Hoffa Admits Pact Talks With Coast Dock Union

In the 'Hot Seat' Once Again

AP Wirephoto

HOW ABOUT IT, HOFFA? — Newsmen hurl some pointed questions at Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa outside the old Senate Office Building today as he awaits his call as a witness before the Senate Rackets Committee to testify for the fourth time before the group.

Expect Showers, Warm Weather for Tomorrow

Pontiac area residents can expect tonight and tomorrow to be pleasant with little change in temperature but tomorrow evening may see showers or thundershowers, the weatherman said.

Tonight's low is expected to be near 64 degrees. Wednesday's high again will be in the upper 80s.

Warm with scattered thundershowers is Thursday's prediction.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 63 degrees. The mercury rose to 87 at 2 p.m.

He Laughed, She Shot Him

Rochester Lumber Man in Fair Condition; Wife Suffers From Shock

A wealthy Rochester lumber dealer who reportedly laughed at his wife when she pointed a pistol at him was in fair condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with bullet wounds of the arm and abdomen.

Charles Dillman, 38, of 6000 N. Rochester Rd., was shot last night through the upper part of his arm.

Doctors said the bullet evidently ricocheted off his bone and traveled downward through his intestinal and kidney region, lodging near the spleen.

In a statement to George F. Taylor, chief assistant Oakland County prosecutor, late this morning, Dillman said he would "positively refuse to prosecute."

Dillman, who was found by the family doctor lying in a pool of blood on the plush carpet of an upstairs bedroom, is part owner of Dillman and Upton, Inc., a Rochester lumber company.

In a brief statement to Deputy George R. Enners, the distraught wife said her husband had beat her.

"I shot once thinking he'd jump. Then I shot twice more. He only laughed at me. Then I shot him in the arm," she was quoted as saying.

"I should have got him right in the middle but I love him too much," she said.

The shooting took place in the upstairs bathroom of their fashionable $100,000 tri-level home. The occasion was the seventh anniversary of their first date together, deputies said. The couple has been married 6½ years.

She told deputies that she had given him a new white Impala convertible as an anniversary present. "I was going to give him a Corvette but he said he didn't want one," she wept.

The couple had returned home at about 9:30 p.m.

When she said she wanted to go out for dinner he beat her, she told deputies.

A housekeeper, Bessie Ramsey, whose bedroom was directly below the Dillmans', said "I heard him beat her and then heard three shots."

She said Mrs. Dillman ran downstairs and screamed, "I shot Chuck. Come and help me."

She told Taylor that as she stood over her wounded husband he looked up and said, "Go on and finish it off."

"I couldn't do it. I love him too much," the distraught wife said.

The wife said she got the .22 caliber automatic pistol from a suitcase in her closet. It was already loaded. Enners said the woman had bruises around her mouth and both eyes.

Dillman staggered from the bathroom to the bedroom where he collapsed next to his bed.

In a statement to police her personal physician, Dr. Edgar J. Geist Jr. of Rochester, said he had been treating her for

USW Makes Last-Ditch Bid to Avert Strike

Offers to Write Clause Okaying Technological Progress in Plants

From Our News Wires

NEW YORK — David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, today made a new bid to break the contract deadlock only 12 hours before 500,000 steel workers were scheduled to go on strike.

McDonald said the union would agree to writing into the contract a statement that it was not opposed to technological progress in the plants. His offer was an effort to appease a major industry demand.

The industry had demanded contract language revision in connection with automation and other techological advances in line with an overall request for changes in the contract designed to eliminate "waste and inefficiency."

McDonald's dramatic bid to end the deadlock came during a one-hour morning negotiating session. The union chief said the negotiators have recessed until 2:30 p.m. EDT today to give company officials a chance to study the union's proposal.

In a letter to the industry, McDonald said even "at this late hour we can make a handshake economic deal and reverse shutdown preparations "now under way in the steel industry.

DENIES CHARGE

McDonald denied that there was union featherbedding in the steel plants or that the union was fighting automation. He said these issues "should not roadblock an economic settlement by reasonable men at this juncture."

He said the union was ready to write into each contract a statement reading: "The provisions of this section (dealing with working rules) are not intended to prevent the company from continuing to make progress."

The union chief again called for the formation of a top level labor-management committee to study the working conditions in the steel plants and to make recommendations if needed. The industry previously rejected this idea.

McDonald also revealed the union had signed a contract extension with Granite City Steel Co., East St. Louis, Ill., one of the nation's smaller steel producers.

Deny Kierdorf's Appeal, Issue Pickup Order Today

His appeal request denied, a pickup order was issued at noon today for Herman Kierdorf, as law official prepared to ship the former aide to Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa off to Jackson Prison.

However, Kierdorf's attorney, Eric E. Zisman, said he would act immediately to ask for a further stay of a 1-to 5-year term while he readied papers requesting the State Supreme Court to rehear the case.

Actually, the high court never did hear the facts of the case as it only turned down Zisman's application for leave to appeal.

Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said State Police Detective Charles M. Leaf had left Pontiac at noon today for Madison Heights with an order to bring Kierdorf to the County Jail.

At his home at 29068 Spoon Ave., Mrs. Kierdorf said her husband left home at 8 a.m. to "take care of some business." She said she didn't know where he had gone or when he would return.

The cigar-chewing, 68-year-old Kierdorf had police all over Michigan and elsewhere looking for him last August when he disappeared for 13 days after visiting his critically burned nephew Frank, a Flint Teamster agent, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

The same day, Madison Heights police picked up a bag of Herman's containing a homemade pistol silencer. A neighbor girl said Herman had given her the bag to take care of.

Still insisting that the silencer was actually a muffler for a lawn mower, Herman was convicted by an Oakland Cnrcuit Court jury last Oct. 22. Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, saying Kierdorf was the oldest person he had ever sentenced to prison, handed down the sentence Nov. 10.

Zisman then indicated an appeal would be made to the Supreme Court. It wasn't filed, however, until May. Herman,

Blasts Ouster of ILWU by CIO as Phony

Defends Harry Bridges but Rejects Red Tag Slip of Tongue

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Teamster James R. Hoffa acknowledged defiantly today he is dickering for a pact with the West Coast longshoremen's union, expelled by the old CIO in 1950 for allegedly following the Communist line.

Hoffa denounced the ouster of the longshoremen as a phony act and defended Harry Bridges and Louis Goldblatt, the longshoremen's president and secretary-treasurer.

But he flung a shouted warning at Senate Rackets Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy:

Hoffa told Kennedy that "you'll get good and sued" if Kennedy makes any speeches linking Hoffa's name with communism.

Kennedy firmly retorted "I'm certainly going to make speeches and point out the facts" of Hoffa's acknowledged negotiations for an agreement of some sort between the teamsters and the longshoremen.

The nature of the alleged pact remains in dispute. Hoffa called it an agreement on jurisdictional and organizational problems growing out of automation and mechanization of industry. Bartley C. Crum, a New York lawyer, had testified yesterday it was described to him as a move toward forming a "single, giant transport union."

The table thumping, shouting row exploded after Hoffa had denied vigorously before the Rackets Committee that he joined in a scheme to seize secret control of a court-appointed board of monitors assigned to help combat corruption in the Teamsters Union.

ASKS EXAM

The committee has asked the Justice Department and Federal Court here to examine charges made yesterday by Crum that Hoffa tried to obstruct justice by buying control of the montiors.

Hoffa let fly an enraged blast at Kennedy in the midst of a go-round as to whether Bridges and Goldblatt are or have been Communists.

Kennedy insisted he had made a slip of the tongue when he told the committee and Hoffa:

Nixon's Trip to Soviet Union All Tangled Up in Red Tape

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon's proposed visit to the Soviet Union is snarled in Soviet red tape—only a week before he is due to take off for Moscow.

After two months of backstage negotiations, Soviet and American authorities have yet to agree on exactly what cities Nixon will visit, how long he will stay and enjoy. But top officials are confihow much freedom his party will dent these problems will be settled in time for Nixon to leave by jet airliner July 22 as scheduled.

Prospects are he will visit Moscow, talk with Premier Nikita Khruschev, and then tour perhaps seven other Soviet cities in an unprecedented good will visit lasting about two weeks.

Most authorities blame the present uncertainty on Soviet bureaucratic delay rather than on any Kremlin effort to surround the vice president's stay with impossible conditions.

Another important factor, they said, may be Moscow's desire to make sure that Nixon, as well as the nearly 100 persons accompanying him, can be accommodated in first class style in some of the remote areas they hope to visit.

Despite this, officials are plainly growing impatient at the Soviet delay in answering some important questions Nixon has raised in connection with his trip.

These include:

1. Will Nixon be allowed to tour some of the closed defense areas he wants to visit instead of the usual tourist attractions?

2. Will the 70 newsmen accompanying him be allowed to report his activities without Soviet censorship, as Nixon insists?

3. Will Nixon and his party be allowed to use his own American jet planes during their travels inside the U.S.S.R. as Nixon has proposed?

Authorities are hoping the Soviets will give quick and satisfactory answers. The return to Moscow of Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov after a warm official welcome during his American trip may hasten favorable Kremlin replies.

The Soviets have agreed to allow Nixon to tour some of the areas he has in mind. But they appear to be balking at allowing first-hand inspection of defense areas and installations.

Employment Surges to Record High

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment surged to a record high of 67,342,000 in June. A gain of 1,326,000 was built on strong factory hiring and seasonal rises in farming and construction.

The Labor Department reports that unemployment rose simultaneously by 593,000 as two million students and new graduates flooded the job market.

The number out of work totaled 3,982,000 for the month.

As a result unemployment remained at 4.9 per cent of the civilian labor force, after allowing for seasonal fluctuations.

But the steep climb in employment—a gain of 4,600,000 since February — has seldom been matched in history. It attested to the force of the business recovery, department officials said.

Factory workers' average weekly earnings also reached a record at $90.54. The workweek lengthened to 40 hours 36 minutes on the average, a longer work week than in any June since 1955.

The report issued today by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell stressed the June gain in factory jobs. The increase was 244,000, about double the usual rise for the month. It pushed factory employment to 16,400,000 only about 400,000 below the prerecession level in mid-1957.

The heaviest rehiring was in the metals and machinery industries —those which would be hit first if the steel strike threatened for midnight tonight causes a prolonged shutdown.

Auto employment held steady for June, and job improvements were reported in the stone, glass and clay industries.

Dr. Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor, noted that the increase in joblessness in June was concentrated among young people of 14 to 24 years —mainly those released from schools and colleges.

★ ★ ★

Unemployment in that age group rose by 800,000, meaning that unemployment among adults—especially adult male breadwinners employed in factories—declined during the month.

Government sources had anticiated a rise in unemployment because of the influx of job-hunting students.

Further Delay for Courthouse

Royal Oak Toolmaker Files Appeal of Bid Award Decision

Already accustomed to waiting for a new courthouse, Oakland County officials today were prepared for another long delay as official notice was given of an appeal of a lawsuit tying up construction of the $3,000,000 building.

Representing a Royal Oak toolmaker who filed the suit, Detroit attorney Dennis Boyle filed a claim of appeal in the County Clerk's Office of a June 26 Oakland County Circuit Court decision.

With receipt of the county's copy, officials were braced for a long waiting period of doing nothing on the building, as contracts haven't and probably won't be signed until the State Supreme Court decides the appeal.

And according to Norman R. Barnard, county corporation counsel, this may not take place until October or even January.

"There isn't much we can do in the meantime," Barnard said.

He said he hoped to work with the high court to get a decision as early as possible because of the need of the new courthouse. Officials have been snarled by legal action since 1956.

CONTRACT DELAY

The latest delay resulted from a lawsuit by Frank P. Scruggs Jr., 35, protesting the Oakland County Board of Supervisors' awarding of the general construction contract to a Pontiac firm instead of to the low bidder.

Oakland Circuit judges, sitting jointly, said giving the contract to J. A. Fredman, Inc. was done "lawfully, ethically, and with reasonableness."

Scruggs, whose brother works for the low bidder, A. Z. Shmina & Sons of Detroit, claimed in his suit that taxpayers will have to pay increased taxes because the Fredman contract would be $18,844 higher than Shmina's. Barnard said the difference of the two bids, considering alternates, comes to $2,305.

Scruggs' suit came on the heels of a State Supreme Court ruling of February upholding the county's proposed financing of the new courthouse. It is slated to be built on Telegraph road in the County Service Center northwest of downtown Pontiac.

Stay Alive Longer!

Why Do You Rush to Your Own Funeral?

By LELORD KORDEL

Installment Two

A recent poll by a business magazine revealed that many of the top executives included in the study feared their own crackup more than they did a possible recession. Then, why not do something about these fears before it's too late? Heart attacks kill 800,000 yearly; they have left eight million Americans crippled. Will you be one of them? You needn't be.

★ ★ ★

Hundreds of big corporations — Bethlehem Steel, Campbell Soup, General Motors, General Electric — are giving their executives thorough physical checkups once a year. The companies make regular arrangements with such institutions as the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, and the Benjamin Franklin Clinic in Philadelphia.

The Benjamin Franklin Clinic found that 8 out of 10 executives seen needed medical care to keep them from falling victim to degenerative disease and an early place in the obituary statistics.

How can you survive your success? By starting physical checkups in your 30s or 40s to discover at an early stage those degenerative changes in the body which give no warning. Only thorough examinations can detect them.

The Medical Society of the State of New York tells us that all the organs in the body are so closely linked that a minor problem in one is likely to have serious, even life-shortening, effects on the body as a whole.

After your annual checkup — and this is the most important part of it — you should receive a summary of what was found, an explanation of what this can mean to your body as a whole, and advice on what you can do about it.

NAGGER OR HELPMATE?

Much that can be done depends on you. Perhaps even more depends upon your wife.

All too often, the tense husband returns after a day of nervous strain to be greeted by a nagging wife. The husband is unable to relax. This subjects him to a tension that eventually breaks him down in health and spirit. Henpecking is a great contributor to ulcers and high blood pressure.

Blast Gromyko for Stall Tactics

West Nixes Demand to Include Germans in Secret Talks

GENEVA (AP) — The Western ministers accused Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today of obstructionist tactics with his demand that German representatives be included in secret Big Four talks. They said he was slowing down negotiations for a Berlin agreement.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and the foreign ministers of Britain, France and West Germany met for an hour and 40 minutes this morning at Herter's headquarters on the "tactics for the remainder of the conference," a U.S. spokesman announced.

Their chief immediate problem is what to do about Gromyko's unexpected bid to win new Western recognition for Communist East Germany.

Asst. Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding said "no initiative has yet been taken by the West on that subject"—that none of the Western ministers has made an effort to get Gromyko to drop his requirement.

German representatives did not take part in any of the informal, secret sessions in the first six weeks of the conference. They sat in the formal meetings as advisers.

Gromyko declared it was unjust to exclude the Germans, and said this error of the opening six weeks should be corrected.

U.S. officials said the problem might be solved by dropping secret talks as even loosely organized gatherings. Instead there would be a series of dinners, luncheons or teas that would bring the four foreign ministers together without German advisers present.

Whether that would be agreeable to Gromyko was not certain. One possible stumbling block was that such a system would depend on each minister in turn issuing an invitation to the others and Gromyko could well invite not only the Western Big Three but also the Germans when his turn came.

As a result of the procedural dispute, a secret session Herter proposed for today was not scheduled. There is no indication when the ministers will get down to bargaining in private. Another plenary session was called for Wednesday.

USW Chief Makes Bid to Avert Strike

at midnight can be averted, the White House said today.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty expressed this view as steel industry and union officials continued talks with virtually no indication that a strike will be avoided.

Hagerty was asked at a news conference whether there was anything new on the steel situation from the government standpoint. He replied that the statement he issued on the matter yesterday "is just as applicable today."

In that statement, the White House said there still was time and opportunity for a settlement to be worked out in the wage dispute in advance of the strike deadline set by the union.

The statement said further that Eisenohwer hoped both sides would continue to work for a settlement in the interest of the union, the steel companies and the public.

As a result, the two sides got together later yesterday for resumption of bargaining talks which had collapsed on Sunday.

45 Area Youngsters Aid Teachers' Reading Study

By MAX E. SIMON

Forty-five children from the Pontiac area are giving up a month of their summer vacation to act as human guinea pigs for teachers at Michigan State University Oakland.

And, according to Dr. Harry T. Hahn, director of instruction for the Oakland County Board of Education, the experiments are profiting both teachers and pupils.

The teachers are enrolled in a Michigan State University graduate teaching course offered at the MSUO Continuing Education Center. They have spent two weeks diagnosing reading problems of students and are currently learning about remedial reading measures.

Most of the teachers taking the course are employed in Oakland County.

The youngsters were recommended to MSUO by local school officials as students with reading problems. They range from third graders to high school seniors.

The course offers a unique opportunity for the teachers to put textbook theories into use before trying them out in the classroom.

"It's the best way for teachers to learn their shortcomings," said Hahn, who is the course instructor. "These teachers are able to find out what books, materials and techniques will help poor readers."

LEARN LESSON

Each teacher faces a practical problem in finding out where the learner is and what he knows. "You can't start high and you can't start low," Hahn said.

GIVEN SPELLING TESTS

All of the students have been given spelling quizzes, written assignments and word association tests in an effort to find the root of their problems.

"By asking the kids to write poems and stories, the teachers get an idea of what words give the students trouble, which words they misspell and the size of their vocabularies," Hahn said.

Spelling quizzes are often the tipoff to a poor reader's problem, Hahn stated. "A student who can't spell a word often doesn't recognize it when it appears in print."

Despite the summer heat, he said, the youngsters are enjoying their part in the university course.

"And many of them aren't poor readers as was first believed," Hahn said.

"Several of the teachers upon finding out the youngsters' hobbies have served up books on their interests — sports, biographies, science, animals.

"Given a reason to read, these children will want to read. They'll use their skills.

"The question often is not whether a student can read — but DOES he read," Hahn said.

"Insipid materials can't inspire any youngster," he asserted.

Other projects which sparked interest among the students have been the tape-recording of a play they wrote themselves and the publication of a newspaper.

"Tape-recordings give the children a chance to hear what they read," he pointed out, "and arouses their interest.

"Reading, after all, is really talk written down." Creative writing encourages students to build their vocabulary, but they need a reason to write. "Therefore, the paper," Hahn said.

There's nothing unusual about students with reading problems, he said. "English, if you think about it, is among the more complex languages," he pointed out.

"But the problems can be overcome."

Because a child's home life is an important factor in whether he wants to read, parents of the children in the MSUO course are kept aware of their youngsters' progress and brought in for frequent conferences with teachers.

"Children whose parents read a lot are liable to do the same," Hahn said, "and if the parents don't have the reading habit the children probably won't."

Although many factors may cause a student to do poorly, the one who can't read has only a "very slim chance" of success in school, according to Hahn.

"A poor reader will do poorly," he said.

"But educators are becoming aware of the need for remedial reading measures, and more and more teachers are returning to school to learn how they can help their students lick the problem."

HOW WORDS SOUND — This 15-year-old youth listens intently to an explanation of word sounds by William Doggett, principal of the Twin Beach school in Walled Lake. Many students' reading problems are caused by failing to perceive the sound of words, parts of words, or vowels. Doggett is one of the teacher receiving training at MSUO in diagnosing and correcting reading problems. Recordings are played to teach various sounds to the children.

TAKES EYE TEST — A nine-year-old Clawson pupil peers through an instrument known as a telebinocular and identifies the figures and objects he sees to Dr. Harry T. Hahn, director of instruction for the Oakland County Board of Education. The youth is one of 45 area youngsters in a special course for teachers at Michigan State University Oakland. Watching is another area pupil. The machine helps determine whether a student's reading problem is caused by visual difficulty.

Court Ruling May Boost 12-Town Drain Project

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Oakland County officials believe they have scored a victory in yesterday's State Supreme Court decision on the multi-million dollar, long-awated Twelve-Town storm sewer project to celebrate storm sewer project, but they weren't ready to celebrate yet.

On three of four main issues, the high court affirmed dismissal of a suit blocking the project, but on a fourth an objection to financing arrangements was allowed.

"Generally speaking, at this time it appears favorable for the county," said Norman R. Barnard, county corporation counsel.

He said the county was awaiting a copy of the court's 19-page opinion so that a thorough study and review could be made "before we can decide what steps the county and Drain Commission can take."

Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry appeared pleased with what he had learned so far about the decision. After he secures his copy of the opinion, he said, he plans to meet with the county's bond attorney, Claude H. Stevens, to chart next steps.

STALLED SINCE 1956

The $44,092,000 drain—which actually will serve 14 southern Oakland communities and not the original 12—has been stopped up since 1956 when Troy, Southfield and Royal Oak Township filed suits protesting their shares and the method under which the county drainage board set up the project.

★ ★ ★

It calls for construction of drains to stop seasonal flooded basements in an area bounded roughly by Eight Mile road on the south, Greenfield road on the west, John R road on the east, and 15 Mile (Maple) road on the north.

The huge, inter-community sewer project has been in the planning stage since 1952. Legal entanglements have continued to pop up in its way since.

In an unanimous opinion written by Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh, the court affirmed in part and reversed in part Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland's March 1958 decision ruling in favor of the constitutionality of the project.

Legislation initiated especially for it "was born of necessity and imperative for the protection of health," Judge Holland said in dissolving an injunction which had held up the project.

★ ★ ★

The two cities and Royal Oak Township then appealed to the Supreme Court.

It was not immediately clear whether the decision of the court yesterday would affect marketability of bonds and, if it did, how long would be required to overcome financing obstacles.

The ruling did make it clear, however, that, as Judge Holland had said, townships are bound to the 15-mill constitutional tax limitation in paying for their shares.

"They are not municipal corporations within the meaning, purpose, spirit or intent of the 15-mill amendment," the opinion read.

Municipal corporations or cities are not restricted to the limitation

The one major point on which the high court disagreed with Judge Holland centers around the "interception" clause of the legislation setting up the project. Justices said this provision was unconstitutional.

The clause provides that in multi-government drain projects a county, in the event a township defaulted in paying its share of drain assessments, could step in and make up the township share. Then the county could intercept sales tax rebate money due the township to the extent necessary to recover what the county paid in township costs on the project.

Royal Oak Township had described this 1956 statute as an "indirect attempt to flout the constitutional debt limitation of unchartered townships."

Holland's ruling on this point was appealed by Royal Oak Township.

In its share of the joint appeal, Troy raised the questioon whether the city's share of expense could be spread among all taxpayers or only among property owners directly benefiting from the proposed sewer.

Kavanagh said all Troy residents could be obliged to pay.

Besides Troy, Southfield, and Royal Oak Township, the sewer will benefit all of Royal Oak city, Clawson, Huntington Woods, Pleasant Ridge, Oak Park, Berkley, Ferndale, and part of Birmingham, Madison Heights, Hazel Park and Beverly Hills (formerly Westwood village).

The state had intervened in the dragged-out case claiming a serious health hazard existed in southern Oakland County during heavy rain spells.

The high court also found that the Oakland County Board of Supervisors acted within its rights in agreeing to pay out of county funds project expenses that normally would be chargeable to two public facilities.

These are the Detroit Zoological Gardens and Rackham Golf Course both Detroit-owned but lying just across the county line in Oakland County.

Hoffa Admits Talks With Longshoremen

blatt, but there may be a question about Hoffa.'"

The committee ordered the record changed to read "There is no question about Goldblatt but there may be a question about Bridges" who has denied he is a Communist.

"Don't you say that!" Hoffa shouted when Kennedy made the first statement. "Don't use this committee for a sounding board. Nobody's going to say that about Hoffa . . .

MEANS 'TAG'

Kennedy repeated that he had made a slip of the tongue, but questioned why Hoffa would object to being put "in their class" if Hoffa is willing to negotiate a pact with them.

"I meant 'in the same class with their tag,'" Hoffa replied. He said he meant by this that both had been "tagged" with allegations by the CIO, but that the Justice Department never had proved the tags were justified.

Denying he was behind the reported move to seize control of the monitors, Hoffa said earlier that first overtures for such a scheme were made by Crum who testified efforts were made to pack the board with friends of the union.

But he developed faulty memory trouble when the Senate Rackets Committee demanded to know if he approved a deal in which Schmidt would resign in exchange for $105,000 in back legal fees so Crum could replace him.

In a series of clashes with committee members, the scrappy union leader told Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass):

"You are not going to get me to remember what I don't."

The charge that Hoffa approved a deal was made by Crum, who told the committee yesterday that he was approached by President Harry Bridges and Secretary-Treasurer Louis Goldblatt of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU).

But Hoffa swore that Crum himself masterminded the effort to have Schmidt paid the $105,000, resign and get himself named to the monitors. He said that he personally stayed aloof from the maneuvering.

4TH AND FINAL

The teamster boss, appearing for the fourth and perhaps final time in the committee's prolonged investigation of his union, acknowledged that his testimony was based on "assumption."

When the committee began firing questions, he said he could not recall:

The Day in Birmingham

Pastor, Girl, Hurt on Tour, Arriving Home Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — A Birmingham minister and a 17-year-old member of his congregation, who were injured slightly in an automobile accident near Clayton, N. M., were expected to arrive back in Birmingham late this evening at the close of a 4,500-mile study tour.

The Rev. Robert W. Gibson Jr., minister to youth of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, and Lois Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Johnson of 4918 Broomfield Lane, Bloomfield Township, were with 3 adults and 16 young persons touring Presbyterian Church Institutions in the Southwest when the accident occurred.

The condition of both is "fine," according to the Rev. Robert Graham, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, who talked to Rev. Mr. Gibson via telephone last evening.

The Rev. Mr. Graham was not certain of the extent of either's injuries, but reported that both were minor in nature.

★ ★ ★

Both were hospitalized in Clayton Friday night and Saturday, and were released Sunday, Mr. Graham said.

"Rev. Gibson has been cleared of all responsibility in the accident," he added.

A thief who broke into the Springdale Park Golf Course professional shop early this morning should be well-supplied to play a lot of golf this summer.

Missing when Birmingham Police investigated the breaking and entering at 5:48 a.m. were 2 dozen golf balls valued at $139.

The thief pried a padlock from the door in order to gain entry, according to Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist of the Birmingham Department.

A total of 60 children from the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area are enjoying facilities at the Roeper Summer Day Camp, located at the City and Country School of Bloomfield Hills, 2190 N. Woodward Ave.

The camp's Little Zoo, housing a horse, pig and a number of goats and baby rabbits, is a feature attraction for the youngsters. The 3-to-11-year-old children also are splashing about in a new swimming pool.

meanwhile, remained free on a $15,000 bond.

Jack D. Thompson, another Flint Teamsters business agent, was sentenced to 1½ to 10 years in Jackson Prison for his part in the burning of a suburban Flint dry cleaning establishment. Police say he aided Frank Kierdorf.

Learning of the denial by the high court today, Taylor and Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem consulted immediately with Judge Adams. It was decided to pick up Kierdorf while Ziem's Chief Investigator, Anthony F. Stiel, traveled to Lansing to pick up a copy of the high court's denial.

As is the practice, the court did not give reasons for the denial.

Des Moines Epidemic of Polio Decreasing

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Health officials said today the polio epidemic here may be tapering off, but feared the disease would increase in other parts of the state.

The epidemic here is the first in the nation in 1959. Two new cases were reported yesterday, bringing the total to 76 in Polk County.

The disease has been reported in 16 other counties and Dr. Ralph Heeran, chief of the Iowa Health Department's communicable disease section, urged all Iowans to get caught up on polio shots.

Lots of Luck, Sheriff

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—Alfred Guy, 21, escaped from jail Friday on the bicycle of the sheriff's daughter. Monday, Sheriff Harold Knapp got a letter from Guy wishing him "the best of luck" and saying the bike had been left in a parking lot. They found it there all right. They're still looking for Guy, who was serving a 180-day sentence for driving an unregistered vehicle.

Why Rush to Your Funeral?

want us to live as well as all our friends do."

That was Joan Winter's excuse. "Charlie wants me to be well dressed. And he loves a nice home as much as I do."

But Charlie didn't have time to enjoy his wife or his home. To keep up with her increasing demands, he worked far into the night. He ignored his twinges of indigestion and laughed off the shortness of breath.

After his sudden death Joan said: "I wish I still had the choice. It wouldn't be hard to decide which I'd rather live on — my husband's income or his life insurance."

Charlie, like all husbands, needed time to be lazy. He needed the peace of mind that comes from being able to meet bills on time without lying awake at night figuring out how to do it. He needed a wife to stand between him and too much pressure, a home filled with love and harmony.

Helpmate, is a word that has gone out of fashion. Too bad, isn't it? Because that is precisely what a wife should be. A combination of mother, friend, companion, lover—and dietitian.

WHAT'S YOUR WIFE'S N. Q.?

Good nutritional habits can improve your health from poor to good, from good to optimum. Strengthen your body's resistance to disease and you increase its capacity for repair.

A wise wife would not feed her overworked husband an indigestible, high-fat diet. She'd know that the fat, by turning into excess cholesterol, could clog his blood vessels and choke up his coronary arteries.

The food we eat sustains our very life. But how many wives and mothers know the foods that are good or bad for their family?

Test your wife on her N.Q.—nutrition quotient. Most women know the latest styles, but they lack the knowledge they need to feed a husband properly for his ordeal in the workaday world.

Remember Satchel Paige? He was still a winning major-league pitcher when he was almost 50. Here, in his own homespun words, is what he has to say about food and about how he achieved a vigorous middle age. On the one:

"Avoid fried meats, which angry up the blood." As to the other: "If your stomach disputes you, lie down and pacify it with cool thoughts."

That's good advice at any age.

Knowledge is our weapon in the fight against disease. Facts—and the courage and determination to use them. You can help yourself to a healthy body, or you can face death by default. Success in living, as in any job, depends upon you.

You can achieve what Dr. Alfred Adler, the famed Austrian psychiatrist, called "the human being's power to turn a minus into a plus."

Eddie Cantor learned how to do this. In the stock crash of 1929 he lost $2,500,000. He laughed his worries away and started over again. Now, after a heart attack, he still refuses to be defeated. He'll have no truck with tensions. He takes long walks every day, continues to work, cat naps when he needs rest, and daydreams to stimulate his creativity.

WHY KILL YOURSELF?

Dr. Robert Collier Page tells us that the average man of 65 is actually older than his chronological age would suggest. A man should begin to taper off earlier in life to avoid the stresses of tension, the forerunners of heart disease.

As you grow older, live within your physical budget: have regular examinations to guard against illness, avoid nutritional deficiencies—and enjoy a healthy, happy old age.

Now an octogenarian, former President Herbert Hoover takes excellent care of his health. After suffering a gall bladder attack at 53, he cut fats and starches out of his diet, and is trimmer now than he was in his early 50s.

He has a complete physical checkup every six months, and does all he can to keep himself fit. Each day he tops the benefits of a good night's sleep with an early morning walk. He takes frequent vacations and refuses to let worry or frustration wear him down.

If you weigh 50 pounds too much by the time you are 50 your life expectancy is reduced by 50 per cent. Overweight of 10 per cent or more puts a strain on the whole system. Improperly fed, overweight bodies invite invasion by chronic disease.

Why should you kill yourself?

Science tells us how to take positive steps to safeguard health, to prolong life. Will you listen?

Tomorrow: Are you asking for trouble? What you eat may determine your success—or lack of it!

Tax Stalemate Brings Lawmakers Back to Work

LANSING (UPI) — Lawmakers were to kick off their seventh month in session tonight as they returned from a 128-hour weekend to work on the several propositions offered to end the tax stalemate.

The legislators left for home at noon Thursday and, when the Senate and House gavels bang at 8 tonight, will begin business on tax plans centering on the use (sales) tax urged by Republicans and the income tax advocated by Democrats.

Only six House members were excused from tonight's session but the first session of almost any week finds several absent without leave.

No quick solution to problems was expected.

A few lawmakers had plans ready to tack on a use tax levy which has been riding the House calendar for several weeks. Others offered solutions headed for an income tax.

One income tax proposal, backed by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), head of the House Taxation Committee, involved a flat rate 2 per cent levy and changes in other taxes.

The 11-bill package had qualified backing of Gov. G. Mennen Williams which meant several Democratic votes.

But the question on this plan, as on any, is how many of the opposite party members will go along with any program sponsored by the other party.

Although Conlin is a Republican, his proposal runs against the primary GOP objection to any income tax, personal or corporate.

Reps. Farrell Roberts (R-Pontiac) and William Romano (D-Warren) teamed up to propose changes in the use tax so that food purchases would be exempt from the levy.

However, to make up for the loss in revenues of about 60 million dollars in this area, Roberts and Romano would extend taxes to various other areas.

Lawmakers have taken two long term weekends in succession and although many are beginning to feel an economic pinch and would like to be home, many also are objecting to staying away from Lansing.

Some Upper Peninsula legislators indicated they may not be attending as many sessions as they have in the past.

New Iraqi Cabinet Has No Known Reds

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Premier Abdel Karim Kassem today swore in an enlarged cabinet that shuts out known Communists. Iraq began a week-long celebration of her first anniversary as a republic.

★ ★ ★

The reorganization appeared to be a slap at the powerful Iraqi Communist party, which had called for formation of a national front with open Red participation.

★ ★ ★

Kassem took aboard one known fellow traveler—Dr. Nzina Duleimi, president of the Red-dominated League for Defense of Women's Rights. But her appointment as minister of municipal affairs looked like the sugar coating on a bitter pill for the Communists. They had wanted to be in the cabinet as open representatives of the Communist party.

Dr. Duleimi is the first woman to be named to the cabinet of an Arab country.

U. S. Agrees to Limit Bases in Philippines

MANILA (AP) — The United States has agreed to limit its military holdings in the Philippines to four major bases, informed sources said today.

★ ★ ★

Agreement was reported reached at a two-hour conference Monday between U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen and Foreign Secretary Felixberto Serrano. Their talk marked the resumption of negotiations for revision of the U.S.-Philippine bases agreement.

★ ★ ★

The four bases to be retained are Clark Air Force Base outside Manila, naval bases at Subic Bay and Sangley Point and a recreation center. All are on Luzon Island.

Alaska's coastline of 33,904 miles is longer than all other U.S. coasts combined.

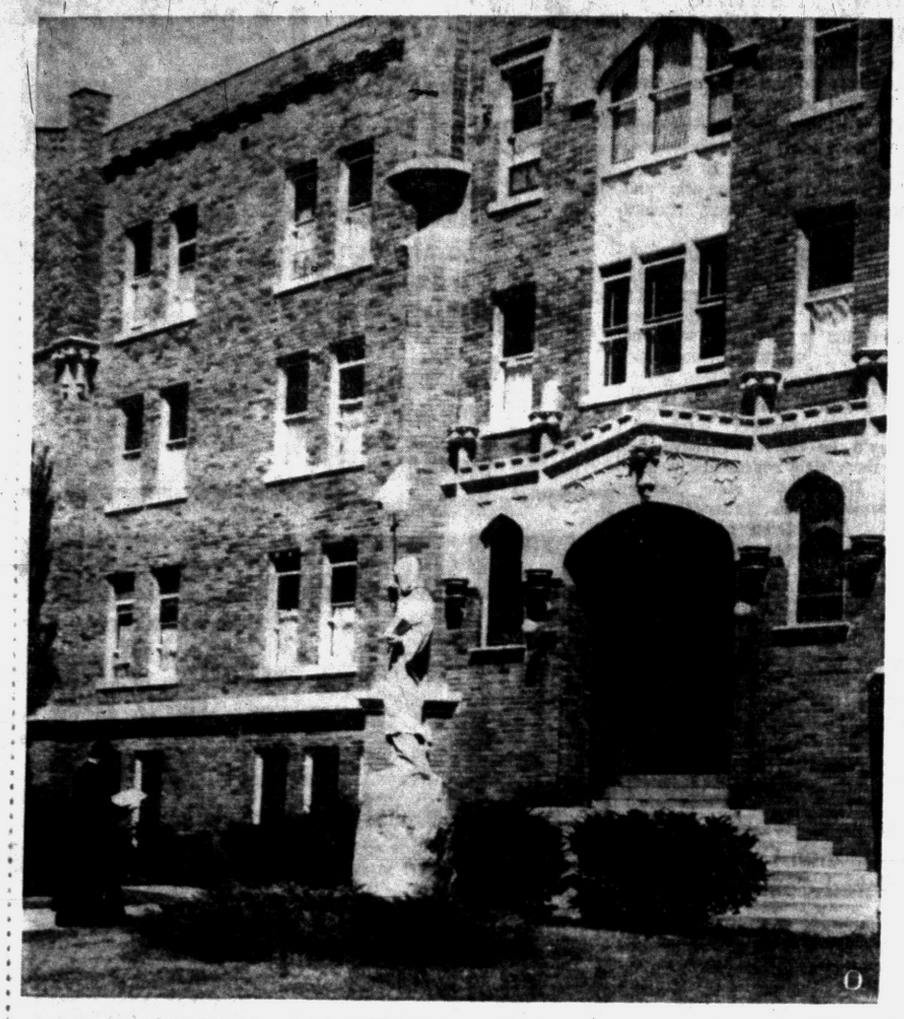
Seminary to Mark 75th Year



SEMINARY BUILDING — A later addition to the original buildings which once housed the Michigan Military Academy at Orchard Lake, the seminary building at Saints Cyril and Methodius Seminary reflects the fort-like appearance of its predecessors in a more modern vein. It is used as a residence for theologians and upper classmen. The seminary trains Catholic priests for duties in Polish-language parishes throughout the United States.

Polish School Plans Jubilee

Orchard Lake Site of Year-Long Festivities of Catholic Institution

By DICK HANSON
Press Suburban Editor

ORCHARD LAKE — Saints Cyril and Methodius Seminary at St. Mary's College and Preparatory School here will observe its 75th anniversary starting tomorrow.

Highlighting the Jubilee Year at the seminary will be the following events:

Class reunions Aug. 4 and 5.

Ladies auxiliary's pilgrimage and convention Aug. 8 - 9.

Visit by members of the Church's hierarchy and alumni July 19, 1960.

In 1909, the Roman Catholic seminary was founded at its present site on Indian trail, along the east shore of Orchard Lake. It is 75 years ago that the seminary was first established in Detroit to meet a demand for Polish-speaking priests in the United States.

The great influx of Poles into this country during the past century created a problem for the Catholic Church, inasmuch as priests already serving parishes here were unable, for the most part, to speak Polish.

For this reason, "The Polish Seminary" received Papal sanction in 1884 and was founded at Detroit the following year. It was moved to its present site in 1909.

HUNDREDS ORDAINED

Since then, hundreds of Polish-speaking priests have been ordained here and sent out to serve Polish-launguage parishes in the United States, which number 900 in all.

It is estimated by the Rev. Walter Zebrowski, secretary general of St. Mary's that there are between seven and eight million Americans either of Polish descent or directly from Poland in the United States today.

"Few people probably realize that about a fifth of all Catholics in this country are of Polish extraction," Father Zebrowski noted.

At the present time, there are about 200 young men studying for the priesthood at St. Marys These include 40 seminarians completing theology courses, 100 enrolled in the college, which prepares them for the seminary, and the others in the high school, which serves as a preparatory school for future vocations.

TELLS PURPOSE

In the words of Father Zebrowski, Saints Cyril and Methodius Seminary is dedicated to "the training of priests to work for and with the Polish immigrants and their children, to help them retain their moral and spiritual fiber, their Catholic faith and their colorful language and traditions.

Today, crosses are raised over the turrets, belying the fort-like appearance of those buildings now used to train Catholic priests.

'THE CASTLE' — One of the oldest buildings at Saints Cyril and Methodius Seminary at Orchard Lake is the Rector's Residence. It formerly served as headquarters for the Michigan Military Academy. Besides providing living quarters for the seminary's rector, the building contains guest rooms and a club room for the faculty.

Dry Spell Brings Danger Warning of Grass Fires

Oakland County area residents are urged to report all grass fires to their local fire departments rather than trying to fight them by themselves.

★ ★ ★

The Troy, Rochester, Lake Orion and Walled Lake Fire Depts. have reported a total of 39 grass fires in the past week and, unless the end of the dry spell is near, more fires are expected.

★ ★ ★

Troy Fire Chief Lauren Ford said, "Considering the dry spell, this is a crucial grass fire period. Unless the individual has adequate fire fighting equipment, he should call his fire department immediately.

According to Ford, due to winds grass fires are deceivingly dangerous for both humans and property.

Avon Boater Fined for Being Drunk

An Avon Township boater paid an $85 fine yesterday for operating his watercraft while drunk last Saturday on Lakeville Lake in Addison Township.

