Mrs. Charles Branscombe of Guilford, Maine, was a guest.

Tentative plans were made for a picnic at the church in August.

Newlyweds Take Trip in Michigan

Judi Dorine Bailey exchanged wedding vows with Michael J. Bailey before Rev. Edward D. Auchard June 23 in Orchard Lake Community Church Presbyterian.

Parents of the couple, the Ward M. Baileys of Wimbley Lane and the John A. Daileys of Upper Long Lake, received with them in the church pariors.

Honor maid Sharon Young and bridesmaids Mrs. Robert Payne of Milford, Mrs. David Bailey of Highland and Mrs. Joel Bailey of Orchard Lake wore dotted Swiss over blue taffeta. They held semi-cascades of blue and white painted daisies.

John Nelson was best man and Harold School, Gregg Leach and James Smith seated the guests.

The newlyweds toured the Lake Michigan shoreline before returning to their home on Wimbley Lane.

So Say Spanish Swains

'If YOU Look at Me, You'll Put Me in Orbit'

By PAM MIXTER

MADRID (UPI) — The rain in Spain often is a beautiful snow job.

Take the way the Spaniard compliments the girl he has just met.

"May I light my cigarette with your eyes?" said one Spaniard to me as he glided by me on the street.

FEW OFFENDED

This Spanish custom of compliments, known as the "piropo," often takes foreigners by surprise. But there are few females offended by it.

The only trouble is that some Spanish piropos do not translate well, if at all, into English, and therefore don't have the same, if any, meaning.

The piropo is as old as Spain itself, but like many things here, has been given a modern touch.

THOSE EYES

Such as: "You have eyes bigger than a supermarket." Or, "For you I have a heart like an atomic bomb."

The piropo is not always flattering. When two large women passed a couple of Spaniards one day, the men whispered audibly, "Wow, women in Cinemascope!"

Those who are not adept at flowery phrases can buy a little book of piropos — if they can find one. It took me two and a half months, with the help of doormen and waiters, before one of the office operators finally turned up with two small books of piropos.

(Just try to explain to a book dealer what you, as a female, want with a book of piropos.)

Sometimes the girls answer back, though not often. Usually they ignore the spouting Spaniards.

For winter, there is a special book of compliments. One passing Spaniard pulled out all stops when he murmured at me one wintry day, "For you I would gladly go to the North Pole in my underwear."

He was persistent, and followed.

After five blocks of this plus the story of his life and how nicely I would fit into the plan of things, I was ready to buy him a one way ticket to the North Pole, complete with union suit.

ALL SORTS, SIZES

Piropos come in all lengths, and for all occasions — what to say when it is raining, or the first of January, or the eve of the Fifth of January (when the Spanish give out their Christmas presents.)

"You are sun, and I your satellite," is one this book recommends. "If you look at me you will put me in orbit."

Water Chestnuts Crisp Touch in Bean Casserole

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Richard Stirling may love antiques in her home, but she is as up to date as a new hat in her cooking. She shares with the Press readers an unusually good way of fixing frozen green beans.

In addition to antiques, Mrs. Stirling loves flowers. Cooking is also one of her hobbies.

GREEN BEAN CASSEROLE
By Mrs. Richard Stirling

1 package frozen green beans
1 can condensed mushroom soup
1 can water chestnuts
1 can or package french fried onions

Cook green beans only to the crisp tender stage. Spread out in a casserole. Cover with undiluted mushroom soup and the water chestnuts sliced very thin. Top with french fried onions. Heat through in a moderate oven.

You can make this dish in the morning and heat just before serving time. Serves 4-5.

Action Causes Stir in Bay City

Pontiac Policeman Lauds Teen

Capt. George T. Scott of the Pontiac Police Department raised the eyebrows of Bay City residents by writing up a teen-age youth he trailed on the highways recently.

It wasn't a ticket he wrote, however. It was a letter of praise.

It all began early in June when Scott followed 16-year-old Kerry M. O'Tool of Bay City from Kawkawlin to Flint.

The police official observed young O'Tool drive within legal limits, signal when passing, and signal when returning to his lane.

Scott was prompted to write a congratulary letter — the first letter of his career complimenting a driver rather than reprimanding one.

Scott wrote:

"It is refreshing to see a young person drive with such consideration for the cars driving behind him . . . I may be departing from the usual police function, but I firmly believe that a pat on the back sometimes goes further than a kick in the pants.

"I can truthfully say that this is the first time in 24 years of police service that I have had the occasion to write a letter of this kind," Scot said in a letter to O'Tool's father.

Scott traced the boy through his license number.

Commenting on Scott's letter, the Bay City Times said that the compliment paid the teen-ager proved the adage of a "world of wonders."

And Scott himself drew a complimentary letter — from Kenneth F. Licht, director of safety and driver education for Bay City schools.

★ ★ ★

Thanking the policeman for his letter, Licht wrote:

"We certainly agree with you that 'a pat on the back sometimes goes further than a kick in the pants.'

"Perhaps your leter will encourage other responsible adults to emphasize the good behavior of our teen-agers, rather than to constantly harp on the deviations of a few bad apples."

UP Merchant Killed in Homemade Airplane

McGREGOR, Iowa (UPI) — Archery store operator Lloyd Edding, about 55, Marquette, Mich., was killed Sunday in the crash of a homemade plane at Pikes Peak State Park near here.

Farmers who witnesses the crash said one wing fell off the tiny aircraft and it plunged into a heavily wooded area. Edding's body was found in the wreckage.

Retail sales in 1960 totaled $219.8 billion, topping the previous high of $215.4 billion recorded in 1959. To help achieve this record, all local advertisers invested an estimated $2.805 billion in newspapers —a 3.1 per cent gain over 1959.

Mexico Officials Scoff at Charges of Rual Roa

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexican authorities scoffed at charges of Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa that U.S. Ambassador Thomas Mann caused a bomb to be tossed at the Cuban Embassy during Roa's recent visit to Mexico.

The U.S. Embassy said the charge wasn't worth commenting on.

The Cuban radio quoted Roa as saying a gelatin-gasoline bomb was thrown from a speeding car and struck the doorway of the Cuban Embassy while he was there last week. He said it was an attempt on his life, and blamed Ambassador Mann for the incident.

Chief of Police Luis Cueto Ramirez showed newsmen the alleged bomb—the empty case of an old tar gas bomb such as used by city police. He said it had contained nothing at the time it was reported thrown.

Try Forming New Unit to Bargain With Fidel

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Fidel Castro's 10-man prisoner negotiating team reportedly met privately Sunday with leading Cuban refugees in an effort to form a new committee to bargain with Fidel Castro.

The prisoners announced late Saturday that a new committee would be formed within the next few days—if the U.S. government permits—to try to raise money for 500 or more tractors in exchange for 1,197 prisoners.

Meanwhile, the prisoners were told their immigration paroles had been extended until July 15.

Ruckus Leaves 2 Fatally Injured on Detroit Street

DETROIT (AP)—A 27-year-old man was stabbed fatally in a street fight here Sunday and an 18-year-old girl bystander was shot and killed during an attempt to stop the fight.

Dead are James A. Powell and Nancy Sailor, both of Detroit.

Police said Powell was involved in a fight with Arthur H. Bell Jr., 23, of Detroit, near Bell's home. Officers said Mrs. Esther Hill, 46, a neighbor, fired a shot in an attempt to break up the fight. The bullet struck Miss Sailor, who was standing in front of her own nearby home.

Mrs. Hill and Bell were held for investigation.

3,046 GM Workers to Get Strike Benefits

DETROIT (AP) — A Michigan Employment Security Commission referee has ruled in favor of 3,046 General Motors employes seeking strike benefits for a strike at another plant.

The employes at the Detroit plant of Cadillac Division will receive an estimated $100,000 in benefits resulting from the idling of employes at the Fleetwood body plant, also in Detroit, for one week in April 1960.

The MESC referee, Samuel Sternberg, said the ruling is in accord with a Michigan Supreme Court decision in a similar case involving the Ford Motor Co., in which Michigan workers obtained benefits because of a strike in a Canton, Ohio, plant.

There was no immediate comment from GM, which has a right of appeal to the MESC Appeal Board and then to the courts.

Storm Kills 29 Filipinos, Leaves 3,000 Homeless

MANILA (AP)—Tropical storm Doris blew itself out in the South China Sea Sunday after killing 29 Filipinos and leaving 3,000 homeless.

Officials estimated damage to crops and property at several million dollars. The storm vented its fury on the northern Philippines Saturday but even in Manila huge waves lashed the harbor's waterfront.

Utica Awaiting Big '4th' Parade

UTICA — Thousands of spectators are expected to line the main streets here tomorrow to watch the colorful Fourth of July parade which will highlight Utica's 15th annual Homecoming celebration.

The parade, sponsored by the Utica Lions Club, will get underway at 10 a.m. after Gov. John B. Swainson crowns Kathy Koster of 125,000 Hall Road, Sterling Township, as Miss Utica of 1961.

The coronation will take place at the judges' stand at Auburn Road and Cass Avenue. This marks the second straight year that Gov. Swainson will crown the queen and act as parade marshall.

Joining Miss Utica on the stand will be her maids of honor, Janet Palliaer of 5718 23 Mile Road, Shelby Township, and Mary Harris of 37843 Brookwood Road, Sterling Township.

Floats, bands and marching units from several nearby communities are scheduled to take part in the parade, which will form at Stead Street and Cass Avenue.

The line of march will be from Stead Street south on Cass Avenue to Auburn Road where it will turn west to Ramona Park.

Setting the pace for the marchers will be bands from Utica, Romeo, Roseville, New Haven and New Baltimore high schools.

The Utica Nike Missile Base, Mount Clemens Amvets, Vanguards of the Bruce Post, Port Huron Hammondaires, Disco Veterans of Foreign Wars and Land-O-Lakes Majorettes will be represented by marching units.

First and second place prizes will be awarded to the best of several floats entered by clubs and civic organizations in the area.

Catagories include the most beautiful float, most patriotic float, best service club float, best religious float, most beautiful pleasure car, best horse-drawn vehicle and the best marching group.

DOLLS AND PETS

Several individual awards also will be presented for everything from the best decorated doll buggy to the most unusual pet.

★ ★ ★

Following the parade, a sing-a-long and games for children will be held at Ramona Park starting at 1 p.m. Free square dancing is slated from 2 to 4 p.m. followed by organ music from 4 to 6 p.m.

★ ★ ★

A dance will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. A gigantic fireworks display followed by the presentation of a 1961 convertible by the Lions Club will conclude the Independence Day festivities.

Named to Post in Three Rivers

Walled Lake Manager Is City Administrator of Community

WALLED LAKE — City Manager George A. Shaw has been named city administrator of the Southwestern Michigan community of Three Rivers.

Shaw, 37, of 1202 Sigma Road, will assume his duties there July 15, succeeding Samuel Gesko, who held the post only 10 months.

No one has been named to replace Shaw, who submitted his resignation to the City Council June 20 but delayed announcing his destination until his appointment was confirmed.

Until a new city manager is hired at Walled Lake City Clerk-Treasurer Harold Millspaugh will become acting city manager.

FORMER NEWSMAN

Shaw has been city manager here since September, 1956. He was the city's second administrator. Prior to that time he was assistant city manager in Mexico, Missouri.

Shaw, a former reporter for the Beatrice Daily Sun in Nebraska and the Bloomington (Illinois) Pantagraph, is married and has two daughters.

Three Rivers, which is about 25 miles south of Kalamazoo, has a population of 7,100, compared to Walled Lake's 3,350.

Gesko resigned early last month after a dispute with a local attorney over who had the right to reserve parking places for city officials.

Shaw was the second Walled Lake city employe to resign in two months. City Clerk Dorothy Lonsdale submitted her resignation early in May. It became effective Friday.

DOWAGIAC (AP) — Purchase of the Dowagiac Daily News by Caryl A. Herman of Buchanan, was announced here Saturday.

Serves in Position at 20th Girls' State

Susan Morgan of 2765 Stoodleigh St., Avon Township, served as superintendent of public instruction at the 20th annual Wolverine Girls' State which was held at the University of Michigan.

Seven other girls were elected as state senators and representatives at last week's convention.

Winning posts as representatives were Dianna Johnson of 1835 Winslow Road, Attica; Diane Lavett of 3113 Gardner St., Berkley; Beth Farinel of 111 Bower St., Clawson; Toni Chatzka of 29230 Glenarden St., Farmington; and Mary Jane Berger, 248 Lapeer St., Lake Orion.

Sarah Smith of 525 Canal St., Milford; and Sharon Dowdy of 24711 Parklawn St., Oak Park; were elected senators.

Reports Jewels, Furs Taken From Ex-Suspect

The medical director of a Detroit hospital yesterday reported the theft of $4,000 in furs and jewels from the apartment of a woman who was accused of stabbing him last September in Oak Park.

Dr. Ralph N. Tassie, 70, director of Saratoga General Hospital, said the Detroit apartment of Jeanette S. Lachowicz, 21, was ransacked while she was out of town. Miss Lachowicz allegedly stabbed Tassie with a kitchen knife last fall but charges against her were dropped when he refused to testify.

