Israel to Free Four Captives

5 Arabs Aboard Syrian Plane Forced Down at
Tel Aviv Still Are Held

JERUSALEM (U) — Israel announced today she would release the Greek pilot and three of the eight Arabs detained after their Syrian airliner was forced down by Israeli fighters at Lydda Airport, near Tel Aviv, yesterday.

The dispatch from Jerusalem gave no explanation why five of the Arabs were still to be held. However, the Israeli army announced earlier that it was seeking the release of five Israeli soldiers who disappeared on patrol along the Syrian frontier last Wednesday.

An army spokesman said Syrian officials had denied knowledge of the troops but that a Radio Damascus broadcast had said Syria was holding them.

An American passenger aboard the aircraft, Ralph C. Hansen, of Bloomington, N.J., was released immediately after the plane landed at Lydda. Later yesterday he caught an Israeli aircraft to connect in Cyprus with another plane to Cairo.

An Israeli spokesman said the plane, en route from Damascus to Cairo, was intercepted by two Israeli fighters over a "forbidden zone of the Israeli coast." Informants said the plane was near Acre, the old Crusader town in the north-west corner of the country.

The plane's Egyptian-born Greek captain Basil Tsoumoungis denied this and contended he had kept outside Israeli territory throughout the flight.

U.N. truce observers launched an investigation of the incident following complaints by the Israeli, Egyptian and Syrian governments.

Cross-Examine Sheppard Now

Admits 'Sins' in Closing
Direct Testimony; Two
New Points Raised

CLEVELAND (U) — Dr. Samuel Sheppard ended his direct testimony today with the statement that he has committed some "sins," which were not immediately described.

The final question put to him by his chief defense counsel, William J. Corrigan, was "doctor, in your lifetime, have you ever committed any sins?"

Sheppard, on trial charged with murdering his wife, estimated a moment and then said:

"Yes sir, I have succumbed to human frailties."

You may cross examine," Corrigan said, looking at the three state's attorneys.

Prior to that Corrigan brought from Sheppard two points that may bear on police investigation of the case. They were:

1. The fact that the wrist band on the watch Sheppard was wearing on the night of his wife's murder is now broken. The defense attorney asked if it was broken when Sheppard last wore it and whether he knew how the wrist band had been so damaged. Sheppard replied to both questions that he did not.

2. That a T-shirt found on the beach some distance from his home could have been his.

Friends have testified the doctor was wearing a T-shirt when they last saw him and his wife, Marilyn, together some hours before she was killed. In the morning, however, Sheppard was bare from the waist up and said he does not remember what became of the T-shirt or anything about it.

You'll Have to Admit, These Are Different

CHICAGO (UP) — Several department stores here have an answer for the Christmas shopper who can't figure out what to get for that friend "who's got everything."

They suggest a link-line ice bucket or a jeweled can opener. Clerks said the can openers are selling fast but the $150 ice buckets are getting a cool reception.

Wednesday Is S-D Day

Entire Nation Joins Safe Driving Test

CHICAGO (U) — The nation's mobile millions today headed for an extraordinary test of their ability to drive and walk safely for 24 hours.

The test comes Wednesday. It has been designated Safe Driving Day.

President Eisenhower proclaimed S-D Day. It is sponsored by the President's Action Committee for Highway Safety.

The purpose is to reduce traffic accidents greatly to show that it can be done. The reduction has not been specified. The goal, at least, is a big slash and, at best, no accidents at all.

Petition Drive Scores

Army of 10,000 Pledges
War on Accidents Here

Pontiac has enlisted its "Army of 10,000." The local committee's S-D Day drive for over 10,000 signatures, pledging on a petition to perform utmost care Wednesday in support of the President's Safe Driving Day, reached its climax today.

But the campaign will continue through today and tomorrow in hopes of reaching a higher figure, said Clyde R. Haskell, chairman who said the petition will be in President Eisenhower's hands on Wednesday when the entire nation will attempt to weather a 24-hour period without a single accident.

Meanwhile, many unreported petitions which are still out, said Haskell, will push the drive way over the top.

Since the long scroll will be forwarded to the President late Tuesday, in order to reach him by Wednesday, Haskell said:

"It is urgent that all petitions be returned on Tuesday either to me or to Lieut. Joseph Koren of (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Not Much Change Is Weather Picture

That's the weatherman's prediction for this area tomorrow. He held out promise of a slightly rising mercury which is expected to climb to between 35 and 39 degrees after a 20 degree low tonight.

An .08-inch of snowfall was recorded over the weekend, turning side roads into a glare. Combined freezing mist and melting snow caused a 750-car traffic tieup Sunday morning on Woodward Avenue south of Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills Police said. A similar hour-long condition was reported along Telegraph road in Bloomfield Township.

No serious accidents are recorded. Saturday, the temperature ranged from 26 to 35 degrees and Sunday from 24 to 33.

This morning at 8, the thermometer reading was 24 degrees, rising to 30 by 1 p.m. No more snow is expected for the next two days.

Commerce Boy Drowns in Lake

Kirk Emmons Dies in Icy Water, After Thin
Ice Breaks

A seven-year-old Commerce Township boy drowned Sunday afternoon when he broke through thin ice on a Commerce Lake inlet near his home.

The victim, Kirk Emmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Emmons, 3055 Ridgmont, was pronounced dead at the scene at 4:30 after artificial respiration efforts by Commerce Township firemen failed.

Two companions, James Williams of 623 Commerce Rd., and Robert Koenen of 617 Commerce Rd., both seven, said they were poking sticks through the ice on the lake shore when the victim stepped onto the ice and fell through.

The boy was pulled from the icy water by his father who was summoned from his home a block away by the Koenen youth.

Surviving besides the parents are a brother, Richard, in the Navy and a sister, Mrs. Arthur Senior of Commerce.

Funeral services will be held at the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home at Walpole Lake Wednesday at 1 p.m. Burial will be in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens.

Pope Weakens Rallies, Vatican Sources Report

Believe Consecration of Archbishop Yesterday
Strained Ailing Pontiff

VATICAN CITY (U) — Reliable informants in the Vatican said Pope Pius XII was somewhat weaker today, but a larger official statement said his condition showed a slight improvement.

Any change for the worse in his condition would be the first since the collapse which brought him near death on Dec. 2. He has made a slow, but steady, gain ever since.

The reports, unofficial but reliable, from within the Vatican said the Pope was having difficulty in getting food down and seemed to be feeling the strain of yesterday's big event—consecration of his good friend Magr. Giovanni Battista Montini as archbishop of Milan.

A Vatican communique issued at 2:30 p.m. said:

"This morning a slight improvement was found in the health of the holy father. The pontiff as usual devoted much of his time to prayer and work. Audiences with Magr. Domenico Tardini, prosecretary of state for ordinary affairs and Angelo Dell'acqua, substitute secretary of state, took place today as usual."

Official reports in the past have been inclined to minimize the seriousness of the 78-year-old Pope's condition.

The Pope on Saturday recorded a blessing lasting nearly five minutes which was broadcast at the close of the ceremony yesterday. He listened from his sickbed to the broadcast and was described as profoundly moved by it.

The message was the longest of the three—two of them recorded—which the Pope has broadcast since he rallied from his grave collapse Dec. 2 and began to improve slowly.

