France's Faure Facing Crisis Over Morocco

Defense Minister Flies to North Africa in Effort to Salvage Program

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

PARIS—French Premier Edgar Faure's imperiled government fought for its life today as the National Assembly prepared for the second round of a dramatic debate on the Moroccan situation.

The premier was expected to pose an "implicit" instead of a constitutional question on confidence in his seven-months-old cabinet.

This move would permit the assembly to avoid the 24-hour delay required by a constitutional-type vote.

Gen Pierre Billotte, new minister of defense in Premier Edgar Faure's Cabinet, flew off to Morocco today to try to salvage the government's reform program for the strife-ridden North Aferican protectorate.

He might be able to assure the survival of the government, if he can get some quick action.

Billotte was named defense minister yesterday, to succeed Gen. Pierre Koenig. This morning, after news of Billotte's mission to Morocco was announced, his party-the Social and Republican Action group, a De Gaullist splinter faction — asked him to resign under threat of expulsion from the party. Billotte defied the request.

* * *

The party has expelled Pierre July, minister for Tunisian and Moroccan affairs, who had a big hand in drawing up the government policy.

Koenig was one of four members of the De Gaullist Social Republican Party to step out of the government at Faure's request because they could not give wholehearted support to the Moroccan reform plan.

Deny Rumor of Tiger Offer

Officials Scotch Report Syndicate Is Preparing New Purchase Move

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Tigers officials today vigorously denied reports that a syndicate was preparing to make a new offer to buy the Tigers from the Briggs family.

Harry M. Sisson, a Tiger official and one of a group which offered to buy the club and Briggs Stadium last night, said the report was "pure fabrication."

"We (the syndicate) are having a meeting today in Briggs Stadium," he said, "but it has nothing to do with any proposals to buy the Tigers."

Sisson also scotched reports that Bob Feller, Cleveland Indian pitcher, would be asked to manage the Tigers if the syndicate succeeded in taking over Tiger ownership. Feller, in Cleveland, said the story was news to him.

"Somebody just dreamed that one up," said Sisson.

The syndicate includes Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., Sisson, Don Mitchell, wealthy Owosso resident; Ozzie Olson, Detroit steelman, and Charley Gehringer, former Tiger great now a club official.

Briggs' four sisters last month rejected the group's offer of 2½ million dollars for their 80 per cent share of the club and stadium.

Downpour Snarls Traffic; Wet Spell to End Tonight

A wet spell which brought nearly 2½ inches of rain to Oakland County in two days and caused the worst traffic jam in Detroit's history, was expected to end late today.

The Weather Bureau forecast calls for cloudy, windy and cooler weather with scattered showers today. It will be clearing and cooler tonight and fair and cool tomorrow.

Another two-thirds of an inch of rain fell in the 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. today, adding to the one and three-quarters inches which fell Wednesday.

In Detroit yesterday, traffic was snarled in the northwest section for nearly five hours after a 1½-inch rainfall in 45 minutes. The cloudburst came shortly before 4 p.m. and the jam wasn't cleared until 9 p.m.

Thousands of motorists required several hours to reach home. Most of the trouble stemmed from a flooded viaduct on Woodward near the Ford Highland Park plant.

Ten streetcars were trapped as the viaduct filled rapidly with five feet of water. All trolley movement on Woodward was forced to halt.

DSR officials said it was the city's worst traffic tieup. The area effected was bounded by Davison, Oakland, Seven Mile road and Livernois.

The weatherman says today's high temperature will be near 70, tonight's low near 50. High Saturday will be 60-64 degrees. Low reading last night was 66. The mercury stood at 67 degrees at 8 a.m., and was 64 at 1 p.m.

Football Forecast

Here's a special forecast for University of Michigan and Michigan State University football fans: The Weather Bureau says it will be mostly fair and cooler in Ann Arbor and East Lansing tomorrow. High temperature will be in the low 60s in both cities.

Victim of Crash Felt Death Near

State Youth Told Mom That She Would Never See Him Again

DETROIT (AP) — The mother of a young Michigan airman killed in the crash of an airliner in the Wyoming Rockies says her son had a premonition of death.

Mrs. Richard Ryan of Cheboygan said her son, Lawrence Monk, 18, gave her his Bible early last Sunday and said, "I'll never need it again." Then he told her, "Mom, you'll never see me again but you'll hear about me."

Monk was one of three Michigan servicemen killed in the crash yesterday of a United Airlines DC4 en route from Denver to Salt Lake City.

Two others who had been visiting relatives in Flint and were returning to their homes in Salt Lake City were Mrs. Franklin West, 70, and her son Earl, 35.

All but Wood had boarded the plane at Willow Run Airport.

Monk had enlisted in the Air Force last June 22 and had planned to make it his career, his mother said. He arrived home Sept. 22 for his first furlough since enlisting.

He was en route to Parks Field Calif., for advanced training before going overseas.

Reynolds was headed back to his base at Honolulu after a 45-day furlough. He was married two weeks ago in Toledo to a girl whom he met while stationed in Germany from 1951 to 1953.

Sgt. Wood was stationed at Hill Air Force Base, Utah, and was en route to Salt Lake City.

Area Resident Hurt in Jackson Collision

A 59-year-old Waterford Township man, involved in a 2-car crash which killed two other men yesterday near Jackson, is in critical condition at a hospital there.

He is Bruce Everett, of 3781 Lincolnshire, who Sheriff's deputes said apparently drove from a side road into the path of the other auto heading west on U. S. 12, about five miles west of Jackson.

Leroy Butler, 22, driver of the other car, was killed instantly and his passenger, Gilbert Facey, 19, died later at Mercy Hospital. Both victims were Jackson residents.

Hospital attendants said Everett who was driving alone suffered a broken arm, leg and back injuries.

Newsprint Cost Rise Seen by Manufacturer

NEW YORK (AP)—An increase in the price of newsprint "in the foreseeable future" was forecast today by the head of one of the world's largest newsprint manufacturing empires.

Sir Eric Vansittart Bowater, chairman of Bowater Paper Corp. Ltd. of London, declared, "It's a fact that during the past three years and three months, costs of production have risen appreciably for newsprint manufacturers. In my opinion, we can't continue to absorb these mounting costs."

Sir Eric, whose company operates a 60 million dollar newsprint mill at Calhoun, Tenn., as part of a world-wide organization, made his remarks on the price of printing paper used by newspapers at a press conference.

He disclosed that the firm's Calhoun subsidiary, Bowaters Southern Paper Corp., will spend four million dollars to install equipment for producing pulp for newsprint from local hardwoods. Newsprint at Calhoun now is made from southern pine.

Ike and Dulles Will Discuss Foreign Policy

Secretary Will Go to Denver for Conference on Tuesday

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower will hold a hospital conference on foreign policy matters with Secretary of State Dulles next Tuesday. It will be the President's first discussion of policy problems since he suffered a heart attack.

The White House press secretary, James C. Hagerty, announced today that Dulles will arriye in Denver Monday night from Miami, Fla., where the secretary has a speaking engagement that day.

He will see the President sometime the next day, with the hour dependent on word from Eisenhower's physicians.

The announcement came as doctors at Fitzsimons Army Hospital put out another encouraging bulletin on the President's condition.

They said at midmorning that he was continuing to progress satisfactorily without complications.

Early tomorrow morning he will pass the crucial two-week milestone along the recovery trail he has been traveling without complications from the time of his Sept. 24 heart attack.

Doctors at Fitzsimons Army Hospital have said from the start that any complications would be most likely to develop during the first 14 days—that at the end of that period the chief executive probably would be "over the hump."

They never have meant, of course, that the danger would evaporate right at the end of two weeks by the clock. That period always has been just their best estimate on the basis of experience.

* * *

But they have said that after 14 days in the hospital Eisenhower probably would be able to step up his activity a bit so far as government business is concerned.

The President's first visitor other than family members and a few White House staff members will be Vice President Nixon, who is scheduled to arrive here late tomorrow from Washington.

Nixon is coming at the President's request but James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, told newsmen, "They will not take up any controversial subjects at all."

Also at Eisenhower's request, the vice president is presiding at another Cabinet meeting in Washington today—the second time he has served in that role since the President was stricken.

Returning to Denver with Nixon will be Sherman Adams, the President's top aide, and Dr. Paul Dudley White, Boston heart specialist who flew here a few hours after Eisenhower suffered a coronary thrombosis — a blood clot in the arteries leading to the heart.

On the same plane will be the President's son, Army Maj. John Eisenhower, paying his second visit to his father's bedside.

Aid for Grid Fans Pledged by State Police and Sheriff

Relief for Ann Arbor bound football fans Saturday was promised today by Sheriff Frank Irons and Capt. Raymond Mohr of the State Police Post at Redford.

Each has promised to station officers at New Hudson from 10 a.m. to 12:45 to handle traffic during the football rush hour.

"That is a bad intersection because of the number of roads meeting at a single point," said Sheriff Irons. "By next fall we hope that the new Grand River cutoff will eliminate much of this trouble, for there will be a grade separation carrying Pontiac Trail under the new highway.

"But for the rest of this football season heavy Ann Arbor-bound traffic faces a bottleneck at New Hudson because of the traffic light which is timed to accommodate the usually heavier traffic on Grand River."

IRONS

Asked regarding the return rush after the game, Sheriff Irons was noncommittal.

"We are so short handed that it is impossible for us to tie up two men all day at this one corner," he said, "but we will have two men there during the late morning rush going to the game at least, and then do the best we can later."

Capt. Mohr promised that traffic would be handled at the New Hudson intersection both before and after the game.

MOHR

"We will work in conjunction with Sheriff Irons," he said.

"We will have an officer there from 10 a.m. until 12:45, and later in the afternoon we will have an officer there to handle the returning traffic after the game."

Action by Sheriff Irons and Capt. Mohr came following a suggestion from the Pontiac Press that special handling of traffic was needed.

Guard to Watch Plant Reopening

Mayor of Strike Town Wants Troops Around if Factory Resumes

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP) — Mayor Paul F. McCormack announced today he is willing to let the struck Perfect Circle Corp. foundry reopen Monday under supervision of the Indiana National Guard.

"We have not been in contact with the governor but are attempting to do so," McCormack told a news conference. "The governor does have the right to countermand my orders."

The CIO United Auto Workers have warned that any reopening of the foundry may well touch off renewed violence. Eight persons were shot Wednesday in a riot at the plant gates and the foundry has been closed since.

The mayor said it was up to him how long the National Guard remains and that he has no intention of releasing them until the plant is reopened and he is sure order will prevail.

He said he expected to confer today with two federal mediators sent here in an effort to bring peace to this strife-torn city.

Guardsmen, with bayonets and tanks, kept the rain-drenched city quiet in a tense truce. The piston ring company's plants at nearby Hagerstown and Richmond were in production. A few pickets were at each plant.

3 Michigan Men Aboard as DC4 Rams Into Peak

United Plane Crushed on Wyoming Mountain En Route to Salt Lake

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Skilled climbers fought bitter cold and winds on a snow-covered mountain today to retrieve the bodies of 66 persons killed yesterday in the worst commercial airline crash in U. S. history.

Their goal was the near-perpendicular south face of 12,005-foot Medicine Bow Peak, where a United Air Lines DC4 crashed within an hour after leaving Denver for Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

The flight originated Wednesday in New York City.

Three Michigan residents were listed among the passengers aboard the ill-fated plane: Sgt. 1.c. Eugene Reynolds, Flint; S.Sgt. Lewis Wood, St. Johns, and Airman Lawrence Monk of Cheboygan.

Rescuers who struggled through deep snow and up the precipitous peak yesterday counted about 50 bodies before rising winds and darkness forced their retreat. They descended to a base camp slightly more than a mile from the tragic scene.

The big four-engine plane carried a crew of three and 63 passengers, including 17 Air Force inductees and two infants.

* * *

Among the dead were five women members of the Salt Lake City Mormon Tabernacle choir, which recently concluded a concert tour of Europe.

The toll exceeds the nation's previous commercial air disaster record of 58 killed in the crash of a Northwest Airlines DC4 in Lake Michigan June 24, 1950.

The worst air crash of any type was an Air Force C124 transport near Tokyo June 18, 1953, in which 129 perished.

Sheriff John Terrill of Carbon County, in charge of rescue operations, ordered special gear to the scene 40 miles west of here. He said only trained mountaineers and government officials would be allowed at the site to start lowering the bodies by winch apparatus. They will be taken to a University of Wyoming summer scientific lodge six miles distant for identification.

Maj. Gerald Downey of the Wyoming Civil Air Patrol and State Patrolman Ben Butler, both of Laramie, were among the first at the scene. They said the craft struck about 50 or 75 feet from the top of the peak.

Exploding oil and fuel left two huge scars on the granite wall, helping a swarm of military and civilian search planes to spot the wreckage.

Part of the shattered airliner, including a portion of the instrument panel, and a man's topcoat carried to the peak itself. The re-

Pontiac Advisory Council OKs Constitution

A new organization dedicated to improve Pontiac by finding solutions to community problems "through combined effort" last night moved into legal being.

In a meeting at City Hall, nearly 100 representatives of 37 agencies, organizations, and city departments unaniously approved a constitution establishing the Greater Pontiac Community Advisory Council.

The council's purpose is "to discover new or unmet community needs and to seek to meet such needs through combined effort," its constitution states.

It is "a method of improving such existing work, by committees, research or legislation."

It will devise "through cooperative participation of all organizations ways of meeting community needs which will be efficient, economical, free of duplication and in accordance with accepted professional standards."

Membership is open to agencies, organizations and individuals.

Agency members will be responsible social agencies, private or public, engaged in health and welfare work in the greater Pontiac area and operating on a non-profit basis with paid personnel.

Eligible organizations will be those interested in community problems. These include, the constitution states, civil, industrial, business, religious, labor and other similar groups.

Individuals will be elected to the council by a two-thirds vote of the executive committee. Agencies and organizations will require a two-thirds vote of the general membership for admission.

A nine-man nominating committee was selected to present a slate of four officers at the next meeting which will be called on or before Nov. 3. Each officer will serve one year.

Named to the committee were Mrs. S. V. Sekles, of the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs; Leslie H. Dean, of the Cook-Nelson American Legion Port; the Rev. Carl W. Nelson, Pontiac Pastor's Association.

Fred V. Haggard, CIO Council; Edward Leland, Boy Scouts of America; Maurice J. Croteau, Catholic Family Center; Mrs. William Wright, PTA Council; William Dean, Rotary and James F. Spence, Pontiac Manufacturers Assn. are included.

Once the council is fully functioning, the constitution calls for four meetings a year—in January, March, May or June, and September or October.

An executive committee will meet once a month from September through June.

At the close of the meeting, Mayor William W. Donaldson presented a large perpetual trophy upon which will be inscribed yearly the name of the person who has done the most to contribute to the welfare of the city.

The yearly recipient will receive a smaller trophy to keep.

Donaldson, who donated the awards, ruled himself ineligible to receive them. In closing, he said:

"The organizations you represent are going to be a great driving force in betterment of this community. We've had too little of that.

"Pontiac has suffered from lack of leadership in the community. I think tonight is the start of something grand."

Officials of Area Aid in Planning

Meeting on Wednesday Called on Civil Defense Survival Test

Southeastern Michigan officials will meet Wednesday in Detroit with federal and state civil defense leaders to plan participation in the federal civil defense national survival plan.

Detroit is one of 16 target cities in the nation chosen for participation in the program under a $10,000,000 grant from Congress, said Oakland County Assistant CD Director Ransford Bromley.

The meeting, called by Gov. Williams, is slated for 10 a.m. at the Detroit CD offices, 900 Merrill Plaisance, Palmer Park.

An Oakland delegation headed by Supervisors' Chairman Floyd Andrews will attend, said Bromley. Andrews will invite any other interested supervisors to be present.

Mayors of 25 cities and city managers of 15 cities in the metropolitan area are expected with their CD directors.

The program's aim is to determine possibility of evacuating Detroit, what shelter facilities are available, how many people can remain in existing shelter areas outside the zone of total possible destruction, what future shelter requirements will be and long-range problems of caring for evacuees.

"Because the plan will be under Federal Civil Defense jurisdiction, it will allow us to get away from problems involving boundaries of individual political units with separate CD setups," Bromley explained.

Included in those expected to attend the conference are Val Peterson, federal CD administrator; Gov. Williams; C. F. Van Blankensteyn, Michigan OCD director; Detroit Mayor Albert Cobo and Maj. Gen. Clyde E. Dougherty, Detroit-Wayne County OCD director.

The Oakland group will include representatives from the Sheriff's Department, Red Cross, Board of Health, Welfare Department and Road Commission.

Man Dies Watching $250,000 Flint Fire

FLINT (INS)—A $250,000 fire destroyed three gasoline storage tanks, a warehouse and four trucks yesterday at the Blue Oil Co. in Flint.

Each of the storage tanks contained 15,000 gallons of high octane gasoline.

A 72-year-old spectator dropped dead of a heart attack at the blaze and four firemen were overcome as the fire raged out of control for 90 minutes.

The victim was Guy H. Morse, who collapsed in a field 100 yards from the fire as he was approaching the scene.

Forty firemen and 20 volunteers battled to keep the fire from spreading to seven other tanks in line with those burning.

Flames shot up more than 100 feet and oil clouds of smoke darkened the area. Intense heat peeled paint on storage tanks 50 yards away.

Fire Department officials believe the fire resulted from static electricity built up in a gasoline truck that was unloading fuel into one of the tanks.

Maureen O'Hara Gets Custody of Daughter, 11

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—An armistice has been reached in the battle O'Hara and her former husband, television writer Will Price, over the custody of their 11-year-old daughter, Bronwyn.

The raven-haired actress, under a stipulation approved yesterday in Los Angeles superior court, retained full custody of the chid.

Price dropped a charge that his wife openly "consorted" with a wealthy Mexico City attorney in the child's presence.

NEW PARKING PLAN — Pontiac Motor has announced plans for a 300-foot long covered pedestrian bridge from the employes' parking lot to the engine plant. The bridge will enter the plant at the mezzanine floor between Plant 9 and the main cafeteria. Some 225,000 square feet of paved parking area will also be added, bringing the capacity to 8,606 cars.

Pontiac Motor to Boost Parking Area, Will Add Overhead Pedestrian Bridge

"Pontiac Motor will construct a modern 300-foot long covered pedestrian bridge from the employes' main parking lot to the engine plant and is adding 225,000 square feet of paved parking area, bringing its parking lot capicity to 8,606 cars, greater than ever before in our history," R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac general manager said today.

The insulated overhead walk will shelter plant pedestrian traffic from inclement weather. It will also relieve the congestion and safety hazard resulting from crossing the plant vehicle traffic artery during shift changes.

Steel for the new bridge is on order. Spanning the drive between the parking lots and the engine plant, it will save steps by eliminating the necessity of walking two different flights of stairs. The bridge will enter the plant at the mezzanine floor between Plant 9 and the main cafeteria.

Fluorescent lighting and exhaust fan ventilation will be used in the bridge. It will have a ground clearance of 14 feet for under passage trucks.

"The new bridge, expected to be finished before the end of the year, and the parking lot additions, near completion at this time, give our employes the best and most convenient parking facilities in the automotive industry," Critchfield said. He said the drained and lighted lots, patrolled by plant protection department to discourage pilfering of employes' cars, represent an investment for improvements alone of over $100 per car-parking space.

This does not take into account the value of the land, he added. Additional parking facilities are part of a planned program started last year when the added parking lot on the east side of Highwood, capable of holding over 400 cars, was provided for employes.

Some of the additional parking space will become available when one of the Pontiac haulaway companies vacates the lot north of Plant 14. New cars will be stored in the former haulaway lot leaving the Plant 14 lot free for more convenient parking for employes. Critchfield said a rearrangement of parking in the main parking lot would provide a reserved area for supervisor parking at the west side of the mammoth lot.

U.S. to Increase Sugar Output to Other Nations

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Agriculture Department announces an increase of 100,000 tons in the amount of sugar which may be marketed in the United States this year.

Under provisions of sugar control legislation, 96,000 tons will be allotted Cuba, the principal offshore supplier. The remaining 4,000 tons will be distributed among other Central and South American countries.

The increase was made because consumption has been running well ahead of last year. This has been reflected in recent increases in prices of both raw and refined sugar. The move was expected to prevent further increases in the near future.

Two bodies came to rest on a small glacier. A dozen others, burned and mutilated, were jammed in a section of the fuselage which fell into one of two crevasses which slice down the mountain from the point of impact. Twenty-three other bodies fell onto a small snow-covered shelf.

The largest piece of wreckage remaining intact was a part of one wing. The plane's wheels and parts of its engines were more than 1,000 feet from where it struck.

