State Farm Ups Insurance Rate Historic Space Rendezvous Described by Gemini Teams

Automobile Club Also Wants Premium Hike

DETROIT (AP) — A 16.2 percent increase in its auto insurance rates, effective Saturday, was announced yesterday by State Farm Mutual Insurance Co.

State Farm, which has about 450,000 policyholders in Michigan, said it was reluctant to increase its rates, but that it was forced to do so because of the rising auto accident trend and its loss of more than $500,000 in Michigan the first half of this year.

Simultaneously, the Automobile Club of Michigan said it has applied to the State Insurance Commission for approval of a rate increase. The Auto Club sells insurance through its Detroit Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange.

The Auto Club did not state the amount of increase it has requested. Both State Farm and the Auto Club increased their auto insurance rates earlier this year.

State Farm's new increase will average an estimated $10 to $16 for Detroit drivers and less for suburban and outstate motorists.

DEPLETED TREND

Both State Farm and the Auto Club deplored the rising trend of traffic accidents.

The Auto Club, the state's largest car insurer, has $13,000 policy holders.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) — Gemini 6 cosmic hero Walter Schirra said today his spaceship closed to "about one foot" nose to nose with Gemini 7 during their historic rendezvous in space on Dec. 15.

Schirra and his copilot, Thomas Stafford, discussed details of their mission along with Gemini 7 space endurance change.

Frank Borman and James Lovell at a news conference marked by humorous comments about the problems of life in space.

After Borman and Lovell reported on their "wonderful ride" during two weeks aloft, Schirra and Stafford related how they used "exquisite" timing to bring themselves to a meeting with Gemini 7, 185 miles in space in sunlight so bright it pained the eyes.

Schirra said they maneuvered to the nose-to-nose position and reported:

"We did close to about one foot in this position."

The two spacecraft were traveling at approximately 17,500 miles an hour at the time —

5½ hours after Gemini 6 lifted off from Cape Kennedy at 8:37 a.m. EST, Dec. 15.

Stafford said they narrowed to 120 feet — the point of rendezvous — and "progressed in."

Gemini 7, with Lovell and Borman aboard, kept on steady course into bright sunlight.

The reflected sunlight (on Gemini 7) was "boom," Schirra said.

HURT EYES

He said it hurt his eyes, it was so brilliant in the vacuum of space.

Despite the speed, "we had no hesitancy about moving in and looking them (Gemini 7) over," he added.

Borman and Lovell had a cliff-hanging moment with the electrical power fuel cells on their Gemini 7 capsule near the end of the flight. But they never were "disoriented or confused" during the marathon.

They were so relaxed they were able to read novels aloft to pass away the time. One of the books Borman took along was, "Roughin' It," by Mark Twain.

ASSURANCE

"With proper crew comfort provisions," Borman said, "I think people can go a month, two months," in space.

Speaking publicly for the first time since their splashdown Dec. 18, command pilot Borman disclosed some nervous moments at the end of the 12th day aloft.

Cong Step Up Widespread Viet Attacks

Find Bodies of 11 Murdered by Reds; Air Lull Continues

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong struck today in and around Saigon, within the shadow of the big U.S. Marine base at Da Nang and near the Cambodian frontier.

The stepped-up demonstration of their prowess came on the seventh day of the moratorium in the U.S. air war against the Communist north.

New evidence of Communist terror tactics was seen in the disclosure by a U.S. military spokesman that three captured U.S. Marines and eight South Vietnamese soldiers had been murdered after their capture in Quang Ngai Province on Dec. 16.

The bodies were found in shallow graves and appeared to have been shot repeatedly in the head at close range.

The spokesman attributed the slayings to the 18th North Vietnamese Regiment in the area.

and said one of the victims whose nationality was not disclosed — had been struck in the head with a sharp instrument.

In Saigon, a Vietnamese journalist brought him threats from the Viet Cong was shot to death this afternoon as he rode home by bicycle.

FIRST NEWSMAN

Police said the newsman, Tu Chong, 35, of the daily newspaper Chinh Luu, was the first Saigon newspaperman the Viet Cong had assassinated. The killer escaped.

Before dawn, 500 Viet Cong drove a South Vietnamese militia company from a government stronghold only 4 miles from the outer defenses of the big Marine base at Da Nang, 350 miles northeast of Saigon. It was the third time in 10 weeks that the Communists had overrun Hill 60.

Three companies of Vietnamese rangers tried to move in on the hill this afternoon but were pinned down by automatic weapons and mortars. Heavy rains prevented air strikes, but artillery pounded the Viet Cong.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's peace emissaries talked of Viet Nam with leaders on two continents today and the White House declared "everything this administration is doing is designed to bring about conditions in which peace is possible."

White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers said new diplomatic missions are likely because the President wants "more leaders of the world to know his views on Asia."

Moyers announced in Austin, Tex., the latest mission — this one to Canada. It came after presidential envoys W. Averell Harriman and Arthur J. Goldberg talked with Communist leaders at the Vatican.

The diplomatic missions came in the face of a chilling blast of words from the leader of Communist North Viet Nam. Until today, the Texas White House had been silent on Johnson's year-end peace offensive. Moyers broke that silence.

"We have a genuine desire to cooperate with anyone to whom peace is the desired goal that it is with us," he said.

Moyers said McGeorge Bundy, Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs, flew secretly last night to meet with Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson.

Canada, with Poland and India, is a member of the three-nation control commission on Viet Nam.

Johnson himself planned to confer with Pearson by telephone, the White House said.

Harriman talked in Warsaw, Poland, with Communist party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka, then headed for Belgrade, Yugoslavia. There was speculation he might also go to Moscow.

Goldberg, the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, conferred in Rome with Pope Paul VI, and said he would report directly to President Johnson on that conference. He called it an effort to re-emphasize the U.S. desire for peace in Viet Nam.

The peace quest by the two Americans was backed by the halt since Christmas in the bombing of North Viet Nam targets and by behind-the-scenes Washington efforts to probe for any peace feelers from Hanoi.

Still, their efforts came in face of a chilling blast from the No. 1 target, Hanoi, capital of Communist North Viet Nam.

North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh yesterday denounced "U.S. imperialist aggressors" and, in a reply to a message from the Pope, declared "the U.S. leaders want war and not peace."

"The talks about unconditional negotiations made by the U.S. president," Ho charged, "are merely a maneuver to cover up his plan for war intensification and extension in Viet Nam." U.S. diplomats rated Ho's statement as harsh, uncompromising and unchanged from his stand in the past.

TALK OF PEACE — Map shows locations of reported peace talks for Viet Nam. The biggest U.S. peace offensive of the war has the personal stamp of President Johnson clearly upon it today although officials maintained a veil of secrecy over the many-faceted efforts.

State Legislature Ends Record-Setting Session Area Firms Set Holiday Hours

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Legislature adjourned its record-setting 1965 session today with a few minor items of business and some parting remarks on tax reform — the session's major untouched issue.

The 125-day session of the First Democratic-controlled Legislature in 30 years ended at noon, according to constitutional requirements, just 13 days before the 1966 session is to convene.

During the session, which included six weeks of autumn work, the House introduced 1,831 bills and passed 535, the Senate introduced 699 and passed 537 and 412 bills became law — all records.

But, despite arguments of Gov. George Romney and some legislators that immediate tax reform was needed, the legislature set the subject aside until next year.

Rep. Stanley Davis, D-Grand Rapids, asked in the House today what the status was of proposals for a statewide income tax.

SUSTAINED BY EVENTS

Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, a leading advocate of tax reform, replied that "Those opposed to tax action this year have been sustained by events."

He referred to a $136 million surplus in the state general fund as of last June 30. Gov. Romney has predicted the surplus still will total at least $100 million next June 30.

But, Montgomery added, "We may have to face up to fiscal reform in 1966 to finance such appropriations as we in our wisdom agree to."

Most Pontiac area offices and business places will be closed New Year's Day and many will close or operate on abbreviated schedules tomorrow.

Community National Bank and First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland are open until 5 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Pontiac State Bank will have the same closing hours as the other two financial institutions but will open at 10 a.m. tomorrow. All banks will be closed Saturday.

City Hall offices were scheduled to close at noon today with employees returning to work Monday morning.

However, normal trash and garbage pickup will be made tomorrow by Department of Public Works crews in Pontiac.

Pontiac Motor Division, Fisher Body Plant and GMC Truck and Coach Division all will be closed tomorrow as will Oakland County and Waterford Township offices.

The Pontiac Post Office at 735 W. Huron will operate its normal 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. schedule tomorrow.

Most Pontiac Mall, Tel-Huron and downtown stores will close at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow Friday of the regular 9 p.m. Friday closing time.

The majority of Bloomfield Miracle Mile Shopping Center businesses will stay open until 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The Secretary of State's branch office at 96 E. Huron, will close at 3 p.m. tomorrow and reopen 9 a.m. Monday.

Whaley has had extensive investigative experience in homicides and directed probes into many such cases.

Homicide investigation experience was the main requirement set by county officials when the new job was authorized this week.

Whaley's duties will include working with area police departments and as liaison with the prosecutor's office in cases of unusual deaths.

After retiring from the state police, Whaley worked until last August as chief investigator for the Michigan Employment Security Commission's Detroit office and, since then, has been in sales work.

A graduate of Vincennes University in Indiana, Whaley, his wife and their two children live in Okemos, near Lansing. He said he plans to move to Oakland County in the near future.

Men, women and children will participate in services at Pontiac area churches and chapels tomorrow night, marking the arrival of a new year.

Congregations will ring out the Old and ring in the New Year with the showing of films, singing of carols, musical programs and prayer.

At midnight, families will be in services of Holy Communion.

FIRST BAPTIST

Guest artists at the annual New Year's Eve Musicales in First Baptist Church will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garlock of Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C. The program will begin at 8:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Garlock directs the university brass ensembles which have won national recognition. A composer and arranger of sacred music, he plays the trombone and is a tenor soloist.

A soprano soloist, Mrs. Garlock teaches piano at the university with particular emphasis in sacred music.

Also appearing on the program will be Rev. A. Clair Hess, director of music for the Radio Bible Class of Grand Rapids.

Refreshments will be served during the evening.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

Families will gather at Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church at 10 p.m. for the annual watchnight service. The congregation will sing carols and have a time of meditation. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

CALVARY BAPTIST

The Rev. and Mrs. John Toroni will present a musical program during the watchnight service at Calvary Baptist Church, Waterford Township. Rev. Mr. Toroni will offer selections on the violin and Mrs. Toroni will sing. The program will begin at 9 p.m.

Members of the church will also be featured in the musicale. Following the service, refreshments will be served in Fellowship Hall.

College students home for the holidays will have an opportunity to speak of their experiences.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Young people of Youth for Christ will present the film, "The Tony Fontane Story," at 7:30 p.m. in Pontiac Northern High School on New Year's Day.

The film, in color, concerns the life of Tony Fontane, TV star and recording artist.

The youth for Christ Singers is scheduled for 9 p.m. Sunday in the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church with music by Phyllis Gehman.

FRIENDSHIP

Rev. Alvin Hawkins, pastor, will conduct the watchnight prayer service at Friendship Baptist Church at 10 p.m. Refreshments will follow.

SYLVAN LAKE

Special services in Sylvan Lake Lutheran Church beginning at 7:45 p.m. will feature the singing of Christmas carols.

The devotional part of the evening will concern the litany of the Holy Name of Jesus and the Office of Compline.

"New Year's Day," said Pastor Robert Sheets, "is actually a Holy Day in the church year and called The Feast of the Circumcision and the Naming of Jesus."

There will be a spoken Eucharist at 10 a.m. New Year's Day.

ALLIANCE

The annual watchnight service at the Alliance Church, M59 at Cass Lake, Waterford Township, will start at 8:30 p.m. and continue to midnight.

Districters Vote on Plans as Court Deadline Looms

LANSING (AP) — The State Apportionment Commission was to begin balloting on Senate and House districting plans today, less than 38 hours before the state Supreme Court deadline for action.

On a basis of Wednesday's commission session there was no concrete evidence agreement was near.

Districters hinted individually they'd consider Republican ideas about controversial Senate districts in the Muskegon and Bay City-Saginaw areas.

PLANS ORDERED
The State Supreme Court has ordered the commission to produce by the first stroke of 1966 new districting plans for the House and Senate.

Democrat Henry Dongvillo dropped a new Senate plan onto the commission table—one with the smallest-est spread between the largest and smallest districts. The difference: 627 persons in districts each with more than 205,000 residents.

Republicans led by William Hanna renewed their claim that a certain level of popula-

Progress Slight in Gunpowder Strike Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — Talks in the gunpowder strike that threatens some ammunition supplies to U.S. forces in Viet Nam continue today amid signs of growing government impatience.

Slight progress was reported early this morning when discussions broke up about 3 a.m. EST. They were to resume six hours later.

After an implied federal deadline failed to break the deadlocked negotiations yesterday, the Army announced it was reactivating a moth-balled plant to make munitions.

"It looks like we've still got a lot of work to do," Chief Federal Mediator William E. Simkin said of the talks between three striking unions and the Olin Matheson Co. plant in East Alton, Ill.

The plant has been making gunpowder used in machine gun, rifle and tracer bullets and 20 millimeter cannon shells — all primary ammunition used by U.S. fighting men in the war against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

NEED 6 MONTHS
Although the Army said it was immediately starting reactivation of its Badger gunpowder plant in Baraboo, Wis., — idle the past eight years — the Pentagon said it would take six months to get it into production.

The plant is operated under contract by Olin Matheson.

Federal officials would not say how low gunpowder stocks have dwindled in the 30-day East Alton strike, but warned of a critical shortage unless there was a settlement soon.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said yesterday the national interest demanded an immediate settlement before the day was out, but the talks were on into today, dashing earlier optimism.

Wirtz said that "in theory" U.S. forces in Viet Nam could run out of ammunition eventually unless there was a settlement, but that he expected an end to the strike before any shortage developed.

THE AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists represents 3,800 of the 4,200 striking gunpowder workers. The AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Employees Trade Council represent the rest.

Simkin, in calling the two smaller-unions to Washington last night, had reported "some progress" with the machinists, who have been negotiating here under heavy federal pressure since Monday.

Living Costs Still Going Up

Climbing at Fastest

Rate in Seven Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs, rising at the fastest rate in seven years, went up another two-tenths of one percent last month, the Labor Department said today.

Prices were higher for all major items — including housing, clothing, transportation and medical care — except food, which held steady.

The increase brought the government's consumer price index to 110.6. The figure means it cost $11.06 in November to purchase items worth $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

The rise in typical family living costs brought the value of a 1957-59 dollar down to 90.4 cents.

HOPE TO HOLD RISES

Despite the record high, Deputy Commissioner Robert J. Myers of the Bureau of Labor Statistics said there was reason to hope that future price rises could be held to moderate levels.

However, he said the November increase boded a seasonal hold in which prices usually hold steady and that a further increase could be expected when December figures are in.

City Trash Collectors to Pick Up Yule Trees

Christmas trees will be picked up with regular trash collections, according to Samuel A. Baker, sanitation supervisor, city department of public works.

All residents need do, said Baker, is to place Christmas trees at the curb along with the rest of their refuse.

Negro Enters Race for Saltonstall Seat

BOSTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts, who holds one of the highest elective offices of any Negro in the nation, announced today his candidacy for the U.S. Senate.

Brooke will go before the state Republican convention in June and enter the state primary in September seeking the nomination for the seat now held by Sen. Leverett Saltonstall.

Brooke made his announcement at a news conference called just 24 hours after Saltonstall said he will retire at the end of his present term from the seat he has held since 1944.

Five Arraigned in Break-In Five men accused of breaking into a Bloomfield Hills beauty salon early yesterday morning were arraigned today before Baldwin Hills Justice Jack B. Baldwin.

Standing mute on the breaking and entering charge were Richard Sing, 25, L. C. Johnson, 27, and Rufus Lewis, 25, all of Royal Oak Township, and Charles E. Ford, 26, and William H. Ford, 26, both of Detroit.

They are being held in the Oakland County jail on $1,000 bonds pending a Jan. 17 preliminary hearing.

The men allegedly stole six wigs, 14 tubes of lipstick, various hand cosmetics, hair spray, a hair dryer, hair pins and an adding machine, from the Jose Salon, 91 W. Long Lake.

Police said they recovered the items, valued at over $900.

Injuries Claim City Motorist

A 74-year-old Pontiac man died at Pontiac General Hospital about 5:30 p.m. yesterday from injuries suffered two hours earlier in a collision at North Perry and Madison.

Dead is Raymond B. Hollingsworth of 509 E. Kennett.

Pontiac police said Hollingsworth, who was turning left from Perry when he collided with a truck driven by Lloyd A. Bray, 33, 6915 Tappan, Independence Township.

Bray's truck rebounded from the impact and collided with a car driven by Joseph A. Rabi-deau, 55, 701 Joslyn.

Neither Bray nor Rabi-deau was injured, according to police, who said no charges would be filed.

'Panorama of Germany' Next Travel Film Subject

BIRMINGHAM — The Community House will start the new year with a film trip to Germany Jan. 7 and 8.

The travel film series will bring Alfred Wolf to the Community House podium to narrate his color film at 8 each evening.

Wolf describes his new film as a "panorama of the many-sided German scene—a bit of the modern, a bit of the old, a bit of historical drama, a bit of fairy-tale land and a bit of art theater pageantry."

The film lecturer began his travels at the age of three and has since averaged about 50,000 miles a year.

