Candidates Take Off Gloves After TV Ends

Bagwell-Williams Debate Sputters Overtime

By ROGER LANE

DETROIT (AP)—An angry Gov. Williams and Paul D. Bagwell, his Republican rival for the governorship, sputtered at one another face to face last night after a televised campaign debate.

In an unusual display of ire, the Democratic governor braced Bagwell at his studio desk about use of what Williams called a "false statement" concerning Indiana's economic growth as compared with Michigan's.

Bagwell retorted that Williams was "splitting hairs."

The dramatic 10-minute scene was witnessed by about 40 newsmen, studio technicians and aides of the two candidates, who separated without shaking hands. They had done so before the show started.

The formal half hour debate, long advertised, had been beamed over most of the Lower Peninsula via a three-station hookup. Arrangements for it were firmed up only a few hours earlier.

★ ★ ★

The debate was almost wholly a rehash of campaign arguments voiced many times before, mostly on the state's economic climate.

Williams accused Bagwell and Republicans of a "smear-Michigan campaign" attributable to a "desperate effort to cover up their party's responsibility for the national recession."

Bagwell repeated assertions that the hostility of Williams in making the business community an "object of political attack and political scorn" was chasing factory jobs out of Michigan.

"At this very moment," he said, "Gov. Handley of Indiana is going around that state bragging that almost 40,000 jobs from 38 industries moved there to escape the labor government of the state of Michigan."

★ ★ ★

The irritation exhibited by Williams after the program was directed at another measure of Indiana versus Michigan economic growth, based on two reports that Williams said "are in no way comparable."

In his prepared opening remarks, the governor had asked if Bagwell was "prepared to retract his false statement that Michigan gained only 16 new industries (last year) while Indiana was gaining 137."

Bagwell, in his rebuttal, made no direct acknowledgement but remarked, before bringing in Handley, that 97 new industries had moved into Indiana.

Williams rose from his desk, about eight feet removed

Abandon All Hope for 91 Trapped Miners

Weeks Quits Post in Ike's Cabinet

Cocktail, Milk Same, but . . .

Calories? Phooey!

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dieting Americans tend to be too calorie conscious and not think about other values in food, a Detroit food expert says.

"Some persons discover a cocktail and a glass of milk have the same number of calories," the expert, Mrs. Muriel G. Wagner, said yesterday. "They drink the cocktail instead of the milk. The nutritional value isn't the same."

For those interested in furthering the scientific investigation of diet foods, Mrs. Wagner said a rum Collins or a whisky sour contain about the same amount of calories as a glass of milk.

★ ★ ★

She said the amount is 160 calories, depending on the sugar content of the mixed drink.

A calorie is the measure of the energy value of food.

Dieters should consider the amount of protein and vitamins in the foods they eat or drink, said Mrs. Wagner, a nutritionist for a Detroit school.

She and other diet specialists discussed weight at the 41st annual meeting of the American Dietetic Assn.

"Americans have apparently invented the first perpetual motion machine in history — the movement of the fork from the plate to mouth and back again," she said.

Mrs. Wagner also said: "For a lot of people diets are ineffective because they can't break old food habits.

Strauss Named New Secretary of Commerce

Former Head of AEC Chosen by Eisenhower to Take Over Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today accepted the resignation of Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks and named former Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission to succeed him.

Weeks resigned effective not later than Nov. 10.

Strauss had stepped down as AEC chairman June 30. He has been serving as Special Assistant to the President on atoms-for-peace matters.

Weeks said in a letter of resignation to the President dated Oct. 22 that he was quitting "only because of pressing business, personal and family considerations, which seemed to me to make it imperative that I return to Boston and to my interests there."

"Obviously I do this with great reluctance," Weeks wrote.

The President, in a "Dear Sinny" letter, said Weeks takes with him "my deep gratitude for your long and unstinting devotion to duty and my very best wishes for your future health and happiness."

"It is of course very gratifying to me, as it must be to you, that during your six years as secretary of commerce, the American economy has expanded broadly and generated for our citizens more jobs, higher incomes and greater abundance," the President said.

"Now that economic growth is once again under way with industrial production recovering rapidly and with personal income at new peaks, we can look forward to continued improvements in the well-being of the American people."

Weeks was a member of the original Eisenhower cabinet which took office with the President in January, 1953. Only three original members now remain.

Reports on Rescue Attempts

ANY WORD? — William James, one of the draegermen working to rescue trapped coal miners in a shaft at Springhill, Nova Scotia, recounts his experience to anxious townspeople.

36 Still Have Chance in Nova Scotia Shaft

80 Safe, 1 Body Recovered After Violent Shift of Rock in Depths of Colliery

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP)—A violent shift of rock in the depths of a coal mine today trapped 91 men, six of them supervisors. Hope of rescue grew dimmer by the hour.

Eighty miners had reached safety. One body was recovered. A company spokesman belatedly announced that six supervisors were with 85 men still trapped hours after tons of rock and coal had tumbled down from tunnel roofs, choking the passageways.

Scene of disaster—

With tears in his eyes, the vice president and general manager of the Dominion Coal Co., H. M. C. Gordon, told newsmen that there is no hope for miners trapped on two levels of the mine. He added there is only a glimmer of hope for those on the third level.

Rescue workers have determined the location of 55 men trapped by fallen rock. They have been unable to find the other 36, and it is for these that there remains some small measure of hope.

After talking with the rescued men, Arnold Patterson, a coal company spokesman, said:

"The situation is not encouraging. It looks pretty grim. We are hopeful, of course."

A company official said a barrier of gas prevented rescue workers from reaching 55 of the men who had been working 13,000 feet from the pit head. The other 39 apparently were scattered at other coal faces blocked by the upheaval.

DEADLY GAS FORMING

A silent crowd shivered in a cold drizzle through the night as five-man teams of draegermen—volunteer mine rescue workers—cleared rock and debris from dust-choked tunnels.

The draegermen wore respirators. One of the first survivors to come out said the "bump"—the miners' name for underground rock shifts of explosive force—had smashed the mine ventilation system, and pockets of deadly gas were forming.

Timbers Split, Dust Was Thick, Explains Miner

(William Cormier, a veteran miner, was one of the miners who were rescued early today from the Springhill, N.S. disaster. This is an account of his ordeal.)

As Told to United Press International

SPRINGHILL, N. S.—A terrific vibration shook the floor and roof of the level and we could hear the roof breaking overhead.

The timbers began to crack and the area became filled with dust. You couldn't see your hand before your face.

The (pit) telephones were out of order and we went back into the level. But we ran into gas so we returned to the slope.

The heavy concentration of gas forced us to move to the west side of the slope which was clear of fumes. We followed the main air course to the 7,800 foot level and met the draegermen (rescue team) who escorted us to the surface.

Factory Wages at Record High

Living Cost Unchanged; Ike Hails Evidence of End of Recession

From Our Wire Services

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today hailed the leveling off of the Cost of Living Index as proof that the recovery from the recession is "possible without inflation."

The President said the nation "must preserve this stability in the value of the dollar without recourse to stifling controls."

The President issued his statement a day after the Labor Department reported that for the first time since the winter of 1955-56 the Consumer Price Index has held steady for a two months period.

"This means that the recent gains in the weekly earnings of American workers represent real increases in buying power, not just offsets against higher prices," Eisenhower said.

"These earnings have increased more than 5 per cent since February. Their actual buying power is higher than it has been for well over a year and is 15 per cent above what it was in 1952."

The President particularly noted that the cost of living report shows that "for the second successive

Accepts Nixon's 'Apology'

Truman Buries Hatchet

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former President Truman said today he's ready to bury the hatchet with his arch political foe Vice President Richard M. Nixon on the basis of a Nixon television statement last night.

"I'd call that an apology," Truman said.

"Making up our differences is okay with me."

Truman has in the past refused to be in the same room with the Vice President because, he said, Nixon had charged the Truman administration with "treason."

Nixon told the TV audience last night: "There is no war party in the United States. The only party of treason in the United States is the Communist Party."

He also hailed Truman as "a gallant warrior" of the campaign trail.

"Well, that was very nice of him," Truman said:

★ ★ ★

Truman was told of Nixon's remarks by a United Press International reporter, the only newsman present when he arrived by train from Boston where he delivered a fighting campaign speech against the Republicans last night.

"I don't understand it to tell you the truth but I guess when a fella gets religion and reforms, the only thing to do is to accept him at his value," Truman said.

All 18 Blackhawks Draw $100 Fines

CHICAGO (UPI) — General manager Tommy Ivan of the Chicago Black Hawks today fined all 18 players $100 each in the wake of last night's 9-1 loss at Montreal.

Ivan admitted the move was drastic but said it was justified after the humiliating defeat.

Ivan said: "it was a lousy effort from a bunch of players who call themselves Major League hockey players. Any time a team can score nine goals against you in one game it is obvious that the players aren't putting out.

"I know Montreal is always tough on its home ice but we were never in the game at anytime. That third period, when they scored five goals against us, was a disgrace.

"We have tried everything without getting any results" snapped Ivan. "Maybe this will do some good — hitting them in their pocketbooks."

U. of M. Professor Gives Up Search for Son

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Prof. Percival Price of the University of Michigan, returned home today after a fruitless search for his son, missing since August in the Quebec wilderness.

Price spent a month in Northern Quebec looking for a trace of his son, Alan, 21, who left on a 500-mile canoe trip from Senneterre, Que., with a companion. The body of the companion, Robert Carey, 23, of Roselle, Ill., was found in the wreckage of a canoe two weeks ago. Both youths were students at the University of Michigan.

Quebec provincial police believe Alan's fate was similar to Carey's. But their search efforts have been abandoned because of snow which covered the area.

Operation on Neck Arteries

New Hope for Stroke Victims

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An operation described by its originators as offering a way of successfully treating some kinds of stroke was reported today.

★ ★ ★

Stroke is a paralysis of some body function such as sight, speech or movement. It is due to the stoppage of the blood supply to a certain part of the brain, usually because of a clot. When it hits the part of the brain governing breathing, the result is often fatal.

★ ★ ★

Medical science up to now has been able to achieve little toward undoing the damage by stroke and the outlook for curative treatment has been a dismal one, the sponsors of the new operation said.

But a large percentage of the clots occur in arteries in the neck leading to the brain, not to little arteries in the brain itself. These trouble spots in the neck can be reached handily by surgery, they said.

Results of 67 of these neck operations on 50 patients were reported to the American Heart Assn. by a surgical team from Baylor University, Houston, Tex. The team was made up of Dr. E. Stanley Crawford, who reported the results, Dr. Michael E. Deakey, Dr. Denton A. Cooley and Dr. George C. Morris Jr.

X-ray studies showed the clots in these 50 cases to be located in blood vessels of the neck or upper torso. The treatment was to remove the blockading material surgically.

Normal circulation was restored to a majority of the patients, Dr. Crawford said, with the return of the lost functioning.

★ ★ ★

"It is felt," Dr. Crawford added "that a curative form of treatment now is available for many people with strokes."

It's No 'Quack' Complaint

Kidnap 200 Ducks in Area

Pontiac Press Photo

THEY WON'T TALK—These ducks, a portion of thousands housed at a wild duck preserve and private hunting farm near Clarkston, aren't exactly silent, but they are witnesses. They saw someone steal off with 200 of their fine feathered friends

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies, who usually can tell a "quack" complaint from a legitimate one, hit the jackpot yesterday when they got one that fit both descriptions.

★ ★ ★

Detroit Police Detective Lt. Glenn Coller reported the theft of 200 mallard ducks valued at $1,000 from his private wild duck preserve at 9529 Perry Lake Rd., Independence Township.

He told detectives that all the birds were marked with leg bands bearing serial numbers and a small hole punched in the webbing on the right foot.

★ ★ ★

The ducks were all full grown, weighing an average of three pounds each. The birds were taken from large cages located nearby at 5850 Oak Hill Rd.

★ ★ ★

Coller has several thousand ducks and pheasants on the preserve which he operates as a private hunting farm. Investigators found a marked trail leading to the cages through a wooded area to the north.

Bagwell-Williams Debate Sputters Into Overtime

from Bagwell's and separated by one between, and asked to examine the Indiana department of commerce and public relations report Bagwell relied on.

★ ★ ★

The 6-foot, 4-inch governor bent over Bagwell's desk to look.

"This doesn't show a single move-in," he said pointing to a place in the text.

Bagwell began to protest. Williams said "Read it." Read it."

"Let's take one," he continued, pointing at a list in the mimeographed booklet. 'Where did this one come from?"

Bagwell attempted to renew a proposal that the candidates agree to let an impartial committee of experts undertake to determine who was lying in the economic climate debate.

★ ★ ★

"Will you agree, Governor, to submit this to an impartial committee?" Bagwell asked. He previously had advanced the proposal in a joint appearance before the Detroit Economic Club.

Williams, ignoring the question, returned to the 137 to 16 comparison published originally in a Bagwell newspaper advertisement about a month ago and challenged by Williams in an impromptu debate last Saturday at Marshall.

"At Marshall, you promised to check this list and you haven't done it," he continued. "What kind of honesty is this with the people?"

Bagwell said Williams had accepted the 97 count as accurate but the governor denied it. If, as Bagwell said, newspapers reported that he did, they misquoted him, Williams replied.

★ ★ ★

At first, Bagwell remained seated while Williams bent over him and those in the studio gathered around. Then he stood up and Bagwell and the taller Williams continued their sputtering argument.

The GOP candidate said the exact figure was not the important thing. He added:

"The point I make is that Michigan is not getting its fair share of factory jobs."

"You've been telling the public there were 437 and you lack proof," the governor came back.

Bagwell again brought up the impartial committee idea, and Williams said:

"If you are trying to crawl into some other hole to get out of this one, it's very disappointing—a pretty bad dodge."

"You're splitting hairs," Bagwell said.

"You are being terribly misleading to the people," Williams said.

Paul Weber, the governor's press secretary, walked up to the governor, as if to try to say something, then retreated.

The exchange gradually tapered off, as Williams returned to his desk to gather up some papers. The governor walked out of the studio, remarking over his shoulder:

"Well, I hope you'll do better next time."

Both candidates appeared tired from the campaign ordeal.

Ten minutes before the debate began, Williams was lying asleep on a sofa in a reception room of the studio.

In the formal debate, Bagwell said Williams had failed to establish how a Republican president, confronted by a Democratic congress, could be held responsible for the recession.

★ ★ ★

He emphasized the length of Williams' regime, and his alleged failure to cope effectively with what Bagwell called a problem "too deep, too vital, too critical to be dismissed as as a smear."

Alluding to Williams' touchiness on the economic climate issue, Bagwell said:

"Perhaps this comes from being in office 10 years—two terms or four years longer than any other man.

"He throws the mantle of state patriotism around him to keep from answering questions."

After Bagwell spoke his opening piece, Williams responded that the Republican nominee had "proved the case of smearing Michigan."

He said Bagwell had failed to connect the failures he mentioned with the Democratic state administration.

"The best thing the people of this state could do to improve their economic and political climate is to break this Republican one-party control of their legislature," Williams said.

He said the Republicans have controlled the lawmaking branch for 101 of the last 107 years and have "forgotten that the legislature belongs to the people."

GOP lawmakers, he said, have written every Michigan tax law for the last 20 years, and if the state's tax structure is open to criticism, the GOP is to blame.

Seek Youth, 17, in Slaying of Father in New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police sought today a 17-year-old youth who was said to have shot his father as he slept, stuffed the body in a trunk and pushed it into the Hudson River.

The search was begun on information supplied by a friend of the youth, Richard Hicks Jr. of Manhattan. Police did not identify the informant, a classmate of Hicks' at Polytechnic High School in Brooklyn.

The body of the missing youth's father was found jackknifed in a trunk. The elder Hicks, who was a ship's radio operator, had been shot in the head and slashed on the legs.

Police said young Hicks' friend told them Richard came to him yesterday and told him he had shot his father and needed help to get rid of the body. Hicks allegedly told his friend he bought a gun recently because of repeated arguments with his father.

Hicks was said to have waited until his mother left their 5th floor walkup for work, then shot his father in the back of the head as he slept.

The friend said he went with Richard to buy a steamer trunk and they took it by subway to the Hicks apartment, where they stuffed the body in it along with several articles of clothing to make it appear the elder Hicks had left town.

Then, the youth told police, they took the trunk in a taxi to the New York Central Railroad Station at 125th St. He said he "got cold feet" and left the Hicks youth with the body in the trunk.

Miracle Mile Gives Away Silver Dollars

Free silver dollars will jingle in the pockets and purses of many Miracle Mile shoppers this weekend as the shopping center at Telegraph and Square Lake roads in Bloomfield Township celebrates its first anniversary.

The center is offering the coins in its "Treasure Hunt," one of many special events planned during the anniversary festivities.

All shoppers must do is check lists of names posted in store windows. If they find theirs, they'll receive a silver dollar.

Next week Miracle Mile stores will hold special one-cent sales, at which patrons will be able to buy various items for a penny with the purchase of other merchandise.

Dulles Reports to Ike on China

War or Peace Answer 'Up to Communists; Cannot Read Minds'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles reports to President Eisenhower today on the prospects for war or peace which he found during a three-day conference on Formosa.

The answer, he told newsmen, is "up to the Communists, who are aggressive." He added: "I cannot read their minds."

★ ★ ★

Landing here shortly after midnight, Dulles said in a brief airport statement that his consultations with Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek had been "eminently satisfactory."

He praised the Chinese Nationalists as being among this country's staunch allies without which, he said, the United States would be in a desperate position of Communist encirclement.

Dulles was reported by informed officials to have obtained from Chiang a conditional promise to cut his forces on the Quemoy and Matsu islands. The conditions were that he get more modern weapons and that the Chinese Communists institute a long-term cease-fire.

Dulles himself declined to discuss the reports.

The Red Chinese have refused thus far to make any agreement regarding a halt to their artillery barrages on Quemoy, the Nationalist-held island just off the China mainland.

Hope Growing Dim for Trapped Miners

The mine is the No. 2 colliery of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Co., a subsidiary of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corp. Cumberland No. 2 adjoins the now-closed Cumberland No. 4, where an explosion and gas killed 39 persons in November 1956.

The worst mine accident in this town of 7,000 near the New Brunswick border was an explosion in 1891 that killed 125. Canada's worst mine disaster was at Hillcrest, Alta., in 1941, when 193 were killed.

The bump occurred at 8:05 p.m. Dishes tumbled from shelves in Springhill and houses also shook 14 miles away in Maccan. Veteran miners called it the worst in memory. Six smaller bumps between last March and Sept. 1 injured 14 men. The cause of bumps often is undetermined.

The mine slopes to a depth of 4,400 feet underground in a length of 14,300 feet, sometimes descending as steeply as 45 degrees. The company considers it North America's deepest coal pit.

HELP POURS IN

Help poured into Springhill. A navy helicopter flew blood plasma from Halifax, 75 miles to the south. The Red Cross dispatched 50 beds to supplement the town's 20-bed hospital and a converted armory used as an emergency annex. The Navy sent three ambulances.

The son of one trapped miner, Gary Embree, said he hoped that "after this they close the mine for good—even if it means the end of Springhill."

Mayor Ralph Gilroy agreed this might be the end. The No. 2 colliery was the only mine left open.

A reporter from Halifax was killed when his car crashed at Truro as he hurried to Springhill. He was John Thompson, 28.

month the retail cost of food to the American housewife is down."

"To be sure, some retail prices have gone up in recent months," he said. "But others are lower than they have been in a year or more."

Family living costs averaged the same in September as in August at 123.7 per cent of the 1957-49 base period.

They had risen for two straight years until they dipped a bit between July and August.

Ewan Clague, Labor Department statistics chief, said higher prices of 1959 model cars seemed to be outweighing price declines so far in October.

Factory workers' spendable earnings registered new peaks.

The Labor Department said average weekly earnings, after tax deductions, rose to $69.80 for the single worker and to $77.25 for the worker heading a family of four.

This is up $1.80 from September a year ago. Worker buying power is also rising because of longer working hours, increased hourly pay rates, and comparatively steady price levels.

Forced to Cut $370,000 in School Building Costs

BIRMINGHAM — Stressing that no construction standards will be lowered, architect Linn Smith of Smith, Tarapata and McMahon has set about eliminating $370,000 from building costs of the new Birmingham Junior-Senior High School.

★ ★ ★

Bids for the three main contracts, submitted by Pulte-Strang, of Ferndale, general contractor; Allen Briggs of Detroit, mechanical contractor, and Smith Brothers Electrical, also of Detroit, electrical, totaled $3,731,950, according to Dr. Richard Featherstone, school district administrative assistant.

The low bids of these firms will be accepted when they are brought down to the estimates made by Smith, Featherstone said.

Smith said he had neglected to include 16,000 square feet of tunnels and overhangs in his original estimate in the specifications for the building.

To bring the construction costs into line with the money allocated for the building, Smith said he will have to pare $122,000 by modification of plans and substitution of less costly material.

Construction of the school will be a race against time. School officials said Derby and Barnum junior high schools and the senior high already are overcrowded. They forsee part-time classes if the new school is not ready for occupancy in September as scheduled.

Smith said that while the new school cannot possibly be completed by that time, there will be enough classrooms ready to accommodate the 1959-60 enrollment.

Birmingham Police are warning city merchants of a bad-check passer, who they say is operating in the city.

This week, he has cashed bogus checks at two shoe stores, a jewelry and dry goods stores.

Detective Lt. Merlin Holmquist said the checks ranged from $30 to $50.

Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce will open its two-day pumpkin sale tomorrow at 184 Pierce St., just south of Maple avenue.

The Jaycees also will tour the city's streets with trailers and tractors, making door-to-door sales.

Proceeds will be used to aid underprivileged children and sponsor summer camps.

Mrs. Parker Eckerson of 624 W. Lincoln Ave., will play hostess for a 1 p.m. dessert-luncheon Tuesday of the Past Matrons Club, Birmingham Chapter 220, OES. Members have been asked to notify the hostess if they cannot attend.

Joseph Hetler

Service for Joseph Hetler, 84, formerly of 224 Gray Ct., will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Pursley Funeral Home, Pontiac. Burial will be in Oak View Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Mr. Hetler died Wednesday following a 20-year illness. He had been employed as a custodian for the Birmingham Public Schools.

Surviving are two sons, Joseph B. of Berkley and Robert V. of Drayton Plains.

Ball Kicks Off Series of Five Dances for UF

Tonight's Torchlighters Ball at the Elks Temple kicks off a series of five dances being held this year for the Pontiac Area United Fund and its 55 community service agencies.

The Elks dance is being sponsored by the employes of Oakland County. Tickets are still available at $1.50 per person, and may be purchased at any county business office, according to dance chairman John Witherup.

Witherup, personnel director for Oakland County, is directing the solicitation of funds from county employes for this year's tenth anniversary United Fund Appeal.

Tonight's dance is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. and run until midnight. The music, under the direction of Roy Hess, is being donated by the Pontiac Federation of Musicians as a public service to the Fund.

The four remaining United Fund dances will be held in four of the six townships included in the Fund's area of solicitation.

Each will take the form of a record hop for the teenagers of the area. Price of admission is 50 cents per person with proceeds again going to the Fund.

The first of the four teenage record hops will be held Saturday night at the CAI building on Williams Lake Road in Waterford Township.

Saturday, Nov. 1, at Brandon High School, Ortonville.

Convicted Spy Taken From Prison to N. Y.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Russian spy Jack Soble was escorted out of the federal prison system's medical center Thursday by a U.S. marshal, apparently en route to New York.

★ ★ ★

Medical center authorities would say only that Soble, sentenced to seven years imprisonment for espionage, was released to the marshal's custody on a writ from a New York court.

Soble was transferred to the center after attempting suicide in prison.

