Cancel State Trucking Strike

Protest Move Is Called Off by Teamsters

Threatened a 36-Hour Halt Over Proposed State Legislation

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

DETROIT — The statewide truck strike set for the weekend was called off today. The Teamsters Union said it reserved the right to call it at another time.

The Teamsters Union had threatened to halt trucking for 36 hours this week-end in protest to proposed legislation which would ban trucks from state roads from 9 a. m. Saturday until 9 p. m. Sunday.

Frank Fitzsimmons, vice president of Teamsters Local 299, told union stewards last night about plans to stop 4,000 to 5,000 trucks tomorrow, but added:

"If enough city, state industry and other representatives attend the meeting and will promise to maintain a position that the proposed legislation is not good for the general public, our people may call off the blockade."

The bill is scheduled to be introduced in the next State Legislature by Rep. John W. Fletcher, R-Centreville).

Fitzsimmons also said that as far as he is concerned the legislation is "a railroad-sponsored bill."

Fitzsimmons said, "We feel the people and the business leaders should know that this proposed law is not good for them.

"Perhaps they will have more appreciation of the trucking industry. Few people realize that 7 out of every 10 paychecks in Michigan are linked directly or indirectly to the trucking industry."

Rep. John W. Fletcher (R-Centreville), sponsor of the truck legislation, said: "I wonder why they didn't pull this stunt between June 1 and Oct. 1 when the tourists could see how nice weekend driving could be without truck traffic."

Gov. Williams said yesterday that "Michigan highways will not be blockaded by strikers," and the state would see to that.

Fitzsimmons shrugged this off saying, "We're going to open up the highways, not block them."

'To Maintain Peace'

Ike May Ask Okay to Use U.S. Army

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today President Eisenhower is reported considering asking Congress for authority to use United States armed forces "as he deems necessary to maintain peace in the Middle East."

Quoting "a reliable source," the dispatch from Washington said congressional leaders would be asked to give their views on "the possibility of getting congressional sanction for the President to use the armed services . . . in accordance with his best judgment in the event of any aggression in the Middle East."

The Times article by James Reston said the conference would be held at the White House next Tuesday. Secretary of State Dulles was expected to be on hand.

Dulles and the President met at the White House yesterday and discussed the Middle Eastern situation. But, said the newspaper account, "nothing was said about any decision" to ask Congress for authority to use force if necessary in the Middle East.

"Officials here," the dispatch continued, "have become increasingly disturbed about the possibility that trouble in Iraq, Syria, Egypt and Jordan may lead to further Soviet penetration of that part of the world.

"This fear has grown since the weakening of British influence in the Middle East as a result of the British-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt.

"Consequently, administration officials have been discussing what action can be taken by the United States to make it clear that it does not intend to stand aside and watch a chaotic situation develop there to the benefit of the Soviet Union."

Car Crashes Take Lives of 2

First Traffic Deaths of the Holiday Season for Oakland County

Highway accidents last night claimed the lives of two persons, one of them the son of a Chrysler executive, to mark the county's first traffic fatalities of the holiday season.

Roy Dominic Blasiola, 16, of Trowbridge Rd., Bloomfeild Township, died of injuries he received in a two-car collision on Woodward avenue, near his home. He was the son of Roy Blasiola, manager of Chrysler's Nine Mile Press Plant.

The driver of the other automobile, Lawrence B. Jerome, of Rochester, was unable to make a statement this morning at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

One person was killed and two others injured when the car in which they were riding skidded out of control and struck a tree on Milford Rd. near Harvey Lake Rd. in Independence Township.

Erma Bell Chapman, 55, of 14528 Willard Rd., Milford, died at 1:55 this morning in Pontiac General Hospital after the accident at 4:25 p.m. yesterday.

Injured in the accident was Robert John Patterson, 8, of 1505 Duck Lake Rd., Milford, and the driver of the car, Mae Chapman Patterson, 45, of 1505 Duck Lake Rd. Both were treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

Mrs. Patterson told Sheriff's investigators that she lost control when her car skidded on the pavement, and then crashed into a tree.

Ironwood Fire Claims 6 Lives

Mother and Children Trapped in Home at Early Hour Today

IRONWOOD (AP)—A young mother and five children died today in a fire that destroyed their seven-room farm home.

The victims were 31-year-old Mrs. Ina Heileg, wife of an iron ore miner and their four children, Dennis, 10, Sandra, 9, Linda, 7, and Keith, 2; and James Gallo, 13, a nephew.

The blaze broke out shortly after the father, William Heileg, 32, had left for work at the Stephenson mine in Bessemer, 10 miles away.

Neighbors saw flames and smoke pouring from the home at 7:30 a.m. They rushed to the house but were unable to enter. Four hours later the ruins were still too hot to permit firemen to remove the bodies.

Cause of the blaze was not immediately determined. Neighbors said the home was heated by a coal furnace.

Heileg, summoned from work, reached the scene as Ironwood Township firemen were pouring water on the blackened wreckage. Only the chimney and part of the charred walls remained standing.

The stunned father, sitting at a neighbor's home, sobbed over and over, "four little kids; four little kids."

Heileg said his wife got up with him but went back to bed shortly before he left the house at 6:15 a.m. and "everything was all right then."

Snow Shovel Handy? It May Be Needed

Don't let that snow shovel get too far out of reach, Pontiac area residents. The U. S. Weatherman has predicted colder with occasional snow today through tomorrow.

While morning predictions were for a low of 28 tonight, the mercury already had dropped to 27 by 2 p.m.

Preceding 8 a.m. the lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac was 29 degrees.

Veteran Jurist Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Retired Municipal Judge Joseph F. Chambers is dead at the age of 94. He served as municipal judge for a half century, retiring in 1951. Scorning automobiles, Judge Chambers walked five miles daily from his home to his courtroom. "I've never driven an automobile, never wanted to own one, and I didn't have a horse and buggy, either," he said on his 93rd birthday.

Strikes Bel Air; Malibu Flames Still Unchecked

Gov. Knight Proclaims State of Disaster for Los Angeles County

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Barring unfavorable winds, crews fighting a brush fire in the exclusive Bel Air district expected to have it under control today.

The blaze broke out early this morning in Stone Canyon and for a time threatened a row of about six expensive homes.

Fire Capt. R. D. Gail estimated that 40 acres were burned.

The fire started even as a much larger one continued uncontrolled at nearby Malibu.

The massive Malibu brush fire was running loose in two areas today after covering about 25,000 acres, and at one point threatening a 75-room Franciscan monastery and about 20 homes.

The number of homes and other structures already destroyed by the fierce three-day-old coastal blaze was placed at 68 by County Fire Chief Keith Klinger.

He said the figure might have been much higher except for last-ditch stands by fire fighters who warded off flames headed for a colony of expensive, movie stars' homes and a 34-unit motel on the Pacific Coast highway.

In Sacramento, Gov. Goodwin Knight declared a state of disaster in Los Angeles County at the request of the County Board of Supervisors.

This makes legally available all manpower and equipment of the state government to help fight the fires.

Most Persons Glad to Pay to Use Parks

EAST LANSING (AP)—A majority of persons questioned in a survey conducted by Michigan State University said they would be willing to pay for using their state parks.

MSU researchers said 4,700 persons were queried. Only one of 12 opposed charging fees to park users.

The survey was conducted by Dr. Thomas L. Dahle, of the MSU Department of Communications Skills, in cooperation with the state conservation department.

The survey also found that Michigan people are the best customers of their own state parks—more than 84 per cent of the park users coming from Michigan.

Now Has 11-Man Board

General Hospital Gets Four New Trustees

Four new members to the Board of Trustees of Pontiac General Hospital were appointed by the City Commission last night. They are: Cecil J. Cosgrove, the Rev. Theodore R. Allebach, James Clarkson, and Edward P. Barrett.

The appointments will bring the board's membership to 11. Since its inception in 1952, seven members constituted the board.

Cosgrove is a statistician in the Coach Technical Service at General Motors Truck and Coach. After coming to Pontiac in 1929, Cosgrove was graduated from St. Frederick High School here. He is vice president of St. Vincent de Paul Holy Name Society. He lives at 739 E. Pike St.

The Rev. Mr. Allebach is pastor of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church. Both his and Cosgrove's terms will expire June 30, 1957.

Clarkson lives at 189 Navajo Dr. and is executive vice president of Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Assn. He also is president of the Detroit Chapter of the Society of Savings and Loan Controllers.

Barrett is associated with the law firm of Patterson & Patterson and Barrett. This week he was elected to the Board of Directors of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce. He lives at 190 Ottawa Dr.

Clarkson's term will expire on June 30, 1959. Barrett's will expire June 30, 1960.

The City Commission last week adopted an ordinance permitting the increase in board membership after a management survey of the city hospital recommended from 11 to 15 persons on the board.

Workers Begin Clearing Canal

Egyptians and Swedes Tackle Southern End of Clogged Waterway

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—Egyptian and Swedish salvage workers today begin clearing the southern end of the clogged Suez Canal.

Sunken ships, damaged bridges and other debris have blocked the 103-mile canal for almost two months. British and French salvage men cleared a channel from Port Said to El Cap, a third of the way down the canal, but since the British-French withdrawal the only work toward reopening the waterway has been Egyptian clearance of some mines and continued operations by three British and French ships in Port Said harbor.

Clearing operations scheduled to begin yesterday were reportedly delayed after Egyptian authorities announced they had to clear mines first.

No Immediate Plan to Hike Bread Prices

The one-cent increase in the cost of bread going into effect in Detroit will mean no immediate rise in Pontiac area prices but will likely make a difference eventually, a Pontiac Press survey of local bakers disclosed this morning.

One major Detroit bakery boosted its prices Thursday and others are expected to follow this weekend. The increase includes rolls and buns.

The majority of local bread firms contacted today said they had heard nothing definite concerning any price change here. A spokesman for one bakery disclosed the cost of bread would likely go up since "most of the bread sold here is made in Detroit."

Flint Businessmen Band Together

Central Business Area Vital to Every City

(Editor's Note: The following article is reprinted from the Editorial Page of the Saginaw News.)

Flint is getting ready to do it again! Faced with all the problems that are making the "Plight of the Cities" the top story in modern American history, Flint's downtown businessmen are banding together to safeguard the central business district as the hub of the community's economic wheel.

They have started a drive to raise $100,000 to finance surveys intended to show how business can be brought back downtown from outlying shopping centers. Their eyes were opened by a study completed recently by a University of Michigan social service research team. This study showed that:

In 1948 Flint's central business district accounted for 42.2 per cent of all retail sales in Genesee County. Six years later the share had slipped to 33.4 per cent. Since 1945 widespread business development — particularly shopping centers — in the outer areas has encroached still further on business that once went downtown.

From 1948-1954 retail establishments outside the central business district but still inside Flint raised their percentage of total sales from 37.1 per cent to 45.3 per cent.

Dr. Basil G. Zimmer, resident director of the U. of M. study project, said the six years saw a great deal of new business and money pour into Flint, "but downtown Flint failed to get the share to which it had been accustomed." Downtown merchants made money, but according to past performance should have made more.

The findings and this action of the downtown Flint businessmen are significant for Saginaw and many other cities whose central areas are threatened with decay because of a nationwide flight to the suburbs—not only of families but of business establishments which have been serving or seek to serve these families.

Saginaw's Chamber of Commerce is now taking steps to launch a study of economic factors in Greater Saginaw development which pose for this area the same problems that are plaguing Flint.

CITY CENTER VITAL

Saginaw's central city is the drive shaft to which the whole economy of the Greater Saginaw area is geared. The shopping, employment, and governmental services which the central city provides and must continue to provide are vital to every resident of the Greater Saginaw area. But they can be maintained only with AREA INTEGRATION and ACCESSIBILITY.

If accessibility, including transportation and parking facilities that Greater Saginaw needs, are not provided, the central city will in the foreseeable future be surrounded by a ring of communities with their own shopping and banking centers, and these will suck away the central city's lifeblood and leave it to decay.

It is vital to all the people of Greater Saginaw that the economic health of the central city be maintained in top condition. The surplus tax revenue the central district produces is a "profit" that can be used by the City Government to finance services to outlying neighborhoods which do not pay taxes equal to the services they receive. This has particular significance to those suburban areas which have been considering annexation to the city. In most instances, they would receive more in service from the city than they would pay in tax revenue.

SEVERAL STEPS INDICATED

To keep Greater Saginaw's economic core strong and flourishing, several bold and imaginative steps must be taken, including:

Bus line operations and flow of all vehicular traffic must be brought up to the highest peak. Wide access streets leading from all sectors of Greater Saginaw to the central business area need to be cut through cluttered districts and over or under every

Seek to Abolish Board Authority

Police Proposal Would Amend City Charter; Willman Backs City

The Pontiac Police Officers Assn. will circulate petitions to replace the present Trial Board Authority, President Herbert C. Cooley said today, after learning of a City Commission decision last night.

Cooley said City Manager Walter K. Willman informed him today the commission, meeting in its monthly private session, had unanimously turned down an association request that the commission place proposals on the April city ballot making a change to civil service.

The commission decision is expected to be announced officially at a public meeting next Thursday.

Cooley quoted Willman as saying the Commission "at this time" prefers to back the seven trial board members, which the Commission itself appointed, in the quarrel with the officers Assn.

Willman urged, Cooley said, that the association meet with the trial board on Jan. 24, as the board has proposed.

Cooley said the police are agreeable to the meeting, but added the petitions for a referendum vote would be distributed anyway, possibly as early as Monday.

"We want to see if we can come to some agreement with the trial board, of course, but the meeting date they suggest is too near the election deadline to give us much time to get petitions signed if we don't come to any agreement," Cooley said.

The officers have criticized the board for lack of rules of procedure and discipline and undue influence by Police Chief Herbert W. Straley. The board has denied the charges.

The proposals, if they are placed on the April ballot, would amend the trial board section of the city charter and unite police and firemen under a code based on state civil service laws.

Four New Trustees Appointed to Hospital Board

CECIL J. COSGROVE — REV. THEODORE R. ALLEBACH — JAMES CLARKSON — EDWARD P. BARRETT

Father, Jailed for Debt, Will Pay $600; Can Now Enjoy His Christmas Gifts

A Southfield Township father of five, jailed since Dec. 4 because he refused to pay a legal judgment as a matter of principle, consented to a $600 settlement today and went home to "sit in my easy chair and open my Christmas presents."

Harold Murphy, 51, a tool and die maker at Chrysler Corp., was jailed on a seldom-used legal mechanism after he had refused for three years to pay the judgment of $1,250.

A Circuit Court jury in 1952 found Murphy guilty of assaulting Tony Grylicki, a Ferndale shoe store owner, in a dispute over a child's pair of shoes, and awarded Grylicki the judgment.

In November, Grylicki sold the judgment to Frank McCabe, owner of the Finance System of Pontiac, who had Murphy jailed in an effort to collect the money.

Including interest and Murphy's board at the jail, the bill would now total about $1,500. McCabe would not disclose what he paid Grylicki for the judgment.

Announcement of the settlement came at a hearing this morning before Judge H. Russel Holland, who was going to rule on whether Murphy had legally been jailed.

Philip E. Rowston, one of Murphy's attorneys, had called attention Wednesday to the fact that no formal recording of the 1952 judgment had ever been made.

Rowston and William John Beer, his partner, pointed out today that even if Judge Holland had ruled in their favor, quashing the writ and releasing Murphy, McCabe could correct the legal formalities and obtain another writ, jailing him again.

Murphy, a 260-pound Irishman who says he has enjoyed his stay at what he calls Sheriff Frank Irons' "hotel," said today he is satisfied with the outcome of the case.

He has said he refused to pay the judgment in 1952 because he was innocent of the assault. He claimed at the time Grylicki struck him first in the dispute.

Under the terms of the settlement, the $600 payment — to be made today before the suit is officially closed—is a final payment for all claims. Murphy is prohibited from bringing suit for false arrest.

JOHN HAY (JOCK) WHITNEY
United States Ambassador to Great Britain

'Jock' Whitney Appointed Ambassador to Britain

WASHINGTON (AP) —Millionaire John Hay (Jock) Whitney has arranged a monthlong series of briefings before taking on his assignment as new American ambassador to Great Britain.

The 52-year-old sportsman-financier, who was named yesterday by President Eisenhower for the London post, will put aside his varied New York civic and business activities early next month to begin his training.

Friends said Whitney has already made it clear he intends to be a "working ambassador," dealing personally with major diplomatic chores instead of passing them to a big staff of career employes.

Whitney has asked for a round of unusually long and detailed State Department briefing sessions on the problems that have jarred British-American relations, especially since the Middle East crisis.

About mid-February he will leave for London, accompanied by his attractive wife, the former Betsey Cushing Roosevelt, ready to stay on as long as the White House wants him.

The selection of Whitney to replace Ambassador Winthrop W. Aldrich, which had been widely forecast, was formally announced by the White House late yesterday.

An exchange of letters showed that Eisenhower accepted with "the utmost reluctance" the resignation of the 71-year-old Aldrich, U. S. envoy at London for the last four years. Aldrich said that for personal reasons he is anxious to return to the United States. He is a former chairman of the Chase National Bank.

The Whitney appointment is subject to confirmation by the Senate.

Whitney's main initial task will be to help direct U. S. moves to bolster Britain's present shaky financial footing while at the same time seeking to rebuild the traditionally intimate British-American partnership that existed before the Suez blowup.

One of his first major acts may be to help lay the groundwork for an expected Big Three conference bringing together Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Mollet.

Although Whitney has won many of his headlines as a polo player, movie producer, race horse owner and aviation enthusiast, he also has a reputation as a "serious millionaire."

For nearly 20 years he has been financing projects such as the J. H. Whitney & Co., which helps develop growth industries, promoting philanthropies to assist in education and better citizenship and backing studies of successful labor-management relations.

Tot, 2, Chokes to Death on Christmas Balloon

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A two-year-old boy choked to death yesterday on a fragment of a broken toy balloon he received for Christmas.

The victim was Wesley Werner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Werner.

The little boy was playing with his two sisters in the family's trailer home when his mother noticed that he was choking. She slapped him on the back but could not help, then rushed to a telephone to call a rescue squad.

Wesley was dead on arrival at a hospital. Physicians found a one-inch piece of rubber from the balloon in his throat.

The mother was hospitalized for shock.

Find Plane Wreck in Allegan Area

ALLEGAN (AP)—Sheriff's officers reported today they had located the wreckage of a four place plane which had vanished Wednesday night while on a flight from Benton Harbor to Grand Rapids. First reports said two bodies had been found in the wreckage.

The wreckage was spotted in a wooded area about five miles southwest of here.

Civil air patrol planes and a state police plane had joined the search today.

The plane, piloted by John Boone, 38, a salesman for a Grand Rapids manufacturer, carried one passenger, Terry Scott, 36, of Oak Park.

Both men had been in Benton Harbor on a business deal. They were expected at Grand Rapids Wednesday night, after taking off from Benton Harbor at 3:55 p.m. Wednesday.

Explosion Shakes Chemical Factory

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—An explosion early today rocked the American Cyanamid Co. chemical plant at nearby Edinburg shortly before a change of shifts.

First reports said damage was extensive.

At least one man was hurt and four others were badly shaken up. They were taken to New Castle hospitals for checkups.

The injured man was identified as Warren Calderwood.

Some residents in Beaver Falls, some 20 miles south of Edinburg, said they heard a "big thud" about 6:55 a. m. A company spokesman confirmed the blast let go at that time.

The sprawling plant is on Route 551 between the rural communities of Edinburg and Mount Jackson, with only a few hundred population. Edinburg is about 50 miles northwest of Pittsburgh.

Small Change Stolen From Webster School

Small change was stolen from the Webster School, 640 W. Huron St., which Pontiac police say was entered by thieves sometime this week.

The money was discovered missing yesterday from vending machines. Entry was gained through an unlocked window, police believe.

The school has been closed for Christmas vacation.

The first of the states to levy a registration fee upon automobiles was New York which imposed the tax in 1901.

Potter's New Project: Small Engineering

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said today he hopes small engineering firms in Michigan will get a larger share of defense contracts as a result of a new unit being set up by the Air Force.

Eight specialized procurement offices are to be established by the Air Research and Development Command in Baltimore about Jan. 15 to channel more contracts to small firms.

Potter said that although small business counselors have operated with the Army, Navy and Air Force for some time, this will be the first special effort to direct research and development work to small concerns.

Four information centers are to be set up throughout the country to survey firms capable of handling such work.

Procurement items will be screened to determine whether small business may participate in their production. Bid invitations then will be sent to the prospective contractors.

railroad crossing that can't be eliminated. A bond issue should be floated to provide funds. The objective must be to make it easy for every Greater Saginaw resident to drive easily and safely to the downtown section.

Downtown merchants have the further individual obligation to correct the blighted appearance of too many downtown areas. Shoppers can be attracted from far and wide by a bright and sparkling business district. Brightness is being provided by the new downtown lighting system, which needs to be extended throughout the area, but the sparkle that is equally vital will be lacking until every store has been modernized both inside and out. This takes money but only through wise expenditure of money can the downtown area hope to continue to make money.

It is to guarantee such contribution from and benefit for every Greater Saginaw family that integration of the whole area under a single local government roof is vital.

EDUCATION NEEDED

A concerted educational campaign is needed to inform every suburban and central city resident of the economic facts. If this is provided, we feel certain that the people of Bridgeport, Saginaw Township, Carrollton, Zilwaukee and the other surburban areas will recognize that the difficulties they are experiencing can be remedied more quickly through consolidation, and certainly at no greater ultimate cost to themselves.

* * *

Not only Flint, but Kalamazoo, Ann Arbor, Jackson and many other metropolitan areas are taking steps to bring the total resources of their sprawling communities to bear upon a solution of the "Plight of the Cities."

It is time for Saginaw to move forward, too.

Snow Flurries Promised Here for New Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cold weather in the East as a whole and in the Northeast were predicted today for the New Year's weekend.

On New Year's Day itself, the Weather Bureau said in a special holiday bulletin, the outlook is for prevailingly fair weather in most of the country.

The exceptions are parts of the Southwest where rain is expected, and the Great Lakes and Northern Appalachian regions where snow flurries are in prospect.

The bulletin:

"Continued fair dry weather is expected over most of the western half of the nation during the long New Year's Day weekend. Through the Great Plains and California mild temperatures will prevail with persistent valley fog and accompanying cool weather in the Northwest.