Piloted by C. C. Cooke, 34, of Menlo Park, Calif., a 12-year veteran with United, the airliner never reported after leaving Denver. Its failure to report over Rock Springs, Wyo., touched off the search.

The Civil Aeronautics Board ordered an investigation.

In addition to Cooke, the plane's crew members were R. D. Salisbury, 33, first officer, of Palo Alto, Calif., and stewardess Patricia Shuttleworth, 22, of Salt Lake City. Her parents live at Trumbull, Conn.

Truce Indicated in Road Feuding

Senate, House to Try to Settle Rift Between Ziegler, Higgins

LANSING (UP)—Legislative intervention to stop feuding over the Michigan's proposed first toll road was indicated today.

Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) and Rep. Emil A. Peltz (R-Rogers City), chairmen of the Senate and House Highway Committees, said their committees will meet jointly on the subject when the Legislature meets Nov. 1 in special session.

They said they intended to "question" State Highway Commr. Charles M. Ziegler and George N Higgins, Turnpike Authority chairman, about their differences of opinion over the proposed toll road between Saginaw and Flat Rock.

But a joint statement by Nichols and Peltz suggested that they hope to end Ziegler's opposition to the toll road.

Higgins has charged Ziegler with seeking to block the toll road by building a competing parallel freeway.

NEED CITED

The lawmakers' joint statement said "with the tremendous need for highways in Michigan there is no reason for anyone to be backing or opposing any particular road. Nor is there any reason for roads competing with each other.

"The Turnpike Authority was created by the Legislature with the understanding that it would build a particular road. The last highway bill was passed to accelerate trunkline construction.

"We need all the roads we can get from all sources and differences of opinion must be settled as quickly as possible to provide those roads.

* * *

"We hope that a meeting between the members of the legislative committees on highways with Ziegler and Higgins will help straighten out all the difficulties and get everyone busy on the main task — providing roads for Michigan."

Wanted: Cream, Sugar

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Theft of 1,634,000 potential cups of coffee was reported yesterday. A truck-trailer stolen from a trucking company yard contained 17 tons of dry coffee—but no sugar or cream.

Stalling, Prejudice Counts Heaped on Racing Officials

DETROIT (UP)—Charges of stalling and prejudice were leveled at the Michigan Racing Commission yesterday during a hearing on a proposed third track for the Detroit metropolitan area.

* * *

Two major stock subscribers of the proposed track in Troy Township pledged $1,100,000 toward financing the project at the hearing before James H. Inglis, racing commissioner.

The two are Dr. Jack I. Windshall, who pledged $500,000, and Edward Rosenberg, president of a Detroit building supply firm, who told the commission he could raise $600,000.

The Commission contends the track could not be built to standards for less than $5,492,000 and so far club subscribers have pledged only $2,968,000.

Questioned by Wilbur De Young, assistant attorney general, Windshall testified he could obtain $500,000 from "58 to 60 corporations I own."

* * *

After the hearing had been adjourned to Oct. 27, Joseph Marshall, one of the attorneys for the Thoroughbred Turf Club, which is financing the proposed race track, accused Inglis of stalling.

"We want to get started on this track," he shouted. "There's no reason why we can't take this up again next week. You're just stalling."

Inglis said the Commission was not delaying the project but needed time to study three estimates on what the track would cost. They were submitted by Theodore Rogvoy, who designed the proposed track.

* * *

Club attorneys accused De Young of being "biased" against the track.

More subscribers will be questioned at the next hearing.

Other thoroughbred tracks in the Detroit area are the Detroit Race Course and Hazel Park Race Track.

September Employment Sinks to Post-War Low

WASHINGTON (INS) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell says employment hit a monthly record in September but he did not release the actual figures.

He told newsmen yesterday that while employment climbed, students left the wrking force to return to school and thus dropped unemployment to a post-war low for the month.

Tampico Floods Claim U.S. Man

Marine 1st Loss Among Forces Keeping Weary Mexico Port City Alive

MEXICO CITY (UP)—The first death was reported today among U.S. relief forces keeping flooded Tampico alive. Reports from the Gulf Coast port said a rescue launch from the destroyer Bassett overturned and a Marine was drowned.

* * *

The Marine's identity was withheld. The only other new death reported in the city was a suicide, a merchant apparently despondent over his property losses. By unofficial count, 326 others have died in the hurricanes and floods in the Tampico area.

The Panuco River, after a month of hurricane and rain-spawned flooding, dropped a few inches. Barring more rains, the fall was expected to accelerate sharply in a few days.

But new threats of famine and water shortage developed in Tampico, its above-water blocks jammed by the city's 110,000 population and 55,000 to 70,000 refugees from the surrounding coastal plain.

* * *

A conference of federal, state and local officials announced Tampico had drinking water for only another 24 hours, that the city was without bread, flour, salt, sugar and other necessary foods, and that medical supplies were still in short supply.

Food was stacked high on the airport outside the city, but washed-out highways and bridges kept much of it from reaching the 16 or so blocks still above water in the heart of the city. Four U.S. Army amphibious vehicles arrived by air from Pueblo, Colo., to shuttle supplies.

* * *

U.S. Navy helicopters lifted refugees to the airport and passenger planes shuttled them on to inland camps. In Mexico City, the federal government discussed the possibility of removing 40,000 of Tampico's people as soon as the waters recede enough to let trucks, trains and ships through.

Tampico's city manager, Anastasio Garcia, estimated the flood damage in the city alone at 42 million dollars.

Ex-Wayne U. Dean Plunges to Death

DETROIT (UP) — The former dean of Wayne University's Medical School, Dr. Edgar H. Norris, 62, plunged to his death yesterday from his seventh floor riverfront apartment.

Dr. Norris was released recently from a sanitarium at Clarkston. Associates said he suffered from emphysema, a scarring condition of the lungs, and heart disease.

Dr. Norris was dean of Wayne's Medical School from 1939 to 1945. He resigned after the American Medical Assn. threatened to withdraw its rating from the college unless he was replaced.

Mogul to Expand Plant

GREENVILLE (UP) —Federal-Mogul Co. today announced a $700,000 expansion of its plant in Greenville that will increase employment 10 per cent. The firm now employs 725 persons here in the manufacture of automotive bearings.

The Day in Birmingham

Library Group Members to Hear Prize Winner

BIRMINGHAM — Berrien C. Ketchum, president of Friends of the Baldwin Public Library, has announced the group's program for the season, which will open Oct. 19 with a lecture by Pulitzer prize-winner Royce Howes.

Howes is associate editor of the Detroit Free Press and will speak at an 8:15 p.m. open meeting at the library on, "The Modern Newspaper — its Problems, Operations and Aims."

Details of the November program for members only, have not yet been completed, but will feature a speaker now traveling abroad.

This will be followed by "Filmorama Adventure" on Jan. 17, another closed lecture. Members will hear Robert Barnard, who has lived in the Near East and India and traveled all over the world, narrate the color film, showing the highlights of nine European countries.

Edmund Fuller, author, novelist, critic and lecturer on contemporary literature, will close the season at a March 19 open session. His subject will be, "New Books, New Writers."

William W. Williams heads the program committee.

* * *

There'll be no zoo or baseball game in sight, but plenty of peanuts on the streets of Birmingham tomorrow. The Kiwanis and Soroptimist Clubs have joined forces and will peddle the roasted morsels in a joint venture to financially aid Camp Oakland.

The camp serves as a home for less fortunate children in the county.

Before the Hamilton crossover, which would allow northbound Hunter boulevard traffic to turn left onto Hamilton, is constructed, the Planning Board would like to see further studies made on the complete left hand turn movement anticipated.

The board at its meeting this week, thought consideration should be given to installation of a traffic light to aid those turning from north onto southbound Hunter, and will pass this request on to the City Commission.

Some 160 mothers new to the Quarton School area, and new teachers, were honored at a PTA tea held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brookman yesterday, and were welcomed by the PTA board.

New teachers include Mrs. Barbara Jeffers, Mrs. Mary Morris, Mrs. Betty Bieneman, Mrs. Gloria Edwards, Carol Floyd and Frank Colpitts.

After only one week of visitation to parishioners, a total of $30,750 in memorial reservations has been tabulated in the St. Columban Catholic Church drive to lower the current debt and make way for construction of a school.

At the first of two general training meetings to be held, Father Thomas M. Kenny welcomed over 100 added workers who will be active in the campaign. Will Best is memorial gifts chairman, with the general workers headed by Robert Tamm.

Nine-year-old Gary Moore, son of Mrs. E. M. Moore, suffered only bruises yesterday when police said he darted from in between some parked cars near his home at 292 Daines St., into the path of an auto driven by Mrs. E. B. Barton, 50, of 18185 Dublaine.

Trust Company Kept for Dodge's Estate

DETROIT (INS)—In a probate court opinion in Detroit today, Judge Patrick H. O'Brien declined to remove the Detroit Trust Co. as one of the trustees of the $36 million estate of the late Horace E. Dodge, automotive pioneer.

The ruling by Judge O'Brien is a defeat for Mrs. Christine Cromwell Asserson, granddaughter of Dodge and his widow, Mrs. Anna Thompson Dodge, the other trustee. Dodge died in 1920.

Mrs. Asserson charged that the trustees, who have invested the fortune entirely in tax-exempt municipal and U. S. government bonds, could have enriched the estate by millions if they had bought common stocks.

Judge O'Brien also refused to allow a $16 million surcharge against the estate, and he accepted the 25th annual accounting of the trustees, with the provision that both sides agree to a charge against the trustees of $10,502.19, which represents a loss taken on the sale of $500,000 in bonds.

Mississippi Events 'Grieve' Churches

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The General Board of the National Council of Churches says it feels "deep grief" over the recent "tragic events in Mississippi."

However, the board did not mention specifically the case of Emmett Till, 14-year-old Negro boy, in its resolution. Two white men were tried on a charge of murdering Till but were acquitted.

Proposals to include specific mention of the Till case and Southern school segregation in the resolution were voted down at the close of the board's quarterly meeting yesterday.

Terrorists Attacked

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Army reports from Macassar said government troops attacked the headquarters of an outlawed Moslem Darul Islam terrorist gang at Pasaloreng, north of Macassar, in the Celebes, killing 13 men.

The United States Capitol, wings and all, could be fitted into the area of any of the Pentagon's five wedge-shaped sides.

With dropper count out 7 to 8 drops into the palm of one hand. Then with the fingertips of the other hand spread the precious liquid over the skin with special attention around eyes, mouth and throat. It's fragrant and greaseless—so thrifty, too, one bottle will give you nearly a 100 day supply.

Army Improves Offer for 6-Month Volunteers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army is holding out the prospect of officers' commission for young men who volunteer to take six months active duty training under the new reserve program.

This additional inducement for pre-draft-age men followed a slow start in getting volunteers for the new reserve program that got under way officially Oct. 1. Only 1,167 men under 18½ years signed up in time to join the first class of short-term reserve trainees.

Hopes Fade for Release of U.S. Captives in China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic sources said today Red China shows no sign so far of keeping its promise of four weeks ago to tell 19 imprisoned Americans they are free to leave China.

* * *

Not only have the prisoners not been released, the informants said, but the Red Chinese have denied them contact with the British official designated to work with them.

* * *

This, it was learned, is the chief snag in the highly secret negotiations at Geneva between U.S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson and Red Chinese Ambassador Wang Ping-nan toward easing Far Eastern conflicts.

* * *

Wang agreed Sept. 10 after six weeks of repatriation talks that Americans in China had a right to leave "expeditiously." He promised that Red China would "give wide publicity" to this agreement and would permit Con O'Neill, the British charge d'affaires at Peiping, to do likewise.

Ten Americans who had been jailed have since left Red China. So, too, have four of the dozen Americans who have been refused exit permits. The other eight of these presumably know they are free to leave.

* * *

To date, however, O'Neill is reported to have been frustrated by Peiping each time he has tried to get in touch with the other Americans — 18 in jail and one virtually a prisoner.

Red China's press and radio have published the Sept. 10 agreement but no evidence has been forthcoming that the news trickled into the jails where it counts, or that it has brought the desired result of freedom.

North Carolina has 383 Rayon and silk mills with 807,767 spindles, more than any other southern state.

Ford's Mahwah Plant Will Go on Two Shifts

DEARBORN (INS)—Ford Division today announced its Mahwah, N. J., assembly plant will go on a two-shift production schedule at the first of the year.

Ford Vice President Robert S. McNamara said the step is part of a drive to increase the division's capacity by 250,000 units in 1956.

"Even with the expanded capacity," McNamara added, "there is every indication that we will continue to operate our plants at the same level as during 1955."

Mahwah installation is the largest assembly plant in the Ford system.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1955

Pontiac Commission Is Entitled to More Pay

Pontiac's salary committee has recommended an increase for City Commissioners.

This would be the first change in remuneration for them since the current charter was adopted in 1920. That was 35 years ago, or more than a third of a century.

★ ★ ★

The Press believes that the City Fathers are richly entitled to the proposed increase. Offhand, can you name very many that haven't had a raise in 35 years? Furthermore, the new rate is still on the low side. The committee recommended a maximum of twenty-five dollars for each meeting attended and placed a maximum of $1,300 that any one of them may draw in a year.

★ ★ ★

Probably few citizens realize just how much time the Commissioners spend on city affairs. The formal weekly sessions are just a part of the story. Every Commissioner must attend countless extra sessions to study and consider the manifold problems that are always present. When the original rate was set, Pontiac was just a fraction of the size it is now and the problems were fewer and less complicated.

Probably the taxpayers have been negligent in not suggesting sooner that the additional work and duties of the City Commission be recognized.

★ ★ ★

The Mayor's annual stipend of $2,000 is very modest in return for all the time he gives to the municipality. The Press believes that Mayor Donaldson is richly entitled to the increase. He has devoted long hours to Civic affairs. The number of times he is called upon to represent the City in various functions and ceremonies is incredible in itself. Furthermore, this never ends and never will.

It shouldn't.

★ ★ ★

The Press is in favor of economical government, but we believe the "laborer is worthy of his hire" and here we see a serious abuse that has gone uncorrected too long. We feel the current commission is doing well and devoting itself to its duties with sincerity and diligence.

Worldwide Air Traffic Spurred by 60 Nations

One of the many wonders of modern life is the rapidity with which the "impossible" becomes routine.

It seems like only yesterday when forecasts of speedy overseas flights sounded fantastic. Similarly, the day when the call of such place names as London, Cairo, Bangkok and Tokyo would echo through air terminals seemed distant indeed.

★ ★ ★

The startling fact today is that world air travel has grown to 36 times the volume of prewar days. Governments and airlines of 60 nations have built a global air transport system embracing 3,500 cities on every continent.

★ ★ ★

All this didn't come about by accident. It was planned. Plane manufacturers and airlines, especially those in this country, have been imaginative and enterprising. Not only have they pioneered new types of planes and flying technics, but offer tickets on the installment plan to lure more people into traveling by air.

The response has been remarkable. As a result airline officials believe growth in the years ahead may be still more spectacular.

Security Council's Work Becoming Better Known

One of the results of President Eisenhower's illness has been to focus public attention on the hitherto little known National Security Council.

The Council was created by law in 1947 during the Truman Administration. Its membership, besides the President and Vice President, includes the Secretaries of State and Defense and the Directors of Foreign Aid and Defense Mobilization. The original statute empowers the President, if he so desires, to increase Council membership with Senate approval.

★ ★ ★

The idea of such a body came from our first Secretary of Defense, the late James Forrestal. He conceived the Council as "an instrument for effective and frequent co-ordination between national policy and military potential."

Originally the Vice President was not a member. The law was amended to include him at the request of former President Truman who said he felt that he had been thrust into the presidency with inadequate knowledge of executive department operations.

★ ★ ★

During his election campaign President Eisenhower promised to make NSC more effective. He kept this promise by raising the Council to a higher policy study level and to a place of greater prestige.

However, the Council which always operates in secrecy, never votes and acts only in an advisory capacity. If there is no unanimous agreement, all members present their views to the President in writing and he makes the final decision. The Council was never intended to act as a substitute for the President.

Stepped On!

David Lawrence Says:

Planting of Microphones in Jury Chamber for Research Infringes on Basic Rights

WASHINGTON — Strange goings on—The news comes out that a group of University of Chicago professors recently planted hidden microphones in a jury room without the knowledge or consent of the jurors. All this supposedly comes under the head of "research." It is being defended now on the ground that the attorneys in the case and the judge consented — but nobody seems to have been worried about the discourtesy to, if not the violation of the rights of, the jurors themselves, who didn't know that what they were saying to each other privately was being recorded and transcribed for the eyes and ears of persons who had no moral right to eavesdrop in the first place.

* * *

It would have brought the loudest of protests from coast to coast if Sen. McCarthy's committee or any of the other congressional investigating groups had tried the same sort of "research" in order to get information about the conversations or organizations or discussion groups of various kinds.

It would have been, of course, interesting "research" for a congressional committee to sit in on meetings held by ideological groups. But the cry would have gone up that this was a gross breach of the Bill of Rights and all the other rights of the individual guaranteed by the Constitution.

Yet today it has been revealed that the Ford Foundation made the grant of funds to the University of Chicago Law School and that the project involved a study of the jury system. It is probable that the Ford Foundation didn't know that its money was going to be used to plant microphones in jury rooms, nor did it presumably know why it was necessary for the managers of the research project to get information in this peculiar way.

NO PROBE IN SIGHT

But it is a safe bet that the committee headed by Sen. Hennings of Missouri, Democrat, which is studying abuses of constitutional rights, will not investigate this, though already the Senate subcommittee on internal security has announced it will take testimony. The episode actually belongs in the field of the Hennings Committee.

The attorney general, Herbert Brownell, expressed himself in indignant terms concerning the project. He issued a statement in which he said that the wiring of the jury room was done "without the knowledge or consent of the jurors and without the knowledge or consent of the attorney general, in at least five civil cases." He then said in part:

"We in the Department of Justice are unequivocally opposed to any recording or eavesdropping on the deliberations of a jury under any conditions regardless of the purpose. Such practices, however well intentioned, obviously and inevitably stifle the discussion and free exchange of ideas between jurors. They tend to destroy the very basis for common judgment among the jurors, upon which the institution of trial by jury is based, and are inconsistent with the purposes of the seventh amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which requires that trial by jury shall be preserved."

The word "unreasonable" means that the limits of intrusion must be defined by law. There are currently pending in Congress some bills to permit wiretapping when a federal judge, upon a showing of the circumstances of a suspected crime, approves the use of listening devices.

But in this instance there was no crime suspected. It was, therefore, a sheer invasion of the right of privacy on the mistaken assumption that some beneficent purpose of research might be served. This could just as well have been fulfilled by interviewing the jurors afterwards as to their suggestions for improvement of the system or by seeing to it that some of the professors or students serve in juries. They could reveal their recommendations or proposed reforms in the classroom afterwards without violating the confidence of the jury room.

The attorney general has announced that he will ask Congress to pass laws "to prevent such intrusions upon the privacy of the deliberations of both grand and petit juries of the courts of the United States by any persons whomsoever and by any means whatsoever."

This would include the new-fangled "research" techniques, too.

Less Anesthetic Needed During Childbirth at Home

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

In Natural Childbirth (Williams & Wilkins, $2) the author, Helen Heardman, mother of three children, the first when she was 37, says labor is physiological and unobstructed and the mother reaches the climax of the actual birth fully conscious, confident and joyous.

She also says that it is not often that anesthesia or analgesia will be required, but it must be available and offered, though never forced; that is, the mother herself decides whether she wants it.

The movie star Coleen Gray, who had her baby at home the natural way, said:

"The anesthetic . . . you can administer yourself if you wish. Knowing that you can have the anesthetic at any time you want it—you don't want it! At least I didn't. But the fact that it is available is assurance against being tense. You can relax."

In Childbirth Without Fear (Harper and Bros. $2.75) the author, Grantly Dick Read, M. A., M. D., said:

"Most doctors today would scorn the idea that labor can be a pleasurable experience."

Yet, as Dr. Read himself has demonstrated not only the mothers but also the babies are happier at home than they are in a hospital.

MOTHER SECURE

You poor creatures who regard childbirth as a kind of illness best treated in a hospital will hardly understand the observation of the physician who attended one of these home deliveries (most of his patients still have their babies in the hospital):

* * *

"The mother is in an atmosphere where she feels safe" (at home, where, of course, she is safer than she would be in a hospital). "She feels that she is the boss of the situation herself, not helpless in the strangeness of a hospital."

Mothers whose babies are born at home, said the doctor, require less anesthetic than those who have hospital deliveries. This is understandable—the poor creatures who regard childbirth as a dreadful ordeal clutch at anything that will dull consciousness or black it out, whereas, those who regard childbirth as a "beautiful experience," "the greatest physical and emotional event of our lives" or "a religious experience" usually "feel no need for" anesthetics.

