Oakland Is First to Approve Aid to Handicapped

One-Half Mill to Mean $450,000 for Children Needing Extra Attention

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

By a vote of more than three to one, Oakland County Monday became the first county in the nation to endorse a locally controlled and financed educational program for children with handicaps.

The voters cast 11,340 votes in favor of raising one-half mill per $1,000 assessed valuation annually; 3,429 negative votes were counted.

Wayne County has announced it will vote on a similar program next year.

Conducting its survey two years ago, Oakland County educators proposed a law which became Public Act 18 this year, allowing counties to control their own special education programs.

William J. Emerson, Oakland County superintendent of schools, said the one-half mill will produce between $450,000 and $600,000 annually to educate nearly 5,000 boys and girls who have not been getting an adequate education.

Eaton School district, near Lake Orion, was the one district which returned a unanimous ballot in favor of the millage increase for special education. A majority vote across the county makes it effective for the entire unit.

A few districts, inasmuch as their annual meetings fall in July, will vote on whether or not they will come under the Special Education Act at that time. However, with county-wide endorsement of (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Dondero Protests Drafting of Dentist

Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) is protesting to Navy officials the drafting of Milford dentist Dr. Robert J. Lawrence, it was learned yesterday.

Dr. Lawrence, 36, who suffers from osteomyelitis, has five small children, and is considered essential by his community. He was called into the Navy Monday.

Efforts of civic groups and residents to explain his need in the community and prevent his tour of duty failed. Dr. Lawrence previously was classified "permanently disabled" because of the bone infection, which has caused him to undergo nine operations.

Ammo for Guatemala Going Back to Shipper

HAMBURG, Germany (U-P)—German officials said today six tons of Swiss anti-aircraft ammunition consigned to Guatemala but held up here at the request of the United States will be returned to the shipper. The shipper's name was not disclosed.

The officials said the German Shipping Assn. has agreed not to carry such shipments in the future.

Churchill, Eden to Confer With Ike in Washington

WASHINGTON (INS)—The White House announced today that British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill and Foreign Minister Anthony Eden will visit President Eisenhower in Washington on the weekend of June 25.

The announcement said that the discussions will be an informal review of many problems facing the free world. This would presumably include the recent weakening of Anglo-American relations.

At the State Department, an official said he believes the chiefs of state will "re-examine the whole situation" both in Europe and Asia.

It was understood the emphasis will be on an examination of possible alternatives to the European Defense Treaty under which Western Germany would be re-armed as a contribution to collective security.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has warned repeatedly that time is running out on the French and Italians who so far have refused to ratify the EDC Treaty signed more than two years ago.

Presidential News Secretary James C. Hagerty said the invitation for Churchill and Eden to visit the United States was extended "some weeks" ago.

Quiz Guzman in Guatemala

Army Officers Demand Nation's President Tell Extent of Red Influence

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (U)—Eighty army officers have handed a questionnaire to Guatemalan President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman about Communist influences in that country, and demanded a satisfactory answer by the end of the week.

This was reported today in private advices from the Guatemalan capital.

Official quarters in Washington received a report last night saying the army had given the President an ultimatum to quit sometime today, and that he had agreed provided the army guaranteed not to molest any Guatemalans.

But the later information from the Guatemalan capital received here said Arbenz had until the end of the week to answer. The questions were handed to him yesterday.

If the army should oust Arbenz, he presumably would try to go to Belize, British Honduras, where he was reported to have a large sea-going yacht at anchor.

Two former Guatemalan defense officials who fled their Communist-tainted land say the army is on the verge of revolt.

Army Not Coddling Reds, Carr Admits at Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Francis P. Carr testified today "I don't think at this time the Army is coddling Communists." But he said he thinks Secretary Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams "went to great lengths to prevent exposure" of persons who cleared Communists in loyalty investigations.

Carr, staff director for Sen. McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee, made the statements in an exchange with Army Counsel Joseph N. Welch in the 34th day of the McCarthy-Army hearings.

Carr had agreed with Welch that McCarthy's proposal to call Army loyalty board members before him was one of the main factors in bringing on the "collision" between Army officials and the senator.

Welch suggested there is a grave legal issue as to whether the McCarthy subcommittee could require testimony from Army loyalty board members about cases they had handled. He said "honestly patriotic" persons could take the view it would be "pretty awkward to call up the judge and say how come you decided the way you did."

Carr said: "It may be a little awkward, but I can't see if they were doing their job and doing it right they would have anything to fear."

The issue is one which will hang over from the present hearings as McCarthy has said he intends, once they are over, to renew his efforts to get loyalty board members before him.

Sen. Dickstein (R-Ill.) commented it is the old issue of separation of powers between the executive and legislative branches of government.

Dickstein said the issue will have to be settled some day, including the question of whether a committee has the right to demand testimony from loyalty board members.

Police said King killed Mrs. Marshall in a bedroom and fled. While running through the house, he knocked down Mrs. Marshall's mother, Mrs. Artie Johnson, 55, who had been attracted by her daughter's screams.

Mrs. Johnson was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for cuts suffered in the fall.

King has been on furlough since Thursday, police said. He is scheduled to make a statement later today to the Oakland County prosecutor's staff.

June Overheated Already, but Heat, Humidity to Stay

Three more days of sweltering heat and high humidity are forecast for the Pontiac area.

A high of 90 to 94 degrees is expected Wednesday. The mercury may reach 90 again Thursday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau sees little relief in sight before the weekend. Thunderstorms Wednesday may drop temperatures briefly, but they are expected to climb back rapidly.

With the thermometer soaring toward the 90-degree mark again today, the bureau said this area already has had more than its quota of 90-degree weather for a normal June.

It said the average is two 90-degree days. Three have been recorded since the hot weather moved in seven days ago.

The latest 90-plus reading came Monday, when the temperature hit 92 at 2 p. m. This was only one degree below the record high for June 14 established in 1952.

Although a massive cold front is moving eastward across the Central Plains — touching off violent storms — weather forecasters believe it will warm up before reaching Michigan and bring little relief.

A squall line in front of the cold air triggered a tornado near Crane, Tex., yesterday. Heavy rain, high winds and hail pounded other areas from Texas north to Nebraska.

Water pumpage in Pontiac has spurred to new highs for the season and sprinkling restrictions have been clamped on surrounding communities.

Pavements buckled in some parts of Michigan under the searing heat.

U. S. 37 near Mount Pleasant rose some 18 inches Sunday afternoon and a motorist was injured when his car hit the bump.

In Midland, heat caused at least three "blow-ups" in the pavement, delaying traffic while they were being repaired.

The mercury passed the 85-degree mark again today in downtown Pontiac, reaching 89 at 2 p. m.

It stood at 80 at 8 a. m. A low of 70 to 74 is expected tonight.

OMAHA (U)—"I saw him standing by the rail on the right. We blew the whistle and sounded the bell. The child just stood there. I knew there was just one thing to do."

And so fireman Otto Gibson of Falls City, Neb., dropped from the cab and scrambled to the footboard as the train slowed down.

Leaping to the right of the rail Gibson tucked the 2-year-old child under his arm and the two rolled to safety. Engineer Ray Bader brought the train to a halt 40 feet beyond.

Levy Wins by 2,570 to 1,943; Handicapped Project Approved

By PATRICIA A. WOOD

Pontiac School District voters Monday approved a 10-year school tax program by a vote of 2,570 to 1,943.

Mrs. Harry E. King was re-elected to the Board of Education, and Dr. Walter L. Godsell was named to the Board for the first time from a field of seven candidates. The vote for Mrs. King was 2,191 and for Dr. Godsell 1,498.

Electorals also gave approval by a wide margin to a county-wide project for education of handicapped children, and authorized a half-mill tax levy for this purpose. This proposal also won county-wide approval.

While only 4,862 ballots were cast out of some 42,000 eligible voters, See precinct vote, page 2 the interest, even so, was heaviest for a school election in a number of years.

In the race for the second school board post to be filled, Dr. Leonard Klausmeyer trailed Dr. Godsell by 21 votes, polling 1,477 in the unofficial tabulation.

Others in the race finished as follows: Everett C. Spurlock, 1,216; Paul J. Simmons, 1,203; Mrs. Paul Brown, 1,075; and Edward P. Barrett, 307. Barrett withdrew from the contest before the election but as ballots already were printed his name remained before the voters.

Pontiac Board of Education will meet within three days to canvass the election results.

Pontiac voters gave the special education program a bigger majority than the Pontiac tax plan.

The ballot to let the county use a state law to set up the program passed, 3,216 to 1,314. The ballot to levy a county-wide half mill tax (50 cents on each $1,000 worth of property as valued by the county) to pay for it, passed, 3,031 to 1,489.

The school tax program trailed in the first 11 precincts, until returns from Whitfield School put it in the lead. The second school board seat was won by Dr. Godsell and Dr. Klausmeyer until the last two precincts decided its outcome.

Mayor William W. Donaldson turned election courier at 1 a. m. to bring in returns from Bagley and Whitfield Schools.

Passage of the Pontiac tax program means a net tax increase of about 4.25 mills ($4.25 on each $1,000 worth of property as assessed) for Pontiac taxpayers — about $13 or $14 a year on a home assessed at $3,000.

The school board can now levy taxes 6.25 mills over the 15-mill limit from 1955 until 1957 and 8.75 mills over the limit from 1958 until (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Whitfield was chosen by a panel of seven boys from among five candidates. Whitfield, who said he has always wanted a son, was congratulated by his daughters (left to right) Joyce, 15, Sue, 13, Kay, 12, and Mary Jo, 10. Whitfield is a member of the club's board of directors.

EDC Threatens Mendes-France

Premier-Hopeful Must Win Both Supporters, Foes of Army Plan

PARIS (AP)—France's current political crisis, spelled new trouble today for the long delayed European army treaty, the controversial pact in turn posed a major problem for Premier-Designate Pierre Mendes-France or anyone else trying to succeed ousted Premier Joseph Laniel.

Laniel and his Cabinet resigned after losing a National Assembly vote of confidence on Indochina Saturday. Mendes-France, whose criticism of government policy in Indochina was a major factor in Laniel's fall, accepted the mandate to form a cabinet yesterday. He is slated to seek confirmation before the Assembly tomorrow or Thursday.

His chances were considered slight. A big factor in the bad split in the Chamber over the scheduling of debate on ratification of the European Defense Community (EDC) pact, which has been languishing in committee for more than two years.

Any successor to Laniel needs the support of both the Catholic Popular Republican Movement (MRP) and the Union for Republican and Social Action (URAS). The latter made up of followers of Gen. De Gaulle. The MRP wants the army treaty debated as quickly as possible; the Gaullists bitterly opposed to the EDC plan, will fight any attempt to force debate.

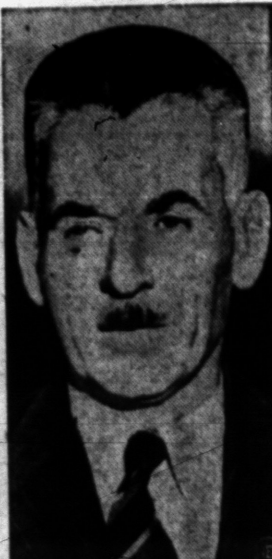

The new Premier will have to conjure up some formula to reconcile these views. Mendes-France's public statements have been more against than for the European army, a position which will probably cost him support among the MRP bloc.

Local Sea Scouts Take 'Oneida' on Maiden Cruise

Pontiac Sea Explorers launched the Explorer's Ship Oneida Sunday when the 36-foot motor life boat made its first 1954 cruise on Anchor Bay near New Baltimore.

Formerly stationed at the Tawas U. S. Coast Guard Station, the boat recently was assigned to the Pontiac Sea Explorers, according to Skipper John Ostrander.

The boat, capable of accommodating 20 Sea Scouts, will be used to teach piloting, navigation and general handling of seagoing equipment.

The Clinton Valley Council is planning cruises throughout the summer for various explorer groups. First of the cruises will take place June 18-20, on Lake Huron and the annual Lake Erie Cruise will be July 2-5. The Boy Scout office in Pontiac is accepting cruise reservations from troop and explorer posts.

Rumor of Six-Lane Road Upsets Town's Equilibrium

By CHARLES MERCER For HAL BOYLE

GLEN RIDGE, N. J. (AP) — The spot where I am writing this may some day be in the middle of a six-lane highway. Or maybe it will be beside the highway. Or maybe the highway will be a block away. And possibly the highway never will come this way at all.

The spot is my desk in our house. After I got out of the Army in 1946 we lived in furnished rooms while we hunted and hunted for a home. The places we could afford we did not like, and the places we liked we could not afford.

