Coral Gables Police Seek Walled Lake Boy's Body

Police at Coral Gables, Fla., were dragging a canal there today in an attempt to find the body of a 17-year-old Walled Lake boy who authorities said left home last month threatening suicide.

The youth, Earl White, left his home at 1910 Austin Dr., for a vacation in the south and was last heard from last Tuesday.

His car was found Friday beside a bridge over a canal. It contained his clothes, camping equipment and $75 in savings bonds.

The youth's mother, Mrs. Victoria White, was in Coral Gables today to aid authorities in the search.

She said her son had threatened to "drive his car into the nearest river" because he feared Naval authorities would not accept him for enlistment because of rheumatic fever.

Earl, whose father died nine years ago, suffered an attack of the fever when he was about five years old, according to an aunt, Mrs. Virginia Kinney, also of Walled Lake.

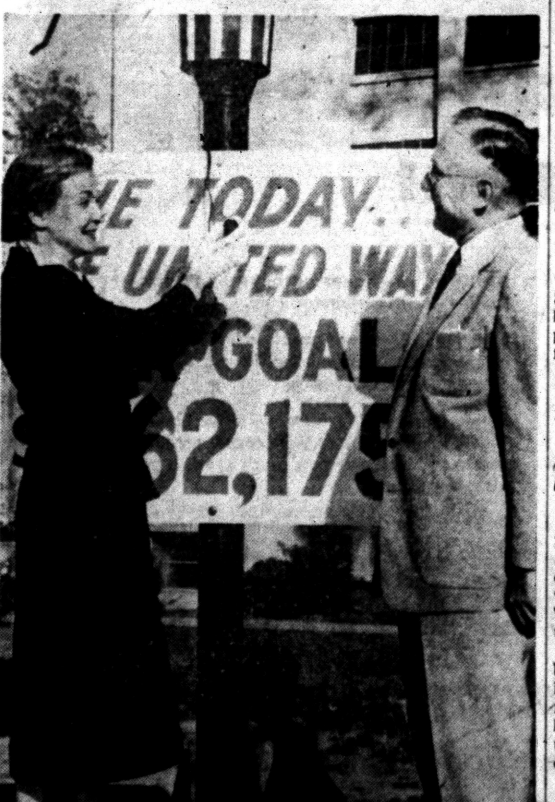

Mrs. White told Florida authorities that she feared her son "might do something desperate" if he tried to enlist and was rejected.

She said the boy called her last (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Bantu Tribesmen May Hold Answer to Heart Trouble

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—The Bantu Negro tribes of central and south Africa may give science a key to curbing heart diseases in the Western world.

Doctors have found members of the Bantu tribes immune to coronary thrombosis and other heart ailments.

One reason is that these Africans have "Peter Pan" blood vessels—they "never grow up." The arteries and veins of a Bantu 70 to 80 years old compare favorably with those of a European of 20 to 30, doctors say.

Research has shown that most white men have much larger deposits of lime salts and fatty materials in their bodies than the Bantus. Such materials tend to harden the blood vessels, over the years and apparently create conditions making the heart more susceptible to disease.

Why the Bantus have less is still unknown.

Dr. I. Bersohn of the Johannesburg Institute of Medical Research says, "The problem is to find what protects the Bantu blood vessels from aging."

'Refreshed' Ike Ready for Talks With Secretary

President and Dulles Confer for First Time Since Heart Attack

DENVER (INS)—President Eisenhower had another good night's sleep and was reported "refreshed and cheerful" today for his scheduled bedside conference on foreign affairs with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

It will be the chief executive's first meeting with any member of his Cabinet since a heart attack struck him 17 days ago.

Since then, his progress has been so "satisfactory" that other such conferences will be permitted in the near future, perhaps this week.

Before going to Fitzsimons Army Hospital for his meeting with the President, Dulles was to see Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams at the Denver White House. He will also do "a little work" there, the nature of which was not disclosed.

The cabinet officer arrived in Denver last night, and expressed "personal gladness" at being able to see Eisenhower again.

They were to discuss a number of diplomatic questions, including the Big Four ministers' conference opening in Geneva on Oct. 27.

Thus, their topics of conversation would cover German unification, European security, increased contact between East and West and world disarmament.

CALL ON RUSSIANS

The subject of disarmament came to the fore again yesterday when Dulles called on the Russians once more to accept Eisenhower's military blueprint exchange and aerial inspection plan.

He did so in a speech at Miami to the American Legion Convention. Then he flew to Denver aboard the President's personal plane, Columbine III.

Dulles' visit with Eisenhower was not expected to last more than 15 minutes, on doctors' orders. However, the secretary said on his arrival last night it was a "good sign" that the physicians decided the President could see him at all.

While the White House has stated that Eisenhower's conference with Dulles would cover matters with which the President was thoroughly familiar before his illness, Eisenhower's doctors have made it clear it will not be any "rubber stamp" discussion.

Port Huron Judge to Hear Sewer Suit

Circuit Judge Eugen Black, of Port Huron, has been scheduled to preside here over trial of Pontiac's suit claiming Waterford Township illegally connected a sewer line to the city system.

A jury will be assembled to begin trying the suit Oct. 24, said Oakland County Circuit Court Assignment Clerk C. Richard Smith. The three local judges' slate was to full for any of them to hear the case this month, he explained.

Pontiac contends Waterford did not have city approval to connect the line, as required by a previous agreement.

Legion Parades Through Miami

40 and 8 Almost Bolts Convention; Delegates Hear Meany Speak

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—American Legionnaires put aside the serious business of their national convention today to step out on parade.

If there was a sour note in the five-hour line of march, it came from the 40 and 8, the honor and funmaking organization.

The 40 and 8 nearly came to a parting of the ways with the Legion. One of its strongest complaints is that it wasn't allowed to parade as a unit. The parent organization insisted that 40 and 8 members split up and parade individually with state delegations. There was reluctant compliance.

LABOR LEADER SPEAKS

Parade day came after a busy national convention opening at which Secretary of State Dulles promised that the United States would not disarm "unless we can be sure that others are doing the same."

Another major speech was delivered by George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor. Meany said there was an "undemocratic trend" in the South.

He referred to the presently suspended Miami area hotel strike in which court injunctions halted picketing at 21 hotels, and declared the workers are being "denied by law and economic power the fundamental rights" to which they are entitled.

