Dixie Highway Crash Takes 3 Lives Today

Clues Lacking as 1,000 Search for Schoolgirl, 8

Former Sex Offender Is Held as Suspect in Kalamazoo

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Long hours of searching by nearly a thousand persons left police still without a clue today to the whereabouts of 8-year-old Jeannie Singleton.

Darkness last night interrupted the hunt for the pert, brown-eyed second-grader, but police said they would continue to comb city streets and neighboring woodlands and swamps.

Little Jeannie, her right leg crippled by rheumatic fever, vanished Monday afternoon on her way home from school. Police fear she may have been abducted by a sex deviate.

She was last seen on busy Douglas street when she paused for rest while climbing the last hill to her house. Her new shoes evidently hurt her feet.

A 17-year-old busboy, described as a "friend of the family" who dated Jeannie's 14-year-old sister, Mary, was jailed when police found he had a record as a sex offender.

Kalamazoo detectives said the youth left his job in a downtown hotel about 2:30 p. m. Monday, his first day at work, but tells conflicting stories of his whereabouts that afternoon.

CAN'T REMEMBER

According to Capt. Riley Stewart, the boy said he went to a downtown movie but can't remember the name of the picture. He said he paid 50 cents admission, but matinee prices proved to be 40 cents.

He is awaiting a lie detector test.

Police Capt. Riley Stewart said, "I think the chances that she is dead are greater than those that she is alive."

Jeannie's father, Steve, is a truck driver with five other children.

Sheriff's deputies, National Guardsmen and the entire ROTC at Western Michigan College have joined Kalamazoo police in the widespread search for Jeannie.

Ten State Police cruisers dispatched here from Lansing and both pilots and cadets of Kalamazoo's Civil Air Patrol unit aided them.

HUNT DELAYED

Police weren't notified until 9:30 p. m. Monday that Jeannie hadn't come home from school. Mrs. Singleton said she thought Jeannie might have gone to a friend's home for dinner.

Senate Voting on Road Plan

Hotly Disputed Measure Faces GOP Opposition; Ike Substitute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate begins voting today on the hotly disputed highway bill with Democrats confident they can defeat Republican efforts to substitute President Eisenhower's plan.

Sponsors of the Democratic bill predicted it would win final passage by late today or tonight.

Republican leaders were ready to offer the President's road-building proposal in place of the Democratic bill sponsored by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn).

But they conceded privately this move had little chance of success. Rather, they were pinning hopes on a plan to send the Gore bill back to the Public Works Committee and thus shelve it for the time being.

The administration is counting on getting much more support in the House.

Under either the Gore bill or the Eisenhower proposal the government would embark on one of the biggest nondefense spending programs in U.S. history.

Pontiac, County Escape Brunt of Violent Storm

Pontiac was spared the brunt of a violent storm which sprang up yesterday afternoon, lashing Michigan and the midwest with driving rains and strong winds.

The storm, touched off when a slow-moving cold front came up against a muggy heat wave which blanketed the eastern third of the nation, dumped .87 of an inch of rain on the Pontiac area.

A sharp drop in temperatures followed the humid spell routed by the storm.

Power lines were knocked down in scattered sections of the county and transformer fuses blew out in Pontiac, affecting about 100 homes. The county service failures affected about 300 homes for a short period.

Tornado warnings were issued twice last night in various sections of the state. One warning covered the southern edges of Monroe and Lenawee counties. A later alert affected a wide section bounded by Grand Haven, Jackson, Kalamazoo and Saginaw.

A Grand Rapids pilot reported sighting a tornado east of Grand Haven, but said it disappeared in about 15 seconds without touching the ground.

A Clinton County father and son were killed by lightning as they stood under a tree on their farm north of Lansing, and a traffic death near Ann Arbor was attributed in part to the storm.

Radio station WPON went off the air around 9 a.m. today as a result of a burned out condenser at the transmitter. Engineers said lightning may have struck a transmitter tower last night, causing the delayed break-down. The station returned to the air about 11 a.m.

MERCURY PLUMMETS

The mercury plummeted from a high of 84 degrees at 3 p.m. to 64 degrees at 5:30 yesterday. Many downtown workers were caught in the deluge.

Nearly two inches of rain have fallen here since Sunday, helping to make up for the lack of moisture which threatened farm crops.

The forecast is for partly cloudy and cool tonight and tomorrow. Low tonight is expected to be 44-48, high tomorrow 64-68. At 8 a.m. today, the downtown temperature was 54 degrees.

State Senate Passes FEPC

House Expected to OK Changes; Gov. Williams May Get Bill Today

LANSING (AP)—Both houses of the Michigan Legislature have passed fair employment practices (FEPC) legislation today for the first time in history.

The Senate joined the House yesterday in approving one of the most controversial measures in state history.

The House must still agree to amendments made by the Senate, but several House supporters said they thought that would be a mere formality and that the bill might be sent to the governor today.

Gov. Williams, the first chief executive in Michigan history to advocate a law against job discrimination, hailed the Senate passage as "an historic step forward in the direction of more effective democracy."

Williams had fought for more than six years for the bill to forbid hiring and union membership discrimination "because of race, creed, color, religion, national origin or ancestry."

* * *

ISSUE FOR 6 YEARS

In Michigan the FEPC bill has torn the Legislature for six years, and been political issue in three governorship campaigns. Always before it has been defeated by Republicans in at least one legislative chamber.

Here's How Senators Voted on FEPC Bill

LANSING (AP)—Following is the vote by which the Senate passed the fair employment practices (FEPC) bill:

Yes — Broomfield, Coleman, Francis, Greene, Hittle, Minnema, Nichols, Roy, Smith, Stoney—Republicans (10) and Blondy, Doyle, Gibbs, Lane, Nicholson, Novak, Rahoi, Rozycki, Ryan, Swainson—Democrats (10): Total 20.

No—Andrews, Beadle, Christman, Dehmel, Faulkner, Feenstra, Geerlings, Graebner, Hutchinson, Morris, Porter, Prescott, Vander Werp — Republicans: Total 13.

Absent—Brown—Democrat (1).

Claim Check Needed to Collect $1,100

Bonanazagram jackpot has grown to $1,100.

If answer for puzzle No. 11 (run last week) contain no winner, the total will go to $1,200, on the puzzle appearing this week.

But don't forget to submit your claim check if you think you have won. Every contestant who makes an entry should save the duplicate claim check (see rules on page 30 today).

When published Friday, if your claim check is identical with the answer, bring it to the Press promptly to claim the award.

You must present your claim check by the deadline (see rules) to receive an award.

And remember, only missing letters are considered now. Punctuation does not count toward a winning answer.

Not Hard to Spot

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Police figured they shouldn't have much trouble finding Mrs. Schatze A. Weicker's stolen car. The car was a white 1955 Cadillac hardtop convertible, ornamented in gold and worth $6,500.

Flaming Crash Takes Three Lives

Pontiac Press Photo

ON DIXIE HIGHWAY — Three Detroit men lost their lives shortly before noon today when their glass truck was struck by a careening trailer that had broken loose from its tractor. The victims were Frank Milobar, 26, Andor Loevy, 36, and Charles Sullivan, about 25. All three burned to death when gasoline in the truck's tank ignited. The deaths, which orphaned 11 children, took place only a half-mile north of Scott Lake road on Dixie Highway where two small children were killed in a collision Saturday night.

Heckler Livens Dull Campaign

Eden Backers Beat Up Man in First Violence of British Election

LONDON (INS)—A crowd favoring Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden beat up a heckler today on the eve of tomorrow's parliamentary elections which the Conservatives are expected to win.

It was the first violence in the dullest campaign in British history. Police intervened to rescue the heckler, who was punched hard in the face and head after constantly interrupting a speech by Sir Anthony at Hyde in Cheshire.

Indications pointed to a substantial victory by the governing Conservatives in the balloting tomorrow when voters choose between five more years of "Tory democracy" and a return to socialism under the Labor Party.

Ardent Conservative supporters wishing to back their convictions with hard cash ran into difficulties with election bookmakers.

The bookies who have been asking prohibitive odds ranging up to 10 to 1 now are refusing to accept further Conservative money. But they eagerly are offering 5 to 1 against a Socialist victory.

Some Conservative supporters solved the problem by forcing the bookies to accept bets by coupling chances of a Conservative victory with race horse or greyhound racing selections.

Rap Storage Waste

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Hoover Commission charged today that widespread waste exists in the handling of government storage space. It made recommendations which it said would save 288 million dollars a year on storage facilities.

Predict State Highway Bill Will Pass House Unscathed

LANSING (AP) — Supporters of a $35,000,000 a year highway improvement program were confident today their bill would pass the House without amendment. It already has passed the Senate.

Rep. Thomas M. Burns (R-Saginaw), who led the movement which snatched the bill from death in the House Roads and Bridges Committee, said the measure "definitely" has enough votes to pass the House in its present form.

The bill, which provides for a one-and-one-half cent per gallon gas tax increase, slid unscathed through a two-hour gauntlet of words yesterday.

Sticking together in tight discipline, its supporters fought off a barrage of amendments which they said would ruin the plan.

Most of the debate hinged on two maps which gave a picture of the improvements contemplated in the bill. One of the maps showed the trunkline highways slated for development.

The other sketched interstate highways which would benefit.

"This program will give Michigan a real start toward construction of an arterial highway system," said Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor), spokesmen for Republican "Young Turks" who backed the Senate-approved bill.

Opponents of the measure, mostly rural Republicans, said the interstate highway slated for improvement should be spelled out in the bill.

As it left the Senate, the bill provided that three quarters of the gas tax increase would go to the state for construction of arterial highways, the balance to be split between cities and counties.

Green said a more equitable distribution formula would be one in which the state would get 65 per cent and cities and counties the rest. His amendment lost by a 39 to 51 vote.

It was this distribution formula which had generated the most disagreement during the four months which the Legislature has bickered over a road bill.

OK Postal Hike for 8 Per Cent

Senate Group Approves New Dem Bill to Boost Mailmen's Pay

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Post Office Committee unanimously approved today a new Democratic bill to give an eight per cent pay raise to the nation's 500,000 postal workers.

Chairman Olin Johnson (D-SC), said he saw no reason why the bill should not be signed by President Eisenhower, who vetoed a measure to provide an 8.8 per cent increase.

Johnston told newsmen that the new bill will cost 17 million dollars less than the 8.8 per cent raise. Cost of the vetoed measure was estimated at 179 million dollars a year.

The Senate, by a 54 to 39 vote, refused yesterday to upset Eisenhower's veto. This was eight votes less than the two-thirds needed to override the veto.

Michigan's two senators split along party lines yesterday in the 54-39 vote in which the Senate refused to override President Eisenhower's veto.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) voted to uphold the veto while Sen. McNamara (D-Mich) voted to override.

Small Settling Widow's Claim

Detroit Dentist to Pay $6,000 as Outgrowth of Killing Rival

DETROIT (AP) — Leo W. Hoffman, attorney for Detroit dentist Kenneth B. Small, says the signing of papers today will settle for $6,000 a $250,000 damage suit against Small filed by the widow of the man Small killed last Memorial weekend.

Hoffman, who won Small's acquittal on grounds of temporary insanity in the love triangle shooting, said the agreement was reached yesterday.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Jean Lack, wife of New York playboy Jules Lack, who died of a bullet from Small's gun last May 29 at Lake Michigan summer home near Allegan. Small found his wife, Edith, with Lack at the home.

The suit charged that the killing of Lack deprived his children, John 11, and David, 8, of his love and future income.

Small's answer was that they suffered no monetary damage by Lack's death because his estate contains only some $3,500 in assets and $70,000 in liabilities. It was also contended that Small could not be sued because a jury found him temporarily insane in the shooting.

Old North Church Steeple Project Gets Under Way

BOSTON (INS) — The steeple of Boston's historic Old North Church is going up again—for the third time in 231 years.

The two lanterns which sent Paul Revere on his famous midnight ride in 1775 to warn the

Minutemen that the British redcoats were coming hung in the original belfry.

Hurricane Carol destroyed the second steeple last Aug. 13 and $150,000 was contributed by persons throughout the U.S. for the reconstruction.

British consulates and information service offices in this country alone gave $5,000.

Four white oaks from Newington, Conn., each more than 250 years old and a foot square in thickness, being used for the steeple framework, were hoisted into place yesterday.

The original steeple, put up in 1723, was blown down in a storm in 1804. It was replaced two years later and the second steeple remained until last year.

The Revere ride on the night of April 18, 1775, followed the signal that British troops were about to cross Boston harbor to Charleston to march towards colonial supply depots at Lexington.

Trio of Detroit Men in Truck Burn to Death

Trailer Rams Vehicle After Breaking Loose From Tractor

Three Detroit men burned to death this morning when their glass truck was struck by a careening semi-trailer on Dixie Highway, about five miles north of Pontiac.

The dead are:

Frank Milobar, 26, of 5018 St. Clair St.

Andor Loevy, 38, of 16218 Snowden.

Charles Sullivan, about 25, of 3914 Pennsylvania.

All three were riding in the cab of a Standard Glass Co., Inc., truck when the trailer of a semi-truck uncoupled from its south bound tractor and careened across two lanes, striking the victims' northbound vehicle in the cab.

Witnesses said the three men were showered with flaming gasoline after they were hurled from the cab by the impact.

Driver of the semi-truck, Charles H. Jordan, 29, of Toledo, who was not injured, was unable to tell Waterford Township Police Chief Frank Van Atta how the trailer happened to uncouple.

He said he was headed from Flint to a Detroit terminal to pick up a load. The truck is owned by an Ohio firm.

Waterford Township firemen fought the blaze for about a half hour before bringing it under control. Traffic, held up for more than an hour while crews cleared wreckage, was rerouted on Saginaw Trail, a small gravel roadway which parallels the Grand Trunk Railroad tracks on the west side of the 4-lane highway.

Van Atta said the three men were headed for Drayton Plains to complete a glass job there. The bodies were taken to Pontiac General Hospital.

Another truck driver, Howard K. Leibler, 42, of Inkster, told Van Atta that the victims' truck was about to pass him when he noticed the trailer of the southbound truck break loose from the cab.

"The trailer swung across the pavement and struck the glass truck right in the cab," he said. "The glass truck burst into flames immediately," Leibler reported.

Van Atta said the glass firm reported that the crash left 11 children fatherless. Milobar has six children; Sullivan, three and Loevy, two.

The 10:30 a.m. crash took place only a half mile north of Scott Lake road where two small children were killed in a 2-car collision Saturday night.

Senate OK Seen on Receipts Tax

Passage Expected to Touch Off Scrap Over Big State Deficit

LANSING (AP)—Passage of a revised business receipts tax was expected in the Senate today—the prelude to a House-Senate scrap over how Michigan will meet an expected 27 million dollar deficit for next year.

Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), the Senate Taxation Committee chairman, steered through debate yesterday the House's Conlin bill, which even its own mother wouldn't recognize.

The Conlin bill had been converted in the Senate to an almost exact copy of the earlier Senate bill which was buried in the House Taxation Committee.

The only change was a proviso allowing deduction of the state chain store tax from business receipts tax payments.

Sen. Philip Rahoi (D-Iron Mountain) was defeated attempting to remove the chain store tax offset.

WOULD RAISE TAX

The bill as revised by the Senate would increase the business receipts tax from four to six mills and bring in 22 million dollars more, Morris said.

It would compute the tax for multistate businesses on a one-factor formula, sales destination.

The House favors a seven mill levy to produce 30 million dollars a year, with a three-factor formula —sales destination, payrolls and assets.

Supervisors OK Valuation Total

Equalization Committee Report Approved Over Waterford's Objection

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved the report of its equalization committee setting a $1,067,782,336 county equalized valuation over objections of Waterford Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson.

Monday the State Board of Equalization set a $1,395,250,000 valuation on Oakland County property.

A State Supreme Court ruling makes it mandatory that counties use the state figure in determining tax rates this year, but the county findings are important in determining individual governmental units' tax amounts.

The county report includes an equalized percentage and equalizing factor which must be figured into the state total for the county as a whole to decide sums individual units must pay.

Anderson told County Equalization Chairman Alger Zapf that he feels Waterford's figures are "a number of points high compared to the rest of the county."

He said he didn't consider that a fair sampling of property values in Waterford had been taken by the committee. The report was approved with 11 supervisors voting against it.

The Tax Allocation Board was scheduled to meet this morning to begin setting a tax rate on the state equalized figures.

Detective Hazen Gets His Man—After 3 Years

Like the famed Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Oakland County Sheriff's detectives always get their man.

At least that's the way John A. Hinds probably feels after his arrest by Detective Leo Hazen yesterday. Hazen's good memory for faces was just plain bad luck for Hinds.

Three years ago, Hinds was serving a 90-day sentence at the Oakland County Jail on a drunk and disorderly charge. With 60 more days to serve, Hinds was assigned to fire the jail's boilers as a trusty.

One night a short time later when Hazen, then a desk sergeant, was on duty, Hinds walked away.

He'd been gone about three years when Hazen spotted him standing at the corner of Saginaw and Pike Sts. Tuesday.

Today, after three years and trips to California and St. Louis, Mo., Hinds is back behind bars—and there's little chance that he'll be given the chance to walk away again while serving the old sentence and perhaps some added days for escaping.

County Children Get Shots Today

First and second graders in four Oakland County school districts this morning received their second Salk vaccine shots.

The shots were administered at the Clarkston, Novi, Blanche Sims and Holly schools.

Meanwhile, Dr. John D. Monroe, county health director, said make-up clinics for south county youngsters who missed last Saturday's inoculation session probably will be held next week.

He said more than 800 youngsters who were scheduled did not appear for their shots in Royal Oak. Saturday's clinics were conducted in Royal Oak, Hazel Park, Oak Park, Berkley and Clawson.

NAM Blasts Union Theory

Charles R. Sligh Raps Purchasing Power Idea Promoted by Reuther

NEW YORK (UP) — The National Assn. of Manufacturers today blasted the union theory of boosting purchasing power by labeling it as "a hypodermic for the nation's economy."

In a detailed study entitled "So People May Prosper," the NAM offered in place of the purchasing power concept a program for national prosperity based on full output and higher productivity levels.

"The NAM's new economic analysis completely refutes the purchasing power theories currently sponsored by Walter Reuther, head of the CIO, and Leon Keyserling, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under President Truman," declared Charles R. Sligh Jr., at a news conference.

Sligh, former president of the NAM, now serves as chairman of its Policy Committee. He is president of Sligh Furniture Co. of Grand Rapids, Mich.

RAPS THEORY

"Purchasing power theorists," he said, "apparently believe that the only important thing is to apply an immediate economic stimulus through creation of more purchasing power, even if it is artificial.

* * *

"This would be done through inflationary government spending, wage rises without productivity increases, or tax cuts that would aggravate existing discrimination."

The guaranteed annual wage—a key goal of the CIO United Auto Workers — involves "a phony concept of purchasing power," Sligh told reporters.

"There are many people in government — and plenty in both business and labor unions — who think the supply of money answers the problem," noted the furniture manufacturer.

"The phrase 'purchasing power' falls very pleasantly on the ear."

* * *

Sligh branded the theory as "shot-in-the-arm" economics. "This theory leads to the control of prices, profits and production," He said. "Thus it virtually can give you socialism."

France's Drake Wins at Epsom; Ireland Second

EPSOM, England (AP) — Phil Drake, from France, came with a rush in the stretch today to win the 176th running of the Epsom Derby.

Panaslipper from Ireland was second, and the favored Acropolis owned by Alice, Lady Derby, of England, was third in the field of 23 horses in this world famous race for 3-year-olds.

Phil Drake went off at 100-8, while Panaslipper was a 100-1 shot. Acropolis, who had been favored for weeks, went off at 11-4.

Cardington King finished fourth.

Among the spectators for the mile and one-half classic was Queen Elizabeth, who rode with the Duke of Edinburgh down the course before the race in an open landau. Other members of the royal family in the royal box were the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, the Princess Royal, the Duchess of Kent, Princess Alexandra and Princess Olga of Greece. Also attending were Queen Mother Elizabeth and Princess Margaret.

Two sensational sex slayings have occurred in Kalamazoo in the last four years. Carolyn Drown, an 18-year-old Western Michigan College coed, was lured into a car, raped and slain and dumped in a snowbank in 1951. Marilyn Kraai, 20, a student nurse, was raped and slain by a patient in Kalamazoo State Hospital last fall.

Capt. Stewart pointed to the similarity of Jeannie's disappearance and that of 7-year-old Barbara Gaca, who was abducted on her way to school in Detroit earlier this year, raped and murdered.

Stewart said there are no escapees from the Kalamazoo State Hospital at large.

Identical Twins in Crash Baffle Ludington Police

LUDINGTON (UP) — Ludington police were "really confused" when they arrived at scene of a head-on collision and found drivers of the two cars were identical twins.

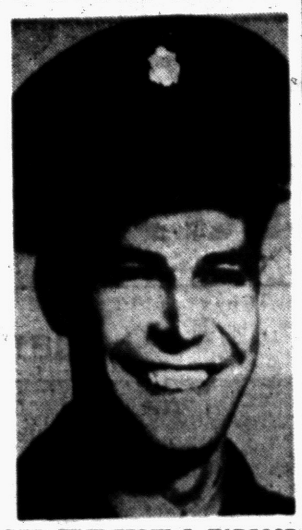

The drivers were Roger and Robert Liebetreu, 21.

"It was the most confusing accident we've had in years," a police man said. Their mother, Mrs. George Liebetreau, was philosophical about it all. "It's better they crashed into each other than someone else," she said.

Huge, Primitive Pacific Island Is Penetrated by Civilization

WASHINGTON — New Guinea, the island that time forgot, catches up with the world a little more each passing year.

Explorers, prospectors, aerial mapmakers, missionaries, agricultural experts and government officers are penetrating farther and farther into the Stone Age interior of Australia's northern neighbor, the National Geographic Society reports.

The island second only to Greenland in size, New Guinea is one of the least developed inhabited lands on earth. It is a place of wild mountains, equatorial rain forests, rare birds-of-paradise and natives who have never seen white men or a metal implement.

Much of its area has uncertain political status. Yet investment in its future continues to grow.

Oil geologists survey unexplored ranges by plane and helicopter. Hydroelectric sites and coffee plantations are being laid out in the remote headwaters of forbidding rivers. Gold long has drawn adventurers, but other minerals exist too: Copper, bauxite, nickel, perhaps uranium.

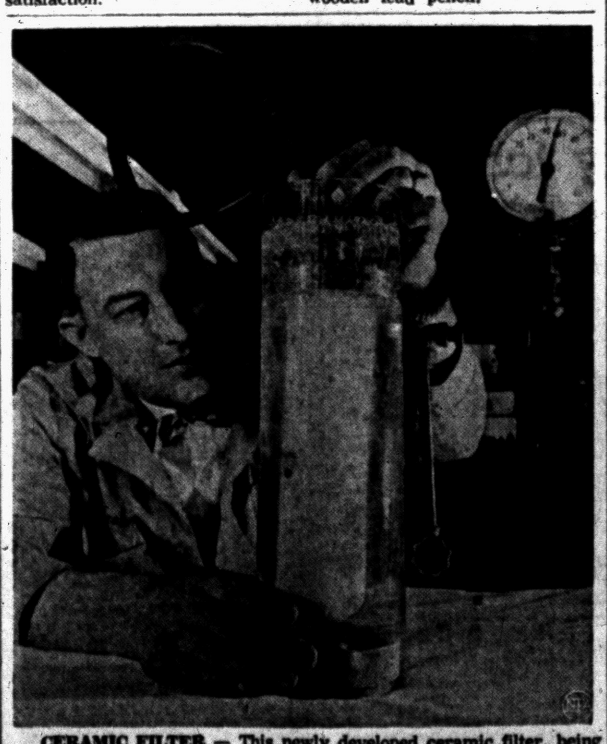

From headquarters in the island's southeastern sector, Papua, Australia administers the United Nations Trust Territory of Northeast New Guinea. The Netherlands holds western New Guinea, although for five years the young Republic of Indonesia has claimed that section under its own name of Irian.

Stretching some 1,500 miles from end to end, the great island on the map resembles a prehistoric bird hovering between Australia and the Philippines, its misshapen beak open to snap at the Moluccas, Celebes, and Borneo.

A Portuguese ship first sighted New Guinea in 1527. A Spaniard named it in 1545, largely because the people peering from shore seemed to resemble those of Guinea in Africa halfway around the world. Gradually the Dutch came, then the Germans and British, and in World War II, the Japanese and Americans.

In United Nations territory within the last two years, more than 13,000 square miles have been explored for the first time by patrols. The coastal ports of Lae and Madang are bustling. Inland, entire European communities have been planted by air—the buildings, cars, trucks, people. Engineers now are striving to hack a highway over the Bismarck Range.

About 125 different production steps are involved in making a wooden lead pencil.

CERAMIC FILTER — This newly developed ceramic filter, being checked by Engineer Jack Kerns, for use in the manufacture of Salk vaccine has just been announced by the Selas Corporation of America. The new filter contains more than eight hundred million — that's right, million — tiny holes per square inch through which components of the polio vaccine are strained for bacteriological purity. Number of holes per filter is measured precisely by checking how much air must be forced through immersed tube to create bubbling.

Inoculated Child Contracts Polio

Believe State Boy, 7, Had the Disease Before Getting Vaccine

LANSING (INS) — Michigan health authorities have revealed that a 7-year-old Millett, Mich., boy who received two shots of Salk polio vaccine made by Parke, Davis & Co. has contracted a non-paralytic type of the crippling disease.

The youngster, Jeffrey Farnsworth of Millett, a town southwest of here, was reported recovering today in Lansing's Sparrow Hospital.

He is the first child in Michigan to be stricken after receiving the second-round shot of the vaccine and the first in any state to come down with polio after receiving vaccine manufactured by Parke, Davis.

However, a State Health Department official said the boy "undoubtedly" contracted the disease "before the second shot was administered and probably even before he received his first shot."

In Washington Welfare Secretary Oveta Culp Hobby said today that the administration's Salk vaccine program "will result in effective protection" against polio for the nation's children.

The welfare secretary urged the House Commerce Committee to approve a 28 million dollar fund to provide free anti-polio shots for more than 13 million children in low-income families.

She said this would give assurance that no child in the United States "will be denied an opportunity to be vaccinated because of inability to pay."

Scotchman Gladdened by Mc to Mac Switch

DETROIT (AP) — Norman McDonald, 56, came before Probate Judge James H. Sexton.

"Judge, I'd like an 'a' added to my last name between the 'm' and 'c'," he said. "I'm a Scotchman born and bred, but my name is spelled like an Irishman. The extra 'a' would make me known as a true Scotchman. The 'a' was dropped from my birth certificate through an error in Scotland."

Judge Sexton sent Norman MacDonald home a happy man.

5 Area Students Receive Scholarships to U. of M.

BIRMINGHAM—Five area high school students were awarded regents-alumni scholarships to the University of Michigan, it was announced today by Walter Rea, dean of men at the university and chairman of the committee on university scholarships.

Receiving scholarships from Birmingham High were Helen Frances Chanay, 1159 Cole St., the college of Literature, Science and Arts; Barbara Louise Hoover, 1734 Webster, nursing, and Robert Karl Krohn, 18930 Beverly, engineering.

Richard F. Schultz, Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, received a scholarship to the U. of M. engineering school, and Linda Bates, Kingswood, was awarded a scholarship to the university's school of music.

The scholarships carry a stipend equivalent to fees for the freshman year. They are renewable each year through graduation depending on marks, Rea said.

The five were among 495 graduating seniors from Michigan high schools awarded scholarships. The winners were selected from 1,300 applicants representing 281 high schools in the state. Rea said selections were based on high school academic records, financial need and scores on competitive tests.

Cities Protect Historic Areas

Take Steps to Prevent Degeneration, Helps Tourist Trade

CHICAGO (UP) — A number of cities are taking steps to preserve, protect and even reconstruct historical areas.

The American Society of Planning Officials says this makes good sense as such programs can stimulate tourist trade and save some areas from declining into slums.

In Charleston, S. C., a special zone known as the "old and historic Charleston district" has been established by local law. It covers the area where there is the greatest concentration of early buildings.

The city has a Board of Architectural Review that passes on the appropriateness of exterior architectural features proposed for buildings to be erected or altered in the area.

Natchez, Miss., has an architectural plan with a local ordinance to back it up. This plan deals with the outside design and appearance of 19 historic buildings in a 20-block area surrounding the central business district.

The purpose is to retain a harmonious arrangement, without necessarily keeping everything the way it was.

The Vieux Carre section of New Orleans, where French and Spanish merchants once lived, has been protected not only for its historical value but for its worth as a place to live. The state legislature nearly 20 years ago passed a law allowing the city to set up an aesthetic control agency, which has the power to stop demolition of any part of a building in the district.

