UAW Members Weigh Strike End

Maryland Troopers Bring Halt to Rioting by Prison Inmates

JESSUP, Md. (AP)—Defiant inmates at the Maryland House of Correction rioted last night but ended their rampage when 100 state police herded them back into their cells.

The prisoners jammed locks, burned clothes, mattresses and blankets, drenched ceilings below by ripping out plumbing, and threw furniture and debris from their four-tiered cell houses.

Vernon L. Pepersack, state commissioner of correction, estimated the damage at $50,000 but said it might be greater.

Four inmates suffered minor head injuries from objects dropped or thrown from tiers above. They were treated at the prison infirmary.

Lt. Col. George Davidson, chief of operations of the Maryland State Police, led the troopers into the two cell houses and a dormitory where about half the 1,783 inmates ran loose. Pepersack estimated that only 200 inmates had been involved in the most serious part of the rioting.

GUARDS RESCUED

A dozen guards who had barricaded themselves in cells when the rioting started were rescued by the troopers, who wore steel helmets, carried long riot sticks and shotguns.

The rioting started when an inmate became disorderly during the first feeding at dinner. He punched a guard and was removed.

"There was a rumble at the time," Pepersack said, "but we got the men quieted down, and they returned to their cells."

★ ★ ★

POLICE DOGS

The troopers took police dogs with them into the cell houses.

"The dogs, clubs and gas were never used," said Davidson. "It was a show of force, and we made an impression on the prisoners. We had it if we needed it. Our first objective was to find the hostages."

Hubert Says U.S. Gains Are Being Tested

Urges Repudiation of 'Exponent of Past' in His Visit to Michigan

DETROIT (AP)—Democratic vice presidential candidate Hubert H. Humphrey called today for a repudiation of "the exponent of the past who does not even understand that past."

Humphrey, helping out the Michigan Democratic campaign, told some 300 well-wishers at Metropolitan Airport that "in this final 10-day period of the campaign, the social and economic gains of the past 30 years—which have the support and respect of both Democrats and Republicans — are being tested."

The question, he said, is "whether we will build on a platform of progress or repudiate it."

Humphrey attacked Barry Goldwater, Republican presidential candidate, without mentioning him by name.

★ ★ ★

CAMPAIGN SWING

He was due to make a campaign swing through shopping centers in Southfield and Taylor Township and to speak at a rally in Hamtramck.

Michigan's two top Democratic candidates, U.S. Sen. Philip Hart and Rep. Neil Staebler, the gubernatorial nominee, were to accompany Humphrey on the Detroit-area tour.

As the Democrats started their brief campaign swing, Gov. Romney was busy sweeping across Michigan's Upper Peninsula, predicting economic rejuvenation for the area and saying it has already improved.

Romney left Traverse City on a seven-stop airborne tour touching down at Menominee, Iron Mountain, Escanaba, Sault Ste. Marie, Cheboygan and Alpena.

Soviet Aide Reported on China Peace Trip

MOSCOW (AP) — Mikhail Suslov dropped out of sight yesterday and there was immediate speculation the Soviet Union's top Communist theoretician was heading a peace mission to Peking.

But there was no confirmation of reports among diplomats that Cuslov, 61, had gone calling on Mao Tze-tung.

Suslov has not appeared to be in good health lately, and some sources suggested his absence from the Red Square funeral of Marshal Sergei S. Birvuzov might be due to illness. Birvuzov, chief of staff and deputy defense minister, was killed in a Yougoslav air crash.

Suslov, a tall, solemn-featured man who has also built a reputation as a Kremlin hatchet man presided at last week's meeting of the Soviet party's Central Committee at which Nikita Khrushchev's fate was decided.

Now publicly ranked No. 4 behind new Party First Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and President Anastas I. Mikoyan, Suslov is called the real power in the new Kremlin lineup by some observers.

★ ★ ★

His background and role as the Kremlin's top expert on the bitter Soviet-Red China dispute would make him a logical choice for a Russian move toward smoothing over relations with the Peking regime.

HEADED TEAM

Suslov headed a team that discussed Communist ideological problems — chiefly Peking's hard line vs. Khrushchev's advocacy of coexistence with the West — with a Chinese delegation in Moscow in the summer of 1963.

The talks broke down and the word war between the Red giants branched out into a dispute over frontier territory.

Khrushchev's ouster may have been the signal for resumption of talks, since Peking's attacks had been directed primarily at Khrushchev personally.

Suslov, called the red professor, is said to have conducted purges for Joseph Stalin in the thirties. Susloy got the job of reestablishing Soviet authority in Lithuania when the Germans pulled back in 1944.

Unrest Mounts Over K Ouster

W. Europe Reds Send Delegations to Russia

PARIS (AP) — Western Europe's two biggest Communist parties, dissatisfied with explanations of Nikita Khrushchev's ouster, are sending delegations to the Soviet Union to learn more about last week's Kremlin shake-up.

★ ★ ★

The mounting unrest over what happened to the former Soviet leader has spread to Cuba, where, top party leaders are whispering that the Soviets should set the record straight.

The French Communist party, second largest in the West behind Italy's, sends a three-man delegation to Moscow today.

It is one of several that will visit the Soviet capital on behalf of European Communist parties sympathetic to Khrushchev and dismayed over his ouster.

★ ★ ★

The Italian Communist party has also said its representatives would meet soon with the Soviet party's Central Committee, which voted Khrushchev out of office.

TO SEND DELEGATION

The small Austrian Communist party announced in Vienna Friday that it would send a delegation to Moscow Monday.

The party criticized the new leadership for the "sparse and unsatisfactory" information regarding the change.

In Havana, members of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government began passing the word privately yesterday that they want a full explanation too.

Ex-Envoy Charges LBJ Cuba Cover-Up

A former U.S. ambassador charged yesterday that the Johnson administration is "covering up the fact that there is a Soviet military buildup in Cuba" until after the Nov. 3 election.

Harry F. Stimpson Jr., ambassador to Paraguay during the Eisenhower administration, made his remarks yesterday in Bloomfield Township after learning that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara denied the movement of troops on the island.

McNamara's statement came following the release of a report from the office of presidential candidate Barry Goldwater that the Soviet Union is again enlarging its contingent of troops in Cuba.

The report was prepared with information received from Stimpson and three other former United States ambassadors to Latin American countries, Robert Hill, Mexico; Joseph Farland, Panama; and William Pauley, Brazil.

"These men are responsible people who have knowledge of the situation," said Stimpson, speaking before an audience of 200 at a Goldwater-Miller luncheon at Devon Gables Restaurant.

Stimpson has been campaigning for Goldwater on a tour of Michigan communities with a number of Hollywood celebrities.

'IT'S OBVIOUS'

"I do not have a lot of detailed information," said Stimpson, "but it is obvious from talks with Cuban refugees recently and many friends that have served in Latin America that some form of Soviet military buildup has been taking place during the last few weeks."

"I don't know what this means," said Stimpson, who then speculated "Maybe it means a showdown in Asia after the election."

"I do know this, however, Castro must go and the Monroe Doctrine must come back."

★ ★ ★

He said that the policy of the present administration is to "appease and accomodate."

NO INSPECTION

He noted that there was no inspection of missile sites during the Cuban crisis.

"You have to admit that pictures of missiles on ships is sort of kindergarten," Stimpson said.

Stimpson said that the report

Union Council for GM Backs Return to Jobs

Rank and File Votes Sunday on National, Local-Level Contracts

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers' rank and file in General Motors' far-flung car-factory empire weighed a decision today whether to end a month-long strike.

The UAW's GM local unions across the country vote in secret ballot on the question tomorrow.

The return to work of more than 300,000 employes hinges on the result.

Impetus for a favorable verdict came last night when the union's General Motors Council voted overwhelmingly to recommend a return to work.

★ ★ ★

The council, a representative national group, acted on the recommendation of UAW President Walter P. Reuther.

OVERWHELMING SUPPORT

Reuther predicted to newsmen that the negotiated national agreement between General Motors and the union would get "overwhelming support" of the membership. He said 95 per cent of the council had approved it.

The rank and file also will vote on local-level agreements.

Disputes at the local level prolonged the strike after a national settlement.

The national agreement, similar to those at Ford and Chrysler, calls for improved pensions, earlier retirement incentives, pay increases and other benefits.

QUICK SETTLEMENT

President Johnson has called for quick settlement of remaining issues and an end to the strike in the interest of the national economy.

Where local settlements have not been achieved, the local union members will vote whether to end the strike regardless of this lack.

At last count, there were 97 settlements at the 130 bargaining units.

Seeterlin Raps Tax for Pontiac

Says City Would Get More Than Waterford

Waterford Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin said today that Pontiac's proposed ½ per cent income tax on nonresidents would take more from the average Waterford family than it pays in township taxes.

Based on an average family income of $7,117 with deductions for an average of four family members, a Waterford resident working in Pontiac would pay $23.58 each year to the city, Seeterlin said.

The annual township tax per family amounts to $17.94 based on a tax rate of $5.96 for each $1,000 in assessed valuation. Average assessed valuation in Waterford is $3,000.

Seeterlin said the City Commission's action in approving the nonresident tax "has undone 20-fold" the recent township tax reduction of 23 hundredths of a mill approved by the Waterford Township Board in setting its 1965 budget.

★ ★ ★

The supervisor expressed hope that Pontiac residents and nonresidents alike would band together in an effort to obtain sufficient signatures of city residents to force a referendum ballot.

DELAY DATE

He said that if this can be accomplished, it would at least delay the effective date of the tax until next July 1.

★ ★ ★

"This would allow time for the new State Legislature to correct this unjust method of taxation," Seeterlin said.

Johnson Asks Mandate in Vote Support

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — President Johnson said today he wants a strong and clear election-day mandate so, in his words, the world will know that campaigns of hate, fear and smear "cannot succeed among the American people."

Johnson, by indirection, implied that his opponents are trying to win votes through such tactics.

But in a speech prepared for a Democratic rally on the banks of the Mississippi in Memphis, he did not directly tie his remarks to the Republican party or its presidential candidate, Barry Goldwater.

In still another talk readied for an airport shindig at Chattanooga, Johnson spoke of his opponents as "men who represent not the majority of their own party — not the majority of Americans — but a fringe that wants to repeal the present and veto the future."

This was Johnson's second campaign foray into Tennessee, and it preceded an evening appearance at a Democratic fund-raising in Baltimore.

Barry Invades Texas Today

Questions Goings-On in the White House

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater headed for President Johnson's home state of Texas today after declaring in a swing through southern California that it's common knowledge the White House is mixed up in "questionable activities."

After a day of whistle-stop campaigning, Goldwater took to his chartered jet for a flight from San Diego to Austin, Tex., 60 miles from the President's LBJ ranch.

He also had campaign dates at Corpus Christi and Wichita Falls.

"I'll just kick the beer cans out of the way and off we'll go," Goldwater said, needling Johnson about stories that the President sipped beer as he drove with newsmen along the highways near his home.

The Republican presidential candidate, after briefly aiming his campaign fire at the case of resigned presidential aide Walter Jenkins, turned his sights on the affairs of former Democratic Senate secretary Bobby Baker in San Diego last night.

"I do not see how an effective force for law and order can be forthcoming from the White House when it is a common assumption in the length and breadth of the land that the White House itself is involved in questionable activities," he told an estimated 12,000 people in the local baseball park.

Temperatures on Way Up

Temperatures are on the way up again. Tomorrow will have a high in the 60s following tonight's low of 35 to 45.

Skies will be fair this evening and tomorrow.

Monday's outlook is partly cloudy with not much change in temperature.

Today in Pontiac winds are southwesterly at 10 to 20 miles an hour.

Thirty-six was the low mercury reading today prior to 8 a.m. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 55 in downtown Pontiac.

Pact Ratification Backed by Local UAW Leaders

Presidents of the three UAW locals in Pontiac today recommended ratification of the national contract with General Motors at their local meetings tomorrow.

The presidents are Andy Wilson, GMC Truck & Coach Local 594; Don Johnson, Fisher Body Local 596; and John Maye, Pontiac Motor Local 653.

Local 594 and Local 596 will meet at 2 p.m. at Local 594 hall and Lincoln Junior High School respectively.

Skilled tradesmen of Pontiac Motor Local 653 will meet at 10 a.m. and production workers at 3 p.m. at Pontiac Central High School.

If the national contract is ratified by a majority of locals, units which have ratified local settlements then will return to work.

America Is Confident U.N. to Reject China

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is confident Communist China again will fail to achieve admission to the United Nations despite Peking's new status as a nuclear power.

State Department officials, disclosing this, say a present tally of the U.N. membership shows the votes on Peking's admission will be close to last year's count, perhaps with more abstentions.

In 1963, of the 110 votes recorded, 41 favored an Albanian resolution to admit Communist China, 57 were opposed and there were 12 abstentions. One nation, Ethiopia, was absent.

When the question arises this year, France and some of her former colonies in Africa, now indpendent, undoubtedly will support the seating of Peking. Last year France voted for admission and most of her former colonies against admission.

TWO-THIRDS VOTE

To change the Chinese representation from the present Nationalist government to the Communist regime would take a two-thirds vote.

U.S. officials are preparing a blistering condemnation of what they call a "double standard" attitude, that Peking's ability to explode a nuclear device should bring automatic admission to the United Nations.

One high official explained the U.S. point of view this way:

"We have paid our bills to the United Nations, but if the Soviets were to pay their bill tomorrow, some people would clap their hands and say what fine fellows they are.

DOUBLE STANDARD

"If we had exploded a nuclear bomb in the atmosphere last week there would have been talk there of throwing the U.S. out of the U.N. But when the Chinese Communists explode their first nuclear device, there are those who say it is time now that we bring them into the U.N."

Meanwhile, the United States is skeptical that the Chinese Communist proposal for a five-power summit meeting of nuclear nations is more than a propaganda gesture.

★ ★ ★

However, the State Department made clear Friday, channels are open for any negotiations the Chinese Communists may wish to conduct on nuclear controls.

The British, French and Soviet governments have embassies in Peking and the United States conducts talks from time to time through the Chinese Communist ambassador in Moscow.

USE CHANNELS

State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey said these channels could be used for a dialogue with the Chinese Communists on the subject of nuclear controls.

If a majority of the 17-nation Geneva Conference on Disarmament which meets under U.N. sponsorship should want Communist China to participate in deliberations early next year, it would be all right with the United States if China were invited, he said.

The State Department takes the view that any nuclear disarmament talks would require the participation of all nuclear countries, just as conventional disarmament would require all significant military powers to participate.

In Louisville Friday, Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, said the United States might look more favorably on the Red Chinese proposal for a nuclear summit conference if the Peking regime signed the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

NEITHER SIGNED

Neither Red China nor France among the world's five nuclear powers has signed the treaty, to which more than 100 nations have agreed. The Red Chinese this week reiterated their refusal to sign.

"The first thing the Chinese should do is to sign the nuclear treaty," Stevenson told a news conference. "After that, there would be a better chance for the signatories to get together."

Stevenson also said that the Red Chinese atomic test had improved Peking's chances of getting into the world body.

In Los Angeles Undersecretary of State George W. Ball, asked about U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's call for dialogues between the United States and Red China, said: "We are always available for dialogues, and if Red China has anything constructive to discuss, we will listen."

He added that the U.S. and Red Chinese ambassadors at Warsaw, Poland, "can discuss any matters that can be considered worthy of conversation."

Accused in Coup Try

Ousts 8 From Viet Army

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Khanh has drummed out of his army three generals and five colonels accused of taking part in an attempted coup against his regime Sept. 13, the defense department announced tonight.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Communist guerrillas today shot down a U.S. Air Force C123 transport plane loaded with a supply of ammunition. The five Americans and two Vietnamese aboard apparently were killed.

The included Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat, former interior minister who denounced Khanh in a radio broadcast after troops moved into Saigon.

The fired officers and four other officers accused in the plot were sentenced to terms of from 30 to 60 days "fortress arrest" by an army discipline council in a meeting last night. Three other officers were put under house arrest for 130 days.

The action followed a military court's decision to release 13 officers and seven civilians charged with treason in connection with the attempted coup.

The court action, which was interpreted in some quarters as a slap at Khanh, came when the chief judge said the court had not been given sufficient evidence that the coup had been attempted.

TOCK OVER

Five battalions and armored units took over most of Saigon in the September attempted coup. The coup was broken when the dissidents failed to attack a loyalist strong point at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air force base.

The failure to attack was at least partly due to efforts by high U.S. officials to prevent a clash between loyalist and rebel forces.

NY Man Is Held in County Jail for Investigation

A New York man, who identified himself as a minister, is being held at the Oakland County Jail for investigation of kidnaping and indecent liberties.

Robert W. Witthoeft, 26, was picked up by deputies last night in Lake Orion.

Deputies said Witthoeft allegedly forced a 14-year-old Orion Township youth into his car last night about 10:15 and took him to a nearby motel.

The New Yorker allegedly held the youth in a locked room for 1½ hours before setting him free.

Sad Line of Friends Bid Hoover Farewell

WASHINGTON (AP)—Under the mighty grace of the Capitol dome, the lonely casket rested through the night. And outside, the city he once had left in winter and defeat now gave him high honor amid the glory of autumn leaves.

★ ★ ★

Herbert Clark Hoover, 31st president of the United States, dead at the age of 90, lay under the cover of his nation's flag in the Capitol rotunda. It was nearly 31 years since he had left the presidency of the depression-stricken nation after one term in office.

★ ★ ★

Filing in from both sides, from the Senate side and the House side, came the citizens who knew and remembered, and the citizens too young to know. They came, as one of them said, to pay honor "not only to him personally, but to the office."

Not more than four blocks away, at Washington's Union Station, the special train had arrived at about 1:35 p.m., and the sad ritual, practiced to precision, began.

MANY FRIENDS

President Johnson and his wife, the Hoover family, the many friends including former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, moved slowly through the cordon of the escort — the Marines with red-striped trousers, the gold stripe of Army, the blue-white of Air Force, the white sea caps of Navy, the black of Coast Guard.

★ ★ ★

In the rotunda, the important and varied people of government had gathered. There were senators: Thruston Morton of Kentucky, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, John J. Williams of Delaware, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota. There were Secretary of State Dean Rusk and former secretary of state Christian Herter. There were also stenographers and clerks.

★ ★ ★

There were wreathes and flowers from the President, from the House of Representatives, from the Senate, from Baudouin, king of the Belgians, from Urho Kekkonen, president of the Republic of Finland, from the Swedish government, and one labeled "in gratitude — Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania," and one signed simply, "Mrs. Jessie Kalozeropoules of Chicago.

4 Are Injured in Local Crash

Four Pontiac residents, two women and two small children, are in Pontiac General Hospital following a single car auto accident yesterday afternoon at Elizabeth Lake Road at Neome.

Injured were Shirley Ann Howe, 18, of 28 Hovey, who is in fair condition; her daughter April, 10 months, in serious condition; Carolyn Brown, 20, also of 28 Hovey, fair condition; and her daughter Felicia, 2, in very serious condition.

Mrs. Howe, the driver, told police she was traveling east on Elizabeth Lake Road when she took her eyes off the road to give her baby a bottle.

Art Group Is Planning World Tour for 1965

BIRMINGHAM—The bazaars of Cairo, the Taj Mahal, a Hong Kong silk factory and the Japanese Academy of Arts—each of these will contribute to the art background of area residents.

They are among the stops in the, around-the-world art tour now being planned by the Bloomfield Art Association for next year.

The 32-day trip will begin March 12, with participants scheduled to arrive back in Detroit April 12.

Also being anticipated is a 25-day Scandinavian tour which will leave in July.

★ ★ ★

Trip chairman is John S. Coppin, Bloomfield Township artist. Walter Centomini of Oakland Travel, Inc., is tour director.

FIRST STOP

First stop of the world tour group will be in London. Members will arrive there March 13 and depart via jet for Cairo March 14.

The four-day stay in Egypt will feature tombs of ancient pharaohs, mosques and the Pyramids.

Activities in New Delfii will vary from a visit to the Indian Parliament to a ride on an elephant.

★ ★ ★

The next major stop will be Bangkok, where a special textiles and porcelain tour is being planned.

CENTRAL FEATURES

By March 27, the group will be in Hong Kong, where the central features will be a tour of curio shops and a visit to a silk factory.

Four days later, the port of call will be Osaka, Japan. There the travelers will visit a paper lantern factory, a Japanese house and the Takarazuka Theater.

Takamatsu, Kyoto and Tokyo are among the stops in Japan before the group departs for Hawaii. A day of leisure in Honolulu will precede the homeward flight.

The group is expected to include about 30 art association members. Centomini now is accepting reservations.

Rev. Newton E. Woodbury, executive director of the American Baptist Convention's Division of World Mission Support, will speak at the 11 a.m. service at the First Baptist Church tomorrow.

Woodbury, who recently returned from a world tour, will have as his topic, "The Mission Becomes the Church."

Crash in East Kills Doctor

Lt. Commander Hayden Duncan Palmer Jr., M.D., former Pontiac resident, was killed in an auto accident Wednesday morning near Bethesda, Md.

A career officer in the Navy Medical Corps., Lt. Commander Palmer had been stationed at the U.S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda.

While living in Pontiac, he attended Cranbrook School and University of Michigan.

Surviving are his wife, Catarina; his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hayden D. Palmer of 269 Ottawa; a sister, Mrs. John Rogers of Birmingham; and his grandmother, Mrs. Sadie Palmer.

Services will be 2 p.m. Monday at Christ Church Cranbrook with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery.

The body will be at Donelson-Johns Funeral Home after 1 p.m. tomorrow.

City Police Probe Armed Robbery

Pontiac police are investigating the armed robbery of Harold Stratton, 37, 217½ Fisher; which occurred last night behind Kitty's Laundromat, 338 Franklin Road.

The victim told police two men, who were waiting in Stratton's car when he got in, took his wallet containing $62 and his car.

One of the guards who locked himself in was John F. Folker, who barricaded himself in a cell in Section E-2 on the second tier of the east wing, then joined another guard, John C. Sparks, in a utility tunnel, where they huddled behind a metal door.

PRISONERS YELL

"Come out of there," he said the prisoners shouted at them. "You won't leave here alive."

Folker said he was punched and his wallet with $60 was taken before he found refuge.

Although the start of the riot appeared spontaneous, Pepersack, 55, said, "It looked like somebody planned it." He cited as evidence that there appeared to be a group of ringleaders and that some of the objects thrown from the cells, such as bottles, had been taken earlier from other sections of the prison.

Warden William Steiner said that "our first job is to clean up. Then we'll learn more about the start of this thing." He said he hoped to learn who were some of the ringleaders through interviews to be held later.

Pepersack said there had been no sign of smouldering discontent.

DEATH CAR—Norris K. Fagerlie, 46, of Walled Lake was killed this morning in Pontiac when this car in which he was a passenger collided with another auto at Montcalm and Oakland. Robert Gregg, 37, of Commerce Township, driver of the car, is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

2 Men Killed in 2 County Accidents

A Walled Lake man was killed this morning in Pontiac when the car in which he was riding collided with another at Montcalm and Oakland.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital was Norris K. Fagerlie, 46, of 1474 Pontiac Trail. He was a passenger in a car driven by Robert Gregg, 37, of 905 Clara, Commerce Township.

Gregg's eastbound car on Montcalm collided with a northbound car on Oakland driven by Mrs. Carl Sterstorfer, 41, of 5414 Maybee, Independence Township.

Gregg was hospitalized and is in fair condition. Mrs. Sterstorfer was treated for injuries at the hospital and then released.

Police are investigating circumstances of the 7:45 a.m. accident.

A West Bloomfield Township man was killed in a collision at 10:26 p.m. yesterday in Farmington Township.

Clyde L. Johnson, 71, of 3373 Edgemere was dead on arrival at Beaumont Hospital. He was riding in a car driven by his wife, Catherine, 61, when the accident occurred at 13 Mile and Farmington Road.

Witnesses told police that Mrs. Johnson's van-type truck, traveling north on Farmington Road, pulled out from the stop sign into the path of an eastbound car on 13 Mile driven by Jack Gamble, 45, of 3107 Ferris, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Johnson and Gamble both are in fair condition at the hospital.

Relatively Calm Period Forecast for Russia

See Red Party Shake-Up but No Purge

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP) — Diplomatic observers said today the Kremlin's new leaders appear to have signaled a shake-up of Nikita Khrushchev's Communist party apparatus. But they saw no signs of a wholesale purge.

These sources forecast a period of relative calm inside the party while the new rulers seek to solve pressing domestic and foreign problems inherited from Khrushchev.

The Communist party Central Committee's journal called Friday for a thoroughgoing review of party ranks to weed out corrupt and inefficient officials.

"It is indisputable that bad workers should be replaced. The renewal of cadres is a natural phenomenon," it said.

Changes in the Kremlin leadership in the past usually have been accompanied by massive changes in the party's rank and file.

Khrushchev laid the foundation for his one-man rule by packing the elite Central Committee with up to 50 per cent of his own supporters.

* * *

Khrushchev's successors were not believed to be contemplating any radical tampering with the present composition of the party elite or with the party machinery.

Veteran observers noted that the anti-Khrushchev group headed by first party secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin ousted Khrushchev with the backing of the majority of the fallen leader's machine.

PARTY HACKS

These sources said some personnel changes were virtually certain among party hacks kept on through connections with Khrushchev.

Khrushchev men who refuse to bow to the new high command are also certain to be eased out. But such dissenters are normally rare in the party apparatus.

* * *

The specialists' view was that during the immediate aftermath of the Kremlin upheaval, members of the Presidium will be on guard against any mass upheaval in the lower echelons.

Another factor deemed likely, to inhibit any mass expulsions or reassignments is the wave of dissatisfaction that has swept Communist parties in the West and Eastern Europe since Khrushchev's fall.

AVOID QUESTIONS

It was believed that the new leadership would attempt to maintain the party comparatively intact in order to avoid further questions from foreign Communists.

Historically, the purge has been employed to clean out political and ideological adversaries from the Communist party. Those even suspected of deviationist views were purged by Stalin.

* * *

Western specialists have been unable to detect any signs, however, of political or ideological differences within the party that might lead to internal warfare.

County Tops in Region for New Homes

Oakland County led the Detroit Metropolitan area in percentage of increase in residential construction in the first nine months of 1964, according to a report released yesterday by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

A total of 6,530 permits for new dwelling units was issued in the county through September, compared to 4,962 in the first nine months of 1963, an increase of 31.6 per cent.

Subtracting 386 demolitions, the net total was 6,144, just eight less than Macomb County, which leads in the net total for the area.

Wayne County had a net total of 4,822, while Detroit showed a net loss of 97 units.

* * *

LEADS IN SINGLE UNITS

The county led the area in the number of single family unit permits with a total of 4,757. Macomb County issued 4,327 and Wayne County issued 4,254.

The largest increase in Oakland County was in the number of multifamily units, which jumped from 1,062 in 1963 to 1,763 in the first nine months of this year, an increase of 66 per cent.

'U.S. Constitution Is Being Changed'

ATLANTA (AP) — Legislative and judicial processes, over the years, have tended to change the meaning of the Constitution, says a former justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Charles E. Whittaker told a meeting of the American Bar Association Friday that legislative definitions of constitutional concepts, aided and supported by the Supreme Court's judicial process of interpretation, have, in effect, amended the Constitution.

* * *

He cited the Commerce Clause — the basis for key sections of the 1964 Civil Rights Act — as an example of changing the Constitution by legislative and judicial definition.

Detroiter Given 20-40 Years for Area Shoot-Out

A Detroit man was sentenced yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court to 20-40 years in the state prison at Jackson for assault with intent to murder a State Police trooper.

* * *

The prison term for Marvin James Jesse Jackson, 38, was ered by Judge James S. Thorburn.

* * *

Jackson was convicted by a jury on Sept. 30 of shooting at Trooper Howard Kelly of the Pontiac post during a chase in Waterford Township on Aug. 15.

The gun battle between the two began when Kelly attempted to stop Jackson's car, which was reported to have been the one used in an armed robbery in Flint earlier.

Significant Tribute Paid Negro Crusader

We congratulate Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. on the signal recognition shown him as recipient of the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize.

The 12th American on which such distinction has been bestowed and the second American Negro to be so honored, Dr. KING has devoted himself to the betterment of his race under the banner of civil rights legislation.

KING

Pursuing an exemplary course of moderation and nonviolence in his advocacy of racial equality, the crusader has shaped his campaign much in accordance with India's Mohandas Gandhi's precepts.

The Negro leader is president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and was this year made an honorary doctor at Yale University and awarded the JOHN F. KENNEDY Prize by the Catholic Council for Cooperation between the Races in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

The award will be formally presented to Dr. KING at ceremonies in Oslo, Dec. 10. At 35, he is the youngest winner since inception of the award in 1901.

Show Biz Takes to Air; See 'Long Runs' Ahead

Variety, the weekly newspaper of show business, reports that one airline is currently adding live talent to its flights on the highly competitive New York-Florida run.

First it was movies, then stereo music and individual television sets. With these, a passenger at least had the option of turning off the sound and averting his eyes. Now, says Variety, a real escape problem will be posed for those who just don't want to be entertained.

That may not be the only problem. One can imagine a performer, when asked by a prospective employer what cities he had played in, replying: "Well, not IN any exactly. But I was big OVER Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore . . ."

Apparently there's no biz like the airline biz.

Fancy Food Founder Gains Rich Tribute

Tpday marks the 150th anniversary of the man who has undoubtedly been the greatest boon to hostesses since the invention of charades.

The benefactor was George Crum, and he invented — accidentally — the potato chip. It seems like a pretty crummy way to invent anything, but that's the way the potato sliced.

★ ★ ★

GEORGE's sister had a fat part in it too. Working in 1853 in a swank Saratoga Springs, N.Y., resort where GEORGE was chef, she slivered a potato paper-thin and dropped it into a frying pan.

CRUM noted the curved crispness the slices circled into—and when he subsequently tempted the public with them, his spud hit with a thud.

Instant success rewarded the creator, and from then on he was chipper as a chipmunk. Renowned, he was soon within reach of the world's gastronomic greats, and his product within that of every nibbler —let the chips fall where they may.

Sculptors are chipping away at a memorial soon to be erected in Saratoga Springs to its illustrious son. This is well-merited tribute toward which we'd like to chip in — soon as we lick our fingers.

Ideology Ruled Hoover's Actions

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Two contradictions he revealed in his most critical moment would be enough to make President Hoover a fascinating figure in American history.

He had seen and been a part of the government in World War I when, to survive and win, it went all-out in using its resources and controls.

But — as President in the depression he stopped far short of going all-out in meeting the crisis which threatened devastation worse than war.

MARLOW

But—as President he would not give direct government help to the needy in the American depression. Why? The answer is in his philosophy.

PREACHED SELF-RELIANCE

He preached self-reliance, calling it individualism. He thought all men should have equal opportunity for happiness and fulfillment.

Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson felt the same way. But Jefferson and economist Adam Smith and others like them—from before Cicero up till now—were not completely realistic.

Without their belief in "natural law" it seems impossible that Smith could have produced the "Wealth of Nations" or Jefferson the Declaration of Independence.

★ ★ ★

Nor was it odd in a practical way that Jefferson and Jackson wanted limited government. They were living in an early America, mostly agricultural, where people could be and often had to be self-dependent.

VIEW HELD UP

The Jefferson-Jackson view held up to the Civil War and was parallelled in England where Liberals, anxious for freedom in all directions, warred against government involvement or intrusions.

Here the let-alone philosophy took a turn after the Civil War. With industrialization leaping ahead, business got a lot of help, directly or indirectly, from the government and the Supreme Court right up to the depression.