Then, one Sunday afternoon in 1947, we saw The House. The land curved around it and nine big oaks stretched their arms about it and people had dwelt happily in it many years.

"This is it," I said after we'd been through it and learned the price.

"Yes, this is it," my wife said. "But we can't afford it." So we bought it and moved into it all our possessions—a portable typewriter, a portable radio and wedding gifts that never had been unpacked.

Since that time we've been told by various people that it's a nice house but: 1. We can't afford it. 2. It's much bigger than we need. 3. I'll get a coronary working on all that lawn. 4. "You trying to go high hat or something move in here?"

We always reply that we like it and view it as a permanent home. For in 1947 we were hunting permanence and certainty after much uncertainty, and along with the rest of the world we still desire permanence and certainty today. So we furnished the house and lived in it and the sheriff has stayed away from our door. We've known happiness and sorrow here. It's become a place much lived in and attained in our minds the permanence we desired.

About a year ago we first heard the state was mounting an attack on us. Goths pushing bulldozers would invade from the west, we were told, driving a super-highway through us toward New York. Citizens of arms-bearing age were mustered in meetings of protest where it was impossible to sift wild rumors from military intelligence. The road would go here; it would go there; it would go anywhere. Some people in the threatened zone of attack wanted to sell, but nobody would buy. One fellow stopped painting his house. A few optimistic strategists figured our positions were secured by a large cemetery a half mile forward of us which also protected a wide azimuth of our left flank.

Everybody felt that a good clean death—like having the highway driven straight through you—was far better than the crippling wound of the highway creasing your property. Nobody, in short, wanted to live by the side of the road and be a friend to man.

Well, I wish I could report a courier had just galloped in from Trenton with a message there never will be a highway coming this way. Actually no new word has come. Actually, as we were saying last night on the porch, life isn't like that.

Yet I can report some good news. Nobody has talked about the highway in several months now. That fellow has finished painting his home. I have spread much fern-tilizer and top soil on our lawn. Life goes on.

The good news around here, I think, is that people now feel absolute permanence is too much to ask in this or any time. No one is bitter or hysterical about it any longer. The sense of permanence must be in us and not in our house. If it hits us we'll move and begin again somewhere else. If it misses us wide we'll stay. And, as we said on the porch last night, if it creases us we might just live beside the highway and be a friend to man.

Recover Kidnap Ransom Money

Police Find Cash, Gun Near Mountain Road; Still Hold Suspect

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Discovery of the $75,000 ransom money cleared up a major mystery in the puzzling Evelyn Ann Smith kidnaping case today.

The missing cash, bundled in a man's work shirt with a shiny pistol lying on top, was found near the Superstition Mountains yesterday. The "hiding place" was less than 10 feet from a road over which dozens of officers had traveled since Friday.

About 100 yards away is a ranch house near which Daniel J. Marsin, an unemployed Phoenix welder, was arrested shortly after the ransom was paid by Mrs. Smith's husband Herbert.

Marsin, 41, was identified by Mrs. Smith as her abductor.

Police continued the search for a rifle and binoculars the kidnaper was reported to have used.

Meanwhile, Marsin waited in jail for a preliminary hearing on a charge of kidnaping tomorrow. Marsin's attorney, John J. Flynn, has said "lots of answers will be given" at that time.

The questions to which Flynn referred and the sudden discovery of the payoff money prompted County Atty. William P. Mahoney to call this "the most fantastic kidnaping case in American history."

He said he believes the intricate planning that went into the kidnaping would link Marsin to the crime.

Last night the FBI was accused by Police Chief Charles P. Thomas of having delayed a description of the kidnaper.

Thomas told the City Council that FBI agents had tried to "run the whole show" and had scoffed at police for detaining Marsin at all.

"They told city officers that the suspect had nothing to do with the crime," asserted Thomas.

He said the federal agents delayed gaining a description of the abductor by bringing the victim into Phoenix for questioning.

The case, added Thomas, is "very definitely a bona fide kidnaping."

The next day the duck was strutting around as usual in the front yard.

The Crims decided to keep him as a pet.

by Dynamite Blast

TOKYO (AP)—A dynamite stick exploded in the midst of a fist-swinging brawl between strikers and temporary employees yesterday injured 50 persons at the Omi Silk Co.

Strikers were storming barricaded gates of the company plant near Osaka.

Six thousand workers, mostly teenage girls, struck June 4 in protest against compulsory attendance at Buddhist services, union leaders said.

Company comment was not available.

The newspaper Asahi reported these additional complaints: Dates were banned under threat of discharge.

Cosmetics were banned, on and off the job.

British Business Good

Because the way British business goes is important to us, latest news from the United Kingdom is encouraging.

These reports indicate a stepped-up tempo as a result of higher earnings, firmer currency, more private enterprise and better living conditions. While there are some dark spots, U. S. News & World Report says the general outlook for Britons is the brightest in 15 years.

The British pound is stronger in world trade than at any time since 1949. Also important is the increase to about three billions in Britain's gold and dollar reserves. Industrial production, six or seven per cent above last year and a third higher than in 1948, is still rising.

The July 3 end of food rationing will bring further expansion of private trading. After that date merchants will deal competitively in meat much as they are doing now with fats and cheese, just freed of government control.

Other signs of the times include booming sales of television sets and more new automobiles for sale on the home market. Exports to the U. S. and Canada, down slightly last Winter, have picked up again.

Britain's housing industry is flourishing. More new homes were built during March than in any other month since the end of the war. Installment buying of homes is being encouraged with down payments as low as five per cent.

The new politico-economic climate created by the Conservative government, friendlier than Labor to private enterprise, undoubtedly has been an important factor in Britain's brighter outlook.

Ike's Farm Plan Rebuffed

If Secretary of Agriculture BENSON has his way, a move to extend 90 per cent of parity farm price supports through 1955 will run smack into a Presidential veto.

This became known after the House Committee on Agriculture turned thumbs down on President EISENHOWER's program for flexible price supports on six basic farm commodities. In so doing the committee voted 21 to 8 for continuation of the rigid 90 per cent rate.

About the same time the committee was proving by its vote that this is an election year, Sen. FERGUSON came out in support of more flexibility in the farm program. In backing the President's position, the chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee cited a pertinent fact.

While the six basic crops—wheat, cotton, corn, tobacco, peanuts and rice—have been getting the headlines, he said, they account for only 23 per cent of the cash income of farmers. Michigan farmers get only 10 per cent of their income from the basics. In only 12 states, Sen. Ferguson added, do farmers get 40 per cent or more of their income from these crops.

The committee's action isn't final as the issue must be voted on by both House and Senate. But it appears to have doomed any hope of a compromise. In fact, a Democratic plan for permanent 90 per cent supports was defeated by only one vote.

If both Houses act on the committee's recommendation, they'll do so in the face of a demonstrable fact pointed to by Michigan's senior Senator. The evidence all shows, he said, that both the Government and the farmers have gotten into serious difficulties only on the commodities which have been supported at 90 per cent of parity.

New Balkan Alliance

An encouraging development for the West is the way in which Greek-Turkish-Yugoslav co-operation is becoming a firm military alliance.

Both Greece and Turkey already are members of NATO. Thus a major segment of a defensive wall against Communism in Europe is being completed.

When and if Western Germany becomes a member of the alliance, through EDC or otherwise, the chain of free Nations indeed will be impressive. It will extend from Norway to the Black Sea with only Sweden, Switzerland and Austria outside the fold.

Turkey has been most helpful in moulding this new alliance. While in New York recently Turkish Premier Menderes voiced the hope that Italy could be brought into the pact. This he believes would end Italo-Yugoslav friction and substitute for it the co-operation of these two Adriatic neighbors.

The free and helpful association of these Nations should make a powerful impression on the nearby Russian satellites—Albania, Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary. The people of those countries can't fail to notice the difference between life in a police state and in a free society.

Floral Display Now at Its Best; the Roses Are Tops

Daffynition
 Jaywalkers: People whose feet are killing them.

In this gorgeous flower parade, the roses are just coming into their best of the season. The best display reported to date is that of

Mrs. LeRoy Fenton of Rochester, who has a bush of American Beauties with nearly one thousand blossoms, some of which measure six inches across. This column's peony marathon is getting interesting, as now comes

Mrs. Russell Matthews of Auburn Heights, who has a clump with 140 blossoms and buds. The snow balls are not to be found lacking, as

Mrs. Harold Malcolmson of Keego Harbor reports some blossoms as large as a basketball. And in connection with any item about the beautiful outdoors at this season in this area, nothing can be more eye appealing than the grounds at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

My traveling scout, just back from a 750-mile weekend swing through Northern Michigan, says everything is beautiful there, but all that it has above our own Oakland County is the blending of the other greens with those of the pines.

"Nothing would be a better stimulant to the Detroit Tigers," says that old baseball fan,

Harvey Middleton, "than for us to give them a rousing home reception following that disastrous eastern trip—and we will do just that."

None of this ready-made paraphernalia goes for

Dr. Jack W. Bell, Scoutmaster of Pontiac Troop 244 of the Boy Scouts, and his boys. Selected to do an Indian pageant at the camporee pow wow at Camp Agawan next Saturday evening, they went to a turkey farm and plucked the required fowls, and dyed them in colors needed for the ceremony.

In reply to the anger shown by "Southern Hospitality Phooey," a letter signed only by

"Pontiac Resident" says that he was extended every courtesy on a trip to and from Florida, "because we observed the speed limits—which are plainly marked."

Visiting relatives in Pontiac and Birmingham, Miss Bonny Grobstein writes that the hills and lakes of Oakland County remind her of her home country of Switzerland, except that the tops of our hills are not covered with snow in the summer.

Sending word from his cottage in Northern Michigan,

Henry Morehouse says the mosquitoes are so bad up there that he may return home. He's near Petoskey.

Pontiac merchants tell me that the demand for the more abbreviated bathing suits increases with the temperature.

Requests recently received for information as to the location of

Young People Should Learn Background of Prospective Mates Before Marriage

Halloween isn't the only time when people put on a false face. Jean tricked her fiancé by that method, but now he is seeing her real personality. He asked me to use this case today in the hope that Jean will read about herself and save their romance.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
 Case L-332: Jean M., aged 20 is engaged to be married.

"But, Dr. Crane, I think she isn't the same girl to whom I proposed," her fiancé informed me dubiously.

"Oh, I still love Jean. But since our engagement was announced, she has become very careless in her grooming."

"For instance, I'm sure she doesn't bathe as frequently as before, because now I notice 'B.O.' when I take her to a movie. This was never true of Jean while I was first courting her."

And now I can see dingy slip straps showing through her sheer blouse. Why, even her complexion now looks grimy and unwashed."

Furthermore, her teeth aren't as white as they used to be, so I believe she is neglecting her toothbrush.

"It worries me a lot for I could never spend my life with an untidy person. I'm afraid she'd be a poor housekeeper and neglect her children."

"Don't all men dream of a sweet, dainty wife to hold in their arms? I hope you don't think I am being unfair to Jean, for I love her so much this indecision is driving me crazy. But marriage is a serious step, and I wonder what has happened to Jean."

Jean is like many other lazy women who put up an attractive sales "front," at least till they get their sweetheart's name on the dotted line.

Then they revert to type. And if that type is a slovenly, untidy personality, the new husband is unhappily surprised.

So girls, as well as boys, should be doubly on guard during courtship. It is only natural that we put our best foot forward at that time.

But after the sales pressure is off, then what does our normal side look like?

Are we neat and tidy by habit? Or do we use an excessive amount of slang? Does a girl refrain from cigarettes or liquor to impress her boy friend, but then revert to them after she has him "hooked?"

Is she jealous and uncooperative? Inclined to self pity? Did she attend church just during courtship to win her religious boy friend, but now sleeps on Sunday morning after the wedding has taken place?

You young people need to "case" your prospective mate more thoroughly than a bank robber "cases" the bank he plans to loot.

Don't let your emotional intoxication make you confuse your own romantic "feelings" with the grim facts. So ask your friends and relatives for their opinions.

to have a city hall. What I am wondering is if we'll have to dream another 27 years before we get the water softener that was promised us about 10 years ago when our water rate was raised.

Now we were to have voted Monday for more money for the schools. All they talk about is over crowding and finances. There are 30 or 40 teachers hired every year at a great expense that don't help our children one bit. Cooking, sewing, manual training, gym, etc. I took it in school and so did my children at absolutely no benefit. They can get all that outside of school and if those rooms were used for class rooms for studies that they need there would be plenty of rooms.