After all, I must confess I have never had a baby, so I can merely report what mothers say about it. But I feel sorry for the husband—I nearly said man—who permits any so-and-so rules, regulations, customs, or make-believe decency or modesty to prevent or excuse him from sharing in the miracle of childbirth with his wife in their home. Hearing the baby's first cry and seeing the baby cuddled in mother's arms is the greatest emotional experience a man can have, I can tell you. It strengthens the marital bond and deters against divorce, which, God knows, is horribly frequent in Yankeeland.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Establishment of Dating Bureau Would Help Solve Serious Social Problem

Francele's problem confronts millions. If some of you wealthy widows and widowers want to find true happiness in a second marriage, help finance the non-profit Scientific Dating Bureau described below and I'll guarantee to get you ideal mates. I'll personally pick you the cream of the crop, but this Dating Bureau will demand $100,000 annually as a subsidy.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-359: Francele R., aged 27, is a high school Latin teacher.

"Dr. Crane, I really enjoy my teaching, too," she admitted, "and yet, I am becoming more depressed every year.

"For I am not married! And all my friends are, so I am like a fifth wheel when they invite me to parties.

"You would consider me reasonably attractive to look at, wouldn't you, Dr. Crane?

"And I try to dress well. I have no bad habits. I attend church every Sunday, but don't seem to have much chance there to meet any eligible men.

"Either the men are too young for me, or they are already married. I'm in an age bracket where it seems doubly hard to find suitable men.

* * *

"Life looks bleak to me. It's no fun going to movies alone. I wish your Scientific Dating Bureau were available."

OUR GRAVEST PROBLEM

Our most serious social problem in America nowadays is this failure to help eligibles meet desirable members of the opposite sex.

Earlier this year a magazine article stressed the fact that there are 11,000,000 marriageable women in this country without likely prospects.

And there are probably 7,000,000 men in the same boat. I receive letters from hundreds of fine men, as well as women, who would make ideal marriage material.

If a flood causes 10,000 families to be evacuated, our fine Red Cross goes to their rescue.

But here we have a potential 7,000,000 marriages that should materialize but nobody seems seriously interested.

REMAIN SINGLE

Meanwhile, wonderful women and men wither away as old maids and bachelors.

Often, their very superior qualities of family responsibility and sense of duty have prevented their earlier marriage.

* * *

For example, maybe they were the youngest child who was left to look after invalided parents. Dutifully they stuck to the family problem, and when the aged parents pass on, the dutiful daughter may be 30 or 35.

She can't run around the country in search of romance, for her limited funds or teaching job hold her in her small community.

But most of the eligibles of her age bracket are already married or have moved elsewhere.

And the same is true of many fine men. Physicians, dentists, clergymen, lawyers, school teachers, scientific farmers and others write me every week, asking me to recommend the names of girls whom I deem suitable for them for possible romance and marriage.

SCIENTIFIC DATING BUREAU

But I have no facilities to meet this need. Oh, I'll gladly donate my time to help direct such a Scientific Dating Bureau.

But it must have probably $100,000 per year from philanthropists to keep up the expenses of the central office, plus a promotional agent who would be on the road to recruit clergymen, Boy Scout executives and similar ethical men to serve as field agents, who would call on local applicants and certify them as eligible.

I know this kind of organization would be a huge success. In fact, I've lost seven personal secretaries to men who thus wrote in to my office.

These girls decided marriage was happier than being a private secretary, so they took their pick, and have been happily married ever since.

Send for my booklet on "How to Find a Mate," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Urges Church Members to Help Guide Youngsters

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

This is an open letter to church members who do not feel it necessary to live and help guide the young people and children of our churches today.

What are you doing in God's service today? There are children to lead and to teach. These are the responsibilities of Christian people.

Are you taking your place in the church today? Are you helping to care for the lambs of the fold or are you putting yourself on the back that this Sunday you sat for an hour in church and put two dollars in the collection plate?

Now we are all through for another week. This only salves a person's conscience, and it does not fulfill our duty to God and the coming generation.

There are many workers in churches who, because they have helped for a few years, feel they will no longer work. They have so much good, Christian experience to give the younger ones, but their attitude is, "Let John do it."

Where would the world be if Jesus had not given all the way? Are you giving your best for the Master? Are you willing to do His service? There is work in our churches for Christian helpers to do. There is work for you.

What a discouraging job it must be for a minister to hear his people saying, "Let someone else do it." Stand beside your minister for there is so much work to do. If God has given you a talent, bring it forth for the glory of His Kingdom. Christian leaders are needed.

High City Wages Cause Some of Farmers' Woes

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

Evidently it is everybody's right to take a sock at Ezra Taft Benson, secretary of agriculture.

* * *

Farm income has been declining, and that creates an adverse climate for discussion.

For too long have statesmen from the cotton belt, for example, cried out against the Cotton Exchange when quotations fall, though they appear to tolerate the market place when prices are rising.

Those from the wheat and corn belt have similarly at times resented the fact that the Chicago Board of Trade reflects downs as well as ups at the market place.

* * *

In the house organ of the CIO, the CIO News, appears an editorial headed "Benson's Nonsense."

Supporting the thesis, the labor editor remarks: "Higher wages to city workers, the secretary says, are a cause of the farm problem. The secretary is talking economic nonsense."

But is he?

BALANCED ECONOMY

Economic activity proceeds at a high level when the national economy is in balance, that is, when the great economic groups of workers in agriculture, industry and the service trades are in position to swap freely among themselves the products of their hours of labor.

* * *

In free and unrestricted markets, these relationships tend to approach an equilibrium.

But in the matter of urban labor, or at least that segment represented by the unions, the Congress has conferred on the unions an authority which in practical effect gives them a power to set artificial labor rates and hence costs of manufactured goods.

To the extent that industry has had any artificial price support, whether from labor and social legislation, on the one hand, or protective tariffs, on the other, there is a hazard of putting the artificially supported group out of balance with a group such as farmers which may be subject more or less to the free bartering of an open market reflecting global trends in respect to supply and demand.

* * *

Of course, the defense of agricultural price supports, whether of the inflexible type of the Fair Deal or the flexible type of the Eisenhower administration, is the necessity of bringing farmers in line with city workers, who have been artificially propped up.

Since 1921, particularly since the advent of the New Deal and the Fair Deal, federal legislation has encouraged the growth of unions, and in the recent years of postwar prosperity the trend of industrial wage costs has been steadily upward.

* * *

The solution of living together in harmony can't rest on emotional economics, but requires calm and objective analysis in the spirit of the good neighbor.

THE LAND OF DOWN UNDER—5
A Real Live Teddy Bear

The Teddy bear was invented in America and named after a famous hunter and President, Theodore Roosevelt — who was a cousin of the President Franklin Roosevelt that you probably have heard most about.

But many, many years before either of our President Roosevelts was born, Australians knew and loved a little animal that looks very much like a Teddy bear.

It's called the koala and is not a bear at all nor even a mammal. Instead, it is a marsupial. A marsupial carries its young in a pouch, like our possum does. Australia has far more marsupials than any other land. In general, marsupials are not as smart as mammals nor as good fighters. But in Australia until recent years there were very few mammals, so that the marsupials could grow and multiply.

The koala, about two feet tall, was once common. Many were killed by a mysterious disease, however, and many were killed by hunters. Today the government protects them.

Drinking not at all, but finding all the liquid as well as all the food it needs in the leaves of the eucalyptus, the koala spends its time in the trees. It has little fear of people.

For your collection, color the koalas a soft graying brown and white below. Paste the picture down on heavy brown paper, and cut out along the heavy black lines and through the slots on the big koala's back. Now you can use the tabs to attach the big koala to a tree twig and the little one to the big one's back. Stick the twig into a lump of clay on your desk.

ALLEGAN (AP) — A 79-year-old landmark, a wellhouse which was the city's sole water source from 1876 until 1930, has been razed for better visibility at the intersection where it stood. Officials said the well was abandoned in 1932 when its water vein became depleted. Two other wells for Allegan were drilled in 1930 and 1931.

Bird Puts Airliner Out of Commission

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) —A San Francisco-bound United Air Lines Convair collided with a bird in a landing descent last night and caused a brief scare aboard.

Capt. Edward E. Bowker, San Francisco, the pilot, said the thud sounded like a nose wheel tire blowing out. He radioed the municipal airport to alert the emergency equipment.

The bird — presumably a goose —caused a dent 18 inches in diameter and 6 inches deep in the center in the hollow nose of the two-engine craft.

Oliver Judd, UAL service manager, said although the Convair was in "perfectly good condition," the 21 passengers were transferred to another ship. The dented plane was ferried to San Francisco empty.

U.S. to Press Atom Conference at U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States was expected to press today for another international atomic conference as the U.N.'s Political Committee turned to peaceful use of atomic energy.

Sen. John O. Pastore (D-RI) was slated to take the floor for the United States. A U.S. spokesman said he probably would stress that the United States feels the international conference held in Geneva last August was such a success that a similar parley should be held within the next three years.

American circles said the United States intends to cosponsor a resolution calling for such a conference and predicted it would get warm support from the 60-nation body.

Hal Boyle Says:

Her 'Wares' Include Mosquitoes, Elephants

NEW YORK (AP)—If you ever want to rent a mosquito—and, pray tell, who doesn't?—Lorraine D'Essen is just the young lady for you.

* * *

Mrs. D'Essen, a comely, hazel-eyed woman in her early 30s, has one of the oddest jobs in this oddest of all possible worlds. She is an animal talent scout.

* * *

In three years she has built up a $100,000-a-year business locating specially trained animals for the movies, television programs, advertising agencies and industrial firms.

* * *

Her casting bureau for animal actors now can draw on 750 furred or feathered creatures ranging in size from a sneering muse to a dancing elephant.

* * *

"So far I haven't had a call for a tightrope-walking trained whale," mused Mrs. D'Essen, "and, frankly, I'd just as soon I never do."

* * *

If she does get such a call, she might rise to the emergency. Her failures are few.

* * *

One example of the crises that arise almost daily in her unusual career: A studio sent a hurry-up call for a mosquito—in the middle of February.

* * *

"I finally located one in Florida, and had it flown here," recalled Mrs. D'Essen.

* * *

"The mosquito had had no special training, but proved a great natural talent. The scene called for a close-up of him biting a man's hand. He went through his role as if he had spent his life before a camera. The scene didn't require a single retake."

* * *

For this one performance the studio paid $100, making the mosquito perhaps the highest paid sect in history.

"What did we do with him?" said Mrs. D'Essen. "We turned him loose in the studio. I didn't feel like swatting him. Who wants to swat a $100-a-day performer?"

* * *

Her animal actors average $100 an appearance, whether it is for a moment, an hour, or a full day. Elephants, whose upkeep is more expensive, get the top rate—$750.

Mrs. D'Essen rents some of the animals from other trainers, keeps many of her own on a 37-acre farm at Gillette, N.J.

They often remain overnight in her four-story old brick home in Greenwich Village.

"We have an animal United Nations there," she said. "Right now we are keeping an American crow, a llama from Peru (he is named Llucky and has a girl friend named LLinda), an English sheep dog, two great Danes, a wombat named 'Mr. Wimpole' from Australia, a Siamese cat, and a Yorkshire terrier called 'T. S. Eliot'.

"All of them are real characters. Each animal has his own personality. If you take the trouble to understand his personality, then he usually will take the trouble to understand yours."

Her current favorite is the bird, known as "Ole Crow," who makes one of the fattest livings of anything in feathers as the talking trademark for a firm that makes a well-known Kentucky beverage.

"Ole (pronounced 'oh-lee') is the member of a crow family that has spent four generations in captivity," said Mrs D'Essen. "He has a vocabulary of 14 words (none are four letters) and can mew like a cat.

"He has been given an honorary college degree, owns a 36-by-36-inch Texas ranch, is an actual stockholder in a distillery, and loves to go to cocktail parties."

* * *

"Ole" won't eat crow for anybody. But he does love to dine on baked chicken, apple pie and ice cream, and cheesecake. At cocktail functions he is limited to an aperitif consisting of two drops of bourbon in water.

"If he takes three drops, he gets higher than an eagle," observed Mrs. D'Essen.

* * *

She has one tip to people who want to get along with dogs.

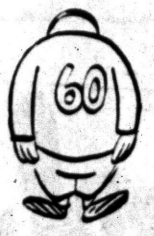

"Never pat them on the skull," she said. "A dog hates this worse than you do a stranger who suddenly slaps you on the back.

"As a matter of fact you should never try to pet a dog until he comes up to you first."

Spicy Testimony Doesn't Keep Juror Awake

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Asst. Dist. Atty. George Miller suddenly interrupted testimony in a spicy bawdy house trial yesterday.

Pointing to a juror, Miller said, "Judge, I think that man is asleep."

Juror R. F. Colston slept through the interruption. When Judge Byron Johnson of the County Court-at-Law spoke to him, Colston jerked up, blinking.

* * *

"Did you go to sleep?" the judge asked.

"I may have," Colston replied, still blinking.

* * *

Defense attorney Jack Knight promptly moved for a mistrial. "I thought he was going to fall out of his chair," he said of the sleepy juror.

Johnson overruled the motion but recessed court until today "to give the jury a little rest," a courtroom attache said.

The Detroit Municipal Parking Authority reports that 14 million motorists used the city's municipal parking system last year for a net profit of $612,000.

Small Satellites Seen as Failure

Rocket Chief Calculates Basketball-Size Vessels 100 Miles Up Will Fade

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leading rocket expert has calculated that a basketball-sized space satellite at an altitude of 100 miles would last less than an hour.

* * *

At 200 miles it could last about 15 days, and at 300 miles for about a year, Dr. Homer Newell told the national capital section of the American Rocket Society last night. Newell is acting superintendent of the Atmosphere and Astral Physics Division of the Naval Research Laboratory.

He based his calculations on a satellite about the size, shape and weight of a basketball, traveling at a speed of 18,000 miles an hour. That is the expected speed of the satellite which the United States hopes to send aloft by 1957.

* * *

The Defense Department, announcing two contract awards yesterday, said the exact size and shape of the satellite itself have not yet been determined, and added that it will probably travel in an elliptical orbit, varying its height above the earth. As it slows down, gravity is expected to pull it into denser atmosphere where it will disintegrate.

Newell said the U.S. Committee for the International Geophysical Year, of which he is a member, is thinking in terms of launching 6 to 10 space satellites during that "year" — actually, an 18-month period from July 1957 through December 1958.

* * *

He said the initial satellites probably will be "passive" — that is, they will contain no instruments whatever. Later ones may contain radio telemetering equipment to send back information from outer space.

GM's Kyes Makes 10-Year Prediction

DETROIT (INS) — General Motors Vice Prsesident Roger M. Kyes predicts that 60 per csent of American homes will be air conditioned by 1965.

Kyes, head of GM'sDayton, hou hold appliance and GMC Truck group, added that annual sales of refrigerators and automatic washers will have increaed by a million units in the next 10 years.

He predicted "substantial increases in the sle of all household appliances" and said the industry should double its sales volume in electric dryer and "more than quadruple" the sales of dishwashers and food wasfe disposers.

secretary said by 1965, "American consumers may well enjoy a dolar and a half of income for every dollar they have today."

Veteran Educator Believes

College Race, Creed Prejudice Fading

WASHINGTON (AP) —A veteran college educator said today that racial and religious discrimination by fraternities and sororities is fading, and would fade faster if it were left up to local chapters.

Several college presidents and a student leader agreed with him in interviews between sessions of the American Council on Education.

* * *

"The fraternities and sororities are moving on this issue," said Harry J. Carman, dean emeritus and now a professor at Columbia University, New York. "I have visited some 150 campuses in the past five years and have found that the local chapters usually are ahead of their national organizations."

* * *

Carman and others interviewed saw the discrimination question as one that would solve itself in 10 or 15 years.

President A. Blair Knapp of Denison University, Granville, Ohio, said he believed 85 per cent of the fraternity and sorority students at his school would support desegregation in their organizations.

* * *

President Howell H. Brooks of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, had a different kind of complaint against fraternities.

"My observation," he said, "is that they don't take part as an effective force in the college community. Their leaders don't come in and talk with me about how they can help the college as a whole. When their national officers visit the campus I never see them."

* * *

Backing this view, Harry Lunn, retiring president of the U. S. National Student Assn., said, "Discrimination is a long-range problem that will be worked out slowly, but the question of college service is much more pressing and quickly attainable."

Lunn, a 1954 graduate of the University of Michigan and a member of Acacia fraternity, said he believed "American student opinion—except possibly in the South—is generally in favor of abolishing antiracial and antireligious clauses in fraternity constitutions."

Farm Price Index Is Up 2 Points in September

LANSING (AP) — The index of prices received by Michigan farmers rose two points in the month ending in mid-September, but still is seven points below a year ago.

The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said that increases for milk, eggs, wheat and some vegetables boosted the general level.

The livestock and livestock products index was four points above the preceding month and three points above the preceding year.

The all-crops index was down one point from mid-August and 22 points from the preceding year, the service said.

* * *

Evinrude, 48, is vice chairman of the Outboard, Marine and Manufacturing Co. of Milwaukee.

It is a second marriage for both. Miss Langford, 42, is divorced from from actor Jon Hall. They had no children. Evinrude has two children by a previous marriage which ended in divorce.

West State Resorts Show Gain in Year

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Members of the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Assn., heard their secretary-manager report that their industry recorded a gain estimated conservatively at eight per cent in the past year.

* * *

Chester C. Wells said the tourist and vacation business still is far from its peak and still is growing throughout the nation and in Michigan.

He said the estimated gain was the result of field reports on increased Straits of Mackinac crossings, increased state park attendance and West Michigan traffic counts.

No final dollar estimate is available yet, he said.

* * *

Wells predicted the completed St. Lawrence Seaway and a multi-million dollar northern Michigan jet air base will lead to an era of tremendous business opportunities.

* * *

"The impact undoubtedly will be felt in the expansion of the tourist and resort industry," he said.

* * *

The association is meeting in Grand Rapids this week for its 38th annual session.

Newsmen Risk Lives to Keep You Informed

(Editor's note: This is National Newspaper Week, and here a famed columnist and reporter illustrates the theme of this year's observance: "Your Newspaper — Fights for Your Right to Know.")

NEW YORK (INS) — Herbert Hoover, a man whose administration often was lambasted by the American press, once wrote: "Absolute freedom of the press to discuss public questions is a foundation stone of American liberty."

* * *

Walter Lippmann said it this way: "There can be no liberty for a community which lacks the information by which to detect lies."

* * *

A generation ago, Nobel Peace Prize winner Sir Norman Angell wrote: "If a people are to be in a position to judge the conduct of their government, to decide whether it is doing well or ill, to decide the merits of public policy at all; if, indeed, they are to preserve the capacity for sound judgment, they must have facts before them not only as the government would have them put, but also as those who disagree with the government may desire to put them."

* * *

These thoughts are recalled here because this is National Newspaper Week, the theme of which is "Your Newspaper Fights for Your Right to Know." We've been footing our horn a bit these past few days. Stand by for a few final toots:

The Ku Klux Klan is no longer a power through large regions of the U.S. because newspapers ferreted out its excesses and crimes and an aroused public required of its somewhat fearful law officers that the sheeted thugs and scofflaws be aired.

* * *

The same is true in details about the national crime syndicate. Newspapers were inquiring into its influence long before Sen. Kefauver got so effectively on its trail.

EXPOSE GRAFT

Newspapers have brought about more exposes of political graft and malpractice than any law-enforcing institution. This often takes courage.

In his own bailiwick, Huey Long once attemped to tax unfriendly papers out of existence or bring them to boot. The papers fought the case to the Supreme Court.

Justice Sutherland said, "The tax is bad because, in the light of its history and of its present setting, it is seen to be a deliberate and calculated device in the guise of a tax to limit the circulation of information to which the public is entitled in virtue of the constitutional guaranties. A free press stands as one of the great interpreters between the government and the people. To allow it to be fettered is to fetter ourselves." We won.

"Who let them in?" Stalin asked Truman at Potsdam, as he nodded toward the reporters. It is a question that has been raised by generations of politicians and bosses.

The U.S. Senate in its early days twice defeated motions to permit its proceedings to be opened to the press. No President until Theodore Roosevelt provided for press accommodations at the executive office, and the open White House press conference did not become common practice until F.D.R.'s time.

* * *

Lord Kitchener ordered all newsmen who appeared "in or near the lines" arrested during World War I. Not even "Editor and Publisher," the Bible of our business, knows how many editors and reporters have been threatened, jailed, tarred and feathered, horsewhipped, slugged and killed for telling the truth about a bad situation.

