ACCUSED CHECK FORGER — Miss Mamie June Smith, 35, was booked at the Oakland County Jail last night by Sheriff's Sgt. Herbert S. Dolby. She is accused of forging $23,506 in checks from March 1954 to July 1955 while employed as a bookkeeper-secretary at G. Carl Elder and Son Builders, of Birmingham. Miss Smith was arrested Tuesday in Chicora, near Allegan.

$23,000 Forgery Admitted

A 35-year-old former bookkeeper-secretary for a Birmingham contractor confessed today she cashed forged checks totaling more than $23,000 and spent all but about $500, mostly on her 26-year-old boy friend.

Suffering from a diabetic attack, Mamie June Smith made the statement to Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor while resting on her cell bed in Oakland County Jail.

A doctor was summoned this morning to examine Miss Smith. Her arraignment in Birmingham Municipal Court will be postponed until she recovers, said Taylor.

Miss Smith named her boy friend, a truck driver who she said was married to another woman Saturday.

"I gave him most of the money to buy an automobile and other things. He was always after money," she told Taylor.

The accused forger said she would turn over about $500 of the money remaining in a Birmingham bank.

Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist, of Birmingham Police, has been dispatched to Detroit to locate the truck driver and bring him here to make a statement.

Arrested Tuesday in Chicora, near Allegan, by State Police, Miss Smith admitted signing her name to former employer's checks made out to herself. At the time she worked for G. Carl Elder and Son Builders, 1810 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

She was brought to Oakland County Jail last night by Holmquist. Formerly of 20542 Mahon, Southfield Township, the accused left the county last July 15 after her employer, Robert W. Elder, allegedly discovered discrepancies when auditors were called in to convert the company operations from a partnership to a corporation.

"She wrote more than 150 checks from March 1954 to July 1955 cashing them at a Birmingham bank," said Taylor. "She cashed three $100 checks in one week and no one noticed."

The warrant specifically charges her with forging a $100 check last July 1.

Miss Smith had been living in Saugatuck with a girl friend and working in a Holland furniture store. In jail last night she denied forging the checks, but confessed when questioned this morning by Taylor.

When asked about her boy friend, she stated, "I don't love him anymore." The accused said she had not talked to the truck driver or seen him since leaving Oakland County. His mother called to inform her of the marriage, she stated.

Miss Smith worked as a clerk in the Southfield Township offices for four-and-a-half years before Elder hired her. Conviction of forgery can carry up to 14 years in prison.

Arrest Forgery Suspect During 'Seasonal Visit'

A 52-year-old forgery suspect, who police say has a penchant for passing bogus checks in the Pontiac area around Christmas time, was arrested by Waterford police last night.

Floyd Phillips, no known address, was taken into custody by Patrolman William Stokes after he allegedly attempted to cash a check at a Waterford Township tavern.

According to Chief Investigator Robert C. Miller, of the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office, Phillips is known to have arrived in the area near the start of the Christmas season every year since 1952.

A warrant was issued for his arrest in October, 1954, after he cashed a bad check in Pontiac.

Waterford police got on his trail Tuesday night when a suspicious tavern owner called them after Phillips reportedly attempted to cash a check for $20. Chief Frank Van Alta said the suspect escaped before police arrived.

He is currently awaiting arraignment in the Oakland County Jail on the 1954 forgery charge.

Schimmel Hits Aid to Michigan

Backs Federal Help to Poor States Such as Mississippi

WASHINGTON (AP) — Louis H. Schimmel, Pontiac Board of Education president, says he's afraid federal aid to education would result in "perpetuation of horse and buggy school systems."

Schimmel expressed this view yesterday at a round table discussion of school financial problems at the White House Conference on Education.

He said that the situation in Michigan calls for a reorganization of the school system, eliminating school districts that are too small and too weak financially to furnish adequate educational opportunities.

A conference report said that only two or three states have indicated they can meet their school building needs within the next five years, Schimmel said Michigan is one of those states.

"I don't mind," he said, "being taxed to improve educational opportunities in Mississippi. But I do mind being taxed $20 of which $5 would go to Mississippi, $5 to Michigan and the other $10 lost somewhere.

"Every tax dollar that is

Two Area Men Killed in Fires

Lapeer County Man; Charles W. Staley Die in Their Homes

A Waterford Township man was killed last night when fire destroyed his lakefront home, and a Lapeer County resident died under similar circumstances.

The body of Charles W. Staley, 35, of 1333 Bamford St., was carried from the bathroom of the home after Waterford Township firemen fought the flames which engulfed the interior of the log house.

Carl C. Beardsley, 79, died when his one room house on Imlay City Road, three miles east of Lapeer, was swept by fire.

Staley, a Pontiac Motor Division employe, had been ill with the flu, neighbors told police. He was apparently about to take a bath when the fire broke out. Oakland County Deputy Coroner Dr. Isaac C. Prevette said suffocation was the cause of death.

Cause of the Staley home blaze is being investigated by the State Fire Marshal. He was alone at the time, while his wife Ruby was working at Pontiac Motor Division.

Beardsley lived alone. Fire officials theorized that an explosion may have taken place.

Decision Clears the Way for Sale of Road Bonds

LANSING (AP)—The State Supreme Court today unanimously upheld in all respects the constitutionality of the State Turnpike law which authorizes the construction of toll roads in Michigan.

The decision, written by Justice Harry F. Kelly, clears legal obstacles to the construction of a $191,000,000 toll road from Saginaw to Flat Rock.

The suit was brought by the City of Dearborn, which contended primarily that the Turnpike Law violated municipalities constitutional control over their streets and alleys.

TOLL LAW CONSTITUTIONAL

The court said that the Turnpike Authority had not been authorized by the law to vacate or alter existing streets and alleys.

The court said that it interpreted the law to mean that the Authority must obtain the consent of municipalities to change their streets and alleys now in existence and that on that basis the toll road law was constitutional.

On another point challenging the Authority's right to employ a staff outside the State Civil Service System and operate outside of the state's normal fiscal controls, the court said that the Legislature had made the Authority autonomous and separate from state government and that it was not controlled by Civil Service or state fiscal regulations.

The decision upheld the Authority's right to condemn property for toll roads rights-of-way.

It held that revenue bonds issued by the Authority to construct toll roads were not general obligations of the state and therefore did not violate the constitution.

Santa's All Packed

Yuletide Season Welcome Readied to Roll Saturday

Community plans to greet the approach of the 1955 Yuletide season with song and colorful pageantry neared completion today as 34 Pontiac churches and schools polished their roles for Saturday's traditional Christmas Parade.

More than 70,000 persons are expected to line the route of march when the parade leaves its Turk street assembly area at 9:30 a.m. and, accompanied by the music of seven school bands, moves through the heart of the downtown area.

The main sections of the huge display will be devoted to mobile tableaus in which school and church organizations will present scenes whose theme will be the "True Story of Christmas."

Five floats will exhibit Thanksgiving scenes, while the "Christmas Story" portion will be made up of 17 units. Eleven floats carrying school children will comprise the parade's "Toyland" section.

Other units will consist of horseback riders and officials' cars. Santa Claus, mounted on a special float, will bring up the rear.

The parade will move north on Saginaw street to Oakland, and along Oakland to Sanderson, where it will disband.

To Guide Labor's Destiny

WALTER REUTHER

GEORGE MEANY

Thoughtful Merger Study Sought by Rev. Auchard

"Current discussion of the possible union of the City of Pontiac and Waterford Township is of great importance to this area," said the Rev. Edward D. Auchard in an interview with a representative of the Pontiac Press.

"We must not jump to conclusions, prematurely committing ourselves for or against such a proposal.

Whether or not such a union is desirable can be determined only after thorough and thoughtful study.

"The approach suggested by Frank Steere and endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and The Pontiac Press seems to me to be the right one. The deciding factor, after the facts are known and evaluated, is of course the welfare and the will of the people in both Pontiac and Waterford.

"Most cities were laid out in the horse and buggy era. Often they have remained practically unchagged since the days of the Model T Ford. An area is seriously handicapped when administration of government is too much divided, and when too many people no longer live where they work or work where they live.

"We lived in St. Louis, Mo., before coming to Pontiac. St. Louis and St. Louis County are separate entities. Both are seriously handicapped because the city of St. Louis has remained frozen within limits set in 1876. Today there are some 150 separate cities and villages in St. Louis County.

"There is evidence that a city can be choked by its suburbs. Then when the central city starts to decay, largely because of the loss of its natural leaders, the decline begins to blight the surrounding communities, too.

"There is another side to the picture. Governmental units can become too large and cities too sprawling. Furthermore, economic factors, traditions, and sentiments that have been nourished through the years must also be taken into account.

"In any soundly democratic society, administrative organization and governmental structure is secondary to human welfare.

"I appreciate this opportunity to register my reactions to this significant study. I hope that everyone understands that I speak not as a clergyman, but as a citizen."

Detroit Papers Closed by Strike

Stereotype Union Asks Extra Crews Be Hired to Process Color Plates

DETROIT (AP) — AFL stereotype operators struck Detroit's three daily newspapers today.

The strike was called in a contract dispute with the Detroit Newspapers Publishers Assn. The association represents the three dailies. Picket lines were thrown up around newspaper plants.

Affected are the afternoon Detroit News and Detroit Times and the morning Detroit Free Press. The papers have a combined daily circulation of about 1,300,000 and employ 4,500 persons including 120 stereotypers.

The publishers said the dispute involved union demand that an extra crew be provided to process color plates with a minimum of a full day's pay, and the overtime be paid for handling any material not used on the same day. Wages are not an issue.

A two-year contract between the union and the publishers association expired at midnight last night. An 11th-hour meeting broke up at 1:30 a.m. today with the announcement from the union that the strike was on at 4:30.

The City Hall clinic, which offers free parking facilities, will be open from 9-11:30 a.m. each Friday and from 3-4:30 p.m. Tuesdays as long as the demand warrants. Unionists Meet for Ratification of New Merger

Meany to Be President; Reuther Will Supervise Industrial Section

NEW YORK (INS)—The AFL and CIO open today separate conventions to ratify and put into effect the merger of the two organizations into one giant labor federation.

New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner was scheduled to start the AFL convention with an address of welcome.

The remainder of the day will be devoted to discussion of the merger agreement and presentation of resolutions to be referred to the merged federation's first convention next week.

The AFL-Metal and Building Trades may offer at the meeting a plan to set up a committee to study the best means of organizing non-union plants.

CIO President Walter P. Reuther was the main speaker at the initial session of his organization's convention.

Before the CIO delegates got down to business this afternoon, they were to witness a pageant depicting the 20 years of the CIO.

LEWIS PRESENTS BILL

Meanwhile, the United Mine Workers, taken by UMW boss John L. Lewis out of the AFL to form the CIO in 1935 and then withdrawn from that organization to become independent, handed the CIO a $1,665,000 bill.

In a letter signed by UMW Secretary-Treasurer John Owens and handed personally to CIO Secretary-Treasurer James B. Carey, Lewis demanded repayment of the "loan . . . before you dissolve your organization."

Carey replied with a souvenir book on CIO history and a note which said in part:

"You have achieved the momentary ripple of publicity which you sought to relieve the boredom of your isolation from the democratic labor movement."

He added this postscript:

"I trust that you enjoy reading the CIO's book on twenty years of the CIO's constructive achieve-

Citizens Protest Parking Plan

May Seek Referendum Election on Proposed City Measure

Petitions seeking a possible public vote on the adopted $600,000 municipal parking program are being circulated throughout the city by a group of citizens that are opposed to the move because of its "magnitude."

Sam L. Stolorow, spokesman for the group, said they had not decided whether the petitions would be submitted to the city clerk requesting a referendum vote if the petitioners do get the required number of signatures called for by the city charter.

"The group which is made up of property owners, interested citizens and parking operators believe the issue involves a great deal of money and in the future will involve even a greater amount," Stolorow said.

"Because of this financial magnitude we believe the voters of Pontiac should decide whether the parking program should be carried out," he stated.

On Nov. 22 the City Commission unanimously adopted an ordinance authorizing the $600,000 revenue bond issue to finance the proposed program.

The ordinance now will be submitted to the State Municipal Finance Commission for approval.

According to the revenue bond act, the petitions must contain not less than 10 per cent of registered voters (37,530 as of Aug. 1) and must be submitted to the city clerk within 30 days after the ordinance was published. It was published Monday.

S-D Day Still Is . . . in Pontiac

Citizens of Pontiac scored a perfect traffic safety record during the first 13 hours of Safe-Driving Day.

No accidents since midnight were reported by the Traffic and Safety Bureau of the Police Department.

Similar perfect records were reported by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department and the Michigan State Police Post on Dixie Highway.

The death of two motorists in Wayne County early today thwarted Michigan's effort to get through Safe Driving Day without a fatal accident.

The victims were L. T. Bell, 22, Plymouth, and Gordon P. Setera, 28, Detroit.

Hopes for a national perfect record were dashed further this morning when four other persons died in accidents in Illinois, New York, Indiana and Ohio.

One Waterford Township man was treated for minor injuries after a collision at 5:45 a.m. today on M-59.

Hunter Bazell, 44, was released after treatment, authorities in Pontiac General Hospital said. He was the only person given emergency treatment after midnight, they said.

Nor did any accident victim receive emergency treatment from midnight to 1 p.m. today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, authorities there said.

Chairman Clyle R. Haskill congratulated the city on its record so far and said:

"There are still 11 more hours left to S-D Day in which drivers and pedestrians can prove that accidents can be prevented with care.

"Drive carefully all day today," Haskill urged. "A perfect safety record today may mean a turn for the better in regards to Pontiac's mounting rate of deaths due to traffic accidents," he said.

Today spectators were able to see the grim results of a fatal accident.

To call attention to S-D Day, the Traffic and Safety Bureau placed downtown one of the cars involved in an accident Sunday morning on Kennett Rd., in which two men died and a woman was hospitalized.

The wreck is parked on W. Huron street next to the County Court House.

Re-filing Delay Halting Ouster

Chief of Police Straley Must Present Charges, Attorney Ewart Says

Ockerman was suspended by Straley Oct. 14 for alleged misconduct and neglect of duty.

Yesterday Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland ruled that Ockerman must be reinstated to the force and given back pay pending a final City Commission hearing on his case.

Ockerman's case was sent to the Police Trial Board as provided in the City Charter. But Ockerman chose to come under the State Veterans Preference Act, which allows war veterans to have a hearing before the city commission.

The officer filed suit Nov. 18 asking a writ of mandamus ordering Straley to reinstate him pending outcome of the state law procedure.

Judge Holland ruled the state act supercedes the city charter.

Ockerman is charged by Straley with ignoring a request by Mayor William W. Donaldson that he arrest a drunk.

At a City Commission meeting Nov. 15 Donaldson said Ockerman told him he had to buy a filler for a ball-point pen first, but would then seek the drunk.

Ockerman also is charged with hanging an old violation ticket on his car so he could leave it all day in a municipal parking stall.

Ockerman claims he only took a few seconds to exchange the pen filler which he had just bought and would not work. He says he proceeded immediately afterward to arrest the drunk arriving soon after the arrest was made by another officer Donaldson had encountered.

The parking ticket was not hanging outside the car, the officer asserts, but was an old one resting on his car's dashboard.

Schimmel and Clark Hobbs, secretary of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce were the only ones of the 10 delegates at Round Table 116 to favor federal aid only for the less wealthy states.

Dr. John Norton, Columbia University professor of education, who presided over the discussion, said it would be "very dangerous" to provide federal aid for only the poorer states.

"If we give federal aid to only 10 or 12 states, the rest of the states will be calling them pauper states," he said.

Schimmel said that in Michigan the richer counties do not "look down" upon those counties which require more state aid money for school upkeep.

In the new federation, AFL President George Meany will be the $35,000 a year head of the combined unions. CIO President Walter Reuther will supervise the newly formed Industrial Union Department with Carey as its secretary-treasurer. The present CIO will make up the new department.

Thus the present official set-up will be preserved, in an AFL setting. Tomorrow, both the AFL and CIO conventions are expected to approve a blanket resolution to implement labor unity.

It will embrace the merger agreement, a much-worked-over constitution and arrangments for pooling of funds and property and a mass of other details.

The newly-burgeoned AFL - CIO starts its first convention Monday.

President Eisenhower will talk to the convention over a telephone hook-up from Gettysburg, Pa. Adlai Stevenson and New York Gov. Averell Harriman will be later speakers.

Service for Melbourne John Kirkland, 67, of 1310 Lake Angelus Shores, Pontiac, will be at 3 p.m. Friday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. A Birmingham resident until four years ago, Mr. Kirkland died Monday following a brief illness while visiting in Huntsville, Ont.

One of the original teachers at Cass Technical High School, Detroit, Mr. Kirkland had taught architectural and mechanical drawing there. He had been with the body engineering department of Chrysler Corp. until his retirement last spring.

He was also a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the American Society of Automotive Engineers. His sole survivor is his widow, Isabel M., district operator of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in Mt. Clemens.

Ruinous Return

COLDWATER (AP)—Retired Railroad Engineer Clarence Cox, 70, got back in touch with railroading the hard way. His car was demolished when it skidded into a New York Central passenger train at a Coldwater crossing. However, Cox escaped without a scratch.

Truck-Trailer Involved in Five-Hour Accident

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Most traffic accidents happen fast. But it took five hours for L. O. Wilson's big trailer truck to overturn.

Wilson had a blowout and pulled onto the road shoulder to change the tire. But one side of the trailer began sinking into the soft dirt.

Wilson sat back and watched as the big trailer, over a five-hour period, settled on its side "as gently as if you had laid it down with your hands."

Tobacco Usage Climbs

BONN — During the first six months of 1955 Western Germany consumed about 92,700,000 pounds of tobacco, an increase of 5½ per cent from the total consumed during the like period of 1954.

Vending Sales Rise

NEW YORK — Some 1½ billion dollars' worth of merchandise was sold by vending machines in the United States during 1954. Sales in 1955 are expected to total 1.7 billion. In 1945, when the industry was young, some $600,000,000 worth of merchandise was sold through the coin-operated machines.

Policeman Drives Car —He Has the Accident

DETROIT (AP)—Patrolman John Pedric, walking a beat, saw Buster L. Goff screech his car around a corner, driving erratically.

Stopping him, Pedrie said, "You've been drinking. Move over and I'll drive to the police station. If you keep on, you'll have an accident."

Pedrie then crashed into the rear of a car while en route.

"The brakes didn't work," he said at the police station. "You have to pump them a little," said Goff.

Goff got 10 days in jail for drunk driving while Pedrie got the job of filling out forms necessary before the city can pay $40 damages to the car he hit.

Alvin Elliot, local 526 president, said a meeting has been scheduled with management for this afternoon to iron out differences.

Apartment Damage Repairs Completed

An apartment building at 4 Liberty St., damaged when an explosion occurred in a private home next door Aug. 15, is now reoccupied, owner Samuel Messing said.

Official Seeks Aid for Deserted Wives

WASHINGTON (AP) — Social Security Commissioner Charles I. Schottland has urged the creation of organized programs to meet such family crises as divorce, desertion or marital discord.

In a speech prepared for the American Public Welfre Assn. Schottland said:

"We do relatively little, in relation to the importance and extent of the problem involved, to strengthen family life through organized programs.

"With due respect for all of the activities of our churches, schools, welfare agencies, family counselors and others interested in strengthening family life, the average man or woman facing a family crisis . . . does not have available a scaled service to aid in such crisis at the time it is most urgently needed."

Schottland said "a man who absconds with $50 of his employer's money will cause more activity on the part of law enforcement officials than a man who deserts his wife and children."

AFL-CIO Merger Near

December 1 and 5 are red letter days for the Nation's organized workers.

On the first of the month the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organization convene separately in New York in what are destined to be their last conventions.

Scheduled for next Monday in the metropolis is the merger convention of these two great labor federations. The result will be the welding together of the AFL's 109 national and international unions and the CIO's 32. Total membership in the new AFL-CIO federation will be about 15,000,000.

A declared goal of the merger is to eliminate rivalries, feuds and bickering between unions in quest of new members and to strengthen the organized labor movement by adding millions of new members.

AFL President George Meany is scheduled to head the new federation with CIO President Walter P. Reuther slated for a vice presidency and member of the executive board.

All preconvention indications point to ratification of the merger. It is highly probable, however, that final approval will not come without long debate. For the first time in 20 years the Nation's trade unions will be affiliated in a single federation.

Labor's political and economical power will be increased greatly. This, in turn, imposes on the leadership a vastly greater obligation to display real statesmanship in the exercise of that power.

Second Streamlining Urged for Congress

Dr. George B. Galloway is an expert on Congress.

Back in 1946 he was staff director of the LaFollette-Monroney Joint Committee which drafted and pushed through to enactment a drastic reorganization of our national Legislature.

Under it the number of Congressional standing committees was reduced from 81 to 34. At the time it was agreed that in the interests of efficiency no member of Congress should serve on more than two committees.

The National Planning Association which led the 1946 campaign for streamlining, thinks it is time to do the job over again. Moreover, in a persuasive report made for it by Dr. Galloway it presents some convincing facts.

Before the 1946 reorganization, Congress had a total of 230 committees of all kinds. Today there are 235 such committees and what the report calls a multiplication of standing subcommittees to a total of 187. Fifty-five of these have been added in the last three years.

The report makes out a strong case against Congress running the District of Columbia and handling private immigration and naturalization cases. Also proposed is the holding of joint instead of separate Senate and House hearings on the same problems.

Finally, the report sensibly attacks the seniority rule under which committee chairmanships are awarded on a length of service basis only, and the undemocratic Senate filibuster.

Over the years the workload of Congress has been increasing steadily with the country's growth. Another streamlining to promote greater efficiency seems to be the only means of enabling the lawmakers to keep up with their work.

Baghdad Pact Defensive

The world's newest alliance known as the Baghdad pact, came into official existence during a two day meeting in the historic capital city of Iraq.

Present at the sessions were representatives of the participating nations—Iraq, Iran, Turkey, Pakistan and Britain. Representatives of the United States were there in the capacity of friendly observers.

The meeting was made possible when Iran joined the alliance a month ago. Strictly defensive in nature, it forms a connecting link between the NATO nations on the west and SEATO nations in the Far East.

These five contracting nations are more involved with the Arab-Israeli dispute than the Russians. Yet the compact they entered into obviously is designed as a defense measure against Soviet expansionism.

The menace to them from the north has been increased by Russia's arms deals with Egypt and other evidence of Soviet economic penetration. That, of course, is akin to political penetration. Bulganin and Khrushchev, who have been touring India, are to visit Afghanistan where Russian influence is growing, and there is talk of a Czech arms deal with that country.

Now It's Official

Passenger Service Is to Be Canceled by Railway

Marriage: A mutual arrangement where he usually is the mute.

Dec. 31 is the final day on which passenger service will be operated on the Grand Trunk Railway divisions between Pontiac and Caseville and Pontiac and Richmond. Permission for the discontinuance has been given by the which finds that the railway is correct in its claim that there no longer is any public necessity or convenience for the service. Thus ends a railway service that has been in operation for around two-thirds of a century. The auto age did it.

I have it direct from

Ralph Florio,

is numbered among the features of Pontiac's new City Hall. It is a co-operative proposition.

A Press reporter recently encountered a pile of cardboard boxes in the basement of the courthouse. With his nose for news twitching, he peered at the label on the topmost container. It was addressed to our new who takes office Jan. 1. Then the reporter glanced at the container's side and was startled to see the word "Fifths," and a picture of three whisky bottles. Further investigation revealed, however, that the box held law books being shipped in by the county to stock the library in the judge's courtroom.

"We hope we can find standing room on the line of march Saturday," writes of Utica, who says she has "brought the kids" to Pontiac's Christmas parade for many years. This time she has made advance arrangements on parking.

Mrs. Burridge Bainbridge

Pontiac Press delivery boy when he was in the seventh and eighth grades in the Oxford school was retiring captain of the University of Michigan football team. He is a native of Oxford, and starred in most every line of sports when in high school. Now 21 years of age, he finishes his present course at Ann Arbor next spring, and will enroll again for further study in medicine. Ed is the son of of Oxford, who also have a daughter in the University of Notre Dame.

Obey That Signal

David Lawrence Says:

True American Foreign Policy Opposes Ever-Present Concession to Expediency

WASHINGTON—Defeatism and appeasement, with their tragic indifference to morality and idealism, may well have run their course in the debate over American foreign policy.

For the choice between the alternative courses of action now is becoming clear as voters in both political parties are taking an interest in what the U.S. should do in its relation to the rest of the world.

COURSE NUMBER ONE—Implies the U.S. must fight a war with Russia to secure objectives by military power.

It has been rejected by the thoughtful elements of both parties. There are, of course, reckless and irresponsible spokesmen on the Democratic side who have misrepresented American policy — insisting the administration was pledged to "liberate" the satellites by force.

Military force is unnecessary because moral force will accomplish the liberation of the captive peoples in due time.

COURSE NUMBER TWO—Amounts to appeasement and surrender. It also has been rejected by leaders of both parties.

There are influences seeking to "compromise" or to make "deals" with Russia. Much of this view comes from shortsighted Europeans who think it is possible to "deal" with evil governments and unscrupulous leaders. Some Americans, including a few big business men who think isolationism is less expensive taxwise, favor going on bended knees to the Russians and offering them control of Europe in exchange for "Letting America Alone." "Peace at Any Price" is not popular except among those who still are duped by the Soviet strategy of terror.

COURSE NUMBER THREE—Might be described as the truly American course. It calls for firmness, patience, and independence with devotion to moral principle instead of a craven policy of constant concessions to expediency.

This course means building up the nation's armament to keep pace with any rival. It means keeping the armed services alert and ready to meet sudden attack. It means also a willingness to stand on principle and wait out the other side's tactics without flinching. It means a sensible program and military aid on a concentrated basis.

HERE'S THE CHOICE

The choice America will have to make is between moral force and economic force, on the one hand, and military force on the other. Misguided Democrats, who seem to enjoy blaming the U.S. for Soviet aggression, present a paradox. They favor soft measures on Communist infiltration inside America. Conversely, they favor a tough course in dealing with the Kremlin.

Nothing could help the Republicans more than to thresh out these inconsistent positions in a political battle against a party that belittles its own government, attempts to needle it into war while treating Communists and their sympathizers in this country as heroic examples of "dissent."

America is in a position to use moral influence to build unity in Europe and strengthen the Western alliance. It isn't the Russians who can defeat American objectives. The danger lies in American disunity and submission to "fifth column" tactics which are aided by well-intentioned persons who keep calling for softer treatment of the Communists.

Time, patience, moral courage and careful husbanding of economic resources can win the "Cold War" for the West and bring freedom to millions of oppressed peoples living under the despotism of the Soviet regime.

Happiness of Growing Old Requires Giving to Others

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Continuing to learn and grow is the obligation of an individual who senses his own significance in life. Making a contribution to your family and your community one of the secrets of growing older happily.

That contribution may be active or passive but it will be apparent to you and to your associates.

Sometimes the finest service an individual can make to those about him is simply to be a constant example of cheerfulness, temperance and alertness to the needs of others.

In short the model senior citizen could be a person toward whom the younger members of the family and the community may look with recognition that growing older is a fine and rewarding experience.

Easy to say, isn't it? But how can you achieve it?

Perhaps by careful study and daily practice. Isn't the charm of young children partly their continuing curiosity about the world? How can a man stop wondering with so many worlds yet uncharted?

SIT AND BEMOAN

Must we sit and bemoan our personal infirmities so long as there is a breath left in us with which to support and stimulate our companions?

You can learn to play the piano at seventy. By daily reading you can learn to understand the psychology of children and adolescents.

How many homes would be much happier if the folks there, old and young, had studied with care the problems of adolescents, 1955?

Say you are sixty-five and your daughter-in-law is forty-five. Have you forgotten? If so, the public libraries will provide endless material on her present problems, so you can have a fellow-feeling she will love you for.

BATTLES JUNGLE

Your son-in-law goes out daily to battle an asphalt jungle you never knew in your fighting days. Study it. He will return your sympathy and understanding with ten-fold respect.

And if it's all too much for your failing energy, there is at hand medical and psychiatric help to adjust your sights and offer you the energy you used to know.

Your days can be joyous and easy-going and never dark or difficult. Try them!

Anyway here's something sensible you can do with the aging problem: Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

Scout Council President Commends United Fund

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

As a delegate to the 33rd Convention of the Girl Scout National Council, held in San Francisco Nov. 1 to 4, I had the opportunity to talk with and listen to delegates from Girl Scouts all over the United States.

Some councils, in communities with no United Fund, must struggle to raise their own funds, rarely making their goals. Other councils receive supplemental help from United Fund organizations. All too few are in the same position as we are, financially supported by the community through a strong United Fund organization.

In appreciation for making our program possible, our council aims to create good citizens, thereby repaying the community.

May we say "thank you" to the Pontiac Area United Fund and to all the generous people who live in our communities.

Arline Lally, president
Northern Oakland
Girl Scout Council

Mrs. Younce Considers UF Slogan Very Unfair

There have been complaints about so many organizations directing their own charity drives instead of joining the United Fund.

As for myself, I don't like the idea of the UF and I consider their slogan "Give Once For All" very unfair. They know that the major charities in this county have never joined them. In fact, the UF is made up for the most part of local charities.

When Christmas Seals, Easter Seals and other worthwhile drives are on, I gladly give them my contribution. Two or three dollars at a time, I don't miss too much, but if I had to give to them all at once, I couldn't afford it. Many other families have this same problem.

Even if every organization were to join the UF, the larger charities would suffer, because they wouldn't get as much money as they do now in their independent drives. I read of such a case in Detroit, so this isn't just my opinion.

Please don't gripe when you get your Christmas Seals. Just give what you can.

Mrs. J. Richard Younce
232 Florawood

Editor's Note: Mrs. Younce has been misinformed when she says major charities in this country have never joined the United Fund. She has also been misinformed when she says "the UF is made up for the most part of local charities." The local chest embraces fourteen organizations and the United Fund covers those fourteen and thirty-one others.

Smiles

A judge called marriage a lottery. That's the trouble with it—too many people want another chance.

Hal Boyle Says:

Courteous Fans in Japan Surprise Gil McDougald

NEW YORK (AP) — Gil McDougald, the distinguished young New York Yankee infielder, has returned from a goodwill baseball safari to Japan in top condition except for a bad case of writer's cramp.

"Everybody in Japan is baseball-crazy — from kids to old men," he marveled. "They play it day and night all the year round. And every fan seems to be an autograph collector.

"One day I looked out my hotel window and saw a businessman playing catch during the lunch hour on the roof of the building across the street. He must have been 60 years old."

The Yankees, who dropped the 1955 World Series to the Brooklyn Dodgers, did considerably better against Japanese ball clubs. They won all but one of their 20 games and that ended in a 1-to-1 tie, called after the 10th inning on account of darkness.

As a matter of fact, one of the pleasantest things about the trip to the Yankees was that the Japanese, who are the soul of courtesy, never mentioned "Brooklyn" or "Dodgers" once.

"I never saw fans so polite," observed Gil. "They never hooted us a single time.

"The stands were completely quiet — almost like a morgue — until the Japanese team started a rally or a Yankee hit a home run. Then they'd go wild."

The Yankees found the national pastime of Japan essentially the same as the American national pastime except the Japanese play on an all-dirt field and use a slightly lighter and smaller ball.

"You can't knock it as far, and that bothered us a little," admitted McDougald.

He gave this assessment of Japanese big league play:

"They are fine in the infield, but seem to lack throwing strength from the outfield. The fans were particularly impressed by the way Hank Bauer could pick up a line drive to right field and throw and catch the runner at first.

"At bat the Japanese try too hard to powerhouse the ball instead of depending on coordination."

But the most mysterious thing he found in the way baseball is played in the mysterious East was the pitching.

"They use a hesitation balk," he said. "It was our biggest problem. The pitcher slows up at all stages of his windup, and depends on his windup to deceive the batter rather than on the spin or the speed of the ball. And every two or three innings the pitcher, worn out by his windup, would be replaced by a new pitcher."

An American pitcher, when he is relieved during a tense game, goes right to the showers, then hurries home to pick a quarrel with his wife—or kick his dog around.

"But when a Japanese pitcher is jerked," said McDougald, "He goes to the sidelines and pitches warmup balls for another 15 minutes. I suppose he does it to save face in front of the crowd. Anyway, nobody boos him."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Most Normal Couples Have Children After Following Outlined Principles

If Hannah could have anticipated our modern knowledge of the "rhythm theory" she would have been saved many years of anxiety and heartache. Only in the past 25 years have we medics known the facts explained below, so scrapbook this case record or mail it to your married children, especially if this column doesn't run in their town.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-310: Hannah, the Biblical mother of Samuel had been apparently sterile for many years of marriage.

When she finally made her vow to God and relaxed, then she became pregnant.

We physicians often see a somewhat similar result when wives fret and brood and grow tense and fearful because they can't have a baby.

If they finally relax and adopt a youngster, then their body seems to function normally, and often they get pregnant soon afterwards.

If medical examinations reveal that both the wife and husband are organically normal, but they still have had no children, then the following facts may remedy the trouble.

First of all, we now know that conception in the human female seems to occur on approximately the 15th day before her next monthly period.

A generation ago we thought it was the 13th day from the start of her last period, but that holds true only for a 28-day cycle.

Many women are on 30 to 35 or even 42-day cycles. So the new viewpoint pertains to the next onset.

Since many medical researchers in this field believe the ovum (egg) may not be capable of fertilization for more than 12 to 24 hours after it ruptures free from the ovary, and since they believe the sperm cells may lose their capacity to fertilize the ovum in anywhere from 6 to 24 hours, then it is possible that a short (possibly 6 hour) interval in the entire month may be the only time a wife can conceive.

This narrow time-span may thus be missed purely by chance alone throughout many years of marriage.

But the use of the principles previously outlined have caused hundreds of wives to tell me:

"Dr. Crane, we've been married for 18 years and I had never become pregnant even once, until I used the new medical facts which you have outlined.

"But I conceived the very next month, and now we are looking forward with delight to our first baby.

RHYTHM THEORY

The "rhythm theory" is thus based on this new idea that conception takes place on the 15th day prior to the onset of the next period.

An extra three days are usually set off on each side of that 15th day, thus constituting the "pregnancy week."

During this week a wife is most likely to conceive. Outside of this week, the normally functioning woman seldom will do so.

Since children help stabilize a home and also keep the parents younger, it is wise to start your family soon after marriage. The second year is an excellent time for the first heir to arrive.

And have your babies in pairs, spaced 18 to 24 months apart, so they will socialize each other and be pals.

And don't worry about having babies in your late 30s or early 40s. Since modern surgery is so excellent, it makes little difference how old the mother is.

The birth process for the first baby averages about 18 hours, but drops to 12 hours for the second.

For further data, send for the booklet "Facts About Pregnancy," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Jets Appear in Commercial Travel

By DAVID L. BOWEN
AP Feature Writer

Jet propulsion, which long ago replaced internal combustion engines in high-speed military aircraft, has started a similar sweep among the deluxe fleets of the commercial aviation industry.

Pan American World Airways and United Air Lines announced orders last month for 75 pure jet airliners costing a total of 444 million dollars.

Although the announcements were heralded as the dawn of a new era in commercial air transportation, these jet planes will not be in use for another two years at the very earliest. Actually, however, jet propulsion is already in the civil aviation picture, and has been there since 1953. Seven airlines around the world—including Capital Airlines in the United States—are now flying jet planes on commercial routes.

The planes now in service by all these airlines are Vickers-Armstrong Viscounts, a British-built plane which utilizes a jet turbine to turn a standard propeller. This combination is known variously as a jet turbo-prop or a prop jet. Some 275 Viscounts have been sold or are on order. As the accompanying map shows, Europe is literally saturated by prop jet routes and the Viscouts are being flown in Canada, the United States, the Middle East and Australia.

CAPITAL FIRST TO BUY

Capital Airlines became the first U.S. airline in history to place a large order for a foreign-built plane when it agreed to pay 67 million dollars for a fleet of 60 Vicounts. Three are now in operation between Washington and Chicago, with a stop at Pittsburgh. As additional planes are received Capital will put them to work throughout its Midwest and Southern territory. All 60 are expected to be in service by the end of next year.

Trans-Canada Airlines also is flying Vicounts into the United States on routes touching down at New York, Cleveland and Chicago.