Vatican sources revealed that yesterday's message had to be recorded twice because the Pope's voice faltered the first time. On the version which was broadcast, his voice appeared stronger than it had when he gave his two previous messages.

Shah, Queen Fly to Capital

Leave New York for White House Visit After
Medical Checkup

NEW YORK (U) — Shah Mohammad Riza Pahlavi and Queen Soraya of Iran flew to Washington today in President Eisenhower's personal plane for a White House visit.

They left LaGuardia Field at 8:52 a.m. after a medical checkup at New York Hospital and some night excursions to theaters and restaurants. Their health was reported wholly satisfactory.

At the airport, the Shah told James J. O'Brien, who represented Mayor Robert F. Wagner, that he wants "to get to know the city" when he returns in February from an informal tour of the nation.

The royal visitor said he was interested to see what changes have taken place since his visit here five years ago. He expressed particular interest in a helicopter flight over the city and visits to tourist spots.

Hammerskjold Is Determined to Get Answer

No Word Yet From Chou on Request for Meeting on POWs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold will press Red China for an answer to his request for talks on freeing U. N. POWs despite a Peiping blast against the Assembly's censure of the Red regime.

Radio Peiping, broadcasting the first comment on last Friday's U. N. action, quoted the Peiping Peoples Daily as branding the resolution "illegal and unjust" but failed to mention Hammarskjold's request for a personal conference in the capital.

An authoritative source said the secretary general nevertheless would bring strong pressure on Communist China for an official yes-or-no answer unless he received an official reply by tonight.

Diplomats and others who have talked with Hammarskjold said he would insist that he be treated with all the diplomatic courtesy due the spokesman for the 60-nation body.

The Peiping broadcast said the U. N. had "no right to interfere" in China's sentencing of 13 Americans as spies.

Eleven of them are airmen shot down in uniform over North Korea during the Korean war.

The Communist newspaper alleged that the U. S., which sponsored the censure resolution with her 15 Korean war allies, was using the spy case to direct world tension against Red China to cause hatred and resentment.

The publication stated that "The resolution can not cover up the U. S. crime of dropping spies from the air into China."

Hammarskjold, acting on the U. N. assembly resolution directing him to seek prompt release of the 11 U. S. airmen and other U. N. personnel held in violation of the Korean truce, called his request for a Peiping meeting to Premier Chou En-lai.

However, it was suggested at the U. N. that Hammarskjold would "expect" to confer with Communist leader Mao Tse-tung, Red China's real boss.

The U. N. official proposed that the talks be held after Dec. 26. That means that Hammarskjold would have to start his trip to such a conference by the end of this week to reach Peiping by that date.

Hammarskjold planned to confer with key U. N. diplomats from both eastern and western nations before leaving on his projected trip to the Red China capital.

May Ask AEC to Void Contract

Sen. Anderson Expects
Action if Dixon-Yates
Isn't Modified

ALBUQUERQUE (U) — Sen. Clinton P. Anderson said today that the new Congress may direct the Atomic Energy Commission to cancel the controversial Dixon-Yates power contract unless the agreement is "again very substantially modified."

Sen. Anderson, scheduled to become chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, made the prediction in a letter to Ralph H. Demmler, chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In the letter Anderson asked that Demmler urge the commission to withhold its approval of the proposed Dixon-Yates financing plan until the joint committee has a chance to take another look at the overall contract.

The contract was signed in November, subject to SEC approval of financing arrangements and the proposed sale of capital stock.

Anderson said the modifications of the original contract, embodied in the document signed a few weeks ago, were definite improvements. However, he urged the SEC to examine certain other portions of the contract which he said have not been settled and which should be corrected before investors are permitted to put up any money.

Commissioners to Discuss 2 Parking Lots, Sewer Cost

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Most of the agenda for tonight's City Commission meeting once again deals with parking. Now that the city is considering a second parking project, the title "Municipal Parking Lot No. 1" has been given the proposed lot on Pierce between Merrill and Brown.

City Manager Donald C. Egbert will report at length on the suggested operating procedures for the $250,000 parking area, with City Engineer L. R. Gare giving a detailed breakdown on construction costs.

Plans for the newest project, a combined alley and 45-car space lot in the block bounded by Maple, Myrtle, Martin and Bates, will also be reported on.

Other items up for discussion include fire department personnel, the W. E. Reid Development Co.'s share in the Columbia relief sewer project, and a request for installation of street lights on Mansfield between Sheffield and Bradford.

Starting to work recently as planning technician for the city was Herbert A. Herzberg, who will work out of the engineering department under City Engineer L. R. Gare.

A 1931 graduate of the Michigan State College School of Architecture and Urban Planning, Herzberg until this month was with the firm of Waring and Johnson, planning consultants and landscape architects. He lives with his wife at 938 Chester St.

A two-fold health program covering both mental and physical ills of children will highlight tonight's Pembroke School PTA program at 8 at the Torrey School gymnasium. Francis Curtin, nurse for Birmingham's school district, will discuss health maintenance program for Pembroke.

The Pontiac Police traffic and accident bureau.

The petitions may be returned to Haskill at 1 Mt. Clemens St., to the Police Dept., or the Pontiac Press; the three agencies sponsoring the local drive.

In the event that some of Pontiac's motorists and pedestrians were unable to sign the petition, said Haskill, they still have time to make their pledge by mailing a postcard to either one of the three sponsoring agencies.

Police and volunteer workers will continue circulating petitions through the downtown district and residential area today and Wednesday. Police are stationed at Huron and Saginaw Sts. accepting signatures.

The majority of merchants in downtown Pontiac have copies of petitions, urging their patrons to make the pledge.

So far the campaign has gained overwhelming support by enthusiastic motorists and pedestrians here, which "guarantees Pontiac's leadership in the President's national event Wednesday," added Haskill.

He explained:

"The present campaign carried on in Pontiac is to tell the President and the country that Pontiac, in the heart of the auto industry, will lead in giving the nation accident-free holiday for 24 hours."

Adding to the city's dramatic efforts are the GMC plants and various industrial firms here. Service groups, fraternal orders, some 200 merchants and the Pontiac Ministerial Association are lending forceful backing.

Haskill said that schools and factories will sound whistles and bells twice on Wednesday to remind residents of the purpose of S-D Day. GMC Truck and Coach, Fisher Body and Pontiac Motor Divisions will add to the message by blasting their whistles, Haskill said.

"Our campaign so far is an expected success," noted Haskill. "But will our endeavors Wednesday be as successful?"

The nation will be waiting for that answer.

Mrs. Winifred Coffin of 977 Gordon Lane was treated for head injuries at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

Police said a car driven by Mrs. Betty Stobler, 39, of 816 Pierce St., was turning left through a red light apparently obscured from her vision by a bus. Her auto was struck by another driven by Mrs. Myrtle G. Snedeker, 55, of 316 Arlington, which then crashed into two parked cars, in one of which Mrs. Coffin was seated. The fourth car was owned by Dr. Owen S. Heinen, Pembroke Dr., Bloomfield Hills.

William H. Leggett Death Closes Music Career of City's Oldest Teacher

William Hight Leggett, 95, who taught music in Pontiac for over three-quarters of a century, died Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Dill, 3800 West Walton Blvd., where he has made his home the past few years, and which is the former Leggett home-stand.

