Taylor Requests Additional Funds to Help Schools

Says Enrollment Hikes Cause Sharp Financial Problems in Districts

LANSING (AP) — Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, asked the Legislature today to throw a financial life preserver to Michigan's struggling schools.

In a year-end report to Gov. Williams and the Legislature, Taylor said booming school enrollments have caused "drastic financial problems" in many school districts.

If the sales tax cannot provide enough money to finance schools, the Legislature should appropriate additional aid from the general fund, Taylor said.

Saving details of his financial program for a later message, Taylor recommended changes in tuition allowances, school tax millage requirements, changes in the qualifications of school districts for special aid and changes in special appropriations to school districts.

Taylor said the present plan of tuition allowances, under which school districts get state aid for students educated in other districts, is not equitable. He said it also discourages school district reorganization in some cases.

Taylor said the 100 million dollar loan program approved by the voters in the fall of 1954 to aid distressed school districts has been a success.

CAN LOAN MONEY

The plan authorized the state to loan money to school districts already levying 13 mills for school construction purposes.

Taylor said that in the six months the plan has been in operation, 43 school districts have borrowed 30 million dollars under the program.

Turning to higher education, Taylor noted that 113,000 students were enrolled in Michigan colleges in the fall of 1955 and that enrollment will climb to 200,000 in 1970.

To help finance the costs of increased enrollment, Taylor asked the Legislature to increase appropriations to community colleges.

Sight 2 Men Waving Flags at Scene of Jungle Crash

A radio report from Quito, Ecuador, today said two men waving white flags were sighted on a sandy river beach in the Amazon jungle area where five U. S. missionaries are feared seized by savage Auca Indians.

One of the downed missionaries, T. Edward McCully Jr., 28, of Milwaukee, is the husband of the former Marilou Hobolth, 27, of Pontiac, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hobolth of 779 May Ct.

Dr. Clarence W. Jones, president of the World Radio Missionary Fellowship, in New York related the report and termed it "the best word we've had in the last few days."

Jones said the men were sighted late yesterday by a local commercial pilot who photographed them. They could not be identified from the photographs, however.

He said a U.S. Air Force rescue helicopter which arrived yesterday at Shell Mera, Ecuador, headquarters for the search, would fly over the spot to investigate.

BODIES SPOTTED

Air Force and missionary pilots previously have spotted two bodies near the stripped Piper plane in which the missionaries had flown to the jungle site in an effort to contact the Aucas. The bodies were not identified.

Besides McCully, the missing men are Nathaniel Saint, Huntington Valley, Pa.; James Elliott, Portland, Ore.; Roger Youderian, Lansing, and Peter Fleming, Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. McCully's parents have been listening to short-wave radio reports in English direct from Quito at 4 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

"We keep listening and praying that Edward will be found alive," said Mrs. Hobolth.

Wilson Orders Military Study

Congress Told Changes in Arms Field, Global Status Requires Survey

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson told Congress today he has ordered the high command to make a "complete and careful" new study of the military setup in view of changes in weapons field and in the international situation.

He wants the picture of what may be needed in the next three years.

In testimony prepared for the Senate Armed Services Committee, Wilson also disclosed that military manpower will increase to about 2,840,000 by the end of the next fiscal year from the 2,814,000 estimated for June 30.

Wilson said that "we do not foresee at this time any major changes in the over-all level of our military forces during the next few years," but he added:

"There will, however, be continuing changes in the nature and composition of our forces, in line with scientific and technological progress and in the international situation."

Wilson emphasized the build-up of the Air Force's strategic bomber fleet and the expanding guided missile program.

Elected

GLENN H. GRIFFIN

New Chest Head Named by Board

Elect Glenn H. Griffin and Mrs. Gelston Poole to Top Offices

The Board of Directors of the Pontiac Community Chest yesterday elected Glenn H. Griffin president to succeed Harold J. Muldowney.

Mrs. Gelston V. Poole was named vice president replacing Mrs. Charles E. Carey during the annual board's meeting.

Both Muldowney and Mrs. Carey will continue to function as directors. Before their election as officers, Griffin and Mrs. Poole were renamed to three-year terms as board members.

In other action, Robert M. Glenn was appointed to fill out the term on the board of Robert R. Eldred, who resigned recently.

Griffin's new office automatically makes him the CC representative on the Pontiac Area United Fund-Community Chest Advisory Committee and a member of the UF Board of Trustees.

The new president was also appointed the CC representative to the Greater Pontiac Area Advisory Council.

Other Projects of $770 Million Also Requested

Would Require States to Match U.S. Funds According to Wealth

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to provide 1¼ billion dollars in federal grants over the next five years to help conquer the nation's critical school shortage.

In a special message, the President also asked authority for federal purchase of up to 750 million dollars worth of local school bonds—if school districts cannot sell them in private markets at reasonable interest rates—and 20 million dollars for grants to the states for school planning.

In summary, this would mean a federal outlay over five years of some two billion with 750 million to be returned through eventual payment of bonds.

The states would be required to match the federal grants for construction.

The matching, however, would be under a formula whereby the wealthiest states put up $2 for each $1 of federal money while the poorer states would get $2 for each $1 they put out.

LOCALITIES MUST HELP

Eisenhower said a cardinal principle of his program is that "federal grants must not reduce the incentive for state and local efforts — but rather should stimulate an increase in such efforts."

* * *

"With this program," Eisenhower said in his 2600-word message, "we can lay the basis for better education in America in the years ahead. In this way we keep faith with our children."

He made no mention of a question already stirring Congress—whether federal education aid should go only to states adhering to the Supreme Court's ruling barring race segregation.

One reason Congress got nowhere in the last session on school aid was a split over this question.

* * *

Eisenhower's plan for needier states to get the biggest share of federal money collides with a bill by Rep. Kelley (D-Pa) which would supply 1½ billion in federal grants over a four-year period. This bill, already approved by the House Education Committee, is due for early action.

ENROLLMENT BASIS

The Kelley plan would provide money to the states on the basis of the number of school age children.

Eisenhower cautioned his program should be considered only as an emergency measure designed to help states and local communities "overcome the nation's critical

Hitler Died of Poison, His Cremator Asserts

HERLESHAUSEN, Germany (INS)—A former member of Adolf Hitler's bodyguard said today that the Nazi dictator took poison to end his life in 1945.

All other reliable reports on Hitler's death have said he shot himself in his Berlin bunker with the Russians only a few miles away.

But Harry Mengershausen, who just returned from captivity in Russia, claims he was one of four men who burned Hitler's body and that of his mistress, Eva Braun.

Williams Proposes 34-Point Program

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams, in his most sweeping proposals to the Michigan Legislature in eight years, recommended today it tackle the problems of automation, atomic energy and revival of distressed economic areas.

The Governor went before the Legislature at 11 a.m. to blueprint his ideas of a future "so vast, almost so incalculable as to challenge credulity."

ECHO 'MODERATION'

His programs echoed his recent national addresses in which he advocated drastic social programs as a counter to the National Democratic party's policy of "moderation."

Williams asked the Legislature to create a new state commission to study problems of automation and to give it $100,000.

He urged that the Michigan Employment Security (unemployment compensation) Commission be allowed to pay the travel expenses of unemployed workers who want to move from a distressed labor area to one where they could get a job.

Williams proposed the Legislature create an Atomic Energy Commission to promote, control and study the peaceful use of nuclear power.

These were the most unusual in a half-hour speech packed so full of far-reaching proposals that Williams did not have time to explain many of them. He said he would return later with other supplemental messages on specific points.

DIVERSIFY INDUSTRY

He proposed that the State Economic Development Commission be given more money to increase and diversify Michigan industry, set up a Washington, D.C. officer to obtain more government contracts for Michigan and advise workers in distressed areas where they should go to get new jobs.

He proposed a Development Credit Corporation to "facilitate" loans to small business and industry unable to get bank loans.

Other Williams' recommendations called for:

A $500,000 annual appropriation to pay $1,000 college scholarships to 500 students;

A new formula for distributing state school aid to local districts, including increasing the per pupil grant from $177 to $200;

* * *

A $4,000 minimum wage for teachers and a lower pupil-teacher ratio;

* * *

A 20 per cent increase in operating budget for state colleges and universities;

At least 25 million dollars to start a six-year, 150 million dollar college expansion program, including 3 million dollars down payment on purchase of Wayne University in Detroit;

A state park expansion program stepped up at least 3 million dollars a year;

Increased Dwelling Units Add to Highway Problem

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of articles on the highway situation condensed from the booklet, "Wagon Roads to Expressways," to be published by the Oakland County Plan Commission.

Another phase of this area's growth bearing directly on the highway problem is the rapid increase in number of dwelling units.

Macomb County added 29,535 new units from 1950 to 1955, a record gain of 59.7 per cent. Oakland jumped 42.8 per cent by adding 46,761, while Wayne, excluding Detroit, increased 66,872, or 43.4 per cent.

Why traffic is constantly becoming more congested outside Detroit is partially explained by the fact that during the past five years the rate of gain was six per cent in Detroit and 45.1 per cent in the surrounding area.

This results in greater trip lengths between home and job, creating more congestion.

The constant completion of new subdivisions adds many miles of roads to the existing feeder system which is already discharging cars onto an inadequate network of main highways.

HOMES MEAN CARS

Everytime a new home opens its driveway onto a road one more stop-and-turn point is added to slow traffic and increases chances of an accident.

Since 1945 the total of vehicles in the three-county area has climbed at a rate far exceeding the speed of road construction.

In the ten years after 1936, vehicle miles traveled in the United States increased by 59 per cent. During the same period paved road mileage was hiked only 46.5 per cent.

At present the county road commissions must expend most of their efforts in saving old roads, leaving little or no money for new construction.

In 1954, the Oakland County Road Commission spent $2,194,273 on maintenance, compared to $1,089,955 for construction, widening and reconstruction.

The money left over for new roads would have seen a two-lane concrete highway built for about 6.5 miles on a new location.

Auto Builders Boosting Space in Newspapers

NEW YORK—Auto manufacturers will give the nod to newspapers during the coming year. The Wall Street Journal says: "Newspapers will likely continue to get the biggest slug of autodom's advertising dollar. Cadillac says it will place its heaviest emphasis in newspapers. Dodge, Ford, Studebaker and Hudson will be well advanced in their newspaper schedules and DeSoto is going for a 50 per cent enlargement."

Denies Alcoholic Funds

LANSING (INS) — The State Board of Alcoholism has denied a request by the Traverse City State Hospital for $6,000 to study brain waves of alcoholics. The board said $3,500 of the money would have been used to purchase a "brain wave analyzer," with research taking a secondary role.

Florida Still Shivers, Floods in Nova Scotia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The cold northerly wind that has monotonously blasted Florida for six consecutive days dropped Miami's temperature to 41 early today, the low mark of the winter, and weather forecasters still could promise no definite relief.

In the vegetable-growing area surrounding Miami, temperatures skidded as low as 31. This minimum was reported in the mucklands north of Homestead. There was scattered frost through the area. Miami Beach had a low of 45.

It will be cold again tomorrow morning, the Weather Bureau said, and after that only a very gradual warming may be expected.

The current cold wave, one of the longest although not the most severe in south Florida history, is caused by a gigantic Atlantic storm which has hovered off the coast for several days, whirling polar air southward all the way into the tropics.

The flood danger lessened today in most of Nova Scotia. In the southwest, however, rivers still rose. In northern New Brunswick sleet struck again.

Many families in the Annapolis Valley and eastern Nova Scotia returned to clean up waterlogged homes. Some dwellings were completely smashed or no longer habitable. (See picture, Page 2).

Diana Barrymore Begins Fight Against Alcoholism

By EARL WILSON
Special to The Pontiac Press

NEW YORK—Diana Barrymore is voluntarily entering a psychiatric sanatorium in Westchester County tomorrow to fight alcoholism, she frankly told this columnist today.

"Sure I'll discuss it," the actress-daughter of the late John Barrymore said. "Baby—that's me—can't do it by herself because she thinks it's psychiatric, so she's going away."

Miss Barrymore, far from depressed, cheerfully said her half-brother, Leonard Thomas, is footing the bill.

"And there'll be plenty to foot," she said. "But he found uranium so he can afford to put his little sister away for a while."

With similar candor, she told of her losing battle over the years against drinking . . . mentioning arrests, street fights, and jobs she lost.

TALK TO DAD?

"Did you ever discuss drinking with your father?" I asked.

"Sure, but I wasn't very old then. Just old enough to mix his drinks," she answered.

"Darling, I mean that at that time I drank like people, not like an idiot. Now I drink like a giraffe.

"The A.A. didn't work for me because I got very bored listening to their stories. They weren't very good actors."

She drinks 100 proof bourbon—"rather expensive," she admitted. She is trying to complete a book titled "Too Much, Too Soon," but a collaborator said he has to "catch her the first 15 minutes she's up in the morning."

"Are you a lone drinker?" I asked her.

"Well, not exactly, darling," she said. "When I'm alone, I drink, and when I've got friends in, I drink. People who drink — they drink any old when."

Voting Machines May Be Answer

City Facing Dilemma Over Big Precincts

A decision must be made by the City Commission by April 9 on whether the city is to purchase voting machines or modify voting precincts in accordance with the state law.

Under the law, precincts employing paper ballots are allowed a maximum registration total of 800 voters. Use of voting machines permits a boost to 1,400 registered voters.

According to City Clerk Ada R. Evans, Pontiac presently has 44 precincts, 25 of which are over the paper ballot limit of 800, necessitating revamping of city precincts to add an estimated 10 more by purchasing modern machines.

With this in mind, the City Commission has requested a demonstration of two different machines for Jan. 26.

PLAN DEMONSTRATIONS

The machines to be demonstrated are the Automatic Voting Machine, which is being used by 28 Oakland County communities, and the Shoup Voting Machine.

If the Commission decides on buying an estimated 80 machines costing approximately $1,500 each, the new system could be in use by the August primary and November national elections, Mrs. Evans declared.

She estimated that it would cost the city about $6,100 for the additional 10 precincts and would involve a five-fold adjustment.

First, it would require increased school area for voting places. Second, the adjustment might confuse voters because many would be assigned to new precincts in new locations.

Added cost would be incurred, said Mrs. Evans, in moving precinct material to and from storage places, in the extra cost for overtime in the use of the schools, and the extra personnel that would have to be hired.

RESULTS SOONER

The clerk said 500 voters a day could vote on one machine and that after sufficient training and experience, clerks would have final election results in one precinct three hours after the polls closed at 8 p.m.

"It usually requires from 13 to 18 hours to count paper ballots after an election," she stated.

A report on the newsprint supply situation by the Commerce Department's Forest Products Division said technical advances in such manufacture "appear quite promising."

William L. Treanor, of 971 Berwick Blvd., became the community's choice for "Young Man of the Year" last night when he was presented the 1955 Distinguished Service Award by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The 34-year-old trucking firm executive was one of three individuals and six organizations chosen to receive special awards at the Jaycees' annual "Bosses' Night" in the Elks Temple.

Named "Outstanding Boss of the Year" was Gelston V. Poole, president of the F. J. Poole Lumber & Builders Supply Co., while William Fox was given the Key Award for service to the Junior Chamber.

Merit awards for "outstanding community service and cooperation" went to the Pontiac Motor Division, Chamber of Commerce, Pontiac Parks & Recreation Dept., The Pontiac Press and radio stations WPON and WCAR.

Main speaker at the event was Father Joseph Kubik, professor of social history at St. Marys College, Orchard Lake who addressed the assembled businessmen, civic leaders, government officials and Jaycees on world relations in a speech entitled "A Prospective of Communism."

In receiving his award, Treanor was cited for outstanding community service and leadership. He was chosen to receive the distinction by a panel of three judges who considered a list of five candidates nominated from the community at large.

Terminal manager of Interstate Motor Freight, Treanor is a former president of the Junior Chamber, is state chairman of its youth activities committee and chairman of the local youth fund. He is also active in United Fund work and is on the boards of directors of the Greater Pontiac Youth Council and the Child Guidance Clinic.

Dailies, 3 Unions Agree to Terms

Members Must Ratify Pacts; Papers May Appear Next Week

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Newspaper Publishers Assn. and three striking unions reached tentative agreement on contract terms today, paving the way for a possible early end to the city's 43-day old newspaper strike.

The joint announcement by the publishers and the three striking unions—stereotypers, mailers and printers—said the contract, if approved at union meetings this weekend, will run for two years.

The publishers still must negotiate contracts with three other unions — the teamsters, photoengravers and Newspaper Guild.

Usually reliable sources expressed confidence these negotiations would be resolved speedily and that the thre Detroit papers would resume publication by Monday.

A spokesman for the publishers group said there was "no chance of publication before Monday."

Robert C. Butz, executive secretary of the Detroit Newspaper Publishers Assn. said the contracts "call for a wage increase of $3.75 upon resumption of publication and an additional $2.75 a week on Dec. 1, 1956. All other points have been resolved.

". . . We hope to restore as soon as possible daily newspapers to the people of Detroit and Michigan who have so strongly indicated their anxiety over missing their regular newspapers," Butz added.

The three striking unions will hold membership meetings Saturday to vote on acceptance of the two-year pact.

Anti-Integration Crusade Fomenting in Georgia

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — Political leaders of Georgia have called for a "great crusade" on the county level to prevent mixing the races in a move which openly defied U.S. Supreme Court decisions on segregation.

Officials Attend Safety Session

Williams to Request 150 State Troopers; Ask Annual Inspection

Eight local officials gathered in Flint yesterday at a state traffic safety program which attracted some 200 members of state law enforcement agencies, newspapers, radio and television.

Representing Pontiac were Chief of Police Herbert W. Straley, Municipal Judge Maurice Finnegan, City Attorney William A. Ewart, Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel, Capt. William Crisp and Sgt. Clayton Randolph of the police dept., and Clyle R. Haskill and Lauren Anderson of the Chamber of Commerce safety committee.

Secretary of State James Hare explained the new state 65 mile per hour speed limit and presented a resume of a traffic program which Governor Williams will put before the Legislature.

The meeting disclosed that the governor will ask for 150 additional state troopers and request that the state adopt an annual mandatory safety inspection for all automobiles.

According to Chief Straley and Haskill, a proposed central filing system to handle habitual traffic violators within the state and to afford more rapid checks when a violator is apprehended, received the most thorough discussion at the meeting.

Other points to be presented to the Legislature will be the requested licensing of all private schools of driver training.

A return to two license plates in the state and the adoption of a coordinator for state courts to establish and assure uniform traffic violation penalties were points also discussed at the meeting.

Service Station Entered

The owner of a service station broken into last night told Pontiac Police apparently nothing was missing.

William Thompson, 27 Tacoma Ct., said entrance to the building at 286 Baldwin Ave. was gained through a broken window.

classroom shortage within five years."

"Once this shortage is overcome, the federal grant program can and must go forward without federal funds, to meet their current and future needs. Present construction levels indicate their ability to do this."

A fact sheet issued by the Department of Welfare in connection with the message estimated that school construction needs over the next five years will be about 470,000 classrooms.

This summary also said that state and local governments will build 67,000 classrooms this year at a cost of 2½ billion dollars.

The President set forth a picture of a nation with school rooms already jammed and the shortage growing sharply.

RESTS WITH STATES

"Today, hundreds of thousands of children study under overcrowded conditions, in half-day or doubled-up school sessions, or in makeshift buildings not designed as schools," he said.

He cautioned that "the responsibility for public education rests with the states and the local communities."

* * *

And, he said, federal action "which infringes upon this principle is alien to our system." Nevertheless, he remarked that the nation's history has shown the federal government "can and should" help localities solve problems of nationwide scope. "Clearly, this is the kind of situation we face today in considering the school classroom shortage," he said.

TO EVEN UP

In the program, there are a number of devices the administration figures will level out the educational situation throughout the country. Chief among them are provisions to give the biggest share of the money to the states that need it most and give sort of a bonus to states which up to now have done the best job in coping with the school problem.

Eisenhower called also for a formula that would cut the proportion of federal funds "for those few states which are noticeably lagging."

* * *

Spokesmen at the Welfare Department said that only eight or nine states fall into this category and that the remaining 39 or 40 would get a type of bonus for good work performed.

Eisenhower noted that a serious shortage is imminent at the college level, particularly in the training of doctors, teachers, nurses, scientists and engineers.

* * *

He said the federal government must leave responsibility for college buildings to states, localities, private groups and institutions. However, he said that he is going to appoint a committee of educators and citizens to set forth proposals on how best to deal with these problems.

Business Breakins Yield Burglars $110

Burglars who broke into two N. Perry street business establishments early Wednesday stole $110 from a cash register and an undetermined sum from cigarette machines, Pontiac Police said.

One owner, Nick Palaian, 397 N. Perry St., reported the money missing from the cash register of his bar at 1650 N. Perry, and a small amount of change rifled from a cigarette machine.

The other building, a service station at 842 N. Perry, was entered through a broken front door window, owner Charles B. Derusha, 1060 Kirkwood St., reported.

OK Boost in Pay for City Officials

Four Per Cent Increase Passed by Commission for Five Heads

A four per cent salary boost for five top city administrafors was approved this week by the City Commission.

The five officials are the city manager, city clerk, city assessor, city attorney, and director of finance.

The increase is included in the contingent fund of the proposed 1956 budget which is slated for a public hearing next Tuesday. Approval is expected by the end of the month.

The assessor, attorney, and director of finance will receive a $325 hike over their 1955 salary of $8,294.00 bringing their 1956 pay to $8,619.00.

City Manager Walter K. Willman will draw $17,680 this year as compared to his 1955 salary of $17,000.

A $6,435 salary this year will be paid to City Clerk Ada R. Evans. She received $6,188 in 1955.

The pay hike is part of a $155,000 salary increase program included in the 1956 budget which also calls for a 10 cents per hour increase for hourly city workers and a $208 boost for salaried employes up to and including those with total earnings of $5,200.

Those above this will receive a four per cent hike in their pay like the five top officials.

A decision is expected next Tuesday as to salary for the two municipal judges.

The boy, Charles Hawes, of 145 N. Winding Dr., ran into the side of a car at Roslyn and Lansing Rds. and was taken to Pontiac General Hospital, VanAtta said.

Suffering multiple cuts and abrasions, the boy was released after treatment.

616 Adults on Probation, Arthur McKenna Reports

There were 616 adults on probation for criminal offenses in Oakland County at end of 1955, an increase of 135 over the previous year, Chief Probation Officer Arthur P. McKenna said today.

In September 1955, the State Probation department assigned John Whetstone to aid McKenna and Assistant Probation Officer Norman Walker. A fourth man is expected in March.

"The additional personnel greatly increases the efficiency and effectiveness of supervision," McKenna stated.

Besides supervising probationers, the department completed about 36 pre-sentence investigation reports per month for the three circuit judges last year.

"The fact that probation saves people from the degradation of a prison sentence and possibly a career of crime would more than justify its existence, but it also saves the public money," the probation officer said.

Keeping a man in prison costs an average $849 per year, while probation costs $45 per year, he stated.

"The probationers continue to work in the community and last year earned more than $704,000 through productive work in industry, business and professional life."

Other figures released by McKenna show that 201 persons were discharged from probation last year, including 13 dropped because of violations.