Prop jet service will be started next month by British Overseas Airways and its affiliate, British West Indian Airways, between New York and Bermuda, Miami and the Bahamas, and among the islands of the Caribbean.

The Viscounts, while they have given Britain a headstart in commercial jet production, do not have sufficient range to handle the long transcontinental or transocean non-stop flights. They have proved successful in shorter routes because of economy of operation and smoother flight.

JETS REPLACE PROPS

The long non-stop hauls are the field where jet propulsion will next start replacing reciprocating engines. In this market, U.S. aircraft companies have now stolen the lead from Britain. Three years ago England was far in front with its government-subsidized Comets, pure jet airliners capable of 500 m.p.h. The Comets, however, were grounded after two tragic accidents which exhaustive tests showed were caused by metal fatigue. The Comet IV, correcting the faulty design, is now being built but won't be ready for service until late 1958.

By this time Pan America will begin receiving the first of 20 pure jets it has on order from Boeing. Already flight tested and in production for the Air Force as tanker, planes, the Boeing 707 has a range of 5,000 miles and will cruise at above 550 m.p.h.

Pan American also has ordered 25 pure jet DC8s from the Douglas Aircraft Company. These planes, equipped with powerful J75 jet engines, will have a range slightly longer than the Boeing models. They are expected to be in use on Pan Ams worldwide routes by 1961.

United, unlike Pan American, put all its money on the DC8, ordering 30 of them with delivery promised to start by November of 1959. National Airlines also has contracted to buy six of the DC8s.

A $100 million loan has been made to develop Peru's Toquepala copper project.

About 3,500 Americans have glider flying licenses.

Disclaim the St. Nick of New York Subways

NEW YORK (INS)—Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus on the subways of New York—but he better not stay there.

A man in the familiar white beard and red suit has been jovially shaking a collection box at subway patrons and doing quite nicely, thanks.

But the Volunteers of America disclaim him, the Salvation Army knows him not and the Welfare Department has no record of him.

It seems this Santa is working for himself.

Cleaver Victim Dies Without Seeing New Son

DETROIT (AP) — Noory Jablway died yesterday without seeing his two-month-old son whom he wanted so badly.

Jablway was struck down by a cleaver - wielding robber four months ago in a grocery store in which her worked. Jablway, 49, had been in a coma since. He has three other children from 16 months to 4 years old.

"He always wanted a boy," said his wife, "and now he will never know." Police still are looking for the robber.

Selection Settled by Summerfield

McCarthy's Choice for Wisconsin Post Office Position Replaced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The snafu over the appointment of an acting postmaster at Appleton, Wis., the home of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), has apparently been settled.

Postmaster General Summerfield, who usually does not figure publicly in such matters, announced this week the job will be filled temporarily by Edward R. Pirner, Appleton's assistant postmaster.

But preceding Summerfield's announcement this series of events took place:

McCarthy's office announced routinely last week that Thomas Miller, 57, had been appointed the acting postmaster. McCarthy had recommended him to replace the present postmaster, Stephen D. Balliet, who is retiring.

Wisconsin newsmen then discovered that Miller, a former tavern keeper, has a record of two convictions for violating state gambling laws and one for violating the Federal Prohibition Act.

On Monday a Post Office Department spokesman who declined use of his name told a reporter that contrary to the announcement from McCarthy's office, Miller had not been appointed.

Summerfield said Miller "lacks the minimum requirements established by the Civil Service Commission and the Post Office Department for such appointements."

In Wisconsin, Al Zupek, Republican chairman of Outagamie County in which Appleton is located, said his unit—with the approval of McCarthy and Rep. Byrnes (R-Wis)—had submitted to Summerfield a recommendation for acting postmaster.

Zupek said he had "no reason to believe" the newest candidate would not be acceptable. "He is a good Republican . . . " Zupek said but he declined to name the man.

McCarthy and Miller had no comment.

Suspect School Arson

U.S. 'Frightened'

LOS ANGELES (INS) — A noted Chicago psychologist, worried about the upbringing of future generations, believes that Americans are a "generation of frightened people" Dr. Rudolf Dreikurs, a professor at the Chicago Medical School, said in Los Angeles: "As we emerge from a fear-ridden autocratic society, we are still too fearful to respond to the freedom and demands of a democratic society."

Limit Scotch Whisky?

LONDON (INS)—Scotch whiskey distillers are seriously worried about Britain's recent long, dry summer. An official of the Scotch Whiskey Association said that seven years from now there will probably be a shortage of good Scotch because the dry weather has caused a drying up of the Speyside burns (brooks.) The burn water is used in making Scotch.

The Wakefield post got this application:

Nehru Avows 'Neutral Friendship'

By EUGENE LEVIN

CALCUTTA, India (AP) —With the Soviet Union's two top leaders listening, Prime Minister Nehru said Tuesday the world needn't fear that his Russian guest will draw India into the Communist bloc.

He told an enormous crowd, here to welcome Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party Secretary Nikita Khrushchev, that India is sticking to its "basic policy" of not joining any "camp or alliance."

WE ARE FRIENDLY

Then in an apparent reference to the blasts against the West by Khrushchev and Bulganin in previous speeches in India, Nehru declared:

"We try to be friendly with all countries whether we agree with them or not. That is the reason why we refrain from criticizing other countries, even when we disagree with their policies, unless circumstances compel us to explain our viewpoint."

Millions of wildly enthusiastic Indians packed Calcutta's streets and parks to greet the two Kremlin chiefs. The turnout was believed the greatest in India since the funeral of the late Mohandas K. Gandhi.

ALARMED OTHERS

Thousands upon thousands had trekked hundreds of miles from Bihar and the interior of West Bengal.

Nehru in his speech conceded that "the great welcome our guests have had in India has alarmed some of our friends in other countries, who can not help thinking in terms of rival camps and military alliances."

"I have often said that we do not propose to join any camp or alliances," he declared. "That is our basic policy."

Speaking just before Nehru, Khrushchev also took note of the Western apprehension.

REPEATS SUPPORT

"Indian-Soviet friendship is not to the liking of certain circles in certain countries," he asserted. "They are trying to wreck it. We realize why. They are afraid that the friendship will consolidate peace in the world."

The Soviet party boss repeated support he had voiced earlier for India's campaign to get Portuguese India away from the Lisbon government. Nehru thanked Khrushchev for this remark and called on the rest of the world to follow the Russian example by stating publicly "how they stand on this issue."

On the whole, however, Khrushchev's speech was mild and without the strong attacks on the West he and Bulganin had made earlier. Observers assumed he had toned down his remarks because Nehru was on the platform.

'Not Me, Officer, but He,' Both Held in Elk Killing

CHEBOYGAN (AP)—Two hunters who told conservation officers they mistook a bull elk for a deer accused each other of killing the animal. Officers said both men fired at the elk.

Both were bound over on $100 bond for trial in the January term of Cheboygan County Circuit Court. They were Leo Arnold, 43, of Plymouth, a building contractor, and Donald Johnson, 20, of Northville, a utility worker.

Red Government Reports Passage of Abortion Law

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government today announced legalization of abortions.

The action reversed a law nearly 20 years old under which this type of operation was strictly forbidden.

Today's law requires that abortions be carried out only in hospitals and other medical institutions. It explained that "the abolition of the prohibition against abortions provides the possibility of avoiding the harm caused women by abortions carried out outside institutions for medical care."

The Bolshevik government shortly after the 1917 Revolution legalized abortions. Then in 1936 this type of operation was outlawed in the Soviet Union. Abortions were nevertheless widespread despite the law.

Pulaski Club Records No Polish Members

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The first Pulaski Club, established here about 1779, has no Polish members. According to local tradition, the club was founded soon after a visit by General Casimar Pulaski.

Reputed to be the oldest social club in America, its members still meet at the Cole Shop on Duke of Gloucester Street. Now a book shop, the Taliaferro-Cole Shop was built prior to 1782 and bought in 1804 by Jesse Cole who operated it as an apothecary, post office and general store. The inner sanctum of the back room was given over to members of the Pulaski Club.

Membership was not lightly won. Men of leisure with a thorough knowledge of local affairs and talent as conversationalists might sit on the fringes in the outer shop for months — even years according to legend—waiting patiently until their presence was recognized.

Every fine afternoon the club still meets on the benches in front of the shop.

Virginia Moves on Integration

Northern Bloc Attempts to Hamper Legislation Against Mixed Schools

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A move aimed at delaying a state constitutional convention appeared on the brink of collapse today as the Virginia Legislature moved ahead with plans to revise the state's educational policies.

A northern Virginia bloc remained hopeful it could muster sufficient votes to hold up the proposed convention, but forces favoring the amendment of the state constitution were more confident than ever they would beat the attempt.

The convention would amend the Virginia constitution to permit the state to provide tuition grants to parents who wish to avoid sending their children to integrated schools. The grants would pay the admission cost to private schools.

The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled against segregation in the public schools.

COURT HAS RULED

A seven-hour public hearing that began yesterday afternoon and ended at midnight produced a turnout of some 50 speakers who suggested various solutions to the school problem.

The commission members felt public schools should be maintained, said David Mays, attorney for the commission.

At the same time, Mays warned that residents of southside Virginia were ready to abandon public schools rather than permit integration of white and Negro pupils.

Interests of Workers Differ, Mitchell Says

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell says the interests of the farmer are almost indistinguishable from the interests of the industrial worker.

He told the Consumers Cooperative Assn. convention last night, "It is to the eventual benefit of everyone when the purchasing power of workers is enlarged through wage increases."

Mitchell's remarks appeared to differ somewhat with an opinion voiced by Secretary of Agriculture Benson. Benson said recently increased labor costs have boosted the prices of things farmers must buy, thus complicating rather than helping solve the farm problems.

Evacuation Plan Subject of Talks

Traffic Flow Problems to Be Examined by Civil Defense Officials

A group of Oakland County transportation and civil defense officials will meet with other regional representatives in Detroit next week to work out a traffic-control plan for evacuation of the metropolitan area in case of enemy attack.

The meetings will be held Monday through Friday at the Detroit Artillery Armory, 15000 W. Eight Mile Rd., Oak Park, according to County Civil Defense Director Lewis C. Jarrendt.

Officials will attend from Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Washtenaw, Monroe, St. Clair and Livingston Counties plus Detroit city, Jarrendt explained.

County delegates will include Theodore M. Vanderstempel, Pontiac traffic engineer; Harold C Bird, of the Pontiac Western Union office; Birmingham Police Lt. Delyle Service and Hazel Park CD Director William P. Walker.

Others will be County Plan and Road Commission Highway Engineer Robert A. Larson; Walter Graves, of the sheriff's department; John D. Schilling, of the local Grand Trunk office and Jarrendt.

Speakers will include C. F. VanBlankensteyn, state CD director; J. Russell Prior and Thomas Stack, of the Federal Civil Defense Administration; Roscoe Hefron, of the State Highway Department; Sgt. Donald E. Oates, of the State Police and Robert W. Smith, of the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Telegraph Moms March With S-D Signboards

DETROIT (AP)—A group of mothers in suburban Taylor Township today armed themselves with "Safe Driving Day" placards in their battle to obtain a traffic light at a Telegraph Road (U.S. 24) crossing.

The mothers have been blockading at intervals the intersection at Telegraph and Cypress roads. They claimed the State Highway Department has failed to provide adequate protection for school buses.

England's forestry commissioners report 70,400 acres planted in trees in 12 months.

MANNERLY MONKEY — "Chipper," an owl-faced monkey, didn't waste any time in picking up mealtime maneuvers and manners, U. S. style. Since becoming a pet of the Arthur Lebeaus of Holyoke, Mass., she has learned how to handle a knife, fork and spoon. So the Central American monkey has won a spot at the dinner table.

Many Meat Item Prices Are Sliced This Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

You'll find attractive prices on almost any kind of meat you want in food stores this weekend.

Beef items will be prominently featured, with prime ribs and chuck roast getting particular attention. Numerous stores plan to offer sirloin and porterhouse steaks at lower prices.

Pork continues on the bargain counter. Some markets will drop pork chop prices by several cents a pound and there will be specials on pork loins. Stores will have fresh pork shoulder, smoked hams and sliced bacon as weekend attractions.

Legs of lamb will be featured, and lamb chops will be cut in price in some areas. There will be good buys in frying chickens.

Some meat specialists say beef's a good buy. The average price of choice beef cuts has been about 67 cents a pound.

Beef is one of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's good buys for December, but the list is led by pork.

Also on the list of plentiful foods are turkeys, broilers and fryers, potatoes, apples, cranberries, sweet potatoes, grapefruit, winter pears, grapes, diary products, dates, lard, canned tuna and vegetable fats and oils.

The wholesale produce markets say that your best buys in vegetables are potatoes, onions, turnips, eggplant, greens and radishes. Reasonably priced are old and new crop cabbage, cucumbers, escarole, endive, broccoli, peppers, spinach, squash, beets, small-size cauliflower and iceberg lettuce.

Celery, large-size cauliflower and big Boston lettuce are rated as moderately priced. Bunched carrots went up rather sharply at the wholesale level this week and topped carrots advanced slightly. Corn is in light supply.

Apples are going at reasonable prices. Limes, oranges and grapefruit are good buys in citrus. Tangerine prices are lower.

Smoking Abets Lung Disease

Doctors' Survey Shows Cigarettes Aggravate Pulmonary Emphysema

BOSTON (AP)—Four physicians reported today they believe there is an association between cigarette smoking and pulmonary emphysema—an unnatural swelling and rupture of the tiny air sacs in the lungs.

Reporting at the ninth clinical meeting of the American Medical Assn., the physicians said the illness is a relatively common lung disorder and "since it causes a great deal of disability and may even be fatal, smoking may even be more hazardous than has been hitherto recognized."

The report was by Drs. Francis C. Lowell, William Franklin, Alan L. Michelson and Irving W. Schiller, all from the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals.

They said they studied 40 patients with chronic obstructive pulmonary emphysema, none had shown unusual lung symptoms before the age of 40 and none had other diseases which could account for their symptoms.

All of them had been heavy smokers of cigarettes, the doctors said, adding that "interesting points for speculation" was the discovery among these patients of 10 cases of peptic ulcer and two of lung cancer.

The physicians said the association of smoking with emphysema "cannot be explained on the basis of chance," since a survey of a similar population without the disease indicated that 100 per cent incidence of smoking among their more than 40 patients would not be expected unless there was an actual connection between smoking and the disease.

Use of Gas Soars as Mercury Drops

Warmth-seeking natural gas users established a new 24-hour record when they burned up over 443 million cubic feet of the fuel during the first day of the cold snap this week, Consumers Power Co. officials said yesterday.

The record consumption figure was compiled between 9 a.m. Monday and 9 a.m. the next day, according to President Dan E. Karn. The previous high was set January 26, 1955, when consumers used 382 million cubic feet.

The company supplies natural gas to more than 400,000 users in some 200 outstate communities, principally in suburban Detroit, Pontiac, Flint, Lansing, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Saginaw and Bay City.

Ike Discussing Budget, National Security Today

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower swings from the general welfare to the security of the nation today in conferences that take him from his Gettysburg office to the well-guarded seclusion of Camp David.

Budget matters were first on today's schedule. The President arranged a meeting with Budget Director Rowland Hughes and Cabinet member Marion B. Folsom to discuss 1956-57 financing of Folsom's Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Eisenhower planned to leave later for Camp David in the Catoctin Mountains, where the National Security Council will assemble for its second meeting in two weeks.

The White House says there is no particular crisis, but that Eisenhower just wanted to attend today's NSC meeting and wasn't ready to return to Washington for it.

Ike Greets Sir Winston With Medallion on 81st

LONDON (INS)—Britain's grand old man and 20th century hero cut a huge birthday cake for his family yesterday on his 81st birthday.

Sir Winston Churchill, wartime prime minister, was deluged with gifts and messages from all over the world.

President Eisenhower announced that through the U.S. Ambassador, Winthrop Aldrich, he had sent a special gold medallion and personal letter "as a token of America's enduring gratitude" for Churchill's statesmanship.

Churchill issued a statement that he had received more greetings "from friends known and unknown to me" than he could ever answer personally.

"I hope therefore," he said, "that everyone who has been so kind to remember my anniversary will know how much pleasure it has given me to receive their good wishes, how highly I value their thought of me, and trust they will excuse me if I do not send them thanks in writing."

Members of the royal family, Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and others sent greetings.

Eisenhower sent a gold medallion as a "token of American gratitude' for the former British prime minister's inspiring efforts in the quest for world peace.

KEEPING UP WITH DEMAND — Emergency school rooms are carted by truck to a site near Miami Beach where needed in Florida's program to increase school facilities.

Indiana Toll Road Expects Cars by Thanksgiving '56

INDIANAPOLIS (INS)—Indiana Toll Road Commission officials said recently that the world's safest toll road, connecting Chicago with the Ohio pay road, will be in operation before Thanksgiving, 1956.

The new 156-mile superhighway, across northern Indiana which will cost about $280 million, will be the final link in a Chicago-New York tollway. The oher stretches are over the turnpikes of Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Also, Indiana Governor George N. Craig, who is perhaps the most enthusiastic pay road proponent in the nation, already has directed the Toll Road Commission to plan a north-south toll road through Indiana from Chicago, probably to Louisville, Ky., to be a part eventually of a Chicago-to-Miami pay route.

Albert J. Wedeking, executive director of the Indiana Toll Road Commission, contended that the Indiana east-west toll road will be the safest in the world because of the following improvements, many not included in older turnpikes:

Elimination of all grade level crossing with overpasses and underpasses.

GRADUAL CURVES

A 56-foot-wide median or dividing strip between the dual lanes to prevent head-on collisions and reduce headlight glare.

Paved blacktop shoulders.

A gradual curve at least every two miles to prevent monotonous driving and driver drowsiness.

A heavy-duty 10-inch reinforced concrete pavement, comparing with the conventional state design of seven to nine inches.

Elimination of the need for any left turns.

A minimum sight distance of 900 feet.

Construction of all curves to an absolute limit of three degrees and whenever practical of two and one-half degrees.

Prohibition of any advertising media such as signboards from the right-of-way and immediate adjacent territory to prevent distraction of motorists.

A fenced-in right-of-way that will prevent entry of domestic and game animals.

A 300-feet-wide right-of-way all along the route except in the heavily populated industrialized areas of Gary and Hammond where much of the road will be elevated on steel structures.

Road de-icing equipment at all toll plazas to permit smooth starting and stopping during the winter months.

State legislators and officials affiliated with the Indiana Republican faction of Sen. William E. Jenner and Democrats were defeated by Governor Craig in many a legislative and State House battle over the lucrative pay road salaries and patronage, and there now seems to be nothing on the horizon to delay the opening of the big turnpike.

Thousands of Yule Cards Mailed To - - -

Seven 'Little Towns' of Bethlehem in U. S.

There are seven "little towns" of Bethlehem in the United States —one of which is not so little, being the city of Bethlehem, Pa., more than seven times the size of the original Bethlehem in Palestine.

Thousands of Christmas cards and other greetings are sent to the post offices of Bethlehem in Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Maryland, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky and New Hampshire, for postmarks.

STAR THEME MAINTAINED

The star of Bethlehem not only is featured in most of the holiday cachets from these places but also figures prominently in community decorations. In Pennsylvania, a star 100 feet tall is lighted on the top of South Mountain above the city of Bethlehem, from where it is visible 20 miles away.

Another star of Bethlehem is mounted annually on the top of the tallest cedar tree in Bethlehem, Md., from where it can be seen for about three miles from that community on the eastern shore of Maryland.

In Indiana, 30 miles upstream along the Ohio River from Louisville, a large silvered star, outlined in electric lights, was donated and first erected in 1945 on the tower of the Community Church of Bethlehem by a proud father because his daughter, Ruth Ann Berry, had been born in the town on Christmas Day, 1923.

The only public Christmas decoration in Bethlehem, Ga., a hamlet of 240 population, is a star about 8 feet wide, containing 160 lights, which is displayed over the business district.

Because Bethlehem, N. H., is primarily a summer resort, Christmas is observed quietly by its winter population of only 840. A nativity scene is set up on the village square, but house decorations carry out the star of Bethlehem theme.

NO COMMERCIAL BENEFITS

No commercial advantage is claimed for the name of Bethlehem by the postmasters, town clerks or chambers of commerce in these communities. At Bethlehem, Pa., "the city tries to make the Christmas observance as noncommercial as possible."

The naming of these towns naturally was based on strong religious tradition. On Christmas Eve in 1741, a small band of Moravian settlers gathered in a crude log cabin on a bank of the Monocacy Creek, near where that stream joins the Lehigh River in Pennsylvania. The singing of an old Moravian hymn, "Not Jerusalem, Lowly Bethlehem!" so inspired them and their patron leader, Count Nicholas Zinsendorf, that they decided to name their new world home Bethlehem.

Settlers who migrated farther from Bethlehem, Pa., founded Bethlehem, Ind., in 1812 and named the place after their Pennsylvania home town.

Bethlehem, Ky., was originally named Mobley Stand. When the first post office was established in December, 1862, the postmaster, one Jamison Hall, inspired by the nearness of Christmas, changed the name to Bethlehem.

PIONEER-NAMED TOWNS

Bethlehem, N. H., once was called Lloyd's Hill, but in 1799, Bible minded settlers changed the name because they thought the terrain was similar to that of Bethlehem in Judea.

A pioneer settler also named Bethlehem, Ga., but old timers in the Maryland community say that nobody knows exactly how that town was named. It could have been because it is a peaceful and gentle place.

The present postmistress at Bethlehem, Md., has an appropriate name, too. It's Mary Carrol. She works each night through the Christmas season until 9 or 10 o'clock and usually has to have extra help to postmark greetings.

A corner room in the home of Mrs. Lee Teyton, postmistress of Bethlehem, Ky., serves as a post office and her husband, daughter and two sons have to pitch in to cancel Christmas mail there. A drawing of the Three Wise Men is used to mark the mail, brought in by people of all over Kentucky.

The heaviest mail burden descends on Bethlehem, Pa., where 250 extra employes are required for the Christmas season.

Christmas Comes Twice a Year for Yugoslavia

BELGRADE (AP)—In spite of the 10-year Communist rule in Yugoslavia and a concerted effort to substitute New Year's celebrations for the observance of Christmas, the religious holiday remains first in the hearts of the people.

The government does not observe Christmas. Offices, schools, factories and shops are ordered to remain open on Christmas Day. On the other hand, New Year's Day is officially stressed as the children's "Joy Day."

Huge decorated pine trees are erected on New Year's Day in schools, offices and public places and gifts are distributed to children.

But at home, most families still celebrate Christmas in their traditional ways. However, because there are two major religions in Yugoslavia—the Serbian Orthodox and the Roman Catholic—there are two Christmas celebrations.

This is because the Catholic Church uses the Gregorian calendar, adopted at the end of the 16th century, while the Eastern Church clings to the old Julian calendar, which is now 13 days behind the Gregorian.

Austria Announces Big Increase in Exports

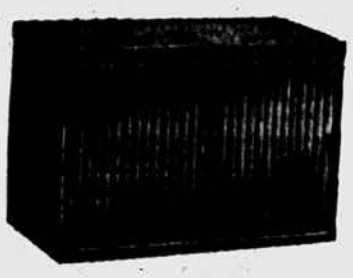

VIENNA (INS)—A considerable increase in exports has been announced by the Austrian Trade Export Company, which was founded two-and-a-half-years ago through the initiative of the Chamber of Commerce.

A total of 25 European and overseas countries now buy Austrian goods—60 per cent of this export—mainly arts-and-crafts products, fancy goods, technical articles, ceramics and toys go to the United States.

Two British tankers have been equipped with a ship to shore elevator - type lift to overcome some of the disadvantages of gangways.

Leader Dog Week Has Local Significance

Next week has been proclaimed "Leader Dog Week" by Governor G. Mennen Williams.

To Pontiac residents the proclamation should have a special significance. For it is right in our own back yard out in Rochester that a training center for Leader Dogs for the Blind has been operating since 1939.

Governor Williams set aside next week as "Leader Dog Week" as a time to draw attention of the citizens of the state to an important phase of rehabilitation for the blind.

Since the Rochester school was founded, nearly 1,000 dogs have been trained to escort more than 750 blind persons safely wherever they go.

Graduates of the school that staffs 14, pay only $150 for their schooling. They are not required to pay the cost in cash, but may amortize payment over a long period of time. War veterans pay nothing.

The balance of the cost, $1,100, is contributed by the Michigan United Fund of the Community Chest, Lions Club of the Midwest, and charitable minded service clubs, sororities, and other organizations and individual donors.

The cost of the dog which usually costs the school $1,250 for the most suitable German Shepherd and Collie breeds is included in this.

Beside the Rochester school there is one other Leader dogs for the Blind organization accredited by the Veterans Administration. It is located in Morristown, N. J.

Leader Dogs for the Blind is a non-profit corporation and has been awarded the Seal of Good Practice by the American Association of Workers for the Blind.

Gabbing Women Blamed for Loss of Home by Fire

YORK, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Cletus Bentz saw smoke puffing from her neighbor's farm home Tuesday and called the volunteer fire department at New Salem, a mile away.

"I'm sorry," she was told, "but all the firemen have gone hunting." (Pennsylvania's deer season opened Monday.)

Mrs. Bentz's call had been taken by Harry Noss, who runs a gas station in New Salem and also takes all the calls for the volunteer firemen.

Noss figured he'd have to get somebody to the fire, so he tried to call the volunteer unit in Jacobus, six miles distant. But two women were talking on his 10-party line and refused to give it up, he said. Noss waited a bit, then tried again. The women were still talking and still in no mood to stop.

After another wait, this one lasting over 10 minutes, he got through to West York, also six miles away.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR: JUNIOR EDITORS

THE WONDERLAND OF BOOKS—4

Fairy Tales — The Frog Prince

People have enjoyed listening to fairy tales for centuries. They were told and retold before they were collected and written down.

A willful little princess lost her lovely golden ball down a well. To a frog nearby she promised anything if only he would get it for her.

He did, and then he asked to be her playmate and companion. She tried hard to go back on her agreement, but her father, the King, was a kind and just man. He made his daughter carry out her promise.

Frightened and angry the princess obeyed, but in a burst of temper she flung the frog away from her in disgust. Instantly he turned into a handsome prince who had been under a spell until a princess granted him his wish.

Paste this picture down on cardboard and color with crayons. Cut it out along the heavy outlines and fold it down the middle at the dotted line.

Now you can use it for a bookmark by putting it around the edge of a page. First you'll see the frog; turn the page and he'll turn into the handsome prince.

TOMORROW: Gulliver's Travels

Pennsylvania Doctor Given AMA Honor

BOSTON (INS)—Dr. E. Roger Samuel, of Mt. Carmel, Pa., has been named the nation's outstanding family doctor.

The 66-year-old physician, who lives and practices in the town where he was born was named "general practitioner of the year," at the opening of the ninth annual four-day clinical meeting of the American Medical Association in Boston.

Announcement of Dr. Samuel's selection by a committee of the house of delegates of the AMA was made as some 4,000 doctors from all sections of the country gathered in Hotel Statler and at Mechanics Building for sessions of the convention.

As chairman of the schoolboy patrol of the Mt. Carmel Motor Club, Dr. Samuel was instrumental in raising $12,000 for dental and eye care for underprivileged children. His nomination reads:

"Dr. Samuel continuously has devoted time and effort to public service and has served diligently and enthusiastically in various civic and religious groups covering a wide range of interests."

Disc Jockey's Show Keeps Foxes Away

WENTZVILLE, Mo. (INS) — An all-night disc jockey in St. Louis does more than just entertain late stay-uppers and truck drivers.

A turkey farmer reports the music keeps the foxes away from the range where the turkeys spend the night.

Farmer Jack Gross piped music from the all-night radio show to the range and keeps lights on all night. It does wonders, he says, of his 10-acre turkey range where Gross raises more than 4,000 birds a year.

Ship Has Pool for Mates

SANDEFJORD, Norway — The 34,320-ton tanker Jaragua, recently delivered to a Sandefjord firm by a Swedish builder, is the largest oil-carrying ship in Scandinavia. It has a deck swimming pool and private cabins for most of the 47 men in the crew.

Penny Traps Gunman

CLEVELAND (AP) Cabbie Lou Takacs is happy he got that five cent tip. Shortly after a fare handed him five pennies for a tip, Takacs was held up by a gunman who robbed him of $10. Police arrested a suspect who protested his innocence. But Takacs remembered one of his tip pennies had been blackened and had a dent in it. Sure enough, it was in the suspect's pocket.

East Germany soon will have 2,000 employed in a jet motor manufacturing plant.

Retired Champ Tops

BUENA VISTA, Va. (AP) — A. Ellis Baker, Richmond lawyer, has retired as Virginia checker champion — but he is still top man. Baker, who held the title for six years, relinquished it at the tournament here.

He Loses Job Over Red Comment

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The Soviet leaders touring India have done a good job of propaganda for their country. They also seem to have done a long-distance job of axing a London foreign official spokesman.

Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Red Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev began attacking the Western allies from the beginning of their tour—when they talked to the Indian parliament.

The collapse of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference in Geneva; the failure to get Russian consent to reunify Germany on a "free election" basis; the failure to get anywhere on disarmament—all this is the Western allies' fault, to hear the Russians.

A London foreign office spokesman—name omitted by customary protocol but who actually is Peter Matthews, a veteran of 10 years—earned praise for bridling at all this talk.

He said in effect that Bulganin and Khrushchev—who later was to blame the Nazi attack on Russia as a big Western plot—were liars, and that Bulganin was "thoroughly hypocritical."

JERKED FROM JOB

But the praise the unidentified hero earned was short-lived. What happened? He was reprimanded and jerked from his job of facing questioning reporters.

"Too undiplomatic" was the verdict from on high—meaning from the office of Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden.

And yet, Sir Anthony's own cabinet ministers have used just as harsh, or worse, language in the post-war feuds with the Soviets.

The most plausible answer to the rebuke to the foreign office spokesman was a belief that Sir Anthony can salvage something out of next spring's visit to England of the Bulganin-Khrushchev team.

SPIRIT OF GENEVA

The invitation for that visit developed out of last summer's "summit" conference which Sir Anthony attended and which created the deadlocked foreign ministers' conference.

The conference of heads of state led to the phrase of "Spirit of Geneva." Many Westerners have found the phrase ambiguous, but not apparently the Russians.

The Kremlin's diplomatic offensive in the Middle East was the first result, after getting a pause in the European cold war, the wooing of India was the second result.

A third development reflects a wry sense of Soviet humor. After the London government scolds a foreign office spokesman for uttering the word "hypocritical" about the disarming Russians they announce they have exploded their most powerful H-bomb in a "peace-loving" test.

The Golden Horn, inlet of the Sea of Marmara in the passage between the Mediterranean and Black Sea was so named because of the excellent fishing waters found in that vicinity.

Unusual Nativity Scenes for Moravian Churches

Christmas "putzes" are among the most distinctive features of the holiday season in Bethlehem, Pa. "Putz" in the dialect of the 16th Century Saxon meant to decorate — especially to decorate a church. And Christmas in Bethlehem, Pa., is largely a Moravian Christmas.

During the week between Christmas and New Year's Day, the community Christmas Putz is open to the public. It is built annually by the Moravian Service Guild. It is a miniature portrayal of the Nativity in which scenes are grouped under a single Christmas tree or many trees with moss as a base for landscaping.

The designer of the putz uses treasured figures of wood or papier-mache, tiny fences, gnarled stumps, rocks carefully kept from year to year, little trees and other miniatures, so arranged that the Holy Family, represented in a cave or thatched stable, is always the central subject.

Weeks are spent in preparation. As early as October, the pouring of thousands of pure beeswax candles is begun. The candlemaking itself is a hand process using the same methods and types of molds employed by early settlers. The tiny candles, which are used in Moravian churches and homes throughout the nation, are supposed to symbolize the coming of light into the world with the birth of the Christ Child.

He Got Him a Deer —After 12 Years

CEDARVILLE (UP) — It took him 12 years, six hours and the help of five husky men but hunter Gordon Van Ocher of Grand Rapids has his first deer.

Van Ocher was hot on the trail of a bear in wild country near this Upper Peninsula community when he spotted a 10-point buck and downed it with his first shot.

He and his companion, George Van Nette, also of Grand Rapids, were unable to haul the carcass by themselves so they slogged four miles to their car and drove to camp for help.

Joined by four other hunters, they trudged past masses of wild brush, fallen trees, over boulder outcroppings, steep hills and marshland to get the deer. It took the group six hours of hard work to drag the dressed carcass back.

Her 'Traveling Iron' Drops In on Neighbors

TURNERS FALLS, Mass. (UP) — Mrs. Jeanette Lowe, a third floor resident, went out and left her iron on.

The iron burned through the ironing board, fell to the floor, burned a hole in the floor and dropped into the second-floor apartment of Mrs. Stephen A. Brozo.

The fall of the iron broke the electrical connection or it might have caused more than a smouldering fire, said firemen who were called to the scene.

Reject Grand Jury to Probe Bar Exams

LANSING (UP) — Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh has rejected a proposed grand jury investigation of reported cheating on state bar examinations.

Kavanagh said an investigation by the state police of the reports still was progressing and that he saw no necessity for a grand jury now.

Kavanagh was commenting indirectly on a proposal by Joseph F. Deeb, Grand Rapids attorney and member of the state board of law examiners, that a grand jury be called.

Kavanagh said he was advised by the investigators that "at least" four applicants for the bar license were involved in the alleged cheating and that they had refused to take lie detector tests.

He conceded the investigators do not know how those involved got advance copies of the examination questions.

Ike Receives Flashy Tractor

Chief Executive Guides Donors on Tour; Then Displays Cow Device

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (INS) — President Eisenhower got a shiny gift tractor for his farm yesterday and appreciately showed the donors a new moo-ing machine he uses to call his cows.

The convalescing chief executive acted every bit the country squire as he conducted a guided tour of his pastures after getting the $3,400 tractor from officials of three state farm bureaus.

The red and yellow tractor, with a cultivator hooked to the back, and sporting a push-button radio and cigarette lighter, was presented by the farm bureaus of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

The President said he agreed with someone who told him that the tractor was "as pretty as a station-wagon." He said he "never saw one with such clean lines."

TO BE TRACTOR DRIVER

He asked a lot of questions about how to handle it, compared it with one he already owns, and quipped: "I'll settle now for being a tractor driver on a farm."

Eisenhower got pointers on the tractor's operation and a description of its design from C. Gordon Cockshutt, president of the Black Hawk-Cockshutt Farm Equipment Co., of Bellevue, Ohio, which made it, and J.F. Schaffhausen, of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., another official of the firm.

The President also discussed soil conservation with the donors —Marvin J. Briggs, general manager of the Indiana Farm Bureau; K.N. Probasco, executive vice president of the Ohio Farm Bureau, and George G. Connor, general manager of the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau.

After proclaiming the tractor "just wonderful," Mr. Eisenhower told newsmen he will "ask my doctor how soon I can get on this thing."

He then took his guests over to the fence overlooking the pasture where his black Aberdeen Angus cattle and bulls were grazing. Laughing, he said: "You're going to see something."

Addressing his chauffeur, secret service agent Dieter Flohr, the President said: "Blow the cow horn, Dick."

Flohr, at the wheel of the green fringe-topped little "golf-mobile" the President rides around his farm, promptly stepped on a pedal which touched off a loud and plaintive cow moo.

Traffic fatalities are up in Ireland.

WOOL FLANNEL shirts in plaids are always welcome.

Gift-Hunts for Men Easier

Shopping for a Christmas gift for a man isn't as difficult as it used to be. The variety of styles and articles in clothing for leisure wear simplifies the problem.

There are many new ideas in sport shirts, for instance. One is a shirt-jacket. It looks like a shirt, acts like a shirt, but is worn as a jacket.

Cut square at the bottom, with vents at the side seams, it's made of wool flannel shirting in colorful plaids.

Matched shirts and jackets, sweaters and lounging robes swell the array of gift suggestions. One of the newer robes is a soft wool Chesterfield with a half-collar of velvet.

Sport coats and blazers in gay stripes are enjoying constantly greater popularity.

There is a new "suburban" coat that is a cross between a topcoat and a sport coat. It comes to slightly below the hips.

Shoe Merchant Dies

CHARLOTTE (AP)—Fred Murray, 83, retired Charlotte shoe merchant and a past president of the Michigan Retail Shoe Dealers Assn., died Tuesday at his home after an illness of two years. He retired from his business in 1952.