Oakland Water Patrol deputies arrested Paul Timmreck, 57, of 1150 E. Avon Rd., after they saw him nearly fall in the water while getting into his boat and then drive it at a high speed across the lake.

Timmreck pleaded guilty to the charge Monday before Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green and was fined $50 plus $35 costs.

Incumbents Win at Novi

Turnout Light in Area School Elections

Elections in five Oakland County school districts yesterday brought only a light turnout of voters to the polls.

In the Clarkston Community School District, Walter Wilberg, the incumbent, was uncontested for re-electon to the Board of Education. He received 62 votes (all that were cast) to return for a three-year term. This will be his second term.

A slim total of 265 votes were cast in the Novi Community Schools District Board of Education election. There were 1,300 votes cast in last year's school election.

Incumbent Dr. Harold L. Morris was re-elected for a one-year term with 128 votes. He defeated William R. O'Brien who garnered 118 votes. There were 17 blank and 2 void votes in this contest.

Electors picked the incumbents, Arthur J. Heslip, last year's board president, and Russell Taylor, past secretary, for the two three-year terms. They received 131 and 110 votes respectively.

Defeated for the three-year terms were Robert McKeon, with 78 votes; Oliver T. Rose, 73 votes; and George Mairs, 66 votes. Nine ballots were void.

Ted Pearson Jr., with 271 votes, and Louis B. Coryell, 241 votes, were elected to three-year posts on the Oxford Area Community Schools Board last night. The positions were vacated by Hiram Terry and Mrs. Gerda Houck who did not file for re-election.

Those candidates defeated were, Harrison G. Specht, 43 votes; Robert L. Trask, 90, and Mrs. Grace Kurshat, 182.

Oxford area voters also accepted a proposal to sell a strip of land along the west boundary of the Lakeville School property to Mr. and Mrs. Robert McWilliams for $150. The total number of votes cast in the election was 435.

Out of 176 votes cast in the Brandon District School Board election last night, Clarence S. Moore and Joseph B. Jencks received 131 and 100 votes respectively to win three-year terms.

Defeated were Shirley F. Schmidt, 64 votes, and Ilene M. Sellers, 40. Linford Owens, Robert Sutton, Lee Perigo, and William Perigo received one write-in vote apiece.

Incumbent Hugh Brady, present board secretary, with 125 votes, and Keith Middleton, 105, were elected to three-year positions on the Lake Orion Community School Board last night.

Gordon Brown, 99 votes, Martin Parker, 41, and Albert Rhodes, 101, were defeated. Lake Orion voters also approved two proposals that provided for the sale of the unused Howarth and Eaton schools.

Romeo Council Buys Building for Village Hall

ROMEO — The Village Council last night approved the purchase of the Wilbur Furniture building on West St. Clair street for a future village hall, at its regular meeting.

The village will pay $24,000 for the building, with terms of $4,000 down and $200 a month. It will be paid for in just over 11 years.

The move to the new building will take place in about 60 days. The Clerk's Office and Police Department will make the change first, with the other departments to follow.

Presently renting the first floor of the Masonic Temple, the council decided that it needed permanent quarters and more space to consolidate all the village's mechanical departments.

Southfield Council Turns Down Xway

SOUTHFIELD — The State Highway Department's request for an east-west expressday at 11½-Mile road, from Inkster to Telegraph road, was turned down again by the Southfield City Council at its meeting last night.

★ ★ ★

The request was sent to Southfield's Highway Committee for further study. It is expected to come up again at next Monday's special meeting of the council, City Clerk Patrick Flannery said.

★ ★ ★

The east-west expressway calls for eight traffic lanes, four going each way. This is the third time that the State Highway Department has sought approval of the council for the expressway.

★ ★ ★

Flannery said the council wants to know exactly where the eastern extension of the expressway from Northwestern highway will go before giving its approval.

Missile Ship to Be Launched

July 28 Bay City Event to Climax Celebration of Seaway Opening

BAY CITY (UPI) — The second of four Navy guided missile destroyers being built at the St. Lawrence Seaway port will be launched July 28, the Defoe Shipbuilding Co. has announced.

The destroyer USS Lynde D. McCormick will slide down the ways as a climax to Bay City's month-long celebration of the opening of the seaway.

The first of the big ships, the USS Henry B. Wilson, was launched here April 22 and is the largest naval ship built on the Great Lakes.

The McCormick is named for the late admiral who served as supreme allied naval commander from 1952 to 1955. He was the first head of an international peacetime navy.

His widow, the former Lillian A. Sprigg, formerly of San Diego, now of Washington, will sponsor the ship.

The second of her class to be launched here, the McCormick will be the third vessel of her class to hit the water among 13 now on order by the Navy. The second, which followed the Wilson, was launched in California.

A fourth guided missile destroyer will be launched in California the day after the CcCormick slides down the ways here.

The McCormick is scheduled for delivery to the Navy in 1961 after completion at the Defoe yards. She is 438 feet long with a 47-foot beam and 4,500 gross tons displacement. Her armament will include tartar surface-to-air missiles and the latest anti-submarine weapons. She will carry 24 offices and 330 enlisted men.

During the month-long celebration leading up to the launching, the USS Forest Sherman, pride of the destroyer fleet, will visit Bay City July 17.

Plan Advanced for 'Hot' Wastes From N-Ships

WASHINGTON (AP) — A committee of top scientists Monday offered a set of recommendations it said would allow certain radioactive "garbage" from an expected international fleet of 300 nuclear-powered ships to be disposed of "without undue hazard to human health."

★ ★ ★

The recommendations were made by a committee of the national academy of sciences which predicted that such a number of nuclear-propelled surface and underwater craft might be in service among the fleets of the world by 1975.

★ ★ ★

The group pointed out in its report that the U.S. Navy already has a fleet of nuclear submarines; that the Soviet Union has announced the launching of a nuclear-powered ice-breaker; and that before the end of July the United States will launch the N. S. Savannah, a nuclear-powered passenger and cargo vessel scheduled to enter service in 1961.

Union Serves Notice on U. S. Rubber Co.

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—The United Rubber Workers Union announced today it has served notice on the U. S. Rubber Co. for reopening of the companywide contract for bargaining on wage increases for 26,000 workers.

The notice to U. S. Rubber, served in a letter by URW president L. S. Buckmaster, was the second to a major rubber company in recent weeks. Earlier, the union gave notice to the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. for a wage opener. Negotiations on that contract will open in Cleveland Aug. 18.

Under terms of the U. S. Rubber contract, negotiations are to begin within 30 days of notice, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

Mayor Miriani Told to Cut Down Extra Activities

DETROIT (AP)—Mayor Louis Miriani returned to work Monday after a thorough physical examination at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

"They've convinced me I should be careful of my extra curricular activities after a day's work is done," said the 59-year-old Miriani.

Dr. Ernest L. Stefani, his physician, has long insisted Miriani slow his pace, especially at night and on weekends.

"Dr. Stefani and all these other doctors didn't have much to say about what I did from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.," Miriani said. "But they sure frown on my night meetings, speeches and conferences."

Miriani said he would continue dieting. He said he had lost more than 30 pounds in the last three months. He now weighs 194 pounds.

The mayor does not smoke and is a moderate drinker. He belongs to a downtown health club.

Teamsters Deny Anti-Negro Charges

DETROIT (AP) — Reports of racial discrimination in Detroit Teamster Local 299 were denied today by 153 Negro members.

In a telegram to Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee, the union men said they had never been discriminated against and had never known Teamster president James R. Hoffa to discriminate against Negroes.

The wire added that charges of such discrimination made before the committee last week were "completely false."

A Negro truck driver last Friday testified that in 1954 there were only five or six Negroes among 12,000 members in Local 299.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz), presiding at the hearing, said he would send staff members to Detroit immediately to investigate the charges.

Important That Steel Strike Is Settled

★ ★ ★

The big steel strike is with us and there are no signs of important concessions that might point to a quick settlement. The steel workers and corporations will feel the effects immediately. So will those engaged in the transportation of ore and finished steel.

★ ★ ★

The rest of the nation is pretty well prepared and business will continue "as usual" for many weeks. While there is no general unanimity of stock piling, it is probably a fair guess to say the automobile companies can continue straight through the balance of the 1959 model run with a small start on the 1960 cars.

After that — silence.

According to the previous steel strike figures, one and a half workers are knocked out for every worker in the steel mills themselves. This means a total of more than 700,000 immediately.

When you ultimately start closing down whole industries in addition, the numbers balloon rapidly. In Pontiac for example, closing the three GM plants would leave the whole town virtually at a standstill.

What does the President intend to do?

Moisture Shortage Warrants Extra Care

All growing things are suffering from its effects, and the fire menace is at its height.

Our farmers are the hardest hit. Their wheat had largely matured before being seriously affected by the shortage of moisture, but all spring crops are feeling its sting.

The same is true of meadows, pasture land and forage crops in general.

All fruit is assuming blighted proportions.

With a light snowfall last winter, its melting did not supply the soil with the usual spring moisture.

Then we had a spring drouth to further augment the difficulty.

The rainfall that has been accorded this area during the past several weeks has generally been of a spotty nature, and was usually succeeded by hot weather that absorbed most of it before it sank into the ground.

The oat heads are not properly filling. The ears of corn are almost devoid of kernels. Potato vines are immature and wilting in advance of the time to blossom. All garden truck is suffering.

All of this brings the fire menace to a hazardous point.

It is so dry that even pasture land or lawns will ignite and spread into a conflagration. A discarded match or cigar or cigarette butt can be a healthy starter.

Some of our fire departments have been called out to fight more grass fires in the first half of July than they did in March, April, May and June combined.

The drouth in itself is causing untold damage. So don't assist the fire fiend to further increase the loss.

Dems Bickering Over Economy Discussions

Democratic ranks are witnessing a bit of internal dissension.

National Chairman PAUL BUTLER is irked by two of his leading actors. Democratic Senate leader, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, and House speaker, SAM RAYBURN, are the targets of his fire. Butler charges them with failure to engage on a spending program with Democratic blessings.

However, both of these Democratic Congressional leaders have discovered that the boys and girls are sick of spending and want economy. They've sensed it faster than Butler and so have the members of Congress. Butler says, "They're playing Eisenhower's game."

Well, he could be right.

Washington is becoming more "economy minded."

The net result of this is a gain to the browbeaten taxpayer. Both parties are viewing economy with new respect. The free loaders may get the old heave-ho and BUTLER better feel the pulse of the nation again before he spanks his boys for "going along with EISENHOWER." It may have become popular to woo the ballot caster back home by cutting his bills instead of providing him with another hunk of pie in a nebulous sky.

David Lawrence Asks:

Can Industry Revise Labor Pact?

WASHINGTON — Issues that affect the economic situation of the whole country are involved in the controversy between the unions and the steel industry. The nation faces a dilemma that will hardly be solved this time simply by an increase in wages.

LAWRENCE

There is a deeper question to be settled—whether the steel cure a revision industry can se- of existing working agreements negotiated in the past. The purpose is to obtain greater efficiency and pave the way for more compensation to employes generally without the necessity of an increase in prices to the public.

★ ★ ★

Faced by competition from foreign countries where wages are much lower, the steel companies of America, as well as many other concerns in this country, are finding that they are pricing themselves out of world markets. American exports have been dropping, and American capital has gone abroad to build factories employing Europeans while employes in this country are deprived of jobs.

The whole thing adds up to a crisis which has long been foreseen as inevitable but which the management side has not been willing to meet squarely in the arena of negotiation.

There has been a series of surrenders rather than a willingness to incur the expense of big strikes. Once an agreement has been made under "collective bargaining," it has been considered as permanent and never subject to reopening.

★ ★ ★

The steel industry, however, has been compelled this time to reopen the existing agreements and, if "bargaining" means the give-and-take of negotiations, then the retention of old clauses and provisions is as much subject to debate as are new wage rates.

IMPEDE PROGRESS

The steel industry today insists that some of the working rules impede progress. Thus, for instance, if an employer wants to change the nature of an operation to increase production, yet requiring fewer workmen, he can do so only after going through a long-drawn-out grievance procedure.

Likewise, if an employer wants to give incentives and seeks to measure the normal time it takes to perform certain duties, he is confronted with slowdowns. Then, when the same work is performed later on, there is a speed-up, with the expectation of a higher incentive-pay rate.

If the steel companies, therefore, can bring about fundamental revisions in existing contract provisions, they might see their way to making increases in wages based on savings derived from an enlarged production and an improved efficiency.

The situation is very much the same throughout American industry. Collective bargaining has heretofore been regarded as a one-way street.

★ ★ ★

Management has given in repeatedly, and the nation is today in the midst of a dangerous inflation due to higher prices brought on by higher wage costs. Now, with export trade fallen off and American ships trying to make ends meet with diminished cargoes—something that is causing widespread concern—American producing companies have been aroused by the sudden flow of foreign-made products into the markets of this country.

LABOR STATESMEN?

In Britain labor unions have often been persuaded to think of the general economy, and they have in past years exercised forbearance on wage increases in order to help England's own export market. Will similar statesmanship be exhibited by American labor unions?

★ ★ ★

Everybody in business is watching the steel industry executives to see if they will stand their ground and put an end to the annual round of wage increases which unions have demanded no matter what the economic consequences.

★ ★ ★

The impression prevails that the steel men are going to stand firmly, for the very good reason that they have no choice—the danger of a price increase for steel that would mean higher costs for autos and other articles made of steel is widely recognized.

The Country Parson

"It would probably be an improvement if more things we heard went out the other ear—instead of the mouth."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Just What Is the Nature of 'This Here Arthritis'?

The favorite remedies for rheumatism in olden days were potassium iodide or other iodine compounds; cod liver oil (an excellent source of iodine, vitamin A and vitamin D); sodium salicylate (the sodium salt of salicylic acid); salicylic acid ester (aspirin); oil of wintergreen (methyl salicylate); and sometimes colchicum or its active principle colchicine (meadow saffron), although this was especially popular for gout.

DR. BRADY

The old-timers asserted that chronic rheumatism was due to exposure to cold and damp — and so far as the customers were concerned that was all there was to it. As far as I can learn, no one in or of the medical profession questioned it — if any one did the poor geek was probably hustled away to the asylum.

For that matter, even today the cold and damp obsession enables doctors to string customers along for months and years without a diagnosis. Why should the doctor be concerned about what ails the patient, as long as the patient is content with "arthritis?"

Standard medical textbooks published 50 to 60 years ago described three types of "arthritis," — namely, arthritis deformans or "rheumatoid" arthritis, osteo-arthritis and gonorrheal arthritis. Aside from these, all other cases of insidiously developing, long-lasting joint disability were "chronic rheumatism."

VICTIMS GULLIBLE

It seems that the victims of this shameless exploitation never lose faith, no matter how many miracle medicines the doctor "tries" on 'em. They never ask just what the nature and cause of this here now "arthritis" is or wonder whether it isn't just an impressive name for rheumatism.

Physicians who purport to be authorities do not commit themselves in a clear definition of "arthritis" and they apparently have no idea what difference, if any, there is between old-fashioned rheumatism and new-fangled "arthritis" except the price.

My concept is that in most cases chronic joint disability is not inflammation, not -itis, but degeneration of joint tissues due to nutritional deficiency through the years from childhood up to the present.

That's all. Take it or leave it. Just for the fun of it, I say they're all out of step but you know whom. For further information send 35c and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my booklet Chronic Joint Disability. The regimen I recommend can't do any harm, and many tell me it has done them a lot of good. Anyway, you must concede there's some sense in my concept.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Praises 'Y' Swimming Program

More children die of drownings each year in America than are killed by polio, measles, mumps and all the other children's contagious diseases combined, yet the YMCA is the best "vaccinator" we have against drownings. And please notice its splendid services to every community. Its Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y alone are worth double its annual budget.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case B-486: Willard Wade is the popular YMCA Secretary at Covington, Kentucky, who has pioneered summer camps of the all-family type.

DR. CRANE

Several times I have been invited down there to address his annual YMCA Board Meeting and other related groups.

And many other YMCAs throughout America have asked me to address the kick-off banquet of their annual fund-raising campaigns.

So I'll outline a few bits of specific data that I usually inject for many generous Americans fail to realize the tremendous investment possibilities in the YMCA.

For example, consider the YMCA's benefit to its community just in the matter of teaching kids to swim.

Do you realize that drownings take the lives of far more boys and girls in America every year than polio, measles, mumps, and all the rest of our children's contagious diseases?

If the YMCA saves the life of just one little boy this year in your community, society benefits to the tune of $200,000.

Actually, the usual YMCA teaches hundreds of youngsters to swim and thereby may save each community 3 or 4 or even 15 to 20 lives per year!

BRAVO, YMCA

The YMCA also serves as the Youth Department for every church in its area, with specially trained leaders who know how to inspire children.

Visualize the local YMCA as the hub of a wheel with scores of churches out on the rim but with spokes leading into that central hub.

The YMCA thus acts as the gymnasium, swimming pool, and moral recreational center for every church that wants to use it.

The YMCA secretaries should thus be listed on every church bulletin as "Assistant Pastors," for that's exactly how they serve all churches.

Most churches cannot afford a private gymnasium or swimming pool. Yet all the churches have exactly those beneficial aids to youth training if they are located in a city with a YMCA.

★ ★ ★

Once in a blue moon, an eccentric pastor gets the weird notion that the YMCA (or YWCA) is a competitive religious organization.

That is obviously wrong. The YMCA is an ally of every church.

In fact, it is an ally of non-church folks, too, since 40 per cent of our people belong to no church whatever, neither Jewish, Catholic or Protestant.

And the YMCA serves just as devotedly the youngsters of these non-church families as the children of good church members.

HI-Y AND TRI-HI-Y

On many occasions, too, I have been called upon to address the combined meetings of the Chicago Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups.

They include teenagers from the high schools who band together in moral fellowship.

No individual church can organize these high school youths in such manner. The YMCA and

Be grateful to your YMCA and YWCA, as well as all kindred groups that function on an interdenominational level to help build character in our greatest natural resource, namely, our children.

Saving even one child per year from drowning usually nets society far more ($200,000) than the annual budget of the YMCA and YWCA combined.

Saving children from prison life terms at Alcatraz is even more efficient than saving a drowning child's life! So, bravo to the "Y."

Sees Women Who Smoke as Threat to Our Children

It's a shame that America is going to the dogs in respect to bringing up children in the home, at school and almost anywhere.

★ ★ ★

I'm referring to the smoking habit so prevalent today among mothers, not to mention the fathers. In my youth, 20 or so years ago, one never saw a woman puffing on a cigarette in public. In fact, lady smokers were referred to as a bit on the shady side and even they smoked indoors.

★ ★ ★

Today the world has lost its sense of morals. We have two girls, 9 and 10, attending school, and they can tell us the brand of cigarette their teacher (female) smokes. When I went to school I was taught the danger smoking can do to the human body and I never saw one of my teachers smoking. How can we teach the dangers of smoking if teachers themselves are practically chain smokers?

★ ★ ★

I'm on the road as a salesman every day, and what a sickening sight to see a mother driving with her 4 or 5 year old and puffing on a cigarette.

Resents Pressure in Selling Phones

In recent years the telephone company has resorted to high-pressure salesmanship which I feel should be beneath the dignity of a utilitarian organization. One can no longer request "a phone." You must have at least three and if you don't want them, you get a lot of fast talk, a big argument and at least two phones (one in color).

It's fine to suggest multiple phones, but each user knows his own home and how he wants to spend his money. Most of us used to regard such forceful tactics as employed only by questionable concerns and I regret seeing a public utility resort to it.

Russia Sued for Plane Kill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States has ended 4½ years of fruitless negotiation by filing a $756,604.09 damage claim against Russia for the shooting down of an Air Force B29.

★ ★ ★

The plane was destroyed by Soviet MIGs off Japan on Nov. 7, 1954. One enlisted man was killed.

The suit was filed with the International Court of Justice by U.S. Ambassador Philip Young at The Hague.

Officials conceded that chances of winning the legal suit were slim because Russia has refused to submit the case to the court.

A state department announcement of the action accused the Soviets of being "unable and unwilling" to support their action by legal standards accepted by other nations.

The U.S. filed the suit, the department said, to show continued U.S. adherence to the principle of resolving international legal questions in the U.N.-sponsored Court of Justice.

There are at least four other U.S. plane claims against Russia currently on file at The Hague but unresolved because Russia refuses to acknowledge the court's jurisdiction.