Born at Clintonville, within a short distance of the place of his death, on March 3, 1839, he has been a resident of this area since, with the exception of six years which he spent in Paris under the tutelage of the violin masters, and a period in Detroit. While in Detroit he kept up his music classes in Pontiac.

He inherited his love for music from his father, Mortimer A. Leggett, who came here from New York where he was born on the site of the present Empire State building, and played the violin in order to promote community dancing parties in the Pontiac area.

Mr. Leggett started playing the piano early in life, but changed to the violin when he began taking lessons from the late Conrad A. Hoffman, prominent Pontiac music teacher of the past century.

Until he was past 90 years of age he maintained a down town studio here, and his pupils were numbered in the thousands. Many people today are prominent in local music activities owe much of their progress to his tutelage.

His collection of violins was one of the best in the nation. Most of them have been given by him to former pupils.

As a hobby Mr. Leggett many years ago took up painting, and some of his work in water colors now occupy places in many homes in Pontiac and elsewhere.

Early in life he was married to Elenor Wright, now deceased. He is survived by a daughter, Florence Leggett of Washington, D. C.

Service will be Tuesday at three o'clock at the Huntoon Funeral Home. Dr. W. H. Marbach will officiate, and burial will be in the Drayton Plains cemetery.

William H. Filis, 20, of Battle Creek was killed Saturday in a truck collision north of Battle Creek.

Arden H. Williams, 27, of Detroit fell six floors to his death down an elevator shaft in a Detroit building Saturday.

Jack Bernard, a 62-year-old invalid, died in a fire that broke out in his two-room Detroit apartment Saturday while his wife was away working.

Seven-year-old Kirk Emmons of Milford drowned Sunday in Commerce Lake near Pontiac when he ventured onto thin ice and fell in.

Albert G. Charles Jr. of Grosse Pointe Woods died in Cadillac Sunday of injuries suffered in a two-car collision west of Marion Friday night.

George Forbush, 36, Grand Rapids, was killed Sunday morning when his car ran off a curve and down an embankment at Leesler.

Barbara Magasark, 12, of Detroit was fatally injured Sunday night when struck by a car near her home.

She was struck by a car driven by Hazen Tegler, 50, of Detroit. Tegler, a Detroit bus driver for 26 years, had recently received an eight-year safety award.

Geza Nahackay, 66, Flushing, died in Owosso five hours after he was injured Saturday night in an automobile collision north of Durand.

United Jewish Fund Seeks $99 Million

NEW YORK (INS)—Plans were being completed today by the United Jewish Appeal to raise $99,521,275 in 1935 to meet urgent Hebrew needs throughout the world.

The appeal's goal, agreed upon by 1,200 Jewish leaders at the Waldorf Astoria, is to meet the budgetary requirements of its three beneficiaries.

They are the United Israel Appeal, $35,000,000; the Joint Distribution Committee, $29,403,000, and the New York Association of New Americans, $35,128,275.

The annual 3-day conference, which closed yesterday, elected William Rosenwald general chairman of the 1935 campaign. He succeeds Edward M. M. Warburg, general chairman for the last four years.

In the Pontiac area participation in the United Jewish Appeal is handled through the Federated Jewish Chaplains, of which Irving Steinman is currently chairman.

U. S. College Enrollment Up for Second Straight Year

PLANNING ANOTHER TRIP—The family gather around the father, Harold Stations, of 143 N. Jessie St. to discuss routes to Florida, which they hope will be the destination of their next trip. Mrs. Stations and Charles are wearing jackets brought back from Mexico while Sharon sports a sombrero from the same place. Other souvenirs are on the table.

Some Taxpayers Escape Payment, Says County Official

By BURDETT C. STODDARD
About $8,000 to $10,000 in personal property taxes assessed in Oakland County during each of the past several years were not collected when they could have been had local treasurers taken steps available to them under the law.

This was revealed today by Oakland County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks who has sent a letter to each township and city treasurer outlining their collection duties and powers.

"It's not fair to the great majority of county residents who pay their taxes promptly and regularly when a few are able to escape their obligations," said Sparks.

The digest of tax regulations compiled by Sparks quotes the law as stating, "All taxes shall be collected by the several township and city treasurers or collectors before the first day of March each year."

All such taxes become a claim against the property involved on

Dec. 1, said Sparks, and remain so until the levy is paid.

To collect taxes unpaid on Jan. 16, the law directs treasurers to personally call on each delinquent taxpayer "and demand payment of the taxes charged against him."

If an assessed person lives outside the treasurer's particular unit or in an adjoining county, he may be contacted by mail.

If a "person, firm or corporation shall neglect or refuse" to pay any tax, enough property may be seized to pay the assessment.

The seized property is sold at public auction after giving five days advance notice. If the sale brings more than the tax amount, the balance is returned.

When property for auction is not bid on, the treasurer may sue for the money.

When assessed property is removed to another governmental unit before the tax is paid, the collector must prepare a bill and forward it to the treasurer of the unit where the property has been relocated.

The treasurer receiving the statement then proceeds to collect on any property within his jurisdiction owned by the person taxed. He then sends the sum back to the original treasurer.

"If all treasurers would take the steps provided," said Sparks, "the amount of uncollected taxes would drop considerably."

Rise Reverses 5-Year Trend

U. of M., MSC Among Top 10 in Enrollment of Full-Time Students

CINCINNATI (UP)—College enrollment is up again this year and two Michigan schools are reflecting the national trend by placing among the top 10 schools in full-time enrollment.

The major change in the composition of the college freshman classes this year is the big increase in the number of students who want to be school teachers.

President Raymond Walters of the University of Cincinnati reported last night that his 35th annual survey of college and university enrollment showed an increase of 6.3 in the number of full-time students.

He said there was a 9.7 per cent increase in part-time students, making a 7.6 per cent gain in the college enrollment.

Walters said a survey of 846 universities and four-year colleges showed there are 1,383,750 full-time students.

The survey made for School and Society, an educational journal, showed that this fall's registration set an upward trend for the second year in a row, reversing a five-year downward trend as World War II veterans left college.

Walters said there are 224,902 veterans in colleges and universities under various phases of the GI Bill of Rights enacted during and since World War II.

Walters said that there had been a 19.4 per cent increase of freshmen this fall over last in teacher training. He said there were 27 per cent more freshmen in education and 14.3 per cent more women.

The freshman in the five broad study fields—education, engineering, commerce, liberal arts, and agriculture—exceeded by about 9.3 per cent the number of freshmen in those fields last year.

"This condition reflects pressing needs of the country," Walters said.

Walters said the increase in freshmen taking engineering was 9 per cent. The increase in commerce and business administration was 7.4 per cent, liberal arts 7 per cent, and agriculture 6.1 per cent.

The University of California, including the universities at Berkeley and at Los Angeles, topped the universities in full-time students with 35,373. New York University was first in all students with 39,461.

Rounding out the top 10 in full-time enrollments in order were New York State 22,849; Minnesota 20,339; Michigan 18,750; Ohio State 18,084; Wisconsin 14,952; New York University 13,955; Michigan State College 13,780; Penn State 13,110, and Indiana 12,497.

Not Lost, Just Strayed

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A. A. Jones was mighty disappointed when a fish broke his line and swam off with his favorite plug Saturday. Yesterday he hooked six-pound bass, reeled it in and found the missing plug in its mouth.

Keeping Up With Joneses Costs More Than $3,000

CHICAGO (UP)—To be sure of keeping up with the Joneses these days a family would have to spend $3,270 on household gadgets and appliances.