Home Building Notes Jump Since WW II

WASHINGTON (INS)—The home building industry has produced more than 10 million new homes and apartments since the end of World War II, a record-breaking achievement.

Yet, Henry G. Waltemade, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, says there is still a potential demand for another eight million dwellings in the years to come.

Waltemade bases his estimate on a federal reserve board report which disclosed that nine million families are dissatisfied with their present quarters and want bigger and better homes.

"If these expressed plans of American families are carried out," the NAREB head declares, "Then our business has a potential market that may now be foreseen for about eight million homes."

Wrong Alarm Scatters Citizens in 'Air' Raid

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The air raid sirens howled and Richmonders generally took cover in the face of a mock bombing as three B26 planes droned over the city. All but employes of the big federal building on Lombardy street. A watchman reached for the alarm to send workers to the basement shelter and sounded the fire alarm instead.

All of the people in the building rushed out into the street.

Christmas Carols Brighten Joy of Yuletide Activities

By W. G. ROGERS
AP Press Arts Editor

Now above all is the season of the carol.

The trees, the creche, the Yule log, the mistletoe are all associated with Christmas, but the carol—in church and Sunday school, at home, sung by choristers on a snowy night—is one of the universal features of this holy time.

It was first the herald angels—"Hark! the herald angels sing, 'Glory to the new-born King!'"—who hailed the birth of the Christ Child, according to the Gospels.

Since then it has been a part of the Christmas celebration for century after century, in all the western languages, and it is still the favorite mode of jubilation.

It's the hardiest of song forms, too. All the month of December you hear it over the radio, sometimes hourly, sometimes with commercials—"The First Noel" . . . "It came upon the midnight clear" . . . "Good King Wenceslas" . . . "God rest you merry, gentlemen."

You reach a point where you've heard enough of them, and yet still later you also reach a further point when, in spite of the repetition, you are moved by the spirit of the songs, and reminded of their abiding significance, and the mood of the season is awakened again.

WORKS OF FAMOUS MEN

William Dix, Charles Wesley, Martin Luther, Phillips Brooks, G. K. Chesterton are among the authors of the familiar words. The composers, when the works haven't been old folk tunes, have included Bach and Mendelssohn.

These composers, and others, have not stopped with the carol.

This is the year's prime music season, and many oratorios, operas, and other vocal and instrumental numbers have been inspired by the "Little Town of Bethlehem" and the summons to the faithful, "Adeste Fideles."

One of the most popular works is Berlioz's "L'Enfance du Christ," for orchestra, soloists and chorus and among contemporary numbers there is Menotti's "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

These two items are available on records, and many other recordings will help those who do not get enough musical fare at church or concert. Von Karajan conducts, and Schwarzkopf sings, in a full-length "Hansel and Gretel," a first-rate Christmas choice, appropriately recorded by Angel Records.

Under the same print, newly issued this fall, is a disk of Christmas songs presented by the Obernkirchen Children's Choir.

Visit Clears Doubts of Girls for Bishop

DUBLIN—On his recent return from England, Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Galway, seemed to feel a little better about the fate of young Irish girls who leave home to work in hotels in Britain.

He had been quoted as saying they were in "great danger." I have had an opportunity to meet many of our exiles," he said on his return. While there have been some dangers, he said, "they are in a country that provides good employment and wages . . . They find in England less of the craze for pleasure and more respect for hard work than here at home.

There, dance halls close well before midnight and public houses do not carry on illegal trade all night."

New Yorkers Will Defend Right to Jaywalk

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—A jay is a bird of the crow family, which can be found in fields and meadows. A jaywalker, on the other hand, is a bird of the schmoe family who can be found in traffic jams and morgues.

There is one basic difference between the two. The jay can fly and the jaywalker just thinks he can.

New York City has always been the happy hunting ground for the jaywalker. It's not that the red lights here are any prettier to stroll in the glow of, nor that the taxis are any less deft at biting into one's coattails.

The reason a jaywalker feels at home in New York is that there has never been a legal regulation against crossing a street in the middle, or against a light, regardless of how the traffic is teeming.

Only here could a pedestrain cross Madison avenue, stepping off the curb at 45th street, and re-mounting at 47th street, without getting a ticket.

Many New York pedestrians have died this way.

But the point is, they died free. There was no traffic cop in the ambulance saying, "Buddy, there's a fine for that."

BAN CONTEMPLATED

Knowing all this, it was startling to learn this week that New York City Traffic Commissioner T. T. Wiley is planning to put a ban on jaywalking.

He notes that there are not only "absent-minded" persons getting knocked down regularly for crossing streets in inappropriate places, but there are also "chronic, intentional violators" who are holding up traffic by walking the streets in diagonal directions.

Wiley believes these offenders should be made to pay (probably about $2) for the inconvenience they cause—to motorists, hospital attendants and people who are late to the theater every time there's a fatality around Times Square.

At least 400 persons die annually in this city from being struck by automobiles, and Wiley thinks that if the citizens know the facts, they will agree to abide by the new rule. After all, Detroit and Washington and Los Angeles have laws against jaywalking; why shouldn't New York?

There is no reason, of course, why New York City should try to adopt the same rules and regulations as Detroit and Washington and Los Angeles—but I personally foresee plenty of headaches for Wiley and bitter streetcorner brawls for the city police before the law becomes enforced.

TOO MUCH TIME

First of all, New Yorkers are busy and always in a hurry; it may not take much more time to go to the corner or to wait for the green light, but it takes some more time. And some is too much.

Second, New Yorkers are trained to take care of themselves. They'd rather fight their way through a traffic jam than fight with a cop, but if the necessiy arises, they'll tackle both battles at once.

New Yorkers, by nature, are independent and want more than anything else to be left alone. If anyone tries to tell them how to avoid being killed, they will be unappreciative. Their reaction: "Who's getting killed, you or me, hey?"

And finally, as mentioned before, this is the traditional habitat of the jaywalker. Next to his privacy and his all-night delicatessen, he considers the privilege of crossing streets, at whim, a great and precious gift of the city.

Take away this right and you'll have a safer, but sadder, schmoe.

OK Stock Purchase

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Corduroy have approved a board of directors' plan to purchase $436,657 in stock held by Mrs. L. A. Brown, widow of the company's founder. Mrs. Brown recently announced she would retire from board membership upon sale of the stock.

Fire Destroys Trailer

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Fire caused by a heating lamp being used to thaw water pipes Tuesday destroyed John Turpstra's house-trailer with loss estimated at $2,800. Turpstra said the lamp ignited straw beneath the trailer where he had placed it to thaw the pipes.

Philanthropic Grants Exceed 308 Million

NEW YORK—Philanthropic foundations in this country hold assets of more than $4,700,000,000 and make annual grants totaling more than $308,000,000.

A new, comprehensive survey shows that $4,200,000,000, or 93 per cent of all the foundations' assets, is held by fewer than 20 per cent of the foundations studied.

More than $1,500,000,000 is held by the seven largest foundations. About 30 per cent of these groups and 55 per cent of the foundations' total assets are in New York State.

Williams Speech Writer Attacked

Senator Morris Claims State Pays Wages to Aid Governor's Career

LANSING (AP)—Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) has questioned the "propriety" of the hiring of another speech writer for Gov. Williams.

The writer is James G. Crowley, former Detroit and Washington newspaperman and radio commentator.

Crowley was put on the Governor's personal payroll Oct. 6 at a starting rate of $7,621. He was given "step" raises at two-week intervals and now is drawing $8,915—$1,300 more than a month ago.

Crowley reportedly was hired to write "national" speeches for Williams, sometimes mentioned as a Democratic presidential candidate.

"I question strongly the propriety of using state money for that sort of thing," said Morris. "Crowley is not doing the government of Michigan any good. The Governor is using this job for political purposes—purposes involving a national election."

Morris said the Governor now apparently has three speech writers — Crowley, Press Secretary Paul Weber and Administrative Assistant John L. Sweeney.

Williams and Crowley were in Washington and unavailable for comment.

Soviets to Gain New U.N. Blocs

Red Coalition to Be Big Gainer if 18 Nations Pass Vote Test

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Soviet and Asian-African blocs will be the chief gainers if 18 new members are admitted to the U.N. as presently proposed.

Latin America and Western Europe, with the Anglo-Saxon section of the British Commonwealth, stand to gain the least in proportionate strength. These are the two quarters where the United States has its staunchest supporters. But in a pinch it can count on help from within the Asian - African group too.

So delegates expect that on big political issues the Americans' customary commanding majority would survive enlargement of the U.N.

Ceylon, Cambodia, Japan, Laos, Libya, Nepal and Jordan with the Asian-African group.

Italy, Portugal, Spain and Ireland sometimes with Latin Amerrope (the two groups often vote together).

Austria and Finland not consistenly with any group.

Today the Soviet bloc is five countries out of 60 in the U.N., or onetwelfth.

If the new members all get in, it will be 10 countries out of 78, or more than oneeighth.

Lately, Afghanistan and five Arab U.N. members — all but Iraq — have voted with the Soviet group on cold war issues. If they keep that up and Libya and Jordan — also Arab Leaguers — adopt the same policies, an Arab-Soviet combine would total 18 countries.

The Asian-African group will grow to 24.

2 Lonely Woodpeckers Meet by Pecking Wall

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A New York animal dealer, preparing a shipment of birds to the zoo here, should have known better when he packed two great spotted woodpeckers in a crate separated from each other by a wood partition.

The partition had a hole in it, and the woodpeckers—friends, no doubt—were together when the shipment arrived.

GIFT IDEA FOR A TEENAGER on your list: this lined jersey hood done in two-tones. You can do it on your sewing machine and turn up with a personal and beautiful gift.

Jersey Helmet Is Sewing Project for Yule Present

Nothing is so personal at Christmas as a gift you've made yourself. If you have a sewing machine and some imagination, your popularity is made.

One good gift idea you can use for the teenage girl on your list is a wool jersey helmet.

Make the hood in two colors. Red and white are good — and in taste. Or select her school colors.

Jersey presents no sewing problems, if you follow these suggestions from the experts at your local Singer Sewing Center.

SMALL YARDAGE

If you make your own pattern, trace the outline of the hood, folded in half from center forehead right down the back, onto brown paper. When cutting out, allow a half inch margin all around for seams.

Jersey is sold in tubiar form, so you simply cut along one side to get a flat piece of cloth. You will need about ⅜ yard each of of a double thickness of jersey, the two colors. The hood is made of a double thickness of jersey, so cut two of each side.

For sewing on jersey, use mercerized sewing thread, a number 14 sewing machine needle, and set your machine for 10-12 stitches to the inch. Since jersey is a stretchy fabric, it is advisable to baste the sections together first. If you own a walking presser foot attachment for your sewing machine, it will help.

INSERT ZIPPER

First step is to stitch together center seams of both lining and outer section. Remember that you will want finished seams on both sides of the hood, so plan your seams so that both raw edges will be inside and facing each other.

A zipper inserted along the under-the-chin seam will make it possible to slip the hood off and on easily. Select a neck zipper. With sections turned so raw edges of stitched seams are facing, stitch the zipper along both sides of the seam line on the outside section.

Turn sections so right sides are together, and stitch around remaining seam lines, leaving open the under-the-chin seam of the lining section. Turn hood right side out, and hand-stitch the lining to the zipper tape.

Scientists 'Fly' Altitude Chair

Electronic Wizardry Simulates All Conditions at Ceiling Heights

FARMINGDALE, N.Y. (INS) — People who dislike low ceilings can have a fine time in a secret room here where the roof can be raised as high as 10 miles without moving from an armchair.

The armchair, however, will be in the cockpit of supersonic fighter planes soon to start moving along the production lines of Republic Aviation Corp. and theceiling will not actually move.

But electronic wizardy will duplicate within the laboratory room all the conditions that exist more than 50,000 feet up in the sky, and, for all intents and purposes, the hush - hush aircraft will be coursing through the stratosphere while scientists measure every reaction of the delicate mechanisms of the craft.

In the new air refueling laboratory, part of a $2,500,000 aeronautical research installation, a skeletonized version of a future jet fighter-bomber climbs, banks and dives—sticking its tail up among the rafters. (A stairway guide-rail is built with a huge "notch" to fit around a roof-beam.)

Researchers "fly" this "mock-up," equipped with the plane's fuel system, and record temperatures and pressures at 25 key locations as fuel is taken aboard at several hundred gallons a minute.

Petrillo Takes Bead at Musical Careers

CHICAGO (INS)—The czar of the nation's musicians warns parents not to raise their children to be professional musicians.

And James C. Petrillo, president of the AFL American Federation of Musicians, claims he has a good reason for the warning. He says, "The kids will starve. Remember, I warned them."

Petrillo explains that the "kids are fast, they can play." But he adds sadly, "It's a shame to see them play one job a week and then walk around looking for another."

The union chief points out that 20 million Americans play musical instruments. "And what does the public like?," he says with a groan.—"Canned music!"

Stolen Car Report Gets 62 Tickets for Owner

CHICAGO (AP)—John Karr, 23, reported his car stolen and was promptly confronted with an impounded auto and 62 traffic tickets.

Police towed the stalled car away after they found the tickets under the windshield visor and in the glove compartment. Ranging from speeding to illegal parking, the ignored tickets dated back to 1950.

Karr said he had not heeded the tickets because "I didn't have the money."

Unmarked State Police Cars to Film Drivers in Detroit-Toledo Area

EAST LANSING (AP)—Unmarked state police cars equipped with moving cameras may be put into use on Telegraph Road between Detroit and the Ohio line to check dangerous drivers, State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said today.

Childs said the operation is in the experimental stage now and that if it works out two state police cars will be equipped with cameras on Telegraph road.

"I don't suppose we are pioneering in this, but I don't know of any other states that are doing it," Childs said.

The principal effect of the camera-equipped cars, he said, would be psychological — to let drivers know that their misdeeds would be permanently recorded.

COURT EVIDENCE

However, if the films were properly prepared, they could be admitted as court evidence in trials of violators who plead not guilty, he said.

Childs said he also intends to increase the number of unmarked state police cars in high accident areas. He said eight unmarked cars are now in operation.

The commission said a campaign to recruit 200 more state policemen authorized by the Legislature is "coming along nicely."

When the force is up to authorized strength, he said, patrols will be increased to achieve a tentative ratio of one car to every ten miles of highway.

2,000 From MSU Sign for Bowl Trip

EAST LANSING (AP) — Nearly 2,000 Michigan State University students will travel en masse to Pasadena, Calif., next month to watch the Spartan football team battle UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2.

University officials said 1,953 students registered on Monday for special Rose Bowl train trips, smashing all known records for such mass trips by students to bowl games. They said the previous high for a Big Ten school was 1,134 from Ohio State last year.

Travel agency operators, who offered a "package deal" to students, said they were taken aback by the huge response.

The deal offered the students costs $167 and includes round-trip transportation, chaperons and lodging on the West Coast.

Enrollment dates for the winter term at Michigan State University have been changed by the MSU football date in the Rose Bowl.

Winter term enrollments, originaly set for Jan. 3-5, have been advanced to Jan. 5-7.

Town to Erect Railroad Museum for Casey Jones

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP)—This west Tennessee town has decided to build a railroad museum in honor of a hometown boy who became the greatest railroader in American folklore—Casey Jones.

You've heard of Casey. He was the hotshot engineer of his day. He died in the wreck of the Cannonball Express near Vaughn, Miss., on April 30, 1900, and somebody wrote a song about it that swept Casey to immortality.

Casey lived here, still the home of his widow. The City Commission yesterday authorized the building of a railroad museum around Casey's old frame house.

Mayor George Smith said present plans call for equipping the museum with exhibits outlining the railroad saga. He hopes to have a locomotive similar to Casey's old 382 mounted in front.

To Ask Congress OK on $3 Billion Money Bill

WASHINGTON (INS) — Government budget planners estimate that Congress will be asked to approve three billion dollars worth of new appropriations next year for the mutual security program.

They expect $1,200,000,000 will be asked for military aid and $1,800,000,000 for economic aid. The three billion dollar total would be half a billion dollars ess than the foreign aid appropriations for the present fiscal year.

Teenagers Operate Loan Department for Students

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP) — A bank's committee on small loans composed of only teen-agers has been functioning for six months, and "with amazing business acumen," at the Miners National Bank in this central Pennsylvania hard coal community.

The Teen-age Confidence Fund was set up last May as the bank's contribution to the battle against juvenile delinquency.

And it's worked out better than the most optimistic of its backers ever expected.

KIDS RUN IT

Believing that lack of ready cash for a teen-ager's legitimate needs was a major cause of juvenile crime, officials at Miners National set aside a $1,000 fund for loans of $5 to $50 to high school students needing money for worthwhile purposes.

An independent committee of students, with a bank official acting strictly in the role of adviser, was set up to decide which loans would be granted. A $10 loan runs eight weeks and the total interest charge is 50 cents. The $50 maximum runs 24 weeks at a cost of $1.50.

P. H. Burke, president of the bank, says a recent check showed 48 loans were requested of which 42 were approved in whole or in part.

NONE IN DEFAULT

And not a single one has ever been defaulted.

Burke says he is not surprised that the youngsters justified the bank's confidence in them. But what amazed him, he said, is the "amazing business acumen" revealed by the committee in considering the applications.

For instance, the committee rejected a girl's application for a $25 loan to buy a bathing suit, recommending she could swim just as well in a suit that cost $10.

Loans were approved to cover graduation expenses, dues for a school picnic and even a wedding present for a sister bride-to-be—although Patsy did agree that her sister would love her just as much if she received a $10 gift instead of the $40 present Patsy had in mind.

FIREMEN FIGHT JET FLAMES — Air Force firemen pour chemicals into smoking remains of an F84 jet fighter plane which crashed into housing units at nearby Ellson Air Force Base Tuesday killing the pilot and at least a dozen apartment residents. At least eight others were injured. Firemen and rescue volunteers suffered from frostbite in 16-below-zero weather.

Mulford, 3, Is Unstuck

EAGAR, Ariz. (AP)—For reasons best known to himself, 3-year-old Mulford Bigelow Jr. climbed into a milk can. He got stuck. Frantic efforts of his parents and friends failed to unstick him.

His father finally picked up the can—Mulford and all—and took it to a garage. A mechanic cut off the top with a hacksaw and pulled Mulford out.

'Imposters' for Museum

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The city's public museum, which exhibits just about every mammal in Michigan, has been caught with three imposters—a moose bull, a cow and a calf.

The three came from Wyoming because, say museum officials, it's easier to bag the animals on a Wyoming hunting trip than to unsnarl the red tape surrounding Michigan's protected herd on Isle Royale.

There are more fatal accidents in summer than any other season.

Doctor Relieves Parents' Worry

Pediatrician Comforts Adults Over Child's Finger-Sucking Habit

BOSTON (AP)—A New York pediatrician has stated parents place too much importance upon trivial actions—like finger sucking—by their children.

Dr. Harry Bakwin told the American Medical Assn.'s ninth clinical session that finger sucking by babies is no more a psychiatric problem than "gum chewing" in children and cigarette smoking in adults."

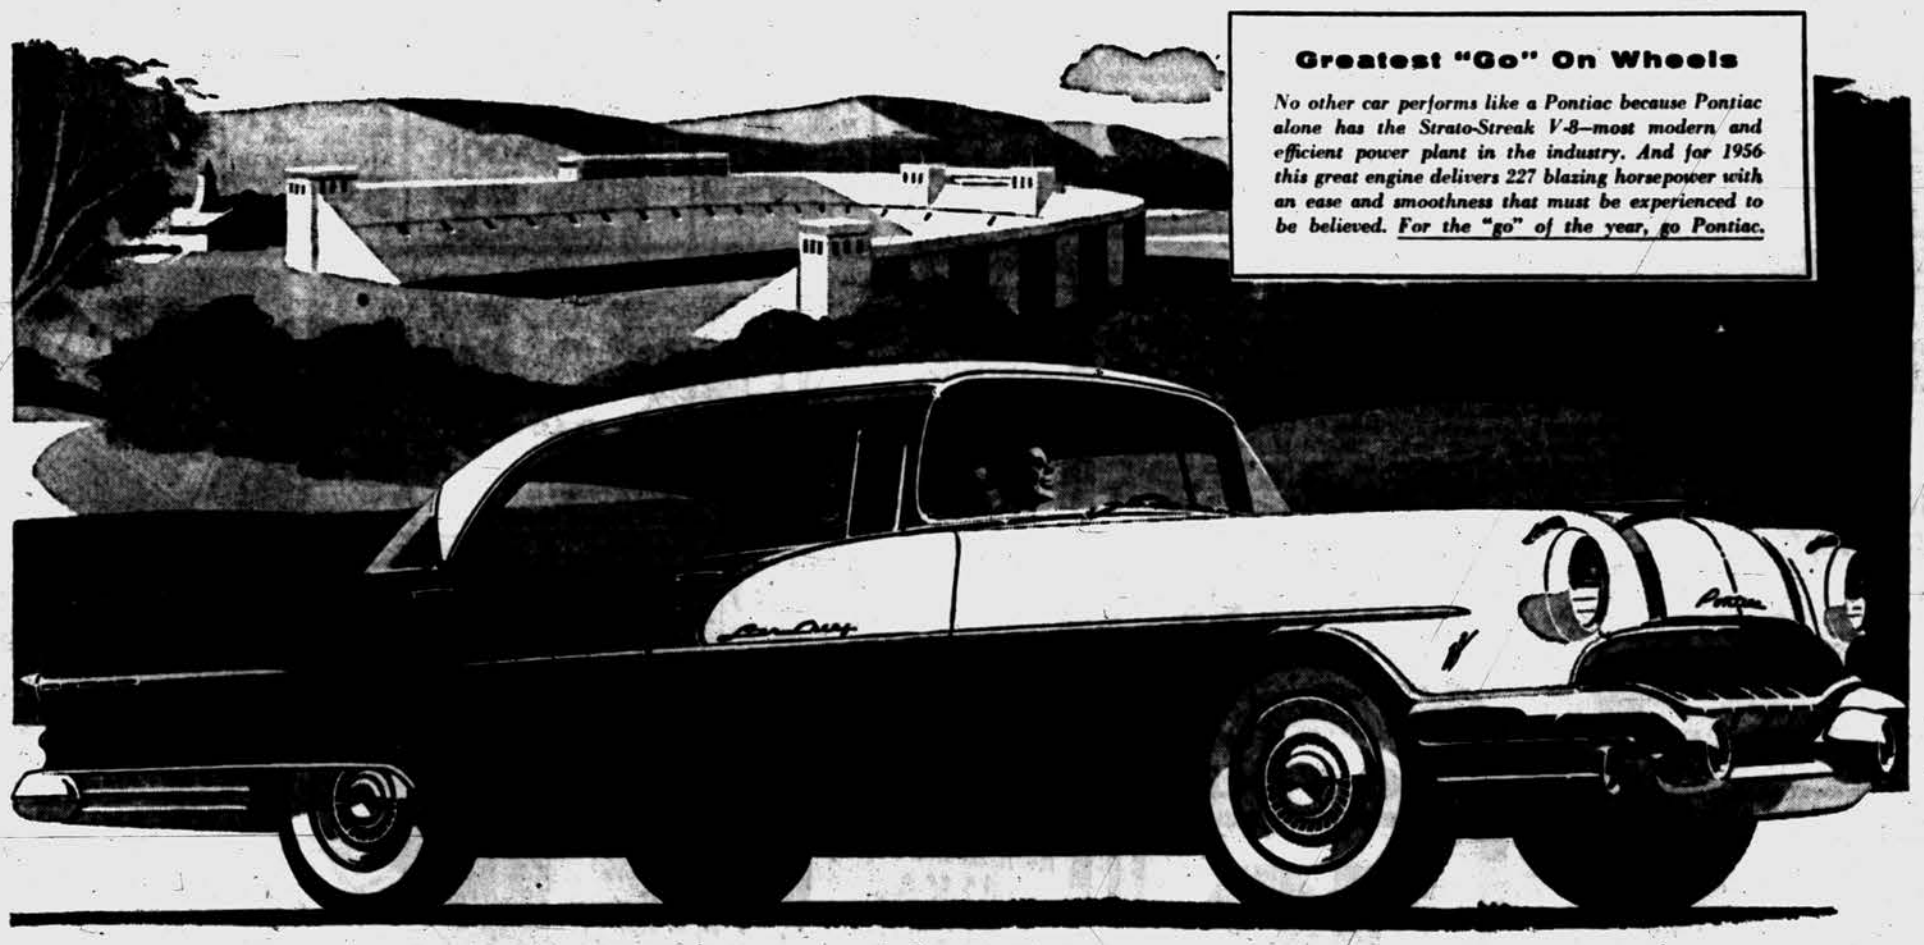

Most such "behavior problems" are trivial, even when they seem of major importance, he said.

He warned in a prepared address that even more serious problems of childhood may not be psychiatric and it is a mistake to assume that these usually arise from parental mismanagement."

Before blaming it on the parents, he said, the family doctor should make sure the child is not suffering from such things as minor brain damage, visual or hearing defects or chronic disease.

Brighten Your Gala Holiday Festivities With These Game, Refreshment Ideas

A party, of course, can be anything from a friend dropping in for a cup of punch to a full-scale ball.

Since people's spirits are keyed to the season's whirl of activities, parties where good food and drink are dispensed can be brightened by several Christmas games.

Games can include charades, finding as many words as possible in some long Christmas word like "mistletoe," and carol-singing.

When friends come in to help trim the tree, give them fruit or nut cake, sliced right in front of them.

The late Christmas Eve supper that is served before or after midnight services, or after the last ornament is on the tree is usually a buffet meal. One traditional menu is oyster stew, a relish tray and a dessert such as pecan pie. Lots of hot coffee, of course.

If you don't plan food, you will have a punch bowl—even when its contents are nothing stronger than a fruit punch made with ginger ale. A punch bowl is one of the easiest and most gracious ways to offer guests Christmas cheer.

Children's parties should include simple, familiar foods easy to eat. Their games should let off steam at the beginning of the party and calm them down before they eat or leave for home.

For adult or child, full-course meal or just punch, the hostess —or host—must remember: It doesn't have to be elaborate to be fun.

And don't wear yourself out in preparation to the point where you can't enjoy the party yourself. A gracious hostess fully enjoying her guests makes a party more successful than all the extra flourishes to decorations of food.

Air Force Steps Up Jet Combat Plane Production

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Air Force says it has stepped up production of its jet combat planes even though output of certain models has been cut back.

Air Force headquarters said present contracts call for the delivery of even more of the fast combat planes during the year ending next July 1 than was specified in the accelerated schedules presented to Congress some time ago.

Held in Auto Death

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Robert A. Wigner, 32, of Albion, has been bound over for trial on a charge of negligent homicide in the traffic death Sept. 23 of William Nolan, 63, of Rte. 3, Albion. Nolan was riding in Wigner's car when it collided head on with another auto.

Firm Wants Division of Worker Quarters

BELFAST — How to keep its factory force from living as neighbors is a major problem with one British firm which has factories in several cities. It is the theory of C. H. Cuttriss, director of W. C. Youngman, Ltd., that personnel should be kept from living near those with whom they associate in their daily work.

If a man doesn't get along with a fellow-worker it is doubly unpleasant to have to live next door to him, he says. Familiarity with a person's private life may breed contempt in a factory, Cuttriss holds.

There are also the further complications connected with intermixing different grades of workers, such as artisans and supervisors, clerks and department heads in the same neighborhoods, he says.

Pleads Guilty in Paw Paw

PAW PAW (AP) — John Gersey, 62, Mattawan farmer, has pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the death last July of his elderly farm helper, Charles Toth. He admitted he and Toth had fought the day of the victim's death. Gersey was released on $10,000 bond pending pre-sentence investigation.

Holiday Gift May Start Hobby

If you've racked your brain trying to come up with a novel idea for a Christmas gift, cease and desist.

Start your friend, relative or child on a hobby. If he already has a hobby, just buy him some additional material or equipment for it.

There are hobby items for every age and pocketbook. Most of these can be purchased in kit form.

Perhaps the most popular hobby in the world is stamp collecting. One of the wonderful aspects of this hobby is that it can be enjoyed by all members of the family—either separately or together.

MODEL BUILDING KITS

Getting started in stamps is easy and need not be expensive. The best method for beginners is to purchase a batch of stamps for about $1, an all-world album and some stamp hinges. Once the neophyte has developed a keen interest in stamps he will enlarge on the hobby by himself.

Becoming more popular in recent years are kits for building model ships, planes and cars. The auto kits range from old time models to modern racers, the ships from Viking boats to the Queen Mary, the planes from the Wright Brothers' original to zooming jets. The kits range in price from 50 cents to $50.

A craft tools set specifically designed for youngsters in the 12-15 year bracket has the same type tools for building and repairing as the larger and more expensive ones have for dad.

Another interesting hobby kit is an electronic set complete with broadcast receiver, Morse code practice key and wireless home broadcaster.

FOR HURRICANE KIBITZERS

You can even build your own home weather station in kit form. The unit contains the means for making barometers, hygrometers, rain gauges and even velocity indicators. There are two types of sets. The less expensive sells for $9.95 and the more expensive for $14.95.

Available at your local hobby or toy shop are medical training kits which will help youngsters learn first aid, a set to help identify rocks and minerals, microscope sets for would-be scientists and even gun kits (wood or plastic) whereby the hobbyists can make any firing arm from antique pieces to modern .45 revolvers.

For youngsters who like to play soldiers or cowboys, there are scale model armies and tanks as well as cowboy and Indian groupings.

FOR HANDICRAFT FANS

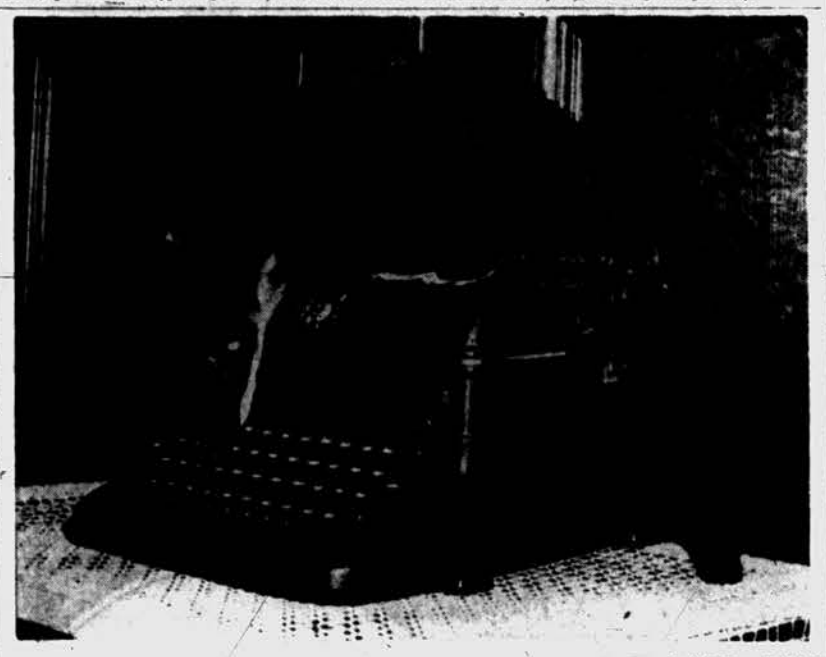

Handicraft kits have always been popular with folks of all ages. These kits are available in three forms: Kits with pre-fabricated materials and instructions to complete specific projects; semi-completed materials which may be embellished by the use of tools and simple skills; and raw materials from which the advanced craftsman chooses for his individual field.

Under this heading comes leathercraft, woodcraft, metalcraft, plastic craft, pottery and ceramics. Also becoming popular in recent years are such crafts as textile painting, beadcraft, shellcraft, paper craft, and needlecraft.

Model railroading is perhaps one of the most expensive of hobbies due to its very nature. Literally hundreds of firms make endless varieties of track material—cars, engines, buildings, even miniature people and animals. There is no end to the electrical controls possible.

The best way to get that hobby gift this Christmas is to go to your local hobby mart or toy shop. You may even come away with a new hobby for yourself.

"THIS IS JUST MY TYPE!" — "Sunday," a South American coatimundi now living at the Bronx zoo, wants the world to know that he's perfectly satisfied with the old style typewriter keyboard. With all the talk about a new kind of keyboard with rearranged letters and numbers, "Sunday" remains unimpressed. The creature, a relative of the raccoon family, lives in the zoo administration building and is quite a favorite with the staff.

Two Marine Planes Crash; One Rescued

HONOLULU (AP) — Two Marine Skyraider planes crashed into the sea off Oahu Tuesday in separate accidents. One pilot was rescued and the other is presumed dead.

2nd Lt. David E. Cristman, 22, Belding, Mich., was picked up by helicopter 300 yards off an eastern Oahu beach 20 minutes after he had parachuted in the dark.

Three hours earlier, a Skyraider had plunged into the ocean eight miles off Kaneohe Marine Air Station while making a practice bombing run. Search planes and boats found no trace. The pilot's name was withheld.

Fish Sniff Perfume

PARIS (INS)—Working on the principle that if perfume can be used for "man bait," it should also work on fish, a Paris department store is offering a scented preparation to help fishermen. It comes in a tube, in various colors, to be spread on fish hooks. Its anissed flavor is claimed to be "irresistible" to river fish.

Paris Is Magic for Young Set

Parents Also Affected With Excursions, Fairs and Famous Sites

PARIS — Paris is a magic city for children. Whether it's a donkey ride on the Champs-Elysees, a puppet show in Luxembourg Gardens, the waxworks in Montmartre or a street corner fair, there are attractions aplenty to appeal to youngsters.

Children adjust quickly to Paris, for the city caters to the young with infinite variety and charm. Parents are often content to let their children lead the way in Paris, while they follow and enjoy the wonders of the city through the eyes of a child.

One of the most delightful introductions to Paris for young and old alike is a boat trip on the River Seine through the heart of the town. The Bateau Mouche, a little white excursion steamer, cruises under all the old bridges past the famous towers, cathedrals and palaces.

Another unique dining spot for youngsters in Paris is the glassed-in restaurant atop the Eiffel Tower. The view is superb and well worth the $1.14 elevator fare to the top considering that the tower is almost as high as the Empire State Building.

Youngsters who enjoy a good climb will discover any number of other high vantage points for a thrilling view of the city. Among the most notable are the Arc de Triumphe, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at the top of the Champs-Elysees; Notre Dame, the historic cathedral on the Ile de la Cite; Sacre Coeur, the huge basilica which dominates the Montmartre skyline.

Paris has dozens of parks and gardens crammed with amusements. Toy sail boats can be hired for 80 francs — 23 cents — an hour on the lagoons of both the Luxembourg Gardens and the Tuileries. Navigating these tiny craft is a major Sunday afternoon pastime for French fathers.

FOR SEWERS — A little girl makes some of her own clothes with a new practical sewing toy designed by Kay Stanley. A scarf and a beanie are among first projects.

Madame Chiang Predicts Return of Nationalists

NEW YORK (INS) — Madame Chiang Kai-Shek has reiterated the intention of the government of the republic of china to return to the mainland.

Madame Chiang, appearing on Quincy Howe's "Outside U.S.A." TV program, said:

"We have built and will continue to build for the future and we do this with the knowledge that the struggle is long and hard and fed by sacrifice. This we know because the Chinese have been fighting the Communists not for five or ten or twenty but for thirty consecutive years."

The wife of President Chiang Kai-shek added that "in keeping with our faith in eventual triumph of the free world over the dark forces of Communism we have not remained stagnant in Formosa. We have wasted no time in weeping bitter tears over shortcomings of past years."

Of the query often asked the Chinese about the return to the Chinese mainland, Madame Chiang said "yes we believe we will go back." She then quoted her husband's statement made in October, which said:

"The conditions for recovering our national territories are all present. We need not worry about the time when we shall be able to recover the mainland. It will come."

AUSTIN, Tex. (INS)—"For Men Only" is the label on a shorthand class organized this fall at the University of Texas. Bashful males, unwilling to mingle with coeds in regular shorthand sections, requested the segregated treatment.

Restore Ancient Site

ATHENS (INS) — Nearing completion, the Stoa of Attalos in the ancient market-place of Athens promises to become Greece's number one tourist attraction after the Acropolis. This $2 million project is aimed at reconstructing the Stoa, a magnificent two-story colonnaded building, exactly as it stood 22 centuries ago.