Mine Is Probed for Blast Cause

9 Men Were Killed by Gas Explosion

REDSTONE, Colo. (UPI) — Federal and state inspectors explored a "very gassy" coal mine nearly a mile under the Rockies today to try to learn what caused the spark that exploded odorless methane gas and killed nine miners.

Robert Delaney, vice president and legal counsel for the Mid-Continent Coal and Coke Co. of Chicago, operator of the mine, said it might be impossible to determine the cause of the explosion late Tuesday night.

Delaney said static electricity, metal striking rock, "just about anything," could have caused the spark that touched off the gas.

He said they did not even know how the gas accumulated.

The nine miners should have been home when they were killed. They were burned to death as they worked an hour overtime so they could spend New Year's Eve with their families.

All were married. Eight had children.

WORLD'S HIGHEST

Today, the Dutch Creek mine near Redstone — at 10,000 feet, the world's highest coal mine — was called safe, dangerous, and modern.

Just 12 days before the gas explosion belched through the tunnel of the nine-year-old mine, state officials had inspected it. They called it the most gaseous coal mine in Colorado and the second most gaseous mine in the nation.

Fred Hefferly of Denver, a United Mine Workers official, called Dutch Creek "the most dangerous mine in Colorado."

Hefferly said he had complained about safety conditions there several times but had been told it was "none of our business" because the miners belonged to the Redstone Miners Union.

Hefferly called the union a "Company Union. If there are any complaints, the men are fired," he said.

A miner who helped carry the blackened bodies out of the mine after the explosion said safety precautions — at Dutch Creek — were "excellent."

A serious terrorist incident was narrowly averted when police discovered four mines planted in a basket of fruit in a crowded bus depot in Cholon, Saigon's Chinese quarter.

With the bombing pause nearly a week old, a U. S. military spokesman reported: "There is no change at all in the situation on the hill in the bombings of North Viet Nam."

Parents Stunned

Triplets Beat the New Year

DETROIT (UPI) — A happy new year arrived five days early for the Mr. and Mrs. Richard Malinac of Detroit Tuesday when Mrs. Malinac gave birth to triplets.

Stunned by the births, the parents are frantically counting the additional dozens of diapers they will need, plus two more baby cribs and bassinets and other items.

"I don't know what we'll do about cribs and bassinets, we just have one of everything, and most of the girls I know are using theirs," said 27-year-old Mrs. Malinac.

The 97-pound mother said she knew of the triplets, two girls and a boy, four days before their premature birth when X-rays were taken.

Mrs. Malinac was not due to give birth until February. She had gained 35 pounds in seven months, raising suspicion of the possibility of twins.

MIGHT BE TWINS

"The doctor thought I might be having twins, but I never thought of triplets," she said.

The couple also has five other children. They are Ricky, 9, Danny, 8, Kathy, 6, Mary, 4, and Pat, 15 months.

Finding names for the new additions has become a family project and another problem. The triplets were listed as A. B. and C. Malinac at the hospital. A. the boy, weighed the most at birth, 3 lbs. 13 oz.; B. weighed 3 lbs. 11 oz., and the youngest girl, C. weighed 2 lbs. 11 oz.

Israel's Woman Foreign Minister Is Retiring

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) — The world's only woman foreign minister, Golda Meir of Israel, is retiring at 67 after 10 years in office.

Mrs. Meir told a meeting of Parliament's Foreign Affairs and Security Committee Tuesday that she is quitting.

Authoritative sources said she would be succeeded by Deputy Premier Abba Eban, former ambassador to the United States and to the United Nations.

Mrs. Meir was appointed foreign minister in June 1956, carrying a career that took her from a Milwaukee schoolroom to the major capitals of the world.

Born in Kiev, Russia, on May 3, 1898, she fled with her carpenter father and the rest of the family to the United States when she was 8. She attended primary and high schools in Milwaukee, Wis., and became a grade school teacher there. She also did library work in Milwaukee, Chicago and New York.

Taking an active interest in Zionism and socialism, she went to Palestine in 1921 with her husband, Morris Myerson. There, she worked in a kibbutz (farm cooperative), helping raise poultry by day and studying Hebrew and Arabic by night.

Her talent for organization came quickly to the fore, and she became active in Histadrut, the general federation of Jewish labor. She expanded it from a trade union into an all-around enterprise that now dominates

Israeli industry and commerce. Politics was the next step, and Histadrut's developing enterprise became a leader of David Ben-Gurion's Mapai (Labor) party. For two decades she battled various British government efforts to liberalize restrictions on Jewish immigration to Palestine, represented

Killed in Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department Wednesday reported that Marine Lance Cpl. Richard E. Wilson, son of Mrs. Janie Hogan, Inkster, Mich., was killed in action in Viet Nam.

Her talent for organization came quickly to the fore, and she became active in Histadrut, the general federation of Jewish labor. She expanded it from a trade union into an all-around enterprise that now dominates

New Club Helps Transition

Former British Residents Reminisce

By JANICE KLOUSER
ROCHESTER — A chance to reminisce about a former way of life and to find a remedy for homesickness were the thoughts behind the recent formation of the Rochester Area British and American Women's Group.

The group, made up of former residents of the United Kingdom, was formed by Mrs. Geordon Bamford, 632 Miller and Mrs. Joel Williams, 155 Ferndale.

"We found that it helps to have someone of your own background to talk to," said Mrs. Bamford. "We knew of one or two girls who were really homesick and we thought this might help."

She said there was no better way to get to know and help each other at the same time.

"I don't mean to imply that we're all homesick," said Mrs.

State Food Inspectors Have Full-Time Job

Checking sanitation and wholesomeness of the food supply of the state's 8 million citizens is a full-time job for the Michigan Department of Agriculture's food inspectors. They made 22,406 inspections and 4,779 special investigations during the past 12 months.

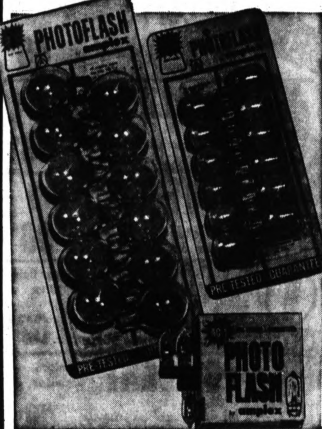

Restaurants, markets, rail terminals, canteens, meat processing plants, food warehouses, frozen food lockers and dozens of other types of food handling establishments are constantly checked, says B. Dale Ball, director of agriculture.

Bamford, "but some of us are more adaptable than others to a new way of life."

OTHER SIDE
Most of the members are married to British men who "just wanted to see what was on the other side of the hill." A few are married to American ex-GIs.

Mrs. Bamford, who comes from Birmingham, England, has been here four years. Mrs. Williams, a native of Chester, has been here 10 years. The longest period of residence of any member in this country is about 20 years.

"I guess I was one who wasn't very adaptable," said Mrs. Bamford. "It has taken me eight years to realize that I was going to have a home outside England." The family lived in Canada before coming here.

Mrs. Bamford said when she came back last year from a visit home, she decided that, if she was going to live here, she should join groups and get to know people.

OWN ATTITUDE
She said her attitude has nothing to do with this country. "It's just me I guess."

"In fact, we felt more like foreigners in Canada than we do here," she said.

"There's a wonderful feeling among American people. In England, if someone needs help, other people may want to help but their reserve holds them back. Here, everyone helps."

She said her mother-in-law was unhappy when they left England and couldn't understand why they didn't at least

COMPARING LANGUAGE—The language is similar but confusion sometimes results from the different expressions used by the English and the Americans. One difference is pointed out by Mrs. Geordon Bamford at the new Crittenton Hospital when it is finished. Most of them belonged to the British counterpart to the Red Cross — the St. John's Ambulance Brigade.

The group meets once a month, alternating afternoon and evening meetings to give all a chance to attend.

The refreshments served at each meeting? Tea and biscuits. "But not biscuits as you know them," Mrs. Bamford pointed out. "What you call cookies, we call biscuits."

Anyone British-born is "most welcome" to join the group.

Referendum Is Sought on Rezoning

OXFORD TOWNSHIP — Petitions seeking a referendum on a recent trailer park rezoning west of the village of Oxford are being circulated among property owners this week.

If about 600 signatures can be obtained, the petitions will be presented to the Township Board at its Jan. 12 meeting.

The petitions would obligate the board to submit the question to a vote either at a special election or at the regular election next November, according to Township Supervisor Lee B. Valentine.

Bruce Sanderson, 534 S. Lapeer, who is heading the group of circulators, said he is confident of getting the required number of signatures.

The referendum is being sought to give voters a chance to express their views on the recent decision by the township board to rezone 50 acres of agricultural property on Coats Road north of Seymour Lake Road to mobile home zoning.

ATTORNEY'S PROPOSAL
The 300-unit development is proposed by Pontiac attorney Anthony Renne.

Sanderson said this is the only part of the township left to "grow into." He said "there is a trailer park south and one east of town, and the gravel pits north of town."

He said the master plan called for the disputed area to remain agricultural zoning for the time being. Any change would be spot zoning, Sanderson said.

be obtained, the petitions will be presented to the Township Board at its Jan. 12 meeting.

The petitions would obligate the board to submit the question to a vote either at a special election or at the regular election next November, according to Township Supervisor Lee B. Valentine.

Bruce Sanderson, 534 S. Lapeer, who is heading the group of circulators, said he is confident of getting the required number of signatures.

The referendum is being sought to give voters a chance to express their views on the recent decision by the township board to rezone 50 acres of agricultural property on Coats Road north of Seymour Lake Road to mobile home zoning.

ATTORNEY'S PROPOSAL
The 300-unit development is proposed by Pontiac attorney Anthony Renne.

Sanderson said this is the only part of the township left to "grow into." He said "there is a trailer park south and one east of town, and the gravel pits north of town."

He said the master plan called for the disputed area to remain agricultural zoning for the time being. Any change would be spot zoning, Sanderson said.

'Negative' Attitude on Resolutions Best

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Having trouble making your annual New Year resolutions?

Maybe you're trying to reform yourself too fast. It can be overdone, you know.

There is no point in making 1,001 vows on things you are going to do next year to make yourself a better person. This only creates laughter in heaven, as the angels know no man can become that perfect.

If you must make positive vows, keep them few and simple, such as, "I hereby resolve to eat regularly in 1966 and try in every way possible to inherit as much money as I can."

A better way is to take a negative attitude.

For example, I have pledged myself in 1966 never to—Buy the Brooklyn Bridge, unless they gift-wrap it.
Beat my wife or the family cat.

Do my daughter's homework problems in algebra.
Grow a beard.

Be the last guy to laugh when the boss tells a joke.
Give stock market tips to strangers.

Take stock market tips from strangers.

Learn to play the zither.
Tell the neighbors how to deal with their teen-age children.

Purchase a charming old house in the suburbs and do it over myself.

Eat caviar, except on doctor's orders.

Follow any program of exercises that requires more than 10 knee bends a month.

Ask anyone at a cocktail party why he is for or against our policy in Viet Nam.

Borrow money from anyone except a known enemy. None of my known friends ever seem to have any cash.

Kiss any new girls under 25 or any old ones over 80.

Read any book on "how to become a success" written by an author whose own mother has trouble remembering his first name.

Learn any new dance whose movements resemble those of a Sioux Indian getting ready to go on the warpath.

Become a fan of any television program broken into by commercials showing how a girl achieves social popularity by switching her brand of mouthwash.

Shoot a moose.
Well, that's one man's program for self-improvement in 1966. It may not improve a fellow's character much, but it will help keep him from wasting his time in nonsensical ways—and that's a big step forward to take in any year.

GOP Expects to Benefit

Viet War Making Heavy Impact on U.S. Political Picture

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Next year is an election year and the Viet Nam war is bound to loom large in the political consciousness. This last of four articles on America's role in Viet Nam reports on its impact on the political front.)

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans will bound back to Washington next month confident that President Johnson faces decisions on Viet Nam and the economy which are likely to back up the GOP's political stock.

As Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House Minority leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan see it, Johnson must make the difficult choice between inflation country in no uncertain terms.

Dirksen said in a separate interview he looks for an administration effort to crowd into this fiscal year, which ends next June 30, as much supplemental spending as possible. This would tend to hold down the total of the new budget to be submitted in January.

"There will be stiff opposition to any such deceptive practice," he said.

Administration officials already have estimated that current year spending will run between $105 billion and $107 billion, instead of the $99.7 billion estimated last January. Because revenues are up, they figure the June 30 deficit will range between $7 billion and $8 billion.

Republicans believe the psychological impact of a new January budget estimate of more than $100 billion in spending will dramatize their contention that Johnson is taking the country into an era of inflation.

If this is followed by increases in the prices of food, appliances, automobiles, services and all of the things the average family buys, they believe disgruntled consumers will take it out on the Democrats at the polls in congressional races next November.

To emphasize any cutbacks Johnson might make in domestic aid programs, the Republican Policy Coordinating Committee expects to have soon a report on the impact on such programs of increased Viet Nam expenditures. This presumably will spell out for the beneficiaries just what they aren't going to get if Johnson clamps down to make way for war expenditures.

Because they didn't want to be accused of displaying American disunity abroad, the Republicans on the whole have been restrained in criticizing Johnson's course in Viet Nam. They apparently have developed now a technique of urging the President on to greater military efforts and in the same voice criticizing him for getting involved in an "endless" war. While they say they don't quarrel with Johnson's objectives, they complain that he isn't getting anywhere.

HAS ALTERNATIVES

"As I see it," Ford said, "the President has the alternative of cutting back on his domestic programs, raising taxes or rolling up a big inflationary budget. He certainly isn't going to recommend raising taxes. If he faces decisions on the programs he pushed so hard to get in the last session, he is going to undercut a lot of Democratic candidates who are depending on them for election. If he yields to inflation, it, Johnson must make the difficult choice between inflation country in no uncertain terms."

Dirksen said in a separate interview he looks for an administration effort to crowd into this fiscal year, which ends next June 30, as much supplemental spending as possible. This would tend to hold down the total of the new budget to be submitted in January.

"There will be stiff opposition to any such deceptive practice," he said.

actions seems likely to become more acute.

The GOP committee has offered as its alternative a naval and air quarantine of North Viet Nam, supplemented by air and sea bombardment of "significant military targets." Dirksen said military leaders ought to pick the targets, a task that Johnson has taken over personally in the past.

Ford argued that if the quarantine - bombing strategy were carried out, the need for ground forces could be reduced. But he is free to make almost any kind of suggestion since they know they aren't going to be thought might happen if U.S. called upon to demonstrate that warships halted Soviet supply vessels - bound for Haiphong, Johnson in running the war.

Dirksen, who has stood behind Johnson, indicated that he, too, is becoming more critical as the election year approaches. "We don't quarrel about being in Viet Nam," he said. "But we have a quarrel because we have been there too long without decisive results."

This obviously was aimed at capitalizing on the impatience of the average American, who wants to get a nasty job over with.

The Republicans feel perfect-ly free to make almost any kind of suggestion since they know they aren't going to be thought might happen if U.S. called upon to demonstrate that warships halted Soviet supply vessels - bound for Haiphong, Johnson in running the war.

Traffic Safety Hints:

No. 13

After driving on a freeway for an hour or two, you lose your awareness of speed. This can be dangerous when you turn onto the exit ramp where the safe speed limit may be as low as 20 or 25 mph. It will seem to you that you have slowed down enough when you probably haven't. That's why you have to watch your speedometer. Driving on a regular highway after you've left the freeway, you will still have a false sense of speed. Unless you watch your speedometer, you may find yourself climbing right back up to freeway speeds. And this on a road which hasn't the safety features of a freeway.

Inaugurate Philippine Leader

MANILA (AP) — Overtime guerrilla fighter Ferdinand E. Marcos took the oath as the sixth president of the Philippines today and pledged his nation to austerity at home and greater cooperation with free nations of Asia.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey represented the United States at the inauguration. A host of other dignitaries also attended the ceremonies, which drew 50,000 Filipinos to Luneta Park beside Manila Bay and millions more to radio and television sets.

Marcos, 48, startled the festive audience with a stern speech outlining the nation's economic and political ills. He extolled the Philippines as a democratic example to unstable nations in Asia and pledged it would stand beside "every fighter for freedom." But he warned that the nation's coffers were empty and "hard decisions" — such as sending troops to Viet Nam — must be made for the national interest of the Philippines.

CHANGED MIND
 Before the election last month, Marcos said he opposed sending combat troops to Viet Nam although he favored enlarging the Philippine medical unit there. After the election, he indicated he had changed his mind and was in favor of sending a combat battalion.

He did not mention Viet Nam by name in his inaugural speech but noted that freedom in Asia was being seriously endangered. He said that free Asian nations need to consult more closely and coordinate their policies to insure freedom.

"Any threat to humanity in any area of the world is a threat to us all," he said.

"Every fighter for freedom who fights for liberty, fights for us. We cannot stand aloof. But when it comes time to make these hard decisions we must be guided by our real national interests."

MUST ACT

But "we cannot sit by complacently doing nothing," he added.

Marcos said past Philippine governments had promised too much and delivered too little. He pledged a "rigorous policy of fiscal restraint" to restore the nation's finances and to crack down on corrupt officials who condone smuggling which he said costs the nation perhaps $200 million a year.

 "Increased production is the true answer to all our economic ills," he said, adding that he would achieve it.
 Marcos' half-hour speech was interrupted 19 times by applause.

CLEARER IDEA

Humphrey, who is here also to obtain a clearer idea of Marcos' position on Viet Nam for President Johnson, said the view expressed by Marcos was responsible for the nation's fiscal restraint.
 "They are words which the American people ought to appreciate deeply," said Humphrey, who came from Japan and will visit South Korea and Nationalist China on his way back to Washington.