Most families don't spend that much. Some in the suburban ranch-house set spend more.

The figure, obtained from appliance trade sources, represents a reasonably moderate price for each item. Deluxe models would run higher.

The $3,270 would not include such blessings as color television, a hi-fi phonograph, do-it-yourself power tools or a driveway snow-blower.

But it does include a refrigerator, upright home freezer, range, broiler, deep fryer, dishwasher, garbage disposer, gas incinerator, black-and-white TV, record player, clock radio, electric clock, coffeemaker, electric knife sharpener, automatic washer, clothes dryer, ironer, steam iron, power lawn mower and lawn sweeper.

If you really want to live it up you can buy an electric percolator with a 24-karat gold plated base for $66. A matching electric knife sharpener costs $19.95.

You can get a knife sharpener without gold plate for $14.95. More than a million of these have been sold in the last seven years.

Sales executives were surprised, too, at the reception the gold-plated coffee pots have been getting. Last Christmas the firm had to ship them out by air freight to meet the demand.

Perhaps the biggest seller among smaller gadgets is the electric frypan sold for $24.95.

The National Appliance and Radio-TV Dealers Assn. said many new trends have developed in household gadgets this year and more are in the offing.

Electric mixers now can be installed in a kitchen counter so they fold under like a typewriter on a desk.

Gas incinerators take care of bones, string and frozen food wrappers that won't go through the garbage disposer. Ashes from the incinerator make fertilizer for flower beds.

One manufacturer now makes a television set with the picture at the bottom next to the floor. You don't have to look up from the newspaper. Just drop the newspaper and the television is staring you in the face.

What Religion Means to Our Family

Stalions Like Traveling About 'Blessed Country'

By LULA B. OGDEN
The Harold Stalions family of 143 N. Jessie St., like to take trips. In fact they no sooner return from one before they start planning and hoping for another.

Perhaps they got the idea when the father was in World War II when the mother with her two small children moved to Temple,

Texas, to be near the father while he was at Camp Hood.

They are grateful for the fact that although he fought in the infantry in the Battle of the Bulge and other dangerous places, he came home without injury.

Both parents were born in southern Illinois, met through mutual relatives and were married in Kentucky in 1938, coming to Pontiac 14 years ago.

Their travels have taken them east to New York, Washington, and west as far as Oklahoma. They have made two trips to Mexico, both old and new.

The Stalions were reared in the church, but first joined one in 1948 at First Nazarene Church, here.

The father is now Sunday School superintendent, and although he has served on the church board, he is especially interested in Sunday School work.

Sharon joined the church in 1951 and Charles in 1952.

"Our religion means the privilege of worshipping Christ as a family and enjoying together the many blessings and privileges He has provided for us in this great country of ours," they said.

Chemical Plant Strike Ends After One Shift

WYANDOTTE (INS) — Twelve hundred workers of the Wyandotte Chemical Co. walked off their jobs yesterday after a fellow employee was handed a disciplinary layoff.

However, the strike ended when pickets went home at midnight and day shift workers were reporting on schedule this morning. The plant is used for production of soda ash and calcium carbonate.

Injuries in Fall Fatal

DETROIT (AP) — Oscar A. Reinholdt, 58, of Oscoda, died Sunday in Harper Hospital after being injured last Tuesday in a 30-foot fall from a utility pole.

Bleak Christmas Faces 70 Million

Iron Curtain Europeans Being Discouraged From Observing Holiday

VIENNA (UP)—Christmas will not amount to much for 70 millions in Communist East Europe this year.

Communism supposedly has let up a little in its persecution of the church and there are supposed to be more luxury goods available in the state-run stores.

But all indications from the Communist press are that Russia's Communist satellites are going ahead with long-range plans to eliminate Christmas entirely.

In the schools of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria, the children are being taught their parents are wrong: The Red star of communism, not the Star of Bethlehem, is the important thing.

Family celebrations of Christmas are being discouraged.

There will be fir trees in the streets of Warsaw, Prague and Budapest, but they will be known as "New Year's trees," or "winter trees."

There will be parties for the kids in schools and in the halls of Communist organizations. But they will be held around Jan. 1. In them, the children will see films about the Soviet Union and puppet shows in which American soldiers and bankers are the "bogeysmen."

There will be special holiday radio programs for children but mostly devoted to the Communist concepts of "peace and friendship."

The exchange of gifts is being frowned on. Gifts, said a Polish newspaper, are "decadent capitalism."

Czech mothers have been advised not to send packages to their soldier sons. "They have already enough to eat and packages will only spoil them," said the newspaper Odbor.

Suffragette, 80, to Be Admitted to Indiana Bar

INDIANAPOLIS (UP) — Mrs. Eliza J. Penfield will be admitted to law practice in Indiana tomorrow at the age of 82.

Mrs. Penfield, a leader in the fight for woman's suffrage in the early 1900s, was admitted to the bar in New York in 1916 at the age of 40. She practiced in that state for 36 years.

The sprightly lady attorney took up law as a career because "I realized that I could do more for my sex in law than I could any other way. My clientele was ready and waiting."

Her "clientele" resulted from her fighting campaign in behalf of voting rights for women. She was chairman of the Women's Suffrage Party of New York and "spoke all over the country."

Mrs. Penfield, a graduate of De Pauw University who lived in New York city since 1897, returned from her suffrage fight to study law, pass the bar examination and begin her successful law career.

Private Funeral Set for Businesswoman

CHICAGO (INS) — Private funeral service was being arranged today for Mrs. Mollie Netcher Newbury, 87, once known as the "world's most brilliant businesswoman."

Mrs. Newbury, who helped build the former Boston store into one of Chicago's best-known business establishments, died yesterday after a month's illness.

The former Mollie Alpinier became a clerk in the store when she was only 16. She married Charles Netcher, a partner, in 1891.

The Netchers soon became sole owners and following his death in 1905, his widow built the business from six million dollars a year to more than 28 million. The store, located in the Loop, was sold with adjoining space for 13½-million dollars in 1946.

War II Bomb Deactivated

BERLIN (UP)—German experts removed the fuse today from a 1,000-pound unexploded World War II bomb found in a garden in the British sector borough of Spandau. The area was roped off while a team of three engineers deactivated the dud.

'MR. SAM' STEPS into the administration's picture as new House Speaker. Rayburn, center, replaces Joe Martin, left, as the man with whom President Eisenhower will have to deal heavily for the next two years.

Sam in 'Ike's Crowd'

WASHINGTON (NEA) — During the recent campaign, Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) charged:

"The crowd around Eisenhower can't take hold, because they are uncertain, unsure and unknowing." It apparently didn't dawn on Sam that a first result of the election would add him to the "crowd around Eisenhower."

At his press conference the day after the election, the President announced he planned to confer regularly with the speaker of the Democrat-controlled House, Rayburn, on at least every important legislative matter and on all sorts of other problems.

This is one good break John Q. Citizen gets from the confusing election. If there are two gent in town who can sit down together, forget old conflicts and harsh campaign oratory and work toward statesmanlike goals they're President Eisenhower and Speaker Rayburn.

It's this quality of bigness in Rayburn which has kept him as House speaker longer than any man in history. Sam's dad, William Rayburn, a "Hard Shell" Baptist, once told his son, "character is all I have to give you, be a man."