New Courthouse Building Committee Is Appointed

A special courthouse building committee for 1955-56 was named yesterday by Chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Floyd Andrews.

The committee was charged by Andrews with "getting something rolling toward securing Oakland County a proper courthouse."

It consists of Willis M. Brewer, of Pontiac, chairman; Harold K. Schone, of Oak Park; Lloyd Anderson, of Waterford Township; Norman R. Barnard, of Troy Township; R. Clare Cummings, of Pontiac; Harry W. Horton, of Royal Oak; David Levinson, of Birmingham and W. Raymond Ransom, of Pontiac.

In other supervisors' action, the board authorized sale of 57 acres of county-owned land located on North Perry street across from the 4-H Club buildings.

Chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee Harry W. Horton said the Board of Auditors has received an offer of $1,000 an acre for the land. An appraisal will be made and other bids advertised for.

AUTHORIZE LOT SALE

Sale of a small lot on Middlesex in Royal Oak also was authorized for $300.

The TB sanatorium commission was given the go-ahead to have an architect draw up plans for modernizing the institution's kitchen and installing a new elevator.

Ransford Bromley, of Lakeville, was confirmed as assistant county director of civil defense.

Drain Committee Chairman, Hiland M. Thatcher, of West Bloomfield Township, introduced a resolution which was approved allowing $3,000 to be drawn from the general fund for purchase of easements needed to repair the Pontiac Lake dam. The money will be paid back from special assessments against benefiting property owners.

The board also approved a drain committee resolution doing away with the necessity for county, state and federal agencies to deposit $300 when petitioning for a drain.

MOTION IS TABLED

A motion by Don R. MacDonald, Road Committee chairman, that employes of the road commission be allowed to vote on coming under Federal Social Security was tabled for study by the Salaries Committee.

Several supervisors objected to its immediate passage saying they felt the move would set a precedent for other county employes to follow at excessive cost to the county.

The board approved a slight increase in the 1956 appropriation to the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

Three new supervisors from Keego Harbor attended their first meeting. They are Benjamin E. Covey, Peter Quinlan and James Southart.

MSC May Get New TV Station

House Drops Clause Banning VHF Outlet on Outside Money

LANSING (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee failed last night to reinstate a controversial legislative ban on Michigan State College acquiring a combined commercial-educational television station.

This was the highlight of a last-minute rush of appropriation bills out of the House and Senate committees.

The total of the state general fund budget was reaching toward the 274 million dollar mark—about 27 million dollars out of balance on the basis of existing taxes.

The exact status of the budget was uncertain because some of the appropriating bills still are subject to House-Senate disputes.

The House committee failed to re-insert a clause prohibiting MSC from developing a very high frequency (VHF) station in the Parma-Onondaga area.

The original Senate bill contained a clause banning the station, but the provision was defeated.

The MSC plan calls for operating a combined educational-commercial television station in conjunction with the Television Corporation of Michigan. One of the officers of the corporation is Edward E. Wilson of Birmingham.

Under the proposal, the state would pay the costs of building and equipping the station, while MSC and the corporation would split costs of operation.

Due to the death of Harry McRath, our station will be closed Thursday afternoon.

Thrill That Will Endure

Introduce Children to Sports Fun in the Sun

One of the finest things you can do for your children is to take advantage of the warm weather to get them started in learning new sports.

Outdoor sports mean health, recreation and relaxation. And if children are taught them early, they'll find the games much more enjoyable throughout the rest of their lives.

Without adapting the rules, it's possible for young people to learn to play games that they'll carry over into adult life. The young man learning lawn tennis (above left) is using a scaled-down racquet called the Youngstar. In playing basketball (above right), the most popular competitive sport in the country today, he uses the official ball. For Little League or other youthful baseball contests, the youngster (lower left) uses a smaller glove. For learning good golf stance (lower right), a junior club is very necessary.

An excellent way to start them off is to buy them some good new sports equipment, which now comes in scaled-down sizes. Then, with the aid of instruction books, you can teach them the various rules.

The equipment and teaching is sure to be welcomed. According to most experts, youthful interest in sports is now at an all-time high.

This year's sales of sporting goods is expected to top those of last year by 10 per cent. And a large part of the jump will be among teenagers.

Little League baseball is sweeping the country, and the gift of a ball or glove is something a boy will long appreciate.

Basketball, which draws 100,000,000 fans annually, is a game which the kids play at school, at camp or neighborhood playgrounds.

* * *

You can help them get plenty of practice—and have some fun yourself—by buying a hoop to be placed in the yard. Reasonably priced balls and hoops can be purchased at any sports store.

Golf is currently blossoming as much as any sport in our history. With more youngsters trying the game than ever before, there's a wide range of junior-sized clubs and several juvenile tournaments.

Best of all, golf is the type of sport you can play together for many years.

Tennis, of course, has always been one of the most popular pastimes for both sexes. With a good racket, and an early liking for the game, teenagers learn a sport they'll play in school and college and later on in the business world.

Other popular sports — which the whole family can join in—are volleyball, badminton and shuffleboard. These can be played in your own back yard and are usually inexpensive.

All you need for a volleyball and badminton layout are a net, a ball, some rackets and a shuttlecock.

Farm Bureau Scores 'Emergency' Freeze

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Farm Bureau board of directors has asked Congress not to include in the new defense production act a 90-day freeze on the nation's economy in the event of an emergency.

"The Michigan Farm Bureau opposes all schemes to re-establish price and wage controls," the statement said. "Any such ready-made program could easily serve to magnify even minor incidents into an 'emergency' to precipitate the restoration of government controls."

The Farm Bureau also expressed itself as opposed to proposals by the Legislature to restrict Michigan State College in operation of a television station and to place controls on self-liquidating building projects by the state's colleges.

Drop Narcotics Charge

charges against Frances Faye, 42, night club singer and recording star, were dropped yesterday in Superior Court. Judge Clement D. British Politicos Attempt to Liven Up Campaign

LONDON (AP)—A barrage of political brickbats fills the British air as backers of the two major parties try to liven up the last 34 hours of a dull election campaign.

* * *

The Conservative Daily Sketch discovered a "conspiracy within the Socialistic party which will rock the nation." In the event of a Labor victory at the polls Thursday, it said, more than half the Socialist candidates are ready to dump placid old Clement Attlee as party leader and supplant him with left-wing firebrand Aneurin Bevan.

That would make the Welchman prime minister—a prospect calculated to chill the morrow of every staunch Conservative. Bevan once called the Tories "vermin."

On the Socialist side, the Laborite Daily Herald declared that the forthcoming Big Four peace talks are "going sour" in advance and can be saved only by electing a Socialist government.

REDS SEE FAILURE

The Herald said the Russians already are preparing world opinion for a failure of the parley because they think the West called for it just to help Sir Anthony Eden and his Conservatives win the election.

In line with that argument, Moscow radio has said that Washington is confident a Conservative victory in Britain will give the United States "a trustworthy partner in conducting an aggressive policy in Europe."

"This prompts one to give serious thought to the motives of the Conservative leaders in speaking at election time to their desire for negotiations," the broadcast said. "Will not all this talk of negotiations merely be followed by the scuttling of negotiations and attempts to blame the U.S.S.R. for this?"

Despite the 11th-hour outbursts, apathy hung over the campaign like a London pea soup fog. But the Conservatives, overwhelming favorites in the betting, had uneasy visions of Tory complacency sparking a Labor upset like Harry S. Truman's 1948 victory over Thomas E. Dewey.

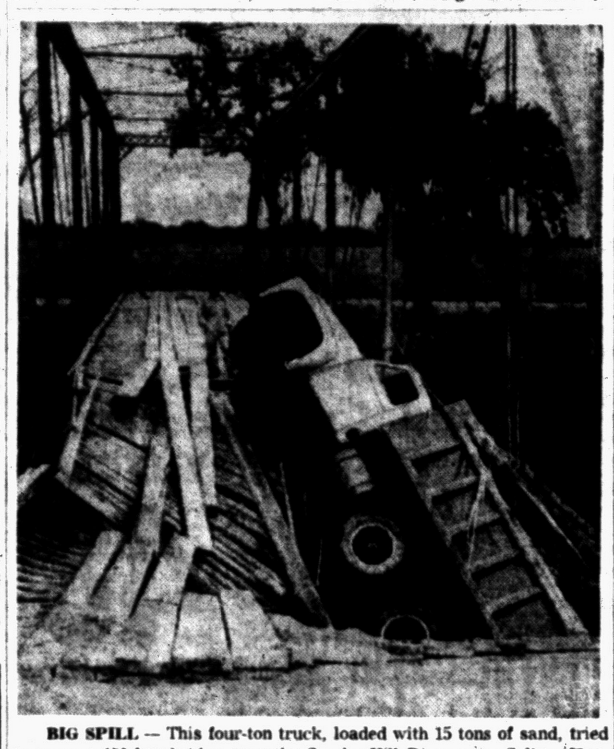

WINNIE WARMS RALLY

Sir Winston Churchill, the party's grand old man, warmed a campaign rally last night:

"So far I have taken part in 15 general elections but I have never seen one more calm and quiet than this one. Do not be lulled into a false sense of security. Apathy, complacency, idleness, the chatter of indifference may often be faults. On Thursday, they will be crimes."

* * *

Public opinion polls indicate the Conservatives might be returned to power with a landslide majority of more than 100 seats. They controlled the last House of Commons with a margin of only 19 seats.

BIG SPILL — This four-ton truck, loaded with 15 tons of sand, tried to cross a 150-foot bridge over the Smoky Hill River near Salina, Kan. It didn't make it. The bridge fell in. So did the truck. Here owner-driver Roger Cline, unhurt, surveys the plight of his eight-week-old vehicle.

Dam Break Pours Flood Across Mountain Valley

DAHLONEGA, Ga. (AP)—Officials planned to resume their investigation today in efforts to learn what caused a dam to break and pour a devastating flood on a mountain valley.

The break came without warning yesterday. Witnesses said a wall of water estimated at 25 feet high roared through the little valley astride U.S. Highway 19 at the the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains near Neel's Gap in north Georgia.

* * *

No casualties were reported but two houses and two automobiles were demolished and eight buildings were damaged. At one farm, 4,900 baby chicks drowned.

Several residents had narrow escapes. They raced for a hilltop and reached it safely just as the torrent surged past.

* * *

Sheriff J. R. Gibson, of Lumpkin County, who headed the investigation, said the earthen private dam "simply broke." He said water pressure could have caused the 50-foot-wide break.

The dam, built 18 months ago for irrigation and recreational purposes, was owned by J. J. Ravan, who operates a store and tourist court. Four units of the tourist court were damaged.

* * *

Ravan saw the water coming and warned his wife and their three children. Together, they ran to the hill.

"The water touched the heels of my wife's shoes just as she ran up the hill," Ravan related.

Mrs. Van Crow also saw the water bearing down upon her home below Ravan's place. Snatching up her three sleeping children, she carried them up the mountainside back of her home.

Believes Chores Stimulate Learning

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An optometrist believes modern children are handicapped in learning because they don't get the opportunity to "do things around the house and outside. There isn't a single top-flight mathematician in this country who is city-born and bred," says Dr. A. M. Skeffington of St. Louis. "You need a proper concept of time and space to be a top mathematician."

Skeffington told Arkansas optometrists that too much emphasis has been placed on 20-20 vision, adding:

"A chimpanzee with 20-20 vision isn't the equal of a man."

Electric Speed Clocks Beaten by Motorists

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — State Highway patrolmen report some motorists have found a way to beat the electric speed clocks — popularly called whammies hereabouts.

Motorists crossing the machine's rubber hoses, which are laid about 60 feet apart, blink their lights to tell oncoming drivers to look out, their speed is being electrically timed.

Truman Vows Peace Efforts

500 Attend Dinner in Honor of Ex-President in Denver

DENVER (AP)—Pormer President Harry S. Truman, now 71 and saying "I wish I were 21," pledged last night to "spend the rest of my life trying to hammer home . . . how important it is to work for world peace through the United Nations."

He addressed about 500 persons at a $25-a-plate dinner in his honor. Proceeds will go to the Truman Memorial Library to be built at Independence, Mo.

* * *

"With the atomic age," he said, "we're facing the greatest age in the history of the world. The only way to prevent destruction is to understand the world is all one community."

The sprightly ex-President touched with alternate humor and solemnity o a variety of subjects.

After his introduction by Charles F. Brannan, secretary of agriculture in his administration, Truman quietly began:

* * *

"It is very difficult for a timid man to express his appreciation for this reception. I'm through politically — at least it appears that way—so you people didn't have to do it if you didn't want to."

Later Truman said; "I have no desire to be an elder statesman. A statesman is a dead politician."

Turning to the memorial library which is to be built at his Missouri home, Truman said:

"When this library is finished, the scholars will be able to find the facts on which decisions were based . . . We'll have a place where the people can come and see that the fellow in the White House was not quite as bad as he was made out to be."

Pittsburgh Airport Gets Benches for Sinners

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — County commissioners appropriated $3,000 for new benches at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport—for sinners.

Commissioner John M. Walker asked whether the benches would be for "saints or sinners."

John B. Sweeney, county aviation director, gave him a puzzled look.

"I mean will they be hard or soft benches," Walker explained.

Nixon Seeks More Support for Ike at Parley

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Vice President Nixon last night called for less "sniping" and more support of President Eisenhower in the forthcoming Big Four conference.

He named no names but noted that the coming top-level conference among the United States, Britain, Russia and France had touched off some predictions of "appeasement" and a sell-out of U.S. interests.

* * *

"Rather than expressing apprehension about the conference, we should recognize that our leaders are going into it in a position of strength rather than weakness and with their eyes wide open," Nixon said.

"Rather than being sniped at from the rear, they should be supported to the hilt by the American people."

* * *

Nixon addressed a parents' orientation conference of the Military Chaplains Assn. of the United States. The association presented him with its 1955 gold award for his efforts to make the youth of America more aware of their responsibilities to the military services.

Hold Low Opinion of Life in America

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Prof. Walter Hovey of the University of Pittsburgh, back from a tour of Asia, says he found "very little respect for life and culture of the United States."

People in such countries as Lebanon, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, India and Ceylon base their opinions of the U. S. on "mob slayings, stories of race segregation and movies," he says. "In some places I was asked if it's safe to walk along the streets alone in the United States."

"Most of the Near East nations," Prof. Hovey says, "are in favor of recognizing Red China. Those countries are eager to trade with China and as long as they belong to the Western bloc they can't."

Virus Prevents Skelton From Doing TV Show

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comic Red Skelton was prevented by a virus infection from appearing on his television show last night.

A spokesman for CBS said his condition is not serious and he should be up and around again in a day or so. For his program last night a film of one of his previous shows was used.

Waterford Is Doing Fine Job in Schools

A 10 year progress story has been written by the Waterford Township School District through vigorous leadership and the faith of a community.

Under the competent guidance of Superintendent William Shunck, one of the finest school systems in the state has been developed. When Superintendent Shunck came to Waterford in 1945, the enrollment was 3,092.

Today it is over 8,000.

★ ★ ★

A typical residential community, it lacks the healthy balance of business and industry which help to bear the cost of education in most districts. Only 15 percent of Waterford Township is so constituted, thus indicating residents will face steadily increasing tax bills.

★ ★ ★

Superintendent Shunck has worked wonders to hold the costs down to current levels. It was he who proposed the Hardship School District Plan which has been written into the present State Aid Bill. Recognized in both professional and lay circles for his outstanding job in Waterford, Shunck was recently presented with a life membership in the National Education Association by the several hundred members of the school staff.

★ ★ ★

In 10 years Waterford has built $3,500,000 worth of school buildings, and $1,000,000 is now on hand for the construction of four more.

Waterford continues to grow.

Its school problem does too.

Hence, the financial demands expand.

★ ★ ★

But whatever the future holds, nothing can dim the fine leadership the school administration and the board of education have provided thus far.

Egypt's Public Health

That some Middle East news is cheering is emphasized by reports of Egypt's efforts to improve its public health.

The Republic's Minister of Health, Dr. Nur Eldin Tarraf, has signed an agreement with Harold Stevens, U. S. director of Point Four operations in Egypt. This provides for establishment of Egypt's first public health institute to be located at Alexandria.

Dr. Tarraf says the new institute will open next year and will develop a post-graduate curriculum to meet Egypt's special needs in this field of medicine. The goal is to offer courses comparable to those available in similar schools in other countries.

The health situation throughout the Republic is generally satisfactory, according to the Minister. He emphasized that great efforts are being made to protect the public against infectious diseases, especially in the summer season.

★ ★ ★

Another encouraging report from Dr. Tarraf is that government financing of several medical projects, including new central hospitals and medical staffs, is being arranged. He also voiced the country's need for more women doctors to staff infant welfare and maternity centers.

It is good to learn of these efforts to improve the health of a people who have had only minimum medical care or no care at all.

It is rare that a person with a heavy load of responsibility on his shoulder also carries a chip there.

AFL's Welfare Code

It should be a source of public as well as union satisfaction that the American Federation of Labor's executive board has framed a code to safeguard union welfare funds.

Acting on instructions from last year's Los Angeles convention, the board also has suggested Federal and State legislation to serve the same purpose.

Over the years most trustees of welfare funds no doubt honestly administered them and resisted temptation to misuse them for personal gain. There were, of course, a few exceptions in which trustees abused their positions. Some accepted money from insurance companies for giving them union business.

The new code is described as sufficiently detailed to prevent abuses if it is enforced. Penalties for violations range up to expulsion of a union for failure to live up to the code.

There has been no announcement yet as to whether the code will remain operative after the AFL and CIO are merged later this year. But the records of both organizations suggest that such an important matter will not be ignored by the new 15,000,000 member federation.

Oakland County gets a piece of a new city when Northville voted Monday, 475 to 344, to change from a village to a city government. Part of Northville is located in this county, the major portion being in Wayne. It is the first of our 17 cities and 10 villages not located entirely within this county.

If Pontiac's new $1,200,000 city hall was now just being started, and if standard construction methods were used, it would cost $2,500,000, according to

Carl F. Alt,

City Building Inspector. One way of saving money was in using the same forms over and over for the concrete work. After the forms were used on one section they were moved to another. It is a slower but much cheaper method.

Golly! Didja Ever See Such a Busy Place?

David Lawrence Says:

British Reds Want Tories to Win by Slim Margin

LONDON—The Communist strategy in the British election campaign may prove of far more importance in the long run than the outcome of the elections themselves for the Communists are waiting to pick up the pieces if the Socialist Labor party is defeated, as seems likely.

Outwardly the Communist party is running candidates in only 17 districts out of 630. In most of the other districts, they have given instructions openly to their followers to support the Socialist Labor party candidates.

The underground tactics, however, in several districts are to support the Conservatives. The object, of course, is to bring about a Conservative victory but by the narrowest of margins.

Curiously enough, the Liberals —or third party—have put new life into their campaign and are running more than 100 candidates. This may cut down some of the majority of the Conservatives because, in a three-cornered race, the Conservatives stand to lose some votes to the Liberals.

* * *

Thus, the middle-of-the-road approach has been given impetus with the cry that the Socialist Labor party and the Conservative party each represent extremes and that the best way is the "Liberal."

COMMUNIST TACTICS

Very little is being [illegible] the campaign about [illegible] tactics, though it is [illegible] the moment the [illegible] a big battle will start inside the Socialist Labor party between the so-called "right wing" and "left wing" factions.

* * *

The latter is headed up by Aneurin Bevan, who has been slamming away without restraint at the Conservatives. In one speech he likened them to "swine."

If the Labor party loses, the Bevanites will claim that the Attlee, Morrison and Gaitskell leadership has been discredited and that more aggressive policies are needed—such as more instead of less nationalization and more opposition to American policies in the world, plus the prohibition of the use of the hydrogen bomb by Britain and her allies.

This will be meat for the Communists, of course, whose main objective seems to be to promote and intensify discord and disunity all along the line.

STRIKE STORY TOLD

Something of the nature of the Communist intrigue can be derived from a story being told about the British newspaper strike, which ran 26 days. Although it was initiated by two small unions of mechanical employes, one dominated by Communist officers, the other unions did not dare to go to work independently.

Finally, in a sensational conference between one of the leaders of the strike and Sir Walter Monckton, minister of labor in the Conservative government, the union spokesman who was a Communist admitted that the purpose of the strike was to promote as much trouble as possible for the nation.

It is significant that Sir Hartley Shawcross, attorney-general in the last Socialist Labor government, in a campaign speech a few days ago about the wave of unofficial strikes and jurisdictional disputes said that many were "inspired by Communists."

Then he declared that "In the nature of things, it is easier for a Labor government to handle this sort of situation, in close consultation with the Trade Union Congress and to ensure better discipline and loyalty to negotiated agreements, than the Tories (Conservatives)."

REDS EYE STRIFE

The spectacle of a right-wing member of the Socialist Labor party telling his constituents that his party can handle the Communists better than the Conservatives brings smiles to the Communists, who hope to produce more strife by keeping the large number of union members in a constant battle with other unions, especially over jurisdictional matters.

* * *

Thus, the moderate non-Communist union leaders are caught in the middle. They find their greatest obstacle is the lack of interest among the rank and file who fail to attend local meetings and hence permit the Communists to rig all sorts of maneuvers with which the majority do not really agree.

The Conservatives have been trying to avoid getting into a campaign argument about the current strikes which threaten both the docks and the railroads.

One veteran union leader, Sir Will Lawther, former head of the coal miners, remarked that the recent wildcat strikes have done the Socialist Labor party's chances of winning this election more harm than anything the Conservatives could do.

* * *

There are rumors that, if the Conservatives get a comfortable majority, they will be inclined to put some curbs on Communist activities in Britain. For here is a democracy which doesn't see many persons openly aligned with the Communist party but suffers grievously nevertheless as a result of the mischief promoted by an underground force directed from Moscow.

Housewives With College Degrees Urged to Join Teacher Education Program

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

Are you concerned about the teacher shortage that exists in our schools today? If your children are at an age where they do not need you at home during the day, if you have a diploma that is gathering dust, in a field other than education and if you like to work with children, then you will be interested in a program offered by Wayne University to train housewives to become the qualified teachers that our community needs.

The Intensive Teacher Education Program (I. T. E. P.) is sponsored by Wayne University with the cooperation of local boards of education. The trainees do student teaching in the morning at schools near their homes and spend three afternoons a week in Royal Oak learning the necessary educational methods and theories.

When they have completed the two semesters of work, ITEP graduates are ready to enter the teacher ranks as qualified elementary teachers.

I have just finished the first half of such a program through the cooperation of the Pontiac Board of Education and the faculty of Webster School. Everyone was most helpful and I enjoyed the experience thoroughly. The program appealed to me because I wanted to do something useful for the community and to put my college training to the best possible use.

Further information can be obtained by writing Dr. Frank Campbell, Off-Campus Programs, Wayne University, Detroit 1, Michigan. A new class begins June 27. Here's hoping to see other ITEP'ers in our area.

'Reckless Truck Drivers Spoil Road for Others'

When my mother was coming after me at Crary Junior High, she was waiting at the intersection of Crescent Lake Road and M-59. There was a person making a left turn toward the Waterford Township High School.

Traffic was lined up, and then a gravel truck came speeding by on the shoulder of the road and just missed the car with my mother and a baby in it. I guess the truck driver was going too fast to stop or to slow down.

M-59 seems to be a race track for trucks. Some of the truck drivers are not as courteous as their companies think. Some of them drive too fast for safety, and that small percentage do not deserve the praise that company gets as a whole.

They are the ones who wreck it for others. They are always going so fast that they could never stop if they had to. They think that they can go any place at any speed. And they also think they own the road.

Barr Tells Plans

New Ward Boss Refuses to Continue Proxy Battle

By Merryle S. Rukeyser
Economic Commentator

CHICAGO (INS)—John A. Barr, the man who recently succeeded veteran Sewell L. Avery as chief executive of Montgomery Ward & Co., discussed candidly with me his plans and hopes for the future of the vast mail order and retail store organization.

* * *

Barr, who joined the legal department of Montgomery Ward in 1932, made it clear that he had no intention to continue the proxy battle, which had resulted in the management bloc getting six of the nine members of the board of directors with three going to the group headed by Louis E. Wolfson, the challenger.

The new president and chairman, who is 47, said he would be gufded by his concept of what would be prudent for stockholders as a whole. He remarked that his yardstick would be what is sound, rather than who said what during the earlier conflict.

Referring to Wolfson's recent "olive branch" statement, Barr indicated that he had accepted it, and would give unprejudiced consideration to recommendations from the minority as well as to those of other directors.

CHANGES IN STORE

However, Barr has made no bones of his lack of acceptance of many phases of the Wolfson program for rapid expansion and immediately higher dividends. Those who know Barr well also declare that neither will he be a stooge or stand-in or proxy for his former boss.

* * *

"I don't contemplate anything dramatic in the near future in the way of spectacular expansion or new construction," Barr remarked to me, "but I do think immediate steps can be taken to make existing store units more productive. This involves not only merchandising, advertising and the selection and display of goods, but also such improvements as air conditioning and better lighting in the existing stores.

"As for growth, I think the long term expansion of sales will take the form of an increasing ratio of sales developed through stores as contrasted with mail orders. We have a sound and profitable mail order business, which will be developed. But we are mindful of changes in the national economy incidental to better roads and means of communications.

"As for store expansion, we don't have a closed mind. We shall appraise new opportunities objectively, such as locations in new shopping centers which up to now the company has avoided. As for major new consrtuction, with present high costs, there will be no headlong rush to convert the company's strong liquid assets into brick and mortar.

MAY BUY BUILDINGS

There may be other approaches. Perhaps our cash at the proper time will be useful in taking over the buildings constructed for others. Possibly we will find the flexibility desired in straight percentage leases on well located stores built for us by independent landlords."

* * *

Asked concerning the type of stores favored for the future, Barr specified larger type stores, such as Montgomery Ward's Grand River Avenue store in Detroit. He said that some of the existing units were inadequate in size.

Barr, while not planning action for grandstand purposes, is against a static philosophy. In this respect, after his initial studies and surveys, he is likely to come up with innovations in the way of better incentives to employes and a program to catch up on deferred maintenance.

In the matter of fringe benefits to employes, Barr recognizes the importance of remaining in all respects in balance with dynamic competitors. But he intends to move prudently rather than rashly.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Daughter, 16, Wonders How to Remedy Parents' Coolness Toward Each Other

Love starvation is more typical of America than food hunger. When you are mourning over starving Hottentots without their quant of fresh milk, please consider our American youth who are hungry for affection and love in their homes. Are your teenagers among the 23% who secretly worry lest divorce break up their homes?

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-379: Norma M., aged 16, is a high school junior.

"Dr. Crane, my worry is about my parents," she announced. "They don't seem to be happy together.

"For several years I have feared they might get a divorce and I don't want that.

"Daddy never says nice things to mother and they don't go out to parties or shows together.

"Mother acts as if she doesn't care at all for Daddy and ignores him. They seem like strangers.

"I feel just terrible about it. In fact, I have wondered if I were to get sick and die, would that bring them closer together again?"

UNFAIR TO CHILDREN

Some time ago I told you of the St. Louis survey wherein 23 per cent of the high school students acknowledged secret fears that their homes would be broken up by divorce.

Adolescents have enough problems to meet without being forced to live under a pall of fear and anxiety concerning the stability of their homes.

Isn't it tragic that intelligent fathers and mothers, often with college degrees such as Norma's parents have, don't know how to make a happy home for their daughter?

And, of course, they aren't happy themselves. Our divorce rate of about 20 per cent shows the actual marital bankruptcies!

But that rate doesn't include millions of other homes where love seems to have departed but where the parents still try to go through the motions of living together either because of religious aversion to divorce or for the sake of their children.

LACK UNDERSTANDING

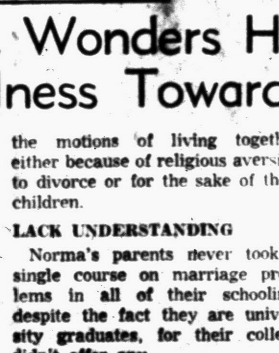

Norma's parents never took a single course on marriage problems in all of their schooling, despite the fact they are university graduates, for their college didn't offer any.

Our schools are just beginning to include such vital topics in their curriculum. And our churches have usually shied away from the essential problem of preparing people to handle wisely the various marital situations that they will confront.

It was a remarkable evidence of progressiveness in the field of religious education when Dr. Roy Burkhart of Columbus, Ohio, invited me to give a clinic on marriage problems in his great church, and that was just 10 years ago.

But your progressive newspaper has been doing that very thing via this printed page for a long time.

