Fisher Body Strike Halts Pontiac Line

4,300 Walk Out as Negotiations Pass Deadline

Pontiac Motor Output Halted at 10 A.M. by Shortage of Bodies

A strike of 4,300 workers at the Fisher Body Division plant here has threatened to idle an additional 12,000 Pontiac Motor Division workers if the strike continues.

Some 2,500 hourly workers on the second shift yesterday afternoon walked off the job shortly before 5 p. m. after a five-day bargaining session between management and union officials failed to solve union grievances.

A union spokesman this morning said no workers, other than 800 salaried employes, have attempted to enter the Baldwin avenue plant.

A Pontiac Motor Division spokesman said 2,200 workers were sent home at 10 a.m. today when the plant's automobile body supply was exhausted.

"Other operations will be affected within the next few days, and if the strike continues eventually all manufacturing will come to a halt," he said.

MAKING 800 DAILY

Pontiac Motor was turning out 800 cars a day, he added.

Management and union officials have scheduled a 1:30 meeting today in a continued attempt to solve the grievances.

Harold A. Grant, president of Fisher Body Local 596 UAW, charged management with speeded up production schedules and taking away privileges formerly granted to workers.

An official of the Fisher Body Division in Detroit said union members refused to grant a strike deadline extension when requested by management yesterday. "We felt that we were making progress at the meeting, so we asked for an extension so that the different points could be defined," he said.

A handful of pickets carrying signs began forming at 4:30 across from the plant.

The exit of Grant from the bargaining sessions signaled the formation of picket lines which swelled when the afternoon shift workers filed from the plant.

Grievances listed by union officials included the alleged elimina-

Workers charged speeded-up production schedules and other grievances for the mass walkout which has idled some 4,300 hourly workers.

Soviet Troops Try to Isolate Hungary Capital

Ring Budapest in Effort to Cut Communications Between Strikers

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

VIENNA—A ring of Soviet tanks and troops encircled Budapest today in an effort to isolate the Hungarian capital from the rest of the strike-paralyzed nation.

All communications between Budapest and the rest of Hungary have been cut in an attempt to prevent the circulation of strike orders from the outlawed Central Workers' Council which now is operating underground.

Refugees said all train service had stopped within Hungary.

Approximately 90 per cent of the nation appeared to be taking part in the work stoppage that was called to protest the outlawing of the workers' councils and arrests of labor leaders.

Word arrived in the West of many isolated clashes between striking workers and Russian soldiers.

But so far there was no repetition of the bloodbath with which Soviet troops and tanks beat back the armed Hungarian revolt Nov. 4.

Premier Janos Kadar sent his security police and Soviet occupation troops to break up workers' demonstrations. The puppet Premier vowed that, having defeated his foes militarily, "we will also defeat them politically."

* * *

Soviet troops were reported moving to wipe out a band of rebel guerrillas holding out in the hills northwest of Budapest. Informed Hungarian sources said the freedom fighters were encircled but fighting to escape extinction.

The general strike, ordered to last until midnight tonight, brought industry and commerce almost to a standstill on its first day. A Yugoslav correspondent reported from Budapest that at least 80 per cent of Hungary's workers obeyed the cease work order from the outlawed Central Workers' Council. Other dispatches said the work stoppage was nearly 100 per cent effective in the provinces.

Despite martial law and the arrest of some labor leaders, workers stayed away from their jobs yesterday by the hundreds of thousands.

Debris Spotted on Sumas Peak in West Canada

Fog, Dark Stall Search for Plane Lost Sunday With 62 Aboard

VANCOUVER, B.C. (INS)—The Royal Canadian Air Force said early today it had received a report that the wreckage of a plane, believed to be that of a Trans-Canada airliner which disappeared Sunday night with 62 persons aboard, has been spotted on a snow-covered mountain 55 miles east of Vancouver.

RCAF officials said two men and a boy told of seeing the wreckage, which included "what appeared to be portions of an airplane's tail assembly" on Sumas Mountain, 10 miles west of Chilliwack, B. C.

A plane was to be sent at dawn, "weather permitting," to fly over the mountain in an attempt to confirm the report.

The wreckage was first spotted by the boy, who was not identified, shortly before dusk last night. He told two men who scanned the peak with field glasses.

The men said they saw what looked like plane wreckage at about the 3,000-foot level of the peak.

Their findings were relayed to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Chilliwack, but darkness closed in before further investigations could be made.

Plans for organizing an immediate ground party to search the mountain were abandoned because of heavy fog conditions in the area.

The latest report by the two men and the boy bore out earlier reports by a Canadian Army man, a hunter and numerous residents in the Chilliwack region, all of whom told of seeing a huge flash of fire reflected from low-hanging clouds Sunday night.

Yesterday, 54 planes participated in the search for the airliner, which vanished Sunday night after radioing it was turning back to Vancouver because of a possible fire in one engine.

The air search, which will be resumed today, is the greatest in Canadian history.

Ziegler to Retire Next July

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler today said he will not run for re-election in the spring.

Ziegler, 69, said he would spend the time after July 1, 1957, with his family and fishing—"two pleasures which have been neglected by devotion to my job."

In a two-page statement, Ziegler said:

"As state highway commissioner since April, 1943, I have extended the highway revenues made available to me in accordance with the law, judiciously, economically, and with fairness to the people in all parts of the state . . .

"I have never built a political road, nor made a promise I did not keep," the Republican highway commissioner said.

* * *

Ziegler said he does not want the people of the state "to be misled by non-factual utterances of the governor and his political henchmen who know nothing about highway construction."

'DID GOOD JOB'

During the years when highway funds were "pitifully inadequate," the highway department did "an outstanding job to preserve our highway system."

* * *

Ziegler said Michigan is now rated by the federal government among the top five states in the nation in the progress it is making under the accelerated national highway program.

Noting that he had been severely criticized by Gov. Williams for eight years, Zeigler called the governor "a power-hungry Democrat who is unsatisfied with having secured complete control of nearly every one of the state's more than 100 bureaus, commissions and agencies.

"He now wants to take over con-

GEORGE K. ZIMMERMAN

Elect President of Trade Group

Zimmerman Is Picked to Head Manufacturers Association in 1957

At the annual meeting of the Pontiac Manufacturers Assn. held last night at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, George K. Zimmerman, vice president of the Pontiac Varnish Co., was elected president of the group for 1957.

Other officers elected were Philip J. Monaghan, General Motors vice president and general manager of GMC Truck and Coach Division, vice president; Thomas Mair, office manager of the Jig Bushing Co., treasurer; and James F. Spence, secretary-manager of the association.

The members elected the following to the Board of Directors to serve 1957-58 terms: Semon E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and general manager of the Pontiac Motor Division; L. Karkau, district manager of Consumers Power Co., and M. D. McLintock, president of Baldwin Rubber Co.

The three will serve along with Zimmerman, Monaghan, and R. K. Dostal, president of the Dostal Foundry and Machine Co., whose directorships expire at the end of 1957.

'I Hate People,' He Says

Slayer Claims He Killed 11, Had His Sights Set on 16

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Alameda County sheriff's officers today renewed their questioning of toothless Stephen Nash, self-styled "rotten, cold-hearted" killer.

Yesterday he told authorities they "hadn't scratched the surface" in investigating five killings he had confessed . . . and promptly confessed six more.

He said four of the six killings were in Los Angeles, one here and one in Sacramento, Calif.

Today's search will try to locate the lake in which Nash said he dumped the body of a Mexican boy. He said the youth tried to rob him.

"We don't know whether to believe him or not," said Sheriff's Capt. Frank Madigan, "but we know he's killed five. I don't know why it might not be eleven."

Nash said, "I had my sights set on 16."

The ex-convict was arrested in Los Angeles last week after the fiendish slaying of two boys there.

Monday, in San Francisco, after leading officers to the place one of his victims was dumped in the bay, Nash proclaimed:

"I hate people. I'm as rotten as they make them."

San Francisco Police Lt. Al Nelder said "he's completely animalistic and callous."

Daddy Will Wait Till Next Year for New Slippers

FONTANA, Calif. (AP) — Susie's daddy says he'll be very glad to wait another year for his Christmas slippers.

* * *

Charles Molnar, Hungarian-born merchant here, reported that Susie, 8, brought him $4.75 she had saved for her father's gift. The child wanted the money to go toward Hungarian relief, said Molnar.

Susie's father, who requested that her last name be withheld, told Molnar that, after hearing about Hungary's plight, Susie asked him:

"Do you think, Daddy, that your old slippers might last another year? I was planning to buy you a new pair for Christmas with money I've saved in my piggy bank."

Errant Forecaster Vows Snow Tonight

Pontiac area residents are relieved that the mercury did not plunge to the weatherman's nippy 11-15 low, forecast for last night.

Preceding 8 a.m. this morning the lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac was 22 degrees.

Tonight's prediction is possible heavy snow with a low of 21-25.

Tomorrow's high will be 24-28 degrees.

At 2 p.m. today the mercury registered 23.

Only 13 Paper Precincts Left

Pontiac Township to Join Voting Machines Areas

With the decision of the Pontiac Township board to rent nine voting machines, the last major paper ballot area in the county has been eliminated.

There are now only 13 paper ballot precincts remaining in Oakland County, out of 249 precincts.

Township clerk Greta V. Block explained that registration in the township's six precincts has risen from 3,100 in 1952 to about 3,800 in the Nov. 6 general election.

"The rise in registered voters is one reason for the change," she said, "but also, paper ballots are out of date. In the last election, it was about 6 a.m. before I could turn in my results to the county clerk."

Pontiac Township was one of the last units to have results ready.

The machines, which were rented for a year with an option to buy at the end of the lease, will be used first in the spring primaries, she said.

Paper ballot areas now include Lyon, Groveland, Brandon and Addison townships, with the villages of South Lyon, Leonard and Ortonville, the city of Bloomfield Hills, one precinct in Troy Township and one in Northville, and two in Royal Oak Township.

Three Bodies Found at Erie Crash Site

The bodies of three of five Michigan residents, one of them a 34-year-old Royal Oak man, have been recovered near the scene of a private plane crash in Lake Erie last Saturday.

The bodies of Wesley H. Hopp, 320 Sunnybrook Dr., Royal Oak, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael McFadden, of Grosse Pointe, were washed ashore along a rocky beach a short distance from the scene of the crash near Port Maitland, Ont.

Still missing are the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kurtz, also of Grosse Pointe. High winds continued to hamper salvage workers attempting to raise the wreckage of the twin-engine craft from about 12 feet of water near shore.

The plane, owned by the Peninsula Steel Corp. of Detroit, for which Kurtz was a vice president, was en route from New York to Detroit at the time of the accident.

Want Mystery and Allure?

Rare Gifts Are Delightful

By JANET ODELL

It's time we got around to the ladies. Maybe, like Mr. Baxter of book and TV fame, you and your wife have decided to give each other a piece of household furniture for Christmas. And maybe like Mr. Baxter, you're going to break your agreement and buy some fancy doodads to put under the tree.

Perfume by all means! Does she have a favorite scent? If she does, do you know what it is? Well, if you can't remember, get her one of the new perfumes. One called Primitif suggests mystery and allure. On the other hand, you're usually safe buying a clean-smelling cologne. She'll use it in summer if at no other time.

Washable pigskin gloves are welcomed by any woman. They come in white and all the beige and tan shades. Keep your sales slip. Maybe you didn't guess the right size. Or are you the efficient shopper who knows what size his wife wears? You're one in a million.

We saw some beautiful black satin evening bags in one store. Their only decoration was a simple band of rhinestones across the top. Remember also that a fine leather handbag will please a woman; she'll like it even better with money in it.

For the slim-waisted there are handsome copper belts. An extra top grain leather belt to wear with skirts and blouses is a gift that will last for years. We also saw gold stretchy belts and dressy velvet ones.

Does she do her hair at home? Pamper her and buy her a hair dryer, one that has controlled heat. She'll be delighted at having such luxury all to herself.

If a number of evening parties are on your calendar for the holiday season and most of the winter, a velvet evening coat with gold kid collar will be the perfect gift. Your fair lady will feel glamorous without a mink stole.

To continue along the same line: a lace skirt and sleeveless blouse may be just the outfit she's set her heart on for this year's parties. Under that velvet coat it will look sumptuous.

You'll have to hunt up the filmy negligees and black satin underwear for yourself. But we might suggest a silver and black fame-type petticoat trimmed in silver.

Good Samaritan Killed by Auto

Stops Car to Remove Boxes From Street—Is Struck Down

A "Good Samaritan" act cost a Detroit man his life Tuesday when he was struck and fatally injured by a car while attempting to pick up two boxes laying on a Novi Township highway.

George B. Asher, 56, died at Detroit Receiving Hospital three hours after the incident on US-16 near Coachenfour.

Ralph W. Reiseck, 19, of Rockaway, N.Y., a Michigan State University student, driver of the car, was released after making a statement.

He told Novi Township police he did not see the man until he was within 20 feet of him. Reisick said he braked his car but could not avoid hitting Absher.

Investigators said Absher, a deliveryman for a Detroit firm, was returning to the city last night when he saw the boxes on the road. He parked and walked over to the boxes and had just picked them up when the Reisick car came over a slight rise east of the boxes and crashed into him.

The boxes Absher was attempting to remove from the highway had apparently fallen from another truck, police said. They contained a corn popper and a frying pan top.

Downtown Store Plans to Expand

Lion First City Shop to Lease Branch Site in New Center

Officials of the Lion Store, 51 S. Saginaw, have revealed plans to lease a store site in the $35 million Michigan Miracle Mile Shopping Center under construction at Telegraph and Square Lake Roads in Bloomfield Township.

Containing 12,000 square feet of floor space, the second Lion store will be 20 per cent larger than the downtown store. The present store will continue to operate as it has for the past 36 years.

The new branch is expected to open by the fall of 1957. Ground was broken for the center in September.

"Due to the growth of the Lion Store, we feel we can best serve our customers by expansion," president Irving Steinman said.

* * *

Negotiations were completed by Alvin B. Steinman, vice president and general manager.

Don't Get Stuck With Glueless Postage Stamps

Bought any stamps lately?

If you have, take another look at them.

Post offices throughout Michigan have been flooded with shipments of stamps with faulty glue on the back. And they've been getting complaints from people whose letters—and Christmas cards—have been returning to them after the stamps have fallen off in mailboxes.

* * *

Pontiac postmaster Leslie H. Dean said today the Pontiac office received "a few, but apparently not very many" of the faulty stamps.

Dean said some complaints have been received from area residents, but he thinks "most of the bad stamps have been found already."

But he warned residents who have bought the stamps to return them to the Post Office, where they can be exchanged for sticky ones.

Police to Vote on Trial Board

Officers Meet to Decide If Disciplinary System Will Be Replaced

The Pontiac Police Officers Assn. will decide tonight whether to seek civil service to replace the present trial board authority.

Officers will vote at a meeting at 8 p. m. at the Bemis-Olsen Amvets post 113, President Herbert C. Cooley said.

The vote will decide whether officers will seek to place several proposals on the April ballot which would make the change.

These include an amendment to the City Charter section which sets up the trial board and an ordinance uniting police and firemen under state civil service laws.

* * *

Pontiac firemen have been under civil service the past 15 years.

Officers' criticism has been refuted by the trial board. The policemen have claimed Police Chief Herbert W. Straley exercises undue influence over the present board.

They say the board has no fixed procedure for hearing trials and disciplining.

Board members in a recent statement denied both these criticisms and also the officers' claim the board refused to meet with them to discuss police proposals.

The trial board was increased at the November election from five members to the present seven members. R. Verne Todd is the board chairman.

Attempt to Cut Off Hungarian Capital

Budapests big factories were closed. The sound of cannon and machine-gun fire could be heard in the capital. It appeared to come from the vicinity of Gellert Hill, whose historic citadel the Red army is using as a base for tanks and artillery.

Refugees predicted that the next phase of the people's revolt against Kadar will be a work slowdown that will start immediately after the general strike ends.

An increasingly big question among all Hungarians, according to refugee reports, is when will the United Nations do something to aid them.

CHARGES SPEED UP

William McAulay, regional director of Region 1B UAW, charged management "with the worse speed up production ever experienced at the plant."

He further charged that while negotiations were being held for a month in an attempt to solve the grievances, "top company officials didn't appear on the scene until late Tuesday afternoon."

* * *

When asked to comment on the charges of the union, a spokesman of the Fisher Body Division said: "The proper place to discuss these differences is at the bargaining table."

Members of Local 596 voted last month to strike the plant. Authorization from the International UAW was received, Grant said.

A management spokesman described the Fisher plant as "the sole source of bodies for the Pontiac Division's main plant."

The Pontiac Police Dept. closed 13 establishments in the vicinity of the plant which sold beer or liquor, under a Michigan State Liquor Control Commission ruling.

In Case More Satellites Revolt . . .

NATO Defense Planned

PARIS (AP)— Political leaders of the Atlantic Alliance today continue discussion of the challenge to their defense strategy that would result if more Soviet satellites follow Hungary in revolt against Moscow's domination.

* * *

West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano, leading off the second day's speeches at the North Atlantic Treaty Council's crucial current session, was expected to warn of acute danger should rebellion break out in East Germany thereby generating pressure in West Germany for Western aid to the rebels.

The ministers met under the tightest security blackout ever seen at NATO headquarters.

The rift between Britain and France and the United States over the Egyptian invasion appeared to be virtually patched as a result of private talks Dulles had with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau before the council session got under way. They conferred again last night.

Western diplomats say Britain and France are seeking an early meeting with Egypt to settle the Suez Canal controversy.

The two Western powers were said to have indicated clearly at the current NATO meeting here that they now will accept less than full international control of the waterway.

trol of the State Highway Department and make of it another political tool," Zeigler said. "He has never seriously indicated a desire to develop a sound highway program for the benefit of the people."

* * *

Ziegler added:

"Under my administration the politics which permeated the department when I took it over after years of operation by the Democrats were cleared out, and I have confidence that the people will want it kept that way—that they won't be hoodwinked by phoney issues fabricated by the governor."

IN OFFICE SINCE 1943

Ziegler was elected to his first term in 1943 and reelcted in 1945, 1949 and 1953.

He first joined the department in 1919 as an assistant division engineer and served in various engineering capacities until his appointment as deputy state highway commissioner in 1930.

Between 1933 and 1943, Ziegler was employed as an engineer on building construction projects at Michigan State University.

Ziegler was one of the chief opponents of toll roads in Michigan Although he claimed he had nothing against toll roads in principle, he continually asserted that he was committed to the building of freeways.

* * *

His retirement leaves the field open for a Republican candidate for the job, which will be filled at the April 1 election.

Most prominently mentioned as a possible GOP candidate is George M. Foster, deputy state highway commissioner.

Unable to Explain Cause of Accident

Lorne L. Hemelberg, 30, of 960 Dutton St., Rochester, is in "fair" condition at Pontiac General Hospital today with cuts and bruises received yesterday when his car went off the road and struck a tree in Avon Township.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies reported the man was unable to explain how the accident happened due to his injuries.

New Violence Seen in Poland

Eighty-Eight Persons Jailed for Rioting on Soviet Consulate

WARSAW (AP)—New antigovernment violence was reported in Poland today in the wake of the mob attack on the Soviet consulate at Stettin. Eighty-eight persons, many of them youths, were reported jailed for the Stettin riot.

Trybuna Ludu, official organ of the Polish United Workers (Communist) party, disclosed a crowd attacked a police building in Olecko, a town near the northeastern city of Bialystok.

* * *

The Communist paper reported that crowds demolished municipal offices at Nowy Ciechocinek in the northern midlands.

Other demonstrators beat up a local Communist party secretary at Nieszawa, in the same district.

The paper added: "More such incidents can be reported."

Poland's nationalist Communist government, seeking to avert any repetition of the Soviet military intervention in Hungary, sped an apology to the Soviets for the attack on the Russian consulate in the outburst at Stettin (Szczecin) Monday night.

* * *

Newspapers which first played down the riots as drunken hooliganism reported that the demonstrators attacked police headquarters and the local prosecutor's office and tried to break open the jail.

Brides Still Sold in Rural Areas of Red China

HONG KONG (INS) — In Communist China you can still buy a wife for cash in the rural areas.

Marriages continue to be arranged by parents, go-betweens and match-makers, as in the days before the Communist regime was set up.

Peiping's new marriage law of 1953 forbids all this. But traditions die hard. And, in areas where there is a shortage of women, the prospective bridegroom has to pay heavily or remain a bachelor to the end of his days.

Feng Yu-Ching, correspondent of China Youth, a Peiping publication, who recently toured the northwest provience of Shensi, reported that the marriage law has not been enforced in the province. He said:

* * *

"Neither the women's association and the youth league, nor the courts, party branches and people's councils bother much about it."

He added that 90 per cent of marriages in two districts had been arranged by parents on a "cash and carry basis."

Marriageable girls, he said, are handled like commodities sold to the highest bidders.

Here are some of his other findings:

"In one village in Chi Shan county, 12 girls were sold during 1954-55. Five changed ownership twice.

"The village chief bought his son a wife with money he earned from selling a cow and two huts. In another village in Cheng Ku county, a lass named Tuen, had 11 suitors lined up by her mother. Four of them had bought some clothing and other articles from her family apparently to get into the good graces of the parents). In another village in Chi Shan county, a girl was offered for sale twice."

* * *

"In a village in Shang county, a couple was deeply in love. The girl's parents demanded a gift of money. The boy could only produce part of the requested amount which was rejected and the girl was forcibly sold to an older and better-off man.

"An old village in Pu Ping county sold his divorced daughter for a good coffin (for himself in preparation for death). The deal, however, was called off when the coffin was found to be of inferior quality."

MRS. CLAYTON QUACKENBUSH

Evangelist Dies in Car Accident

Pastor's Funeral Service Is Scheduled for Friday in Local Church

Mrs. Clayton (Emma Underwood) Quackenbush, evangelist and pastor in the conference of Assembly of God churches, was killed in an automobile accident near Kenosha, Wis. Monday. She was 67.

For the last 18 years, Mrs. Quackenbush had been active in church work here and throughout the state. For three years, she was minister of an Assembly of God Church in Troy. Later she pastored a church in Constantine.

In recent years, she did evangelistic work in various communities. She was ordained to the ministry at Riverside Tabernacle in Flint 10 years ago.

Mrs. Quackenbush was born on July 15, 1889, in Woods Hole, Mass. to James and Martha A. Hudson Cook. She had lived in Pontiac since 1927, coming here from Iowa.

She leaves six children, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Baker of Williams Lake with whom she made her home, Helen Louise Underwood of Erie, Pa.; James Underwood of Richland, Wash.; Robert and George Underwood, both of Williams Lake; and Martha Underwood, a missionary to the Belgian Congo.

A sister, Mrs. Mary Swift, is living in Falmouth, Mass.

Service will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday from the First Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Wesley Wibley, her pastor officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

It was the wish of Mrs. Quackenbush that in lieu of flowers contributions be sent, as a memorial fund for missions, to Martha Underwood, Assembly of God Missions, Betongwe, Parpaulis Congo Belge, Africa.

Friends may call at the Huntoon Funeral Home after 6 o'clock this evening.

Raiders Harass North Ireland

Armed Bands Appear With Dynamite, Guns, in Five Counties

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—Raiders wielding dynamite and submachineguns ranged through Northern Ireland (Ulster) for hours early today in what police described as a "night of terror by the Irish Republican Army."

The armed bands, appearing in five of Ulster's six counties, blew up a radio station and two buildings, set fire to a courthouse, fought two pitched battles with the Royal Ulster constabulary and tried to capture a British military barracks.

One policeman was wounded and five men arrested.

A spokesman for the constabulary said most of the raiders escaped south over the border into the Irish Republic.

The Day in Birmingham

City Starts Legislation to Legalize Tree Sales

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners have set the wheels in motion to have proper legislation covering Christmas tree sales within the city.

City Manager Harold K. Schone has pointed out that all are in violation of an ordinance which prohibits outside storage of wares. Others are using land which is in another zone classification.

Since commissioners believe the sale of trees to be a worthy cause, used mainly as a fund raising feature by service clubs, they have expressed a desire to cooperate to the fullest.

An amendment to the present ordinance will be formed before next Christmas, to make provisions for the legal sale of trees, after the regular vendor's license has been obtained.

Joint Committee Needed for Highway Planning

Recent reports indicate that highway planning for Oakland County is without unified cooperation of all parties involved.

Apparently we have three routes for the proposed north-south highway and its relation to Pontiac. The most recent one would cut through Pontiac between Williams and the Grand Trunk railroad tracks. Another would run along the west edge of town, and still a third would skirt the city on the east side.

Oakland County and Pontiac both need highways. This point we are all agreed upon. But where they should run is the question to be solved.

It would appear that people trained in highway and traffic engineering should make the study and decide on the site. But in order to do this, joint cooperation is needed.

Since the highway will run through both the county and the city, it would seem that a joint commission representing both areas should work on a proposed site.

The county would then make recommendations for the portion of the road in their area and the city would be responsible to work out the route through Pontiac.

Working jointly on highway plans involving two distinct areas would seem the logical approach to a mutual problem. The two areas affected would then come up with a more or less master plan which had tentatively been agreed upon by both parties.

★ ★ ★

Progress toward a mutually agreeable route is the ultimate goal and without complete cooperation by both planning boards, continued delays can be expected.

Driver Training Law Deadline February 1

There'll be no extension of the February 1 deadline when passage of a driver education course becomes a requirement for driver licenses to those under 18 years of age.

This decision was made at a meeting of a special committee on the State-subsidized driver education program. Sen. Harry M. Ryan, Detroit Democrat, had proposed a one year extension.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clair L. Taylor, says that "educators are confident they have the facilities to give training to every youth who wants it . . . any postponement of the deadline would be futile."

Another proposal by Sen. Ryan that temporary driving permits for students enrolled in training courses be eliminated, was accepted. This provision had caused confusion.

Driver education is open to 66,000 youths this year, twice as many as last spring. Though the courses are given in public schools, they also are open to parochial students and youths not attending school. This training does not entitle teenagers to licenses. They must pass the usual written and road tests.

All this is part of the State's safety program and a very good one as statistics have proved. No one can be too carefully prepared for the responsibility of handling a car.

Government Jobs Open to All

A Presidential Committee on Government Employment Policy has reported that 23.4 per cent of the federal employes in five major cities, including the nation's capital, are of the Negro race.

Cities surveyed were Washington, Chicago, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Mobile.

The ratio of Negroes to the total U. S. population is about 11 per cent.

★ ★ ★

Committee Chairman Maxwell Abbell points out two significant conclusions drawn from the survey:

First — Negroes are employed by the Federal Government well above their ratio to the total population; and Second—They are by no means confined to menial jobs or to lower grades of the civil service pay scale.

The survey shows that 5 per of the Negroes in federal employment are in supervisory jobs with administrative direction over other employes. Fifteen per cent are in jobs in the higher paid brackets of the civil service range.

★ ★ ★

The findings should put an end to any propoganda that our own government discriminates against minority groups. In fact, the figures hint that kindly Uncle Sam may have leaned a little backward to be on the fair side.

Russian Roulette as the Russians Play It

David Lawrence Says:

Staff Changes Don't Affect Policy

WASHINGTON — The illusion that, by changing the top personnel in the Department of State, the foreign policy of the United States can be changed has lately been spread throughout this country and Europe. It is an implication that President Eisenhower doesn't know his own mind and that he affixes a rubber stamp on his subordinates' recommendations without really knowing what he is doing.

Some of those who cherish such illusions profess to be friends of the President and don't realize the mischief they are creating. In reality, they are unconsciously building the fires of friction which can wreck the second administration of Mr. Eisenhower.

For the Republican Party is greatly in need of harmony. The Democrats are for the most part talking harmony and bipartisanship in foreign policy. There are, however, saboteurs who have started a "left wing" versus "right wing" controversy over policy in the State Department which, unless nipped in the bud now, can only spell trouble on Capitol Hill inside both parties.

Already the national capital is buzzing with rumors as to why Herbert Hoover Jr. resigned as undersecretary of state. There are intimations that the way is being prepared for John Foster Dulles also to resign and that Governor Herter of Massachusetts will then take over the top job.

STASSEN BEHIND MOVES

Harold Stassen, who boomed Mr. Herter for the vice-presidential nomination earlier this year, is credited with being one of the prime movers in this game of chess. Back of it is supposed to be a Stassen plan to go to Moscow himself as a negotiator extraordinary, with some vague idea of agreeing to the withdrawal of Allied troops from Germany and obtaining some kind of withdrawal of Soviet troops from Eastern Europe.

These are naive proposals, but they have back of them the active support of the same little group, inside and outside the administration, which not long ago wanted to "dump Nixon." Another part of the program is to have America give away more billions, and to do it through the United Nations in what is known as a "multilateral" plan. This would get precisely nowhere in Congress but proponents of the "giveaway" school of thought are pushing it just the same.

Now, the essential fact for the public to know is that President Eisenhower cannot be influenced to take any course that undermines his own secretary of state and that, as long as John Foster Dulles wants to remain in that post, he can do so under Mr. Eisenhower's administration.

* * *

There is, of course, always the possibility that health reasons may compel Mr. Dulles to retire in a year or two. He has thought of this himself and has been trying to arrange not for one but for two or three top-notch men to come to the Department of State to be trained for the succession. Incidentally, no commitment has been made to Mr. Herter or anybody else by the President or by Secretary Dulles as to who eventually may get the top job in the Department of State.

The plan, agreed on in September, was for Mr. Hoover to resign as soon as a successor could be found. The Middle East crisis delayed the step. Mr. Dulles and Mr. Hoover sought the services of a very prominent man, who unfortunately could not accept at this time because of business reasons.

It so happens that Richard Nixon is vice president now and is taking a more and more important part in world affairs himself. He is going to Vienna next week, as the personal emissary of President Eisenhower, to make a study of the refugee problem growing out of conditions in Hungary, as forecast in these dispatches a few days ago.

Mr. Nixon has lately been making speeches that have pleased somewhat the so-called "liberals" who want more money spent in "uncommitted" countries. But the Vice President is not likely to be caught in any plot to overturn Mr. Dulles or existing foreign policy.

* * *

The present trend of policy was set by Mr. Dulles. His principal recommendations have always been accepted by the President after thorough discussion. Mr. Eisenhower has a high opinion also of the work of Herbert Hoover Jr. as undersecretary of state and is sincerely sorry to see him leave the government on February 1.

So, all in all, the stories that there is to be a change in policy, that Mr. Herter's coming means a repudiation of what Herbert Hoover Jr. did, or that John Foster Dulles is on the way out are pieces of wishful thinking on the part of those who apparently want to see fundamental changes made in the direction of appeasing the Communist regimes and giving away more of the taxpayers' money without any assurance of American interests being directly served thereby.

(Copyright, 1956, New York Herald Tribune, Inc.)

Dr. William Brady Says:

Infection Easily Spread in Doctor's Busy Office

"Either you are wrong about the way respiratory infections spread, or the health authorities and the leading physicians just don't give a — about public health," writes a Pittsburgh colleague or former colleague.

"Visit the office of a busy practitioner, especially one who makes patients come to the office or go to the hospital if they want him to attend them.

"You'll find patients waiting their turn, talking with each other, youngsters coughing and spraying their surroundings with whatever they happen to have—it would be difficult to imagine more favorable circumstances for the spread of infection." (Signed ....., M. D.)

Indeed, the waiting room of such a practitioner is as likely a place to catch something as in the schoolroom where school board, school physician, teacher, and parents of children who have already had the measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough or whatnot just don't give what you said either.

GOOD PLACE TO START

The waiting room of a physician would be an excellent place to impress upon the public the importance of following the simple rules of personal hygiene.

* * *

Instead of crowding patients there within the 5-foot conversational spray range of one another (to say nothing of the 10-foot to 12-foot open-face sneeze or cough spray range) the room, if not large enough to permit natural isolation, should be arranged on the cubicle plan, as are the wards in some up-to-date hospitals.

That is to say each seat or chair should be isolated from the one next to it by a suitable partition or screen similar to the screen which separates one nook or booth from another in an eating establishment.

From what readers tell me, it is abundantly evident that a considerable portion of the population is aware of the danger of sitting in crowded reception rooms.

Installation of the cubicle system is the only feasable way for a conscientious practitioner to protect his patients from infection. He can't very well stagger the traffic.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Favors Helping Refugees in Any Way We Are Able

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I have been reading about the objections to Hungarian relief and to giving jobs to them when Americans need jobs. So far as I can see, there is really no comparison between Americans out of work and Hungarians coming here.

In the first place, the Hungarians go where there is work. When Americans are out of work, they wait until jobs open again. How many would go all the way across the country to find another job? Just because there are people out of work in one area is no reason to assume the same thing is true everywhere. Some of the letters make it sound as though the entire American working force is walking the streets while Hungarians get jobs.

And another thing, in the case of many American workers, they will wait until their particular job opens, rather than look for a different type of work or look for a job that pays less. I rather doubt that the Hungarians stipulated they must receive a certain amount of wages or they wouldn't take a job.

I am not saying that there are no Americans in need, but pointing out that some of the comparisons made to date have no basis. I'm all for helping the refugees in any way we can.

Unemployed Worker

'Americans Are in Need of Help'

I have been reading your column about how all the well-to-do people have been making such a big to-do about all the poor Hungarian people. How about looking around our own country? Take a look down in Arkansas or Kentucky at some of the poor families whose children are half-naked, where the father of the family can't get enough money together to come to Detroit or some other city to get a start to make a living.

I also see where they rushed to make a Merry Christmas for them in Camp Kilmer, N.J. I wonder how many Americans they will do that for.

P. E. Morgan

'Organize Against Decubitus Ulcers'

America has been alerted to the toll of suffering and death from cancer, heart disease, polio, etc., and every effort is being expended to find the cause and cure. The toll from America's hidden plague, decubitus ulcers, is not known.

When a patient develops these ulcers during a week or two of confinement in a hospital with a broken bone, it is caused by neglect. I stood by the bedside of a lady who died as a result of this condition. The next patient to occupy this bed was allowed to develop a large decubitus ulcer while confined two weeks with a broken leg.

Recently a dear one in our home, after ten days confinement in a hospital with a broken hip, suffered intensely from this condition which was allowed to develop in those ten days.

Let's organize folks. Let's see that we have a law requiring that each bedridden patient who develops an ulcer must be reported to the local health department. This suffering and possible death, caused by gross negligence, must be stopped. Let's organize the Samaritan Bedside League all across America and stamp out this hidden plague.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Explains Men's Middle-Age Quirks

Wives, notice the odd behavior of Lars. Mankind has long used "whipping boys" and "scapegoats," so learn to analyze your husbands. You can keep their undying devotion if you try intelligently. But God expects you to use brains in helping insure a permanently happy home.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-345: Lars D., aged 48, is a very successful business executive.

"But he has developed into a very reckless automobile driver," his wife recently informed me.

* * *

"Lars wasn't this way until two years ago, and I can't understand it, for he always was so careful before.

"Now he drives 90 miles an hour. In fact, he has had two wrecks by turning over on turns.

"Fortunately, he has not been seriously hurt. But I am constantly worried about him and I plead with him to drive slowly. Dr. Crane, is he losing his mind?

"For fast driving seems to be a mania with him nowadays?" . .

PONCE DE LEON COMPLEX

Reckless driving is often a symtom of a man who is scared that he has lost his masculine vigor.

Some platonic husbands flee into drunkenness and stagger home at 2 a.m., half drunk. They divert their own attention from this constant worry about impotence, for liquor narcotizes their brain temporarily.

* * *

"If I stagger home drunk, that will also divert my wife's attention," such a man may think to himself.

"Then she will not wonder why I don't kiss her and show my former affection. So she will not suspect that I am impotent. Instead, she'll worry and fret over me, so I shall still hold her love and solicitude, even though I am a platonic mate."

When men of temperate habits thus begin drinking hard after the age of 40, we psychologists suspect impotence.

But not all men try to escape from their problem via alcohol. Others start gambling to excess and seem to have a mania for riotous living.

A third group become misers and coerce their wives' affection by a strangle hold upon the family purse.

* * *

In their fright lest their wives no longer love them in their present platonic state, they thus try to keep them in financial bondage, hoping to command their allegiance in that manner.

But another type of husband who has scared himself into a platonic role, then uses his motor car as an indirect symbol of his own masculine vigor.

As his erotic power wanes, he zooms his car with constantly faster speed.

For men (and boys) with inferiority complexes usually crave a "whipping boy" in the form of a gasoline engine.

Instead of writhing in self-accusation and belittling self-criticism, they project their ire upon the innocent motor car and abuse it.

* * *

So fast, reckless driving not only serves as a vague tonic for their wounded sex ego, but also as a scapegoat for diverting their ire from themselves.

ADVICE TO WIVES

Oddly enough, most wives of the past never dreamed that these various symptoms in men past 40, were directly related to sex ego.

But in modern times, smart wives are eliminating the need for such disastrous effects on their husbands' ego, by banishing the cause.

