OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

Two OU campus highlights — the beauty of Beer Lake and the renowned Kresge Library.

In 1957, the late Alfred G. and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre Meadow Brook estate to Michigan State University to establish a college in Oakland County.

Oakland University was founded in 1957 as a branch campus of MSU, with 570 first-year students. By the mid-1960s, it had evolved into a medium-sized university and in 1970 became an independent, state-assisted university. It now offers more than 70 undergraduate programs and more than 30 graduate programs, and enrolls about 12,000 students.

OU's distinct instructional programs — the college of Arts and Sciences, School of Economics and Management, School of Engineering and Computer Science, School of Health Sciences, School of Human and Education Services and School of Nursing — offer a diverse curricula of general education and career preparation courses. Virtually all of these courses are taught by faculty members, not teaching assistants.

The Honors College, a division of the College of Arts and Sciences, meets the educational needs of highly motivated students. The Division of Continuing Education meets the needs of nontraditional adult learners through evening and extension programs.

Academic support facilities include such notable entities as the Eye Research Institute, the only major eye research center in the United States not affiliated with a medical school; the Meadowbrook Health Enhancement Center, which provides health maintenance/health improvement and cardiac rehabilitation community outreach programs; and the Center for Robotics and Advanced Automation, a unit of the school of Engineering and Computer Science that utilizes high technology manufacturing methods.

And OU's professional arts programs annually attract thousands to the campus. OU has received national recognition and local kudos for its Meadow Brook Theatre, Meadow Brook Art Gallery, Meadow Brook Hall and Meadow Brook Music Festival, the summer home of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

OU is located 25 miles north of Detroit, in the small town of Rochester. OU's modern campus, which houses the university's many academic and public service programs, is located on a beautifully wooded site — much of it still undeveloped.

OU President, Dr. Joseph Champagne

OU ATHLETIC STAFF

DR. PAUL HARTMAN

Athletic Director

In his career as an athletic director, one which has spanned three decades and covered four different institutions, Dr. Paul Hartman has been one to make visible changes wherever he has been.

As athletic director at Plymouth State College in New Hampshire, his first position, Hartman started a football program with enthusiastic student support. Fifteen years later, a running back named Joe Dudek put that program on the national map with his bid for the Heisman Trophy. In his second post, at Florida International University in 1974, Hartman began a women's golf program. One of the first women's scholarship award winners was Pat Bradley, who later became the first $2 million winner on the Ladies' Pro Golf Association tour. Hartman did not begin the basketball program at his next stop, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, but one of his athletes there, Terry Porter, drew national attention as an NBA draftee from a non-scholarship school.

The programs Hartman has instituted at Oakland University are not as visible as some at his former schools, but they have been plentiful. The department began a Varsity "O" Club for former athletes, brought back baseball as a varsity sport, and made several changes in the Lepley Sports Center — ranging from a refurbishing of the locker rooms and equipment area to renovation of the offices and the addition of the Pioneer Lounge, which is used for conferences and athletic receptions.

"I don't think any one person does one certain thing," said Hartman. "I depend on the president to answer our needs, so maybe the best thing I have done is to adequately translate our needs to the president.

"There are many ways to be an administrator and I choose to be one that's more of a facilitator. I look at my job as more of a service job. I try to keep people happy because I believe a happy family, or a team concept, is healthy."

Previously Hartman had developed additional summer camp programs, created a new season ticket plan and instituted a Hall of Honor for exceptional Pioneer athletes, as well as introduced the first athletic team banquet. Additionally since Hartman's arrival, there has been a large changeover in the coaching staff, as well as in the department's support staff.

Now in his sixth year at Oakland, the veteran athletic administrator still sees more changes for OU on the horizon.

Hartman, Oakland's third director of athletics, succeeded Corey Van Fleet in June of 1983. The only other AD was OU's founding father of athletics, Hollie Lepley.

A graduate of Ohio State University and a native of Columbus, Ohio, Hartman lives in Rochester with his wife, Jane.

TOM FORD

Head Athletic Trainer

Tom Ford begins his first full year as Oakland University's head athletic trainer. Ford joined the OU staff in January. Ford came to Oakland from Cypress Creek High School in Houston, where he was the school's head trainer for five-and-a-half years. Ford went to Cypress Creek after earning a Master of Science degree in Physical Education with a specialization in athletic training from the University of Arizona. He earned a bachelor of science degree from Ball State University. Ford, who has served as a trainer at sports festivals and Olympic Training Centers, will travel to Bulgaria in February as a part of the US contingent to the Winter World University Games. Tom and his wife, Kathleen, live in Rochester with their sons Tom, Jr. and Travis.