"Over most of the Eastern half of the nation repeated surges of cold air from Canada will maintain colder than normal temperatures with intermittent snows over the Northeast quarter of the nation.

* * *

"Latest outlook for New Year's Day indicates prevailingly fair weather over most of the nation except for rain in parts of the Southeast and snow flurries over the Great aLkes and Northern Appalachians."

The Day in Birmingham

Lawmakers Ask Reports of Advisory Committee

BIRMINGHAM — Two items on last night's agenda were briefly discussed by city commissioners and then turned over to the mayor's advisory committee for a report.

The recommendation that the city's boiler insurance program be broadened for more complete coverage will be reported on at the Jan. 3 meeting. Lawrence MacKay Jr., agent-of-record, will be present then to provide any additional information commissioners might want. Second item to go before the mayor's advisory committee is the question of insurance on facsimile signature coverage of the check-writing machines.

No action was taken on the zoning ordinance changes by commissioners last night. It was decided that since the entire draft had not been prepared the question of off-street parking facilities would be held until the draft is ready.

Another item on which no action was taken is the proposal of the Corps Engineers U. S. Army the River Rouge basin flood control problem.

City manager Harold A. Schone said, "I don't see how we can give assurance that we can follow this agreement since we don't know what the entire project is. We must be provided with more information, before we can act."

A public hearing has been scheduled for Jan. 28 on the proposed vacation of Island View drive. Interested property owners will be notified.

On the recommendation of Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley and assistant City Manager Robert S. Kinney, commissioners have denied the suggestion of community taxi stands.

Moxley said that past experience has shown that when even two companies share one stand there is a tendency for bickering. He said, "These complaints have resulted in calls to the police and we are brought in, to act as disciplinarians. Since the community stands would involve three companies sharing four stands, I seriously question their use."

City Commissioner Charles Renfrew commented last night, "I am surprised this hasn't been done long ago" when the question of proper plaques in city parks was brought up. Commissioners approved using capital improvement funds to mark the Booth Memorial Playground dedicated to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth and St. James Park, given to the city by St. James Episcopal Church. Appropriate bronze plaques will be mounted on boulders in each park.

Popular question right now is "Who will win the gift Birmingham merchants have set aside for the first 1957 baby?" The exact time of the baby's birth must be verified by the family doctor and filed with the local paper by noon of Jan. 8. Of the 26 gifts offered sixteen are for baby alone. Daddy and mother rate three each and four are family gifts.

was in the Malibu Township area, where a second fire was started by flying sparks from the original blaze last night. The first fire was burning on a semicircular front starting about 10 miles west of Santa Monica and extending north and west. The other blaze was down the coast about 2½ miles.

Firemen reported that most of the occupants of the monastery, located in Malibu Canyon, were evacuated, along with other residents of the area.

The fire threatening the monastery was known to have destroyed nine homes. There was a report that six more structures were destroyed in Carbon Canyon, where the blaze jumped from Las Flores Canyon.

From Carbon Canyon, the flames dashed toward the sea. They were prevented from reaching about 50 homes on a sandspit when 100 firemen made a dramatic stand. Fire officials said their desperate efforts probably kept sparks from igniting the residences.

Homes on the sandspit colony include those of bandleader Horace Heidt, actor Louis Hayward, actress Jane Russell and her husband Bob Waterfield, actress June Havoc and disc jockey Peter Potter.

The fire has taken only one life so far. One newsman described this as "amazing, considering all the people who were apparently trapped at one time or another."

News Flashes

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (INS) — A ground search party is scheduled to make a new effort today to reach the wreckage of an air force KB29 tanker plane which apparently carried its crew of eight men to their deaths in the Alaskan wilds.

The ground party reached a point about eight miles from the wreckage some 50 miles north of Anchorage yesterday but was forced to halt by a heavy snow storm.

MILAN (INS) — Ava Gardner is engaged to Italian comedian Walter Chiari. It was reported yesterday that she got a $3,000 engagement ring from him on Christmas Eve. Official announcement of the engagement will await her divorce from Frank Sinatra, her third husband.

MONTE CARLO (INS)—Princess Grace of Monaco may give birth sooner than had previously been expected.

It was reliably reported today, the doctors now think the birth date probably will be closer to Jan. 25 rather than February as earlier anticipated.

Meanwhile, it also was reliably learned, Prince Rainier has bought a villa on the Italian border to house American relatives and friends. The villa, "The Major's Head," is located in the seaside town of Menton Nar.

MIAMI (INS) — A shapely New Rochelle, N.Y. model who was arrested for "annoying" multi-millionaire John Jacob Astor swore out a warrant for Astor's arrest today, charging he assaulted her Dec. 6. Lucille Anne Spiglich Ross, 25, charged the assault took place in Astor's swank Miami Beach home.

Hunt New York 'Mad Bomber'

Police Find Explosive Device Hidden in Seat at Paramount Theater

NEW YORK (AP)—A device described by police as "definitely the work of the 'mad bomber'" was discovered early today in the Paramount Theater in Times Square.

It was found by the city's special bomb squad. It was encased in a red sock and hidden in an orchestra section seat.

A telephoned warning last night sent a score of policemen to the theater but a preliminary search revealed no bomb. After the theater's 2,500 patrons had left after the last show, police made a more thorough search.

A series of telephoned bomb threats which police attribute to crackpots and cranks has sent the bomb squad to several private and public locations since a pipe bomb was found last Monday in the New York Public Library. It did not explode.

Yesterday a bomb-like device made from a pipe was found in Grand Central Station. Police did not attribute it to the "mad bomber" because of a difference in design.

Explosive or dud, the pipe found in the railway terminal reposed last night in a steel envelope, housed in a bomb squad truck on a Manhattan lot. It will be taken today, to Ft. Tilden, Queens, for examination.

Rewards totaling $26,000 were posted yesterday for arrest of the "mad bomber," who has plagued this city's police with more than 30 homemade bombs in the last 16 years.

The Board of Estimate authorized a $25,000 public reward for his capture. The Patrolmen's Benevolent Assn. added $1,000 for information leading to arrest of the bomber.

'MAD BOMBER' STRIKES AGAIN — A bomb device found in Grand Central Railroad Terminal in New York Thursday is placed in a special police bomb truck after bomb was discovered in a lower level baggage room. The device is inside wire basket suspended on rod between two bomb squad workers in foreground. The 'mad bomber' has been harassing the city for the past 16 years.

Calves, Barns Burn in $25,000 Blaze

A $25,000 farm fire in Lapeer yesterday destroyed six calves, two barns, 25 tons of hay, and equipment at the farm of Walter Davis, 3081 Greenwood Rd.

The fire was believed to have been caused by defective wiring. Mrs. Davis discovered the fire and notified the Lapeer Fire Dept.

After discovering the fire, the Davises led 20 head of cattle out of the barns but could not save the calves.

For Aiding Hospital Fund

Actor Sal Mineo Made Pontiac Honorary Mayor

Sal Mineo, young Hollywood actor, was made honorary mayor of the city of Pontiac last night for his efforts to raise money to be used for the Pontiac General Hospital building fund.

The City Commission passed a resolution conferring the honor on the 17-year-old Mineo who is in Pontiac for the showing of his new movie "Rock Pretty Baby."

He is appearing because Nancy Donaldson, 15, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. William W. Donaldson, won first prize in a "Win A Date With Sal Mineo" contest sponsored by a national movie magazine.

Mineo will escort Nancy to the Pontiac premiere of the movie Sunday night.

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

He will also make personal appearances at Tel-Huron tomorrow morning and at Arthur's in the afternoon.

A dance sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Boys' Club will be held tomorrow night at the club with proceeds going toward furnishing and equipping the new wing at the city hospital.

Mayor Donaldson said today that checks totaling $450 had been received to date for the fund.

Check Pot-O-Gold Solutions Here

The following are correct answers and explanations for the Pot-O-Gold puzzle No. 29 which appeared in last week's Pontiac Press.

1. WARN is better. It would be a gamekeeper's duty to put up signs to WARN off poachers early in the season. Without such signs, there could be some excuse for trespassers and poachers. He must Ward them off at any time, early or late in the season.

2. PIT, without doubt. A Pot is a normal cooking utensil, used for roasting, stewing, steaming, etc. A PIT (barbecue or baking) is used in primitive countries, and of course for clambakes, beach picnics, etc.—"for some different types of cooking."

3. BIRTH is the choice. Mirth is jollity. Girth, indicating an overgenerous waistline, is perennially tied to the legend that fat people are supposed to be jolly merely because they are fat. But "occasional connection" points to BIRTH, for a new baby provides a special occasion for jollity.

4. CLUB, of course. Considered merely for size, a Bulb or Bull could be judged by fairly exact measurements. Bulk is size, so that is out. A CLUB as an association of people is the most subjective of the possibilities, and thus suits the clue best. A CLUB can be of a size that is very hard to judge properly, in relation to innumerable other CLUBS of a similar type. There is no set standard for a CLUB'S size.

5. BOAT should be the one. Bait would be important on any fishing expedition. But since many fishing expeditions do not use BOATS (as when people fish from the shore and in streams), BOAT is the choice. It could be important, to a certain kind of fishing.

6. TRIBE is right. Early explorers certainly found many a savage TRIBE in Africa. They could not have found a Tiger there, for this animal is indigenous to Asia.

7. NIP is more sensible. Zip mean enthusiasm, and you could not ascribe enthusiasm to the wind, it being impersonal. But NIP or sharpness in the wind will make your cheeks or skin glow.

8. FALLS is all right. It would be a contradiction to use the word Palls (loses its savor) together with "keen interest," for the same movie. Because of this, you must choose FALLS. It is quite possible for a movie to have keen interest, with passages of lesser interest now and then. When the excitement abates, some people may well get up and go.

9. WEAR is safer. No matter if you are brave or not, WEAR must take its toll. We are all subject to age, tiredness and tension. There are many people who are brave and not subject to Fear, either through supreme confidence or lack of imagination.

10. Because RUSH is quick and does not imply any resistance, it is the better choice. Push implies resistance by an opposing mass, either stationary or pushing back. This would not hamper a slow person the way a RUSH would.

11. CAPER is right. A fast Pacer is a person capable of setting a good speed either in a race or in life, and maintaining this speed. Such a pacer would be too much for all the older folks. In a single CAPER (dance, or other lively action) most of the older folks would fall behind, but some few might well be equal to the strain.

12. TRUDGE is perferred. If you TRUDGE or walk, you will save real money—i.e carfare. To Budget is merely to make an attempt to organize your spending so that you do not spend more than you can afford, or more thany our income. In any case, many a budget fails to result in savings.

13. HAND is more inclusive. Once the knight has won the fair lady's HAND, he has won her Land too, for all practical purposes.

14. HEW is better. It would be safe to assume that all pioneer girls necessarily learned how to sew. But undoubtedly, pioneer girls frequently learned to HEW, for every home needed a constant supply of firewood.

15. WORK is the word. Cork is naturally light, and is always light, so the words "as long as it's light," don't apply to cork. They do apply to WORK. Light WORK can be done by anybody.

16. RINGER must be chosen. Finger would apply only when a bell button is pushed, and bells can be pulled by ropes. Not all SINGERS can produce bell tones. So it must be RINGER, the undeniable producer of real bell tones.

Advisory Group Will Investigate Foreign Aid Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Citizens Advisory Committee started a sweep around the world yesterday to survey for President Eisenhower how the U. S. Foreign Aid Program is working.

Heading the group, which flies from Washington's National Airport (about noon EST), is Benjamin Fairless, retired chairman of the board of U.S. Steel Corp.

Traveling with him are Jesse W. Tapp, vice chairman of the board of Bank of America; Colgate W. Darden Jr., president of the University of Virginia; and John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers (UMW) president.

Eisenhower appointed the committee in September. He commissioned it to re-examine the foreign aid program as it operates and to recommend possible changes. The report is due March 1.

Fairless and his committee will make 20 stops, from Madrid to Tokyo, returning to Washington Feb. 17.

Rail Office to Open at Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The New York Central railroad has announced it will open a new ticket office Jan. 1 with accommodation for passengers.

Lloyd A. Purcell of Jackson, division trainmaster, said the first floor of the railroad's freight house, a block south of Grand Rapids' Union depot, is being remodeled into a ticket office and passenger waiting rom.

He said the move was dictated by termination of the New York Central's lease on ticket office space in the Pennsylvania railroad-operated depot, which will be dismantled to make way for a U.S. 31 expressway.

The New York Central operates a diesel car between Grand Rapids and Jackson, where it connects with other trains of the line.

You Pronounce It: It's Called Australopithegines

Claims Finding 'Missing Link' to Man

NEW YORK (INS)—An anthropologist reports that the "missing link" between apes and man has been bridged by a man-like, weapon-flourishing creature who loped across the South African veldt one million years ago.

The creature, called Australopithecines, had a body like a man, walked on his heels, used prehistoric bones as weapons and had a brain capacity approacing that of some modern humans.

At the same time, another anthropoligist suggested scientists should search for a new "missing link"—a near-human being who may have lived in the U. S. some 50,000 years ago.

If this link is found, the evolutionary pattern in the U. S. would be pushed back thousands of years and linked up with old world developmets.

The reports were made in connection with the centennial celebration of the discovery of Neanderthal man held at the American Association for Advancement of Sciences Meeting. Neanderthal man is an extinct relative of modern man.

MISSING LINK

Dr. Raymond A. Dart, a South African anthropologist, gave this account of the "missing link".

The creature bridged the gap between apes and man in brain size; the brains of apes range in volume from 87 to 685 cubic centimeters. The brains of australopithecines vary from 400 to 1,000 cc. And living men have a brain size ranging from 790 to 2,350.

More important, Dr. Dart says, australopithecines were not semi-erect creatures who built nests of broken branches in the tops of trees like chimpanzees. Along with bigger brains, they used tools and had hip bones, a pelvis, thighs, legs and feet—they were in "no sense ape-like," Dr. Dart said.

They did not move along supporting their weight on their knuckles like chimps or gorillas; they marched on their heels and their arms swung free. Customarily they carried weapons in their hands "just as all human beings have carried since they became upright."

Their weapons were not fashioned from stones—they were crude, unshapen clubs. They flourished the jawbones of pre-historic buffalos, antelopes, zebras and giraffes.

Dr. T. Dale Stewart of the U. S. National Museum, Washington, D. C., suggested the hunt for an American Neanderthal. If such a creature's remains were verified, Dr. Stewart predicted the event would rival the discovery of the first Neanderthal remains.

Jerry Lester to M. C. Song Quiz Panel Show

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Jerry Lester, Dagmar's old buddy-buddy on "B'way Open House," sweated out a long vacation from TV down in Miami but returns to the networks as m. c. of an ABC song quiz panel show from Chicago (with Mel Torme) called "Tune Pan Alley."

Jimmy Durante tells Eddie Jackson at the Copa: "Go down underneath the cellar underneath this cellar and see if there's a cellar underneath that cellar. The Boss wants tuh open up a branch for New Year's Eve."

Two Hungarians gazed upon corpses and rubble in Budapest and one said, "We were lucky it was our friends who attacked us. Imagine what would have happened if it had been our enemies!"

We just learned that when kids hold 'em, they call 'em "Coketail" and "Poptail" parties . . . Morey Amsterdam's marketing Rock Cornish hens in the midwest from "The Yuk-apuk Farms," Chicago . . . I asked Red Buttons, who leaves Jan. 2 for Japan to play an Irishman in "Sayonara," whether he could act Irish. "Are you kidding!" exclaimed the former Aaron Chwatt. "My nickname on the lower East Side till I was 16 was 'Irish' because of my freckles, red hair and a green sweater. My mother used to get mad because they called me 'Irish' instead of 'Aaron.'"

Seek to Amend Diagnosis Bill

Statute Would Permit Period of Observation for Mental Patients

LANSING (AP) — The 1957 legislature will be asked to amend a law passed during the last regular session setting up diagnostic centers for mental patients.

The law becomes effective Jan. 1.

Since there was no money provided for the construction of separate diagnostic centers, state hospitals were designated as such under the bill.

Under the new law, patients must be referred to hospitals for diagnosis before they can be legally committed. After an observation period, the hospital reports back to the court on the patient's mental condition and the court acts on recommendations contained in the report.

The law primarily was intended to prevent the commitment to mental hospitals of old people who might be ill but not necessarily mental patients.

Experts in the state mental health department say, however, that one flaw in the new law is that it prevents any remedial treatment during the 60-day observation period.

"This is a serious problem," said Charles F. Wagg, department director, "especially in the case of those patients about whom there is no question of a mental ailment."

Sponsors have indicated they will seek to amend the law to permit early remedial treatment during the 60-day diagnostic period for such cases.

Europe Offers Homes for 58,000 Hungarians

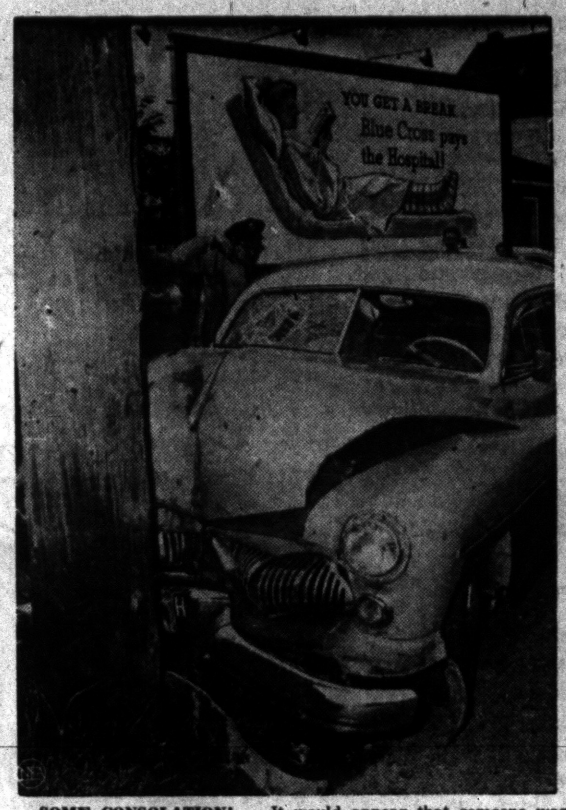

VIENNA (INS) — The Intergovernmental Committee on European Migration reports that 58,021 of the more than 150,000 refugees from Soviet terror in Hungary have been resettled in 13 European countries.

The U.S. has so far promised asylum to another 21,500 of the escapees.

ICEM said Britain and France have accepted 21,157 Hungarian refugees while 11 other European countries have taken in a total of 36,864.

Dog Not So Faithful

BALTIMORE (AP) — A full-sized, faithful pet dog of 15 years standing failed to bark an alarm when his master's house caught on fire. Instead, the job was done by a miniature schnauzer recently brought into the residence.

SOME CONSOLATION! — It would appear that someone was out to test the billboard's claims. As far as the battered occupants are concerned, it was pure coincidence that their car rammed the pole right near the sign. Accident happened in Sharon, Pa.

We Did It Once: Let's Do It Again

Over the Christmas holiday period, while the nation was perpetrating the greatest highway slaughter in its history, Oakland County escaped without a fatality. And it wasn't all pure luck.

An intensive and well managed safety campaign here before the period was supplemented with careful patrolling and other watchfulness during the days of heavy traffic.

Local officials state that the general public gave it their almost universal cooperation. They seemed imbued with the real Christmas spirit.

Whether the nation as a whole learns anything or not from 700 odd unnecessary graves remains to be seen. But it is safe to assume that all areas did not have such an intensive preliminary safety campaign as we had around Pontiac, or in most cases they paid little attention to it.

The National Safety Council is making dire predictions for the coming long weekend. Here in the Pontiac vicinity we proved they were wrong in their Christmas forecast, although the rest of our nation seemed determined to prove that they were more than right.

It seems logical to assume that since we have done this once in Oakland County, we can do it again—and again. Let all of us make an advance New Year's resolution that we will.

Better Regulation Is Badly Needed

While the 1956 useless slaughter of Christmas trees evidently was not as notorious as in some former years, there still were thousands left over in the Pontiac area.

After making nobody happy, and some dealers sad, today they are burning in public dumps.

While most of them came from the areas in Northern Michigan where a thinning-out program removes only the trees that were being crowded for growth, many others should still be living for future years, and gracing our landscape.

Perhaps the fault lies with the dealers who allow themselves to be overstocked, and thus suffer a financial loss, rather than the gain they expected.

In some local lots on the day before Christmas dealers were selling for 25 cents trees for which they had expected to get $2.50. On at least two lots trees were actually being given away on Christmas eve.

In spite of these financial sacrifices, the number of left over trees was too large for such a perishable thing. For there's nothing in the world more useless than an unused Christmas tree on Dec. 26.

On almost any other commodity, the dealer himself is the only loser in overstocking. But on Christmas trees everybody loses.

Hatred for Communists Puts Russia in Jeopardy

Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, says he believes the entire Russian structure is in jeopardy because of the hatred engendered by Communist practices and control.

We believe this is true.
How could it be otherwise?

Can you enslave the peoples of a normally free and independent nation, treat them like scum and then expect reverence, respect and love in return? The Russians have often been thick headed and obtuse in the past but we believe this particular error just happens to rank as one of their greatest and most devastating mistakes.

This is the one that might ultimately send them down for the full count.

"A Missouri woman is refusing to send her daughter to school, but teaching her at home. She charges that public schools turn children into trained seals."—News item. The charge is considerably in error, as trained seals obey commands.

"Burma has decided to accept a loan of $25,000,000 from the U.S."—From a news story. Well, well! It must have been extremely difficult for her to decide whether or not to take the money.

The Man About Town

Young Attorneys

Few Men From Area Are Qualifying for the Work

Pontiac: An area where we can make the rest of the nation ashamed of itself on traffic fatalities—if we pull together as we did over the last week end.

Still wondering why more Pontiac young men are not looking with favor on qualifying for the legal profession is MAT. Of the 29 from Oakland County who passed the last Michigan State Bar examination, of 286 Cherokee Road, is the only one from its largest city. It surely cannot be on account of the limited financial prospects in such a profession. We know of no Pontiac attorney who is not doing well. And there seems to be plenty of business in prospect. If Bill Whitfield hasn't already booked his first client, he might contact Mrs. MAT, who has been threatening for many years.

William P. Whitfield

Although the information came from hitherto reliable sources, this column erred when it stated that

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Pender

of Lake Orion had given their infant son the name of Elvis Presley Rodney Pender.