Now, one more gripe. Where are the shoppers supposed to rest while up town shopping? Go sit in a parking lot until they can go a little while longer, or go home before finished? That's what some are doing as there isn't a chair in a store in Pontiac on a main floor for shoppers' comfort. There could be benches put on the sidewalks during the summer, same as they do all through the South. I think the merchants would find business pick up.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

And while I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God.—Daniel 9:20.

Prayer is not artful monologue. Of voice uplifted from the sod, it is Love's tender dialogue. Between the soul and God.

So while the American public has been hearing a lot of discussion about possible military intervention, actually it has all been on a hypothetical basis. Meanwhile, the military situation in Indochina has deteriorated to the point where American aid could hardly accomplish now what might have been done several weeks ago.

This is a vivid illustration of the effects of a vacillating policy on the part of the allies while the cabinet of a principal ally strives to keep going in the hope that the enemy will make concessions.

All the Communists have had to do, however, was to sit tight and let the military operations in Indochina go on and the disintegration inside the French parliament run its course. There could hardly be any loss to the Moscow strategists.

The world is witnessing the dangerous consequences of allied disunity. The American government is an interested but helpless bystander. For American public opinion would not sanction military intervention in Indochina except on an allied basis, and the French

Reds Grin Over France; U. S. Only a Bystander

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—When a French cabinet falls in the midst of a serious international situation, there is a tendency in this country to assume that the whole government has collapsed and that all the machinery is paralyzed.

Actually, the change in the cabinet rarely affects the conduct of foreign policy. Thus, while there have been 17 cabinets in Paris since the close of World War II, there have been only two foreign ministers—Robert Schuman and Georges Bidault, the present incumbent.

While it is true that every incoming cabinet can direct or reverse a foreign policy, the French government has maintained on the whole a surprising continuity.

The selection of Pierre Mendès-France as premier would be regarded here as indicating not much change in foreign policy, though Edgar Faure, who is also mentioned, might take more direct steps to wind up the Indochina War.

The American government wisely refrains from expressing itself on any such questions as personalities but is nevertheless concerned about the kind of policy which a new French cabinet might authorize.

For all practical purposes, negotiations at Geneva have been held up until the French envoy there can get specific instructions.

But the Geneva Conference was drifting along anyway without result, and the crisis in Paris does afford an opportunity for the conference to do more talking. If they wish, about a possible compromise.

If the new cabinet wants to liquidate the Indochina War, it can do so through a surrender at Geneva. But, despite all the talk about "pulling out of Indochina," none of the leaders in the French parliament has come forth with a formula for doing it that will not be worse than a continuance of the present stalemate.

If general elections throughout France now are compelled, it could be that those deputies responsible for attempting to liquidate the Indochina War may find an aroused populace ready to punish them for their abdication of responsibility.

Sooner or later, all the facts about the recent negotiations between America and France will come to light and the French people will learn that, despite all the published reports about American unwillingness to help France in Indochina, there was no concrete request from the French government for American military intervention.

The reason, of course, was that if America had been asked to intervene, the Washington government would have insisted on cooperation by other allies, then this would have meant an internationalized war.

Such a development might have tied the hands of a French cabinet in negotiating a compromise in Geneva.

So while the American public has been hearing a lot of discussion about possible military intervention, actually it has all been on a hypothetical basis. Meanwhile, the military situation in Indochina has deteriorated to the point where American aid could hardly accomplish now what might have been done several weeks ago.

This is a vivid illustration of the effects of a vacillating policy on the part of the allies while the cabinet of a principal ally strives to keep going in the hope that the enemy will make concessions.

Young at Work Running NYC

2nd Largest U.S. Road
Elects New President,
Board Chairman

NEW YORK (AP)—The new regime of Robert R. Young buckled down today to the formidable task of running the nation's second largest railroad, the far-flung New York Central system.

Young and his board took over yesterday, an hour after they were officially proclaimed winner by 1,064,000 shares in their proxy battle with the management headed by William White.

The new board quickly elected Young as chairman—at $1 a year—and named Alfred E. Perlman, 51-year-old executive vice president of the Dever & Rio Grande Western, as president and chief executive officer.

Today, a spokesman said, Perlman will call in key operating men of the Central to talk over the road's problems. The Central is out-ranked in size only by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

White stepped down as president, as he said he would if Young won, as soon as the official tally of shareholders' votes was announced at Albany.

He promised to cooperate with the new management "in effecting an orderly transition."

In a statement, Young thanked those who supported him and declared: "We offer the warm hand of conciliation to those who willingly or unwillingly worked against us."

Young said that all of the indus-

"Industrywide planning for and agreement on improved and standardized equipment designs, volume purchasing, freight and passenger terminal adaptation to the motor age, the greater use of each other's facilities, accounting, reservation and ticketing simplification and many other cooperative projects are long overdue."

Perlman said in a statement that "we will not revolutionize the railroad overnight but we will build a firm foundation upon which will rise a progressive and modern structure of which we can all be proud."

What salary Perlman will get as president was not disclosed. White received $120,000 a year.

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Baltimore electrician, who recently learned he had cancer, was found fatally wounded along with his 6-year-old daughter yesterday.

A .22-caliber rifle was beside the dead man, James Stanley Jakubowski, 41, found seated in his car in nearby Anne Arundel County.

His daughter Shirley was lying in the road beside the car. The two died five minutes apart in South Baltimore General Hospital about two hours after they were found.

Jakubowski had failed to keep a 2 p.m. appointment with his doctor yesterday.

The Jakubowskis have another child, a son, 12.

Elks Tear Down Wall to Rescue Girl's Pet Bird

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP)—Jerry, the parakeet pet of 9-year-old Mary Lou Kehoe, escaped from her home and flew into a hole in the wall of the Elks' clubhouse. Mary Lou demanded her bird back.

The Elks tore down part of the wall and some paneling to get him. It cost them $200 and four hours labor.

Mother, Baby, Father All Fine, All in Hospital

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Reports from two hospitals here say the mother, baby—and father—are doing fine.

Just before Mrs. Thomas Foeger went to one hospital to have a baby, her husband was taken to another for an operation.

Joe's Workbook Brings Only $1.25 in Kiwanis Sale

WYNANTSKILL, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. McCarthy's donation to the Kiwanis Club auction brought $6 less than a baseball autographed by members of the New York Giants and 25 cents less than a Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute hockey stick.

A bidder paid $7.25 for the autographed ball, while the Wisconsin Republican's gift—a copy of his book "McCarthyism—The Fight for America"—was knocked down for $1.25. The hockey stick sold for $1.50.

Only about one person in seven over 65 years old is disabled.

Family Cat Senses Deep, Dark Mystery

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Irene Showalter saw the family cat scratching at a hole in the back yard yesterday.

So the South Baltimore housewife went out and chopped at the hole with a hoe, thinking it might be a rat hole. Then she decided to wait until her husband came home from work to investigate further.

But by the time Showalter came back, the back yard was minus a chunk of earth four feet in diameter and at least eight feet deep. Police said the cave-in might mark the site of an old well.

Largest Kites in World Being Built by Japanese

TOKYO (AP)—Residents of Iwatsuki, north of Tokyo, are building two of the largest kites in the world.

The box kites, 30 by 36 feet, will weigh 984 pounds each and will require 150 men each to get them off the ground. They will be flown July 1 to celebrate the elevation of Iwatsuki from a town to a city.

Bob Considine Says:

Biggest Maritime Disaster Killed 1,021, Shook Nation

NEW YORK (INS) — For Capt. William Van Schaick, skipper of the General Slocum, it all began when a 13-year old boy ran up to the bridge and shouted, "The boat's on fire."

"Shut up and mind your own business," Van Schaick snapped.

What followed — just 56 years ago — shook the nation. The picnic boat, jammed with 1,358, burned like a box of matches. Only a handful of the passengers could swim. Capt. Van Schaick kept the General Slocum headed upstream, ignoring piers 300 feet away, then changed his mind and plunged the floating pyre into rocks.

The crash catapulted an unknown number of children and adults into the fiery mouth of the advancing fire. Before that, whole families had jumped to their watery graves. Some who leaped wildly to escape the fire were crushed to death in the massive sidewheels.

The catastrophe took 1,021 lives, still the greatest marine fire disaster in history. It was a time not only of great sadness but of hot shame. Twenty-two of the crew of 23, and the captain, survived.

Lifeboats and rafts were found to be lashed or nailed to the General Slocum. Fire hoses were rotten. Life belts were actually stuffed with cast iron weights to make them conform with weight specifications in vogue at the time. Police had to hide Capt. Van Schaick and his crew (which had never held a fire drill), to discourage lynching proposals.

In the trials that followed Capt. Van Schaick was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

But, in his case, there was forgiveness. Crippled and partly blinded as a result of the disaster, the captain was pardoned on Christmas Day, 1912, by President William Howard Taft.

That was 56 years ago Monday. It gives one pause to realize that on this very day, half a century later, millions of Americans engaged in a coast-to-coast air raid drill designed to teach them how to blunt any A-bomb or H-bomb attack Russia might make upon us.

To end today's sermon on a much more cheerful note, ran into Hal Block in Washington the other day. Block is a writer of comedy material. He said he came to Washington to sign up the Army-McCarthy hearings' principals. Said he wants to put it on the road when the Washington engagement ends. Actually, he is assembling an important TV show.

Knife-Wielder Sentenced

Miss Norma J. Kinchion, 22, of 20871 Bethlawn St., Ferndale, was sentenced to two to four years in the Detroit House of Correction Monday by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for assaulting another woman with a pocketknife. The assault occurred during a fight outside a Ferndale bar last Feb. 26.

Italian Police Hunt for Runaway Bride

ROME (AP)—Italian police sources said today that Joanne Connelly Ortiz-Patino, New York socialite beauty who fled from a honeymoon with her millionaire Bolivian husband, may now be in Paris.

The fragile-appearing blonde, wed to 25-year-old Jaime Ortiz-Patino two months ago, vanished from a Rome clinic June 10. Her husband set Italian and international police on the trail.

At a press conference yesterday, he said his 23-year-old wife entered the clinic to be cured of addiction to sleeping and stimulant pills.

No word had been received today of the missing beauty. Unofficial sources said they believed she may have gone to Paris with the intention of returning to the United States.

Ortiz-Patino said yesterday, however, he believed she still is in Italy.

Gunmen's 'Toy' Isn't; Holdup Attempt Foiled

TOKYO (AP)—It was closing time at the Heiwa Sogo Bank here. In walked two desperadoes, one toting a pistol.

They ordered five frightened bank employees inside the vault. All five were proceeding meekly until one took a second glance at the threatening weapon.

"Toy," he shouted. All five grappled with the gunmen. They heard the pistol click but fought on and subdued the holdup men.

Then they took a good look at the "toy" and shuddered. It wasn't.

Medical Science Now
Stops Bleeding Piles
Without Surgery

New York, N. Y.—(Special)—Medical science has developed a harmless, pleasant, quick-acting wonder drug called RECTORAL, that is taken internally and goes right to the seat of the trouble. It does away with the old-fashioned messy, disagreeable-to-use enemas, suppositories, etc., that give little or no relief. Usually in just a few days, bleeding with any accompanying irritation and soreness begins to disappear, and in a few days more is completely gone. It has been tested in thousands of cases without any return of bleeding, even years afterwards.

RECTORAL can now be obtained without prescription at Brimm's, J. V. Hallman Drug, Luttrell Pharmacy, Walgreen's, Thrifty, Blackstar & Jones, Dunsmuir, Cole's, Purdy's, etc. Quality, Keene Drug, Keene Pharmacy, Drayton, Platts, Auburn Heights.

Susan Hayward on Stand TodayWants Ruling Against Community Property in Divorce Case

BURBANK, Calif. (U)—Shapely Susan Hayward is due to talk about figures, financial ones, in divorce court today.

Another sort of figure, a nude one, dashing through her yard at 3 a.m. one day last July was introduced in opening testimony.

The movie queen is expected to be on the stand most of the day under cross-examination by S. S. Hahn, counsel for her estranged husband. The actress seeks a divorce from actor Jess Barker, who has contested the trial, insisting that he wants a reconciliation.

Hahn set the pattern yesterday for much of the testimony to follow when he repeatedly quizzed Miss Hayward on a prenuptial agreement signed by the actress and her then husband-to-be.

She testified that the agreement was signed because she was in love with Barker and he didn't want to get married until he was better fixed financially.

"The document merely relieved him of the financial responsibility of a wife," the actress said, explaining that she was earning $1,700 a week at the time and her fiancé was out of work.