RON FORBES

Business Manager

Entering his 19th year at Oakland, Ron Forbes serves as business manager for the athletic department. A graduate of Western Michigan University and a native of Royal Oak, he also handles ticket distribution and receipts for the Pioneers.

ANDY GLANTZMAN

Sports Information Director

In his fourth year as Sports Information Director is Andy Glantzman. Andy joined the Pioneer staff in August, 1985 after six years in the University of Detroit's Sports Information Office. This Brooklyn, New York native has won six publications awards from CoSIDA, including three last year. Glantzman earned a bachelor of science degree in athletic administration from St. John's University (NY) and a Master of Business Administration from U of D. He and his wife, Kim, live in Redford.

TOM VanVOORHIS

Marketing and Promotions

Tom VanVoorhis handles marketing and promotions for the athletic department. Among his duties are selling advertising for Pioneer publications, arranging special game and sports camps promotions and scheduling speaking engagements for the coaching staff. This retired General Motors public relations and marketing employee is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

GARY PARSONS

Head Coach

Since his arrival at Oakland University seven years ago, soccer coach Gary Parsons has developed the OU squad into a perennial national power. The Pioneers have been selected to the NCAA tournament five of the last six years and averaged almost 15 wins a year during Parsons' tenure.

"It all comes down to the players," Parsons said. "If you can't get good players, you're not a good coach. We bring in good players, show them a system, and then demand it out of them. We give them something we know is successful if they work hard."

Parsons, who had been to four straight Division I tournaments as an assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, almost led OU to the playoffs in his first year with a 14-4-1 record and the number one ranking in the Mideast Region. He upgraded the schedule and shored up some weak areas for his second season and Oakland became one of the top soccer powers in the nation.

His 1982 squad, featuring All-American Lou Vulovich and high-scoring Morris Lupenec, lost in the national semi-finals to Florida International University. The following season the Pioneers returned to the final four, suffering a 1-0 loss to Seattle Pacific. Both losses were on the road to the eventual national champion.

After two tough semi-final losses, the Pioneers returned to the national tournament for the third consecutive season. This time, Seattle Pacific needed a penalty kick shootout to oust the Pioneers. In 1985, OU missed out on the playoffs despite a 14-3-2 mark which included a 13-1-1 record in the last 15 games. This just fueled OU's fire in 1986.

That year's run to the national finals included a pair of 1-0 home playoff wins against Lock Haven University and Davis and Elkins College. These games sandwiched a stunning 2-1 win on the road against Gannon University, a team the Pioneers had never beaten before. The playoff run ended in Seattle, when Seattle Pacific scored two early goals and coasted to a 4-1 title win. Last year OU returned to the national tournament, losing a first-round match-up to semi-finalist Missouri-St. Louis.

Parsons won his fourth Mideast Coach of the Year honor last season, and has never won less than 14 games in a season at OU. This year he is the coordinator of the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America Division II national top 20 poll for the second straight season, and is a member of the NCAA Soccer Committee.

In addition to his coaching prowess, Parsons enjoyed a noteworthy playing career. He was voted the Most Valuable Defensive Player at Plymouth State College as a senior and helped the Panthers make the New England State College Athletic Conference finals in his last two years. Parsons holds degrees in math and physical education from Plymouth State.

A native of Oakham, Massachusetts, Parsons also coaches the Michigan State Select Team and directs his highly successful Oakland University youth soccer camps during the summer.

Parsons lives with his wife, Joanne, in Auburn Hills.

DAN FITZGERALD

Assistant Coach

OU assistant coach
Dan Fitzgerald in his playing days

One of Oakland's many former players in the coaching ranks, Dan Fitzgerald, returns for his second season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Fitzgerald played for OU coach Gary Parsons for three seasons.

Fitzgerald was a four-year performer on OU's soccer squads from 1980-1983. Those teams compiled a four-year record of 60-15-7 and advanced to the NCAA final four twice, losing to the eventual national champion on the road in both 1982 and 1983. Fitzgerald had 14 goals and 22 assists in his career, with the assist total representing the seventh best in OU history. The former OU captain is the older brother of another Pioneer soccer alum, Brian Fitzgerald.

"Dan is an excellent assistant coach," Parsons said. "He has a strong knowledge of the game and his philosophy fits well with our program."

The former Rochester High School coach is the third Pioneer soccer alumnus to serve as Parsons' assistant coach. Lawrence Murray was an OU assistant in 1981, and Tony Hermiz served as Parsons' assistant during the 1983 campaign.