TALK ON SOVIET

Meany devoted most of his speech to Russian relations. He said the Soviet rulers "are just as much on the offensive as ever before," and added:

"Looking realistically at Moscow's stifling of human rights at home and chain of conquests abroad, we of the American Federation of Labor have flatly turned down all propositions of exchanging delegations with the Communist countries."

At a Legion dinner last night, Sen. George (D-Ga.) expressed hope for continuation of a "non-partisan approach" to foreign affairs.

Commissioners Prefer Oakland Sanatorium Purchase

State's Mental Health Hospital Program Revealed

LANSING (AP)—A program to expand state facilities for mentally retarded children, estimated to cost more than five million dollars, was being studied today by Gov. Williams for recommendation to the Nov. 1 legislative session.

Williams made public proposals by Charles A. Wagg, state mental health director, for taking 1,221 mentally retarded children off hospital waiting lists and placing under state care within six to eight months.

The Governor said he would consult with legislative leaders before deciding on a final program but he expressed general agreement with Wagg's ideas.

Wagg recommended the state buy the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium seven miles west of Pontiac and the Farmington Children's Hospital. The first would give the state 350 additional beds and the second 300.

Wagg and Williams said they were negotiating with officials of both institutions to determine a selling price and could not estimate one now.

OTHER SUGGESTIONS

Farmington Hospital officials have talked about a $1,200,000 figure for their institution.

Wagg also included in his suggestions for adding 1,350 new beds the completion of a new 230-bed unit now under construction at Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School, expansion of the boarding home patients program to take another 100 patients, placing about 100 patients in private and local hospitals on a contract basis and the emergency use of 200 beds at Coldwater and Lapeer State Home and Training Schools by using two old structures due to be closed and remodeled as soon as replacements are completed.

As an alternative, Wagg said

General Motors Hikes Fund Donation

CHECK FOR $115,000—William B. Hartman (left), Pontiac Area United Fund president, this morning accepted a General Motors Corp. check for $115,000 from Robert M. Critchfield, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division. The corporation's gift, 15 per cent above last year, was presented at a breakfast launching this year's UF drive attended by some 400 volunteer workers at Devon Gables.

General Motors Boosts Donation by 15 Per Cent

Breakfast Today Starts 1955 Fund Campaign for $562,175

The theme for this year's Pontiac Area United Fund drive was established before the campaign was an hour old this morning.

A $115,000 gift from the three General Motors divisions here was presented before some 400 volunteer workers assembled at Devon Gables.

The donation was 15 per cent above last year when $100,000 was presented by GM.

UF officials expressed the idea that if other donations are increased in like manner over last year the drive will quickly go to the top.

This year's goal is $562,175, compared with $325,823 last year.

The GM gift comes directly from the corporation itself and does not include donations which employees will make.

General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division Robert M. Critchfield, who is UF campaign manager this fall, handed the check to UF President William B. Hartman following remarks by the noted actress Nina Foch, who was featured guest.

Miss Foch compared the UF worker's job with the thought behind a television play she recently appeared in which was sponsored by Pontiac Motor Division.

The play attempted to bring home to the nation new responsibilities placed on it by the atomic age, she explained.

"You are embarking on an exciting task. That of reminding the citizens of your area of their specific responsibilities to the community. You must impress citizens right here with what we attempted to say at a distance."

"I feel the message and essence of the United Fund is simply this—love one another."

"We appreciate the manufacturers of this area for their contributions of money and personnel," said Hartman.

"But also for their example pointing out that each has a tremendous interest in the spiritual, moral and social welfare of the community . . . that spirit has led to success in the past and this year will be no exception."

Water, Road Authorities Approved by Supervisors

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday endorsed formation of water and highway authorities by the Supervisors' Inter-County Committee.

The inter-county committee, including supervisors from Oakland, Wayne, Monroe, Macomb and Washtenaw Counties, will draw up articles of incorporation for the authorities then submit them for final approval by the individual boards of supervisors.

The water group would work toward construction of a pipeline to bring water from Lake Huron, while the road group would be assigned to co-ordinating highway development in the metropolitan area.

In other action during the meeting, in the office building at 1 Lafayette St., the board approved hiring an architect to draft plans for construction of a new dog pound in the county service center on North Telegraph road.

Land on which the present pound is located at 1200 E. Walton Blvd. has been sold, explained Chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee Harry W. Horton, of Royal Oak. The building must be moved by Feb. 25 next year, he explained.

The new building will cost about $18,000, said Horton, and be finished by the time the present one must be vacated.

Agricultural Committee Chairman Howard J. Reid, of Milford Township, read a committee report recommending up to $2,500 be spent renovating the agricultural agent's offices at the service center.

It was referred to the Ways and Means Committee for a decision on how soon the money will be available.

Avon Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller moved that the Legislature (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Under the plan, employees would contribute two per cent of their pay to Social Security and three per cent to their state pension plans. Participating employees now contribute five per cent to the state plan.

If the combined plan is accepted, O'Hara said, employee retirement benefits would be increased up to 100 per cent for the lower pay brackets and 35 or 40 per cent in the higher salaried groups.

Balloting will continue through the week. Results will probably be known by the end of the week and canvassed by the retirement board Oct. 20, O'Hara said.

Half of the eligible employees—or about 12,000 workers—must accept the plan if it is to become effective, O'Hara said.

Piston Workers Return to Plant

Troops Patrol Riot City as Perfect Circle Opens Foundry Doors Today

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP)—Perfect Circle Corp. reopened its piston ring foundry today with troops and five pickets patrolling together in a litter of stones and broken glass left from last Wednesday's strike riot.

About 70 workers entered the foundry as the doors were opened for "anyone who wants to work." Other Perfect Circle plants remained open without incident in nearby Hagerstown and Richmond. Almost 1,000 National Guard troops imposing martial law, protected all of New Castle and Hagerstown and two plants at Richmond.

Four tanks sat on the foundry parking lot here, facing the plant, where about 90 non-strikers were evacuated by state police last Wednesday after an exchange of shots that wounded eight persons. Half a dozen guardsmen carrying rifles walked patrols outside the foundry fence.