Status of Ex-Presidents Still Undecided

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—For years there's been an uneasy feeling in Congress that something should be done for ex-presidents, either to give them a nonvoting seat in the Senate, or enough money to live on, or both.

The first effort in this direction was in 1928 when a bill was offered to give ex-presidents a Senate seat. It wasn't done then, or since, and there's a pretty good chance it won't be done this year either.

* * *

The Senate last year approved a bill to give the only two living ex-presidents, Hoover and Truman, and all future ex-presidents: a salary of $22,500 a year for life, free mailing privileges, an office staff, and a furnished office. When an ex-president died his widow would get $10,000 a year for life.

Some members of Congress have felt that just giving ex-presidents a pension was not enough, that some way should be found to let the country benefit from their White House experience.

SENATOR-AT-LARGE?

That thinking has taken this form: Make an ex-president automatically a member of the Senate, with the title of senator-at-large. He wouldn't be elected. He wouldn't have a vote either.

Nevertheless, he could get up and talk on any subject at any time and even perhaps serve on committees. His salary would be the same as any regular senator: $22,500 a year.

Last year Sen. Kilgore (D-WVa) and Rep. Chelf (D-Ky) introduced bills to carry out this idea. It's still locked up in committees in House and Senate and may never get out on the floor of either chamber for a vote.

* * *

Some lawyers think this bill couldn't become law without an amendment to the Constitution. Some think it could. Here are some arguments against the idea of making ex-presidents senators-at-large:

It would be unconstitutional because the constitution clearly says each state is entitled to only two senators, each of whom shall have one vote, and that they shall be elected by all the people of their state.

LOOPHOLES SOUGHT

It might be possible to get around some of this constitutional provision by not giving an ex-president a Senate vote. But what of the question of numbers? Once he took his seat his state would have three senators.

And this is another question: Suppose an ex-president has only served one four-year term. If he then became a senator-at-large he might use the Senate as a forum to get himself elected president again four years later.

To get around these objections Chelf changed his bill. Under this an ex-president still would automatically get a Senate seat but he would be called a Senate delegate.

Plane Lands Safely After Crash Scare

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—"They didn't tell us about the trouble until they almost had it fixed," a passenger said after a Capital Airlines plane made a safe landing here early today.

* * *

The plane reported it had a crippled landing gear and radioed the tower at Moisant International Airport that it might have to make an emergency landing.

But Ed Kegley of Forest Hills, N. Y., pilot of the Constellation, said he was able to lower the landing gear as he reached New Orleans and bring the plane in on a normal landing.

E. R. Dewitt, 37, of Mobile, Ala., said none of the crew members told the 23 passengers "until they almost had the trouble fixed."

Dewitt said none of the passengers panicked.

Jolts Phone, Gets Help

JACKSON (AP) — A 77-year-old invalid, Mrs. Rena Maguire, unable to walk after falling from bed, rolled herself over and over from her bedroom through her living room and dining room where she knocked her telephone to the floor. Too weak to dial for help, she lay several hours until a repairman came to check the interruption in service. Mrs. Maguire, who suffers from anemia, was reported in "fairly good" condition at a hospital.

That Old Pointless Gift Now Running Like a Machine

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP) — Note to Dominic A. Tata of Niagara Falls, N.Y.: That gift you left in Jackson yesterday turned out to be pointless.

As service station attendant K.C. Hankins tells it:

Tata drove his sputtering car into Hankins' service station, asked for a fountain pen, asked Hankins' name and then signed over the title of the car to him. Tata asked and got a lift to the bus station for himself, his wife and their luggage.

Said Hankins later as he polished his car:

Grant's Tomb Offered to Federal Government

NEW YORK (AP)—The federal government has been asked to take over maintenance of Grant's Tomb, a sightseers' landmark since 1895.

The Grant Monument Assn., a nonprofit organization, owns title to the monument on Riverside Drive. However, maintenance funds have been provided by New York City.

The association said yesterday it was appealing for federal funds because of "constant worry" entailed in receiving sufficient money to maintain the monument.

The organization noted, however, that the city "has been very decent about our requests."

Rabies Control Plan Proves Self in County

No one should doubt the value of immunizing dogs against rabies after reading a report by the County's Health Director Dr. John D. Monroe and Dr. Frank R. Bates, dog warden.

This shows that there has been no case of rabies for nearly 18 months in the area of the County in which dogs must be vaccinated before they can be licensed.

In view of conditions that prevailed before the immunization program was launched in 1953, such a result indeed is remarkable. It substantiates the two doctors' contention that the control program has been a complete success.

From the 110 rabid dogs found in Oakland County in 1952, the total dropped to one last year. It was emphasized by Dr. Bates, however, that there hasn't been a case of rabies in the vaccinated districts since July 14, 1954. This does not include incorporated areas.

★ ★ ★

Obviously, the virtual elimination of this menace to the health and lives of our children make the control program worth more than it costs in time, money and inconvenience.

Strength of Poujadists Alarms French Leaders

To know something about France's new extremist party—the Poujadists—is to learn why most political leaders of that country fear its organizer, Pierre Poujade.

He literally came from the political nowhere. Yet his opposition to all taxes except on big corporations, and cries of "down with parliament" were enough to win him 52 of the 544 seats in the Assembly.

Poujade, now 35, formerly was a publisher's representative and later the proprietor of a book and stationery store. He made his startling leap onto the national political stage without any program and without having taken any position on major issues.

What is so frightening about him is his announcement that his party will vote against the government at all times. Though not a member of the Assembly, Poujade has plans for rigidly controlling his deputies' votes. He even has threatened unco-operative ones with hanging on nearby lampposts.

Although the Communist leader Duclos and Poujade are politically poles apart, the one at the extreme left and the other at the far right, they have the same goal. That is so to use their votes in the chamber as eventually to disrupt or destroy the French parliamentary system.

This threat should be more than enough to shock leaders of the center parties into organizing the coalition necessary to save France from democratic suicide.

Every Little Bit Helps

Always in the weeks before income tax time, taxpayers are anxious to learn about anything that helps to cut Federal expenses.

Hence it is good news that there are people in the Government whose work includes finding ways of saving millions of dollars annually.

Tax Foundation, Inc. reports that Navy dentists have been using 250,000,000 gallons of water a year, most of which went down the drain. Installation of control valves at rinse basins saved $160,000 a year.

When Civil Defense wanted $4,300,000 worth of new blankets, the alert General Services Administration found 540,000 surplus blankets in Navy stocks. Similar swaps in 1954 involved property originally costing $57,500,000.

For years the Treasury Department had been buying dry currency paper which had to be moistened before printing. It now saves $360,000 a year by buying pre-moistened stock. Other savings include the $8,000,000 annually knocked off rent for Government used property.

Then there was the case of the Air Force's "longies." A survey revealed that the men weren't wearing their winter underwear. So that discovery knocked another million off Federal expenses.

As a final bit of consolation for taxpayers still shaken by Christmas bills, came this good news. In a seven month period Federal employes themselves earned $1,500,000 in prizes for economy ideas which saved the Government $40,000,000.

David Lawrence Says:

New Political Slogan? . . . Billions for Allies But Not a Cent for Neutrals

WASHINGTON—"Billions for allies but not a cent for 'neutrals'."

This may become the slogan of both political parties in Congress when the question of appropriations for foreign aid comes to a vote.

There is beginning to develop already a crystallization of opinion along definite lines. Foreign aid—which can be of military value—and direct help of a military nature are accepted in principle. But the whole debate will center on where the funds are to go—how they are to be allocated.

It is taken for granted by most members of Congress that they cannot justify before their constituencies the role of Uncle Sam as merely a paternalistic giver of taxpayers' money—especially as in many cases it tends to build up competitors in world markets. No obligation on the part of the United States to help "backward" nations just for the sake of the philanthropic spirit is recognized in Congress.

What is realistically accepted here is that American funds should be spent to build up allies but at the same time to be sure not to build up "neutrals" who help the common enemy.

FUNDS FREELY GIVEN

Up to now the United States, under both the Truman and the Eisenhower administrations, has followed an ambiguous policy of granting funds without any strings. Diplomats abroad have raised the point that the United States must not impair the independence of the countries it helps by compromising their internal position.

But the converse is also true—namely, that the United States has no right to spend taxpayers' money except for an American purpose—a defense objective. Unless assured that the recipients are on the American side as against the Communist imperialists, there is no honest reason for spending the money.

In a "cold war" there are two sides—the side of the free world and the side of the slave world. On moral issues there cannot be any such thing as neutrality. Each nation, however, has a right to decide for itself whether it wants to be "neutral." When it does decide on "neutrality"—whether it be Egypt or India—American funds cannot be expected to flow just the same. For America is not "neutral" and is planning to spend her money to build up Allies and not to build up bases of strength for the enemy—the Communist imperialists.

So, as many members of Congress—among them some of the most influential in both parties—see it, the time has come to call things unequivocally by their right names. The word "foreign aid," it is argued, means only "aid for the benefit of the United States." If the nations which want it refuse to aid the United States, there will be no hard feelings but they cannot expect American funds.

ASSUMED LOYALTY

The policy of requiring some commitment from the nations receiving American aid has been debated for ten years. Up to now, it has been assumed that the nations helped would be on our side anyway. But experience has proved that American defenses abroad have been imperiled by the successful penetration of allied countries by Communists.

Thus, it isn't pleasant for Americans to read that the Communist Party, which is under the control of the Soviet government's agents in France, is allowed to participate in the French Parliament and that it was permitted to vote in the elections on the theory that it is just like any other loyal party in politics. In Italy, too, Communists are given voting privileges, though everybody knows they are under Moscow's control.

How long will American taxpayers be willing to send funds to France and Italy while the Communists are given free rein and in both cases are on the threshold of either forming a government or exacting privileges in the cabinet in exchange for their voting strength?

This is the issue which many members of Congress are beginning privately to talk about, especially since the French elections advertised to the world how extensive is the Communist penetration in France despite the export of American billions in the last ten years.

U.S. 'Vegans' Healthier Than British Counterparts

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A vegan, I am able to tell you (Webster doesn't), is a vegetarian who excludes from his diet not just meat, fish and fowl, but also milk, butter, cheese and eggs.

Signs of nutritional defiency in vegans are (1) sore tongue; (2) sensations of pricking, tingling or creeping on the skin without apparent cause; (3) in women, amenorrhea and other menstrual disturbances; (4) Pains in back and spine, stiff back, called "vegan back."

These symptoms occur less frequently in Dutch vegans than in British vegans, and seldom if at all in American vegans.

The total protein intake of British vegans is 7 per cent, of Dutch vegans 9 per cent, of American vegans nearly 10½ per cent, according to biochemical examinations as reported by Wokes, Badenoch and Sinclair in Am. J. Clinical Nutrition.

VEGETABLE FOODS

These investigators state that British vegans do not consume the only vegetable foods (sea-weeds and ground nuts such as peanuts) known to contain vitamin B-12.

They suggest that vitamin B-12 deficiency is responsible for the illness that have developed after several years in some British vegetarians who have excluded milk, cheese, butter and eggs from their diet.

Milk, skim milk, separator milk, buttermilk, cheese and eggs are excellent sources of protein for human nutrition.

AS MUCH VITE

I have known, observed and examined numerous vegetarians and it seems to me they have as much vite as people who eat fish, fowl and meat. I have not had the opportunity to observe and examine any vegans, however.

Not from personal observation but from general reading I have formed the impression that vegetarians vegetate.

I do not mean to imply that they "do little but eat and grow," but rather that they "lead a passive existence without initative" (as Webster says). In other words, they are not aggressive.

Now take it easy. If you happen to be a vegetarian, keep your shirt on and tell me the facts of life.

I eat everything — except mashed potato and doughy white bread — but if you have anything to tell me other than where I can go you'll find I am just the sweetest old . . .

I shall continue eating meat, fish or fowl daily if I can get it, but if I had to kill my own I'd probably become a vegetarian.

Signed letters, not more than one page of 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Better Paid Coaches Will Produce Better Teams'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Evidence of false economy has been shown in the PHS athletic field for the past two years with top flight junior varsity football teams developing cellar varsity teams.

Pontiac High is larger than most class A schools and has plenty of material to choose from.

These same boys who tied for junior varsity championship of the Saginaw Valley League are available. Give these deserving athletes a top flight coach with top flight pay and the increased gate receipts would pay the difference.

My hat's off to the junior varsity football coach, who, for the welfare of boys trained for future success, gave superior coaching ability in return for inferior pay.

Let's merit good coaching with good pay and watch school spirit grow, like it did in Bay City High School.

One Who Knows

Hal Boyle Says:

Winter Gives Men Time to Heal Frazzled Nerves

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments of a pavement Plato:

After he reaches an age where he forgets the ecstasy of making and throwing a snowball, the average man often grumbles, "What good is winter?"

Winter has more critics than the income tax. This is unfair to one of the finest seasons of the year. Every season has its own particular virtues, and winter confers upon mankind major blessings.

Your farmers know the full value of winter. Its snowfalls provide him the water his crop will need next spring. He can reach into a full barrel and pull out an apple a day to keep the doctor away.

His labors are fewer, and he has time to write those long, long letters to his congressmen on what is wrong with the country. He is in semi-hibernation himself, and if his pigs and cows would just hibernate, too, he could write even longer letters.

* * *

It is the city dweller and the suburbanite who disparage winter most because they understand it least. The housewife complains because she gets her feet wet wading through slush on her daily pilgrimage to the supermarket.

The husband groans because he has to put tire chains on his motor car or dig a path through the snow that blocks his garage door.

MINOR MISERIES

But these are minor miseries in comparison to the pleasures that winter offers.

Why yearn to flee to the Southern ports of the sun. Why indeed! The South is for the birds. But the birds go South only through necessity, not desire.

If birds had homes with central heating and could patronize a good, well-stocked grocery store, do you think they'd be crazy enough to wear out their feathers flying all the way to Mexico every year? Not likely.

The ungrateful people who criticize winter do so because they simply don't know a good thing when they have it. They don't know how to get the most out of it.

Here are a few advantages of winter:

You won't be bitten by a snake or a mosquito and no chiggers will tunnel into you.

You won't catch poison ivy or get a sunburn.

You don't have to go on picnics or eat a steak burned to death on an outdoor grill.

There is less Sunday driving.

HOME ENJOYED

You go out less, and discover anew the fun you can find in your own home by your own hearth.

* * *

But above all winter makes you slow down the tempo of your living. Nature, the great psychiatrist, invented winter as a period of rest for all its creatures worn out by the wear and tear of summer's violence.

The long nights of winter bring the tremendous gift of more sleep. That is what winter is for—to sleep more. The most satisfying 15 minutes of the year is that extra quater hour of shut-eye a man indulges himself in after the alarm clock goes off on a cold winter morning. Does life hold a finer luxury? Does heaven?

Eternal summer is no boon to man, not if life itself is the greatest boon. People live longer in Nebraska, which knows winter, than in a torrid Brazilian city, which knows it not.

Winter is not the great destroyer; it is the great healer.

Don't fight winter. Just use it to relax and get well.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Letter of Application Should Contain Brief Essentials to Gain Interview

Lars is desperately in need of advice about writing a "letter of application." Save this Case Record, for most of you readers at some time may desire the same helpful information. And always remember that such a letter's purpose is not to get you a job but is to win an interview!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-346: Lars G., aged 25, is just back in civilian life after four years military service.

"Dr. Crane, I need a little advice on how to apply for a job," he confessed.

* * *

"In looking over the newspaper ads, I've found two or three which sound promising.

"But what should I say in my letter? And how long should a letter be?

"Although I went to college for two years, nobody ever taught me anything about writing a letter of application for a job."

HOW TO APPLY

What you readers crave is specific advice, not far-fetched generalities, so I always try to offer you surefire methods.

When you plan to write a letter of application, please remember that your letter is to obtain an interview for you, but not a job.

That is an essential distinction, so don't overload your letter with exhaustive details. Save such minor additions for the personal interview.

* * *

Make your letter an attractive, snappy affair that shows you have gumption and realize that a busy employer hasn't time for non-essentials.

If possible, learn the actual name of your prospective employer and address him accordingly.

If that is not possible, as when you are simply given a box number in a published advertisement, then start out with "Gentlemen:" and employ an opening paragraph like this one:

"Since I am looking for a position which offers wider opportunities for advancement, I am citing the following qualifications:"

Then you can make several short paragraphs under such general headings as "Business Experience," "Educational Background," "Personal Data" and finally, "References."

* * *

Sign off with a terse concluding sentence which says: "If you have an opening for a person with my qualifications, I'd appreciate an immediate reply in the enclosed stamped, self-addressed envelope."

NO SOFT SOAP

All too often applicants of high school age and even many college graduates, launch their letter much as follows:

"I am 20 years of age and all my life I have hoped I could link up with your wonderful company.

"Any kind of a job would be satisfactory and I am not concerned about wage scales, etc."

That kind of blarney intimates a juvenile or inexperienced person so is a poor introduction for you.

Furthermore, it is not true, for everybody knows that wages are of great importance to all of us.

And because young people have been so conscious of their childish state all through school, they grow unduly enamoured of adulthood; hence the hasty attempt to stock their age into the first sentence.

Employers are usually far more concerned with your previous experience. So mention two or three key jobs.

And when you give your references, try to list men with "handles" on their names such as "Advertising Manager," or "Vice-President" or "Judge."

Your letter should not exceed one page, typewritten. Its purpose is to advertise you sufficiently to make the employer ask to see you in person. Then, during the personal interview that follows, you can answer his more detailed questions.

* * *

For further advice on this vital topic, send for my "Vocational Guidance" booklet, which contains a specimen Letter of Application that pulls phenomenal returns. Enclose a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Oxford Slates Public Hearing on Home Rule Charter

Would Abolish Old Act of 1895

Jan. 18 Date for Meet; Charter Commission Has Completed Study

OXFORD — A public hearing on the new proposed village charter for Oxford will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday Jan. 18, in the Veterans' Memorial Building.

* * *

The charter commission, working since its election last March, has completed the study of various village charters and recommended its findings to the present council. Chairman Harold Campbell, Stewart Langley, Harold Pickford, Clifford Vennard, and Charles Webster have been assisted by village attorney Robert Parenti.

Their recommendations are that Oxford become a home rule village rather than continue operating under the General Village Act of 1895 and they will present the new charter at the public hearing.

The new charter provides for a five man council, one of whom will serve as president. They will appoint a clerk, attorney, and a village manager who will fill the other appointive offices. Present caucuses would be abolished and nominations will be by petition or a non-partisan primary, if necessary.

* * *

This village - manager type of government is in use in Imlay City, Rochester, and other progressive villages in Michigan.

Saves Year for TV Set Thieves Take

HAZEL PARK — The surprise that Pasquale Mancini of 23835 Tawas had planned for his wife Edith and their seven children backfired here.

Mancini pulled into his driveway Thursday with a brand new 21-inch television set in his pickup truck.

While he was in the house arranging a spot to put it, two men drove up in a 1955 Oldsmobile and grabbed the television set.

Muncini walked out of the front door in time to see them loading it into the trunk of their car. He chased them in his truck for five miles but lost them in the traffic. Mancini had saved a whole year to buy the set.

Milford Youth Elects Today

Seniors to Take Over Duties of Officials Here One Day

REBA HEINTZELMAN

MILFORD—A general election for village president and council members will take place today at Milford High school.

Some time in late January, the senior class will take over the duties of village officials for one day and learn first hand just how the government is conducted.

For weeks, students have participated in one of the most extensive political campaigns ever staged in this area, according to Erwin Johnson, principal.

Advertising space was purchased in the school paper, leaflets distributed and real electrical voting machines were set up in order to make the project as authentic as possible.

All of the student body and staff, regardless of their connection with high school, are eligible to vote, however, they had to register well in advance, the same as in regular village elections.

RULE ONE DAY

On "Senior Day," winners of the general election will accompany each official throughout the day as he performs his regular duties. At the end of the day, a special session of the council will be called, and the student officials will recommend improvements for the six councilmen to discuss and vote on.

The government, speech and English classes have collaborated in the project, and the posters and leaflets used give the school all the appearance of a national party headquarters. This is the first time an election of this type has been held in the high school.

Running for president are Republican Ronald Glynn and Dennis Berry.

Opposing, on the Democratic side is James Green. Besides the councilmen to be elected, there is clerk, tax assessor, fire chief, and police chief.

Ray Neiner is the head of the government department of the high school, sponsoring the project.

Begin Work to Select Architect for School

The Pontiac Board of Education last night took a step toward construction of a new senior high school expected to be opened by September 1958.

The board authorized Superintendent Dr. Dana P. Whitmer and his staff to put machinery in motion toward selecting an architect to design the structure.

Board President Louis H. Schimmel suggested that Whitmer's staff narrow the field to four firms, one of which will be hired by the board.

"Because of the tremendous amount of community interest in the new senior high as a community center and the pride that communities take in their high schools, every effort must be made to secure the best architectural services available," Whitmer stated.

Detroit Army Buyer Freed by Court Order

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — The U.S. Army said it received official notice today of a Washington court order to release Hugh H. Muriahe of Detroit.

Muriahe, former civilian purchasing agent for the Army, was convicted by a court-martial Thursday on a charge of accepting a $10,000 bribe and signing a false statement. He was sentenced to three years' imprisonment and fined $10,000.

The sentence came after unofficial word was received of the release order. The Army said Muriahe would be released when he posts bond for $2,500.

Find Couple Innocent in Municipal Court

Waterford Township couple Lawrence Graham, 31, of 4218 Hatchery Rd., and Martha Graham, 25, Tuesday were found innocent of contributing to the delinquency of their 4-year-old son.

The decision was handed down after trial before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

But the Graham's son, Larry, remains under jurisdiction of Oakland County Juvenile, pending completion of an investigation, court authorities said.

Pontiac Police charged the couple with leaving Larry two hours in an unheated car late Dec. 22.

GOP Puzzled by Ike's Silence

Illinois, Florida Primary Listings Cause Uptake in Re-election Guessing

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's refusal to give assent or dissent to the entry of his name in the Illinois preferential primary left Republicans as uncertain today as before about his second-term intentions.

* * *

There were some new predictions that he will seek re-election, but no one claimed to see in the White House statement any clearer indication than Eisenhower gave a news conference Sunday at Key West, Fla.

MIND NOT FIXED

He said then his mind is not so fixed that it cannot be changed. The clear implication was that he has made a tentative decision one way or the other, but he was careful not to say what it was.

His doctors have said it will be mid-February before they can say whether his recovery from a Sept. 24 heart attack is complete enough for him to run.

* * *

When Gov. William G. Stratton announced at Springfield, Ill., yesterday that Eisenhower's name will be entered in the Illinois presidential preference voting April 10, the White House said there would be no statement "signifying either assent or dissent."

The statement was issued by Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, who said he had Eisenhower's approval. Hagerty stressed that Eisenhower did not know in advance of Stratton's plans. Stratton said, too, he had not consulted Eisenhower. He added: "This is our way of saying, Mr. President, we hope you run again." The state's preference primary is advisory only—not binding on delegates.

* * *

Shortly thereafter, it was announced that Eisenhower's name will be entered in the Florida preference primary May 29. State GOP Chairman G. Harold Alexander said at Fort Myers, "There definitely will be a slate for Eisenhower and it will win by an overwhelming majority."

Stray Dog, Dime Stir Up Big Fuss on N.Y. Thruway

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A stray dog and a thin dime have caused an almighty fuss across New York State.