Sam's record in Washington as a representative since 1912 proves that he has his heritage.

Rayburn's expected ability to get along with Ike, however, doesn't mean anything like weak compliance with the White House. Far from it.

"I make no pledge of rubber stamp support," Rayburn wired Ike during the heat of the campaign, in reply to Ike's statement that chaos would result if Democrats won control of the House.

"But there will be no cold war conducted against you by the Democrats when we gain control of Congress."

The wire also said:

"We will continue to support an enlightened foreign policy against the Republican reactionaries and of course we will continue to vote you adequate funds to defend our great country."

During the coming sessions between the President and Rayburn, Ike is going to have to ignore some of the campaign statements and past actions of the hard-hitting Texan. For instance, Rayburn charged:

"The Eisenhower Administration has been as dynamic as the dodo and as forward-looking as yesterday. It has done a big job—a big job on the farmer, the consumer, the laborer and the family with a small income."

During the 83rd Congress Rayburn personally blocked Ike's promised statehood for Hawaii. He fought the President's farm program and opposed that part of the Republican tax law which denied cuts to small wage earners while granting relief to corporations and their stockholders.

Aside from pure politics, Rayburn is reported to have expressed serious personal irritation with Ike only once. He privately accused Ike of sanctioning statements which called the Democrats the "party of treason."

"I can stand charges of crime and corruption," he said, "but charges implying treason are unforgivable. And my back is getting tired."

It's already predicted that his unique position as House Speaker and White House conferee will make Rayburn for the next two years at least one of the most sought-after men in town and second in importance only to the President.

This pleases everyone because "plain Sam of Texas" or "Mr. Sam" is rated a delightful character, socially. He's no cocktail party bound but in recent years has been getting around more than he used to.

In spite of his age, 72, and having been married for a year in his youth, he still makes every "most eligible bachelor" list.

"Are you single because no woman will have you?" a friend asked him recently.

Safety's Council's Freak Mishaps Lists Real Stoppers

Do you often wish something different would happen to you?

You do? Well maybe you'll change your mind when you read the strange things that happened to these people. The list of odd happenings were compiled by the National Safety Council in its annual quest for freak mishaps. Here are a few:

The best scrubbed throat in America probably belonged to Mrs. Jessie Lee Dugar, Houston, Texas, the day two men started a fight in front of her home while she was brushing her teeth. Mrs. Dugar got so excited she swallowed her toothbrush. Tuft luck.

When Lew Babcock, Kansas City, said "I feel like I've been hit by a ton of bricks," he meant it. He was walking past a condemned building when a brick wall collapsed on him. Police found him waist-deep in rubble, dazed but otherwise uninjured.

In Mariaville, N. Y., lovely Joyce Enghardt was crowned Empire State Honey Queen. Minutes later she was stung by a bee right in the middle of her reign.

The next time John De La Roca, Los Angeles, gets mad he won't take it out on his car. Good and sore about something, John hauled off and kicked the bumper. It kicked right back and sent John to the hospital with a banged-up head. His kick snapped the bolt which held the bumper under tension.

And it doesn't pay to kick a cow, either, as Leslie Ertl, a Pinckneyville, Ill., farmer found out. A cow kicked him and he kicked right back. He snapped a bone in his leg. The cow?—she felt fine.

When an auto in Los Angeles tore through three intersections, crashed into another car at 30 miles an hour and then rammed a house, police blamed it on the fact that driver Jack Todora was too young to be behind the wheel.

They also said he had taken the car without the owner's permission. But they didn't take away his license—he didn't have one. He didn't even know he was supposed to have one. After all, Jack's only four.

In Cincinnati, four-year-old Judy Combs devised a system for getting down stairs that is not only faster than an escalator, but more exciting. She rolled off a fourth-floor fire escape, fell 20 feet, landed on a network of clothes lines and bounced back onto the fire escape on the second floor of her apartment building. She didn't even cry.

Morgan Wallace, a circus daredevil, made 113 parachute jumps without a scratch. He decided to make some minor repairs to his Pueblo, Colo., home, fell 18 inches off a ladder, and broke his foot.

Neatest automotive acrobatics of the year were performed by Edward Sweeney in Philadelphia. His car went out of control on a bridge over the Schuylkill River, ripped through an iron guard rail, turned a complete somersault in the air and landed right side up wheels on a rail siding 60 feet below, blowing all four tires.

Sweeney was dazed, cut up a bit, but most of all disappointed. "My tires," he moaned, "four blowouts in 60 feet! They don't make 'em like they used to."

In Korea, Cpl. Gib Landell tossed off a snappy salute at a passing officer, threw his back out of joint and was evacuated to a hospital. If there was a citation for wounded feelings he'd be wearing it.

Police officers who have to walk a beat all day may have a little trouble working up proper sympathy for Sgt. Frank Krueger of the Chicago Police. His swivel chair broke and dumped him on the floor so hard he had to be hospitalized for cuts and bruises.

In St. James, Mo., two Safe drivers were cited for reckless driving after a collision. Both were residents of nearby Safe, Mo.

And in Fort Worth, Texas, W. L. Danile Jr., was listening intently to a talk on safety in an aircraft factory. Displayed proudly on the wall above him was a hard-won safety plaque. Suddenly everything went black for Mr. Danile. The safety plaque had bopped him on the head!

Greenhouse Has Elegant Yule Display

By MARILYN SHEARER
There seemed to be no end to the vivid red poinsettia plants which were admired Sunday afternoon by area residents who visited the Lake Orion greenhouses of one of Pontiac's leading florists. A handsomely attired Santa was on hand to greet the youngsters, as beautiful Christmas displays held the attention of their parents and friends.

Members of the fairer sex were presented with gay cornages composed of either evergreens, holly or silver foliage. They were centered with tiny snowmen or reindeer.

Wintergreen laden with red berries was planted in terrariums and apothecary jars of various shapes and sizes, just inside the entrance. Centerpieces for dining tables and arrangements for mantels and doors were composed of evergreen boughs and colorful ribbon.

Artificial snow and gilt partially covered the greens, Christmas ornaments and pine cones of several arrangements, while many displays featured golden musical instruments surrounded by greens; angels and, of course, Santa was not forgotten.

Attractive for any time of the year were wicker cornucopias filled with artificial grapes of varied hues.

Decorative arrangements to be suspended from the ceiling were most attractive. Wrought iron containers, several with candle holders attached, looked striking with red candles rising from gay evergreen cuttings. These practical containers can be used for every imaginable occasion.

White poinsettias; azaleas and cyclamen plants in an array of colors; exotic orchids; snapdragons, chrysanthemums and carnations were also along the aisles of the greenhouse which were traveled by the enthusiastic crowd.

Of interest to many were small green shoots planted in flower pots. They were labeled according to the time when they will be in full bloom, such as Easter and Valentine's Day. This display gave the visitors an idea of just how long it takes a plant to reach maturity.

Grave blankets, Christmas trees and wreaths were displayed outside the greenhouse where the visitors arrived from noon until 5 p. m.

MRS. HARVEY ROBERT KERR

Frances E. Durkee Weds Harley Kerr in Church Rite

Frances Ellen Durkee and Harvey Robert Kerr spoke their marriage vows Saturday evening in First Methodist Church. The Rev. Paul R. Havens performed the 7 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the Frank E. Durkees of Winthrop road, and the bridegroom is the son of the William Kerrs of Lakeview avenue.