Taking the oath, Marcos was flanked by his mother, his wife Imelda and their three children. The crowd roared as the new first family moved to the front of the speakers' stand.

Marcos' comrades of his World War II guerrilla days filed past in the inaugural parade. Among them were retired Gen. Russell Volckmann of Chicago and former OSS Capt. Donald Jamison of Pauma Valley, Calif.

MRS. T. F. MacMANUS III

Joyce Luise Adams of Gilbert Lake and Theodore Francis MacManus III of West Maple Road were wed Wednesday. Their parents are Mrs. A. J. Hoy of Pittsburgh, the late Alfred L. Adams Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus Jr. of Birmingham.

Miss Adams Selects Ivory Peau de Soie

Joyce Luise Adams of Gilbert Lake became the bride of Theodore Francis MacManus III of West Maple Road, Wednesday evening in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church.

After a reception in Forest Lake Country Club, the couple left for a northern honeymoon. They plan to reside in Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. J. Hoy of Pittsburgh and the late Alfred L. Adams Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus Jr. of Birmingham, are the bridegroom's parents.

Ivory peau de soie fashioned the bride's Empire gown and cathedral-length train with applique of Alencon lace.

illusion veil and her bouquet included gardenias and Stephanotis.

Judith Arthur, Traverse City, was honor attendant at the evening rite performed by Rev. Gerald Flahgan.

Bridesmaids were Lorraine Sabo of Dearborn and the bridegroom's sister Margaret MacManus.

With the bride's cousin John F. Schweppe, as best man were the ushers James Filiatrault, Ernest A. Jones II and Richard Brodie.

The bride is an alumna of Michigan State University. Her husband attended Xavier University, Cincinnati.

It's Proper to Verbally Ask Family

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: I sent out engraved invitations to a large open house that I am giving in two weeks.

As the members of my family knew about the party and that I was expecting them to come, I didn't send them invitations. I felt it was wholly unnecessary.

However, some of the members of my family feel that they should have received invitations and are rather put out because I didn't send them each one. Did I err in not sending them invitations?

A: If you invited the members of your family verbally and were certain they all knew that you expected them, sending them engraved invitations was unnecessary and there is no reason why any of them should be put out because you did not do so.

SHOULD PRESENTS BE RETURNED?

Q: Six weeks ago my son was inducted into the Army. Before he left, we gave a party for him and several of his friends brought him presents.

After a month he was discharged because of poor health. He has asked me to find out from you what he should do about these presents. May he keep them or should they be returned?

A: He should offer to return the presents to those from whom he received them. If they ask him to keep them, he may then of course do so.

Bennetts Will Cheer at Rose Bowl Game

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Bennett Jr. of Birmingham are leaving today to attend the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, Calif. They will return after a 10-day stay in Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Glowacki of Bloomfield Hills and son Ralph, a graduate student at Harvard University, spent Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, the Jerome Sanfords in Muskegon.

Women's Section

The shifty knit of 100 per cent wool leads the way to spring. Long sleeves are complemented by a deep shawl collar and demure dickie in contrasting white. A pert bow is the final touch. Can be worn with or without the self belt. In melon, clover green, lilac, blue. Sizes 12½ to 22½. About $30. On order locally.

The pale pastel plaid, if you please! And Amy Adams does it here in a two-piece ensemble of wrinkle-resistant rayon blend. An easy skirt meets a piped and buttoned bodice in contrasting solid. The jacket of matching plaid is mock pocketed and collared in contrasting solid. In soft blue, pink and sand. Sizes 12½ to 22½. About $35. On order locally.

Don't Press Panic Button Too Soon

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Last night our daughter phoned from college to tell us that she is engaged and plans to marry as soon as she graduates this summer.

We have met the young man, and he seems decent enough. However, we don't know his family, he is not of our religion, and we know he has no money, only a brand new job he may or may not wish to keep.

Do we just sit by and let our daughter decide on something she will have to live with the rest of her life? You'd think she would have discussed these details with us before setting a date. What should we do?

MOM AND DAD: DEAR MOM AND DAD: What choice have you? Your daughter called and INFORMED you of her intentions to wed. But hands off the panic button. Think it over and talk it over.

Your daughter is no longer a child. Don't assume the young people are heading for disaster just because they don't have it made right now. They could surprise you.

DEAR ABBY: I am a high school sophomore who has been going with a senior (I'll call Mike) for about three months.

Mike is very polite and mannerly and my folks liked him until they found out his father is a garbageman. Now I don't think it's right to hold this against Mike because he can't help what his father does for a living.

My mother tells me that a garbageman's son is not in my class, socially. Yet Mike's family lives as nicely as we do, and I know garbagemen make good money.

My whole family teases me about "the garbageman's son" and it hurts me because I really like him. What can I do.

LIKES MIKE: DEAR LIKES: Collecting garbage is a respectable way to make a living, so don't let anybody knock it. Mike does not have to apologize for his father's job.

But you may have to apologize for your parents' snobishness.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is I am working at a store and I am not supposed to get any personal calls here.

I have asked my family and friends not to call me at work, but I don't think they understand English. This morning my mother called about something that could have waited until I got home. Then my sister called to read me a part of a letter she'd just received.

Then my boyfriend called about some stupid matter. My boss was very much annoyed after that third call, and told me if I got one more phone call at work he would have to let me go.

Abby, how can I make people understand they are not to call me? I can't afford to lose this job.

LAST WARNING: DEAR LAST: There must be something about the way you say "no" that sounds like "maybe." Tell those who are likely to call you that if they call once more, it will mean your job. And if they call, face it—they don't have your best interests at heart.

Jane Ensign Wed at Christ Church

Jane Ensign, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign of Franklin, was the fourth generation bride in her family to choose Dec. 29 for her wedding day.

A reception and buffet supper in the Village Woman's Club followed her marriage to Lt. Robert William Bednas in Christ Church Cranbrook. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bednas of Lowell, Mass.

Bruges lace accented the bride's Empire gown and train of imported ivory peau de soie designed by Mme. Lidia Legendi. A bandeau of heirloom lace secured her veil of ivory illusion.

During the candlelight rite, she held white roses and ivy. Mrs. James Ensign of Waukegan, Ill. attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids included Angela Bednas; Mrs. Henry B. Joy III, Grosse Pointe; Josephine Joy, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. William Blunt, Margaret Jeffs and Mary Wilson, all of New York City. Elizabeth Ensign was her aunt's flower girl.

Thomas Puelo, Lowell, Mass., was his cousin's best man. The ushers were Stephen Brickley, West Hartford, Conn.; James Ensign; Henry B. Joy III; David Schaubner and Robert Mahoney, Detroit; and John Richards, Milford.

stationed at McConnell Air Force Base.

Both are alumni of the University of Michigan. She is affiliated with Collegiate Sorosis and he is a member of the Sigma Phi Society.

Jane Ensign, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign of Franklin, and Lt. Robert William Bednas, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bednas of Lowell, Mass., spoke vows Wednesday.

In center section, Mrs. Angier Biddle Duke, wife to the U.S. Ambassador to Spain, singer Barbara McNair, Broadway star Carol Lawrence, TV commentator Lee Phillip, and actresses Diane Baker and Claudette Colbert.

Church Women Slate Meeting

A general meeting will be held for members of the Central Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service Wednesday at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. George Dietrich, chairman of the Helen Des Jardins circle, will be in charge of the serving.

The Bethel Fleming circle with Mrs. Charles Steeber as its chairman, will be the hostess group.

The program is entitled "Headlines come to life."

Fewer Gal Profs

Only 20 per cent of U.S. college and university members today are women, compared to 28 per cent 25 years ago, according to U. S. Labor Dept. statistics.

'66 Forecast Is Curly

For the first time, coiffures have the new year's number. With short curly locks, high guiche turns over the cheekbones, hairstyles will literally take the shape of '66.

According to stylists who coif the Ten Best Coiffured women in the world, just selected by the Helene Curtis Guild of Professional Beauticians, everything's going to be coming up curly next year.

The stylists, representing Hollywood, Washington, Rome, New York and Chicago selected Diane Baker, Claudette Colbert, Joan Crawford, Robin Duke, Ann Hand, Carol Lawrence, Virna Lisi, Sophia Loren, Barbara McNair and Lee Phillip as the Ten Best Coiffured Women of 1965.

Hairdressers for the best coiffed believe the face will be bracketed by upswep curls (like 66's) although ears may continue to be left out in the cold. Hair will be brushed back behind the ears, forming another "6" at the nape of the neck.

ON FOREHEAD TOO

The curly shape of the six will also influence forehead treatments, whether hair is combed over the brow in soft bangs or back over the crown to give a look of height.

Six's piled on top of the other will spiral up into giant curls or twists atop the head for evening wear.

To be in style next year, all a girl needs to do is drop the long dragged-out seven silhouette, and concentrate on making the most of the curly six's.

Lynn Ann Filer Is Wed to Lary B. Rogers Here

Lynn Ann Filer, daughter of the Oliver G. Filers of Edgefield Drive, became the bride of Lary Bob Rogers in a recent ceremony in All Saints Episcopal Church.

For the rite performed by Rev. Charles Sturm, she donned a princess-line gown of Chantilly lace over white satin.

PEARL TIARA

A pearl tiara held her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion. White orchids centered her bouquet of white roses.

Attending her sister as honor matron was Mrs. Larry Randall of Kalamazoo. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Tom Fitzgerald, Jean Wagner and Rhonda Trzos.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob R. Rogers of Fernbary Drive, asked Tom Fitzgerald to be best man. His brothers, Jeffrey and Stephen Rogers, joined Jan Appel and Bruce Romant as ushers.

Following a church reception, the couple left for a honeymoon at northern ski resorts. She previously attended Western Michigan University and her husband is in his junior year at Oakland University.

The Pontiac Press photographer snapped these two Pontiac General Hospital volunteers as they were about to start their duties of duty. Douglas Rober of Goldner Avenue is one of three in a newly-formed boys' group. Stephanie Williams of Cedarale Street is one of the 180 Candystripers who now work two days a week in the hospital.

At Pontiac General Hospital

Meet Male Volunteers

By JEANNE NELSON

For three young men (all high school seniors), life is more than just a series of schoolwork and dating. It's an opportunity to observe first-hand, the scope of hospital procedures.

The three Doug Rober of Goldner Avenue and Bob Star and Don Richards, both of Berkley—are Pontiac General Hospital's first young male volunteers.

Like their counterparts, the Candystripers, these youths are here two days a week after school from 4 until 8 p.m. on a voluntary basis.

During the recent school vacation, most of these volunteers contributed a number of extra hours.

ONE STEP AT A TIME

Because of the program's newness, Mrs. Dorothy Wood, director of public relations at the hospital, hasn't been able to determine just how extensive the boys' duties will be come.

So far, each has had Emergency Room experience, along with assignments in Pediatrics, Central Supply and Housekeeping.

It's no mere coincidence that these young men have chosen to donate their time and energies. All three have definite goals in mind, a career in medicine.

To date, over 925 girls have been trained as Candystripers since the volunteer program had its start in 1961. Many of them who were then members of the Future Nurses Club at their schools have since gone on to become registered nurses.

Mrs. Wood feels their early training as Candystripers had a direct and meaningful effect on their ultimate decision to become a part of the medical profession.

The public relations director also remarked on the assistance the hospital has received from the schools and expects further to receive with the program.

CONSELMORS HELP

The school counselors, aware of the academic progress and goals of their assigned seniors have been co-operating with the hospital to secure places in PGH's program for young people.

Included in the plan is nine hours of technique and instruction, plus four additional hours by Mrs. Wood on grooming and personal contact with patients.

The Candystriper's name originates from the red and white striped pinafare which the girls purchase and care for themselves.

The boys, whose beginning class will be limited to 12, will wear a Ben Casey type coat in color with white duck trousers and white shoes.

Their duties will be similar to those of the Candystripers with additional assignments requiring greater strength.

NEED NAME

At this writing, the hospital is searching about for a suitable name for the young men's group. Suggestions will be welcomed, says Mrs. Wood.

Each volunteer starts his or her hospital day by signing in at the volunteer office. From there they are assigned to duties.

It is the intention of those in charge to expose these young people to as many different jobs as possible. For in this way, each has a greater opportunity to envision the specialized fields in the realm of medicine.

This first class for senior boys will include only those recommended by Pontiac Central, Pontiac Northern, Waterford and Waterford-Kettering High Schools.

Mrs. Wood adds that as new classes start, the program may be enlarged to include boys from other area schools.

Polly's Pointers

They Give Coupons

DEAR POLLY—My mother was recently hospitalized in another city so we could only visit her occasionally or talk to her over the telephone. Because of these limitations we thought up another way of bringing her news of family and friends.

I kept my typewriter out and wrote down things as they happened or as I thought of them. Included were the names of those who had called to ask about her or maybe a funny little story I heard or read, what the children were doing and what I was cooking. The letter was given to her during a visit to read sometime later when she was feeling lonely.

We gave her a "book of coupons" good for such things as maid service, a shampoo and hairset, a spaghetti dinner, secretarial service and other things she would find difficult or impossible to get after coming home from the hospital. All these services were to be performed by members of our family.—MRS. B.J.C.

DEAR POLLY—After trying different sorts of purses I have finally hit on the ideal container for my first-grader to use for carrying her lunch and bus money to school. The small round plastic containers that prescriptions come in from the drug store are just the thing.

They are small enough to fit into any pocket, are clear plastic and have a snap-on cap which small fingers can open easily. Being clear plastic the child can be assured that the money is there without doing any rummaging.—KAREN

DEAR POLLY—My Pointer is for contact lens wearers. If a lens gets lost on the floor or carpet, take off your shoes so as to eliminate the danger of crushing it. Turn off all the lights except one bright lamp. Set this lamp on the floor, remove its shade and look carefully.

The lens will reflect the lamp.

Made to Order for Each Other

DES MOINES, Iowa (P)—The wedding rings exchanged during the marriage ceremony for Patricia Reynolds and Jerry Krebs of Garden City, Kan., were made by the couple. Each designed and made their own wedding band.

Both bride and groom are majoring in jewelry and silversmithing at the University of Kansas.

Tier curtains in candy pink "Ribbon Plaid" pattern and a bright melon bedspread in a teenage daughters' room in The Burlington House, Reston, Va., disprove the theory that brilliant colors do not mix well in a small room. The chair, upholstered in crimson, and available locally, is from Selig Manufacturing Company. Strong colors used here in a room splashed with white produces a "contrastual vibration" which makes the room glow and look larger, according to the interior designer, J. Federic Lohman, AID.

Gals in White Had Char Duty

Nurses were once required to wash hospital windows every week, according to rules set forth in an 1887 employee newspaper published by the Hartford (Connecticut) Hospital. Women in white were also expected to mop the floors and clean the kerosene lamps.

Today's nurses are no longer required to do such clean-up chores, but the importance of cleanliness to patients' health and morale is still recognized by the medical profession.

BAKED PEARS — Fresh winter pears, dipped in orange juice and sprinkled with a buttery crumb-cheese topping, are baked just until tender to serve with savory ham loaf. No need to peel the pears for Baked Pears Au Gratin, since the skin of winter pears is tender and flavorful.

Baked Winter Pears Go Well With Meat

Fresh pears with cheese, orange juice and water. Sprinkle with crumbs and cheese. Bake in 350-degree oven for 20 minutes or until tender. Makes 8 servings.

Baked until the flesh is just tender, the pears need not be peeled for the skin helps hold in the flavorful juices. Delicious served with ham loaf and crispy green salad.

Fresh Bosc pears along with the other winter varieties, Anjou and Comice, are a welcome sight on the market when other sweet, fresh fruits are scarce.

Favorites for snacking and lunch box desserts, these fresh pears are also perfect when baked, poached or made into pies and cobblers. Become a connoisseur of fresh winter pears this season by getting acquainted with all three varieties.

Since color is not an indication of maturity in fresh winter pears, test for ripeness by gently cupping a pear in the palm of your hand. If it yields to slight pressure, it will be juicy sweet and ready to eat.

If not, simply store pears at room temperature until they yield to gentle pressure, the perfect-for-eating stage.

Baked Pears Au Gratin
4 fresh Anjou, Bosc or Comice pears
¼ cup orange juice
¼ cup water
½ cup buttered bread crumbs
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
Halve and core pears. Dip cut side in orange juice. Place pears, outside up, in buttered baking dish. Add any remaining or other seasonings.

Cream Puffs Hold Cranberry Filling

Little cream puffs with creamy cranberry filling make an unusual and delicious holiday dessert.

Heat 1 cup of water and ½ cup of butter or margarine to boiling point in saucepan. Add 1 cup of sifted all-purpose flour all at once. Stir over low heat until mixture forms a ball in center of pan. Remove from heat. Beat in eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition.

Drop mixture by teaspoonful, about 2 inches apart, on greased cookie sheet. Bake in preheated 400-degree oven 30-35 minutes, until well-browned and crisp. For filling, mix together 1 cup each of bottled cranberry-orange relish and dairy sour cream. Chill. Just before serving, remove tops from puffs, fill with berry cream, and replace tops. Makes 18 puffs.

Unique Sauce Little Top Hat Rolls Have Great Appeal

Today many kinds of seafoods are available the year 'round throughout the country, thanks to the frozen foods industry. High on the popularity list of frozen seafoods are breaded fish portions, steaks and squares of boneless fish labeled variously as "filets," "steaks," or "steaks."

