Unity Can End Indochina War, Dulles Declares

Calls European Trip Mission to Secure Peace by Free-World Strength

WASHINGTON (INS)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles declared today that if free governments "unite" against the Communist threat in Indochina, this menace to Southeast Asia and the Western Pacific can be ended.

Dulles made the statement in a brief talk for television news reels after a 30-minute conference with President Eisenhower at the White House.

Dulles called on the President for a final talk before taking off for his quick European trip for unity talks with the British and French governments in an effort to work out a plan to win the Indochinese War.

He declared that the U. S. purpose "is not to extend the fighting but to end the fighting."

He said: "This government believes that if all the free people who are threatened now unite against the threat, it can be ended."

"The Communist Bloc, with its vast resources, can win success by overwhelming one by one small bits of freedom. But it is different if we unite."

He declared the U. S. purpose at the forthcoming Geneva Conference is "not to prevent a peaceful settlement... but to create the unit of free wills needed to assure a peaceful settlement which will in fact preserve the vital interests of us all."

He added unity of purpose calls for a full understanding. "It seemed that if I would go personally to London to talk to the British government and go to Paris to talk to the French government so that there could be a more satisfactory exchange of views than is possible by the exchange of cabled messages."

He recalled that an agreement was reached with the British and French Foreign Ministers at Berlin to hold the Geneva Conference "to discuss peace in Korea and Indochina."

The need now, he said, is for the three governments to "join our strength and add to it the strength of others in order to create the conditions needed to assure that the conference will not lead to a loss of freedom in Southeast Asia but will preserve that freedom in peace and justice."

He said: "That is the purpose of my trip. It is, I emphasize, a mission of peace through strength." Dulles said he was going to talk with the British and French governments "about some of the real problems involved in creating the obviously desirable united front to resist Communist aggression in Southeast Asia."

The tentative budget, drawn up by the board of auditors, is $463,567.64 higher than this year's. The county must pass a budget, based on next year's estimated costs, and get it to the tax allocation board by April 15.

The tax board will go over budgets of the county, townships and school systems, and split the allowed 15 mills of taxes between them. Supervisors later will work out a more detailed budget.

The supervisors' boundaries committee plan to suggest election dates Tuesday for voters of the Walled Lake area and a strip across the bottom of Southfield Township to decide whether the areas should become cities.

The committee, headed by William A. Ewart, of Pontiac, will also suggest a date for an election on Clawson's annexation of nearby land.

Hints Congress Not Necessary for Red Hunts

Observers Say Speech Designed to Take Play Away From McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell says the FBI, the Justice Department and the courts are ever vigilant but the nation needs more stringent laws to dig the Communists out of hiding.

Brownell did not mention by name Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), whose Senate Investigations subcommittee has done much of Congress' Red probing. But the attorney general left the strong impression, in a nationally televised speech last night, that he believes the law enforcement agencies of the executive branch and the courts are capable of dealing with the Red menace at home.

And he said the operation of a law already on the books might, in effect, result in outlawing the Communist party through its own acts.

Brownell's report to the nation, undertaken at the direction of President Eisenhower, brought expressions of approval for his objectives from both Republicans and Democrats in Congress.

But there were no clear indications the attorney general's requests for new legislation would generate action in the form he suggested or, in some cases, any action at all.

His speech was regarded in some quarters as an effort to take the play away from McCarthy's controversial Communist-in-government hunt Brownell said:

"The FBI, the Department of Justice and the courts are your agents in dealing with this Communist conspiracy. All are vigilant in their readiness to meet any move or emergency which the Communist party in America might precipitate."

He said new laws are needed, however, "to destroy by legal, orderly processes the Communist party in this country."

The attorney general said the country needs laws "to eliminate Communist control of any industrial organization or labor union (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Red Commandos Sneak In, Blow Up Indochina Airstrip

HANOI, Indochina (UP)—Communist Indochinese Commandos sneaked through Dien Bien Phu's battered ramparts today and blew up part of the airstrip linking the fortress with the outside world.