In 1887, When Congress passed a bill to give direct government relief to drought-stricken farmers in Texas, President Cleveland vetoed it, saying: "though the people support the government, the government should not support the people."

★ ★ ★

Hoover did far more in the way of using government resources after the crash than Cleveland might have thought of, but it was still not enough.

In holding back on direct relief to the needy he was in the main American stream up till then.

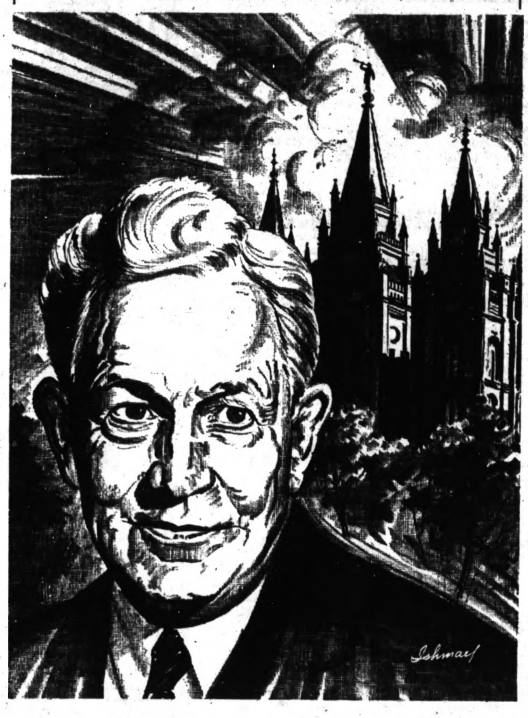
The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL



David O. McKay, ninth president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, has lived by his favorite quotation from Edwin Markham's "A Creed."

"There is a destiny which makes us brothers;
None lives to self alone;
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own."

When he was a young man, an elder gave him a blessing, saying: "You will be a leader among men, indeed, president of the Church some day." This had a lasting effect upon him as he served God and men in church positions all over the world. He became president in 1951. Still, at age 91, the spiritual leader of two and a half million Mormons, McKay says, "Faith in man is the power that leads to brotherhood; faith in God, the ladder by which men climb toward perfection."

Days of All Faiths:

Halloween—Day of Superstition

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Many superstitions have grown up around Halloween, most of them pretty grim.

For example, if you will take a three-legged stool and sit at a crossroads while the clock is striking twelve, you will hear a loud clear voice speaking the names of persons scheduled to die during the next twelve months. The one thing that keeps this action from being completely morbid is that you can save the lives of those whose names you hear — if you are quick enough and if you can see well enough in the dark. You do this by taking with you a piece of clothing belonging to each of the persons you especially don't want to die — your family, friends, etc.

Then as the name of someone you want to save is called out, you quickly throw away a piece of his apparel. The trick is to get it out of the pile and dispose of it before the voice goes on to the next name.

Another spine-tingling superstition is that on Halloween — after dark of course — you will undoubtedly hear footsteps behind you. If this happens to you, don't look around, for it is the dead following you, and if you should meet the eye of any of them, you will die.

★ ★ ★

Less frightening but still evil in its implications is the idea that a gambler can assure himself of good luck at the gaming table by crawling under a blackberry bush and praying to the Prince of Darkness. If you want to do this, you may win some money, but don't forget that you have allied yourself with the Devil and a reckoning is sure to come some day.

HOW TO SEE YOUR FUTURE SPOUSE

There are, however, some less macabre Halloween superstitions. Mostly these have to do with finding out whom one is going to marry. And of course, there are more of these for girls than for boys, since girls are more interested in such things.

There is one, though, for boys. A boy who crawls under a blackberry bush at midnight will see the shadow of his future wife. Not very satisfactory, one would think. All girls' shadows must look pretty much alike.

No one explains why blackberry bushes are so prominent in Halloween lore.

★ ★ ★

If a girl will set three pails of water in her bedroom, then pin three leaves of holly to her nightdress, she will be awakened by loud shouts and will see her future husband walk through the room. If he is especially fond of her, he will stop to change the positions of the pails.

Bob Considine Says:

Rugged Answer Found to How to Serve Country

NEW YORK — The late J.F. Kennedy asked the people on the occasion of his inauguration to give more thought to what they could do for their country, rather than vice versa.

The seed fell on varied soil, as well as on barren rock. One place it took root was in a firehouse in Costa Mesa, Calif.

CONSIDINE

Like millions more, fireman Craig Breedlove, who moonlighted as a hot rod race driver, mulled over what he — a nobody — could do about accepting that challenge flung from the steps of the Capitol in Washington.

Then it hit him! He'd design a car that would bring back the auto speed racing title to the United States.

He named his car "Spirit of America" before he drew the first sketch of the thousands that followed. That's how he thought of it.

Completed, the three-wheeled car resembled a wingless F86 Interceptor. Breedlove broke Cobb's 394.196 mark, which had existed since 1947, and then a few months ago decided that he would be the first man to crack the 500 m.p.h. barrier and make it stick.

On the night before his adventure, earlier this month at Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, the taut young man's nerve suddenly broke. He envisioned clearly that he was going to die the next day. He cried a little, then brushed aside the tears and wrote farewell cards to his wife and his five children.

Then he got up in the morning, put on his racing suit and star-studded helmet, set his jet engine at 97 per cent full power, and screamed through the measured mile at 513 m.p.h..

When his drogue chutes and brakes brought him to a stop, finally, he was swarmed by his happy friends and sponsors.

"Don't touch me," he barked at them. "This is a two-way game. Tell me I'm good after the second run."

The rules required two runs through the mile, the average becoming the official speed. And within one hour.

This time, Breedlove set the jet's notch at 102 per cent. He was a blur as he hit the measured mile. Just as the eight-ton "Spirit of America" streaked into the critical stretch of salt and packed sand, the steering apparatus on the lone front wheel gave way.

The "Spirit of America" plunged on across a stretch of shallow water, leaped a five-foot ditch at 300 m.p.h., plowed into a 12-foot dirt embankment at 250, took off and flew 100 yards at an altitude of about 40 feet, then plunged into an 18-foot deep lake.

A friend removing Breedlove's boots, cut him on the shin with the penknife used in sawing the laces. It was the only injury sustained by a young man who when asked what he could do for his country found a rugged answer.

Voice of the People:

Pros and Cons of Coming Elections Are Discussed

As election day nears, methods of campaigning lose the character of fairness and acceptability.

One method coming to attention is a campaign geared on effects of personal fear. We are shown on the TV a monstrous nuclear explosion, along with a directive for whom to vote in order to be safe. This form of precalculated intimidation must be rejected by every freedom respecting citizen.

★ ★ ★

Nuclear power is in our possession for the purpose of our strength against the enemies of human progress and freedom, and not for the purpose of keeping us subdued by fear. It is only by a skillfully disseminated personal fear the totalitarian government are kept in power. Vote as a free and fearless citizen.

A.F.A.A.P.
(ASSOCIATION FOR ADVANCEMENT OF ALL PEOPLE)

Many Americans will shrug their freedom on election day. Because they don't want to choose between Johnson and Goldwater, they will stay home and neglect to vote.

★ ★ ★

Democrats who aren't pleased with Johnson won't vote for Goldwater because of his party, so they will either stay home or vote Democratic.

AN AMERICAN

Johnson doesn't have to support the policies in which he believes (whatever they may be); he only needs to throw mud in the face of his opponent.

★ ★ ★

Such commercials as "Confessions of a Republican," the one showing a little girl picking flowers when a bomb explodes, and a Ku Klux Klan member who says that Goldwater is his kind of thinker don't tell why Johnson would be a good president. He is offered as a poor substitute, suggesting that Johnson is simply the better of two evils.

★ ★ ★

We need a real president.

JOE HOVA
CLARKSTON

I disapprove of Baker, Estes, and Jenkins. But do you think he discussed his shameful immorality with his family or the President, regardless how close they were? Would you have?

★ ★ ★

When you meet your Maker, you'll be thankful to have Him judge you for your actions alone, not for Jenkins and all the other foolish people in the world. So don't judge President Johnson by another man who just works for him.

ALSO CONCERNED

Down with extremism! Make your vote count against: extreme government spending; concentration of political and military power in too few hands; gentle treatment for grafters, criminals and Communists; weakening of our country's defenses; and extreme interpretation of our Constitution.

★ ★ ★

They tell us the Republicans can't win, but every vote for Goldwater is at least a protest vote and makes that "landslide of approval" that much smaller.

So get out and vote.

LAWRENCE ADKINS
COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA

It will not take a nuclear device to convert our government to communism. It is not nuclear war but the Cold War that we are fighting and losing to the Communists. Does the Cold War have to be labeled World War III before people realize we are at war now and have been for 18 years? There has been no need for a big war because the Communists are winning without one.

★ ★ ★

A MRS.

Citizens for Johnson unite! Complain before we are all Goldwashed to death. I can't believe that the published letters are a consensus. Bring the issue back where it belongs. Johnson has experience and proved he could get Kennedy's bills passed.

★ ★ ★

Don't forget that before the Republican convention Goldwater was only a man determined to get his name in print, whether for ridiculous statements or by merely voting against important legislative matters.

STILL SHUDDERING

"W.D.M." wanted to know why Johnson didn't choose a Negro to run for vice president.

★ ★ ★

As far as you or I know, he may have considered a Negro. However, because the future welfare of our country could possibly be thrust upon the vice president someday, Johnson chose the man he believed could best assume the responsibility.

★ ★ ★

Should he have chosen a man he knew to be incapable just to prove a point? I think not.

JULIE COLLINS
MILFORD

We are told that the Democratic Administration is responsible for getting Michigan (with a Republican governor and legislature) out of debt.

★ ★ ★

We aren't told why this same administration, with the help of a Democratic Congress, plunges our federal government deeper in debt.

MARY B. DAVIS

Who has pulled the wool over the eyes of "Concerned?" You say more men are working more jobs. We also have more crime and violence than ever before in our history. It is growing 5 per cent faster than the population.

★ ★ ★

Are Bobby Baker, Billie Sol, Walter Jenkins your symbols of America's common man?

JOE E. TOBY

I am upset when I see President Johnson tearing up a Social Security card. Every good American knows it would take an act of Congress to discontinue any of our Social Security benefits. No president has the power to tamper with this without the people's voice.

★ ★ ★

We can overburden this act by tacking on too many side benefits so that it will destroy itself by taking out more money than the invested money can earn. I hope Johnson will have enough respect for our Social Security card to stop this horrible political act.

RUTH KADELLA
UNION LAKE

I'd like an honest answer on a statement Goldwater made in the Courier Journal July 8, 1962. He said, "The child has no right to an education. In most cases the children will get along very well without it." Did he mean all children or just the poverty

I thought Goldwater was an intelligent person but that line of thinking should make every citizen think twice.

I fear a group that can paralyze our country. Let's do something about saving our free enterprise system and help the unemployed who don't or won't join this caste system.

SUBMISSIVE SHEEP

This is in reply to Mrs. J. L. Cordes. She states that our President is a man of questionable character. Statements like this are not American. If it had not been for Johnson and Kennedy, we would have been in war over Cuba before now. Goldwater and his clan wanted us to bomb them at once.

★ ★ ★

We need a level-headed man and not one that is double-minded, stating something in one part of the country and then changing his statement some place else for votes. Goldwater talks as though he will run the country. Thank God we have a House and Senate to make the laws and not him.

★ ★ ★

Do we want a man for president that doesn't know the meaning of loyalty, honesty and truth?

P. LeHIGH
42 N. ARDMORE

A bomb five times as powerful as that exploded at Hiroshima is by no means conventional and cannot be treated as such. The manner in which Republican nominees treat the delicate details of defense is frightening.

★ ★ ★

Those who have looked into the record and statements of the Republican nominee for Congress realize he is closer to the extreme right wing than his presidential running mate.

For the sake of preserving the international advance made through programs of recent bipartisan agreement, I am voting November 3 for President Johnson and for Billie S. Farnum for Congress.

Comments Continue on City Income Tax

I wonder just how good this new city income tax will be. They say they will cut our property tax 3 mills, but for how long? Will they raise our evaluations to get the same amount of tax as before?

★ ★ ★

If we get a chance to vote on it, I'm going to think long and look deep before voting.

CHESTER DEVAULT
91 E. BOULEVARD

Again outside residents who work in larger towns are complaining about city income taxes. If Detroit can have a city income tax, every city in Michigan can have the same tax.

★ ★ ★

A county income tax or a state income tax, with portions going to all communities, might solve this problem.

★ ★ ★

If legalized gambling in Michigan would come before the vote of the people, it would probably pass. If this money was designated to help with the financial problems of the cities and smaller communities, it would not only help solve their problems but also give some of their people jobs. The welfare roles and ADC would not have to be so large.

B. L.

The 1 per cent tax may be deducted from our federal tax at the end of the year, therefore, it won't actually cost the working people money. Considering it will take tax dollars from the federal pocket and put them in the local pocket, I think it's a grand little back-of-the-hand joke on Uncle Sam.

★ ★ ★

If an out of towner feels it's a form of "misrepresentation" the best course to take is apply for a job in his home town and open his position to a local boy.

★ ★ ★

If our city people need a raise, I say give it to them. They should have "dignified" existences just as our "Union Made" workers do. They pick up my garbage, run a patrol car or fire engine to my door if I need it, and send out tax statements even if I don't need them.

'Sales Representatives Inconvenienced'

How many have arranged an appointment with a sales representative but are absent at the time of the appointment without calling in advance? Have you turned the sales representative away from the door after he has kept an appointment he made in good faith? Possibly you have even refused to answer your door.

★ ★ ★

I pity these people for being among the least considerate people on earth.

Agrees With Letters on Smut Magazines

I would like to commend and agree with "Forewarned" regarding smut magazines being food for the mind of the molester. These sadistic monsters in our midst are created by wellmeaning parents. We do little more than hope somehow our own children will escape the smut that completely surrounds them. Then, we laugh at the ostrich for burying his head in the sand.

Reader Comments on Divorce Situation

I am tired of hearing about how easy it is for a woman to get a divorce. Does "Concerned" really think getting a divorce is a lark? When a home is broken it leaves half a person to be both father and mother.

★ ★ ★

Lots of women would like to know how to support a child on $15 a week and not work out.

Questions the Count on Voting Machines

Why aren't the voting machines in each election turned back to zero? In the last presidential election I was No. 127, but when I got to the machine, I was No. 143. Couldn't there be some mix-up in the count?

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held by the Pontiac City Commission Tuesday, November 24, 1964, at 8 o'clock p.m. Eastern Standard Time in the Commission Chamber, City Hall on the proposed vacating of alley to the rear of 178 through 206 S. Merrimac Street, in accordance with the following resolution adopted by the Pontiac City Commission October 20, 1964 being Resolution No. 1035:

"By Commissioner Hudson, supported by Commissioner Dugan. Whereas, the City Plan Commission has recommended the vacating of the alley in Lakeside Park Subdivision lying Between Lots 137 through 144, inclusive, and Lots 154 through 165 inclusive, more particularly described as lying East of a line drawn from the Southwest corner of lot 154 and the Northwest corner of Lot 144 and West of a line drawn between the Southeast corner of Lot 165 and the Northeast corner of lot 137, and that an easement be retained over the width of the alley right-of-way.

Now Therefore, be it resolved, that a public hearing shall be given in accordance with Section 2, Chapter XIII of the City Charter, as amended, of the proposed vacating.

Be It Further Resolved, that a public hearing be held on the proposed vacating above described on Tuesday November 24, 1964."

Edgewood Reception for Couple

Reception in the Edgewood Country Club followed the marriage of Diane Joyce Anderson to Vernon A. Vannatter today in the Orchard Lake Community Church.

* * *

Rev. Edward D. Auchard performed the noon ceremony for the couple who will honeymoon in the New England States.

Pearl and crystal embroidery accentuated the Empire lines of a white silk faille gown and train for the daughter of the James L. Andersons of Green Lake.

DIOR BOW

A Dior bow caught the bride's illusion veil and white orchids, roses and ivy comprised her bouquet.

* * *

With honor attendant, Judy Haughton, were the bridesmaids, Mary Ann Stanker of Grand Ledge and Mrs. Jack Vannatter of Troy.

* * *

On the esquire side were Jack Vannatter, best man, with ushers Stanley Bridgewater, Royal Oak, and Larry Anderson.

Hosts at the rehearsal dinner in Pine Knob Resort were the bridegroom's parents, the Alva Vannatters of Onondaga Drive, Independence Township.

MRS. J. A. VANNATTER

Shades of raspberry abound in this Lilli Ann three-piece suit with a decided Chanel accent in French mohair and wool tweed. It features a four-pocketed jacket with French brass lattice-work buttons, a French silk blouse in blending, color and matching French shirt cuffs with French brass cuff links. Available locally for about $100.

Waterford Clarkston BPW

Politician Talks to Unit

Billie Farnum, state auditor general and candidate for Congress from the 19th district, spoke to members of the Waterford Clarkston Business and Professional Women's Club Thursday.

* * *

Speaking on matters pertaining to his office in Lansing, Farnum completed his talk with urging the group to participate in all types of government.

* * *

He emphasized that too many people do not bother to attend even their own community school board meetings, and consequently are not aware of matters of importance of which they are a part.

JANE HART

Mrs. Jane Hart, a guest at the Airway Lanes meeting, spoke on the NASA program.

The legislation committee with Mrs. Arthur McIntyre as chairman was in charge of the meeting.

* * *

Mrs. Homer Tinney, blood bank chairman reported that the bank is scheduled for Monday from 2 to 5 and 6 to 8 p.m. in the CAI building.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Lee Stanley from Vassar, Mich., Mrs. Mae Hamlett and Mrs. Dorothy Olson.

Guild Names Chairman

Mrs. John Newton has been named chairman of the coffee hour for the annual Ingathering of Pontiac Needlework Guild of America Inc. on Nov. 12. She will be assisted by Mrs. William Coleman and Mrs. Thomas Campbell.

* * *

All are members of the Queen Mary Section which has always assumed this duty at the Ingathering and which met this week in the Mechanic Street home of Mrs. George Bickley.

Catholic Rite In Detroit For Couple

Reception in the Chateau Bleu, St. Clair Shores, followed the recent nuptials of Judith Ann Fanson and Robert Lewis Sarrach in the Epiphany Catholic Church, Detroit.

* * *

The bride, daughter of the William Fansons of Detroit, recently of Hickory Lawn Road, Avon Township, chose a Bianchi gown of cameo ivory peau de soie.

Patricia Blodgett and Mrs. Richard Coil, both of Detroit, were maid of honor and bridesmaid.

JUNIOR ATTENDANTS

Susan Burpee, Birmingham, and Jerry Fanson, Rochester, attended as flower-girl and ring-bearer.

Ronald Sarrach stood as best man for his brother. Their parents are the John Sarrachs of Detroit. James George and Kenneth Blodgett were ushers. Charles Fanson was groomsman.

* * *

Mr. Sarrach, a graduate of Wayne State University, and his bride are in Niagara Falls for the honeymoon.

Really Clean Disposal

Simply rinsing with hot water will not really clean and deodorize a garbage can.

Keeping it sanitary requires a weekly scrubbing with hot soap or detergent suds.

* * *

Take Honeymoon Trip to Florida, New Jersey

Off on a honeymoon in Florida and New Jersey are the James Robert Crigers (Sally Thorn Smith), wed today in Our Lady, Queen of Martyrs Church, Beverly Hills.

* *

W. Murray Smith of Upper Montclair, N. J. escorted his sister-in-law, daughter of Mrs. Millard T. Smith of Birmingham and the late Mr. Smith.

Chantilly lace accented bodice and hemline of the bride's sheath gown and train of candlelight silk peau de soie.

BRIDAL ENSEMBLE

A silk pillbox with illusion veil and cascade bouquet of Stephanotis and cymbidium orchids completed her ensemble.

Mrs. William Bell of Big Rapids attended her sister as honor matron. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ralph Criger, Warren, and Barbara Dunn, Mount Clemens.

* * *

Charles Holmes of Tallahassee, Fla., was best man for the son of the Harold G. Crigers of Royal Oak. Marlie Smith of Rochester and Edwin Casenheiser of Franklin, ushered.

Reception in Rotunda Country Inn followed the nuptial ceremony performed by Rev. Lucian Hebert.

Woman-Chasing Hubby Finally Discovers Wife

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please advise me on a problem that has been continuing for 39 years.

ABBY

During our courtship, my husband was so amorous and passionate that I thought I was getting quite a prize.

Our honeymoon ended abruptly when I caught him in the arms of a chambermaid.

After that it was a "friend," then a neighbor. Then, just anybody. He told me that I was naive — that all men were polygamous, and I should accept the fact.

* * *

He would escort me to parties, disappear and return in time to take me home. No explanation!

Our club had a kissing marathon to see who could hold a kiss the longest.

He entered with a woman he had never seen before that evening. (She was somebody's out-of-town house guest and stiffer than a plate glass window!)

All the other contestants were married to each other. Not able to bear the humiliation, I left before the contest was over, but later learned that my husband had won it.

* * *

He calls all these capers "harmless fun." Now, in his declining years, he is all fired up about ME!

And I am so hungry for love that I can't say no. Am I sick?

WORRIED ABOUT MYSELF

* * *

DEAR WORRIED: Not as sick as your husband. In my opinion, you are both far from well.

He apparently felt compelled to punish someone, and you felt a need to be punished.

You sure made a peach of a pair!

DEAR ABBY: We went to a lot of expense (for us) to install seat belts in our automobile, but some people who ride with us don't bother to use them even when we ask them to!

We use them even if we are going only two blocks. (We were told by an insurance man that most car accidents occur within a few blocks of the driver's destination.)

What should we do about people who absolutely refuse to use the seat belts in our car, saying it is too much trouble?

PLAYING SAFE

* * *

DEAR PLAYING: Belt them.

DEAR ABBY: My grandson flunked out of two colleges. His mother (my daughter) blames it on his elementary education.

She says, "The teachers don't know how to teach any more." But, Abby, neither my daughter nor her husband ever have any good books around the house.

* * *

They never go to a concert or to a good play. They spend all their time cleaning, painting their house and fixing up the yard.

They are both college graduates and should know better. Their children sit in front of the television set and eat snacks.

* * *

There is no food for thought in their home. I have tried to tell my daughter, but I can't get through to her.

Maybe she can be helped by your advice, if she can stop cleaning long enough to read the newspaper.

UNHAPPY GRANDMA

* * *

DEAR GRANDMA: I agree, the chances for intellectual growth are far better in a cultural environment.

But so many children blossom intellectually with no help at home, it's difficult to generalize.

These children seem plain lazy, and their parents are culturally dull. A sad combination.

CONFIDENTIAL TO K. M.: Go back to church. To say, "I'm not good enough for God," is saying, "I'm too sick to go to a hospital."

A church is a hospital for sinners — not a museum for saints.

The hit of the young "go" set is the discotheque dress with a hint of a blouson silhouette. The bodice is striped in black and white, the skirt in black and red—all adding up to a highly spirited knit. It's made of Zefkrome, the washable, durable acrylic fiber that does not need pampering. Mrs. Johnson Says 'Forward'

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson told a Union Street rally today the real issue of the election is "whether we shall move forward or repeal the history of the United States since the days of the New Deal."

It's a question, said the President's wife, of whether the nation will "go back to the jungle when the strong were free to prey on the weak" and whether it will be "government for all the people or government only for the fortunate."

Mrs. Johnson made her appeal at an AFL-CIO sponsored union women's rally in her honor in the center square of this commercial-industrial city of some 108,000.

She said she was confident the voters will choose the "Great Society" President Johnson has pledged to point the United States toward, rather than "the great surrender."

* * *

In her prepared speech, the First Lady of the nation said the voters also will have to decide:

* * *

"Are we to go back to the time when the federal government accepted no responsibility for the hungry and the dispossessed; when there was no social security, no unemployment insurance, no minimum wage; when bank deposits were uninsured and labor had no right to bargain collectively for better wages and working conditions?"

Mrs. Johnson was starting out on a new campaign swing to six states, mainly concentrating on the Southwest. It was dubbed "a flying whistle-stop" by the White House after the train tour of the South Mrs. Johnson made earlier in the month.

In the next three days, Mrs. Johnson will go on to Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Indiana and Kentucky. It will be her last major campaign tour on her own before the Nov. 3 election. But, she'll join the President in his windup political trips.

* * *

Mrs. Johnson flew here from Washington this morning and went to a reception in a downtown hotel, where some 500 political, education and labor leaders of the five-county Lehigh Valley region gathered to meet her.

* * *

The wives of the presidents of five area colleges were among those invited. They came from Lehigh, Muhlenberg, Lafayette, Moravian and Cedar Crest.

At the rally, later, she said "This region and our nation's future will best be served by the Democratic party."

Laborites Study N-Fleet Compromise

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson's new Labor government — reluctant to join the U.S.-sponsored mixed-manned nuclear Atlantic fleet — is studying a compromise plan, government sources say.

Foreign secretary Patrick Gordon Walker may present it to U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk when the two meet next week in Washington.

* * *

As originally proposed, the United States envisioned a North Atlantic Treaty Organization force of 25 warships roaming the seas, each armed with 8 Polaris missiles. The British compromise would reportedly cut back the force to 12 ships.

PARIS (AP) — The French government has taken another step toward construction of the supersonic Concorde jet transport.

* * *

The National Assembly approved Friday a civil aviation budget for 1965 that includes $64 million for development of the proposed 1,450-mile-an-hour airliner. Engineers hope the joint $373 million French-British project is operational by 1971.

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — The Swiss government has arrested an Argentine citizen on charges he spied for the Soviet Union in Switzerland for eight years.

The Department of Justice announced the arrest Friday but did not name the man, who was identified as a key member of the Argentine Communist party. It accused him of passing Swiss military secrets to the Russians and acting as a contact man for Soviet agents in Western Europe.

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (AP) — Maj. Gen. John Anderson, dismissed as commander of the armed forces, charges that policy differences with the government led to his removal.

Premier Ian Smith's government dismissed Anderson Friday, saying he was being retired because of age. He is 50. Officers of his rank usually serve 10 more years.

* * *

Anderson said that he was ousted because he refused to accept the white supremist government's proposed declaration of independence from Britain.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant started polling members today on whether to postpone the U.N. General Assembly to give the United States and Russia time to try to work out their dispute over U.N. peace-keeping dues.

* * *

Thant sent out notes asking whether the assembly should be deferred from Nov. 10 to Dec. 1, as requested by 41 delegations.

The United States has called for a showdown whether the Soviet Union should lose its assembly vote because of nonpayment of back dues for U.N. peace-keeping in the Congo and the Middle East.

FLIGHT TO FREEDOM—Three Hungarian defectors arrived in Seattle last night after a flight from Tokyo. The men were in Tokyo for the Olympic games when they announced their desire to defect to the U.S. The trio was held under tight security during their trip.

Miller Backs Sen. Keating

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Rep. William E. Miller called today for reelection of U.S. Sen. Kenneth B. Keating in Keating's home town of Rochester, describing him as "a great senator."

The Republican vice presidential nominee, on a whistle-stop tour by train across upstate New York, had told a reporter that he would not speak for Keating, although he was supporting the senator's bid for a second term.

* * *

Keating, who has declined to endorse the GOP national ticket, is running his reelection campaign against former Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy independent of the GOP national effort.

At his first stop today on a 400-mile swing through his home state, Miller made no mention of Keating, but urged election of other Republican candidates by name in addressing a shivering crowd of about 200 at the Batavia railroad station.

NEXT STOP

At his next stop, Rochester, Miller told a crowd of about 500 that he spoke not only for himself but for Sen. Barry Goldwater in urging reelection of Keating.

"Sen. Keating has been a great senator, and I always say one good turn deserves another," Miller told the crowd, which responded with a lusty cheer.

* * *

In a statement issued in Buffalo, Miller asserted that integrity in government had become the foremost issue in the presidential campaign.

He praised Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, as "Mr. Integrity."

CLEAR DELINEATION

"The lines are clearly drawn between Barry Goldwater and Lyndon Johnson," he said, "and there is no doubt that Barry Goldwater is Mr. Integrity."

Miller said that in lieu of "Johnson's brand of centralized power Barry Goldwater will see to it that America will stand straight again as a nation of free people.

Keating's home city of Rochester was one of 10 stops listed for Miller's day-long train ride, originating in Buffalo and ending in Westchester County in the Lower Hudson Valley.

* * *

Miller flew to Buffalo Friday night from Jersey City, N.J., to begin today's tour in a nine-car special train chartered from the New York Central Railroad.

Barry Security Charge Denied by U.S. Official

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey has termed "not true" a charge by Sen. Barry Goldwater that 150 employes were cleared to handle secrets without adequate security investigations.

* * *

McCloskey said that in 1961 approximately 150 officials were granted entering clearances" under an executive order signed in 1953 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He said all 150 were then fully investigated and "received a full security clearance."

* * *

In a speech Friday at Fullerton, Calif., Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, said "150 persons in the State Department alone have been given emergency clearance to deal with security matters without waiting for a full field investigation."

* * *

McCloskey said no person classified by the department as an official receives only an entering clearance. He said the 150 in 1961 were employed when the late President John F. Kennedy took office and were "subjected to a prompt, thorough field investigation and received a thorough security clearance."

* * *

He added that some people in the clerical field have entering clearances to avoid "extended periods of investigation before employment can be completed." At the present time, a department spokesman said, 44 clerks and typists have entering clearances awaiting full clearances.

Oakland U. Leader to Talk in E. Lansing

"Everything Nailed Down Is Coming Up Loose — Or Is It?" will be the topic of Oakland University Chancellor D. B. Varner next Tuesday.

Varner will address the 50th anniversary banquet of Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service in East Lansing.

Hungarian Trio Defects to West

BALTIMORE (AP) — A Hungarian canoeist and two countrymen arrived here today after defecting at the Tokyo Olympics. They were spirited from Friendship Airport in secrecy by a group of men who were apparently U.S. government agents.

Andras Toro, 24, who finished fourth in the Canadian Canoe singles at the summer Olympics; Denes Kovacs, 42-year-old electrician, and Karoly Molnar, a 38-year-old teacher, arrived aboard a commercial plane after a flight from Tokyo via Anchorage, Seattle and Chicago.

* * *

Their flight was on the eighth anniversary of the 1956 Hungarian Revolution.

Although they had talked to newsmen in Seattle, they were taken off their plane and out a side exit of the airport here while newsmen and photographers waited inside.

RULINGS CITED

Airport personnel, trying to keep the press from the plane and the defectors, cited "State Department rulings."

In Washington, State Department Press Office Robert J. McCloskey said the "U.S. government" was responsible for the arrangements at Friendship. He declined further comment.

* * *

"I am a young man," Toro said upon arriving at Seattle Friday night. "There is more career ahead of me in this big country."

Toro and Molnar said they had planned their defection. Kovacs said he decided to defect Wednesday after talking to an American of Hungarian descent.

FIRST ATHLETE

Toro was the first Communist athlete to defect during the Tokyo games, which wound up today. Last week, Viktor Ivanovitch Shisheyalkin, a seaman aboard the Soviet Olympic tourist ship, defected.

The slight, dark-haired Toro, who left his parents and three brothers in Hungary, said he had made up his mind to defect before going to Tokyo.

* * *

A boat builder, he said he eventually hopes to go to Sacramento, Calif.

Kovacs, who said he left Hungary because he was single, has relatives in the United States.

RUSSIAN TANKS

Molnar, who said he became an anti-Communist when Russian tanks crushed the 1956 revolt, told his mother and a younger sister of his plan to defect before he left Hungary.