Most cases of platonic marriage (impotence) are of psychological origin and can be cured quickly by a cooperative wife.

Send for my booklet "How to Prevent Impotence in Men," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus twenty cents.

Change your caustic or panicky husband into a self-assured, happy mate again. That will relieve you and the children of needless scoldings and keep him devoted to you through his Golden Wedding Day, as God Almighty intended.

But it requires brains and the proper technique to help God give you a permanently happy home. You wives must do your part!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Don't Pass Up $1000 Chance at Pot-O-Gold

Those of you who have been putting off entering POT-O-GOLD had better see to it that your entry is included with this week's mail. The winnings are again out of the pin-money class, and you'll be rare indeed if you pass up a chance at $1000. Because that's what the winning entry will be worth for Puzzle No. 28, providing no winner is found for last week's puzzle. Check the rules and clues before you start, and then . . . good luck.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 28 must bear a Tuesday, Dec. 18, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Russia Stamps Trademark on Red Chinese 'Progress'

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

PEIPING (AP) — The influence of Soviet Russia is evident in every aspect of Red China's development.

This is seen everywhere—from the posters on the walls to trademarks on machinery.

But while there are plenty of Russians in China, they do not mingle socially with the ordinary Chinese.

• • •

China has leaned heavily on the Soviet Union in her expansion program.

"We have followed Russia and patterned ourselves after her, but we have not followed her blindly," said a Foreign Office official.

"We have adapted and molded the Soviet system to meet our own needs; but we have also made note of her mistakes and tried to avoid them."

• • •

China's first motor vehicles, the big four-ton trucks from the assembly lines at Changchun in the Northeast, were designed in the Soviet Union and put together with Russian machinery.

The still-secret jet planes from the Russian-built and closely guarded factory at Wuchang on the Yangtze are being produced under Soviet supervision. They're close copies of Russian aircraft.

Almost every factory manager in the Northeast prefaces his explanations with the approved phrase: "Thanks to the selfless generosity of the Soviet Union. . ."

But as a slight illustration of the Chinese determination to follow their own path, the qualifying words are added: "And under the correct leadership of Chairman Mao and the Communist party. . ."

The hotels, or "guest houses," in all the industrial centers are packed with Russian engineers and technologists. They are supervising factory construction or installation of machinery, or instructing Chinese workers.

• • •

In many plants the Soviet instruction has been completed and the Russians have moved out. Many of China's top technicians have been trained in schools in Russia.

Peiping maintains an advisory board of Russian technology experts as trouble-shooters and inspectors for the Northeastern factories.

In south central China, where the first bridge across the Yangtze River is being built at Wuhan, 20 top Soviet engineers are supervising the project, which was designed in Russia. A third of the steel for the 25-million-dollar bridge is being imported from Russia.

• • •

The Russians, in their sloppy bellbottom pants, deadpan expressions and carrying bulging briefcases, can be seen on the streets of any city here, either walking with their families or speeding past in black limousines with the window curtains drawn.

This advisory invasion has brought embarrassing and uncomfortable results for other foreign visitors to China.

• • •

In railway stations, schools or even on the street, the foreigner is often jolted by groups of passers-by who form a ring and burst into applause. No matter what the visitor's nationality, he is inevitably taken to be a Russian, and the hand claps follow him wherever he goes.

But Ivan himself moves almost furtively. In factory towns and major cities, the permanent Russian resident lives in his own quarters, separate from the Chinese. There is no Sino-Soviet social life at all except at an official level.

• • •

The Russian sees only the eager Chinese who gather around his machine to learn technique, and he is constantly accompanied by one or more interpreters. Aside from them he has few or no Chinese acquaintances. He has strict traveling papers. When his job is done and the technique passed on he leaves.

In Peiping, the semipermanent Soviet residents are assigned to separate hotels from other foreigners or the casual Russian visitors.

• • •

School textbooks are Russian-slanted, and students from 7 years old on get a thorough grounding in Russian revolutionary history.

Tomorrow—A visit to a primary school.

Soviet Ambassador Quits Stockholm

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Rear Adm. Konstantin Rokionov announced his resignation yesterday as Soviet ambassador to Sweden. The action followed a storm of public protest against his continued stay in this country.

• • •

The resentment stemmed largely from the fact that the three biggest Soviet spy cases in Swedish history occurred during his stay in Sweden.

• • •

A Swedish Foreign Office spokesman said the Soviet ambassador, dean of the diplomatic corps, paid a visit to the Foreign Office to announce the resignation.

Rodionov said he would take up another position in Moscow.

Plan Shopping Center

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Construction is expected to begin within 45 days on a proposed $8,000,000 shopping center, planned for suburban Wyoming Township by American Shopping Centers, Inc., of Minneapolis. Sponsors of the project said a general contract has been awarded the Alexander-Kingby Co. of Minneapolis.

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Air Force said today its pilotless bomber, the Matador, is no longer an experimental article. It is now as much a part of the armed forces as a tank or a gun.

* * *

The Air Force's Air Research and Development Command said the final test flight of the Matador missile was made last Nov. 30 at its missile test center at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla. It passed with flying colors.

The ARDC called it "a reliable missile—the Air Force's first completely tactical missile."

The Matador, developed and built by the Glenn L. Martin Co., has been in the testing stage since 1949, when several experimental missiles were tried out at Holloman Air Development Center, N.M.

* * *

It is launched by rocket power from a portable platform barely as long as its own body, and narrower than its own wing span. It is hurled into the air by a booster rocket. After the booster's fuel is expended, the booster drops off, and it continues on its own motors.

The missile looks much like a sleek jet fighter. It has a wing span of 28.7 feet and a length of 39.6 feet. It can be equipped with various types of highly destructive warheads. It flies at fighter plane speed and cracks the sound barrier when diving on its target.

First Fire in 10 Years

ELLSWORTH (AP) — Fire struck this Antrim County community Monday for the first time in more than 10 years, causing damages estimated at $500 to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tornga Sr. Assistant Fire Chief Grant Hastings said the fire apparently started from a hot flue. The last Ellsworth fire was recorded May 26, 1946.

By 1950 the average hen on American farms produced 167 eggs compared with the previous 10-year average of only 147 eggs per layer.

Japan, Russia End War Today

Nations Reach Formal Agreement Eleven Years After WW II

TOKYO (AP)—Japan and the Soviet Union formally ended World War II today—11 years and 4 months after Russian soldiers marched south into Manchuria in the final week of fighting. The two nations reopened diplomatic relations.

The agreement, largely on Soviet terms, leaves Russia in possession of Japanese territory occupied after Japan surrendered but gives Japan promise of Soviet support for admission to the United Nations and release of thousands of war prisoners.

Soviet Vice Foreign Minister Nicolai Fedorenko and Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu exchanged documents ratifying the peace agreement signed in Moscow Oct. 19. Then they toasted the accord in champagne.

The agreement is not a final peace treaty because the two nations were unable to agree on the ownership of the Sakhalin and Kurile islands north of Japan, which Soviet troops occupied after the war.

But it ended the technical state of war that has existed since Aug. 8, 1945, when Soviet troops marched south from Siberia at the urging of the other allies who fought together in Europe. Japan surrendered Aug. 14.

'Provoked by American Organizations'

Haiti Hits Boiling Point; Crisis Nears Showdown

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Terror and confusion swept Haiti today as a boiling political crisis — which the present regime says has been "aggravated by American government organizations" — headed toward a showdown.

The country is virtually paralyzed by a silent but deadly weapon, a mass sitdown, the refusal of thousands of persons to work.

Its object is to force bull-chested Gen. Paul E. Magloire to step out of the gleaming white palace in Port-au-Prince, the capital, and permit general elections for a new president.

It is cutting into the supplies of food from the countryside, closing stores, crippling transportation by starving gasoline stations.

The law courts have suspended, telephone communications are sketchy when they operate at all, and pistol-packing army officers are stationed in communications offices censoring all messages, press or personal.

Soldiers and sailors are patrolling the streets.

No Americans have been arrested so far as is known. But Paul Kennedy, correspondent of the New York Times, was hustled out of Haiti on six hours' notice without explanation.

The explosive situation hit a climax last week.

On Thursday, Magloire resigned as president. Under one interpretation of the constitution, his six-year term ended Dec. 6. The Haitian constitution does not permit a president to succeed himself.

Hours later, however, Magloire resumed office as "chief of state," presumably at the request of the army.

He then imprisoned the principal presidential candidates and about 49 others. He also dissolved the Senate and Legislature, and in effect suspended constitutional authority.

On the diplomatic level, Magloire is angling desperately for official recognition from the United States. It has not been granted.

Enters Plea of Guilty to Bad Check Charge

Charged with passing a bad check for $82.50 in Pontiac Nov. 3, William Kleine, whose address is unknown, pleaded guilty Monday at his arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Clark J. Adams, who will sentence Kleine Dec. 17, returned him to Oakland County Jail under bond of $500.

Hal Boyle Says:

Now's the Time to Make Your Resolutions

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you want to be a changed man in 1957?

* * *

Well, now is the time to start removing your personality warts.

Most people wait until New Year's Day to make their good resolutions.

* * *

On that day you are likely to be hypercritical, unfair to yourself. You don't see yourself in the right perspective. You are full of self-hate. You see a thousand things wrong with you, whereas even a jury of those who really know you best probably wouldn't credit you with more than 750 character faults.

So what happens? You resolve to improve your conduct in 1,000 ways all at once. This is manifestly impossible, unless you lie down and die, which is certainly carrying self-improvement right out the window.

* * *

Unable to correct all your supposed 1,000 faults, you soon give up the struggle, saying "what's the use?" That leaves you with the hopeless feeling you have added the 1,001st defect to the list—you're a guy who can't keep a pledge.

The reason you should make your New Year's resolutions right now is that you won't have to make so many you have a Christmasy feeling toward the world, and are full of goodwill. You don't see so many things about yourself that need changing, because you love yourself even as you do your neighbor. Maybe even more.

* * *

The danger here, of course, is that you may be full of so much goodwill you find yourself absolutely flawless. You can't think of a single way to change yourself for the better.

In this case you need the help of others. Here's what to do:

Take six sheets of paper and give one each to your closest friend, your oldest enemy, your mother, your boss, your favorite bartender and your wife. On second thought, maybe you'd better give your wife a loose-leaf notebook—or a tape recorder.

* * *

Next, ask each to write down what they think are your greatest faults and how you can make a better man of yourself in 1957. This may result in your wife getting writer's cramp. But she won't mind. An opportunity like this doesn't come her way often.

Then comes your big problem—weighing and interpreting the criticisms and suggestions. Here's how you get about it:

To start with, examine the list made by your closest friend. Whatever he has written down, it is safe to assume, is what the bum is saying about you behind your back. If you don't like his list, your first resolve should be to get a new friend, one you can trust not to be so honest.

* * *

The chances are your enemy merely has written down, "the best way to improve yourself in 1957 is to drop dead." Resist this temptation. To obey it will get you nowhere.

Instead, resolve to forgive your enemy. Go even further. Really bring him into your circle. Bind him to you. The best way to do this is to borrow money from him. Then he'll really have your interest at heart—and his principal.

* * *

Next take up the lists made by those who know you at your best and worst—your wife, mother and bartender. Naturally their lists will be long, and it would be impossible to correct in one lifetime all the things they know are wrong with you.

* * *

The thing to do is to check the defects that appear on all three lists, and resolve to correct them immediately. Certainly anything about you that offends your mother, wife and bartender needs your urgent attention.

* * *

Last, take the boss' list. If he merely has written, "Why, Joe, you're all right as you are," make a quick resolution to hit him for a raise on Jan. 2.

On the other hand, if he lists more than 10 of your bad habits, the odds are he suspects 10 more. You should resolve to look for a new job right away. There's enough trouble in life already without having to work for a boss you can't fool.

* * *

One final tip. If your wife writes "You're a perfect husband, darling, and I wouldn't want you to change in any way," you'd better resolve to hire a private detective and find out what she's up to while you're away at work.

Stewardess Vanishes

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—The Soviet ship Gruzia sailed without one of its stewardesses when it left Melbourne to take home Iron Curtain athletes from the Olympic Games. The stewardess, Nina Paranyuk, left the ship soon after it reached Melbourne before the games opened. She has not been seen since but is believed hiding with friends.

Refugee With TB Greets Fiance Newly Flown In

BROWNS MILLS, N.J. (AP)—A 24-year-old woman, a Hungarian refugee who was found to be suffering from tuberculosis when she arrived in this country a few days ago, got the surprise of her life yesterday.

Miss Elizabeth Kiss, a tall brunette, received a visit from her fiance, George Boka, a chemistry student she had left behind in Vienna.

* * *

Screaming with joy, she ran to him with open arms.

"I am the happiest girl in the whole wide world," she said.

She had not known when, if ever, Boka would arrive in America.

She only knew that he would try to come to her.

Miss Kiss arrived at the Camp Kilmer reception center for Hungarian refugees recently only to find that she was ill with tuberculosis. She was confined to the Deborah Sanatorium here.

When they met today, the couple wept and laughed as they embraced.

Clara Falk, superintendent of the sanatorium which pays for Miss Kiss' hospitalization, said hospital authorities are planning to arrange their marriage at the sanatorium soon.

Enemy of Parking Ban Pays for 20 Violations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The chairman of a committee fighting an overnight street parking ban in nearby Edgewood borough was arrested on charges of violating the ban 20 times.

* * *

Harold W. Boyd Jr. was arrested as he entered the municipal building to present a petition objecting to overnight parking.

* * *

After he paid the fine of $22.70, Boyd presented the council his petition bearing 1,100 names. Council agreed to re-evaluate the ordinance.

10 Children Discover Justice Has Big Heart

PARIS, Ky. (AP)—Ten of William R. Thornton's children got a good impression of legal justice.

They accompanied their 56-year-old father, a tenant farmer, to court and heard him plead guilty to reckless driving.

County Judge J. M. Leer fined Thornton $10 and $11.50 costs.

But he suspended the fine and told the father to spend the money on the children for Christmas.

Windstorm Hits Standard Charts —Oil's Not Well

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — A capricious windstorm whipped through the El Rio field office of the Standard Oil Co. of California and scattered a carton box filled with log charts and graphs recorded by electronics devices in the drilling of oil wells.

Engineers and office workers recovered most—but not all — the charts.

Scouts of competing companies have been calling to offer thanks for the charts on previously top secret wells drilled in this area by Standard.

Man to Become Citizen While Confined to 'Lung'

LOS ANGELES (AP)— An unusual naturalization ceremony is scheduled to take place here Thursday when Franz E. Hofer, 37, a polio patient confined to an iron lung, will become a naturalized American citizen.

Plans call for U.S. Judge Leon R. Yankwich to administer the oath at Los Angeles County General Hospital.

Hofer, a landscape gardener and a native of Switzerland, came to this country in 1949. He was ready to take the oath of allegiance last month, but was stricken with polio.

Pontiac City Affairs

Plan Rezoning in Homestead, Ball Park

Hearing no objections from the audience, the Pontiac City Commission adopted an ordinance last night rezoning two lots in the Homestead Park Subdivision to Commercial 2 usage.

The rezoning was recommended by the City Planning Commission. It will take effect Dec. 21.

In other action last night, the city attorney was instructed to prepare a second ordinance proposed to allow the rezoning of three lots in the Ball Park Subdivision near Rapid and Franklin streets.

Deeds for the necessary 20-foot alley for the rezoning were accepted by commissioners at their weekly meeting.

Another deed for the widening and extension of Bay street was also accepted last evening.

Commissioners passed an amendment to their Commission Rules which will allow any commissioner voting on the prevailing side of a question to request reconsideration of same.

A further stipulation of the amendment, is that the motion must be made the night the question is voted upon, or at the at the next succeeding meeting.

The former ruling restricted only commissioners voting on the affirmative side to ask for reconsideration.

Formally approved was the noon closing of the City Hall on Dec. 24 and 31.

A request from Lloyd L. Anderson, Waterford Township supervisor, that the city approve a 285-foot extension of sanitary sewer under a present agreement between the city and township, was approved.

Steel Companies Plan to Merge

Bethlehem, Youngstown Announce Agreement for Stock Exchange

NEW YORK (AP) — Two of the United States' largest steel companies plan to merge despite notice by the Justice Department that it will move promptly to block the consolidation.

The Bethlehem Steel Corp., second largest, and the Youngstown firm, sixth largest, announced yesterday an agreement under which Bethlehem would acquire Youngstown in exchange for Bethlehem common stock.

* * *

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell immediately said the Justice Department will take prompt action in the federal courts seeking to bar the proposed merger.

Justice officials declined to say in what city the action will be brought. The two companies said they hope the government's legal action will be "speedily determined by the courts."

* * *

Bethlehem Chairman Eugene G. Grace and J. L. Mauthe, chairman of Youngstown, announced the Justice Department had formally advised them "it intends to sue to enjoin the proposed acquisition on the grounds that it would violate the antitrust laws."

The proposed merger would not affect U. S. Steel's position as largest in the industry.

It would be one of the biggest in history, creating a company with assets around 2½ billion dollars. The Justice Department for more than two years has opposed the proposal on the grounds that it would tend to lessen competition.

Grace and Mauthe said agreement on final terms of the acquisition were not "feasible at this time." The number of Bethlehem shares to be exchanged for Youngstown is one of these final terms still to be decided.

The combined rated annual capacity of Bethlehem and Youngstown is 25,750,000 tons, compared with U. S. Steel's 39,215,000-ton capacity.

During the Michigan Elks Bowling Tournament Jan. 18 through March 30, bowling will be permitted on Sunday before noon as requested by local Elks Lodge No. 810.

The request needed commission approval as a city ordinance prohibits Sunday bowling before noon.

The Pontiac Township Business Mens' Assn. asked the City Commission to study the feasibility of providing sanitary sewer service to the township. The request was referred to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Also turned over to Willman, was a letter from Victor C. Adler seeking approval to construct new homes on Richton street.

Bad Luck Follows Accident Victim

SPRINGVILLE, Utah (AP)—It just wasn't her day!

Mrs. Lizzie Billings was crossing the street and slipped on some ice. She broke her wrist and cut her head.

Motorist Edgar Drake picked her up and tried to locate a doctor. Failing, he started to take her to Sapnish Fork.

On U.S. 91 Drake lost control of his auto on the icy road patch. The car collided with one driven by Mrs. Lillian Brown.

Hospital attendants say Mrs. Billings now has possible internal injuries and fractures. Drake has a back injury and Mrs. Brown was bruised.

See United Europe as Test of Democracy

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A German diplomat says Democracy in Europe will have passed its test when "we voluntarily tear down the traditional and outmoded barriers and make Europe one unit."

Heinz L. Krekeler, West Germany's ambassador to the United States, told the institute of world affairs that Germany is the proving ground.

Democracy's test in Germany, he added, will have been passed when "we convince our (German) brothers and sisters beyond the Iron Curtain that ours is a better way of life."

Hit Rescuing Victim

McKEESPORT, Pa. (AP) — A motorist whose car hit a 10-year old boy was hit by another machine seconds later near here last night. Thomas Wilson stopped after Billy Tucker had been knocked down. As he was about to pick up the injured boy another car hit him and sent him sprawling. Both were taken to a hospital.

Prisoners Released in Holiday Spirit

LANSING (AP) — Prison gates will swing open Dec. 21 for between 70 and 100 Michigan convicts allowed to go home early for the Christmas holidays.

The State Corrections Commission traditionally allows the Dec. 21 release for any prisoners who become eligible for pardon or parole between Dec. 24 and Jan. 2.

Carroll J. Brown, field supervisor in the division of pardons and paroles, said that release papers still are being processed but gave the estimate of between 70 and 100 holiday releases.

Most of the prisoners will be released from the state prison of Southern Michigan at Jackson, Brown said.

"It means a lot of extra work," Brown said, "but everyone seems to catch the Christmas spirit and pitches in to make it possible."

The Woman's Touch

CHICAGO — Impressed by the effect women drivers are beginning to have on sales at service-stations, some oil companies have hired female advisers. One of their first recommendations: Junk color-clashing displays.

Florida Girl, 11, to Reign

Santa Claus Picks Mayor

SANTA CLAUS, Ind. (INS)—A freckle-faced 11-year-old girl from Florida will reign Dec. 23 as honorary mayor of Santa Claus, Ind.

A committee of three judges from the Santa Claus Chamber of Commerce selected Betsy McMillan, of Gainesville, Fla., as winner of the famed little town's honorary mayor contest.

The judges looked at hundreds of entries from the United States, Canada, Japan and Germany before deciding upon the merry-eyed little girl from a warm southern state so different from their own Indiana where snow in winter is a customary sight.

For Betsy, the award means a free trip by plane from her home to Evansville, Ind., then on by auto to this little town whose postmark is being stamped on mountains of mail each day. Her mother, father or another relative will accompany Betsy.

SHE'LL ASSIST ST. NICK

Betsy, a member of Girl Scout Troop 31 in Gainesville, will serve as Santa's assistant and wear a red velvet and white fur costume similar to his for the day-long reign, Dec. 23.

Betsy wrote that she wanted especially to see the animals in the children's zoo and also the doll museum at Santa Claus. She explained:

"I have a pet puppy, a kitten and a parakeet. I also have a small collection of dolls from different lands."

Latin Touch Added

MADRID—Among techniques for selling time-saving household appliances in Spain is this one in a city where washing machines are being advertised under the line, "Mas tiempo para el amor." Translated, it means: "More time for love."

Aluminum Use Heavy

LOS ANGELES—Although aluminum has been known for only a century and a half, it is now consumed in greater volume than any other nonferrous metal. The volume of aluminum used exceeds that of copper, lead, and zinc combined.

Delhi's Papers Call Chou's Visit Success

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — New Delhi's newspapers agreed today that Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai's visit to India was a success. But they said it would have been more of a success if Chou had agreed with India's views on the Hungarian rebellion.

* * *

The Chinese Premier told newsmen he and Prime Minister Nehru did not see eye to eye on the revolt and Soviet military intervention in Hungary. He implied that he was not disturbed saying, "We have our own views."

Nehru earlier told Parliament he and Chou on some matters agreed to disagree in a friendly way.

* * *

Chou generally followed the Moscow line on events in Hungary. Nehru strongly criticized the Soviet military intervention and is urging that Russian troops get out of Hungary.

Some newspapers linked Chou's visit with Nehru's trip to the United States, which begins Friday.

Powerless After Prank

HILLSDALE (AP)—A boyish prank left four industrial plants and a quarter of the homes in this city of 7,000 without power Monday. A group of boys threw strips of tin into an electrical transformer. The short circuit caused by the tin was quickly repaired.

Tax Collector Killed

ROGERS CITY (AP)—Killed when his car collided with an ice cream truck Monday night was Fred Gilpin, about 69, of Cheboygan. He was a state sales tax collector. The accident occurred at the intersection of US 23 and M68 just outside Rogers City.

British Landlord Evicts U. S. Officer in London, Criticizes American Policy

LONDON (AP) — The ouster of a U.S. Air Force major from his furnished home aroused a mixture of views today on the present state of relations between Britons and the 80,000 Americans living in this country.

Maj. Eugene Sabatini, an assistant air attache, was dispossessed two weeks ago by a landlord who denounced U.S. policy in the Middle East. News of it came out yesterday.

* * *

American diplomatic and military sources expressed amazement. They said the Sabatini ouster appeared to be the first of its kind. They were unanimous in describing their personal day-to-day contacts with Britons as very friendly, despite differences between the British and American governments.

The pro-empire Evening Standard, on the other hand, said the Sabatini incident "unfortunately is typical of a widespread attitude of mind."

* * *

"Many Americans in this country have been made to feel unwelcome," the Standard said. "They have been cold shouldered in the shops. They have been refused petrol (gasoline) at the pumps."

Sabatini's ouster came prior to Britain's decision to withdraw her invading troops from Egypt and before the United States moved to help meet the oil shortage caused in this country by blockage of the Suez Canal.

* * *

Sabatini, 37, of Bristol, Pa., made no formal protest when told to move.

The dispossession was ordered by M. C. Holt, a former British army officer who is now partner in a real estate firm representing overseas. Holt wrote Sabatini:

"In view of the despicable conduct of the United States and the profound contempt that I, in common with many millions of my fellow countrymen, feel for that country and its nationals, I am not prepared to allow an American to occupy any property over which I have control."

* * *

Sabatini moved out at once. He stayed with friends until he found another house.

"When my British friends heard, I received nearly 20 letters apologizing for what had happened," Sabatini said. "When I moved into my new house, I showed Mr. Holt's letter to the landlord. He was very upset and he apologized too.

* * *

"I can't understand why Mr. Holt was so bitter. After all, we are just doing a job here and we have nothing to do with American policy."

Holt was not available for comment today. Another spokesman for the real estate firm said stiffly:

"Being professional people, we're not pleased with the publicity and we don't want any more. I'm not prepared to discuss the matter."

Second Set of Triplets for English War Bride

CHICAGO (AP) — An English bride of World War II has had her second set of triplets—a one in a million occurrence.

Three sons weighing a total of 19 pounds 6 ounces were born to Mrs. Frances Blankenship, 37, within seven minutes Monday night at Jackson Park Hospital.

The father, William, 35, is employed in the Illinois Central Railroad shops.

The couple's first set of triplets was born May 1, 1952. One died at birth. The others are Joanne and Michael Jean.

A spokesman for the American Medical Assn. said the chances of a mother having two sets of triplets are probably one in a million.

Win Big Wage Boost

ALPENA (AP) — A three-year contract providing an average 33 cent hourly wage boost over the three-year period has been approved by 400 production workers at the Besser Co. They are members of the Alpena Independent Workers Assn. No. 1. The contract includes a cost of living escalator clause, pension funds and Good Friday as a seventh paid holiday. The company manufactures cement block making machinery.

Missile-Loaded Ship Joins U.S. 6th Fleet

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — A guided missile cruiser has reinforced the powerful U.S. 6th Fleet in the tense Mediterranean.

The cruiser Boston left Naples today armed with Terrier missiles which provide atomic antiaircraft protection against enemy planes for as much as 30 miles.

The Boston is part of a reinforcing program which will see no numerical increase in the fleet but will beef it up with newer type vessels.

America's most modern aircraft carriers, the Forrestal and the newly modernized Franklin D. Roosevelt, are due to follow the Boston to the Mediterranean in January. They will replace the Coral Sea and Randolph.

The 6th Fleet evacuated American citizens threatened by the recent outbreak of hostilities in Egypt.

Musicale Stages Concert

Pontiac Press Photos

Chorus Presents Christmas Selections Tuesday

By CHRISTINE GAENSBAUER

Pontiac Tuesday Musicale members and guests filled Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall to overflowing Tuesday afternoon to hear the Tuesday Musicale Chorus in its traditional Christmas concert.

* * *

This annual presentation of Christmas music always seems to arouse in the listeners the reality of the coming season and inspires them with the warmth, charm and serious meaning of Christmas. Yesterday's concert was no exception.

Mrs. George Putnam, director of the chorus, chose many lovely carols, both old and new, and they were sung with excellent balance and blend of voice.

The diction was unusually clear and Mrs. Putnam produced many effective shadings of tone and mood, from the gay and lively to soft, gentle pianissimos, with the chorus always responsive to her direction.

* * *

The first group opened with "A Musical Greeting Card" followed by four carols. Of special interest were a 14th Century carol, "Happy Sounds Everywhere," with sometimes dissonant harmonies, and "What Strangers Are These?", a Scottish carol with a strong folk quality and typical Scottish rhythm.

CZECH CAROLS

Four Czech carols were delightfully sung unaccompanied by a quartet composed of Mrs. LaVerne Cox, Mrs. James Forman, Mrs. Clyde Marshbanks and Mrs. Frederick Stimpert.

* * *

For its second group, the chorus surrounded a small stage on which appeared an unusually charming tableaux depicting the Christmas scenes as the music was sung. The 13 actors taking part were children of chorus members.

The Rev. Richard Stuckmeyer, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, gave a short inspirational message to the group. Using as his theme the joy and feeling of humility in Mary chosen mother of Jesus, he stressed the need for everyone to use Christmas as a time for reconsecration to the joy, goodness and faith that was hers.

The chorus closed the program with three carols, the first a haunting, sometimes wistful "Carroll" by Jacobson, followed by a new harmonic arrangement for "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen" and ending with a jubilant and exhilarating Bohemian carol, "Let Our Gladness Know No End."

* * *

Mrs. Martin Wager at the piano provided excellent accompaniment which contributed additional pleasure to the performance.

Door hostesses were Mrs. Fritzi Stoddard and Mrs. H. A. Little.

On the social committee were Mrs. J. K. Helvey, Mrs. R. E. Gegoux, Mrs. H. F. Teitgen, Mrs. R. A. Becker, Mrs. Dora Dawson, Mrs. H. P. Beehler, Mrs. T. J. Todd, Mrs. F. G. Schlichter and Mrs. A. F. Buehre Jr.

The floral committee consisted of Mrs. Charles Harmon and Mrs. Charles Harmon Jr. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Harry S. Pearce and Mrs. Ardel Pierce.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Friday Party

Final plans were formed for the children's Christmas party sponsored annually by the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Auxiliary when the group met in the auditorium of the nurses' home Monday.

The Friday afternoon program for the youngsters will include movies, animated cartoons and serving of milk and cookies.

The Auxiliary will hold a card party in conjunction with its first monthly meeting of next year.

Mrs. Harwood C. Bacon presided at the social hour

VFW Auxiliary Gives Gift to Home

VFW 1008 Auxiliary met at the Legion Home on Auburn Avenue. The fifth district president, Mrs. Emma Momber, paid her official visit.

A donation was made to the National Home and plans were made to prepare a Christmas basket for charity. Mrs. Louise Saucy assisted the hostess at the recent meeting. A Christmas party will be held Dec. 25 at the home of Mrs. Walter Sauter.

Pontiac Press Photo

Mr. and Mrs. Willem Lang and their sons, Stephen, 14, Ralph, 9, and Maurits, 7, arrived yesterday from Holland where for the past two years they have been living as refugees from Indonesia. At present they are guests at the home of Mrs. George Eaton of Keego Harbor, but their sponsor, All Saints Episcopal Church, has begun house-hunting for them. Photographed as they greeted them Tuesday are (left to right) Horace Hall, Mrs. Bruce Hubbard, Theodore M. Vanderstempel and Marshall Smith. The Rev. C. George Widdifield also was on hand to welcome them.

Personal News of Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Pazik Jr. of Erie drive left Monday for New York City where they will attend the National Automobile Show. They will return to their home in ten days.

Traveling by plane, Dr. and Mrs. John K. Ormond are leaving on Thursday for a six week trip that will take them to Cuba, Mexico, Guatemala and Los Angeles, where they will visit their son and daughter before returning to their home in Birmingham on Feb. 1.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Lynn N. Hershey of Birmingham are hosting a festive holiday cocktail party Saturday evening at Forest Lake Country Club.

Among the 104 guests invited are Dr. and Mrs. L. Jerome Fink of Ottawa drive, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Warren of Willow road, Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rumsey and Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Ensign, also of Franklin.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Lee Fisher of Grosse Pointe and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown of Bloomfield Hills.

Also invited are Dr. and Mrs. Vincent M. Russell of Pleasant Ridge, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Waggoner of Ann Arbor, and from Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Marshall, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kemp and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Perry Holmes.

* * *

Judith Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mills of Going street and Sandra Bower of Chesaning left Willow Run Airport this morning for El Toro, Calif. where they will be stationed at the Marine Corp Air Base.

Judith and Sandra have been home on a ten day leave following their basic training in the Woman's Marine Corps at Parris Island, S.C.

* * *

Ruth Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell of West Longfellow avenue has been chosen a David Lipscomb College Bisonette, to serve in a special cheering section at varsity games.

Bisonettes are chosen by class elections, fifteen from each class, and will serve throughout the school year. They are trained in the use of flash cards and other spectacular cheering devices.

Christmas Celebrated at Gathering

Mrs. Sidney Olson and Mrs. George Gaches led the singing of Christmas carols at the Christmas dinner party held Tuesday evening by Pontiac Toastmistress Club at Hotel Waldron.

* * *

The invocation was given by Mrs. Robert Sutton, and Lauretta Paul served as topic mistress. Mrs. Norman Sutherland was toastmistress for the evening.

Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Ivan Wilcox and Mrs. Evelyn Cole were speakers. Critics were Mrs. Clayton Tibbals, Mrs. Howard Wheatley and Helen Turek.

Acting as grammarian was Mrs. Orben Wilkins. Timekeeper was Mrs. Milton Freet and tail-twister, Mrs. George Gaches. The inspirational close was given by Shirley Dovre.

Mrs. Clayton Rule received the trophy for the best talk on "What Christmas Means to Me."

Guests for the evening were Mrs. I. A. Murphy, Mrs. Joseph Shaw and Mrs. J. R. Shaffer.

Mrs. Sutton announced an open house meeting for Jan. 28. The group will hold the next meeting Jan. 8.

Bell Ringers Entertain at Reception

The Handbell Ringers of Kirk in the Hills played at the reception for new members given by the Women's Association of the Kirk in the Hills Tuesday afternoon in Cedarholm Chapel of the Kirk House.

* * *

The bell choir, formed at Kirk in the Hills one year ago, is a member of the American Guild of English Handbell Ringers established in the U. S. in 1954.

The smallest of the 27 bells measures 2½ inches in diameter and the largest and lowest is 6½ inches in diameter. They play three chromatic octaves.

One of the first appearances made by the group, other than in church worship services, was on Saturday when the bells were rung at the annual crippled people's party given by the Junior League of Birmingham.

Outside Help Can Repair Shaky Marriage

(This is the last of seven articles presenting case histories of "Marriage on the Rocks" and providing advice and opinion of experts on what can be done to prevent a marriage from breaking up.)

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

You know the Simpsons. They are the couple who acknowledge their marital difficulties but defiantly declare "we can work this out ourselves."

* * *

The Simpsons were brought up by parents who prided themselves on self-reliance. So they turned down suggestions made by friends that they seek outside help.

The Simpsons reconsidered their attitude after the junior high school principal summoned them to his office to discuss their son, Mike, developing into a delinquent.

The Simpsons made inquiries into how they could get help for their problems. Here are some questions they asked and answers they received of interest to all persons with family problems:

Q. Doesn't it mean you are a failure if you seek help for your marriage difficulties?

A. That can be answered with a question: Are you admitting failure when you go to a doctor to treat your sinus trouble?

MENTALLY SICK?

Q. Does that mean the couple with marriage problems is mentally sick?

A. It just isn't a case of all or nothing. A man perfectly competent on the job may have difficulties around the home for some deep-seated reason. The only disgrace is allowing this to go unchecked.

* * *

Q. Where do I go for help?

A. You can look up the name of your local Family Service agency in the telephone book. It will be under a "Family" listing. If you want the complete correct name for the one in your town or the name of any other family counseling agency, write:

Family Service Association of America,
192 Lexington Ave.
New York 16, N.Y.

* * *

Q. Are these agencies sectarian?

A. Some are and some are not. The association has member agencies serving all religious faiths.

* * *

Q. What do I tell them on the phone?

A. Only that you would like to arrange an interview about a personal problem.

JOINT INTERVIEW?

Q. Do husband and wife go for the interview together?

A. In some agencies they do; in other agencies interviews are separate.

* * *

Q. How long does an interview take and how many are necessary?

A. Interviews are for one hour. The number depends on the problems and the persons involved.

Q. What does this counseling cost?

A. It depends on where you go. In general, Family Service Association agencies scale fees according to your ability to pay. For some people there is no fee—the community which organized the association absorbs this cost.

For others the session fee may be as much as a visit to the dentist for drilling. It is certainly less than the high cost of unhappy living and a divorce.

WHAT HAPPENS?

Q. What goes on during the interview?

A. The case worker encourages the spouse to discuss the problem as he or she sees it. The problems are analyzed together in an effort to determine:

—How they developed.
—What their causes might be.
—How they can be attacked.

* * *

Q. Everybody has problems; does that mean everybody needs outside help?

A. Good point. Dr. Edmund Bergler gives the best answer to that in his book "Unhappy Marriage and Divorce." He writes:

"Marriage . . . requires many adjustments, a large number of small sacrifices and much resignation. But it is an art which for the normal, healthy person need not be learned or taught.

* * *

"The average healthy person achieves it automatically."