6,000 Will March for Mixed Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — An estimated 5,000 to 6,000 students, both Negro and white, are planning to march through Washington streets to the Lincoln Memorial Saturday in a "Youth March for Integrated Schools."

Sponsors said students from the fourth grade through college, representing schools throughout the nation, will participate to "demonstrate to the world that Little Rock is not America."

Among those leading the march will be former baseball star Jackie Robinson, singer Harry Belafonte and Mrs. Martin Luther King, wife of the leader of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott and a sponsor of the march.

A. Philip Randolph, head of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and a cochairman of the march, said he has asked President Eisenhower to receive a delegation of the students.

Sponsors said some 200 busloads of students will come from Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York, Detroit and other cities. They said a chartered plane will bring a delegation from Los Angeles.

Hal Boyle Says:

Growing Up Simpler in Good Old Days

NEW YORK (AP)—Growing up used to be pretty simple in the old days.

One wonders how they do it today. It is getting more and more complicated.

Then civics was more important than psychology.

Then work was the best group therapy.

Then a job was what had to get done, and you couldn't call a conference about.

★ ★ ★

Then the biggest wish of most people who wore long black stockings was to get out of them—not to dance with them.

Then an office efficiency expert was a character in a Saturday Evening Post story. He wouldn't really fit in your own home town.

Then a man sweated and a girl got all dewed. The more sophisticated ladies admitted they perspired.

Then the more knowing fellows criticized the way a blacksmith shoed a horse. They could all do it better if they wanted to.

Then the undertaker always came to the first barber for a shave, and everybody was sure the second barber shaved the corpses. He was a man of close-mouthed mystery and had a romance about him.

Then the guy with the most gossip was the guy who went around the neighborhood cutting grass, pushing a muscle-propelled lawnmower. Only the kids still leered about the iceman.

Then a man would pay $7.50 for a fancy pair of shoes. He would let the fellow who pushed the lawnmower break them in. Then when he put them on himself, the first thing he would do would be to get a five-cent shine.

★ ★ ★

Then a guy would dress up Saturday night, even if he did no more than whistle at the girls in his best clothes.

Then the daredevils courted on the front porch swing. A city street light always glared nearby.

Then everybody took patent medicines. The doses didn't cure anybody, but the hidden alcohol tranquilized the more respectable patients.

Then even in the city the frustrated farmer kept pigs and chickens in his back yard. The well-to-do had a pony. The hypochondriacs had their own cow.

★ ★ ★

Then a nickel would buy you a mouthful of cigar, and another nickel a schooner of beer and a bite at the free lunch bar. The actors wore gloves, pulled them off daintily a finger at a time, then assailed the free lunch with the restraint of a famished wolf consuming a distant relative.

Then, in the old days, growing up was very simple. Time went by, and all of a sudden all these things were no longer true, and you had become a man.

What you had been familiar with as a boy you no longer saw as an adult. All at once it was different.

Perhaps growing up is just as simple for those in that process today. Yet I am sure that the realization of change will come to them, as it does to all, with the impact of a body blow.

Here, New Pope Will Be Elected

Sistine Chapel Portrays Simplicity, Grandeur

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Sistine Chapel, where cardinals will elect a new Pope, is the official private chapel of Popes and one of the best known shrines of the Roman Catholic world. Pope Pius XII knelt there in prayer for many hours.

The chapel is known to Italians as the Sistina. It is named after Pope Sixtus IV, who ordered it built adjacent to St. Peter's Basilica.

The chapel was completed in 1484, two years before Sixtus' death. It was consecrated Aug. 15, the Feast of the Assumption of the Virgin.

The architect was Giovanni de Dolci who also held the title of papal actuary. He commissioned some of the greatest contemporary artists to decorate the walls. The contract, made out Oct. 27, 1481, is in the Vatican archives.

Painters who worked on the walls included Botticelli, Pinturicchio, Ghirlandaio, and Rosselli.

Then, 32 years after Sixtus' death, the genius Michelangelo was commissioned for the colossal project of decorating the vaulted ceiling.

Michelangelo, at the peak of his artistic career, wrote in his dairy May 10, 1508: "Today I begin the work." Four years later it was finished.

Sprawled on his back, he painted the story of Genesis, working in the reversed order. He started at the main entrance by depicting the Fall of Man and ended with his version of God separating light from darkness, over the altar.

Originally Michelangelo had planned to paint only the 12 apostles on the spandrels, leaving the actual ceiling covered with geometrical figures.

But his artistic imagination overruled this plan as a "poor thing." He told the Pope he wanted to paint the entire ceiling. It is said Michelangelo received 15,000 ducats. This likely had about the same purchasing power as $50,000 today.

The Michelangelo grandeur of conception transformed the entire chapel, stealing much of the show from Botticelli and the other 15th century painters.

In 1536, 24 years after completing the ceiling, Michelangelo returned to depict the Last Judgment on the entire rear wall of the chapel. It is a terrorizing chaos of horribly shaped devils, naked limbs, and screaming humanity. The work leaves the viewer with an uncanny feeling.

Michelangelo completed his work in 1541.

The rectangular hall measures about 140 by 50 feet and has six arched windows on each side.

During the conclave, ballots will be placed in a golden chalice on the main altar, opposite the main entrance. Through a side door behind the altar, cardinals will leave to have dinner in a provisional refectory prepared in the so-called Borgia apartments. Through this door tourists normally enter the chapel from the Vatican Museum; now it is restricted to cardinals and their aides.

United Fund Agency Solves Problems Now

Campfire Girls Molds for Future

Mrs. Wilson had lost all confidence. She thought she'd never be a good wife or mother.

Her housekeeping was of a hit-and-miss variety. She had no sense of proper budgeting and no leisure time interests.

She relied on her husband for all her spare time companionship — but he had hobbies which occasionally interfered.

Their marriage was on the rocks.

The Pontiac Council of Campfire Girls cannot help the Wilsons now.

But had Mrs. Wilson been a Campfire Girl in her youth, many of her present problems might never have existed.

The Campfire Girls, a United Fund Agency, doesn't have as its prime objective the training of girls for marriage.

BOUND TO IMPROVE

However, it does try to make well informed, efficient women out of girls. These girls are just bound to become both an asset at home or work.

"We don't expect too much of the girls," asserts Mrs. Donald Beck, executive director, "but we don't by any means just teach them how to go on hikes, string beads, and build campfires."

The program is a creative and imaginative one.

It is keyed to two factors. First, it is set up in varying age classes so as to be fun (not merely a school outside school) for girls of all ages.

★ ★ ★

Secondly, it is based on modern day demands. Grandmother was taught how to churn butter. Granddaughter learns how to use this "butter-churning" time to better herself or her family by discovering new interests, skills and hobbies.

Mrs. Wilson could have learned wise budgeting of food, properly balanced diets, what to look for in buying the family groceries.

Many varied programs teach girls sewing, drawing, painting, designing, the basis of community planning and city government, sports, outdoor recreation and literally everything from changing a fuse to aeronautics.

A basic knowledge in but a few of these fields would have prevented Mrs. Wilson from ever having to learn a lot faster in an effort to "save" her marriage.

WHAT'S COOKING?—These three smiling faces are focused on the boy next door who just couldn't resist the aroma of fresh baked goods. The girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Norberg, 109 E. Brooklyn St., are preparing to put another tray of tasty treats in the oven. As Campfire girls, Sharon, 12, (left), Susan, 8, and Nancy, 14, have learned how to take the slavery out of cooking and make their kitchen creations easy on the food budget.

County Candidates to Talk on Civil Rights

Candidates for Oakland County officers will present their stand on civil rights and other like issues in a meeting being held in Pontiac Monday night by the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland County Branch of the NAACP will conduct the meeting at the Trinity Baptist Church, 123 Wessen St., beginning at 7:30.

★ ★ ★

The Democratic and Republican candidates will speak briefly on civil rights, stronger Federal Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) laws, and anti-bias bills in housing and Negro employment.

3 Hunters Missing in Montana Wilds

MILES CITY, Mont. (AP)—Two Minnesota hunters and one from Wyoming still were missing today in the snow-gripped mountains of southern Montana.

Hope for survival of the three hunters was dwindling rapidly.

The missing included Robert Pittman, 28, Sheridan, Wyo., and two unidentified Minnesota youths 18 and 20, believed from the Minneapolis area. All three have been missing since Monday, when a bitter wind and snowstorm ripped through the state's southern sector.

A ground search party reported by radio they had talked with the father of one of the Minnesota boys. The father and another member of the four-man hunting party refused to identify themselves.

★ ★ ★

More than 50 searchers plodded through the deep snow in the Lame Deer area in the hunt for Pittman.

Another hunter froze to death. He was identified as Clyde F. Williams, 72, Belgrade, Mont.

Three states have towns by the name of Romance.

Big Three Considering Small Car Possibilities

Rumblings from the Big Three motor manufacturers indicate that they are taking a really serious look into the small, economy car market.

Heads of all three corporations have committed themselves to a thorough study of the tiny cars. If they feel the market really exists, you can rest assured they will all be in the small car business in 1960.

It's no secret that imports from Europe have been doing quite well the last year or so. The Rambler, the only small U.S. built car, had a banner year in 1958. The auto buying public is fickle, and what it will choose to buy next year is the 64 thousand dollar question.

★ ★ ★

We hope it's the sparkling new Pontiac (free advertisement).

One point we are quite certain of is that should they go into the small car field, they can produce better, more efficient, handsomer and more practical automobiles than anything turned out in Europe or elsewhere.

★ ★ ★

In the meantime, while debating the fortunes of the small cars, you'd better have a look-see at the 1959 models. Most are already out, and the rest will follow shortly.

★ ★ ★

All reports indicate that the 1959 models are the biggest innovation in years and truly worth seeing. Dealer reports from across the country show more enthusiasm now than in the last several years.

Canada Is Integrating Its Defense Services

Canada is taking steps toward integration of its army, navy and air force into a single national defense service.

On Jan. 1 the three medical services will be combined into one. This will apply to all medical officers, military nurses and nonmedical administrative personnel. Weapon development and research already are centralized in a defense research board. Chaplains of the three Canadian services are now under two principal chaplains, one Protestant and the other Roman Catholic.

★ ★ ★

Canada's three services are organized similarly to those of the United States. Its air force and army of 50,000 each, and navy of 20,000 have much the same roles and missions as those of this country.

Because the defense of our two countries are harmoniously allied, unification in Canada will be watched closely here and could be of great significance to us in planning our own unification.

Both Supervisors and Scouts Do Good Turns

Selling 18 buildings on West Kennett Road in Pontiac city at one dollar apiece by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors was a good deal.

★ ★ ★

The purchaser was our Clinton Valley Council of the Boy Scouts.

Most of the buildings are old residences erected on property the county had taken for taxes, and once occupied by welfare families.

But their usefulness for that purpose has passed, and the county desires to fit the property for other use. Their removal is imperative.

★ ★ ★

The need for expanded facilities at the Scout Camp Agawam at Tommy's Lake, already the largest camp in the county, also is imperative.

So the deal was a cooperative get-together that works to a solution of two big problems.

Foundations are being laid for eight of the houses, and they will be moved intact. They still are OK for summer use.

★ ★ ★

Most of the other buildings are being torn down, and their material will be used for other work at the camp.

The true Scouting spirit is being exemplified in that most of the labor required is being donated by the old and young Scouters themselves.

★ ★ ★

Thus a little cooperation and hard work adds to the financial value of Camp Agawam at least $20,000, this monetary figure being only a minor item in the overall worthwhile of the project.

The Framework

David Lawrence Asks:

Supreme Court Is Not Infallible

WASHINGTON — The biggest issue confronting the American people today is rarely being mentioned in the current campaign for seats in Congress.

LAWRENCE

The issue is whether the people shall be governed by a written constitution which is subject to change only by their will or whether that constitution shall be rewritten by the Supreme Court justices to suit their personal or ideological whims.

★ ★ ★

This is the same issue which caused a stir in 1937 when the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democrat, declared that Congress should enact a law which would have the effect of increasing the number of justices by six so he could appoint new judges who would conform to his views.

The Congress rejected the proposal, but Mr. Roosevelt was able a few months later to "pack" the Court anyhow through the vacancies that occurred. Many of the professors and deans of the law schools, and certainly many of the "self-styled liberals" of those days, felt then, and many still feel, that the Supreme Court should change the Constitution at will.

★ ★ ★

A notable exception is Alfred J. Schweppe of Seattle, a former dean of the law school of the University of Washington, a former president of the Bar Association of the State of Washington, and at present one of the editors of the American Bar Association Journal. He writes in the current issue of "U.S. News & World Report":

"I absolutely reject the idea that the Supreme Court has the power to rewrite the Constitution according to its concepts of sociological or economic change. That is what the amendatory process is for. I do not accept Justice Douglas's blunt view that the amendatory process is 'too slow' as anything but a violation of the oath to support the Constitution in all of its parts."

★ ★ ★

It is not improper to criticize the decisions of the Supreme Court. Its justices have often conceded this point themselves.

A pertinent comment on the efforts of the "self-styled liberals" to suppress all criticism of the Supreme Court was made the other day by "The Wall Street Journal" as follows:

"We are also told that when the Supreme Court has spoken, its words become the law of the land and that no one has a right to further oppose a ruling or to try to void it or to have it changed. This argument, it strikes us, is not only illogical but dangerous.

"It is illogical, for even the rules of the court provided for a rehearing by the same court on a question it has just decided. It is also illogical because it ignores the constitutional right of Congress to enact legislation to void court decisions and the right actually to limit, in some respects, the Supreme Court's jurisdiction . . . ."

★ ★ ★

How many members of Congress, seeking election today in the north and west, will proclaim themselves as supporting the above principle? Voters have not been asking the candidates for the Senate and House how they stand on this issue. Yet, unless Congress asserts its power to checkmate the usurpation of legislative functions by the present Supreme Court, all rights granted specifically in the constitution itself will hereafter be in constant jeopardy.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou has rightly judged.—Luke 7:43.

★ ★ ★

Justice is the idea of God, the ideal of man, the rule of conduct writ in the nature of mankind.—Theodore Parker.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Can Child Be an Angel if Eyes Glow in Dark?

A mother writes: "We have observed this more than a dozen times. In semi-dark our five-year-old daughter's eyes have glowed like two red coals. Seeing this sends such a chill through me. I'm ashamed to admit it frightens me and I would be relieved if you can explain what it means . . . Our little daughter is bright and adorable . . . "

DR. BRADY

All right, madam, I'll tell you the truth. You must brace yourself and keep calm. It means—

The red glow is the normal color of the retina in the back of the eyeball. The light coming from behind you is reflected by the retina to your eye. In persons of fair complexion the retina is orange-red; in persons of darker complexion it is a deeper brick-red.

So, you see, in semi-darkness red coal glow of eyes looking toward lamp or fire, is perfectly natural. The eyes of animals in the dark looking toward a campfire glow in the same way, if the observer is between the fire and the animal.

DON'T WORRY!

For goodness sake, folks, don't worry about things you don't understand. Consult your physician, or, if you won't or can't submit the matter to your physician ask me about it, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

If I can give you information or advice to relieve your mind I'll be happy to do so. Anyway, remember this: I never have and I never shall reveal the identity or betray the confidence of any one who asks me for information or advice.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

"Son, in the Armed Forces, had mumps, at the age of 17. They went down on him. Now he is 20 and his friends tell him he can never become a father . . . (J. S. H.)"

Answer — Friends? In most instances orchitis (inflammation of the testicle) following mumps has no effect on sexual potency or fertility. Microscopic examination of semen will show whether fertility is normal.

★ ★ ★

"Please repeat the instructions for grimaces for the hard of hearing. I missed the original one. (Mrs. E. C. M.)"

Answer — Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the free pamphlet Deafness and Tinnitus (head noises). The face-making exercises, if done systematically and faithfully, improve hearing in many instances, prevent or stop snoring and sometimes ameliorate head noises.

"Brilliant son, soon to take an examination, the outcome of which means everything . . . but he just seems to get the jitters and forget everything he ever knew when he takes an examination . . . (Mrs. E. D. J.)"

Answer — Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for my free pamphlet Examination Jitters and Stage Fright.

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Republican Answers Law on Vote Lethargy Solution

I agree wholeheartedly with Mr. Law that it is unfortunate the citizens of Pontiac and Oakland County don't take advantage of the privilege of participation in selection of qualified individuals to represent them at every level of government.

★ ★ ★

However, I don't believe you can legislate desire. It would be unfortunate, indeed, if we were to pass laws forcing us to take advantage of all rights granted us under the Constitution. In passing laws to make it a punishable offense "not to vote," doesn't it follow that laws could be passed restricting the vote in other ways?

★ ★ ★

Every person eligible should vote in every election. If we're to accomplish this, and accomplish it with full cognizance of the responsibility which is such an important part of the voting privilege, we must have a fully informed electorate.

★ ★ ★

We must, through all the powerful mediums of public communication such as The Pontiac Press, make a concentrated effort to tell voters the full and complete story about all candidates and issues involved. We must sell the individual that good government, the kind our democracy stands for, is not only the privilege but the responsibility of every thinking individual.

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., Chairman
Republican Committee of Oakland County

Opinions on Union Differ With Readers

I agree with Frank Vande Voorde who said the union is aiding Democrats through union papers and other ways. But when he says the Dems are getting their money from Reuther and his million and a half members, please remember this. A man has to belong to the union to work but he doesn't have to belong to the Democratic Party, even though his dues are spent that way and I'm sure many, many Republicans aren't proud to have to see their money doing that work.

★ ★ ★

I've seen the time when a Republican wasn't even allowed by high union men to give a political speech to a UAW group. This certainly isn't fair. If they're so sure the Democrat Party is for the union man, why don't they let him hear both sides and make up his own mind? If that party is so good, the union worker has sense enough to know and vote that way. So the union leaders must be afraid the party won't prove itself.

★ ★ ★

You can't work unless you belong to the union, so we keep paying our dues and the union takes what they want, without asking the member anything or telling him anything either. That's the way it goes.

Union Member's Wife

I'm also a UAW-CIO member. I also had deductions for strike fund and I paid my dues every month they were due, including August and September. I also stood picket duty 16 hours, and stood three hours in line to get strike pay.

★ ★ ★

As I was getting my pay I saw members getting checks that didn't pay September dues, but each was told he or she had to do picket duty to get their pay, which was no more than right.

★ ★ ★

When the contract ran out and each member was to pay his own dues, some members didn't pay until the union said it was going to pay a check on a certain day and members had to be in good standing to collect. These same members rushed up and paid two or three months at a time. Now who do you think is cheap?

If Striker's Wife's husband did all the things she said, there's no reason why he shouldn't get his money. I'm from Missouri and you have to show me. If you show me you're right, the Local 653 of Pontiac Motor is going to get a good raking over.

Stephen L. Blascyk
32 Adams St.

Some people in our city have been trying to get the public down on Reuther and the union. Some of them didn't pay any dues after the contract ran out and now they'll have to pay initiation fees to get back in. Many thought we'd never have a union shop. They also lost in drawing strike funds.

★ ★ ★

The big three have learned it's much better to have a contract than to work without one. Look at the strikes that could have been avoided if we had had a contract those four months. The new contract is good considering the condition our country is in. The raise was small, but fringe benefits help make a good contract. Each member should read it until he understands what it means.

★ ★ ★

The new Pontiac is a beautiful car and will make a big showing. I've seen many model changes but this is the best looking and best performing car I've seen in past years. It will outsell other cars of equal price.

Thomas Thrower
114 E. New York Ave.

Reuther and his gang are pretty smart. Once again they've indicated a Republican they "might" support should he be nominated. Maybe I'm a suspicious old fool, but it sounds like a good way to swing the nomination to a man who won't be a threat to the Democrats. It's the same as Republicans voting Democrat in the primary so they can vote against Williams, hoping to remove him from the scene and put a weaker man in. Let's hope the Republicans don't fall for the recent support for Warren.

Recommends Entering Contests

Bart realizes the vital importance of welding husband wife together by many mutual interests. And prize contesting is a superb hobby that does this. It also enriches your minds and literally makes you younger, as per Emerson's yardstick listed below. So send for the prize contest booklet offered today.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z-353: Bart J., aged 35, is a veteran who lost both legs in the Korean war.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I get low in my spirit at times," he confessed, "and feel that my wife and I may be drifting apart.

"She is a wonderful woman and maybe I am just imagining things, but I wish we had more things in common. Can you help me?"

Bart is wise in realizing that mutual interests help weld husband and wife together.

There would be almost no divorces whatever if each couple would be active together in the same church and let their social, as well as religious life center in the local church.

A scientific knowledge of sex techniques is likewise essential, for this information is not possessed even by the average college graduate.

★ ★ ★

Children, too, help serve as a common bond to fuse the interests of the parents and give them new worries to solve together.

A man should also share his business problems with his wife and ask her for counsel and advice. This not only is a compliment to the wife, but serves as a valuable safety valve for the husband.

Indeed, wives often furnish new slants or new uses for the merchandise which their husbands would not realize unless the wives were asked for advice.

★ ★ ★

But it is also splendid when husband and wife can cultivate mutual hobbies. One of the very best is prize contesting.

It can continue as long as you live, so is far superior to golf and other athletic hobbies that may wane in your later years.

Mrs. Crane and I started prize contesting the first year we were married and had a lot fun at it. Besides, we made some money, too.

★ ★ ★

We won many small prizes of merchandise and cash, plus a couple of first prizes of $1,000 each.

★ ★ ★

If a 50-word letter were required, I'd help evolve the letter while Mrs. Crane worked up a neat contest entry and typed the letter.

PRIZE CONTESTING

About $25,000,000 annually goes to contestants in all sorts of American contests.

Some involve writing a last line for a limerick (humorous jingle).

Others require naming products or composing a 50-word letter about the merchandise being advertised.

As a rule, you don't need to invest any money beyond a bar of soap or box of the merchandise.

And the mental stimulation is well worth your effort even if you never win a prize. For you learn to consult dictionaries and the encyclopedia, so you enrich your mind and meanwhile grow younger.

For Emerson says our age is based on where we live in our thoughts. Contest fans always are looking forward into the tomorrows, hopeful that the mailman will deliver a check to them, so contests thus point your thoughts forward.

Even if you are 80, you still will look ahead eagerly to the postman's arrival if you have sent off dozens of contest entries.

★ ★ ★

And you should enter MANY contests and send many entries to each one. Otherwise, if you submit only ONE entry, you will wait hopefully for three months and then be downcast if you don't rate a prize.

With many entries in different contests, however, you can bolster your ego by thinking: "Well, next week I may win in that other contest we entered."

So send for my booklet "How to Write Salable Copy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

It contains a section on prize contesting. So join the contest gang. It's fun and often lucrative, too.

Tour Planned at Nike Base

Closer Military-Civilian Relationship Sought at Commerce Lake

A program to create a closer relationship between civilians and military personnel, will get underway at 2 p.m. Monday at the Commerce Lake Base near Milford.

Representatives from nine different organizations in Oakland County communities will be guests of officials for a tour and explanatory talks on personnel and operation of the Nike base.

Heading the drive to promote a better understanding of what's going on behind the scenes of the base, is Mrs. A. L. Kimball, representing the Michigan Federation of Women's clubs, and Battery Commander Captain Emil E. Pope.

"There is a definite need for local organizations to assist the Greater Pontiac USO in helping these men feel at home," Mrs. Kimball said.

At the Monday meeting, Mrs. Kimball will ask the group to send one representative to each Monday monthly meeting of the Pontiac USO board meetings to help organize and project hospitality programs.

Each month, women will be asked to bring sewing machines to the base for soldiers needing this type of service. Decorations for holiday dinners and dances are also among the projects scheduled for discussion.

This type of plan is in successful operation at the Auburn Heights Nike base, and is sponsored by the MOMS organization.

