Martial Law in Minnesota

AP Wirephoto

PRICKLY SITUATION — Minnesota national guardsmen with fixed bayonets disperse a crowd of peering strikers at packing house in Albert Lea, Minn. It appeared that the crowd was not hooting at the soldiers but at nonunion workers who reported at the plant but were refused entry as Gov. Orville Freeman declared martial law.

Bayonets Keep Order at Plant

Guard Troops Disperse Strikers at Minnesota Packing House

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP) — National guardsmen with fixed bayonets dispersed a jeering crowd of several hundred persons at the strike-torn Wilson Packing Co. plant today to back up Gov. Orville Freeman's dead-of-night declaration of martial law in Freeborn County.

The crowd was apparently hooting not at the soldiers but at nonunion production workers whom the guardsmen turned away from the Wilson gates as they reported for work this morning.

The Guard, moving swiftly after the governor's call to maintain law and order, shut down the Wilson plant to all but non-union supervisory and clerical workers.

The production workers, hired by Wilson to replace striking union workmen, showed up in numbers today apparently before they got word the troops were called out and the plant shut down.

'BEAUTIFUL PICKET LINE'

They formed two groups on either side of the main plant entrance.

Col. Paul V. Meyer of Mankato read an order to the crowd of several hundred persons on hand —spectators along with union men.

The colonel said no more than three persons could gather in

Ike Declares War on Hunger, Famine

NEW DELHI (AP)—President Eisenhower today called upon all nations to wage together a "genuinely noble war" against hunger and famine, the scourges of India and much of this part of the world.

The President, making three speeches in the course of a busy day, continued to be the center of almost worshipful masses of people.

"Men right now possess knowledge and resources for a successful worldwide war against hunger — the sort of war that dignifies and exhalts human beings," he declared in opening the dramatic American pavilion at New Delhi's World Agricultural Fair.

In two earlier speeches he:

1. Called for an expansion of the universal recognition of world law as a sound basis of peace.
2. Declared summit conferences of the big powers have less enduring influence for peace than exchanges of students and people-to-people contacts.

A surging, colorful crowd of 10,000 Indians jammed the enclosed field at the fair to hear the President term India a mighty influence for world peace and pledge American help toward solving this nation's critical food shortages.

Crowds numbering hundreds of thousands lined the route to the fair grounds, cheering Eisenhower as he passed by with Indian President Rajendra Prasad in an open horse-drawn coach under a red and gold umbrella.

As the ceremonies ended, the sun was sinking and colored lights playing on the stand gave a brilliant glow to Indian dancers in ornate costumes performing before the President.

Eisenhower was praised by Prime Minister Nehru as a great man and a great president.

"You have found yourself in the hearts of my millions," Nehru declared.

Eisenhower said India and the United States are working together to solve India's food problem.

"Whatever strengthens India strengthens us, a sister republic dedicated to peace," he said.

City Bus Drivers Reduce Demands for Higher Pay

Striking drivers and mechanics of the struck Pontiac City Bus Line in Pontiac have reduced their demands for wage increases, according to company representatives.

Maurice R. Biddle, operations manager of the line, said the offer would be "carefully evaluated." It was made in a three-hour meeting of union and company representatives yesterday at the Waldron Hotel.

He declined to disclose the new union demand. The union has been demanding a 22½-cent an hour increase in wages and fringe benefits.

Yesterday's meeting was the second of three called by the State Labor Mediation Board. No progress was reported in similar talks at Kalamazoo. Talks are scheduled today at Saginaw.

The Pontiac City Bus Line is a subsidiary of the National Bus Line of Chicago. Subsidiary lines of the same parent company in Saginaw and Kalamazoo also are struck.

'Straley Wants His Job Back,' Landry Declares

Says Ex-Chief Desires to Serve Out 2 Years Before Retirement

Former Police Chief Herbert W. Straley wants his job back, according to City Commissioner Robert A. Landry, a staunch supporter of the fired official.

"If Straley comes back, he would only have two more years to go before retirement," Landry told fellow commissioners at an informal gathering last night.

"Straley wants to serve out this time. He told me so," said Landry.

Landry's statement was the closest indication so far of what 54-year-old Straley intends to do now that his April 4 ouster by the old Civil Service Commission has been ruled illegal by Circuit Court.

The ruling came Tuesday, but Straley himself has given no hint whether he'll ask for a Circuit Court order for reinstatement.

Commissioners mostly kept silent on the Straley decision at their public meeting Tuesday. But last night when alone they devoted two hours to ofttimes heated discussion on the former chief.

Little was said that hadn't been stated publicly during the three-month fight to fire Straley early this year.

Landry, as in the past, continued to support him, but failed to win any sympathy from the rest of the Commission. Commissioner Milton R. Henry, another Straley supporter, was absent.

Meanwhile, Straley's attorneys, Philip Pratt and Clarence L. Smith said today they would meet with City Attorney William A. Ewart Monday to show him the petition they will present Circuit Judge Morris K. Davis of Ionia County asking Straley's reinstatement with full back pay.

Pratt said Ewart is currently reviewing the decision which reversed Straley's firing by the Commission.

If Ewart objects to the petition, he could file one on behalf of the city, forcing Judge Davis to hold a hearing before issuing a reinstatement order, thus delaying Straley's return.

Pratt said the meeting of the attorneys would be to seek agreement on the petition to Judge Davis.

If Straley were to return, the city would have to file charges against him before the Police Trial Board if it wished to attempt to oust him again.

Two days after Straley's firing, Pontiac voters repealed civil service for the police department.

Reports on Airport Study

TELLS OF AIR NEEDS — Paul Brown, airport consultant, explains a technical point to the Supervisors Inter-County Committee yesterday at the Botsford Inn, Farmington, as he detailed the recommendation that a second, major jet airport be located in the Pontiac area by 1975. Brown is a partner in the Cincinnati, Ohio firm of Landrum & Brown, which prepared the southeastern Michigan metropolitan area's first authoritative study on future air transportation needs.

To Seek Committee to Study Jet Proposal

County Will Enter Airport Planning

By PETE LOCHBILER

A special county committee will be sought to consider adoption of the Pontiac jet airfield proposal as part of a master airport plan for Oakland County.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, said he would carry the proposal to the full board Monday and ask for creation of a new aviation committee to study it.

From such a committee could come a county recommendation to support the proposal, adopt it as part of a master plan, and to create a long-range program to make it a reality.

The proposal was made yesterday to the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, which Hamlin heads, by the airport consultant firm of Landrum & Brown of Cincinnati, Ohio.

In a report on a $30,000 study for the inter-county committee, the State Board of Aeronautics and the Detroit Board of Commerce on airport needs in the southeastern Michigan metropolitan area, Landrum & Brown's main conclusion was that there would have to be a second big jet airfield in the area by 1970-1975 and that Pontiac is the logical site for it.

Paul Brown, a partner in the firm, said that each southeastern Michigan county should shoulder the burden of planning and developing the air facilities recommended for it in the upcoming jet age.

He pointed out that such facilities should be made a reality only when the demand warrants them, and stressed that at this point they should be self-sufficient financially.

Brown was firmly against creation of a southeastern Michigan airport authority to implement new airport facilities.

"The counties and the major cities involved can do the job better on their own," he said.

Hamlin agreed with this opinion. He said it is hoped that action will be taken by each county in the area to agree eventually on a broad, six-county master plan.

With the support of Detroit and the Board of Aeronautics, the area as a whole would have a better chance of winning federal aid than the individual communities by themselves, Brown believed.

Another group expected to figure prominently in work towards a six-county master plan is Detroit Mayor Louis Miriani's new Greater Detroit Air Transportation Committee, of which Pontiac Mayor Philip E. Rowston is a member.

In their first reaction to the jet airport proposal, Rowston and other city commissioners talked briefly, but enthusiastically, last night about the potential for expansion at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

Mild temperatures will continue through Monday but will turn colder Tuesday and Wednesday.

Tonight's low will be near 40. Saturday's high will climb again to the mid-40s.

Supposing YOU Sent 23,000 Yule Cards ???

The envelopes were ordered last February and aides have been addressing them in every spare moment.

Postage will be considerable since the governor has a fat overseas mailing list from his travels.

The cards themselves have not yet arrived but the staff is preparing for a crash program of envelope stuffing.

Hope Today Centers on 6 Pct. Against Firms, Raising 87 Million

LANSING (AP) — Democrats, strengthened by one new member, grabbed firm control in the House today and girded for a showdown on a six per cent corporation profits tax.

In a tumultuous session that carried past midnight, they methodically cut down six GOP tax bills last night, but agreed today to revive them for possible reconsideration.

Democratic hopes, however, centered on a substitute which would hit corporations for 87 million dollars a year. It was designed to consign every other proposed tax to the scrapheap.

"I think we've got the votes to put it through today," said Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski (D-Detroit), Democratic floor leader, after lawmakers wound up a 5½ hour session at 12:07 a.m.

Swearing-in of Rep. David S. Holmes (D-Detroit), elected only three days ago to replace the late Charlene White, boosted Democratic strength to 55. But ailing Rep. Adams Sumeracki (D-Detroit) was missing.

Reps. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) and John C. Morris (R-Midland), frequent dissenters from the GOP tax line, said they also

Walled Lake Youth's Suit for Mistreatment Is Defeated

Two Oakland County sheriff's deputies and a former deputy have been cleared by a U.S. District Court jury in their alleged mistreating of a 19-year-old Walled Lake youth.

Exonerated last night were Deputies Raymond E. Beason, a turnkey, Roland W. LaLonde, and former deputy Gordon Misenar.

Carl E. Hess Jr., formerly of 960 Adelaide Dr., accused the trio of roughing him up in December 1957 when he was arrested on a drunkeness charge. Hess, now serving 1½ to 15 years in Jackson Prison for safe robbery, said the mistreatment aggravated a former brain injury he had.

Hess originally asked for $30,000 in his damage suit, but this was lowered later $15,000 when it was discovered the deputies weren't bonded as high as believed at first. Named as a defendant also was the Fidelity Casualty Co. of New York, the county's bonding agency.

A jury in Detroit, consisting of 10 women and 2 men, handed down its verdict of no cause for action late Thursday. Earlier U.S. District Judge Clifford O'Sullivan dismissed LaLonde as a defendant before the case went to the jury.

Jurors cleared Beason and Misenar.

Two previous trials of Hess' suit ended in mistrials.

Misenar and his partner, LaLonde, denied striking Hess. The men said the youth was disorderly in the patrol car after his arrest, but all they did was knock his legs down to keep him from pushing against the back of the front seat with his feet.

Beason testified Wednesday that when he was taking Hess to the cell block the youth tried to punch him. Beason said he grabbed Hess' arm and slapped his face.

The turnkey said Hess appeared to faint, and to prevent him from rolling off his bunk, he laid the youth on the cell floor. When he checked later, Beason said, Hess had gone to bed.

Moore to Decide on Possible Adult Trial in Robbery-Shooting

Juvenile Judge Arthur E. Moore today was deciding whether a 16-year-old youth should be tried as an adult in the near-fatal shooting of a Highland Township gas station attendant.

The judge had under advisement a petition from the Prosecutor's Office asking that Theodore A. Mendoza of 3031 Indianwood Rd., Orion Township, be tried in Circuit Court for armed robbery. He's presently in custody of juvenile authorities.

Meanwhile, Assistant Prosecutor Edward H. Shigley said should Judge Moore waive jurisdiction over Mendoza, he and his two friends would be examined on the armed robbery charges next Friday.

SATISFACTORY CONDITION

Newton was shot in the back gangland style during the Nov. 30 robbery, which netted the trio $60.

Pontiac General Hospital authorities said Newton was listed in satisfactory condition.

However, it is expected that Newton will be permanently paralyzed from the waist down. The Arrest, Later Free British Newsman

Castro Regime Still Holds U.S. Reporter

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's regime today arrested but later released a British newsman.

Still held was reporter James Buchanan of the Miami Herald, seized on charges he was aiding Frank Austin Young, an American sentenced by a Castro military court.

The British correspondent is Ian Aitken, representing Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers. He was seized after returning from an investigation of Young's escape from jail in Pinar del Rio.

On his release, Aitken said he had been asked virtually nothing about Young, but had been asked if he knew a man named Buckman. His questioners apparently were referring to the Miami reporter.

Agents who arrested Buchanan said he was entering the hotel room in which they recaptured Young, a former Flint, Mich., resident, yesterday.

A U.S. embassy representative said he understood officials planned to take Buchanan before a Havana judge and charge him with having been Young's accomplice, on the grounds he tried to help a fugitive.

JAMES BUCHANAN

Young, a 38-year-old pilot-adventurer from Miami, was sentenced to 30 years in prison Tuesday in Pinar del Rio for conspiring against Castro's government. He escaped Wednesday and made his way to Havana, but his freedom lasted less than 48 hours.

Cuban agents claimed Buchanan was bringing bandages to Young, who had hurt his leg in the escape.

Two armed agents picked up Aitken after midnight at the Havana office of the New York Times, where he was talking with the Times correspondent, Mrs. Ruby Hart Phillips, and Edward Scott, a British national and correspondent for the National Broadcasting Co.

The two agents questioned all three, then searched the office as though looking for another person.

It appeared that the Cubans were picking up all persons who had close contact with Young and Peter John Lambton, 24, British-born codefendant with Young, who was sentenced to 25 years in prison. Aitken, who came here 10 days ago from New York, had interviewed both in Pinar del Rio.

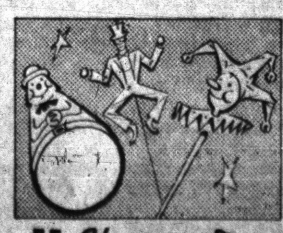

FRANK YOUNG

Before he was nabbed, the Miami correspondent sent his paper a graphic, first-person account by Young of his escape with Sergio Hernandez Reyes, a former Cuban soldier awaiting trial as a counterrevolutionist.

DUG HOLE IN WALL

Young said in the copyrighted account that he and Reyes dug a hole in the outside wall of the cell they shared with seven other prisoners, using a stolen chisel and their hands. Young said he was "stunned and sick" after learning of his 30-year sentence. "I knew right then I had to get out."

Business Tax Next Solution Attempt would vote for the corporate profits levy.

Democrats, accustomed to an underdog's role, outnumbered Republicans 53-52 last night and tried to ram through their tax moments after Rep. Walter H. Nill (D-Muskegon Heights) unveiled it.

Republican cries of "unfair" and "railroad" went up and the move died when Rep. T. John Lesinski (D-Detroit) announced "we're one vote short."

THEN TO SENATE

House passage would send the bill to a hostile Senate where the GOP majority has jumped on moves to pile new taxes on business.

Nill's proposal, long espoused by Gov. Williams and other Democrats, would raise 132 million dollars a year by taxing corporate profits at six per cent. As an offset, the corporation franchise fee, worth about 45 millions annually, would be virtually repealed.

Nill said the net increase to corporations would be only 44 million dollars since part of the tax could be deducted from what is now paid in federal corporate profits taxes.

Republicans held out a one-mill boost in the corporation franchise fee as bait for Democratic support of a 49½-million-dollar package based on nuisance taxes.

AX PACKAGE

Democrats, joined by three or four Republicans, axed the whole package, although GOP leaders talked of a second passage try. Besides the franchise fee increase, worth 13 million dollars, it included a $2 tax on moving traffic violations (2½ million dollars), a penny boost in the five-cent per pack cigarette tax (nine millions), a 20 per cent levy on other tobacco products (four millions), doubling the $1.25 per barrel beer tax (seven millions) and an added four per cent excise tax on liquor (six millions).

Lawmakers also defeated moves to raise the beer tax to 1½ cents per bottle, nearly five times the present levy, and increase the corporation franchise fee by two mills for one year and refund half the take over the next two years.

It's too hard to begin a new airport from scratch nowadays, they said.

Saying he was "very pleased" to see Pontiac being considered as the site of a jet airfield, Willman predicted it would be "a fine thing for the entire area."

"But it's a long way off and there's a lot of work to do before it could become a reality," he added.

Meanwhile, both Willman and Hoskins agreed that there should be continued development at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

The two officials both noted that by next year, the airport will have been brought up to the point where its facilities equal those which Landrum & Brown said are needed in this area at that time.

"We have planned the present program for development on our own and are pleased to see that our thinking matches the recommendation," said Hoskins.

Three Arraigned in Gaming Raid

Demand Examination on Charges Growing From Mutuals Arrest

Three Pontiac men arrested in a Pontiac Police vice squad raid last Friday at General Motors Truck and Coach Plant No. 2 today demanded examination in Municipal Court on charges of violation of state gambling laws.

New orders for warrants prepared by the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office were signed this morning by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum. The judge had refused to sign orders for warrants against the three men issued last Monday.

The earlier warrants had charged the trio with conspiracy to violate state gambling laws and possession of gambling paraphernalia.

The three men were among 11 arrested in the police raid. Eight others were released last Saturday.

Arraigned today were Robert L. McNeary, 36, of 43 Raeburn St.; Claude Day, 32, of 180 Quick St.; and Otis J. Harris, 57, of 489 Harvey St.

McNeary and Day were ringleaders of two numbers rings operating in separate divisions of the plant, according to Lt. William Nesbitt, head of the vice squad.

McNeary and Harris are accused of possession of gambling paraphernalia, and Day of taking money for bets.

Judge McCallum set examination for the three men for next Wednesday. They are free under $100 bond each.

The 31-year-old Air Force captain stepped out of a balloon gondola at 74,700 feet over this southern New Mexico missile range and fell nearly 10 miles in space fall before his 'chute opened at 17,500 feet.

Nov. 16 he made a leap of 76,400 feet.

File Petition to Vacate 3 Parcels of City Property

BIRMINGHAM — A petition has been filed in Oakland County Circuit Court to vacate three parcels of city property.

★ ★ ★

Asked to be vacated or abandoned are portions of Park street, Island View drive, and a driveway north of Park street.

The petitioners asked that the property be vacated because neither the city nor anyone else has improved or maintained it.

Gare said the property is behind the Reid Building where its owner is constructing a parking lot.

He said vacating the property would be an asset to the building and would be made part of a special assessment against its owners.

Judge H. Russel Holland has set a hearing for Jan. 11 at 9 a.m.

Due to increased business at Baldwin Public Library a second automatic charge-out machine has been installed to supplement one bought last year.

★ ★ ★

Both machines not only speed up book borrowing but permit immediate return of borrowed books to library shelves.

Last month the library loaned 29,160 books.

A Christmas Carol Pageant will be presented Dec. 20 by the boys and girls of the Congregational Church of Birmingham at 4 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Examination of the trio has been set for 1:15 p.m. on Dec. 18 before Highland Township Justice Roy J. Carl. It was originally scheduled to be heard by West Bloomfield Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

Shigley said Judge Moore's courtroom in the courthouse has been reserved for the examination so that Newton will not have to be transported so far from the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Depending upon his condition next Friday, testimony from Newton might have to be taken at the hospital, Shigley figured.

Will Organize 'Citizens for Michigan' Committee

Oakland People to Meet Monday

Remedies for Michigan's ills will be the objective Monday night when men and women from all around Oakland County meet in Pontiac to organize a "Citizens for Michigan" committee here.

George Romney of Bloomfield Hills has given up a previous engagement in order to attend the rally. The American Motors Corp. president, and founder of CFM, will speak to the group.

INTEREST MOUNTS

A spokesman for his office said interest in the Pontiac meeting has been mounting. Some 500 may attend.

They will join other sprouting groups around the state which are seeking answers to the state's economic and governmental problems. The parent body was created by Romney in September as the Legislature was still politically bogged down trying to provide the same answers.

Romney has set a target date of next June for the final CFM recommendations to be handed both political parties. CFM is an independent, non-partisan group.

Efforts of the organization have been endorsed by both parties, however.

Monday's meeting will be in the auditorium of Pontiac Central High School, 250 W. Huron St. It will begin at 8 p.m.

Murray D. Van Wagoner, designated by Romney as chairman of the Oakland CFM committee, has named 13 men and women from this area to coordinate formation of local chapters.

Those attending Monday's organization meeting will meet in various classrooms of the high school for this purpose after first hearing Romney speak in the auditorium.

Named as regional chapter leaders were:

Louis H. Schimmel, of 509 W. Iroquois Rd.; Robert Browning, Royal Oak; Maurice Howland, Berkley; Mrs. Berrien Ketchum, Birmingham; Delos Hamlin, Farmington; Charles Delbridge Jr., Birmingham; Malcolm Lovell, Bloomfield Township; Mrs. Donelda Lessiter, Lake Orion; Mrs. Peter B. Loomis, Birmingham; Richard C. Van Dusen, Bingham Farms; Clyle R. Haskill, Drayton Plains; Melvin F. Lanphar, Leonard; and Fred Noyes, Rochester.

Essentially, the different chapters formed will meet on their own between now and next June hoping to solve these three major questions:

1. What services does the state need?

2. How are such services to be paid for?

3. What changes in the structure of state government are needed to give Michigan the type of government most responsive to present day problems and opportunities.

CFM across the state will be financed by contributions. To safeguard any individuals or groups gaining control of the organizations, no donations over $100 will be accepted, Romney said in a kickoff session in Birmingham Nov. 23. No contributions will be accepted, either, from organizations, other than foundations.

TO STATE OBJECTIVES

The state chairman is expected Monday to outline the objectives of "Citizens for Michigan."

Basically, they are to identify the state's numerous problems—which have come to a head during 1959 — on which there is practical unanimity. Recommendations then will be turned over to Republicans and Democrats alike.

"Our group shall not sponsor or endorse political candidates or attempt to influence members concerning their political, economic or social affiliations," Romney said.

Hits Road Unit Payroll Jump

State Senator Incensed Over Adding 307 New Bosses to Department

—GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding) said today the State Highway Department has added 307 "boss" type employes in a year.

He said the payroll increase amounted to $250,000, and that it was this sort of "waste" that is a main target of the Senate investigation he heads.

In Lansing, Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie conceded his administrative staff had increased — "substantially" in some divisions.

"In 1959, we are getting more new construction per employe than ever before in department history," Mackie added. He said a detailed breakdown of employment was being prepared at Stahlin's request.

In a talk prepared for a Republican luncheon, Stahlin accused Mackie and Gov. Williams of "crucifying" the late Charles M. Zeigler, Mackie's Republican predecessor, and said Mackie was trying the same tactics on him.

It's Time-Out for Barbara —Shopping

★ ★ ★

Hundreds of eager Indians jammed around the Indian handloom emporium, the city's best known shopping area, after word spread that the President's daughter-in-law was there.

Barbara, dressed in a gray checked suit and wearing a six-string pearl necklace, bought some Indian carpets and jewelry.

The remains of what is believed to have been King Solomon's copper mines have been found near the city of Elath in Israel.

Dedicated to Keeping His Country Independent

Nehru's Neutrality Cracks

NEW DELHI (UP) — Jawaharlal Nehru, India's most popular figure since Mohandas Gandhi, is a man dedicated to keeping his country neutral in a world sharply divided.

So far he has succeeded although one of the foundations of his foreign policy — good relations with Red China — is cracking around the edges.