The National Fisheries Institute reports that this product increases in popularity every year. Last year Americans ate 105 million pounds of this easy-to-prepare seafood and this year consumption was up 14 per cent during the first quarter, as compared with the same period of last year.

Here's a deliciously different way to serve this "Convenience Seafood," topped with a thick, flavorful sour cream sauce.

Crispy Fish With Sour Cream Sauce
2 packages frozen breaded fish squares
1 cup thick sour cream
2 tablespoons grated dill pickles
1 teaspoon liquid from dill pickles
½ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons minced celery
Salt to taste
Cracked black pepper

While fish squares are being heated, as directed on package, prepare the topping. Combine sour cream with dill pickle and liquid, paprika, minced celery and salt. Eliminate the dill pickles and liquid if you have fresh dill. When mixed thoroughly, spoon the sour cream sauce over the fish.

For an extra special garnish, crack black peppercorns with a mortar and pestle, and sprinkle over the sauce.

Tarragon Vinegar Is Secret Ingredient

This dressing has flavor that is compatible with orange salad.

Tarragon Dressing
½ cup salad oil
3 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon white pepper
½ teaspoon sugar
¼ teaspoon paprika
Into a half-pint jar, turn all the ingredients; screw cover tight and shake thoroughly. Refrigerate. Shake well before serving. Makes about ¾ cup.

Always be sure to cook sausage, giblets and other meats before adding to stuffing.

Nothing says "hospitality" like home-baked yeast breads or coffee cakes. They can be prepared well in advance of the party, frozen, and popped into the oven to thaw at the last minute.

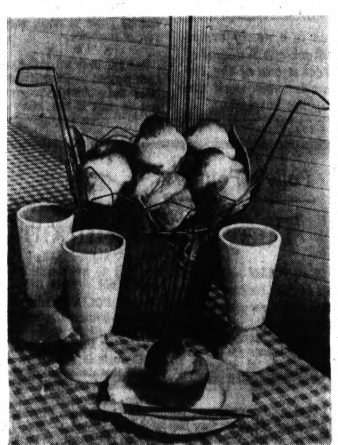

These cute little Petit Brioche, with characteristic "top-hats" and sloping sides, are excellent accompaniments for morning coffee or continental-style bouillon, afternoon tea or chocolate.

For a festive air, serve them in a gaily painted wicker basket or wire salad basket lined with a colorful napkin.

Petits Brioche
½ cup milk
½ cup (1 stick) margarine
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup warm water
1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
3 whole eggs
1 egg yolk
¾ cups unsifted flour
1 egg white
1 tablespoon sugar

Scald milk; cool to lukewarm. Cream margarine in large mixer bowl. Gradually add ½ cup sugar and salt. Cream together.

Measure warm water into small warm bowl; sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk, dissolved yeast, eggs, egg yolk and flour to creamed mixture.

SPELL HOSPITALITY—Continental-style Petits Brioche are simple-but-elegant refreshments for afternoon parties. Served imaginatively in a wire salad basket with hot chocolate, they spell welcome in any language.

Many Sweets Good to Stuff in Dates

Stuffed fresh dates from your kitchen make a very nice Christmas gift. Try these delicious stuffings: Flavored cream cheese, pineapple tidbits, crystallized ginger, toasted whole blanched almonds, mandarin orange segments or creamy mint patties.

For Gingerbread

Combine ¼ cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch and ¼ teaspoon nutmeg. Blend in 2 cups apple juice and simmer, stirring constantly, until thickened. Beat 1 egg yolk and gradually add the hot sauce. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Spoon over gingerbread.

Scientist Says Mars Photos Show Canals

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — An astronomer said yesterday he has found evidence of canals and oases in seven of the 22 pictures taken of Mars by the Mariner 4 spacecraft earlier this year.

Dr. Clyde W. Tombaugh of the New Mexico State University Observatory told the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science that heretofore unexplained dark streaks in the Mariner 4 pictures coincide with markings he has seen in telescopic studies of the planet.

"I know there are others who say they can't see canals on Mars," he said at a briefing prior to his talk, "but I'd like to see them have their eyes tested."

Tombaugh said he believes the so-called canals are faults or fractures in the planet's crust, several miles wide. Their darkening and fading may be due, he said, to escape of hot gases which melt a thick layer of frost, and feed vegetation.

The oases or dark smudges where the lines intersect, he speculated, may be asteroid-impact craters in which moisture gathers and promotes growth of some hardy plant, such as moss.

SHOWS MAP

Tombaugh displayed a hand-drawn map showing lines and smudges he has found in the area covered by Mariner 4, and gave this rundown on the markings in various frames:

Picture 3: a large dark area coincides with an oasis recorded on the Erebus canal, and an extension coincides with a short segment of the canal.

Picture 6: a crater area in the middle of the frame coincides with an oasis on the Saus canal.

BEST PHOTO

astronomer Percival Lowell of Flagstaff, Ariz.

Picture 13: A long dark area coincides with a portion of the Melles canal.

Picture 14: A large crater coincides with an oasis at the junction of the Melles and bragrades canals.

Picture 15: three dark patches coincide crudely with the juncture of three unnamed canals.

Dr. John A. Ryan, Douglas Aircraft Co. research physicist, advanced a theory that the yellow clouds in Mars' thin atmosphere may be dust stirred up by whirlwinds like the dust seen on earth's deserts.

Michigan Briefs

By Esther Van Wagener Tufty
WASHINGTON — Some 3,702 students from low-income Michigan families will be able to stay in college with the aid of federal work-student grants totaling $811,511, reports the U.S. Office of Education.

Distribution of more than $1 million federal aid funds for fish and wild life restoration in the 50 states has been announced by Interior department.

Michigan's share: fish, $319,447.08 (third highest) wildlife, $548,031.74.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards is urging cities to fight neighborhood blight by enacting strong ordinances prohibiting junk automobiles in yards and streets.

Michigan senior farmers may have a chance to beautify highways under a National Farmers Union plan patterned on the four-state $1,451,680 beautification project in rural counties in Arkansas, New Jersey, Oregon and Minnesota.

Allotments of nearly $242 million will be made to states during the year for federally assisted programs of vocational and technical education, the U.S. Office of Education announces. Michigan's share: $648,336; vocational; $1,637,441; work-study.

Job Bonus: Bogus Bills

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP) — A $50 bill blew by a construction project. Then another. Then a $20 bill.

That started workers on a lively hunt Wednesday that turned up a shoebox stuffed with $40,000 of the bills. The money turned out to be bogus, the Solano County sheriff's office said.

The FBI is investigating.

Ho Chi Minh May Hold Key to Fate of Viet Peace Bids

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The key to success or failure of Viet Nam peace bids may rest in the fragile hands of an ancient revolutionary caught in the titanic struggle for power between the world's two Communist giants.

Ho Chi Minh at 75 has had half a century of tumultuous activity in the cause of international communism as a tactician of revolution. Today "Uncle Ho," as president of North Viet Nam, confronts a situation that may seem insoluble.

As an internationalist, Ho probably is inclined to follow Moscow's lead. That might mean making the best of a dangerous situation and waiting patiently for a better opportunity.

But Ho has a huge neighbor on his northern frontier: Red China. Legendary though he may be as the architect of revolution in the Orient, Ho seems captive of a majority faction of his own politburo which follows Peking's lead.

The paradoxical Ho, a poetic, mandarinlike figure who, despite his violent, career always seemed a believer in the easiest and least bloody way to power, appears to be bored in.

The pro-Chinese faction in Hanoi is headed by Truong Chinh, chairman of the North Viet Nam National Assembly. Truong Chinh's name means "long march." His original name was Dang Xuan Khu, but he changed it after taking part in the historic march of Mao's forces in the Communist war for domination of the China mainland.

The pro-Chinese faction evidently took over in Hanoi last April in a sudden shake-up of the North Vietnamese Communist hierarchy. The dominant faction evidently subscribes to the Chinese formula of violent "people's war" as the only effective road to world communism.

From time to time there had been evidence that Ho was willing to listen to some sort of formula to end the bloodletting.

Viet Nam faces the dubious choice of progressive destruction from U.S. bombing or massive influx of Chinese who could forever kill off any trace of Vietnamese independence.

But Ho does not appear to be a free agent. His current statements reflect the granite-hard line. They also reflect the Soviet-Chinese struggle.

Minister's Resignation Accepted

Italy Teeters on Brink of New Political Crisis

U.S. Photographing N. Viets During Lull

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is watching North Viet Nam from the air during the lull in bombing.

Both the North Vietnamese and Communist Chinese governments have accused the United States of reconnaissance operations and other "provocations" since the bombing pause began last Friday.

But U.S. officials refuse to talk about aerial reconnaissance, just as they turn aside all questions about the bombing halt itself.

It is known, however, that U.S. Air Force and Navy photographic aircraft are continuing to range over North Vietnamese territory as a matter of what one source called military prudence.

DAMAGE REPAIR

Among other things, American reconnaissance craft are monitoring the progress made by the North Vietnamese in repairing damage inflicted by U.S. attacks before the air strikes were suspended.

Such reconnaissance tells American military authorities where the Communists are placing their priority efforts in re-constructing bridges, ferries and highways blasted by U.S. bombs and rockets.

This, in turn, will indicate targets likely to be hit first in any resumption of the bombing in the north.

American reconnaissance planes are believed checking on the volume of traffic moving along the routes leading toward South Viet Nam — traffic which for the first time since last May is free of harassment from the air.

LESS TRAFFIC

Until the bombing pause, road movement in daylight had been brought to a standstill and night traffic was sharply reduced.

Another mission of the U.S. photographic planes is to spot any new installations of surface-to-air missiles.

Offshore, U.S. Navy aircraft are maintaining a check on ships carrying cargoes to Hanoi, North Viet Nam's chief port. Sources said about 80 ships were in the month are unloading at Haiphong and that many of these ships are carrying decks of trucks and other military gear.

The bombing lull in the north is easing the load on U.S. carrier and Air Force pilots, although air operations against Viet Cong concentrations in South Viet Nam are proceeding undiminished.

In the five days just prior to the beginning of the pause, Air Force and Navy jets carried out nearly 600 combat sorties against targets in North Viet Nam.

A footnote: On the day before Christmas, in one of the last flights to the north, 5,000 Christmas gifts were parachuted for children in Communist North Viet Nam.

Ford Heiress, Husband Are Off to Acapulco

The bride, 22-year-old daughter of Ford Motor Co. board chairman Henry Ford II, wore a pink and white print suit and a beige topcoat. Her husband, 31, a Wall Street broker, wore a gray suit. The couple was married Tuesday.

They boarded a flight for Mexico City at Kennedy Airport, planning to spend the night in the Mexican capital before proceeding to Acapulco for a two-week stay. They planned to return Jan. 12 to take up residence in Manhattan.

OCC WINNER — This upside-down Christmas tree was a prize-winner in yule decoration competition at Oakland Community College's Auburn Hills Campus. Members of Sigma Alpha fraternity conceived the idea of the inverted tree suspended from the ceiling in the main lobby.

On Inn's New Year's Menu

Roast Lion Is 'Mane' Dish

DETROIT (AP) — A Lion and this one was weeded out, usually eats people, but this he said, adding: New Year's people will eat a Lion.

The Hillsdale Inn in suburban Plymouth will offer roast lion in wine sauce, soup, and dessert included, at $5.20 a head as part of its New Year's menu.

Robert J. Stremich, co-owner of the restaurant, suggests dry white wine with Lion. Stremich says roast lion looks and tastes just like veal.

SERVED BEFORE

The Hillsdale Inn served roast lion before on New Year's 1959. "It went over so well, that we thought we'd try it again," he said.

This year's lion comes from the Custer State Park in South Dakota. It was brought there two years ago from Tanganyika, Africa.

"They (the lion keepers) decided to cull their pride—that's what a herd of lions is called—

It Doesn't Pay Off

PARIS, Tenn. (AP) — Burglar who broke into a filling station here found that their efforts in the field of crime netted them little—only 25 pennies, in fact.

Fanfani Firm in Plan to Quit

He May Now Try to Oust Premier Moro

ROME (AP) — Italy teetered today on the brink of a new political crisis after Premier Aldo Moro accepted Foreign Minister Amintore Fanfani's resignation.

Moro had asked Fanfani to withdraw the resignation. Fanfani submitted it after he came under fire in connection with the report from his friend, Prof. Giorgio La Pira, of a peace feeler from Hanoi.

After Fanfani insisted he was determined to quit on Jan. 6, the premier accepted his resignation Wednesday night.

Political observers speculated that Fanfani either planned to stay in the background until the La Pira controversy cooled off or would work actively to supplant the premier. Although a member of the cabinet, Fanfani has long been one of Moro's main antagonists in their Christian Democratic party and in the center-left government.

HELPED COALITION

Fanfani pioneered center-left collaboration between the Catholic Christian Democrats and the Socialists in a government coalition which Moro now heads. Fanfani's followers have long considered Moro too cautious.

Fanfani had said he was resigning to dissociate himself from criticisms La Pira made of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Moro at a party at Fanfani's home. Earlier he had been under fire for passing along to the U.S. government La Pira's report of a peace overture from North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh. Hanoi repudiated the report.

La Pira admitted making the belittling comments but said he was joking and was quoted out of context. His remarks were reported by the right-wing weekly, Borghese. Fanfani's wife had arranged the meeting at her home between La Pira and a Borghese correspondent, reportedly because she hoped the critical magazine would be impressed by La Pira's sincerity. Fanfani was still in New York at the time, serving as president of the U.N. General Assembly.

The independent Rome daily Il Messaggero expressed hope that the furor would blow over without a government crisis and produce only a change in foreign ministers.

MIRRED MOTORIST — A torrent of water swirls around the car of a motorist stranded on a flooded street in the Los Angeles suburb of Woodland Hills yesterday. A tow truck was able to pull the car free. A driving rainstorm dumped over four inches of rain in the area.

Rainstorm Toll Put at Ten in California 'Rainmakers' Now Regulated

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A Burbank, Thousand Oaks and Fontana.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted scattered showers would continue through tomorrow at least, casting a cloud over Saturday's Tournament of Roses parade and Rose Bowl football game handbanded another 50 residences.

About 50 homes were damaged by flooding in the Ventura County communities of Oakview and Thousand Oaks. County workers handbanded another 50 residences.

Four hundred families were marooned temporarily in Calabasas when a bridge was washed out. Another 600-700 families near Fontana were isolated briefly by flooded roads.

Several hundred home owners around Malibu were isolated for hours when their only road, leading into the tract was covered by several feet of water.

Gusty winds up to 70 miles an hour forced closure of the ski lift at Mt. Baldy. High winds also ripped small boats from moorings at marinas from San Diego northward to the Point Mugu Navy Base.

CARS CAUGHT

Nine cars were swept from parking places on Havenhurst in the San Fernando Valley by floodwaters. A house in Malibu collapsed and firemen reported that another near Beverly Hills slid 15 feet down a hill.

Numerous trees were uprooted and many utility lines were reported snapped or damaged.

More than 13 inches of rain fell on the Angeles National Forest and 4-6 inches of rain battered such cities as Los Angeles, WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Science Foundation wants to know about anybody who plans to fiddle around with the weather. Under a new federal order rainmakers and other scientific experiments can be fined up to $500 for failing to tell the Agency of their operations.

The regulation goes into effect Jan. 1. It is aimed at improving the dissemination of information about weather modification and to prevent the contamination of areas where research is already going on.

The foundation said Wednesday that many scientific and commercial cloud seeding operations are carried out each year and there has been an "information lag" because no one has been keeping track of them.

Under the rule everybody who tries to change the weather must maintain a daily log of activities, submit quarterly reports to the Foundation, and keep records of such attempts for five years.

The regulation applies to any attempt to modify the weather by any means, including the use of large fires; release of gases, liquids, solids or electrically charged particles into the atmosphere; and dosing the atmosphere with shock waves from explosions or other sources.

Junior Miss Featured in Rose Parade

America's Junior Miss, Patrice Gaunter of St. Joseph, will be featured on the Eastman Kodak Co. float in the Tournament of Roses Parade at Pasadena, Calif., New Year's Day.

Miss Gaunter, 18, now a freshman at Marygrove College in Detroit, will ride the float with four state Junior Miss winners.

She won the national Junior Miss title after being selected as Michigan Junior Miss in the state contest hosted by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

MSU Offers Area Residents a Variety of Courses

"Minority Peoples" and "Legal and Criminal Psychology" are included in a full slate of courses in a variety of subjects offered by Michigan State University this winter to residents of the Pontiac Area.

Dr. W. James Giddis, MSU regional director for Southeastern Michigan, announced today that qualified adults, especially those working on advanced degrees or interested in improving professional competencies, can choose from 29 courses in seven subject-matter areas.

They will be offered at MSU's Graduate Extension Center on the Oakland University campus, he said.

Some of the classes begin Jan.

5, although most of them start the week of Jan. 10.

Registration for courses on the Oakland campus will be conducted on Jan. 5-6, from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., in Room 366, South Foundation Hall.

Adults can enroll in all area courses by mail prior to Jan. 4, and in courses other than those at Oakland at the first class sessions.

STRESS READING

"Methods in Reading at the Secondary Level" is one of 22 education courses scheduled for the Oakland campus.

Dr. Byron Van Rookel, noted reading authority from the MSU Department of Elementary and Special Education, will teach the reading course, which will offer materials and procedures for identifying the reading aptitudes and needs of the high school and college student.