United Nations Fetes 13th Year

Mideast Troops Parade and Peace Concert Held in New York Today

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations celebrates its 13th birthday today with a parade of U.N. Emergency Force troops in the Middle East and a peace concert in the West.

The anniversary, hailed by statesmen around the world, also marks the start of a weeklong television series on the U.N., broadcast by 42 stations in 36 U.S. cities.

★ ★ ★

The transatlantic broadcast concert, combining performances by noted soloists and orchestras playing in New York, Paris and Geneva, features Pablo Casals, renowned 82-year-old Spanish cellist.

Making one of his rare public appearances, Casals will take part in the New York program this afternoon at the General Assembly hall.

★ ★ ★

In consenting to play for the U.N., the cellist appealed to fellow musicians throughout the world to put their talents to the service of international good will.

Casals has refused to play in the world's music capitals for more than a decade in protest against the Franco regime in his native Spain.

In Paris, American violinist Yehudi Menuhin and David Oistrakh of the Soviet Union will join in Bach's Double Violin Concerto.

★ ★ ★

Also on the program were the Boston Symphony Orchestra and U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold in New York, the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande in Geneva and Indian musician Rivi Shankar in Paris.

In the Gaza Strip, the soldiers of the U.N. Emergency Force and a group of entertainers from Yugoslavia joined forces to observe the anniversary. Members of all UNEF contingents will parade at the Gaza airfield. Sports events and a performance by the Yugoslavs will follow.

★ ★ ★

The television series, "Dateline: U.N.," will lead off with a statement on disarmament by U.S. Ambassador James Wadsworth.

In Washington, President and Mrs. Eisenhower scheduled an anniversary dinner at the White House.

Students Want to Elect Boy Halloween Queen

WHITEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Students of Mrs. Hugh Stout's first grade class at Williams Township School were hurt this week when they found their nominee for Hallowe'en queen was ineligible.

★ ★ ★

Their unanimous choice, 7-year-old Bill Ward, is a boy. "We still want Bill," stubbornly said campaigner Debbie Jacobs, 6. "He's the prettiest."

After much coaxing, the vote was changed and Debbie was made the nominee.

Girl Will Wait for Man Who Stabbed Her

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—"He's the most considerate guy I've ever known," says pretty Pat Grimes.

She's talking about Pvt. Alfred Gust, who was convicted Thursday of assault with a dangerous weapon. Gust admitted stabbing three women here the nights of Aug. 3-4. One of his victims was Pat Grimes.

★ ★ ★

But Pat said she has fallen in love with Gust, and will wait for the 21-year-old native of Houston, Tex., until he is free.

"I'll wait, no matter how long it is," said Pat, aged 19.

It could be a long time.

Gust pleaded innocent by reason of insanity, explaining that he was drunk at the time of the attacks. The jury recommended that he receive psychiatric treatment. Circuit Judge Martin Hawkins deferred sentencing pending an investigation of Gust's background.

★ ★ ★

Miss Grimes had not met Gust, stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash., prior to the time he cut her so badly that 11 stitches were required to close a wound in her hip. His other two victims were less seriously wounded.

But she said that after signing a complaint against Gust, "It bothered me that I was helping to send him away. I felt sorry for him."

★ ★ ★

She began visiting Gust in jail and their friendship blossomed. She said he promised her to stop drinking.

"It seems so good to be needed," Pat said.

German Nips Yank in Jumping Event

HARRISBURG Pa. (AP) — West Germany's Hans Guenther Winkler won the individual international jumping championship in the 13th Pennsylvania National Horse Show Thursday night with a superb clutch performance.

★ ★ ★

Needing a first place to beat Hugh Wiley of the United States, Winkler turned in two faultless rides and then waited while William "Billy" Steinkraus nearly saved the championship for his teammate with a breath-taking ride that tied Winkler for the first place in the night's event.

★ ★ ★

Winkler and Steinkraus each were awarded 10 points for first place. Winkler wound up with 32 points for the seven events counting in the individual competition and Wiley, who placed fifth at night, ended with 30.

Steinkraus came in third with 26 points.

Woman's Arm Mangled as She Tries to Pet Lion

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — An African lion broke and gahed a woman's arm when she reached into its cage to pet it.

The beast was shot to death Thursday by its owner when blows with a two-by-four failed to make it release Mrs. Mary Somerville's arm.

Mrs. Somerville and friends had gone to the home of Jack Wilder to see his lion. Wilder is starting a zoo for children in nearby Chino.

GOP Blacked Out by Bulb Snatchers

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI) — Authorities are still in the dark as to who stole lightbulbs from a downtown park and blacked out a Republican rally.

But when the switch was thrown, the lights failed to go on. All the bulbs had been snatched.

The crowd of about 250 trooped back to the cafeteria, where the candidates drew up and issued a statement describing the bulb-snatching as "a supreme and outstanding example of the one-party system actively at work."

Nixon, Rockefeller Meet at Breakfast

By The Associated Press

Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller, potential Republican presidential rivals for 1960, breakfasted together today. Both insisted they weren't even thinking about things on the other side of this year's election.

The harmony demonstration was hastily set up in New York City after an episode Thursday night in which Rockefeller, GOP candidate for governor, didn't attend a dinner for Nixon.

Afterward the vice president hurried away to catch a plane for Wisconsin to carry on his slam-bang campaigning for election of a Republican Congress in the voting a week from Tuesday.

The population of Utah has climbed to 858,000, says the Utah Economic and Business Review. This is a gain of 169,000 since the 1950 census.

To Have Taken Lie Test in Recent Patient Death at Coldwater

COLDWATER (AP) — Charles Trombley, 37-year-old attendant involved in an investigation at the Coldwater State Home and Training School, committed suicide yesterday, Coroner Donald Diedrich reported.

Prosecutor Harold J. Smith concurred in the suicide finding and said Trombley shot himself in the chest with a rifle a mile north of Coldwater.

Trombley was among attendants who loaded Joseph Kibiloski, 45, into a station wagon for transfer from a cottage at the home to a hospital, where he died. He also had been assigned to the cottage where Kibiloski was housed.

An expanded investigation into the death of the patient has been promised following the suicide.

Rep. Harry J. Philips (R-Port Huron), said his legislative committee plans lie tests for three witnesses in the death Oct. 8 of Kibiloski, a mental patient.

★ ★ ★

Phillips told newsmen he also planned to review testimony given to Branch County Prosecutor Smith, who issued a report saying there was no evidence of any mistreatment whatever which could have "contributed to or hastened" the death of Kibiloski. Phillips said:

"As soon as it is made available, I am going to review testimony given . . . Smith and check for discrepancies as related to testimony our committee took."

Phillips said his legislative investigating committee had planned to ask Trombley to undergo a lie detector test in its probe of Kibiloski's death.

Prosecutor Smith said Trombley was "not under suspicion in the death, nor did I plan any lie detector test for him." Smith added the attendant was highly nervous and members of his family said he had been upset by Phillips' accusation against attendants.

★ ★ ★

Trombley had been an attendant at the home 5½ years. His wife, Esther, also is an attendant there. They have four children.

Smith issued a report yesterday in which he held there was no cause for criminal action in the death of Kibiloski.

Smith's report also said there was "no evidence of any mistreatment whatever which could have contributed to the death or hastened the death of Mr. Kibiloski."

Detroit News Endorses Bagwell for Governor

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit News today endorsed Republican Paul Bagwell for Governor in his race against Gov. G. Mennen Williams, seeking a sixth term on the Democratic ticket.

The News earlier endorsed Democratic Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart for senator over Republican Charles E. Potter, who is seeking re-election.

The Detroit Free Press has endorsed both Bagwell and Potter.

To Ask Clarification of Drain Tax Ruling

The Oakland County Board of Public Works will ask the Michigan Supreme Court for a "clarification" of its recent split decision which supposedly unsnarled legal blocks to major drain projects.

Acting upon the advice of its bond attorney, Claude H. Stevens of Detroit, the board met this morning to approve a petition which would request the high court to rehear the appeal of an Oakland County Circuit Court decision which had held up the $4,900,000 sewage disposal system.

"We're not asking the judges to change their minds, but desire that four who didn't answer an important question in the appeal do so now," explained Harold K. Schone, director of the Department of Public Works.

The eight justices earlier this month split four to four. By reason of a court law of affirmation by equal division, this upheld the lower court decision of the late Judge George B. Hartrick which said, in effect, the system could be built.

LEVY QUESTION

Schone said the county would like four justices to answer the question whether townships can levy taxes in excess of the 15-mill constitutional limitation in order to finance their share of the project.

Four dissenting justices answered "no" to this question, while the four others, who affirmed Judge Hartrick's decision, did not answer this question, say it was not a point in the appeal.

Judge Hartrick had ruled the limitation could be exceeded when questions of public health were involved. A West Bloomfield attorney, Irving I. Cohn, disagreed and appealed, saying the act under which the Farmington project was started was unconstitutional.

Schone said his department would proceed with this job (it will serve West Bloomfield Township and parts of Farmington and portions of the cities of Southfield and Keego Harbor) because of the go-ahead decision from Lansing.

However, it was the opinion of Stevens, Schone said, that, to assure sale of bonds for a like Evergreen interceptor sewer project, the clarification was needed from the Supreme Court.

A TEST CASE

Cohn's appeal was to be the test case which would allow the Farmington, Evergreen and other DPW projects to proceed.

"But the split vote sort of hung a question mark in some places," said Schone.

Another project hinging on the rulings of the Supreme Court is the long delayed 12-Town Drain Project to serve the southern half of the county.

The DPW director said he would "proceed as rapidly as possible" on the four-million-dollar-plus Evergreen job, believing the four justices, who remained silent on the taxing limitation question, indicated approval.

★ ★ ★

Communities to benefit from the Evergreen project are Bloomfield Hills, Lathrup Village, Birmingham, Troy, Southfield and parts of Bloomfield Township.

Schone said the board today might approve contracts to be sent out to these communities. An application is being prepared to allow for the issuance of general obligation (full faith and credit) bonds to finance the Evergreen interceptor, he said.

Police Hold 2 Suspects in Rape Slaying of Girl

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Police questioned two persons today in the rape-slaying of 10-year-old Sandra Washington.

In custody were a 16-year-old boy and a 47-year-old unemployed laborer. Neither was identified.

Investigators said the boy had taken a lie detector test last week, but they were dissatisfied with the results. The laborer, they said, has admitted being within two blocks of the girl's home the night she was slain, and a blood-stained handkerchief was found in his room.

Mrs. Madeline Yotcnukis, 73-year-old widow, has offered $100 of her $500 savings as a reward for the killer's capture.

Mine Disaster Strikes 2 Detroit-Area Families

The father of Charles Michniak of Taylor Center was listed as missing. He is Theodore Michniak, 57.

Louis Husar of Melvindale said he learned his father, George Hayden, 58, was rescued early and hospitalized with a broken ankle and back injuries.

Course to Feature Foreign Films

Movie Art Subject at MSUO

Persons interested in the development of the motion picture as an international art form have been invited to enroll in a noncredit fall course offered at Michigan State University Oakland this fall.

"Motion Pictures in Perspective," an international film festival presented by MSU in cooperation with the Pontiac, Birmingham and Rochester Public Schools, will meet Wednesdays at MSUO for five weeks from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., beginning Nov. 5.

Interested adults may register now at the MSUO Continuing Education Center, Adams and Butler Rds., or at the first class session.

Coming to teach the noncredit course will be Dr. A. Nicholas Vardac, associate professor of radio, television and film from the MSU College of Communication Arts. Dr. Vardac has had wide experience in motion picture production and other phases of the industry.

"This course will provide an opportunity to see and discuss significant foreign films which have been produced in the past 25 years," explains Dr. Vardac.

"Brief lectures will be given to point up the artistic importance of each film in the evolution of the motion picture as an international art form and clarify the relationship of each film to the audience for which it was produced," he adds.

Foriegn films to be shown and discussed are "LeMillion," France; "Tight Little Island," Great Britain; "Bicycle Thief," Italy; "Torment," Sweden, and "Gate of Hall," Japan.

The class is being offered under the MSU Program of Liberal Arts Education for Adults.

Both Parties' Candidates Set to Answer at Forum

Voters in the Pontiac area tonight will be given the opportunity to question both Democratic and Republican candidates seeking election Nov. 4 at a "Public Forum."

The question-and-answer period will be conducted at 8 p.m. in the Little Theater at Madison Junior High School in Pontiac. It is being sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce as part of their "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign.

★ ★ ★

Purpose of the Public Forum, as explained by Chairman Richard Hanson, is to enable voters to find out more about the political views and aims of various candidates and their parties.

"We hope that more people will be encouraged to vote if they grasp a better idea of what they will be voting for after hearing the six speakers tonight," Hanson said.

Answers by the candidates will be limited to three minutes for each question. Both parties will be allowed the same amount of time on the floor.

LIST PREPARED

In addition to questions by the public attending the Jaycees have prepared a list of 10 queries which they feel are pertinent in the present election campaign. They include:

1. Do you believe that industry is being driven from Michigan by an unhealthy business climate and, if so, why?

2. What plan does your party propose to ease our current state budget deficit?

3. How do you feel about proposed labor reform bills?

★ ★ ★

4. What is your stand on Michigan's proposed constitutional convention?

5. There is evidently a dire need for more facilities in our state mental hospitals. How would you propose that this problem be solved?

6. What should be America's stand regarding Formosa and the off-shore islands?

7. What should we do to better sell peoples of the world on the American way of life?

8. What do you think should be done about Michigan's present justice of the peace system? Should it be changed and, if so, how?

9. Is Michigan getting its share of governmental contracts?

10. Should federal social security be broadened to include hospital and medical benefits?

★ ★ ★

Three candidates from both of the major political parties in the state are scheduled to answer the above questions and those of the audience. They include:

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart (D-candidate for Michigan senator), State Rep. Leslie H. Hudson (D-18th District candidate for U.S. House of Representatives), Leo P. Meagher (D-12th District candidate for State Senate), U.S. Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-incumbent for 18th District seat), State Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-incumbent for the 12th District seat) and Allan G. Weatherwax (R-candidate for state treasurer).

The program will be moderated by Clyle Haskill, president of the Pontiac Jaycees.

Find Dynamite Bomb Under Railroad Pass

DETROIT (AP) — FBI agents joined with city and railroad police today in seeking dynamiters who left a 10-stick bomb under a railroad viaduct in suburban Wyandotte.

★ ★ ★

The dynamite was found last night after police received an anonymous tip and checked the overpass. There they found the bomb wrapped in paper with a three-foot fuse extending from the package.

★ ★ ★

The viaduct carries tracks of the New York Central, Detroit & Toledo Shore Line and Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad Lines.

Insurance company statisticians predict that there will be a national upswing in marriages in the early 1960s when the record number of postwar babies reach marriageable age.

U. of M. to Publish Soviet Nobel Novel

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan Press says it will publish a Russian-language edition of "Dr. Zhivago" by Soviet author Boris Pasternak, winner of the 1958 Nobel Prize in Literature.

★ ★ ★

Plans for publication of the novel were announced yesterday by Director Fred Wieck, who said early December is the tentative publishing date.

Wieck said "Dr. Zhivago" will be the first book in a planned series of works in Russian and on Russian affairs.

The 68-year-old Pasternak, who lives on the outskirts of Moscow, has had his book banned in the Soviet Union and the Communist government has tried to suppress its publication abroad.

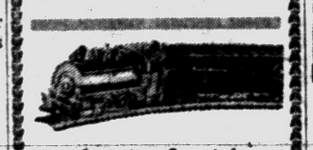

★ ★ ★

The novel concern the effects of Communism on Russian freedom. It was smuggled out of Russia in an Italian version which was later translated into English, but it never has been published in Russian.

Should We Rewrite Michigan's Constitution

Simplified, Streamlined State Government Is Trend

By ARTHUR W. BROMAGE

Professor of Political Science, University of Michigan

(Fifth in a series of 10 articles on constitutional conventions).

Revisions in Michigan's constitution which a convention might propose will be influenced by trends elsewhere. The constitution of the new state of Alaska is, of course, the last word.

A movement is current to build up the office of the governor. Provisions in various states include: A four year term: power to appoint and remove all department heads; a short ballot for other executive officers; and a convenient number of departments to supervise. Alaska's constitution incorporates all these features.

★ ★ ★

New Jersey's constitution, dating from 1947, gives the governor a four year term. He can succeed himself once consecutively. The gubernatorial office is carried alone on the ballot. With the executive branch limited to not more than 20 principal departments, the departmental heads are appointed by the governor with senate approval.

The New York and Virginia constitutions also lodge more authority over the executive branch in the office of the governor.

Michigan, in the constitutional sense, does not have a strong governorship.

★ ★ ★

The long ballot presented to Michigan voters every other November extends over the posts of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer, and auditor general. In the biennial spring election, the superintendent of public instruction must be elected and, in addition, the members of three boards having significant authority in higher education.

Michigan belong to the minority of the states which have a two year term for governor. The continual campaigning involved interrupts concentrated attention on state affairs.

There are 123 separate departments, boards, commissions and other agencies within the government of Michigan.

Any constitutional convention meeting here would be bound to consider strengthening the gubernatorial office. The process took hold in other parts of the United States about 10 years after Michigan's 1908 constitution.

Exponents argue that the secretary of state, treasurer, and attorney general should be appointed by the governor; that the auditor general might be named by the legislature for a long period.

Michigan has its own precedent for a shorter November ballot. The state's first constitution, in 1835, authorized the governor to name the secretary of state, auditor general, and attorney general with the concurrence of the senate. The treasurer was appointed by the legislature.

Only the governor and lieutenant governor within the executive branch were elected in the old days.

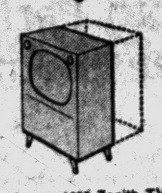

In the Jacksonian era which swept the country, more state officers were made elective in the belief that this was more democratic. A counter belief has set in as a result of the demand for more governmental services. The efficiency of the democratic process has been noticed to go up when the voter concentrates at the polls on a few key officials rather than on a whole battery of names.

Chinese Communists Release Four Men

HONG KONG (AP) — Three Britons and a Chinese, captured by Chinese Communists two months ago while on a weekend pleasure cruise in a converted lifeboat, were returned without advance notice today.

★ ★ ★

The men were R. P. Brown, L. E. Jones, N. McQueen and Chu Yiu-kin. The Communists had notified the British charge d'affaires in Peiping that the men were being detained 12 days after they disappeared Aug. 22 during a cruise in Hong Kong waters. The reason for their detention was not announced.

The Hong Kong government said the four men appeared to be in "reasonably good shape." They were brought to Kowloon by police immediately after they crossed the Hong Kong border.

★ ★ ★

Brown and Jones are construction employes. McQueen and Chui are employed by a steamship company.

Nationalists Hit Back

Resume Quemoy Shelling

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Communists resumed their artillery attacks on the Quemoy islands today after an unexplained 23-hour lull.

The Nationalists, equipped with eight-inch howitzers and other guns brought in during the two-week-cease-fire, hit back.

The Red guns, silent since noon Thursday, started blazing again at 11 a.m.

★ ★ ★

The Communists first directed their fire against Little Quemoy and the nearby Tan islets, then extended it to Quemoy, largest fortress of the Nationalist offshore islands.

Associated Press correspondent David Lancashire reported from Quemoy that with the halt in the Red attack Thursday, Quemoy City had come to life for the first time since the cease-fire ended Monday.

Shops opened and streets filled with civilians and soldiers. A wedding party with a brass band blared gaily past.

At the first new explosions, shutters went up hurriedly and the street crowds hurried to shelter.

Nationalist quarters claimed that Quemoy's defenders since Monday have inflicted more punishment than they have received. They said the island's guns had destroyed 43 Communist guns, blown up 12 ammunition dumps, destroyed a motor pool housing 45 trucks and smashed one gun emplacement.

No figures were given on damage to the Nationalists.

★ ★ ★

The Nationalists attributed their success to the better weapons they had received and to improved techniques learned from Brig. Gen. James F. Ammerman, artillery commander of the U.S. 1st Cavalry Division in Korea, who visited Quemoy on an advisory mission during the cease-fire.

★ ★ ★

Lancashire reported that no supply convoys had reached Quemoy for two days because of stormy weather but more were expected soon. "Even without them, we can last a long long time, because the supply situation is good," Lt. Gen. Ko Yuan-feng, acting commander of the Quemoy defense, said.

Ko said the army planned to start building concrete shelters for the island's 40,000 civilians, who have been taking refuge in dark rock caves and holes.

Rank Restored to Montgomery After 51 Years

LONDON (AP)—Fifty-one years ago Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery was promoted to lance corporal at the Royal Military Academy at Sandhurst.

He lost the stripe for setting fire to a fellow cadet's shirttails.

Thursday night on a return visit to Sandhurst, Montgomery got his chevron back—in a glass-topped wooden case.

On a silver plaque was the inscription:

"Gentleman Cadet B. L. Montgomery, demoted from L.Cpl. in bloody B Company Sandhurst, Oct. 1907. Field Marshal the Viscount Montgomery of Alamein, K.G., G.C.B., D.S.O., reinstated L. Cpl. Alamein Company Sandhurst, Oct. 23, 1958."

Skunk Bites Finger, Spoils Detroiter's Trip

ENID, Okla. (AP) — James Floyd Bowen probably will never forget his trip home to Detroit from Enid.

He was bitten on the finger by a skunk here and en route home had to stop each day to take an anti-rabies vaccination.

Rickover Promoted to Vice Admiral Rank

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rear Adm. Hyman Rickover, pioneer in the atomic submarine field, is getting the promotion his congressional backers have demanded.

The White House announced that Rickover has been upped to vice admiral, subject to Senate approval next year. His new three-star rank is to be effective while Rickover heads the Atomic Energy Commission's naval reactors branch.

★ ★ ★

Credited with fostering the nation's first nuclear submarine, Rickover has been a center of controversy from time to time during his career. Some of this controversy has stemmed from his reported readiness to brush aside Navy red tape in order to further the nuclear sub program.

★ ★ ★

Five years ago, congressional outcries played a big part in getting Rickover two-star flag rank. At that time, he had been passed over twice by Navy selection boards when his name came up for promotion.

Ike's Challenging Speeches Win Him Laurels as a Fighter for GOP

CHICAGO (UPI) — President Eisenhower was pleased but somewhat amused to find, as he finished a 5,300-mile campaign tour, that he was "the new fighting Eisenhower."

Eisenhower did not regard his rough-and-tough attitute toward the Democrats in his speeches in Los Angeles Monday and here Wednesday night as anything "new." Neither did members of his staff.

When the President came roaring out of the genteel world of non-political statesmanship in Los Angeles last Monday, he threw around such words as "radical . . . spendthrift . . . left wing" when speaking of the Democrats by name.

His sentences were shorter and snappier than usual. His castigation of the opposition pleased many Republicans to the extent that they came across with new, hefty cash contributions.

This led to the conclusion in the minds of some that Eisenhower's new speech writer, Dr. Malcolm Moos, had brought about the change.

Moos is a talented writer and his addition to the staff was warmly welcomed by those closest to the President. But Moos didn't write the Los Angeles or Chicago speeches. He helped.

The Los Angeles speech actually was similar to another political effort by the President during the 1956 campaign when he made a bare-knuckled speech in Seattle, Wash. The men who put that speech together with the President were the architects of the Los Angeles blasting job this week.

As plans developed for this campaign, the President talked with GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn about the fiery coals being heaped on the Republicans by such Democratic Party orators as Former President Truman, Sen. George Smathers of Florida and Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler.

There was a general agreement within the White House that when the President hit the road, he would revive the earthy, "spade a spade" speech format two or three times when working before purely political audiences.

He did not, however, want to use this technique when speaking for theoretically non-political occasions such as the national corn picking contest in Iowa where he spoke last week.