Clarkston Will Erupt With Fun on the Fourth

The little town of Clarkston has some pretty big ideas about celebrating the Fourth of July at home.

A three-ringed circus, a gigantic parade, contests and a mammoth fireworks display have been scheduled.

The day will be crowded with activity from the time the elephants raise the famous Cole Circus tent at daybreak (the public has been invited to watch this feat) until the last rocket is shot off, at 9:30 p.m.

Festivities are being sponsored by the Independence Township Fire Fighters Association.

The circus grounds are located at the Northpointe Plaza at Dixie Highway and M15, donated for the day to the Fire Fighter's Association by the Northpointe Development Corp.

At 10 a.m. the parade will begin at the north end of town headed by the Clarkston High School Band. Many colorful antique cars, the Oakland County Sheriff's Posse, numerous floats and a steam calliope will parade through the downtown area, to the south end of town.

At the conclusion of the parade, contests of every description will be held in the community parking lot. Men will thread needles, and women will pound nails, as children scramble for pennies, blow up balloons and bob for apples.

The circus grounds will be open at 1 p.m. and there will be two complete performances beginning at 2 and 7:30 p.m.

A gigantic fireworks display at the southern end of the new Clarkston High School parking lot will climax the holiday activity.

The fireworks will get under way 15 minutes after the last circus show has finished. According to general chairman Lew Wint, the display will be visable from the circus grounds. "We planned it that way to eliminate the traffic of people scurrying back to the fireworks display," he said.

Gaylord Vreeland Heads Group at Sugden Lake

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Gaylord Vreeland of 1415 Bathgate Road has been named president of the Sugden Lake Property Owners Association.

Other officers are Lorna Lawrence, secretary, and E. Doyle King, treasurer. Floyd Bailey and Harmon Hughes were elected to the five-member board of directors.

First Federal Opens Branch

6th Office of Savings and Loan in $100,000 Milford Building

MILFORD — First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland opened its fifth branch office here Saturday, a $100,000 glass, marble and aluminum structure at 351 N. Main St.

The office was officially opened at 9 a.m. with ribbon cutting ceremonies. Kenneth Adams, 6, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Adams of 535 Canal St. snipped the large ribbon.

Refreshments were served visitors to the new office all through the day in the Community Room, located above the office.

The Community Room will be available to civic groups for meetings and activities. Access to the large upstairs hall can be gained through the front entrance of the building without going into the office of the loan association.

The building is air conditioned and steam heated.

James Clarkson, executive vice president of First Federal, said the building has been designed "for the future" to accommodate $50 million in assets.

With the opening of the new branch came the name change from Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Association to First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

All five other offices of the 27-year-old firm changed names July 1.

The site of the branch office is the former location of the village offices.

James M. Rahl is the manager of the branch office. Rahl 27, had been manager of the downtown Pontiac office of the organization.

Marilyn Getting Better

NEW YORK (AP) — Marilyn Monroe was reported today to be continuing on her way to a speedy recovery from a gall bladder operation.

UAW Pulls New Policy: Asks GM for Answers

DETROIT (AP)—The heat appeared to be on General Motors Corp. today in the United Auto Workers' drive to win pocketbook benefits from the auto makers.

That doesn't mean the UAW is making mighty GM its strike target in the event current bargaining talks on new contracts bog down before the Aug. 31 deadline.

It's part of UAW President Walter P. Reuther's new strategy to avoid putting price tags on Union demands and to ask the auto companies to join the Union in finding answers to what Reuther calls compelling human problems.

The Union defines these problems as job security, unemployment, short work weeks and displacement of men by machines in the auto industry.

At the start of bargaining talks last week, the UAW appealed to GM as the auto industry's biggest corporation to lead the way in coming up with some answers.

The Union singled out GM as the target for a barrage of questions ranging from how to provide more jobs to what is the best way to put blue collar workers on yearly salaries.

The same questions are being asked Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp., but GM is being given the opportunity to answer them first.

So far the auto makers have listened politely to UAW policy statements. They say their main concern is to keep down inflationary pressures and prevent production costs from getting out of hand. UAW leaders say they propose nothing inflationary.

★ ★ ★

GM's Vice President Louis G. Seaton, who is directing negotiations for the company, promised to come up with some proposals as soon as the Union completes presentation of its case some time this month.

★ ★ ★

The auto companies say they have as much interest as the Union in keeping workers happy because company efficiency depends on the productivity of the employes.

Lee De Forest Is Laid to Rest

Funeral Service Held for 'Father of Radio' in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Funeral service was held today for Dr. Lee De Forest, 87, the "father of radio" who patented more than 300 inventions in radio, television and related fields.

De Forest died at his home here Friday night.

De Forest invented the audion vacuum tube in the early 1900's, which gave rise to the multi-billion-dollar electronics industry.

He never benefitted too much from his numerous brainchildren. He spent a lot of money and time fighting over patent rights in courts and in 1936 filed a bankruptcy petition. He lost four fortunes in his lifetime.

The scientist was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Aug. 26, 1873, the son of a Congregational minister who wanted him to be a minister too. But De Forest insisted he wanted to be a scientist and earned his doctorate from Yale in 1899.

Among his inventions were the electron tube, the long distance movies, the cyclotron and guided and transocean telephone, sound missiles.

His firsts included the first wireless transmission over land, 1904; the first wireless communication between moving trains and fixed stations, 1905; the first transmission of voices without wires, 1907; the first use of the oscillating tube in broadcasting, 1915; the first electronic musical instrument, 1915; and the first theatrical presentation of sound-on-film talking pictures, 1923.

When he was 84, he applied for a patent on a TV set four inches thick that could be hung on the wall like a picture.

'Firecracker' Doused

Mexican Party Stays in Power

Ruling Group Retains Control by Sweeping Uneventful Election

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The ruling Revolutionary Institutions (PRI) party today retained control of Mexico's politics by sweeping the uneventful national election to name 178 deputies and five state governors.

Official reports will not be made public for some time, but unofficial tabulations indicated PRI captured four state governorships and a big majority of the legislature.

★ ★ ★

In the congressional races, PRI was unopposed in 22 of the 178 posts. In others, it faced generally weak opposition from four parties, mainly the conservative party of National Action (PAN).

The Communist-backed Popular Socialist party (PPS) concentrated on the governor's race in Sonora, but early reports indicated the campaign fell flat.

About 85 per cent of the steel produced in the U.S. is made by the basic open hearth method.

Expect 250,000 to See Fireworks in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — About 250,000 persons from the Detroit and Windsor area are expected to watch a giant 45-minute fireworks display over the Detroit River tonight.

Hudson's Department Store, sponsoring the event, estimated 2½ tons of explosives would be fired from four barges anchored in the river between Windsor and Detroit.

Thirty thousand trillion trillion electrons weigh an ounce.

A cow pumps an estimated 400 pounds of blood through her udder for each pound of milk produced.

New Showdown Awaits Tigers Tuesday

Gentile Homer Sinks Bengals at Baltimore

Take One Game Lead to New York for Big July 4 Twinbill

BALTIMORE (UPI) —The stage was set today for a showdown battle between the Detroit Tigers and the New York Yankees for leadership of the American League.

The Tigers saw their league lead cut to one game yesterday when they dropped a 6-3 decision to the Baltimore Orioles while the second place Yankees were clobbering the Washington Senators, 13-4.

Tuesday the two teams meet for a holiday doubleheader in Yankee stadium. The Tigers will need at least an even split to stay on top.

Detroit lost yesterday's game in the third inning when the Orioles' Jim Gentile walloped a grand-slam homer.

SIXTH WIN

Chuck Estrada, who went the first 7 1-3 innings, was credited with his sixth win against five losses.

Lefthander Billy Hoeft, a former Tiger, came to Estrada's aid in the seventh inning with the bases loaded and two out and got Norm Cash, the league's top hitter, on an infield pop. Hoeft retired seven straight to close out the contest.

Detroit starter Phil Regan, who suffered his fourth loss in 11 decisions, had set down the Orioles without trouble in the first two innings before he ran afoul of Gentile's booming bat in the third.

Brooks Robinson's single off Regan's leg started the Orioles rally with one out. Russ Snyder followed with a ground single to right, sending Robinson to third. Jackie Brandt then drew a walk to load the bases.

THIRD OF SEASON

With a one ball, two strike count, Gentile hit Regan's next pitch far down the right field line, just inside the foul pole to send the Orioles ahead 4-0. It was Gentile's third grand slam homer of the year and the fourth of his career.

Al Kaline lofted his ninth homer into the left field seats to open the Tiger fourth. Rocky Colavito followed with a double to left-center. An infield out and Steve Boros' sacrifice fly made it 4-2.

In the Baltimore fourth, Marv Breeding singled and then scampered to third on Estrada's sacrifice bunt and then scored on Brook Robinson's third straight hit, a bad hop bounder over shortstop Dick McAuliffe's head.

Mickey Wins Another Open

SURINGFIELD, N.J. (UPI) — Slim, blonde Mickey Wright has one more major objective before she will even consider retiring from the women's golf circuit.

"I don't want to quit until I become the leading money-winner," the 26-year-old shotmaker from San Diego, Calif., said after winning the Women's National Open championship for the third time Saturday with a 72-hole score of 293.

Miss Wright's latest victory in the open carried her into first place among this year's money-winners with earnings $11,547. Louise Suggs, who finished fourth in the Open with a 301 total, dropped to second place in the dollar derby with $10,334 in purses.

Defending champion Betsy Rawls finished second behind Miss Wright with an aggregate score of 299 and Ruth Jessen, the co-leader after 36 holes with Joanne Prentice, wound up third with an even 300. Miss Prentice finished sixth with a 304.

It's 5-Day Session at Warwick Again

BY BILL CORNWELL

GRAND BLANC — The $52,000 Buick Open Golf Championship became a five-day event for the 3rd time in its four-year history Sunday afternoon at Warwick Hills Country Club.

Billy Casper, Jack Burke and Johnny Pott launched an 18-hole title playoff here today after concluding their regulation 72 holes in a deadlock for 1st place at 283, four below par.

The three touring professionals stepped to the 1st tee today at 1:30 p.m., to settle in head-to-head combat an issue that Sunday was carried dramatically to the final putt on the 18th green.

This marks the 2nd championship playoff in Buick Open annals. Art Wall defeated Dow Finsterwald, 71-73, in an 18-hole duel two years ago to win the crown.

Rain, which washed out the 2nd round, extended Buick's 1958 inaugural 15 five days and Casper was the winner that year. The 1960 tournament was the only one to be decided in a four-day span with Mike Souchak winning the title.

Casper and Pott both muffed their chances to take the crown outright and blond-haired Dave Ragan, who shared the lead at the end of the 2nd and 3rd days, did an even better job of kicking it away by bogeying the 15th, 16th and 17 holes to lose by one stroke.

Of the four contenders in yesterday's final 18-hole round, Burke played the best golf. Three shots behind co-leaders Casper, Ragan and Pott when he walked to the 1st tee, Burke rifled a two-under-par 70 to close the gap as the other three faltered.

The 38-year-old Burke, who turned pro at the age of 18, birdied five holes and sank three key putts on the back nine, including a downhill five-footer for a par three on the treacherous 17th hole.

Most observers regarded Burke as only a mild outside threat. Casper, Ragan and Pott, who stuck together like glue through the 2nd and 3rd rounds to remain tied for the top, were considered the real contenders for the crown.

Casper, always known as an excellent putter, couldn't "buy" one yesterday as he slipped to 73 to go with earlier rounds of 72-68-71. He didn't need to putt at all on the 4th hole where an 80-foot chip shot from the rough went into the cup for a birdie three, his lone "bird" of the afternoon.

A bogey five on the tricky 17th was Pott's downfall after he had made his 4th birdie of the day by canning a three-footer at No. 16. Pott needed a birdie three at No. 18 to take all the marbles, but his 15-foot putt stopped a foot short of the cup and a three-way tie was assured.

Ragan had to birdie the 18th to make it a four-way knot, but the 20-foot putt broke to the right of the hole and he was out of the picture.

Those back-to-back bogies really "killed" Ragan, who probably deserved a better fate in view of the fact that he was steady enough to hit 59 of the 72 greens in regulation figures.

Pott, playing with Ragan in the last threesome, later told newsmen he thought maybe Dave had sewed it up when he birdied the 14th for his 2nd "bird" of the afternoon to take a two-stroke advantage. Then came three bogies in a row and Ragan's cause was lost.

Ragan wound up with a 74 following three sub-par rounds. His previous scores were 71-69-71. Dave's 285 total was good for 4th spot and $2,600.

Pott's finishing 73 was preceded by scores of 72-68-71. One of his four birdies yesterday was a sensational 60-foot putt at No. 6.

Casper believes he blew his chance for an outright championship by bogeying the 342-yard 12th, which is perhaps the easiest hole on the course. Casper's wedge shot to the green kicked left into the trap and he took three to get down for a bogey five.

Burke, long recognized as one of the golf world's finest putters, putted 29 times Sunday. Casper had 33 putts.