Seems a toll collector at a State Thruway interchange at Canandaigua noticed a mutt moping around yesterday. Deputy Alan F. Johnston responded to the call and picked up the dog. Four miles down the highway Johnston refused to pay a ten cents toll. What about line of duty?

Toll collectors summoned a state trooper. Johnston dug deep.

Thruway headquarters now says it was all a mistake. Thruway police, not the sheriff's office, should have been summoned for the dog.

Johnston will get back his dime. And the honor may go to the toll collector who called the sheriff's office.

AF General Gains $2,440 From Probe

SCOTT AIR FORCE BASE, Ill. (AP)—An Air Force general, fined $500 and reprimanded, has profitted by $2,440 in pay and allowances during the inquiry leading to his punishment.

* * *

Maj. Gen. Byron E. Gates, 60, former commander at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., was punished for giving preferential treatment to private insurance firms for his personal gain at the air base.

* * *

The Air Training Command yesterday told of Gen. Gates' profit. He had been retired with a monthly pay of $804. For the inquiry he was recalled to active duty for six months with a total pay of $1,294 a month. With the $500 forfeiture deducted, he was ahead by $2,440, the ATC spokesman said.

State to Receive Bids on Highway Projects

The State Highway Department will take bids Jan. 27 on six trunkline projects including one for 7.6 miles of the Brighton-Farmington Expressway (relocation of US-16) from Kent Lake east to Twelve Mile Road.

The job is to be completed Sept. 30, 1957. It will consist of two 24-foot-wide pavements. Also listed is a bridge to carry the Old Plank Road over the expressway two miles east of New Hudson.

Disaster Losses to Be Deductible

Owners Who Suffered Property Damages to Receive Tax Benefit

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is some consolation for those who suffered from the ill winds and other causes of 1955's major disasters: some of the losses, at least, may be deducted for income tax purposes.

• • •

Taxpayers must be sure, however, that the kind of casualty from which they suffered a loss is deductible. And there are some special rules that must be observed.

The Internal Revenue Service has published a special new booklet on the subject. It is called "How the Federal Income Tax Applies to Losses from Hurricanes, Floods and Other Disasters."

The free booklet is obtainable from Revenue Service offices.

First, what is a casualty?

The income tax law defines a casualty as damage resulting from "an identifiable event of a sudden, unexpected or unusual nature." This includes such things as hurricanes, cyclones, tornadoes, earthquakes, floods, forest fires and similar nature disasters.

Losses from fires which do not arise from a natural cause and which may affect only the property of one taxpayer also are deductible casualities.

CLASSIFICATIONS LISTED

Not classed as deductible losses are those from some steadily operating cause, such as land erosion or the weakening of a structure from normal action of weather or water. Nor may a deduction be made for loss in value of property because it is in a flood or storm area.

Deductible losses, in general, must result from some "sudden destructive force."

When is the loss deductible?

Casualty losses are deductible only in the taxable year when they occurred. Since most people pay their taxes on a calendar year basis, they can deduct from 1955 income only for losses suffered in 1955.

What is the deductible loss?

There are two kinds of casualty losses that may be deducted. One is a non-business loss suffered by a taxpayer whose home, pleasure boat, automobile, or other property is damaged or destroyed.

The other is loss to business property, including buildings, equipment and inventories.

• • •

As business tax bookkeeping may involve such complex items as capital gains, the rules for deducting business loans become pretty complicated. It is best for any businessman who does not have his own tax adviser to seek help from the Revenue Service. The farmer, like other businessmen, probably needs such expert advice in making a casualty loss deduction.

RISKY — Ingrid Bergman, the controversial star who left her husband and Hollywood for remarriage and movie-making in Italy, caused one of Hollywood's biggest hassles in 1955. The debate was over the casting of Ingrid in "Anastasia." Many movie-makers and theater owners believed her conduct had made her unpopular with fans. But producer Darryl Zanuck took the chance.

British Troops Flown to Cyprus

2,000 Paratroops Sent to Reinforce Strength in Tense Middle East

LONDON (AP)—Britain began speeding some 2,000 paratroops toward Cyprus today as a show of strength in the tense Middle East.

Dispatch of the airborne "fire brigade" to Britain's Middle East headquarters on Cyprus came amid reports the government was considering slowing down troop evacuations from the Suez Canal zone because of the restless situation in the area.

• • •

Giant transport planes began ferrying the special combat group eastward through heavy rain clouds to reinforce Britain's estimated garrison on Cyprus of 100,000 men, many of whom are tied down by disorders arising out of demands for union of the island with Greece.

The giant airlift is due to be completed by tomorrow night.

The possibility Britain may slow down its Suez Canal evacuation came barely a month before the previously expected completion of the project.

• • •

More than 65 per cent of the 80,000-man garrison already has moved out under terms of the British-Egyptian Suez agreement and at the present rate it was anticipated the whole force would be out by the end of next month, 3½ months ahead of schedule.

School Board Continuing Work on Manual of Policy

A proposed set of policies to comprise part of a Pontiac Board of Education policy manual were presented to the Board for study and possible future adoption last night by Schools' Superintendent Dr. Dana P. Whitmer.

The manual's general purpose will be to state the philosophy under which the school organization will function, outline an organizational chart, state the kinds of schools which will be maintained by the system, the principals on which the instructional program will operate and establish common policies for organization of pupils and length of pupil and employe days.

Action to adopt the policies will be withheld until next month's meeting to allow members time to study them.

In other action, the administrative staff was asked to prepare a report on a suggestion by Board member Robert B. Oliver that the school system set up its own gasoline pumping station.

"At present we're buying a tremendous amount of gasoline from privately operated pumps to supply our buses and cars," said Oliver, "money might be saved by establishing our own facility."

Bids will be opened Jan. 17 for a contract to construct the planned Walton Boulevard Elementary School, said Building Coordinator Dr. Otto C. Hufziger.

Lohff and Noble, a Pontiac auditing firm, were given a $1,350 contract to do the school district audit for the 1955-56 fiscal year.

Veteran at 25!

Opera Audiences Awed by Kalamazoo Conductor

DETROIT (AP) — A tall young man casually dressed in sweat shirt and slacks stepped to the podium in Masonic Auditorium Tuesday and masterfully directed the Detroit Symphony through a rehearsal of Prokofieff's highly difficult "Fifth Symphony."

* * *

Two and a half hours later, the rehearsal over, a gray-haired violinist who has performed under many of the world's leading conductors shook his head in admiration and declared, "That boy certainly knows his business."

"That boy" is Thomas Schippers, 25-year-old musical prodigy, who will make his debut with the Detroit Symphony tonight as a guest conductor.

Kalamazoo-born and reared, Schippers already is a veteran of the concert stage and is widely acclaimed as one of the nation's most brilliant young conductors.

Last year the handsome young maestro reached a pinnacle that many directors twice his age never achieve when he was named one of the Metropolitan Opera Co.'s regular conductors. He was the youngest to be named to such a post since Walter Damrosch joined the company in 1887.

Three weeks ago, before the proud eyes of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schippers of Kalamazoo, he conducted his first opera at the Met — Donzietti's "Don Pasquale."

CRITICS HEAP PRAISE

New York critics were unanimous in their praise, pouring forth such tributes as "extraordinary," "dynamic" and "miracle boy of the baton" to describe his performance.

Though amazingly young for his high status, Schippers' musical education actually began two decades ago. He started piano lessons at five, hardly big enough to reach the keyboard, but in six years had advanced far enough to take over the organists's job at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Kalamazoo.

Henry Overley, who took over Tom's tutelage about that time, quickly realized he had a young genius on his hands and at Overley's recommendation, young Schippers left Kalamazoo after his junior year in high school for study at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia and later Yale.

At 19, still a gangling youth, Schippers applied for a job as musical coach at the Metropolitan. He was hired after telling Met officials he was 25 years old.

That same year he made his first professional appearance as a guest conductor with the Philadelphia Orchestra. He made other appearances as a pianist.

CONDUCTS AT 19

Soon afterward the composer Gian-Carolo Menotti, impressed with Schippers' wide knowledge and sensitive forceful directing, chose him to conduct his new opera "The Counsul."

Thus at an age when most boys still are floundering over the choice of a profession, 19-year-old Thomas Schippers had arrived as one of America's most promising conductors in years.

In the six years since plaudits, honors, invitations for guest appearances have been heaped upon him one after another.

After a tour of Europe as a conductor, he returned to this country and was appointed a resident conductor of the New York City Center Opera Co. He was chosen to conduct the world premiere of Aaron Copland's opera "The Tender Land," directed music for the movie version of "The Consul," then Menotti's "The Medium," "Amahl and the Night Visitors" and most recently "The Saint of Bleeker Street."

Schippers spent last summer conducting at the famed La Scala opera in Milan, Italy, one of the youngest directors to be so honored.

* * *

Following his Detroit appearance he will go with his family to Springfield, Ill., to receive an award as one of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce's 10 outstanding young men of 1955.

University Putting On Horrifying Exhibition

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan is exhibiting a collection of first editions—nine cases of them—and all mysteries and detective stories.

Some of the titles, designed to delight and horrify: "The Invisible Worm" by Margaret Millar; "The Dark Tunnel" by Kenneth Miller and "I'll Eat You Last" by H. C. Bransen. More famous are Agatha Christie's "The Murder of Roger Akroyd." Mary Roberts Rinehart's "The Red Lamp" and John Buchan's "The Thirty-Nine Steps."

Mrs. Silver Names 2 Contacts in Statement

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Special Asst. Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash said today Mrs. Gertrude Silver in a statement made to him named two women she said she contacted to arrange an abortion for her daughter, Mrs. Doris Jean Ostreicher.

The daughter died last Aug. 24 in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz. The district attorney's office charges the illegal abortion caused the food chain heiress' death.

Dash declined to name the two women or say whether they would be arrested.

Ostreicher and Doris Jean Silver eloped two months before her death while she was staying with relatives in Miami Beach. She later returned to Philadelphia and was living with her parents.

Base Camp of First Antarctic Explorer Still Stands Perfectly 47 Years Later

CAMP BOYDS, Ross Island, Antarctic (AP)—The base camp used by the first man to come close to the South Pole still stands here at the foot of Mt. Erebus, on a little hollowed-out shelf over the frozen ice of McMurdo Sound.

* * *

It is 47 years since England's Ernest Shackleton made his gallant attempt. Forced to turn back 85 miles short of his goal, he and his parties did much notable exploratory and scientific work in the antarctic.

Looking over his camp almost half a century later gives one the sensation of a macabre movie that stopped suddenly, with all action and life frozen in the last motion. There is the sensation too of being on a spot as dismal and bleak as a crater of the moon must be.

IN GOOD CONDITION

The wooden hut, about 40 by 20 feet, has whitened over the years but is still in good condition. Cables criss-crossing over its peak anchor it against the violent antarctic winds. It stands on a slight rise overlooking a saucer-shaped area. In the center of the saucer is a small pond, unfrozen since it is well protected. Black volcanic ash where nothing ever grew rings it. From the seaside comes the squawking of a small penguin rookery. Overhead ugly skua gulls wait like vultures to pounce on the penguins.

Behind the hut Mt. Frebus rises in an overwhelming white pyramid all the way up to 13,000 feet—the only active volcano in the antarctic.

FOOD UNOPENED

Scattered around the hut are cans, bales and boxes. Some are half open, or chewed away by the skua gulls. They contain hams, soup, marrow, fat, corn kernels, concentrated fruits and other foodstuffs for man and beast. Those that are unopened are still edible.

At first glance the piles appear helter-skelter. But closer inspection reveals the provisions in groups—hams together, soups together—where the explorers once stored them in the snow.

Some are marked "British Antarctic Expedition 1908." Others were left by the second expedition in 1917. On that one Shackleton never reached his men here on McMurdo Sound. He took one group to the Wedell Sea, on the other side of the continent. Heavy ice trapped his ship, then carried it hundreds of miles off course, preventing the linkup.

It was on the first expedition that Shackleton jumped off from here for the pole, using Manchurian drag sledges along the 800-mile route.

Detroit Delays Sanction of New Diesel Buses

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit's city council has postponed action on a DSR proposal to purchase 150 General Motors diesel buses to replace streetcars on the Woodward and Gratiot Ave. lines.

Council President Louis C. Miriani asked the DSR to report in a week on how the buses would be used and how the $3,155,000 purchase price would be financed.

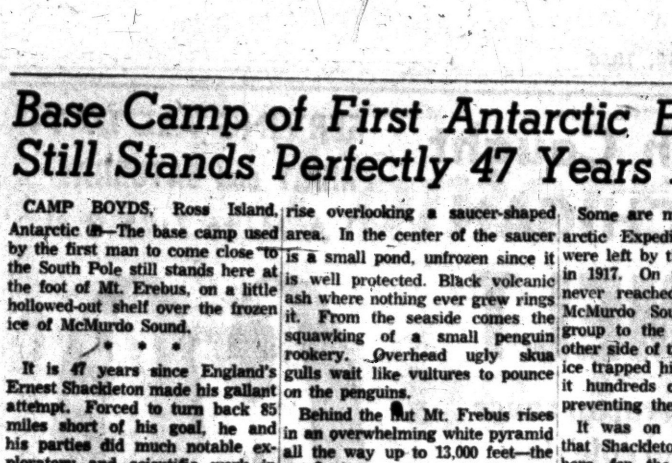

JOSEPH C. DAVISON

Joseph C. Davidson, asisstant secretary of General Motors Corp., was installed recently as Illustrous Potentate of Moslem Temple Shrine in Detroit. He will direct the activities of the Moslem Temple's membership, which includes the Pontiac area, and also lead the 82nd annual International Shrine Convention in Detroit next July.

Admits Killing In-Law of Pancho Gonzales

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Joseph Henry Addington, a 50-year-old Los Angeles bellhop, last night admitted the fatal shooting of his former wife, Mrs. Carmen Pedrin, police said.

Mrs. Pedrin, 46, the mother-in-law of professional tennis star Pancho Gonzales, was found shot to death in her apartment here Jan. 3.

Out Again—in Again

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Sidney Oram looked forward to going home Wednesday after confinement in a hospital for a leg operation. Instead she found herself in another hospital. Mrs. Oram's husband, a policeman, called for his wife in a car. On the way home the auto collided with another. Oram and his wife both were hospitalized for minor injuries, in a different hospital.

Patients to Give Variety Show

Will Honor Committee From Macomb County Friday Night

Patients of Pontiac State Hospital will stage a variety talent show for the general public tomorrow night, with members of the Macomb County Citizens Committee for Pontiac State Hospital as honored guests.

The program, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the hospital's main building, will include vocal selections by the patients' male and female choruses and music by the patients' orchestra.

Featured will be a black light dance number, with Spanish dancers and the patients' three-piece musical combo.

Climax of the evening will come with the presentation to the hospital of a $500 check by the Macomb Citizens Committee, to be used for the completion of a tennis court. Lawrence W. Martell, president of the citizens group, will present the check to Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, medical superintendent of the hospital.

The Macomb group, started last September, is the first in the 10-county area served by the hospital to organize for the benefit of the mentally ill, according to Ted A. Panaretos, psychiatric case work supervisor for the hospital and consultant to the group. Said Panaretos:

"The citizens group already has made strides in its aim to wipe out the stigma of mental illness which attacks one in eight and fills over half the hospital beds in the United States. To date, the committee has raised nearly $1,000, sent thousands of gifts and Christmas cookies to the patients, and now is working out plans for monthly parties for the mentally ill.

Employe Figure Up, Director Discloses

Oakland County was employing 976 persons, not counting Road Commission personnel, at end of 1955, County Personnel Director John Witherup said today.

The total was up 62 over the December 1954 figure of 914.

As the county's population grows and building continues to boom, the people demand more services from the county and more workers must be hired, Witherup explained.

Some 1,048 positions have been allowed for in the 1956 budget, he stated, 78 more than the present total.

A large number of employes are required to operate institutions. The Tuberculosis Sanitorium has 184; the Infirmary, 154; the Children's Home, 35, and the Contagious Hospital, 28.

Adrian Strike Ends

ADRIAN (AP)—The 14-week strike at the Adrian Hotel ended Wednesday with agreement on union affilation for 19 striking employes. Under the settlement the hotel's restaurant employes will be unionized and other employes may join the Retail Workers Union if they wish. The three-story hotel is owned by A. D. Faust of Auburn, Ind. The hotel restaurant is operated independently by Mr. and Mrs. Elwood C. Fletcher. Both had continued operations during the strike.

Named Auto Director

DETROIT (AP) — Henry W. Vandeven of Muskegon was elected a director of Continental Motors Corp. Wednesday. He has been treasurer of the firm since 1929. He replaces B. F. Tobin Jr. of Los Angeles, who resigned.

Newsboys Chief Dies

DETROIT (AP)—Joseph W. Brady, former president of the Detroit Old Newsboys, died Wednesday at 71. He was a brother of the late James J. Brady, founder of the organization.

Drugs May End Brain Strokes

Results in Early Tests of Anti-Blood-Clotting Medicine Encouraging

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Many crippling and fatal brain strokes apparently can be prevented by wise use of anti-blood-clotting drugs.

The drugs are bringing encouraging results against brain strokes caused by formation of blood clots blocking main arteries to the brain. They cannot help against strokes due to other causes, such as the blow-out of weakened arteries in the brain.

* * *

Dr. Clark H. Millikan and Dr. Robert G. Siekert began using the drugs on patients suffering from special types of strokes. These strokes bring numbness, staggering gait, weakness, sometimes temporary paralysis of the eyes or limbs, slurred speech, unconsiousness or other troubles.

Some persons have several such strokes a day, or several a week. Without treatment, many die within a short time when a severe stroke hits.

BLOOD CLOTS FORM

These strokes apparently come because blood clots are building up in either the basilar artery, supplying the brainstream with blood, or the cartoid artery which runs up through the side of the neck.

Autopsy studies showed that fatal clots in these arteries have a layered appearance, as though they had been built up gradually in layers.

The Mayo neurologists reasoned that each little stroke might be due to temporary interference in blood flow to the brain as the clot increased in size with a new layer. Anticoagulant drugs might prevent growth of the clot. If the clot blocks the artery completely, death or severe and permanent damage results.

Dr. Millikan and Dr. Siekert report promising results from daily or regular use of heparin or dicumarol, the same anticoagulants often used in treating heart attacks caused by blood clots.

In a number of patients, the little strokes stopped completely with no further trouble. Other patients showed great improvement. The drugs have been used to date on 53 patients, with only 14 per cent succumbing to strokes. But in another 23 persons not given the drugs, nearly half have since died from strokes.

The studies are continuing.

Israel Faces U.N. Rap in Syria Row

Soviets, West Pressing for Stern Condemnation Over Dec. 11 Attack

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—Israel today faced a strong U.N. condemnation for her Dec. 11 attack on Syria and a warning that further such incidents would bring sterner measures.

Both Russia and the big Western powers were pressing for such action in the 11-nation Security Council meeting to consider their rival proposals.

The other council members were reported in general agreement that the body must go this far at least. The main point at issue was what form the resolution should take.

The Soviet proposal was worded more bluntly. It also demanded that Israel pay compensation for the loss of life and property in the raid, which was directed against Syrian outposts near the Sea of Galilee in retaliation for Syrian firing on Israeli boats on the lake. Fifty-six Syrians and six Israelis were reported killed in the raid.

• • •

The resolution sponsored by the United States, Britain and France makes no recommendation for compensation, but a U.S. spokesman said the United States feels there is a moral basis for such payment.

Don't Bet on a Single—She's Partial to Twins

NEWBERRY (AP) — Odds are about even that when Mrs. Earl Hutchinson enters the hospital maternity section she'll come home with twins.

The Hutchinsons have three sets of twins so far in their family of 10. They got their third set Tuesday. The first set was born in 1945, the second in 1949.

Seeks School Bonds

ADRIAN (AP) — William L. Austin, Adrian school superintendent, is making a series of public appearances urging public support for a 4½ million dollar school bond issue. Taxpayers will vote on the measure Feb. 16. The money would finance a new $3,600,000 high school and a $750,000 addition to the present high school, which would be used as a junior high school.

Navy to Draft 10,000, Army 6,000 for March

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department today issued a draft call for 16,000 men in March, 10,000 for the Navy and 6,000 for the Army.

The Navy called for the same number of draftees in the November and December, but did not ask for any in January or February. The Army's March quota is the same as was asked for January and February.

The March call brings to 2,014,430 the total drafted or earmarked for induction since the resumption of Selective Service in September 1950.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE HIPPOPOTAMUS

The huge hippopotamus spends most of his time in the water. His name means river horse, although he doesn't look or act like a horse at all. Maybe you have seen him at the zoo.

He has a thick body, broad head, small eyes and a huge mouth. Despite his size and weight he can run fast, swim well and stay under water for 10 minutes at a time.

The hippo's thick skin is hairless except for a bunch of coarse hairs at the end of his short tail.

To get a hippo for your zoo, first color this picture with crayons. Mr. Hippo's skin is brown. His lower lip is red. White teeth show on either side of his mouth.

Now paste the picture on cardboard. Cut out around the heavy black outlines. Then cut along the heavy black lines in the head and around the ears. Fold the hippo down the middle line of dots.

If you bend up the ears they will stand erect. Now insert the tabs marked X into the slots on the shoulders. This shapes the head.

The sign is like the ones used in the zoo. Paste the two parts together, back to back, as far as the dotted lines. By folding the two tabs outward your sign will stand up.

Junior Editors pays $10 for any reader's idea that is used. Write your suggestion to "Junior Editors" in care of this newspaper; it cannot be acknowledged or returned and in case of duplication of ideas, the first submission shall be accepted.

Irate Gotham Motorists Jam Up Traffic Courts

NEW YORK (AP)—Thousands of motorsts who got summonses from police in a New Year campaign against accidents caused angry jams yesterday in New York City courts.

Four thousand men and women formed a long, slow-moving queue at Manhattan Traffic Court alone.

Many protested bitterly at the long waits. "This is like being sent to jail for a day," said one.

Police launched the New Year drive to prevent a repetition of the heavy Christmas highway toll.

From Dec. 30 through Jan. 3 they issued 27,577 summonses.

Personal Creed Allows Fire Hazard to Exist

NORTH HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The reason Otto F. Timmsen hasn't placed a firebreak around his mountain property is that his personal creed forbids him to destroy anything that lives.

Cutting a firebreak, he explained to Judge Morton Barker, would involve the destruction of shrubs and other plant life that abound in his area.

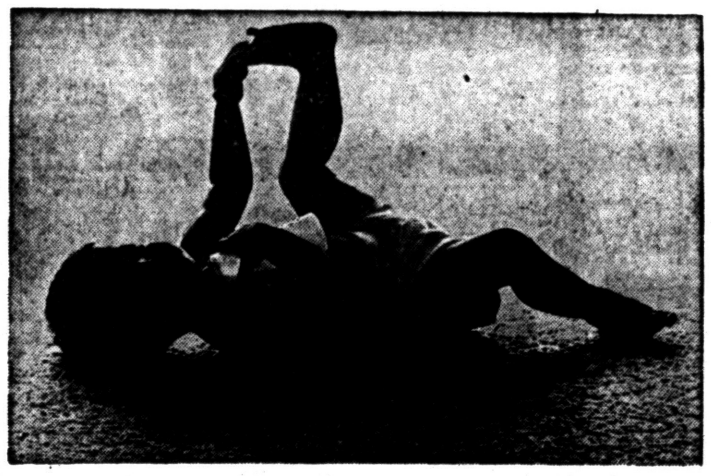

The Fire Dept. had charged Timmsen with maintaining a fire hazard and failing to clear a 30-foot firebreak.