As prime minister of the world's largest democracy since it achieved independence 12 years ago, the 70-year-old Nehru's stand has produced a controversy as to where his sympathies really lie.

PLAYS BOTH NATIONS

To the envy of nations which have joined one side or the other, India has managed to obtain economic assistance from both—nearly two billion dollars worth from the United States, about one-third that amount from Russia.

Nehru insists that "we are in no camp and no military alliance. The only camp we should like to be in is the camp of peace and goodwill."

He has demonstrated that he is first and foremost for anything that will help boost underdeveloped India, a country of 400 milion people.

Nehru may meet outside criticism, but enjoys tremendous popularity at home. Millions adore him and the Hindus worship him as a reincarnation of Vishnu, their protector.

Born in Allahabad Nov. 14, 1889, the only son of one of India's richest and most influential men, Nehru was educated in England at Harrow and Cambridge and studied law in London.

He returned to India in 1912, a suave intellectual with an eloquent command of the English language.

He soon was drawn into the independence movement. Turning his back on inherited position and wealth, he joined the All-India National Congress Party. He rose steadily through the ranks to president.

His activities against British rule cost him prison sentences totaling 14 years. But his leadership proved so effective that Gandhi—the creative force behind passive resistance — designated him his political heir.

PRIME MINISTER NEHRU

When the British withdrew and the Indian nation came into being, Nehru became the logical choice as its first prime minister.

To fight India's poverty, Nehru favors a mixed economy, with the state assuming management of key industries but leaving room for private enterprise.

"I do not at all prefer the state controlling everything because I attach a value to individual freedom," he says.

In India's relations with other countries, Nehru still clings to the principles of nonalignment and coexistence. "We shall hold on to them even if the whole world says 'no' to them," he declared.

'WILL NOT BOW'

But with Communist China now holding two pieces of border territory and claiming 40,000 square miles more that India regards as her own, Nehru has been forced to warn that "we will not bow to anyone who interferes with our national integrity but will face that threat with all our might."

Nehru recently won a resounding vote of confidence from the Indian parliament for his handling of the border dispute, primarily because of his blunt words to Communist China. The change in attitude was dramatic for a man who had long dealt kindly with the Peiping regime.

"I doubt if there is any country in the world today," he declared, "that cares less for peace than China."

During his talks with President Eisenhower, Nehru probably will discuss the border crisis.

Says Rocky Might Take Second Place

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—The national chairman of the Republican Party has offered the possibility of a 1960 ticket of Richard Nixon for president and Nelson Rockefeller for fice president.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton told a news conference Wednesday that Vice President Nixon "is far ahead" among party workers in building up support for the nomination and "if Mr. Nixon gets it, we might prevail upon Mr. Rockefeller" to bid for the vice president slot.

The Kentucky senator said he based his statement about Nixon leading on a recent tour of 37 states. Among party workers, he said, "I find that Nixon is substantially ahead as of today."

He said he felt the nomination would take two ballots "at the most" at the Chicago convention unless "we get some favorite son strength."

Bonn Okays Purchase of Missiles, U.S. Jets

BONN, Germany (UPI) — The West German Parliamentary Defense Committee has approved the purchase of an undisclosed number of guided missiles capable of carrying atomic warheads at a cost of $114,290,000.

The type of missiles and where they will be bought would not be disclosed because of security reasons.

The committee also approved the purchase of an additional 364 U.S.-made Starfighter jets for $595,000,000.

Detroit Man Renamed to State Health Council

LANSING (UPI) — Dr. Perry P. Burnstine, Detroit, has been renamed to the State Council of Health.

The appointment, made by Gov. G. Mennen Williams, is for a term ending June 30, 1965 and requires Senate confirmation.

Open After Christmas

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—A downtown tie shop has a new display to attract Christmas buyers—a hangman's noose with a sign advertising "almost everything in neckwear."

Tommy Talks, Yells—They're Happy About It

BEACH GROVE, Ind. (UPI)—Tommy Thompson talked and yelled and shouted all through his sixth grade class today and no one could get enough of it.

★ ★ ★

"It's Christmas," Tommy's mother Vivian said.

Five months ago, doctors said Tommy would never speak again. Shrapnel from an exploding grenade had pierced his voice box.

Today, for the first time, Tommy, 11, was back in school. Once again he could talk. His voice was normal, though a few octaves lower.

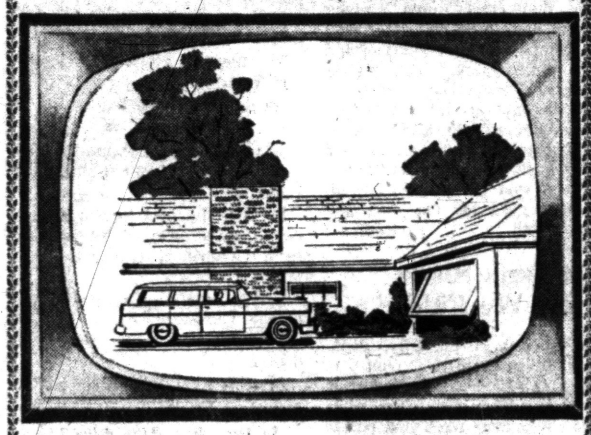

"Tommy's grown up, that's all," Mrs. Thompson said. "He's just grown up. In so many ways."

Tommy's recovery was the product of five months of surgery. It all started in July, when Tommy and six boy friends were playing with a discarded grenade.

★ ★ ★

Spain to Greet Ike With Vigor

But Franco's Enemies Sorry to See Him Get U. S. Acceptance

MADRID (UPI) — Leaders of Spain's opposition groups said today they hoped the world would interpret President Eisenhower's visit as a gesture toward the Spanish people and not as further recognition of the Franco regime.

★ ★ ★

They described their personal reaction of Eisenhower's visit to Generalissimo Francisco Franco as "very negative."

"As Spaniards, we are honored," a top leader of the monarchist "Union Espanola" said. "But we are sorry that the regime may be able to claim the visit as recognition of its rights."

One of the nation's best-known Socialist leaders added, "We hope that any public gestures or speeches by the President will be directed towards the people and not the government.

Even the opposition hoped the President's flying visit will go smoothly. They predict there will be no attempts at demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

"We have no desire to do anything that might be interpreted as showing hostility to the President," according to one of the nation's most outspoken critics of the Franco regime, Socialist spokesman Dionisio Ridruejo.

★ ★ ★

The President is due to arrive here Dec. 21 and will leave the following morning. During the brief stopover he will spend about six hours with Franco.

Invitation to K Assisted GOP, Russians Say

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet periodical today said President Eisenhower boosted Republican chances in the 1960 election by inviting Premier Nikita Khrushchev to America.

As for the Democrats, the paper said "They are still only making speeches—and not always the speeches that America expects from them."

Income Tax Reform May Be in Store for Us

New income tax studies are now in progress with interviewing of some 170 witnesses by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The hearings are the first phase of a broad investigation of the individual and corporate income tax structure by the tax-writing committee. The aim is billed as the first overall revision of the income tax system since the 16th Amendment was adopted in 1913.

In advance of the hearings some 180 statements had been submitted to the committee by income tax analysts. These included university professors, tax lawyers, management and union economists, and accountants.

★ ★ ★

The experts all express general agreement that revision of individual and corporate income tax system is long overdue; they differ understandably on how to go about it.

Rep. WILBUR D. MILLS (D-Ark), chairman of the committee, states flatly: "The key to the income tax reform is broadening of the tax base."

We agree that changes are long overdue and would like to think that some relief might be in prospect. Yet we are well aware that this complicated problem of tax reform must come up at an appropriate time.

★ ★ ★

In any event, it's certain that Congress isn't going to do any large scale tax rewriting in this coming election year. A long study is in the making—Chairman MILLS himself talks of possible changes in the law in 1961 or 1962.

Threat to Oust Yankees Grows Louder in Cuba

FIDEL CASTRO'S Cuban government continues to be one of the worst blotches on the whole Caribbean area. Currently he wants to close our Navy's base at Guantanamo Bay. His threat to oust the Yankees is growing louder each day.

★ ★ ★

This naval base located at the tip of Cuba is one of our oldest and busiest overseas bases. It is used by nearly all the ships of the Atlantic Fleet at one time or another.

★ ★ ★

Since this base is practically as close to the Panama Canal as it is to Havana, the Cuban capital, it is easy to understand its importance to the U.S. in the event of war. It is ideally situated to guard easily the narrow sea-lane approaches to the Canal.

Our position is that seizure of the base would lead to a diplomatic break between the two countries.

It seems as if American tourists might make a break right now and show Mr. Castro what we think of his dictatorship. Cuba should be blacklisted in no uncertain terms by this winter's vacationers.

With all the recreational facilities there, the Cuban government needs the Yankee dollars. By staying away in droves we can show this hot-headed Cuban that we wholeheartedly disapprove of his policies.

Force Parents to Pay for Child's Vandalism

Every once in a while suggestions come to our attention that seem to merit some consideration. A recent one from a Detroit Citizens' Committee to Combat Crime is an ordinance holding parents responsible for vandalism by their children.

★ ★ ★

This sounds like a reasonable ordinance and it seems only fair that parents pay for what might be considered lack of parental supervision. The public should not be required to foot the bills for damages caused by unruly youngsters.

★ ★ ★

Most recommendations for cleaning up teen-age problems call for expensive, long range rehabilitation programs. More recreation and employment of additional case workers are all right, but that isn't getting to the root of a particular case.

★ ★ ★

The Man About Town

First Subdivisions in This Area Provided for Big Lots

The last issue of Planning Quarterly, publication of the Oakland County Planning Commission, of which is director, shows that early subdivisions in Pontiac and vicinity were wisely planned.

They did not crowd houses so closely together that living was quite difficult, as has been the case in Detroit and some other cities. This plan has been generally followed in this vicinity.

It is interesting to note that one of the first subdivisions in Oakland County was over 20 miles from Pontiac, at New Hudson. It was filed in 1837.

This plat provided for the only six point highway intersection in our county, the crossing of Pontiac Trail with Grand River and Milford Roads.

After 122 years that formation still exists. The lots are large and livable, mostly 66x160 feet in size, with a few smaller ones at the main corner, for business purposes. The Quarterly calls the plan "a masterpiece of originality."

Rochester and Auburn were the first subdivisions outside of Pontiac, with Stoney Creek following soon after. Large lots generally prevailed.

The Quarterly has a very appropriate name for the long and narrow lots on some of the later plats, some of which are less than 30 feet wide and run over 1,300 feet in length—they are called "rifle ranges." The extra large lots are called "gridirons."

David Lawrence Says:

U.S. Can Be Proud of Eisenhower

WASHINGTON — Who could better have represented the United States on a goodwill trip to Asia than Dwight Eisenhower!

LAWRENCE

The man who commanded, in behalf of western Democracy, the biggest armed force in history in a triumphant war against autocracy is known today as a man of peace.

He is dedicated to a cause that grips the hearts of men and women throughout the world — the cause of peaceful settlement of disputes lest nuclear war decimate mankind.

The unprecedented cheers and applause given to Mr. Eisenhower are a tribute to American motives and ideals. His magnetic personality is known, of course, to the officials and diplomats of governmental circles everywhere but hardly to the millions who give vent to spontaneous demonstrations of approval as they crowd around his car in country after country.

So, while it is a personal achievement for Mr. Eisenhower, it is at the same time an even greater achievement for the United States of America. It is proof that the Eisenhower doctrines of peace and good will have been widely publicized.

For many months now the stories have been current that Americans abroad are disliked, that America itself fosters materialism and is not the idealistic country it claims to be.

Much of this is propaganda promoted by the Communists, but not a little of it has been poured into the American press by those politicians who seem to think political capital can be made by disparaging what a Republican administration has tried to do abroad.

Calls have been repeatedly made for "bold and imaginative ideas" or "polices that will look forward" as if the existing administration has not been face to face with the realities of world problems ever since it took office.

BOLD IDEA

There cannot have been a bolder or more imaginative idea than President Eisenhower's decision to go to eleven countries in Europe, Asia and Africa, subjecting himself to the strains and hazards of an overseas journey covering 22,000 miles in less than three weeks.

Mr. Eisenhower has the good fortune today not to be burdened by any mission that calls for concrete settlement of any dispute between nations, though he has had ample opportunity to become entangled in the relations between India and Pakistan and between India and Red China.

Mr. Eisenhower's decision to devote the remaining months of his administration to personal diplomacy is born of a firsthand knowledge of the destructiveness of a so-called "conventional" war as well as a familiarity with the potential power of nuclear weapons.

The President has benefited by the fact that he did receive Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the United States last September and promised to go to the Soviet Union next spring.

Under the circumstances, the Communist propagandists, who under other circumstances would have stirred up hostile demonstrations with their "Yankee-Go-Home" signs, have outwardly at least been conforming to the spirit of the occasion as their party followers perfunctorily joined in the applause.

The psychological effects of the Eisenhower trip are incalculable. Americans can well be proud that a man of Dwight Eisenhower's winning personality happens to be President of the United States.

His all-important quest for the solidarity of peoples is aptly epitomized in the phrase he repeats day after day: "Peace and Friendship — in Freedom."

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

I become afraid of all my suffering, for I know thou wilt not hold me innocent. — Job 9:28.

★ ★ ★

God is on the side of virtue; for whoever dreads punishment suffers it, and whoever deserves it, dreads it. — Charles Colton.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Calcium Is So Helpful for So Many Ailments

"For some time now I have been taking calcium wafers for leg ache. Is it all right to continue taking the wafers indefinitely? I have heard that too much calcium . . . But one or two give so much relief to the leg ache . . . (P.C.)"

DR. BRADY

In the first place, if a growing child or an adult should take every day in the year all the calcium I recommend in any circumstance, he or she would get no more calcium than nutrition authorities designate as the minimum daily requirement to maintain health and prevent manifestations of nutritional deficiency.

Millions of Americans, children, youth and adults, suffer needlessly from leg ache (commonly called growing pains); painful nocturnal cramps in legs, sometimes in arms and sometimes, I am more and more inclined to suspect, in the heart — such attacks being mistaken for angina pectoris; insidiously developing chronic joint disability; spurious sinusitis; spasmodic asthma; hay fever; hyperesthetic rhinitis; chronic eczema; recurring hives; giant hives; allergy; so-called "nervous" or neuralgic headaches; migraine (periodic sick headaches); and, perhaps most important of all, that characteristic American irritability which makes many Americans use aspirin, tranquilizers, alcohol and other narcotics in the vain attempt to compete with normal people.

Smart alecks — even the few who are not alcohol or drug addicts — will probably dismiss my teaching about calcium deficiency as a nutty notion not worthy of serious consideration. However, I beg to refer readers who are still capable of learning to any authoritative 20th century textbook of physiology, which will mention that one of the functions of calcium is regulation of nerve fibers nerve centers.

Of course, children, if your daily intake of calcium falls below standard your whisy-washy nerve fibers and nerve centers will be unduly restless and excitable and you'll crave dope of one kind or another to try to convince yourself and others that you are doing well.

In view of our newer knowledge of the importance of calcium in nutrition and the function of calcium in physiology, I believe it would be a boon to health and happiness if everyone who indulges even occassionally in cocktail, highball, aspirin, pain-killer, tranquilizer, hypnotic or nerve sedative would make it a rule to take along with the dope 4 or 5 grains of calcium in one form or another.

Milk is the best source of calcium and the rule of not less than 1½ pints (three glasses) of milk daily for every child is based on scientific evidence obtained by extensive studies made upon the children themselves.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'No One Could Be More Genuine Than Eisenhower'

I don't think there's another man who could be more real and genuine than our President Ike. To me he practices what he preaches. Most of our people just won't practice what they preach and that's what makes chaos and apathy which lead to failure. Ike spells a real Christian and a soldier of country and Christ.

'People Complain but Do Nothing'

I've been reading about the name change for Waterford High School and I can sympathize with them. We lived in a district once where the school board voted to change the name and even had it cut in the plate over the door.

★ ★ ★

An indignation meeting was called and almost the whole district was there and voted it down. They had to buy a bronze plate to put over the other one.

★ ★ ★

Is this America or not? A few people take it upon themselves to do as they like. Our supervisors moved the Courthouse without a vote of the people. By what right do they take things over the taxpayers' heads? A lot of people are indignant but we sit back like the Russians and let a few run it.

'Waiting Period Would Solve It'

One thing that would prevent some of these girls from marrying two tramps in a few years would be a waiting period for engaged couples. Khrushchev is probably laughing at the move in this country to have a 35-hour week so production will be cut down even more, while he has a 48-hour week and people do not have any featherbedding, either, but they all work normally. How long will it be before we catch on and do good for the old U.S. instead of making it easier all the time for the Communists?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Happy Home Is Best Gift of All

Wives, one of the best gifts you can ever offer your children is a happy home where Daddy is crazy about Mother and devoted to the youngsters. It far exceeds any birthday or Christmas present you can buy them. So scrapbook this case and use the booklet below to safeguard your marital happiness and that of your children.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE D—423: Laura B., aged 29, is the attractive wife mentioned yesterday whose husband was almost berserk with jealousy.

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

"But I will admit that I was never greatly interested in the physical aspects of marriage.

"I like people and enjoy dancing, as well as other social affairs. And I love my husband. But I am definitely not the passionate type of wife, so maybe I have unintentionally offended him.

"On many occasions, he has irritably accused me of not being in love with him because I did not reciprocate his ardor properly.

"He seems to think I should be just as eager for physical affection and just as erotic as he is.

★ ★ ★

"But Dr. Crane, I just am not as hungry as he. Am I abnormal?"

FRIGID WOMEN

No, Laura is simply a normal wife who has expressed herself plainly on the subject.

Most wives are twins for Laura, though they may not verbalize their attitude as clearly.

"But, Dr. Crane," somebody may protest, "I have heard of women who were such sex gluttons they required numerous affairs. So aren't they as passionate as men?"

No; in over 30 years of intensive counseling on this subject of marital maladjustment, I have Never encountered a woman who was passionate.

Oh, I have had hundreds of nymphomaniacs and supposedly sex-mad females, but they Always turned out to be women afflicted with a deep inferiority complex in the erotic realm.

They were sterile or menopausal women or badly burned or scarred or with amputated breasts or some other feeling of social and sexual inadequacy.

"Dr. Crane, I feel like I am not 'all there' as a woman," is their usual self-diagnosis.

★ ★ ★

"So I sort of test my charms by flirting just to see if I can really interest men."

Their sex interest is thus a cosmetic yen to have their wounded feminine ego restored. So they employ affairs, much as powder puffs and rouge, to enhance their feminine ego.

Remove the basic cause of such a woman's sense of inferiority, and she will the lose her excessive interest in sexual affairs, which doubly proves the fact that even the sex-mad hymphomaniacs are frigid, too.

BOUDOIR ACTRESS

A successful modern wife must become a boudoir actress and feign delight in physical affection for the sake of her husband's ego.

★ ★ ★

Remember, a man doesn't insist that his wife match him, bite for bite, at the dinner table. She may be indifferent to a second piece of pie though he demands two or even three encores.

But in erotic matters, men easily become affronted if their mates don't at least feign as much interest in erotic indulgence as they do.

Wives, get wise to male psychology and keep your husband devoted to you through your Golden Wedding Anniversary.

It is simple and much more satisfying both to the children and yourself, than to suffer divorce.

Are Promised Jobs

Koreans Quit Japan, Prefer North Korea

TOKYO (AP)—Koreans from all over Japan, some weeping, others carrying ashes of loved ones, began Thursday the first leg of an unprecedented mass migration to the Communist northern half of their homeland.

★ ★ ★

There was only one incident. Six men from the South Korean Residents Assn. attempted a sitdown on railroad tracks in Tokyo just prior to departure of the repatriation train from Shinagawa station. They were arrested and removed.

The departure started a voluntary repatriation program for thousands of Koreans in Japan—the biggest movement from a non-Communist to a Communist nation since the end of World War II.

The first group, approximately 800, boarded trains at seven places in Japan. They will be followed by 200 more today. On Dec. 14 they sail aboard two Soviet vessels from Niigata, in North Central Japan, for the North Korean port of Chongjin. Many of these were born in Japan and never have seen Korea.

★ ★ ★

Heavy police cordons were thrown around each point of departure in anticipation of trouble by South Korean agents. President Syngman Rhee of South Korea has denounced the repatriation and said he would resist it by every means possible.

POLICE WATCH

The International Red Cross, which is supervising the movement, placed officials aboard each train. Thousands of police stood watch.

The Koreans, who come from depressed areas of Japan, have been promised jobs, good housing and adequate food by North Korea.

Of 600,000 Koreans in Japan, 5,000 have declared they want to go to North Korea. The North Korean Residents Assn. says eventually up to 137,000 will go, a figure disputed in many quarters.

South Korea has offered and is taking repatriates on an individual basis but to date has declined to accept any mass return unless Japan pays compensation to ease adjustment to a new life in Korea.

★ ★ ★

The Koreans were originally brought to Japan prior to and during World War II when Korea was under Japanese control.

Norway to Construct NATO Ammo Depot

OSLO, Norway (UP) — Parliament approved Thursday a program for building oil and ammunition depots for use by the Norwegian, Danish, British and West German navies. Only five Socialists and a Communist voted against the program, to be financed by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Defense Minister Nils Handal said the depots will be under Norwegian control, will be used only in case of war, and will not store atomic warheads.

Who's Cool Santa? Man, That's Elvis

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — Well, dig me Santa, and give me the beat, Elvis is rockin' up your street.

Jeep driver Elvis Presley, that is.

Officials of the Steinmuehle Orphanage near Kassel announced today that Presley had agreed to play Santa Claus for 115 orphans at a Christmas party given by soldiers of the U.S. Army's Third Armored Division.

Orphanage Director Hermann Schaub, announcing Elvis had okayed the role, said, "I don't know much about rock and roll but I do know this Presley is a fine person."

Pulling Poultry, Fed on Hormone, Off Sales Shelves

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government, using a don't-get-excited approach, has announced a ban on sales of poultry fattened with a hormone called diethylstilbestol, or stilbestrol.

★ ★ ★

Its use in fattening poultry is being discontinued, and birds already grown with its use are being voluntarily taken off the market, it was announced.

But with last month's cranberry scare still echoing, officials gave these added assurances to housewives about stilbestrol - treated poultry:

★ ★ ★

If you have a chicken in the refrigerator, feel safe to use it if the skin, liver and kidneys are discarded. No residue of the synthetic hormone has been found in the white or dark meat.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming told a news conference Thursday of the voluntary program.

★ ★ ★

He said authorized manufacturers of stilbestrol for use in poultry have agreed to suspend its sale immediately. The poultry and retail food industries have been asked to arrange for an immediate halt to the sale of stilbestrol-treated birds.

Flemming said he had talked with retail food and poultry representatives and was confident they would suspend such sales.

★ ★ ★

The hormone has been used in only about 1 per cent of the poultry grown in the United States—mostly in birds sold in the New York City and Los Angeles markets.