Bob Considine Says:

Glass Blowers' Leader Defends Merger

NEW YORK (INS)—A plumber named George Meany and a baker named William Schitzler are getting together this week in New York. They and others are putting a little group together. Comes to 16,000,000 working men and women.

What with their families and those their work affects, the melding touches every man, woman and child in the good old U.S.A. It is the union of the unions, the union of the AFL with the CIO. There has never been anything like it in history.

The bigger the union leader, the more double-talk a reporter get when he tries to get a story. So I asked Lee Minton, a young fellow who is head of the Glass Blowers Union (AFL) and has only 50,000 workers (including 12 practitioners of the ancient art of glass blowing, what he felt could be gained by the merger.

Maybe it would be proper at this point to describe and explain Minton. He's a Republican, young, once was a hash-slinger, lives conservatively, and speaks the same.

"I think the merger will be good for management," he told me seriously. "In the first place, management won't have to worry about having one union demand this and that today, another one tomorrow and still another one next week. Second, I think it will help people in the unions feel more secure about their jobs, and that'll mean more buying of the things they make."

MONOPOLY? CARTEL?

It sounded like a monopoly to me, this merger. A cartel, I said. Minton had an answer for that. And an eloquent shrug.

"I had to make a speech the other night in Philadelphia," he said. "It was at one of those places where union leaders normally are never asked to speak. It was a realtors group. The master of ceremonies cautioned me to limit it to 20 minutes, after which there would be questions.

"So I did the 20 minutes, but I couldn't take my eyes off a fellow in the sixth row. He kept eyeing me and I knew he was going to be tough. Sure enough, soon as I finished he was the first to ask a question.

"He said, 'Why do you fellows in labor go into a plant that is happy and content with working for the boss without a union contract? Why do you disturb such people, when they are happy with what they've got?'

"I made a show of thinking this over for half a minute or so," Minton said. "And then I said to him, 'We do that for the same reason that you, as a real estate man, try to sell property that nobody wants or needs'."

ANSWERS 'TOUCHE'

I asked Minton what the man said in response to that.

"He said 'Touche'," Minton replied.

What about the "labor vote" now that the two big unions will be merged, I asked Minton. Would the laboring man or woman be sandbagged into voting for the candidate preferred by the labor brass?

"The average working man is independent," he said. "There's no doubt that the political action group of the new union will do its best to illuminate a candidate's record by printing where he stood on basic issues involving labor.

"But it's ridiculous to think that labor in this country can be regimented. After all, the AFL command came out for Stevenson in '52 . . . you'll remember what happened."

It still seemed like "big labor," this combining, I said. Minton shrugged.

"So?" he asked. "Take a look at the way big banks have been merging. And big automobile companies. Why can't big labor groups merge? We're not menacing anything or anybody.

"The other day the glass blowers saved the University Club in Philadelphia. It couldn't keep up its big building; we were looking for one. So now we share the building and everybody's happy."

LONG-TIME DREAM

The merger has been in the works for years, Minton said. It became a reality chiefly because of Meany and, Minton's good friend Dave McDonald of the 1,200,000 member steel union and Walter Reuther.

There will be a strong declaration about Communist infiltration in the new super union, the head of the glass blowers said. One and all are so proud about the whole thing that they've invited 50 key labor leaders from all over the world to observe the happy melding.

"Invite any labor leaders from Russia?" I asked Minton.

He looked at me for some time and then asked, "Are you kidding?"

Survivors of Nazi Terror Carve Life in Community

By WILMA GREENWAY

It's all right now with the Kryworuchkos. They're builders. They know how to fashion, with their hands and courage, a home for themselves in an alien world.

They learned to weather life's storms the hard way—as Christians during the Communist purges in their native Ukraine, as prison refugees in Nazi concentration camps, as displaced persons, homeless and jobless, in postwar Germany.

They know how to build a home in a free country, brick by brick. And in that home at 3716 Orchard View in Avon Township, Ivan Kryworuchko, his wife Maria and children Ivan Jr., 27, and Nina, 16, cherish the good things life has to offer—warmth, shelter, food, close family ties, security—even such luxuries as music and singing in the evening, feasting on holidays, church on Sundays.

They value these things because they have seen the other side of the picture. They know all about cold, disease, bombings and sadism.

They're not the only ones, either. There's a whole little colony of Ukrainians on Orchard View, five families in all whose fine brick homes adjoin the Kryworuchkos.

Ivan and his family came to America as penniless refugees in 1950 to work on a farm in South Dakota. Later they moved to Indiana, then to Michigan. Their new home, which they moved into in time to celebrate Thanksgiving, is a 3-bedroom brick with 2-car garage, debt free, valued at $18,500.

Working from dawn till dark, Ivan, 51, a carpenter and bricklayer by trade, spent five months building the house. His wife, Maria, and son, Ivan Jr. who supports the family by driving a delivery truck for a firm in Detroit, helped in their spare time, as did daughter, Nina. Nina knew no English when she came here, yet now she has mastered the language and is a freshman at Avondale High School.

Nina tells the story of their family, how they left the Ukraine during the Communist purges, covering more than 2,000 miles on foot. Pulling a wagon loaded with their meager goods, they traversed mountains and plains on blistered, aching feet to reach Germany.

Once in Germany, a harder fate met them, for war was declared between Germany and Russia. They were imprisoned and thrown into concentration camps.

"Hundreds were crowded into barracks," Nina said. "There was forced labor for all who could work. The young children were left alone with no adult to care for them. When the bombs came, my mother would run from her work to be with me, but that meant there was no time to get to a shelter. Once a bomb struck and flung us many feet, but we lived.

"My sister, who was 15, was taken away. She came back a year later, still emaciated, her eyes inflamed and swollen, her feet infected. They had made her shovel coal in her bare feet. When we were freed, she had a chance to go to Canada, where she lives now with her husband.

"A day's food ration was a single bowl of soup, often rotten, and a crust of bread. One guard pitied us and would hide bread and give it to us. But others liked to taunt us."

Nine told how sadistic guards would parade a wagon load of potatoes, guarded by dogs, through the camp, taunting the prisoners with the food.

"I was only 6, and I was starving. I forgot my parents' warning and ran up and took a potato. The dog did nothing until the guard gave the order—then it attacked, biting viciously. I still have the scars.

"There was one boy who was dying of starvation. He kept crying for food. Sometimes my father gave him his own. At last father could stand the crying no longer, so he risked his life to steal a key to the potato warehouse. He fashioned another key and was able to replace the first one before its loss was discovered. After that we were able to steal enough potatoes to keep alive, and the boy lived, too."

When the war ended in 1945, the Kryworuchkos were freed. But because there was no work and no other place, they continued to live in the concentration camp. Kryworuchko made earrings and jewelry which he sold for bread to keep the family alive, until at last the doors to America were opened to them.

In their new home there is laughter, hope and, sometimes, a touch of wonder at how lightly Americans take their heritage. The refugees work hard, but in the evenings they gather together in one another's houses. Talented Nina may have a new watercolor to show, or else she will play her guitar or dance a fast polka.

Ivan junior will be called upon to play his accordion. Soon Kryworuchko will raise his tenor voice and the group will start singing, forgetting the past.

It's a new life. They went through hell to get it, and they know how to appreciate it.

BUILDERS AT WORK — Ivan Kryworuchko, 51, and his daughter, Nina, 16, work with a smile as they complete their new $18,500 home at 3716 Orchard View, Avon Township. Kryworuchko, with his wife, Maria, his son Ivan Jr., 27, and Nina came to America as penniless refugees five years ago after spending 10 years in German concentration camps, first as prisoners under the Nazi regime and later as displaced persons. The four built the home, which for them symbolizes the "wonderful freedom of America," in five months.

Course Teaches Students to Appreciate Science

Science — as it dynamically emerges in everyday life—is being taught through a revamped course of study in use this year in the Pontiac elementary school system.

The program, which took nearly two years to develop, is aimed at getting away from merely teaching facts to creating an appreciation and understanding of the scientific attitude in the pupil's mind which will carry over into adult life.

The course covers a comprehensive range of topics including: water and weather, conservation, astronomy, magnetism and electricity, rocks and minerals, physical phenomena, plants, aviation, animals and health and safety.

"Science is an inescapable factor in modern culture," Coordinator of Elementary Education Gerald E. White pointed out.

To illustrate the philosophy behind the new program, White quoted from a book by Gerald S. Craig, a noted Columbia University educator.

Craig states, "Science . . . in the elementary school (must be considered) as not so much small content to be learned, but as a large outcome which may be emerging constantly in one's life as a result of the interaction of the individual with his environment in an age of science . . ."

There is a "growing insistence that content is valuable only so far as it meets the need of the child and of society . . .

* * *

"The means by which man can control the environment for his own welfare must be given ample consideration in a program of public education."

A need to revise the science program here was first felt in 1952 and the Board of Education appropriated $1,500 for a science workshop.

Two Wayne University faculty members, Dr. William Chamberlain and Charles Overton, were obtained to oversee the workshop.

The group, which met from February to June 1954, included about 75 teachers and principals. They outlined a study course for kindergarten through sixth grade and each wrote one or more units of work.

Their compiled efforts were turned over to the Wayne men for editing. The result was a more than 500-page study guide which is now in use.

"It is suggested that every teacher dwell on each topic at least briefly during the year," said White, "but the instructor is free to vary the amount of time devoted to each area and activities used to illustrate it."

The background of a class plus individual needs and interests will help determine which parts of the world of science are studied longest, he explained.

But, by the time a child has completed the sixth grade it is expected he will have done a considerable amount of work in each of the ten fields.

The full effect of the program will probably not be felt until next year when teachers are familiar with the study course and know what materials are needed to best present it, White explained.

At present 18 elementary teachers are attending a Wayne class taught by Overton which points out how the new system can be utilized.

"There is a great need at present for young people to enter the science field," White stated. "We hope this course will develop the scientific way of thinking at an early age plus skills in locating data, organizing and evaluating it to solve everyday problems.

"Perhaps this interest will carry over into later life and cause more persons to decide on science as a career."

GM Motorama Takes in Nation

Curtice Says Industrial Exhibit Will Visit Major Cities in Country

DETROIT (AP)—Motorama, General Motors' gigantic industrial show, will be presented in five major cities again next year.

Harlow H. Curtice, GM president, said the showing will be more spectacular than ever, with a new group of "dream cars," more educational engineering and research exhibits and a new concept of highway travel for the future.

Details of these features have not yet been disclosed. Curtice said Motorama will open at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Jan. 19 to continue through Jan. 24. Then it will move to Miami, for a Feb. 4-12 presentation; to Los Angeles, Mar. 3-11; San Francisco, Mar. 24-April 1, and Boston, April 19-29.

In each city an invitational preview will be held for business and civic leaders the day before the public showing starts.

Each of GM's car and truck divisions as well as its numerous other units, including household appliance and parts producers, will have displays at the show. One of the features will be an entirely new "Kitchen of Tomorrow" presentation.

New Army Reserve Plan Draws 4,500

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Army has enlisted slightly over 4,500 six-month trainees in the first eight weeks of the new reserve program.

The figures were made public today by the Army in answer to an inquiry on progress of this phase of the latest of a long series of efforts to create a full-fledged reserve system.

These pre-draft age youths have volunteered for six months of active training, followed by 7½ years of reserve liability. Not all of them actually are entering training camps immediately. Many have been granted deferred status to allow them to complete high school and other studies.

The goal of the Defense Department is to have 95,000 trainees by next June 30, a beginning toward an eventual pool of 2½ million trained men who could be called to duty in another war.

Before the program began last Oct. 3, officials talked of getting 5,000 trainees to enlist each month. Officials of the National Security Training Commission, the group which is monitoring the program passed by the last Congress, concede now, however, that the six-month training phase of the program is off to a "slower start than we had expected."

Suggests Local Aid

Consolidation Won't Solve School Plight, Prof Says

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A University of Michigan educator says the formation of large consolidated schools is not solving the rural school problem.

Robert S. Fox, associate professor of education at the university, believes that smaller rural schools are unavoidable if there is to be local control and contact.

Many rural sociologists, Fox says, believe that the school should be organized around the sociological community — around the people who live and work together.

It contradicts the old notion, Fox says, that farm areas should consolidate to a point where rural schools can compare in equipment and resources with city schools.

COMMUNITY CONTROL

When a student has to travel several miles to school, there is no good contact between him and his school or between his family and the school.

But school is becoming more and more a community center, Fox says. There is a need for control by the community and contact between parents and teachers.

"Just by consolidating into larger and larger schools doesn't provide good local control or liaison," Fox says.

There is still a way that rural schools can obtain some of the more expensive educational refinements, Fox says, without sacrificing the smaller local school.

In many states, counties are assuming the added financial burden with county taxes. A county, for instance, can provide special teachers and technicians on a rotating basis to townships which can't afford them individually.

"It looks as though some form of intermediate district is the best answer," Fox says. In Michigan, he suggests the county system of service aid to local schools.

Solon Sees Harriman as '56 'Utility Man'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman of New York was described by Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) in sports language today as a "utility man" candidate for the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

Harriman has said he is not an active candidate for the nomination although he expects to be New York's "favorite son" choice.

But Harriman's chief booster, Tammany leader Carmine DeSapio, said yesterday the historical role of New York governors in party affairs "should dispel the idea that Harriman is only a token or favorite son candidate."

Sparkman, who heard DeSapio's talk to the National Press Club, said in a later interview he thinks DeSapio "is engaged in holding Gov. Harriman in reserve for whatever might happen in the pre-convention campaign."

"He has the governor in a 'utility man' role where he could be rushed into the contest at any time," he added.

Fire Chief's Helmet Warns Deaf Woman

DALLAS (AP)—Battalion Fire Chief A. D. Marable found a new use for his fire helmet when he helped evacuate 20 residents from a burning rooming house.

When shouts failed to rouse a 45-year-old deaf mute woman, he awakened her by shaking her. Unable to make the terrified woman understand, Marable finally took off his fire helmet and flashed his light on the lettering.

"She got the idea fast," Marable said. "She grabbed a robe and ran out then."

FUGITIVES FROM THE FBI

PERCY PORTER KINKADE

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is presenting a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

PERCY PORTER KINKADE is wanted by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for the crime of robbery. With another individual, Kinkade is believed to have robbed a filling station and grocery store near Tecumseh, Okla., on the night of Sept. 9, 1954, after allegedly holding up two other places in Seminole County, Okla., earlier the same night. The accomplice was later arrested.

The fugitive has previously been convicted for attempted robbery, interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle and buying, concealing and receiving stolen property. He has previously escaped custody, may be armed and should be considered dangerous.

A complaint was filed before a U. S. Commissioner at Oklahoma City, Okla., on October 14, 1954, charging Kinkade with fleeing from Oklahoma to avoid prosecution for the crime of robbery.

Kinkade has worked as shoemaker, truck driver, construction worker, machine operator, baker, restaurant and motel manager.

His aliases include Jack Cooper, Melvin E. Jones, "Slim" Jones, James William Maddox, J. W. Moore, "Jack," "Pug," and others.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 36; Born, Ledia, Ark.; Height, 5 feet 8 to 5 feet 10; Weight, 187 to 215; Build, medium stocky; Hair, brown, wavy; Eyes, brown; Complexion, dark. Scars and marks, 1-inch cut scar on tip of nose; tattoo of skull and dagger on right forearm and appendectomy scar. He may be wearing a mustache.

City of Pontiac Payroll Largest Ever During August, Personnel Head Says

Pontiac reached the highest number of city employes in its history during August when 721 workers were listed on the city payrolls.

Personnel Director William L. Collins said the high was necessitated for several reasons. The maintenance staff of the city hall was increased and the annual boost in the public works department for summer programs were two such reasons.

"We increased the fire department personnel, police department staff and the water department to handle a comparable increase in the population and the number of new homes being built in the city," Collins stated.

The high reached this August showed an increase of 33 over the 688 city employes of August last year.

"During this same period the city's population probably increased from two to three thousand which demanded additional police and fire department protection," Collins said.

"We also had the pollution problem to contend with which was another reason for the record number of employes."

The director stated that Pontiac's Police Department still does not meet national police standards as to size of the force compared to other cities of equal population.

Nance Tells Probers Automation to Aid All

WASHINGTON (AP) — President James J. Nance of the Studebaker-Packard Corp. told congressional investigators Wednesday that automation in the auto industry can help, rather than hurt, the smaller independent producers.

In a statement filed at the request of the Senate-House Economic impact of the increasing use of machinery in factories, Nance reported:

"As a smaller motor car manufacturer, Studebaker-Packard Corp. has not suffered any competitive or other disadvantage due to introduction into the industry of automatic processes."

However, to achieve the benefits of automatic operation, the plant must be run at or near capacity, Nance said. If this volume of business is attained, "the smaller manufacturer enjoys production costs as favorable as those enjoyed by a larger manufacturer."

Muni to Act Again After Eye Removal

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Muni, whose left eye was removed by surgery recently, plans to return tonight to his star role in the Broadway hit drama "Inherit the Wind."

The 60-year-old stage and screen star was forced to quit the play Aug. 29 because of a serious eye ailment.

Muni decided yesterday he was in shape to return.

A spokesman for producer Herman Shumlin said that if everything went well with Muni at rehearsals with the company today—"and we fully expect that it will"—he would be back tonight.

State Police Veteran to Retire December 10

LANSING (AP)—Cpl. Richard L. Arnett, a 25-year veteran of the State Police, will retire Dec. 10, State Police said today.

Arnett, now assigned to the Brighton Post, has served at East Lansing, White Pigeon, Bay City, Detroit and New Buffalo. He has also served as commander of the St. Clair and Marquette Posts.

Jailbird Willing to Marry Some Girl in Hoosegow

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Robert D. Foster, one eye on the future and one on his cell, sent the following letter to the local press:

"I am a lonely boy in jail here and have decided to propose to any girl or marry her here in jail, so if any of you lonely girls want to hook up with a jail bird just drop me a line."

Foster is being held for court action on a number of charges, including forgery, illegal whisky distilling and obtaining property under false pretenses.

Each County Owner Will Pay $952 This Year

Car Upkeep Expensive, Survey Finds

NEW YORK—How much does it cost residents of Oakland County per year to operate their cars? It is a question that owners ask themselves often, especially when their insurance bills come due. Few of them really know.

Figures produced by the American Automobile Association show that a car in the popular price range, driven less than 18,000 miles a year, costs $602 in fixed charges and 3.5 cents additional for every mile driven.

Applying this average to Oakland County, where last year's registration showed 194,300 passenger cars in use, gives $185,000,000 as the annual operating expenditure. Per car, it is $952.

This assumes that local drivers travel 10,000 miles a year, which is average. There is little variation in this respect between urban and rural dwellers.

Every day of the year, whether the car is used or not, its owner has a bill of $1.65. This fixed charge is for depreciation, by far the largest, property damage and liability insurance ($15,000 and $30,000), and fire and theft coverage. No allowance is made for deductible collision insurance, which many carry.

As to the 3.5 cents a mile figure, it covers gas, oil, maintenance (including $25 a year for repairs) and tires.

For the driver who registers 10,000 miles a year it boils down to an overall cost of 9.5 cents a mile.

The 5,000 mile driver fares worse on a mileage basis. His fixed costs are the same and his variable costs come to $175, a total of $777. This amounts to 15.5 cents a mile.

On the other hand, cars driven 20,000 miles require $1,324 a year, or only 6.6 cents a mile.

The fixed charges vary somewhat for different parts of the country. The AAA data shows New York City to be highest with $2.04 a day. The lowest, $1.48, is found in Montana and Michigan.

Oakland County's filling stations and garages have benefited by the auto boom. Their business last year, reports Consumer Markets, climbed to $55,140,000.

JUST ANOTHER DAY — Given 24 hours to live in 1910, Mrs. Demitra Gekas of Chicago celebrated her 101st birthday recently by putting added zest into a daily chore — stoking her basement furnace at 4:30 in the morning. She can still sew without the aid of glasses and goes to church every Sunday. As for the doctors who predicted her death in 1910, Mrs. Gekas says, "I feel a little guilty about letting them down."

Senate Eyes Firing of 'Security Risks'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators set out today to determine how many discharged federal employes actually were fired under the Eisenhower administration's security program.

Officials of 24 government departments and agencies were called by a Senate Civil Service subcommittee headed by Sen. Olin D. Johnson (D-SC) to testify in two days of public hearings.

Paul Hadlick, subcommittee counsel, said an attempt was being made to find out how many employes listed as fired under the security program would have been dismissed anyhow under regular civil service procedures.

Democrats frequently have charged that Vice President Nixon and other Republicans made "a numbers game" out of reported security risk firings in the last election campaign.

'Red Infiltration Will Be Issue'

Communist Subversion to Be Campaign Topic, McCarthy Says

WASHINGTON (INS)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) has stated Communist subversion will be a campaign issue next year unless a subcommittee headed by Sen. Thomas Hennings (D-Mo), changes its tactics.

McCarthy made his views known in a letter to Hennings, who has been conducting hearings on constitutional rights. The hearings are in recess pending a date at which Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. can appear.

The Wisconsin Republican, who attacked the hearings last week, charged that the Hennings subcommittee has been "browbeating" the Army, and its activities "give aid and comfort to this country's enemies."

McCarthy said that the "only people who can reasonably call you (Hennings) their hero are the Communist party liners whose anti-security propaganda campaigns your one-man committee is so energetically promoting."

McCarthy blamed Hennings for changes in Defense Department security rules which the Wisconsin Republican contended were issued originally to correct laxity exposed by his own investigation of the Army.

Texas-Born Girl, 6, Speaks Only German

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—She's only 6 years old and she was born in this English and Spanish-speaking city, but little Anita Diaz is having to learn her native languages for the first time.

She speaks only German.

San Francisco Profits $53,000 From Walnuts

SAN FRANCISCO — A walnut grove owned by San Francisco and located on land in the City's far-flung water system is returning a nice chunk of revenue to the municipality.

This year the City expects to derive about $53,000 from an 85-ton crop of walnuts. The crop will sell for about $61,000, but some $8,000 will be paid to the persons who harvest it.

Nuclear School Sited in Toledo

$50,000 Gift Creates Atom Engineering Unit at City University

TOLEDO (AP)—The University of Toledo has announced it received a $50,000 gift for the creation of a department of nuclear enginering from industrialist Ward M. Canaday and his wife.

University President Asa S. Knowles said the contribution was intended to support the new department as a part of the college of engineering for two years. If in that time the department proves a success, Mr. and Mrs. Canaday have indicated their willingness to join with others in providing funds for the creation of a separate school of nuclear engineering, he added.

One factor which influenced Mr. and Mrs. Canaday in making the gift was said to be the proximity of a site already approved for a reactor plant to be built by atomic power development associates, a group of private firms which includes the Toledo Edison and Detroit Edison companies. The site is at Monroe, Mich., 18 miles north of Toledo.

Heroic Wife Recalled in Virginia Church

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — Susannah Alexander awoke grabbed a gun and killed a man pursuing her husband, John, around the room with a hatchet. Then the Alexanders wrapped the victim in his horsehide fobe and buried him on a hillside!

The victim was Long Tom, Orinoco Indian chief. John Alexander was a founder of this early American city—and wouldn't have been except for Susannah's sudden awakening.

Mention was made of the historical incident at ceremonies in the cemetery of old Pohick Church were John and Susannah—as well as Long Tom—lie buried.

State Turnpike Authority Gathering Pay Road Data

The Michigan Turnpike Authority, which hopes to build a Rockwood to Saginaw toll road, has gathered information on pay-highways in other states which it feels points up the spreading use of such projects.

The report includes the following information:

Florida is building the first 100-mile leg of its "Sunshine State Parkway" between Fort Pierce and Miami. When completed the toll road will stretch from Miami to Jacksonville.

The Illinois Toll Authority has marketed $415,000,000 in turnpike bonds to construct a 193-mile toll road network to serve congested areas near Chicago, Elgin, South Beloit and Aurora.

Construction work on the 236-Mile Kansas Turnpike is 25 per cent complete. Cost so far is $97,515,000.

Commercial revenues on the New York State Thruway increased for the 16th straight month during October making a ten-month, 1955 grand total of $10,673,488.

Indiana's 156-mile, east-west toll road will open in November next year, linking New York with Chicago. The state's governor, George N. Craig, said a north-south turnpike from Chicago to Indianapolis is under study.

Since it opened in August, 1954, the Garden State Parkway in New Jersey has had the lowest fatality rate in the nation for roads carrying similar traffic volume.

Gun Battery Will Leave Grosse Pointe Park Area

DETROIT (AP) — Because property owners complained it was a nuisance, the Army antiaircraft battery in Grosse Pointe Park will have to move out of the city by next Aug. 31.

The City Council yesterday voted not to renew the Army engineers' five-year lease on the defense site.

Red Bosses Leave India for Visit With Burmese

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist Party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev left Calcutta by plane today for a six-day visit to Burma.

They will return for another weeks trip through eastern and northern India, the second half of their Indian visit.

A huge crowd led by Prime Minister Nehru turned out to see the Soviet leaders depart. Nehru also left today for New Delhi.

In a speech to the throng welcoming Bulganin and Khrushchev to Calcutta yesterday, Nehru said the world need not fear that the Soviet visitors will draw India into the Communist bloc.

The Prime Minister said India is maintaining its "basic policy" of not joining any "camp or alliance."

Policemen Can't Afford to Tow Away That Car

BOSTON (AP)—Police ordered a tow truck to remove an auto parked illegally outside City Hall.

As the tow truck began its operations, the car's driver raced out of City Hall and explained he was picking up the city paymaster to deliver police pay checks to police headquarters.

"This is one we can't afford to tow away," said the policeman as he ordered the tow truck off.

Wanting CRC Put on Red List

Subversives Board Man Sees Civil Rights Group as Communist Run

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the Subversive Activities Control Board recommended today the Civil Rights Congress be required to register as a Communist front.

Retiring board member David J. Coddaire found the CRC is "substantially directed and controlled by the Communist party," and is "primarily operated for the purpose of giving aid and support to Communists."

There was no immediate comment from the CRC.

Coddaire conducted months of hearings on a petition by Atty. Gen. Brownell to require the CRC to register under the 1950 Internal Security Act, list its officers and give an annual financial accounting.

Constitutionality of registration provisions of the act has ben challenged by the Communist party. The matter is awaiting decision by the Supreme Court.

Coddaire's report now goes to the full board for action. The CRC can file exceptions and ask for oral arguments on them.

Coddaire said the CRC was planned and created by the Communist party in 1946 through a merger of several organizations including the International Labor Defense.

This was done, he said, to utilize defense of civil rights for party purposes and to raise and maintain large mass defense and bail funds for party use.

Yale Offers Courses

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — With the possible exception of Methusela, nobody could live long enough to take all the courses offered by Yale University. The curriculum of 1,450 courses and a student would need more than 350 academic years to go through all of them, reports President A. Whitney Griswold.

'Buddy' Backslapping Gets Man Into Trouble

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP)—John H. Wallace entered a bank during a holdup yesterday. He mistook a man holding a machine gun for a friend, walked up behind him and slapped him on the back.

It was the wrong thing to do, at least at that particular moment. The man whirled, snarled at Wallace and ordered him behind a counter, where four women tellers and several patrons were huddling.

The holdup man and a confederate got away with $16,000.

Railroad Engineer Dies of Attack at Throttle

MONMOUTH, Ill. (AP) — The engineer of a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad's passenger train, the Nebraska Zephyr, suffered a heart attack last night.

The engineer, E. M. Peck of Galesburg, died shortly before the train reached Monmouth.

The fireman, J. J. Wilson, also of Galesburg, halted the train and another engineer, V. M. Daniels of Burlington, who was riding to Galesburg, brought it on into Monmouth.

Widow Leaves Millions Made on Barren Land

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Cora Nidever, 85, who made an oil fortune on 80 acres of barren land she inherited, left an estate in excess of two million dollars, including $1,827,350 in cash.

She died a week ago after a long illness. A childless widow, she left no will. A petition for letters of administration lists seven nieces and nephews as legal heirs.

Mrs. Nidever inherited the property near Coalinga, Calif., from her mother Mrs. Hester Binkley, who had homesteaded it at the turn of the century. Oil was discovered in 1939.

Is Soviet Nikolai Bulganin a Hypocrite? Indians Confused Over Red Statements

By JOHN H. MARTIN

Is Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin a hypocrite?

Millions of illiterate Indians welcoming Bulganin and his sidekick, party boss Nikita Khrushchev, apparently do not think so but some more schooled Indians seem to be uneasy at the good will foray of the Soviets.

Then there are the British. A London foreign office spokesman, Peter Matthews, said Bulganin seemed to be "thoroughly hypocritical" in his New Delhi speech in which he said the Soviets never interfered in the affairs of other nations.

British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden's government has rebuked Matthews, but Sir Anthony himself did not repudiate the hypocritical statement Tuesday when he had a chance in the House of Commons.

BRITISH TO BLAME

In fact a British official at the foreign office, permanent Under-Secretary Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, counter-charged to a protesting Soviet envoy that Khrushchev in fact insulted Sir Anthony when he said that the British were to blame for the Nazi attack on the Soviet Union.

Then there are the Iranians, who have some bitter memories of Soviet politicians.

Moscow, right at the moment, is putting heavy pressure on Iran to try to force that nation to quit the five-nation Baghdad Defense Pact.

The Soviets are accusing the Iranians of a provocative, hostile policy and of violating an old non-aggression and neutrality treaty.

REMEMBER THE WAR

Remember the Soviet actions after World War II. If it had not been for world pressure exerted through the newly-formed United Nations and Western statesmen the Russian troops apparently still would be in Iran.

Under a wartime agreement the American, Russians and British put troops into Iran to fight the Axis. Mainly, Iran was used as a ferrying route to ship vast amounts of American aid to the Soviet army.

When the war ended the Americans and British withdrew by early 1946. But not the Russians. They even threatened Iran by saying that it would be an "unfriendly act" if the Tehran government put its case before the U.N. Security Council.

Tehran did so and by spring the Red army finally pulled out of the strategic area. East European nations over-run by the Red army are not so fortunate. The Red army still is in those countries.

Illinois Cabbie Held in Slaying of Child

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Police said today a cab driver admitted the rape-slaying of an 8-year-old Canton, Ill., girl.

James Christensen, superintendent of the Illinois State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, said that Lloyd Miller, 29, also of Canton, signed a statement admitting the slaying of Janice May last Saturday.

The girl's stripped and beaten body was found hidden among some upended railroad cars.

Christensen said Miller signed the statement after hours of questioning since his arrest in Danville Monday night. He had steadfastly denied any connection with the slaying.

Miller, who has been held on a technical charge of grand larceny in connection with the taking of a cab from Canton to nearby Pekin, was not charged immediately with the rape-slaying.

NARVIK, Norway — Since rifle shooting is potentially of great value in defending a rugged country like Norway, the State subsidizes rifle clubs. First Congregational Church to Sponsor Bazaar

Mrs. John Morrison (right) of East Huron street has spent many hours decorating baskets, wooden bowls, plates and buckets. Aprons, towels and pillow cases also will be among the items featured for sale. From left to right, other First Congregational bazaar workers are Mrs. L. C. Barner of Hudson avenue, Mrs. Roy Bennett of Chamberlain street and Mrs. Leon Putman of Chandler avenue.

Mrs. William T. Hurlburt (left) of Elmhurst street is chairman of the kitchen committee that will serve both luncheon and dinner at the First Congregational Church's Kris Kringle Karnival Friday. She and Mrs. Oscar Lundbeck of Chippewa road, immediate past president of the Women's Association, are putting frozen packages of ham and turkey in the refrigerator to thaw.

Kris Kringle Karnival Set for Friday

Luncheon, Dinner Will Be Served by Women's Group

First Congregational Church members plan to do their Christmas shopping this Friday at the Kris Kringle Karnival, annual Christmas bazaar sponsored by the Women's Association.

The public is invited to eat luncheon and dinner at the Karnival. Luncheon, featuring sandwiches, salads, soup, beverages and assorted desserts, will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

A baked ham dinner will be served from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. Mrs. William Hurlburt is chairman of the kitchen committee.

This will be the first time that the new kitchen is used for a bazaar. Proceeds of bazaars in former years helped equip the large, efficient room that will permit more people to be fed.

Most of the attractions to be found at church bazaars will be seen at the Kris Kringle Karnival; there will be baked goods and Christmas decorations. Aprons and linens are available in large numbers.

Painted wooden trays, plates, buckets, baskets and stools are a feature of the "This 'n' That" booth. Mrs. Ivan Knight heads the committee for the latter.

Mrs. Claude F. Shoup is in charge of the baked goods booth; Mrs. Robert Sanford and her committee have worked on the Christmas decorations.

SEWING PROJECT

For the past year a weekly sewing bee has been held to make items, mainly aprons, for the Karnival. Mrs. Roy Bennett is handling plans for displaying and selling the results of this project.

"Everything for the Home" is the slogan of the House Beautiful Booth, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur W. Selden. Her booth contains a number of interesting antiques, as well as articles for home decoration.

The Mary Lyon Group of the Women's Association, made up of young married women, sponsors the Cherub Shop each year. In this booth buyers will find children's clothes and novelties and dolls' clothes. Mrs. John H. Vanderlind is chairman.

Plans to entertain child visitors include the continuous showing of cartoons, a fish pond, a fortune teller, and a beauty shop where youngsters may be made up. The Couples' Club is in charge, with Mrs. George Gaches as the chairman.

Pontiac Press Photos

Burt Carols to Be Sung December 11

Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will present a concert including the carols written by the late Alfred Burt of Pontiac on Dec. 11 at 3:30 p.m. in the Charles A. Parcells Junior High School, Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Burt's carols developed from a project begun 30 years ago by the late Rev. Bates G. Burt, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church, who adopted the custom of sending his friends an original carol as the family holiday greeting. Later his son, Alfred, assisted him in the family project.

After the death of his father, Alfred Burt continued the custom and requested Wihla Hutson to write words for the carols. Prior to the death of Alfred Burt in February 1954, 12 of his carols were recorded and released by a national recording company.

The Grosse Point Community Chorus, under the direction of Malcolm Johns, assistant professor of music at Wayne University, will also present a Bach Christmas cantata, "For Unto Us a Child Is Born," with a string quartet, a group of traditional carols and two holiday novelty numbers, "Let It Snow" and "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

When young mothers take on outside duties, they often take their pre-schoolers with them. Checking the list of items to be sold in the Cherub Booth are Mrs. Barclay Robertson of Wilson avenue with Catherine (left) and Mrs. Jack Mapley of East Lake Angelus road with Jerry. Items for sale in this booth will be doll clothes, children's clothes and children's novelties.

Ladies' Night Held

Ladies' Night was held by Rotary Club Wednesday at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Preceding the dinner-dance attended by 250 were several cocktail parties.

Remember that the neckline is the most important part of any dress, from a flattery angle. It forms a frame for your face, and should be chosen with an eye to proportion.

John Huston Includes 2 of His Own Movies in List of the 14 'Greatest'

By CHARLES P. ARNOT

NEW YORK (INS)—Movie director John Huston picked his personal list of "all time greatest" motion pictures today, and said he hoped no one would object too much if he included a couple of his own.

With modest self-assurance, he suggested that his dramatic "Treasure of the Sierra Madre" and his forthcoming "Moby Dick" adorn the list of 14—"at the very end."

On his latest whirlwind visit to the U.S., the lanky creator of a movie technique sometimes revered as "the Huston style" settled on 12 American productions, one Italian film and a Danish epic made in France with an Italian star.

Ten of Huston's nominations for the "best pictures ever made" were filmed before the last war, one 40 years ago and five during the era of the silent screen.

Counting time for drumfire Huston commentary and a flurry of Huston gestures, it took him less than five minutes to compile the list in this order:

1. "City Lights," the Charlie Chaplin silent of 1931.

2. "Mutiny on the Bounty," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer sea spectacle of 1935, starring Charles Laughton, Clark Gable and Franchot Tone.

3. "David Copperfield," the 1935 MGM hit with W. C. Fields, Lionel Barrymore and Freddie Bartholomew.

4. "The Best Years of Our Lives," Samuel Goldwyn's Academy Award winner of 1946 directed by William Wyler.

5. "The Bicycle Thief," director Vittorio de Sica's great Italian drama of 1949.

6. "Camille," one of Greta Garbo's greatest, first-released in 1936.

7. "Underworld," Josef von Sternberg's silent for Paramount in 1927.

8. "Foolish Wives," Universal's silent of 1922 starring and directed by Eric von Stroheim.