"He didn't feel he was well enough set to take a wife, having no bank accounts and so forth," Miss Hayward said. "I told him I would relieve him of that financial responsibility. I could always take care of myself. The document merely stated that what he earned was his and what I earned was mine."

She now wants the court to rule her two-million-dollar movie contract and $240,000 in assets are not community property.

Testimony on business matters provided an anticlimax to opening testimony of Mrs. Lodee Hazel Swain, a maid next door to the Barkers' Sherman Oaks home.

She told of how she was awakened by screams of a nude redhead, presumably Miss Hayward, screaming:

"Don't kill me! Help! Help! Don't kill me!"

A man who appeared to be Barker, the maid testified, was in hot and threatening pursuit, shouting, "You're going to sign that deal."

Officials in Japan Find 300-Year-Old Tax Dodge

TOKYO (U)—Northern Honshu officials have uncovered a tax dodge almost 300 years old.

They have two huge 18 by 24-foot topographical maps of the 1680 period—almost identical.

One map shows 11 more villages than the other.

Officials said the map with the deleted villages was displayed by the lord of the province to higher tax officials.

The accurate version he used for collecting taxes.

Walter L. Poe, Pontiac High, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Poe of 20 Rosshire Ct.; Richard Neaves, Pontiac High, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Neaves, of 217 Fisher Ave. The Foremen's Club of GMC Truck and Coach Division is co-sponsor.

Lloyd (Andy) Anderson, St. Michael High, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Anderson of 33 W. Fairmount Ave., sponsored by Volture 811 of the Oakland County 40 et al.

Gary R. Montgomery, Pontiac High, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Montgomery of 695 Cameron Ave., whose sponsor is Cook-Nelson Post 20, American Legion.

Little Red Wagon Starts Campaign Bandwagon

LANSING (U)—The Hart-fort-leutenant-governor campaign apparently is a family affair. Philip A. Hart, former U. S. district attorney in Detroit, was away campaigning when the time came for filing nominating petitions.

So his wife, the former Jane Briggs of the Detroit automotive and baseball family, who lives directly behind the Capitol, hauled her husband's petitions over to the Secretary of State's Office in a little red wagon, trailed by four of their six youngsters.

Civilian Frogmen Hunt for 2 Bodies

Civilian frogmen will continue the search today in two lakes for the bodies of two men who are presumed to be drowned.

Michigan State Police of the Pontiac Post said divers of the Michigan Muck Combers will make an attempt today to find the body of Herman Baum, 28, of 2660 Ly-caste, Detroit, who disappeared in Cass Lake Sunday afternoon.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies are also continuing their search with the aid of divers, for the body of Ernest Lacasse, 16, of 2666 Hollywood, Harper Woods, who was last seen entering Stoney Lake in a bathing suit Sunday night.

West Bloomfield Fire and Police Departments are aiding State Police in the search for Baum by dragging the lake, and deputies are being assisted in dragging for Lacasse's body by Oxford Police and Township Firemen.

Who's Gonna Do It?

SACRAMENTO (UP)—City Manager Bartley Cavanaugh said cuspidors have been banned from the city building because a labor contract with a janitorial service company prevents janitors from cleaning the spittoons because they are unsanitary and unsightly.

Louise Raisch and Carl D. Brunsting Exchange Vows

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — At a family wedding Monday afternoon in the chancel of Christ Church Cranbrook, Louise Raisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raisch of East Long Lake road, was married to Carl D. Brunsting, son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis A. Brunsting of Rochester, Minn.

The bride wore a gown of white French tulle over taffeta. The portrait neckline was accented with appliques of Alencon lace, and lace with a floral design in mother-of-pearl formed a wide front panel in the bouffant skirt and highlighted the sweep train.

Her flowers were lilies-of-the-valley and astromaria.

Mary Barton, the bride's only attendant, wore pale blue chiffon fashioned with a tucked bodice and pleated waist-length skirt. A wreath of ivy was worn in her hair and she carried rubrum lilies with garnet roses.

Dr. Louis A. Brunsting Jr. was his brother's best man.

A reception was given in the bride's home where Mrs. Raisch received her guests wearing powder blue crepe with a matching hat and a corsage of cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Brunsting's gown was of rose crepe and her flowers also were orchids.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a navy silk-linen suit with a white hat. After Sept. 1 the couple will be at home in Boston.

Altar Guild Meets at Grace Lutheran

Fellowship Hall was the setting for the Monday evening meeting of the Altar Guild of Grace Lutheran Church. Mrs. Robert Schapler opened the meeting with prayer.

It was announced that Mrs. Louis Groth will be in charge of the acolytes for the early morning service in place of Mrs. Erwin Rogge. Mrs. Charles Turner, guild director, reported the making of new surplices for the acolytes.

Laurabelle Bowman announced that plans are being made to visit the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Detroit. Social hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Groth and Mrs. Schapler.

MRS. CARL D. BRUNSTING

A ceremony in the chancel of Christ Church Cranbrook Monday afternoon united Louise Raisch and Carl Brunsting. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raisch of East Long Lake road, and Dr. and Mrs. Louis Brunsting of Rochester, Minn., are his parents.

Soroptimist Activities Reviewed

Group Reports Its Accomplishments in the Past Season

Hotel Waldron was the setting Monday evening for the roundup meeting of Pontiac Soroptimist Club.

Alice Kimball, secretary, reported on the year's activities to the group. Included in the year's accomplishments were contributions to various service groups.

The club sent Fathers Day and Mothers Day gifts to Oakland County Infirmary, conducted a monthly social hour for Pontiac State Hospital patients, contributed to Needlework Guild, March of Dimes and Oakland Red Cross, and sent $100 to Pontiac State Hospital tuberculosis fund.

Other projects for the year included a $30 scholarship for a nursing student, a contribution to the Chamber of Commerce for the Frank DuFrain gift, and a contribution to Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Women's Association.

Four new members were added during the year to bring the roster up to 28 active members, two sustaining members and six members on leave of absence. New members include Mrs. Sonya Zoch, Marguerite Parrish, Frieda Huggett and Mrs. O'Dessa Bieschke.

June 28 was announced as the date of the installation dinner at the Rotunda Inn. Reservations for the 6:30 event may be made with Mrs. Frank Anderson.

Shower Presented for Norma Gonzalez

Bertha Marie Roth was hostess at her home on North Marshall street recently for a kitchen shower honoring bride-elect Norma Gonzalez.

Norma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jose P. Gonzalez of South Shirley avenue, will speak her vows with Allen E. McBride July 3. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McBride of Holbrook avenue.

St. Trinity Lutheran Church will be the setting for the 8 o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Homer Howard will attend the bride as matron of honor, and bridesmaids will be Beverly Burton, Shirley Van Horn, Jean John and Lucy Sanchez.

Mrs. Charles Beach and the hostess entertained with a duo-piano selection and Dianne Beach played violin selections. Fifteen guests attended the Thursday evening party.

Couple Marks Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Francis of Pine Lake celebrated their golden wedding Sunday afternoon at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Webster S. Francis, also of Pine Lake.

One hundred and twenty-five guests attended the affair held from 4 until 6 p.m. Mrs. Francis wore two golden-colored orchids and her granddaughter, Catherine Ann Francis, wore a pink rosebud corsage.

Presbyterian Unit Gathers at Picnic

Mrs. Bartlett Wager was hostess in her home on State Hospital grounds Friday when members of the September-October Group of First Presbyterian Church met for a picnic.

Mrs. Donald Dickerson gave devotions and Mrs. H. R. Fraser outlined the mission study. Mrs. Dickerson, Mrs. Frank Geris and Mrs. Ira Haddrell assisted the hostess.

MRS. DAVID L. BOWEN

were his cousins, Daniel and Paul Bowen, and Vernon Barnes.

Receiving guests in the church parlors after the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a aqua lace with a corsage of white roses and carnations. Mrs. Bowen wore pink lace with a corsage of white roses and carnations.

For the wedding trip the new Mrs. Bowen changed to a white nylon dress with the corsage from her bridal bouquet. On their return the newlyweds will reside in Anderson, Ind.

44 Attend Meeting of Pontiac OES 228

Pontiac Chapter 228, OES, held a meeting Monday evening in the Masonic Temple on East Lawrence street with 44 members and guests present.

Mrs. A. C. Schaaf of Boyton Chapter 238, Boyton, Calif., was a guest. The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Martha Robertson.

It was announced that the September meeting will be an Advanced Officers' Night. Refreshments were served by the chaplain and color-bearers.

Wilma Newman Speaks Vows in Apostolic Church

Honeymooning in northern Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. David L. Bowen, who were married Saturday in the Apostolic Church of Christ.

The bride, the former Wilma Lynne Newman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Newman of South Midland drive, and the Burr Bowens of Anderson, Ind., are the bridegroom's parents.

For the 8 o'clock ceremony the bride chose a gown of satin fashioned with a lace bodice and long sleeves of lace coming to points at the wrists. Her illusion fingertip veil was secured by a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded with white roses.

Patsy Newman attended her sister as honor maid in a ballerina-length gown of orchid net over taffeta with a bouquet of yellow flowers.

Bridesmaids were Ruth Hills in a similar ensemble of yellow with orchid flowers, Carolyn Chestnut in blue with pink flowers and Kath-

The Eugene K. Lemons, who were married Saturday in St. Vincent de Paul Church, are on a southern honeymoon. The bride is the former Nancy E. Whitford, daughter of the Chester C. Whitfords of Port Huron. Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lemon of Roselawn drive are the bridegroom's parents.

MR. and MRS. EUGENE K. LEMON

Couple to Reside in City Following Wedding Trip

Nancy E. Whitford spoke her nuptial vows with Eugene Keith Lemon Saturday in a Nuptial High Mass at St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Whitford of Port Huron and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lemon of Roselawn drive.

For the ceremony the bride was dressed in white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over satin fashioned in a ballerina-length with a matching lace Etan jacket. A lace Juliet cap held her tiered illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Jean Downey of Berkley attended the bride in a white tulle frock of seaford green net over taffeta. She wore a lace cap to match the lace of the bodice, and a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and pink carnations completed her ensemble.

Best man was Richard Younce and usher was Ronald Lemon.

Mrs. Whitford wore a black and white nylon sheer dress for her daughter's wedding with a corsage of red rosebuds and white carnations. Mrs. Lemon chose a blue-dotted white nylon sheer with a similar corsage.

Guests were received at the Lemon home after breakfast at Old Mill Tavern in Waterford.

For the wedding trip the new Mrs. Lemon changed to a powder blue faille dress with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside in Pontiac. Eugene is a student at Highland Park Junior College.

Mrs. Riley Returns from Convention

Recently returned from Jackson was Mrs. Earl W. Riley, who attended the 32nd Quadriennial Re-view of Maccabees Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Officers were elected during the Thursday session, and the Friday session saw lodge ritualistic competitions, installation of officers and memorial services. Exhibitions by Michigan drill teams highlighted the Saturday program, which closed with a banquet in the evening.

Movies Are Shown by Omar MacNutt

Omar MacNutt showed colored movies of church and class activities Saturday evening when Berean Class of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church met with the Donald Nelsons on Preston avenue.

Orval Robb gave devotions, and special guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hester. Hosts for the occasion were the George Mariens, Mr. and Mrs. William Coffing, the Floyd Levells, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Levell and the Carl Komers.

Graduation Marked With Lawn Party

The graduation of their daughter, Caroline, from St. Hugo Country Day School was the occasion for the lawn party given recently by Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings of East Pike street. Guests were 25 of Caroline's classmates.

Prison Awaits Lapeer Farmer

Judge Refuses Request for Bail Pending Plea to Supreme Court

LAPEER (UP)—Floyd Schriber, 60-year-old Lapeer County farmer, was faced today with jail after his plea for bail was denied by Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn. Schriber, convicted of obstructing Sheriff Clark Gregory and a deputy during the attempted eviction of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens from her farm, sought bail pending a second appeal to the State Supreme Court.

The high court refused to hear his first appeal of the conviction which resulted in an 18 to 24-month sentence.

Schriber was one of three persons convicted of obstructing justice when Gregory and his deputy attempted to evict Mrs. Stevens from the farm which was sold by a court order to satisfy a judgment against her growing out of the failure two decades ago of a mutual fire insurance company. Eight others await trial on similar charges.

Edwin Russell, another Lapeer County farmer, is serving an 18 to 24-month term and Clayton Gilliland, who acted as legal adviser to the members of the defunct insurance company, is appealing a 4½ to 5-year conspiracy conviction.

Program Altered, Swim Lessons to Begin Monday

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A correction in the announced dates of the swimming instruction program sponsored by the Waterford Township Recreation Board was announced today by Thomas Belton, recreation superintendent.