He said he planned to live in Los Angeles.

* * *

Japanese police escorted the trio to the airport and kept them from newsmen. Officers said they questioned them before they departed and were satisfied that no duress was involved.

China Defector to Communists Presents Problem to Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government pondered today what to do with a Nationalist Chinese Olympic marksman who wants to defect to Red China to join his parents.

A previous case involving a Chinese defector severely strained Japanese-Nationalist Chinese relations.

* * *

Ma Ching Shan, 38, a native of Manchuria, made the request to go to Mainland China within hours of the defection to the West of three Hungarians — two tourists and an Olympic canoeist.

The reverse defection came a day before the giant Olympic sports spectacle in Tokyo drew to a close.

HAS PERMISSION

A Japanese foreign office spokesman said Ma would be allowed to go to Red China via Hong Kong "if it is definitely established that he wants to go to China and it is definitely established that he had not been coerced in any way in that decision."

Japanese police said Ma was under protective custody until the government makes a decision about him.

* * *

The previous defector case involving Tokyo and Taiwan concerned a mainland Chinese, Chou Hung-ching, 44, who at one point asked to go to Formosa. The Nationalists threatened to break diplomatic relations with Japan when the Japanese allowed Chou to return to Red China. Chou, an interpreter for a technical mission, said he had changed his mind about defecting.

Sports officials in Taipei seemed shocked by Ma's action, but confined their comment to a possibly face-saving speculation that Ma might have been coerced or bribed. The Free China Relief Association, meanwhile, said two Communist Chinese road workers who defected in Laos have arrived in Formosa.

FORMER WORK

Ma was employed by the welfare committee of the Formosa Highway Bureau in Taipei. Unmarried, Ma formerly served as an army instructor with the rank of lieutenant at an infantry school in Tainan in south Formosa. A pistol marksman, he also took part in the Rome Olympics.

An official of the pro-Peking Overseas Chinese Residents Association said Ma walked into the association's downtown Tokyo headquarters Friday and said he wanted help to return to Communist China to see his parents.

* * *

"I am willing to sacrifice my life in not returning to Taiwan. I have made up my mind," the official quoted Ma as saying.

The official said the association turned Ma over to police on condition he be sent to a country of his request. The association meanwhile airmailed an application to Peking requesting permission for Ma's entry to mainland China, the spokesman said.

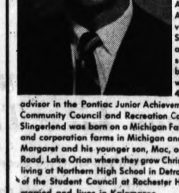
Local Man Presents Case for 63rd District Post

Robert J. Slingerland worked his way through Central Michigan University and was granted a Bachelor of Science degree with honors and a permanent teachers certificate in 1938 and has done graduate work in chemical engineering at Wayne State University. He is a chemical engineer and is in the management group on the Chrysler Corporation Engineering Staff. He is also chairman of the Rubber Adhesive Section of the Society of Automotive Engineers — American Society for Testing Materials and is a member of this national committee that determines all rubber specifications for the society. He is a member of the Detroit Rubber and Plastics Group and is a former member of the United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastics Workers of America, C.I.O. Slingerland is on the Board of Directors of the Rochester Area Branch of the United Nations Association of the United States of America, on the Steering Committee of the Rochester Human Relations Council, a member of the Michigan Christmas Tree Growers Association, Secretary of the Goodison Scout Committee, Inc., the Chemical Biological and Radiological Officer for the Oakland Township Civil Defense, a member of the Oakland Township Volunteer Police and the Pollution Abatement and Stream Improvement Advisor on the Paint Creek Conservation Project.



Slingerland was a teacher, coach, and principal in elementary and high schools for four years. He, also, has been the adult leader of the Shiawassee County Junior Farm Bureau, a 4-H Club leader, a scoutmaster, an advisor in the Pontiac Junior Achievement program and has served on the Community Council and Recreation Commission in Southgate. Slingerland was born on a Michigan Farm in 1915 and has worked on family and corporation farms in Michigan and Illinois. He now lives with his wife, Margaret and his younger son, Mac, on a small farm at 3201 Lake George Road, Lake Orion where they grow Christmas trees. Margaret teaches family living at Northern High School in Detroit. Mac is a senior and the president of the Student Council at Rochester High School. His older son, Glenn, is married and lives in Kalamazoo.

Slingerland believes that his first hand knowledge of depression and prosperity, his work with young people, his farm, school, factory and engineering work, his union and management experience, his technical education, his having lived on farms and in towns and cities and suburbs, and his community activities give him a well-rounded background that will enable him to serve all of the people as their representative in Lansing.

The problems and issues that he believes that the state government must be concerned with during the next term are a mental health program that is realistic in terms of facilities and personnel, tax reform that will encourage business expansion and give relief to the property owners in regard to local school taxes, especially for senior citizens, a school program that will provide an opportunity for every qualified student to go to college or to learn a trade; a study and correction of the problems that lead to juvenile delinquency, the active cooperation of the state with the federal government in fund matching programs and anti-poverty job retraining programs, the development of an improved urban-suburban transportation system, a reversal in the highway accident trend, the establishment and support of research projects in our universities that will establish a climate that will attract related industries, the reclamation and conservation of our water resources, and the passage of enabling legislation as called for in our new state constitution.

Pilot Parachutes to Safety From Jet

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky. (AP) — A Navy pilot parachuted to safety Friday when his single engine A4C Skyhawk jet fighter crashed into a mountaintop south of here on the Tennessee-Kentucky line.

Cmdr. Loran Craney, 42, Patuxent Naval Air Station, Md., was picked up by a Tennessee Highway Patrol helicopter after making his way to a nearby house.

The Federal Aviation Agency at Knoxville, Tenn., said Craney was on a cross-country flight out of Patuxent when the craft's engine, in the pilot's words, "just froze up."

Character Actor Dies

MARK PAPAZIAN

Name 'Teen of the Week'

Citizen Group Picks Pontiac Central Pupil

First "Teen of the Week," chosen for his outstanding leadership ability and merits by the Pontiac Citizens' Committee on Youth and fellow school representatives is Mark Papazian of 305 Pioneer.

A senior at Pontiac Central High School, Mark maintained an A-minus average at St. Trinity's and Washington Junior High School.

He was awarded the gold W and guard, highest honor which can be achieved at Washington. The award is based upon citizenship, scholarship and attendance.

At Washington, Mark was a member of the male chorus, choir and Jackson Swingers, a select boys' group.

★ ★ ★

While at Central he has been associated with the Caribbeans, McDowell Male Chorus, Central's Male Chorus and senior boys' chorus.

He has participated in student council for three years.

He was council treasurer during his sophomore year, vice president in his junior year and is now president of the student council.

For the last three years Mark attended the Student Leadership Day in Ann Arbor and last year was chosen to attend the Governor's Conference for Youth at Oakland University.

With all his activities, Mark has maintained a B-plus scholastic average during his three years at Pontiac Central.

Upon graduation he plans to enter Michigan State or the University of Michigan in a math or science course.

When asked to give his own "words of wisdom" to today's youth, he replied, "Work hard, but enjoy and participate in as much as you can."

No Dismissal in Trucker Suit

Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore yesterday denied a motion to dismiss a lawsuit against two Pontiac haul-away companies and Pontiac Teamsters Local 614, and ordered that the case be readied for trial Nov. 10.

The dismissal was sought by the F. J. Boutell Driveaway Co. Inc., 245 E. Walton, and Motorcar Transport Co.

Employes of the two firms filed the suit, claiming that their seniority rights were violated when the companies were ordered by the union to hire employes of another haul-away firm that had gone out of business.

They say that the seniority of these men was kept intact, causing them to be "bumped."

The suit asks that the two firms be restrained from dishonoring the seniority rights, along with $500,000 in damages.

The dismissal was sought on the grounds that the question was not a matter for the court to decide, but was under the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations Board.

Swiss Submarine on Sale for $2.5 Million

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (UPI) — For sale: the 300-ton, gleaming white submarine "Auguste Piccard," which has been taking groups of 40 tourists on dives in Lake Geneva during the Swiss National Exhibition.

The asking price is $2.5 million, and fair officials said they had received "more than 100 offers." The vessel, they said, can be used for pleasure cruises or exploring.

Oil Paintings Set Decor

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

A collection of original oil paintings enhances the interior decorating scheme at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Mooers, Fieldstone Drive, Avon Township.

"I've never touched a brush to canvas," said Mrs. Mooers. "But that doesn't hinder my appreciation of fine paintings. And I especially enjoy using them throughout my home."

An oil of a young maiden by Tanganelli hangs on the living room fireplace wall. Opposite, in the grouping above the avocado green, wing-back sofa are oils by the Danish painter Schoorman and the European Simmon.

Silhouettes of the Mooerses' two older sons, Richard and Jim, two colored etchings of children and a pair of child musicians in brass relief on black velvet complete the arrangement's art work.

* * *

A copy of Rembrandt's "Girl at the Half Door" is used above the loveseat. The quilted fabric of the loveseat features a shades - of - green floral pattern on a grey-green background.

Taking in account the living room's western exposure, Mrs. Mooers selected a cool, monochromatic color scheme of muted grey-green for the walls, draperies and sculptured carpeting. The room's tables are in fruitwood.

In the bedroom of the Mooers' youngest son Don hangs an oil by Birdsey which captures the brilliant colors of the Bermuda shoreline. Don is now a student at Staunton Military Academy in Virginia. Richard and Jim attend colleges in California.

The clipper ship by H. Bos, Netherlands' artist, above Jim's headboard is framed in driftwood-finished oak. Walls and carpeting in the masculine room are beige.

* * *

Establishing the color scheme in the master bedroom is an oil painting of sunflowers and cornflowers in an earthen jug. Pale gold walls and sand-beige carpeting are complemented by the room's gold-on-gold draperies and dust ruffle. The bedspread is of a quilted-gold fabric.

Accessories in the room are a gold Hitchcock chair and table stenciled in a fruit pattern. Furniture pieces are of distressed oak.

The Mooerses moved into their bi - level home five months ago. Built by R & C Robertson, Inc. of Rochester, it is located in Tienken Manor Estates.

* * *

Informal living in the household is divided between the family room, the screened porch and the first level game room.

Fighting cocks cavort on the reclaimed brick of the fireplace wall in the cherry paneled family room.

Designed to create the effect of a Parisian bistro, the game room's wall murals are a montage of both the countryside and the cityside of Paris.

One section was adapted from an original poster by Toulouse Lautrec.

* * *

The furniture's black wrought-iron bases are accented by red leather cushions and backs. Red geraniums and red and white striped canopy curtains add to the gay atmosphere.

Symbol of 20th Century Luxury

Foam Rubber Revolutionizes Home Furnishings

Foam rubber has revolutionized the home furnishings industry in the past quarter of a century. In fact, it has become the outstanding symbol of 20th Century luxury and ease of living. And nowhere is this more evident than in the bedroom.

Just recently, a syndicated story on Britain's Princess Margaret reveals that she sleeps on foam rubber. So do Hollywood queens, Arabian Princes and Texas millionaires. But what is more important, so do an ever-growing number of non-Pasha type Americans who are enjoying their slumbers on buoyant foam rubber for the nonregal sum of about two cents a night.

Though a mattress made of genuine latex foam is at the upper end of the price scale, the budget-conscious homemaker has found it to be a bargain in the long run. It is one status symbol that combines extreme durability with practicality and comfort.

There is nothing in the construction of a foam rubber mattress to break down or wear out. You can sit on the side of the bed in exactly the same spot to put on your shoes every morning and there will be no dent in the side of the mattress in five years or twenty-five. You can lie in the same spot every night and find no sagging valley even after a decade of heavy use.

* * *

Because of this built-in ability to keep its profile, a foam rubber mattress never has to be turned. A surprising number of homemakers are unaware of this fact. They also are unaware that foam rubber mattresses never have to be lugged outside for an airing spring cleaning time.

ACTUALLY BREATHES

The core holes and tiny interconnected pores provide for a constant circulation of air. Foam rubber "breathes" with each movement of the sleeper. For this reason it is cool in the heat of the summer. And it is particularly suitable for semi-tropical or damp climates because it never becomes musty or subject to mildew.

* * *

Its lack of tufts or buttons give a latex foam mattress an even sleeping surface and makes it exceedingly easy to clean by using an upholstery attachment of the vacuum cleaner to remove surface dust. The foam rubber itself, unlike many other mattress fillings, makes no dust.

That's why doctors recommend its use for persons suffering from asthma or one of the many common allergies. In addition, it is moth and vermin proof in any climate.

* * *

Because of its sleek profile, bedspreads fit like a glove and it is easy to maintain the trim, custom-tailored look in bedroom decor so important today. Many homemakers use bed-width foam rubber bolsters and occasional pillows to provide an added high fashion touch.

Everybody is aware by now that genuine foam rubber is one of the most comfortable materials ever invented to aid the repose of the human body whether it is an astronaut sailing into outer space or a tired breadwinner drifting off to dreamland. But not everybody knows the reason why.

The sleeper is really riding on air. Each mattress has countless millions of tiny air cells that gently cushion and support each curve of the body.

And here is another fact many mattress shoppers do not realize — foam rubber mattresses can be purchased in various degrees of firmness.

MACHINE TESTED

The foam rubber cores are tested by machine for density and then stamped according to three standard grades: "Medium," "Firm," or "Extra Firm." Other densities are available by special order.

Sleep experts say you should lie down on a mattress and test it for both size and comfort—not just bounce up and down on the edge a few times. For ideal sleeping conditions, each person should have a mattress area at least 39 inches in width and six inches longer in length than his own height. Foam rubber king and queen size mattresses offer this much-needed stretch room without having to stretch the budget to cover custom-made prices.

One last word of advice to shoppers buying a foam rubber mattress. Check the label to see that you are getting genuine foam rubber. There are new low-cost chemical or plastic foams available that do not stand up to the tested performance of foam rubber mattresses either in comfort or durability.

* * *

Since you spend one-third of your life on a mattress, you might as well get the best one money can buy!

Sound Way to Build for Future

When the honeymoon is over, many of the 100,000 young Americans married in June — the marrying-est month of the year — will invest in a home. For newlyweds in increasing numbers realize that becoming the owner of a home with good resale value is one of the soundest ways to build for the future.

Low down payments and convenient financing make it possible for persons with limited funds to move into new homes. Usually these homes are in planned communities in which couples with similar objectives become lasting friends, and raise youngsters who will be the citizens — and homeowners — of the next generation.

Buying in a tract is usually considered a fine investment, provided the house incorporates sufficient quality features to assure its resale value.

Studies show that high on the list of buyer wants are bathrooms with walls and floors surfaced with a waterproof and easy-to-clean material such as ceramic tile. Would-be buyers also like ceramic tile on kitchen counters and backsplashes because it cannot be burned or scratched.

Besides quality, other factors to be considered when buying a tract home are its appearance and its location in the community — its nearness to stores, schools and churches.

Homeowners can update and increase the efficiency and economy of their old gravity hot water or steam systems by converting them to modern hydronic (forced circulation hot water) heating.

Ceiling Fans Tops for Modern Patio

Remember those old fashioned ceiling fans? A Memphis, Ten., company still makes them — by the thousands! Home owners have found ceiling fans ideal for modern patios and porches.

The action of the fan not only discourages insects from entering the area but provides comfort during extremely warm temperatures.

Manufactured by the Hunter Division, Robbins & Myers, Inc., the ceiling fans are finished in a decorator beige and can be painted to match room colors.

The blades may be directed down for normal use or reversed for indirect draft-free circulation. The fans do not interfere with radio or TV reception.

Keep Rubbish Cans Elevated Off Ground

A worthwhile do-it-yourself project is a sturdy rack for garbage and refuse cans. It will help protect your galvanized steel cans from prowling dogs and accidental damage.

The rack should be at least 18 inches off the ground.

Windowsill Damaged by Steam

Windowsills rank high on the list of all-time household nuisances. In any room, they are dust-catchers and frequently need sanding and repainting. In bathrooms, kitchens and laundries, they are easily damaged by steam and soap.

These annoyances can be reduced or eliminated for all time if you surface your windowsills with ceramic tile. What's more you can do the job inexpensively and, in the process, have some fun. Here's how:

Measure the sill area that you wish to have covered in tile. Then take the measurements to a tile contractor listed in the Yellow Pages under "Tile - Ceramics." He'll be able to show you an almost unlimited selection of colors, plus various sizes and shapes. If there is any cutting necessary, he'll do that, too.

From the tile contractor you can also purchase the adhesive you'll need to secure the tile to the windowsill and the grout for filling the small joints between the tiles.

★ ★ ★

You'll find it easy to install tile. The cost for a single window should be around $4, according to the Tile Council of America. If you're planning to surface several windows, the cost will drop to about $2 per window, because there will be no additional expense for the adhesive and grout.

For Bathtub Safety Install a Grab Bar

An important safety asset in the bathroom is the installation of a grab bar on the wall next to the bathtub.

In installing a grab bar, it should always be firmly anchored to the wall studding, not just "tacked" onto the tile or plaster.

Wet Basement Out With Epoxy Sealant

Epoxite, the remarkable tough epoxy-type waterproof sealant, has conquered the wet basement problem, if 60,000 once leaky but now bone-dry basements are any criteria.

That is approximately the number of home dwelling units which received the two-component sealant's waterproofing treatment during 1963 when after five years of extensive field testing the product was first distributed nationally for do-it-yourself application.

Following 1964's thaws, coupled with the most serious flood-damage conditions in years, it is significant that retail dealer reaction to Epoxite's success with customers shows in excess of 98 per cent homeowner satisfaction.

This includes nation-wide department, paint, lumber supply and hardware stores. Typical reaction is from the New York specialty unit, Hammacher-Schlemmer, which reports less than 2 per cent negative reaction "because of inability to follow label directions correctly."

★ ★ ★

Durable, manufacturer-guaranteed and proven able to withstand water pressure of more than two tons per square foot, the epoxy-type sealant is available in quart or gallon cans with coverage of 40 and 160 square feet respectively. Epoxite is also impervious to deterioration from age, heat or cold.

OTHER USES

As often happens when a product compiles a successful track record for a particular problem, other uses and adaptions become evident and worthwhile to note.

Epoxite, distributed by Boyle-Midway, Inc., a Division of American Home Products Corporation, is now being used by imaginative do-it-yourselfers for a protective coating as well as a waterproofer. For example, it has been found excellent to preserve and lengthen life of roofing gutters, garage and patio floors, workbench surfaces, picnic tables and benches, outdoor furniture, etc.

After applying with an ordinary inexpensive paint brush and when completely cured, the Epoxite finish is neutral, tile-like and translucent and lends itself to painting over for color blending and beautification purposes.

WET BASEMENT DIRECTION

With wire brush, clean away all loose, flakey paint, crumbling cement and dirt from walls around leaky area. Epoxite works best on a sound, clean surface, but it can also be applied to a damp area. After mixing reactor and resin — both packaged separately and contained in same can — allow to stand for 15 minutes.

If coating wall-floor joints, apply sealant six inches up the wall and six inches out onto the floor. Any cracks should be opened up with a chisel until they are at least one-quarter inch wide and one-quarter inch deep. Clean out all dirt. Then brush a coating of the sealant into cracks.

With remainder of material in can, stir in clean, dry sand until a mortar of putty-like consistency is reached. Pack into crack and smooth over with trowel or putty-knife. Epoxite dries in eight to 12 hours.

To attain an indestructible, easy-to-clean garage or patio surface, floor should be dry and free of grease or oil. Epoxite, mixed according to directions, may be applied with brush or long-handled roller.

For joint areas in metal and wooden gutters, where most gutter leakage takes place, and to preserve and lengthen gutter life, eliminate all scaling rust and foreign matter, before sealing with clear Epoxite. After material has set, coat entire inside of gutter.

And for tiling floors, the new sealant is not only an ideal adhesive, but provides a waterproof membrane beneath the tile. With brush or roller, spread only a thin coating over area to prevent material from oozing up between tiles. Sealant will adhere vinyl, cork, asphalt and rubber tile, to concrete, wood or metal. Keep floor traffic-free 24 hours after application.

Outdoors or in — for preserving and waterproofing materials of wood, glass, marble or plastic — this two-component product is solving many homeowners' headaches.

More information and literature is available by writing Epoxite Publicity Department, Ted Bates & Company, Inc., 666 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10019.

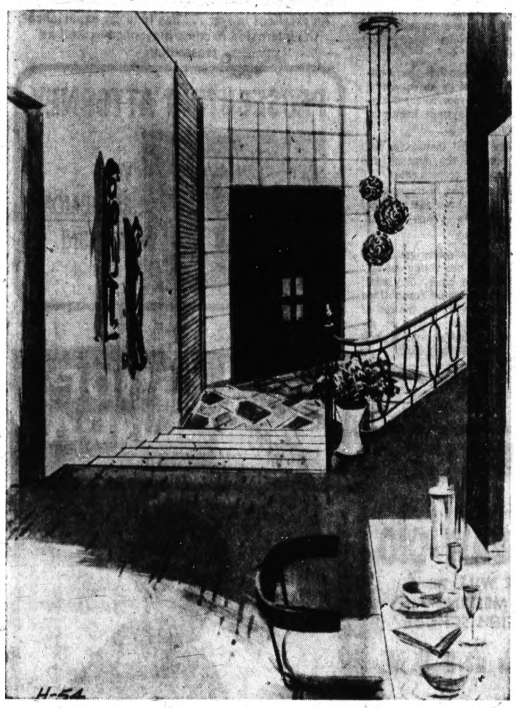
Raised Ranch Has Design Flexibility

SMOOTH STYLING: The prow-shaped deck porch enclosing the angled right-hand portion of this raised ranch house gives it a distinctive architectural touch that is followed through on the inside.



IMPRESSIVE ENTRANCE: Flagstoned front foyer looks up to the balconied reception hall in the foreground. A similar balcony is at the rear of the house.

The split entry or raised ranch is a favorite with architects and home buyers who like a style that permits considerable flexibility of design.

★ ★ ★

Architect Rudolph A. Matern has utilized this available flexibility in his latest creation for House of the Week.

Contemporary styling takes over in this unusual home, with the right side turned at an angle for dramatic effect, yet with no loss of practicality for gracious, large-family living.

It is impossible to view this house, either from the outside or the inside, without being impressed by the striking placement of its components.

★ ★ ★

Although its over-all dimensions are a modest 71'2" by 36'3", it is a five-bedroom, three-bath house with an amazing 2977 square feet of living area, not including a spacious deck porch, two other porches and the two-car garage.

RAISED RANCH

And because of the raised ranch design, the lower level — with its huge family-recreation room, two bedrooms, a bath and a laundry room — is higher than a basement, has larger windows and gets more sunlight.

The boldness of design applies to more than the angled plan.

Note the impressive front entrance, with the glass squares surrounding the door; the prow-shaped deck porch; the similarly-shaped living room with almost an entire wall of sliding glass; and the upper level reception hall, excellent as a guest introduction area.

★ ★ ★

And see how the garage is invisible from the front, its two windows blending in perfectly with the rest of the house.

The circulation is good and well-controlled from the flagstone foyer to either level. An open balcony at the stairs adds a touch of elegance.

Besides the previously-mentioned 18 feet of sliding glass, the living room has a large fireplace just off the reception hall.

★ ★ ★

From this area it is easy to move out to the large deck porch at the front or, through the dining room, to the smaller deck porch at the rear, also accessible through sliding glass doors.

CATHEDRAL CEILING

The living room ceiling is the cathedral type which follows the underside of the rafters.

What lady could resist a kitchen 20 feet long, with every conceivable modern appliance?

And there's a curved wall at the second stairs in the house around which another open balcony is designed.

The master bedroom has a bath and shower, a walk-in closet, two other closets and a handy vanity section.

Another bath is conveniently located between two other bedrooms. There are two linen closets in the hall.

Two more bedrooms are on the not-so-lower level, with a third bath nearby. The family that lives in this house will never lack for plenty of recreation space.

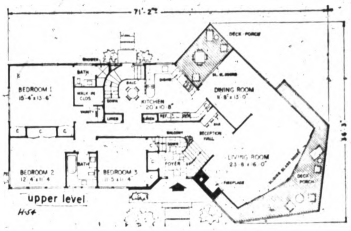
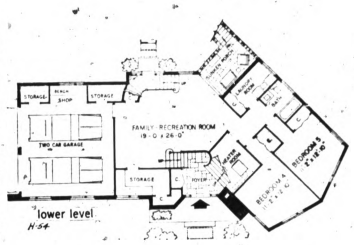
Not only is the family-recreation room a whopping 26' by 19', but there is an additional relaxation or what-have-you area on the adjoining sunken porch. A large storage room also adjoins the recreation room.

The two-car garage is wide enough to include a workshop and two separated storage areas.

All in all, Design H-54 must be considered a house with plenty of space for a large family as well as one with extra special styling.





FLOOR PLANS: Both levels of this split entry lend themselves to clever decorative treatments because of the angled but practical arrangement of some of the rooms, including the porch-enclosed living room.

H-54 STATISTICS

Design H-54 has 1813 square feet of living area on the upper level, including a living room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms and two bathrooms, but not including the large deck porch at the front and the smaller one at the rear. There are 1164 square feet of habitable area on the lower level, including a family-recreation room 26' by 19', but not including the two-car garage, storage space and sunken porch. Over-all dimensions are 71'2" by 36'3".

Powder Room Step Saving Boon to Elderly

Everyone's heard the old maxim, "Good things come in small packages." This is particularly true in describing powder rooms for both new and existing homes.

Most people try to plan their homes to give family and friends the utmost in comfort and convenience. In terms of materially increasing the value of a home, as well as increasing convenience, a powder room is well worth considering.

It can save countless steps in any home, and is a particular blessing to elderly persons who find it strenuous climbing stairs to a bathroom on the second floor.

★ ★ ★

Another big point in its favor, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, is that it can easily be kept clean for the use of visiting friends. Never again will someone have to rush to clean up the main bathroom when unexpected guests knock on the front door.

MAKE PLANS

If you are thinking of building a home, it will pay you to talk to the architect about making provisions for a powder room.

Most any house, though, says the Bureau, has some small space that can accommodate a modern off-the-floor water closet and a smartly styled oval counter-sunk lavatory. These classically beautiful fixtures require little space and provide glamor combined with convenience.

A large closet, the end of a hallway, an old pantry, the space under a stairway — any such area is a good possibility for installation of a modern powder room.

To help you determine the best location for a powder room, consult a qualified plumbing contractor. He'll help keep remodeling expenses to a minimum with his knowledge of piping availability in walls and floors.

There are 5.5 million mentally retarded children and adults in the U. S. and 128,000 babies who will be retarded are born each year.

How to Build, Buy or Sell Your Home

Full study plan information on this architect-designed House of the Week is included in a 50-cent baby blueprint. With it in hand you can obtain a contractor's estimate.

You can order also, for $1, a booklet called YOUR HOME—How to Build, Buy or Sell it. Included in it are small reproductions of 16 of the most popular House of the Week issues. Send orders to House Plans, The Pontiac Press, P. O. Box 9, Pontiac, Michigan 48056

Treat Varnish Gently to Avoid Bubbling

Don't shake or stir varnish before you use it.

Color Refreshes Drab, Dull Room

Do you have a room in your home that has become drab and dull through the years?

You can breathe new life into it without extensive, expensive remodeling. Try using color.

Splash it around generously in money-wise forms like paint, fabric and sensible surfacing materials such as ceramic tile.

For example, if your rug is worn and old, you can surface your floor with colorful, durable, easily cleaned ceramic tile and you'll never need a new carpet, or other surfacing.

But West Has a Solution

No 11th-Hour Choice for Absent Voter

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A presidential campaign is always a rough ordeal. It is rough on the candidates and it is rough on the reporters who cover them. In fact, it's rough on everybody.

WEST

But I have about decided that nobody has as rough a time as the absentee voters.

The plight that absentee voters find themselves in was pointed out to me by Bert Nevins, a fellow I know in the public relations business.

Figuring that he would be away from home on election day, he recently obtained an absentee ballot.

"Instead of taking the ballot with me and waiting until the deadline date right before the election, I decided it was best to vote then and there, which I did," he said.

But no sooner had he done so than it occurred to him that as far as he was concerned the election was over.

"I suddenly realized that no amount of persuasion on the part of any of the candidates can change my mind," Nevins said.

"No amount of television oratory or statements put out by campaign headquarters can possibly influence my vote. I can't even be listed as one of those 'undecided' statistics in the Gallup poll.

★ ★ ★

"I am in a dilemma. A lot of this political stuff is pretty dull even when your vote is up for grabs. You can imagine what it's like to listen to a campaign speech after you have voted.

CONSTANT FEAR

"Furthermore, I live in constant fear that something will happen before election day that will make me wish I had voted the other way. I don't think I could bear that.

"But what can I do? Do I put cotton in my ears from now until Nov. 3 when I see a politician on television? Do I shut my eyes when I see a juicy blast by one politician against his opponent in the daily press?

"Believe me, it's tough being an absentee voter. I thought you might have some advice for your many readers who already may have voted as I have."

★ ★ ★

There there, Nevins. Get a grip on yourself. It so happens that I do have a suggestion that may be helpful to those in your plight.

In Congress, law-givers who are going to be absent during a roll call vote frequently resort to a system known as "pairing."

They "pair" themselves with someone on the opposite side who won't be present either.

The net effect is the same as if both had been there. Either way, they cancel each other out.

VOTERS TOO

If absentee voters got together like that, one voting one way and one the other, they could produce the same result. Then they could relax for the rest of the campaign, secure in the knowledge that whoever is elected, it won't be their fault.

Regular sessions of the United Nations were first held in London from Jan. 10-14, 1946.

Teens Fight Among Themselves in NY Subway Stations, Streets

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 400 teen-agers battling among themselves in two separate outbursts of violence Friday terrorized bystanders in subway stations and on the streets of Harlem and Brooklyn.

Twenty-two youths were arrested — seven in Harlem and 15 in Brooklyn before the brief, pitched battles were broken up by police.

★ ★ ★

At least four persons were injured in the Brooklyn outburst when Negro and white students of the same high school armed themselves with car aerials, baseball bats, can openers and other weapons to settle an intramural dispute which police said had racial overtones.

★ ★ ★

The Harlem disutrbance was blamed on a disagreement between Negro students of a high school and a vocational school. Police said nothing racial was involved.

STATION BATTLE

The Harlem battle broke out in a subway station beneath the crossroads of the Negro community, sending bystanders on the run for the street above as the youths lashed out with a variety of makeshift weapons in toe-to-toe encounters.

Police had been tipped that a battle was brewing between students of the two Harlem schools and extra patrolmen were assigned to the area to guard against violence. Even so, patrolmen were hard pressed to handle the disturbance until more officers were hurried to the scene.

The Brooklyn disturbance erupted outside a high school and soon spread over several blocks, with screaming youths racing along streets flailing sticks, car aerials and clubs at passersby.

Eventually the marauding teen-agers found their way into a subway station and there set upon several passengers and a group of 10 high school girls waiting for a train.

FOUR INJURED

At least four persons, including a 71-year-old man, were injured in that battle. Police said they found a pellet gun, several broken bottles and a variety of other makeshift weapons on the subway platform.

★ ★ ★

Those arrested in both areas were charged with disorderly conduct and unlawful assembly. One youth was booked on a juvenile delinquency charge.

Pope Goes by Auto to Church Ceremony

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI left the Vatican by automobile today for Monte Cassino after a thunderstorm forced him to change plans to go by helicopter.