A total of $16,000 was at stake in today's playoff with $9,000 going to the winner. The two "losers" will divide the remaining $7,000.

Mason Rudolph fired the lowest score yesterday, a 67 highlighted by a 31 on the back side. Rudolph birdied the 8th, 10th, 12th, 13th, 14th, and 16 holes and bogied the 9th.

'M' Boys Wreak Devastation

Maris, Mantle Power Yankees to 13-4 Victory

Roger Socks 29th, 30th Homers, Mickey No. 28 in Rout of Senators

By United Press International

Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle caused untold devastation at Yankee Stadium yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Maris blasted his 29th and 30th homers to move eight games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace. Mantle, right at Maris' heels, stretched his hitting streak to 15 straight games with his 28th homer.

★ ★ ★

Lumped together, the damage that Maris and Mantle did was more than enough to power the New York Yankees to a 13-4 victory over the Washington Senators and boost them to within a game of the first-placed Detroit Tigers.

Elston Howard and Bill Skowron also chipped in with homers to help Bud Daley score his first victory for the Yanks and his sixth of the year. Pete Burnside was the loser.

In other American League games, the Cleveland Indians scored six runs in the 10th to beat the Boston Red Sox, 12-6, the Kansas City A's edged the Minnesota Twins, 8-7, and the Los Angeles Angels downed the Chicago White Sox, 8-3.

Cincinnati increased its National League lead to two games by sweeping a pair from Milwaukee, 8-5, in 13 innings and 4-3, the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates took two from the San Francisco Giants, 7-6 and 9-0, and the Chicago Cubs downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-9.

TIE BROKEN

Chuck Essegian broke a 6-6 tie between the Indians and Red Sox when he singled home two runs in the 10th. Winner Frank Funk (9-6) and Tito Francona also drove in two runs apiece in the same frame to send rookie Arnold Early down to his first defeat.

Dick Howser's ninth inning single drove in the winning run for the A's, who broke a six-game losing streak with their victory over the Twins.

Steve Bilko's three-run homer in the first inning gave the Angels a lead they never relinquished as reliever Jim Donohue picked up his second victory against the White Sox.

Gordon Coleman had a field day in the Reds' two victories over the Braves. He won the opener with a three-run homer off Warren Spahn in the 13th and collected a total of eight hits in 12 tries during the twin-bill. Frank Robinson's eighth inning homer broke a 3-3 tie in the nightcap.

WON OWN GAME

Don Drysdale won his own game for the Dodgers with an eighth inning homer against the Phillies.

The Pirates raked Billy O'Dell, Sam Jones and loser Mike McCormick (7-8) for four runs in the eighth inning to beat the Giants in the opener and Bobby Shantz hurled a five-hitter for his fifth victory in the nightcap, which was called at the end of 6½ innings because of rain.

Pinch hitter Richie Ashburn's infield single with the bases full in the eighth inning gave the Cubs their victory over the Cardinals.

ONE THAT GOT AWAY — Johnny Pott, right, shows Billy Casper, center, and Jack Burke how close he came to winning the Buick Open golf tournament Sunday. Pott, Casper and Burke tied at 284 at the end of 72 holes and are playing 18 holes today at Warwick Hills to decide the championship. Pott missed the two-foot putt on the 17th green.

Especially Burke

Playoff Trio Hungry for Tourney Victory

GRAND BLANC — Billy Casper, Johnny Pott and Jack Burke will be hungry for victory today in their 18-hole playoff for the 1961 Buick Open title at Warwick Hills Country Club.

Burke should have the biggest appetite, however, because he hasn't won a tour event since April of 1959 when he shot a blistering 64 to beat Julius Boros in a playoff for the Houston Classic championship.

Neither Pott nor Casper has won a single tournament this year, but both recorded triumphs in 1960.

Casper posted three straight victories in the fall of '60. He hasn't won since then, but he's the 5th leading money winner on the PGA circuit this year and now has finished in the top five six times in his last 17 starts.

The 30-year-old Casper can exceed or closely approach the $30,000 mark in 1961 earnings, depending on the result of today's playoff. Casper won the U. S. Open in '59 at Winged Foot.

Pott, at 25 the youngest of the three golfers, bagged two victories last year, his only tour wins to date in 4½ years of effort. He defeated Bo Wininger and Ted Kroll in September in a sudden-death playoff to take the Dallas Open and then took 1st place in November at West Palm Beach, Fla.

Casper hasn't participated in a playoff since 1958 when he beat Ken Venturi at New Orleans. Burke's Houston win was his last playoff and Pott hasn't been a part of one since the Dallas episode.

All three players are strong putters. Burke, who won the Masters and National PGA in '56, has been one of the country's finest teachers for many years and younger pros with putting problems have often come to him for help and advice. Burke, 38, turned pro when he was only 18.

SHORT PUTTS

Mason Rudolph pocketed a $500 bonus Sunday for his 67, the lowest round of the day . . . Jerry Steelsmith, 25-year-old Californian now in his first year as a tourist, earned another $500 Saturday after shooting a brilliant 33-33—66, the best round of the tournament . . . Steelsmith joined the tour in February and he shows great promise . . . Casper, Pott, Billy Maxwell and Don January each pocketed $125 for posting Friday's top score —68 . . . Jackson's Dave Hill earned $250 as the low Michigan pro and another $250 went to Mike Souchak as defending champion . . . Pontiac's Gene Bone, host pro at Warwick, managed to pay his caddy and perhaps put some food in the Bone household by shooting 75-72-75-75—297 to collect $85.38 . . . Orchard Lake Country Club's Pete Green was the state's low amateur with a 309 total on rounds of 77-79-75-78 . . . Art Wall, 1959 Buick champ, withdrew from the tourney Sunday morning after playing two holes due to a pulled groin muscle .

'My Most Memorable 18 Holes'

Littler Cites 16th and 18th at Oakland

(First of a Series)
MY MOST MEMORABLE 18 GOLF HOLES
By GENE LITTLER
U.S. Open Golf Champion

A golf hole is memorable to a golf professional for intensely personal reasons. The spectator at a tournament may admire a hole for its beauty, but to the pro it's apt to be ugly as sin.

Golf holes are as fickle as beautiful women. They'll break one man's heart and send another into raptures of happiness. I've had it both ways and, despite a lot of heartbreak, I've been luckier than most.

Right now the most memorable holes in my life are the 16th and the 18th at Oakland Hills Country Club, where I won the U.S. Open championship. I'm particularly fond of the 16th because it probably decided the title for me. And the 18th treated me like a punching bag.

The 16th is a marvelous golf hole, 405 yards, a par four, a lake fronting the green and traps behind. I played it in par every round, and I figured that was real good.

Even a great player like Ben Hogan ran afoul of the 16th. In the first round he knocked his second shot into the water. Ben later said it was the best shot he hit all day. He thought it was going into the cup; instead it went into the water.

It was just before I hit my second shot from the fairway at the 16th in the final round that I learned I was leading by two strokes. That made me feel great. I figured I'd be in good shape if I parred the hole because nobody would birdie it.

I got my par by hitting a four-iron shot about five feet above the back of the green, then chipping to 3½ feet. But I was wrong in one respect. Doug Sanders, the only player with a chance to catch me birdied the hole.

Then there was the 18th, one of the toughest golf holes anywhere. I parred it only once in four rounds. It's a four-par, uphill, 459 yards, with traps to both the left and right. I was in the fairway every day but still had nothing but trouble.

Playing the 18th in the last round, I figured I had a shot to spare because I didn't know Sanders had birdied the 16th and cut my lead to one shot. I was excited by this time but had myself under control. Nothing alarming went through my mind.

I wasn't thinking about Arnold Palmer's six on the last hole at the Masters this year. And there were no memories of the 1959 Bing Crosby tournament at Pebble Beach when I pushed my second shot into the ocean. I didn't have a premonition of disaster.

My only idea was to hit the ball into the fairway and then play safe for a bogey five. I wasn't alarmed when my second shot, a four-wood, landed in a trap at the left of the green. I figured it wouldn't be much of a job to blast out on the green and get down in two putts.

That's the way it worked. I chipped out to 17 feet, then left myself a two-footer to win the tournament. It was a good, straight putt, easy to make, though I've missed shorter ones. I told the newspapermen I couldn't see the hole because of the excitement. Actually, I could see it real well. It was about the size of a dime.

Cloak-and-Dagger Case Confronts Tiger Boss

NEW YORK (AP) — Managers Bob Scheffing of the Detroit Tigers and Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees clashed in a battle of masterminding today—24 hours before they send their troops against each other in an important doubleheader.

The Tigers still lead the American League, one game up on the second-place Yanks. An old saw says the team that is on top after the games of July 4 wins the pennant.

Scheffing announced that Yankee killer Frank Lary and Don Mossi would pitch for the Tigers.

"Mossi," he said, "will pitch in whatever game Whitey Ford works."

Houk admitted that Ford and Bob Turley would go for the Yanks.

"But," he scowled, "I'm not saying whether I intend to pitch Ford in the first or second game. I don't see any reason why I should give anything away.

"He could keep one of his pitchers in the nice cool hotel during the first game, and have him arrive at the Yankee Stadium just before the start of the second game. Nothing doing. Let him guess."

Scheffing obviously doesn't want Lary to hook up with Ford, who currently shows a 14-2 record with eight in a row. He figures the Bengals have one in the bank if Lary goes against Turley, a bloke who has been taking his lumps all year.

Mossi has had a lot of luck against the Yanks, too, and Scheffing reasons that he at least has a chance.

★ ★ ★

"Well," said Houk, "he can just bring them both to the ball park and let them wait until I hand my lineup to the plate umpire just before the start of the first game. Then he can find out our rotation."

The rules call for the home team to decare its starting pitcher first.

There's nothing new to this business of holding out on the starting pitchers—just a little psychological warfare on the part of the managers.

One day last week in Philadelphia, three pitchers warmed up for the Phillies and two for the San Francisco Giants. And one day when Chuck Dressen was managing the ten Brooklyn Dodgers, he had a right-hander warm up in front of the Giants while Preacher Roe got ready under the left field stands.

The righty pitched to one batter and Roe came in to shut out the Giants.

The Yanks gained a full game on the Tigers Sunday when they blasted the Washington Senators, 13-4, swatting five homers. The Tigers dropped a 6-3 decision to the Baltimore Orioles.

Yankee Domination of All-Stars Seen

NEW YORK (UPI)—This year's American League All-Star team will be dominated by the New York Yankees — as usual.

★ ★ ★

Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' fearsome twosome, and teammate Tony Kubek were among the eight American leaguers picked Saturday to start in the two All-Star games — at San Francisco July 11 and at Boston July 31.

The remaining members of the A. L. squad, which will number 25 for the San Francisco game and 28 for the repeat performance at Boston, will be picked within the next 24 hours by manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles. Richards will pilot the A. L. team.

Whitey Ford of the Yankees, who is enjoying his greatest season with a 14-2 record, is a cinch to head the eight or nine pitchers Richards will select. The Baltimore manager also is expected to pick Elston Howard of the Yankees as one of his reserve catchers and may add Yogi Berra, a veteran of 13 previous All-Star games, to his list of outfielders.

That would give the Yankees six All-Star representatives, or almost one-fourth of the A. L. members who will be on hand for the first meeting with their National League rivals. Last year, New York placed seven men on the team.

In addition to Maris, Mantle and Kubek, the other A. L. starters picked in a poll of the league's players, managers and coaches were catcher John Romano and second baseman Johnny Temple of the Indians, first baseman Norm Cash and left fielder Rocky Colavito of the Tigers, and third baseman Brooks Robinson of the Orioles.

The Milwaukee Braves, Pittsburgh Pirates and San Francisco Giants each placed two men on the National League starting lineup, which also was announced Saturday.

The Braves will be represented by second baseman Frank Bolling and third baseman Eddie Mathews, the Pirates by catcher Smoky Burgess and right fielder Roberto Clemente, and the Giants by center fielder Willie Mays and left fielder Orlando Cepeda.

The other National League starters, who must play the first three innings of both games unless injured, are shortstop Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers and first baseman Bill White of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Decathlon Runnerup May Not Join Team

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Decathlon stars Paul Herman and Dave Edstrom captured the AAU National Decathlon Championships top spots over the weekend to win posts on the U.S. AAU track and field team touring Europe, but Edstrom has indicated he may not join the team.

Edstrom, who finished second to Herman, indicated to The Albuquerque Journal he may not make the trip because of an obligation with the Air National Guard.

Both Herman and Edstrom finished strong in the final event of the decathlon, the 1,500-meter run, to come from behind in the point standings and take the top two places in the two-day meet.

Michigan State Hurler Gets Bonus From Bosox

DETROIT (AP) — Michael Mickey Sinks, a 6-2, 200-pound Michigan State pitcher, signed an $18,000 bonus contract Sunday with Boston Red Sox scout Maurie Deloof.

HOWARD J. LIVERANCE

Leaves Kresge After 37 Years

Howard J. Liverance Retires From Positions as VP, Director

Merchandising vice president and a director of the S. S. Kresge Co., Howard J. Liverance of 416 Hawthorne St., Birmingham, retired Friday after 37 years with the variety store firm.