The eary newsmen here and in England spent as much time in chains as in their printing shops. But some were treated worse, like Elijah Parish Lovejoy (1802-1837), killed by a mob while defending his press on which he had called for eemancipation of the slaves.

ROLE OF THE PRESS

Newsmen have swallowed fears and turned their backs on aggregate millions of dollars in bribes in order to produce what W.R. Hearst many years ago described in these words:

"The press has a vital role to play in maintaining the vigor of democracy and continuing the existence of one true republic. It must print the truth fully and fearlessly. It must not print biased propaganda as news.

"It must give the public accurate information. It must open its columns to free and illuminating discussion. It must do its full and impartial duty in enabling the citizenry to conduct their democratic government wisely and successfully."

Joseph Pulitzer said it this way: "We are a democracy and there is only one way to get a democracy on its feet in the matter of its individual, its social, its municipal, its state, its national conduct, and that is by keeping the public informed about what is going on.

"There is not a crime, there is not a dodge, there is not a trick, there is not a swindle, there is not a vice which does not live by secrecy. Get these things out in the open, describe them, attack them, ridicule them in the press, and sooner or later public opinion will sweep them away."

* * *

Four score and more reporters' names line the walls of New York's Memorial Press Center, killed covering war and disorder. Less dramatic, hundreds of U.S. newspapers are daily engaged in activities that affect only their communities: Slum clearance demands, public health programs, fights against juvenile delinquency, narcotic peddlers, and rascality in high and low places.

* * *

There's generally an effort made to balk this work. The purpose of these recent pieces was just to say that come hell or high water the U.S. press will remain in there pitching for your "right to know,".

8-Year-Old Electrocuted While Climbing Tree

CASSOPOLIS (AP)—Eight-year-old Dale Hofer was electrocuted yesterday when he climbed a tree in a woods near his home and touched a 7,200-volt line.

* * *

Clare W. Marks, 52, of Bear Lake, who was struck by 140,000 volts Sept. 28 while working on a power substation, died last night in a Battle Creek hospital of burns over 90 per cent of his body.

Fish Planting Is Topic

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—Rep. Kenneth O. Trucks (R-Baldwin) has announced a meeting Oct. 13 to discuss the feasibility of planting fish in the Great Lakes bordering Michigan. Conservation experts indicate a planting program could be started soon with hopes of controlling the predatory sea lamprey expected within three or four years.

Dem Chairman to Talk

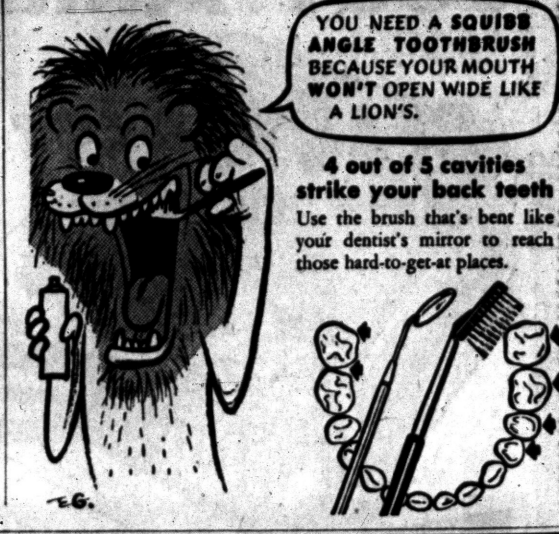

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Paul M. Butler, Democratic national chairman, is scheduled to deliver the principal address Oct. 15 at the fifth congressional district Democratic dinner with Gov. Williams and other state Democratic figures in attendance.

BMOC AND JUST STARTING — Truly the big man on the John Carroll campus in Cleveland, Ohio, is freshman Thomas Manwell, left. He's so big ROTC officials had to go through channels all the way to Philadelphia, Pa., to get him pants. How big is he? Height, 6 feet, 4 inches. Weight, 275. Belt size, 4 feet 7 inches. Shoes, 12-D. Socks, 13. Shirt 17½-35. Mischievously climbing into a pair of Army pants two sizes too small for Manwell are classmates Bob D'Alessandro, 18, of Cleveland, and Charles Muer, 18, of Grosse Pointe,, Mich.

Ants in the Pantry?

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — Firemen rushed to the closed Pantry Cafe Tuesday night when a passerby reported the restaurant was filled with smoke. The effort was in vain, however, as firemen discovered the cafe mist-filled by an insect repellent.

Bay City Game, Play Top News at PHS

By VICY MICU

Top news at Pontiac High is "Land of Oz," the school play to be presented Tuesday through Friday. Tickets were sold by Playcrafters this week, with Thursday evening tickets going on reserve yesterday.

Today the Chiefs take on the Bay City eleven at Bay City, to open the Saginaw Valley Conference for Pontiac. If enough sign up, a bus will be chartered to carry students to the game.

Speech students have been tape recording five - minute speeches on "I Speak for Democracy," so that revisions could be made before judging starts. Winners will enter state competition, and from there will go on to national competition.

The debate squad will take part in an inter-school debate tournament next week, and a constructive speech contest. There will be a practice debate with Walled Lake Monday.

Lots of primping this week, as students "watched the birdie" while pictures for the Quiver, the school annual, were taken.

Fencing instruction starts at 7 p.m. Wednesday, sponsored by the Dept. of Parks and Recreation. The weekly sessions are free, with all equipment furnished. Both students and adults can attend.

Last year PHS organized its own fencing club. The boys team placed first in the state and won the revolving trophy, and two boys placed second and third in the individual state competition.

Officers elected by the Girls Recreation Association are Connie Reaver, president; Margaret Liddy, vice president; Sharon Coon, secretary; and Claudie Wasic, treasurer.

Glad tidings for girls—there are 12 more boys than girls enrolled this semester. Total enrollment is 2,428.

Area Schools Are Active

Freshman initiations elections and club meetings sparked activities at several Oakland County high schools this week.

West Bloomfield sophomores led the freshmen a merry chase at initiation ceremonies Wednesday. Freshman girls had to wear wave clamps in their hair, five pigtails on each side and pincurls in back. Makeup was the word "Freshie" in lipstick across the forehead.

'Wizard of Oz' to Open for 4-Day Run Tuesday

Monkeys will report Tuesday. The girls army will drill after school. Sawhorse and pumpkinhead work on costumes Saturday. Gillikins will report to sew costumes Friday.

* * *

Announcements such as these are being heard daily over the public address system at Pontiac High, as the cast swings into preparations for next week's presentation of "The Land of Oz."

The play, staged by PHS students, will be given at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday through Friday, in addition to an 8 p. m. evening presentation Thursday. Aimed to delight the minds of children, the play has a mystic, dreamlike quality. Director is Mary Parrish.

The curtain will remain open throughout the entire eight scenes. Scene changes will be accomplished by darkening the stage and the transposing students who take the part of trees, pillars, cave walls and flowers.

COLORS LEND MYSTERY

A crescendo of music will punctuate scene changes, and the spinning of the color wheel will lend an atmosphere of fantasy and mystery.

The large cast includes a variety of characters, ranging from a little boy and an old witch to an all-girl army. There will be the ridiculous Jack the Pumpkinhead and the beautiful Glinda the Good.

The Gillikins, elf-like creatures, will dance between scenes. General Jinjur's girl army will be clothed in red, green, purple and yellow, and wear hats made of ice cream containers. The sawhorse, too, will wear a costume of ice cream containers cleverly disguised to look like leather. Unique tree and flower costumes also are being made by the cast.

* * *

Christmas tree lights will brighten the thrones of the King of Emerald City, the Scarecrow, and of Glinda.

There will be Woggle Bug (thoroughly educated and highly magnified), the Tin Woodsman, the Gump, and the Guardian of the Gates with his "lovely green beard down to his ankles." And, to reign over the fairyland creatures, a beautiful, green-clothed Princess.

All in all, a play designed to give enjoyment to children and adults alike.

Four seniors here will compete in the new, multi-million dollar National Merit Scholarship Program, Principal Mother Dolors announced today. They will be aiming at some 200 four-year college scholarships that can carry up to full tuition and living expenses.

Winners will be chosen on the basis of ability to profit from a higher education. Elaine Neusendorfer, Mary Heitjan, Marcia Kramer, and Janet English are the seniors who asked to take a preliminary screening test to be given in the high school Oct. 26. This competition is open to all secondary schools, and is the largest program of its kind.

Clarkston Picks 2 Queens

Clarkston High will hold its first homecoming next Friday — and reigning over the festivities will be two queens. When the football team voted for the senior girl of their choice, Marietta Neubacker and Kay Robinson tied. After second vote turned up another tie, it was decided that the two would share the honor.

Comprising the queens' court will be Barbara Oakley, senior; Sharon Glennie, junior; Ann Lowrie, sophomore; and Ruth Ann Carmean, freshman.

Tonight Clarkston will play its third league game against Milford on the Wolves' own field. An after-the-game dance will be sponsored by the senior class.

Highlighting the homecoming next Friday will be the Clarkston-Clarenceville game, with both teams out to defend their standing in the Wayne - Oakland League. Clarkston leads the league by half a game over Clarenceville and Northville.

TWO WILL REIGN—Ruling over Clarkston High's first homecoming next Friday will be two lovely queens — Marietta Neubacker (left) and Kay Robinson. The two seniors tied twice when votes were cast, so they will share the honor.

Plan Big Night at St. Frederick

'Last Judgment' Slated to Initiate Freshmen at 7 P. M. Today

By ANN SCHACHERN

Tonight's the night for freshmen's "Last Judgment" at St. Frederick Hall.

With that forbidding theme—and a few props such as robes and a coffin borrowed from an undertaker—seniors will welcome the ninth graders to high school status.

The initiation itself will start at 7 p.m. in the parish hall with the freshies doing stunts and anything else the seniors desire. Every freshman is obliged to be there—or else!

After this traditional conditioning, students and alumni will dance to the music of Russell Garcia's orchestra, with freshmen reciting poetry and bowing "Allah" whenever seniors appear. The dance starts at 8:30 p.m. and admission is 75 cents.

* * *

Elected president of the Varsity Club Monday was Richard Doyon, with Walter Quarles, vice president; Martin Koenig, secretary; and Richard Powe, treasurer.

Sophomores elected Martin Koenig president; Patricia Foster, vice president; Mary Duerr, secretary and Donald Landry, treasurer.

Promised:—plenty of shouting from the cheering section when we play St. Benedict's Sunday.

BEGGING FOR MERCY — Stephen Hughes of St. Frederick High School, seems to be winning out as he kneels and begs for mercy from seniors Joann Johnson and Don Zimmerman. He's one of the freshmen who will be initiated by seniors tonight at the school.

Fund Drives, Pep Rallies Spark Week at Junior Highs

Junior high schools had a busy week, with fund drives, pep rallies and other meetings.

Eastern got the football season off to a rousing start with an all-school pep rally Tuesday. Acting football captain John Gayton predicted victory for the team, given school backing.

Wednesday the 9As gave a Welcome Assembly for the new students. Next Wednesday and Thursday the 7Bs will answer with their assembly — a talent show with tumblers, singers and musicians.

First copies of the "Arrow," Eastern's award-winning newspaper, will appear Monday.

AT WASHINGTON

Washington Junior High got the double whammy from two fund drives this week.

Kay Justin's home ec classes put on a school-wide candied apple sale. The $20 profit will buy curtains for the sewing room. The food classes candied the apples—and the entire lot was sold out in five minutes.

Success also was reported by the Student Council in their frost bite sale, held Thursday. Profits will help send two ninth graders to Washington for the class trip.

All of Washington is looking forward to the football game next Thursday at Wisner Stadium, when the Braves play Jefferson. Game time is 4 p.m.

AT WEVER

Wever Junior High clubs are in ful swing — especially the Square Dance club. With over 100 members, it is the largest in the school —and lots of fun, too.
—and lots of fun, too.

Plenty of damp spirits at school, though, when rain canceled the football game.

First edition of the "Smoke Signal" which came out Friday was a big success. Some real newshounds on this year's staff. Next issue is Friday.

Homerooms are competing to recruit parents for PTSA membership.

GETTING OUT THE NEWS — Eastern Junior High's "Arrow" staff (l-r) Lowanna McLean, business manager; Carol Cox, assistant editor; and Carol Atkinson, editor, inspects copies of the first issue of school paper, preparatory to distribution next week. The "Arrow" took second place international award from Quill and Scroll Critical Service.

Although there is a tradition that kites were invented at Tarentum about 400 B. C., they have been used by peoples of Asia and Africa from time immemorial.

VOA Radio Gets Master Linking

Voice of America's New Equipment Joins Sources With Shortwave Device

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Voice of America has shifted to master control equipment which it believes to be the biggest and most flexible in the world.

The equipment, replacing temporary facilities, links VOA studios, mobile crews and other program sources with shortwave transmitters on both coasts.

The equipment was especially designed and built to handle the Voice's output of more than 75 programs in 39 languages every 24 hours to all parts of the world.

From the central control panel here, the programs will be routed by various channels to the countries which are to receive them.

Theodore C. Striebert, director of the U.S. Information Agency which runs the Voice, arranged to throw the switch cutting the Voice away from the temporary facilities it has been using and into the new master control. This maneuver will complete the Voice's move from New York City to Washington, begun a year ago.

The nation's railroads spent $820,000,000 for additions and improvements to their properties in 1954, the first year in the past seven that such expenditures failed to top the billion-dollar mark.

TO VISIT — President Castillo Armas of Guatemala, who successfully led last year's revolt against his country's Communist infiltrated government, will arrive in the United States for a visit Oct. 31. His wife, Dona Odilia, will accompany him.

10 Navy Ships Replace Props

New York Times Reports 21 Vessels Affected by Million Dollar Switch

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today the propeller shafts of 10 new Navy ships are being replaced at a cost of several million dollars.

* * *

A Washington dispatch to the Times by Hanson W. Baldwin also said that a total of 21 new naval vessels are affected by a change in propeller shaft specifications.

The Navy was quoted as saying that the extensive propeller-shafting replacement program was decided upon early last summer after a failure in the frigate Norfolk, a new 5,500-ton ship.

Among the ships affected are the aircraft carrier Forrestal, the largest warship in the world, which was commissioned last Saturday at Portsmouth, Va., and her sister ship Saratoga, which is to be christened at the New York Naval Shipyard in Brooklyn next Saturday.

* * *

Five new frigates and three new destroyers, all of them recently completed, also face reshafting.

In addition, the propeller-shaft specifications have been changed for three more Forrestal-class aircraft carriers and eight additional destroyers which are still under construction.

Plastic Honeycomb Idea May Solve Sewage Woes

MIDLAND (AP) — A honeycomb is the latest idea of chemical engineers aiming to save space and money for the often pesky operation of sewage treatment.

* * *

The project worked out at the Dow Chemical Co. is still in the testing stage. But it may find wide application in municipalities plagued by the growing problem of sewage disposal.

The honeycomb is a plastic arrangement of grids contained in a 42-foot high tower. The tower "skyscraper" substitutes for the space consuming beds of stone used in the "trickling filter" method of waste treatment.

In the old — and still current — way, large beds of crushed stone six to 10 feet deep are used to treat wastes. Bacteria growing on the surface of the stones remove oxygen-demanding substances from the waste as it trickles through the bed.

* * *

The stones, three to four inches in size, when laid in shallow beds sometimes cover acres of land. Deep beds have a tendency to become plugged with sand, silt and slime that are expensive and difficult to clean.

WONT CLOG WITH SILT

Searching for a solution to the space problem, Dow's waste disposal division worked out a plastic filter with alternate corrugations that looks like a honeycomb when set into place.

Dr. Edward H. Bryan, Dow research sanitary engineer, says the "honeycomb" gives more surface to hold active bacteria allowing much deeper filters which occupy less space than the stone beds but still do not get clogged by silt.

A three-foot square pilot unit built at Dow with a packing depth of 42 feet now is treating about one per cent — or 30,000 gallons — of Midland city sewage a day.

This compares with four conventional rock filters that take up a total of one and a half acres of the 1,200-acre Midland plant site.

* * *

Dr. Bryan said a 20-foot high honeycomb unit might do more than twice the work of two 10-foot deep filters of similar area using the conventional stone packing.

MIDLAND WATCHES

Dow has a vital stake in any space-saving method for sewage disposal. It devotes some 600 acres to various treatment facilities for the vast chemical wastes discharged by its operations.

Midland officials, keeping a careful eye on the honeycomb method, said it could be used as a secondary treatment to supplement the current city sewage system.

The primary treatment is a tank settling method that treats three million gallons of sewage a day. Solid wastes from the process are dried and used as fertilizer. Water drained off is chlorinated to remove harmful bacteria and pumped into the river.

* * *

Paul Stegeman, city superintendent of utilities, said the secondary treatment under study at Dow could increase the overall efficiency of the city plant and make possible removal of more than 95 per cent of pollution causing materials.

* * *

Sanitary authorities see the Dow method as answering the need for critical space saving at industries and cities which do not have extensive land area for waste disposal operations.

India's first synthetic oil plant will be built either in West Bengal or Bihar.

Juan's Favorite Driven Off Stage

Buenos Aires Audience Pelts Actress Membrives With Eggs; Riot Ensues

BUENOS AIRES (UP)—A barrage of rotten egs, vegetables, jeers and catcalls drove an actress favorite of Juan Peron from the stage of the Teatro Comico last night in one of the biggest riots in the history of the Argentine theater.

* * *

The targets were Lola Membrives and other members of her company who had been decorated by the ousted Argentine dictator. Each time the cast tried to get on with the play, a comedy by Spanish playwrigh Jacinto Benavente, the anti-Peronist audience screamed:

"Return your medals and tomorrow we'll come back."

After two hours of tumult, the management rang down the curtain.

Meanwhile, there was no official reaction from the government of neighboring Paraguay to the new Argentine regime's demand that Peron be sent out of Paraguay and preferably out of South America.

Paraguyan President Albert Stroessner's government said in Asuncion last night it had not yet received the note from the Argentine Foreign Ministry, which accused Peron of violating the obligations of his asylum by telling a newspaper reporter he still considers himself constitutional president of Argentina.

* * *

The Argentine note added that Peron's continued presence next door to his homeland could "awaken in him dreams of returning to power which would be dangerous even though senseless."

Everything but Stove

CHICAGO (UP) — Fast-working burglars cleaned out everything in a model six-room ranch home in suburban Prospect Heights except the kitchen stove, which was too big to handle. The furnishings in the home, one of 91 on display in the annual Chicagoland Home Furnishings Festival, were valued at $5,000.

Eddie Cantor Believes Ike May Be Overeating

The sons of the pioneers are doing just what the pioneers were doing when they arrived out this way—looking for a place to park.—Wellington (Kansas) News.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"When you've had one heart attack, you shouldn't try for two," says the new slowed-down Eddie Cantor.

Once he was America's whirlingest dervish and he's still among its pepperiest personalities, but says Eddie, "No matter what happens now, every afternoon at 4:30 I go to bed for two hours."

CANTOR

"I no longer rush through a 30-minute lunch. I stall and make it an hour-and-a-half lunch. It's time-saving . . . because it's life-saving."

Eddie, who'll be 64 in January, told me about his slow-down policy the other day. Ironically, just about three years ago Dwight Eisenhower had sent Eddie a note telling him to get over his coronary because he was needed.

"You were even early for our appointment," I said to Eddie.

"Yes, I sat here 15 minutes and had a highball. I have two a day and treat them as part of my treatment. I don't think anybody should drink before 50 and everybody should drink after 50."

★ ★ ★ ★

"There's a Los Angeles physician, Dr. Eliot Corday," said Eddie, "who gives each new patient a briefcase and tells them to carry it and its mysterious contents with them everywhere they go and not to put it down.

"They tell him later that carrying the darned briefcase tires them out. He tells them that's the extra fat they're carrying on their bodies and the amount they should get rid of."

Eddie, lunching on some cottage cheese, gefuilte fish, crackers and buttermilk, suggested that possibly President Eisenhower was eating too much.

"Those breakfasts!" Eddie exclaimed. "The briefcase I carried around weighed 12 pounds. I took it off and stay down at 140 now.

"I eat 5 or 6 times a day, but never have a complete meal. Maybe I want some chocolate ice cream. I eat it, but that's my meal.

"I flew to New York, but I'm taking the train back. I'll relax and catch up on my reading. I'm slowing down."

"How's it working out?" I asked.

"Well, I'm booked to play three weeks at the Sahara in Las Vegas in April and my doctor says 'Fine.' Now I'm going to leave you and walk back to the hotel and get ready for my afternoon nap. It'll soon be 4:30."

Westinghouse, IUE Continue Negotiating

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. and the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers—with a strike deadline set for Oct. 16—knuckled down to further wage negotiations today.