'Cowboy Cookies' Name Misleading; but They're Good

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

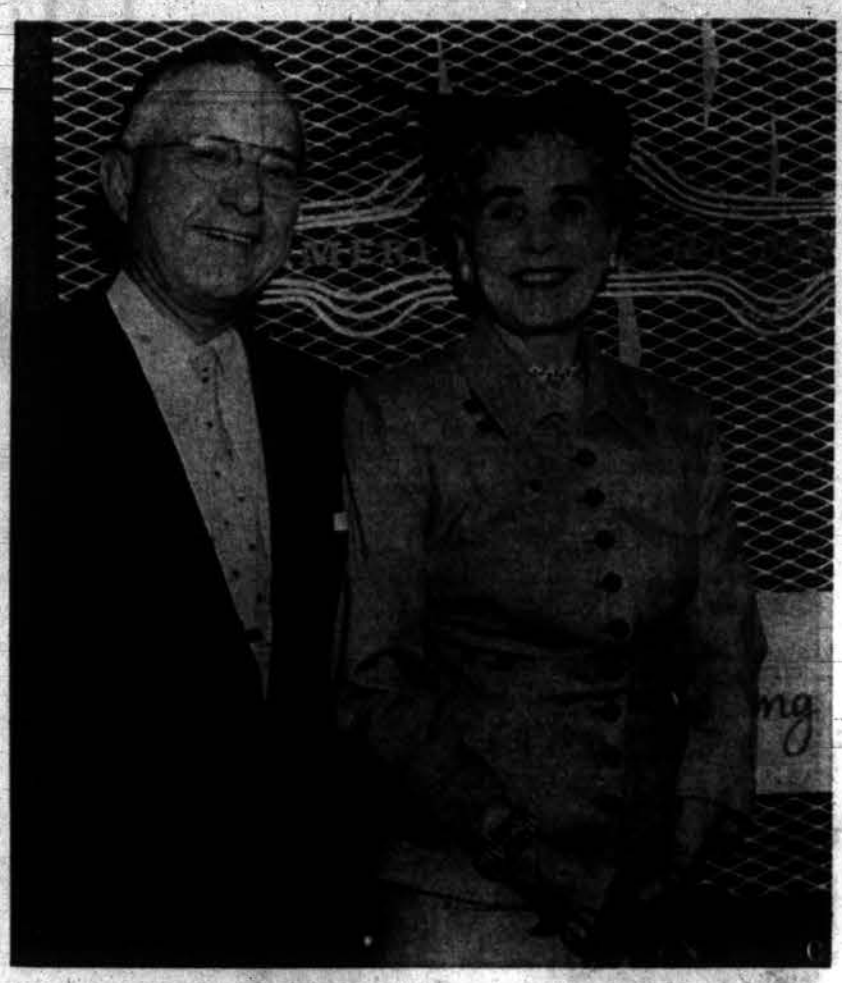
This is cookie season. Here's a new recipe to add to your collection. It comes from Mrs. Ralph Becker of Elizabeth Lake. Why the cookies are called Cowboy Cookies she doesn't know. Maybe you can make up a story about them to satisfy your children.

Mrs. Becker will be spending her first Christmas in her new home. She belongs to the Opti-Mrs. Club and to Tuesday Musicale. Three grandchildren make frequent visits to see her.

COWBOY COOKIES
By Mrs. Ralph Becker

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
1 cup white sugar
1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
2 cups oats
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup nutmeats cut fine

Sift flour, soda, baking powder and salt together. Blend shortening and sugars until creamy. Add eggs and beat until fluffy. Add flour and mix well. Add rest of ingredients. Dough will be crumbly. Drop from teaspoon on greased cookie sheet. Bake 15 minutes at 350 degrees.



Robert M. Critchfield, vice president of General Motors in charge of process development staff at the GM Technical Center, and Mrs. Critchfield are pictured at the opening of the 42nd National Automobile Show in New York's new Coliseum where General Motors has a complete exhibit.

Sorority Chapter Has First Meeting

Marilyn Rowe opened her home on Baldwin road Tuesday evening for the first meeting of Phi Alpha Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Officers gave a review of duties to the pledges of the sorority, and rules and regulations of the chapter were discussed to acquaint new members with the sorority.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Program Features Music

BPW Marks Christmas

A lighted revolving Christmas tree and colorful holiday decorations adorned the Civic Room of Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building Tuesday evening for the annual Christmas program of Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club.

* * *

Highlighting the program were selections sung by Mrs. Rebecca Gould, including "Ave Maria," "Birthday of a King," the French song, "Virgin at the Manger," and "They Sang That Night in Bethlehem." Mrs. Jack Wignall accompanied at the piano.

Members joined in singing carols and Santa arrived to distribute gifts to each one.

Vera Bassett and Mrs. Fritzi Stoddard presided at the silver services during the social hour.

The tea table was covered with a red linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations and holly. Lighted tapers in silver candelabra completed the Christmas table appointments.

Guests for the evening affair were Mrs. LaVon Ryden and June May.

Mrs. Raymond L. Cole served as general chairman assisted by Mrs. D. R. Wilson, Mrs. C. Richard McBride, Mary Mitchell, Mrs. Margaret Long, Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Donald Ball.

Yule Party Slated

The Oakland County Branch of the National Association of Social Workers will hold a Christmas party Thursday at Kingsley Inn beginning at noon. Charlene Wharton will speak on her trip through South American countries.

MOMS Shown Movies at Christmas Party

Unit Two, MOMS of America, Inc. held their Christmas dinner Saturday at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building. Husbands were guests of the group for the evening.

* * *

Mrs. Howard Estes of Birmingham, Michigan State Extension chairman, and Mr. Estes attended. Mrs. Estes showed movies of the services of the MOMS in veterans' hospitals and for families of veterans.

Mrs. Harry Luxon, MOMS Unit 2, president, was given a gift by the unit and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnston of Hymera, Ind. were guests at the dinner.

Yule Party Enjoyed by Proficiency Club

Mr. and Mrs. Davy Gilpin opened their home on Neome drive Saturday evening for the annual Christmas party of Griffin Proficiency Club, Chapter 228. Twenty-five guests were present for the dinner party.

* * *

Mrs. Edna Warden, Mrs. William Cousins and Mrs. Meta McIlroy assisted the hostess.

Following dinner members enjoyed a gift exchange and an evening of games directed by Mrs. Katheryn Quick and Mrs. Ronald West.

Right Job Can Change Personality

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Most of us think of a job only in terms of the money we make from it, but many times it gives us plus values of far greater importance.

I've known cases when the right job did more for a girl's personality than any charm course could ever do.

Elsa is a good example of this. She was a little mouse who became a really charming woman, thanks entirely to a job in market research.

Elsa was one of those painfully shy girls. She tried hard, but never seemed to be able to overcome her shyness.

She finally settled into a job as assistant bookkeeper, where she sat by herself all day long, working on columns of figures and saying nary a word to anybody.

At night she went home to her room, fixed a meal on her electric plate and read all evening. She read fiction, mostly, about charming girls who got their men—something, she was sure, would never happen to her.

'UNLUCKY' BREAK

Then one day Elsa got one of those unlucky breaks which are so often blessings in disguise. The dentist told her he had to have some rather extensive work done and the cost would be more than her tight budget would allow.

She realized she would have to get an after-hours job to supplement her salary; one that would permit her to work from 6 till 10, plus Saturday afternoons. Saturday morning would be spent at the dentist's.

When she told me she was going to try to get another bookkeeping job for those hours, I firmly put my foot down.

Elsa was shy, yes; but like so many shy persons, she had a real interest in people. Her trouble was lack of practice in meeting people and lack of self-confidence as well.

* * *

Also, as she said, "I can never make small talk."

PURPOSEFUL TALK

The answer, of course, was to put her in a situation where the talk had a purpose, where it was more than just self-consciously manufactured light chatter.

So I suggested that Elsa get her after-hours job in the field of market research.

At first she was scared to death.

"Talk to a lot of strangers? I couldn't!"

But then she discovered that she would be asking intelligent questions and talking with a purpose.

Moreover, I told her that most people like to cooperate with market researchers, like to give their opinions of things.

A NEW PERSON

Elsa decided to try. In six months, she was a new person.

She learned to talk to people and found most of them as pleasant as could be. Gradually she became very sure of herself socially!

Reupholstering? Consider Plastic

Is your furniture designed to wear—or to wear out? If you're going to reupholster chairs and sofas, it's sensible to select fabric for easy upkeep and long wear.

One new upholstery material worth investigating is plastic which feels and looks like wool.

This new plastic, available in a variety of colors and weaves, resists stains, is built to withstand the rigors of crawling children and muddy puppy paws, and can be sponged off with warm-to-hot soap or detergent suds.

Prepare Clothes

Time to get your clothes ready for holiday entertaining is right now. Decide what you need, buy it at leisure. If repairs or alterations are called for, this is the time to have them done.

Christmas Party Held at School

Christmas lights and gaily decorated packages decorated the gymnasium of Owen School for the Saturday evening dance held by Hoedowners Square Dance Cub.

Master of Ceremonies Ray Burch was assisted in calling the quadrilles by Edward Farr, guest caller, and Fred Froede, Howard Hatfield, Harvey Gilchrist, Dewitt Harr and Cecil Elsholz.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. James Jacklin and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farr were guests at the dance.

Homemakers Hold Christmas Meeting

Merry Homemakers Club gathered at the home of Mrs. John Cudnohufsky on Loon Lake Shore drive Monday for its annual Christmas party. Each member brought a gift for the Christmas grab bag. The gifts were exchanged later in the evening.

Members are furnishing a Christmas dinner for a needy family as their Christmas project.

Rules Useless When Not Enforced

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

In child-caring places like boarding schools, summer camps, orphanages and reformatories, adults take rules very seriously.

When they want to make one, they hold meetings to talk about it until everyone has compared its advantages with its disadvantages. If they finally pass it, they explain it to the children—and then begin the real job of checking obedience to it.

But in homes, we parents take rules much less seriously. So what happens is this— ... .

Nine-year-old Ruth, who's supposed to make her bed every morning, departs for school leaving it in a very untidy state. When she gets home, we say, "Just wait before you mix that chocolate milk until you've gone upstairs and made your bed properly."

* * *

But two days later we are too busy ironing to note that Ruth has repeated her carelessness. As we don't tell her to correct it, she takes our silence as consent—and the following morning, leaves her bed exactly as she got out of it.

CAUSES BITTERNESS

The spectacle fills us with bitterness. We think of how much we do for Ruth compared with how little she does for us.

By the time she gets home, we're so resentful that we not only dock her allowance but revoke permission to have her friend Grace to dinner.

Infuriated by what she regards as our "unfairness," Ruth becomes a behavior problem for the next three days.

Unless we are prepared to supervise a child's obedience to a rule, we shouldn't make it.

* * *

This knowledge is what trained child-caring people have got that we haven't got. Through hard experience they have learned they simply can't afford the hostility and chaos that result from making inconsistent demands on children—and just don't make rules unless they are prepared to make them stick.

But we in our innocence think that wanting Ruth's bed made is having it made. Like the small boy who says he's killed a lion because he wishes he had, we want children's obedience without working for it.

If we are not ready to check Ruth's bedmaking every day, let's make her bed ourselves. Let's say to her, "You seem too rushed to make your bed properly on school mornings, so I'll make it for you. But on Saturday and Sundays, I'll expect you to do a terrific job."

Worth looking at are this handsome striped shirt and matching belt for the young man in your life. Made of comfortable cotton, the shirt and belt feature striped panels set against a darker background.

Choose Shampoo to Suit Hair Type

If your hair is unruly or difficult to manage, it may be that you're using a shampoo that's the wrong type for your hair.

There are shampoos on the market today for normal, dry and oily hair types. Investigate these. And when you shampoo your hair, follow it by a clear or cream rinse whose purpose is to cut the soap and leave your hair soft and easy to manage.

Keep Health Habits for Radiant Skin

Essentials for clear skin, lustrous hair and a trim figure are: Exercise, eight glasses of water a day and plenty of sleep. Without these, your cosmetics can't accomplish much for you.

Make a habit of taking a walk daily whether it's to the market or to the office. It's tempting to take the car whenever you've an errand to do but it's ruinous to the figure.

U.S. Works for Safer Yule Trees

Water Treatment Advised to Reduce Fire Hazard

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—With more than two-thirds of the nation's homes boasting lighted and fancy-trimmed Christmas trees during the season, government experts continue their search for methods to reduce the fire hazards.

* * *

The U. S. Forest Service Products Laboratory, however, says that after investigating a number of possible methods for making Christmas trees less flammable, it still sticks by its conclusion that keeping the tree standing in water is about the most "practical, satisfactory, and convenient" both for reducing the fire hazard and preventing the needles from discoloring or falling.

The researchers point out however, that if you want additional protection against fire you can use a fire-retarded coating in conjunction with the water treatment "if the natural color of the foliage is unimportant."

The procedure recommended for the water treatment by the laboratory is as follows:

Obtain a tree that has been cut as recently as possible. Cut off the end of the trunk diagonally at least 1 inch above the original cut end.

Stand the tree at once in a container of water and keep the tree level above the cut surface during the entire time that the tree is in the house.

If the tree is not to be set up for several days, it should be kept standing in water meanwhile in a cool place.

MORE SAFETY TIPS

Other safety rules for the handling of Christmas trees in the home are:

Be sure the tree is well-supported and is away from fireplaces, radiators, TV sets, and other sources of heat. Also, be sure the tree is placed so that it will not block an exit in case of fire.

Avoid use of combustible decorations and flammable reflectors for the colored lights. Metal foil "icicles" or tinsel must be kept out of bulb sockets. Avoid overloading the electric circuits.

Parties Will Precede Alumni Dance

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS— Several young couples will entertain at cocktails or dinner Dec. 21 preceding the dance to be given by alumni of Kingswood and Cranbrook Schools.

The affair, which will be held at Birmingham Country Club, will benefit the scholarship funds of both schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Lerchen will give a dinner. Other hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Connolly, Mr. and Mrs. James VanDusen, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jung and the Peter Higbies.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Darling will be hosts at cocktails and a buffet supper Sunday afternoon in their home on Lone Pine court.

* * *

Lt. and Mrs. Basil W. Denning will come next week from Virginia Beach to spend the holidays with Mrs. Denning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gossett of Goodhue road.

In the visitors' honor Mrs. Edward E. Rothman will give a tea on Friday.

HOSTS AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Wellock of Kirkshire drive will be hosts at dinner Friday evening. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy G. Vandeveer, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Candler, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Green and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Colbert.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Breech plan an open house for Christmas day. They will leave soon after for the Thunderbird Club at Palm Springs, Calif., where they will spend New Year's, as will Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bugas of Pembroke drive.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Strickland will be hosts at cocktails and a buffet supper next Wednesday in their home on Country Club drive.

With Mr. and Mrs. David W. Lee, the Strickland family will leave soon after Christmas for a skiing trip to Mt. Tremblant in the Laurentian Mountains of Canada.

Seaman Michael Wheeler arrived home today to spend his Christmas leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schirmer of Lone Pine court.

COMING HOME

Melinda Booth will arrive home Tuesday from Deland, Fla., where she attends Stetson College. She will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth of Thornlea, Cranbrook road.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Nance are planning a cocktail party preceding Bloomfield Hills Country Club's New Year's Eve dinner-dance.

Mrs. E. B. Amann Entertains Group

Plans for a Christmas party were completed at the Tuesday evening meeting of Epsilon Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority when the group met at the home of Mrs. Edward Amann on Adamson road.

* * *

Mrs. M. A. Calbi will open her home on Linden road for the Christmas party at which time members will bring a gift for each of the two homeless boys they will entertain.

A report of the recent council meeting of the sorority was given by Mrs. Charles Hoffman. The evening program and discussion on, "Prose," was presented by Mrs. Burton Bond and Mrs. Thomas Reed.

Coming Events

Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church will meet Thursday at noon for luncheon and general meeting. Reservations can be made with Mrs. Harry Rice.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

The gaiety of this season gives us the right to glamourize our grooming. Be especially careful of your nails and hands. Be sure to use hand lotion after washing and massage your face cream into your hands at night. File each little catch to prevent breaking. Soft, smooth hands and well shaped nails are a must in glamour.

If your hair is grey, try a silver or smoky rinse, whichever is most becoming. We do not recommend rinses for regular use, but this is special. If your hair is drab or faded, why not a shampoo tint to add interesting highlights. And a dash of spray and a sprinkle of stars for that special evening.

Soft Coif Flatters Mature Woman

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We see many charming hairdos which are designed for and modeled by lovely young creatures who would look beautiful no matter how they fixed their hair.

* * *

What about the mature woman? Much less thought has been given to her even though she needs guidance more.

Some of today's outstanding stylists are now turning their talents in her direction. In New York City, Michael of the Waldorf-Astoria is one of the famous persons who specializes in hair styles for this age group. I think you will be interested in his ideas.

Michael says, "Many a woman thinks she will hide forehead wrinkles by having a low-dipping forehead wave. Actually, this only acts as a pointer, accentuating the wrinkles. It is far better to brush the forelocks up into a gentle puff-pompadour.

* * *

"The mature woman should be careful not to slick the hair straight back from the forehead, for this flat-topped look tends to center the attention on the face alone rather than on the whole—a face attractively framed by a softly waving coif."

NOT TOO LONG

Michael also feels that the woman with gray hair should not wear her hair too long at the back, that youthfully styled shoulder-length hair is aging. He believes that she should either have short hair or locks long enough to brush back into a neat, chic coiffure. He says that she should beware of the bun, too.

* * *

When asked about dying gray hair, he suggested that when she is not psychologically averse to this procedure it often makes a woman feel and look much younger. However, extremes in color or style should be avoided.

Colors should be natural. When the hair is very white he recommends a lighter shade such as smoke blonde. Skin tone and the color of the eyes should be taken into consideration when choosing a new hair shade.

Michael feels that many women start to gray beautifully, with perhaps a single streak of white. This is so attractive that many younger women achieve this effect artificially.

* * *

On the other hand, many women grow gray in patches. A woman may want to dye her hair all over until she has turned completely white or gray. Later on, she may decide to leave off the dye.

ENTIRELY NATURAL

Dyeing can be done so satisfactorily now that it can look entirely natural. The experts even leave a few gray hairs in order to give this effect. If you are at the stage of early graying and vegetable rinses no longer cover the gray hairs (they won't if you have many gray hairs) you should make the decision now of whether or not to dye.

* * *

If your hair is already gray and you would be happier to have it dyed, why not do so? Just be sure you have an expert operator and that you get an allergy test first.

I think this is entirely a matter of individual preference. Everywhere we see so many beautiful and chic gray-haired women today. However, flattering and appropriate hair styling is most important. It can make you look prettier and younger!

If you would like our leaflet No. 52 "Stars in Your Crown," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

* * *

Tomorrow: "Know, Adhere to the Pace Best for You."

A streak of gray is so attractive that many younger women achieve this effect artificially.

Add your individual touch to Christmas cards you're sending this season. An interesting effect can be achieved through the use of colored pencils.

There are about 72 colors and shades to choose from, according to the Lead Pencil Manufacturers Association, and you can readily fit them to the color scheme of your choice. These pencils cost little and are obtainable in any stationery store.

For Yuletide, green and red are traditional, but you needn't limit yourself to these colors. Select the one which fits the color scheme of your cards.

Interesting effects can be obtained by binding two colored pencils together with a rubber band, for a two-color signature.

Having each member of the family sign individually always adds an intimate touch and you can make it more colorful by assigning different colors to each person.

For something really unusual, try signing your cards with a water-soluble colored pencil.

You use these just as you would any pencil. After writing, however, dip a camel's hair brush in clear water and trace the signature. You'll be pleasantly surprised at the soft, decorative effect.

Individualizing need not stop with the cards. Address the envelope with colored pencils, too. It will help convey the Christmas spirit even before the envelope is opened.

And, if you want to be particularly thoughtful to forgetful friends, indicate your present address on the envelope.

Bob Jokes All the Time

Hope Is the King of Ad Lib

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
INS Staff Writer

A gag to Bob Hope is like a good story to a newspaper reporter.

Hope is today America's king of ad libbers. He can toss off gags in the twinkle of an eye. He makes it look easy. He jokes all the time —even when he's being interviewed.

I asked the 53-year-old comic how much longer he thought he could stay at the top in show business.

"Until about 5 o'clock," he retorted in his dead-pan manner.

* * *

Hope is now an old hand at handling a good gag. He learned the technique in vaudeville in the carefree days when he was a hoofer on the same bills with jugglers, flame swallowers, knife throwers, female impersonators, xylophonists, hynotists, bag punchers, trained seals, yodelers, soft-shoe dancers and harmonica players.

CHICAGO RECALLED

Bob, in a nostalgic mood, recalled that years ago in Chicago he had a partner, Louise Troxell, whom he developed into a foil for his comedy stuff.

* * *

She'd come on the stage holding a bag in her hand. Hope would say: "What have you got in your little bag?" She'd reply: "Mustard." And he'd say, "What's the idea?" She'd say: "You can never tell when you're going to meet a ham."

Corny? Maybe. But it went over.

"Ad libbing," Hope told me, "is a combination of things. It's the gift of timing, experience, having a mind geared to gags, and the ability to click mentally —on time.

"But adroit ad libbing is often a matter of luck. You've got to be intuitive and able to sense an audience. You have to edit yourself. You have your whole machine going when you're out there on the stage."

Sometimes Hope works fast, sometimes slow, sometimes with subtlety. He knows how to be funny just standing there—mugging.

INTRIGUED BY GODFREY

Arthur Godfrey's technique intrigues Hope. He said:

"Why, Godfrey spends five minutes saying 'good morning.' He's got that easy, relaxed style. In saying 'good morning,' he'll grunt, pick up papers, mug a bit and even yawn. Such restraint and poise is marvelous.

* * *

Restraint was one of the things Hope learned years ago when he was playing the Stratford Theater in Chicago in the days when he needed a job.

He recalls that he'd lead off with a subtle joke. Many of the patrons wouldn't get it. Nonchalantly, Hope would say to the audience: "Go ahead, figure it out." Then he'd wait until they got it.

The theater manager suggested he announce the following week's show. Bob ad libbed some comedy lines and the audience howled. This was the beginning of Hope's monologues. He lasted six months at the Stratford and his salary rose to $300 a month, big money at that time.

* * *

After that he played many dates on a Western vaudeville circuit and eventually worked up to top billing in the "big time."

MUSICAL COMEDY

From vaudeville he jumped into musical comedy. In 1933 he came to New York and starred in such hits as "Roberta," "Ballyhoo," "Ziegfeld Follies" and "Red, Hot and Blue" with Ethel Merman.

Wise-cracking, ski-nosed comedian Bob Hope became an NBC radio star in the 1930s. He's still a top-flight performer on NBC-TV as well as radio.

Radio became a big entertainment medium. Bob went for it. He started in radio as a guest on Rudy Vallee's famous Thursday night program on NBC. His brand of comedy caught on, and in 1938 he was the star of his own radio show.

That same year Hollywood—and the movies — beckoned. His first motion picture, "The Big Broadcast," was a hit. Many other pictures followed, in which he starred with Dorothy Lamour, Ethel Merman, Bing Crosby and other "names."

TV inevitably became another entertainment medium in which Hope was to make a smash success. On June 8, 1950, he was signed to an exclusive long-term contract with NBC.

* * *

He's now one of the top comics on TV. Millions of people watch his monthly show.

His face is so familiar to the public that he cannot visit any city or hamlet in the country without people picking him out at once. Today he is at the peak of his popularity which has endured for a quarter of a century.

ENTERTAINED GIs

During World War II and the Korean fighting, Bob devoted much of his time entertaining servicemen on all fronts. "This work," he says, "was most satisfying. I made many friends among our soldiers and even today I'm glad to say, 'I was there.'"

* * *

The very first day Secretary of War Stimson drew the first draft number from a hat, Hope played a benefit for the first soldiers with uniform in San Francisco.

Since then he has traveled more than a million miles and entertained over 10 million troops in nearly every part of the globe. He has covered every state in the union and many of his radio and TV shows originate from camps of the armed forces.

Hope says that one of the high spots of his 25 years in show business came in 1945 when Dwight D. Eisenhower, then chief of staff of the U.S. Army, pinned on him the Medal of Merit for the camp shows he had given.

* * *

Actually, Hope's life is one great, big "kick." He loves his work. When I asked him the other day if he were 18 again would he choose show business for a career, he replied:

"Are you kidding? I certainly would. That old saying is right, 'there's no business like show business.'"

* * *

(Next: Hope tells why TV is the top entertainment medium.)

Troops to Stay in Europe Area

NATO Defense Plans Call for Allied Forces in Western Sector

PARIS (INS) — American troops will remain in Western Europe as long as the Soviet threat remains as real as it is at present and as long as the fundamental forward defense strategy of NATO is not modified.

This will be made clear, very reliable Allied sources said, at the annual review during the current session of the North Atlantic pact foreign ministers.

The informants said the review will state that there is no question of withdrawing U. S. or even British troops from western Europe, despite a clause permitting the British to pull soldiers out for economy reasons.

However, there has been much recent discussion about the correct size of ground formations in the atomic age in connection with nuclear experiments under way in the U. S., Britain and France.

* * *

This was reflected in a statement by Lord Ismay, NATO's secretary general, on Monday, concerning the substitution of machine power for manpower.

A plan attributed to Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman, of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, caused a sensation in Europe, and particularly in West Germany and led to fears that U. S. forces might be withdrawn in the near future.

Radford was said to have suggested evacuation of ground units from western Europe and NATO's reliance on bases for A-bomb bearing planes.

But in recent weeks, many American leaders, including Supreme Commander, Allied Powers in Europe, Gen. Lauris Norstad and his predecessor, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, have been reassuring European leaders on this point.

How to Make a Yule Tree With Papers

Would you like to make a Christmas tree out of a few sheets of newspaper in a couple of minutes? Just follow these directions demonstrated by Shari Lewis, children's entertainer. And watch your tree grow right out of your hands.

1. Take three double sheets of newspaper. Roll into tube form lapping one sheet into another.

2. Flatten the top part of the tube and tear down the center about eight inches. Then flatten the top part of the tube in the opposite direction and tear down again in the opposite direction. This will give you four strips at the top.

3. Now, open up the four strips and place your fingers in the center of the tube. Pull up the paper, holding the bottom of tube with your free hand. Presto, as you pull up the paper a Christmas tree will form right in your hands!

Feast Day for Mexicans

MEXICO CITY (INS) — Hundreds of thousands of devout Mexicans are expected to gather on the outskirts of Mexico City today to celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of Mexico. The worshipers will gather before the shrine on the spot where they believe the Virgin Mary appeared to an Indian boy on Dec. 12, 1931.

James Bass was recently married to Marie Fish in North Carolina. But, a good fish story was spoiled because neither came from a fishing family. Bass' father was an electrician and Miss Fish's father was a farmer.

Bethlehem Little Changed With Passing Centuries

BETHLEHEM, Jordan (AP) — A woman named Mary left her home in Nazareth and traveled south to the little town of Bethlehem. The town was so crowded with foreign visitors that Mary and her family found no room for them in the inn.

Next day Mary gave birth to a boy baby.

Everyone recalls that this incident occurred nearly 2,000 years ago on the first Christmas. But few realize it happened again last Christmas.

The Mary who came to Bethlehem from Nazareth in 1955 was a Christian Arab whose home now lies inside the Jewish state of Israel. Bethlehem lies on the other side of a military armistice line, in the Arab kingdom of Jordan.

An estimated 1,500 of these Christian Arabs cross over from Israel every year. To reach the Arab side, they pass through the famed Mandelbaum Gate in divided Jerusalem.

This "gathering of the pilgrims" at Mandelbaum has become almost a Christmas devotion each year. The 1,500 Arabs from Israel form one of the largest single groups of Christians who converge on Bethlehem each year to take part in its specatcular services re-enacting events surrounding the birth of Christ.

Three sets of pilgrims visit Bethlehem each year. That is because in Bethlehem Christmas comes, not once, but three times a year.

Western Christians, of course, visit Bethlehem on Dec. 25. But for eastern Orthodox Christians the birth of Christ is celebrated on Jan. 7, and on Jan. 18, Christmas comes around for Armenians in Bethlehem.

Centuries-old calendar differences produced these different dates for Christmas among the different faiths. The three Christmases spread the season out over almost a month.

Christmas in Bethlehem is an elaborate spectacle. Festivities begin at noon on Christmas eve, when the Latin patriarch of Jerusalem, Alberto Gori, leaves his patriarchate inside the old walled city of Jerusalem and drives to Bethlehem. Escorted by lancers on white horses he proceeds to Manger Square in front of the Church of the Nativity.

In the evening the patriarch presides over a pontifical Christmas Mass. The climax is reached in the early hours of Christmas morning when the patriarch places a statue of the infant Jesus on the silver star marking the spot where Christ was born inside a grotto beneath the church.

Highlight of Protestant activities is a service in Shepherd's Field on Christmas eve, conducted on the spot near Bethlehem where shepherds are said to have heard the angels announce the birth of Christ.

An estimated 5,000 foreign visitors come to Bethlehem each Christmas.

These pilgrims come from points as far removed as Manila and Kansas City.

When the Holy Family came to Bethlehem on the first Christmas, the town was so crowded they couldn't find accommodations. The same is true today, except for the fact that there is not even an inn here.

Dolls Teach Children Good Habits

This Christmas, America's talented dolls, having already qualified as nearly human, are recruited to give parents help in teaching children the basics of health, good grooming, dressing and home decoration.

As a sample of this year's dolls, the Toy Guidance Council's 1956 Prestige selections not only have highstyle wardrobes, completely accessorized, but are also equipped with health-protecting and grooming equipment, scaled to size.

* * *

Toys for dolls have developed as an ingenious new specialty. Dolls are provided with miniatures of favorite childhood playthings, designed in exact propertion to the doll.

The doll population, of course, continues to astound adults by growing more and more lifelike. It walks, kisses, drinks, burps, etc. Many perform with the muscular flexibility of ballet stars.

The impact of the larger families growing common in America is shown by the doll families in assorted sizes.

In addition to their almost-too-close-to-human performance, the doll stars of 1956 are designed to encourage their owners to observe health care and good grooming routines. Doll wardrobes and suitable closets, it's hoped, will keep young owners busy at neating up both little and big closets.

Junior beauticians, for example, have more scope than before. Dolls have firmly rooted synthetic hair in the Prestige selections. Vigorous brushing, constant shampooing and setting will not damage the hair. The theory is that the young lady will want a shampoo herself when her doll gets one.

* * *

The sleepy doll, long a standard, is sleepier than ever in a version by Knickerbocker. The doll, of vinyl, dressed in blanket material, has tightly closed eyes. This should encourage slumber and therefore good health in moppets.

The Life Saver doll by Horsman has candy-colored hair and comes with candy to match. No one knows what good habit this encourages, unless it's eating candy.

The Bannister Baby provides a complete training course for future baby sitters. It comes with well-matched accessories for total caer of the imaginary infant.

* * *

Nina, the ballerina, heads the list of muscularly educated dolls. This doll not only does bends and splits but also turns her head and walks. Her professional wardrobe is glamorous enough to satisfy the theater-eager child and her street wardrobe should impress on the young owner that one needs to keep up appearances.

The eight-inch doll is having a great vogue this year, as is evidenced by the prominence of this size in the Prestige collection.

Doll furniture, for the first time, is available completely scaled to popular doll sizes.

One maker, Doepke, long famous as a maker of model toys for boys, has entered the woman's world with an add-a-piece collection of doll furniture.

The furniture is built for the eight, 10 and 11-inch dolls. The bedroom suite is the first set in the line. It's done in turquoise blue, tan on ivory and black accents.

The suite includes a bookcase bed, wardrobe, chest, double chest, desk and chair, vanity and bench. The bed is made of steel with a foam mattress, thereby proving that daddy is correct when he says the dolls live better than he does.

Los Angeles has twice as many automobiles as all of South America. St. Louis has twice that of Japan.

Security for You

Read Rules Carefully, Speed First Check

The time between your application for Social Security payments and your first check will probably be six to eight weeks. If you're eligible for payments at the time you apply, you'll be paid back to that date.

But chances are you can speed up the first check, if you make the right moves.

For example: Suppose you retire early in 1957. When you apply for retirement payments you should bring along some proof of your 1956 earnings such as your W-2 income tax form. Or, if you were self-employed, bring a copy of your tax return for 1956 plus a cancelled check or some other proof that the return was filed.

* * *

Here's why such a move may speed up your payment:

Your Social Security payments are figured on your average monthly earnings either since Jan. 1, 1937, or Jan. 1, 1951.

Your 1956 earnings will be important in the calculation. But your Social Security record won't show these earnings.

They won't be on your record because of a time lag of up to six months in posting your wages on the record.

Part of the lag results because your employer only files a record of your wages every three months. Part of the lag results from the paper work that's involved in the Internal Revenue Service office with which your employer must file your quarterly wage record and to which he must pay the Social Security tax. Part of the lag results from the transfer of your record from internal revenue to the Social Security Administration and the paper work in the Social Security office.

In any case, if you don't bring in a record of your 1956 earnings, your Social Security payments can't be figured. Thus, the first step in starting your payments can't be made.

Either you'll have to bring the record in later or the Social Security people will have to write to your employer for the record. Both are bound to delay your first check.

Another move which may speed up your first payment is a call to the nearest Social Security office to see if you'll need any other records when you apply.

PROOF OF AGE

For example: Women who apply for payments as wives of retired workers should bring some proof of their age. Women applying as widows, who've never filed for payments as wives, should bring some proof of their marriage; in some cases proof of age will also be necessary.

In some cases it might be well to drop by or to call your Social Security office well in advance of when you apply for payments.

You may find that you'll need a record which you'll have to write somewhere to get or spend some time trying to find.

However, you need not worry about getting your application in a little late. There's no penalty. The Social Security will pay you back checks up to a full year. After a year, the payments are lost.

(You may write Ray Henry in care of this newspaper about your own Social Security or retirement problem. Please enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin.)

Identified as Bandit, Saved by Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Automobile accidents can be a blessing in disguise, Robert J. Irwin mused today.

Rancher Bryan Glass last week identified Irwin as one of three men who took part in a robbery near Gonzales, Tex., last Jan. 21. Texas wanted Irwin extradited.

But at a habeas corpus hearing Virginia Hammond of Los Angeles testified she was involved in an auto accident with Irwin Jan. 21, and documents were produced showing Irwin had made an insurance claim based on the accident.

Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker ordered him freed.

Eastern State 'Stinks,' but No One Knows Why

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Residents in six counties of eastern Pennsylvania reported a peculiar, pungent odor in the air last night. The Philadelphia Weather Bureau, public utilities, the Navy and the Air Force all said they could not identify it or offer an explanation. One woman put it this way: "There's a big stink all through this part of the country and nobody knows where it's coming from."

Launch Satellite in 1958

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Joseph Kaplan, chairman of the U. S. National Committee for the International Geophysical year, says he believes the first of 12 artificial satellites will be projected into space about Jan. 1, 1958. He told an Ohio University audience that if six satellites are successful, "it will be a good percentage."

Refugee Forces Son Into Stupor to Escape Reds

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — A Hungarian refugee has told how he forced alcohol down his two-year-old son's throat to get him drunk and insure the success of his family's flight to freedom.

Emmerich Remenyk, 34, one of 102 Hungarians who arrived for a new life in San Francisco, said that he and his wife, Gabriella, 29, and their two children, Babriella, 9, and Emmerich Jr., 2, moved out of Budapest when Russian tanks moved into the capital.

They were turned away at the Austrian border when a Hungarian captain of the guards refused to let them pass.

Remenyk pretended to start back to Budapest but hid behind a thicket with his family until nightfall. Then he made his son drunk so he could not give them away by crying.

He carried his son to the border but slipped. The boy's head hit the ground and despite his condition he cried out.

Remenyk quickly closed his hand over the baby's mouth. He added: "I almost smothered my own son. But my family escaped."

Parents Still Trying to Take Tanya Away

LONDON (INS) —The parents of little Tanya Chwastov, whose father tried last October to take her with him to Russia, battled for her custody in a secret hearing yesterday in the high court of justice in London.

Tnya, 2, was not present as her mother, Mrs. George Dieczok of Detroit, and her father, Alexei Chwastov, argued their case.

Tanya and her father sailed from New York for Britain last Oct. 3 aboard the liner Queen Mary. Their departure was arranged by Soviet United Nations displomat Konstantin Ekimov, who later was ordered to leave the U.S.

Tanyas' mother obtained a writ forbidding Chwastov to leave Britain aboard a Soviet liner until their battle for custody could be decided by a British court.

Highway Patrol on Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — H. F. Tornau, executive director of the Ohio Turnpike Commission, thinks the State Highway Patrol is doing a fine job of patrolling the turnpike. He said he was arrested for exceeding the 65 m.p.h. speed limit.

International Monetary Fund Loan Given to Britain in America's Interest

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The loan of $1,300,000,000 to Britain by the International Monetary Fund last night may clear the Washington air for a while, at least. It was getting confused toward the end of last week.

Britain had suffered economic damage from her joint attack with France on Egypt. For one thing, the invasion cost money. For another, oil supplies from the Middle East were shut off when the Suez Canal was blocked.

* * *

The United States is going to make up a part of the oil loss by shipping oil from here. Nevertheless, Britain showed she still was in an economic squeeze by asking this country to waive nearly 82 million dollars in interest on previous debts.

Keeping the British economy healthy is in the interest of the United States. A collapse in Britain would be felt around the world, particularly in Western Europe.

* * *

Last Thursday some high authorities in the government were talking of increased aid to Britain, not as big as the Marshall plan, but nevertheless sizable. But the talk was vague.