The judge took the case under submission.

Japan Sending Farmers to U.S.

17 Young Trainees to Arrive Tuesday; Five to Live in Michigan

TOKYO (INS)—Seventeen young farmers from Japan are scheduled to arrive next Tuesday in the United States where they will live and work on farms for 10 months.

The agricultural trainees are en route to Los Angeles aboard the Japanese vessel American Maru, according to an announcement by the U. S. Embassy in Tokyo Tuesday.

A spokesman said the purpose of the mission is to "give promising young Japanese additional training in (farming) specialties" in which they have "demonstrated competence."

The American Farm Bureau Federation, chief sponsor of the program, will give the Japanese youths their orientation, then place them in farms of their choice.

From Los Angeles, the 17 visitors will first go to New York for a one-week orientation course, after which they will fan out to "host" farms across the nation.

Five of the trainees are slated to live and work on farms in Michigan and two in Indiana. The others will go to farms in New Hampshire, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota, Missouri, Virginia, Colorado and Oregon.

Doctors to Report Today on Graham Sanity Test

DENVER (AP)—Four psychiatrists were scheduled to report their findings today on the sanity of John Gilbert Graham, accused of murder in a plane disaster which took 44 lives.

Graham and the doctors were directed to appear at an afternoon hearing before Dist. Judge Joseph McDonald.

The 23-year-old defendant is charged with murdering his mother Mrs. Daisie E. King, 54, a passenger aboard a United Air Lines plane which exploded and crashed Nov. 1. She and 43 other persons were killed.

Geneva was the site of the League of Nations in 1920.

Cheating in Bar Exams Probed

Investigation to Begin on Jan. 23 by 23-Man Grand Jury

LANSING (INS) — Charges of cheating and bribery in connection with Michigan's September bar examinations will be investigated by a 23-man grand jury convening at Lansing on Jan. 23.

The grand jury was ordered by Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salmon of Ingham County, at the request of Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh and the Ingham County prosecutor.

Kavanagh said he asked for the grand jury after an investigation by his office and State Police was unable to break the case.

The attorney general said he resorted to the 23-man common law grand jury rather than Michigan's one-man grand jury because the case involves the legal profession as a whole.

He said he felt it would be unfair to ask one circuit judge to handle the matter and make decisions.

The case came to light last November when Joseph F. Deeb, chairman of the state board of law examiners, asked for the State Police investigation after receiving reports that several bar candidates had seen the questions before taking the exam. Kavanagh said he believed that more than five persons were involved.

Meanwhile, Deeb announced at Grand Rapids that the five members of the board will turn over their grades to the State Supreme Court at the end of this week.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON SUTER

Suter-Stone Marriage Solemnized at Waterford

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Nina Mae Stone, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Stone, 6223 Lindsay, and Gordon Suter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Suter of 5933 Dwight, Pontiac, exchanged nuptial vows in a recent rite at Waterford Community Church.

One hundred and fifty guests witnessed the evening ceremony.

The bridal gown was white lace over satin, ending in a train. Her bouquet was a cascade of red and white roses, white carnations and lilies of the valley with satin streamers. A lace crown of seed pearls held in place her fingertip veil of net.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Barbara Bellamy of Pontiac and bridesmaid was her sister, Mrs. Carol Hubble, of Drayton Plains.

Acting as best man was James Mitchell of Pontiac and ushers were Clayton Kellogg of Pontiac and John W. Stone of Manistee.

Combat GIs Key to War Victory

Brucker Gives Views on U.S. Army Before Detroit Society

DETROIT (INS) — Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker said in Detroit last night that the final decision in war rests with "trained and courageous combat soldiers, slugging it out with an enemy in the mud."

Speaking before 5,000 members of the Society of Automotive Engineers, Brucker said:

"The idea that a war can be won by merely pushing buttons is a dangerous illusion. To embrace the concept that victory can be achieved by remote control is to invite defeat."

The Army secretary praised the Society of Automotive Engineers for its major role in putting Army supply on wheels in World War I, and its help in the development of cargo carriers, amphibians and self-propelled guns, which were used in World War II and the Korean conflict.

Earlier in the day, at a news conference, the Army secretary discussed his recent trip to the Far East. He said the Republic of Korea is very friendly with the U.S. government and that Syngman Rhee did not give any hint of making a move against North Korea without consulting the U.S.

Brucker concluded with emphasis on the fact that the U.S. Army is ready to meet any aggression and he pledged there will never be another disaster like the attack on Pearl Harbor by the Japanese.

Solon Introduces Bill

LANSING (AP) — Rep. George A. Gillespie (R-Gaines) filed for introduction today a bill to block construction of the Saginaw-Flat Rock turnpike for at least two years.

Gillespie's measure would prevent the turnpike authority from removing any house from the route of the turnpike. It would also bar the authority from evicting tenants through condemnation proceedings. Gillespie, whose district lies in the proposed route of the turnpike, said the toll road will cause too many "heartbreaks" by breaking up farms.

All New York Dem Chiefs Endorse Harriman for '56

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Harriman was armed today with a weapon that could blunt the drive for Adlai Stevenson in New York state and strengthen his own chances of winning the Democratic presidential nomination.

The weapon was unanimous endorsement of his candidacy by all 62 of the state's Democratic county chairmen.

About 23 per cent of the passenger cars in use today are 13 or more years old, compared with four per cent in 1941. Another 33 per cent are 8 to 12 years old compared with 20 per cent in 1940.

Community Center Program Marks Tenth Anniversary of Its Founding

Ten years ago this week, Pontiac witnessed the birth of the Community Center Program sponsored today by the city Parks and Recreation Department.

Back in 1946, Whittier School on the city's south side was the focal point of this civic project, financially backed by Optimist Club funds.

Some 2,310 children flocked to the school after hours to play organized games and participate in a gymnasium program afforded by this infant endeavor.

Today 13 schools and the Lakeside Homes community center building provide Pontiac children from the ages of 10 to 18 years with community centers scattered throughout the city.

The program offers school children from the fifth grade through high school with an organized and helpful activity for after school hours and in the evenings, five days a week during the winter months of the year.

The combined efforts of the Board of Education who offers school facilities free, and volunteers from civic and community clubs have helped this plan grow to a level today where 37,000 children participate.

Seventy-four adults guide the many boys and girls in selecting numerous activities in which to engage in their free hours.

According to Community Center Director Leonard T. Buzz, the seven evening dances a week for teenagers and the school gym facilities have proved the most popular choices.

Tumbling, arts and crafts, table tennis and table games are also offered during the 19-week schedule.

The following schools included in the program are Whittier, Wilson, Wever, Bagley, Baldwin, Owen, Central, Pontiac High, Emerson and the Lakeside center.

Ulterior Motive?

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—William L. Wood, a retired railroad man, wanted to keep his job as park commissioner after it was changed from a part-time to a full-time post. But the salary didn't suit him. Finally after two city council meetings, Wood got his way. He was given the appointment at $600 a year instead of the $4,000 the city council offered.

Little Girls' Fashions Stress the Ladylike Look

The Near Eastern influence is shown in George Carmel's spring 1956 side slit coat of black and white checked worsted. The collar and cuffs are black velvet, and the full-length lining is green taffeta. This coat was shown yesterday in New York.

High Style Comes to Nursery Set

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE

NEW YORK—Tiny 3 and 4-year-old models walked their way right into the hearts of the visiting press yesterday when Brigance showed his collection of summer sportswear.

• • •

There's a real place for fashion in the pint-sized crowd, and this year more than ever you'll see family groups wearing identical sports and beach wear.

Mrs. Clemence

You don't see the tomboy in the summer collection of little girls' apparel. Everything is toward the trim, spic and span silhouette. Even the slim jims show the influence of the new lady-like look for small fry.

• • •

Editors dashed to Hattie Carnegie's salon to see her collection of spring finery at an early showing Wednesday.

Silk organdy, silk organza, silk chiffon, silk Egyptian cottons and re-embroidered laces are the favored evening fabrics. Pinks and Carnegie Blue are some of the most beautiful colors.

Yards of fabric are used for evening, with drapes falling in gentle folds. Keeping every fashion trend under control, Miss Carnegie showed empire line dresses and backward moving skirts.

Back panels flaring out from the waist were prominent in this collection.

Coats are now looking different. Carnegie shows the bolero (a reefer with over-banding detail to make it look like a bolero top); the dandy coat, which is a double-breasted hip-length variation of the Navy pea jacket, and the T-coat, a straight coat with T-shaped pockets.

Renowned trend setters, the firm of Monte-Sano and Pruzan, held their showings at the Pierre where several collections have been shown this week.

THE SOFT LOOK

Everything is soft in this grouping including fabrics, silhouettes and detail. News is in the gentle back blousing of the coats, which is so well done that it looks like curved shaping for the very slim torso.

• • •

Narrow coats and suits look even narrower with this blousing. Shoulders are cut much lower than usual.

Three main fashion themes set the mood for spring in the Originala coat grouping. One is the empire look (high waisted, long line). Another is the emphasis on the back interest, and the third is the little Lord Fauntleroy look.

Famous for fleeces, Originala has done exquisite pure cashmeres with a lot of sparkle. Several coats are richly embroidered in gold or silver with pearls and rhinestones studded in the embroidery. Even tweeds get the treatment by Originala—you'll find jeweled buttons on them too.

Tuesday evening as guests of the firm of Ship n' Shore, we attended a preview of "King Lear."

Later at a special gathering we had an opportunity to talk with the star, Orson Welles. We think perhaps he's the most enormous man we've ever met. In stature, certainly, and after watching his tremendous performance, perhaps in many ways.

We marveled that he could leave the stage following this most difficult of Sheakespearean plays and join us in light conversation.

He told us that he would like to remain in this country, but that will depend a great deal on the reaction of the people to "King Lear."

• • •

Tomorrow we'll tell you about the collections of Oleg Cassini, Christian Dior and many other famous designers.

PEO Chapter Holds Meeting at Snover Home

Chapter AW of PEO Sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Paul M. Snover on West Huron street Monday evening.

• • •

Mrs. Charles Coppersmith presided at the business meeting in which a report was given of the Oakland County PEO Cooperative meeting held in Birmingham on Monday. Chapter AW was hostess at this meeting.

• • •

Mrs. Iva O'Dell and Mrs. Norman Allen will serve as joint hostesses for the Jan. 16 meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward A. Roberts of Nelson street announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice Lynn, to Curtis D. Diver. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Diver of Walled Lake. Janice attends Michigan State University. No date has been set for the wedding.

Girl Seeks Popularity at Parties

Emily Post Claims Good Dancers Are Never Wallflowers

By EMILY POST

A young girl writes me: "Can you give me some helpful hints on how to be popular at a dance? I am in my freshman year at college and there are several dances coming up here at school which I would very much like to go to.

"I have never been the 'belle of the ball' so to speak and am scared to death of being a wallflower. I would be very grateful to you for any help you can give me."

Answer: Don't look bored; be enthusiastic and look as it you were having a heavenly time. Above all, learn to be as accomplished a dancer as is possible, because a good dancer is never a wallflower.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My wife and I will soon celebrate our 25th wedding anniversary. There will be an evening reception in one of the private rooms of the hotel. It will be an informal gathering of friends and relatives.

"My wife is going to wear an afternoon dress. Would it be proper for me to wear my tuxedo. The only dark suit I have is rather shabby and my other suits are in the brown family.

"My daughter does not think it will be proper since my wife is not wearing an evening dress. Will you please give me your opinion."

Answer: A tuxedo after 6 o'clock cannot be improper.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My boy friend is a graduate of X University. Being a former basketball player he still has a keen interest in the team and goes to practically all of their games.

"I go with him to many of these games. During intermission, the school song of both teams is usually played. My boy friend naturally rises when his Alma Mater is played. I would like to know if I am supposed to rise too."

Answer: Although you are not obliged to, it is certainly courteous to do so, especially if other girls around you rise.

Cuts Preparation

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—To shorten the time it takes to prepare and serve food, Louise W. Hamilton, extension nutritionist at Pennsylvania State University, suggests washing fruits and vegetables, except berries, before storing them in the refrigerator.

Hattie Carnegie's spring 1956 ball gown is of black embroidered lace over pale pink silk organza. Miss Carnegie is showing organzas predominantly in her spring 1956 fashions. The bodice of this gown is cut lower in back than in front.

Furniture Mart Honors News Service

CHICAGO (INS) — International News Service and two members of the INS Women's Department, Olga Curtis and Virginia Kachan, have received a special award for "distinguished reporting of home furnishings news."

Miss Curtis, INS women's editor, and Miss Kachan, INS Midwest women's columnist, were presented with the Dorothy Dawe Award by the American Furniture Mart in Chicago.

It was the first time in the nine-year history of the award that the gold loving cup was given to a major news service or news service writers.

Miss Curtis and Miss Kachan have been assigned regularly by INS to cover the semi-annual international home furnishings markets in Chicago since 1952.

The citation accompanying the award described INS as "the first major wire service to cover the market on a four-story-a-day basis; the first to devote regular weekly columns to the home furnishings industry for the general public and the first to inaugurate a department devoted exclusively to covering the news in the home furnishings and fashion field."

The Dorothy Dawe Awards, named in honor of a Milwaukee home furnishings editor who died in 1947, are made every year to newspaper and magazine writers. Other 1956 winners were:

Diamonds for $1

NEW YORK (INS)—A lady can wear "diamonds" for as little as $1 in 1956, provided they're "black diamonds."

These are charcoal-colored rhinestones, latest novelty for costume jewelry. They are being used with clear rhinestones or in combinations with other colored stones.

CAROLYN G. INGLEDUE

The engagement of their daughter, Carolyn, to Robert J. Short is announced by Mr. and Mrs. John Ingledue of Tiffin, Ohio. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Short of Niagara avenue. Both are seniors at Wayne University.

Let Youth Choose His Own Career

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Many mothers, it seems to me, do a lot of unnecessary worrying about their children, especially in respect to their vocations.

Too often, they want things for their children that they didn't have themselves. They worry about what their neighbors will think of Johnny's job choice, or if Johnny decides too soon on his lifework, or if he hasn't decided soon enough.

PASSIVE ROLE

Yet most of this worry could be prevented if we would just face the fact that ours is a passive role.

It is Johnny who will be doing the work and it is not up to us to make the whole decision.

Take, for example, this letter from Mrs. L.:

"I'm just sick about my son," she writes. "He will graduate in June from our local university and now he has announced he's going to be a salesman! Really, he didn't have to go to college for that kind of job.

* * *

"The worst part is, the university is behind him in it. They say he will make a wonderful salesman and that he will like it.

A BETTER CAREER

"I've been picturing a better career for him. After all, we would have let him go on in engineering, which sort of interests him, or medicine, law, or anything. But no, he's forgotten all those other interests and is dying to be a salesman.

"What can I do?"

Let him be! That is the best thing to do.

In the first place, sales is a very good field for the right people and one in which they can rise to the top.

Since the work is varied, this field is frequently the answer to a person who has many interests.

Your son will be calling on all kinds of people with all kinds of interests and his own varied interests will enable him to speak the language of all of them. Then, too, sales is a useful activity and one without which our industrial society would collapse.

Furthermore, many of the top managers, presidents and executives of the major corporations got there via sales jobs.

If this is what the boy wants, he will have a successful and happy, and therefore lucrative career.

If you force him into something he doesn't want, he will fail in every sense of the word—personally, socially and financially!

Softly slim and hinting of a low waistline—Monte-Sano and Pruzan's spring 1956 afternoon coat is of French blue silk and wool Rodier worsted. Fullness is pleated in under the pockets.

Symphony to Play Work of Former Area Resident

When Thomas Schippers, 25-year-old conductor, makes his first appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this evening at 8:30 in the Masonic Auditorium, Detroit, he will present two works not previously performed by the Detroit Symphony.

The numbers include the suite from the ballet "Sebastian" by Gian-Carlo Menotti and "Encounter" by Charles Turner, formerly of West Long Lake road.

"Encounter" is Turner's first orchestral work. It is based on two themes, the first of which is slow and lyrical and the second a scherzando. The themes meet at the end of the arrangement, thus suggesting the title "Encounter."

Turner has worked with Samuel Barber and Gian-Carlo Menotti and was responsible for all the orchestration for Menotti's recent opera success, "The Saint of Bleeker Street."

Motorama Calls to Hills Residents

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—An exodus of Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham residents occurs this weekend, and the reunion of literally dozens in New York City is for the annual Motorama, the showing of new cars and other products by General Motors.

Among those leaving Saturday and planning to spend all next week in the Eastern metropolis are the Roger M. Kyes and the Thomas Wilsons. The C. E. Wilsons won't be taking in the week-long festivities, for Mrs. Wilson is leaving on Sunday for Miami Beach.

Heading East, at least in time for the unveiling of the new products on Wednesday, if not for the attendant parties given for GM personnel, will be the L. C. Goads, the Edward S. Wellochs, the John F. Gordons, the Philip Monaghans, Cyrus Osborns and the E. E. Hoglunds, all of Bloomfield Hills.

Birminghamites going along will be the Vincent Blairs, the George Jacobys, the Leroy Keifers, the Earl Maxwells, the George Lyons and the Roger Emmerts.

Other Hills residents there will be the James Goodmans, the Kenneth Youels, the E. J. Barneys, the A. L. McEvoys, the George Russells, the E. A. Tomlinsons and Robert Wardrop.

ALSO ATTENDING

Joining advertising with the automotive forces, Ernest Jones, new president, will probably lead a delegation of executives of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., and their wives. His firm will be staging a party one night during the week.

* * *

At home, the non-automotive people are having a quiet time enjoying respite from the holiday swing of parties. Few families have parties scheduled, and are waiting yet a few weeks for planning Southern trips.

Mrs. Ernst Kern had a surprise luncheon today for Mrs. William Reid and members of the Bloomfield Hills Country Club's bowling league, following their weekly competition. It was a birthday celebration.

Break Up Peacefully and Make Up Easily

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: For the last couple of years I've been going with him, and breaking off, then going with him again. Since our last breakup I've been liking him more than I did when we were going together.

"I'm wondering if I'll ever get him back! I'd like to ask him to several of the parties to which I'm to bring a boy but I'm half-afraid he'll refuse me, though he always used to accept my invitations.

"He's going with a girl now, but he's the type that likes all the girls and sometimes doesn't know which one to pick.

"I just know that I'll never like another boy as I do him. What should I do about him?"

Answer: When a girl and a boy are part of the same group over a period of years it's normal that there should be ups and downs in their friendship. They have spells of liking each other more than a little, then spells of being completely indifferent.

They have moments of going together rather hectically, followed by tangents in search of variety and excitement.

It's all part of growing up together, having the same setting, similar backgrounds, practically identical interests. And it can go on and on like that.

The trick is not to make the off moments so tragically definite, so conclusive. Breaking up in the sense of hating each other, refusing to speak, ignoring each other in public, is so emotionally wearing. And so hard to patch up. It's such an actively negative state.

It's quite possible to stop going out together and still remain congenial friends. So that when the pendulum swings around again it's easy to start going out together again without any strain and awkwardness.

You've undoubtedly considered your brief moments through the years with this boy as highly romantic interludes in your life. You went way up when it was up. And breakups undoubtedly plunged you low down.

But whether you're going with him or not, you still like him—he's a very attractive friend of yours. And it's quite possible he feels the same way about you.

So take a chance and ask him to something. Don't plan on lining him up for the whole series of do's you have planned. Just pick one that sounds particularly up his alley. And ask him. See whether he would and could enjoy the evening in your company.

If he agrees, don't hash over old breakups. Reminisce about good times. And do a real job of making a gay, congenial, attractive, new impression on him.

If it's a success, he'll be reminded that he ought to put you high on the list of the girls he likes. And it just might get to going on again.

Professor Gives Talk at Wever

Professor Guy Hill of Michigan State University spoke to members of the Wever School PTSA at their recent meeting.

• • •

Speaking of education, Prof. Hill stressed the importance of guiding children to bring out their individual talents. He pointed out the undesirability of dictating a definite pattern of education for every child.

• Educating students to an understanding of the community's importance to the survival of Christianity and democracy in the world today was also stressed by Prof. Hill.

The meeting was also Fathers' night at the school, and reports were given and a nominating committee selected for the coming year.

• • •

On the nominating committee are George Yansen, principal at Wever School; Bill Dexter, student; Melvyn Stuebler, teacher, and Mrs. Glenn Hoisington and Mrs. William Mihalek, parents.

The Pontiac High School Senior Quartet presented three selections for the group.

Refreshments were served to meeting by the 9 B homeroom mothers.

Rugs for Baby

Many decorators and baby experts recommend that baby's room not have a carpet because it's hard to clean. But if your home has a cold floor or the people downstairs complain, put down something other than scatter rugs. They are dangerous in baby's room.

MSU Students Chalk Up Full Week

By BARBARA JOHNSON

The Michigan State University campus in East Lansing was buzzing with confusion this week as collegians finally got settled. Bookstores were filled to the doors with bewildered students from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day.

* * *

Students registering at the auditorium for the winter term totaled 16,064. This figure shows a decrease from the fall-term record enrollment of 17,176.

BARBARA

The Spartan marching band arrived on campus Saturday for a special registration following a whistle-stop concert tour on its return trip from the Rose Bowl.

On top of classes, many students squeezed in time to attend the activities scheduled for this week.

The first of the attractions was the famous Boston Pops Orchestra performing on Monday. Selections ranged from Tchaikovsky to the "Look Sharp, Be Sharp" march.

* * *

A capacity crowd of 5,300 filled both the auditorium and Fairchild Theater to hear the group directed by Arthur Fiedler. Outstanding numbers on the prgoram were the overture to "The Barber of Seville," selections from "Grand Canyon Suite," and the Strauss' "Graduation Ball."

SPECIAL FILMS

Three films drew the attention of students on Wednesday. They were presented by the Audio-Visual Center. The first film was "Mahatma Gandhi" and featured the highlights in the life of the Indian spiritual and political leader.

* * *

"Ti-Jean Goes Lumbering," a French Canadian folk tale, was also shown. "Skifully Yours" a film on activities in Sun Valley, Idaho, was greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

Robert Anderson's much discussed play, "Tea and Sympathy," was presented on Tuesday and Wednesday. The play is currently touring America and Canada.

The feminine lead, Maria Riva, talented daughter of Marlene Dietrich, held an informal get-together for all interested students. This gesture has won Miss Riva many fans on the MSU campus.

* * *

Those not attending the above features were drawn this week to sports. Both the swimming team and hockey team have played for cheering enthusiasts.

All in all, the past week has been a full one for MSU students.

Color of Shoe Heels Affects Ankle Sizes

NEW YORK (INS) — If you want to make your ankles look slimmer and your shoe size smaller, just change the color of your heels.

A heel that's in a contrasting color to the body of a shoe, says Vincent De Liso, always makes feet seem much smaller and the ankles thinner.