9. "Passion of Joan of Arc," directed by Denmark's Carl T. Dreyer, starring Italy's Maria Salconetti and filmed in France in 1933.

10. "Birth of a Nation," the D. W. Griffith silent spectacle of 1915.

11. "Covered Wagon," Paramount's silent of 1923.

12. "The Informer," John Ford's 1935 RKO film which won Victor McLaglen an Academy Award.

At this point, the 49-year-old Huston paused to chain-light another of his strong, brown-paper cigarettes. Then his thin face broke into a broad grin as he ran a hand through his shock of graying hair and plunged on:

"I hope no one will mind if I put a couple of my own at the bottom."

NO ONE DISSENTS

There was not a dessenting vote from the half-dozen restaurant table disciples, so Huston officially added "Treasure," which won his late great actor-father Walter Huston an Academy Award in 1948, and "Moby Dick," which he has just completed in Ireland after a year's writing, nine months' shooting and four million dollars' investment.

"It would be hard for me to add to this list," Huston concluded. "Each of these pictures seems to me to have fulfilled itself and all its possibilities."

Like his gripping "Treasure of the Sierra Madre," which brought Huston writing and direction awards in 1948, his "Moby Dick" has an all-male cast headed by Gregory Peck, Orson Welles and Britain's Leo Genn.

"Let's say at this point that I hope 'Moby Dick' will qualify for the list," Huston said. "It won't be released here until next spring or early summer, but, believe me I'll stand on it."

The filming in Ireland of Herman Melville's famous story of the white whale would make an adventure book in itself.

First came a worldwide search for a site resembling the early-day New Bedford, Mass. Huston found it at an unlikely place called Yaughal whose 2,000 villagers immediately turned the whole Irish coastal town over to him.

REBELLIOUS OCEAN

Then the ocean refused to cooperate, kicking up storms that three times dismasted Huston's sailing vessel and twice made off with his steel and rubber "whales." Each of them, 100 feet long and weighing 100 tons, cost $25,000. One never was found.

Huston, who now lives in Ireland with his wife and two children, hopes to decide during this flying trip to New York and Hollywood what picture comes next.

He still wants to do Kipling's "The Man Who Would Be King," but not for a couple of years.

When Your Family Goes Out for a Meal - - -

City Sanitarian Makes Sure Restaurants Are Clean

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

When you sit down to a delicious home-cooked meal you take it for granted that the "little woman" has prepared the food in the utmost high standards of sanitation.

But what about when you decide to take the wife and kids out for a meal in a city restaurant? Is the food handled and prepared there as it is in the average home?

It is the responsibility of City Sanitarian Charles S. Cohen and his assistant Ralph Florio to see that it is.

And their job is not an easy one. In addition to all restaurants in the city, the pair inspects at least twice a year all eating and drinking establishments, grocery stores, food caterers in industrial plants, hospitals, and lunchrooms and kitchens in all public schools.

INSPECTION TIMES

All these establishments are inspected prior to licensing and once when bacteriological cultures on food equipment are taken. They are inspected more often if a change in personnel occurs, if alterations are made or if the establishment becomes a "borderline case."

Florio explains a "borderline case" as one that just meets the minimum health and sanitation regulations required by law.

"These cases are inspected very frequently, such as once a month or twice a month, in an attempt to bring them up to the required standards," Florio said.

City Sanitarian Cohen estimated that the city has from 30 to 40 establishments that fall into this category. "Many of these places improve and come up to our standards by way of a change in management," Florio explained.

"We're not receiving any more complaints as to deficiencies than we received in the past," Cohen said. "Things are better now than they were 10 years ago. The situation is not alarming nor is it perfect. There are lots of inspections to be made as to food handling and sanitation."

ONLY SIX CLOSED

"There have been less than six food establishments closed this year for public health reasons and these are now open for they have either changed management or have complied with the standards," Florio said.

He said in the last three weeks there were two restaurants closed due to unsanitary conditions such as dirty equipment, poor methods of maintaining, keeping and serving of foods.

"There seems to be an increase in poor management because of lack of working knowledge and ability, poor help and poor establishments," Florio declared.

Cohen and Florio are aided in their important work by retired public health director Dr. Charles A. Neafie who serves as a consultant and by a state inspector who works under the Department of Agriculture.

The department has a four-point program in surveillance of offenders. For minor deficiencies, notice is issued to correct them. For more serious violations, a violation notice is ordered.

HABITUAL OFFENDER

If the first two notices fail to bring about corrective action, the department orders the place to be closed. Then if the establishment is an habitual offender, the department recommends to the City Commission that a license be denied the violator.

"The people that patronize the restaurants can help the department by keeping their eyes open and seeing how things are handled, and in this way serve as auxiliary inspectors," Cohen stated.

"Any honest and legitimate complaints discovered should be directed to our department. All this information is kept confidential," his assistant added.

Bandana prints used with white cotton in a California version of the Mexican influence appears strongly in spring styles for men and boys by the Men's and Boys' Apparel Guilds in California. This boy's shirt has a collar and inset bib of bandana print, with vented sides for extra comfort. It is worn with the new California peon trousers. Don Rancho calls this shirt style "Tasco."

Belts Becoming Big Paris Rage

PARIS (INS) — Slim-waisted girls in Paris — and they are legion — like to show off with tight belts.

Despite all the new uninterrupted, sheathy styles, belts are still fashionable and stunning accessories.

Dior himself shows belts on some of his new waisted winter styles. For sports wear he proposes a coffee colored suede belt with a metal clasped change-purse in front in kangaroo pouch fashion.

Another Dior belt-model is a real peplum. Reaching from the waist to the hip-bones it is contoured and made of blonde suede leather. To underline the peplum style it is buttoned down the front by tiny buttons and has two waistcoat style pockets.

Cosmetics Not for Child's Play

The problem of cosmetics for kids is one not so easily solved. Playing dressup can easily be managed if mother gives her daughter worn out clothes and shoes to wear when she feels like it. It's a constructive and entertaining kind of play.

But a woman certainly cannot do this with her cosmetics. Many of them can be employed unwisely—lipstick can be eaten, for instance. And even if used correctly, many adult cosmetics are entirely unsuitable for a child. It is not safe, for instance, to turn a child loose with an old box of mascara or eye shadow. It's downright dangerous.

So a child's natural desire to play grown-up has to be satisfied in a safe manner. And it probably ought to incorporate some good grown-up habits along with the fun.

SANDLER OF BOSTON

She Wants to Sell Holiday Goodies

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I am a pretty good cook," a woman writes, "and would like to make some food product I could sell—in a small way—for Christmas. While I have no special recipe for fruitcake or anything like that, I make certain cookies and candies well.

"I wonder if you could make any suggestions."

Your venture will really have to be on a small scale, because it is too late now to do very much with mail order Christmas gifts.

But you can still make some pin money selling a product in your own community, provided you do it right.

Of course, you'll have to check with your Department of Health, to get any necessary certificate.

The next step is to settle on one single item, perfect your skill at it and package it attractively. Then you can get all the supplies and packaging equipment in large quantities, and keep your expenses down.

TO SELECT ITEM

Now for selecting the single item. It must have unique appeal, be unavailable in the market generally and be sufficiently low-priced to make a nice "stocking" present, or one that's suitable for hanging on the tree.

You might consider a lollipop with a Santa Claus face, which would be attractive, good-tasting and pure.

Or really delicious, creamy homemade fudge, cut in big squares, wrapped in gold or silver paper, with a ribbon for tying it on the tree.

Perhaps you might use some sugar substitute and work out a good recipe for candy for dieters, which is really low in calories. Packaged attractively, and with its low-caloried content mentioned on the package, it should sell well.

Christmas cookies are usually a good bet, but they have to be extra special, because here you have competition.

Many women have wonderful family recipes, from Scandinavia, Germany or Austria, for mouth-watering Christmas cookies which they are expert at baking. Still, if you dig into an old cookbook, you may come up with something.

BETTER ADVERTISE

When it comes to selling your item, better advertise it in your local paper, mentioning the price and a few salient features.

You might also give a sample to each of a number of friends, telling them to tell their friends.

If your product is small, gay and inexpensive, it will be a life-saver to last-minute shoppers, who may order it plentifully.

Oil Paintings Can Be Cleaned With Soap Suds

MADISON, Wis. (INS) — Oil paintings can be cleaned at home if they are not old and coated with varnish.

So says Byron Jorns, extension artist at the University of Wisconsin.

Jorns said the following method should be used in cleaning an unvarnished oil painting:

Remove the canvas from the frame and place the canvas over a soft pillow. This cushion will avoid cracking the paint surface.

Wash the surface gently with a lukewarm soap suds—repeatedly if necessary to get the painting clean. Remove the suds by using a cloth moistened with clear water.

Follow this with an application of boiled linseed oil with a soft lintless cloth or with a dull-finish mastic varnish. The oil or varnish are obtainable at art stores.

Jorns cautions against rubbing the canvas hard or flooding the picture with water.

Select a type of luggage in keeping with the receiver's packing habits, depending upon whether he or she prefers to use hangers, pack flat or roll garments.

New Finishings Enhance Rooms

Today, thanks to the introduction of plastics, synthetic fibers, finishes, chemical treatments and constantly improving technologies, we have many durable furnishings.

With assurance of long-lasting furnishings, children's rooms, or, most important, any room a child may live in, can be bright and entrancing. It can withstand any amount of rough use and is as easy to keep clean as it is pretty. Such rooms are coming to be the rule rather than the exception.

When buying a set, remember that matched luggage is more fashionable—and easier to locate at claim desks. If it's a single piece, try to correlate the color and styling with other luggage already owned by the receiver.

IF overweight—

Nothing, but nothing will emphasize this more than crowded neckline. V-neckline in fur or fabric breathes comfort.

Simple round neckline or V-cut looks right on the woman who carries weight above the waistline. The bulky new necklines are perfect for tall, slim figures but a flat stole is a happier choice for overweight women.

Waiting and Not Dating Won't Attract Boy

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I like him very much and his best friend told him I do. But he never asks me for a date. In fact, he hardly talks to me. All the other boys ask me to go out but I always say no. I am waiting for him to ask me. How can I make that happen?

Answer: A girl can wait and wait and deprive herself of a lot of fun just because the guy she's waiting for hasn't the same idea she has.

This boy you like has been told you like him, yet it hasn't whirred up his interest in you to any noticeable degree. He doesn't hang around you, doesn't even talk to you. It might be just that you don't stir his imagination. It might be that he doesn't date at all.

And for a hopeless case like that why should you be wasting your time? He doesn't know that you're turning down dates because of him. And he might not care if he did know.

But he might perk up if he heard that you were out dating with other boys. It might make him a mite jealous. He might want to get on the bandwagon himself. Dating other boys might do you more good with him than not. So what are you waiting for?

"Dear Miss Woodward: I had an argument with my girl friend and we broke up. Though I apologized to her and tried to make up, she won't have anything to do with me.

"There are no other girls around here that I want to go with. And I think she's waiting for someone else to start going with her. But all the other guys know I still like her and they thing she likes me too, so they won't date her. (She doesn't know this, of course.)

"Also, she thinks I like another girl (I don't). I think a guy is entitled to talk and joke around with other girls. And, besides, if she doesn't like me what does it matter to her?

"That's why I think she still likes me. Can you help me out with this?"

Answer: If the other guys are going to steer clear of her because of you, she's going to have a good long wait. During which she's going to get tired of lonely evenings and no dates. She's going to regret being so hasty with you—and so stubborn when you apologized.

You might try giving her another call just to see how she is. Let her mull over that inconclusive call. A week later ask her for a date.

If she accepts (and I suspect she will) don't knock yourself out with apologies. Let her go part way to patch things up with you.

Dark Make-Up Gives Older Appearance

ATLANTA (INS) — Don't expect a dark make-up to give you that healthy, sunburned look. It won't — it will only add years to your appearance.

Paul Owens, beauty authority for a New York modeling agency which has branched out into the cosmetic field, says any time a woman uses a make-up tone darker than her natural skin tone she will appear older.

And, says Owens, a woman should never choose her make-up by the color of her hair. A natural blonde may have a brunette skin tone. On the other hand, a woman with dark hair may have a fair complexion.

Striking fabrics and novel stylings mark this season's jackets for men. The striped shetland fabric at left combines two shades of blue with two shades of gray. The all-wool tweed coat at right features the belted back—which is now staging a comeback. Both styles originate on the West Coast.

American Women Favor Small Furs

ATLANTA (INS) — More American women are buying "small" furs today than at any time in the history of the fur business.

Murray Reiff, New York fur stylist, says that the trend all over the country is away from the long fur coat and toward the cape, stole or short jacket.

Fur Substitute Made of Jersey

French factories have even turned out jersey to stand in for fur. A manufacturer has made jersey sports jackets that look very much like lamb fur in a sandy beige color.

Furry white jersey is used for a soft textured, full skirt worn with a sweater as casual outfit.

Newcomers Can't Make First Move

Older Residents of Community Should Call on Them

By EMILY POST

"When several people are sitting in a group and one of them is relating a story, or they are in the midst of a discussion, and another person joins the group, is it necessary to tell the new arrival very quickly what the story is about, or the subject of the discussion?

"I think it is very rude to allow a person to sit in complete ignorance of the conversation. What do you have to say about this?"

Answer: It depends how briefly you can explain, but, remember, going into a long explanation to a new arrival will bore everyone else.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Very soon we will have new neighbors next door to us and I would like to know if it is still customary for the old residents to call on new neighbors. Someone told me that this practice is no longer followed. This is not a new community, but an old established one, if that makes a difference."

Answer: It is very cruel for new people to come to a community where they are not made welcome. By all means call on them, because they are helpless and cannot call on you.

Dear Mrs. Post: I was married recently and received quite few money gifts. I would like to know if it is proper to mention the amount of money in my thank-you notes, or just thank them for their gifts and not mention money at all? I would appreciate your telling me the correct wording of such a note."

Answer: You say, "Thank you for your generous (or very generous) gift"—and don't mention the amount.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When hard rolls are served, is it proper to cut them with a knife, or must they always be broken by hand?"

Christmas Card Choice Immense

You can buy every type of Christmas card imaginable these days, including cards for baby's first Christmas. One such card features a kitten that meows softly when squeezed.

Another is a book, with simulated leather cover, in which the baby's first Yuletide can be recorded. The book provides space to list baby's cards, presents and reactions, as well as a special section reserved for Christmas photos.

Since mascara is soluble in water, most of such stains on towels will come out during the regular session in the washing machine or tub.

Debutantes Copy Fashion Models

Debutante socialites in Paris like to think of themselves as fashion models. Now they are copying famous couture models by carrying large box-cases, necessary for mannequins to contain accessories and make-up for posing and modeling.

Square or round-shaped and looking like small hat-boxes, these cases are very fashionable. The smartest models are covered with plaid fabric piped in leather for sports wear or made of shiny box-calf to go with a city coat or suit.

Leather Furniture Adds Beauty Note

Once noted mainly for its durability, today leather furniture is used by outstanding decorators to lend a note of beauty and distinction to every part of the house.

Because of its versatility, its individual texture and the many hues in which it is available, leather can be blended with every period of furniture. Whether your home is French Provincial, Early American, Regency or Modern, there are handsome leather pieces to add glamor to every room.

Dresses Pared to Stemlike Style This Year

The full-skirted look of the days immediately after the war have finally disappeared, and the silhouette this season has been pared to where it is like a stem in appearance, yet extremely functional.

No bobble skirts allowed, but graceful slimness with a kick pleat placed just right, in either the front or the back of the skirt.

Even the full-skirted dress is done with a slimmer look this season. Newest is the torso silhouette, tightly fitted to past the hipline, then blossoming out with pleated fullness for the remainder of the skirt.

Coordination—Key to Rugs

NEW YORK (INS)—Coordination is the key word if you want to make the most of your carpet.

The newest carpets have more color and pattern than in recent years, and they can become more than something to walk on if you pick up some of their shades in draperies or upholstery.

Some of the prettiest of the new rugs have patterns of large squares, outlined in flowers on a neutral background. If the flowers are red and green, for example, you might combine the rug with green antique satin drapes and both gold and red damask fabrics.

If your pattern is in Colonial colors, featuring browns with touches of pink, beige or green, use your brown in fabric, perhaps with white, but then add one striking touch. You might try heightening the pink to fuchsia when carrying it over to upholstery.

If it's the subdued look you're searching for, make it severe but striking. Your rug would be in a neutral combination such as beige and brown.

Use off white in silk and granite tones in the high fashion boucle for furniture coverings, with a touch of the luxurious added by wood brown velvet drapes.

Fashions for at-home wear take on both elegance and ease this season.

Perhaps a DuPont, but Not Grace Kelly

Prince of Monaco Will Look for Wife on U.S. Visit

By JACQUES DEBERNY

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (INS)—Bachelor Prince Rainer III of Monaco will have an eye out for a possible wife when he visits the United States this month.

The Rev. Francis Tucker, in an exclusive interview, said that he wants the handsome prince to marry and will do everything in his power as Rainer's spiritual adviser to bring this about.

"I certainly hope the prince will marry," Father Tucker said. "I'm sure in America he'll find the wife he has the right to have."

American-born Father Tucker said that he would sail with the prince at midnight on Dec. 11. He added that the trip will be semi-official and should take in stop-overs in New York, Detroit, Boston, San Francisco, Palm Beach and Wilmington, Del.

In Wilmington, the 32-year-old prince will be received by the wealthy, socialite DuPont de Nemours family.

Father Tucker expressed the hope that Rainer may at that time meet a possible fiancee.

MAYBE A DuPONT

Why not a DuPont de Nemours?" he asked. Father Tucker said with a broad smile. "They are of French origin."

The priest added that other young women probably will be presented to the prince during his trip.

The future of the royal family and government of Monaco rest on a marriage by the prince. Monaco's constitution provides that in case there is no direct successor to the throne, the dynasty of the reigning family will be replaced by a French governor.

The prince in the past has been romantically linked with a number of beautiful and royal girls, but has not yet married, to the anxious concern of members of the National Council (lower house) and the Council of the Crown.

Father Tucker smiled when this correspondent mentioned the name of film star Grace Kelly or Jo Ann Stork, the Illinois coed who recently flew to Monaco to meet the prince. Miss Stork found him "just like an American boy and very attractive" as have other girls who have met the prince.

IMPOSSIBLE MATCHES

As far as the Misses Kelly and Stork were concerned, Father Tucker said marriage would "not be possible." He added that he had advised the prince against marrying French movie queen Gisele Pascal, who had been a frequent date of the prince.

The adviser emphasized, however, that he "certainly hopes the prince will marry." He added: "Don't forget the name of DuPont de Nemours."

The prince is due to arrive in New York Dec. 16 and will be received by Cardinal Spellman on Dec. 18. The prince also expects to see President Eisenhower, and visit American industries, perhaps even conferring with Henry Ford II in Detroit.

Prince Rainer is the present monarch of Monaco, a principality north of Nice on the Riviera. It is notable chiefly for Monte Carlo, from whose gambling casinos come most of Monaco's revenue.

The prince ascended the throne in 1949 and in the years that followed his activities have been carefully followed as one of "Europe's most eligible bachelors."

WEDDING RUMORS

He had been frequently in the company of the beautiful Gisele and for a time there were persistent rumors that he had wed the French movie star. Father Tucker discussed the romance with this correspondent, declaring:

"It was I who judged the prince's marriage with Gisele Pascal impossible. One day I said to the prince: 'I want to see Gisele.' We made a date and I made her understand that a separation was necessary."

The priest told how he returned to the prince and explained that his "obligation and duties" made it necessary to forget Gisele.

"The prince understood," Father Tucker said, "and they separated."

Good Planning, Thinking Saves Yuletide Woes

ITHACA, N.Y. (INS) — While getting ready for Christmas, 1955, remember that a little forethought will make Christmas '56 preparations easier.

Cornell University specialists suggest keeping a Christmas notebook with all the tips and tricks you've learned this past Yuletide.

First, get out your Christmas card list. Make any necessary addition and subtractions. By all means, correct any addresses while you have the information near at hand. This revamped list will be a life-saver next mailing.

Another valuable memo to tuck away would be a list of the gifts you gave this Christmas. Reference to such a list will help you avoid a repetition.

Salvage and save Christmas wrappings that are in good condition. You'll find many, many uses for them and be mighty thankful that you had the foresight to save them.

In your notebook, called "Christmas 1956," you may want to jot down new recipes you've discovered for Christmas goodies—and this will be a perfect place to keep those decorating ideas you've picked up this year, too.

Teeners Benefit From Athletics

How long the myths cling! Just recently a woman remarked, "Oh she'll never blossom out. She plays basketball too much!"

Vigorous athletics are part of every teener's school life. Soccer and hockey, basketball and swimming, softball and tennis are as much a part of today's feminine curriculum as plane geometry and English.

School authorities would not have made the programs this way if it were bad for the health of the students.

For teenagers there are amusing billfolds and french purses in plastics and washable leathers, trimmed with rhinestones, embossing and fake jewels. Expandable tabs and gussets will help hold the teenster's photograph collection.

"Clever gal, my Carol!"
I'm tickled pink with the smart way my Carol handles her housework. Take wood floors for instance. Most gals complain about all that scrubbing and waxing. But not my Carol! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. It takes her half the time and a lot less elbow grease. And we've yet to have a guest who hasn't commented on our beautiful wood floors. My Carol and her Bruce Cleaning Wax really make easy work of a hard job. I'm mighty pleased with both of them.
P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Carol uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Toast Season in Cherry Smash

Festive Drink Made With Pop

Plan Refreshments for Your Many Christmas Season Callers

Everyone does some special entertaining during the holiday season. The smart hostess is the one who plans not only for invited guests, but for those who drop in unexpectedly.

So often for callers and for little impromptu gatherings of friends, a refreshing drink, accompanied by cookies or cake, is sufficient to serve.

And it is well to be prepared to offer a variety of beverages, since individual tastes differ. You might have a selection of pale dry gingerale and some of the bottled fruit-flavored beverages, such as orange, true-fruit black cherry or grape.

All of these are popular drinks, served thoroughly chilled, and they are good mixers for your favorite party recipes.

Black Cherry Smash

1 teaspoon maple flavoring
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 28-ounce bottle black cherry beverage

Add a few drops of maple flavoring to the whipped cream; blend in thoroughly. Line completely the inside of four tall glasses. Fill centers with ice cold black cherry beverage.

BLACK CHERRY SMASH.— 'Tis time to think of Christmasy things. Cool drinks are welcome any time of the year. Serve Black Cherry Smash in your prettiest Christmas glasses; pass a plate of Christmas cookies. With soft drinks on hand, you'll have no trouble offering refreshments to unexpected guests.

RAVO makes fried foods tasteful and digestible. Won't smoke or scorch at high frying temperatures.

Make Delicious Presents of Lemonade Fruitcakes

Lemonade fruitcakes make tasty gifts. Bake them in loaves or in bonbon size. A box of tiny bonbon fruitcakes (baked in candy cups of the smallest-sized baking cups) will be particularly welcome to the friend who does a lot of holiday entertaining.

Bake extras for home, too. They're fine for tea parties, or to serve with punch or beverages when friends drop in.

The secret of this fruitcake is frozen lemonade. This pure California lemon juice, already frozen with sugar, brings out the fruitcake flavor and adds a good lemon tang.

Here's the recipe. Note that before you mix this fruitcake you marinate the fruit for an hour in the lemonade. Then proceed to mix the cake:

Lemonade Fruitcake

2 pounds mixed candied fruit
½ cup frozen concentrate for lemonade
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
7 eggs, beaten
½ cup dark corn syrup
2½ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon allspice
½ cup milk
1 cup chopped nuts
1 pound raisins

Before starting to mix the cake, allow the fruit to stand in the concentrate for lemonade for one hour. Then cream butter and sugar together; add beaten eggs, and mix well. Add corn syrup.

Sift together flour, baking powder and spices and add, alternately with the milk, to creamed mixture. Add fruit, nuts and raisins and fold into batter. Add any lemonade drained from the fruit.

For loaf cakes: Pour into oiled loaf pans and bake in slow oven (300 degrees) for two to four hours, depending on size of pans.

For bonbon cakes: Pour batter into smallest-sized paper baking cups, or candy cups. Fill cups about two-thirds full. Bake, on baking sheet, for 40 minutes.

This recipe will make two one-pound fruitcakes, four one-half pound loaves, or approximately 36 bnbon fruitcakes.

Chicken Livers Fill Buttery Rice Ring

Chicken Livers With Rice

1 package (6 ounces) precooked rice
½ pound chicken livers
1 medium-sized onion (cut in thin strips)
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
1-3 cup water
1 teaspoon chili powder
¼ teaspoon lemon juice

Cook rice according to package directions. Meanwhile, cut livers into small pieces, removing center membranes. Brown liver and onion lightly in two tablespoons of the butter.

Stir in soup, water, chili powder and lemon juice; simmer, uncovered, about 15 minutes; stir occasionally.

Stir remaining two tablespoons of the butter into hot cooked rice; arrange in ring shape on warm serving dish.

Store Leftovers in Original Cans for Extra Safety

Why take foods from sterilized cans and put them in non-sterile dishes or bowls?

People do that frequently, but the U.S. Department of Agriculture is authority for the statement that this is a fallacious practice, the home economics department of the American Can Co. points out.

The department advises housewives to "keep it cool and keep it covered" when putting an unused portion of the contents of a can in the icebox.

"It is just as safe to keep canned food in the can it comes in—if the can is covered—as it is to empty the food into another container," the department has said.

Actually, according to the department's findings, it is safer. The cans containing the foods have been sterilized in the process of canning, whereas "the dish into which the food might be emptied is far from sterile."

Serve Spicy Sauce With Harvard Beets

Spicy Harvard Beets

2 teaspoons cornstarch
1-3 cup sugar
¼ cup cider vinegar
1 can (1 pound) sliced beets
1 bay leaf
½ teaspoon celery seed
4 whole cloves
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Stir cornstarch and sugar together thoroughly in 1-quart saucepan. Stir in cider vinegar and one-quarter cup beet liquid (from can) until smooth; reserve beets.

Add bay leaf, celery seed and cloves. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until clear and thickened; strain out spices.

Dry Milk Nutritious

Nonfat dry milk solids are an inexpensive way of adding food value and flavor to cooked foods, especially soups, meat dishes, breads and desserts. If a little butter or margarine is added, the value approximates that of whole milk.

It's a good idea to use a rack when you are preparing a pot roast; this way the meat won't stick to the bottom of the pot.

Sweet Cherry Medley Provides Light Meal Topper

Simplicity is the secret of fine design. But whether it's an original frock, an unusual car, or a culinary concoction, its very simplicity demands that the quality of its ingredients be superior.

Any dessert containing plump, canned, dark sweet cherries can afford to be simple, for sweet cherries are an aristocratic fruit, royal in their flavor as well as their color.

This Sweet Cherry Medley, though so simple to assemble you need no advance notice, is elegant for a fruit cup preceding a formal dinner and, with grenadine, is an excellent light dessert to close either an informal or formal meal.

Dark sweet cherries make a delightful dish just as they come from the can, swimming in their own tempting juices. They've a flavor that's hard to resist as a little girl's smile. One sweet cherry leads to another, that to still another, and so it goes.

Because dark sweet cherries are rich in vitamins, particularly in vitamin A, you'll want your family to eat them often. Keep several cans on hand always. Serve them for breakfast, use them in salads, and for all sorts of desserts, both elegant and homely.

Yes, and for your lighter moods, when you want to whip up something frivolous and fanciful for the bridge club or your teenage daughter's platter party, sweet cherry sauce over ice cream is delightful.

If the man of the house likes a substantial and unusual Sunday breakfast, sweet cherry sauce over hotcakes, waffles or French toast will hit the spot.

Sweet Cherry Medley

1 pound can dark sweet cherries
1 13½-ounce can pineapple cubes
1 ripe banana
½ cup grenadine syrup or fruit juice

Drain and pit cherries. Drain pineapple cubes. Peel and slice banana, dip into pineapple juice. Arrange fruit in sherbet or fruit glasses. Pour grenadine or juice over fruit. Chill before serving. Makes four-five servings.

Sweet Cherry Sauce

1 pound can dark sweet cherries
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
3 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon almond flavoring

Drain and pit cherries, reserving juice. Combine cornstarch and sugar, well mixed with a small amount of juice. Heat juice and add cornstarch-sugar slowly, stirring constantly until slightly thickened. Add lemon juice, cherries and heat. Serve over ice cream, waffles or as a pudding sauce.

SWEET CHERRY MEDLEY — The season of overeating is fast approaching. With so much rich food offered, it is good to have a recipe for a light dessert such as this Sweet Cherry Medley. There's nothing to stop your using this dish for an appetizer course.

Pineapple Turnovers Increase Meal Interest

Here's a recipe for Pineapple Biscuit Turnovers that will make those routine meals more interesting. These turnovers are good with hot or cold ham, chicken, tuna or shrimp salad.

Pineapple Biscuit Turnovers

Roll out biscuit dough one-fourth-inch thick. Cut into 2½-inch squares. Put a drained pineapple chunk on each, sprinkle with a little brown sugar and cinnamon, and add a dot of butter.

Fold over, press edges together, brush with melted butter and bake on greased cookie sheet at 450 degrees (hot) about 15 minutes.

Pan-American Chicken Is Easy, Outstanding

Pan Americans have a chicken dish most unusual for ease of preparation and outstanding flavor! This is how they do it:

Brown 2 packages (1-pound size) frozen chicken thighs, breasts, drumsticks or wings in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Add 1 cup apple cider, one half teaspoon salt, one quarter teaspoon cinnamon, dash black pepper and 2 whole cloves.

Cover and cook over low heat about 45 minutes or until tender. Turn chicken and baste with sauce several times during cooking period. Six or eight servings.

So Cakes Won't Stick

If you want to make absolutely sure that your butter cakes will come out of their pans easily, line the bottom of the pans with waxed paper—and grease the paper—before pouring in the batter. Use sweet butter or salad (not olive) oil for greasing the paper; salted butter has a tendency to make batter stick.

To accent the chocolate flavor of packaged fudge candy mix, try adding a teaspoon of pure vanilla extract when you're ready to beat it. It's really wonderful!

Pair Fruitcake, Eggnog Pudding

As a festive way to end holiday dinner, we suggest Eggnog Pudding and fruitcake for dessert. Packaged fruitcake that is made from a home-type cookbook recipe and is very moist and tender is available from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department in many forms.

For slices to serve with the pudding, choose either the 1 or 2-pound bar fruitcake. Here is the recipe for Eggnog Pudding.

Eggnog Pudding

½ cup sugar
¼ cup flour
Dash of salt
2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 cups milk
2 beaten egg yolks
2 stiffly beaten egg whites
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ cup slivered almonds

Combine sugar, flour, salt, butter and milk, and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Gradually add mixture to egg yolks, stirring well, and cook one minute longer.

Add vanilla and nutmeg; cool. Blend in beaten egg whites and almonds.

ORANGE TEA BREAD — For hospitality which is decorative as well as delicious, have Orange Tea Bread ready to serve. This is the kind of loaf you can make weeks ahead of time if you have a freezer. Frost and decorate it after it has thawed.

Bake Orange Tea Bread for Holiday Entertaining

When friends drop in during the hospitable Christmas holidays, serve them your best fruited tea bread with tea or punch. It's a delightful way to express the good will of the season.

Here's a new way to make the service easier—slice it ahead of time and spread softened butter on each slice. Put it back together again to form a loaf. Each guest can serve himself without fuss or bother.

Orange Tea Bread

1 cup milk
¾ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons salt
½ cup shortening
¼ cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
2 eggs, beaten
Grated peel of one orange
5½ cups flour
½ cup candied orange peel

Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Measure water into a large mixing bowl (warm, not hot, for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved.

Add eggs and grated orange peel. Stir in half the flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in candied orange peel. Add remaining flour and turn out on floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic.

Place in greased bowl and rub top with shortening. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft until doubled in bulk, about one hour. Shape into loaves, place in greased loaf pans 9x5x3 inches.

Cover; let rise in a warm place, free from draft until doubled in bulk, about one hour. Bake at 375 degrees (moderate oven) about 35 minutes.

While still warm, frost with confectioners' sugar frosting and decorate as desired with candied cherries and nuts. Makes two small loaves.

Confectioners' Sugar Frosting

Cheese Boasts Great Variety of Menu Uses

Cheese is a food that has been used for centuries by many countries. It truly has a variety of uses!

It can be combined successfully with fruits!

It can add to the flavor and food value of meats!

It makes one of our favorite sandwiches—ham and cheese!

It combines successfully with eggs!

It goes very well with a great many of our vegetables, such as cauliflower, broccoli, spinach or beans, in the form of a cheese sauce. It can be combined, grated or cubed, with some of our salads!

It works out very well in baked dishes, such as escalloped potatoes and rarebits, and cereals, rolls and muffins!

It's just fine "as is" with a piece of apple pie (or many berry and fruit pies, for that matter!)

It makes good appetizers, in hors d'oeuvres and canapes. Small crackers with cheese make a nice beginning for a meal. Grated cheese sprinkled on cream soups is good. It is nearly always sprinkled on onion soup!

Placemats Should Suit Shape of Your Table

If you're using a bare table, try to use placemats that conform to the shape of the table. Oblong placemats are adaptable to a rectangular table.

If your table is narrow because of limited space, put your placemats along each side, leaving table ends for decorations and large accessory dishes.

Make Melba Toast

You can make Melba toast at home. Buy a loaf of unsliced bread and store it overnight. Cut it into one-eighth-inch thick slices. Cut each slice into two triangles. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until crisp and golden colored. The edges of the toast will turn up, but that's quite in order.

An unfrosted cake from the freezer may be left in its wrapper at room temperature for one or two hours to thaw. Or it may be defrosted in a slow (300 degrees) oven for about 10 minutes.

Rep. George A. Dondero congratulates Charles Giglio of Three Sisters' Market for the market's unique plan to make the community more conscious of U.S. Savings Stamps by giving them with grocery purchases. He said he plans to write the President and Treasury Secretary telling about the idea. We of Three Sisters' wish to extend thanks to Rep. Dondero for his visit and to other grocers who have adopted the plan to encourage the building of a strong America now and for the future.

Grocer Scorns Trading Stamps; Offers U.S. Savings Premiums

Daily Tribune Staff Reporter

Red stamps, green stamps, gold stamps, yellow stamps, plaid stamps — Charles Giglio of Pontiac almost went color blind.

But the Pontiac grocer would have none of them. After 41 years in the grocery business, Giglio didn't plan to start sharing his profits with a trading stamp company.

Starts Own Plan—

When the pressure got too heavy, Giglio came up with a stamp scheme of his own. He gives away one 10-cent postal savings stamp with each $5 purchase of groceries. The stamps can be traded in for government defense bonds.

Giglio said in two weeks, business at his store rose $7,000. The government stamps cost him about two per cent of his gross profit — about the same cost as commercial "trading" stamps.

The difference is, Giglio says, the customer gets all of the benefit without splitting it with a stamp-selling company.

Catching On—

Giglio said the savings stamp idea is catching on and many other merchants in the city are using it.

Happy with his scheme, Giglio told Congressman George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) about it. Dondero wrote letters to President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey.

"I think this is a wonderful idea and ought to be encouraged," said Dondero. "It helps both the government and the consumer. Just think of what the spread of this would mean to thrift and the sales of savings bonds."

Giglio said he was not the least bit interested in stamps when the current rage started. Salesmen began pestering him but he argued he couldn't sell stamps and still keep low prices on his food.

But when a stamp company moved its stamp redemption store next to his market, he hit the ceiling. He felt it was done just to force him into line.

"That's when I started to think," Giglio said. It took six months to hit on the right scheme. Now Giglio is all smiles. "I think maybe it will kill the trading stamp business," he said happily.

Plums, Cereal Spark Hotcakes

More and more the emphasis is on healthful, nourishing breakfasts. Doctors, dieticians — and people who eat good, hot breakfasts — daily add their voices to the acclaim.

Try it just for a week and see how much more energy and good humor you find in yourself. And while you are at it, why not combine heathful foods that are especially delicious, as well as very good to look at?

Here's a suggestion for two nutritious foods — canned purple plums from our great Pacific Northwest and grapenuts flakes — made into wonderful breakfast pancakes.

Serve them along with extra purple plum syrup. Add crisp brown breakfast sausages and coffee.