Liverance asked to be retierd for personal reasons, according to A. B. Fairbanks, public relations director of the firm. At the company's request, he will remain available for consultation and special assignments, Fairbanks said.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Liverance was first employed by Kresge's as an assistant store manager in Lafayette, Ind.

Steadily climbing the ladder, he was made vice president and a director in 1953.

He is a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, the Economic Club and the Orchard Lake Country Club.

William Thomas Elected Director of State Retailers

William D. Thomas Jr., president of Thomas Economy Furniture Co. in Pontiac, has been elected a director of the Michigan Retailers Association, it was announced today.

Re-elected president at the recent 21st annual meeting of the association in Lansing was Paul C. Wagner of Ann Arbor.

July Soybeans Lead Hefty Grain Mart

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures turned generally firm to strong today after a mostly easier opening with July soybeans leaping ahead more than five cents a bushel.

★ ★ ★

Hedge selling weakened wheat in the absence of any substantial commercial support. Setbacks ran to more than a cent during the first several minutes.

★ ★ ★

The runup in July soybeans was credited to meager offerings to deliver on commitments in the pit along with notice that one brokerage firm had stopped all the tenders of about 2¼ million bushels late Friday. Dealers said indications were that none would be retendered.

Market Nudges Toward Upside

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market nudged to the upside in dull, semiholiday trading early this afternoon.

A few stocks gained 2 or 3 points in response to special situations or investment demand but the general run of key issues showed fractional changes.

Many Wall Streeters were off on an extended July 4 weekend and the market will be closed Tuesday.

Chemicals, tobaccos, rubbers and drugs were up rather solidly. Motors, oils and utilities were generally higher. Steels, nonferrous metals, building materials and electronics were mixed. The tone was slightly lower for farm implements, aircrafts and mail orders.

The market was mixed in early trading but gradually moved to the upside. Although steel output was reported heading for another decline because of seasonal factors and the holiday, the general news background was fairly good.

Hercules Motors spurted about 3 points on the news that its directors have voted to sell the company's assets to Hupp Corp. which was fractionally lower.

Electric Autolite was up a couple of points, bringing its price closer to the $67.50 a share the company is prepared to pay in the offer it has made to buy up $8 million worth of its own stock.

Gulf Oil was up close to a point as the British forces moved in to protect the oil-rich sheikdom of Kuwait where Gulf has big interests.

Reynolds Tobacco, up about 3 points, continued to attract investment demand. American Tobacco gained more than a point while Lorillard and Ligget & Myers rose fractionally.

Investment demand was apparent also among some of the chemicals. Eastman Kodak was a couple of points higher. Du Pont rose close to a point and others in this section posted fractional gains.

Strange Tales Unfold From Stars in Europe

By EARL WILSON

MUNICH — Speaking of the stars—as I always seem to be—Europe's full of them this summer, from Jimmy Cagney to Bill Holden to Arlene Francis to 18-year-old Pamela Tiffin who isn't a star yet but probably will be next year this time.

WILSON

And many are the strange tales that are unfolding.

Bill Holden's yarn is one of the weirdest. He went to sleep one night in his bathroom in Stockholm and woke up there next morning. He was there — in Stockholm—not in the bathroom—making "The Counterfeit Traitor" and had just got all tired out.

Cagney looks down right youthful — in fact, Billy Wilder told him, "You look just like Tab Hunter—from the back."

It seems strange on the movie sets here in Germany to see stagehands dashing around carrying big steins of lager. For here in the beer country they have "beer breaks."

Arlene Francis got cast in Wilder's picture in a strange —or perhaps natural—way. Wilder and author I.A.L. Diamond were talking about the type of woman who should play Cagney's wife.

"She should be clever and witty and intelligent like Arlene Francis," the author said—and somebody said, "I've got an idea—why not get Arlene Francis?" Wilder said "Great"—just like that it happened.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL .

Edd (Kookie) Byrnes applied for a pilot's license.

Walter Pidgeon will be in the Advise and Consent" film . . . The British finally OK'd showing Burt Lancaster's "Young Savages" there, held up because of its juvenile delinquency theme . . . Kim Novak was asked to put her name on a line of cosmetics . . . Hugh O'Brian invested in a company that outfits mortuaries.

EARL'S PEARLS: Observing the speed limit is highly commendable—and, on today's highways, pretty sure to get your car rammed from the rear.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A fellow described his wife's new dress: "Oh, it's just something she whipped together from my old pay envelope."

A Midwest gas station has this sign: "We require a 50 per cent deposit from all customers we don't know, and a 100 per cent deposit from some we do know." That's earl, brother.

Sister of Kennedy Gives Birth to Girl

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) —Mrs. Peter Lawford, 36, sister of President Kennedy, gave birth Sunday night to her fourth child, a 6-pound girl.

Her husband, actor Peter Lawford, 37, returned recently from Utah, where he is working in the film "Soldiers 3."

A family spokesman said the baby hasn't been named yet.

Will File Request to Let Cohen Marry Model, 19

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Attorney Jack Dahlstrum will file this week a request for permission to let convicted tax evader Mickey Cohen marry model Sandra Hagen, 19, before he leaves to serve 15 years in prison.

Cohen, 47, was sentenced and fined $30,000 Saturday by U.S. District Judge George H. Boldt. He was convicted Friday on eight of 13 counts of income tax evasion.

After Boldt announced the sentence and fine, Miss Hagen rushed up to Cohen and kissed him.

The pudgy former gambling czar told newsmen he wanted to marry the girl if approval could be secured from the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

Earlier he had refused to marry her because "I don't think this would be fair to her. She's too young a girl."

Democrats to Discuss Michigan Con-Con

LANSING (UPI) — Democratic party leaders will meet near Jackson this weekend to discuss the constitutional convention which will convene in October.

State Party Chairman John J. Collins said the party chiefs, including Gov. John B. Swainson, would review the party plans for the primary and regular elections and "study prospects of the convention to follow."

Algerian Rebels Claim Sahara

Fly to Rabat Hoping for Morocco's Support in War With France

PARIS (UPI)—Algerian rebel leaders sought Morocco's support today in their dispute with France over the oil-rich Sahara Desert.

Rebel Premier Ferhat Abbas and some of his aides flew into Rabat Sunday to confer with King Hassan II.

Their delegates are expected to reopen talks soon with French government officials on ending the six-and-a-half-year-old Algerian war and establishing a sovereign Algeria.

One of the principal issues is whether the Sahara is part of Algeria. France says it is not. The rebels say it is.

Other North African states which might have an interest in the Sahara and its oil revenues—such as Morocco, Tunisia and Mali —have carefully refrained from taking sides on the issue so far.

French troops and riot police kept a tight grip on Algerian cities today to try to prevent a repetition of the rebel-inspired rioting that resulted in 11 killed and 90 wounded Saturday.

French officials anticipated the next big trouble would come Wednesday when the rebel leaders, who have their headquarters in Tunisia, have calld for a "day of protest."

Worshippers Turn Out for Drive-In Service

DETROIT (AP) — It wasn't the late, late show that brought some 70 cars to sit in broad daylight at the East Side Drive-In theater in Detroit at 7 a.m. Sunday.

The sign outside said "The Last Sunset" and "Tomboy and the Champ" but the people inside formed the early congregation of the Salem Memorial Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Reginald H. Holle conducted services in front of the blank screen and the congregation — most of them casually attired — remained in the cars. Then they drove off for beaches or Sunday jobs.

Rev. Holle says total summer attendance has increased 25 per cent since he started the Sunday early service for worshippers who had excuses why they couldn't make the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services.

Actor Recuperating From Chest Surgery

KARLSRUHE, Germany (UPI) —Hollywood actor Cameron Mitchell, recuperating from chest surgery at Karlsruhe City Hospital, said today he expects to be released in about 10 days.

He said he came here "several weeks" ago from California for an operation necessitated by a recent bout with pneumonia.

"I had a little surgery about the chest . . . but everything is all right now," he said. "I feel fine."

Warren Man Arrested as 'Freedom Rider'

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Robert Allen Miller, 22, of Warren, Mich. was among five self-styled "freedom riders" arrested Sunday in Jackson, Miss., after refusing an order to leave the Jackson bus terminal's white waiting room.

The arrest of Miller, two other whites and two Negroes brought to 169 the number of travelers arrested in Jackson.

Grandma May Spend Birthday on Scooter

BRUCE CROSSING (UP) — Mrs. Paul Kugler will be 80 next month. She'll probably celebrate by taking a joyride on her motor scooter.

Poland-born "Grandma Kugler" is a familiar sight in this Upper Peninsula village, tooling around on the scooter which was given to her by a daughter 6 years ago.

She has traveled as far as Milwaukee — about 300 miles — but mostly just cruises the area around her home, and to nearby cities.

"I love it," she says. "It beats walking."

Rabbi Charges Segregation

Claims U.S. Sustains 'Shocking' Policy in Its Home Loans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A religious leader charged today that the federal government is "one of the primary forces sustaining segregation" in housing.

The allegation was made by Rabbi Richard G. Hirsch of Chicago in a report on urban problems released by the commission on social action of Reform Judaism.

He said the real estate industry and lending institutions had sought to perpetuate residential segregation patterns which make it "virtually impossible" for a Negro family to obtain a home in a desirable white neighborhood.

But private discrimination of this kind, while bad, the rabbi said, is not as shocking as the spectacle of the government upholding segregation in housing.

He said the federal housing administration for many years "encouraged segregation" in its home loan policies. Although it has now eliminated this practice as an official policy, he said, "The pattern had been set."

"Moreover," he said, "the federal government still permits local housing authorities to determine whether or not public and private housing projects shall be segregated. In the South all public housing is segregated and in the North, public housing projects, except for token integration, tend to be segregated."

Gets Director's Post

BIG RAPIDS (UP) — Merritt M. Chambers, University of Michigan professor of higher education, has been named executive director of the Michigan Council of State College Presidents.

Club's Officers Are Delegates to Convention

West Pontiac Kiwanis President Robert Terry and Vice President James Scribner are delegates to the 46th annual convention of Kiwanis International in Toronto July 2-6.

Some 17,000 Kiwanians, their wives and families are exected to attend the largest convention in the organization's history.

New officers will be elected to International.

Peter Metes and Floyd Baker were named alternates from here.

State Population Up 22 Per Cent

U.S. Census Blue Book Says Michigan Seventh, 137 Per Square Mile

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan's total population increased by 22 per cent—from 6,371,766 to 7,823,194—between 1950 and 1960, the U.S. Census Bureau reports in its final tabulations based on the 1960 census.

The census bureau's blue book — a collection of data gleaned in the last national census—will be released this week.

It notes that the fastest-growing segment of Michigan's population is the under-18 age group, which increased by 47.8 per cent in the last decade.

The second fastest-growing segment, however, was the over-65 group, which increased by 38.2 per cent.

Other facts from the blue book: Michigan is the nation's seventh largest state in population, and the 15th fastest-growing area during the decade.

With 137 persons per square mile, it ranks 12th in density. The national average if 50.5 persons per square mile, but this figure is considerably affected by Alaska, which has only 0.4.

Michigan has 717,581 Negores, ranking it 15th. The Detroit area has 538,870 Negroes.

In Michigan, 734.4 per cent—or 5,739,132 persons—lived in urban areas in 1960.

Plane Panics Turkeys Causing 1,500 to Die

BARRINGTON (UP) —. Some 1,500 turkeys smothered to death on the Dick Sanger farm here Saturday when a flock of 9,000 was panicked by a low-flying airplane.

Gene Foster, an employe of the C.H. Runciman Co., Howell, said the plane buzzed the farm twice, causing the turkeys to crowd together in a tight huddle.

The loss was estimated at $4,500.

Mackie Speaks on 4-Year Goals

Spells Out Plans at Inauguration for 2nd Term Saturday

LANSING (UPI)—State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie began the work of his second term today with a six-point program for the next four years.

The 40-year-old Democrat was inaugurated Saturday.

Frank Hartman, superintendent of the Carmen School District in Flint, was to have been sworn in with Mackie but did not arrive here because his mother suffered a stroke.

Mackie said his goals during the coming four years would be to:

—Step up the department's advance planning with particular emphasis on the economic impact of future highway development.

—Protect the earmarked highway revenues against any unwise changes in the constitution.

—Expand the services to motorists by increasing the number of rest areas and tourist information stations.

—Make the highway department a model agency for equality of promotion.

—Keep the public informed of the great volume of unmet highway needs.

U. of M. Football Player Dies Instantly as Bolt Flares From Socket

Oakland County's latest fatal accident over the long Fourth of July weekend occurred when lightning struck and killed a University of Michigan football player in Milford Township during Sunday's thunderstorm.

Otherwise thousands here breathed a sigh of relief when the storm finally broke the heat wave. Heavy rains and cooler air probably kept many would-be outdoor pleasure seekers at home yesterday.

Pontiac state police reported that Saturday's "terrifically heavy" traffic flow failed to resume the next day.

However, troopers braced for tomorrow's anticipated return of millions who passed through the county when the weekend began.