The Red infiltrators crawled through defenses during the moonless night with crudely-fashioned torpedoes—made by packing hollow bamboo poles with explosives.

In the black of night they crammed the bombs under steel matting that paves the airstrip runway and blasted the vital airstrip.

Other Communist sneak forces tried to seize a southern stronghold in the shell-pocked defense lines that have held against five weeks of "human wave" assault.

The Commando attack, along with Red artillery barrages, was considered part of Communist Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap's preparation for his next and possibly final assault on the fortress.

French military authorities predicted Vo would make the big attack within 36 hours.

The officials said Vo, who has lost 22,000 men in his four futile attempts to wrest the strategic fortress from its "fighting fool" defenders, will receive enough replacements by Sunday at the latest.

More than 30,000 Red Indochinese rebels have been moving down a highway leading from replacement depots near the border of Communist China to the hills overlooking the Dien Bien Phu basin.

The Reds increased the intensity of their artillery fire on Dien Bien Phu early today, resuming a duel that lasted for 20 hours Friday.

French spokesmen said rebel artillerymen appeared to be concentrating on French batteries which had been dug in within the defense perimeter.

It was disclosed in Saigon that Emperor Bao Dai of Viet Nam left Indochina by plane early today for Paris where he may discuss the seven-year war with U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Gleason's Wife Files Suit for Separate Maintenance

NEW YORK (AP)—Jackie Gleason's wife, who says the TV funnyman "spends money with reckless abandon," has filed a separation suit against the roly-poly star involving a new high in temporary alimony.

Mrs. Genevieve Gleason, 38, filed a petition in Supreme Court yesterday charging abandonment and non-support and asked $5,000 a month temporary alimony and $20,000 in counsel fees.

And she referred indirectly to Jackie's romance with Marilyn Taylor, a dancer on his Saturday night television show.

Claiming the comedian is able to pay, Mrs. Gleason said: "He has a fabulous wardrobe and very expensive jewelry. He lives a life of complete splendor and spends money with reckless abandon."

Mrs. Gleason added that her estranged mate, who occupies a

Enraged Thieves Cause of Damage to Lakeside Office

The heavy damage to a Pontiac public housing project office was blamed today on yeggs who became enraged when they failed to crack open an 800-pound safe.

Office machines were smashed and file cabinets overturned Thursday night in the Lakeside Housing Commission Building, 535 Branch St. Damage was estimated at $2,500.

Roy B. MacAfee, executive director, said he thought the vandalism was caused by the thieves who tried to batter open the huge safe in the office vault.

He also said employees worked six hours yesterday sorting 400 keys strewn over the floor. A package mailed to the commission by mistake was torn open by the thieves and postal authorities were notified.

County Board Meets Tuesday

1955 Budget, Election of Officers Top Agenda for Session

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors will meet Tuesday to elect officers and look over a tentative budget of $6,513,164.84 to run the county in 1955.

The board also will take up bids on the new county market near Pontiac, two areas' plans to become cities and several other matters at Tuesday's session. The meeting will start at 9:30 a. m. in the County Office Building, at 1 Lafayette St.

The tentative budget, drawn up by the board of auditors, is $463,567.64 higher than this year's. The county must pass a budget, based on next year's estimated costs, and get it to the tax allocation board by April 15.

2nd County May Drop Polio Test

Monroe Hints It Might Cancel Plans to Join in Vaccine Trial

DETROIT (UP)—Monroe County may join Washenaw in cancelling the scheduled test of the Salk polio vaccine but the other 10 Michigan counties originally participating appeared ready to go ahead.

Dr. C. D. Barrett, Monroe County health director, said county health officers will meet Wednesday to make a final decision.

Washenaw County dropped out blaming "doubt, confusion and delay." The confusion stemmed from commentator Walter Winchell's broadcast last Sunday in which he charged the strains were found in the Salk Serum.