Mack, Whiteside to Face New Trial

Mack, former federal communications commissioner, and Whiteside are charged with conspiring to rig a Miami TV Channel 10 contest in favor of Public Service Television, Inc., a subsidiary of National Airlines.

The motions were denied today in a brief formal order.

The 14-week trial of Mack and Whiteside ended Friday with a hung jury. Jurors had voted 11-1 for conviction, but could not reach a unanimous verdict.

In allowing the case to go to the jury on July 1, Judge Matthews reserved a decision on the motions, seeking acquittal for each defendant.

The Justice Department has said the case will be retired, probably in the fall.

Largest Figure of Christ to Arrive This Month

INDIAN RIVER (UPI) — The world's largest figure of Christ will arrive at the Catholic shrine here July 17 or 19, Rev. Charles M. Decker, S.M., pastor of the shrine, said today.

The corpus, which will be mounted on the shrine's 55-foot high wooden cross, will arrive in Detroit July 15 aboard the M. S. Lyngenfjord of the American Norwegian line, according to Marshall B. Frederick of Birmingham, who sculptured the huge bronze figure.

Film Those Furious Family Fights, Friend

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Anybody who is having trouble with his wife — say she eats or drinks or snarls or thinks too much — would do well to study the techniques of Phil Moore.

Basically, he is a musician. He composes, conducts, arranges and coaches for such as Crosby, Sinatra, Lena Horne, Marilyn Monroe, Pearl Bailey, and so on and up.

But as a hobby he takes candid photographs. He has a tiny Japanese camera and a telescopic lens, and he snaps his "clients" frequently, both in attitudes of relaxation and in professional performance.

"I want them to see how they look, not only when they're working, but when they're in particular moods," he says. "It's a graphic way of showing them how they look at their best — and at their worst.

Like some people who perform in night clubs, they have facial expressions which are clever in a room. But when they go on TV, those same expressions would look like grotesque contortions.

★ ★ ★

And this is why the unpleasant home life might be improved if the husband (or wife) were able to photograph a spouse at the height of a domestic storm.

UGLY IN ANGER

A woman never sees for herself how ugly she becomes when she is sullen or angry. If she once had a picture of her own distorted face in angry mood, she might never have the pridelessness to become angry again.

I think this would be very nice," says Moore, "but admittedly difficult in a small living room, or bedroom, or wherever these unpleasantries may occur." He smiles the breadth of his tidy beard.

"I think that would be even better, for both parties, would be the use of a recording machine. Flip it on when an argument commences, and then play it back after the fracas cools down.

"Then both man and wife can see how idiotic they are."

★ ★ ★

Moore, it should be noted here, is not trying to resolve the problems of the domestic world. He is known in pretty fast-spinning circles as "The Doctor," but that refers to his role as musical consultant to stars, managers, agencies and record companies wanting fresh ideas.

MUSICAL PRODIGY

He began life as a concert pianist in Portland at the age of 12, and grew up to compose a library-full of much recored music, from "Shoo Shoo Baby" through orchestrated piano concertos.

Currently he is working on a sterephonic album of original Polynesian mood music that is sufficient to soothe the savage wife, and soon he will resume work on "rock-billy" music — the combination of arty folk songs and rock-roll, which he forsees as the hottest trend in music for the immediate future.

Besides advising the biggest vocal stars in show business, "Doctor" Moore is being called on constantly to audition youngsters on the road up.

★ ★ ★

His plea: "New York is no place to learn the music business. Don't come here till you're ready. But if you're already here, and you're not ready, do you think I'm going to tell you to go back to Omaha? No ma'am. If I do, you'll get so mad you'll make the grade in spite of having no talent, and I'll look like a bum. It happens all the time!

Kelvinator Appliance Sales Soar in 1959

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Kelvinator appliance sales for the first six months of the year are 27 per cent ahead of the corresponding 1958 period, the company disclosed today.

Homer L. Travis, vice president in charge of sales, also reported that sales last month were 34 per cent better than those of June 1958.

Refrigerator sales alone were nearly 36 per cent ahead of the first six months a year ago, Travis said. Automatic washers were 27 per cent ahead and free-standing range sales increased by nearly 19 per cent.

Rails Consider Strike Plan

Eye Insurance Project to Blunt Threat of Labor Strife

NEW YORK (AP) — The Wall Street Journal said today that the nation's railroads are considering a plan to blunt the threat of labor disputes with strike insurance.

The program consists, in effect, of pooling industry funds in case of a strike against any participating carrier, according to the newspaper.

★ ★ ★

Three-year labor contracts covering 840,000 railroad workers expire this fall. Earlier this year the railroad industry served notice on 23 unions it planned drastic revisions of work rules and pay scales in the new contracts.

The Wall Street Journal said the proposed insurance plan would be administered by a newly formed Bahamas company, Imperial Insurance Co. Ltd., of Nassau, reportedly associated with Lloyds of London.

'Shaggy Dog' Sam Takes Fame Right in His Stride

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—You'll be pleased to know that success hasn't spoiled Sam the shaggy dog.

Few animals have caught the public fancy as fast as Lillibrad Sammy's Shadow, latest and livest of the long list of Disney animal stars. He's the big bear of an English sheepdog that romped through the runaway hit, "The Shaggy Dog."

"Sam hasn't changed a bit since he became a star," reports his trainer, Bill Koehler. "His motto is: 'I'll go along with it.' No matter what the situation Sam goes along with it."

Born to Norval Pride King and Lillibrad Lindy Lou on Oct. 21, 1956 at Denver, Colo. Bought for $500 by Addie Anderson of Rialto. Discovered by Koehler in his obedience school in San Bernardino. Signed by Disney Studios to an exclusive contract.

All kinds of things have been happening to Sam since the movie hit. He acted in a Gale Storm TV film. He guested with Lawrence Welk. He appeared at the Disneyland opening and the Coliseum fireworks show.

"He looked up and saw all those people in the Coliseum and figured they had come to see him," said Koehler. "So he gave them his usual greeting — woof, woof, woof — three barks."

But Sam still has the homey touch, as evidenced by his reunion with mother during a Denver appearance. They gave each other the traditional sheepdog expression of joy: stomping on their front paws.

Koehler wouldn't say that Sam was the brightest dog he had trained, but the trainer admitted Sam can be uncanny at times.

"The great factor about Sam is his emotional stability and resilience," Koehler added. "That is the most important thing about training a dog, especially in movies. They've got to remember what they're supposed to do despite all kinds of distractions.

★ ★ ★

"Intelligence is not as important in a dog as stability. I'd rather spend three times longer training a dog if I knew that he would be able to perform the trick no matter what was going on around him. Sam is that way. He goes along with it."

Jelke's Wife Files Suit for Divorce

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Minot (Mickey) Jelke, oleomargarine heir, is accused in a divorce petition of cruelty by staying out at night.

Sylvia Eder Jelke filed the action Monday in Circuit Court. She asked custody of her son, John, another child expected to be born in six weeks, and support for herself and children.

The Jelkes were married in 1954, after Jelke had been on trial in a sensational New York vice case. He was sentenced in 1955 to two to three years imprisonment on a charge of inducing Pat Ward into a life of prostitution, and served 21 months.

Jelke will inherit a five-million-dollar fortune when he becomes 30 years old in November.

Will Investigate Airport Tieup

Federal Aviation Man Disturbed at Sightseers in Recent Emergency

NEW YORK (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency has announced it will investigate reports of widespread confusion on the ground during preparations for landing a crippled jet airliner.

At the same time the Port of New York Authority, which runs Idlewild Airport, said the same thing is bound to happen again.

The Port Authority reported that 50,000 thrill-seekers headed for the airport when news bulletins on television and radio disclosed that the airliner, with 113 persons aboard, was circling the field and would make an emergency landing with damaged landing gear.

After four hours the big Pan American World Airways plane came down safely early Sunday. The pilot said later that the 4,000 people near the runway were the biggest menace he had to face. He said hundreds could have been killed if the airliner had overrun the crowd.

The federal investigation was announced by James T. Pyle, deputy FAA administrator, in Washington Monday. "I was disturbed to hear that so many people were allowed on the runway. It sounds like bad management and we will look into it," he said.

Fan Smashes Window in Singer Fabian's Car

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An excited fan smashed the window of a car and gave rock 'n' roll singer Fabian a slight cut over his right eye Monday night, police reported.

Fabian came West to work in a movie.

Autumn Preview Lauded

By DOROTHY ROE

NEW YORK (AP)—All-American fashions, made to be worn in each of the 50 states, scored a smash hit as some 240 fashion editors from all sections of the country applauded the opening shows of a week of fall previews by New York designers.

★ ★ ★

Clothes shown today have a new ease, a new swagger, an air of casual sophistication that identifies the well-dressed American woman at home or abroad.

A highlight was a showing of American knit fashions by Alamac, climaxed by the appearance of Miss America of 1959, Mary Ann Mobley, in a white cotton knit evening gown designed by Ceil Chapman and trimmed with the state flowers of each of the 50 states.

Each fashion shown, ranging from casual separates to formal evening gowns, was dedicated to one of the United States, with special bows to Alaska and Hawaii.

Afternoon showings included highlights from the collections of Maurice Rentner, Mollie Parnis and Hannah Troy.

★ ★ ★

Mollie Parnis, known as the favorite dressmaker of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, shows a group of flattering and ladylike "Sunday silks," of which a white satin shirtwaist dress with jeweled buttons is typical. Also outstanding are a group of luxurious metallic brocades used for theater suits, short dinner dresses and coats.

Hannah Troy underscores the trend toward casual elegance with an evening ensemble of ice blue satin, the rakish collar in white mink, the matching dress cut on the simplest lines.

Committee members responsible for the annual Salad Buffet of the Saybrook Group of the First Congregational Church get together to make final plans. The party is to be held Thursday afternoon in the church. Mrs. William H. Vance (left) of Dixie Highway is ticket chairman. Assisting with arrangements are Mrs. Carl P. Weber of Dover road (center) and Mrs. L. H. Cross (right) of Lexington. Mrs. A. W. Selden and Mrs. C. W. Goodwin are cochairmen of the buffet.

J. A. Reeds Home After Honeymoon

The former Carolann Joyce Hutchinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hensey of Clarkston, and Mr. Reed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reed of Tackless drive.

Barbara Jean Stierstorfer of Clarkston was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Nancy Ruth Mosier of Drayton Plains, and Margaret Elaine Hensey of Clarkston was flower girl.

Glenn Allen Hutchinson of Clarkston served as best man. Ushers were Robert Lyle Hutchins Jr. of Waterford, Gerald Vincent and Glenn Vincent Jr., both of Ortonville. Ringbearer was Jerry Vincent of Ortonville.

In keeping with the trend toward luxury fur trims that make fashion news this fall, Bill Blass of Maurice Rentner uses precious silver fox to trim the skirt of a frost gray wool flannel dress. A deep detachable cape collar covers the sleeveless bodice.

Girls May Have Been Overlooked

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: The daughter of a friend of ours is to be married in three weeks. When speaking with this friend one day she said that my whole family (husband, myself and two teen-aged daughters) were to be invited to the wedding. However, this morning the invitation came in the mail and was addressed to Mr. and Mrs. alone, and asks for a reply.

"I am puzzled as to what to do about this. Should I accept for my husband and myself, or should I take the hostess' verbal invitation seriously and accept for my daughters as well?"

Answer: As long as she told you they were expected, you can perfectly well call her on the telephone and say, "In speaking of the wedding some time ago you said Mary and Jane were to be invited. The invitation that has just come did not include them. Does this mean that you now find you haven't room for them?"

"Dear Mrs. Post: When unexpected visitors drop in while we are in the midst of having our dinner, is it rude to ask them to sit in the living room and wait until we have finished, or should they be asked to join us at the table?"

Answer: In the first place, visitors should not drop in at an hour the family they are calling on might be at dinner. If, however, they do, you will be justified in asking them to wait in the living room while you hurry and finish your dinner.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married the latter part of July and have always dreamed of wearing a white satin wedding dress. I have been told that satin is not correct in the summertime. Will you please give me your opinion?"

Answer: Satin is the traditional bridal material for all seasons of the year — a very heavy satin for the winter and a lighter weight for the summer.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it a steadfast rule that when a girl becomes engaged that she receive a diamond, or would it be perfectly proper to receive a birthstone, such as a moonstone for an engagement ring?"

Answer: It is not at all necessary that an engagement ring be a diamond. In fact, the first choice of many girls is her birthstone or a semi-precious stone of size rather than the small diamond that is within the means of her fiance.

Doubles as Theater, Cocktail Suit

Lingerie Has Real Date-ability

By MARY PRIME

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lingerie will be going out in polite society in fall. New two-piece slips can be worn as theater and cocktail costumes, as well as undies.

One of the separates, called a "cami-vest," is a camisole top, fully lined in nylon tricot and covered with lace. It comes with black lace over beige or black lace over red.

"You can wear it as a blouse with a theater suit or cocktail costume. I got one for the theater," said Eleanor Schrader, spokesman for the manufacturer.

JUST ADD SASH

The half-slip is slim and comes in combinations of lace and tricot to match the camisoles. Add a wide velvet or other type of black sash, said Miss Schrader, and you have a party skirt.

"A friend of mine couldn't find anything else she liked, so she's taking the outfit on her vacation to Mexico City. It will pack well, too," Miss Schrader added.

The lingerie house also has a new line of petti-tights—a combination of pants and half-slips. They look like carryovers from Civil War days—skin-tight, knee-length pantalettes trimmed with lace or ruffles.

The petti-tights, originated by this firm, come in nylon tricot in a variety of shades, including red, pale blue, pink, green, watermelon, aqua and gold. Some have three rows of ruffles at the knee, others have bows, lace scallops or hand-cut lace insets. One pair has fabric polka dots; another is entirely covered with black lace.

"They're so old fashioned, it's a new fashion," said Miss Schrader.

The designer, Mrs. Dorothea Woodfin, dreamed up the petti-tights a year ago for herself. She wanted something less bulky than slips and pants to wear under sheath dresses. So she made up a few models as a fashion gimmick.

GREAT IN WIND

"Then we found women were uncomfortable in clam diggers (pedal pushers) and ankle-length slacks because of seams and chafing. They wanted something different. These are good under bouffant skirts in windy weather, too," Miss Schrader explained.

The firm now stocks a line priced from $3.95 to $8.95 and sells the pants in Singapore, Cuba, Canada, Puerto Rico and Panama.

"People look at them and laugh like the dickens. Then they try them and wouldn't be without them," Miss Schrader added.

Said one satisfied customer: "And they look so cute getting out of cabs!"

Fashion House Skips Exaggeration

Dior Returns to 'Normalcy'

By MARY PRIME

NEW YORK (UPI) — This year, even the house of Christian Dior has returned to "normalcy" in fashion.

★ ★ ★

Yves St. Laurent, head designer since Dior's death, has kept waistlines and bustlines natural. Shoulders are slightly wider and rounded, but not exaggerated or padded.

Not even the hemline is too long or too short. It hits 1½ inches longer than last fall, giving a balanced, graceful look to the figure.

Suit jackets in many lengths were shown today at the preview of the Dior-New York collection, one of 60 collections shown this week by the New York couture group.

LONGER JACKETS

The trend was to longer jackets, generally wrist length. Some jackets were double-breasted. Skirts were mostly slim and unpleated.

Necklines of both suits and coats included the collarless type. Fur ascots were tucked in these necklines.

Coats ranged from loose for wearing over suits to slim. Some had half-belts at the back, and were either single or double-breasted.

A narrow inset of fabric defined the natural waist of dresses, giving the dress a fitted look without a belt. Several such dresses with one-inch insets had wide, crushed leather belts, some almost cummerbund width.

Newest sleeve treatment is the "shirt sleeve"—which looks like a French cuff of a shirt but comes above the wrist, or bracelet length. It was used on coats and suits.

Some late day and cocktail dresses had the belled skirt of the old "new look" even to petticoats underneath. Several had gay little jackets.

'WILLOW' SILHOUETTE

St. Laurent called the silhouette the "Willow" — which emphasizes "suppleness of line and freedom of motion, never cluttered with superfluous detail."

★ ★ ★

Ball gowns had a floating movement attributed to the "Willow Look," and also included portrait gowns.

Jane Derby — this designer showed a variety of silhouettes: sheath, shirtwaist, Dutch boy. Suits, cocktail dresses and evening gowns had detachable skirts. Cummerbunds, lace and rhinestone nail heads were important. One black velvet, full-length gown had chinchilla sleeves.

STUDDED WITH RHINESTONES

Another gown, in lilac, was studded with rhinestones and came with a matching wool coat, lined with rhinestones.

Brocades and lames turned up in evening costumes. One slim, ankle-length gown was made of gold and topaz with damask lame, belted and teamed with a caramel silk satin stole.

★ ★ ★

Ben Gershel—this collection, designed by Robert Knox, featured fitted suits with pleated or eased-out skirts, man-tailored jackets cut straight and narrow to the hip, and dressed-up polo coats.

★ ★ ★

Donald Brooks — silhouettes ranged from military cardigan coats to dresses with spiral-draped bodices and full-circle skirts. Fabric snoods matched some daytime outfits. In the military line were wool twills and bib-fronts stolen from the "boiled shirt" of an Army officer's uniform.

Good Wife Better Be Efficient

By RUTH MILLETT

"Don't you agree," asks an 18-year-old bride, "that poor housekeepers make the best wives?"

Certainly not. And for the sake of your husband let's hope you don't continue to believe that nonsense, either.

Most men are far happier living in an orderly, well-run house than in the midst of clutter

Men like to be proud of their homes, too. And how can they be proud of a home if they are conscious, whenever a friend drops in, that the house is a mess?

Besides, orderliness prevents confusion. A man is sure to be frustrated if he never can find anything he wants, if he never knows when a meal is going to be served, if his wife is always explaining that she forgot to get this staple or to take care of having something fixed, or that sending his suit to the cleaners just "slipped her mind."

If you don't believe that neatness and order are important to a man, just listen to how men brag about secretaries who are efficient, neat, and orderly.

Miss Michigan's Mama Gives Norwegian Recipe

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Home Editor

You've been seeing pictures of Susan Westergaard, Michigan's contribution to the Miss Universe contest. This time we put the spotlight on her mother, Mrs. Bjarne Westergaard of Southfield.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Westergaard was most gracious when we called for a recipe. She suggested this one for Norwegian Dessert Pancakes. Mrs. Westergaard is actively interested in art, especially in oil painting. She enjoys swimming.

Norwegian Dessert Pancakes

By Mrs. Bjarne Westergaard

3 eggs
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups cooked rice
Sour milk or cream
Flour
½ teaspoon cinnamon

Beat eggs well. Add sugar and salt and stir to mix. Add egg mixture to cooked rice. Pour in about 1/3 cup milk or cream. Then add enough flour to hold batter together. Add cinnamon.

Grease a large skillet. Using a tablespoon, put as many tiny cakes as possible in the skillet. Cook over low heat until done on one side. Turn carefully and cook until brown on other side.

Serve warm with jam. Makes 15-20 pancakes.

Cooked cream of wheat cereal may be used in place of the rice. There is no soda in this recipe.

Daily Exercise Need Not Be Big Production

Exercise need not be complicated. All those diagrams on exercise can be discouraging. Indeed, to do some of them youd have to be an acrobat.

But at least two simple exercises a day, done 20 times each, will take only five minutes of your time and keep you looking lithe.

One is the old reliable, touching your toes. But really touch your toes and keep your knees straight.

The other is done stretched out on your back, arms at your sides, palms down. Raise your legs in the air at right angles to your body and lower them slowly.

MRS. MARTIN JOHN CRONAN

Married Saturday morning in Alma were Janet Carroll Hyde and Martin John Cronan. Their parents are Mrs. Frank Hyde and the late Mr. Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. John Cronan.

Martin J. Cronan Claims Bride in Alma Ceremony

Janet Carroll Hyde and Martin John Cronan were married Saturday morning at St. Mary's Church in Alma. The Rev. Richard L. Rabideau officiated at the ceremony before family members and close friends. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Frank Hyde of Alma.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Frank Hyde of Riverdale and the late Mr. Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. John Cronan of Williams Lake road.

IN BOUFFANT GOWN

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle with a boat neckline accented with appliques of lace and embroidered seed-pearl paillettes. The bouffant skirt of tulle formed a fan sweep train and was accented with appliques of lace.