The alert and promising babe was named

Perry Lee Pender,

and although Elvis has just been designated as the outstanding man of the year in the entertainment field, we know he'll follow the fate of all evanescents. Future generations never will hear of him, while Perry Lee Pender may be president some day. We hope he will.

Wondering if any family ever enjoyed such a protective environment are

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth D. Stephens of 581 Alpeana Ave. Until recently the Deacons lived on one side of them, the Parsons on the other, with two families of Angels bordering their property.

Quite happy are

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McVean

over receiving their third missive from one of Auburn Heights, who hopes they'll continue "for years."

A phone call from Shake, Men!

David Lawrence Says:

Suez May Call More U.N. Troops

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—The United Nations may be obligated to send a large military force into the Middle East to keep the Suez Canal open and preserve order in the immediate vicinity.

There is today constant warfare by Egypt against Israel by means of raids. Extensive sabotage at the southern end of the canal has been committed by Egyptians. Nasser still insists that he has the right to say who shall use the waterway despite the provisions of the 1888 treaty which declare it shall be open to the ships of all nations at all times.

The Suez Canal question is still unresolved notwithstanding the decision announced by the security council of the United Nations on Oct. 15 as follows:

"Noting the declarations made before it and the accounts of the development of the exploratory conversations on the Suez question given by the secretary general of the United Nations and the foreign ministers of Egypt, France and the United Kingdom;

"1. There should be free and open transit through the canal without discrimination, overt or covert—this covers both political and technical aspects;

"2. The soverignty of Egypt should be respected;

"3. The operation of the canal should be insulated from the politics of any country;

"4. The manner of fixing tolls and charges should be decided by agreement between Egypt and the users;

"5. A fair proportion of the dues should be allotted to development;

"6. In case of disputes, unresolved affairs between the Suez Canal company and the Egyptian government should be settled by arbitration with suitable terms of reference and suitable provision for the payment of sums found to be due."

When will the U.N. start enforcing its decree? The whole world has assumed that, when the U.N. virtually ordered British and French forces out of the Suez area, there would be imposed an international discipline of some kind which would end the war and remove the causes of the controversy in the Middle East over use of the canal.

Under such circumstances, the use of a preventive force to compel adherence to the Oct. 15 decision of the Security Council becomes logical.

If, on the other hand, the U.N. doesn't follow through, the way will be open for any nation to take military action. The British and French will be able to point to the sequence of events since they withdrew their military forces as justification for their original interventon of Oct. 31.

Egypt's position today is that she has been and still is "at war" with Israel and doesn't have to allow Israeli ships to use the canal. But on Sept. 1, 1951, the Security Council dealt specifically with this very subject in a unanimously adopted resolution.

This declared that Egypt had not complied with the earnest plea of the chief of staff of the truce supervision organization of the U.N., which demanded that Egypt "desist from the present practice of interfering with the passage through the Suez Canal of goods destined for Israel."

The resolution also characterized this blockade as an "unjustified interference with the rights of nations to navigate the seas and to trade freely with one another, including the Arab States and Israel." The resolution concluded:

"The Security Council calls upon Egypt to terminate the restrictions on the passage of international commercial shipping and goods through the Suez Canal wherever bound and to cease all interference with such shipping beyond that essential to the safety of shipping in the canal itself and to the observance of the international conventions in force."

This action was taken more than five years ago. How long will the Security Council of the U.N. allow its own decree to be disregarded? Britain and France have obeyed the U.N.'s orders. When will the U.N. compel Egypt to obey U.N. orders?

These are the questions which confront the U.N., but in reality they confront the American government, which may be called on to supply the largest part of any military force that goes into Egypt next time to obtain a fulfillment of U.N. decrees.

LI'L ONES

"Seventh baby or not—that's going too far!"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Diet Tests Tip Off Cause of Colon-Related Troubles

Many of the features of this malady, write Sir Robert McCarrison, M. D., in his famous monograph, "Studies in Deficiency Disease," referring to "mucous colitis," or what is better called colon derangement, "as seen in nervous constipated women, were reproduced in deficiently fed monkeys.

The state of anemia, unhealthy skin, loss of weight, lassitude, backache, colicky pains, bouts of diarrhea alternating with constipation, mucous stools, and the neurotic condition. Even the congestion of uterus and ovaries . . ."

The monkeys can't help it—they have to worry along on the restricted diet the scientific investigator prescribes. Women, however, usually select their own diet, although in many instances they habor quaint notions born of ignorance of nutrition and follow weird dietary habits, without concern about malnutrition.

Malnutrition? That's an inoffensive way of saying starvation or not enough to eat, isn't it? Don't try to tell Mrs. Gotrocks it is more prevalent among the well-to-do than among the poor in America.

COMMON NOTION

In the aggregate the most injurious to most people is the notion that plain wheat is not quite fit for human consumption as it comes from the thresher.

"Born and raised here among huge elevators and granaries overflowing with wheat," writes a Kansas reader, "we never realized it is good to eat until we learned from your pamphlet how to use it in the everyday diet . . .'

So, for the sake of health and functional efficiency, I beg you to send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet Wheat to Eat. It may enable you to give your family an adventure in good eating and a new level of vite. To say nothing of the economy better living.

SUCKER BAIT

People obsessed with morbid notions about food make ideal customers for charlatans. They follow freak diets calculated to prevent putrefaction in the colon—being unaware that putrefaction is a normal occurrence in a healthy digestive tract.

They go to absurd extremes to avoid what a persuasive charlatan has called wrong food combinations—unmindful of the fact that the Creator provided protein and carbohydrate in the staff of life.

They accept as "common sense" an "arthritis" expert's assertion that cod liver oil goes to the joints and "lubricates," them so they'll work better without friction, etc. although physiologists know that no oil or fat can lubricate a joint when taken as food or medicine. Oil or fat of any kind is completely changed into fatty acid and glycerin before absorption.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Man Congratulates Press on Progressive Editorial

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I wish to congratulate your paper on the very fine editorial published Dec. 19, concerning roads, parks, airport, hospital and other similar municipal and county constructions necessary for a progressing community, such as ours.

We must continue following a progressive and expanding plan in our city and county to keep abreast with its citizens' needs, present and future. Unfortunately, a few are hurt by this expansion, but this progress is necessary for a healthy community and in the long run all citizens will gain.

This editorial, as well as your other fine editorials, indicate the excellent quality of forward thinking men and women connected with the Pontiac Press. It is a pleasure to be a subscriber.

Plenty of Problems Loom Over West in New Year

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Western diplomats face tough sledding in the year ahead.

The British-French attack on Egypt and then the withdrawal have merely multiplied the troubles piling up in the Suez Canal crisis.

Israel says it won't give up the Gaza Strip. And its troops are moving only very slowly out of the Sinai Peninsula. Egypt still refuses direct peace talks with Israel.

Iraq fights a stiff propaganda battle with other Arab nations, especially Syria, which has been getting Soviet arms. The Arab nations are trying to cause the fall of President Nuri Es-Said, who struggles to keep Iraq in the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact.

In Cyprus the Greek-descended majority still struggles for annexation to Greece. The Athens government has rejected Britain's draft constitution that would give the Cypriots more autonomy but still keep the Mediterranean island base under overall British authority.

WANTS MORE AID

Saudi Arabia is rich in oil dividends, but it holds out for more aid from the United States before renewing the U. S. lease on the strategic Dhahran Air Base.

Farther east, Russia makes political inroads into strategic Afghanistan, foe and neighbor of pro-Western Pakistan.

Communist China still is striving hard to make more friends in Asia. Premier Chou En-lai, who has been invited to visit Moscow next month, has been making a goodwill tour.

Chinese Nationalists on Quemoy Island still duel sporadically with the Chinese Reds on the mainland while the Communists build airfields as a possible springboard for an invasion of Formosa.

To the north the natives of Okinawa campaign to try to get the U. S. to abandon that key island base.

OTHER PROBLEMS

To the south there are more trouble spots. Chinese Reds still are reported very busy trying to bore into strategic Singapore, into neighboring Malaya and into Burma.

A Red army supplied by the Chinese Communists already has won control of a part of little Laos state in Indochina.

The Communists, however, despite their constant attempts to stir troubles, have worries of their own.

Chou's forthcoming trip to Moscow is interpreted as a Soviet effort to improve ties between the two largest Communist bloc nations at a time when "nationalistic Communists" in Poland and elsewhere demand more freedom from Moscow.

Some of Uncle Sam's experts do not believe Peiping wants a war at this time because of her domestic pains in industralization.

But the experts are agreed on one thing — that the Chinese subversion and infiltration campaign will not slacken in 1957.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Approves Flowers for Funerals

Chris illustrates the "penny wise, pound foolish" proverb. For it doesn't pay to strip the symbolism of the spirit from such a great event as our final graduation ceremony on this Earth. The modern funeral service, supplemented with a reasonable outlay of flowers, is a soul tonic for the living. Jesus approved it, too.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-359: Chris T., aged 52, recently attended a funeral.

"When I die, I don't want all this folderol," he announced afterwards.

"It's silly to spend money on flowers and a fancy casket. Just have me cremated.

"And tell my friends to omit flowers. Dr. Crane, don't you think that fits into your idea of 'horse sense'?

"When you are dead, you can't smell the flowers, anyway."

FALSE ECONOMY

Chris is wrong in his desire to stripe all beauty and idealism from the final graduation ceremony we have on this earth.

Carried to its ugly extremes, we might urge that the operator of a bulldozer simply make a trench and then dump the bodies of our dead into it. That would be cheaper.

Hitler used that method in the concentration camps to save money. But undue economy can often be expensive.

For when you pinch to save copper pennies but meanwhile destroy idealism and comfort to scores of bereaved loved ones, that is definitely not using "horse sense."

True, I have always championed gumption or "horse sense" regarding taxes, but as a psychologist and physician, I fully recognize the existence of psychic values.

APPROVED FLOWERS

When Christ was approaching his death, a woman in the crowd poured some expensive ointment upon him. It was probably perfumed with flowers.

Some of his Apostles objected, saying the costly ointment could have been sold and the proceeds given to the poor.

"The poor ye have with you always," Jesus remonstrated, and then praised the woman saying her deed would be remembered to the end of time.

Even while Chris was talking about more economy at funerals, he was burning up over $100 per year via his cigarets. So he was inconsistent.

And it is not wise to deprive the human spirit of what we might fittingly describe as "soul calories".

When our daughters graduate from high school, we dress them most charmingly and try to see that they have a corsage of pretty flowers.

Then why shouldn't we show equal tact and consideration for our loved ones at their final graduation from this earthly classroom in God's Cosmic School System?

Occasionally a widow may lavish an undue amount of money on a copper casket and an excessive amount of flowers. But neither the funeral directors nor the florists approve of that.

FUNERALS ARE BEAUTIFUL

Modern funerals are a beautiful tonic for the human soul. The Funeral Director is also a deft plastic surgeon, who repairs the damage done to loved ones in auto accidents.

Indeed, many morticians rate as topnotch plastic surgeons. They also perform an embalming service that is as technical and time consuming as an appendectomy operation.

Moreover, they furnish a chapel for three days with an organ and a beautiful downtown location. They also contribute the hearse and other cars for the mourners.

So don't you think a casket charge of $250 to $1,000 is excessive. That fee covers surgery and embalming and chapel rent and many other courteous functions at the time of bereavement.

And the flowers, symbolizing eternal life, leave a lovely spiritual afterglow on the friends and relatives.

Funerals nowadays are a beautiful experience for the living and such a desirable tonic for the soul of mankind that it would profit everybody to attend them more often.

And the way in which we honor our dead is a barometer of the advancement of civilization.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you need for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Fire Hits Tahiti Capital

SUVA, Fiji (AP) — The colorful center of Papeete, capital of tour- today by the ruins of a raging fire. Eyewitness accounts said the fire broke out Saturday and gutted the entire center block of the city, containing a department store, a popular island night club and a number of shops and restaurants. No loss of life was reported.

Human bodies are about 70 per cent water. Human blood is 90 per cent water, bones about 40 per cent, and the human brain about 85 per cent.

Boycott Could Force 2nd Vote

Polish Slate to Offer Single List

(For all the Communist ballyhoo about the "Democratization" of Red Poland, Thomas Jefferson would not feel very much at home there. That is made plain in the following dispatch, written by a correspondent just returned to Berlin from a study of conditions in Poland.)

By HEMEN RAY

BERLIN (INS) — The Polish general elections are scheduled for next Jan. 20. But they will be so far from "free" that this, according to a reliable Polish source in Warsaw, will be the result:

The Communist Party will win 54 per cent of the 459 seats in parliament; the Peasants Party 24 per cent; the Democratic Party 6 per cent; with the remaining 16 per cent being distributed among the Catholic groups, trade unions, youth movements, Women's League and non-party candidates.

The single list of candidates in this first election since Wladislaw Gomulka took over leadership is currently being drawn up by the Red-run national front.

There is only one way the voters will be able to express their discontent with the candidates or the system—refuse to vote.

OPPOSITION EXPECTED

The informant said that the government expects "very large opposition"—in the form of abstentions—at the polls.

This was borne out by a recent students' meeting in Warsaw in which the election law was roundly denounced by various speakers and demands were heard for an election boycott.

The students were urged to go home during the winter holidays and to persuade their families and friends to stay away from the polls.

Should a candidate fail to obtain more than 50 per cent of the vote cast in his constituency, the law says that a new election must be held. In this way, it appears, the students and other factions hope to get a government more to their liking.

The pre-Gomulka Communist Youth Organization is in splinters now and only one of the three present youth groups is Marxist in its outlook. The others are allied with the Peasant and Democratic Parties.

These young people's political organizations, along with the groups sponsored by the revived Catholic Church, can wield a potent influence on Poland, and particularly at the polls.

Hope Gives Up Hope; Can't Afford to Work

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bob Hope says the high price of talent for his television shows may force him to give them up after the current season.

The comedian, who finances his own shows, said yesterday he lost $93,000 on his first three programs. He blamed the high price of guest stars for eating up the profits.

"I can't even afford myself at today's prices," he quipped.

Named City Controller

DETROIT (AP) — Dearborn's first woman public safety director, Mrs. Marguerite C. Johnson, has been appointed to the $9,000-a-year city controller's job by Mayor Orville Hubbard. Mrs. Johnson had introduced patrol dogs and brightly colored police cars during her four years in office. She will be succeeded by Frank J. Gilligan, fire chief since 1950.

Death Was Close, Policeman Finds After 6 Months

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A policeman returned to work this week after being hospitalized six months by a gunman's bullet and discovered how close he had really come to death.

Patrolman Elmer Wolf had his wrist shattered when he shielded a woman who was being pursued by an attacker on a downtown Philadelphia street last June. The man fired three times and another bullet wounded the woman.

Wolf was not released by police surgeons to return to work until this week. When he removed his gun, holster and other equipment from his locker at headquarters, Wolf found the third bullet.

It was imbedded in a notebook he had been carrying in his left shirt pocket over his heart.

Decoy Snares Big Bass

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP)—Paul Jones, president of the Marin County Rod and Gun Club, placed 31 decoys in Petaluma Creek north of here but no ducks showed up. Then suddenly a decoy started thrashing around. Jones found a 20-pound striped bass hooked onto a broken fishing line that had caught in the decoy's string. He hauled it in.

Philadelphia once had an ordinance forbidding the sale of coal.

Naha Officials Resist Mayor

Councilmen in Okinawa Town Riled at Election of Anti-U.S. Leader

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — The non-Communist majority on Naha's City Council declares it will not cooperate with the newly elected anti-American mayor of the biggest town on this U. S. defense island south of Japan.

Twenty-seven of the 30 Council members joined in the no-cooperation move. They called Kamejiro Senaga "the Communist mayor who pledged to destroy the progress and development which Naha made with the assistance and good will of the United States over the last 11 years.'

Senaga, who heads the Okinawan People's party, says he is not a Communist. But he has been the most effective agitator against U.S. control of the Ryukyus, of which Okinawa is the biggest island. Two U.S. deputy governors of the Ryukyus have called his party Communist controlled.

The United States now administers the former Japanese islands under the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 with military authorities in governing positions. Okinawans elect their own city officials and a legislature which has limited powers.

Senaga was elected mayor Tuesday, polling 16,100 votes and leading his nearest opponent by 2,100. Two candidates split the conservative vote. Senaga is expected to take office Jan. 5.

Oldest labor union in the U. S. is said to be that of the cigar makers.

Mineo to Attend

Eye Wider Scope for Boys' Club Dances

A secret well-known to women lies behind the great popularity of the Pontiac Boys' Club teenage nightclub.

The Saturday night dance has been so successful, executive director William V. Coulacos says, that doors will be opened to all high school students starting Dec. 29.

Film star Sal Mineo, much admired by teenagers, will be on hand, Coulacos said, to help the youngsters celebrate.

There's only one requirement, besides high school standing, in order to attend, and that's the big secret:

Boys must each have a date; there's no stags allowed.

Women have probably known all along that a man with a girl on his arm gains a sense of dignity which precludes extremes of teenage antics, Coulacos said.

But boys at the club, who have limited dance attendance to their own membership for over a year, discovered this fact for themselves.

They noticed the dances were quiet, but fun; relaxed but not rowdy; and there were no unhappy wallflowers or hesitant stag lines.

The result has attracted the attention of the Boys' Clubs of America, a national group with which the local club is affiliated.

Coulacos gave a special report on the teenage nightclub at a New York City meeting this month.

The national group, he said, wants to set up similar activities in clubs all over the country.

Pontiac boys call their nightspot Club 509. The price is $1 a couple for dancing from 9 p.m. to midnight in a colorfully decorated gymnasium.

Why do the youngsters like it? Well, there's soft lights, tables, waiter service and dancing to records played by a Pontiac disc-jockey.

A real nightclub atmosphere which gives teenagers a place to go and something to do Saturday nights.

There's refreshments, too—hamburgers and soft drinks at rock-bottom prices and as a special feature, pizza, sold by the piece.

Just as important, the Boys' Club is a place where youngsters are liked and appreciated. The dances are staffed by Club supervisors whose business it is to deal with young people. Teenagers get the feeling they belong.

They even wear their favorite comfortable clothes with no frowns from adults. Khakis and sweaters are the usual male attire, but they must be neat.

The Boys' Club is located at 530 E. Pike St. and is a Pontiac Area United Fund sponsored activity.

Sane Celebration Urged

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Council of Churches has urged "temperate and controlled" celebrations New Year's Eve rather than the "irresponsible intemperance" which "can result in traffic accidents and death." The council urged "wholesome recreation" and recommended that families gather together "for an evening of good fellowship free of all harmful and objectionable features."

Extend Deadline for Man-of-Year

Jaycees in Waterford to Honor Outstanding Area Resident

Deadline for entries in Waterford Township's "Man of the Year" Contest has been extended to Jan. 4, according to C. W. Goulet and Delwin Richardson, co-chairmen of the event. The contest is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Letters suggesting candidates should mention the man's accomplishments in his work, church and community and all entries are to be sent to Goulet or Richardson. Nominees must be between the ages of 21 and 35.

Tom Belton, Recreational director for waterford Township was last year's winner of the annual event, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A panel of five judges not affiliated with the Jaycees will make the final judgment from a study of all applications. They are: Rev. W. J. Teeuwissen, William Shunck, Police Chief Frank Van Atta, Carlos Richardson and Ervin G. Greer.

Policemen Join Waterford Area Archery League

A team composed of police officers of Waterford Township is among the first registrants for the indoor winter archery league, conducted by the Recreation Department of Waterford Township.

The deadline for team and individual registrations is Jan. 8, according to Tom Belton, director.

Range space in the gymnasium of the CAI building provides room for only 10 four-men teams. "Men, women, and youngsters 12 and over are encouraged to register immediately," Belton said.

Shooting will take place at 8 p.m. Tuesday evenings for the 12-week course. Instruction for beginners of all ages will begin Jan. 8 one hour preceding league play. The lessons will stress the fundamentals of shooting, selection and care of equipment.

Birmingham Bus Law Headed for Courts

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Birmingham's bus segregation law apparently is headed for the federal courts.

Negro leaders directing a challenge of the city's bus segregation ordinance called off demonstrations yesterday after 22 Negroes had been arrested.

They are charged with violating laws requiring separate seating for white persons and Negroes aboard the buses. All are free in bond of $100 each, pending trial in Recorder's Court Jan. 3.

Police Commissioner Robert E. Lindbergh said the city would "use every legal means at its disposal" to block a possible federal court injunction against the bus segregation ordinance.

* * *

Negro leaders yesterday called for an immediate end of their demonstrations after a two-hour meeting of the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, headed by the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAID, the amazing new lavative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Air Force Decides to Show Missiles at Ike's Inaugural

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force changed its mind today and decided to show off its missiles in the inaugural parade on Jan. 21—just as the Army and Navy will do.

The Air Force had planned no show of weapons in line with President Eisenhower's desire to tone down the military aspects of his second inauguration.

Last week the Army announced it would have six missiles in the parade—a Redstone, a Corporal, two Honest Johns and two Nikes.

The Navy said it would display four missiles—a Regulus, Terrier, Sidewinder and Sparrow.

Maj. Gen. John G. Van Houten, chairman of the Armed Forces Participation Committee, announced today that Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, had agreed to display three of his service's missiles—the Matador, the Snark and the Falcon.

The Inaugural Committee said conventional weapons had been almost eliminated to streamline the parade, as Eisenhower requested.

A Harvard student asked his roommate, "You're sure it's all right if I visit your family over the holidays?" His roommate exclaimed, "Sure? Didn't I fight with them three weeks about it?" . . . On B'way the secret of success is to wear a little bit less.—Earl Wilson.

Business Subsidizes Brilliant Young People

Poor Purses Won't Stop Future Scholars

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Why is it that, all too often, the biggest brains are implanted in the most impoverished bodies?

Maybe it's Dame Nature's idea of good, clean fun — giving a child a quick, eager mind and a set of empty pockets, and saying "Okay, see how you get out of this one!"

Or, again, maybe the old dame figures that this is the complete purity of compensation. Some people have more money than they can use, and other have the brilliance with no means to cultivate it, and nobody gets too powerful for his fellow man.

Whatever the reasons for this irony, it is one of those things that the nation is worrying about at the moment.

The American Council on Education, in its November report to the nation, put it this way: "The supply of brains is limited, and much of the supply is washing away like top soil on a hill."

POSITIVE PROGRAM

Continued national development, even perhaps national security, the council believes, depends on a more positive program to present college scholarships to brains which otherwise may petrify slowly behind a haberdashery counter.