It has thus taken the lead in constructive, practical education, even when many high schools and colleges, as well as churches, have evaded this vital responsibility.

PURPOSE OF EDUCATION

The chief purpose of education is to teach youth how to solve successfully the various problems in real life which they will soon encounter.

Marriage is certainly one of these universal and major problems. But even now it is too often ignored in the curriculum.

The desire to have friends and be popular, is another major human hunger running close to the gastric and sex appetites as a basic instinct.

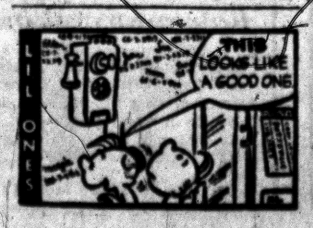

Yet the schools often ignore this practical need and some folks even scoff at our considering such a problem as a fundamental one.

How to meet desirable members of the opposite sex, is another vital but ignored need in current civilization, so our youth sneak out to taverns and night clubs where they may soon join the ranks of our juvenile delinquents.

Indeed, university graduates may never have had a single lecture on how to carry on an interesting conversation or write an interesting letter to a boy friend in the military service.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Dry, Scaly Skin Condition Traced to Vitamin A Lack

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Xeroderma is a $5 word for dry skin.

Xerophthalmia is a $7.50 word for dry eyes —that is, insufficient secretion of tears to keep the eyes comfortably moist.

Wait till I tell you more about these minor ailments. You'll realize they're worth every cent of the price.

* * *

Xeroderma is otherwise called xerosis, ichthyosis (fish skin), toad-skin, alligator skin.

When the dryness of the skin is extreme, patches of skin do resemble the skin of fish, toad, or alligator.

In some cases of xeroderma some portions of skin, particularly the outer surfaces of calves and forearms, back of the elbows and front of the knees may feel and look like a nutmeg grater.

PAPULES MAY APPEAR

There may be hard, dry, red papules at the orifices of the sebaceous (oil) glands ("pores," as they are sometimes called, though of course they never absorb anything).

When these papules occur on the face the trouble should not be mistaken for "acne."

* * *

Permanent "goose pimples," and the skin conditions which, if you can afford it, a resourceful specialist will diagnose as keratosis pilaris, ichthyosis follicularis lichen pilaris — these are all manifestations of abnormal dryness of the skin.

The most common cause of any and all of these various dry skin troubles is vitamin A deficiency.

Aside from improving your regular diet by consuming more whole milk, cream, butter and eggs, the way to correct vitamin A deficiency is simply supplement your diet with 50,000 units of pure crystalline vitamin A acetate daily. In other words, take two nio-a-let tablets every day.

NOT A MEDICINE

This doesn't cure anything, remember. It is not medicine. It is a nutritional element which is essential for good health but which many ultrarefined or restricted diets fail to provide in the quantity required.

* * *

So you can't very well find out whether vitamin A deficiency is responsible for your trouble until you have used at least 100 of the 25,000 unit tablets — two a day for seven weeks.

Even if your skin is in the same dry condition at the end of the experiment, at least the increased intake of vitamin A can do no harm.

In Little Lesson No. 9, the booklet Save Your Skin, for which send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope, there are instructions for preparing and using genuine cold cream, skin oil, and other creams especially intended for persons with excessively dry skin.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

County Clerk Denies Voiding Any Ballots

Oakland County Clerk Lynn D. Allen today said he has nod declared ballots for the June 7 charter election in Madison Heights illegal "and don't have the power to do so even if I was sure they are improperly drawn."

An article in a morning newspaper today claimed Allen had declared the ballots illegal.

"I only said it sounded as if the ballots might not be correctly set up as they were described to me over the phone," he explained.

"I have no jurisdiction over the matter. The ballots are the responsibility of the Madison Heights Charter Commission. If they are improperly drawn, and are not correctted by the commiission, it would probably be up to some citizen to start court action aimed at getting them changed."

The election is designed to determine if a charter set up by the nine-member commission elected in January is acceptable to residentts of the area bounded by Ten Mile, Dequindre, Fourteen Mile, Campbell and Stephenson. If approved it would make Madison Heights a city.

The ballots might be illegal if they don't allow persons voting "no" on the charter to cast ballots for city council members, Allen stated.

Canada, Denmark Inoculate 1,150,000

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Canada and Denmark today reported they have vaccinated about 1,150,000 children against polio with Salk-type vaccine. Officials said not a single case of the disease attributable to the serum has turned up.

Canada has inoculated about 750,000 children so far. One post-inoculation case of polio has been reported, but "it was found to have been infected with the virus before getting its first injection," a Federal Health Department spokesman in Ottawa said.

• • •

In Denmark 400,000 children have been inoculated. Authorities in Copenhagen said no polio has been reported in the country since the program began five weeks ago.

Canada and Denmark are the only countries outside the United States carrying on programs of mass inoculations.

The United States has more than 225,000 miles of railroads, or nearly 30 per cent of the world's mileage.

In World War II, 88 presidential unit citations were awarded National Guard units for outstanding performance of duty in action or for conspicuous valor or heroism.

Soviets Try Desperately to Woo Back Tito

Editor's Note—A few years ago American planes were shot down for trespassing Yugoslav territory. Then Stalin disowned Tito and the United States began backing him as a potential ally. Now the Russians are trying to woo him back. The background of this story—and the dangers it presents the West—are related in this article and two others to follow. The writer has studied the situation in both Moscow and Belgrade.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

"Bloodthirsty dog of a Fascist-Gestapo Breed!"

"Traitor! Murderer! Imperialist!"

"Contemptible degenerate!"

"Insolent dwarf!"

These were epithets the Russians used to describe Tito of Yugoslavia between 1948 and Stalin's death five years later.

Now the Russians admit they were wrong. As President Tito observes his 63rd birthday tomorrow, the Soviet leadership is ready to humble itself with a visit to Tito's lair, to beg forgiveness.

* * *

What caused this turnabout? What motivates the Belgrade pilgrimage of three of the Soviet Union's most powerful men?

So far as the outside world can guess, the maverick Communist ruler of 17 million Yugoslavs has told the collective dictators of a land of 210 millions: Come see me if you want to talk.

The stakes are high to inspire such humility in N. S. Khrushchev, Nikolai Bulganin and A. I. Mikoyan.

Yugoslavia is a dictatorship with a coldly efficient secret police. For the best observers it is difficult to pin anything down in such a country. Yet it is doubtful there's a Belgrade secret Moscow does not know. The Kremlin can measure the political and economic strains in Yugoslavia.

* * *

The West has supplied Yugoslavia over a billion dollars in aid since World War II, with most of the money coming from the United States. American diplomats and military observers are on a tough spot in Belgrade. They know much depends on their guesses. A highly placed observer told me:

"Tito is a reasonable gamble. We cannot go beyond that at the present time."

Would Tito ever go back completely to the Cominform fold? I asked this question recently of many qualified persons, including Yugoslavs.

"What worries you Americans?" a highly placed Yugoslav countered. "Is it that you think we stand for world revolution? You can say this: The Yugoslav government does not believe in world revolution."

* * *

This was an odd statement for a Yugoslav Communist. It denies Lenin, and the Yugoslav party claims to be more Leninist than its Soviet counterpart. It states constantly it is based on Marxism-Leninism, a theory involving ultimate triumph of world communism.

Others, including some non-Communist Yugoslavs, say the Yugoslav party would rejoin the Cominform under some firm conditions. These would include: absolute equality of partnership, collaboration in a struggle against world capitalism but with the right reserved to criticize the Soviet party, and an independent intelligence service for Yugoslavia. The Yugoslavs, these sources say, would insist on being assigned the job of building and keeping contacts with world leftist movements.

In this respect, the erstwhile "insolent dwarf" has grown big. His recent tour of India and Burma made impressive contacts in an area whose leaders have an affinity for socialism. He became a sort of spokesman in the West for the Eastern idea of neutrality between two big blocs. Recognizing his importance, India's Prime Minister Nehru soon will journey to Belgrade to repay his state visit.

Tito was ejected from the Cominform seven years ago. Moscow explained he had a "hateful policy" toward Russians, rejected Soviet military experts and followed an independent course which even flirted with the idea of a Balkan federation. That threatened even more satellite independence.

* * *

Tito has headed Yugoslavia's Communists since the '30s. Moscow and the Comintern—predecessors of the Cominform—assigned him the job of general secretary of the Yugoslav party. He emerged from the war a darling of Moscow, decorated by the Soviet government and smiled on by Stalin. At war's end he became premier of the Federated Republic of Yugoslavia.

Just before his break with the Cominform, Tito's relations with the United States plummeted to the lowest point. In 1946 Yugoslav fire forced down two unarmed American planes. A number of other incidents in the Trieste area thereafter strained relations to the breaking point.

* * *

But from the time the Cominform met in Warsaw in 1948 and denounced him, Tito became Moscow's enemy, if the torrent of abusive propaganda was to be believed. Tito's secret police are credited with saving him from violent Stalin designs. Cominformist Communists in Yugoslavia were arrested; announcements of executions were frequent. On the other side of the Communist curtain, thousands suspected of Titoism were liquidated. Tito needed American military and economic aid to offset a Communist boycott, and permitted a certain degree of alignment with the West.

* * *

Since Stalin's death Communists accused of Titoism and imprisoned during the feud have appeared again in responsible places. On the Yugoslav side, Communists accused of being pro-Cominform appeared in public again. The thaw was beginning.

The strongest rumor about Yugoslavia in the Balkans today is this: There are two opposing forces in the Yugoslav party. One is said to be represented by those who would ease off stringent dogma and lighten the people's lot. The other supposedly is represented by a "Cominform group," said to be strong among army officers.

Senate Group OKs $2 Million to Buy Vaccine

LANSING (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee today recommended a two million dollar appropriation to provide free Salk polio vaccine for Michigan children and pregnant mothers.

The committee accepted a House approved bill, but tightened it slightly.

The committee proposed that any federal money which might be made available to the states be deducted from the state grant and that any monies unspent next February revert to the general fund.

Members said this would carry the program past the current polio season and would give the Legislature a chance to assess the program when it meets next year.

Instead of providing the money for "high risk" categories, the committee proposed it be spent on children of ages 1 through 9, and for pregnant women—the groups specified by the federal government for priority inoculations.

Female Wails Greet Ban on New Bonnets

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—That feminine moan of anguish emanating from this City of Brotherly Love is coming from the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Many women came to the General Federation's annual convention with new hats trimmed with flowers, feathers or do-dads.

But they are having to leave those bonnets in hat boxes.

Mrs. Theodore S. Chapman, General Federation president, ruled that delegates must come to the convention sessions bareheaded so that rear-row sitters can see.

Writer Blasts Prisons

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Today's prisons are "crime factories" turning out "more and more criminals," says mystery writer Erle Stanely Gardner. He told the Pennsylvania Prison Society yesterday that it is "high time we abandoned the prison theories of today and start looking at the tomorrows in prison."

CRAFT OF TOMORROW — A "Flying Barrel" that reportedly will outperform vertical takeoff aircraft and helicopters is described by Aero Digest, a national aviation engineering magazine. This sketch shows the circular-winged craft in flight. Supposedly under construction in France, the coleopter seats three in gimbal chairs which keep passengers vertical regardless of the position of the craft. Details of operation are secret. The original design was invented by Graf von Zborowski, noted German aerodynamicist who pioneered in developing the first rocket aircraft.

Mexico Frees Rebel General

Runaway Nationalist Chinese Charged With Taking $6 Million

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico has freed a Chinese Nationalist general who is accused by Chiang Kai-shek's government of embezzling more than six million dollars while buying airplanes for Formosa in Washington.

The Foreign Office yesterday ordered the release of Gen. Pang Tsu Mow from prison. He has been in jail since Chiang's regime requested his extradition in August 1952.

In line with a court opinion, the Foreign Office said Mow was a political refugee and not subject to extradition.

* * *

The former general still faces trial on a charge of entering Mexico illegally. He posted a 30,000-peso ($2,500) bond before he was freed. For conviction on this count, the maximum sentence is two years in prison.

Mow fled to Mexico in 1952 after shortages appeared in the books of his office. Last year a U. S. District Court in Washington awarded the Chinese Nationalist government a $6,368,503.47 judgment against the runaway general. The sum represented the difference between the amount Formosa said it had entrusted to him and the amount he reported having spent.

* * *

Mow has never denied taking the money, which he says 'is in a safe place ready to be returned to the Chinese people." He has said he will never hand it back 'to the Formosa gang headed by Chiang Kai-shek."

At the beginning of 1950 there was one automobile for every three persons 14 years of age or over; by 1975, it is estimated, there will be one car for every two to tow and a half persons in that age group.

SWELLING AND INTENSE PAIN IN ARMS AND LEGS MADE LIFE MISERABLE

"Read my true testimonial," says Mr. William Roe, 617 S. Rosemary Street, Lansing, "and judge for yourself why O-JIB-WA BITTERS is best for rheumatism, arthritis and stomach trouble."

William Roe

"I've had lumbago off and on for quite some time, but nothing ever struck me down like an attack of rheumatism and arthritis did about five years ago. My legs, feet and ankles were swollen so big that I couldn't lace up my shoes; in fact, having them on at all was hard to bear. My arms were stiff and ached terribly all the time. I couldn't raise them up to my neck or put them behind my back to fasten my suspenders. Then it got worse—if you can imagine that. I was forced to bed for about three weeks, while cramps in my legs kept me awake and I was just miserable. On top of all this, my stomach was acting up. I love greasy food and was unable to eat any without gas, cramps and indigestion upsetting me. Then, about two years ago, I saw an ad in the newspaper praising O-JIB-WA BITTERS for helping someone who was in about the same shape I was. My daughter bought me a bottle and I began taking it. In about a month, the swelling started to go down, and the pains and stiffness began to leave my arms and legs. Soon, I was up and around doing things again that I wouldn't have believed possible just a few months before. Since that time, I haven't been bothered with an ache or pain, and O-JIB-WA BITTERS straightened out my stomach too. I can eat anything now without worrying about stomach upset, and even bacon grease on bread doesn't bother me. Believe me, after my experience, I wouldn't be without O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I even take it with me when traveling. Many people have asked me how I manage to get around so well after the bad shape I was in, and I'm glad to tell them how O-JIB-WA BITTERS put me back on my feet. I have recommended it to many others, and they are pleased with it too. It is my hope that this statement reaches someone who needs help, and will give O-JIB-WA BITTERS a fair trial like I did."

U.S. Awaiting Reds' Word on Motives in Big 4 Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department is awaiting an official note from Moscow before deciding what is Russia's real approach to arranging a top-level Big Four conference.

Meanwhile, it is becoming clear that great difficulties lie in the way solving major problems with the Soviets. Even what kind of Big Four meeting appears to be in dispute.

The Western Powers two weeks ago invited Russia to join in the session, which would bring together President Eisenhower and the Premiers of Russia, Britain and France. A definite Soviet reply was expected by this time.

* * *

But over the weekend the Communist newspaper Pravda sharply attacked the idea that the meeting should last only about three days, as the West has proposed. The Russians said that was not long enough to deal with problems of substance.

The nature of the problems themselves is becoming plainer and hope of quick progress is waning somewhat.

The Soviets, for example, have attacked Dulles and Eisenhower for broaching the idea of discussing the Soviet satellite states in Eastern Europe.

* * *

On the other hand, the Soviets recently advocated a kind of unarmed neutrality for Germany. Dulles rejected at his news conference yesterday any policy of neutrality for that country, whose Western portion is now allied with the Western Powers.

Asked what he thought about neutrality for states to the east of Germany—such satellites as Poland and Czechoslovakia—he said, "Anything which increases the national independence of satellite states is along the lines of United States policy."

Dulles emphasized several times a Western stand that the proposed Big Four conference should not try to find solutions for any of the problems. Its task, he said, is to "open up new paths" toward their solution which may require years to develop.

He said he would be "greatly surprised" if the Russians now advance a different concept.

However, many officials are convinced that the Soviet government is seeking to develop a basis for at least raising an issue and testing the determination of the Western Powers on this point.

Man, Two Boys Die as Wind Fells Wall

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A man and two boys were killed by a falling concrete wall in a windstorm during a game at Augusta's South Atlantic League baseball stadium last night.

Buried under a mass of debris, Wee Bennett, about 25, was dead when rescuers reached him. David Thomas, about 12, and Sam Madison, about 13, were dug out alive but died in a hospital.

* * *

The storm, with winds up to 60 miles an hour, struck during the fifth inning of a game between Augusta and Montgomery.

A 100-foot section of the wall collapsed. Bennett and the boys were outside the park. They apparently were standing against the wall to seek shelter from the wind.

The game was stopped immediately and players joined spectators in rescue efforts.

Perk Purnage, general manager of the Augusta team, said the area in which the wall fell was roped off and danger signs posted after a section of the wall collapsed several weeks ago.

What's Your Name? Query Leads to Death

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP)—"What's your name?"

Barnett Masters, 24, pondered the impromptu question and replied:

"I don't have a name. I'm a stranger here."

Then he reconsidered and added: "My name is Masters. What's yours?"

"My name is Dink Powell," came the reply.

Clyde McQueen, testifying yesterday at Powell's murder trial, said there was no argument; no other preliminaries when Masters was shot dead March 12 in a rural restaurant.

He said Powell "drew a pistol from his bosom" and shot Masters on the spot.

The trial continued today.

Colonel S. Sapp (Really a Major) Will Get Diploma

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Colonel Speed Sapp, who is neither a colonel nor speedy and certainly no sap, is going to get his diploma from Washington State College 50 years after leaving school.

Sapp, christened Colonel back in the 1880s, attended Washington State from 1902 to 1905 and then left to join the Army, 21 credits short of graduation.

In the service he was known as Lt. Colonel Speed Sapp, then Capt. Colonel Speed Sapp and finally Maj. Colonel Speed Sapp. He retired before he became Col. Colonel, etc.

His daughter Mrs. Laurence Swanson, of Seattle, wrote Washington State this spring to say her father always talks fondly of the old school and seems to want to get that sheepskin. Is there some way he can get it?

Registrar Claude Simpson found Sapp still 21 credits short but that his long military service should count for something, maybe just 21 credits.

* * *

It was easy to put through. Sapp was quite a boy here in his college days, a good student, a football tackle and long on school spirit.

Sapp will come here from his home in Seattle to get his diploma at graduation exercises June 5. It will be a bachelor of arts in general studies. His old curriculum—economics, science and history—isn't offered any more.

MSC Completes Plans for Postal Schooling

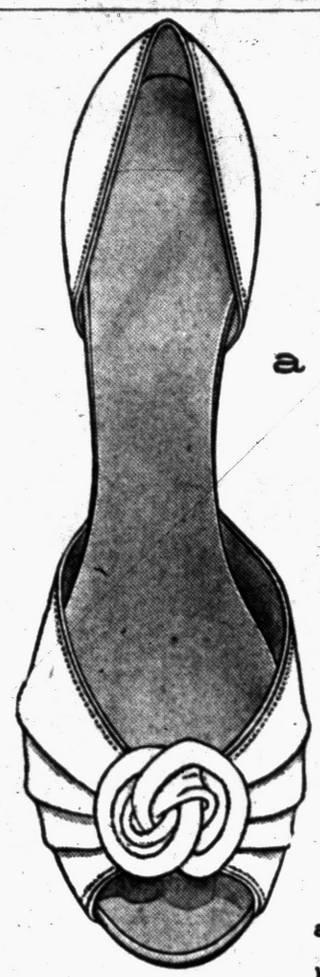

EAST LANSING (AP)—Plans have been completed for a training school for workers in the U.S. postal service, the School of Education at Michigan State College announced today.

The first session of the school, which will ultimately reach 400 supervisory personnel in the Detroit Post Office, is scheduled for the last week in June. The groups will meet for five weeks in the Detroit Post Office.

The Arctic rose gull, with its beautifully rose-tinted breast, seldom is found south of the Arctic Sea.

Unlike most water birds that build their nests in the sand or rocks on shore, the grebe builds hers on the water.

Should all of the natural ice on on the earth melt, it would result in raising the level of the oceans by about 100 feet.

New Rubbish-Burning Ordinance Tabled

It Carries Men Up, Over, Down

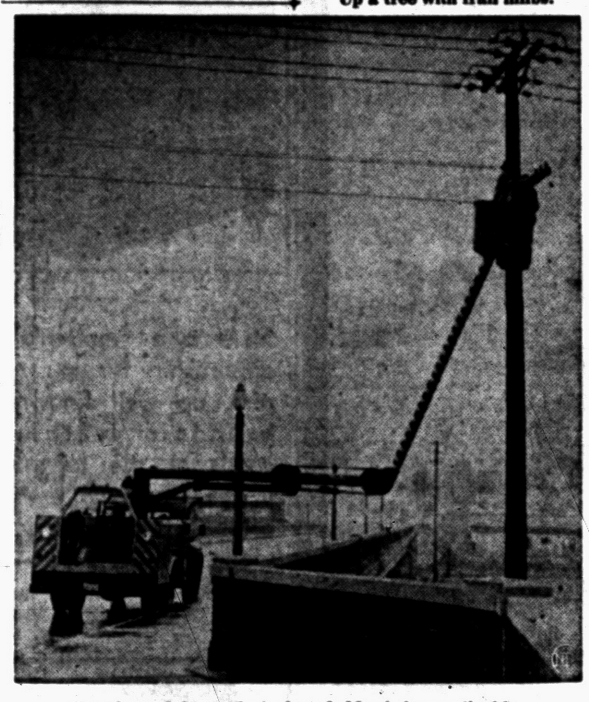

The weird-looking gadget pictured here is the latest thing in truck-mounted aerial equipment. Called a "skymaster" it was designed to enable men to work comfortably, safely and with freedom of movement in areas normally difficult to reach. It's basically a pair of independently moved beams installed on a revolving mast, with baskets for workmen attached to the outer beam. Twin, plastic baskets, insulated against 50,000 volts, are parallel to the ground at all times. Mast can be turned continuously in either direction. The inner beam can be moved to any point in an 85-degree arc, and the outer beam can be positioned anywhere in a 265-degree arc.

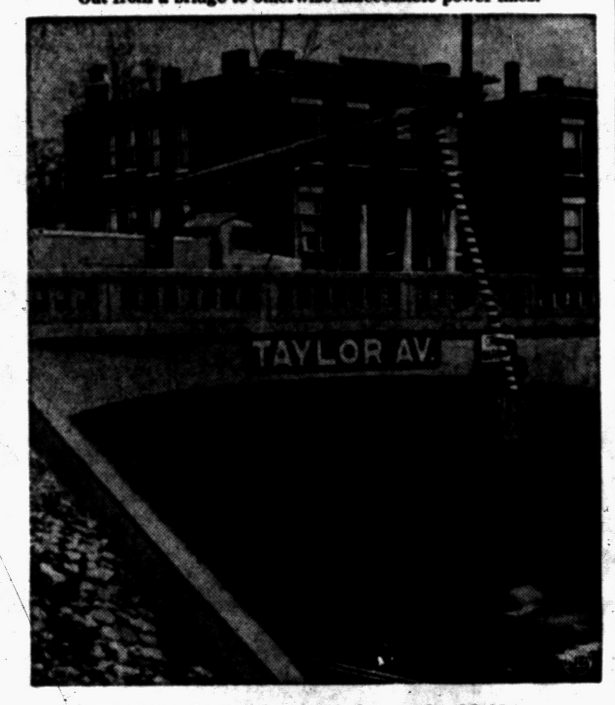

Up a tree with frail limbs.

Out from a bridge to otherwise inaccessible power lines.

Over to work in comfort where ladder is impracticable.

Down to put a warning sign on low overhead bridge.

Good Cleaning Fluid

MIAMI (UP) — Deputy U. S. Marshal Guy Hixon keeps a five-gallon jug of moonshine whisky in his office.

He said the moonshine, seized in a raid, is "the best cleaning fluid we have ever had around this office."

Further Study Planned by City

Plan Commission Slated to Consider Rezoning Subdivision

The City Commission last night tabled for further study a new ordinance prohibiting rubbish burning within 15 feet of a "combustible building or nearest lot line".

Objection to passage of the measure was raised by Commissioner John A. Dugan (District 5) who said establishing the 15-foot restriction "was getting pretty technical."

City Manager Walter K. Willman said the purpose of the ordinance was to give the fire marshal some legal basis to act upon when complaints are received.

Further action on the ordinance was tabled on motion of Commissioner Harry W. Lutz (District 7) "to give the fire marshal a chance to answer Commissioner Dugan's objections."

REZONING CONSIDERED

After much discussion, the Commission voted 6-1 to have the City Plan Commission consider rezoning the western half of the new Herrington Hills Subdivision, near Featherstone road.

The Commission also gave tentative approval for the subdivision's general layout so contracts could be let for sewer and water installations.

Because three-quarters of the Commission did not favor it, a request to rezone a lot on Lake street from residential to manufacturing classifications was turned down.

In other action, the Commission ordered preparation of a resolution praising the Pontiac High School track team for winning the state championship.

First reading was made of a revised ordinance regulating blocking of streets by trains. The revised ordinance would enable police to ticket the train operators, the train master or the local agent of the railroad.

The Commission sanctioned rezoning to commercial classification three lots on the southeast corner of Sanford St. and Irwin Ave.

APPROVAL GIVEN PLAT

Approval was given the plat for the 158-home Eastview Subdivision No. 1 and the bond for improvements in the subdivision.

Public necessity was declared for curb, gutter, drainage and blacktopping on Blaine avenue from Oakland to Montcalm, and on West Princeton avenue from Baldwin to Stanley.

Public necessity also was declared for a sanitary sewer on West Columbia avenue from Hollywood to Baldwin.

A public hearing was set for next Tuesday for curb, gutter and drainage on Carlisle avenue from Walton to New York.

The city assessor was authorized to prepare a special assessment roll for curb, gutter and drainage on Fourth avenue from Joslyn to Fuller and on Ypsilanti avenue from Carlisle to Stanley.

Public hearings were held and confirmation deferred for curb, gutter and drainage work on Peggy avenue from Voorheis to Hazel and on Gerdon avenue from Oakland to Corwin.

Talented Animal 'Hams' Show Off for Visitors at Zoo in Royal Oak

Below is pictured a sample of some of the animal ladies and gentlemen waiting to entertain you at the Detroit Zoo, in Royal Oak, which opened last week.

The top scene shows "Tommy" the chimp who has donned his fez and cape prior to taking his ladyfair for a spin around the new Holden Amphitheater stage.

The middle shot finds "Julius," another chimp, ready to play a few bars of "I Went to the Animal Fair."

The bottom picture shows a group of polar bears ready to scramble for apples thrown to them by an attendant.

Tommy and Julius are among 12 simian actors starring this season in the expanded chimp show.

Some 2,600 people can watch the talented chimpanzees from seats in the amphitheater. The animals perform on an open stage separated from the audience by a moat.

The 122-acre park includes a collection of 2,000 animals, birds and reptiles living much as they did in their native lands.

The zoo was the first in the United States designed with barless exhibits. "This, coupled with careful landscaping, makes the animals seem to belong where they are," said Director Frank G. McInnis.

A great-ape exhibit is presented this year for the first time in a new building constructed to house gorillas, orangutans, chimpanzees and gibbons.

The annual attendance at the park is now about 2,000,000 people from the U. S., Canada and many other countries.

Cranbrook Plans Special Program on Memorial Day

A special Memorial Day service will be held at Cranbrook School Monday afternoon, in commemoration of 700 alumni who served in World War II, and expecially of the 37 who lost their lives.

The entire student body, faculty, and parents of the deceased alumni will gather in the school quadrangle to hear a short address by Alumni Assn. President Robert Porter, of Birmingham.

A wreath will be placed on a bronze plaque in which names of the deceased are inscribed.

The wreath will be placed by Mrs. Frederick L. Ward, of Pontiac. Her son Robert, who was killed in the war, graduated from Cranbrook in 1940, and one of her grandsons, Fred, is currently a member of the senior class.

Automobile Sparks Business in County

(Special to the Press)

NEW YORK — Business is on the upgrade in Oakland County and, as in most parts of the nation, the automobile is sparking the rise.

Residents of Oakland County are spending at the rate of $183,446,000 a year for automotive equipment and supplies. Of the total, filling stations are garnering $55,140,000 per year.

The figures are revealed by Consumer Markets in its annual survey, just off the press, covering 1954.

The importance of the automobile to the local economy is indicated by the fact that automotive sales account for 33 per cent of the entire retail business of the country, which reached $557,868,000 last year.

SALES DOWN ELSEWHERE

Elsewhere in the United States, automobile sales were lower, attracting 25 per cent of the retail dollar. In the East North Central States, it was 26 per cent.