On Thursday night Vice President Nixon touched on the same subject in a New York speech although he too was vague when he said:

"I believe it is in our interest as well as theirs (the British) in this hour of difficulty, and I am confident that there will be strong bipartisan support in Congress for granting such assistance."

It seemed unlikely Nixon would talk like that unless he knew he was stating administration thinking.

* * *

As if to make it official, James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower's press secretary, said that while Eisenhower didn't see the Nixon speech beforehand, "the vice president knows the policies of the President."

So administration thinking seemed to be in the direction of fresh aid for Britain, to be voted by Congress. But on Saturday night Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey appeared to throw cold water on this notion. Speaking in New York, he said:

"Some of the estimates for financial support have been greatly exaggerated. The fact is that in all probability existing institutions will be able to provide most of the assistance that may be needed."

The "existing institutions" Humphrey had in mind must have included the International Monetary Fund, established in 1947. The United States, Britain and a batch of other countries are members.

Each contributes a share of the money which makes up the fund from which a needy member can get a loan, as Britain did last night. The British will have to pay interest on the money, besides paying back the principal.

But the fund is an international organization. Congress has nothing to do with the loans it makes. So Humphrey was right, at least up to now.

Maybe by the time Congress comes back in January Britain will need more money. If so, the Eisenhower administration will then have to ask Congress to help the British.

MODERN "DUST BOWL" — Drought-stricken states indicated on Newsmap will be visited by President Eisenhower in mid-January, the White House announced recently. He will hold conferences with federal, state and local officials as well as the farmers themselves. The dearth of rainfall over the past several years has caused multi-million-dollar damage to some of the country's most productive crop areas. The drought, said to be the area's most severe in 700 years, has cut state income and farmer profits drastically.

Tragedy Strikes While Pair Tries to Get Yule Funds

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Granville Whitlock decided to sell the family cow yesterday so they could buy Christmas presents for their seven children.

They took Brownie, the cow, to a friend's house to see if he would buy it. They told the children they were going to visit a sick friend.

When they got back, their rented home was burned down.

The children, ranging from 9 months to 15 years, were saved, but most of the family's possessions were lost.

Whitlock, 34, is partially disabled by a World War II arm injury and his eyesight was damaged by an acid explosion in 1947.

Hart Asks Citizens to Aid Fellowmen

LANSING (AP)—Acting Gov. Philip A. Hart today called on Michigan citizens to "sacrifice" in order to generously respond to a Red Cross fund appeal for destitute Hungarians.

He said he understands the American Red Cross, seeking to help feed Hungary's impoverished and to care for refugees, has assigned a quota of about $200,000 to Michigan.

In a letter to E. R. Harriman, Red Cross National Chairman, Hart said:

"I am urging every Michigan resident, as we approach the Christmas season of giving and good will to our fellowman, to make an extra sacrifice on behalf of the good people of Hungary, who have given so much in the cause of freedom."

What's Happened to the Christmas Tree?

By JANICE HAYHOW

The latest joke going the rounds in the place famous for jokes—Hollywood—tells about the rising young starlet who really wanted to be different with her Christmas tree so she bought a green one.

Yes, even the old Christmas tree, long familiarly green and fresh, has joined the ultra jet age and not only in Hollywood, Pontiac householders are branching out into the sleek pale pink and blue trees, the sprayed white ones and even the more extreme.

Perhaps the biggest contributors to the modernization of the Christmas tree are the many Pontiac apartment dwellers who with small quarters just can't handle the big old-fashioned pines and spruces.

These small unit inhabitants have called on their imaginations to combat lack of space and have come up with top ideas along the Christmas tree line.

SOMETHING NEW

Harold S. Jacobsen, owner of Jacobsen's Flowers, 101 N. Saginaw St. and greenhouses in Lake Orion, says many local residents are turning to something new and different in the Christmas tree line.

The small dwellers sometimes forsake small trees, he said, for elaborate mantel or table arrangements involving, greenery, candles, and ornaments or figurines.

* * *

Another type of tree which really isn't a tree at all is the lacy looking lovely built of expanding foil. Jacobsen said some buyers have cut the foil trees in half and hung half on the wall to cope with lack of actual tree space.

* * *

And sometimes a homemaker with all the space in the world just wants a change and she blends the trimming of the Christmas tree in with the decor of a certain room.

Lush pink, blue or white artificial vines trees are another kind the modernists choose for that "something different" when it comes Christmas time.

Jacobsen said many residents differ the styles of their trees by using the same color ornaments or all the same color lighting or even some of the new twinkle lights that go off and on.

* * *

But there's plenty of consolation for the old-fashioned fresh, green tree lovers who year after year choose the pines, spruces and balsam for their Christmas purposes.

Local Christmas tree dealers do a booming business every year. Kevin J. Ritter, local market owner, said in five lots last year he sold over 5,000 trees.

* * *

And the ultra decorations that are giving the Christmas tree a new style consciousness? Well, their supporters are firmly in the minority.

* * *

There are too many families who wouldn't give up the old ornaments that spell tradition, the strings of popcorn balls made in sticky kitchen sessions and the construction of paper rings pasted so laboriously in second grade art classes, for all the ultra modern Christmas trees in Pontiac—or Hollywood.

DOWN IN THE MOUTH — The Air Force Globemaster transport displays an apt expression of glum resignation as it lies on its chin after a crash landing at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica. No one aboard was injured.

Britisher Kidnaped, Killed by Egyptian Underground

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP) — The Egyptian underground says it kidnaped and killed a young British lieutenant.

The report was brought to British headquarters last night in the face of British insistence that the lieutenant be returned quickly—and alive.

The British-French occupation command awaited firmer evidence before conceding the officer had been killed. But British Lt. Gen. Sir Hugh Stockwell, the occupation chief, let it be understood that some action would follow if the officer was not given up alive.

* * *

The kidnaping was the latest of a string of actions by the underground to harass the rapidly diminishing British and French forces in the process of withdrawing from Egypt at the demand of the U.N. General Assembly.

* * *

Lt. A. G. Moorehouse, leader of a patrol that captured seven Egyptian commandos Monday night hiding in a dentist's apartment, stopped his jeep in the same street yesterday morning to talk to a man.

An Arab boy said he saw three men force the British officer into a taxi at the point of the lieutenant's own gun.

The car was found later—its interior bloodstained. A gag and rope were inside.

A thorough search of Port Said brought no sign of the missing lieutenant. At dusk an Egyptian civilian brought word from the underground that the officer had been slain. Stockwell said Port Said had been sealed off and the Egyptians could not get the Briton or his body, out of town.

* * *

The kidnaping followed the seizure last weekend of a large cache of explosives and ammunition being smuggled into Port Said, an attempted ambush of a British patrol and the appearance of scrawled signs throughout the city warning the British that "Port Said is your graveyard."

* * *

Egyptian authorities disclaimed responsibility for the incidents. Informants said they were the work of members of the fanatic Moslem Brotherhood in Port Said. They said the secret terror organization, outlawed by the government two years ago, was attempting to embarrass President Nasser.

Paint Business Complex

KANSAS CITY — The paint business is a complex affair. From the 1,000 different raw materials usually stocked by a good-sized coatings company almost 10 trillion different formulas containing only five ingredients are possible. This complexity is further compounded by the introduction of 400 to 500 new ingredients every year.

Becomes Citizen in Bed

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — The court moved into the bedroom for Mrs. Sam Vinner to become a citizen. The polish-born woman has been confined for years by multiple sclerosis. Her husband helped her make the final move to citizenship. He raised and steadied her right hand as the court clerk administered the oath of allegiance.

Quite a Bit Like Texans

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — In case it's any consolation to you when hunting a place to sleep, Florida has 1,396 hotels, 5,414 motels and 11,938 rooming houses which altogether can house 687,676 persons.

Or, if you're hungry:

The state has 14,556 restaurants (3,100 in Miami's Dade County); a cooking device that can "broast" (broil-roast) a chicken in five minutes or a fish in three and a "radar range" that can cook a steak in 15 to 20 seconds.

New Musical Justifies Faith in an Unknown

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—You can call me a square, a cornball and even a preacher—but there's an element of faith in the new Ethel Merman-Fernando Lamas musical, "Happy Hunting."

★ ★ ★

The sensational new girl talent, Virginia Gibson, almost didn't get in it because she was in Hollywood making pictures—"Nobody here in New York knew who I was, and the producers didn't feel justified paying my fare here to try out."

VIRGINIA

"I went home to St. Louis," says this beautiful little blonde dancer and singer whose real name is Virginia Gorski, "and agent Morton Baum—who's not even my agent—phoned me from New York that he had faith enough in me to pay my fare in."

She's so great, she might be a Merman herself some day.

Then there are Gordon Polk and Gene Wesson, ex-drunks who joined Alcoholics Anonymous, got faith in themselves, and have been working steadily—and walking steadily—since.

★ ★ ★

"Are you still on the wagon?" I asked them backstage.

"We wouldn't be here if we weren't!" they said. (End of sermon).

★ ★ ★

Kathy Grant's coming in for interviews, but she doesn't want to be asked about Bing Crosby (Yuh-hear?) . . . Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra are both nail-biters, so Toni the manicurist and Frank Garzaniti the barber tell me at the Stage Barber Shop.

★ ★ ★

Marilyn Monroe's requested that she usher "upstairs" at the "Baby Doll" premiere for benefit of Actors Studio Dec. 18. She wants to be among the acting students who'll be sitting up there.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Tough Luck, Wolves Kim Novak's not coming to New York. The Jeanne Eagels story's to be filmed in LA . . . Danny Kaye stopped at Mayo's for a checkup and they didn't find a thing.

MMonroe and Arthur Miller attended "Long Day's Journey Into Night," and ushers and firemen had to hold back the rubbernecking balconyites . . . Kirk Douglas is Herman Wouk's choice for the male lead in the "Marjorie Morningstar" film . . . Duo: Gene Kelly and Judy Holliday . . . Joe Louis is looking for a writer to help with his film bio . . . Edward G. Robinson squired two blondes to Greta Keller's opening . . . Dorothy Collins and Ray Scott of the "Hit Parade" will become TV film producers.

Alistair Cook of "Omnibus," now a naturalized U. S. citizen, explained jokingly the difficulties of an Englishman in switching nationalities: "Some British call you a renegade and some Americans refer to you as 'that British spy'."

Earl's Pearls . . .

The accordion was designed by a man who couldn't decide how big the fish was that got away.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "New York's a town where you can just about get away with murder—unless you do it in a car parked near a fireplug."—Frederic Jones.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Myron Cohen's getting weary of waiting for tickets to that show—he now calls it "My Fair Lady-In-Waiting."

The late Fred Allen heard a comic use a stale joke and said, "I'd hate to be a drowning man and have someone throw me a line like that." That's earl, brother.

THE ANIMALS' CHRISTMAS By Walt Scott

'Joe Pickpocket' Eyes Season Bonus

By PETE LOCHBILER

It's the time of year Joe Pickpocket is happiest.

Shoppers are loaded, clerks are harried, purses and wallets in abundance lay unguarded on store counters.

Joe finds on lifting someone's roll that it's larger this month than at any other time.

Money that would have gone for presents goes into Joe's pocket instead.

Carelessness on the part of shoppers and clerks combines to give Joe a merry and successful Christmas season.

If pickings from some reason are small, Joe has other seasonal tricks to fall back on.

He knows, for instance, that expensive presents are sitting at home, waiting for the enterprising burglar.

The lone woman, walking down the street late at night, is a temptation Joe cannot often resist. Her purse swings so easily on her arm—just right for grabbing.

Joe knows inside there'll be something special for him—a few extra dollars as a sort of Christmas bonus.

Joe's tactics were outlined in the annual Christmas warning issued by the Pontiac Police Department. To thwart Joe, here's some rules listed by Chief of Detectives Clark M. Wheaton.

Don't carry large sums of money—pay by check.

Keep your eye or hand on your purse and packages at all times.

Don't keep large sums of cash at home.

Keep doors and windows locked and a light burning when away shopping during evenings.

Follow the rules, Wheaton says, and Joe Pickpocket will have a lousy Christmas.

$100,000 Onion Roast

PLAINWELL (UP)—Fire destroyed 26,000 bushels of onions in storage Monday with damages estimated at $100,000 to a refrigerated storehouse operated at nearby Neeley by William Riley of Plainwell. Plainwell fireman James VanLent was treated at Crispe Hospital for injuries suffered when he fell from the building roof while fighting the fire. Firemen said the fire started when an oil burner toppled.

Israeli Poet Dies at 70

TEL AVIV (UP)—David Shimoni, a leading Hebrew poet and chairman of the Israeli Writers' Assn., died at his home here yesterday. He was 70.

When Simian Shouldn't This Monkey Shines

LOS ANGELES (UP)—For the last five weeks a monkey has been homesteading Mrs. Ruth Grant's backyard.

At first, she thought the Simian was a lot of fun. He swung from tree to tree and danced on the power lines. Mrs. Grant put out food.

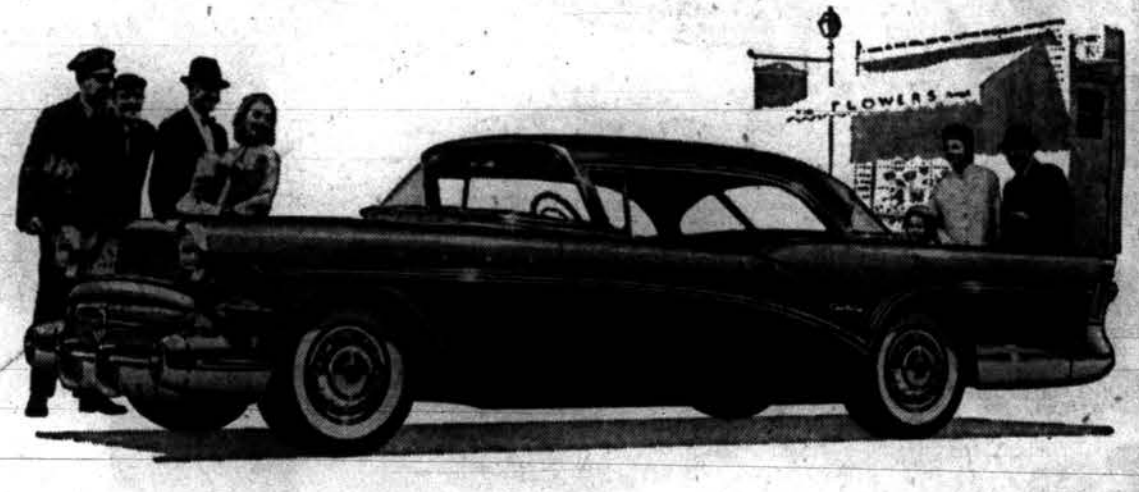
That apparently was a mistake. The monkey broke into Mrs. Grant's home, tore curtains and upset an ink well. Now she wishes the animal would leave or the owner would get her. The monkey is a she—she chatters incessantly.

Driver Made Mistake by Hurrying Home

DETROIT (INS)—Raymond J. Nowicki, 38, of Detroit, who had been in Chicago on business, made a mistake when he returned to the Motor City recently.

He got ticketed for speeding Sunday and it was learned he was wanted for eight moving violations and 13 parking citations.

Traffic Judge John D. Watts yesterday sentenced Nowicki to 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction.



What's it Got that Everyone's After?

We figured folks would go for the '57 Buick—and big.

But we sure didn't figure this—the most rousing reception we've ever seen in all our years of selling new Buicks.

We're getting more enthusiastic talk—along with the signed orders—than ever before. And, neighbor, if you want to know why—listen:

This '57 Buick has that sleek low-sweep styling that today's moderns want—and it's here in extra-long measure, in the lowest Buick yet.

It has the room they want—for Buick's new wide-frame chassis permits a sports-car silhouette with more interior roominess than even last year's spacious Buicks.

It has newness everywhere, and newness that's wanted . . .

A smart new panoramic windshield. The surety of a new "nested" ride. A brilliant new handling and levelized braking that come of an ingenious new ball-joint suspension. It even has a new Safety-Minder* that watches your miles-per-hour for you.

But even more important, this rakish sweep of automobile has a new kind of instant response—and that's the biggest reason for the soaring popularity of the newest Buick yet.

For here is performance—smooth as spun silk—unleashed by a totally new V8 engine 364 cubic inches big, and with the highest compression, torque and horsepower in Buick annals.

And here, to deliver that might, is the power-pitch action of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.* A Dynaflow of such instantaneous obedience, such smooth and versatile control in "Drive"—the need for "Low" is virtually ended.

In all truth, you've never bossed a car so keenly alive, so smooth in motion, so solid in feel. It's ahead of its time, ahead of the industry—even ahead of your great expectations.

Come check up on all this. Come drive this shoulder-high sweetheart—today.

Asks U.S.-British Amity

London (INS) — A British government spokesman states the U.S. and Britain must not "harp on past differences" but must strengthen the Anglo-American alliance. "The times are far too dangerous," Lord Salisbury told the House of Lords, "for us and the United States to quarrel."

An average American uses 350 pounds of paper per year, compared with about 56 pounds in 1900, according to industrial surveys.

Wallet Flies Home

BRAINERD, Minn. (AP) — When Pablo Del Moral's billfold was blown out of his plane by a gust of wind the flier blew the vanishing wallet a kiss goodbye. He didn't have to. Kenneth Haag, hitchhiking to Brainerd, spotted the billfold in a ditch. He called it to the attention of police, who gave it back to Del Moral.

About three-fourths of all the suicide victims in the U.S. are males.

Sulfur Made in Sicily

CATANIA, Sicily—The first commercial sulfur-produced since ancient times was manufactured in Sicily early in the 15th Century. It was not until 1735, when a process for manufacturing sulfuric acid from sulfur was developed, that the nations of the world began to vie for control of this element.

The average American woman, 25-29 years old, is 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighs about 136 pounds.

'Feeder' Lines Rise

NEW YORK—Local-service domestic airlines, once known as "feeders," showed a passenger increase of 31 per cent in 1955. They carried more than 3,000,000 passengers. The 13 local lines, which fly in and out of small and intermediate size cities, had a total revenue of some $37,000,000. The average flight was 181 miles.

First synthetic rubber tire was placed on U.S. markets in June 1940.

Bob Considine Says:

Japanese May Resent Another MacArthur

SYDNEY (INS) — The old Japan hand looked up from the newspaper and said, "The Japanese won't take kindly to Ambassador MacArthur."

He had just read that Douglas MacArthur II, State Department career man and nephew of the general, had been named U. S. ambassador to Tokyo.

"Gen. MacArthur presided over the most humane and constructive occupation in the history of arms," the OJH said. "There is just no parallel for it.

"The man who was portrayed as ready to behead everybody and sack pretty cities gave them a constitution, political emancipation, a perspective, new dignity, trade and what not.

* * *

"But the Japanese would prefer not to recall that period of defeat, despair and redevelopment.

"Ambassador MacArthur, I would say, will have to be an extraordinarily able man to overcome his uncle's great reputation and the memories it recalls to Japanese. Those were days of national helplessness and great humility. These days are not."

The program of humanizing Emperor Hirohito continues, my friend reported. It is conducted by his court, which the postwar Japanese journalist has learned to rap as vigorously as American papers blast city hall.

* * *

The Emperor recently was pictured as a man who still wore a pair of shoes 23 years old, which he repeatedly had half-soled. His Daimlers are almost as old as his shoes.

The newspapers complain editorially that palace guards keep the Emperor much too remote. Tokyo correspondents refer to this as "The Chrysanthemum Curtain."

In the meantime there is growth of the "new freedom" and it can take odd tacks. Japanese girls who want notoriety for one reason or another, as do our Hollywood starlets, have dived nude into the palace moat and been arrested with subsequent publicity.

If that had happened before or during the war . . . well, it just never would have happened.

TRANSLATING TROUBLE

Ran into Roy Saiki, star sportswriter of Tokyo's largest newspaper, Yomiuri, at Melbourne. Roy translated my World Series stories into Japanese for his paper.

* * *

"The American idiom, the slang, the nuance, throws our regular interpreters," he told me. "Very good, to be sure, but they are literal.

"There was a story once about one of your baseball holdouts in which the player complained 'I won't work for peanuts'. The best our fellow could do with it was 'I will not go around collecting peanuts'. It confused readers. Why, a reader asked, would a fine ballplayer be asked to collect peanuts?

"Then there was that one word lead you wrote on the final game of the World Series, when the Yankees slaughtered Brooklyn. You started your story out, 'Murder'.

* * *

"I happened to get to the office just in time to choose a Japanese word meaning 'an act of murder'. The regular translator had given your word its literal Japanese meaning. For Japanese, at least, your final story would have started out, 'Kill people!' "

Not all the Hungarian Olympic athletes defected. Some, indeed, made a show of wanting to return to their Communist-controlled homeland.

We tried to talk to a Hungarian team official about the rebellious athletes the other night at the Olympic Village outside Melbourne.

"We are not interested in politics," he said. "We are sportsmen. We are not interested in the least bit in politics."

We asked for his card, noticed he billed himself as Doctor So-and-So.

* * *

"Are you a medical doctor?" we asked.

"Certainly not," he said indignantly.

"I am a doctor of political science."

In a 13-year-period the bones of about 31 million buffaloes were gathered from the plains of Kansas and sold to dealers for about $2,500,000.

One Dies as Boulder Crushes Building

SONORA, Calif. (AP)—Arthur Carlson, 56-year-old carpenter, had planned to work only one more day on the Tri-Dam project at the headwaters of the Stanislaus River.

He went into a building at the bottom of the canyon for a drink yesterday morning. A boulder about 100 feet long and 30 feet wide, undermined by rains and freezing water, suddenly slid 70 feet down the canyon wall and crushed the building. Carlson was killed.

Had it come an hour later, 100 men would have been eating breakfast in the building.

Put Ordinance to Commission

Propose Additional Four Members on Board at General Hospital

Introduced to the City Commission last night was an ordinance, which, when adopted, will permit the addition of four new members to the Pontiac General Hospital's present seven-member Board of Trustees.

Only read by title last evening, the ordinance is expected to be up for possible approval next Tuesday.

Candidates for the new positions will be considered at a Dec. 27 informal session of the commission, according to Mayor William W. Donaldson. He said appointments would not be made until January.

The membership boost received the backing of present members when a survey of the city hospital's management completed in May, suggested a board from 11 to 15 members.

The four additions to the board will be appointed for four year terms at staggered periods so that all terms do not expire at once. The same ruling is in effect for present members.

Overemphasis on Science Study, Says Educator

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State College, says the heavy emphasis on science and mathematics in colleges is getting out of hand.

The whole country is so science-minded and there are such powerful forces behind this emphasis there is a danger of overdoing it, he told the Oregon State Board of Higher Education yesterday.

"This whole philosophy of emphasizing science and mathematics . . . is out of balance because the deficiency in other teaching fields is equally great," Dr. Strand said.

Dolls This Year More Lifelike

Accessories to Help Girls Learn Good Living Habits

Not only do the dolls of 1956 walk, talk and drink, they boast synthetic rooted hair more durable than the human variety and they have supple bodies that will perform ballet routines.

Miniature dolls now bend their knees, walk and turn their heads with an ease formerly limited to larger dolls. These little ones are 8 to 11 inches high, and, like their bigger sisters have stylish hair-dos that can be shampooed and set. Their wardrobes are high style.

With many of them, whatever their size, go complete clothes closets in which hang fashionable dresses, coats and suits, a full range of matching accessories including high heeled shoes, hat and belts. Also provided are "shortie" pajamas, charm bracelets, sun glasses, ice skates, sports wear, and chignons.

GROOMING AND HEALTH

In addition to these aids, designed to make good grooming and health practices attractive, to their young mistresses, are miniature cosmetic and toilet kits containing national brands that promote cleanliness, sparkling teeth and flattering makeup.

In a similar trend, baby dolls are provided with kits of basic feeding and skin care preparations, and with detailed instructions on their use.

Separate fingers and toes give extra interest to a new, soft vinyl doll voted an outstanding example of American toy production in 1956 by the Toy Guidance Council. This newcomer has jointed arms and legs and a swivel head.

Dolls and candy are two of the more important aspects of Christmas to most little girls, so this year the toy designers have thought up the special "double" present of a doll with candy-colored hair packed with matching candy.

Another line of glamor dolls turns back the clock. They are dressed like the Mardi Gras belles of a century ago, with lace and velvet ball gowns propped up by billowing crinolines.

For those youngsters who find watching Mother in the kitchen a fascinating pastime, there is an increasing amount of small scale kitchen equipment. Dressed for the part in a chef's uniform the junior cook can produce a doll sized meal with toy bowls, utensils, electric beaters and mixers—tested for safety—and with provisions including replicas of branded food.

Creating new jewelry designs is made easy for the young hobbyist, with a handicraft kit that includes materials and instructions for making personal ornaments and decorating household articles.

The set contains rhinestones, colorful carved flowers, fruits and vegetables, pearl motifs, seashells, simulated pearl motifs, seashells simulated jewels, seed beads and jewelry cement.

The stuffed animal kingdom, is on a very different tack from the rest of toyland. It is tending toward the surrealistic. Many cuddly animals have almost human faces and colors run riot in purple octopuses, pink rabbits, green, red and black checked horses, blue cats and orange dogs.

FROM AMERICA TO HUNGARY'S HEROES — Pictured are some of 500 Hungarian student refugees who lined up at camp at Wolfgang See to receive CARE "Welcome Kits." Each man gets a plastic bag containing several pairs of woolen socks, handkerchiefs, towels, soap, safety razor, blades and shaving soap. Women get similar bags with sewing kits and other feminine supplies. Of course, CARE also distributes huge amounts of food and clothing. You can send a CARE package in the name of some friend instead of sending him a Christmas present. In that case, your friend is advised by a greeting card (inset) that a contribution has been made in his name. With the number of refugees from the Red terror mounting by the thousands each day, CARE is making an extended fund appeal for Hungarian relief.

Do's and Don't's for Selecting Toys

Here are some do's and don'ts on buying toys from Dr. Philip Lewis of the Chicago Board of Education, a member of the Toy Guidance Council's advisory board.

Don't wait till the last week. Toys are important tools of child development and deserve careful selection.

Do plan to do your toy shopping first and take time to read leaflets describing children's play needs at different age levels which most good toy departments have.

Don't buy toys just because they intrigue your eye.

Do study manufacturers' tags and box instructions to determine age appeal. Remember age suitability of any toy is a major safety factor.

Don't buy toys for just one child in a family. Do give all the children in the family some toy remembrance, although they need not be of equal value. The toddler, for example, will be happy with push and pull toys and won't envy the more expensive hobby kit you select for an older brother.

Don't arbitrarily refuse to cater to a boy's wish for a housekeeping toy, or a girl's request for a cowboy costume.

Do remember that boys and girls have the same play interests up to six. Boys enjoy playing with dolls, cooking sets and other homemaking toys and benefit from imitating such familiar family activities. Girls enjoy Wild West play and benefit from sharing such dramatic play with their brothers.

Don't concentrate your toy purchases all at one counter, just because it's easier for you to complete your gift list in a hurry.

Do consider the fact that each child needs a variety of toys for all-around development, and select toys to meet his needs for different play activities.

Don't buy a very large truck for a child you know lives on an upper floor of an apartment.

Do consider the child's home and pick playthings that will be appropriate to his surroundings.

Don't feel "lost," if you are buying for a child you are not acquainted with.

Do observe play interests of children the same age. If the parents are interested in music, chances are that musical toys will be especially enjoyed by their child.

If parents are enthusiastic about sports, games related to sports are likely to make a hit with junior.

Don't cross a big family of youngsters off your list, because you can't manage large gifts for all.

Do consider a purchase of group interest, such as a large building set, and provide each child with a set of different figures, or miniature furniture, to add the personal touch.

Hungary Premier Kadar Next in Line for Red Ax?

VIENNA (INS) — The Russians may be getting ready to dump puppet Premier Janos Kadar in the effort to curb the flaming revolt in Hungary.

International News Service correspondent Katharine Clark in a telephoned dispatch from Budapest yesterday said Kadar was reported ill and "it was believed he is unable to walk and needs constant attention — and advice."

There also were reports that former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov and East European Kremlin expert Mikhail Suslov were in Budapest to help reshuffle the puppet government and drop Kadar.

Today the Vienna newspaper Neuer Kurier claimed to have direct news from Budapest that the Russians wanted to replace Kadar with Lajos Feher.

FEHER IS STRONG MAN

Feher is editor of the party organ Nepszabadsag, an old "Stalinist" red, and reputedly the "strong man behind Kadar."

Another mentioned as a possible successor to Kadar is Ferenc Erdei, president of the Hungarian-Soviet Association. He is a bitter foe of Kadar and was reported in prison little more than a week ago.

The Austrian newspaper Arbeiter Zietung said the Kadar regime is in a dilemma owing to constant changes of policy by its Soviet masters.

The newspaper claimed that these changes were due to shifting control between the Soviet government and the Red army. It said sometimes one gave an order and sometimes the other. This resulted, it said, in the withdrawal of the apparent offer for U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to visit Budapest, and other sudden changes in tactics.

REPLACED NAGY

Kadar, 44-year-old Communist veteran, was installed by the Russians when they deposed Imre Nagy as premier just before the Soviet tank assault on Budapest Nov. 4.

Nagy had proposed that Hungary be allowed to quit the Warsaw military alliance of Communist satellite states and that Soviet troops get out of Hungary.

Later Nagy was abducted by the Soviets and the Kadar regime said he was in Romania.

Kadar, thoroughly hated by Hungarian patriots revolting against Soviet rule, himself suffered years of imprisonment by his own "comrades" in the bitter quarrels within the Red party.

Minimum Age Law Revisions Urged

DETROIT (AP) — Amending a state law which would remove the 18-year-old age limitation that presently prohibits high school and trade school graduates from working at certain jobs is urged by a Detroit Youth Commission official.

Joseph H. Landeau, executive secretary of the Mayor's Commission of Children and Youth, stressed the commission only wants to change the law to benefit particular individuals.

He said a change in the law "would permit Detroit high school graduates to obtain immediate employment in fields in which they have been trained; rather than be denied this opportunity until their 18th birthday."

The slackening of the minimum age restriction would not apply to other youngsters, he added.

Among jobs presently restricted to those over 18 are elevator operators, vehicle drivers, soldering, work in explosive plants, and employment as movie projectionists or work in the glass industry.

Fire Under Hood Reminds Driver of Hidden Gift

DETROIT (AP)—It came to Gordon Parrington like a flash. That's where he had hidden the set of dishes he was giving his wife for Christmas — under the hood of his car.

• • •

That too was where Canadian customs officials gathered to watch the fire, after the cardboard box containing the dishes had begun to burn.

Parrington, 45, of suburban Detroit said he put the dishes there so his wife wouldn't find them. He said he had forgotten about them as he drove yesterday across the Ambassador Bridge to Windsor, Ont., on the Canadian shore of the Detroit River.

• • •

After the blaze was put out, Parrington had to pay customs penalties for not declaring the dishes. The penalties, said customs men, were "just enough to ruin his Christmas."

Voice of America in U.S.

GREENVILLE, R.I. (AP) — Local residents complain that for the past four days they have been receiving the Voice of America sound programs over their TV sets. Charles Munger, said TV programs have been interrupted since last Friday with such historical items as Abraham Lincoln, a poor boy, making good.

U. of M. to Educate More as Engineers

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Graduation of more qualified engineers to combat the critical national shortage is a long-range goal of the University of Michigan's college of engineering.

Prof. Glenn V. Edmonson outlined such a proposal here Monday at a meeting of the American Society of Engineers.

* * *

The plan calls for an increase of 2,000 undergraduate engineering students in the next four years. The present enrollment is 3,100.

Also on the agenda is construction of six new buildings to house engineering instruction by 1962.

These structures are expected to cost $25,000,000. The state legislature already has been asked for the funds, the professor said.

One, the fluids engineering laboratory, is already under construction on the north campus, where the others will also be located.

Faces Mandatory Life

DETROIT (AP) — James Jacobs faces a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment following conviction Tuesday of first degree murder in the slaying of a man in a bar argument. Jacobs testified that his victim, William Schadel, 26, needled him about being too cheap to buy a drink. Schadel died of bullet wounds June 22.

Jets Collide in Midair, Both Pilots Land Planes

WILLIAMS AIR FORCE BASE, Ariz. (AP)—A student pilot and an instruitor had a close brush with disaster when their sabrejets scraped together 20,000 feet over the desert.

Lts. George W. Mattison and William Walsh landed their planes at the base and walked away without injury after their dogfighting maneuvers came close to the real thing. Their planes crunched together belly to belly and then bucked free.

Property damage amounting to about $814 million was caused by windstorms in the U. S. during the year 1955.

Suggests Shots During Holidays

Surgeon General Asks All Under 40 Years to Get Polio Vaccine

By W. JOYNES MACFARLAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney suggested today that families use the holiday season to arrange polio vaccine shots for all persons under 40 who have not had three injections.

* * *

"This Christmas, as thoughts center on children, should be used by parents to arrange for vaccination of children who have not yet received the full three shots," the head of the Public Health Service said in an interview.

"Vaccine protection of unprotected children may mean that some will be around happy and well at future Christmases who otherwise may be crippled or killed by polio.

* * *

"And parents and others under 40 years of age should arrange their own protection. I personally have seen instances in which both parents in an age span between 22 and 25 years have been stricken, and one or both crippled for life.

"Vaccination could be the means of insuring many future happy Christmases for families who otherwise may become involved in tragic illnesses, with severe economic consequences.

"The shots need not be taken during the holidays, but the appointments for them could be made."

* * *

Manufacturers as of Nov. 30 had almost 22,900,000 doses of unshipped vaccine in stock, and millions more are in the hands of doctors and in trade channels.

Two Detroit Officials Arraigned in Court

DETROIT (AP) — Two Detroit construction firm officials stood mute yesterday when arraigned in Federal Court on charges of falsifying credit information of clients to obtain FHA improvement loans.

Pleas of innocent were entered for Philip Cohen and Robert Gorfain. Gorfain operates the Robert Building Co.

The pair was indicted by a Grand Jury Nov. 8.

Two Feet Can Add Up to 2,000 Miles in Year

GARDEN CITY, Kan. (AP)—Last Christmas Merle Thompson's wife gave him a pedometer, a gadget which gives a rough measurement of the distance its wearer walks.

Thompson has been wearing it only while working on his job as caretaker of Gardendale, a housing project with 160 apartments.

It shows since last Dec. 27 he has walked 2,114 miles.

New York has been the most heavily populated state in the Union since 1820.

Utensils Just Like Mom's Are Big Items This Year

This Christmas appliance makers as well as food companies are capitalizing on toyland's boom in culinary projects to pre-sell boys and girls on famous brand utensils that make creative cookery and home maintenance easier.

* * *

New thrills include a fiber glass insulated toy stove, an electric sauce pan that's recommended for heating soup or making candy.

First aid to preparing a wide variety of juvenile favorites is Mirro's Campbell Kids Mixer.

Operating just like mother's, this new mixer is safety engineered for children and is powered by a single flashlight battery.

It turns out luscious mounds of whipped cream for soup toppings and mixes cream cheese with milk to make a glamor sandwich filling. It's easy to wash, too.

* * *

Clean up operations are popular too, judging by the array of vacuum cleaners just like mother's. A Play-Vac does a complete job of crumb catching after soup and sandwiches are consumed. This appliance also operates on a battery.

A plastic tube gives the youngsters the fun of viewing the dirt they catch. Besides removing crumbs meticulously this clean up toy picks up dust, shavings and lint with a thoroughness that will tempt mother to appropriate it.

* * *

Famous make cooking utensil makers are tieing in with the new culinary kits. Lines of copper bottomed sauce pans are featured for small fry kitchen projects. An aluminum sauce pan in a new set is a miniature of a famous brand.

* * *

Barbeque accessories, too, are shown in varied miniatures slanted to junior grade chefs who are ambitious to emulate their fathers' prowess as backyard culinary impresario. There are toasters that light up and pop up "like real" although they don't actually work.

PINT-SIZED — Electric mixer does a good job of whipping cream. Powered by flashlight battery. It's safe.

No New Diphtheria; Sees Leveling Off

DETROIT (AP) — No new diphtheria cases were reported in Detroit yesterday for the first time since Nov. 29.

Dr. Joseph G. Molner, health Commissioner, said, "I think the rash of diphtheria is beginning to level off."

There have been 158 cases and five deaths since the outbreak started two months ago.

Molner cautioned that parents should not become lax in getting their children inoculated.

Twenty teams have inoculated more than 34,000 school children so far in an effort to halt the spread of the disease.

Rules Out Picture of Judge Taking Oath

BALTIMORE (AP)— Anselm Sodaro couldn't have his picture taken today being sworn in as judge of the Baltimore Supreme Court bench.

Chief Judge Emory H. Niles said a standing rule barring newspaper photographers from the court room applied.

Greatest Show Back on Road Next Season

NEW YORK (AP)—Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey Circus is putting its "Greatest Show on Earth" back on the road next season—but with some significant changes.