The Presidential Manpower Commission, aware of the late statistic that only one-fourth of the top 25 per cent of high school seniors has a chance to graduate from college, has reported to Ike: "A significant number of our most capable young people is not getting the education that their capacity seems to warrant."

The commission concluded that "in the light of the manpower needs of national security, it seems clear that further steps can and should be taken to improve the development and utilization of men and women having intellectual capacity."

This looks, on surface inspection, like one of those eternal quirks of fate about which Grandma, who never recognized flying machines or rainmakers either, would remark—"You can't change nature, darlin', so don't try."

But of course machines do fly, and makers do manufacture rain, and in the not too distant future a huge segment of the brainy set will be getting educations free.

Already many of our American big industries are sponsoring intelligent high school seniors with scholarships that will train them for specialized jobs in factories and offices. And, as of next spring, there may be a movement to offer underprivileged youth a chance for college study strictly on a cultural basis.

THREE FACTORS

"The way we look at it," says the head of one new industry scholarship program, "progress depends on three factors — men, machinery and money.

"Most of the projects in operation by industry at this time are asking young brains to specialize in either the financial end of the sponsoring firm, or in the technical end, where they can be experts in the mechanics of the business.

"I feel that it's just as important for business that a student has a bachelor of arts degree, that he learn some philosophy and psychology and humanities."

"These are the kinds of men and women who are more likely to understand others, who think broadly, and who improve not only a company but the nation."

On the theory that some of our brainy youth would benefit both personally and professionally from liberal arts courses, the speaker—Merwin Joseph, vice president of the Chester H. Roth Co. — says his outfit is setting up a $300,000 scholarship plan for bright young people "to attend any college they select, study anything they like and go into any field they choose after graduation."

MERIT PLUS NEED

A panel of leading educators selects the winners, on a basis of "merit plus need."

He hopes other firms which can afford to will follow the trend toward giving deserving students not only the money to finish their educations, but also the right to choose their own best fields of endeavor — "just like the kids whose dads can afford to send them to school."

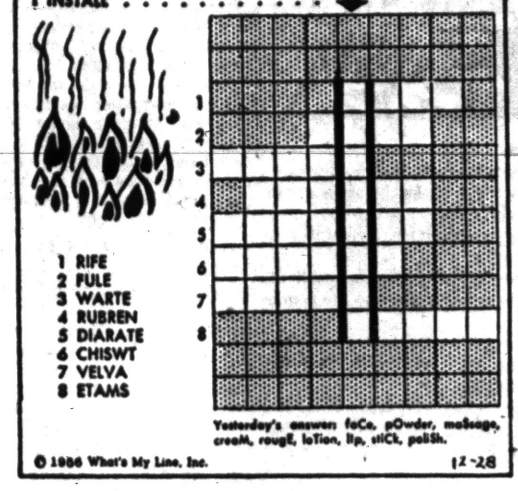

When he speaks of it, Joseph's voice becomes mightily excited.

It takes a man who had to quit school and go to work at 15, I think to dream up, and get steamed up, about a poor boy's scholarship plan.

Beshore promptly placed an ad in the lost column of the Gary Post-Tribune. He didn't have to wait long for action.

Butterball somehow had reached downtown Gary and followed Mrs. Gladys Clapp, of the classified advertising department, back to her office.

She checked a rabies inoculation tag Butterball was wearing and called Beshore.

Dog lovers claim Butterball read the ad.

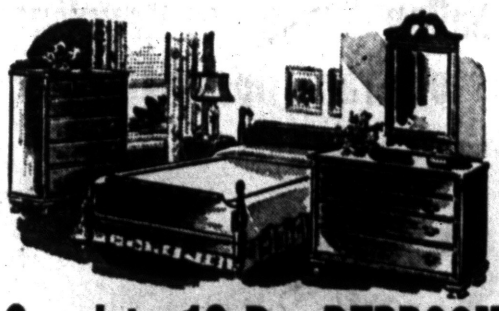

Rhode Island's Choosing Keeps Stevenson Losing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Belated final figures from Rhode Island today built up President Eisenhower's plurality over Adlai Stevenson in the November election to 9,548,055 votes.

The new Rhode Island totals are Eisenhower 229,677, Stevenson 163,521, for a state plurality of 66,156.

Schedule New Hearing

LUDINGTON (AP)—A special session of Mason County circuit court has scheduled a hearing today on a motion for a new trial for Henry Olk, convicted July 24, 1939, and sentenced to life in Southern Michigan Prison in the shotgun slaying of Mrs. Margaret Corac. Olk contends the sentence was imposed after a too-hasty trial.

Fraser Becomes City; 9th in Macomb County

DETROIT (AP)—Voters in the Fraser area of Macomb County have registered overwhelming approval of a city charter and elected president Edgar A. Beck as the first mayor.

The charter, establishing the ninth city in the county, was approved 514 to 154 in Fraser and adjoining part of Erin and Clinton Townships. Fraser will switch from village to city status Jan. 1, starting out with a population of 3,363.

Detroit Building to Change Hand

Harris to Sell Interests in Guardian Skyscraper for $9 Million

DETROIT (INS)—Controlling interest in the 40-story Guardian Building—Detroit's second tallest skyscraper—reportedly will be sold this week.

Emanuel J. Harris, Detroit capitalist, reportedly will sell his 50 per cent in the Guardian Building and several other properties to a group headed by Thomas L. Kaplin of Toledo, in a deal involving $9 million.

Kaplin and the others are stockholders with Harris in the Guardian Building Co., which owns the building. The company purchased the skyscraper in a federal court auction in April, 1952, for $6 million.

It was reported that Harris felt he was obtaining a price that he "just couldn't turn down."

The Guardian Building, formerly called the Union Guardian, occupies a half block on Griswold between Larned and Congress.

When Woodward is widened to make a boulevard approach to the civic center from the old city hall south, the Guardian Building also will front on Woodward.

One of the most ornate skyscrapers in the world, it was erected in 1930 at a cost of more than $12 million.

During World War II, its 400,000 square feet of office space was taken over by the Army for ordnance work.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

SnowFlakes

Snowflakes are water crystals drifting down from the upper air where they have frozen into a great variety of lovely shapes. The flakes always have six sides but different shapes. No two are alike.

Here's how you can make snowflakes out of paper. Remember to use white, thin paper which will fold easily.

The circle of arrows in the center above will help you mark off a circle of six parts. Then you will be able to draw lines to the center for folding.

Another easy way is to cut out a circle (A) and fold it in half, (B). Then fold one part forward (C) and the other backwards until the three sections are even. Then crease firmly.

Lay one of the patterns over the folded circle and trace it on the top section. Cut out the black portions carefully. Keep firmly folded until finished. When you open it up you'll have your beautiful snowflake.

Kadar Rule OK, Says Noel Field

Former American Aids Red Government; Has No Desire to Return

BUDAPEST (AP)—Noel Field, a former U.S. State Department employe who chose political asylum in Communist Hungary in 1954, says he is convinced Premier Janos Kadar's government is acting for the people's best interests.

Field and his German-born wife Herta sought political asylum after the Communist government cleared them of espionage charges on which they had been held for 5½ years without trial. Now 53, gaunt and white haired, he works as a translation supervisor in the government printing house. Mrs. Field is his assistant.

Field and his wife talked with three newspaper acquaintances yesterday at their home in the Sas Hills section of Buda on the west bank of the Danube. He expressed his views of the anti-Soviet Hungarian revolt but refused to be quoted directly.

REVOLT SURPRISES FIELD

He said he was convinced that the Kadar government saved Hungary from a "white terror" during the fighting when the rebels took revenge on Communist police.

He said the revolt surprised him. He added that Hungary, with other leadership, might have escaped a bloody revolution and taken the political course of Poland. This was an evident reference to the regimes that preceded Kadar.

Field declared that any idea of his returning to the United States is more remote than ever, that he finds life in Hungary exciting since the rebellion.

Luck o' the Irish Finally Changes —for the Better

ST. LOUIS. (INS) — Things are looking up for hard-luck Charles (Commando) Kelly.

The Congressional Medal of Honor winner, plagued in recent years by financial woes and ill health, is moving his wife and six children from a $20-a-month apartment into a $25,000 home.

The Kellys, who have been living in Louisville, will move into their new residence in Richmond Heights, a St. Louis suburb, next month.

Kelly, 36, won the hero's role and the nation's highest military honor when he singlehandedly killed 40 enemy soldiers during a 24-hour period in Italy in 1943.

Since October, Kelly has been working as a buyer for a St. Louis scrap iron firm. The job was one of some 200 he had been offered when stories were published of his many misfortunes.

Kelly underwent an appendectomy in August and peritonitis complications nearly proved fatal. He reported that his boss is helping with the down payment on the new home.

Grab Loaded Dice With Smuggled Ice

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard said today it had broken up a diamond smuggling ring because it found the dice were really loaded.

The investigation began a year ago after the Yard picked up rumors that diamonds were being smuggled in and out of Britain. Detectives started making air trips between Britain, Ireland and the Continent, keeping a group of "businessmen" who played dice regularly to while away the time.

One of the Yard's men got his hands on a pair of the dice and found that one side of each cube was a hinged lid. Inside were small compartments for the gems.

The Yard said it expected to make some arrests.

Lost, Strayed, Eaten?

KIM, Colo. (AP)—An advertiser in the weekly Kim County-Record varied the usual "lost, strayed or stolen" heading when he sought trace of a steer missing since August. He headed the ad: "Lost, strayed or eaten."

DETROIT (AP) — Former Detroit newspaperman John N. Sabo, 42, was the first person to file as candidate for the Board of Education in the February primary. Sabo, president of the Grand-Central Corp. was unsuccessful in the election two years ago.

Says Russia to Return Ambassador to Israel

JERUSALEM (AP) — The Israeli Foreign Ministry said today the Soviet ambassador is expected to return to Israel shortly. The Envoy, Alexander Abramov, was recalled at the beginning of November when Russia warned Israel against operations in Egypt.

The Foreign Ministry said Abramov apparently was returning because "Russia's warning has been effective and Israel is fulfilling the United Nations resolutions of Nov. 2" which called for a cease-fire and withdrawal from Egypt.

Tallahassee Bus Franchise Lost

Court Order Protests Integration; City Law Demands Segregation

TALLAHASSE, Fla. (AP) — Two parties to Florida's capital city bus segregation row were locked in litigation today after a rash of technical arrests and a nonviolent street encounter between Negroes and white persons.

Cities Transit, Inc., asked a federal judge yesterday to rule whether it is bound by city and state laws that require Negroes to sit in the rear of buses.

At the same time, the City of Tallahassee petitioned Circuit Court for an order directing Cities Transit to run its buses on a segregated seating basis, or forfeit its franchise.

Buses continued running—under protection of a federal court temporary injunction against interference — despite municipal orders to the contrary and token arrests of bus line personnel.

The City Commission suspended Cities Transit's franchise at midnight Wednesday and when Thursday runs started, Manager Charles L. Carter of the bus company and nine drivers were arrested.

Bond of $100 was posted by each on charges involving operation of unfranchised transportation. Service was allowed to proceed, but Police Chief Frank Stoutamire warned drivers they must enforce seating segregation.

Kalamazoo Welcomes Its New Annexations

KALAMAZOO (AP) — An official message of welcome has been given to 15,000 suburban residents who will become citizens of Kalamazoo at midnight Monday, Dec. 31.

They live in Burke Acres, Oakwood, Knollwood and the South Westnedge Avenue area, which approved annexation to Kalamazoo in elections last August and last month.

Pamphlets were distributed by Boy Scouts to 4,000 homes in the affected districts from Mayor Glenn S. Allen Jr., and City Manager Clarence H. Elliott. They welcomed the new residents and told them what urban services they would receive.

Teaching Revision Could Provide Education in Quantity

No 'Average' Pupil Says Boston University Professor

BOSTON (INS) — A revolutionary change in teaching methods is eliminating the concept of the "average" pupil in American school systems.

This makes considerable sense to Professor M. Agnella Gunn of Boston University's School of Education, who says:

* * *

"We do not teach for the 'average' student, because there is none."

Thus the problem is to provide quality education in quantity.

To accomplish this the BU School of Education has worked out a system which eliminates courses which are paced so the entire class is able to plod through it on schedule. This was the method used to reach the non-existent "average" pupil.

It made for pretty dull times for students who learned fast, hectic times for those who learned slower—and failure for those who were perhaps a bit too far below the mythical average.

* * *

Professor Gunn said her group recognized the initial problem is to instill in each pupil a desire to learn. To arouse this desire, individual capabilities must be exploited, Dr. Gunn said:

* * *

"A series of English workshops established by the school of education is helping to solve the problem. They assist teachers in planning the language arts program for students in grades seven through twelve."

INDIVIDUAL NEEDS

The workshops work with teachers in the field and emphasize the building of resource materials to meet individual student needs. Teachers working with the workshops compared and swapped lists of books, pamphlets and brochures which will aid them in meeting various student needs, Prof. Gunn said:

"They compiled what are called 'book ladders'—reading lists on a given subject rated according to maturity and reading difficulty.

"A book rated as difficult can be given to an advanced reader, while less difficult material is supplied the slow learner. Each pupil learns in terms of his own ability rather than the class 'average.'

"The teacher increases the difficulty and maturity of the book as the student progresses. The method maintains the student's interest since he is never above or below his level of ability and he learns both more rapidly and more effectively.

"Subjects such as literature, once thought to be dull, are becoming living experiences for the pupils."

Pupils may suggest additional aspects of particular interest to them which are within the framework of a topic. Students with similar interests are grouped together and given projects. The teacher gives them selected reading assignments, both required and optional, of varying degrees of difficulty.

The teacher supervises each group and encourages the pupils to do their own research and to assume responsibility. When the projects are completed, the students give reports of their findings and the work of all groups is combined in a final analysis.

Prof. Gunn reported the pupil participation methods are proving highly successful, and she concluded:

"America's educational system has come a long way from the days of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.—The old days of readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic, the 'I hate school days' are fast disappearing.

Ike Sends Gift to Tyke

BISMARCK, N. D. (AP)—It came by special courier from the White House, a bright blue plastic toy train designed to win the heart of the 10-month-old boy who found it under his Christmas tree.

The parents of Rodney Keith Anderson of Bismarck "were flabbergasted." It isn't every little boy who get a present from the President.

An explanation came from Rodney's grandfather, D. C. MacDonald of Grand Forks, N. D.

Last Easter, when Rodney was only 1½ months old, the grandfather pinned an "Eisenhower for President" button on his grandson, snapped a picture and sent it to the President.

"That was when the President was recovering from his heart attack and nobody knew whether he was going to run again," MacDonald recalled.

"I sent a little note with the that Rodney was his youngest picture telling Mr. Eisenhower booster and that if he wanted the boy to grow up in a peaceful world he should run again and be president until 1960."

Shortly thereafter MacDonald received a "very gracious" letter from the White House.

He and the family thought that was as far as the matter would go.

Administration to Ask for Fewer Air Wings

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense officials say the administration will ask the new Congress to approve a plan for a 128-wing Air Force instead of the 137-wing organization that was to be completed next July 1.

They said, however, that effective strength of the Air Force would remain at its present 131-wing status, because each wing would include more aircraft. Reductions will be made in air transport and in some obsolescent long-range fighter escort units.

Pot-O-Gold Loot Piling Up Again; Now at $300

If money could burn a hole in old Pot-O-Gold, it would be riddled by now, the way it piles up in such a hurry. After emptying its contents just a short time ago, the prize is already back to $300, providing no winner is found for last week's puzzle. If you'd like to tilt the Pot in your direction, see if you can come up with the correct solution.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

Most Talkative: Hawaiians, Alaskans

101 Million Telephones In Use Throughout World

NEW YORK (AP) — The world has about 101 million telephones or two for every one in service 10 years ago, the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. reported in its annual survey called "The World's Telephones."

These statistics are for the year 1955. It takes almost a full year to gather the information from some 250 governments and companies throughout the globe.

About 6½ million telephones were added during 1955—more than in any other year on record.

A telephone user in the United States could call any of 97 million of the world's telephones, 41 million of which are in other countries.

The two most talkative telephone spots in the world are U.S. territories: Hawaii and Alaska, the survey showed. Hawaii had an average of 647 conversations per capita in 1955. Alaska was second with 572.

For the fourth consecutive year Canada averaged more phone conversations per person (446) than the United States which had 409.

Iceland, as usual, ranked high with 399.

Each of these was among the 11 countries or areas with 15 or more telephones for every 100 inhabitants. The United States headed this list with 33.7 telephones per 100 population or about one for every three persons. Sweden, which for many years has been second only to this country, was next with 30.4 per 100 population.

At the end of 1955, there were 56,243,000 telephones in service in the United States operated by some 4,700 private companies. (Now there are more than 59 million.) Most of the telephones in European countries are operated by government agencies.

Tot Gets 'Angel's Halo'

CHICAGO (INS) — Little Bonnie Majewski of Chicago had her "angel's halo"—but she was far from being one.

The 13-month-old girl somehow got her head through an angel food cake pan and had to be rescued by her uncle who used a pair of tin snippers to free her.

Truman Declines Bid to Inauguration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover has accepted an invitation to the inauguration of President Eisenhower on Jan. 21, but former President Harry S. Truman has declined.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) chairman of the Congressional Inaugural Committee, announced this yesterday.

Hoover, Republican president in 1929-33, will attend the ceremonies at the Capitol, Bridges said. He said Truman, Democratic president from 1945 until Eisenhower took office in 1953, informed the committee:

"I wish I could come and regret that it will not be possible for me to do so."

Bridges also announced that singers Marian Anderson and Brian Sullivan will participate.

Miss Anderson will sing the "Star Spanagled Banner" and Sullivan will sing "America."

Hal Boyle Says:

40 Million Dancing Feet Tap Out Success

NEW YORK (AP) — Today's success story:

Forty million dancing feet have made a millionaire out of Broadway's most durable businessman, Louis J. Brecker, America's poor man's Arthur Murray.

"People have never really quit dancing—some of the bands just forgot to play for them," he said.

Tonight Lou and his wife, Dorothy, will waltz out to open formally Brecker's new 2½-million-dollar Roseland Dance City, a name he figured out so no one would call the place a "dance hall."

In 1919 on New Year's Eve with $25,000 of capital, the couple started the original place on Broadway called "Roseland."

Nearly 37 years and 20 million dancers later Brecker, now 59, has to move.

"I don't know when they'll actually start building something new on the old site," he said, "but I had to get out. And one of the things I'm walking away from is a $25,000 marquee.

"I haven't been able to find a market for a used marquee. Anyone who wants it can have it who is strong enough to carry it away."

Behind him in the old Roseland location Brecker, a slender, medium - sized, dark - eyed practical man of business will leave many memories.

Over the years Brecker has given out about 30,784 dance trophies.

Among his guests have been Rudolph Valentino, Joan Crawford, Fred and Adele Astaire, Tony de Marco, Al Jolson and Ruby Keeler, George Raft, former Mayor Jimmy Walker, and Jayne Mansfield, a recent migrant to California.

"Some of the bands that got their first big national push here," said Brecker, "were those of Vincent Lopez, Harry James, Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller."

Brecker pioneered the "dime-a-dance" business at the old Roseland, which once had 150 hostesses, now has none.

"The last one finally quit coming about seven years ago," said Lou. His former hostesses earned up to $200 a week, in the years before high income taxes.

There was a time when Roseland was synonymous for zany stunts such as a mock funeral to welcome in prohibition, the marathon dance contest, and the "jazz wedding."

The "jazz wedding" was performed—a couple was actually married while they and the minister danced to band music—only after the bridegroom first posted his motorcycle as a guarantee he wouldn't skip with the $200 honeymoon fee Brecker had advanced him.

"It was a very interesting ceremony," said Brecker gravely. "The minister never got out of step—but he did lose his church later."

Ah, well. That was then. The new Roseland will have three television sets and space for 5,000 people in an atmosphere of sedate glamor.

"The average age of our clientele is now 30," said Lou. "It includes corporation presidents, college professors and Broadway producers as well as career girls.

"Sixty per cent of our guests are couples. There are no hostesses. We don't allow anyone in under 21, boy or girl. There is no roughneck element.