About 250 guardsmen of the 139th Field Artillery Battalion moved into Richmond early today but limited their patrols to a triangular area at the northwest edge of the city. The pie-shaped area under martial law, bounded by U. S. 35 and Ind. 627, includes four homes and an Alcoa Bottle Cap Factory, where about 500 CIO United Steel Workers are employed.

The troops at Richmond were billeted in the National Guard Armory a mile and a half from the two Perfect Circle plants and in a shelter house at Conservation Park on the north edge of the city.

The CIO United Auto Workers union has been on strike against Perfect Circle here and at Hagerstown and Richmond, Ind., since July 25 in a contract dispute.

The company's decision to reopen came after Gov. George W. Craig proclaimed full martial law for New Castle and extended it to include all of surrounding Henry County, the town of Hagerstown and the Perfect Circle plant area in Richmond.

Offshore Oil Plea

Louisiana Claims to Land Boundary Given by 6-0 Vote of High Tribunal

WASHINGTON (U)—The Supreme Court has turned down a federal effort to restrict Louisiana claims of offshore submerged lands having oil reserves worth many millions of dollars.

By a 6-0 vote, the high tribunal yesterday rejected a Justice Department request that Louisiana's seaward boundary be fixed at three geographical miles from its shore. Louisiana contends its boundary extends about 10 1/2 miles into the Gulf of Mexico.

The court rejected the Justice Department's motion without giving any explanation. Its action left open the question of ultimate ownership of the mineral resources in the disputed offshore area. This issue may have to be settled in future litigation.

In another action yesterday—its first decision session of this term—the court granted a Justice Department request for a hearing in its long-standing efforts to force the DuPont interests to dispose of their stock in General Motors Corp. U. S. District Judge Walter J. Labay in Chicago had thrown out a government civil antitrust suit against the DuPonts and G. M. The department appealed to the Supreme Court and seven justices agreed to review Judge Labay's decision. Justices Clark and Harlan disqualified themselves.

OTHER ACTIONS

In other actions yesterday the Supreme Court:

1. Ordered the University of Alabama to admit to its graduate school two Negro girls, Autherine J. Lucy and Polly Anne Myers.

2. Granted a hearing to New York gambler Frank Costello, who appealed his conviction for income tax evasion.

3. Refused to act on a Costello appeal from a contempt conviction for refusing to answer questions in a government action to cancel his naturalized citizenship. The Italian-born Costello now faces deportation proceedings.

4. Rejected an appeal by gambler Joe Adonis who was convicted of perjury after telling a Senate crime investigating committee he was a citizen of the United States. The government says Adonis was born in Italy and it seeks to deport him.

5. Turned down an appeal which asked the tribunal to declare unconstitutional Michigan's one man grand jury system.

6. Agreed to rule whether the Federal Communications Commission may set an arbitrary limit on the number of radio and TV stations owned by any one person.

7. Refused to review a decision in which columnist Westbrook Pegler and two Hearst corporations were ordered to pay $175,000 in libel damages to author Quentin Reynolds.

Looting Breaks Out in Flooded Tampico

TAMPICO, Mexico (U)—The Mexican army clamped tighter controls over flooded areas of Tampico today in an attempt to check widespread looting.

Hundreds of residents lined up for military passes required for access to their homes, from which the Panuco River waters are receding. Many found their dwellings stripped.

Army commanders prohibited removal of any property from the flooded zone for a period of eight days.

Petitions Asking Tax Surplus Cut

Non-Teaching Workers at Schools Requesting Share of Funds

Petitions asking that non-teaching school employees receive equal benefits with teachers in a split of state sales tax surplus funds, will go to Gov. G. Mennen Williams "possibly next week," Becher E. Bevington, Pontiac district director of the Michigan Association of Non-Teaching School Employees (MANSE) announced today.

More than 12,000 signatures are listed and additional ones are being received daily, Bevington said, following a state-wide meeting of MANSE directors held Saturday at Kellogg Center, East Lansing.

"We understand Gov. Williams has earmarked $200 per teacher, from kindergarten through 12th grade, to be taken from surplus funds and used for salary increases and other benefits," Bevington said.

"The MANSE believes that non-teaching employees should get a portion of this. We hope to get the petitions to the governor early next week."

Bevington stated that MANSE represents approximately 20,000 office, clerical, maintenance and cafeteria workers in Michigan schools.

Japan Breathes Easy as Typhoon Changes Course

TOKYO (U)—A weakening typhoon sideswiped Tokyo today, delivering a glancing blow instead of the expected head-on smash, then curled out to sea.

The huge metropolitan area, the world's most densely populated, had been braced for a full-scale blast.

Instead, the center of the storm skidded by 70 miles east of Tokyo, just off the Pacific Coast. Its center winds were slowing to 85 miles an hour as the storm blew itself toward extinction.

Tokyo still was hurt by the storm. Streets were sprayed with shattered window glass, houses were flooded and electric power failed.

Landslides cut roads and rail lines from Tokyo and big waves sank at least two fishing boats with eight crewmen.

Florida Police Seek County Boy's Body

Tuesday from Waycross, Ga., where he was visiting a friend, telling her he was coming home.

A Coral Gables resident told Mrs. White she saw a boy matching Earl's description on the bridge Friday.

Earl left school last year and went to work at the Ford Motor Co. valve plant at Northville. He had been working there about eight months, Mrs. Kinsey said.

"He was devoted to his mother and six brothers and sisters and I can't believe he would kill himself," Mrs. Kinsey stated.

"He was a good student, liked to dance and was normal in every way. He had an attack of rheumatic fever when he was about five but it didn't bother him at all as far as I know," she concluded.

The sister, who is caring for five of the White children, described the boy as very blond with blue eyes, about 150 pounds and five foot, nine inches tall.

Mrs. White's oldest child, a daughter, is attending Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

The family moved to Michigan from Kentucky 14 years ago.

Meanwhile, local Naval enlistment authorities said that White had made no attempt to enlist locally.

Atomic Physicist Speaks to Detroit Economic Group

DETROIT (U)—By making a new and limitless source of energy available to "have-not nations," development of the peaceful atom will promote international good will and eliminate many basic, economic causes of war.

These were the words of Dr. Detlav W. Bronk, president of the National Academy of Sciences, in Detroit yesterday as he spoke to the Economic Club here.