Instead of beginning today, as was stated in releases issued through the schools, the program will get under way next Monday. It will continue through July 31. Belton listed the following beach locations and directions:

Williams Lake
 Kerns residence, 6771 Desmond on north side of lake. Take Orange Grove off Williams Lake road to Desmond fourth house on right. Monday 9 a.m. to noon, Wednesday 1-4 p.m.

Elizabeth Lake
 Family Beach, southeast side of lake on Cass-Elizabeth road. Monday 1-4 p.m., Thursday 9 a.m.-noon.

Watkins Lake
 Watkins Lake Assn. Beach, southeast side of lake. South Shore road off M59 turn left on Forest, then curve around to right. Tuesday 1-4 p.m., Friday 9 a.m.-noon.

Elizabeth Lake
 (Replacing Crescent Lake) Sports man's Park Beach on southwest side of lake on Cass-Elizabeth road. Tuesday 9 a.m.-noon, Thursday, 1-4 p.m.

Oakland Lake
 Driveway residence, 3920 Athens south end of lake. Turn right off Beulahway to Athens. Wednesday, 9 a.m. to noon, Friday 1-4 p.m.

Belton also announced that starting Monday playground programs will be under way at the Drayton Plains and Donelson schools week-day mornings for the first four weeks.

The playground program will be held at the Covert and Stringham schools during afternoons for the first four weeks.

For the final four weeks, the schedule will be reversed.

In the 18th Century, so little was known about bird migrations that some people believed that birds wintered on the moon.

3 Communities Pass Proposal 1

Special Election Act,
Also Financing, OK'd
by Voters

By solid majorities in all three communities, the Special Education Act was passed by voters in Southfield Township, Clarenceville and Farmington Township yesterday.

Board of Education members were also elected in all three balloting.

In Southfield Township, the act passed with 588 yes to 135 no. The second proposal, providing for a ½-mill levy to finance the program, passed by a 678-163 vote. Elected to board seats for three-year terms were incumbents Fred D. Leonard (487) and Will J. Oliver (448).

Clarenceville voters passed proposal one by a 159-9 majority, and proposal two by a 143-17 vote. James A. Nicholas tallied 121 votes to fill the second vacancy. Proposal one won by a 384-50 vote in Farmington Township, while two passed by a 354-81 count. Elected to the school board was incumbent A. Farley Thomson, with 320 votes.

O-JIB-WA BITTERS DID IT AGAIN

DID WHAT? Brought results to a sufferer of rheumatism and arthritis when everything else had failed. The following statement of Mr. L. C. MacLange, 407 Sinclair Ave. N.E., Grand Rapids, is typical of the thousands received by us in our 40 years as Michigan's leading medicine.

"Until 18 months ago, I had always enjoyed good health. Then one morning, I woke up suffering from rheumatism and arthritis when everything else had failed. The following statement of Mr. L. C. MacLange, 407 Sinclair Ave. N.E., Grand Rapids, is typical of the thousands received by us in our 40 years as Michigan's leading medicine."

"I was mostly in my hips, legs and right shoulder, and it's hard to realize the terrible pain I suffered. It was impossible to get up or down the stairs, and I could get around only with the use of a cane. Often my muscles seemed to freeze up and I couldn't take a step without stumbling. My hip would also catch and every move I made was with intense pain. I had poor circulation too, and my toes would cramp up and I couldn't even move my ankles. Besides all this, my right shoulder hurt pretty bad, and you can't imagine the motions I went through in lifting my arm to shave. After 6 months of trying this and that, and about everything, without results, I decided to give O-JIB-WA BITTERS a chance. My two daughters who are nurses, were sure amazed when in a month, I was greatly improved, and now I am as good as ever thanks to O-JIB-WA BITTERS. It is certainly a great medicine, and I still take it once in awhile for a tonic. Because it helped me after everything else I tried failed, I have told many people about O-JIB-WA BITTERS, and they also report good results."

Weather Permits 'Copter to Land at Fallen Plane

TOKYO — Clearing weather late today permitted a helicopter to land two men near the site of a Navy plane crash on Yaku Island today.

In which 17 men are believed to have died. There was no immediate report from the two men. The plane crashed Wednesday. Stormy weather and the jungle had blocked all efforts to reach it until today.

His Cup-cracking Antics Move Laura to Do Same

By LAURA Z. ROBBSON
(International News Service)

I'm all cracked up with jealousy — and lots of other women will be too — over an Englishman who goes around smashing any cracked or chipped cup, saucer, plate or glass served him in any tearoom or restaurant.

He's Sidney Wilson, 40, and he's been as popular with British restaurateurs for the last ten years as a bull in a china shop.

In 1943, he took home a cracked cup, put it under a microscope — and instantly knew what his life work had to be from there on.

"I saw nasty little animals creeping and leaping about like snakes," the press says he said. "Hundreds and hundreds — all from a little crack in a coffee cup."

Since then, he modestly admits, he's been a smashing success — getting famous all over England.

In his "crusade for cleanliness," he's smashed hundreds of cups and plates, always with a small lecture to the restaurant owner on the principle of the thing.

"If everyone did the same," he states, "Britain would be a much healthier place to live."

Personally Mr. Wilson might be a crashing bore, but every housewife on earth will envy him the inner satisfaction he must get every time something goes "crash."

In my house, how many things there are I'd love to smash to smithereens!

Not that I have a chip on my shoulder the way Mr. Wilson has, but I've a mental list as long as my arm about various household furnishings I'd enjoy doing some hatchet work on.

My great big green sofa, for instance, that looks so pretty and feels so terrible when you find you're sitting in a heap of green smashed potatoes. How I'd love to tear it limb from limb or more precisely leg from leg.

A set of valuable crockery was brought to me as a gift 10 years ago from Europe — consisting of two huge pitchers and a dozen tiny pitchers, intended for individual servings of honey or syrup. Have you ever owned fourteen matched pitchers? Have you ever used any such thing?

—And have you two youngsters who prove the adage about big ears on little you — know — what, so your secret remarks aren't half secret enough?

Anyway, you must have a couple of gift cigarette lighters you're helplessly burned up about. I have a crystal Statue of Liberty whose torch lights your cigarette — but who could smash the Statue of Liberty?

I also have two porcelain ashtrays with French jokes on them, another that's a hideous confection of pistachio and pink, another that looks like a cast-off horse shoe, and a cigarette box that plays "The Barcarolle."

I'd love to smash a lamp I bought years ago — I'm in the dark now about why I did — and melt down some ugly silver bombon dishes that might serve some sensible purpose if they were used to fill teeth.

And as for the set of beer mugs bearing the seals of great universities — my throat goes dry and tight every time I glance at the useless things.

I'm sure there's no woman alive without a list like that, except for those so rich they can start new at the floorboards every second year.

The rest of us can only dream of new sofas and lamps, dishes and glassware — and keep all available hatchets under lock and key.

Or we can remember that Americans and Englishmen are cousins across the sea and hope the unfrustrated Sidney Wilson will pay us a cousinly visit soon.

Malan Meets Defeat on Segregation Bill

CAPETOWN, South Africa —

Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan's regime failed again last night to put through legislation designed eventually to take the 38,000 colored (mixed blood) voters in Cape Province off the common registration roll.

Sitting in joint session, Parliament cast 128 votes in favor of the bill — part of Malan's racial segregation program — to 42 against. But the tally fell 10 votes short of the two-thirds majority of the total 207 members needed for a constitutional change.

It was the fifth defeat Malan has suffered in the courts and Parliament in three years in his efforts to alter the colored voting registration.

efforts to alter the colored voting registration.

Thief Jailed 60 Days Pays $421 Restitution

Confinement to Oakland County Jail for 60 days, two years probation and $421 restitution were imposed on Alvin Northey, 31, of 869 Bethune, Detroit, Monday by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for auto theft.

Northey pleaded guilty June 7 to stealing an auto from a Royal Oak used car lot April 29 after a round of bars. He was arrested after smashing into a telephone pole at Rochester Rd. and Stephenson Hwy.

Scientists estimate that the oceans contain three times as many living organisms as all the world's land masses.

Air Force Shows Might at Las Vegas Gunnery Meet

NIGHT FIGHTERS—Air Force F94E Starfires, pictured below, were the first fighters to score night victories over Red aircraft in Korea. The 600 m.p.h. interceptors, built by Lockheed, are being used to guard United States bases. Radar equipped, the all-weather crafts were used for bomber protection during air strikes in Korea. The Starfire has a two-man crew—pilot and radar operator. These ships, along with others, pictured on this page, took part in the USAF jet gunnery meet held last week at Nellis Air Force Base, Las Vegas, Nev.

DEADLY BLAST—Unleashing a deadly salvo of high-velocity aircraft rockets is this Republic F84F Thunderstreak. One of two Air Force fighters capable of carrying atomic bombs, this ship is listed in the "faster than 650 m.p.h." class. Armament consists of six 50 cal. machine guns and the jet is capable of carrying 6,000 pounds in five-inch rockets, napalm and bombs in varying combinations. Exhaust flames from the rockets can be seen flashing ahead of the jet.

carrying combinations of 24 five-inch rockets, one 2,000-pound bomb and four 1,000-pound bombs. In the rear row are four 230-gallon fuel tanks and two 450-gallon tanks.

DEMONSTRATE FORMATION FLYING—A crack firepower demonstration team from Luke Air Force Base, Arizona, put Thunderstreaks through their paces for onlookers at the jet gunnery meet at the Nellis AF Base. These planes poured napalm, bombs, rockets and 50 cal. slugs into targets during the combat presentation.

PLENTY OF POWER—Weighed down with more than 4,000 pounds of five-inch rockets, this F84 is readied for gunnery practice by crewmen. Already proved successful in Korean air fighting, the Thunderjet, equipped with an electronic gunsight, is expected to be a match for any jet in the world. This craft is also equipped to carry atomic bombs to targets where speed rather than distance is vital.

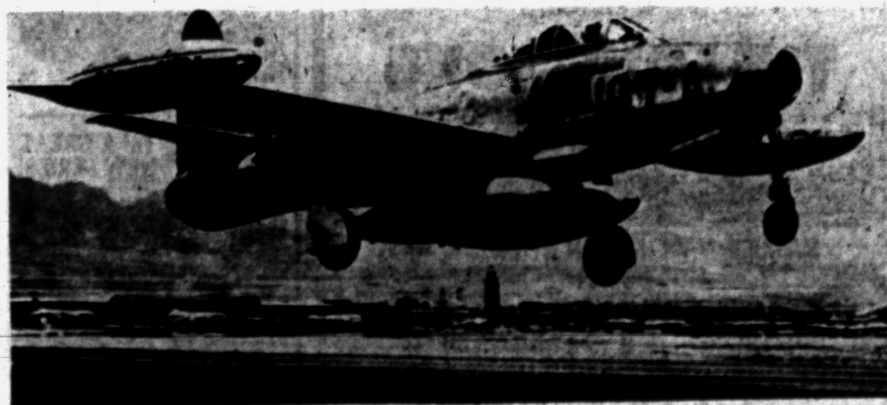

Police Hold 3 Youths After 11-Block Chase

DETROIT (INS) — Police are holding three 16-year-old boys this morning for car theft after an 11-block chase in which police fired four blasts from shotguns and the fleeing youths hit three cars.

Police spotted the boys last night in a car which was stolen Sunday. The boys turned off the car lights and sped away when they noticed police giving chase.

The careening vehicle struck two parked cars and one moving car containing a family out for a drive. No one was injured.

The fleeing youths were finally stopped after police riddled the car with 24 pellets.

LANDING—Swooping in for a landing after a firing mission is this Republic Thunderjet. Airmen say this ship has a world-wide reputation as a "very stable gun platform."

Commission to Act on Ban on Sunday Sales Tonight

An ordinance forbidding the Sunday sale of furniture and household appliances, including radio and television sets, will come before the city commission tonight for final action.

The measure was passed on the first reading last week, with only Commissioner Dr. Roy V. Cooley (District 1) voting against it. He said he thought merchants could work out an agreement accomplishing the same thing without a law.

If passed, the ordinance will not apply to "work of necessity and charity" or to persons who observe Saturday as the Sabbath and don't do business on that day.

A group of local merchants asked for the law to avoid asking employees to work on Sunday and guard against interfering with religious observances.

A hearing is scheduled on the revocation of the food license issued to the Honey Bee Restaurant, 19 W. Pike St.

An ordinance will be introduced to amend the zoning map to rezoned to C-1 a lot located at the corner of Norton Ave. and N. Johnson Ave.