The union's Westinghouse Conference Board set the deadline yesterday and endorsed its negotiators' earlier rejection of the company's latest offer.

Last Friday, Westinghouse proposed a new five-year contract which it said provided raises of 16 per cent over that period. The union promptly rejected the proposal.

The Westinghouse proposal, according to the union, amounts to only 10 cents an hour more in the first years, compared with agreements granting 18¾ cents to General Electric workers and 21 cents at General Motors.

The 44,000 IUE Westinghouse employes now average $2.10 an hour.

3 Convicts End Protest Atop Tall Water Tower

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Three convicts who climbed to the top of a 100-foot water tower on the grounds of Western State Penitentiary yesterday morning ended their protest demonstration early today by climbing back down into the prison yard.

The men, who had defied orders to come down, sat atop the water tower demanding that they be returned to Eastern State Penitentiary at Philadelphia. All three had been transferred here in recent months from Eastern.

Europe Will Use A-Power First

Detroit Edison Expert Says U.S. Lags Behind in Commercial Field

DETROIT (AP) — Several European nations probably will put full-scale commercial atomic energy systems into operation sooner than the United States, a Detroit Edison Co. expert believes.

* * *

Harvey A. Wagner, assistant manager of engineering for the power company, said England can be expected to move quickly in the conversion of atomic energy for peaceful purposes because of the tremendous cost of conventional power there.

Wagner is active in Detroit Edison's extensive atomic power program and was sent by the firm as an observer at the United Nations atomic energy conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last August.

"British delegates there predicted that by 1975, half of the commercial power in England will be atomic," he said. "I don't think the United States will be in that positition by that time."

He said the Geneva conference confirmed this country's top position in the atomic energy field.

"However, we may find that some of the things these other countries learned from us at the conference will make our position a little less secure in the years to come," Wagner said.

He stressed that the United States gained as well as gave out valuable information at the conference.

If Canada Won't Play Fair

State Threatens to Make Federal Case of Pollution

LANSING (AP)—Michigan has informed Canada it may appeal to President Eisenhower in its campaign to end pollution in the St. Clair, St. Mary's and Detroit Rivers along the international border.

In a statement prepared for delivery before the International Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh said: Gen. thomas M. Kavanagh said:

"We feel that the time has now come when we are left with no alternatives except to appeal directly to the President of the United States, through his secretary of state, to make strong, formal representations to the government of Canada concerning this problem."

Kavanagh added that he hoped such steps would not be necessary because the commission should "utilize its immense power and influence toward finding a solution to this problem."

LACK OF ACTION CITED

The attorney general said that "total lack of action by the Canadian units of government" has caused the state embarrassment in securing court decrees against Michigan cities lagging in sewage disposal.

* * *

He said officials of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., would give no assurances that they would build a sewage treatment plant until they learn the Canadian Soo will build one also.

The Michigan city was under order to build a plant by last December. City officials said voters disapproved the four million dollar project because of Canadian inaction.

Milton G. Adams, executive secretary of the State Water Resources Commission, said the cities of St. Clair and Marine City are delaying action on sewage treatment plants because cities on the Canadian side of the St. Clair River have not moved to build their own.

8 Nabbed for Plotting to Assassinate Rhee

TOKYO (AP)—The Korean mission today said eight men had been arrested in Korea for plotting the assassination of President Syngman Rhee.

The mission said the group had plotted to kill the 80-year-old President with grenades when he spoke at the Oct. 3 Korean Foundation Day ceremonies.

If that failed, the attempt was to have been made Oct. 4 at the military academy graduation.

The men were arrested the morning of Oct. 3 by the Counter-intelligence Corps.

States' Spending Highest in 1954

Governments Chalk Up Near $40 Billion Mark for 11 Pct. Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The states and some 117,000 local governments spent a record $36,607,000,000 in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1954, The Census Bureau reported today.

* * *

That was an increase of 11 per cent in nonfederal government spending from the preceding year's $32,937,000,000, the previous high mark. Figures for the year ended June 30, 1955, have not yet been compiled.

In fiscal 1954, the Census Bureau said, the states spent $13,008,000,000 exclusive of grants amounting to $5,700,000,000 to local governments. This was 13.4 per cent above the previous year.

* * *

Municipalities spent $9,809,000,000 in fiscal 1954, some 8.3 per cent more than in the previous year.

Outlays by school districts in fiscal 1954 came to $7,198,000,000, an increase of 16.6 per cent from fiscal 1953.

For states and local governments together, an increase in fiscal 1954 of approximately 1½ billion dollars in spending for education led all other spending boosts.

Utah's Governor Won't Pay Part of His Income Tax

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) —Utah's Gov. J. Bracken Lee says he will refuse to pay at least part of his income tax this year.

Republican Lee, now in the third year of his second term as governor, says he's taking the stand because he thinks "it is unconstitutional for this nation to tax its citizens for the support of foreign nations."

And for the fourth straight year he refused to proclaim Oct. 24 as United Nations day in Utah. Instead, he said, he will proclaim Oct. 23 as United States Day.

He said he will refuse to pay income taxes on personal income over and above his gubernatorial salary, from which the tax already has been withheld so far this year.

May Couple Stay Under Same Roof?

Woman Wondering About Entertaining Her Fiance

By EMILY POST

"I am planning to be married at Christmastime to a man I have known many years. He lives several hundred miles from me and will be coming to my home town for a visit shortly.

"My two sons (both in their 20s have always been at home during his previous visits. However, this year both boys will be away at college and I will be alone here at home.

"I would like to know if it would be proper for him to stay at my house as usual during his visit, or should I suggest that he stay at a hotel. I will greatly appreciate your advice on this matter."

Answer: Personally I see no harm in it as he has come so often, and I think most of your friends will agree with me. I cannot, however, assure you there will be no gossip unless you have a woman friend or relative come and stay while he is with you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: While on her honeymoon, my sister was drowned. This has been a terrible shock to all of us and needless to say we are grief-stricken, but nevertheless we have a problem that needs settling.

"My sister received well over a hundred wedding presents, none of which have been acknowledged. I would like to know what we should do with these gifts. Must they be returned? If not, how should they be acknowledged? Your help in this matter will be very much appreciated."

Answer: Under these very sad circumstances they shoud be returned. If the bridegroom had died it would have been considered proper for the bride to keep them because they were sent to her. The comparatively few presents given to the bridegroom, he would keep.

NO LONGER A PUZZLE — Chuck Harry, one of the youngsters at the Pontiac Area Day Nursery, has changed from "the boy who wouldn't eat" to this healthy and happy youngster. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harry, 26 Cooley St. The nursery is a United Fund agency.

UF Supported Day Nursery Brings Peace of Mind to Working Mothers

What does it mean to a working mother to place her youngster in the Pontiac Area Day Nursery, a United Fund agency.

Mrs. Eugene Harry answered it this way, "It means peace of mind—because I know my son gets more than just safe care and a hot lunch. He gets good training and the kind of loving care I want him to have."

The Day Nursery, at 125 Raeburn St., has been caring for two-to-six year olds for the past 26 years.

Each child gets special attention as in the case of Mrs. Harry's boy, Chuck.

When Chuck enrolled he would not play with the other youngsters or share toys. He refused to eat.

His worried parents, both employed, asked for help.

It took research by the nursery staff and weeks of patient effort, but finally Chuck began to join with his fellows and to eat. He has gained weight and appears to be one of the happiest children in the nursery, according to Miss Leola Jacques, director.

"Every young child who cannot be with his mother during the day needs an extra measure of warmth and affection," Miss Jacques explained. "This, rather than physical care alone, is the important thing our nursery offers."

Enrollment is limited to cases where the mother is employed, or ill, or where the father has sole custody of the child. Parents pay for the service according to ability, but no child is refused for lack of funds. United Fund dollars make up the difference.

Parents leave their children as they go to work. Some of the early birds receive a hot breakfast. There is a daily health checkup to make certain no child with a contagious infection mixes with the others.

Mornings are spent outdoors in the high-fenced playground equipped with slide, jungle-gym, sandbox and wheel toys. In bad weather there is indoor fun with paints, blocks or clay. Group singing, story-telling and creative rhythms are engaged in.

Noon brings a well-balanced lunch, after which each child naps on his own cot. Children are back at play again when parents call for them. Maximum enrollment is 25.

The Zonta Club, which with the Rotary Club organized the nursery in 1929, frequently donates toys and equipment as do other organizations.

There is a trained staff of four including Miss Jacques who has been director since 1945 and Mrs. Leola Harrington, assistant director.

The Pontiac Area United Fund drive seeks $10,552 for the nursery's operating costs which include maintenance of building, heat, light and salaries.

1st Male Nurse Commissioned in Army Corps

NEW YORK (AP)—The Army has commissioned the first male nurse in its history.

He is former Pvt. Edward L. T. Lyon, 25, of Kings Park, N.Y., sworn in yesterday as a second lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps.

Lyon, 6 feet 5 and weighing 185 pounds, already is a registered nurse. For a time he was head nurse of surgical and psychiatric wards at Kings Park General Hospital and anesthetist at Nassau Hospital, Mineola, N.Y.

Previously only female nurses were commissioned, although some enlisted men have served in the Nurse Corps. Lyons joins some 3,600 commissioned women in the corps.

Legislation sponsored by Rep. Frances Bolton (R-Ohio) and passed by Congress this year enabled Lyon to get the commission. It climaxed a 14-year fight by professional nursing societies to obtain for male registered nurses equal status with women in the Army.

Wounded in Holdup, Bandit Wants Priest

CLEVELAND (UP) — Dazed and bleeding, 24-year-old Edward R. Rodock stumbled into the fashionable Park Lane Villa early today and told the desk clerk:

"I'm dying — call a priest."

The priest, summoned from St. Agnes Catholic Church, heard Rodock's confession. Then the clergyman, acting on Rodock's request, called police.

* * *

Detective James Greener said police learned the young man had held up a service station a few hours earlier, taken $30 and exchanged shots with the station manager, James Boldin, 46, in a chase down Chester Avenue.

Rodock, who came here from Greensburg, Pa., was taken to the prison ward at City Hospital, where he was reported in fair condition with a bullet wound in the left thigh.

Wine Maker— Watch Gallons!

Home Brewers Warned by Expert on Rules Set Up by Alcohol Tax Unit

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—If you're making wine at home, watch that gallonage and sharpen that pencil to fill out government forms.

* * *

William N. Woodruff, assistant regional commissioner, reminded home winemakers of the rules and regulations set forth by the Federal Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit. Violators risk clashes with federal law officers.

The head of a family may produce up to 200 gallons of wine per year, tax-free, but he first must register his intentions with the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax division of the Internal Revenue Service.

Forms must be secured from the supervisor in charge of the divisions branch office in Detroit. They must be returned to the office, in duplicate, at least five days before the wine production is started.

Production may not begin, however, until the applicant is qualified by receipt of one copy of the form, authorizing him to produce not more than 200 gallons of wine during the 12-month period from July 1 through June 30. A new form must be filed for each year.

* * *

Woodruff said the rules exclude single men, since production of tax-free wine is solely for family use and does not apply to an unmarried person unless he qualifies as head of a family.

Whales' Whim Beaten

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Perfume manufacturers no longer must depend on the whim of the whale, a Swiss manufacturer said yesterday. Andre Firmenich of Geneva told of the development of synthetic ambergris by the chemical firm in which he is a partner. Ambergris, a secretion of a whale is an important ingredient in perfume manufacture.

Wedding Guests Pay Own Way at Nippon Nuptials

NAGOYA, Japan (UP)—One Japanese family finally rebelled.

The newspaper Asahi carried this story of a Nagoya wedding ceremony:

"When the guests arrived they found a reception desk set up at the entrance. The groom himself came out and said, looking rather embarrassed.

"'I am sorry but a fee of 150 yen (41 cents) will be charged.'

"When the money was paid, each guest received in return a lunch box, a paper napkin and a small bottle of beer and was led upstairs."

Japanese Court Bans Human Traffic Contracts

TOKYO (UP) —Japan's Supreme Court today banned the country's notorious "human traffic" labor contracts which keep thousands of girls in virtual slavery.

It ruled that anyone younger than 18 working on advanced wages may quit without repaying the advance.

Unscrupulous money lenders for centuries have used the advance wages system to encourage needy farmers to sell their daughters into prostitution. Sons also were purchased.

Anti-Inflation Moves Hinted for England

LONDON (UP) — Prime Minister Eden's government is preparing Britons for another dose of anti-inflation medicine to reduce their record standard of living.

Cabinet ministers hint the government intends to cut subsidies on housing and reduce spending on roads ad perhaps schools. British newspapers predict higher taxes.

* * *

New measures to be announced after Parliament reconvenes Oct. 25 will seek to curb a buying spree so more goods become available for export.

The government also is considering economies in defense spending, but the United States has been assured Britain will stick by military commitments.

Vargas Heir Is Gaining

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UP)—Juscelino Kubitschek, ex-governor of Minas Gerais state and a political heir of the late President Getulio Vargas, today widened his lead in the Brazil presidential election. His supporters claimed victory was assured.

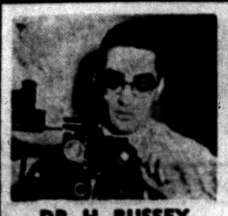

There is a lava flow about 40 miles in length near U.S. highway 54 in central New Mexico.

Just Who Runs Kremlin? Khrushchev or Bulganin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Western diplomats are no longer so sure as they once were that jovial, back-slapping Nikita Khrushchev is the dominating figure inside the Soviet government.

* * *

At least a few believe that the key man—the chairman of the board within the ruling group—may be Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

The distribution of power among Soviet leaders has provided a continuous guessing game for Western diplomats and foreign affairs officials ever since Joseph Stalin died. Each contact between top Russians and Western leaders is therefore carefully analyzed for signs of personal power positions.

The latest such occasion of substantial importance was the September visit to Moscow of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and his foreign minister, Heinrich Von Brentano.

Von Brentano recently came to the United States and conferred with the American, British and French foreign ministers in New York as well as with State Department officials here.

He is understood to have remarked in these conversations that Bulganin rather than Khrushchev was clearly the dominant figure in the negotiations.

Adenauer and his associates went to the meeting prepared to find Khrushchev playing a lead role and doing the tough bargaining. Instead, they found that Bulganin took the lead in virtually all the talks and was an extremely able and tough bargainer.

On occasion they gained the impression of great personal strength which when necessary could be very harshly used. There were times when Bulganin appeared to crack down on Khrushchev with a look or word disapproving something Khrushchev had said a moment before.

* * *

The impression gained by the Germans was at variance with that reportedly gained by Yugoslav negotiators when the two Soviet leaders visited Belgrade earlier in the summer.

Education expenditures of Canada's 10 provincial governments climbed to a total of $259,000,000, or nearly 11 per cent, more than the year before.

French Still Battle With Tribesmen

RABAT, French Morocco (AP) — Small French units still battled today with nationalist guerrillas along the border of Spanish Morocco.

As before, the fighting centered on the triangle formed by the little French outposts of Aknoul, Boured and Tizi Ouzli.

The French force was estimated at 2,500 to 4,000 foreign legionaires and Moroccan auxiliaries, supported by armored cars, jet fighters and a dozen cannon.

Opposing them are 3,000 to 4,000 Moroccan tribesmen, some with automatic weapons.

Yvonne Quits Traveling to Star in New Western

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—That traveling gal, Yvonne de Carlo, is coming home to light right at her one-time studio, Universal-International.

This is the first time since 1951 that Yvonne, once under contract to U-I, has made a picture there. She likes the dramatic story of "Raw Edge," a real Western about a lumber camp in 1850 and so she agreed to cut short her travels.

BULLFIGHTER MARIO

True, Mario Lanza has been behaving himself almost too good to be true, but now he's got the bosses worried at Warners. Mario insists on taking lessons in bullfighting and this is a pretty dangerous pastime. Mario's completely fascinated with fighting the bull, and I mean the real animal.

His company, the "Serenade" crowd, has been working at the ranch of Pepe Ortiz, retired champion bullfighter, and Ortiz and Mario have become fast friends.

Anthony Mann has written that he's done his best to persuade Mario to leave the bulls to someone else, but Ortiz says there's no harm in waving the cape and urging them on to battle. No harm, if you don't get gored.

Jackie Cooper told me that when he was a child his favorite actress at MGM was Joan Crawford and he was thrilled that she consented to act as hostess at the party to introduce his new TV series, "The People's Choice."

If Aly Khan will take Rita Hayworth back she'll accept him—of that I'm sure. She was terribly in love with him. But any reconciliation would have to be on his terms, which might not suit the current Mrs. Haymes.

I remember going to see Rita right after she came back to Columbia before she married Dick Haymes and she told me then that she was crazy about Aly and hoped they could work something out.

TO MISS PREMIERE

There doesn't seem to be a prayer of Shirley Jones and Gordon Macrae being able to attend the premiere of "Oklahoma" in New York on Oct. 11.

When Frank Sinatra bowed out of "Carousel" there was a delay, and then came some bad weather, so all in all the picture is 10 days behind schedule. Much as 20th wanted to give permission to Shirley and Gordon to fly to New York, there was a definite "no" given today.

Snaps: The furrier who was trying to sell Marie Wilson a mink coat was floored when she said, "Yes, I'd like a mink coat, but I don't look too good in brown."

Mari Blanchard is bedded with a bad cold. She caught it when someone stole her coat and she drove home from her flamenco lessons at the Charisse Dance Studio without anything around her.

Of all things, dignified Frank Lovejoy has succumbed to the bongo drums craze and is turning up nightly at Frascati's to get into Romeo and Bello's act.

Donald O'Connor is so enchanted by his trip to Europe that he's added an extra month and won't come back until Christmas, just in time to open at the Sahara in Las Vegas.

Ran into Lisa Kirk shopping, and she was a happy girl because Jimmy Durante liked the show she did with him so much he is advancing the date. She was with Pierre David, clothes designer.

Marvin Miller has been chosen to represent the TV industry for the promotion of National Bible Week Oct. 17. He brought me his "Talking Bible," which he recorded.

About Our History . . .

In 1921 the Wilkins family started in business here. Mother and dad rented the blacksmith shop for a garage and built and operated a hot dog stand next to it. Two years later, the first store was built. It is still being used for storage. In 1926 the new store and restaurant opened for business.

A constant effort has been made to make Wilkins a pleasant memory to each year's caravan of customers. We hope we have succeeded.

Romeo Educators Act to Acquire New School Sites

School Board Faces Problem

Officials Take Steps to Combat Overcrowding in Area Schools

ROMEO—The problem of providing classrooms for the ever increasing school population is again being faced by the Board of Education of the Romeo Community Schools.

At a special meeting last night Supt. T. C. Filppula indicated that by fall 1957, the increase of student enrollment would necessitate the completion of additional facilities to meet the needs on the secondary grade level.

The board members agreed to take the first step by having certain properties in the district investigated with the view to possible acquisition for elementary or high school sites.

A resolution to raise tax levies in the district on state equalized valuation was drafted by the board.

The two debt retirement funds were raised; one from 4.5 to 5 mills the other from 6 to 6.5 mills.

These tax levies do not exceed the total millage approved by the district voters in the last bond issue in April 1954, school officials reported.

The superintendent then presented his 1955-56 budget anaylsis with suggested revisions to the board. His recommendation, plus an additional $2,500 allotment for furniture and equipment and $12,000 for sites, were unanimously accepted.

LADIES OF THE BALLET — Two hundred girls from 3 to 16 have registered at the weekly ballet classes sponsored by the Waterford Township Recreation Department. This year's advanced students will receive instruction in toe and soft shoe, from teacher Carol Wolfe. Above are dancers Trudy Moore, Lynn Springer, Sandra Engebretson and Patsy Keck.

Milford Board Looks at Plans

Blueprinted Layout Is Shown for High School; Site Papers Signed

MILFORD—Two representatives from King Scott Associates, Kalamazoo, presented final preliminary plans for the new Milford High School, at last night's Board of Education meeting.

A detailed blueprint of the entire layout of rooms, gym, auditorium and furnishings were shown the board. Now architects can go ahead on definite working plans, according to Harold Hansen, superintendent of the Huron Valley Schools.

Legal papers were finally presented to the board regarding the controversial right of way owned by Capt. G. J. Larges. The board accepted the signed, sealed and notarized papers giving the school system access to the 60-acre tract of land owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Drake on North Milford Road, which the school board now has options to purchase.

"To all intents and purposes, we can now go ahead with the architects on the working drawings," Mr. Hansen said. "However, it will still be a couple of months before we can ask for construction bids," he said.

The driver was not held.