★ ★ ★

The formation of the Los Angeles speech began. One top White House official who has been close to the President since the outset of his political career, told this version:

After talks with such GOP figures as Alcorn, vice president Richard M. Nixon and leaders of the GOP House and Senate campaigns, Eisenhower mapped out the general areas he wanted to cover in his major campaign speeches.

These were, generally, this country's position overseas, the prosperous condition of the country, military strength, and the threat posed to progress made under the Eisenhower administration by continuance of a Democratic Congress. And there was the prime consideration of steaming up the party faithful so they would work harder for a November victory and produce a needed transfusion for the GOP treasury.

The speech itself was constructed largely by Bryce N. Harlow, deputy assistant to the President and long-time speech writer. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty and Thomas E. Stephens, appointment secretary to the chief executive.

Moos also helped to fashion the Los Angeles text, but as this official source said, Moos, after all, was quite new to the White House staff and the political refinements of the chore at hand.

The same source said that, as far as the staff was concerned, the sharp words for the Democrats and shorter, snappier sentence construction were nothing new, but did indicate the President's feeling that the time had come to haul out a technique he has reserved in the past for his own election fights.

Moos played a highly important role in his work on the speech, but he wasn't "the author" in the popular concept of ghost-writing. The more experienced political professionals did most of it but with each succeeding Eisenhower address Moos was expected to play a role of greater participation and responsibility.

★ ★ ★

Moos, a scholarly looking man of 43, was professor of political science at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore before joining the Eisenhower staff full-time. About six or eight months before he became a full-fledged staff member, he was on occasional loan to the staff as a consultant.

At Johns Hopkins, he had the opportunity of getting to know Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of the school and the chief executive's brother. Presumably Dr. Eisenhower had a lot to do with Moos going to the White House.

Split Farmington Plan Gains Election Interest

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP—As election day approaches, interest is mounting in two incorporation proposals which would plit the major portion of Farmington Township into two cities.

On the Nov. 4 general election ballot are proposals to:

1—Incorporate most of the area north of 10-Mile road, plus section 24 south of 10-Mile, into the city of Farmington Woods.

2—Incorporate all the remaining sections of the township east of the city of Farmington into the city of Clarenceville.

A majority of votes of all qualified voters in the area involved decides an incorporation issue. This is contrasted with annexation, which requires majority approval of both the electorate in the area to be annexed as well as the village or city seeking the annexation.

Nine charter commissioners will be elected to draw up charters for the proposed Farmington cities, should the incorporations be approved by voters.

Candidates for the Farmington Woods Commission are Albert E. Katzer, Robert W. Burton, Jerome Graham, Ray B. Wilcox, William R. Dinwiddie, Kenneth R. Glide, Victor J. Saliba, Arthur S. Bassette, Maynard Rose and Samuel H. Kosmensky.

★ ★ ★

Sixteen persons are seeking election to the Clarenceville commission. They are Raymond A. Brent, Albert E. Coates, E. Louis Dorris, Milfred Franz, Harold M. Hicks, Harold O. House, Orville E. Hutch-Th omasE .Koe belSr.,Wiler, t-leson, Messick N. James, Anne Keller, Thomas E. Koebel Sr., William LaForge, Raymond Layland, William G. Lawrason, LeRoy F. LeGros, Thomas O'Hara, and Floyd C. Sims.

Two committees in the Farmington Woods area, where the incorporation proposal has stirred up considerable controversy, will debate the issue Monday at 8 p.m. in the Farmington Senior High School auditorium.

Presenting arguments in favor of the city will be the Farmington Woods Committee, headed by Robert W. Burton. The Township Citizen's Committee, chairmaned by Township Board Trustee Wendell Brown will oppose incorporation.

The public airing of the matter is being sponsored by the League of Subdivision Assn.

The two committees have been waging a lively battle, circulating literature and presenting their arguments at public meetings. This will be the first face-to-face clash, however.

Expect 1,000 to Attend Area Church Dedication

CLARKSTON — More than 1,000 persons are expected to attend dedication services Sunday for the new $30,000 First Methodist Church parsonage in Clarkston, according to the Rev. William J. Richards, pastor.

Of modified colonial design, the parsonage is the first of four units to be constructed on the new Church street site. Cost of the program is expected to reach a half million dollars, the Rev. Richards said.

Officiating at the dedication service, which begins at 3 p.m., will be Bishop Marshall R. Reed, resident bishop of the Michigan Area of the Methodist Church. He'll be assisted by the Rev. Richards, and the Rev. David Yoh, pastor of the Vernon Methodist Church.

Everett Butters, lay leader, will open the dedication ceremony with a brief sketch of the history of the church and parsonage. Presentation of the parsonage key will be made by Howard Huttenlocher, present chairman of the Building Committee, and Edgar Collick, past chairman.

After the dedication the key will be placed in the hands of Harold Bauer, president of the Board of Trustees, by Bishop Reed.

The Senior Choir of the church, will close the service with the anthem, "Bless This House."

Following the dedication, the Rev and Mrs. Richards will play host to an open house from 4 to 8 p.m. The reception is being sponsored by the WSCS, under direction of Mrs. Helen Sphon and Dorothy Huttenlocher.

Farmers Day in Mt. Clemens

Farm, Factory Wares Being Sold Side by Side on Sidewalks Today

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Everything from carrots to karats was to be sold from sidewalk stands today as farmers joined their city breathren in turning this county seat into the old-fashioned market town it was a century ago.

★ ★ ★

Farm and factory goods were to be hawked from adjoining stands like those usually found only along country roads in this age. But this time the stands were set up along sidewalks for a dozen blocks in the central business district of this Thumb Area community of some 20,000.

Participants were to wear the cutaway coats and stovepipe hats of yesteryear.

A mushroom grower and an appliance salesman were to cooperate in a pizza-cooking demonstration. Carnival rides were set up to add to the festivities.

★ ★ ★

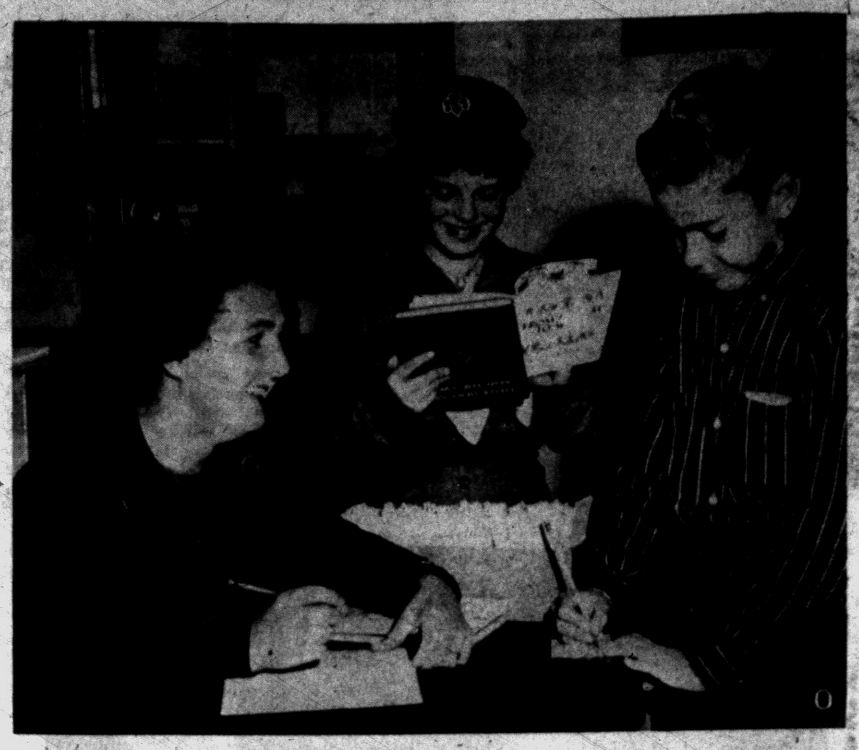

Merchants made their store windows available to the score of farmers who were invited to truck in samples of their produce for the one-day sale.

The event was sponsored by the local board of commerce. The board's executive secretary, Douglas W. Nash Sr., said:

"This sale has been planned to show that the old ties between merchants and farmers are as strong as ever."

★ ★ ★

Nash noted the city got its start as a trading center for farmers from the surrounding countryside.

Michigan Man Killed in Illinois

3 From State, 4 Others Injured in Fiery 2-Car Highway Collision

PALATINE, Ill. (AP) — A flaming two-car collision near Palatine Wednesday killed one man and seriously injured seven other persons.

The dead man was Ronald Winters, 19, of Sundell, Mich.

★ ★ ★

The others, all injured, are Bud Lindgren, 19, of Edwardsburg, Mich., the driver; Glen Ahrndt, 25, Menominee, Mich.; and Joseph Goodreau, 20, Edwardsburg.

Those in the other car, all hurt also, are John C. Willis, 60, Kirkwood, Mo., the driver; his wife, Thelma, 56; Willis' brother-in-law L. Ennis Craig, 57, of Dallas; and his wife May Queen Craig, 54.

Lindgren pulled out of his lane to pass a truck, according to State Police. His car struck a meridian marker, swerved into the path of Willis' car and both collided and turned over. The Lindgren car burst into flames and its four occupants were pinned inside.

★ ★ ★

A passing truck driver put out the flames with a fire extinguisher and freed the victims with the help of other motorists.

Astronomer Predicts Sun-Watching Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP)—A University of Michigan astronomer says a solar satellite that keeps a watch on the sun's day-long activities probably will be in the experimental stage in a year or two.

The observation was made last night by Prof. Leo Goldberg, chairman of the university's astronomy department, in a talk at the Smithsonian Institution.

Goldberg said the satellite already has been designed by an aircraft manufacturer in St. Louis, and that the entire instrument package will weigh less than 300 pounds.

This, he said, "will include a stabilization and control system for precision pointing of instruments at the sun, and power supply and equipment for recording and transmitting data."

Besides being invited to the dinner, the public may come out and watch the pit-digging operation Saturday in preparation for the barbecue, said the Rev. E. G. Baumgartner, pastor.

The church is located at Third and Walnut streets.

Campaigns Differ Sharply

Rockefeller Coaxes, Nixon Attacks Dems

By JACK BELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller preserved an uneasy truce today as top potential candidates for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

The principal difference between them was Nixon's attacks on Democrats who he said favor a welfare state and Rockefeller's courtship of the same kind of Democrats in his campaign to take the governorship of New York away from Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman.

★ ★ ★

Nixon made the meeting between the two Republican aspirants for the top of the 1960 ticket almost inevitable last Thursday night by a technically contrived television broadcast that was politically expert in every respect.

In a relaxed, chatty mood Nixon gave New York's TV viewers a professional performance. He sat on the edge of a desk and he used a pointer familiar to their children in the classrooms to explain the administration's position in foreign affairs.

★ ★ ★

Not since Nixon took to the airways to defend in 1952 his acceptance of $18,000 in expense money as a senator had the nation seen the vice president in quite such expert political form.

The verdict of most political observers on the broadcast was that Nixon again was terrific.

As a result, Rockefeller, who had no stomach for Nixon's attacks on the Democrats and independents — who the Republican gubernatorial candidate hopes will help him be elected, quickly arranged to meet the vice president before Nixon takes off for campaign activities in Wisconsin today.

In this case, Nixon was credited with the kind of political victory he scored recently over President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. When both of these leaders deplored partisan discussion of foreign policy, Nixon said it was a proper subject for debate in the campaign. Eisenhower and Dulles bowed to his judgment in this case.

In the same manner, Nixon brought Rockefeller into line Thursday night with a TV appearance obviously calculated to impress those likely to have something to say about the state's support of a 1960 nominee.

The political fact was that Nixon left Rockefeller no choice but to meet with him and to endorse Nixon's campaign tactics or to appear as a spoil-sport unworthy of regular Republican backing in 1960.

On television, Nixon was intent on showing to the viewers in the metropolitan area that he was a man with a soft-sell, a man with a middle-of-the-road philosophy.

He even had some good words for Harry S. Truman, who has had almost nothing nice to say about Nixon for several years.

★ ★ ★

Calling Truman a gallant warrior, Nixon said that "for a man of 74, traveling around the country as he is, it is something."

Nixon added that it is difficult enough for him at 45 to keep such a pace.

In a generous reference to Rockefeller, Nixon said the Republican candidate for governor has "the imagination and bold enterprise" needed to keep the Empire State ahead of other areas which are challenging it for leadership in the country.

County Unions Plan Merger

AFL and CIO to Ask Ratification of Plan at January Meeting

The Oakland County AFL and CIO unions have come to tentative agreement on terms of a merger.

The proposed constitution and merger agreement will be put before a January convention of delegates representing UAW and non-UAW locals presently affiliated with the Oakland County CIO Council and AFL locals affiliated with the Oakland County Federation of Labor.

The specific convention date has not been set yet, said Fred V. Haggard, CIO council president.

Seven-member committees from each organization recently completed more than a year of negotiating on the terms of the merger, Haggard said.

Under the merger terms, which the convention will be asked to ratify, the CIO gets 15 seats on the new, 21-seat executive board and the smaller AFL gets six.

A breakdown calls for 10 officerships, of which the CIO will hold seven and the AFL three, and 11 additional executive board seats, of which the CIO will fill eight and the AFL three.

County mergers throughout the nation were ordered at the national merger convention of the AFL and CIO in New York in 1955. The Oakland County merger plan comes about as a result of that order, Haggard said.

In Farmington Township

Enforce Pool-Fencing Law

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — The drowning of two Farmington children within a week has resulted in a Township Police crackdown on unfenced home swimming pools.

Police Chief Irving Yakes said nine tickets have been issued to home owners for violation of the year-old ordinance requiring pools to be completely fenced and have a gate that can be locked.

Those not complying with the law can be fined $100 or sentenced to 90 days in jail, or both, Yakes said.

Action was taken following the drowning Oct. 14 of Gene Lucier, 4, of Taylor Township, and 19-month-old Sebastian Mancuso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Mancuso, who on Oct. 20 fell into a pool near his home, 33901 Braebury Ridge Rd.,

The Taylor Township boy drowned in a pool at the home of his grandparents, 28825 Millbrook St., in Wood Creek Farms.

There are between 50 and 60 known private pools in the township, according to Yakes.

"Most of the newer ones are fenced in," he said. "It is the older ones which are in violation."

Nasser Completely Lost to West?

Russia to Finance Nile Dam

CAIRO (AP) — The Soviet Union has agreed to lend the United Arab Republic 400 million rubles worth of materials and equipment to start Gamal Abdel Nasser's dream dam at Aswan on the Nile.

The credit, amounting to 100 million dollars by Soviet reckoning, was seen by some diplomats here today as the clincher in Moscow's economic penetration of the Middle East. It may mean Nasser has finally turned his back on the West, giving up any idea of serious economic cooperation or reconciliation with Western powers.

★ ★ ★

The United States, Britain and the World Bank three yars ago had offered to lend Egypt 270 million dollars for the $1,300,000,000 dam in southern Egypt. Secretary of State Dulles abruptly withdrew the offer a year later after Egypt started buying arms from the Soviet bloc. Nasser in retaliation nationalized the Suez Canal.

The Soviet credit, announced by Premier Khrushchev in Moscow Thursday night, does not mean that the last hurdle to the starting of work on the vast project has been clared.

The proposed dam 600 miles south of Cairo would flood miles of territory across the border in Sudan and would displace at least 50,000 Sudanese. The Sudan government, through whose territory the Nile flows before it reaches Egypt, has not agreed to this new use of the waters, and Sudan has a plan of its own for a system of dams farther south to develop thousands of acres of cotton land.

If Egypt goes ahead with the Aswan project without Sudan's consent, a new international crisis could be touched off.

The Soviet credit marks a turn in policy by both Nasser and Khrushchev. Before the Western powers canceled their offer of financing, the Soviet Union was reported to have offered to help build the dam. Later the Russians announced they were not interested, preferring to help with projects which would show more immediate results.

When he nationalized the Suez Canal, Nasser declared Egypt would build the dam from her own resources and would use the revenue from the canal for the necessary foreign exchange.

Man Guilty of Trying to Kill Mother of Ten

DETROIT (AP)—A 37-year-old unemployed construction worker has been convicted of assault to murder Mrs. Anna Marie Rose, 40, the mother of 10 children.

The verdict was returned yesterday against Carter Walker of Detroit, who was accused of attempting to kill the woman for $5,000. Police said the victim's estranged husband, Charles, offered Walker the money if he would get Mrs. Rose "out of the way."

A similar charge against Rose was dropped after he was committed to the Ionia State Hospital following a sanity commission hearing.

Sentencing of Walker was set for Nov. 6.

Hunt Poisoner of Pets

JUNCTION, Tex. (AP) — Angry owners of pets in this southwest Texas ranch town are offering $567 reward for information leading to the arrest of whoever is poisoning dogs and cats. Charles Evans, radio station KMBL owner and organizer of a crusade to protect the city's pets, said more than 50 animals have been poisoned this week.

Potter and Hart Clash Head-On

GOP State Chairman Touches Off Fireworks With Blistering Attack

DETROIT (AP) — Republican Sen. Charles E. Potter and Democrat Philip A. Hart clashed for the first time in full-dress debate last night in their race for Potter's seat in Congress.

But it was State Republican Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemer who touched off the fireworks.

★ ★ ★

The Republican senator and the Democratic lieutenant governor played it according to the rules, sticking fairly close to the announced topic: "Which Political Party Best Serves the American People."

Lindemer, who joined with Potter in wrangling with Hart and State Democratic Chairman Neil Staebler, branched out with an attack on "the Hoffa, Reuther, Williams combine that is ruling Michigan."

Facing a heavily Democratic audience of some 200 Wayne State University students and members of the Metropolitan Detroit Social Studies Club, he said:

"The political climate of Michigan is reflected in the fact that the state AFL-CIO Council recently endorsed every Democratic candidate for election, but gave no chance for Republican candidates even to be heard.

★ ★ ★

Lindemer assailed a "reign of terror for job-producing industry." he said Gov. Williams, United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther and Teamster President James R. Hoffa had foisted on Michigan.

Pope Expected to Pick Name After Election

VATICAN CITY (AP) — One of the first decisions the new Pope will make is the choice of his name.

He will be expected to announce his choice almost immediately after his election in this weekend's conclave.

What name will be choose?

★ ★ ★

It could be Pius. Most popes choose a name of one of their predecessors with whom they feel some affinity. Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli chose the name Pius XII because of admiration for Pope Pius XI and Pius X.

It also could be Benedict, Clement, Gregory or Leo—other names used by popes since 1724.

Or it could be one of the names before these became popular.

John, used by 22 popes and one antipope (a false claimant to the papacy), still holds the record although it has not been selected in more than 400 years.

If the new Pope were to adopt it, he would probably ignore the antipope—who is now listed as John XXIII — and call himself John XXIII.

Another name, Innocent, was adopted 13 times, the last in 1721.

Benedict has been used 15 times, Gregory 16 times and Clement 14 times. Other possible choices include Urban, Sixtus, Julius, Paul, Alexander, Nicholas and Adrian—all used by popes in the past.

Conceivably, the new Pope could keep his own name. The last time that happened was in 1522, when Dutch-born Adrian VI used his own first name.

★ ★ ★

St. Peter is counted in Roman Catholic history as the first pope. His name is one that has never been used again.

John II, who reigned a thousand years ago, was the first Pope to change his own name. He did so because his parents had called him Mercury—after the pagan Roman god of commerce.

1,169 Tons of Cattle Move to Fattening Lots

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University's extension service reports 1,169 tons of feeder cattle moved out of the state's northland this month into fattening lots in the central and southern parts of Michigan.

The northern beef men were paid more than $760,000 for the cattle by feed lot oprators.

The average weight of the sale cattle was 448 pounds and brought an average return per hundred pounds of $32.47.

About 400,000 automobile patents have been granted in the United States since 1896, the industry estimates.

Church at Rochester Sponsors Hobby Show

ROCHESTER — Mary Guild of St. John's Lutheran Church is sponsoring a hobby show from 5 to 9 p.m. today at the Fellowship Hall.

The exhibit includes collectors' items, quilts, hooked rugs, art work, ceramics, stamps, china and stones.

Tea will be served. Cochairmen of the event are Mrs. Donald Kahlet and Mrs. Cameron Soule.

REALLY SOMETHING TO SEE — Little Tom Gates is impressed as he stands under wing of a mammoth U. S. Air Force C-133 cargo plane upon its arrival at Honolulu base. Turbo-prop transport, the Air Force's latest and largest, carries 21 tons of cargo.

Indonesia Asks U. S. Ship Aid

Must Replace Dutch Vessels Formerly in Interisland Trade

SEATTLE (AP) — Indonesia is urging the United States to fill the need for ships to replace Dutch vessels which formerly served in Indonesia's vital interisland trade.

Achmad Ali, head of the Indonesian delegation at preliminary sessions of the Colombo Plan economic conference here, disclosed the bid in an interview. U.S. officials acknowledged approaches from Indonesia but said they have received no formal request for ships.

Ali disclosed that only 22 per cent of Indonesia's shipping requirements have been filled from world sources thus far.

When Indonesia took over approximately a billion dolars worth of Dutch property last December, the vessels were used to maintain links between Java and the outside islands. However, under pressure from Lloyds, the London insurance firm, the Indonesian government turned back the Dutch fleet of 100 ships to their owners. The Dutch fleet totaled 195,000 tons.

Ali said that the World War II reparations from Japan and a loan from the Soviet Union are both helping to fill the gap by providing new interisland vessels. Some other vessels are being purchased in Europe from both Communist bloc and free world countries.

Weapons to Combat Missiles Available

MONTREAL (AP)—New weapons now available to the North American Air Defense Command may be effective against the inter-continental ballistic missile, Canadian Air Marshal C. R. Slemon said in a speech Thursday night.

Slemon, deputy commander of NORAD at Colorado Springs, Colo., said the new weapons were the MB1 atomic-headed air-to-air missile carried by interceptor aircraft, and atomic warheads for some ground-to-air missiles.

"Insofar as the defense of vital targets in North America against the ICBM is concerned, we believe this to be militarily possible, economically feasible and absolutely essential," he said.

Bob Considine Says:

French Information Chief a 'Cool Cookie'

PARIS — Jacques Soustelle, General de Gaulle's information chief, operates in a building whose main door is guarded by machine gun-bearing policemen. But he is a cool cookie, as he himself might put it in his slangy English.

"That was a close shave," the bouncy and bespectacled French politician said of the recent attempt on his life. He bounded across the office and brought back a book of photographs showing the bullet-riddled shark-nosed Citroen which almost became his tomb.

"There were two attempts actually," he said as he rifled the gruesome pages. "First this fellow Ouraghi—a Communist trained in the Algerian underground's assassins school—stuck his pistol through the open window of the car. I ducked to the floor of the car at the split second that he fired. I guess he thought he had killed me with the one shot, because he ran.

"I lifted my head and saw another guy pull a machine gun from under his coat. This time when I ducked I ducked right out of the car, putting it between us. The bullets whipped through the car and ricocheted back from the curb and the building front behind me. They beat me black and blue.

"Well, I go back here to the office when it was all over and telephoned my wife to tell her I was okay. She sent me over a new suit. Funny thing happened later. My assistant was going through the pockets of the old suit later on and felt something in one of the pockets. He asked himself 'Did the boss leave a coin in here?' It wasn't a coin, it was a bullet."

Soustelle is a great admirer of American mystery, detective and space adventure stories. Their patois has become his own, and it has a pleasant ring.

In speaking of the surgence of France under De Gaulle, for example, he said that in the days of the in-and-out governments "some joker at the United Nations would always be asking 'what government? The one coming or going?'"

On Franco-American relations:

"We had no reason to beef about the fact that some of your people regarded the France of that time as a satellite."