Her veil of French illusion was held in place by a pillbox hat edged with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and stephanotis.

★ ★ ★

RECEPTION AT HOME

A reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride. Before leaving for a honeymoon to northern Michigan and Wisconsin, the bride changed to a black and white checked sheath with patent leather accessories and the pink rosebud corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Michigan State University. The bride was a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

★ ★ ★

HUBBY'S FAULT TOO

He'd never in the world admit it, but your husband is responsible for almost as much dirt around the house as the children.

Sure, children make a mess around the house, but it's not actual dirt (says the survey!)

Anyway, they can be trained to keep some of the mess in their own rooms and not to eat all over the house.

Not so husbands. They eat anywhere. They leave a trail of ashes and burnt matches behind them. They lean back in their chairs and get the upholstery soiled.

What to do? Keep on training the children. Use diplomacy with Papa and maybe he will set a good example. Use an approved cleaner to do regular damp dusting of upholstered pieces.

Plastic coated shelf paper makes clever coasters, jackets and decorations for glasses in which you serve cooling drinks.

Dear Abby:

Innocent Girl Isn't Only One Whose Life Can Be Ruined

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Everyone is so sympathetic to innocent girls whose lives have been ruined by selfish no-good boys. What about innocent boys whose lives have been ruined by trampy, scheming girls?

Our son was an 18-year-old honor student who went to college on a scholarship. He was devout in his religion and admired by all who knew him.

ABBY

He had only one date (and he does not lie) with a girl of loose morals. She tricked him into marrying her by saying she was pregnant. Being an honorable boy, he married her. Our religion does not permit divorce. Is there any hope for him, or must he pay all his life for one foolish mistake? HIS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your son paid dearly for one (if he does not lie) "foolish mistake." It is unfortunate that most modern parents impress on their daughters but not their sons the high price of low morals. If your son feels that he was "tricked" into marriage, he should not hesitate to take the matter to his clergyman.

DEAR ABBY: I was the hostess at a luncheon recently. One of my guests spoke out very strongly against our former president, Franklin Roosevelt.

I loved and respected this man. Should I have come out and defended him? I felt that since I was the hostess I should not have involved myself in an argument with one of my guests. But I felt like a hypocrite keeping quiet. I'd like your opinion.

ADMIRER OF F.D.R.

DEAR ADMIRER: You used excellent judgment (and remarkable restraint) when the occasion demanded it. You undoubtedly will have another opportunity to speak your piece under more appropriate circumstances.

DEAR ABBY: I recently suggested to my husband that for some future anniversary gift I would like a larger diamond for my engagement ring and he hit the roof? He has a fit if I remove my rings for 10 minutes to clean them. He figures once an engagement ring is put on a finger it should stay there forever. And the same goes for the wedding ring.

Don't some people get bigger diamonds for their engagement rings later on? Or are they supposed to wear the ones their struggling husbands paid twenty dollars down and a dollar a week for until they die? LIKES DIAMONDS

DEAR LIKES: Many husbands replace their wives' engagement diamond with a larger one, but if your husband figures like I figure he figures, this won't cut any ice with him.

DEAR ABBY: When I was first married six years ago I used to come home at night and my little dog would bark at me and my wife would bring me my slippers. Now, just six years later, when I come home at night, my dog brings me my slippers and my wife barks at me. FRANK

DEAR FRANK: What are you complaining about? You're still getting the same service.

★ ★ ★

Diet Does It

Wise to Reduce Cholesterol

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

If you are interested in avoiding heart trouble, extreme hardening of the arteries, strokes and other circulatory menaces, you must become interested in and informed about the latest research concerning the part diet plays in the picture.

While the evidence is not entirely conclusive as to the value of reducing the cholesterol level in the blood, it certainly is impressive and continues to accumulate.

In 1952 it was discovered that a diet which is rich in vegetable oils decreases the cholesterol in the blood. Later research has confirmed this. Studies have shown that those who have high cholesterol levels are more likely to have coronary heart disease.

FASCINATING STUDY

The May 16th issue of "The Journal of The American Medical Association" reported a fascinating study which was carried on at the Farm Colony of Indiana's Central State Hospital. This was an ideal setup for such research. The 300 patients ate exactly the same meals they were accustomed to except that the saturated, fatty acids of ordinary solid fats were replaced by unsaturated fatty acids which have a cholesterol lowering effect.

For cooking and baking, as a tablespread and as seasoning for vegetables, the individuals in the study used a special margarine which is rich in linoleic acid and contains 64.2 per cent of non-hydrogenated corn oil. It replaced all the solid fats ordinarily used for these purposes.

The diet had only four other changes. The excess visible fat was cut from the meat. Reconstituted skim milk was substituted for whole, sherbet replaced ice cream and corn oil was used for salad dressing and as a liquid oil.

This diet quickly brought about a reduction in cholesterol levels and reached a maximum fall of 23 per cent after five months. The levels went up again when the individuals returned to ordinary fare.

Not all the answers are known on the cholesterol question but the scientists writing in The Journal say, "Evidence is steadily accumulating on the desirability of reducing cholesterol levels in those patients where they are elevated."

In my opinion it is just plain old-fashioned not to have your cholesterol level determined as a part of every physical examination. If it is high, follow your doctor's advice about lowering it. I long ago adopted preventative measures such as skim milk, corn oil and so forth.

Bob Considine Says:

Red Censorship Erratic at Best

NEW YORK — The Russians haven't made up their minds that it would be prudent on their part to permit correspondents covering Vice President Nixon's Soviet trip to send home uncensored dispatches.

The hesitation is understandable in light of the fact that ever since the Communists came to power they've held a tight hold on all words leaving and entering the Soviet Union. The very thought of 60 or 70 American newsmen sending or speaking thousands of unpruned observations about Russia must be genuinely unnerving to old-line Communist censors.

At the same time, there seems to be a desire by Khrushchev to extend to the vice president the identical reception which comrade Kozlov received here. There was, of course, no U. S. censorship of the stuff the Russian newsmen sent home in the course of the deputy premier's swing through the country.

It's an eerie feeling, being subjected to censorship.

During the big war, the strangest things would be cut out of one's stories, and yet other and more important stories would go barging through without so much as the deletion of a comma. I recall one, to illustrate the latter.

In London one day in 1943, Bill Hearst and I asked Gen. Harold George, then commanding the Army Air Corps air transport command, if he still felt there should be a separate air force. He had just briefed the London correspondents on the dazzling efficiency of the Eighth Air Force, which was a part of our Army.

George replied with some heat that the Air Corps must separate itself. It could never function properly "with infantry thinking at the top." He meant Gen. Marshall. He pointed out that Japan's air arm was handicapped by the fact that its top officer was an admiral.

That's why Pearl Harbor was bombed, he continued. The ultimate target in that Japanese admiral's mind was a battleship. If an airman had been in charge, the task force would have bypassed Pearl Harbor, steamed down the Pacific Coast of the United States, and destroyed Boeing, Lockheed, Douglas and North American ". . . and if that had happened we wouldn't today be winning the air war."

The general concluded that if the above had happened, our Navy would have steamed out of Pearl Harbor to engage in what our admirals considered the ultimate battle—our fleet against theirs—and "might have suffered the same fate as the Prince of Wales." (British battleship sunk by land-based Japanese bombers early in the war)

NOT ONE CHANGE

The story passed without change, hit the front page of the Washington Post, and caused an explosion in the Pentagon, involving hard words among Marshall, Hap Arnold and Admiral King. Yet a sentence like "It rained in London today," might be cut out of a dispatch.

In Moscow, during our visit there, everything had to be written in triplicate and handed in at the Telegraph Office. A lady took the pages, disappeared behind a green drape and dropped them on a censor's desk. We could never see the censor or call him by phone (there are no phone books in Moscow) nor could we guess at how long the copy would be held up. You'd just wait.

They held up the Hearst task force's 10,000-word interview with Khrushchev 12 hours, then released it exactly as written. But in a broadcast about Khrushchev and Bulganin—to the effect that they were easy to interview at diplomatic cocktail parties—a venerable cliche aroused dark suspicion in the censor's heart.

I wrote, ". . . They are as comfortable as old shoes." The censor apparently considered it a reflection on the Soviet standard of living. He changed it first to ". . . They are as comfortable as new shoes," and then revised it to read ". . . They are as comfortable as shoes."

The censors also passed a reference to "the famed Russian inventor of basketball, Dr. Naismithsky," and a piece which urged U. S. car makers to "get busy and copy the interesting Russian idea of painting automobiles TWO different colors."

The commissar of culture, Yuri Zhukov, explained to us the censorship of jamming Western radio programs beamed at Russia. "There is an old Russian proverb," he said. "When your enemy throws a rock at your window, you close the shutters."

And they sure close 'em. Everything the Voice of America sends that way is phonetically demolished by a rasping noise on the same waveband. Everything is considered subversive, including Nelson Eddy singing "Shortnin' Bread."

Camper's Cuisine

Hamburger Franks

8 servings

4 1-ounce slices Cheddar cheese, cut in half
8 frankfurters
1 pound ground beef
½ cup chili sauce
¼ cup chopped onions
¾ cup grated Parmesan cheese
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon parsley flakes

Slice frankfurters partially through lengthwise and fit a slice of cheese into each. Combine remaining ingredients and divide into eight portions. Mold a portion of meat mixture evenly around each cheese-filled frankfurter, pressing firmly, leaving 1 inch of frankfurter showing at each end. Place on grill about 8 inches above hot coals for 8-10 minutes. Turn often to brown evenly. Serve on buttered buns.

BUTTER GRILLED ROASTING EARS

4 servings

4 ears fresh sweet corn
½ cup (1 stick) butter
1 teaspoon salt

Remove husks and silk from corn. Mix butter and salt; coat ears of corn. Wrap individually in heavy-duty aluminum foil, sealing edges and ends tightly. Place on grill and cook for 10 to 15 minutes.

HEARTY GRILLED CHEESE TOMATOES

4 servings

4 large, firm tomatoes
2 cups (½-inch size) toasted bread cubes
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
½ cup chopped cashew nuts
2 tablespoons melted butter
4 green onions

Cut tops off of tomatoes. Scoop out insides. Combine bread cubes with remaining ingredients except green onions. Fill tomatoes with bread mixture. Stand an onion in the center of each tomato. Wrap in aluminum foil with green onion stem shooting out the top. Place on grill over hot coals for about 15 minutes or until cheese melts.

We have become a nation of outdoor cooks and the charcoal grill has become standard equipment. Here are two more recipes, in addition to those printed for the food shown in color on this page.

Barbecue young fryer roaster turkeys, halved or quartered. A 4-5 pound bird will serve six.

Cream 1 cup butter with paprika, black pepper, lemon juice and tarragon. Spread this over the surface of the turkey and place the bird bone-side down over the fire (not too hot).

Cook about 15 minutes and turn. Baste and cook 10 minutes. Keep turning about every 5 minutes, basting well each time. Do not puncture the skin or the juices will escape.

Aluminum foil comes to your aid to make little sweet treats for dessert. Serve them warm with icing.

Make a pan by folding a 2-foot piece of foil in half, dull sides in. Grease lightly. Open a can of Quick Cinnamon Rolls with Icing. Cut each roll in half. Fold each half together so that topping is inside, sealing edges. Twist slightly, roll in chopped nuts and place on foil.

Make a "tent" of another piece of foil to place over rolls and extend about 2 inches beyond the foil sheet (shiny side in).

Bake about 8 inches above glowing coals for 4 to 7 minutes, turning frequently. Spread with icing and serve.

Barbecued Pot Roast

Barbecue Sauce:
1 cup catsup
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¼ cup (½ stick) butter, melted
1 large onion, diced
1 tablespoon vinegar
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ teaspoon thyme
¼ teaspoon oregano
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Combine ingredients. Set aside.

2 pounds pot roast
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 bay leaf
2 large boiling potatoes, peeled and sliced
4 carrots, cleaned and sliced lengthwise

Rub pot roast with salt and pepper; brown on grill. Pour half of barbecue sauce on large piece of heavy duty aluminum foil (about 18x24 in.). Place browned pot roast on foil and pour remaining sauce over. Add bay leaf. Fold foil together, sealing edges tightly. Place on grill about 12 inches from coals and bake 1½ hours, turning once. Open carefully and place sliced potatoes and carrots on meat. Seal aluminum foil and replace on grill to cook ½ hour longer. Remove from heat and serve.

BUTTER BROWNED HOT BISCUITS

Make a 9 to 10 in. pan of heavy-duty aluminum foil and place on the grill over hot coals. Melt ¼ cup butter in the pan. Add ¼ teaspoon nutmeg and ⅛ teaspoon curry powder. Remove the pan from the grill. Make one recipe of biscuit dough using biscuit mix. Drop spoonfuls of the dough onto melted butter. Place on grill above hot coals. When biscuits are brown on one side (about 5-10 minutes), turn and brown on second side. Serve hot.

Outdoor Waffle Brunch

½ cup (1 stick) butter, softened
¼ cup honey
Rind of 1 orange
Dash of ground cloves
1 package frozen waffles
Dairy sour cream
Sections of fresh orange

Combine butter, honey, orange rind and cloves. Spread on both sides of frozen waffles. Toast on grill over hot coals until brown. Top with dairy sour cream and garnish with orange sections. Serve with fruit cup, butter grilled rolls, sausages, and cafe au lait (½ hot milk, ½ strong coffee.)

BUTTER GRILLED SWEET ROLL

Slice a breakfast sweet roll in half. Spread cut sides with 1 tablespoon butter. Place on grill buttered side down and toast until brown. Turn if desired.

Adventure at Home

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Look at the hand of Hiroshi Orito, a 24-year-old Japanese scholar, and one would hardly believe it belongs to someone who is pursuing the delicate profession of artistic painting.

Hiroshi bangs his big knuckles against a wooden door frame at full strength and doesn't even blink the eye lids. This has been part of his training in mastering the Japanese Kara-Te which is defined as the art of self-defense.

The Japanese have been the front runners in making popular the various styles of self defense which Hiroshi classifies as being Judo, Kara-Te and Aikido.

According to Hiroshi, Judo is a throwing technique and is the "soft way" of self defense. Kara-Te is hitting and kicking technique which he calls the "hard way," and Aikido is the twisting technique, which concentrates on the various joints in the body.

The little Japanese painter got interested in the Kara-Te technique about eight years ago and while studying at the Tokyo University of Arts he organized a club which competed against clubs of other colleges.

Hiroshi has lived in Pontiac since February, 1958 when he came here to attend Cranbrook Academy of Art. When the summer ends he will continue his art studies in New York.

For the next six weeks, Art Mann, physical director at the Pontiac YMCA, has arranged to have Hiroshi conduct a course in these techniques of self-defense.

He will teach escapes and breaks from various holds and attacks, some of defensive aspects of Judo, how to use the hands and feet for defense or to attack and the ways of falling without sustaining injury.

Hiroshi plans to hold the course from 7:30 to 9:30 each Tuesday and Thursday for five weeks, with a fee of $15 for Y members and $20 for non-members for the 10 sessions. Those who sign will receive orientation tonight or Thursday without charge, according to Mann.

Students must be males 18 and over and denim or sweat clothing is all that is necessary.

Hiroshi, who weighs just 135 pounds, explains that Kara-Te utilizes a person's power to fullest extent with quick movements as the basis for developing a defense or attack.

Students, however, need not fear of getting hit or kicked, because Kara-Te participants learn to stop their motion before making contact.

In Japan when Kara-Te students want to learn the power they utilize in the various hitting or kicking they do it against sand bags which have gauges to record the pressure or power of the contact.

The word "Te" in Japanese means hand, and the word "Kara" pertains to China or by modern versions it means "empty," therefore giving meaning to the technique as "empty hand" or self defense without weapons.

Hiroshi, who holds the Third Degree Black Belt, which is a high honor in Kara-Te, says the techniques can be learned by all—the fat or thin, the tall or small.

KARA-TE — Hiroshi Orito (right), Japanese art student who has done graduate work at Cranbrook's Academy of Arts since spring of 1958, is also master of Kara-Te, which in Japanese is the art of self-defense. Kara-Te differs from Judo, but self defense at the Pontiac YMCA covering a six week period. (See Press Box Column for story).

Rough Series Ahead of Tigers

SPORTS

Fight Senators With 4th Place in the Balance

Three-Game Nocturnal Stand Opens Tonight; Lary Is Starter

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now a long 7½ games from first place, the Detroit Tigers go into a fight tonight to keep their shaky hold on fourth place in the American League.

Washington's homer-conscious Senators are hosts to the Tigers for a three-game series—all night games—during which Detroit will have to rally or slip further downward.

After having lost eight of their last 10 games, the Tigers hold fourth place by only a cat's whisker of .0004 over the fifth place New York Yankees. Washington is a game and a half down in sixth.

Frank Lary (9-6) is ticketed to pitch tonight's opener for Detroit against Pedro Ramos (9-7). Jim Bunning is to work tomorrow night's game for the Tigers.

This could be a rough series for Detroit considering the fact that Tiger pitchers, not too hot lately, have to throw against the likes of Harmon Killebrew, Bob Allison, Roy Sievers and Jim Lemon. It's the league's strongest home run quartet.

Manager Jimmie Dykes, explaining the team's slump, blames a mental hazard.

Jimmie says the Tigers, after years in the second division, have to adjust their thinking. An optimist, he thinks they will do so.

The trouble, says Dykes, is that most of the present Tigers "don't know what it's like to be in a pennant race like this one." He said their failure to win key games proves it.

"They aren't used to playing them one day at a time, the big ones in stride with the little ones," Dykes said. "They tell me they don't feel any different about one game or another, but I know better. Something happens almost every time we build up to a big game. We fall back and have to start over."

The Tigers, who had an open date yesterday, came here after splitting Sunday's doubleheader in Cleveland where they gave evidence in support of Dykes' analysis. They won the first game and a victory in the second—which they didn't achieve—would have made a vital difference in their tactical position.

Milwaukee Only .002 Behind After Sweep

Braves Stop Giants

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Giants' latest buildup for a breakthrough in the battle for the National League pennant is a shambles, torn down once more by Milwaukee's three-man wrecking crew—Burdette, Spahn and Mathews.

Just two days ago, the Giants had a 1½ game hold on first place and Milwaukee was third, 2½ games back. Now the Braves are second, just .002 percentage points behind after a two-game sweep put away by the pitching of Lew Burdette and Warren Spahn and E. Mathews' slugging.

Mathews' home run and sacrifice fly, good for four RBI, backed Burdette for a 4-2 victory Sunday. Monday night, Mathews' two-run homer backed Spahn's six-hit pitching for a 3-0 decision over the Giants, although the Braves managed only four hits.

That leap-frogged the Braves over Los Angeles into second as the Dodgers slipped to third with a 13-5 defeat at Cincinnati in the only other NL game scheduled.

The Braves now stand 9-6 over the Giants for the season. Spahn and Burdette each have three victories. Mathews has batted an even .300 against San Francisco, hitting six homers, driving in 17 runs and supplying the clincher in five of the nine victories.

It was only the ninth time this season the Giants have lost two in a row—but it's the fourth time they've lost two straight to the Braves. They hadn't dropped two games in succession since June 20-21, when the Braves did it and reclaimed first place from the Giants.

'10 Telling Days' Are Hard on Yanks

Red Sox Rout Bombers, 13-3, to Sweep Series

New Yorkers Lose 3½ Games to White Sox, Tribe in AL Race

By The Associated Press

The "10 telling days" are over in the American League race, and if they failed to tell the whole story, they told a horror tale for the Detroit Tigers and New York Yankees.

It all began June 30, when the Cleveland Indians were first by one game over the Chicago White Sox. Baltimore was third, 2½ games back. Detroit and New York were tied for fourth on a won-lost basis, with the Tigers holding a 0.0004 percentage edge.

In the 10 playing dates over that span — during which two of the three western contenders, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit, were at each other's throat every day — Cleveland came off with an 8-4 record. So did the White Sox, still second and a game behind after splitting two games with the Indians.

The Indians and White Sox moved in tandem, but the point is — they moved, picking up two games on Baltimore and 3½ on both Detroit and New York. The Orioles were 6-6 for the 10 days, the Tigers and Yankees each 5-8.

The Yankees, confused, bothered and bewildered defending champions, have lost five straight —all at Boston. The Red Sox pulled off the five-day sweep in the only game scheduled yesterday with a 13-3 send-off that chased the champs home for an eight-game stand against Cleveland and Chicago.