A gown of traditional white satin was chosen by the bride. The fitted bodice was fashioned with an illusion portrait neckline of imported lace. The sleeves ended in points over the wrists.

A full skirt fell into a chapel length train. A fingertip veil held a lace Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls, and the bride carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy centered with an orchid. She wore the bridegroom's gift of pearls.

Mrs. Wallace Mayer, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz length dress of wine-berry red silk crystalline. Ann Todd of Flint was another attendant wearing a gown like the honor matron's.

They both carried bouquets of shattered white carnations fashioned in the shape of a Christmas tree with Christmas greens and silver ribbons. Their headpieces were composed of ivy and shattered carnations.

Jessica Mayer, the bride's niece and Martha Rossman of Goodrich were flower girls wearing pink nylon dresses with satin trimmed bouffant skirts. They carried white baskets filled with pink and white roses and wore tiny flowers in their hair. Mrs. LaVon Ryden presented the bridal music.

Harold Lawrence was best man and seating the guests were George Kerr, Creighton Kerr, Raymond Kerr and Arthur Parker. Roger Rossman of Goodrich was ring bearer.

Dusty rose taffeta trimmed with sequins was chosen by Mrs. Durkee for her daughter's wedding. Brown accessories and a corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids accented her costume.

The bridegroom's mother wore a street length dress of royal blue crepe with pink accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

After a reception in the church parlors the new Mrs. Kerr changed to a gray and white plaid suit with red accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a honeymoon trip to Florida the Kerrs will reside on Coleman drive.

Wonder If She Won?

NEW CANAAN, Conn. (U-P)—Mrs. Helen Baker, campaigning for a seat in the Connecticut state senate, got a $10 check from a woman admirer with instructions to buy a hat that would "dazzle the voters." Mrs. Baker, instead, bought a conservative headpiece. She explained: "Rather than dazzle the voters, I'd prefer to win votes on what's in the head, not on it."

Hal Boyle Says:

Memorial Press Center Dedicated to 82 Who Died

NEW YORK (U-P)—I wish Ernie Pyle were alive to write this story. It is about the dedication today of the Memorial Press Center here in New York for 82 newsmen and women who died serving, as our faith goes, "a free press in a free world."

Ernie Pyle, of course, can't be there. His effin smile is about midway between the picture of Webb Miller, the brilliant United Press correspondent killed in a blackout accident in darkened London in 1940, and Bob Capa, regarded by many as the greatest combat photographer of his time. Bob bumped into a land mine this year in Indochina, while trying to grab another of the shots he was famous for.

Like Ernie before him, his good friend, he wore his luck too far. Death took in his passing a wonderful Hungarian smile, a fine artist, and a lousy poker player. Tonight in an unusual television show all 82 will be honored between 8 and 9:30 EST over the NBC network. It is sponsored by RCA and the Ford Motor Co., but although it is a tribute to reporters who knock at portals beyond our present knowing, many of us in the newspaper business think the public will find it worth watching.

We hope it will have both heart knocks and fun in it, but naturally we must wait and see about that. Among the performers who are contributing their art and time are Bob Hope, Sid Caesar, Martha Raye and John Daly.

As of this writing a great soldier under whom a number of the now-dead newsmen served will take part in the program. He is Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, President of the United States.

The Memorial Press Center—at 35 E. 39th St.—is the culmination of a dream of a group of 20 veteran foreign correspondents who formed the Overseas Press Club in 1939 under founder president Wythe Williams. The club, now headed by Bob Considine, has more than 1000 members.

The hope is that the new OPC home will be a forum of ideas expressed through diplomats, returning foreign correspondents, and foreign statesmen. Just a gathering place for news-minded folk interested in world affairs—and dedicated to the expression of freedom.

I wish you could see it. It is the five-floor mansion of a 19th Century banker, modernized to make it comfortable to a degree its former owner never thought possible.

To me the most impressive thing about it is the library room, which lists without comment or explanation the 82 American men and women who lost their lives while on news jobs overseas.

This simple rollcall of honor affects many visitors, club members and next-of-kin of those listed more than a bugle call would. While it is a parade of death, it is also a parade of pride, and in its way indexes the sacrifices made by newspapers across America to keep their readers informed.

The fund drive that made this memorial possible was headed by Edward R. Murrow, Daly, Considine and Patricia Hartwell. But it also reflects the philanthropy of copy boys, reporters, copy readers, desk editors and publishers from all parts of America.

There is no daily newspaper in this land that was not, at one time or another, represented by these 82 newsmen and women. Newspaper people generally are an inverted folk with our own peculiar pride of craft, and really expect no fame except the sometimes grudging praise we give each other, recognizing a job done well by the standards we believe in—and nobody else knows at all. Yet it is well to have this memorial. It shows that newspapermen, though they often must report bloodshed, do themselves bleed, too.

VapoRub also brings relief in the cold-irritated breathing passages—because it acts two ways at once:

You can't see these vapors, but you can feel them as they travel deep into the nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. In no time at all, congestion starts breaking up. The coughing spells lessen and you breathe easier. Soon you enjoy wonderful, warming relief that lasts for hours.

So when an infectious cold strikes in your family, insist on the medication that does more than just work on the chest. At the first cough or sniffle—rub on relief... breathe in relief with Vicks VapoRub!

WORKS GREAT IN STEAM, TOO

For most effective relief from croupy coughs, that choked-up feeling... use Vicks VapoRub in vaporizer as directed in folder. You'll get such fast, direct relief!

1. "Two years ago my husband and I got into a terrible automobile accident in Pennsylvania. They put me in the hospital with two broken legs, a fractured hip, and deep cuts all over my face. It just goes to show you never know when you might wind up in a hospital!"

2. "There I was—3 hours on the operating table, then laid up in a hospital 291 miles from home! But being so far away didn't change my Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract coverage a bit. It paid for everything I needed for 120 days in the Pennsylvania hospital."

3. "A year later, back in Detroit, I was hospitalized another 103 days as a result of the same accident. Just like in Pennsylvania, Blue Cross-Blue Shield were behind me all the way. We would have had a terrific bill to pay if it hadn't been for our Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection."

$3,734 in hospital and doctor bills covered by Blue Cross-Blue Shield

says Mrs. Ruth Bennett, Detroit housewife

"We were sailing along a Pennsylvania highway... and then CRASH! There I was in the hospital with two broken legs and a fractured hip! We'd be in debt if it weren't for our Blue Cross-Blue Shield!"

Unexpected hospital bills! They hit one in three Michigan families every year! Will it be your turn this year?

If so, wouldn't you be a lot better off if you had the same protection that saved over $3,700 for Mrs. Bennett and her husband?

How Blue Cross protects you on hospital bills...

Limited cash payments wouldn't have helped Mrs. Bennett very much on her hospital bill. She needed more than room and board and general nursing care... she needed a great number of expensive hospital services like operating room, drugs and dressings. Her Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract made them hers automatically, without regard to cost.

Blue Cross would have covered any enrolled member of her family the same way... at participating hospitals having 99% of the general hospital beds in Michigan alone... and in Blue Cross-participating hospitals out-of-state, as in Mrs. Bennett's case.

How Blue Shield protects you on doctor bills...