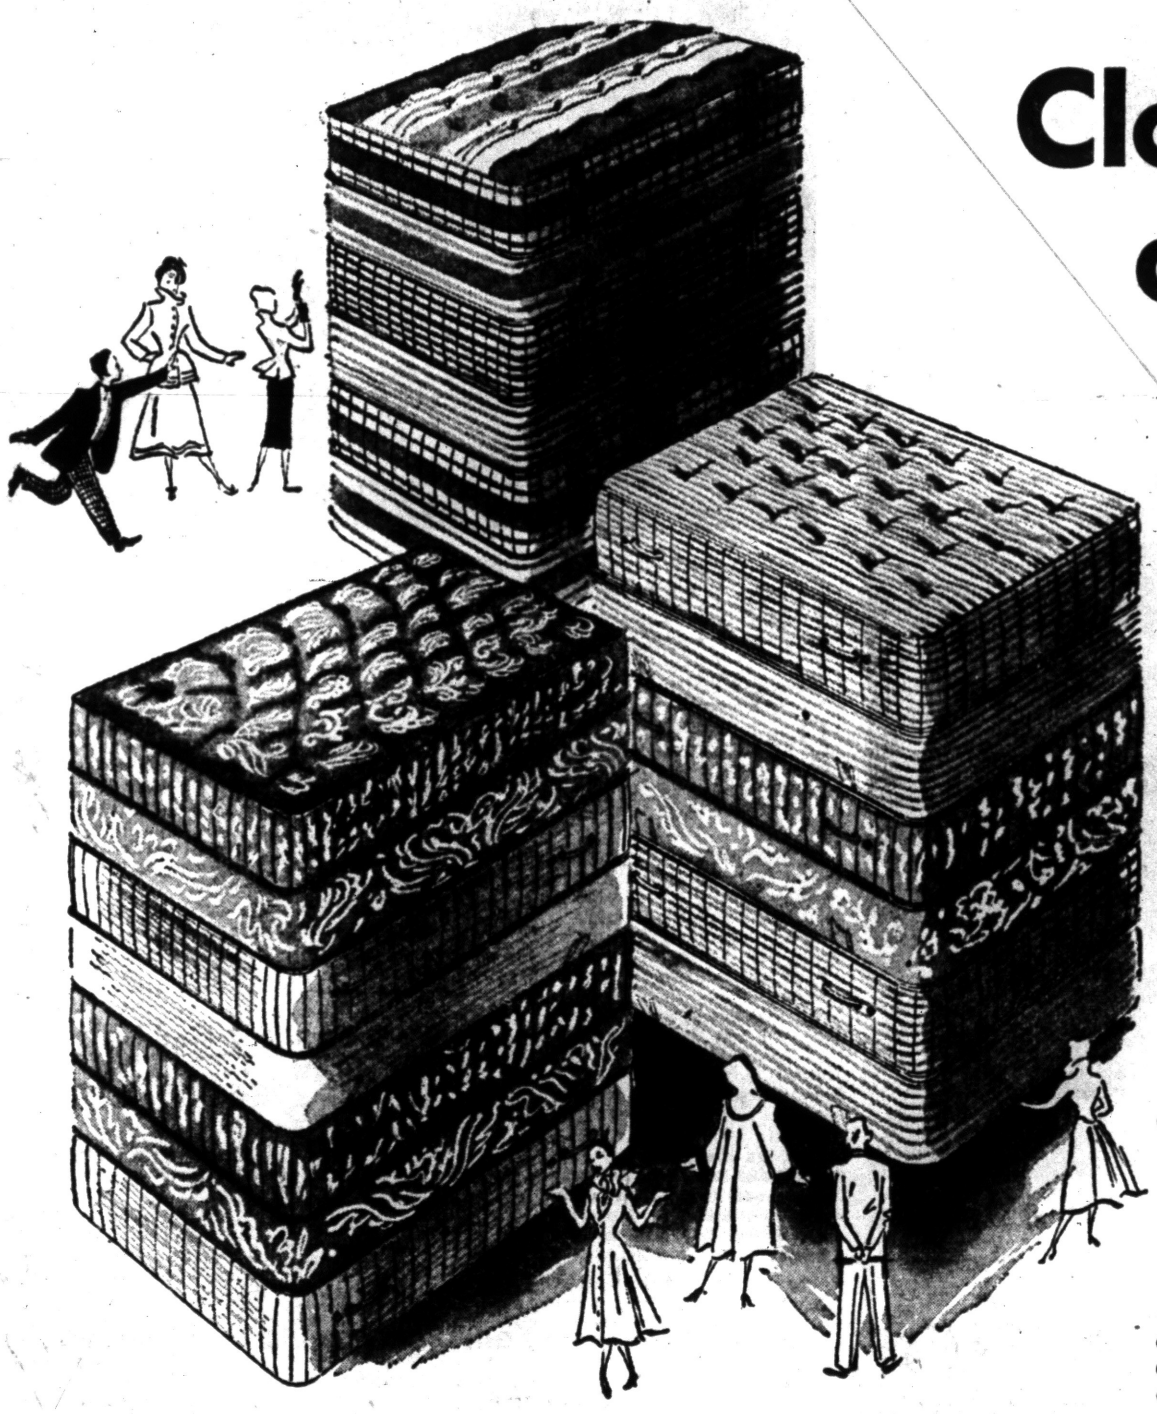

"We wouldn't permit on our floor the kind of dancing that goes on in supper clubs on and off Park Avenue.

"Rock 'n' roll music? We don't even allow our bands to play it."

Large Pie Is Spicy and Rich

By JANET ODELL

Not long ago we went to a luncheon where pumpkin pie was served for dessert. We were interested to see the variety of fillings in the pieces of pie around us (all pies had been donated). Some were pale; others were shiny and spicy looking.

* * *

We think the following recipe for pumpkin pie falls into the luscious class, for it is rich and spicy. Mrs. Hugo Lovett is today's cook. She has moved to this area only recently. Music is one of her hobbies.

PUMPKIN PIE
By Mrs. Hugo Lovett

4 large eggs
1 large can (No. 2½) pumpkin or 3 cups fresh pumpkin
1 cup milk
1½ cups light cream, or half and half, or evaporated milk
1½ tablespoons flour
2½ cups light brown sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
½ teaspoon each nutmeg and ginger
1 teaspoon salt

Mix all together in a large bowl. This amount will make two large pies. You will have to build the crusts up around the edge in order to hold all the filling.

Bake 10 minutes at 450 degrees. Reduce heat to 375 and bake 30 minutes more, or until a knife cut into the filling comes out clean.

Social Work Covers Wide Field

Trying to Decide Career?

By JOAN HANAUER

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Social work offers the college graduate a wide variety of possible fields, a chance at quick promotion, an opportunity for service—everything but money.

And according to Mary Duren, assistant dean of the University of California's School of Social Welfare, even the pay is improving.

DEMAND GROWS

"There's an increasing demand," Duren declared. "In California alone it is estimated we will need 1,430 new social workers a year. By 1965 we will need an additional 2,500 just to provide the present quality of service, which is really inadequate anyway."

This means that those who show special aptitude readily and rapidly advance, if they wish, to administrative positions.

Social workers today have their choice of working in many areas —with families, with children, in medical social work, psychiatric work in hospitals, public assistance services, group work and probation and parole. The latter is the best paid, according to Dean Duren.

Social workers in most jobs are required to have masters degrees, but Miss Duren pointed out that a great many scholarships are open to interested students.

Just Emphasize Your Good Points

When using cosmetics pay particular attention to emphasizing your good points rather than covering up your bad ones. Trying to hide the imperfection of any particular feature day after day is enough to cause the development of a bad inferiority complex.

If you concentrate on bringing out your beauty assets, ten to one the eye will be attracted to them and away from what you feel is a flaw in your appearance.

Fashion Hint

Whether of fur or cloth, the large woman wants a rather important collar on her coat or cardigan sweater this winter-resort season. The small, Peter Pan shape, through contrast, makes her look plumper. The large collar adds interest.

MARY LOU RATHBUN

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Rathbun of Sand Creek announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lou, of Birmingham, to Eugene Terbush. He is the son of Mrs. Clayton Terbush of Silver Lake road and the late Mr. Terbush.

Exercise to Ward Off Flabbiness

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "What about the flabby skin women so often get after reducing?"

A. This usually is caused by losing a large amount of weight too rapidly so that the skin does not have an opportunity to adjust to your new size. A poorly planned reducing diet which robs the body of essential elements also may be contributory.

Regular exercise during the reducing period is prevention against flabbiness. This should be a part of a reducing regime unless there is some condition which makes exercise inadvisable. Follow your doctor's advice in this matter. Also, special care should be given to lubrication of the skin during the weeks of restricted diet.

Q. "This is a problem I never have seen discussed in your column. The skin above my eyelids is drooping. I am only 39. Can something be done about it?"

A. Often this is an inherited characteristic. Sometimes the skin becomes stretched by swelling which is caused by chronic allergy or much crying over a long period of time. It can be remedied by plastic surgery.

Q. "I am almost 24 and have been married since I was 17. I have a son 5 years old. I always have been overweight. At 17 I weighed 160 pounds. After my son was born I kept gaining until I weighed 190 pounds.

"I dieted and slowly lost until I now weigh 143 pounds. I am 5 feet, 1½ inches tall. I measure: Bust 38, waist 28, hips 38½ inches. Some of my friends think I have lost enough while others say I should lose more. What do you think?"

A. Your measurements are in good proportion but you still are overweight. Even if you have a large frame, you should lose from 10 to 15 pounds more. If your build is slight, you are from 20 to 25 pounds too heavy.

Do not allow this to discourage you. You have done so well before that you can lose this. Lose this remaining weight gradually.

Q. "I have a 15-year-old daughter who is determined to become a ballerina. During the past two years I have watched her legs develop enormously. Otherwise she is really too thin. Is there anything that can be done?"

A. I am sorry not to be more helpful but ballerinas naturally have larger legs than usual because of the muscle development.

Q. "I have small bumps on my upper arms and on my thighs. Can you tell me what to do about this and what causes it?"

A. Try stirring up circulation by using a bath brush on these areas. This condition could come from a vitamin deficiency. Eat a vitamin-high diet. Perhaps you would be wise to reinforce your regular diet with a vitamin capsule which gives you all of the vitamins.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Watchwords of Science for Youth After 40," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 61 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Chef Calls Culinary Art 'a Religion'

Names Ingredients Which Cook Needs for Success

By ANNETTE DAVIS
(For Jane Eads)

WASHINGTON—Time, patience, interest, imagination—the ingredients for success in anything—are necessary to be a good cook. So spoke Nicholas Marchitelli, who has made a living from his knowledge of the art of cooking since he was a young man in Italy.

"To me cooking is a religion and like a good follower, I devote myself to it," Marchitelli told me as we sat in his office in the huge kitchen of Washington's Mayflower hotel.

His tall hat denoted the rank of executive chief, a job he has held for 25 years.

Marchitelli comes from Villa Santa Maria, a suburb of Rome where 80 per cent of the population is in some phase of the hotel business. His father and three of his brothers also are chefs.

After serving a five-year apprenticeship in which 18 hours was considered a "short day," he got his first paying job.

He still can't get used to an eight-hour day and says: "I'm too old to change and too young to quit."

TEACHES WIFE

Marchitelli married a native Washingtonian and has two married daughters and one grandchild.

He admits giving his wife "a few lessons in cooking" but most of the time he stays out of the kitchen at home.

He believes the trouble with most home cooks is that they don't take enough time for the job. He feels most foods taste better if they're cooked slowly.

He says: "A slow boil is just as hot as a fast boil and the foods don't stick or burn." He also recommends roasting in a slow oven.

Another cooking tip I learned was to take a roast out of the refrigerator long enough in advance to let it get to room temperature before putting it into the oven.

And, when a roast is removed from the oven it should be allowed "to set" for 10 minutes. That way it won't bleed or curl when sliced.

FEEDS PRESIDENTS

Marchitelli says he has fed every president since Herbert Hoover.

He told me Franklin D. Roosevelt's favorite dish was boned terrapin and that he used to deliver it to the White House himself as a late snack.

Cream soups are ideal for lighter, but nourishing meals during the holiday season. A steaming oyster stew or fish chowder with a tart crisp salad, hard roll, milk and a fruit dessert will be a welcome meal after more substantial holiday fare.

Valued Pin Taken Home by Relative

Woman Wondering How to Ask Return of Jewelry

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter explains: "My sister-in-law dressed at my house recently to go to a wedding. While she was dressing she saw a rhinestone of mine on the dresses and asked me if she could wear it to the wedding. I, of course, said she could.

"She had to leave unexpectedly to go home and went off with my pin. This pin has always been a treasure to me. My sister-in-law lives out of this state and I would like to know how I could go about writing to her and asking for the return of this pin without hurting her feelings?"

Answer? Simply write to her and say that you haven't received your pin back as yet and do hope that it hasn't been lost in the mail. Tell her that it is especially precious to you and that you couldn't bear the thought of losing it.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I have been invited to the wedding and reception of a neighbor of ours. The reception is to be a sit-down dinner at a hotel.

"My husband thinks we should give money as a wedding present, which I do not think is right considering we are not relatives or even close friends of the bride or bridegroom. In my opinion a present would be more suitable. Will you please give me your opinion?"

Answer: The suggestion of a gift of money to someone not in your immediate family is shocking. A present, on the other hand, would be most pleasing.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a man's name is printed in full with his professional title on his stationery, is it proper to typewrite his name underneath his handwritten one at the end of the letter?"

Answer: The typewritten name is certainly not necessary when it is already given in the letterhead.

Vocational Test Brings Fuller Life

By ANE HEYWOOD

Fifteen years ago, I received an unexpected Christmas check which quite literally changed my life.

I was working in an advertising agency, writing copy. I liked the job and the agency was a good one. But I had an unsatisfied feeling, as if all my interests weren't being used.

Pontiac Press Photo

Leaving Willow Run Airport by plane early Monday morning for Costa Rica will be Billie Hobolth of North Johnson avenue. After completing her studies in Spanish there, she will go to Quito, Ecuador, where she will be associated with the Rimmer Memorial Hospital, a part of the medical ministry carried on through station HCJB. She leaves for the mission field sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

I decided to spend my Christmas check on a battery of good vocational tests which, I felt might uncover some facet that ought to be explored.

I went in rather hesitantly, because I was afraid they'd discover I had no talents at all and was in fact a fraud as an advertising copywriter! Most people, I have since learned, feel that way.

I remember the wonderful woman who interviewed me and interpreted the tests for me with a minimum of double talk.

THREE INTERESTS

"Your interests," she told me, "are highest in literary and persuasive and social service. You are presently using the literary and persuasive, but not the social service.

"You must either stay in your job and take on a lot of volunteer work in the social service field or change to a field that uses all three."

It took a long time, but I finally got into work which uses all three of my interests and which made me happier than I had ever thought it was possible to be.

Since then, I've seen hundreds of people with the same problem. They're using some of their main interests, so they're not hopelessly miserable. But they have a vague feeling that all is not well.

For people like this, vocational tests can often be of tremendous help. They don't give you a neon arrow pointing to your only destiny, but they can certainly help you evaluate your capacities and your job.

SEND FOR NAME

If you find yourself with an unexpected sum of money, and would like to get good vocational tests, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of The Pontiac Press and I'll give you the name of a good vocational counselor in your community.

It's a good way to start the new year right!

Billie Hobolth Going to South America

Pontiac Nurse to Become Missionary

Billie Hobolth, a nurse at Pontiac General Hospital and daughter of the Harold Hobolths of North Johnson avenue, decided when in junior high school that she wanted to become a missionary.

Early Monday morning she will board a plane at Willow Run Airport for Costa Rica. While there she will complete her studies in Spanish.

The two four-month courses will consist of conversational Spanish and technical terms used in medicine.

Miss Hobolth will then go to Quito, Ecuador, where she will serve as a nurse at the Rimmer Memorial Hospital, a part of the medical ministry carried on through station HCJB, the Voice of the Andes.

From time to time, she will be called upon to accompany doctors into the jungle territory to minister to missionaries and Indians.

A native of Pontiac, Billie was born here 26 years ago. She was graduated from Pontiac High School and received nurse's training at Hurley Hospital in Flint.

In June 1955 she was graduated from Wheaton College where she received her B.S. degree in nursing.

Miss Hobolth has been teaching a Sunday School class of ninth graders at the First Baptist Church. She also plays the piano and sings with choral groups.

Billie Hobolth is a sister of Mrs. T. Edward McCully Jr. (Marilou Hobolth) who has just returned to South America with her three small sons.

Mrs. McCully's home is only a short distance from the hospital and Billie will be making her home with her sister when she arrives in Quito. She goes to the mission field sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

Wood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Hutson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Billington, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Singleton and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lee Hutson.

Others present included, Mona Reynolds and Carl Shafer of Detroit, Guy C. Turner of Flushing and Mrs. Arthur Singleton of Pencil Bluff, Ark.

Child Culture Group Meets

Members of Child Culture Club gathered at the Birmingham home of Mrs. Dale Swanson for their recent Christmas party. Laura Cobb of the Pontiac Story League presented several Christmas stories and carols were sung by the group.

Gifts were exchanged and Mrs. Murray Osborn was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Donald Markus was a guest.

The next meeting will be held at the Robert Benedict home on Cherrylawn drive.

The lingerie touch works miracles as a wardrobe refresher. White lace at neck and sleeves; white collar in Irish linen sparked by rhinestone pins on dresses and for suits a white carnation and chiffon scarf makes the style your own.

MARY ALICE KEAVY

The betrothal of their daughter, Mary Alice, to Waldemar M. Roeser, was announced today by Mr. and Mrs. George B. Keavy of Sylvan Lake. His parents are Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Roeser of Neome drive. A summer wedding is planned by the engaged couple. Both attend University of Michigan where Mary Alice is in the School of Nursing, and Mr. Roeser is in Medical School. The betrothal was announced at a tea held at the YWCA.

Withdraw From Child's Vulgarity

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Ted's father can take his liquor or leave it alone. Mostly, he leaves it pretty much alone. But when his mother comes to dinner, he makes an elaborate point of taking it.

Because she disapproves of drinking, he makes the mixing of his pre-dinner martini into an aggressive ritual motivated not by his need for alcohol, but by his need to defy his mother.

He relishes his cocktails as symbols of his independence—as toasts to his independence—the fraternity of free men.

Tonight, to assert his independence, his 6-year-old son will insist on repeating a dirty word he's picked up from some friends at school.

Outraged, his father will strike Ted. Later, he'll complain of him to his wife as though he had long outgrown the childish compulsion to defy authority.

SHOULD BE BORED

Do I think we should accept nasty talk by children?

No, I just think that grownup people are bored by it, not outraged by it. So their answer to it is simple. They just withdraw as audience to it.

They withdraw either by ignoring Teddy's bad word or by saying, "We're tired of that talk"—and carrying him up to his room. I don't think which method of audience withdrawal we use matters. All that matters is that Teddy learn that we find nasty talk uninteresting.

We are better able to take an adult view of this problem if we remember it usually presents itself soon after children enter school. Recognizing it as a symbol of that "group" identification so reversed by the child training profession will ease our anxiety over it.

Ted's bad word tells us he no longer regards our views as sacred, but has begun to develop some respect for what his friends say. Thus, the nasty word, though still offensive, is also encouraging evidence of our son's growing independence.

Unfortunately, a father who has to assert his own independence by drinking martinis in front of his mother can't see this. He's still too afraid of his own defiance to be anythng but afraid of his child's.

Do we frustrate children when we deny them the freedom to inflict nasty talk on us?

I doubt it. I think that if they enjoy more important kinds of freedom, such as the freedom to protest an injustice or exprees an unflattering opinion of us, they can easily dispense with the freedom to use dirty talk.

Cross-Country Taxi Trip Should Appeal to Wives

Travel With Husbands Usually Means Too Much Rushing to Suit Women

By RUTH MILLETT

An elderly woman who lives in New Jersey recently decided to tour the United States by taxicab.

In making arrangements with a cab company she asked for "a careful driver who's respectful to a passenger" and one who wouldn't have to leave a wife and children.

The cab company refused to give out the taxi-tourist's name but it's fun to speculate about her.

She wanted a careful, respectful driver who didn't have a family waiting for him at home—that is, one who wouldn't be in a rush to get back.

This would inciate to any wife who has done much cross-country traveling with her husband that this elderly woman is probably a widow who has taken plenty of trips by automobile—but with her husband at the wheel.

NOT CAREFUL ENOUGH

Why? Well, because most husbands, cross-country bound, don't drive carefully enough to suit their wives. They like to make time, so their foot is usually a little heavy on the gas.

And they certainly aren't respectful to the front-seat passenger who keeps a wary eye on the speedometer, pushes her feet half way through the floor board and is always reading road signs aloud.

Furthermore, when a husband is the chauffeur he is always in a hurry. There's no time to stop and admire a view, no time for a leisurely lunch, no time to stop along the way to let his wife make a local telephone call to an old friend, no time to let her have a look at a big city's stores.

With a husband the motto is "Go, go, go"—and that's not the way most women like to travel.

Of course, this is all just guessing. But whether it's accurate or not, it's a safe bet there are a lot of wives in the country who envy the elderly lady her trip.

A GOOD SETUP

What a setup! A man at the wheel to do the driving, change tires, follow the road map, etc. But a man who will stop when she wants to stop, who'll slow down when she thinks he is driving too fast, who isn't in any special hurry to get any place, who won't protest when she wants to have a leisurely lunch in a good restaurant instead of grabbing a hamburger from a roadside stand, and who won't dare blame the passenger for not watching the road signs when he takes a wrong turn.

What woman doesn't dream of that kind of trip?

Good Shoes Best

Good shoes are a good fashion investment. And each time you buy a pair, let the salesman measure your foot even though you think you know your shoe size. Remember that if a shoe is good, it needs no breaking in; it should be comfortable from the first day.

For the man in your life, what more welcome gift than masculine-scented toiletries such as soap, after-shave lotion, cologne. He'll be so flattered to receive handsome gifts of fragrance for Christmas.

APPAREL for WOMEN

Married Sunday were Margaret Mehwald and Eamer Duane Bigsby. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mehwald of Parma Heights, Ohio, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eamer L. Bigsby of Avondale street.

MRS. EAMER DUANE BIGSBY

Eamer D. Bigsby Claims Bride in Ohio Ceremony

In a 4 o'clock ceremony Sunday in Parma South Presbyterian Church, Parma Heights, Ohio, Margaret Mehwald became the bride of Eamer Duane Bigsby. The Rev. Howard B. Withers officiated at the service.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mehwald of Parma Heights and Eamer's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eamer L. Bigsby of Avondale avenue.

Given in marriage by her father, Margaret wore a gown of silk cloud taffeta with the scoop neckline edged in pearl rosettes. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long tapered sleeves and the gored, gathered skirt extended into a chapel sweep.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a headpiece of taffeta trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet composed of a white orchid, stephanotis and white holly.

Gerda Mehwald was maid of honor wearing a gown of red silk taffeta with a crushed chiffon bodice. Her flowers were holly and white carnations.

The other attendants, Martha Wiles, Helen Jo Buckley, Mrs. Nance McIlvaine, Mrs. Mary Hamilton and Leslie Dahn, junior bridesmaid, were gowned identically to the maid of honor.

Best man for the service was Dr. MacDonald Hamilton. Blair Munns, Ron Eckert, Joe Wagley and Frank Mehwald were ushers.

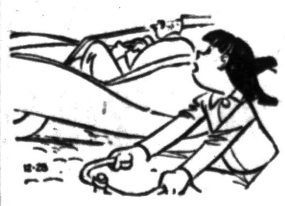

The reception was held at Schuckert's Chalet.

Following a honeymoon in Miami, Fla., the couple will reside in Ann Arbor.

Fashion-conscious women are adding about two inches to daytime skirts. For short figures the twelve-inch fur coat. Tall girls wear shorter length.

The preferred fur coat length depends on which you prefer: Regular length — tall figures for daytime should not be too long—but shorter women look good in the new longer length, 12 inches from the floor.

The ideal sports car is one that's small enough that if you flood it you can put it over your shoulder and burp it.

Bared Leg Will Prove Policeman's Bear Story

OIL CITY, PA. (AP)—Patrolman Carl E. Smith, 24, has a real bear story to tell—but no bear.

The officer was en route home this week when he spotted a bear near a private swimming pool. Stopping his car, Smith drew his service revolver as he got out. He stumbled, discharging the pistol.

The shot pierced Smith's left leg and he is in a hospital. The bear, said the officer, just ambled off into the hills.

Spinning of Cables, Erecting Approaches Feature '56 Progress

ST. IGNACE (AP)—With construction three-fourths completed, piling ice and frigid weather have halted work on the 100-million-dollar Straits of Mackinac bridge for the winter.