Main purpose of the pontiff's 78-mile trip was to consecrate the rebuilt Church of the Abbey, left in ruins by Allied wartime bombing on Feb. 14, 1944, and to proclaim St. Benedict protector of Europe.

Working Together Is Not a New Idea!

Historians tell us that it has been going on since the days of the ancients. Down through the ages, groups of people with the same interests — even though they might have been rivals — have found it to be of value to them to form voluntary associations to work out their problems and to compare new methods.

There is no difference today. The services performed by such organizations are much the same; however, the benefits are broader and more comprehensive than ever before.

If you're not already a member, why don't you join us at the Chamber of Commerce? You'll discover for yourself what the exchange of services, ideas and benefits can do for you and for your business or profession.

APPLES and CHEESE

Sure as October brings autumn leaves, it brings a favorite fall food combination, apples and cheese. Their mellow flavors blend naturally, anytime of year, but they're best in the fall months when wonderful Washington State apples are coming crackling-crisp from the orchards. Golden Delicious, Red Delicious, and first-of-the-season Jonathan apples are flavor-perfect partners for cheese, whether you're fixing a quick snack or an elaborate dessert. For an entertaining snack tray, cut cheese slices into leaf designs or shape them into tiny pumpkins for nibbling with crisp crackers. Whip up a Blue cheese dip for dunking tangy apple wedges; blend Cheddar, cream cheese and bacon for a hot fondue, or fix miniature apple-cheese pizzas. Desserts can be delightfully different, too; see how many ways cheese can be tucked in to add mellow flavor. Bake Blue cheese into pastry for apple tarts; blend Cheddar into fluffy topping for Upside-Down Apple Cake; savor cheese in the sauce for Fresh Apple Crepes.

ITALIAN APPETIZERS

Baking sheet 12 appetizers Preheated broiler

- 6 small English muffins, split
- Butter
- 12 unpared Washington apple rings
- 1½ cups ground mild Italian sausage, browned
- ⅓ cup dairy sour cream
- ½ teaspoon oregano
- Freshly ground pepper
- 1 baby Gouda cheese (8 oz.)

Place muffins on baking sheet cut side up and butter; top each with apple ring. Broil 2-3 minutes until hot. In a mixing bowl combine sausage, sour cream, oregano and pepper; spread over apple rings. Cut Gouda cheese into 12 wedges; place a wedge on top of each appetizer. Place under broiler 1-2 minutes or until cheese melts.

Variation:

- 6 small English muffins, split
- Butter
- 1 can (4½ oz.) deviled ham
- ¼ teaspoon oregano
- 12 unpared Washington apple rings
- 12 slices Cheddar cheese, 3 x 3-inches

Place muffins on baking sheet cut side up and butter; toast under broiler. Blend together deviled ham and oregano; spread on cut side of muffins. Top each with apple ring. Using round cooky cutter, cut circles from Cheddar cheese slices to same diameter as muffins; place cheese circle over apple. Place under broiler until cheese melts. Serve immediately.

NOTE: If large English muffins are used, they may be halved or cut into wedges.

CHEESE TRAY

Using leaf-shaped cooky cutters, cut leaves from slices of Cheddar and Brick cheese. Remove cheese carefully from cutters to retain leaf shapes.

To form pumpkins, allow Cheddar cheese chunks to come to room temperature. Form into balls, then make pumpkin markings using the handle of a rubber scraper or the back of a table knife. Insert apple stems or cloves into cheese pumpkins. Arrange on a tray along with a wedge of Blue cheese, a baby Gouda cheese cut into wedges and Swiss cheese sticks.

HOT CHEESE DIP

Double boiler or heavy saucepan Yield: 2 cups

- 6 slices bacon
- 1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese
- 2 cups (½ lb.) shredded Cheddar cheese
- 6 tablespoons half and half OR light cream
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- ¼ teaspoon dry mustard
- ¼ teaspoon onion salt
- 3 drops Tabasco sauce
- Unpared Washington apples, cut in wedges
- Lemon juice

Cut bacon into ¼-inch slices; sauté until crisp; drain on absorbent paper. Meanwhile, in top of double boiler or in heavy saucepan combine cream cheese, Cheddar cheese, half and half, Worcestershire sauce, mustard, onion salt and Tabasco sauce. Heat over hot water or over low heat, stirring occasionally, until cheese melts and mixture is hot. Add bacon pieces. Use as dip for Washington apple wedges which have been dipped in lemon juice.

NOTE: Dip may be served in warmer and will hold well for several hours if stirred occasionally. If mixture becomes too thick, more half and half can be added.

CHEESE DUNK

Yield: 2 cups

- ½ cup crumbled Blue cheese
- 1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
- ¼ cup dairy sour cream
- 2 drops Tabasco sauce

In a mixing bowl blend together Blue cheese, cream cheese, sour cream and Tabasco sauce. Use as a dunk for crisp Washington Red or Golden Delicious apple wedges or chips or use as a spread for rye bread. Use immediately or store covered in refrigerator.

VARIATIONS: Add 2 slices bacon, cooked and crumbled or 2 tablespoons finely chopped nuts to mixture.

UPSIDE DOWN FRESH APPLE CAKE

Buttered square pan, 8-inch 8 servings Preheated 375° oven

- 2 tablespoons butter
- ½ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- ¼ cup chopped nuts
- 3 cups pared and sliced Washington apples
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- ½ cup (1 stick) butter
- ⅔ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- ⅓ cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg
- 2 cups sifted regular all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup buttermilk

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in baking pan; sprinkle ½ cup brown sugar evenly over bottom, then nuts. Arrange apple slices in pan; sprinkle with lemon juice; set aside. In mixing bowl cream together ½ cup butter, ⅔ cup brown sugar and granulated sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat thoroughly. Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Spread batter over apple slices. Bake 40-45 minutes or until done. Allow to stand 10 minutes; invert onto serving plate. Cut into squares and serve while warm topped with whipped Cheese Topping*.

*Whipped Cheese Topping: Yield: 1 cup

- 2 cups (½ lb.) shredded Cheddar cheese
- ¼ cup half and half OR light cream

Allow cheese to come to room temperature. In a mixing bowl beat cheese until fairly smooth; gradually add half and half or light cream and continue to beat until mixture is smooth and fluffy.

Two natural flavor mates, cheese and Washington State apples, are teamed in tantalizing autumn desserts. Upside-down Fresh Apple Cake, Fresh Apple Crepes, and Blue Cheese Apple Tarts all take their tang from sparkling apples and mellow, flavorful cheese.

Here's a study in contrasts: gold and red apples, gold and red cheeses echo fall colors. Plan snacks hot and cold, mild and mellow with delicious cheeses . . . Cheddar, Blue, Swiss and Gouda . . . and snow-nipped Washington State apples fresh from the trees.

BLUE CHEESE APPLE TARTS

Fluted tart pans, 2½-inch diameter 16 tarts Preheated 425° oven

Blue Cheese Pastry:

- 1 cup sifted regular all-purpose flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup (½ stick) butter, softened
- ½ cup crumbled Blue cheese
- 3 tablespoons water

Apple Filling:

- 3 cups peeled, diced Washington apples
- ¼ cup raisins
- ¼ cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons water

Glaze:

- ½ cup dairy sour cream
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- ⅛ teaspoon cinnamon, optional

To prepare Pastry: In a mixing bowl combine flour and salt. With pastry blender cut in butter and Blue cheese until mixture resembles coarse meal. Using fork blend in water. Chill. Press dough onto bottom and sides of tart pans; prick with fork. Bake 10-12 minutes or until lightly browned. Meanwhile, prepare Apple Filling: In a saucepan combine apples, raisins, sugar and water. Bring to boil; reduce heat and simmer until apples are transparent. Spoon into tart shells. To prepare glaze: Blend together sour cream, lemon juice, sugar and cinnamon. Top each tart with a heaping teaspoon of mixture; return to oven 4-5 minutes or until glaze is just set. Remove from pans; serve either warm or cool.

FRESH APPLE CREPES

Skillet, 5-6 inch diameter 6 servings

Apple Filling:

- 4 medium Washington apples
- ¾ cup water
- ¾ cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons butter
- ⅛ teaspoon salt

Cheese Sauce:

- 1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese, softened
- ½ cup shredded Cheddar cheese
- ½ cup dairy sour cream

Crepes:

- 2 eggs
- ⅔ cup milk
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- ½ cup sifted regular all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon cinnamon

To prepare Apple Filling: Pare, core and slice apples into thick slices. In a saucepan combine apples, water, sugar, butter and salt; bring to boil; reduce heat and simmer until apples are transparent. Set aside and keep apples and syrup warm. To prepare Cheese Sauce: In a mixing bowl beat together cream cheese and Cheddar cheese until smooth; blend in sour cream. Set aside.

To prepare Crepes: In a mixing bowl beat eggs well; add milk and butter. Sift together flour, sugar, salt and cinnamon; add to milk mixture beating until smooth. Butter skillet; heat very hot. Pour about 2 tablespoons batter into skillet tilting pan to cover bottom. Fry until lightly browned; turn and brown on other side. Stack crepes until ready to use.

To assemble Crepes: Place 3-4 apple slices on each crepe; top with 1 tablespoon Cheese Sauce; roll. Place single layer in chafing dish; pour over apple syrup and heat. Serve 2 filled crepes per serving. *Top each serving with a dollop of Cheese Sauce.

Former Pontiac Pastor Now Coadjutor Bishop

Auxiliary Bishop Alexander M. Zaleski of Detroit and former pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic parish, has been named Coadjutor Bishop with the right of succession and Apostolic Administration of the Diocese of Lansing.

★ ★ ★

A vicar general of the Archdiocese of Detroit, and pastor of St. Alphonsus Church, Dearborn, Bishop Zaleski's entire pastoral career has been in and near Detroit.

A native of Laurel, N.Y. he entered St. Mary College, Orchard Lake for college studies and then went on to Louvain, Belgium in 1927 for theological study.

Bishop Zaleski was ordained at the Louvani July 12, 1931.

He returned to Detroit to become assistant at Resurrection Church and then to St. Thomas the Apostle Church. In October 1932 Father Zaleski was sent to Rome for special studies at the Pontifical Biblical Institute.

He returned to serve as a professor on the faculty of St. Mary College and SS.Cyril and Methodius' Seminary, Orchard Lake.

★ ★ ★

He remained there until appointed vice-chancellor of the Archdiocese of Detroit. In 1948 he was elevated to the rank of Right Reverend Monsignor.

Msgr. Zaleski returned to pastoral duties in 1948 when he was named to head St. Vincent de Paul Church.

During his pastorate here Pope Pius XII named him as titular Bishop of Lyrhe and Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

He was consecrated Bishop on May 23, 1950 by Cardinal Mooney in solemn ceremonies in the Cathedral of Blessed Sacrament.

★ ★ ★

Bishop Zaleski will take over administrative duties from Bishop Joseph H. Albers of Lansing.

The announcement came from Archbishop Egido Vagnozzim, apostolic delegate to the United States.

★ ★ ★

Bishop Zaleski is now in Rome attending sessions of the Second Vatican Council.

MOST REV. A. M. ZALESKI

MR. AND MRS. ELMER DAVIS

NEW PASTOR—The Rev. Loy L. Barger of 21 W. Rutgers is the new pastor of First Social Brethren Church, 316 Baldwin. He is shown with his wife and son Ronnie, singing hymns and folk songs while daughter Rhonda plays the piano. Another daughter Jean is married. Rev. Mr. Barger comes to Pontiac from Oxford where he organized and served the First Social Brethren Church for five years.

Young People Do for Others

Collect for Children on Halloween Eve

Young people from many churches in the Pontiac area will be helping others besides themselves on Halloween night. They will go from door-to-door asking for contributions for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF).

★ ★ ★

The money collected will be used to help the world's sick, hungry and needy children and mothers in 116 countries.

★ ★ ★

The UNICEF Halloween program began in 1950 by a small Sunday School Class with treats totaling $17. This was the beginning of a program in which, at the present time, over 3 million young people participate in all 50 states.

The Trick or Treat collection in 1963 was about $2 million.

Members of Central Methodist Church who miss the young collectors may place their donation in canisters at church Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Youth of Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian will meet at Roy's Ranch for a hayride following collection.

BIRMINGHAM

Young people of Birmingham churches will cooperate in the UNICEF program by collecting during daylight hours.

★ ★ ★

They will meet at First Methodist Church at 2 p. m. Oct. 28 for instructions and a dedication service. From 2:30 to 5 p. m. they will cover their assigned areas.

Waterford Community Has Bible Exhibition

Looking over the display of Bibles at Waterford Community Church Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis of 6035 Andersonville, Waterford Township.

Among those loaned by the Davis family was a large red Bible once belonging to Col. Ezra Hatton of Farmington who carried it throughout the Civil War.

A tan Bible made of calf skin was found in an old home in Ionia with the date 1800 and name Alexander Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis also displayed a small regular sized Bible printed in 1850. It had belonged to Mr. Davis' father Ernest Davis.

Gospel Sing Tonight

The Country Gospelaires of Dayton, Ohio will be featured at the old fashioned gospel sing at First General Baptist Church, 3010 Marlington, Waterford Township tonight. The time is 7:30 p.m.

Ministers Announce Activities

Sunday School is at 9:30 and worship at 11 a.m.

CHURCH OF GOD

"Fast for the Absentee" will be the theme of the fourth week of the fall enlargement campaign at the Church of God, Pike at Anderson.

Jim Thompson and Edward Moore were chosen as leaders in the election for Youth Evangelistic Association. Members of the group are working with the national denomination in building a church in Durban, Africa.

TRINITY BAPTIST

Trinity Baptist Church will observe its 46th anniversary with a program at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow. Guests will come from First Baptist in Romulus with Rev. Frank C. Jones, the pastor, bringing the message.

The visiting choir will furnish the music.

Rev. Lee A. Gragg, pastor, will preach at 11 a.m. Sunday School is at 9:15 a.m.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

"The Sins and Strength of Protestantism" will be the theme of Rev. Galen E. Hershey's sermon when he preaches at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services tomorrow in First Presbyterian Church.

The sermon will point out the defects and powers of Protestant beliefs and principles, Pastor Hershey said.

The Chancel Choir will sing "In the Night Christ Came Walking" by Cain and Mrs. Michael Sisno will present "Spirit of God Descend Upon My Heart" by Neidlinger as the offertory solo.

The Girls' Chorus directed by Douglas Nichols will make its first appearance at the early service with the anthem, "Dear Lord, in These Our Younger Days" by Zaninelli.

Hosts for the Couples' Club dinner Wednesday evening include Mr. and Mrs. Lane Vanderhoek, the Melvin Newtons, the Ford Everetts, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Horobin.

FIRST BAPTIST

Dr. David Hood of Orlando, Fla. will conduct and teach during the Bible Conference at First Baptist Church next week.

Dr. Hood, an Irish evangelist, will speak at both morning and evening services tomorrow and at 7 p.m. each evening Monday through Friday. He will conclude his ministry at 7 p.m. on Nov. 1.

According to Pastor Robert Shelton, Dr. Hood has conducted preaching crusades throughout Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand, as well as the United States.

Men's Club Has Speaker

English Vicar Guest at Christ Church

The Rev. Charles Crowson, vicar of Yardley, Birmingham, England, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Men's Club of Christ Church Cranbrook (Bloomfield Hills) at 7 p. m. Monday. The meeting is open to ladies.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Crowson, who is in this country to serve as co-missioner with Canon Bryan Green in connection with the Bishop's Mission in Michigan, has enjoyed a distinguished career as a clergyman, television commentator and author in England.

★ ★ ★

His church in Birmingham was established in 998 A. D. by Princess Edbargha, daughter of King Alfred.

Before assuming his post as vicar of Yardley, Mr. Crowson held many posts with the Church of England in London. He also was chaplain at Cambridge University from 1944 until accepting a call to his present church in Birmingham in 1947.

In addition to his duties at Yardley, Mr. Crowson is assistant missioner at Birmingham University and at the Oxford Tri-ennial Mission.

Author of numerous feature articles in Birmingham newspapers, he is a member of the Birmingham Press Club, oldest in the world.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Crowson will be introduced by the Rev. Michael Nesbitt, assistant rector of Christ Church Cranbrook and a native of England.

Reservations for the dinner meeting can be made by calling the church office.

Bob Calrk to Be Soloist at Emmanuel Baptist

Bob Clark, former Pontiac resident and tenor soloist with the Weatherford Trio, will present several selections at Emmanual Baptist Church at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Some 300 churches of the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod, will hold open house and special services in the Pontiac area Sunday through Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Start of the Mission Week will be marked by a Families for Christ Rally at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in St. Paul Lutheran, Joslyn at Third. Rev. V. L. Brandt of Palos, Ill. and Rev. C. L. Gutekunst of Center Line will speak.

According to Pastor Delayne H. Pauling of Cross of Christ Church Lutherans will urge their neighbors and friends to visit their church Monday through Thursday.

Guest speakers from all over the midwest will be featured. Services will include Bible study, hymn singing and a program especially suited to young people and children.

Rev. Gerard Thies of West Plains, Mo. will be guest missioner at Christ Lutheran, Milford. Cedarcrest Lutheran Church, Union Lake will hear Rev. H. A. Blanke, a pastor from Chicago.

★ ★ ★

Coming from Oil City, Pa. to preach at St. Stephen Lutheran, Waterford Township will be Rev. Ronald Ginter, son of the William Ginters of Pontiac.

The congregation of Faith Lutheran Church currently worshiping in Seven Harbors Community Center, East Highland will hear Rev. V. L. Brandt of Palos Park, Ill.

St. Matthew Lutheran of Walled Lake will be host to missioner Rev. L. E. Thalacker of Bradley, Ill.

Rev. William Reinhardt of Brooklyn, Ohio is scheduled to hold services at St. Trinity Lutheran, 318 Auburn, and Holy Cross Lutheran, Oxford will hear Rev. E. A. Knoernschild of St. Louis, Mo.

★ ★ ★

Rev. Richard Feucht of Peace Luthern, Waterford Township will be missioner for Shepherd King Church, Birmingham.

St. Mark Church, Orchard Lake and Cross of Christ will hear their own pastors at regular services.

Evangelist Billy Walker at Oakland

Evangelist Billy Walker will preach at the morning and evening services tomorrow at the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church. The long-anticipated Sunday School attendance goal of 700 is expected tomorrow when people of all ages gather for the two Sunday Schools at 9 a.m. and 11:20 a.m.

The second Sunday School will be in the form of a rally in the sanctuary at which time Hilding Halverson, will sing and Billy Walker will preach. Juniors through adults will attend.

Youth groups meet at 5:45 a. m.

Tonight at 7 Mr. Halverson will present a musicale. There will be a brief message by Mr. Walker.

The members interested in doing church and Sunday School visitation are to meet tomorrow night at 7.

Bible Study and Prayer Hour at 7 Wednesday.

At 8 p. m. Wednesday the diacopate will meet to make plans for deserving needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

REV. SPIROS ZODHIATES

Greek Minister Talks at Five Points

Rev. Spiros Zodhiates, general secretary of the American Mission to Greeks Inc., Ridgefield, N.J., will speak at Five Points Community Church tomorrow.

Enterprisor of a vast missionary and welfare program in his native Greece, he is author of a three-volume expository study of the Epistle of James and more than 30 Bible study booklets.

Rev. Mr. Zodhiates is editor in chief of the Greek Evangelical monthly, "The Voice of the Gospel," published in Athens.

Melvin Hardiman in St. John Recital

The Methodist Men of St. John Methodist Church will present Melvin Hardiman, tenor, in recital at 6:15 p.m. tomorrow in the church auditorium.

★ ★ ★

Highlights of Mr. Hardiman's program will be arias by Puccini and Bizet. Raphael Hooks will be accompanist. The program will benefit the building fund.

Norrel White is president of the group and Rev. W. E. Teague, pastor of St. John.

Webb H. Hall Minister for Meetings

Webb H. Hall, former minister at the Pontiac Church of Christ, 1180 N. Perry will speak at the special meetings beginning tomorrow.

Services are set for 8 and 10:15 a.m. and 6 p.m. each Sunday, and at 7:30 each evening through Nov. 1.

Presently minister at Church of Christ in Elkhart, Ind., Mr. Hall is not a stranger to this area as he served four and a half years at the local church.

Former pastorates include St. Louis, Northeastern Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee and Arizona.

The church after all is not a club of saints; it is a hospital for sinners. — George Craig Stewart.

*Final League Standing

By FLETCHER SPEARS

The facts are new, but essentially, it's the same old story in the race for grid honors in the Inter-Lakes League.

* * *

Walled Lake authored its sixth title in a row last night at Wisner Stadium, routing Pontiac Northern's Huskies, 52-7, and dampening the spirit of the PNH Homecoming crowd.

The win was the Vikings' sixth in a row over PNH and gave them a final 3-0 record in the I-L and an over-all mark of 5-1.

The Vikings divided their scoring with 27 in the opening half and 25 in the remaining frames.

Walled Lake moved with ridiculous ease through and over the PNH defense. The team racked up 443 yards on the ground and added another 125 in the air.

STARTS ROUT

Fullback Greg Giglio, one of the leading scorers in Oakland County, started the rout with an 11-yard jaunt in the opening quarter.

The Viking defense, which held PNH to 58 yards rushing, took over in the second period and broke the game open.

At the 5:43 mark of the second, Tom LaVerdure stepped into his endzone to put the Huskies out of trouble, but Roger Ruminski, a 260-pound tackle, broke through to block the punt and covered the ball for a touchdown.

At 2:12, quarterback Bill Curtis dropped back to pass at the Viking 21-yard line. Walled Lake rushed.

Curtis tried to ground the ball to avoid a loss but tackle John Sherrick grabbed the short flip and rambled 70 yards for a TD.

PNH SCORES

With 49 seconds remaining in the half, the Huskies hit paydirt with Curtis passing to end Chris Gfles for the final 42 yards.

* * *

But Walled Lake wasn't through. With 38 seconds left, Giglio ran the kickoff back 48 yards to the PNH 37-yard line, and on the first play, Lehman hit end Charles Williams with a payoff pitch and a 27-7 halftime lead.

The winners pushed over three more scores in the third. Williams snared a 27-yard TD pass from Lehman, and the junior signal - caller ran 13 yards for another.

Sophomore fullback Dennis Fitzgerald picked up the Vikings final scores on a pair of two-yard plunges.

* * *

Kettering Sweeps Past Sixth Opponent

For Homecoming Contest

PCH at Wisner Tonight

More than a season and a half have passed since Pontiac Central posted a football victory before the home fans at Wisner Stadium.

The Chiefs are expected to end the home field drought tonight when they play Saginaw High in a Saginaw Valley Conference game starting at 8 o'clock. Adding incentive is the fact that this game will be PCH's homecoming.

Central ended a 13-game winless string last week when the Chiefs tripped Bay City Handy, 7-0. But that game was played on the road. The last Central victory in Wisner Stadium was over Pontiac Northern in the final game of the 1962 season.

Actually, that was the only win Central has posted at home since it last met Saginaw. The Trojans came to Pontiac a definite underdog, but routed the Chiefs in the second half to snap a long loss skein of their own.

Pontiac Press Photo

BROKEN UP—Pontiac Northern's Mike Samuilow (43) moved up to spoil this Walled Lake pass play last night. Halfback Pat Godfrey was on the receiving end of the toss from quarterback Terry Lehman, but Samuilow jarred him loose from the ball. Northern lost, 52-7.

Lapeer Jolted in 30-6 Romp

Future WKHS Slate Holds Tough Foes

Kettering brushed aside another opponent last night, but the Captains are going to find it increasingly harder to keep their football slate swept clean.

Lapeer became the Captains sixth straight victim, 30-6.

* * *

Looming next week, however, is the winner-take-all Tri-County League game with Mt. Clemens L'Anse Creuse. A week later Kettering tangles with Berkley, currently tied for first place in the Southeastern Michigan Association.

The finale will be against Township rival Waterford, heading for its best season in several years.

Kettering overcame a Lapeer jinx that saw them defeated twice 14-13 in previous tussles. There was never much doubt about the outcome last night on the loser's field after the Captains took an 18-0 halftime lead.

* * *

The Captains now have a 3-0 league record while L'Anse is 2-0-1. Kettering needs only a tie to gain the crown. But a L'Anse win would give the Lancers the championship.

THREE TOUCHDOWNS

Jim Haviland scored three touchdowns against Lapeer and had another nullified by a penalty.

The fleet - footed halfback opened the scoring in the first quarter by sprinting 19 yards on the first play after Don Grey had pilfered a Panther pass.

Joe Duran blasted four yards early in the second quarter after the Captains blocked a punt and took over on the Lapeer 25.

Pat Nutter climaxed a sustained drive later in the period by bucking over from the five.

Haviland upped the count to 24-0 in the third quarter with a 51-yard sprint and wrapped up the point spree in the fourth stanza with a jaunt from the 14.

Roger Brady, who blocked the Lapeer punt in the second period, and Bill Laing again were the defensive standouts for the Captains.

Seaholm Falls, RO Kimball Wins

A three-way tie remained in the Southeast Michigan League as Kimball, Ferndale and Berkley chalked up victories.

Ferndale used a strong ground game to whip Seaholm, 28-14, with Ken Luxton gaining 135 yards in 14 carries and scoring two touchdowns. Luxton went over from the five after a 70-yard drive and on a reverse from Bob Super he went 22 yards for the second TD.

* * *

Seaholm made it 14-7 at halftime when Bill Downey went over from the three-yard line.

In the third period, Downey fumbled on the 27 and on the first play Bruce Pettigrew went all the way to make it 21-7.

The Maples then moved 70 yards behind quarterback Dick Swaney and John Kingscott dove over from the one. In the final stanza, however, Joe Haslitt went 15 yards and the final score read 28-14.

Dave Thomas converted all four for Ferndale.

Kimball's 21-0 win over Southfield and Berkley's 14-13 victory over Hazel Park kept them at the top with Ferndale with 3-1 marks.

SCORES THREE

Andy Stubl scored all three touchdowns for Kimball taking scoring passes of 15, one and 15 yards from Bob Miles. Larry Michalek's 55-yard punt return set up the final TD and Ron Hare added all the points.

Gary Edding's 3-yard burst gave Hazel Park a 6-0 lead but Rick Krumm tied it from one yard and Ken Van Loon added the point for a 7-6 lead.

Jeff Gifford's one yarder and Shephard's point made it 13-7, but with five minutes left, Berkley marched 74 yards and there were 56 seconds left when Krumm scored from the one and Van Loon made the winning point.

It was a 42-yard pass from Krumm to Van Loon to the Hazel Park two-yard line which set up the big TD.

Port Huron Wins, 26-15 for Crown

Port Huron won the Eastern Michigan League title last night by whipping East Detroit, 26-15, while Roseville won over Mt. Clemens, 3-0 on a 20-yard field goal by Art Martz in the third quarter.

Jim McMillen went 14 yards, Denny Herrick took a 63-yard pass from Jack Morris, Gary Dill went 82 yards on a punt return and Bob Wedge scored on a 14 yarder for Port Huron's tallies.

Bill Racely converted twice.

Mickey Frabott went two yards and Mike Dupre scored on a 15-yard pass from Glenn Crane for East Detroit which also added a safety.

Farmington Takes I-L X-County Title

Farmington won its first Inter-Lakes Conference cross country meet since 1952 with a low score of 30 points at Hickory Hills golf course yesterday.

Runnerup was defending champion Pontiac Northern with 39 points, followed by Walled Lake, 10-time winner, with 53 points and Waterford with 119.

Joe Watson of Farmington was individual winner in a time of 10:07 with teammates Bruce Anderson and Ron McGaw following him.

In the reserve meet, the teams finished the same way with Farmington scoring 27 points.

INDIVIDUAL RESULTS

Joe Watson, Farm. 10:07; Bruce Anderson, Farm.; Ron McGaw, Farm.; Mark Karell, WL.; Nick Ochela, PNH; Tim Kaul, PNH; Dave Pruett, PNH; Don Colpitts, WL.

Ground Blitz in 3rd Period Aids Skippers

Blocked Conversion Decides Issue; Unit Second in League

By DON VOGEL

Waterford pulled a midstream switch last night and the result was a 14-13 victory over Farmington which gave the Skippers second place in the final Inter-Lakes League football standings.

Both teams came out passing, but neither could force the other into a fatal mistake until the closing minute and a half of the second quarter.

Halfback Dick Johnston of Farmington hit end Terry Nielson with a 58-yard strike to the Waterford 10 and halfback Bruce Charles followed on the next play with a touchdown pass to end Tom Mitchell.

The Skippers broke through to block Wayne Johnston's kick for the extra point and this proved to be the big play.

Waterford all but packed up its aerial circus during the intermission after quarterback Rick Ziem had hit six of 14 in the first half. Four others were on target but were dropped by receivers.

Ziem passed only twice in the second half and both tosses were complete for key gains. They were thrown on the Skippers' 64-yard march for their first touchdown after they took the second half kickoff.

The remaining yardage was chewed up in a ground blitz as was the drive later in the period that produced the winning TD.

FIRST MARCH

On the first drive, a 15-yard penalty put the Skippers back to their 25 but Ziem hit Tom Hoke with a 19-yard pass to keep things going. After Hoke, Mike Alsup and Dave Kline had alternated carrying to the Farmington 24, Ziem hit Hoke on third down with a 10-yarder.

Alsup broke loose over right tackle on the next play and raced to the end zone. Dave Farris' placement put the Skippers in front, 7-6.

Waterford stormed 56 yards the next time it had the ball with Ziem making 21 yards on a keeper and then sneaking the final three on two carries.

Farris' kick warmed the Waterford partisans among the 2,500 homecoming crowd. It proved to be the winning point.

* *

Farmington scored on a freak play early in the fourth period.

The Falcons, who were still trying to move via the airways found some running room and marched 75 yards for the final TD.

They were stymied on the Waterford seven. Charles passed on fourth down and Dave Roemensky of the Skippers, apparently intercepted in the end zone.

But Roemensky, whose hands were heavily taped, couldn't hold the ball in the freezing weather and the pigskin scooted away from him into the waiting arms of Farmington's Roy Leach.

Waterford finished I-L play with a 2-1 record and is 4-1-1 over-all.

Braves Face Suit

Pressure in Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Pressure is being applied from all angles in Milwaukee's determined bid to prevent the Braves from moving to Atlanta.

* * *

A Milwaukee attorney, who owns a single share in the Braves' corporation, filed a stockholder's suit in U.S. District Court Friday in an effort to bar the baseball club's transfer.

And Mayor Henry Maier, working for expansion of the major leagues as a means of keeping the Braves in Milwaukee, invited mayors of several other cities to a meeting in his office Monday to discuss his proposal.

The Associated Press learned Friday night that Maier extended invitations to mayors of several cities interested in obtaining major league franchises.

WILL ATTEND

The mayors of Oakland and Seattle indicated they would attend the meeting. Other cities mentioned were Dallas-Ft. Worth, San Diego, Buffalo and Toronto, all of which have expressed interest in obtaining major league baseball.

Maier's office would neither confirm nor deny the report.

The stockholder's suit was filed by Francis J. Demet, who asked a permanent injunction to prohibit the Braves from attempting to arrange any franchise transfer before a contract for use of County Stadium expires Dec. 31, 1965.

* * *

Judge Robert E. Tehan ordered the Braves to show cause at 2 p.m. Dec. 14 why he shouldn't issue the injunction.

Milwaukee County already has obtained a temporary injunction restraining the Braves from pursuing efforts to move. A hearing is scheduled in Circuit Court next Tuesday morning on whether the order should be made permanent.