The Red Sox, frolicking through the Yankee series with 58 hits and 50 runs, put away the sweep with a four-run first inning, then chuckled through a nine-run sixth — their biggest inning of the season.

Jackie Jensen's three-run homer, his 20th, triggered the first inning against loser Don Larsen after the Yankees had taken a 2-0 lead on Yogi Berra's 10th home run.

In the sixth, the Red Sox sent 13 men to the plate, scored one run when Sammy White tip-toed home while Yank first baseman Elston Howard argued an umpire's call, and then closed it with a grand-slammer by a pinch runner.

White started his stroll from second base. He made it to third on a grounder by Don Buddin and kept right on going as Howard — ball in hand and back to plate — disputed umpire Nestor Chylak's safe call on Buddin at first.

Jensen, who had a double and scored three runs, also forced in a run with a bases-loaded walk for four RBI. He was 10-for-19 with 10 RBI in the series.

Frank Sullivan, the winner in the series opener, took the finale for a 6-5 record, breezing in although allowing 10 hits. He struck out seven.

Soviets Won't Predict Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—None of the Russian track group that meets the United States here this weekend will predict a victory, but from all indications the Soviets are going to be mighty tough.

Russian Coach George Korobkov said he planned a full workout today for his squad of 42 men and 17 women on the University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field, site of the meet Saturday and Sunday.

They donned their track gear and worked out for about two hours — mostly light running and limbering up exercises.

Several trackmen asked for a soccer ball and were a bit annoyed when one couldn't be found immediately.

"Do you think you can beat the United States?" a newsman asked Korobkov.

"That's your job to figure out," Korobkov laughed wryly as he started to walk away from the reporter. Then he turned and added: "My job is to prepare the boys for a fight."

What did he think of Franklin Field and its cinder and clay track?

"That's difficult to say right now," Korobkov shot back. "We won't know until we start practicing our relay starts."

What kind of a team did the Russians have this year in comparison to the one that met the United States in 1958 in Moscow?

"Weve got quite a new team," said the coach, who speaks good English. "More than half of the squad is new."

In the 1958 event the United States male team won 14 of 22 events and outscored the Russians 126-109. The Russian women took 6 of the 10 distaff events and had a scoring edge of 63-44.

A major hassle developed last year when the Russians insisted on combining the scores of the men and women which gave them a 172-170 advantage.

But an AAU spokesman reiterated today that the 1958 match was considered by the Americans as two separate dual meets and the AAU is conducting this year's event as such.

One unfortunate thing about this weekend's event will be the absence of a return decathlon match between Russian captain Vasily Kuznetsov and American star Rafer Johnson. Kuznetsov is on hand, but Johnson withdrew last week because of a back injury suffered in an auto accident.

Johnson, a UCLA student set a world decathlon mark with 8,302 points last year in defeating Kuznetsov. But the Russian star surpassed the mark with 8,357 points in the 10 events last May at Moscow.

Ol' Satch, Still Busy, Again Eyes the Majors

BELOIT, Wis. (UPI) — The oldest active player in baseball — pitcher Satchel Paige — is dreaming of another shot at the major leagues.

That old black magician of the mound, who has been pitching for more years than anyone can accurately estimate, is, in fact, playing more now than he did during the two preceding seasons when he worked for the Miami Marlins of the International League.

Satch is barnstorming with a semi-pro outfit called the Cuban Giants. Dempsey Hovland, owner of the 20th Century Enterprises in Beloit and Paige's manager, says the Giants have already played 53 games this year and that Satch has played in all but two or three. The group has 120 games slated.

For Satch it's a business, but not a happy one. He would rather be in the major leagues, where he tasted briefly some of the glory that could have been his in the 1920s and '30s had there been no color bars.

Paige thinks about another crack at the big time, "But if they want me," he says, "they'd have to pay me big money. I ain't going back for nothing."

He claims one American League team has been in touch with him and there's a chance he might be back up there before the season is out. And he can prove that they remember him "up there." Bill Veeck, his old friend from Cleveland and later St. Louis, has sent Paige two new Chicago White Sox uniforms.

The old master, who reached the major leagues with Cleveland at a time when most baseball players are retiring, does not, of course, pitch full games.

But for two or three innings every night in "disorganized" baseball, Satch is on the hill, wowing the fans and making good money.

On base he is as much of a clown as he is on the mound. He talks to his coach, the umpire, the opposing ball players and the fans and still finds time to take giant strides down the path when he leads away from the bag.

As a pitcher, Paige still has talent. He uses a fast ball about one out of eight pitches. The remainder of the time he tosses curves — one so slow that the umpire could go out to lunch on it — and changeups. The curves seem to baffle the boys in the small towns.

But even if Paige doesn't realize his goal of a return to the major leagues, and should have to quit the barnstorming routine one of these years, he has another career ahead of him.

His manager, Hovland, says Satch could be one of the best hotstove league speakers of all time. He's already had a couple of chances, including television appearances in Chicago with Veeck, and he has done fine.

"He murders the king's English," says Hovland, "but they love him."

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: ". . . Trouble with long irons!"

DIAGNOSIS: It's mostly in your head!

TREATMENT: "I can't hit a two-iron" is as frequent a complaint as I hear among high-handicap golfers.

Each time I hear it I want to give the complaintant my personal guarantee that the two-iron shot is as easy as the other irons — provided that you use the same basic swing with it as you do with the others.

Long ago I became convinced that the golfers who fear the long irons are afraid they won't get the ball up with them. They think they need to give the shot a lifting motion with the hands. That's where the trouble lies!

The very act of trying to lift the ball with a motion of the hands defeats its own purpose.

With the long irons, as with the others, simply hit down and through the ball (as shown in today's drawing). The two-iron has plenty of loft in its face to get the ball up to a nice height.

Merely trust the club and your swing.

Flint Netter Faces Olmedo

English Champ Rated Over Fleming in Second Test at River Forest

RIVER FOREST, Ill. (UPI)—Wimbledon champion Alex Olmedo opening his quest of the National Clay Courts Tennis championship today, was expected to have little difficulty in his initial match.

Olmedo drew a first round bye in the 50th annual tourney. But the No. 2 seed, Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, had a first round match with Dave Nelson of Skokie, Ill.

Both Olmedo and MacKay were expected to be the center attractions of today's action, which also includes the opening of women's singles competition.

Meanwhile, defending champion Bernard Bartzen of Dallas, Tex., and a number of other seeded men players advanced through the first and second rounds yesterday with ease.

Lion Refuses to Leave Detroit

Miller Bucks at Trade

DETROIT (AP) — Veteran tackle Bob Miller has thrown a block into the Detroit Lions' plans to trade him to the Philadelphia Eagles. He says he won't go and would rather retire than leave Detroit.

The Lions announced yesterday that Miller had been traded to the Eagles in exchange for a future choice in the National Football League player draft.

But it didn't set well with Miller,

"This forces me into retirement," he said, "I told coach George Wilson several weeks ago that I would retire before considering leaving Detroit."

Miller, 29, 6-2 and 250 pounds, said he has a good job in a Detroit firm and "it can't be to my advantage to move."

Miller, a former Virginia star, has been with the Lions since 1952. A defensive standout, he played on the Lion world champion teams of 1952, 1953 and 1957.

Because of a back ailment, he missed most of the last half of the 1958 season. However, he said the ailment no longer troubles him.

Miller said the Lions tried earlier to trade him to Hamilton of the Canadian League but that he refused to go.

Discontinue TV 'Signal-Stealer'

Moves of Backstops Caught by Big Lens

BOSTON (AP) — Television, which has been blamed with many of baseball's problems, has a brand new fault laid at its doorstep:

It threatened to offer a new angle to the old game of stealing the catcher signals.

But TV, let it be pointed out, immediately took steps to see that the situation is corrected.

It all got started in the television broadcasts of the New York Yankee - Boston Red Sox games last weekend. An 80-inch lens was mounted in the centerfield stands.

That brought the catchers signals right into the living room, offering the viewers a very clear picture of his calls for pitches.

★ ★ ★

Just why it all got started after the weekend games, no one seems to know. Tom Gallery, director of sports for NBC, said the cameras had been used for about eight games, including the All - Star Game in Pittsburgh, before the Yankee-Red Sox affair.

He said Frick suggested the possibility of a club putting a TV receiver in a dugout and then getting a line on what pitches would be thrown.

Nike Grabs Final Spot for Playoffs

Only place left in the Avondale Softball league playoffs was nailed last night by the Nike Battery team, with a 15-5 win over Church of God. Nike qualified for the top bracket of the 8-team series starting next Monday night.

With the count 3-0 for Church of God, Nike blasted a 10-run 4th frame and followed with five more in the 5th, when the 10-run rule was invoked. Solo homers by Bob Myers and Herb Coder highlighted the big 4th. Al Remington was the winning pitcher.

Nike plays United Presbyterian in the A-playoff opener, with Lake Orion RLDS and Pontiac RLDS in the other "A" game. Pontiac was the regular season winner.

Miss Sharp Faces Teenager in State Opener

Tough Test for Sally

JACKSON, Mich (AP)—Sally Sharp of Birmingham faces one of the lowest scoring fields in years today as match play in the 43rd women's State amateur golf tournament opens at the Country Club of Jackson.

★ ★ ★

Indications were that the tournament would produce some of the best scoring in years.

Mrs Harold Marquardt, the 1953 champion, from Mount Clemens, set the qualifying pace yesterday with a 37-38—75, two over par, that tied the women's competitive course record. She was to play Mrs. Jack Scripsema (81) of Grand Rapids, a former runnerup, in her first match.

There were six qualifiers in the 70s and it took an 83 to win a place in the bracket of 16. Ninety-six players started.

Mrs. Keith LeClair of Ann Arbor, one of the favorites, shot a 78 and plays Sharon Miller (83), an 18-year-old Marshall girl, in an upper bracket match. Two former champions, Mrs. Edgar Reynolds (77) of Lansing and Mrs. Donald Weiss of Flint, also are in an upper bracket match with Mrs. E. L. Goddard (79), Detroit public course player, and Mrs. Blaine Johnson (83) of Jackson completing the bracket.

Mrs. C. U. Wilson of Ann Arbor, another of the former champions, was paired with Mrs. Nels Michelson (83), of Lansing, with Mrs. Dwight Anneaux of St. Joseph (78) playing Miss Helen Grinnell (82) of Detroit. Mrs. Anneaux, a former Chicago District champion, won the women's Western Michigan tourney over this course last year.

Mrs. Robert Vinton (80) of Detroit and Mrs. Samuel Gawne (83) of Bloomfield Hills round out the lower half.

Pontiac Player Cards Four Birdies; Barker Shoots 75 at Denver

(Special to The Pontiac Press)

DENVER, Colo. — Pontiac's Wally Smith fired an even par 71 Monday to lead the Michigan delegation in the first round of qualifying for match play in the National Public Links golf tournament at Wellshire Golf Club.

The low 64 shooters at the end of today's 18-hole qualifiers will enter match play, which runs Wednesday through Saturday.

Smith, the Royal Oak policeman, went four over par on the front side yesterday, but came back strong with four birdies on the back nine. His card read 39-32.

He just missed an eagle three on the 10th hole where he putted from 12 feet and lipped the cup. Smith holed a six-foot putt for a birdie on No. 13, a seven-footer for a "bird" on the 17th green and an 11-footer for a birdie at No. 18.

Jim Briegal of Ann Arbor, subbing for Pontiac's Bill Pembroke, was Michigan's next best shooter on opening day with a 72. Plymouth's Ty Caplin, the Michigan State golfer who is replacing Mike Andonian of Pontiac, was next in line at 73.

Pontiac's Charley Baker shot 75 with scores of 37-38. Barker bogied four holes — 5, 8, 12 and 16 —and parred the rest. Clawson's Veikko Juhola also shot 75 and Stan Sabat of Birmingham had 76.

Play started today in the second half of the qualifying round for the National Public Links golf tournament with indications that a pair of 75s will be needed to qualify for match play starting tomorrow.

Seventy-six of the field of 150 equaled or beat that score in yesterday's first 18 holes of medal play.

After today's round over the 6,617-yard, par 35-36-71 Wellshire course, the field will be cut to 64 players.

Two 67s were fired in yesterday's first round — by Hal McCommas, 24, of Dallas, Tex., and Dr. Donald J. Keith, San Diego dentists.

'Fat' Beats Perc in Mound Battle

A brilliant mound duel between Sno-Bol's Harlan (Fat) Keith and Perc McConner of the Lakeside Royals highlighted Monday night's City League softball activity at Beaudette and Northside parks.

The two veteran hurlers battled tooth and nail with Keith finally gaining a 1-0 victory in the bottom of the 10th inning. Keith himself scored the winning run as he led off the 10th with a single, took 2nd on Gene Shell's single and raced home on a single by Marshall Rose.

Sno-Bol reached McConner for a dozen safeties, but until the 10th Perc kept the door tightly closed. Keith gave up only two hits and struck out 14. McConner fanned 11.

In other games last night, Jerry Layton pitched a three-inning two-hit shutout as State Hospital trounced the Pontiac Retailers, 16-0; pitcher Al Webster homered to help his Sport Shop team defeat Drive-In Cleaners, 4-2, and the Pontiac Merchants walloped CIO Local 594 by an 11-1 count.

Lakeland Pharmacy overcame a 3-0 deficit to trounce the Waterford Merchants, 12-4, in Waterford League softball action last night at Drayton Plains. Rick Jones and Jerry White each made two hits for the Pharmacy club and Roland Jaekel pitched three-hit ball.

Ralph Long hurled a three-hitter and paced his team's attack with three safe blows as Dobski's Bar trimmed the Arrows, 10-2. Long struck out nine, Ken Morrow homered for the winners and Jim Fink made a triple and single in a losing cause.

Metamora Hunt's First 'Home' Show Successful

First "home" hunter horse show held in the new show ring at Metamora Hunt, drew a record field of 120 horses, presented in a fine 3-day performance by many of the area's best riders.

The Firestone entries (Lauray Farms, Bath, Ohio) with busy Christy Firestone in the saddle all the way, grabbed lion's share of the championships, including the grand champion hunt, regular working hunter title, lightweight working hunter, Corinthian and working hunter stakes on the big bay, Mysterious.

Birmingham's Sue Foley was also a very busy girl. But in her case she also rode for others, and in every case beat her own horse, Bantry Bay, or some one else's mount.

The girls really dominated the show, like Jane Bugas, who won the AHSA medal and a trip to The Garden's "big one". Jane won on Supreme Lady, also taking the junior jumper title.

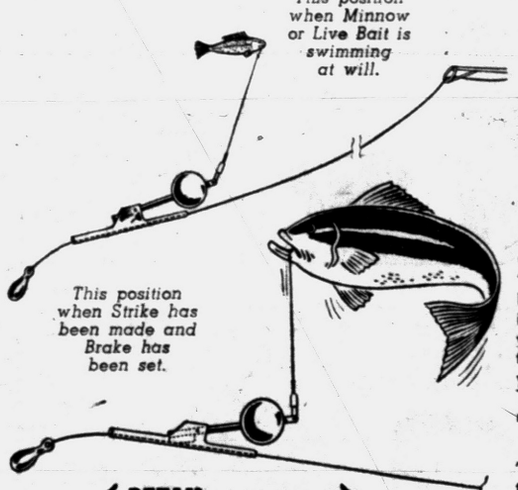
is up to 15 times more effective . . .
(THAN CONVENTIONAL TACKLE)



Acclaimed by fishermen throughout the country as the only sure way to catch fresh water fish . . . fast!

• It's so easy to use. Simply attach the "Go-Getter" to the end of your fishing line. Secure a 2-ounce sinker (or more in swift running water) to the end of your line after pulling the line through the tube of the "Go-Getter." Fasten your leader line to the hole in the Brass Tube just above the float. Now you're ready to catch fish.

There's no need to troll with the "Go-Getter." The bait will swim up the line. It does the work for you. Just let the sinker drop to the bottom, take up the slack, and be ready for a strike. When the fish hits the built-in brake will hold to the line, and he's hooked.

Kozlov Report Should Be Enlightening

Reds Now Can Gauge U.S. Might

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Frol Romanovich Kozlov can turn the results of his two-week tour of the United States to a useful purpose. He is now in a position to advise his boss, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev against any fatal miscalculation regarding the strength and intentions of this country.

It was the Soviet first deputy premier's first venture in his totally indoctrinated adult life outside the Communist orbit. It would have been difficult for him not to be impressed by what he saw in the United States.

To a news conference on the eve of his departure for Moscow he insisted his trip did not change his mind about one thing: that the United States someday will live under a Soviet-like system. But Khrushchev will be interested in his notions about the timetable for this.

It is likely Khrushchev will want as factual a report as possible, to compare it with the findings of First Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan, who made the same trip early this year. Between the two reports Khrushchev may believe he can get an idea of what sort of resistance the U.S. government and public might put up to further Communist expansion.

The two men probably will differ in interpretation of the things they have seen. Mikoyan is an old Bolshevik revolutionary with a highly cynical outlook toward things as they seem to be. Kozlov is a born bureaucrat, representative of the new generation of Soviet functionaries who know nothing of revolution first hand. He was only 8 years old when the Bolsheviks seized power.

Because he was an old Bolshevik and one-time confidante of Stalin, because he has the look of a reckless Armenian bandit, because he is a man of colorful personality, Mikoyan's visit aroused much more attention than that of Kozlov.

Kozlov is a man without color, and the United States public ignored him.

Both Kozlov and Mikoyan were received by representatives of that section of the United States public they are dedicated to destroy: the businessmen and industrialists. These groups treated both politely. To the Soviets it may have seemed more than politeness — perhaps eagerness for the expanded Soviet-American trade both talked about so much.

Despite all the talk, Mikoyan's visit produced little slackening of resistance in the United States to Soviet-American trade. Khrushchev will remember this as Kozlov brings glowing reports of the possibilities of doing business with a certain section of American capitalism.

Kozlov could not hide that he was impressed by what he saw in the United States. He saw vast networks of good roads. He saw humming industry. He saw mass housing and abundance of goods on a scale which can only be a dream for the Soviet Union for many years to come.

He spoke little about these things. But the other Soviets in his party gave an indication of the Soviet reaction.

Some of these insisted that the Soviets were hampered in building roads and housing because the Soviet Union is so cold much of the year. Others grudgingly admitted that what they had seen was impressive, but predicted they, too, would have all these things and more before long.

Kozlov himself, after some experiences which must have been disappointing to him, stopped asking workers how much they earned and whether they had their own homes or automobiles. Too many were doing altogether too well and only grinned at him when he solemnly wished them "a happier life." The Soviets met capitalists by the score, but if they were looking for the downtrodden protelariat, they were wholly unsuccessful.

If Kozlov gives a straightforward, factual report to Khrushchev on the temper and attitude of the United States as he saw it, the Communist party chief can avoid making the same mistake Hitler made—underestimating the will to resistance in this country to totalitarianism.

Transatlantic Cable Finished

First Direct Telephone Link Between Europe, U. S. to Be Used in Fall

PARIS (AP) — A transatlantic cable for the first direct telephone link between the United States and the European Continent has been laid on the ocean floor.

The French Communications Ministry announced Sunday the English cable ship Monarch arrived off Penmarch, France, with the Newfoundland-France section of the cable. The first of the twin cables was laid from France to Newfoundland last spring.

The Monarch spliced into the cable that was being put down by the cable ship Ocean Layer when she caught fire a month ago in the Atlantic. The splicing job had originally been planned at about the spot where the fire began, but the Monarch had to grapple for the cable on the ocean floor.

Still to be laid is the final cable link between Newfoundland and the United States.

★ ★ ★

The new cables are expected to go into operation this fall. Up to now telephone communications between the Continent and America have had to be routed through Great Britain, end point of the transatlantic cables now in use, or sent by radio.

Unveil a Memorial to Suffragette Leader

LONDON (AP) — A memorial was unveiled Monday to Christabel Pankhurst, leader of the suffragette movement which won votes for women.

American-born Lady Astor, first woman to sit in the British House of Commons, led the assemblage of ex-suffragettes at the unveiling ceremony.

The memorial is in Victoria Tower Gardens next to the Parliament buildings. It is a low semicircular wall incorporating a bronze relief of Miss Pankhurst, who died last year. Lady Churchill, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Mrs. Pandit, the Indian high commissioner, were among the 700 who subscribed to the memorial.