24 Nazi Officers Freed by Soviet

23 of Hitler's Generals, 1 Ex-Admiral Starting First Day of Freedom

CAMP FRIEDLAND, Germany (AP)—Twenty-three former generals in Hitler's Wehrmacht and one retired rear admiral began their first day of freedom here today after 10 years in Russia as prisoners of war.

Their return was marked by an emotional exchange between ex-Gen. Walter von Seydlitz-Kurzbach 68, who helped establish the Soviet-sponsored National Committee for Free Germany in Moscow during the war, and other returnees.

The returnees were the first arrivals of 9,626 German war prisoners who Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin promised West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer last month would be released by the Soviet Union.

The returnees said 145 more German officers were at Volkovo, 25 miles west of Pinsk, awaiting release.

Ferndale Boy Shot as Boat Sets Off Gun

BAY CITY (AP) — Danny Baker, 12, of Ferndale, was shot in the arm as he prepared to go duck hunting yesterday.

The boy, his brother, Thomas, 15, and their stepfather, Percy A. Sprague, were sitting out in a boat on the Quanicassee River.

The lurching of the boat as it was pushed from shore upset a .410 gauge shotgun. The blast ripped into Danny's left forearm.

Doctors at General Hospital here said the boy's condition was good but said he probably will be permanently crippled in the arm.

Michigan has 36,350 miles of streams about half of which are trout waters.

2 Boys Found Dead in Trunk

Brother of One Admits Locking Chest So They Wouldn't Follow Him

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Two young boys who had been playing space ship were found dead in an attic trunk yesterday. Police said the brother of one of them had admitted locking them in because he did not want them following him around.

* * *

Dominick Primicerio, 9, and Daniel Bencivenga, 8, had been missing since 4:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Neighbors and police searched the neighborhood all night long. Then late yesterday morning Dominick's 10-year-old brother James took his mother to the attic and opened the trunk.

* * *

Dr. Marvin M. Scarbrough, medical examiner, said the boys, in the trunk more than 17 hours, had died of suffocation.

James told police that after locking the boys in, he went out to play. He went back to the attic around 7 p.m., opened the trunk and felt 'the boys' faces. He said they felt warm and he closed the trunk without locking it.

Coroner James J. Corrigan was scheduled to hold a formal inquest today. He said that after his finding, James would be under jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

In Waterford Township

School Building Increases While Enrollment Grows

Waterford Township school enrollment this year totals 8,949, an increase of 861 over last year, according to Superintendent of Schools William Shunck.

The number of teachers has been hiked in proportion, he stated, with about one instructor for each 30 pupils.

Crowding is felt worst in the 7th and 8th grades which are running in two shifts, with students attending either in the afternoon or morning.

A $1,350,000 bond issue was approved by district voters last year for elementary school expansion.

A part of the program was realized last year with a total 14 rooms added to the Jayno Adams, Williams Lake, Waterford Center and Four Towns Elementary Schools, Shunck explained.

BUILD 4 NEW SCHOOLS

Four new elementary schools are under construction now on Winding drive, Pontiac Lake road, Midland street and Crescent Lake road.

Their total cost will be about $1,000,000. When completed in February, each new building will have 12 classrooms except the one on Winding drive which will have 10. The four will accommodate about 1,400 pupils.

"The Board of Education is now considering an additional building program aimed at meeting the overload in grades 7 through 12," said Shunck.

* * *

The district is currently utilizing five rooms in the Community Activities Inc. Building for classes and four in the United Presbyterian Church.

Open Financial Reports Rapped

Mitchell Against Public Showing of Unions' List of Money Transactions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell says he's against opening required union financial reports to the public but he will soon recommend controls on union welfare funds.

* * *

The Taft-Hartley labor law says unions must file yearly financial reports with the Labor Department to be eligible to bring cases to to the National Labor Relations Board.

Mitchell told a news conference yesterday he regards as "adequate" the policy which classes the financial data as secret except to union members wanting to see what their own unions reported.

* * *

That policy was established by Truman administration officials who said this was the intent of Congress in passing the 1947 law. Newspapermen and others have consistently been denied access to the information.

The Taft-Hartley Act contains no requirement that unions file reports on their welfare funds.

HOLLY — The local police department will give another dance for the benefit of the Holly youth fund, at the school's multipurpose room Saturday evening from 8:30 until midnight.

Begin Campaign to Gain Hospital

Educational Program Launched by Committee Announced

ROMEO — The launching of the educational program in the $350,000 campaign for a new hospital to be located on M53 between the villages of Romeo and Almont was announced this week by David Ross, president of the Community Hospital Foundation, Inc.

Named to key posts as area co-chairmen were Mrs. D. H. Burley and Mrs. Edmund E. Anderson.

Community chairmen of the Educational Committee are: Mrs. David Ross, Leonard; David Clydesdale, Allenton; Dr. G. E. Meads, Oxford; Miss Jean McKay, Almont; Mrs. Edward Spencer, Armada; Carlton VanWagoner, Imlay City; Mrs. Jack Frost, Washington; Mrs. John Dunn, Lakeville; and Don Flater, Dryden. The remainder of the committee are yet to be named.

The purpose of the committee is to arrange to have speakers appear before every community and church organization in the service area of the proposed hospital. This service area includes the adjoining parts of Lapeer, St. Clair, Macomb and Oakland counties. A speaker may be secured by contacting the educational chairman in the community where a meeting is to be held.

"Before the hospital program was launched a careful study was made of similar situations, and the board is confident that the proposed hospital can be operated without a deficit," an official reported today.

In explaining the educational phase of the campaign, committeemen assured the citizens of communities to be serviced that "the medical staff of the proposed area hospital will be open to all doctors who are members in good standing of the Medical Society of Lapeer, Macomb, St. Clair or Oakland County."

LAKE THEATER
THURS., FRI., SAT.

Local Recital Scheduled by Pianist Severyn Turel

Noted Polish pianist-composer Severyn Turel will present a piano recital Oct. 18 at 8 p.m. in St. Mary's College Auditorium, Orchard Lake.

Turel made his debut as an eight-year-old child prodigy in his native city of Lwow, Poland. World War II interrupted his career when he entered the Polish Army and spent five years in a German prison camp.

He resumed his career following the war and has given over 200 recitals throughout France, England and Switzerland in the past four years. He made his American debut in Dec. 1953 and played two recitals at Carnegie Hall in New York City last year.

Turel, who spent the summer at St. Mary's, will begin his concert here with the well-loved "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven.

The artist will then offer five of his own compositions, two preludes, two sketches and the "Polish Rhapsody."

The rhapsody will be followed by "Sospiro" by Liszt, a popular sentimental composition. The pianist will then present his own adaptation of the "2nd Hungarian Rhapsody" by Liszt.

It retains the basic forms, but offers Turel's own ideas in the cadenzas. Those who know the transcription by Horowitz will listen with great interest to Turel's interpretation.

It will be followed by a little-known nocturne by Chopin, published after the composer's death.

Other selections from Chopin include three Scottish dances, two waltzes and two etudes. Included is the "Revolutionary Etude" written by Chopin while inspired by a 19th century Polish attempt to throw off Russian rule.

Tickets for the concert are available at Calbi's Music Store, 119 N. Saginaw St., Pontiac.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD RIDGEWAY

Norma June Staley Weds in Drayton Plains Rite

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The Drayton Community United Presbyterian Church was the scene of the recent marriage of Norma June Staley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Staley of 3205 Sashabaw Rd, to Donald Eugene Ridgeway. Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Ridgeway of 8630 Clarridge Rd.

The bride chose a full length chantilly lace gown with long pointed sleeves and a fitted bodice, falling into a three-tiered, full skirt. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. Bernard Blair served as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Lillian Cleveland and Mari Ann Segedi.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Jerry Staley. Wayne Ridgeway and Clark Morgan seated the guests.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the church parlors.

After a trip through northern Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgeway will be at home at 4265 Meyers Road.

Dads, Sons Canoe North

The Manistee River was the scene of the annual Explorer Father and Son Canoe trek last weekend when 192 Explorers, dads and leaders participated in the anticipated event.

Arriving in Grayling, the group proceeded north to Frederic, where they "put in" for the trip down river.

* * *

The route was filled with unexpected experiences for the canoeists. Deer were surprised on the river banks, flocks of wild ducks were found feeding along the river, and fall colors of the hardwoods were beyond description. Then there were those who became members of the "Dunkers," an unofficial society of those who inadvertently swamp their canoes.

Arriving at the evening rendezvous where Portage creek joins the Manistee, tents were pitched and the serious business of preparing the evening meal went forward. Most of the group preferred to turn in early after a strenuous day's paddling, but many gathered around their campfires to exchange tales of their experiences.

* * *

Sunday morning, Protestant, Lutheran and Catholic field services were held on the campsite, and following breakfast, the canoes again made their way down stream toward the end of the trip at Sharon, where they arrived at intervals during the afternoon.

Those units from this area which participated were Explorer Post 4, sponsored by the Oakland County Food Dealers Assn.; Explorer Ship 5, Congregational Church; Explorer Post 34, Pontiac Lake PTA; Explorer Post 46, C. A. I., Waterford. Other units participating were Post 14 of Oxford, Post 42, White Lake.

Meet the Vice President

Nixon—Enemy of International Communism

(This is the third of four articles on Vice President Richard M. Nixon by INS Correspondent William Theis who has "covered" Nixon for more than seven years.)

By WILLIAM THEIS

WASHINGTON—Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who stands but a "heartbeat" away from the highest honor in the United States, served with the Navy in the South Pacific theater during World War II.

* * *

There he was a ground operations officer for the Navy's combat transport wing, on Bougainville and elsewhere, during some of the area's heavy bombing. He recalls: "I didn't get hit and didn't hit anyone. All I got was a good case of fungus."

Nixon was serving as a contract termination officer in the eastern U. S. when a group of California Republicans, anxious to unseat Rep. Jerry Voorhis (D-Calif), advertised for a young Republican to run in the 12th district primary.

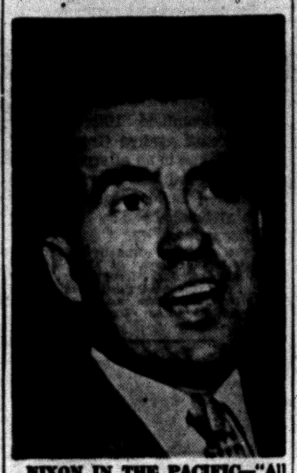

A friend, Herman L. Perry, of Whittier, wired him suggesting that he apply. Nixon appeared before the Republican committee, won its endorsement, and after his Navy discharge began his first political campaign.

ACCUSED OF 'UNFAIRNESS'

The Nixon's first child, "Tricia," was born during this campaign, into which the Nixons ploughed about $4,000—half their wartime savings. The Republican won by a surprising 15,000-vote margin and was accused for the first time by Democrats of using "unfair" tactics.

Nixon had called Voorhis, a liberal but anti-Communist Democrat, the "P.A.C. candidate." At that time the CIO political action committee in California was under attack as Communist-dominated and Nixon supporters pounded Voorhis with this implication.

It was Nixon's work in cracking the Alger Hiss case as a member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities which gave him his first national prominence. He was one of the first to suspect that Hiss was not telling all when he testified he "never knew a man named Whittaker Chambers."

NIXON IN THE PACIFIC—"All I got was a good case of fungus."

'JUNIOR G-MAN'

Capitol newsmen dubbed Nixon "Junior G-Man" during those days. He was regarded as a sincere, eager, but inexperienced legislator.

To combat that inexperience, he formed a "Chowder and Marching Club" of other junior Republicans in the House, who pooled information and commanded some attention from their seniors.

In 1950 Nixon ran for the Senate and swamped Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas by some 680,000 votes. Then when outgoing Sen. Sheridan Downey (D-Calif), resigned on Dec. 1, a month before his term ended, Gov. Earl Warren appointed Nixon to fill out the unexpired 30 days. This gave Nixon seniority over other Senators elected that same November—an important thing in the Senate—and also made him the youngest Republican in the 96-member group.

Nixon won consideration for the Vice Presidency for his outstanding work on a committee. Truman's chairmanship of the Senate War Investigating Committee caused President Roosevelt to tag him for his 1944 running-mate. Similarly, it was Nixon's record of running down Communists and his work in the Hiss case which singled him out for Eisenhower's attention in 1952.

PUT CASE ON TV

His ambitions almost exploded into political oblivion when it was disclosed Nixon had accepted a privately-raised fund to help defray senate office expenses.

Democrats demanded Nixon withdraw. Republicans were shocked by the uproar which threatened Eisenhower's own chances.

Nixon then took his case to the country, over a TV-radio hookup which cost the GOP $75,000. He aired his personal finances in detail, insisted he had done nothing morally wrong and left his fate up to the Republican National Committee.

President Eisenhower listened to the telecast and termed Nixon a brave and courageous man, and the GOP committee backed the young candidate. Eisenhower and Nixon met at Wheeling, W. Va., the night after the broadcast, and the General said his running mate had been "completely vindicated."

THE TURNING POINT

It was a dramatic turning point in Nixon's political career. Until President Eisenhower's recent heart attack, the 1956 campaign ticket again was laid down by GOP leaders as "Ike and Dick."

Few men in public life have had as many "breaks" as this 42-year-old Californian—or have had to fight as hard to save themselves from disaster as did Nixon in his 1952 "expense fund" showdown.

Nixon told International News Service that an ambitious young political "must have guts."

* * *

He explained: "There's no other word, I'm sorry to say. I've seen men in the House and Senate who would have been great for this country politically but they curdled and faded out of the picture for the lack of it. A real loss!"

Tomorrow: In the concluding article, Dick Nixon is shown as a man of devotion—to his country, his family, his party and his President.

State's History Seen in Library's Display

WASHINGTON (AP)—An exhibition commemorating the 150th anniversary of the establishment of the Territory of Michigan currently is on display at the Library of Congress.

* * *

Sen. McNamara (D-Mich) presided at the ceremony opening the exhibition. Dr. Harlan Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, was the principal speaker.

The exhibit is one of a series in which the library is commemorating significant dates in the history of various states. Rare books, manuscripts, maps, drawings and photographs from the collections of the library and the National Archives make up the display.

One of the earliest items in a book published in Paris in 1632 containing an engraved map upon which Michigan appears as a part of "New France."

Another item is a manuscript orderly book kept by Col. John E. Hamtramck, commandant of the Fort at Detroit, in 1802. The display will continue until Jan. 6.

Football Fever High as Miami Awaits 'Irish'

Underdog Hurricanes Shot for Upset Over Invading Notre Dame

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Football fever reached a new high in this tourist Mecca as thousands awaited Notre Dame's first Florida appearance against the underdog University of Miami Hurricanes tonight in the Orange Bowl.

A jam-packed crowd of 75,800 is expected to fill the enlarged stadium and give Miami the biggest turnout ever to see a regular season game in the Southeast. The kickoff is set for 8:15 p.m. (EST).

Looking on will be thousands of home town supporters who have watched the Hurricanes grow since the school was founded 30 years ago; Notre Dame fans who came by plane, train and automobile, and early arrivals for the American Legion National Convention opening Sunday.

Press and radio coverage will top even that for an Orange Bowl New Year's Day game.

There will be six radio outlets, including two networks. Mutual will broadcast the game to 583 stations and the Notre Dame network has 201 stations, including one in Guam.

SQAM, Miami, will broadcast the game on a Forida network as well as locally, while WBBM, Chicago; KMOX, St. Louis, and WJR, Detroit, will broadcast the game direct from the stadium.

Telecasting the game will be limited to the South Florida area over WTVJ, Miami, and to distribution by the Notre Dame closed circuit TV to hotels in 11 cities.

Notre Dame's ruled a favorite by about six points, but Irish Coach Terry Brennan said these three factors worried him.

Notre Dame's lack of line depth, the heat and playing under the lights.

"Miami definitely is stronger in depth up front," said Brennan. "Miami can substitute its line with no loss of power. We have no such depth.

"It's no revealing secret that we have to stop Miami's off-tackle power. But we just can't worry about that because they have a well-balanced outfit. They're awfully tough on defense—awfully, awfully tough to play."

Hurricanes Set to Unload Bench

Big Chance for Miami Against Top Ranked ND Friday Night

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The University of Miami Hurricanes plan to use two platoons in some positions and two teams in all of them when they meet Notre Dame tomorrow night. A record Florida football crowd of 75,800 is expected.

Word is that the Hurricanes, anxious to make a creditable showing before home town fans and thousands of visitors here for the American Legion National Convention opening Sunday, will use two teams to keep from being worn down by the hard-hitting Irish from South Bend.

In addition, they will two-platoon several positions in the backfield in an effort to stop the Irish attack.

Coach Terry Brennan is bringing a squad of 39 and the youthful Irish mentor indicated his team may use the air lanes more than usual.

Notre Dame passed only 14 times against 135 running plays in two games but Brennan said yesterday: "We'll pitch if the defense lets us."

Notre Dame was quoted as a two or three point favorite last weekend but now is favored by six over the Hurricanes.

The game will be broadcast nationally (Mutual) and televised locally. It also will be televised over a closed circuit for large screen showings in hotel ballrooms in 11 cities in the East and Midwest.

Miami Coach Andy Gustafson said his squad is as ready as it can be and will go into the game at full strength.

Gustafson plans to call on halfbacks Jack Losch, John Bookman and Jack Johnson to bolster John Varone and Don Dorshimer, both fine offensive backs whose defensive skill has not been thoroughy tested.

Mario Bonofiglio and Gene Reeves will alternate at quarterback. Capt. Whitey Rouviere and Paul Hefti, injured backs, have returned to duty.

Notre Dame, making its first invasion of Florida, is scheduled to arrive late this afternoon and work out under the lights to get the feel of a night game. The Irish won their only other night-time contest, 40-6, against Detroit in 1951.

Kickoff time is 8:15 p.m. (EST).

Oosterbaan Worries Over Michigan's Injury List

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan coach Benny Oosterbaan patched up the remnants of the nation's 2nd best team today, and hoped wearily he had enough players left to meet 6th-ranked Army tomorrow in Michigan Stadium.

Everyone, Oosterbaan said, will be available by game time—that is except tackle Bill Kolesar, knocked out for the season by a solid down-field block in the Michigan State game.

* * *

Most of Oosterbaan's troubles date from the rugged 14-7 victory over State last Saturday. He came out of that battle with eight injured players.

* * *

Five of them hadn't had a day of practice since then until yesterday.

"I don't see how I'm going to start either Lou Baldacci or Dave Hill at fullback," Oosterbaan said. "Neither of them (both bad ankles) has had much practice this week."

* * *

That leaves 3rd string Ed Shannon, a converted right half.

"If Jim Bates (1st string center) doesn't start running better (on an injured knee), I don't see how I can start him either. Behind him Jerry Goebel has a bad knee too," Oosterbaan said.

* * *

That leaves 3rd string center John Peckham. Michigan already lost one center this year, a capable sophomore, Bill MacPhee. Add to these 1st string left halfback Terry Barr, whose bad shoulder kept him out of workouts until yesterday.

"But Barr probably will be in there," Oosterbaan said, "even though he may not start."

"End Charlie Brooks seems to be over his leg trouble," he added, "and Jim Van Pelt, sophomore 2nd string quarterback, has overcome his bruised ribs.

Oosterbaan had one bit of good news. His 6-foot 2-inch junior end, Tom Maentz, injured before the season began, should be available for some play in the Army game.

From the Army camp came news that the West Point flash, Bob Kyasky, who holds the Cadet record for the 220-yard dash and has tied Army's All-America Glenn Davis' record in the 100, won't be able to make the trip with the team. His leg is in a cast.

STANDOUT FOR STANFORD—The Stanford football team has a powerful attack built around bulldozing fullback Bill Tarr (above), a 190 pounder who took Pacific Coast Conference rushing honors a year ago. He will be the man to stop when Michigan State meets the Indians tomorrow.

Crystal Gazing!

Army, Lions, Miami, Spartans Winners in Writer's Predictions for Oct. 8

By HARRY WISMER
(Copyright, 1955, By International News Service)

Look for more upsets in college football this weekend. If you think form has taken a beating so far, you haven't seen anything yet.

I predict that Michigan and Notre Dame, two of the most highly touted teams in the land, will join the list of upset victims this weekend. Here are my choices in top college games:

* * *

Army 20, Michigan 14 . . . a week ago I predicted Michigan would sneak past inexperienced Michigan State by only one touchdown. That is just what happened. This Saturday, powerful Army moves from the plains of West Point to the rolling hills of Ann Arbor and should really come into its own in one of the great games of the year.

Miami 17, Notre Dame 14 . . . This game tonight in the Orange Bowl has been sold out since June. Notre Dame has shown unexpected strength in winning its first two games. I pick Miami to take advantage of the great opportunity for an upset here.