Like most people, when Mrs. Bennett had her hospital bill, she also had a doctor bill. The two usually go together. That's why you need to back up your Blue Cross with Blue Shield. Blue Shield offers you protection against the cost of doctor bills for surgical and in-hospital medical care... by paying generous specific amounts directly to your doctor for thousands of procedures.

3,000,000 Michigan people can't be wrong...

More than 3,000,000 Michigan people have Blue Cross-Blue Shield. So you know these plans must be pretty special. Ask your employer or union representative about low-cost group enrollment. A company with as few as 5 employees may qualify as a group.

Mrs. Rose Yearion, Detroit: "We've had to use Blue Cross-Blue Shield five times. My last hospital bill was over $550, and our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered all but $33. I don't know what we'd have done without Blue Cross-Blue Shield."

Mr. Joseph Kwiatkowski, Detroit: "I had a $450 hospital bill last October. It cost me $9.50, and our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered the rest. Blue Shield paid $135 to my doctor, too. Things would be rough if we didn't have Blue Cross-Blue Shield."

Mr. Thomas DiGaetano, Detroit: "When my wife spent 83 days in the hospital, it cost $2,200, just for the hospital part. Our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered it all, and Blue Shield paid our doctor $277. Our protection sure means everything to us!"

May Alter Rules for Investigators*Senate Study Expected on Procedure Changes for Committees

WASHINGTON (U-P) — Senate Republican Leader Knowland said today proposed changes in rules for Senate investigating committees "undoubtedly will be taken up" early in the next session of Congress.

He said in an interview there appears to be a general feeling among senators that "some rule changes are necessary and desirable."

Various proposals to establish "a code of fair procedures" for investigating committees were offered during the past session of Congress, but no action was taken on them.

In part they grew out of the McCarthy-Army row and other controversies revolving around Sen. McCarthy's handling of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

Democrats will control the new Congress, and Knowland said it will take "a high degree of cooperation" between the parties to effect any rule changes.

While not spelling out details, Knowland said a code of fair procedures should deal with the rights of witnesses, methods of issuing subpoenas, hearing practices, and television and broadcasting problems.

Cobo OKs Blueprint for Rail Separation

DETROIT (U-P) — Mayor Albert E. Cobo has given approval to preliminary plans for a $90,000,000 city railroad grade-separation program.

The city hopes to get substantial help on the plan from the federal government.

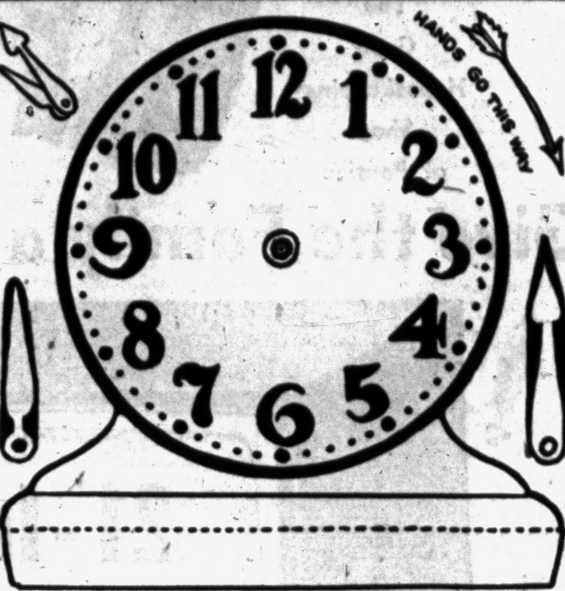

Recommendations are contained in President Eisenhower's multi-billion-dollar highway program to include separations. And Rep. Oakman (R-Mich.) has introduced legislation asking that the separations be included in a federal highway bill.

If the recommendations of the President go through Congress the separations program would be financed on the same basis as that proposed for highways. The federal government would pay 60 per cent of the program and Detroit 40 per cent.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORSTIME FOR YOU

In many homes, there's a clock in nearly every room. That's because clocks are very important. They tell us when it's time to go to school, or eat lunch, or go to bed.

On the face of the clock are twelve numbers to mark the hours. Each day (which really means each day and night) has 24 hours, so that during this 24-hour period the hour hand goes clear around the clock twice.

The hour hand, which indicates the hour, is the smaller one of the two hands on the clock. The larger one, which indicates the exact minute before or after the hour, is called the minute hand. It goes around the clock once each hour.

This toy clock that you can make yourself will help you learn to tell time.

1. Color the outside frame and hands any bright color you wish.
2. Paste down the entire picture on cardboard, then cut out the clock face and both hands.
3. Push a thumbtack or tack through dot on one end of each hand, and then through dot in center of clock face. Finally push it into a piece of wood.

Woman Files Suit

Over Bald Head

SALISBURY, Md. (U-P) — Since April 1953, says Mrs. Maude B. Floyd, she has been almost bald. And she doesn't like it.

Mrs. Floyd has sued the Read Drug and Chemical Co. of Baltimore for $10,000. She charged that a saleswoman in the firm's Easton store, through "carelessness and negligence," sold her a home permanent preparation which made her hair fall out.

She said the clerk assured her daughter that the preparation was a "home permanent for bleached hair." But as soon as she used it, Mrs. Floyd said in her declaration filed with the Wicomico County Circuit Court Saturday, her hair fell out.

Examination of the bottle disclosed instructions not to use "if your hair is bleached, dyed or tinted," the suit said.

Teenager Charged in Fire Deaths of 4

HAVERHILL, Mass. (U-P) — A sudden, teenage trade school student faced District Court today charged with arson and manslaughter in the death of his parents and two other persons in a flaming downtown apartment house.

Police Inspector Charles F. Turner said Richard E. La Plante, 16, admitted setting the early morning fire yesterday because "I didn't like the place and I told my folks so many times."

Burned to death as fire swept the four-story brick and wooden house were Alfred La Plante, 45; his wife Eva, 43; Fred Bacigalupo, 63; and Mahlon Cutler, 44. Some 20 others, mostly old age pensioners, fled to safety.

Japan's Inland Sea is 250 miles long and embraces more islands than any other sea, says the Na-

Browns Tune Up for Lions With 42-7 Victory

By The Associated Press

The Cleveland Browns, the most amazing team in pro football history, have captured their fifth straight division championship in the National Football League and are now after their first "World Series" victory over the Detroit Lions.

Coach Buddy Parker's well-balanced Lions have defeated the Paul Brown-coached champions two years running in the post-season money game. In 1952 it was by 17-7 and last year the Lions won with a thrilling finish, 17-16.

The Parker vs. Brown rivalry is added sauce for the match for Brown-coached clubs have lost to Brown-coached teams on only one occasion — last year's East vs. West Pro All-Star Game (20-9) which annually follows the play-off.

The two clubs now clash on consecutive Sundays, due to an October postponement. The all-out match is Dec. 26. In what will amount to a warm-up or "scouting" contest the two titans come to grips Sunday in the make-up game.

The Browns, in their eighth straight victory, drubbed Pittsburgh 42-7 Sunday as the NFL's regular season came to an end. It also marked the ninth straight time the Browns have won a pro football crown. They started with four titles in the old All America Conference.

It was the climax of a brilliant comeback for the Browns, who were written off in October after they dropped two of their first three games.

Coach Brown has said "We did it on defense." Sunday, Cleveland jumped on two Pitt fumbles, stole a Steeler pass and within six minutes in the second period had scored 21 points. They led 28-0 at the half.