This spending mood flows in part from the fact that the people have strong reserves of money in the form of savings and investments that are not earmarked for necessities.

Another factor is a feeling of confidence engendered by the nation's huge gross output and by the halt to the inflation of the dollar.

Total automotive purchases in Oakland County during the past year amounted to $383 per capita. Included in the figure, in addition to passenger cars, are sales of tires and batteries, motorcycles and boats.

FIGURE FAVORABLE

The local figure compares favorably with the outlay of $263 per person throughout the United States as a whole and with the $292 per person spent in the East North Central States.

Auto sales have gone beyond the expectations of the industry and have carried allied lines along with it. At the present rate, Americans will have bought over six million new cars before the year is out.

The desire of most people to own a car and to own a home has proved to be the backbone of our present thriving economy.

These two, automobiles and houses, pulling together, have been chiefly responsible for the country's emergence from recession to recovery, most economists agree.

Divorce No. 13 Granted; Plans Wedding No. 14

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Beverly Nina O'Malley, 44, a diminutive blonde who has been marrying since she was 16, is planning her 14th wedding.

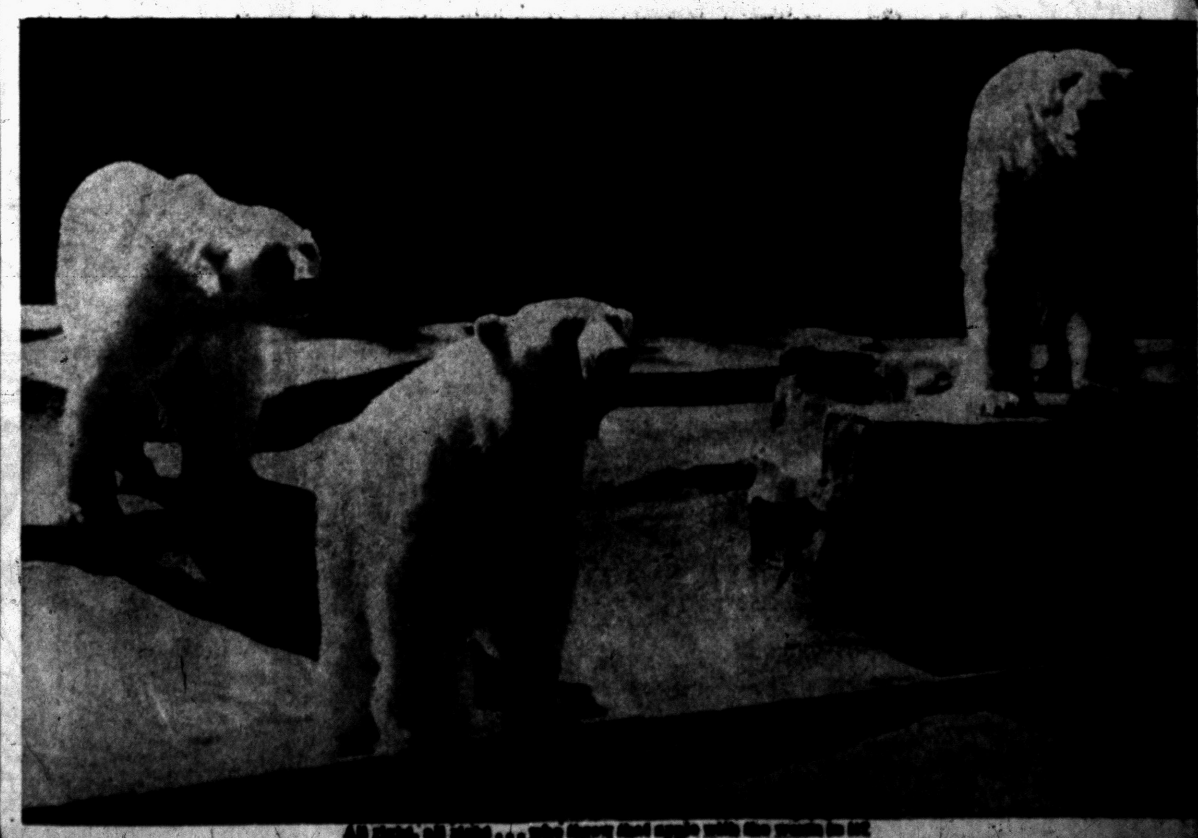

Yesterday she obtained the signature of a judge on her final decree of divorce from husband No. 13, Raymond Joseph O'Malley. She said she plans to obtain a marriage license today to wed No. 14, Gabriel L. Avery, also 44, a parking lot superintendent.

* * *

Mrs. O'Malley obtained her interlocutory decree of divorce from O'Malley on May 20, 1954. However through a clerical error, it was not entered in the records until June 4, 1954. In California it takes a year to get a final decree. But yesterday Judge Elmer Doyle corrected the error, clearing the way for her immediate marriage to Avery.

The judge commented: "On the past record, one can't have too much confidence in this latest venture. But I wish her luck and hope she will never be back in Domestic Relations Court again. Who knows? Maybe this one will stick."

Mrs. O'Malley said: "I always hope."

All right, all right . . . who threw that apple into the room in it?

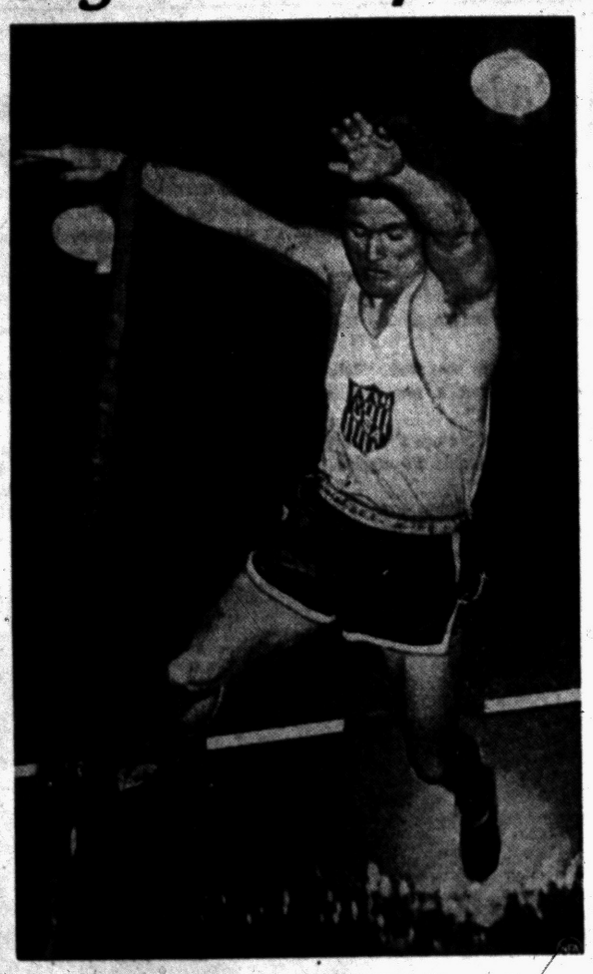

Pole-Vaulting Parson's Own Story—3

He's 'Trying to Jump His Way to Heaven'

By THE REV. BOB RICHARDS
As Told to Jimmy Breslin

LONG BEACH, Calif. — (NEA) — I am, I always tell people, the only man in the world trying to pole vault his way to Heaven.

I also try to tell them that pole vaulting or running or baseball — in short, competition — is the only answer to the juvenile delinquency problem as we have it today. With this apparently unrestricted wave of sex and violence beamed to places where kids are, the only answer which makes any sort of sense is to keep them busy.

POLE-VAULTING PARSON—Competition's the answer.

SOME NEED HELP

I'm not talking about the type of young people who will come to the church meetings we hold, nor am I particularly concerned over youngsters who'll come to me after a track meet and ask for advice on pole vaulting. They are going to take care of themselves pretty well.

The one we should worry about is that 15-year-old at the crossroads between good and evil, and somebody had better come up with a good substitute for the thrills he's after or we'll have trouble.

People, however, seem to think it is far easier to put on extra policemen, or build bigger jails than it is to come up with a constructive idea which might make heavy inroads into the amount of crime we have.

* * *

Take right here in Long Beach. I'm serving on a recreation committee which has been trying to persuade the city to build a new athletic field and staff it with people who could supervise the goings-on effectively.

STILL NO PARK

Well, this has been going on for over a year now and there's still no park.

It would be a simpler matter, I'm certain, to press for more police or a larger jail.

My reasoning is simple. I understand how a boy can graduate — and do it easily — from street fights to murderous stomping. Every kid has an ego. He likes to excel at something. In fact, he needs to if he's to get any recognition among his own.

Now, if you divert even a part of the millions this nation annually spends on crime prevention and build and staff parks and boys' clubs and gyms, the amount of good which will be done would pay off at stock market interest rates.

* * *

I'm not saying that you can build a park, put in a spot for kids to pole vault and then sit back and have your whole juvenile delinquency problem licked. We have, as I've noted, too many things to battle before this would be a reality.

RESULTS PROMISED

But we could dig in and get some healthy results. I tell the city of Long Beach, "Get that park, put somebody in there, and I'll show you results."

For this, people pull out the old saw about the park built in a neighborhood and the juvenile crime rate being cut in half. Why not, they laugh, build another one and you'd have no crime?

What they don't realize is something that I know had so much to do with changing my life.

It was, you see, that one young girl in Champaign, Ill., who reached me at a time when no adult in the world was going to tell me that being unafraid of police didn't make you a big shot.

Why couldn't it happen again — say, to a tough kid on New York's East Side or maybe to two or three of them in Chicago?

YOUTHS WATCH

It can. I've noticed it around Long Beach. When I practice pole vaulting in rear of the parsonage, I usually have a few kids around. I help them out, and let them start in on what is as tough an event as sports has.

"I did seven feet today," they'll chortle back in their neighborhood. It's a big thing—and somebody nearly always will figure out that he can do it better and he'll be around and see for himself.

With any sort of a planned, nation-wide program, of competition for young people, it would have to happen, and happen on a large scale. The idea that a kid must excel at something would turn a tremendous amount of youngsters from stealing the best watch to running the best time.

We have many programs operating at full-blast today and they're doing as fine a job as possible. Settlement houses, such organizations as the Boys Clubs of America — they help mightily. But I feel this is nothing more than a start. We need a national program.

* * *

If it has to be backed by the government, then let it be backed that way. As it is now, there is not one place in which the government puts funds for recreation.

COPS, NOT PARKS

Instead, Washington holds inquiries and talks of hiring 35,000 more probation officers.

In the meantime, the people at the Amateur Athletic Union talk about the troubles their Junior Olympic program is having. There are not enough parks obtainable to hold the events they'd like to stage — and there are not enough volunteer workers to put them on.

And nobody seems to care We're all too busy thumbing through crime statistics and planning to add police and jails.

It is impossible to get across the idea that organized sports competition would help kids and be far better than any curfew or nightstick you slap on them.

It seems all too simple—just as simple as it was for Bob Richards in 1941.

SPEAKING OF SUDAN INTERIOR MISSION — The Rev. and Mrs. Harry Metro will speak and show colored slides of their missionary work in Ethiopia Wednesday at 7:30 at the Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church, S. Ike Views Dresses First Ladies Wore

WASHINGTON (AP)—A somewhat embarrassed President Eisenhower spent part of last evening looking at women's dresses—an exhibit of gowns worn by the nation's First Ladies.

The President tagged along with Mrs. Eisenhower as she formally opened the new display at the Smithsonian Institution.

Cornered by a fashion reporter, Eisenhower said that of all the gowns he liked the best "that one of Mrs. McKinley's with the high neck." He said he's old enough to be "old-fashioned."

The Eisenhowers also saw the dress Mrs. Eisenhower wore at the 1953 Inaugural Ball and the gown in which she was married.

The Smithsonian spent $75,000 sprucing up its display of gowns, which for years had been housed in a dark, drab room.

At the big municipal swimming pool at Casablanca, Morocco, Moorish girls often arrive in robes and veils and then emerge from dressing rooms in brief bathing suits.

Uranium Stocks Selling

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Since 1951 — and mostly in 1954-55 — some 837,852,000 shares of uranium stock have been sold here, the "Wall street" of the uranium world. Most of the trading is not done on the Salt Lake stock exchange but by individual brokers.

Science Seeks Disease-Free Berry Plants

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—The University of California is experimenting with a new way to produce disease-free strawberry plants.

The process, now in its experimental stage, is to put one glass house inside another glass house to keep the tender plants warm.

Prof. Stephen Wilhelm, of the Department of Plant Pathology, now has 200 plants growing inside an electrically heated greenhouse inside another greenhouse.

The plants are grown for two weeks under 100-degree temperature, Wilhelm said.

The high temperature gets rid of viruses that cause heavy losses in the strawberry industry.

"If the small greenhouse works as well as we think it will," Wilhelm added, "the university will be able to provide nurserymen with basic stocks of virus-free varieties every year."

Presbyterians Vote on Desegregation

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Presbyterians vote today on a report urging the church to "act now to abolish from its practices all forms of segregation."

Action on a committee plea for a racial "Operation Desegregation" in churches and communities highlights the closing day of the 167th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The report of the assembly's Standing Committee on Social Education and Action says also:

* * *

1. Churches must be vigilant concerning "crippling restrictions" on schoolteachers, "abuse of loyalty oaths" and "erosion of essential human rights by a narrow definition of patriotism and insistence upon conformity. . . ."

2. "Christians should be warned that the greatest danger in politics is idolatry, when we let party loyalties play a larger role in our attitudes and decisions than our loyalty to the living God."

School's 1st Adult Degree Goes to Busy Newsman

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—The first student to complete degree requirements in Wichita University's college of adult education was a veteran newsman—Ernest A. Warden.

He's been majoring in economics and minoring in journalism while attending night classes since 1947. Meantime, he covered regular runs and wrote features for The Wichita Beacon, won repeated election as justice of the peace, wrote four books on crime and divorce, and did free-lance writing.

Work for his A.B. degree started with 41 hours of credit at Columbia University, New York City, in 1922-24.

COLLECTING STAMPS—3

The Landing of the Pilgrims

In 1920 the United States issued a set of three stamps honoring the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims.

These colonists were called Pilgrims because, in fleeing from Europe to escape religious tyranny they were making a "pilgrimage" to a new land.

The Mayflower Compact or Agreement was a forerunner of the American ideal of self government.

It is interesting to note that these stamps were the only ones ever issued by the United States that did not bear any words showing the county of origin. Nowhere do the letters "U. S." appear on the stamps.

The one-center showing the Mayflower is considered one of the prettiest of all U. S. stamps.

Color this picture too and save it for your stamp hobby book.

Seasoning, Fish Food Products of Salt Lake

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — America's "dead sea," the Great Salt Lake, is a source of food for humans and tropical fish.

Table salt is obtained by pumping lake water into shallow basins and allowing it to evaporate.

Food for tropical fish comes from tiny brine shrimp which grow in the salty waters, mostly around the shoreline. These are gathered and shipped to many parts of the world.

Loses $30, but Wins Race With the Stork

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—Labor pains don't justify excessive speed, says Police Chief Walter Hedley.

He upheld a $30 fine against a woman accused of speeding 55 miles an hour through city streets to a hospital where her baby was born four hours later.

"The woman endangered not only her own life and that of the unborn child, but the lives of others. If it was an emergency, she should have called an ambulance," said the chief.

MALDEN, Mass. (UP) — Residents here have a personal grievance against Russia. Their city, listed in the latest edition of the Great Soviet Encyclopedia as a suburb of Boston, is spelled "Molden."

Doctor Claims Many Children Dental Cripples

CHICAGO (UP) — Many children are growing up to be dental cripples because ignorance about dental health is still too widespread, according to the president of the American Dental association.

Dr. Daniel F. Lynch, Washington, D. C., said "the toll taken by dental decay alone in terms of tooth loss, difficulty in eating, blighted appearance and even facial deformities is staggering and needless."

Lynch said emphasis on children's dental health is the only sound approach to the nation's dental problem.

He urged that the following procedures be carried out for all children to help promote life-long dental health:

1. A nutritious diet low in sweets.
2. Proper use of the toothbrush right after eating.
3. Early detection and treatment of dental defects to prevent more serious ills later.
4. Fluoridation of community water systems to reduce dental decay among children by as much as 65 per cent.

Briton Gets the Point in 'Drawing Pin' Hunt

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Karl Archibald of London can tell you that there is a lot of difference in the way the King's English is handled.

Karl, who married a Richmond girl, was fixing up an apartment for use in the alternate years when they live in the United States. He needed some drawing pins and was amazed that he could not find them in a half-dozen stores he tried.

"You're English," laughed a clerk in the seventh store. "So am I. What you want is available anywhere, only they call them 'thumb tacks'."

Hal Boyle Says:

Beware if Girl Claims She 'Pecks at Food'

NEW YORK (AP) — Little broad-jumps to big conclusions—or snap judgments a guy couldn't prove in court:

If a man can't be taught by experience, he can't be taught.

Some people will swallow anything; digestion is the more difficult art.

* * *

If animals had pockets like people, they'd have as many worries, too.

A fellow who is always borrowing someone else's pocket comb rarely makes lasting friendships.

It is better to have two holes showing in your socks than one in your head.

Four out of five times it is more expensive to buy a dinner for a small woman than a large one.

When a girl cozily murmurs "I don't really eat, I just peck at food," you can bet on it that the bird she pecks like isn't a wren but an ostrich.

There are more secret eaters in America than there are secret drinkers.

* * *

Some of the most religious people I know also regularly read astrology magazines. In heaven's name, why?

Maturity begins the moment you discover something you want that money won't buy.

People often feel sorry for a poor devil; they rarely express sympathy for a rich saint.

* * *

A cynic is a guy who can criticize food even on an empty stomach.

A waiter's observation: "In the most interesting understandings reached at a restaurant table the knees do all the real talking."

Any red-haired girl who ends up a spinster simply doesn't like men.

You're only old once.

* * *

Social climbers always remind me of a racetrack bum who won't pick up cigarette butts anywhere except at the $50 window.

Bigotry is the most revolting form of poverty; it is the only sign of snobbery a mental pauper can afford.

Women rarely realize they are sometimes most attractive when they're messed up—but never attractive if they're always messy.

* * *

Nothing is more maddening than to have a stranger ask you how to get to a destination—and then see him deliberately walk off in the opposite direction.

A woman is reconciled to middle age if she will admit she remembers when Mary Pickford wore curls.

A bachelor never knows what he has missed. His married friends don't know what he has missed either. But they do like to guess.

* * *

For some reason a man who works a crossword puzzle every day seems to me the kind of guy who also would still buy a pair of high button shoes if the right salesman came along.

Girls who take off their shoes at cocktail parties usually haven't read any good books lately.

A fellow who is always talking about what he'd do if he had his life to live over again probably doesn't know what real living is anyway.

No parent is more suspicious of his daughter's suitors than a father who happens to own a liquor store.

A clear case for psychiatry is the guy who, no matter how good a story you tell him, always replies, "listen to this one—it'll top you."

Most people are too narrow-minded to appreciate a sense of humor in an undertaker.

Nothing I know of is more forlorn than a small boy without a hero.

Fear Death of Twin After Separaiton

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Doctors at Charity Hospital hold only faint hope for the survival of a Siamese twin girl, separated from her sister in a three-hour operation.

One of the girls born to Mrs. Leance Ducksworth, 20, in Gulfport, Miss., Monday died on the operating table yesterday. Dr. W. T. Newson, director of the hospital's premature infants center, said the surviving twin was doing "fairly well considering . . ."

He said the girls were joined at the abdomen and pelvis.

The father is a 26-year-old Gulfport presser.

Girl Mob Attacks All-Male School in T-Shirt Raid

DENVER (AP)—Eight police cars averted what officers said appeared to be a panty raid in reverse on the Regis College campus last night.

The Rev. Francis Malecek, dean of men at the all-male Denver school, said a horde of girls swarmed on the campus, singing, yelling and screaming around the dormitories and classrooms.

The girls were believed to be from Loretto Heights College, an all-girl school here, one officer said.

The Rev. Mr. Malecek said he and other faculty members asked the girls to leave the campus. When they refused, he called police.

The girls fled when the first police cruisers arrived.

Mumps Afflict Family of Texas Governor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Allan Shivers, wife of Texas' governor, is confined to the governor's mansion with the mumps.

The Shivers family began its bout with the disease three weeks ago when Marialice Sue (Cissy) Shivers, 8, contracted it.

Neither the governor nor the three Shivers sons have had the mumps, a mansion spokesman said, but the governor was confined yesterday with what doctors said was a "light case of influenza."

Shivers was expected back in his office today.

Maybe the U.S. Ought to Send a Dozen or So

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Information Agency said today the Budapest library, in Communist Hungary, had requested a copy of a book entitled "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

Along with the request, which passed through Communist censorship, was this note: "Since we attach great importance in having this publication, we would appreciate it if you would kindly send us one copy of same."

The book was sent.

Give Her Liberty . . .

DENVER (AP) — His wife sued Patrick Henry for her liberty yesterday. Mrs. Mary Henry filed suit for divorce in District Court, charging "extreme and repeated acts of cruelty." Henry operates an inn at Aspen, Colo.

Smashing Up His Car Only Start of Trouble

OMAHA (AP)—Edward E. Kopfle, 23, ran his car into a ditch on a country road and started walking for help. He had hoofed it a mile when deputy sheriffs seeking the owner of the wrecked car, spotted by them on their rounds, caught up.

They handed Kopfle a ticket including a charge of leaving the scene of a property damage accident. But Capt. R. H. Walter said that was going too far and scratched the count. He let stand a charge of having no driver's license.

Remembers People Who Voted for Him

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky. (AP) — Even in death H. B. Fife remembered the people who kept him in office 40 years.

His estate, valued at more than $250,000, will go to Hardin County, where he served as judge, magistrate, sheriff and deputy sheriff.

The will stipulates that income from the estate should go for road building, construction of an airport, a county jail or courthouse. The principal must be held in trust by the county.

Fife, who died May 15 at 82, never married. He had only one known survivor, a niece living in New York City.

Hubby Asks When Dishes Are Washed

Annoyed by Wife Who Cleans Them Even With Guests

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter is from a man who tells me: "My wife can't stand to see dirty dishes around and as soon as dinner is over, she clears the table and starts to wash the dishes.

This is all right when we are alone, but she also does it when we have guests in for dinner.

I do not think this is right and that she should wait until the guests have gone home to wash the dishes. I would very much appreciate your opinion on this matter."

I agree with you. She should not do more than quickly scrape the food off the plates and leave them to soak until the guests have gone.

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine tells me that in Europe (in some countries at least) it is entirely proper to burp after a meal and that this is looked upon as evidence of satisfaction and appreciation, and is a sort of thank you for a delicious dinner.

He also says that one never excuses him (or her) self for this.

Can there be any truth to this statement?

Answer: I think that the country of the legend your friend tells you of is not in Europe but in China. In this country, at any rate, we should make every effort not to offend by "burping."

If one should unavoidably do so, it is better not to draw anyone's further attention to it by apologizing.

Dear Mrs. Post: This question has come up in our home economics class and we would like you to answer it for us.

With which hand do you pick up the desert fork when it is placed on the left hand side of the plate?

Do you pick it up in your left hand and then switch it to your right, or do you reach across and pick it up in your right hand?

Answer: You pick it up with your left hand, and then if you are going to use it in your right hand, you change it to that hand.

Bridal Party Given for Elinor Allison

Elinor Allison, bride-elect of Frederick Hiram Graunstadt, was feted at the first of her prenuptial showers. Cohostesses for the recent affair were Mrs. William Gray and Mrs. Samuel Dow, with 21 friends and relatives gathering at the latter's home on Pontiac drive.

The couple will be married June 18. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Allison of Pontiac Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Graunstadt of Williams Lake.

Jeanette E. Larvick Becomes Bride

Ascension Lutheran Church was the setting for the double-ring wedding ceremony which united Jeanette Elaine Larvick and Eugene G. Spring of St. Ignace.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Larvick of Elm street and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gladys Spring of Virginia avenue and Elmer Spring of Detroit.

The Rev. George Garver performed the 7:30 ceremony Monday evening before 200 guests. Arrangements of gladioli, stock and palms decorated the altar and bows marked the pews of the church.

A gown of French-cut Chantilly lace over satin was worn by the bride. The fitted bodice was fashioned with scalloped portrait neckline, embellished with seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in points at her wrists.

SKIRT WAS TIERED

A bouffant skirt of lace and tulle over satin was gracefully tiered on either side of the pleated tulle front. The skirt blended into a chapel train.

The bride's headpiece of tulle petals and seed pearls, edged with layers of pleated tulle, secured her veil. She carried an arrangement of five cymbidium orchids surrounded by feathered carnations, hyacinths and ivy.

Mrs. Dallas N. Nelson attended her sister as matron of honor wearing a ballerina-length gown of coral crystalette with matching jacket fashioned with three-quarter sleeves and stand-up collar.

She wore a coral velvet headpiece in wedding ring design and carried a ballerina bouquet of coral feathered carnations centered with yellow roses.

The Money Counts Later, Not Now

By ANNE HEYWOOD

The other day, I got a heart-breaking letter from a woman who said:

"When I was twenty-five, I made a decision, which seemed sensible at the time, but one which I have regretted ever since.

"I had the choice between a low-paying job in a field I loved, where there was big opportunity, and a high-paying job in a field I did not love.

"I chose the high-paying dead end because I didn't honestly see how I could afford the dream job.

"The money it offered just didn't seem like enough to live on, but now I know I should have taken it — even if I practically starved to death.

ONLY TEMPORARY

"At the time, starvation would only have been temporary — and only physical, so to speak.

"Instead, I have been starved emotionally and intellectually for most of my life.

"Do tell those youngsters, starting their careers, not to make the mistake I made."

* * *

This is, unfortunately, all too typical. Many times, the jobs with real interest and future potential, do pay less to start than the safe, dull and static ones.

At the time, we thing in terms of immediacy and too often choose the dead end.

But the wise girl will juggle the budget and, if necessary, make every sacrifice, in order to make the right choice.

This can be done in many ways. First, prune your budget down to rock-bottom. Get your clothes in a good thrift shop and get very few of them.

Live in very inexpensive quarters. Even if they're unattractive, you can stand it for, say a year.

Pretend you're a young doctor, going through your interneship.

Cultivate friends who are also in the really low-income bracket. Joint ventures can be cheaper.

Eight can eat spaghetti and red wine and have a gala time on pennies; and it's much safer than playing with people whose higher incomes make you feel pathetic.

PART-TIME JOB

Second, investigate the possibilities of a job after-hours.

Be careful, here. Make sure that the part-time job does not conflict with your real job.

Baby-sitting for evenings and weekends, or selling in a store on Saturday, can help supplement anyone's income.

After all, not so long ago everybody worked a six-day week, so there's no harm in picking up extra money by doing Saturday work.

One way or another, manage your life so that you don't hock your future success for a few dollars' difference in the immediate paycheck! —

On a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains are Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rogers, who were wed Saturday evening. The bride is the former Delma Mae Rains. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Rains of Park Place and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers of Oliver street.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE A. ROGERS

Delma M. Rains Speaks Nuptial Vows at All Saints

The Smoky Mountains were the destination of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Rogers, who left on their honeymoon trip following their marriage at 7:30 Saturday evening in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. C. George Widdifield.

The bride, the former Delma Mae Rains, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Rains of Park place and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rogers of Oliver street.

A floor-length gown of white Chantilly-type lace with tulle over bridal satin was worn by the bride. A scalloped lace collar complemented her portrait neckline, to which she added a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

A cloche headpiece of lace flowers appliqued with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Dale Rolfe wore an aqua nylon net gown, fashioned with a lace jacket. Her bouquet was of spring flowers.

The bridesmaids' orchid gowns were styled like that of the matron of honor, as were their flowers. Helen Wesch, Dories Rains, another sister, and Connie Rolfe, the bride's niece, were the other attendants.

Another niece, Theresa Rolfe, was flower girl, and Jimmie Siver, cousin of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Clarence Davidson served as best man and ushers were Dale Rolfe and the bridegroom's cousins, Ronald Cook and William Siver.

When the new Mrs. Rogers left on her wedding trip she was wearing a white linen dress with navy and white accessories. Upon their return, the newlyweds will reside on Silver Birch drive.

Guests included Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Kremer, Mrs. Paul Slayton, Mrs. Elna Riddle, Mrs. Richard Stewart, Mrs. Kenneth Davison, Mrs. Frank J. Morton, Mrs. Robert Moody and Mrs. Blanche Thompson.

Ham Adds New Note to Fritters

Mrs. H. A. Parker Uses Chopped Meat to Vary Corn Treat

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

The Parker family who lives on Pingree street has a supper that is probably a favorite with many families — corn fritters, syrup, salad and a beverage. Mrs. Parker adds a different touch to her fritters by combining chopped cooked ham with the batter before frying.