Flemming said stilbestrol induces cancer in test animals when it is fed to them over comparatively long periods of time.

Only minute residues of the hormone have been found in the skins, livers and kidneys of market poultry, he added.

The hormone was cleared by the Food and Drug Administration 12 years ago and has been used to fatten beef as well as poultry. But Flemming said no residues of stilbestrol have been found in beef, mutton or lamb and that the chemical is not used in hogs.

Former Queen Soraya to Wed Roman Prince

ROME (UPI) — Former Queen Soraya of Iran will be converted to Roman Catholicism and marry Roman Prince Raimondo Orsini, usually well-informed sources said today.

★ ★ ★

An announcement of the engagement of the 28-year-old couple will be made at a gala party in Rome for 400 persons on Dec. 16, the sources said.

★ ★ ★

The engagement announcement will come only five days before the Shah of Iran, who divorced Soraya last year, marries 21-year-old Farah Diba at Tehran and makes her his new express.

Identical Bids Bring Federal Investigation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Complaints from states and municipalities have sparked a federal investigation of the sale and manufacture of rock salt used to thaw ice on highways.

The Justice Department's anti-trust division has ordered a grand jury investigation of reports that a large number of government agencies are receiving identical bids for contracts.

The panel will be asked to determine whether the bids were rigged to restrain competition.

The Justice Department has received more than 15 complaints from cities and state highway departments in the East, Northeast and Midwest.

Attorney Okays Hypnosis to Get Truth in Court

CHICAGO (UPI)—State's attorney Benjamin Adamowski says it's all right by him if his aides use hypnosis to solve crimes.

Adamowski okayed the use of hypnosis yesterday after his chief investigator, Paul D. Newey, testified in court he hypnotized a teen-age girl before she identified a former mental patient as her kidnaper.

Newey himself said he would use hypnisis Wednesday after his chief "but discreetly."

"The use of hypnosis in my opinion is no different from the use of a lie detector," Adamowski said. "It is up to Newey and his staff to use any means such as this to detect crime."

British Steel Production Hits All-Time Record

LONDON (UPI)—Britain's steel production hit an all-time high in November with an average of 458,600 tons a week, the Iron and Steel Board announced today.

The report showed British steel mills were working at 95 per cent of capacity.

Joins Kennedy Staff

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard N. Goodwin, an investigator for the House subcommittee which exposed rigged TV shows, has joined the staff of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass).

Goodwin said the change of jobs had nothing to do with his sale of an article to a magazine on the TV investigation.

Goodwin said he had changed jobs last Saturday. He said he will do research and possibly some speech writing for Kennedy.

Farm Federation Urges Cranberries for Yule

Iron Mountain Judges to Get Raise in Pay

IRON MOUNTAIN (UPI)—The municipal court judges here will soon get the first salary increase the post has been given since 1929. The City Council has approved a hike of $600 to bring the salary to $3,000 a year.

★ ★ ★

The increase was suggested by the Dickinson County Bar Assn. which said the current $2,400 annual pay was not in keeping with the duties of the position.

Industry Outlay Expected to Rise

Present Spending on New Equipment Is $34 Billion Yearly

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government expects industry spending on new plants and equipment to continue its slow rise early next year.

★ ★ ★

Present spending for such purposes—a major indicator of business trends—is estimated at about 34 billion dollars yearly. That figure is smaller than had been forecast earlier, indicating the steel strike and other factors have caused a cutback in some planned projects.

★ ★ ★

The Commerce Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission said Wednesday an industrial survey indicated the annual rate is expected to increase about 500 million dollars in the first quarter of 1960.

This year's outlays, estimated at 32½ billon dollars, are about 7 per cent above 1958.

German Subsidiary

MIDLAND (AP) — Dow Chemical International Limited S. A. Thursday announced formation of a new company, Deutsche Dow Chemie GMBH.

Dow said the wholly-owned German subsidiary would have its corporate headquarters in Dusseldorf. It said it will "provide German operators of oil and gas wells with acidizing, fracturing and cementing services.

Dow said the new firm's initial paid-in capital was five million Deutsche marks or 1¼ million dollars.

Asks Them for Understanding

U.S. Embassies Get Ike Plea

By MERRIMAN SMITH

NEW DELHI (UPI)—President Eisenhower is preaching the gospel of friendship and understanding inside American embassies on his 11-nation tour, besides dwelling on the same theme in public.

Eisenhower apparently feels U.S. employes abroad could make more of an effort to understand and appreciate local culture and customs.

He was particularly emphatic on this subject in talking to members of the embassy staff in Karachi, Pakistan earlier this week.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty has been following a similar theme in his relations with embassies along the route.

Hagerty has been insisting that each presidential procession also include representatives of the local press far up in the motorcade.

This may seem a routine gesture back in the United States but it represents an amazing departure to government officials and reporters in Asia.

In most instances local newsmen have been somewhat shocked and then mightily pleased to be accorded a high place in the presidential motorcade when they are not allowed to do anything remotely similar when moving around with their own chief executive.

With each new town the President's trip becomes more laborious for those in his party.

This is natural since he still is getting his eight hours of sleep a night. The people who work for him get up much earlier than he does; they go to bed much later at night.

The problems of existence become quite painful at times. The most frequent complaint is lack of sleep.

Hagerty asked mournfully the other morning in Ankara, Turkey, "I wonder how long a human being can go without any sleep at all?" Hagerty had a good point.

★ ★ ★

The night Eisenhower was in Turkey the communique on his conversations with President Celal Bayar was issued a few minutes before two a.m. It was three o'clock before Hagerty got to bed and he had to be up again by six a.m. to dress and get to the quarters where Ike was staying in time for departure ceremonies.

★ ★ ★

Most members of the Eisenhower travel party virtually collapsed the first night in Karachi because they were so weary from sleepless stops in Rome and Ankara.

As soon as the President turned in that night at the residence of Pakistan President Ayub Khan, the Ike staff raced to bed.

New System Helps Find Mouth Cancer

NEW YORK (AP) — A new smear test said to be highly effective in early detection of mouth cancer was explained to dentists Thursday.

The test was described at the 35th annual Greater New York Dental Meeting by Dr. Henry C. Sandler, chief of dental service at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Brooklyn.

He said the test had worked well at the hospital over a three-year trial period. Mouth cancer, which comprises five per cent of all cancers, kills two out of every three affected persons within five years after recognition.

Dr. Sandler said the new technique, known as exfoliative cytology, is simple, safe and painless and can be done by any family dentist.

★ ★ ★

It consists basically of taking a scraping or smear and subjecting it to microscopic examination. Sandler said the test is not a substitute for biopsy, examination of a piece of suspected tissue, but sometimes reveals the presence of cancer when a biopsy is negative.

Research at Cornell University indicates that teen-aged girls more often follow the advice of their mothers than their friends.

King Awards 7 Nobel Prizes

Gustav VI of Sweden Bestows Honors on Four Americans

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — King Gustav VI Thursday awarded Nobel Prizes to six men, including four American explorers of uncharted fields of science.

At the same time, a seventh man—British laborite Philip Noel-Baker — was receiving the 1959 Peace Prize at a ceremony in Oslo, Norway.

The prizes, $42,610 in each category, were awarded to:

Medicine: Dr. Severo Ochoa, of New York University, and Prof. Arthur Kornberg, of Stanford University, whose discovery of means of synthesizing nucleic acid shed new light on the basic chemistry of life. It is expected to be a major contribution to cancer research.

Physics: Profs. Emilio Segre and Owen Chamberlain, both of the University of California, for discovering the antiproton and advancing man's understanding of the structure of the universe.

Literature: Salvatore Quasimodo, an Italian poet hailed as one of "the generation of leftwing authors who could not win a hearing until after the fall of fascism."

Chemistry: Jaroslav Heyrovsky, the first Czech ever to win a Nobel Prize. Heyrovsky was honored for his 34-year-old discovery of the polarograph method of chemical analysis.

Girl Must Go to School and Attend Gym

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Circuit Court Wednesday upheld the Mobile County School Board in denying the petition of a minister to excuse his 15-year-old daughter from what he termed "immoral" gym classes.

Judge Robert T. Ervins Jr. ordered the board to readmit Euelene Mitchell to Vigor High School only if she attended required gym classes. Her father, the Rev. Lascoe Mitchell, said he objected to dancing, trampoline and "other activities which a girl cannot do clad in a skirt." She was suspended Nov. 12 for refusing to attend the classes.

Cuba Clamps Down on Currency Exports

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuba's revolutionary regime has clamped strict controls on exports of foreign currency, ruling among other things that investors living abroad may take no more than $200 a month out of the country.

The regulations published Wednesday night by the National Bank's stabilization fund provide also that persons desiring to travel abroad—including those on official business — must obtain special permission if they want to take more than $150 with them.

The new regulations put a ceiling of $150 a month on the amount that Cubans may send to students or other members of their families who live in other countries.

Of all the world's cars, 63 per cent are manufactured in the U. S. In order to inform the public of their latest developments, the automotive industry spent over $159 million last year in national newspaper advertising.

LET'S ARGUE — They are on the same Pontiac Central High School Varsity Debate Team, but these four competitors argue a point just for the sake of practice. The team is just one debate victory out of first place in the Saginaw Valley Tournament, following one point behind first place Flint Central. Central Debate Team Fights for First Place

By BARBARA GRIFFIN

After three-quarters of the conference debate season, the Pontiac Central varsity debate team is just one victory out of first place in the Saginaw Valley tourney.

The Pontiac Central debators have been in three debate tournaments and in 36 debates, winning 26 and losing 10.

Flint Central holds first place with 37 points, Pontiac Central is second with 35 points, Flint Northern has 30, Arthur Hill has 25, Bay City 12 and Saginaw 5.

Schools receive two points for a varsity win, and one point for wins by the second or third team.

Last Thursday at Saginaw, the third conference tournament was held with Pontiac winning nine and losing three. Pontiac's first team consists of Ken Freer, Clark Davis, Rodger Olsen and Doug Spurlock.

TEAM MEMBERS

Other debators are Carolyn Goines, Nadine Morris, Russell Read, Kay Cline, Nancy Bain, Harold Tate, Brian Wideman, Cynthia Williams, Elvin King, Darlene Wilkinson, Bill Graves, Andrea Tynan, and Judy Walverton.

The final conference debate tournament of the season in the Saginaw Valley will be held Jan. 14 at Flint Central.

★ ★ ★

Two boys have brought honor and recognition to themselves as well as to Pontiac Central recently.

Gary Relyea, a senior, tried out and was accepted by the Michigan Chorale, a high school choir of 68 students, sponsored by the University of Michigan. The chorale will be in Europe two months performing for audiences in England, Ireland and West Germany.

It is quite an honor to be accepted by the Chorale, as only 68 were chosen from 350 applicants on the basis of singing ability, personality and character.

RON MAPLEY PREXY

Ron Mapley was elected president of the Eastern Michigan District Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs at a Mount Clemens convention. A junior, Ron has been active in the Pontiac Central Hi-Y for two years.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac Central Bible Club has been very active this semester. Reorganized this year, the club of 40 members holds a meeting every Wednesday morning. At these meetings the members participate in testament reading and hymn-singing, and listen to speakers or vocal groups.

★ ★ ★

The purpose of this non-denominational, spiritual club is to have a time when members can meet together, have devotional periods, study the Bible and learn of other religions.

The officers of the Bible Club are Gene McLean, president; Ken Freer, vice president; Diane Williams, secretary; and Marilyn Vernon, treasurer.

Advised by David Siple, the club is presently planning a Christmas party with Bible Clubs from Avondale High School and Pontiac Northern.

The Pontiac Central Dolphins have announced the dates of their synchronized swimming show, with a Christmas card theme. The show will be given as an assembly during the day for seniors and two evening performances on Dec. 21 and 22, free of charge.

The show will be a brief Christmas gift to the public from Dolphins who in January will be giving up the pool for months of repair work.

Preparations are well under way for "Holiday in Modern," Waterford's Christmas dance. Sponsored by the senior class, the dance will feature the music of Irv LaDuc and his band.

Departing from the usual procedure, the dance will be held after Christmas on Dec. 26.

The annual fall Sports Award banquet held recently at Walled Lake was highlighted by a speech given by Don Canham, track and country coach at the University of Michigan.

He urged each student to pursue an education beyond high school to suit the ability of everyone.

The affair, which was a potluck dinner for football and cross country teams, their parents, coaches and friends, was also the occasion for the distribution of awards.

Tom Evans, the athetic director, served as master of ceremonies and introduced the speaker as well as the coaches who presented the awards.

VARSITY LETTERS

They were Dave Smith, head football coach, who handed out the varsity letters and certificates; Bernard Stafford, the jay-vee coach and Don L. Smith, cross country coach, who made all of the cross country presentations.

Two Chopin "Preludes" offered as a piano solo and a sextette provided additional interest to the program.

Dentist Paints Own Crosswalk; Costs Him $63.55

LOS ANGELES (AP) — For painting a white crosswalk in the street, Dr. Louis J. Friedman must pay $63.55.

That, the City Traffic Department says is what it costs to erase the lines.

The dentist told police he waited two years for the city to put in a crosswalk near his Sherman Oaks office. Finally he decided to do the job himself.

He still has a court appearance coming—to answer a charge of installing an unauthorized traffic device—the crosswalk.

'Does He Not Have Divine Smile?'

Claims Ike Is Hindu God

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—One Indian family considers President Eisenhower an incarnation of Vishnu, a benevolent god sharing worship in the Hindu trinity with Brahma, the creator, and Shiva, the destroyer.

1. Eisenhower, like Vishnu, has the might to destroy the world by a mere wish, but keeps it in check as a final defense against evil.

2. Like Vishnu he is a great benefactor—"Did he not send us wheat when we needed it and build us dams?"

★ ★ ★

Kanthi's daughter, Shanthu, added: "Does not this avatar (incarnation) also smile like Vishnu—a divine, radiant smile?"

"The emperor of America is like our own Emperor Asoka," said Radha Piyari, 50, "preaching the same message of love, peace, nonviolence and truth."

Asoka renounced war at the peak of his glory in the 3rd century B.C. and devoted the rest of his reign to the propagation of Buddhism.

It's an oil painting of Elihu Yale, the Boston-born patron of Yale University who served for a time in the late 1600s as governor of Fort St. George College in Madras, India. The painting is from the college museum.

Indian President Rajendra Prasad presented a number of gifts Thursday to President Eisenhower after they had tea together in the garden of the presidential palace.

Chief among the gifts was a magnificent carving of sandalwood, rosewood and mahogany featuring a horse-drawn carriage in ivory.

Predicts Nikita's Grandchildren Will Be 'Free'

NEW YORK (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. predicts that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's grandchildren will live in a free Soviet Union.

The U.S. ambassador to the United Nations thus reversed Khrushchev's recent boast that the grandchildren of Americans will one day live under communism.

Lodge, speaking Thursday before the annual convention of the Life Insurance Assn. of America, also maintained that the U.S. can outstrip the Soviet Union in any race—economic or otherwise.

Order Union Official: Probe Detroit Local

DETROIT (AP)—An official of the parent Union has been ordered to investigate Detroit Cement Masons Local 514.

The investigation has been ordered by Edward J. Leonard, general president of the Operative Plasterers' and Cement Masons' International Assn. of the United States and Canada.

Seven members of the local filed suit in U.S. District Court Nov. 13, contending Joseph Constantine, financial secretary, and James Massaroni, a nonmember, seized control of the local by terror and fraud.

Teamsters Union at 1.6 Million High

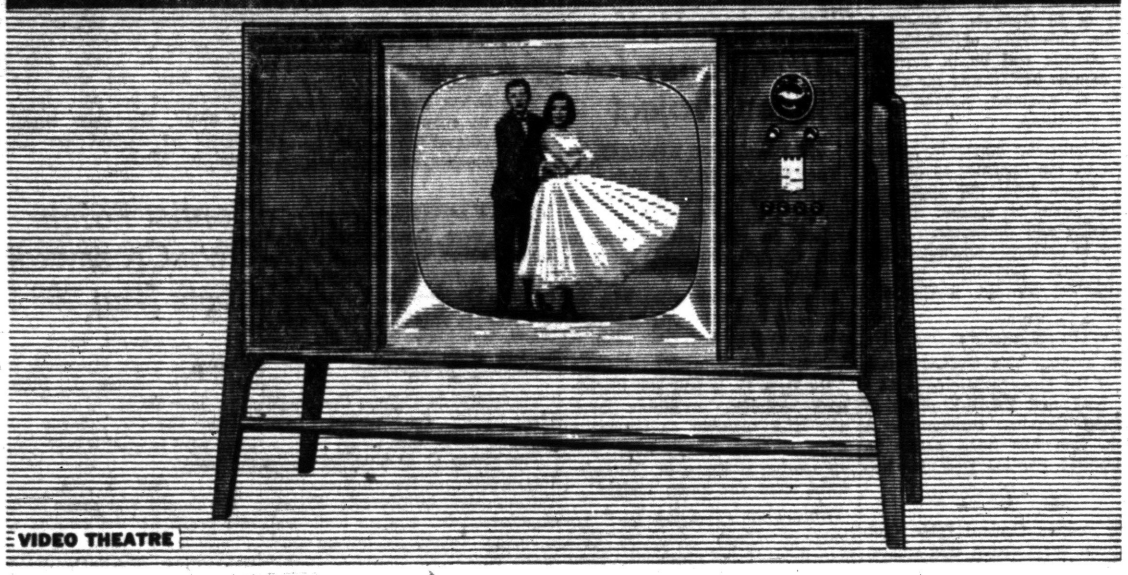

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa announced Wednesday that his union's membership reached an all-time high of 1,677,961 in November.

Pilot Blase to Weightlessness

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — America's space pilots are learning to live where nothing weighs anything.

The lessons will serve them when they someday make their expected historic flights aboard satellites orbiting the earth.

One of them, Capt. Donald K. Slayton, 35, of Sparta, Wis., says the sensation of weightlessness is nothing he hasn't experienced before during his 17 years of flying.

"A fighter pilot gets used to all kinds of conditions," Slayton says. "I can't see much difference, whether it's zero-G, minus-1 or plus-1."

They practice eating and drinking during the brief periods of zero-gravity—never more than a minute at a time.

Containers won't empty, water won't pour. So they use tubes, like tooth paste tubes, to squeeze the semisolid food and the water into their mouths.

"When you squeeze some water out in the air, it just hangs there in a glob—like a marble," Slayton said.

Slayton and Capt. Virgil I. Grissom, 33, of Mitchell, Ind., are taking the weightless training this week. Three of the seven hand-picked spacemen finished the phase last week and the two others are due next week for the sessions.

Humphrey Wants Opponents to Call Him a Do-Gooder

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—"I hope the opposition will brand me a do-gooder, a visionary and an idealist," Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) said in a speech Wednesday.

He made three speeches, conferred with Kansas Democratic leaders, and held a news conference in his search for support for the Democratic presidential nomination.

He called the Eisenhower administration "tired, timid and confused."

U.S. families spend an average of $19 a week for food. Last year retail grocery stores invested nearly $5.00 per family in newspaper advertising to help move their products from their shelves into the family larder.

Hollingsworth Named Manager at Mobile

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A former major league pitcher, Al Hollingsworth, was named Thursday as manager of the Mobile Bears for the 1960 Southern Assn. season.

Hollingsworth succeeds Mel McGaha, Mobile manager for two seasons who becomes manager of Toronto of the International League. The Bears won the pennant last season.

The new manager here piloted Reading, Pa., to fourth place in the Class A Eastern League last season. Toronto, Reading and Mobile are members of the Cleveland Indians farm system.

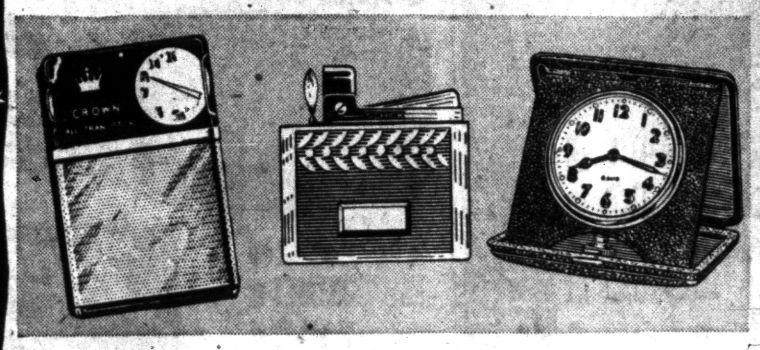

There is no "off-season" in newspaper reading. An analysis of daily newspaper circulation over a three year period shows no month varied more than 4 per cent from the peak month. The newspaper habit is constant throughout the year.

Romney Takes Idea to Traverse City

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Industrialist George Romney is scheduled to appear tonight at Traverse City Junior High School to open a statewide drive in behalf of Citizens for Michigan.

Romney is chairman of the group which is concerned with governmental and economic problems facing Michigan. The organization plans to recommend practical solutions that will command attention and approval of political parties and public officials.

The Traverse City meeting will draw attendance from a 10-county area. It aims to set in motion Citizens for Michigan organizational machinery in the region and form study groups for specific areas of coverage.

Oistrakh Touring U. S.

Russian Prefers Italian Violin

By W. G. ROGERS
AP Arts Editor

NEW YORK—Violins as well as violinists get through the Iron Curtain these days—and the Russian David Oistrakh is here to prove it.

★ ★ ★

To this distinguished musician, as to his American colleagues, there's only one violin, and it was made in Italy—the Stradivarius.

Oistrakh is rated way at the top in his field by leading American critics. He began a nationwide tour—his second—with concerts in New York and Washington.

The tour will last to mid-January and include 15 other cities.

DECEPTIVELY PLACID

Oistrakh, a stocky figure, is a genial and matter-of-fact talker and has a placid appearance—the deceptively placid appearance he makes on stage.

His hairline is drawing up and back, leaving an imposingly broad brow.

He plays three instruments by the 17th-18th Century Cremonia master, one owned by the Russian state and two by himself.

It is the Paris instrument he had with him this time, called the "Fountain" of "Fontana" from the Italian Princess Fontana whose property it once was.

Oistrakh has used the same German bow for 30 years, he said, speaking through an interpreter.

There are some 15 violins by Stradivari in Russia, he estimated, some owned by the state and some privately, some acquired recently and some brought in many decades ago.

Oistrakh brought with him two impressions of a large Russian poster, on which an American could identify two items: The figure "85" and the reproduction of a photo of the youthful Fritz Kreisler.

It was a notice of a concert given by 16 of Oistrakh's pupils in honor of the aging master; 84 last February, Kreisler is in his 85th year.

Oistrakh divides his time evenly between teaching and playing, and takes a month and a half off in the summer.

He has some 200 pupils, all talented artists who concertize on their own, he said, and some of them are from abroad—three play a Stradivari, too.

★ ★ ★

He has composed cadenzas for his own use, and if he had the time, would like to conduct.

Does he play the same programs here as at home? Yes.

Is there any difference between American and Russian audiences? No.

"They show the same attention, and usually the same warmth," he says.

The difference, he added with a smile, can be in the violinist; "He gets a warm response only when he plays with warmth himself."