The redoubtable Cleveland quarterback, Otto Graham, clicked on his first seven passes, then gave way to George Ratterman who also had a good day, driving the team to two fourth-period scores. And all this on top of the fact the six touchdowns were scored on the ground. Chet Hanulak scored three of the six.

The Lions, with their title already assured, played hot-and-cold against the Chicago Bears and were taken 28-24.

In the second-place scrap in the Eastern Conference the Philadelphia Eagles grabbed the runner-up spot overwhelming the New York Giants 29-14 with a 20-point first half while New York was held to a standstill. The Giants didn't get a point, a first down or a pass completion in the half.

Philly end Pete Pihos caught eight passes for a season's total of 60, tying him with San Francisco's Billy Wilson for the league lead.

In other games, the Washington Redskins whipped the Chicago Cards 35-20 in their biggest offensive explosion in four years. The defeat buried the Cards in last place in the East. Los Angeles outscored Green Bay 35-27, and in a Saturday game, San Francisco clipped Baltimore 10-7.

Unbeaten Emporia Leads Small Schools in Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — Unbeaten College of Emporia (Kan.) took small-college offense honors while Tennessee State and Geneva College (Pa.) shared the more important defense titles during the 1954 football season, final NCAA Service Bureau Statistics showed Monday.

Emporia, going through its second straight undefeated campaign, piled up 469.7 yards a game, 404.7 of them on the ground, and averaged 43.2 points a game. In all three respects, it led the nation, bettering the marks compiled by the major-college champions, too.

Tennessee State, also was unbeaten, winning 10 straight. It won the ground-defense title, allowing only 29.3 yards a game and less than a yard a play, 0.91. But in total defense it placed second to Geneva, which allowed an overall total of 106.3 yards a game.

Chiefs Warned Reds' Centers May Be Tough

Van Ryzin Names Two Big Port Huron Men as 'Troublemakers'

With Pontiac High School's basketball Chiefs riding a two-game winning streak, Coach Art Van Ryzin today warned his club it may run into trouble with a couple Port Huron aces Friday night.

The Pontiac mentor pointed out that the Big Reds have a pair of capable centers in Jerry McClure and Ed Rankin, both 6-3 tall and reputedly rather tough about the boards.

"And that isn't all," Van Ryzin added this morning. "They also have a darned good boy in Lyle McAuley. This lad, a forward, is their best man." He is a six-footer. Another boy Chiefs will have to watch, Van Ryzin says, is guard Roger Hanton.

Port Huron has six or seven lettermen back this year, Pontiac's coach has been informed. "That makes the club a veteran outfit, and although they're probably not as good as last year, they will still be difficult to subdue in their own gymnasium," he pointed out.

"However, if Pontiac puts up the kind of a battle it offered against Flint Northern last weekend, I think we can win."

The PHS coach does not plan to make any changes in his starters from those who went against Northern in the fine 55-38 victory last Friday.

Americans Eye Tennis Sweep

Talbert Expects U. S. Netters to Top Swedes in Cup Play

BRISBANE (AP) — Happy Bill Talbert's gold buttons were almost popping off his captain's jacket Sunday as he predicted a five-match sweep over Sweden for his U.S. team in the Interzone Davis Cup finals this weekend.

"I will be sadly disappointed and greatly surprised if we do not win 5-0," the American team leader said.

Tony Trabert's improvement the last two days has been tremendous. "Ham Richardson is playing as well as when he beat Lew Hoad at Forest Hills this summer."

"Vic Seixas is at the very peak of his game."

"It would be an injustice to any one of them to have to sit on the bench, yet we can play only two singles."

Seixas, holder of the U.S. championship, and Trabert, winner of the American title the year before, are certain to be Talbert's nominees for both singles and doubles. But Talbert is withholding the official announcement until the draw Wednesday.

Mail New MESC Rates to Employers

DETROIT (UP) — Computations of a new, lower schedule of tax rates were being mailed today to Michigan employers covered by the Michigan Employment Security Commission Act.

Max M. Horton, director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, said the new tax rates would become effective Jan. 1.

Horton said the lower rates would result from a revision of the financing system of the MESC by the state Legislature last spring. The revision provides that lower rates will go into effect whenever the commission's reserve fund is in excess of 7.5 per cent of the state's taxable payroll. The ratio now stands at about 7.99 per cent, Horton said.

The lower rates range from .1 per cent to 3.7 per cent. The present, higher schedule of rates, which will apply whenever the fund drops below the 7½ percentage figure, range from .5 per cent to four per cent.

Man Officially in Vice Killing

Attorney General of Alabama Linked With
Patterson Death

GALVESTON, Tex. (INS)—Alabama Attorney General Silas C. Garrett may be arrested for first degree murder in Galveston today in connection with the slaying of the man who was elected to succeed him.

Three Alabama law officers, in Galveston to arrest Garrett yesterday, were held up by Garrett yesterday in connection with the slaying of the man who was elected to succeed him.

Galveston County attorney Jack Callahan said a copy of the indictment was being flown from Alabama and may be served on Garrett sometime today.

Garrett, confined to the Harris Clinic in Galveston with nervous disorders, is already under indictment for vote fraud.

At the time of Patterson's murder, Garrett himself pledged "the greatest manhunt in history" for the Patterson killers.

Although Garrett's lawyer has stated that Garrett will return to Alabama of his own free will, it is not probable that the Alabama attorney general will make the trip immediately. His physicians have reported that his physical and mental condition are such that it will be at least five to eight weeks before he will be released from the hospital.

The murder of Patterson brought National Guard rule to Phoenix City and touched off an episode of crime, gangsterism, vice and prostitution in the "sin town" of the south.

Indicted with Garrett by a special Russell County grand jury were Arch Ferrell, the county solicitor, and Albert Fuller, chief deputy sheriff.

First railway dining car made its appearance in the U.S. in 1868.

Southfield Seeking to Remove Buildings

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—Southfield Township is attempting to obtain an Oakland County Circuit Court order forcing removal of two buildings which the township claims violate a zoning ordinance.

One structure, a frame garage, is located at 27750 W. 8 Mile Rd., with James D. Davis and Gus Lockman named as owners. The other, the township says, is owned by William J. Hess at 24015 Greenfield Rd.

The bill of complaint states that Davis acquired a 90-day permit to use the garage as a temporary office on March 3, 1954. Hess was granted a one-year temporary permit to use his building as a laboratory on May 7, 1953, it adds.

Continued use of the buildings as office and laboratory past expiration date of the permits violates the ordinance, the township alleges. It asks the court to order the owners to remove the buildings or allow the township to do so at the owner's expense. No hearing date has been set.

Former High Officials to Be Called in Probe

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Globe-Democrat reports the government expects to call former Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder and former Internal Revenue Commissioner George J. Schoeneman as grand jury witnesses in a renewed investigation of the Internal Revenue Service.

The newspaper, in today's edition, said present plans call for the two former officials to be subpoenaed to testify during the current inquiry but said the time and place "are matters which either are being kept secret or have not yet been decided."

A federal grand jury at Omaha, Neb., now in recess until Jan. 10, is investigating operations of the revenue service. It recently indicted C. Elmer Brown, a Philadelphia official of the agency, on charges he lied in testifying he never did anything to obstruct a 1950 inquiry into the St. Louis internal revenue office.