Joseph Sligay Jr., 20, of Dearborn, was struck down by a lightning bolt that traveled through electrical wiring in a tent at Camp Dearborn and emitted from a light socket.

Death was instantaneous, according to Deputy County Coroner Dr. Isaac Prevette.

BURNED ON BACK

Another man in the tent was felled by the same bolt but suffered only a minor burn on his back, Stanley A. Zawaski, 65, of Dearborn was treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

★ ★ ★

A witness, Daniel Alli, also of Dearborn, said he and Zawaski had been fishing nearby when the storm broke, and they dashed for refuge into the tent with Sligay.

Alli was unhurt.

Sheriff's deputies who investigated at the scene said the lightning bolt first struck a power line, followed through the wire into the tent and burst out of an overhead light socket.

Sligay, who completed his sophomore year at U. of M. this

26 Die Violently Thus Far in State

Miscellaneous Deaths Claim 9, Traffic 9, and Drownings 8 on Holiday

By The Associated Press

At least 26 persons had met violent deaths in Michigan as the long Fourth of July holiday weekend reached the half-way mark.

The Associated Press reported 9 dead in traffic, eight drownings and nine persons fatally injured in miscellaneous mishaps since 6 p.m. Friday.

Across the nation, the toll was:

Traffic	302
Boating	31
Drowning	105
Miscellaneous	62

Safety experts today cautioned motorists that traffic deaths on the nation's highways at the halfway mark in the long Independence Day weekend were running ahead of estimates.

The traffic death toll since the start of the count at 6 p.m. Friday was approximately 25 per cent higher than estimates made by the National Safety Council. The council had estimated that 450 persons might be killed in highway accidents during the 102-hour period which ends at midnight Tuesday.

If the death rate during the first half of the period continues, a council official said, the final toll could pass 550, topping the record toll of 491 during the four-day Fourth of July holiday in 1950.

★ ★ ★

"This holiday weekend is a period of extra danger," said George C. Stewart, council executive vice president. "Extra care must be exerted to meet this extra danger. We ask all drivers to take it easy, to obey the laws and to use common sense and good judgment in their driving."

City Library Hub for Cooperative

A broad, intercommunity library cooperative program has become a reality in North Oakland County with the new Pontiac Public Library as its hub.

Contracts have been signed creating the North Oakland Library Cooperative (NOLC), result of three years of encouragement and financial help from the Michigan State Library Board ain its experimental North Oakland Library Project (NOLP).

Pontiac has been joined as a charter member by township libraries in the Brandon, Holly, Milford and Oxford areas. The door is open to other communities to follow suit.

The benefits, according to Phyllis Pope, Pontiac librarian, will include more library books and library services for everyone, including Pontiac residents.

Miss Pope said that the three-year-old NOLP convinced state and local librarians and library supporters that the time was ripe to put the cooperative arrangement on a permanent basis, financed locally.

"Participation in the NOLP gave us all a chance to test the benefits of cooperation," said Miss NOLC venture.

BETTER SERVICE

"This experience has demonstrated that together we can provide better library service and also stretch our budget dollars."

The initial contracts, renewable annually, call for township contributions to the cooperative at a rate of 25 cents per capita of population served, or $5,000 to $7,000 during the first year, Miss Pope said.

In return, the city is guaranteeing books and services in the amount of about $12,000 a year. But this is not all extra expense, since it involves services and books normally provided Pontiac library users, Miss Pope pointed out.

She estimated that during the coming year the cooperative will purchse as many as 1,000 books, available on a rotation basis from all five participating libraries.

The cooperative will also hire a librarian as fulltime director with offices in the Pontiac Public Library, she said.

Within a short time, Miss Pope said, mechanics of the cooperative will be working.

Card bearers at any one of the five participating libraries will automatically have full privileges at all of them at no extra cost.

★ ★ ★

The 8,000 books which the Michigan State Library Board loaned the NOLP to stimulate library usage and intercommunity cooperation may remain in the area as a part of the NOLC collection.

Picnickers Get Set! July 4 Looks Fine

Residents planning picnics and fun in the sun for the Fourth of July holiday can expect warm temperatures and sunny skies. Tonight's low will be 57 and a high of 82 is expected Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Although many picnic plans were probably dampened by Saturday evening's and Sunday morning's thundershowers, farmers were more than appreciative. From 10 a.m. Saturday until 10 a.m. this morning, a half inch of rain fell in downtown Pontiac. The farmers could use more.

★ ★ ★

For the next five days temperatures will average about 2 degrees below the normal high of 83 and normal low of 62. Temperatures will be warmer on Wednesday and Thursday. Thursday night and Friday will be cooler. Precipitation will total about .1 of an inch in scattered showers Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Morning winds were northwesterly at 11 miles per hour. The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 61. At 1 p.m. the mercury stood at 75.

Sees Chance of Berlin War Breaking Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Thomas D. White, retired Air Force chief of staff, says "there is a air chance" of war breaking out over Berlin.

And as one way of emphasizing the danger to Americans he suggested a partial mobilization.

"I don't think we have had a very firm expression of the determination of the American people," said White, who stepped down as Air Force chief just three days ago. "Mobilization of some kind might well be such a method of bringing it home to the people that we must be solidly behind the President."

White said if the Soviets or East Germans tried to blockade Berlin again, he would be in favor of breaking it with a ground attack rather than going over it with an air lift.

2,000 on Guard as Iraq Sends Mission to U.N. to Argue Case

KUWAIT (AP) — More than 2,000 British troops stood guard in Kuwait today, ready to counter any move by Iraq against the little sheikdom.

The last of the commandos and paratroopers arrived Sunday night, completing a two-day landing operation that sparked cries of protest from the controlled press of the Soviet Union and the United Arab Republic.

★ ★ ★

A force of Saudi Arabian troops also arrived to bolster Kuwait's defense, local military sources said. Its size was not disclosed.

DISPATCHES TRIO

The government dispatched a three-man mission to the United Nations security council in New York to argue Sheik Abdullah As-Salim As-Sabah's charge that Iraq's claim to Kuwait threatens the independence of the little territory, under which lies the world's largest proven oil reserve.

Britain told the Security Council her forces would go into action if Iraqi troops crossed Kuwait's frontier. Iraq denied any intent to use force to back up her claim to the sheikdom and urged the council to demand "unconditional and immediate withdrawal" of the British forces.

(Britain's Sir Patrick Dean told the council the British force landed at the request of Sheik Abdullah, would be pulled out as soon as the Kuwait ruler "considers the threat to the independence of his country is over." The council adjourned until Wednesday, subject to recall in the event of a "new emergency.")

★ ★ ★

Hopeless Split Forces President to Intervene

Complaint Filed Today in Federal Court as Talks' Snarl Grows

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy today sent the government to court to obtain a Taft-Hartley law injunction to stop the national maritime strike.

President Kennedy, opposed in principal to use of the Taft-Hartley law, nevertheless called upon its provisions in the face of a split between seamen's union groups that has hopelessly snarled maritime negotiations.

On direct orders from Kennedy, who is vacationing at Hyannis Port, Mass., U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau filed a complaint under the Taft-Hartley law in Federal District Court here.

If granted, the injunction would halt the strike of some 80,000 seamen for a period of 80 days.

Kennedy this morning had called Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg to his vacation home on Cape Cod for a report and recommendation on whether the 18-day-old walkout endangers national security.

Goldberg flew to the Cape Sunday night after a conference at Newark, N. J., with chairman David L. Cole and other members of the fact-finding board Kennedy appointed a week ago.

STARTS MACHINERY

Kennedy set up the board as the first step in machinery provided by the Taft-Hartley Act to stop the strike for the 80-day cooling off period.

Nearly half of the American merchant marine fleet of about 1,000 passenger ships, freighters and tankers are free to sail despite the continuing strike.

Agreements were signed Sunday with South Atlantic port and Gulf Coast companies with 250 ships.

They completed signing with four of the five striking unions, and thus obtained all the types of officers and crewmen required to sail.

Seventy-one other ships were freed when three companies signed necessary contracts.

Another 130 ships were not affected by the strike which originally involved 82,000 officers and crewmen.

Pontiac Press to Print One Edition Tomorrow

Tuesday is Independence Day and in order that its employes may join in observance of the holiday, The Press will publish but one edition, at noon.

Regular edition times will be resumed Wednesday.

Violence to the End

WRITER DEAD AT 61 — Ernest Hemingway, 61, famed author, accidentally killed himself Sunday at Sun Valley, Idaho, according to a statement issued by his family. The self-inflicted wound could have been accidental, or otherwise, stated the coroner. Hemingway has written many turbulent books, such as "Farewell to Arms" and "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Hemingway's Death Shocks All the World

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—Novelist Ernest Hemingway, 61, a literary giant who ranked with the greatest of his age, died of a shotgun blast in the head Sunday.

His wife Mary, awakened by the shot, found the body clad in pajamas just off the living room of their secluded retreat house.

She called a doctor although death apparently was instantaneous.

"Mr. Hemingway accidentally killed himself while cleaning a gun this morning at 7:30 a.m.," she said in a brief statement read to reporters by a family friend.

She was taken to a hospital and given a sedative.

Coroner Ray McGoldrick said it was "a self-inflicted wound" that could have been accidental or otherwise. He said no inquest is planned unless something new develops.

TO TALK WITH WIFE

Sheriff Frank Hewitt said authorities planned to talk with Mrs. Hemingway if a doctor permits.

Hemingway's violent death shocked the literary world. There were expressions of profound regret from President Kennedy and also from his obscure neighbors in Idaho.

To Hemingway, this was home — a quiet retreat far from the turbulent world of "Farewell to Arms," "Across the River and Into the Trees," "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

It was here that he came to hunt, relax and work. To local citizens he was as well known as the artful bearded hunter as the Nobel and Pulitzer prize winner, the author of the brilliant "Old Man and the Sea."

It was here that he worked on a new major novel, and a book of reminiscences of his youth. A close friend said Hemingway was serious when he boasted he had "a big novel, all about the land, the sea and the air" stashed away in a Cuban bank as "insurance."

It will be here that they lay Ernest Hemingway to rest in private funeral services tentatively set for Friday.

But some of the people he knew around here thought "papa" — as friends called him — seemed a bit distressed and traced it to the recent cancer death of actor Gary Cooper, his close friend and local hunting companion.

"They're both in the barn now," Mrs. Cooper commented when she heard of the death. Hemingway had told Cooper he wasn't feeling well, and the late actor replied: "I bet I'll beat you to the barn." Cooper died in May.

Writer's Sister Reminisces

Talks of Youthful Days at Walloon Lake When Ernest Was in School

DETROIT (AP)—"We were like twins," reminisced the oldest sister of novelist Ernest Hemingway Sunday after learning of his death.

The bearded writer, who accidentally killed himself Sunday at Sun Valley, Idaho, while cleaning a gun, spent much of his boyhood in Michigan.

"Ernest and I and the other children went every summer to a cottage father had on Walloon Lake near Petoskey," said Mrs. Marcelline Sanford of suburban Grosse Pointe. She went on:

"Father always took us, from the time we were little—I was six months old when I first went — until we got through high school. Some of us even kept going back after we were in college, but Ernest didn't, since he just went through high school."

★ ★ ★

Hemingway never returned to Michigan after he finished high school.

"After high school he lived most of the time abroad and we didn't see too much of him," said Mrs. Sanford.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Sanford is married to Sterling S. Sanford. They have lived in Grosse Pointe for 23 years. A younger sister, Mrs. Ernest Miller, lives at Wolverine.

Filipinos Cheer Return of Their Hero, MacArthur

MANILA (AP) — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, wearing his crushed wartime campaign cap and a neatly pressed military uniform, returned today to a triumphant and tumultuous welcome in the Philippines, which reveres him as its World War II liberator.

The general will be the principal speaker Tuesday at the celebration of the 15th anniversary of Philippine independence.

"I have indeed returned," MacArthur, 81, told a roaring throng at the Manila International Airport.

"Mabuhay (long live) Gen. MacArthur, liberator of the Philippines," was the thunderous response.

Upwards of 500,000 Filipinos gave the returning hero a welcome which, in warmth and enthusiasm, equalled the reception given former President Dwight D. Eisenhower on his visit here last year.

'Time You Learned to Fly, Fella'

BEAT IT, BUSTER! — An indignant mother night hawk outstretches her wings to frighten off The Pontiac Press photographer and protect the little ball of fluff (lower right arrow) who called The Pontiac Press parking lot home. She and her eggs and the youngsters lived there about three weeks, then flew off this morning when the youngster was big enough to fly.

Song Takes Over in South Korea

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Lt. Gen. Chang Do-young resigned today as premier and head of the military junta, saying he was making way for stronger leadership in the drive for honest government and economic stability.

LEADER OF NATION

Maj. Gen. Pak Chung-hi, 44, prime organizer of the military coup that put Chang in office in May, became chairman of the junta—the Supreme Council for national reorganization and the real center of political power in South Korea. This makes him leader of the nation in name as well as in act, since the council takes precedence over the cabinet.