A. J. Paddock, president of the American Bridge division of United States Steel Corp., said work on the span during 1956 was finished on schedule despite a six-week delay in erecting the north approach. The delay was due to the steel srtike last summer, he said.

Completion of the longest suspension span in the world is scheduled for November of next year.

Paddock said the year's major accomplishment was the spinning by 300 men of 41,000 miles of 12,580 wires comprising the wound cable making up the two main suspension networks. The work was started July 18 and completed Oct. 19.

More than 16 miles of 2¼-inch diameter wire rope used to support catwalks has been removed and shipped to U. S. Steel's Trenton, N. J., plant where it will be fabricated into pre-stressed suspender ropes to support the roadway.

Erection of 26 of the bridge's 28 approach spans has been completed.

Paddock said during peak operations in the summer employment totaled 850 men. Some 60 men will continue to work in the St. Ignace yards this winter, assembling trusses for erection next spring. They also will work on the 700-foot north beam span approach connecting the bridge roadway to land.

Next year's plans include completion of all approach spans and erection of suspended spans, suspender ropes and the floor system. Roadway concrete will be poured as each deck is erected. Only the two outer lanes of the four lane roadway will be concrete filled. The two inner lanes will be of open steel grating.

Magazine Starts 3rd Year Strong

'American Heritage' Features Early Photos in Holiday Issue

NEW YORK (INS) — "American Heritage," the Magazine of History, has begun its third year of publication with a 200,000 copy print order of its December issue.

The print order was 25,000 copies above the previous issue.

James Parton, publisher, said "the great bulk of this gain represents Christmas orders."

The hardcover "book-magazine" is published six times a year, sponsored by the American Association for State & Local History and the Society of American Historians, Inc.

Highlighting the Christmas issue are on account of Lafayette's part in the American and French Revolutions by novelist John Dos Passos, and a study of a 19th century New England sea trader by Pulitzer Prize winner Archibald MacLeish.

The issue also includes 16 pages of some of the first photographs ever taken in the U. S.

Sixty-three other black and white photographs and 27 in color set off the 15 articles in the December copy of the magazine.

"American Heritage" is edited by the prize-winning Historian Bruce Catton, author of "This Hallowed Ground," and "A Stillness at Appomatox."

Arizona Meteor Draws Attention of Smithsonian

WASHINGTON (AP) — Smithsonian Institution scientists have concluded that the giant shooting star which dug the famous Arizona meteoritic crater weighed at least 12,000 tons. That would be a chunk about the size of an average house.

The Smithsonian, in a report today, said the scientists also found evidence that the great fragment which flew in from outer space between 5,000 and 50,000 years ago came from a direction slightly south of west.

Previous weight estimates had ranged from 10,000 to 10 million tons. The line of approach had been figured as slightly west of north.

The weight calculation was based on the amount of meteorite particles found in earth samples from the floor of the crater. The crater, 600 feet deep, is 4,100 feet in diameter.

Earth samples, taken over an 80-square mile area, also provided the new direction clues.

Spartans Down Nebraska Quint

Last Half Rush Puts MSU in Semi-Finals of Big 7 Tourney

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS) — Michigan State overwhelmed Nebraska in the 2nd half last night to gain an easy 79-65 victory and join Kansas, Oklahoma, and Colorado in the semi-finals of the Big Seven preseason basketball tournament.

The Spartans will meet Colorado in the 2nd game tonight after Kansas, the nation's number one club, battles Oklahoma in the opener.

The Spartans, who weathered a severe scoring drought to pull up to a 38-38 halftime tie, exploded during a 12-minute period during which the Huskers could get only one goal. During that stretch the Spartans came from a 44-38 deficit to build a 72-56 lead.

HANDS OF A BEAR — The most dreaded pair of hands in the National Football League are those of Harlan Hill, star pass receiver of the Chicago Bears, whom the New York Giants hope to stop in the championship game Sunday. Hill has caught 11 touchdown passes and has gained 1128 yards by pass receiving. It was against the Giants during the regular season that Hill caught two long TD passes, one for 79 yards.

Plan for Casares and Hill

Giants Set Defenses

NEW YORK (AP)—Coach Jim Lee Howell of the New York Giants isn't one to reveal his secrets but he took time out today to announce some of his plans to contain the Chicago Bears in Sunday's National Football League championship game.

His main problem is to stop Rick Casares and Harlon Hill, probably the two big offensive threats of the Bruins.

"Well," he said, "we have about 12 basic defenses with variations off them to suit individual situations. Defenses are varied against passing or running as we feel or guess what the Bears would use in a certain situation.

"Of course, we could double up on Casares or Hill. But then we would leave a fine runner like Bobby Watkins or pass receiver like Jim Dooley lightly guarded.

"When we played the Bears the first time, Watkins was injured and Dooley hadn't come back from military service. They have strengthened the Bear attack considerably."

Howell said that the Giants would use some new variations of their basic defenses to suit what they have been able to learn about the Bears from first-hand knowledge and scouting reports.

"But,' he laughed, "it's a vicious circle. They will have put in new variations of their offense and we'll have to cope with them as we go along.'

What about the "soft" conditioning he has been giving the club leading up to the all-important game? The Giants have worked only five days since their last regularl-season game on Dec. 15.

"We haven't worked hard because we feel we are ready,' Howell answered. "We didn't take all those days off because we felt the Bears were not good. Except for us we think they're the best in the league.

Kyle Rote, Giants' co-captain, agreed with the coach.

"I think the layoff will help us," he said. "We have been working steadily since we opened training camp on July 24. That's a long time and you get tired.

"I feel that the rest will give us more spring in our legs and a little more in reserve. Anyhow, if we aren't in shape now, no few extra days work will help us."

Meanwhile, the Bears were scheduled to arrive late today. The Bruins from the midway plan to go through some light limbering up work at the Yankee Stadium tomorrow.

Third Period Outburst Nets Win at Boston

Goalie Terry Sawchuk Back From Hospital Is Ripped by Detroit

BOSTON (AP)—After clinging to the back of the stubborn Boston Bruins for seven weeks, the Detroit Red Wings broke into a narrow National Hockey League lead last night.

They did it with a third period outburst that gained them a 5-3 victory over the very same Bruins on Boston's own ice.

It was their first victory in the Bruin den this season and their first road victory in their last nine starts away from Olympia.

The lead they won was a bare point—but their first since Nov. 8 when Boston dropped them to gain the top rung. Since then, only once were the Wings able to get back up into a tie, losing that soon enough.

But last night, feeling the pressure of the resurgent Montreal Canadiens clawing at them from third place, the Wings moved fast.

Dutch Reibel and Ted Lindsay, each of them getting an assist from Gordie Howe, gave Detroit a 2-0 lead, but Boston's Don McKenney came back with his first two goals by the end of the second period.

In the final frame, the spotlight was on boston's goalie Terry Sawchuk, back from two weeks in the hospital with a blood disease.

Alex Delvecchio and Johnny Bucyk provided the pressure that cracked through Sawchuck's sagging resistance.

Delvecchio struck first with assists from Metro Prstai and Billy Dea. Then Bucyk hit from the left side with another tally, unassisted.

McKenney and Fern Flaman counted for Boston, but it was futile.

Marcel Pronovost gave Detroit its third final period goal to sew it up.

The unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels are playing like world-beaters. But they're making Coach Frank McGuire look bad.

It was McGuire who labeled Utah the "team to beat" in the Dixie Basketball Classic. Now if he can put upset-minded Duke in the same category, the Tar Heels probably will win the tournament in a breeze.

North Carolina didn't even give Utah a chance last night, crushing the Skyline Conference team 97-76 as Lennie Rosenbluth rang up 36 points. The Tar Heels, ranked second nationally, will meet Duke tonight. The Blue Devils surprised fourth-rated West Virginia 73-67.

Actually, all four Atlantic Coast Conference teams advanced to the semifinals. Wake Forest toppled DePaul 74-68 and North Carolina State beat Iowa 84-70.

The Dixie was only one of the multitude of tournaments which reached various stages last night.

In Kansas City, Colorado and Michigan State entered the semis of the Big Seven tournament with the Spartans trouncing Nebraska 79-65 and Colorado downing Missouri 64-55. The winners will clash tonight with Kansas, the top team in this week's Associated Press poll, facing Oklahoma in the other game.

Semifinalists also were determined in the Richmond, Va. Invitational with Penn, Washington and Lee, Penn State and Lafayette making the grade.

Lafayette defeated William and Mary 85-72 to take over the favorite's role from Columbia, which lost to Washington and Lee 69-65. Tom Hancock, a sophomore, tallied eight points in the final three minutes as Penn State beat Richmond 64-60 and Penn defeated Davidson 83-79 in the other games.

Southern Methodist, the Southwest tourney favorite, looked the part in knocking off TCU 76-65 as Jim Krebs scored 36 points. Texas A&M edged Navy 76-75 as the Middies' Dave Smalley just missed a long desperation shot in the final second. Arkansas also moved past the first round by belting Texas 89-76 as did Rice by dropping Baylor 71-55.

Oklahoma City, the host team, handed Idaho State its first loss in nine starts, 70-66, as the All-College tournament got underway. In other games, Seattle whipped Tulane 94-76 and Marquette and Memphis State each broke the old tournament scoring record of 94 points. Marquette walloped Georgia Tech 102-78 and it was Memphis State by 99-77 over Texas Tech.

The Orange Bowl competition saw Western Kentucky down LaSalle 89-76; Stanford defeated Valparaiso 68-51; Connecticut nip Miami, Fla. 74-70 and Pitt upset Seton Hall, 76-66.

Minnesota and Canisius advanced to the final of the Queen City tourney at Buffalo, N.Y. The Gophers eliminated defending champion Xavier of Ohio 83-76 and Canius tripped Cornell 79-60.

University of Detroit meets Boston University tonight in the opener at 7:15 p.m. and Wyoming faces Northwestern in the nightcap at Detroit's Memorial building.

The losers of tonight's games meet tomorrow in the preliminary round and the winners battle for the title in the second game.

Detroit's Titans and Northwestern are favored to win their respective games tonight and meet tomorrow for the title in a game which may pit two of the top scorers in the country — Bill Ebben, Titan forward who has averaged 25 points a game this season, and Northwestern's center Joe Ruklick, who has a 21.3 average.

Reeves, Hoose Lose Licenses

DETROIT (AP) — The licenses of trotting horse owner Samuel Reeves of Birmingham and harness driver Duane Hoose were revoked yesterday by James H. Inglis, state racing commissioner.

The action followed an investigation of a harness race last August at Hazel Park Raceway.

Both men had been under indefinite suspension since September and both had announced their "retirement" from harness racing.

Hoose was accused of blocking the rest of the field to allow another driver to win. Reeves denied any knowledge of a "fixed" race.

Houghton Lake's New Ski Park Ready to Go

New Snow Bowl ski park at Houghton Lake opens Saturday with a two-day program that includes a coronation ball for "Miss Houghton Lake Snow Bowl." She will be picked Saturday from a field of 10 and after this weekend will make a tour of Michigan communities, including visits to many winter sports functions.

The new park is located five miles south of Houghton Lake on U.S. 27. It will have 16 ski runs, nine tows in operation. A lodge and ski rental service have been installed. Wayne Legg is the manager.

Kerbawy 'Sells' Oliver Spencer 1957 Contract

Yesterday, when Spencer stopped off at the Lions' office to sell Kerbawy some insurance, Kerbawy sold Spencer on a 1957 pro football contract.

Spencer thus became the first Lion signed for next season. He's a former University of Kansas star and now lives in Detroit.

Record Team Total for Elks Pin Meet

Late entries from several upstate centers have boosted the final total of teams for the 1957 Michigan Elks bowling association tourney here to a record 517, tournament officials reported today.

Last team entry came from Alpena, and the next to the last included six teams from Ionia.

Plans for the tourney, Jan. 19, at the Elks' drives on Orchard Lake avenue, include the attendance of all former past presidents of the state body since reorganization 10 years ago, plus the presence of the Elks national tourney prexy.

Ski Areas Hope for More Snow

Pontiac area's two major ski parks, at Mt. Holly on the Dixie, and at the Highland Recreation area, at Teeple Hill, are ready to go over the coming New Year's weekend—but for the need of more snow.

Pontiac Ski Club's layout at Highland has been improved greatly during the fall and early winter. It now has five tows, the north hill has been cleared of many trees, widened, and has lights for night use. Plans have been made for the installation of a snow-making machine next winter, plus additional night-lighting facilities. The club has had only one day of operation this winter, and is looking forward to a good new year period.

James Marble of Highland operates the area, which has a good base but needs at least four inches of powder snow for good skiing.

Mt. Holly has added from six to eight inches of machine-blown snow for its base and if soft weather does not intervene, will be ready for the weekend. Snow has been blown on one slope, and a beginners' area. More natural snow would enhance the conditions. Yesterday, a large group of MSU and U. of M. collegians, home on vacations, visited the area and enjoyed some good skiing, area operators reported.

Rules Changed for Gloves Test

Hope to Speed Boxers to Open Division for Jan. 7 Tourney

DETROIT (INS)—Rule changes that are expected to speed the climb of amateur boxers into the open division will be in effect for the first time when the 1957 Golden Gloves tournament begins Jan. 7.

The junior novice division, for newcomers to the sport, will be limited to fighters 16 and 17 years of age. In the past, the age spread was from 16 to 19.

The novice division is open to any fighter with less than five fights. Before, a boxer had to have nine ring battles before he could move into the open division.

The rule changes are designed to speed the development of Detroit area fighters. Winners in the open division will represent Detroit in Chicago stadium, Feb. 26-27-28.

Finalists emerging from the first seven of 13 weekly televised bouts (CKLW-TV) will meet in the Golden Gloves championship bouts to be staged at the state fair coliseum on Wednesday, Feb. 20.

Entry blanks may be obtained at Golden Gloves headquarters in Detroit (305 Michigan). Deadline for entries is midnight, Saturday, Jan. 5.

Grid Parties Begin Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The fine teams of GeorgiaTech and Pitt together with senior aces from most of the big schools that didn't draw a post-season assignment play in three games tomorrow as college football throws the first of its New Year's Holiday parties.

Tech and the rugged Panthers from Pitt meet in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., in a rematch of last New Year's Sugar Bowl.

The all-star seniors are divided into two widely separated camps, with half having it out in the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala., and the others in the 32nd annual Shrine East-West game in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium.

All three will be broadcast and telecast, with CBS handling the Gator Bowl beginning at 1:45 p.m. EST, and NBC doing a double, the Blue-Gray at 1:45 followed by the East-West at 4:45, EST.

With time out for the professional football championship between the Chicago Bears and New York Giants at Yankee Stadium on Sunday, the collegians return Tuesday with their regular Jan. 1 splash headed by the Big Four — Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, Cotton Bowl at Dallas, and Orange Bowl at Miami.

The Gator Bowl game throws Coach Johnny Michelson and the Panthers squarely into the grip of the coach and team with a brilliant record in post-season play.

Bobby Dodd has taken seven Georgia Tech teams bowling and has won them all, including the last three years in succession. Both teams are packed with veterans from last January's Sugar Bowl game, in which Tech scored the only touchdown after a disputed pass interference play.

The Rebels, with a 12-5 edge in the series so far, has been made a six-point favorite over the North for Montgomery's Blue-Gray annual. Jim Tatum of North Caroline is head coach for the Grays, who boast such aces as Mackie Prickett of South Carolina, Howell Tubbs of Auburn, Jack Pardee of Texas A&M and LSU's Earl Leggett.

The East-West lineup is just as star-spangled with such "name" players around as Notre Dame's Paul Hornung, Terry Barr of Michigan, Abe Woodson of Illinois, Jim Parker and Bill Michael of Ohio State, Sam Valentine of Penn State, and Navy's Wilson Whitmire of the East matched against the likes of the West's John Brodie of Stanford, Jon Arnett of Southern California, Bill Pricer of Oklahoma, Jim Crawford of Wyoming, Paul Wiggin of Stanford, and Jack Hill of Utah State.

To refresh your memory, Tuesday's pairings are Iowa (8-1) vs. Oregon State (7-2-1) in the Rose Bowl, Tennessee (10-0) vs. Baylor (8-2) in the Sugar, Syracuse (7-1) vs. TCU (7-3) in the Cotton, and Colorado (7-2-1) vs. Clemson (7-2-1) in the Orange.

The New Year's Day program also includes, among others, George Washington vs. Texas Western in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.; Texas Southern vs. Prairie View A&M in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston; and West Texas vs. Mississippi Southern in a night game in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla.

Aussies Complete Clean Sweep of Davis Matches

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Australia placed a resounding final stamp on its Davis Cup victory over the United States today when phlegmatic Ken Rosewall and blond blaster Lew Hoad won the final two singles matches for a perfect 5-0 triumph.

Rosewall had to go four bitter sets before subduing University of Texas junior Sam Giammalva, 4-6, 6-1, 8-6, 7-5, after which Hoad polished off 33-year-old Vic Seixas, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3, in a match that produced some brilliant tennis on both sides.

So now the United States must start all over again. This is the second year running the Aussies have shut out the Yanks. A check of the records also shows this is the fourth time the lads from Down Under have whitewashed the Americans.

On the other hand, the United States which has been in 37 of the 45 challenge rounds that have been contested since 1900, also has blanked the Aussies four times. In that respect, at least, they are even.

Probably the most popular player on the court was Giammalva, who captured the hearts of the capacity crowd of 18,000 at the War Memorial Drive courts. Texas Sammy shows his emotions with every shot. He alternately exhibits glee and despair.

The crowd loved him. In contrast to the poker-faced Rosewall, he's a whirling dervish.

But he wasn't up to beating Rosewall and that's where they pay off. Some experts thought Sam might have helped beat himself by playing strictly to Rosewall's forehand, the weakest link in Ken's armor.

Not once did Giammalva let up his relentless and booming attack on the Rosewall forehand. Again and again he slashed at it and in the first set, he was completely successful.

Maples Meet Fitzgerald

Birmingham plays host to Fitzgerald tonight to head a skimpy high school basketball card in the Oakland County area.

The Maples will be aiming for their 3rd win in four starts. They own decisions over Cranbrook and Southfield and a 62-60 setback at the hands of Royal Oak.

Underdog Fitzgerald, defending champion of the Oakland B League, lists a 1-2 record. The Spartans edged Clawson, 38-37, for their lone triumph, while bowing to Avondale and Lake Orion, all in league play.

In other area games tonight, Marlette invades Marysville, Port Huron entertains Toledo Scott and the Dryden varsity meets the Big Red sophomores at Port Huron.

Pro Gridders Meet to Organize Union

NEW YORK (AP)—Player representatives of National Football League teams will meet today with Creighton Miller, their lawyer, in an attempt to set up an organization similar to major league baseball players.

Payments for exhibition games is one of the items to be discussed. The players also would like to have a representative sit in on meetings in which rule and equipment changes are discussed.

Miller is a former Notre Dame backfield star.

Manhattan vs. Buckeyes, Irish vs. Brigham Young in ECAC Festival

NEW YORK (AP) — Manhattan meets Ohio State and Notre Dame plays Brigham Young at Madison Square Garden tonight as the ECAC's Holiday Festival picks its finalists for Saturday's windup.

The four are the survivors from the 10-team field that began play Tuesday but to look at the day's schedule you wouldn't know it.

To keep the six beaten teams busy, three consolation games will precede the semifinals, St. John's of Brooklyn facing Villanova and Fordham meeting Niagara in an afternoon doubleheader and New York University playing Temple in an "evening" game at 6 p.m., EST.

Manhattan, which romped over Niagara in its first tourney game, and Ohio State, a one-point upset winner over Temple, play the first semifinal at 7:45 p.m. Notre Dame which eliminated NYU, and Brigham Young, which ousted St. John's, follow at 9:30.

The winners advance to the final at 9:15 p.m. Saturday, with three further consolation games preceding that one.

Chief Has No Defense

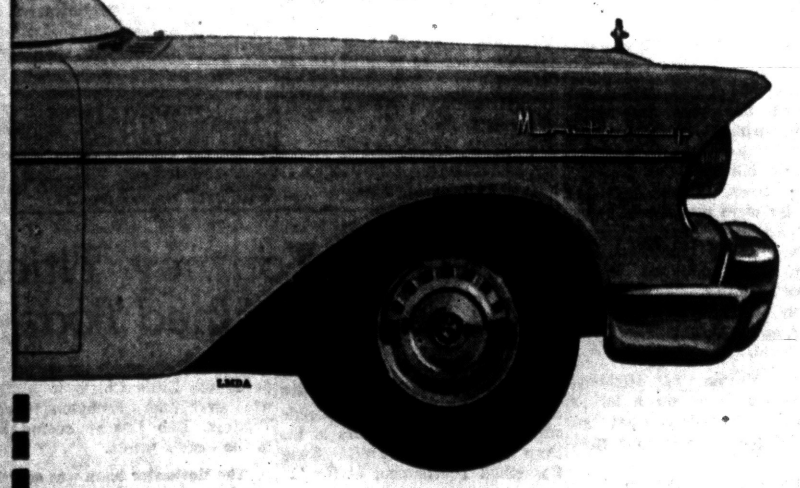

LOS ANGELES (AP)—San Francisco's Archie (Chief) Whitewater showed practically no defense last night in dropping a unanimous decision in 10 rounds to Don Jordan, former state lightweight champ. Jordan, of Los Angeles, weighed 142, Whitewater 145¾.

"Punchoscope" Picks Fullmer

(The speed and power of the punching of middleweight champion Ray Robinson and challenger Gene Fullmer were tested electronically by a combination of devices specially created for the task by the Lavoie Laboratories of Morganville, N.J. In the following story, Stephen D. Lavoie, an outstanding engineer in the field of radar and electronics who had a brief pro boxing career, picks the winner on the basis of the tests)

By STEPHEN D. LAVOIE
President, Lavoie Laboratories
Written For The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—In this world of automation, super jets, guided missiles and satellites, among other miracles of the electronic age, engineering and science has reached a point of near perfection. Instruments nobody ever dreamed of are measuring and calibrating things nobody ever thought could be accomplished to the astounding degree of speed and accuracy.

It was with this thought in mind that we created a system of instruments to measure the speed and power in the punches of Sugar Ray Robinson and Gene Fullmer, who are fighting for the world middleweight championship in Madison Square Garden next Wednesday.