Lord Kilmuir, a former home secretary, told the ex-suffragettes that as long ago as 1848 a resolution was passed in Parliament that householders should be allowed to vote, irrespective of their sex. But it took 70 years of uncompromising struggle before the women's vote was achieved, he added.

Of the eight million Americans who work for local, state and federal governments full and part-time, seven million are covered by one or more retirement systems, according to Tax Foundation, Inc.

Corn Futures Show Firming

CHICAGO (AP) — Corn futures prices firmed up moderately today on the Board of Trade as speculative dealers became good buyers on the fairly sharp setbacks of yesterday.

Other grains and soybeans generally were steady to firm but demand was scattered and there appeared to be some uncertainty as to whether profit taking on gains of the previous session would be held off.

Prices have become strong in spots before the end of the first hour with wheat unchanged to ½ cent a bushel higher; July $1.87⅜; corn ¼ to 1⅛ higher, July $1.23⅜; oats unchanged to ¾ higher, July (new type contract) 68⅛; rye ¾-1¼ higher July $1.27 ¾; soybeans ¼-1⅝ higher, July $2.20½.

City Due to Act on Parking Slots

50 More Spaces Will Cost Around $6,000, Willman Says

City commissioners will be asked tonight to spend up to $6,000 to add 50 spaces to the downtown municipal parking system.

City Manager Walter K. Willman estimated it would cost about $6,000 to tear down a building and add about 50 meters to the city-owned lot on W. Lawrence street, between Saginaw and Cass.

The building, which the city bought three years ago, is the former home of Standard Electric Co. The Army had been leasing the building for a reserve training center until last month.

There are 17 meters located next to the building now. Willman contemplates tearing down the building and adding three more rows of meters, 17 meters to a row.

Two hearings are on zoning changes recommended by the Planning Commission. One would see the north side of West Huron street, between Thorpe and Mark, rezoned from residential to personal service. The other would see seven lots on the north side of Perry street, Clarence to Glenwood, rezoned from partially residential and commercial to wholly commercial.

Commissioners are prepared to adopt both changes after the hearings.

The other hearings are on intention to proceed with eight sidewalk projects, including the west side of East boulevard, between Michigan and the Clinton River bridge; both sides of Arlene avenue, Madison to Columbia; 300 feet on the south side of Perry street, Joslyn eastward; 1,000 feet on the north side of Perry, Madison southward; east side of Parkwood avenue, Perry to Manhattan; both sides of Robinwood, Baltimore to Manhattan; south side of Rundell street, Saginaw to Hamilton, and the west side of N. Saginaw street, Rundell to north of Virginia.

Children's Pool Sails Aloft on Whirlwind

Waterford Township residents living in the Watkins Lake area were startled yesterday by a freak whirlwind that picked up a kiddies' swimming pool, hurled it a mile away and raised shingles on three houses.

"It sounded just like a small tornado going through the yard," said Mrs. Donald Drouillard of 4178 Silver Birch Dr.

A heavy wheelbarrow had been holding the 6-foot swimming pool down, when the whirling wind went through, tossing the wheelbarrow over and lifting the pool into the air.

Most of the neighbors in the area had heard the humming wind approaching from the south, and watched in astonishment as the pool soared higher in the sky until "it looked like a dime."

All of the shingles on the Drouillard house were lifted straight up, as were those of neighbors on each side of the Drouillards' house. Aside from scattered debris, there was no damage to property or individuals.

Area Man Guilty of Reckless Boating

ADDISON TOWNSHIP—A Lakeville man pleaded guilty to a charge of "reckless operation of a motorboat" yesterday and was fined $100 and $10 costs by Justice Raymond P. Snyder.

★ ★ ★

Leo Vrabel was the driver of a boat which floundered in Lakeville Lake July 5, nearly causing the death of a Detroit mother, Mrs. Rose E. Kulczyk. She, her four-year-old son, Frank, and Mr. and Mrs. Vrabel were all thrown into the water as their overloaded boat sank.

★ ★ ★

Arrest City Merchant for Disobeying Officer

A traffic incident resulted in the arrest today of Abe Lapides, owner of the Osmun's men's wear stores, who was freed under $50 police bond until arraignment in Pontiac Municipal Court.

Patrolman William Davis charged that Lapides failed to obey instructions at the intersection of Huron and Saginaw streets. Eastbound Huron street traffic was being temporarily routed north and south on Saginaw today because the Huron street block between Saginaw and Mill street was being asphalted.

Steel Deadline Quiets Market

Some of the more speculative issues were moderately active. Among these, American Motors, Studebaker-Packard and Glen Alden picked up fractions while Howe Sound dropped a bit.

Xway Weighmaster Uneasy Host to Lions

MONROE (AP) — Four powerful lions in a flimsy-looking truck gave a State Highway Department weighmaster some uneasy hours yesterday until their owner claimed them.

Trevor Thompson, manager of the Detroit-Toledo Expressway weigh station, didn't know a trailer left with him Sunday night carried the lions until a curious truck driver looked inside.

"Lions?" said Thompson. "What lions?" There they were, wellclawed and hungry.

Thompson called the Monroe County dog warden who had a sheriff's officer stand by with a rifle "just in case" while the big cats were fed and watered.

Parents to Keep Adopted Child

State Supreme Court Denies Plea for Return by Natural Mother

Custody of their adopted daughter, Lauren Rae, 3, will be retained by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Lewis Jr. of 4292 Kenmore St., Berkley, the Michigan Supreme Court ruled yesterday.

The plea of the natural mother for return of the child she bore but never saw was turned down by the court.

In affirming the Oakland County Circuit Court, the tribunal ruled against Mrs. Mona Hill, 36, vice president of a Detroit employment agency, who lived for many years in England.

"The whole system of adoption provided by our laws would be largely destroyed if a final order of adoption could be set aside because of a change of circumstances or mind on the part of the originally-consenting mother."

Suspect Cigarette Started $40,000 Royal Oak Fire

ROYAL OAK—A neglected cigarette butt is suspected by Royal Oak Firemen to have sparked a $40,000 blaze here yesterday.

The fire at the Modern Sleep Shop at 200 S. Main street destroyed 150 foam-rubber mattresses and plastic furniture when it broke out in a stockroom of the building.

An unidentified truck driver called in the alarm and started to throw the flaming mattresses into an alley behind the shop.

Firemen from Troy also were called in to fight the flames. A volunteer member of the department, Donald Marceau, suffered minor cuts and was treated at William Beaumont Hospital here and released.

DSR to Ask Bids on 150 to 300 New Coaches

The DSR Commission voted yesterday to ask manufacturers for immediate bids. Alternate bids were asked on 150 coaches and the full 300 coaches.

DSR commissioners visited the General Motors Truck & Coach Division plant in Pontiac last week, and Commission Manager Leo J. Nowicki said he liked what he saw in the new streamlined buses being turned out there.

Bids are expected to be opened sometime next month when the final decision will be made as to how many coaches will be purchased. The larger number os expected to cost Detroit an estimated $7,500,000, Nowicki said.

High Court Won't Rehear Dye Case

The end of the legal ladder appeared near for Clifford B. Dye, former Fenton village attorney, after the State Supreme Court yesterday denied his request that it rehear his 1956 assault conviction case.

Dye, 57, now a practicing attorney in Fenton, said he "can't believe the Supreme Court has denied my request for an opportunity for a rehearing."

"I can't believe that until I see it in writing under the name of the State Supreme Court," Dye said.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams sentenced Dye to 2 to 10 years in Jackson Prison more than three years ago after a jury convicted him of assault with intent to do great bodily harm. A guilty verdict was returned in the non-fatal shooting of William C. Clark in 1955 following disputes between Dye and Clark over management of a farm leased by Clark from Dye's sister.

The Supreme Court affirmed the conviction by a 5 to 3 vote last month. Dye's attorney immediately asked for a rehearing.

George F. Taylor, chief assistant prosecutor for the county, said his office now waits upon the written order of the denial of the rehearing "before we can follow through to have Dye taken to Jackson Prison."

Dye said he, too, wants to see the order first and then he would consult with his attorney on what his next legal course might be. Taylor has said he wouldn't be surprised to see Dye take the case as high as Federal Court.

"There's a possibility he could take it there under due process just for another delay," Taylor said.

City Worker's 5 Children Die in Blaze

Rally to Aid Fire Victims

Friends and total strangers were rallying to the aid of a Pontiac factory worker who returned to his Mount Clemens home yesterday to find five of his children dead and a sixth and his wife injured.

His wife Margaret, 26, was in critical condition today at St. Joseph's Hospital. Deborah, 8, is in the hospital, also, with a broken leg.

Mrs. Langlois' efforts to save five of her other children were futile after fire engulfed their two-story frame home near the downtown area.

Mrs. Langlois suffered burns over most of her upper body when she braved the flames to throw Deborah to rescuers from a second-story window before leaping herself.

The mother and six children were still asleep when Langlois left for work at GMC here. Firemen said the blaze apparently started in the kitchen shortly afterward.

A Mount Clemens radio station spokesman said more than $300 has been contributed to the "Langlois Disaster Fund" after only a few initial pleas were broadcasted. He termed the response "most gratifying."

The fund will help Langlois pay hospital bills, funeral costs and the expenses necessary to re-establish the home.

Thirty Will Get Civil Defense Training Awards

★ ★ ★

Thirty persons will get certificates for civil defense training and commissioners will be asked to think about adding a section on tornadoes to the city's civil defense plan.

★ ★ ★

Mayor Philip E. Rowston is scheduled to present the certificates of the 13-week course in medical training for civil defense emergencies, sponsored jointly by the Oakland County and Pontiac offices of civil defense.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Drawn by by Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, the plan outlines probable duties of the various city departments, with the police department bearing the lion's share of the load.

★ ★ ★

Stierer said that an advance plan of action would help lessen confusion that might arise if Pontiac were struck by tornado.

Charge Detroiter With Bribery

2nd Man Accused in Alleged Shakedown of Oak Park Restaurant

A Detroit man appeared yesterday before Oak Park Municipal Judge Burton R. Shifman to answer to a bribery charge in the alleged shakedown of an Oak Park restaurant.

Charles (Chicky) Sherman, 54, of 2561 St. Mary's St., was freed on a $500 bond after he demanded examination. This was set for July 29.

Sherman, a salesman for the Universal Bearing Co., is the "John Doe" in the bribery warrant issued last week by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem. Named also was Morrie Sherman, 50, also of Detroit and business agent for Local 705 of the Hotel and Restaurant Employes and Bartenders Union, AFL-CIO. The Shermans are not related.

Judge Shifman adjourned Morrie Sherman's preliminary examination, originally set for tomorrow, to July 29 also. The unionist Sherman is also free on a $500 bond. Charles Sherman is not affiliated with the union.

The two are accused of accepting a $50 bribe from Daniel Lambard, the owner of Dannie's Restaurant, 8410 W. Nine Mile Rd., so that attempts wouldn't be made to organize Lambard's employes.

He says he knows Morrie Sherman only as a boyhood friend. He has denied the bribery.

But according to Lt. Donald Magle of the Oak Park Police, a waitress at the restaurant and a police officer identified him as the man who came to Dannie's July 6 to pick up the alleged shakedown money in marked bills as arranged by Magle.

News in Brief

Lawrence G. Pierson, 25, of 3166 Barbary St., Walled Lake, pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge Monday before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle and was fined $85 plus $15 costs or 30 days in the Oakland County Jail.

Jerry Tolbert, 34, of 30 Deland Ct., pleaded guilty to drunk driving before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan yesterday and was fined $100 or 15 days in the Oakland County Jail.

Boat Collision Injures Woman

Ticket Commerce Man for Reckless Handling of Motor Craft

Mrs. Sue Mackie, 53, of 3215 Adele Terrace, was fishing in a 12-foot wood rowboat shortly before 6 p.m. when she looked up and saw a boat coming, she told Water Patrol Deputy Wright Klinger.

"I must have fainted and fallen to the bottom of my boat," she continued, "since I don't remember anything until I was on shore."

D. W. Mills, of 8917 Edgewood Park Dr., Commerce Township, told deputies he was showing a friend the lake. He was operating his 16-foot metal boat with a 33-horsepower motor.

"The sun was shining in my eyes and I couldn't see her boat in time to avoid hitting it," he said. The Mackie boat had a portion of the bow torn off and sank.

Mills pulled the woman into his boat. She was examined at Pontiac General Hospital and released. Mills was ticketed for reckless operation of a motor boat.

Threat Halts Senate Security Questioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Questioning of the former chief of the Cuban air force at a Senate hearing was suddenly halted today and spectators sent from the room. Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss) said he had been told "an attempt would be made to injure the witness."

★ ★ ★

Eastland said the information came in a telephone call just after the Senate Internal Security subcommittee had begun questioning Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz.

Sen. Humphrey's Hat in Presidential Ring

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey's hat was formally tossed into the ring for the Democratic presidential nomination today by two Minnesota colleagues.

It was the first announced campaign for the presidency.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Gov. Orville L. Freeman jointly announced their co-chairmanship of a "Humphrey for President" organization just a year in advance of the Democratic convention in Los Angeles.

"We believe it important to conduct a pre-convention campaign for an office of such vast importance to the nation and to the world," they said in a statement.

Lt. Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag of Minnesota was named executive vice-chairman of the Humphrey movement. Campaign offices will be opened in St. Paul this week and later in other cities, the co-chairmen said.

The announcement came as no surprise and started no stampedes by other Democratic presidential contenders. The 48-year-old Humphrey had indicated months ago he would make his decision on whether to become an active candidate about midsummer.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), a front-runner among potential Democratic nominees, told a reporter the Humphrey camp's announcement would make "no change" in his plans to defer any formal declaration until about the end of the year.

"This indicates the Humphrey people are stepping up their activity," he said. "Right now I'm slowing down."

Kennedy explained that except for an August AFL-CIO convention speech in Portland, Ore., he will do no speaking outside of Washington until mid-September.

"I believe, as does the governor," said McCarthy, "that Sen. Humphrey is the best qualified candidate among the leaders of our party, and that he can most effectively carry the Democratic Party position through the campaign to victory."

A former mayor of Minneapolis, Humphrey comes up for re-election to the Senate in 1960. He was elected to his first term in 1948 and was re-elected in 1954. He is chairman of the Senate disarmament subcommittee and serves on the Foreign Relations, Agriculture and Government Operations Committees.

Tennessee Prison Rebels Let 1 Hostage Out of Mine

PETROS, Tenn. (AP) — Rebellious prisoners at Brushy Mountain State Prison today released one of the three hostages they held about a mile underground in a coal mine.

Warden Frank Llewellyn said Shirley Bunch, 63, was turned loose because he was ill. Bunch, one of the three foremen taken Monday as hostage, walked into the prison administration building this morning.

"I don't know why they released me," Bunch told waiting newsmen. "They just took a notion to do it because of my age, I guess."

Llewellyn said Asst. Corrections Commissioner Pat Patterson was talking to eight or 10 spokesmen for the 95 rebellious convicts still underground, 26 hours after they first seized the hostages.

Gov. Buford Ellington ordered Patterson to make no further concessions to the convicts.

The convicts took over the mine 40 miles northwest of Knoxville at the start of the day shift Monday, grabbing three unarmed foremen as hostages and sending the mine superintendent up as a messenger to prison officials.

They threatened to dynamite or burn the 1½-mile mine shaft unless they were granted their demands, which ranged from more food to better working conditions.

One official said the men had explosives enough "to blow up the whole mountain." Possibly 200 sticks of dynamite were in the mine, but the convicts were not believed to have any weapons.

Origin of the $ sign is a mystery. But the National Geographic Society says the most wildly accepted theory is that it evolved from the Spanish abbreviation "Ps" for piasters or the same Mexican symbol for pesos. Old manuscripts show that the "s" gradually came to be written over the "P" and this looked a lot like today's $.

One-Man Jury Again Upheld

State Supreme Court Affirms Unique Law's Constitutionality

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's one-man grand jury law has survived another state Supreme Court test.

Justice Leland W. Carr, who conducted probably the most sensational grand jury in state history, wrote the opinion which affirmed the constitutionality of the law, unique in the nation.

In the grand jury case, the court unanimously upheld the conviction of four gamblers, but four of the eight justices questioned whether the legality of the law had been properly raised by Carr.

Emery Dungey, Henry Adkins, Edward Clark and Otto Nicholas were convicted of gambling charges by Circuit Judge John Baker of Genesee County. The convictions stemmed from charges brought by a one-man grand jury run by Circuit Judge Michael Garland of Owosso.

The gamblers complained about the secrecy of the jury. Carr said this "is a requisite for the protection of the innocent as well as for the effective conducting of the investigation."

Carr also defended the power given to the grand jury. As a circuit judge in Ingham County in the 1940s, he conducted a grand jury investigation of graft and corruption in state government. A number of convictions resulted, with the late Kim Sigler, later to become governor, handling the prosecution.

The Supreme Court has previously upheld the constitutionality of the grand jury law.

Shopping Area Merchants Get Expert's Tips

Under the auspices of The Pontiac Press, Donald Curtis, Redbook Magazine's expert on shopping center merchandising, lectured on the subject before two separate groups today and listened to their problems.

Businessmen of the Tel-Huron and North Hill Merchants Plaza Associations heard Curtis this morning at the Waldron Hotel. At 1 p.m. today members of the Miracle Mile Merchants Association listened to the expert at Ted's Restaurant.

Curtis, a member of the board of the Urban Land Renewal Program, discussed local problems and held a question-and-answer session following his talk.

Editor of the Redbook Shopping Center Merchandising Newsletter, Curtis is nationally recognized as one of the best informed men on shopping center activities throughout the country.

Denounces List of Foes

Long Meets Top Officials

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long called a conference with his top officials today at the hotel suite here that was supposed to be a haven of rest and quiet.

Long, 63, said Monday night his visitors would include Lt. Gov. Lether Frazer, who has been acting governor, his fiscal officials and several of his top advisors.

At a news conference Monday, Long became so enraptured in his denuciations of the Louisiana Legislature, his political foes, psychiatrists, and the treatment he received in a mental hospital that he extended the session to 20 minutes.

The governor disclosed he plans to leave Fort Worth late today for El Paso, Tex. with a possible stop at Lamesa, Tex. where he spent considerable time in his younger days.

From El Paso, he planned to go to Monterrey and Acapulco, Mexico. There was no mention of a possible invitation to address the Texas Legislature.

Long earlier said he would be available until Wednesday if the Legislature wanted him.

Vote to Retain Name of the Walther League

EAST LANSING (AP)—Delegates to the annual conference of the Walther League — a Lutheran youth group — have voted unanimously to retain the present name of their organization.

Some 2,000 delegates representing 125,000 high school and college youths of the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod took the action yesterday at their Michigan State University meeting.

They overrode a suggestion that a change was in order to make their title more representative of their Lutheran affiliation. The organization was named the Walther League in 1893 in honor of its first president, Dr. C. F. W. Walther.

Serum Rushed to Snake Victim

'Mercy Race' Saves Life

An Oakland County Sheriff's road patrol car sped the first leg of a relay errand-of-mercy to save the life of a Pontiac man bitten by a rattlesnake in Mackinaw City late yesterday.

Walter Williams, 26, of 3490 Floretta was milking the six-foot rattler at the Mackinaw City branch of Allen's Serpentarium when the snake's jaws suddenly closed on his hand. Both fangs penetrated.

Paul Allen, owner of Snakes Alive serpentarium, 10070 Dixie Hwy., Clarkston, got a call at 5 p.m. that the guide at his Mackinaw branch, operated by his son, had been bitten.

He was told there wasn't enough serum or suction cups for Williams.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The car then sped to Allen in Clarkston where he had obtained more of the life-saving serum. Allen was relayed to Flint where police already had been notified to get the necessary suction cups.

The Bay City police took Allen the rest of the way. The 200-mile trip took only 3½ hours. Allen himself administered aid to the stricken guide. More serum was flown in from Cleveland.

Williams was recovering "nicely" today although he is "a pretty sick" boy, Allen said. The snake experts say that if it wasn't for the speedy errand of mercy and if Williams had been a smaller man, his condition could have been much worse.

5th Patrolman OK'd for Waterford Twp.

Waterford Township Board members last night approved the hiring of the fifth policeman, bringing the number of police personnel to 15.

★ ★ ★

Hired as a patrolman was Thomas L. Kretz, 23, of 47 Peggy St., Pontiac. He is married and recently completed a five-year enlistment in the Air Force.