Insisting she is just a homebody, Mrs. Parker says she has no outside interests except the Lydia group of her church. She has two school age children to care for.

HAM AND CORN FRITTERS
By Mrs. Harold A. Parker

2 eggs, beaten
2 cups cream style corn
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 cup chopped cooked ham

Combine eggs, corn and melted shortening. Add sifted dry ingredients and mix. Fold in ham and drop by tablespoonfuls into deep hot fat (350-375 degrees)*. Cook about 5 minutes or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper and serve at once with hot maple syrup. Makes about 25 fritters.

How do you want your hair to look this summer? The trend in this area is still short, but, is short hair becoming to you and is it practical in your texture of hair?

Hair styling is a personal matter and must be treated as such. It is normal to want to be in style and most of us can wear some modification of the prevailing trend.

The perfect hairdo is one which follows the prevailing trend yet is modified to harmonize with your type, texture and color of hair must also be considered. Some styles look best on dark hair, and some are suited to blonds. Fine hair requires different treatment than coarse. If you are undecided about these things, why don't you let us help you?

Maturity Will Come to Parents, Too

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Until the other day, the jealousy 12-year-old Doug feels for his younger brother had kept their mother uneasy and apologetic.

Then he asked her an enlightening question. She had just hung up the telephone after giving Buddy permission to visit a friend's new puppy when Doug said accusingly, "You always make me come straight home from school.

"Why don't you make Buddy do it, too?"

She echoed "'Why . . .'"—and broke off. For suddenly, with relief and certainty, she knew why she granted privileges to Buddy that she'd denied to Doug.

And was proud, not ashamed of her reason.

She said, "Doug, like you, parents learn. When you first got your bike, you couldn't steer it without wobbling. Now you can ride it without touching the handlebars. It's been like that with me.

When you were Buddy's age, I wobbled. I was so scared you'd get hurt that I made you come straight home from school every day. Now I'm more used to being a mother.

I'm satisfied if Buddy telephones me. It has nothing to do with my love for either of you. It just means I can be a mother now without touching the handlebars."

BOY IS ASTONISHED

She didn't have to ask, "Do you understand?" Into Doug's face had come that unmistakable look of mixed astonishment and respect with which children accept truth that is new to them.

Do your older children resent your leniency toward younger ones as "favoritism?"

If so, we don't have to accept this jealous judgment. We can reject it.

Instead of agreeing that our indulgence of Buddy is a fault to be ashamed of, we can begin to appreciate it for what it is—a better, more relaxed trust of ourselves as parents.

It is good for our older children to hear that our relaxed attitude toward younger ones is not the result of partiality, but of our own development.

Because Doug has not heard it, he has made himself unnecessarily miserable in many ways. For example, he suffers at mealtimes.

He can't bear it when Buddy is served dessert before he finishes all his vegetables, because he was required to eat all his string beans before getting dessert.

But his mother isn't being partial to Buddy. She's discovered that children survive uneaten string beans.

Explained to Doug, this reality could have mitigated his agony at mealtimes.

Our inexperience as parents is bound to cheat older children of the relaxed wisdom we give to younger ones.

While we can regret the overconscientious severities with which we treated them, we don't have to apologize for outgrowing them.

We don't have to believe it when jealousy attacks our progress as "favoritism."

Adapted by Mrs. Calvin Dennison and directed by Mrs. William Martin, the production was sponsored by Mrs. Howard Liverance of Birmingham. Pantaloon, Pierre the Baker and Mr. Rat were a few of the marionettes designed and constructed by members.

String-pullers for the occasion were Mrs. Robert Van Maur, Mrs. Alfred Ryan and Mrs. B. B. Bowling. Mrs. Donald Howarth handled music and sound effects.

Production co-managers were Mrs. Robert Doyle and Mrs. John May. Sets were designed by Mrs. Dwight Adams. Mrs. James Scribner and Mrs. Michael Kuehl headed construction.

Does Education Help or Hinder Women?

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

All the current findings of surveys and psychiatrists seem to indicate that this is another of those periods of crisis for women. And the women themselves are asking the old questions: "What do we really want? Where are we going?"

* * *

Frances tells me she was ironing curtains the other day when fierce anger suddenly flooded her.

"What on earth am I doing?" she demanded aloud though there was nobody to answer. "I went to college for four years, learned to use my mind to think in logical steps, planned and studied toward a career.

"And now here I am, ironing curtains. And when I finish, I'll scrub the kitchen floor. It doesn't make sense."

Don, Frances' husband, sniffed that night when she approached him with her problem.

WHY GET UPSET?

"What are you suddenly getting so upset about?" he demanded. "I've been thinking for a long time that our educational system is out of touch with the realities of women's lives; that higher education in many cases does more harm than good."

Then he went on to point out the dubious—his word—benefits accruing to the women who spend 12 years—at least—developing their minds to points where they can earn a living as research chemists, write better letters than $200,000-a-year executives, romp through trigonometry and calculus.

"After a little workout in a career or job, what happens?" he asked and answered himself: "They get married and settle into the kind of life women have had for thousands of years—homemaking, children, meals, coping with wage-earning husbands.

"And except for maybe a little home economics course, there has been absolutely no preparation in their school lives for the one career almost all of them are going to have: marriage.

The situation would be irresistibly comical if it didn't produce so much discontent in a nation that is the most advanced and generous of any to women."

Frances is concerned about her three girls.

"Would they really be happier women, do you think, if they were not encouraged to develop professional or at least wage-earning skills? Is the answer that what we don't know won't hurt us?" she asks.

She said of her eldest, Jane, a high school junior: "She has a flair for clothes, can sketch, and is thinking about fashion-designing. She's a good student. But she's most interested of all in boys and it seems to be the modern trend to marry young. So what shall we do?

"Urge her to develop her talents? Send her to college? Although Don and I both believe she'd be happier in marriage if she were not first exposed to the excitements and stimulations of higher education as it is now, have we the right to keep her from it?"

* * *

Frances obviously didn't expect or want an opinion from me and I was grateful. For I am almost as baffled as she is.

What do you think?

Choose simple fitted, beltless princess, heavy rather than delicate lace, skirt full enough to stand away from hips, but no gathers.

What's a Fellow to Do When Rude Boy Interferes?

How Should He Handle Buttinski Who Interrupts Girl He Is Dating

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

I've said it before, and I'll say it again. You can't be responsible for what other people do. You can only take the consequences of your own actions.

You can be mighty careful of how you behave, what you say, how you treat your friends. But in some social situations, you'll suffer the tortures of knowing what's the correct thing to do, while you have to stand by and watch your friends break all the rules in the book.

You can't control them. You can only feel sorry for them. And forever promise yourself not to commit their sins.

That's the advice I have for this boy who feels that his prestige is in the hands of pals who don't do right by him. He writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: When you're walking a girl home from a date is it proper for another boy to want to see your girl alone, when the matter is certainly not of life-and-death importance, and could certainly keep until some later time?

"If it's not proper, how should you conduct yourself so that no one will be offended and yet you can still retain your prestige?

"And how should the girl in question act in such a situation?"

Answer—If you're walking your girl home no other boy should intrude for private chit-chat with her.

If she's your girl, you can't exactly force him to keep his distance, but you can take your girl by the hand and say, "Let it wait," or "Let it keep until later."

If she can't persuade the buttinski to spill what's on his mind in front of you, she should put him off with a frank "Call me tomorrow and we'll discuss it then."

SHOULDN'T BE RUDE

She should remember that she's with you, and that it's unpolitic and rude to have "fish to fry" in your presence.

You can't control her actions, however, any more than you can the other boy's.

In order to keep your dignity and your prestige, exert your masculine dominance, and take her out of there with an authoritative "Come on, we have no time to waste."

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 17 and I have a sister 15. We have our separate friends, of course. But too many times she asks if she can come along with me.

If I say yes, everything's fine. If I refuse, she carries on like crazy, and this brings mother down on me.

It's plenty discouraging to have one's mother against you! What do you suggest?"

Answer—Obviously, if you don't horn in on her friends and their activities, and if you show the greatest indifference to what they do and think, your sister should follow suit.

You won't tag her. She mustn't tag you. Of course, the only behavior you can guarantee will be your own!

Final Meeting of Workshop Is Held

Mrs. T. E. Nelson opened her Pitt road home at Watkins Lake for a final luncheon meeting of the Tuesday Musicale Workshop.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. William Furlong, Mrs. E. D. Foley, Mrs. Howard Heldenbrand, Mrs. Willis Lefurgy, Mrs. Paul Colton and Mrs. Donald V. White.

Mrs. Paul Kern, as analyst, gave an insight into the philosophical aspects of modern music. Mrs. Kern feels that it has become more an intellectual speculation than an art.

She claims beauty and imagination in music have almost ceased to exist.

She also stated that the new music will remain difficult to understand until our eyes, ears and minds are better acclimated to our chaotic world. Only then will we be able to write beautiful music that expresses our time in history.

PIANO AND ORGAN SOLOS

Piano solos were played by Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer and a group of organ compositions were presented by Mrs. Nelson.

The autumn series of workshops will begin in September when members will gather at the Dixie highway home of Mrs. Martin Wager.

Banquet Held by Spirit Six

Entertainment by mothers of the Ladies Auxiliary to Metropolitan Club, Spirit 6 and their daughters was one of the highlights of their banquet held at Malta Temple on Perkins street.

Dances and musical numbers were performed by the younger group and taking part were Virginia Baker, Carol Drahner, Linda Dean, Sue and Kay Jackson, Mary Jo Koren, Pam Anderson, Sandra DeFlorio, Suzanne Clason and Nancy Schmansky.

Mothers who entered into program activities included Mrs. Joseph Koren, Mrs. Ralph Dean, Mrs. Stuart Drahner, Mrs. John De Pauw and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson.

Two past national presidents, Mrs. Frederick Kemp of Birmingham and Mrs. Howard Fairman, attended.

Mrs. Dean gave the toast to daughters and Miss Baker toasted the mothers.

Planning the recent mother-daughter event were Mrs. Clifford Hickmott, Mrs. George Hermoyian, Mrs. W. A. Green, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. Clay Parrott.

Member Welcomed by VFW Auxiliary

Mrs. Louie Soucy was taken in as a new member at a social meeting held by women of VFW Auxiliary 1008 at the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue.

A letter of thanks from graduates of the national home was read by Mrs. Allen Hersee. The group sent graduation gifts.

Those attending the district meeting at St. Clair Shores were Mrs. Paul Boelter, Mrs. Loren Beach, Mrs. Walter Souter and Mrs. Archie Tryon.

Mrs. Ernestine Thompson, past grand Ruth, was introduced to members and guests from Holly, Terre Haute, Ind., Commerce, Harrisville and Saginaw.

Mrs. Earl Ross, past matron, presented a basket to the chapter on behalf of Group Three. The next initiation will be held June 27.

Bob Considine Says:

Native-Born Should See Citizenship Ritual

NEW YORK (INS)—There were 168 of them and now in Federal Court in Foley Square they had come to the end of their preparation for citizenship in the United States of America.

My wife and I sat near one of them, not too long out of Dublin, now 6 years old and full of light in her dear eyes and starch in her red and white dress and the straw hat tied under her chin with the black ribbon.

The new batch of citizens filed up to the tables in front of the empty high bench, accepted official looking papers, signed their names. The faces of the whole bloody world were represented . . . white, black, brown, yellow. A few had trouble writing their names. A few wanted their names changed.

But most of them looked as if they had been here since Button Gwinnett. The immigration people who had seen more waves of these newcomers spill on our shores than the most venerable sandpiper had seen watery waves were uniformly kind, completely efficient, and in some cases wondrously warm.

AWAIT HIS HONOR

When all the new citizens were signed in, the doors in back were opened again and relatives and friends trooped in to fill part of the side aisles and all of the rear of the courtroom.

* * *

His honor was still off-stange and, as a result, there was an informal air about the big paneled room. A man began reading out the names of those would-be-citizens who had failed to show up for one reason or another, and this led further to a breaking of the tension.

"Stanislaw Mogolovski!" the young man called out.

"Sounds like a Maryland University fullback," another courtroom man commented. This went over with a fair-sized hush.

"Giuseppe Brusso?" the first man inquired. There was no answer.

"Used to pitch for the Yanks," the second man said.

The first man wheeled around. "You're crazy," he said in the sacrosanct place. "That was Russo, not Brusso."

* * *

The new citizens, for reasons best known to themselves, looked a bit bewildered. The new citizen next to us kept saying, under her breath, and with a squaring of her fine jaw, "I pledge allegiance to the Flag . . . "

MORGAN THE SHEIK

"Rudolph Valentino Morgan," the first man sang away. Nearly everybody in court laughed happily, not derisively, and the older ones seemed to nod and to say, "I know just about when he was born."

Bill Kenville (or was it Bill Masters?) said a few words, and the new Americans listened intently. They were good words, dealing with a phase of government that is unique: The dignity of man.

A lot of Americans have died to keep that precept going, he explained, and their bones are at Concord, New Orleans, Chapultepec, San Juan Hill, the Argonne, Pearl Harbor, the Ardennes and Taegu.

The concept of the dignity of the human being is now being sorely tested, he went on. It is at loggerheads with Hegel (Georg Wilhelm Friedrich) and Marx (Karl) in that they taught that man exists for the state and not that the state exists for man.

* * *

There is no dignity of man considered in their teachings, he said, and added that there is not a greater gift on earth than being received into U. S. citizenship.

INSPIRING ADDRESS

After the "warm-up" asked a few questions pertaining to loyalty, arrests, marital status, possible change of heart, etc., Federal Judge Archie Dawson came in and made what, to me, was one of the quietest and most inspiring talks I've ever heard.

His theme was "What is an American?" He told them how to be good citizens, explained the voting process, the symbolism of the Flag, the responsibilities of citizenship as well as the rights.

He reminded them that not too many years ago an immigrant named Eisenhower had held up his hand and repeated those same words, and he wondered what would have gone through the immigrant's mind if someone had said to him, "Your grandson will be President of the United States."

When he finished there was sharp applause from the new citizens.

I have one suggestion to Judge Dawson: Reserve the two back rows for native-born Americans, for refresher courses in what it means to be an American.

Won't Give Group Gas Price Control

LANSING (AP)—A proposal to give the Public Service Commission control over the price of gasoline has been turned down by the House.

The bill was offered as an amendment to a minor public utilities bill approved by the Senate. The lower chamber defeated it by a 52 to 54 vote.

Rep. John W. Fletcher (R-Centerville), chairman of the committee, told the House the plan was inspired by recent statewide gasoline boosts.

Fletcher said Michigan gasoline prices are higher than those in neighboring states.

The Library of Congress collections of Russia and Chinese books are rated as the largest outside those two countries.

Illinois, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and West Virginia each produce more than 10 per cent of the soft coal mined in the United States.

About 60 million Americans are under 20 years old.

Claims Lies Cloud Probe

Sen. Mundt Shocked by Perjuries in Military Buying Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said today a "mystifying fabric of falsehoods" is clouding the record of a Senate search for graft in buying of uniforms for the armed forces.

Noting that two witnesses before the Senate Investigations subcommittee on which he serves have admitted lying under oath, he said conflicts in the testimony of others shows some of them also "are trying to deceive us."

* * *

"This is awful," he said. "It's a terrible spectacle." He said any government worker caught trying to deceive the subcommittee "ought to be fired."

One witness was fired late yesterday. The Army announced the immediate dismissal of David Pollack as a contract analyst for the Quartermaster Corps in Philadelphia—a job paying between $5,940 and $6,940 a year.

* * *

The announced reason was that Pollack's testimony yesterday "differed from testimony he gave in a previous closed session" of the subcommittee. Pollack had conceded that, but he disputed testimony from another witness that he had taken money from a private firm dealing with the Army.

The subcommittee called more witnesses today to explore more fully into testimony by a Brooklyn manufacturer, Leon M. Levy, that he provided $6,699.94 to finance cash payoffs and gifts to uniformed and civilian Army personnel with whom he was doing business on government contracts in 1952 and 1953.

* * *

Levy, a native of Lebanon, consulted a diary in Arabic script in which he said he kept a record of such disbursements from his firm, Bonita Originals, Inc., of New York.

Fire-Player Lectured by Voice of Experience

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A cocktail waitress who tried to smoke out her estranged husband with burning newspapers got a lecture yesterday on playing with fire—from a judge who spoke from experience.

The waitress, Mrs. Elvina De Groupet, 38, was fined $100 and given 90 days to pay. The lecturing municipal judge, Clayton W. Horn, gestured with bandaged hands. He scorched them trying to light his barbecue pit.

Just a False Alarm

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Police, answering a burglar alarm yesterday with guns drawn, nabbed a man with a sack of money as he was leaving the Upper Arlington branch of the Ohio National Bank. Then someone told them the alarm was tripped by accident. The man, Leo Campbell, was taking the money to the state liquor store nearby, where he works.

Says Atom Bomb Ban Now Would Be Trap

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Lewis L. Strauss says a "bare agreement" to outlaw atomic weapons would be a trap at the present time.

The chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission told a dinner gathering last night.

The hostile climate of world affairs and the menaces from those who would destroy freedom in order to expand their own godless ruthless philosophy, have compelled us to develop and stockpile atomic weapons—in simple self-defense."

Start New Post Office

FERRYSBURG (AP) — Postmaster A. J. Strevey says groundwork has started on construction of a new post office, planned for 1,018 square feet of floor space. Strevy believes the present structure, built about 1884, is one of the nation's smallest second class post offices.

Malik Called Home

LONDON (AP)—The Kremlin has summoned Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik from London for talks related to the projected Big Four conference, diplomatic officials state. Soviet envoys in other key capitals such as Washington and Paris also are expected to return to Moscow.

A-Energy Required for A-Bomb Shelters

GALENA, Ill. (UP) — This area has built-in bomb shelters—but they're on the damp side.

Pete Bailey, a grocer, commissioned Joseph D. Feeley, a real estate man, to survey abandoned lead mines for possible use as refuges.

Feeley reported to Bailey that the most likely shelter is the Tri-State mine, south of town. The mine is 300 feet deep. Its inclined shaft gives access to miles of subterean tunnels.

But Feeley said "tons of water from underground rivers cascade through the diggings and must be pumped out to keep the mines dry.

"Until atomic energy is harnessed in small packages to provide pumping power for Galena mines, the mines themselves will not provide refuge for safety in this atomic age," Feeley said.

Air Division Is Activated for Defense of Northwest

SPOKANE, Wash. (UP)—A new air division—the Ninth—has been activiated at nearby Geiger Air Force Base to take over the air defense of eastern Washington, eastern Oregon and Idaho.

The new unit will include fighter-interceptor squadrons in eastern Washington, radar stations in Washington, Oregon and Montana and filter centers at Spokane, Pendleton, Ore., and Boise, Ida.

Moscow Refuses to Believe in U.S. Atomic Submarine

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Moscow seems to have made up its mind about the United States atomic-powered submarine Nautilus—there just isn't any such thing.

Prof. Vladimir A. Leshkovtsev, discussing accounts of the Nautilus and of American research into atomic propulsion for planes and surface ships, was quoted as saying in a Moscow radio broadcast:

* * *

"In spite of the desperate propaganda hue and cry which accompanied such reports, not a single one of their works has yet been accomplished.

"As has happened more than once, the Americans are trying to intimidate the world with weapons which have not yet been built."

This somewhat surprising statement is interesting for two reasons:

For one thing, it shows the astonishing extent to which the Soviet government is able to blind its people to developments in the free world.

For another, it indicates that Russia's own progress in the field of atomic power development is lagging.

Many people always have been suspicious of Russia's claims in the nuclear energy field, and even of reports by western experts of Russian progress.

NOT PERFECTED

It seems certain that Russia has tested an H-bomb, for instance. But there is some doubt whether the Russian H-bomb has been perfected as a weapon.

There is even more doubt about Russian progress in the field of nuclear power for peaceful purposes.

* * *

Prof. Leshkovtsev spoke vaguely, in his broadcast, of Soviet projects for atomic submarines, locomotives, ships and airplanes.

The submarines, he said, would carry hundreds of passengers and thousands of tons of cargo over long distances. For example, he said, they could cruise under the Polar ice cap.

U. S. HAS ONE

But Americans know that their Navy already has an atom-powered submarine in the Nautilus.

They know that a second atom-powered submarine, three times as powerful as the Nautilus, is to be launched in July.

They know, most of them, that in Washington, a publicity-shy Air Force man, Brig. Gen. Donald J. Keirn, heads an "Office for Aircraft Nuclear Propulsion" which is making progress toward the development of atomic-powered planes.

They know that President Eisenhower announced on April 25 that this country is developing an atomic-powered merchant ship. They read in Monday's newspapers that it is possible that an atomic-powered ocean liner may be built before long.

* * *

Russia talks big about the peaceful utilization of atomic energy. A lot of the talk is bunk. Back in 1949 the late Andrei Y. Vishinsky, then Soviet foreign minister, startled his United Nations hearers when he said in a speech that with nuclear energy Russians are "razing mountains; we are irrigating deserts; we are cutting through the jungle and the tundra."

It developed later that what Vishinsky meant was that Russia hoped to do all this sometime in in the future.

Tow Trucks Interfere With Election of Officers

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Allegheny County Squires and Constable Assn. had quite a time electing officers—and only succeeded after scurrying out of their meeting quarters to move illegally parked cars.

As the annual meeting was to start, members got word that Pittsburgh police were towing away and tagging some of the members' autos. Before the assembled magistrates and assistants could clear their machines four cars had been towed away to the city pound and 16 others tagged.

Someone Took Steps

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—A set of door steps, front and rear, was stolen from a house under construction.

About 400,000 divorces are granted in the U.S. each year.

Has your business a "blue chip" look?

THIS is addressed to the man who prides himself on the quality of the goods or services by which he makes his living.

For we offer him the badge of a "blue chip" business—the distinguished Blue Chip GMC truck.

It is, as you can see, impressively handsome. Its smartness of styling speaks highly of your taste, your standards, your progressiveness.

But this is a case where business pride is also business sense. For every minute and every mile your Blue Chip GMC is in use, it is building a fine impression of your business with countless prospective customers who see it.

And the wealth of mechanical superiorities for which the Blue Chip GMC is noted will emphasize the practicality of your pride:

Power that makes light of loads—spirited performance that bows to no passenger car—handling that's more pleasure than chore—the eye-opening economies typical of all superbly built vehicles.

True, another truck may cost you a little less—and prove more expensive. For the few extra dollars a Blue Chip GMC costs is twice repaid—first by operating economies, and again at trade-in time.

This is the truck to set your sights on. We know you'll set your heart on it too, after a few miles behind the wheel. Come in and let us put you in the proudest seat in truckdom.

Author Puts Foot in Press Agent's Mouth

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—It was under false colors—but not of his own painting—that novelist Ernest K. ("The High and The Mighty") Gann came into New York the other day.

* * *

"Boy," barked a publicity man over the phone, "have I got a story for you! This guy Ernest Gann is coming in, direct from the Orient where he had all kinds wild scrapes, and you've never heard anything like him. This boy's the original pioneer an' lone wolf . . . can't stand any one place long . . . never got married 'cause women couldn't hold him . . . if I can get him to sit still for two secs, you'd prolly like to see him?"

The press agent said he would tether his super-charge to a stool in "Danny's" at 4 o'clock Monday. And there, at 4, he was, his swarthy face grinning amiably, his pioneering eye focused on a Scotch and soda.

"Well, how does it feel to be back in civilization?" I asked.

"Great," said the buccaneer happily, "I'm surely tired of traveling. Can't wait to get home to Pebble Beach (Calif.)."

"Oh? you have a home to go back to?"

AND THREE KIDS

"Sure do," said the lone wolf, "and three lovely kids and a wife. Been married to the same dame 21 years, all told."

Well, it wasn't quite all told, I remarked, glancing significantly at the press agent who was glancing, with equal significance, at the bartender.

"Yes, it's hard on all of us when we have to leave home to research a novel," the old rover went on, "because you can't often take the family along. But I don't think you can write authentic stuff if you just sit home and read 'Time Magazine,' do you?"

What's with this authentic stuff? I asked the press agent.

"Tell her about some of your exciting experiences, Ernest," said the agent heartily.

LONE WOLF TELLS ALL

"I guess the most thrilling one was how I got my wife—she's a wonderful woman," complied the lone wolf. "It was in 1934 and I had just come back to San Francisco from Japan. I had known this girl in high school so I called her up and she said she was engaged to a fellow but she met me for lunch anyway.

* * *

"She went back to Mills College, where she was a student, and early the next morning I called for her at the dormitory with a ladder and we eloped. The method was real corny but it was necessary, for reasons I can't remember now."

Under prodding from the agent, the 45-year-old author of "The High and The Mighty" and five other novels—"Fiddler's Green," "Island in the Sky," 'Blaze of Noon," "Benjamin Lawless" and "Soldier of Fortune"—confessed that he had also had experiences as a pilot, yachtsman, fisherman and actor. All of which have been groundwork for his books.

He once made a practice march with the Foreign Legion in Morocco, for the sake of a book. He went into the commercial fishing business for another. He wrote "The High and The Mighty" after 12 years' experience as a pilot with American Airlines. He would never have flown except he got "fed up" with the train service in New England where he was scouting summer stock theatres.

"I've been around a lot," he summed up, "but it's always wonderful to get home to the wife and kids. I'm not really a soldier of fortune."

At this point, the press agent who is handling publicity on "Soldier of Fortune," a Clark Gable movie taken from Gann's latest book) dropped his head gently to the bar. And cried.

Woman of Knowledge

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Walter Washington of Dayton, Ohio, wrote police in Charleston for help in locating his former wife.

"The reason I want to contact her," he said, "is that I am trying to file application for Social Security. I don't know my age and she knows just what my age would be."

Kostelanetz Catches Sounds of the Orient

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Andre Kostelanetz, here to direct the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, entertained friends with a private playing of recordings he made while visiting the Orient. The records included such sounds as:

A Chok Chok lizard greeting the sunrise in Bangkok; belled elephants moving through the streets during a Buddhist festival; chants of beggers in bazaars and Bangkok temple bells swaying in the evening breeze.

Kostelanetz says he plans to release the records commercially in an album of "unusual sounds of the world."

Student Gets Dates for Pals in Frat House

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—There's no dearth of dates for members of the Theta Chi fraternity at Pitt. Phil Russo, a 214-pound student, arranges them.

"It is not a matrimonial agency, just a social function," he says. "Theta Chi was sinking into a dateless fraternity because engineering, math and premedical students were too busy 'boning' to make dates.

"I decided to do something to help out. I managed to get dates from student nurses in various hospitals near the campus."

Russo charges no fees.

Adlai Applauds U.S. Clubwomen

Hails Plan to Create New Cabinet Post for Consumer Interest

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The General Federation of Women's Clubs gets down to business today and considers resolutions including one, calling for creation of a new U.S. department of consumer interest, that got a pat on the back from Adlai Stevenson.

Stevenson, in addressing the General Federation's convention last night, commended the clubwomen for their interest in "people" and noted that among their proposed resolutions was "the significant and novel idea" for the new department.

* * *

This department, which would be headed by a Cabinet secretary, would educate consumers and protect their interests.

In his speech Stevenson said the international scene is calmer and called for "a crashing effort" to control the hydrogen bomb as a way to permanent peace.

Just Comes Naturally

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Bell Aircraft Co. officials will have you believe it is simple to fly one of their helicopters. They claim three Spanish naval officers had more trouble learning to drive a tractor than they did the flying machines.

Downtown Motels Lure Away Business From Many of Detroit's Major Hotels

DETROIT (UP) — Fancy downtown motels are taking a lot of business away from the conventional big hotels, a former British hotel manager said today.

William Anderton, 50-year-old manager of one of Detroit's oldest motels, said the trend in Detroit and other large cities is toward motels "right in the loop."

* * *

The Britisher has been managing Detroit-area motels for five years. He pointed out in an interview that Detroit already has three downtown and three midtown motor courts.

Anderton now manages the Grand, a midtown motel built in 1950 and located about 10 minutes driving time from city hall. He says his 29 one-room studio apartments are always occupied, although a 14-story hotel is located just across the street.

Less than a dozen hotels were built in the United States last year, he says, while some 2,000 new motels averaging between 10 and 15 units mushroomed across the nation.

WAS BUTLER

A native of Manchester, England, where he managed hotels and private clubs for 30 years, Anderton and his wife, Evelyn, came to America in 1947. Before entering the motel business he was a butler at Molton Manor, the Lake Orion estate of the late publisher, W. E. Scripps.

* * *

According to Anderton, many convention-goers, businessmen and families prefer motels because they like the informality and the convenience of having their cars just outside the door.