The results of the tests, made on December 18, with Fullmer, and on December 19, with Robinson, are, of course, not entirely conclusive on the outcome of the fight. But scientifically and electronically speaking, with human factors taken into consideration, the "punchoscope" or "punchograph" they are calling our measuring devices, tell to a great extent not only an interesting story but also a fairly true one.

Electronically, Gene Fullmer will be the new middleweight champion of the world!

The machines cannot lie on basic principles. The osciolloscope which is used by the American services in nine missile programs and in one satellite project, is the finest measuring device in the world. The intervalometer measures the time interval and the accelerometer the speed and impact. These figures were translated into miles per hour and pounds of force. The entire system was triggered by a photo-electric cell attached to the regulation heavy punching bag which was used as the striking surface.

The punches tested on the bag were a standard right cross, first with eight-ounce gloves, then the six-ounce gloves that will be used in the fight; and a left jab with sixes only.

With six-ounce gloves Fullmer threw a right cross at a speed of 30.4 miles per hour with a force of 1260 pounds. Robinson delivered the same punch with a speed of 15.2 miles per hour and an impact of 1500 pounds—240 pounds harder but with only half the speed of Fullmer.

Fullmer's left jab, more of a semi-hook, travelled 17 miles per hour, faster even than Robinson's right cross, with a force of 1035 pounds. Robinson, using a regulation jab, registered only 14 miles per hour and 460 pounds. With the right cross and eight ounce gloves, Fullmer punched at 22 miles per hour with 1150 pounds and Robinson, 19 miles per hour and 1150 pounds.

Fighters can "kid" the human eye but they cannot play possum with electronics. In fighting, as in anything else, what you give you get.

The results paint a picture of the fight that will stand up to any boxing expert's analysis. Fullmer punched the bag the way he fights, with everything he has. Despite Robinson's bigger punch with the one right cross, the overall picture shows Fullmer stronger, faster and certainly expending more energy. Fullmer's speed, they tell me, was surprising in view of the fact that Robinson is considered one of the fastest punchers in boxing. The answer is simple. Robinson punches with deliberation and his best punches come in combinations.

Age, respective condition and individual talent naturally, must be considered. Fullmer is 10 years younger than Robinson and it must be assumed that both will be in top physical condition for the fight. Robinson's talents as a boxer and puncher must be, off the record, estimated as greater than Fullmer's. However, this could be balanced by age and determination. The question left open is whether or not Robinson can withstand Fullmer's youth, speed, energy and determination for 15 rounds. Electronics says he cannot.

Science and engineering predicts a Fullmer victory.

Donelli Sets Plans
New Coach at Columbia

NEW YORK (AP) — Aldo (Buff) Donnelli, Columbia's new football coach, today began laying plans to improve the fortunes of the much-beaten Lions.

But he's going to go at it with the same kind of material that his predecessor, Lou Little, had used for 27 years.

With an eye toward Donelli, Ralph Furey, Columbia's director of athletcis, said:

"There is no guarantee of a good football team at an Ivy League school. I'm sure Donelli knew that when he accepted the job and is willing to take a chance. After all, Little had his ups and downs. He had great teams and poor ones.

Donelli did not seem perturbed at the low ebb of Columbia's fortunes. Last year's varsity had a 3-6 record and the frosh had a 1-4 mark. To make matters even worse, the Lions will lose seven of their starters from this year's team.

Donelli is 49 and a graduate of Duquesne. He has been in football for 25 years.

Filter Cigarette Sales Booming

Special Brands Offset Recent Cancer Scares, Authority Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—Filter cigarette sales boomed 59.6 per cent ahead during the past year and captured 30 per cent of the American cigarette market, Printers' Ink reported today.

The increase for filters came at the expense of king size and regular brands, both of which saw sales declines during 1956, the magazine said in an article by Harry M. Wootten, consultant to the tobacco industry. Printers' Ink is a weekly devoted to the fields of advertising, selling and marketing.

Wootten said filter brands are more than offsetting cancer scares and predicted they would make further gains in 1957.

Consumption for 1956, Wootten said, is estimated at 395 billion cigarettes, a gain of 13 billion or 3.4 per cent over a year ago. It this estimate is confirmed by actual sales figures, it will exceed the record of 394,100,000,000 marketed in the United States in 1952.

Wootten said the cancer and smoking controversy "may be collapsing for lack of nourishment." He added:

"Scientists say it is next to impossible to 'prove' a negative proposition, but no positive proof of the anti-cigarette theory has been produced and more and more the statistics on which the original theory was based have been challenged as defective."

Evans Products Plans to Buy Haskelite Corp.

Evans Products Co. announced preliminary agreements yesterday.

E. S. Evans Jr., president, said both Evans and Haskelite boards of directors have approved the purchase on a basis of one share of Evans stock to three Haskelite shares.

Grey Expanse on Mars May Indicate Bad Drought

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Life on Mars is colored gray, or has just turned that way. And the planet perhaps is having a bad drought, an astronomer reported today.

These are findings from excellent peeks at Mars when it paid its closest visit this summer in 32 years.

Dark areas which presumably are plant life have long been seen on Mars. They have appeared in vivid greens and blues to observers during the height of the Martian spring.

This year they seemed to be an almost uniform gray in color tests said Carl Sagan of the Yerkes and McDonald observatories of the University of Chicago.

Perhaps the greens and blues seen before were optical illusions, or perhaps a severe drought cut down the lavish color this year, Sagan said.

Gray could be important for Martian life, he added. Gray-colored plants would absorb more of the weaker sun rays reaching that more distant planet.

Sagan described observations made by Dr. G. P. Kuiper and others in a speech prepared for the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science.

It still seems that Mars has plant life, but it must be a tougher, more efficient form than that found on earth, Sagan said.

The main evidence for life on Mars is seasonal color changes in its dark areas, and changes in their extent. Also, these dark areas reappear after being covered by huge Martian dust storms suggesting vegetation growing back again later.

Last summer the dark areas looked gray when compared with a color chart illuminated by daylight-quality light. Occasionally there were traces of green-blue pastels.

Great dust storms seen this year plus the re-formation of Mars' south polar ice cap after it melted may both indicate a drought in the equatorial regions of Mars, Sagan said. The dark areas are localized in this mid-belt.

He was sentenced by Eaton county Circuit Judge Archie MacDonald in the assault at gunpoint Sept. 4 on Patrolman Paul Stults, attorney Richard Shaw and Glenn Archer, Charlotte auctioneer.

Drunks Cost Money

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Allegheny County commissioners have a financial hangover — they say they're losing money on drunken drivers. Each time a motorist here is arrested for possible by a physician who charges $10—whatever his verdict. The commissioners discovered they're paying out more to doctors than they're taking in on fines.

Integration Raises Discipline Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional subcommittee says higher costs and an "appalling" increase in disciplinary and educational problems have resulted from racial integration of Washington schools.

Contending that white and Negro pupils were mixed too abruptly, the House District subcommittee said the local school system "is not a model" and "cannot be copied by those who seek an orderly and successful school operation."

Two members who protested the holding of hearings last September, Representatives Dewitt S. Hyde (R-Md) and A. L. Miller (R-Neb), arranged to meet today to decide whether they will file "additional views" to the subcommittee's final draft of its report.

The draft apparently had the approval of Chairman James C. Davis (D-Ga) and Rep. John Bell Williams (D-Miss), the two members active in the hearings, and of Rep. Woodrow Wilson Jones (D-NC). The remaining member, Rep. Joel T. Broyhill (R-Va), is recuperating from an illness and has not seen the draft.

Both before and during the September hearings, the Washington chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People sponsored protest meetings at which speakers contended the hearings were slanted and biased.

Mickey Rooney Will Play Cohan Role in TV Show

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Mickey, the Rooney, whose 1956 luck blew hot and cold, leaps way out in front in the beginning of 1957 with the biggest TV casting of the season, so far—"The George M. Cohan Story."

Mickey plays the immortal song and dance man, the same role that won James Cagney an Oscar when he did it on the screen.

Sam and Bella Spewack are writing the script for the NBC color-spectacular which will be telecast "live" from New York on May 11.

Just to give you an idea of the care that will be taken—Mickey has been asked to rehearse in New York six weeks before the telecast.

I told you a few weeks ago that Bob Hope was hoping to get Fernandel and Cantinflas for "Trouble in Paris" which he'll make in Europe. Well, he has Fernandel all signed, sealed and about to be delivered.

Cantinflas is under contract for his American pictures to Mike Todd and the deal to borrow the Mexican idol has not yet been consummated.

You have to say for Robin, he is nothing if not ambitious. He has been talking to Rita Hayworth about playing the femme lead with these three comics.

ALGER-TYPE STORY

A typical American story with a strong Horatio Alger flavor is that of Randy Wood, owner of Dot records. Randy comes from a little town of 6,000 people called Gallatin, Tenn. He owned a small radio store there and five years ago formed the Dot Record Company.

He is now talking with Barney Balaban, head of Paramount, about selling his company for close to $4,000,000. If he sells he becomes a vice president of Paramount.

Randy has under contract Helen Traubel, Charlton Heston and Tab Hunter. He is negotiating with Marlene Dietrich to make records. Who says America isn't the land of opportunity?

The character Rock Hudson plays in "Pylon" is that of author William Faulkner. It is not generally known that Faulkner was a barnstormes during the early days of aviation in 1932 and that he was also a star reporter on the New Orleans Picayune.

This is exactly what Rock will be seen doing in this semi-Faulkner biographical story, even to the mention of the real name of the New Orleans paper.

20th BUYS NOVEL

Academy Award winner A.B. Guthrie sold the rights to his novel, "Those Thousand Green Hills," to 20th Century Fox. I hear that he was paid $100,000 for a book that is soon expected to be high on the best-seller list.

David Weisbart, who directed "Love Me Tender," has been commissioned to do the directing and the stars wanted for the top roles are Don Murray and Eva Marie Saint.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: There were four generations at Debbie Reynolds' sister's family dinner for Christmas. Her grandmother, Mrs. Harmon, of El Paso, came to view her great-grandchild. They paid me a visit with Debbie wheeling the baby.

The Bob Stacks were at Larue for dinner, and Bob is worried about going on location with "Pylon" because that's the very date his bride expects her baby.

Lily Pons was at an adjoining table dining with Marusia and Nickey Toumanova.

When Jayne Mansfield guests with Jack Benny on his Jan. 10 "Shower of Stars" show, Jayne, who plays the violin, will compete with Jack for honors.

Holiday Toll 490 Prediction Made by Safety Council

CHICAGO (INS)—If you drink, don't drive.

That's the plea traffic enforcement officials throughout the country are counting on to save lives during the New Year holiday during which 490 persons may be killed on the nation's highways.

The National Safety Council predicts that number will die in traffic accidents from 6 p. m. tomorrow until midnight Tuesday.

If the predicted number of 490 deaths is reached, a new record would be set during a New Year's weekend. The old high is 407 deaths in the four ray period during the 1952-1953 celebration.

Since this coming weekend also is a four day period, policemen throughout the nation will strive to cut down the number of accidents by rigidly enforcing traffic laws.

The nation was shocked by a record 705 traffic deaths during the Christmas weekend.

The safety council warns: Drink, Drive, Die.

ID Badges to Be Issued at President's Inaugural

WASHINGTON (INS) — More than 6,300 official identification badges will be issued for various events connected with the inauguration of President Eisenhower Jan. 21.

William Armstrong of the inaugural committee said the badges —which go to newsmen, photographers, television and radio personnel and inaugural officials — will range in variety from a ribbon type with medallion for members of the inaugural committee, to round metal badges for newsmen. The national colors will be used in various combinations.

Officially, Gina Tops Rivals in Earnings

ROME (AP) — Gina Lollobrigida out-earned Sofia Loren in 1956, according to their tax returns.

But both stars—always according to the tax files—earned more than Anna Magnani, whose performance in "The Rose Tattoo" won Hollywood's Oscar last March.

The reported earnings: Gina, 30 million lire, or slightly less than $50,000; Sofia, a scant $16,000; Anna, less than $15,000.

Little Tragedy Top Story

Area Slaying Voted No. 16

Associated Press Poll Calls Tornado Weather Biggest News

A county-area tragedy which took place last summer has been named by the Associated Press as one of the state's outstanding stories for 1956.

The brutal slaying of three-year-old Martha Little by Howard Wayne Moore, which happened on Friday, July 27, in Lake Orion, was voted No. 16 in a poll of newspaper and radio editors.

Weather—Boiling up in death dealing tornadoes—was voted the biggest news in Michigan in 1956.

The top vote went to the vicious twister in which 19 persons lost their lives in western Michigan last April. Also high on list—in fourth place — was the "wildest weather night" in May, when 19 tornadoes slammed over a 300-mile wide area, killing three at Flint.

The November election won second place in the balloting as editors noted that landslides in two different directions gave whooping majorities to President Eisenhower and Gov. Williams.

Ranked No. 3 was the collapse of a new Consumers Power Co. office building at Jackson in which 10 workmen were killed under an avalanche of steel and concrete. Cause of the disaster was still being probed at year's end.

The machine-gun tornadoes in May were voted in fourth place. A companion poll of Associated Press staff members put the top stories in virtually the same order, although they ranked the building collapse ahead of the election result in news impact.

Other high spots of the year:

5. A sports story—The Detroit Tigers came under new ownership as a syndicate purchased the ball club from the Briggs family for a record 5½ million and Manager Bucky Harris resigned.

6. Industry—A slowdown in auto production pushed unemployment to a near-record high but factories hummed again as new models were introduced.

7. Two stories tied—The dramatic hunting season and the flight of Mrs. Anna Thorpe with $74,000 in state funds. Editors noted the survival of a 14-year-old hunter lost five days in the frozen north and the hunter slaying of a Newaygo County farmer. The disappearance of Mrs. Thorpe with auto license fees remained an unsolved mystery.

8. Dairy farmers engaged in a violence-marked strike that ended with higher pay for them and higher milk prices around the state.

9. Two state troopers were shot to death by a berserk gunman barricaded at his home in Flint.

10. New one-man grand juries were set up to investigate reported corruption in Detroit area communities.

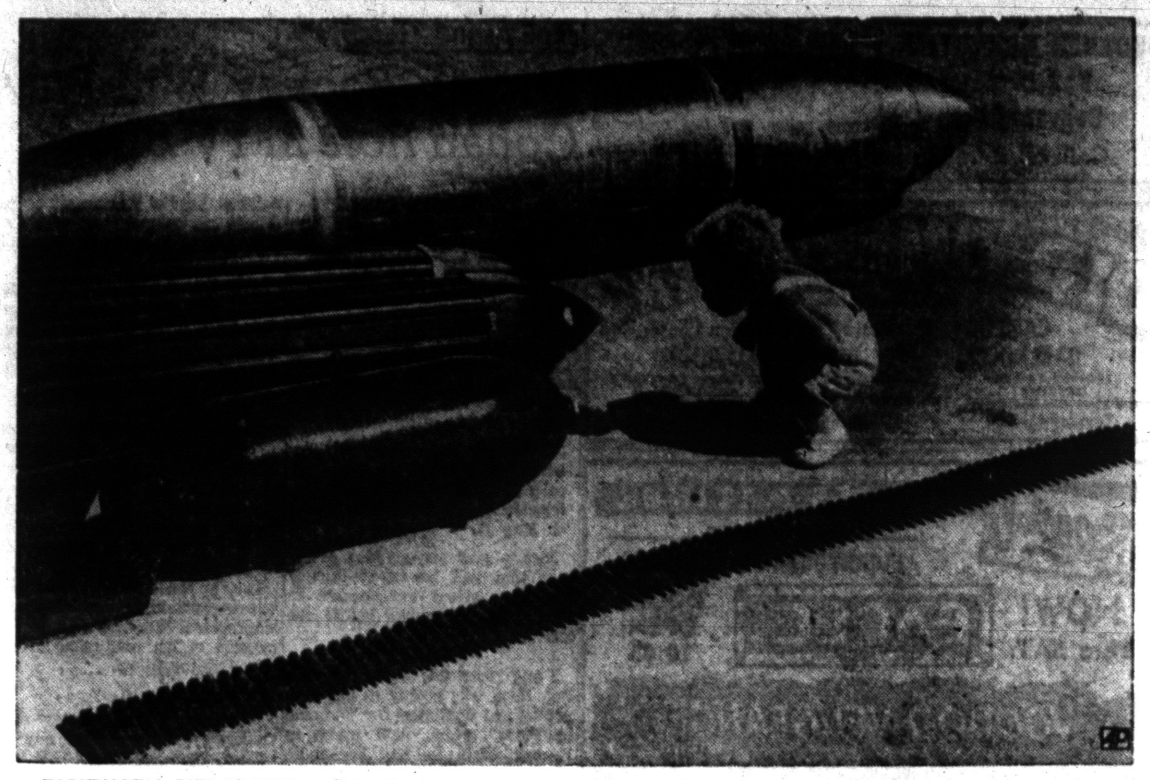

Ranking after the top 10 were these stories:

11. Concerted campaign for traffic safety brings sharp drop in fatal accidents; 12. Plans for a toll road in Michigan are dropped but progress is fast on the big Straits of Mackinac bridge; 13. Legislature passes aid for mentally retarded after bitter hassle but blocks Gov. Williams on jobless aid; 14. School teacher Patricia Burdick slain on lonely Upper peninsula road, prison parolee nabbed as slayer; 15. Three bandits rob Flint bank of $62,000, caught after gunfight with police;

16. Three-year-old Martha Little slain. 17. Politicians get into 36-cent tax case of evicted Grand Rapids couple; 18. Row over Miss Pepsi in Gold Cup race ends with Seattle boat winner; 19. Mrs. Betty Kehl freed in abduction mystery slaying of husband at Flint; 20. Three die in flaming Greyhound bus-truck crash near Monroe.

Also given a "top story" vote was the bizarre Hermiz-Hamilton murder trial in Detroit after the "triangle" knife slaying of the woman's husband.

U.S. Leaders Honor Wilson

Ike, Truman, Hoover Laud Former President on Eve of Centennial

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three living men who have served in the White House paid tribute last night to Woodrow Wilson, the World War I president who was born 100 years ago today.

Eulogies from President Eisenhower and former Presidents Truman and Hoover were issued by the Woodrow Wilson Centennial Commission on the eve of special Ceremonies scheduled today at Staunton, Va., Wilson's birthplace.

* * *

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who has continued to live here since her husband died in 1924, arranged to attend the Virginia centennial observance.

Eisenhower's statement was prepared for a ceremony today in Paris, the scene of Wilson's work in helping to create the League of Nations after World War I.

"Wilson's defense of human rights and liberties makes him a splendid symbol of the enduring friendship that has bound our countries together since the days of Lafayette," Eisenhower said.

"Wilson's concept of a great family of nations living peacefully together and ruled with justice under law is still our dedicated goal."

Hoover, who served in the Wilson administration and in Paris at the peace conference, also referred to Wilson's work in helping draft the covenant of the League of Nations. No greater monument than this could be erected to the ideas and ideals of Woodrow Wilson."

Truman wrote to the centennial commission, which was established by Congress, that "I am pleased indeed that your efforts are being directed towards giving Woodrow Wilson his proper place among our five or six greatest presidents."

Wilson was a Democrat, as is Truman.

Committee to Organize League of Subdivisions

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — The Residents Committee for the Formation of a League, a group which seeks in the near future the organzation of subdivision associations prepared a report, which was released this week, to aid in the compilation of a mailing list and to assist the bylaws of the committee.

Committee Secretary, George L. Squires, appealed to all subdivision associations to contact him in order to insure inclusion on the mailing list. In addition to usual procedures, committee members will visit each subdivision in the township, stated Squires.

Elliott S. Rogers, Residents Committee Chairman, says that it is "awe-inspiring to have the idea of an existing potential for a league of associations of this type."

He feels that good organization is an essential factor to the success of the plan. This includes having leaders who are trained in the administration and affairs of non-profit organizations.

Rogers added that the goals include not only tangibles like good roads but intangibles such as preservation of beauty as well.

In conclusion, the committee hopes that all civic minded residents will consult their association officials on this matter.

Train Derailment Kills 2, Injures 12

BROSSEAU, Que. (AP) —A train carrying about 150 Royal Canadian Air Force men and women plunged off the tracks at a switching point here last night, killing the engineer and fireman. About 12 of the RCAF passengers suffered bruises and lacerations.

The engine and seven cars of the 10-car Canadian National Railway train left the rails. Witnesses said the engine seemed to leap in the air as it reached the switch. It dug up about 400 feet of track before overturning on its side.

The baggage car and engine uncoupled when the engine left the tracks and none of the other cars overturned, although they were tilted in two "Z" formations along the track.

Trapped inside the locomotive and killed were engineer John Ruttenberg and fireman Paul Lafontaine, both of Montreal. The injured RCAF personnel suffered bruises and lacerations.

The servicemen and women were being transferred from their bases at St. John's, Que., to other stations across Canada.

A defective switch was believed to have caused the derailment police said.

Retreat Review for Gruenther

Hold Formal Ceremony in Honor of General, Retiring From Army

WASHINGTON (AP)—The foot soldiers and the big brass turn out today to say an official farewell to Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, former Supreme Commander of the Nato forces in Europe.

Gruenther, military colleague of President Eisenhower both in World War II campaigning and later when Eisenhower was the first Nato commander, is completing 38 years of army service and retiring from active duty effective Monday.

In a formal ceremony late today, the 3rd Infantry Regiment, crack ceremonial outfit stationed at nearby Ft. Myer, marches in a "retreat review" past Gruenther.

The Air Force planned—weather permitting—to make its salute with a flight of 21 planes, including jet fighters, over the review stand.

Places in the reviewing stand at Ft. Lesley J. McNair were provided for Secretary of Defense Wilson; Secretary of the Army, Wilber M. Bruckner; Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army Chief of Staff, and Maj. Gen. John G. Van-Houten, commander of the Military District of Washington.

Gruenther submitted a request for retirement last fall, stating it was for personal reasons, and asking that it become effective late this year.

Subsequently, the American Red Cross named Gruenther to become president of that organization upon his retirement from the army.

Meanwhile, the Airlines National Terminal Service, Inc., operators of the airport, has increased patrols in the parking lot while planning permanent security measures.

2 Plead Guilty to City Holdup

Joseph Page, Kenneth Marshall Are Arraigned in Pharmacy Theft

Two men pleaded guilty today to one Pontiac holdup after confessing two others, Pontiac police say, for a total of more than $300.

They are Joseph Page, 21, of 497 Ditmar Ave. and Kenneth Marshall, 18, of 314½ Wessen St., who were arraigned this morning before Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams after waiving examination yesterday in Pontiac Municipal Court.