Britain Asks Secret Talks on World Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—With recent U. S. hydrogen bomb tests injecting a "new note of urgency," the West today was solidly behind a proposal for private talks among the Big Four and Canada on world disarmament. Russia asked for time to study the plan.

The dramatic proposal to take such arms discussions out of the public eye, where they have proved only a deadlock of propaganda exchanges, was made yesterday by Britain's Sir Pierson Dixon before the U. N. Disarmament Commission.

Most delegates expected the Russians finally would agree to the secret talks. But some observers wondered whether Russia might not be preparing to insist on Red China's participation.

Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky said he would have to reserve until later his comment on the British proposal, which got prompt backing by the United States, France and Canada.

One member of the commission said he understood Vishinsky had sought the delay because he had not received instructions from Moscow in time for yesterday's session.

In obvious reference to the latest American H-bomb tests and the chain reaction political furor they have set off around the world, Sir Pierson said in introducing the plan "there is a new note of urgency in the world today. We must redouble our efforts."

The plan calls for creation of a five-power sub-committee consisting of the United States, Britain, France, Russia and Canada to try to find a solution to the disarmament and atomic control problem which public debate has failed to solve the past eight years.

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. seconded the British proposal, as did Henri Hoppenot of France. Lodge said the U. S. was prepared also to give careful attention to any proposals the Soviet Union is ready to make.

Tired Legislators Still Jangling Over Budget, Jobless Pay

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Legislature, at loggerheads over next year's budget and unemployment compensation increases, was still in session today—many hours after its scheduled final adjournment.

After 13 hours of futile wrangling, the lawmakers gave up at 11:50 p. m. last night and stumbled off to bed.

They planned to reconvene today and try again to resolve their differences.

Final adjournment had been set for Friday midnight.

Working conference committees working over appropriations reported they were almost agreed on a general fund budget in the neighborhood of 366 million dollars, half a million more than estimated revenues.

52-56 Degree High Predicted Tomorrow

Showers and thunderstorms ending tonight will usher partly cloudy weather into the Pontiac area Sunday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts the low of 44 to 48 degrees expected tonight will rise to a high of 52 to 56 degrees in the city tomorrow.

Friday, the temperature ranged from a low of 28 to a high of 50 degrees. A trace of rain was recorded in the area yesterday although the day offered mostly fair weather.

At 8 a. m. today the mercury registered 45, but at 1 p. m. in downtown Pontiac the reading was 50 degrees.

The first conference committee was stacked by Lt. Gov. Clarence A. Reid (R-Detroit) to favor the more liberal bill passed by the House and rejected by the Senate. But the Senate disavowed Reid's committee.

By agreement with Senate Republican leaders, Reid named a second committee regarded as much tougher.

The conference committee compromise would have given jobless single men $30 a week, compared to the $30 approved in the House and $28 approved in the Senate.

It recommended a maximum grant for jobless men with four children of $42, compared to the Senate's $41 and the House's $43.

Sen. Harry F. Little (R-East Lansing), chairman of the Senate conferees, told the Senate:

"We are apart to the extent of one dollar a week for a single (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Approve Shift in Site of New High School

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — A 50-foot shift in the building site of the new $1,500,000 high school has been approved by the Board of Education.

School board member David W. Lee said the move was made on the recommendation of the architect, to avoid swampy soil conditions.

"It is not serious trouble, and not totally unexpected since we were not able to get all the soil tests we wanted to at an earlier date," Lee explained. He added that the change will not delay construction.

The 50-foot move to the southwest will preserve two beautiful trees for the front of the building, and allow the addition of a basement storage room under the industrial arts wing for between $10,000 to $14,000, Lee said. Deeper and wider footings on the former site would have cost $7,000, he said.

Arrest 3 After 70-MPH Chase

Pontiac Man, 21, Held on Contributing Charge, Youths on Alcohol Count

A three-mile auto chase at speeds up to 70 miles per hour last night through the city's southeast section led to the arrest of a Pontiac man and two area youths, according to Pontiac Police.