3 Harriers Suffer Bites by Mongrel

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Three runners were bitten by a dog during a cross country meet involving North Carolina, Clemson and Virginia Friday.

North Carolina defeated Clemson 19-42 and beat Virginia 20-42.

Two North Carolina runners, Atlantic Coast Conference champion Art Maillet and Jim Meade, suffered only minor bites.

Bill Moore, Virginia's No. 2 runner, was bitten on the right hip and treated at North Carolina Memorial Hospital. The dog drew blood from him.

Asked what he did when the dog bit him, Moore said: "I gave him a judo chop across the head."

Police said the dog, a big mongrel, would be kept under observation.

Deckerville Posts Fifth Grid Victory

Deckerville upped its football record to 5-1 last night with a 20-8 victory over Grosse Pointe University School.

Gerald Philips ran 17 yards, Rod Baltzer 45 and Wayne Schmidt passed 74 to Carl Warczinsky for Deckerville TDs. Dennis Lenk kicked two conversions.

Tim Martin scored for GPUS in the first period on a 38-yard scamper. The score was 6-6 at the half.

Milford Unit Takes Cross-Country Title

Milford's cross-country team racked up the Wayne-Oakland League championship yesterday at Kensington Park.

The Redskins scored 23 points followed by Bloomfield Hills with 48.

Tom Kearney grabbed individual honors with a winning time of 10:18.8.

Utica 13-6 Winner in Bi-County Tilt

Utica won its 4th game of the season against a loss and a tie by defeating Bi-County foe Warren, 13-6.

With Tom Orlosky and Paul Schaffer doing most of the running Utica scored in the third and fourth quarters.

Orlosky went over one yard after a 45 yard and Schaffer climaxed a 60-yard march in the final stanza by hitting from the five. Dan Drca added the point.

Warren's TD came late in the 4th period when Jerry Stempien ended a 60-yard march by going one yard.

Three other times Utica was stopped inside the Warren 20.

Holly Routs Clarkston but Lakers Defeated

By JERE CRAIG

Holly, Bloomfield Hills and Brighton ran up impressive point totals but it was two Milford touchdowns that made the biggest news in Friday's Wayne-Oakland League results.

Milford celebrated homecoming by outlasting Northville, 14-7, in a hard fought contest before a large crowd at the Redskins' new, impressive gridiron layout.

The victory was Milford's first over Northville since 1947 and kept them solidly atop the W-O flag chase with a 5-0 loop mark.

Holly stayed close behind by whipping Clarkston, 40-20, as Mark Phalen scored four times. The Broncos now are 4-1, having lost only to Milford.

Bloomfield Hills tied Northville for third place at 3-2 by coming from behind for a 39-7 victory over Livonia Clarence ville.

SHOCKER

And Brighton shocked visiting West Bloomfield, 26-7, for its first win of the year and a happy homecoming. The Bulldogs equalled their season touchdown total by scoring four six-pointers in the first half.

★ ★ ★

Jim Ward of Milford scored twice to give the Redskins a 14-0 lead which their big defensive line then protected through the second half, although being penetrated for one Northville scoring thrust.

After more than 20 minutes of feel-em-out football, Milford mounted a drive in Mustang territory that broke the scoring ice with 26 seconds remaining in the first half.

On a fourth-and-two play at the 20, Ward ran nine yards to the 11. Quarterback Gary Newcomb on the next play passed to Ward at the goal line and the shifty halfback outsmarted two Northville defenders to take the aerial and step into paydirt.

Leading 7-0, Milford forced Northville to punt after the second half kickoff. Mike Yeager caught the ball at the Redskins' 45, handed off to Ward on a reverse and the latter streaked down the left sideline 56 yards to score.

A 13-yard scoring run by fleet Kent Kipfer narrowed the gap in the fourth quarter.

Holly's Phalen opened the scoring at Clarkston on a one-yard plunge. Bill Stark's 34 pass-run play made it 14-0 in the first quarter.

CLOSE GAP

Clarkston cut the gap to 14-7, but Phalen then tallied twice, going over on a 25-yard pass-run play and an eight-yard run. His fourth six-pointer, a seven yard run, initiated the second half scoring and put the game out of Clarkston's reach.

Mike Kraatz went over twice for Bloomfield Hills as it bounced back against Clarenceville. The visiting Trojans scored on the game's first scrimmage play, a 68-yard scamper by Ray Parker.

But Dave Robillard caught a touchdown pass of 14 yards from Tom Carney. Kraatz caught one of nine yards and ran nine yards for scores, Carney went five yards and Bill Pappas three before coach Bill Tunnicliff turned the offense over to the reserves.

★ ★ ★

They too drove to paydirt with sophomore Randy DeArment carrying the ball over from the one. In all, Tunnicliff had eight sophomores gaining valuable experience for next year and stamping the Barons as definitely on the rebound.

West Bloomfield lost six fumbles, four in the first half and Brighton was quick to take advantage of the miscues.

The Bulldogs went over twice in each of the first two periods while the visiting Lakers could only counter with a seven-yard end run by quarterback Greg Hepinstall.

★ ★ ★

Quarterback Bob Cameron passed to Mike Stillwagon (46 yards) for the first six-pointer, sneaked over from the one, and passed to Mike Fournier (37 yards) for the final six-pointer.

Rochester 11 Trips Orion; Avon Loses

By HERB PETERS

What was shaping up to be a runaway race in the Oakland-A Conference suddenly became a wide-open scramble last night among five teams.

★ ★ ★

Clawson saw to that by upsetting previously unbeaten Troy, 21-20, to halt an otherwise easy lope to the title by the Colts.

Rochester and Fitzgerald (tied at 3-1-1 drew within a half-game of Troy, and Madison matched Clawson (3-2) a game behind the leaders.

The Falcons blasted winless Lake Orion, 39-12, Fitzgerald eased past Avondale, 20-12, and Madison overpowered Warren Cousino, 31-19.

Three extra-point conversions by Joe Dillon gave Clawson its winning margin.

The Trojans stunned Troy in the first period with an eight-yard scoring thrust by Terry Maznio and Jeff Volk's 35-yard scamper after picking up a Colt fumble.

★ ★ ★

Troy came back in the second quarter for a 14-14 tie on a 25-yard jaunt by Ken Holder, a 15-yard burst by Jeff Quandt, and Holder's two conversions.

Clawson regained the lead with 38 seconds remaining in the first half, Dave Kedrow passed to end Phil Strittmatter for a 35-yard touchdown.

KICK WIDE

Holder gave the Colts new life in the final stanza when he raced 90 yards to score, but his attempt for the extra point was wide.

★ ★ ★

Rochester ran up a 26-0 lead and then shared a four-touchdown outburst with the Dragons in the last five minutes.

Sandy Sutton passed 26 yards to Al Boughner and tallied twice himself on one-yarders as the Falcons built a 20-0 margin in the first half.

Boughner went 23 yards for a third period touchdown before the explosive finale. Roger Trimble put Lake Orion on the scoreboard with a seven yard sprint, and Jim Ball sneaked one yard for a Falcon equalizer.

Fans who made an early exit missed some fireworks. With 28 seconds to go, Terry Brookens sped 23 yards for an Orion TD. Ty Gill then took the kickoff and returned it 90 yards for Rochester's final touchdown.

★ ★ ★

Avondale fell behind 20-0 before scoring twice in the fourth quarter. Lynn Thorpe fired a 20-yard aerial to Dick Reddaway for one and smashed five yards for the other.

Fitzgerald went ahead 14-0 the first period on runs of 35 and 25 yards by Ken Mooney. Jim Harvey made a 40-yard runback with a pass interception for the Spartans' final tally in the fourth.

Before the pass interception, the Yellow Jackets threatened twice, once reaching the Fitzgerald five in the third period.

Madison and Cousino dueled through a 7-7 first period, and then the Eagles kept moving ahead. After Madison drove 70 yards capped by Lloyd Hood's 15-yard run, Cousion retaliated with a 30-yard pass from Drew Pisha to Dave Buckhardt.

★ ★ ★

Jerry Dash cruised 35 yards and plunged one for TD's in the second period before Pisha connected again on a 40-yard pass to Buckhardt as the Eagles led 19-13 at halftime.

Hood raised the margin with a five-yard smash in the third quarter. Ray Cook rambled 25 yards in the fourth before Pisha threw his third TD pass, a 60-yard gainer to Mario Contrera.

Almont Ends Dryden Hopes

Dryden's dream of football greatness became a nightmare last night.

The high-flying Cardinals were shot down by the opponents they rented the field from for Dryden's home games. And to add insult to the end of a five-game winning streak, it was Dryden's homecoming.

★ ★ ★

Almont's Harry Hoffner riddled the vaunted Dryden defense for 159 yards rushing and two touchdowns as the Raiders posted a convincing 26-6 victory.

Dryden, Almont, Anchor Bay and New Haven are tied for first place in the Southern Thumb Conference with 4-1 records.

New Haven routed Memphis, 39-0, as Lamont Harris scored three touchdowns and Anchor Bay stunned Brown City, 33-20, in other league action. Armada hosts Capac this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Gone is Dryden's No. 5 rating in the state Class C poll, but the Cardinals are still in a good position to tie for the championship.

Almont was not too highly rated before the season, but the Raiders have come on strong and last night's big victory should make believers out of those who had doubts.

Led by Hoffner, the Raiders made a shambles of Dryden's ground defense that was rated the best in the league. Almont rolled up 290 rushing and 59 passing.

Hoffner scored in the first and second periods on three-yard slants as the Raiders gained a 12-6 halftime lead.

★ ★ ★

They put the game away in the fourth period with two more touchdowns including a 25-yard TD pass from quarterback Larry Schulte to Steve Woinikowski.

Larry Millikin got the other on a four-yard slat.

★ ★ ★

Dryden's lone touchdown was scored in the second quarter on an eight-yard run by quarterback Tom Sterner. The Cardinal signal caller, who had been having good passing performances, completed only four of 11 and had two intercepted.

Tackle Wayne Tessmer, guard Gary Hayes and Millikin, a linebacker, were credited with stand out defensive play for the Raiders. Dryden had a total offense of 139 yards, well under its average for the season.

★ ★ ★

Millikin and Ken Schulte picked up extra points on runs.

Romeo Rips Imlay, 39-19

Romeo and Imlay City played a wild scoring game last night with eight players figuring in the touchdowns and Romeo was on the big side of the result, 39-19.

Imlay took a 6-0 lead with Dale Goodrich went over from the seven in the first period, but then Lee Stewart broke loose 77 yards and Jim Boggs converted to make it 7-6.

★ ★ ★

In the second quarter Bob Rowley took a 25-yard pass from Rod Rohloff and Mike Simunic went two yards with five seconds left in the half to give Romeo a 19-6 lead at intermission.

In the third quarter Rowley took a 37-yard aerial from Rohloff and Mike Lock went two yards to boost the margin to 32-6, but then Imlay scored two quickies in the 4th period.

Rick Bogart took an 8-yard pass from Goodrich and Mike Schoenfeld an 18-yarder from Goodrich for a pair of TDs. Schoenfeld made the PAT to make it read 32-19.

★ ★ ★

With 30 seconds left in the game Mike Pokorney grabbed a 68-yard pass play from Rohloff and Phil Sweeney converted.

Romeo piled up 408 yards with 275 rushing. The three passes of four attempts by Rohloff all went for touchdowns.

Lancers Make Point Against Oxford 11

Oxford tried valiantly last night to take the importance away from L'Anse Creuse's next game.

But the Wildcats finally folded under the Lancers' relentless pressure and lost, 26-6. Two fourth-period touchdowns clinched L'Anse's second league win against no losses and a tie.

★ ★ ★

Had Oxford managed to pull an upset, the Lancers game next week against Kettering would have been meaningless because the Captains would already have taken the crown.

As it stands now, however, the Lancers can take all the honors by derailing unbeaten Kettering.

L'Anse started the game like it was going to run the Wildcats off the field.

John Plonka returned the opening kickoff 53 yards to the Oxford 42 and eight plays later blasted over from the five.

★ ★ ★

Mickey Cummings then electrified the Oxford fans by grabbing the kickoff and racing 91 yards up the middle for the equalizer.

That's the way things stood until a short punt got the Wildcats in trouble in the second quarter.

The Lancers took control on the Oxford 25 and four plays later Randy McConnel went the final two yards on a quarterback sneak. Oxford held the Lancers at bay in the third period, but finally wilted.

McConnell hit paydirt on a seven-yard run and Steve Skelton punched over from the five in the fourth quarter.

The setback was Oxford's third straight in league play and leaves the 1963 cochampions in desperate need of a victory over Romeo next week to avoid last place for 1964. The Wildcats are 2-4 overall.

Bantamweight Hopeful Pulls Out of Title Fight

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — San Antonio lost what would have been its first world's championship fight when Jesus Pimentel, who was to meet bantamweight champion Eder Jofre, closed his training camp and went back to California.

★ ★ ★

His manager, Harry Kabakoff, said Friday that Pimentel withdrew because he feared he would lose his lifcense for life in California.

The fight was scheduled for next Wednesday night here.

There were other reasons advanced. The San Antonio News said Kabakoff and promoter George Parnassus argued over a demand that $15,000 be given Pimentel before the fight.

Parnassus, a Los Angeles promoter working with local promoter Tony Padilla, reportedly said he would pay after the fight, as usual.

POOR ADVANCE

Parnassus also had been disappointed with advance ticket sales. Less than $20,000 had been taken in when the ticket booth was closed. Parnassus had said $80,000 was necessary for the break-even point.

Jofre, the Brazilian, had been guaranteed $40,000 and all expenses. Pimental was to get $15,000 and expenses.

★ ★ ★

Pimentel was under suspension in California for failure to go through with a bout earlier this year with Fighting Harada of Japan. However, Texas Boxing Commissioner Alton Erickson had approved the title fight here since Texas and California are not members of the World Boxing Association.

Erickson said he didn't know what action his commission could take against Pimentel since he was not licensed in this state.

Kabakoff said he had been notified by the California Athletic Commission that if he went through with the Jofre fight not only he and Pimentel, but anyone connected with it, such as seconds, trainers and such, would draw suspensions.

★ ★ ★

Kabakoff said the California commission had granted a hearing for Nov. 6 and he thought everything would be cleared up then. He added that there is a possibility that the Jofre-Pimental bout may be staged in Los Angeles in a few months.

Philly Okays Long Lease

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies of the National League and city negotiators reached agreement today on a 30-year lease under which the baseball team will play in the proposed new sports stadium in South Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

A similar agreement was reached Thursday night with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

A $25 million bond issue is on the Nov. 3 ballot for a 60,000-seat stadium. The proposed bond issue would run for 30 years.

Wisner Field Has Twin Bill

St. Mike vs. WOLL; Rams to Play ROSM

A championship showdown and an unusual Sunday double feature at Wisner Stadium headline the Northwest Catholic League schedule.

★ ★ ★

Orchard Lake St. Mary can sew up the league title by remaining unbeaten against Detroit St. Agatha in their 2:30 p.m. tilt at OLSM.

The Eagles have won five straight without a loss while Agatha has taken its first four games this year. OLSM will rate a slight favorite in the contest.

Another 2:30 p.m. game will see Waterford Our Lady of Lakes visit St. Michael in a renewal of that fast-growing rivalry.

RECENT MOVE

WOLL coach Bob Mineweaser spent many years at the Pontiac school's coaching spot before moving to the Lakers' helm.

The latter is still seeking its first win of the season in the league. St. Mike, meanwhile, could close in on Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows third place by winning.

FOLS has a non-league tilt with St. Gertrude.

★ ★ ★

The other half of the Wisner twin bill features Royal Oak St. Mary at St. Frederick in a rare 7:30 p.m. Sunday encounter. The visitors, also, are seeking to climb closer to Farmington OLS.

St. Frederick remains winless in loop play through its last nine tries, also possessing a non-league triumph over Emmanuel Christian.

Birmingham Brother Rice will go after its first win in two seasons when it plays host to Detroit Salesian at 2:30 p.m.; and Ferndale St. James will risk its unbeaten mark at St. Rita in other Sunday parochial tilts.

Olympic Head Wants Changes in Games

Nationalism Is Criticized by Brundage

IOC President Wants Elimination of Some Team Events

TOKYO (AP) — Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, wants to get rid of one of the Games' most solidly entrenched rituals —the victory ceremony.

He doesn't want national flags raised and anthems played after medal performances in the various sports because they only help to generate extreme nationalism, he told a press conference Saturday.

"In the first place, the national anthems are badly played," the Chicago hotel owner said. "They are also monotonous, and I think it would be better to play some sort of Olympic song."

NATIONALISM

Brundage, beginning another four-year term as head of the IOC, admitted that extreme nationalism was affecting the spirit of the Games and should be discouraged in every way possible.

"There is one country which openly admits that its athletes are political agents," he said. "This is one thing that we cannot accept." He declined to name the country.

In a specially called press conference just before closing ceremonies of the 18th Games, Brundage also said:

1. He hoped it would be possible to keep Germany as a combined team despite the action this week of the International Amateur Athletic Federation to split the country into two sports units — East Germany and Germany.

★ ★ ★

2. South Africa presents a thorny problem because its political leaders do not agree with the sports federation, but South Africa still is a member of the IOC and could compete at Mexico City in 1968.

3. There was no way to unite the Korean team because South Korea and North Korea are in virtual state of war.

4. The Olympics were founded as a contest of individuals and team sports, such as basketball and soccer, have no place on the program. He personally favors their elimination but is repeatedly voted down by the IOC.

5. The Games, just closing, were the largest and most successful ever staged and Japanese organizers have been honored with the highest awards for their work.

"When I came here four months ago I learned a Japanese word 'konran' — all was 'chaos' and utter confusion. Now I have learned a new word 'subarashii' — that means sensational.

"I have been in the construction business for 50 years and I have never seen a sports edifice to compare with the swimming stadium. It should be a cathedral of sport —a museum for all time."

TOO BIG

Brundage admitted that the Games were getting almost too big—with the admission of new nations and new sports on the program.

"We now have 116 countries in the movement," he said. "We are constantly being badgered to add new sports. As for me, I favor dropping team sports and keeping this a competition of individuals."

He said also that boxing and cycling had become stepping stones to professional careers.

"If this trend persists," he added, "It may become necessary to dispense with the sports."

In his view on team sports, Brundage emphasized that he did not include such events as eight-oar crew or relay races in track in which four runners are involved. "I mean sports like basketball and soccer, which are strictly team sports," he said.

Solemn Finish

Olympics End

TOKYO (AP)—The Games of the 18th Olympiad, marked by the resurgence of the United States as a world athletic power and a comparative decline in Russia's sports might, closed today in solemn ceremonies that summoned the athletics to compete next at Mexico City in 1968.

★ ★ ★

In the presence of the Emperor and Empress of Japan, the Olympic Flag was lowered, the torch was extinguished, a massed choir sang Auld Lang Syne and a message reading:

"Let us meet again at Mexico City four years hence" flashed on the electric scoreboard.

The Tokyo Games will long be remembered for the unexpected medal harvest reaped by the United States, particularly in swimming and in track and field, for the cutting down to size of the Russian sports giant, and the precision with which the Japanese ran off the complicated program.

BRIEF ENDING

The closing ceremony was brief. The time-table called for the entry of the Emperor and Empress at one minute before 5:00 p.m. Japan Standard Time, followed immediately by the flagbearers of the 94 competing nations and as many athletes as remained in Tokyo.

The flags of Greece—where the games originated in classic times—and of Japan, the host nation, and of Mexico where next the Olympics will be staged were raised as the national anthems were played.

In darkness the flame that had been lit by a torch first ignited at sacred Mount Olympus in Greece was extinguished as the choir sang

In keeping with the theme of the closing ceremonies, "Light and Shade," 200 women gymnastic college students each carrying a torch encircled the athletes and the flags.

Scarcely an hour from the start the ceremonies were over, the Emperor and Empress departed, and a great fireworks display lit up the Tokyo sky.

Seniors Meet in Final

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Defending champion James McAlvin of Lake Forest, Ill., and J. Wolcott Brown, 1958 winner from Sea Girt, N.J., scored semifinal victories Friday in the North and South Seniors Golf Tournament. They'll meet for the title in an 18-hole match today.

Ted Lindsay Explains Why He Returned

NEW YORK (AP) — There's a good reason why Ted Lindsay, one of hockey's all-time greats, came back after a four-year retirement and rejoined the Detroit Red Wings at age 39.

"I want to finish my hockey career in Detroit," he explained. "I played there for 13 years. I live there now and I'll die there. I would have played this season for nothing."

★ ★ ★

It was a black day for the colorful left wing when he was traded to the Chicago Black Hawks seven years ago. "Not that I wasn't treated well in Chicago," he emphasized, "but my heart was still with the Wings."

WELL SET

Lindsay, a native of Renfrew, Ont., who has scored 365 goals and accumulated 1,149 penalty minutes in the NHL, insists he's well fixed financially. He has interests in four companies manufacturing automotive parts.

"We tried to sign him to a dollar a year contract," said Sid Abel, the Wings' general manager - coach, "but Clarence Campbell, the league president, wouldn't give us permission. So, we're paying him by the game."

★ ★ ★

Lindsay, Abel and Gordie Howe, still a super-star at age 36, formed the Wings' famed Production Line for many years.

"My arrangement with Sid is that I only play home games," Lindsay pointed out. "I'm playing some road games now because we've been away from home for a while and I don't want to go stale."

★ ★ ★

"He won't make all the same moves he did in the old days," Abel said. "But he's helped us already and gives us one more solid player to call on when we're in trouble."

"I said all along that Ted retired too darned early," stressed Howe, the NHL's all-time goal scoring leader. "His legs were in good shape when he quit and they're all right now, too. It's just like old times having him back."

Patriots Win AFL Contest

BOSTON (AP) — Boston flanker back Jimmy Colclough, a stand-in for injured Art Graham, caught two touchdown passes from Babe Parilli and set up another score in a defense-inspired 24-7 American Football League victory over Kansas City Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Colclough made the most of his opportunity as he completed a 37-yard aerial maneuver in the first quarter and captured a carom off defender Duane Woods' hands in the third for an 11-yard score.

His 46-yard catch and sprint carried the ball to the Chiefs' seven and made possible Ron Burton's one-yard touchdown charge in the finale as Boston broke a two-week winless drought.

60-Minute Soph Helps Titan Win

DETROIT (AP) — End Tom Beer, a sophomore 60-minute man, made the key plays on offense and defense Friday night as the University of Detroit ended a three-game losing streak with a 21-6 victory over Dayton.

Beer set up the first touchdown by shaking a Dayton ball carrier into a fumble and scored the second on a 32-yard pass as Detroit opened a 14-0 lead in the first 18 minutes.

The 6-foot-4, 214-pound Beer was a constant thorn on defense, pursuing Dayton's quarterback, Joe Rudolph, all night.

Dayton didn't reach Detroit's territory on its own power until the fourth quarter, when the Titans led 21-0.

JARRED LOOSE

Fred Beier scored Detroit's first touchdown on a one-yard plunge midway in the first period after Beer had jarred Dayton's Roosevelt Mell from the ball at his 29. Beier carried on eight successive plays before scoring.

★ ★ ★

Detroit's second score came early in the second quarter on a 47-yard drive that consumed three plays. The last two were passes of 16 and 32 yards from Ron Bishop to Beer.

Linebacker Jerry Dudley scored Detroit's third touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard return of an intercepted pass. Mell scored Dayton's touchdown midway through the last period on a three-yard run.

Dayton marched 53 yards to its touchdown, helped along by two personal foul penalties against Detroit and a 25-yard run from punt formation by Mickey Bitsko.

HOOSIERS ROLL

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Indiana's one-two punch, Rick Badar and Tom Nowatzke, exploded for three touchdowns in the final period Friday night and the Hoosiers rolled to a 28-14 victory over Miami's sophomoric Hurricanes.

Miami had outplayed Indiana for three periods and led 14-7 going into the last quarter. Then Badar hurled scoring passes of 25 and 27 yards to Bill Malinchak and the bulldozing Nowatzke rammed seven yards for another touchdown.

The Hurricanes, with a 7-3 record against Big Ten teams before the game, appeared on the way to their first victory of the season until they wilted in the closing stages before Indiana's greater depth.

Miami fumbled the ball to Indiana six times, once two yards from the Hoosier goal.

Battle for First Place at Tiger Stadium

Baltimore Sunday 'Report' Card Holds Edge Over Lions

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Man for man how do the Detroit Lions and Baltimore Colts compare for their big showdown game tomorrow at Tiger Stadium?

The Colts as figured hold a solid edge offensively and the Lions have it defensively, but in the over-all total, Baltimore's report card of players' grades is just slightly higher than the Detroit total.

If the respective positions of both teams are matched and if the over-all total of grading each opposing player holds true then the Colts must be figured slight favorites tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Baltimore's advantage rests in its running game, passing and offensive line. Both teams are near-even as for pass receivers and the Lions should have the edge on three defensive units.

The Colts, boasting a highly improved and effective running attack with Lenny Moore showing his best in five years, and aided by Jerry Hill, Joe Looney, Tony Lorick and Tom Matte, have cut their passing nearly 40 per cent.

John Unitas who once found it easy to throw 30 to 40 passes in a game is now averaging 17 or 18 and although his completion is only 52 per cent, he leads the league in average yardage with 9.62 per pass.

He has thrown for 11 touchdowns with 61 completions in 116 attempts and has had only one interception against him. This record is a challenge to the Detroit secondary which has stolen 12 aerials this year, second only to the 15 interceptions of Washington and Los Angeles.

LeBEAU LEADS

Dick LeBeau, who has now become recognized as one of the better cornerbacks in the league, has picked off five enemy passes tying him for the lead with Jerry Richardson of Los Angeles and Pat Fischer of St. Louis.

With LeBeau in the defensive backfield will be Bobby Thompson at the other corner spot, along with Yale Lary and Bruce Maher at the safety positions.

★ ★ ★

Lary is the veteran of all defensive currently active in pro football with 11 years experience. Only Dick Lane of the Lions has had more time, but Lane has been hampered with injuries this year and has played only periodically.

Maher took over the safety job last week and played an exceptional game against the Bears, while Thompson has shown steady improvement as a rookie in Lane's former position.

The Lions are keyed for the game, their most important since the Green Bay contest two years ago, and all rests on the shoulders of Milt Plum to penetrate the Baltimore defenses with Gail Cogdill, Terry Barr and Jim Gibbons on the receiving ends.

Both Cogdill and Barr have had their receiving totals drop way down in the last four games and neither are among the top 10 in the league after six games.

★ ★ ★

Game time is 1:30 Sunday. Only a couple thousand standing room tickets will go on sale at 11:00 a. m.

Here are the "report cards" of the Lions and Colts and how they stack up against each other position by position:

NBA Team Purchased

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Baltimore Bullets of the National Basketball Association have been purchased by three Washington men for an amount upwards of $1 million.

★ ★ ★

The purchase, subject to approval by the NBA board of governors, was made by Earl Foreman, executive vice president of the Philadelphia Eagles football team; Arnold Heft, builder and former professional basketball referee, and Abe Pollin, also a builder.

Lakers Hand Warriors 4th Straight Setback

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jerry West sent Los Angeles ahead in the final one minute and five seconds Friday night as the Lakers gained a 94-92 National Basketball Association victory over San Francisco, which lost its fourth straight in the absence of Wilt Chamberlain.

The Warriors led most of the way and narrowly missed tying the score in the final five seconds as both Guy Rodgers and McCoy McLemore missed shots.

AP Prophet Sees Colts Victorious

By The Associated Press

It's been a long half-season of four of professional football's perennial front-runners and a couple of wayward pigskin prophets.

The Chicago Bears and San Diego Chargers, 1963 champions in the National and American Leagues, have lost six games between them.

The Green Bay Packers and New York Giants have combined for seven more setbacks. And our pro pickers have been aboard the sinking ship more often than not.

Here's the forecast all games Sunday unless otherwise noted:

AFL PICKS

Buffalo 34, New York 17 Saturday night — The home-standing Bills, only unbeaten pro club, have the defensive horses to slow down rookie sensation Matt Snell. Buffalo has 250-pound Cookie Gilchrist, who set a single-game mark of 243 yards rushing in the teams' last meeting.

San Diego 38, Houston 21 — The Chargers have regained their scoring punch — they walloped Denver 42-14 last week — and the Oilers give up too many points. Flanker Lance Alworth could have a field day against Houston's young secondary.

Oakland 41, Denver 28 — The disappointing Raiders, still looking for their first victory — should get it if they can contain Bronco pass catcher Lionel Taylor. Oakland's Billy Canon appears to be on the run again.

NFL

Baltimore 20, Detroit 13 — The Lions are down to one quarterback — and he's not Johnny Unitas. Earl Morrall's out indefinitely with a broken collarbone suffered in last week's 10-0 victory over the Bears. Milt Plum is a capable replacement but Unitas, who failed to throw a touchdown pass for the first time this year as the Colts nipped Green Bay last week, should prevail.

Chicago 23, Washington 21 — Don't expect a 73-0 score in this struggle of division tail-enders. The Bears' steady diet of Western Division gristle gives them the edge — but they'll have to stop long bomb threat Bobby Mitchell.

St. Louis 24, Dallas 16 — The Cowboys, who pushed Cleveland to the limit a week ago despite a sub-par Don Perkins, will make it a tight fit for the Cardinals.

Cleveland 23, New York 19 — The Giants haven't been able to beat the Eastern also-rans; they don't figure to outscore the division co-leaders. The Browns have come from behind for three of their four victories.

Green Bay 31, Los Angeles 17 — The Packers are worried about Paul Hornung's kicking game but Bart Starr's passing will get them past the much-improved Rams. Green Bay has lost three games — by a total of five points.

★ ★ ★

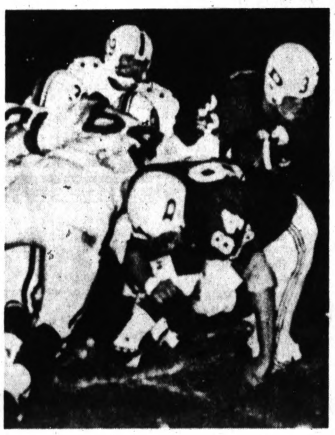
Minnesota 27, San Francisco 17 — Seven pass interceptions wrecked the 49ers last week. This time it'll be Minnesota's 1-2-3 punch of passer Frank Tarkenton and runners Tommy Mason and Bill Browns.

Pittsburgh 21, Philadelphia 13 — The Eagles' safety blitz has been their strongest weapon to date and John Henry Johnson's running figures to keep them honest.

Keane Picks Coaches

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Keane, the new manager of the New York Yankees, named Vern Benson and Coj Deal as coaches Friday.

Frank Crosetti and Jim Hegan will be held over, Keane said. Crosetti has spent 33 seasons with the Yankees as player and coach, while Hegan has been in charge of the bullpen since 1960.



AP Photofax

GOES OVER—U. of D. fullback Fred Beier (33) gets a key block from John Everly, formerly of Shrine High School, as he goes for a touchdown in the first quarter against Dayton last night. The Dayton pileup did not stop him and the Titans went on to win, 21-6.

BOWLING

Sweeps commanded attention last week as the Huron Bowl Classic League standings underwent several shakeups.

Felice Market went atop the standings with an eight-point blanking of Farm Maid Dairy as Tony Ledesma shot 235—650.

Calbi Music climbed into second place as it took eight from Lake Orion Appliance behind Garth Green's 245—679.

The night's big scoring was done by J. A. Fredman as it bombed Fontana Brothers, 8-0, with 1135—3214 efforts. Joe Foster had 245—665 but teammate Les Rothbarth took individual honors with 233-247-237—717.