* * *

Named to replace Chang as premier is Defense Minister Song Yo-chang, army chief of staff under the Syngman Rhee dictatorship and a retired lieutenant general. The premier's job puts this tough, six-foot soldier in the position of seeing that the junta's policies are carried out.

40 RETIRED

Soon after the shakeup was announced, 40 general officers were put on the retirement list. Some were known to have disagreed with Song and been close to Chang. Most had at one time or another been accused of incompetence or corruption.

In a statement Pak said Chang resigned "for personal reasons." He said the ex-premier "greatly contributed to carrying out the revolutionary tasks."

The new junta chief added: "There lie many difficulties ahead of us, including reconstruction of the national economy and establishment of social morals. For us who have burned our bridges, there could be no retreat. There should be only a march forward."

As defense minister last week, Song had said he would resume an armed forces cleanup he claimed he was forced to halt last summer when he was retired as army chief of staff by the now defunct civilian government.

The move ended 44 days in office for Chang, 58.

Cubans Force Plane to Miami, Shoot Guard

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Aerial hijackers shot a Cuban militiaman riding as guard aboard a Cuban airliner today and forced the pilot to fly to Miami.

* * *

Police threw a cordon around the plane when it landed here and the 16 passengers were hustled into immigration at Miami International Airport. Newsmen were not allowed to talk to them immediately.

The unidentified Cuban pilot reportedly told 'immigration authorities that the shooting broke out in the cabin a few minutes after he took off on a flight from Havana to Varadero Beach, Cuba.

One hijacker put a gun to the pilot's head and told him to fly to Miami, he said.

An immigration official said three passengers and the crew said they wanted to return to Havana. Thirteen passengers reportedly wanted to remain in Miami.

The militiaman was reported seriously wounded.

List '4th' Fun at Oakland Park

Events Start Today and Run Through July 9; Fireworks Twice

Thousands are expected at Oakland Park tomorrow for a day full of Fourth of July fun, climaxed by 10 p.m. fireworks.

* * *

The week-long festivities include greased-pole contests today through Wednesday, three talent shows, a carnival tonight through Sunday and a second fireworks display Saturday night.

There'll be ballgames, contests for children and an official ceremony tomorrow afternoon.

Russell Themm, treasurer and athletic director of the club, is chairman of the celebration with Kenneth Strine, secretary, in charge of the talent shows, according to John H. Ridgway, club president.

* * *

The schedule of events began with a greased-pole contest at 1 p.m. today, followed by a midget ball game at 6 p.m. and a talent show at 8 p.m.

The greased-pole contest will start things rolling again tomorrow at 10 a.m., followed by a welcoming ceremony with city officials at 1 p.m.

Children's contests on the Fourth will be 1-2 p.m., a Class F ballgame 2:30 p.m., adult contests 4-5 p.m., a men's ball game 6 p.m., talent show 8 p.m. and fireworks 10 p.m.

Wednesday another greased pole contest is scheduled for 7 p.m., a midget ballgame at the same hour, and a talent show at 8 p.m.

The fireworks Saturday are scheduled for 10 p.m.

Blacktop Hearing Set by Waterford Board

The Waterford Township Board will have a public hearing tonight on the blacktopping of Tyron Street from Pontiac Lake Road south two blocks at an estimated cost of $12,000.

A second hearing to determine individual property costs will be held later.

For the first time in recent years the township police department will get a package deal of four patrol cars. Bids were opened last week, and the low bidder, John McAuliffe Ford Agency will be recommended as the winner.

Sealed bids will be opened at 8 p.m. for a special car for Fire Chief Elmer Fangboner. The board also will appoint a member-at-large to serve on the township recreation board.

Possible revision in capital improvement charges for connections on water mains installed by new developers will be part of tonight's agenda.

A STORYBOOK ENDING — Eleven years ago Barbara Wiersema and Henry I. Baylis starred as Tom Sawyer and Becky in a production of "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" at Pontiac Central High School. They were married Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wiersema, 316 W. Iroquois Road. It's now Dr. Baylis of Los Angeles. His "Becky" has been teaching dramatics in a Tucson, Ariz. high school.

38,000 Armed in East Berlin

Communists There in Case of War, but West Has Only 11,000

BONN, Germany (AP) — The East German Communists have 38,000 trained men under arms in East Berlin for use in case of war, the West German Defense Ministry said today.

These men are members of the Communist alert police, the peoples police and the so-called Kampfgruppen, a worker's militia, the ministry reported.

* * *

"They are not called military units by the Communist regime but their strength and heavy armament clearly shows that they have a military mission," an official said.

* * *

The ministry also listed a number of purely military installations of the East Germans in East Berlin which violate four-power agreements.

The agreements on the occupation of Greater Berlin say that only troops of nations which "participated actively in military operations against Germany" may be stationed in the city.

The Western allies have 11,000 troops in West Berlin. The West Berlin police totals 13,000 men, including 3,000 alert police armed with light infantry weapons. The 10,000 men of the regular police includes traffic details and detectives.

Thousands Jailed in Giant S. Africa Police Roundup

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Thousands of persons—mostly blacks—are in jail today following three days of the biggest police anticrime campaign in South African history.

* * *

The roundup centered in Johannesburg, the governmental capital of Pretoria and their vicinities.

Authorities have not disclosed the number detained but it reportedly took a record number of police to round up suspects.

* * *

The South African Press Association reported "not only was practically every policeman and detective on normal duty used in road blocks and foot and vehicle patrols but all clerical, court and other police staffs also participated."

* * *

Among those detained were suspected burglars and auto thieves. Some stolen property was also recovered.

Alert Resident Helps Police Nab Suspect

Through the efforts of an alert Waterford Township resident, a suspect was nabbed at 2:30 a.m. yesterday hiding in a back room of a gasoline station at 5040 Elizabeth Lake Road.

Cecil Propter of 20 Crescent Lake Road called police when he saw one of three men pry open a back door and enter the Pure Gasoline station. The other two kept watch, Propter said.

When police arrived the two lookouts fled and police found Robert Rietano, 18, of 3357 Joslyn St., Waterford Township, hiding in the men's room with five envelopes marked "Pure Oil Credit Check." There was $12 in the envelopes.

* * *

The owner, C. H. Woflenbarger, of 30 Lorraine Court, Pontiac could not be reached. Rietano was taken to the Oakland County jail charged with breaking and entering.

Dr. Henry Baylis and Barbara Wiersema

Tom Sawyer Weds His Becky

Tom Sawyer began the biggest adventure of his life Saturday night. He married his childhood sweetheart, Becky.

The names on the marriage certificate were those of Barbara Wiersema and Dr. Henry I. Baylis.

But when they met 11 years ago in high school, he was Tom Sawyer, she was Becky.

That's the way they're still thought of in Pontiac.

* * *

They met during play tryouts for "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" at Pontiac Central High School in September of 1950.

Henry won the lead role. Barbara played opposite him.

* * *

They starred together in several other high school plays. She played Annie Oakley, he was Buffalo Bill in "Annie Get Your Gun."

It was only natural that Henry, president and class valedictorian, escort his leading lady to their senior prom in 1953.

Soon after graduation, however, their paths split.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wiersema, 316 W. Iroquois Rd., after a year at the University of Michigan, went on to the University of New Mexico, then to the University of Arizona.

COURTSHIP CONTINUES

After graduation in 1957, she was employed as a teacher at the Amphitheater High School in Tucson, Arizona. She was sponsor of a student theatrical troupe there for four years.

Baylis, meanwhile, studied medicine at the University of Michigan.

THEY ARE WED

He proposed in April.

And on Saturday night — in the backyard of the home where he'd courted her for years — the couple wed.

It was a storybook ending for Pontiac's Tom Sawyer and Becky.

Swainson Idea for Study of Compensation Gets Chill from 2 Groups

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson indicated today he probably will give up his plan to set up a special committee of business, labor and political leaders to study the problem of unemployment compensation.

Swainson returned to his executive desk today after a 10-day absence for a vacation and a trip to Hawaii to attend the annual governors' conference.

While he was away, two business organizations — the Michigan Employers' Unemployment Compensation Bureau (MEUCB) and the State Chamber of Commerce — rejected his invitation to name representatives to the committee.

"I may have legislation developed for the next session based on study made by the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC)," Swainson said when asked what he planned to do about rejection of his committee plan.

WANTS POLITICS AVOIDED

"The MESC study took two years to complete and cost something like $20,000. It came up with statistics, tables and recommendations," he added.

Swainson said he had hoped to avoid politics in his plan to set up a joint committee but the action of the two employer groups had chilled that idea.

The governor said he planned to review the situation before deciding whether to abandon his committee plan altogether or extend the invitation to two other business organizations.

In addition to the chamber of commerce and the MEUCB, Swainson had asked that representatives be named by the Republican and Democratic state central committees, the Michigan AFL-CIO and the United Auto Workers Union.

The committee was to be charged with reaching agreement on how to bolster the sagging unemployment compensation fund.

Technical Trouble Postpones Try to Launch Satellite

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP) — Technical difficulties caused postponement Sunday of the first U.S. attempt to launch a missile-detection satellite into an orbit that would take it over the Soviet Union.

Midas III was within about a minute of launching southward from this naval missile facility toward a planned polar orbit. No date was announced for another try. Its infrared "eye" can detect the heat from a missile's exhaust hundreds of miles below.

Other accident deaths over the first half of the long holiday weekend in the area or involving area people included:

Mary Beth Gillette, 3, Berkley, killed when she ran into the side of a moving car at Bear Lake in Manistee County. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gillette of 3695 Kipling St.

Richard J. Reynolds, 24, of 5565 Crusse Road, Waterford Township, pronounced dead at the scene where his car crashed into a concrete abutment alongside Elizabeth Lake Road, a tenth of a mile from his home, Saturday.

Kenneth P. Reichel, 19, of 5000 18½-Mile Road, Utica, drowned while swimming Friday evening in Lake Charnwood at Troy.

Saturday's intense heat buckled concrete on Woodward Avenue in Bloomfield Hills and on M59 in Waterford Township. Traffic was rerouted temporarily while road repairs were made.

Discover Troy Baby Dead of Suffocation

A 7-month-old boy, John Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of 437 Hartland St., Troy, was found dead of suffocation in his crib yesterday morning.

The child was discovered with his head lodged between railings on the crib shortly after 7:30 a.m. by his parents.

Oakland County Coroner Dr. Karl Koerner said the infant had been dead for 3½ hours when his body was discovered.

Funeral service was to be held at 2 p.m. today at the Price Funeral Home in Troy. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the parents of one other child, Cynthia Lynn, 3 years old.

Two Churches Cement Merger

Move Joins Evangelical Reformed and Christian Congregational Bodies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—They've finally made it.

After 21 years of negotiations, referendums, lawsuits, delays and other preliminaries, representatives of two branches of American Protestantism met today to seal their historic merger.

"We've reached the climax of our years of planning," said Rev. George C. Kirk, a Congregational Christian pastor of Muskegon, Mich.

The new church, whose constitution is to be declared in force here Tuesday, is the United Church of Christ.

It combines Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the first church merger in the United States to unite denominations of different structure and origin.

ALL DIFFERENCES FADE

"The spirit of unity here is beyond anything that has preceded it," Dr. Kirk said. "All the debates and difficulties have faded."

Approximately 750 delegates and visitors gathered for opening of the new church's general synod with Rev. Dr. Abraham Akaka, of Honolulu leading a special service of prayer for its future.

Some rousing hymn-singing, at an informal session Sunday night, preceded the formal conclave. "Our church's one foundation is Jesus Christ the Lord," the massed company sang with vigor.

The new church embraces about 2,000,000 Christians.

It brings together Lutheran-Calvinist traditions of the Evangelical and Reform church, with its roots in Germany, and the liberty-stressing Pilgrim traditions of the Congregational Christians, with their origins in England.

"The life of the united church will be enriched by bringing together these two traditions," commented Rev. Dr. F. W. Schroeder, president of the Evangelical and Reformed Eden Theological Seminary, of Webster Groves, Mo.

Rev. George S. Sluby Jr., of Edgebrook Community (Congregational) church, Chicago said the unprecedented merger of separate lines of Protestantism also sets an example for further healing of Christian divisions.

City Auto Plants Closed Today in Observance of 4th

Pontiac's automotive plants were still today in observance of the Fourth of July tomorrow.

About 17,000 automotive workers had at least a two-day holiday and most a four-day respite, beginning with the weekend.

Production is scheduled to begin again Wednesday.

Ontario Forest Fires Are Checked by Rain

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. (AP)—Overnight rain, cooler temperatures and high humidity had brought forest fires in Northwest Ontario to a standstill.

Fires were still burning but their wild progress of Sunday had been checked.

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield Twp. Envisions Need of 9 New Churches

BIRMINGHAM — At least nine more Protestant churches will have to be constructed in Bloomfield Township in the next nine years if the projected population estimate for 1970 are accurate.

According to a study made by the Detroit Council of Churches, 16 churches will be needed to meet the needs of an anticipated 40,000 by the end of the decade.

Currently there are seven churches in the township.

The report is based on projected figures, with a formula of one Protestant church for every 700 homes or every 2,500 persons.