Other education courses include the following: Seminars in Social and Philosophical Foundations of Education; Contemporary Philosophies of Education; Social and Emotional Behavior in the Classroom; Techniques of Counseling and Guidance; Group Procedures in Guidance; Principles of Curriculum Improvement; and Community College.

New Developments in Home Economics Education; Organization and Management of School Shops; Special Methods and Materials of Teaching Economic Education; and Graphic Presentation in Audio-Visual Instruction.

TALK ADMINISTRATION Supervision of Student Teaching; The Teacher and Administrative Leadership; Foundations of Administration; Theory and Organization; and Administration of Educational Institutions; Instructional Supervision.

Administration of Educational Programs; Pupil Personnel Programs; Psychological Measurements and Test Interpretation in Education; Workshop in Education; Instructional Materials for Elementary Teachers; Seminars in Education; Traffic Safety; and Seminars in Education; Community Relations.

In other subject-matter areas, there are courses in the History of Michigan, Speech for the Classroom Teacher, Consumer Economic Problems, Political Geography, and Modern American Society.

Canada Is Importing Red Sporting Goods

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada is importing Communist arms, but they're sporting goods, not the military kind. Dealers say Peking's air rifles are better than American models.

More than 16,000 rifles, shotguns, pistols, revolvers and air rifles were imported from Communist countries during the first half of 1963, according to government trade figures made public this week.

The total value was only $66,044, a negligible part of the $4,543,679 worth of such imports from all countries. The Communist arms came from Czechoslovakia, Red China, East Germany, Hungary and the Soviet Union. No Communist countries are listed among Canada's suppliers of nonsecret military weapons and ordnance.

One Ottawa merchant reported good sales of air rifles labeled "Made in the People's Republic of China" in English and with Chinese characters presumably saying the same thing. The Chinese air rifles are also prominently displayed in four other Ottawa shops.

They are remarkably accurate," said one gun fancier, "and they are being accepted by gun clubs for target practice."

Merchants said the Chinese rifles were more powerful and more accurate than the standard American air rifle. The Chinese rifle, they explained, uses shaped lead pellets while the American model uses solid round pellets.

The imports included 19 pistols and revolvers from Russia worth $1,616. Trade sources said most of these probably were collector's items although not antiques.

BARE HANDS — Barney Cipriani holds up the head of the 300-pound swordfish he and a companion captured with their bare hands yesterday at Miami Beach. The pair spotted the fish in shallow water and after several attempts got a rope on it and pulled it ashore. They surmised the fish had been washed in shallow water while recovering from a battle with a rod and reel fisherman.

Scholle Given State Conservation Post

LANSING UP — Gov. George Romney named political foe August Scholle to the State Conservation Commission yesterday.

Scholle, state AFL-CIO president, will succeed Robert Brevitz of Battle Creek for a one-year term expiring Dec. 31, 1965.

Brevitz was one of four Republicans on the commission which now, under government reorganization, can have no more than three members of one political party.

Republicans Carl Johnson, Cadillac; Robert McLaughlin, Detroit; and Harry Whiteley, Rogers City, were reappointed for two, three- and four-year terms respectively.

E. M. Laitala of Hancock, present commission chairman and a Democrat, was renamed to a one-year term.

DISCUSS POST — Romney said he had discussed the appointment with Scholle for the first time yesterday.

Romney said Scholle had served ably on a governor's conservation study group in 1963 and had divorced politics from conservation business at that time.

"I'm confident he will discharge his responsibilities in the same manner," said Romney. Romney's predecessor, Democrat John Swainson, appointed Scholle to the same commission in 1961.

NO CONFIRMATION — But the then-Republican-controlled Senate refused to confirm him after Scholle had served for 14 months.

All of yesterday's appointments are subject to Senate approval but Romney said he expects no trouble on any of them.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Administration has opened the door for U.S. doctors and health scientists to treat patients and participate in educational activities in five Communist countries, including Communist China and North Viet Nam.

The State Department announced yesterday it was removing travel restrictions for doctors and scientists wishing to visit the countries, to which travel by U.S. citizens has been strictly controlled for years.

In addition to China and North Viet Nam, the policy also will apply to Cuba, North Korea and Albania.

Officials described the move as a "unilateral act" by the United States and said it had no connection with the stepped up U.S. campaign for peace in the Viet Nam war.

To the Agriculture Commission Romney: Reappointed Democrat Richard Stout, Marshall, to a one-year term.

4-YEAR TERM — Reappointed Republican Blake C. Knirk of Quincy to a four-year term.

Appointed Republican Charles Donaldson Jr. of Daggett to a two-year term succeeding Donald Barden of South Haven.

Appointed Republican Mrs. Seth Tompkins of Old Mission to a three-year term succeeding Edward J. Wright of Saginaw.

The remaining agriculture vacancy will go to a Democrat for a one-year term.

Romney said present commissioner Mrs. Kay Slek, an Iron Mountain Democrat, was not likely to be renamed since Donaldson is also from the Upper Peninsula.

To the Corrections Commission Romney reappointed: Democrat Max Biber, Detroit, present chairman, for two years.

Republican Duane L. Waters, Manistiquette, three years. Republican Mrs. H. R. Crane, Ann Arbor, four years. Remaining to be filled are one-year corrections terms for one Republican and one Democrat.

Steiger, at Peak of Career, Left Town to Seek Renown

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Sometimes it pays to get out of town. Case in point: Rod Steiger, who stands at the peak of his 14-year film career though he hasn't made a film in a Hollywood studio for half that time.

Steiger owns a house at Malibu but seldom makes pictures all over the map. Among his recent ones: "Doctor Zhivago," filmed in Spain; "A Time of Indifference," "Hands on the City" and "A Man Came," based on the life of the late Pope John, all in Italy.

"I made 'The Loved One' here, but not in a studio," said Steiger, splitting a hair. He played Joy Boy in the neophiliac comedy which filmed entirely on locations.

Steiger also made "The Pawnbroker" in New York, and that has provided the principal thrust to his career. He won best-actor honors at the Berlin film festival and is likely to be in Academy contention.

"The Pawnbroker" has prompted Hollywood producers to view Steiger in a new light: as a starring lead, not just a character actor.

"That's very pleasing," he admitted. "But even more pleasing is the fact that we did a picture like 'The Pawnbroker' after all the wise guys in the industry said it was impossible."

Such was Steiger's belief in the film that he performed at far less than his usual fee: $25,000 plus 2 per cent of the take. "But you have to make concessions now and then, to get what you want," he explained.

"In 14 years of films, I have always progressed, even though I've done bad pictures. It was always with a purpose."

He illustrated with "Unholy Wife," a bomb he made with Diana Dors during the dying days of RKO. His purpose in making it was to raise his salary to a new high.

"It worked," said Steiger. "I finished a picture at RKO on a Friday and everyone said 'So long, Rod.' When I came to the new one at the same studio on Monday, I was earning big money and they said, 'Good morning, Mr. Steiger.'"

At 40, the actor's looks are beginning to catch up to his age. He has always seemed mature, a fact that almost broke up his romance with actress Claire Bloom when it started. One of her first questions after they met: "How old are you — 41?"

Steiger was 34 at the time. The last acting the Steigers did together was "Rashomon" on Broadway in 1959.

"We're professional enough that we don't seek roles for each other in scripts that are submitted to us," he explained. "Besides, Claire is a star of considerable prominence, and I am of equal status. How often do you find vehicles with equal roles for an actor and actress?"

Long-Time FBI Agent Retires

Shot It Out With Top Gangsters in Nation

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Samuel W. Hardy, who shot it out with some of the nation's toughest gangsters, retires today after 41 years as an agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Hardy, now 65, gave up a promising law career and the life of a gentleman rancher at Casper, Wyo., to become a special agent of the then embryonic FBI in 1922.

The stories about Hoover's 400-man agency intrigued Hardy as he traveled between his downtown Casper law office and his small cattle ranch 10 miles away.

"Law enforcement, matching my intelligence, training and knowledge against the criminal element, fascinated me," Hardy recalled.

LIFE ON LINE — But he had no idea then that he would lay his life on the line several times, that he would participate in the investigation of nearly every major kidnapping case in the 1920s and 1930s, or that he would cases in all states except Alaska.

Moreover, he never dreamed in 1925 that he would stay with the FBI for 41 years.

In 1931, Hardy was one of scores of FBI agents assigned to investigate the kidnapping of 20-month-old Charles A. Lindbergh, son of the famous flyer. The child was found dead and Bruno Richard Hauptmann, a German immigrant, was tried and executed.

The Lindbergh case preceded a wave of kidnappings of well-to-do persons, and other forms of lawlessness.

BIG TIME HOODS — John Dillinger, Roger Touhy, Baby Face Nelson, Doc Barker, Alvin Karpis, Homer Van Meter, Eddie Green and James Meredith, some of whom lived temporarily in St. Paul, Minn., became nationally known underworld figures.

Hoover assigned Hardy and seven other special agents to a full-time kidnap squad. Hardy was with the squad when it solved the mid-1930s ransom kidnappings of William Hamm Jr., and Edward Bremer, sons of St. Paul brewing families.

Says Premier to Retire Soon in Australia

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Australia's Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies is expected to announce his retirement about the third week of January, the Melbourne Herald reported yesterday.

Its Canberra correspondent, Harold Cox, predicted that Treasurer Harold Holt will succeed Menzies, 71, and Labor Minister William McMahon will take over the treasury portfolio.

John McEwen, leader of the Country party in the Liberal-Country coalition, will stay as deputy prime minister and retain the important trade portfolio, Cox said.

The only factor that could delay Menzies' timing of the announcement was a proposed Commonwealth conference on Rhodesia, said Cox. In January, Menzies will have been prime minister for a record 18 years, 5 months.

Holt, 57, was first a member of Menzies' Cabinet in 1940. Besides the treasurer's post, which he has held since 1958, he has been twice minister for labor and national service, minister for immigration and acting minister for air.

He became deputy leader of the Liberal party and leader of the House of Representatives in 1956. He is a lawyer.

Junior Editors Quiz on WHALES

QUESTION: Do whales blow water through their noses?

ANSWER: The spout of a whale is not solid water, but air containing water vapor. Remember that a whale is a warm-blooded animal.

It breathes the oxygen of the air just as we do. Floating on the surface of the sea, a whale fills its lungs with fresh air as it plunges down, the whale holds its breath.

It can do this a great deal longer than we can. But, after a time, it must come to the surface again for more fresh air.

The old air will have become very much heated in the whale's lungs and also saturated with water vapor. On the surface, the whale opens its nostrils, and the old air rushes out suddenly, pout!

But the temperature of the outside air will be much colder than the whale's heated breath, so this breath condenses, or becomes a cloud of visible vapor, such as caused the old time whalersmen to sing out: "That she blows!"

In our picture, Clara is imitating a whale's spout by puffing out warm breath on a cold day, making her breath visible in the same way a whale does his.

FOR YOU TO DO: Spout like a whale on a cold day. Look at a kettle boiling on the stove. It is spouting steam like a whale, too, and for the same reason.

Transit Strike Looms in NY

Preparations Made by City, Businesses

NEW YORK (AP) — New York City faces the possibility of starting the new year with a crippling subway and bus strike as the deadline nears with no contract settlement in sight.

"We're headed for a strike and the people might as well know it," said Michael Quill, head of the 33,000-man Transportation Workers Union (TWU).

The union says it will bring New York's transit facilities to a halt at 5 a.m. Saturday unless its demands are met. The Amalgamated Transit Union, representing 1,800 bus drivers, is negotiating jointly with the TWU.

As the strike deadline draws closer, the TWU has not yielded its position and the Transit Authority (TA) has made no offer, according to sources close to the bargaining talks.

PREPARATIONS

As the stalemate deepened, the city and businesses prepared for the possibility of a strike.

Businesses mapped private bus routes and organized car pools to get employees to work. The police department will go on a 12-hour day and the department of hospitals will cancel all nonemergency functions.

City officials predict "momentary traffic jams" may result if the transit workers strike. The Transit Authority plans to seek an injunction in State Supreme Court to block the strike under a state law forbidding strikes by public employees.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen said employees of the Long Island Rail Road would operate the commuter trains only as far as Jamaica in Queens in the event of a strike picket line.

The Long Island trainmen rejected a proposal by the railroad management that they operate special schedules in the event of a transit strike.

The unions are demanding a four-day, 32-hour workweek, a 30 per cent increase in pay, retirement at half pay after 25 years and other benefits.

The authority estimates the demands would cost $680 million over a two-year period.

Overhaul of Tax Withholding System Eyed as Means to Curb Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you get a higher-than-average pay check, the government may soon be taking a bigger bite out of it in the form of increased income tax deductions.

This would be the principal effect of a proposed overhaul of the income tax withholding system. It also would mean lower deductions for those in the lower income brackets.

The change would substitute one of three graduated withholding rates for the present flat rate. It would not change income tax rates.

Treasury officials decline to discuss details. Presumably, the decision on whether to propose the change will be made by President Johnson. The ultimate decision will rest with Congress.

There is a possibility that the administration may use the withholding tax as an economic weapon just as it did in 1964. However, this time it would be employed to take more funds out of the hands of consumers to reduce the threat of inflation.

In 1964, the withholding rate was set lower than necessary in order to put more money in the hands of consumers quickly and eliminate a potential business letdown.

The amount of this "braking power" would not be great — perhaps $1 billion to $3 billion — but government economists may conclude that it is the handiest anti-inflation weapon available. Administration officials believe it would be more acceptable to Congress than an income tax increase.

Last year, middle and upper-bracket taxpayers complained that the 1964 withholding was too low — many were left with sizeable tax bills when settlement time rolled around.

ACTUAL TAX
Regardless of the economic effects, a Treasury official said the primary objective of any change would be to bring the withholding rate more closely in line with the actual tax.

Despite limited information, little unofficial pencil work gives some idea of how the proposed graduated rates might work.

The present withholding rate on a weekly pay check is computed by allowing $13 for each of the employee's personal exemptions and taking 14 per cent of the remainder.

Take the case of a $10,000-a-year man who is married and has two children: his weekly pay would be about $192. Subtract $55 — a $13 dependency deduction for each of the four members of the family.

This comes out to $139.60 per week. However, most employers simply apply the rate specified for various salary ranges in tables supplied by the IRS. The table gives a figure of $20.10 to fit salaries ranging from $190 to $200 per week.

In most cases, then, the $10,000-a-year man would have $20.10 deducted weekly.

Over the year, he'll have $1,045 deducted from his pay. Assuming that he uses the standard deduction, his tax will be $1,114 and he will owe $69 to the government at the end of the year.

Here's how the graduated scale might work: instead of allowing $13 per week per dependent, the figure could be set at $14.50. On the remainder, the deduction may be computed at 14 per cent of the first $50, 18 per cent of the next $50 and 20 per cent of the remainder.

If this scale is applied to the $10,000-a-year man in the example given above, he would pay $22.80 per week or $1,185 for the

The Old Boy Picks 'Em

Major Hoople Likes MSU

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE, Master of the Mixing Bowl

Egad, friends, the bowl game committees have indeed done an outstanding job of match-making this year. An accomplishment I would—ahem—be proud to call my own!

No less than seven of the nation's top ten collegiate powers—Michigan State, Arkansas, Nebraska, Alabama, U.C.L.A., Missouri and Texas Tech—will participate in the six big games over the New Year's weekend.

Faced with the almost impossible task of selecting the winners, I ordered a crash program instituted to complete my new computer, the XY2 36 HOOP 2, in time for my bowl forecast.

My good friend, Bill Freyre, on whom my very existence depends, did a sketch of me and the electronic marvel to accompany this article. Sometimes Bill tends to make me appear too poorly. I must speak to him about it—kaff-kaff!

The scientist responded to the challenge and I have been able to combine the computer's reports with those of my associates in the field and have compiled for you the most accurate forecast possible! (Ed. note: Oh, yeah?)

Now on with the forecast, dear readers.

Dec. 31

GATOR BOWL

Texas Tech 27, Ga. Tech 16

The Red Raiders of Texas Tech, led by the redoubtable

heh-heh!

SUN BOWL

T.C.U. 27, Texas Western 15

The sunny setting at El Paso will be just the thing to bring out the best in the Horned Frogs as they over-whelm the Western boys!

Jan 1

ROSE BOWL

Michigan State 25, U.C.L.A. 8

The Big Ten champs will prove their right to the No. 1 ranking. The rugged Uclans will give their usual good account of themselves, but will find it hard going against the stingy

Spartans who have yielded but 62 points in 10 games. The smell of roses will make them even more miserably—huh-rumph!

COTTON BOWL

Arkansas 25, L.S.U. 10

Okey Bayou, our esteemed Louisiana correspondent, regretfully reports his beloved Tigers will go down "frightin" before the high-scoring Razorbacks.

SUGAR BOWL

Florida 18, Missouri 9

The Hoople Three-Star special of the day will be a sweet triumph for Ray Graves and his unranked 'Gators as they upset sixth-rated Missouri—hak-kaff!

ORANGE BOWL

Alabama 25, Nebraska 25

The best game of the week-end will match the all-around class of Alabama against the crushing attack of the Cornhuskers, which has picked up yardage on the ground at the rate of 290 yards per Saturday. When the moon goes down over Miami, fourth-rated Alabama will move ahead of third-ranked Nebraska.

Venturi Suing Insurance Firm

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Golfers Ken Venturi filed a $15,000 suit against Security Benefit Life Insurance Company today.

In an action brought in Superior Court in this San Francisco Peninsula city, Venturi charged that the firm had refused to pay the bills for a year-long disability resulting from a nerve injury to his hands and wrists.