Most noteworthy will be the disappearance of the huge canvas tent. It's give way to indoor arenas, ball parks and state fairgrounds, where all the dates will be played.

"The show will have all the traditional acts from jugglers to tigers," a circus spokesman said yesterday in announcing definite plans for next season's schedule.

"The changes will all be backstage and in business operations," he explained.

The news ended speculation that the famed circus unit might vanish from the American scene since the "Big Show" unexpectedly terminated its run last July 16 in mid-tour at Pittsburgh.

Another feature announced by the circus management calls for the show to be run on a year-round basis, eliminating the traditional winter layoff. As usual, the season will begin April 3 at New York's Madison Square Garden and continue there until May 12.

Swiss Revamp Army

ZURICH — Switzerland's alpine fortifications are to be strengthened and frontier troop units reinforced as part of a reorganization of the army. War minister Paul Chaudet said two or three of the nine divisions in the nation's "citizen army" would be completely reorganized in the next two years into highly mobile units supplied with medium tanks.

Law Restricts Gas Use in City

Storage of Petroleum Subject to Provisions of New Statute

A new city ordinance regulating the use of bottled petroleum gases in Pontiac was written into record last night by the City Commission.

Recommended by Fire Marshal Charles Metz, the law prohibits the storage or use of these gases in the central downtown area. Permission will be granted, for a maximum period of one year, if the bottled gas is used for heating pending installation of natural gas.

Before liquid petroleum gas tanks in excess of 125 gallons are installed in the city, a $10 permit must be secured from the city's Building Inspector. All permits will be certified by Metz, the ordinance outlines.

Adopted by city commissioners, the law will become effective Dec. 22.

A six-foot concrete foundation surrounded by a six-foot wire fence must be constructed before installation of tanks larger than 125 gallons will be approved by the Fire Marshal.

In areas outside the downtown area, no tanks in excess of 1,200 gallons will be approved by the city, unless "where conditions and location justify such approval."

Violation of any provisions of the ordinance will result in a $100 fine, 90 days in jail, or both.

Poland Invited Tour of Maddy's Musicians

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Some 100 high school musicians have been invited to make a concert tour of the Soviet satellite country of Poland.

Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, University of Michigan music professor who heads the National Music Camp at Interlochen, said he received the invitation from the Polish embassy yesterday.

Dr. Maddy said he had been seeking the invitation for more than a year, and hoped that other Iron Curtain countries could be visited on the trip.

Should the state department approve the trip, Dr. Maddy said he hoped that the $80,000 in expenses could be met from department cultural funds.

Jerry Ros, press and cultural attache of the Polish embassy, said in the invitation that he hoped "Young Polish musicians in the future find it possible to come to the United States for comparable performances."

Indonesia Hit by Gales

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Sixty-six persons are dead and more than 200 missing as a result of floods and gales that swept East Java last week. More than 75,000 are homeless, more than 13,000 homes were destroyed, 75 fishing boats sunk and thousands of acres of rice fields flooded.

Pool Resources, U.S. Asks Oilmen

Urges American Firms: Reroute Tanker Fleets, Exchange Markets

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government formally asked 15 U. S. oil firms yesterday to pool their resources, reroute tanker fleets and swap markets in an effort to relieve petroleum shortages in Western Europe.

The aim is to replace some of the Middle Eastern oil lost to Europe through the blocking of the Suez Canal and thus stave off suffering, unemployment and perhaps depression.

The plan, drafted by the 15 companies participating, is designed to increase by about 850,000 barrels of oil daily the normal tanker movement from U. S. Gulf ports and, to a small extent, from Venezuela.

About 500,000 barrels will go to Europe and the rest to Atlantic Coast ports in the United States and Canada to replace oil which formerly came from the Middle East fields.

The plan was triggered into action by Director Arthur S. Flemming of the Office of Defense Mobilization. He made public an agreement which temporarily exempts the firms taking part from antitrust action.

Although the plan bears the approval of Atty. Gen. Brownell, Flemming said he is somewhat concerned about the antitrust aspects, but he added: "The seriousness of the situation outweighs the antitrust considerations. We are not going to permit the companies to do anything that would be contrary to public policy."

City 'In the Money'

HARLAN, Ky. (AP)—This city has plenty of money on hand. So the city council has voted to reduce costs of privilege licenses 10 per cent with the exception of pinball machines and automobiles. The city treasury had over $40,000 in the bank as of Dec. 1 with no bills outstanding.

Air Plans for Overhauling Panama Canal

(Editor's Note: With world attention focused on the Suez Canal, engineers are reviving plans for overhauling the Panama Canal, still considered the world's most vital artery of trade.)

CHICAGO (AP) — Has the Panama Canal outgrown its britches?

With attention focused on Suez, the 42-year-old "big ditch" is having navigation troubles of its own.

Two major proposals are being aired to increase traffic in the Panama Canal and revamp outmoded lock facilities.

* * *

The first advocates improvement of the existing canal by completing the third locks and adding a Summit Terminal Lake near the Pacific end similar to the Gatun Lake at the Atlantic end.

* * *

The second plan calls for construction of a practically new low-level Panama Canal, with large tidal locks at each end to shut out the sea. This is the oft-discussed "sea level project."

In its 1957 winter issue, "Ships and the Sea" magazine discusses the prospects for a major canal overhaul.

The canal has become one of the world's most vital arteries of trade. Rock slides, cave-ins and limitations of the narrow 110-foot locks have heightened demands for action by Congress and the U.S. Army engineers. A major rock slide in 1954 cost three million dollars in repairs. It is estimated that converting the 50-mile canal into an ocean-level passage would cost 4.8 billion dollars.

In 1906 President Theodore Roosevelt recommended the present lakes-and-locks canal, overruling the sea-level canal favored by the International Board of Consulting Engineers. Congress adopted Roosevelt's proposal but the argument has never died.

Many canal zone officials and some Pentagon brass still contend that if a major overhaul is in prospect, the sea-level job should be done.

Advocates of the sea-level plan scored a round in 1947 when Joseph C. Mehaffey, then governor of the Canal Zone, endorsed it in belief that the canal would be made safer from bombing attacks. His report was presented to Congress by President Truman without comment and no action was taken.

A trip through the Panama Canal from the Caribbean Sea begins at Colon, the nthrough the Gatun Locks, Gatun Lake, the Gaillard Cut of the continental divide, through Pedro Miguel Locks, Miraflores Lake, Miraflores Locks to the Bay of Panama at Balboa and the Pacific.

ABANDON SOME LOCKS

The third locks—Terminal Lake plan calls for a wider set of locks at Gatun, a new set of locks at Miraflores and abandoning the locks now at Pedro Miguel. Eliminating the Pedro Miguel locks would enable a Summit Terminal Lake near the Pacific end of the canal to match the ship anchorage of Gatun Lake near the Atlantic end.

It is pointed out that such anchorages are essential when fog halts ship traffic in Gaillard cut. They would also increase the reservoirs that stabilize the level of the canal.

Under the locks-lake plan, the main channels of the canal would be widened and straightened. The water level of the canal between the locks would be increased from 85 feet to 82 feet above sea level.

* * *

The controversy over the merits of the two plans may wax hotter in 1957. But the sea-level project has strong backing.

In May, 1956, John S. Seybold, retiring governor of the Canal Zone, said he believes a sea-level canal at Panama was inevitable.

The National Rivers and Harbors Congress convention in Washington, D.C., last May also urged the conversion of the canal to "ocean-level."

The canal has had a stormy history.

A German traveler, Freidrich Heinrich Alexander Von Humbolt, early in the 1800's, pointed out Nicaragua and Panama seemed the most practical sites for a canal across the isthmus.

In 1846 the United States made a treaty with New Granada (now Colombia) and acquired rights across Panama for a canal. By 1855 the short railroad was built between Aspinwall, now Colon, and Panama.

By 1878 Colombia gave the privilege of digging a canal to a French adventurer. He in turn sold the concession to a company headed by Count De Lesseps, builder of the Suez Canal.

A second French group took over the property and franchise of the bankrupt company.

Surveys begun under President William McKinley fixed attention on Nicaragua for a canal. But when the French company agreed to sell its holdings for 40 million dollars, the commission making the survey reported in favor of Panama.

Obsolete Terms

Christmas signifies "Christ's Mass"—the festival of the Nativity of Christ. But down through the ages the words have been spelled differently and most are obsolete.

Here are some of the obsolete forms found in old English writings: Crystmasse, Christmes, Cristmas, Crestenmas, Crestenmes, Cristemes, Cristynmes, Crismas, Kyrsomas, Xtemas, Cristesmesse, Chrystmas, Christenmasse and Christmass.

Shifty Shorthair Leads Pursuers on Merry Chase

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. (AP) — Dooley von Brickwed is on probation after three raids on a supermarket.

On the first one he snitched a loaf of bread and eluded employes like a scatback running for a touchdown.

The second time it was a bag of noodles.

The third time police were waiting.

William J. Dalton, with whom Dooley makes his home, bailed him out yesterday by paying for the merchandise.

Dooley is a dog — 80 pounds of German shorthair pointer.

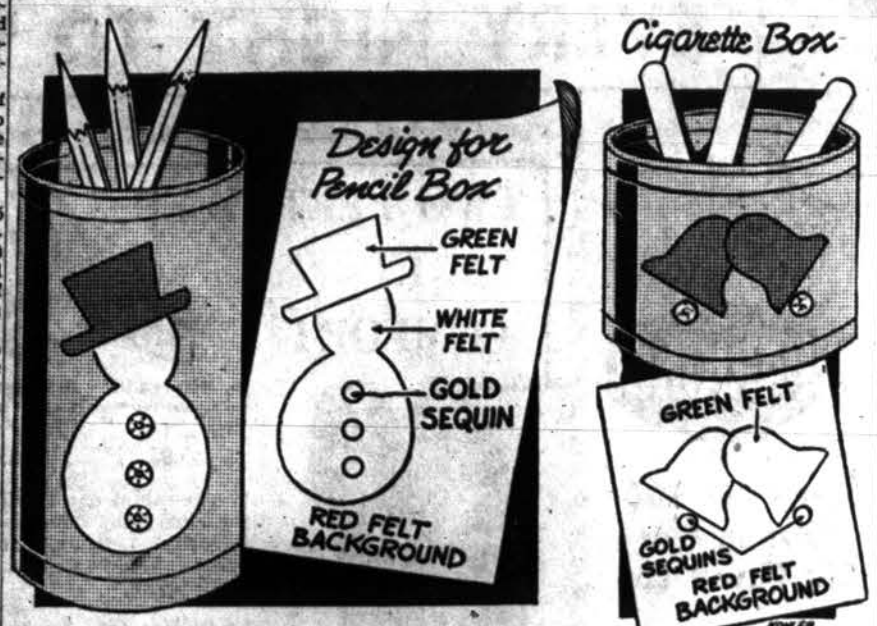
Tin Cans and Match Boxes Can Make Nifty Presents



Make this a tin can Christmas. Bits of felt, a tube of glue, sequins and a few empty tin cans combined, make easy, practical, good-looking Christmas gifts for the whole family. Brother and sister can make these presents as well as Mom.

Felt covered orange juice cans are perfect for pencil holders. The very large tin cans, decorated, make wonderful containers for your Christmas greens.

Take a small mushroom can (two inches wide by two inches high), decorate with a Christmas motif, for cigarettes, and add a matching design to a small box of wooden matches for a coffee table smoking set — dad's den — or a clever hostess gift. Cans two inches high and three inches wide are just right for the small fry's crayons.

MATERIAL NEEDED

Materials needed include clean empty tin cans in various sizes, scissors, needle and thread, glue, sequins, gold braid, wooden match boxes.

Measure the height of a tin can and the width around the can. Cut felt to size. Add design to felt by glueing or sewing. Glue felt around tin can. When dry, glue gold braid around top and bottom edges.

For match box covers, cut felt to size of top, bottom, and two ends of wooden match box. Add design by glueing or sewing to the top piece of felt. Glue four pieces of felt to match box. When dry, trim off uneven edges.

Holy Glastonbury Thorn Perennial Yule Mystery

Miracle, botanical freak or coincidence? For over a thousand years the mystery of the Holy Thorn of Glastonbury which flowers on Christmas day has been argued.

In England the townfolk of ancient Glastonbury, Somerset, will make a pilgrimage to the ruined abbey to look at the tree standing in the grounds. In Washington, D.C., they will go to the Cathedral Close, where the most famous off-shoot is now a healthy 10-year-old.

Proud of the tradition which made Glastonbury one of the most hallowed shrines in all Europe for medieval pilgrims—and still draws believers and skeptics by the thousands—Somerset people claim that their thorn blooms without fail each Christmas day.

IN THE NICK OF TIME

One Glastonbury ex-patriate, now living in the United States, visited the tree every Christmas day during his childhood and youth. He recalls:

"Never once were we disappointed. Even one bitter winter when the tree was bare the week before, and blossom seemed as remote as a snowball in Hades, it raised a couple of blooms on the great day."

In this country, Washington Cathedral authorities admit that their tree is not so reliable as its parent. It blooms, they say: "In December, but not always on the 25th."

It has, however, maintained its parent's collateral tradition of flowering for Royalty by blossoming for the Prince of Wales in 1919, and for Princess Elizabeth in 1951. Both visits to the capital were in November.

The legend of the Holy Thorn was born of an incident supposed to have taken place only 63 years after the first Christmas.

The story goes: It was just two days before Christmas in 63 A.D. that St. Joseph of Arimathea arrived in Glastonbury with the chalice used at the Last Supper, the Holy Grail. St. Joseph and his followers had fled from Palestine and were looking for a place to settle.

STAFF TOOK ROOT

He rested on Wearyall Hill, Glastonbury, overlooking the beautiful vale of Avalon of Arthurian legend, and drove his staff into the ground. It immediately took root and became a thorn tree, and the following day, Christmas Eve, it was covered with blossoms.

Here St. Joseph built a wattle church, on the site where the ruined Abbey now stands, and lived out his old age teaching Christianity to the Britons.

During the English Civil War the tree was chopped down by Puritans—one of whom was blinded by a flying chip of the trunk—but cuttings had already been taken by many local people and off-shoots were planted near the original site.

Cuttings from the tree are now growing in many parts of the English-speaking world.

The weight of the human brain increases by about 300 per cent during the first year of life.

Farm Bureau Optimistic Despite Fewer Families

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The secretary-treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation reported its membership today at 1,587,107 families—36,115 fewer than in 1955.

Roger Fleming said, however, that bureaus in 37 states actually gained in membership during the period. "I am confident that the 1957 membership figure will set an all-time high," he said in a prepared address.

Fleming linked the over-all drop to a loss of 64,444 members in New York state where, he said, the state farm bureau was reorganized on a sounder basis with changes which "will enable the organization in New York state to do a far better job for the farmers of that state."

20 Beers Cost $100

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—It cost David H. Hargreaves $5 a glass for the beer he drank. He pleaded no contest to a charge of driving a car under the influence of alcohol after police said he admitted having about 20 beers. District Court Judge Luigi De Pasquale fined him $100.

SUFFERING FROM ARTHRITIS?
READ MY TESTIMONIAL

"AFTER PLANTING A GARDEN IN THE SPRING, I WAS UNABLE TO HARVEST IT BECAUSE OF ARTHRITIS," SAYS MR. J. BERT PROCTOR, 55 PROSPECT N. E., GRAND RAPIDS.

"For some reason or another, people sometimes put off trying O-JIB-WA BITTERS, and I was guilty myself, as I tried many other treatments and medicines first. I'm sorry now that I wasted the time and money for them, because O. JIB. WA BITTERS was exactly what I needed all the time. Three years ago, I could hardly get around due to arthritis in all of my joints. They were so swollen and sore that I was barely able to dress myself, or even walk. I had planted a garden in the Spring, and was unable to harvest it. Well, I tried O-JIB-WA BITTERS, and used it according to directions, and inside of a month, my joints started to loosen up, and the pain wasn't as strong. In several months, all pains and stiffness was gone. I could sleep well again, and even my digestion improved. O-JIB-WA BITTERS really made a new man out of me. The reason I am giving this true testimonial is to tell others who may be discouraged, to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS immediately." Available at all drug stores and especially recommended by:

Nehru Links U.S., Red China

Indian Leader Desires to Play Role of Liaison Between Nations

NEW DELHI (INS) — An important factor in Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's forthcoming visit to Washington is the Indian statesman's strong desire to act as a link between the United States and Communist China.

Nehru, who made his initial trip to America in 1949, emphasized shortly before the recent arrival in India of Peiping's Premier Chou En-lai that immediately after the visit of Chou he would journey to see President Eisenhower, another "great man."

"We do become a link between the people who do not otherwise meet," Nehru added.

Furthermore, diplomatic observers in New Delhi underline the fact that Nehru will confer with Chou again near the end of the year after he returns to the Indian capital from his meeting with Eisenhower.

* * *

They point out it is obvious that Far Eastern problems, including the dangers inherent in the Formosa situation, would be discussed by Nehru and Eisenhower.

Formosa would have to be removed as a danger spot in Asia if the two statesmen wanted to insure global peace, according to these observers.

It was hoped in New Delhi that Nehru had been able to discuss the delicate Formosa issue and other problems pertaining to the current deadlock between the United States and Red China in his three days of talks with Chou. Nehru could then informally convey the views and feelings of the Chinese leader to the American President in Washington where Nehru is due Dec. 15.

* * *

If things go as hoped for, these observers add, when Nehru returns to India he could inform Chou of Eisenhower's reaction and discover whether any rapprochement was possible between the two countries — and, if so, on what conditions.

Meanwhile, Indian editorial opinion, strengthened by the views of her leading diplomatic observers and correspondents, appears to be rather optimistic about Nehru's chances of setting up a new world order in the pursuit of world peace.

Heavy Load of Pennies to Lighten Yule Burdens

DETROIT (INS) — Forty-thousand pennies will be shoveled today from a Misteie Coal Co. truck, into the ton of pennies drive of the Salvation Army on Campus Martius in Detroit.

The haul of copper represents the contribution of the company's employes in the fourth annual campaign to give the underprivileged a better Christmas.

'Creative' Americans Just Follow the Directions

Easy Instruction Sheet Stifles Imagination

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Once upon a time, when men were proud and women were diligent, the mark of fine accomplishment in anything from homemaking to the arts was that it looked as though it had been produced with ease. This was a deception.

* * *

Today, when men are in a hurry and women are likewise, the mark of many accomplishments turns out to be that they are done with deception. This is easy.

Nobody wants to work any more. To knit a set of tiny garments, as the coy gossip columnists put it, a woman needs only flip a switch on her handy home knitting machine. The result is more polished than the booties it took her mother a month to click out.

To compose a painting for showing off to his friends, a man just dubs in colors on canvas—following an instruction sheet, a prefabrication outline, and a set of numbers even a juvenile could do justice to.

* * *

The entire family can play the organ, with no expensive lessons, even Aunt Laura with the tin ear. There are push-button devices now which enable you to strike a single note—and out roars an entire chord. Foolproof fingering instructions come with it, instead of sheet music.

FIVE-MINUTE CAKES

Add to this the packaged mixes that make Ma's five-minute cakes look like Grandma's two-hour jobs, the embroidery attachments on sewing machines, et cetera, and you have almost the entire picture . . . of how to be an expert with no imagination or ability.

* * *

The latest in these artistic artifices is a form-it-yourself device called "sculpt-yours," the use of which will make every guy a sculptor with no fume, fuss or clay on the carpet. This is the utmost and ultimate in deception.

As the lady who invented these little polythylene forms around which a pair of no-talent hands can apply clay points out, "You absolutely cannot help but turn out a perfect piece of sculpture.

"Even if you try very hard, you cannot botch it. It's the utterly fool-proof fake!"

Mrs. Doris Pearl, the Michigan housewife-inventor, grins gleefully as she confides that her infallible sculpture kit is selling like hotcakes, and she visualizes the joyous day when everybody in the land can have his own homemade Venus de Milo in the parlor.

ALL UNIMAGINATIVE

It undoubtedly will be placed on one of his wife's machine-embroidered doilies atop the bookcase his son put together in 20 minutes which contains do-it-yourself books describing the other standardized, unimaginative, prefabricated furnishings in the room.

* * *

I wonder how long this trend toward following the printed instruction sheet will last.

The manufacturers claim, of course, that it is good therapy for the weary mind to sit and turn out never-fail products (they might be called "misterpieces" instead of "masterpieces"), but the day of disillusion may be soon at hand.

* * *

When Mr. Jones visits Mrs. Brown and discovers that her painting, her bust of the Madonna and her organ rendition of "The Lost Chord" are exactly the same as his—may he not stop to wonder why he wasted his time and effort, no matter how little of each was expended?

* * *

At this point, perhaps the American people will stop their modern battle cry—"Look, Ma—no brains, no imagination, no talent!" And will return to the more healthy hygiene of resting their minds at night, and using them to accept challenge, and outdo competition, by day.

Hungary Says: We'll Be Free or Dead!

(They have no arms. No hope of help from abroad. No leadership. But an American reporter in Budapest finds the Hungarian people ready for another desperate assault on Soviet tanks even if it means national suicide — for they have courage and an unquenchable desire for freedom. Katharine Clark, who has been with them through much of their six-week war against Russia, describes the mood of the Hungarian people).

By KATHARINE CLARK

BUDAPEST (INS)—"We shall be free, or we shall be dead."

Those were the words of an ordinary citizen of Budapest.

They show why Hungary is not a defeated nation although overrun by tanks and troops from the awesomely powerful army of the Soviets.

The Hungarian people still are at war with the Soviet Union.

The enemy claims to have crushed the revolt. But there are reports of new fighting outside the city. A general strike is in progress.

* * *

No Russian dares fly his flag, not even the red banner with the hammer and sickle.

A Hungarian who raised the Communist flag last Thursday was shot immediately.

Not even the red stars removed from the Hungarian flag during the revolt have reappeared.

A woman with a shopping bag is no match for a Russian with a tank. But there are streets the enemy does not enter, even with tanks.

This is the plight of the Hungarian people: They have the courage and will, but not the arms to finish their war.

The longer the situation drags out the greater the danger of national suicide.

With no signs of help from abroad, the people are growing more desperate. Even suicide would be better than continuing to drag out the situation.

There is grave danger they may try another battle with fewer arms and fewer men than they had the first time.

Some of those who want to fight again are actually provacateurs. Some honest men get angry at those who stop their fight.

So today there is a growing distrust of each other among the Hungarian people. No one wants Premier Janos Kadar. But some think it is better to accept him until the Russians are withdrawn.

Others point out that Kadar would always be able to call Russia to maintain his power. Thus, they reason, let us settle the matter now once and for all.

It is becoming difficult for the Hungarians to realize that men who disagree with their methods can also be called patriots.

* * *

Another problem is that there are in every high office of government Russians who possess citizenship such as Interior Minister Ferenc Munich, who is a lieutenant colonel in the Soviet army.

LIES UPON LIES

Additionally, the Hungarian has had nothing but lies fed to him for 11 years. The radio can tell him one thing, his neighbor another. But what he believes today is what he sees for himself.

This is total war, and the psychological and economic phases of it continue despite the fact little physical fighting has been waged recently.

* * *

The curfew and limited transportation means people must begin their trip homeward by 4 p.m. at the latest. Last night they hurried home even earlier because of the general strike call and the reports of new fighting.

* * *

People stand in lines for hours to buy food and candles.

Telephone communications have been curtailed.

Denunciations go on, rumors spread. The people are tired, their feet hurt, they are bitterly disillusioned about the United Nations.

The Russians and Kadar have destroyed the proud revolutionary committees. Now they are dismissing the workers' councils.

These are things that make the Hungarians desperate.

But the world should never believe for one moment the Hungarians are defeated.

One man put it this way:

"You Westerners do not understand.

"You think we are all slaves like the Russians. You think that where the Russian line is now is what the whole world should accept, because you accept it.

"But we will not accept it.

"We, at least, shall be free, or we shall be dead."

Bridge Master First Blind Man to Achieve Honor

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—"There's great sportsmanship in it," says Dr. Arthur Dye, first blind man to become contract bridge life master.

The 60-year-old Charlotte osteopath who lost his vision at 17 in an accident says he has been playing bridge since the game was invented in 1925.

* * *

It is necessary to acquire 300 points in the American Contract Bridge League to become a life master. In New Orleans this week Dr. Dye did just that. The stocky champion says, "It's like finally arriving at a goal."

Dr. Dye plays with marked cards. He puts his own markings in Braille on the corners of the cards.

* * *

"But don't some opponents grow leery when your sensitive fingers pass over the cards in dealing?" he was asked.

* * *

"No indeed," explains Dr. Dye, "Cheating like that would be too obvious. They could see me feeling out the cards."

* * *

"I think the most wonderful thing about tournament playing," Dr. Dye says, "is that all the players, when he puts down a card, calls it for my benefit. I've played all over the eastern part of the United States and not a one has failed to do that. There's a wonderful sportsmanship in it."

Commie Papers Give Own Views About Hungary

MOSCOW (AP)— The Soviet press featured headlines on the Hungarian situation. More than half the foreign news space was filled with the Communist version of events in that revolt-torn country.

The story the Soviet press was putting forth on Hungary was typified by the headlines:

PRAVDA — "Counter-revolutions, bloody atrocities in Hungary."

KOMSOMOL PRAVDA — "Fascism reared ugly head in Hungary. Terror, banditry, restoration of capitalism is what counter-revolution sought."

SOVIET FLEET — "Shameless traffic in human beings—an account of 'tragic destiny' of thousands of Hungarian refugees forcibly deported to the United States."

RED STAR — "Nabbed red-handed—report exposing bourgeois propaganda's lying distortion of Hungarian events and smearing of Soviet troops."

IZVESTIA — "New attempts to use U.N. for interference in Hungary's internal affairs."

TASS, from Vienna — "Many Hungarian refugees want to go home."

Pravda in another article — "Bloody crimes of counter-revolution in Hungary."

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Probably very few people who saw the "Milestones" column in Time Magazine recently took the notice on the death of Edward J. Hart, 70, with anything more than just a glance.

One person however who took special interest in the little obituary note was George Scales, 79-year-old realtor who has been in Pontiac since 1917.

★ ★ ★

For Mr. Scales, Hart's name brought back fond memories. "I knew Hart when he attended Phillips Exeter Academy in New Hampshire, and when he went on to Princeton to become one of the greatest linemen in football," said Scales.

The article in Time said that Hart, who died of a heart attack, once played two games with his neck in a cast.

"This is an under-statement," said Scales. "When Hart played football at Exeter Academy he hit his head against the goal post and suffered a broken neck.

"And when he went to Princeton it never healed properly so he wore the neck support during his entire four years," he added.

Scales had high esteem for Hart's ability. "He had great courage and was a tremendous tackle, making the All-America team in 1911. And this is especially something when you consider his playing with a neck brace."

RECALLS FOOTBALL DAYS

George Scales played football himself, but not with Hart. "I was at Exeter until 1900 and then went to Dartmouth, but to earn money to get through school, I did some coaching on the side.

"This kept me close to the Exeter scene and close to the many great players at many colleges, and that's how I got to know Hart."

Scales actually never played football at Dartmouth. In 1905 he went to Cincinnati and played under coach Amos Foster at fullback and in 1906 he got into pro ball with the Spalding team in that city.

"We knew nothing about head gears in those days and long hair was all the protection we had," he continued.

"This may sound silly, but it was nothing to have a player plunge over the line feet first," he added, "and I think it was a little tougher than going through head first.

"This is how we did it. We wore one-piece union suits as uniforms, with straps down the back in loops. And when the ball carrier hit the line there were usually several players in back of him pushing. So what often happened, they would grab the runner by the straps and throw him over feet first."

At Cincinnati, Scales recalled, "we had a little quarterback about 120 pounds, and we threw him around like a piece of luggage."

★ ★ ★

The old gentleman did not really want to get into the days of yore of football. All George Scales wanted to do is pay tribute to a great player, Edward Hart, who passed away in Toronto, Canada, without fanfare and with a final chapter written in four magazine lines.

"He was great," Scales said humbly.

NOW A CUB — New York Yankee catcher Charlie Silvera, who has been an understudy to Yogi Berra since 1948, may now get his chance as a starter. He was purchased this week by the Chicago Cubs.

Majors Help Minors, Slap Colleges

CHICAGO (AP)—Major league club owners, in a surprisingly brief winter meeting, extended a helping hand to the minor leagues and loosed a swift kick at collegiate baseball.

The owners yesterday concluded their Chicago conclave a day ahead of schedule by:

1. Setting a 28-player limit per club for opening day which will hustle as many as 64 players to an April minor league start.

2. Rescinding a rule banning the signing of a collegiate player after he has reached his sophomore year. The rule prevailed three years.

• • •

The latter action brought a howl of protest from collegiate baseball coaches who depicted it an obvious move to steal talent from campus diamonds.

Commissioner Ford Frick explained the old rule was unworkable because the minor leagues never agreed to any collegiate restriction and the majors could sign college players "through the back door."

The minors can sign a collegian for $4,000, but by devious approach, a big league team previously could "make an arrangement" with a collegiate star through its minor league affiliate regardless of his year in college.

Frick asked for adoption of the resolution which wiped the rule off the books.

• • •

"I was not opposed to the college rule," said Frick, "but it was a joke for the majors to have one while the minors did not."

Ethan Allen of Yale, president of the American Assn. of College Baseball Coaches, said at New Haven, Conn., that college coaches realized the rule was doomed by "grapevine" reports at the minor league convention in Jacksonville, Fla., last week.

"We did not come to Chicago after we learned the majors had instructed their minor league representatives at Jacksonville to vote against the rule even before we made representation," Allen said.

Allen, former star outfielder for the New York Giants and Cincinnati Redlegs, said the new major league policy will prevent many athletes from completing their college education.

• • •

Allen estimated that about 75 per cent of the college boys signed by pro baseball before their graduation never return to get a degree.

Coach John Kobs of Michigan State, chairman of the NCAA baseball rules committee, complained that "colleges produce 30 per cent of major league baseball players and train them at no cost to the pros."

Kobs said the rules committee would consider the change of major league policy at the January NCAA convention in St. Louis.

• • •

In agreeing to trim their rosters to 28 players by opening day, the major league owners did a big service to minor league clubs whose lineups previously have remained in a state of flux well into the season. Now they will get a windfall of between 50 and 64 good players in April.

Under the old rule, a maximum of 40 players could be retained by a major league club until the 25-player deadline in mid-May. Most big league clubs started the season with 30 to 32 players. Top minors, of course, will assign surplus players to lower clubs sooner, too.

• • •

The majors agreed to hold their annual winter meeting with the National Assn.'s, minors, in the same city, meeting at a minor league city in odd years and in a major league city in even years.

A second attempt by Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians to get approval of his interleague schedule plan was turned down by the National League. Earlier, the American League rejected it.

AL'S TOP MOUNDSMEN — According to the official 1956 American League pitching records released this week, these three hurlers were at the top of the list in three departments. Detroit Tiger righthander Frank Lary (left) who won 21 and lost 13, started most games (38) and pitched most innings (294). Cleveland southpaw Herb Score was strikeout king with 263 in his 20-9 record and Yankee southpaw Whitey Ford topped earned run averages with mark of 2.47 in his 19-6 record.

Red Hot Rangers Meet Wings Thursday Night

DETROIT (AP) — The New York Rangers have two streaks—one good and one bad—going for them when they engage the Detroit Red Wings Thursday night at the Olympia in a National Hockey League contest.

The Rangers have won four straight games, including a 4-2 victory over Detroit last Sunday on home ice. But they have not beaten the Wings at Detroit since October 9, 1954.

• • •

Since then the Wings have taken seven straight games on the friendly home ice. But coach Jim Skinner, disgusted with some of the recent performances, especially on the road, says "This club is going to have to learn how to win on the road."

"Sometimes I think some of the players forget that these early games count every bit as much in the standings as do those at the tailend of the season," he said. "And you can't relax on the road and expect to make it up at home. Championship teams have to win a lot of games, and it follows that a lot of the victories must come on the road."

So far Detroit has a 4-6-1 record in out-of-town games.

Gordie Howe can become the NHL's second highest goal-getter of all-time in Thursday's clash. Gordie's four goals on Detroit last road trip gives him a total of 324. This is Howe's 11th year with the Red Wings.

• • •

Nels Stewart, who skated for the Montreal Maroons, Boston and New York Americans, also recorded 324 goals in his career. The leader is Montreal's Maurice (the Rocket) Richard, with 467 goals. The Rocket, oldest player in the NHL, still is an active player.

Featherweights in Garden Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — Instead of Sugar Ray Robinson and Gene Fullmer, the customers at Madison Square Garden tonight will watch a featherweight match between Paul Jorgensen, a newcomer from Port Arthur, Texas and shifty Carmelo Costa of Brooklyn.

• • •

When Robinson's illness forced postponement of the middleweight title match until Jan. 2, matchmaker Billy Brown brought together these young feathers for the third time.

• • •

ABC radio and television will beam the fight around the nation, starting at 10 p.m. EST. Two judges and a referee will score the scrap by rounds.

There will be a Fullmer on the card, Gene's kid brother, Jay, who will make his pro debut in a four-round preliminary.

Bobby Morrow Feted

Abilene Pays Tribute to Olympic Track Ace

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—Bobby Morrow, the greatest American champion of the Olympic Games, rested on his laurels today, the tribute of thousands ringing in his ears, among them the reminder that "nice guys don't always finish last."

This city where he sprang to fame as the track star of Abilene Christian College paid homage to its hero with a gigantic parade and an appreciation dinner yesterday.

• • •

At the banquet Col. Campbell Palfrey Jr., deputy commander of Dyess Air Force Base of Abilene, declared: "A great sports figure once said, 'nice guys finish last.' Bobby Morrow is living proof that that isn't true."

• • •

Byron Nelson, the all-time golf great, called Morrow "a great man." Tris Speaker, the baseball immortal, said "If anybody ever breaks Bobby's record I can only hope it'll be another Texan." And John Kimbrough, the All-America football player of Texas A&M, said "I don't know Bobby's parents but they must be great people to produce a man of the sterling character of Bobby Morrow."

• • •

Morrow won three Olympic gold medals for first places in the 100 and 200-meter races and anchoring the record-breaking 400-meter relay team.

Three thousand persons greeted Morrow at the airport as he arrived from Los Angeles with his wife Jo Ann. Many more thousands massed downtown to watch the parade which was headed by an automobile bearing Morrow and wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Morrow of San Benito, Tex., and other kin.

• • •

Mayor C. E. Gatlin, in presenting Morrow with a five-foot gold key to the city, said the track star had a letter from President Eisenhower—the same letter that went to the victorious American track team in the Olympics but bearing a special greeting in his case.

Sooner Coach Not Contacted by Texas

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — Chairman Tom Sealy of the University of Texas board of regents said yesterday Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson hasn't been contacted about the coaching vacancy at Texas and, despite Wilkinson's terrific record, Sealy said he didn't think it would be a good idea.

"I think if we did contact Bud it would provide an international incident," he said, "kind of like another war between the states."

Oklahoma and Texas have an intense football rivalry, despite the Sooners' superiority in recent years.

Wilkinson has denied interest in the coaching job being vacated by Ed Price.

North Carolina State Beaten

Another Cage Power Bites Dust

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Things are tough all over in college basketball. First Louisville, then Kentucky were knocked off and now North Carolina State has come a cropper in a topsy-turvy three nights for the suspected "Powers."

Louisville was chilled 76-74 by Canisius Saturday, Kentucky was spilled 71-70 by St. Louis Monday. Last night, NC State, ranked eighth in the first Associated Press poll of the season this week, took the rap with a 96-94 overtime defeat by Clemson, an infrequent winner.

It's pretty early to start yelling "upset" — remember Southern Methodist's "upset" of Notre Dame in football? — but Clemson's surprise fills the bill. The Tigers hadn't beaten State since 1941.

Southern Methodist and Alabama, the only other top 10 members in action, stayed unbeaten with ease.

SMU, rated No. 5, topped Wichita 93-70. 'Bama, No. 9, rapped little Howard, Ala., 109-88.

Clemson scored 10 points in the last three minutes to gain an 86-all deadlock at the end of regulation time. Vince Yockel, who was the high scorer with 31, scored eight of the 10. Bill Yarbrough sank four consecutive free throws to break things open for Clemson in the overtime.

In another overtime thriller, Wake Forest got past Virginia 60-55 for an ACC victory. Jim Jurdock's field goal in the last 35 seconds for Wake made it 50-50 at the end of regulation play. Then Jim Gilley, who had scored two points in the first 40 minutes, canned six in the overtime to win it.

Furman, with no heir apparent to the Frank Selvy-Darrell Floyd scoring succession, won its first in four games, defeating William & Mary 69-66 in a Southern Conference game.

St. John's of Brooklyn, intent upon staging a comeback as an Eastern power, remained unbeaten with an unimpressive 59-44 victory over little Hofstra. Columbia, riding along on little Chet Forte as usual, beat Fordham 99-84 with the 5-9 sharpshooter scoring 32.