Veterans Disposal was another eight-point winner as it dumped 300 Bowl led by Dick Bentley (658) and Buck McDonald (647).

Cooley Lanes holds a two-point edge over 300 Bowl in the battle for first place in the West Side Lanes Classic League after Monday night's action.

Larry Crake of "300" paced the individual scoring this week with 223-217—654, Howard Peterson had 242—646, Don Myers and Ron Rothbarth both hit 245, and Paul George 244.

The league reported 16 series of more than 600.

TRIOS

Montcalm Bowling Centre's Monday Trios League had a 222 by Wally Russ and 219 by John Lucas.

The action in Friday's Pontiac Tempest League at Airway Lanes featured high scoring by Bob Leigh (235-231—665), Don Hall (215-220—650) and Harold Rynerson (225-222—622).

The Drewry's team had a 1011 game.

Airway Major Classic action was led by Marguerite Young with 227—588 and Pauline Welch with 235—520, and a 2512 by the Coca-Cola team.

Pontiac's John Bennett saw his season high series mark in the Prep Teen Classic at Thunderbird Lanes equaled Sunday by Berkley's Dan Hinske who shot 267—649.

Howe's Lanes Bucks and Does circuit Monday will resume its tight race. Following this week's action — led by Ken Nickerson's 232 and John McCallum's 210 — the Fawns and Tinhorns lead with 16 points each, the Spikehorns are third with 15 and the Antlers fourth with 14.

The 300 Bowlerettes recently reported a 220 effort for Therese Spadafore of the Louis Beauty Shop squad.

Lead Is Held by McGowan With 66-68

CORONA, Calif. (AP) — Slim Jack McGowan of Laro, Fla., who attributes his current stellar play to control of his temperament, posted a three-under-par 32-36—68 Friday and enjoyed a two-stroke lead at the halfway point of the $40,000 Mountain View Open Golf Tournament.

His 36-hole total is 66-68—134—eight under par.

Jacky Cupit of the host club carded his second straight 68 for 136 and the runner-up spot.

McGowan, 33, who started play Friday on the back nine, bogeyed two of the first three holes before settling down.

Scot Jim Clark Holds Early Lead for Prix

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Scotland's Jim Clark in a Lotus took the early lead Friday in qualifying runs for Sunday's Mexican Grand Prix auto race.

He was clocked in 1:59:19 for the five-kilometer course to 2:00:04 for Lorenzo Bandini of Italy in a Ferrari.

Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., was 13th with a 2:05:45 in a Brabham. Phil Hill of Santa Monica, Calif., in a Cooper, was 18th at 2:11:20.

U-M Plans Okayed for Athletic Building

ANN ARBOR (AP)—University of Michigan Regents adopted plans Friday for a new $5 million, 14,000-seat field house to be completed by middle or late 1966.

The building will be used for basketball, wrestling and gymnastics, as well as for non-athletic programs such as concerts and graduation ceremonies. It will replace Yost Field House for the indoor athletic events.

Kill Slows Down Pheasants in Hiding

The opening day honeymoon—if there was one this fall—is over for Michigan's pheasant hunters.

Those young ring-necks that flushed at the sound of a hunter's boots or by the sudden prodding of a dog's nose have now joined their older cousins in the art of field running.

★ ★ ★

Total season kill will be down this year. First few days results leave no doubt about this fact.

The success rate in Southern Michigan is down three to seven per cent and will probably nosedive lower as the season progresses.

About 45 per cent of the predicted 700,000 kill was taken opening day.

Take in the Thumb was down 10 per cent over a year ago. Hunters working fields in northern Oakland County report seeing fewer pheasants.

Gunning was only fair around Capac and Imlay City and poor near Marlette. Brown City held up the opening day but the kill in that area has dropped off faster than in previous seasons.

Although grouse, squirrels, rabbits and woodcock became legal this week along with pheasants in Southern Michigan, the hunting pressure has been light.

Hunters take these species as they come across them while hunting ring-necks.

PRESS DERBY

Two ring-necks taken in Oakland County hold the lead in The Pontiac Press Pheasant Derby.

A three-pound, ten-ounce rooster taken opening day by Lowell Conner, 29 Glaspie, Oxford, tops the weight division. The bird was shot north of Oxford.

Dale Kage, 715 Fourth, bagged a ring-neck 40½ inches long Wednesday afternoon near Lake Orion. A $50 savings bond is awarded for the longest ring-neck and a $25 bond for the heaviest.

All residents of Oakland County are eligible. Ring-necks taken at shooting preserves cannot be entered nor can domestically raised birds.

The Conservation Department's electric computer selected the antlerless deer hunting permits yesterday. A total of 196,464 permits were drawn from 308,527 applications.

Only eight of the 67 areas open to taking antlerless deer were not oversubscribed.

Ducats on Sale in Area for Pro Football Contest

Tickets are available at seven outlets in the Pontiac area for the game between the professional Macomb County Arrows and Dayton's Colts, both members of the Midwestern Football League.

The two teams will square off at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 7 at Wisner Stadium.

Ticket prices are $1.50 and $2. They are available at Osmun's Men Shores, downtown Pontiac and Tel-Huron; Griff's Grill on Saginaw; Bob & Ken's Bar on Saginaw; Bank of the Commonwealth, Square Lake and Woodward; National Cash Register Company, West Huron; and Chamber of Commerce office.

The Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the game along with the Pontiac Professional Football Club.

★

A Pee-Wee game between the Pontiac Packers and Waterford Bobcats will precede the professional contest.

The Pontiac Central High School band will provide entertainment at halftime.

Nearly Faultless Movie

'My Fair Lady' Is Superb Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

NEW YORK—New movie — The news about "My Fair Lady" is all good. On the screen as on the stage, it remains a supreme entertainment.

There was concern among the legions of "My Fair Lady" lovers when Warner Bros. bought the show for a record $5.5 million. Would THOMAS the studio attempt to enhance its investment with a superproduction such as marred the films of Rodgers and Hammerstein hits?

★ ★ ★

Such fears are allayed by the finished product. The film is faithful but not slavish to the original. As an adaptation — or solely on its merits as a movie, it is well nigh faultless.

The casting of Audrey Hepburn as Eliza Doolittle raised some eyebrows. They may now be lowered.

FEW MOMENTS

While it takes a few moments to get used to her as the smudged flower girl, her transformation to a lady is accomplished with rare beauty and delight. Even her singing is believable, though most of the audience is aware of the aid of an off-screen soprano.

★ ★ ★

Nothing new can be said of the performance of Rex Harrison beyond observing that it is one of the classic characterizations of the century.

Deserving equal billing with the stars is the decor, the work of Cecil Beaton. Professor Higgins' home is a marvel of polished oak and leather-bound books. More than once the preview audience in New York burst into applause at the sight of costumes and sets.

★ ★ ★

Jack L. Warner, personally producing his first movie in decades — he normally oversees other producers — spent a reported $17 million. The film looks it. It was all shot under roof in Burbank, possibly at the largest cost for any movie without locations.

FINE TASTE

George Cukor directed "My Fair Lady" with his fine taste. Alan Jay Lerner, who wrote the original book and lyrics to Frederick Loewe's great melodies, wisely chose to adapt the film himself. All the memorable lines remain intact — and amazingly fresh. Lerner has also added some transitional scenes which help progress the plot.

★ ★ ★

It is considered poor reviewing form to compare a work with its original source, but the temptation is inescapable. The Harrison arias seemed to me equally well-done in the film, while "I Could Have Danced All Night" and the Ascot gavotte were even more sparkling than on the stage.

★ ★ ★

Oddly, "With a Little Bit of Luck" and "Get Me to the Church on Time" do not register as well. Stanley Holloway, the only other of the original cast beside Harrison, is capital, but the numbers lack the raucous music-hall quality they had on the stage.

As of now, "My Fair Lady" appears the favorite in the Oscar derby, in all departments. The lead players should certainly be cited, and Cukor may well win the award that has eluded him despite his brilliant work on other films.

Earl Is Thrown Off Beam as Star Shadows Himself

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Dan O'Herlihy's precisely the kind of Irishman you don't expect to meet . . . when you're going to interview one who's had tremendous movie and TV success and is entitled to get roaring drunk and do some boisterous bragging.

WILSON

He was quietly drinking tea when we got together, he spun no Irish yarns, and when we discussed his great role of Air Force chief in "Fail-Safe," Dan O'Herlihy said:

"Henry Fonda is the finest actor I've ever worked with. Even talking about him makes me jealous. He can do anything and everything.

"When he did the 'hot line' scene from the White House, everybody was too stunned to applaud. I asked him how he did it. He smiled and said, 'It came out almost as good as I wanted it to.'

"Almost! It was fantastic!"

O'Herlihy is top-billed in the picture which would have made it proper for him to say something about his own performance.

"It's the first picture I've starred in that is going to make a mint," is the closest he would come to it.

O'Herlihy, father of five, Oliven, Gavan, Cormac, Lorcan and Patricia—and a product of Dunlaghaire, Ireland, who gave up architecture to act, will drink, but not a lot.

"And I've never seen a leprechaun," he said. "I think there's a connection between those statements. If the Irish drank less, they would see fewer leprechauns."

★ ★ ★

He comes from a resolute Irish family. His mother came to the U.S. recently to live with Dan and his wife in Hollywood.

An airlines stewardess asked his mother if she wanted to see a movie.

"No, I am saving my eyes for my Dan's films," she said.

Lower Prices in Beef Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — Continued liberal receipts of cattle and lower prices in the wholesale dressed beef trade resulted this week in a further downturn for slaughter steers and heifers.

★ ★ ★

Trading on steers and heifers was generally slow with steers off 25 to 50 cents for the week and heifers steady to down 50 cents. Dressed steer beef declined 50 cents to $1 and heifer beef was off $1. Receipts of cattle were 35,600 head compared with 36,300 a week ago.

★ ★ ★

Top prices for slaughter steers was $26.50.

Hope Seen for Weekend GM Strike End

Market Ends Week With Slight Upturn

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market this week squeezed out a gain amid hope that the strike against General Motors would be halted this weekend.

The market was strong in the first two sessions, took losses on the next two days, and ended the week with a slight upturn after a dubious session.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 2.8 to 331.2.

Wall Street seemed reassured on Monday by the fact that the changeover in Russian leadership and the Chinese explosion of an atom bomb had brought no immediate consequences of a dire nature.

While the strike against GM dragged through its fourth week, the steel industry reported demand still strong. Weekly steel production rose substantially.

The steel stocks responded to these good tidings. Meanwhile, copper stocks received another upward thrust from news that the world price of copper had soared to a record high.

The market underwent a moderate decline on Thursday. Disappointment over Chrysler's third quarter earnings and its dividend action were a prominent feature of this drop.

The mild decline resumed on Friday and prevailed for most of the session. Toward the end, however, the market began to rally and ended with a slight gain, under the leadership of GM which advanced on hopes of a strike settlement.

★ ★ ★

The stock market closed an hour and a half early on Friday in respect to the memory of Herbert Hoover. The week's volume was 23,905,310 shares compared with 25,896,020 the previous week.

Set Ceremony for Buildings

FLINT (AP) — Ground-breaking ceremonies are to be held Tuesday for two units of the Flint College and Cultural Center—the $2.7 million James H. Whiting Auditorium and the $339,000 Alfred P. Sloan Jr. Panorama of Transportation.

★ ★ ★

The auditorium, named for a late Flint industrialist and financier, will be a 2,100-seat theater-type building. The Sloan building, expected to be the first of three units of a general museum, is named for the honorary board chairman of General Motors Corp.

Trading Mixed on Grain Mart

Soybeans, Corn Dip; Wheat on Increase

CHICAGO (AP)—The volume of trade in soybeans and corn futures slowed but transactions in wheat increased this week on the Board of Trade.

Pricewise, six of the seven soybean deliveries finished the week lower while the grains advanced.

Soybeans paced the grains in volume, as they have for a long time, but the total amount traded was much smaller than in recent weeks.

For the four-day period through Thursday, the volume of trade in soybeans was 206 million bushels, compared with 290 million a week ago. Transactions in corn involved 63.1 million bushels, down 4 million compared with last week. Wheat volume for the period was 31.5 million bushels, an increase of about a million bushels.

Soybeans maintained advances through Thursday but heavy selling Friday erased earlier gains and prices receded below those at the close a week ago.

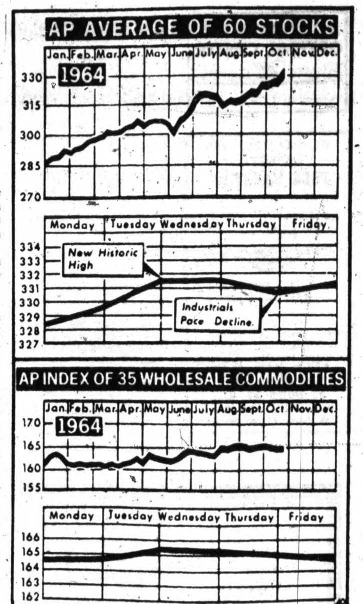
Firmnss in soybean oils imparted strength to bean futures most of the week. Larger exports of beans for the season thus far, compared with a year ago, also influenced higher prices until Friday's selloff which resulted in declines that ranged up to nearly three cents a bushel.

★ ★ ★

Wheat was quiet most of the period with little incentive to stir much interest in the bread grain.

Wheat prices sagged about midweek but increased Friday on buying influenced by complaints of dry weather in central and southwest growing areas and a five day outlook for little or no moisture.

At the close of trading Friday, soybeans were 1 cent a bushel lower to 1⅝ cents higher than a week ago. Wheat was ½ to 1⅜ cents higher, corn ¼ to ⅝ higher, oats ¼ to 1 higher and rye was unchanged to ½ cent higher.



AP Photofax

WEEK OF GAIN—The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced from 328.4 in the preceding period to 331.2 as the market closed yesterday. The commodity index moved higher this week, climbing to 164.9 from 164.7. Grains showed the largest gain.

Job Increase Belies Figures

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

DAWSON

NEW YORK—Jobs have been increasing much faster than government statistics might indicate. And contrary to the widely held view that jobs are disappearing, the U.S. economy has been producing new ones at a rate that outstrips the gain in the working age population.

This challenge to the government statistics on the percentage of the labor force that can't find work is made by the economists of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, Mo.

The official unemployment rate has held stubbornly above 5 per cent, except for one month, for several years. This has been dubbed one of the most serious shortcomings of an otherwise largely prosperous economy.

★ ★ ★

The bank contends that the economy's job-producing achievement has been downgraded because the wrong basis of comparison is used.

Using the actual payrolls, the economists find that employment has been rising faster and higher than the other — or total employment —data indicates. And in relation to the population growth in the working ages, the increase in jobs has been marked.

ANNUAL RATE

Tending to support this view are the help-wanted ads in many newspapers across the country. Most are showing gains this fall, and the volume is well above the year-ago lineage.

Both the total employment and the payroll employment data of the Labor Department have shown goods gains since the economy started upward early in 1961.

★ ★ ★

But the bank points out that the commonly used total employment figure has risen during 3½ years at an annual rate of 1.7 per cent.

This has kept the unemployment percentage of the labor force disturbingly high.

ANNUAL GAIN

The payroll employment data, however, shows a 2.9 per cent annual gain. And since the first of the year the increase has averaged 3.1 per cent. This gives the economy far better marks for creating jobs, despite automation, ends obsolesence, and the school drop-out problem.

For those out of work, the statistical difference will be small comfort. But for appraising the U.S. economy's potential it affords hope of still better days to come.

Price Change on Bond Mart Is Undramatic

NEW YOR K (AP) — Bond prices were a bit stronger during the past week, but the narrow range of trading continued to reflect uncertainty about domestic and international fiscal policy.

Prices of U.S. Treasury bonds advanced during the week more than in any week since mid-September. Of the 39 issues traded, 38 went up and one was unchanged.

The changes were not dramatic and the uptrend had softened by Friday, when more issues declined than advanced in price.

On the international scene the new British Labor government did not increase the interest rate charged by the Central Bank for money it loans its members. The lack of action tended to bolster U.S. bond prices.

Financiers have been watching the British situation closely, since a boost in the present 5 per cent British interest discount rate would tend to influence the U.S. Federal Reserve Board attitude toward its own 3½ per cent interest rate charged member banks.

Business Notes

For the third successive year, Ex-Cell-O Corp.'s Annual Report has won a first place award, the bronze Oscar-of-Industry for being the best in the machine tool industry.

The bronze Oscar will be accepted by Ex-Cell-O treasurer Edward J. Giblin, 1365 Fairfax, Birmingham, at a banquet Oct. 27 in New York City. Giblin was instrumental in coordinating the details of writing and producing the report.

Horatio B. Lewis II, 600 Covington, Bloomfield Township, recently attended a meeting of the National Institute of Diaper Services at Lake Tahoe, Nev.

Lewis, vice president of Dydee Wash, Inc., Detroit, also participated in a directors meeting of the Diaper Service Industry Association in Las Vegas and a convention of the American Institute of Laundering in Denver, Colo. before returning home.

Two Area Osteopaths Listed on Program

More than 1,500 osteopathic physicians and hospital executives will attend.

Every bridge player has an occasional blind spot. The most famous case is that of a great expert who was playing a seven spade contract with nine trumps to the ace - queen-ten. Dummy (North) held three to the jack. He went over to dummy and led the jack. East showed out, and our hero promptly conceded down one, and complained about bad breaks.

JACOBY

Today's South also had an expensive blind spot in the play of the hand. He won the heart lead with the ace. He drew trumps with two leads, stopping in his own hand, and led his singleton diamond toward dummy.

West produced a low diamond. South moaned, groaned and muttered to himself along these lines. "Decisions, decisions, decisions. Any lead but a heart, and I would have no problems."

Then, he looked at East, West and the ceiling for awhile and finally played dummy's nine of diamonds. East played the king and led a heart and another slam had gone to never-never land.

What was South's blind spot? The hand was a lay down, irrespective of who held the minor suit kings. South should have gone up with dummy's ace and continued the suit. If East played the king, South would ruff; if East played low he would discard his losing heart.

If West won with the king South would ruff a heart return, enter dummy and discard his queen, jack and nine of clubs on the last three diamonds.

♠♥ CARD Sense ♦♣

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	1 ♦	Pass
2 ♣	Pass	Pass	2 ♠

You, South, hold:
♠6 6 ♥K J 7 5 ♦K J 7 5 ♣9 3 2

What do you do?

A—Bid three clubs. You can't be hurt there and your opponents figure to make two spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two clubs, your partner rebids one heart. What do you do now?

Nixon: Silence on Cuba May Have Cost Election

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says that he may have lost the 1960 presidential campaign to the late John F. Kennedy by not revealing plans to invade Cuba.

Nixon, in an article written for the current issue of Reader's Digest, said yesterday that he was faced with the "most costly decision" of his political career in his last television debate with Kennedy.

The debate occurred on the day that Kennedy called for U.S. intervention in Cuba and aid to Cuban rebel forces. His position was widely publicized.

Nixon said he was then faced with a dilemma. "If in the TV debate I were to reveal the existence of the training program (launched by the Central Intelligence Agency with the approval of President Dwight D. Eisenhower for Cuban exiles) and point out that I had been one of its strongest advocates, I would pull the rug out from under Kennedy's position," he said.

* * *

"But if I did . . . the project would be doomed, and also the lives of brave men, both inside and outside Cuba, who were receiving training and assistance.

PROTECT SECURITY

"I had only one choice: to protect the security of the program, I had to oppose Kennedy on his position of advocating that the United States openly aid anti-Castro forces inside and outside Cuba.

* * *

"The decision was right from the standpoint of the country. It was wrong politically. When the television debate was concluded, Kennedy emerged as the man who was advocating a 'get tough policy' toward Castro. I was the man who was 'soft' on Castro—the exact opposite of the truth."

U.S. Secret Service Is Being Overhauled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon has informed President Johnson that steps already have been taken to overhaul the protective research section of the Secret Service.

The object is to prevent recurrence of incidents like the issuance of a White House pass to Walter Jenkins without any further check being made on him even though the FBI reported Jenkins had been arrested on a morals charge in 1959.

Jenkins, long-time aide to Johnson, both in Congress and in the presidency, was asked to resign his White House job after it was learned he had been arrested on a second morals charge on Oct. 7.

The President said he had no reason to question Jenkins' personal conduct until the arrests were brought to his attention last week.

Dillon, whose Treasury Department has jurisdiction over the Secret Service, said last night the protective research section which checks on applicants for White House work passes has been reorganized and the scope of its responsibility clarified.

Its staff, Dillon said, has been "strengthened in quality and nearly doubled in number."

The FBI report had said, as had Dillon earlier, that the Secret Service, before issuing the pass, submitted copies of Jenkins' fingerprints to the FBI.

The FBI then sent to the Secret Service an identification record on Jenkins showing the 1959 charge or "investigation suspicious person."

It also had been noted earlier that the notation of "pervert," written afterward on the local police record of the arrest, was not included on the copy of the record the FBI received from the police.

NOT CONSIDERED

Dillon's statement said that no one in the Secret Service except the then head of the protective research section "appears to have read and considered" the FBI report on Jenkins. The secretary did not identify the former head of the section.

Coincident with Dillon's announcement, the Washington police force reported sweeping changes have been ordered for arrest procedures in morals cases.

Police Chief Robert V. Murray said the revamping includes a directive that he is to be informed immediately of the arrest of any person regarded as "important."

Further, Murray said, plans are being made to notify directly all federal agencies, including the White House and Congress, whenever one of their employes is arrested.

TAKE FINGERPRINTS

A full set of fingerprints will be taken from each suspect and forwarded to the FBI, whether or not the person has been arrested before, Murray said.

In another development yesterday, Republican National Chairman Dean Burch said the report of the FBI investigation ordered by President Johnson into the Jenkins case "raises more questions than it answers."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had announced Thursday that in intensive week-long inquiry into Jenkins' career and personal life had turned up no evidence that he had compromised U.S. security or interests in any way.

★ ★ ★

Burch hammered away at one point in the report which he said dismisses "almost casually the most damaging revelation of all" — that Jenkins had limited associations with some individuals alleged to be, or who admittedly are, sex deviates.

ASKS QUESTIONS

"Who are these sex deviates?" Burch asked. "Are they also employed by the federal government? If so, where do they work?"

Last year more than 110,000 previously disabled persons were returned to jobs and activities through federal - state vocational rehabilitation programs.

One person in 10 in the United States becomes incapacitated by mental illness.

"What is your life?"

It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away"

Newspapers report daily of those who have departed this life. Some have a sudden illness, some have a heart attack and others die from accidents. Truly, life hangs by a thread. Each time we travel the highways we risk the chance that one slight mistake by a sleepy or drinking driver may terminate our lives in a grinding head-on crash. Add to this the recurrent world crises with the possibility of atomic warfare. If this occurs multiplied millions of people will suddenly be annihilated.

For anyone to face these facts and yet feel that "this couldn't happen to me," is sheer folly. The hazards of illness and sudden death are a very real part of everyday living. In view of this, thousands of people are extremely uneasy. While trying to ignore the frightening hazards of this age they engage in frantic activity and become engrossed in social and material affairs. They work hard at being "happy," but underneath it all they realize that "a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" (Luke 12:15).

The wise person faces the facts. Instead of burdening himself with useless anxieties, he plans for the future; his future includes this life and death and the life to come. Only the faithful Christian can face the future with confidence. He has obeyed his Lord. His sins have been forgiven, and he is living the Christian life . . . with the assurance of life eternal.*

In meeting the problems of life, the Christian realizes that "it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps" (Jeremiah 10:23). He therefore avails himself of the rich resources of God's word to guide his steps. He is not unduly concerned with material values since he has learned of the true riches that are eternal (Matthew 6:19, 20). He is not promised freedom from illness or tragedy but he does have the promise that "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28). Regardless of what may happen or when, he is prepared. His soul is safe in God's keeping and cannot be harmed by accidents, illness, or atomic blasts. Truly, he has "the peace which passeth all understanding" (Philippians 4:7).

Are you a Christian? Jesus said, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). Indeed, Christianity offers the solutions to all the problems of life.

"Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away" (James 4:14).

Are you a Christian?

* He believes in Jesus as the Son of God (John 3:16).
He repented of his sins (Acts 2:38).
He confessed Christ's name before men (Romans 10:9, 10).
He was immersed for the remission of sins (Acts 22:16; Romans 6:3, 4).
He is living a faithful Christian life (Revelation 2:10).

The accident occurred one-fourth mile west of Dequindre in Avon Township.

Another LBJ Visit Hoped for by Dem

LANSING (AP)—Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency Friday said he is "still hopeful" that President Johnson will visit Michigan again before election day.

"Anybody who says the election is 'in the bag' for any Democratic candidate two weeks before election day is engaging in wishful thinking," Ferency said.

★ ★ ★

"Another visit to Michigan by our President would give the Democratic campaign a terrific boost. It would bring greater numbers of voters to the polls on election day and add a new splurge of Democratic spirit to the campaign.

Plymouth Man Dies After Nebraska Crash

NORFOLK, Neb. (AP)—Ray Mickelsen, 39, of Plymouth, Mich., died in a Norfolk hospital Friday a short time after being hurt in a collision near Humphrey, Neb. Hospital attendants said Don Hinkel of Dearborn and Raymond Rochette of Livonia were injured. Both were passengers in the Mickelesen vehicle. The Michigan men reportedly were on a hunting trip.

Farm Progress Said Necessary

'Would Be Starving by 1975 Without It'

EAST LANSING (AP) — If progress in agricultural science had stopped in 1956, Americans would be starving by 1975, a Michigan State University agriculturist said Thursday.

To feed the increasing population, the nation would have needed 200 million more acres of cropland—which it doesn't have—in the next 10 years, said L. M. Turk.

★ ★ ★

Turk said, though, that rising productivity from agriculture's scientific advances will take care of feeding the nation.

Average wheat production, for example, was 34 bushels an acre from 1959 to 1963 in Michigan but by 1980 that average likely will be 48 bushels, Turk said.

STATE AVERAGE

With corn, the average was 62 bushels an acre during 1959-63, but scientists estimate the Michigan average will jump to 96 bushels by 1980, Turk said.

Agriculture science also is helping animals produce more, he said.

★ ★ ★

"The average American dairy cow is producing 2,000 pounds more milk than she did 10 years ago," he said.

Marines to Storm Spanish Beaches

MADRID, Spain (UPI) — About 30,000 U.S. Marines will storm the beaches of southern Spain on Monday in a simulated invasion described as the largest peacetime amphibious operation in history.

The entire 2nd Marine Division and other units will be transported from the east coast of the United States to hit the beachhead at Huelva, Spain by landing craft, parachute and helicopter.

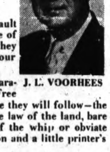
A total of 50,000 men will take part in the five-day maneuvers, designated "Steel Pike 1." Spanish navy, marine, army and air force units also will participate.

Man Says Leg Broken in Waterford Fight

A Waterford Township man who told police he suffered a broken leg in a fight at 2:55 a.m. today is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

Fred Mursu, 34, of 3412 Lotus said he was injured in a fight outside 1038 W. Huron, Waterford Township.

Reflections

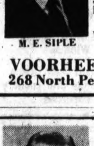


YOUR "X"

Our ballot is as important as the catapault when enemies were at the wall; it's the force of freedom. Victory to the tyrant meant slaves; they had no choice—we have. An "X" signifies our choice. Use it.

J. L. VOORHEES

Election Day is in the shadow of the Declaration of Independence: it is the time when Free Men determine the course they will follow—the order of the tyrant, or the law of the land, bare their back to the lash of the whip or obviate that possibility with reason and a little printer's ink—our "X".



M. E. SIPLE

Slogans are narcotics of the 20th century but they'll never keep a catapault away from our walls. Know your candidate, what he stands for; listen to his verbal promises then look at his voting record — if he has one — that's his lash. Slogans are bubbles, create dreams, sometimes bad ones; puncture those slogans with an "X".

Government follows an "X" — your "X". VOTE! Accept your responsibility.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF FLOYD A. Maybee, who passed away 3 years ago Oct. 25, 1961. Sadly missed by wife Helen and all his family.

IN MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED son, Jack Cline, who passed away October 24, 1953
After the worst has happened
There is nothing left to fear;
The sun continues rising
With undiminished cheer.
And winds continue blowing
And skies continue fair;
As hearts continue bearing
The things they could not bear.
Forever in our hearts, Mom and Pop.

REWARD

For finding this, we deserve one, but you're the lucky one. Here is a completely equipped delicatessen and meat market in Pontiac area on busy highway. The building has apartments upstairs that are bringing more income than the payments after your down payment of $9,500, so you get the comletely equipped store FREE! You'll have to hurry on this!

MONEY!

Comes to the man that recognizes opportunity when it knocks, and takes advantage of it. Here is the most attractive party store you have ever seen. It includes the nicest living quarters we have ever seen with a store. Located in a growing area, it will only net you $7,000 a year after payments the first year, but it is growing and you should be netting 3 times that 5 or 10 years from now. Because of owner's health it's priced to sell immediately with $7,000 down plus the stock.

To Open Bids on New Boiler

Bids on a new hot water boiler for the township hall will be opened Monday night by the Waterford Township Board.

Also slated for board attention is a request from the water department to solicit bids on waterworks materials.

★ ★ ★

The only other action slated for the meeting is the reading of a first notice for the proposed transfer of a liquor license.

The license at 6301 Williams Lake Road presently is held by Oval and Jessie Whitaker. Transfer is proposed to William E. Keyes and Thomas Moore.

Ike Remains 'Satisfactory'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, his voice reported still hoarse from a throat and bronchial inflammation, remains in satisfactory condition at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Eisenhower, hospitalized Thursday with a "painful cough" and "extreme difficulty" in speaking, is expected to remain at Walter Reed for a week to 10 days.

The hospital reported Friday that Eisenhower's voice was "hoarse" — an apparent improvement over the "extreme difficulty" in speaking reported the previous day. There was no reference made to his cough.

UAW Members Weigh Strike End

Maryland Troopers Bring Halt to Rioting by Prison Inmates

JESSUP, Md. (AP)—Defiant inmates at the Maryland House of Correction rioted last night but ended their rampage when 100 state police herded them back into their cells.

The prisoners jammed locks, burned clothes, mattresses and blankets, drenched ceilings below by ripping out plumbing, and threw furniture and debris from their four-tiered cell houses.

Vernon L.Pepersack, state commissioner of correction, estimated the damage at $50,000 but said it might be greater.

Four inmates suffered minor head injuries from objects dropped or thrown from tiers above. They were treated at the prison infirmary.

★ ★ ★

Lt. Col. George Davidson, chief of operations of the Maryland State Police, led the troopers into the two cell houses and a dormitory where about half the 1,783 inmates ran loose. Pepersack estimated that only 200 inmates had been involved in the most serious part of the rioting.

GUARDS RESCUED

A dozen guards who had barricaded themselves in cells when the rioting started were rescued by the troopers, who wore steel helmets, carried long riot sticks and shotguns.

The rioting started when an inmate became disorderly during the first feeding at dinner. He punched a guard and was removed.

"There was a rumble at the time," Pepersack said, "but we got the men quieted down, and they returned to their cells."

★ ★ ★

The rioting resumed after the second feeding, however, and continued for almost three hours.

POLICE DOGS

The troopers took police dogs with them into the cell houses.

"The dogs, clubs and gas were never used," said Davidson. "It was a show of force, and we made an impression on the prisoners. We had it if we needed it. Our first objective was to find the hostages."