The suit said Venturi's insurance policy was issued in February 1962 and still active at the time of the injury, October 1964.

It asked $12,000 in disability payments and $4,000 for medical costs. Both, the suit asserted, were covered by the policy.

Ice Tourny Title for Michigan Tech

BOSTON (AP)—Michigan Tech exploded four goals in the final period Wednesday to overcome a 2-1 deficit and defeat Boston University 5-2 for the championship of the Boston Arena Christmas Hockey Tournament.

In the first game, All-American Mel Wakabayashi set up three goals as Michigan's Wolverines blitzed Northeastern 6-2. Michigan Tech's first line of Garry Milroy, Colin Patterson and Wayne Weller scored four of the five goals, two of them by Weller.

Hillsdale Cage Champ

FLINT (AP)—Hillsdale topped Flint Junior College 108-88 Wednesday night to win the championship of the Flint Holiday Basketball Tournament. Marion of Indiana edged Flubborn of Ohio 67-62 in the consolation round.

Kowalczyk Best in '56 Rose Bowl

It was just 10 years ago that Michigan State's University Spartans last visited the Rose Bowl in Pasadena.

One of the players who made the trip with the Spartans in 1956 was Walter Kowalczyk, a bruising halfback, who went on to earn KOWALCZYK All-America honors at MSU and enjoyed a pro career with the Philadelphia Eagles and Dallas Cowboys.

Kowalczyk, now retired from the football game, is an insurance representative and makes his home in Rochester.

For his performance in the 1956 Rose Bowl, won by MSU, 17-14, Walter was named the "Player of the Game," an award given by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

Only one player has won the award twice. Bob Schloredt, Washington All-American, turned the trick by sharing the honor with teammate George Fleming in 1960 and he won it all in 1961.

OTHER WINNERS

Packers' Starr Ready to Play

Bart Tests Passing Arm in Practice

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Bart Starr expects to play Sunday and that is bad news for the Cleveland Browns. It isn't official yet, but Titletown, U.S.A., is bursting with optimism about its No. 1 quarterback back at the helm.

Starr turned up Wednesday for the first time since Sunday's injury and found he could throw the ball. His damaged back is not entirely healthy, but it is beginning to come around.

"I plan on playing," said Starr in the clubhouse after the Packers resumed work for the National Football League championship game following a two-day vacation.

World News Briefs

8 Die as India Police Fire on Rioters

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Eight workers were killed when police opened fire Wednesday night on rioting strikers at India's first atomic power project under construction at Tarapur, 60 miles north of Bombay, officials announced today.

The shooting took place after police failed to subdue the rioters with heavy sticks and tear gas. About 50 policemen and eighteen strikers were hurt and 36 strikers were arrested.

The strike, by about 4,000 workers, began Dec. 9 and involves union representation.

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A high Indian government source says Communist China is supplying Pakistan with large quantities of arms and ammunition and has equipped a new army division with medium artillery.

ROME (AP)—The "pedestrian island" in downtown Rome was cut in half today after the first three days of the experiment put shopowners on the warpath and caused traffic chaos outside the zone.

The area from which private cars are banned during peak hours was reduced from a 10-block-long stretch to an area five blocks long.

Shopowners, complaining of reduced business, still were not satisfied.

WIGAN, England (AP)—The Irish Sea has delivered a crate of Braille books almost to Joseph Gannon's doorstep 20 years after they were sent to him in Java.

The crate was sent in 1945 from Washington, D.C., for delivery to Gannon, then a blind prisoner of the Japanese. The crate of books was lost at sea, possibly in a convoy ship sunk in the western approaches to the British Isles.

On Christmas Eve, a fisherman found the crate washed ashore at Preston, in northwest England, only 15 miles from Gannon's home in Wigan.

Gannon said the books apparently are in good condition.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union produced 91 million metric tons of steel in 1965, exceeding its modified target but still short of the original goal, the central statistical board reported today.

State safety departments, including extra traffic patrols, including the use of national guardsmen in some areas, would be in full force to prevent accidents. Most states cancelled leaves and days off for traffic policemen.

CITE STUDIES

The Chicago Motor Club cited studies of fatal accidents that indicated drivers had been drinking or were intoxicated prior to the accident.

Police Check Larceny at Waterford Station

Waterford Township police are continuing their investigation in the apparent larceny of $2,300 from Slade's Standard Service, 1365 W. Huron.

Police were told that $1,150 in cash, a $500 savings bond and $650 in checks were taken from a safe in the building sometime Tuesday afternoon.

Another few inches and we would have plummeted to the bottom."

Niven said the incident happened when he and his wife were driving to their home at Vaud. One section of the road had collapsed but heavy snow covered the gap.

Although very large babies might be expected to be injured in delivery, he said, "actually our finding indicates that babies over 9 pounds have the lowest mortality rate, and that the greatest risk in prolonged pregnancy is among those of less than 5 1/2 pounds."

The risk for infants of prolonged pregnancies continued to be worse than the normal group for at least the first two years of life, Dr. Zerdling said. He added that congenital malformation and complications such as fetal distress were noted more frequently in the prolonged pregnancy group.

Star, Ex-Wife Seek Name of 'Edwards'

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A joint petition was filed yesterday in Superior Court by actresses Kathy Kersh and actor Vince Edwards, television's Dr. Ben Casey, asking that they and their three-year-old daughter be known legally as Edwards.

Edwards, 36, whose legal name is Vincent E. Zolno, and Miss Kersh, 23, received an interdictory divorce last November. The daughter, Devera, was born last Tuesday.

In the petition, filed by attorney Simon Tash, the couple claimed legal confusion would be avoided if use of the name Edwards were legalized.

Taus said the couple has not reconciled although Edwards hopes they will.

Miss Kersh and her 6-pound, 8½-ounce daughter were reported doing fine in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Anxious U.S. Safety Officials Caution Holiday Celebrators

By United Press International Americans begin celebrating the long New Year's holiday today as anxious safety officials cautioned motorists not to add to last weekend's record fatality rate.

The National Safety Council, declaring the Christmas holiday traffic death toll of 721 "a national disaster," estimated that 360 to 450 persons would die in traffic during the 72-hour period from 6 p.m. local time today until midnight Sunday.

During last year's New Year's weekend, also three days long, 474 persons were killed in traffic accidents, the highest New Year's toll on record.

About 360 deaths could be expected in the three-day period, but not a holiday, the council said.

An additional 17,000 to 21,000 persons will suffer disabling injuries in traffic accidents during the three days, compared to 18,000 for a comparable non-holiday period, the council predicted.

MAJOR FACTORS

Howard Pyle, council president, said driving too soon after drinking and driving too fast for road conditions were major factors in previous New Year's accidents.

A survey of night clubs in major cities indicated that New Year's Eve celebrations would average about $50 per couple. The tab includes dinner, cover charge and three to five drinks per person.

The federal cabinet tax will be lifted Dec. 31, and most club owners said they would not include the tax on New Year's Eve tabs. However, many said the price would not be reflected in lower tabs because of increases in food prices and service.

State safety departments, including extra traffic patrols, including the use of national guardsmen in some areas, would be in full force to prevent accidents. Most states cancelled leaves and days off for traffic policemen.

Korean Vet Craves Action

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—Bernard Dal Fitch is a Korean war combat veteran. His dark eyes are intense, his face grim. He wants to fight in Viet Nam.

Because the Army turned down his efforts to re-enlist, Fitch said he destroyed his draft card.

He said he hopes now to go to Australia and enlist in the army of that country which has a small contingent of troops in Viet Nam.

Ross Blumenthal, chief assistant district attorney in Omaha, said the Justice Department today was considering whether to prosecute Fitch. The maximum penalty for mutilating a draft card is a $10,000 fine, five years in prison, or both.

"If Uncle Sam doesn't want combat soldiers, maybe the Australians will," Fitch, 31, said.

He added he was discharged in 1955 after five years of service including one in Korea.

Princess Escapes to Find Love

SYDNEY (UPI)—Princess Nada Neoula, 27, lived in a 40-room palace and had a fortune of over $1,000,000. But she gave it all up for love.

The princess arrived here today aboard the liner Galileo without her husband, Prince Ahmed Ben Abdul Rahman, 62, uncle of King Faisal of Saudi Arabia. She was with the man she hopes to marry.

He is a Lebanese, S. Sham-mah, who has an importing and exporting business in Barcelona and Beirut.

Flashing a 15-carat diamond engagement ring, the princess said she had appealed to King Faisal to grant her a divorce under Moslem law.

She said that despite the luxury and her two children—nine and seven years old—she was a virtual prisoner in a palace.

"Now I am looking forward to the life of a normal housewife," she said.

Her children are with her husband.

Area Driver on Probation in Road Death

A West Bloomfield Township man was placed on two years probation yesterday for a traffic death in August.

In sentencing Earl L. Gruber, 47, of 7428 Sweetbriar, Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams also ordered him to pay $300 court costs.

Gruber pleaded guilty to negligent homicide Dec. 10 in the death of Ward S. Byrne, 54, of 8428 Galside, Commerce Township.

Byrne was killed Aug. 10 after he had stopped to help a woman motorist whose car had run off Commerce Road east of North Elder in West Bloomfield Township.

Five teen-agers at the scene also were struck by Gruber's car when it swerved off the road.

Gruber had been charged with manslaughter but entered his guilty plea on the lesser offense after his jury trial started.

Say Commissioner's Nephew Is at Scene

A 45-year-old Pontiac man, was jailed for investigation of arson last night after allegedly setting fire to a house at 39 Lake.

James Young, 29 Lake, was apprehended by Pontiac police about 8 p.m. as he ran from the smoke-filled structure.

Occupant of the house is Geraldine Young, the suspect's former wife.

Police said a gasoline-filled half-gallon jug with a cloth stopper was found at the house where flames did about $800 damage before being put out by Pontiac firemen.

The occupant told police she was ironing when her ex-husband allegedly broke in through the front door.

CALLED POLICE

Frightened, she said she set the iron on the board and ran to call police.

Assistant Fire Chief Charles Marion, who directed firemen at the scene, said the blaze was caused both by ignition of the board by the hot iron, and a gasoline-soaked chair in the living room.

Patrolmen Larry R. Fenelley and Freeman L. Stallions caught Young and handcuffed the suspect at the front of the burning house.

The structure is owned by Mrs. T. Warren Fowler, of 59 Lake. Young is a nephew of the Fowlers, according to police.

U.S. Churchman Not Allowed to Stay in Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP)—The Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal bishop of California, was refused entry to Rhodesia and told yesterday to return to London by the next plane. He just arrived in Salisbury from London.

Bishop Pike was met by Bishop Kenneth J. F. Skelton of Bulawayo. It was understood that the San Francisco churchman planned to tour Rhodesia to study racial problems.

But immigration officials at the airport refused to permit the bishop to enter the country, declaring him a "prohibited immigrant." He was then held incommunicado at the airport pending the departure of the London plane.

Bishop Pike is known to be an advocate of racial equality.

FROM ORBIT TO AIRPORT—One goal in current space planning is for a space vehicle that can leave its orbit, re-enter the earth's atmosphere at speeds faster than sound and maneuver to a precision landing in any jet airport. A prototype of such a vehicle is pictured above, being weighed and balanced by technicians at Martin Company's Baltimore plant. This seven-foot model is the first "bolder-plate" replica of the PRIME lifting body. It is one of four that the Air Force will boost into orbital speed and altitude from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., then bring down for reentry test. It is expected to be recovered near Kwajalein Island in the Pacific.

Registration Slated at OCC

Registration of new students for the term beginning Jan. 6 at Oakland Community College will be Monday and Tuesday at both campuses.

Orientation sessions for newcomers are slated Wednesday at both the Highland Lakes and Auburn Hills campuses.

Pre-registration of present students for the new term began last month. Today marked the deadline for payment of fees.

German Pullwits, captain of the freighter, denounced the striking crewmen as Communists. They countercharged that the ship was not paying wages or feeding its crew.

Brazilian authorities plan to hold the ship here until Monday to give the navy time to complete its investigation.

Then it will be allowed to proceed to Fortaleza, Brazil, destination of its cargo of 7,000 tons of wheat.

Mimi's Stage Poodle, Lili, Prone to 'Littering' It Up

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Mimi Hines is leading her poodle, Lili, who's 12, on stage with her in "Funny Girl" since taking over the Barbra Streisand role. (Barbra had a wolfhound.) Lili, who's been on stage before with Mimi, has had 20 pups.

As Mimi's husband Phil Ford put it, "Every time Lili sees a sign that says 'Drop litter here,' she does."

Nancy Sinatra Jr.'s had several dates with Michael Caine, the cockney all the girls are crazy about these days. "The Ipcress File" — Mia Farrow dined at Voltaire with the Salvador Dali's (Dali's hair is longer than her chop-top). Night before Mimi was with her mother Maureen O'Sullivan and Sammy Davis and Roddy McDowall at Arthur.

Glenda Grainger, the beautiful Britisher, says a lot of Broadway cowboys are worrying everyday about "the lass roundup."

Art Carney, his reconciled-wife and wife Agent Bill McCaffrey took off happily for Miami Beach to TV-tape a reunion with Jackie Gleason. Art, completely on the wagon and recovered from a breakdown, seems at his best. Connie Towers, split from Gene McGrath, showed up at a party given by Angie Dickinson's father-in-law and mother-in-law, with Tom Torrance.

Cindy Adams who says she massaged Sukarno's feet and also gave him a scalp rub as part of her method of interviewing him for the biography she wrote, is going back with her husband Joey Adams to take him a special copy of the book.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

Ella Kazan says "Tim's true — he didn't marry anybody. . . . Sharman Douglas begged NBC's Robert Sarnoff to send her to Saigon as a reporter. . . . Gamble Benedict's reported in Nevada and observers don't think Gamble went to gamble. . . . Pat Henry at the Copa says his wife got her hair teased: "went in a girl of 5-3 and came out 6-foot-4."

Ava Gardner sang with the guitarist at the Chateau Madrid "Sound of Music" has completely paid off its huge costs with record grosses. . . . Rex Harrison's holiday gift to friends: Wine from his Portofino vineyards. . . . Gene Kelly has a Paris date with BBardot to discuss a Gershwin film musical.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Conversation at the Rainbow Rm. "And what will your son be when he finishes college."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Among other things that'll be exchanged the week after Christmas will be the glares the morning after New Year's Eve parties. —Monty Hurst, Dallas.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "He who thinks he has no faults has another." —Anon.

EARL'S PEARLS: Sid Allen wishes he could remember his 1964 resolutions. He had such a wonderful time breaking them. Audiences at "Royal Hunt of the Sun" fill out cards noting what dominant thing made them see the show. One man wrote: "The dominant thing that brought me here was my wife."

Roses Tourney Has 60 Floats

'It's a Small World' Is Theme of Event

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The nationally televised 77th yearly Tournament of Roses on New Year's Day will present: Sixty floats carefully fashioned of innumerable flowers of infinite hue and variety and keyed to the theme "It's a Small World."

Walt Disney riding as grand marshal with Mickey Mouse seated beside him and Donald Duck, Pluto and 24 other Disney cartoon characters walking or riding behind.

Tenney's bands made up of 2,500 musicians wearing uniforms of many colors and including such diverse aggregations as the Tenri City, Japan, High School Band and the Victoria Beekeeper Band from the British Columbia.

PLENTY BEAUTY
Beauties, they'll include London's Lesley Langley, 21, who recently won the Miss World title in her home city; America's Junior Miss, Patricia Gaender, 18, St. Joseph, Mich., and her four attendants from the four corner states of the nation.

Another among many will be the tournament's own queen, Carolee Cota, 19, 5-foot-6½, brown-haired, green-eyed sophomore at Pasadena City College.

Many months went into the planning, with thousands of hours devoted to the welded-rod and chicken-wire construction of floats, finally covered with myriads of gorgeous blossoms. The Tournament is the traditional prelude to the Rose Bowl football game. Opponents this year are Michigan State University and the University of California at Los Angeles.

More than 7,000 postcards were received from all 50 states bearing theme suggestions before Tournament officials settled on "It's a Small World."

Toll Road Restaurants to Offer Free Nightcaps

WOODBRIDGE, N.J. (AP) — Motorists on New Jersey's Turnpike or Garden State Parkway New Year's Eve can stop in at restaurants along the road for a free drink — coffee.

Both toll roads are offering their annual safety nightcaps, with the Parkway adding a choice of beer or milk and toast or doughnut.

'Romance Is Rare High in the Air'

BOSTON (AP) — An authority on the subject says the romantic notion that airline stewardesses meet and marry hardly comes to bud above the clouds.

Miss Helen Chase, one of the country's most experienced stewardesses, says romance rarely comes to bud above the clouds.

The male passenger who thinks his airline ticket is a pass to woo the pretty stewardess has the odds stacked against him.

LONG SERVICE

Miss Chase — red haired and attractive — has been a (North-east Airlines) stewardess for 20 years. She easily could lie about her age of 46 and get away with it.

She's logged three million miles in 19,000 hours in the

'Goldfinger' Star Given Boost by Jew

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Gert Frobe, famous for his portrayal of "Goldfinger" in a James Bond movie, got an assist yesterday from a Jew in Vienna.

Since Frobe admitted that he had once been "a small Nazi party member," his films have been banned in Israel.

The Israeli Embassy said the Jew, Mario Blumenau, reported:

"After my father was arrested and sent to a concentration camp where he later died, Frobe hid me and my mother and supplied us with ration coupons and thus probably saved our lives."