Dr. Bronk, former University of Michigan physics instructor and president of the Rockefeller Institute, told the group:

"Although we face an uncertain future we must realize there is security in growth but only atrophy of the spirit in the 'status quo.'"

He added, "There have always been dangers threatening freedom, but science will create a common bond, as it always has."

Dr. Bronk said that the nation's sources of energy and its economic strength will, in the future, depend less on the possession of natural resources than on its scientific and technical ability to utilize the fact of nuclear fission.

Give Innocent Plea for Fenton Attorney

Former Fenton village attorney Clifford Dye, 53, stood mute on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge George B. Hartwick entered an innocent plea for Dye who is accused of shooting William C. Clark, 26, of Fenton, Aug. 26. Clark operated three farms owned by Dye's sister.

The defendant's attorney, Clarence L. Smith, of Pontiac, said he will file a motion to have the charge reduced to one less severe.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said his office will fight any reduction in the charge.

The shooting occurred, police said, following an argument between the two men. Dye is free on $10,000 bond. No trial date was set.

lative Committee study two Oakland County Circuit Court decisions which he termed "contradictory."

In one case, he said, construction of a church in Avon Township was stopped by a court injunction "after it was well under construction for violation of zoning regulations."

In the other, he asserted, work was allowed to continue on a second church which also does not meet zoning requirements.

Another resolution by Miller was passed requesting the Michigan Department of State to hold off recommending to the Legislature that driver's licensing be taken from individual police and sheriff's departments and placed in special branch offices.

The resolution asks that no action be taken until supervisors have time to study the proposal.

"I'm against continually adding new offices which eat up more tax dollars," Miller explained.

A report from the Miscellaneous Committee commended Sheriff Frank W. Irons for his efforts in redecorating and modernizing the county jail.

Following the breakfast, which was paid for by the Pontiac Manufacturers' Assn., Miss Foch lighted the torch which will burn throughout the drive at N. Saginaw St. and Oakland Ave.

Large signs on which the drive's progress will be recorded have been erected in front of the court-house at Saginaw and Huron Sts. and at the Tel-Huron Shopping Center.

The drive is slated to run through Nov. 3. A report luncheon will be held Oct. 12.

An introductory panel discussion

The Day in Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM—Three of Mother Nature's seasons and the problems each bring got the attention of the City Commission last night. Appropos of the current one, commissioners approved an ordinance change which will permit residents living on paved streets to rake their autumn leaves into the street for city collection.

Since city equipment cannot operate on gravel roads, those residents must continue the old policy of placing leaves in baskets for pick up.

Lawmakers also heeded the persevering insistence of Commissioner Florence Willett, who once again asked that a swimming pool ordinance be enacted before, rather than after, a life could be lost through unsafe or unsanitary conditions.

The new ordinance, which will provide for proper fencing and chomination, will probably be ready for approval in two weeks.

Also, because of the hazards during snow plowing time, where large stones are used for ornamental or marking purposes on streets that have no curbs, householders must now place the stones three feet back from the right-of-way.

Book lovers or bargain hunters can again get ready for their annual trek to the AAUW Book Sale and for some it will be the 28th such trip made to seek out a treasure, or just plain pick up some inexpensive reading material.

This marks the 28th year of the sale which benefits the group's fellowship fund, and members are about set for the preview to take place Sunday at the Detroit Edison co. building, they'll open their doors for the public to gobble up their finds on Monday, with the sale to continue through Saturday.

The routine has been pretty well established by now, says Mrs. N. J. Rakas, general chairman, but each year the growing sales have created a demand for more books, magazines and records. Mrs. J. S. Judd may still be contacted to arrange for last-minute pick-ups or learn where the nearest collection station is located.

Mrs. Robert Wallace, who celebrated her 95th birthday on April 28, died Monday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Norton, of 1392 Bennaville.

She had still been playing the piano and reading without glasses as her favorite pastimes.

Survivors include two other daughters, Mrs. Edward Raciencki and Mrs. Glen Iman, both of Detroit; two sons, Lorne of Detroit, Charles of St. Clair Shores; one brother, Fred E. Young of Saginaw; 14 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

Will 1956 Be the Year That Changes the World?

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," is offering, free of charge to the public, an astounding 64-page booklet analyzing famous world prophecies covering these times. It shows that four of the greatest prophecies could not come true until the present time. But now they can, and the years that change the world are at hand. Great dangers but still greater opportunities, confront forward looking people in 1956.

"The Voice of Two Worlds," a well-known explorer and geographer, tells of a remarkable system that often leads to almost unbelievable improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

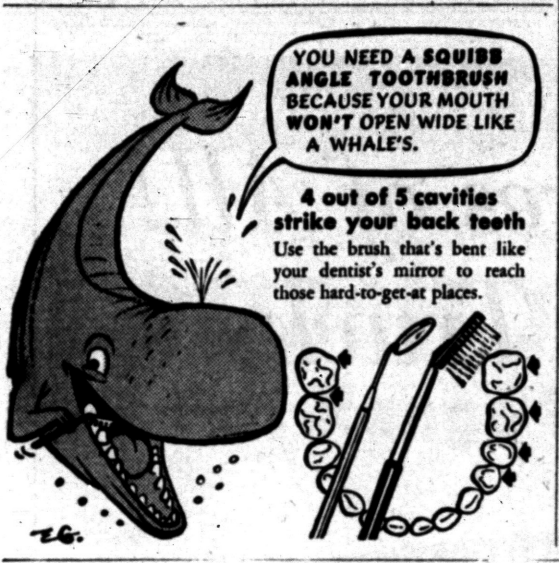

These strange methods were found in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

The 64-page booklet he is now offering free to the public gives guidance for those who wish to prepare themselves for the momentous days ahead. It gives details of what to expect, and when. Its title is "Beware of These Days!"

The book formerly sold for a dollar, but as long as the present supply lasts, it is offered free to readers of this notice. This liberal offer is made because he expects that many readers will later become interested in the entire system of mind power he learned in the Far East and which is now ready to be disclosed to the Western world.

For your free copy of the astonishing prophecies covering these momentous times, as revealed in this 64-page book, address the Institute of Mental Physics, 213 South Hobart Blvd., Dept. T-27, Los Angeles 4, Calif. Send no money. Just your name and address on a postcard or in an envelope will do. No obligation. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of the free books have been printed.