Coming Events

Post 23 Canadian Legion will meet at 8 p.m. Friday in the American Legion Home 206 Auburn Ave.

Flying Brings Out the Sweetness in Human Nature

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—I love going places by airplane—and not because I get there faster, or because the meals are free, or even because I prefer gazing at God's glowing advertisements rather than at Burma-Shave's.

* * *

It's because people are nicer on airplanes than they are in cars, buses, ships, trains and offices.

The men remove their hats and let the women take the window seats. The women smile with a graciousness seldom observed in their parlors. Even the children are suspiciously polite and innocent.

Scarcely anyone complains if the coffee is cool, or the beef slice small.

Those who would think nothing of stepping on a neighboring foot in subway or theater are cautious as they plod through a plane. And those who would mutter "y' crazy oaf!" when stepped upon in subway or theater only smile bravely if they are stumbled over at 18,000 feet.

PILOTED BY GALAHAD

"Never mind, it doesn't hurt a bit," they will nod pleasantly.

The pilot is Sir Galahad, the hostess is Florence Nightingale, and it is Christmas from coast to coast in an airplane.

* * *

The reason for all this can be summed up, I suppose, as a mass reverence for the powers of nature. When a man boards a plane, fastens his seat belt and listens for off-beat noises in the roaring to life of the engines, he is consciously, unconsciously or subconsciously reverted to a sort of infant status . . .

He's utterly dependent on others—in this case, a big man who knows how to fly this boat, and God. There is nothing he can do to help. It is humbling. It makes him feel small. Feeling small makes him want to be better.

So he talks gently to the women, and thanks the hostess no matter what kind of dinner she serves him.

* * *

The politeness of airplane passengers is even more pronounced when the weather is inclement. The deeper the fog or the bouncier the winds, the more perfectly behaved are the passengers. Rarely is there any hint of panic, even among first-time flyers, when a plane forges through an uncomfortable storm.

Rather, there is a reverent calm while almost everyone lends silent support to the pilots up front and overhead. At this time, of all times, women and men are on their best behavior, so as not to bother the captains.

* * *

In the last couple of years, people have come to take air travel so much for granted that there has been a slight lessening of inhibitions, and a slight letdown in the perfection of airborne manners.

On smooth, sunny flights, you will find an occasional woman snapping irritably at the hostess, for instance; and in the cocktail lounges of bigger planes, a man will sometimes forget he is close to heaven and act a bit like the devil.

But all in all, you will find still that the air is a far sweeter circuit to travel than the land or sea. For mankind still feels a trifle insecure when he finds himself, bottomless and small, in the sky.

* * *

For the love of human nature, may he never wake up completely to how safe an airplane is!

Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Jones of Pontiac trail, Orchard Lake, are shown enjoying a game of pitch and putt golf at the Escape Hotel in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where they are vacationing.

Hand Sewing Looks Best

Hand operations, skillfully done, add to the appearance and softness of a good suit. And silk thread, used in most high-grade hand-tailoring, increases the pliability and elasticity of seams.

The shrink-and-shape operations which result in the fine lines of a good suit are usually done by hand in good suits, and this craftsmanship is then sewn in by skilled tailors. The ease with which modern wool fabrics can be draped, of course, plays a part in making the smartly-styled, well-tailored clothing.

The quality of the fabric used in lining the suit, and the way it is sewn in, are often keys to the type of workmanship used in the hidden inner structure of the suit. A good lining is usually firm twill weave rayon, smoothly fitted and neatly hand-sewn in place.

Other points to check: (1) buttonholes, for neat strong stitching; (2) pockets, for size, quality of cotton twill and stiching; (3) trouser inseams, for ample "let-outs" and (4) lapels, for quality of inner materials.

* * *

Pinch or ruffle the lapel to make certain it snaps back into place without wrinkling or losing shape. Good workmanship and quality interlinings will be readily apparent.

Hairdo Creators End Confusion

OMAHA (INS)—Most hair stylists are glad that 1955, a "year of confusion," is behind them so they can concentrate on new styles and organized competition against the home permanent in 1956.

* * *

Confusion during the last year, according to stylist S. J. Franco, resulted from publicity about a "little longer look."

The nation's beauty shops intended to eliminate the masculine, crew-cut styles but many women thought shoulder length hair was on its way back.

* * *

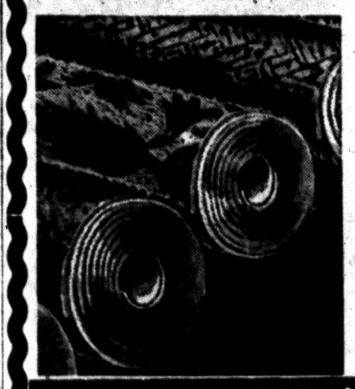

"Short hairdos are here to stay," Franco says, but in 1956 will be of "high collar length" ranging up to a maximum of 4 inches for tall girls with long necks.

The plump Spring bride will show her chest and arms. Allow flat front panel to elongate the figure and make you seem taller and slimmer.

Full-skirted white silk organdie over pink taffeta is delicately touched with reembroidered alencon lace appliques on the neckline and flat front panel. Delicate appliques and skirt panel details are featured in bridal collections.

Anyone Want to Borrow Marilyn Monroe?—You?

OIL AROUND THE TOWN . . .

MARILYN

Mmmmmmarilyn can then be lent to other studios, and will be free to produce her own films like other stars, or do TV and B'way shows.

"Bus Stop"—the first picture—which takes her back to Hollywood about March 1—or as soon as Josh Logan is free to direct it—so far has no leading man. The search starts soon. He may be an unknown.

Representatives of Marilyn and 20th are "very pleased about everything" and it looks like a Happy New Year for Marilyn.

When Jackie Gleason played Santa at the Lighthouse, he cracked, "I'm the only Santa Claus that didn't have to use a pillow" . . . Comedienne Patsy Shaw reports this New England dialog: "I hear you had an operation on your nose" . . . "Yup, it was getting so I could hardly talk through it."

Eddie Fisher, who was on the Ford show on CBS ("first time Ford ever used a Fisher Body"), is negotiating an exclusive 15-year "lifetime" deal with NBC. In 15 years Eddie'll be a kid of only 42.

Rita Hayworth's friends wonder if she'll wed Egyptian-born Raymond Hakim (with whom she arrived this week on the Ile de France). Dick Haymes, over his torch, will testify for her in her Columbia Pictures lawsuit . . . The flower that Kim Novak wore in the plunging neckline of her sweater on the Ed Murrow show concealed Murrow's famous hidden microphone.

Charge Two Juveniles With Theft of Auto

A petition charging two 14-year-old Royal Oak youths with car theft was filed Tuesday in Oakland County Juvenile Court by Berkley Police.

A hearing will be held before Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore after an investigation of about two weeks, Children's Services Director James Hunt, said.

Put Stuffed Bologna Rolls in Starring Role at Party

Celebrate special occasions with bubbly soft drinks and tangy, stuffed bologna rolls.

Add salted nuts for nibbling, ice cream and cake for dessert, and the crowd will be heppy and well-fed.

STUFFED BOLOGNA ROLLS

2 dozen thin slices bologna (5-inch size)
2 dozen frankfurter rolls

Vegetable Filling

Mix together in large bowl 2 cups chopped, shredded cabbage; 1 cup shredded carrot, 1 cup minced celery, one-third cup minced green pepper, one-fourth cup minced chives or onion.

Aspic Dressing

6 hard-cooked eggs
1 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon brown sugar
¼ cup chili sauce
2 cups bottled carbonated beverage (cola, gingerale or lemon-lime type)
2 bouillon cubes
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin

Shell eggs, separate and mash yolks, blend with mayonnaise. Chop whites and add together with seasonings. Blend well.

Put carbonated beverage in top of double boiler. Crumble in bouillon cubes. Sprinkle with gelatin and let stand until gelatin is completely moistened, then heat over boiling water until dissolved.

Blend one-fourth cup of gelatin liquid into mayonnaise mixture. Pour over vegetables and mix well. Keep remaining gelatin in pan over hot water.

Spread out bologna slices on table. Put a heaping tablespoon of filling in the center of each; spread to make a 1-inch strip down center of slice. Lap over free edges to make a roll, secure with food picks.

When all rolls are made, pour a very thin coating of gelatin liquid in bottom of one or more shallow baking pans (a 10½x15½-inch tin will hold 24 rolls exactly.)

Place bologna rolls side by side on gelatin base. Spoon remaining gelatin over top of each roll.

Store in refrigerator until ready to serve. When ready, remove food picks and cut apart with table knife. Cut a wedge-shaped slice of bread from center of each frankfurter roll. Toast rolls lightly in oven. Place bologna rolls in center of each. Makes two dozen.

Note: For a smaller crowd, recipe may be cut in half.

Try Planked Lamb Steak

What a colorful platter of foods to serve for dinner—lamb steaks, broiled tomatoes, whipped potatoes and buttered broccoli!

Broil the steaks, place on a plank and arrage the vegetables around them, using the potatoes as a border.

4 lamb steaks
Salt, pepper
1 package frozen broccoli
Butter
2 tomatoes, cut in thick slices
Buttered bread crumbs
3 cups hot mashed potatoes
1 egg, slightly beaten

Season steaks to taste with salt and pepper and place uncooked side up on heated plank or heatproof platter.

Meanwhile, cook broccoli according to package directions until almost tender; brush with a few tablespoons melted butter.

Broil eight minutes more to brown vegetables and finish cooking steaks. Sprinkle steaks with salt and pepper. Four servings.

1 quart milk
1 can Mexicorn

Melba toast
Seasonings to taste

Combine fish chowder, milk, corn and 2 cans broken up Maine sardines. Simmer gently until piping hot. Season to taste and serve in hot bowls.

* * *

Serve That Daily Apple, Save on Doctor Bills

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Wanting to do a byline on apples, I've been looking over some of the material I have. It would seem that my only problem is deciding what to use; I have enough information and recipes to write a book!

Michigan's Marketing and Consumer Information lists three apples in the "Excellent" class for eating: McIntosh, Jonathan and Red Delicious. The first and the third are now available.

McIntosh apples are the best all-purpose apples to be had at the present time. The same source says they're good for every purpose for which we use apples. Northern Spies are listed as "Excellent" for pies and applesauce.

How about a deep-dish apple pie with a cheese-flavored topping?

Cheese Crumble Apple Pie

2½ cups sliced apples
1 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1-3 cup sifted flour
1-3 cup butter or margarine
2-3 cup grated American cheese

Combine apples, ½ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, cinnamon, nutmeg and lemon juice. Place in deep-dish pie pan. Mix remaining ½ cup sugar and 2-3 cup flour; cut in butter with 2 knives or pastry blender. Add cheese, toss lightly; sprinkle mixture over apples. Bake in hot oven, at 400 degrees, 45-50 minutes. Serve with wedges of cheese on top.

Apples add to salad interest. I sometimes cube one in a bowl of tossed salad. If there are no tomatoes or radishes for color contrast, I leave the skin on the apple. The following recipe uses chopped apples in a delicious gelatin salad.

Delicious Apple-Mint Salad

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
3 to 4 drops mint flavoring
1¼ cups boiling water
¼ cup sugar
Juice of 1 lemon
Few drops green coloring
3 Delicious apples, chopped
1 cup seedless grapes, if available

Soak gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes. Add mint flavoring to boiling water and pour over gelatin. Add sugar and stir until gelatin and sugar are dissolved. Add lemon juice and few drops green coloring. Cool until sirupy. Add chopped apples and seedless grapes and pour into 1-quart mold or 6 individual molds. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Unmold and garnish with salad greens. Serves 6.

To prepare with fresh mint, pour boiling water over 1 cup lightly packed mint leaves and mash with wire potato masher. Cover and let stand 15 minutes. Bring to a boil, strain and pour over gelatin, then continue as above.

If you have any leftover fruitcake, crumble it and use it in apples for baking. Baste a few times while they bake, with orange juice, or thin sugar syrup or both. Sprinkle sugar on them late in the baking, and you'll have a crusty, sugary top.

A little melted butter with a bit of powdered cinnamon and some grated lemon peel is good for basting apples while baking. Serve them as a breakfast starter with cereal and top milk.

For a final, glamorous baked apple dish, try this one. Your guests will rave about it for days.

Sliced Baked Apples, Dixie

8 cups thinly sliced apples
⅓ cup golden seedless raisins
1 cup orange juice
1-3 cup flour
1-3 cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons grated orange peel
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons peanut butter
½ cup salted peanuts

Pour apples into 2-qt. casserole. Add raisins and orange juice. Combine remaining ingredients, except peanuts; mix until crumbly; sprinkle over apples. Scatter salted peanuts over all. Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, about 45 minutes, or until apples are soft. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Serve Hot Rye Bread

Slice a loaf of rye bread but do not cut all the way through to the bottom. Cream a quarter cup of butter or margarine and a quarter cup of firmly packed soft cheddar cheese together.

Spread the cut surfaces of the bread with the cheese mixture. Just before serving, heat the bread in a moderate or hot oven.

Diamondburgers (Serves 4)

Here's an easy way to give hamburger a charcoal-broiled crust and taste—just with pure Diamond Crystal Salt. You need:

1 lb. ground beef
Diamond Crystal Salt

Cover bottom of frying pan with a very thin sprinkling of Diamond Crystal Salt. Place on high flame until salt gets very hot. Place meat (in four thick patties) in pan. Cook on each side until crisp crust forms and meat is done the way you like it. You need no grease, no other seasoning.

Diamond Crystal Salt keeps meat from sticking—brings out all its full, rich flavor without making it too salty! Diamond is a cook's best friend! PLAIN OR IODIZED

Use That Extra Turkey in Barbecue Sandwiches

Many frankly enjoy turkey better the second day than the first. And with good reason, for turkey is a star performer in any dish. Such as these open barbecue sandwiches, for instance . . . which can be counted on to be a big hit at the family supper table.

In fact, they're so bright and tasty, and so easy to prepare, you could offer them with pride at a party buffet or as a quick late-evening guest snack.

You start with toast topped by turkey slices . . . breast, white and delicate, or dark meat, moist and flavory, or a combination of the two . . . fix 'em to your liking. Then the surprise barbecue sauce! Surprise because it's made with our old favorite, canned applesauce!

Applesauce gives it rich thickness, apple tang and a whisper of sweetness. Then spicy seasonings are added and the whole gently heated to mingle the flavors. The mixture is spooned lavishly over the turkey.

Then into the oven the sandwiches go to emerge in scant minutes hot, savory and tempting.

* * *

One look, one blissful sniff and hands just naturally reach for forks. With the sandwiches you might serve potato chips, celery and olives or a bit of green salad.

Open Turkey Barbecue Sandwiches

8 slices bread, toasted
Sliced left over turkey
½ cup sliced onion
¼ cup butter or margarine
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons sugar
½ cup catsup
1 cup canned applesauce

Place toasted bread slices in shallow baking pan. Cover bread slices with turkey. Saute onion in butter or margarine, until light brown; add salt, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice, sugar, catsup and applesauce.

Heat, stirring occasionally; pour over open sandwiches. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 20 minutes or until thoroughly heated. Serve immediately. Yields four servings.

Ham Loaf Topping

Topping for a ham loaf: Wash and slice an unpeeled orange; sprinkle the slices with sugar and arrange on top of the loaf about a half hour before the meat is ready.

Add a scoop of ice cream to a cup of chilled chocolate milk. Serve to small fry with straws!

Canned Asparagus Can Be Glamorized

A delightful way to serve canned asparagus!

Asparagus Au Gratin

Milk
1½ tablespoons butter
1½ tablespoons flour
Salt
Pepper
¼ cup dry (medium coarse) bread crumbs
¼ cup finely grated cheddar cheese

Drain asparagus; arrange them over bottom of shallow ovenproof dish. Add enough milk to the asparagus liquid to make 1 cup.

Melt butter in small saucepan over low heat; stir in flour. Add milk mixture; cook and stir constantly over low heat until thickened and bubbly; add salt and pepper to taste.

Pour sauce over asparagus. Sprinkle with crumbs, then cheese. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until hot — about 20 minutes.

Add grated carrot, minced onion and parsley to a French dressing. Serve over lettuce.

1880–1955 Recipes in Anniversary Book

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mom used to make ginger cookies—soft and spicy—I make them occasionally because I still like them. Evidently I felt very strongly about these cookies, because in childish writing next to the recipe was scrawled the word, "Good!"

All the above leads me to tell you about an interesting little cookbook put out by Betty Crocker to celebrate seventy-five years of flour milling.

It contains recipes from 1880 to the present day, with the old ones brought up to date. That ginger cookie recipe was in an earlier cookbook of hers.

Each decade is represented by a list of news headlines, popular songs of the day, a picture of a stove and car of that era, as well as one of a fashionably dressed woman.

From a cookbook distributed by the Betty Crocker of the 1880's comes a recipe for Jumbles. These were rolled cookies with holes in the center.

Today's version of that recipe is an easily made drop jumble.

Jubilee Jumbles

½ cup soft shortening
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
1 cup undiluted evaporated milk or thick sour cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
2¾ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup cut-up nuts, coconut, finely cut dates, raisins, or a six-ounce package chocolate bits

Mix thoroughly shortening, sugar, eggs. Stir in evaporated milk, vanilla. Sift dry ingredients together and stir in. Blend in nuts. Drop rounded tablespoonfuls 2" apart on greased baking sheet. Bake about 10 minutes. Frost with Burnt Butter Glaze. Makes about 4 dozen.

Burnt Butter Glaze

Heat 2 tablespoons butter until golden brown. Beat in until smooth 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar and ¼ cup undiluted evaporated milk.

At the turn of the century Chicken Pies were particularly popular, although they had been known for hundreds of years. Here's the recipe.

Savory Chicken Pies

¼ cup butter or chicken fat
¼ cup flour
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 cups chicken stock
2-3 cup cream
2 cups cut-up cooked chicken
1½ cups cooked peas
1½ cups cooked carrots

Heat oven to 425 degrees (hot). Melt butter, remove from heat. Blend in flour and seasonings. Stir in chicken stock and cream. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Boil 1 minute.

Divide chicken among 6 small casseroles. Add mixture of peas and carrots. Pour on hot sauce. Top with Savory Pastry Circles. Bake about 35 minutes.

Savory Pastry Circles

Add 1 teaspoon celery seed and ½ teaspoon paprika to your favorite pastry recipe. Cut into circles to fit tops of casseroles.

Even Flappers in the Twenties cooked. It was about this time that Icebox Rolls became popular. Here is that old recipe brought up to date so that you don't even have to knead the dough.

Easy Refrigerator Rolls

2 cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
⅓ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
6½ to 7 cups sifted flour
1 egg
¼ cup soft shortening

In mixing bowl, dissolve yeast in water. Add sugar, salt and about half the flour. Beat thoroughly 2 minutes; add egg and shortening. Beat in rest of flour gradually until smooth. Cover with a damp cloth; place in refrigerator. Punch down occasionally as dough rises.

About 2 hours before baking cut off amount needed and return rest of dough to refrigerator. Shape while cold into rolls and place on greased baking sheet. Brush tops with melted butter. Let rise until light . . . 1½ to 2 hours. Bake 12-15 minutes in a 400-degree oven. Makes 4 dozen medium rolls.

Cranberry Sandwiches

Want something different for that bridge lunch? Serve cold sliced turkey or chicken plus ham with French Toasted Cranberry Sandwiches. To make the sandwiches, layer jellied cranberry sauce between slices of white bread; dip the sandwiches in a regular French toast mixture of egg, milk, salt and sugar. Brown the sandwiches in butter and then cut into small triangles.

Add a big mixed green salad to this menu, coffee and rich cookies and you'll have something good! A bowl of fresh fruit might also be in evidence for weight-watchers who eschew the cookies.

Goose Demands Careful Cookery

Because a goose has such rich flesh as well as subtle flavor, the roasting of this delicacy is not just an ordinary cooking job but one that demands extreme care, says Chef Henri A. Freitag, Swiss-born culinary expert at the world-famed Chateau Laurier Hotel in Canada's capital city of Ottawa.

* * *

First thing to do, he advises, is work up a sizzling 400-degree heat in your oven. Next draw the fowl, vigorously scrub the skin with hot, soapy water and thoroughly rinse. Then clean and stuff the bird.

The next step is to truss and tie up the goose, pop it in a pan, salt well, add a little water and . . . put it in the oven.

For the first half hour give it 400 degrees of heat and then turn the oven down to 325 degrees. In no time at all, says the Chateau Laurier expert, the water starts to evaporate and the fat begins to melt. Baste well about every 20 minutes.

* * *

If you have 8 to 10 hungry mouths to feed, a 12-pound specimen should fill the bill. Chef Freitag figures about 25 minutes of cooking to the pound is enough. At that rate the goose should be ready in little under five hours.

"And," he cautions, "be sure to serve the goose hot . . . goose gets greasy quickly."

Mix a tablespoon of molasses with a half cup of milk and serve over hot cooked oatmeal. For small fry!

Soviets Step Up India Aid Offers

New Hydroelectric Job, Proposal on Aluminum Get Indian Scrutiny

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Soviet Union is reported sharply stepping up its offers of economic assistance to India.

* * *

Indian officials disclosed that the Russians have offered to build a complete aluminum industry and to expand a major hydroelectric project in this country. These and previous Soviet offers to build a steel mill and aid Indian oil exploration are believed only a beginning in the Russian campaign.

Informants say, however, the Reds are finding the going slow, with the Indians examining every angle of any Russian proposition.

Indian officials so far will confirm only the Russian offers for the aluminum and hydroelectric projects, which they say are both still in the discussion stage. It was understood the unresolved factors include prices and credit terms.

* * *

India's small aluminum industry now produces about 7,000 tons a year. The second five-year plan starting in April calls for boosting production to 30,000 tons. Officials said Russia has offered to supply technicians and machinery to aid the undertaking all along the line.

Vegetables, Eggs Increase in Price; Meats Featured

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Housewives will find a wide variety of meat specials at the nation's food stores this weekend. Beef, lamb, pork, hams and chickens will be featured by one big chain or another in major areas of the country.

* * *

Various types of beef and steak which probably will be reflected at the retail level shortly. The stiffening in the wholesale market is attributed to a combination of the weather and the greater demand for beef products after the holidays.

One chain is marking down the price tags on pork chops, leg of lamb and chickens by two to six cents a pound in some cities. The same firm is hiking veal chops by six cents a pound in New York and by 10 cents a pound in Washington.

Egg prices are falling across the country after moving generally higher in recent weeks. Reductions of from six to 13 cents a dozen are common in several major chains.

In the produce department, prices of some vegetables have edged up a bit as a result of the cold weather which swept the south this week. Produce men said, however, that the prices may level off quickly if the weather picture improves.

Potatoes, onions and iceberg lettuce are regarded as outstanding buys in vegetables. Listed as good buys are turnips, celery, and beets.

* * *

Higher-priced vegetables include beans, cucumbers, radishes, squash, peppers, broccoli, tomatoes, cauliflower and cabbage.

In fruit, tangerines are classed as about the best values. Other good buys are apples, oranges, grapefruit and Emperor grapes.

On the night of April 18, 1775, William Dawes rode through Roxbury and Brighton, meeting Paul Revere. They rode on together with Samuel Prescott to alarm Concord.