Page and Marshall pleaded guilty to the $56 stickup Dec. 17 of Riddick's Pharmacy, 373 Franklin Rd., one of four Pontiac holdups in the space of two weeks.

They also confessed, Det. Insp. Clark M. Wheaton said, to taking $110 from the Center Street Market, 10 Center St., Dec. 14, and $150 from the Progressive Oil Co. station, 477 S. Saginaw St., Dec. 20.

RETURNED TO JAIL

Both men were returned to jail under $5,000 bonds apiece pending sentencing by Judge Adams Jan. 21 on charges of robbery, armed.

Assistant Prosecutor Paul Mandel said Marshall made the request for the early hearing as a means to avoid a Municipal Court appearance today on a misdemeanor charge and Page agreed to the speedy arraignment.

Meanwhile, Mandel said, another warrant may be asked today following a statement by one of two other men held for investigation of armed robbery.

The suspects are Velton Wilder, 18, of 476 Branch St. and Charles L. Hall, 28, of 314½ Wessen St., held, Mandel said, as possible members of a loosely knit holdup ring believed operating the past few months in and around Pontiac.

Both men were picked up by Pontiac police at the time Page and Marshall were arrested, the day following the gas station and grocery store robberies.

Three More Join Race for Judgeship

LANSING (AP) — Three more candidates have jumped into the race for circuit judge in the Upper Peninsula's 32nd judicial district.

Nominating petitions were filed with state elections officials by Leonard McManman, Ironwood Democrat, William G. Cloon, Ironwood Republican, and Robert R. Wright, Iron County probate judge.

Frank E. Hook of Ironwod, former Democratic congressman, had filed nominating petitions earlier.

The judgeship, vacated by the death of Thomas J. Landers, will be filed in the Apr. 1 election. It could be filled before then by appointment by Gov. Williams, but the appointee would have to run for re-election in order to keep the seat.

Wheat Futures Grow Firmer

CHICAGO (AP)—In another mixed market new crop wheat futures firmed while soybeans eased on the Board of Trade today. There wasn't much price change in other grains.

A Weather Bureau five-day forecast which promised little or no moisture throughout the Southwestern winter wheat belt was the main stimulant behind early buying in new crop wheat. After gains running to nearly a cent, prices fell back.

Dealings were a little more active than they have been so far in this holiday period, but they still were slower than normal. The market will close at 12 noon Central Standard Time Monday, New Year's Eve.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ lower to ½ higher, March $2.40⅝; corn ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, March $1.35⅝; oats ⅛ to ½ lower, March 77⅝; rye ¼ lower to ½ higher, March $1.45½; soybeans ½ to 1¼ lower, January $2.43¾; and lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, January $14.45.

Auto Air Spring Set for Delivery

NEW YORK (AP)—United States Rubber Co. announced yesterday it has begun delivery of the first air springs to be used on an American automobile. The car is Cadillac's 1957 Eldorado Brougham.

The air springs will replace the conventional steel coil and leaf springs which have been standard equipment in the motor industry for years. The first Eldorado Brougham equipped with air springs is scheduled for completion after Feb. 1.

G. Raymond Cuthertson, vice president and general manager of U.S. Rubber Co.'s tire division, said air springs "will give the automobile." He predicted that they will be "in general use in the automotive industry by 1960."

Among other things, air springs will enable designers to lower the height of cars without reducing ground clearance, Cuthertson said.

7 Injured as 2 Cars Crash on Dixie Hwy.

Seven persons were injured in a two car collision at 2546 Dixie Highway near Saginaw Trail early last night.

Ernst Rudolph Lendler, 38, 1049 James K. Blvd. was believed to have attempted a left turn from Dixie and failed to see an approaching car driven by Marshall Sanders, 31, 827 Broadway, Davisburg.

Sanders told Waterford Township Police that he was heading north in the outside lane and saw the Lendler car too late to avoid a collision.

Taken to the hospital, treated and released, were Lendler, Sanders and his wife Margaret, 31, and children Gail, 6, and Gregory, 4; Alton Sanders, 52 of Norwalk, Conn. and his wife, Florence, 49, also of Norwalk.

Beagle Bagged; Bromleys Cheer Chip's Return

Chip, a pet Beagle, belonging to the Ray Bromley family, 27 First St., Oxford, is home again this week after being missing for several months . . . and all because the right person remembered a description of the dog.

Last fall the Bromleys reported their missing pet to newspapers and to the Oakland County Animal Shelter, 1200 E. Walton Blvd.

Just last week sharp-eyed R. T. Vliet, who is associated with the shelter, went on a routine call to pick up a dog about 20 miles away from the Bromley home. Vliet took one look at the pooch, remembered the description given him in the fall, and dropped by the Bromley home to check ownership.

Stocks Show Upward Trend

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices continued mixed with a slight upward trend in fairly active stock market trading early this afternoon.

Key stocks moved to the plus or minus side by fractions to around a point. A few stocks made larger gains.

Oils were helped by the start of clearing operations in the Suez Canal. The glowing prediction of Commerce Secretary Weeks for 1957 business was encouraging but transactions to establish income tax gains or losses were still going on. This tended to create a spotty pattern.

Leading oils advanced as a group. Most of the pivotal steel stocks were gainers. Rails and motors were somewhat irregular. Aircrafts showed losses and miscellaneous manufacturing stocks edged off.

Lukens Steel ran ahead around 6 points, reaching a new high. Bethlehem and Youngstown gained around a point each and U. S. Steel was steady.

Gulf Oil advanced around 3 points, Royal Dutch and Standard Oil (New Jersey) about a point apiece. Texas Co. rose a major fraction.

Ford dropped a fraction while Studebaker-Packard rose slightly.

Illinois Central and Southern Railway each rose fractionally while losses were taken by Santa Fe, Baltimore & Ohio and Southern Pacific.

Boeing fell around 2 points, United Aircraft and Douglas around a point each, despite news about defense contracts.

No New Mill Tax Writeoff

Steel May Boost Prices

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—In denying a fast tax writeoff for new steel mills, Uncle Sam may have let some of the steam out of the business expansion program that is making money so tight.

At the same time he may have put more steam into the pressure for still higher prices.

These apparent cross-purpose trends come about this way:

Some steel companies say they now will defer or reconsider part of their program to build more steel-making capacity. Others say they will go on building but must have higher prices to pay for it.

And if steel prices go up again, as now seems likely, that will work through other industries as it did last summer and fall and build up pressure for higher prices all along the line.

The steel industry had asked tax concessions through a fast depreciation allowance for the proposed new facilities, totaling nearly 2½ billion dollars. Washington refused this Wednesday.

If the building programs are halted or delayed, this may also affect plans of other industries — if for no other reason than by delays in getting structural steel.

This would ease somewhat the big program for industrial expansion or stretch it over more months and years than first planned. Washington has estimated that the expansion boom will hit a new peak in the months just ahead.

Even before the steel tax decision, however, there had been a few signs of slowdown in the big building programs that had strained the financial markets.

The steel companies aren't likely to give up their fight for new tax rules governing depreciation.

Their central argument about depreciation allowances is that they are no longer realistic. They say the cost of replacing old steel mills is now so much higher than when the mills were first built that they should be allowed more liberal allowances in writing off the depreciation of their mills — that it should be figured on a replacement basis rather than on the basis of original cost.

New Engine Offered by Pontiac Division

Development of a 317 horsepower engine, intended primarily for stock car competition, was announced yesterday by the Pontiac Motor Division.

The power plant incorporates a new triple two-barrel carburetor system available with either Syncromesh or Hydra-Matic transmissions. Compression ratio on the engine is 10 to 1.

In addition to the extra carburetion, increased horsepower is the result of camshaft timing which permits both intake and exhaust valves to remain open longer to improve engine breathing, division officials say.

Other modifications include a harmonic balancer and valve lifters having special tuning, a generator with increased pulley diameter and heavier valve springs.

County Holds Man as Robbery Suspect

A former Detroiter, Andrew Thompson, 34, has been linked to the $5,500 holdup two years ago of the Fox & Hounds Inn, N. Woodward near E. Long Lake Rd., Bloomfield Hills.

Thompson is being held in the Oakland County Jail by the Oakland County Prosecutors office after being extradited from Illinois. He had been held in the Cook County Jail in Chicago for 15 months in connection with a murder there. He was not prosecuted.

Three of the four bandits who committed the robbery were convicted and are serving prison terms. Thompson will appear at a court hearing Wednesday.

Fuel Injection May Slow Research on Gas Turbine

DETROIT (AP)—The advent of fuel injection may have set back even further the adaptation of gas turbine and free piston automobile engines.

Fuel injection still is far from general in the auto industry; it still is an extra-cost option. Chevrolet, first to announce it, has put a $485 price tag on it.

However, every car maker has been working on the systems for several years. American Motors has announced it will have a fuel system on one of its Rambler models next spring. Pontiac is making a test with it on a series of cars assigned to dealers for their own use only.

Continuing progress in development of the gas turbine engine is reported by engineers working on it. Generally they say they are making headway in their search for alloys or substitutes for the critical materials required for the turbines.

CAPTURES INTEREST

There is no question, however, that right now the fuel injection system has captured the interest of the mechanically-inclined car owner.

Claimed as advantages of the fuel injection system are: Better over-all fuel economy; faster warmup; improved engine output; elimination of icing; reduced stalling tendencies and fuel cut-off during deceleration.

Basically the functions of the fuel injection system and the carburetor are the same—providing the proper mixture of fuel and air to the engine cylinders. But in a carbureed fuel system fuel and air are mixed in the carburetor itself and then fed to each cylinder.

FUEL, AIR FED IN

In a fuel injection system, the fuel and air are fed separately to each cylinder and then mixed just before entering the cylinder's combustion chamber.

The fuel cut-off that occurs during deceleration is a major factor in the greater economy the fuel injection system provides. Presumably it should also greatly reduce the volume of unburned hydrocarbons discharged through the exhaust. That, in turn, should substantially reduce whatever part motor vehicle exhaust may have in the building up of smog problems in certain areas of the country.

But industry engineers working on the air pollution problem are not making unqualified claims in this connection. John M. Campbell, one of the industry's leading engineering authorities on the air pollution research, told a recent news conference the industry does not have "an immediate solution" to the problem. He added, however that it still hopes to find one.

Many more makers probably will offer fuel injection systems during 1957 for competitive reasons. The factory-installed cost probably will come down as demand for the units increases.

But, like automatic transmissions, the systems will undergo much refinement during the next several years. That may delay any marked cut in their cost to the car owner.

The first fuel injection system to be offered on American-made passenger cars is a mechanically-operated one. The unit to be offered by American Motors is an electronically operated device produced by Bendix.

An American Motors spokesman has said it will be priced much lower than the Chevrolet unit.

Trained Brains to Work 'Brains'

Electronic Equipment Frees Office People for Creative Jobs

NEW YORK (AP) — Wanted: 170,000 trained specialists to operate the 10,000 electronic "Brains" that will be in use in this country by 1966.

This call was sounded by Thomas J. Watson Jr., president of International Business Machines Corp., in a yearend statement.

"One of the most serious challenges facing the business machines industry today," said Watson, "is the training of specialists who can apply and use electronic data processing equipment. It is estimated that by 1966 there will be 10,000 electronic computers at work in the U. S., requiring a force of over 170,000 experts to analyze and apply problems to them."

Watson attributed the industry's sensational postwar growth to a "wholly new range of electronic products."

LET MACHINES DO THE JOB

"Such equipment, geared to the elimination of the dull and repetitive tasks of office workers, will free these people for more interesting and creative jobs," he said. "Machines designed for scientific management and research are extending the reach of both the businessman and the scientists by putting in their hands computing tools of tremendous power."

Watson said revenues of the business machines industry have "nearly trebled" since World War II, "and with these new products finding greater acceptance and use, there is every indication that the industry will enjoy continued expansion in 1957 and the coming years."

SOMETHING DIFFERENT—Whimsical Gerald McBoing-Boing and his friends have brought a new type of cartoon comedy to television. "The Boing-Boing Show," a weekly series, is televised in color Sunday from 5:30 to 6 p.m. over CBS.

Gerald and His Friends Rely Upon Subtle Humor

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A new kind of show is being televised on Sunday from 5:30 to 6 p.m. It is all-cartoon, unsponsored and simply wonderful.

The name of it is "The Boing Boing Show," on CBS. Do you remember the little boy in the Oscar-winning cartoon short who spoke only in sound effects like "boing" and "ah-ooga."

Well, Gerald is the emcee of the show, and his noises are interpreted by Bill Goodwin. Together they introduce a variety of subjects.

The series has been put together by United Productions of America Pictures, Inc.

CBS is so sold on the project that it is putting the show on without a sponsor. It shouldn't be sponsorless long.

IMAGINATIVE IDEAS

The guiding force behind the show is UPA President Stephen Bowustow, whose imaginative ideas have revolutionized first the cartoon industry and then TV commercials.

The UPA technique of wacky, immobile characters against impressionistic backgrounds was born of necessity, he told me.

"When we started out with the company in 1943, we couldn't afford the expense of trying to make cartoons look like live action," he said.

"We had to invent new methods that were cheaper. What we developed wasn't new; it had been done for years in magazines and by cartoonists like Virgil Partch."

Bosustow was born in Victoria, B. C., and sought his fortune in Hollywood as a musician and cartoonist. Laid off at Disney's in the movie depression of 1941, he was unable to find work at other studios. So he decided to start his own. Two years later, his dream came true.

SUCCESS AT LAST

UPA struggled along making training films and cartoon shorts, then burst into prominence with characters like Boing Boing and Mr. Magoo. It has since helped bring wit and imagination to TV commercials.

"About 40 per cent of the work in our studios here and in New York and London is in commercials," said Bosustow, a tall, good-looking man with a dark mustache.

"With this as a basis, we have been able to branch out into other fields such as the CBS show. Our next plan is to make all-cartoon features."

Devotees of the slapstick antics of Donald Duck may be a little baffled at first by this animated color cartoon program which concerns the adventures and avocations of Gerald Boing-McBoing, a bright lad who cannot say a word—but can make interesting noises.

Brilliant art techniques, excellent music and informed wit make this a distinctly different type of program.

A GOOD SIGN

One of the best things about the Boing-Boing Show is that you rather feel you're the only living person who really enjoys it.

* * *

On the other hand, you could feel you're the only living person who doesn't enjoy it. Either way, it's a-sign of a good program.

Say Sumatra Revolt Leader Still Free

JAKARTA (AP)—The government radio in the capital of rebellious North Sumatra announced today that the leader of the army revolt, Col. Maludin Simbolon, had escaped from Medan, the North Sumatran capital.

Army sources said Mustang fighters and B25 bombers of the Indonesian air force took off from Jakarta for North Sumatra this morning.

They said the planes, in squadron strength, were going to help beat off any attack by Simbolon against officers trying to reinstate the authority of Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo's central government.

Simbolon's second in command, Lt. Col. Djamin Gintings, announced yesterday he had taken command of the army in North Sumatra. He pledged his loyalty to President Sukarno and said he would support the central government.

Goat Blazes Into Fame

MALIBU, Calif. (AP)—Tweedie, a goat that fled her home in the Santa Monica Mountains when a brush fire swept close last Wednesday, has returned home a celebrity. Tweedie, an ordinary milking goat before the disastrous fire, was featured on three TV news shows before her owner, Robert Fournier, found her and took her back home. Tweedie came across a news photographer and followed him to the Zuma fire station. She became a pet of the firemen.

Would Rearm Japan

HONOLULU (AP)—Mitsuo Fuchida, former Japanese naval aviator who led the aerial attack on Pearl Harbor and now is a Christian missionary, said here last night he favors Japanese rearmament. He said the reason is the unsettled world situation.

Fuchida left for the mainland after a three-hour stop for an evangelical tour of the United States.

Steel Prices Raised on Special Products

CHICAGO (AP) — Inland Steel Co. has increased prices on "extras" in line with hikes made by other steel companies, a spokesman for Inland said today.

The increases average about 3 per cent and apply to hot rolled sheets, cold rolled sheets, enameling iron and some other products. They involve such extra work as cutting to specific lengths and maintaining special quality.

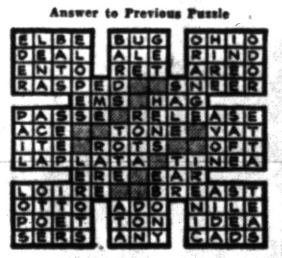

Fire Strikes Refinery

ALMA (AP) — An explosion and fire struck the Leonard Oil Refinery at Alma Thursday night, but no injuries were reported. Damages were estimated unofficially at about $20,000. The fire was put out within an hour. It followed a blast in the hydrofining tower where the sulpher content of gasoline and kerosene is reduced. The cause was not determined.

Strike Still Unsettled

EAST ALTON, Ill. (AP) — A six-hour meeting of federal conciliators with company and union representatives brought no agreement in a strike at the Olin Matheison Chemical Corp., East Alton plant. No new meeting has been set.

Checker Game? Played for Keeps —Four Weeks

WHITTIER, Alaska (AP) — Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, president of the National Council of Churches, today could make these two entries in his book of results upon completion of his holiday-season tour of Alaska military installations:

Checker games won: one.

Backslider's retrieved: at least one, for four weeks, anyway.

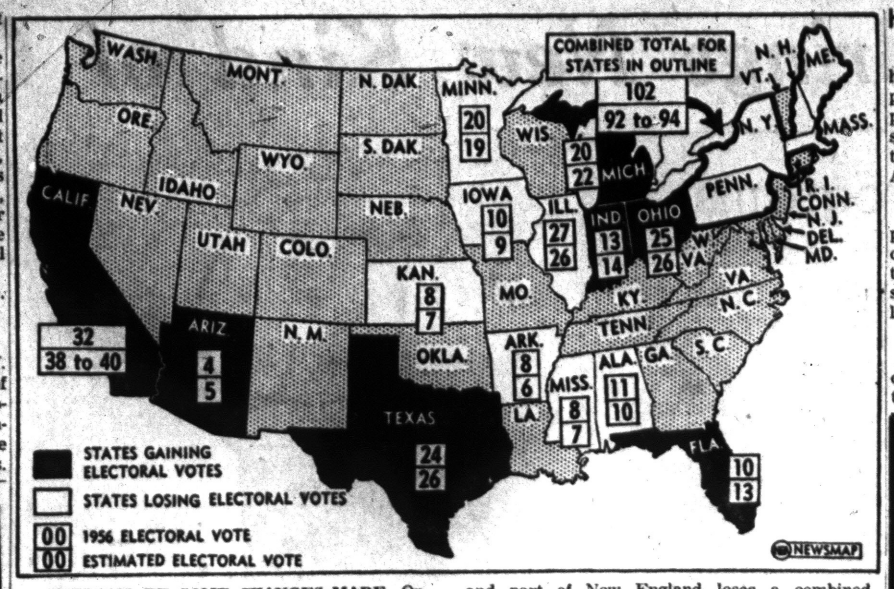

His vanquished opponent and the admitted backslider are the same, Pfc. Simeon Nelobidev, an Eskimo soldier from the Pribilof Islands and checker champion at the port of Whittier.

Dr. Blake, a devotee of the game, heard of Nelobidev's championship and challenged him to a game. Nelobidev agreed but said he usually liked to make a slight wager on each game. Dr. Blake, who had learned his opponent was a back-sliding Presbyterian, agreed, stipulating the penalty for a loss by the soldier would be four weeks attendance at chapel services.

Nelobidev never had a chance.

Father of Two Killed

DETROIT (AP) — Norman V. Thompson, 45-year-old father of two, was killed Thursday in a two-car crash at a northwest side intersection. Two occupants of the other car received minor injuries.

THERE'LL BE SOME CHANGES MADE—On the basis of new population estimates for 1956 by the Census Bureau, there could be a shift of between 15 and 20 electoral votes resulting from the 1960 census. California will gain the most, with an increase of six to eight electoral votes, while the Northeast—New York, Pennsylvania and part of New England—loses a combined total of eight to 10. Census Bureau cites a movement of people from farms and small towns to cities. Newsmap, above, shows states likely to be affected, and the number of electoral votes before and after the estimated changes.

Plan Two New Elementaries

Waterford to Vote on School Plans

A special meeting of the Waterford Township Board of Education will be held January 9th for the purpose of approving plans and specifications on two new elementary schools.

One building will be located on Maceday Drive near Williams Lake road and the other, on the corner of Elizabeth Lake road at Lockhaven.

"The big question right now," Superintendent William Shunck said, "is what we are going to do with the 1,200 or so kindergartners who will be registering in the fall.

"Only a little over 300 students will graduate in June," he added. The two new buildings will not be completed until late fall.

At the present time there are 17 schools in operation plus 4 rooms in the CAI Building and three more in the United Presbyterian Church. These had to be approved by the State Fire marshal and the State Superintendent of Public schools before they could be used as school rooms.

"I believe that we transport more children than any other school district in the state of Michigan," Shunck said.

Total enrollment is close to the 10,000 mark with more than 4,000 children enrolled in the kindergarten, first, second and third grades. Over 2,000 7th, 8th and 9th graders are being taught in the school district.

Timely Topic Indeed

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Gerald A. Swanick, the Republican candidate for mayor, chose an apt subject when he spoke to the Pima County Young Republican Club. The crowd at yesterday's meeting totaled 11 persons. Last week's meeting attracted seven persons. Swanick's theme "The need for organization."

Suits Quite Unsuited

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—An effort to put discharged convicts in later styled suits is being considered by prison authorities. A spokesman explained, "when a convict is turned out he is given a new suit of 10-year vintage. You can spot a newly freed convict a block away in one of those new but ancient-modeled suits."

Sees Trial Delay for 4 Named in Oil Map Theft

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. Atty. Malcolm Anderson says four men indicted for conspiracy in the theft of valuable geological oil maps from Gulf Oil Corp. will not be brought to trial until next June "at the earliest."

The four were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury yesterday. The indictment charges them with conspiring to transport stolen property in interstate commerce from Jan. 1, 1952 to last Dec. 18.

Paid for Good Deed

NILES (AP)—A good deed helped William Hultquist lead police to a wrongdoer. Driving back with gasoline for his stalled car, he picked up hitchhiker Larry Hecht, who explained his car had been in a minor accident. After dropping Hecht at his home, Hultquist reached his auto to find it had been rammed in the rear. Nearby was Hecht's damaged car. Police ticketed Hecht for failing to report an accident.