A block away from the Grand is another motor court, the Town Motel, and its "no vacancy" sign is glowing most of the time.

Victor Mushro, proprietor of the Algiers, Detroit's newest and biggest midtown motel, says most motor courts now offer complete hotel service, including laundry and valet service.

The Algiers, like several other ultra-modern motels located farther out along Woodward Avenue, Detroit's main thoroughfare, is modeled after Florida's two-story luxury auto courts. The 51-unit Algiers also has a play area for children.

RATES HIGH

Mushro says most Detroit motel rates equal those of first-class hotels, but regardless of prices travelers keep coming back if service and facilities are good.

Many new motor courts feature air conditioning; television and radio, telephones, tiled baths, ceiling-to-floor draperies and wall-to-wall carpeting.

* * *

Although motels are starting to spring up in the downtown area, they also are stretching farther out along the approaches to the city.

The Automobile Club of Michigan estimates there are nearly 100 motels in the Detroit area representing a total investment of more than $5,000,000.

In 1938 only two motor courts were listed for Detroit, and both of those were outside the city limits.

'Bonanzagram'

Have Fun! Win $100!

"Bonanzagram" is an exciting new puzzle in which the Pontiac Press offers both fun and a $100 cash prize. BUT before you try your hand at "Bonanzagram" be sure and read the rules at the bottom of this page. Solution will appear in the Press June 3.

CLAIM CHECK

Below is a duplicate of the "Bonanzagram" entry you send in to contest headquarters. It is ESSENTIAL that you fill it in and save it until the correct solution to "Bonanzagram" No 12 is published Friday, June 3. Unless you do so, you will be unable to collect the prize if you should send in a winning solution. Check the rules below for further details.

Bonanzagram No. 12

The safari was late in arriving at its base. The hunters had gone out on the trail of a remarkable beast whose skin would make a prize gift for the new Governor of the area. At the last moment, they had been joined by a young writer, sent out from England to report the adventure. This man, with no background of travel, proved to be the wrong type for a dangerous jungle journey; he was silent, absorbed with his own ego, and obviously deep under the spell of tropical Africa. On the seventh day out, he was missing from camp, and the safari spent three days in trying to track him. They brought back a note, of strange wording and signature, which contained the only explanation of his disappearance. The note, found pinned ot a tent flap, had been blurred by tropical rain, and was difficult to decipher. The authorities finally figured out its meaning. Can you, too, fill in the missing letters and learn what the young man wrote?

How To Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story, or anecdote, accompanying the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonanzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit Entries

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p. m. Tuesday, May 31. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, May 31 for Bonanzagram No. 12. Address "Bonanzagram, % Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and, if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p. m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person, he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." Postmark on this letter must be not later than 5 p. m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly Bonanzagram. If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received, the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

WALT DISNEY'S True Life Adventures

Top Steel Men Discuss Pay, Prices, Expansion

NEW YORK (AP)—Top men of the nation's booming steel industry are in New York today with three immediate worries on their minds: wages, prices, expansion.

They have gathered for the annual meeting of the American Iron & Steel Institute. Formal discussions will be on the technical problems and accomplishments of the industry.

* * *

But in the corridors the earnest talk will be of what to do about wages, prices and expansion. What the steel industry does could help set a national pattern.

Wage talks with the CIO United Steelworkers open in a couple of weeks in Pittsburgh. Rumor has it that the union will ask for a wage increase of more than 16 cents an hour. Steel executives will have a chance here to compare ideas on how much management should offer. Some believe the settlement will be around 12 cents.

* * *

Steel wage talks start after the auto industry's bargaining deadline has passed.

A strike in the auto industry would cut off the steel mills' best customer. Or, a liberal wage increase there as a compromise on the auto union's other demands would be a strong talking point for the steelworkers in bargaining.

* * *

A steel price hike is just as pressing a topic today. Industry leaders have said a price increase is necessary, no matter what the outcome of the wage talks. They cite rising operating costs.

Steel executives in New York today will have a chance to compare views on how big a price hike to plan and how effective customer resistance might be.

The question of expansion grows out of the unexpected size of the industry's boom. It is operating at almost full capacity. Some companies are parceling out certain stel products to their customers. Reserve capacity has disappeared, for the time at least.

Top steel companies have said another round of expansion must be planned. In their talks today steelmen can try to judge how much more the civilian economy is likely to grow and how much more steel it will be likely to demand in the years ahead.

County Welfare Board Handles 1,177 Cases

Welfare cases for April totaled 1,177, according to Oakland County Welfare Commission officials.

This figure represents about two-tenths per cent of the county population. The commission expects fewer cases during the summer months, when open air work is available, along with new construction jobs.

The commission handles the problems of individuals in the county who are in need because of sickness, loss of income, disability or other reasons, and who are not eligible for federal aid.

Kalamazoo Girl Killed by Brother's Bullet

KALAMAZOO (AP) — A 9-year-old Kalamazoo girl was shot dead yesterday when a bullet fired by her 13-year-old brother ricocheted off a tin can, went through a garage wall, and struck her.

Killed was Laurann Callighan. The bullet was fired by her brother Kenneth.

The girl staggered from the garage where she was playing and died in Borgess Hospital of a wound in the abdomen a few minutes after an ambulance took her there.

Legion and VFW to Hold Annual Poppy Day Sales

Two city American Legion posts and Veterans of Foreign Wars units and auxiliaries will open their annual Poppy campaign at 3 p.m. Thursday.

Representatives of Chief Pontiac Post 377 and Cook-Nelson Post 20 also will direct volunteer Poppy solicitors for the 3-day selling period which ends at 3 p.m. Saturday.

VFW post auxiliaries 1370 and 1008 will sell poppies, along with the Americann Legion.

The Legion posts hope to sell 10,000 during their drive this year, according to H. C. Crawford, Cook-Nelson No. 20 poppy chairman.

Money from the sales will enable post organizations to manage veterans welfare and rehabilitation programs, along with aiding individual veterans and their families.

The poppies are made by war veterans in hospitals throughout the state. Last year, Michigan veterans were paid $24,179.25 for the poppies, at the rate of 1½ cents apiece.

Persons interested in selling poppies may contact Legion campaign headquarters in the Salvation Army Cathedral, 20 W. Lawrence, St.

The American Legion last year sold 9,000 poppies during their drive.

SHY FELLOW IN A CONSPICUOUS CAR — Hans Knuth is a shy sort of fellow. Which explains why it's painful to him that folks always stare when he scoots through Cleveland, Ohio, traffic in his three-wheeled car with handlebar steering and "bubble" top. Children of Many Nations Learning to Live Together

OLIVE BRANCH, Ohio (AP)—Near this cross-roads town whose name symbolizes peace, boys and girls from 10 nations are learning to live and play together.

They form the Children's International Village, dedicated to the proposition that lads and lasses from all over the world have similar interests, especially the interest of peace. All the 20 girls and 21 boys are 11 years old.

The campers from Argentine, Brazil, British Honduras, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Mexico, Sweden, Venezuela and the United States follow a regular camp schedule of nature study, arts and crafts and sports and swimming. In the evenings, they sing and dance their native songs. All the countries are represented by four boys and girls, except Mexico which has an extra youth. Each group is accompanied by an adult.

• • •

The children also tour industries and places of culture in nearby Cincinnati during their month-long stay.

Children's International Village was founded in 1951 when Dr. Doris T. Allen, Cincinnati psychiatrist, and her husband, Erastus Allen, attempted to answer the question of their own 11-year-old child of "Why we have to have war." Similar "villages" have been held in Sweden, Germany and Finland. The village here in Clermont County is backed by the contributions of private citizens and industrial firms.

"Here is a demonstration that children from all over the world can get along together," said one of its strongest supporters, Mrs. Dorothy Dolby, vice mayor of Cincinnati.

• • •

Homer Eddington, former member of the football coaching staff at Ohio State and Kent Universities and former athletic director at Chillicothe, Ohio, is director of this year's camp.

He said "International understanding here is put on a personal basis. A little boy from Norway told me he no longer thinks of 'Mexicans,' or 'Americans,' or 'Germans' but of the boys and girls he knows by names from these countries."

Eddington said he believed there is a great carryover in later years of the international understanding the youths obtain through living, eating, swimming and talking together.

"This," he said, "is a necessary step towards peace."

Mayor of Aurora Turns to Wrong Man for Help

DECATUR, Ill. (UP) — Mayor Paul Egan of Aurora, Ill., wanted some advice on "how to beat" the city manager plan when he wrote to Mayor Robert E. Willis of Decatur.

Egan congratulated Willis on the defeat of the plan at a referendum here. He wanted advice on "how to do the same thing when it comes up at Aurora."

3 Veterinarians Escort 1,600 Monkeys on Flight

ITHACA, N. Y.—Three Cornell University veterinarians had an unusual airplane ride from India to the United States—they were accompanied by 1,600 monkeys needed for research work.

The veterinarians were assigned to the job of getting the monkeys to this country in the best possible shape, as they are highly susceptible to air sickness.

She Needed Stove Lid for Evening Things Up

CARTHAGE, N.C. (AP)—A woman witness in Recorder's Court was charged with assault with a deadly weapon—a stove lid. Scene of the affray was a night spot, well known to police.

"And what were all of you doing when the fight began," asked County Solicitor W. Lamont Brown.

"We was playing syndicated games," the woman said.

She explained: "Syndicated games is where there's three or four against one. That's what we was playing—everybody against me, and I had to do the best I could."

Why We Stake Our

REPUTATION

on Omega Watches

In all the years we have been in business, one name —Omega— has continued to dominate the quality watch field. And every year, more and more Omega watches are sold through carefully selected jewelers the world over.

We are proud to be one of the jewelers whom Omega has chosen to represent it. Actually, Omega is staking its reputation on us.

For Omega is the best-known timekeeping instrument in the world. It is an accepted fact from Calcutta to Cairo...from Rome to Rio...that you can pay more for a watch if you wish, but you can not get better value.

Most watches are assembled from mass-produced parts bought from other manufacturers and designed to fit nearly every type of watch. Very few are completely produced and assembled under one roof. Even those few manufacturers, however, who do control their entire production, haven't available to them the magnificent plant and advanced technological facilities of the self-contained Omega factories in Switzerland.

As a result, Omega holds the highest awards for accuracy at the three leading observatories of Geneva, Kew Teddington and Neuchatel. And Omega has been unanimously chosen to time the last four consecutive International Olympics.

When you are ready to buy a really fine watch, we suggest that you make your choice from among the many splendid examples of Omega craftsmanship in our collection. You can do so with the assurance that your Omega watch will be reliably serviced by leading jewelers in every land.

46 Pros, Amateurs Await Tourney Start

By H. GUY MOATS

Stage was all set today for the start of Michigan's 1st big 1955 golf tournament—the Forest Lake Wolverine Ladies Open. The 72-hole medal test begins at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, runs through Sunday afternoon.

All but one of the 19 top feminine professionals of the country have registered in for the event. Still to be heard from, although she filed the 1st entry, is Pat O'Sullivan of Clark's Corner, Orange Conn. However, she is expected to be on hand to tee off at 1:20 p.m. Thursday, along with Grosse Ile's Pat Devany, and Mrs. E. O. Reynolds.

Familiar names among the lady pros include diminutive Betty Hicks, who made her golf debut in Michigan many years ago at a Western Women's event at Oakland Hills. Betty is the LPGA tourney publicity director. Co-chairmen of the LPGA tourney group are Marilynn Smith of Wichita CC, Kas., and Faye Crocker, Club de Golf, El Uruguay. Both are registered, as are the personable Bauer sisters, Marlene and Mrs. Alice Bauer Hagge, of Sarasota, Fla.

Marking the opening events for the tournament are today's golf clinic at 4:30 o'clock, a driving contest at 5:30 and a social hour, at 6:30 p.m.

Lady pros will shoot for a cut of the $5,000 purse, with $1,000 for the champion. Amateurs' winner will receive a beautiful silver tea service.

Bill Newbery, Forest Lake's tourney chairman, today announced pairings for the opening. Time will remain the same for each day of the event.

Chief Undergrads Swamp Field in Final Track Test

Pontiac High School's great track team today had wrapped up its most successful—and phenomenal — season in the school's history.

Competing without 5 seniors, the undergrads ran off with the annual SVC event, at Flint Central's track, compiling another of those overwhelming totals, 98 points, almost as many as all 5 other teams collected together.

Saginaw high was 2nd with 24; Flint Northern 23; Bay City 21½; Arthur Hill 21 and Flint Central 13½. Win was 9th straight for PHS.

Chiefs collected 9 1st places, 9 seconds, 3 thirds, 2 fourths and 4 fifths.

They set 3 records; Hayes Jones in high hurdles (15 seconds); Hudson Ray, high jump (6 feet 2 inches); medley relay (2:33.7).

They swept the broad jump, won by Bill Douglas (20 feet 7½ inches), Hayes Jones (state champ) 2nd (20 feet 5 inches), Ray (20 feet 3½), Alex Barge (20 feet ½ inch), Marv Cagle (19 feet 8 inches).

Only 1sts not taken by PHS were the 100 and 220, won by Namon Smith (Bay City) brother of state champ Willie Smith, at 10.3 and 23 flat; both quarter miles, won by Sharpe (FN, 52 seconds). Hollis (AH), 53.5); 2nd 880, Abe Huerta (Sag, 2:09) and shot, Weinicke (AH, 48 feet 2 inches). Charley Spann (PHS) had 45 feet 4 inches for 4th.

Meet wound up in a driving rain, with the pole vault knotted several ways.

Pontiac's winners:

High hurdles—Won by Jones, James Taylor (2nd). Time 15 seconds flat (record).

100 yard dash—Boykins (5th).

Medley relay—Won by PHS (Charles Robinson, Archie Brooks, Alex Barge, Charles Spann). Time 2:33.7.

Mile run—Won by Perry Williams, Gene Cretal (2nd). Time 4:46.8.

440 yard run—1st race Jim Shorter (3nd); 2nd race, Brooks (2nd).

Low hurdles—Won by Jones, Taylor (2nd). Time 20.5 seconds.

220 yard dash—Watkins (2nd), Len Humphreys (4th), Boykins (5th).

880 yard run—1st race, won by Bill Douglas. Time 2:07.8; 2nd race—Rod Treals (2nd).

Vault—4-way tie for 1st when rain came. Ted Munger, Frank Whitlock of PHS, Bill Chesney (Bay City) and Collins (FN).

Shot—Charles Spann (4th), Hardiman (5th).

880 relay—Won by PHS (Jones, Shorter, Robinson and Spann).

JH Athletes Go After League Records

Tuesday's heavy rain has put the Wisner Field track under water and forced postponement of the annual City Junior High School track met today. The meet has been re-set for Thursday afternoon.

Meet officials hope to get the field events underway at 2:15 p.m. with the track events listed at 3:30 p.m.

Em Ghianni's Washington Junior High School squad will be defending the league title it has won for the past 3 years. Over that period (and including this season's dual competition), Braves have won 16 meets and lost only 2.

Jefferson, which whipped Washington, 55-22 in a dual meet last month, rules as a slight favorite to dethrone the Braves, but the Ghianni squad is sure to put up a battle to retain its crown.

Five field records already have gone by the boards in dual competition, while all 9 league records, (which must be broken in the league meet) are in danger.

Jim Hawkins, speedy sprinter for Roy Caldwell's Jeffersonians, has bettered the field marks in both the 75 and 100-yard dash, but won't compete in both events. He has run the 100 in 10.3 seconds and the 75 in 8.05 seconds.

Hawkins also has surpassed the field 100-yard low hurdle record in a brilliant 11.3 seconds and should crack the league mark of 12.2 co-held by Willie Wilson and Jimmy Taylor.

Dick Keller and John Mathis, both of Jefferson, have equalled the league meet record of 7.4 seconds in the 50-yard high hurdles and John Phelgm of Washington has done 7.5. Willie Shaw of Washington has run the 75-yard dash in 8.4 seconds, one-tenth off the league mark.

The 440-yard relay mark of 50.1 should fall with competition between Jefferson (48.9) and Washington (50.2) and the field mark of 48.5 could go.

All field event marks are threatened, including Jerry McKay's shot put mark of 50 feet, 8 inches, oldest existing mark. It was set in 1949. Jim Skinner of Eastern has surpassed it at 50-11 and John Herron of Jefferson has equalled it. Gene Lawson of the Jeffs, who leaped a remarkable 6 feet, 1⅜ inches for a new field record perils the league mark of 5-10½ set by the current state co-champ Alex Barge last year.

Lawson (9-10) and Henry DeWalt of Washington (9-6) could topple the league mark of 9 feet, 10⅜ vaulted by Bill Pembroke in 1950, but Frank Whitlock's 10-3½ field mark, set last year, appears safe.

Hawkins has broad jumped 20 feet, 2⅝ inches and the league mark is 20-4¾, owned by Jimmy Williams. The field standard is Alonzo Harris' 20-6¼, registered in 1950.

Green Gets Chance to 'Talk' With His Fists

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Charley Green, the Pacific Coast's latest gift to middleweight boxing, has been doing a lot of talking about what he is going to do to Holly Mims but tonight he has to do it or else.

Green and Mims clash in a scheduled 10-round televised fight (CBS) which has engendered anything but enthusiasm among the local boxing crowd.

Mims, from Washington, D.C., is ranked 4th among the middleweights and Green, from Los Angeles, is unranked.

Court Asked to Drop NFL Action

Grid Body Claims It Is Under Same Ruling as Baseball Decision

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Attorneys for the National Football League, citing the U. S. Supreme Court ruling that baseball is a sport and not interstate commerce, have asked the U. S. District Court to throw out a $2,100,000 anti-trust suit against the league and nine of its clubs.

The suit was brought by the bankrupt Liberty Broadcasting system, Inc., which charged the league and the nine teams conspired to prevent it from broadcasting certain games, an action which allegedly led Liberty into bankruptcy.

The defense said professional baseball "differs basically from professional football only in the sport that is played." It said the Supreme Court ruling on baseball applies "with equal force to the sport of professional football.

Moore in Top Contender Spot

Rated in Both Light-Heavy, Heavy Divisions by Ring Magazine

NEW YORK (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore today was ranked as the top heavyweight contender in the latest Ring Magazine ratings for his victory over Cuba's Nino Valdes.

It was the first time since Sugar Ray Robinson was included in both the welterweight and middleweight divisions six years ago, that a boxer has been placed in two classes. Robinson was the welterweight champion at the time.

In a reshuffle of the middleweight contenders, France's Charley Humez replaced Joey Giardello, Philadelphia as the leading challenger with Rocky Castellani of Cleveland third.

Virgil Akins of St. Louis moved out of nowhere into the No. 5 berth in the welterweight ranks.

Frankie Ryff of New York was promoted to second from third among the lightweights.

Trabert, Seixas Draw Easy Foes in French Test

PARIS (AP)—Defending champion champion Tony Trabert of Cincinnati and his Davis Cup teammate, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, faced comparatively easy assignments in the French international tennis tournament today after drawing first round byes.

Trabert was paired against Stefan Stockenberg of Sweden and Seixas, the U. S. titleholder, took on Jacques Malosse of France.

Hamilton Richardson, the United States' third-ranking player, was the only top U. S. player who saw action yesterday. The 21-year-old Baton Rouge, La., Davis Cup player beat J. P. Bergerat, a French club player, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4.

Dressen Wants Hitting

Nats Dangle Pitchers as AL 'Trade Bait'

NEW YORK (AP)—Charlie Dressen, admittedly disappointed over the fifth-place position of his Washington Senators, promised today there would be some changes on the club "within the next 10 days."

The chirpy little manager said Washington has been dickering with a number of clubs during the past week in the hopes of landing a shortstop. Although he refused to mention names, he indicated he would be willing to give up a top flight pitcher for the player he wanted.

* * *

Calvin Griffith, vice president of the Senators, and General Manager George Weiss of the Yankees held a long confab yesterday. Out of the conference, it was learned, came a Yankee offer to give up an unnamed pitcher ad infielder for either Bob Porterfield or Maury McDermott. Porterfield, a former Yankee, has a 5-4 record while McDermott, a southpaw, has won two and lost four.

"Every club in the American League wants to trade with us," Dressen said. "They all want our best players but so far they haven't offered us the players we'd like in return.

"We're after more hitting. Our pitching has been good but our big hitters, with the exception of Mickey Vernon, have been disappointing. Our prime need is an infielder, preferably a shortstop who can hit a little bit. We're prepared to give up somebody of equal value for such a man."

* * *

Dressen refused to deny that the Yankees have made overtures for McDermott. He did say, however, if McDermott was dealt to the Yankees, Washington would have to get a player of regular status in return.

"Sure we expect to make a deal before the trading deadline," he said.

House to Mull Continuance of Deer Herd Bill

Senate Votes to Extend Discretionary Power of State Commission

LANSING (AP) — Whether the conservation commission continues to have authority to alter deer hunting seasons and regulations in the Lower Peninsula now is up to the house.

The senate, on a 19-10 vote, yesterday passed for the 2nd time a bill to extend the discretionary authority for two more years and sent the measure to the house.

The senate's 1st vote in favor of the power was nullified by a house committee which buried the bill.

Because the extension was attached to a house-approved game bill, the extension this time does not go to the house committee but directly to the house floor.

The bill to which it was attached would establish a uniform date for opening all small game seasons in the Lower Peninsula.

Now the patridge season opens Oct. 1 north of M55 and the pheasant season Oct. 20 above and below that line.

The bill would establish a standard Oct. 15 opener throughout the peninsula.

The senate also passed a house bill permitting counties to join in port authorities with power to issue revenue bonds and lease harbor facilities. The measure is designed to prepare for St. Lawrence Seaway shipping into the upper Great Lakes.

The house and senate agreed not to pay $1,868 to reimburse state racing Com. James Inglis for the expenses of a damage suit brought against him by the Hazel Park Racing Association.

The senate voted to raise the pay of state police com. Joseph A. Childs from $11,000 to $13,500.

Wiffi Sets Record in Pine Lake Win

Wiffi Smith, the Women's District Golf Association's outstanding player, set a new course record at Pine Lake Country Club Tuesday in winning the weekly tournament with a 36-40—76.

Miss Smith, who plays out of St. Clair River CC, bettered by one stroke the course mark for women set up by Sally Sharp of Pine Lake. The 76 was one over women's par of 38-37—75.

Wiffi led the field of 94 players by 7 strokes. The 18-year-old Miss Smith is one of the entries in the Wolverine Ladies Open, starting Thursday at Forest Lake Country Club. Clara Mosack of Plum Hollow was runnerup to Wiffi Tuesday with an 83.

Hurons Blank Ohioans

BOWLING GREEN (AP) — Eight runs in the 9th inning, added to three in the 2nd, gave Michigan State Normal College an 11-0 baseball victory over Bowling Green (Ohio) yesterday.

Winning pitcher Hal Goodhue faced only 31 batters and gave up three hits. Normal now has a 10-6 season record.

TUESDAY'S STARS

PITCHING—Billy Pierce, White Sox, held Cleveland to three hits. Ralph Kiner hit a home run to deprive Pierce of a shutout as the White Sox defeated the Indians 4-1.

BATTING — Glen Gorbous, Phillies, collected two doubles, two singles in five trips to the plate and drove in two runs as the Phillies broke New York Giant six-game winning streak, 6-2.

Lopes Dishes Out a Surprise

Hands Champion Sandy Saddler an Unexpected Licking on Coast

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Lightweight Joey Lopes likes the featherweight champions. The 24-year-old West Sacramentan already has licked two of them.

Lopes had it all his own way last night as he pounded out a unanimous 10-round non-title decision over featherweight king Sandy Saddler. Time after time he beat the champ to the punch, landing cleaner and more effective blows.

Lopes, the 10th ranking lightweight, weighed 133 1-4, Saddler, 130½.

The local favorite had Saddler in trouble in the second and ninth rounds. But the experienced champion managed to tie up Lopes after being hit with looping rights.

Saddler, 28, was gunning for his 100th knockout in 155 fights. The best he could do was cut Lopes' right eye. The opening will keep Lopes out of action for about a month, his handlers said.

Pirates Tally NL's Top Total in 15-1 Sweep

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"It nice to be leading in something," Manager Fred Haney of the Pittsburgh Pirates said when he learned the 15 runs scored by his team last night over the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers was the highest National League run output this year.

"No, I didn't know that 15-1 victory was tops for the season," Haney chuckled. "It's about time we got some breaks. I still insist we have a better team than last year."

Wants Title Chance

DETROIT (UP) — Johnny Riggins of Detroit clamored for a crack at Marty Marshall's state light heavyweight crown today after winning a unanimous decision over Billy Hunter, another Detroiter who had sought a bout with Marshall.

Riggins packed the heavier guns last night as he gained the nod from both judges and the referee in the feature bout at the Motor City Arena.

BOSTON (AP)—Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter has been put on the unavailable list by National Boxing Assn. President Tony Petronella until he fulfills his contract for a postponed title fight with Wallace (Bud) Smith in Boston.

Big Ten 'Brass' Meets to Split Booty From TV

League Track Meet Is Set Friday, Saturday With UM Favored

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Western Conference officials moved into Columbus today to split up football television receipts, play a round of golf, and view the annual Big Ten track-field championships.

The television committee met in informal session last night with commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson, and will present its recommendations to the athletic directors and faculty representatives tonight.

Tomorrow's schedule is all play, with everyone invited to participate in a golf tournament over Ohio State univeristy's 36-hole layout. The cinder carnival, with Michigan's big, talent-laden squad an overwhelming favorite, is scheduled Friday and Saturday.

Football coaches had a session on tap today, with rule interpretation and officiating matters on the agenda.

The conference has decided to split the television receipts among all the league schools, but may make some added concessions to institutions injured at the gate by the telecasts. The loop expects to pick up $375,000 from the telecast of five Big Ten games on a regional basis, and $320,000 from four non-league contests in which conference teams will appear, for a total of $695,000.

The league is expected to approve summer competition by the loop's swimmers and track men for amateur clubs, putting them on the same basis as baseball players. The move is contemplated to help the runners and swimmers get set for next year's Olympics without running into eligibility problems.

The track meet has attracted a field of 192, and Michigan will present 31 of them. Illinois, winner the last four years, has entered only 14, but four of six returning champs from last season are among them. The Illini are expecting a scrap from Michigan State's rapidly improving squad for the runner-up berth.

Returning champions are John Moule of Michigan in the mile Earl Smith of Iowa in the broad jump, and Illini Willard Thomson in both hurdles, Dale Fosse in the pole vault, and Ralph Fessenden in the 440-yard run.

Utica Track Team Sweeps to 4th Title

Utica High School's potent track team set 3 records and ran up a total of 67½ points to win its 4th straight Bi-County League track meet, held Tuesday at Lakeview High School.

Center Line was a distant 2nd with 49 points, followed by Lake Shore, 43; Eastland 32; Warren 27; Lakeview 26; and South Lake 10½.

Only double winner in the meet was Utica's outstanding hurdler Ernie Malzahn. His 20.7 second clocking in the lows was a new loop record.

Eaglets Trail in CL Invitational Track Test

At the end of 5 events, Orchard Lake St. Mary's trackmen trailed the leaders in the 8-team Catholic League Invitational at UD Stadium. Servite was the leader with 24 points, St. Joseph and DeLaSalle scoring 13, St. Bernard 11, Austin 7, and the Eaglets 6.

Notre Dame scored 1 point and Cathedral Central failed to score. St. Mary's pole vaulter Tom Gorzenski gained a 3-way tie for 1st at 9 feet, 9 inches. The meet will be concluded today. Rain halted the meet Tuesday.

Polo Tourney Resumes

The state round-robin polo tournament resumes at Ivory Polo Field tonight at 8 p.m. with the Pontiac Chiefs meeting Franklin Hills in the 1st game of a double header. Rochester Polo Club will oppose Toledo in the nightcap.

Treaty With Canada for Lamprey Control Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate foreign relations committee has approved a treaty with Canada aimed at exterminating fish-eating sea lampreys and improving fishing in the Great Lakes.

U.S. and Canadian officials signed the treaty in Washington Sept. 10, 1954. It still must be ratified by a two-thirds majority of the senate before it can go into effect.

A Great Lakes fishery commission set up by the treaty would conduct a sea lamprey eradication program and conduct research on how to build up stocks of commercially desirable fish.

Lampreys are eel-like creatures which have destroyed trout in Lake Huron and Lake Michigan. Now they are increasing rapidly in Lake Superior, preying on the most valuable species of fish, like trout and whitefish.

Congress has voted millions of dollars in past years for construction of electrical and mechanical barriers across 71 of the 230 spawning streams on the United States side of the border.