He was accompanied by Mrs. Oistrakh, and by his accompanist, Vladimir Yampolsky, who has been with him more than 10 years.

Yampolsky speaks a little English; he "thought there was no excuse to be abroad and not learn the language," and he has picked up his knowledge by himself.

French Movie Idol, Henri Vidal, 40, Dies

PARIS (UPI) — French movie idol Henri Vidal, who once complained that he was too healthy, died Thursday of a heart attack at the age of 40.

Vidal was the husband of actress Michele Morgan. They met and married 10 years ago when she was playing a Roman noblewoman and he a gladiator in the Italian film "Fabiola."

Miss Morgan was far better known than Vidal at the time but after their marriage he succeeded in breaking successfully into comedy and dramatic parts. In earlier days he played muscleman parts because of his excellent physique.

"It wasn't easy," he said recently. "My trouble is that I'm brimming over with health and I look it."

He is the second French matinee idol to die recently. Gerard Philipe died of a heart attack Nov. 5 at the age of 37.

'Sleepy' Was Sleepy

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Thieves broke into the State Iron Metal Co., stole a quantity of copper and brass, and also took the firm's watchdog, "Sleepy."

The island of Barbados in the British West Indies produces 15,000 tons of sweet potatoes a year.

Yule Brighteners Can Poison

Careful With Decorations

Dr. Robert Mason, director of the Poison Control Center at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, today issued a warning to parents against indiscriminate use of certain items as Christmas decorations, moth balls chief among them.

★ ★ ★

"Moth balls placed in a solution of vinegar and sodium bicarbonate have been described as a delightful dancing Christmas decoration and pastime for children," said Mason.

"The decoration does sound intriguing and I'm sure kids would love it. But there is a real danger in the use of moth balls in this manner.

"The ingredients in moth balls are poisonous and should not be in the reach of children."

USE AS INTENDED

The hospital official said the National Clearing House for Poison Control Centers in Washington, D.C., warns against using moth balls for any other than their intended use.

Other Christmas decorations cited by Mason which require special attention when small children are in the home include bubbling Christmas tree lights, fireplace colors, electric train accessories which produce smoke, holly berries, mistletoe and "snow" sprays.

"Parents should guard against permitting children to play with bubbling Christmas tree lights," said Mason.

"The inhalation or ingestion of the bubbling fluid contained in the lights is poisonous.

"Fireplace colors which are thrown into a blazing fire to produce colored flames are also toxic when ingested.

"Electric train accessories which produce smoke should also be avoided with small children if the substance producing the smoke contains kerosene.

KEEP OUT OF REACH

"Holly berries and mistletoe should be kept out of reach of small children who might eat them. Both are toxic when ingested.

"Snow sprays have been reported to cause nausea and vomiting during spraying. This is caused by the propellant substances contained in the spray.

"Once the mixture is sprayed on an object the dry 'snow' particles are harmless.

"If any of these items are even suspected to have been inhaled or swallowed by children, call St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's Poison Control Center at FE 4-3511, Ext. 103, at once."

Red Foley Indicted on 2 Tax Evasions

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Clyde Julian (Red) Foley, 49-year-old radio and TV country music singer, was indicted on two counts of federal income tax evasion Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The federal indictments charge Foley, star of the Saturday night TV show "Jubilee, U.S.A.," filed false and fraudulent income tax returns for the years 1954 and 1955 and owes $28,498 to the government.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago the Internal Revenue Service filed a jeopardy assessment of $270,323, which it alleged was income taxes due, penalty and interest for the years 1948 to 1953. The government collected $214,435 from Foley's bank accounts. Foley filed a petition contesting the assessment.

That action, which is a civil case, is still pending.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Surviving a fierce storm on the ice sea, Oonik and Keotuk, his faithful dog, have finally reached Santa Land, where they hope to enlist Santa's help in getting the Ice King to end the terrible continuous winter.

"LAND SAKES!" cried Mrs. Santa Claus. "Who are you?"

Chapter 5

Oonik hurried over the hill and into the valley where he had seen smoke trailing into the sky.

Sure enough the smoke was coming from a little red chimney on top of a little red house.

"It's Santa's house! I know it is!" exclaimed Oonik joyfully and, with Keotuk at his heels, he rushed up to the porch.

There was no answer.

Bang, bang! he pounded.

Still no answer.

Oonik looked around. Now he saw another house nearly buried under the ice and snow. It was a long low building. Although it had a chimney, there was no smoke coming from it. Further away he saw a large red barn but still no sign of any living creature.

Keotuk sniffed at the door of the little red house. He whimpered. Puzzled, Oonik put his hand on the knob and opened the door.

TIPTOES IN

"Hello!" he called. "May I come in?"

There was no answer. Holding his breath, Oonik tiptoed in. He found himself in a room with four square walls not at all like the round snow walls he was used to at home.

There was a little fire burning in the fireplace. Two large empty chairs sat before the fire. There was a desk in the corner with papers and letters strewn over its top.

"Oh, my!" breathed Oonik gazing around admiringly.

In all his life he had never been in any house except an igloo or tent. He had never seen a fireplace or a chair or a desk! He felt that he had walked into a palace such as he had heard kings lived in in faraway places.

He was about to lower himself into one of the chairs when suddenly he heard a groan. He leaped up. The groan came again. It was from over his head! Astonished, he realized there was another room on top of the one he was in. He found some stairs and, trembling, he tiptoed up to the second floor.

He found himself in a bedroom and in the bedroom was a bed and in the bed there was someone. At least Oonik thought there was someone in the bed but it was hard to be sure because there were so many covers on it.

There were quilts and comforters and blankets and even an enormous polar bear rug on top of whoever was in the bed.

Oonik cleared his throat. "I beg your pardon," he said.

'WHO ARE YOU?'

"Land sakes!" she cried. "Who are you?"

"I am an Eskimo boy," said Oonik nervously. "I have come from across the sea to ask Santa to save me and my people from the Ice King's anger. You see, it is summer but still summer has not come."

"Oh, I know! Don't tell me!" said Mrs. Claus and she threw herself back into the covers with another groan.

"We too have been waiting all these months for summer which has not come. And now I have terrible rheumatism which I should only have in winter months.

"And the snow is so high and the ice so thick we cannot get wood for the fires so the fairies have no fire in the workshops and they are too cold to work. We ourselves are using the dining room chairs for firewood but even those won't last much longer.

"And the ice is so thick the reindeer have not been able to dig moss to eat and they are starving.

"Oh, don't tell me about the Ice King's anger. He's gone plumb off his head, I say, and—"

"Where is Santa Claus?" interrupted Oonik uneasily.

"In the barn, I expect, nursing the reindeer. Santa says unless something happens soon there's just not going to be any Christmas any more."

Oonik slipped from the room. He ran down the stairs and out of the house.

"Oh, Keotuk," he exclaimed to his dog waiting at the door. "It's much worse than I knew! Why, even Santa doesn't know what to do!"

Next: A Talk with Santa.

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Edward J. Brunette, manager of the Grand Rapids Convention Bureau, reported today that 90 state and national conventions have been confirmed for the city in 1960.

The bureau recently reported a seven million dollar-plus year in Grand Rapids from conventions in 1959 and said the new year should be equally as good.

Unspeakable, but His Spouse Has Last Word

If he saw them on the street, he ignored them.

He left his wife notes to tell her when he would be in for dinner. His wife, Olive, 51, told him he was ruining her nerves. Robinson received the complaint without comment.

★ ★ ★

Once he stayed in bed for a week without a "thank you" to Mrs. Robinson for bringing him his meals.

Finally, Mrs. Robinson started communicating with her husband by letter, too, only they were written by her lawyer.

★ ★ ★

The second started a suit for divorce.

Wednesday in the London divorce court, Mrs. Robinson was granted a decree, on grounds of cruelty.

How Serious Is It? Should Governments Act?

Population Debate Hinges on 3 Points

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you read at average speed, 18 children will be born in the world during the time it takes you to read this sentence.

Nine people have died during the same interval of time. So the world's poulation showed a net growth of nine.

Every 24 hours, the total grows by 135,000. Each year, it increases by about 50 million — the equivalent of adding an entire nation the size of France.

This is the "population explosion" that has plunged religious and political leaders into controversy over the need for global birth control measures.

The basic facts of population growth are not in dispute. In recent years, the introduction of modern health measures has caused a sharp drop in death rates, particularly in underdeveloped countries. But birth rates generally have remained at traditional high levels.

The result has been a dramatic acceleration in the rate at which the human race is multiplying. Before World War II, total population growth never exceeded 1 per cent a year. Today the growth rate is about 1.7 per cent world wide, and more than 3 per cent in some parts of Asia and Africa.

At this rate, the population of the earth will increase from the present 2,900,000,000 to about 4,000,000,000 by 1980, and to more than 6,000,000,000 by the end of the century.

★ ★ ★

If the facts are not in dispute, their implications are. An increasingly acrimonious debate, which already has involved President Eisenhower, Protestant and Catholic religious leaders and nearly all candidates for the 1960 presidential nominations, centers around three questions.

The first is: How serious is the problem of population pressure?

The Catholic bishops of the United States, in a formal statement last week, asserted that "pessimistic population predictors" have greatly exaggerated the danger. They expressed confidence that "the thus far hidden reservoirs of science and of the earth" can be tapped to provide adequately for a growing world population.

★ ★ ★

Some scientists support this view. For example, Professor Colin Clark of Oxford University believes that the earth's resources, if fully exploited, are sufficient to provide a comfortable diet for 28 billion people, or an "austerity diet" for up to 90 billion.

OMINOUS THREAT

On the other hand, many authorities agree with Robert C. Cook, president of the Population Reference Bureau, who says that present rates of population growth are "as ominous a threat to mankind as the H-bomb."

They say that runaway human fertility already is wiping out hard-won gains in food production in underdeveloped countries, and that mass starvation is a real possibility in the not-too-distant future.

The second question is: What, if anything, should governments do to curb population growth?

Japan's answer is a drastic national program of birth control, including legalized abortions and free sterilization clinics, which has cut the nation's birth rate in half since 1947.

No other country has gone quite so far. But India has been setting up clinics to dispense birth control information and devices. Similar programs are under consideration in other underdeveloped countries.

And that brings up the third question: Should the United States encourage such programs, by providing foreign aid funds to help carry them out, or by sponsoring research on new, cheap and reliable methods of birth control that are adaptable to mass use in underdeveloped countries?

Two recent foreign aid studies have hinted that this would be a good idea. One was the so-called Draper Committee report, submitted to President Eisenhower in September. It said that "government leaders in many less developed nations recognize that the only hope for their people" lies in bringing down their birth rates.

It recommended that the United States "assist those countries . . . in the formulation of their plans designed to deal with the problems of rapid population growth."

Committee Chairman William H. Draper Jr. denied that his group was proposing that the United States sponsor birth control programs abroad, but that was the interpretations generally placed on the report.

SUGGESTS STUDY

In October, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee made public a report, prepared by the Stanford Research Center, suggesting that the United States study the possibility of backing large-scale foreign tests of birth control devices.

The U. S. Catholic bishops clearly had these reports in mind when they charged last week that a "propaganda campaign" was afoot to obtain U.S. foreign aid funds to "promote artificial birth prevention programs."

They said American Catholics "will not support" any such use of public funds.

Protestant Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike of San Francisco asserted that the Catholic bishos' stand would "condemn rapidly increasing millions in less fortunate parts of the world to starvation, bondage, misery and despair."

Pike said many Protestants believe the United States has a clear moral duty to share birth control information with people of other countries who want to engage in "family planning by medically approved means."

The International Cooperation Administration has said that it has no plans whatever to provide any birth control information to countries as part of the foreign aid program. President Eisenhower said at a recent press conference that the U.S. government will have no truck with birth control as long as he is in the White House.

Unwary of Frauds? Yule Be Sorry

★ ★ ★

"Christmas season is one time of year when certain unscrupulous operators of mail order businesses trade on the good faith of Americans," Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said in a statement.

★ ★ ★

He cited dolls, advertised as the real thing, that turned out to be made of cardboard; and low-priced gimmicks, including Christmas tree ornaments, and various types of toys that he said have been fraudulently advertised in past years.

About two-thirds of the Japanese merchant fleet is less than 10 years old.

Union Builders' Wages Rise to $3.51 an Hour

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The average wages of unionized building trades workers in major cities rose by 16 cents to $3.51 an hour in the year ending last July 1, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reports.

★ ★ ★

The bureau said the advance was one cent more than that of the preceding 12 months and one of the largest increases since the end of World War II.

'Stroke Halting' Foods Assailed

Unsaturated Fats, Oils in Margarine, Other Victuals Useless—FDA

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) advised the public Thursday not to believe any claims that use of salad oils, shortenings or oleomargarine would prevent heart attacks or strokes.

FDA Commissioner George P. Larrick warned that the government considers any such health claims by sellers of such "unsaturated fats and oils" as violations of the federal misbranding laws.

It said food experts felt the only result of eating more of the products would be increased weight.

The agency said "addition of unsaturated fats and oils to the otherwise unchanged ordinary diet will not reduce blood cholesterol and prevent heart attacks and strokes."

"Representations to the public that salad oils, shortenings, oleomargarine and similar products have value for these purposes are false and misleading," the FDA announcement said.

Packard Pension Suit Settled Out of Court

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union said today its dispute with Studebaker-Packard Corp. over pension benefits for retired Packard workers has been settled out of court.

As a result, the Union said it will withdraw a suit filed in U.S. District Court here Nov. 17, 1958, to prevent the company from carrying out its plan of splitting the assets of a corporation-wide pension fund.

UAW regional director Ken Morris of Detroit said the settlement guarantees 1,900 Packard workers lifetime pensions amounting to 85 per cent of the benefits provided under a 1955 contract.

In addition, he said, it provides 350 former Packard workers who were in the 60-65 age group as of Sept. 1, 1958, cash settlements ranging from $490 to $1,980.

Studebaker Corp. and Packard Motor Car Co. merged in 1954.

Rehiring Approved

CORUNNA (AP) — The Shiawassee County Board of Supervisors voted 15-12 Wednesday night not to rehire Dr. A. B. Mitchell as Shiawassee-Livingston County Health District director for 1960. Similar action was taken previously by the Livingston County Board of Supervisors. The move was part of a plan by the two counties to separate their joint health district and set up their own health departments.

Bomb Youth, 19, Inexperienced

Lada Had Never Flown Plane Before His Recent Detroit Scare Deal

DETROIT (AP)—House painter Richard A. Lada has never flown an airplane. But the nine persons whose homes he said he threatened to bomb from the air didn't know that.

They called police and Thursday Lada, 19, pleaded guilty to a charge of attempted extortion.

Arrested by FBI agents when he went to a telephone booth to meet one of his victims, Lada said he picked the name of those he threatened from phone books Each received letters which began, "this is know (sic) joke."

Lada was placed on $1,000 bond by U.S. Dist. Judge Thomas P. Thornton. An attorney said he will seek a mental examination for the youth.

Episcopalians Okay Fund for Training

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—The National Council of the Episcopal Church ended its three-day quarterly meeting Wednesday by passing a $20,000 stewardship training program.

The council, an interim group which meets between the church's general conventions held every three years, met for the first time west of the Hudson River as an experiment to enlighten members on the church in action.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberg, presiding bishop from Greenwich, Conn., said he thought meetings away from Seabury House in Greenwich once a year would be continued.

"I'm sure some people got a better understanding of the council," he said.

In its concluding session, the council voted to appropriate $20,000 annually for a stewardship training program, which provides trained leaders to work with diocesan members in canvassing parish members.

Due to the continuing boom in the marriage rate, and the increased interest in home buying, refurnishing and modernization, manufacturers of household fixtures saw fit to up their national advertising expenditures in newspapers 117 per cent last year over 1957.

Hawaii Cries Brotherhood to the World

"The men and women of that new state have their ancestral homes in Asia and Africa and Europe and the two Americas and the islands of the earth," he told the Indian Parliament.

"Those people are of every creed and color yet they live together in neighborly friendliness and mutual trust, and each can achieve his own good by helping achieve the good of all. Hawaii cries insistently to a divided world that all our differences of race and origin are less than the grand and indestructible unity of our common brotherhood.

Thor Is Operational in Great Britain

LONDON (AP) — The American Thor missile, capable of delivering H-bombs 1,500 miles, has been declared operational in Britain. Four squadrons of 15 missiles each are deployed on the east coast of England. Part of the force is to be kept on a 15-minute alert.

The Thor, an intermediate range ballistic missile, has been in Britain since August 1958. Its range would enable it to cover western Russia from Britain.

The missiles here are manned by Royal Air Force crews but their warheads remain in control of the United States. American officers are stationed with RAF crews, which received training in the United States. Britain is developing its own "blue streak" missile which may be a successor to the Thor within one or two years.

AMA Defends the Cigarette

Editorial Assails Link of Smoking as Major Lung Cancer Factor

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Medical Assn. Journal says there is insufficient evidence "to warrant the assumption" that cigarette smoking is the major factor in the increase in lung cancer.

A Journal editorial Thursday questioned conclusions in a report by Dr. Leroy E. Burney, surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, carried in the Journal two weeks ago.

Dr. Burney's report listed smoking as the main factor in the increase of lung cancer and concluded that heavy smokers were more prone to the disease.

"A number of authorities who have examined the same evidence cited by Dr. Burney do not agree with his conclusions. Although the studies reveal a relationship between cigarette smoking and cancer that seems more than coincidental, they do not explain why, even when smoking patterns are the same, case rates are higher among men than among women and among urban than among rural populations," the editorial said.

"Neither the proponents nor the opponents of the smoking theory have sufficient evidence to warrant the assumption of an all-or-none authoritative position.

Tickets to Be Scarce for GOP Convention

Planners reported Thursday night that only 2,800 tickets will be available to the general public.

That compares with 3,454 in 1956, when the GOP met in Cow Place in San Francisco; and 3,000 in 1952 when the Republicans met in Chicago's International Amphitheatre for the first time.

Jaren L. Jones, of Utah, vice chairman of the convention arrangements committee, told newsmen only 2,800 tickets will be left for distribution to the 50 states after the party takes care of delegates, officials and VIPs.

One reason for the reduction is that the amphitheatre, the site of the 1960 nominating rally, has 3,000 fewer seats than the Cow Palace. The amphitheatre can seat about 12,000. Another reason is a prospective increase in the number of delegates.

4,000 Lights Glowing on Plaza's Yule Tree

About 5,000 persons watched Thursday night as more than 4,000 red, white and green globes on the 70-foot Norwegian spruce flashed on.

Symington to Africa on 'Educational' Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) leaves today for an "educational" trip to Africa and Israel but two other Democratic presidential aspirants have just about abandoned pre-1960 foreign travel plans.

Spokesmen for Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) indicated it was highly unlikely these unannounced presidential candidates would be able to fulfill plans to visit Africa and the Far East, respectively.

But Humphrey, it was stated, still hopes to fly to Geneva for a few days near the end of the month to participate in the nuclear test ban negotiations there. He is chairman of the Senate Disarmament Committee.

School Libraries Plan to Check Rocket Books

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The public school libraries have removed from circulation all books about handling rockets, rocket fuel and missiles until screened by science teachers.

School officials said: "Inasmuch as the handling of propellants and the firing of rockets requires a very specialized knowledge and training, we must be extremely careful in our choice of books on rocketry and missiles."

Jobs Take Drop in November

U.S. Report Due Today; Steel Strike Cause of Much Unemployment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment dropped by over a million in November. Unemployment rose by over a half million.

That was the advance word on what a government job report due today will show about the November job situation.

The November survey was taken only a few days after the half million steel strikers went back to work under an 80-day court injunction. Much of the unemployment caused by the strike still was going on.

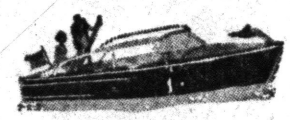

Employment in October was recorded at 66,831,000 and unemployment at 3,272,000. In November the employment total reportedly sagged to about 65,600,000 while the jobless total rose to about 3,700,000.

Car Firms' Gasoline Mileage Figures Under Fire—Don't You Believe Them

By JACK VANDENBERG

DETROIT (UPI)—The Louisiana Supreme Court could bring a halt to all advertising of gasoline mileage by auto makers.

The court is considering an appeal by American Motors to set aside a state court ruling made last June.

In that decision the court ruled that American Motors advertisements telling of the gas consumption record achieved by a Rambler in a test run constituted an expressed warranty that a Rambler buyer could expect to get the same performance.

The suit was brought by a Baton Rouge lawyer who claimed he purchased a 1957 Rambler largely on the basis of ads reporting a Rambler test car had achieved 32 miles per gallon in a cross-country run in 1956.

The lawyer produced records indicating his Rambler delivered 24 miles to a gallon at a speed of 30 miles an hour and less at higher speeds.

American Motors argued that its ads stated only that "one Rambler equipped with overdrive attained 32.09 miles per gallon in a supervised test and produced records to show that this was true.

HARD TO BE SPECIFIC

No company can guarantee any driver specific gasoline mileage from any car, unless it picks a figure so low the auto companies wouldn't want to advertise it.

The gasoline mileage a car will deliver depends on too many variables—the person driving, the condition of the car, weather, traffic conditions, road conditions, the type of gasoline used and many others.

Newsmen who were invited to test the mileage of the "Big Three" compact cars at press introductions this year got anywhere from 30 to 42.8 miles per gallon.

But the same newsmen, when they drove the same cars—the Corvair, Falcon and Valiant—in normal traffic got as low as 19 miles per gallon and never higher than 21.

The difference stems from the fact that conditions were different, and the motorist seldom if ever encounters the ideal conditions of a test track.

SURRENDERS — Sam Frank Locigno, friend of Mickey Cohen, walked into a Los Angeles police station Tuesday after he said he shot and killed bookie-tough John (The Enforcer) Whalen in a suburban Sherman Oaks restaurant in self defense. The shooting occurred at a table where Cohen was sitting. He was held for questioning.

Retired Persons Urged to Go Into Active Politics

NEW YORK (UPI)—The president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce today urged the nation's retired persons to plunge into the "active, rewarding, exciting, productive and engrossing work" of politics.

Erwin D. Canham said, "We are in desperate need of good citizens who will be politically active in the parties of their choice." He said retired persons could fill this need by becoming candidates as well as "doorbell ringers," or precinct workers.

"In political action, youth is almost a disadvantage," he told the 10th annual conference of the National Committee on Aging. "The ancient concept of tribal elders still holds good. The graybeard still commands respect."

New President of Manufacturers Claims He's No Fat Cat Industrialist

By United Press International

Rudolph F. Bannow likes to think his position as president of the National Association of Manufacturers refutes the public image of the NAM as a loudspeaker for big business.

Far from being a so-called fat cat industrialist, Bannow is a Swedish immigrant who serves as president of a milling machine company which employs just 400 workers.

His politics lean to the right and he considers the nation's greatest evils to be inflation and bureaucracy. But he says the NAM is composed 83 per cent of "little guys" and he considers himself a little guy in business.