"De Gaulle is not an easy man to get along with, as you probably know. He treats his ministers like Napoleon treated his. He makes them work from dawn to midnight. We were dead the other night when he finished with us. But as Napoleon used to say while working with his ministers on the Napoleonic code, 'We must earn the money that we got from France.'"

On the Communists' loss of more than a million supporters in the recent referendum which adopted the new French constitution:

"The people dropped them cold."

As to the steadiness of the 46 new Algerian Moslem members of the parliament:

"There won't be any 'beni oui ouis'—you call them 'yes men'—among them. They'll be young, practical and realistic with a genuine desire for peace. I'd say they'd be good mosque-going Arabs."

Soustelle learned his basic English in school in France, picked up a British accent while serving as De Gaulle's top intelligence officer in England and elsewhere during the war, then acquired the habit of reading American papers, magazines and books for relaxation. His wife has the same hobby.

"Between you, me and the door post, I like Hemingway, Dashiell Hammett and the science fiction of Ray Bradbury. They are very much like De Gaulle. They don't shilly-shally around," concluded phrasemaker Jacques.

The bottom of oceans are often rugged rather than flat. There are enormous sunken mountain ranges such as the gigantic Mid-Atlantic Ridge.

The cost of living, says Jack Herbert of Chicago, has reached a new pique . . . Air Force definition of a B-29: "What woman in their 40s wish they could" . . . It takes some people about two and a half cars to learn to drive. — Earl Wilson.

900 Students to Sing in High School Concert

Pontiac Press Photos

Vocalists from Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern High Schools will hold a concert and Fall Clinic Nov. 3 in the PCHS boys' gymnasium. Renewing acquaintances during rehearsals — all sang together last year — are (left to right) Duke Relyea, of Central's choir; Lynn Thompson, of Northern; James McIntosh of Central, and Richard Elley, of Northern High's choir.

More than 900 students from Pontiac Central High School and Pontiac Northern High School will appear in the Vocal Concert and Fall Clinic to be held Nov. 3 in the PCH boys gymnasium. Dr. John Raymond will be guest conductor for the massed numbers.

The concert also will feature seven ensembles from the two high schools, George Putman is musical director.

POPULAR NUMBERS

Melvin Larimer, Pontiac Northern High School director, has announced selections to be sung by his newly formed ensembles.

★ ★ ★

The "Choralbelles," a group of 12 girls, will sing "In the Still of the Night," by Cole Porter, and "Nocturne," by Merry Maestroleo. They will be accompanied by Lynne Thompson.

The other ensemble, made up of boys from Northern, appropriately called "Norsemen," will sing "The Whiffenpoof Song," by Rudy Vallee and "There's Nothin' Like a Dame," by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

★ ★ ★

The Senior Girls Vocal Ensemble and Boys Double Quartet of Pontiac Central are directed by Doreen Voltmann.

The girls will sing, "Lift Thine Eyes," by Mendelssohn and "Drifting and Dreaming," arranged by Simeone.

The boys have selected the familiar "Kentucky Babe," by Geibel and "I'll Be Dar," by Benedict, with Don Mann as soloist.

Santhy Annas is the girls' accompanist and David Breen will accompany the boys group.

NEW ENSEMBLE

Michael Dempsey has organized a new mixed vocal ensemble, the Songspinners. They will sing "Psallite," by Praetorius and "Shuckin' of the Corn," a Tennessee folk song arranged by Walter Preston. Accompanist for this group is Diane Relyea.

The Junior Girls Ensemble, also directed by Mr. Dempsey, will sing a medley of show tunes, including "It's a Grand Night for Singing," "If I Loved You," and "Some Enchanted Evening."

To complete the ensemble list, the Senior Boys Ensemble, with Gary Relyea as accompanist, will sing, "If I Had My Way," and "My Blue Heaven."

★ ★ ★

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from the music students or by calling the Vocal Music Office, Pontiac Central High School.

Going over some of the musical selections they will sing in the concert are (left to right) Diane Williams and Kiki Sekles, both of Central High School, and Karen Hayden of Northern High School.

Brother and sister accompanists for vocal groups at Central High School are Gary and Diane Relyea. Gary is accompanist for the Senior Boys' Ensemble and Diane accompanies the "Song Spinners."

Possibly She Is Just Shy

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I were invited to a reception given by the groom's mother in honor of the new bride — a stranger in town. I went to see the bride after the party but she has not returned my visit. I'd like to invite her to something, but may I when she has shown no willingness to be friendly?"

Answer: Don't judge her willingness to be friendly by the fact that she has not returned your visit, but by her manner. If she is really aloof or indifferent to you, more so than to others, then that is one thing, but otherwise give her at least the benefit of the doubt and invite her by all means.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter was married recently at a large church wedding. Two of her uncles who live in a distant city and could not come to the wedding sent telegrams. The wedding was over a month ago and now we hear from a cousin that my daughter should have sent a thank-you note for the telegrams. I thought it was only necessary to acknowledge wedding presents. Will you please tell me if these telegrams should have been acknowledged?"

Answer: While not necessary as is a note of thanks for a present, she should have thanked her uncles for their telegrams. If the telegrams had been from friends of her own age, nothing more than her verbal thanks the next time she sees them is expected.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary to return a pearl necklace to my ex-fiance? I've been wearing this for some months and it seems curious to take it off and give it back. But my mother thinks it should be returned. Will you please tell me the correct thing to do?"

Answer: If the necklace is not made of real pearls it need not be returned. The greater the value, the more certainly must it be returned.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is the young boy's family supposed to provide the transportation when he takes a young girl to their first dance? They are too young to drive cars themselves."

Answer: Boy's family should if they can. Otherwise hers would be proper.

One Man's Meat Is Another Man's Poison—Abby

Pay No Heed to Neighbor's Corny Ways

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: I have a next door neighbor who has me worried. There are just the two of them living there. Her and her old man. He gets a railroader's pension and sits and listens to the ballgames all day. She cans corn. I swear to you that I don't know what she does with all the corn she cans. I see her hauling in bushels of corn and jars and she has spent the whole summer canning corn. Do you think they ought to be looked on?"

ABBY

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: You may "look in on her" if you wish, but I don't see the need of it. Maybe they just like corn.

"DEAR ABBY: Our only child turned 20 and we bought him a secondhand car. He pays the upkeep with the money he earns working after school (college) and weekends. We raised him up to be clean and decent, mannerly and quiet. His friends are the ones he grew up with and they are all respectable.

"Our problem: His father found a blanket in the trunk of his car. You could tell by looking at that it had been out in the woods. It was full of leaves and moss. I can't sleep nights for imagination running loose. Do you think his father ought to question him to find out what he's been up to?"

HIS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If you've raised your son to be wholesome, decent and particular in his choice of companions, don't worry. A lad who's down to earth is usually up to nothing serious.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I know I am married because my husband calls me his 'wife' and claims me as a deduction on his income tax. Other than that I might just as well be his sister, if you know what I mean. I am not ugly (in fact I still get my share of whistles). I read all the ads and keep myself kissing fresh, lovable and my best friends don't have to tell me anything. We've been married only four years and he doesn't come near me any more. What's wrong with me?"

IGNORED

DEAR IGNORED: Nothing is wrong with YOU—but there could be something wrong with HIM. He needs a thorough physical examination — and maybe a mental one, too.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My problem (and I'll bet a lot of other people's problem) is the thoughtless women who are found in every supermarket! Why do these women leave their grocery carts right in the middle of the aisle while they wander off somewhere to look for groceries? Don't they realize that they are jamming up traffic?"

"With very little effort, if they 'parked' their grocery carts on the side, others could pass by. And don't forget the mothers who turn their little ones loose to 'race' carts all over the store as if they were in a Playland Park. Hoping some offenders will read this."

HOUSTON

"DEAR ABBY: In my bedroom I have posters from various activities of our school and several pictures of friends on my wall. Everyone says it is a clever way to decorate a girl's room, but my mother says I can't put any more things up. It's my room and I'm the one who has to live in it.

"It is all neatly done and I am not hurting the walls any. I think this is the way a girl expresses her personality like a boy fixes his car up to express his. I keep my room clean and my drawers and closets neat so I think I should be able to decorate it as I please. Am I right?"

16-YEAR-OLD

DEAR 16: If you keep your room clean, and your drawers and closets neat, and the decorations postively do not damage the walls, I see no reason why you shouldn't be able to decorate it with your posters and pictures.

Fear of Mistakes Hampers Her Decisions

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Several times this year Paul's father has openly declared his marriage to Paul's mother a "mistake."

As she's pretty unhappy, she needs nobody to tell her there's something wrong with the marriage. When Paul's father phones to say that he can't get home for dinner again, she hangs up thinking, "How long can we go on like this?" And the possibility that she has indeed made a mistake by marrying Paul's father overwhelms her with a terrifying sense of helplessness.

So within the past year Paul has gotten out of control.

If he's told to put on his sweater before going out, he'll say "Aw, leave me alone." As he runs out the screen door, his mother will stand at it, hesitating. Then after a minute she'll say to herself, "Oh well, maybe he doesn't need his sweater after all."

Paul's mother, frightened by the possibility that she's made a marital mistake, is now terrified by making mistakes as a parent.

Unhappily married parents are unusually susceptible to fear of discipline.

So if our marriage isn't working, it is wise to examine ourselves for this fear.

When we locate it, we might try asking ourselves these questions: "Have I always been terrified of making mistakes? Do I feel injured when other people don't agree with me? If I am criticized, do I become anxious and try to explain myself back into the critic's approval?"

If we are honest with ourselves, we wil probably have to answer these questions with a "Yes."

We'll be silly to be dishonest. For the chances are we need the truth very badly. We need to know that we've always been afraid of making mistakes.

Our fear of controlling Paul is just another example of our old fear of making mistakes.

★ ★ ★

We can begin to overcome it by watching it operate in us at the screen door. As Paul runs out leaving in our hands the sweater he should be wearing, we can say to ourselves, "I've let this seven-year-old make this decision to protect me against making a wrong one."

The rest will not be so hard.

Can Try Massage

No Way to Make Hair Grow Faster

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "About four weeks ago I had my hair cut and my mother and father are very unhappy since they say it is too short to be becoming. Is there any way to make it grow faster?"

A. I know of no way. You will just have to wait. The rate of hair growth varies in different individuals. Scalp massage might help a bit.

Q. "I am 40 years old. The tops of my legs are very heavy but from the knee down are well shaped. What can I do to improve this situation?"

A. Do the following exercises: Stand facing the wall. Place both hands on the wall. Bend your left knee up in front of you. Straighten your left leg as you kick backward hard so that your leg shakes. Return foot to the floor. Do the same thing with your right leg. Continue, alternating left and right.

Another: Lie on your back, with your arms resting on the floor extending straight out from the shoulder pits. Bend both legs and place the feet on the floor. Raise the heels from the floor and keep the fingertips on the floor as you roll from side to side, slapping the thighs on the floor at the end of each roll.

Q. "I am 16 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall. I weigh 119 pounds. My measurements are, bust 35½ inches, waist 23½ and hips 35 inches. Lots of girls I know say that I am too heavy for my height. What do you think?"

A. I think that the girls who say that are jealous of your good figure. You are just about right, if anything on the low side.

Q. "Will you please give me some exercises for reducing my ankle bones? I am not fat in this spot but the bones are most prominent."

A. It is impossible to reduce with exercise. Sorry.

Q. "I am 16 years old and have not had many dates; only two with a boy I do not care for. Could this be because I am very much overweight?"

A. Yes it is possible. Young men of your age are self-conscious and might be shy about dating a girl who is fat. Why not lose this weight in a sensible way? You will be much happier if you do so.

If any of you teenagers would like to have my leaflet planned especially for you, which gives you diet suggestions, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 58 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

There is no way to make hair grow faster. Scalp massage might help a bit.

Voice of the People Too Quiet Sometimes

RUTH MILLETT

It was a rainy, disagreeable night. The family settled down for an evening of TV viewing, wanting to be entertained for a couple of hours before bedtime.

The dial was turned and the show which came on happened to be a mystery. Before it had been on for a full minut all members of the family agreed that they'd seen the play not once but twice before.

So the TV was cut off. Why the TV industry thinks it can keep feeding the public the same old programs over and over is a mystery to the viewing public.

Presumably the powers that be in TV get gray-haired and shaky-kneed at the thought of TV sets suddenly going dead all over the country. But that's what happens when, with great ballyhoo, an announcer offers the viewing public a second or third or fourth helping of the same show.

If newspapers kept reprinting the same columns and editorials and funnies, if magazines kept reprinting the same articles and fiction, the reading public would scream to high heaven.

But because they don't pay for TV programs, TV viewers are a docile lot.

The only way we can get rid of the repeats is by jamming the telephone lines every time we are offered a rerun instead of something new. If we'd call our local stations and say, "Look, I've seen this play twice before. And I don't intend to watch it a third time," TV fare might possibly improve.

★ ★ ★

But nothing is going to happen so long as we click off our sets in disgust and complain only to other members of the family.

Russian Wins Nobel Prize

Anti-Communist Novel Puts Khrushchev on Spot

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

The Nobel award to Russian writer Boris Pasternak poses a dilemma for the Soviet government.

★ ★ ★

Nikita Khrushchev faces the difficult question of what if anything to do about a man on his doorstep whose spirit is alien to Marxism-Leninism, who refuses to propagandize the Soviet regime and yet who has won the Western world's top literary award for a notably anti-Communist novel.

★ ★ ★

Involved here is the troublesome relationship between the Kremlin and Soviet creative artists. The party dictatorship has always insisted that art must be subordinated to the political aims of the Soviet system. In its extreme form, this attitude demands that authors be reduced to writing advertising copy for the government —"engineers of human souls," as Stalin called them.

Some Soviet creative artists have knuckled under. But many others have sought the broadest possible freedom for artistic expression—and consequently freedom from party dictation as to what and how they should write.

Since Stalin's death the Communist party leadership has been seeking some balance between its need to control literary output and what it now recognizes as the need of writers for a broader degree of freedom.

★ ★ ★

In recent months, however, the party has been tightening the literary reins as part of a general crackdown.

★ ★ ★

The Nobel Prize puts Pasternak in a precariously spotlighted position. His greatest work, the novel "Doctor Zhivago," is a best seller outside the Soviet Union but to date has been suppressed at home because it is a clarion call for human freedom.

The very thought that honor can come to any Soviet writer who does not have Kremlin blessing is outlandish to Russian Communist party leaders. They may feel they have to take some sort of action.

★ ★ ★

Any retaliation they take, however, would certainly make Pasternak a martyr to Soviet writers themselves and a glaring demonstration to the rest of the world of the limitations on creative freedom in the Soviet Union.

Each gave a brief account of their adventures in a foreign land and their impressions of Europe. Those speaking were Linda Chabot, Paul Haight, Susan Merkle, Jim Mitchell, Susan Smith, Carol Sommer, Roberta Welch and Frank Crawford.

Also speaking at the assembly was Lothar Schlafke, a German exchange student attending WLHS.

PLAN VARIETY SHOW

Plans are being completed for an All School Revue to be held at WLHS November 7 and 8. The theme is "Around the World in Eighty Minutes," and is being presented by the student council. There will be over 200 student participants.

Linda Chabot, Sondra Forsyth, and Claire Krusac will create dance routines.

The 1958 Homecoming at Walled Lake is next Friday. Starting the evening will be a pre-game bonfire at the high school football field.

★ ★ ★

For the first time the homecoming parade will include floats from various clubs and organizations. Clubs represented will be the photo, Spanish, math, future nurses, future teachers, G.A.A., bibliophylies, science, and Wave Wizards. The senior, junior and sophomore classes will also have floats.

At halftime a senior queen and a junior and sophomore attendant will be named.

27 Holly Students Excused to Hunt

By FREDRICA WHITE

One can certainly tell that there are hunters in Holly. More than 27 students of the Holly Area High School have been excused from classes to participate in the sport.

The hunting absences may extend up to five days but applications must be obtained from the general office and written parental consent must accompany each request.

The coronation of the homecoming queen and the announcement of her court will be made today in preparation for next Friday's Homecoming celebration.

UF KICK-OFF

Monday, a Torch Drive Kick-Off assembly was held at the Student Center. A goal of $4,200 for the students has been requested by the community.

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

If you think you've heard everything, you obviously haven't heard "Pop Goes The Swingin' Marchin' Band" (Victor LPM-1771).

When Paul Lavalle's Band of America cut a wild version of "South Rampart Street Parade" several years ago, it was a shot in the arm to marching bands and an excellent performance.

However, Ray Martin and his Orchestra have gone off the deep end in this new LP. Included are such concert band classics as "Tequila," "Rock Around The Clock," "The Cheer Leader Cha Cha," and "The Swingin' Shepherd Blues March."

★ ★ ★

Also on the current Victor release list are good LPs — "Belafonte Sings The Blues" (LOP-1006); "Afro-Cuban Influence" (LPM-1763) by Shorty Rogers & his Giants; "Moments Like These" (LPM-1719) by Dinah Shore; and "Pop Goes The Concert" (LPM-1772) by Skitch Henderson and his Orchette.

Looks like the Columbia people are capitalizing on the phenomenal success of their "Sing Along With Mitch" LP. Now on stands and doing well at the cash register is — you guessed it — "More Sing Along With Mitch" (CL-1243) by Mitch Miller and the gang.

FIVE ACES: Tops again is "Topsy" by Cozy Cole, but "Tom Dooley" by The Kingston Trio is just a nose behind in second.

★ ★ ★

Third place seller in the Pontiac area is "Lonesome Town" by Ricky Nelson, which looks more each day like another sure fire top seller.

Fourth place goes to "It's Only Make Believe" by Conway Twitty, getting the nod in a tight race with fifth place "It's All In The Game" by Tommy Edwards.

5 W. Bloomfield Beauties Contest for Crown

"Which one" will be queen will not be revealed until tonight at the halftime ceremony of the football game between West Bloomfield and Clarkston.

Celebration of the homecoming weekend began last night with a huge fire and pep rally held at the athletic field and sponsored by the senior class.

DANCE TOMORROW

The student council's annual Homecoming Dance will be held in the school gym beginning at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow. Price is $1.25 for singles and $2 for couples.

Always Knows When to Jump

Khrushchev Able, Agile, Tireless

By ROY ESSOYAN
AP Staff Writer

Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet party and government, is a man of tremendous agility.

He has a seemingly tireless energy, wide ranging ability and that all-important Communist knack of knowing when to jump.

★ ★ ★

He has made more enemies in Russia in the last few years than any other Soviet leader except Stalin. But so far he is still in complete control.

★ ★ ★

His control has been challenged. But when he can't lick them he joins them. Most of the time he's managed to lick them.

He uses no terror in the Stalin pattern. His enemies are still alive.

★ ★ ★

His agility vaulted him to the top in the scramble after Stalin's death, and has kept him at the top despite bloopers and reverses that would have felled a less nimble man.

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev has played many roles since he came to power. His early characterizations were popular.

When he played the clown the Russians roared. They laughed at him but in their way they loved him, made up anecdotes about him and slapped their thighs.

Then in February 1956 he denounced Stalin and a hush fell over the land, broken only by the coaxing singsong of orators and party agitators rallying the masses.

After 30 years of Stalinism the new line was hard to swallow whole. As the people slowly digested it a new excitement stirred the country.

★ ★ ★

It stirred the people of Poland and Hungary even more. They rioted in Poznan, revolted in Hungary.

Khrushchev reared back.

At a New Year's banquet in the Kremlin's gold and marble St. George's Hall, Khrushchev announced that Stalin was a great man after all.

The cynics smiled. "We knew it all the time," they said. And Khrushchev even joked about it, and the people laughed.

★ ★ ★

They fell a little silent again in June and October 1957 when he started purging his onetime partners in the Kremlin. For a spell the ghost of Stalin seemed about to rise in earnest.

But the crisis passed and Khrushchev bounced back to clown again. The Russians started to laugh again, but now they listened more seriously, for Khrushchev was obviously a very serious man.

★ ★ ★

People who saw him right after what is generally considered to be his latest reversal—when he returned from Peiping and switched signals on the East-West summit conference he had been fervently espousing—said he looked gray and shaken.

★ ★ ★

But they said he has bounced right back and, never idle or timid, has ordered a complete overhaul of the Soviet education system.

★ ★ ★

The plan is far from popular with the Russians. But neither was his original "virgin lands" development program, nor his drastic decentralization of industrial and economic management, nor his decision to abolish machine-tractor stations and set up a new pricing system for agriculture produce.

★ ★ ★

Each of Khrushchev's purges and programs has created enemies among the so-called Stalinists, the hard-core Marxists, the intellectuals, in management, in the army and now even within the ranks of settled, middle-class Soviet parents.

Can a man with so many enemies survive in Russia?

Interestingly enough, every time Khrushchev has made a new set of enemies, people not directly affected have felt he was acting in the best interests of the country. For though he can quote the Marxist scriptures better than most, Khrushchev is essentially a practical man.

So far there is no indication of solidarity in the ranks of the disaffected. And, equally important, there is no man of stature left to lead them.

★ ★ ★

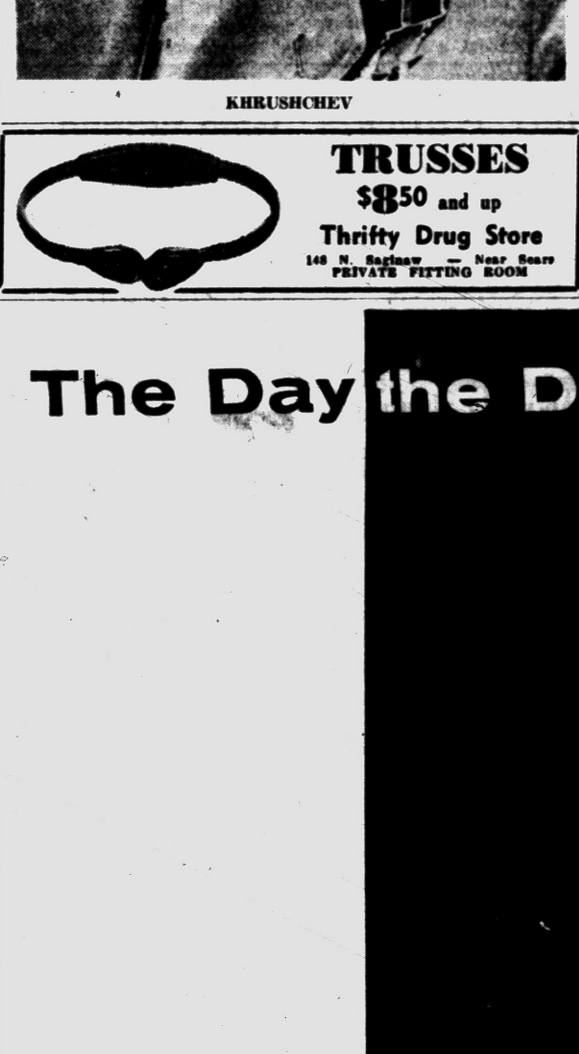

Some in Moscow feel that the enemies Khrushchev has made are just waiting to pounce on him the moment he slips and loses his balance. To a Communist, loyalty can be a bourgeois luxury.

But others say the men who surround Khrushchev will protect him and help steer him from pitfalls—for their own sake if for no other.

Russia, it's contended, needs a leader and he's the only one left that anybody knows.

★ ★ ★

Which doesn't mean that, when ulcers or old age catches up with Khrushchev, some unknown won't rise to take his place.

The Day the Darkness Came . . .

Care ENOUGH . . . to GIVE Enough

October 21 - November 11

Blindness can fall with the swiftness and finality of the guillotine . . . or come with a slow and silent and measured pace.

It came like that for Sally — and she remembers still, the day darkness came, her last, fleeting glimpse of a world she will never see again.