To Test Vote Machines

ESCANABA (AP) — The City Council has authorized a test of voting machines in Escanaba's nine precincts this year. It said it can rent 21 machines for $1,800.

Thief Steals Phone

JACKSON (AP) — Some thieves will steal anything and now State Police are checking for a telephone taken from an outside booth of the Concord Telephone Co. The coin phone was ripped from the wall of the Main Street booth.

Claiming that India's tea industry is controlled by "British monopolists," the All-India Trade Union Congress has demanded nationalization of the industry.

Bob Considine Says:

Irish Brogue Now Echoes in Halls of U.N.

NEW YORK (INS)—Ireland has consented to join the United Nations. We had a haunting hope that she'd say to hell wth it—after the way the haythen Roosions kept blackballing her through the years.

But no. In clement English, a language the Irish are preserving until such time as the English learn to speak it again, Liam Cosgrave, minister for external affairs, states:

"We welcome our admission, which will give us an opportunity of assisting to the best of our ability in the preservation of peace. Our sympathies in the proceedings of the organization will undoubtedly rest with those countries which, in their constitutions and by their everyday actions, show that they observe the provisions of the Charter in letter and spirit.

"Ireland will maintain its own individuality. Each issue will be approached on its merits with a deep sense of responsibility and with the object of furthering the declared aims of the organization to which it fully subscribes.

"We pray that with the help of Almighty God the aims of the United Nations may soon be attained."

See? Making trouble already! Mentioning the Almighty.

COSTELLO AGREES

John A. Costello, himself, said it was right and proper "that we should now, apart altogether from the question of partition, as a small nation with a considerable degree of influence in the world because of our connections, our exiles throughout the world, take our place in the comity of nations."

That's the way himself spelled it. Comity.

Horace C. Flanigan, president of Manufacturers Trust Co., was interested in Rear Adm. Rickover's concern over the fact that Russia is training more engineers than the U.S. He writes:

"Last winter at a meeting of the board of trustees of Cornell University, of which I am a member, we spent the afternoon and evening discussing this matter.

"The dean of the College of Engineering told us that there was an attrition of, I believe, 50 per cent in the students who entered the engineering schools at Cornell.

"Most of this, he told us, was due to the poor training given to these boys in the secondary schools which brought them up to college not properly grounded in mathematics or elementary physics or chemistry.

"I read so much about good students being unable to go to college because of monetary reasons, but I do not believe this is the real cause of our shortage of trained scientists. Certainly any good student could obtain a scholarship at Cornell if he showed sufficient promise.

"The reason is the one given by Dean Hollister and this is where the problem needs correction before we start appropriating millions of dollars of federal funds to try to give a college education to people who are not sufficiently prepared to cope with it."

One of the toughest of all charity drives has been undertaken by the National Cancer Foundation, which tries to meet the needs of cancer victims. More than 200,000 die of cancer each year and 600,000 more suffer from it.

The average terminal case requires 100 days of hospitalization at not less than $15 a day. Thus, the total cost to those that die each year runs to an appalling $300,000,000.

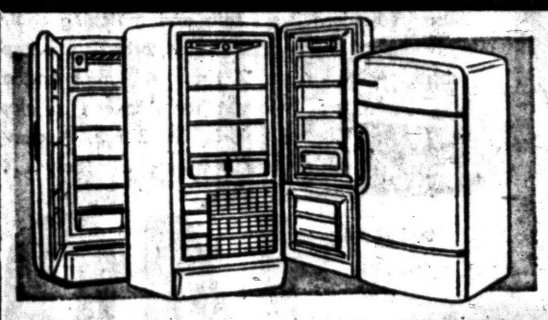

P.S.—The Damon Runyon fund has allocated $9,500,000 in more than 600 grants and more than 300 fellowships in better than 200 institutions in 48 states, the District of Columbia and 16 foreign countries.

And not a penny has ever been deducted for expenses, probably the only organization of its kind on the face of a planet that one day—let us pray—will find an answer to its most shocking disease.

Find Widow, 76, Injured, Starved in Rickety Shack

CHICAGO (AP) — A 76-year-old widow was found injured and near death of starvation with nine hungry dogs in her unheated, ramshackle home in suburban Calumet City yesterday.

Allen Glish of the Animal Welfare League discovered the woman, Mrs. Sarah Connell, while investigating a complaint that hungry dogs were trapped in the shack.

* * *

Glisch said Mrs. Connell told him she had been unable to move and had been without food and heat for 10 days since a heavy box fell on her chest. There was a small hole in the floor of the shack through which the dogs entered and left.

Mrs. Connell, who said she was the widow of a Spanish-American War veteran and lived on an $80 month pension, was taken to Cook County Hospital. Her condition was described as serious. The dogs were taken to the league's kennels.

Williams' Aide to Work on Study for Governor

LANSING (AP) — John Sweeney, administrative aide to Gov. Williams, is taking a six months leave of absence to do research for the governor on national issues.

Williams said Sweeney will be paid from the governor's personal funds.

He will be replaced on the state payroll by Charles R. Adrian, an assistant political science professor at Michigan State University and formerly on the faculty of Wayne University. Adrian has specialized in state and local government.

Romance of the Decade

Grace, Prince Can Keep Secrets

By OLGA CURTIS
INS Staff Writer

Beautiful Grace Kelly and her handsome Prince Rainier III of Monaco can keep a secret . . . and a poker face.

* * *

They proved both by concealing their courtship so well that they fooled everybody from the man who introduced them to the reporters who watched Grace bring Rainier home to meet the folks.

In spite of the ripening romance that began in May and continued by correspondence until December, nobody guessed Grace and Rainier were a twosome.

They planned it that way.

In October, the golden-haired Grace did a fine job of off-screen acting by dating Jean Pierre Aumont as if he were her big moment.

In December, the prince was saying that he wasn't coming to America to find a bride, and as for Grace Kelly . . . well, he was, "a bit afraid of movie stars."

* * *

Whereupon the frightened Rainier and the uninterested Grace quietly went to Philadelphia for the holidays so that the prince could meet the Kelly family, and the Kellys could look him over.

BY COINCIDENCE

And just by coincidence, the prince had in his pocket an heirloom engagement ring.

* * *

What happened in the 15-room brick home of the Kellys that led to the revelation of the fairy tale romance was predicted long ago by Grace's friends.

"Grace will never marry a man of whom her family doesn't approve," her chums said. They were right.

In old-fashioned tradition, Rainier, sovereign head of a state, ruler "by divine right," asked Grace's father for her hand after convincing John B. Kelly Sr. that he was a young man with prospects.

* * *

In the same tradition, after Rainier had passed muster before father and mother Kelly, two Kelly sisters and a Kelly brother, Grace's millionaire dad okayed the match.

DAD KNEW FIRST

"My father," Grace told newsmen blushingly when her engagement was announced, "knew before I did."

* * *

Her insistence on proper protocol, typical of a girl whose biggest trademark is ladylike manners, will come in handy in her future life as Princess of Monaco.

For if Grace Kelly had to have her father's consent in matrimony, "Her Serene Highness" Princess Grace will have to have her government's consent in important matters.

When she becomes mistress of a 700-year-old castle with more rooms than the White House, and wife to the ruler of 370 acres of independent country, Grace will have a crown, a throne, and her face on a postage stamp.

* * *

But she will also have the royal chore of appearing officially where the government wants her to appear, of receiving guests the government wants her to receive and of making speeches when the government wants a speech made.

Movie stars can refuse to play benefits. Princesses can't refuse.

A new interisland vessel 280 feet long, accommodating 480 passengers, has been developed in Manila for the Philippine inter-island fleet.

She Eats the Evidence

DENISON, Tex. (INS)—Police picked up a young girl on suspicion of writing hot checks, but didn't find any evidence. The complaining grocer said that as soon as she saw the cops, she grabbed the check and ate it.

Ike's Advisers Suggest White House Be Converted to U.S. Museum

WASHINGTON (INS)—Some of President Eisenhower's advisers believe the White House should be abandoned as an office for conducting the nation's business and turned into a national museum.

* * *

The President's office—under the startling proposal—and his entire executive establishment would be moved from the century-and-a-half-old mansion and housed in a new, modern government office building.

The White House itself, with its acres of lawns, fountains and flower beds, would become a presidential museum and national shrine as is Mount Vernon, home of George Washington.

The entirely unofficial proposal which has been discussed by some presidential associates, would call for demolition of the two small and crowded executive wings. Thus the White House would be restored to its original architectural plan.

The mansion and grounds would then be opened entirely to the public on a year-around basis.

HOME OF OWN

The President and First Lady, instead of residing as now in quarters on the second floor where they have scant privacy, could have a home of their own elsewhere.

Historic rooms such as the East Ballroom, the Red, Green and Blue Rooms, and the State Dining Room, could still be used by the President for high state functions, and for entertaining visiting high-ranking foreign dignitaries.

The idea has grown out of what Presidential aides say is a crying need for larger quarters for the executive business establishment.

Eisenhower, without taking official cognizance of the proposal, is understood to have agreed that the housing of the sprawling executive establishment under a single roof would "improve the efficiency" of his office.

NEW BUILDING

Aides have suggested that a new presidential building could be erected on the site of the old state, War and Navy Building, which now houses most of the White House staff.

The huge fortress-like building, erected during the administration of Ulysses S. Grant, occupies a solid block just west of the White House.

In the executive mansion itself, there is little room for the president's official family. The West Wing is occupied by the President, his three secretaries and legal counsel, and a few clerks.

The rest of the executive offices, including Presidential administrative assistants, the White House mail room, the Budget Bureau, National Security Council, Foreign Economic Council, Office of Disarmament, and a host of others, are in the old State Building.

CAN'T NAP

Aides said the President's own offices are so crowded that, when space was needed recently for a small room where the President could take a midday nap in conformance with his doctors' orders, it had to be carved out of the office of his appointment secretary.

White House news tickers are crowded into the men's rest room adjoining the office of News Secretary James Hagerty, for the lack of other room.

The President has to leave the White House and go over to the fourth floor of the old State Building to hold his news conferences, because there is not even a small auditorium in the Executive Wing.

Discussing the suggestion that the White House be made into a museum and national shrine, one official remarked: "It's practically a museum now. We have nearly a million visitors a year who come from all over the nation to see the White House.

"When the White House is open to the public, members of the President's family have to stay on the second floor if they want privacy."

Two floors of the White House are open to the public two hours of the morning, five days a week.

So many visitors trooped through the historic state rooms in the three years since the White House was rebuilt that the mansion had to be closed last summer for repairs to the floors and walls.

Deadly Cobalt Device Found With Worker

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—The jumping needle of a Geiger counter at a construction job gate turned up a small cylinder of deadly, radioactive cobalt today in the posession of a bewildered workman.

Benjamin Zowacki, 33-year-old electrician, told a reporter he took the cylinder late yesterday afternoon because he wanted the string from which it was hanging.

The device, used in photographing steel pipe, was in a paper bag lying inside of a cloth cap in the glove compartment of Zowacki's car.

Searchers with a Geiger counter had been checking all cars entering and leaving the site of a job where the United Engineers Construction Co. is building a power plant addition for the Connecticut Light & Power Co.

When Zowacki's car came through the gate, the search ended.

British Trade Shows Second Highest Deficit

LONDON (AP) — Britain's international trade in 1955 produced the second highest deficit on record, the Board of Trade disclosed today.

Only in the crisis year of 1951 was the loss greater, it said.

Provisional figures released by the board showed the nation's unfavorable trade balance widened during the year to 834 million pounds ($2,419,200,000), nearly one-third more than last year's.

Only visible trading—the buying and selling of goods—was reflected in the board's report. Britain usually makes a good profit on invisible trade—services such as shipping and insurance—but not enough to close the gap.

Hogan Leaves Retirement to Play in Crosby Tourney

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Ben Hogan comes out of retirement tomorrow for charity, but his benevolence may not extend to other pros entered in the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

* * *

Blazing Ben, who retired last June after failing to win the National Open, turned in a nifty 65 in a practice round Wednesday at Cypress Point and remarked, "I was putting better than I have in two years."

* * *

Both he and his crooner partner in the pro-amateur meet had said before that practice round that they did not expect they would raise a winning sweat during the $15,000, 54-hole tourney.

Crosby said he convinced Hogan to leave his Texas home by pointing out his appearance would increase the gate. The singer said he returned to play after four years on the sidelines because Hogan "was mighty persuasive."

After that Crosby shot a creditable practice 75 and Hogan fired seven birdies and an eagle for his 65.

* * *

Crosby for 10 years has been picking up the tab for the tourney and donating receipts to charity. He is putting out a $2,500 first prize for best pro and a $1,500 first prize for the play-for-pay man in the winning pro-amateur team.

* * *

In the starting field are 125 two-man teams, including such sharpshooting pros as Byron Nelson, Marvin (Bud) Ward, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Doug Ford, Bo Wininger, Walter Burkemo, Lloyd Mangrum, Bob Rosburg, Bud Holscher, Gene Littler, Mike Souchak, Tommy Bolt, Ed Oliver, John Bulla and Dutch Harrison.

Nelson had a 68 in practice while Ward had a 71, Bolt a 70 and Mangrum a 67.

* * *

Among the amateurs are Freeman Gosden (Andy of Amos 'n' Andy), Phil Harris, Johnny Weissmuller, Hoagy Carmichael, Gordon Macrae, Dean Martin, President Eisenhower's brother Edgar and Lindsay Crosby.

PWBA Teams Roll in State Tourney

As far as Pontiac Women's Bowling Association secretary Peg Bender, knows, there are six area teams, and several from Pontiac, entered for the Michigan women's state tournament. The event opens Saturday at Port Huron.

Bowling Feb. 18 are Waterford Market (Alma Cheslik, captain); Howe's Lanes (Maxine Wood, captain); Gidley Electric (Myrtle Grasmiller, captain); Clarkston State Bank (Evelyn Kelley, captain); Gordon's TV (Lucille LeMarbe, captain); Beattie Motor Sales (Vivian O'Roark, captain).

Pontiac's Monroe Hotpoints (Maxine Howell, captain) and Griff's Grill (Eva Miller, captain) roll on March 31. There may be others from this area.

Court Order Puts Purse in Escrow

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Judge Oliver J. Carter issued an attachment order yesterday for the purse of Flash Elorde who meets champion Sandy Saddler for the featherweight boxing title Jan. 18.

Frank Martin, who claims to be the Philippine boxer's legal manager in the United States, filed the suit. He posted a $10,000 good-faith bond demanded by the federal judge.

Martin succeeded in having the court attach $35,000 of Elorde's purse plus 10 per cent which Martin says is his share as a manager.

He said the bout against Saddler was arranged by Elorde's father-in-law, Lope Sarreal, in violation of a contract between Martin and Elorde.

Swapping Two Events Helps Set Race Card

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland Racing Commission has completed its 1956 racing schedule by swapping Cumberland and Hagerstown's half-mile meets and pushing Baltimore Raceway's meet from mid-summer to mid-fall.

Under the new arrangement, Hagerstown will open the half-mile season Aug. 15 and will hold its meeting through Aug. 25.

Cumberland will operate from Sept. 12 through Sept. 22.

'Turkey Shoot' Sunday

The Lake Orion Gun Club will hold a "Turkey Shoot" this Sunday at its outdoor range. An early starting time is preferred, at least by 11 a.m., so that darkness will not interfere with the shooting. Markers indicating the route to the outdoor range can be seen at Indianwood Road and highway M24. The public is invited and there is no admission fee.

The Way of It—Goal on a Hill

By GRANTLAND RICE

There are roads that lead through valleys where the grass is soft and green;
There are lanes that lead through morning where the friendly maples lean;
But for those who face the battle where the far height holds its thrill
The only goal worth finding
Where the rock-filled road is winding,
Where the heavy burden's binding,
Is the goal upon a hill.

We may think of life as something that is built up from a dream;
We may hear old songs that call us where the shafts of morning stream;
But the storms beyond are waiting for the raw, unconquered will,
And though hearts and hopes are breaking
As we come to bitter waking,
Yet the only road worth taking
Is the road that leads uphill.

80th Preakness Scheduled After Kentucky Derby

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Preakness will be run for the 80th time May 19, two weeks after the Kentucky Derby, it was announced yesterday by Pimlico Race Track.

Nominations for $50 will close Feb. 15. After that, supplementary nominations at $7,500 a crack may be made until two weeks before the Preakness.

Pimlico is making one change of recent years in closing entries on the day before the Preakness instead of two days ahead. It cost $500 to enter and $500 to start.

Three Big Factors

Pitching, Rookie's Play, Doby Hold Chisox Hope

CHICAGO (AP) — Chances of the Chicago White Sox in the 1956 American League pennant race boil down to three factors, says Manager Marty Marion, who hopes for the title but refuses to predict one like he did last year.

* * *

Marion told a press conference yesterday that the Sox would have a first-division finish, but that was as far as he would go out on the limb.

* * *

The three factors include:

1. The club needs pitching. Only three now rated first line—Billy Pierce, Jack Harshman and Dick Donovan.

2. Luis Aparicio, young rookie shortstop, must bloom into a major league replacement for Chico Carrasquel, who was traded to Cleveland for outfielder Larry Doby.

3. Doby must come through with the long-ball power.

"I think Cleveland was stronger last year than it will be this year," said Marion. "The Boston Red Sox may be improved but with young players you can't be sure. Detroit also has to be considered for the first division.

* * *

"It's hard to peg the New York Yankees. The race should be much like it was last year. It'll be plenty tough."

The Yankees beat out Cleveland by 3 games for the 1955 pennant while the Comiskeys were third again, 5 games out of first.

"With (Nellie) Fox, Aparicio, Doby, (Minnie) Minoso and (Jim)) Rivera we will have fine speed at five positions," said Marion. "And that is a vital factor both on offense and defense."

Rangers Hold 5 Point Lead in 2nd Place

Visitors Crush Montreal 6-1 in Lone NHL Action Last Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Rangers open a nine-game road trip in Detroit tonight, seeking to increase their 2nd-place national hockey league margin over the improving Red Wings.

The Rangers said goodbye to Madison Square Garden with a bang last night, crushing the League-leading Montreal Canadiens 6-1. The victory moved New York five points in front of Detroit, but still 11 behind Montreal.

Pete Conacher was the star of the Rangers' triumph scoring two second period goals.

Danny Lewicki, Bill Gadsby, Andy Bathgate and Aldo Guidolin registered the other Ranger tallies while Kenny Mosdell got Montreal's lone marker with less than three minutes left in the game.

The big favorite of the crowd of 15,517 was leapin' Lou Fontinato, the menacing-looking Ranger defenseman.

Fontianto landed a thunderous right hand on the left eye of Canadien star Maurice Richard during a fight near the end of the first period. The blow opened a cut over the Rocket's eye which required four stitches to close.

* * *

A win over New York tonight would move the Red Wings back to within three points of 2nd place.

Last week's results—Pontiac 76, Bay City 50; Flint Central 59, Northern 56; Arthur Hill 61, Saginaw 47.

Friday's games — Pontiac at Flint Northern; Central at Saginaw and Arthur Hill at Bay City Central.

In a sharp workout Wednesday afternoon, PHS basketball Chiefs looked to be in top shape for the crucial battle Friday against Flint Northern's Vikings. The session was fast, and the scoring appeared to have lost little or none of the effectiveness that marked the Bay City game.

"Our club is in as good condition, physically, as at any time this season," Coach Art Van Ryzin said today. "As far as our offense is concerned, we're all right, but we are strengthening our defensive play. We'll give Northern a good game, I'm sure."

Chiefs will make the trip to Northern's Wildanger Field House in high hopes of annexing the Valley loop's 2nd spot, now held jointly with the Norsemen.

Fans planning to follow the Chiefs should go into Flint on Saginaw street, continue right on Saginaw (this side of the Durant Hotel), to Pasadena, then turn left on Pasadena to Buick, left on Buick to end of street. Field house is at corner of Buick and McClellan.

Study of the Central-Northern encounter last weekend, indicates the Chiefs will have to put the stopper on 6-5 Clarence Elliott, Viking center, and Henry Clarke, forward. Clarke, in his 1st starting game for coach Jack Marlette, banged in 19 points (8 baskets) while Elliott accounted for 14 (6 goals).

Chiefs will go along with about the same opening five that did so well against the Wolves. Marlette figured on a list that included Elliott, fine playmaker and scorer, and Al Miller (6-5, 6-4) or Clarke, (6-3) at forwards, or center, with Jerry Radenbaugh and possibly Bill Basilius, Melton Wright or Maurice Woodsen at guards. Gary Morris, Edgar Willingham and Tom Ryan are other possibilities.

Little Chiefs and Viking reserves tangle in the preliminary Friday night, that should produce a red-hot battle. Flint's reserves are riding an unbroken string of six straight wins. Pontiac's five has lost one game.

Freeman Tops List

Little Men Pace Point Production in Early Big Ten Basketball Race

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten's "little men," topped by 5-11 Robin Freeman of Ohio State, are proving the scoring sensations of the young conference basketball title race.

Freeman's 37-point production against Iowa Monday boosted his total to 65 in two league games for a pacing 32.5 average. Three average-sized players follow him on the official scoring list released today by the Big Ten.

* * *

Jed Dommeyer, 6-3, Minnesota has a 25 average for second place, 6-0 Dick Mast of Northwestern is 3rd with 24 and 5-9 Bill Ridley of Illinois 4th with 23.

Freeman, with his unstoppable fade away jump shot, leads in field goals with 25, followed by Charley Brown, 6-3 Indiana sophomore with 23 in three starts.

First in field goal percentage is Indiana's Wally Choice with 20 out of 36 for .556. Ridley has 17 out of 31 for .548 and Carl Cain of Iowa 17 out of 33 for .515.

Wisconsin's Dick Miller has hit 24 straight free throws for a perfect 1,000 record in three games. Dommeyer is next with 12 out of 13 for .923.

* * *

Illinois, unbeaten in Big Ten action, tops team offense with an average of 84.5 points per game. Indiana has 80 and Minnesota 78. The record average of 83.9 was set by the Illini last season.

Michigan State has the best field goal percentage with .397 followed by Ohio State with .395, Purdue .388, Iowa .372 and Illinois .361. Illinois' .791 is tops in free throws. Michigan has .767 and Ohio State .716.

Purdue, a school that pioneered run-and-shoot basketball, is the league's surprise defensive leader, holding three foes to an average of 64.7 points. Michigan State is second with a yield of 68.5 and Iowa third with 69.

Detroit Offers Reichow 1st Chance When NFL Draft Begins

VANCOUVER (AP)—B. C. Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union may lose out to Detroit Lions of the National Football league in bidding for Jerry Reichow, Iowa star.

Clem Crowe, head coach of B. C. Lions, telephoned B. C. president Don Mackenzie last night to tell him Reichow has decided to wait until the NFL draft Jan. 17 before making a decision.

Crowe has been in Reichow's hometown of Decorah, Iowa, for some days now in an effort to sign the much-sought footballer.

He said Detroit Lions, seeking a replacement for aging quarterback Bobby Layne, offered to make him their No. 1 draft choice and to groom him to succeed Layne.

Westrum Signs for '56

NEW YORK (INS)—Veteran New Giant catcher Wes Westrum, completely recovered from a broken finger which sidelined him most of the 1955 season, has signed his 1956 contract.