Bannow, now 62, came to the United States from Goeteborg at the age of 13. He finished his elementary school education in Holyoke, Mass., and began work as an apprentice patternmaker at 6½ cents an hour.

When he was 22 he took time out for romance. He shipped for a year on a freighter, returned to marry Elsa Erickson, also a Swedish immigrant, then got back to work.

At the age of 23 he was named foreman of the Bridgeport (Conn.) Pattern and Model Works. When he was 30 he and another Swede, Magnus Wahlstrom, a toolmaker, formed Bridgeport Machines, Inc., the firm he still heads.

Just as Bannow likes to think his position with the NAM refutes cliches about the NAM, so does he feel his administration of Bridgeport Machines has refuted cliches about management-worker relationships.

Located in a heavily unionized area, the company is entirely nonunion. It has never had a strike. Employes have a stake in a profit sharing plan which provides a pension fund and in good years provides bonus payments.

Furthermore, he does not live on the scale usually associated with successful businessmen. After their two daughters were married the Bannows moved to a smaller home, which contains a small shop where he works out many of his company's technical problems himself.

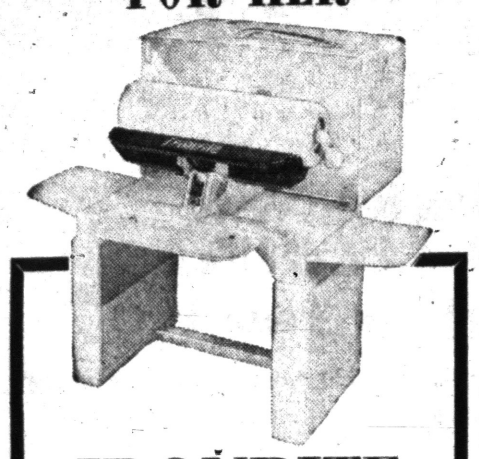

For extra-curricular relaxation, he sings first bass with a male chorus, the North Star Singers—an activity which has taken up his Wednesday nights for the past 26 years.

Persons Living Longer So More Report Illness

NEW YORK (UPI)—Americans are taking better care of themselves, but the proportion of disabling illnesses is growing, the Health Information Foundation reports.

The foundation said the reason for the apparent contradiction was the rising number of elderly persons and the extension of life for the seriously ill.

Charlotte Ford to Come Out in Spectacular

DETROIT (AP)—The Henry Ford IIs plan a coming out party for their daughter and it looks as if a Hollywood spectacular was the model for the debut.

About 1,000 guests will throng to the Detroit Country Club Dec. 21 for the party honoring pretty Charlotte Ford, 18, great-granddaughter of the late Henry Ford.

The guest list includes not only the big names in society and industry, but also movie and entertainment figures and the son of an English duke.

Designer Jacques Frank was flown in from Paris to oversee the decorations. Most of the club will be done in 18th century French.

Names such as Gary Cooper, Nicholas DuPont, Frank Sinatra and Peter Lawford dot the invitation list. Sinatra and Lawford said, however, movie commitments probably will prevent their attending.

Sir Charles Churchill, youngest son of the Duke of Marlborough, also is expected for the white tie affair. So is Igor Cassini, New York columnist, and Mrs. T. Reed Vreeland, editor of Harper's Bazaar.

Miss Ford flew home from Italy Saturday. She is attending school there. Her escort at the debut will be Peter Sullivan of Glen Head, L.I., N.Y.

"The year's most celebrated debutante." That's how society writers are describing 18-year-old Charlotte Ford who will make her debut Dec. 21 at a ball for some 1,000 guests. Plans for the spectacular affair have been announced by Charlotte's mother Mrs. Henry Ford II, wife of the auto firm president.

There Are Ways and Ways

You Want to Look Heavier?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "I am in desperate need of your help. I know that I am quite thin and am going on a strict diet to gain weight. I am 16½ and weigh 104 pounds.

"While trying to gain weight what can I do in order to look heavier? I canot wear horizontal stripes because I am only 5 feet 3 inches tall. I have a thin face. My legs, and especially my thighs, are thin."

A. You can wear stripes if they are not too broad. Materials with large designs also will make you appear larger. So will shiny materials. You can wear tweeds and those knitted garments many women cannot wear attractively.

Buy dresses with fullness over the bust and use scarfs tucked into your coat or suit coat.

Wear your hair fluffy at the sides and low on top. It should come below the ears and cover the ears. AND gain that weight because you are underweight.

Q. I have terrible trouble with my feet. I am past 40 years old and am on my feet a lot. I go to work besides doing my work at home. I am on the heavy side. My feet bother me now that cold weather has come. My heels have cracked open. Please advise me what to do.

"Do not tell me to go to a foot doctor because that is impossible. There is none in this town. Just now I can go nowhere else. I do not wear expensive shoes because I cannot afford them. I do wear a comfortable shoe which is not too tight."

A. I certainly would have advised you to see a foot doctor! I still think that you should see one nearby as soon as that is possible. Your trouble suggests flat feet. Perhaps you should see your family physician. If your condition is not too extreme, arch exercises would be of great help.

A loss of weight is indicated, not only for the good of your general health, but because extra pounds place a burden on the feet which carry all of your weight.

Before going to sleep at night massage your feet with a body lotion. This will be a great help. Do not wear open heels in cold weather.

★ ★ ★

If you or any of my readers would like to have my exercises for the feet send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 14 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Radio Can Be Proper at a Party

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My brother and I are arguing about whether or not it is permissible to turn the radio on during a dinner party.

I think it's unfair to run the risk of inflicting a program on guests which they may not really want to hear at all and yet in politeness feel they have to say they do.

Answer: Ordinarily when music is played at a dinner or any social gathering, it is not supposed to be a bar to conversation. That is, it should be very low so as to be no more than a musical background. On the other hand should news of great importance (or a program of probable interest to those present) be coming over the air, guests would naturally be asked whether or not they are interested in hearing it. If they are, converstation would temporarily cease.

Dear Mrs. Post: We've been invited to a wedding and there is no mention of our 12-year-old son.

★ ★ ★

We feel that since he is no longer a little child and knows how to behave that he should have been included. He has counted so much on going.

★ ★ ★

Would it be correct to take him?

Answer: I'm sorry to say that unless his name was included in your invitation he is not expected, and therefore you should not take him. Omission of his name should not be taken as a slight to him, because in most instances it is impossible to provide space and food for many children outside of the immediate families. And to include an especial few is to risk hurting the feelings of the parents of all of the others.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary for the bride to send a car to pick up the bridesmaids at their houses on the morning of the wedding to take them to the bride's house, or do they arrange for their own transportation?

Answer: If the bridesmaids have no family cars to bring them to the bride's house, the bride's parents should make the necessary arrangements for their transportation.

Parents Often Cause Childhood Jealousy

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Her name was Rosie, and she lived two miles nearer the country school we attended than I did. So, sometimes during the 3rd grade, I got into the habit of stopping in at Rosie's house on our way home from school together and refreshing myself with her mother's cake and milk before resuming my way.

★ ★ ★

I expect her mother got tired of feeding me. I can still remember the afternoon she did something about it.

A tape measure in hand, she came into the pantry where Rosie and I were guzzling marshmallow layer cake and said: "Girl's let's measure your braids and see who has the biggest ones."

My braids turned out to be a quarter inch thicker than Rosie's. Thereafter, our companionship underwent a change. When we walked home together, I felt an unhappy but insistent pride in my superior braids and Rosie resentment of her skimpier ones.

Soon we each found more comfortable friends for ourselves. By turning us into competitors, Rosie's mother had effectively separated us.

I'm sure that her wish to separate us was unconscious.

As are our wishes to estrange the brothers and sisters in whom we excite the spirit of competitiveness.

When we tell Billy, "Why don't you get as good spelling marks as Sister did?" we may believe that all we want to do is stir ambition in Billy.

Is this really so? Aren't we really trying to arouse envy of Sister in Billy? Aren't we deliberately undermining his friendly feeling for her? Aren't we using his separating envy of her to force him to struggle for our favor?

If we go in for this kind of rivalry incitement, let's not go to pieces at the idea that we're seeking power for ourselves. We all like power. The trouble with the kind we're after is that it backfires.

The Bible story of Jacob and his sons is a perfect example of what happens to parents who play one child off against another. Under the guise of loving his son Joseph, old Jacob made him the subject of such envy by his brothers that they sold the Wonder Child into slavery.

Jacob succeeded in his purpose. He separated Joseph from his brothers for many, many years. But that he also separated himself from his darling was something that the greedy old man hadn't counted on.

One-third of the earth's original forests have been destroyed by man.

Dear Abby Says: And He Had Plenty

She Can Add Both Years and Cash

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I was extremely amused at the letter signed "A DOCTOR, SEVENTY PLUS" because I knew one of those old coots who married a beautiful young woman who was thirty years younger than he was. They were very happy for about six years. Then she became a widow.

ABBY

She didn't cry too hard because she inherited enough money to get someone her own age to marry her. So you see, Abby, it sometimes pays to carefully count a man's years.

LOIS

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor of ours just came back from a mental institution. She had a nervous breakdown and was gone almost three years. How do we act towards her? Should we pretend as though we don't know where she was? Should we give her a welcome home party, or should we wait until she shows more interest in us? She was always a nice quiet lady. Her children (4 and 7) were kept by her sister, but are home with her now. I suppose this means that she is normal again. Can you advise us? We want to do the right thing.

NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: Most people who have been stricken with a mental illness were normal, human beings before their illnesses, and most of them return to normalcy after treatment. No mention of "where she was" is necessary. But she knows that you are aware of her three-year absence, so don't treat her as though she were a child. Call on her and tell her the neighbors want to welcome her home with a little party, and let her name the day.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Our 15-year-old daughter is a very nice girl. We raised her right and I don't like to boast, but she is very pretty and is getting extremely popular. Our problem is: She wants us to put in a long telephone cord so she can carry the telephone all over the house and talk privately in her bedroom.

Her father said it was too expensive (this wasn't the real reason) and I told her if she had anything to say that her family couldn't hear, she should be ashamed of herself.

We have been going around about this for several months and I am interested in a solution. Our daughter has some birthday money saved and says she will pay for it herself. Should we agree?

PERPLEXED PARENTS

DEAR PERPLEXED: Teenagers are people. All people are entitled to privacy. (Don't assume that just because she wants to talk confidentially to her friends that she has something to be "ashamed of.") If your daughter shows consideration and respect for her family, this would be a fitting reward for her. Give her the long cord.

★ ★ ★

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Tiny Nut-Filled Cookies Have Icing Like Bonbons

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Writer

Young cooks who come up with favorite recipes always please us. Today's cook is ninth-grader, Lynda Crawley. She has made these cookies for her Girl Scout troop.

★ ★ ★

In addition to scouting, Lynda is interested in music and art. She takes piano lessons and according to one adult friend, is very artistic. She is a member of Jobs Daughters.

FRENCH BONBONS

¾ cup confectioners sugar
½ cup chopped nuts
Whole nuts

Mix margarine, sugar and vanilla. Blend in flour and salt. Add nuts. Wrap dough in a little ball around a whole nut. Place one inch apart on an ungreased cookie sheet. Bake 12-15 minutes at 350 degrees.

Make a confectioners sugar icing. Dip top of hot cookies into icing and decorate with nuts or colored sugar.

Treat 'Em Like Men Instead of Hubbies

By RUTH MILLETT

If you want the husbands in your social group to enjoy your company and your conversation it's really quite simple: Quit treating the husbands like husbands and start treating them like attractive members of the opposite sex.

★ ★ ★

That doesn't mean you should try to act like a femme fatale or bat your eyelashes like an ingenue or engage in shabby little flirtations.

It just means that you should do your feminine best to make the husbands feel like men, instead of mice.

Let's face it. A lot of married women do make their husbands in their social group feel like mice. DO YOU?

They ignore them completely to talk woman talk, or they chatter away a mile a minute not giving the poor husbands a chance to get a word in edgewise, or they insist upon talking wife talk, even though they are talking to some other woman's husband.

"Wife talk" includes such topics as "the children," household problems, health problems, diets and so on.

So a woman who wants to seem charming and interesting to a married man should skip the wife talk and let the man lead the conversation.

If she does this she is sure to find out that he is interested in a lot of things that he enjoys talking about — politics, maybe, or hunting or fishing or art or music.

If she is a good listener, this man who is used to having his wife's friends treat him like a husband instead of an interesting member of the opposite sex will beam with pleasure.

USUALLY GALLANT

Men, for the most part, are pretty gallant with other men's wives. But all too many married women fail to make any effort to be charming to their friend's husbands.

No wonder so many married men have to be dragged to parties. They wouldn't if wives made a little more effort to be charming to each other's husbands.

Washington Parties Usually Cocktail Size

(This is the last of a series of articles in which Washington's best-known hostesses reveal the techniques and tricks that make a party successful — and recount some times when even the best-made plans went wrong.)

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Washington has fewer night clubs and more private parties per square mile than any city of comparable size in the nation.

When visitors complain about our death of first class restaurants and girlie night spots, we stare in frank astonishment.

Why should local residents squander money for an evening-on-the-town, when their date books can easily be crammed with two or three free parties every night of the year?

★ ★ ★

Embassies vie with each other for available cocktail hours, rival hostesses compete for social lions and visiting celebrities, and the army of local butlers-for-hire are booked weeks in advance for almost any twilight time.

★ ★ ★

New York can have its glittering charity balls, and Podunk its canasta parties. Washingtonians prefer a whirl along the cocktail circuit, before settling down at a festive dinner table for a heady exchange of gossip, news and views.

COME IN ALL SIZES

Dinner parties in this Potomac River town come in all sizes, shapes and decors. Mrs. Herbert May — the former Marjorie Merriweather Post of "Post Toasties" fame and fortune — takes over the vast Army-Navy Country Club several times each season to entertain her multitude of friends with buffet dinners and the square dances which have become the rage of Washington.

★ ★ ★

For the occasion she imports professional dancers, whom she tactfully introduces into each square to guide her exuberant, but sometimes not so graceful, guests in the fine art of swinging their partners.

Private clubs are an essential part of social Washington, and such senators as Styles Bridges and Stuart Symington often reserve the exclusive 1925 F Street Club for an evening of superb food and political banter.

Many local hostesses take a table of guests to the Chevy Chase Country Club, or to the Sulgrave Club, where dinner-dances have become standard entertainment for our agile party goers.

Costume parties are less exotic here than in Europe, but diplomat publisher Roy St. Lewis and his attractive wife, Peggy, annually host the best one at "Rancho Mio," their country retreat in nearby Maryland.

Like New Yorkers who cringe at the thought of stepping outside Manhattan, many Washingtonians dread crossing the Potomac to attend parties in neighboring Virginia.

Many ambassadors and socialities regularly make the trek to a farm near Vienna, Va., however, to attend the intimate dinner parties hosted by retired attorney and Mrs. Lisle Smith in their doll-sized farmhouse.

★ ★ ★

The Smiths' success as party-givers can be emulated by any hosts who combine the three ingredients they invariably supply: Personal warmth, excellent home-cooked food, and stimulating guests. But how many do?

★ ★ ★

Career girl Betty Burton, member of a Washington cave-dweller family who served our State Department in Paris, gives fascinating, inexpensive dinner parties in her tiny crow's nest house in old Georgestown.

FLAIR FOR COOKING

Money is not the key to a successful party, although an ample purse admittedly helps — if you want to make a career as a hostess.

Lobbyists with unlimited expense accounts are an inevitable part of our social scene, and big deals are sometimes consummated in the twinkling of a Martini, but most soirees are given for one purpose only:

To repay the hosts who have entertained you.

Since you no sooner complete your bread-and-butter festivities than your guests invite you back, no one in this party-loving capital ever pauses to wonder which came first—the chicken or the egg.

Face Too Chubby?

If you feel your face is too chubby, change your hairdo to camouflage it. Avoid short fluffy bobs. Instead, brush your hair up and back from the temples. A soft wave, perhaps at the side of the head, also draws attention from a chubby face.

Walled Lake C. of C. Elects Ralston W. Calvert President

Elected president was Ralston W. Calvert. He will replace Ben Z. Schneider at the end of the month.

Calvert is the owner of Cal's Barber Shop, 411 N. Pontiac Trail. Jack McClellan, manager of Buckner Finance Co., 341 N. Pontiac Trail, was named vice president.

Also elected were five members of the Board of Directors.

Voted in for two-year terms on the board were Richard Shuman, Donald Watkins and Merill Rasmussen.

Ben Z. Scheinder and Thomas Weisheit were elected to one-year terms.

An "oversight" in the bylaws was corrected by the C. of C. by passing an amendment establishing honorary membership for former businessmen for their continued interest in the community.

AT BOARD'S DISCRETION

A $125 check was presented to 2nd Lt. James Puglise of the Civil Air Patrol, Walled Lake Squadron, to further his flight training.

Puglise, 17, of 6871 Hatchery Rd., Pontiac, was awarded the check for "outstanding achievements" this past summer as one of five Michigan cadets selected by the Air Force to travel to Europe and the Middle East as good will ambassadors.

The young cadet, along with another squadron member, Cadet Edward Polikaninen, spent 30 days in Turkey, studying the country and learning to fly.

In January, Puglise will be one of 40 Michigan cadets eligible to take tests for a jet orientation course in Texas.

Should he pass the test he would go to Perrin Air Force Base for instructions in a T33 jet trainer.

Avon's Board Adopts Policy

Takes Personnel Guide to Cope With Current, Anticipated Growth

AVON TOWNSHIP — Prompted by current and anticipated growth in the township, the Avon Township Board has officially adopted its first written personnel policy. It becomes effective Jan. 1.

★ ★ ★

The policy outlines qualifications, duties, pay and other benefits for township employes.

In other action Wednesday night, the Board approved rezoning the Michigan State University Oakland faculty subdivision from agricultural to residential 1 classification.

PREVIOUSLY OK'D

The rezoning amendment previously approved by the Avon-Pontiac Townships Regional Planning Commission and the Oakland County Coordinating Committee.

The supervisor and clerk were authorized to sign amended contracts with MSU to provide water and sewers for the new subdivision.

Further, the Board decided to turn operation and maintenance of the water supply and sewage disposal system over to the County Department of Public Works.

Members voted to contribute $600 to the Avon Youth Service and Recreation Assn. for use in the organization's budget next year.

In addition, the township trustees authorized the Avondale Fire Department to purchase 10 radio units and a master unit for the fire hall as requested.

Cost will be $1,134.50 plus the cost of wiring.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Troy School Officials Appeal to State for Aid

TROY — School officials in Troy have appealed to state legislators for action on payment of state school aid to the district.

Superintendent Rex B. Smith said payments to Troy schools now are $62,000 behind, and the interest costs on loans are depriving the schools of the equivalent of two teachers per year.

Smith sent a night letter explaining the district's financial plight to Rep. Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township) and to State Senator L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County).

Troy, like many other schools in the Oakland County area, has had to borrow against future state aid and local tax anticipation.

"We still owe $300,000 against state aid and $196,000 on local tax anticipation," Smith explained.

The Board of Education pointed out that the individual taxpayer saved $8.49 per $1,000 assessed valuation last year. At the same time, members added, the district lost by having a $29,000 balance wiped out, by running a $70,000 deficit and by a year's delay in building projects.

Troy's 1959 school tax rate is 24.38 mills.

"It should be expected that Troy's rate would have to be above average until we get more business and industry in the district to help increase our total valuation and share the tax load," Smith explained.

ABOVE AVERAGE

School officials said they hope the millage for operation, at its present level, will be sufficient to keep Troy schools operating adequately, although state aid and other factors are unpredictable.

The Board also wants to know if there is enough citizen interest to form a committee to study year-round use of Troy school facilities.

A letter is being sent to all PTA presidents asking if there are individuals in their organizations who would be interested in serving on such a committee.

Although Board members' views differ on the idea, they have agreed to the formation of a committee if enough people are found to serve.

Ask Drivers to Help Find Hit-Runner

FERNDALE — Police were distributing 2,000 handbills today asking the help of motorists in finding the hit-run driver who ran down a small boy here last Saturday.

Lawrence C. Cooke, 10, of 2027 E. Kenneth Rd., Royal Oak, is recovering in William Beaumont Hospital from a fractured skull and broken shoulder bone.

The boy was struck down as he crossed 10-Mile road at Hilton street on his way to a grocery store for his mother. He told police he was hit by a light-colored truck.

Police said they have checked over 300 commercial license plates in the search for such a truck, and after five days of investigation are without any definite clues.

★ ★ ★

The handbills, headlined "Will You Help," and carrying details of the accident, are being given to motorists in the vicinity of where the accident took place.

Farm Surplus Bin Creaking at the Seams

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's investment in farm price supports rose to a record of nearly $9,250,000,000 on Oct. 31 and it's headed still higher.

★ ★ ★

The investment reported in an Agriculture Department statement yesterday includes surplus farm commodities owned by the government and outstanding price support loans on farm crops.

As of Oct. 31, the department owned crops worth $7,755,000,000. Price support loans amounted to more than $1,470,000,000.

The total broke the record of $9,089,000,000 set last February.

The total was expected to climb this season when farmers put more of the record 1959 corn crop under support. When the seasonal peak is reached next spring, Uncle Sam will own or control about $10,500,000,000 worth of surplus crops.

Wixom Raises JP's Wages

Council Haggles Four Hours — Grants Welke an Eightfold Increase

After nearly four hours of discussion, Council raised the pay of Justice William Welke from $300 to $2,400 annually.

Council members had been undecided on the pay increase until told that the city charter states a decision must be made 60 days prior to election of justices.

The meeting last night was their last chance.

FOUR BALLOTS

It was approved on the fourth ballot by five of the six members.

Council also approved increasing the salary of Patrolman Edward Gidner from $4,300 to $4,600.

Bids on a new police car were asked to be advertised.

Estimate Farm Income Half of City Dweller's

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Government economists estimated today that the average U. S. farm resident's income would drop this year to less than one-half the income of the average nonfarmer.

Official figures have not been released yet. But experts said the data would show per capita net farm income was less than 50 per cent of the nonfarm rate for the fourth year in the last seven.

Stress Importance of Farms in State

EAST LANSING (AP)—The importance of farming to Michigan's total economy was stressed yesterday at the annual meeting of the Michigan Agricultural Conference at Michigan State University.

The conference is composed of some 75 groups allied to agriculture and ranging from dairymen and cattle breeders to bee keepers and mint growers.

Warren Phillips, Blissfield cattle feeder and conference president, recommended a positive program to tell the good things about agriculture.

"Our 130,000 Michigan farms annually market more than 700 million dollars worth of products," Phillips said, "But still not enough to feed all the people of Michigan."

Rochester Rite Sunday

To Consecrate Church

ROCHESTER — The new St. Paul Methodist Church here will be consecrated by Bishop Marshall R. Reed Sunday at two identical services.

Bishop Reed, titlar head of the Methodist Church in Michigan, will speak at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services.

He will be assisted in the rites by the Rev. J. Douglas Parker, pastor, who will preside, and by the Rev. Kyle Elliot, minister of education, and Dr. Arthur Smith, superintendent of the church district.