Other games on a full schedule:

UCLA 28, Oregon State 14 . . . Despite their early loss to Maryland, Uclans still are one of the nation's best.

Texas Christian 17, Alabama 3; Oklahoma 14, Texas 7.

Michigan State 13, Stanford 6. Indians upset Ohio State but can't tie the can to the Big Ten twice in succession.

Wisconsin 16, Purdue 7; Duke 14, William and Mary 7; Georgia Tech 20, LSU 10; Baylor 14, Arkansas 7.

Southern California 21, Washington 7; Navy 21, Pitt 12.

National Football League — Chicago Bears 24, San Francisco 21; Detroit 30, Los Angeles 27; Washington 20, Chicago Cardinals 14; Pittsburgh 24, New York 21; Cleveland 31, Philadelphia 28.

24 Area Tilts on Tap

By GEORGE TRUMBULL

Those persons seeking gridiron thrills and excitment won't have to look far tonight as 24 area school football clashes pack the prep league card in the 4th week of the fall classic. To pick outstanding games is almost impossible.

The grip on the top step of the Inter-Lakes loop is shared by three schools going into this afternoon and tonight's encounters. Two of the schools, Waterford and Van Dyke collide under the lights at Van Dyke. Both hold one I-L victory, along with Southfield, host to Farmington in an afternoon meeting.

In the final I-L test, scoreless 1954 loop champion Berkley will entertain the Vikings from Walled Lake. Their sole win was over V.-O West Bloomfield, 38-0.

In Wayne Oakland games, Milford will attempt to knock defending champion Clarkston from the undefeated league ranks. Milford meets coach Ed Hintz's Wolves at Clarkston. Over at Clarenceville, the Trojans will try to unload an unwanted vinegar barrel trophy when they put their undefeated record on the block against Northville.

The barrel is awarded to the loser, and it has been an exhibit in the Clarenceville trophy case for the past two seasons.

Holly hopes to keep West Bloomfield in the scoreless column when the Presidents journey to Holly. In the only inter-sectional match of the league, Brighton goes to Gross Ile.

Top ranked Madison and Clawson play away in Oakland-B contest, against Fitzgerald and Lake Orion respectively.

It will be a battle of winless elevens when Roseville and the Troy Colts engage at Troy. Frank Crowell's Yellowjackets play intersectional Lapeer at Lapeer.

The Bloomfield Hills Barons, will kick off against Grosse Point DUS at home in an afternoon game and Fraser will test Dan Barnabo's undefeated Bulldog squad. Dexter plays at South Lyon.

Other games:

Dryden at North Branch; Brown City at New Haven; Capac at Memphis; Almont at Armada; Millington at Imlay City; Ortonville at Oxford; Eastland at Lakeview; Centerline at Lake Shore; Rochester at Utica; Warren at South Lake.

Upsets in Sight!

Matchless Hoople Sees Army Mauling Mich.

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
(Biggest Upset Man)

Jehoshaphat! Expressions of jubilation have been pouring in congratulating me on my prodigious feat of picking the season's major upset, Maryland to defeat UCLA by 7 points, exactly the margin of difference.

Some of my zillions of readers tinged their praise with minor criticism, pointing out that I picked the score 26-19, whereas it was really 7-0. Heh-heh! What boots it?

Prof. Wolfgang McGinty, who has been assigned especially to probe upset possibilities, confirms my prognosis that four juicy form reversals appear on this week's schedule.

They are:

Army over Michigan 20-13.

Texas over Oklahoma 14-7.

Purdue over Wisconsin 20-14.

Wash. State over California 20-14.

For home consideration, Pontiac over Bay City 20-14! And Spartans over Stanford 33-7.

Now that the upsets have been catalogued, here are other selections:

Dartmouth 14, Brown 7; Holy Cross 20, Colgate 14; Columbia 14, Yale 7; Cornell 7, Harvard 6; Pitt 20, Navy 13; Princeton 13, Penn 0; Ohio State 27, Illinois 13; Indiana 20, Iowa 7.

Minnesota 20, Northwestern 12; Texas A.M. 19, Nebraska 6; Purdue 20, Wisconsin 14; TCU 21, Alabama 14; Baylor 14, Arkansas 7; N. Car. 20, Georgia 6; Ga. Tech 19, LSU 7; Miss. 20, Vanderbilt 13.

Miss. State 13, Tulane 0; Wash. State 20, California 14; Colorado 19, Oregon 7; USC 14, Wash. 7.

Hurricane Faces Layne Tonight

Jackson Eyes Rocky's Crown in Elimination Televised Bout

DETROIT (AP) — Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, who is being eyed as a possible candidate to become Rocky Marciano's next victim, meets Utah's pudgy Rex Layne tonight in a nationally televised 10-rounder from Olympia Stadium.

NBC will carry the bout at 9 p.m. (EST).

The fight is being billed as an elimination, of sorts, to get a contender for Marciano's next heavyweight title defense, although Layne has been all but eliminated already by virtue of three losses to Bob Baker.

The National Boxing Assn. lists no logical contenders for Marciano's crown, but names Baker, the big Pittsburgh Negro, the outstanding boxer. Nino Valdes of Cuba is classed No. 2 and Jackson No. 3.

Layne is way down in sixth place in what the NBA terms as its "honorable mention" list.

WHERE DO THEY STAND — Although the sports writers rated Army sixth in national football ratings this week — to Michigan's second — Army coach Earl (Red) Blaik (above) still doesn't think his squad has the depth to cope with Michigan Saturday. But as long as the Army line shows the tremendous initial surge, the Cadets will be a danger to any opponent.

Ringey Views Giants' Future as a 'New Era'

But Bill Is Cagey With Prediction on Next Year's Finish

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Rigney, a fat two-year contract in his pocket, a smile on his gaunt-looking face and a world of confidence in his voice, forecast today a "new era" for the New York Giants.

The graying, bespectacled, 37-year-old successor to Leo Durocher refused to say whether he thought the Giants would improve their third place finish in 1956 but he promised a hustling, youth-studded team that would give the rest of the National League a battle for the pennant.

* * *

"I haven't seen much of the league for the past two years," said Rigney, who successfully led the Minneapolis Millers to a pennant and Little World Series championship in his second year at the helm of the Giants' American Association farm club. "But I'll have to go along with the others in picking Brooklyn as the team to beat. You can't underestimate a world champion. I think however, we'll give them a run for it and try not to let them get off to a big jump, as they did this year."

* * *

At a press conference called especially for this purpose, Rigney discussed his plans for the Giants in '56. Disecting the club, position by position, he picked the pitching staff and the infield as the two departments to give him his biggest headache.

Records Set at Yearling Sale

Head of Harness Group Pays $14,000 for Top Price

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The most successful yearling sale in harness racing history concluded last night with Tattersalls, Inc., achieving a record-breaking $3,315 average for 288 head which brought $954,800.

The previous record average was $3,163, set in 1952. Last year's average was $2,806 compiled on a gross of $833,750 for 290 head.

Closing night consignment was that of Castleton Farm, which sold 56 head for $173,900. The average was $3,105, down somewhat from last year's $3,227.

The top price was $14,000 paid by Lawrence B. Sheppard, master of Hanover Shoe Farms, Hanover, Pa., and president of the U.S. Trotting Assn., for Loreli, a daughter of Ensign Hanover-Leta Long.

Confident Stanford Coach Says He'll Beat Spartans

EAST LANSING (AP)—West Coast teams mostly don't do good against the Big Ten brand of football.

But here's a California team coming in with the coach saying he's going to make it two in a row over conference teams.

Michigan State takes on cocky and confident Stanford Saturday in the 1st home game of the season for the Spartans.

Stanford has some reason to crow. Last week, the underrated Indians knocked off Ohio State, most recent Rose Bowl winner, 6-0.

Stanford coach Chuck Taylor is an amazing exception among coaches when he makes pre-game statements.

He doesn't cry about injuries and such. He says he's going to win.

"Michigan State should be tougher than Ohio State," Taylor said, "but we still think we're going to win."

Michigan State coach Duffy Daugherty has said he has a lot of respect for Taylor and his versatile passing attack.

"He'll have them throwing passes with a 1st down and a yard to go," Daugherty said. "He does things with a pass that no other coach even thought of."

Michigan State, meanwhile, is bound to be the favorite after the impressive loss to Michigan last week. Spartans led in the statistics but not on the scoreboard that showed 14-7 when all the chips were counted.

A near capacity crowd, topping 50,000, is expected for the game if the weather holds good—this despite the counter-attraction of the Michigan-Army game at Ann Arbor.

Viking Harriers Win 17th in Row

Walled Lake High School's cross country team won its 17th consecutive meet Thursday at Walled Lake, outrunning Farmington in the rain, 23-32, to chalk up an Inter-Lakes League decision.

Donald Shuster of the visiting Falcons set a new record of 10:47 over the Walled Lake course, breaking the old mark of 11:03 by WL's Joe Bailey. Bailey came in 2nd yesterday for the Vikings, followed by teammates Gerald Avery, Bill Hosley and Charles Wilson.

Not Much Luck in Store for Hunters

LANSING (AP)—Grouse and duck hunters are not expected to have much luck this weekend, the state conservation department said today.

Foliage is still too heavy for good grouse shooting and the birds are at the bottom of their population cycle.

The department said duck hunting has tapered off since the opening. Native ducks are widely scattered, with no flight ducks reported yet.

Bow and arrow deer hunting was improved by the wet weather, but remains only fair, the department said.

Baltimore Has Nineteen Going South to Play

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles today announced eight more players who will see action in south-of-the-border winter baseball, giving the club a total of 19.

* * *

Eleven were announced earlier as set for action in the Columbian League in South America.

* * *

Joining them once a broken nose is healed will be catcher Donnelly Masterson, under contract with Baltimore's San Antonio farm team. He'll play for Col Roman in that league.

* * *

In the Cuban League are Orioles shortstop Willie Miranda, Whitty Quinana, a shortstop from the San Antonio farm club, and pitcher Robert Harrison of Wichita.

Going to the Mexican League is Juan Senties, an outfielder for Wichita.

In the Venezuelan League are Orioles catcher Tom Gastall and first baseman Bob Hale and Robert Cassery, second baseman with the San Antonio club.

Scott Frost Sweeps Crown in Kentucky Harness Race

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)— To the surprise of nobody, Scott Frost held the first triple crown of harness racing today and the classy California bay colt looked to his home state for more gold to add to his record season's winnings.

* * *

Scott Frost, because of a bike collision, didn't finish the first heat of the rich Kentucky Futurity Thursday but, as expected, the 3-year-old son of Hoot Mon trotted off with the $62,702 classic with trainer-driver Joe O'Brien looking over his shoulder for stablemate Home Free in the succeeding two heats.

The champ, who earlier captured the Hambletonian and Yonkers Futurity—rated with the Kentucky as the season's major tests for sophomore trotters—ships for home next Monday.

* * *

Scott Frost grabbed $24,578.62 for his Futurity victory to put his earnings at an all-time season's high of $146,252.36 and possibly could extend the figure out of reach if he wins at Hollywood Park.

Scott Frost and Home Free, the third stringer in the S. A. Camp string, combined to win more than $43,000 in the Futurity for the Shafter, Calif., stable.

Lane's Contract With Cards, Tigers Signing Harris, Fate of Rickey Hot Baseball Items

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baseball's Hot Stove League began warming up today even before the excitement of the Brookyn Dodgers' World Series triumph over the New York Yankees had cooled off.

* * *

The off-season gabfest was off to a flying start with Frank Lane signing a three-year contract as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, renewal of Bucky Harris' managerial contract by Detroit at $40,000, official signing of Bill Rigney as successor to Leo Durocher a manager of the New York Giants, and distribution of players' share of the World Series receipts.

* * *

In the immediate offing is the naming of new field manager for the Cardinals, the settling of the status of Branch Rickey as Pittsburgh's general manager and the appointment of a successor to Fred Haney as manager, and the possible sale of the Detroit Tigers to a syndicate.

* * *

Freddie Hutchinson, who led Seattle to the Pacific Coast League title after being let out as manager of the Detroit Tigers, is slated to take over the Cardinals.

Rickey's future with the Pirates will come before the club's board of directors the latter part of this month. Either Rickey or the new general manager then will have the task of selecting a field boss for the young but promising Pirates.

There are reports about that the Tigers will be sold to a syndicate by the end of this week with Bob Feller, veteran Ceveland pitcher, named as general manager, succeeding Charlie Gehringer. Feller said it was news to him, and Tiger sources said there is no chance of sale by Oct. 8.

* * *

All of the other managers either are working under long-term contracts, have signed for another year or have been verbally promised their jobs back. There has been some talk that Charlie Grimm's job at Milwaukee was far from secure but the old banjo player has another year to go on his contract.

* * *

In the signing of Lane, who recently resigned as general manager of the White Sox, President August A. Busch of the Cardinals said that he would be given full authority to rebuild the St. Louis club to the position it once held. The Cards wound up seventh this year.

Shelleys Trail Moose on Photo Trip to Canada

Trailing big moose in the wilds of northern Canada next week takes Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shelley off on a 2½-week trip. The OCSC publicist and mate leave Monday with a load of camping gear.

Plans call for the trip, into the bush and lake country north of the Soo, by train and boat, with the final destination at Lake Kaginakagami.

Shelley hopes to get an intimate film of one of North America's biggest game animals. His trip was planned to coincide with the Canadian moose season opening Oct. 15.

Title Implication in Maple, Dale Tilt

With a possible Eastern Michigan League football title hanging in the balance, Birmingham's, undefeated Maples engage invading Ferndale tonight in their 2nd loop test of the season. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

Carl Lemle's 11 could hit a stumbling block in the rugged Railsplitters, who blanked Berkley in their 1955 opener, 25-0, then deadlocked tough Grosse Pointe, 13-13, before bowing to Pontiac's Chiefs last week, 33-0.

Paced by a speedy and deceptive quarterback, Ken Brown, Ferndale poses a scoring threat from any position on the field.

Birmingham seeks its 4th straight victory.

East Detroit visits Hazel Park and Mount Clemens will be at Port Huron in other EML games tonight.

Royal Oak's Acorns face Wyandotte in an important Border Cities League contest tonight at Royal Oak while Cranbrook tackles Flint Tech at Flint, also tonight.

High state rating for the Bay City High School football Wolfpack will give given a real test tonight when Pontiac's Chiefs invade the upstate lair. Wolves were named second only to the high-riding Ann Arbor Pioneers in this week's Associated Press poll.

The Bay City mentor frankly is a little worried over the possible outcome, for Ed Graybiel's club showed fine potentialities last weekend in slapping down a very good Ferndale aggregation. Effective, sharp all-around play marked the performance of the Chiefs. And they're ready to go all out tonight, hoping to extend their 11-10 margin in the long series.

Tonight's battle—and these Bay City-Pontiac annual collisions usually are just that—marks the beginning of the Saginaw Valley Conference title race for both clubs. Bay City has been tabbed as the loop's biggest threat to depose Arthur Hill, the 1954 champion.

Wolves boast three straight wins, one against the well-regarded Muskegon Heights club, 20-0.

Chiefs aim for their 3rd straight victory. They lost their 1st game, to Wyandotte, but subsequently trampled Waterford and Ferndale.

PHS entor, Graybiel, said last night he was still standing pat with the lineup announced 1st of the week: offense—ends—Whitlock and Baxter; tackles — Bob Kelly and Kors; guards—Bruce Baker, Neaves; center Don Hardy; backs —Casteel (qb), Taylor (lf), Watkins, (rh), Spann (fb).

Defense—ends—Cagle and a new one, Willie Amerson; tackles — Conway and Kennedy; guards—Holloway and Walker; linebackers - McCabe and Kors; halfbacks—Watkins and Taylor; safety—Charley Robinson.

"We are hopeful for a victory," says Graybiel. "I know we've a hard job on our hands, and I'm making no predictions. We'll give 'em everything we've got."

Tony Gets Wish— to Meet Basilio

BOSTON (AP)—Tony DeMarco has his wish—a Nov. 30 rematch with welterweight boxing champion Carmen Basilio and a chance to regain the title he lost in Syracuse June 10.

* * *

DeMarco ranked No. 1 challenger, was party to the signing of the contract to the nationally televised (except New England) 15-round bout at Boston Garden.

* * *

Bosox Players Receive $472.98 for 4th Place

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Red Sox players will receive $472.98 as their share of World Series money for their fourth-place finish in the American League race.

The Sox divided $18,446.34 into 39 shares.

The list has not been announced but it is known that Mrs. Georgia Agganis, mother of the late Harry Agganis, has been voted a full share.

Unheralded Colts-Packers Battle for Top NFL Spot

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Along about 11 o'clock tomorrow night there'll be a stranger atop the Western Conference standings of the National Football League.

* * *

It'll be either the Green Bay Packers or the Baltimore Colts—a couple of teams largely ignored in pre-season calculations—who put their 2-0 records to the test at County Stadium Saturday night.

Right now they're sharing the division lead with the Los Angeles Rams, who don't get into action until Sunday at Detroit.

By Thursday more than 35,000 tickets for the Colt-Packer battle had been sold and there was a strong chance the total would reach 40,000 by game time.

The all-time attendance high for a football game at Milwaukee was 34,369 at State Fair Park in 1948 when the Bays played the Chicago Cardinals.

It will be the first Wisconsin appearance of Alan (The Horse) Ameche as a pro. "The Horse" was an All-America fullback at the University of Wisconsin last year.

Hawks Clip Wings in NHL Opener, 3-2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Detroit Red Wings got off to an ominous start in the defense of their National Hockey League championship Thursday night while the bogy of being supplanted by Montreal loomed in a Canadien victory.

Wings, seeking their 8th straight crown, dropped their 1st home opener in 17 years, 3-2, to the Chicago Black Hawks. Montreal, picked by hockey writers to unseat Detroit, shut out the Maple Leafs, 2-0, in another home opener.

Nick Mickoski powered through the Detroit defense to break a 2-2 tie at 5:31 of the final period and hand the Wings their 1st inaugural setback since 1938 when the Boston Bruins beat them by the same score.

Montreal veteran Bert Olmstead tallied in the opening period and Maurice (the Rocket) Richard added a goal in the final stanza in getting the Canadiens off to an auspicious start.

Hawks, tagged the "most improved" team in the league by hockey writers covering the All-Star game in Detroit last Sunday, pulled from behind in posting their 1st victory over the Wings

The Canadiens suffered a setback when last year's NHL scoring champion Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion was hurt but it was reported no fractures had been disclosed.

Capt. Ted Lindsey rifled in Detroit's 1st score against Hawks at 2:16 of the opening period. Chicago's Metro Prystai netted Johnny Wilson's rebound two minutes later and Chicago went ahead at 7:34 on Harry Watson's snipe of a 10-footer.

Detroit's Alex Delvicchio evened the count at 2-2 at 17:17 of the 2nd period when Chicago goalie Al Rollins inadvertently swept in the Detroit forward's pass.

Overall, Rollins turned in a sparkling performance, holding off 40 Red Wing attempts. Rookie goalie Glenn Hall, making his 1st appearance as a Red Wing regular, made 27 saves.

Richard's 19-year-old brother, Henri (Pocket) Richard made an impressive showing in his 1st NHL appearance. Henri took a regular turn on the Montreal line wth Jean Beliveau and Olmstead after Geoffrion was injured.

Podoley Back on Chips' 11 Right in Time

Urgent Need for Jim on Team; Still Eyes Olympic Berth

MT. PLEASANT (AP)—Jim Podoley, halfback scoring star of last year's Central Michigan College football team, has ended his brief gridiron retirement.

The 6-foot-2, 190-pound junior who led the nation's small colleges in scoring with 109 points last season turned out for practice with the Chippewas yesterday after announcing before the season started that he was giving up football to devote his full time to track.

"I just decided that I want to play football again," Podoley told coach Bill Kelly. "I'm not giving up my ambition of making the United States Olympic team next year, I'll try to combine track with football."

Podoley hopes to win a decathalon berth on the Olympic team. He has won that event the last two years at the Kansas Relays.

Kelly said he would use Podoley in spots in Central's game here tomorrow with Northern Illinois.

Central has an urgent need for Podoley. Jerry Thomas, his replacement, broke his leg in Central's 2nd game. Chips won their 1st two starts, then suffered a 14-13 upset last week against Southern Illinois.

Naming Pilot Lane's 1st Job as Cards' Boss

Has Three Prospects in View; Hutch Expected to Get Post

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The naming of a new field general will be the first act for Frank Lane, new St. Louis Cardinal general manager, and he reportedly has Fred Hutchinson all but signed up.

* * *

Lane, former Chicago White Sox general manager, told newsmen yesterday he had three men under consideration for the job—Hutchinson, pilot of the 1955 pennant-winning Seattle club in the Pacific Coast League, Harry (The Hat) Walker, the present Redbird field director, and a third prospect who Lane didn't name.