But unlike salmon, a lamprey does not return to the same stream in which it was spawned. It will go up any suitable stream.

Joint U.S.-Canadian action was considered necessary to make controls effective.

The United States will pay about $750,000 a year under the treaty for the first three years and somewhat less after that.

Tigers Beat KC in Mound Marathon, but Injury Benches Harvey Kuenn

Parade of Pitchers

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Detroit Tigers used seven pitchers to beat the Kansas City Athletics 9-6 last night for their 5th victory in the last six games.

But it was rather a costly victory.

Harvey Kuenn, the American League's leading batsman, will be out of the Detroit lineup for a week. Kuenn pulled a muscle in his left thigh while running out a 1st inning hit.

Steve Gromek, who started for Detroit, left the game at the end of the 8th with a slipped sacroiliac joint. Gromek will miss the next pitching turn.

Three runs in the 8th gave the Tigers their winning margin after Al Kaline and Gus Zernial matched three-run homers in the 6th.

Kaline batted in four runs.

Kuenn's lone hit raised his batting average to .377 and enabled him to take over the league lead from Kansas City's Vic Power, who went hitless in five times at bat.

Forty players, including 11 pitchers, got in the game that lasted nearly three hours. Tigers battered four Kansas City pitchers for 12 hits.

Athletics got eight hits off the Tiger pitching staff.

Credit for the victory went to Al Aber, who held the A's to one hit in the last two innings and posted his 3rd straight relief victory without a defeat.

Besides Gromek and Aber, the Tigers used George Zuverink, Bennett Flowers, Leo Christante, Paul Foytak (pitching in his 1st game this year) and Van Fletcher.

* * *

Johnny Sain, who went in in the 6th as the Athletics' 2nd pitcher, was charged with the loss.

Tigers never trailed, but they were caught for a 5-5 tie in the 6th when the Athletics scored four runs.

In the 7th, Tigers went ahead to stay on Ray Boone's single that scored Bob Wilson.

In tonight's game, Frank Lary (3-4) is slated to pitch for the Tigers and Ray Herbert (0-1) for the Athletics.

Wide Open Race Seen for I-L's Track Title

Close races and keen competition for the team championship are predicted for the annual Inter-Lakes Conference track meet Thursday at Ferndale's Jefferson Field. Time trials are slated to start at 4:30 p.m. with the finals immediately following.

Defending champion Waterford, Walled Lake and Southfield are all title possibilities, with Farmington in a darkhorse role. However, Waterford must be installed as a slight favorite, with Walled Lake given the best chance to slip in should the Skippers falter.

Jack Hackett's champions have strong entries in nearly every event and will be bolstered by the presence of 3 men who have missed all or most of the dual meet schedule. Walled Lake has several outstanding individuals and bases its hopes on athletes from other member schools cutting in to the Waterford depth.

At least 5 conference records are threatened by the expected close races.

Walled Lake captain Don Pounds, possibly the loop's outstanding individual, is a virtual cinch to crack the half-mile record of 2 minutes, 7.4 seconds. He won the Class B state title at Ann Arbor last Saturday in 2:03.9.

Farmington's Dennis Mahaney has done 11 feet, 4 inches in the pole vault, well over the league mark of 11 feet, ½ inch. The shot put mark of 47 feet, 3½ inches, which Phil Barker of Walled Lake set in 1952, is also doomed.

Bob Quirk of Southfield has tossed the 12-pound ball 48 feet, 5½ inches and Virgil Barnett of Walled Lake has done 47-2. Jim Holtom of Waterford, who missed the regular season, will compete in the league meet and has been hitting 49-50 feet in practice.

Waterford's medley relay team of Bill and Ed Clark, Bob Hope and Leroy Vogt have posted a 2 minute, 38.6 second clocking, better than the league record of 2:40.4 set by WL in 1950.

Jerry Avery, stellar Walled Lake miler, has hit 4:46.1 in his specialty and with fine opposition available, the race could better the record 4:44.4 set in 1953 by Farmington's Bob Mansfield.

Avery will be challenged by defending Inter-Lakes titlist Gale Wigner of Waterford; Wigner's teammate Terry Kaines, who has beaten him this season; and Bill Lowe of Southfield.

Great races loom in the hurdles with Jerry Meyers of Berkley and defending league champ Laine Hetherington of Waterford matched. They each have 15.9 times for the highs and Hetherington has a 21.2 in the lows to 21.3 for Meyers.

The low barrier standard of 30.5, set by WL's Ron Revitzer in 1953, likely will hold, but his high hurdle mark of 15.5 could be approached. Gordon Hart of Southfield and Larry Hughes of Walled Lake are other formidable timber toppers.

The dashes, as usual, should be rousing with Farmington's Dick Grimshaw and Waterford's Gary Wideman, who just returned to eligibility, challenged by Fred Courville of Southfield and Glen Reid of Walled Lake also is a high jump threat along with Farmington's McNichols.

Farmington, WL and Waterford all have capable half-mile relay teams which should provide a thrilling race. The Skipper combine of Stan Jones, Lindy Salathiel, Hetherington and Wideman is the likely favorite.

Another wide-open event is the 440 where Skipper Darrel Adams, Bob Evans of Southfield and Walled Lake's Dick Woodworth are all around the 55-second mark.

Braves Outfielder Versatile Athlete

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Chuck Tanner, rookie outfielder for the Braves, was an all-around athlete at Shenango High school in New Castle, Pa.

He was the star for four years on the football and basketball teams. In his senior year he was the captain. Chuck also won two letters in track and was Western Pennsylvania shot-put champion in 1946.

Larger Vault Needed for Football Sales

EAST LANSING (AP) — The State Board of Agriculture, governing body of Michigan State College, has shown confidence MSC will have a winning, crowd-attracting 1955 football team.

The board authorized expenditure of $980 to enlarge the vault in the Michigan State ticket office, explaining that football ticket sales have boomed so that a new vault is needed.

Black Flies Thick in Canada

By JACK PATTERSON

Fishermen headed for Canada in the near future and of such there are many hereabouts are advised by Elmer Pettingill, just returned from Harry Pryale's diggings, and "Bill" Bundy, fresh from Bell Lake, that the Ontario trout territory is turning out black flies this season faster than GM is turning out cars. And that's a lot of flies.

PATTERSON

(If any potential voyageurs are as susceptible to the nagging attack of these winged beasts as we are we strongly recommend the use of one of the old-fashioned greasy repellents. No. 6-12 works fine for some people but for us it's just something for the bugs to drink out of the bottle as an appetizer before boring in for the main dish.

Of course a character liberally smeared with one of the old nostrums achieves a gaminess like that of a goat on an Indian reservation, but if it keeps the flies off, so what! Anyway it's been our observation that after a couple of days in the woods the average fisherman develops a bouquet that strictly "ain't from the house of Caron."

As far as black flies go Canada hasn't an exclusive franchise on 'em. Our own trout streams have a fair share right now and we got harpooned by several right in Oakland County a few days ago. But it is in Canada, before the hot, dry weather puts them down that they rise from the damp soil like smoke to torment man and beast to the point of insanity.

* * *

Recent mayfly hatches on local lakes have brought about some excellent early evening fly fishing for bluegills and rock bass. In rainbow lakes these fish have been rising nicely to the hatch, too, although it takes a seasoned eye or good guess to pick out a rainbow rise from that of a panfish and at the height of activity the fisherman may be unable to keep the latter off his fly long enough to dig into a rainbow.

As always, major mayfly hatches here signal similar activity on northern streams in fairly short order and by the end of this week "caddis" hatches, which more often than not are mayfly hatches and another thing altogether, can be looked for on the big streams.

Probably because the season is so far ahead of schedule, catches of big trout are very common. Big browns particularly are responding well both to flies and baits. Evening trout fishing has been generally spotty, occasionally very good, but a tendency toward a quick temperature drop after sundown has inhibited it to some extent.

* * *

Lower Peninsula trout streams that are producing splendid brown trout fishing right now are the Rapid (and we could underline that one) the main stream of the Au Sable between Grayling and Mio, the fly fishing only stretches of the North and South branches of the same river and of course, the two Manistees. If weather stays hot and humid the outlook for the immediate future is excellent for brown trout fishing wherever these fish are to be found.

The above emphasis on browns by no means implies that brook trout aren't taking well. In the bigger streams where these fish stake out their tents fishing is good. On the small, brushy streams brook trout fishing is superb.

'Quiet' Fishing Trip Turns Out to Be Bass Twin-Bill

ANN ARBOR (UP) — When George Leeds took his 12-year-old son, Roland, fishing on Whitmore Lake near Ann Arbor, he expected a quiet, peaceful afternoon.

The fish chose to ignore the Leeds and the afternoon became all too peaceful.

But Roland, after more than a hundred casts, changed that. He sent his flat fish lure flashing across the quiet water again. Suddenly he felt a tug. Weeds underneath the water, he thought.

He began to reel in. Then he knew it wasn't weeds. His plug, with four sets of three hooks each, was bucking and fighting itself. On the hooks were a small-mouth bass (12¾ inches) and a large-mouth bass (11½ inches).

On most lakes in the state, where bass season opens next month, they would have had to throw both fish back and have been content with a fish story. But experimental Whitmore is open to bass fishers all year.

For George Leeds, in spite of his son's double-header, it was a quiet day. He went home empty-handed.

State Conservation Film Gets Top Honor

LANSING (UP) — The conservation department said Tuesday it has won top national honors this year for its educational film "The Michigan Deer Story."

Award was made by the American Association for Conservation Information. The 26-minute color-sound film was produced under direction of Clare J. Tinker. Robert Harrington was photographer and David Jenkins was technical advisor.

Mongolian 'Plant' Thriving on Island

LANSING (UP) — A hardy band of Mongolian ringneck pheasants released on a Saginaw Bay island in 1951 is thriving. The conservations department reports.

Birds released three years ago on Big Charity Island are making a go of it, the department said, even though there is no farming on the island.

Hambletonian Horses Racing at Roosevelt

WESTBURY, N. Y. (UP)—Six 3-year old trotters, all eligible for the Aug. 3 renewal of the Hambletonian at Goshen, N. Y., match strides tonight in a mile race at Roosevelt Raceway.

Arvilla Hanover, a filly owned by Billy Haughton and A. C. Mudge of Hanover, Pa., is the choice over E. C. Moriarty's Black Rice, A. C. Peterson's Egyptian Boy, D. B. Rice's Charlton Hanover, Kyler Lumman's Somthing Special and Mrs. Charlotte S. De Van's Leopold Hanover. There also are two non-Hambletonian eligibles in the race.

Arvilla Hanover will be driven by Haughton.

Pontiac Bowman Gets Big 'Mess' of Fish

James P. Taylor, of 2422 Pontiac Road, bagged a sizeable mess of carp Monday morning in Lake St. Clair. Using a bow and arrow, the Pontiac Motor employe landed over 80 pounds of carp, including two specimens weighing 17 pounds each. Taylor shot from the bank and required about 3½ hours to make his catch.

The Giants did not lose both games of a double header during the entire 1954 season. In their 1st twin bill of 1955, however, they lost both contests to the Phillies.

Pierce Hurls Hose Close to AL Top

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Billy Pierce and Curt Simmons, a pair of southpaws who have known better days, look like they may be ready to set up shop again. If so, you can bet Managers Marty Marion and Mayo Smith will be throwing a lot of business their way.

* * *

Billy The Kid has been one of the missing links in Marion's plan to bring the Chicago White Sox an American League pennant. The Sox have been able to hang in there, just a stride or two behind the leaders, without Pierce. If his arm troubles are over Chicago could really get into the scrap.

Pierce gave an indication of his importance to the Sox' flag hopes last night. His three-hitter beat Cleveland 4-1 as Chicago home runs ruined rookie Herb Score and pushed the Sox to within a half-game of the second-place Indians.

* * *

Billy fanned seven while pitching his second complete game, flashing some of the stuff that made him the AL's strikeout king in 1953—the year he was 18-12.

* * *

Simmons didn't quite match Pierce's performance, but with his Philadelphia Phils sunk in the National League basement, Manager Smith won't quibble. Simmons looked his best since 1953 as he went 7 1-3 innings before tiring last night. With some help from Jack Meyer, that was enough to snap a six-game winning streak by the New York Giants 6-2.

Simmons, who helped the Phils to their 1950 flag but who fell off after losing part of a toe in a lawn mower accident two summers ago, fanned five and spaced five hits. It was his first victory in five appearances after shoulder trouble in spring training.

* * *

The Giants weren't the only ones to see a string halted. In the American League, Chuck Stobbs and the Washington Senators smashed first place New York's seven-game string by beating the Yankees 3-2. Baltimore ended its five-game losing slump 6-1 against Boston while Detroit beat Kansas City 9-6.

* * *

In the National Pittsburgh buried its 11-game losing string by humiliating the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers 15-1.

* * *

The Sox caught up with Score in the seventh breaking up a no-hit bid with three singles and a run. Then after Ralph Kiner homered to tie it, Chico Carrasquel and Bob Nieman homered to score three runs in the eighth.

Score, now 4-3, fanned 11 in his eight innings to pass New York's Bob Turley for the major league lead. Score has 77, Turley 72.

* * *

The Yanks had three doubles among their five hits off Stobbs, who won his first decision, but paired them only in the eighth. That's when Mickey Mantle got his second two-bagger to tie the score at 2-2. Mickey Vernon's long sacrifice fly brought Stobbs home with the winning run in the ninth. Tom Sturdivant lost it in relief of Bob Grim.

Jim McDonald and Ray Moore got the job done for the Orioles with the help of Cal Abrams' 3-for-4 and Gene Woodling's two runs batted in. McDonald, who came to Baltimore with Woodling in the Turley deal, won his first as a starter with Moore blanking the Bosox over the last 2 1-3 innings.

Troy Defends Oak-B Title

Four teams are given a chance to win the Oakland-B Conference track championship tonight on the Fitzgerald oval with defending champion Troy in the running. Fitzgerald, Roseville and Clawson also are threats.

The best race of the meet is looming in the quarter-mile with the league record of 54 seconds set by Troy's Jim Pouget last year expected to fall. The favorite is Fitzgerald's Jim Waschewski, who was in a 51-second heat at the state meet last Saturday.

He will be pressed by Floyd Bailey of Troy and Lynn Hazlett of Lake Orion. Each has broken 55 seconds this season.

Brennan Seeks Racing License for NY Tracks

Plymouth Union Leader Appeals Denial Based on Criminal Record

NEW YORK (UP) — The New York State Harness Racing commission is considering an appeal by a Michigan union leader to be allowed to run his horses on New York tracks.

Owen Brennan of Plymouth, Mich., president of a teamsters' local, had been denied a license last fall because he had two criminal convictions.

George F. Fitzgerald, of Grosse Pointe, Mich., former Michigan welfare commissioner and a labor lawyer, at a hearing yesterday argued that Brennan's convictions resulted from advice of counsel and did not constitute moral turpitude.

Brennan was convicted in 1940 of violating the Michigan labor law during efforts by teamsters to organize butchers and grocers who were driving their own trucks to pick up supplies from wholesalers.

Record Daily Double

DETROIT (UP) — Rain upset the form chart at Hazel Park Harness Raceway last night but helped produce the biggest daily double payoff in the track's history.

Tronia's Bob and Mabel Maxey combined to return $676.60 as the muddy track slowed down the favorites. The largest previous double in the track's history was $586.20 on May 21, 1953.

National Lacrosse Mark

FLORAL PARK, N. Y. (UP)—Sewanahaka High School today claimed a new national interscholastic lacrosse record after beating Freeport 11-4 for its 73rd straight victory.

The old mark was 72 set by St. Pauls school of Baltimore through 1946.

Shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs played the entire game on April 18 without a fielding chance.

Ex-Manager for Mederos Is Called Drug Violator

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — A fight probe witness says Cuban boxer Julio Mederos, the underdog who won a TKO decision over "drugged" Harold Johnson in a nationally-televised fight here May 6, formerly was managed by a convicted narcotics violater.

Pennsylvania's athletic commission is conducting the probe into the alleged doping of Johnson. Questioned yesterday was James White, 47, of New York and Miami, who is listed as Mederos' manager of record.

* * *

White testified that Louis Black, also known as Louis Saccaroma, managed the 22-year-old Mederos from 1953 until this March—about 10 weeks before the Johnson fight.

The witness said he had turned Mederos over to Black because he (White) was then engaged as a boxing promoter and matchmaker in Miami.

* * *

Previously, Philadelphia detectives had testified that Black was arrested 10 times on dope charges and that he was paroled after serving five years of a 10-year sentence in Lewisburg, Pa., Federal Penitentiary on dope charges. Black denied the police charges.

White testified he believed Johnson was in good physical condition the night of the fight, adding "I wish I was in such perfect condition."

The witness said he didn't believe Johnson was drugged by a barbiturate, as commission physicians testified, but insisted he was downed by blows thrown by Mederos. Johnson was unable to answer the bell for the third round and Mederos was awarded a second-round TKO.

MSC Gets Cage Star

MONROE, Wis. (UP) — Bob Anderegg, who rewrote the scoring records in the 1955 Wisconsin high school basgetbal tournament says he will enroll next fall at Michigan State College.

Anderegg, 6-foot-2½ center, said yesterday he had accepted a six-year scholarship in veterinary medicine at MSC. He had considered offers from about a dozen schools.

Podoley 'Loafs,' but Runs to Two Records

MT. PLEASANT (UP)—Jim Podoley, Central Michigan's Olympic decathlon hopeful, only entered two events as the Chippewas beat Wayne University, 53-33 in a track meet yesterday, but he was involved in records both times.

He beat his own school record for the 120-yard high hurdles to 15 seconds flat from a previous 15.2 and ran anchor leg of a mile relay team that set a Central Michigan varsity record of 3:22.4. The old relay mark was 3:24.3.

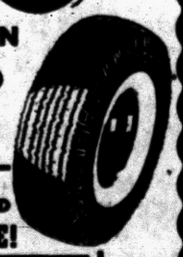

Rain Halts City 9s

Action in Class A City baseball league and softball circuits was washed out with last night's rain. The Class A game between Auburn Merchants and CIO 594 will be played Friday night at Wisner Field.

Dr. Sam's Kin Has Her Say

But 3 Appeals Judges Walk Out on Scolding

by Betty Sheppard

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. Betty Sheppard, the silver-haired young sister-in-law of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, had her say in Appeals Court yesterday. But the judges walked out on her.

The strikingly attractive woman abandoned by placid composure she maintained throughout her brother-in-law's long murder trial. She spoke, not in his defense, but on behalf of her husband Dr. Stephen A. Sheppard.

* * *

She started from her chair as the three-judge Appellate Court ended two days of argument on Sam Sheppard's appeal from his conviction for second-degree murder in the bludgeoning of his wife.

"May I say something?" she called out.

Presiding Judge Julius M. Kovachy shook his head, turned his back and he and his two colleagues strode out of the courtroom.

* * *

Mrs. Sheppard walked to the trial table and addressed assistant prosecutor Saul S. Danaceau. Danaceau earlier had told the court Dr. Steve had tried to divert attention during the investigation of Marilyn Sheppard's murder by telling police about many suspects, all of whom proved to be "hoaxes."

Dr. Steve's wife told Danaceau her husband never accused anybody of the killing. She said he merely gave his ideas to police, who solicited them.

* * *

"I want you to make that clear," she demanded. "I want that put into the record."

Danaceau, too, turned his back on her. She gave up and left the courtroom.

Neither Dr. Steve nor Dr. Sam were present. Dr. Sam is in Cuyahoga County Jail, awaiting the outcome of his appeal. If he loses, he will be sent to Ohio Penitentiary to start a life term, with eligibility for parole in 10 years. If he wins he could get a new trial, the sentence could be reduced, or conceivably the Appeals Court could acquit him. Acquittal by an Appeals Court, a rare thing in Ohio, could be challenged in the State Supreme Court by the prosecution.

* * *

The appeals judges are not expected to decide the appeal until July.

Defense attorneys have appealed on the basis of what they claim are errors of law in the first trial, and newly discovered evidence.

RADAR ISLAND LAUNCHED — Guests throng the stand in foreground as a 6,000-ton steel platform is inched toward water after christening May 20 at Bethlehem Shipyard, Quincy, Mass. The structure, with three 200-foot legs to be attached later, will be placed in shallow water 100 miles off Cape Cod to support equipment for an offshore warning system. The island was named George Bank Air Station after shoal in Atalntic where it will be stationed, long a famous New England fishing bank.

Snow Fights Blaze

GOVERNMENT CAMP, Ore. (AP) — A State Highway Department rotary snow plow was pressed into service for fighting a hotel fire at this resort high on the slopes of Mt. Hood. The hotel burned down but the plume of snow played by the road-clearing vehicle helped keep the flames from spreading to other buildings.

NEW YORK (AP)—A big-time dealer in photographs has balked at a request to produce his business records for a Senate subcommittee investigating the effect of pornography on juvenile crime.

Irving Klaw, known as "King of the Pinups," told the subcommittee headed by Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) yesterday that such records might tend to incriminate or degrade him.

He also maintained that the subpoena for his appearance before the Kefauver group was "vague and illegal."

* * *

Kefauver, however, ordered him to appear with the records when the subcommittee resumes its hearings here tomorrow.

Klaw, who reportedly has sold over a million photographs of movie stars and stills from motion pictures a year, was among a dozen witnesses subpoenaed by the Senate Judiciary subcommittee to investigate juvenile delinquency.

Too Many Egyptians

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP)—Because they are close to Cairo, Ill., many Southern Illinois firms call themselves "Egyptian." But J. N. Hendrix thinks it has been overdone. He operated the Egyptian Adjustment Bureau for 14 years. But so much of his mail got mixed with that of other "Egyptian" firms that he has changed the name to Hendrix Collection Agency.

Medical Expert, GM Team Develop New Heart Device

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Heart sounds inaudible to a doctor's stethoscope as well as the human ear can be heard, and recorded, by a nnew device.

* * *

It is an "electro stethograph," capable of detecting fainter heart sounds which heretofore have been beyond any detection.

General Motors Research Laboratories Division and the Medical College of South Carolina today announced development of the device.

The electro stethograph is described as of "potential clinical significance." General Motors said medical researchers believe it will offer new clues to the heart's behavior.

The device transmits the heart's sounds and vibrations to paper by a direct writing mechanism or they can be seen through an oscilloscope resembling a small television screen.

SOUND PATTERNS

Wavy or zig zag lines indicate the heart's sound "patterns."

The patient lies on a mattress of foam rubber which absorbs any interference vibrations.

* * *

The stethograph's "pickup," about the diameter of a silver dollar, is placed on the patient's chest. Sounds and vibrations are transmitted into apparatus for both viewing and recording.

The electro stethograph is the outgrowth of an idea from Dr. Dale Groom, assistant professor of medicine at Medical College of South Carolina. Dr. Groom and GM. researchers worked together on it.

A highly sensitive surfaces — measurement device of the automobile industry played a part.

GM used its "surfagage"—which measures scratches on highly machined auto parts to the millionth of an inch—in helping to make the electro stethograph.

USE SURFAGAGE

The "surfagage" transforms motion into electrical signals. As it moves over a machined surface its indiscernible up and down motion is transmitted into electrical wave lengths. The electro stethograph does the same with heart sounds.

The electro stethograph is expected to be used as a supplement to other instruments for charting heart action, including the electro-cardiograph and phonocardiograph.

STARTS YOUNG — Six-month-old Linda Goodwill got an early start in school yesterday, when she accompanied her mother, Mrs. Marie Goodwill to classes at Milford High School. The baby-sitter's day off brought about the situation, which girls in the home making class really appreciated. They got a chance to get some first hand experience with baby care.

Infant of Milford Senior Attends School for a Day

MILFORD — Twenty-three girls in the advanced home making class at Milford High School received first-hand information on baby care yesterday when Mrs. Marie Goodwill of 700 W. Maple road, brought her little daughter Linda, to cass with her.

Probably the youngest child in history to attend classes, Linda will be 6 months old next month, and teachers and students alike were amazed at her adaptability.

The Home and Family Living course is a special feature of the Home Economics department, and Mrs. Walter Tripp, instructor said of the 'living demonstration,' "Linda has shown the girls many angles of child care that books could never get across to them. And she certainly is a wonderful example of a perfectly behaved, and well-adjusted little specimen."

Mrs. James Goodwill, Linda's mother is just 18 and a senior. She plans to graduate in June with her class, even if she has to take Linda up on the stage with her.

Cat-napping between classes and bottles, Linda remained with home economics students during the day, as her mother went from class to class.

Despite the continual parade of new faces, she did not give the pupils caring for her the unforgetable experience of a loudly-crying baby.

Usually Mrs. Goodwill's mother-in-law is Linda's steady baby sitter, but this schedule had to be interrupted yesterday.

There were no complaints from the mother, students, or Linda, however.

She apparently enjoyed being the center of attraction in a group of strangers.

Two Streets Missed Bring Count Closer to State Requirement

A dispute over Troy Township's right to incorporate as a city took place at yesterday's Oakland County Board of Supervisors' meeting, as census recheck crews continued their work in the Township office.

An incorporation election has been set for June 7 in Troy. This followed the attempted annexation of a portion of the township where the Vickers Corp. of Detroit is building a $2,000,000 plant.

An area must have 500 persons per square mile to incorporate as a city. Officials of the Secretary of State's office have been rechecking a census of the area which showed the proposed city to be 533 persons short of the required 13,750.

Chairman of the Boundaries Committee of the supervisors William A. Ewart, of Pontiac, yesterday told supervisors there was some question whether the census would show the required number of people in the area.

CANNOT HALT VOTING

His committee decided the election cannot be called off pending the census results, Ewart said. "If the census shows insufficient people, then the election would be nullified," he stated.

Troy Township Supervisor Norman R. Barnard and Township Clerk Clifton Truesdell said late yesterday that as yet they do not know if the rechecked census will show enough residents.

"We have gained a couple hundred names" Truesdell said, "when we found two streets that had not been included."

The missing streets were Fernley and Forsyth.

USING CUSTOMER LISTS

The state officials, with the assistance of township help, were using the township water department and Detroit Edison customer lists in checking the census.

Truesdell had a different opinion on the result of the census showing insufficient number of residents.

The state would not nullify the election if the census were short names, it just acts as a custodian of the census, he stated. However a complaint from a resident of the township would be a different matter, he added.

Walled Lake Council Selecting Manager

WALLED LAKE — The city council last night selected three candidates for the position of city manager, and scheduled another meeting to make their final selection.

John Hancock of Ann Arbor, Walter E. Looney of Caspain, and Clifford J. Wile of Ferndale were screened from a list of applicants for the post.

The trio will be interviewed at the May 31 meeting.

In other action the council adopted an ordinance setting up the duties limitations of the city manager post.

The council was unable to name a successor to justice of the peace Charles Rose, whose resignation is effective June 1.

Plan Thursday Dinner

LEONARD—The Leonard Methodist Church WSCS will hold a mother and daughter banquet Thursday, with serving to begin at 6:30 p. m. at the Rowland Hall.

Victory in Local Contest Sends Youth to State Test

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Teen-age Road-E-O winner Bud Volberding is not content to rest on the laurels of his Sunday victory in the local driving skill contest.

He plans to participate in the June 4 contest at East Lansing, and take a crack at getting a $3,000 scholarship.

The 17-year-old Clarkston High school junior took top honors Sunday against the competition of eight other area youngsters behind the wheel.

Ranking second in the contest was James Mickle, 17 of Clarkston. Also a junior at Clarkston High, he participated in last year's contest.

The Waterford Chamber of Commerce sponsored the contest, with the Beatty Motor Sales and the Haskins Motor Sales providing the two cars used in the contest.

Man With Lion to Bring Prize at Home Show

ROCHESTER — The person who first "finds a man with a lion" at the Rochester Home Show, June 3, 4 and 5, will win $100 in cash, acording to Frank Firnschild of the Rochester Lions Club, Home Show general chairman.

To be held at Halbach Field, the event is the first home and builders show ever held in the Rochester area.

Nearly 40 exhibitors have contracted for inside booths and local car dealers have reserved space outside the large tent which will house the show.

Bolt Destroys Barn as Phones Go Dead

MILFORD—Lightning which set a barn afire at 4 a.m. yesterday also knocked out the telephone service of a farm family, making it impossible to alert the fire department.

The barn on the "Knobby Hills Farm" of Mr. and Mrs. John Knoblock, North Milford Road, was completely destroyed by the time the owners returned from Highland after summoning fire fighters.

Damage was estimated at $8,000 by Highland Fire Chief Asa Smith. Volunteers of his department could not be called immediately, because Highland phone lines were also out of service.

JUDITH SANDERSON

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eugene Sanderson of Commerce have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith Elaine, to Wayne Richard Bigler. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. DeVere Bigler of Cass Lake. A summer wedding is planned.