The two services will climax a month of special dedicatory programs and services. Music will be rendered by the Chancel Choir.

Oxford Twp. Board Sets Franchise Vote

The Board also has matched action taken by the Village Council Tuesday night raising the license fee for journeymen and reciprocal contractors from $1 to $5 effective Jan. 1.

This move was made to coincide with reciprocal agreements in other nearby communities.

In other action, the Board Wednesday night approved rezoning lots 2-10 in the Berns - Olive subdivision from residential to commercial.

Berries in Market for Your Yule Table

LANSING (AP) — Cranberries will be on the market for Christmas if Michigan housewives want them, the State Agriculture Department reported today.

★ ★ ★

J. L. Littlefield, head of the department's foods and standards division said state inspectors had checked and released for sale more than a half a million pounds of cranberries since the pre-Thanksgiving contamination scare.

Littlefield said federal inspectors in Detroit also were checking and releasing cranberry shipments.

"Of all the shipments we checked, we only found one lot of a few cases that was contaminated," Littlefield said. "These were removed from the market and didn't go on sale."

Wants Higher Supports on Milk, Butterfat—Soon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Lester R. Johnson (D-Wis) has called on the Agriculture Department to raise support prices for milk and butterfat next year — and make the announcement soon.

★ ★ ★

The increased supports would apply to the marketing year beginning April 1.

The request was made in a letter to Undersecretary of Agriculture True Morse.

The present support price for milk is $3.06 per hundredweight. Johnson said it should be raised to $3.25.

Suggests Bonds 'Inflation-Proof'

Union Man Would Have These Available Only to Retired Persons

DETROIT (AP)—Special "inflation-proof" bonds whose redemption values would be tied to the cost of living would be available to the aged under a proposal advanced today by the United Auto Workers Union.

Emil Mazey, UAW secretary, urged issuance by the federal government of "constant purchasing power bonds" in a statement prepared for a Senate subcommittee hearing on problems of the aged.

The Union official said redemption value of the bonds would include the purchase price, interest and an adjustment to compensate for any increase in the Consumers Price Index since the date of issuance.

Mazey told the windup session of a subcommittee headed by Sen. Patrick V. McNamara (D-Mich) that the bond plan "would protect the living standards of retirees from the eroding effects of inflation."

The bonds, said Mazey, would be non-negotiable and could be bought only by trustees of pension funds, insurance companies offering retirement annuities and up to a certain amount by persons having to retire.

Yule Sales Jumping This Year

NEW YORK (AP)—People have more money to spend and they're spending it for Christmas.

That's the report today from almost every section of the country as merchants ring up sales which they expect will be the biggest for any Yule season in history.

An Associated Press survey of 24 major cities produced predictions of gains ranging from 2 to 15 per cent over record 1958.

★ ★ ★

"It's going to be a crackerjack of a Christmas," was the report from San Francisco.

"Department store sales are really rolling," Cleveland reports.

"This will be our biggest year," says Raleigh, N.C., merchants.

"Exceptionally good," report New York's biggest stores.

Merchants say the steel strike has had little effect generally on Christmas buying.

Store owners attribute the avalanche of buying to these factors: People earned more and saved more in 1959; prices are unchanged to only slightly higher than a year ago; credit is easier.

Credit cards spurred buying in Los Angeles. "At least the woman of the house thinks she has more money," said a department store official.

Miami, Fla., reported a strong demand for furs and $40 sweaters. An Indianapolis store had to reorder $100 suede jackets. In a North Carolina city, $25 electric can openers are going good. Marshall Field Co. of Chicago expects to sell several $2,000 assemble-it-yourself summer houses styled like a pagoda temple.

High-priced stereo and hi-fi sets are in general demand.

Ike's Speech Fell Flat, Say British

LONDON (UPI) — Several of Britain's largest newspapers said today President Eisenhower failed to put across his peace ideas in his speech before the Indian Parliament yesterday.

From the mass circulation tabloid Daily Mirror to the Daily Telegraph, which generally takes a conservative line, the consensus was that the speech failed to get across its message.

"Ike fails to ring the bell," headlined the Daily Mirror.

"Ike started out well," said the Tabloid, but it noted that soon he "began to lose his audience's attention and his voice lost its vigor."

"President fails to rouse Indian MPs."

The newspaper said the parliamentary response was "enigmatic" and noted ruefully that "his speech had been expected to be the political highlight of the tour" but was not.

No. 2 Defense Man Will Be Sworn In

At the same time Dudley C. Sharp, Air Force undersecretary, will be sworn in as secretary, succeeding Douglas.

Both men were given recess appointments by President Eisenhower yesterday, subject to Senate confirmation when Congress returns next month.

Douglas, a Chicago attorney, takes over the post held by Thomas S. Gates Jr., who recently became defense secretary succeeding Neil H. McElroy. Sharp is from Houston, Tex.

Both Douglas and Sharp are Republicans, and both are graduates of Princeton University.

Bullets Hit Garage of Anti-Hoffa Man

JERSEY CITY (UPI) — Two shotgun blasts fired by an unknown gunman last night riddled a garage door near a meeting of Teamster Union members opposed to James Hoffa.

No one was hurt, but the pellets drilled through the wooden roll-up garage door and perforated the gas tank of a car.

He Was in a Hurry

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Police said an Illinois motorist yesterday did what urban drivers only threaten to do. Caught in a traffic jam, he abandoned his auto in the middle of a downtown street and "just lost himself in the crowd."

LITTLE GABE AND THE GOLDEN STARS — A Christmas Story — By Walt Scott

Sells Barrels of Wooden Nickels

Helps Cities Celebrate

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — For more than 25 years, Bill Munsey has toured America, throwing gigantic birthday parties and festivals for folks. And he has come to three conglomerative conclusions:

★ ★ ★

1—Less than 10 per cent of Americans, despite the accent on sophistication and cynicism, are blase.

2—Even a smart guy will take a wooden nickel if his friends are doing it, and

★ ★ ★

These assorted truths, which would never turn up on a poll or survey, are evident daily to Mr. Munsey. That's possibly because he wears a bow tie and a Rotarian grin, and comes from Fostoria, Ohio.

Only an honest face from Fostoria, surely, could sell wooden nickels and not get nabbed by the better Business Bureau.

"Well, you see," says Bill, "everybody loves an excuse to buy wooden nickels (or dinkles—they're worth 7½ cents, between a nickel and a dime), just as every man loves to grow a beard and woman loves to let down her hair. But you've got to get around and celebrate a little, to see these things."

Munsey, president of the John P. Rogers Producing Co., does his getting around by planning birthday parties for cities. Some of his customers are 100 years old, some 200, some 300. But they act like kids when our boy moves in to stage their parades, pageants and general horseplay.

(Editor's note: Pontiac has engaged the Rogers firm to guide the city's centennial which is slated for 1961.)

When a city calls him in to plan a birthday celebration — he has staged more than 2,500 of them in a quarter century — the first order of the day is to issue a mayoral proclamation ordering all males past adolescents to grow beards . . . or pay a $1 shaving permit fee.

This brings in money, from the men who for professional reasons can't afford to be fuzzy, and starts the celebration off real wild.

EVERYBODY BUYS

All this puts people in the mood to relive the past of their city, which may be 300 years old, as in New England, or only 50, as in some sections of the west.

People work themselves up to such a frenzy of nostalgia, in some cases, that they buy their own costumes representative of their town's great beginning.

"We've sold over four-thousand-dozen derby hats this year, for instance, and three-thousand-dozen sunbonnets. And last year, in Mississippi, during the recession, everybody in town was cashing their relief checks to buy derbies," Bill Mused.

"Can you beat it? We had derbies that sold for $1 and derbies that sold for $5. And people were so proud of their part in the celebration that they bought the $5 models.

Munsey puts on celebrations in big cities and in little hamlets. One reason everybody is so enthusiastic about these parties is that, for the pageant that generally winds up the birthday, the so-called "little guy" is given a chance to act.

"In Anahuac, Tex., a town of 500 people, we had 300 in the cast of the pageant. It wasn't much of an audience, but the show on stage was spectacular."

Hollywood Headlines:

Did Filmland Blackball Roy Rogers Over Suit?

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

"I think maybe that's what happened," said the cowboy star in an amazing burst of frankness.

THOMAS

"That's the only way I can explain why I haven't had a real offer to do a movie in eight years.

"Oh, we've had deals come up and we'd talk to people at the studios about them. But as soon as the negotiations got to the top men in the studios, the deals were suddenly dropped. I believe the producers blackballed me. Why? Because I had the nerve to fight Yates for four and a half years."

★ ★ ★

Roy referred to his historic battle with Herbert Yates, his longtime boss at Republic Studios. Yates controlled 86 of Roy's feature pictures and aimed to sell them to TV. The cowpoke sued to restrain him, arguing that actors had a right to share in the profits.

COST $100,000

"I won the case all right, but when the Supreme Court reversed the decision," Roy remarked. "It cost me $100,000 in lawyer fees, and I didn't get any help from the other actors. The Screen Actors Guild wouldn't go to bat because it was worried about all the actors who were under contract to studios then.

★ ★ ★

"Well, I lost, and old movies started flooding TV, without a cent of payment to actors. A lot of them are pretty hungry now."

Roy's last feature was "Son of Paleface" with Bob Hope and Jane Russell in 1951. The cynics might argue that he hasn't gotten film offers because he lacked draw. The figures dispute that.

Last year, he and Dale Evans did a tour of 26 appearances and earned $460,000. They do seven specials a year in the Dinah Shore Sunday night time and the ratings have been consistently high.

"I don't understand it," Roy said. "I'd like to make some more pictures. I could produce them myself, but it's not easy to find properties nowadays. Nobody's doing series, as I used to do in the old days. You've got to find subjects that are spectacular, that will attract attention. Otherwise it isn't worth all the trouble."

Zoologists have discovered indications that crows living in different sections of the country may crow in different dialects that are unintelligible to each other.

Movie Audiences Shockproof Nowadays

Coming: Wilde Story

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI) — Since movie audiences today are supposed to be practically shockproof an American company is preparing to film "The Trial of Oscar Wilde."

The genteel ladies of Victorian London swooned at the lurid testimony when the famous poet and playwright — and most brilliant wit of his time — went to prison because of his friendship for a young nobleman.

"But that was 1895," said producer Irving Allen today. "We think the subject matter will be acceptable today to modern women and men on both sides of the Atlantic."

Everyone connected with the project is prepared to admit that it has become possible only through the extraordinary relaxation of censorship in the Western world in the past two or three years. This has emboldened film men to cultivate hitherto forbidden fields for their plots.

Elizabeth Taylor's recently completed "And Suddenly Last Summer" has overtones of cannibalism and perversity. Her new film "Butterfield 8" is about a nymphomaniac. The projected film of "Lolita" is about a juvenile ditto.

One recent British feature film, a smash at the boxoffice, opens in a nudist colony with some of the girls in the cast displaying cleavage down to ground level. The new Jayne Mansfield film, "Too Hot to Handle," has one of the hottest and nudest dances ever to escape the censors' shears.

AP Wirephoto

BARDOT VS. SEXPOT — Movie siren Mamie Van Doren is sizzling over the publicity Brigitte Bardot's siren sister Mijanou, shown here, is getting in a film they are making. "I am the star, after all, and she is more or less capitalizing on her sister's name," said Mamie. She added, however that Mijanou is "prettier than Brigitte and has a better figure." The film is "Teacher vs. Sexpot."

Frail Piaf Sings On, Refuses to Quit, Rest

PARIS (UPI)—"If I stop singing, I die."

The words were those of Edith Piaf, 44, the frail and tiny singer whose nightly appearance on a tour of provincial music halls is a nightly brush with death.

Doctors and friends plead with her to halt the tour before she collapses and ends forever the haunting voice that has enchanted her fans on both sides of the Atlantic. But still she goes on.

Paris newspapers pleaded with her in their editorial columns to take a rest before she kills herself. The tabloid Paris-Jour, favorite of the subway-riding masses of the French capital, headlined an article in Thursday's paper: "Edith Piaf Must Stop."

It published a photograph of her showing her haggard face. She was holding onto the hands of two friends as she left a theater early this week where she came close to collapsing on the stage.

"It is a tragic combat, with its alternatives of brutal defeats, of uncertain victories," Paris-Jour said. "But no one has ever seen the face of Edith Piaf's adversary. It is death which she confronts each evening with song."

She is suffering from a recurrence of the general fatigue and illness that plagued her during her U. S. tour last spring, possibly the lingering effects of a major operation she underwent at the time.

Her famous voice falters and she clutches the stage piano but to one audience she asked: "Have you come to see me collapse on the stage? Then you've come at the wrong time. I'm in top form."

Buys Town Deserted Since War

Sunflower Village hasn't been in use since the staff of a nearby ordnance works was reduced. But it has 174 homes and 11 other buildings, including a 500-seat theater and a school.

★ ★ ★

It was bought by Louis H. Ensley who owns Quick Way Homes, Inc. of Lawton, Okla. He was one of eight bidders in the auction conducted by the government's General Service Administration.

★ ★ ★

Ensley said he hopes to rehabilitate the village, 25 miles west of Kansas City, and clear lots for more homes.

Hawaii Crater Oozing Lava Again but Weakly

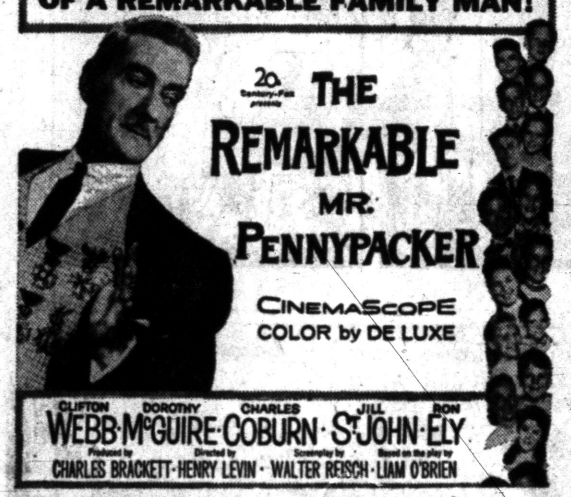

HILO, Hawaii (AP) — Kilauea Iki crater started splashing lava again Thursday night in its eighth eruption since Nov. 14.

"It's oozing out pretty slowly this time and splashing up about 25 or 30 feet," said Dr. Jerry Eaton, geophysicist.

In earlier eruptions of the volcano's present activity lava fountains have spouted as high as 1,600 feet.

May Bring Prices Down

Christmas Trees More Plentiful

EAST LANSING (UPI) — The trend toward rising prices of Christmas trees in Michigan may be leveling off because of oversupply.

Lee M. James, forestry professor at Michigan University, said 30,100,000 Christmas trees were planted in Michigan in 1957, and 1,200,000 were sold within the state the same year.

"There is some out-of-state selling," James admitted, "and a few dealers have a national market. But the national market must be increased nearly 30 million by the time these trees are ready in eight or nine years."

Michigan, the nations leading producer of Yule trees, has about 160 million growing at various stages of development. James has estimated about 13,000 persons are attached to the growing industry alone. There are about 4,000 retailers and wholesalers.

"Christmas trees are a big industry within the state," James said. "My latest figures, in 1956 show a gross value of $5,100,000 to state producers."

James, who has made probably the most extensive surveys of the Christmas tree market within the state, said he has been trying to persuade growers to build up their national market for some time. Only about 250,000 were sold out of state in 1956.

ALL OVER STATE

The trees grow all over the state, but are concentrated in Ottawa and Allegan counties, in North-central and Northwestern regions of the Lower Peninsula and in the Upper Peninsula.

Scotch pine is the biggest seller with about 58 per cent of the trees sold. The cheaper red pine is second with 19 per cent. All other—Jack pine, Austrian pine, white pine, white spurce, blue spruce, Norway spruce, Douglas fir and white fir — are relatively minor. The Douglas is the "finest and most expensive, averaging $5.50 in 1956," James said.

The trend shows an increase in planting of all types except red spruce. "There were an awful lot of those planted a few years back. The others are catching up now," said James.

William Cath, of the agriculture department's plant industry divisions, said the two major Christmas tree organizations, the federated Christmas Tree Growers of Michigan and the Michigan Christmas Tree Growers Association, are set to merge in February. They represent about 900 large-scale growers, against 12,000 smaller independents.

Major concerns of the associations are promotion of the national market, plans to curb growing competition from Canada and sponsoring bills aimed at a state law which allows a person to transport up to six trees without a permit.

Cath said the latter is supported by the agriculture department, which finds the present law hinders crackdowns on Christmas tree thieves.

Cath said competition from Canada is keeping down prices in the Detroit area, and James said many Canadian growers do not make retailers pay for the trees they don't sell.

"This is a powerful incentive to a retailer," James said. "The trees are worth nothing Dec. 26, and it probably costs the dealer something to get rid of them." The associations would like a tariff placed on incoming trees.

Selling the trees is not a particularly lucrative business except for the larger retailers, James said, despite the fact there is a 100 per cent markup for retailers.

Can a man still go out into the country and chop down his own Christmas tree?

"Sure," said James. "As long as a landowner gives permission or he's on his own property."

Tri-County College Gets Dow Grant

SAGINAW (UPI) — Tri-County College, serving the Saginaw-Midland-Bay City areas, has been given a grant of 500 shares of Dow Chemical Co. stock, worth nearly $50,000 on the current market.

The gift, from Alden B. Dow, Midland, stipulated the money was to be used for the study of creative methods of teaching.

The grant, the first of its size received by the college, came soon after the board of trustees approved a study to determine whether the two-year institution should be expanded to a four-year degree-granting college.

He suggested in an article in the government newspaper Izvestia that scientists around the world pool their efforts to build a 300 billion electrovolt accelerator he said is needed by science.

Pilot Grounded for Bridge Stunt

Michigan Officer Flies Costly Bomber Under Mackinac Span

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Strategic Air Command Thursday ruled that an Air Force pilot flew a 2½-million-dollar jet bomber under the Straits of Mackinac Bridge will never fly a military airplane again.

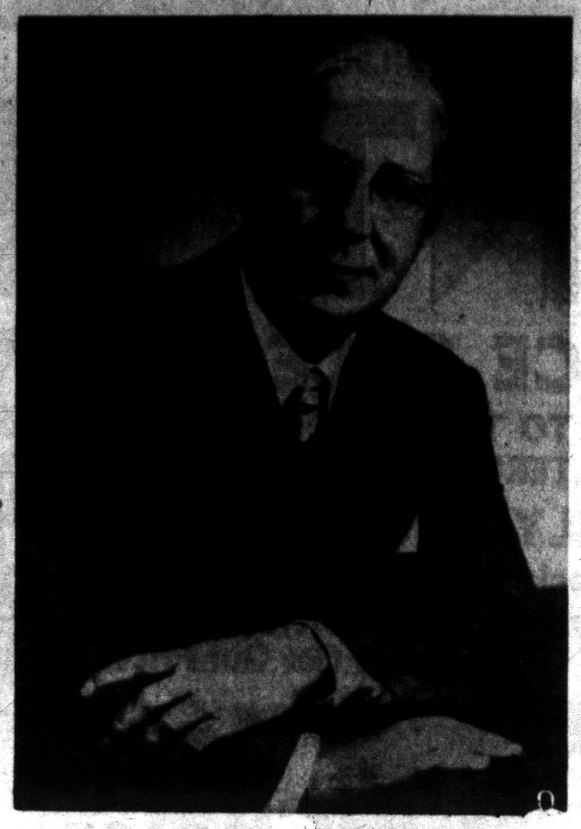

Gen. Thomas S. Power, SAC commander at Omaha, Neb., personally announced the imposition of the penalty against Capt. John S. Lappo, 39, a 12-year Air Force veteran from Muskegon, Mich.

The permanent grounding of the pilot means a $200-a-month pay cut for him. Without flight pay, he will receive only $660 a month instead of $860.

Capt. Lappo admitted at his general court-martial hearing Aug. 17 that he flew the six-engine B47 under the 150-foot-high span last April 24.

Gen. Power, in addition to grounding Capt. Lappo permanetly, upheld the court-martial penalty which included temporary loss of flying status, a severe reprimand and a $50-a-month fine for six months.

At the time of the incident, Capt. Lappo was flying out of nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base.

Wise in Ways of Wall Street

Praises Average Investor

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—How good is your judgment in buying stocks?

The New York Stock Exchange thinks the average investor shows excellent judgment. It bases its belief on the performance of those who belong to its pet scheme, the monthly investment plan.

Their record for the six years the plans has been running looks fine, judging by how the stocks they favor most have behaved.

In its magazine, The Exchange, the 20 top favorites are listed along with their price when the plan opened in January 1954 and the prices these stocks commanded in the first week of November 1959.

All have advanced in price. Sixteen of them more than doubled in value. The market price of one, International Business Machines, jumped 735 per cent.

If you had bought 10 shares of each of the 20 stocks the plan members favor most, it would have cost you $4,766 in January 1954. If you had sold them the first week in November 1959, you would have got $15,049, a capital gain of 215 per cent to account for on your income tax return. Prices are adjusted for stock dividends and splits in the six years.

This would seem to prove that the inividual has good investment judgment—that stock buying savvy isn't an exclusive attribute to the experts who guide the big institutional investments.

For all that, the instituions are gaining on he individuals. In the last three years the proportion of all common stock listed on the big board and registered directly in the names of individuals decreased and the porportion registered in the names of nonindividuals increased.

Brokers point out, however, that many of the financial institutions own common shares in the interests of thousands of individual investors.

The monthly investment plan is handled by the member firms of the Stock Exchange. It lets investors accumulate stocks through periodic payments of as little as $40 every three months.

The 20 stocks they most favor are, in order of choice: General Motors, General Electric, Dow Chemical, Jersey Standard Oil, Tri - Continental Corp., Sperry Rand, Phillips Petroleum, American Telephone & Telegraph, International Business Machines, Pfizer, Radio Corp. of America, Safeway Stores, Sears Roebuck, Monsanto Chemical, General Telephone & Electronics, Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing, American Cyanamid, General Dynamics Lehman Corp., California Standard Oil.

In the six years the plan has been operating, stock prices in general have been rising.

But The Exchange notes that the advance hasn't been in a straight line by any means, nor have all issues on the big board gone up. Nor are any of the 20 favorites now selling at their peak price for the six year period.

The New York Stock Exchange is also crowing that this year's trading has topped the billion-share mark for the fourth time in history and for the first time since 1930. Volume already has outrun last year's by 13 per cent.

The biggest year was 1929 with 1,534,000,000 shares traded, followed by 1928 and 1930.

Officials at Lansing 'Wonder' About Salt

LANSING (UPI)—Michigan officials added fuel today to the controversy over possible contract rigging in connection with rock salt used to melt snow on highways.

Identical bids have been turned in by companies selling rock salt to the state.

★ ★ ★

"It makes you wonder," said Philip H. Anderson, deputy director of the Department of Administration.

"Our bids come in identical right to the penny," he said.