* * *

But despite Lane's refusal to put the finger on his field pilot choice it was learned Hutchinson will be the man to succeed Walker within a week or 10 days.

Lane said he hoped to have the manager problem out of the way by Oct. 10—date for a Cardinal organizational meeting. But, Lane added, he wanted to talk with Busch before making a decision.

"After all, while I'm the general manager, I'm not the owner of the club," he said.

* * *

August A. Busch, wealthy brewery owner and president of the Cardinals, announced the selection of the 59-year-old Lane as general manager at a press conference yesterday afternoon. Lane's selection had been considered certain following his talks with his predecessor, Dick Meyer, during the World Series in New York. Meyer, who also is a top executive at Anheuser-Busch Inc., was named executive vice president of the ball club.

Big Business!

UM Season Ticket Sale May Total Half Million

ANN ARBOR (AP)—University of Michigan needs only two more sellouts of its gigantic football stadium to come within 10,000 of its own Big Ten season record attendance.

With the Michigan State game last Saturday and tomorrow's Army game on the list of sellouts, Michigan finds itself with four games left to go and about 352,000 seats already sold.

No current official tabulation is available, but some early season information released by athletic director H. O. (Fritz) Crisler gives a clue to the hotness of the Michigan ticket situation.

Now with baseball out of the picture and the sports-lover's attention completely devoted to football, it seems entirely possible that Michigan Stadium (Saturday population maximum 97,239) may swell appreciably.

In 1949, the Wolverines sold out four games and nearly sold out a 5th on their six game home schedule to tally 563,000, a Michigan and Big Ten record.

This year, they are endowed with seven home games. Of the 1st three, two have been sellouts. Of the last four, two are possible sellouts: Iowa (Oct. 29) and Ohio State (Nov. 19).

If they both, Iowa and OSU do sell out, more than 194,000 seats would be added to the Michigan season total, raising it to 550,000 tickets or more.

Newcomers Top Eastern Event

BALTIMORE (AP)—Frank Stranahan and Ray Heins, a couple of newcomers to professional golf, lead the divots-for-dollars crowd into the second round of the Eastern Open here today.

They carved out 5-under-par 67's over Baltimore's public Mt. Pleasant Course yesterday, giving them a 1-stroke edge over a couple of Mikes—Souchak of Durham, N.C., and Homa of Rye, N.Y.

Eighteen others in the field of 115 cracked par-72 over the hilly, 6,895-yard course.

Billy Martin Slated for Army Discharge

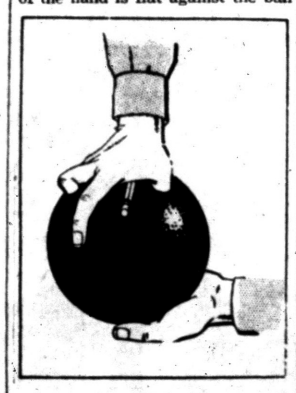

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Billy Martin, second baseman of the New York Yankees, was to pick up his discharge from the Army today at Ft. Carson.

Martin said on his arrival here last night he would leave tomorrow for San Francisco where he will meet his teammates on their way to Japan.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

FITTING THE BALL — Bowling with a poorly fitted ball is like playing golf with mismated clubs. Your hopes may be high, but your scores will be low. And with modern measuring and drilling equipment, there's no reason why your hand, regardless of size or shape, can't be fitted perfectly. Holes now are bored at every possible angle, with curves if need be. To get the correct span (width) sink the thumb and finger into the holes to the ridges of the second knuckle, as sketch shows, so that the palm of the hand is flat against the ball surface. The lift is proper if, in lifting the ball, a pencil will pass through the opening between the thumb and finger. That applies to both two or three-fingered grips. Unless your hand is very strong, I suggest you use a three-fingered ball. With it you get a more secure hold than with a "two," and, having changed over to a three after 35 years, I assure you that, besides saving wear, it's easier to control.

Irish, Army Figure in Top Contests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Army and Notre Dame, whose annual meeting used to be one of college football's top attractions of the year, don't meet on the gridiron this year, but the Cadets and the Irish are providing the top games this weekend just the same. Both will be playing to packed, partisan houses with bristling battles in prospect.

* * *

Notre Dame will be tested first in a clash with Miami tonight in the Orange Bowl, with a record crowd of 75,800 expected to see if Miami's football buildup, with this game specifically in mind, can be brought to a successful climax. Being the target for tonight is an old story for Notre Dame, but the Irish, rated the No. 5 team in the country in this week's Associated Press poll, will be meeting a team that's tough to beat in the Orange Bowl.

An even larger, but no less anxious, crowd is in prospect in Ann Arbor, Mich., tomorrow, where 97,239 will see Army try to win its sixth straight from Michigan in a series that has been bitterly fought despite the Cadets' victory every time thus far. The game, a pick 'em affair among the betting gentry, shapes up as a battle between Army's Eastern powerhouse, rated sixth nationally, and Michigan, hailed as the best in the West and ranked second nationally.

Notre Dame was strictly a running team in shutout victories over Southern Methodist and Indiana, with quarterback Paul Hornung doing most of the running on keep plays, but he'll probably take to the air if necessary tonight.

* * *

In other games tonight, seventh-ranked UCLA is a strong favorite over Oregon State, Houston meets Detroit in a key Missouri Valley Conference game and SMU pays Missouri in a game which will stop somebody's 1935 losing string.

* * *

While counting the receipts of tonight's sellout, Orange Bow officials may be listening tomorrow for returns from, of all places, the Cotton Bowl, where Powerful Oklahoma, with 21 straight victories, meets old rival Texas in an annual scrap. If the Sooners can get past Texas, as they're favored to, then the Orange Bowl can look forward with good reason to a battle of undefeated titans on New Year's Day, Oklahoma vs. Maryland.

UCLA and Southern California, once again headed for a late November battle to settle Pacific Coast Conference honors, are expected to wrap up their second conference victories of the year.

Wisconsin, which looks like the main threat to Michigan in the Big Ten, after an impressive victory over Iowa, goes against Purdue in the top Midwest game of the day. Wisconsin, ranked ninth in the country, does not play Michigan.

Michigan State, meantime, will see if Stanford can win two weeks in a row against a Big Ten team. The chances are they can't.

Pitt and Navy meet at Baltimore in a clash of the East's top independent teams, while the Ivy League has a full slate topped by the meeting between Cornell and Harvard, two of the pre-season favorites.

Pontiac JV's Edge Bay City

Extra Point Gives PHS 21-20 Win Over Wolves for 4th Straight

Pontiac High School Junior Varsity racked up its 4th straight victory of the season Thursday afternoon at Wisner Stadium, nosing out the Bay City Wolves, 21-20.

Visitors scored 1st, after the 1st kickoff, going 60 yards for the tally. Extra point try failed. It was the margin of defeat for Bay City.

Ed Heikkinen's JV's scored their 1st touchdown in the 2nd quarter when Jim Hawkins dashed 65 yards up the middle. A pass scored the bonus point.

Bay City scored again after a pass gained 60 yards. Another aerial added the point.

With a minute left in the half, Little Chiefs scored on a 65-yard pass from Whitmer to John Phlegm. Les Watkins bucked over for the point, giving PHS a 14-13 lead.

Pontiac sewed up the game in the 3rd when Hawkins sprinted 35 yards for a TD after a 40-yard scoring run was nullified by clipping. Nick Shorter ran around end for the extra marker.

Moore Top-Rated Behind Marciano

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite his knockout loss to heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, Archie Moore still was ranked as the leading heavyweight contender today in Ring Magazine's monthly boxing ratings.

The 38 - year - old light-heavyweight king was rated ahead of Bob Baker, Pittsburgh, Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, New York, and Cuba's Nino Valdes.

Lineup Changes Made

Underdog Shamrocks Gird for Clement; Rams Hope for Win Over St. Benedict

By BILL CORNWELL

St. Michael's Shamrocks, still without the services of 1st-string quarterback Bob Mineweaser, Jr., find themselves definite underdogs for Sunday's crucial Suburban Catholic League battle with St. Clement at Center Line.

Mineweaser, who incurred an injured kidney in scrimmage a week ago, missed last Sunday's tiff with Orchard Lake St. Mary and is not expected to be ready for the St. Clement encounter.

Trying to correct weaknesses revealed in the St. Mary game, especially up front where the Eaglets ripped gaping holes repeatedly, head coach Bob Mineweaser plans some lineup changes for Sunday's important contest.

Mike Lyons, a speedy guard, is being shifted into the backfield at left half in place of Mike Clever. Dan Dropss, normally a halfback, will continue at quarterback, with right half Chuck Brown and fullback Ron Elmy rounding out the backfield.

Allen Sampson, heretofore a sturdy defensive player, will replace Gerald Kucera at tackle, with Ed Lauinger moving into the guard spot vacated by Lyons. Tackle Larry Maison and linebacker Paul Amman, both hampered by injuries, are expected to see action.

Over on Pontiac's south side, the victory-starved St. Frederick gridders are preparing for Sunday's SCL engagement with Highland Park St. Benedict at Wisner Stadium.

St. Benedict, victim of a 26-7 pasting by St. Clement last Sunday for its 1st loss of the season, will be favored.

Most significant change made in St. Fred's lineup by coach Gene Wright is the transfer of versatile Dick Doyon from end to right halfback. The rangy Doyon, standout flanker at St. Fred's for the past two years, has been running from the backfield post in an attempt to put more speed and punch into the Rams' attack.

Joining Doyon in the backfield will be freshman quarterback Tom Durocher, left half Larry Morrow, and fullback Wally Quarles. Starting line will consist of Andre Landry and Bill Price at ends, Tom Sweetman and John Powe at tackles, Jim Duren and Bernard Slabinski at guards, and Tom Israel at center.

Unbeaten St. Mary Eaglets shoot for their 3rd SCL victory Sunday at Hazel Park against St. Rita. Rev. John Rakoczy's team is tied for the league lead.

St. James of Ferndale meets Royal Oak St. Mary at Royal Oak in Sunday's other SCL game.

Largest Field Since 1949 Expected at Belmont Park

NEW YORK (AP)—A field of about 15, largest since 1949, is expected to go post-ward Saturday in the rich Futurity Stakes at Belmont Park and the result will help clear up the scrambled 2-year-old division.

The C. V. Whitney pair of Career Boy and Head Man is expected to rule a slight favorite in the six and one half furlongs down the Widener Straight Course. However, there are nine stakes winners in the prospective lineup, and with no Citation, Tom Fool, Native Dancer or Nashua on hand the rich pot is wide open.

It costs $1,000 to start in the race, which will be televised and broadcast nationally (ABC) at 3:15 p.m., EST. With 15 going, the purse will hit $125,125, and the winner can drag down $100,425 clear.

This would be the second richest Futurity, Harry Payne Whitney's Whichone having collected $105,730 in 1929.

There is added interest in the presence of Doubledogdare, a filly who will be challenging colts and just might grab all the marbles. The Claiborne Farm miss won the $60,000 Matron Stakes for 2-year-old fillies last week, and could be the 12th of her sex to take the Futurity since its inauguration at Sheepshead Bay track in 1888.

Three Phoenix construction men working near Flagstaff found the price of illegal wild turkey mighty high. They were fined $200 each.

TRUE FAN — Crew cut with feminine variations is sported by this 16-year-old Beacon, N. Y., high school girl. It's Therese Westerhuis' way of showing her loyalty to the singing quartet known as the "Crew-Cuts." Some 50,000 U. S. and Canadian teen-age girls are expected to adopt the coiffure, trademark of the singers' fan club.

You're Slandering Fair Womanhood, Ma'am

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — A woman can talk about other women behind their backs and get away with it nicely. This is called "gossiping" and is an old American prerogative, like slandering mothers-in-law and recommending death for umpires.

* * *

However, it's another thing again when a woman expresses her opinion openly against other women.

This may be honest, but it's heresy. You have taken a stand against your own; you are a black blot on the name of Susan B. Anthony; you are an unfeminine, uniadylike, unmitigated bum!

These names I have been called, one by one, in a series of letters to me and letters to editors of papers in which my column appears, since Sept. 15.

On that day I expressed the casual opinion that the five finalists in the "iMss America" contest of 1955 were asking too much of the red-blooded American male.

* * *

In their declarations of what they wanted in a husband, the lovely ladies requested basically men who would, first and foremost, be considerate of them.

It would also help, most of them pointed out, if the men were handsome, wealthy, well-educated and had good jobs.

* * *

I pointed out, in turn, that when these gals matured a bit, they'd discover that good looks in a man are about as significant as his golf score, that money is not as much fun as working for it, and that it is wonderful to be a beautiful doll—but not much fun to be treated like one.

From Minneapolis came one kind, sympathetic letter: "This is to tell you that we—my family—think you deserve a Pulitzer Prize. It was a bull's eye. We saw the performance of the little damsels on TV and our reaction was so close to what you expressed, it's thrilling."

From the other points on the globe came snarls:

A North Carolina housewife wrote two pages, single-spaced type, asking for an apology to these pretty young things. "They didn't mean to sound so mercenary, I am quite sure," she said. "Either you are a shame-faced male writing under a woman's pen name," she added, "or you are a woman who does not value her womanhood highly."

From Texas came comments as black as the local oil, calling me traitor to my sex. And inviting any of the young lassies to come out Southwest, "where they will be properly appreciated, and where they can find those wealthy men they're lookin' for with no trouble at all."

OUTRAGED FOLKS

Nebraska and Colorado folk were outraged. ("Miss America" is a Colorado girl, transplanted recently from Nebraska.) What their comments add up to is—if you were good-looking, louse-lady, you'd expect a handsome, rich, considerate man, too!

* * *

And from a gentleman who signed himself "Sam (Sour) Grapes" came a proposal of marriage. "I can't hardly wait to meet you, cause you're just the kind of dame I been looking for. If you'll marry me I'll guarantee you won't have to worry about no consideration or love or good looks or money. I ain't got no job."

I guess, in the face of all this criticism, I will have to back down and bow to majority opinion. Majority rules that if these purty young things want the man in the moon, they are quite within their royal rights—granted by the Supreme Court at Atlantic City, New Jersey.

So my apologies, girls. I wish you all the riches, good looks and polite consideration in the world . . . all of which should lead to a full, if dull, life.

HOPE IT'S WORTH IT ALL — M.Sgt. E. M. Freeman went to a lot of expense getting this 20-year-old Beardmore English taxicab to his base in Riverside, Calif. Freeman had the cab shipped to his home in Waterbury, Conn., from England, at a cost reportedly higher than the price of the cab itself. Then the trip from Waterbury to March Air Force Base cost him two flat tires. A guard checks Freeman and his cab through the gates.

Lake Michigan Drops

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — The regular report by U.S. Army Corps of Engineers indicates Lake Michigan water level dropped six inches in September. It was the greatest drop for one month since the lake began receding in 1952. The level is nearly a foot below September 1954 at 580.6 feet above sea level.

30,000 Apples!

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Tony Zoovas, downtown restaurant owner, has resumed his practice—started 26 years ago—of giving apples away to each of his customers until 10 bushels have been distributed. It's his way of sharing the arrival of fall with his patrons. He estimates he's handed out more than 30,000 apples since starting the practice.

Water, Water From Nowhere Plagues Family

WINDSOR, Vt. (AP)—The mystery of the water in the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Waterman was no nearer solution today.

The Watermans have been forced to take refuge in a trailer in their front yard.

* * *

The water, in the form of dew, mist or fog, dampens everything in the 8-room house except the walls and ceilings.

The Watermans have lived in the house for nine years but not until two weeks ago did water begin to plague them.

* * *

Experts from electrical, plumbing, furnace and insulation companies are as puzzled as the Watermans. There are no water pipe leaks and there seems to be no seepage from a spring, well or other body of water.

Soybeans Gain, Grains Steady

CHICAGO (AP) — Most grains firmed a bit in rather slow dealings on the Board of Trade today. Best gains were recorded in soybeans and 1955 crop wheat futures.

Corn and oats were relatively steady without adding much to their value. Their steadiness came despite a drop by hogs into the lowest ground since June, 1946. Hogs are the biggest consumers of corn and the hog price decline does not improve the corn-hog ratio.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was lower to ⅞ higher, December $2.05½; corn ⅜ to ⅝ higher, December $1.32⅜; oats ⅛ to ⅜ lower, December 64½; rye ½ lower to ½ higher, December $1.13½; soybeans ½ to ¾ higher, November $2.43½, and lard 5 cents lower to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $10.70.

Vehicle Output Hits 2nd Lowest Level

DETROIT (INS) — Automotive News reported today production in the U. S. will reach the second lowest level of the year this week with nine auto manufacturers either down for chageovers or producing on a token basis.

The industry's trade paper estimated this week's output at 84,920 units. Truck production was estimated at 16,820 units.

Despite this week's decline, auto production is running nearly 45 per cent ahead of 1954 and truck output is running about 19.5 per cent ahead of last year.

French Citroen Retools for 1st Time Since '33

PARIS (AP)—Parisians rushed to the Citroen stand of the 42nd Paris auto show this morning to have a look at the new streamlined car the big French manufacturer unveiled publicly for the first time today.

The new model represents the first change of design Citroen has made in 22 years.

Most comments were enthusiastic and over 100 persons, according to Citroen officials, ordered the new car within the first hour of the show. Would-be buyers lined in front of the Citroen office, checkbook in hand.

The new car, a five-seater with a 75-hp four-cylinder, 1911 C. C. engine, costs 930,000 francs ($2,657) that is high compared to the two-liter Fregate made by Renault, a government-owned factory, which costs 743,500 francs ($2,124).

A black Cadillac Eldorado brougham, displayed on a turntable, was another magnet for early visitors.

Movie - Sponsored TV Shows Lambasted for Excessive Plugs

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—A movie executive wondered if the TV critics, busy lambasting some of the new shows prepared by major movie companies for the TV trade, might have their attitudes, singly and collectively, explained as a basic resentment of movies invading TV.

This couldn't have been more wrong.

* * *

If the movie companies bring TV some fine fare, we will rejoice. If they help improve the standards of the swaddling TV industry, we'll all cheer.

But in seeking an explanation for the official critical opposition, which incidentally only is partial indication of the public's larger resentment of such tactics, the movie man we know merely was looking away from the source of the sadness—the shows themselves.

Darryl F. Zanuck has stated the case aptly. He said 20th Century-Fox was taking on TV production not only to bring the fine reputation of 20th's movie-making to the new medium, but also to exploit its theatrical movies, CinemaScope successes, etc.

The invasion by Zanuck, the Warners, MGM and other major picture producers has been smart, sly, canny and positive planning on their part.

* * *

They are entitled to acquire all the promotional time and space they find willingly available.

CODE BYPASSED

The networks alone are at fault, bypassing the radio-TV "code" which purportedly limits the time for commercial pitches to six minutes an hour, three in each 30-minute network program.

* * *

This week "The 20th Century-Fox Hour" came to CBS-TV with one hour to fill. It selected "Cavalcade," Noel Coward's stately old valentine to Mother England, a brilliant movie made several decades ago.

Its TV version took precisely 35 minutes. The sponsors' huckstering took another six minutes, leaving 19 or so minutes at the discretion of 20th Century-Fox.

This latter time was devoted to trailerizing 20th's new movies, interviewing stars, and exploiting itself smartly—from its own standpoint.

This, therefore, was CBS-TV's simple colapse of "code" and perspective in order to cadge 20th's proven star-power.

LOTS OF ROOM

When Warners started turning out TV films for profit, they profited handsomely and quite smartly intend to go right on profiting, delivering an average length TV movie that still leaves lots of room for the publicity department to rattle around in.

Warners' series (Casablanca, Kings Row, Cheyenne) is unfolded so that about a quarter hour is left—aside from the sponsor's necessary commercials—to huckster the latest Warner releases.

Metro-Goldywn-Mayer does it in even briefer time—20 minutes, filling its half hour with three brief snippets of old or new MGM issues, generally entertaining, larding the rest of the time with unabashed MGM promotions, which, however you slice them, still are commercials.

So it is not the movie invasion that troubles us; it is the overly shallow method of invasion, taking the public's time with the willing connivance of the networks.

Find Young 'Gunman' Who Scared Druggist

ORANGEBURG, S. C. (AP)—Police received an urgent call from a local druggist last night and soon were searching the neighborhood for a "pistol-packing" stranger who "threatened" the druggist.

Soon they found him and he told them:

He walked into the drugstore and his toy cap pistol slipped from his pocket. He grabbed and caught it to prevent it hitting the floor and left the store because the druggist looked "strange" and ran to the rear of the store.

The gunman is 14. No charges were filed.