Harley J. Quick, 21, of 2931 Woodlawn St., is charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors, while the driver, Larry Sexton, 17, of Rochester, and Burton F. Hodgson, 17, of Auburn Heights, have been charged with illegal possession of alcohol.

Police said they spotted the youth's car racing with another on Auburn avenue at about 11 a. m. After a chase through several side streets in the area, police stopped the youths and found a part-empty case of beer in the car.

Also reported arrested on an illegal possession of alcohol charge were four Pontiac youths. They were: Orville R. Clifford, 19, Hugh Platt, 20, Roy E. Gearton, 19 and James Meadows, all of 147 Auburn Ave. Two juvenile girls accompanying the youths at about 2 a. m. were turned over to their parents, police said.

Police Push Probe of March Breakins

Pontiac Police, still probing a record number of March breakins, were faced with three more burglaries and an attempted breakin today.

Thieves got $12 from a filling station at 669 Orchard Lake Ave. and an undetermined amount of money from a barber shop at 607 Franklin Rd. Entry was gained by breaking rear windows.

The home of Clarence Williams, at 570 Highland Ave., was entered through an unlocked back door. Detectives John A. DePauw and John Williams said the only articles missing were an empty billfold and some personal papers.

DePauw said the front door of a laundry office at 188 N. Johnson Ave. was found smashed, but no one had entered. Forty-eight breakins were reported in March, the highest number ever listed for a single month.

United Foundation Cuts Funds to Y

BIRMINGHAM—Ralph Hileman, general secretary of the Detroit Metropolitan YMCA, said today that the YMCA board "is still in the negotiating stages" with the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund of the United Foundation.

Board members were notified Friday that the MDBF had recommended only $1,234,010 of the $18 million asked for by the YMCA for a building program which would have given Birmingham a new $1.5 million "Y" building.

Birmingham was not mentioned in the letter, Hileman said, but its projected building will be taken up at a hearing scheduled for late this month.

Contrary to reports that the YMCA board took offense at suggestions made by the MDBF, Hileman stated, "It's a fair share and that is all they can allot us, there is no use pounding our hands on the table."

"It would be very poor judgment on our part to pre-judge and we're not going to."

Hole in Deputy's Pocket Provides Escape for Thief

LOS ANGELES — A rookie sheriff's deputy has learned the hard way that it pays to keep one's pocket linings in good repair.

Learning it the easy way is Robert Lee Collins, 21, scheduled for arraignment in superior court yesterday on auto theft charges. His name was called in court, but there was only a long and embarrassing silence.

It developed that the rookie deputy, David Bullis, 23, had brought Collins and several other prisoners from the jail to the "bullpen" adjacent to the courtroom. It also developed that he had a hole in his pocket.

Collins' name was the last on the list of those to be arraigned. He waited, but when he saw the key fall out of Bullis' pocket he saw no reason to tarry. He escaped, undetected.

Four-Car Collision Injures One Person

Deputies said that Moleworth's truck struck the rear of a car driven by Samuel D. Burdick, 33, of 821 N. Ferry St., which was pushed into car driven by Lloyd T. Tanner, 30, of 2172 Adams Rd., Lake Orion. Tanner said he was waiting for a car ahead to complete a left turn.

Theodore Goemaere, 47, of 300 Third St., driver of the fourth car, said he could not avoid Moleworth's vehicle.

Police Uncover Woman's Alias

Wife of Bank Robber Actually Wed to Other Holdup Man

A 19-year-old Pontiac woman who claimed to be the common-law wife of one of two bank robbers arrested in Dearborn Tuesday was exposed Friday as the wife of the other accused bandit by Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

Detectives David Brann and Mahlon France said they identified "Dorothy Parker" as Juanita Cox, wife of Hugh T. "Buddy" Cox, 21, of Pontiac, who was arrested with James Minder Jr., 24, of Dearborn, on an April 2, $52,300 Dearborn bank robbery.