Yugoslav Plane Crashes; 6 Die

U. S. Man 1 of 15 Hurt When Aircraft Plows Through Vienna Woods

VIENNA (U)—A two-engine Yugoslav airlines plane with 29 persons aboard crashed and burned in the foggy Vienna woods yesterday, killing six persons. At last 15 were injured, some seriously.

Some of the others, including Americans, were able to walk away from the accident with only slight injuries.

The plane, en route from Belgrade to Vienna, crashed on a hill overlooking the Austrian capital just before it was due to land.

Among those hospitalized was Frank P. Irwin of Tulsa, Ill., who was thrown out of the plane and was reported seriously hurt.

U. S. Army Chaplain, Lt. Col. John I. Rhea, stationed at Heidelberg, Germany, suffered a slight foot injury. Slightly injured was Princess Schwarzenberg, wife of the Austrian Ambassador in London, and her daughter.

Coast Guard Joins Man With His Drifting Cruiser

LOS ANGELES (U)—The Coast Guard has reunited H. Wilson of Ventura, Calif., and his Dottie.

They became estranged, quite by accident, in the Pacific Ocean. Dottie is Wilson's 24-foot cabin cruiser. The Coast Guard said that Wilson went aboard a fishing boat off San Miguel Island early yesterday to radio that his craft had broken down.

After radioing, he found that Dottie had gone off and left him, since he hadn't lashed her to the fishing vessel. The Coast Guard found Dottie, alone, about 10 miles away.

Van Fleet Predicts A-Defense of Korea

LOS ANGELES (U)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet says the United States will retaliate with atomic bombs if the Communists invade South Korea.

Under terms of a treaty between the United States and the Republic of Korea, the retired former United Nations commander in Korea said, "an attack against Korea is an attack against the United States."

The general, who recently returned from Korea, made the statements yesterday at a question-and-answer session after a talk to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Jordan King Is Ailing

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (U)—King Hussein of Jordan was reported under treatment here today for a chronic stomach disorder.

Bad Axe Polio Victim to Get Television Set

BAD AXE (U)—Mrs. Mary Seiman will get a television set today—something she wants almost more than anything else in the world.

Mrs. Seiman is paralyzed with polio. She has been in a hospital for 6½ years and can move only her head and fingers.

The TV set is going into Mrs. Seiman's room at Bad Axe General Hospital. It's a gift from a former polio victim—Mrs. Mla Cove of Bad Axe.

Mrs. Cove visited a friend in the hospital one day, and while she was there, heard Mrs. Seiman comment about how nice it would be to have a TV set. With her husband and four children living on a farm in Huron County, there was no money to spare.

So Mrs. Cove went out and raised $209 in donations so Mrs. Seiman could have a treasure she really appreciates.

Reorganization Includes State's 70th Division

WASHINGTON (U)—Army Secretary Brucker announced last night the Army has virtually completed a change of mission for 25 reserve divisions, including the 70th Division of Michigan and Indiana, to meet atomic age conditions.

Under the reorganization the 70th has been designated a training division.

Nine U. S. Presidents have been Episcopalians.

Earl Scribner Placed on Two Year Probation

Earl D. Scribner, 17, of 1637 Becherhoff, Keego Harbor, yesterday was placed on two-year probation and assessed $100 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

He pleaded guilty Sept. 27 to stealing two tires Aug. 8 from the Motorcar Transport Co. here.

German PWs Report Reds Hold U. S. Men

(U)—The first group of civilian German prisoners from the Soviet Union arrived in the West today. Some of them reported an American soldier and four others claiming to be Americans or to have American connections were being held in Russian slave labor camps.

A total of 195 civilians arrived, 26 in West Berlin and 169 at Camp Friedland. They included 58 women and five children born in captivity.

The returnees said they had been arrested "for minor offenses" between 1946 and 1953 at their homes in East German territory.

The civilians had been with some 300 others—including 42 women and 10 children—who stayed in East Germany.

Several thousand military prisoners have arrived in West and East Germany. A batch of 31 today included 22 former generals, among them Hans Rattenhuber, commander of Hitler's Elite Guard escort battalion.

Clawson Man Assessed $100 Costs of Court

In Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday James A. McDonald, 20, of 385 Marias, Clawson, was placed on three-year probation and assessed $100 court costs, by Judge George B. Hartrick.

McDonald admitted Sept. 21 taking a gas can from a shed in Clawson last May 11.

Cobo Warns Drivers on X-Way Speeding

DETROIT (U)—Mayor Albert E. Cobo warned motorists today they would have to change their driving habits on high speed expressways.

Otherwise, the mayor said, the 55-mile an hour expressway speed will be reduced to end traffic accidents and tie-ups.

"Expressway motorists are driving too close together. Either they will start driving farther apart or we will lower the speed limit," Cobo said.

The mayor's warning came as the new 2-mile extension of the Lodge Expressway to Glendale was opened and the $10,000,000 Ford-Lodge interchange was formally dedicated.

Los Angeles' Rabies Up

LOS ANGELES (U)—All dogs in city and county yesterday were ordered quarantined by the city health officer for at least a year because of the rabies situation. There have been 67 rabid dog reports since Jan. 1, most in 10 years. The order requires dogs be confined to owners' premises except when on a leash not more than five feet long.

Canada Marks Golden Jubilees

Saskatchewan, Alberta Celebrate Fifty Years of Progress

WASHINGTON—Canada's Saskatchewan and Alberta are celebrating golden jubilees this year, extolling 50 years of progress.

Each gained provincial status 1905 after the arrival of thousands of land-hungry men and women in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, the National Geographic Society says. Few except English and French fur traders previously had frequented the Saskatchewan and Alberta prairies.

The growth and bustle of Edmonton, Alberta, symbolize the entire region's progress. Scarcely more than a trading post before 1906, it now is gripped by an oil and natural-gas boom and has become one of Canada's fastest growing cities.

Situated in central Alberta, Edmonton's one-time role in outfitting Klondike prospectors brought it the name of Gateway to the North. Today it is called the Crossroads of the World and the Meeting Place of a Hundred Races.

THE BREAD BASKET

Busy Calgary factories produce packing-house products, automobile bodies, flour and bread. Coal, livestock, wheat and lumber are drawn for shipment from an area of 150,000 square miles.