Up for confirmation are 13 special assessment districts, for black-topping, curb, gutter, drainage and related work, and for water mains. A communication from George A. Cram concerning the city's master plan filed with the register of deeds will also be taken up.

2 Are Elected to School Board

Unofficial Tabulation of Waterford Votes. Lists
Johnson, Mrs. Adams

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Incumbent Elmer Johnson and Mrs. Donald Adams were elected to three-year terms on the Waterford Township Board of Education, according to an unofficial tabulation of votes last night.

Mrs. Adams, who lives at 2711 W. Walton Blvd., rolled up 349 votes. Johnson was re-elected with 436 votes.

Also on the ballot was John Bell of 2941 Silverhill Rd., who tallied 157 votes.

Mrs. Adams is graduate of Pontiac High School and Michigan State Normal College. She is currently president of the Oakland County Historical Foundation and has served as president of the History Society of Michigan and of the Pontiac YWCA.

Johnson, 49, lives at 3320 See-hardt, Drayton Plains, and is employed by the Stainless Ware Co. of Walled Lake.

He served on the school board for one term before consolidation and was named to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Jayno Adams in 1950. He was elected to serve a full term on the board in 1951.

Albion College President to Speak to Graduates

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — Dr. W. W. Whitehouse, president of Albion College, will give the commencement address Thursday at the first high school commencement to take place at Southfield High School.

About 145 of the 150 seniors are scheduled to be graduated. The public is invited to attend.

Voters Approve All 3 Proposals

Two on School Board
Re-elected; OK Given to Sell 2 Units

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Voters here Monday approved three proposals on the ballot and re-elected Edwin R. Dreyer and Kern Murphy to the Board of Education with 267 votes each. Voters gave the school board permission to sell the Hooser and Community Schools, 187 yes to 56 no.

A 3.5 mill increase, asked by the board for three years to provide furnishings, equipment and site improvement for the new West Bloomfield High School, was adopted by a 192 to 74 vote.

The Special Education Act proposal for handicapped children was approved 238 to 41.

A proposal to carry out provisions of the Special Education Act also was favored, 220 to 60.

Topic—A-Atomic Energy Act

ANN ARBOR — Proposed legislation to liberalize the Atomic Energy Act is among the top issues to be discussed at a mass communications conference beginning June 19 at the University of Michigan. The five-day meeting will feature Atomic Energy Commission representatives, newsmen and technical writers.

U.S. Not Ready for Atom Attack

Mass Tests in 41 Cities
Show Weaknesses in Civil Defense

WASHINGTON (INS) — Federal civil defense planners frankly admitted today that the U. S. is unprepared to meet even a "mock" atomic attack and mapped a series of city-by-city evacuation tests aimed at saving lives should the real thing come.

Theoretically, at least more than six million persons lost their lives and nearly three million were injured in a fake enemy bombing raid yesterday which laid in ruins 41 U. S. cities, eight in Canada, two in Alaska and one each in Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

It was the first extensive atomic-age raid drill ever staged on the American continent and it tested the home-front readiness in the United States, its territories and Canada.

Federal Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson, while paying tribute to the national-state-local operations which are still going on today, bluntly commented:

"Today's nationwide test has thus far proved effectively what we had assumed — that the nation's civil defense team still has a long way to go in the field of operational readiness."

Peterson added: "Civil defense evacuation drill is in store for every American target city."

He did not specify when such tests for moving civilians from the heart of industrial centers to safety in the outskirts will be held, but officials said it will be tried on a single city basis rather than as the mass drill operation held this week.

Peterson took occasion to emphasize the importance of evacuation in the overall program.

School Board Votes $100 Pay Increase

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A $100 raise was voted each of the five members of the Township Board of Education here at the annual school meeting in Keego Harbor last night.

The secretary and treasurer will receive $275 each and the others $200 next school year.

The board will hold its organizational meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. with the final meeting of the year slated for June 30.

ZIGMUND J. NIPARKO

Hazel Park Mayor to Run for Congress

Zigmund J. Niparko, mayor of Hazel Park, today announced his candidacy for the Congress of the United States on the Democratic ticket.

Niparko was elected this spring to serve his third term as mayor of the south Oakland County city. He had served two terms before going on Navy duty in the South Pacific and Korea.

Also a member of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, Niparko is a graduate of Michigan State Normal College and Wayne University Graduate School. A teacher at Lincoln High School, Ferndale, he is a member of the Hazel Park Board of Education.

He received executive training with Ford Motor Company.

Niparko urges a return to both Democratic foreign policy and domestic policies. He is in favor of the Marshall Plan, Point 4, Social Security, and Democratic housing and farm policies.

The Hazel Park mayor recently had published a book about his experiences in Korea and Japan entitled "Kims And Sans," by Vintage Press.

Last Graduation Set by School

Roosevelt High to Have
Commencement Rites
Tomorrow

KEEGO HARBOR — Commencement exercises for what will probably be the last class to graduate from Roosevelt High School will take place tomorrow night at the school.

Dr. Guy Hill of Michigan State College, the principal speaker, will be introduced by Dr. Leif A. Houghton, superintendent of West Bloomfield Schools.

Presenting the diplomas will be Board of Education President Edwin R. Dreyer, and Principal Donald C. Weed will present awards to the most representative high school boy and girl for the past school year.

Salutatory address will be given by Gordon Veal and the valedictory by Beverly Watts.

The 1954 class is the 26th to graduate from the school. Because the new West Bloomfield High School is slated for completion by next year, it is expected this will be the last commencement at Roosevelt High.

Ax-Wielder Swings, De-Caps Patrolman

DETROIT (INS)—A Detroit policeman almost got his head cut off with an ax when he tried to pick up a mental patient last night.

Patrolman Russell Blanchard and Patrolman Donald Trumble were summoned to the home of William C. Smith, 65, by three interns of Northville State Hospital, who had been called by Smith's wife, Ruth.

Smith saw the police arrive and fled to the attic. Blanchard followed in pursuit and when he stuck his head through a trapdoor leading to the attic, Smith took a swipe with an ax, knocking off Blanchard's hat.

Meanwhile, Trumble climbed to an outside porch and entered the attic just as Smith cut his wrists with a knife.

Smith is in serious condition in Redford Receiving Hospital from loss of blood.

The "dream" that's here today!

Now being delivered! First of the fabulous dream cars to come true—the already famous Chevrolet Corvette!

You've heard about the new Chevrolet Corvette. It "stopped" every auto show from coast to coast, border to border. It was hailed and accepted as the "first all-American sports car"... America's authoritative answer to the foreign jobs.

And it was all that—and more. It had "that look." Like it came from a great line of know-how. Low and sleek as a racer at Indianapolis. With a special engine, with triple carburetion for greater power and smoothness. With glass-fiber reinforced plastic body... first of its kind and very successful. Very smart.

A new driving experience! It had to handle like a dream—and it does. You snug-down into it like you were sitting in the cockpit of a luxury plane. You feel good in there... low to the ground... and the outrigger-type rear springs and broad wheel-treads stabilize the car for tight "cornering."

And the first time you feel those extra large brakes smooth-out a stop with authority, you'll know what a real safer feel of the road means.

Yes, the 1954 Chevrolet Corvette became the most-talked about car in the world. And how the letters and phone calls poured in!

"Where can I take a ride in this car? Where can I try it out? It looks good, but I've got to sit there and drive it myself, and let it talk to me... not you!"

So the first of the great postwar "dream" cars woke up in the midst of a clamoring, insistent market! We could barely keep up with the questions, let alone give demonstrations! But things are better now.

So make a date today! Those beautiful new Corvettes are in production and are being shipped from the factory every day.

There's a little bit of sports-car blood in almost everybody! Maybe it goes back to the racing cars you always wanted to drive... maybe it's as new as the whole fantastic "dream car" world that was born after the war—whichever—slip down behind the wheel of a Corvette and take your chances on falling in love!

And one of the very best things about owning a Chevrolet Corvette is that it can be serviced anytime, anywhere. You're never farther away from Chevrolet-trained service than the familiar Chevrolet Service Sign.

How about it?
 Your first date with a Corvette is as near as your telephone!

FITTING GESTURE—Wes Santee (center), second fastest miler in the world, is measured for his uniform after checking in for duty with the Marines at their big training base at Quantico, Va. Monday. Marine officials have announced that Santee will not be permitted to compete in the National AAU track meet in St. Louis this weekend. Harry Caniglia (left) civilian employee from Philadelphia, Pa., checks the tape and gives Santee's measurements to Lt. Donald T. Jacobson of Northport, N. Y. (right).

Conditional Entry U.S. Open Win Would Send Snead to England

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (U.S.)—Sam Snead, who beat Ben Hogan for the Masters championship in April, is entered in the British Open golf tournament this year, but there's a catch in it.

The West Virginia professional, winner of the British crown in 1946, has announced he will play at Royal Birkdale July 5-9 only if he captures the U.S. Open this week.

Snead, troubled with a neck and shoulder ailment, is one of the favorites in the U.S. Open at Baltusrol, Springfield, N.J., starting Thursday.

Counting Snead, fifteen Americans are entered in the British event, which has drawn a field of 349 players from 11 countries.

Other top U.S. pros entered are Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., former U.S. Open champion and Ryder Cup captain, Jimmy Demaret of Klamath Falls, N.Y., three times winner of the Masters, Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N.Y., winner of the British Open in 1932, and Jim Turnesa, 1932 U.S. PGA title.

Leading amateurs include Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, runner-up to Ben Hogan at Carnoustie last year, Frank Strafaci of Garden City, N.Y., Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia and Robert Sweeney of Palm Beach, Fla.

Other American entries are Ernest Arend, Jr. of Deal, N.J., 'Bo' Winger of Oklahoma City, Tony Penna of Cincinnati, Al Watrous of Detroit, Sean Meany of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and Tom Hulverston of Sappington, Mo.

Hogan won't defend the crown he won last year at Carnoustie. Former champions competing include South Africa's Bobby Locke and Henry Cotton of England, each a three-time winner. Australia will be represented by Doug Bachi, recent winner of the British amateur, and Pros Norman von Nida and Peter Thomson.

Tiger 'Farmers' Beat Parent Detroit Club

BUFFALO, N. Y. (U.S.)—Detroit Tigers now have a five-game losing streak. But one of the losses doesn't count in the American League standings.

The Buffalo Bisons trounced the parent club 6-1, last night in a hospital fund charity game. Home runs accounted for all the scoring.

Yankees Still Seek Additional Pitching Help

Report NY Interested in Hudson of Bosox,
Kellner of A's

NEW YORK (U.S.)—Max Surkont and Vern Law, the only Pittsburgh pitchers who have won more than two games, appeared to be the players most sought after today in the hours before the midnight deadline on major league baseball trades.

The St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs both have talked deals with the Pirates involving the pitchers but so far nothing concrete has developed.

The Cubs, 11 games out of first place, probably could not be considered strong pennant contenders unless they could land both men, but the Cardinals, 6 behind, might still be dangerous with the addition of only one consistent pitcher.

The New York Yankees still are looking for extra pitching help and have been reported interested in Sid Hudson of the Boston Red Sox and Alex Kellner of the Philadelphia Athletics. One source said infielder Johnny Pesky, who moved from Detroit to Washington over the weekend, was headed for the Yankees but the Yanks promptly denied it.

The Red Sox have been eyeing Eddie Yost of the Senators but apparently don't have the trade bait that would interest Clark Griffith.

Buzzy Bavasi, vice-president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said he's been looking for a pinch hitter, preferably right-handed, but hasn't had any success.

Bavasi admitted he has been talking with Chicago, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. "If anything were to break at the last minute, it probably would be with one of those clubs—but I doubt it will happen," Bavasi said.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, who sent pitcher Herm Wehmeier to the Phillies last week, still are interested in Karl Drews or Jim Konstanty. The Wehmeier deal, however, was straight cash.

After midnight tonight no player can be traded or sold until every other club in the league has had a chance to buy him at the waiver price of $10,000. If both leagues are involved, the waivers must be obtained in both leagues.

Lions Lose Promising Quarterback to Service

DETROIT (UP)—Coach Buddy Parker of the world champion Detroit Lions bade farewell today to Pence Dacus, sharpshooting quarterback from Southwest Texas State.

Dacus, rated a good bet to win the No. 2 signal-calling post behind Bobby Layne this year, has been summoned for a 2-year hitch in the service.

Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, was graduated from Providence, R. I., College with honors in 1934. He majored in philosophy.

Next tests will be in September at the start of another roller skating season.

Those who successfully passed tests and earned medals include: Dance Bar—Gloria Hoyt, Betty George, Pat Borey.

Bronie Medal singles—Diana Rigotti, Sharon Moore.