The embassy said Blumenau's affidavit was being forwarded to the Foreign Ministry in Israel. Blumenau said he spoke up because of the campaign against Frobe.

Teens Problem in Saigon, Too

Related by Detroit
Back from Viet Post

DETROIT (AP)—Teen-agers in Saigon also give the police trouble.

Charles E. O'Brien, 59, retired Detroit policeman home on leave from a State Department police post in South Viet Nam, said so Wednesday.

In Saigon the teen-agers who run out of line call themselves "cowboys," O'Brien told an interviewer.

"They ride along on bikes and snatch bracelets and purses," he said. "They even snatch earrings from girls with pierced ears."

DIFFERENCES

O'Brien, an officer here for 27 years, said there are differences in being a policeman in Saigon "but not a lot."

He illustrated by describing the police watch on Viet Cong suspects.

Once the police picked up 12 suspects carrying 18 loaves of bread, he said. Inside the bread were antibiotics destined for Viet Cong troops.

"We watch movement," O'Brien said. "It's like a beat patrolman seeing Mrs. Murphy's laundry out every Monday except one. He knocks on her door. She's got the flu."

Ex-Johnson Adviser

to Join Institute Staff

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—Former presidential adviser and Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. will join the staff of the Institute for Advanced Study next month on a temporary basis.

Schlesinger will remain on the staff for at least one term, a spokesman said, adding that his duties would be restricted. Details were not disclosed.

'Agent 007' Misses Latest Assignment

LONDON (UPI)—Actor Sean Connery, who plays the mysterious agent James Bond, caused a mystery of his own last night by failing to show up for the premier of his latest film, "Thunderball."

More than 1,000 fans waited in vain in the rain on the promise of theater officials that Connery would definitely be appearing at the London Pavilion despite the fact he also missed the premier of three previous Bond films.

Rail Building Hit by $100,000 Blaze in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A five-alarm fire caused an estimated $100,000 damage at the New York Central's old roundhouse on Detroit's west side Wednesday.

The fire was in a building originally used as a roundhouse and now serving as a diesel repair shop, the NYC said.

Firemen said sparks from a diesel engine or a workman's torch may have ignited a blaze on the roof. Some equipment was damaged.

West Virginia Unhappy Record Holder in Gob Piles Category

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)—New England had its power failure, Florida and Louisiana have hurricanes, and California has forest fires and mud slides. But West Virginia has the most gob piles.

In fact, what well may be the world's largest gob pile is located at Quinwood, in the southeastern section of the state near the Virginia border. It is miles long, tall as a five-story building, 100 feet wide—and has been burning for half a century.

What are gob piles? According to Gov. Hulett C. Smith, they are "miserable mounds of smoldering fumes that smell like Hades."

Gob piles are coal mine refuse banks and West Virginia has more than 500 within its borders. About half are burning. The others could ignite at any time.

PROVE IRRITATION

This situation is a source of irritation to the state officials whose job it is to keep the piles in check. The coal refuse banks, many of which have been burning for 50 years, contribute to West Virginia's air pollution problems, mar the scenery and kill nearby vegetation.

"And there have been cases," says West Virginia Health Director N. H. Dyer, "where children playing on the crusts of the burning gobs have fallen through into the fiery interior and were incinerated."

"From a pollution standpoint," he said, "gob piles don't constitute a major health hazard unless they're located near a community. But they're much more than just a nuisance."

One aspect of the battle is that they're nearly indestructible. These unwanted byproducts of the coal industry have increased in number and size during the years. The need for higher quality coal will mean new and larger gob piles.

MANY MATERIALS

"Gob piles usually are mixtures of many materials and elements," said Carl Beard, chairman of the West Virginia Air Pollution Control Commission. "An average coal refuse bank is composed of broken timbers, rock, discarded machinery parts, slag, grease-soaked rags and decaying matter."

Beard says a mature gob pile produces sulphur dioxide, which kills vegetation; hydrogen sulphide, and carbon monoxide which occasionally kills people. He cites instances during recent winters where persons seeking the warmth of the gob pile have been asphyxiated.

The state requires all coal companies to post "no trespass" signs around their gob piles. The companies also must register all banks on their property.

"Keeping people away from gob piles is one of our biggest problems," Beard said. "Most piles are accidentally ignited by persons living in the area, although a few companies occasionally will ignite the banks deliberately in order to obtain 'red dog slag' a residue which makes an excellent road base material."

While several companies have temporarily extinguished their gob banks by tightly compressing the waste material, there is no permanent method within the state's economic means.

Traffic Safety Hints:

No. 12. Stay in the proper lane when approaching an intersection. Drive at a safe speed for conditions and be alert for improper turns of other drivers, cars stopping suddenly in front of you, pedestrians and traffic from cross streets. Glance to the left, then to the right and then to the left again. Another check to the left is necessary because you will have to stop sooner if a car is coming from that direction. When crossing a one-way street it is still important to check both ways. You could be surprised by a wrong way driver or a bicycle rider.

State Farm Co. to Raise Car Insurance Rate

Auto Club Also Has Asked for Hike; Blame High Accident Trend

DETROIT (AP)—A 16.2 per cent increase in its auto insurance rates, effective Saturday, was announced yesterday by State Farm Mutual Insurance Co.

State Farm, which has about 450,000 policyholders in Michigan, said it was reluctant to increase its rates but that it was forced to do so because of the rising auto accident trend and its loss of more than $500,000 in Michigan the first half of this year.

Simultaneously, the Automobile Club of Michigan said it has applied to the State Insurance Commission for approval of a rate increase. The Auto Club sells insurance through its Detroit Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange.

The Auto Club did not state the amount of increase it has requested. Both State Farm and the Auto Club increased their auto insurance rates earlier this year.

State Farm's new increase will average an estimated 110 to 115 for Detroit drivers and less for suburban and outstate motorists.

DEPLETED TREND

Both State Farm and the Auto Club deplored the rising trend of traffic accidents.

"We don't like this increase any better than anyone else," a State Farm spokesman said, "but there appears to be no end in sight."

"When the public merits its driving ways and reduces the accident toll, we can do the same with insurance rates."

Paul R. Erickson, general manager of the Auto Club's insurance exchange, said the exchange has suffered a loss for a fourth consecutive year in a "worsening" auto accident situation.

The Auto Club, the state's largest car insurer, has 613,000 policy holders.

Coordinator Is Hired for Coroner System

Oakland County today hired a retired Michigan State Police captain to coordinate the function of the county coroner system at an annual salary of $10,000.

Howard A. Whaley, 51, of Okemos will start work Monday in the newly created post designed to strengthen the present coroner system.

He will work under County Health Director Dr. Bernard D. Berman who was instrumental in selecting Whaley for the job.

Whaley retired from the State Police two years ago after 26 years service. He held the rank of captain and was chief of detectives at the Lansing post when he retired.

His state police service included 13 years at the Pontiac post.

Whaley has extensive investigative experience in homicides and directed probes into many such cases.

Homicide investigation experience was the main requirement set by county officials when the new job was authorized this week.

Whaley's duties will include working with area police departments and as liaison with the prosecutor's office in cases of unusual deaths.

After retiring from the state police, Whaley worked until last August as chief investigator for the Michigan Employment Security Commission's Detroit office and, since then, has been in sales work.

A graduate of Vincennes University in Indiana, Whaley, his wife and their two children live in Okemos, near Lansing. He said he plans to move to Oakland County in the near future.

Driver Killed in Crash

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Samuel Grout, 58, of Grand Rapids was killed today in the collision of his auto and a semi-trailer truck at an intersection on the city's far southeast side.

Homicide investigation experience was the main requirement set by county officials when the new job was authorized this week.

Injuries Claim City Motorist

Involved in Mishap Two Hours Earlier

A 74-year-old Pontiac man died at Pontiac General Hospital about 5:30 p.m. yesterday from injuries suffered two hours earlier in a collision at North Perry and Madison.

Dead is Raymond B. Hollingsworth, 590 E. Kennett.

Pontiac police said Hollingsworth, alone in his car, was turning left from Perry when he collided with a truck driven by Lloyd A. Bray, 33, 6015 Tappan, Independence Township.

Bray's truck rebounded from the impact and collided with a car driven by Joseph A. Rabideau, 55, 701 Joslyn.

Neither Bray nor Rabideau was injured, according to police, who said no charges would be filed.

Find Bodies of 11 Murdered by Reds; Air Lull Continues

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The Viet Cong struck today in and around Saigon, within the shadow of the big U.S. Marine base at Da Nang and near the Cambodian frontier.

The stepped-up demonstration of their prowess came on the seventh day of the moratorium in the U.S. air war against the Communist north.

New evidence of Communist terror tactics was seen in the disclosure by a U.S. military spokesman that three captured U.S. Marines and eight South Vietnamese soldiers had been murdered after their capture in Quang Ngai Province on Dec. 16.

The bodies were found in shallow graves and appeared to have been shot repeatedly in the head at close range.

and said one of the victims—whose nationality was not disclosed—had been struck in the head with a sharp instrument.

In Saigon, a Vietnamese journalist whose pro-American articles brought him threats from the Viet Cong was shot to death this afternoon as he rode home by bicycle.

FIRST NEWSMAN

Police said the newsman, Tu Chong, 35, of the daily newspaper Chinh Luan, was the first Saigon newspaperman the Communists had assassinated. The killer escaped.

Before dawn, 500 Viet Cong drove a South Vietnamese militia company from a government stronghold only 4 miles from the outer defenses of the big Marine base at Da Nang, 200 miles northeast of Saigon.

It was the third time in 10 weeks that the Communists had overrun Hill 60.

Three companies of Vietnamese rangers tried to move in on the hill this afternoon but were repulsed.

LBJ Stays Silent During New Moves

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson is maintaining a public silence while awaiting the outcome of new efforts to promote peace in Viet Nam.

Joseph Laitin, assistant White House press secretary, said Johnson had no official visitors on his schedule for today.

The chief executive was expected to spend much of the time at his desk.

Laitin was bombarded with questions about the surprise trips yesterday by U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg to the Vatican and roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman to Warsaw.

"All that I can do is confirm that they are there," he said.

When a reporter asked if it wasn't obvious the two missions fell into a pattern, Laitin said:

"Gentlemen, I can add no detail to what you seem to know already."

NO ADMISSION

May Get Soaked New Year's Eve, Says Forecaster

It looks like a wet New Year's Eve for Pontiac area residents with little chance for trying out the new Christmas skies.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts partly cloudy and little change in temperature, the low 38 to 45 tonight.

Cloudy and mild with a chance of scattered showers is the forecast for tomorrow with highs soaring to 48 to 55. Partly cloudy and mild with a chance of light rain is predicted for New Year's Day.

South to southwest winds at 10 to 25 miles per hour are expected to increase to 15 to 30 miles late today.

A mild 37 was the low mercury reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. By 1 p.m. the recording had jumped to 47.

Rev. A. N. Reid is minister of the Newman Church.

AUBURN HEIGHTS

The New Year's Eve service at the United Presbyterian Church of Auburn Heights will provide time for meditation, as well as singing and preaching. The time is 11 p.m.

All members of the Auburn Heights community are invited. Pastor F. William Palmer said.

ORCHARD LAKE

The Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian, will be open on New Year's Eve from 7 p.m. until 1 a.m. for meditation and prayer.

Pastor Edward D. Archard will lead brief prayer services at 8 p.m. and 11:45 p.m.

Watchnight will open at 10 p.m. at New Hope Baptist Church with the Rev. George

Nations Visited by Harriman and Goldberg

Envoys Pay Calls at Vatican, Warsaw, Then Keep Traveling

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's peace offensive pushed ahead today as a hint of mystery surrounded the international travels of two U.S. ambassadors.

Presidential envoys W. Averell Harriman and Arthur J. Goldberg paid surprise calls at Warsaw and the Vatican, and were reported ready to carry the U.S. peace bid to other capitals before returning to America.

Goldberg, the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, met for one hour with Pope Paul VI yesterday after arriving secretly aboard a presidential jet.

He told newsmen today that Johnson shared the Pope's desire to move "this grave conflict from the battlefield to the bargaining table where ultimately it will have to be resolved."

He also described his trip as an "effort to reemphasize the U.S. willingness to do all it can for peace," and said he would report the Pope's views only to the President.

Goldberg was to leave Rome tonight after talks with Premier Aldo Moro and other Italian officials.

DESTINATION UNKNOWN

Roving Ambassador Harriman arrived unannounced in Warsaw aboard a U.S. Air Force jet and promptly met with Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki.

The U.S. embassy said Harriman, at Johnson's request, gave the Polish government Washington's views on the Viet Nam situation.

Today, he spent two hours with Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka, but told newsmen only that their session included talk of the past.

OLD FRIENDS

"We are old," he said. "We knew each other during the war."

Later in the day, Harriman left for Belgrade, capital of Communist Yugoslavia, in his quest for ways to end the fighting in Viet Nam.

Yugoslavia is leader of a group of nonaligned nations favoring Viet Nam negotiations. Poland has relations with Communist North Viet Nam and is on the three-nation control commission dealing with Viet Nam.

There was speculation that Harriman also might visit Hungary, another third-party channel to Hanoi.

The peace quest by the two envoys was the first since the

The Pontiac Press

Men, women and children will participate in services at Pontiac area cathedrals and chapels tonight, marking the arrival of a new year.

Congregations will ring out the Old and ring in the New Year with the showing of films, singing of carols, musical programs and prayer.

At midnight, families will be in services of Holy Communion.

FIRST BAPTIST

Guest artists at the annual New Year's Eve Musicals will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garlock of Jones University, Greenville, S.C. The program will begin at 8:30 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Garlock directs the university brass ensembles which have won national recognition. A composer and arranger of sacred music, he plays the trombone and is a tenor soloist.

A soprano soloist, Mrs. Garlock teaches piano at the university with particular emphasis in sacred music.

Also appearing on the program will be Rev. A. Clair Hess, director of music for the Radio Bible Class of Grand Rapids.

Refreshments will be served during the evening.

ing carols and have a time of meditation. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

GALVARY BAPTIST

The Rev. and Mrs. John Toroni will present a musical program during the watchnight service at Galvary Baptist Church, Waterford Township.

Rev. Mr. Toroni will offer selections on the violin and Mrs. Toroni will sing. The program will begin at 9 p.m.

Members of the church will also be featured in the musical. Following the service, refreshments will be served in Fellowship Hall.

College students home for the holidays will have an opportunity to speak of their experiences.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Young people of Youth for Christ will present the film, "The Tony Fontaine Story," at 7:30 p.m. in Pontiac Northern High School on New Year's Day.

The film, in color, concerns the life of Tony Fontaine, TV star and recording artist.

The youth for Christ Singers are scheduled for 9 p.m. Sunday in the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church with music by Phyllis Gehman.

Terry Walker will lead group singing.

SYLVAN LAKE

Special services in Sylvan Lake Lutheran Church beginning at 7:45 p.m. will feature the singing of Christmas carols. The devotional part of the evening will concern the litany of the Holy Name of Jesus and the Office of Compline.

"New Year's Day," said Pastor Robert Sheets, "is actually a Holy Day in the church year and called The Feast of the Circumcision and the Naming of Jesus."

There will be a spoken Eucharist at 10 a.m. New Year's Day.

ALLIANCE

The annual watchnight service at the Alliance Church, M59 at Cass Lake, Waterford Township, will start at 9:30 p.m. and continue to midnight.

A luncheon, pictures of events happening in the church during the year, testimonies and group singing will be featured with Communion and prayer at the midnight hour.

Lunch will be served in Fellowship Hall of the parsonage.

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
LANSEING (AP) — The State Apportionment Commission was to begin balloting on Senate and House districting plans today, less than 38 hours before a State Supreme Court deadline for action.

On a basis of Wednesday's commission session there was no concrete evidence agreement was near.

Democrats hinted individual they'd consider Republican ideas about controversial Senate districts in the Muskegon and Bay City-Saginaw areas.

PLANS ORDERED
The State Supreme Court has ordered the commission to produce by the first stroke of 1966 new districting plans for the House and Senate.

Democrat Henry Dongvillo dropped a new Senate plan onto the commission table—on with the smallest yet spread between the largest and smallest districts. The difference: 62 persons in districts each with more than 205,000 residents.

Republicans led by William Hanna renewed their claim that a certain level of popula-

Progress Slight in Gunpowder Strike Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — Talks in the gunpowder strike that threatens some ammunition supplies to U.S. forces in Viet Nam continue today amid signs of growing government impatience.

Slight progress was reported early this morning when discussions broke up about 3 a.m. EST. They were to resume six hours later.

After an implied federal deadline failed to break the deadlocked negotiations yesterday, the Army announced it was reactivating a mobilized plant to make munitions.

"It looks like we've still got a lot of work to do," Chief Federal Mediator William E. Simkin said of the talks between three striking unions and the Olin Mathieson Co. plant in East Alton, Ill.

The plant has been making gunpowder used in machine gun, rifle and tracer bullets and 20 millimeter cannon shells — all primary ammunition used by U.S. fighting men in the war against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

NEED 6 MONTHS

Although the Army said it was immediately starting reactivation of its Badger gunpowder plant in Baraboo, Wis., — the past eight years — the Pentagon said it would take six months to get it into production.

The plant is operated under contract by Olin Mathieson.

Federal officials would not say how low gunpowder stocks have dwindled in the 30-day East Alton strike, but warned of a critical shortage unless there was a settlement soon.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said yesterday the national interest demanded an immediate settlement before the war was out, but the talks were on into today, dashing earlier optimism.

Wirtz said that in "theory" U.S. forces in Viet Nam could run out of ammunition eventually unless there was a settlement, but that he expected an end to the strike before any shortage developed.