The U.S. Justice Department in Washington Wednesday ordered a grand jury investigation of possible contract rigging in connection with rock salt, acting after it had received complaints from more than 15 states in the North and Midwest.

Questioning Jurors for Finch Trial

★ ★ ★

On trial are Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 41, wealthy surgeon, and his sweetheart Carole Tregoff, 22, ex-model. They are accused of slaying Finch's socialite wife Barbara, 33, last July 18. The trial is expected to last six to eight weeks.

★ ★ ★

Finch's attorney has asked for a trial outside Los Angeles County. He said the doctor can't get a fair trial here because, he claims, public officials have aroused sentiment against the defendants. A decision on the request will be made after the jury is selected.

In Duck-Hunting Incident

Canadian Jury Decides Death Was Accidental

SOMBRA, Ont. (AP)—A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury yesterday following a two-day inquest in the duck hunting shooting of Harry W. Anderson, retired General Motors vice president.

Anderson was shot Nov. 18 by Harlow H. Curtice, retired General Motors president, while they were hunting ducks on St. Anne's Island in the St. Clair River.

The jury, which deliberated two and a half hours, said Anderson "came to his death as the result of a gunshot wound in the right side of the head after he accidentally moved into the line of fire of one Harlow Curtice."

Curtice and Anderson were sharing a blind in the marshes. Curtice testified that Anderson, his longtime business associate and friend, stood up just as he fired.

Curtice suggested to the jury that hunting rules be revised to limit one gun or one hunter to each blind.

Dr. C. H. D. Clarke of the game and fisheries branch, Ontario Lands and Forests Dept., opposed such a restriction. He told the jury it would be unenforceable and said "the most important element in hunting is the social aspect."

★ ★ ★

The jury made no mention of Curtice's suggestion. Instead, it recommended that copies of the Hunters' Safety Code formulated by the Federation of Anglers and Hunters of Ontario be issued with each hunter's license.

The jury commended the Department of Lands and Forest for initiating a program to require hunting applicants to pass a competence test. The program goes into effect next Sept. 1.

Dr. Clarke told the five-man jury that during the last four years an average of two persons annually have died in duck-hunting firearm accidents in Ontario. He said his department classed most of them as "pure accident."

The three main witnesses at the inquest were Curtice; George Kennedy of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., chairman of the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Corp., and G. Arthur Brown of Rochester, Mich. Kennedy is lessee of the private hunting resort where the accident occurred.

Ontario's Deputy Attorney General Eric Silk thanked all three for testifying. He said they came on request as none could be subpoenaed under the coroner's act, which applies only to Canadians.

★ ★ ★

Curtice said he testified "because I wanted to see this tragic thing through." He told a newsman that he hoped to do some more hunting, adding that "I will return to St. Anne's Island next year if I am invited."

Tank 'Threatens' Newspaper With Retaliation

Adj. Gen. W. E. Glake, asked for an explanation, said "We exercise these vehicles every now and then just to be sure they're in good working order."

The newspaper Wednesday had carried an editorial questioning the Guard's armory program.

PCH Gets Big Test Against Arthur Hill 5

By BILL CORNWELL

Between now and the end of January, the Chiefs will be put to the acid test in the gruelling struggle for SVC honors.

By that time, Van Ryzin and Co. should know just how good they really are this season.

Following the Arthur Hill game the Chiefs go to Flint Central for their final pre-Christmas contest. After the holiday recess, they meet Bay City Central at home, then take to the road for outings with Flint Northern and Saginaw High and a return match with Arthur Hill.

The Chiefs will be lucky enough to have the services of mid-year graduate Bill Hayward through the first round of the SVC schedule. The game at Saginaw on Jan. 22, which completes the first round, will be Hayward's farewell appearance.

Two other Valley contests are scheduled tonight as the 1959-60 league campaign officially gets under way with a full card.

Flint Central, which dropped a 64-52 non-conference decision to city foe Southwestern on Wednesday for its 2nd loss of the year in as many tries, plays host to Bay City Central (0-1). Flint Northern (1-1) goes to Saginaw High (0-1).

Arthur Hill, coached by Chuck Fowler, comes to town with a 1-1 record. The Hillites lost a 51-35 duel to Ann Arbor last Saturday in their season opener, then came back Tuesday for a 70-61 victory over Bay City Handy.

Fowler's starting lineup is expected to be Tingler and Gene Slacta (6-2) at forwards, Datema at center, and Tom Dawson (5-0) and Paul Bishop (5-11) at guards.

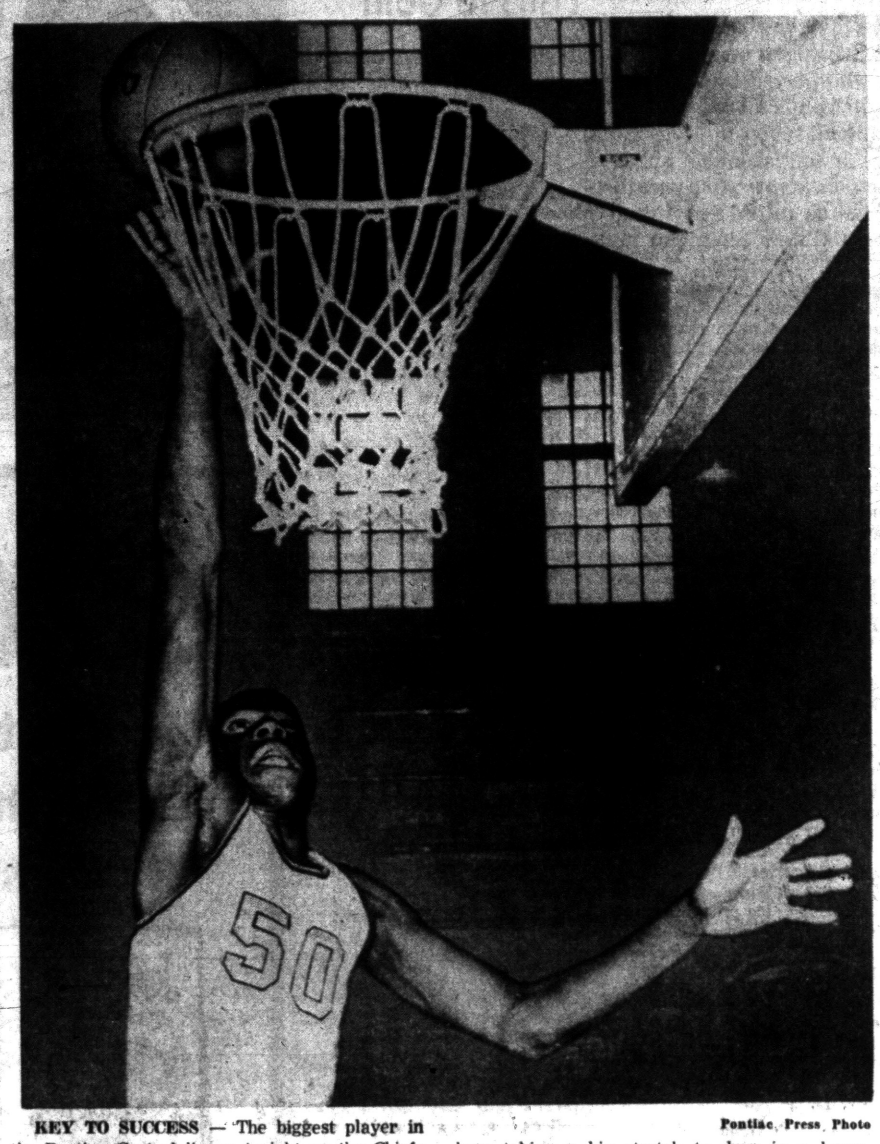

The Chiefs, now ready to shoot for their 3rd Valley title in four years, own non-league victories over Dearborn Edsel Ford (52-44) and city rival Northern (61-35).

Van Ryzin probably will string along with the same starting quintet that has been successful to date — forwards George Fed and Hayward, center Bill Pritchett, and guards Phil Rabaja and Booker Hurner.

Fed was ill yesterday after having an infected tooth removed, but he should be ready for action this evening. The junior varsity preliminary begins at 6:30 p.m.

KEY TO SUCCESS — The biggest player in the Pontiac Central lineup tonight as the Chiefs start their campaign to repeat as Saginaw Valley champions will be 6-3 George Fed shown here taking a big stretch to drop in a layup. PCH will host Arthur Hill seeking its third straight victory.

Former Ring Great Canzoneri Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Canzoneri, whose flailing fists carried him from a bootblack's box on the sidewalks of New Orleans to boxing's hall of fame, no longer will hold court on his beloved Broadway.

The great little gladiator who won the featherweight, lightweight and junior welterweight titles was found dead yesterday in a $21 a week midtown hotel room. Medical authorities said the 51-year-old scrapper apparently had died of natural causes two days ago.

The word quickly spread up and down Broadway, into the hangouts of the boxing clan, the haunts of the theatrical people and over to Eighth Avenue where Tony staged some of his greatest fights at Madison Square Garden.

In front of the restaurant, where Tony held court each night for those who remembered back to the exciting days in the 1920s and early 1930s, many of his friends clustered. They talked in almost hushed tones of the man with the big smile who won 140 fights, lost 24 and drew in 11 and then, after his retirement in 1939, joined comedian Joey Adams in a successful night club act.

★ ★ ★

Purses were not always big in his days but he earned more than $500,000 with his fists. He met all of the top fighters of his time — Johnny Dundee, Benny Bass, Kid Chocolate, Bud Taylor, Lou Ambers, Bushy Graham, Joe Sangor, Sammy Mandell, Al Singer, Jackie Kid Berg, Stan Loayza, Billy Petrolle, Wes Ramey, Baby Arizmendi, Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin.

At the age of 19 he beat Benny Bass Feb. 10, 1928 for the featherweight title. Seven months later he lost it to Frenchman Andre Routis. He knocked out Sangor in the first round Nov. 14, 1930 for the lightweight championship, lost it to Barney Ross 2½ years later and won it back with a victory over Ambers after Ross moved up to the welterweight division.

It wasn't so long ago that Tony recalled for the umpteenth time his first fight with McLarnin in the Garden.

Tony, as was his style, came bounding out of his corner. The announcer didn't even have time to raise the microphone and it cracked Canzoneries on the head. Tony fought in a daze through the round as McLarnin pounded him almost at will. But Canzoneri came back in the second and went on to victory.

★ ★ ★

That probably was Tony's last great fight. Nearly fourth months later, Sept. 3, 1936, he lost the lightweight crown to Ambers. A month later McLarnin beat him. From then on it was up and down for Tony until Davis knocked him out in three rounds on Nov. 1, 1939 and Canzoneri said goodbye to the ring.

DIES — Tony Canzoneri, who held three world boxing titles during his 1925-39 career, was found dead in his New York City hotel room yesterday, apparently from natural causes. He was 51.

All-Star Pin Points

BE PREPARED

By BILLY WELU

It is purely coincidental that I am 6 feet, 4½ inches tall while most good bowlers are of average or medium height.

Size has little to do with proficiency on the lanes.

The main thing at the outset is preparation. Too many novices concern themselves with hooks and curves when they should be adapting themselves to a well-fitted ball and comfortable shoes. If you fit yourself with the best equipment, adapted to your distinctive physical qualities, you have a better than even chance of becoming a superior bowler.

Of course, if you cannot afford your own ball and shoes, you can use the equipment at your particular bowling establishment. If you are serious in your bowling, it is well worth the price of buying your own.

Be fitted by an expert. Your future as a bowler can be jeopardized by a ball that doesn't belong in your hand. You may switch later as you become more proficient. You may turn to different grips and styles, but until you know exactly what you are doing, stick with the conventional grip and delivery.

PCH Swimmers to Meet SVC Champions Tonight

It looks like another championship swimming team in the Saginaw Valley Conference for Saginaw Arthur Hill and Pontiac Central has the task of giving the Hillites their first SVC test in dual action there tonight.

The Chiefs, who finished with a 9-4 dual record and 6-4 in the league last year for second place, have seven returning lettermen.

Pontiac Central easily defeated Ypsilanti in the opener last week, and after tonight's meet, the Chiefs will be host to Pontiac Northern on Monday.

Bruce Norvell in the breastroke, along with freestyles Ted Gainsbauer, Doug Roeser, Greg Uligian and backstrokers John Blamy and Ben Donaldson are the top returnees for PCH.

City Parochials, Skippers Home; PNH vs. Jays

By CHUCK ABAIR

A long list of interesting battles of both league and non-loop nature feature the first full schedule of the new prep basketball season around the Oakland County area tonight.

Two of the big games will be right here in Pontiac making it a tripleheader in town with Pontiac Central also home. St. Frederick will entertain Orchard Lake St. Mary at the Northern gym while St. Michael takes on Royal Oak St. Mary at nearby Madison Junior High.

Pontiac Northern, winless in two starts, will make another try at Southfield while Waterford hosts Walled Lake and Berkley vs. Farmington in Inter-Lakes League openers.

A single game matching Royal Oak Kimball and Mt. Clemens starts the Eastern Michigan race. Birmingham is idle after a sound trouncing while East Detroit goes to Roseville and Port Huron vs. Hamtramck.

The Oakland B moves into its second slate of games with the key one Avondale at Troy. Lake Orion entertains Madison and Clawson is at Fitzgerald.

A full Wayne - Oakland slate lists Holly at Clarkston, Milford at Bloomfield Hills, Northville at home to meet Brighton and West Bloomfield on the road at Clarenceville.

The South Central also has its first action with Oxford playing North Branch and Ortonville vs. Millington. Dryden is at New Haven, Almont visits Brown City, Capac is at Armada and Memphis vs. Anchor Bay in Southern Thumb play.

Teams in the Tri-County loop play more non-league games with that race not starting until January. Rochester will host Utica, Romeo vs. South Lake, Lapeer takes on Flushing and L'Anse Creuse plays at Clintondale.

Elsewhere, Cranbrook seeks its initial victory in four tries at Latheran West, Royal Oak Dondero faces Grosse Pointe, Royal Oak Shrine meets St. Theresa and Farmington Our Lady vs. St. Leo. A Saturday game will match South Lyon and Ypsilanti Lincoln.

The OLSM - St. Fred contest shapes up as quite a duel? Each opened with victories. The defending champion Eaglets will have added help from vet forward Milt Wojtowicz, now recovered from a foot injury. St. Mike will be heavily favored. St. James, with two starters out with injuries, will host St. Clement in a change of sites and St. Benedict invades St. Rita in other Suburban Catholic action.

Northern is badly in need of a victory tonight after showing little in two beatings despite the surprise scoring of Jim Capistrant. Walled Lake takes a 1-1 mark to Waterford. The Skippers nipped Wayne by one in their only test. Berkley begins its title defense in a rebuilding year against favored but once-beaten Farmington.

The Avon-Troy affair could decide the Oakland B pacesetter early since Avon already holds a win over Fitzgerald. Orion should have no trouble making its record 2-0.

Another defeat would put favored Clarkston in trouble in the W-O. Holly has title ambitions of its own along with Milford and Brighton—the latter two favored tonight. West Bloomfield will need more hot shooting to avoid defeat.

Rochester has looked good-and-bad while Romeo and Lapeer are both 0-1. Dondero is 2-0 with a big boost from the walloping of Birmingham.

Chisox Sign Garcia

CHICAGO (AP) — Mike Garcia, former "Big Bear" of the Cleveland Indian pitching staff, Thursday was signed as a free agent by the Chicago White Sox.

Garcia, a big winner for the Tribe in the early 1950s, was released by Cleveland after the 1959 season in which he had a 3-6 record in 72 innings. He made 8 starts and had 1 complete game.

"Our reports on Mike were real good," said Sox President Bill Veeck. "He might help us in 1960."

Pistons Continue Slump Bowing to St. Louis

The St. Louis Harwks fattened their lead in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn. by trouncing the Pistons 129-111 in the first game of a doubleheader at Philadelphia last night.

The Pistons showed their frustration by getting into a row with referee Arnie Heft. Three technical fouls were called in the game, two against the Hawks and one on Dick McGuire of the Pistons. McGuire vehemently contested a call. He was thrown out of the game.

Heft charged the Detroit bench. "I've had nothing but trouble with you for the last three nights," he told Rocha. "If you want trouble, you'll get it."

The Pistons were led by rookie Bailey Howell with 22 points and Archie Dees with 26.

At the start of the final period, St. Louis ran off six straight points boosting the count to 97-83. After that it was just a matter of running out the game.

The Pistons now return to Detroit. They have a game with the New York Knickerbockers at Olympia Stadium Sunday afternoon. It will be televised nationally.

The 32-year-old Layne said he hopes to wind up his National Football League career with the Steelers. He gave no indication whether he will play more than two additional years.

Layne previously has said he would hang up his cleats when Steeler coach Buddy Parker desires.

Big 10 Faculty Keeps Control of Athletics

Bid for Power by Directors Fails to Gain

Conference Meeting to Continue Today With TV Problems

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO — The Big Ten athletic control still rests firmly within faculty grasp, it was announced after faculty representatives clarified a so-called bid for power by athletic directors.

At the annual Winter conference meeting being held in Chicago, the policy-making faculty group ruled that although the directors can vote on legislative matters, the faculty still runs the show in the Big Ten.

In other action, the directors wholeheartedly backed a renewed plea by football coaches for unlimited substitution, and the Big Ten was handed a petition by Chicago area conference alumni for a national letter of intent control by the NCAA of prospective college athletes.

At a Nov. 1 meeting, faculty representatives voted to give athletic directors an equal voice on legislative matters, meaning that 20 ballots would be cast instead of 10 on a particular issue.

Thursday, however, the faculty group stipulated that substantive legislation would go under the white resolution for a 60-day institutional review period only by faculty representative vote.

Thus only faculty representatives continue to control high-level policy by the stipulation that they alone have the authority to determine whether any new legislation should go back to the individual schools for reconsideration.

This action must be voted upon by each conference member before becoming effective. The old policy was to require a one year residence for junior college transfers.

Faculty men also gave an extra year of eligibility to gymnast Wolfgang Dazauer of Michigan, a 26-year-old German immigrant.

Reports by Stu Holcomb of Northwestern on review of the financial aid program and from the TV committee on a three-year 3 million dollar offer to televise football, basketball and other sports were put on Friday's agenda. Controls on future Rose Bowl participation also were put over until Friday or Saturday's closing sessions.

Statewide 'Any Deer' Season Aim of Archers

ALL OUTDOORS, Mich. (UPI)—Officials of the Michigan Bow Hunters Assn. intend to press for even more liberalization in the already liberal bow and arrow hunting regulations in this state.

Latest action by the bow hunters group seeks to open up Chippewa, Menominee and Emmett counties as "any deer" areas to permit bow-hunters to kill does, fawns and bucks. Under present laws, bowmen are allowed to take only buck deer with antlers three or more inches. . . Exce take only buck deer with antlers of three or more inches.

Except for the Drummond Island portion of Chippewa County, these three counties are the only ones in the state where bowmen are limited to antlered deer.

The announcement from the MBH said "the move, which would give bowmen an any-deer season throughout the entire state, has the full support of the department of conservation."

★ ★ ★

Prep Front

By BILL CORNWELL

The absolutely miserable football weather which prevailed throughout the state of Michigan on the night of Nov. 13—what prep gridder who played in it can ever forget it—brings up a very worthwhile question.

Why is it apparently considered taboo to postpone a football game? What's wrong or unreasonable about a mutual agreement for a postponement when weather conditions have turned the gridiron into a quagmire?

It's true that once in a great while a Michigan high school grid contest is called off. But this is indeed a rarity. By and large, the boys "wade" into action, come "—— or high water."

There seems to be an unwritten law — or tradition, if you prefer — that the game's the thing and the game must be played, even if the boys have to swim or paddle a canoe to make a touchdown.

Many games have been played in rain and still others in snow, but in lots of cases they pulled through the whole ordeal because the over-all weather situation was not as preposterous as this one.

On the night in question, the elements were 100 per cent against playing football long before the kickoff time. Long-time residents of the state claim it was the worst night for football they could remember.

Most fields were either a sea of mud or a veritable lake before the game ever started. Also, at most game sites, it rained or sleeted or snowed all during the action to make it even more ridiculous under foot. To top everything, it was cold.

The subject of postponing a football contest under such adverse conditions was raised by Arthur Hill coach Kurt Kampe recently at Flint when the Saginaw Valley coaches and sports writers assembled to pick the all-conference team.

Kampe personally favored postponement under these playing conditions and he was supported by a majority of the Valley coaches and writers, including Pontiac Central coach Jesse MacLeay and, of course, yours truly.

Altogether, six prep games were called off on the night under discussion, one of them being the Holly-Lake Orion outing in Oakland County, and this corner is convinced that on that particular evening they were the state's most sensible people.

A football takes funny bounces on a dry field and breaks often are major factors under normal weather conditions, let alone adding the miseries created on Nov. 13.

Under such abnormal playing conditions, luck becomes too important a factor to be a reliable, fair test of football. Postponement is certainly a sensible and reasonable course of action.

HOORAY FOR SKIPPERS!

Two former Waterford gridders, halfback Jim Ewer and fullback Milt Mielke, helped Bluffton College win its 4th straight Mid-Ohio League football title this fall. Both are freshmen at Bluffton, which now has won 20 consecutive games. Ewer and Mielke played for Dave Freeman at Waterford High.

Bruins Whip Hot Leafs, 6-3

By The Associated Press

The injury-riddled Boston Bruins have served notice to the rest of the National Hockey League that they're back on winning ways.

The Bruins trimmed the red-hot Toronto Maple Leafs 6-3 on home ice last night in the only game played. The victory only was Boston's second in 14 games while the Leafs went down to their fourth defeat in their last 16 games.

Boston, still without defenseman Fernie Flaman and winger Johnny Bucyk, scored four times in the opening period. Guy Gendron, Doug Mohns and Bronco Horvath sparked the Bruins.

Gendron and Mohns collected two goals apiece and Horvath picked up three assists. Horvath, the league's scoring leader, has accounted for 38 points on 21 goals and 17 assists.

Thurston Swim Win

Detroit Thurston, member of the North Suburban Swim League, won its third dual meet of the season in defeating Hazel Park, 63-33.

Thurston took seven events and set varsity records in the 50 yard freestyle with Bob Keller going 25:1 and in the 100 yard backstroke in 1:04.2 by Jim Treacy.

World Keg Champs Decided Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Today is payoff day in the World Invitational Bowling Tournament and it looks like a dog fight is shaping up for the finish of the nine-day $30,000 ten-pin marathon.

As the 16 men finalists start firing their final 16 games of the 64-game head-to-head competition, three of the country's top bowlers were closely bunched at the top.

Leading the pack after 48 games was Bill Golembiewski, 30-year-old member of the A.B.C. champions from Detroit. He held onto the top spot he had taken Wednesday although he lost four of his last eight games.

But his lead was mighty slim. And his closest competitors were a couple of seasoned pros, Ray Bluth and Don Carter, both of St. Louis.

Golembiewski's Petersen point total was 240.31 on the strength of 30½ games won and a total pinfall of 10,506. Bluth, a 31-year-old A. B. C. Masters champion, had 239.33 points with his 30 wins and 10,483 pinfall.