The two provinces share a common accomplishment—the enormous production of grains. Known as Canada's bread basket, Saskatchewan leads in wheat raising, followed by Alberta. In central Alberta the rich black topsoil is sometimes a foot thick; in Saskatchewan the fertile land provides livelihood for an estimated seven out of ten persons. Thousands of sheep, cattle and horses help shape the agrarian economy.

Saskatchewan industries supplement farming. Regina, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw variously produce flour and feed, cheese, petroleum and lumber products, cement, brick, iron and steel.

Myriad lakes and streams of the upper province supply whitefish, pickerel, sturgeon, bass and lake trout for visiting anglers. Trappers take the furs of badger, bear, beaver, coyote, lynx, marten, mink, muskrat, otter, wolf and wolverine.

Now the northern solitude around Lake Athabasca has given way to atomic-age production of pitchblende, source of uranium and further progress for the province.

Benjamin Mott Given Probation, Court Costs

In Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday, Benjamin Mott, 20, of 2538 W. Twelve Mile Rd., Birmingham, was placed on two-year probation and assessed $150 court costs by Judge George B. Hartwick.

He admitted Oct. 3 taking $100 and a car Sept. 17 from gas station owner he was employed by.

1-14 Year Sentence for Passing Bad Check

Sentenced to 1 to 14 years in the Detroit House of Correction yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick was Joyce Turner, 23, of 3366 Sashabaw Rd., Clarkston.

She admitted Oct. 3 passing a bogus $304 check last June 18 in Pontiac.

Polio Kills Mom-to-Be

EAST MEADOW, N.Y. (U)—Mrs. Alden Ames, a 16-year-old expectant mother, died of polio yesterday after being stricken Friday. Doctors at Meadowbrook Hospital were unable to save the life of her unborn child.

Too Much Telephoning

TAIPEI, Formosa (U)—The Taipei Telephone Co. appealed to the public today to avoid nonessential calls, particularly in business hours. It said the average number of calls through each phone per day is 24, highest in the world.

Stretch Like a Cat, Weight Expert Advises

By PHYLIS RATTLE

NEW YORK (INS)—"Say, would you like to wish on a star?" inquired the pretty lady. "Or would you rather," she frowned, "be a pig?"

Well, I said, I'd like to wish on a star. I'd find that preferential to being a pig, anyway. She was delighted. "Then come with me." And so saying, she opened the gilded doors to the latest innovation in the oldest autumnal avocation of the century—a "reduce shop."

Standing inside the entrance, ready to receive star-wishers and their contributions, is Miss Mala Rubinstein, a niece of Helena Rubinstein, long-time exponent of contours and cosmetics. Eying my hips, Miss Rubinstein spoke:

"Everything is laid out in such a way as to put the woman psychologically in the mood for reducing," she said, waving at the yellow walls and carpeting, and the pink chair. "Bright, sunny, happy. We believe that before a lady reduces successfully, she must be provided with both a sense of humor and a sense of duty about the project."

THICK MIRROR

To make a fat lady laugh at herself at the outset, there is a distorted mirror which blows the image up double. You can just hardly help letting out a big Ha Ha when you see yourself looking like twice the pig you are, they say at Rubinstein's.

Then, along two walls, are showcases full of contrastingly fat and thin works of art. "Zis," says Miss R., "is our gross-and-slim theme, carried out through the ceramic and sculptural art from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries."

In one case, there's a bloated crystal blowfish, side by side with a slender miniature sea horse. There's a fat porcelain cat, and a slim wooden kitty. A fat, naturalistic hippopotamus beside a slim, streamlined hipp.

"Zey see how fat zey can be, and how slender, and comes ze sense of duty."

UPSTAIRS SALON

Imbued with the spirit of being a sea horse rather than a blow-fish, the custom is then led upstairs to the deep-carpeted reducing salons where she is checked over by Dr. Ettinger, proprietress of what is known comfortably as "the 8th floor face and body department."

Here, the psychologically happy client is given her first taste of the seriousness of this thing she has undertaken. "We teach her to stretch like a cat," says Dr. Ettinger, "and bend like a tree."

If she's up to it, she can also wiggle like a snake and churn like an undercurrent. Zis, it was pointed out, removes all ze lazy kinks from summer.

"For women who prefer passive reducing" (and who doesn't?), "there are some new machines." These are technical devices that involve infra-red lamps, hot paraffin wax smeared on problem portions of the customer, and the "streamliner," which is an electric treatment designed to shock the muscles into reducing.

Each and every one helps. But the biggest help of all, say the Rubinstein reducers, is a new appetite-curbing pill simply crammed full of vitamins called "Reduce-Air." It is rumored to have the quality of making hot fudge sundaes seem odious to hot fudge sundae devotees.

APPETITE REMAINS

Miraculously, however, it does not curb one's appetite for such tidbits as cottage cheese, unsalted tomatoes and celery sticks.

How could a woman help but be happy to get back her girlish figure this easy way—reclining amid yellow walls, being streamlined by electricity, munching on pills, stretching like a cat coated with paraffin?

Certainly made me feel good, anyway. I just laughed and laughed.

A modern factory can handle about 6,000 tons of sugar beets in a day.

Boy Has No Love Greater Than His Auto

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: For about a month we went out together quite steadily. Then all of a sudden he stopped coming over or even calling me up on the telephone."

"I heard he was saving to buy a car, but I don't think that's a very good reason, do you? Should I forget him, or is there still a possibility that he'll be around again?"

Answer: You obviously don't understand the mania of a man for a motor! Around about the age of 9 boys can name all the cars on the road. At 13 they're already talking about the first car they're going to have. And the nearer they get to license age the madder they become on the subject.

Nothing in the world is nearly as important. Doctored-up jalopy or sporty convertible—the possession of his motor vehicle makes him a king. He'll skip on lunch money, skip a haircut now and then, and go absolutely daft to put aside the where-withal for buying royalty.

It's the toughest kind of competition for a girl. But your boy friend apparently can't afford two loves in his life. He'll probably be around, though, once he gets his car.

"Dear Miss Woodward: My girl friend and I usually double-date with two boys who are very good friends. She and her boy friend have had an argument, and it's having a dreadful effect on my own romance."

"It seems that my boy friend can't go anywhere without his boy friend, and they're used to dating the two of us girls together. Now that one girl is out of the picture, I am, too."