It's a different world she lives in now — dark and fearful — where each day is an endless night — and where voices are her only playmates.

But Sally is not alone in her world of darkness. Not if you open your heart to her during the great Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

For when you open your heart, you open the door to light and love and hope for her and for the many thousands of our citizens who need your help.

The United Fund campaign is an effort in which all Pontiac can take deep pride and satisfaction — 55 separate services united in a single cause. But, its success depends on your personal generosity — and on your willingness to share your own portion of this great humanitarian effort. We know you will give your fair share.

Conley to Play Pro Basketball

Braves' Hurler Signs With Boston Celtics Despite Contract

BOSTON (AP) — Milwaukee Brave pitcher Gene Conley has signed to toss a basketball for the Boston Celtics, but he also threw the fat in the fire with the baseball club.

The 6-foot-8 inch Conley, who played briefly with the Celtics during the 1952-53 season, signed his contract with the National Basketball Assn. club yesterday for an undisclosed amount.

Boston Coach Red Auerbach said, "Gene can make the difference on this team and can be the best player on this club if he wants to."

In Milwaukee, where Conley had a disappointing 1958 season, Braves said:

"What our action will be regarding Conley's flouting of a section of his baseball contract will not be determined until President Joe Cairnes, executive vice president Birdie Tebbetts and I have had a chance to sit down and thrash it out."

Michigan Picked Over Winless Gophers

Wolverines Jug Game Favorites by Seven Points

Passing Duel Expected in Prestige Battle at Ann Arbor Saturday

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan is favored to bounce back from its trouncing by Northwestern and beat Minnesota tomorrow.

The Wolverines, who lost 55-24 to the Wildcats, are a seven-point favorite in their 49th game with the winless Gophers.

The Little Brown Jug classic means little in the scramble for the Big Ten championship. But a crowd of about 72,000 will be on hand for a game vital to both sides.

Michigan needs a victory to restore its one-time gridiron prestige. Coach Bennie Oosterbaan was hanged in effigy and was the victim of alumni discontent after his team lost to Northwestern.

★ ★ ★

The Wolverines have won only once while losing twice and tying Michigan State.

Minnesota hasn't been victorious this season. Its losing streak is seven games, four of them this year. Coach Murray Warmath also has been attacked by alumni. He too was hanged in effigy after the Gophers lost to Illinois.

The game figures to be a passing duel between Bob Ptacek and Stan Noskin of the Wolverines and Jim Reese of Minnesota. All are good passers and will be throwing at leaky pass defenses.

★ ★ ★

The Wolverines were bolstered by the return of Ptacek on Wednesday. He was injured against Northwestern and originally had been counted out of tomorrow's game.

Michigan has realigned its backfield for the test. Darrell Harper was promoted to the first team left half berth. Brad Myers, who started Michigan's four games at left half, has been working at both halfback slots with the second unit.

Reese, a third-stringer behind Bobby Cox and Dick Larson last year, and left halfback Bob Soltis are the lone lettermen in the starting Minnesota backfield. Right halfback Bill Kauth and fullback Jim Rogers, a pair of sophomores, also are expected to start.

The historic series dates back to 1892. Michigan holds a considerable edge, 30-15-3.

Illinois Make or Break Game for MSU

State Slim Favorite Saturday

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Michigan State plays the make or break game of its 1958 football season here tomorrow against Illinois.

"This game decides whether we're going up or down," confided an assistant coach. "It'll decide whether or not we pull out of our slump and make a decent season out of it."

★ ★ ★

Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty showed he is a gambler at heart in his drastic shakeup of the squad roster after the 14-6 upset by Purdue.

There will be certainly four — and possibly five, sophomores in the starting lineup.

Al Luplow, the Saginaw sophomore, probably will start at left halfback. Dean Look, the regular at the position is badly bruised around the back and body and probably only will see limited action as a punter.

Greg Montgomery, the junior who has been shuffled between second and third in the quarterback slot, is slated to start against Illinois.

Named as second man in the lineup of signal callers was Ike Grimsley, a sophomore and left handed passer.

Daugherty took a dozen sophomores in all on the 38-man traveling roster for the game.

State dropped to its lowest ranking in the Associated Press poll since the losing 1954 season after the beating by Purdue, MSU now ranks only a lowly 20th, last spot in the rating system.

The Spartans were ranked second at the end of the 1955 season, 9th at the close of the year in 1956 and third at season's end last year.

Michigan State still was a slight favorite over Illinois although many couldn't see the logic of the pick.

Illinois is fired up by its Homecoming and, like Purdue, has a history of getting away with upsets even against strong Michigan State teams.

At the Homecoming here two years ago the Illini stunned the Spartans with a 20-13 upset.

In addition to the loss of Look as a regular, State is hurting from other injuries. Those left home on the sick list included guard John Middleton with a wrenched knee, guard Ron Rickens with a sprained ankle and quarterback Tommy Wilson with a knee sprain.

Olivet Has Hopes of Avoiding Tie for Loss Mark

OLIVET, Mich. (AP)—Olivet has a chance to tie a football record against Alma Saturday, but it will be nothing to brag about.

The small Michigan college, if it loses, will tie the record for successive defeats—at 28.

★ ★ ★

Records show that Albany College of Oregon dropped 28 straight before it broke the string with a win on Oct. 26, 1935.

★ ★ ★

Runners-up in the losing department were Knox College of Illinois and Hobart of New York, both with 27 consecutive losses in the early 1930s.

Big Rally Fails, Pistons Lose 104-103

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Detroit Pistons turned on the steam last night but it just wasn't quite enough to make up for a 18-point deficit. The St. Louis Hawks squeaked through with a 104-103 win.

Scoring 14 straight points at the finish, the Pistons just barely missed catching the Hawks.

George Yardley, of the Pistons, the league scoring champion of 1957-58 with 2,001 points, led the night's scoring with 28. High scorer for St. Louis was Bob Pettit, with 23.

The teams started the second half as they had the first, with the score all even. From the 54-54 deadlock, the Hawks moved out into a 75-71 lead by the end of the third period and held a 98-80 margin with about four minutes to go.

But the Hawks got up to 104-89 as they scored their last point of the game.

★ ★ ★

From then on, the Detroit rookie duo of Shellie McMillon and Barney Cable led the Pistons with a flurry of baskets which pulled their team to within one point of St. Louis in the last 50 seconds.

Cable was wide with a last-second desperation shot from far out that could have won the game for Detroit, which dropped its second game in two NBA starts.

Sawchuk Finds Shutout Foiled for Third Time

Wilson Leads Detroit With 2 Goals in 3-1 Win Over Bruins

By BILL CORNWELL

DETROIT — Goalie Terry Sawchuk is finding that 2nd shutout of the year mighty hard to get.

The star Detroit netminder was one measly second away from whitewashing No. 2 here Thursday night when Boston defenseman Larry Hillman clicked on his own rebound to foil Terry's effort.

Hillman's goal was merely consolation for the Bruins as the hustling Red Wings completely outplayed them from start to finish for a 3-1 victory in their National Hockey League scrap at Olympia Stadium.

An enthusiastic audience of 9,189 spectators watched the Redshirts skate to their 3rd straight triumph all by 3-1 scores, and their 4th win of the new season in six games.

The well-deserved victory should be a great morale booster for the Wings, who now await Sunday evening's invasion of the powerful Montreal Canadiens, the defending NHL and Stanley Cup champions.

Detroit dropped a 2-0 decision to the Canadiens at Montreal in the 1958-59 opener. The Canadiens handed the Chicago Black Hawks a thorough 9-1 shellacking last night at the Montreal Forum in the only other game scheduled.

Chicago's loss coupled with Detroit's verdict over Boston sent the Red Wings into 2nd place in the standings with eight points, three shy of the front-running Canadiens.

Detroit's rookie brigade, paced by Charlie Burns, Len Lunde and Claude Laforge, had many moments of stardom, but it took veterans John Wilson and Alex Delvecchio to provide the scoring punch against the Bruins.

★ ★ ★

The Wings tallied once in each period with Wilson bagging the first two goals and Delvecchio furnishing the clincher.

Bruin goalkeeper Don Simmons was helpless to stop Wilson's counters. His 1st score came at 4:44 when he deflected Red Kelly's 30-foot shot into the open corner of the cage. He connected again in the 17th minute of the middle stanza by jabbing home his own rebound after taking a goalmouth pass from Burns.

Delvecchio's insurance marker slipped past Simmons at 3:37. Del received Norm Ullman's pass, faked his way through the defense and fired point blank at the Boston goal tender from 20 feet.

Both teams were short one man when Hillman made his unassisted goal in the final second of play. Sawchuk blocked Hillman's 1st shot but couldn't recover quickly enough to halt the follow-up.

It was the 2nd consecutive time that Sawchuk's bid to blank the opposition has been erased by a late 3rd period tally. Sawchuk has now yielded 12 goals, an average of two per contest.

Assumes Braves' Post

Tebbetts Has New Role

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Birdie Tebbetts, who resigned as Cincinnati manager when the Redlegs were in last place, has become the titular head of the rich Milwaukee Braves baseball kingdom and probably will assume the crown permanently in a few years.

Hired as executive vice president by Milwaukee earlier in the month, Tebbetts held forth yesterday in his first press conference as a member of the Braves' organization.

In a prepared statement, Birdie said he joined the Braves executive family because the club offered the job "I have been preparing myself for during my 25 years as a player and a manager."

Tebbetts was put on the payroll as an aide to Braves' President Joseph Cairnes who said a Florida construction project will demand more and more of his time over the next 10 years.

★ ★ ★

Cairnes established Tebbetts' status when he said:

"Birdie will head up the organization in my absence. He'll be responsible for it. Any trades must have the approbation of the president or the executive vice president in the absence of the president." He added that "maybe in a matter of years Birdie will be president of the ball club."

★ ★ ★

Tebbetts asserted he has adopted a strict policy of non-interference with the labors of field manager Fred Haney. Birdie said "I would refuse" if asked to take over the ball club "for two weeks in July if Haney got sick."

"I'm not going to jeopardize my integrity by doing something to somebody I wouldn't want done to me," Tebbetts said. He explained saying that Cincinnati General Manager Gabe Paul "never came to my clubhouse without my invitation and he never talked with the players without my permission. That will be my philosophy."

"Haney is a very fine manager," Tebbetts said. "Any reports that we didn't get along are erroneous. As manager of the Redlegs, I was out to beat the Braves and any other opposition. There was nothing personal in it."

Also taking a turn in answering questions was Milwaukee General Manager John Quinn, who said:

"Let's get it on the record. In my judgment, our organization would be stupid not to consult a fellow like Birdie on trades."

MANAGER OF YEAR — Danny Murtaugh, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, named Manager-of-the-year by the Associated Press, is obviously the top manager around his home too. The Pirates who were picked to finish 7th and 8th bolted into second place. He lives in Woodlyn, Pa., near Philadelphia.

AP Names Pirate Mentor for Honor

Murtaugh 'Manager-of-Year'

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—In the midst of congratulations over his selection as The Associated Press' Manager of the Year, Danny Murtaugh remembered another Pittsburgh manager today.

"Bill Meyer helped me an awful lot," the sharp-featured, 41-year-old Pirates manager said at his home here. "Toward the end of my career, I got to thinking about wanting to be a manager. Billy would let me sit next to him on the bench. He gave me all sorts of advice, told me why he did things.

"Bill was a good baseball man."

Murtaugh, former second baseman, who never played for a major league team that finished higher than fourth place, was named Manager of the Year Thursday for his feat of leading the unheralded Pirates into second place in 1958.

The 84-70 finish, eight games behind the pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves, was the Pirates' best since 1944. They finished in a tie for last place in 1957. It was Murtaugh's first full season as manager. He succeeded Bobby Bragan Aug. 3, 1957.

The stocky, 5-foot-9 manager played for the late Meyer in 1948, when the Pirates finished fourth and Meyer was acclaimed Manager of the Year. It was the only time in seven full seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies and the Pirates that Danny played on a first-division club. He played briefly for the Boston Braves in 1946.

Murtaugh started his managing career with New Orleans of the Southern Assn. in 1952.

He received 149 votes in the Associated Press poll of sportswriters and sports broadcasters. He became the first manager to be chosen in competition with managers of both leagues. Previously, the Associated Press poll selected one manager in each league.

Bill Rigney, of the third-place San Francisco Giants, was second to Murtaugh with six votes. Fred Haney of Milwaukee and Casey Stengel of the championship New York Yankees each collected five first-place nominations; Lopez received four, Jimmy Dykes, who finished the season at Cincinnati, Harry Craft at Kansas City and Joe Gordon, who completed the year at Cleveland, one each.

Northern Sophs 'Tied Up'

Pontiac Northern's sophomore football team hasn't won any games this year but by the same token it has lost only one.

The yearlings of the new high school under coach Ed Heikkinen played Royal Oak Dondero to a 6-6 tie, then Waterford also tied, 6-6 and yesterday it was 13-13 with Royal Oak Kimball.

Lone defeat was at Catholic Central 20-6.

Yesterday five fumbles led to the Kimball scoring. The northend Tribe scored on two long marches climaxed with a sneak by quarterback Bruce Norton and then a four yard plunge by halfback Bill Cox for the other.

Next Thursday, Northern sophs play at Melvindale and the following Wednesday at Grosse Pointe.

Big Switch in Hanging

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—Here's a switch:

H. B. Lee, director of athletics at Kansas State, was hanged in effigy Thursday — apparently by students angry over the athletic ticket situation at the college.

3 Points in Homecoming

Titans Made Favorites

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit was rated a surprise three-point edge over Arizona State for the Titans' homecoming game tomorrow.

While it's not the customary one-touchdown edge a home team enjoys, it's much better than the Titan followers would have hoped for before the season started.

The Sun Devils were expected to be Detroit's No. 1 foe of the year. And while Arizona State still could wipe out the Titans — remember, Detroit was favored over the Air Force — a few spots have shown up on the Sun Devils.

Arizona State, which led the country in rushing and scoring of two backs, went unbeaten in 10 games and was ranked 12th nationally last year.

★ ★ ★

Former Michigan State Spartan Frank Kush, in his first year as head coach after taking over for ex-Spartan Danny Devine, has a prime threat in Leon Burton who gained all-state honors at Flint Northern.

Kush benched stars Bob Hangartner, Tom Ford and Ken Kerr and promoted three sophomores to the first unit. It's doubtful that they'll remain on the bench long, especially if quarterback Jim Swanner can't move the club.

Hangartner, provided the aerial artistry for Burton's and Bobby Mulgado's explosive running last season by clicking off 1,203 yards and 14 touchdowns passing while hitting on 61 per cent of his tosses.

★ ★ ★

"We haven't been exactly flawless in our pass defense," Titan coach Wally Fromhart said. "I'm glad Joe Ikovich is back this week. We need him to protect on passes."

Ikovich, first string center, and regular fullback Vic Henning missed last week's Xavier game because of injuries.

Seek Regional Crown Saturday

Chiefs, Maples Favorites

A field of 13 Class A high school teams and 14 Class B entries has been set for the annual MHSAA 3rd regional cross-country run Saturday, at Farmington Country club.

Class A teams are led by Pontiac Central and Birmingham. Chiefs finished 2nd in the Saginaw Valley race, Maples are current Eastern Michigan champions and defending regional champs. Maples defeated Chiefs 24-35 in an early season event, but the PCH squad has made a great improvement since then. Dean Wilson's crew won its 2nd "perfect" match of the season, 15-50, over Edsel Ford this week, for its 5th victory.

Others that could make the "A" division a red-hot race are Redford Union, that beat Maples recently, to snap the suburban team's dual string at 28; Detroit Thurston and Walled Lake.

Class B defending titlist is Howell, again rated "team to beat."

★ ★ ★

Meets start at 10:30 for Class B, Class A going immediately afterwards.

Chiefs' runners will be Joe Anderson, Maurice Johnson, John Jefferson, Jim Peterson, Jim Nelson, Jim Patterson, Mike Taylor and Carl Adams.

Top three teams qualify for the state meet.

Here are the entries—Class A—Pontiac, Birmingham, Redford Union, Berkley, Walled Lake, Waterford, Farmington, Mt. Clemens, Oak Park, Plymouth, Port Huron, Thurston and Southfield. Class B—Clarenceville, Clawson, Davison, Lutheran-West, Detroit St. Joseph, Ecorse, Fenton, Grand Blanc, Howell, Marysville, Milford, River Rouge, Romulus and West Bloomfield.

Marquette Will Face Nation's Top Runner

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Marquette football Coach Johnny Druze sprinkled his conversation with ifs, but concluded that his Warriors "might come up with a pretty good homecoming" when they play College of the Pacific Saturday.

The biggest if is whether the Marquette defense can collar COP halfback Dick Bass, the nation's top collegiate ground gainer who has gained nine yards on every carry.

Big Deer Season Seen

LANSING (UPI) — With one of the biggest deer seasons in prospect this year, the conservation department has decided on a system to get vital information on a long-range plan for deer herd management.

★ ★ ★

Checking stations will operate at Drummond Island, Mackinac Straits, Standish, Sanford, Mount Pleasant, Morley, Brohman and Baldwin as in previous years to check the age, sex and physical development of deer.

Special checking stations will be operated on Beaver and Bois Blanc Islands and at several points throughout the state, blood samples will be taken from deer.

Richie Ashburn of the Phillies, 1958 National League batting champion, has led the league three times in most hits. He made 215 during 1958 and batted .350.

Penn State's longest touchdown run from scrimmage in 1957 was an eight-yard dash by halfback Dave Kasperian.

Two of Tom Fool's aptly-named sons are Dunce, owned by the Claiborne Farm, and The Joker, the property of Ogden Phipps.

Titans Among Top Gainers; 'M' and Big 10 Down

Major College Crowds Up

By The Associated Press

During the first half of the 1958 season, attendance at college football games has registered gains ranging from the moderate to the spectacular in all but four major conferences or groups.

The overall picture, as shown today in mid-season statistics gathered by The Associated Press, displays a comfortable gain of 3.33 per cent. The average major college game this year has been played before 25,063 spectators, an increase of 811 over the average for a comparable period last year.

★ ★ ★

Only in the mighty Big Ten, the Big Eight and Missouri Valley Conferences and in the Southern Conference has attendance declined. The dips haven't been great, ranging from 4.82 per cent in the Missouri Valley to 0.61 per cent in the Southern.

Biggest increase percentage-wise was registered in the Skyline Conference where crowds have been 16.24 per cent higher than last year. That's a matter of some 1,900 customers a game in an area that's rather sparsely populated.

Conversely, Big Ten crowds dropped more than 2,000 per game but in percentages it was only a 3.80 decline.

★ ★ ★

The mid-season statistics were based on 246 games played by 106 major colleges, as compared to 259 games by the same schools last year.

★ ★ ★

A number of apparently minor factors had their effect on sectional changes. For instance, the University of Detroit played its first three home games on Friday night this year, instead of Saturday afternoon, and the extra 22,000 fans who turned out produced a sharp increase in the average for a small group of midwestern independents.

The University of Wisconsin increased the capacity of Camp Randall Stadium and the larger turnouts there helped offset losses at Michigan, Illinois, Northwestern and Minnesota. Similarly a bigger stadium at Arizona State (Tempe) boosted the Border Conference figures.

★ ★ ★

Pittsburgh's crowds for the first two home games were about 5,000 under last year, when Oklahoma was the opening opponent. But the Army game tomorrow is expected to draw at least 52,000 and Notre Dame 68,000, which should put the Panthers ahead of last season.

★ ★ ★

Two non-conference institutions, Rutgers and College of Pacific, each with a winning record and an outstanding individual star, reported attendances for the first half almost as large as they drew during the entire 1957 season. Rutgers drew 30,000 for two home games and COP 85,000 for three.

Strikes and Spares

By Joe Wilman

If you want to discover your most frequent mistakes, keep an accurate record. Why not? Jot down each spare you miss, or each split you draw, or any other mistake you make. Then check back over the past three or four weeks' mistakes to see which occurred most frequently.

You may find, for instance, that you missed the 10-pin time after time. If so, get some practice, such as the bowler in today's illustration is getting.

It would also help to jot down the pins you leave on your first ball in each frame. If you consistently cross over and leave the 5-9, you should work on control to keep your ball on the right side of the headpin.

Another helpful tip is to keep your scores each week. Check to see if one game (first, second or third) is consistently lower than the others. You may learn that you run out of gas in the third game. Or, you may discover that your first game is usually your worst. If so, a little warm-up might be what you need.

Prep Front

By BILL CORNWELL

Comparing scores is the most common method of picking football winner for the average fan. It looks practical on paper, folks, but it just doesn't work that way.

Choosing a grid winner on the basis of comparative scores is the biggest fallacy practiced by living room analysts. Almost everyone uses this method at some time or another, but it never tells the whole truth.

Perfect examples of the comparative score fallacy can be found in Oakland County high school competition during the current season. Anybody who starts making comparisons will get dizzy and reach for the smelling salts.

If you really like to go around in circles, just begin matching results of area prep games in 1958. Come ahead, all you experts, and join yours truly on the mad merry-go-round while you read a few examples.

Flint Northern is heavily favored to whip Pontiac Central tonight at Wisner Stadium. Let's see if this role is justified on a comparative score basis.

Northern walloped Saginaw, 47-0. Pontiac barely managed to eke out a 13-12 victory over the same team. That makes Northern 46 points better than Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Now let's go around again. Grosse Pte. defeated Northern, 12-6; Royal Oak Dondero downed the Pointe, 12-0; Wyandotte shaded the Oaks, 7-6, and Pontiac rapped the Dottes, 40-13. That makes the Chiefs 46 points better than Northern. In other words, they should have a tie game.

Fitzgerald meets Madison this evening. Lake Orion trimmed Madison, 20-13, and lost to Fitzgerald, 25-13. Therefore, Fitzgerald is 19 points superior.

Madison bowed to Avondale, 28-13, and Avon edged Fitzgerald, 13-12. That makes Fitzgerald 14 superior. Clawson conquered Fitzgerald, 12-6, and fought to a scoreless tie with Madison. Now Madison is six points ahead of Fitzgerald.

★ ★ ★

Would you care to go another round. Okay. Clawson drubbed Orion, 40-12, and the Dragons disposed of Madison, 20-13. Therefore, Clawson should be 35 points better than Madison, but the two teams played a 0-0 deadlock.

As a parting shot, let's go one more round. Walled Lake ripped Southfield, 32-6, and Farmington slipped past the same team, 20-14. This makes Walled Lake 20 points superior. The two teams met last week and Farmington won, 14-7.

It's kind of crazy, mixed-up situation, isn't it? The simple truth is that the pigskin bounces differently from week to week. Some schools start slowly and gain momentum as the season progresses. Others begin fast and bog down. Another squad may be up one week and flat the next.

★ ★ ★

Cockeyed scoring cycles such as these can be found every season on both the prep and collegiate level. In short, comparative scores mean nothing.

ODDS AND ENDS

Country Day celebrates its first annual Homecoming today with the football team facing Grosse Pte. University School . . . Hartland, winless since 1954, snapped a 25-game losing streak last Friday with a 39-6 win over Pinckney.

Rough Ladder Scale for PCH

One could say Pontiac Central's football has to climb the ladder to success the hard way in the next four weeks judging from the opposition.

Tonight the Chiefs tangle with the state's 4th ranked class A team, Flint Northern at Wisner Stadium. Next week a new school in the "A" ranks, Melvindale, visits Wisner.

★ ★ ★

Then comes Bay City Central, the number one team in the state and finally Flint Central the number two team.

"We'll play them one at a time and hope to do our best each week, said coach Jesse MacLeay. "You can see where the toughest football lies in Michigan," he added, pointing to the fact that three Saginaw Valley teams are in the top four positions.