Carter, 1957 world champion and four times all-star titleholder, had 236.27 points. The 33-year-old Carter, runnerup in last year's world tourney, vaulted into third place after a poor start both in the qualifying rounds and in the first rounds of match play. He had won 27 of his first 48 games and has knocked down 10,477 pins.

Golembiewski and Bluth split their four-game series yesterday and each split their final two series. Meanwhile, Carter wound up his productive day by sweeping four games from George Howard of Detroit with a brilliant 944 series. Carter, who lost 7 of 8 games on opening day of match play, won 11 of 16 yesterday.

The tourney will be nationally televised tonight (9 p.m. CST NBC) replacing the regular Friday night boxing program.

Honors for yesterday's best individual scoring among the men bowlers went to Milt Molhusen of Tulsa, Okla., who ranks 10th in the standings. He shot the best individual game of 289 and a series of 964.

In the women's division, Donna Zimmerman, 26-year-old Akron, Ohio, office worker, moved into the head after 12 rounds of shooting. She replaced Olga Gloor of Chicago and led with 113.17 points to 112.39 for the Chicago housewife who has been in the lead since Tuesday.

Under the Petersen point system, a bowler gets one point for each game won plus one point for every 50 pins knocked down. He also gets one-half point if he out-totals his opponent while losing the majority of games. In ties, each bowler gets one-half point.

Buckeyes and Lucas Pass Acid Test

By United Press International

Jerry Lucas passed the acid test—and now there's no doubt that Ohio State will be in the running for the national basketball championship all the way.

The heralded 6-foot, 9-inch sophomore proved his ability in outdueling 6-foot, 10-inch, 270-pound Bob Nordmann Thursday night and leading Ohio State to an 81-74 victory over St. Louis. It was the fifth straight win for third-ranked Ohio State and the first loss for seventh-ranked St. Louis.

Lucas won his personal duel with the rival giant easily. He poured in 13 field goals and four free throws for 30 points while holding Nordmann to seven field goals and three free throws for 17. Nordmann did lead a Billiken drive late in the first half but went out the window when he later fouled out trying to guard Lucas.

Ohio State got off in front and piled up a 36-22 advantage midway through the first half before the Billikens rallied to cut the margin to 44-38 at the intermission. St. Louis also took a one-point lead twice early in the second half but Lucas and Larry Seigfried led a counterdrive that clinched matters for the Big Ten power.

Seigfried shared honors with Lucas by scoring 22 points while George Burkel had 20 and Pete McCaffery 18 for St. Louis.

Georgia Tech remained unbeaten with a 70-64 triumph over South Carolina, North Texas State shaded Hardin-Simmons, 92-89, Western Kentucky whipped Seton Hall, 78-69, Detroit romped over Iona College, 85-67, Vanderbilt topped Rice, 82-79, and Wake Forest beat Davidson, 90-55, in other top games.

Georgia Tech hit on 50 per cent of its shots to score its fifth straight win of the season and 12th in a row over a two-season span. Dave Kenton scored 21 points and Roger Kaiser had 17 for Georgia Tech while Art Whisnant tallied 23 for South Carolina.

Jim Mudd, a 6-7 forward who was second to Oscar Robertson in the Missouri Valley scoring race last season, scored 24 points in North Texas State's win but it wasn't until Darrell Reitzel netted two free throws in the final minute that the Texans sewed up the game. Joe Arden had 30 points for Hardin-Simmons to take game scoring honors.

Big Keg Program Sunday at Rochester

Rochester bowling fans will have an opportunity to see some top-notch performers in action and the Leader Dog School will benefit from a big keg program on tap for Hilltop Sunday at 9 p.m.

Outstanding men and women keglers from Hilltop and Rochester Lanes will face top teams from Detroit area leagues including the John F. Ivory group, Tony Texaco, Townsend Insurance and several others.

'Bar Medicine' for Foes of Druggists

Handing out "bad medicine" to their opponents were Lakeland Pharmacy which defeated Airport Speedway 79, 44-25, and Drayton Drugs over J & A, 79-20.

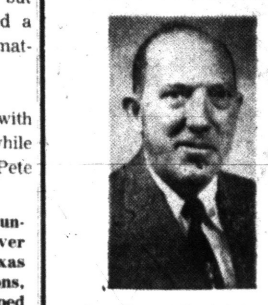

Stu Thorell had 10 to pace Lakeland. Mueller hit 20 for Drayton Drugs. Both games were played at Crary Junior High.

Fate of Lions' Coach May Be Decided Today

Club Executive Group to Meet This Afternoon

Position of Anderson Also Is Expected to Be Considered

DETROIT (AP) — The immediate fate of president - general manager Edwin J. Anderson and head coach George Wilson may be decide today.

The Executive Committee of the board of directors of the Detroit Football Co. meets in Detroit. Five of the six committee members will be on hand. Only absentee will be Ernest Kanzler, who is vacationing in Europe.

Attending the meeting will be Anderson, former president D. Lyle Fife, vice president William Downey, and directors John Stevenson and Spike Briggs.

Several directors have expressed dissatisfaction with the operation of the club under the Anderson regime. The president moved into full-time duties in the Lions' office in the summer of 1958.

The deterioration of the world championship teams has had some directors panicky, and ready to dump both Anderson and Wilson. Some of them felt they had enough support on the 13-member board of directors to bring about a complete change.

They are not so certain, now. These are the possibilities as the executive committee goes into session:

A. Anderson will come out with a vote of confidence and Wilson with a new, one-year contract.

B. Anderson will remain as president and Wilson will become general manager, leaving the head coaching job open for the time being.

C. Both Anderson and Wilson will be let out.

D. The directors, for the most part, have said nothing, or have spoken in Anderson's behalf, since the disclosure was made two weeks ago today that there is considerable unrest on the board.

Briggs, former owner of the Detroit Tigers, believes the only reason Anderson would leave the Lions would be to take over as commissioner of the National Football League. He spoke harshly at some of his colleagues when he said "they understand how to run their own companies but they don't know anything about running a sports organization — that's why they're criticizing Andy."

The executive committee's recommendation after today's meeting undoubtedly would get approval at a full board meeting, scheduled for a week from today.

Baltimore Can Clinch Western Title Tomorrow

Colts Favored by 10 at LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A favored Baltimore Colt football team arrives in town today, determined to whip the Los Angeles Rams tomorrow and escape any possible playoff for the Western Conference title of the National Footbal League.

The defending Colts are picked by as much as 10 points to inflict the 10th defeat of the season on the Rams in the final game for each in the regular NFL season.

It will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting System, with this area for 150 miles blacked out.

The Colts, with an 8-3 record, can gain clear title if they win. But if they lose—and the San Francisco 49ers win over Green Bay and the Chicago Bears take Detroit—there will be a three-way tie for the conference crown.

That means the Rams will have to contend with quarterback Johnny Unitas, halfback Lenny Moore, fullback Alan Ameche and such dangerous pass-catchers as Ray Berry and Jim Mutscheller.

Gillman still has absentees due to injuries, necessitating a reshuffling of his forces.

Les Richter again will be pressed into dual duty as offensive center and part-time linebacker, with rookie John Guzik spelling him at the latter position.

Lamar Lundy has been shifted back to defensive end, and veteran secondary men Don Burroughs and Will Sherman have been replaced by rookies Ed Meador and Tom Franckhauser.

"This Ram squad has not and will not quit," Richter declared. "The best thing we can do is concentrate on the Colts and then start looking forward to next year."

"The Rams are a good football team and can explode," Marchetti said, backing up Ewbank's remark: "We'd be stupid to think it will not be a tough game."

The Rams could remember one encouraging fact. The Colts were beaten last month by the Washington Redskins, who have won only two other games this season.

INDICTED — Vincent Vellella, 45, lawyer and head of the firm of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., was indicted by grand jury on perjury charges. He is alleged to have been a front for underworld figures in promotion of the Johansson-Patterson fight.

Arrest Tangles Ingo's Title Defense

Velella Held as Perjurer

NEW YORK (UPI) — A purported escape clause in the Ingemar Johansson - Floyd Patterson return bout contract today became a vital factor in plans for Johansson's defense of the world heavyweight championship.

Vincent J. Velella, the New York attorney who holds the return bout contract, was indicted yesterday on two counts of perjury arising from investigations of last June's Johansson-Patterson fight, in which Ingo won the title.

In the indictment handed down by the New York county grand jury, Velella was charged with testifying falsely before the New York State Athletic Commission on Sept. 15 and before the grand jury on Aug. 10.

Velella surrendered in the office of New York district attorney Frank Hogan and pleaded not guilty at his arraignment in general sessions. He was released on $1,000 bail.

Following Velella's arrest, Irving Kahn, a former associate in Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., revealed that he, Vellella and Johansson signed a document in Sweden in August providing for "the resignation of anyone convicted of a crime."

Kahn, president of Teleprompter, Inc., said that "as holder of ancillary rights (theater, TV, radio, etc.) to the return bout" he would "await the results of the Velella case with interest."

Edwin Ahlqvist, Johansson's advisor, announced at Goteborg, Sweden, that he is mailing a copy of the return bout agreement to district attorney Hogan.

"Ingemar wants to give Floyd the chance of a return bout," Ahlqvist said. "But if the Americans cannot clean up the situation quickly, then we will probably have to accept Jack Solomons' offer because Ingemar needs a fight in the near future."

Solomons, a British promoter, has offered Johansson 70,000 pounds ($196,000) to defend the title against British empire heavyweight champion Henry Cooper in London next May 31.

Fears Blasts Gillman

Ex-Ram Opposes Coach

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—Ask Tom Fears what's wrong with the Los Angeles Rams and he answers: "Sid Gillman."

The former great end, here to watch the Green Bay Packers prepare for their game with the 49ers in San Francisco Sunday, says:

"I realize that a guy doesn't make friends when he says just what he thinks but I've played with the Rams, I've always watched them and I've been close to players and former players.

"The first year Gillman coached us, we all thought he was a good coach. The second year, he changed completely. He became a tyrant.

"Now I realize a coach doesn't have to be a nice guy to have the respect of his players. Frank Leahy was a rough man at Notre Dame but his players respected him. Wally Butts is a tough guy at Georgia but he has respect. Gillman is tough but he doesn't have any respect. Why? Because his players don't trust him."

"He told Norm Van Brocklin and Tank Younger that he was counting on them and then he put 'em on the bench. He told Andy Robustelli he needed him and then he traded Andy away.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League announced today that Coach Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw has been rehired for the 1960 season.

The silver - haired 60-year-old Shaw said he was "indeed happy" to be asked to return. He made it clear, however, he would retire from the coaching profession at the end of the 1960 season. The former Notre Dame star lineman has been coaching since 1922.

NEW YORK (AP) — The University of Detroit, utilizing its speed and height to good advantage, overpowered Iona (NY) 85-67 in the opener of a college basketball doubleheader at Madison Square Garden last night.

Dave DeBusschere, a 6-5 sophomore, and 5-8 Ray Albee sparked Detroit with 24 and 20 points respectively. DeBusschere also snared 21 rebounds.

Southwest Conference May Extend Training

DALLAS (AP) — Faculty members of Southwest Conference schools will decide today whether to extend spring football training as suggested by conference athletic directors and coaches.

Coaches and athletic directors recommended at their winter meeting yesterday to extend spring training from 18 days to 20. The change would bring the conference in line with an NCAA rule which allows 20 training sessions in a 36-day period.

The group also suggested that no limit be placed on the number of athletic scholarships a school can give the coaches and athletic directors, however, said the number issued should be kept "within reasonable limits."

Easy Win for Tech

HOUGHTON (AP) — Michigan Tech scored an easy 71-41 victory last night over Northland College of Ashland, Wis., in a non-conference basketball game.

Soybeans Futures Sell Lower Again Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures sold sharply lower again today in early transactions on the board of trade but met good demand at the lower levels and the losses were reduced to fractions.

★ ★ ★

At the extreme, the May delivery was down two cents within the first few minutes. Other nearby months slipped about a cent. The pressure was described as a continuation of the liquidation which clipped four cents off most contracts shortly before the close yesterday.

The declines extended the losses in soybeans over the past five weeks to about 15 cents.

After about an hour wheat was ⅝ a bushel lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.95⅝; corn unchanged to ¼ lower, December $1.09½; oats ⅝ lower to ⅛ higher, December 76⅞; rye unchanged to ⅜ lower, December $1.29½, and soybeans ⅜ to ⅞ lower, January $2.14¾.

Motors Bright Spot in Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Motors were a bright spot in an irregularly lower stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point prevailed among most pivotal stocks.

Ford advanced well over a point, helped by Wall Street estimates of $11 to $12 a share earnings next year and by the eager acceptance of the recent 2,000,000-share offering of Ford stock from the Ford Foundation.

Steels, oils, rails, aircrafts and tobaccos were mostly lower. Drugs, building materials and mail order-retail stocks moved ahead on balance.

Investment trust buying was said to benefit some stocks, among them Dow Chemical which rose well over a point. Woolworth, ahead a fraction, continued to meet demand which Wall Streeters said was based on good figures for disposable income and hopes of a dividend hike.

American Motors, up about a point, and Chrysler, ahead more than a point, helped carry the banner in their group. General Motors and Studebaker-Packard did little.

Merck was off at the start as it weathered the blast of Washington headlines on the drug investigation then it steadied. Pfizer and Schering were narrowly ahead.

New York Central was up a bit following news of the cash dividend but other rails dropped. Oils were easy.

Steel Bargaining Cut Off at Impasse, Absence of McDonald

WASHINGTON (AP)—Steel labor talks have been sidetracked temporarily to let union negotiators try for an aluminum industry agreement. A contract there could influence the steel situation.

The government called off Thursday the steel talks it has been sponsoring. Director Joseph F. Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said the bargaining wasn't making any progress despite stepped-up efforts after President Eisenhower's latest appeal.

No time was fixed for their resumption. Asked whether it would be a matter of days or weeks, Finnegan replied "it won't be a matter of weeks, I'm sure."

Finnegan noted the Steelworkers Union recently concluded a labor peace pact with major can manufacturers, and are negotiating with the top aluminum producers — Alcoa, Reynolds and Kaiser.

Detroit Boots Itself From Old City Hall

DETROIT (UPI) — The City of Detroit was under orders from the city today to vacate the Old City Hall immediately for violations of the city building code.

An official said "They have been ordered time and again to comply with their own building code."

Michigan People Lose Two 'Gifts' to Sour Solon

LANSING (AP) — Two mock Christmas presents for the people of Michigan were missing today from their place under a Christmas tree put up in the House chamber.

Their disappearance was the work of Rep. Emil A. Peltz (R-Rogers City), who protested them as objects of "ridicule."

One of the gaily decorated "gifts" was labeled "Tax Package — 1959," the other "34,000,000 Proof," obviously referring to the amount of the Republican nuisance tax package.

★ ★ ★

After his demand for their removal was granted, Peltz posed for a photographer, first giving the heave-ho to one package and then stomping on it.

City Employes Plan Party for Children

Clowns, variety acts, a magic show and — of course — Santa Claus will highlight a two-hour long Christmas party planned tomorrow for the children and grandchildren of Pontiac city employes.

About 800 children and 500 parents and grandparents are expected at the party from 2-4 p.m. in the auditorium of Pontiac Northern High School.

The party — first of its kind in Pontiac — was planned by an employes' committee of 12, headed by Mary E. Knox of the electrical department and Ralph Florio of the sanitation department.

Quail Lures Solons

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — It wasn't said in floor debate, but Mississippi House Speaker Hilton Waits admitted the Legislature adjourned for a long weekend yesterday because "the quail season opened."

Repeal Non-Red Oath—Rocky

★ ★ ★

"I think the affidavit requirement should be repealed because it is ineffective as a weapon against subversion, offensive to the sensibilities of many loyal Americans, and . . . inimical to the success of a most important effort to improve educational opportunities in the United States," the governor said in a statement.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller, a potential candidate for the Republican nomination for president, said last month he felt that college students should be willing to take a loyalty oath if they wanted federal student loans. He reiterated today that the oath should be retained.

Famed Lawyer, 85, Dies in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Ganson Taggart, former Grand Rapids city attorney for 27 years and nationally recognized authority on municipal and utility rate laws, died at his home today. He was 85.

In the 1920s he won acclaim of municipal attorney in handling a series of rate cases involving street railway, electric, gas and telephone utilities. Taggart filed the records in the United States Supreme Court and the move was credited with great influence on establishment of valuations for rate purposes.

Hope, Arthur Murray Give $100,000 to Sight

NEW YORK — Bob Hope listened and Arthur Murray adlibbed—there was a switch—and then Arthur Murray's Adam's apple did a cha-cha-cha.

WILSON

They were talking money. A blind girl, Mildred Weisenfeld—head of "Fight for Sight" (the National Council to Combat Blindness)—had told Bob of the need for money for research. Bob said he might go on Murray's show and turn the fee over to the fund.

"I'll guarantee $50,000," Murray said. "We'll do a 'roast BobHope,'razz-typeshow."

"Make it $100,000!" replied Hope.

"A hundred grand!" Murray's Adam's apple was definitely Charlestoning. "If I could make enough tape for you to do two shows . . . " Murray looked across the table and said further: "Katherine would hardly believe it when I said I was having lunch with Bob Hope."

HOPE

They talked on. Finally Arthur Murray said, "O.K., $100,000!" Hope said, "You've got a deal!"

The special Bob Hope roast, to be done two successive weeks on the Arthur Murray show, probably in March, will celebrate Hope's 10th year in TV.

The $100,000 fee has never been topped and only once equaled in TV. The guy who equaled it was—Bob Hope, in a show for General Motors.

It's nice to write about the deal this week, because Sunday night we have our annual "Lights On" show at Carnegie Hall for "Fight for Sight"—Jule Styne producing, Norman Jewison directing, with Phil Silvers, Alan King and Jack Carter among the m.c.'s—and about everybody worthwhile performing.

TV Pace Slows

7 Days, 5 Specials

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Following the feast of specials last week, viewers will have to settle for a mere five of them during the next seven days. Plus appearances by such stars as Maurice Evans, Sir John Gielgud, Helen Hayes, James Stewart and Kate Smith.

To tackle the upcoming programs chronologically, there is the Bob Hope Show tonight (NBC, 8:30-9:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) with funnyman Ernie Kovacs and Janis Paige as guests. CBS, in the conflicting Desilu Playhouse (9-10 p.m.) has one of those murder-on-the-train whodunits, and at 10 p.m. on NBC there are the finals of the bowling championships from Chicago.

On Sunday Harry S. Truman will be a guest on CBS' "The U.N. in Action" (11 a.m.) and at 3 p.m. ABC will present a drama starring Mildred Dunnock which commemorates the 11th anniversary of the U.N. Declaration of Human Rights. Conquest (CBS, 5 p.m.) takes up hypnosis and at 6 p.m. again presents Judy Garland in "The Wizard of Oz."

NBC's Sunday Showcase (8-9 p.m.) is a drama about the late Sen. Thomas Gore of Oklahoma, by his grandson, Gore Vidal. And at 8:30 p.m. ABC presents Frank Sinatra in his second special of the season. Roy Rogers and Dale Evans once again fill in for Dinah Shore (NBC, 9-10 p.m.) with a folksy show called "State Fair, U.S.A."

Steve Allen plays host to wife Jayne Meadows and to Vic Damone Monday evening (10-11 p.m.) and the CBS June Allyson Show (10:30 p.m.) stars Barry Sullivan in a drama called "The Crossing." The high moments of Tuesday night promise to occur during "Cindy's Fella," on NBC, 9:30-10:30 p.m.—a Western version of Cinderella with two Prince Charmings, James Stewart and George Gobel.

CBS's daytime "Woman" special (4-5 p.m.) on Wednesday explores the statement "You Can't Raise Children by the Book," and will produce the book's author, Dr. Benjamin Spock himself. Perry Como on NBC that night (9-10 p.m.) will have Maurice Evans reading Shakespeare. Helen Hayes and Patty Duke will star in the Steel Hour's production of "One Red Rose for Christmas," (CBS, 10-11 p.m.).

On Thursday night, Kate Smith will be a guest on the Ernie Ford Show (NBC, 9:30 p.m.) and Sir John Gielgud will join Benny Goodman, Peggy Lee, Carol Channing and others at CBS' "The Big Party (9:30-11 p.m.)

Belafonte Shows Why All Are Pulled by His Magic

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (AP) — The art of Harry Belafonte, as it now is called, occupies a unique role in show business.

Whether it's an outdoor stadium, the Waldorf-Astoria or a simpatico espresso joint in Rome, he packs 'em in.

Last night's hour-long CBS-TV special "Tonight With Belafonte," demonstrated why. Each number was carefully polished to a rich finish. The hour offered — more simplicity, less affection, more power and even passion.

There was no preaching; no bouts with Hebrew, Spanish, Italian, calypso or jazz tunes, however interesting and colorful they might be.

And this diet was seasoned with rousing choral and dance numbers. Belafonte also introduced to network TV audiences the little-known folk singer, Odetta. Today this woman must be regarded as a star.

The mood of the show was a dynamic one as Belafonte and his hand-picked production aides — Director Norman Jewison, choreographer Walter Nicks, set designer Gary Smith, set director Ted Ralph and lighting director Stan Alper — joined to provide clean, imaginative backgrounds for the up-beat and down-beat songs.

I suppose you can call it a "message musical," in its way. I got the message.

"Of all the missed chances of the war, this one probably was the most tragic and the most inexcusable," wrote Civil War historian Bruce Catton of the so-called "Crater Fiasco" of July 1864.

Playhouse 90 on CBS-TV presented the story of this fiasco in a vivid drama by David Shaw, "The Tunnel."

The teleplay included in one way or another every known aspect of this intriguing attempt to breach confederate lines before Petersburgh, Va., by exploding dynamite in a mine underneath them.

Technically speaking, the trench scenes and the final agonies in the crater were television triumphs. They seemed to come right out of the Matthew Brady pictures, thanks to Delbert Mann's direction.

The only reservation I have is that Richard Boone and Rip Torn, the stars of the show, became too talky during that extraordinary climactic scene.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Charles Laughton and French singer-actor Yves Montand join NBC-TV's Dinah Shore Show on Sunday, Dec. 20 . . . Leland Hayward's CBS-TV special, The Fabulous Fifties, with Tex Harrison, Jackie Gleason, Henry Fonda and other "really big stars," has been lengthened to a full two hours, instead of 90 minutes. The show is scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 31.

Plant 13 Million Trees in Michigan This Fall

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's state forests received their largest planting in history this fall when 13,035,800 trees were planted on 17,040 acres.

Most of the plantings were red pine, with lesser amounts of white and jack pine. The project involved seven forests in the Upper Peninsula and 11 in the northern Lower Peninsula.

Fenton-Clio Xway Will Extend to M59

LANSING (AP) — A 10.9-mile section of U.S. 23 in Livingston County will be opened to traffic Monday, the State Highway Department reported today.

A new roadway will carry northbound traffic while the existing roadway will carry southbound traffic.