In other Eastern games, Connecticut was too tall for Rutgers and won 88-75; Holy Cross made its debut with an 82-57 decision over St. Anselm's and St. Francis of Brooklyn defeated Fairfield, Conn., 71-53.

A layup by Jim McDonald in the final 20 seconds gave Bowling Green, Ohio, a 67-63 edge over Detroit, and Murray State's fast break swished past New Mexico A&M 81-67.

Southern California scored as it pleased to whip Hawaii 85-56; and San Jose State defeated San Francisco State 67-52.

Marquette Pilot Sees Jim McCoy as All-America

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Coach Jack Nagle of Marquette, who seldom goes overboard about anything, made the flat prediction today that sophomore Jim McCoy of Farrell, Pa., can't miss All-America basketball recognition.

"He's as close to being a total-type player as there is," Nagle said. "Barring the unforeseen, he'll be an All-America next year or at the outside, as a senior. I don't see how he can miss."

McCoy, 19, is the kid brother of Julius McCoy, who sparkled on the Michigan State basketball team last year.

"For his size, 6-0 to Julius' 6-3, Jim's just as good a rebounder, just as good a jump shot, can drive as well and is a better floor man," said Nagle. "The day is not too far off when Jim will be better, period."

U.S. Net Hopes Jolted

PERTH, Australia (AP) — America's already almost impossible Davis Cup hopes received another jolt today when veteran Vic Seixas turned up with a shoulder ailment which may keep him out of both the interzone and challenge round matches.

Brown's Effort Gets Top Place

NEW YORK (AP) — All-America Jimmy Brown's record 43 points for Syracuse against Colgate has been judged the most outstanding one-game performance by a player in the 1956 college football season.

• • •

Despite the heavy support received by the senior halfback, Brown won by a narrow margin over Illinois' Abe Woodson who had his great day against Michigan State.

• • •

The balloting was part of The Associated Press annual post-season grid survey.

In the Syracuse regular-season finale, Brown, a 212 pounder from Manhasset, N. Y., rang up six touchdowns and seven conversions as the Orangemen defeated a good Colgate team, 61-7.

Never before had a player on a major college team scored as many points against a major opponent.

• • •

Brown's scoring spurts ranged from a pair of one-yard plunges to a 50-yard breakaway run with dashes of eight, 15 and 19 in between.

Victory in Final Relay Brings Win for Chiefs

With the count knotted at 42-all going into the night's final event at Ypsilanti High's pool, Pontiac's high school Chief natators put on a grand effort Tuesday to edge the Huron club, and snatch a fine 50-46 win.

• • •

Close all the way, Chiefs were extended in every event, won four, were 2nd in five, and picked up enough points on other places to be a real contender at every splash.

Co-captain Dennis Simonson, whose eligibility had been cleared after a misunderstanding that promised to keep him out of the meet, was the star performer. Simonson won two events, the breaststroke, and individual medley.

• • •

Only the 200-yard free style was left and the score tied when Coach Robert (Des) Boyce sent Cummins in to swim anchor in place of Jim Cornforth. Boyce had gambled on a switch that put Cornforth with Simonson in the medley. It paid off there with Jim finishing just back of Dennis. Cummins rose to the occasion with a fine effort and made the final turn well in advance of Ypsi's anchor, to clinch the win.

• • •

Chiefs have now squared their record at 1-1, face Central's Indians in Flint Friday, for the 2nd Valley test. They dropped their opener last Friday to Arthur Hill SVC favorites.

Summary:

50-yard freestyle—won by Miksel (Y); Cornforth (P) 2nd; Doery (P) 3rd; Smith (Y) 4th. Time 27 seconds.

100-yard breaststroke—won by Simonson (P); Scovill (Y) 2nd; Davette (P) 3rd. Time 1:06.8.

200-yard freestyle—won by Seltzer (Y); Tollefsen (P) 2nd; Gorman (P) 3rd; Burns (Y) 4th. Time 2:16.6.

100-yard backstroke—won by McCann (Y); Gibbs (P) 2nd; Teder (Y) 3rd; Ruth (P) 4th. Time 1:11.

100-yard freestyle—won by Bishop (Y); Cummins (P) 2nd; Colsch (P) 3rd; Barr (Y) 4th. Time 59 seconds.

150-yard individual medley—won by Simonson (P); Cornforth (P) 2nd; Edwards (Y) 3rd. Time 1:41.3.

100-yard orthodox breaststroke—won by Stinson (P); Roharge (P) 2nd; Robb (Y) 3rd. Time 1:18.7.

Diving—won by Townsend (Y); Sorrell (Y) 2nd; LaMotte (P) 3rd; Tucker (P) 4th.

200-yard medley relay—won by Ypsi (McCann, Robb, Scovill and Bishop); Pontiac (Gibbs, Popenoe, Roharge and LaMotte. Time 2:04.8.

300-yard free relay—won by Pontiac (Doerr, Cummins, Stinson and Roberts). Time 1:49.6.

Missed Charity Toss in Final Seconds Is U. of D. Downfall

DETROIT (AP) — Despite center Don Haase's 24 points, the University of Detroit, playing nip and tuck, lost a 67-66 basketball game to Bowling Green of Ohio last night on a missed foul shot with 13 seconds to go.

• • •

Detroit's Jim Gilboy made his first free throw, then missed the second, after guard Jim McDonald had put Bowling Green ahead 67-65 with 20 seconds left, sinking a layup shot.

• • •

It was Bowling Green's fourth victory against one defeat. Detroit has won once, lost twice.

• • •

The game was tied 15 times—three of them in the final three minutes.

• • •

Bill Ebben, Detroit forward got 20 points, giving him an 80-point total for three games. Dick Abele was top scorer for Bowling Green with 16 points.

Junior 5's Begin Thursday

The 1956-57 Pontiac Junior High League basketball season gets underway Thursday afternoon.

Defending champion Washington meets Lincoln on the Lincoln court and Jefferson tackles Madison at Jefferson in opening games tomorrow. Both contests begin at 3 p.m.

Eastern Junior High, the 5th member of the league, is idle until the following week when Jefferson furnishes the opposition.

Jefferson and Lincoln are expected to be Washington's stiffest competitors for the title.

Madison will play the 1st half of its schedule away from home since bleachers for its new gymnasium are expected in time for the 2nd half of the season.

The open dates on this season's schedule will be filled for the most part by Rochester Junior High.

Penalties Enabled Casares to Hold Pro Rushing Lead

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rick Casares and Ollie Matson probably will remember a pair of penalties when the final figures are added up in the battle for National Football League ground gaining honors.

Casares led Matson by a single yard before the two met head-on Sunday in a rough and tumble battle between the Chicago Bears and Chicago Cards, won by the Bears, 10-3. When the dust of battle cleared, Casares had picked up 117 yards and Matson 26. Penalties, however, deprived Matson of a pair of touchdown runs, one for 65 and the other 85 yards.

Thus, with one game left for each player, Casares has 936 yards on 217 attempts for a 4.3 average, and Matson 844 yards on 170 carries for a 5-yard average. Hugh McElhenny of San Francisco is third with 832 yards on 169 runs and a 4.9 average.

• • •

Eddie Brown of the Bears slipped for the second straight week, but maintained his passing leadership over second-place Bill Wade of Los Angeles. Brown has a 9.97 average compiled on 88 completions of 153 passes for 1,525 yards. Brown has clicked for 10 touchdowns and has a 57.5 percentage of completion mark.

• • •

Wade's average is 8.21. He has completed 91 of 178 for 1,461 yards, 10 TDs and a 51.1 percentage of completions. Detroit's Bobby Layne ranks third with 125 for 237, 1,867 yards, 9 TDs, and a 52.7 completion mark.

NEW YORK—Eddie Arcaro has ridden both Nashua and Bold Ruler and rates Bold Ruler a better prospect than Nashua.

Flint Central Next for PHS

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It's not very often that an athletic coach is faced with a problem of a pleasant nature.

* * *

That's the unusual situation facing Pontiac High School basketball coach Art Van Ryzin.

Van Ryzin is pondering over which two of his three leading forward prospects to start Friday night when the Flint Central Indians invade the Chief homestead for an important Saginaw Valley Conference game.

Two weeks ago in the season opener, the PHS coach was unhappy over the forward situation. But after last week's fine showing by the Chiefs at Arthur Hill, including top performances from his up-front players, Roosevelt Alexander, Dick Whitmer and Terry Zellhart, Van Ryzin isn't sure which of the two will be in the starting lineup.

"I'm glad it's a problem because they all played so well, than because they had played poorly," said Van Ryzin. "Actually it makes no difference which two start, because for the first time, we played as a unit, and we need all the help we can get from any of them, whether they start or not."

In beating Arthur Hill, 58-39, in Saginaw, Pontiac moved into a first place tie with Flint Northern and Flint Central in the SVC.

All have 1-0 league marks, and 2-0 regular season records. But something has got to give Friday night.

Flint Central whipped Bay City Handy 47-39 in its opener and last week the Indians surprised Bay City Central 57-53 on the Wolves' own court.

* * *

Coach Joe Dowdy however doesn't feel that Central has enough to become a strong contender in the SVC, but he is happy over the fact that this is the Indians' best start in four years. Central hasn't won its first two games since the 1952-53 season.

The alert play of two little guards Dave Jesses, 5-6, and 5-9 Chuck Hyslop were the big factors in the win over Bay City. Three times they stole the ball and broke away for baskets which later proved to be the margin of victory.

A player who started the season as a substitute has become the top point man for the Indians.

* * *

He is Mel Thomas, a 6-1 forward who entered the Handy game in the second half and still was the team's best scorer with 15 points.

He hit for 18 as a starter against Bay City Central last week.

For Pontiac, senior guard Dave Diehm has the lead in scoring with 39 points in two games.

It was the floor play of Diehm and guard Larry Peet and the board work of Ray, Zellhart and Alexander which pleased coach Van Ryzin at Arthur Hill however.

Big Hudson came down with 16 rebounds for his best effort as the Chief's center.

Game time Friday night at PHS is 8:15 p.m.

Strader Estate Sues 49ers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Coach Norman (Red) Strader's estate is filing a $27,000 salary suit against the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League.

Attorney Maurice H. Roach and James J. Kirby announced last night they would file the suit today.

Strader died May 27. He had been fired after a 4-8, 1955 season, his first on a three year contract.

The attorneys said Strader's contract called for $20,000 per year, with the right to cancel for a $12,000 penalty after the second year.

They said the suit, in behalf of Helen M. Strader, the widow, will demand: $20,000 for 1956, the second season of his contract; $12,000 for the third under the cancellation clause, plus $5,000 bonus on an attendance basis. From this they deduct $10,000 paid toward the 1956 salary.

A clause in the contract noted that if the coach "should die during life of the contract," obligations were canceled. Roach held that "since his contract was terminated in December 1955 by the 49ers, Strader didn't die during the 'life of the contract.'"

Rosewall Will Join Kramer's Net Tour

PERTH (AP) — Australia's Ken Rosewall will join Jack Kramer's professional tour after the Davis Cup challenge round in Adelaide, but teammate Lew Hoad will remain an amateur at least another year it was learned authoritatively today.

* * *

Rosewall has agreed to terms guaranteeing him $50,000 over a 12-month span, but he is unable to make any commitment or comment on the matter because it would endanger his amateur status.

Oaks Nip Maples, 62-60

A field goal by Royal Oak scoring ace Dave Richey, all-county guard last year, in the final 30 seconds of play gave the Oaks a hard-earned 62-60 triumph over Birmingham in a nip-and-tuck area battle at Birmingham last night.

It was a wild finish to the season opener for Coach Ed Campbell's quintet. Birmingham, which is now 1-1, missed a chance to deadlock the issue when a shot was missed just before the final whistle.

Birmingham raced to a 13-10 first period lead only to fall behind 34-30 at halftime as the visitors rallied for 24 big points in the second canto. The Maples sliced difference to two after three quarters and pulled ahead early in the final. The lead changed hands and was tied several times during the last six minutes before Riche's clincher.

The "hero" also topped his team's overall individual scoring for the night with 17 as Evans Webb tallied 13 and Fred Wasen and John Kerr finished with 11 apiece.

* * *

Steady Bob Isbell was the Maple pacesetter with 18 digits with the BHS Dave Ritchey close behind with 16 and Tom Kelly contributing 10 in the high scoring duel.

Boxer Warned, —to Rest Up

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Most of the time you hear of fight champions being warned for not fighting enough. But Raul Macias, the NBA bantamweight champ, is on the carpet for fighting too often.

The Mexican boxing commission has ordered Macias to appear and explain why he has violated article No. 13 of the national boxing code — which says fighters must rest 14 days between fights.

Commission members pointed out Macias had two fights within two weeks.

Sportswriters defended Macias' code "violation" by saying both opponents were minor boxers. He knocked out both in early rounds. Macias didn't really need much rest, they said.

Rabbits, Hares, Bobcats Offer Winter Sport

LANSING — With the close of deer season, many hunters are turning their attention to other game — cottontail rabbits, snowshoe hares and bobcats.

Cottontails, primarily a southern Michigan game animal, are legal targets in the southern Lower Peninsula through Jan. 31, while rabbits and hares may be hunted in the northern Lower Peninsula and the U.P. through March 1.

The northern Lower Peninsula's bobcat season will be in effect Dec. 15-March 15. Last year, hunters took about 140 'cats in the state's first bobcat season. In the Upper Peninsula bobcats still have a predator status and may be taken at any time of year; 754 were bountied in the U.P. in 1955.

Oliver Plays for North

MIAMI (INS) — Percy Oliver, a guard for the University of Illinois this season, is the first Negro player ever selected to play in the annual Shrine North-South All-Star game.

Oliver, a Miami resident, was selected yesterday along with another Illini guard, Dave Walker, to play for the North squad in the Dec. 26 game.

The biggest take was $123,450 to D. & H. Stables Needles for winning the Kentucky Derby.

Fighter, Writer Win BWA Honors

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and columnist Frank Graham of the New York Journal American have been named to receive the two top awards by the Boxing Writers Assn.

Patterson, youngest man ever to hold the title, will receive the Edward J. Neil Memorial plaque as "fighter of the year". Graham, veteran columnist, will be given the James J. Walker Memorial plaque, "for long and meritorious service to boxing over a period of years." Both votes were unanimous.

Clemson Begins Work for Orange Bowl Tilt

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP)—Clemson's Atlantic Coast Conference football champions began preparations today for their Jan. 1 Miami Orange Bowl game with Colorado.

The Tigers, making their fifth post-season bowl appearance, will hold 10 workouts here before taking time out for the Christmas holiday layoff.

The squad leaves by chartered plane for Miami Dec. 27.

Creedon Gets Tiger Job

CHICAGO (AP) — Charles C. Creedon, former business manager and traveling secretary of Detroit's Beaumont farm team, today was named traveling secretary of the Tigers.

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Virginia Tech won southern conference championships in the 1955-56 school year in wrestling, golf, rifle shooting and also took top place in both indoor and outdoor track.

High Scoring Features Area Play

Northville, Brighton and Clarenceville came through with convincing victories in last night's Wayne-Oakland league encounters, as area prep cagers had an evening of generally high scoring.

Northville's success against West Bloomfield kept the Mustangs in a tie with Brighton for the W-O lead at two wins and no defeats. Brighton dumped Milford and Clarenceville achieved its 1st loop win at Holly's expense.

With four players hitting for double figures, led by Bud Bell's 21, Northville slammed to a 30-10 opening period, than rolled along for rest of the game for the night's top count, a 78-47 total.

Along with Bell in the crushing of West Bloomfield were Bill Yahne with 14 and Dick Biery and Mack Burns getting an even dozen each. Ray LaPratt collected 18 for Keego Harbor. Northville's first half scoring percentage was phenomenal, and its overall rate of 34 goals for 85 tries was exceptional.

The Bulldogs employed a fast break and some fancy set shots by five-foot-three-inch guard Joe Collins to post a 53-45 triumph over Milford. Brighton overcame a 15-9 first period deficit with an 18-point second quarter to dominate the action the rest of the way for its second straight loop triumph. Steve Wright and Brian Watson tallied 11 apiece and Collins hit 10 for the victors. Pat Kelley was the sparkplug in the Milford offensive with 18.

Clarenceville had things all its own way after a big first half to whip Holly, 53-45, in its league lidlifter. The home team held the edge throughout the tilt despite a game Bronco rally in the third period. Larry Andrews and Dave Hanaford sparked the victors with 21 and 17 points, respectively. Big center George McDaniel, who was held to one field goal in the first half by a tight zone defense, topped Holly with 19. Holly is now 0-2 in W-O play.

Redford Union took an early lead over Southfield in a non-loop scrap at Southfield and went on to win 47-39 to hand Bob Watt,s five its 2nd loss. Redford led all the way. High man was Southfield's Mel Alldredge with 22.

The Thurston—Oak Park game, at Oak Park, developed into a scoring battle between Thurston's Dave Burgan and the Oaks' John McCoy, Burgan hit 28 to beat out McCoy (23) in Thruston's 73-42 win.

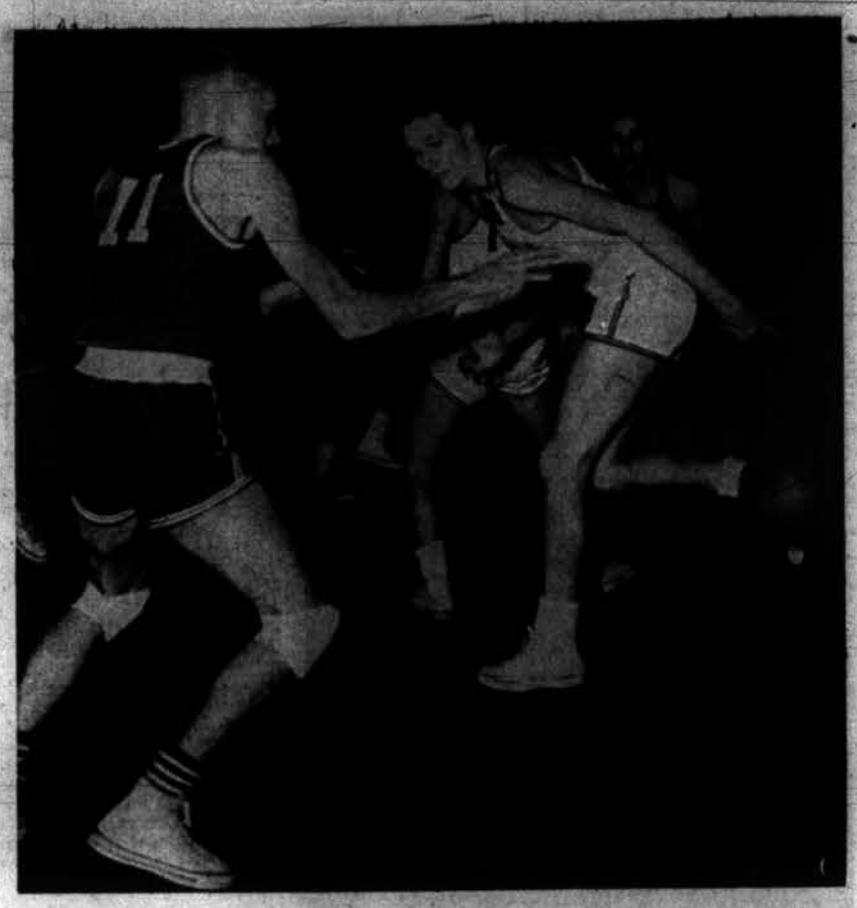
East Detroit coasted to an easy 56-28 win over Troy after posting a 17-4 first quarter advantage. Ron Emerick hooped 14 and Gary Ballman added 13 in the school's second straight season triumph. Sim Action was the high man for the losers with 9.

Six-foot-eight-inch center E. Marston scored 11 of his 15 points in the final six minutes, including the tieing and winning goals, as Lakeville eked out a 47-46 squeaker over North Branch.

Pulling away after the first minute of play, Madison evened its record at 1-1 by tripping St. James, 66-47, at home last night. Nine players took part in the scoring topped by Roy Long's 13 and 12 for Hal Perkins. Jack Reiting of the losers led all the point-getters with 18.

Millington had four players in double numbers but still went down to its second successive setback bowing to Vassar, 66-60. The winners' scoring punch was Bill Klope with 27 and Bill DeCue, who added 21.

A 25-point second quarter output led Imlay City to a 70-60 triumph over Goodrich as Larry Dorow hit the hoop for 29 points.



SOCCER ANYONE? — Bob Isbell, 6-4 Birmingham center, appears as if he were giving the basketball a touch of soccer with a boot from the back, in the game against Royal Oak last night on the Maples' court. On the right is Acorn Evans Webb (11). Isbell led Birmingham's scoring with 18 points, but to no avail as the Acorns took a 62-60 decision in a closely fought battle between the two rivals.

Fowler Hits 26

Romeo Blasts Cranbrook

Despite a gallant 4th period rally that squared the count several times, Cranbrook School's cagers couldn't stave off the drive of Romeo's fine club and bowed in the last three minutes of yesterday afternoon's contest at Cranbrook, 59-47. Cranes were bidding for their first win in three starts.

John Fowler, Romeo ace jump shot specialist, banged in 26 points, including several buckets that broke a 45-all tie in the finale. He was the one big gun that broke the Crane's backs. Teammate Bill Redman gave strong support with 16 counters, several of them in the hectic 4th session.

Cranes' Bernie Harris with 14 and Charles Grube with 13, did yeoman service for the Bloomfield Hills five.

Tom Gallogly led the Crane Jayvees to a 73-36 win over Romeo reserves, with a fine 24-point performance.

The summary:

GR City Fathers Plan to Honor Marion Ladewig

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — The city commission resolved last night to honor all-star bowler Mrs. Marion Ladewig on her sixth winning of the title.

The commission also asked the Associated Press to designate Mrs. Ladewig as the "AP woman athlete of the year."

The resolution, entered by commissioner Robert H. Blandford, cited Mrs. Ladewig's sixth all-star crown in eight tournaments.

DeWalt Leads Lakeside Win

Ex-PHS Cager Hits 19 to Pace Royals' 58-50 Victory in City Play

The Lakeside Royals, defending Class B champions of the City Basketball League, and the Pontiac Merchants occupied the winner's circle in Tuesday night's action at the Jefferson Junior High gymnasium.

The familiar figure of Willie DeWalt sparked the Royals to a 58-50 win over Stadium Inn while the Merchants walloped the Pontiac Police, 53-35.

DeWalt, former Pontiac High all-state star, chalked up 19 points for the Royals. Nine of them came in the last quarter when Lakeside pulled away from a 45-45 deadlock.

Two other Royal cagers hit double figures in the scoring column. Felix Brooks scored 15 points and Jim Pembroke made 14. Dick Warren collected 19 points for Stadium Inn, followed by Maurice Stack with 13.

Jerry White tallied 12 points and Jim Arnold notched 10 to pace the merchants to their easy triumph. Bill Newman got nine points for the Policemen.

Boston Holds 'Olympic Day' Tribute Today

BOSTON (UP)—It was "Olympic Day" in Boston today with state, municipal and civic leaders honoring greater Boston athletes who competed in the Olympics in Australia.

The feature attractions were gold medal winners Hal Connolly, Charlie Jenkins and Tenley Albright.

Connolly, a graduate of Boston College, won the hammer throw at Melbourne. Jenkins, from Cambridge, won the 400-meter run and was a member of the winning 1,600-meter relay team. Miss Albright, from Newton, won the women's figure skating crown in the winter Olympics last February.

Lawrence Tech Beaten

DETROIT (UP) — Detroit Tech, relying on guard Paul Dean for 24 points, swept to a 77-61 victory over Lawrence Tech last night in an intra-city basketball game.

Utica in 49-40 Opening Victory

Thompson Scores 22 to Pace Impressive Win Over Rochester

A fine 22-point scoring effort by forward Ken Thompson and some topnotch defensive work gave Utica an impressive 49-40 victory over arch-rival Rochester in the host Chieftains season opener last night.

Utica never trailed after romping to a 12-4 first period advantage although Rochester remained in contention the rest of the night. The Falcons tried to make a battle of it the final three periods but could do nothing about the sharpshooting Thompson who hit 14 in the last half.

The close-guarding Chieftains kept the RHS offensive well in check. The visitors had rung up 73 points in their initial start but inability to click from the foul stripe hurt their cause considerably. Rochester connected on only 8-for-20 on charity tosses, while Utica hit 13-for-17.

Jim Van Nocker was the big noise in the Falcon lineup with 16 points followed by Dave Peters with 11.

Dawson Leads North Into Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (UP) — Record-cracking backs Lenny Dawson and Jim Crawford head a speedy 25-man North squad named today for the Jan. 5 Senior Bowl game.

The bowl's first sellout of 36,000 is expected when the hand-picked stars meet a similar South team in Ladd Stadium. It will be the eighth game of the series which marks the pro debut of the players.

Purdue's Dawson, first player to lead the Big Ten in both passing and total offense for three consecutive seasons, was the Pittsburgh Steelers' No. 1 draft choice. He completed 243 of 452 passes for 3,325 yards during his intercollegiate career.

Crawford set Skyline Conference records in pacing Wyoming to an undefeated season. He was the top rusher in major colleges this season with 1,104 yards in 200 tries, and scored 96 points.

The pair will run with two other record breakers — Arizona's Art Luppino and Western Colorado's Bill Rhodes, a little All-America performer for two seasons.

Luppino broke the three-year rushing record held by Wisconsin's Alan Ameche. Rhodes was the nation's most prolific ground gainer this season with 1,200 yards in 130 carries. His four-year average of 8.49 yards a carry is the best ever, and his 4,295 yards is second best.

The Washington Redskins' Joe Kuharich will replace the Detroit Lions' Buddy Parker as Yankee coach. The South will again be directed by Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns.

Winning team members receive $500 each, the losers $400. The South has a 4-3 edge in the series.

Hunters Battle Over Possession of Fallen Geese

Too many hunters in one area often make for trouble. Like the incident reported by a young Pontiac goose hunter after he and his father spent the weekend at Swan Creek, near Allegan.

Said Bill Bookie, son of Dr. John L. Bookie 587 North Perry," if your birds didn't drop close enough so you didn't have to go out after them, you were in trouble—some one else would hustle out ahead and claim them. There were several fights among hunters at Swan Creek over possession of geese."

Dr. Bookie and Bill got their two birds from a small flight that came in low, and close. The fine Canadas dropped within 12 feet of the Pontiac men, Bill says.

"In five years of hunting they were our first geese," Bill added. He said an all-night (Saturday) wait in a car lineup of some 300 hunters was necessary before they got into the hunting area at 5:30 a. m. Sunday. Within two hours they had their big birds.

Knicks-Hawks Play NBA Scoring Orgy

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS

The circus won't come into Madison square garden for months but the St. Louis Hawks and New York Knicks last night unveiled "the greatest show on earth" for basketball fans.

The Hawks won, 137 to 128, in an NBA thriller for the highest two-team scoring orgy in NBA history.

Willie Naulls, newly of the Knicks, and Slater Martin, ditto of the Hawks, bucketed 21 and three points respectively. They were traded prior to the game.

In other NBA games, the Boston Celtics beat Fort Wayne, 113 to 97, in the curtain-raiser to the 265-point Knicks-Hawks spree and the Philadelphia Warriors edged the Minneapolis Lakers, 114 to 111.

Bears Tired of Playing Bridesmaid

Chicago Awaits Detroit Eleven in Irate Mood

Lions Promised Rough Time by Coach Paddy Driscoll's Squad

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears, who only a month ago were being compared with some of the great football teams of the past, must beat the Detroit Lions Sunday for their first divisional title in 10 years or be relegated to another second place finish.

And second place finishes are becoming a habit with the Bears. Since winning the National Football League championship in 1946, the Bears have finished second six times. Now they figure it's time to be the bride and not the bridesmaid.

• • •

Despite being anything but impressive in their last three games, the Bears are listed even money against the Lions who have aspirations of becoming the first team to rise from last place to first place in one year.

The Bears were completely outplayed by New York three weeks ago but managed to gain a 17-17 tie when Harlon Hill made a pair of spectacular second-half touchdown catches.

Following this game, the Bears went to Detroit and were nailed by the Lions, 42-10. Last Sunday they had their hands full with the Chicago Cardinals and came out ahead 10-3 only after two long touchdown runs by Cardinal star Ollie Matson were nullified by penalties.

Why this sudden letdown by a team that looked unbeatable a month ago? Injuries is one answer.

• • •

First they lost rookie scatback Perry Jeter because of a broken ankle and then Bobby Watkins was sidelined with a bad knee. With the loss of two "outside" threats, opposing teams concentrated on Rick Casares, the league's leading ground gainer.

The Giants held Casares to 13 yards and the Lions allowed him 45 yards.

• • •

In a move of desperation, the Bears switched J. C. Caroline from defense to offense in the Cardinal game and it paid off. J. C. gained 68 yards. He picked up three important first downs in a 55-yard touchdown drive and then barreled into the end zone for deciding score.

With Caroline's outside speed a threat, the Cards were forced to open up and as a result Casares barged through the middle, rolling up 117 yards.

But what about Sunday and Detroit?

• • •

"They'll be ready for the Lions," said coach Paddy Driscoll. "They're not forgetting the beating they took at Detroit."

Owner George Halas wouldn't make any predictions but said:

"I'll guarantee one thing, it won't be like it was at Detroit."

Weather No Deterrent

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The weather's freezing but that isn't keeping Colorado's 53-man football team from practicing for its Orange Bowl game in Miami, Fla., Jan. 1 with Clemson.

The Buffaloes ran around on the practice field for 90 minutes yesterday and scheduled another drill today.

Makes Its Own Snow

Holly Ski Area Isn't Bothered by Weather

Snow was manufactured for the first time in southern Michigan last night. A new snow machine laid a white blanket 12 inches deep on the main slope at Mt. Holly Ski area, located on Dixie Highway 20 miles north of Pontiac. Four more slopes covered with man-made snow will be ready for skiers by Saturday, Dec. 15, and the sixth, a beginners' run, sometime next week.

Last season snow machines kept a half dozen ski areas around New York City operating full time despite light snowfall. Now Southern Michigan residents can make definite plans to ski close to home without keeping an eye, or ear, cocked for changing weather reports.

Proprietor Mort Graddis anticipates a minimum of 100 good skiing days at Mt. Holly, daily and weekends, from 9 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night under the lights.

Sunshine and snow-making don't mix, so most of the snow will be manufactured in the evening. Snow forms at 28 degrees or less, when a stream of cold water is intercepted by two jets of warm compressed air a couple inches from the end of a special hose nozzle.

State Counties Once Bore Indian Names

LANSING — Petoskey was once in Keskouko Pontegana County, Alpena in Anamickee, and the county name for Montmorency was Cheonoquet. This and other interesting geographical information appears on an 1843 map in a Conservation Department publication, "An Index of Michigan Geology."

• • •

Just off the press, the book contains nearly 500 pages of technical material of interest to students, teachers and professional geologists. It is authored by Helen M. Martin and Muriel Tara Straight. Price is $5 per copy.

Avon Cagers Open Tonight

There's a big question mark hanging in the air as the Avondale High School basketball team plunges into its 1956-57 season tonight against visiting Fitzgerald.

It's safe to say that coach Dick Bye has an unknown quantity on hand for the Spartan invasion as his Yellow Jacket cagers launch their Oakland B League campaign and season schedule at the same time.

Last season's Avondale edition finished 2nd in the Oakland B race and was probably the strongest team in the league at the close of the schedule. Four members of that squad—Jerry Paul, Sam Sheehy, Lynn Wright and Larry Herron—are gone.

The lone holdover is guard Dwight Moulton. Bye's starting lineup for tonight's encounter will be selected from Moulton, Fred Hyten, Ken Sheehy, Dick Gronski, Tim Mulholland, Steve Saunders, Jerry Hill and Jim Thompson.

Moulton was one of the starting five last season. Of the remaining seven players, Hyten, Sheehy, Gronski and Saunders have seen the most varsity action. Gronski and Saunders were sidelined the greater part of last season with injuries.

Ron Elmy is expected to be a vital part of the picture later on. Football injuries will keep him on the shelf until after the holiday vacation.

Fitzgerald, the defending Oakland B champion, has also been hurt by graduation. Jim Clary, Louie Collins and Norm Pruitt have departed, leaving forward Bob Bush as the only returning regular for coach Tom Raeside.

• • •

The Avondale JV squad, coached by Al McClellan, will start proceedings at 6:45 p.m. Tonight's varsity action gets under way about 8:15.

Thieves Not Players!

MSU Coaches Angry Over 'Football' Tag

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State coaches are unhappy about the "football player" tag hung on two MSU undergraduates who tried to work their way through college by sticking up gas stations.

The pair, Thomas F. Husband of Bay City and Richard A. McDonald, of Springfield, Ohio, both 19, stood mute at Jackson circuit court arraignment Tuesday and face trial on armed robbery charges in January.

Police Cpl. Paul Rand said the youths have admitted six holdups and one break-in during the past month.

"Neither of them ever played in a game for us or even dressed for a game," said end coach Bob Devaney, "but still they are identified as 'football players'. So the entire team gets a black eye."

Bill Yeoman, the assistant coach who handles the scouting team, had the same objection.

"Just how deep do you go?" he asked. "We have about 150 boys report for practice very spring. They drop out and the squad shakes down to about 60 when we actually start playing.

"So if one of those 150 gets in trouble, is he still going to be identified as a 'football player'?"

Yeoman said that Husband worked as a center for about three weeks on his "rinkydink" squad and then dropped out. "McDonald saw even less service," he said.

Coaches said both were attending MSU on tuition-only scholarships and that neither had asked for aid from the student loan fund, to which all needy students are referred.

Bowie President Seeks to Extend Racing Calendar

BALTIMORE (AP)—If the race tracks have their way today, the winter layoff for horse racing in Maryland will last only 59 days.

• • •

Donald Lillis, president of Bowie, plans to propose to the state racing commission that his track be granted a spring meeting opening Feb. 12. Pimlico closes out the 1956 season next Saturday.

• • •

The commission is meeting with representatives of Bowie, Pimlico and Laurel today to discuss 1957 racing dates.

• • •

Lillis' proposal is aimed at avoiding competition with tracks in New Jersey and New York as much as possible. By starting on Lincoln's birthday, the Bowie boss figures the Maryland tracks could get in about 70 days before the New Jersey season opens.

Need More Research

LANSING (AP)—More research into deer habits is needed before deer management problems can be solved, delegates to the Midwest Wildlife Conference here have agreed.

The panel discussion on deer herd control was led by Herman F. Olson, of the Milwaukee, Wis., U.S. Forestry Service office, and Louis J. Verme, Michigan Conservation Department researcher.

Ilo Bartlett, of the Michigan Conservation Department game division, cited the need for more fundamental research.

"We know that deer will yard in certain areas in the winter, browse out the food completely, and then starve while other food is nearby," Bartlett said.

"We must find out why deer will not move into other areas in such a situation," Bartlett said. "It may be because there is a great variation in palatability, protein content and food value of browse in various areas."

James W. Moffett, of Ann Arbor, reported on the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service sea lamprey control campaign.

Some 30 electrical traps and barriers are in operation in spawning streams along Lake Superior, he reported. Lake trout catches are still dwindling rapidly, he said, and a 30 per cent increase in lake trout scarred by the sea lamprey was noted.

More traps and barriers are going in, Moffett said, and eventually every stream off of Lake Superior will be covered. The campaign will then be extended to lakes Huron and Michigan, but the Lake Superior situation is getting top priority, he said.

NATURE'S CAMOUFLAGE — The snowshoe hare, in summer gray and in winter white, changes his coat twice a year — spring and fall — to blend with the landscape as protection against enemies. This fellow also has a pair of huge hind feet — snowshoe size — that may not exactly be in the best woodland style, but nonetheless help him bound over snowy ground in a hurry. And he and his brothers and sisters produce enough youngsters so that hunters can harvest 200,000-500,000 during each hunting season.

Blueblods Aid Mutts

Rescue League Benefits From Jan. 19 PKC Show

BY H. GUY MOATS

Bluebloods of the canine world are going to take a day off, Jan. 19, from looking down their collective, cool noses in a show that is expected to aid the "unfortunates" of dogdom, and other unwanted animals.

President Ed Kraft of the Pontiac Kennel club today announced that the PKC has arranged an AKC sanctioned, all-breed, unbenched show for Jan. 19. Show takes place in the Waterford Community Activities Center, and is the first winter show for the club. It will also be the first indoor show for PKC in years.

"We are looking for a smashing entry," says the PKC head. "It is expected that 600 or more dogs will be entered. And that should interest all dog fanciers in the area."

All gate receipts will go to the Michigan Animal Rescue league to assist in the cost of construction of the new $10,000 shelter now under way here. Building is on Featherston road and East Boulevard. It is 22x60 in size, will have facilities to care for 100 animals, with a medical unit and other conveniences. It is expected to be completed within 60 days, Mrs. M. J. Davis of the league said.