FBI agents said Dorothy Parker claimed she was Minder's common-law wife, when she was arrested along with Cox and Minder in Dearborn in connection with the holdup of the Manufacturers National Bank.

Brann and France gave Dearborn Police information that led to the arrest of the pair.

"We figured something was wrong when we couldn't locate Mrs. Cox, so we called Dearborn Police and had them hold Dorothy Parker until we could get a look at her," Brann said.

Brann said she admitted her real identity when they confronted her.

Mrs. Cox was released to the custody of her attorney by FBI agents for appearance in Oakland County Probate Court Tuesday. According to France, Mrs. Cox is now on probation for larceny from a store.

Brann said, "Mrs. Cox told me yesterday that three days after her husband's escape from the Oakland County Jail she, Cox and Minder went to the Cox home at 88 W. Mansfield Ave., picked up Cox's car and clothes and fled to Dearborn."

Successful 3-Day Drive in Pontiac Climaxed by Luncheon Yesterday

A three-day Pontiac Chamber of Commerce drive which ended yesterday noon netted 147 new members and put the group's total enrollment over 1,000, according to John W. Hurlinger, chamber assistant manager.

The campaign was climaxed yesterday with a victory luncheon at Hotel Waldron.

"We're very gratified with the enthusiasm shown by members conducting the drive and by the manner in which it was received," Cross stated, "and the chamber will continue striving toward betterment of Pontiac in every phase of community life."

Each new recruit gains membership in the chamber, the Better Business Board and, if he is a retail merchant, in the Retail Merchants Assn.

The campaign workers were divided into teams, with the group captained by Nathan Bressler bringing in the most new members. Others on Bressler's team were Cross, Wayne Gabert, Raymond N. Rapaport and William L. Treanor.

The five men aside from the winning team who recruited the most members individually were Clyde Haskell, August Johnson, Ralph T. Norvell, Dr. George N. Petroff and Howard O. Powers. Chairman for the drive was Curtis E. Patton.

Jackie's romance with Miss Taylor was disclosed after Gleason suffered a broken leg last Jan. 30 in a fall on his show.

Going to her husband's hospital bedside after his accident, Mrs. Gleason reportedly found Miss Taylor already there.

Gleason was quoted as saying his spouse had been a good wife and mother, although he loved Miss Taylor. As a Roman Catholic, the comedian said, he could not secure a divorce from Mrs. Gleason.

The highest previous temporary alimony granted in Supreme Court here was the $700 weekly (about $2,800 a month) awarded Eleanor Holm Rose prior to her divorce from showman Billy Rose. In an out of court settlement, Mrs. Rose was given a reported $30,000 a year.

Speaks to Cranbrook Audience Author of 'Sea Around Us' at Work on Another Book

By JEANNE LUDTKE

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Rachel L. Carson, author of the best-selling "The Sea Around Us," is writing a new book about sea urchins, starfish, lobsters and crabs. But she hates seafood.

The attractive naturalist was interviewed before speaking at Cranbrook Institute of Science last night.

Her new book, "Edge of the Sea," deals mainly with animals along the Atlantic coast, "but develops lots of ideas that apply anywhere," Miss Carson said. The book will be published this fall.

"I can't remember when I didn't want to be a writer," Miss Carson mused. "Then came the desire to be a scientist, and it never occurred to me that I would do both. I always thought you went to college and majored in English composition."

It wasn't until I took my graduate work in zoology at Johns Hopkins that it dawned on me I had something to write about."

Miss Carson resigned as editor-in-chief of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service in Washington, D. C. two years ago to devote all her time to writing.

As for hobbies, her work is her hobby, she says. But for variety, her research has taken her on an oceanographic expedition in the North Atlantic and deep-sea diving in Florida around the coral reefs.

To prove her point, Miss Carson added that she now has "a place of my own on the Maine coast, where I have all the relaxation I want right in my own back yard—the ocean."

She has succeeded in doing what she wrote in the closing sentence of "The Sea Around Us."