Dons, Oklahoma A&M Top College Defensive Teams

NEW YORK (AP)—Unbeaten San Francisco, the nation's top-ranked basketball team, held the best defensive record among the major colleges today.

The Dons, who have won their last 38 games to move within one of tying the all-time record, have yielded only 626 points in 12 games for an average of 52.2 points. Oklahoma A&M's perennial ball-control specialists are next with 53.8 followed by Stanford with 54.6.

The talented San Francisco team, however, is not even among the first 20 on offense.

The highest scoring team is Morehead State of Kentucky with 1,173 points in 12 contests for a 97.8 average. The records include Tuesday's games.

Marshall of West Virginia is runner-up to Morehead with 837 points and a 93.0 average. Then comes Memphis State with 1,016 points and 92.4 Louisville with 1,081 points and 90.1.

* * *

NCAA Service Bureau statistics also showed that George Washington is the top field goal-shooting team with a .488 percentage in 655 attempts. St. Francis of Brooklyn is second with .486.

North Carolina State, ranked third in the nation, is best from the foul line, having hit on 301 of 387 free throws for a .778 mark.

Mikes, Rams at Home Tonight

Shamrocks Meet St. Rita in Bid for SCL Lead

St. Freds Tackle Strong Bens in Effort to Snap Losing Ways

City parochial basketball fans can see action on both home fronts tonight as St. Frederick and St. Michael clash with invading Suburban Catholic League opponents.

The Rams, on the short end of the score in their last two starts after winning their 1st two games, tackle strong Highland Park St. Benedict in tonight's top SCL attraction.

* * *

Gene Wright's cagers, who occupy 3rd place in the league standings with a 2-1 record, will be underdogs against Art Massucci's Bens, pre-season choices for the title. The Bens list a 1-1 loop mark.

St. Michaels, riding the crest of a three-game winning streak, continue their bid for a 2nd straight SCL crown tonight against the Vikings of Hazel Park St. Rita.

The Mikes, victors over non-conference Avondale and league foes St. Benedict and St. James, will be heavy favorites to trim the Vikings. St. Rita has a 1-2 league record for 6th position.

* * *

Orchard Lake St. Mary's Eaglets, still contenders for title honors, resume their SCL campaign Friday night against visiting Center Line St. Clement. St. Mary will be favored to down the cellar-dwelling Clements in its 1st game since before Christmas vacation.

Royal Oak St. Mary, currently leading the league with a 3-0 mark, rates a wide edge over St. James in an SCL contest tomorrow night at Ferndale.

Adrian Nips Albion

ADRIAN (AP) — Leon Harper scored 25 points to lead Adrian to a 68-65 MIAA basketball victory over Albion last night.

It was Adrian's second league victory in five games.

Coachers, Aces Gain Narrow Victories

Closely - contested basketball games in the city leagues thus far this season have been the exception rather than the rule. But a couple of nip-and-tuck thrillers were sprinkled among Wednesday night's four-game card at the Pontiac High and Lincoln Junior gymnasiums.

General Motors came from behind with a 4th-quarter rally to nip Stadium Inn, 66-63, in last night's adult American League nightcap at PHS. Stadium maintained a slim lead through three periods of play, but the Coachers staged an 18-point last stanza to claim the decision.

Four Coachers scored in double figures, led by Bill York with 18 points and closely pursued by Jim Wagner's 17. Three Stadium cagers hit two figures with S. Rollis high on 19 points for scoring honors in the contest.

Where GMC's late rally brought victory, Central Christian's last-quarter effort fell short in a Class D National League tilt at Lincoln. The Aces staved off a belated surge to nose out Central, 41-40. The losers trailed by a 33-28 margin going into the final period.

Central Christian's Gene Willis grabbed scoring laurels with 13 points. Gale McAnnally and Archie Bell each tallied 12 points for the Aces.

Hal Trott pumped in 21 points to lead Sun Life to a 64-55 verdict over the Keego Merchants in adult American loop play at PHS. The insurance squad was in command all the way. Richard Hobson scored 21 points for the Merchants.

In Class D American division action at Lincoln, the Spartans blasted the Lakesiders, 66-45. Dave Grubb headed the Spartans' attack with 22 points. Mike Brennan netted 21 markers for the losers.

Two games are scheduled in Pontiac High's gym tonight at 7 and 8:30 p.m. Louie's Tavern tackles the Independents in National division play and Stadium Inn meets the Keego Merchants in an American loop nightcap. Both games are in the adult circuit.

Jockey Nelson Dies From Spill Injuries

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Jockey Leroy Nelson, 18, died today from head injuries suffered in a spill at the Auga Caliente, Mexico, track on Sunday. He never recovered consciousness after the accident.

Nelson was either kicked by a hoof or struck the rail when his mount fell over another horse which had gone down with a broken leg.

* * *

Brain surgery was performed Sunday. At that time his pulse and blood pressure disappeared. A surgeon opened his chest and massaged his heart to restore action.

Olympic Soccer Trials Set for Preps' Stadium

NEW YORK (INS) — St. Louis High School stadium has been chosen as the site for the final U.S. Olympic soccer trials to be held Jan. 22

W. T. Hobson, Jr., chairman of the U.S. Olympic soccer committee, made the announcement yesterday. He said the tryouts would pit the previously announced eastern team against a strong western squad.

Six members of the West team have represented the U.S. in past Olympic games.

Managers Quitting NY Boxing Guild Slowly

NEW YORK (AP)— New York boxing managers were quitting the broken Boxing Guild of New York today, but the organization refused to dissolve in complete surrender.

The Guild unanimously accepted the recommendation of its executive board last night to advise members who are licensees of the New York State Athletic Commission to resign from the Guild "forthwith."

* * *

However, it also approved an announcement that the guild will remain intact and will proceed to the New York State Supreme Court to contest the validity of the commission's order, setting a Jan. 16 deadline for all members to resign or lose their licenses.

Of the 69 members of the guild, it was estimated that about 35 per cent are not licensed in New York.

Presumably a nucleus of about 15 or 20 will remain to keep the franchise and guard the treasury, estimated at over $10,000.

According to Murray Frank, the Guild attorney, an unincorporated body, such as the guild, can exist legally with "seven or more members."

Waterford Archers Begin League Play

The Waterford Township Recreation Archery League began competition Tuesday night at the Community Center. The league consists of seven teams with openings still available for more shooters.

In Tuesday's first sesson the team of Bill Giles, Bill Carland, Fred France and Buzz Pender shot the top score with a total of 557 points. Giles, 7854 Cooley Lake Road, Pontiac, was the high individual marksman with 181.

Family instruction in beginning archery is being held every Tuesday night at the Community Center in two class sessions—6 to 7 and 7 to 8 p.m. League play follows the instructional periods.

Dales Trip Alma, 68-60

HILLSDALE (AP) — A 68-60 basketball victory over Alma gave Hillsdale a 2-3 record in MIAA play last night.

John Woods of Hillsdale and Ron Lude of Alma tied for high point honors with 21 points each.

Football Rules Group Huddling

Fritz Crisler Chairman of Committee Sessions Starting Today

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Chairman Fritz Crisler and members of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. rules committee went into formal sessions today over possible changes in the 1956 football rule book.

* * *

Crisler said he did not anticipate any change that would "be significant" when the group concludes its meeting tomorrow or Saturday.

* * *

The committee has some 60 suggestions, but none was put forward by the committee of the American College Football Coaches Assn. at its convention earlier this week in Los Angeles.

* * *

Satterfield TKO'd

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Satterfield's chin got in his way again last night, keeping him once more from crossing the threshold to heavyweight title contention.

Johnny Holman, a hulking 201-pounder with the reach of an octopus, catapulted three long rights to Satterfield's sensitive button.

Three times Satterfield, outweighed by 17 pounds, fell like someone yelled "Timber!".

* * *

He went down for a nine count in the second round of the nationally televised fight at Chicago Stadium, for eight in the third and finally the scheduled 10-round bout was stopped in the eighth.

Holman's right in the eighth flattened the 13-5 favorite. But Satterfield staggered up just at the count of 10 with eight seconds to go before the bell.

Referee Bernie Weissman stopped it, giving Holman a technical knockout.

Satterfield, at 32, was being boomed as bait for heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano. But all that appeared vanished now and the unpredictable fighter has returned to the also-ran class.

* * *

The most that can be said of Satterfield is that he provides a token of excitement in his bouts. He has scored 30 knockouts but has been kayoed 12 times. Just when he appears to be going places with string of knockouts, someone finds his chin and out go the lights.

Holman, who had been clobbered by Satterfield twice before, showed some finesse with a left jab, something that he only recently developed. It seemed to have bewildered Bob.

Since being handled by Trainer Angelo Dundee, Holman, who is 28, has a kayo list that includes besides Satterfield, Ezzard Charles Cesar Brion and Boardwalk Billy Smith.

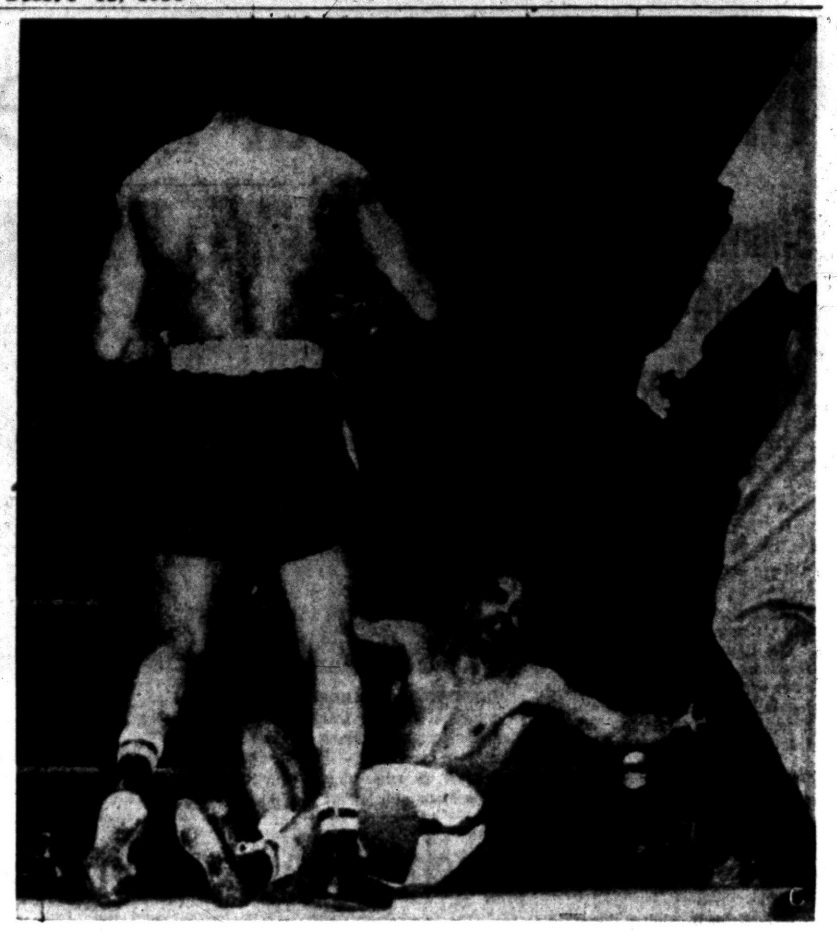

* * *

The International Boxing Club has promised him a Feb. 17 date in Madison Square Garden against Nino Valdes or the winner of the Feb. 3, scrap between Bob Baker and Hurricane Jackson.

A crowd of 3,508 paid $8,651 to sit in on last night's fight.

"He shook me up, but I don't remember what round," said Holman, who, like Satterfield, hails from Chicago's South Side. "But I didn't get excited. I knew I was in shape and just took my time out there. I just followed instructions."

Satterfield said: "I was overanxious and I felt slow."

Bowling Clinic

PALMING THE BALL—The importance of holding the ball in the palm of the left hand cannot be stressed enough. It's the key to relaxation. More than that, it's the only way the ball can be pushed away directly forward to put it into the proper, accurate swinging groove.

Whether you hold the ball a little below waist level, as sketch shows, or whether you hold it higher or lower, the job of holding the ball must be done by the left hand.

About relaxing: Extend the left leg, more or less, so that the knee is flexed and you feel the body weight on the right foot. Then step out with the right foot as you push the ball away.

Perez Retains Flyweight Title

Argentine Wins Over Filipino Rival Before 25,000 Crowd

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Pascual Perez, who looks more like a jockey than a fighter, still was in possession of the world flyweight title today after turning back the challenge of the Philippines' Leo Espinosa.

* * *

The little Argentine, standing under five feet and weighing only 107¾ pounds, pounded out a 15-round decision last night before a sellout Luna Park crowd of more than 25,000 in the second defense of his title.

Espinosa weighed 111½.

Perez's next title fight probably will be against Dal Dower of Wales in London, perhaps in April. He is undefeated in 26 pro fights.

Only a draw with Japan's Yoshio Shirai, from whom he won the title in November 1954, mars his record.

* * *

Under Argentine regulations the vote of the three judges was not announced. But on the Associated Press card, Perez won 10 rounds, Espinosa 3 and 2 were even.

Eagles Sign Pellegrini

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League today announced the signing of Bob Pellegrini, University of Maryland linebacker and the Birds' No. 1 draft choice this year.

Don Captain Ineligible for Tourney Play

LOS ANGLES (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. has ruled that Casey Jones, captain and star guard of the University of San Francisco basketball team, is ineligible to play in this year's tournaments.

A resolution asking amendment of NCAA bylaws to permit a review of hardship cases failed to receive a second yesterday at the 50th annual convention and was ruled out of order.

The USF team won the NCAA championship last year and is rated the nation's No. 1 team again this year. Jones played one game of the 1953-54 season with a ruptured appendix, was hospitalized for months, and saw no further action, but under NCAA rules he lost one year of eligibility because of this.

The California Basketball Assn ruled Jones eligible for regular season play, but he will be dropped when the Dons enter tournament competition in March.

Soviet Figure Skaters in 1st European Test

PARIS (INS) — Russia has announced plans to compete for the first time in the European figure skating championships to be held in Paris Jan. 19-21.

The Russians, who filed their entry yesterday, will compete against Great Britain, Austria, Czechoslovakia, France, East Germany, West Germany, Holland, Hungary, Italy, Norway, Spain and Switzerland.

West Virginia Upset

Temple Is Surprise of Cage Circles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Temple wasn't supposed to set the college basketball world on fire this season, but it's rapidly becoming the nation's Cinderella team.

The Owls had an 11-10 record last season. They were hopeful, but not overly optimistic, going into the current campaign. Duquesne, La Salle and Syracuse were some of the clubs rated ahead of them among the Eastern independents.

* * *

Today, however, Temple showed a perfect 9-0 slate and was one of four major schools remaining unbeaten. The others are San Francisco (12-0), Dayton (11-0) and St. Francis of Brooklyn (9-0).

* * *

Last night, the Owls, ranked 10th in the latest Associated Press poll, whipped Villanova 80-73 after rallying late in the game.

Duke's sixth-ranked Blue Devils were the only others among the country's top 10 teams to see action. They beat Clemson 109-80 in an Atlantic Coast Conference tilt.

* * *

In other games, St. Louis tripped Bradley 75-67 in a Missouri Valley skirmish. Carnegie Tech pulled the upset of the night by edging West Virginia 68-66. Louisville beat Notre Dame 80-75 in overtime. Tennessee defeated Georgia 62-59 in the Southeastern Conference and Columbia knocked off Pennsylvania 82-74 in the Ivy League.

Hal (King) Lear scored 37 points to lead Temple to its victory. Villanova battled the Owls on even terms at 70-70 until Hal Reinfeld hit on a three-point play. Guy Rodgers connected on a jump shot and Lear converted two free throws for a seven-point spree.

* * *

The Owls' other victims this season include fifth-ranked Kentucky and two Ivy League clubs, Princeton and Penn.

Duke took command in the ninth minute of its game against Clemson, raced to a 53-38 halftime advantage and then turned the game into a rout. Bill Yarborough netted 38 points for the losers.

* * *

Underdog Carnegie Tech, which won only its third game in 10 starts, had to come from behind in the last two minutes. Allen Frank put Tech in front 66-63 with two quick baskets. Rod Hundley had a hot night for West Virginia with 28 points and 17 rebounds.

U-M 9th Victim of U.S. Skaters

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — Russia's "machine-like" hockey squad will be one of the teams to beat in the winter Olympics, U.S. Coach Johnny Mariucci said today.

"Canada, of course, will be tough — probably the favorite," Mariucci said, "but we can't overlook those Russians.

* * *

"From all I've heard, they operate like a machine. Everything they do on the ice follows a pattern. They've been playing together for so long—about four or five years now—that they've got their passing down to almost a formula."

Mariucci was asked that, in view of the Canadian and Russian power, whether his U.S. team was aiming for second or third place.

"We're aiming for one spot," Mariucci said. "And that's the top spot."

* * *

Mariucci expressed satisfaction over his squad after it beat the University of Michigan's NCAA champions 4-1 in an exhibition game before 4,504 in Olympia Stadium.

It was the ninth straight success for the Olympic squad as it makes its way eastward prior to leaving for Europe.

"The game was as good as any we've played so far," Mariucci said. "Remember, we've been together as a team only since Dec. 22.

* * *

"We're not trying to get the boys 'up' now. We just want to keep them busy. A game a night. We'll play a couple of exhibition games in Germany. Then we'll bring them to a peak."

Vic Heyliger, Michigan coach, said the U.S. squad was the finest of the three he had seen.

"Their strong point is balance," Heyliger said. "I'm sure they'll do well over there."

An interested spectator at the game was General Manager Jack Adams of the Detroit Red Wings. He, too, thought highly of Mariucci's hand-picked team.

* * *

"They're a good team," Adams said. "They play their positions well and know how to shoot the puck. I don't think they will be penalized much in the games. They call 'em real close, you know."

The U.S. team stepped off to a 4-0 lead in the first 34 minutes, then coasted past the Michigan team, which is composed entirely of players from Canada.

Scoring for the Olympics were Ed Sampson, Johnny Matchefts, Gordon Christian and Weldy Olson.

The crowd contributed $7,506 to the Olympic Fund to defray the cost of sending the team to Cortina, Italy.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves are dugout-deep in left field candidates, and with no squatter's rights at County Stadium seven baseball players are on the run in a wide-open race.

The seven players in the running are outfielders Bobby Thomson, Chuck Tanner, Andy Pafko, Wes Covington and Al Spangler, plus first baseman Joe Adcock and first baseman-outfielder Earl Hersh.

Manager Charlie Grimm, with long ball threat George Crowe, slick-fielding Frank Torre and Adcock available for first base has said he plans to experiment with Joe in the outfield.

* * *

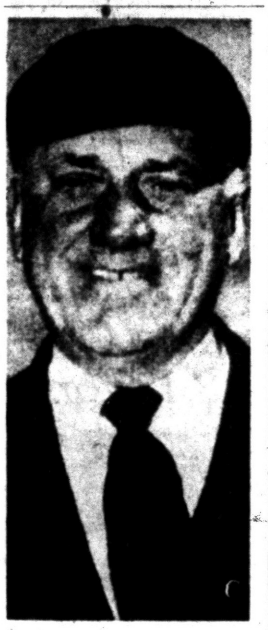

Adcock, 28, slipped to .264 last year, and missed the tail end of the season when a pitch by Jim Hearn fractured his right wrist. He recently signed a '56 contract and reported the break had knitted perfectly and gave him no trouble.

The 23-year-old Hersh, who batted .314 for Atlanta in the Southern Assn. last season, will make the switch to the outfield because of the Braves' overabundance of first sackers.

Thomson and Tanner, who split the left field chores in '55, both say they won't be counted out of consideration despite poor seasons. Thomson, never right after suffering a broken ankle in the spring of 1954, batted .257. Tanner 10 points less.

* * *

Grimm has said Pafko, 31, still can help the club but, "I don't think he will be able to go 100 games this year." Pafko finished up with a .266 batting average in '55. Few can beat him as a first-rate utility man.

The Aug. 26 Michigan Archery Championships, at Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, is one of five important state shoots of the year, according to Pontiac Archery Club officials.

Pro Bowl Tilt Walker Finale

Doak to End Career as Play-for-Pay Grid Star on Sunday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sunday's Pro Bowl game between the stars of the Eastern and Western Conferences of the National Football League will mark Doak Walker's final appearance as a player.

* * *

"This will be my last football game," said the Detroit halfback. "I'm in good condition and ready for my best effort, which I want to be a really good one."

* * *

"I'm severing all connection with football. It has been good to me and I've made a lot of friends in the game. I don't plan to try coaching. It's true, I could change my mind on that, but I don't think I will."

Walked and Bill Howton of the Green Bay Packers are alternating at the flanker spot in Sid Gillman's West lineup.

Indianapolis Speedway Unveils '56 Pace Car

DETROIT (AP)—The 1956 pace car of the annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis motor speedway was unveiled in Indianapolis last night by L. I. Woolson, president of Corp.'s DeSoto Division.

DeSota accepted an invitation from speedway owner Tony Hulman to pace the 40th annual international motor classic on May 30.

Angler Captures 3-Foot Pike on Light Perch Rig

Ortonville's Dr. Paul Schoen, osteopath physician, didn't know he was going to have to battle a big fish, recently when he tried a round of ice fishing.

So his equipment included only a light perch rig, with a two-pound test leader carrying hook and little minnow.

"The perch stopped biting," the doctor reported. "Then I saw this big pike (weighed in at 10¼ pounds later on). He took the minnow and I had a half-hour scrap on my hands.

"If Charley Sherman (Ortonville mortician) hadn't arrived just about the time I had the fish in the hole he might have got away. Charley grabbed him by the jaw and pulled him out on the ice."

The doctor and his prize will appear on Mort Neff's outdoor TV show, Thursday at 7:30, Dr. Schoen says.

Wolverine Icemen Meet Old Rivals

ANN ARBOR — Michigan's hockey squad will swing into action against its oldest—and as usual, one of its keenest—ice rivals when the University of Minnesota comes here for a two-game series in the WIHL race Friday and Saturday.

The Wolverines enter the series tied for first place with North Dakota in the WIHL standings, the result of their double win over Michigan State, 5-2 and 3-1 the past weekend, plus a victory by Colorado College over the Nodaks.

CHAMPION — One of the latest among Oakland county canines to blossom out as a full-fledged champion is the handsome standard poodle (above), CH. Almyr's Joe Bemish, owned by Florence and Carol Robson of Milford. The fine, apricot-colored poodle recently completed his championship with a major victory in the Lansing dog show. Confirmation has just been received from the AKC. The champ was bred in the kennel of Mrs. Robert Hawkins of Milford. A sister to Joe, CH. Almyr's Lucky Clover B, also completed her championship in an Ohio show.

Olympic Torch Will Flare at Cortina Winter Games

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (INS) — The symbolic Olympic torch will be lighted atop Rome's majestic Capitol Hill and transported by land, sea and air to Cortina for the opening of the Olympic winter games Jan. 26.

Representatives of more than 30 competing nations will attend the colorful lighting ceremony Jan. 22 in the lovely square designed by Michelangelo over four centuries ago.

The torch then will be carried in procession through the heart of Rome and along the ancient Appian way to the airport on the outskirts of the city.