Hubert Swings Through State on Campaign

Hart, Romney and Staebler All Make Election Appearances

By The Associated Press

Democratic vice presidential candidate Hubert H. Humphrey scheduled a day of campaigning in Michigan today, highlighting the weekend's state political activities.

The Minnesota senator was due to make a campaign swing through shopping centers in Southfield and Taylor Township and to speak at a rally in Hamtramck.

Michigan's two top Democratic candidates, U.S. Sen. Philip Hart and Rep. Neil Staebler, the gubernatorial nominee, were to accompany Humphrey on the Detroit-area tour

Former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, took over as toastmaster for the $50-a-plate affair.

CALLS FOR DEFEAT

Earlier Friday, Staebler campaigned in southeastern Michigan, telling a Mount Clemens audience of party workers that his Republican opponent, Gov. George Romney, must be defeated "now."

Staebler said Romney is a possible U.S. Senate candidate in 1966 and a possible presidential candidate in 1968.

"And he will be harder to beat every time," Staebler said.

★ ★ ★

Romney canvassed the Detroit area before flying to Traverse City for handshaking and an evening speech. On nine stops in northwest Detroit, he spoke to some of the biggest shopping center crowds of his campaign.

SENIOR CITIZENS

At nursing homes he said "any senior citizen in Michigan who needs medical and hospital attention can get it," but adding that even more fiancial assistance is needed.

Soviet Aide Reported on China Peace Trip

MOSCOW (AP) — Mikhail Suslov dropped out of sight yesterday and there was immediate speculation the Soviet Union's top Communist theoretician was heading a peace mission to Peking.

But there was no confirmation of reports among diplomats that Cuslov, 61, had gone calling on Mao Tze-tung.

Suslov has not appeared to be in good health lately, and some sources suggested his absence from the Red Square funeral of Marshal Sergei S. Biryuzov might be due to illness. Biryuzov, chief of staff and deputy defense minister, was killed in a Yougoslav air crash.

Suslov, a tall, solemn-featured man who has also built a reputation as a Kremlin hatchet man presided at last week's meeting of the Soviet party's Central Committee at which Nikita Khrushchev's fate was decided.

Now publicly ranked No. 4 behind new Party First Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and President Anastas I. Mikoyan, Suslov is called the real power in the new Kremlin lineup by some observers.

★ ★ ★

His background and role as the Kremlin's top expert on the bitter Soyiet-Red China dispute would make him a logical choice for a Russian move toward smoothing over relations with the Peking regime.

HEADED TEAM

Suslov headed a team that discussed Communist ideological problems — chiefly Peking's hard line vs. Khrushchev's advocacy of coexistence with the West — with a Chinese delegation in Moscow in the summer of 1963.

The talks broke down and the word war between the Red giants branched out into a dispute over frontier territory.

Khrushchev's ouster may have been the signal for resumption of talks, since Peking's attacks had been directed primarily at Khrushchev personally.

Suslov, called the red professor, is said to have conducted purges for Joseph Stalin in the thirties. Suslov got the job of re-establishing Soviet authority in Lithuania when the Germans pulled back in 1944.

Unrest Mounts Over K Ouster

W. Europe Reds Send Delegations to Russia

PARIS (AP) — Western Europe's two biggest Communist parties, dissatisfied with explanations of Nikita Khrushchev's ouster, are sending delegations to the Soviet Union to learn more about last week's Kremlin shake-up.

★ ★ ★

The mounting unrest over what happened to the former Soviet leader has spread to Cuba, where top party leaders are whispering that the Soviets should set the record straight.

The French Communist party, second largest in the West behind Italy's, sends a three-man delegation to Moscow today.

It is one of several that will visit the Soviet capital on behalf of European Communist parties sympathetic to Khrushchev and dismayed over his ouster.

★ ★ ★

The Italian Communist party has also said its representatives would meet soon with the Soviet party's Central Committee, which voted Khrushchev out of office.

TO SEND DELEGATION

The small Austrian Communist party announced in Vienna Friday that it would send a delegation to Moscow Monday.

The party criticized the new leadership for the "sparse and unsatisfactory" information regarding the change.

In Havana, members of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government began passing the word privately yesterday that they want a full explanation too.

Union Council for GM Backs Return to Jobs

Rank and File Votes Sunday on National, Local-Level Contracts

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers' rank and file in General Motors' far-flung car-factory empire weighed a decision today whether to end a month-long strike.

The UAW's GM local unions across the country vote in secret ballot on the question tomorrow.

The return to work of more than 300,000 employes hinges on the result.

Impetus for a favorable verdict came last night when the union's General Motors Council voted overwhelmingly to recommend a return to work.

★ ★

The council, a representative national group, acted on the recommendation of UAW President Walter P. Reuther.

OVERWHELMING SUPPORT

Reuther predicted to newsmen that the negotiated national agreement between General Motors and the union would get "overwhelming support" of the membership. He said 95 per cent of the council had approved it.

The rank and file also will vote on local-level agreements.

Disputes at the local level prolonged the strike after a national settlement.

★ ★ ★

The national agreement, similar to those at Ford and Chrysler, calls for improved pensions, earlier retirement incentives, pay increases and other benefits.

QUICK SETTLEMENT

President Johnson has called for quick settlement of remaining issues and an end to the strike in the interest of the national economy.

Where local settlements have not been achieved, the local union members will vote whether to end the strike regardless of this lack.

At last count, there were 97 settlements at the 130 bargaining units.

Ex-Envoy Charges LBJ Cuba Cover-Up

A former U.S. ambassador charged yesterday that the Johnson administration is "covering up the fact that there is a Soviet military buildup in Cuba" until after the Nov. 3 election.

Harry F. Stimpson Jr., ambassador to Paraguay during the Eisenhower administration, made his remarks yesterday in Bloomfield Township after learning that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara denied the movement of troops on the island.

McNamara's statement came following the release of a report from the office of presidential candidate Barry Goldwater that the Soviet Union is again enlarging its contingent of troops in Cuba.

The report was prepared with information received from Stimpson and three other former United States ambassadors to Latin American countries, Robert Hill, Mexico; Joseph Farland, Panama; and William Pauley, Brazil.

"These men are responsible people who have knowledge of the situation," said Stimpson, speaking before an audience of 200 at a Goldwater-Miller luncheon at Devon Gables Restaurant.

Stimpson has been campaigning for Goldwater on a tour of Michigan communities with a number of Hollywood celebrities.

'IT'S OBVIOUS'

"I do not have a lot of detailed information," said Stimpson, "but it is obvious from talks with Cuban refugees recently and many friends that have served in Latin America that some form of Soviet military buildup has been taking place during the last few weeks."

"I don't know what this means," said Stimpson, who then speculated "Maybe it means a showdown in Asia after the election."

"I do know this, however, Castro must go and the Monroe Doctrine must come back."

★ ★ ★

He said that the policy of the present administration is to "appease and accomodate."

NO INSPECTION

He noted that there was no inspection of missile sites during the Cuban crisis.

"You have to admit that pictures of missiles on ships is sort of kindergarten," Stimpson said.

Stimpson said that the report

Seeterlin Raps Tax for Pontiac

Says City Would Get More Than Waterford

Waterford Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin said today that Pontiac's proposed ½ per cent income tax on nonresidents would take more from the average Waterford family than it pays in township taxes.

★ ★ ★

Based on an average family income of $7,117 with deductions for an average of four family members, a Waterford resident working in Pontiac would pay $23.58 each year to the city, Seeterlin said.

The annual township tax per family amounts to $17.94 based on a tax rate of $5.88 for each $1,000 in assessed valuation. Average assessed valuation in Waterford is $3,000.

Seeterlin said the City Commission's action in approving the nonresident tax "has undone 20-fold" the recent township tax reduction of 23 hundredths of a mill approved by the Waterford Township Board in setting its 1965 budget.

★ ★ ★

The supervisor expressed hope that Pontiac residents and nonresidents alike would band together in an effort to obtain sufficient signatures of city residents to force a referendum ballot.

DELAY DATE

He said that if this can be accomplished, it would at least delay the effective date of the tax until next July 1.

★ ★ ★

"This would allow time for the new State Legislature to correct this unjust method of taxation," Seeterlin said.

Local 594 Chief to Recommend Pact Ratification

Andy Wilson, president of GMC Truck & Coach Local 594, said today that he will recommend ratification of the national contract with General Motors at tomorrow's 2 p.m. meeting of his local.

Meetings also are slated tomorrow by the two other locals in Pontiac to act on ratification of the national contract.

Fisher Body Local 596 will meet at 2 p.m. at Lincoln Junior High School.

Skilled tradesmen of Pontiac Motor Local 653 will meet at 10 a.m. and production workers at 3 p.m.

If the national contract is ratified by a majority of locals, units which have ratified local settlements then will return to work.

LBJ Enters Stretch Drive for Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, poised for the stretch drive of the campaign, is expected to spend almost all his time away from the White House until the Nov. 3 election.

Johnson, who was away from Washington looking for votes only one of the last seven days, makes two separate campaign trips today and will embark on a third tomorrow.

The President flies to Memphis, Tenn., this morning for an outdoor rally near the banks of the Mississippi River. Next stop is Chattanooga, Tenn., for an airport rally en route back to Washington.

Then, after a 2½ hour stopover at the White House, Johnson is scheduled to fly to Baltimore by helicopter for an evening motorcade and a speech at a Democratic fund-raising dinner.

★ ★ ★

Johnson will spend the night at the White House and take off tomorrow for a two-day tour of Florida, Georgia and South Carolina.

Barry Invades Texas Today

Questions Goings-On in the White House

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, set to invade President Johnson's home state of Texas today, says it is common talk that the White House is mixed up in "questionable activities."

The Republican presidential candidate, after briefly aiming his campaign fire at the case of resigned presidential aide Walter Jenkins, turned his sights on the affairs of former Democratic Senate secretary Bobby Baker in San Diego last night.

"I do not see how an effective force for law and order can be forthcoming from the White House when it is a common assumption in the length and breath of the land that the White House itself involved in questionable activities," he told an estimated 12,000 people in the local baseball park.

Today Goldwater flies to Austin, Tex. — 60 miles from the President's LBJ ranch — to kick off a day of campaigning that also will carry him to Corpus Christi and Wichita Falls.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater told his San Diego audience Johnson should have seen to it that a grand jury looked into the affairs of Baker, who quit amid charges he used improper influence in outside business dealings.

Temperatures on Way Up

Temperatures are on the way up again. Tomorrow will have a high of 58 to 65, following tonight's low of 35 to 42.

Skies will be fair this evening, but increasing cloudiness is expected tomorrow.

Monday's outlook is partly cloudy with not much change in temperature.

Today in Pontiac winds are southwesterly at 10 to 20 miles an hour.

Thirty-six was the low mercury reading today prior to 8 a.m. At 1 p.m. the temperature was 54 in downtown Pontiac.

America Is Confident U.N. to Reject China

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is confident Communist China again will fail to achieve admission to the United Nations despite Peking's new status as a nuclear power.

State Department officials, disclosing this, say a present tally of the U.N. membership shows the votes on Peking's admission will be close to last year's count, perhaps with more abstentions.

In 1963, of the 110 votes recorded, 41 favored an Albanian resolution to admit Communist China, 57 were opposed and there were 12 abstentions .One nation, Ethiopia, was absent.

When the question arises this year, France and some of her former colonies in Africa, now indpendent, undoubtedly will support the seating of Peking. Last year France voted for admission and most of her former colonies against admission.

TWO-THIRDS VOTE

To change the Chinese representation from the present Nationalist government to the Communist regime would take a two-thirds vote.

U.S. officials are preparing a blistering condemnation of what they call a "double standard" attitude, that Peking's ability to explode a nuclear device should bring automatic admission to the United Nations.

★ ★ ★

One high official explained the U.S. point of view this way:

"We have paid our bills to the United Nations, but if the Soviets were to pay their bill tomorrow, some people would clap their hands and say what fine fellows they are.

DOUBLE STANDARD

"If we had exploded a nuclear bomb in the atmosphere last week there would have been talk there of throwing the U.S. out of the U.N. But when the Chinese Communists explode their first nuclear device, there are those who say it is time now that we bring them into the U.N."

Meanwhile, the United States is skeptical that the Chinese Communist proposal for a five-power summit meeting of nuclear nations is more than a propaganda gesture.

★ ★ ★

However, the State Department made clear Friday, channels are open for any negotiations the Chinese Communists may wish to conduct on nuclear controls.

The British, French and Soviet governments have embassies in Peking and the United States conducts talks from time to time through the Chinese Communist ambassador in Moscow.

USE CHANNELS

State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey said these channels could be used for a dialogue with the Chinese Communists on the subject of nuclear controls.

If a majority of the 17-nation Geneva Conference on Disarmament which meets under U.N. sponsorship should want Communist China to participate in deliberations early next year, it would be all right with the United States if China were invited, he said.

★ ★ ★

The State Department takes the view that any nuclear disarmament talks would require the participation of all nuclear countries, just as conventional disarmament would require all significant military powers to participate.

In Louisville Friday, Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, said the United States might look more favorably on the Red Chinese proposal for a nuclear summit conference if the Peking regime signed the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

NEITHER SIGNED

Neither Red China nor France among the world's five nuclear powers has signed the treaty, to which more than 100 nations have agreed. The Red Chinese this week reiterated their refusal to sign.

"The first thing the Chinese should do is to sign the nuclear treaty," Stevenson told a news conference. "After that, there would be a better chance for the signatories to get together."

★ ★ ★

Stevenson also said that the Red Chinese atomic test had improved Peking's chances of getting into the world body.

In Los Angeles Undersecretary of State George W. Ball, asked about U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's call for dialogues between the United States and Red China, said: "We are always available for dialogues, and if Red China has anything constructive to discuss, we will listen."

He added that the U.S. and Red Chinese ambassadors at Warsaw, Poland, "can discuss any matters that can be considered worthy of conversation."

Accused in Coup Try

Ousts 8 From Viet Army

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Khanh has drummed out of his army three generals and five colonels accused of taking part in an attempted coup against his regime Sept. 13, the defense department announced tonight.

The included Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat, former interior minister who denounced Khanh in a radio broadcast after troops moved into Saigon.

The fired officers and four other officers accused in the plot were sentenced to terms of from 30 to 60 days "fortress arrest" by an army discipline council in a meeting last night. Three other officers were put under house arrest for 130 days.

The action followed a military court's decision to release 13 officers and seven civilians charged with treason in connection with the attempted coup.

The court action, which was interpreted in some quarters as a slap at Khanh, came when the chief judge said the court had not been given sufficient evidence that the coup had been attempted.

TOOK OVER

Five battalions and armored units took over most of Saigon in the September attempted coup. The coup was broken when the dissidents failed to attack a loyalist strong point at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air force base.

The failure to attack was at least partly due to efforts by high U.S. officials to prevent a clash between loyalist and rebel forces.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Communist guerrillas today shot down a U.S. Air Force C123 transport plane loaded with a supply of ammunition. The five Americans and two Vietnamese aboard apparently were killed.

NY Man Is Held in County Jail for Investigation

A New York man, who identified himself as a minister, is being held at the Oakland County Jail for investigation of kidnaping and indecent liberties.

Robert W. Witthoeft, 26, was picked up by deputies last night in Lake Orion.

Deputies said Witthoeft allegedly forced a 14-year-old Orion Township youth into his car last night about 10:15 and took him to a nearby motel.

The New Yorker allegedly held the youth in a locked room for 1½ hours before setting him free.

"And by this I don't mean that we have to be trigger-happy or send in the Marines," said Stimpson. "Under our plan there is no reason why American troops have to be involved."

REPORT RAPPED

According to Stimpson, the State Department already has issued two statements on the ambassadors' task force report, terming it "worthless, ineffective and irresponsible."

"Of course it can't be implemented now the way the State Department has everything bottled up," said Stimpson.

Later, Stimpson turned his attack on the way things are progressing in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

"There are 21,000 Americans there now and things are going bad."

WERE EFFECTIVE

"Under Eisenhower we were effective with only 500," Stimpson added.

"I think Barry Goldwater has demonstrated clearly that he understands these problems."

"Maybe he can't solve them overnight because of the mess, but he will commit himself to do the job."

Sad Line of Friends Bid Hoover Farewell

WASHINGTON (AP)—Under the mighty grace of the Capitol dome, the lonely casket rested through the night. And outside, the city he once had left in winter and defeat now gave him high honor amid the glory of autumn leaves.

★ ★ ★

Herbert Clark Hoover, 31st president of the United States, dead at the age of 90, lay under the cover of his nation's flag in the Capitol rotunda. It was nearly 31 years since he had left the presidency of the depression-stricken nation after one term in office.

★ ★ ★

Filing in from both sides, from the Senate side and the House side, came the citizens who knew and remembered, and the citizens too young to know. They came, as one of them said, to pay honor "not only to him personally, but to the office."

Not more than four blocks away, at Washington's Union Station, the special train had arrived at about 1:35 p.m., and the sad ritual, practiced to precision, began.

MANY FRIENDS

President Johnson and his wife, the Hoover family, the many friends including former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, moved slowly through the cordon of the escort — the Marines with red-striped trousers, the gold stripe of Army, the blue-white of Air Force, the white sea caps of Navy, the black of Coast Guard.

★ ★ ★

In the rotunda, the important and varied people of government had gathered. There were senators: Thruston Morton of Kentucky, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, John J. Williams of Delaware, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota. There were Secretary of State Dean Rusk and former secretary of state Christian Herter. There were also stenographers and clerks.

★ ★ ★

There were wreathes and flowers from the President, from the House of Representatives, from the Senate, from Baudouin, king of the Belgians, from Urho Kekkonen, president of the Republic of Finland, from the Swedish government, and one labeled "in gratitude — Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania," and one signed simply, Mrs. Jessie Kalozeropoules of Chicago.

ED LARK

Kiwanis to Present Film Series

Again this season the Downtown Kiwanis Club of Pontiac is sponsoring a series of travel and adventure pictures and speakers.

First of the series will be Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Central High School Auditorium.

It will feature Ed Lark's colored movies of Scotland and Wales, the scenery and interesting customs and traditions.

Six other speakers make up the series:

Nov. 17, John Goddard: "Adventures in the Far East."

Dec. 1, Curtis Nagel: color movie "Brazil."

Jan. 26, Nicol Smith: "Morocco."

Feb. 16, Bill Dalzell: "Cruising the Caribbean."

March 2, Stan Midgley: "Autumn Across America."

April 6, Charles Forbes: "To the Holy Lands."

Season tickets ($5.00) are available from any Kiwanian member at the door on opening night, according to Curtis E. Patton, chairman of the committee.

4 Are Injured in Local Crash

Four Pontiac residents, two women and two small children, are in Pontiac General Hospital following a single car auto accident yesterday afternoon at Elizabeth Lake Road at Neome.

Injured were Shirley Ann Howe, 18, of 28 Hovey, who is in fair condition; her daughter April, 10 months, in serious condition; Carolyn Brown, 20, also of 28 Hovey, fair condition; and her daughter Felicia, 2, in very serious condition.

Mrs. Howe, the driver, told police she was traveling east on Elizabeth Lake Road when she took her eyes off the road to give her baby a bottle.

The vehicle left the road and struck a tree, police said.

1928. It is about 16 miles southwest of Baltimore, not far from U. S. Highway 1 between Baltimore and Washington. Convicts call it "The Cut," a name derived from a nearby railroad cut.

One of the guards who locked himself in was John F. Folker, who barricaded himself in a cell in Section E-2 on the second tier of the east wing, then joined another guard, John C. Sparks, in a utility tunnel, where they huddled behind a metal door.

PRISONERS YELL

"Come out of there," he said the prisoners shouted at them. "You won't leave here alive."

Folker said he was punched and his wallet with $80 was taken before he found refuge.

Although the start of the riot appeared spontaneous, Pepersack, 55, said, "It looked like somebody planned it." He cited as evidence that there appeared to be a group of ringleaders and that some of the objects thrown from the cells, such as bottles, had been taken earlier from other sections of the prison.

★ ★ ★

Warden William Steiner said that "our first job is to clean up. Then we'll learn more about the start of this thing." He said he hoped to learn who were some of the ringleaders through interviews to be held later.

Pepersack said there had been no sign of smouldering discontent.

Art Group Is Planning World Tour for 1965

BIRMINGHAM—The bazaars of Cairo, the Taj Mahal, a Hong Kong silk factory and the Japanese Academy of Arts—each of these will contribute to the art background of area residents.

They are among the stops in the around-the-world art tour now being planned by the Bloomfield Art Association for next year.

The 32-day trip will begin March 12, with participants scheduled to arrive back in Detroit April 12.

Also being anticipated is a 25-day Scandinavian tour which will leave in July.

★ ★ ★

Trip chairman is John S. Coppin, Bloomfield Township artist. Walter Centomini of Oakland Travel, Inc., is tour director.

FIRST STOP

First stop of the world tour group will be in London. Members will arrive there March 13 and depart via jet for Cairo March 14.

The four-day stay in Egypt will feature tombs of ancient pharaohs, mosques and the Pyramids.

Activities in New Delhi will vary from a visit to the Indian Parliament to a ride on an elephant.

★ ★ ★

The next major stop will be Bangkok, where a special textiles and porcelain tour is being planned.

CENTRAL FEATURES

By March 27, the group will be in Hong Kong, where the central features will be a tour of curio shops and a visit to a silk factory.

Four days later, the port of call will be Osaka, Japan. There the travelers will visit a paper lantern factory, a Japanese house and the Takarazuka Theater.

Takamatsu, Kyoto and Tokyo are among the stops in Japan before the group departs for Hawaii. A day of leisure in Honolulu will precede the homeward flight.

★ ★ ★

The group is expected to include about 30 art association members. Centomini now is accepting reservations.

Rev. Newton E. Woodbury, executive director of the American Baptist Convention's Division of World Mission Support, will speak at the 11 a.m. service at the First Baptist Church tomorrow.

Woodbury, who recently returned from a world tour, will have as his topic, "The Mission Becomes the Church."

DEATH CAR—Norris K. Fagerlie, 48, of Walled Lake was killed this morning in Pontiac when this car in which he was a passenger collided with another auto at Montcalm and Oakland. Robert Gregg, 37, of Commerce Township, driver of the car, is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

2 Men Killed in 2 County Accidents

A Walled Lake man was killed this morning in Pontiac when the car in which he was riding collided with another at Montcalm and Oakland.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital was Norris K. Fagerlie, 48, of 1474 Pontiac Trail. He was a passenger in a car driven by Robert Gregg, 37, of 905 Clara, Commerce Township.

Gregg's eastbound car on Montcalm collided with a northbound car on Oakland driven by Mrs. Carl Sterstorfer, 41, of 5414 Maybee, Independence Township.

Gregg was hospitalized and is in fair condition. Mrs. Sterstorfer was treated for injuries at the hospital and then released.

Police are investigating circumstances of the 7:45 a.m. accident.

Clyde L. Johnson, 71, of 3373 Edgemere, was dead on arrival at Beaumont Hospital. He was riding in a car driven by his wife, Catherine, 51, when the accident occurred at 13 Mile and Farmington Road.

Witnesses told police that Mrs. Johnson's van-type truck, traveling north on Farmington Road, pulled out from the stop sign into the path of an eastbound car on 13 Mile driven by Jack Gamble, 43, of 3107 Ferris, Royal Oak.

Mrs. Johnson and Gamble both are in fair condition at the hospital.

See Red Party Shake-Up but No Purge

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP) — Diplomatic observers said today the Kremlin's new leaders appear to have signaled a shake-up of Nikita Khrushchev's Communist party apparatus. But they saw no signs of a wholesale purge.

These sources forecast a period of relative calm inside the party while the new rulers seek to solve pressing domestic and foreign problems inherited from Khrushchev.

News Analysis

The Communist party Central Committee's journal called Friday for a thoroughgoing review of party ranks to weed out corrupt and inefficient officials.

"It is indisputable that bad workers should be replaced. The renewal of cadres is a natural phenomenon," it said.

Changes in the Kremlin leadership in the past usually have been accompanied by massive changes in the party's rank and file.

Khrushchev laid the foundation for his one-man rule by packing the elite Central Committee with up to 50 per cent of his own supporters.

* * *

Khrushchev's successors were not believed to be contemplating any radical tampering with the present composition of the party elite or with the party machinery.

Veteran observers noted that the anti-Khrushchev group headed by first party secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin ousted Khrushchev with the backing of the majority of the fallen leader's machine.

PARTY HACKS

These sources said some personnel changes were virtually certain among party hacks kept on through connections with Khrushchev.

Khrushchev men who refuse to bow to the new high command are also certain to be eased out. But such dissenters are normally rare in the party apparatus.

* * *

The specialists' view was that during the immediate aftermath of the Kremlin upheaval, members of the Presidium will be on guard against any mass upheaval in the lower echelons.

Another factor deemed likely to inhibit any mass expulsions or reassignments is the wave of dissatisfaction that has swept Communist parties in the West and Eastern Europe since Khrushchev's fall.

AVOID QUESTIONS

It was believed that the new leadership would attempt to maintain the party comparatively intact in order to avoid further questions from foreign Communists.

Historically, the purge has been employed to clean out political and ideological adversaries from the Communist party. Those even suspected of deviationist views were purged by Stalin.

* * *

Western specialists have been unable to detect any signs, however, of political or ideological differences within the party that might lead to internal warfare.

County Tops in Region for New Homes

Oakland County led the Detroit Metropolitan area in percentage of increase in residential construction in the first nine months of 1964, according to a report released yesterday by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

A total of 6,530 permits for new dwelling units was issued in the county through September, compared to 4,962 in the first nine months of 1963, an increase of 31.6 per cent.

Subtracting 386 demolitions, the net total was 6,144, just eight less than Macomb County, which leads in the net total for the area.

Wayne County had a net total of 4,822, while Detroit showed a net loss of 97 units.

* * *

LEADS IN SINGLE UNITS

The county led the area in the number of single family unit permits with a total of 4,757. Macomb County issued 4,327 and Wayne County issued 4,254.

The largest increase in Oakland County was in the number of multifamily units, which jumped from 1,062 in 1963 to 1,763 in the first nine months of this year, an increase of 66 per cent.

'U.S. Constitution Is Being Changed'

ATLANTA (AP) — Legislative and judicial processes, over the years, have tended to change the meaning of the Constitution, says a former justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Charles E. Whittaker told a meeting of the American Bar Association Friday that legislative definitions of constitutional concepts, aided and supported by the Supreme Court's judicial process of interpretation, have, in effect, amended the Constitution.

* * *

He cited the Commerce Clause — the basis for key sections of the 1964 Civil Rights Act — as an example of changing the Constitution by legislative and judicial definition.

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — Edward McMakin Eager, 53, author of Broadway shows, operas and prize-winning children's books, died Friday.

Detroiter Given 20-40 Years for Area Shoot-Out

A Detroit man was sentenced yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court to 20-40 years in the state prison at Jackson for assault with intent to murder a State Police trooper.

* * *

The prison term for Marvin James Jesse Jackson, 38, was ered by Judge James S. Thorburn.

* * *

Jackson was convicted by a jury on Sept. 30 of shooting at Trooper Howard Kelly of the Pontiac post during a chase in Waterford Township on Aug. 15.

The gun battle between the two began when Kelly attempted to stop Jackson's car, which was reported to have been the one used in an armed robbery in Flint earlier.

Final League Standing

By FLETCHER SPEARS

The facts are new, but essentially, it's the same old story in the race for grid honors in the Inter-Lakes League.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake authored its sixth title in a row last night at Wisner Stadium, routing Pontiac Northern's Huskies, 52-7, and dampening the spirit of the PNH Homecoming crowd.

The win was the Vikings' sixth in a row over PNH and gave them a final 3-0 record in the I-L and an over-all mark of 5-1.

The Vikings divided their scoring with 27 in the opening half and 25 in the remaining frames.

Walled Lake moved with ridiculous ease through and over the PNH defense. The team racked up 443 yards on the ground and added another 125 in the air.

STARTS ROUT

Fullback Greg Giglio, one of the leading scorers in Oakland County, started the rout with an 11-yard jaunt in the opening quarter.

The Viking defense, which held PNH to 58 yards rushing, took over in the second period and broke the game open.

At the 5:43 mark of the second, Tom LaVerdure stepped into his endzone to put the Huskies out of trouble, but Roger Ruminski, a 260-pound tackle, broke through to block the punt and covered the ball for a touchdown.

At 2:12, quarterback Bill Curtis dropped back to pass at the Viking 21-yard line. Walled Lake rushed.

Curtis tried to ground the ball to avoid a loss, but tackle John Sherrick grabbed the short flip and rambled 70 yards for a TD.

PNH SCORES

With 49 seconds remaining in the half, the Huskies hit paydirt with Curtis passing to end Chris Giles for the final 42 yards.

★ ★ ★

But Walled Lake wasn't through. With 38 seconds left, Giglio ran the kickoff back 48 yards to the PNH 37-yard line, and on the first play, Lehman hit end Charles Williams with a payoff pitch and a 27-7 halftime lead.

The winners pushed over three more scores in the third. Williams snared a 27-yard TD pass from Lehman, and the junior signal - caller ran 13 yards for another.

Sophomore fullback Dennis Kitzgerald picked up the Vikings final scores on a pair of two-yard plunges.

★ ★ ★

Giglio, who sat out most of the second half, carried the ball 13 times for 96 yards.

Kettering Sweeps Past Sixth Opponent

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

For Homecoming Contest

PCH at Wisner Tonight

More than a season and a half have passed since Pontiac Central posted a football victory before the home fans at Wisner Stadium.

The Chiefs are expected to end the home field drought tonight when they play Saginaw High in a Saginaw Valley Conference game starting at 8 o'clock. Adding incentive is the fact that this game will be PCH's homecoming.

Central ended a 13-game winless string last week when the Chiefs tripped Bay City Handy, 7-0. But that game was played on the road. The last Central victory in Wisner Stadium was over Pontiac Northern in the final game of the 1962 season.

Actually, that was the only win Central has posted at home since it last met Saginaw. The Trojans came to Pontiac a definite underdog, but routed the Chiefs in the second half to snap a long loss skein of their own.

Pontiac Press Photo

BROKEN UP—Pontiac Northern's Mike Samuilow (43) moved up to spoil this Walled Lake pass play last night. Halfback Pat Godfrey was on the receiving end of the toss from quarterback Terry Lehman, but Samuilow jarred him loose from the ball. Northern lost, 52-7.

Lapeer Jolted in 30-6 Romp

Future WKHS Slate Holds Tough Foes

Kettering brushed aside another opponent last night, but the Captains are going to find it increasingly harder to keep their football slate swept clean.

Lapeer became the Captains sixth straight victim, 30-6.

★ ★ ★

Looming next week, however, is the winner-take-all Tri-County League game with Mt. Clemens L'Anse Creuse. A week later Kettering tangles with Berkley, currently tied for first place in the Southeastern Michigan Association.

The finale will be against Township rival Waterford, heading for its best season in several years.

Kettering overcame a Lapeer jinx that saw them defeated twice 14-13 in previous tussles. There was never much doubt about the outcome last night on the loser's field after the Captains took an 18-0 halftime lead.

★ ★ ★

The Captains now have a 3-0 league record while L'Anse is 2-0-1. Kettering needs only a tie to gain the crown. But a L'Anse win would give the Lancers the championship.

THREE TOUCHDOWNS

Jim Haviland scored three touchdowns against Lapeer and had another nullified by a penalty.

The fleet - footed halfback opened the scoring in the first quarter by sprinting 19 yards on the first play after Don Grey had pilfered a Panther pass.