"The show not only will give lovers of dogs and other animals opportunity to see some of the finest registered dogs, but it will afford a chance to lend substantial help to a good cause," Mrs. Davis pointed out.

The PKC affair is one day ahead of the annual show held by Oakland County Kennel club, which takes place in the Royal Oak Market building.

John Siefen and Mr. and Mrs. Kraft will handle the PKC show, for the club.

Entries close Tuesday, Jan. 8. They should be sent to the Bow Dog Show Organization, 4461 W. Jefferson, Detroit (Tel. TAshmoo 5-0698) where further information may be secured.

Solunar Tables

Here are the solunar tables, prepared for the coming week, and especially for the Pontiac area. These tables are set up by John Alden Knight noted outdoors authority, and they are designed to help determine the best times for hunting and fishing.

OCSC Sets Date for Its Annual 'Kiddies' Party

Fifth annual Christmas "kiddies party" has been set for Dec. 16 (Sunday afternoon) at Oakland County Sportsmen's club at Waterford. Event starts at 2 p.m. and will last until 4 o'clock.

OCSC officers will conduct the party, for which plans have been made to provide plenty of fun and entertainment. Feature will be appearance of Art Nee, one-man band. Santa will be there and there will be candy for the youngsters as well as other gifts. Some special Yule-time movies have been secured.

Outdoorsmen Never Have Too Much Gear, Gadgets

By JACK PATTERSON

Some further thoughts on Christmas shopping for the sportsman. Let's assume that the object of your holiday largess is equipped with the basic necessities for action afield or astream. He's adequately clothed, shod and armed. Got everything, has he? That's a conclusion shoppers, women shoppers mostly, are apt to jump to and they couldn't be farther off base. The miserly eyes of all hunters and fishermen light up at the sight of new gear. They probably don't need it. They may well never use it, but they'll cherish it nonetheless and never, never part with it.

PATTERSON

First let's examine the matter of duplications. "Oh, he's got one of those, he wouldn't want another" is an unfortunately common wifely attitude toward gift shopping for the outdoorsman. Is that so? The writer's wife, for example, would smile at a suggestion that we need a new landing net.

Nets have flourished around here in late years as needles on a jack pine, yet a recent search failed to turn up a single one. The point is we need a new landing net. If five of them fall off the closet shelf the next time we rummage around for some wood duck feathers, it won't change the picture a bit. We still need a new one.

So it goes with duplications. If he's got one that's fine. He'd rather have two. Mere possession isn't the whole story, either. Sporting gear has a way, like sportsmen, of weakening with age. Take waders, for example. Constant replacement and addition of all types of gear is the only safe and sane guarantee of a satisfied sportsman, plus longer seasons and bigger limits, of course.

The field of auxiliary equipment is a fertile one for the Christmas shopper. Some items can be classed as essential but are often overlooked by the hunter and fisherman.

Binoculars are such an item. Indispensable to the deer hunter, wildfowler and big-game hunter they are of constant usefulness in all outdoor activities. They require a minimum of care and upkeep.

Freeman Peace Heads Coon Hunters

Pioneer Coon Hunters Association, a "venerable" and consistent organization that enjoys one of the most interesting of sporting activities averaged about 20 raccoons per hunter during the 1956 season.

According to a census taken at the recent 15th annual meeting and banquet at Bald Eagle Lake Inn association members captured 380 animals. Count was based on the totals of the 19 reporting their takes.

The association named Freeman Peace of Holly for its 1956 president, heard brief talks by conservation officers Adams and Stowell and Howard Shelley, Oakland County Sportsmen's club, who showed his fine color film "Rocky Mountain Adventure." Another unusual feature was the talk by Verne Keller, blind coon hunter. Shelley's picture was filmed on a recent trip to Wyoming.

In addition to naming Peace for the top spot in the official family, the association elected John Feldman of Lake Orion vice-president; Lewis M. Wrenn of Pontiac, secretary-treasurer.

Following directors were also selected: Ernest Lattimer of Drayton Palins, James Berden of Pontiac, Jack Hamilton of Ortonville, Archie Rodenbaugh of Ortonville, Carl Kennady of Oakwood and Harold Smith of Pontiac.

As in all previous annual sessions the association enjoyed roast coon as the main dish for the banquet. Thirty-five tender young coons were served with all the traditional trimmings. About 90 attended the affair.

Bear Hunters Meet in Cadillac Jan. 19

Annual gathering of the Michigan Bear Hunters Association has been set for Jan. 19 at Cadillac.

Top items of business will be discussion regarding proposed dog legislation, big game and hunting safety.

Conservation director Gerald Eddy, game chief Harry D. Ruhl and field administration chief Durward Robson are the speakers.

Novelty Shoot at OCSC Range

Annual 'Turkey' Event Takes Place on Sunday; Is All-Day Affair

Annual Christmas turkey shoot for Oakland County Sportsmen's Club will be held at the club grounds, Waterford, next Sunday (Dec. 16) throughout the entire day.

The shoot, a novelty event, with firing at luck targets, is specially designed for the casual or average shooter. The so-called expert will have no greater chance of winning a prized gobbler than will the novice.

Events have been planned for the rifle shooter at 50 yards using numbered luck targets; the shotgunners will shoot from 35 yards, while the pistol shooters will fire at a reasonably short distance at numbered luck targets.

Guns, with any type of sights, or any caliber may be used in the various events. It is a close approach to the old-fashioned style of turkey shoot.

Fred Mayer, president of OCSC Pistol Club, and active with the Rifle Club will be range officer.

FORT WORTH—The 1957 ABC tournament scheduled here will run from its opening March 9 through April 28.

Motorists insured with this Exchange at the Automobile Club of Michigan can be proud indeed in telling people where they carry their automobile insurance.

This Exchange first only insures members of the Automobile Club. Secondly, this Exchange only insures people who have proved by their driving that they are good drivers and responsible car owners.

There can be as great pride in saying, "insured as a Club member with the Exchange," as in exhibiting a new or well-kept car. You need never explain.

Farmington Subdivision Rules Set

Trustees and Planners End Dispute to Agree With State Ruling

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Alterations in subdivision requirements, now in the hands of planing consultants for wording but not further change, were approved by the Township Board and Township Planning Board Monday night.

"Our hands were tied to change the rules to agree with what the planning board wanted," Supervisor Albert Gaines said today. "The new agreement brings the planning rulings into line with state and county ordinances."

"There is no master plan," Gaines says, "and the plan board had referred in several places in the requirements to such a plan."

Members of the two boards agreed that such reference should be deleted until the proposed masterplan now being drawn up by the planning consultants, Vilican and Leman of Berkley, is approved.

Ironing out of the differences between the two boards on controls over land use and building features in the fast growing subdivision areas was achieved, but legal wording brought some objection from the planning consultants.

They are working with their attorney, A. G. Leonard of Pontiac, on the requirements, but the boards have ordered that no change in content, but only wording and paragraphing, be made.

Clauses which conflicted with state and county ordinances have been deleted, Gaines reports.

A report back from the consultants is promised in two weeks.

Auburn Boys Receive Funds

Total of $820 Given by Lions, Legionnaires at Dinner

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Funds totaling $820 were received last night by the Boys Club here at a dinner given by the Lions Club.

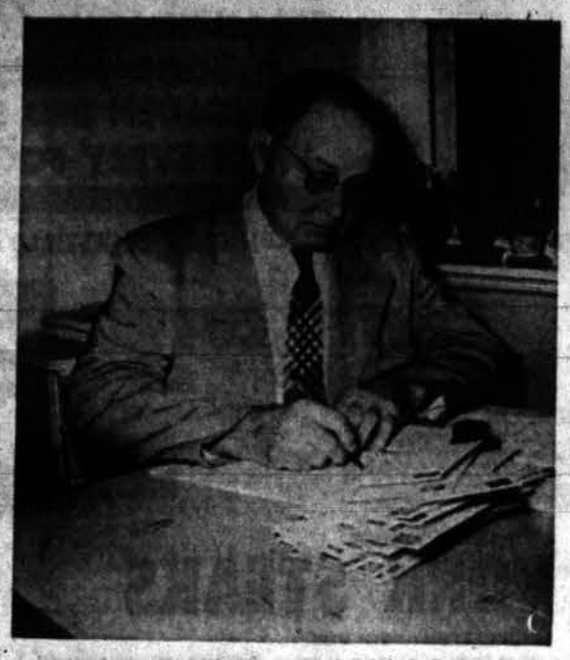
The Boys Club, organized in June, 1955, can now look to more extensive activities in the basement of the Hill Gazette American Legion Post, American Legion, loaned by the post which backed the group since its start.

The Legion and the Lions Club showed their support last night, with two checks, presented following a dinner, to which Lions, wives and their guests were invited.

A total of $700, earned at the Lions Halloween Flare Sale, has been turned over to the Boys group. The sale gleaned funds for a Halloween Drive for children, with judging of the parade, prizes, refreshments, and a dance.

With the flare drive larger than usual this year, Ben Douglass, president of the Lions, noted their drive's success at the dinner last night.

The Legion fund given the boys last night by Don Dodman, commander, came from a benefit dance recently staged at the Legion Post.



RETIRING SUPERVISOR — Howard Reid, who'll leave his post as supervisor of Milford Township in April, is looking towards a retired life of fishing, "puttering around the house," and Florida wintering.

Hear Testimony in Ouster Move

Ferndale Girl Tells of Justice's Advances, Motel Date

LANSING (UP) — An 18-year-old girl testified today that a justice of the peace responded to a plea for help in obtaining the release of her jailed boy friend with a proposal that they go together to a motel room.

Patricia Dawn Slate of Ferndale said the suggestion was made by Charles O. Williams, an associate justice of the peace in Madison Heights.

Miss Slate was the first witness at a hearing before Acting Gov. Philip A. Hart on a petition by Lloyd A. Ferguson, Madison Heights mayor, seeking Williams' removal from office.

"Would you consider going to a motel with a man and staying two hours for $10 dollars," Miss Slate quoted Williams as asking.

She said he later enlarged his proposition to an offer of $15 for each of six meetings, with the money to be charged against a $100 fine owed by Miss Slate's boy friend.

Miss Slate, giving her account under oath, told Hart that Williams had sentenced Larry Seigfried, her "fiancee," to a $100 fine and 15 days in the Oakland County Jail for siphoning gasoline from a car. The sentence included a provision that if the fine went unpaid Seigfried was to spend an additional 30 days in jail.

Late last month, Williams pleaded guilty to a charge, connected with the incident alleged by Miss Slade, of registering under a false name at a motel in Bloomfield Township.

The removal petition followed by about a week.

Four Plead Guilty to Robbery Charge

Four men charged with a Southfield Township armed robbery Dec. 1 all pleaded guilty Monday at their arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

They are Wilford N. Steele of Detroit and Vernon E. Adams, Jackie Pruitt and Douglas A. Morrow, all of Ferndale.

Judge Clark J. Adams, who will sentence the four Dec. 26, returned them to Oakland County Jail under bonds of $50,000.

Just Put Elvis in Our Stockings, Girls Tell Santa

TOLEDO, Ohio (UP)—It's enough to infuriate any redblooded Santa Claus, especially one 16 years old.

Sterling Frizzel, Libbey High School junior, has been putting on the traditional red suit and beard the last few Saturdays and giving the younger youngsters an earful of happy Christmas talk.

But he wasn't prepared for a couple of cute 14-year-old girls who sat on his lap.

That was fine until he asked them what they wanted for Christmas.

"Elvis Presley," they replied. "Not a doll or a picture of him, but Elvis Presley, period."

Detroit Youths Die in High-Speed Race

DETROIT (UP)—A high-speed race with occupants of another automobile ended in death today for two 18-year-old Detroit youths. A third youth was critically injured.

The trio was trapped inside their crushed car after it rammed over a center divider on Outer Drive and crashed into a tree in suburban Lincoln Park. Firemen had to extricate the bodies.

Dead are Gilbert J. Martinez and David Neal. Francis Szabo, 23, was critically injured. Szabo was riding alone in the back seat.

Lincoln Park Police Lt. Edwin Wild identified Martinez as the driver. It said the boy had obtained a temporary instructional drivers' permit only last Thursday. It authorized him to drive only when accompanied by an adult in the front seat.

Wild said the boys had met three other youths in a restaurant early today and agreed to race "to the next traffic light or some other landmark."

Detained at Lincoln Park Police Station to make statements were Robert Barnes, 20, of Detroit, the other driver; David Dempsey, 19, Lincoln Park; and Joseph Brewer, 18, Detroit.

City Woman Stands Mute on Murder Charge

Charged with second-degree murder in the slaying of Clarence Williams in Pontiac Nov. 9, Eula Mae Beauregard of 456 California Ave. stood mute Monday at her arraignment in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Clark J. Adams, who entered a plea of innocent for Miss Beauregard, released her under $1,000 bond to await trial.

Walton Heights Groups Set 2nd Yule Contest

The second annual Christmas Decoration Contest will be held for residents of East Walton Heights, Walton Heights Manor, and the five streets south of Walton near Opdyke next week.

Sponsored by local merchants in conjunction with the East Walton Heights Improvement Assn., the contest will be for the best exterior decoration among the area homes.

Judging, by the Association's board of directors, will be on Thursday, Dec. 20, with winners to be announced the next day.

First prize is $15.00, while second and third place awards will be $10 and $5 respectively.

Student Killed by Campus Pal

Football Player Dies When Shotgun Goes Off at Southern Illinois

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—A Southern Illinois University student and football player was shot and killed early today in an upstairs sleeping room he shared two blocks off the campus with three other students.

The victim was Robert Batura, 19, of Danvers, Mass., a sophomore and a starting end on the university's football team this fall.

Henry Hale, Carbondale night police chief, said Batura was struck in the head by the charge of a .12 gauge shotgun. He died instantly.

* * *

Fred Sinroll, 20, of Sterling, Ill., a classmate of Batura, was questioned in the shooting at Jackson County Jail in Murphysboro. No charges had been filed.

Henry Hillman, 18, of Park Ridge, Ill., and John Abromovitch, 21, of Haverhill, Mass., also were in the room when Batura died. The four students had been living together since the start of the fall term.

* * *

Hillman told Hale and Policeman Jim Sterns that Batura and Abromovitch moved Sinroll's bed and hid the covers as a prank while Sinroll was downstairs placing a telephone call. Hillman said that when Sinroll returned he appeared peeved. Instead of looking for his bed covers, Sinroll grabbed his shotgun and threw it across the foot of the bed, Hillman said.

"We thought he was acting big," Hillman added.

* * *

Batura asked Sinroll to move the gun but Sinroll didn't respond. "Then I'll move it," Batura was quoted as saying as he started across the room. Sinroll rose, shotgun in hand, and the weapon, Hillman said was discharged at point blank range.

Hillman and Sinroll ran out for help. Abromovitch, Batura's closest school friend and a center on the football team with him, knelt beside Batura's body.

$200,000 Settlement Given Mrs. Sorensen

DETROIT (UP) — An attractive mother has been granted a $200,000 cash settlement and $200 a month to care for a daughter in a final divorce decree against her auto heir husband.

Mrs. Irene Sorensen, a 46-year-old ash blonde, was granted the decree yesterday by Wayne County Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy.

* * *

Her husband, Clifford, 52, a son of a former Ford Motor Co. vice president, was allowed to retain possession of stocks valued at about $26,000. Mrs. Sorensen was allowed to keep jewelry valued at the same figure.

The monthly allowance will permit Mrs. Sorensen to care for their daughter, Sharon, 14. A son, Charles, 19, was married last summer.

Sorenson was allowed to keep a home in La Gorce Isle, Fla., and Mrs. Sorensen was granted some $80,000 from the sale of another home in suburban Grosse Pointe Shores last August.

* * *

"In my opinion, Mrs. Sorensen has capably proven that her husband was guilty of extreme cruelty, drank to excess and was having an affair with another woman."

Mrs. Sorensen had testified in the two day trial that her husband drank excessively — at one period consuming as much as two quarts of whisky a day. Sorensen was not at the trial because of an illness which confined him to his Florida home.

Car Battery Stolen, Commerce Woman Says

A Commerce Township woman who told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies she leaves her garage door unlocked during the winter so she can get it open in the morning reported the battery of her car stolen last night.

The theft occurred at 6897 Alden Dr. Nothing else was found missing or disturbed in the vehicle.

Sanity Hearing Slated for Heath

Avon Man Who Went on Wild Shooting Spree to Appear Dec. 17

A Probate Court sanity hearing for Alvin Heath, 33-year-old unemployed laborer who terrorized his Avon Township neighborhood with a barrage of rifle bullets last Wednesday night, has been set for Dec. 17, Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today.

Heath faces charges of assault with intent to murder in the shootings, in which he shot at houses and parked cars in the neighborhood and fired 32 bullets at Sheriff's deputies before they subdued him.

The gunmen has said he doesn't remember shooting at the officers.

Ziem said today Heath's wife, Jean, 37, has signed the petition for a hearing.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, who will preside over the hearing, set the date at Dec. 17. Assistant Prosecutor Walter R. Denison will present the case.

It's All Right to Keep Rabbits, Say City Officials

Pontiac city commissioners must have sensed the trouble Noah had with his animal species aboard the famous Ark as they encountered animal worries of their own last night.

Acting on the proposed adoption of a new city ordinance outlining numerous public nuisances, commissioners pondered whether rabbits should be banned as household pets in the city.

"Although I wouldn't want them myself, to say that you cannot have a rabbit is going a little too far," Commissioner John A. Dugan told his fellow commissioners.

The never-to-be-forgotten pigeons of Pontiac didn't escape the queries of city officials when City Manager Walter K. Willman questioned: "Who do we go after as keeper of the pigeons at the Courthouse?"

The section of the ordinance makes it unlawful to harbor cows, horses, pigs, goats, pigeons, chickens, geese, or ducks in the city. Birds, dogs, and cats can stay.

* * *

Our feathery friends atop the Courthouse didn't fare as well as the rabbits. The city fathers scratched the long-eared creatures from the list of unlawful animals.

Taking care of the animal kingdom, commissioners adopted the new nuisance ordinance which repeals a previous one - paragraph law dating back to 1874.

Clear Seven Men of Flogging Charge

BUSHNELL, Fla. (UP) — Seven white men were cleared today of charges of flogging Jesse Woods, 39-year-old Negro who had been forcibly taken from nearby Wildwood Jail.

The men were cleared on a directed verdict by Circuit Judge T. G. Futch after State Atty. A. P. Buie himself asked that four of the men be freed.

The case blew wide open when Buie complained that witnesses changed their stories when they came into Sumter County Courthouse to testify.

Charge Area Pair With Gross Indecency

One of two men charged with attempting an act of gross indecency pleaded guilty at arraignment Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court, but his alleged companion stood mute to the charge.

Wirt B. VanSlyke, of Farmington Township, pleaded guilty and was released under $500 bond to await sentence Dec. 26.

Leslie E. Seward, of Ortonville, who stood mute, also was released under $500 bond to await trial. Judge Clark J. Adams entered a plea of innocent for Seward, but set no trial date.

Plan Holiday Haircut: Barbershops to Close

The Pontiac Barbers (Local No. 50) voted last night to close their shops on Dec. 24, 25, 26, as well as Dec. 31, Jan. 1, and Jan. 2, to provide adequate vacation for barbers.

Closing will be observed also by members in Inter-Lakes Local No. 40.

Admits Area Breakin, Draws Jackson Term

Paul R. Moore, 29, of 9660 Elizabeth Lake Road, was sentenced to Jackson State Prison for a term of 18 months to 15 years Monday by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

Moore had pleaded guilty to breaking into a Waterford Township lumber company and stealing $13.

SCOTCH TREAT — A special kind of treat will be offered tomorrow evening when the children of the Scotch School of West Bloomfield Township present their Christmas program under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Putnam. Singing through one of the many Christmas songs which will be featured on the program are (back row, l. to r.) Susan Walls, Carl Putnam, Gretchen Papenguth and (front row) Nancy Bell and Danny Urguhart.

First Program in 8 Years

304 Scotch School Children to Sing

WEST BLOOMFIELD — For the first time in eight years, Scotch School of West Bloomfield Township is presenting a Christmas program. It will take place at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the West Bloomfield High School on the corner of Orchard Lake and Commerce roads.

According to program chairman, Mrs. Carl Putnam, this year's program will be a special treat and unique in that all of the school's 304 children will take part.

A parade of "Babes in Toyland" by the kindergarten room will open the program. First grade rooms in a combined chorus will pantomime scenes of "The Snowman," "Magic Time," "Dance of the Snowflake," and "The Nativity."

Six songs, pantomimes and dances will all be given by the combined second grades. Songs they will sing are "I Wish You a Merry Christmas," "I'm a Little Christmas Tree," "Old Santa's Coming to Town," "Up on the House Top," "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," and "Lullaby."

Donned in unusual choir robes, one third grade room will sing a group of songs. The other third graders will narrate "The Tiniest Angel" as some of the children pantomime it. The chorus will sing "There's a Song in the Air," accompanied by a third grade pianist.

A combined pantomime and chorus will also be given by one fourth grade room which will also do "Good King Wenceslas." The second fourth grade room will depict "Christmas with the Bob Cratchett Family."

"The Nativity Scene," backed with an angel choir singing "On a Christmas Morning" will be given by the fifth grade.

Rounding out the program will be a song fest of Christmas carols with the audience participating.

Ask Troopers' Slayer Be Sent to Hospital

FLINT (UP) — A petition asking that Harry G. Richards, 57-year-old slayer of two state troopers, be committed to the Pontiac State Hospital for the insane, was filed today in Probate Court.

Richards shot troopers George E. Lappi and Burt A. Pozza, both 27, Nov. 19 when the two answered a trouble call to Richards' suburban Flint home. The petition was filed by Otis M. Smith, Richards' attorney.

Prosecutor Jerome F. O'Rourke said he has changed his plans to press a first degree murder charge against Richards because he understood the man's mental condition is worse.

Richards is in the psychopathic ward of Hurley Hospital where O'Rourke said he has been losing a pound of weight a day.

If successfully prosecuted on the murder charge before a psychiatric examination, and Richards was found insane, he would be sent to the Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane until he was considered capable of standing trial in Flint.

Experts May Study Big Milk Container

LANSING (UP) — The State Agriculture Commission has asked Michigan State University experts to make a detailed study of a proposal to allow milk sales to the public in gallon containers.

The proposal was among the resolutions submitted by the Michigan State Grange at the commission meeting yesterday.

Almond Cressman, of St. Johns, representing the Grange, said the farm group had also backed resolutions:

* * *

Favoring a "seal of quality" or its equivalent for Michigan agricultural products.

Advocating that grain be measured by the hundredweight rather than the bushel in buying and selling.

Proposing that the state set uniform requirements for the construction of milk tanks.

Favoring an expanded program of agricultural research and marketing.

County Deaths

Mrs. Lee Murphy

AUBURN HEIGHTS—Service for Mrs. Lee (Josephine) Murphy, 66, 1248 Clycas, Detroit, will be at 11 a.m. Friday at Cheboygan at the Nordman Funeral Home, with burial in that community. She lived with her daughter, Mrs. Alma J. Pike in Auburn Heights for four years.

Also surviving are two sons, Gilbert Laforest of Detroit and Wilbert Laforest of Roseville, four other daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Barber of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Connie Shaw of Detroit, Mrs. Rena Thompson of Flint, and Mrs. Ida May Dickman of Whitmore.

Cow Causes Chaos

BUNKER HILL, Ill. (UP) — Earl Schmidt, 36, was hospitalized with torn shoulder ligaments after the cow he was milking fell on him.

Clarkston Man Injured as Car Gets Rammed

Russell M. Powers, 38, of 7760 Bridge Rd., Clarkston, suffered a bruised scalp and a slight head injury when his car was struck from behind in Troy last night.

He was released after treatment at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Dale Willoughby, 43, of 5395 Dixie Highway, Waterford Township, was the driver of the other car in the accident at Crooks road near 16 Mile.

Willoughby told Troy police his truck skidded into the rear of Powers car when it stopped in front of him to make a left turn.

Waterford Schools Get 12-Day Class Recess

A 12-day holiday is in store for teachers and students in the Waterford Township school system, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

The Christmas-New Year vacation begins with the end of classes Thursday, Dec. 20, and classes will be resumed Wednesday morning, Jan. 2.

MR. and MRS. T. V. SPACHUK

Doris Tucker Is New Bride

DRAYTON PLAINS — Theodore Victor Spachuk and his bride, the former Doris Evelyn Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Tucker, 1397 Collier Rd., are spending a month's honeymoon in Florida and Cuba.

The couple, married last Saturday evening at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses here, will reside in Dearborn. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Litwin of that city.

For the wedding performed by the bride's cousin, W. R. Berry of Lake Orion, before 300 guests, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of orchid chiffon with a corsage of dark red roses surrounded by feathered chrysanthemums.

Phyllis Sulimko was her bridesmaid, wearing a lime green gown, and Dennis Nussel, the groom's cousin from Windsor, was best man.

Doyn and Kenneth Tucker were ushers.

The reception was held at the Waterford CAI building.

Thieves Get $25 Beef

A shoulder of beef worth $25 was taken yesterday from a food truck parked on Orchard Lake avenue, Pontiac police said.

The theft occurred while the driver was in a store, they added.

CHECK AND DOUBLE CHECK — Auburn Heights Boys Club officials received checks from two organizations representatives at last night's Lions Club dinner when the Lions Club celebrated the success of its Halloween flare sale. Square Dancers to Finish Classes

Twenty-six couples will graduate from the beginners square dance class, conducted this fall by the Waterford Township Recreation Department, tonite at the Community Center on Williams Lake road.

Presidents from twelve area square dance clubs have been invited to the last dance to acquaint the new dancers to their respective clubs and to promote square dancing, in general.

These presidents and their wives will also participate in a special dance for demonstration purposes.

The public has been invited to visit this last dance lesson and demonstration by the experts. If enough people are interested, the possibilities of starting a second six-week dance course will be discussed, according to Recreation Director Tom Belton. Warren Allen has been the square dancing instructor.

Can't Keep Him Down

BAMBERG, S. C. (AP)—George B. Kearse, 81, was asked if he had fully recovered from a major operation. He answered this way: "I went to a dance Friday night and danced until after midnight. I got up at 6 o'clock Saturday morning and hunted all day . . ."

Lonely Eden Gets Ready to Face His Bitter Critics

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden is a lonely, embittered politician in these waning days of his rest cure in sunny Jamaica.

* * *

The former "White Knight of Geneva" took a bold decision in the invasion of Egypt. He faltered under the anger of the United States and the United Nations, and the threat of Soviet counter-action.

The 59-year-old Eden agreed to a cease-fire, then a withdrawal of troops before they could seize all of the Suez Canal and oust his arch foe, Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The 39-year-old Nasser, who heads a military regime which is quite chummy with the Soviet Union, has lost a lot of his Russian-made tanks and planes.

* * *

But he bounces back with increased prestige. The Anglo-French invasion made him a martyr in the Arab world and a hero to his own people.

FACE THE MUSIC

In contrast, Eden will leave Jamaica and fly back to London Friday "to face the music."

* * *

Some of his own party men want to dump Eden, now that he has failed to dump Nasser. They call Eden's withdrawal from Egypt "humiliating."

Eden's own withdrawal from the premiership if effected, also would be very humiliating for the man who has spent nearly all his life in politics and who was rated as one of the top world diplomats.

Eden sent his troops into Egypt because of various motives. One of these was that he was convinced that Nasser was a "Hitler of the Nile," a dictator who, if not stopped, might plunge the whole Middle East into war and possibly ignite another world war.

* * *

Some of this obsession about Hitler on Eden's part springs, of course, from the prewar days when he broke with Premier Neville Chamberlain rather than stomach the latter's appeasement of Hitler.

ISOLATES BRITAIN

Critics of Eden say that by acting as if Nasser were Hitler, the British leader ended up by only isolating and weakening the British nation.

* * *

These critics despise Nasser, but their argument is that Nasser should have been pressed through economic sanctions, then patient negotiation, into allowing international control of the Suez Canal.

But Eden said the nation could not wait, that Nasser was strangling British and West European economy in his traffic control of the canal.

Britain's darkening economic life supports that Eden argument. The brief little fling in Egypt cost $140 million or more. That modest military expense, plus a blocked canal, now has put Britain in a dangerous economic hole.

* * *

Eden tried and failed, and now some of his once warm friends call for his scalp.

DIRTY BUSINESS

The late Czechoslovakian foreign minister, Jan Masaryk, remarked: "International politics is a dirty business." This was years before he was thrown or jumped to his death from a Prague window after seeing his republic gobbled up by the Communists.

* * *

British domestic politics also can be rough. One London newspaper has launched an essay "contest" on the Suez crisis.

Readers were asked to submit their views, 300-word minimum, on what the government should do to mend the alliance with America, improve commonwealth relations and restore "a sense of unity" in Britain.

The prize listed by the newspaper: "A three-weeks holiday for two . . . away-from-it-all in the tropical paradise of Jamaica."

Cinerama Will Produce Story of the Atomic Age

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — With the whole world in a mad rush to perfect atomic bombs, Cinerama's first dramatic production, "The Eighth Day," is timely.

Grant Leenhouts, vice president in charge of production, tells me that portions of the film have already been shot and comprise the launching of the atomic submarine, Sea Wolf, and the hydrogen bomb blasts.

"The Eighth Day" goes from the inception of the atomic age to the present time, and it should be a thrilling epic.

Actually the beginning is the creation of the world, with a voice reciting the early verses of Genesis as the prelude. The main theme will be based on the concept that it is the bomb that keeps the peace.

The script has been approved by the Atomic Energy Commission, and the commission is extending full cooperation and use of its facilities.

WONDERFUL NEWS

Hungarian-born Eva Bartok is hysterical with joy. She has just received word that her 18-year-old cousin, Andre Utasy, arrives in Los Angeles from Hungary on the Southern Pacific today.

The boy, who fought in the Hungarian underground, was able to get here by the aid of the Catholic Relief Service. He had been a student of engineering in Hungary before the uprising started.

Eva will see that he continues his studies here. She has promised to look after him. He is the son of her mother's sister.

As soon as French actress Etchika Choureau finishes "Lafayette Escadrille" at Warners she will return home.

Although she has been escorted about Hollywood by Jody McCrea, Etchika's real love is a French diplomat who had planned to fly over here before the international situation became so tense. Etchika finds it convenient not to understand when asked the man's name.

In spite of the fact that Warners is drawing up a multiple picture deal for Etchika, she prefers to go home.

SIN DOESN'T PAY

They can shout it from the housetops and argue that "sexy" and off-color movies are big at the box office — and I'll never believe it. The financial history of the all-time money-makers proves otherwise.

The giants at the box office over many, many years have been "Gone With the Wind," "The Robe," "The Best Years of Our Lives," "Going My Way," "The Bells of St. Mary's" and more recently "The Greatest Show on Earth" and all of Walt Disney's films. Not one of these "champions" has been salacious or has overemphasized sex.

Milk Dealers Down Stainless Steel Rule

LANSING (AP) — A spokesman for the Michigan Milk Dealers Association appeared before the State Agriculture Commission yesterday to oppose a regulation which would require stainless steel containers for milk dispensers used in cafes or restaurants.

Len Franke, representing the milk dealers, protested that the stainless steel containers would be too expensive and asked that their use be optional. Franke said tin-dipped containers would serve the purpose just as well.

The regulation would require that the metal container within the milk dispenser unit be made of stainless steel or some other non-corrosible metal.

Effective date of the legislation originally was Jan. 1 but later was postponed until May 1.

Franke was the only interested party appearing to speak on the proposal at the meeting. The Commission will hear further arguments on the proposed legislation at its Jan. 9 meeting.

Bonus Payments Rise

LANSING (AP) — State bonus payments to Korean veterans now total $56,540,076, the State Adjutant General's Office reported today. The office said that 204,773 claims have been approved for payment, 4,125 have been rejected and 1,372 are still in processing. The average bonus payment was for $276.

Eisenhower to Fly Back to Washington Refreshed and Well

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—This is President Eisenhower's last full day of vacation plus work at this favorite Dixie retreat.

Tomorrow afternoon he will fly back to Washington, ending a 2½-week stay at the Augusta National Golf Club.

* * *

At the White House he plans to turn to intensive preparation for four days of talks starting Sunday with India's Prime Minister Nehru.

Aides pictured the President as thoroughly refreshed and feeling fine at near the close of this longest of 11 visits to Augusta since he was elected in 1952.

* * *

He appeared refreshed and in good trim yesterday when reporters got their second look at him since he arrived here Nov. 26. The first time was on Dec. 2 when he attended church.

* * *

The occasion yesterday was Eisenhower's nine-hole round of golf with Canada's Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent — a match in which they were pitted against each other in team play and came out "all even."

The President teamed up with the Prime Minister's daughter, Mrs. Hugh O'Donnell, against St. Laurent and Ed Dudley, the club professional.

The 74-year-old Prime Minister flew here from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where he had vacationed for 10 days, on his way back to his home in Ottawa. He was in Augusta about 4½ hours.

* * *

The party of Canadians visited with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower and had lunch at the club before the golf match. Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the President and St. Laurent had some time alone and that undoubtedly there was some discussion of international problems.

Unfrock Anglican Vicar Who Faked Own Death

CHESTER, England (INS)—An Anglican vicar, accused of faking his own death to run off with his mistress, was unfrocked yesterday, deprived of holy orders and ousted from his parish.

The Bishop of Chester said the Rev. Philip St. John Wilson Ross "caused a grave scandal to the church" by running off to Switzerland last summer with his mistress.

Ross, 52, did not attend the consistory court at which his sentence was pronounced. The registrar of the court said Ross had filed a written admission to the charges, and had accepted the sentence as just.

Army Contract May Be Invalid

Michigan Court Ruling Could Cause City to Sell Orchard Lake Land

The city might have to sell instead of lease a five-acre parcel of land off Orchard Lake avenue to permit construction of the proposed Army Reserve training center, the City Commission learned last night.

Commissioners heard that a May 1956 ruling handed down by the Michigan Supreme Court might throw out a previously signed 50-year lease between the city and the government.

An Army official from the Real Estate Division of the Corps of Engineers informed the commission that under the ruling, a political subdivision like Pontiac, "cannot donate land to the United States for public purposes unless the city retains control of the purposes for which the land is conveyed."

The official said the Department of Army was reviewing the decision to see if the sale was necessary.

* * *

Commissioners instructed City Manager Walter K. Willman to tell officials that the city "was willing to sell on a reasonable appraised value."

Two weeks before the court ruling, the city approved the long-term lease for the site which was formerly a sanitary fill area for the city.

* * *

The Army proposes to construct the one-story brick building, similar to modern school buildings in Pontiac, to replace present reserve headquarters at 37 W. Lawrence St.

Construction was to begin this fall with a one-year completion date established.

'Meanest Person' Item Awakens Conscience

AMSTERDAM, N.Y. (AP) — The daily Amsterdam Recorder and Democrat described the thief who took a muscular dystrophy fund coin box from a food store as "the meanest person in the world."

A bundle of newspapers left outside the same store contained an envelope. Inside was $2.49 and a note: "From the meanest person in the world."

Only Soybeans Remain Firm

CHICAGO (AP) — A slightly firmer tone in soybeans provided the only major price change on the board of trade today. Beans had gains ranging to a little more than tw cents at one time.

Other grains generally held steady, but for the most part could score only very minor gains. Trading again was rather slow, altough picking up a little speed after the first 15 minutes.

* * *

Buying in soybeans was based on another upturn in soybean oil. Italy was credited with buying a substantial quantity of soybean oil.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ½ lower, December $2.38⅝, corn ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.33⅛, oats unchanged to ¼ higher, December 75, rye unchanged to ¼ higher, March $1.44½ soybeans unchanged to 1¼ higher, January $2.52, and lard unchanged to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $15.90.

Movie Censors Revise Code

MPAA President Says 1st Change Since 1930 Seems 'More Flexible'

NEW YORK (AP)—Movie industry censors have revised the movie code for the first time since it was adopted in 1930.

New standards, stricter in some senses and more lenient in others, were announced yesterday by the Motion Picture Assn. of America, the movie industry's self-imposed censoring board.

Eric Johnston, president of the MPAA, in announcing some 20 changes, said the new code "is already in effect—Hollywood has been advised."

* * *

Johnston and Ken Clark, vice president of the association, said it was not possible to "characterize or sloganize" the effect of the revision. Johnston said, however, he thought the code was "more flexible" than the older one.

The new code permits the treatment, "within the limits of good taste," of such subjects as abortion, the kidnaping of children and the illegal traffic in and use of narcotics.

* * *

At the same time, it adds "thou shalt nots" in the form of mercy killing, blasphemy and double-meanings.

Under a general section entitled "sex," the new code specifically bans "open-mouth kissing," adding this to a section that already forbids "lustful kissing, lustful embraces, suggestive posture and gestures."