City Trash Collectors to Pick Up Yule Trees

Christmas trees will be picked up with regular trash collections, according to Samuel A. Baker, sanitation supervisor, city department of public works. All residents need do, said Baker, is to place Christmas trees at the curb along with the rest of their refuse.

Cong Step Up Viet Attacks

pinned down by automatic weapons and mortars. Heavy rains prevented air strikes, but artillery pounded the Viet Cong.

In the western jungles of Chau Doc, along the Cambodian border, the Viet Cong tore into a Vietnamese company at an outpost, inflicted heavy casualties and came back an hour later to hit this one and a militia post in the vicinity.

They poured 50-caliber machine gun fire in a steady down, then slipped away with some parting shots at flare planes.

Communist forces were on the move on the waterways 15 to 25 miles southeast of Saigon itself but were caught by three armed U.S. Army helicopters.

In a running battle, the helicopters sank five sampans and one barge and killed eight Viet Cong, a spokesman reported.

The reds renewed mortar and infantry attacks in Quang Ngai province 60 miles south of Da Nang after overrunning the district town of Mien Long Wednesday. Artillery and tactical air strikes were directed against the Communists. Reports said the area threatened with Viet Cong.

Vietnamese police disclosed that a Viet Cong band ambushed a government unit in the Thu Duc district 5 miles from Saigon and killed a squad chief and another Vietnamese yesterday.

TWO ATTACKS

Two other Vietnamese were killed when the Viet Cong made two attacks on a strategic hamlet near Binh Cham with automatic weapons and explosives yesterday.

A serious terrorist incident was narrowly averted when police discovered four miles in a crowded bus depot in Cholon, Saigon's Chinese quarter.

With the bombing pause nearly a week old, a U.S. military spokesman reported: "There is no change at all in the situation on the hill in the bombings of North Viet Nam."

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's South Vietnamese government, wrestling with the Viet Cong offer of a four-day truce for the Lunar new year celebration next month, announced a drive to encourage Viet Cong defections during the national holiday known as Tet.

The official news agency reported that the government not only will proclaim its own cease-fire shortly but will also scatter millions of safe conduct passes in Viet Cong areas during the holiday to get Communist troops to come to the government's side.

'Panorama of Germany' Next Travel Film Subject

BIRMINGHAM — The Community House will start the new year with a film trip to Germany Jan. 7 and 8.

The travel film series will bring Alfred Wolff to the Community House podium to narrate his color film at 3 each evening.

Wolff describes his new film as a "panorama of the many-sided German scene—a bit of the modern, a bit of the old, a bit of fairy-tale land and a bit of art theater pageantry."

The film lecturer began his travels at the age of three and has since averaged about 50,000 miles a year.

Educated at the University of Wisconsin, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and European schools, Wolff was a flight instructor and airline executive.

EDUCATIONAL FILMS

He produces educational films as well as travelogues.

Preceding "German Panorama," the Community House will serve an authentic German dinner.

Reservations are necessary for the 6 p.m. dinners and must be made before Jan. 6.

However, tickets for the travelogue can be purchased at the door.

Michigan's First Lady will speak at the Jan. 6 meeting of the Woman's Mission Society of First Baptist Church.

Mrs. George Romney will discuss "Reaching for Higher Tools" for the 1:30 p.m. program.

GRAM

Mrs. Romney's numerous activities include the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Women's Association, Junior Group of Goodwill Industries, Detroit Museum of Art Founders Society, United Community Services, Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, Michigan Child Study Association and the Theatre Arts Club of Detroit.

Harriman, Goldberg Travel to Nations

Americans was backed by the halt since Christmas in the bombing of North Viet Nam targets and by behind-the-scenes Washington efforts to probe for any peace feelers from Hanoi.

Still, their efforts came in face of a chilling blast from the No. 1 target, Hanoi, capital of Communist North Viet Nam.

North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh yesterday denounced "U.S. imperialist aggressors" and, in a reply to a message from the Pope, declared "the U.S. leaders want war and not peace."

"The talks about unconditional negotiations made by the U.S. president," Ho charged, "are merely a maneuver to cover up his plan for war intensification and extension in Viet Nam."

U.S. diplomats rated Ho's statement as harsh, uncompromising and unchanged from his stand in the past.

Nevertheless, they refused to accept the public North Vietnamese assurance as a final response to U.S. diplomatic efforts now under way.

Some U.S. sources figure that in private soundings, Hanoi might be more likely to come through with a reply which could lead to negotiations.

Yule Gift Exchange Due to End Monday

Most area stores will exchange merchandise up to closing time on Monday, Jan. 3, according to the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

Area merchants generally allow about a week after Christmas for exchanges, a chamber spokesman reminded area residents today.

Parents Stunned

Triplets Beat the New Year

DETROIT (UPI) — A happy new year arrived five days early for the Mr. and Mrs. Richard Malinakis of Detroit Tuesday when Mrs. Malinakis gave birth to triplets.

Stunned by the births, the parents are frantically coming to grips with the fact that they will need, plus two more baby cribs and bassinets and other items.

"I don't know what we'll do about cribs and bassinets, we just have one of everything, and most of the girls I know are using theirs," said 27-year-old Mrs. Malinakis.

The 97-pound mother said she knew of the triplets, two girls and a boy, four days before their premature birth when X-rays were taken.

Israel's Woman Foreign Minister Is Retiring

JERUSALEM, Israel, (AP) — The world's only woman foreign minister, Golda Meir of Israel, is retiring at 67 after 10 years in office.

Mrs. Meir told a meeting of Parliament's Foreign Affairs and Security Committee Tuesday that she is quitting.

Authoritative sources said she would be succeeded by Deputy Premier Abba Eban, former ambassador to the United States and to the United Nations.

Mrs. Meir was appointed foreign minister in June 1966, capping a career that took her from a Milwaukee schoolroom to the major capitals of the world, FLED TO U.S.

Born in Kiev, Russia, on May 3, 1898, she fled with her parents father and the rest of the family to the United States when she was 8. She attended primary and high schools in Milwaukee, Wis., and became a grade school teacher there. She also did library work in Milwaukee, Chicago and New York.

Taking an active interest in Zionism and socialism, she went to Palestine in 1921 with her husband, Morris Myerson. There, she worked in a kibbutz (farm cooperative), helping raise poultry by day and studying Hebrew and Arabic by night.

Her talent for organization came quickly to the fore, and she became active in Histadrut, the general federation of Jewish labor. She expanded it from a trade union into an all-around enterprise that now dominates

Israeli industry and commerce. Palestine labor at world congresses, and busied herself with she became a leader of David Ben-Gurion's Mapai (Labor) party. For two decades she battled various British government in efforts to liberalize restrictions on Jewish immigration to Palestine, represented by the Soviet Union.

Scientist Says Mars Photos Show Canals

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — An inner 4 spacecraft earlier this year, Dr. Clyde W. Tombaugh of the New Mexico State University Observatory told the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science that heretofore unexplained dark streaks in the Mariner 4 pictures coincide with markings he has seen in telescopic studies of the planet.

"I know there are others who say they can't see canals on Mars," he said at a briefing prior to his talk, "but I'd like to see them have their eyes tested."

Tombaugh said he believes the so-called canals are faults or fractures in the planet's crust, several miles wide. Their darkening and fading may be due, he said, to escape of hot gases which melt a thick layer of frost, and feed vegetation.

The oases or dark smudges where the lines intersect, he speculated, may be asteroid-impacted craters in which moisture gathers and promotes growth of some hardy plant, such as moss. SHOWS MAP

Tombaugh displayed a hand-drawn map showing lines and smudges he has found in the area covered by Mariner 4, and gave this rundown on the markings in various frames:

Picture 3: a large dark area coincides with an oasis recorded on the Erebus canal, and an extension coincides with a short segment of the canal.

Picture 6: a crater area in the middle of the frame coincides with an oasis on the Saus canal.

astronomer Percival Lowell of Flagstaff, Ariz.

Picture 12: A long dark area coincides with a portion of the Melles canal.

Picture 14: A large crater coincides with an oasis at the junction of the Melles and Tragedes canals.

Picture 15: three dark patches coincide crudely with the juncture of three unnamed canals.

Dr. John A. Ryan, Douglas Aircraft Co. research physicist, advanced a theory that the yellow clouds in Mars' thin atmosphere may be dust stirred up by whirlwinds like the dust seen on earth's deserts.

Michigan Briefs

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
WASHINGTON — Some 3,702 students from low-income Michigan families will be able to stay in college with the aid of federal work-student grants totaling $811,511, reports the U.S. Office of Education.

Distribution of more than $11 million federal aid funds for fish and wild life restoration in the 50 states has been announced by Interior department.

Michigan's share: fish, $319,447.08 (third highest) wildlife, $548,031.74.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards is urging cities to fight neighborhood blight by enacting strong ordinances prohibiting junk automobiles in yards and streets.

Michigan senior farmers may have a chance to beautify highways under a National Farmers Union plan patterned on the four-state $1,451,600 beautification project in rural counties in Arkansas, New Jersey, Oregon and Minnesota.

Allotments of nearly $242 million will be made to states during the year for federally assisted programs of vocational and technical education, the U.S. Office of Education announces. Michigan's share: $6,438,336; vocational: $1,037,441; work-study.

Job Bonus: Bogus Bills

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP) — A $50 bill blew by a construction project. Then another. Then a $20 bill.

That started workers on a lively hunt Wednesday that turned up a shoebox stuffed with $40,000 of the bills. The money turned out to be bogus, the Solano County sheriff's office said.

The FBI is investigating.

Police said a gasoline-filled half-gallon jug with a cloth stopper was found at the home where flames died about $800 damage before being put out by Pontiac firemen.

The occupant told police she was ironing when her ex-husband allegedly broke in through the front door.

Area Break-In Suspects Are Arraigned

Three men traced through a matchbook cover found at the scene of a break-in in West Bloomfield Township were arraigned yesterday.

One is a brother of the victim.

Bobby Gray, 7355 Drake, reported the break-in at his home Tuesday night when he returned from a vacation. A $150 shotgun and $900 in coins were stolen, he said.

His brother, James M., 28, of Northville, was arraigned yesterday before Novi Justice of the Peace-Emergency E. Jacques Jr. Also charged were Fred Hill, 26, of Plymouth, and Raymond Spencer, 52, of Northville.

U.S. Churchman Not Allowed to Stay in Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — The Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal bishop of California, was refused entry to Rhodesia and told yesterday to return to London by the next plane. He just arrived in Salisbury from London.

Bishop Pike was met by Bishop Kenneth J. F. Skelton of Bulawayo. It was understood that the San Francisco churchman planned to tour Rhodesia to study racial problems.

But immigration officials at the airport refused to permit the bishop to enter the country, declaring him a "prohibited immigrant." He was then held incommunicado at the airport pending the departure of the London plane.

Bishop Pike is known to be an advocate of racial equality.

Actor Too Violent, Says Wife in Suit

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Broderick Crawford, who won an Academy Award for his performance in "All the King's Men," has been sued for divorce by his wife of three years, who charged he "strikes and abuses me."

Mrs. Joan Tabor Crawford, 35, charged yesterday in her Superior Court suit that Crawford, 54, "becomes violent" at times.

Stricken Ship Towed to Port

SALVADOR, Brazil (UPI) — The Brazilian navy towed the crippled Argentine freighter Misiones into this northeastern port last yesterday. Authorities removed 14 striking crewmen from the ship and prepared to fly them back to Buenos Aires.

The Misiones' engines failed 280 miles south of Salvador, perhaps because of sabotage. Brazilian investigators reported that the fuel in its tanks had been cut 40 per cent with salt water.

German Pullwitz, captain of the freighter, denounced the striking crewmen as Communists. They countercharged that the ship was not paying wages or feeding its crew.

Brazilian authorities plan to hold the ship here until Monday to give the navy time to complete its investigation.

Then it will be allowed to proceed to Fortaleza, Brazil, destination of its cargo of 7,000 tons of wheat.

Registration Slated at OCC

Registration of new students for the term beginning Jan. 6 at Oakland Community College will be Monday and Tuesday at both campuses.

Preregistration of present students for the new term began last month. Today marked the deadline for payment of fees.

Say Commissioner's Nephew Is at Scene

A 45-year-old Pontiac man, nephew of City Commissioner T. Warren Fowler, was jailed for investigation of arson last night after allegedly setting fire to a home owned by Fowler's wife.

James Young, 29 Lake, was apprehended by Pontiac police about 8 p.m. as he ran from the smoke-filled home at 39 Lake.

Occupant of the home is Geraldine Young, the suspect's former wife.

Police said a gasoline-filled half-gallon jug with a cloth stopper was found at the home where flames died about $800 damage before being put out by Pontiac firemen.

The occupant told police she was ironing when her ex-husband allegedly broke in through the front door.

Assault Fire Chief Charles

Marion, who directed firemen at the scene, said the blaze was caused both by ignition of the board by the hot iron, and a gasoline-soaked chair in the living room.

Patrolmen Larry R. Feneley and Freeman L. Stallions caught Young and handcuffed the suspect at the front of the burning home.

Fowler and his wife Ethel reside at 59 Lake, a few houses down from the home occupied by Geraldine Young.

8 Die as India Police Fire on Rioters

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Reduced business, still were not satisfied.

Eight workers were killed when police opened fire Wednesday night on rioting strikers at India's first atomic power project under construction at Tarapur, 60 miles north of Bombay, officials announced today.

The shooting took place after police failed to subdue the rioters with heavy sticks and tear gas. About 50 policemen and eighteen strikers were hurt and 36 strikers were arrested.

The strike, by about 4,000 workers, began Dec. 9 and involves union representation.

Prolonged Pregnancy Is Risk for Baby

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Prolonged pregnancies double the risk for babies, a specialist told the American Association for the Advancement of Science yesterday.

Reporting on a study of 20,000 births that came three or more weeks past the expected term, Dr. Michael A. Zwerdling of the University of California School of Public Health, said: "The most striking finding is a doubling of both the fetal death rate and the neonatal — within 30 days after birth — death rate in prolonged pregnancies."

Although very large babies might be expected to be injured in delivery, he said, "actually our finding indicates that babies over 9 pounds have the lowest mortality rate, and that the greatest risk in prolonged pregnancy is among those of less than 5 1/2 pounds."

The risk for infants of prolonged pregnancies continued to be worse than the normal group for at least the first two years of life, Dr. Zwerdling said. He added that congenital malformation and complications such as fetal distress were noted more frequently in the prolonged pregnancy group.

Star, Ex-Wife Seek Name of 'Edwards'

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A joint petition was filed yesterday in Superior Court by actress Kathy Kersh and actor Vince Edwards, television's Dr. Ben Casey, asking that they and their three-year-old daughter be known legally as Edwards.

Edwards, 36, whose legal name is Vincent E. Zolno, and Miss Kersh, 23, received an interlocutory divorce last November. Their daughter, Devera, was born last Tuesday.

In the petition, filed by attorney Simon Taub, the couple claimed legal confusion would be avoided if use of the name Edwards were legalized.

Taub said the couple has not reconciled although Edwards hopes they will.

Miss Kersh and her 6-pound, 8-ounce daughter were reported doing fine in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Area Driver on Probation in Road Death

A West Bloomfield Township man was placed on two years probation yesterday for a traffic death in August.

In sentencing Earl L. Gruber, 47, of 7423 Sweetbriar, Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams also ordered him to pay $300 court costs.

Gruber pleaded guilty to negligent homicide Dec. 18 in the death of Ward S. Byrne, 54, of 8435 Galside, Commerce Township.

Byrne was killed Aug. 10 after he had stopped to help a woman motorist whose car had run off Commerce Road east of North Elder in West Bloomfield Township.

Five teen-agers at the scene also were struck by Gruber's car when it swerved off the road.

Anxious U.S. Safety Officials Caution Holiday Celebrators

By United Press International

Americans begin celebrating the long New Year's holiday today as anxious safety officials cautioned motorists not to add to last weekend's record fatality rate.

The National Safety Council, declaring the Christmas holidays traffic death toll of 721 "a national disaster," estimated that 300 to 400 persons would die in traffic during the 78-hour period from 5 p.m. local time today until midnight Sunday.

During last year's New Year's weekend, also three days long, 474 persons were killed in traffic accidents, the highest New Year's toll on record.

About 360 deaths could be expected if the three-day period were not a holiday, the council said.

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — Bernard Dal Fitch is a Korean war combat veteran. His dark eyes are intense, his face grim. He wants to fight in Viet Nam.

Because the Army turned down his efforts to reenlist, Fitch said he destroyed his draft card.

He said he hopes now to go to Australia and enlist in the army of that country which has a small contingent of troops in Viet Nam.

Russ Blumenthal, chief assistant district attorney in Omaha, said the Justice Department today was considering whether to prosecute Fitch.

Area Driver on Probation in Road Death

A West Bloomfield Township man was placed on two years probation yesterday for a traffic death in August.

In sentencing Earl L. Gruber, 47, of 7423 Sweetbriar, Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams also ordered him to pay $300 court costs.

Gruber pleaded guilty to negligent homicide Dec. 18 in the death of Ward S. Byrne, 54, of 8435 Galside, Commerce Township.

Byrne was killed Aug. 10 after he had stopped to help a woman motorist whose car had run off Commerce Road east of North Elder in West Bloomfield Township.

Five teen-agers at the scene also were struck by Gruber's car when it swerved off the road.

Gruber had been charged with manslaughter but entered his guilty plea on the lesser offense after his jury trial started.