The formula calculates 3½ persons for every home. It figures church membership at 600 adults and 300 young people under membership age.

* * *

The survey also shows that Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills have more than enough existing churches to meet the growth of the communities.

The survey was made available to the Bloomfield Township Planning Commission.

Fred Chapman, commission member, said he believes, however, that the formula basis in the township is "too ambitious."

* * *

"Our neighboring communities already have an excess of churches. Therefore it's logical to assume a number of township residents belong to churches in those areas."

Chapman said it is likely, though, that while there will be fewer churches built than the study reveals, these will be of large construction.

Royal Couple Attacks Italian Cameramen

VIAREGGIO, Italy (AP)—Several Italian photographers today nursed bruises and broken cameras, suffered in a predawn clash with Prince Albert and Princess Paola of Belgium.

* * *

TRAIL COUPLE

Photographers have been trailing the couple since their arrival last week. Saturday night the cameramen camped outside the night club after they learned Albert and Paola were inside.

* * *

Italian newspapers said the sudden popping of flash bulbs surprised Paola and Albert as they left the club. The price, obviously angry turned on the nearest photographer. The cameraman ran down the street with Albert chasing him.

* * *

Paola joined in the chase. Pretty soon there was a lot of confusion and a lot of yelling. More than one camera was smashed. A second photographer was pushed to the ground by the prince.

Family of Five Lands Safely on Farm at Albion

ALBION (AP) — A California family of five escaped injury Sunday night when its single-engine airplain made an emergency landing on a farm near the Albion city limits.

* * *

Melville Lindsay, 45, his wife Arlene, 40, and their sons, Melville Jr., 10, Paul 8, and Michael 3, calmly stepped out of the plane after the forced landing. The plane which had run out of gas was enroute to Bishop Airport at Flint.

* * *

Gen. Clarke Tells Berlin Forces to Have Courage

BERLIN (AP)—Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, U.S. Army commander in Europe, came to threatened Berlin today and called on his men for "courage, determination and willing sacrifice."

* * *

"As we of the American Army in Berlin, and the American Army in other part of Europe as well, go forth to a new year of duty," he said, "let us do so with the realization that the eyes of our country and of the free world are upon us—and that we can not be too well prepared for the missions that may lie ahead of us."

Clarke spoke at a review of troops from the 5,000-man U.S. garrison on the eve of Independence Day.

Husband, Wife Take Stock, Dedicate Lives to God's Work

(AP)—One night 15 years ago Jack and Dorothy Binns sat down in their Long Island home and began to take stock of their 10 years of married life.

Jack had served as an instrument engineer on the Manhattan Project during World War II and was on the threshhold of a new career as head of a nuclear reactor instument group at Brookhaven National Laboratories.

Dorothy was a college graduate, had taught home economics in Ohio and upstate New York and was a teacher in the public school system.

They had no children.

That night, the couple made a decision that next week will carry them across the Pacific on a 12,000-mile journey.

BECOME CATHOLICS

Jack and Dorothy decided to embrace the Roman Catholic faith. Soon after, they were converted and baptized. Then they began to look for some manner in which they could devote their lives to God and humanity.

Through their parish priest in Roslyn, Long Island, they learned of a need for lay missionaries in Jesuit outposts in the Marshall Islands.

Added to this, the Binns also learned of the need for sailing vessels to further the work of the church in the area. They owned a 40-foot ketch called "Capella."

★ ★ ★

From that time to this, the Binns have spent every spare moment and dollar they could muster to speed along the time until they would be prepared to take on their new roles as missionaries.

They sold most of their worldly possessions and for more than five years have been living on the boat. This cut down on their living expenses and allowed them more time to fit their craft for the long trip ahead.

Several months ago, said Msgr. John Ryan, pastor of St. Mary's church Roslyn, some parishoners and other friends of the Binns' couple learned of their need for additional cash to fit out the ship and lay in provisions for the seven-month voyage.

A collection was made and the money soon turned into materials for use in their venture.

They hope to leave Friday. Two young male college graduates will accompany them to the islands and then return by plane to the United States.

'No Business' for Congress

Solons Ease Off With Nothing Major Slated for House, Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress hung out the "no business" sign this week as it took a final breather before starting the big push toward final adjournment by Labor Day.

No major business was scheduled in either the Senate or the House until next week. Most members of both branches headed homward for Independence Day oratory.

Unless there is a change in plans, it will be the last recess of the session. A heavy legislative program lies ahead of the target date for adjournment Sept. 2.

Not a single regular appropriation bill has gone to the President, the result being that all federal agencies started operations on an emergency financing basis when the new government year started last Saturday. Most of the money bills, however, are in position to be sent to the President in the near future.

Biggest financial stumbling block in the appropriation field is a bill financing the foreign aid program. It hasn't even started through the House, where appropriations originate. It can't get off the ground until Congress decides in a separate bill how extensive the aid program should be. The fight over the authorization bill and the separate money measure may be the liveliest of the year and could delay final adjournment.

California Legion Demands Probe of State Dept.

The 4,300 delegates charged Sunday that Communist sympathizers in the State Department "have molded schemes for our destruction."

Their resolution said: "The State Department has for years been infiltrated by men who have been sympathetic to Soviet Russia and the cause of communism.

"No nation in all history has fallen in such a brief time without war from the prestige we enjoyed to our present condition. The decline will continue unless drastic changes are made in our State Department."

Smog Attack on NYC May Have Killed 260

NEW YORK (UPI)—Smog from states as far away as Ohio combined with industrial fumes in New York, may have killed up to 260 persons here during a ten-day period in 1953, a study has indicated.

The study, financed by the U.S. Public Health Service, was headed by Dr. Leonard Greenburg, former commissioner of air pollution control.

It said that from Nov. 12 to 21, 1953 smog drifted in from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New England. The smog combined with polluted air in New York and was kept down near the ground by a layer of warm air. Winds were negligible.

The smog apparently affected New Yorkers from Nov. 15 to 24.

Ohio manufactures about two-thirds of the safes and vaults produced annually in the United States.

Baby Sitter Runs Off With Tot but Returns

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Police today held an unmarried woman who admitted running off with a 4-year-old Biloxie, Miss., girl she became attached to while baby-sitting.

Barbara Lee Shirley, a 32-year-old waitress, faced extradition on a Mississippi kidnaping charge. Meanwhile, little Toni Taranto was home with her father, who suffered a mild heart attack over her abduction.

Miss Shirley turned herself and Toni in at police headquarters here Sunday night after absconding with the youngster Saturday. The father, Tony Taranto, a heart patient, came here and picked his daughter up from juvenile authorities.

He suffered the attack Sunday after spending the night at Biloxi Police Headquarters awaiting word of his daughter.

DENVER (AP)—W. Fred Allen of Kalamazoo, Mich. was elected to the board of directors of Goodwill Industries of America, Inc., during the organization's weekend convention. Goodwill Industries provides training and employment for handicapped persons. Horance W. Kimbrell of Kansas City, Mo., was elected president.

Ask Resumption of Nuclear Tests

3 Solons, Ex-AF Chief White Call for U.S. to End Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three senators and a former Air Force chief of staff have called for the United States to resume nuclear weapons tests.

Sens. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., and Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, both members of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., said Sunday that underground tests should be resumed at once.

Gen. Thomas D. White, who retired last week as Air Force chief, also called for a resumption of tests. He said this country was "taking very grave risks" by not testing when Russia might be testing nuclear weapons surreptitiously.

White said there was "no question but what great strides could be made in the improvement of weapons." Asked in an interview whether he would continue the U.S. test moratorium, he replied, "I certainly would not."

Says State GOP Due for Sweeping Reorganization

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Republican party is due for a sweeping reorganization, State Chairman George M. Van Peursem says.

Van Peursem says the party will abondon what he terms a "defensive policy" and move to build strength in outstate areas while challenging the Democrts in the populous southeastern portion of the state.

Heavily Democratic Wayne County, in particular, will be a target of the campaign, Van Peursem said.

The GOP will map its strategy in a series of conferences with office holders, party groups and county and congressional district chairmen throughout the state in the next few weeks.

Killed on Railroad Track

CHELSEA (UPI) — Eleanor Fahrner, 49, Chelsea, a former mental patient, was killed Sunday when she was struck by a New York Central train as she walked along the railroad tracks here. Authorities said the woman made no attempt to get out of the train's path.

The forest area of Canada is estimated at about 1,220,405 square miles.

Until 1867 Alaska was designated on most maps as Russian America.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Wedding Bells Ring Out for Area Brides

Casey-Kellogg Vows Spoken in Candlelight

A garden reception at the Birmingham home of the Winston T. Kelloggs followed the marriage of their daughter Constance Andreae to Brian J. Casey of Boston, Mass. Saturday in Christ Church Cranbrook. Rev. Louis C. Gillette performed the six o'clock candlelight ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William G. Koebel of Burlington, Mass., and the late James Casey.

Wearing her sister's wedding gown of ivory Italian silk appliqued with heirloom lace touched with seed pearls, the bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy. Her short veil of French illusion was held by a small jeweled court cap.

★ ★ ★

Attending their sister were matron of honor Mrs. Alfred F. Uhry of Forest Hills, N. Y., and Emily T. Kellogg who served as bridesmaid with Janet Casey, sister of the bridegroom; Joan G. Page of Fairfield, Conn., and Judith Mellecker of New Canaan, Conn.

Bouquets of mixed summer flowers complemented their bouffant frocks of light blue organza.

On the esquire side were Luther Van Ummersen of Wayland, Mass., best man; and ushers, Dr. Thomas J. Cook of Chicago, Comerford W. McLoughlin of Birmingham and Alfred F. Uhry.

The newlyweds will make their home in Boston.

Pair Says Vows in Sunken Garden

The sunken garden at the Theodore E. Wiersema home on West Iroquois Road was the setting for the Saturday evening marriage of their daughter Barbara to Dr. Henry I. Baylis of Los Angeles, Calif.

Dr. Milton H. Bank of Central Methodist Church officiated at the small family ceremony which was followed by a garden reception for some 400 guests.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Morgan Baylis of Long Beach, Calif., formerly of Pontiac, and the late Mr. Baylis.

Pearl-frosted Alencon lace accented the scoop-neck bridal gown of white dulcetti satin styled with dome skirt and chapel train. Bouffant waist-length veiling of silk illusion was caught by a double crown of pearls and crystals. The bride carried a cascade of white roses.

Matrons of honor were the bridegroom's sister Mrs. Donald Saltman of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Theodore E. Wiersema Jr. of Los Angeles. Assisting Dr. Baylis as best man was Paul Kors of Los Angeles, formerly of Pontiac.

CARRIES RINGS

The bridal attendants wore harmonizing shades of blue in matching dresses with shoulder corsages of white roses.

MRS. HENRY I. BAYLIS

Four-year-old Sherry Saltman, in baby blue organza, niece of Dr. Baylis, carried his ring and double heirloom wedding rings of the bride's maternal grandmother and great-grandmother on a satin and lace heart.

Mrs. Wiersema appeared in powder blue lace over silver blue taffeta and the mother of the bridegroom wore a light blue afternoon dress and shoulder corsage of white roses.

The bride received her master of arts degree from University of Arizona following studies at University of Michigan and University of New Mexico. She was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority and several honorary speech and drama fraternal organizations.

Dr. Baylis was graduated from University of Michigan Medical School where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Mu and Nu Sigma Nu fraternities. He has completed his internship at Los Angeles County Hospital.

Leaving on a two-month motor tour of the Southwest, California and Mexico, the new Mrs. Baylis was wearing a royal purple silk sheath and white flowered cloche.

At Evangel Temple

Pair Exchanges Vows

Wedding vows were exchanged by Charlene Raydelle Holdridge and Tyson L. Daniel of Wyandotte before Rev. Geoffrey Day in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at Evangel Temple.

Daughter of Mrs. Audrey Holdridge of Waterford Township and John Holdridge of South Paddock Street, the bride appeared in white silk organza with sequined Swiss lace applique.

★ ★ ★

Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and sequins on lace. She carried white carnations centered with red roses.

★ ★ ★

Attendants wore white embroidered organdy over blue taffeta. Honor maid Linda Clarkson of Waterford Township carried yellow carnations. Flowers for bridesmaid Lorraine Baril of Pontiac and junior attendant Beverly Gage of Flint, cousin of the bride, were blue-tipped carnations.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Eileen Hodge and Leland Daniel, both of Wyandotte had Daniel Horn of Wyandotte for his best man. Forest and Duane Otk ushered and the bride's brother Raymond carried the rings.

After a reception in the Roosevelt Hotel, the newlyweds left for a week's honeymoon at Niagara Falls. They will live in Wyandotte.

Blue carnations harmonized with Mrs. Holdridge's sheath dress of blue lace. The mother of the bridegroom, in orchid polished cotton and silver accessories, wore pink carnations.

Mrs. Doris Gage of Flint honored her niece at a pre-bridal shower with Mrs. R. E. Heflinger of Swartz Creek. Mrs. Earl W. Hudnell and daughter Jolene of Court Drive also entertained.