The Chiefs, whose ranks have been thinned by injuries, played their best game when all hands were in good health in the opener against Wyandotte.

★ ★ ★

Several players with banged up limbs will see action against the power-laden Vikings of coach Andy McDonald who have rolled to 88 points in the last two contests while holding the opposition to a mere six points.

MacLeay has been concentrating on tackling this week, hoping his linemen and backs can hit hard enough to pry the ball loose from the fast moving Flint Northern backs.

"We did some pretty good tackling in the Saginaw game last week, that's why they fumbled the ball so often," said MacLeay, "but we've got to hold that ball ourselves, because this Flint Northern team is one which will take advantage of every break."

★ ★ ★

After being on the road for three games, the Chiefs will welcome the home atmosphere.

"We've done well with a 4-1 record, but this home field might be the tonic we need for the big games coming up," said the PCH coach.

Rapid Jim Hode with a 13.0 average and big fullback Jim Penrod, a 200-pounder, carry the brunt of the Viking attack which is quarterbacked by Gene Csape.

Rams Favored for 5th SCL Win

Big Test for St. Mike

By H. GUY MOATS

From a look at the standings of the Suburban Catholic League gridiron race today, the coming weekend could aptly be entitled "crossroads day," for most all clubs but front-running St. Frederick, which stands all alone at the top of the heap with four straight victories.

★ ★ ★

Rams shoved their cross-town rivals from St. Michael's out of the title picture for the time being and were top-heavy favorites to add their 5th victory over an injury-weakened Royal Oak St. Mary club, on Madison High's field on John R between 10 and 11-Mile roads. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

Shamrocks have been told, "You'll have to win this one, or drop out of the picture." St. Michael tangles with an always tough St. Mary eleven, at Orchard Lake. Shamrocks are slight favorites, but they will have to go all out to stave off a determined, alert and capable Eaglet crew. Eaglets have given St. Benedict and top-listed Rams plenty of trouble, and can't be counted out Sunday.

In other SCL games St. Rita meets St. James, St. Benedict tackles an unpredictable St. Clement. If upsets by Clements, OLSM and St. James take place, there could be a 5-way "loop" of clubs with 3-2 standings.

★ ★ ★

There will be no changes in lineups for the Shamrocks and Eaglets from last week's starters. Neither club suffered in the way of injuries. Both were "up" for this game. Eaglets in hopes for an upset, St. Michael seeking a victory after last week's loss. Shamrocks won last year's game by one TD.

A similar situation exists for Gene Wright's Rams. All of last week's starters are ready but Wright has effected several switches, with return of big Frank Zwicker to his left tackle job.

★ ★ ★

Frank Palopoli who had been at tackle, will move to left guard, Norm Hoffman, who was at guard, has become No. 2 fullback, behind Jack Lyon. Other starters will include Pocs and Guibord at ends; either Yapo or Valenti at right tackle (Yapo twisted a knee in practice); Palopoli and Jere Dirker, guards; Cassidy, center; and backs, Jim Kennedy, Tom Derocher and Tom Nesbitt.

RO St. Mary probably has lost halfback Depree and quarterback Butash for this game, as a result of injuries suffered last weekend.

Shamrock starters will be—ends, Call and Pruente; tackles, Gallardo, Drake or Linseman; guards, Sonnenberg or Zugras, Palace or Lauinger; center, Williams; backs, Flynn, Dabbs, Bill Flanigan, Steinhelper.

Important League Tilts Tonight

By CHUCK ABAIR

Full league schedules on all fronts highlighted the prep football action today as area schools moved into the 6th week of play.

Only the Inter-Lakes and Wayne-Oakland champions appear to be settled thus far. It's anybody's guess how the rest will finish - especially the topsy turvy Oakland B.

Farmington should move another step towards the I-L crown at Berkley tonight by dropping the Bears out of contention. A Falcon triumph would leave Walled Lake the only remaining threat. The Vikings are strong favorites at Van Dyke. Waterford was a decided underdog at Southfield this afternoon in the other game.

If any team is to stop Northville's drive to a 3rd successive championship, it could be Brighton tonight. The Bulldogs are expected to provide the biggest test yet for the hard-running Mustang backs.

★ ★ ★

West Bloomfield attempts to stay in a position to at least tie by Clarkston on Homecoming night at Keego Harbor, Holly hosts improved Bloomfield Hills and faltering Milford invades Clarenceville in other loop play.

Avondale and Clawson currently share the Oakland B lead with 2-0 records. Both will be in jeopardy tonight in the well balanced loop. The Yellowjackets travel to Lake Orion while Clawson becomes the 1st team to play under Troy's new lights. Fitzgerald is at Madison completing the slate.

Birmingham is off to a good start towards beating out favored Port Huron for Eastern Michigan honors. The Maples face another stern test at home tonight against East Detroit as the Big Reds play host to Ferndale. Mt. Clemens is at Hazel Park in a meeting of cellar-dwellers.

★ ★ ★

Unbeaten Lapeer could virtually clinch the Tri-County duke by getting by defending champion Rochester at home tonight while Romeo hosts outsider Clintondale and L'Anse Creuse is idle.

Games in the South Central and Southern Thumb were to get a lot of attention today.

The SCC feature had Millington serving as Oxford's Homecoming guest in a contest that could make or break the Wildcats. Oxford is tied with idle Imlay City for the lead and needs to win this one since Imlay is its next opponent. Ortonville goes to North Branch seeking its 2nd win.

Almont figures to coast in to another Thumb crown if it can drop Brown City off its unbeaten perch. Capac goes to New Haven and Dryden is home against Memphis in other loop play. Armada has a non-loop tilt.

Country Day and Madison Lamphere played afternoon home tilts in the Central Suburban League with the Day gridders carrying hopes of being the first loop champion.

Other Friday area contests have South Lyon at Boysville and Utica at Fraser.

Tomorrow, Cranbrook plays its first home game of the season vs. Nichols of Buffalo, N. Y. The Cranes have lost four straight. Royal Oak Kimball has a Saturday home encounter against Taylor Center.

Pontiac Press Photo

FACES NO. BRANCH—Although he probably will not be doing any punting due to a leg injury, Ortonville's Pat McNulty is expected to handle the passing as the Blackhawks seek their 2nd win in six starts at North Branch tonight.

Viking Frosh Romp

The Walled Lake freshmen football team walloped Waterford Pierce 44-13 Wednesday for its 4th victory in five starts. Bill Burk, Gary Alderson, Bob Jones, Mike Hinkley, Pat Harrington and Jim Houston all scored touchdowns for the winners.

Hyde, Face, Top Relievers

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Hyde, a sophomore submarine specialist who helped seal 48 per cent of Washington's victories, and little Roy Face of Pittsburgh were the top relief pitchers in the major leagues in 1958.

★ ★ ★

Hyde, 30-year-old right-hander, won 10 games and saved 19 others for the last-place Senators. He had an earned run average of 1.75 for the last-place Senators. He had an earned run average of 1.75 for 103 innings. Washington had 61 victories.

Face saved 20 games for the Pirates, who finished a surprising second in the National League. The 5-8 right-hander also was credited with five relief triumphs. He wound up with an ERA of 2.89.

Ryne Duren, the bespectacled relief ace of the champion New York Yankees, produced 19 saves and won six games in a fine rookie season. Duren struck out 85 batters in 76 innings and compiled a 2.01 earned run mark.

Figures compiled by The Associated Press also disclosed today that Clem Labine of Los Angeles saved 14 games and Leo Kiely of the Boston Red Sox and Marv Grissom of San Francisco 12 each Grissom was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals earlier this month.

★ ★ ★

Dick Farrell, Philadelphia's fire balling right-hander, saved 11 games and won eight while losing nine. Don Elston of the Chicago Cubs also came up with 11 saves.

Elston pitched in 69 games. This was only five less than Jim Konstanty, who set a major league record with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1950.

Chicago Hawks Hit NHL Skids

Loss to Canadiens 3rd in Row, Drops Club Into Third Place

By The Associated Press

The honeymoon apparently is over for the Chicago Black Hawks.

After winning three and tying one of their first four games in the National Hockey League, the Hawks now have lost their last three and are in third place following a 9-1 setback last night at the hands of the pace setting Montreal Canadiens.

★ ★ ★

The Hawks could have moved into a tie for first with a victory but instead they fell back a notch as the Detroit Red Wings downed the Boston Bruins 3-1 in the only other game.

★ ★ ★

Chicago was in contention only for one period. Tod Sloan's goal gave them a 1-1 tie after 20 minutes of play. Then they faded rapidly as the powerful Canadiens swept through the Hawks' defense for three goals in the second period and five in the finale. Four of the last period goals came in three minutes and nine seconds of play.

Rookie Ralph Backstrom and veteran Jean Beliveau paced the Canadiens' attack with two goals each. Bernie Geoffrion came up with two assists to take over the league's scoring race on a total of nine points from three goals and six assists.

South Carolina Trips 10th Rated Clemson

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—South Carolina Coach Warren Giese was sitting in the driver's seat today after stream-rolling Clemson, 26-6, in the team's 56th State Fair football meeting yesterday.

★ ★ ★

"I think our boys showed the skeptics we are a good football team," Giese said of his players who marched 75 yards to tie up the game in the first half, then rolled through 90, 43 and 79 yards scoring marches to win in the second.

★ ★ ★

The loss pulled Clemson (3-1) off the Atlantic Coast Conference pinnacle, to be supplanted by Wake Forest (2-0), and probably cost the Tigers their 10th national ranking.

Army-Pitt in East; Iowa-Northwestern Highlighted

Big Weekend for Top Teams

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The handwriting is on the wall for those college football hot shots who think it may be an easy weekend.

Please refer to previously undefeated, and 10th ranked, Clemson, a 26-6 loser to South Carolina yesterday in their annual state fair game. Clemson also lost the Atlantic coast conference lead to Wake Forest, 2-0 in conference play. The Deacons meet North Carolina tomorrow. Clemson is 3-1 in the ACC.

The schedule, hitting the halfway point in most places, has a number of key conference games and enough non-conference battles between top teams to excite every fan.

The big Saturday game is at Pittsburgh where unbeaten and top ranked Army meets Pitt in a game regionally televised in the East. Pitt is a seven-point underdog but faces an Army squad minus starting fullback Harry Walters and whose star halfback Pete Dawkins is badly hobbled by a severe charley horse.

Thingrs are hopping in the big 10 where second ranked Ohio State, undefeated in four games, meets once beaten Wisconsin, while undefeated Northwestern (No. 8) plays ninth ranked Iowa (3-0-1). A victory for Northwestern and a loss by Ohio State would give the Wildcats a commanding 3-0 conference record.

The southwest has its key game when fourth rated Texas travels to Rice for a night game. Rice is 2-0 in the conference, tied with idle Texas Christian (No. 16), while Texas is undefeated in five games and 1-0 in conference play.

★ ★ ★

The midwest regional TV game has Purdue (No. 15) at Notre Dame (No. 11) in the Irish's homecoming day. Purdue upset Michigan State last week but Notre Dame is favored.

The Air Force Academy, among the top 20 teams, at No. 14, for the first time since its inception three years ago, meets aerial-minded Utah in the rockies' top game.

Seventeenth-ranked Georgia Tech, raring to go after tieing Auburn last week, invades Dallas' Cotton Bowl to play Southern Methodist. Navy (No. 18) travels to Philadelphia to meet Penn.

★ ★ ★

Mississippi State (No. 19) plays Alabama in an SEC game and Michigan State (No. 20) meet Illinois in the big 10.

Tonight, William & Mary, which upset North Carolina State 13-6 last week plays George Washington in the only major activity.

Southern California travels to west regional television game. In the midwest Minnesota goes to Michigan for the annual little little brown jug game.

Other major games tomorrow.

East: Miami (Fla.) at Boston College; Rhode Island at Brown; Columbia at Buffalo; Boston U. at Holy Cross; Rutgers at Lehigh; Syracuse at Penn State; Colgate at Yale; Richmond at Villanova.

South: North Carolina State at Duke; Kentucky at Georgia; Florida State at Tennessee; Virginia at Vanderbilt.

Midwest: Miami (Ohio) at Indiana; Tulane at Kansas; College o' Pacific at Marquette; Iowa State at Missouri; Oklahoma State at Cincinnati.

Southwest: Texas A&M at Baylor; Tulsa at North Texas State; Wichita at Hardin-Simmons.

War West: Oregon at California; Stanford at UCLA; Washington at Oregon State.

Detroit Boat 2nd in Standings

Miss U.S. I Wins Race

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Seven paltry points have deprived Miss U.S. I of the national hydroplane championship.

★ ★ ★

And, the way things were going for this waterborne rocket from Detroit, the end of the season may have come just in time for Miss Bardahl—the boat that had those few extra points.

★ ★ ★

Miss U. S. I scored her third straight victory yesterday, averaging 97.879 m.p.h. and flying home about a quarter of a mile ahead of Miss Bardahl in the 30-mile Sahara Cup race for unlimited hydroplanes on Lake Mead.

But Miss Bardahl's second-place finish was enough to bring her the championship in the American Power Boat Assn. standings, 2,075 to 2,069.

Maverick, another contender for the national title, conked out early in the race and caught fire. The driver wasn't injured.

Miss U.S. I came into the Sahara Cup trailing Miss Bardahl in the standings by 106 points. U.S. I got 400 points for winning here, but the 300 awarded Miss Bardahl for second place were enough to give the Seattle boat the championship.

Cardinal Bats Beat Japanese in Tour Opener

TOKYO (AP)—Second baseman Don Blasingame led the St. Louis Cardinals to a 5-2 win today over the Japan All-Stars in the opener of a 16-game tour of this baseball-mad nation.

★ ★ ★

The Cards, who finished fifth in the 1958 National League race, combed two Japanese hurlers for seven hits, three of them by Blasingame which were good for two runs in the third and fifth innings.

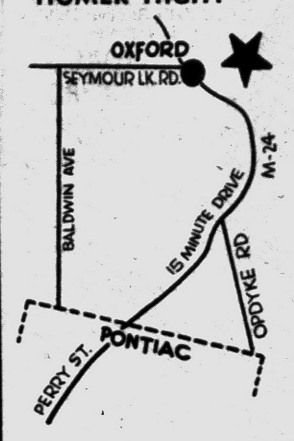

★ ★ ★

The game produced only two circuit clouts, both clubbed by Japanese players who got a total of six hits.

The game was watched by 25,000 at Tokyo's Korakuen Stadium.

Hollywood Headlines

David Wayne Takes Role Refused by Glenn Ford

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD — Hold the presses! David Wayne steps out of his Broadway show, "Say Darling," to play the role of Thrasher, the advertising executive in "The Last Angry Man." Never has a role been more discussed since Glenn Ford refused what Columbia considered a plum role.

Over the weekend Paul Muni, director Danny Mann, Joanna Moore and, of course, Freddie Kohlmar, the producer, take off for New York for the New York scenes. Betsy Palmer and Wayne will meet them in the big town, so now everybody is happy including Sam Briskin, who's worried his weight off putting this picture on the road.

★ ★ ★

Come early November, Jeff Morrow and five women take off for Texas. Wait a moment. They are in the cast of "Five Bold Women," all of them murderesses, and Jeff in his capacity as deputy sheriff in the movie takes them all to prison.

The gals who are already signed are Merry Anders, Kathy Marlowe and Irish McCalla. Two more will be added to the entourage before the cameras roll on Nov. 7.

★ ★ ★

While Alec Guinness was in town he discussed with Robert Andrews Hardy a script Bob has ready to go titled "Fire in The East," a story of St. Francis Xavier. Bob has spent much time in India and says that St. Francis converted 700,000 East Indians. Among them were the present Cardinal Gracias' ancestors.

The premiere of "Winesburg, Ohio" at the Theater of Arts brought out a distinguished dress-up audience invited by Jeffrey Hayden, the producer.

In the foyer where champagne was served between acts, I talked with Debbie Reynolds, Barbara Rush, Shirley MacLaine, Arlene Dahl, Fernando Lamas, Angela Lansbury, Carroll Baker and Jane Wyatt.

★ ★ ★

The Marlon Brando independent picture "One-Eyed Jacks" (horrible title) is expected to start Nov. 10 after months of preparation. Pina Pellicer, Mexican actress, makes her debut to American motion pictures opposite Marlon.

Novelist Jerome Weidman will present his best seller, "The Enemy Camp," as a Broadway play before he sells it to the movies.

Although too much hasn't been said about our movie stars taking part in the current political campaign, Clark Gable is more active than he has been in years and he is making frequent appearances in behalf of Goodwin Knight for the Senate.

At Ye Little Club, Gregg Sherwood Dodge and her ever lovin' husband, Horace Dodge, were celebrating their purchase of the Cord estate.

Represent Pontiac Area at Veterans Meeting

Several Pontiac area representatives were present at the recent business meeting in Bay City of the Michigan Department of Veterans of World War I.

Representing Pontiac Barracks No. 49 were Paul Boelter, commander, and his wife; Mrs. Otto Zander, auxiliary president; and Clarence Kitson, junior vice commander.

Past officers present from the local barracks were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Beach and Harry Middleton.

U.S., Canada Report Married Couples Gain

NEW YORK (UPI) — There are now 39,000,000 married couples in the United States, an increase of 37 per cent over 1940, according to statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

In Canada, the increase has been even more marked, they said, jumping 50 per cent between 1941 and 1956.

Wilson Now Member of Fashionable Jet Set

By EARL WILSON

PARIS—I'm in the Jet Set now.

Almost as quick as it takes me to get the phone when Slugger's using it, I flew from New York to Paris. One hundred of us made it on Pan-American's Boeing 707 in no longer than it takes me to see a Broadway opening, have supper and a nightcap.

WILSON

We zipped across the Atlantic at 615 miles an hour, making a stop in the Azores because of foul weather, and arrived nine hours after leaving New York.

You can fly to Paris now while you're waiting for your wife to get dressed to go to the corner.

The B. W.'s were not invited on this trip. It's the first time I've gone to Europe without my B.W. She urged me to go—because we're making a little history. It brought back Bob Hope's crack to Steve Allen on TV when Steve said he was going to Europe.

"Don't miss Paris," yelled Bob.

"I won't. Jayne's going with me," Steve answered.

"You'll miss it," groaned Bob.

Did I have a sleeper? Who needs a sleeper now?

We ate for 1,800 miles—three hours at 600 miles each. They had seven entrees to choose from. I'd had a snack in the kitchen before leaving, so I only got through five of them.

Yes, it really looks like those dreamers, the Wright Brothers, had something.

Back in 1945, it took me about 18 hours to "speed" from New York to San Francisco, and at the rate we crossed the Atlantic, it would now take about four hours.

"Why do you want to go so fast?" a woman in New York asked me before we left.

"It's not that I want to; I'm just trying to keep up with other people," I said.

Mother Can't Swim, Saves Baby Anyway

FENTON, Mo. (AP) — "I can't swim a stroke," Mrs. Norma Jean Harkins insisted. She must be mistaken.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Harkins, 20, who is expecting her third child in three months, saved her 18-month-old son, James Jr. from drowning in the treacherous Meramec River Thursday.

The baby fell off a boat dock near their home.

★ ★ ★

"I saw Jimmy floating about 25 feet from shore," the mother said. "I jumped in and went after him. I don't know how I got there and back—the water was over my head—but I brought him to the dock and a neighbor pulled us into a boat."

Potter Supports 'Porkies' Mine

Believes It's Solution to Economic Problem in Upper Peninsula

DETROIT (AP)— U.S. Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich) joined Paul D. Bagwell, Republican gubernatorial candidate, last night in backing a proposal to open Porcupine Mountains State Park to copper mining.

★ ★ ★

Replying to a question from the audience after debating Democratic Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, Potter said:

"The Upper Peninsula has economic problems, and I believe this project would help in the economic development of that area.

"It is only a small portion of the park that's involved. Too many people in Michigan, especially those in the Lower Peninsula, have a tendency to think we should keep the Upper Peninsula a wilderness."

Potter's home is in Cheboygan at the northern tip of the Lower Peninsula.

Hart, a Lansing man, took the same stand as his boss, Gov. Williams, saying he wanted to study a survey by state conservation experts before committing himself.

The Bear Creek Mining Co., a subsidiary of Kennecott Copper Corp., has asked the State Conservation Commission for a permit to explore for copper in 934 acres of the 58,000-acre Upper Peninsula park as well as a 5,000-acre area under adjoining Lake Superior.

★ ★ ★

Many conservative groups oppose the move on the ground it would despoil the state's last big wilderness area. Upper Peninsula groups generally have backed the idea.

Inmates Honor Judge for Better Living

CHELTENHAM, Md. (AP) — A judge was honored Thursday by inmates he had sent to Boys Village.

A dinner was held in his honor, he was presented with a lamp, and a cottage at the institution was named for him — Judge Charles E. Moylan of the Baltimore Juvenile Court.

It was a way of expressing appreciation for Judge Moylan's work in behalf of extensive improvements at the southern Maryalnd institution.

★ ★ ★

Old buildings which once housed dingy cells are gone or are being torn down.

Eight campus-like areas have replaced them. The cottages include a dormitory and private rooms for about 25 inmates.

Water, Sewer Chief Replaced Temporarily

Due to the ill health of Waterford Township's Superintendent of Water & Sewer Department Mr. Pearl Hull, the township board has named Kenneth Squires to replace Hull temporarily.

Squires will receive a wage established at $2.30 an hour and have a township car for use in emergencies, as acting superintendent for the department.

Petition on Tax of Singer MacRae in Federal Court

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Gordon Macrae's petition for a redetermination of his income tax was taken under submission Thursday by a federal court.

★ ★ ★

U.S. officials say Macrae took part in a million-dollar tax reducing scheme. He asks a ruling on whether he must pay a $135,000 levy.

★ ★ ★

The singer testified he borrowed money at 2½ per cent interest from a New York firm, then invested it in Treasury and farm bank notes paying 1⅜ per cent interest. His lawyer said Macrae claimed the interest paid the New York concern as a tax deduction, which put him into a lower tax bracket. Macrae sold the bonds at a profit and claimed the profit as capital gains, the attorney said.

Newlyweds Escape Church in Ambulance

ORANGE, Tex. (AP) — Friends of newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright prepared to greet the young couple with the traditionally painted car, with old shoes and noise makers attached, but were foiled in their attempt.

★ ★ ★

As the couple came out of the church, up whizzed an ambulance, siren blaring, and whisked them into nearby Louisiana, where a car was waiting for them.

Chiang Kai-shek the Loser in Conference With Dulles

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a little something for everybody in what happened on Formosa between Chiang Kai-shek and Secretary of State Dulles.

The Red Chinese can claim a psychological victory, Dulles can claim to have soothed world fears and Chiang can claim renewed American support.

★ ★ ★

But in this writer's view Chiang came out a real loser and the United States moved closer to recognizing two Chinas.

Chiang has talked of recapturing all China ever since the Communists drove him to Formosa from the mainland in 1949. It's been empty talk, so much so that Chiang needed U.S. help even to defend what he already held.

He couldn't go any place without big American support. But his talk kept alive the hopes of his Nationalists on Formosa and non-Communist overseas Chinese.

★ ★ ★

Then last August the Communists began shelling Quemoy, held by Chiang's men close to the mainland, although Formosa is 100 miles away.

The Eisenhower administration backed Chiang's continued occupation of Quemoy and his defense of it.

Many worried Americans and American allies, fearing United States involvement and then perhaps world war, questioned the administration's wisdom.

They raised this question: Is Quemoy, right in Red China's back yard and so far from Formosa, really necessary to the latter's defense?

Dulles on Sept. 30 indicated a shift in policy. He offered to try to trim Chiang's military forces on Quemoy if the Reds quit shelling it; said Chiang was foolish to put so many of his troops there; and gave a terrible setback to any hopes the Nationalists had to returning to the mainland.