Silver Bar—Kathleen, Karen Biggby, Silver Bar—Dance—Sharon Moore, Linda Wright, Ken Wilson, Jack Horner, Karen Swanson, Martha Le-Rogers, William Rookard.

Silver Medal Dance—Gary Meeker, Mary Alice Clouse, Sue Welch, William Rookard.

Politics Mix With Baseball in Solons' Tilt

Democrat Nine Seeks to Defend Its 6-Year
Streak Against GOP

By HERB ALTSCHULL
WASHINGTON (U.S.)—Politics and baseball mix tonight as a picked team of Democrats sets out to defend a six-year winning streak against a coming Republican team in the annual Congressional baseball game.

The game—it's for charity—is billed five innings under the lights at Griffith Stadium. Vice President Nixon will throw out the first ball. Glenn R. Davis (R-Wis.) will try to make Washington fans forget Walter Johnson with his pitching performance, while Rep. W. M. (Don) Wheeler (D-Ga.) will be seeking to emulate Christy Mathewson. Both played ball in high school. But that was a long time ago. They're in their late 30's now.

Proceeds of the game go to the summer camp fund of the Washington Evening Star.

Zernial, Joost Feud Simmers Down to Zero

Big Gus Now Ready to Apologize for His Big Jawing Match

PHILADELPHIA (U.S.)—The rug-out-clubhouse feud between manager Eddie Joost and slugger Gus Zernial of the Philadelphia Athletics seems to be cooling.

The latest quotes from Zernial, as the A's headed West, went something like: "I like Philadelphia, and I like the Athletics. But let's put it this way—I'd rather play regularly. That was the sole basis for my quarrel with Eddie." Couple that with Zernial's earlier statement that "I'll play when I'm told, sit (on the bench) when I'm told, and keep my mouth shut," and you have some idea of how much the situation has cooled.

Last Friday night, Zernial and Joost jawed at each other in the dugout while the A's played the Tigers, Saturday after a meeting in front of executive vice president Earle Mack, the manager said he had fined Gus $250.

Mack said yesterday that, "I think Gus realized he made a mistake when he flared up at Joost Friday night and is ready to apologize. He's getting pretty good pay ($30,000 a year) and I guess he thought he should be playing all the time to earn his money. Anyway, Gus is on the train with the team."

Then Zernial took the rostrum: "If Joost decided that I'm unable to make the club as a regular and that I'll be used strictly as a pinchhitter, that's his decision. But I'm not ready to become an occasional player. I think I still have a lot of years left and the club must think that to pay me the salary they're paying me."

"When Eddie kept me on the bench, I wondered if it was strictly a matter of my ability or being in a slump. Friday in the dugout, I asked him if I was benched because of that or was there something personal about it in Joost's mind. . . . until now Eddie has not told me."

Joost said on Saturday there was nothing personal about the benching of Zernial, but rather that big Gus was sitting out ball games because of "fielding weaknesses."

Southern Cal Makes Coast Loop Favorites

Big Ten Is Underdog
in Annual Track Meet With PCC

By TOM BRANAGAN
EVANSTON, Ill. (U.S.)—Loaded with Southern California talent, the Pacific Coast conference is expected to continue its track dominance over the Big Ten tonight in the annual interconference meet.

The meet features 35 all stars from each conference and will be run off in an hour and a half, starting at 6:30 p.m. EST, at Northwestern University's Dyche Stadium.

PCC teams have won eight of 13 previous meets, including the last three. The western athletes are favored heavily again tonight—mostly on the basis of comparative performances in Saturday's NCAA meet at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Southern California, which has 14 men on the PCC squad, ran away with the NCAA meet—scoring more than twice as many points as the runnerup squad, Illinois of the Big Ten.

Illinois had three individual winners to Southern Cal's two, but Trojans piled up points with a variety of seconds, thirds and other placings.

Illinois' Big Ten champions carry most of whatever hopes their conference may have of upsetting the westerners.

Illini's three NCAA winners were Willie Williams, in the 100-yard dash, Willard Thomson in the 120-yard high hurdles, and Joe Corley in the 220-yard low hurdles.

Two-mile Gene Matthews of Purdue is considered the only other good bet to take an individual championship for the Big Ten.

The USC contingent is headed by high jumper Ernie Shelton and 440-yard man Jim Lea, both NCAA winners. Shelton narrowly missed a 7-foot effort at Ann Arbor and Lea ran the 440 in 46.7 seconds.

Each conference will be represented in each individual event by three athletes. Only one quarter will appear for each in the three relay races—a shuttle, mile and 440.

Olson Rated Edge Over Jesse Turner

HONOLULU (U.S.)—Middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson and Jesse Turner of St. Louis relaxed today in preparation for their 10-round non-title fight tonight at Honolulu Stadium.

They wound up five days of heavy training Sunday night and went through light workouts yesterday.

Sunny Hawaiian skies held hopes of a good turnout. Promoter Tommy Miles said he expected a gate of 15,000 to 18,000. The fight starts at 9:15 p.m. (2:15 a.m., EST, Wednesday).

Betting was light. Honolulu-born Olson was favored 4-1.

Successful Angler

Ruben Dardarian, 12, Pontiac Press carrier at Wixom, had a successful fishing trip Saturday when he landed one of the biggest crappies taken from Kent Lake, near Milford, this season.

Ruben's prize was 11 inches long and was estimated to have weighed about a pound. He also took some perch and bluegills.

Patty Is Again Open Medalist

Cuts One Stroke Off
Course Record Monday
With 70 Round

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
WAUKEGAN, Ill. (U.S.)—Veteran Patty Berg flaunted the usual medalist jinx today as she teed off in pursuit of her fifth women's Western Open golf championship.

Patty took the $100 medalist prize yesterday, knocking one stroke off the course record at Glen Flora Country Club and five under par for a 70.

It was the fifth time she has won qualifying medalist honors of the tournament. After pacing the trials in 1941 and 1943, Patty continued on to the title. She also took the crown in 1948 and 1951.

After her blistering 70 against the par 38-75, 6,550-yard Glen Flora course, Patty became the odds-on favorite.

Final Junior Baseball Meeting Set Tonight

Final meeting of managers of entries in Pontiac's junior baseball leagues will be held tonight at the Pontiac Parks and Recreation department offices at 35 Hill street.

Midget and Class F, managers will gather at 7 p.m., with the meeting of Class E and D pilots at 8 o'clock. Rules and schedules will be discussed, contracts issued and other information given at these meetings.

Age limitations are Midgets (12 years and under), Class F (14 years and under), Class E (16 and under) and Class D (18 and under). In each instance, the player cannot reach the age over the eligibility limit by Sept. 1 of this year.

Bersche Wins Award

Jim Bersche, son of Rev. G. J. Bersche, 108 Franklin, Pontiac, has been awarded a major track letter at Wheaton College. A senior, Bersche competed in the half-mile. He is a former Pontiac High School trackman.

Confused Play in Ninth Costs MSC Title Chance

OMAHA (U.S.)—Rollins College and Missouri, who beat Michigan State 4-3 last night, will meet tonight for the NCAA College Baseball World Series championship with sophomore southpaws slated to pitch for both clubs.

Rollins is expected to give the nod to pint-sized Art Brophy who handed Missouri its only tourney loss, 4-1 in the second round of the double elimination play.

Missouri's choice is slated to be Ed Cook, who beat Massachusetts in his previous series appearance, giving up one run.

Outsider Could Win Open

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
SPRINGFIELD, N.J. (U.S.)—This may be the year for a young professional tuned to tournament sharpness by constant play, to break Ben Hogan's monopoly on the U.S. Open golf title.

That rather cautious prediction, backed by clinical reports on the ailments of the two top contestants, came today from Baltusrol Pro Johnny Farrell, the "host" for the 54th Open starting Thursday.

Farrell's forecast was based more on the condition of the lush, lengthy Baltusrol lower course than on the condition of Hogan and Sam Snead.

Men's Softball Loop Lead Thrown Into 4-Way Knot

Stadium Inn threw the City Men's Softball League lead into a 4-way deadlock last night by handing General Motors its 2nd loss, 6-5.

Contest went three extra innings before Stadium Inn finally scored its winning run in the 10th on a walk, a hit batsman and two errors.

GMC, Stadium Inn, Moose and Birmingham Riteway are now all tied for 1st place with 6-2 records.

Moose had to go into extra innings to win its 6th victory last night also, beating CIO No. 594 1-0, in 10 innings. Pitcher Billy Ryan drew a base on balls, advanced on Jim Carter's hit and came home with the clincher on a single by Ernest Mann.

Riteway dumped Knights of Columbus, 6-2, on the 2nd pitching of Cal Atwood to move into the 1st-place deadlock. Milford Merchants rattled two Lions Tavern hurriers for eight hits to take a 6-1 win in the other game played Monday night.

Packers Sign Two

GREEN BAY, Wis. (U.S.)—A pair of big linemen from Holy Cross College, tackle James Lavery and guard Jim Vogt, signed professional football contracts today with the Green Bay Packers. Lavery weighs 260 pounds, Vogt 240. Signing of the two men gave the Packers 39 players under contract for the 1954 season.

But to the general public, Hogan and Snead still were the men and their ailments were top news.

Hogan still is recovering from an illness that delayed his participation in National Golf Day. Snead has come up with a stiff, sore neck and shoulder that interferes with his shotmaking.

"I'm not ready for the tournament, but if this doesn't get any worse I'll start," Sam said after playing a practice round yesterday.

By contrast Hogan, who recently said he didn't see how he could win his fifth Open championship this week, was almost optimistic.

"I'm about over that virus," he said.

"I still go to the doctor every day and I spend a lot of time in bed resting, but I feel pretty well."

Meanwhile the younger players that Farrell praised were finding that there's nothing easy about Baltusrol's 7,027-yard par 34-36-70 course. The consensus is that it will be a "tough but fair" test of golf.

That was Farrell's analysis and it was echoed by such young players as Billy Joe Patton, Gene Litterer, Al McInert and Sam Uzzetta after yesterday's rounds.

Bavasi admitted he has been talking with Chicago, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. "If anything were to break at the last minute, it probably would be with one of those clubs—but I doubt it will happen," Bavasi said.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, who sent pitcher Herm Wehmeier to the Phillies last week, still are interested in Karl Drews or Jim Konstanty. The Wehmeier deal, however, was straight cash.

Recreation 9 Wins on Homer

Long's Fifth Inning
Hit Decisive in 7-5
Township Victory

Jim Long's 5th inning home run with an aboard gave Dixie Recreation a 7-5 victory over Drayton Drug in Waterford Township Softball League play at Drayton Plains Monday night.

Long's blow broke a 5-5 deadlock. Frank Keelan had hit a 2-run homer for Drug in the 2nd inning. Long also belted a double and single to lead the game's hitters. Win gave Recreation a tie for 3rd place in the loop.

In Little League action, Del's Service downed Union Lake Lumber, 6-4.

Dick & Wes Sports meet Richardson Dairy tonight at 8:30 p.m., with Drayton Drug and Day's Sanitary Service meeting in a Junior League game at 6:30.

Eddie Mathews Worried Over Hitting Slump

MILWAUKEE (U.S.)—Eddie Mathews, who shouldered aside the "sophomore jinx" a year ago to lead the major leagues in home runs with 47, is in the middle of a slump which threatens to make his junior year a nightmare.

Mathews, in a 16-game home stand which ended Sunday, got only 10 hits in 54 at bats for a .185 average.

Lauro in Italy Splits Party in First Bid for Leadership

By CHARLES McMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

The leader of the newest party in the Italian Chamber of Deputies has a new approach in politics. "Italy is governed by tools," he said when he entered national politics in 1930. "Since I am less a fool than they are, it follows that I, too, can become premier."

Diminutive, immensely wealthy, spare-time nudist Achille Lauro took the first step in his bid for leadership on June 2 when he split the Monarchist party of the extreme right wing.

Lauro has now formed his own National Monarchist party on a two-plank platform.

Plank No. 1 is support of the Pact which provides for the inclusion of German troops in the North Atlantic Treaty forces.

Plank No. 2 calls for total war on the Communists.

So far Lauro has succeeded in enticing only 10 of the 40 Monarchists in the chamber into his party. But his votes could swing the balance in favor of ratification of the EDC.

Equally important, he is stirring up the always-present Monarchist movement in Italy.

There are many people, and especially many people in Southern Italy where Lauro hails from, who would like to see exiled former King Humbert on the throne.

Lauro is mayor of Naples and a multi-millionaire shipowner. Silver-haired, big-nosed, hoarse-voiced, he reminds Americans who see him of the late Alfred E. Smith. His political techniques remind some people of those of Lanny Hall.