Canned Purple Plum Grapenuts Pancakes

1 cup pancake mix
2 tablespoons crushed grapenut flakes
½ cup canned plums, pitted and cut up
About 8 tablespoons milk

Combine pancake mix, grapenuts and plums. Add milk (you may need to add a bit more or less depending on whether you want thick or thin pancakes). Stir smooth. Bake on hot, lightly greased griddle, turning only once. Makes four servings.

Canned Purple Plum Syrup For Pancakes

1 cup plum juice from the can ½ cup honey
1 tablespoon white corn syrup
½ teaspoon cinnamon

PLUM PANCAKES — There's plums in them there pancakes! Yes, a new and delightful flavor that is sweet-tart, and so appetite-stimulating, is achieved by this new method of serving a good old breakfast standby: Pancakes and sausages. There's plum syrup for the final mopping-up mouthful, too.

Speck nutmeg
2 teaspoons lemon juice

Combine all ingredients; cook over high heat five minutes. Serve either hot or cold over pancakes. Makes 1½ cups.

Try Salmon, Tomatoes

Flake canned salmon and arrange in a casserole with well-drained canned or sliced fresh tomatoes. Top with buttered bread crumbs and grated cheddar cheese. Bake in a moderate oven until heated through. Delicious with a green salad and hot biscuits for lunch or supper.

Refrigerate Sandwich, Then Toast for Lunch

Make an extra sandwich when you are packing a lunchbox for Dad or one of your youngsters. Wrap the sandwich in waxed paper and refrigerate it.

At noon, when you are ready for lunch, spread the top surface of the sandwich bread with soft butter or margarine and toast under the broiler; turn, spread other side of sandwich with soft butter and toast. Almost any filling—cheese, egg or tuna salad—takes to this sandwich treatment.

Cider Catches Holiday Spirit

For a quick and pretty holiday offering we suggest a holiday hospitality tray laden with a choice of fruitcake. There are various kinds and sizes of packaged fruitcake available from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department.

The cakes, which are made from a home-type cookbook recipe, are moist and delicious. Dotted throughout with choice nuts and fruits, they look rich and festive and very tempting.

Two for a pretty tray are fruit cup cakes and slices cut from either the 1 or 2-pound bar cakes.

As an accompanying beverage, we suggest spiced sweet cider. It's easy to make and in the mood of the holidays. Here is our recipe.

Spiced Sweet Cider

1 quart cider
1 orange
Cloves
Cinnamon sticks

Cut orange in eight sections, leaving the peel on. Stud sections with cloves. Simmer orange sections in cider for 15 minutes; the flavors will blend deliciously. Use cinnamon sticks as muddlers.

Savory Avocado Dip

An avocado mixture tastes wonderful when it is used as a dip for crisp corn chips. Mash the avocado fine and add salt and pepper to taste plus minced onion. Some cooks also like to add a dash of chili powder.

Since 1949 plum consumption in the United States has averaged 1,438,000 cases per year.

Quantity Buying Saves

Buying potatoes in larger quantities can be savings, if you have a proper place to store them. This month, potatoes are more mature so they will keep better. Many retailers are offering 25 and 50 pound bags of potatoes at favorable prices compared to those in smaller quantities.

Save liquid left from cooking such vegetables as green peas, snap beans and celery, and use instead of water for diluting canned condensed soups.

More Medium Eggs

According to marketing and consumer information agents of Michigan State University, there are heavier supplies of medium-sized eggs this month. Large sizes will increase in supply, and the difference in cost between the large and medium sizes will become less this month.

Rub that leg of lamb, just before you put it into the oven, with a little dried rosemary along with the garlic seasoning. This combination of flavors will be a pleasant surprise.

Prepare Yuletide Pudding Ahead of Time

Neat trick: Make that Christmas pudding ahead of time! Steam it in two containers.

Let the family and guests enjoy one pudding at a pre-holiday celebration; then at Santa Claus time, heat the remaining pudding by re-steaming it for about an hour in its original mold. The second pudding will keep well, tightly covered, in the refrigerator.

Or follow our recipe note and steam one pudding at a time; mixing the pudding ingredients this way and having them on hand will save you hustle and headache at Christmas time.

This pudding is perfect, to our way of thinking. It has a delicious cakelike batter that is not too rich — but rich enough!

Its flavor is helped along by steeping raisins, citron and apple in orange juice. A subtle combination of spices and molasses add their piquancy, and Brazil nuts offer not only flavor but texture contrast.

Steamed Christmas Pudding

1 cup orange juice
3½ cups seedless raisins
⅔ cup finely cut citron
2 apples (peeled and chopped)
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
4 eggs (slightly beaten)
½ cup old-fashioned molasses
2 cups chopped Brazil nuts
1 cup (4 ounces) ground beef suet
1½ cups fine dry bread crumbs
1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground allspice
½ teaspoon ground cloves

Pour orange juice over raisins, citron, apple and orange rind; let stand one hour.

Mix slightly beaten eggs and molasses; stir in nuts, suet and bread crumbs. Sift in remaining ingredients; mix well. Add fruit mixture; mix well.

Turn into two greased 2-quart pudding molds with tight-fitting covers. Or cover tops of molds with aluminum foil and tie snugly.

Place on rack in deep kettle; pour in boiling water to half the depth of the mold. Cover; steam five hours; add more boiling water during steaming if necessary.

Serve warm with pudding sauce or softened vanilla ice cream. Makes 24 servings.

Note: Make pudding, omitting baking powder and baking soda. Divide mixture in half.

Cover half the mixture and store in refrigerator. Sprinkle 1 teaspoon baking powder and one half teaspoon baking soda over remaining mixture; blend thoroughly.

Steam according to directions. When ready to prepare second pudding, follow same procedure.

Sesame Varies Salad

Waldorf Salad, that winter standby of apples, celery and mayonnaise, can be made new and different if you substitute 2 or 3 tablespoons of toasted sesame seeds for the usual chopped walnuts. And it's so easy!

Fix Holiday Turnips

Mashed turnips are a traditional —and inexpensive—holiday vegetable. Just before serving, add a dollop of butter, a generous sprinkling of paprika for color and 2 or 3 tablespoons of toasted sesame seeds for nut-like flavor. Oh, so good!

Egg and Cheese Combinations Easy on Budget

Welsh Rabbit

A good way to make this so that it doesn't curdle is to beat 1 or 2 eggs well, pour a little of your cheese sauce into the egg, then back into the sauce. Cook two or three minutes longer.

Cheese Baked With Macaroni or Other Cereal

Cheese Fondue

Use 4 eggs, 2 cups of hot milk and soft bread crumbs, one-fourth to one-half pound of cheese, 1 tablespoon fat and salt. Bake until set, in a moderate oven.

Cheese Omelet

You know about that omelet trick originated in a French provincial inn. It's simple, as most perfect things are. So, before folding your omelet, spread it with seasoned very heavy cream. Sprinkle it with Parmesan cheese and run under the broiler for a few seconds. The omelet must be as soft as possible before the final touches.

Ever add caraway seeds to muffin batter? Use a couple of tablespoons of the seeds to a standard 2-cup flour muffin recipe.

Stuffed Radishes Lend Novel Note to Relishes

If you'd like to add a novel touch to your traditional turkey dinner, consider the relish tray! Scoop out the centers of crisp radishes, and stuff them with a mixture of blue and cream cheese.

And here's a different way to use the all-important cranberry: Open one No. 2 can of sliced peaches and drain the juice without removing the peaches. Soften one envelope of unflavored gelatin in one-fourth cup cranberry-juice cocktail. Heat; add another one-half cup of cranberry juice, and stir until the gelatin is dissolved.

Cool until thickened, pour into the can of peaches, and chill until firm. Remove the mold from the can and cut through in layers; then cut layers in half to serve with your turkey dinner or as a garnish for a cold-turkey platter.

Make creamed tuna extra special by adding an egg yolk or two to the cream sauce.

This Fair Offers Plenty of Food

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Bazaars at this season of the year are a dime a dozen in Oakland county. But we think the women of St. James Church in Birmingham have come up with a new wrinkle with their Food Fair.

For one day—today, December first—they sell food and nothing but food. They served rolls and coffee from nine this morning until two this afternoon. They prepared an appetizing lunch. And dinner will be served this evening.

Located as they are, in downtown Birmingham, they are able to attract numerous business people. In addition to their prepared meals, they are also selling cakes, pies, cookies, casseroles and breads all day.

Using Italy as their theme, the women of St. Catherine's guild, sponsors this year of the Food Fair, have brightened the walls with gay Italian travel posters.

Luncheon consisted of a choice of onion soup or minestrone, sandwiches, beverages and assorted desserts. Dinner will include spaghetti, tossed salad, Italian bread, sherbet and cookies.

We talked with the women who have prepared all the spaghetti sauce. They cooked it earlier this week, then froze it. That eliminates that horrible last-minute rush. Mrs. David M. Fulton of Pontiac and Mrs. Guy Yardley of Birmingham made up ten gallons of spaghetti sauce. Here's their recipe:

SPAGHETTI SAUCE FOR 300

40 pounds ground meat (⅘ beef, ⅕ pork)
3 buds of garlic, crushed
9 pounds dry onions
3 cans (No. 10) tomato puree
3 cans (No. 10) tomatoes
3 cans (No. 10) tomato paste
1 can (No. 10) mushrooms
Pinch of oregano and basil
20 bay leaves
Salt and pepper
1 quart olive oil

Brown meat and onions in olive oil. Add remaining ingredients and simmer several hours. If made ahead of time, freeze immediately and do not allow to stand at room temperature. At serving time, heat to boiling point without thawing.

Pontiac Press Photo

COME TO THE FOOD FAIR — Mrs. David M. Fulton of Pontiac gets ready to ladle Italian spaghetti onto a place held by Mrs. Samuel J. Shay of Royal Oak, chairman of the fair. Lighting the candle is Mrs. Albert H. Bell of Birmingham, president of St. Catherine's guild. All the women are members of St. James Church where the Food Fair is being held today.

Duck Stroganoff Is Hearty, Easy

Nowadays, thanks to the freezing industry, succulent Long Island duckling is no longer a seasonal treat. Rowst your duckling if you like, or try our unusual and delicious Duckling Stroganoff.

It is hearty and satisfying for any cold winter day. Also, to make a good recipe better, it's a top of the stove quickie.

Duckling Stroganoff

1 Long Island duckling, 4 to 5 pounds ready-to-cook weight
1 tablespoon fat
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon mace
1 cup hot water
¼ cup catsup
1½ teaspoons Kitchen Bouquet
2 cups thinly sliced onions
3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms
1 tablespoon corn-starch
½ cup thick sour cream

Cut duckling into serving size pieces. Melt fat in deep frying pan or Dutch oven. Add pieces of duckling and brown well over moderate heat. Sprinkle with seasonings. Blend together and add the water, catsup and Kitchen Bouquet.

Cover and bring to boil. Let cook until duckling is tender, about 45 minutes. After 30 minutes pour fat from duckling, returning any of the meat broth poured out at the same time.

Add the onions and continue cooking until onions are tender, about 15 minutes longer. Remove pieces of duckling to warm serving platter. Drain and add mushrooms to onions in pan, reserving mushroom broth.

Blend together and stir in the mushroom broth and cornstarch. Add the sour cream and mix thoroughly. Bring to boil and pour over the pieces of duckling.

A real treat, easy to serve

Holiday Bread Low in Calories

Here's the perfect bread to serve now and right through the holidays. You'll want to have this wonderful Cranberry-Orange Bread on hand for informal buffets, party snacks, and for your holiday dinner table.

Chocked full of rich-tasting goodies, it's so good no one could possibly guess it's also low in calories.

The secret of this bread's low-calorie success is sucaryl, the newly improved non-caloric sweetener. A generous slice of this holiday bread contains just 106 calories.

Made with sugar, this same slice would contain 158 calories. That's the kind of calorie computing your family and guests will appreciate.

Cranberry-Orange Bread

2 cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ cup orange juice
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons melted shortening
2 tablespoons sucaryl solution or 48 tablets, crushed
2 tablespoons hot water
1 cup whole cranberries
½ cup chopped walnuts

Combine flour, baking powder, salt and soda in a large mixing bowl. Combine the orange juice, egg, melted shortening, sucaryl and hot water, blending well. Pour over the dry ingredients and mix only until they are moistened. Fold in the cranberries and nuts.

Spoon into a well-greased loaf pan (9½x5¼x2¼ inches). Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1½ hours or until golden brown on top. Cool slightly before removing from pan.

Makes 15 servings. Each serving contains 106 calories, 2.6 grams protein; 4.8 grams fat; 13.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 158 calories.

Broil Ground Lamb

Ground lamb may be seasoned and broiled. Brush the lamb patties with melted butter, then place them so they are about 3 inches from the source of the heat. Broil until top side is well browned—about five minutes; turn and broil other side. Good with green peas and broiled canned pear halves filled with mint jelly.

Add a half teaspoon of vanilla and some nutmeats to a regular sweet muffin batter. Serve hot for 4 o'clock tea!

GAY CHRISTMAS COOKIES

Tempting, colorful, delicious . . . made with Domino LIGHT BROWN SUGAR

NEW COLORFUL "STAY-SOFT" PACKAGE with recipes on the back!

DOMINO CHRISTMAS COOKIES

Holiday time is cookie time—and when you give your cookies the delicate cane molasses flavor of Domino Golden Light Brown Sugar—how delicious they will be!

¼ cup butter or margarine
1 cup Domino Golden Light Brown Sugar (firmly packed)
1 large egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup chopped glacé cherries
½ cup chopped nut meats
2-3 tablespoons heavy cream or evaporated milk

Cream butter or margarine. Add brown sugar gradually, creaming well. Add egg and mix well. Add vanilla and blend. Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Add dry ingredients, chopped cherries and nuts to brown sugar mixture alternately with heavy cream or evaporated milk. When mixture is firm enough to roll, shape into long roll about 2½ inches diameter. Wrap in waxed paper and place in refrigerator several hours or overnight. Slice ¼ inch thick with sharp knife. Decorate with additional chopped nuts, cherries, or red candies. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 10 minutes. Remove immediately to cooling rack. Approximately 40 cookies.

SPECIAL CHOW MEIN — Bring the fun of Oriental restaurants into your own home with this Chinese-American specialty. It takes very little time to prepare. Serve with iced fruits; here, pineapple chunks and kumquats are combined with sprigs of mint.

Meat Combination Stars in This Easy Chow Mein

Take your choice. This special chow mein, so easy and quick to prepare, can be made with a combination of veal and beef or veal and chicken.

It's chock-full of vegetables, both the American kind — onions, green pepper and celery — and the tender-crisp Chinese variety — canned bamboo shoots, water chestnuts and bean sprouts. The sauce is flavored to perfection.

Make it ahead, if you like, for reheating while the rice cooks. Then spoon the chow mein over the rice and sprinkle canned chow mein noodles around the outside edge.

For extra festivity, pass a bowl of pineapple chunks and kumquats on crushed ice with decorative wooden picks.

Special Chow Mein

¾ pound veal cutlet
¾ pound beef round steak
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 large stalks celery, cut crosswise into ⅛-inch slices
2 small onions, chopped
1 small green pepper, seeded and cut into thin strips
2 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ cup soy sauce
¼ cup water
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon dry mustard
1 can (about 8 ounces) water chestnuts, sliced
1 can (about 16 ounces) bean sprouts
1 (about 5 ounces) bamboo shoots
1 can (about 3 ounces) whole mushrooms

Cut meats into strips about 2 inches long and one-half inch wide. Melt butter or margarine in skillet; add meat and saute slowly until browned. Add celery, onion and green pepper.

Cook over low heat about five minutes, stirring frequently. Blend cornstarch with soy sauce, water, sugar and mustard; stir into mixture. Add undrained water chestnuts, bean sprouts, bamboo shoots and mushrooms.

Cook, covered, over low heat 20 minutes, or until meats are tender. Serve with rice and chow mein noodles. Makes four large servings.

For chicken and veal chow mein, omit the beef and add 2 cups of cooked chicken but do not brown the chicken with the veal.

RAVO won't smoke or burn at temperatures far higher than you need for healthful frying.

Estes to Avoid Party Disputes

Senator Wants to Unify Democrats, Then Blast Republicans

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)— Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn), who has indicated he will seek the Democratic nomination for President, said last night he wants to avoid engaging in personality disputes with other prospective Democratic opponents.

Here to address today's opening session of the national convention of the League of Young Democrats, Kefauver said in an interview that "I am anxious to unify the party and save ammunition to use against the Republicans."

He repeated that he will make his decision about running later this month or early in January. He added that he has received "substantial encouragement" from Democratic leaders and "many of my old friends."

Kefauver was the first of the big-name Democrats to arrive for the three-day convention. Adlai Stevenson, the party's presidential nominee in 1952 and the only announced candidate thus far, will arrive tomorrow for a brief appearance. Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, another presidential possibility, will be the speaker at a windup banquet Saturday night.

State Official Refuses to Reinstate Deputy

LANSING (AP)—James C. Allen, state corporations and securities commissioner, today refused to obey a State Civil Service Commission order to reinstate his deputy, Harold G. Groehn, pending a Supreme Court Appeal.

Allen said he had turned his files over to Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh, and that Kavanagh would file an appeal in the Supreme Court against the commission's decision that Groehn must go back to his job.

Allen fired Groehn last spring on the grounds that he was engaging in private real estate dealings in Detroit while acting as supervisor of the real estate business in Detroit.

Groehn's dismissal was upheld by the Civil Service Appeal Board and then reversed by the full commission on the grounds that he had not been sufficiently advised he could not operate a private business while in state employment.

Allen said he had telegraphed Groehn that the reinstatement order and instructions to restore back pay would be ignored until the Supreme Court ruled.

Christmas Trees Are Cut; Buy a Michigan Balsam

LANSING (AP) — The first of some 1,500,000 Christmas trees, harbingers of the holiday season, have started their journey from the forests of Michigan to their tinseled place beside the Christmas stocking.

Early indications are that this year's crop should be good in quantity and quality, despite the ferocious winds that swept through the state Nov. 16 and 17.

"I saw a lot of uprooted evergreens up north along the roadside, but evidently the trees grown in plantations escaped injury," said C. A. Boyer, chief of the State Agriculture Department's plant division.

Boyer said Christmas tree shipments should reach their peak next week, with sales hitting a high the weekend of Dec. 17 and 18.

Continuing a trend started several years ago, the sale of boughs will increase this year by about 25 per cent, Boyer said.

HOME GROWN TREES

Most of the trees which end up in the living rooms of Michigan residents will be home grown, Boyer said Michigan trees should account for 65 per cent of the sales this year, with most of the balance coming from Canada.

Boyer said Scotch pines and balsams are becoming increasingly popular because they shed very little. A good Scotch pine or balsam will shed only a negligible amount over a two or three week period.

Christmas tree plantations, which provide most of the trees grown in Michigan, are a five-million dollar a year industry, one which is growing rapidly.

The growth of the Christmas tree business is especially fast along the shore of Lake Michigan, Boyer said.

"About 300,000 trees a year are being planted in Grand Traverse County, and as many in Mason and Manistee counties,'" Boyer said.

Under a state law designed to block Christmas tree "poaching," persons transporting more than six trees must produce a bill of sale signed by the owner of the land where trees were cut.

The agriculture department has set up checking stations at Kawkawlin, Menominee and St. Ignace. Department inspectors stop trucks at these points and require the drivers to show the bills of sale.

Bus Driver Smothers Fire in Frankenmuth

FRANKENMUTH (AP) — Rolling along M83 near here yesterday, Greyhound Bus Driver Cecil Burge saw two women gesturing frantically outside a home from which smoke was pouring.

Burge backed up his bus some 500 yards, grabbed his fire extinguisher and ran into the house where he put out a blaze in an overheated chimney just as the Frankenmuth Fire Department drove up.

He completed his Detroit-to-Bay City run a few minutes late.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Mayor Claude Verduin of Grand Haven, Mich., was elected yesterday to a two year term as a member of the executive committee of the American Municipal Assn. Th group is holding its annual convention here.

Nicoletti Seeks Another Hearing

Convicted of Extortion, Former Union Official Petitions Higher Court

DETROIT (AP) — Mike Nicoletti, former Detroit Teamsters Union official convicted of extortion, today planned an appeal to the State Supreme Court after his motion for a new trial was turned down.

Recorder's Court Judge Joseph A. Gillis, who denied the motion yesterday, continued a $5,000 bond and released Nicoletti pending the appeal to the higher court.

Nicoletti, 41, former president of Teamsters Local 247, was indicted with four other Teamsters officials in 1953 by a grand jury investigating labor racketeering.

Three of the defendants pleaded guilty and the indictment against one was dropped. Nicoletti was found guilty after a five week trial in 1954. He was sentenced to 1 to 20 years imprisonment and fined $2,500.

The charges involved extortion of thousands of dollars from trucking contractors.

Nicoletti has been free on bond since his conviction pending an appeal. His attorney, James Haggerty, said he would base the appeal to the supreme court on charges that the closing statements of an assistant prosecutor during the trial were "inflammatory and prejudicial."

Health Commissioner Calls February Talks

LANSING (AP)—The annual commissioner's conference for local health department directors will be held Feb. 8-10.

Highlighting problems reported most critical by Michigan communities, the conference will deal with home and farm safety, chronic illness, preventive mental health and sanitation, especially that resulting from rapid growth of urban fringe areas.

Clark Gable Still Reigns as Movieland King

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Hollywood knows Clark Gable as "The King" of the box office.

Moviegoers have known him for 25 years as the brawling roughhouse star of 55 movies including the memorable "Gone With the Wind," "Red Dust," "It Happened One Night" (which won him an Oscar), "China Seas," and "Mutiny on the Bounty."

Hollywood's bookkeepers have known him as the town's highest paid star—$9,000 a week at one time — whose pictures always make money.

Studio co-workers and the Hollywood press have known him as a moody gentleman of few words but with a dazzling personality, a passion for fast automobiles, a trim ankle and a fetish about keeping in character on and off the screen as a rugged hero.

GOOD SOLDIER

Members of the Eight Air Force knew him for two years in Europe during World War II as a "good soldier."

Five women have known him more intimately as their husband.

The Mrs. Gable who knew him best of all probably was the late Carole Lombard, killed in a plane crash on a Nevada mountaintop in 1942 as she was returning from personal appearances in behalf of the first War Bond drive of World War II.

Carole was Gable's kind of a woman.

She was his match in tossing a hip in a fancy rhumba at 1 a.m. or a cuss word in a cold duck blind at sunrise.

But I doubt if anyone really knows Clark Gable, including Mrs. Gable No. 5 — Kay Williams Spreckles.

HIS FIRST WIFE

Gable's first wife, drama teacher Josephine Dillon, has said:

"The Clark Gable you see on the screen, that playful rogue with that happy-go-lucky, mischievous glint in his eye, is not the real Gable. He keeps his troubles to himself and broods about them.

"He's complex, serious, moody, thoughtful and gloomy."

There have been no really close friends in all of Clark Gable's 54 years of life, but a person close to him on his movie sets for many years once summed him up for me:

CLARK (THE KING) GABLE, 1955 — With his fifth wife, Kay Williams Spreckles, he turns on the rugged Gable charm. His first wife called him "complex, serious, moody and gloomy."

"Clark has all the money he'll ever need. He's in perfect health. But like all actors he worries about his lasting power as a star. The title of 'The King' is more important to him than anything in his life. He wants it to go on forever.

WILL NEVER RETIRE

"He's one of those actors who will never retire. He'll wind up playing white-haired grandfathers in wheel chairs and he'll still be worried about the day when Hollywood's casting directors say:

"'Sorry, nothing today.'"

It was "Sorry, your ears are too big," the first time William Clark Gable was up for a starring role in Hollywood. He made a film test at Warner Bros. in 1929 for a big role after clicking on the stage in a road tour of a prison melodrama, "The Last Mile."

Director Mervyn LeRoy turned him down with those now famous words about big ears.

Later, when Gable won a contract at MGM and 1930 stardom in "A Free Soul," LeRoy laughed at his blunder.

"I could make money for the rest of my life just releasing Clark Gable's ears instead of pictures."

CLARK AND CAROLE LOMBARD after their marriage in 1939. She "was Gable's kind of a woman," reports Erskine Johnson.

MGM was conscious of Gable's Dumbo ears, too, and in several movies, against his violent protests, makeup men taped them down. Finally Gable would have no more of it.

BORN IN OHIO

"The Painted Desert," filmed in 1930, was Gable's first movie with a featured role, but as a stage actor with a touring stock company he worked as an extra in several films in 1928.

He was an extra on the stage, too — wearing a sarong and a tropical flower behind his ear as a "native" in the play, "The Bird of Paradise." But all of his movie roles have been as rugged as his early background.

He was born in Cadiz, Ohio, the son of an oil field worker. His mother died when he was a baby and he was raised by his stepmother.

When he was 15 he went to work as a timekeeper for a rubber factory in Akron. Later he worked as a tool dresser in the oil fields and as a lumberjack.

HIS FIFTH WIFE

The death of Carole Lombard in 1942 was a shock Gable helped erase in the Army Air Corps. He enlisted five months later and served with distinction for two years with the Eighth Air Force in Europe.

Gable and his fifth wife, Kay, live in a modest home on a 20-acre ranch in San Fernando Valley, where he has lived—alternately as husband and as bachelor—for 15 years. One of his wives brought British royalty to San Fernando Valley—Lady Sylvia Ashley—who was Mrs. Gable from 1949 to 1952.

But San Fernando Valley, and Hollywood, weren't too impressed.

Beef Eating Rises

CHICAGO (INS) — The American Meat Institute estimates that hamburger and other ground beef are taking some 2,270,000,000 pounds of the total beef produced this year. That, the Institute adds, is almost 14 pounds per capita. It also is 92 million pounds higher than last year, or 4.2 per cent.

Youngster 'Uh-Uhs' Court for $5,000

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP) — Johnny Colosimo, 11, had a car mishap with his new bike and was the central figure in a $25,000 injury suit brought by his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Vlink. Johnny's attorney, William J. Crowley, asked the youngster to lower his trousers and show the jury scars on his left thigh resulting from the accident.

Johnny refused twice to take his pants down before the women jurors with a couple of "uh-uhs."

Judge Bernard M. Decker said: "I think the lad's using good sense."

Who Slipped Who?

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A teenage hotrodder succeeded in outfoxing himself in his attempt to lose a couple of pursuing traffic cops. He mired his low-slung, fenderless job in a ditch, and had to escape on foot. Police are waiting for him to claim the expensive hotrod, towed to headquarters by a wrecker.

Minnesota, North and South Dakota produce about four-fifths of the domestic crop of flax seed.

James Keller Enlists, Going to Finance School

James E. Keller, a graduate of St. Michael's High School, enlisted in the United States Army this week, Pontiac Recruiter Sgt. Thomas L. Murphy said today.

Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Keller, 855 Menominee Rd., enlisted directly for the finance school at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. He will report there after completing basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

A LOT OF TOY—This new multipurpose toy ready for the Christmas season is a blinker code sender, a megaphone, a telescope and a siren — all rolled into one. It's getting an enthusiastic preview by three-year-old Mike Porretto of Jamaica, N. Y., in New York City.

Hunters Offered Bargain Safaris

Sportsmen's Paradise in Indo-China Offers Richest Game in Asia

SAIGON—On a mountainous plateau in Indochina's Vietnam, an energetic young American rubber planter has come up with a series of package deals in big game hunts planned to satisfy either the tourist of ordinary means or the most exacting veteran of African safaris.

Prices—which include room, meals, guides, white hunters, ammunition and licenses—range from $250 for an eight-day tiger hunt to $1,000 for a three-week trek after such trophies as gaur, wild buffalo and bull elephant.

This new sportsmen's mecca, Saigon, is only 45 air hours from San Francisco. And the Vietnam Hunt Club operated by U. S.-born Frank Mullen and his staff of French white hunters, is an hour and a half by air from Saigon.

ASIA'S RICHEST GAME

The club, about 185 miles northeast of Saigon, is on the Langbian Plateau which covers several thousand square miles. It is an area of wild jungle, combining lush tropical vegetation with the evergreens of temperate climates. The area is sparsely inhabited by primitive hill tribes who still hunt with bow and arrow, blow guns and spears. It is considered the richest wild game area in Asia today, for its herds overflow from the vast protected jungle preserves of the Emperor Bao Dai.

Wild peacock and other jungle fowl are found in abundance. The predatory tiger may be killed without permits, but licenses are required for the ferocious gaur, the wild buffalo and the elephant.

Guides and white hunters are French and Americans and are thoroughly experienced. All are crack shots and the non-Americans speak English.

THREE SERVICES OFFERED

For the novice there are free courses in gun handling and hunting techniques. A wide range of weapons from shotguns to heavy caliber elephant guns, are available and clients are guaranteed a good clean shot at their chosen game. Jungle gear, sun helmets and bush jackets may be purchased, as well as cameras, films, guns and toilet articles.

Three types of services are available.

For the ordinary traveler who would just like to visit the mountains to rest, loaf, write, hunt small game or study jungle flora and fauna, accommodations are provided at the Hunt Club lodge for $10 per day for one person, $17.50 per day for two persons and $23.50 per day for two persons with one or two children. Rates include room, meals and laundry.

Then there is Mullen's "short-snorter" hunt, an eight-day affair in which the visitor can go after tiger for $250, gaur and buffalo for $300 and elephant for $500. The price is all-inclusive, covering not only room, meals and laundry but guide fees, jungle transportation and licenses when necessary.

And, finally there is the full-scale 21-day hunt at $1,000, designed for the sportsman who takes the pursuit of "trophy heads" seriously. The price includes not only meals, licenses and guides, but transportation by elephant and services in remote jungle camps.

For the hunter who wishes to take home his trophies, pelts and skins can be prepared on short notice and at reasonable prices.

ALLEGAN (AP)— A letter addressed only to "Tony's Sister, Allegan, Mich." was delivered to Judy Nichols. It won a bet for her brother, Roger (Tony) Nichols, a sailor aboard a Navy destroyer escort. Nichols had bet a shipmate it would get through without delay. Allegan, in western Michigan, has a population of 4,801.

Everyone Gets Them

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—While Loves Park policeman Gerald Fitzgerald was visiting the Rockford police headquarters to check on fingerprints, a cop put the finger on his car for a parking violation. "I didn't see the sign that said no parking from 3 to 6 p.m. until after I got the ticket," officer Fitzgerald said.

About 3.5 million automobiles went to the junkyards in 1954.

'56 Hudson Line Unveiled Today

Hornet, Wasp Models Introduced in Dealer Showrooms Across U.S.

DETROIT (INS)—"V-Line" styling, plus a new, 220 h.p. V-8 engine, feature the 1956 Hornet and Wasp models introduced in Detroit yesterday by American Motors Corp.

The new models went on public display in dealer showrooms today.

Hudson's Sales Vice President N. K. Vanderzee said:

"With Hudson's dramatic design and many mechanical improvements, we feel confident that Hudson Motors will double its sales in 1956."

A new V-shaped grille highlighted by a modern inner mesh pattern is one of the line's prominent styling features. It is integrated with new chrome headlight rings, lending what Vanderzee called "a firm, taut look" to the over-all car.

A gold color panel framed by a "V" on each rear fender marks all custom models. In a 3-tone job, this produces, in effect, the industry's first 4-color car.

HUDSON FOR 1956 — "V-line" styling is illustrated in the Hornet four-door sedan. Increased horsepower is featured in all 1956 models. The new line also includes a custom two-door Hollywood hardtop Hornet V-8; a super and custom two-door Hollywood hardtop in the Hornet Six; and a super four-door sedan in the Wasp series. The line will also be highlighted by three-tone paint combinations on custom models.

Report 31 Fatalities for State Deer Season

EAST LANSING (AP)—Thirty-one fatalities were reported during Michigan's 16-day deer hunting season, which ended at sundown yesterday, State Police said today.

The death toll was well above last year's 19 fatalities.

Ten of this year's victims died of gunshot wounds. Fourteen hunters suffered fatal heart attacks, four drowned, two were asphyxiated and one died from exposure.

Veto Threatens Canadian Plan

Martin Offers Proposal to Admit All 18 Nations to U.N. Membership

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Threatened by vetoes from both sides of the Iron Curtain, Canada doggedly took her plan to bring 18 nations into the United Nations before the Special Political Committee today.

Canadian Delegate Paul Martin, chief mover behind the 27-nation resolution to admit all 18 applicants, prepared to introduce it soon after the opening of the membership debate.

FIRST AIRING

The 60-nation committee will give the much discussed Canadian proposal its first public airing. But its fate rests with the Security Council, where Nationalist China has threatened to veto Communist Outer Mongolia and Russia has warned she will turn thumbs down on the whole package deal if any of the five Red candidates are rejected.

Sees Coal Prospering

CLEVELAND (AP)—Coal, its fortunes diminished for a time by competition from other fuels, is on the way back to prosperity on a wave of industrial expansion, a coal industry expert said last night. J. R. Forsythe of New York, general manager of the Keystone Coal Buyers Manual, predicted that by 1970 coal production would have increased 100 per cent to an output of 800 million tons a year.

Vince Martinez Makes Challenge to Basilio

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Vince Martinez of Paterson, N.J., who says Basilio is "just my style," meets Ernie Greer of Oakland, Calif., here tonight with an eye toward improving his chances of getting a title bout with the welterweight champ.

Martinez, making his second start in eight days, is expected to extend his victory string to 19 straight with a win over Greer in a bout scheduled for 10 rounds. The New Jersey fighter took a unanimous decision just a week ago over Chris Christensen of Denmark.

Local Promoter Gus Cozza had offered the winner of last night's Carmen Basilio-Tony DeMarco match an $80,000 guarantee to meet Martinez for the championship here next March.

"I can beat either of them," said Martinez, the fourth-ranked welterweight after watching the title bout on television. "But I'd rather fight Basilio—he's just my style."

Manager Bill Daly also put in some plugs for his fighter's chances in a Basilio bout.

"Basilio would eat leather all night in a fight with Vince. He'd (Martinez) stick and move and that wild guy would never get a chance to swarm him. And Vince would fight smarter than DeMarco."

Basilio Repeats 12th Round TKO of DeMarco

Basilio, the 28-year-old Canastota, N.Y., gamester, rallied from DeMarco's stinging punches last night to repeat his June technical knockout of the Boston challenger in the 12th round.

The time was 1:54—just two seconds longer than it had taken him at Syracuse six months earlier. Both fighters weighed 145½ for the nationally televised title scrap at Boston Garden.

After he had knocked down DeMarco for an eight count with a smashing right to the jaw, then flattened him for good with withering combinations in his good luck 12th, Basilio revealed he had hurt his left hand in the second round.

That sore hand may make the patient Saxton wait even longer for his title shot. Saxton, who lost the championship to DeMarco here April 1, has since waived his contract return-bout priority for both of the Basilio-DeMarco slugfests. The contract for the latest match called for the winner to meet Saxton within 60 days.

If he had his way, the irrepressible Basilio would take on the Philadelphia boy tomorrow, but the swollen hand he held in a bucket of ice water in his dressing room after last night's brawl may delay proceedings.

The hand was to be X-rayed today.

A near-capacity crowd of 13,373 paid a local record of $171,373 to watch what amounted to two fights in one.

DeMarco, calling on his long range power, took charge in the early rounds and had Basilio wobbling into his corner in the seventh round. It took a near superhuman effort by the ex-Marine from upper New York State to keep from going down for the second time in his professional career.

After he survived the staggering left hook, Basilio grew stronger as he unleashed a battering body attack on a weary DeMarco tiring just as he had done in punching himself out last June.

DeMarco was ahead in rounds on all the officials' cards. Referee Mel Manning had it 6-3-2 on rounds for Tony, Judge Joe Santarpio 6-4-1 and Judge Joe Santoro 7-4. The AP had it 5-4-2 for DeMarco.

"After the fifth round I knew DeMarco would run out of gas," Basilio said afterward, "it was just a question of time."

But his corner was not as confident when Carmen came reeling toward them from DeMarco's all-out seventh round bombing.

"We yelled 'Take an eight count,'" Co-Manager Johnny DeJohn revealed. "When Carmen got back to the corner we asked 'Why didn't you go down like we said?'

"Carmen said 'Why? I wasn't hurt. I knew what I was doing.'"

That summed up the fight. On the defensive or going for the kill, the former onion farmer with the jutting jaw and legs of steel knew exactly what he was doing. When DeMarco began missing his long shots in the eighth round, Basilio invited Tony to come inside. Tony moved in where he was no match for Basilio—a rib-softening specialist.