He said: "I don't think that just by their own steam they are going to get there." This shook Chiang. He implied his forces would not attack China except in self-defense. Yet, this was not a full renunciation of force.

★ ★ ★

But as a result of his agitation Dulles went to Formosa to talk to him. After their conference a communique was issued Thursday. In it Chiang publicly ruled out force as the main means of returning to the mainland.

He held out, instead, the hope that nationalism, democracy, and social well-being would do the trick. This seemed to say his only hope of going back was an internal collapse or profound change in the Red regime. Neither is in sight.

★ ★ ★

The communique, to put it another way, can be interpreted as saying Chiang is reconciled to abandoning all hope of returning to China unless a miracle happens.

This can hardly boost the morale of his Nationalists on China. If they get dispirited, he may be in for trouble.

The Red Chinese can claim this as a psychological victory, because Dulles wouldn't have gone to Formosa and the communique wouldn't have been issued if the Communists hadn't created crisis and raised world fears by shelling Quemoy.

★ ★ ★

At the same time it was reliably reported on Formosa that Dulles had persuaded Chiang to reduce his Quemoy forces if the Reds quit shooting.

Dulles can claim that this and his statement made public Thursday—that this country is not going to attack or tolerate attacks against the Chinese Communists—reassure Americans and American allies against fear of war over Quemoy.

At the same time it was reported at Taipei that Dulles promised Chiang this country would provide him with modern weapons to replace any military strength he relinquished by reducing his forces on Quemoy.

★ ★ ★

Dulles also pledged this country would resist any attack by the Chinese Reds lest it weaken Western defense lines. From these promises Chiang can claim renewed American support for the defense of Formosa.

But this country has steadfastly refused to recognize the Red Chinese as the lawful government of all China, insisting Chiang's regime on Formosa is the lawful government of China. Thursday's communique substantially reiterated this stand.

★ ★ ★

This is the administration's one-China policy. But it will have difficulty persisting in this policy now that Chiang has practically abandoned all hope of returning to the mainland except through profound internal change of collapse.

8-Inch Shells Explode on Train in Colorado

RIFLE, Colo. (AP) — A freight car filled with deadly eight-inch howitzer shells blew up in Debeque Canyon several miles west of here Thursday. The explosion was heard for miles.

★ ★ ★

A Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad spokesman said the blast was caused by sparks from a broken journal.

★ ★ ★

No one was injured on the 68-car train. Some unexploded shells were scattered along the track, and streamliners were delayed until late afternoon. A four-man demolition team from the Rocky Mountain Arsenal near Denver went to the explosion scene to remove unexploded shells.

Trucker Cuts Off His Own Arm

Performs Amputation With Penknife While Pinned in Wreckage

CELINA, Ohio (AP) — A Missouri truck driver borrowed a pen knife and cut off his badly mangled left arm while it was pinned in the wreckage of his truck Thursday night.

Richard Wulfert, 27, of Ballwin, Mo., was reported in fair condition today in St. Rita's Hospital at Lima following the amputation.

Doctors said they do not know now if they will have to amputate his right leg, which also was mangled.

Mercer County Coroner Dr. Donald Fox said Wulfert told him he fell asleep while driving a load of television sets from St. Louis to New York City for Trans-America Truck Lines, St. Louis.

His truck hit a bridge abutment on Ohio 29, six miles west of Celina, and the trailer came to rest on top of the cab.

Wulfert's arm was pinned to the wreckage, and the bone, which was broken, pinched the main artery and kept him from bleeding to death.

Several other truckers came to his aid but were unable to free the arm. One gave Wulfert a pocket knife and the injured driver cut off what was left of the mangled limb.

The arm was amputated at the shoulder, hospital officials said.

Federal Reserve Ups Discount Rate Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new increase in the Federal Reserve System's discount rate goes into effect today. Financial circles doubt it will have any major impact on other interest charges.

The Federal Reserve Board announced late Thursday that the discount rate would be increased to 2½ per cent in 5 of the 12 reserve districts — Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Richmond, St. Louis and Dallas. Other districts will maintain the old 2 per cent rate for a time but are expected to adopt the increase later.

* * *

A hike in the discount, or interest charged when member banks borrow money from the reserve system, usually is intended to tighten credit and fight inflation.

A board spokesman indicated this latest increase—the second in about two months—was based on another consideration: a desire by the board to bring the rate closer into line with other short-term interest charges.

West Bloomfield Man Gets Parole

Morrison T. Wade, West Bloomfield Township man sent to prison in 1954 for swindling $752,000 in a charity racket, will be paroled next month.

The State Parole Board said Wade, 57, of 3402 Wards Point Dr., will leave Jackson Prison Nov. 23 after having served nearly four years of a 4-to-10 year term.

Wade was convicted after a 102-day trial in Wayne County Circuit Court on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the public in his Society of Good Neighbors. He was found guilty of having accepted charitable donations of clothing and furniture, which he later sold.

Trucking Firms Won't Pay Tax

Ohio Board of Appeals Rules Out Road Levy on Michigan Outfits

The Ohio Board of Tax Appeals today dismissed eight old axle-mile assessments against seven Michigan truck firms, two of them from Pontiac.

The Board noted that the assessments, totaling about $37,000, covered a period when Ohio and Michigan had a reciprocity agreement that provided exemption.

The two Pontiac companies and assessments involved in the ruling are the Motorcar Transport Co., 290 E. Tennyson Ave., $520; and the Contract Cartage Co., 353 Madison Ave., $4,545.

The tax is a levy on trucks with two or more axles. The one-half to 2½-cent per mile levy is for the truck's use of Ohio highways.

Other Michigan companies and assessments affected by today's ruling are:

Steel Trucking, Inc., Dearborn, $8,262; E. & L. Transport, Inc., of Indiana, Dearborn, two assessments; $7,247 and $11,295; Complete Auto Transport, Inc., Detroit, $754; Gray Transport, Inc., Detroit, $49; and Steel Trucking, Inc., Dearborn, $4,953.

Grain Futures Steady to Easy

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures were steady to easier in early transactions on the board of trade today.

* * *

Wheat held around previous closes in a light mixed trade. Reports that Formosa had purchased 1,800,000 bushels of hard and white wheat helped steady the bread grain.

Soybeans dipped lower, extending yesterday's decline. Prices for all deliveries dropped to new lows for the season for the second consecutive day. Israel bought around 750,000 bushels of soybeans for December and January shipment from the Gulf.

* * *

Corn was easier also with the trade light and mixed. Reports that between 400 and 500 cars of corn were expected in Chicago Monday added to an already bearish feed situation.

* * *

Rye moved up fractions, but oats eased along with grains.

Near the end of the first hour, wheat was unchanged to ¼ higher, Dec. $1.93¾; corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, old style Dec. $1.09⅞; oats unchanged to ⅝ lower, Dec. 64; rye ⅜ to ⅝ higher, Dec. $1.30¼; and soybean ¼ to ½ lower, Nov. $2.10⅞.

Stocks Moving Up After Lapse

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks shrugged off initial easiness and moved higher early this afternoon. There still were a number of losers.

A majority of key issues gained fractions to a point but in a few instances gains extended beyond that. Steels, rails and aircrafts were among the better acting groups.

Trading expanded a bit from yesterday. The ticker ran behind floor transactions briefly at the opening and then again at midmorning, when a mild buying flurry pushed up prices.

Selling at the start was attributed in part to a hike in the discount rate by five federal reserve banks. This selling never was very urgent and quickly dried up.

Some of the high-flying issues of yesterday continued to move ahead. Schenley gained nearly 2 points, celebrating four extra stock dividends. Servel gained ¼ after a 10,000 share block crossed the tape at 10, up ⅛.

Northern Pacific, which also had an extra dividend yesterday, rose more than a point. Great Northern, which is discussing a merger with Northern Pacific, ran up a point. New York Central was up more than a point and Baltimore & Ohio almost a point.

Have You Got Room for a Hippopotamus?

NEW YORK (AP)—Have room for a hippopotamus?

The city has a surplus one — 2 years old, healthy, happy, and with a gentle disposition.

The hippo, a male, was put up for sale by the city's Department of Purchase. Also declared surplus at Central Park and Prospect Park zoos were two elk, four deer and four llamas.

Oh yes, the hippo—born in Central Park — weighs 1,000 pounds and is a vegetarian.

UAW Demands Reasons for Unsettled Walkouts

DETROIT (AP) — Leaders of some United Auto Workers locals still on strike against General Motors have been ordered to explain in person tonight why the walkouts have not been settled.

Presidents and bargaining committee chairmen of striking locals which have not scheduled ratification meetings on local agreements for Sunday or earlier were directed to appear before the UAW's International executive board at a special session in Detroit (at 8 p.m. EST.)

The Union said they would be asked to present the unresolved issues they believe justify continuation of the strikes.

Unresolved local issues at 14 of GM's 126 plants have kept about 25,000 workers idle, more than three weeks after a national settlement was reached.

The union said that since operation of many of the struck plants is necessary to achieve full production at GM, "continuation of the stoppages could shortly affect tens of thousands of employes now working in plants where all local issues have been settled.

As the union attempted to settle the last of the GM disputes, it also announced that its Chrysler membership had voted overwhelmingly to accept the three-year contract recently negotiated with the company.

The UAW said production workers voted 81 per cent in favor of the agreement, while 70 per cent of the skilled workers supported it.

The Chrysler Corp., meantime, joined Ford in reporting multi-million-dollar losses so far this year. The company said it has lost $45,200,000 through September, including $20,000,000 in the past three months.

* * *

Ford has reported a third quarter loss of $21,600,000 and an overall nine-month deficit of $16,200,000.

General Motors, which has not yet issued its nine-month report, reported a profit in the first two quarters.

Chrysler reported one strike slowing production. About half the work force at a Detroit forge plant stayed off the job in protest against disciplinary action taken against two union representatives. The plant employs about 1,000.

GM said local agreements with six more bargaining units have been reached, bringing to 110 the number of settlements covering 249,512 of GM's 275,000 UAW employes.

New settlements involved 1,200 at a Fisher Body plant at Flint, 1,324 at a Chevrolet plant at Kansas City, 1,649 at a Chevrolet plant at Indianapolis, 1,100 at a Fisher Body plant at Kansas City, 365 at a Chevrolet parts warehouse at St. Louis, and 300 at a Delco-Remy plant at Olathe, Kan.

The management of General Motors Corp.'s Euclid (Ohio) division and the Independent Road Machinery Workers Alliance have reached agreement on a new three-year contract covering 800 production workers, the company announced today.

Chrysler's Net Loss Over $45 Million

DETROIT (UPI) — Chrysler Corp., hard-hit by the recession and lagging auto sales, reported yesterday a nine-month net loss of more than 45 million dollars.

Chrysler President L. L. Colbert blamed the loss on "the low level of automobile demand generally as well as the reduced third quarter production due to the pattern of model changeover in the industry this year."

The deficit of $45,200,000 was the worst nine month loss in the company's history. It compared with net earnings of $103,600,000 for the same period in 1957.

Chrysler's dollar sales for the first nine months of 1958 were $1,486,000, compared with $2,745,000,000 last year.

Nevertheless, the company's board of directors declared a dividend of 25 cents a share on common stock, payable Dec. 12 to stockholders of record Nov. 20.

Guided Missiles Utilize Sapphires Made Artificially

DETROIT — Sapphires made by melting aluminum oxide mixed with a metallic oxide for coloring are finding many applications in industrial and medical equipment, guided missiles, and watches.

Clear white sapphires up to five inches in diameter have been produced. Differences between the natural and synthetic gems are hard to detect.

The sapphire's chief contribution to science is expected to be its ability to transmit heat rays. These are given off by any warm object, and equipment with sapphire settings can measure, analyze, and act on these rays—such as by guiding missiles to their target by "homing" on an enemy plane's engines.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF HERbert Bell, husband and father who passed away October 24, 1945.
At twilight when eventide draws near
And sunset flames the sky,
We think of you dear father and,
The happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting back
Within our dreams to stay.
To know that you are resting,
When twilight ends the day.
Sadly missed by wife and children,
Mrs. Herbert Bell, Azel and Harold.

IN MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED son, John E. Cline, who died 5 years ago today.
There is a home not made by hands,
Beyond it's golden door;
Awaits the son who is now away,
Not lost just gone before.
And in that home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us and when he calls
We'll meet our loved son there.
Forever in our hearts, Mom and Pop.

Noted Lawyer to Star on TV

Joseph Welch Picked for Cross-Examination of Society on Sunday

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Many television viewers feel that the dawning of the new season looks more like the sunset of distinguished programming, so many good programs have been dropped in recent months.

But "Omnibus," generally credited with inspiring these and other similar programs, will be back.

On Sunday, over NBC-TV, it will present its first of the season, an examination of capital punishment conducted by the noted Boston lawyer, Joseph N. Welch, and written by James Lee, the author of last season's "Life of Samuel Johnson."

Reduced to an hour from its previous 90 minutes, "Omnibus" will be seen on alternate Sundays for a run of 15 programs.

★ ★ ★

"Omnibus," although the only survivor of its kind, is far from being an emanciated castaway. In fact, its producer, Robert Saudek Associates, is quietly prospering in a season when many TV proruction firms are noisily starving.

Saudek, a quietly genial and sapient veteran of television, cannot be induced to pat himself on the back.

If you ask "How do you manage to swim so well against the present programming current when many can't even swim with it?" he smilingly replies, "The analogy is yours, not mine."

But he is most articulate about what he finds are the basic elements of distinguished TV.

"The first criterion when you want to do something on television is to ask yourself why you want to do it.

A sense of progression is the secret of a good program; you must know more when it's ended than when it began. That's the cake, and showmanship is only the icing on it. Of course the icing is essential too.

Inoculate Every Child for Polio Detroit Goal

DETROIT (AP)—Health authorities said today that a drive to inoculate every Detroit child against polio will get under way in a month.

Dr. C. P. Anderson, deputy health commissioner, said children able to pay will be asked to give $1 a shot but those unable to pay would get them free.

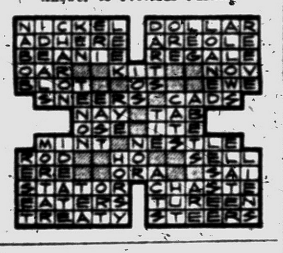

Two new polio cases were reported in Detroit Thursday to bring the total for the year to 611 with 20 deaths, compared with 175 cases and two deaths last year. Wayne County, outside Detroit, had four new cases for a total of 192 compared with 74 cases and one death in 1957.

Police Fear Riot So Elvis Presley Held Backstage

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI)—American rock 'n' roll star Elvis Presley did everything but walk out on the stage last night. Police held him back fearing a riot.

Presley turned up unexpectedly at the premier performance in a movie house here of rock 'n' roller Bill Haley, who was opening an 11-performance tour of Germany.

Elvis whistled, hummed, stamped his feet and even did a few of the gyrations which have become his trademark—but all in the wings. The audience never saw him.

Police, fearing an unexpected appearance by Presley would start a riot among the packed teenaged audience, asked him to let Haley take all of the limelight.

Presley graciously, but reluctantly consented, and left the theater immediately after Haley's performance. He is stationed near here with the U.S. 3rd Armored Division.

Two Billion Tons Available

Says State Needs Funds for Research on Iron Ore

MARQUETTE (AP)—Michigan has two billion tons of low-grade iron bearing formations in the Upper Peninsula, but needs public funds to solve research problems, says J. R. Van Pelt, president of Michigan Tech.

The educator said the state will lag as a mineral producer if no funds are made available for research in the mining industry.

★ ★ ★

Van Pelt spoke at the annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau in Marquette last night.

"Minerals are a major factor in Michigan's economy," he said, "but we invest far too little of our public funds to solve production problems."

Van Pelt said the annual value of the state's mineral products is almost a half billion dollars, but that the state puts only about $89,000 per year in programs to develop new aspects of the industry.

Michigan's immense mineral reserves include two billion tons of iron bearing jaspelites, Van Pelt said. "The iron is there, but it is unuseable and worthless until we find a way to mine and treat it at a competitive cost."

He said that Minnesota, now the nation's top producer of iron-ore, faced the same problem a few years ago. Twenty-five years of research cost the state several millions of dollars, he said, but as a result Minnesota developed its great taconite mines that repaid the state's investment many times over.

"Here in Michigan an investment of a quarter million a year for the next few years promises to produce a similar development from our own low-grade iron ores," said Van Pelt.

"It would net the state millions of dollars in tax revenue, create new jobs for thousands of workers, and encourage the investment of hundreds of millions in industrial development," he added.

His Dog All but Says: Here's Your Bird, Boss

LANSING (AP)—Robert Huff says his dog pointed grouse six times during a recent hunting trip.

Huff missed his shot every time.

After the sixth miss the dog disappeared and returned with a live grouse in his mouth.

"Apparently," says Huff, "He was trying to show me what one looked like close up."

Navy Evacuates 55 Americans

Women, Children Being Removed From Cuban Area of Kidnapings

HAVANA (AP) — A U.S. Navy transport sails from Guantanamo Bay today to evacuate about 55 American women and children from an area of eastern Cuba controlled by Fidel Castro's rebels.

The State Department ordered the evacuation. One official said, "We're damned sick and tired of having Americans kidnaped."

★ ★ ★

The 55 dependents will be removed from Nicaro, where about 25 American men work at a nickel plant owned by the U.S. government. The general manager of the plant and his assistant were among 50 Americans and Canadians kidnaped by rebels last June and later freed unharmed.

The rebels kidnaped two more American men and even Cubans Monday from a Texaco refinery near Santiago, capital of Oriente province. They were released Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The 100-million-dollar plant, which is run by a Cuban company, reportedly has been harassed by rebels recently and telephone connections to it have been cut. Cuban army troops have been pulled out of the area. The State Department said there were no plans to leave U.S. Navy or Marine guards at the plant.

This is the first evacuation in Cuba ordered by Washington.

The embassy said no further evacuations were contemplated but standby preparations could be put into effect whenever it was deemed necessary. There are 12,000 Americans in Cuba, about 2,400 of them in Oriente province.

Meanwhile, officials of Cubana Airlines said they assumed—but had no evidence—that a DC3 airliner missing since Wednesday with 14 persons aboard had been commandeered by rebel passengers and forced to land at a rebel field.

Nixon Heading for Wisconsin; Dems Score Ike's Leadership

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vice President Nixon shifts his campaign for a Republican Congress to Wisconsin today amid renewed Democratic charges that President Eisenhower has shirked leadership in the school integration controversy.

Nixon prepared to leave New York after a breakfast meeting with Nelson Rockefeller, Republican candidate for New York's governorship.

Ignoring a snub by Rockefeller earlier Thursday night, Nixon went out of his way in a television talk to praise Rockefeller as an able administrator who offers New York "dynamic leadership."

Rockefeller's bid for liberal support in his close race with Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman has caused him to regard Nixon's New York campaigning as something of a liability. He wouldn't attend a dinner with the Vice President but went instead to another meeting.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, former President Harry S. Truman accused Eisenhower of sidestepping a "moral responsibility" to back up the Supreme Court's school integration ruling.

The result, Truman told a Democrat fund-raising dinner in Boston, was a wave of violence by "crackpots and extremists."

"For three years," Truman said "the administration stood aside, while the opposition in some parts of the country gathered its strength.

★ ★ ★

"Only when there was outright defiance of the courts by a sovereign state did the President move into action. That was too late. The opposition to law had solidified and the poison of hate had already spread."

Truman, winding up his national campaigning for Democratic congressional and gubernatorial candidates in the Nov. 4 elections, sidestepped a news conference question earlier on the controversy surrounding Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler.

Butler has been under fire from some Southern Democrats for his strong civil rights stand. Asked if he regarded Butler as a good chairman, Truman declined to go further than saying Butler "has worked very, very hard."

Butler, meanwhile, complained that he is being "clobbered by the Republicans and Smathered by the Democrats."

"Sometimes I wonder whether we are going to last during these closing weeks of the campaign," he told a Democratic rally at Bethesda, Md.

That was a reference to criticism from Southern Democrats, particularly Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla), who has suggested Butler quit talking so much during the campaign about party differences over civil rights.

In his speech, Butler also hit out again at Eisenhower's new campaign tactic of labeling Democrats as radical. He called Eisenhower's oratory "unpleasant and pitiful" and a "capitulation to the ugly tactics of Mr. Nixon."

In a New York talk, Nixon struck anew at "radicals" in predicting a GOP victory in the New York elections.

Although he didn't mention Democrats, he left no doubt of his target in declaring:

"The reactionaries of today are the radicals who seek bigger and bigger government, so that they can spend and spend, and elect and elect. The liberals of today are those conservatives who seek to restore power and initiative to the people where they belong."

In a similar vein, Secretary of Commerce Weeks told a Republican meeting at Clearleston, W. Va.:

"All-time record prosperity again is within our reach. Don't let radical Democrat politicians snatch it away."

Says World Needs 'Give-a-Damn Pill'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Americans are taking too many "don't-give-a-damn pills," a noted psychiatrist says.

★ ★ ★

"What the world needs is some 'do give-a-damn pills'," adds Dr. William Menninger.

He is general secretary of the Menninger Foundation in Topeka, Kan.

★ ★ ★

"Hate and man's selfishness are the major problems confronting the world," Dr. Menninger said in an interview. "The answers may lie in a deeper religious faith and in more concern for our neighbors. Psychiatry is not the whole answer."

Man Succumbs, Wife Dies Minutes Later

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs were giving a dinner party for their daughter and son-in-law.

During the meal, Jacobs suffered a heart attack and died.

"I want to go too. I can't live without him," his wife sobbed as her daughter tried to comfort her. Then Mrs. Jacobs collapsed and within minutes, she was dead.

The couple, both 70, had been married 47 years.

Men Make 2nd Try at Endurance Flight

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Two men have begun their second attempt to stay aloft two months in a light plane.

★ ★ ★

Robert Timm, 33, a Las Vegas hotel employe, and Charles Kaskela, 32, an Anaheim, Calif., aircraft worker, took off Thursday. They want to break the 50-day endurance record for single-engine planes.

A previous try this month ended after 18 hours because of carburetor trouble.

Three seats have been removed from the Cessna 172 to provide a sleeping area behind the front seat. The fliers plan to refuel by flying low, dropping a hook and picking up a fuel hose from a truck speeding along an airport runway.

Home craftsmen and do-it-yourself addicts buy $200 million power tools a year at present rates, as compared with a volume of $25 million a year in 1947.

Side Road Pulls Sneaker

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho (AP) —"I always try to use the side roads so I can miss heavy traffic," said Grover Beal, 70. He was one of seven people slightly injured in a two-car collision near here.

Boy Sneaks Out on Nap; Found but Not Missed

KANSAS CITY (AP)—John Mulcahy is 4 years old, takes a nap after lunch and his name is pronounced the Gaellic way: Sean (or Shawn).

While he was supposed to be napping in his upstairs room, he slipped into the garage and fell asleep in the back of his father's station wagon.

He woke u several hours later in a dimly lighted downtown garage. He told attendants his name, but Shawn is the kind of name that gets by you if you're not waiting for it.

★ ★ ★

Attendants finally found the name Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mulcahy in the car and called John's mother.

"Oh, it can't be my ittle boy," she said. "He's upstairs asleep."

Turned out he wasn't.

Because his father was at work —that how John got downtown in the first place—police were called. They took him home.

Man Brags of Catching World's Tiniest Tarpon

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Most fishermen brag about the big fish they catch.

But Hal Roche believes he caught the world's smallest tarpon. The fish was 4¼ inches long and weighed three ounces.

Local sportsmen said they could not remember a tarpon that small being caught on a line before. Most are measured in feet.

Roche said he was going to have the fish mounted.

Canada's rivers now produce 15 million horsepower which is more per capita than in any country of the world except Norway.