MEET THE PIONEERS

TALENT, EXPERIENCE MAY TAKE PIONEERS TO THE TOP

Any time a team accumulates a 14-5-1 record, as the Oakland soccer team did in 1987, it must be considered a successful season. In fact, the Pioneers gave coach Gary Parsons his 100th career win and seventh season in as many tries with 14 or more victories. Still, a 2-1 opening round loss at home in the NCAA tournament to Missouri-St. Louis ended the season with a bad taste in OU's mouth.

"We were disappointed in ourselves last year in that we didn't get the job done once we got to the playoffs," Parsons said. "We are going into this season with an experienced team that will be hungry to go further than last year."

Experience will be a key factor in OU's run to the title in 1988. Eight potential starters have at least two years of NCAA playoff experience, which includes the Pioneers' trip to the finals two years ago. Of the potential top 18 players on OU's roster this year (15 field players, three goalkeepers), 14 are juniors or seniors.

"We've got an experienced team with a lot of upper classmen and a lot of college experience," Parsons said. "What you need to win the championship is a team that has been there before, a team with experienced players."

OU's experience begins on the back line, where six potential starters have NCAA playoff experience. John Stewart, a first team All-American and a veteran of two playoff units, will be OU's sweeper. Stewart's honor rewarded him for being OU's most consistent player for three years. OU's veteran defense will also have senior Matt Paukovits at stopper, and includes returning seniors Mikael Carlstrom and Scott Steiner. Two other veterans will return after a two-year layoff. Raul Delgado, captain of OU's 1985 squad, and Dan O'Shea will both be back for their senior campaigns, and could see action on the back line as well as the midfield. Two newcomers of note on defense are junior Mike Barron, the stopper on Triton C.C.'s junior college finalists, and Dan Weinerth, a former high school All-Stater at Rochester Adams High School. Returnees Derek Brown and Jeff Zielinski, plus freshmen Scott Binder and John Kropinski, further add to OU's outstanding defensive depth.

The back line will help three excellent and experienced goalkeepers stand guard over OU's net. Senior Jeff Vkratsis, OU's number one keeper last year, will return after logging a 0.84 goals against average. Vince Aliberti, now a junior, guided OU to the finals in 1986 and has the ability to be a hot keeper. The key may be the play of Ralph Torre, a junior transfer from York College of Toronto. Torre will battle for his share of playing time in what looks like a three-keeper rotation.

OU senior All-American John Stewart on the attack.

Now juniors, OU's two-year midfield combination of Simon Mayo, Alan Stewart, and Erik Enyedy are as experienced as they come. Mayo, an All-Mideast choice a year ago, did an outstanding job as the Pioneers attacking midfielder with four goals and 13 assists. Alan Stewart was excellent as OU's defensive center midfielder, and still had time to score five goals. On the outside, Erik Enyedy's ballhawking and crosses earned him 11 assists. Earl Parris, OU's number two scorer last year, could be an outside midfielder in a 4-4-2 alignment when he's not causing the opponents trouble up front. Delgado, O'Shea, and newcomer John Brennan, a former starter at Kalamazoo College, will also be in the hunt for midfield time.

Up front may be where OU's question marks lie. Parris and sophomore Paul Phillips tallied 20 goals between them a year ago, and Parsons is looking for more production from the All-Mideast pair. Another soph, Sel Eren, scored eight goals despite playing just half of each game due to leg injuries. This is where OU's forward experience stops. Mayo, a forward as a freshman, could see some time back at his old spot. Unknown is how outstanding high school goal scorers Scott Camacci, Ron Stefanovski, and Goran Stojanovski, all freshman will make the transition to college soccer.

"Our goal scoring ability is a question mark," Parsons stated. "A couple of players need to come through and improve their goal totals. We have a handful of guys who can score between six and 10 goals, but if one or two step forward and score 15, our offense will be in good shape."

Parsons has scheduled 21 regular season games to prepare OU for the playoff run. Three tournaments will challenge the Pioneers, beginning with games against St. Anselm and New Hampshire Colleges in New Hampshire over Labor Day weekend. This year's National Invitational Soccer Tournament will see OU host Metropolitan State and C. W. Post, while a tournament in St. Louis will match the Pioneers against regional rivals Northeast Missouri State and Missouri-St. Louis. Six Division I schools are on OU's slate, including crosstown rival Detroit, as are regional opponents Gannon, Lewis, Southern Indiana, and Indiana-Purdue at Ft. Wayne.

"Year-in-and-year-out breaks decide who wins the title," Parsons explained. "You make your own breaks, so having an experienced team that's been there before helps the breaks come your way."

If experience does indeed help make breaks, then the Pioneers' veteran crew may break all the way to the NCAA finals, looking for a different result than 1986.