In making a comparison with the previous scrap, Basilio said: "DeMarco wasn't punching as hard this time as in the first fight. But he was tougher this time. He's a durable kid. But I thought I fought a better fight than before."

The result marked the 15th straight bout in which Basilio has gone unbeaten over a 26-month span. Kid Gavilan was the last man to whip Carmen Sept. 18, 1953.

"He just ran out of gas," DeMarco's manager, Bobby Aggrippino, said of the chunky 23-year-old who had a 70-day grip on the championship from April 1 to June 10.

Basilio, winning his 48th fight against 11 losses, received $74,490 for his 40 per cent of the gate plus radio-television slice. DeMarco, whose record is 41-6-1, got $37,245.

Rangers Lead Hockey Clubs in Goal Race

New Yorkers Even Top Canadiens on 68 Goals In 22 Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Rangers may be only the second-best club in the National Hockey League but when it comes to scoring goals they are traveling at a faster clip than even the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens.

A 6-1 victory over the third-place Chicago Black Hawks last night at Madison Square Garden boosted the Rangers' goal output for 22 games to 68. The Canadiens have tallied 63 in 23 games.

While the New Yorkers were whipping the Hawks for the fourth time in as many games this year to widen their margin to 5 points, the Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs battled to a 3-3 tie. The result left the Wings and Leafs tied for fourth, 2 points back of Chicago.

Andy Bathgate was the big gun in the Rangers' attack. He rammed home a goal in the first 95 seconds of play and assisted on three others as the Rangers ran their unbeaten string to 5 games. Three of New York's goals came within a space of 2½ minutes in the second period. Dave Creighton started the blitz with the first of his two goals at 13:54. Larry Popein came through at 14:37 and Danny Lewicki at 16:28.

Losing Streak Broken

2 More Bucks Swell Contest Total to 24

Two more rack hopefuls Wednesday in the Pontiac Press annual deer contest swelled this season's entry list to 24.

The 23rd buck was entered by Richard Roise, 273½ Baldwin Ave., Pontiac. Roise was hunting with his wife and another couple in a geese reserve at Seney in the Upper Peninsula when he bagged his deer with one shot from a .30-.30 Savage.

Roise's buck scaled 155 pounds and bore 10 points. The rack was disqualified as an entry, however, because one of the points was broken.

Canadians Bid for Irish Back

CHICAGO (AP) — At least two Canadian pro football clubs are bidding for the services of Notre Dame fullback Don Schaefer.

Schaefer last night said he had offers from two Canadian teams and expected to talk with a third. He was a third-round National Football League draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles Monday.

Schaefer would not reveal the Canadian clubs interested in his services.

Pesky to Manage Tiger Farm Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Johnny Pesky, veteran American League infielder with Boston and Detroit, today was named manager of Durham, N.C., of the Class B Carolina League, a Detroit farm. Pesky was a player-coach at Denver in the American Assn. last season.

Lippy Is Back as Manager—on Stage

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Leo Durocher is going to put on a National League baseball uniform again but only long enough to do a television program Dec. 12.

Durocher, former manager of the New York Giants, will portray the Cincinnati Redlegs' manager in a baseball play on the NBC Matinee Theater. Durocher recently signed as an NBC executive.

St. Louis Cage Favorite in MVC; Bradley Returns

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Co-champion St. Louis and a tall, veteran Houston club are expected to fight it out for the title in the always-tough Missouri Valley Conference, which opens its 49th basketball campaign tonight.

The re-entry of Bradley, one-time champion on the road back, bolsters the league. The Braves figure to scrap with the Oklahoma Aggies and Tulsa for third place with Wichita just a shade behind. Detroit is rebuilding.

Three Valley clubs open the season tonight and four more Saturday night, when Tulsa and Detroit play their second games.

Detroit is host to Notre Dame, Texas A&M plays at Tulsa and Sam Houston State at Houston tonight.

Detroit will be underdog against the Irish, victors in all 24 meetings with the Titans. Utah may be too much for Wichita and Tulsa is only a slight favorite against the two Southwest Conference clubs. But Valley teams are strongly favored in all the other games.

Wings, Toronto Battle to Tie on Leafs' Ice

Deadlock Is Tenth for Detroit This Season; Penalties Hurt

TORONTO (AP) — There's an old saying that you can't win hockey games in the penalty box. And well the Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs know it.

Wings and the Leafs ran into some costly offenses last night in their National Hockey League game and battled to a 3-3 tie. Four of the six goals—two by each team — were scored while players sat out penalties.

The tie was Detroit's 10th of the season and Toronto's 4th. The teams remain in a 4th place deadlock with 20 points as the Rangers moved to within four points of the league leading Montreal Canadiens by blasting the Black Hawks, 6-1.

Toronto right winger, George Armstrong, and rookie left winger Dick Duff scored while the Wings were shorthanded. Ted Lindsay and Earl (Dutch) Reibel counted while the Leafs had men in the penalty box.

Reibel's goal came at 10:49 of the final period and pulled Detroit into a tie.

Bob Goldham opened the scoring for the Wings at 3:12 of the 1st period when his long slapshot bounced off goalie Harry Lumley's stick into the net.

National Retriever Eliminations Start

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)— The national championship stakes for retrievers opened today at Conway Ranch in the flat Sacramento Valley 16 miles west of here.

The dog which on Sunday has survived all elimination tests, on land for pheasants and on water for ducks, will be national retriever champion.

The dogs retrieve birds shot by gun Captain Andy Devine of motion picture fame and 12 assistants including Gen. Curtis LeMay, chief of the Strategic Air Command. The trials are sponsored by the National Retriever Field Trial Club, Inc.

Elliott Mentioned for Nebraska Spot

OMAHA (AP) — The Omaha World-Herald says it has learned that Pete Elliott, University of Oklahoma assistant coach and former University of Michigan player, has been approached for the job of head football coach at the University of Nebraska.

The newspaper quoted its source as saying if Nebraska doesn't get Elliott to succeed coach Bill Glassford, "some other school will" because "he's too good a man to hold as an assistant."

Tough Fight, He Says, Then Goes Hunting

Basilio, One of 10 Children, Tells Ma He's All Right

BOSTON (AP) — "What are you worried about, Ma? I am all right. Title fights are supposed to be tough."

That's what welterweight champion Carmen Basilio told his mother on the long distance telephone early today following his 12th-round technical knockout of tough Tony DeMarco in their title fight last night.

The lithe, lion-hearted, 147-pound champion became a fighter while with the Marines. He is one of the 10 children of an onion farmer at Canastota, N.Y.

His words to his mother sum up his attitude toward the hard game of boxing.

Undefeated in his last 15 scraps, he said he injured his left hand in the second round.

"I hit DeMarco on the top of the head in the second and the hand bothered me the rest of the way," said Carmen. "After the fifth round I knew he would run out of gas. It was just a question of time."

Before hustling back to the training grind, the 28-year-old champ is going to spend a week to 10 days quail hunting with Earl Crangle in Waynesboro, Ga. Basilio, an ardent hunter and fisherman, has four bird dogs, including a pointer given him by Crangle.

Uclans Study U. of M., Badger Tilts With MSU

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA, which will battle Michigan State in the Jan. 2 Rose Bowl game, wants to know how the Spartans got beat as well as how they won in Big Ten football play this year.

Bruin coach Red Sanders indicated as much yesterday when he chose for study game movies of Michigan State's 7-14 loss to Michigan and the Spartan's 27-0 victory over Wisconsin.

MSU coach Duffy Daugherty has asked for films of UCLA's triumphs over Stanford, 21-13, and Southern California, 17-7. Daugherty passed up UCLA's game with Maryland, which handed the Bruins their single defeat, 7-0.

Wichita Joins Minor Circuit

Club Replaces Toledo in AA as Property of Milwaukee Braves

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Wichita became a member of the American Assn. today as a farm club of the Milwaukee Braves in place of the abandoned Toledo baseball club.

The Triple A American Assn., after a four-day franchise wrangle, finally ironed out its difficulties by successfully negotiating with the Western League for its Kansas territory.

The deal was completed 16 hours after Milwaukee reluctantly agreed to discard its plan to move the Toledo franchise to Miami. The Florida city's hope for Triple A ball was revived, however, by reports that an insurance executive, Sid Salomon, had requested an option to purchase the Syracuse club in the International League for the purpose of moving it to Miami.

In order to acquire Wichita, the association paid $21,000 to the Western and promised to option 10 players to the eventual replacement for Wichita. Also, Milwaukee, which now owns the Wichita club, will have a limited working agreement with the new Western city which is expected to be Hutchinson, Kans.

MSU Students Plan Mass Move to Bowl

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University students — 2,584 of them—will take over several trains this month for a mass movement to Pasadena, Calif., where the MSU football team meets UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2.

School officials said they believed the number was a record for mass movements of students to a bowl game. Ohio State set the Big Ten record last year with 1,134.

The group all signed up for a $167 "package deal" offered by several travel agencies. It includes a round trip train ride, chaperones and lodging on the West Coast.

Sign-ups ended yesterday with 631 students joining nearly 2,000 who had registered earlier.

'B-C' Cage Teams Priming

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

Oakland "B" cagers have one team in mind when it comes to a pre-season favorite this year. That prime target is coach Carl Baker's Madison quintet.

Baker himself looks for Fitzgerald and Roseville as top contenders, but no matter which way you look at it, this trio is expected to make up the "Big Three" of the loop.

Defending champion Roseville loses five lettermen from its title team and runnerup Troy saw the exodus of its starting team in last June's graduation.

Only holdover for the Colts is Sim Acton, 6 foot guard, who saw regular duties as a sophomore last year. Coach Peyton Goodwin is fretting over the outlook. Troy went all the way to the state quarter-finals before being eliminated by Buchanan at East Lansing.

Madison lost 6 players from its third place team of last year, but the return of the team's leading scorers Jim Simer and Jim Myers keeps the Eagle picture bright.

Coach Tom Raeside is hopeful of getting the Fitzgerald quintet up into the 1-2 position with four senior lettermen as the nucleous.

Clawson, which failed to win a game in 17 starts last year, has everyone back and with some improvement from the experience gained coach Bob Acton is hoping to relinquish the cellar position.

What Hal Carlin at Lake Orion fears however it that Clawson may give up last place to his Dragons. This is the first season for Lake Orion in the Oakland "B" circuit and except for two little guards Ralph MacLachlan and Nick Neira, both 5'8", the picture is bleak.

Dick Bye is the new mentor at Avondale and his task doesn't appear any lighter with the loss of 10 players from a team which won four of 15 games a year ago.

Imlay City the champs of the South Central League and Almont, Southern Thumb champions had it out this week with Imlay taking an overtime decision 67-63.

Coach Lyle Powers at Imlay will be counting three lettermen including high scoring Larry Dorow, Duane Maison and Wayne Samson to defend the crown.

North Branch also has three regulars back and expects help from the reserve team. A transfer from New York City John Ribner will become eligible in the second semester.

Ortonville has a new coach in James E. Lorion, and the Black Hawks are looking forward to shedding the cellar.

Drayden, with 8 lettermen back, see the end of its draught. Coach Barnat's quintet failed to win in 12 league games last year.

Almont, unbeaten in 12 "Thumb" games, is again loaded for stalk with big Larry Kerstien and six teammates back from last year. New Haven and Armada are expecting to move into the upper bracket of the league this year.

Independent circles has Rochester, 11-4 last year, back in front running position.

The Falcons of Gene Konley have good strength down the middle with forward Dave Peters, center Bill Dean and guard Ron Le Barre.

Goliath of area cagers is Alfred Hill 6'7" giant who will make Rochester foes neck conscious, and probably point weary. Hill was the center on the football team, after transferring from Avondale.

Romeo got off to a bad start Tuesday by losing a heartbreaker, 59-58, to South Lake in the final second. Coach Bob Hutton has returning veterans from the 4-12 team of last year.

Bloomfield Hills initiates basketball competition for the first year in its new gymnasium undercoach Harold Trott. The Barons play a modified schedule which includes some junior varsity teams. The new court at Bloomfield will be baptised against Grosse Pointe University school Friday.

Lapeer is looking for better things out of nine lettermen this year. Top scorers Tom Wilson and Roger Flanigan lead the returnees.

At Cranbrook, coach Bob Kenny will have gridders Pete Bedford and George Gray along with Owen Fett and John Kirk as its top prospects for the Inter-State League.

VETERANS — Among six lettermen returning for coach Gene Konley at Rochester are (left to right): Forward Dave Peters, center Bill Dean and guard Ron La Barre. Rochester opens the season at Fitzgerald Friday. The Falcons won 11 of 15 games last season.

Aggie Tops MVC; Titan Soph Next

ST. LOUIS—Fullback Leroy Hinman, the clutch runner of Wichita's co-champions, jumped from 7th to runner-up in the Missouri Valley running department during his team's closing three-game drive.

The 200-pounder gained 232 yards in his last three games to finish with a 478 and 5.4 yard average.

His record is unique in the Valley in one respect — he wasn't thrown for a yard loss all season.

Earl Lunsford, Oklahoma A&M fullback, ran into mighty Oklahoma in his last game but the Sooners couldn't prevent his winning a third straight rushing crown in the Valley. He had 596 yards and a 4.3 average.

Top passer was the Aggies' Tom Pontius with teammate Chester Spencer the top receiver with 18 catches for 319 yards.

Detroit's Jim Lobkovich was second in passing and Titan end Perry Richards was runner-up in pass receiving with 15 for 247 yards.

Bill Russell, Detroit sophomore, was third in rushing with 462 yards and second in scoring with 42 points.

Busy Weekend for U. of M. Cagers, Tankers, Hockey

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan sports move indoors this week for the bitter winter competition.

Coach Bill Perigo's improved Michigan basketball team takes on Pittsburgh in the Smoky City. Vic Heyliger's strong hockey squad opens a home schedule against Canada's McGill University.

Meanwhile, Gus Stager's swimming crew goes after two world records in the Michigan AAU meet in Michigan's pool.

Perigo's squad plays Pittsburgh Saturday. The Wolverines will have one of their tallest teams in recent years, led by Pete Tillotson of Ludington, a six-foot-six center. With Tillotson will be Ron Kramer (6-3) and Tom Maentz (6-2) at forwards with ample help from Randy Terrier (6-5) and others.

First Michigan home basketball game is against Nebraska, a week from Saturday.

Stager will send Scotland's Jack Wardrop, his national title holder, against the world record in the 200-yard free style in the Michigan AAU Saturday.

He already has announced his intention of sending freshman Ron Alsobrook of Dearborn against the world record in the 100-yard orthodox breast stroke.

Three Basketball Powerhouses Take to Courts Tonight as Another College Campaign Begins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LaSalle, without Tom Gola; Dayton, without Johnny Horan, and North Carolina State, with Ron Shavlik, take to the courts tonight as another long college basketball season gets underway.

LaSalle, Dayton and North Carolina State are just part of the mob that gets the collegians rolling in their first big weekend of the season—but they are the only representatives of the top 10 teams of last season to play tonight.

San Francisco, No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll last season and the NCAA champion, opens tomorrow night, against Chico State.

LaSalle, with three-time All-America Gola graduated and now a pro, warms up against Millersville (Pa.) in its opener under new Coach Jim Pollard, the former pro standout. Pollard took over the Gola-less Explorers after Ken Loeffler, who directed LaSalle to the NCAA title in 1954 and the runner-up spot last year, switched to Texas A&M.

Dayton, the NIT runner-up and No. 9 in the final poll, is rebuilding with Jack Sallee and Chris Harris lost by graduation along with Horan. The Daytons call this year's club "Goliath plus four"—with "Goliath" the 7-foot Bill Uhl. The new squad gets a test from touring Pepperdine tonight.

Most of the other members of the final top 10 get going tomorrow and Saturday. In addition to San Francisco, Marquette's No. 7 Warriors, the big surprise of 1954-'55, open Friday against St. Norbert and Oregon State, losing 7-3 Swede Halbrook through scholastic difficulties from its No. 10 club, plays Oregon.

Saturday, Kentucky's No. 2 Wildcats meet Louisiana State in a Southeastern Conference scrap; Iowa, No. 5 and the Big 10 champ, plays Nebraska of the Big 7; and Utah; No. 7 and the Skyline king, opens against Wichita of the Missouri Valley.

Duquesne, minus All-America Dick Ricketts who helped win the NIT title and put the Dukes No. 6 in the nation, opens Monday against Carnegie Tech.

Notre Dame, among the better independents, starts shooting tonight against Detroit of the Missouri Valley. The Irish are missing Jack Stephens. In the same Bracket, Niagara, without Ed Fleming, opens against Buffalo Teachers. DePaul makes a shakedown run against Illinois Wesleyan.

Pennsylvania to Investigate Bout

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission today begins a closed hearing into reports it said it had received that heavyweight Coley Wallace was drugged in his Oct. 1, 1954 fight with Bob Barker at Cleveland. Wallace lost the bout.

Commissioner Al Klein said that both Wallace and his manager, Frank (Blinky) Palermo, were licensees of the Pennsylvania Commission at the time of the fight. He asserted that "if anyone was involved in conduct detrimental to the best interest of boxing, it is not only our right but our duty to investigate it."

Lavelle to Speak at Titan Banquet

University of Detroit, tabbed in pre-season polls for the Missouri Valley conference cellar, will honor its league co-champion football team at its annual grid banquet Dec. 5.

Guest speaker for the affair will be Jack Lavelle, former New York Giant pro star.

Jap Baseball' Stars Rushed by Pro Scouts

Youngsters Just Out of High School Lured by Gifts to Sign Up

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's postwar crop of baseball youngsters—taller swifter and heavier—are getting the big rush by scouts loaded with such lures as free college educations, television sets, automobiles and bundles of cash.

The wild off-season scramble for "bonus babies" already has produced a record $28,000 payment, split up a family and laid the groundwork for a court case.

Many of the lads, just emerging from high schools, are considered ready to step into the big leagues. There are two, the Central and Pacific, with 14 teams.

Scouts have shadowed young players—and each other—run errands for families and apparently even have steamed open the mail of prospects. There also are accusations of trickery in obtaining signatures.

NCAA Agency Opens Meeting

Infraction Committee Will Hear Cases of Violations

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The fact-gathering agency of the NCAA—the Committee on Infractions—will open a two-day meeting here tomorrow to consider several pending cases of alleged violations of rules and prepare a year-end report for the annual convention in Los Angeles Jan. 9-11.

Walter Byers, executive-director of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., said the meeting will be routine. He pointed out the procedure governing the NCAA enforcement program provides that all cases are to be treated as confidential until announced by the NCAA council.

Southern California won 25 straight football games in the seasons of 1931-32-33 before it ran into a tie game with Oregon State 0-0.

Bubba Phillips Traded; Yanks Talking Deals

Detroit Club Is Seeking Infielder by Using Ned Garver as Bait

COLUMBUS (AP) — If Chuck Comiskey keeps on making deals for the Chicago White Sox, they'll soon be calling him "Trader Chuck" around the American League.

The White Sox vice-president in charge of player swaps — since Frank Lane resigned as general manager and shifted to the St. Louis Cards — pulled another "name" deal yesterday.

By returning Virgil Trucks, 36-year-old righthanded pitcher, to Detroit for outfielder-third baseman John (Bubba) Phillips Comiskey completed his third major league trade.

His first move was to send infielder Bobby Adams to Baltimore for outfielder Cal Abrams. Then came the "big one" — shortstop Chico Carrasquel and outfielder Jim Busby to Cleveland for outfielder Larry Doby.

After trading Trucks to Detroit, Comiskey quickly followed with a player move for the next new cycle by purchasing shortstop Luis Aparico from Chicago's Memphis farm of the Southern Association. Aparico, 21, is the man the Sox expect to replace Carrasquel next season.

Some baseball people thought the Trucks-Phillips swap was only the prelude to another deal between Detroit and the New York Yankees. The two clubs talked business yesterday, after the arrival of George Weiss, Yankee General Manager, but made no announcement. The Tigers want a young infielder from the Yank farms — Herbie Plews, Bobby Richardson or Dick Carter. The Yanks are interested in pitcher Ned Garver and Possibly Trucks.

Bucky Harris, Detroit manager, said yesterday he expected Trucks to be a regular starter. The former-Tiger who was traded away to St. Louis after pitching two no-hitters in 1952, had a 13-8 record last season with the White Sox. He appeared in 32 games, pitched seven complete games and worked 175 innings. Trucks should be happy for he lives in Lakeland, Fla. Detroit's spring training base where he also operates a baseball school.

Manager Marty Marion of the Sox said he planned to use Phillips in the outfield but might give him a trial at third base. The 23-year-old speedster played a few games at third for the Tigers in 1955 but was in the outfield most of the time as he batted .234 in 95 games.

Birdie Tebbetts, Cincinnati manager, was in Chicago yesterday trying to talk pitcher Hal Jeffcoat out of his announced retirement from the game. Jeffcoat was acquired by the Redlegs from the Chicago Cubs Monday for catcher Hobie Landrith.

Many big league officials have been tied up in the lengthy league meetings, involving the American Association. As a result, they haven't had time to talk trade. Gabe Paul, Cincinnati general manager, said he had offered seven players to Pittsburgh for an "unnamed outfielder." The "unnamed" one, of course, was Frank Thomas.

Bob Carteaux of Fort Wayne last season bowled an 823 series, believed to be one of the all-time highs for lefthanders.

Swaps Boss Goes on Buying Spree

NEWMARKET, England (AP)—Rex Ellsworth, who made a big splash on the American turf scene by winning the Kentucky Derby last May with Swaps, has gone all out to inject English racing blood into his California thoroughbred establishment.

In a three-day buying spree at the Newmarket thoroughbred auction sales, the ex-cattleman paid nearly $200,000 for English racing stock. Yesterday alone he laid out $147,588 for 15 fillies and brood mares.

He paid the top price of $29,400 for Weeber, a 2-year-old filly after going to $15,288 to get Casabella, a 5-year-old mare.

AA's Earned-Run Title

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (INS) — Willard Schmidt, right hander of the Omaha Cardinals, was officially crowned today as the American Association's earned run king for the 1955 season.

The averages, released at the AA headquarters in Louisville, showed that Schmidt, who has had two major league trials with the parent St. Louis club, hurled 158 innings, allowing 122 hits and only nine home runs.

His earned run mark of 2.56 was for 21 games. He finished 12 games and ended up with a 12 and 5 won and lost mark.

Irish Sports Head Puts Spartans at Top of List

DETROIT (AP) — "Michigan State should be rated as the No. 1 team in the country."

Ed (Moose) Krause, Notre Dame athletic director, was the man talking at the Detroit football bust for the Rose-Bowl bound Michigan State football team.

When honors were handed out the Fred W. Danzig award for the most valuable Detroit area player went to tackle Norm Masters, a graduate of Detroit St. Marys, Redford.

The F. Ward (Potsy) Ross award for the player best combining scholarship and football achievement was taken by guard and team captain Buck Nystrom of Marquette.

"It's no disgrace to lose to a great team," said Krause, toastmaster before a record crowd of more than 800 MSU supporters.

"About that Southern California game," he added, "I'm still running and telling folks how we're building character."

Krause said when the Notre Dame players were polled as to their toughest opponent, 31 of them picked Michigan State, four picked Southern California and one said "nobody was any good."

"He must have been from Brooklyn," Krause said.

Krause read a telegram that became the 1st on-the-recofd congratulations from Rose Bowl loser Michigan, to winner, Michigan State. It was from the board of governors of the Michigan Club of Detroit and said:

"Congratulations and good luck in the Rose Bowl."

MSU president Dr. John A. Hannah flew in from Washington D. C. to attend the bust. He refused to comment directly on the statement by University of Michigan president Dr. Harlan Hatcher deploring over-emphasis on post-season football games.

Chiefs All Set for First Test

Pontiac High basketball coach Art Van Ryzin, readying his squad for its 1st 1955-56 encounter, Friday night, may get a pretty good line on what to expect later on in the season, when he meets Detroit Catholic Central on CC's home floor.

Chiefs will face a veteran crew in the CC five, that won 10 and lost 7 last year. However, according to Bill Foley, Central mentor, his team will be largely a junior club. He lost four of his 1st five tests last season, then rolled along with increasing power. Most of his regulars are back in action.

Pontiac will field an almost new club. With only one returning letterman, the Chief boss has had to fill his squad with alternates and boys up from the reserves. But don't get any ideas that this new outfit is lacking punch and finesse. It has both these requirements, and is a hard-working squad that probably will be much better as the season progresses.

Both mentors today announced their starting lineups.

For Pontiac it will be Rod Treais and Willie DeWalt at the forwards; Hudson Ray at center; Larry Peet and Dave Diehm at the guard spots. This lineup has height, speed and shooting ability. There are a number of good alternates that may be tossed into action at any time, Van Ryzin pointed out.

Foley listed the following as his starters:

At guards, Johnny Rogers and Ed Sheridan; center, big Bob Skrzyski, top scorer; forwards, Brian Hussey, playmaker and fine ball handler, and Carl Cyrowski, a senior, 6-1 and a good ball hawk and fair shot. His 1st alternates will include Tony Dietz and Andy Bonnior at guards; Bo Bishop and Mike Dinan at forwards, along with center Johnny Tregis, a 6-4 junior.

For fans going to the game, here's the route: down Telegraph road to Northwestern, turn left to Outer Drive, then about one mile to Hubbell. School is on the corner of Hubbell and Outer Drive. Game starts at 8 p.m.

Keller Key to Chances

St. Michael's Defending SCL Champs Start Season Friday With Avondale

By BILL CORNWELL

With a successful football season now posted in the record book, St. Michael turns its attention to the 1955-56 basketball season and the approaching Suburban Catholic League campaign.

If Bob Mineweaser's defending SCL champions can even come close to duplicating last year's 17-3 record the north side supporters will be pleased.

The Shamrocks defeated St. Benedict of Highland Park last season in a playoff to grab league honors and advanced to the regional finals in the state tournament before bowing to Detroit St. Bernard.

An idea of the situation in store for Shamrock fans will be gleaned Friday night at Avondale when St. Mike opens its 12-game schedule against the Avondale Yellowjackets in a non-league encounter.

This season's edition will center around the performance of forward John Keller, last year's leading scorer and the only returning regular. Keller, boasting a variety of shots, is expected to be the kingpin of the club.

St. Michael's biggest problem, according to Mineweaser, will be filling the shoes of the graduated Bob Anderson. Anderson, a stalwart guard, was the Mikes' leading playmaker and a constant steadying influence.

Other departed stars who will be sorely missed are guard Martin Keller, John's brother, forward Joe Wilhelm and center Bud Schwartz.

The starting lineup for tomorrow night's season - opener with Avondale is not a certainty, but Mineweaser tentatively plans to match Chuck Brown with Keller at forward, and try Bill Hall at center along with Guards Dan Dropps and Duane Priebe.

The balance of St. Michael's varsity squad will be comprised of guards Kenny Halpin and Kenny Rogers, center Ron Elmy, and forward Bob Mineweaser. Others likely to see action are Eddie Smith, Jack Erb, Dick Pifer and Ernie Stuk.

After the Avondale game the Shamrocks face a long layoff and do not resume activity until Jan. 3 when they open defense of their SCL title against St. Benedict at Highland Park.

St. Michael's 1955-56 schedule:
Dec. 9—Avondale, at Avondale
Jan. 3—St. Benedict at Highland Park
Jan. 10—St. James, home
Jan. 12—St. Rita, home
Jan. 17—St. Mary, at Orchard Lake
Jan. 19—St. Clement at Center Line
Jan. 24—St. Frederick, at PHS gym
Jan. 27—St. Mary at Royal Oak
Jan. 31—St. Benedict, home
Feb. 3—St. James, home
Feb. 10—Ot. St. Mary, home
Feb. 19, 22, 25—Catholic League playoffs, at U. of D.
March 1—Oxford, at PHS gym.

Little League Is Involved in Lawsuit

Breach of Contract Claim of $300,000 Before Court

z WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (INS) — A $300,000 breach of contract suit involving Little League Baseball, Inc., at Williamsport and deposed commissioner Carl E. Stotz today is before federal court.

The suit was transferred from the Lycoming county court because the organization is chartered under New York law, according to league President Thomas J. McGovern.

Stotz instituted the suit a week ago to oust McGovern from the presidency. Stotz said he wanted to "return little league baseball to volunteer leaders." the league is sponsored by U. S. Rubber Corp. of Akron, O.

Yesterday, the county court set Dec. 5 for a hearing on a petition of little league for an injunction to restrain Stotz from establishing a rival organization.

No Pool, No Workouts Hit PHS Tank Squad

A swimming team without a pool in which to practice is in a tough spot.

That's what Robert (Des) Boyce, PHS tank coach, has discovered.

What with his 1st Valley encounter, against Flint Central, listed for Dec. 9 here, and the Chiefs' pool being in a state of disuse, Boyce today figured he would have to call off the meet.

"We haven't been able to practice since our pool developed trouble more than two weeks ago. It looks like we may be able to use it next week, but starting today, work out."

Boyce had 45 boys out at the start, Nov. 1, but he hasn't seen his reserve squad since practice was halted. "So I don't know whether or not I'll have one left when we do start practice again," he said.

This year's squad has lots of potential, Boyce says. It boasts nine lettermen from the good 1945-55 team, including:

Seniors Tom Cross, Bob Keavy, Bob Hawse, George Bergstrom, juniors Dennie Simonson, Kenneth Bogard, and seniors Bill Hampton, Anton Simpson and Bruce Mumbrue.

This winter's schedule listed some 13 events, starting with the Flint Central match Dec. 9, which may be cancelled.

Rest of the card:

Michigan Elk Herd Offers New Problem

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's elk herd, now numbering about 600 animals, threatens to create a problem in game management, the state conservation department said today.

The herd started from seven elk released in the Pigeon River State Forest near Vanderbilt in 1918.

The department said it has received reports recently from land owners in the area that the elk are causing damage to pine, cherry and other trees with low branches.

The state has never allowed the hunting of elks. The department said it may be necessary to issue special hunting permits to farmers whose crops are seriously damaged by the animals.

TO THE VICTOR — Miss Football of 1955, Ann Campbell of the University of Oklahoma, plants a congratulatory kiss on the cheek of her steady boy friend, Sooner halfback Tommy McDonald, after reading the news that O. U. has been voted No. 1 team, and national champion, by The Associated Press poll.

Dale's Nate Clark on Little AA Team

NEW YORK (AP)—The Associated Press' Little College All-America football team for 1955, made up of representatives from 11 different colleges that won a total of 75 games, is named today with a line that averages 210 pounds to the man and boasts the country's leading scorer in the backfield.

Nate Clark of Hillsdale, Mich., is the terrific touchdown tallier. He led the collegiate players of the entire country with 144 points and is the only junior among the backfield foursome that also includes Gene (Great) Scott of Centre College, Dave Burnham of Wheaton and Charles Sticka of Trinity College at Hartford, Conn.

Up front are ends Charles Schultz of all-winning Alfred, and Richard Donlin of Hamline, chosen Monday in the second draft of the professional football draft by Baltimore.

The tackle slots are manned by Charles Gibbons of Rhode Island, who will display his ability in the Refrigerator Bowl on Sunday, and Vincent Vidas of Drexel's unbeaten team.

Steve Myhra of North Dakota University, and Wixie Robinson of Pepperdine at Los Angeles are the guards, flanking Hubert (Duke) Cook of Trinity at San Antonio, Tex.

Clark gathered his collection of touchdowns for a Hillsdale team that romped through nine opponents by an average score of 34-9. The 21-year-old Negro was a star his freshman year at Hillsdale but tapered off during his second season. He attributed it to excess weight and spent last summer working on a blast furnace in an iron foundry. He melted himself down to 195 pounds—and the national scoring title.

A Hillsdale campus eatery promised a steak dinner to every player scoring a touchdown. Clark "saved" his dinners until he had enough to take all the regulars on the team to the restaurant as his guests.

Scott brought back some of the glory of yesterday to the Centre College campus at Danville, Ky. A quarter of a century ago the Prayin' Colonels there in the football limelight with a team that defeated Harvard and went through an unbeaten season to become the darlings of the nation.

This Centre team was the first unbeaten since then and Scott contributed 1,138 yards in 107 carries for an average of 10.4 yards every time he carried the ball.

Cage Draught Finally Ends

WABASSO, Minn. (AP)—After four long years, the Wabasso High School basketball team was back on the glory road today.

A 36-34 victory over Echo last night snapped a 43-game losing streak which stretched through four years.

The school's football team also broke a four-year victory drought encompassing 23 games when it won its opener last fall.

Gordy Soltau tallied 418 points in five seasons with the pro 49ers.

Statistics Reveal Greater Fatality Rate Among the Nation's Young Hunters

LANSING (AP)—William Weaver, good looking and 15, walked out into the sunlight with the double-barreled hope of a young hunter.

The conservation department took a close look at deer hunting accidents in Michigan from 1943 to 1954. (Statistics are about the same for small game hunters.) Here is what they found:

For every 10,000 licenses issued, there were five accidents in the 11-17 age group 3.6 among hunters 18-20; 1.7 in the 21-30 age bracket and only .9 among hunters over 31.

In 1954 there were 19 hunters killed and 230 injured—just in Michigan. The greatest toll was taken by hunters who misjudged their positions and shot companions. Careless loading and unloading also took its toll.

Several states, including New York, New Jersey and California, require you to take a course in gun handling before you can get your first license—a long step toward making hunting safer for the younger sportsmen. Other states incorporate the National Rifle Assn. training program in their public school systems.

At any rate, remember the following when hunting:

1. Handle every gun as if it's loaded.
2. In your car, camp or home carry only an empty gun, taken apart or with the action open.
3. Always be sure the barrel and action are clear of obstacles.
4. Watch where you point that muzzle and keep the safety on until you're ready to shoot.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point your gun at anything you don't want to shoot.
7. Never leave your gun unattended unless it's empty.
8. Never climb a tree or fence with a loaded gun—not even with the safety on. Put the gun through the fence and climb over.
9. Never shoot at a flat hard surface or surface of water.
10. Don't mix gunpowder with alcohol.

Football Coach Should Be Less Confused in '56

ALLEGANY, N. Y. (AP)—Fred Grace, football coach of little Alleghany Central School, should have it easier next season.

This season he had six sets of brothers on his team. And by the time the next football season rolls around all seniors in the brother act will have graduated.

The school won 20 games and lost only two under Grace the last three years.

AAU Heads Discussing Crackdown

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A crackdown on sports promoters by the Amateur Athletic Union was talked in AUU convention corridors today as an offshoot of the Wes Santee case.

Santee, this country's Mr. Miler —its best current bet to crack the 4-minute mile—got by a big hurdle yesterday in his hopes to remain in run-for-fun company.

The deadline passed for challenging his reinstatement to the good graces of the AAU after a short suspension. He can only hope now that some foreign country won't ask the International Amateur Federation to disqualify him.

Santee was suspended by his local registration board for accepting more expense money than the AAU allows when he ran on the West Coast last spring. The Missouri Valley Assn. of the AAU rescinded the suspension.

Without mentioning the case of the swift Kansan specifically, Louis G. Wilke, AAU president, said in an interview:

"Through our district registration committees we are going to have to screen promoters more thoroughly before granting them the privilege of presenting events bearing the approval of the AAU.

"Altogether too often we are faced with the unpleasant task of ruling on the eligibility of an individual athlete who is reported to have accepted too much expense money."

He pointed out that such rulings affect only the athlete, adding:

"The men who caused the kid to lose his eligibility go unchallenged. I say let every district registration board doublecheck every sponsor and hold him directly responsible for any infraction of our rules regarding expense money."

The AAU limits amateur athletes' expenses to $12 a day.

Too much money for athletes was just one problem of the AAU as it opened its 68th annual meeting. The question of raising big sums to transport, feed and clothe them for next year's Olympics was another.

How to raise a $400,000 Olympic Fund was due to come up for discussion today and will have to be settled before the convention adjourns Sunday.

Also billed for a busy four days by the 450 delegates are sundry other subjects—where to hold the championship events leading up to the Olympics, for example. The AAU rules over Simon Pure competitors in 19 sports.

The first decision of consequence came out of yesterday's preconference meeting of the Olympic wrestling committee. It decided the United States should send a Greco-Roman wrestling team to the world-wide competition for the first time. In that sport, the grapplers are limited to holds above the waist.