"For all at last return to the sea—to oceans, the ocean river, like the ever-flowing stream of time, the beginning and the end."

vital sections of our national economy."

He proposed the imposition of the death penalty for peacetime, as well as wartime espionage.

In his program to meet the Communist "threat to our nation's safety," he outlined also these proposals:

Permission for an employer to dismiss from defense plants during a national emergency any person whose record shows he is likely to engage in sabotage or espionage.

Measures to prevent witnesses from pleading self-incrimination as an excuse for refusing to testify. There have been proposals for a law that would permit the government to grant immunity from prosecution to witnesses, who could then be ordered to answer questions. Though their testimony could not then be used against themselves, it might help catch "higher-ups."

Legislation on the use of wire-tapped evidence.

Taking away the citizenship of any person found guilty of advocating violent overthrow of the government.

Eliminating the statute of limitations—which prevents prosecution for crimes after a number of years—in espionage cases.

A bill to permit use of information obtained by wiretapping as evidence in federal courts has been approved by the House. However, instead of providing for the wire tapping operations to be performed on the authority of the attorney general, the provision favored by Brownell, it would require a federal court order.

The issue is expected to come up again when the Senate considers the measure, but Republican Leader Knowland of California said yesterday there had been no soundings of sentiment yet and he had no plans for early consideration of the bill.

Traveling Show Displays Latest in Home Handiwork

By ELIZABETH HILLER

There's a very real desire in most of us to make something beautiful with our hands, usually something for our homes. A new crop of looms, kilns, woodworking tools and workshops of all kinds have spread over the country to satisfy that desire.

And all over America are designer-craftsmen, whose life's work is the creation of the beautiful and useful in ceramics, wood, metals, textiles, glass and leather.

A handsome summary of what they are doing is an inspiring exhibit now traveling to museums all over the country, called Designer-Craftsmen U. S. A. Regional juries selected the entries, which were judged by a national committee.

They chose 243 pieces by 203 craftsmen, representing, in the opinion of the jury, the highest quality in American work at this time.

The American Craftsmen's Educational Council instigated the idea, which was supported by the Brooklyn Museum, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Cleveland Museum of Art, City Art Museum of St. Louis, Currier Gallery of Art, the Denver Art Museum, Detroit Institute of Fine Arts, San Francisco Museum of Art, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and Wadsworth Atheneum.

In Chicago, the national show is augmented by 153 pieces by the Mid-West Designer-Craftsmen.

Furniture in wood, metal and rattan is represented in the show, and the table sketched won an award for Loren Manbeck. Rugs are among the most inspiring items, both hooked and woven in many ways. A rug by Mildred Allmendinger, sketched, is also an award winner.

Glass by Michael and Frances Higgins, which has become well known in fine shops, is represented by the large plate sketched. Beside it, a gold and quartz pin by George Salo, an excellent example of the wide variety of jewelry.

Silver in the show is often breath-taking, and a beautiful example is the pitcher below, by Lorna Pearson Watson. The mahogany bowl by Bob McCabe, and birch spoons by Ralph Becherer show prize winning subtleties of form in wood.

Subtle shaping and inspired decoration, as well as wonderful glazes, made ceramics outstanding, as in the three-dimensional class prize winning bowl by Edwin Scheier.

Tapestries, drapery and curtain fabrics, wall hangings, flatware, leather book bindings, mosaics for table tops, ceramic tile wall decorations, terrazzo panels, decorative sculpture and needlepoint also are shown. Among beautiful and unusual items are hand-woven altar cloths and the wall cross sketched, by James Bartley Jeffery.

Kitchen Mirror
Helps Mother
Watch Children

A well-placed mirror in the kitchen can be used to watch children at play in the playroom or back yard.

A mirror can be installed to act like the rear-view mirror in a car so that a busy mother can watch her children while she works in the kitchen.

A mirror in the kitchen, too, is good for a woman's morale. She can check her appearance before answering the door and it is handy for a last look to see if that transformation from housewife to charmer is complete before the breadwinner comes home.