Joe Duran blasted four yards early in the second quarter after the Captains blocked a punt and took over on the Lapeer 25.

Pat Nutter climaxed a sustained drive later in the period by bucking over from the five.

Haviland upped the count to 24-0 in the third quarter with a 51-yard sprint and wrapped up the point spree in the fourth stanza with a jaunt from the 14.

Roger Brady, who blocked the Lapeer punt in the second period, and Bill Laing again were the defensive standouts for the Captains.

Braves Face Suit

Pressure in Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Pressure is being applied from all angles in Milwaukee's determined bid to prevent the Braves from moving to Atlanta.

★ ★ ★

A Milwaukee attorney, who owns a single share in the Braves' corporation, filed a stockholder's suit in U.S. District Court Friday in an effort to bar the baseball club's transfer.

And Mayor Henry Maier, working for expansion of the major leagues as a means of keeping the Braves in Milwaukee, invited mayors of several other cities to a meeting in his office Monday to discuss his proposal.

The Associated Press learned Friday night that Maier extended invitations to mayors of several cities interested in obtaining major league franchises.

WILL ATTEND

The mayors of Oakland and Seattle indicated they would attend the meeting. Other cities mentioned were Dallas-Ft. Worth, San Diego, Buffalo and Toronto, all of which have expressed interest in obtaining major league baseball.

Maier's office would neither confirm nor deny the report.

The stockholder's suit was filed by Francis J. Demet, who asked a permanent injunction to prohibit the Braves from attempting to arrange any franchise transfer before a contract for use of County Stadium expired Dec. 31, 1965.

★ ★ ★

Judge Robert E. Tehan ordered the Braves to show cause at 2 p.m. Dec. 14 why he shouldn't issue the injunction.

Milwaukee County already has obtained a temporary injunction restraining the Braves from pursuing efforts to move. A hearing is scheduled in Circuit Court next Tuesday morning on whether the order should be made permanent.

Deckerville Posts Fifth Grid Victory

Deckerville upped its football record to 5-1 last night with a 20-6 victory over Grosse Pointe University School.

Gerald Philips ran 17 yards, Rod Baltzer 45 and Wayne Schmidt passed 74 to Carl Warczinsky for Deckerville TDs. Dennis Lenk kicked two conversions.

Tim Martin scored for GPUS in the first period on a 48-yard scamper. The score was 6-6 at the half.

Pontiac Press Photo

Seaholm Falls, RO Kimball Wins

A three-way tie remained in the Southeast Michigan League as Kimball, Ferndale and Berkley chalked up victories.

Ferndale used a strong ground game to whip Seaholm, 28-14, with Ken Luxton gaining 135 yards in 14 carries and scoring two touchdowns. Luxton went over from the five after a 76-yard drive and on a reverse from Bob Super he went 22 yards for the second TD.

★ ★ ★

Seaholm made it 14-7 at halftime when Bill Downey went over from the three-yard line.

In the third period, Downey fumbled on the 27 and on the first play Bruce Pettigrew went all the way to make it 21-7.

The Maples then moved 70 yards behind quarterback Dick Swaney and John Kingscott dove over from the one. In the final stanza, however, Joe Haslitt went 15 yards and the final score read 28-14.

Dave Thomas converted all four for Ferndale.

Kimball's 21-0 win over Southfield and Berkley's 14-13 victory over Hazel Park kept them at the top with Ferndale with 3-1 marks.

SCORES THREE

Andy Stubl scored all three touchdowns for Kimball taking scoring passes of 15, one and 15 yards from Bob Miles. Larry Michalek's 55-yard punt return set up the final TD and Ron Hare added all the points.

Gary Edding's 3-yard burst gave Hazel Park a 6-0 lead but Rick Krumm tied it from one yard and Ken Van Loon added the point for a 7-6 lead.

Jeff Gifford's one yarder and Shephard's point made it 13-7, but with five minutes left, Berkley marched 74 yards and there were 56 seconds left when Krumm scored from the one and Van Loon made the winning point.

It was a 42-yard pass from Krumm to Van Loon to the Hazel Park two-yard line which set up the big TD.

Port Huron Wins, 26-15 for Crown

Port Huron won the Eastern Michigan League title last night by whipping East Detroit, 26-15, while Roseville won over Mt. Clemens, 3-0 on a 20-yard field goal by Art Martz in the third quarter.

Jim McMillen went 14 yards, Denny Herrick took a 63-yard pass from Jack Morris, Gary Dill went 82 yards on a punt return and Bob Wedge scored on a 14 yarder for Port Huron's tallies.

Bill Racely converted twice.

Mickey Frabott went two yards and Mike Dupre scored on a 15-yard pass from Glenn Crane for East Detroit which also added a safety.

3 Harriers Suffer Bites by Mongrel

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Three runners were bitten by a dog during a cross country meet involving North Carolina, Clemson and Virginia Friday.

North Carolina defeated Clemson 19-42 and beat Virginia 20-42.

Two North Carolina runners, Atlantic Coast Conference champion Art Maillet and Jim Meade, suffered only minor bites.

Bill Moore, Virginia's No. 2 runner, was bitten on the right hip and treated at North Carolina Memorial Hospital. The dog drew blood from him.

Asked what he did when the dog bit him, Moore said: "I gave him a judo chop across the head."

Police said the dog, a big mongrel, would be kept under observation.

Utica 13-6 Winner in Bi-County Tilt

Utica won its 4th game of the season against a loss and a tie by defeating Bi-County foe Warren, 13-6.

With Tom Orlosky and Paul Schaffer doing most of the running Utica scored in the third and fourth quarters.

Orlosky went over one yard after a 45 yard and Schaffer climaxed a 60-yard march in the final stanza by hitting from the five. Dan Drca added the point.

Warren's TD came late in the 4th period when Jerry Stempien ended a 60-yard march by going one yard.

Three other times Utica was stopped inside the Warren 20.

Farmington Takes I-L X-County Title

Farmington won its first Inter-Lakes Conference cross country meet since 1952 with a low score of 30 points at Hickory Hills golf course yesterday.

Runnerup was defending champion Pontiac Northern with 39 points, followed by Walled Lake, 10-time winner, with 53 points and Waterford with 119.

Joe Watson of Farmington was individual winner in a time of 10:07 with teammates Bruce Anderson and Ron McGaw following him.

In the reserve meet, the teams finished the same way with Farmington scoring 27 points.

INDIVIDUAL RESULTS

Joe Watson, Farm. 10:07; Bruce Anderson, Farm., Ron McGaw, Farm.; Mark Karell, WL; Nick Ochola, PNH; Tim Kaul, PNH; Dave Pruett, PNH; Don Colpitts, WL.

Former Boxer Killed

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Lenny Alvarez, former New Orleans boxer, was killed in an auto accident early Friday.

Alvarez, who operated a New Orleans bar, was in his station wagon when it was struck broadside by a car police said had run a stop sign.

Milford Unit Takes Cross-Country Title

Milford's cross-country team racked up the Wayne-Oakland League championship yesterday at Kensington Park.

The Redskins scored 23 points followed by Bloomfield Hills with 48.

Tom Kearney grabbed individual honors with a winning time of 10:18.8.

TEAM STANDINGS

1, Milford 23; 2, Bloomfield Hills 48; 3, Clarenceville 90; 4, Clarkston 95; 5, Holly 111; 6, West Bloomfield 183; 7, Northville 198.

Ground Blitz in 3rd Period Aids Skippers

Blocked Conversion Decides Issue; Unit Second in League

By DON VOGEL

Waterford pulled a midstream switch last night and the result was a 14-13 victory over Farmington which gave the Skippers second place in the final Inter-Lakes League football standings.

Both teams came out passing, but neither could force the other into a fatal mistake until the closing minute and a half of the second quarter.

Halfback Dick Johnston of Farmington hit end Terry Nielson with a 58-yard strike to the Waterford 10 and halfback Bruce Charles followed on the next play with a touchdown pass to end Tom Mitchell.

The Skippers broke through to block Wayne Johnston's kick for the extra point and this proved to be the big play.

Waterford all but packed up its aerial circus during the intermission after quarterback Rick Ziem had hit six of 14 in the first half. Four others were on target but were dropped by receivers.

Ziem passed only twice in the second half and both tosses were complete for key gains. They were thrown on the Skippers' 64-yard march for their first touchdown after they took the second half kickoff.

The remaining yardage was chewed up in a ground blitz as was the drive later in the period that produced the winning TD.

FIRST MARCH

On the first drive, a 15-yard penalty put the Skippers back to their 25 but Ziem hit Tom Hoke with a 19-yard pass to keep things going. After Hoke, Mike Alsup and Dave Kline had alternated carrying to the Farmington 24, Ziem hit Hoke on third down with a 10-yarder.

Alsup broke loose over right tackle on the next play and raced to the end zone. Dave Farris' placement put the Skippers in front, 7-6.

Waterford stormed 56 yards the next time it had the ball with Ziem making 21 yards on a keeper and then sneaking the final three on two carries.

Farris' kick warmed the Waterford partisans among the 2,500 homecoming crowd. It proved to be the winning point.

★ ★ ★

Farmington scored on a freak play early in the fourth period.

The Falcons, who were still trying to move via the airways, found some running room and marched 75 yards for the final TD.

They were stymied on the Waterford seven. Charles passed on fourth down and Dave Roemensky of the Skippers apparently intercepted in the end zone.

But Roemensky, whose hands were heavily taped, couldn't hold the ball in the freezing weather and the pigskin scooted away from him into the waiting arms of Farmington's Roy Leach.

Waterford finished I-L play with a 2-1 record and is 4-1-1 over-all.

Milford Nears W-O Title; Troy Upset in O-A

Holly Routs Clarkston but Lakers Defeated

By JERE CRAIG

Holly, Bloomfield Hills and Brighton ran up impressive point totals but it was two Milford touchdowns that made the biggest news in Friday's Wayne-Oakland League results.

Milford celebrated homecoming by outlasting Northville, 14-7, in a hard fought contest before a large crowd at the Redskins' new, impressive gridiron layout.

The victory was Milford's first over Northville since 1947 and kept them solidly atop the W-O flag chase with a 5-0 loop mark.

Holly stayed close behind by whipping Clarkston, 40-20, as Mark Phalen scored four times. The Broncos now are 4-1, having lost only to Milford.

Bloomfield Hills tied Northville for third place at 3-2 by coming from behind for a 39-7 victory over Livonia Clarence ville.

SHOCKER

And Brighton shocked visiting West Bloomfield, 26-7, for its first win of the year and a happy homecoming. The Bulldogs equalled their season touchdown total by scoring four six-pointers in the first half.

Jim Ward of Milford scored twice to give the Redskins a 14-0 lead which their big defensive line then protected through the second half, although being penetrated for one Northville scoring thrust.

After more than 20 minutes of feel-em-out football, Milford mounted a drive in Mustang territory that broke the scoring ice with 26 seconds remaining in the first half.

On a fourth-and-two play at the 20, Ward ran nine yards to the 11. Quarterback Gary Newcomb on the next play passed to Ward at the goal line and the shifty halfback outsmarted two Northville defenders to take the aerial and step into paydirt.

Leading 7-0, Milford forced Northville to punt after the second half kickoff. Mike Yeager caught the ball at the Redskins' 45, handed off to Ward on a reverse and the latter streaked down the left sideline 56 yards to score.

A 13-yard scoring run by fleet Kent Klpfer narrowed the gap in the fourth quarter.

Holly's Phalen opened the scoring at Clarkston on a one-yard plunge. Bill Stark's 34 pass-run play made it 14-0 in the first quarter.

CLOSE GAP

Clarkston cut the gap to 14-7, but Phalen then tallied twice, going over on a 25-yard pass-run play and an eight-yard run. His fourth six-pointer, a seven yard run, initiated the second half scoring and put the game out of Clarkston's reach.

Mike Kraatz went over twice for Bloomfield Hills as it bounced back against Clarenceville. The visiting Trojans scored on the game's first scrimmage play, a 68-yard scamper by Ray Parker.

But Dave Robillard caught a touchdown pass of 14 yards from Tom Carney, Kraatz caught one of nine yards and ran nine yards for scores, Carney went five yards and Bill Pappas three before coach Bill Tunnicliff turned the offense over to the reserves.

They too drove to paydirt with sophomore Randy DeArment carrying the ball over from the one. In all, Tunnicliff had eight sophomores gaining valuable experience for next year and stamping the Barons as definitely on the rebound.

West Bloomfield lost six fumbles, four in the first half and Brighton was quick to take advantage of the miscues.

The Bulldogs went over twice in each of the first two periods while the visiting Lakers could only counter with a seven-yard end run by quarterback Greg Hepinstall.

Quarterback Bob Cameron passed to Mike Stillwagon (46 yards) for the first six-pointer, sneaked over from the one, and passed to Mike Fournier (37 yards) for the final six-pointer.

Almont Ends Dryden Hopes

Dryden's dream of football greatness became a nightmare last night.

The high-flying Cardinals were shot down by the opponents they rented the field from for Dryden's home games. And to add insult to the end of a five-game winning streak, it was Dryden's homecoming.

Almont's Harry Hoffner riddled the vaunted Dryden defense for 159 yards rushing and two touchdowns as the Raiders posted a convincing 26-6 victory.

Dryden, Almont and New Haven are tied for first place in the Southern Thumb Conference with 4-1 records.

New Haven routed Memphis, 39-0, as Lamont Harris scored three touchdowns and Anchor Bay stunned Brown City, 33-20, in other league action. Armada hosts Capac this afternoon.

Gone is Dryden's No. 5 rating in the state Class C poll, but the Cardinals are still in a good position to tie for the championship.

MUST WIN

They can win it outright by beating their last two foes and if Almont and New Haven tie next week. Otherwise, either Almont or the Rockets will tie Dryden.

Almont was not too highly rated before the season, but the Raiders have come on strong and last night's big victory should make believers out of those who had doubts.

Led by Hoffner, the Raiders made a shambles of Dryden's ground defense that was rated the best in the league. Almont rolled up 290 rushing and 59 passing.

Hoffner scored in the first and second periods on three-yard slants as the Raiders gained a 12-6 halftime lead.

They put the game away in the fourth period with two more touchdowns including a 25-yard TD pass from quarterback Larry Schulte to Steve Woinikowski.

Larry Millikin got the other on a four-yard slat.

Dryden's lone touchdown was scored in the second quarter on an eight-yard run by quarterback Tom Sterner. The Cardinal signal caller, who had been having good passing performances, completed only four of 11 and had two intercepted.

Tackle Wayne Tessmer, guard Gary Hayes and Millikin, a linebacker, were credited with stand out defensive play for the Raiders. Dryden had a total offense of 139 yards, well under its average for the season.

Millikin and Ken Schulte picked up extra points on runs.

Rochester 11 Trips Orion; Avon Loses

By HERB PETERS

What was shaping up to be a runaway race in the Oakland-A Conference suddenly became a wide-open scramble last night among five teams.

Clawson saw to that by upsetting previously unbeaten Troy, 21-20, to halt an otherwise easy lope to the title by the Colts.

Rochester and Fitzgerald (tied at 3-1-1 drew within a half-game of Troy, and Madison matched Clawson (3-2) a game behind the leaders.

The Falcons blasted winless Lake Orion, 39-12, Fitzgerald eased past Avondale, 20-12, and Madison overpowered Warren Cousino, 31-19.

Three extra-point conversions by Joe Dillon gave Clawson its winning margin.

The Trojans stunned Troy in the first period with an eight-yard scoring thrust by Terry Maznio and Jeff Volk's 35-yard scamper after picking up a Colt fumble.

Troy came back in the second quarter for a 14-14 tie on a 25-yard jaunt by Ken Holder, a 15-yard burst by Jeff Quandt, and Holder's two conversions.

Clawson regained the lead with 38 seconds remaining in the first half, Dave Kedrow passed to end Phil Strittmatter for a 35-yard touchdown.

KICK WIDE

Holder gave the Colts new life in the final stanza when he raced 90 yards to score, but his attempt for the extra point was wide.

Rochester ran up a 26-0 lead and then shared a four-touchdown outburst with the Dragons in the last five minutes.

Sandy Sutton passed 26 yards to Al Boughner and tallied twice himself on one-yarders as the Falcons built a 20-0 margin in the first half.

Boughner went 23 yards for a third period touchdown before the explosive finale. Roger Trimble put Lake Orion on the scoreboard with a seven yard sprint, and Jim Ball sneaked one yard for a Falcon equalizer.

Fans who made an early exit missed some fireworks. With 28 seconds to go, Terry Brookens sped 23 yards for an Orion TD. Ty Gill then took the kickoff and returned it 90 yards for Rochester's final touchdown.

Avondale fell behind 20-0 before scoring twice in the fourth quarter. Lynn Thorpe fired a 20-yard aerial to Dick Reddaway for one and smashed five yards for the other.

Fitzgerald went ahead 14-0 the first period on runs of 35 and 25 yards by Ken Mooney. Jim Harvey made a 40-yard runback with a pass interception for the Spartans' final tally in the fourth.

Before the pass interception, the Yellow Jackets threatened twice, once reaching the Fitzgerald five in the third period.

Madison and Cousino dueled through a 7-7 first period, and then the Eagles kept moving ahead. After Madison drove 70 yards capped by Lloyd Hood's 15-yard run, Cousion retaliated with a 30-yard pass from Drew Pisha to Dave Buckhardt.

Jerry Dash cruised 35 yards and plunged one for TD's in the second period before Pisha connected again on a 40-yard pass to Buckhardt as the Eagles led 19-13 at halftime.

Hood raised the margin with a five-yard smash in the third quarter. Ray Cook rambled 25 yards in the fourth before Pisha threw his third TD pass, a 60-yard gainer to Mario Contrera.

Lancers Make Point Against Oxford 11

Oxford tried valiantly last night to take the importance away from L'Anse Creuse's next game.

But the Wildcats finally folded under the Lancers' relentless pressure and lost, 26-6. Two fourth-period touchdowns clinched L'Anse's second league win against no losses and a tie.

Had Oxford managed to pull an upset, the Lancers game next week against Kettering would have been meaningless because the Captains would already have taken the crown.

As it stands now, however, the Lancers can take all the honors by derailing unbeaten Kettering.

L'Anse started the game like it was going to run the Wildcats off the field.

John Plonka returned the opening kickoff 53 yards to the Oxford 42 and eight plays later blasted over from the five.

Mickey Cummings then electrified the Oxford fans by grabbing the kickoff and racing 91 yards up the middle for the equalizer.

That's the way things stood until a short punt got the Wildcats in trouble in the second quarter.

The Lancers took control on the Oxford 25 and four plays later Randy McConnel went the final two yards on a quarterback sneak. Oxford held the Lancers at bay in the third period, but finally wilted.

McConnell hit paydirt on a seven-yard run and Steve Skelton punched over from the five in the fourth quarter.

The setback was Oxford's third straight in league play and leaves the 1963 cochampions in desperate need of a victory over Romeo next week to avoid last place for 1964. The Wildcats are 2-4 overall.

Wisner Field Has Twin Bill

St. Mike vs. WOLL; Rams to Play ROSM

A championship showdown and an unusual Sunday double feature at Wisner Stadium headline the Northwest Catholic League schedule.

Orchard Lake St. Mary can sew up the league title by remaining unbeaten against Detroit St. Agatha in their 2:30 p.m. tilt at OLSM.

The Eagles have won five straight without a loss while Agatha has taken its first four games this year. OLSM will rate a slight favorite in the contest.

Another 2:30 p.m. game will see Waterford Our Lady of Lakes visit St. Michael in a renewal of that fast-growing rivalry.

RECENT MOVE

WOLL coach Bob Mineweaser spent many years at the Pontiac school's coaching spot before moving to the Lakers' helm.

The latter is still seeking its first win of the season in the league. St. Mike, meanwhile, could close in on Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows third place by winning.

FOLS has a non-league tilt with St. Gertrude.

The other half of the Wisner twin bill features Royal Oak St. Mary at St. Frederick in a rare 7:30 p.m. Sunday encounter. The visitors, also, are seeking to climb closer to Farmington OLS.

St. Frederick remains winless in loop play through its last nine tries, also possessing a non-league triumph over Emmanuel Christian.

Birmingham Brother Rice will go after its first win in two seasons when it plays host to Detroit Salesian at 2:30 p.m.; and Ferndale St. James will risk its unbeaten mark at St. Rita in other Sunday parochial tilts.

Romeo Rips Imlay, 39-19

Romeo and Imlay City played a wild scoring game last night with eight players figuring in the touchdowns and Romeo was on the big side of the result, 39-19.

Imlay took a 6-0 lead with Dale Goodrich went over from the seven in the first period, but then Lee Stewart broke loose 77 yards and Jim Boggs converted to make it 7-6.

In the second quarter Bob Rowley took a 25-yard pass from Rod Rohloff and Mike Simunic went two yards with five seconds left in the half to give Romeo a 19-6 lead at intermission.

In the third quarter Rowley took a 37-yard aerial from Rohloff and Mike Lock went two yards to boost the margin to 32-6, but then Imlay scored two quickies in the 4th period.

Rick Bogart took an 8-yard pass from Goodrich and Mike Schoenfeld an 18-yarder from Goodrich for a pair of TDs. Schoenfeld made the PAT to make it read 32-19.

With 30 seconds left in the game Mike Pokorney grabbed a 68-yard pass play from Rohloff and Phil Sweeney converted.

Romeo piled up 408 yards with 275 rushing. The three passes of four attempts by Rohloff all went for touchdowns.

Bantamweight Hopeful Pulls Out of Title Fight

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — San Antonio lost what would have been its first world's championship fight when Jesus Pimentel, who was to meet bantamweight champion Eder Jofre, closed his training camp and went back to California.

His manager, Harry Kabakoff, said Friday that Pimentel withdrew because he feared he would lose his lifcense for life in California.

The fight was scheduled for next Wednesday night here.

There were other reasons advanced. The San Antonio News said Kabakoff and promoter George Parnassus argued over a demand that $15,000 be given Pimentel before the fight.

Parnassus, a Los Angeles promoter working with local promoter Tony Padilla, reportedly said he would pay after the fight, as usual.

POOR ADVANCE

Parnassus also had been disappointed with advance ticket sales. Less than $20,000 had been taken in when the ticket booth was closed. Parnassus had said $80,000 was necessary for the break-even point.

Jofre, the Brazilian, had been guaranteed $40,000 and all expenses. Pimental was to get $15,000 and expenses.

Pimentel was under suspension in California for failure to go through with a bout earlier this year with Fighting Harada of Japan. However, Texas Boxing Commissioner Alton Erickson had approved the title fight here since Texas and California are not members of the World Boxing Association.

Erickson said he didn't know what action his commission could take against Pimentel since he was not licensed in this state.

Kabakoff said he had been notified by the California Athletic Commission that if he went through with the Jofre fight not only he and Pimentel, but anyone connected with it, such as seconds, trainers and such, would draw suspensions.

Kabakoff said the California commission had granted a hearing for Nov. 6 and he thought everything would be cleared up then. He added that there is a possibility that the Jofre-Pimental bout may be staged in Los Angeles in a few months.

Bullets Purchased by Eastern Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Baltimore Bullets of the National Basketball Association have been purchased by three Washington men for an amount upwards of $1 million.

The purchase, subject to approval by the NBA board of governors, was made by Earl Foreman, executive vice president of the Philadelphia Eagles football team; Arnold Heft, builder and former professional basketball referee, and Abe Pollin, also a builder.

The Washington Post said it was learned that the Bullets will stay in Baltimore. Plans also call for Buddy Jeannette to continue as coach.

Mickey Wright Has Thunderbird Lead

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Blonde Mickey Wright of Dallas, queen of the women pro golfers, moved to the front in the $11,000 Phoenix Thunderbird Ladies Open Friday as first round leader Althea Gibson was disqualified for an incorrect score card.

Other leading first day golfers also fell back.

Miss Wright, nine-time winner this year on the ladies PGA tour but a victor only once in four tournaments after being treated for an ulcer, shot a one-over-par 73 Friday.

Lower Prices in Beef Trade

CHICAGO (AP) — Continued liberal receipts of cattle and lower prices in the wholesale dressed beef trade resulted this week in a further downturn for slaughter steers and heifers.

★ ★ ★

Trading on steers and heifers was generally slow with steers off 25 to 50 cents for the week and heifers steady to down 50 cents. Dressed steer beef declined 50 cents to $1 and heifer beef was off $1. Receipts of cattle were 35,600 head compared with 36,300 a week ago.

★ ★ ★

Top prices for slaughter steers was $26.50.

Hope Seen for Weekend GM Strike End

Market Ends Week With Slight Upturn

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market this week squeezed out a gain amid hope that the strike against General Motors would be halted this weekend.

The market was strong in the first two sessions, took losses on the next two days, and ended the week with a slight upturn after a dubious session.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 2.8 to 331.2.

Wall Street seemed reassured on Monday by the fact that the changeover in Russian leadership and the Chinese explosion of an atom bomb had brought no immediate consequences of a dire nature.

While the strike against GM dragged through its fourth week, the steel industry reported demand still strong. Weekly steel production rose substantially.

The steel stocks responded to these good tidings. Meanwhile, copper stocks received another upward thrust from news that the world price of copper had soared to a record high.

The market underwent a moderate decline on Thursday. Disappointment over Chrysler's third quarter earnings and its dividend action were a prominent feature of this drop.

The mild decline resumed on Friday and prevailed for most of the session. Toward the end, however, the market began to rally and ended with a slight gain, under the leadership of GM which advanced on hopes of a strike settlement.

★ ★ ★

The stock market closed an hour and a half early on Friday in respect to the memory of Herbert Hoover. The week's volume was 23,905,310 shares compared with 25,896,020 the previous week.

Set Ceremony for Buildings

FLINT (AP) — Ground-breaking ceremonies are to be held Tuesday for two units of the Flint College and Cultural Center—the $2.7 million James H. Whiting Auditorium and the $339,000 Alfred P. Sloan Jr. Panorama of Transportation.

★ ★ ★

The auditorium, named for a late Flint industrialist and financier, will be a 2,100-seat theater-type building. The Sloan building, expected to be the first of three units of a general museum, is named for the honorary board chairman of General Motors Corp.

Trading Mixed on Grain Mart

Soybeans, Corn Dip; Wheat on Increase

CHICAGO (AP)—The volume of trade in soybeans and corn futures slowed but transactions in wheat increased this week on the Board of Trade.

Pricewise, six of the seven soybean deliveries finished the week lower while the grains advanced.

Soybeans paced the grains in volume, as they have for a long time, but the total amount traded was much smaller than in recent weeks.

For the four-day period through Thursday, the volume of trade in soybeans was 206 million bushels, compared with 290 million a week ago. Transactions in corn involved 63.1 million bushels, down 4 million compared with last week. Wheat volume for the period was 31.5 million bushels, an increase of about a million bushels.

Soybeans maintained advances through Thursday but heavy selling Friday erased earlier gains and prices receded below those at the close a week ago.

Firmnss in soybean oils imparted strength to bean futures most of the week. Larger exports of beans for the season thus far, compared with a year ago, also influenced higher prices until Friday's selloff which resulted in declines that ranged up to nearly three cents a bushel.

★ ★ ★

Wheat was quiet most of the period with little incentive to stir much interest in the bread grain.

Wheat prices sagged about midweek but increased Friday on buying influenced by complaints of dry weather in central and southwest growing areas and a five day outlook for little or no moisture.

At the close of trading Friday, soybeans were 1 cent a bushel lower to 1⅝ cents higher than a week ago. Wheat was ½ to 1⅜ cents higher, corn ¼ to ⅝ higher, oats ¼ to 1 higher and rye was unchanged to ½ cent higher.

WEEK OF GAIN—The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced from 328.4 in the preceding period to 331.2 as the market closed yesterday. The commodity index moved higher this week, climbing to 164.9 from 164.7. Grains showed the largest gain.

Price Change on Bond Mart Is Undramatic

NEW YOR K (AP) — Bond prices were a bit stronger during the past week, but the narrow range of trading continued to reflect uncertainty about domestic and international fiscal policy.

Prices of U.S. Treasury bonds advanced during the week more than in any week since mid-September. Of the 39 issues traded, 38 went up and one was unchanged.

The changes were not dramatic and the uptrend had softened by Friday, when more issues declined than advanced in price.

On the international scene the new British Labor government did not increase the interest rate charged by the Central Bank for money it loans its members. The lack of action tended to bolster U.S. bond prices.

Financiers have been watching the British situation closely, since a boost in the present 5 per cent British interest discount rate would tend to influence the U.S. Federal Reserve Board attitude toward its own 3½ per cent interest rate charged member banks.

Job Increase Belies Figures

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Jobs have been increasing much faster than government statistics might indicate. And contrary to the widely held view that jobs are disappearing, the U.S. economy has been producing new ones at a rate that outstrips the gain in the working age population.

DAWSON

This challenge to the government statistics on the percentage of the labor force that can't find work is made by the economists of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, Mo.

The official unemployment rate has held stubbornly above 5 per cent, except for one month, for several years. This has been dubbed one of the most serious shortcomings of an otherwise largely prosperous economy.

The bank contends that the economy's job-producing achievement has been downgraded because the wrong basis of comparison is used.

Using the actual payrolls, the economists find that employment has been rising faster and higher than the other — or total employment —data indicates. And in relation to the population growth in the working ages, the increase in jobs has been marked.

ANNUAL RATE

Tending to support this view are the help-wanted ads in many newspapers across the country. Most are showing gains this fall, and the volume is well above the year-ago lineage.

Both the total employment and the payroll employment data of the Labor Department have shown goods gains since the economy started upward early in 1961.

★ ★ ★

But the bank points out that the commonly used total employment figure has risen during 3½ years at an annual rate of 1.7 per cent.

This has kept the unemployment percentage of the labor force disturbingly high.

ANNUAL GAIN

The payroll employment data, however, shows a 2.9 per cent annual gain. And since the first of the year the increase has averaged 3.1 per cent. This gives the economy far better marks for creating jobs, despite automation, ends obsolesence, and the school drop-out problem.

For those out of work, the statistical difference will be small comfort. But for appraising the U.S. economy's potential it affords hope of still better days to come.

BEST DESIGN—Ford Motor Co. styling chief Gene Bordinat (left), 1455 Lakewood, Bloomfield Hills, accepts the Industrial Designers' Institute top award for the styling of the 1965 Ford Mustang. Jon Hauser, IDI president, presented the award to Bordinat and the Mustang styling team.

Business Notes

For the third successive year, Ex-Cell-O Corp.'s Annual Report has won a first place award, the bronze Oscar-of-Industry for being the best in the machine tool industry.

The bronze Oscar will be accepted by Ex-Cell-O treasurer Edward J. Giblin, 1365 Fairfax, Birmingham, at a banquet Oct. 27 in New York City. Giblin was instrumental in coordinating the details of writing and producing the report.

Horatio B. Lewis II, 600 Covington, Bloomfield Township, recently attended a meeting of the National Institute of Diaper Services at Lake Tahoe, Nev.

Lewis, vice president of Dydee Wash, Inc., Detroit, also participated in a directors meeting of the Diaper Service Industry Association in Las Vegas and a convention of the American Institute of Laundering in Denver, Colo. before returning home.

Two Area Osteopaths Listed on Program

Two Pontiac area doctors, Dr. Robert O. Fagan, 6330 Commerce, Orchard Lake and Dr. John P. Wood, 664 Rudgate, Bloomfield Hills, will appear on the program of the American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedics during the annual clinical assembly in New York Oct. 25-28.

More than 1,500 osteopathic physicians and hospital executives will attend.