James Kelley of the University of Minnesota was named head coach of the U.S. Olympic track and field team. The track and field committee, also meeting yesterday, named as his assistants Robert Giegengach of Yale, Col. Frank Anderson of Texas A&M and Jess Mortenson of Southern California.

The summer Olympic games are billed for Melbourne, Australia, and the winter games for Cortina, Italy.

Junior Hockey Program Under Way in City

Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department is now organizing its 1955-56 Junior Hockey program, which is open to all boys who will not reach their 19th birthday by March 1 of next year.

Any organized team is welcome to enter. Managers or team representatives should contact Leonard Buzz, recreation supervisor, at their earliest convenience for information regarding the hockey program. Buzz can be reached at the Parks and Recreation Department, FEderal 3-7131.

Teams seeking to enter the hockey program must register with the recreation department before Thursday, Dec. 8. A meeting for managers of all teams entering the Junior Hockey tournament will be held at the recreation department's office in City Hall, Monday, Dec. 12, at 7 p.m.

Games will be played Saturday mornings and week ends during the Christmas holidays at the North Side Skating Rink if good skating ice prevails. A minimum of four teams is necessary to hold a hockey tourney.

Kenny Washington (UCLA 1937-39) and Morley Drury (USC 1925-27) were recently named as the most outstanding football players in Los Angeles' collegiate area history.

Titan Quintet Opens Tonight Against Irish

Calihan's Cagers Face Notre Dame in Season Starter at U. of D.

DETROIT (INS)—Coach Bob Calihan unveils the 1955-56 University of Detroit basketball team tonight in a contest with always-powerful Notre Dame at the U. of D. fieldhouse.

A capacity crowd of more than 9,000 fans is expected.

The meeting will be the 25th between the two schools since 1911 and Notre Dame's 1st appearance in Detroit since 1947. Titans have dropped all 24 previous contests with the Irish but are confident this year's club can finally break the jinx.

Calihan himself is optimistic about Detroit's chances this year. Last season, the Titans had a disappointing 15-11 record but the former U. of D. star says "We should improve on that mark. We will substitute more and run more than we have before."

The Irish this year under coach John Jordan have four regulars back from last year's quintet which won the Sugar Bowl championship.

This year's Titan squad has six boys over the 6-5 mark, the tallest being sophomore center Tom Costello, a towering 6-9. Costello is a product of Detroit Visitation.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

IN-LINE STRIDE — Ben Hogan quit golf because he no longer had the physical urge to practice, nor the stamina to give the time to practice that is demanded of a champion. Bowling is no different. You get out of bowling what you put into it. You've got to sweat it out, work on your form, to get to the top.

And your bowling is only as good as your footwork. Any star knows that and, realizing it, practices every chance he gets. But you don't necessarily have to practice on the alley. Shadow bowl. Do it at home, if convenient. Go through the stride, without using a ball.

Concentrate on developing an in-line stride, so that your first step (right foot in 4-step footwork) angles slightly to the left. Your third step, as sketch shows, will also then be in line. And the swing, as you see, will be straight back, close to the body, with the right hip and leg cleared so that your arm on the downswing will go straight out in line. Note, too, that the left arm is extended for balance. It compensates for the weight of the swinging ball; assures in-line footwork.

St. Louis Defeats Lakers to Maintain Superiority

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The power of the National Basketball Assn. may well be in the Eastern Division this year, but you can't find fault with the way the St. Louis Hawks are dominating the Western Division.

All of the action last night was confined to the Western section and the Hawks took advantage of the situation to stretch their lead to 3 games at Rochester, while Fort Wayne and Minneapolis continued the scramble for runner-up honors.

St. Louis edged the Minneapolis Lakers 99-97 in the first game of the first NBA doubleheader ever played in Rochester, and then the Royals romped over the Fort Wayne Pistons 87-76 to move into second place.

Bob Pettit, who tallied 40 points against Philadelphia Tuesday, was held to a "measly" 18 but Bob Harrison chipped in with 19 and three other teammates also went into double figures as the Hawks protected their first-half lead. Scoring honors went to the Lakers' center, Clyde Lovellette, who dropped in 20 to retain his position as the league's No. 1 point maker.

The Royals jumped into an early lead over the Pistons and through most of the last three periods led by as much as 12 to 15 points. Rookie Jack Twyman paced the Rochester attack with 18 points. Odie Spears scored 19, 8 in the last 5 minutes, to lead Fort Wayne as George Yardley was held to a mere 7.

Kefauver—a Strong Democrat Contender

By KENNETH O. GILMORE
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — There's a tall Tennessee Democrat up on Capitol Hill they sometimes call "The Hand."

For often this lanky politician approaches strangers, swings out his right arm, presents a big friendly hand and drawls, "How do you do, my name is Estes Kefauver."

That's one way self-effacing Kefauver has been winning votes for years. Now political realists are wondering if this liberal Senator from the South can shake enough hands in America to win the Democratic presidential nomination at Chicago in 1956.

It will mean entering primaries from New Hampshire to California. For in the opinion of those who know and like Kefauver this is the only way he can make another bid for the presidency. And they don't deny that he still has a deep desire to live in the White House.

SEN. ESTES KEFAUVER: "If I run for anything . . ."

SAME PROBLEM

Kefauver faces the same problem he did back in 1952. He does not have the powerful backing of the old liners in the Democratic Party. This is one reason why Adlai Stevenson was named by the convention in 1952 even though Kefauver had more than half the necessary votes on the second ballot.

For the last two months 52-year-old Kefauver has been touring the world. While he now professes not to know whether he will be a candidate, political observers in Washington believe his hat will be in the ring.

But not his famous coon skin cap, it appears. For in the last few years he has outgrown this folksey gimmick, say friends. He no longer needs this symbol to attract attention.

If Kefauver decides to run, the extent of his campaign will be based on many political—and financial angles. In 1952 he had about $200,000, and it wasn't enough.

When told by a reporter on his return from the Far East that certain New Yorkers were ready to back him, Kefauver cracked, "I'd be glad to get their identification."

OILING BANDWAGON

It is a fact, however, that supporters are already oiling up the Kefauver bandwagon to get their man off to a fast start. Lawyers William Roberts of Washington and Bradley Eben of Chicago have independently taken a 2-year lease on an office which will be available as campaign headquarters.

Roberts reports that Kefauver's drive for the presidency will be considerably more organized and show more savvy in 1956. He says a large number of capable workers across the country have already volunteered their services.

There are indications, notes Roberts, that Kefauver activity is picking up momentum in California, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Ohio and Florida.

TOUGH CAMPAIGN

"If I run for anything," states Kefauver, "it will be only for the presidential nomination."

This almost certain primary campaign will not be as tough a fight as it was in 1952, his supporters predict. "Today the Senator is well known," explains an observer. "Before he had to start from scratch in all the primaries. Now he knows a lot of people and they know him. He will not have to go through as extensive or expensive a campaign."

It is further contended by those close to Kefauver that he has gained more respect in the Democratic organization. Here are the reason they give:

BROKE THE RULE

He has taken a lead in drumming up the Dixon Yates public power furore which is one of the Democrats' best issues to date.

As new chairman of the Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee, his hearings have brought praise from many parents.

One thing old-timers are still rankled about, however, is Kefauver's personal appearance on the convention floor in 1952. They stick with the tradition that leading contenders should stay out of the hall.

Politically, Kefauver has something in common with Vice President Nixon. For 35-year-old Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee is a local fly in the ointment to Kefauver's ambitions.

GOVERNOR'S FOE

Like Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California, Clement will be extremely influential in controlling his state delegation to the convention. And it is well known he would like to be named VP on the Democratic ticket.

"I can't imagine any Tennessee delegation going to the convention and not supporting Kefauver if he has a chance to be President," explains an expert. "Clement will have to give him backing at least at the start."

There's no question in political circles that strapping Sen. Kefauver is a threat to any of the Democratic forerunners for the nomination. The fact that he very likely will be entering the New Hampshire primary next March puts Adlai Stevenson on the spot.

"A lot of people still underestimate Estes," claims a long time friend. "They figure him as a big, lumbering, happy-go-lucky guy without much on the ball. Actually he has a sharp mind that grasps issues in an informed and speedy manner. And as a vote getter, he's unbeatable."

* * *

As to health, the Tennessee Senator looks as robust as a college fullback. On the return from his gruelling trip abroad, he said, "I never felt better in my life."

Smokey Bear Says: 'Make Sure It's Out'

NEW YORK (INS) — Fireman Henry Gartland tested a flimsy window display for flammability this week in a Broadway bar and grill.

In what was described as the "usual" inspection, he twisted a length of the material into two tight knots and put a match to it.

Then he snuffed it out, and, satisfied that the flimsy cloth, corrugated cardboard and paper was extinguished, walked away.

The stuff flared up and exploded, set ablaze the entire window display, spread through the bar and the 3-story building housing it was evacuated, leaped out the door and set fire to a sidewalk newsstand.

Two fire alarms were sounded after Gartland failed to put out the flames.

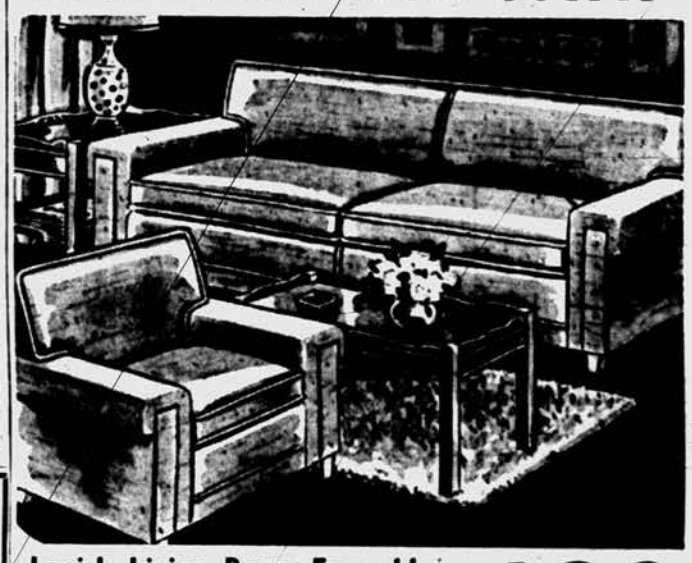

The ceiling of the bar collapsed and two firemen battling the blaze sustained head injuries, and Gartland was burned about the head and hands before the fire was extinguished.

Bonn Minister Sees Lengthy Red Block

BONN, Germany (AP)— Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano told the Russians today that normal relations between West Germany and the Soviet Union are impossible so long as Moscow blocks the reunification of Germany.

In a government declaration delivered to the cheers of the Bundestag, Von Brentano firmly ruled out separate, bilateral negotiations betwen Bonn and Moscow on the East-West deadlock over the question of uniting his divided nation.

Northern Ireland exported $50,000,000 of linen goods in 1954, the most since 1951.

Red's Nuclear Explosion Rains Elements on U.S.

WASHINGTON (INS)—The United States is being lightly dusted with radioactive fallout from Russia's superbomb explosion of last week.

However, the Atomic Energy Commission said, the amounts of radioactivity detected in this country has been "far below levels which would be hazardous to the health of exposed persons or animals, or damaging to crops."

Boat Official Resigns

DETROIT (AP) — Carl Johnson resigned Wednesday as secretary of the American Power Boat Assn. effective Dec. 31. Johnson, a former member of the New York Herald Tribune editorial staff, has been secretary of the organization for six years.

Today's Hospital Patients Now Spend Less for Care

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Today's patient spends less for hospital care than he did five years ago. These are the indications from the annual report of University Hospital, the first ever released publicly.

Dr. A. C. Kerlikowske, director of the hospital at the University of Michigan, released the statistics of his report yesterday.

The reason, apparently, is that efficiency and improved medical treatment allow hospital officials to dismiss a patient an average of three days sooner than they could five years ago.

Final bills are $90-$120 cheaper on the average.

University Hospital patients were at the hospital an average of 15 and a half days in 1950, but this has now been cut to 12 and a half days on the average.

AGAINST THE WALL

Because "hospitals are shoved against the wall" in discussion of the high cost of living today, Dr. Kerlikowske felt his report should be made public.

Some 72 per cent of University Hospital patients pay their own way, either by insurance or with their own funds. Some 28 per cent are supported by county or state agencies.

Of 1,000 consecutive admissions, less than half of the patients had hospitalization insurance. Said Dr. Kerlikowske "The trend is for more people to be covered by insurance."

A monthly cost report showed hospital officials, for instance, where they could save $6,500 in linen costs alone. It also showed that University Hospital spends $1,000 an hour, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Other statistic from Dr. Kerlikowske's report:

The main kitchen prepared 1,250,000 meals this year. The hospital used four million pounds of linen. Doctors delivered 1,524 babies in women's hospital. Doctors performed 9,000 operations. The hospital has a payroll of seven million dollars, employing 3,118 persons, 72 per cent of them female.

The hospital handled 200,033 outpatient calls, ten per cent more than last year.

November Sales Tax Collections Increase

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's sales tax bounded up again in November, the State Revenue Department reported today.

The department said November collections on October retail business climbed to $27,669,431. This was about $4,500,000 more than in the same month a year ago.

October collections on September business hit 29 million dollars, a record.

MONTREAL (AP) —Hitch-hiking from Montreal to Quebec City, two soldiers met a motorist who was "one in a million." Lance-Corporals Jean Decarie of Haileybury, Ont., and Gilles Grenon of Ottawa said Oredell Shaw of Thamesville, Ont., not only gave them a lift but loaned them his car for a week. Shaw is an oil driller at Yamachiche, Que.

TWU to Decide by Referendum

Transport Union Votes on CIO-AFL Merged Organization

NEW YORK (AP)— Members of the CIO Transport Workers Union will decide in a referendum whether their union shall join the new AFL-CIO, to be formed at a merger convention here next week.

Thirty-one of the CIO's 32 unions have voted in favor of the CIO-AFL merger.

ISOLATION PERIOD

CIO President Walter Reuther said at a news conference after the board meeting that an "isolation" period for the TWU might convince the members that they belong in the new labor group of approximately 15 million members.

* * *

The TWU leadership — headed by the fiery Michael J. Quill — has balked at the merger on the ground that the proposed AFL-CIO constitution does not provide adequate safeguards against "Three Rs.' These are racial discrimination, racketeering and raiding of one union's membership by another.

THE THREE R's

Leaders of the TWU have indicated they will raise the "Three R's" issue at the CIO convention here tomorrow and Friday.

Reuther, disputing the TWU leaders' stand at the news conference, said the antidiscrimination section is "one of the finest documents" in the proposed constitution. The antiracketeering section, Reuther said, shows simply that "there is no place in the American labor movement for crooks and Communists."

The TWU is composed largely of transportation workers in New York and some other cities. There also are railroad and airline non-operating workers on its rolls.

Reuther, who has been picked tentatively to head the industrial union organizing department of the AFL-CIO, told newsmen he is opposed to admitting the International Longshoremen's Assn., as presently constituted.

GOOD CAUSE

The ILA has been independent since it was ousted from the AFL more than two years ago for failure to cleanse itself of racketeering elements.

Reuther said: "I think the ILA was expelled from the AFL for good cause, and the cause has not been corrected."

Reuther said the AFL-CIO will take no position on political candidates until after the Republicans and Democrats conclude their national conventions next year.

Reuther said an AFL-CIO endorsement of a Republican presidential nominee next year is "within the scope of possibility, but not a probability."

* * *

The Republicans, he said, "are making it harder and harder and harder" for labor to find acceptable GOP candidates.

Weather Bureau Approves Plane Tornado Survey

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A veteran pilot will hunt for tornadoes next spring in the government's first scientific effort to learn what the destructive twisters are like aloft.

The Weather Bureau has signed a contract in Washington under which the pilot, Jim Cook of Jacksboro, Tex., will get $50,000 for 300 hours flying time, ending about the last of June.

Cook will fly from Kansas City under supervision of the Severe Storm Forecast Center here.

His plane, a former F51 Air Force fighter, will carry about 500 pounds of special instruments and cameras to record data on conditions in and around tornado clouds.

Air Force and Navy planes have been tracking hurricanes for years in research. If Cook's flights meet with some success, meteorologists believe a similar tornado warning system might arise.

Donald House, supervisor of the Severe Storm Forecast Center, said the first proposal was to set up ground observation stations over a section of 200 to 300 miles for the study.

But it would cost two million dollars to set up the stations, exclusive of personnel, and there was no guarantee a tornado would even come close to such a station, House said.

French Election Campaign Starts

Socialists Launch Drive Against Faure, Ousting of National Assembly

PARIS (AP) — France's election campaign got off to a booming start today only a few hours after Premier Edgar Faure's government dissolved the National Assembly.

The Socialists and backers of former Premier Pierre Mendes-France lost no time in opening their drive for votes in the nationwide election, expected to be set for Jan. 8. They turned their heaviest propaganda artillery against Faure and the dissolution.

The Cabinet decision to dissolve the Assembly—the first such move in the history of the postwar Fourth Republic — was announced last night. It gives Faure the early election the Assembly had denied him.

The Assembly handed Faure a vote of no confidence Tuesday, largely because of its opposition to his campaign for early elections. The 318-218 vote, however, permitted use of a clause in the 1946 constitution providing dissolution of the Assembly by the Cabinet if two governments were defeated on votes of confidence by a majority of all members of the House within an 18-month period.

Mendes-France, who still is in the process of reorganizing and tightening his grip on the Radical Socialist party, wanted the elections delayed to give him more time to prepare for a campaign. He also had pushed for election of individual deputies by districts, believing the change would help his faction.

AWOL Sailor of Berkley Nabbed in 3 Mile Chase

BERKLEY (INS) — An AWOL sailor driving a stolen car was arrested by State Police early today after a three-mile chase in which two shots were fired.

Police were looking for the car after McPeek drove into a gas station and got $6 worth of gas, then sped off without paying.

McPeek said he was stationed at Grosse Ile and had been AWOL for the past two days.

Conditional Yes Given to Widening Street in Holly

HOLLY—The village council has given conditional approval to the plan for the widening of North Saginaw Street for nearly a mile. This also is the route of the M87 state highway.

The approximate cost is to be $140,000, one-half of which would be covered by federal funds, the other half to be divided equally between the village and state.

Benson Reveals 6-Point Project

Ike-Approved Program to Deal With the Acute Farm Situation

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson today announced a six-point program for dealing with the acute farm situation. He said it will be presented to Congress in January.

* * *

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the Republican National Committee, he said President Eisenhower had recently approved the plan. It includes:

1. Stepped up surplus disposal and expansion of exports.
2. A vigorous purchase program to remove gluts.

3. Enlarged soil conservation and incentive payment programing, especially in drought areas.
4. Expansion of the rural development program for low-income farm families.
5. Stepped-up research, emphasizing lower production costs, new uses for farm products, and expansion of markets.
6. A speedup in a 10-state Great Plains program to make better use of wheat and grazing land.

Benson said the program, now in preparation, was not ready for discussion in detail.

"It will be no nostrum, no one-shot remedy, no cure-all," he said. "It will be constructive."

* * *

He said the Democrats have picked "agriculture as the major domestic battlefield for 1956" after failing in prophesying "disaster" and attacking Eisenhower's "churchgoing activities."

Set 25 MPH Speed Limit

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP —At the request of the Township Board, Michigan State Police and the Oakland County Road Commission have designated Farnsworth Street here (formerly Cedar Drive) as a 25-mile-per-hour zone because of its proximity to Dublin School.

Disputed Charter Points Discussed in Southfield

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — Some 300 residents last night attended the meeting of the Southfield Township Civic Assn. at the high school.

Many of the council candidates were on hand to discuss the proposed charter of the recently incorporated city.

The most controversal points discussed were the four-year term for councilman; the lack of civil service coverage for most city employes; the ten-mill tax increase; the appointment rather than the election of city clerk and treasurer and the "weak" zoning plan.

Voters go to the polls Dec. 12 to select their councilmen and accept or reject their charter.

Politicians Bandy Meaning of Words to Everyone's Utter Confusion

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the English language had a mother and father they'd probably cry at what happens when the politicians of both parties start throwing their baby around.

Secretary of State Dulles, whose handling of foreign policy will be one of the Democrats' targets in the presidential campaign, wants foreign policy criticism—if any—to be "constructive."

The Democrats and Dulles may run into a little difficulty seeing eye to eye on what is "constructive."

And Adlai Stevenson, who thought he was putting his best foot forward in starting his drive for the presidency on a note of "moderation," suddenly discovered that a couple of very prominent Democrats abhor the word.

In the 1952 campaign Dulles may have thought he was "constructive" with his blasts at the Democrats' foreign policy. They didn't seem to think so at the time and may even throw some of his 1952 speeches back at him in 1956.

CREATE CSISIS

In 1952 he said, "We should create crises for Russia instead of Russia creating crises for us." He's been secretary since 1953 but this country has created no crises for Russia.

In 1952 he said many nations feared the United States "may rashly precipitate atomic warfare." But Dulles, as secretary, reportedly gave American allies the jitters when he talked of "massive retaliation" against the Reds.

In 1952 he proposed a plan to "disintegrate the empire of Soviet Russia" from within. How? By "passive resistance, slowdowns and noncooperation" in the satellites.

BAD REACTION

This got such a bad reaction—to some Dulles seemed to be urging the unarmed satellite people to revolt against their Communist masters—that a few days later he said he meant only there were "peaceful ways" to do the job.

But in the years since Dulles became secretary, the satellites are just as firmly satellites as before.

It was in his Nov. 19 speech, outlining his program if elected president, that Stevenson said, "Moderation is the spirit of the times." He added that moderation must not be confused with stagnation.

DIDN'T SIT WELL

This didn't sit well with New York's Gov. Averell Harriman, who insists he's not actively seeking the Democratic presidential nomination although he has made so many speeches lately that some people are unconvinced.

He told a news conference—the day after Stevenson's speech—there is no such word as "moderate" in the Democratic party. It is not known whether Harriman looked up the word before he used it.

But the American College Dictionary says of "moderation": quality of being moderate, restraint; avoidance of extremes; temperance.

If Harriman doesn't want to be considered moderate, he can hardly want to be considered the opposite, which is immoderate. The dictionary says of "immoderation": exceeding just or reasonable limits; excessive; extreme.

* * *

Although Harriman hasn't said anything so far that makes any program he has look much different from Stevenson's, he nevertheless got a lot of publicity mileage out of his criticism.

* * *

Then Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams got in on the act. He said: "It is upsetting now to hear from our side counsels for a pause for breathtaking and moderation . . ."

But so far he hasn't offered anything very startling either.

Firm Reports New High in Natural Gas Sales

JACKSON (AP)—Consumers Power Co. today said a new record for natural gas used by customers was set during the 24-hour period ending 9 a.m. Tuesday.

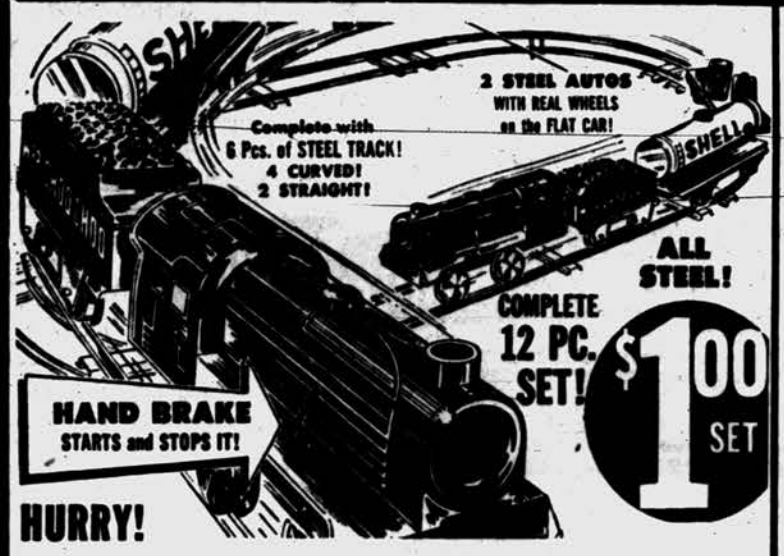

Consumers President Dan E. Karn said more than 400 thousand customers in some 200 upstate Michigan communities used just over 443 million cubic feet, ing a previous high of 382 million established last Jan. 26.

Eye Air-Cooling Law

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—City Water Department officials plan to consult Dec. 12 with city attorneys on a proposed ordinance to require licensing and regulate use of air-conditioning equipment that depends upon a water supply. They said such equipment has created a heavy demand on the city water supply in recent years.

Groucho Reports to Oil: 'The Show Is a Breeze'

By EARL WILSON

A LETTER FROM GROUCHO

NEW YORK—I recently wrote Groucho Marx some questions about the easy way he's found success on TV.

He replies:

"DEAR OIL:

"You're just as nosy as ever and, from your pictures, considerably fatter. In the head, that is, because that's the only part of your anatomy you are willing to display.

GROUCHO

"It's true—I was extremely reluctant to do the quiz show. There were hundreds of them and they all revolted me. All joy boys who either yocked it up or gave it the religious 'deeply concerned about you' attitude I told them I would not go for any of this nonsense. That I would neither laugh it up hysterically nor wax deeply sentimental. They would have to take me as I actually was. And, since they couldn't get anything cheaper, they signed me.

"The show is a breeze. I meet with the director every Tuesday for two hours—and that's it. Other than that, I go to the Derby on Wednesday night at 7, enter the theater at 8, get Pancake slapped on my kisser, warm up the audience with a firebrand and some elderly jokes, do the show, discard the Pancake and—unless I pick up a dame on Sunset Blvd.—and back home at 10.

"I hope this answers your prying letter.

Regards,

GROUCHO."

Hollywood Headlines:

Tracy Is Much Too Busy to Think of Quitting Films

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Me retire? I don't think an actor ever retires—unless he can't get a job anywhere. Of course, I would quit at least a few days before that happens. But you never can tell; you might wait two or three years and a role will come out from under a rock."

* * *

This was Spencer Tracy in a mellow mood. He was finishing up a picture called "The Mountain" and he felt pretty good—despite, or perhaps because of, his most strenuous role in years.

Since Tracy has left his long tenancy at MGM, there have been reports that he was going to retire. He scoffed at these, but added wryly, "I don't know how much longer people will want to look at this pan."

* * *

Probably as long as he wants to expose it. The two-time Oscar winner is still one of the screen's stalwarts and he shows no signs of slowing down.

As a matter of fact, he just returned from the toughest location of his career. "The Mountain" company shot right on Mt. Blanc in the Alps.

"It was a three-mile trip up the mountain every day," he said. "And sometimes we had to walk three hours over rock and snow to get to the location."

He and costar Robert Wagner got the scare of their lives when the suspended car taking them up to the peak suddenly stopped. The jolt swung the bottom of the car up to the cable, and there was nothing but rarified air—and lots of it—beneath them. They were stranded for 35 harrowing minutes until service was resumed.

Tracy, producer Leland Hayward and Ernest Hemingway are partners in filming "The Old Man and the Sea." They'll shoot it under Fred Zinneman's direction in Cuba starting next April. Tracy said the script will be largely Hemingway's words.

* * *

"And what words!" he enthused. "This is going to be a great one. The only thing that worries me is how can I follow 'The Old Man and the Sea'?"

Food Prices Lowest Since Before War

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet Index reached the lowest point this week since just before the start of the Korean War.

The index dipped to $5.99 from $6.02 a week ago and $6.85 a year ago. It was the lowest figure since June 20, 1950, when the index was at $5.96.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Lower at wholesale this week were flour, rye, oats, bellies, lard, eggs, cottonseed oil, potatoes and lambs. Higher were wheat, corn, hams, coffee, steers and hogs.

New Airport Busy

CHICAGO (INS) — The new O'Hare International Airport, outside Chicago, will be ten times larger than Midway Airport, the world's busiest airport, John L. Donoghue, assistant chief planning engineer for the city airport consultant office, said that by 1970, O'Hare will be capable of handling 22,000,000 passengers a year.

Move to Head Off Sale of Truck Firm

DETROIT (AP) — Officials of the Bohn Aluminum & Brass Corp. said yesterday the firm is soliciting proxies from stockholders of Diamond T Motor Car Co. in an effort to block a proposed sale of Diamond T assets to the White Motor Co.

Bohn owns 50,500 shares of Diamond T, a Chicago firm that makes motor trucks.

Bohn offered to pay $25 a share in inviting tenders of 50,000 shares of Diamond T stock from holders of record on Nov. 14. Bohn stipulated that the tenders must be accompanied by an irrevocable proxy.

Bohn said it reserves the right to purchase additional shares but it has no obligation to purchase more than 50,000. Shares are to be accepted in order of receipt.

Tenders must be made not later than the close of business Dec. 8. The purchaser will pay transfer taxes.

Stockholders of Diamond T will meet Dec. 12 to vote on the sale of assets to White Motor Co., a Cleveland firm that also makes trucks.

In a statement to shareholders, Bohn declared the Diamond T assets which would be sold to White Motor are worth more than the proposed price of $8,622,781.

Radioactive Dinner Plates at Home Baffle Professor

By JULIUS GOLDEN

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Dr. Lincoln LaPaz sat for his noontime meal, plunked a Geiger counter on the table and watched it go nuts over his dishware.

Before the day was through, LaPaz, head of the Western world's only institute of meteoritics, at the University of New Mexico, found himself with a disturbed wife telling him to get rid of the dishes.

He also has a "baffling mystery" and theorized that a couple of plate manufacturers may be sitting on a uranium mine.

RADIOACTIVE PLATE

What LaPaz discovered while testing a package he had received was that the orange glaze on his pottery plates was sending out 1.5 milliroentgens per hour compared to background radioactivity in the air of .03 milliroentgens. In other words, the plates from which he had been eating the past week were radioactive, although apparently not dangerously so.

The radioactivity was confined to the orange glaze. The pottery itself was not radioactive. The plates, he said, were from two different manufacturers and in each case gave off the same amount of radioactivity.

COLOR MATERIAL

Asked what he thought caused the radioactivity, LaPaz said: "The only thing I can say is this: I'd like to know where they get the coloring material. I'd sure as heck stake a claim."

LaPaz discovered the radioactive dishware because of habit. Since a newspaper editor at Dalhart, Tex., sent him a 33-pound half cylinder of pure uranium several years ago, LaPaz has put a Geiger counter to all packages he receives.

"The other day I got a package and carried it home," he said. "While I was waiting for lunch, I tested the package and I got strong radioactivity. I took it to the office and opened it there. But then I got no reaction.

* * *

"I was completely baffled and I asked Mrs. LaPaz what dishes we had on the table after all leads gave out. We measured the green, blue and yellow dishes and got no results. But when we measured the orange, the Geiger counter went off the scale."

* * *

LaPaz said he plans to test similar dishware as soon as possible but not at his house.

Grain Demand Slackens Off

CHICAGO (UP)—Demand for grains slackened on the Board of Trade today and wheat and soybeans sold off while feed grains were mixed.

Selling in wheat followed news of light but quite widespread snow or rain overnight in parts of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. The new crop months bore the brunt of the selling but old crop futures also were down.

Soybeans ran into a little profit-taking after their brisk rally in the closing minutes of the previous session. Feed grains were aided by a forecast for snow in parts of the Midwest. Corn moved ahead for small gains.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ¾ lower, December $2.02⅞; corn unchanged to ⅜ higher, December $1.23⅞; oats ⅛ lower to ½ higher, December 62⅛; rye unchanged to ½ higher, December $1.09½; soybeans ½ to 1 cent lower, January $2.35¾, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $10.60.

Stocks Fall Off in Late Selling

NEW YORK (UP) — The stock market tilted to the downside early this afternoon in moderate trading.

Many fractional gainers in the active early phase of today's session slipped to losses which in some key issues stretched to around a point or more.

There was also a scattering of gainers running from fractions to a point in pivotal stocks.

The market opened on a note of strength, turned irregular and then faded as trading slowed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at $181 with the industrials up 10 cents, the rails down 20 cents and the utilities unchanged.

Expensive Dessert

WASHINGTON (INS) — On tiny Providence Island north of Madagascar the hearts of coconut palm trees provide a delicacy known as "the millionaire's salad," says the National Geographic Society. A palm heart is obtained by cutting down a mature tree. To serve 10 persons costs about $200.

Railroad Expected to Show a Surplus

DETROIT — Based on current estimates, the Grand Trunk Western Railroad is expected to show a small surplus for 1955, Frank A. Gaffney, vice-president and general manager, told the board of directors at their semiannual meeting here today. Indications are that there will be a net surplus of some $279,000 compared with a net deficit of $3,310,600 in 1954.

The improvement in operating figures this year is resulting from an increase in freight, passenger and express revenues, Mr. Gaffney said.

A new $5,600,000 company has been formed to develop timber in New Guinea's Bulolo area.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR infant son, Jimmy Beckett, who passed away Dec. 1, 1953.
A bud that the Gardener gave us,
A pure and lovely child
He gave him in our keeping
To cherish undefiled
But just as it was opening
To the glory of the day
Down came the Heavenly Gardener
And took our flower away
Sadly missed by Father, Mother and sister

Perry's Strict in Some Ways

Vocalist Won't Permit Publicity to Sully His Wife, Children

Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of two articles about singer Perry Como.

By DICK KLEINER

NEW YORK (NEA)—"Look at that guy," a man watching a TV rehearsal said. "He looks like he enjoys rehearsing."

"That guy" was Perry Como. And he does enjoy rehearsals. He likes everyone on the show. Most of his guests are old friends.

So a Como rehearsal is something like a party. It is informal, almost to the point of seeming haphazard. But there's a man with a stopwatch and a director in shirtsleeves who are all business.

Como himself walks around slowly. He wears slacks, sports shirt and yellow sweater. He carries a script but rarely looks at it. When someone else is performing he sits down with the singers and watches, and when the act is over applauds.

During the breaks, he clowns mildly. He'll tease a girl about her new chinchilla hat and end up by trying it on. He'll swing a prop rifle like a golf club. He'll break into a little dance step.

Says an associate: "You've heard about the horse you can lead to water but you can't make him drink? Well, Perry's a guy you can't even lead to water if he doesn't want to go."

DEFINITE IDEAS

He has definite ideas about himself, his show, his life. No photographers are allowed near the Como home. He wants his family to be normal, unsullied by publicity.

His wife (they've been married 23 years) has been described by a friend as "a housewife — one of those women who is happy when the servant quits because then she has a chance to get down on her knees and scrub the floor."

But he delights in talking about his children. It's typical-father-talk, not typical-star-talk. The kids, apparently, show him not too much professional respect.

* * *

"They put on records and danced," he said. "Ronnie, he's 16, and some of the others dig that rhythm and blues. Well, they had some of my records on the machine, and each time one of them started playing they all listened sort of dutifully. Ronnie, he had an expression on his face—sort of like he was thinking, "Boy, how long does this square stuff last?' "

KIDS DONT SING

There isn't a singer in the Como crowd. Ronnie, David (who's 9) and Terri (who's 8) all like music, but don't seem to have any vocal talent.

* * *

"I guess we gooled on that," Perry says. The two younger children are adopted, incidentally.

He'll talk about the children at the drop of a hat, or break of a rehearsal. When he's rehearsing, though, he's pretty serious about it. He goes through all his comedy routines, his sketches, his introductions over and over.

When it comes time for a Como solo, however, he just hums and la-la-las. He does rehearse his songs fully with the orchestra, in private.

Como, quiet and easygoing though he is, knows what he wants. And what he wants he gets. For instance, he wants everything in good taste. Nothing off-color is allowed. Comic Buddy Hackett was a guest and did his famous Chinese waiter bit. It includes the word "belch."

'BELCH' WAS OUT

Perry said no. Hackett was amazed. Perry was firm. The word stayed out.

* * *

On the very first show of the season, Julius LaRosa was the guest. The writers, headed by the talented veteran Goodman Ace, put in a scene where Como asked LaRosa for advice, since it was his first show and LaRosa had been on all summer.

The word had obvious Arthur Godfrey connotations.

The program was flooded with mail, most coming from irate Godfrey fans, Como determined to open the next show with an apology.

Everyone said an apology wasn't called for, the network, his writers, his press agent. But Como opened his next show with a few quiet words of apology.

Neighbors Waken Man Whose Home Is Afire

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP)—Tom Turner, a sign painter convalescing from an operation, may owe his life to alert neighbors.

While Turner was asleep, fire broke out in his home. His wife, a nurse, was at work. Turner slept on.