MRS. TYSON L. DANIEL

Iowa Reception Held for Pair Wed in Illinois

Reception at the Outing Club, Davenport, Iowa, followed the marriage of Louise Anne McCreary to David B. Lorimer, of Port Byron, Ill., Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Chuch, East Moline, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of the Richard T. McCrearys of East Moline and the bridegroom's parents, the Robert E. Lorimers of Port Byron, Ill., were formerly of Lake Angelus.

Mrs. Barry J. Tuttle of Pontiac, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Caroline Parkhurst and Ann Bornstein, both of Moline, were bridesmaids.

The duties of best man were performed by Barry J. Tuttle. Guests were seated by William H. Redfield, Lake Forest, Ill., Michael B. Redfield, Birmingham, Ennis A. and Anthony B. Fruhauf, Bloomfield Hills, all cousins of the bridegroom.

The couple left on a southern honeymoon and will live in Port Byron.

Five Couples Win In Bridge Session

The Pontiac Bonneville Duplicate Bridge Club met Saturday evening in Hotel Waldron with seven tables in play.

Winners were Mary Malchie and Mrs. Norma Keller; Mrs. Melvin Smail and David Utley; Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Willis; Ernest L. Guy and Henry Georgia; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Patrick.

Senior Citizens Planning Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Coombe of Chippewa Road opened their home to the senior citizens of Oakland Park Methodist Church for a picnic luncheon Friday. Mrs. Charles Branscombe of Gulford, Maine, was a guest.

Tentative plans were made for a picinc at the church in August.

Dear Abby Hates Pigeons

Only a Starling's Whistle

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The bird your reader inquired about, with the shiny black plumage and yellow beak, is the starling. It is found in the U.S.A. and Canada all year round. I discovered this bird while I was hanging out my wash in my short shorts. I heard a long, low whistle and thought a man was trying to be fresh with me.

ABBY

I am told they eat destructive insects, but they can also drill holes in your roof and are extremely dirty. They make a terrible racket when a flock of them gets together. They are an amusing and handsome bird, but will soon be the world's worst feathered pest.

MRS. F.

DEAR MRS. F.: Not while the pigeon is with us!

DEAR ABBY: I have not made a habit of reading letters to Abby, but I think I shall, for each time my glance falls upon your column I realize what I have missed in the study of human nature.

I was particularly intrigued with a letter signed "Mother of a Doctor." She was disgusted with her daughter-in-law who insisted on referring to her husband as "the doctor."

I am reminded of Bill and Marie, whom we have known since childhood. Colonels were a dime a dozen in the last war, but Marie started calling her husband "the colonel." This revealed an inferiority complex and a lack of taste.

As a West Pointer and ex-captain, I wouldn't tolerate my wife's calling me "the captain." My father was a doctor, and none of us (least of all my mother) called him "the doctor." There were 50 other good ones in our town. "Mother of a Doctor" has my sympathy.

EX-CAPTAIN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married only a short time and already I am getting annoyed with my husband's mother. I work, and the minute I get home, my telephone starts ringing.

She calls me every blessed day at this hour and asks a million questions. She talks from 30 to 40 minutes about nothing.

I like to start my dinner as soon as I get home so that I can have dinner ready for my husband when he gets home, but his mother holds me up. It does no good to say, "Something is burning on the stove."

Should I complain to my husband and ask him to tell his mother not to call me at this hour? I haven't the nerve to tell her myself.

YOUNG BRIDE

DEAR YOUNG: One of the worst mistakes a young bride can make is to complain to her husband about his mother. Gather your courage and ask your mother-in-law nicely to please wait until after dinner time to call you. And tell her why. If your phone rings while you are preparing dinner—let it ring.

Newlyweds Take Trip in Michigan

Judi Dorine Bailey exchanged wedding vows with Michael J. Dalley before Rev. Edward D. Auchard June 23 in Orchard Lake Community Church Presbyterian.

Parents of the couple, the Ward M. Baileys of Wimbley Lane and the John A. Daileys of Upper Long Lake, received with them in the church parlors.

The bride wore white nylon dotted Swiss and carried white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Honor maid Sharon Young and bridesmaids Mrs. Robert Payne of Milford, Mrs. David Bailey of Highland and Mrs. Joel Bailey of Orchard Lake wore dotted Swiss over blue taffeta. They held semi-cascades of blue and white painted daisies.

John Nelson was best man and Harold Schoof, Gregg Leach and James Smith seated the guests.

The newlyweds toured the Lake Michigan shoreline before returning to their home on Wimbley Lane.

So Say Spanish Swains

'If YOU Look at Me, You'll Put Me in Orbit'

By PAM MIXTER

MADRID (UPI) — The rain in Spain often is a beautiful snow job.

Take the way the Spaniard compliments the girl he has just met.

"May I light my cigarette with your eyes?" said one Spaniard to me as he glided by me on the street.

FEW OFFENDED

This Spanish custom of compliments, known as the "piropo," often takes foreigners by surprise. But there are few females offended by it.

The only trouble is that some Spanish piropos do not translate well, if at all, into English, and therefore don't have the same, if any, meaning.

The piropo is as old as Spain itself, but like many things here, has been given a modern touch.

THOSE EYES

Such as: "You have eyes bigger than a supermarket." Or, "For you I have a heart like an atomic bomb."

The piropo is not always flattering. When two large women passed a couple of Spaniards one day, the men whispered audibly, "Wow, women in Cinemascope!"

Those who are not adept at flowery phrases can buy a little book of piropos — if they can find one. It took me two and a half months, with the help of doormen and waiters, before one of the office operators finally turned up with two small books of piropos.

(Just try to explain to a book dealer what you, as a female, want with a book of piropos.)

Sometimes the girls answer back, though not often. Usually they ignore the spouting Spaniards.

For winter, there is a special book of compliments. One passing Spaniard pulled out all stops when he murmured at me one wintry day, "For you I would gladly go to the North Pole in my underwear."

He was persistent, and followed.

After five blocks of this plus the story of his life and how nicely I would fit into the plan of things, I was ready to buy him a one way ticket to the North Pole, complete with union suit.

ALL SORTS, SIZES

Piropos come in all lengths, and for all occasions — what to say when it is raining, or the first of January, or the eve of the Fifth of January (when the Spanish give out their Christmas presents.)

"You are sun, and I your satellite," is one this book recommends. "If you look at me you will put me in orbit."

Water Chestnuts Crisp Touch in Bean Casserole

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Richard Stirling may love antiques in her home, but she is as up to date as a new hat in her cooking. She shares with the Press readers an unusually good way of fixing frozen green beans.

In addition to antiques, Mrs. Stirling loves flowers. Cooking is also one of her hobbies.

GREEN BEAN CASSEROLE
By Mrs. Richard Stirling

1 package frozen green beans
1 can condensed mushroom soup
1 can water chestnuts
1 can or package french fried onions

Cook green beans only to the crisp tender stage. Spread out in a casserole. Cover with undiluted mushroom soup and the water chestnuts sliced very thin. Top with french fried onions. Heat through in a moderate oven.

You can make this dish in the morning and heat just before serving time. Serves 4-5.

Leaves Kresge After 37 Years

Howard J. Liverance Retires From Positions as VP, Director

Merchandising vice president and a director of the S. S. Kresge Co., Howard J. Liverance of 416 Hawthorne St., Birmingham, retired Friday after 37 years with the variety store firm.

Liverance asked to be retierd for personal reasons, according to A. B. Fairbanks, public relations director of the firm. At the company's request, he will remain available for consultation and special assignments, Fairbanks said.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Liverance was first employed by Kresge's as an assistant store manager in Lafayette, Ind.

Steadily climbing the ladder, he was made vice president and a director in 1953.

He is a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, the Economic Club and the Orchard Lake Country Club.

July Soybeans Lead Hefty Grain Mart

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures turned generally firm to strong today after a mostly easier opening with July soybeans leaping ahead more than five cents a bushel.

★ ★ ★

Hedge selling weakened wheat in the absence of any substantial commercial support. Setbacks ran to more than a cent during the first several minutes.

★ ★ ★

The runup in July soybeans was credited to meager offerings to deliver on commitments in the pit along with notice that one brokerage firm had stopped all the tenders of about 2¼ million bushels late Friday. Dealers said indications were that none would be retendered.

Warns of Proposals to Cash In Policies

A warning to the public to be wary of proposals to cancel permanent life insurance policies with substantial cash values for other types of investments or replacement of policies has been issued by State Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford.

The Pontiac Life Underwriters Association joined in the warning.

"It has come to my attention that individual policyholders are being approached to cash in their policies so as to have funds for other investments offering glib promises of more lucrative returns in a shorter period of time," Blackford said.

★ ★ ★

"Most established policies have benefits, advantages and provisions that should not be lightly discarded. All citizens are urged to give careful consideration to advantages of their policies before they impulsively act on 'pie-in-the-sky' alternatives."

Repeats Performance in Same Snowy Ditch

CRAIG, Colo. (AP)—Ray Green was traveling west on Berthoud Pass. He was suddenly blinded by snow whipped up by passing vehicles. His truck wound up in a ditch. Estimated damage: $200.

★ ★ ★

Green tried the trip again the next day. Same mountain. Same snow. Same ditch. Estimated damage: $150.

Market Quiet Before Holiday

NEW YORK (AP)—A few sharp gains highlighted a mixed stock market early today. Trading was quiet.

Gains and losses of most key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

An exception was Hercules Motors which spurted more than 3 points on news that directors have voted to sell the firm's assets to Hupp Corp., which eased.

Another special situation was Electric Autolite which advanced a couple of points to 65 on news that the company has offered to buy up to $8 million worth of its own stock at prices not to exceed $67.50 a share.

Goodrich and American tobacco rose more than a point each. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and De Pont were ahead close to a point.

There was no particular leadership displayed in the market action. Many Wall Streeters were away, taking an extended Independence Day weekend.

Gulf Oil was steady now that the British have moved in to pro-Kuwait where Gulf has large interests.

Aircraft-missile stocks were mostly unchanged, although United Aircraft dropped a fraction.

Small gains were made by Republic Steel, Ford, Goodyear, International Telephone, Internation Nickel, Allied Chemical, Southern Railway, Royal Dutch and Lorillard. Lower were U.S. Steel, Chrysler, International Harvester, Anaconda, General Electric and Standard Oil of Indiana.

Opening blocks included: Ford, up at 81¾ on 4,500 shares; Standard Oil (New Jersey), off ⅛ at 43⅞ on 2,500; and Montgomery Ward, unchanged at 27 on 2,500.

News in Brief

Vandals smashed seven plate glass windows in the Waterford Township Schoolcraft School on Williams Lake Road, Saturday night, according to township police reports.

Thieves broke into the Goyette Service station at 7700 Cooley Lake Road Saturday night through a back door and stole items valued at $350, Waterford police said.

Ernest A. Draper, 64 Bloomfield Ter., reported to Pontiac police Saturday that burglars stole a billfold containing $20 and miscellaneous papers from his home.

The theft of $127 from his home was reported to Pontiac police Sunday by Louis H. Schimmel, 509 W. Iroquois Road.

Hoffa 'Producing' Election Spectacle

By NORMAN WALKER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Swinging jazz bands and hijinks set the stage today for a special union convention to re-elect James R. Hoffa, 48, to a new five-year term as Teamsters president.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa, conducting a flambouyant campaign against phantom opposition, fired off verbal broadsides against the Kennedy administration and the AFL-CIO while gearing up the 1.7 million-member Teamsters for an even bigger role in American labor.

The 2,000 convention delegates were due to hoist Hoffa's salary from $50,000 to $75,000 and rubber stamp his bid for a more than $10-million hike in annual dues funds alloted to run Hoffa's Washington headquarters.

In what sounded like a call to war against other labor unions, Hoffa said he'd use part of the money to organize new members in jurisdictional fields that AFL-CIO unions are letting lie dormant.

Astronaut's Holiday . . . Takes Joy Ride in Plane

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP) — Ever wonder what a man waiting to ride in a space capsule does with his spare time?

Leroy G. Cooper, one of seven astronauts training here for an 18,000-m.p.h. orbit around the earth, pilots a private plane. He uses it to take his wife and two daughters on pleasure trips at 200 miles per hour.

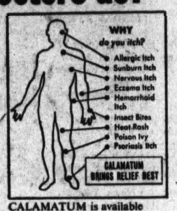
Stop all 9 kinds of ITCH the way doctors do!

New formula contains 6 anti-itch ingredients to soothe pain, speed healing, stop itch fast!

Science has developed a remarkable new formula that combines 6 anti-itch ingredients to relieve all 9 kinds of itch in seconds! Called CALAMATUM® Ointment, this new medicated cream actually stops itching and burning on contact—whenever they occur . . . soothes pain, aids healing. Effective even on spreading itch like poison ivy, because it helps dry weeping lesions, prevents spreading. Prevents risk of infection from scratching, too, because CALAMATUM turns into its own pink bandage — won't rub off 'til you wash it off! There's nothing like cooling, soothing CALAMATUM Ointment. Get it today.



CALAMATUM is available without prescription in convenient tubes at 69¢ and $1.35 or economical aerosol dispenser.