It is largely due to Lauro that the Monarchist party increased its number of seats in the Chamber of Deputies from 14 to 50 before he split it.

Lauro has won the hearts of his fellow-Neapolitans and many of the people generally in poverty-stricken Southern Italy.

He is a man of big gestures. He started all Italy when he paid the unheard-of price of $150,000 to sign a Scandinavian star to Naples soccer football team.

"When our team wins the national championship Lauro will be running the government in Rome," Neapolitans said.

The team ended up the season just over in fourth place.

"We'll win sure next year and so will Lauro," his backers said.

Each morning when the weather permits Lauro walks around the terrace of his villa here stark naked.

"It's great for the health," he explains. "You have to open your pores every day to the sun and wind and you can't do it with your clothes on."

This is a minor eccentricity. Politically, Lauro is taken seriously. He is likely to win a lot of supporters for a new constitutional monarchy.

Real Estate Values Seen Stable for Many Years

ST. LOUIS (UP) — The head of the United States Savings and Loan League looks for a stable real estate market for the next 20 years.

Ralph R. Crosby told the league's convention here that there may be some variation from year to year in the price of homes, but "chances appear remote of any devastating decline in values."

Crosby gave these reasons for a stable market:

A growing population, better procedures and easier money in home financing, a more prominent role of the government in economic affairs.

He said the spiraling population is due to get another boost in the 1960's when the World War II babies reach marriageable age.

Candidates for School Board

Board at Hazel Park Must Decide Between Nielsen, Hitchcock

Voters in six southern Oakland County school districts went to the polls Monday and elected new members to their school boards.

A tie resulted between two candidates in Hazel Park. Axel Nielsen and John C. Hitchcock each received 40 votes to defeat incumbent Elmer N. Rowley who garnered 23 votes. The annual meeting of the school board last night was recessed until tonight to give board members time to make a decision on the tie vote.

In Berkley, with two to be elected for four-year terms, Alfred C. Meier, board president, was defeated for re-election with 356 votes. Elected was Gerald P. Kent with 485 votes, and incumbent Gaylord D. Knudson was re-elected with 496 votes.

In Royal Oak, voters re-elected Board President Clarence M. Kimball with 683 votes, and Marilyn R. Hemphill, also an incumbent, with 567 votes. Unsuccessful candidates were Lewis E. Worthen Jr. and Chester A. Kelley.

Unopposed in the Ferndale election were Mrs. Anna May Cook who received 566 votes, and Mrs. Mary E. Pence, who received 588.

Also unopposed were incumbents in Clawson, Senator Peterson, with 304 votes, and Albert L. Bower, with 184 votes.

In Madison School District, Royal Oak Township, William McCarty, with 165 votes, defeated Mrs. Virginia Solberg, who received 110, for a two-year unexpired term on the board. Running unopposed for three-year terms were A. D. Frazer, who received 205 votes, and Mrs. Elizabeth Carey, who received 208.

Voters in Oak Park will hold their annual school election July 12.

Investigate for Arson in White Lake Fire

A fire marshal of the Michigan State Police in Lansing is expected today to investigate for possible arson in connection with a White Lake Township house fire early yesterday, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Township Fire Chief Mark Iton said after the fire at the home of Vernon Shepard, 9720 Elizabeth Lake Rd., was brought under control, that there was a strong odor of kerosene on the door mat and from a nearby broken jug.

Detectives Delos Anderson and Leo Hazen, investigating the fire, said Mrs. Shepard told them that her car's backfire awakened her about 1:30 a. m. and was followed shortly by a small explosion and flames. Damage to the home was estimated at about $300.

Home Owners to Hear Two Bloomfield Officials

David E. Anderson and Arno L. Hulet, supervisor and treasurer respectively of Bloomfield Township, will address Ward's Subdivision Assn. members at a meeting Wednesday night at 1263 Edison St.

Persons living within the triangle formed by Telegraph, Orchard Lake and Ward roads, are invited to attend the 7:30 meeting. Persons living in the area are also eligible to join the association. Added information can be secured by calling Cecil J. Poppy at FE 3-3587.

Convicted for Murder, Woman Goes to Prison

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Mrs. Sannie McCall, 49, convicted of 1st degree murder in the fatal shooting of her husband, Floyd, 58, last April 23, yesterday was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Superior Court Judge Thaddeus B. Taylor imposed the mandatory life sentence. Attorneys for Mrs. McCall said they would seek a new trial.

Motor Scooter Addict's Message Rubs It In

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—A teenage boy was in—and out of trouble throughout his high school career because of his interest in motor scooter races.

He graduates this spring and sent a personal invitation to the Norman Police Department for the commencement ceremonies with this notation:

"For your information, I made it."

Talent Is Ahead of Her Years

Is Youngest Girl to Play Part in History of Stage or Television

NEW YORK — Sixteen-year-old Susan Strasberg made a bid for acting fame in the classic role of Juliet in the Television Theater production of "Romeo and Juliet" recently.

Shakespeare wrote the part for a 14-year-old girl, but the only stellar actress known to have played it close to that age was Eleanora Ruse who did the role on the stage when she was 17.

Thus casting of a 16-year-old actress in the demanding role of Shakespeare's heroine is unprecedented not only in television but in the history of the professional legitimate stage.

Susan's talent is in sharp contrast to her years, as attested to by critics who have seen her.

Her experience in the theater is limited to an appearance in an off-Broadway stage production and three television shows. But her theatrical heritage is rich. She is the daughter of Lee Strasberg, the noted director and actress Paula Miller.

A student at the High School of Performing Arts, Susan has natural grace, poise and sensitivity that have made her a much sought-after model.

But even these assets gave no clue to her acting ability which first became apparent in the off-Broadway production and was later affirmed in her television appearances.

Council Dissolves, Gives $400,000 to Runyon Fund

CHICAGO — The Italian Welfare Council, organized in 1946 to foster the general welfare of indigent Italian people, agreed last night to dissolve and turn over all of its assets of $400,000 to the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund for Cancer Research.

Anthony V. Champagne, council president, said that directors and members felt the distribution to the Runyon fund will accomplish the greatest good for all people. The council had 621 members.

Berserk Gunman's Death Ruled Justifiable Killing

DETROIT — The death of Malachi Benjamin, 40, of Detroit, Saturday in a gun battle with police was called justifiable homicide Monday in a coroner's report.

Benjamin, barricaded in his home, wounded four policemen with blasts from a 12 gauge shotgun before he was killed by police bullets.

Patrolman Harold Davis, shot in the face during the gun battle, may lose the sight of one eye.

Parole Violator Draws One Year in County Jail

A Clarkston youth was sentenced to Oakland County Jail for one year Monday by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for violation of probation.

Jack Swartzbaugh, 19, of 3240 Pine Knob Dr., admitted the break-in of the Tam-O-Shanter Golf Club and a Pine Lake cottage last April.

He had been placed on one year probation last September for larceny from an auto.

Red Radio Lays Collaps of Laniel to U.S. Influence

TOKYO — The Communist Peiping radio today called the collapse of the Laniel Cabinet in France an inevitable result of the Geneva conference.

The Red radio blamed U.S. influence for guiding the French course in the conference and added that French political circles "came to see finally that the Laniel Cabinet had to be thrown out in the interests of the conference."

Patient's Vessels Tied to Father's in TV Operation

SAN FRANCISCO — A television program showing a young girl and her father with their blood vessels hooked together during a heart operation will be presented on a nationwide network during the American Medical Assn. convention next week.

The operation is for a defect in the girl's heart. To get the best results, surgeons like to operate in a "dry field"—that is, with no blood in the heart.

They short-circuit the heart and connect the girl's veins and arteries into the circulatory system of the father.

The March of Medicine broadcast will be made over NBC TV at 10 p.m., EST, Sunday, June 24.

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Joseph Owsley was eating his lunch at work when a fellow employee ruined his food by spilling coffee on it. Owsley offered him a sandwich prepared by his wife. The other man bit into it. Between the two slices of bread he found a piece of paper on which was written: "Happy April Fool's Day."

Mountain Climbers Told Not to Eat Snow in Japan

TOKYO — Japanese mountain climbers were warned today not to quench thirst with snow.

Chemists at Kanazawa University in western Honshu said tests showed snow atop peaks in the area called Japan's Alps was radioactive.

Recent U.S. hydrogen bomb tests in the Pacific were presumed to be the cause.

Sleep tight tonight feel right tomorrow

Get the Milk-at-Bedtime Habit

WHY HAVE ANOTHER sleepless night, another dragged-out day? When you want sleep, drink a glass of milk before you go to bed.

Scientific tests show definitely that a glass of milk before bedtime relaxes you, makes sleep come more quickly, helps you sleep soundly all night through. Milk relaxes the blood vessels, aids circulation, eases the hunger pangs that sometimes cause wakefulness.

If you prefer milk slightly warmed, that's even more relaxing.

Don't experiment with drugs. They can be dangerous, unless taken on the advice of your physician. Go to sleep the natural, safe, healthy way—like a baby, like a kitten, like any milk drinker. Drink three glasses of milk every day—one of them at bedtime—for all the calcium you need, for low-cost protein, for sound sleep. You feel right tomorrow if you sleep tight tonight.

Drink at least 3 glasses of Milk every day

Serenity of Labor Scene May Be Disrupted Soon

(Editor's note: An uneasy quiet prevails on the labor scene today. But major contract negotiations in the office give promise of fireworks ahead. As big unions and management prepare to get together, Norman Walker, a veteran of labor coverage for The Associated Press, examines the whole labor picture and tells what to expect in this first four articles.)

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (U) — Strikes are running at a postwar low, but don't count on things staying that way.

Major contract negotiations are getting under way in the steel, rubber, telephone, electrical manufacturing and maritime industries, to name a few.

Any of them could touch off a new wave of strikes.

Behind the present relative labor peace is an awareness that nobody is really sure what is going to happen to business.

Employers are chary about making commitments that will boost their labor costs. Instead, they want to batten down costs and get more work for wage dollars spent.

They're trying harder than ever to get rid of "featherbedding" practices that cost employers money without getting production. Unions defend these practices as necessary to protect worker rights. Unions seem to be almost as concerned about job security—keeping the jobs workers have—as they are about getting increases in pay or other benefits.

Some of the steam is gone out of the drive that saw workers getting higher wages year after year during World War II and in the postwar period.

Pay increases are still coming but are harder to get, and smaller. On the average, pay raises are running 5 to 8 cents an hour.

Now caution, stiffer haggling on the part of both employer and union, is the watchword in management-union dealings.

A veteran conciliator in the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service told this reporter that labor disputes appear harder to settle now than at any time in the past dozen years.

The situation is spotty. Some types of business are better off than others. Some unions are getting considerably more than others.

During the first three months of this year a great many contracts were settled without any pay raise at all, merely extending former agreements. Yet some employers shelled out heavily, wanting no labor troubles while business was good.

Many union and management men closely following the situation say that, next to the business lag, the reason for so few big strikes these days is that President Eisenhower is keeping aloof from labor disputes.

Under some former administrations employees charged that unions often fomented strikes, or strike threats, to give the government an excuse to step in and help get them more than they'd normally expect in collective bargaining.

Many students of the labor situation sincerely feel that labor-management relations are constantly maturing and that this, too, is an important reason for fewer labor troubles. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said recently:

"Every year about 100,000 collective bargaining agreements are peacefully negotiated or renewed in the United States. The few strikes make headlines, but the numerous peaceful settlements are not news."

"Hundreds of thousands of individual grievances are settled without a work stoppage every year. There is a great deal of industrial harmony in this country and far more cooperation between labor and management than we sometimes realize."

Another important factor in keeping labor peace is arbitration. This is the method of putting an argument up to a neutral party for a decision binding on both sides.

Use of arbitration has grown tremendously in recent years. Neither side is ever completely satisfied with the outcome, but it is widely accepted as a way to interpret existing contracts and, to a lesser extent, to fix new wage rates and other contract terms. Long-term contracts are paying off too. The five-year agreements in the auto industry, for instance, have assured smooth labor relations. Those agreements expire next year. The steel industry had a five-year moratorium on pension negotiations, but it expires this June.

Next: Security, the big issue.

Two Royal Oak Youths Get 2 Years Probation

Two Royal Oak youths were placed on two years probation and assessed $150 costs each Monday by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for stealing steel bars worth $278 from a gear company on Hudson street in Royal Oak last April. Roderick Felling, 20, of 803 N. Altadena St. and George Bookmiller, 20, of 1126 S. Lafayette St., pleaded guilty to the charge June 1.