Dividends

DETROIT (INS) — The Board of Directors of Briggs Manufacturing Co. have declared a cash dividend of 20 cents per share on the 1,078,834 shares presently outstanding, payable Dec. 29, 1956 to shareholders of record at the close of business Dec. 20, 1956.

Hazel Park Racing Assn. Inc. said today it will pay a dividend of 20 cents per share Jan. 14, 1957, to more than 1,000 shareholders of record Jan. 4.

Two Jailed, Two Fined for Orion Breakin

Two Orion Township youths were jailed and their two companions fined after they pleaded guilty to a charge of entering a building without permission yesterday.

George W. Pankey, 17, of 4577 Homesite Dr., and Wesley T. Johnstone, 19, of 4960 Estes Rd., were given 60-day jail terms. Johnston's brother, Leon, 17, and Herman L. Nichols, 17, of 4900 Estes Rd., paid a total of $60 each in fines and costs.

* * *

The charge against the youths concerned the breakin of a Lake Orion School last weekend. Pankey and Wesley Johnstone were apprehended at the scene by Sheriff's deputies. All were arraigned before Justice Helmar G. Stanaback.

Youths Get 30 Days for Alcohol Possession

Jail sentences of 30 days each were given youths from Royal Oak and Ferndale Tuesday after they pleaded guilty to possession and transportation of alcoholic beverages by a minor before Hazel Park Justice Robert C. Baldwin.

Reynold L. Steinke, 20, of 821 Stanley Ct., Royal Oak, and Robert R. Bacon, 18, of 1048 Rosewood St., Ferndale, were lodged in the County jail after failing to pay fine and costs of $80.

Van Wagoner Is First to File for Examination

DETROIT (AP) — Former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner is the first to file for the Wayne County Highway Engineer Civil Service examination, officials reported today.

The post becomes vacant Jan. 1 when Leroy C. Smith retires.

Van Wagoner's application has been expected since he took out forms last week.

* * *

Ten or 12 candidates are expected to file to the $23,361-a-year job.

Van Wagoner was State Highway Commissioner for seven years before becoming Governor in 1941. He was a Democrat.

Aircraft Gains Lead Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — Aircrafts again went to the fore today as the rest of the stock market was irregularly higher in fairly active early trading.

Gains in aircraft shares went from fractions to beyond a point. Other key stocks showed advances and declines within a 2-point range.

The opening was active the turnover fell off considerably.

Following news that Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown planned to go ahead with their merger despite Justice Department opposition, an item made public after yesterday's close, Bethlehem was down 2¾ at 185½ on an opening block of 2,500 shares but later clipped its loss to around 2. Youngstown dropped 1 at 126¾ on an opener of 2,300 shares but in subsequent trading erased the loss and advanced a major fraction.

* * *

Boeing and Chance Vought gained more than a point apiece. Douglas Aircraft, Lockheed, United Aircraft and Glenn L. Martin were all ahead fractions to around a point.

Allied Chemical was up around 2. Small gains were made by U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Anaconda, General Electric and American Cyanamid.

Small losses were taken by Du Pont, Gulf Oil, New York Central, Loew's, General Motors and Consolidated Natural Gas.

Muscular Dystrophy Fund Results Given

William J. Brown, campaign chairman for the muscular dystrophy drive in Pontiac, announced today the amount of funds received from the recent fund drive.

* * *

Some $1,480.69 was collected by approximately 100 marchers throughout the city. This betters the 1955 collection by $361, Brown said. Only expenses incurred by the campaign was $1 paid to the City of Pontiac for permission to march, he added.

* * *

The funds will go to medical research which is seeking the cause and cure of the weakening muscle disease. A portion of the funds will go to the Detroit Memorial Hospital to be used to treat victims of the malady from Pontiac and Oakland County.

ELECTRONIC LOAD — A technician inserts an electronic "package" into the earth satellite "Vanguard" during a major step in its assembly. The satellite, presently being put together at the Naval Research Laboratory in Washington, D. C., is a small ball of about 20 inches in diameter which will telemeter information about the atmosphere back to earth.

New in Brief

Nothing was missing from a grocery store, 185 Edison St., where there apparently was a breakin attempt early today, Pontiac police said. Front door glass was found broken.

Pleading guilty to malicious destruction of property, James W. Carter, 29, of 913 Fernwood Dr., Royal Oak, was sentenced to 10 days in the Oakland County Jail Tuesday by Justice Robert C. Baldwin of Hazel Park.

Paul J. Arnold, 43, of Flint, received a five-day county jail sentence after pleading guilty to driving without a license before Independence Township Justice William H. Stamp yesterday.

Mack D. Hartman, 21, of 77 Chopin St., Troy, was committed to the county jail to serve 21 days on a reckless driving charge after failure to pay fine and costs of $110 Tuesday. He pleaded guilty before Hazel Park Justice Robert C. Baldwin.

Police Seek Two Believed in Area

Insp. Clark M. Wheaton, Chief of Pontiac detectives, said police are seeking information leading to the whereabouts of two persons. They are Wilbur Richardson and Evelyn J. Reynolds.

Richardson is sought by a daughter in Sunnyside, Wash., Wheaton said. She has reason to believe he lives in this area.

Evelyn Reynolds is sought in Endicott, N. Y., Wheaton said, for testimony as a subscribing witness to a will. She gave Pontiac as her home in 1926, Wheaton said.

Anyone with information about either person can telephone Wheaton at Federal 2-2426.

Has Christmas 2 Weeks Early: May Not Live

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Two-year-old Mary Lou Criske played with her Christmas toys today, unaware that Christmas is still two weeks off.

Mary Lou had her Christmas last Sunday. On Friday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Criske will take her to the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., for a heart operation.

With it, she has a 1 to 4 chance for survival, her mother says, and "it is the only hope."

Mrs. Criske says the operation, scheduled for Tuesday, will take as long as 6 to 8 hours, and Mary Lou's own heart will be stilled for the time, while an artificial heart keeps her blood circulating.

Mrs. Criske did not say what the exact nature of Mary Lou's ailment is, but she described it as "rare."

Gingellville Center Slates Rule Change

GINGELLVILLE — An amendment to the by-laws will be read at the meeting of the Gingellville Community Center tomorrow when the business meeting begins at 8 p.m.

Previous to the regular meeting, a pot luck dinner for all members and their families will start at 7 p.m.

20 Countries Condemn Reds

Spain, Other Nations Back U.S. Resolution as Hungary Quits U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Angered by the defiant walkout of Hungary's pro-Moscow delegation, U.N. diplomats rallied today behind an American resolution condemning Russia for tampering in Hungarian affairs.

* * *

Three more nations — Spain, Turkey and Colombia — threw in their support, bringing the resolution's total sponsorship to 20 as the General Assembly went on with its latest round of debate on the Hungarian crisis.

* * *

The 20 sponsors met last night to discuss a companion resolution entered by India and her three closest Asian allies—Burma, Ceylon and Indonesia. The Asian proposal omits actual condemnation of Russia. But U. S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. told his cosponsors it was noteworthy in that it implied a strong rebuke.

Lodge was slated to take the floor late today to analyze the Asian proposal. It would have U.N. Secretary Dag Hammarskjold negotiate with both Hungary and Russia for withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary. The Budapest regime already has ignored or rejected four previous Assembly resolutions calling for admission of U.N. observers and withdrawal of the Russian forces.

* * *

General resentement over Hungary's flouting of the Assembly took a sharp upturn after Foreign Minister Imre Horvath stalked out of the assembly yesterday, declaring his government had been "disgracefully offended" by U. N. fellow members. The anger mounted as three other Soviet satellites — Bulgaria, Albania and White Russia—chorused Moscow's claim that the United States and other Western powers had touched off the Hungarian revolt and were responsible for that country's present plight.

Earnings

NEW YORK (INS) — Ward Industries reported yesterday it realized a net profit of $3,930,031 on revenues of 23,809,849 in the nine months ended Sept. 30. No comparison is available for 1955 because of different fiscal periods by Ward's predecessor companies.

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Sales of Food Fair Stores, Inc., for the 28 weeks ended Nov. 10 totaled a record $279,373,768, a gain of 16 per cent over the corresponding period a year ago. Net dropped, however, to $4,668,306, or $1.42 per common share, compared with $4,926,203, or $1.49 a share, last year. The 1955 figure included 18 cents per share in non-recurring income against only three cents this year.

DECATUR, Ill. (INS) — The A. E. Staley Manufacturing Co. reported today net profits of $4,853,650 for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30. No comparable figure is available because the firm changed its statement period in 1955. Dollar sales in the 12 months amounted to a record $181,540,000 compared with $144,881,000 in the calendar year 1954 and $111,617,000 in the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1955.

Funeral to Be Friday for 37 Year Teacher

ROYAL OAK (INS) — Service for Ruth Kirk, a Royal Oak teacher for 37 years, will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Kinsey Funeral Home here. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery, Adrian.

Miss Kirk died yesterday in her home at the age of 60. A graduate of the University of Michigan, she received her master's degree from Columbia University.

Miss Kirk was a member of the University of Michigan Women's Club and Michigan Education Assn.

She is survived by a brother, Ralph, and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Savage.

Waterford Tax Statements Out

35,000 Bills Totaling $2,073,427 in Levies Mailed to Taxpayers

Approximately 35,000 tax statements totaling $2,073,427 were mailed to residents in Waterford Township yesterday.

Taxpayers have up until Jan. 20 to make their payments. After that date there is a four per cent penalty charge on the entire tax bill and one half of one per cent per month interest penalty charge.

According to Dorcas W. Tibbals, Waterford Township treasurer, there is an increase of $1,786,971 over last year. Eighty-seven per cent of the total tax bill was collected for last year.

There are no special assessments this year. Residents payed a special assessment for drains last year. All taxes are payable at the Waterford Township Hall from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays and 9 a.m. until 8 p.m. Mondays.

BREAKDOWN GIVEN

A letter was sent out with the statements explaining the breakdown of the tax dollar:

* * *

Operation of county government will require 13.97 per cent of the tax dollar; 3.94 per cent will be used by the township government for operation and new township improvements; 1.5 per cent will go for special education of crippled and handicapped children; 40.8 per cent is used to maintain and operate the Waterford Township School system; 39.79 per cent is used for construction and payment of new schools that are now completed or under construction.

Lloyd L. Anderson, township supervisor, said that this letter of explanation will help give property owners a better picture of how their tax dollar is being used.

WTHS Choir Gives Concert of Yule Songs

Christmas songs will fill the air of Waterford Township High School tonight with the annual Christmas concert given by the A Capella choir and the mixed chorus under the direction of Martha Smith.

The performance will be at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

* * *

A candle procession will open the concert which will be followed by the choir singing "Adeste Fideles." The songs featured in the program include "There Were Shepherds," "Hallelujah," "Sleigh Bells," "O Holy Night,' and "Twas the Night before Christmas.'

Delores Kline, will be a featured soloist on "O Holy Night' accompanied by the choir. Ken Young will sing "The First Noel" also accompanied by the choir.

Marilyn Keasey and Margaret Studebaker will be accompanists for the evening.

Business Briefs

DEARBORN (INS) — George S. Coats, general marketing manager of the Mercury Division, Ford Motor Co., has announced the appointment of Richard S. Hanel as marketing administration manager.

Hanel will direct all administrative activities of Mercury's general marketing office and will supervise the administrative, sales training and the systems and data processing departments.

KURAS

Promotion of J. B. Kuras to manager of the Ford Tractor & Implement Division's general accounting department has been announced by Controller Anthony Alic.

A resident of Bloomfield Hills, Kuras formerly served as supervisor of accounting systems and procedures of the Birmingham-based division.

R. J. Helder, a resident of Dearborn, was appointed assistant divisional controller for financial analysis.

M. C. Anderson, of the Charles Bruning Co., will address the Pontiac Chapter of the American Society of Tool Engineers at a dinner meeting in Devon Gables tomorrow night.

Anderson's speech will be a technical analysis of optical tool engineering techniques. The speaker's company is exclusive distributor of Brunson optical instruments.

Fails to Appear for Trial

ROMEO — Kenneth Roey, 41, of Almont, failed to appear for trial yesterday in Macomb County Circuit Court, Mt. Clemens, on the charge of taking indecent liberties with a minor, Romeo Police Chief Gordon Osgood said today. Roney had jumped his $1,000 bond. Roney was arrested on the carnival site during the Romeo Peach Festival on Sept. 3. He had stood mute when arraigned. A bench warrant for his arrest and forfeiture of bond was issued by Judge Alton H. Noe.

Approve Flanary, Treanor for Police Trial Board

The appointment of James F. Flanary and William L. Treanor to the Pontiac Police Trial Board, was unanimously approved by the City Commission last night.

* * *

Both will fill the new positions added to the board when Pontiac voters last month approved a City Charter amendment increasing the membership from five to seven.

Flanary, 47, of 37 S. Anderson St., served on the board previously from October 1955 until last May when his term expired.

He is an industrial engineer with the Ford Motor Co. in Detroit and was once a Pontiac representative on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Treanor is terminal manager of the Interstate Motor Freight Co. here. He is 34 and lives at 971 Berwick Blvd.

* * *

Last year, he received the Distinguished Service Award of the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, the organization he served as president once.

Both appointees will serve four year terms. They will join with present board members Jack B. Habel, James J. McCarthy, Cecil Mullinix, R. Verne Todd, and Warren T. Fowler.

253 Hungarians Arrive Today

102 Flights Scheduled in Biggest Program Since Berlin Airlift

MCGUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N.J. (AP)—Four Military transport planes will land 253 Hungarians here today.

The goal is to bring some 21,500 fugitives from Communist terror to America by New Year's.

The Military Air Transport Service started its inaugural flights from Munich, Germany, yesterday and will lift some 9,500 men, women and children across the Atlantic Ocean by the end of the year.

The four C118 transports were to land here at 10 a.m. after a rest stop at Harmon Field, Nfld.

Also taking part in the program is the military sea transportation service. Three transport ships, ordinarily used to carry U.S. servicemen and their dependents to and from stations overseas, will leave Bremerhaven, Germany, starting next week. They will bring 1,725 refugees each.

The Air Force, in one of the biggest programs of its kind since the Berlin airlift, has scheduled 102 flights from Munich, 46 of them in commercial airliners under contract. It expects to land 500 refugees a day when the lift gets into full operation.

GOP Accused of 'Hate' Letters

Republicans Hit Back With 'Phony Claptrap' Charge at Dems

DETROIT (AP)—Republicans called "a lot of phony claptrap" a statement by a legal advisor to Gov. Williams that poison-pen election letters originated in Detroit Republican headquarters.

The letters were mailed to mixed white and Negro neighborhoods in Detroit during the November election campaign. They urged voters to vote Democratic to "keep the colored in their place."

* * *

James McEvoy, Wayne County Republican finance director, yesterday vigorously denied a statement by Alfred B. Fitt, the governor's legal advisor, who said: "Both (FBI agents and state police) are on the same trail, and the trail leads to the Republican headquarters in the Penobscot building.

McEvoy said, "I know something about this because state police questioned me about it two weeks ago. They were supposed to have learned that the typewriter used to address the 'hate' letters was also used to address a Republican campaign mailing with a return address of party headquarters."

A mailing service, McEvoy said, addressed both sets of letters.

Fitt, in his statement, said, "however, the investigation is continuing and I don't think there have been any conclusions."

Asst. Atty. Gen. Charles Farmer who is working on the case said, "four or five persons to have been questioned in Detroit today have disappeared."

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said the typewriter which cut the stencils for the letters in question has not been definitely identified. He said persons in both parties have been questioned in the case, but he said that Republican state chairman John Feikens had not been questioned, contrary to earlier reports.

Waterford Lions Plan Kids' Yule Party

Between 3,000 and 4,000 Waterford Township Children are expected to attend one of the biggest Christmas parties ever held in the area, according to Seymour Karp and Mel Hale who are in charge of the affair.

* * *

Sponsored by the Waterford Township Lions Club, the party will be held Sunday, at the CAI building, 5640 Williams Lake Road. Thirty local merchants have pledged their support in bringing professional entertainment, all kinds of refreshments and Santa Claus, loaded with gifts for all.

Three separate shows in the afternoon, have been planned by the twenty-nine-member Lions club and their assistants. The first show will begin at 2 p.m. and will include a magician act, a dancing act and community carol singing. The two other shows are scheduled for 3 and 4 p.m.

Weather permitting, there will be old fashioned sleighs at the side doors of Community Activities hall to entertain the small children who will be waiting for the next indoor show.

* * *

Questionnaires are being sent home with school children in kindergarten through the fourth grades this week so that officials may have a general attendance estimate.

"Every single youngster in Waterford Township and those attending Waterford Township schools are invited to this party," Karp said.

SHADOWS OF INTRIGUE? — The afternoon sun casts long shadows behind them as Arkady A. Sobolev, permanent Soviet representative to the U. N., and Jordanian Delegate Abdul Rifa'i huddle outside the General Assembly room. Jordan had previously ended its 20-year treaty of alliance with Great Britain, signed in 1948, with a statement containing a strong hint of closer ties with Russia.

Yule Party Sunday at Sylvan Manor

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The fourth annual Christmas Party of the Sylvan Manor Civic Association will take place on Sunday from 5 to 7 p.m. in the West Bloomfield Township Hall. Chairman of the entertainment committee, Nazar Malkasian, says all children of the subdivision are invited.

Each child is to bring a gift appropriate for his age, Christmas wrapped and with his age marked on the outside. There will be free gifts, door prizes, Christmas goodies and movies. "Santa" will be on hand to distribute the gifts, George Curran of Middlebelt road to play the role of "Santa."

Community singing of Christmas carols will be led by a group of the children from the subdivision, piano accompaniment by Sue Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson of St. Joseph street.

County Births

Metamora

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whiteman are parents of a daughter.

Boosters Hold Calendar Drive

MILFORD — The Community Calendar drive, sponsored by the Band Boosters club, has extended their deadline through this week, according to Mrs. Howard Winship, general chairman.

This is one of the club's biggest projects, and all proceeds are put in the Uniform and Instrument fund.

If parents have not received a form to fill out, they are asked to contact Mrs. George Crawford, MU 4-7055 or Mrs. Howard Winship, EM 3-8861.

Women's Unit Elects Mrs. Thor President

AVON TOWNSHIP — Mrs. Joyce Thor has been elected president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Avondale Metropolitan Club.

Other officers are Mrs. Bernadette Cox, vice president; Mrs. Pauline Schurtz, secretary; Mrs. Ola Carlton, treasurer; Mrs. Bonnie Herr, sergeant-at-arms. Trustees are Mrs. Agnes Lamb, Mrs. Katherine Miller and Mrs. Greba Davis.

A Christmas party for children of members will be held at 7 p.m. Friday at the Avondale Community Hall on Auburn road. A program has been arranged following which Santa Claus will appear.

Firemen and Ladies to Fete Yuletide

UNION LAKE—The Union Lake Fire Department and the Ladies Auxiliary will hold their annual Christmas party at Dublin Community Center tomorrow evening.

Chairmen for the affair are Mrs. Irvin Maynard and Mrs. Robert Lawson. Gifts will be exchanged and a smorgasbord luncheon will be served.

Rubber Resists Friction in Air

Adapt Material for Use in Forming Windshields for Air Force

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Air Research and Development Command has announced development of a transparent rubber material to be used in airplane windshields.

Now being tested, the rubber will be used as an interlayer in windshield glass of new supersonic Air Force planes. The new material is expected to be able to withstand twice as much heat from air friction at high speeds as presently used plastics.

The new material, being developed for ARDC's Wright Air Development Center at Dayton by the Dow Corning Corp. of Midland, Mich., retains adequate strength up to 350 degrees fahrenheit, compared to the 180-degree fahrenheit limit on present plastic interlayers.

At the other end of the temperature scale, the ARDC said yesterday, the transparent rubber retains its shatter resistance properties at the extreme cold temperature of minus 65 degrees fahrenheit where the present plastic interlayer becomes brittle and possesses no shatter resistance.

The new material has a silicone base and is cured at high temperatures, using lamination, by a process that turns it into a tough, transparent rubber material. The Air Force said Dow Corning is now constructing production facilities for its manufacture.

Lamination of the material within windshield glass is being done by the Libby-Owens-Ford Glass Co. of Toledo and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Carol Singing Set by Methodist Youth

AVON TOWNSHIP — The junior high MYF of Elmwood Methodist Church are meeting at 7 p.m. Friday for games, an exchange of gifts and refreshments. They will also trim the Christmas tree for the church.

The group is planning a carol sing for December 22. They will visit the Curtiss Rest Home on Auburn road and homes of "shut ins" in the community.

More Than 700 Will Participate in Yule Cantata

A Christmas production involving more than 700 students from the Williams Lake School, will be presented at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Isaac Crary Junior High School on Cass Lake road.

The first part is titled "Christmas in Other Lands" and carolers will depict the Christmas customs of children in foreign countries. Barbara Secan will be the narrator.

The "Manger Scene" will be the theme of the second part of the cantata, with sixth grader, Larry Healy acting as narrator. This part will feature religious Christmas songs.

Directors of music Mrs. Helen Krauser and Francis Mansfield have been working on the presentation.

Pontiac Township Dems Meet Dec. 13

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP—The democratic Committee here will meet tomorrow night, at 8, in the Auburn Heights Fire Station on Auburn Rd.

All interested Democrats are invited to attend, according to Publicity Chairman George Lyle. He particulary urges all Democrats who plan to run for office in the township elections to come, since the committee wishes to make sure that a full Democratic slate is on the ballot.

Township primary election is Feb. 18, with the regular balloting following on April 1. Petitions, with signatures of 40 qualified voters, must be filed by the end of December.

Lyle also announced that Democrats who cannot make tomorrow's meeting, but wish to participate in thet lical party work, may contact one of the precinct captains.

Harry Stafford and Mrs. Richard Johnson are co-captains in precinct one, while precinct two is headed by Roy Wahl. No leader has been named in precinct three, and precinct four is captained by Don Schell and F. B. Schram.

Rounding out the list of leaders are Mrs. Raymond Walker in precinct five and Bennie Burnett in precinct six. Roy L. Hardy is chairman of the committe.

Israeli Troops Pull Out of Sinai

Bulk of Army Leaves; U.N. Forces to Occupy Key Centers

TEL AVIV (AP)—The Israeli army has withdrawn the bulk of its troops from the Sinai Peninsula. Some units remain as covering forces for the final phases of the pull-out.

The withdrawal is being timed to mesh with the movement eastward from the Suez Canal of Yugoslav troops of the emergency force.

* * *

The Yugoslav advance has been slowed by Israeli-land minefields and roads blown up on the western side of the peninsula.

No date has been announced for the departure of the last Israeli soldier from Sinai. But it is expected to take place within two or three weeks.

By then U. N. troops will have occupied key centers on the eastern side of the desert peninsula. From these they can patrol the Egyptian-Israel border established in the 1949 armistice.

The probable headquarters for the U.N. forces in Sinai will be the road and rail center of El Arish, on the Mediterranean in the northeast corner of the peninsula.

The airfield there, now inoperative and still in Israeli hands, could be used to supply the U.N. troops by air if improvements are made.

An Israeli government spokesman said he had no confirmation of Egyptian press reports that Egyptian troops are following the Yugoslav forces into Sinai.

* * *

"We envisage Sinai as an international area occupied by an international force. There could also be an Egyptian force there but it would not be a threatening force as long as the international troops are present."

Independent estimates place the number of Israeli troops still in Sinai at several thousand. The number withdrawn has not been given.

During the last six weeks, the Israelis have removed all captured guns, ammunition, vehicles and equipment which could be used or repaired.

The highest point in Arizona is Humphreys peak, an extinct volcano in the San Francisco mountains in the northern part of the state. It rises to a height of 12,611 feet.

CBS Backs Pilot Film of Comedy Series for Marie Wilson

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — American Research Bureau's big nationwide TV survey has Ed Sullivan atop the heap, the next 24 in this order:

Groucho, Perry Como, $64,000 Question, Producer's Showcase, General Electric Theater, I Love Lucy, I've Got a Secret, Disneyland, Climax, What's My Line, People Are Funny, Lawrence Welk, A. Hitchcock, Red Skelton, Hit Parade, Phil Silvers, $64,000 Challenge, G. Gobel, Dragnet, Life of Riley, the Millionaire, Person to Person, This Is Your Life and Private Secretary . . .

Glaringly absent: Caesar, Gleason, Wyatt Earp, Jim Bowie, etc.

CBS-TV has what it's certain is the properly stylish format for Eve Arden: She'll play a fashion editor of a New York magazine, with emphasis on chic duds, smart lines and a mood diametrically opposite to the Paddy Chayevsky, or T-shirts in the kitchen, drama concept.

Marie Wilson gets the $ treatment from CBS with $60,000 for a pilot film about a pretty shapely nitwit named Marie Wilson who inherits a dormant knickers factory and comes to the Wilsonian conclusion that the reason men don't wear knickers any more is that nobody's manufactured them lately.

Cy Howard merely asked CBS to give him all rights (Radio-TV-movies) to "Life With Luigi." CBS was polite, but no.

HE'S IN THE MONEY

Godfrey's crooner, Pat Boone, a Columbia University student, only 21 and the daddy of three, is having a $250,000 year.

The "Lineup" stars (Tom Tully, Warner Anderson) are feuding over who gets better lines.

The pilot kinescope of "The Big Record," CBS-TV's newest big variety show headed by Patti Page, includes these waxworkers:

Patti, Nat King Cole, the Four Lads, Crazy Otto, Caterina Valente Pat Boone, Lonnie Satin, Hazel Scott, Jo Loco, the Tyrones and a production finale, "Cinderelvis." It's big, whether it's good or not.

Berle is around the Como rehearsals every week. Taking nice guy lessons? . . .

Roberta Sherwood will play Hal March's mother in the George M. Cohan TV spec . . .

SHE'S THE STAR

Good thing for Dorothy Collins that Gisele MacKenzie is shuffling off to solo stardom; Gisele is clearly the outstanding star of that once impersonal razzle dazzle of rock 'n' roll, torch songs and ballet called "Your Hit Parade" . . . Be happy go solo.

Godfrey's Wednesday night show has no studio audience, in answer to queries as to why no one applauds.

When "Mama" resumes via CBS-TV film Dec. 16, the fictional year will be 1917, to provide a little war-type adventure and romance-in-uniform . . .

The "Ingeborg" role (played for years by brilliant little Patty McCormack) has not been filled yet . . . Toni Campbell, an 8-year-old Nixon, N. J., blonde blue-eyed sprite, gets the "Dagmar" role Robin Morgan grew out of.

Howard Keel sadly had to turn down $35,000 to star in a TV spec because MGM stamped its foot . . .

Custody of Children Asked by Carradine

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Character actor John Carradine, 50, asks custody of his three children, Christopher, 9, Ian, 7, and Robert, 2, in a cross-complaint for divorce against actress Sonia Sorel, 35.

Carradine charged cruelty and said his wife is "not fit" to rear the children, but his complaint specified no details. Miss Sorel sued him, also charging cruelty, last September. They were wed here in March 1945.

Cozy Holiday for Mom

7 Sons Hammer and Saw to Build Yule Surprise

FLINT (AP) — A new house is going to be the Kovacs boys' Christmas present to their mother.

What's more, they're building it themselves.

Right now the hammering and sawing is going at full speed as Mrs. Julia Kovacs' five sons and two sons-in-law hurry to finish the project in time.

* * *

The seven have spent every weekend since October working on the 30 by 36-foot ranch-style house.

The footing was laid Oct. 20—opening of the pheasant hunting season. But the brothers passed up hunting to get the frame and walls up before cold weather set in.

The five sons — Gabriel, Elek, John, Joseph and Emil — and sons-in-law Joseph Bell and Ralph Beaudoin — have completed installation of wiring and plumbing.

After those jobs have been checked by housing inspectors, the men will have the plastering done by professionals. Then the brothers will finish up the inside, doing the painting and installing cupboards.

"It's surprising how much you can get done if you put your mind to it," Gabriel said. "We'll do our best to get mother in there by Christmas."

This will be the second house Mrs. Kovacs' sons have given her.

They helped her buy a home nine years ago. A widow since 1935, Mrs. Kovacs sold that house and bought another which she sold last January because it was too large.

* * *

With money from the sale, the brothers bought materials for the new house. They've done all the work themselves except for the foundation and plastering.

Their mother has been watching the building progress from down the street, where she lives now with one of her four daughters.

She doesn't expect this Christmas present to be gift-wrapped.

"A big bow on the front door will be fine," she says with a grin.

Jap Press Hits PX Shakedown

Calls Employe Search at U.S. Army Exchange Violation of Rights

TOKYO (AP) — A story that 120 Japanese employes of the U.S. Army's Tokyo Central Post Exchange were forced to take off their clothes in a search for stolen goods created a stir yesterday in the Japanese press.

The employes included 80 women and 40 men. The Japanese Justice Ministry said it was investigating reports they were subjected to an "unwarranted" search.

* * *

An Army spokesman said the employes were searched by Japanese security guards Nov. 30. He said the guards found "more than 100 items, including candy bars, watches and clothing . . . Nothing was taken that could not be identified as a PX (post exchange) item. Virtually all still had the price tag on them."

* * *

"No one was required to remove all their clothing," the spokesman said. "No women were searched by men nor were any men present who could see the women's search conducted."

The Army denied abusing anyone's rights. It said the thefts were being investigated and no employes had been dismissed.

* * *

The newspaper Asahi quoted the Justice Ministry as saying the employes' human rights had been violated since there were no search warrants. It said U.S. criminal investigation agents took the Japanese to the basement of the exchange building after closing time, had them strip and show all their possessions, and confiscated all American-made items.

"Some of the girls reported they were frightened because they were forced to strip completely," Asahi said.

U.S. Envoy Protests Czech 'Interference'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has protested to Czechoslovakia about police interference with visitors to the U.S. Embassy at Prague.

Officials said the protest was made by U.S. Ambassador Alexis Johnson.

Johnson reported the policemen have been checking identification papers, taking down names and inquiring of Czech visitors what business they have at the U.S. Embassy.

On occasion, however, they apparently overstepped themselves and questioned Americans and other non-Czech nationals. One of these was the wife of Colombian Consul General Fernando Gaitan. Other Western embassies in Prague are reported having the same experience.

Soldier Admits Burning Church

Set $1 Million Blaze, Touched Off 2 Others in Massachusetts

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—A 6-foot-2, 18-year-old AWOL soldier who "got mad" when he failed to pry open poor boxes has admitted setting three church fires, including the million-dollar blaze that destroyed St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Cambridge Saturday.

Pvt. Robert Whelan of nearby Somerville, former pupil at St. John's Parochial School, was quoted by police as saying he touched off the fire early Saturday by holding a big vigil candle to cassocks, surplices and other clothing in the sacristy.

* * *

Failure to ransack offering boxes in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Boston's West End Sunday and at St. John the Evangelist Episcopal Church on Beacon Hill, Boston, Nov. 19, also led Whelan to set those churches afire, Detective John F. Galligan said.

The fire at St. Joseph's caused damage estimated by the church at $2,500. Damage to St. John's was negligible, police said.

* * *

Whelan was booked last night on suspicion of breaking and entering in the nighttime and of arson, and was held for arraignment in Cambridge District Court.

Another man, a 26-year-old Boston art student, had been charged with arson yesterday in connection with the fire at St. Joseph's. He was committed to Boston Psychopathic Hospital for observation.

A detail of Boston police headed by Sgt. Edward Sherry, acting on a tip from a Boston church sexton, was credited with Whelan's apprehension late yesterday.

* * *

They had been searching for him since Saturday afternoon when James Fahey, sexton of St. Stephen's Catholic Church in Boston's North End, reported him by name as acting suspiciously in the church.

Fahey told police he had questioned a youth who said he was in the church looking for a lost prayer book. Fahey obtained the youth's name and address, telling him he would notify him if the prayer book was found. Instead he notified police.

A check with Ft. Devens disclosed that Whelan had been AWOL for four weeks.

Industry Outbids U.S. for Scientists and Engineers

WASHINGTON (AP)— A House subcommittee head asked today that something be done to reduce "undue competition" between government and industry for engineers and scientists.

Rep. Davis (D-Ga) called it "impossible competition" when a company with a government contract can offer "any amount" to take scientists away from the government.

"The subcommittee feels strongly that steps must be taken to reduce undue competition for engineers and scientists," Davis said.

Davis is chairman of a House civil service subcommittee studying the use of civilian manpower in government.

Spokesmen for the Department of Defense, at a public hearing today, said surveys were being made to see what could be done to reduce competitive bidding for scientists and engineers.

Will Attend Luncheon for India's Nehru

WESTMORLAND, Calif. (AP) — Congressman-elect D. S. Saund (D-Calif.) is going to Washington next Tuesday to attend a luncheon honoring India's Prime Minister Nehru.

Saund, born in India, said he was invited by Vice President Nixon. He said he feels his presence at the luncheon will have a "profound effect on the minds of many millions in India and all over the world."

Farmers Stick With '38 Program

Reject Corn Control Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers' rejection of a new corn control program favored by Secretary of Agriculture Benson appeared today to have opened the door for a broad and politics-studded congressional review of federal farm programs.

* * *

In one of five separate crop referendums yesterday, corn growers in a designated commercial area voted in effect to stick with an old program authorized in 1938 — even with its widely admitted shortcomings.

Some doubtless voted against the new Benson proposal on the basis of promises of Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), a sharp critic of the secretary, that he would sponsor new legislation next year to eliminate weaknesses of the old plan.

Four other referendums went as expected. Farmers voted to continue rigid federal marketing quotas on upland cotton, extra long staple cotton, rice and peanuts. The quotas are designed to help prevent production of surpluses.

Farm legislation this year produced some of the sharpest political skirmishing in Congress, with President Eisenhower vetoing one big Democratic bill.

The rejected plan, called the soil bank base acreage program would have allotted 51 million acres to corn farmers in the commercial area, which presently comprises 894 major producing counties in 24 midwestern, eastern and southern states.

* * *

The old one, referred to as the acreage allotment program, provides for apportionment of only 37,288,000 acres among the same farmers.

* * *

The new plan had been advanced because the old one — using a formula in the 1938 farm law — resulted in sharply reduced allotments and widespread overplanting and noncompliance.

Benson had indicated clearly he favored the new plan, which Congress wrote into the soil bank law this year with his approval.

A Crocodile

More than 5,000 years before the time of Christ, children playing along the Nile River in Egypt saw big crocodiles swimming slowly, looking like floating logs.

Then a fish leaped out of the water. The crocodile started to move fast. It opened its mouth and the fish was caught. The jaws closed and the creature slowed down and once more floated like a log.

Here is a crocodile for you to make. Color the picture and paste it on cardboard. Make the crocodile green, a little lighter on the underside. Leave the eye, the teeth and the toe nails white. Make his tongue a bright red. The sand is yellow and the water blue with white ripples.

Make the fish yellow, with red and green spots.

Cut out the parts along the heavy outlines. Hinge the upper jaw to the head as indicated by the holes (A), using a brass fastener or bent pin. Then the jaws will open and close. Cut a slit at the back of his mouth as indicated by the dotted lines.

Fold the three flaps forward on the dotted line and the crocodile will stand. Pop the fish head first into his open mouth into the slit, then close the jaws, just letting the fish tail stick out. By pulling the fish from the back, the crocodile can swallow it entirely.

Pole Fliers Low on Gas and, Man, They're Happy!

By DON GUY

McMURDO SOUND, Antarctica (AP)—Operation Deep Freeze is running out of gas, and 75 U.S. Air Force crewmen are grinning about it.

Instead of a white Christmas in Antarctica, they will fly to sunny New Zealand to fill the tanks of their mammoth 90-ton C124 Globemasters. There won't be many Christmas trees, but—with summer just starting in that country—they can bask on the beach for a day or two.

* * *

The steady depletion of the big tanks at McMurdo Sound will not seriously hamper the job of building scientific stations for study of this icebound continent during the International Geophysical Year.

A tanker carrying 600,000 gallons is en route here from New Zealand, following the U.S. icebreaker Glacier through the antarctic ice pack.

* * *

Meanwhile, the Air Force has decided to service its five Globemasters at Christchurch, New Zealand. That will give the crews a brief respite from the antarctic's perpetual snow and cold.

The Globemasters have been shuttling to the South Pole, 800 miles from here, to airdrop building material for a U.S. base. Each trip consumes 6,000 gallons of gasoline.

Coast-to-coast bus service was inaugurated in 1928.

India Looks to U.S. as World Leader

NEW YORK (AP)— The policy of the United States concerning Middle East and Hungarian developments has "very much impressed" the people of India, former ambassador John Sherman Cooper said today.

* * *

Cooper, now Republican senator-elect from Kentucky, made the comment as he returned from a trip to India to arrang edetails of Prime Minister Nehru's visit with President Eisenhower starting Dec. 16.

* * *

He added that India "looks forward to greater leadership from the United States" because of what that country feels was "a strong and correct position" in recent foreign affairs.

"I found on all sides, from the press, the people and the leaders of India, a real revulsion against Russia's actions in using force in Hungary," Cooper said.