Approximately one-third of the sugar consumed in the world is produced from sugar beets, and two thirds from sugar cane.

Dutch Elm Disease Fight Approved by Supervisors

The Road and Agricultural Committees of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday were authorized to launch a program to prevent spread of Dutch Elm Disease in trees on county-owned land.

The motion followed a discussion of the threat to area elms posed by the tree-killing affliction by Dean Lovitt, assistant chief of the State Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Plant Industry.

Lovitt said, "It is useless to attempt to entirely wipe out the disease in Michigan and impractical to attempt to control it in rural areas." Such a program would cost too much, he explained.

He proposed that a strip around communities might be surveyed at intervals for the disease, thus possibly preventing its spread into a city.

Local units could help by spraying trees and removing afflicted ones on public land, he stated. A program might be worked out whereby local governments would remove trees from private property whose owners are financially unable to do so, he suggested.

Supervisor Harold K. Schone, Oak Park city manager, asked Lovitt why a laboratory couldn't be set up in Oakland County where samples from trees suspected of the disease could be tested immediately.

"It takes about 20 days to get test results from Lansing," Schone stated.

Lovitt said it would be costly to set up a lab and hard to find people to staff it. He stated the agriculture department plans to speed returning of test results.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Seven girls have entered the CAI Fair Queens contest so far, according to Mrs. George Dean, chairman of this committee.

The annual fair is to be held June 23, 24, and 25 at the Community Activities Center on Williams Lake road.

Every girl entering receives a small prize whether she wins or not.

Votes cost 1 cent each and are collected in the canisters issued to the aspirant when she officially enters the contest.

So far the candidates are Sherry MacIntosh, Carmen Piechowiak, Priscilla Boyd, Beverly Hankins, Shirley Lamberton, Maureen Clark and Cleon Mullins.

Mrs. Dean will be at the CAI buliding tomorrow from 8 to 9 to receive more entries and issue more canisters.

Peach Festival Head Selected at Romeo

ROMEO — Bert Kernaghan, local manufacturer, has been elected president of the Romeo Peach Festival Assn. for the year 1955-56, it was annouced today.

Bruce Linsday was the elected treasurer of the association, and Mrs. Charles Meeker, secretary.

The first phase of the festival, which is scheduled for Sept. 3-5, will be the selection of Miss Romeo from a group of local contestants during the first week in August. The winner of this competition will vie for the title of peach queen later that month, with contestants from six counties.

The queen and her court will then begin making public appearances to promote the annual Labor Day celebration.

The next meeting of the association will be held June 2.

Even Banks Get Automation

Automatic System for Processing of Checks Developed in Detroit

DETROIT (UP) — The development of an automatic bank bookkeeping system to bring "a high degree of automation" to the job of processing checks was announced today.

Burroughs Corp. said it had developed the automatic system in cooperation with the Todd Co., Inc., of Rochester, N. Y., and Addressograph-Multigraph Corp. of Cleveland. Field tests are to be arranged.

Pending the securing of patent rights, the details of the system were not divulged.

However, Burroughs said the system is based in part on use of an "invisible code" identifying both the depositor and the bank on which his check is drawn.

DEVICE READS CODE

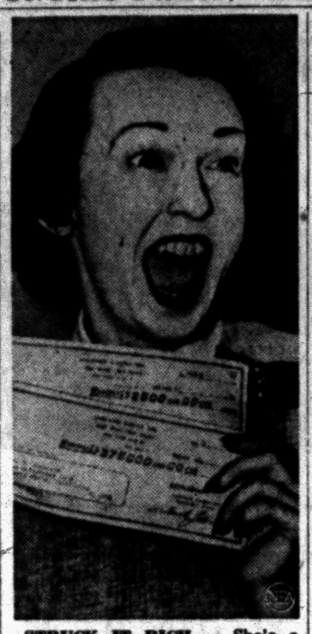

Devices for automatic reading of the code make it possible to sort the checks automatically, Burroughs said.

The result, it was said, is that banks will be able to sort their own checks by customer and for distribution to other banks "with a much greater degree of speed and efficiency."

The system requires no change in customer check writing practices, Burroughs said.

In future, it also is expected to be possible to code and record the amounts for which checks are written, Burroughs said.

The fire ant which has invaded southern United States form Brazil will attack stored food, food plants and live farm animals.

STRUCK IT RICH — She's a winner, as anyone can tell. Mrs. Lelia Boroughs of Beverly Hills, Calif., happily displays checks totaling $377,500, first prize in a puzzle contest sponsored by publishers of the new Funk & Wagnalls Encyclopedia.

Semi Crashes, Burns, Killing Jackson Driver

MARSHALL (UP) — A 23-year-old Jackson truck driver died in the flaming cab of his semi-trailer truck yesterday after it jackknifed, hit a bridge and burst into flames.

Dead is Richard Wilkinson, a driver for the Expressway Co. of Jackson. The accident occurred on U. S. 12, a mile east of Marshall. State Police said they thought the "saddle" gas tanks hooked to the side of the aab broke open, igniting the gas they carried.

Hollywood Headlines

Jennifer Jones Tagged to Play 'Miss Dove' Role

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — All you press agents who've been suggesting this and that actress for "Good Morning, Miss Dove" can relax.

* * *

Jennifer Joes put her name on a contract to play the schoolteacher role in Frances Grey Pappan's best-seller for 20th Century-Fox. She'll start June 7.

"Good Morning Miss Dove," is the story of a school teacher who reviews her entire life, so Jennifer will be young, middle-aged and old. This may interfere with her playing in "Joseph and His Brethren."

CALL FROM BETTE

Over the weekend Bette Davis telephoned that she will return to Hollywood to star in "The Librarian" at Columbia.

This is the story of the small-town librarian who is fired because she refuses to remove a controversial book from the library book shelf.

ROSIE HURTS ANKLE

Las Vegas notes: Rosemary Clooney sprained her ankle, but that didn't interfere with her giving a very good show at the Sands and looking a vision in pink.

Had luncheon with Jane and Tommy Dorsey, and Mrs. D. wore the famous Vanderbilt diamonds, loaned to her for the Dunes opening. She plans to join the Dorsey act.

Tommy and his brother, Jimmy, are packing them in at the New Frontier. You wonder where all the people come from—the hotels are all filled and more are going up.

Little Janie Powell, at the Desert Inn, surprised her many admirers with her poise and her singing. Backstage her agent talked to her about a new TV show, but she said she didn't know whether MGM would let her do it.

MARGARET'S BEAU

A boy so young I thought he was playing hooky from school introduced himself to me on the plane going to Las Vegas. He is Rad Fulton, Henry Willson's latest discovery and Margaret O'Brien's favorite boyfriend.

"I've got a job! I'm going to make a picture," Rad happily told me. Then I found that he goes to Republic immediately for "Come Next Spring," with Ann Sheridan, Steve Cochran and Sonny Tufts.

PIPER WAS WAITING

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Waiting backstage at a TV show for Gene Nelson was —guess who?—Piper Laurie.

* * *

Champion Rocky Marciano and his missus, accompanied by Jack La Rue, made the rounds of the night spots, including the Mocambo and Ciro's.

* * *

Marion Marlowe, the singer in the latest Arthur Godfrey firing fracas, is named top femme singer on the new TV-Radio Mirror magazine poll.

GOOD FOR JOE JR.

Good for Joe DiMaggio Jr.! He's been made catcher on the baseball team at Black Fox Military Academy.

* * *

Of all the freak accidents—Mrs. Stanley Kramer was riding an elephant in the zoological park in London when another elephant swung its trunk around and struck her. She was laid up with shock and a badly bruised face.

* * *

Debbie Reynolds postcards from Okinawa to say that she is going on to Japan, Formosa and Korea. "So far," says Debbie, "we've been well received."

Inflation Catches Up With Crime in the East

CONCORD, N. H. (UP) —The New Hampshire Legislature has passed a law that indicates inflation has caught up with crime.

Under the measure a theif must steal $100 instead of $50 to commit grand larceny.

French Move Troops Into Uneasy Algeria

PARIS (UP)—Elements of the 14th French infantry division are moving into troubled Algeria from the French Protectorate of Tunisia.

They have been stationed recently in the Sfax and Gafsa regions. Since France concluded a recent agreement to give Tunisian home rule, Arab guerrilla activity has virtually halted in that protectorate. However, Nationalists have been increasingly active in Algeria, officially a part of France.

The National Defense Council, France's top security body, approved a new series of measures for Algeria last night. Details were not annouced.

Small Tornado Rips Georgia Suburb Area

MARIETTA, Ga. (UP) — A small tornado did considerable damage to buildings, automobiles and electric lines in suburban area last night but no casualties were reported.

Residents told of seeing a black funnel-shaped cloud approaching just before the terrific wind struck the residential and community shopping section about a mile northeast of Marietta.

A garage and a barn were demolished. Part of the garage later was found half a mile away. The wreckage had been blown directly over the community shopping center.

More than 750,000 Americans are confined to mental hospitals.

Oscar's Fate Becomes Topic for Composition

SIOUX FALLS, S. D. (UP)—Howard Kimball, a sixth grade student at the Emerson School here, wrote a composition for class about the sad fate of his pet, Oscar.

"Oscar was a very naughty and stubborn chicken," Howard wrote. "He would do nothing that we told him to do. It seemed that he was always under foot. At times like this Dad insisted that we get rid of him.

"Of course, Dad was the worst one when it came to doing things he wasn't supposed to do. During our evening meal, when Oscar was supposed to be eating out of his own dish, Dad would slip a few nibbles underneath the table.

"With all these memories, I certainly hated to part with Oscar. But the day came when we had to move to an apartment and we couldn't take Oscar with us.

"The Sunday before we left, Mother prepared a lovely chicken dinner. You can imagine who the chicken was!

"As we sat down to eat I got all choked up inside and couldn't eat a thing. Finally, Dad said, 'Remove Oscar, please.'"

Cat Gets Bronze Medal for 15 Litters of Kittens

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Mitty is a cat with the true maternal instinct. She has had 15 litters and recently was awarded a bronze medal by a cat food concern for service above and beyond the call of duty.

The members of each litter get names beginning with one letter of the alphabet. So far Mitty's owner, Miss Betty Kleine, has gone through "O."

Almost 27 million babies have been born in the U. S. since 1944.

An estimated four million Americans play the guitar.

Wheat Rises; Others Follow

CHICAGO (AP) — There was a little demand for wheat in early dealings on the Board of Trade today and the bread cereal continued the advance which started late in the prevoius session.

Soybeans also were mostly a little higher. Feed grains opened steady and then inched upward in sympathy with wheat. Except for a little flurry in wheat at the opening, dealings continued slow. Wheat near the end off the first hour was ¾ to 1 cent higher, July $2.03¼; corn ⅜ to ½ higher, July $1.47½; oats ⅜ lower to ¼ higher, July 70; rye ¼ to ¾ higher, July $1.08; soybeans ½ to 1¼ higher, July $2.46½; and lard 7 to 8 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.20.

City Man Graduate in Foreign Trade

Arthur F. Kline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Kline of 209 S. Parke Street, will be graduated Friday from the American Institute for Foreign Trade at Thunderbird Field, Phoenix, Ariz.

KLINE

Specializing in Latin America, Kline has taken the school's intensive training course in preparation for a career in American business or government abroad.

Kline is a graduate of St. Francis High School, Cincinnati, Ohio and attended Duns Scotus College, Detroit, from 1948 until 1950. From that time until his enrollment at AIFT he served with the U.S. Air Force.

The course of study at the Institute concentrates on techniques of international business administration, foreign languages and characteristics of foreign countries.

Train Pilots to Fly on Instruments First

CHICAGO (UP)—Fledgling pilots may learn to fly by looking at instruments before they learn by watching the ground—a complete reversal of the usual procedures.

The new project is being carried out by the Institute of Aviation at the University of Illinois and is designed to teach pilots to handle themselves in an emergency when sight of the ground is blotted out.

Prof. Alex C. Williams Jr., head of the aviation psychology laboratory, said the purpose of the new method is to demonstate "whether it is possible to give basic instrument and contact training so that in the same amount of flight time a student will be able both to pass the private pilot test and have some knowledge of proficiency in instrument flying."

Stray Bullet Causes Driver to Smash Up

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—There was reason enough for Alexander Moses Warden's car to go out of control and plunge into a deep water-filled ditch. Hospital physicians later found a bullet lodged deep in his head. It had penetrated through the left ear passage without leaving a visible sign.

Warden, 53, a retired minister, was pulled unconscious from the ditch by another motorist. At the hospital he regained consciousness and said he couldn't imagine where the shot came from.

Adenauer, Ambassadors Talk Political Strategy

BADEN BADEN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer met with his ambassadors to the Western Big Three at a nearby Black Forest resort today. Their task was to map foreign political strategy in the light of the latest Kremlin moves.

Adenauer was expected to outline West Germany's attitude on the proposed four-power talks and also to discuss ways of offsetting the Russian campaign urging German neutrality as the price for the country's reunification.

Wayne Wins OK in Hunt for Medical School Site

DETROIT (INS) — The Detroit Board of Education has given Wayne University the "go ahead" in the school's attempt to get an additional 15 acres in the Gratiot Redevelopment Project for an expanded medical center.

Dr. Gordon H. Scott, dean of the College of Medicine, estimated the land would cost about $660,000.

Trading Quiet in Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — A narrowly higher price was maintained today in early dealings in the stock market.

* * *

A few issues were up between 1 and 2 points, mainly in the aircraft section, but most price changes either way were fractional. Plus signs held a slight edge.

Trading was very quiet. Yesterday's total was 1,650,000 shares, lowest since Columbus Day, Oct. 12.

Traders and others found little to their liking in today's market either, and they proceeded in a leisurely fashion.

Steels were mostly higher, motors steady, rubbers lower, aircrafts mostly higher, distillers higher, radio-televisions mostly higher, utilities steady, chemicals higher, railroads mostly higher, Oils higher, and airlines mixed.

F. I. Jacobs, yesterday"s most active issue up ⅜, opened today on 2,000 shares up ⅛ at 9. A block of 1,500 shares of Distillers Corp. sold at 40 up ⅛.

Among higher stocks were New York Central, Sinclair Oil, Pan American Airways, International Nickel (which reported its first quarter profits the best in its history), General Electric, Bethlehem Steel, Boeing, and RCA.

American Safety Razor opened on 1,000 shares off ⅛ at 7¼ after directors postponed dividend action.

AFFIRM U. S. AIR SUPERIORITY — Both Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson (right) and Roger Lewis, assistant secretary of the Air Force, appear in a thoughtful mood as they ponder the answer to a question today at a Pentagon news conference. Wilson said the U. S. is maintaining a "military capability superior" to that of Russia. Referring to the question of United States air superiority, Lewis said the U. S. is ahead of the Soviets in both plane quantity and quality.

Pentagon Says U.S. Still Top Air Power; Senator Contends Red Progress Fast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top civilian chiefs at the Pentagon say the United States still holds air superiority over Russia, but Sen. Jackson (D-Wash) contends the Soviets are making "alarming progress."

The newest chapter of what has evolved into a 'great debate' over the status of Russian and American air strength unfolded yesterday when:

Secretary of Defense Wilson told a news conference. "It is our aim to maintain a military capability superior to that of any potential enemy; we can and are doing this."

Sen. Jackson, chairman of a Senate House Atomic Energy subcommittee on military applications, presided at a closed session with Secretary of the Air Force Harold Talbott and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff.

Emerging, Jackson said he believes this country leads Russia now in air power; but 'we have consistently underestimated the ability of the Soviet Union to produce all types of armament including the atomic bomb, the hydrogen bomb and the intercontinental bomber," and that "unless we make a great effort for all-out production of jets of all kinds, both quantatively and qualitatively our country can be in grave peril."

Jackson told newsmen the United States could fall behind in the air power race unless it starts "crash (rush) programs in some items." To surpass Russia, he said "will take much greater production schedules than now provided for."

At the Pentagon, there also was talk about the ability, but not necessarily the present intention, to step up aircraft production if necessary.

Wilson said in a formal statement on U.S.-U.S.S.R. air power that "our programs are flexible enough so that we can step up our production on specific items at any time it is determined necessary to meet any threat to our security."

Referring to the aerial demonstration over Moscow—the incident which touched off the new debate—a reporter asked if the United States was going to push production in view of the new jet fighters and bombers in numbers seen there by U.S. observers.

Wilson replied that made no difference, that plane production is being pushed anyway.

REFUSES TO RETIRE—Mrs. Mathilda Maas carries on with her daily work at Chicago State Hospital, even though she is 70 and eligible for retirement. Mrs. Maas, recently informed she could collect her pension and salary, elected to give up the salary and continue to work for the hospital for nothing. The tiny woman, only 5 foot 2 and sporing but 93 pounds, told authorities, "It's wonderful to be useful."

Senate to Study Bill for Stock Dealings

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Senate Banking Committee will soon study a bill to require full disclosure of stock information in the sale of all securities.

The bill, introduced by Banking Committee Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), yesterday, would end the practice under which stocks sold on the "over-the-counter" markets are not subject to the disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Under present law, stocks traded on the main securities exchanges must comply with SEC rules designed to provide the buyer with full details on the securities.

The Arkansas Democrat said his bill "is designed to end this 'double standard,' which has neither logical foundation nor reasonable basis."

Thirteen Men Arrested in Gambling Raid Here

Thirteen men arrested by Pontiac Police vice squad early today during a gambling raid pleaded guilty to loitering charges and paid total fines of $325 after appearing before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Milford Mother, 20, Enters Guilty Plea

A 20-year-old Milford woman, charged with cruelty, pleaded guilty yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court and will be sentenced May 31, according to Assistant Prosecutor Edward H. Shigley.

Mrs. Evelyn Blanche Johnson was charged after her husband, Kenneth, 22, brought their two children for treatment at Pontiac General Hospital.

A month-old son was suffering from a broken right leg and bruises, while their one-year-old daughter had face bruises.

She admitted losing patience with the infant when it would not take its bottle or go to sleep.

License Office Closes

The office will close at 5 p.m. Friday and reopen Tuesday at 8:30 a.m.

Ford Prepares 'Package Offer'

UAW, Firm Adjourn Negotiations to Await Counterproposal

DETROIT (AP)— Negotiations between Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers were adjourned today while Ford reportedly made ready a "package offer" to the union.

Ford is expected to make its comprehensive counterproposal tomorrow to the union's demand for a guaranteed annual wage for the compay's 140,000 production workers.

* * *

UAW negotiators, headed by President Walter Reuther, agreed at noon yesterday to a 1½-day recess, presumably to give Ford representatives time to put their new offer into writing.

Both the company and the union declined to discuss the latest developments.

* * *

With the expiration date of the auto workers' five-year contract with Ford only a week away, the tempo of negotiations gradually is gaining momentum.

The union announced ast night that 96.6 per cent of the workers in 43 locals have voted in favor of a strike, if necessary to gain contract demands. Seven locals still are unreported.

General Motors held its first daylong meeting with the UAW yesterday and company and union representatives will meet again today. The GM contract, covering 325,000 production workers, expires June 7, a week later than the Ford pact.

Big 4 Ministers Set July 18-21 as Meeting Date

PARIS (AP) — French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay today said that President Eisenhower had accepted the dates of July 18-21 for the proposed meeting of Big Four chiefs of state.

* * *

The place for the meeting will be decided by the Foreign Ministers of the United States, Russia, Britain and France when they meet in San Francisco for the anniversary celebration of the United Nations, Pinay told a news conference.

The United States suggested Lausanne, Switzerland, for the meeting and France and Britain agreed. Russia has proposed Vienna. Pinay said Vienna could not be accepted so long as Austria is an occupied state.

Pinay said that U. S. Secretary of State Dulles had given only a provisional agreement to a Big Four meeting at the time of the Paris diplomatic meetings, and that acceptance of the July dates represented a final acceptance by President Eisenhower.

Be Sure Firm Is Reputable

Have Promises Written; Buy Outdoor Antenna; Watch Service Offer

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (AP)—People are still buying television sets at close to a record pace, and if you're in the market here's some good advice:

Deal only with a reputable firm, have any promises put into writing, and read carefully what you sign so you'll know exactly what you're entitled to receive.

An outdoor antenna is best if you have a place for it, and is virtually a necessity if you should get a color set.

* * *

If you don't intend to buy a service contract and plan to call in the repairman only when needed, be wary of service offers that imply you'll get something for nothing.

That advice comes from the Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Assn. and the Association of Better Business Bureaus in a new edition of their guidebook for TV set purchasers.

* * *

"One way of determining the responsibility of a repairman is whether he will give you a written estimate of costs before doing the job and a breakdown of his charges afterwards," the booklet says. "Another is evidence of satisfactory servicing he has done in your neighborhood."

* * *

To the tips in the booklet might be added one from a set manufacturer who prefers to remain anonymous lest he incur the displeasure of dealers handling his company's sets: dollar for dollar, he says, the best buy is the lowest priced model of any particular brand which generally has the same chassis and will give as good picture as the most expensive model. It's the model on which there's the least profit margin. A higher-priced model may still be a good buy if it gives you the cabinet, speaker and other features you prefer, however.

Western Commies' Trial Goes to Jury

DENVER (INS) — The Smith Act trial of seven Western Communists charged with conspiring to overthrow the federal government by force and violence was slated to go to a U.S. District Court jury in Denver today.

U.S. Attorney Donald E. Kelley completed the governments' closing arguments late yesterday by urging the seven men and five women jurors to "return with a verdict in favor of America."

Kelley's plea followed two days of summation by government and defense attorneys in the Communist trial which began March 21.

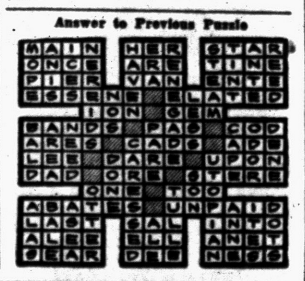

The jury will begin its deliberations on the case immediatley after receiving instruction on the law by U.S. District Judge Jean S. Breitenstein.

A verdict of guilty could result in maximum 10-year prison sentences and $10,000 fines for each of the seven defendants.

Hefty Theft Is Baffling

GALVESTON, Tex. (UP) — The sheriff's office thinks weight lifters must have been involved in the theft of 2,700 pounds of lead—27 bars weighing 100 pounds each. They were stolen from a pier warehouse. Value of the lead was $900.

Shaggy Banana Story Believed First in Print

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Joan Crawford and Al Steele take their honeymooning seriously. When they visited the Harwyn, boss Ed Wynne sent them champagne. They took the bottle, champagne bucket and ice to their car—and went home to drink it.

Shelley Winters was quite decollete at Sardi's. A customer remarked, "I saw her do that bathtub scene in 'The Women' on TV—wearing just the soap bubbles—and she had more on then."

Dorothy Shay wore turquoise lounging pajamas when I dropped in on her between shows at the Plaza. "Chinese?" I asked. "Sure are!" she said. "Imported direct from San Francisco." I asked her about the Southern-accented folks who say "Give me a drank." Dorothy said, "That's strictly Texan. Not Floridian. In Florida we say 'Gimme the bottle.'"

Jean Kraemer of "Can-Can" tells of a Taffy Tuttle-type girl friend who went on a cruise and was urged not to mix with the male passengers. On her return, she said she'd followed the instructions carefully. "I didn't mix with the passengers," she said. "I only mixed with the crew."

Joan Blondell was telling in Goldie's New York about the train passenger who noticed something odd about another passenger. "Sir," he said, politely, "do you know you have a banana in your ear?" Whereupon the stranger shouted back, "Speak up, man! I can't hear you. I have a banana in my ear." (Believed to be the first shaggy banana story ever printed.)

Woman's Toothbrush Goes Down Hatch

DETROIT (INS) — Mrs. Dorothy Gazzeny of Detroit gets her toothbrush out today.

She swallowed it Monday night.

The 27-year-old woman bought the midget, five-inch brush a week ago, decided it was just the thing to carry around in her purse all day so she could brush her teeth whenever necessary.

At home Monday night, brushing vigorously, the brush slipped out of Mrs. Gazzeny's fingers and down the hatch it went.

At St. John Hospital where a specialist will try to remove the brush, Mrs. Gazzeny said she hasn't been troubled a bit except for an "odd feeling in my stomach."

Skipper's Crew Mutinies Over Ship's Discipline

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Retired Navy officer Charles B. Day may have run a "tight ship" at his home but the crew finally mutinied.

The "crew," Day's wife Loretta, won a Superior Court divorce yesterday. She testified before Judge Louis H. Burke that Day, a former lieutenant commander, insisted the home be run like a ship. She said:

* * *

Day called his den "officers' quarters" and she could not enter when red, white and blue pennants were flying.

He insisted on "a clean sweep down fore and aft."

In the settlement Mrs. Day was awarded the couple's furniture, a car and $1,800 as her share in community property. Day, who had also asked for a divorce, was awarded the family home.

Wildlife Too Tame

PETOSKEY (AP)—The wildlife is a little too tame around Petoskey for modern farming methods. Robert Theaker planted turnips to enrich the soil. Deer and elk dug them up and ate them. Theaker said he counted as many as 40 deer and 8 elk at one time.

Airline Officials Refuse to Move to Wayne Major

DETROIT (INS) — Officials of eight air lines operating out of Willow Run Airport declared yesterday that only Detroit's proposed Northeast Airport in Warren Township would be suitable for relocation of airline terminal facilities.

This decision meant almost complete defeat for Detroit and county officials who are attempting to make the public-owned Wayne Major Airport the area's main terminal.

Representatives of the eight lines sat through a luncheon with high-ranking city and county officials, listened to praise of the Wayne Major Airport and an attack on Willow Run and then told the officials they still did not want to change.

County officials said that Wayne Major Airport would be devoted to Pan-American trans-continent flights now using the facilities. They added no additional reserve military air groups will be permitted to base operations at the field.

One third of the average American family budget goes into the three categories of food, liquor and tobacco, says a forthcoming study of the Twentieth Century Fund.

Says Korea Line Victory for U.S.

Gen. Taylor Acclaims Armistice as Reminder of Reds' Defeat

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, preparing to leave the Far East to become U.S. Army chief of staff, said today the Korean armistice line should be "a constant reminder to the Communist world and encouragement to the free world that we defeated the Communists on the battlefield."

"We of the free world don't think with the pride about our accomplishments in Korea to the degree the record indicates," said Taylor, 8th Army commander at the time of the truce and Far East commander since April 1.

* * *

He told the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents Club that the 8th Army manning the Korean front "is just as sound today, just as battleworthy, as when the armistice was signed."

The four-star general said he will leave June 5 and go via Southwest Asia and Europe to get up to date "on the American mission."

Taylor will become chief of staff June 30. He replaces Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who was displeased with cuts recently voted in the Army budget. Ridgway will retire.

Dog Rings Own Doorbell Whenever He Wants In

FREEPORT, Ill. (UP)—Here's a doggone good idea—a canine door bell!

A "Sunday inventor," tired of running to the door to see if Fido wanted in, rigged up a simple device which permits the dog to buzz him.

His idea, unearthed in an annual contest (conducted by Minneapolis-Honeywell's micro switch division here), untilizes a tiny switch and plywood panel. The switch is linked to the door bell; the panel placed where the dog would normally sit awaiting entry. Fido's weight depresses the switch, sounding the door bell.

Motorist Helped From Afar as Tank Runs Dry

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, N.M. (AP)—Hugh Munn ran out of gas 40 miles north of here yesterday and got help by way of Sacramento, Calif.

Munn sent an SOS on a short-wave radio he has in his car. An amateur radio operator in Sacramento picked it up but wouldn't believe there was any such place as Truth or Consequences.

Munn finally convinced him. The ham operator called long distance to Truth or Consequences and found a gasoline station, through the phone company, that gave road service.

An attendant delivered 10 gallons of gas to Munn.

Litters Up Street in Order to Clean It

NEW YORK (AP)—Everything was all set for a big Manhattan street demonstration to dramatize a cleanup drive. Some 300 distinguished guests were there by invitation, many of them mink-coated clubwomen.

Sanitation Commissioner Andrew Mulrain was to deliver a speech, then turn loose a street crew to show how much litter it could pick up in the block.

But there was a snag. The commissioner glanced up and down the street—and perceived that it was spotlessly clean!

However, he quickly salvaged the situation. He sent sanitation men to gather up trash on another street and then scatter it along the demonstration block. That, he said, showed how much litter could be left by a very few persons.

Find Missing Vaccine

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The mystery of 140 vials of Salk polio vaccine missing from the local health department has been cleared up. It was found 130 had gone to Meriden and the other 10 were accounted for here. Meriden, one of 29 communities receiving vaccine through New Haven, was given 345 vials instead of its allotted 215.