"We had a date for the other night but he didn't show up and later I saw him with his boy friend. I think an awful lot of him, so he thinks anytime he chooses to apologize I'll come running back.

"How can I get him to come around all by himself?"

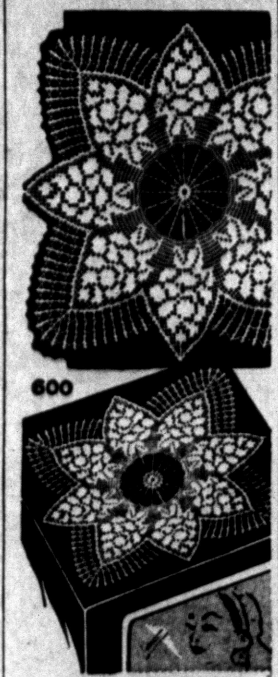

Answer: Another couple's romance (or lack of same) is rugged interference. Too bad your own is in the doldrums because the foursome has been disrupted. But it needn't be permanent. Not if you'll take both boys together for a while.

Let your boy friend bring his sidekick over when he comes to see you. Be equally nice to them both. Don't mention your girl friend. But tactfully mention that you could get some other girl as a date for the friend if he'd like, and name a few names.

You might launch another foursome. Meantime, you'll be having time to cement a stronger personal relation with your own boy friend, so that your friendship will stand on its own legs and be dependent on no other couple. (Copyright 1955)

She Objects to Smoking During Meal

Hostess Asks for Tactful Method of Curbing Guests

By EMILY POST

"How can one tactfully curb dinner table smoking? I am getting very tired of having the time and effort that goes into cooking a party dinner wasted because of the rudeness of some of our guests."

"Neither my husband nor I smoke, but do not object to smoking except at the dinner table. If I purposely leave ashtrays off the table, our friends go and get them without even asking if smoking is permitted."

"I have no objection to cigarettes at the end of the meal, but these people whose bad manners permit them to throw a smoke screen around other guests while dessert is being served are intolerable."

"Have we as host and hostess no jurisdiction over our dinner table other than removing certain friends' names from our guest list? We would rather not lose friends but if there is no other way we will cross them off our list and appreciate all the more those who allow us the courtesy of setting the precedent in our own home."

Answer: My sympathy is with you because I feel exactly as you do. The only thing you can do is say, "I hate to have to ask you, but please don't smoke until after dinner because it really makes me sick."

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it correct for a man to go to dinner in a resort hotel or country club dressed in a long-sleeved shirt buttoned at the top but with no tie and wearing a sport coat?"

Answer: It certainly is not!

"Dear Mrs. Post: In what order should two young women and two young men enter a row of seats at a concert or theater?"

Answer: One woman goes in first, then a man, then the second woman and, last, the second man.

Judges Turn Down League Injunction

MADISON HEIGHTS — Three Oakland County Circuit Judges yesterday refused to grant John Archambault, president of the Madison Heights League an injunction restraining the Madison Heights Charter Commission from writing a new charter.

The Court's ruling represents a decisive defeat for the league which opposed the first charter and which the voters turned down by a narrow margin of 82 votes in a June referendum.

Petitions asking for election of a new charter commission were filed by the league last June with the Oakland County Circuit Clerk, Lynn D. Allen, after two unsuccessful attempts had been made to serve them with acting Mayor Mrs. Virginia M. Solberg.

The Madison Heights Charter Commission signed a new charter last Saturday which is on its way to Gov. Williams for his rejection or approval.

Stresses New School Need

Monday Club Hears Linsday

Principal Says Bond Issue Necessary Next Fall at Romeo

ROMEO — "There is bound to be a bond issue next year," Elementary Schools principal, Bruce Linsday, told members of the Romeo Monday Club last night.

The administrator pointed out that 463 students are now enrolled in high school, with 640 expected in two years. He went on to explain that the freshman class in two years would be three times larger than the present senior class.

After bringing many other factors emphasizing the anticipated increase and enrollment in the upper grades to the attention of the club, Linsday stated "by the fall of '56, a building program must get under way."

This statement echoes the views expressed at a special Board of Education meeting last week. At that time T. C. Filippula was authorized to look over sites in the district for possible school construction.

BASIC ADVANTAGE

The grade school principal outlined several basic advantages to be gained by the construction of a new high school by the fall of '57. Among them were a hot lunch program for the high school, the discontinuance of the use of the Maples School for classrooms (operating now only by special permission of the State Fire Marshall) and the consolidation of guidance and counseling, music, homemaking and physical education for junior high students in one building.

In concluding, Linsday assured the group that the administration "hopes to present a schedule with little or no increase in millage to support the proposed building program."

Another guest at the Women's club meeting was Jean McKay of Almont, education chairman of the Community Hospital drive. She addressed the group concerning the need for the proposed $350,000 hospital to be constructed on M-53, between Romeo and Almont.

Mickey Tops, Kaine Close as Sluggers

NEW YORK (AP)—Finishing with a flourish, the New York Giants' Willie Mays captured National League slugging honors for the second straight season, compiling a .639 average after a mid-season slump that caused him to be benched for a few days.

The young center fielder had a .581 slugging mark and had hit only 17 homers when he was benched June 19. From then on he proceeded to find the range as he wound up with 51 home runs, most in the league, and also boosted his batting average 40 points.

Statistics compiled by The Associated Press revealed that Mays accumulated 382 total bases in 580 at bats. Slugging averages are computed by dividing a player's number of times at bat into his total bases.

The New York Yankees' Mickey Mantle, with 316 total bases in 517 trips, topped the American League with a .611 slugging percentage. The switch-hitting outfielder also led his league in homers with 37.

History repeated itself for Mays as he again had to beat out his rival center fielder, Duke Snider of Brooklyn. In 1954 Mays edged Snider by 20 points. This past season Snider's slugging average was .628 and he finished 31 points behind the Say-Hey Kid. The Duke of the Dodgers, whose home-run swatting was a big factor in Brooklyn's World Series success, amassed 338 total bases in 538 at bats.

Mays' collection of 185 hits included 18 doubles and 13 triples. Snider's extra-base output numbered 34 doubles, six three-baggers and 42 circuit-clouts among his 166 hits.