A special plane will take it to Venice, where another ceremony will be conducted in St. Mark's Square. Steamer and motor boat will be used for the trip across the Venetian lagoon to Mestre on the Adriatic coast, east of Venice.

Relays of athletes will carry the flame along the Dolimite roads leading to the Italian skiing resort high in the mountains. An unnamed champion skier will bear it across the snow slopes to the newly constructed stadium and another unnamed champion will skate across the ice of the stadium with the torch to mark the opening of the 7th winter games.

Olivet Winner, 77-58

OLIVET (AP) — Bob Whitcomb's 21-point performance led Olivet to a 77-58 basketball victory over Ferris Institute last night.

It was Olivet's second victory in eight games.

Three golf professional jobs, vacated by the worst single tragedy that has befallen the state PGA body, have just been filled.

According to Bob McLaren, veteran links manufacturing representative in this area, Kent Country Club, Green Ridge Club and Spring Lake, all near Grand Rapids, have named Jimmy Wells, son of the Cascades Jackson veteran, Maurice Wells, Bob Lavacek and Al Lemenski.

Business Concluded, NCAA Delegates Adjourn

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The golden anniversary convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. must go down as one of the calmer, cooler sessions of an organization that has produced many a stormy meeting.

Today the delegates were heading home, and all that remained on the scene was the council, or policy directing body, to appoint new members of the important television, executive and tournament committees.

* * *

Here are some of the main items of interest:

The NCAA voted to continue controlled football television in 1956. It probably will be in similar fashion to regional and national TV last fall but the plan itself will be mapped out by the 1956 TV committee and approved by two-thirds of the voting members via mail poll.

The NCAA voted to inaugurate its own national so-called small college championship tournament, over the protests of the already well established National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics, which conducts its tournament at Kansas City.

* * *

There will be no relation to the big college NCAA cage championship and the college division, nor will there be any playoff involving any of the three.

Institutions will be able to declare which tournament they will seek to make and they have to declare a year in advance if they plan a switch. Best guess is that the new NCAA college division will eventually kill, or swallow, the NAIA.

Effective next year, the basketball season will start Oct. 15 instead of Nov. 1, and spring practice was abolished.

The convention tightened to some extent its recruiting rules, but another proposal to limit the number of visits by an athlete to a campus to one was withdrawn for further study. This will provide some fodder for debate next year.

* * *

The infractions committee reported that 25 schools are presently under investigation for 14 offenses in the area of recruiting. Neither the identity of the schools nor the alleged infractions was divulged. Frank N. Gardner of Drake, the chairman, said that in all, 77 cases were dealt with by the committee in 1955.

The continued probation of Miami of Florida until the next convention was ratified without debate. The school has been on the pan for several alleged violations, including a loan fund for students, athletes particularly.

* * *

The NCAA voted to ban its coaches and officials from functioning in high school all-star football and basketball events, effective Sept. 1, 1956. Stadia and facilities were also denied such promoters unless special permission was granted by governing high school organizations.

Athletes who compete in the 1956 Olympic games will not have their eligibility endangered.

The Olympic games fund was enriched $260,292 via contributions from NCAA members, including $34,300 collected on tickets from the recent Rose Bowl game.

The 1957 convention will be held in St. Louis Jan. 9-11.

Veteran Picked as Training Aide for Bosox Club

BOSTON (AP) — Charles (Win) Green, a member of the Boston Red Sox organization for 40 years, has been named the club's assistant trainer by general manager Joe Cronin.

Green, a resident of Boston, served as the Red Sox trainer for many years until Joe McCarthy became manager in 1947. He went to the Scranton farm club in the Eastern League for a year and then moved to Louisville in the American Assn.

Green also has been trainer of the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League for the past 28 years.

Sports Celebrities Mark Dad, Boy Party

Arrangements are being completed for the annual father and son banquet, sponsored by Pontiac Lodge No. 810, Order of Elks. The big party is set for Feb. 7 in the lodge hall, with a long list of sports celebrities expected to highlight the program.

Lee Creekmur of the Detroit Lions (an 810 member) and John Donley are co-chairmen for the event.

It is expected that about 1,000 will take part in the banquet.

Harbert in Panama Open; Snead One of 3 Favorites

PANAMA CITY, (INS) — The $7,500 Panama Open golf tournament gets under way at the Panama Golf Club today with a Pan American pro-amateur field vying for dollars and honors.

Argentina's Roberto De Vicenzo, two-time winner of the four-year-old tournament, 1955 titleholder Tony Cerda and Sammy Snead of the U. S., also a former winner, have been established pre-tournament favorites.

De Vicenzo lost top money to Cerda last year by one stroke on the final hole of the tournament.

Top amateurs entered in the tournament include Jimmy De La Guardia, Ray Valdes, Anibal Galindo, Charley McMurray, Herb Mitten, Dick Goodman and Maurice Miller.

President Ricardo Manuel Arias will head a strong Panama contingent in quest of the Open Amateur championship. Arias will open competition when he hits the 1st ball this morning. The stroke, incidentally, will count on his score.

Other professionals entered include Arnold Palmer, Bob Toski, Art Wall, Chick Harbert, Ed Furgol, Doug Ford, Skip Alexander and Lew Worsham of the U. S. as well as Latin pro Henry Castillo.

Hornsby Will Scout for Cleveland Club

CHICAGO (INS)—The Cleveland Indians announced today that they have signed former National League great Rogers Hornsby as a scout for the Chicago area.

Hornsby will continue in his present capacity as an employe of the Chicago City Recreation Department. This will not interfere in his new job as scout for the Indians.

Hornsby's last major league post was with the Cincinnati Redlegs whom he managed in 1953.

UCLA won both the 1953 and 1954 Pacific Coast conference football titles.

Audie Achieves Success After Decade in Filmdom

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Latest "overnight sensation" in Hollywood is a 10-year veteran of the movie mills named Audie Murphy.

• • •

Critics and pollsters are always hailing new sensations, most of whom spent long years learning their craft with little recognition. Now everyone is discovering Audie. Long overlooked, he surprised everyone by scoring one of 1955's biggest film successes.

His autobiography, "To Hell and Back," is the biggest moneymaker in the history of Universal-International. A nine million dollar worldwide gross has been predicted for it.

• • •

"I'm just as surprised as anyone," the war hero confessed. "I can't figure it out. The picture just isn't that good.

"The amazing thing about it is that women go for it as much as men. You'd think they would shun a war picture, but half of the people you see buying tickets for it are women.

• • •

"The only thing I can figure is that these women are married to men who took part in the war. They have heard their husbands talk about the war; now they are able to see what it is like."

Audie was asked if the success of "To Hell and Back" had changed his life.

Audie admitted the picture did zoom his career.

• • •

"I had offers from every studio but MGM," he said. "I don't suppose they'd want me back there again. I must say it's mutual."

He referred to the colossal failure of "Red Badge of Courage," the John Huston picture in which Audie starred. It has long been the subject of controversy. MGM argues that it did everything possible to save the Civil War epic. But Audie feels differently.

It was released on the bottom half of a double-bill and not even previewed for the press. Audie recalled that a British paper said the studio should have received a "Yellow Badge of Cowardice" for its handling of the film.

So strong are Audie's feelings about the picture that he recently offered to buy it for $250,000. He wanted to restore it to the original form and bring it out again. MGM hasn't replied to his offer.

Reds Put Pressure on 'Border Crossers'

BERLIN (AP)—The Communists are stepping up their pressure on the 37,000 East Germans working in West Berlin to quit their jobs and help "constrict socialism" in the East.

• • •

Refugees from the East report that "border crossers" are being threatened with forcible removal to remote parts of East Germany unless they give up their West Berlin jobs.

An increasing number of "letters to the editor" in the Red press are demanding that East Germans quit working for "West German rearmament."

• • •

A letter in the Potsdam newspaper Maerkische Volksstimme accused Communist party member Roman Koczelny of "betraying the cause of the working class and our (East German) republic" by working in the West as a painter.

Kalamazoo Girl Killed by Shock From Wasp Bite

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Sitting in the living room of their farm home last night, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Schuster heard a scream from a bedroom where their 10-year-old daughter Jeannie was sleeping.

• • •

As they burst into the room Jeannie gave a low moan and lost consciousness.

The bewildered parents tried frantically to determine what had happened.

Then Schuster found a dead wasp beneath the covers of Jeannie's bed. He called a doctor.

The girl was dead when he arrived.

• • •

The doctor said Jeannie had died of anaphylactic shock—induced by extreme sensibility to insect stings.

About 17 million persons crossed the English channel in 1954.

Own Movies Shunned by Margaret O'Brien

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Margaret O'Brien was probably the only person in a crowded room yesterday who had never seen Margaret O'Brien play in a movie.

The 18-year-old star—in Lexington today for the world premiere of "Glory"—was guest of honor at a get-together when she told a reporter she had never seen herself on the movie screen.

"I like to go to movies and see other people but I don't want to see myself," said Margaret. And she doesn't expect to see "Glory," either.

That's Real Service

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Now this is what you call ambulance service! Mrs. Anna Reineke, 74, was hit by a taxi as she crossed a street yesterday. Deputies said she was in a hospital for treatment of a broken leg less than three minutes after she was struck. An ambulance returning to the hospital was running behind the taxi.

Ford Makes Record Aluminum Purchase

NEW YORK (AP) — Reynolds Metals Co. has signed a contract to deliver more than 640 million pounds of aluminum to the Ford Motor Co. during the next 10 years —biggest industrial aluminum order in the aluminum industry's history.

President R. S. Reynolds Jr. said last night the contract is renewable at Ford's option.

It is planned to deliver most of the aluminum in molten form direct from a new Reynolds reduction plant to a Ford foundry to be built adjacent to it, Reynolds said. The new aluminum plant will be built at Listerhill, Ala., at a cost of between 75 and 80 million dollars.

A registration statement covering the proposed sale of 800,000 shares of preferred stock by Reynolds to cover part of the cost of the expansion was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington Wednesday.

Chevrolet to Display Redesigned Corvette

DETROIT (AP) — Chevrolet's 1956 Corvette, two-passenger sports model, will appear shortly in dealerships around the country with numerous styling and design advances.

A completely restyled plastic body is part of the new small Chevrolet model, along with a power-operated fabric top and an optional removal solid top that permits quick conversion to an open body type car.

Roll-down side windows, power operated if desired, choice of regular or automatic transmission, and a V-8 engine developing 225 horsepower, up 15 per cent over the previous power plant also are new. The engine has a 9.25 to 1 compression ratio.

JACK W. HAUPT

Clarkston Resident Heads Sales Agency

Jack W. Haupt, of 73 Main St., Clarkston, recently assumed ownership of the Pontiac Sales agency in that community after purchasing the firm from Edward Whipple, former dealer for the area.

A Clarkston native, Haupt had been associated with a Chevrolet dealership in the area. He has been in automotive sales since 1935, and has been parts manager for GMC Truck & Coach and district sales manager for Kaiser-Frazer.

According to Haupt, service department employes formerly associated with the Whipple agency have been retained, although the administrative and sales forces have been reorganized. Sales manager for both new and used autos is Donald Graham.

Stock Market Extends Upturn

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market extended its recovery today from selling earlier in the week. Motor shares spearheaded the upswing. Gains ran to around three points in early afternoon.

* * *

At noon, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was ahead $1.00 at $178.20. The average gained $1.20 yesterday.

General Motors, a target for considerable selling in recent weeks, opened today on a 5,000-share block at 43¾, unchanged, and then moved up around a point at one time in heavy trading. Chrysler also advanced better than one point.

* * *

Other groups pushing higher included the steels, rubbers, retails, aircrafts, radio-televisions, chemicals and oils. The rails showed gains but there was not much activity in the group.

Woolworth, up yesterday on an increased dividend, extended its gain today. Douglas went ahead on an extra dividend and an earnings forecast. Reynolds Metals, up 4½ yesterday, opened with a further gain today on news of a big contract with Ford, but subsequently was hit by profit-taking.

* * *

Du Pont was among the better gainers, adding nearly four points at one time. The wide-swinging American Hawaiian Steamship jumped more than five.

Good-sizes plus signs were shown by Bethlehem Steel, Montgomery Ward, Kennecott, American Tobacco, Kaiser Aluminum, American Viscose, Southern Railway, Amerada, Standard Oil (NJ) and Anderson-Prichard.

Salesman Held as Girl Vanishes

Gotham Police Baffled Over Disappearance of 20-Year-Old Blonde

NEW YORK (AP)—A young salesman is being held as a material witness in the baffling disappearance of a 20-year-old blonde. After questioning several other men, authorities termed the case "almost certainly a criminal homicide."

"Criminal homicide" is a legal charge which could possibly mean that Jacqueline Smith died at the hands of a bungling abortionist.

* * *

Held in $25,000 bail yesterday was 24-year-old Thomas G. Daniel, who steadily dated Miss Smith since last June. The girl has been missing since she visited Daniels' apartment Christmas Eve.

Police said the search for the girl started Dec. 30, when her father — coming here to spend the New Year's holiday with her — reported she was missing.

* * *

Authorities said Daniels has given conflicting stories about his girl friend's disappearance: that she walked out while he dozed on a couch; that she committed suicide with a knife when he refused to marry her and he dumped her body into the Hudson River; and that a second man was involved.

Police believe the girl is dead.

The new Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland has an estimated population of 221,200 Europeans and 6,595,000 Africans, Salisbury reports.

Homes of Stars to Be Televised

Tour of Beverly Hills Will Be Presented on January 29

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—We're not discouraged by the constant parade of good, but drab, dramas on TV, but it seems a lot of others are. . .

TV is a medium that serves as a companion for many folks, older people, lonely persons, folks who get their entertainment only in their living rooms because their incomes don't permit nightclubs, movie, plays, concerts. . .

"When the sad stories come on, we can't even watch," one lonely viewer complains. "Please—can't we have some good plays about rich people?"

The Jan. 29 "Inside Beverly Hills" spectacular will be NBC's extravagant answer to "Person-to-Person," showing the innards of dozens of stars' homes . . .

Jackie Gleason subs Feb. 3 for his good friend Edward R. Murrow as interviewer on "Person-to-Person." . . .

The Perry Como Hour (says Trendex) buried the opposition again (27.4 to 20.5). . .

LIVELIER FRIDAY

NBC-TV will liven up dull Friday night with a 90-minute drama spectacular next fall. . .

British TV fans complained Eartha Kitt wasn't "slinky" enough in her British telecasts. Wanted her to live up to her publicity photos . . . Papers said she was "dressed in a pinafore" . . .

Sarah Churchill's first TV acting of the new season will be aboard NBC's Matinee Theater Monday in Zoe Akins' "The Old Maid" . . .

Ralph Bellamy quit his H'wood bumpkin roles for all their profitable salary and turned to the stage and TV because he read a movie script in which a character was described: "Dull but charming—a typical Ralph Bellamy part" . . .

"Peter Pan" attracted fewer viewers Monday than its original TV flight a year ago. . .

GLAMOR FOR HOPE

Bob Hope's trying to land Gina Lollobrigida or Sophia Loren for his Feb. 7 TV show, to be filmed in Rome.

The real reason Max Liebman dropped "The Cat and The Fiddle" for a variety revue is simply that someone goofed and didn't get librettist-lyricist Otto Harbach's permission. . .

Michael Drury, whose swell novel in Good Housekeeping magazine ("The Cheese Stands Alone") was sold to 20th Century Fox for a high fee, was signed to write the screen play about a "fictional" TV star who is part monster, part genius, part ignorant.

Martin and Lewis' agents say the best of enemies earned $4,000,000 last year, only 5 per cent of which came from TV at $40,000 per NBC shot. . .

Bob McFadden is an occasional TV comic who can't stay obscure for long. A good imitator, but with a sense of lunacy larger than the flat novelty of imitation. . .

SPONSOR TROUBLE

CBS-TV's strange problem — everyone from critics to kids love "Capt. Kangaroo" except sponsors.

Ninety per cent of the people in the U. S. are in range of TV stations, and 75 per cent have two stations or more at their beck and dial. . .

Improves Steering Safety

New GMC Shock Damper Reduces Jolts in Trucks

A road shock damper, which designers say gives light trucks the steering safety and riding comfort of an expensive automobile, is among the innovations recently introduced at the Chicago Auto Show by the GMC Truck and Coach Division.

The damper is a separate unit from the "air ride" principle which the division also displayed for the first time at the current automotive exposition.

In announcing the new engineering development after a two-year research project, GMC became the first American motor vehicle manufacturer to bring out such dampers for smoothing out road vibrations before they reach the frame.

Mounted behind the trucks' front wheels, the dampers counteract road jolts with "floating" weights that slide downward in metal cylinders when bumps are encountered.

"This development is one of the most significant ever achieved for truck riding comfort," said GMC Chief Engineer C. V. Crockett.

"These dampers not only minimize road jolts, but also tend to keep the wheels in contact with the road surface even under the most severe driving conditions, thus giving the driver more positive control over his vehicle at all times."

The chief engineer said the dampers actually "smooth out" washboard roads and greatly reduce the threat of the vehicle skidding out of control.

"Driver fatigue is materially reduced in vehicles equipped with the dampers," continued Crockett, "as the decrease in wheel bounce and skidding on bumpy roads enables the driver to steer the vehicle with a minimum of effort. This is an important safety factor, for it is a well-known fact that a fresh driver is a safer driver."

In a series of road tests, it was found that trucks equipped with the dampers could turn corners and negotiate washboard roads easier due to their road-hugging ability.

The road shock damper consists of an 11.8x4.4-inch metal cylinder containing a 12-pound steel weight sandwiched between two coil springs. The weight slides along a steel rod running the length of the cylinder.

Tension of the springs has been adjusted so that the vibration frequency (bounce) of the damper weight opposes the vibration frequency of the vehicles' front wheels.

When the wheels bounce into the air, the weight plunges downward in the cylinder, muting the upward gyrations of the wheels and deadening the vibration normally transmitted to the body of the vehicle.

Due to the deadening effect, softer springs may be used on the vehicle for more riding comfort. For maximum benefit, a damper is mounted on the brake backing plate of both of the vehicles front wheels.

Williams Asks Plans for Telegraph Road

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams asked the State Police and Highway Departments today what they planned to do to carry out urgent proposals by his special commission to improve traffic controls on Telegraph Road.

* * *

A committee of three citizens named by Williams recently recommended immediate steps to protect school children and pedestrians on the road, especially in Taylor Township of Wayne County where a group of mothers blocked the highway.

Williams said he was sure both agencies wanted to eliminate traffic hazards in the area and asked what steps they would take.

The recommendations included a school bus rerouting already advocated by the highway department, railroad crossing guards, a pedestrian overpass at the Cypress-Telegraph Road intersection, a 40-mile an hour speed limit in Taylor Township and more traffic lights.

Prisoners Can Cook

CATLETTSBURG, Ky. (AP) — Prisoners in the city jail can cook light snacks again—even if it smells. The City Council yesterday reversed an order banning use of a heating stove because of complaints about odors arising from prisoners' culinary efforts.

Parks Department Offers Dance Class

Want to learn to be a polished ballroom dancer? — the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department may have an answer for you.

The group will conduct a ballroom dance class Monday, Jan. 16 at 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. at Webster School.

The class will consist of six sessions and cover the basic fundamental dance steps including the waltz, fox trot, two-step routines with variations, some Latin American combinations, such as the rhumba and tango.

Registrations for the class can be made by calling the Parks and Recreation Dept. at FE 3-7131.

Japan's soybean production for 1955 is estimated at about 19,000,000 bushels, 38 per cent more than in 1954.

House Red Probers Will Call Dr. Hutchins

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities plans to resume on Feb. 14 its public search for Communists once employed by the government.

After that is over, Chairman Walter (D-Pa) said today, the group will call Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, director of the Fund for the Republic.

"We're not going into the Fund for the Republic — we're going into Dr. Hutchins," Walter said in an interview.

Driver Training Work Expanded

City Board of Education Moves Toward Meeting State Requirements

A temporary measure to meet requirements of a new state law modifying public-school, driver-training programs was passed last night by the Pontiac Board of Education.

Among other things, the law provides that all youth must have successfully completed a driver-training program to receive a driver's license before age 18, that schools will receive $25 in state aid for each pupil and private and parochial school students may take driver training in public schools.

"We are apparently responsible for giving all senior high pupils (now about 1,000 per year) a driver training program," explained Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dana P. Whitmer.

To do this the driver instruction staff will have to be expanded from two to eight full-time persons, he added.

The program, when completely expanded, will cost about $42,400 per year, he said. The state will pay about $24,000, leaving $18,400 to be taken from local tax funds. The program now costs $9,600 each year, with about 320 pupils trained.

"Since reimbursement does not cover costs of instruction, tax moneys will be used in the future to support driver training for non-public school pupils," he pointed out.

The Board approved hiring two additional instructors as a temporary step to carry through the spring semester. The move requires no increased expense this year.

"The permanent program can be worked out during the next semester for Board consideration prior to September 1956," said Whitmer.

Algerian Trouble: Not French Tie, but Food for All

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) —Many Frenchmen here think the biggest problem facing Algeria is not whether this North African country should continue to belong to France but how to feed its growing population.

Today there are 8½ million Arabs and Berbers living with one million Frenchmen in an area four times the size of France. The population is small for the area but most of Algeria is barren mountain or desert waste. Only the coastal strip and the plains near Algiers and Oran are really fertile.

* * *

Yet the population has grown rapidly and may double in 100 years. The teaching of elementary hygiene and modern drugs have cut down disease which used to decimate the population.

"Whatever we do, we shall be submerged in the end," one Algeria-born Frenchman said despairingly. Another joked bitterly, "What we really need here is a good old-fashioned plague."

Both Catholic and Moslem teaching firmly oppose any form of birth control.

Will Sculpture Statue of Beardless Lincoln

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A new statue of Abraham Lincoln, showing him beardless, as he appeared in Chicago in 1860, is to be built by Dr. Avard Fairbanks, University of Utah sculptor.

Fairbanks was selected yesterday to build the $35,000 bronze statue by the Abraham Lincoln Memorial Commission. The statue, to be erected in Chicago's Lincoln Square, will be 1¼ times larger than Lincoln's actual measurements.

Mom Kills 2 Sons, Self

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—A nervous mother shot and killed her two sons and herself yesterday with a 30-30 hunting rifle, police said. Dead were Mrs. Vidella Caroline McNamara, 33, and her sons, Patrick, 5, and James R., 3. The bodies were found when the husband and two other sons returned home. Police Chief Elden Winslow said the woman had been under treatment periodically for a nervous condition.

There were about 40,000 foreign students in the U.S. in 1954.

Birds Keep Quiet

COMANCHE, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Max Renas has the quietest, most orderly bunch of birds that ever roosted in a living room. The 300 birds are made of wood, turquoise, silver, sea shells, and a dozen other materials.

178 Survive Man, 95

BRUNSWICK, Md. (AP) — Among the mourners for John Newton Waters, who died at the age of 95 last night, are 178 direct survivors. He left behind him 10 children, 48 grandchildren, 110 great grandchildren and 10 great great grandchildren, the family said. Waters farmed in Washington County most of his life.

Still Going Strong

SURRY, Va. (AP)—Sidney B. Barham Jr., 83, says he will stay in office as clerk of courts as long as the people want him. He's been on the job 33 years. Prior to that he served in both branches of the Virginia legislature.