★ ★ ★

A graduate of Pontiac Central High School, Kretz had been employed for two years by the Pontiac Press.

★ ★ ★

Other newly-hired officers include Richard E. Backman, Thomas P. Farrell, Ronald L. Freeman and Charles C. Griffith. Griffith has been on the force since April 1, by special permission granted by the Township Board because he was immediately available at that time, according to police chief Millard J. Pender.

LONDON (UPI)—Visiting Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi has invited British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to visit Japan, the London Daily Mail reported today.

Waterford Employes Put on Individual Pay Basis

Beginning Aug. 1, all Waterford Township employes will receive salary increases based on their individual ability, rather than the number of years they have been employed by the township.

After considerable discussion, the Board approved the permanent establishment of salaries of firemen and policemen, as submitted in the annual budget. Additional benefits for the police will be a $150 yearly allowance for each of the four plainclothesmen in the department.

For patrolmen and regular firemen, the starting salary was set at $4,836 with $5,252 tops in that classification. The employe will receive pay raises only upon recommendation by his department head, and approval by the Township Board. Each individual must merit the increase, it was stipulated.

The Board also established a 63-hour work week instead of the former 72 hours for firemen. This will give each of the 10 regular men a day off every eighth day rather than every 16.

Two captains will be appointed in the Fire Department, effective Aug. 1, with a starting salary of $5,564 each.

Starting salaries of water, sewer and cemetery employes was reduced from $2 to $1.85 an hour with tops for laborers set at $2.30 an hour. Employes in these departments will be provided with three changes of clothing weekly, which amounts to approximately $90 a year as "fringe benefits."

Administrative workers with no experience will start at $1.50 an hour, with six different possibilities of reclassification. All automatic pay raises have been eliminated.

One more step is necessary before the entire classification will have been established, according to Township Clerk James R. Seeterlin. Vacation pay benefits will be worked out and put into effect in the near future, he said.

Ferndale Man to Be Arraigned

Admits $11,500 Robbery

A 33-year-old Ferndale man who pleaded guilty in Livingston County Courthouse yesterday to the armed robbery of $11,500 from an elderly Conway Township couple is scheduled for sentencing July 27.

Elwood W. Hayes of 393 E. Cambourne St., Ferndale, implicated himself and a Royal Oak man in the holdup of Mr. and Mrs. Wasyl Gwozdzik while being questioned by police in Detroit about other robberies.

Hayes, the father of four, said he and his partner in the theft, Maurice Thibodeau, 32, of 3801 Rochester St., Royal Oak, went to the couple's home after learning they kept a large amount of money in their farm home.

Thibodeau is currently serving a 15 to 30-year sentence at Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson for his part in the holdup. None of the money taken in the robbery was recovered.

The couple told police two men came to their home Dec. 10 last year under pretense of getting papers for a dog the Gwozdziks sold them. They robbed the couple at gunpoint.

Asia to Build Highway Over Marco Polo Routes

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Asian nations are working on a dream highway project that will enable modern motorists to retrace the caravan routes Marco Polo once traveled.

The goal is a 7,000-mile Pan-Asian highway that will take a motorist from Turkey to Indochina or Malaya.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Marco Polo used the routes to explore the East. The armies of Genghis Khan, Alexander the Great and Tamerlane trod them on the road to conquest.

Traders used the routes to bring to Europe their precious loads of silk, jade and spices from the Orient.

★ ★ ★

The project was conceived by the highway subcommittee of the U.N. Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East—ECAFE.

★ ★ ★

ECAFE experts recognized that international civil aviation had played a major role in the last decade in bringing together the countries of Asia. But this mode of travel remained beyond the majority of Asian people.

★ ★ ★

Railway links were described as serving an important purpose but generally inadequate for the entire area. The experts said such projects as the Pen-American Highway and road improvements in Europe underscored lack of progress in Asia.

★ ★ ★

The first task is to build highway links to connect existing roads systems. Some countries have already started this preliminary work.

★ ★ ★

The next task will be to improve existing roads until they can handle modern traffic.

Agreements will have to be worked out for simplifying border procedures and relaxing customs formalities.

★ ★ ★

The region has been divided into three zones for planning purposes. The first takes in Viet Nam, Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, Malaya and Burma. The second covers Burma's western connections, East Pakistan, India, Ceylon, Nepal and motor roads to West Pakistan. The third embraces West Pakistan, Afghanistan and Iran.

TV News and Reviews

Locker Room Triangle Spins in Squared Circle

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Some day we'll see a realistic drama about the fight game in which a fighter's girl friend will rush to the locker room and a cop will tell her she can't go in. And she'll stay out.

In CBS-TV's Desilu Playhouse drama called "Killer Instinct" last night, there was no such luck.

The girl, played by Janice Rule, spent so much time in the locker rooms that I thought she was training for next Friday night's fight on NBC.

Her reason for loitering in locker rooms: Rory Calhoun, a fighter-turned-manager, wants to marry her but he's such a mixed-up tyrant with a mother fixation that she decides to sample the line offered by Calhoun's young protege, played by Michael Dante. A squared circle triangle, if you can picture it.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Former President Harry Truman is said to have agreed to appear on Jack Benny's fall season premier, Sunday night, Sept. 27 on CBS-TV. Benny, who will do three specials next season in addition to his alternate week half hour, has lined up Danny Thomas as the guest star for a one-hour CBS-TV special on Saturday, Nov. 7.

BERGMAN IN DEBUT

Ingrid Bergman, making her TV dramatic debut on NBC-TV's Tuesday night series of specials (sponsored by Ford), will tape the 90-minute adaptation of Henry James' story, "A Turn of the Screw" in New York this September.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon will appear in a special NBC-TV program to report on his trip to the Soviet Union soon after his return next month. . .Lauren Bacall may be the hostess in the second CBS-TV daytime special presentation of woman! The theme: is the American woman losing her femininity?

Hunt Rebels in Honduras

Hear Gunfire Hours After President Morales Says Revolt Crushed

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—Loyal government troops hunted rebel snipers holding out in this tense capital Monday night and converged on a key town 35 miles to the northwest reportedly still in rebel hands.

Reports reaching here said government troops had surrounded the town of 5,000, which was founded by the Spanish early in the 16th century and was once the national capital of Honduras.

Villeda Morales met with his cabinet Monday and in a show of confidence decided against declaring an immediate state of siege. But business was at a standstill in the national capital, and even some government offices closed.

Only small skirmishes were reported after 15 hours of bitter fighting Sunday in which the government claimed 100 rebels were killed, many wounded and 600 captured. Government casaulties were not given.

25 Mental Patients Stage Riot in Virginia

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — Twenty-five screaming mental patients broke up furniture, smashed windows and surged into the yard at Central State Hospital Monday night, but the disturbance was quickly ended.

Supt. J. K. Ogden said he believed the patients staged the 45-minute riot to draw attention to grievances rather than to escape.

It began when three patients from Ward No. 4 overpowered two attendants and took their keys. The patients unlocked Ward No. 2. The patients rushed through the corridors and into a yard surrounded by a 16-foot wall.

Dr. Wilbur Hammon, in charge of the maximum security building, persuaded them to return after assuring them they would not be punished and that they would get a hearing.

The average person doesn't believe in signs unless they point the way he wants to go . . . The trouble with a fixed income is that you have to keep fixing it . . . Sometimes, says Charles Knouse, it takes a lot of scratching to get out of a situation you were just itching to get into. —Earl Wilson.

Arrest of 2 Incites Near Riot in Harlem

The surly crowd, estimated at ed windows and surged into the spread that the woman and a man arrested after the shooting incident, both Negroes, were beaten by police.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Prices on five models of DC8 Douglas jetliners will be increased up to 10 per cent after Aug. 15.

Douglas Aircraft Co. announced Monday that the increases on the five-million-dollar planes resulted from higher labor and material costs.

This Composer Sees Songwriting on Wall

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — One day about 11:30 a.m. Mitch Miller, the Bearded Balladeer, phoned young composer Robert Allen who, being a songwriter, was just getting up.

★ ★ ★

"I gotta have a song for a Studio One TV show," announced Miller, and described the type of song needed.

"O.K," yawned Allan. "I'll get it to you by next Wednesday."

"Wednesday hell!" roared Miller. "You'll have it here by 2:30 this afternoon!"

WILSON

Allen shaved, dressed, had some coffee—and took a walk. A leisurely pleasant walk. Then he strolled into Miller's office, sat down at a piano, and played "Song for a Summer Night," which sold 700,000 copies.

"I write walking," Allen explained the other day. "If I don't walk in the street, I walk at home. I'm a pacer."

WILSON

Allen made clear, though, that he only writes the melodies walking. Lyrics he writes lying down.

"I stare at the ceiling like this," he said, in his office at Broadway and 50th St. And to show, how he lay down on the divan and stared at the ceiling.

And I swear it was just like you or I would stare at the ceiling, except when he does it, songs come out.

ALLEN

Allen has written songs that have sold 18 to 20 million records, in three years; "80 per cent of everything that's come out has been a hit," he admits—but he points out, "Not 80 per cent of everything I've written — 80 per cent of what's come out."

"I really started to tear up songs a couple of years ago. It was a good idea," he says.

He didn't tear up "The Girl on Page 44," which he wrote with Dick Adler, and which the Four Lads made into a smash. His other ones include Doris Day's "Everybody Loves a Lover," Perry Como's theme, "You Are Never Far Away," Pat Boone's "If Dreams Come True," and also "Chances Are," "Come to Me," "Moments to Remember," "The Eyes of God," and "It's Not For Me To Say."

Once, after he'd composed a melody, he went to another composer's home. The latter was going to do the words.

"I played it once. He was lying down. He said 'Play it again.' I played it 30 times. He had gone to sleep on me. I ate a banana and left, after writing him a terse note. He never did write the lyric."

Allen, who came from Scotia, N.Y., played piano on 52d St., and got the first big encouragement from Perry Como, has "written" a Broadway show. He has all the songs and all the lyrics in his head. He hasn't written a word or note on paper.

"In school," he explained, "I was never any good at penmanship."

DA Requests TV Quiz Data

Says Public Should Be Told How Much It Has Been Hoodwinked

NEW YORK (AP) — Declaring the public has a right to know whether it has been cheated, Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan Monday urged a judge to make public a 12,000-word grand jury presentment on TV quiz shows.

The Judge on June 10 ordered the presentment sealed. Later, he said the court's authority had been challenged, and he invited interested parties to file opinions.

Schweitzer said he probably would not reach a decision until sometime in August.

A presentment is a report by a grand jury of an investigation. It may allege wrongdoing but, unlike an indictment, does not charge specific persons with the commission of crimes.

Hogan said in his brief that "the public has a right to know the extent to which it has been duped and cheated," and the television industry needs the facts "to clean its own house."

He disclosed that the grand jury, which investigated reported rigging of TV quiz shows by the coaching of participants, had requested the presentment be sent to legislative and regulatory bodies.

Dump Grease Behind Detroit Restaurant

DETROIT (AP)—A drum containing 30 gallons of grease was tipped over last night behind the labor-troubled Sno-White dining room in northwest Detroit.

Police ordered two men at the scene to appear today for questioning. Restaurant employes said it took three hours to clean up the mess.

The restaurant has been the scene of a recent organizing drive by the Hotel and Restaurant Employes Union (AFL-CIO). The State Labor Mediation Board scheduled a hearing today to determine whether the restaurant's 28 employes should vote on being represented by the union.

Last Thursday the restaurant was crowded by unionists who sat drinking coffee during the dinner rush hour. Owner Walter Nau imposed a $2.50 per serving cover charge which three union officials refused to pay.

Nau signed a complaint accusing them of defrauding an innkeeper but it was dismissed yesterday for "insufficient evidence" by the Wayne County prosecutor's office.

Missouri Man Gets Editorship of Herald Tribune

John Hay Whitney, U.S. ambassador to Britain, who acquired control of the Herald Tribune last August, announced the selection of White.

A statement by Whitney Monday said in part:

"It happens that Mr. White is a Democrat, while I am a Republican. The paper will, of course, continue its policy of complete objectivity in its news columns and of independent republicanism on its editorial page."

Salt Lake Choir Notes 30th Year

It's Oldest Musical Program on Radio; All Are Volunteers

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—In the face of broadcasting's high mortality rate, it is refreshing to report that next Sunday one group of performers will celebrate its 30th anniversary on the air. It is the Salt Lake Tabernacle Choir, composed of 375 Mormon volunteers.

Actually, the choir is 112 years old. It was started when the first Mormons reached Utah, and now is the largest permanent choir in the world. By a long shot, it is the oldest network musical program around, radio or TV.

Some members of the choir have sung with the group for more than 40 years; one family has three generations among the singers. All serve without pay.

Membership is based, of course, on vocal and musical ability, but also on exemplary character and willingness to attend all rehearsals and performances.

The choir, which sings old and new hymns in eight part harmony has a repertoire of 1,000 songs. It has sung all through Europe, performed twice at the White House and won a Peabody Award.

The anniversary show will be heard on CBS Radio, July 19, from 11:30 a.m. to noon, EDT, except New York where it is scheduled from 10:30 to 11 p.m.

Of the 400,000 wives who become widows each year, about 11,000 are under 25 years of age and another 47,000 are under the age of 35.

Only Boys at Convention

2 Teens Like the Odds

CHICAGO (AP) — The teenage Ingraham twin boys from Oklahoma are having a ball at the national convention of Future Homemakers of America. They are the only boys among some 2,000 girl delegates.

"It's an experience that I like," said Kenneth, one of the 17-year-old twins, after he returned to his hotel room after a date with one of the future homemakers.

His twin brother, Keith, walked into their fifth floor room at the Conrad Hilton Hotel a few minutes later after a date with one of the girls.

"Most of them don't have any boys in their classes back home, and they can't hardly believe we're interested in home economics," Keith said.

The boys, sons of the Charles Ingrahams of Mooreland, Okla., said they are serious students of home economics. Both said they could cook "almost anything."

"I'll be a better husband for it," said Kenneth.

Keith admitted he enrolled in the course at Mooreland High School "because I thought it would be easy." He added it turned out to be tougher than he thought. Both boys are seniors.

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Former Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay, 66, was placed in an oxygen tent Monday at Salem General Hospital following a recurrence of a heart ailment.

McKay, who has been plagued by a heart ailment for several months, is chairman of the U.S. section of the International Joint Commission dealing with U.S.-Canadian water problems.

Actions Shamed Wife, Shocked Lawmakers

Long's Orgies Took in Drink, Girls, Betting

(Stranger than fiction, and wilder than a western is the story of Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana and the fabled Long political machine. This is the second of a series of articles.)

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

BATON ROUGE, La. — "Uncle Earl" Long, the mad-hatter governor ruling Louisiana with the aid of psychiatrists, has always thought of himself as quite a lady-killer.

A few days before Long's wife, sisters and nephews kidnaped him in the dark of night and flew him — cursing and protesting — to a mental hospital in Galveston, Tex., the chief executive managed to startle the nation by his prowess with girls and horses.

The saga began at the Kentucky Derby this spring. Flying up to Louisville in a National Guard plane, he bet from $500 to $2,000 on each race, holding a couple of pretty lassies on his knees. While there, he arranged for a few fancy dancers to come down to the executive mansion for a champagne soiree he planned to toss for state senators, representatives and their wives.

Came the big day last May 26, and Long again commandeered a National Guard plane to fly him to Louisville to pick up the gals. En route word reached him that reporters were gathered at the airport to see what he was up to.

CHANGED COURSE

With that, the old boy ordered the pilot to change course to Atlanta, but when the plane taxied up to the airport, a few newsmen lay in wait.

Enraged, the governor screamed at them: "What am I gonna have to do — get somebody to come out there and slap hell out of you? I told you all I ain't gonna tell you anything, and I ain't. Why don't you go off and leave me alone, damn it."

Long remained in the plane, which refueled and returned to Baton Rouge. The governor claims he was "sick all the way from the bumpin'," and as soon as he reached the executive mansion he arranged for some strip-teasers to come up from New Orleans' famed Bourbon Street.

The party that night was anything but a success, as the shocked wives of Louisiana lawmakers watched the governor drinking, performing with the girls and holding them tightly by their wriggling bare arms, while he leered across the room at his embarrassed wife, Blanche.

A member of the Long entourage who has watched with sickening horror the mental and physical deterioration of "Uncle Earl," told this correspondent:

"The governor always held to the theory that a man could enjoy sex only 5,000 times. He began to see his manhood go, and frantically resorted to benzedrine tablets that he dropped in a thick wine that's supposed to cure everything. Then he'd get all hopped up and think he was great again. As soon as we took him off the benzedrine he felt old and terribly, terribly tired. It was really pathetic."

The close friend — one of those who helped spirit the drugged governor to Galveston — said that Long would have died if he had not been forced into a hospital.

"He would kill a glass of bourbon before breakfast," he explained, "and then keep going all day and night on gin, wine and vodka. He wouldn't sleep over an hour a night, because he kept changing from benzedrine to tranquilizers, back and forth. The night we took him away, we put sleeping pills in his liquor, and then gave him three hypodermics — any one of which was enough to knock out a normal man for 24 hours — but ol' Earl didn't even go to sleep."

Many of the details of that wild night have not before been told. Convinced that Long was not only crazy, but dying, the first lady of Louisiana summoned his nephew, Sen. Russell Long, adjutant general Raymond Hufft, labor leader Victor Bussie, and other members of the family.

While they tried to quiet the raging man, Long escaped their clutches and smashed a mirror, broke a window with a chair, wrecked a four-poster bed and began tossing furniture to the ground below.

Bussie then summoned several strong-muscled men to help with the trip, and when the struggling governor found himself being transferred from his bed to a stretcher in the executive mansion, he bellowed:

The well-meaning conspirators shifted their human cargo from a station wagon to a National Guard plane at the airport and took off in a drizzling rain. En route, Long insistently ordered a sergeant to apply ice to his head and bare feet "so's I won't pass out." He repeatedly slapped himself and beat his arms to stay awake.

One of those who accompanied him on the wild night flight said he had never seen such an impressive demonstration of will power.

Long kept demanding to know who was in charge. "Are you in charge, Vic?" he would ask Bussie, and "Are you in charge, Ray?" He would ask Hufft. Unable to obtain a satisfactory reply, the old man exploded:

His fury at last centered on Hufft, a much decorated war hero who, as the Long-appointed adjutant general, heads the Louisiana National Guard. Screaming loudly, he shouted:

"Damn it, Hufft, you ain't gonna be a general no more. As of this moment I'm demotin' you to private in the rear ranks, and I'm promotin' this sergeant here to general. Sergeant, make this s.o.b. salute you right now. You're his boss."

AT COURT HEARING

A few days later, when the time came for a court hearing on whether to release him from the mental hospital, Long sidled over to the labor leader and wheedled:

"Brother Bussie, are you gonna' testify in my behalf?"

Told that he intended to tell the truth the governor prodded:

"You gonna' tell the judge that I was brought here against my will, and that they manhandled me?"

Bussie said he would indeed report that Long made the trip unwillingly, but would not say he had been manhandled, because that was untrue. The old man thought this over a few minutes, and then bellowed:

"Hey, judge, brother Bussie is here ready to testify that I was brought against my will. Let him on the stand."

The judge gaveled for order and demanded that Long keep quiet. The irrepressible governor then asked his nurse for two glasses of grapejuice, dispatched one across the room to Bussie, and raised his own in a gallant toast to "brother Bussie."

The towering, highly respected president of the Louisiana Labor Council (AFL-CIO) walked across the courtroom, handed the glass back to Long, told him grapejuice bothered his ulcers, and urged him to be quiet.

"I just wanted to show you I'm your friend. If you change your mind, just whistle and you can have the grapejuice back."

Then he turned toward Sen. Long, and stage-whispered a rapid-fire series of unprintable four-letter words. When Bussie rebuked him for foully insulting the nephew who had "only tried to help you," the governor shrugged:

The rest is history. Mrs. Long consented to remove him from the Galveston hospital, because he agreed voluntarily to commit himself to Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans. This confinement lasted a day and a half, until the governor freed himself, commandeered a state patrol car and headed for the executive mansion at Baton Rouge.

Alarmed, Mrs. Long outraced him to Baton Rouge, signed commitment papers and had him intercepted at the parish line. His cursing, shouting, struggling stay in the state mental hospital at Mandelville ended only after he had fired the head of the hospital board and appointed a crony who immediately declared him sane.