Mantle, third during the 1954 season, easily outdistanced the American League field. His nearest pursuer, Detroit's Al Kaine, compiled a .546 slugging mark and wound up 65 points behind Mantle. Included among Mantle's 158 hits were 25 doubles and 11 triples. Kaine, the batting leader, collected 321 total bases in 588 trips. The only player in both leagues to obtain 200 hits, Kaine's extra bases output included 24 doubles, eight triples and 27 homers.

Ted Williams of Boston far outdistanced Mantle, with a resounding .703 slugging average on a total of 225 bases in 320 official at bats. League headquarters ruled however, that he was ineligible for the slugging title because he had too few at bats.

Pontiac Motor Finishes 1st in Golf Match

Three 20-man teams from Fisher Body, General Motors Truck and Pontiac Motor met Sunday at the Davisburg Golf Club for their annual golf tournament and picnic.

When all scores were in, Pontiac Motor led the field with a 1616 stroke total to 2nd place Fisher Body's total of 1724 strokes. Pulling in 3rd was General Motors Truck with a 1735 total.

72 for the winners, and Ron Rothbarth's 75 was low for Fisher Body. General Motors Truck team member Hilton Stults paced his teammates with 76.

Pep Wins No. 199 Over Charlie Titone

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP)—Willie Pep, the Hartford, Conn., featherweight, is on the threshold of his 200th professional boxing victory.

Wily Willie racked up win No. 199 last night with a unanimous 10-round decision over Charlie Titone of Brooklyn at the Maple Arena.

Pep weighed 129½, Titone 128½. The former featherweight champ gave Titone a mouse over his right eye in the fourth round and had him bleeding from the nose in the fourth and fifth with fast left jabs. Pep lost seven and drew one.

At Midway Point Area Gridders Prepare for 2nd Half of Loop Seasons in Friday Contests

A chant of "two down and three to go" was echoing about the practice fields at Inter-Lakes League high schools Monday afternoon as the gridders prepared to plunge into the 2nd half of the 1955 slate on Friday.

In an afternoon contest, Watertown Shippers hope to better their 1-1 loop record when they travel to Farmington which as yet hasn't seen the light of a league victory after suffering two setbacks.

Skipper head coach Dave Freeman pasted a 37-0 defeat on the day "that we don't expect such an easy battle this week because Farmington has improved both offensively and defensively. It has a much better balanced club this year.

Southfield, which shares the I-L top slot with Van Dyke, will have its record tested as the Jays host Wallied Lake Vikings in another hasn't allowed a league opponent to cross its goal line this year. Jays worked hard yesterday on pass defense and correcting last week's errors, in preparation for the Viking invasion.

In the single night game, top-ranked Van Dyke Abes will seek win number three, against score-

Bud's Team Boot Sooner Opponents Deep in Hole

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Opponents of the undefeated, untied Oklahoma Sooners have a kick coming, against Texas last week. Four

This potent portion of the Sooners' offense came into its own against Texas last week. Four quick kicks set the Longhorns back so deep they were themselves out trying to come out of the hole.

"You try to move the ball," is the way Coach Bud Wilkinson laughingly explained the strategy of the quick kick, Oklahoma style, yesterday.

Wilkinson's football teams have always used the quick kick as a means of chasing foes back in their own ballfield. But this year's club, riding a string of 22 victories and third-ranked nationally, never demonstrated it so effectively as it did beating Texas, 20-0.

Fullback Billy Prier booted three of the four beauties, one into the end zone actually traveling some 62 yards and the others around 50. Halfback Clendon

Cross Country Team Aims for 36th Victory

Chiefs' Distance Men Match Strides Today With Flint Central

Pontiac High School's cross-country "juggernaut" today hopes to roll along to its 36th straight victory in dual engagements.

Every time the harriers win another, without loss, they hang up a new record for the school. The string of consecutive wins in dual competition is believed to be the longest in state prep circles for this sport.

Today's opponents are Flint Central's Indians. Meet is set for 4 p.m. at Beaudette Park.

Chiefs are favored to chalk up the new mark. Central's harriers were beaten by Royal Oak, which recently was a rather easy one for the speedy PHS team.

Coch Wally Schloerke said his team would include the "tie twins" Perry Williams and Bill Douglas. These lads have finished in 1st place ties in every meet so far. They'll probably do it again today. They will aim for a 10:50 mark for the two miles.

Others who have been high finishers include Roy Treas, Gene Cretal, Pete Cox, Don Evans and Alex Barge.

Pontiac is generally conceded four out of five of the top places. Central's only real threat is said to be Larry Tilley, who may give the leaders some tough competition.

Chiefs will be in action again Friday, against Flint Northern, at Beaudette Park. After that one comes the Valley meet at a neutral Flint course, Oct. 20.

Preparations Begun for A-B Cage Loops

City basketball leagues for the 1955-56 season in Classes A and B are now being organized by the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation. First meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m., in the employees' lunch room across from the Parks and Recreation Department's office in the new City Hall.

Managers, or representatives of men's basketball teams considering entry in city A and B leagues are requested to attend this meeting. Agenda will include team registration, practice facility arrangements, issuance of player contracts, and discussion of other matters concerning league operation.

Bowling Clinic

POINT FOR CONTROL—Champions in most sports do something different to distinguish them from the rest. Charlie Daw, former world match bowling king, for instance, used the index finger pointing system to reach fame. Until he suddenly hit on it he was just another bowler.

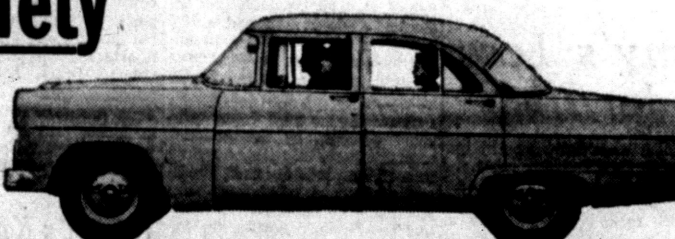

The method is simple, and it could be what you need. Concentrate on pointing the index finger at the target pin or pins at ball-release. With index action you regulate the amount of lift-and-turn on the ball, and you eliminate the common urge to overturn the wrist. The index finger "stays on the target." Also, the arm swings through all the way, which is very important. Your hook will be short, but finger-lifting action will give it spilling spin. If you give the index method a try, stick to medium speed for best results.
